THE SPIRIT.

"The spirit of Yahweh came upon Gideon" Judg. 6:34.

A preincarnational ... took possession of him. God can extend His spirit for that purpose, or the ... dilation and study of the Spirit-Word might motivate one.

See also Balaam. Num. 24:2.

"The wise-hearted whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom" Exod. 28:3. They were drawn towards His wisdom for they were "wise-hearted" - and Yahweh blessed their desire to extend their knowledge. They made an effort which He blessed and so by His mutual co-operation their natural talents were improved & increased & they were endowed with wisdom & power to accomplish His purpose. See also Bezaleel. Exod. 31:3.

EXTENSIONS OF GOD'S SPIRIT

TO THE MOST HIGH AND MIGHTY PRINCE JAMES, BY THE GRACE OF GOD, KING OF GREAT BRITAIN, FRANCE, AND IRELAND, DEFENDER OF THE FAITH, Etc., THE TRANSLATORS OF THE BIBLE WISH GRACE, MERCY, AND PEACE, THROUGH JESUS CHRIST OUR LORD.

GREAT and manifold were the blessings, most dread Sovereign, which Almighty God, the Father of all mercies, bestowed upon us the people of England, when first he sent Your Majesty's Royal Person to rule and reign over us. For whereas it was the expectation of many, who wished not well unto our Sion, that upon the setting of that bright Occidental Star, Queen Elizabeth of most happy memory, some thick and palpable clouds of darkness would so have overshadowed this Land, that men should have been in doubt which way they were to walk; and that it should hardly be known, who was to direct the unsettled State; the appearance of Your Majesty, as of the Sun in his strength, instantly dispelled those supposed and surmised mists, and gave unto all that were well affected exceeding cause of comfort; especially when we beheld the Government established in Your Highness, and Your hopeful Seed, by an undoubted Title, and this also accompanied with peace and tranquillity at home and abroad.

But among all our joys, there was no one that more filled our hearts, than the blessed continuance of the preaching of God's sacred Word among us; which is that inestimable treasure, which excelleth all the riches of the earth; because the fruit thereof extendeth itself, not only to the time spent in this transitory world, but directeth and disposeth men unto that eternal happiness which is above in heaven.

Then not to suffer this to fall to the ground, but rather to take it up, and to continue it in that state, wherein the famous Predecessor of Your Highness did leave it: nay, to go forward with the confidence and resolution of a Man in maintaining the truth of Christ, and propagating it far and near, is that which hath so bound and firmly knit the hearts of all Your Majesty's loyal and religious people unto You, that Your very name is precious among them: their eye doth behold You with comfort, and they bless You in their hearts, as that sanctified Person, who, under God, is the immediate Author of their true happiness. And this their contentment doth not diminish or decay, but every day increaseth and taketh strength, when they observe, that the zeal of Your Majesty toward the house of God doth not slack or go backward, but is more and more kindled, manifesting itself abroad in the farthest parts of Christendom, by writing in defence of the Truth, (which hath given such a blow unto that man of sin, as will not be healed,) and every day at home, by religious and learned discourse, by frequenting the house of God, by hearing the Word preached, by cherishing the Teachers thereof, by caring for the Church, as a most tender and loving nursing Father.

There are infinite arguments of this right christian and religious affection in Your Majesty; but none is more forcible to declare it to others than the vehement and perpetuated desire of accomplishing and publishing of this work, which now with all humility we present unto Your Majesty. For when Your Highness had once out of deep judgment apprehended how convenient it was, that out of the Original Sacred Tongues, together with comparing of the labours, both in our own, and other foreign Languages, of many worthy men who went before us, there should be one more exact Translation of the holy Scriptures into the English Tongue; Your Majesty did never desist to urge and to excite those to whom it was commended, that the work might be hastened, and that the business might be expedited in so decent a manner, as a matter of such importance might justly require.

And now at last, by the mercy of God, and the continuance of our labours, it being brought unto such a conclusion, as that we have great hopes that the Church of England shall reap good fruit thereby; we hold it our duty to offer it to Your Majesty, not only as to our King and Sovereign, but as to the principal Mover and Author of the work: humbly craving of Your most Sacred Majesty, that since things of this quality have ever been subject to the censures of illmeaning and discontented persons, it may receive approbation and patronage from so learned and judicious a Prince as Your Highness is, whose allowance and acceptance of our labours shall more honour and encourage us, than all the calumniations and hard interpretations of other men shall dismay us. So that if, on the one side, we shall be traduced by Popish Persons at home or abroad, who therefore will malign us, because we are poor instruments to make God's holy Truth to be yet more and more known unto the people, whom they desire still to keep in ignorance and darkness; or if, on the other side, we shall be maligned by selfconceited Brethren, who run their own ways, and give liking unto nothing, but what is framed by themselves, and hammered on their anvil; we may rest secure, supported within by the truth and innocency of a good conscience, having walked the ways of simplicity and integrity, as before the Lord; and sustained without by the powerful protection of Your Majesty's grace and favour, which will ever give countenance to honest and christian endeavours against bitter censures and uncharitable imputations.

The Lord of heaven and earth bless Your Majesty with many and happy days, that, as his heavenly hand hath enriched Your Highness with many singular and extraordinary graces, so You may be the wonder of the world in this latter age for happiness and true felicity, to the honour of that great GOD, and the good of his Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord and only Saviour.

A Talker - Dictionary of Proper Names

AMORITES. A tribe descended from Canaan Gen. 10:16, one of the seven whose lands were given to Israel Deut. 7:1 Cp Gen. 15:16. The name signifies "the high one" from whence the name is generally supposed to mean "highlanders" or mountaineers Num. 13:29; Deut. 1:7,20; Josh. 10:6 or "tall ones" Amos 2:9; Cp. Num. 13:33; Deut. 2:11.

The Amorites were so prominent that their name seems sometimes to be used for Canaanites in general Josh. 24:18. In the Tel-el-Amarna letters "Amurri" is the name for Palestine-Phoenicia.

In Abraham's day they dwelt W. of the Dead Sea, in Hazezon-tamar Gen. 14:7 which is Engedi 2 Chr. 20:2, and about Hebron Gen. 14:13. Two Amorite kingdoms were later located E. of the Jordan - those of Sihon and Og Deut. 3:4,9. The next collision with Amorites was with the anti-Gibeonite Amorite confederacy Josh. 10:1-43. They were also found in the northern confederacy defeated by Joshua Josh. 11:1-14. This was the last hostile stand by the Amorites. In the days of Samuel they were at peace with Israel 1 Sam. 7:14. Solomon levied on the remnant of the Amorites and of the other Canaanite nations a tribute of bond service 1 Kg 9:20-21. Subsequent notices are mere historical reminiscences.

The Akkadians called the Amorites "Amurru" and in the third millenium B.C. Syria-Palestine was called "the land of the Amorites." The First Dynasty of Babylon (1830-1550 B.C.) was Amorite, u its most illustrious King, Hammurabi the Great (1728-1686 BC) conquered the Amorite capital Mari (Tell Hariri) on the Middle Euphrates near present-day Abou Kemal. The dynasty of Babylon fell when the Hittites sacked Babylon 1550 B.C. Thousands of clay tablets from the archives of an Amorite King at Mari are now in the Louvre Museum in Paris as the result of the excavations of that ancient Amorite centre since 1933 by Andre Parrot. From the palace archives of Zimri-Lim, the last King of Mari, over 20,000 tablets were recovered, a large number representing diplomatic correspondence of this King with his own ambassadors and with the great Hammurabi himself. The Mari letters shed remarkable light on the customs recounted in the patriarchal narratives of Genesis. — Amended from Unger Dic

ANOINTING. Heb. MÂSHACH (Messiah) Gr. CHRIO (Christ) to rub. Persons and things set apart for sacred purposes were anointed with the oil of holy ointment Exod. 30:23-26; 29:27. This ceremony was used particularly for the installation of prophets 1 Kings 19:16 Kings 1 Sam. 16:12 and priests Ps. 133 into their respective offices. From Isa. 61:1 it appears that to so consecrate a person to such an office was considered as the emblem of divine endorsement of his position as well as indicating that the gifts and graces of the Holy Spirit would be with him to perform his office. Thus the prophet spoke through Inspiration; the King ruled by divine authority administering the divine law; the priest ministered by divine grace for he mediated effectively only as he was enlightened, influenced and guided by Yahweh through His spirit Word.

The verb MASHACH, to anoint, provides the base for MASHIACH, the anointed person. The title The Messiah is from HAMMASHIACH, the Anointed One, ho Christos in Greek.

Anointing with the special oil was indicative of the endorsement of Yahweh of the person or thing so anointed, setting forth the idea of Him outpouring His spirit to that end. The first example of anointing u that of Jacob pouring oil upon the pillar set upat Bethel Gen. 28:18.

Other objects included the unleavened wafers offered at the consecration of the priests indicative of the Bread of Life John. 6:33-35. The Altar Exod. 29:36 - Heb. 13:10. The tabernacle etc Exod. 30:26 - Heb. 8:2. The Laver Exod. 40:11 - Eph. 5:26.

All of this is summed up in the Messiah himself Dan. 9:24.

The reverence attached to the act of anointing is indicated by David's refusal to touch harm Saul when it was in his power to rid himself of his bitter enemy. 1 Sam. 24:4-6,10 1 Sam. 26:8-11,16,23. 2 Sam. 1:14,16.

Saints are anointed a so consecrated by the Truth they receive 1 Jhn. 2:27. 1 Jhn. 2:20.

ANGER. A Divine characteristic Exod. 4:14 Mk 3:5. To be guarded against Eph. 4:26; Tit. 1:7. Heb 'APH - nostrils - from rapid breathing in passion. Zech 8:17. • False worship Hos. 9:15; Rev. 2:6,15. • Divorce Mal. 2:16

ACCHO — Jud. 1:31. Only place mentioned in O.T. A few miles north of Carmel, on the north side of a broad bay it was an important stronghold in the ancient world from the times of Egypt to Syria. It was the scene of bitter fighting between the Crusaders & Saracens. At one time it was taken at the expense of 100,000 Crusaders, but occupied by them for 100 years. It was the last so-called Christian stronghold in Palestine in 1291 A.D. Since then it suffered many sieges by Egyptians, French, English & Turks. Napoleon's M.E campaign failed at this point, & the army defeated & devastated by disease had to retreat. It is named Ptolemais in N.T Acts 21:7 and an Ecclesia was established there. It is now known as Acre in Israel.

ANGER — 4 reasons for Yahweh anger waxing hot.

1. Oppression of widows, orphans & strangers Exod. 22:21-24.
2. Stubbornness & idolatry. Exod. 32:8-4; Deut 9:19-22; Jud 2:11-17; 3:7-8; 10:6-18.
3. Forsaking & forgetting Him Jud. 2:12; 3:7.
4. Sin Ps. 6:1; 38:1-5.

BEN HADAD 1 Kings 15:18 : Confirmation of the Geneology of Ben-Hadad - Son of the god Hadad or Ben-Hadad I was found at the discovery of the inscribed stele of Ben-Hadad I. in North Syria in 1940. W.F. Albright's rendering of it is identical with that of 1 Kg 15:18.

By the time Ben Hadad entered into the succession of Syrian Kings Syria had become the strongest state in this region of W. Asia + was ready to seize any opportunity to increase its territories. The strength of Syria is indicated by the appeal of Asa for help against Baasha of Israel. 1 Kg 15:18-21.

Whereas formerly it was believed that Ben-Hadad I was succeeded by Ben Hadad II after a short reign, the inscription referred to above would identify them as one and would indicate a long and vigorous reign. In that case 1 Kings 20:24 would identify the "father" with an earlier Syrian ruler.

With the help of Yahweh + his own outstanding strategy Ahab defeated Ben-Hadad I as recorded in 1 Kg 20:1-21 And again the following year at Aphek 1 Kings 20:22-34.

The next year, however the appearance + threat of Shalmanezer III of Assyria compelled Ben-Hadad and Ahab to align themselves in a coalition to oppose him. This is unrecorded in scripture but is recorded on the Monolith Inscription in the British Museum. Both kings are mentioned. Ahab supplied 2000 chariots + 10000 infantry, and Ben Hadad 20,000 infantry + 1200 chariots. The battle was fought at Karkar north of Hamath in the Orontes Valley. Shalmaneser's invasion was not very successful in spite of his extravagant boasts. In BC 848 Shalmaneser again attacked + was met by a coalition of "twelve kings of the seaboard" headed by Adadidri (Ben-Hadad). Ben Hadad I's long + energetic reign came to an end about B.C. 843 + By B.C. 841 Hazael, an influential official, had succeeded to the throne.

BEN HADAD II succeeded Hazael (841-801). Israel began to regain its fortunes against him. However, in the north, he manifested strength as indicated on the stele of Zakir King of Hamath discovered in 1903 at modern Afis SW of Aleppo by H. Pognon. There on "Bar Hadad, son of Hazael King of Aram" is represented as leading a coalition against "Zakir King of Hamath + Lu'ash". Two powerful independent states, Hamath + Lu'ash presented a serious threat to Syria, already weakened by his losses to Israel. Ben-Hadad + Hacked but was defeated. His weakness contributed to the strength of Jeroboam II. See Unger.

AION = From "aei" - "To live, pass or spend time."
"ON" - The particle of that verb of existence which expresses the highest mode of being. Aion is not time long or short, bounded or endless. It is used in the indefinite sense of life, existence or state of being.
Thus the end which contains the period of each existence is called its Aion. The Aion of man is 70 years. The Aion of Deity is from everlasting to everlasting. It is therefore a course of time "aei" circling around being "on" the circling depending upon the nature of the thing circled. Hence Deity being the centre of life, the circling of time can never cease in relation to Him
But priesthood and man being essentially terminable the circling of time around them cannot always

THE BODY

THE HEART Heb. LĒB. Gr. KARDIA. — Fig. The innermost centre of the natural condition of man, the life-power of the body. Gen. 18:5. Acts 14:17. • The rational-thinking part of man. When he determines upon anything, it is described as "presuming in his heart to do so." Esth 7:5. A strongly-determined person is said to "stand steadfast in his heart" 1 Cor. 7:37. What is done gladly, willingly, & of a set purpose, is done "from the heart" Rom. 6:17. • It is expressive of feelings generated by intellect. Thus it is the seat of love Jam. 1:5 and hatred Lev. 19:17. • To the Hebrews it was expressive of thought. The heart is described as knowing Deut. 29:4. Prov. 14:10. understanding Prov. 8:5. 10:8. 18. Acts 15:9, deliberates. Neh. 5:7 mg., reflects Luke 2:19, weighs up Prov. 16:9. • The heart is the centre of feeling & affection. — Joy Isa 12:14, Pain Prov. 15:13. Pain 11:6. Envy Prov. 23:17 Strife Jam. 3:14. Depression Prov. 15:13, Frustration Lam. 2:26. Terror Deut. 28:28, Ps. 143:4. Note the expression: "He that have performed the thoughts of his heart" Jer. 23:20. • The heart is the centre of moral life, the hidden spring of open manifestation. It can be humbled, strengthened, or lifted up in pride Ps. 78:36, Ezek. 28:2. It can be darkened Rom. 1:21, hardened so as not to understand Isa 6:10. 63:17; 2 Cor. 3:15. It is expressive of the intermediation 1 Pet. 3:4. the origin of all that is good and evil in thought word and deed Mt. 7:21; Mth. 12:34. Mk. 4:15. Rom. 10:6. Thus it is the hidden place of good or evil treasure Luke 6:45. the place where God's law can be inscribed Rom. 2:15. Isa. 51:7. and the Truth concealed Mic. 6:12. 1 Thes. 2:19-21. Mth. 13:19. Lk. 8:15. Christ can dwell in the heart Eph. 3:17. bringing peace to it Col. 3:15. and enabling therein the love of God Rom. 5:5 rejoicing in heart before Him Eph. 5:19. • The heart is therefore a figure of the innermost thought and feelings of an individual, such as might be hidden by the camouflage of convention or department. Thus it is expressive of the real man. When it ceases to beat he ceases to be.

THE KIDNEYS Heb. KILYAHOTH — fem. of KILIY - "prepared" An essential organ of the body offered in sacrifice Lev. 3:4. The kidneys are vital parts of the body which separate & help to expel poisons from it. When healthy possesses our reins in a figurative sense we have a spiritually healthy state Ps. 139:13. The reins are considered as the seat of desire, feeling, impulse, affection, and moral sentiments — doubtless because of their sensitiveness. • When a man is suffering most deeply within him, he is "pricked in his reins" Ps. 73:21. • When fretting affliction overcomes him, they are cloven asunder Job. 16:13. Lam. 3:13. • When he rejoices, they exult Prov. 23:16. • When filled with forebodings or warnings, they instruct him Ps. 16:7. • When he is overcome with desire, they consume him Job. 19:27. • God tries the reins Ps. 7:9. 26:2. Jer. 11:20. 17:10. 20:12. Rev. 2:23. • He is far from the reins of the ungodly Jer. 12:2. • But he possesses the reins of the righteous Ps. 139:13.

TOWER OF BABEL — The most conspicuous feature of a Bab sanctuary was its ZIKKurat — a huge pyramidal tower rising, often in 7 terraces, from the centre of the temple area, & crowned with a shrine at the top (Herod. I. 181). These structures appear to have embodied a half-cosmical, half-religious symbolism: the 7 storeys represented the 7 planetary deities as mediators between heaven and earth; the ascent of the tower was a meritorious approach to the gods; and the summit was regarded as the entrance to heaven.

The name Babel to Babylonians = House of God, but to the Hebrews = Confusion.

"The most famous of these edifices were those of E-sagil, the temple of Marduk in Babylon, and of E-zida, the temple of Nebo at Borsippa on the opposite bank of the river. The former bore the (Sumerian) name E-temen-an-ki (The house of the foundations of heaven and earth). It was restored by Nabo-polassar, who says that before him it had become "dilapidated and ruined," and that he was commanded by Marduk to "lay its foundations firm in the breast of the underworld, and make its top equal to heaven. The same expression occurs in an inscription of Nebuchadnezzar..... The ZIKKurat of E-zida was called E-ur-imin-an-ki (house of the seven stages of heaven and earth); its restorer Nebuchadnezzar tells us in an inscription found at its four corners, that it had been built by a former King, and raised to a height of 42 cubits; its top, however, had not been set up, and it had fallen into distrepair. The temple of Borsippa is entombed in Birs Nimrud — a huge mound still rising 153 ft above the plain — which local (and Jewish) tradition identifies with the tower of Gen. 11.

C. H. Livingston — "Beacon" — "These (ziggurats) were huge, artificial mounds made of brick, some rising to as much as 300 ft. above the surrounding plain. Placed in the centre of cities, they were topped by a temple to a pagan deity, and, in ancient inscriptions, are actually described as 'reaching to heaven.'"

"The oldest extant ziggurat is that at modern Uruk, Biblical Erech, modern Warka" (Unger.) "Both Assyrian & Babylonian Kings greatly prided themselves upon the height of their temples & boasted of having their tops as high as heaven." (Unger).

BLUE — • Blue is seen in the circumstances of 2 Sam. 21:4. • It was the first color seen in the veil emphasising that the Lord's glory is divine Jhn. 1:14. • The ribband of blue ensured that the true Israelite's walk was bounded by the consciousness of Yahweh's requirements Num. 15:38. • See the hypocrisy of the Pharisees who enlarged the borders of their garments. Mat. 23:5. • Cont. the hem of his garments. Mth. 9:20; 14:36. • Believers should bear in mind their heavenly calling Jhn 3:1; Heb. 3:1; Rev. 2:12. • In the veil blue & scarlet (see) were clashing colours - the former of heaven, the latter of earth (see scarlet) but purple became the blending colour. The blue of heaven thus blended with the scarlet of the earth.

CHEMOSH = subduer - Young. National deity of Moab - honoured with horribly cruel rites like those of Molech. The anger of Chemosh is said in the Moabite stone to be the reason for Israel's subjugation of Moab Cp Jud. 11:24. Unfortunately Solomon permitted an altar to be set up for Chemosh, 1 Kg 11:7. This abomination was not destroyed until Josiah's purge almost 300 yrs later 2 Kings 23:13. So infatuated were the Moabites with Chemosh that they were described as his children Num. 21:29. or worshippers par excellence of Chemosh.

Deut. 4:13. Ps. 105:8. Deut. 29:1.

NOAHIC: The Everlasting Covenant: Covenant of the Olam. The word Berith is from a root "to cut" and implies the provision of a covenant victim Heb. 9:15-17. Three words are used in describing the covenant • NATHAN - make: appoint or give Gen. 9:12 expressive of Divine grace • QUWM - establish, to cause to stand up Gen. 9:9, 11, 17. In ~~Hophal~~ Hiphil something that God has both caused to stand and ~~Gen. 9:6~~ raised up when fallen. Expressive of His omnipotence. • ZAKAR - remember. Gen. 9:15-16 To mark so as to remember and never forget. Expressive of His reliability; His unchangeableness in spite of all provocations Gen. 8:21; Ezek 16:21-22.

ABRAHAMIC: Similar principles were expressed. Perpetual generations Gen. 9:12; 17:9, everlasting covenant Gen. 9:16; 17:7,8, 13, 19. • Passed on to Israel. 1 Chr. 16:16-17; Ps. 105:8-10 • Confirmed with an oath Heb. 6:10-20. • Confirmed by Christ's offering Luke 1:68-75; Rom. 15:8-9.

"Cut off from his people" - Excommunicated. KÂRATH = To divide - the act of dividing a sacrifice and passing between the pieces. See Note Exod. 21:23,30.

CORIANDER Ex. 16:31; Num. 11:6-9 Heb. "GAD" from GÂDAD to crowd by pressing together. "The coriander is an umbelliferous plant with leaves like parsley. It is part of the carrot family, but is distinct from the true carrot in that its seeds or fruits are rounded and gray and the size of a peppercorn. They have a sharp though pleasant aroma. The Arabs find it a wholesome spice, as do the Egyptians and Indians who add it to their meat. It grows wild in Egypt • Palestine, & can be found in China. Bread with a taste of it flavored with Coriander & confectioners in Europe add it to their baked cakes & sweetmeats. Seeds planted in March or early Spring send up the annual stem to a height of 24 inches. The flowers are white or pinkish, & the leaves are finely cut. The seeds contain a valuable oil which provides the flavouring. Common & available in the Holy land, the plant was used as early as 1550 BC for culinary and medicinal purposes. This fact is substantiated by records found in the papyrus of Ebers & in the writings of Cato & Pliny.

CHALDEANS Kasdoyah - Wanderers. Ancient Chaldea (Khasdeem) was located in southern Babylonia in the area of Sumer. The Chaldeans were a warlike, aggressive people, apparently of Semitic origin from the mountains of Kurdistan. "Apparently they were Haldians (or Khaldians), the inhabitants of Urartu, i.e. Ararat or Armenia, who settled in southern Babylonia. In 731 B.C. Ukinzer, a Chaldean, made himself King of Babylon. He was deposed by Tiglath-pileser III in 728 who seized the throne of Babylon & ruled under the name of Pul. Pul was followed on the Assyrian throne by Shalmaneser IV (726-722 B.C.). He was succeeded in turn by Merodach-Baladan, a Chaldean ~~Isa. 39:1~~. He was conquered by Sargon but continued as King until 709 when Sargon reigned on Babylonia as well as Assyria. At the time of Hezekiah Merodach-Baladan, son of Baladan ruled in Babylon Isa. 39:1. It was not until about 625 B.C. that Chaldean power asserted itself over Assyria. Nabopolasser at that time rebelled against Assyria & established the new Babylonian empire.

The Chaldeans were an aristocratic caste in Babylon. Their proficiency in the science of astronomy, & their skilful practise of astrology established them as a special caste of astrologers. In this sense the word is used in the book of Daniel (2:2, 10; 4:7 etc.) the explanation of this specialised name is easily understood. Babylon, their capital, was the centre of intellectual life in all Western Asia. This intellectual activity was especially employed in the study of the stars, both scientific and as a means of divination. Babylon became famous as the centre of magicians, sorcerers, diviners and so forth. As scientists, the Chaldeans established the exact science of astronomy. For over a period of 360 years they kept meticulous astronomical records. One of their astounding contributions was to reckon a year of 365 days, 6 hours, 15 minutes & 41 seconds a calculation that measures within 30 minutes of what modern instruments have worked out.

DIABOLOS — From "diabollo" compounded of "dia" a preposition signifying "across" or "over," and of "ballo" to "throw" or "cast," "to fall" or "tumble." Thus "diabollo" signifies to "throw over" or "across," or "to pass over," or "cross." It is therefore a fit word to designate the "law of sin and death" or "human nature" which causes man to "cross over" the line of right established by Deity.

It also signifies to "traduce," "attack character," to "slander," "libel." Thirdly to "deceive," "mislead," "impose upon." Hence a TRADUCER, SLANDERER, DECEIVER, IMPOSTOR.

Rendered "SLANDERER" 1 Tim. 3:11
"FALSE ACCUSER" 2 Tim 3:3 Titus 2:3.

DEVILS — used for Idols in Lev. 17:7. 2 Chron. 11:15. Deut. 32:17. Ps. 106:37. Acts 17:18 1 Cor. 10:20-21.

The Grecian theory was that demons were the cause of madness, epileptic disorders & obstructions of the senses etc. They "possessed" the afflicted in the sense of Acts 16:16. (cf Aust. Aborigines).

To speak of certain as "possessed of devils" was to use the common vernacular to express that they were mad, or dumb etc. Mark 5:15 John 7:20 10:20 Mat. 7:15-18. Mat. 9:33.

Christ accomodated his language to the current view as is obvious from his comment on Beelzebub. Mat. 12:27.

Of modern use of "bewitched," "pandemoniac," "lunatic," "St Vitus dance" etc.

Three words used in N.T.

daimon - Young - A deified spirit. The root of daimonion - Young - daimon
daimonizomai - Young - to be possessed.

PARKHURST GREEK LEXICON — A lesser god, the spirit of departed human beings who had power to possess a person and so afflict them.

The best texts reveal that daimon is used only in Mat. 8:31.
Daimonizomai (dahee-mon-id'-zom-ahee) is used 11 times Mat. 4:24. demon-possessed. 8:16, 28, 33; 9:32; 12:22; 15:22; Mk 1:32; 5:15, 16, 18; Luke 8:36; Joh 10:21. In each case rendered "demon-possessed."
Daimonion used 63 times Mat. 8:22; 9:33, 34; 10:8; 11:18; 12:24, 27, 28; 17:18. Mk 1:34, 39; 3:15, 22, 6:13) 7:26, 29, 30; 9:38; 16:9, 17 Luke 4:33, 35, 41; 7:33; 8:2, 27, 29, 30, 33, 35, 38; 9:1, 42, 49; 10:17; 11:14, 15, 18, 19, 20; 13:32; John 7:20; 8:48, 49, 52; 10:20, 21; Acts 17:18; 1 Cor. 10:20, 21 1 Tim 4:1; Jam. 2:19; Rev 9:20; 16:14; 18:2. See E below.
The best texts render the following places as "they" instead of daimon 1 Tim 5:15. [Matthew 8:28 to 12:24] [And in the following Daimonion

Hippocrates expressly states that the Greeks referred possession to the gods and heroes, all of whom were human spirits. He wrote an essay on epilepsy, which was called the sacred disease because the people believed what the priests taught, that epileptics were possessed, and the priests, the magicians and the impostors derived a considerable revenue from attempting to cure this disease by expiations and charms. The essay was written to expose this delusion, he seeking to prove that this desease was neither more divine nor sacred than any other.

"Cast out devils" — Sorrows and sins also cast out Job 19:3. Mic. 7:19.
"Demons depart" — So did diseases Mark 1:42 Acts 19:12.
For biased translations see Ps. 109:6.

Among other uses, the Greeks used the word to describe: "(1) A divine being, where no particular one was specified, the agent or author of good or evil fortune; of death, fate etc. In this sense it is often used in Homer. (3) The souls of men of the golden age, which dwell unobserved upon the earth to regard the actions of men, and to defend them — tutelary divinities or geniuses — like that which Socrates regarded as his constant attendant." Xen. Mem. 4. 8. 1. 5; Apol. Soc. 4" (A Barnes).

DAIMON from daio, to distribute. — Power to distribute the gifts or punishments of the gods. It denoted to the Greeks human deserted "spirits," raised to the rank of gods and deities. They had two classes of gods: the World, together with all its constituent parts & principles and the demons.
According to Josephus the idea was superimposed on Judaism and thus it was in accordance with their beliefs that they should offer the suggestion of Mark 9:38.
"The general trend in the O.T. is to exclude belief in demons. An example is the way in which sun, moon & stars in Gen. 1 are simply called 'luminaries,' while the surrounding nations looked on them as demons and feared & honored them. Another example is the manner in which calamities and evil are attributed to God (1 Sam. 16:14; 2 Sam. 24:1). The mediators between God & man are not demons, but the angel of Yahweh. The Israelite may not turn to any power other than Yahweh. Above all he had to keep himself from magic" (Dict. of N.T. Theology Vol 1). See also Amos 3:6.

DIABOLOS — From "diaballo" compounded of "dia" a preposition signifying "across" or "over," and of "ballo" to "throw" or "cast," "to fall" or "tumble." Thus "diaballo" signifies to "throw over" or "across," or "to pass over," or "cross." It is therefore a fit word to designate the "law of sin and death" or "human nature" which causes man to "cross over" the line of right established by Deity.

It also signifies to "traduce," "attack character," to "slander," "libel." Thirdly to "deceive," "mislead," "impose upon." Hence a TRADUCER, SLANDERER, DECEIVER, IMPOSTOR.

RENDERED "SLANDERER" 1 Tim. 3:11
"FALSE ACCUSER" 2 Tim 3:3. Titus 2:3.

DEVILS — used for Idols in Lev. 17:7. 2 Chron. 11:15. Deut. 32:17. Ps. 106:37. Heb 17:18 1 Cor. 10:20-21.

The Grecian theory was that demons were the cause of madness, epileptic disorders & obstructions of the senses etc. They "possessed" the afflicted in the sense of Acts 16:16. (cf Aust. Aborigines).

To speak of certain as "possessed of devils" was to use the common vernacular to express that they were mad, or dumb etc. Mark 5:15. John 7:20 John 10:20. Mat. 7. 15-18. Mat. 9:33.

Christ accomodated his language to the current view as is obvious from his comment on Beelzebub. Mat. 12:27.

Cf modern use of "bewitched," "pandemoniac," "lunatic," "St Vitus dance" etc.

Three words used in N.T.

daimon - Young - A deified spirit. The root of
daimonion - Young - daimon
daimonizomai - Young - to be possessed.

PARKHURST GREEK LEXICON — A lesser god, the spirit of departed human beings who had power to possess a person and so afflict them.

- The best texts reveal that daimon is used only in Matt. 8:31.
- Daimonizomai (dahee-mon-id'-zom-ahee) is used 13 times Mat. 4:24 demon-possessed. 8:16, 28, 33; 9:32; 12:22; 15:22; Mk 1:32; 5:15, 16, 18; Luke 8:36; John 10:21. In each case rendered "demon-possessed."
- Daimonion used 63 times Matt. 8:22; 9:33, 34; 10:8; 11:18; 12:24, 27, 28; 17:18. Mk 1:34, 39; 3:15, 22; 6:13; 7:26, 29, 30; 9:38; 16:9, 17. See E below.
- The best texts render the following places as "they" instead of daimon [illegible] E And in the following Daimonion is given instead of daimon Luke 8:29; Rev 16:14; 18:2

Hippocrates expressly states that the Greeks referred possession to the gods and heroes, all of whom were human spirits. He wrote an essay on epilepsy, which was called the sacred disease because the people believed what the priests taught, that epileptics were possessed, and the priests, the magicians and the impostors derived a considerable revenue from attempting to cure this disease by expiations and charms. The essay was written to expose this delusion, he seeking to prove that this desease was neither more divine nor sacred than any other.

"Cast out devils" — Sorrows and sins also cast out Job 39:3. Mic. 7:19.
"Demons depart" — So did diseases Mark 1:42. Acts 19:12.
For biased translations see Ps. 109:6.

Among other uses, the Greeks used the word to describe: "(2) A divine being, where no particular one was specified, the agent or author of good or evil fortune; of death, fate etc. In this sense it is often used in Homer. (3) The souls of men of the golden age, which dwelt unobserved upon the earth to regard the actions of men, and to defend them — tutelary divinities or geniuses — like that which Socrates regarded as his constant attendant." Xen. Mem. 4. 3. 1. 5; Apol. Soc. 4" (A Barnes).
cp Dan. 11:39. 1 Tim. 4:1.

DAIMON from daio, to distribute. — Power to distribute the gifts or punishments of the gods. It denoted to the Greeks human departed spirits, "raised to the rank of gods and deities." They had two classes of gods: the world, together with all its constituent parts = principles, and the demons.

ECCLESIASTES — or the quest for the greatest GOOD.

SOUGHT BY PERSONAL EXPERIMENT. Ch. 1-2.

Wisdom. Ch. 1:12-18. - but natural wisdom a striving after wind. Something always eluded him Ch. 1:15. With increased knowledge came increased sorrow Ch. 1:18.

Pleasure. Ch. 2:1-11. - all vain. And though wisdom excelled folly - death brought an end to both alike Ch. 2:15-23. Therefore the virtue of enjoying what good God gives. Ch. 2:24.

SOUGHT BY GENERAL OBSERVATION 3-5.

Law. Man is subject to fixed laws. Ch. 3. which presuppose a "time" of judgment. V. 7. Yet within those "times" human society is disfigured by injustices, inequalities, enigmas, and superficialities Ch. 4. so that life is a striving after wind.

As he ponders this, he counsels us to observe a prudential observance of religion in view of the one. Ch. 5:1-7. and not to set our hearts on correcting the other for the moment. V. 10-12. Meanwhile enjoy the good that God gives V. 18.

SOUGHT BY PRACTICAL MORALITY Chs 6, 7, 8.

A Good Life: A man can have all means of joy, but not enjoy them because the blessing of God is not with him to do so. Ch. 6:2. Therefore, doubtless the answer is in an expedient course of behaviour [Left the question of V. 2.] So prudent conduct of morality is suggested. Ch. 7. - but righteous men suffer and wicked live long in wickedness V. 15. the best of men are still sinners. V. 20. and other anomalies exist Ch. 8. FAITH — A way of life based upon believing God

Heb. 'Aman — The implication of the Hebrew word is one supported, built up, reposing as a child in its mother's arms in the strength of Yahweh. (Gesenius)
• Used in the sense of "support" or "nourish" 2 Kings 10:1,5. • Foster-father Num 11:12 Isa. 49:23. • Foster-mother or Nurse Ruth 4:16. 2 Sam. 4:4. • 'emunah - pillars 2 Kgs 18:16 in the sense of supporters of the door. • Sure Ps 19:7. 93:5 111:7. • Amen (diff. vowels) Ps 41:13. 72:19. 106:48. • Believe 2 Chron 20:20. • Truth Isa. 65:16.

Faith indeed the comfort that a child receives from its parents, the support that a door has from its pillars, the confidence that absolute certainty inspires, and this is all derived from an intellectual understanding and acceptance of what Yahweh has proclaimed and with which He is identified.

Thus Christ took a little child to illustrate the principle of faith Mt. 18:1-6 and addressed his Father in terms expressive of his utmost confidence in Him Mark 14:36.

Abram "believed (Qaw'al) in Yahweh; and He counted it to him for righteousness" Gen. 15:6. Cp Rom. 4:12.

Gr. Pistis from peitho, to persuade. - Persuasion or conviction which is based upon hearing not upon sight or personal knowledge (Bull). Kend. assurance, belief, believe, faith fidelity.

Its Importance
• It is the work that God requires Jhn 6:29. • Without it cannot please Him Heb 11:6 Isa. 7:9. • Was the cause of Israel's failure Ps. 78:22,32. Heb 3:18,19. 4:2,6. (a warning to us - Heb 3:12). • The ground of acceptance or rejection Jhn 3:18-19. Mk 16:17. • The Second death awaits the faithless Rev. 21:8. • Though faith is based on hearing, it is manifested in doing Rom. 2:13-15. James 1:22. 2:17-26

Men claim they believe in a God, the point is do they believe God and if so where are the visible tokens of such belief - Cp Acts 4:13. Such actions are the visible tokens of the invisible, for faith is the opposite of sight 2 Cor. 5:7. It comes by "hearing" the report, and hearing comes through the Word of God Rom 10:17 (Akoe means not only the act of hearing, but an understanding of that proclaimed, so that the same word is rend. "report" in V.16). Cp Rom. 4:3.

• It is used with prep en "in" Mk 1:15 (see Diag.) = faith rests in the truths proclaimed. • It is used with epi "upon" Rom. 4:33. indicating that the truths heard are the foundation upon which our faith rests • It is used with eis "unto" showing that faith goes out to, or is directed to him of which the report speaks Jhn 2:11. • It is used with "ek" "out of" indicating a developing faith "out of faith eis "unto" faith" Rom. 1:17.

Note the various Emphases of Hab. 2:4.
• The just shall live by FAITH Rom. 1:17 • The JUST shall live by faith Gal. 3:11 • The just shall LIVE by faith Heb. 10:38.
• Faith defined as our title deeds to the future Heb 11:1

GILEAD. — Meaning Gen. 31:42-49. A mountainous area on the east of Jordan, occupied by God Josh. 13:25. The half tribe of Manasseh is also said to be in Gilead Josh. 13:30-31. as well as Reuben Deut. 3:12. It seems that the half tribe of Manasseh had the section north of the Jabbok which was divided between Jair + Machir the Reubenites + Gadites possessed the part between the Jabbok and the Arnon. The whole territory of Gilead perhaps included the area east of the Jordan from the Arnon northwards Deut 34:1 Jud. 20:1

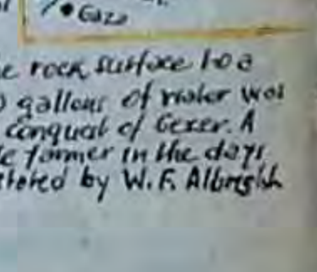
Divided into halves Josh. 12:2 Manasseh the father Josh. 17:1

GIBEAH OF BENJAMIN / SAUL — the centre of the territory of Benjamin Josh. 18:24; Jud. 19:20. • Saul's royal city It is identified with Tell el-Ful, 3 mi. 5 km north Jerusalem at a height of 2,787 ft. Known on the road from Jerusalem to Shechem. Tell el-Ful = Hill of Beans. • One of the most wicked cities in Israel, it was destroyed because of her perversion Jud. 19:1-20:48. Cp Hos. 9:9; 10:9. • It was the home of Saul before becoming king 1 Sam. 10: 26; 11:4. and was made his capital 1 Sam. 13:15-16; 14:2-5, 16. 15:34; 22:6; 23:19; 26:1. • Here the Gibeonites hung his descendants. 2 Sam. 21:6. • It was excavated by W.F. Albright 1922-23 + 1933 + by P.W. Lapp 1964 • The city went through 4 main stages, + 12 levels of history. (1) An Israelitish town, apparently that of Jud. 19:20 was destroyed by fire. (2) Rebuilt. Excavations have revealed a rectangular citadel with a square tower in one corner. This was evidently built by Saul, served as his royal residence + was hence forth named after him 1 Sam. 11:4; 15:34; 22:6; 23:19. The outer citadel walls (170 x 115 ft) were 8 to 10 ft thick. The castle comprised 2 stories with a stone staircase. In the audience chamber David played his harp to soothe the deranged mind of Saul 1 Sam. 16:23. (3) Evidently destroyed by the Philistines. Gibeah was rebuilt a third time in the latter part of the monarchy + surrounded by a feeble casement fortification. This is the city mentioned by Isaiah Isa. 10:29. as the route of Sennacherib. It was destroyed by the Babylonians. (4) A new fortress built in Hecentury BC. survived until 2nd cent. BC. Josephus (Wars 5:51) mentions Gibeah as a settlement 30 ris (3½ m) North of Jerusalem. Titus camped there on his march to Jerusalem + his troops demolished it. Excavations reveal that an impoverished settlement existed there down to the time of Bar Kokhba war (132-135 AD). By time of Eusebius (early 4th century) the site was forgotten.

GEZER (also GAZER. 1 Chr. 14:16) A Canaanite city whose king was defeated by Joshua Josh. 10:33; 12:12. It was allotted to Ephraim Josh. 16:3; Jud. 1:29; 1 Chr. 7:28. but the Canaanites successfully resisted Josh. 16:10; Jud. 1:29. In David's time a scene of war 2 Sam. 20:18; 21: 5:25; 1 Chr. 14:16. Conquered by Pharaoh and given as a dowry to Solomon 1 Ki. 9:16 who fortified it 1 Ki. 9:15, 17. It was appointed a Levitical city Josh. 21:21; 1 Chr. 6:67. See Notes. 1 Ki 9:15.



Sit. In the NW Jerusalem 17 mi SE Joppa it was a strategic site dominating one of the few roads of access from Joppa to Jerusalem. Tell Jezer is the modern town of Khurbet Yazech. Excavated by R.A. Macalister it revealed powerful fortifications including 14 ft thick walls. (Excav. 1902-1908). A tunnel ran back under the city 94 feet below the rock surface to a spring. A reservoir capable of holding 2,000,000 gallons of water was also uncovered. The Merenptah stele records a conquest of Gezer. A Calendar recording the progress of an Israelite farmer in the days of Saul - David found there in Hebrew was translated by W.F. Albright See Unger.

Synonymous with destruction Mk 9:43-44 (It is obvious that we shall not "enter into life maimed"). Mk. 10:28. (Soul destroyed in hell!)

HAMMURABI. His identity with Amraphel Gen. 14 is now disputed on chronological grounds. The reign of Hammurabi is assessed as 1728–1686 BC which would not agree with the Biblical chronology of Abraham – approx 1900 B.C. See Light From The Ancient Past, p. 73.

HARP: LYRE: Heb. Kinnor, from a root "to twang" and hence a percussion instrument. The instrument consists of strings, according to Rabbinic sources, made from the small intestines of sheep, a stretched across a sounding board over a blank space attached to a cross bar. The performer drew a plectrum across the strings with his right hand & deadened the strings with his left. See 1 Sam. 16:23. On a Beni-hasan monument dated 1900 B.C. one of the semites entering Egypt is depicted playing on a Lyre (like Kinnor). The Assyrian monuments depict semitic captives playing on Lyres. See illustration in Encyclopedia Biblica vol. 3. p. 3234. Cp. Ps. 137:2. Late Israelitish coins depict the LYRE with 4 or 5 strings, but Josephus claims it had 10 (Ant. 7.12.3). Jerome commenting upon Ps 33:2 asserts that the Kinnor had 6 strings. The Greek Lyre had originally 4 but later 7 strings.

In Scripture, the Harp, Kinnor or Lyre was of most ancient invention Gen. 4:21. In the hands of such as David, it was an instrument capable of providing music of exhortation and warning Ps. 49:4; of pleasant, calming influence Ps. 81:2; solemn, meditative music Ps. 92:3; as well as those of stimulating joy Isa. 24:8. It was with this instrument that David calmed the troubled spirit of Saul 1 Sam. 16:23.

HOW LONG

"Those who love the Lord's appearing 2 Tim. 4:8 should be longing and praying for his coming. God has appointed a day and a man Acts 17:31. Both are at hand. The door will open, and the man will be revealed – to the astonishment, affright, overthrow, affliction, or ultimate blessedness & peace of those waiting for him. Rev. 16:15. Isa. 30:18

HATE

Both Love and Hate are Divine qualities, and under present circumstances, the manifestation of both are inevitable. Where a warm love exists for righteousness it will manifest itself in hatred for evil. A love of truth will be reflected by a hatred of error.

YAHWEH HATES.

- Idolatry Deut 12:31. 16:22.
- Workers of Iniquity Ps 5:5.
- Insincere worship Isa 1:14 Amos 5:21.
- Pride, lying, murder, wicked heart, feet swift to mischievousness, false witness, lies, sowers of discord among brethren Prov. 6:17-19. 8:13.
- Evil thoughts against others, deceit, perjury Zech 8:17.

Hormah. – Also called Zephath. Jud. 1:17. – The Devoted Place, Destruction. The chief town of a Canaanitish King in the south of Palestine Josh. 12:14, near where the Israelites were discomforted by the Amalekites when against the advice of Moses they attempted to enter Canaan by that route Num. 14:45; cp 21:1-3; Deut. 1:44. It was afterwards taken by Joshua and assigned to Judah Josh. 15:30, but finally fell to Simeon Josh. 19:4. 1 Chr. 4:30. Hormah has not been positively identified, though Tell es-seba° about 3 m. E of Beersheba is a likely location. – Unger.
Century Bible quotes "Grattenberg "Atlas of the Bible" to identify it tentatively with Tell el-Mishash, ten miles east of Beersheba.

JACOB.

- At the end of two years famine (Gen. 45:6) Joseph would have been 39-40. (Cp. Gen. 41:46) and Jacob was 130 (Gen. 47:9)
- Joseph was thus born when Jacob 90-91, and this is dated just prior to the 6 years that Jacob served Laban for his cattle Gen. 30:25.
- If he had been only 14 years with Laban, it would mean that he had fled from Esau when he was about 76-77!
- Assuming he worked 7 years for Leah, his first son would not be born before he was 83.
- At that rate, Judah, the 4th son could not be born before he was 88 and would have been about 42 when the events of Gen 38 took place, or 47 if Jacob married Leah before the 7 years.
- Esau goes to Ishmael and marries his daughter after Jacob went to Laban at 77, though Ishmael died when Jacob was 63. Gen 25:17 (Isaac married at 40 Gen. 25:20 Jacob born 20 years later Gen. 25:26. Ishmael 13 yrs older than Isaac, dies at 137 Gen. 25:17)
- If Jacob had no son until 85, & if Joseph were born when he were 90, he had 11 sons and Dinah in 5 years.
- In that case, also, he had children and grandchildren to the number of 66 in the short space of 45 years.
- See reasons for suggesting he was 57 when he went to Laban and spent 40 years with him in Gen. 31.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA

PARABLE: Moses brought the people through the Red Sea to Sinai, Joshua baptized them in living water and gave them rest Josh 21:44. For the antitype See John 14-27. Heb 4:-10.
As Joshua conquered to make it possible for the people to individually obtain their inheritance, so did the Lord Jesus Heb 2:14.

WRITER: The Talmud claims that Joshua wrote it except the last 8 verses which were contributed by Phinehas. There is no reason to doubt this. It was certainly written before David Ch 15:63 - whilst Rahab was still alive Ch 6:25.

KEY VERSES: Promise Josh 1:6-9 Fulfilment Josh. 21:44 Exhortation Josh. 23:6-11. Example Josh. 24:15.

JORDAN. Yarden - The Descender. Compounded of two words: YÂRAD - To Descend: DAN - Judgment. Descend through judgment. Several streams combine to form the river including the streams Jor and Dan. Its source is at the foot of Hebron, fed by the snows of Lebanese Range. Four streams unite to form the river: Bareighit, Hasbany, Leddan (the Dan), Banias. The river poured its water into the Huleh (Merom) and from thence to Sea of Galilee (12 miles long). Dead Sea (53 m. long). The valley is from 2 to 15 m. broad & falls as deep as 1292 ft below sea level, while the bottom of the Dead Sea is 1300 ft deeper still. From Huleh to just before the water reaches Galilee, it drops 680 ft in less than 9 m. Between Sea of Galilee and Dead Sea the valley extends for 65 miles and through it the river follows its tortuous course, covering over 200 miles in its wanderings. The Jordan rift is more than 160 m long from below Lake Huleh to the Arabah south of D. Sea where it rises again to sea level. point on the

"Geologists claim this valley is due to volcanic action, forcing up two long folds of limestone, running north & south, with a diagonal ridge shutting off the Dead Sea from the Red Sea, & enclosing part of the old ocean bed." (Unger)

A vast fresh water lake was formed some 200 m. long, from Sea Galilee to some 50 m S. of Dead Sea. How it passed from that condition to its present state is not clear - Smith. Hist. Geog. p. 470.

The Jordan itself is rapid & muddy from 90 to 100 ft broad. The depth varies from 3 ft to 12. In the 65 miles the descent is 610 ft or average 14 ft per mile. It overflows its banks in March & April.

Kerute - Bottom: p. 223 Jud. 1:36.

Kidron - Dark, dusky - from root QÂDAR - Ashy, dark coloured, fig to mourn (Str). A deep narrow ravine east of the city, which as the south of the city turns east to empty itself into the Dead Sea. Only furnished with water in the winter after heavy rain. Its bed is narrow & deep suggesting that it formerly was the channel for waters that today flow elsewhere - perhaps subterraneously. David crossed it to exile 2 Sam. 15:23; the boundary set for Shimei 1 Kg 2:37; the place of destruction for Maachah's obscene phallic abomination 1 Kg 15:13; 2 Chr. 15:16, the place where Athaliah executed 2 Kg 11:16. 2 Chr. 23:15. Josiah destroyed the idols etc. 2 Kg 23:4, 6, 12, Hezekiah likewise 2 Chr. 29:16; 30:14. It became the regular receptacle for the impurities and abominations of idol worship. Contrast future purification. Eze. 39:11-16.

JERICHO. Destroyed by Joshua, restored by Hiel 1 Kg 16:34 to rise again into prominence. Elijah ascended with heaven in its vicinity 2 Kg 2:1-22 & Elisha healed its water 2 Kg 2:19-22. David's abused messengers stayed there 2 Sam 10:5. Zedekiah was captured there 2 Kg 25:5. Men from Jericho shared in building Jerusalem Neh 3:2. Captured by Judas Maccabeus 2 Mac. 12:15. Bartimaeus healed & Zaccheus converted Lk 18:35; 19:1. Site of: Tell es-Sultan. N.T. mod. Tulul Abu el 'Alayiq.

Occupied in Neolithic times before B.C. 4500. In the Chalcolithic era, BC. 4500-3000 a series of successive cities. Garstang (1930-36) assigned alphabetic names to latest cities. City A = B.C. 3000. City B = founded 2500, destroyed 1700. City C was larger and more powerful occupied by Hyksos, destroyed 1500. City D, constructed 1500. The splendid palace of the preceding city rebuilt & now city protected by double wall brick. A redoubtable 6-foot thick wall was between the inner & outer wall Cp Josh. 2:15. The walls display evidence of violent destruction. The outer wall had tumbled forward down the slope of the mound & the inner wall with the house on it had covered the intervening space. Evidence showed that fire accompanied the fall of the city. Jericho remained in a ruined state until the time of Ahab when rebuilt by Hiel the Bethelite 1 Kg 16:34. Garstang dates the destruction at 1400. Wright, Albright & K. Kenyon date destruction earlier, the former 2 at 1200, but "much confusion remains among them". In their theory it cannot be connected historically with the time of Joshua as outlined in the Bible, nor with their date of the Exodus. Kathleen Kenyon excavated in 1952 but her discoveries date mostly to the pre-literary epoch of Jericho - See Unger.

JUDAH Judah played an important part in Israel. His name meant "Praise", he was the 4th son of Jacob & Leah Gen. 29:35. He saved Joseph from the pit into which the others had cast him to die Gen. 37:26-27, and by persuading his brothers to sell him paved the way for the preservation of Israel Gen. 50:19-20. Judah was capable of confessing his sins Gen. 38:26. He pledged himself to Jacob for the safe return of Benjamin Gen. 43:3-14 & pleaded with Joseph to spare him Gen. 44:18-34. Judah was the one through whom Messiah was to come & rule Gen. 49:10. His tribe led the others in their marches Num. 2:3; 10:14; and it was first in a number of other activities Num. 1:27; Josh. 15:1. including the independent tribal attacks on the Canaanites Jud. 1:1-4.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA

PARABLE: Moses brought the people through the Red Sea to Sinai, Joshua baptised them in living water and gave them rest Josh 21:44. For the antitype see John 10:27. Heb 4:10. As Joshua conquered to make it possible for the people to individually obtain their inheritance, so did the Lord Jesus Heb 2:14.

WRITER: The Talmud claims that Joshua wrote it except the last 8 verses which were contributed by Phinehas. There is no reason to doubt this. It was certainly written before David Ch 15:63. whilst Rahab was still alive Ch 6:25.

KEY VERSES: Promise Josh. 1:6-9 Fulfilment Josh. 21:44 Exhortation Josh. 23:6-13. Example Josh. 24:15.

JERUSALEM

● YERUSHALAIM is compounded of two words: Yeru - shalaim. Yeru connects with Yahweh Yireh - He who will provide Gen. 22:14. If it be asked, What? The answer is a double peace. Shalaim means "the two salems" and relates to the two sections of the city: the Upper & Lower Gp mgs. 2 Kings 20:4; 22:14; 2 Chron. 22:14 & Zeph. 1:10.

● As a type the New Jerusalem is compounded of two parts: Jews and Gentiles made one in Christ and unified by peace at baptism John 14:27. confirmed by bestowal of Eternal life at the Judgment. 1 John 4:17-18.

● Jerusalem occupied a promontory, on three sides of which were ravines so deep, abrupt and steep as to provide immunity from attack. On the north side alone it is open to attack so the north was the direction of discipline and judgment Ezek. 1:4. Such action was only permitted when Yahweh allowed it, for His eyes are ever upon the city of His rest Deut. 12:5, 10.; 11:12; Ps. 132:13-14.

● Jerusalem is overshadowed by by surrounding mountains - a symbol of the Divine protection of the people of Yahweh Ps. 125:1-2. but ultimately is to be elevated above them Ps 48:2; Ezek. 40:2.

● Its location links it with both Judah and Benjamin. Josh. 15:8; 63.; 18:16 So linking the names together provides the following: Praise the Son of the Right Hand, He who will provide a double peace!

● Jerusalem is built on five heights: Akra, Bezetha, Moriah, Ophel, Zion.

● The city of David is identified with Zion 5 times 2 Sam. 5:7, 9; 1 Kg 8:1; 1 Chr. 11:5; 2 Chr. 5:2. Some consider Ophel and Zion to be the same which would give Jerusalem four heights.

● It is the city where Yahweh has placed His name Deut. 12:14; 1 Kings 11:36.

Prophecy Against Damascus
Prophecy Against Kedar
Prophecy Against Hazor
Prophecy Against Elam
Prior to death Josiah Cp ch. 48:1
Beginning Reign Zedekiah 49:34
Prophecy Against Babylon 50:1-51:58.
(Zedekiah's Reign Cp. 51:59-64)

The prophecies were concerning Israel following Ch. 24 the letter to the exiles in Babylon concerning Israel following Ch. 24 the letter to the exiles in Babylon others in the section of 36:22 Philistia, Elam, and Babylon as well as

LOVE AGAPE (A word not found in Greek writers, nor in Philo, Josephus, in Acts, Mark, or James; apparently coined by LXX). Love that is self denying and compassionately devoted to its object: the highest word among the Greeks was philanthropy, but this does not denote love to man as such, but rather justice, giving him who was entitled to it his full rights; it even falls short of the philadelphia (brotherly love) of the N.T. Agape therefore designates a love unknown to writers outside the N.T. Love in its fullest conceivable form; first exhibited by Christ 1 Jhn 3:16, expressive of God's relation to us 1 Jhn 4:9 and the relation between the father and the son Jhn 15:10. 17:26. Col. 1:13. Lastly it is the distinctive character of the Christian life in relation to the brethren and to all. (Bullinger)

Agape is pre-eminently God's love Jhn 3:16 and is reproduced in the hearts of believers by the power of the Spirit - Word Rom. 5:5. Gal 5:22. Noun ☐

Verb - AGAPAO

PHILEO - expresses the affection of true friendship, and is used of the more direct demonstration of regard. From this word is derived "philos" - a friend. Thus phileo speaks of the desire to cherish and manifest affection for the object of it. It is born of liking - something that attracts one in another.

See use of phileo and agape. 1 Pet. 1:22.

Love is not always sentimental nor sympathetic.

LEAVEN = There are 3 words rendered "leaven." Se'or (sehore - 7603) sig "To swell."; CHÂMETZ (2557) -ferment, extortion from a root signifying "sour." ~~MATSATS - To swell or [illegible] milk, sig sweetness, read "unleaven" Lev 10:12~~ MATSTSAH is rendered "Without leaven" in Lev. 10:12

Israelites were commanded to "put away" leaven from their homes in preparation of the Passover.

LEBANON = Sig "White" from the snow. Ancient Lebanon, Phoenicia about 120 m. long about 20 m. wide. Bordered by an ocean of water (Mediterranean) on West and an ocean of sand (the desert) on East. The Valley of Bekaa between the two ranges (Lebanon and Anti-Lebanon) is a wide flat valley about 6 miles wide. At Baalbek it begins to fall, and declines gradually until it sinks down in the plain of Hamath. (i.e. Anti-Lebanon) See Num. 34:8. From the north, the mountain chain of Lebanon begins here & runs southward until it sinks into the plain of Acre & the low hills of Galilee. Its average height is from 6000 to 8000 feet. Jebel Mukhmel = about 10,200 ft & Sannin about 9000 feet. The highest peaks are covered with perpetual ice & snow. Hermon in the Anti-Lebanon = 9101 feet., but generally the range is lower than Lebanon, averaging a height of 4500 feet. Lebanon is remarkable for the grandeur and beauty of its scenery, the glory of its cedars, and the purity of the crown of snow that graces its tallest peaks throughout the year.

It was noted for its cedars. Jud. 9:15. 1 Kg. 4:33. 5:6, 9, 14. 2 Kg 14:9. 2 Chr. 2:8; 8:6. Ezra 3:7. Ps. 92:12; 104:16.

Figuratively, it is used to symbolise the strength of the Assyrian army Isa. 10:34. Isa. 33:9. ~~[illegible]~~

FINE LINEN = The quality of this linen cannot be purchased or even manufactured today. Its manufacture was an art that died with the ancient Egyptians. J. G. Wilkinson in "Manners & Customs of the Ancient Egyptians" states: "The Egyptians were always celebrated for their manufacture of linen & other cloths, & the produce of their looms was exported to, & eagerly purchased, by foreign nations. The fine linen & embroidered work, the yarn & woollen stuffs of the upper & lower country are frequently mentioned, & were highly esteemed" (Vol. 2. p. 42). "Nor was the praise bestowed upon that manufacture unmerited; and the quality of one piece of linen found near Memphis fully justifies it, & excites equal admiration at the present day, being to the touch comparable to ~~silk~~ silk, and not inferior in texture to our finest Cambric" (Vol. 2. p. 75). So Christ who was called out of Egypt was unique in his righteousness.

= MORTAL EMERGENCE = Mat. 8:11-12.

= METHUSAEL Gen. 4:18 = Meth is from Math, or Mathai (mathayee), signifying an adult (as of full length) · Str. or extent of time. From the former is derived the meaning Man of God who is manifested in full stature. Or of extended time of God.

The former meaning (given by Str) would imply the claim of the Cainites to a form of religious worship from God.

= METHUSELAH = is similar Meth can signify:

Full adult of man – Full extent of wickedness.
Extent of time – God's set time to act.
Or some read "Muth" - death – When he dieth, it shall come.

= MESOPOTAMIA = Lit. "The Land between the Rivers."

The Tigris & Euphrates are fed from the 10,000 ft peaks of Armenia. The land was formerly known as Akkad and Sumer. The sun is blazing hot, the rainfall only approx. 6 inches, but the alluvial silt of the two rivers made soil extremely fertile, so that with irrigation vast crops were harvested and dense populations maintained.

This declined gradually, with the coming of the Muslims in the 7th cen. & the Mongols in the 13th. It fell into utter ruin. Under Turkish rule Mesopotamia became one of the most desolate areas on earth. (Tyrs)

= MERCY. = The Hebrew word "chesed" is usually translated "loving kindness" or "mercy," but it is really the expression of the covenant relationship between Yahweh and His people, and means a love that, like married love, has at its core a duty or a bond. If further, it be remembered that the English word "Kindness" comes from the same root as the word "Kin" and loving kindness is used to express the loving relationship that should exist between those who are bound together by the indissoluble blood-tie, this translation of chesed is fairly accurate (Schofield)

The RV renders it by the word "loving kindness."

= MEMORIALS = See ICor. 11.

= MARRIAGE = Gen. 2:24

This verse, and Christ's usage of it teaches the inviolability of marriage (but contrast Mat. 5:32 note) under normal conditions for man and his wife are one mutually sharing each other's hopes, joys, sorrows, and as one flesh should not be separated Mal. 2:13-16 1 Cor. 7:5.

Paul shows, by quoting this verse 1 Cor. 6:16 that this unity is established by sexual intercourse which thus should play an important part in married life 1 Cor. 7:5 and which really constitutes marriage (but see Matt 1:24-25)

Paul uses this verse Eph. 5:31 to illustrate the personal, intimate relations between Christ and the Ecclesia. As a man seeks his bride, so Christ has sought the Ecclesia Acts 15:14 2 Cor. 11:2-3. When the marriage is come Rev. 19:7, he will be united forever with his bride, who, being partakers of Divine nature 2 Pet. 1:4 will live and move with him as one.

Like Adam • Eve, Christ and the Ecclesia have one common Father Heb. 2:11 and thus should be moved by common hopes and aspirations. For their ultimate unity he prayed Jhn. 17:21. See Eph. 5:24-32.

From Gal. 3:28 there is implied that there existed a greater sense of unity and equality between the sexes than afterwards existed – a unity and equality restored in Christ.

We learn that "it is not good" for a man to remain single – the responsibilities, the understanding, the unselfish consideration that should be shown by him Eph. 5:25 is calculated to bring out desirable qualities (Paul replaced this by the Ecclesia to whom he was "married" – 1 Cor. 7:32-34).

At the same time, the "woman was made for the man" 1 Cor. 11:9 designed to bring out in him the best qualities of social behavior.

Thus God established marriage Gen. 2:24, designing it as the channel to the fulfilment of the Divine purpose 1 Tim. 2:15. Gen. 3:15. Christ endorsed this by gracing a marriage with his presence Jhn. 2:1-2, reaffirming the original ordinance Mth. 19:4-4 and praising the fruits of it Mth. 19:12-15.

Marriage types the union between Yahweh • Israel Isa. 54:5 Hos. 2, Christ • the Ecclesia 2 Cor. 11:2. Eph. 5:22-31.

Better than physical marriage is espousal to Christ Mt. 19:12. 1 Cor. 7:1, 8, 32-38. – but only under certain conditions V9. In view of that fact, there should not be over-anxiety for marriage – Cp. 1 Cor. 7:31-38. The sin of the antidiluvians stemmed from an unwise desire for marriage Gen. 6:1-2.

Marriage should be only in the Lord 1 Cor. 7:39.

If unbelieving partner will not live peaceably it is best to separate 1 Cor. 7:10-13 Cf. 1 Pet. 3:1-6

PHARISEES = From Gr. "Pharash" - to separate, Heb. "Perushim" - "separated." To most numerous and wealthy of sects.

HISTORY - The time when and circumstances in which the sect first arose cannot be historically stated, but may be conjectured or partly reasoned out. Its members were noted for an extreme respect for every "jot and tittle" of Holy Writ. This was probably caused by a tendency in the other direction by members of the Sect. Such conditions existed in the time of Antiochus Epiphanes (175-164 BC). In the fierce persecution which he set on foot against the faithful who would not abandon Judaism and accept the Greek faith, attempts were made to destroy the Scriptures, and destroy those who kept them in possession 1 Macc. 1:56-57. In these circumstances the rise of a sect whose distinction should be reverence for the word of God was inevitable In 2:42. mention is made of "the Assideans, who were mighty men of Israel, even all such as were voluntarily devoted unto the law" (cf. also 7:12-13.) These were probably the Pharisees in an early stage of development. Their party (perhaps not yet a separate sect) apparently included the whole of the patriots in arms, and looked up to Judas Maccabeus as head 2 Macc. 14:6. The success of the Maccabee revolt must have gained the party that achieved it high reputation. "Assideans" corresponds to Hebrew Hhasidhim - Saints (Ps 30:4. 79:2) When the Pharisees are first mentioned by name by Josephus (Ant. 13:10:5,6). in a passage referring to the government of John Hyrcanus (BC. 135-105) they are said to have great power over the multitude. Thus they retained to the last.

They therefore may be those referred to in Dan. 11:33-34 Christ commented their attitude to Word. Mth 5:18. condemned their doctrines and teaching application Mat. 23:3. 16:6.

DOCTRINE - Leading tenets: (1) World governed by fate. (2) Souls immortal. (3) Dead raised (4) There were good and bad angels (5) Jews are a chosen race. (6) They were justified by the merit of Abraham. They believed in frequent washings and fastings. The careful avoidance of reputed sinners a rigorous observance of the sabbath, long ostentatious public prayers. The Pharisees composed a traditional law upon the written law. This represented the careful washing before meals and two fasts each week - on Thursday when Moses supposed ascend Sinai and on Monday when supposed descend. They were broad phylacteries, enlarged the fringe of their garment, loved the uppermost rooms at feasts, the chief seats in synagogue.

CHARACTER - They were proud, haughty, self-righteous, and held the common people in disrespect. John 7:49. Luke 18:10-12. They were formalists Luke 6:6-11. 11:39-44. Hypocrites Luke 12:1. Mth 23. Covetous Luke 16:14. Pompous. Mat. 23:1-7.

PHARISEES = From Gr. "Pharash" - to separate, Heb. "Perushim" - "separated" To most numerous and wealthy of sects.

HISTORY - The time when and circumstances in which the sect first arose cannot be historically stated, but may be conjectured or partly reasoned out. Its members were noted for an extreme respect for every "jot and tittle" of Holy Writ. This was probably caused by a tendency in the other direction by members of the Jews. Such conditions existed in the time of Antiochus Epiphanes (175-164 BC). In the fierce persecution which he set on foot against the faithful who would not abandon Judaism and accept the Greek faith, attempts were made to destroy the Scriptures, and destroy those who kept them in possession 1 Macc. 1:56-57. In these circumstances the rise of a sect whose distinction should be reverence for the word of God was inevitable In 2:42. mention is made of "the Assideans, who were mighty men of Israel, even all such as were voluntarily devoted unto the law" (cf also 7:12-13.) These were probably the Pharisees in an early stage of development. Their party (perhaps not yet a separate sect) apparently included the whole of the patriots in arms, and looked up to Judas Maccabaeus as head 2 Macc. 14:6. The success of the Maccabee revolt must have gained the party that achieved it high reputation. "Assideans" corresponds to Hebrew Hhasidhim - Saints (Ps 30:4. 79:2). When the Pharisees are first mentioned by name by Josephus. (Ant. 13:10:5,6). In a passage referring to the government of John Hyrcanus (BC. 135-106) they are said to have great power over the multitude. This they retained to the last.

They therefore may be those referred to in Dan. 11:32-34. Christ commended their attitude to Word. Mth 5:18. condemned their doctrines and [illegible] application Mat. 23:3. 15:2,6.

DOCTRINE - Leading tenets: (1) [illegible] governed by fate. (2) Souls immortal (3) D[illegible] rewarded (4) There were good and bad angels (5) Jews are a chosen race. (6) They were justified by the merits of [illegible] They believed in frequent washings and fastings, the [illegible] of reputed sinners, a rigorous observance of the Sabbath, long ostentatious public prayers. They had superimposed a traditional law upon the written law. This demanded the careful washing before meals and two fasts each week - on Thursday when Moses supposed to ascend Mount and on Monday when supposed descend. They wore broad phylacteries, enlarged the fringe of their garment, loved the uppermost rooms at feasts, the chief seats in synagogue.

CHARACTER - They were proud, haughty, self-righteous, and held the common people in disrespect. Jhn 7:49. Luke 18:10-12. They were formalists Luke 6:6-11. 11:39-44. Hypocrites Luke 12:1. Mth 23. Covetous Luke 16:14. Pompous. Mat. 23:1-7.

RAINBOW. Sunlight is white being a combination of seven colors. When it bounces off tiny particles in the air such as air molecules, dust or smoke, it changes color and becomes blue - thus the appearance of the sky. The bouncing of sunlight off small particles in the air is called "scattering" and more blue is "scattered" than red light - hence the color of the sky.

By refraction the white light of the sun Rev. 4:3. is broken up into seven colors: Red, Orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, violet, in that order, with red always on outside.

The rainbow would be seen as a complete circle of colored light if the earth did not get in the way. Rev. 4:3.

YAHWEH THY REWARD. "I am thy reward exceeding abundantly" Gen. 15:1. Reward = SÂKÂR - Payment of a covenant, salary, fare, maintenance, Recompense. From a root: To purchase temporarily, to hire.

SÂRAPH Cont. Flesh purified is used to cure the flesh. Yahweh provided a Saraph of copper to heal the deadly infection caused by the venom of the fiery serpents. The Scripture says of the Lord: "With his stripes we are healed Yahweh laid on him the iniquity of us all" Isa. 53:5-6; 2 Cor. 5:21; Rom. 8:3. Flesh purified will conquer the world of flesh eventually Isa 6. hence the emphasis on 6 in the Seraphim. It relates to flesh purified; the cherubim to God manifest therein

REPHIDIM - Identified by those who accept Jebel Musa as Sinai with Wady Feiran (or Paran). This is a very wide valley that slopes upwards towards the Grande Mountains of Sinai. It presents a very sandy, harsh and arid aspect. Its entrance is completely covered with stones and pebbles washed down by the water that rushes down the valley in the wet season. It presents a difficult terrain for travellers calculated to test their patience. Deut 25:18. The valley leads in and up through the maze of mountains that cover the Sinaitic Peninsula with their harsh, rugged, grotesque shapes. These rise precipitously from the valley to varying heights of upwards of a 1000 ft or more. Feiran itself is a great oasis that stretches for some miles, a beautiful area covered with palm trees. Here they ought expect water, but found none. Antoninus Martyr (AD 600) speaks of an [redacted] 'oratorium' where altar is set on the stones which were put under Moses while he [redacted] was praying. Evidently he refers to the Jebel et-Tahuneh on the right hand of the Wady Feiran, which is about 720 ft high - covered with remains of Christian tombs, cells, chapels. This view was adopted by the Sinaitic Expedition of last century - Encyclopaedia Biblica.

SEVEN - The number of completion or covenant denoted by the Hebrew sheba for oath or seven. Seven is made up of the square of four and the triangle of three. Josephus claims the Essenes held seven as "sacred" "because it results from the sides of a square added to those of a triangle." The latter is thought to express the principle of Wisdom as constituting the base or beginning; its extension or middle; and end or completion. It thus becomes the emblem of Wisdom based upon knowledge, experience, and judgment of future. Thus on the square is established Wisdom based upon Israelitish foundations.

SHEPHERD.

"The shepherd goes before not merely to point the way, but to see that it is practicable and safe. He is armed in order to defend his charge; and in this he is very courageous. . . Some sheep always keep near the shepherd, and are his special favorites. Each of them has a name to which it answers joyfully; and the kind shepherd is ever distributing to such choice portions which he gathers for that purpose. These are the contented and happy ones. They are in no danger of getting lost or into mischief, no do wild beast nor thieves come near them. The great body, however, are mere worldlings, intent upon their own pleasures or selfish interests. They run from bush to bush, searching for varieties of delicacies, and only now or then lift their heads to see where the shepherd is, or, rather, where the general flock is, lest they get so far away as to occasion remark in their little community, or rebuke from their keeper. Others, again, are restless or discontented, jumping into every body's field, climbing into bushes. These cost the good shepherd incessant trouble. Then there are others incurably reckless, who stray far away and are utterly lost. I have repeatedly seen a silly goat or sheep running hither and thither, and bleating piteously after the lost flock, only to call forth from their dens the beasts of prey, or to bring up the lurking thief, who quickly quietens its cries in death." TERAPHIM. — Small household oracular divinities

Ezek. 21:21. Jud. 17:5. Hos. 3:4. Although inconsistent with pure worship 1 Sam. 15:23. 2 Kgs 23:24. they are encountered repeatedly in Israel's history. Gen. 31:19, 34. Archaeology has shed light on the teraphim. From the site of ancient Nuzu, southeast of Nineveh & not far from modern Kirkuk, have come the Nuzu documents in excavations between 1925-1941. These have shown that possession of these household gods implied leadership of the family and in the case of a married daughter assured her husband of the right to her father's property. See Light from The Ancient East (J. Finnegan) p. 55.

Cp. Col. 3:5. The leadership of family and right of property based on Teraphim have been in vain as far as Israel is concerned. Zech. 10:2.

TRUMPETS.

SHOPHAR - A clear, sharp, cutting note. It represented Yahweh's Voice to the people as in the year of Jubilee Lev. 25:9, or when instructions were issued as though coming from Him. Cp Jericho Josh. 6:5. Ehud & the Moabites Jud. 3:27 Gideon Jud. 6:34; 7:16, 18

It is translated "cornet" in: 1 Chron. 15:28; Ps. 98:6; Hos 5:8 2 Chron. 15:14.

It is identified with the Rams Horn in Joshua 6:4, 6, 13 or Yubale (Jubilee) Qeren.

Some see Shophar as denoting "ram" or "ramshorn" See Gesenius Unger.

The Shophar heralded the voice of authority whether it be that of Yahweh or man.

It was heard at Sinai Exod. 19:16, on the Day of Atonement Lev. 23:24; it heralded the year of Jubilee Lev. 25:9.; it announced the New Moon Ps. 81:3; it gave warning of judgment and war Josh. 6:5; Jud. 3:27 (Ehud opposed to Moabites); Jud. 6:34; 7:16-18 (Gideon). It was used for issuing commands and directions 1 Sam. 13:3; 2 Sam. 2:28; for proclaiming the accession of a King 1 King 1:34; of warning of approaching danger Jer. 4:5; Ezek. 33:3; Joel 2:1.

It was thus the Voice of Authority. In the case of Yahweh, it proclaimed the principles of Divine Justice and awful majesty in the staccato blasts at Sinai Exod. 19:16. But when it sounded the long, drawn out Jubilee note, it proclaimed His mercy and grace Lev. 25:9 On the Day of Atonement it called the people to humble themselves in contrition Lev. 23:24; at Jericho and through Gideon it warned of impending and inevitable judgment Jud. 7:16-18. Others, as Yahweh's agents proclaimed the message to their contemporaries. The Jubilee is proclaimed in the Gospel Luke 4:17-21, which also carries a note of warning to a world or people who refuse the Divine mercy Acts 2:19-21, 40 (Peter quoted from a prophecy which called for the sound of the Shophar Joel 2:1, 15)

CHATSOTSERAH - The silver trumpets. The voice of the people to Yahweh in prayer. Num 10:1-10.

Their symbolical use clearly understood • Appeal for aid 2 Chron. 13:12-14 • Express joyful worship of thanksgiving Ps 98:1-6. • For help in a successful campaign. Num 31:6.

UNICORN - or Wild Ox - RV. Rob. the Aurochs, a huge animal that might weigh over a ton. "Bringing under control such massive, powerful beasts - the bull standing about 6ft at the shoulder - would be hard enough today, with all modern aids, yet these men did it before the age of metals. This is an achievement that defeats the imagination." - Animals of Bible Lands.

The Aurochs was formidable for its size, strength and speed - horns.

SPIRITUAL VISION

Isaiah - John 12:41
Abraham - John. 8:56.

TIMES AND SEASONS: Dan. 2:21. Times: IDDANIY. Times as set by the order of nature - such as the year. "Seasons" - ZEMANIY (as in v.16), time as set by man. The former can be altered by death; the latter can be changed by circumstances.

MASSORAH: From MÂSAR - To deliver (as to commit to one's trust). It relates to comments on the Ancient Hebrew text which so describes it as to permit it to be transcribed and handed down correctly. It has been styled "A fence to the Torah" because it locked all the words + letters in their places. About 500 years after Christ, the vocalisation of the text was formed with the introduction of vowel points.

The text itself had been established before the Massorites were put in charge of it. This was the work of scribes called Sopherim (from SÔPHAR - to count or number). They counted and numbered the very words + letters of Scripture. They were the authorised revisers of the text, + by tradition date back to the days of Ezra. Their work being completed, the text was given into the charge of Massorites to preserve.

Dr. C.D. Ginsburg collated all the comments of the Massorah: the Masoretic notes found in the various mss. These reveal 134 passages where the Sopherim altered Yahweh to Adonai. 18 emendations (See Comp. Bible, quoting Ginsburg's Introduction to the Hebrew Bible). His work "The Massorah" published between 1880-1905.

URIM + THUMMIM: See Note p.116. There is no command to make these, only to put them into the bag of the breastplate Exod 28:30 from whence they could be taken like the lot to determine a decision of Q. Num. 26:55 NR. It is to be noted that such questions are mainly those of procedure so stated that they could be answered by a simple negative or affirmative. 1 Sam. 10:22; 23:9-12; 30:7-8. This could be done by two precious stones representing Light and Perfection bringing to Light the Divine Will and purpose and providing a complete and perfect answer of peace. In most places, the Hebrew for "lot" is GORAL signifying "rough" and implying a stone (wherein?) or pebble Cp Rev. 2:17. Hence the breastplate is called the breastplate of Judgment Exod. 28:30 Cp Num 27:21.

There were three ways in which Yahweh could answer: by dreams, by Urim or by prophets 1 Sam. 28:6. It is perhaps significant that Teraphim are associated with Ephod. Jud. 17:5; 18:14, 17, 18, 20. Hos. 3:4. that they are treated as something normal to consult. Zech. 10:2 - dreams, prophets, Urim? Cp. Ezek. 21:21 Even false Teraphim 2 Kings 23:24; 1 Sam. 15:23. For the Teraphim of Rachel (Gen. 31:19, 34, 35) + MICHAL (1 Sam. 19:13, 16) See Note under Teraphim. Perhaps the Urim + Thummim were Teraphim denoting the right of Israel to the Divine Inheritance, + the right of Yahweh to Israel; and comprising stones placed in the pouch of the breastplate, securing that peculiar link between Yahweh + His people. (Meaning of Teraphim in doubt. Ges. + TARAPH - To inquire, Oxford C. + S. + Aram. תרפה)

to come will be placed - shall be Elohim to Abraham, to Isaac, + to Jacob - all, from the highest to the lowest embodiments of the Spirit + power of Him who said to Moses, "I will be who I will be" "I am He - who - will be." The name + memorial will, in a word, be illustrated by the consummation of the Divine purpose" C.C.W. Vol. 61, p. 293.

"In the 754 places where the Hebrew word nephesh occurs in the O.T. Scriptures, it is said in 326 places to be subject to death. . . . The soul is said in 203 places to be in danger of death, and in 123 places to be delivered from death, implying its liability to death.

"In the 108 places where the Greek word psuche occurs in the N.T. Scriptures, it is said in 45 places to be subject to death . . . The soul is said in 29 places to be in danger of death, and in 16 places to be delivered from death, implying its liability to death" - Waller's Concordance on the Soul.

Nephesh is translated "life" 119 times in the O.T, and the Greek word psuche, is likewise translated life many times. It comes from a root "to breathe."

Nephesh is applied to dead bodies. Num. 9:6, 10. Lev. 21:11. Hag. 2:13.

Cp Paul's definition of a living soul. 1 Cor. 15:44-45.

YAHWEH "It seems to me that the terms Ehyeh and Yehovah - more particularly the latter - were chosen in order to keep up . . . . . the memorial of His promised manifestation in the flesh." - Dr Samuel Lee - Hebrew lexicon. Cited "Christadelphian" Vol. 61, p. 290.

"It may be observed that the present participle of hayah 'to be,' is haveh. The way then to express the idea conveyed by the English words, 'I am that (or who) I am,' would be by ANOKI HA-HOVEH. But the Deity wanted to say no such thing as this, so He employed words which, to respect the settled usages of the Hebrew language, we are bound to render: 'I will be who I will be'" - C.C. Walker (Ibid, p. 292)

RV mg. "I will be That I willbe." Against Lord it has: "Heb. Jehovah, from the same root as Ehyeh." See Rotherham re the proper pronunciation of the Name.

"The true derivation is from HAVAH, the old root of the Hebrew verb 'to be,' a root-form so ancient as to have been dropped entirely from the prose of the Pentateuch + retained only in the poetic form of the imperative; or in Genesis 27:29, in the prophetic benediction of Isaac: "Haveh," 'Be' Lord over thy brethren" The old root-form havah found its equivalent in hayah, the ordinary form of the Hebrew verb 'to be,' and it is in the third person singular, future, of this later verb, hayah ("to be") - namely, in the form of its old future, Yahveh - that we find the true place and pointing of the word rendered 'Jehovah' by our translators" - A. McWhorter in The Memorial Name, cited by J.W. Thurtle, The Christadelphian Vol 61, p. 401.

Havah = הָוָה Ehyeh אֶהְיֶה The VÂV in Havah can be transliterated as: "v" or "w."

"Rightly understood Yahweh is a prophetic name - a name predicting a purpose. To a complete understanding . . . . The prophecy veiled in the name did not find complete fulfilment in Jesus (Yahweh is Saviour) the Anointed. It will be accomplished when, as the Head of a multitudinous body Christ shall, in the midst of Israel, show forth the power + wisdom of the Eternal Father who has said "I am Yahweh + there is no beside Me, there is no saviour;" when the firstborn of all creation with a multitude which no man can number, glorified together with him, "shall reign + exercise all authority in the earth for + in the name of Him who has said to Israel: "I Yahweh am your Holy One the creator of Israel, your King; when the well beloved Son of the most High, with his brethren the saints - under whom the world

"Oikoumenee" signifies "the habitable." Rendered "Earth" in Luke 21:26.

TRIBULATION

In the OT. (LXX) there is often a connection between THLIPSIS (oppression) and deliverance Exod. 3:9 - 3:10; this expresses the faith & hope of the faithful. Cp Ps. 34:19; 37:39. Hence the conviction expressed in the prayer - Ps 71:20.

...Hebrew Writings. ...Divine Parable ...m

WITNESS 'EDA - Used only of things posited to establish permanence & unequivocal facts such as ownership Gen. 21:30 an agreement Gen 31:52. & a covenant with God Josh. 24:27. (Theol. Word).
● Ewe lambs witness to the Well of the Oath. Gen 21:30 ● Lebaun's pillar at Gilead Gen. 31:52.

THRESHOLD. EZEK 40:6. ● There are two words rendered "Threshold" - "Saph" & Miphtan. Unger distinguishes between these words by defining the first as a sill or bottom of a doorway (Young rend. it as "extremity"); & the second (sig. "stretcher" as probably the bottom beam or seal of a door. Saph has also been rendered "bason" Exod. 12:22; 2 Sam. 17:28; Jer. 52:19 "bowl" 1 Kg 7:50; 2 Kg 12:13; and "cup" Zech. 12:2. Some suggest that "cup" should never be used. Hence, I suppose, the reference to bowls or basons should be to the Threshold sacrificial utensils. Hence Exod. 12:22 should be rend. "at the threshold" instead of "in the basin" & Zech. 12:2. "Jerusalem a threshold of trembling" as relating to the earthquake of Zech. 14:4. In Isa. 6:4 & Amos 9:1 the threshold is rep. as trembling as the result of the manifestation of Yahweh's glory & judgment which would apply to the apocalypse of glory and judgment at Armageddon. On the other hand, adverse judgment is represented as desolations in the thresholds Zeph 2:14.

● Strong defines the word Saph as from a root sig. "containing", a vestibule (as a limit) and a dish as containing blood.

● Saph is rend. "threshold" in Jud 19:27; 1 Kg 14:17; Ezek. 40:6-7; 43:8; Zeph. 2:14. The usage in Jud 19:27; 1 Kg 14:17 established the position of the saph.

● Saph has also been rendered "door" 2 Kg 12:9; 22:4; 23:4; 25:18; Est. 2:21; 6:2; Isa. 6:4; Jer. 35:4; 52:24; Ezek 41:16. (all of which Young would rend. as "threshold" or "thresholds") "doorpost" 2 Chr. 3:7 & "gate" 1 Chr. 9:19, 22 (Young renders these places as "Threshold".

● Ezekiel measures two thresholds Ezek. 40:6. - the plural word occurs in relation to Solomon's Temple 2 Chr. 3:7; Isa 6:4. The threshold of Solomon's Temple was covered with gold 2 Chr. 3:7.

● There were Keepers of the Threshold - both Levites and priests in Solomon's Temple. They were very important officials bearing this title. See 2 Kg. 12:9; 22:4; 23:4; 25:18; 2 Chr. 34:9; Jer. 52:24; 35:4.

● There were gradations of rank: The Ruler 1 Chr. 9:19-20; three 2 Kg. 25:18, Levites 2 Chr. 34:9; and Priests, 2 Kg. 12:9 etc. In Persia the title was given to those in charge of the entrance to the royal Palace Est. 2:23; 6:2. (See the Temple so described - Jer. 35:18. The Psalmist desired to be among their number Ps. 84:10.

● The "man of brass" seen by Ezekiel Ezek. 40:3 appears to be the Ruler. But there will be other Keepers of the doors both internal & external Ezek. 40:45-46; 44:10-14; 44:15-16

● The Keepers of the Threshold in the past are indicted for their failure to properly keep the charge given them Ezek. 44:6-8. They are replaced by those who will do so. It is significant that the threshold should be measured first. It is the measure of 6 cubits, the number of flesh Ezek. 40:6. The Temple is designed as a place of reconciliation for flesh.

● It is also significant that Ezekiel was conveyed by the spirit in "the visions of Elohim" twice to the Temple Ezek. 8:3; 40:2. On the first occasion he witnessed the wickedness of the people Ezek. 8:5, 8-18 & saw judgment on the nation Ezek. 9:1-7. In the second he saw & heard of the glory in a transformed nation Ezek. 43:7-9.

● The word Miphtan is rend "threshold" in 1 Sam. 5:4-5; Ezek. 9:3; 10:4, 18; 46:2; 47:1; Zeph. 1:9. Unger's definition relates it to a portion of the Saph, perhaps a bottom beam or seal of the door.

● Ezekiel last saw Threshold in the vision of Judgment Ezek 9:3. with the glory about to leave 10:4, 18. He heard words of indictment relating to it 44:8

LITTLE CHAMBER Ezek. 40:7. The Heb. word is TÂ' (TAWAW). It occurs in three forms: TÂ', TA'im, TA'AH (Gen. V.12). See Ezek. 40:7, 10, 12, 13, 21, 29, 33, 36. The first gateway measured is the Eastern gateway which is closed after the entrance of the Prince (44:2-3). Bro. Sulley suggests that they are lift-chambers - but this seems hardly necessary, for the Eastern Gate is used only by immortals and for the greater part remains closed. In 1 Kg. 14:28; 2 Chr. 12:11 the addition of "guards" is added to the word. It is from a root "to run" "make haste" & in them were stored the shields used for the ceremonial entrance of the King. They are described as "Guard chambers". These rooms could be used for a similar purpose in the future Temple Cp Ch. 46:10.

PORCH OF GATE Ezek 40:9-10 etc. 'ULAM from same root as AIL implying a projection of strength. The Prince enters through this Porch 44:3; 46:2, 8.

THE POSTS THEREOF Ezek. 40:9. : Posts = pillars. Interlinear. From 'Ailim strong ones" related to AIL. Fig. = Col. 2:9; 1 Tim. 3:15; Rev. 3:12. The word also denotes "rope" and could relate to a base with a double projection above. From Vv 16, 49. these pillars appear to relate to the base only whilst above are two columns (Jew & Gentile) resting upon a common foundation.

● In Solomon's Temple the pillars were pentagon 1 Kg 6:31. Here they are foursquare Ezek. 41:12.

CHAMBERS. Ezek. 40:17 - LISHKÂTH. (plural). In the past Temples this word defined the chambers were also called "treasure houses" where were stored the tithes etc. Ezra 8:29; Neh. 10:37-39. as well as the vessels of the house Neh. 13:9. In Jer. 36:12, 20, 21 it refers to the scribe's room in the palace. In Jer. 35:2 it is the place in the Temple where Jeremiah offered the Rechabites wine. In 1 Sam. 9:22 it is rendered "parlour" and describes the room connected with the "high place" where the prophet, priest & judge partook of a sacrificial meal Cp. 19.

In the Temple, there were Lishkath in the outer building Ez 40:18 and inner buildings 40:44. They were allocated to priests, singers, & Keepers of the Temple. Some were built in three tiers 40:17, 38, 44-46; 41:10; 42:1, 4, 5, 7, 8, 11.

PAVEMENT Ezek. 40:17. RITSPAH - from a root sig to be hot, to gleam. A tessellated pavement of mosaics. Also rend. "live coal" suggesting its gleaming appearance. Cp. Est. 1:6. Solomon's temple had a pavement 2 Chr 7:3. Used as "hot coal" 2 Sa 6:6

TO SLAY THEREON Ezek. 40:39. "Shachat" generally means "to kill". However, it has been rend. "offer" Ex. 34:25 & "beaten" (1 Kg 10:16, 17; 2 Chr. 9:15-16). As these tables appear to be in the outer court, adjacent to the washing room, it would appear as though the animals slain on Tables outside & then conveyed to these tables for final preparation. This is appropriate to the type, for the "old man" is put to death outside, but preparation is made within. The burnt offering would then be dismembered there and the internal parts of animals inspected.

"POST" Ezek. 43:8. : Mezuzâ - Doorpost, Gatepost. Its root is uncertain. Used of the gate posts of Gaza Jud. 16:3; the Tabernacle gatepost where Eli sat 1 Sam. 1:9. Also of Solomon's Temple 1 Kg 6:31. The Israelites applied blood to the Mezuzim of their homes at the time of their departure from Egypt; & so saved their firstborn from death Exod. 12:7, 22-23, 29.

The doorpost of their pagan worship was set up in bold defiance close to that of the Temple. Str gives meaning as Conspicuous.

The word rend "post" earlier in this prophecy is a different word. This word occurs only 46:2. & in the plural. 41:21; 43:8; 45:19. where blood is placed upon them.

SIN. Nine mournful words are used in the N.T. to describe sin.

ABHOR. Rom. 2:22. ABOMINABLE Rev. 21:8. Bdelussō – "To render foul, to cause to be abhorred, to turn oneself away from." from bdeō – "to stink." – Thus to turn away because of the stench. In LXX Ex. 5:21. Lev. 11:13. 20:25 etc.

COMMIT SACRILEGE Rom. 2:22. Acts 19:37. Hierosuleō "To plunder shrines, rob temples. Could be used figuratively of robbing God of His dues – such as Temple tribute.

"BREAKING" ~~DOST TRANSGRESS~~ "TRANSGRESSOR" PARABASIS. Rom. 2:23 4:15. 5:14. Gal. 3:19. 1 Tim. 2:14. Heb. 2:2. 9:15. Para – across, bainō – to go. Primarily a going aside, then, an overstepping. Used of Adam Rom. 5:14 of Eve 1 Tim. 2:14. PARABAIS = BREAKER Rom. 2:25. DOST TRANSGRESS Rom. 2:27. TRANSGRESSION Gal. 2:18. James 2:9, 11 Verb = Parabainō – Transgress Mth 15:2,3. Acts 1:25. 2 Jhn 9.

"SIN" Hamartia – A missing of the mark – though His etymological meaning is often lost sight of in the N.T.

DISOBEDIENCE – Parakoē (Para – near, akouō – to hear.) Thus it means, aptly, a refusal to hear. Rom. 5:19. 2 Cor. 10:6. Heb. 2:2. In case it often signifies the act of disobedience through carelessness in hearing. In the OT disobedience is frequently described as a refusing to hear. Cp Jer. 11:10. 35:17. Cp Acts 7:57 Thus – Disobedience to voice.

FALL – Parapiptō – a false step, a blunder, a lapse from uprightness, a sin, moral treason etc. Rom. 11:11, 12

SIN ATTRIBUTED, INADVERTENTLY. After cleansed Exod. 29:16: Nazarite stained by touching dead body Num. 6:12. Offered in offering for involuntary sin Num. 6:14. Levites cleansed Num. 8:6-7.

WINE YAYIN – To effervescence, ie. to ferment.

YAYIN: Wine in widest sense, including all types both fermented & unfermented. When fermented makes drunk Gen. 9:21-24; 19:32-35; 1 Sam. 25:37. 2 Sam. 13:28; Est. 1:10 Ps 104:15; Prov. 23:30; Isa. 5:11 Cp Eph 5:18

It also refers to wine when newly made & before fermentation Isa. 16:10; Jer. 48:33 Gr. Oinos is the general word for wine. Cp Matt 9:17; Mk 2:22; John 2:3-10

Permitted in moderation under the law Deut. 14:23, 26; 16:11; 18:4. Cp Prov. 31:6, 7. Forbidden Nazarites Num. 6:3-4 Cf. Matt 11:19. Used in drink offerings Ex. 29:40; Lev. 23:13; Num. 15:5-10; 28:14.

AZ SHATHAH[2] Strong drink, from AZ "strong" "vehement" Distinct from wine Lev. 10:9 Deut. 14:26; 29:6; Jud. 13:4, 7, 14. 1 Sam. 1:15 Cf. Luke 1:15

Make eyes red Gen. 49:12 A mocker Prov. 20:1 To be avoided Prov. 23:31. Not for Kings Prov. 31:4. Used as a symbol Gen. 14:18. Potency increased by spices. Prov. 9:2; 23:30; Song 8:2. As such used at executions to deaden pain Ps 75:8 Cp Matt 27:34; Mark 15:23.

TIYROSH[3] From a root signifying to expell and thus implying new wine as just squeezed out. It is the word used of prosperity under the term "corn & wine" Gen. 27:28; 27:37; Deut. 7:13; 11:14; 18:4; 28:51; 33:28; 2 Kg 18:32; 2 Chr 31:5. It is translated with "new" Neh. 10:37, 39; 13:5, 12; Prov. 3:10; Isa. 24:7; 62:8; Hos. 4:11; 9:2; Joel 1:10; 3:18; Hag. 1:11; Zech. 9:17. and with "sweet" Mic. 6:15. "TIYROSH" was the wine to be tithed Deut. 12:17; 14:23, for Yahweh required the newly made wine or first fruits. RV rend TIYROSH as new wine.

YAYIN & TIYROTH are the words most frequently used for "wine." They have been translated "wine" 136 of 139 times respectively the other 9 Hebrew words being only used 16 times altogether.

TIRAS[4] – Prob. sig to bear fruit: hence grape drink Hos. 4:11

ASIS – from root, to squeeze. Hence must or fresh grape juice. Isa. 49:26; Joel 1:5; 3:18.

INDEX TO NOTES

THE DIVINE PURPOSE FORESHADOWED IN CREATION

YZ

GOD (Elohim) Gen. 1:1. • Strong traces this back to an unused root meaning to "twist" (as being rolled together) hence to be strong.
• Davidson "Analytical Hebrew & Chaldee Lexicon" aligns it with Arabic Allah derived from root alaha - To reverence, adore, worship, fear.
• Parkhurst derives it from Hebrew root "alah" - "he swore," bound himself with an oath." Thus the Elohim would be many co-operating as one.
• The word occurs some 2470 times and is derived from El - might, power - but being plural = Mighty Ones. It is used of men. Exod. 7:1; 15:11. 1 Sam. 28:13-14, Ps 45:6-7. 8. 82:1,6. 97:7,9
• Translated "judges." Exod. 21:6. 22:8-9. 1 Sam. 2:25.
• Translated "gods" Gen 3:5. Exod. 32:8, 22,31. Deut 10:17.
• Applied to Angels Jud. 13:21-22, Ps. 8:5
• Applied to men (Cont.). Ps. 86:2 Cp John 10:33-35.
• It is most frequently used with a verb in the singular such as in Gen. 1:1. "Mighty ones he created..." implying that though the agency of the manifestation is a great company united together as one, they all obey in unison the moving power of the Great Increate Ps. 103:19-22. As they are Spirit Ps 104:4 and He is spirit Jhn 4:24 so they are emanations of Him and do His will through His all-pervading spirit. Gen 1:2.
• But in some instances it is used with a plural verb Gen 1:26.3: 22. 11:7. Isa. 6:8. (according to Parkhurst also in Gen 20:13. 31:7,53. 35:7. Deut. 4:7. 5:23. Josh 24:19. 1 Sam. 4:8. 2 Sam. 7:23. Isa. 6:8 Jer. 10:10. 23:36).
• The use of both singular and plural verbs in relation to this plural noun indicates that the Elohim are many and are capable of independent decision and action, though the power they reveal and the glory they manifest all stem from One. Cp Job 38:7.
• This is the work of Yahweh in Christ Rom. 5:2. Luke 20:36. John 17:21-22. 2 Pet. 1:4. Rev. 5:12.

Without form and void Gen. 1:2. Tohu and Bohu = waste and empty. There is the suggestion of chaos out of which God brought order. There is the shroud of impenetrable darkness and the restless water without shape or order. Jer. 4:23-26. seems borrowed from this image of darkness and confusion and could suggest that the earth was plunged into this state

The Spirit of God moved. - This was Yahweh's spirit but used by Elohim. Merachepheth = brooded. The tremulous motion made by a hen when hatching eggs or fostering her young. There is the suggestion of care and suppressed watchful excitement. The world-egg was about to reveal life and the vital principle was the Spirit of God. Job 26:13. 33:4. Ps. 104:30. 139:7.

The First Day. Gen. 1:5. - "When the word 'day' is used with a numeral, it is defined, limited, and restricted to a day of 24 hours" (C.B.). - Particularly is this the case when its boundaries are defined - evening and morning.

VERSE 14

SIGNS: of the Creator's power and purpose. Cp Ps. 19. 89:36-37 104:19. Jer. 33:19-21, 31:35. 'oth = "things to come" Jer. 10:2 Thus they are expressive of the Divine purpose.
Also used in agricultural community as indicative of time of sowing, harvesting etc. Spring = sign resurrection.

SEASONS: Summer, Autumn Winter Spring. Heb. [redacted] mow'ed - appointed times. See Note Lev. 23:1. Many Hebrew festivals were governed by the time of the year. The sun moon & stars [redacted] shining as lamps in the dark vault of heaven are expressive of Yahweh's purpose "at the appointed time" Deut. 11:1-7. Hab. 1. Mal. 4. Mt. 13:43

HEAVENS & EARTH - Rulers and ruled.
CHAOS - The Fall
LIGHT - The first need towards restoration - the Truth -
• 1st. Gen. 3:15. 2 Cor. 4:6 1 Jhn. 1:1. Ps 119:130. Cp Isa. 45:7.

FIRMAMENT - By which was effected a separation between earthly and heavenly water. - a separation suggestive of the antediluvian division of mankind. Light produces it.
• 2nd.

EARTH SEPARATED FROM SEAS. Israel constituted as a nation among the Gentile powers. Isa. 1:2. 57:20. Hag. 2:6 - The oceans of the earth cover 3 fourths of its surface, leaving a fourth for the land.
• 3rd. Cp Exod. 8:23; 11:7
Grass and herbs - (Isa. 40:6-7) forms of growth producing fruit. So the "earth" produces nutriment for man.

SUN MOON AND STARS APPEAR - They are shown ruling over the Day and Night.
• 4th. 2 Cor 4:6. John 9:4. Christ the Sun of righteousness appeared at close 4th millennium, and the moon or Ecclesia followed after. When Christ "the Light of the world" John 8:12 ascended into heaven, night fell on the Jewish earth. But according to the phases of the moon - constantly dying and reappearing so light in darkness was shed upon the earth.

SEAS AND FIRMAMENT SWARM WITH LIFE - The beings
• 5th. Grace filer are drawn more into the purpose of God as it broadens out to include others

ANIMALS AND MAN CREATED - Marriage is instituted and dominion granted the human
• 6th pair - all creation shown living in harmony together.

REST - All that went before is in preparation for this - a foreshadowing of Millennium.
• 7th.

Knowledge of Good & Evil marks the difference between adult & childhood Jeml. 19:3 or extreme old age when desire fails 2 Sam. 19:35 or judicial discernment between right and wrong 2 Sam. 14:17. 1 Kgs 3:9, or the constant of experiencing pleasure or pain, what is wholesome or hurtful. Thus the expression denotes the whole range of experience - doctrinal, judicial, personal.

If One Man Was Brought Nigh to The Knowledge of Good and Evil. For the exhortation see Ep. 5:15. The 2nd Adam

THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE OF GOOD & EVIL - This conferred knowledge of Good that it was not properly imparted whilst Adam was in innocence. Da'ath (Knowledge) is derived from Yada (to know) from personally seeing thus to perceive. Eating of the fruit brought the human pair in close proximity to good and evil! Their eyes were opened. Spiritually to discern they were no longer in innocence & ignorance - to discern a change or difference in body. The evil revealed was the fact of sin and the law of death. The good revealed was the need of a covering, the revelation that man could not depend upon himself. The eating thus revealed:
• That flesh could not depend upon itself - true in the state of innocency but brought more closely home in fallen human nature.
• That man is dependent the mercy, forgiveness and grace of God Rom. 5:10.
• The need for humility, faith, loyalty, obedience on the part of man - his need of God.
• Graphically the very character of Yahweh. Exod. 34:6-7.
• The wisdom of God who was able to use sin to illustrate the means of redemption so that man dependent upon Him. Kindness, mercy and forgiveness of God would teach us to show those characteristics to others. Rom. 5:8. Mt. 5:44
• But God is also just and man cannot accuse Him in a condemned state - he brought this upon himself by the exercise of his own voluntary will.

Christ's estimate of Moses' writings. Matt. 8:4; 12:26; John 7:19; Rom. 10:5.

CHAPTER 1.

ORDER OUT OF CHAOS.

The physical regeneration of the earth is typical of moral regeneration of man by the Gospel.

CHAPTER I.

1 The creation of heaven and earth, 3 of the light, 6 of the firmament, 9 of the earth separated from the waters, 11 and made fruitful, 14 of the sun, moon, and stars, 20 of fish and fowl, 24 of beasts and cattle, 26 of man in the image of God. 29 The appointment of food.

1 IN the [a] beginning God created the heaven and the earth.
2 And the earth was [b] without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.
3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.
4 And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness.
5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.
6 ¶ And God said, [c] Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.
7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so.
8 And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.
9 ¶ And God said, [h] Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.
10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.
11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth [3] grass, [5] the [6] herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.
12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.
13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.
14 ¶ And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide [2] the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years:
15 And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so.
16 And God [d] made two great lights; the greater light [5] to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: [2] he made the stars also.
17 And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth,
18 And to [f] rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good.
19 And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.
20 And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the [7] moving [8] creature that hath life, and [9] fowl that may fly above the earth in the [2] open firmament of heaven.
21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, [14] which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.
22 And God blessed them, saying, [i] Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas,

The darkness of the primeval state had been partially penetrated on the 1st day, but apparently the clouds that formed on the 2nd day V.6. still shrouded the earth in gloom. There were now dispelled and the earth came under the influence of the direct rays of the sun + moon. It = a parallelism with the

"Asah" - Appointed. Ps. 104:19 Gn V. 25

"Bara" - Mighty ones — He created. "Plural noun with Singular verb" Gn 1:26. Elohim from root "alah" - to bind as with an oath. Yahweh in manifestation. The word is used for a) Deity in manifestation of being, b) of Deity in manifestation and of one being representing the Elohim in gen-eral. Heb. "Bereshith" - new title. 24 hours. Exod. 31:17.

Rendered "became" - Concordant trans. Strong gives future tense. Rendered "became" Gen. 2:7 "Came to pass" Gen. 1:9 and many other places. See Isa. 45:18. Thus the earth was marred by some great calamity as was also man by sin. The Heb. word 'hayah' - "to be" signifies not only "to be" but "to become" "to come to pass" "to take place." When a Hebrew writer makes a simple affirmation, or merely predicates the existence of anything, the verb 'h' is never expressed. Where it is expressed it must always be translated by our verb to become never by the verb to be, if we desire to convey the exact shade of the meaning of the original - Martin Anstey. Romance of Bible Chronology p. 12.

"Desha" - Is applicable to every kind of verdure in the state of sprouting.

"Eseb" - denotes a higher order of plants propagated by seed (Kitto).

23 And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

24 ¶ And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

26 ¶ And God said, [c] Let us make man in our image, [d] after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; [h] male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said unto them, [i] Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that [k] moveth upon the earth.

29 ¶ And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb [l] bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree [m] yielding seed; to [n] you it shall be for meat.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is [o] life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

31 And [p] God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the

1 The first sabbath. 8 The garden of Eden. 21 The making of woman, and institution of marriage.

THUS the heavens and earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

4 ¶ These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

5 And every [q] plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the LORD God formed man [r] of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

8 ¶ And the LORD God planted a [s] garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

SUMMARY OF CREATION

Vv 29-31.

There is harmony in creation & provision made for the eater or beasts of prey as we know them now. It could be that these animals where teeth and digestive organs are fitted only for a flesh diet were subject to change and originally were vegetarians.

24 Contrast Mat. 10:16. Gen. 1:29. Rom. 8:20. 1 Tim. 4:4. Very Me'od = vehemence. Superlatively good.

THE CLIMAX

Marriage between Man & Woman in the Image & likeness of Elohim – exercising dominion over lower creation, and [illegible] in harmony one with the other. A foreshadowing of the Divine purpose. Rev. 14:1-3.

MAN IN IMAGE etc (cont). Heb. 1:3. Col. 1:15. (The word image in these places are two different words in Greek. Heb = substance. Col = statue). Phil. 2:6, 7, 8. Christ's followers must build into their lives the image of the Lord. 2 Cor. 3:18. Col. 3:10. Rom. 8:29. Cp. Col. 1:15. "Adam's mental capacity enabled him to comprehend spiritual ideas which moved him to veneration, hope, conscientiousness, the expression of his views, hope, affection and so forth" (E.I.); the lower creation was not capable of this. Yet in nature man was no higher than the beasts. Ecc. 3:18. a "little lower than the angels" Ps. 8:5.

Man was thus made in God's image and given a status over creation similar to that of God. Cp Gen. 5:3. But the Character of man should accord with his Godlike shape as James suggests. (Ch. 3:9). The Fall made that impossible so that Seth is in the likeness of Adam – not God. This required the formation of a New Man who should exactly reveal the Divine Image and likeness. This Christ accomplished by conquering the flesh. Rom. 8:3.

Ceased because of completion of work – not for recuperation. His sabbath rest broken, Cp present activity. John 5:17. No reference to "evening," "morning" implies rest could have continued. So has this in view for all creation like Rom. 8:19.

GENESIS: The Book of Beginnings.

Derives its name from LXX: The Book of the Generation; but Hebrew: Bereshith (from its first word) = "In the beginning."

Both Genesis and Revelation have been the subject of attack more than other parts of the Bible: the former by critics who claim it is impossible, the latter by those who maintain that Revelation is too improbable. The former is rejected on the grounds that such an account is impossible to believe; the latter on the grounds that it is impossible to expound.

"Genesis is the seed-plot of the whole Bible, & it is essential to the true understanding of its every part. It is the foundation on which the Divine revelation rests." (Bull)

A.D: "The narrative is so simple, so much like truth, so consistent everywhere with itself, so correct in its dates, so impartial in its biography, so accurate in its philosophical details, so pure in its morality, and so benevolent in its design, as amply to demonstrate that it never could have had an earthly origin."

1. The beginning of Creation. Gen 1-2:3. [Introduction] FOR COMPLETE ANALYSIS SEE INDEX OPP. X.
2. Law, Sin and death – the promise of redemption Gen 2:4-4:26. (The generations of the heavens & the earth, Gen 2:4)
3. The development of the human race. Gen 5:1-6:8 (The book of the generations of Adam Gen 5:1)
4. The Flood - Judgment of world & preservation of remnant. Gen 6:9-9:29. (The generations of Noah, a just man. Gen 6:9)
5. The development of Nations (Gen 10:1-11:9) (The generations of the sons of Noah Gen 10:1)
6. The separation of a people for the Name. (Gen. 11:10-26) (The generations of Shem. Gen. 11:10).
7. The calling out of a family Gen 11:27-25:11. (The generations of Terah Gen 11:27)

10. The development of the man of sin Gen 36:1-43. (The generations of Esau Gen 36:1). The generations of the sons of Esau Gen 36:9-43)
11. The development of Israel Gen 37:1-50:26. (The generations of Jacob. Gen 37:2).

The phrase occurs three more times in Scripture making 14 in all: The generations of Moses and Aaron. Num 3:1, the generations of Pharez Ruth 4:18, and "the book of the generation of Jesus Christ" Mt 1:1, this phrase linking the development of the creation of God with that of natural man. Cp Gen 5:1.

PRIMEVAL HISTORY. Ch. 1-11.

Four Outstanding Events.

- THE CREATION : Divine glory in natural Creation
- THE FALL : Divine authority in imposing punishment.
- THE FLOOD : Divine judgment in judicial severity & goodness
- THE CONFUSION OF TONGUES. Divine wisdom in enforcing His will PATRIARCHAL HISTORY. Ch. 12-50.

Four outstanding individuals.

- ABRAHAM : Divine Call
- ISAAC : Divine birth
- JACOB : Divine care
- JOSEPH : Divine elevation to power.

v4 "LORD God" First occ. of Memorial Covenant Name – an indication of the divine purpose to fill the earth with the glory Nu 14:21 – hence the first use of the Name to record events which led to the proclamation of His purpose. Where "Yahweh Elohim" appears, it may well refer to the CHIEF ANGEL OF MANIFESTATION, probably Michael (One like El) v16, 18, 19, 21, 22, 3:8, 23 cp ELPIS ISRAEL pp 80, 183-185.

ORIGINAL BELIEF WAS IN ONE GOD.

Dr Stephen Langdon of Oxford University declares that Babylonian inscriptions suggest that man's first belief was in One God, and from that there was a rapid decline into polytheism and idolatry. See Langdon's "Semitic Mythology" and the "Field Museum-Oxford University Expedition To Kish" by Henry Field, Leaflet 28.

Flinders Petrie claimed that the original religion of Egypt was monotheistic.

Leading anthropologists maintain that among all primitive races there was a universal belief in One Supreme God: see Dr. Schmidt's "The Origin and Growth of Religion – Facts and Theories" – Halley's Bible Handbook.

THE FAMILY OF LAMECH

Polygamy exercised for the first time. Adah provided beauty, and Zillah gave comfort.

In Lamech's children there was manifested the influence of the flesh.

When Jabal had set them in a way to be rich, Jubal put them in a mood to be happy. Tubal-cain gave them power, and Naamah gave them prestige. (Similar: Naomi).

This kingdom of flesh was defended by Lamech whose vengeful spirit was commemorated in his boastful song.

SERPENT. Nâchâsh. ~ A serpent.

Davidson's Hebrew Lexicon

- To perceive, observe.
- To use enchantment, divination Cp Deut 18:10 NOTE

The serpent was used by the ancients to that end and was, in consequence, viewed attentively.

Thus, under this head, if name signifies ~ To acquire knowledge by experience (Adam Clarke), in contrast to Divine revelation.

Strong = A snake (from its hiss) ~ thus noted for its voice. The tongue is a serpent characteristic Ps. 12:4. James 3:5-8. Eccles. 10:11. likens a babbler to the serpent.

From the same root (Nâchâsh) comes Nechôsheth = Brass, Brasen. (i.e Copper), a base metal figurative of the flesh. In. Jer. 39:7, 52:11. the word is rendered Chains (i.e. of Babylon) In. Jud. 16:21. 2 Sam. 3:34. 2 Kgs 25:7. 2 Chr. 33:11. 36:6. it is rendered fetters of brass. In Ezek. 16: 36. it is rendered filthiness.

The word nâchâsh has been used to describe many animals: the crooked serpent. Job 26:13. The crocodile Isa. 27:1. Amos. 9:3. etc. though the animal referred to here is undoubtedly that referred to in Isa 65:25. ~ "Dust shall be the serpent's meat..."

- Nâchâsh = To acquire knowledge or experience by attentive observation. is indicated in Gen 30:27. "I have learned by experience" (Nichashti - Davidson gives nachash as its root). "To be accounted of" Isa. 2:22. (Nechâsab - see Davidson)

Thus the word signifies ~

- To gaze • view attentively • pry into • observe narrowly, and to talk, babble, etc See Apis Israel p. 82.

It indicates an animal possessing these characteristics - more ready to speak than to hearken.

THE SERPENT REASONED on completely earthy principles. man had moral faculties superior to the serpent but did not use them to oppose the earthy reasoning of the former. Eve's mind was thus serpentised by the doctrine of the serpent. Lust conceived and Jam. 1:14,15 followed. The intellectualism of the serpent became transformed to mankind. Independent of the serpent man now thought and acted along lines suggested by serpentine doctrine, and thus became the Word of the serpent made flesh as the Lord was the Word of God made flesh.

1. This is a half-interrogative half-reflective exclamation, as if the serpent had brooded long over the matter & come to an unwelcome conclusion.
2. There is deliberate exaggeration as though as to excite comment & criticism.
3. This is additional to the Law Ch. 2:17 and is really an interpretation of the spirit of it doubtless explained by the Elohim and faithfully expounded by the woman who thus opposes the mind of the flesh with the mind of the spirit.
4. Death is not a certainty. This was a lie 1 Jn 8:44 and on what grounds could it be alleged? On fleshly reasoning alone. In some way the Divine decree would be defeated. But how! The serpent does not say, but he hints that the wisdom that shall find release by such action would enable the human pair to counter it, for they would be "as Elohim."

The serpent, as representative of the flesh, reasoned from its standpoint with no sense of responsibility towards God. It was not morally accountable to Him, and therefore He was not in its thoughts Cp Ps 10:4

This new knowledge would enable them to defeat the decree of death. "like God" (elohim)

THERE SEEMS NOTHING STRANGE IN THE SERPENT SPEAKING. ~ Eve apparently treated it as normal & perhaps was accustomed to doing so. If so, through using this faculty to propound a lie 1 Jn 8:44. he evidently had it taken from him, as Eve had taken from her the "one new" she had with her husband and fellowship with God. Cp V 16 / Tim 2:11-15

EVE GRASPED AT EQUALITY ~ whereas Christ humbled himself under the will of God. To Adam & Eve there had been promised dominion Gen. 1:28. and this had been partly exercised. Gen. 2:19. though not completely. Heb. 2:8. for the way to it was for man to show subjection to God. Thus the 2nd Adam secures the Dominion promised the 1st - Phil. 2:10

Thus. Gen. 1:28. states the Divine purpose

- "Be fruitful & multiply" ~ Isa 53:10. The mother = the Ecclesia Gal. 4:26. 2 Cor. 11:2.
- Lower Creation ~ The nations.

This now had to be by War. Ps. 8: Ps 115:16. The antitypical David the means. Cp 1 Sam. 17:46-47 Heb. 2:6-10

- 1 Cor. 15:27. Even death subdued. Note Goliath's challenge of death & servitude 1 Sam. 17:9.
- Eph. 1:22. It is the basic thought of Epistle to Ephesians which predicts the conquest of the Christ-heavens over the Gentile heavenlies. Eph. 1:3. 20. 2:6. 6:12. Here is the higher form of creation.
- Phil. 3:21. "Subdue all things unto himself." This verse shows the source of power ~ from Yahweh. He who gave man the decree. But how came the bodies of humiliation ~ by ignoring the Divine decree.
- Col. 1:15-23 The means of victory ~ by provision of a firstborn who shall subdue all unto himself and who shall be preached to every "creature."
- 1 Pet. 3:22. The full extent of the dominion stated whereby others may be brought to glory. Peter apparently quotes the Psalm as illustrative of Mt. 28:18.
- Rev. 5:12. All ascribe "honor & glory" unto the Son. Illustrative of Ps 8:1, 5.

* Ephesians = the Challenge * Philippians = the Victory
* Colossians = the Elevation * Peter = the Power
* Revelations = the Glory * Corinthians = the final result, death destroyed.

* This summed up and seems of the motive of the statement: "Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory" Luke 24:26 The exposition involved Moses and the Psalms. V. 27, 44.

SERPENT. Nâchâsh. Gesenius - A serpent, so called from its hissing, see root Nâchâsh, "Nachash, in Kal not used, an onomatopoetic word, to utter a low hissing sound, to whisper, especially of the whispering or muttering of sorcerers.... in a wider sense, to divine, prognosticate"

"Onomatopoetic" means imitating the sound indicated by the word ~ in this case the hissing sound suggested in Nâch

ADAM & EVE: "Man is for strength, judgement, and achievement. Woman is for grace, sympathy, and ministration. Between them they form a beautiful unit ~ 'heirs together of the grace of life.'" R.R. "Law of Moses" p. 220. Note the No. 6. Cp Gen. 2:18 And note both masculine and feminine qualities combined in perfection in Christ.

2 THE GARDEN IN EDEN Vv 8-14

11 The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold;
12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone.
13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia.
14 And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.
15 And the LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it.
16 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:
17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.
18 ¶ And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him.
19 And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.
20 And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.
21 And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof;
22 And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man.

MAN FORMED (cont.). into him. As man = the work of Yahweh physically so he must be spiritually. Isa. 60:21.

THE GARDEN IN EDEN. The site seems to have been in the region of Armenia or Babylonia – the cuneiform texts describe the latter as Edin or Edinu (the fertile plain, C.B.) – and the main irrigating river was evidently the Euphrates. This must have joined at some point with the Tigris (as it does today) to branch off again together with two other rivers that today cannot be identified with certainty. The silt annually deposited by the rivers has caused the sea to recede 50 miles from its original situation. ● Gan (Garden) = a place protected by a fence. – So principle of separation stressed. LXX = Paradise. ✦ The Garden with the Tree of Life and the River of Life links the Paradise of unfallen man to that of redeemed man John 7:37-39. From that parted River came the Gospels and Tree of Life Rev. 2:7 (Christ). The River was designed to irrigate the Garden and produce fruit Ez. 1. For fallen man that stream is designed to heal. Thus Ezek. 47:1-12. reproduces the imagery of Eden but adapted to the needs of fallen man. The source of that river is the Mercy Seat. Ezek. 43:1-7. 47:1ff. Rev. 22:1.

● "SAW – TOOK" 3:6. cp GEN 6:2, Josh 7:21 2 SAM 11:2,4.

THE SEVENTH DAY. – Whether or not law was imposed, the 7 day week became the chronological basis Gen. 4:3. 8:6-12. 29:27-28. The ancient Persians, Indians, Germans, Greeks & Phoenicians esteemed the number 7 as sacred. The Assyrians, Babylonians & Egyptians used it for divisions of time. Travellers have detected traces of it among African & American aborigines. Thus nations widely separated both geographically and chronologically observed it – arguing a common origin or association of ideas. (From Pulpit Commen. F.W. Farrar)

MAN FORMED. CH. 2:7. – The word signifies "moulded" and it has been assumed that this implies evolution – but the Bible states that Man was moulded out of dust (clay) and then the breath of life breathed.

3 Man's shameful fall. (Separated – to turn about or aside – Eternal life)

Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the LORD God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden?
2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:
3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.
4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die:
5 For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.
6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also unto her husband with her; and he did eat.
7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons.
8 And they heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the Man + Wife from common Father.

23 And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man.
24 Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.
25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The serpent deceiveth Eve. 6 Man's shameful fall. 14 The serpent is cursed. 15 The promised seed. 16 Mankind's punishment, and loss of paradise.

29 What these duties are we are not told, but in doing them Adam served Yahweh, true happiness is found not in idleness but in harmonious, creative co-operation with God. Cp Mat. 11:29 Rev. 22:3.

4 FORMATION OF WOMAN Vv 18 ff. Cp Eph. 5:29-33.

30 Unselfish love, consideration for others, co-operation responsibility, mutual sympathy are all developed out of family associations.
31 "fit for him" – "to match him" his counterpart – so both fit into each other & respond to each other, and become one whole. Ezer Kenegdo = One as his friend his reflected image, his exact counterpart – A common nature responsive affections, mind and intellect capable of sharing one's thoughts and aspirations.
32 Bible names have a significance that implies an understanding of the characteristics of the one so named. Thus Adam had a knowledge of these animals and a language capable of expressing it, and intellect enabling him to invent new words – None that could reflect his thinking or attributes. Each created independent of the other, there was no mutual sympathy between an animal & its mate as between Adam & Eve. This statement argues Adam's knowledge of their capabilities and habits.
33 Tsela = Side. The feminine qualities are taken from Adam & given to Eve as in Christ. Eph. 5:25.

MARRIAGE Vv 23-25.

Note Woman = out of man. Ish, not Adam. Applies only to Eve & Ecclesia.

CHAPTER 3

6 THE FALL Vv 1-7.

1 Cp Rev. 12:9. Jas. 3:15. 1 John 2:16. Lust of flesh, lust of eyes, pride of life. Cp Christ's temptation Mat. 4.

9 And the LORD God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat?

12 And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the LORD God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat.

14 And the LORD God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life:

15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee.

17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life;

22 ¶ And the LORD God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:

23 Therefore the LORD God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from whence he was taken.

24 So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

1 Birth of Cain and Abel. 8 Murder of Abel. 11 The curse of Cain. 17 Enoch the first city. 19 Lamech and his two wives. 25 Birth of Seth and Enos.

AND Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD.

2 And she again bare his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3 And in process of time it came to pass, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the LORD.

4 And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock and of the fat thereof. And the LORD had respect unto Abel and to his offering:

lamb, and to cover his nakedness with its skin. This was the "lamb slain from the foundation of the world" and represented him who is the lamb typically slain from the foundation of the world (Rev. 13: 8). Adam and his wife were in this manner clothed by Yahweh Elohim, and being thus clothed their sins were expiated or covered.

Though not specifically under law, it could not escape the responsibility of action. There are certain things obvious, requiring no formulated law – such as that Jehovah's word is inviolate. CHAPTER 4.

THE WAY OF CAIN. Jude 11.

Of that wicked one. 1 Jhn. 3:12. Cp Heb 11:4.

OR THE TWO SEEDS. Cp Mt. 10:34.

"There can be no friendship between these parties. Death or victory can be the only alternative. There can be no peace in the world till one or the other be suppressed. The "enmity" is the essential hostility between sin and God's law, which is the truth. Either truth must conquer sin, or sin must abolish truth; but compromise there can be none. I have great faith in the power of truth, because I have faith in God. He is pledged to give it the victory; and though deceivers in church and state may triumph for a time, and tyrants "destroy the earth," their end is certain and their destruction sure" - E.I. p.102.

1 BIRTH OF THE SEED. Vv1-2.

1 "Gotten": Kained. Thus his name. Roth. "I have gotten a man even, Yahweh." She believed Cain would fulfil Gen 3:15. Saw him as He who shall Be, and thus used language indicative of this without recognising the Yahweh Name. Ps 2:1-3.

2 The shepherd and the farmer: one leading the sheep, the other with eyes towards the ground.

4 Moved by faith. Heb 11:4. He recognised his life as but a vapor Pr Mos 6. Jas. 4:14.

5 Thus he slew the animal, and in the blood shed there was accepted the principle stressed in Gen 3:21 that to serve God acceptably one must die to self. Cain's offering did not express that truth, and his subsequent actions demonstrated his rejection of it. Abel's offering showed that he was prepared to die for God - this subsequent tragedy demonstrated his sincerity. Thus was manifested the enmity between the seeds.

2 THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFERINGS. 3-4.

This must have taken place at a specific time when they were called upon to make their offerings - perhaps when attaining a certain age - maturity perhaps.

"offering" (minchah) - "to apportion" "bestow" - usually bloodless and voluntary Str. Cp Lev. 2:1. = flour with oil & frankincense. It was a gratitude offering by which a person thanks God for blessings received and declares he will use the strength derived therefrom to Yahweh's service.

Kennicott (A.C.) renders: "Abel brought it also" - implying he brought firstfruits, but in addition, the animal sacrifice, by which he showed in addition to gratitude there must be dedication of self.

Concordant (literal): "Abel also is bringing, he, moreover, from the firstlings of his flock."

Interlinear (New O.T.): "And Abel brought also he, from the firstlings ..."

This was the "greater" or "more" sacrifice of Heb 11:4. "More excellent" = pleion, more greater. "properly of number, but also of magnitude and in comparison expressed or implied" (Gruil).

● The sweat of Calvary brow will not suffice substitute for the blood of the Lamb. .....

"THY DESIRE SHALL BE SUBJECT TO THY HUSBAND"

Desire - Heb. Teshuwqâh. A stretching out after, thus a longing, from the root Shuwq - To run after or over, i.e. to overflow as in water. But what is the "desire"? The restoration of former privileges when there was a complete "oneness" between Adam & Eve. Ch. V. 12. It is not a desire FOR her husband, but TO.

The same word is used in Gen. 4:7. and obviously signifies the exercise of status of firstborn by Cain on the behalf of his brother.

Some read Teshuwbah - return. Concordant = "By your husband is your restoration & he shall rule over you."

The LXX and Syriac = return (turning) & LXX = Apostrophee = A turning oneself, an escape or place of refuge from evil, a resource against the want of water, a means of getting it. (L. & S.)

Eve had lost that "oneness" with her husband and with God and in view of her subordinate position this was now subject to her husband.

Spiritually this state restored by Christ Gal. 3:28 as a token of the complete restoration Jhn. 17:21.

The 2nd Eve's subjection to her husband - 1 Tim 2:11-12. Eph. 5:22. Col. 3:18. The result will be elevation as the virtuous woman Prov. 31:28-31.

VERSE 8 Supply the ellipsis. "In the most correct editions of the Hebrew Bible there is a small space left here in the text (i.e after "brother"), + a circular mark that refers to a note in the margin, intimating that there is a hiatus or deficiency in the text" A.C.
This is supplied by LXX "Cain said unto Abel his brother 'let us go out into the field': and it came to pass etc.
Samaritan + Syriac texts likewise.
So Cain, a real son of his spiritual father the serpent, adds deceit to his jealousy and anger. Jude 10. 11.

13 There must have been contention in which "he spake evil of things he knew not." Jude 11 showed that he was dominated by "that wicked one" – the serpent (Sin) in the flesh. 1 John 3:12. foreshadowed the murderous intent of the Jewish Generation of vipers Mt. 23:35. whose blood called for vengeance whereas Christ's set forth mercy. Heb. 12:24.
14 The Law required that one act as Redeemer to his brother. (See Summary Ruth 4) A special attitude was demanded towards an Edomite "because he is your brother" Deut. 23:7 and special promises for Ishmael "because he is your seed" Gen. 21:13. There is such a thing as a "brotherly covenant" Amos 1:9. Obad. 12. This the selfish, sullen Cain repudiated.
15 See note 13. Justice demanded that God should punish Cain and restore Abel (with Seth), so his blood continues to speak. Heb 11:4. of the justness of Jehovah Who will vindicate His people – whilst Christ's offering also reveals His mercy.
16 His personal transgression added to the curse already imposed. This is true also of our personal transgressions in the light of our inheritance from Adam. See also the case with Israel. Deut. 28: 15-24
17 See Margin which Hebraists support (A.C. Critical Comm. etc). Cain gives way to black despair recognising the hopelessness of his case. The reason why he states this is not because of moral considerations or out of remorse for what he did, but because, like Esau, he was cut off from the blessing. Religion to him was essentially a matter of gain.

The punishment on Cain will yet be experienced by the latter. 11 THE LINE OF SETH Vv 25-26.

Typically Abel is raised from the dead. The words of Eve suggest she was given a revelation of the Divine purpose – especially in view of v.1
39 Weak mortal man – weak physically and morally See Note. Ps 9:20.
40 Châlal – To profane or make common what is done. They began to invoke in the Name of He Who Will Be in such a manner that would cause God to be profaned. It was the beginning of the decline that reached its climax in Gen 6. See below. *
41 qârâ = To call, to invoke. They began to do this in a special way, possibly in view of the boastful arrogance of the Cainites. Actually Abel and Seth had invoked in the Name so that the statement here implies in a special sense. LXX Syriac etc. = "He began." Enos did it, but in such a way as did not bring credit to God.

ABEL — "Vanity" — He saw the vanity of this life and the true reality in the establishmen of God's Kingdom Ecc. 1:2-3. 12:8. 2 Cor. 4:18.

CAIN — "Acquisition" — Cain was the great motive of his existence. See opp. below.
"The way of Cain" Jude 11. Was that he did not offer correctly. LXX renders Gen 4:7: "If thou offer correctly," but fail to divide correctly." It is linked in Jude 11 with "the error of Balaam" (commercialised religion leading to disobedience) & the "gainsaying (contradiction) of Korah = disbelief.

GENESIS 4.

3 CAIN'S SULLEN ANGER Vv 5

7 Not only for his offering, but also for Cain. He could detect the hidden heart of wickedness. Both: "He approved not." Prov. 21: 27. 15:8. See the additional sacrifice of Abel in introductory note to Vv 3-4.

4 THE FIRST MURDER Vv 6-8

His brooding, sullen jealous anger flares out into vile murder. Cp Prov. 27:4. Ecc. 7: 9. Prov. 14:17. Cp. Eph. 4:26.

8 As the firstborn. See Notes.

9 Chattah = both sin & Sin offering.

10 Reclining, lying, crouching. So Cain is invited to follow the example of his brother. Animal provided by Abel.

11 Restoration. Abel's offering indicated the need and his desire for the promised redemption.

12 Lit. "said." See note opp.

5 PUNISHMENT OF CAIN. Vv 9-12

14 Lit. faces. Cut off from access to the Cherubim

6 PROTECTION FOR CAIN. Vv 13-15.

18 He would be without protection and his vile murder would have added to the problems of the race. Cain, in speaking thus, is not concerned with the immediate presence - but the indefinite future when man would increase. Hundreds of years stretched before him.

19 RV: "Appointed a sign for Cain." But it seems obvious, by the context, that the mark or sign was on Cain. He was easily distinguishable - like the Jews. Matt. 23:35 — and like them protected. The external marks of a sinner are often openly seen - and we need to avoid such.

20 See Note opp. above. Cp Asia Jon. 1:3, 10 Nre.

5 But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, [a] and his countenance fell.

6 And the LORD said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7 If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him. — See Note Gen. 3:16.

8 And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to pass, when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, and [b] slew him.

9 ¶ And the LORD said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, [c] I know not: Am I my brother's keeper?

10 And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's [c] blood crieth unto me from the ground.

11 And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from the hand; 12 When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength; a fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain said unto the LORD, [2] My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14 Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth; and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth; and it shall come to pass, [h] that every one that findeth me shall slay me.

15 And the LORD said unto him, Therefore whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him [i] sevenfold. And the LORD set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

16 ¶ And Cain went out from the presence of the LORD, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden.

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare [2] Enoch: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch.

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat [3] Lamech.

19 ¶ And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20 And Adah bare Jabal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21 And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organ.

22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubal-cain, an [7] instructer of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal-cain was Naamah.

23 And Lamech said unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, Hear my voice; ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for [d] I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt.

24 [e] If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold, truly Lamech seventy and sevenfold.

25 ¶ And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name [8] Seth: For God, [9] said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew.

26 And to Seth, to him also there was born a son; and he called his name [f] Enos: then began men [10] to call upon the name of the LORD.

CAIN INTRODUCES
- City life v. 17
- Polygamy. v. 19
- Popular music v. 21
- Metal working (for war). v. 22
- Personal vengeance v. 24
- Spirit militarism.

Here is evidence of clever organisation based on the flesh.

The word "artificer" v. 22. (choresh) is similar to word Charash in Isa. 40:19-20 41:7 44:12-13. rendered "smith" & "carpenter" but directly connected with the making of idols. Cp Acts. 7:29.

The blood of Abel's lamb effected what the sweat of Cain's brow could never accomplish.

What the law could not do...

10 EARTH'S FIRST NATIONAL ANTHEM Vv 23-24

37. The words are in poetic form in the original and represent the earliest form of poetry. It breathes the fierce implacable spirit of revenge, and seems to commemorate the perfection of Tubal Cain's weapons! Lameth boasts that he no longer needs the Divine protection as did Cain v. 15 but will effect his own protection & vengeance. Let anyone wound or hurt him & he will answer by death. In this song Flesh reaches the highest point of arrogance & ruthlessness.

39 See the very opposite taught Mt. 18:22.

7 BANISHMENT OF CAIN V. 16

21 Exile. Nod is similar to nod (vagabond). Thus land of Wandering.

22 So worshippers would turn their backs on the land of Cain to pay respects to Yahweh, as later they did to the natural light of the sun.

8 PROGENY OF CAIN 17-18

23 Sin Dedicated. Thus implies religious worship. The city doubtless associated therewith - so the false and the true were side by side. Cp Lev. 26:1-7. Rev. 16:19.

a To produce. Str dor from root "to bring (esp. with pomp)".

The organised shepherd life - so that the humble work of Abel is developed into a complex business with large flocks and herds and travelling companies.

Jubilee (Cone) - or joyous music. Int. Critical Com. = Ram's horn (Yobel) Str - Yobl = sound of silver trumpets.

The dark brunette. See note 24.

Flowing forth of Cain. Sig. He perpetuated and extended the spirit of Cain. Tubal is from same root as Jubal, suggesting the song of the sword.

This suggests the improvement in metallurgy and in instruments and weapons of war. See the note under "Philistines" Jud. 13.

36 Pleasantness. The mention of women in genealogies in this disapproved way is so rare that it indicates a special reason. Perhaps they were beginning to assert themselves contrary to Gen. 3:16 - perhaps the pleasant Naamah, sister to the mighty Tubal-Cain led the way in the apostasy of

"AND HE DIED" – With monotonous regularity this statement is made, emphasizing the hopelessness of the human race in spite of the long lives lived. Inevitably the end awaits even a Methuselah. This is the theme-song of life – the only significant exception in this Chapter being Enoch – a wonderful reminder that the sting of death can be defeated.

The third division of the Book of Beginnings: Gen. 1:1. 2:4. Cp Mt. 1:1. Rev. 3:14

3 DESCENDANTS OF ADAM IN LINE SETH. V1-6:8

THIS is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, in the likeness of God made he him;

1 ADAM. V1-5 The Earthy

1 This is an addition to the general title, and the expression is only met again when considering the second Adam. Mt. 1:1.

2 Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name [2] Adam, in the day when they were created.

2 Earthy. 1 Cor. 15:47. God named Adam though Adam named the beasts. He knew Adam better than Adam knew himself. Jer. 10:23.

3 ¶ And Adam lived an hundred and thirty years, and begat a son in his own likeness, [3] after his image; and [c] called his name Seth:

3 The original likeness of man had been marred by sin. This chapter reveals the result.

4 [d] And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years: and he begat sons and daughters:

5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: [e] and he died.

2 SETH: THE APPOINTED 6-8

6 And Seth lived an hundred and five years, and [f] begat [2] Enos:

Sig. "weak, sickly, mortal".

7 And Seth lived after he begat Enos eight hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters:

8 And all the days of Seth were nine hundred and twelve years: and he died.

3 ENOS: THE WEAK 9-11

Cp 4:26 with Ch 6:1.

9 ¶ And Enos lived ninety years, and begat [5] Cainan:

10 And Enos lived after he begat Cainan eight hundred and fifteen years, and begat sons and daughters:

11 And all the days of Enos were nine hundred and five years: and he died.

4 CAINAN: THE GAINER. Vv. 12-14

Cain from root to strike, kena, spear.

12 ¶ And Cainan lived seventy years, and begat [6] Mahalaleel:

4 An acquisition. Davidson derives from same source as Cain. See Note opp. p. 9. Str. from a root qanan – to erect, to build and occupy as a nest. Here is materialism similar to Cain though falling short of murder.

13 And Cainan lived after he begat Mahalaleel eight hundred and forty years, and begat sons and daughters:

14 And all the days of Cainan were nine hundred and ten years: and he died.

5 MAHALALEEL: THE PRAISER. Vv 15-17.

THE

15 ¶ And Mahalaleel [5] lived sixty and five years, and begat [8] Jared:

Marr Wom ness dor cat ony for ie pi

5 His name means Praise of El from Halal – praise. Perhaps he instituted some reform, calling the sons of God to praise. However, his son's name signifies "He climb" so that the reform was short-lived.

16 And Mahalaleel lived after he begat Jared eight hundred

ENOCH Note that he was taken before the death of Seth, and evidently could see the rising tide of evil from Kings on. Jude 14-16. when the Sons of God "had men's persons in admiration" – so there was an imitation of the Cainites. Enoch walked in faith Heb. 11:5. not by sight 2 Cor. 5:7,9. (See dates above) + God revealed to him His purpose Cp Ps. 25:14. Jhn. 15:13-15. He "believed" God Heb. 11:6. – believed in impending judgment, his own translation, the coming of Christ and establishment of Kingdom. Jude 14-17.

He saw the growth of militarism among the Cainites + the imitation of their ways "by Sons of God". He saw the uprise of Commerce, Pleasure, War and Idolatry.

He set himself to walk with God. Yithhallech in the hithpael signifies what one does for himself. He dedicated himself with determination to do this. And in this he pleased God. Heb. 11:5. Cp Ch. 6:9. Mic. 6:8.

17 And all the days of Mahalaleel were eight hundred ninety and five years: and he died.

18 ¶ And [6] Jared lived an hundred sixty and two years, and he begat [b] Enoch:

19 And Jared lived after he begat Enoch eight hundred years, and begat sons and daughters:

20 And all the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty and two years: and he died.

21 ¶ And Enoch lived sixty and five years, and begat [2] Methuselah:

22 And Enoch [c] walked with God [7] after he begat Methuselah three hundred years, and begat sons and daughters:

23 And all the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty and five years:

24 And [h] Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him.

25 And Methuselah [9] lived an hundred eighty and seven years, and begat [i] Lamech:

26 And Methuselah lived after he begat [i] Lamech seven hundred eighty and two years, and begat sons and daughters:

27 And all the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty and nine years: and he died.

28 ¶ And [6] Lamech lived an hundred eighty and two years, and begat a son:

29 And he called his name [7] Noah, saying, This same shall comfort us concerning our work and [i] toil of our hands, because of the ground [k] which the LORD hath cursed.

30 And Lamech lived after he begat Noah five hundred ninety and five years, and begat sons and daughters:

31 And all the days of Lamech were seven [12] hundred seventy and seven years: and he died.

32 And Noah was five hun-

A Godless Age: "In no single grave has there been any figure of a god, any symbol or ornament that strikes one as being of a religious nature." Woolley - "Ur of Chaldees." The generation before the Flood was not a pagan or idolatrous race - it was a godless one - a people proud and arrogant, lawless and utterly unconcerned about God, His revelation and will. Progressive and great in material things, it was carnal and spiritually bankrupt in spiritual matters.

1 The wickedness of the world. 8 Noah findeth grace. 14 The order, form, and use of the ark.

AND it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2 That [f] the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

3 And the LORD said, [h] My spirit shall not always strive with [5] man, [i] for that he also is flesh: yet his days shall be an hundred and twenty years.

4 There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.

5 ¶ And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that [k] every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil [5] continually.

6 And [l] it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah [m] found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: [o] Noah was a just man and [7] perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

35 A cubit square window in such a large vessel would not be of much use. It is suggested that an opening or lattice of some kind was left all around the top of the Ark, a cubit below the roof for light and ventilation.
36 "I, the Creator!" Noah believed this because God stated it (Heb 11:7). No body else did of the two families of mankind. CHAPTER 7.

1 Noah, with his family, and the living creatures, enter into the ark. 17 The beginning, increase, and continuance of the flood.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattle, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man:

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

THE DELUGE

The universality of the Flood is not necessarily taught by such references as Ch. 7:19 - for see Gen 41:57, 58. 2 Chr. 9:22-23. Acts 2:5.

THE VOICE OF GRACE

Yahweh spoke 5 times to Noah: ch 6:13, 7:1, 8:15, 9:1, 8.

39 Faith in action. James 2:18-24

CHAPTER 7.

FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS FOR NOAH. Vv 1-6. Imperative mood

1 He entered in faith. Heb 11:7. He left a world absorbed with its own material wants. Mth. 24:38, 39. Luke 17:26. He had to leave home, property, relations for a situation in which was promised only the barest necessities. He did it because he "believed God."

2 There were probably plenty righteous in their own eyes. But 8 persons only saved out of a world!!

3 Gen. 9:1-17. Deut. 14:1-20. Cp Acts 10:15, 34, 28.

4 Other Versions (Syriac LXX) add "which are clean."

5 To provide for their greater use - in sacrifice and ultimately food. It was necessary for them to grow more numerous than the unclean animals. Typically it reminds us that sin will still prevail in the 7th or Millenium. 7 is the covenant number.

6 The number of probation. See note Deut 25.

V 6 is the number of man, & his the year when man perished. Also the year Methuselah died. Born 687 + 969 Gen. 5:27. Flood = 1656.

NOAH ENTERS THE ARK Vv 7-10.

8 They were drawn to Noah perhaps by instinct, God moving in them in some mysterious way. The "enmity" of the animal life was forgotten in the face of the impending storm which they could sense. In the same way the nations will be drawn to Christ at the millenium.

THE STORM

9 On the 7th day the storm broke. Indicative of millenium. Mark 4:39. Cp 2 Pet. 3.

NOAH'S LOG Vv 11-24.

The details are recorded like the careful log of a sea captain. Cp. Ch 8:4, 5, 13, 14.

10 This was the year of Methuselah's death, which notable event warned that the time had come. He must have died but a few weeks before the Flood. Cp Heb. 11:5

"Heaven and earth were thrown into a furious and terrible revolution. The lightning flashed without ceasing, and the thunders rolled from pole to pole throughout the heavens. These were the trumpet and bugle calls of God announcing that the Day of Judgment had come. The earth heaved and trembled in its very foundations. Its writhing convulsions encircled the earth. Volcanoes belched forth fire, water, steam and brimstone to add to the horror of this terrifying spectacle of Divine Judgment caused by violent cosmic disturbances.

11 Ps 35:7. A violent cataclysm took place. The earth was rent by volcanic eruption and earthquake, the land submerged and huge tidal waves swept over the earth destroying everything in their path. Normally the coasts hold back the fountains of the deep - but they did so no longer. Cp Ch. 8:2.

12 'Arubah = the sluices or flood gates. Lit. lattice. There was a partial undoing of the work of Creation for the purpose of judgment. Ch 1:6-7. Continuous torrential rains poured down upon the earth. As a symbol of judgment cp experience Christ. Ps 42:7. 88:7.

12A On the same day Vs 7 days before Flood. God's purpose known from the beginning. Rom 8:29. Eph 1:4. 1 Pet 1:2.

B Cp Ps. 29:10. The flood vindicated Yahweh's power. And thus mankind shut out.

14 The water of Judgment destroyed the wicked but saved the righteous. 1 Peb 3:20. 2 Cor. 2:15-16. Heb 2:14.

15 It is expressed as though it was a contest between the waters & the earth. So also will God's judgment prevail.

16 Approx. 22 ft. higher than highest part to be covered. Notice the prevalence of grace & association with 3 - Resurrection.

17 These two verses express the gradual rise of waters.

4 The tremendous convulsions of nature ceased Cp Ch. 7:11 and the earth returned to normal. So also at Christ's return Zech. 14:4 Isa 2:21.

5 Notice Hebrew expression in mg. It gives impression that flood tidal waves swept the earth but now they gradually receded. This being the case, the Ark would have to battle with the waves of judgment.

23 And every living thing was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattle, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fifty days.

bol of sin. Used by Yahweh for benefit of saints 1 Kgs 17:4. But though typical of sinners is cared for by God. Luke 12:24. Heb. arabe = dusky. Note mg. Flew back to perch on the Ark but not admitted in – typifying the sinner.

12 The dove will settle only on those places that are dry and clean. It is a "clean" bird and symbolises Israel natural and spiritual. See Notes on Jonah.

THE FLOOD OVER. Vs 13-14

Cp Ps 105:9. See margin above. A New Year – a new beginning. Similarly – the Tabernacle Exod 40:2. Sanctification of Temple by Hezekiah 2 Chr. 29:3. The going up of Ezra Ch. 7:9. The going up of strange wives Ezra 10:17. Sanctification Ezekiel's future Temple Ezek. 45:18. It was uncovered though still swampy and moist.

1 year 10 days Ch. 7:11 or if Jewish reckoning is followed a solar year. for he went in on 17th day and came out on 27th both days being thus counted. A Jewish year = 354 days. 9 mths = 270 days and 6 mths = 240 days + 11 days = 365.

It was probably Autumn, the time when the Hebrew year commenced until altered Ex. 12:2. See below.

15-17 OUT FROM THE ARK. Vs 15-19

Cp Ch. 6:3, 13, 22, Ch. 7:1, 16. Ch. 8:1. The initiative was God's, the work of salvation Is. 43:3. 2 Cor. 5:19.

Now the narrow confines of the Ark is exchanged for the freedom of a cleansed world. So it will be at Christ's coming.

So will life be greatly extended in the Kingdom. The Saints will "go forth" V.11 to "bring forth." Having experienced Divine love they will be ...ome the channel along which it will flow to others. The family of Christ will feed the world to new conditions.

A JEWISH YEAR?

The above suggestion is sometimes made (See W. H. Cotter – Times & Seasons) on the basis of a Jewish year (lunar) of 354 days, but in the narrative 5 months is reckoned as 150 days. Cp. Gen. 7:24, 7:11, 8:4. The total number of days of the flood until the day Noah left the Ark as ascered above were 369 X 1 = 370. or one year ten days.

FROM "UR of THE CHALDEES" by Leonard Woolley. "Inundations are of normal occurrence in lower Mesopotamia, but no ordinary rising of the rivers would leave behind it anything approaching the bulk of this clay bank. 8 feet of sediment imply a very great depth of water, and the flood which deposited it must have been of a magnitude unparalleled in local history. That it was so is further proved by the fact that the clay bank marks a definite break in the continuity of the local culture; a whole civilisation that existed before it is lacking above it and seems to have been submerged by the waters.

21 Family life will form the basis of the kingdom. Eph. 6:1 3. Mic. 4:4 Zech. 8:4,12 Cp Ps. 68:8; Mtt. 19:29.

NOAH'S OFFERING Vv 20-22

Blood shed = life dedicated.

Burning: Consumed by in service to God. Cp Lev. 9:24. Christ thus a burnt offering Jn 2:17 So also his disciples. Phil. 4:18.

22 See Margin. God's striving at an end. Gen. 6:3.

Antitype - Christ Eph. 5:2 Isa. 11:10. Aim of Apostolic preaching to that end. 2 Cor. 2:16. Prov. 15:10.

Fulfilment Zech. 6:12. Ezek. 20:41.

Adam Clarke - "To argue, "I will not add to curse the earth" Deity was speaking of the flood when He said, "As I have done." Ps. 58:3. Jer 10:23. "For" should be "although" as in Exod. 13:17. 2 Sam. 23:5. Ps. 49:18. Cp mg. Ecc. 1:4.

This implies labor in collaboration with God. This will not cease even at the end of Millenium. Cp Mtth 11:28-30.

CHAPTER 9.

THE NEW ORDER. Vv 1-7.

1 At the beginning government is established for the good of the saints. Cp V 5 - Rom. 13:4

The blessing of fruitfulness conferred on Adam Gen. 1:28. is renewed to Noah the federal head of a renewed world. It also has a spiritual application Jhn 15:16. Gal. 5:22.

The blessing of Dominion unrenewed. Ch. 1:28. Man is intended to be God's vice-regent Ps 8:6-8. Temporarily frustrated by the Fall, it is receiving its fulfilment in Christ Heb. 2:5-9. to whom has been given all power Mt. 28:18.

And into our hands has been given the work of training and judging humanity by the Word.

The original harmonious order of nature, in which all forms of slaughter were prohibited had been violated by men and animals before the Flood Ch. 6:11. This is now replaced by a new constitution in which this is legalised.

The preaching of the Gospel is symbolised by the killing and eating of meat. Acts 10:11-17. It should be noted that there is no prohibition against eating unclean animals.

This belongs to God. In a spiritual sense the preaching of the gospel consumes the flesh, but the life must still be poured out in dedication to God. Cp Lev. 17:3-4, 14. Cp Heb. 9:22; Jn 1. 6:53. See Deut. 14:12. (Stranger). Cf. Acts 15:28-29 with 1 Cor. 10:25-29. The substance having appeared no need for typical.

whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their @kinds, went forth out of the ark. Gen 1:21

20 ¶ And Noah builded an altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

21 And the LORD smelled a sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done. 1 God blesseth Noah. 4 Blood and murder forbidden. 13 Covenant of the rainbow. 20 Noah planteth a vineyard, 21 is drunken, and mocked of his son, 25 curseth Canaan, 26 blesseth Shem, 27 prayeth for Japheth, 29 and dieth.

AND God blessed Noah and his sons, and said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth. See below

2 And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the air, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea; into your hand are they delivered.

3 Every moving thing that liveth shall be meat for you; even as the green herb have I given you all things. Isa. 40:6.

4 But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat. Nephesh - soul.

5 And surely your blood of your lives will I require; at the hand of every beast will I require it, and at the hand of man; at the hand of every man's brother will I require the life of man.

10 And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth.

11 And I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

12 And God said, This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations: Generations of Olam

13 I do set my bow in the cloud, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth.

14 And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud:

15 And I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth.

17 And God said unto Noah, This is the token of the covenant, which I have established

9 The sanctity of human life is because of his likeness to God in the sight of lower creation. Therefore Yahweh's will should be done in earth as in heaven"

THE NEW COVENANT. Vv 8-17.

10. This repetition denotes emphasis. God initiates the covenant and commands its obedience. He alone can establish it.

11 It extends to all that which are born to those which came from the Ark. Here typical beasts (mortals of millenium) are indicated. See Note V. 3. Cp Jer. 31:31.

GENESIS 10. The generations of Noah.

NOW these are the generations of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were sons born after the flood.

2 The sons of Japheth; Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And the sons of Gomer; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 And the sons of Javan; Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanim.

5 By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

6 ¶ And the sons of Ham; Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Canaan.

7 And the sons of Cush; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtechah: and the sons of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan.

8 And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD: wherefore it is said, Even as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the LORD.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel, and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land went forth Asshur, and builded Nineveh, and the city Rehoboth, and Calah, 12 And Resen between Nineveh and Calah: the same is a great city.

13 And Mizraim begat Ludim, and Anamim, and Lehabim, and Naphtuhim,

14 And Pathrusim, and Casluhim, (out of whom came Philistim,) and Caphtorim.

15 ¶ And Canaan begat Sidon his firstborn, and Heth,

16 And the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgasite,

17 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite,

18 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite: and afterward were the families of the Canaanite spread abroad.

19 And the border of the Canaanite was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar, unto Gaza; as thou goest, unto Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, even unto Lasha.

20 These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

21 Unto Shem also, the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born.

22 The children of Shem; Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the children of Aram; Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.

24 And Arphaxad begat Salah; and Salah begat Eber.

25 And unto Eber were born two sons: the name of one was Peleg; for in his days was the earth divided: and his brother's name was Joktan.

26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah,

27 And Hadoram, and Uzal, and Diklah,

28 And Obal, and Abimael, and Sheba,

29 And Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were the sons of Joktan.

30 And their dwelling was from Mesha, as thou goest unto Sephar a mount of the east.

31 These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, after their nations.

32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations: and by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

THE CROWDED CEMETERY OF HISTORY.

There lie Kings & commoners, wise men and fools, heroes or cowards, the oppressor and the oppressed. Their lives a record of faithful service or misspent opportunity. What they meant in life, means little now - but what the future holds means all. The centuries come and go, but through out them all the purpose of Yahweh is Kept alive.

There is a repetition of the line of Cain in that of Ham - city building, power of the sword, false religion. Japheth spreads towards the West. Ham grows in fleshly power - from Sidon reaches out West - through Sinites V.17 to Far East. They dominate the land of Promise V.19.

Shem on the other hand is compressed - excluded from the Land of Promise V.30 and

6 And the LORD said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and this they begin to do: and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.
7 Go to, [h] let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.
8 So the LORD scattered them abroad from thence [k] upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.
9 Therefore is the name of it called [3] Babel; because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the LORD scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

[6] The design of the builders of Babel was the establishment of a dominion in apostasy to the Truth. Their strength lay in centralisation, but God's purpose was the subjugation of the earth Gen. 1:28 In preparation for the Kingdom.
Nimrod probably initiated the building. Ch. 10:8

[12] Whatever change of language was brought about was accentuated by scattering. Thus the Political & Ecclesiastical unity they sought ended in complete division as is seen in the earth today.
This was partially reversed at Pentecost Acts 2:7.

NIMROD'S EMPIRE (Gen. 10:10-12). From Ararat Gen 8:4 mankind moved eastward down fertile crescent Gen 11:2. to build Babel. Archaeologists acknowledge that the Akkadians and Sumerians migrated from the direction of Ararat. Here Nimrod built his EMPIRE • BABEL - Confusion. Akkadian Bab-ili - Gate of God. 51 miles south of Baghdad • ERECH - long. Akkadian - Unuk. 100 m. S.E. Babylon. First ziggurat here found. With Ur, Lagash, and Eridu is among the oldest cities of southern Babylonia. • ACCAD - Akkadian = Akkad. Known as Agade, 2 short distance south-west of modern Baghdad. It gave its name to the country Akkad (the land of Shinar) • CALNEH - Site uncertain. Some identify with Nippur. • NINEVEH comprised a great city incorporating Rehoboth and Calah Gen. 10:12. Rehoboth = broad places. Rehoboth-Ir = "the streets of the city" Gen. 10:11 mg.

Modern Warka

Sargon of Akkad. During the 3rd millenium, Semites became more numerous in the Mesopotamian Valley & controlled the area during the Old Akkadian Period 2360-2155 B.C. Sargon of Akkad extended his influence to create an Empire - "the first empire builder in the region." (Historical Geography of Bible Lands).
See Note: The Crowded Cemetery of History. p. 16.

SUMER AND AKKAD

• Sumer comprised a group of city-states belonging to the gods. Nippur was the city of Enlil and Ninlil; Erech of Anu & Inanna; Ur of Nanna, the moon god & his wife Ningal.
• Sumerians termed themselves "the black-headed" people, and were probably Hamites. Their cuneiform (wedge-shaped) writing constitutes man's earliest written records.
• They were the first to build Ziggurats for the foundations of their Temples. The Assyrian-Babylonian word ziggurat, comes from the verb zaqaru meaning "to be high or raised up" (Light from the Ancient East p. 23). See Tower of Babel Index.
• Sumer was the region from Baghdad to the Persian Gulf, the territory north being that of Akkad (Semitics).

UR called also Mugheir = Muqayyar.

See Note p. 17. Ur became a royal city of Sumer and before the river changed its course was situated on the Euphrates. Archaeologists divide its dominance into three periods: 1st Dynasty 3500-3000. 2nd Dynasty 3000-2700. 3rd Dynasty 2060-1450
Sargon of Akkad had dominated Sumer and the Sumerians were ruled by Akkadians from 2360-2180

Ur was once a seaport on the Persian Gulf, at the mouth of the Euphrates, 12 m. from Eridu, traditional site of the Garden of Eden. Just preceeding the time of Abram it was the most magnificent city in the world; a centre of manufacture, farming, shipping, in a land of fabulous fertility, wealth, with caravans going in every direction to distant lands, & ships sailing from its docks, importing & exporting merchandise. About the time of Abram, it was eclipsed by Babylon, the Akkadian Semites taking over, but remained an important city until the Persian period.

But the Gulf receded, the Euphrates changed its course, Ur was abandoned & finally buried by the sand-storms of the desert.

The City covered an area about 2 m. nth west & sth east & ½ mile wide. It was surrounded by a wall 70ft thick - 80ft high. The Sacred Area, occupied by Temples and Palaces was surrounded by an inner wall 400 yds long by 200 yds wide.

The Ziggurat (See Tower of Babel-Index) was rebuilt by Nabonidus. The two main Temples were those of the moon-god Nannar and the moon goddess, Ningal Cp. Josh. 24:2.

The royal tombs testify to the high degree of material skill developed by the civilisation. See Note. p. 17. Top.

HARAN. An ancient, still existing commercial centre on the Belikh River, 60m from its entrance into the Euphrates.

It was on the busy Caravan road connecting Nineveh & Babylon in Mesopotamia with Damascus, Tyre and the Egyptian cities of the west & south.

Haran like Ur was a centre of the moon god cult – which may have caused Terah to delay. Inscriptions have mentioned a neighbouring city of Nahor. Gen. 24:10. They likewise speak of such social usages as family teraphim Gen. 31:19, death bed blessing Gen. 27, & employment of concubines to ensure heirs Gen. 16:3. (Unger Dict.)

CHEDORLAOMER'S INVASION.

See Notes. Gen. 14.

ELKASAR. Known as Larsa in Sumer between Ur and Erech, on the left side of the Great canal Shat-en-Nil. Centre of the worship of the sun – Shamash, and about 2400 occupied an influential position throughout Sumer and Akkad.

TIDAL KING OF NATIONS. Some identify this with Goi (Nations = Goiim) in northeastern Babylonia.

THE KINGS HIGHWAY. This was the route of Chedorlaomer's forces.

See Note Gen. 14. Later, the Israelites asked permission to use it to pass through Edom. This was denied by the Edomites & Sihon of Heshbon & they had to take the more difficult route around Edom. Num. 20:17-21. 21:21-23.

THE NATIONS GEN. 10:5.

● GOY – (GO-EE) is here translated both Gentiles and Nations and is the first occurrence in the Bible of this significant word. Plural GOYIM.

ISAAC WEANED

A great feast was given, Ishmael was cast out & Isaac became Abraham's seed & heir. Gen. 21:1-10. This took place 400yrs before the Exodus Gen. 15:13 Acts 7:6. The Exodus was 430 years after the Call Gen. 12:4, Gal. 3:17 and Promise. Abram was then 75 and the date 2083 + 430 = 2513 Exod. 12:40-41.

FROM DEATH JOSEPH TO BIRTH MOSES

This was a period of 64 years, computed as follows.

● Israel left Egypt 430 years after the call Exod. 12:40-41		430.
● Date of the call		2083.
● Death of Joseph		2513.
● Moses age at Exodus Acts 7: 23 & 30. (Gal. 1:23).		144.
● Birth of Moses after death of Joseph.		80. 64.

THE SOJOURNING IN EGYPT

● Exodus 12:40. gives this as 430 years but limits it to "the children of Israel." However, according to Adam Clarke, the Samaritan text reads. "Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, and of their fathers, which they sojourned in the land of Canaan and in the land of Egypt, was 430 years." The Alexandrian LXX has the same reading.

● Josephus (Ant. 2.15:2) states that the children of Israel were in Egypt 215 years.

● Jacob entered Egypt		2298
● Plus		215.
● Exodus from Egypt		2513.

In regard to the rapid increase of the children of Israel in the land of Egypt – See Note Exod. 1:1.

Even apart from the "households," allowing 3 sons each for the 51 grandsons at the descent within 200 years there would be 3^4, 81 children born who would be 20 years approx by the Exodus, plus 1+8+27 from two previous periods of 25 yrs. If they each had 3 sons the total within 200 years would be 3,342,336 sons plus the living.

There are unusual figures but by no means beyond possibility – particularly with Yahweh granting the increase.

This would require, of course an equal number of females, or the selection of them from Egypt & the Semites dwelling there

THE DESCENDANTS OF SHEM.

This genealogy is more selective than that of Ch. 10:21-32. It seems to pick up where that of Ch. 5. leaves off, & has some of the same characteristics. The ages of men are given. As Noah was 10th from Adam, Terah is 10th from Shem. As Noah had 3 sons, so did Terah. In contrast to the genealogy in 10:21-32. this list traces the line through Arphaxad, ignoring Shem's other sons. It then settles on the sons of Peleg who are not referred to in the previous list. Thus the record is quickly brought from Noah to Abram the next major character in the developing story of redemption.

1 THE DESCENDANTS OF SHEM. 11:10-26.

Shem signifies "Name" in the sense of authority, memorial, renown. He was a younger son elevated to firstborn Choice, but to the name the men of Babel aspired without recognising the necessary spiritual qualifications.

See Opp. p. 17.

This was partially restored at Pentecost Acts 2:7.

13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister, that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, that, when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman that she was very fair. Antideluvian attitude.

15 The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he asses, and menservants, and maidservants, and she asses, and camels.

17 And the LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram's wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 Why saidst thou, She is my sister? so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

20 And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

AND Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, into the south.

2 And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, and in gold.

3 And he went on his journeys from the south even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Hai;

4 Unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the name of the LORD.

5 ¶ And Lot also, which went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents.

6 And the land was not able to bear them, that they might dwell together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

THE VOICE OF THE CRITIC

"The general setting of the story is consistent with the political situation in the East as disclosed by the monuments, and it contains data which cannot possibly be the fabrication of an unhistorical age." — CRITICAL COMMENTARY.

THE INVASION Note the circuitous route. They advance southward on E. of Jordan to head of Gulf of Akaba, then N.W. to Kadesh, thence NE to Dead Sea depression. This once thought so unlikely as to indicate account to be legendary. But in 1928 Albright discovered a line of mounds in Hauran and along east border of Gilead & Moab of cities that flourished B.C. 2,000 indicating it to be a well settled country and the direct trade route between Damascus and the gold, copper and manganese regions of Edom & Sinai.

1. Implies a village dweller. i.e. an unwalled village. Probably farmers. Thus limiting available land for Abram & Lot to graze their flocks.

2. It was Abram's right to select, but in his selflessness he waived this.

3. Lot saw well watered plain Jordan with its promise of easy existence & its spiritual ruin (Hai). Abram was left to the hardship, the glory, the virtue of the rugged hills, and the inheritance of Bethel - the House of El See bottom p.19 Cp Gen. 3:6

AMRAPHEL. = Hammurabi, a name signifying "Father of his people". The invasion is dated in the reign of a King of Babylon, though led by a King of Elam (v. 6). Elam's power extended over Middle East at the time though eventually superceded by that of Babylon under Hammurabi. Assyriologists profess to recognise the names of this chapter.

Hammurabi was 6th king of 1st Babylonish Dynasty, and though at first he reigned over a small province, he eventually overthrew Elamite domination in approx 30th year of his reign, and became lord of Babylonia. GENESIS 14. Abram rescueth Lot.

9 With Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Tidal king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar; four kings with five.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of [d] slimepits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there; and they that remained fled [f] to the mountain.

11 And they took [g] all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 And they took Lot, Abram's [i] brother's son, [k] who dwelt in Sodom, and his goods, and departed.

13 ¶ And there came one [l] that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the [m] plain of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner: [n] and these were confederate with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that [o] his brother was taken captive, he [p] armed his [q] trained servants, [r] born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto [q] Dan.

15 And he divided himself against them, he and his servants, by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobah, which is [s] on the left hand of Damascus.

16 And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 ¶ And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him, at the valley of Shaveh, which is the king's dale.

18 And [t] Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was [u] the priest of [b] the most high God.

19 And he blessed him, and said, [a] Blessed be Abram of the most high God, [b] possessor of heaven and earth:

20 And [c] blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him [50] tithes of all.

21 And the king of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the [3] persons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, [5h] I have lift up mine hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth,

23 That [j] I will not take from a thread even to a shoelatchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich:

ELYON - Elevation, lofty, supreme 20 from עָלָה - to ascend. Described as Possessor of heaven & earth, the title is associated with Dominion Ps. 91 97:9 83:18. In Ps. 91:1 it is linked with El Shaddai. Thus one title expresses His lofty Dominion, the other the dispensing of His grace in sustaining His subjects, or destroying their enemies. It is associated by comparison, with rulership in Isa. 14:12-14. The word "ascend" in this place is literally to "go up high." Cp Col. 3:1. The Lord Jesus is the Son of the Highest Luke 1:35.

This first use of the title reveals in type how the Most High will use His authority and power and Dominion to bring all nations into conformity with His will. Summary of title 1 Chron. 29:11 Cp Ps. 104:8 See N.T. Bottom p. 79

CHAPTER 16.

1 Sarai, being barren, giveth Hagar to Abram. 6 Hagar fleeth from Sarai. 7 An angel sendeth her back, 11 and telleth her of her child. 15 Ishmael is born.

NOW Sarai Abram's wife bare him no children: and she had an handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar.

2 And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold now, the LORD hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee, go in unto my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her. And Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar her maid the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

4 And he went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said unto Abram, My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bosom; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her

THE FOURTH GENERATION. V.16.

They were sojourners in oppression for 430 years (Exod. 12:40 - the LXX has - "in Egypt and Canaan) 215 of those years being in Egypt proper. Gal. 3:17. In the 4th Generation they came out. This can be computed two ways. (1) Moses defines the life-span as 70 years. Ps. 90:10. which would bring the 4th period chronologically correct. At the time of the descent Joseph was 39 years old & survived till 110 years. The interval of 71 years is a first generation & so described in Exod. 1:6. (2) Actual life span. Abraham from Call to death = 100 yrs. Jacob then is 1st year to 147 = 132. Kohath, then about 18 lived to 133. Exod. 6:18 = 118. Aaron 83 - born after death. Kohath 100 + 133 + 118 = 430.

ABRAM WEDS HAGAR

HAGAR DESPISES SARAI - VV. 4-6.

5 Looked upon as of no consequence. In like manner Israel viewed the message of the prophets 2 Chron. 36:15-16. GALATIANS treat highly or with contempt. Matt. 22:5.

6 When Sarai saw she was despised she blamed it on to Abram, perhaps because he had not openly rebuked Hagar Heb. 11

3-4 But it was lack of faith on Sarai's part. So the law "because of transgression" was given Gal. 3:19.

THE LAW REVEALED AS BUT THE HANDMAID OF THE ABRAHAMIC COVENANT.

SARAI'S BARRENESS. 11:30; 16:1. As representing Abrahamic Covenant faith was required to produce the desired seed. Gal. 3:23. Heb. 11:11. The seed is the Word 1 Pet. 1:23 producing fruit Gal. 5:22-26 ▼ bringing many sons to glory Heb. 1:2 Cp 1 Jn. 5:4; 1:1. Barrenness considered a reproach Gen. 30:23; Luke 1:25 Cp 1 Sam. 2:1-10. So Hanah despised Sarai. Gen. 16:4 Cp Rev. 20:20.

7 Hagar was Sarai's hand maid, not Abram's. Gen. 24:59; 29:24, 29. so the law was the hand maid to Israel.

8 Afflicted her by giving her tasks designed to humble her and make her obedient.

9 Hagar refused to submit and fled. Hagar fled on 2 occasions from tent of Abram. Ch. 21. answering to the two dispersions of Israel.

14 PERE' - Wild ass (of a) man. - hardy, swift, hard to catch. - fleet. Some render "wild ass" for which see Job 39:5-8. True of Arabs also of Jews of whom ass is symbol. See Note Gen. 21:5.

16 Before the four. i.e. East. Cf. Name Ishmael. V. 11 - Seeing - vv. 5, 6 and 18

17 All versions render this phrase differently. The word rendered "after" (acharey) can signify "last day" or "after times" - Dan. 2:29, 45 rendered "hereafter"). Hagar could thus have said: "Have I also here seen the latter purposes or designs of He who sees me?" (Adam Clarke)

Strong - "Well of the Living One - My Seer."

Roi being word for Seer or Prophet. Moffat

18 "Well of Life and Vision" both of which Hagar found.

AND when Abram was [a] ninety years old and nine, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said unto him, I am [b] the Almighty God; [2] walk before me, and be thou [3] perfect. [4]

2 And I will [5] make my covenant between me and thee, and [g] will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 And Abram fell on his face: and God talked with him, saying,

4 As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be [h] a father of [8] many nations. [5]

5 Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but [k] thy name shall be [6] Abraham; [11] for a father of many nations have I made thee. See Note bottom p. 24 & Rev. 21:24

6 And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, and I will make [m] nations of thee, and [o] kings shall come out of thee.

7 And I will [p] establish my covenant between me and thee and thy seed after thee in their generations for an everlasting covenant, [r] to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

8 And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land [15] wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; [17] and [t] I will be their God. [13]

EL SHADDAI. Str. from Shâdad to be burly, powerful by imp. to ravage. Rend "destroy" in Prov. 11:3 "destroyer" Job 15:21. "spoiler" Ser. 6:26. 15:8. 51:56. 12:12. 51:48, 53 etc. Others derive it from the singular form Shad which is "invariably used in Scripture for a woman's breast" (Scofield). It is translated in A.V by three words: Breast (18 times), pap and teat. Applied to El it becomes a graphic metaphor of the nourisher of His people as well as the Destroyer of their enemies. He is a Sun & a Shield Ps. 84:11, the Giver of every good and perfect gift James 1:17.

In this, the first use of the title, Abram, after long testing had come to the realisation that the Son of Promise could not come from his strength, and at that time of long deferred hope and unfulfilled expectations El Shaddai - the Nourishery Destroyer appeared with a message of hope Vv. 1-8 and of warning V. 14.

12 And [2] he that is eight days old [b] shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.
13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with thy money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.
14 And the uncircumcised man child whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people; he hath broken my covenant.
15 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but [3] Sarah shall her name be.
16 And I will bless her, [d] and give thee a son also of her: yea, I will bless her, and [4] she shall be a mother [e] of nations; kings of people shall be of her.
17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, [f] and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred years old? and shall Sarah, that is ninety years old, bear?
18 And Abraham said unto God, O that [h] Ishmael might live before thee!
19 And God said, [i] Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: [k] and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.
20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard [m] thee: Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and [n] will multiply him exceedingly; [o] twelve princes shall he beget, [p] and I will make him a great nation.
21 But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, which Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year.
22 And he left off talking with him, and [c] God went up from Abraham.
23 ¶ And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham's house; and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the selfsame day, as God had said unto him.

5 A normal greeting indicating the one approached is at the service of the others. Cp Gen. 23:7; 32:6-7; 42:6; 43:26. There was evidently something different in the appearance of these 3 that marked them apart from the company.

6 Adonai - Lords (Gen 2). A normal formula of eastern address. Gen. 30:27; 1 Sam. 20:29; Est. 7:3. Abraham was ignorant of the identity of these men Heb. 13:2.

7 A very modest description of what proved to be a sumptuous feast. Abraham offered water for refreshment, rest for recuperation, food for strength. We should do no less. Heb. 13:2.

CIRCUMCISION Cp Acts 7:8; Jhn 7:22 Josh. 5:2-NTE

A disowning of flesh and fleshly descent. Far from establishing any hereditary right it did the very opposite: it stressed that fleshly descent in no way qualified for enjoyment of Covenant privileges, and was a ground not for pride, but rather for humility.

Circumcision is the token of the Covenant, & the Divine Name is its Memorial. Such passages as Deut. 10:16-17; 30:6. Ezek. 44:7-9, reveal it to be a token of allegiance to Yahweh. IN VIEW OF THE THREATENED AND IMPENDING DESTRUCTION OF SODOM, Abraham pleaded for the righteous as his seed proclaim Gospel today. Even as he laboured in pleading, the Destroying Angels were approaching the doomed city. The Sodomites were oblivious to the impending destruction; so also was Lot. Abraham alone knew the fate of the city as we do the fate of the world today. Thus his eloquent and urgent appeal. See Christ's warning. LUKE 17:28-30

AND there came two angels to Sodom at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and Lot seeing them rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground;

2 And he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and tarry all night, and [o] wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your ways. And they said, [p] Nay; but we will abide in the street all night.

3 And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house; and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread, and they did eat.

4 ¶ But before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter:

5 And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? [b] bring them out unto us, that we [c] may know them.

6 And [d] Lot went out at the door unto them, and shut the door after him,

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do not so wickedly.

8 [f] Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as is good in your eyes: only unto these men do nothing; [g] for therefore came they under the shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said again, This one fellow came in to sojourn, and he will needs be a judge: now will we deal worse with thee, than with them. And they pressed sore upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the door.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the door.

11 And they smote the men that were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

12 ¶ And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? son in law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place:

SODOM THE EXAMPLE JUDE 7. Today, on a scale never known to history - with greed, brutality, beastliness, and criminal instincts in the ascendency, the history of Sodom is being repeated, and the world is heading towards a terrible crisis despite the efforts of good men and statesmen (like Lot) to prevent it.

19 Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die:

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: Oh, let me escape thither, (is it not a little one?) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted [e] thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither; for [a] I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither. Therefore [d] the name of the city was called [2] Zoar.

23 ¶ The sun was [3] risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 Then [d] the LORD rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the LORD out of heaven;

25 And he [f] overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

26 ¶ But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became [g] a pillar of salt.

27 ¶ And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where [d] he stood before the LORD:

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and, lo, [h] the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God [i] remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in the which Lot dwelt.

30 ¶ And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the [m] mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the firstborn said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in unto us after the manner of all the earth:

LOT'S WIFE
The sun was shining V 23 The plain looked peaceful + pleasant under its warm caress. Perhaps from some eminence she looked down on the city she loved so much, to see it a blaze of glory. Though she believed the angels, she had no love for the message, nor real resentment against the way of life in Sodom. Perhaps she had doubts about urgency + necessity of the journey: Her fate is a warning to all Lk 17:32.

THE CALAMITY — changed both soil and climate. Geological research shows area noted for bitumen, an asphalt pitch which melts and burns (Ch. 14:10). Considerable quantities have risen to surface during earthquakes. Under Mt Usdom (Sodom) a stratum of salt 150 ft thick, and above it stratum of soil mixed with sulphur. At proper time God intervened with earthquake. A fault south of sea caused earth subside. Gases were ignited and pressure of earth forced burning sulphur, bitumen and red hot salt into air which rained down upon Sodom. Subsided area finally formed southern portion Dead Sea. Gen. 14:3.

Not because all were destroyed — for Zoar was not — but because belatedly Lot had separated themselves from all — and, in any case, none would have the means. They may have found difficulty in obtaining husbands in Sodom.
This revolting suggestion was Sodomic in character, a reflection of the moral pollution of that city. They perhaps were used to incest. Cp 1 Cor. 5:1 Eph. 5:18. They must have taken the wine from Zoar.
This is the final picture we have of Lot: drunken, helpless, forlorn, lonely, worn out by shock, destitute, asking Sarah. Lk burdened with conscience + in the power of unscrupulous men.

Illustrating the promise of Gen. 13:3 — "I will curse him that curseth thee." and of Zech. 8:13. — "As thou wast a curse thou shall be a blessing."
The Chapter shows the weakness of even this great man. In a human document such a trivial lapse would be possibly overlooked, but the Word sets before us flesh as it really is, that we might be warned and avoid its weakness, whilst at the same time we are encouraged in our own failings. ABRAHAM'S DECEPTION IN PHILISTIA Vv 1-2.

1 Abraham at Gerar. 2 He denieth his wife. 3 Abimelech reproved for her, 14 restoreth Sarah, 17 and is healed by Abraham's prayer.

AND Abraham journeyed from [f] thence toward the south country, and dwelled between [g] Kadesh and Shur, and [h] sojourned in [i] Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, [m] She is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah.

3 But [n] God came to Abimelech [p] in a dream by night, and said to him, [q] Behold, thou art but a dead man, for the woman which thou hast taken; for she is [3] a man's wife.

4 But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, Lord, [r] wilt thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even she herself said, He is my brother: in the [2] integrity of my heart and innocency of my hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, Yea, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart; for I also withheld thee from sinning [a] against me: therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife; [o] for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, [s] and all that are thine.

8 Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto us? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? thou hast done deeds unto me [t] that ought not to be done.

10 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely [u] the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wife's sake.

12 And yet indeed [v] she is my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife.

13 And it came to pass, when [w] God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said unto her, This is thy kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; at every place whither we shall come, [x] say of me, He is my brother.

14 And Abimelech [y] took sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and womenservants, and

ABRAHAM'S EXCUSE.

Is threefold Vv 11-13. ● The character of the men of Gerar; ● Sarah was his half-sister ● The agreement with Sarah. None is conclusive. It was not the lack of the fear of God in Gerar but the fear of man on the part of Abraham that brought the shame Prov. 29:25. Abraham had no need to fear. Yahweh had promised him protection: his large household had equitted itself well in battle Gen. 14:14. Perhaps he feared the effect of the place on his household, or did he leave them at Hebron whilst he alone moved south in answer to Gen. 13:14 & 15:1.

"The Shield" Gen 15:1 MAGAR - a small shield designed to deflect the thrusts of the enemy. It is derived from the root GANAN — "to hedge about; to protect." Thus it depicts Yahweh as Defender & Protector. The Septuagint

1. The terrible calamity of Sodom which undoubtedly affected the surrounding country and caused Lot to flee from Zoar Gen. 19:30 might have been the cause of Abraham removing from Hebron to such a place as this cf. V.11.

8. He was afflicted by a very serious illness V.17 because of his presumption in taking Sarah. Lit. "you art about to die" d
9. Withheld by his affliction.
10. The word is obvious-

11. Abimelech tried to justify himself, but he should nonetheless have left Sarah alone.
12. Abimelech might have justified his action as far as Abraham was concerned but he was also responsible to God 2 Sam. 12:9, 13. He could not touch God's people with impunity.
13. As such he acted as public instructor, and priest 1 Kings 18:21. Jer. 7:16. Hor. 14:3. Abraham as legal firstborn was also priest. Gen. 11:26. A prophet was the mouthpiece of God Exod. 4:15-16; 7:1-2.
14. A Godly fear 2 Cor. 7:9.

SELF-JUSTIFICATION Vv 9-13

15. This did not justify Abimelech taking Sarah.
16. It is a sad thing when a righteous man is rebuked by a sinner Cp Gen. 12:18; 2 Sam. 12:9; 1 Tim. 3:7. Cp Lev. 4:2, 13.

17. There was more right on Abraham's side than on Abimelech's, as subsequent events showed. Gen. 21:25. 26:16. even so his "explanation" did not justify him.
18. Such a marriage was prohibited under the Law Lev. 18:9 - perhaps indicating that Abram lived in ignorance of God's will Josh. 24:2-3.

RESTITUTION Vv 14-16

26 And Abimelech said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither didst thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it, but to day.

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech; and both of them [p] made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, [q] What mean these seven ewe lambs which thou hast set by themselves?

30 And he said, For these seven ewe lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

31 Wherefore he [a] called that place [2] Beer-sheba; because there they sware both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

33 ¶ And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and [e] called there on the name of the LORD, [f] the everlasting God.

AND it came to pass after these things, that [r] God did tempt Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham: and he said, [s] Behold, here I am.

2 And he said, Take now thy son, thine only son Isaac, whom thou lovest, and get thee into the land of [u] Moriah; and offer him there for a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

3 ¶ And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son, and clave the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship, and come again to you.

29 THE ALLEGORY IN SEQUENCE Chs. 22-26

Ch. 22:1 suggests a new series in the allegory of Abraham's life setting forth in order (though not always in chronological sequence – cp Ch. 21) the following parable.

1: Sacrifice on Mt Moriah – Christ's death & Resurrection. Ch. 22.
2: Death of Sarah, buried among Gentiles – Overthrow of Jerusalem politically AD 70. Gen. 23:19) – Ch. 23
3: Gaining a wife for Isaac – Preaching the Truth in Gentile lands. – Ch. 24
4: The family of Keturah – Abraham becomes a "father of many nations" – Ch. 25.

THE DEATH OF SARAH – CH. 23:1. Sarah is the only woman whose age is mentioned in Scripture. As the wife of Abraham she is set forth as the mother of believers Isa. 51:2. 1 Pet. 3:6. or the Abrahamic covenant, representative of the heavenly Jerusalem, or polity of faithful Gal. 4:24-27. Yahweh's bride Isa. 54:5. As an organised entity, the heavenly Kingdom, came to an end in A.D. 70. Mat. 21:43. after which the Gentiles were visited to select a bride for the Seed of Promise. As this followed the sacrifice of the Lord, the death of Sarah naturally follows in sequence from Gen. 22. The number of her years points to her unique character. It stands between 126 on the one hand • 128 on the other. 126 is a multiple of 9 x 7 x 2. 9 denotes finality of judgment (C.B.). It is 3 x 3 the product of Divine completeness seen in the resurrection of nature on the 3rd day Gen. 1:9-13. 7 points to the oath which guarantees this Gen. 22:16. 2 indicates the two great families of human race found in her spiritual offspring. 7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, [3] Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the [4] lamb for a burnt offering?

8 And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering: so they went both of them together.

9 And they came to the place which God had told him of; and Abraham built an altar there, and laid the wood in order, and bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the wood.

10 And Abraham stretched forth his hand, and took the knife to slay his son.

11 And the angel of the LORD called unto him out of heaven, and said, Abraham, Abraham: and he said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lay not thine hand upon the lad, neither do thou any thing unto him: for now I know that thou fearest God, seeing thou hast not withheld thy son, thine only son from me.

13 And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold behind him a ram caught in a thicket by his horns: and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering in the stead of his son.

14 And Abraham called the name of that place [5] Jehovah-jireh: as it is said to this day, In the mount of the LORD it shall be seen.

15 ¶ And the angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of heaven the second time,

16 And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son:

17 That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies;

18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

19 So Abraham returned unto his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba; and Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.

20 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold, Milcah, she hath also born children unto thy brother Nahor;

21 Huz his firstborn, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father of Aram,

22 And Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and Bethuel.

23 And Bethuel begat Rebekah: these eight Milcah did bear to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

24 And his concubine, whose name was Reumah, she bare also Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maachah.

REBEKAH AND BETHUEL. The son of Abraham married a granddaughter of his brother Nahor. There was, however a consistency about this. Nahor was evidently older than Abraham. Cp. Note Gen. 11:26. In addition, many years passed before Isaac was born Gen. 18:12.

The status of Bethuel also seems strange. He is passed over as insignificant in the record of Gen. 24. as though he was incapable from years or imbecility to manage his own affairs. Rebecca referred to her "mother's" house – rather than her father Gen. 24:28. – it was Laban who conducted the negotiations Gen. 24:29. though there were later confirmed by Bethuel v. 50. Laban was evidently energetic and overbearing (as his dealings with Jacob indicate) whilst Bethuel was evidently feeble and retiring.

DEATH OF SARAH

1 HER AGE AND DEATH Vv. 1-2.

1 She was 90 when

ABRAHAM'S SEPARATENESS. He keeps himself distinct, proclaims himself a stranger, will accept no favour at their hands, will not have intermarriage between his race and theirs, refuses the gift of a sepulchre from Ephron, and the spoils from King of Sodom. the tomb of Machpelah a constant reminder of this separateness. Cp Acts. 7:5.

6 The whole land was Abraham's by promise, as all things are ours. 1 Cor. 3:21. The purchased grave was a token of his right and title to the promised land. Cp Josh. 21:16.

7 They recognised his status among them and flatter with their tongues - as is normal with worldly people. Ps. 5:9. Cf. Rev. 14:5.

8 This pretended generosity was a cover for bargaining. This is typical of the world which often says what it does not mean.

9 He treated them with courtesy 1 Pet. 2:21-22.

10 The land is called Heth on both Egyptian and Assyrian monuments (Stanley). A son of Canaan Gen. 10:15, and thus a Hamite. The Hittites established a powerful empire in Asia Minor. Esau married Hittite wives Gen. 26:34; 36:2, perhaps beguiled by their compromising kindness. Hittites were later found in the land Num. 13:29. Josh. 9:1-2. 11:3. Jud. 1:26. Converted to David's army 1 Sam. 26:6. (Cp Uriah - 2 Sam. 11:3.) Solomon married Hittite women 1 Kg 11:1, some became laborers for him 1 Kg 9:20-21.

3 ABRAHAM PURCHASES THE CAVE OF MACHPELAH Vv. 3-16.

11 It is normal practice among Orientals to employ mediators in such transactions. Abraham conformed to custom and was not above using others in a legitimate way. Opportune others for witness are provided this way.

12 Sig. Double. Hence the Cave of the Firstborn. Josh. 21:11. Abraham Gen. 25:9. Isaac & Rebekah, & Leah the wife Jacob 49:31 & Jacob 50:13 buried there.

13 This very generous offer - including the field - seems to imply more than the formal & hollow courtesies of bargaining. They suggest the reputation that Abraham had gained without 1 Tim. 3:7. Because of such, Ephron could well expect adequate compensation from Abraham.

14 Abraham firmly adheres to his original resolve. See Note on his separateness above.

15 The value of this is difficult to determine. The word shekel means "weight" without specifying how much. In the days of the Maccabees, the shekel of Israel was minted & the silver shekel = approx. 75 cents. At this rate, the field would be worth $100 according to Ephron.

THE DEATH OF SARAH (Cont). 128, on the 31
Either hand is a multiple of 8 X 8 X 2 speaking of Resurrectional Regeneration of the two great saints. Sarah's death lay between these two numbers. Death was thus a disruption of these two principles.

5 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him,

Adoni

6 Hear us, my lord: thou art a mighty prince among us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead; none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.

7 And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight; hear me, and intreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar,

9 That he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he hath, which is in the end of his field; for as much money as it is worth he shall give it me for a possession of a buryingplace amongst you.

10 And Ephron dwelt among the children of Heth: and Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, even of all that went in at the gate of his city, saying,

11 Nay, my lord, hear me: the field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee; in the presence of the sons of my people give I it thee: bury thy dead.

12 And Abraham bowed down himself before the people of the land.

13 And he spake unto Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, But if thou will give it, I pray thee, hear me: I will give thee money for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there.

14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying unto him,

15 My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

16 And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron; and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named in the audience of the sons of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money with the merchant.

A WIFE FOR ISAAC – Typical foreshadowing of preaching the gospel.

Abraham's servant is sent to seek

5 And the servant said unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy son again unto the land from whence thou camest?

6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou that thou bring not my son thither again.

7 ¶ The LORD God of heaven, which [c] took me from my father's house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that sware unto me, saying, [e] Unto thy seed will I give this land; [f] he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my son from thence.

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then [g] thou shalt be clear from this my oath: only bring not my son thither again.

9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him concerning that matter.

10 ¶ And the servant took ten [h] camels of the camels of his master, and departed; [3] for all the goods of his master were in his hand: and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto [i] the city of Nahor.

11 And he made his camels to kneel down without the city by a well of water at the time of the evening, even the time [k] that women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, [l] O LORD God of my master Abraham, I pray thee, [o] send me good speed this day, and shew kindness unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, [p] I stand here by the well of water; and [q] the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water:

14 And let it come to pass, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and [a] thereby shall I know that thou hast shewed kindness unto my master.

15 ¶ And it came to pass, before he had done speaking, that, behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of [b] Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel was [d] very [2] fair to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her: and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hasted, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hasted, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man wondering at her held his peace, to wit whether [r] the LORD had made his journey [m] prosperous or not.

22 And it came to pass, as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden [5] earring of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands of ten shekels weight of gold;

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy father's house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, [r] I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, which she bare unto Nahor.

28 And the damsel ran, and told them of her mother's house these things.

29 ¶ And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was [i] Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well.

30 And it came to pass, when he saw the earring and bracelets upon his sister's hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me; that he came unto the man; and, behold, he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in, [o] thou blessed of the LORD; wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.

32 ¶ And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and [s] gave straw and provender for the camels, and [t] water to wash his feet, and the men's feet that were with him.

33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, I will not eat, until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on.

36 And Sarah my master's wife [a] bare a son to my master when she was old: and [c] unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my master [d] made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:

38 [g] But thou shalt go unto my father's house, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my son.

unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also: so I drank, and she made the camels drink also.

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bare unto him: and I put [a] the earring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 [b] And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the LORD, and blessed the LORD God of my master Abraham, which had led me in the right way to take [d] my master's brother's daughter unto his son.

49 And now if ye will [f] deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me: and if not, tell me; that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left.

50 Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceedeth from the LORD: we cannot [h] speak unto thee bad or good.

51 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go, and let her be thy master's son's wife, [i] as the LORD hath spoken.

52 And it came to pass, that, when Abraham's servant heard their words, he [m] worshipped the LORD, bowing himself to the earth.

53 And the servant brought forth [t] jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother [o] precious things.

54 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, [p] Send me away unto my master.

55 And her brother and her mother said, Let the damsel abide with us [2] a few days, at the least ten; after that she shall go.

56 And he said unto them, Hinder me not, seeing the LORD hath prospered my way; send me away that I may go to my master.

57 And they said, We will call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth.

58 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

59 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and [c] her nurse, and Abraham's servant, and his men.

60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou [e] the mother of thousands of millions, and [g] let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

61 ¶ And Rebekah arose, and her damsels, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

62 And Isaac came from the way of the [1] well Lahai-roi; for he dwelt in the south country.

63 And Isaac went out [k] to meditate in the field at the eventide: and he lifted up his eyes, and saw, and, behold, the camels were coming.

64 And Rebekah lifted up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, [n] she lighted off the camel.

65 For she had said unto the servant, What man is this that walketh in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: therefore she took a vail, and covered herself.

66 And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done.

67 And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife; and he loved her: and Isaac [q] was comforted after his mother's [r] death.

CHAPTER 25.

1 The sons of Abraham by Keturah. 7 His age, and death. 12 The generations of Ishmael. 24 Birth of Esau and Jacob. 29 Esau selleth his birthright.

1. Omitted by RV. Chapter not in chronological order but probably for typical purposes. It is unlikely that Abraham would take another wife after death Sarah in view Rom. 4:19.

THEN again Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah.

2 And (b) she bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

3 And Jokshan begat Sheba, and Dedan. And the sons of Dedan were Asshurim, and Letushim, and Leummim.

4 And the sons of Midian; Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoch, and Abidah, and Eldaah. All these were the children of Keturah.

5 ¶ And [e] Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac.

6 But unto the sons of the concubines, which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and [h] sent them away from Isaac his son, while he yet lived, eastward, unto [i] the east country.

7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen years.

8 Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died [n] in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and [p] was gathered to his people.

9 And [r] his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the son of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Mamre;

10 (s) The field which Abraham purchased of the sons of Heth: (u) there was Abraham buried, and Sarah his wife.

11 ¶ And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac; and Isaac dwelt by the [v] well Lahai-roi.

12 ¶ Now these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, (a) whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's handmaid, bare unto Abraham:

[a] 1 Chr. 1. 29-31.

13 And [a] these are the names of the sons of Ishmael, by their names, according to their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebajoth; and Kedar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam,

14 And Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,

15 [2] Hadar, and Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah:

16 These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; (c) twelve princes according to their nations.

17 And these are the years of the life of Ishmael, an hundred and thirty and seven years: and [d] he gave up the ghost and died; and was gathered unto his people.

18 [f] And they dwelt from Havilah unto (g) Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest toward Assyria: and he (z) died in the presence of all his brethren.

19 ¶ And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son: [k] Abraham begat Isaac:

20 And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebekah to wife, (l) the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of (m) Padan-aram, (o) the sister to Laban the Syrian.

21 And Isaac intreated the LORD for his wife, because she was barren: [q] and the LORD was intreated of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

22 And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And she [t] went to enquire of the LORD.

23 And the LORD said unto her, [x] Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels; and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and (e) the elder shall serve the younger.

24 ¶ And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twins in her womb.

GENESIS 26. Isaac at Gerar.

25 And the first came out red, all over like an hairy garment; and they called his name Esau.
26 And after that came his brother out, and his hand took hold on Esau's heel; and his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was threescore years old when she bare them.
27 And the boys grew: and Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a plain man, dwelling in tents.
28 And Isaac loved Esau, because he did eat of his venison: but Rebekah loved Jacob.
29 ¶ And Jacob sod pottage: and Esau came from the field, and he was faint:
30 And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with that same red pottage; for I am faint: therefore was his name called Edom.
31 And Jacob said, Sell me this day thy birthright.
32 And Esau said, Behold, I am at the point to die: and what profit shall this birthright do to me?
33 And Jacob said, Swear to me this day; and he sware unto him: and he sold his birthright unto Jacob.
34 Then Jacob gave Esau bread and pottage of lentiles; and he did eat and drink, and rose up, and went his way: thus Esau despised his birthright.

Isaac at Gerar, Egypt; dwell in [a] the land which I shall tell thee of:
3 [c] Sojourn in this land, and [d] I will be with thee, and [e] will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, [h] I will give all these countries, and I will perform [i] the oath which I sware unto Abraham thy father;
4 And [k] I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; [o] and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed;
5 [q] Because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws.
6 ¶ And Isaac dwelt in Gerar:
7 And the men of the place asked him of his wife; and [s] he said, She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife; lest, [t] said he, the men of the place should kill me for Rebekah; because she [u] was fair to look upon.
8 And it came to pass, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was sporting with Rebekah his wife.
9 And Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, of a surety she is thy wife: and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said unto him, Because I said, Lest I die for her.
10 And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done unto us? one of the people might lightly have lien with thy wife, and [v] thou shouldest have brought guiltiness upon us.
11 And Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this man or his wife shall surely be put to death.
12 Then Isaac sowed in that land, and [z] received in the same year an hundredfold: and the LORD [c] blessed him.

"He did eat of his venison" - TSAYID - hunting. See mg. Lit. "his hunting was in his mouth" - It appealed to the flesh.

He despised his birthright. - No other crime or fault is laid against him. In fact there is an attractiveness about his character that is deceptive. He was an impulsive, thoughtless man rather than a base one.

"I WILL BE WITH THEE" - This & Vs Shadow promised Isaac. But in the face of a test Isaac forgot the promise, bringing a state of deception, of disunity within his camp. This came about through the pressure of famine, a famine that continued until the deception was put away. V. 17.

Abimelech is usually justified as a good "and holy man." But his words in V. 10 which implies that a man considered guiltless if he forced an unmarried woman does not speak well of the moral conditions of his Kingdom. They show Isaac's fears to be well founded.

At the same time V. 11 shows the overriding care of God and was thus a rebuke to Isaac.

Isaac thus remained a stranger in the Land of Promise whilst Jacob wandered beyond its borders. Isaac foreshadows the Ecclesia, Jacob = Israel after the flesh.

As 70 or 80 years had elapsed since Abraham's encounter with Abimelech it is hardly likely that the two men were the same Cp V. 1.

ISAAC AT GERAH He was warned to avoid Egypt, to remain in the Promised land, and the blessing would be confirmed in him. Thus encouraged Isaac remained at Gerah, the coastal plains of Palestine, over which Abimelech ruled. A life of isolation, a stranger and pilgrim in the land had made Isaac timid and retiring in the face company of Gentiles. He feared Abimelech and was uncomfortable in his presence, but the overriding care of God was with the Son of Promise and shielded him from harm so that he prospered. V.13. There was no affinity, no fellowship with his neighbors. He separated himself from them and dwelt alone. V.17.

GOD'S PURPOSE PREVAILS IN SPITE OF HUMAN WEAKNESS. Cp Rom. 9: 10-11.

The characters in the story are the four members of the patriarchal family. Two of them: Isaac and Esau seek to frustrate the revealed purpose of God. Rebekah and Jacob seek to carry it out but by wrong methods. Each of the four is rebuked and disappointed. Isaac is deceived and frightened Esau loses all. Jacob has to flee. And Rebekah loses her favorite son. Prov. 19:21

ISAAC probably had heard that the blessing was to be conferred on Jacob from Rebekah and not from God. Gen. 25:22,23 With a natural love for Esau, & in the absence of any direct evidence from God, and weakened by sickness, he makes arrangements to confer the blessing where it should be bestowed. It may be that he enquired of God Who gave no answer. In order to test the faith of Jacob and Rebekah. Isaac did not demur at the blessing being conferred on Jacob once it had been pronounced V.33 See below.

CHAPTER 27.

JACOB SUPPLANTS ESAU IN THE BLESSING.

The Divine purpose is worked out through a tangled skein of human weakness and deception.

1 ISAAC PLANS TO BLESS ESAU. Vv1-4

In spite of the revelation of the Divine Will 57 years earlier and perhaps forgotten Gen 25:23

1 Cp Note Gen 21:1.

2 He was 117. (See Chron. opp p. 17)

3 He was afflicted with some malady which caused him to feel he was about to die, & which weakened his sight and strength. This affected his spiritual vigor. He needed Rev. 3:18. He should have realised that Esau was unfit for the blessing Gen 26:34-35. Particularly in view of Gen 25:33.

4 He had a premonition that he was about to die Cp V.7. Although he did not do so until 63 years later Gen 30:28 See opp. p. 17.

5 Heb. Tzee - no other occ. Perhaps a sort of javelin from a root "to hang" - "that which is suspended" Hence a quiver or perhaps a sword or javelin.

6 He is told to go out & hunt as a man of the flesh Ch 25:27-28

7 In the statement of this verse Isaac is dominated by the flesh: "savoury meat" "love" "I may eat" "bless" "die" "I" "my" dominates.

8 = "I" The word "natural" in 1 Cor. 2:14 is derived from psuche Thus the flesh speaking. It shows that even a spiritually minded man can be governed by the flesh when personal issues are involved.

2 REBEKAH'S COUNTER PLAN. Vv5-10

9 He Who Will Be. Thus before He Who will confirm the Covenant See Note V.4.

10 The difference in the two parties is evident. One went to hunt in the field - the other to the flock. If Esau went for deer he obtained that which could be eaten, but not offered in sacrifice Deut 14:5.

11 There were animals such as could be offered in sacrifice. Perhaps one was specifically used for that purpose. Jacob was covered with the skins V.16.

12 In his sickness he could not discern between venison and goat meat - between natural & spiritual food 1 Cor. 2:14.

3 JACOB'S FEAR Vv11-12.

He had no scruples in acting upon his mother's advice - but he was adverse to being detected in his fraud.

13 Jacob was in need of a covering, and recognised it. Esau had a natural covering which was as a veneer of self righteousness.

Esau sent for venison. Mal. 1:3. Rom 9:13. Heb. 11:20.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Isaac sendeth Esau for venison. 6 Jacob, instructed by Rebekah, obtaineth the blessing. 34 Esau complaineth, 41 and threateneth Jacob. 42 Rebekah sendeth Jacob to Laban.

AND it came to pass, that when Isaac was old, and [c] his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest son, and said unto him, My son: and he said unto him, Behold, here am I. (Cp "her son" V.6)

2 And he said, Behold now, I am old, I know not the day of my death:

3 [f] Now therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field, and [3] take me some venison;

4 And make me savoury meat, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat; that my soul [g] may bless thee before I die.

5 And Rebekah heard when Isaac spake to Esau his son. And Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it.

6 ¶ And Rebekah spake unto Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak unto Esau thy brother, saying,

7 Bring me venison, and make me savoury meat, that I may eat, and bless thee before the LORD before my death.

8 Now therefore, my son, [i] obey my voice according to that which I command thee.

9 Go now to the flock, and fetch me from thence two good kids of the goats; and I will make them [m] savoury meat for thy father, such as he loveth:

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eat, and that he [n] may bless thee before his death.

11 And Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, Behold, [o] Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man:

12 My father peradventure will [a] feel me, and I shall seem to him as a deceiver; and I shall bring a curse upon me, and not a blessing.

13 And his mother said unto him, [b] Upon me be thy curse, my son: only obey my voice, and go fetch me them.

14 And he went, and fetched, and brought them to his mother: and his mother [d] made savoury meat, such as his father loved.

18 ¶ And he came unto his father, and said, My father: and he said, Here am I; who art thou, my son?

19 And Jacob said unto his father, I am Esau thy firstborn; I have done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, [k] that thy soul may bless me.

20 And Isaac said unto his son, How is it that thou hast found it so quickly, my son? And he said, Because the LORD thy God [k] brought it [4] to me.

21 And Isaac said unto Jacob, Come near, I pray thee, that I [l] may feel thee, my son, whether thou be my very son Esau or not. (Still doubtful)

22 And Jacob went near unto Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

23 And he discerned him not, because [p] his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's hands: so he blessed him.

5 THE DECEPTION Vv. 18-25

19 Jacob failed to successfully imitate the voice of Esau V.22

20 This was a half-lie. He was the legal firstborn, but should not have laid claim to Esau's name.

21 This was deception. Jacob could have had mind instructions other than the present to justify his claim.

22 This was an untruth! He, revealing the decline from the original half lie.

23 The voice of suspicion. Isaac has his doubts of the one before him.

24 To allay doubts, Jacob becomes more enmeshed in a lie although, to the Divine Mind (Cp Note V.7). In a sense, the words were true, for but for the promise to Rebekah, Jacob would not be in the position he was.

25 Sick & weak, his heart would not be sensitive, so the deception went undetected.

Perhaps Isaac was all the more suspicious because Rebekah had been pressing the claims of Jacob.

26 These words are an interpolation, V.27 At this stage, his doubts were dissolved and he decided to bless him.

27 In his suspicion, faith & perplexity - one question - to which he is given an outright lie

ESAU was the actual deceiver - not Jacob. He traded on his father's love to secure something which he had already sold to Jacob Ch 25: 30-34. He despised his birthright and would risk nothing for it but was not above robbing Jacob of his right if it cost him nothing to do. Isaac could well have been in ignorance of the transaction between Esau and Jacob.

REBEKAH was motivated by love for "her son." She also recognised the providence of God. She sought His counsel Gen. 25:22 and acknowledged the Divine right in the bestowal of the blessing Ch. 27:7. She was prepared to endure any curse to secure the interests of Jacob V.13. She did not want to deceive Isaac, but could see no way out. She was prepared to sacrifice her own pleasure and desire to secure the future of Jacob Vv. 42-46. The narrative reveals her as a woman with a self-sacrificing love, a keen mind, and with ability to seize every opportunity. Thus she revealed the same strength of will she showed when she elected to follow Eliezer to the Land Ch. 24: 1-58 and the same awareness of a Divine purpose she exhibited at the birth of her sons Ch. 25: 22-23. Her deception is not to be commended, but her motives were good. She had fear to help her in regard to the latter, and much to suggest the need of using such means in regard to the former.

JACOB was a timid man dominated by a desire to serve God and obtain the blessing 25:27-34. His timidity was revealed in the incident above which reveals him as dominated by his mother, in awe of his father Vv. 42-44, and in fear of his brother 32:3-20. Divinely controlled circumstances purified the character of Jacob & strengthened • Weakness of the flesh caused Jacob to resort to duplicity and cunning to obtain the blessing. Thus he was tried, but the purpose of Yahweh was fulfilled in that He had intended that the right of firstborn and the blessing should be with the more spiritually minded younger brother. The sickness of the father tested the faith of Jacob, and revealed that he did not receive the blessing through merit. Esau wrongly tried to grasp the blessing through hunting. Jacob secured it through a sin offering which provided for him a covering, through priestly garments and a savoury offering.

43 He did so, because the blessing was the most precious possession he had and once given was irrevocable Heb 11:20. Or it may have been the subject of discussion between Isaac and Rebekah, so that now Isaac came to realise with anger that Rebekah had gained her way.

44 Such blessings were irrevocable Rom 11:29. Perhaps Isaac realised that Jacob was the more worthy contender and that God would confirm the bestowal of the blessing.

ESAU'S COMPLAINT AND REWARD 34-40

very son Esau? And he said, I am.

25 And he said, Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, [b] that my soul may bless thee. And he brought it near to him, and he did eat: and he brought him wine, and he drank.

26 And his father Isaac said unto him, Come near now, and kiss me, my son.

27 And he came near, and kissed him: and he smelled the smell of his raiment, and [e] blessed him, and said, See, [f] the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD hath blessed: (The true Israel. Isa 51:1-3)

28 Therefore God give thee of the dew of heaven, and the fatness of the earth, and plenty of corn and wine: (3 - Tirosh Ind.)

29 Let people serve thee, and nations bow down to thee: be lord over thy brethren, and [m] let thy mother's sons bow down to thee: [n] cursed be every one that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob was yet scarce gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting.

31 And he also had made savoury meat, and brought it unto his father, and said unto his father, Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that thy soul may bless me.

32 And Isaac his father said unto him, Who art thou? And he said, I am thy son, thy firstborn Esau. [See below]

33 And Isaac [5] trembled very exceedingly, and said, "Who? where is he that hath [6] taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him? yea, and he shall be blessed.

34 And when Esau heard the words of his father, [@] he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said unto his father, Bless me, even me also, O my father.

35 And he said, Thy brother came with subtilty, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he said, [c] Is not he rightly named (2) Jacob? for he hath supplanted me these two times: [d] he took away my birthright; and, behold, now he hath taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not reserved a blessing for me?

37 And Isaac answered and said unto Esau, [g] Behold, I have made him thy lord, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants; and [i] with corn and wine have I [3] sustained him: and what shall I do now unto thee, my son?

38 And Esau said unto his father, Hast thou but one blessing, my father? bless me, even me also, O my father. And Esau lifted up his voice, [o] and wept.

39 And Isaac his father answered and said unto him, Behold, thy dwelling shall be [4] the fatness of the earth, and of the dew of heaven from above;

40 And by thy sword shalt thou live, and [p] shalt serve thy brother; and it shall come to pass when thou shalt have the dominion, that [q] thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

41 ¶ And Esau [r] hated Jacob because of the blessing wherewith his father blessed him: and Esau said in his (heart), [s] The days of mourning for my father are at hand; [t] then will I slay my brother Jacob. (Cp Mk 7:21)

42 And these words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebekah: and she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said unto him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth comfort himself, purposing to kill thee.

9 JACOB FLEES FROM ESAU'S HATRED 41-46.

AWAY FROM THE DEW OF HEAVEN V.39.

The fatness of the earth and the dew of heaven can be applied spiritually for Divine truth Deut 33:28. Edom, the Gentiles, has lived away from these, and has lived by the sword.

The land environs of Mt Seir typify those conditions. Deut 2:5. Mal 3:1.

ISAAC TREMBLED V.33.

CHÂRAD - To shudder with terror. Str. The knowledge that he had been duped would have excited indignation, not fear. This, perhaps had been caused by a dawning realisation that he was about to bless the wrong party - to appease Yahweh.

45 He learned at last the value of the birthright. Ch. 25:34

46 This was incorrect. It was not Esau's blessing, nor really Isaac's to give.

47 This was false

48 This is inevitably linked with the birthright. Adam lost the birthright and came under the curse - but both are restored in Christ. Col 1:15.

49 The question shows that Esau had no conception of the spiritual character of the blessing.

50 This was the result of wasted opportunities in spiritual spheres. Paul refers to him as a type of those who are to be rejected in the Day of Judgment. Heb 12:17.

51 RSV. "Away from the fatness of the earth... and away from the dew of heaven on high. By your sword... etc. See also c. See below. See also d.

52 The times of the Gentiles have given the dominion to Edom.

53 A yoked animal is restrained. The term indicates that Esau should wonder at will. During the times of the Gentiles that has been the case as the flesh has taken hold and Gentilism has extended its influence on all sides.

54 He was not penitent however disappointed and remorseful. He hated Jacob because of the blessing, as men of the flesh ever do. Abel was hated by Cain. Joseph 37:4. Elijah by Jezebel 1 Kg 19:2. Christ Jhn 15:25. The world the Ecclesia 1 Jhn 3:13.

55 He was actually looking forward to his death. His love for his father was a surface love.

56 He must have boasted aloud.

57 Lit. "~~revenge~~ vengeance." Rebekah was afraid that the passionate feelings of the hunter might get the better of him before the death of Isaac.

Here Lot left Abram and the promise was given Gen. 13. Now Jacob was reversing the migration of Abraham. The sun went down, the night gathered around & shut out from Luz, tired, despondent, lonely, Jacob found himself on the stony slopes of what was later named Bethel. The ground was strewn with wide sheets of limestone rock as it is today. On this hard couch he lay down to rest, and it could have been that in the visions of the night the rough stones scattered around (as they are to this day) seemed to form themselves into a staircase reaching unto heaven. CHAPTER 29.

1 Jacob, coming to the well of Haran, 9 meeteth Rachel. 13 Laban entertaineth him. 18 Jacob, covenanting for Rachel, 23 is deceived with Leah. 28 He marrieth Rachel also. 32 Leah beareth Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah.

THEN Jacob [3] went on his journey, and came into the land of the [6] people of [r] the east.

2 And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.

3 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the well's mouth in his place.

4 And Jacob said unto them, My brethren, whence be ye?

And they said, Of [a] Haran are we.

5 And he said unto them, Know ye Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We know him.

6 And he said unto them, [2] Is he well? And they said, [c] He is well: and, behold, Rachel his daughter cometh with the sheep.

7 And he said, Lo, [3] it is yet high day, neither is it time that the cattle should be gathered together: [6] water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

8 And they said, We cannot, until all the flocks be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the well's mouth; then we water the sheep.

9 ¶ And while he yet spake with them, [i] Rachel came with her father's sheep: for she kept them.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and [o] rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mother's brother.

11 And Jacob [p] kissed Rachel, and lifted up his voice, and wept.

12 And Jacob told Rachel that he was [q] her father's brother, and that he was Rebekah's son: [s] and she ran and told her father.

13 And it came to pass, when Laban heard the [7] tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that [t] he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. And he told Laban all these things.

14 And Laban said to him, [u] Surely thou art my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him [8] the space of a month.

15 ¶ And Laban said unto Jacob, Because thou art my

5 Gp mg. Jacob enquired of his general condition, not merely his state of health.

6 Why don't you water the sheep? As a shepherd, he wondered at the unusual methods of these shepherds – it seemed so much waste of time to him.

7 Because of a local law, it had evidently been laid down that the well should be only thus used, either because of preventing the water to be used up or as per note 2.

2 JACOB MEETS RACHEL Vv 9-14.

8 Ewe, from a root sig. to journey, hence a good traveller.

9 The threefold emphasis suggests that Jacob recognised the guidance of God in his affairs. Ch. 28:20.

10 Stimulated by the realisation that God was with him Jacob became charged with strength + boldly asserting himself rolled away the stone + gave preference to Rachel's flock.

11 He was moved by the deepest emotion at the successful completion of his difficult and lonely journey.

12 She was doubtless surprised at the warmth of Jacob's greeting, but evidently agreeably surprised.

13 There was warm hospitality and deep affection manifested by Laban towards his sister's son. Cp also Ch. 24:20, 30.

14 During which time Laban came to recognise the value of Jacob as a shepherd, + Jacob's love for Rachel increased.

LEAH AND RACHEL

- Israel after the flesh + spirit.
- Leah was tender-eyed Gen 29:17 Suggesting that she lacked the vision of faith. The names of her seven children (see top pp. 42-45) speak of national hope of Israel.
- Rachel's two sons point to the seed of Promise. See also comment on Gen 30:6 (top p. 42).

brother, shouldest thou therefore serve me for nought? tell me, what shall thy wages be?
16 And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.
17 Leah was tender eyed; but Rachel was [c] beautiful and well favoured.
18 And Jacob loved Rachel; and said, I will serve thee seven years for Rachel thy younger daughter.
19 And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee, than that I should give her to another man: abide with me.
20 And Jacob [h] served seven years for Rachel; and they seemed unto him but a few days, for the love he had to her. (Roth: "As single days.")
21 ¶ And Jacob said unto Laban, Give me my wife, for my days are fulfilled, that I may go in unto her.
22 And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and [i] made a feast.
23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he went in unto her.
24 And Laban gave unto his daughter Leah [l] Zilpah his maid for an handmaid.
25 And it came to pass, that in the morning, behold, it was Leah: and he said to Laban, What is this thou hast done unto me? did not I serve with thee for Rachel? wherefore then hast thou beguiled me?
26 And Laban said, It [n] must not be so done in our [7] country, to give the younger before the firstborn.
27 [q] Fulfil her week, and we will give thee this also for the service which thou shalt serve with me yet seven other years.
28 And Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week: and he gave him Rachel his daughter to wife also.
29 And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter [a] Bilhah his handmaid to be her maid.
30 And he went in also unto Rachel, and he [b] loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him [d] yet seven other years. (See Note Mal. 1:2-3)
31 ¶ And when the LORD saw that Leah was hated, he [f] opened her womb: but Rachel was barren.
32 And Leah conceived, and bare a son, and she called his name [21] Reuben: for she said, Surely the LORD hath [g] looked upon my affliction; now therefore my husband will love me.
33 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Because the LORD hath heard that I was hated, he hath therefore given me this son also: and she called his name [3] Simeon.
34 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and said, Now this time will my husband [k] be joined unto me, because I have born him three sons: therefore was his name called [9] Levi.
35 And she conceived again, and bare a son: and she said, Now will I praise the LORD: therefore she called his name [5m] Judah; and [6] left bearing.

4 THE DECEPTION AND DOUBLE MARRIAGE 21-30

Jacob learns by bitter experience the disappointment of deception — as his father and brother had done !!
19. He desires a change and betterment of conditions — so also did Israel in Egypt.
20. The days of servitude Gen. 15:13.
21. The Passover is likened to a wedding feast Luke 12:35-37.
22. The bride was usually conducted into the marriage chamber heavily veiled. Leah's love for Jacob caused her to acquiesce in the stratagem. Even as Jacob had easily done in the deception suggested by his mother.
23. Sig. "Droppings" Str. as fragrant myrrh.
24. Israel's rejoicing at leaving Egypt turned to dismay. The nation was married unto the law that brought the people into bondage. Deliverance from Egypt likened to marriage Ezek. 16:8
25. The deception is justified by the legality of local laws. Perhaps that was the reason why the beautiful Rachel had not been married before. See Ruth 4:5.
26. Laban could have given Rachel without any further service if he were genuine — but he was not. Jacob as the man of faith labors for Rachel — perhaps pointing to the time when no longer dominated by the restrictions of law.
27. This was probably a token period & he instantly married Rachel agreeing to labor for the period specified.

28. Sig. Bashful, modest - Gesenius.

COMPLETION BETWEEN THE 2 WIVES V. 31-30:24

1 THE UNLOVED IS BLESSED V.31-35

1. Children considered a blessing from Yahweh Ps. 127:3. Cp Gen. 24:1, 60 25:21. See 1 Tim. 2:15.
2. Leah repres. Israel under Law: Rachel Israel under grace. The former revealed all imperfection; the latter manifested love. Only as the former led to Christ could she attain unto the love of the husband Gal. 3:22-29.
3. The man of faith could only love the law as it drew him to see the son. Ps. 119 18, 97.
4. This completes a process which began when Yahweh caused her to see a son in her affliction.
5. Thus marking off this first group of sons in a division on their own.

CHAPTER 30

2 DESPERATE ENDEAVORS OF THE UNLOVED V.1-8

1. I am no better than a dead woman. Israel under grace must produce fruit or else John 15:2, 10:8, 16 Rom. 6:11-22. Gal. 5:22. Rachel asked in the wrong direction: she should have sought the help of Yahweh John 6:63.
2. He directs her to the source of such blessings Ps. 127. She heeds the exhortation V.6.

LABAN: Character Sketch

Any accusation of deceit that can be urged against Jacob, can be levelled with greater force against his [redacted] uncle Laban. But whereas, in the case of Jacob, it was motived by a desire to obtain the Divine blessing, in that of Laban it was that of covetousness. Nevertheless Laban was religiously inclined, as was shown by his reception of Abraham's servant when he came seeking a bride for Isaac (but also compare Gen. 24:29-32); and also by the respect that he showed for God in his negotiations with Jacob Ch. 31:29.

Laban oppressed Jacob, but was ultimately converted & entered into a covenant of peace as will the fleshly relatives of Jacob before reconciliation with Esau.

In his transactions, Laban gave the external appearance of kindliness, but it was often the cloke to his hidden feelings Gen. 31:24. He cleverly took advantage of Jacob's ignorance of local law to marry off Leah: & did his best to exploit his daughters & Jacob to his own advantage. Ironically, he finally lost his daughters, & his best shepherd, his grandchildren, & much of his flocks.

With the covenant of peace at Gilead, Laban fades off the scene. He had an external piety but no inward conviction. He seems typical of nominal Christianity.

"I may have children by her..."

In this statement, Rachel does not seem to imply that she would bear through Jacob taking Bilhah to wife, yet modern psychology and experience go to show that the adoption of a child by an apparently barren woman sometimes results in her bearing.

3 And she said, Behold my maid Bilhah, [b] go in unto her; [c] and she shall bear upon my knees, that I may also [g] have children by her.

4 And she gave him Bilhah her handmaid [d] to wife: and Jacob went in unto her.

5 And Bilhah conceived, and bare Jacob a son.

6 And Rachel said, God hath judged me, and hath also heard my voice, and hath given me a son: therefore called she his name Dan.

7 And Bilhah Rachel's maid conceived again, and bare Jacob a second son.

8 And Rachel said, With [h] great wrestlings have I wrestled with my sister, and I have prevailed: and she called his name Naphtali.

9 When Leah saw that [e] she had left bearing, she took Zilpah her maid, and [f] gave her Jacob to wife.

10 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a son.

11 And Leah said, A troop cometh: and she called his name Gad.

12 And Zilpah Leah's maid bare Jacob a second son.

13 And Leah said, Happy am I, for the daughters will call me blessed: and she called his name Asher.

14 ¶ And Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them unto his mother Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, Give me, I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes.

15 And she said unto her, [o] Is it a small matter that thou hast taken my husband? and wouldest thou take away my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee to night for thy son's mandrakes.

16 And Jacob came out of the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in unto me; for surely I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And he lay with her that night.

17 And God hearkened unto Leah, and she conceived, and bare Jacob the fifth son.

18 And Leah said, God hath given me my hire, because I have given my maiden to my husband: and she called his name Issachar.

19 And Leah conceived again, and bare Jacob the sixth son.

20 And Leah said, God hath endued me with a good dowry; now will my husband dwell with me, because I have born him six sons: and she called his name Zebulun.

21 And afterwards she bare a daughter, and called her name Dinah.

22 ¶ And God [p] remembered Rachel, and God hearkened to her, and [h] opened her womb.

23 And she conceived, and bare a son; and said, God hath taken away [i] my reproach:

24 And she called his name Joseph; and said, [k] The LORD shall add to me another son.

25 ¶ And it came to pass, when Rachel had born Joseph, that Jacob said unto Laban, Send me away, that I may go unto mine own place, and to my country.

26 Give me my wives and my children, [l] for whom I have served thee, and let me go: for thou knowest my service which I have done thee.

27 And Laban said unto him, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thine eyes, [r] tarry: for I have learned by experience that the LORD hath blessed me for thy sake.

MANDRAKES. Dûwday - love plant from Dôd - to boil, to love. They are apples of the mandragora, an herb resembling belladonna, with a root like a carrot, having white & reddish blossoms of a sweet smell, & with yellow odoriferous apples, ripening in May and June, and supposed, according to superstition, to possess the virtue of conciliating love & stimulating fruitfulness. Reuben took them in all innocence to his mother.

12 The law illustrated the principle of faith - Leah's action should have taught Rachel that only God could grant her life.

13 Her 5th Son, speaking of grace. See Note above: "I may have children by her." Her unselfish action, as she considered it, brought a reward.

5 BIRTH OF JOSEPH 22-24.

15 The mandrakes fail, but prayer succeeds.

16 As the antitypical Joseph would remove the curse of the Law.

17 Note the change to the Covenant Name. The meaning of Joseph's name points forward to Benjamin - the two advents of the Lord. The promise of a further son must have been told her by God.

COMPETITION BETWEEN THE TWO SHEPHERDS Vv. 25-43.

1 AN AGREEMENT OF CONVENIENCE Vv25-36.

18 If this was after fourteen years the family would have been born within 7 years - an impossibility if the elder suggested it followed. But see top p. 46. Now been with Laban 24 years.

19 At the first advent of the antitypical Joseph, Israel desired the restoration.

20 Nâshaph (word for serpent) Lit. "to hiss" - to prognosticate (Str.). RV "I have divined" "Now O.T. - "I have observed the omens" The man of flesh speaks.

21 This implies that Jacob had explained the Covenant of Promise to Laban, who now, like the serpent sought to dissuade Jacob from his return. Jacob had evidently explained that the God of Bethel was He who would reveal himself in a seed Gen. 28:19. Thus El Shaddai Ex. 6:3, would be commonly referred to as. He who will fulfil the promises, manifest himself in a Seed, and bless all nations, by using the normal verb hâyâh with the third person, singular masculine pronoun, which Moses might well render as Yahweh - it being expressive of the same principle. Thus Laban unconsciously used the word that was ultimately proved 22 Note the suave politeness of this man of the flesh. He has benefited greatly from the presence of Jacob who, as a member of the family has rendered service above that which is normal Cp Ch. 31:6, 38-40. For 20 years he has worked without wages.

JACOB THE SHEPHERD.

Joseph is born whilst he is under the domination of Laban. He desires to leave but instead is set to caring and shepherding the flock. By skilful shepherding Vv. 40-41 the strongest animals become his and reveal characteristics that are peculiar to themselves. Thus there appears type within type in this account. Jacob prospers among the Gentiles Cp Isa. 49:18-26.

Jacob's policy.

served thee, and how thy cattle was with me.

30 For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now (2)increased unto a multitude; and the LORD hath blessed thee (3)since my coming: and now when shall I (4)provide for mine own house also?

31 And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me any thing: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock.

32 I will pass through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattle, and all the brown cattle among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats: and [d]of such shall be my hire.

(RSV. Honesty)

33 So shall my righteousness answer for me [e]in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the sheep, that shall be counted stolen with me.

34 And Laban said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.

35 And he removed that day the he goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons.

36 And he set three days' journey betwixt himself and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

37 ¶ And [f]Jacob took him rods of green poplar, and of the hazel and chesnut tree; and pilled white strakes in them, and made the [g]white appear which was in the rods.

38 And he set the rods which he had pilled before the flocks in the [a]gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the rods, and (2)brought forth cattle [b]ringstraked, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob did separate the lambs, and set the faces of the flocks toward the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them not unto Laban's cattle.

41 And it came to pass, whensoever the stronger cattle did conceive, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the cattle in the gutters, that they might conceive among the rods.

42 But when the cattle were feeble, he put them not in: so the feebler were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's.

43 And the man (c)increased exceedingly, and [f]had much cattle, and maidservants, and menservants, and [g]camels, and asses. Cp Ch 32:13-16.

CHAPTER 31.

THE FAMILY COUNCIL Vv. 1-16

1 LABAN'S CHANGED ATTITUDE TOWARDS JACOB 1-2

1 The conversation alerted him to the change in Laban's & the rising hostility towards him in the household.

JACOB DISCLOSES HIS PLAN TO HIS WIVES 3-13

2 Jacob evidently made his problem a matter of prayer.

3 The relationships had become critical. He called them from the hostile environment.

Laban's sons accused Jacob of deceit because his growth of power was not naturally possible - especially as they had removed the foundation of Jacob's flock Ch. 30:35 but see Ch. 31:10.

THE TYPE

The flock of Laban becomes attached to that of Jacob. In this there seems to be the preaching to the Gentiles. Joseph is born V. 24. The speckled and spotted become Jacobs. Cp Mt. 9:13. The means:

Poplar - Libneh from the root "Laban." The "white" tree. Prob. the Storax. Though usually a shrub, it often attains a height of 20 feet. The lower surface of the leaves is white, and it bears a wealth of large white blossoms, thus the "white tree." Cp. Hos. 4:13.

Hazel - Luwz Ch 28:19. In Jacob's mind doubtless a reference to the vision of Bethel. Ges. suggests Arrahaie for Almond tree.

Chestnut - [e]armown from [e]dram, to make bare. The plane tree from its smooth, shed bark. RV. LXX. Plane tree. A scratch in the bark of this tree will at once show a white streak. Often attains a height of 100 ft. & a diameter at its base of from 6 to 10 feet. The periodic peeling of the bark reveals the smooth, white interior or trunk. The root word is used in good or bad sense for cunning, crafty prudent.

Jacob set before the flock the principle of righteousness (poplar), the promise of Luz (Hazel) and the need to uncover oneself to God (Chestnut) in consequent of which the flock of Laban revealed the influence of this, showing up their imperfections and were drawn to the hope of Israel.

23 See Mg. Every step that he had taken regarding the flocks & herds had prospered. If Laban had thought on this more he may not have entered into the subsequent agreement. Jacob was quite open about the matter.

24 Tson - small cattle such as sheep and goats.

25 Seh - Young i.e. lambs. New Old Test: "I will pass over in all thy flock today, removing from thence every sheep speckled & spotted; & every black sheep among the lambs & spotted & speckled among the goats..." Sheep are normally white & goats black in M.E. and there would have been but few such as Jacob described.

26 He probably rubbed his hands with glee at such a proposal. Under normal conditions Jacob's chances of increasing his wealth were meagre under such conditions.

27 Laban did, sending them far away V. 36. Thus he deceived Jacob. Cp Ch. 31:7. Laban evidently did this secretly before Jacob could go through the flocks. But see Ch. 31:10

28 Symbol of completeness.

29 A cut down tree often symbolises the cross. 1 Kgs. 2:24. Deut. 21:23. Exod 15:25. As Jacob cut down the Rod off of each tree and placarded it before the flock of Laban, so his descendants did to Christ. But the "white" appeared. The word is "Laban" used for righteousness or the white of leprosy.

30 Peeled - so revealing their inward character. He did this in a spiral line so that the rods appeared part colored.

31 They saw the rods & drank of the water of life and conceived to bring forth fruit.

32 Reflecting the rods which revealed his inner righteousness. These animals were gradually better than Laban V. 41.

33 To make the speckled lambs serve the same purpose as the peeled rods. Thus acting as an example.

34 So that the reverse effect would not follow & the sheep revert to type.

RACHEL STOLE THE TERAPHIM OF LABAN AND JACOB STOLE HIS HEART VV19-20.

but the God of my father [a] hath been with me.
6 And [b] ye know that with all my power [4] I have served your father.
7 And your father hath deceived me, and [6] changed my wages [c] ten times; but God suffered him not to hurt me.
8 If he said thus, [d] The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattle bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ringstraked shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattle ringstraked.
9 Thus God hath taken away the cattle of your father, and given them to me.
10 And it came to pass at the [7] time that the cattle conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and, behold, the [8] rams which leaped upon the cattle were ringstraked, speckled, and grisled. [9]
11 And the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: And I said, Here am I.
12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see, all the rams which leap upon the cattle are ringstraked, speckled, and [g] grisled: for [h] I have seen all that Laban doeth unto thee.
13 I am the God of Beth-el, [k] where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: [l] now arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.
14 And Rachel and Leah answered and said unto him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house?
15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for [o] he hath sold us, [11] and hath quite devoured also our money.
16 For all the riches [p] which God hath taken from our father, that is our's, and our children's: now then, whatsoever God hath said unto thee, do.
17 ¶ Then Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels;
18 And he carried [13] away all his cattle, and all his [15] goods which he had gotten, the cattle of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram, for to go to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.
19 And Laban went [16] to shear his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the [17] images that were her father's.
20 And [18] Jacob stole away [3] unawares to Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.
21 So he fled with all that he had; and he rose up, and passed over the river, and [f] set his face toward the mount Gilead.
22 And it was told Laban on the third day [20] that Jacob was fled.
23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey; and they overtook him in the mount Gilead.
24 And God [i] came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed [3] that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad. [21]
25 ¶ Then Laban overtook Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount: [22] and Laban with his brethren pitched in the mount of Gilead.
26 And Laban said to [24] Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away [m] unawares to me, and [n] carried away my daughters, [24] as captives taken with the sword?
27 Wherefore didst thou flee away secretly, and [6] steal away from me; and didst not tell me, that I might have sent thee away with mirth, and with songs, with tabret, and with harp?

13 Nahag, to pant, signifying his activity, ungency + fear.
14 Mikneh: possessions, always used of cattle, the chief wealth of nomads.
15 Kecush, acquisition - his substance in general.
16 Rdh. "had gone."
17 "The possession of these household gods implied leadership of the family, & in the case of a married daughter assured her husband the right to the property of her father." Unger. Possibly she took them to secure only for the increase secured by Jacob. Cp Index.
18 Lit: "And stole Jacob the heart of Laban the Aramean." He deceived him.

2 LABAN PURSUES JACOB. VV 22-24

19 His sheep were 3 days' journey from Jacob's Ch. 30:36 and he would have occupied additional time in preparations.
20 From Padam-Aram to Gilead = approx. 300 m.

21 Deceitfully - pretending to greet him in friendly fashion and then proceeding to accuse him of it. 6:4.

3 THE INVESTIGATION W25-42.

22 So the two hostile camps were assembled side by side and great fear would be in that of Jacob's.
23 Assuming a tone of injured innocence.
24 Laban's frustration & anger causes him to use extreme language & indulge in hyperbole. In reality he had sold his daughters as slaves.

CHAPTER 31.

THE FAMILY COUNCIL Vv1-16.

1 LABAN'S CHANGED ATTITUDE TOWARDS JACOB 1-2

1 The conversation alerted him to the change in Laban's & the rising hostility towards him in the household.

2 JACOB DISCLOSES HIS PLAN TO HIS WIVES 3-13.

2 Jacob evidently made his problem a matter of prayer.
3 The relationship had become critical. He called them from the hostile environment.
Laban's sons accused Jacob of deceit because his growth of power was not naturally possible - especially as they had removed the foundation of Jacob's flock. Ch. 30:35 but see Ch. 31:10.

3 THE READY RESPONSE OF JACOB'S WIVES. Vv14-16.

10 This must have been a subsequent dream.

11 The mercenary meanness of Laban rankled long in their minds. He had destroyed any love they had once had for him.
12 They endorsed Jacob's explanation of his prosperity.

7 Laban had removed all Jacob's flock Ch. 30:35 but God intervened so that the animals were marked though outwardly perfect.
8 Beruddim from barad, to scatter hail. Thus spotted - thus provided Jacob with the foundation of his flock.
9 In reality the external appearance of the animals were not as described.

5 Kowach - from an unused onomatopoetic root sig. to pant - indicating to extend one's strength. Jacob had worked hard for Laban.

6. Cf Vv 38-42. Many times as in Num. 14:22 Job 19:3.

31. They saw the result drank of the water of life and conceived to bring forth fruit.
32. Reflecting the work which revealed his inner righteousness.
33 To make the speckled lambs serve the same purpose as the peeled rods. Thus acting as an example.
34 So that the reverse effect would not follow & the sheep reveal the type.

28 And hast not suffered me [b] to kiss my sons and my daughters? [d] thou hast now done foolishly in so doing.

29 It is in the power[25] of my hand to do you hurt: but the [e] God of your father spake unto me [f] yesternight, saying, Take thou heed that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.

30 And now, though thou wouldest needs be gone, because thou sore longedst after thy father's house, yet wherefore hast thou [h] stolen my gods?

31 And Jacob answered[26] and said to Laban, Because I was afraid: for I said, Peradventure thou wouldest take by force thy daughters from me.

32 With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, let him not live: before our brethren discern thou what is thine with me, and take it to thee. For Jacob knew not that Rachel had stolen them.

33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two maidservants' tents; but he found them not. Then went he out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

34 Now Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camel's furniture,[27] and sat upon them. And Laban[2] searched all the tent, but found them not.

35 And she said to her father, Let it not displease my lord that I cannot [g] rise up before thee; for the custom of women is upon me. And he searched, but found not the images.

36 ¶ And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban: and Jacob answered and said to Laban,[28] What is my trespass? what is my sin, that thou hast so [m] hotly pursued after me?

37 Whereas thou hast [3] searched all my stuff, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? set it here before [a] my brethren and [c] thy brethren, that they may judge betwixt us both.[31]

38 This twenty years have I been with thee; thy ewes and thy she goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock have I not eaten.

39 That which was torn of beasts I brought not unto thee; I bare the loss of it; of [o] my hand didst thou require it, whether stolen by day, or stolen by night.

40 Thus I was; in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus have I been twenty years in thy house; [i] I served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy cattle: and [p] thou hast changed my wages ten times.

42 [q] Except the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and [r] the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now empty. [s] God hath seen mine affliction and the labour of my hands, and [o] rebuked thee yesternight.[33]

43 ¶ And Laban answered and said unto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, and these children are my children, and these cattle are my cattle, and all that thou seest is mine: and what can I do this day unto these my daughters, or unto their children which they have born?

44 Now therefore come thou, [r] let us make a covenant, I and thou; [t] and let it be for a witness between me and thee.[34]

45 And Jacob [t] took a stone, and set it up for a pillar.[39]

46 And Jacob said unto his brethren,[4] Gather stones; and they took stones, and made an heap:[41] and they did eat there upon the heap.

47 And Laban called it [u] Jegar-

27 What anxious moments as the probing merciless hands of Laban poked and moved over all that was in the tent.

28 RSV following the LXX = saddle.

4 THE COVENANT AT GILEAD Vv 36-55.

Embarrassed at the failure of his search, Laban's anger faded whilst Jacob's confidence increased. He now saw in the attitude of Laban (or thought he saw!) an indication of the typical selfish, suspicion of his father-in-law such as he had experienced. Jacob's anger not rose.

29 Charah, to glow, blaze up. He burned with indignation the more Laban was abashed.

30 The intensity of Jacob's feelings gives eloquence to his words. In Hebrew there is a selection of poetical forms of expression and rythmical movement that is felt in the English as the hotly indignant Jacob upbraids his father-in-law with an avalanch of words, a series of grievances that refused to be stopped.

THE INVESTIGATION The meeting was dramatic and emotional, and suspense is maintained to the end. Laban accused Jacob of being a trickster bargaining in human lives V.26; of being guilty of gross discourtesy, so that he, generous man, was denied the pleasure of lavishing on them a proper and liberal farewell VV 27-28.; of placing himself in a position of receiving of severe punishment, but for the intervention of God V.29; of acting as an homesick child anxious to hasten back to its father's home V.30; + finally as a petty thief who had stolen his benefactor's treasured possessions V.30.

Jacob replied with dignity. He did not defend himself. He admitted he was moved by fear + the dread of Laban's irresponsible use of force V.31. The accusation of dishonesty stung Jacob + he impulsively gave Laban permission to search the camp and confidently promised that the offender would be punished with death.

20 or 40 YEARS WITH LABAN? If only 20 years, he left Isaac seeking a wife at 77, and events such as those recorded in Ch35 must be compressed into impossible limits. See Index under Jacob. Jacob, however speaks of two "Twenty years" (VV 38,41) twenty years with Laban as a friend - "with thee," and "twenty years as a covenant servant" - "in thine house.": 14 for his wives; 20 yrs as a friend; 6 yrs for cattle. The Hebrew "zeh" - This (V 38.) "Thus" (V.41) when used in conjunction one with the other is often used by way of distinction. as in Exod. 26.20. rendered "one" and "other." Lev. 6.15 "This" and "that." Job 21.23 "One" and "another." So here, Jacob could have meant this 20 years and that 20 years. The first 20 years, as a friend + at some personal loss, but in gratitude to his father in law, he cared for his flocks (Vv 38-40) The other 20 yrs he profited - first with the acquisition of wives, then Laban's herds.

The Hebrew: zeh li' esrim: "that for myself (li) twenty years..." One 20 years he showed a profit, the other a loss. In all, he was there 40 years: 14 for his wives; 20 as a friend and son in law; 6 for the cattle. In all, a period of probation.

31 To the chagrin of Laban, he had nothing to show! One can imagine how the eyes of his kinsmen (V 32) would turn towards him. Judge = YoKhaKh - to correct, instruct. Not as V.53

47 The Arabic + Samaritan text read "yaritha" "thou hast erected, instead of "yarithi" "I have.." Cp. V.45.

48 A covenant of peace. The steps to it: ① A revelation from God to Laban. ② Laban's failure to sustain his accusation against Jacob ③ A review of how God had been with Jacob.

Typically - many of those who are originally antagonistic finally embrace the hope of Israel.

49 Several mss have "abichem" - your father instead of "abihem" - their father. Cp. V.29.

50 Shophat in its plural form, though LXX Syriac, Samaritan etc give it in singular. But Laban speaks to Jacob in plural V.29. "Your" = Khem. So this could have been his form of speech, + he recognised the "one God" of Jacob.

51 The "heap" became as the Table of the Lord. Mal. 1:7.

JACOB BECOMES ISRAEL. Vv 1-32

1 ENCOURAGEMENT AT MAHANAIM Vv 1-2

1 The presence of the Divine army was a guarantee of protection to Jacob against Esau. mahanah Elohim from chanah, encampeth. Ps 34:7. Jacob's bands also called mahanah V.7.

sahadutha: but Jacob called it (43) (a) Galeed. (42)

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. (Therefore was the name of it called Galeed; - Historical insertion

49 And (b) Mizpah; for he said, The LORD watch between me and thee, when we are absent one from another.

50 If thou shalt afflict my daughters, or if thou shalt take other wives beside my (44) daughters, no man is with us; (45) see, God is witness betwixt me and thee.

51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold this pillar, which I have (c) cast betwixt me and thee;

52 (d) This heap be witness, and this pillar be witness, that I will not pass over this heap to thee, and that thou shalt not pass over this heap and this pillar unto me, for harm. (46)

53 The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge (e) betwixt us. And Jacob sware by (f) the fear of his father Isaac. (47)

54 Then Jacob (g) offered sacrifice upon the mount, and called (h) his brethren to eat bread: and they did eat bread, and tarried all night in the mount. (Reconciliation)

55 And early in the morning Laban rose up, and kissed (i) his sons and his daughters, and (k) blessed them: and Laban departed, and returned unto his place.

Laban did not kill Jacob as at their first meeting Cp Ch. 29:13?.

CHAPTER 32.

Jacob's vision at Mahanaim. 3 His message to Esau. 6 He is afraid of Esau's coming. 9 He prayeth for deliverance. 13 He sendeth a present to Esau. 24 He wrestleth with an angel at Peniel, where he is called Israel. 31 He halteth.

AND Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is (l) God's (p) host: and he called the name of that place (q) Mahanaim. (2)

3 And Jacob sent (3) messengers before him to Esau his brother unto the land of (r) Seir, (4) the (s) country of Edom.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak unto my lord Esau; Thy servant Jacob saith thus, I have sojourned with Laban, and stayed there until now:

5 And I have oxen, and asses, flocks, and menservants, and womenservants: and I have sent to tell my lord, that (t) I may find grace in thy sight.

6 ¶ And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother Esau, and also (u) he cometh to meet thee, and four hundred men with him.

7 Then Jacob was greatly afraid and distressed: and he divided the people (6) that was with him, and the flocks, and herds, and the camels, into two bands;

8 And said, If Esau come to the one company, and smite it, then the other company which is left shall escape. (Ps. 34:7)

9 ¶ And Jacob said, (h) O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, the (i) LORD (k) which saidst unto me, Return unto thy country, and to thy kindred, (7) and I will deal well with thee:

10 (v) I am not worthy of the least of all the (8) mercies, and of all the truth, which thou hast shewed unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan; and now I am become two bands. V.7.

11 Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he will come and smite me, and the mother (9) with the children. (10)

4 The rough or bristling mountain Ges. Esau had evidently conquered this + it afterwards became the headquarters of the Edomites Deut. 2:4 though, as yet Esau had not completely withdrawn from Canaan. Gen 36:5-8

3 Thus he stood in no further need of wealth from either Isaac or Esau.

4 Forgiveness of anything that he had done amiss.

5 He was evidently already living by the sword Ch. 27:40, + probably engaged in wrestling Seir from the Horites Ch. 36:5-8. Apparently the messengers did not talk with Esau but immediately hastened to return.

6 He acted judiciously + in faith. He divided his company so that some might escape in the event of an attack + gave himself to prayer.

3 A PLEA FOR DIVINE HELP Vv 9-12

He offers a prayer of humility, confidence, frankness, forthrightness based on the Covenants of Promise.

7 The Covenant Name. In the mouth of Jacob: He Who Will be manifested. A reminder that if Jacob be destroyed, how will the Covenant be fulfilled! Cf 32:29

It consists of an invocation V.9 thanksgiving V.10 petition V.11 + appeal on basis of Divine faithfulness V.12.

8 It was obedience to Divine Will that brought the threat of Esau

Cf. Gen 12:1.

10 Or Mg. The mother grovelling over the children to try + save them.

11 The covenant recalled as the basis of the prayer. If V.11 fulfilled - impossible for the Covenant to be.

FROM JACOB TO ISRAEL. This transition marks this chapter as one of the most significant in the Book of Genesis. Through distress, fear and darkness Jacob wrestled his way to a new dawn, a new status, and a new revelation from God. The chapter highlights tremendous contrasts: the messengers of God V.1 are contrasted with the messengers of Jacob V.3. the encouragement of the former V.2. is contrasted with the ominous report of the latter V.6. the hoped for appeasement of Esau at the cost of an expensive gift is contrasted with the freely bestowed blessing of the angel VV.24,28, the desire to see the face of Esau in peace V.20 is matched with seeing the "faces of El" V.30, the prevailing over Esau is foreshadowed by the prevailing with the angel, which took place in the darkness of night, & which ended in the blaze of a new dawn & the revelation of a new name for the Supplanter.

which cannot be numbered for multitude.

13 ¶ And he lodged there that same night; and took of that which came to his hand [b] a present for Esau his brother;

14 Two hundred she goats, and twenty he goats, two hundred ewes, and twenty rams,

15 Thirty milch camels with their colts, forty kine, and ten bulls, twenty she asses, and ten foals.

16 And he delivered them into the hand of his servants, every drove by themselves; and said unto his servants, Pass over before me, and put a space betwixt drove and drove.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meeteth thee, and asketh thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these before thee?

18 Then thou shalt say, They be thy servant Jacob's; it is a present sent unto my lord Esau: and, behold, also he is behind us.

19 And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, On this manner shall ye speak unto Esau, when ye find him.

20 And say ye moreover, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will appease him with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see his face; peradventure he will accept [6] of me.

21 So went the present over before him: and himself lodged that night in the company.

22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two womenservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford [m] Jabbok.

23 And he took them, and [6] sent them over the brook, and sent over that he had.

5 CRISIS IN THE NIGHT VV.24-32.

24 ¶ And Jacob was left alone; and there [6] wrestled a man with him until the [2] breaking of the day.

25 And when he saw that he prevailed not against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh; and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was out of joint, as he wrestled with him.

26 And he said, [c] Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me.

27 And he said unto him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.

28 And he said, [d] Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but [3] Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and [e] with men, and hast prevailed.

29 And Jacob asked him, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, thy name. And he said, [f] Wherefore is it that thou dost ask after my name? And he blessed him there.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place [4] Peniel: for [g] I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved.

31 And as he passed over [h] Penuel the sun rose upon him, and he halted upon his thigh.

32 Therefore the children of Israel eat not of the sinew which [k] shrank, which is upon the hollow of the thigh, unto this day: because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew that shrank.

BROTHERS RE-UNITED VV.1-15

1 THEIR EMOTIONAL MEETING VV.1-4

THE NAME This represents the character and purpose of Deity, and as such had been revealed to Jacob in the blessing Ch. 28:13-15 and His overshadowing of Jacob's life. On the basis of all that the angel blessed Jacob once again, endorsing the promise by changing his name.

The blessing gave Jacob new heart + outlook. He went forward with renewed conviction, with mind filled with the encounter with the angel rather than the impending one with Esau.

The antitype Ezek. 36:26.

JACOB LIMPED

"The struggle left its mark, but Jacob issued from the contest victor redeemed and transformed by the contest. So it has ever been with the People called by his name" - Jewish comment. from Soncino Edition of Pentateuch.

JABBOK from bakak, to pour forth or empty or from abak, to wrestle or struggle. Today the Wady Zerka, or Blue River. About half way between Sea of Galilee + Sea of Salt. Like Bethel + Ai, between the Living + Dead Seas! The stream is rapid, and often completely hidden by the dense masses of oleander that fringe its banks.

Jacob conducted his family over V.22 then returned to the northern bank V.23.

PENIEL from pânâh, to turn, by implication to face (life). Thus - my turning to El. It marked a great change in the attitude of Jacob.

Penuel = ? YaWV instead of ? yod., a contrast "vef" instead of "my". Turning yet God (did not consume) Jacob used Peniel, his descendants used Penuel Judg 8:17

ISRAEL Yisrael. •From "sar" a prince, and El — A Prince with God (El).
•From "sarah" to prevail in striving with El, emphasising the efficacy of the promise. Thus Fighter with God and for God against men. The angelic definition. Gen. 32:28
•From "Ish" אִישׁ, the Aleph being dropped, raah, he saw, El, God. which was Jacob's definition V30
•The angel's definition looked to the time of Jacob's trouble the nation will serve Yahweh in truth. Jer 30:11-24 and out of whom will come the Prince V21.
•Jacob's definition anticipated the time when the manifestation of El will be seen by the nation Zech. 12:10 and it will be redeemed. Rom. 11:26.
•Yisrael, therefore, can signify A victorious striver with God, & therefore with man. As Sarah he is a Prince with El and overcomer such as Esau.

and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and Joseph hindermost.

2 That is as he advanced (note "until"). This was not done through timidity but through a desire to conciliate.

3 And he passed over before them, and [a] bowed himself to the ground seven times,[2] until he came near to his brother.

4 [c] And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, [d] and fell on his neck, and kissed him: and they wept.

2 RECONCILIATION Vv 5-11. Cp Prov. 16:7

5 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those [3] with thee? And he said, The children [g] which God hath graciously given thy servant.

6 Then the handmaidens came near, they and their children, and they bowed themselves.

7 And Leah also with her children came near, and bowed themselves: and after came Joseph near and Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

3 Mahanaim Cp Ch. 32:2.

8 And he said, [a] What meanest thou by [1] all this drove which I met? And he said, These are [n] to find grace in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; [2] keep that thou hast unto thyself.

10 And Jacob said, Nay, I pray thee, if now I have found grace in thy sight, then receive my present at my hand: [p] for therefore I [q] have seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou wast pleased with me.

11 Take, I pray thee, [r] my blessing that is brought to thee; because God hath dealt graciously with me, and because I have [s] enough. [9] And he [u] urged him, and he took it.

12 And he said, Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before thee.

13 And he said unto him, My lord knoweth that the children are tender, and the flocks and herds with young are with me: and if men should overdrive them one day, all the flock will die.

14 Let my lord, I pray thee, pass over before his servant: and I will lead on [b] softly, [2] according as the cattle that goeth before me and the children be able to endure, until I come unto my lord [e] unto Seir. //

15 And Esau said, Let me now [3] leave with thee some of the folk that are with me. And he said, What needeth it? [f] let me find grace in the sight of my lord.

16 ¶ So Esau returned that day on his way unto Seir.

17 And Jacob journeyed [5] to [h] Succoth, and built him an house, and made booths for his cattle: therefore the name of the place is called [6] Succoth.

18 ¶ And Jacob came to [i] Shalem, a city of [7k] Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-aram; and pitched his tent before the city.

19 And [m] he bought a parcel of a field, where he had spread his tent, at the hand of the children of [8] Hamor, Shechem's father, for an hundred [9] pieces of money. Cp Ch. 42:7 (Kesitah: lamb but see Ch. 23:16)

TRAGEDY AT SHECHEM Vv 1-31

1 DINAH IS DEFILED Vv 1-5

1 Feminine of Dan, sig. Judgment. It is supposed that she was a young teenager at this time, Jacob having spent some years at Shechem.
2 She sought the friendship of the world Jam. 4:4 She imitated the action of Lot rather than Abram or her father.
3 The neck, between the shoulders, hence Burden bearer.
4 Ass from Chamar, to boil ferment, also - speaking of its high-spirited.
5 Condemned for their ungodly ways Deut. 7:1 See below.
6 This suggests that he forcibly assaulted her and afterwards retained her in his house. Cp V. 26
7 Endeavoured to gain her affections & reconcile her to her disgrace. He spake "to her heart."
NA'AR - An adolescent of either sex - young person.

HIVITE: Declarer a. Life-giving, Living place, Village Str. 49 A nation to be destroyed because of ungodly ways Deut. 7:1. Their main settlement seems to have been in the north under the shadow of Lebanon Josh. 11:3. Jud. 3:3. 2 Sam. 24:7. Hamor, apparently, had moved south to Shechem. The story of this chapter shows the Hivites to have been warm-hearted, impulsive, over confident V23, overtrustful V21, gullible, greedy of gain, given to trade & to the multiplication of flocks & herds rather than to war. The absence of any attempt at revenge would confirm the unwarlike assessment of their character, as does the ease with which Abimelech took the city later Jud. 9:22-49. The Hivites occupied the four cities of Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth, Kirjath-jearam which made a league with Joshua Josh. 9:7, 11. and in this avenged the treachery of Jacob's sons. The name of their god, Baal-Berith - Lord of the League confirms this impression of their unwarlike character. They gained by diplomacy what they could not obtain by war. The Hivite form of administration seems to have been highly democratic. From the reference to the elders and the people of Josh. 9:11 they seemed to have exercised considerable voice in the national affairs. So Hamor & Shechem reasoned and "communed with the men of their city Gen. 34:20-24 but did not attempt to command.

"HE WROUGHT FOLLY IN ISRAEL"

The term "folly" easily passes into the idea of wickedness of a shameful character 1 Sam. 25:25. 2 Sam. 13:12 since Yahweh views sin as the height of unreason Ps. 74:22. Jer. 17:11 and holiness the sublimest act of reason or wisdom Ps. 111:10. Prov. 1:4.

This is the first time this expression is used. It afterwards was used as a national expression to describe acts done against the character which should belong to Israel as a separated and covenanted people. • Harlotry. Deut. 22:21 • Achan Josh. 7:15 • The Gibeathites Jud. 19:23. 20:6, 10. • [redacted] Amnon and Tamar 2 Sam. 13:12.

Folly = Nebâlâh, wickedness from Nâbâl, stupid, wicked.

4 And Shechem [a] spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter: now his sons were with his cattle in the field: and Jacob [b] held his peace until they were come.

6 ¶ And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him.

7 And the sons of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it: and the men were grieved, and they [c] were very wroth, because he [d] had wrought folly in Israel in lying with Jacob's daughter; which thing [e] ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my son Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us: and [h] the land shall be before you; dwell and [i] trade ye therein, and [k] get you possessions therein.

11 And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me find grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.

12 Ask me never so much [m] dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me: but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father [n] deceitfully, and said, (because he had [o] defiled Dinah their sister:)

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for [p] that were a reproach unto us:

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised;

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughter, and we will be gone.

18 And their words pleased Hamor, and Shechem Hamor's son.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter: and he was [s] more honourable than all the house of his father.

20 ¶ And Hamor and Shechem his son came unto the gate of their city, and communed with the men of their city, saying,

21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and [t] trade therein; for the land, behold, it is large enough for them; let us take their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Only herein will the men consent unto us for to dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not their cattle and their substance and every beast of their's be our's? only let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor and unto Shechem his son hearkened all that [p] went out of the gate of his city; and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his city.

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, [r] Simeon and Levi, [s] Dinah's brethren, took each

THE TYPE

In the sad circumstances here recorded which were brought about by the folly of Dinah, there does appear a type to which Jacob makes reference in Ch 49:5-7. The treacherous council of Simeon & Levi brought about the murderous death of Shechem, the burden-bearer & brought Jacob into ill favor with the surrounding nations Gen 34:30. 35:5. In the death of Shechem there is foreshadowed the crucifixion of flesh. Jacob doubtless intended to exact retribution & deliver Dinah - but his sons took the matter into their own hands & by treachery & violence accomplished that which was intended anyway. - though the way they did it brought judgment on themselves. See Acts 2:23.

2. Through the death of Shechem, Gentiles were added to Jacob. Gen 34:29. 35:

The Shechemites slain. Jacob goeth to Beth-el.

man his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the males.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his son with the [2] edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went out. (their mission accomplished)

27 The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the city, because they had [d] defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the city, and that which was in the field,

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have [i] troubled me [k] to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, among [l] the Canaanites and the Perizzites: and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

31 And they said, Should he deal with our sister as with an harlot? (zânâh - well fed & wanton str. One who prostituted herself for hire - A.C.)

CHAPTER 35.

1 God sendeth Jacob to Beth-el. 2 He purgeth his house of idols, 6 and buildeth an altar. 9 God blesseth him. 16 Rachel beareth Benjamin, and dieth. 23 Jacob's sons. 29 Isaac's death.

AND God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to [a] Beth-el, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee [@] when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

2 Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away [@] the strange gods that are among you, and [©] be clean, and change your garments: - Exod 19:10 at Sinai.

3 And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el; and I will make there an altar unto God, [a] who answered me in the day of my distress, [b] and was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hand, and all their [©] earrings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under [e] the oak which was by Shechem. Ps 101:3-5; Cp Heb. 11:24

5 And they journeyed: and [f] the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

6 ¶ So Jacob came to [h] Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Beth-el, he and all the people that were with him.

7 And he built there an altar, and called the place [3] El-beth-el: because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 But [m] Deborah Rebekah's nurse died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el under [o] an oak: and the name of it was called [q] Allon-bachuth.

9 ¶ And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and blessed him.

10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: [p] thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, [@] but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel.

11 And God said unto him, [r] I am God Almighty: be [①] fruitful and multiply; [b] a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins;

12 And the land [v] which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

DEATH OF DEBORAH V8 51

This verse interrupts the narrative to record the death & burial of Deborah. Jakob was now at least 100 (See ppp. p 17). His mother had been married 20 yrs before he was born Ch 25:20,26. She was therefore at least 140 if still alive. Her nurse would have been at least 160. It is unlikely that she made her way to Padan-aram at her age, but it could have been that she joined Jacob at Shechem. Alternatively she may have died earlier, & this verse is a parenthetic note, so that when Jacob arrived at Bethel he mourned at this sole contact with the mother he loved so much

ISRAEL AND EDOM: A CONTRAST • At first Esau seemed moved by religious convictions – the influence of his father. He named his sons Eliphaz (strength of El) and Reuel (friend of El) V.4. • Decline: indicated by the naming of successive sons – Jeush (hasty), Jaalam (occult), Korah (baldness) V.5. • Sons of Eliphaz suggest extension of the power of the flesh: Teman (South), Omar (Eloquent), Zepho (watchtower), Kenaz (hunting), Amalek (warrior) Vv. 11,12. • Alternating success thus – the sons of Reuel: Nahath (declining), Zerah (rising), Shammah (waiting), Mizzah (fear) V.13. • Appointment of dukes – growing power and settled organisation • Elevation of Kings V.31 – Growth of power • Extension of territory Vv.40-43. Growth of influence. Whilst Israel remained strangers + pilgrims, the political development of Edom was rapid and extensive.

18 @Adah the wife of Esau, Reuel the son of Bashemath the wife of Esau.

11 And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, [2] Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz.

12 And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz Esau's son; and she bare to Eliphaz [c] Amalek: these were the sons of Adah Esau's wife.

13 And these are the sons of Reuel; Nahath, and Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah: these were the sons of Bashemath Esau's wife.

14 ¶ And these were the sons of [d] Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah the daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: and she bare to Esau Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah.

15 ¶ These were dukes of the sons of Esau: [f] the sons of Eliphaz the firstborn son of Esau; duke Teman, duke Omar, duke Zepho, duke Kenaz, 16 Duke Korah, duke Gatam, and duke Amalek: these are the dukes that came of Eliphaz in the land of Edom; these were the sons of Adah.

17 ¶ And these are the sons of [h] Reuel Esau's son; duke Nahath, duke Zerah, duke Shammah, duke Mizzah: these are the dukes that came of Reuel in the land of Edom; these are the sons of Bashemath Esau's wife.

18 ¶ And these are the sons of [k] Aholibamah Esau's wife; duke Jeush, duke Jaalam, duke Korah: these were the dukes that came of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.

19 These are the sons of Esau, [l] who is Edom, and these are their dukes.

20 ¶ [m] These are the sons of Seir [n] the Horite, who inhabited the land; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, 21 And Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these are the dukes of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 And the children of Lotan were Hori and [2] Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna.

23 And the children of Shobal were these; [4] Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, [5] Shepho, and Onam.

24 And these are the children of Zibeon; both Ajah, and Anah: this was that Anah that found the mules in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Zibeon his father.

25 And the children of Anah were these; Dishon, and @Aholibamah the daughter of Anah.

26 And these are the children of Dishon; [6] Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran.

27 The children of Ezer are these; Bilhan, and Zaavan, and [7] Akan.

28 The children of Dishan are these; Uz, and Aran.

29 These are the dukes that came of the Horites; @duke Lotan, duke Shobal, duke Zibeon, duke Anah,

30 Duke Dishon, duke Ezer, duke Dishan: these are the dukes that came of Hori, among their dukes in the land of Seir.

31 ¶ And [i] these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any king over the children of Israel.

32 And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

33 And Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

34 And Jobab died, and Husham of the land of Temani reigned in his stead.

35 And Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Avith.

well with the flocks; and bring me word again. So he sent him out of the vale of [c] Hebron, and he came to Shechem. 21

15 ¶ And a certain man found him, and, behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou? 22

16 And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed their flocks. 23

17 And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them, they conspired against him to slay him. 24

19 And they said one to another, Behold, this [3] dreamer cometh. 25

20 Come now therefore, and let us slay him, and cast him into some pit, and we will say, Some evil beast hath devoured him: and we shall see what will become of his dreams. 26

21 And [d] Reuben heard it, and he delivered him out of their hands; and said, Let us not kill him. 27

22 And Reuben said unto them, Shed no blood, but cast him into this pit that is in the wilderness, and lay no hand upon him; [e] that he might rid him out of their hands, to deliver him to his father again. 28

23 ¶ And it came to pass, when Joseph was come unto his brethren, that they stript Joseph out of his coat, his coat of many [4] colours that was on him;

24 And they took him, and cast him into a pit: and the pit was empty, there was no water in it. 29

25 And they sat down to eat bread: and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and, behold, a company of [x] Ishmeelites came from Gilead with their camels bearing [a] spicery and [b] balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. 30

26 And Judah said unto his brethren, What profit is it if we slay our brother, and [d] conceal his blood? 31

27 Come, and let us sell him to the Ishmeelites, and [e] let not our hand be upon him; for he is our brother and [f] our flesh. And his brethren [2] were content.

28 Then there passed by [y] Midianites merchantmen; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, [z] and sold Joseph to the Ishmeelites for twenty [k] pieces of silver: and they brought Joseph into Egypt. 32

29 ¶ And Reuben returned unto the pit; and, behold, Joseph was not in the pit; [l] and he rent his clothes. 33

30 And he returned unto his brethren, and said, The child [m] is not; and I, whither shall I go?

31 And they took [n] Joseph's coat, and killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the coat in the blood; 34

32 And they sent the coat of many colours, and they brought it to their father; and said, This have we found: [p] know now whether it be thy son's coat or no. 35

33 And he knew it, and said, It is my son's coat; an [r] evil beast hath devoured him; Joseph is without doubt rent in pieces.

34 And Jacob [s] rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his loins, and mourned for his son many days.

35 And all his sons and all his daughters [t] rose up to comfort him; but he refused to be comforted; and he said, For [u] I will go down into the grave unto my son mourning. Thus his father wept for him.

"AT THAT TIME" This could not have been when Joseph was in Egypt for the following reason. Joseph was 6 when Jacob came into Canaan Gen 30:21 31:41. and 37 when he was sold into Egypt Gen 37:2,25 so when he stood before Pharaoh Gen 41:46 and 9 years later Jacob come into Egypt (7 years plenty + 2 famine) 41:43-45 45:6,11. At that time within 22 years Pharez had two sons which would not be possible if all the events of this chapter happened "at this time." The time must have been earlier though related here for a special reason. What reason? It is appropriate that in the midst of the history of the typical Christ (Joseph) the circumstances of the line of the real seed should be maintained. • The contrast between the story here and that of Joseph is striking. We pass for a moment out of an environment of faith, godliness + purity to one of lust and conspiracy. Judah must have been

CHAPTER 38.

1 Judah begetteth Er, Onan, and Shelah. 6 Er marrieth Tamar. 8 The trespass of Onan. 27 Tamar beareth Pharez and Zarah.

AND it came to pass at that time, [1] that Judah went down from his brethren, [2] and [c] turned in to a certain [7] Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. [8]

2 And Judah saw [5] there a daughter of a [6] certain Canaanite, whose name was [9] Shuah; and he took her, and went in unto her. (Lit: She) (See 1 CHR 2:3)

3 And she conceived, and bare a son; and he called his name Er. (Sig. Watchful.)

4 And she conceived again, and bare a son; and she called his name [h] Onan. (Strong. Str.)

5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a son; and called his name Shelah: [8] and he was at Chezib, [9] when she bare him.

6 And Judah [i] took a wife for Er his firstborn, whose name was Tamar. [10]

7 And Er // Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD; [m] and the LORD slew him.

8 And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto [11] thy brother's wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother. /2

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his; and it came to pass, when he went in unto his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, [8] lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did [n] displeased the LORD: wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, [q] Remain a widow at thy father's house, till Shelah my son be grown: for he said, Lest peradventure he die also, as his brethren did. And Tamar went and dwelt [b] in her father's house.

12 ¶ And [6] in process of time the daughter of Shuah Judah's wife died; and Judah [c] was comforted, and went up [13] unto his sheepshearers to [d] Timnath, he and his friend [8] Hirah the Adullamite. (Ceased to mourn.)

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold thy father in law goeth up to [d] Timnath to shear his sheep.

14 And she put her widow's garments off from [17] her, and covered her with a vail, and wrapped herself, and sat in [e] an open place, which is by the way to [d] Timnath; for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given unto him to wife. 19A

15 When Judah saw her, he thought her to be an harlot; because she had covered her face.

16 And he [f] turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee; (for he knew not that she was his daughter in law.) And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou mayest come in unto me?

17 And he said, I will send thee [7] a kid from the flock. And she said, Wilt thou give me a pledge, till thou send it?

18 And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, 20 Thy signet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thine hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose, and went away, and laid by [p] her vail from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Judah sent the kid by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the woman's hand: but he found her not.

"At that time" (Cont.) about 49 when Jacob settled in Egypt, and therefore about 15 when Er was born. Er must have been about 15 when he married Tamar. And about 2 years only could elapse till the birth of Judah's twin sons by Tamar. Nor could Pharez be more than 15 at the birth of his twin sons. The aggregate of these figures 15. 15. 2. 15 = 47. See Index under Jacob. 56

14 Ra-beayin - "evil in the sight of." Compound word "ayin" = Eye. So God saw what was hidden from others. Râ'a' = To break to pieces, good for nothing, bad. etc. This was particularly displeasing for it was a sin against the covenant and redemptive purpose of God, as well as being grossly insulting to Tamar.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS CHAPTER

It justifies the Divine Providence over the affairs of Jacob's family in their deportation to Egypt where its members were compelled to be separate Gen 46:34. It is obvious from the record of first Dinah & now Judah that the members of the family were exposed to the Canaanitish influence from which it had to be providentially protected, hence Yahweh - by manipulation of famine drew them into an area where separation was forced upon them. Gen 50:20. See above p.57.

15 This was deception. Judah evidently attributed the death of his sons to the influence of Tamar. Yet through these circumstances of Judah's deception, God was working his sovereign power to bring Christ into the world.

3 TAMAR'S STRATAGEM. Vv11-26

16 Sig. A portion of Judah's minor incidents of life are woven into a pattern to produce great results. In spite of all the evil of man's making God's purpose will prevail.

17 Tamar was evidently moved by the principles of the Covenant as to have children. In this way her desperate stratagem indicates her determination to be associated with the true seed

18 Jam. 4:14

19 She was anxious for the redemption of the promise & had not forgotten it as Jacob doubtless hoped

THIS CHAPTER is a proof of the impartiality of Inspiration. The facts, considered in themselves, reflect no credit on Judah, the royal tribe, but as they played a part in the birth of Messiah, so it was necessary to record them here. The narrative shows there was a code of laws then existing including that of Levirate marriage & the privileges of the firstborn, it also foreshadowed the folly of Judah the tribe, but also of the overriding purpose of Yahweh in the Law (Pharez) & redemption (Zarah).

JOSEPH IN PRISON
Ps. 105: 17-21.
Acts. 7:9

POTIPHAR'S WIFE
Seems typically to represent Israel (Yahweh's bride) in its relations to the Lord & Babylon the Great - the Jezebel of the Apocalypse in its relations to his brethren.

Of Pharez and Zarah. Joseph is advanced.

19 In v.15 she is called a zonah - one who sells for money. But here Kedeshah - A holy or consecrated person & thus a temple prostitute. This is indicative of the evil worship of the Canaanites - rife at the time.

21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, Where is the harlot, that was [2] openly by the way side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Judah, and said, I cannot find her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this place.

20 Both: "Thou must take it to her...." He was concerned as to whether he be held up to contempt - not in the act of which he was not ashamed but in the raillery of others who would mock him for being tricked out of his possessions by the harlot.

TAMAR'S VINDICATION. Vv24-26.

23 And Judah said, Let her take it to her, lest we [3] be shamed: behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.

24 ¶ And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter in law hath played the harlot; and also, behold, she is with child by whoredom. And Judah said, Bring her forth, and [e] let her be burnt.

21 This was the penalty of the wife of a priest Lev 21:9 and Tamar was the wife of Judah's firstborn v.6. Such a penalty was probably preceded by stoning.

25 When she was brought forth, she sent to her father in law, saying, By the man, whose these are, am I with child: and she said, [h] Discern, I pray thee, whose are these, [i] the signet, and bracelets, and staff.

26 And Judah [h] acknowledged them, and said, [k] She hath been more righteous than I; because that I gave her not to Shelah my son. And he knew her again no more.

22 She was probably married to have children that the promise to Abraham might be fulfilled in them — and their irrdead is what happened!

TAMAR'S TWINS. V27-30.

27 ¶ And it came to pass in the time of her travail, that, behold, [m] twins were in her womb.

28 And it came to pass, when she travailed, that the one put out his hand: and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a [o] scarlet thread, saying, This came out first.

29 And it came to pass, as he drew back his hand, that, behold, his brother came out: and she said, [4] How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name was called [5] Pharez.

30 And afterward came out his brother, that had the scarlet thread upon his hand: and his name was called [a] Zarah.

23 Suggestive of redemption through the firstborn Cp Josh 2:18. The "hand" of the first covenant appears, but the birth occurs later Rom. 11:28.

24 "What a breach thou hast made for thyself" & "Aleycha parets" - Thou shalt bear the name of the breach thou hast made." But for the breach that Pharez made, Zarah would have been born first. So it was with Judah under the Law.

25 Ruth 4:12. Mt. 1:3 Jesus was born of the flesh of Pharez, but spiritually he is Zarah with the promise of redemption - the Light of the world.

26 The account in Genesis does not record whether Shelah married Tamar, but Chronicles records that he had children the first of which he called Er thus suggesting he did raise up children to his brother 1 Chr. 4:21.

JOSEPH UNDER TEMPTATION. V. 8

"His character stands out as one of the purest in all history. He allowed no temptation to affect his high morality, no calamity to shake his implicit faith in God, no adversity to depress him, and no power or position to make him proud and haughty. In his father's house he had likely been pampered and petted, in slavery he was wantonly & falsely accused. In the palace as the ruler of what was then the greatest Kingdom on earth he was always the same truthful, pure, just, merciful, kind and God-fearing man." He saw a Divine providence even in his trials Ch 45:5. scorning all thoughts of revenge Ch 50:19-21.

POTIPHAR'S WIFE

Is as Jezebel of the Apocalypse: first a seducer of the multitudinous Christ Ch. 2:20, then their Accuser and bitter opponent Rev 12:15-17. 18:20. But Jezebel only repeated what Israel, Yahweh's bride, had first done. Thus the type doubles back.

4 AN INTERPRETER OF DREAMS vv. 5-23.

6 The remarkable circumstances of the two dreams is outlined to show that they were not coincidental but Divinely provided. Joseph instantly realizes this v 8. In Egypt as the monuments show dreams were regarded as extremely significant.

AUTHENTIC EGYPTIAN BACKGROUND 58

Egyptological discoveries confirm the authentic background of the record of Joseph. When Moses has occasion to mention the titles of Egyptian officials "he employs the correct title in use exactly as it was used at the period referred to, and, where there is no Hebrew equivalent, he simply adopts the Egyptian word and transliterates it into Hebrew" (Garrow Duncan: New Light on Hebrew Origins"). The titles of "chief of the butlers" and "chief of the bakers" are those of palace officials mentioned in Egyptian documents. When Potiphar made Joseph "overseer over his house" Gen 39:4, the title employed in the narrative is a direct translation of the official position in the houses of Egyptian nobility as found frequently in the inscriptions: MER-PA, MER ER PERI-T = superintendent of the household

JOSEPH DID NOT FORGET GOD IN HIS TRIALS. CH 39:9. 40:8

He must have frequently meditated upon the significance of the dreams he had received and pondered the promise that one day his brothers must bow before him. Cp Ps. 105:16-17. "The word of Yahweh tried him" — Ps. 105:19.

THE DREAMS : A savour of Christ — of life unto life and death unto death 2 Cor. 2:15-16.

them in the morning, and looked upon them, and, behold, they were sad.

6 Rotherham: "Why are your faces troubled today?" Sadly = RÂ' — Evil, afflicted.

7 And he asked Pharaoh's officers that were with him in the ward of his lord's house, saying, Wherefore look ye so sadly to day?

7 He lost no opportunity to speak about God.

8 And they said unto him, [a] We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, [c] Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you.

8 Not merely idle curiosity but a consciousness of his Divine calling as prophet.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me;

9 Cp John. 15:1.

10 And in the vine were three branches: and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes:

10 A symbol of resurrection

11 And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand: and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand.

11 A symbol of life devoted.

12 And Joseph said unto him, [k] This is the interpretation of it: The three branches [l] are three days:

13 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh [m] lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place: and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler. 1 Cor. 11:24

14 But [n] think on me when it shall be well with thee, and [o] shew kindness, I pray thee, unto me, and make mention of me unto Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house:

11A Mt. 25:40
11B Mt. 10:32.

15 For indeed I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews: [q] and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.

12 As a Hyksos this would gain the sympathy of Pharaoh. Lk 23:14 1 Pet 2:22

16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said unto Joseph, I also was in [p] my dream, and, behold, I had three [2] white baskets on my head:

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all manner of [3] bakemeats for Pharaoh; and the birds did eat them out of the basket upon my head.

18 And Joseph answered and said, [b] This is the interpretation thereof: The three baskets are three days:

19 [d] Yet within three days shall Pharaoh [5] lift up thy head from off thee, and shall hang thee on a tree; and the birds shall eat thy flesh from off thee.

20 ¶ And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaoh's [e] birthday, that he made a feast unto all his servants: and he [6] [f] lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he [g] restored the chief butler unto his butlership again; and [h] he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand:

22 But he [i] hanged the chief baker: as Joseph had interpreted to them.

23 Yet did not the chief butler remember Joseph, but forgat him. Ps. 31:12.

The wine speaks of a life dedicated; the white bread implies the leaven of wickedness. Though the butler derned the benefit of freedom in accordance with the interpretation of Joseph he forgot his own responsibilities towards him until it was again brought to his attention. There is constant need of remembrance of our responsibilities to Christ.

THE COW WORSHIPPED IN EGYPT.

The cow-goddess Hathor was given prominent worship in Egypt. A statue survives of King Amenhotep II standing beneath the protecting head of the cow-goddess Hathor. According to one belief the sun as a god was a calf born each day to Hathor, the cow-goddess. Thus the kine could very well be identified with Egypt.

SEVEN COWS

"According to Diod. Sic. I. 51, the male ox is the symbol of the Nile, " sacred to Osiris, the inventor of agriculture ... The Osiris-sheer often appears accompanied by seven cows, e.g. on the vignettes of the old "new Book of the Dead." - Gaudefroy cited by Driver.

PHARAOH'S DREAM.

The Kine represented the nation dependent upon the river – the ears of corn represented the availability of food, upon which the nation was dependent.

THE FAMINE SHALL BE GRIEVOUS. V31.

"An inscription on a rock on the island of Sahal in the First Cataract tells of a seven year famine which took place in the reign of Pharaoh Djoser (the builder of the famed Step Pyramid) who reigned about 1000 years before Joseph. It reads: "I was in distress on the Great Throne, & those who are in the palace were in affliction of heart because of a very great evil, for in my time the Nile has not overflowed for seven years. There was scarcely any grain; fruits were dried up; & everything which they eat was short. Every man robbed his neighbor. The men who want to walk cannot move, the child wails, the young man drags his body about, & the hearts of the older men are crushed with despair. Their legs give way under them, they sink down on the ground, & they clutch their bodies with their hands (in pain). Their nobles have no counsel to give, & there is nothing to be obtained from the storehouses but wind. Everything is in a state of ruin" (amended – W. Budge).

Thus the Pharaoh of Joseph's day realised what the dread news of famine portended.

JOSEPH: THE RULER

The word for "Governor" is from a root indicating despotic authority. It is similar in form to the name of the first Hyksos, or shepherd Kings of Egypt, according to Josephus (Against Apion 1:14). His name was Salatis. This could have been amended to shalliyt - to become the title of one wielding absolute power

Joseph did not dispense the corn Gp V. 25 He supervised the sale of it V. 6 probably adjusting the price, regulating the amount to be sold each person, + keeping an eye on those who come to buy.

your youngest brother come hither.

16 Send one of you, and let him fetch your brother, and ye shall be (2)kept in prison, that your words may be proved, whether there be any truth in you: or else by the life of Pharaoh surely ye are spies.

17 And he (3)put them all together into ward three days.

18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; [c] for I fear God:

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the house of your prison: go ye, carry corn for the famine of your houses:

20 But [d] bring your youngest brother unto me; so shall your words be verified, and ye shall not die. And they did so.

21 ¶ And they said one to another, [e] We are verily guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the anguish of his soul, when he besought us, and we would not hear; therefore is this distress come upon us.

22 And Reuben answered them, saying, [f] Spake I not unto you, saying, Do not sin against the child; and ye would not hear? therefore, behold, also his blood is required.

23 And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for he spake unto them by (4)an interpreter.

24 And he turned himself about from them, and wept; and returned to them again, and communed with them, and took from them Simeon, and bound him before their eyes.

25 ¶ Then Joseph commanded to fill their sacks with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way: and thus did he unto them.

26 And they laded their asses with the corn, and departed thence.

27 And as [a] one of them opened his sack to give his ass provender [b] in the inn, he espied his money; for, behold, it was in his sack's mouth.

28 And he said unto his brethren, My money is restored; and, lo, it is even in my sack: and their heart (4)failed them, and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this that God hath done unto us?

29 ¶ And they came unto Jacob their father unto the land of Canaan, and told him all that befell unto them; saying,

30 The man, who is the lord of the land, spake (5)roughly to us, and took us for spies of the country.

31 And we said unto him, We are true men; we are no spies:

32 We be twelve brethren, sons of our father; one [f] is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

33 And the man, the lord of the country, said unto us, [g] Hereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take (4)food for the famine of your households, and be gone:

34 And bring your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that ye are no spies, but that ye are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall [m] traffick in the land.

35 ¶ And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that, behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

36 And Jacob their father said unto them, Me have ye [n] bereaved of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are against me.

It is mentioned seven times that he wept:
- As he reflected upon the ways of Providence & the pitiful condition of his brethren Gen 42:24.
- In his great love for his brother Benjamin 43:30.
- In his joy at reunion with his brethren 45:2.
- In revealing himself to Benjamin 45:14.
- On meeting his father 46:29.
- On the death of his father Ch 50:1.
- At the request of his brethren Ch 50:17.

Joseph refuses to receive the brethren until he has first honored his closer brother - as Christ will likewise before he has first honored the saints.

28 The flesh spake uttering a vain boast. Reuben's sense of need & eagerness to persuade his father outran his prudence. How could the death of grandchildren compensate for the loss of a son!!

29 As is often the case, Jacob's assessment of the circumstances was based upon a complete misunderstanding of the facts.

37 And Reuben[28] spake unto his father, saying, Slay [a]my two sons, if I bring him not to thee: deliver him into my hand, and I will bring him to thee again.

38 And he said, My son shall not go down with you; for his [c]brother is dead,[29] and he is left alone: if [d]mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye [e]bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave. ~ sheol. Gn Ch 37:35.

3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man [3]did solemnly protest unto us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your [k]brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food:

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

THE FRUIT OF THE LAND.

That Jacob should send such a gift appears inconsistent with the record of famine. But the failure of cereal crops does not necessarily mean a failure of fruit. Moreover the fact that Jacob sent such a gift does not necessarily imply that they were available in their abundance.

"It is hardly accidental that the number five occurs so often in reference to matters Egyptian" (41:34; 45:22; 47:2, 24; Isa 19:18). - J. Skinner. It speaks of grace - redemption. Grace was shown towards Egypt in famine. A special grace towards Benjamin in food and clothing because of his closer relationship to Joseph - typical of the Ecclesia in its relationship to Christ.

steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Wherefore have ye rewarded evil for good?

5 Is not this it in which my lord drinketh, and whereby indeed he divineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 ¶ And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Wherefore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing:

8 Behold, [d] the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lord's house silver or gold?

9 With whomsoever of thy servants it be found, [e] both let him die, and we also will be my lord's bondmen.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant; and ye shall be blameless.

17 And he said, God forbid that I should do so: but the man in whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant; and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

18 ¶ Then Judah came near unto him, and said, Oh my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and [c] let not thine anger burn against thy servant: for thou art even as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we said unto my lord, We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother, and his father loveth him.

1 Joseph maketh himself known to his brethren. 5 He comforteth them, 9 and sendeth for his father. 27 Jacob's spirit reviveth.

THEN Joseph could not [l] refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, Cause every man to go out from me. [2] And there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.
2 And he [6] wept aloud: and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.
3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, [a] I am Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him; for they were [2] troubled at his presence.
4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, [5] whom ye sold into Egypt.
5 Now therefore be not grieved, [3] nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: [d] for God did send me before you to preserve life.
6 For these two years hath the famine been in the land: and yet there are five years, in the which there shall neither be [g] earing nor harvest.
7 And [4] God sent me before you [4] to preserve you a posterity in the earth, and to save your lives by a great deliverance.
8 So now it was not you that sent me hither, but God: [6] and he hath made me a [i] father to Pharaoh, [7] and lord of all his house, and a [i] ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.
9 Haste ye, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith thy son Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me, tarry not:
10 And [k] thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, [8] and thou shalt be near unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy children's children, and thy flocks, and thy herds, and all that thou hast: [9]
11 And there will I nourish thee; for yet there are five years of famine; lest thou, and thy household, [10] and all that thou hast, [m] come to poverty.
12 And, behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh unto you.
13 And ye shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen; [12] and 14 The change in Judah is profound. He is prepared to sacrifice himself rather than jeopardise the life of his father. He was willing, under the circumstances, to renounce his own liberty on behalf of one whom he knew Jacob preferred before himself rather than see his father die of a broken heart. Joseph had come evidence of change of heart.

"COME NEAR TO ME" v.4

Joseph's gracious invitation anticipates that of Christ. Mt 11:28. Eph 2:13. which doubtless will be offered to Israel in the future.

In the case of Joseph, his brothers had evidently withdrawn in fear, indeed by the strange behavior of Egypt's second ruler who burst into tears and made the preposterous claim that he were Joseph!

Previously he had spoken to them through an interpreter probably, but now he was dismissed and Joseph revealed his true identity.

ye shall haste and [a] bring down my father hither.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and [23] wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren talked with him.

16 ¶ And the fame [25] thereof was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come: and it [3] pleased Pharaoh well, and his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye; lade your beasts, and go, get you unto the land of Canaan;

18 And take your father and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat [d] the fat of the land.

19 Now thou art commanded, [27] this do ye; take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also [e] regard not your stuff; [27] for the good of all the land of Egypt is your's.

21 And the children of Israel did so: and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the [5] commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he [x] gave each man [k] changes of raiment; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and [29] five changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner; ten asses [6] laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she asses [6] laden with corn and bread and [p] meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed: and he said unto them, See that ye [b] fall not out by the way.

25 ¶ And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father,

26 And told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And [2] Jacob's heart fainted, for he believed them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw [c] the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived:

28 And Israel said, It is enough; Joseph my son is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

69 THE MIGRATION TO EGYPT Vv. 26-27

- The descendants of Jacob recorded between Vv 8-25 = 70. Cp V 8. with V 27.
- This, however, includes Er and Onan Ephraim and Manasseh which being excluded = 66 V 26. 66 went from Canaan to Egypt.
- Stephen states that 75 came with Jacob Acts 7:14. Judah's wife, Shuah, was dead Gen 38:12. Rachel and Leah were dead Gen 35:20. 49:31. Joseph was already in Egypt making 65 who went into Egypt "besides Jacob's sons' wives" V 26. This allows for 10 wives excluding those of Judah and Joseph.

Becher). This addition probably from Num 26:28-41 / 1 Chron 7:14-20. (Stephen a Jew Hellenist, used LXX). These additions make 75.

ZARAH V. 12
He had 5 sons. 1 Chron 2:6, but they were evidently born after the descent into Egypt.

THE MIGRATION TO EGYPT.
- The descendants of Jacob (or "souls" - for Jacob is included V. 8) are totalled as:
- Leah 33 V 15 - but with Er and Onan there are 34 mentioned, but omitting them and including Jacob, there are 33
- Zilpah V. 18 . . . . . 16.
- Rachel V. 22. (14) - but excluding Joseph (in Egypt), Ephraim & Manasseh 11
- Bilhah V. 25 7
- Excluding Jacob = 66 V. 26. 67
- Including Joseph, Ephraim, Manasseh V 27 3
70.

Gen. 46:20 LXX adds: "There were born unto Manasseh and Ephraim, whom his concubine the Aramitess bare him, Machir: & Machir begot Gilead. And the sons of Ephraim, the brother of Manasseh, were Shuthelah, Taezer: & the sons of Shuthelah Edem [illegible] Bered or

"EVERY SHEPHERD IS AN ABOMINATION" Prior to 1700 BC the Hyksos (Shepherd-sos, King-hyk) (or "rulers of foreign lands") established themselves in Egypt, and were evidently in power at the time of Joseph, so that to a true Egyptian "every shepherd is an abomination." V.34. The Hyksos were a Semitic race, the centre of their power was in the eastern Delta. They were finally ejected by the Egyptians when the latter regained their power. Cp. Exod. 1:8.
The Hyksos were the first to introduce the horse & chariot to Egypt. Cp Gen. 41:43.
The Plain of Tanis, called "the field of Zoan" Ps 78:12 was the (first) capital of Egypt. The Hyksos were ejected approx. 1550 (Ungar).

Pharaoh, and say unto him, My brethren, and my father's house, which were in the land of Canaan, are come unto me;

32 And the men are shepherds, for (2)their trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.

33 And it shall come to pass, when Pharaoh shall call you, and shall say, [d]What is your occupation?

34 That ye shall say, Thy servants' [e]trade hath been about cattle [f]from our youth even until now, both we, and also our fathers: that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is [h]an abomination unto the Egyptians. 63

5 As directed 46:34.

6 An unconscious vindication of the prophecy of Gen 15:13. This ever borne in remembrance Deut. 26:5. Moreover, it was a tactful statement that they had not arrived to take up permanent residence in Egypt.
7. Only dire necessity had motivated them to move to Egypt.

CHAPTER 47.

1 Joseph presenteth five of his brethren, 7 and his father, before Pharaoh. 11 He giveth them habitation and maintenance. 13 He getteth all the Egyptians' property to Pharaoh. 22 The priests' land not bought. 28 Jacob's age.

THEN Joseph [l]came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and, behold, they are in [n]the land of Goshen. 1 1Thes 2:5

2 And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, [r]What is your occupation? 5 And they said unto Pharaoh, [s]Thy servants are shepherds, both we, and also our fathers. 1Pet 5:2-4

4 They said moreover unto Pharaoh, [t]For to [6]sojourn in the land are we come; for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks; for the famine is sore in the [7]land of Canaan: now therefore, we pray thee, let thy servants (8)dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come unto thee:

6 [a]The land of Egypt is before thee; [b]in the best of the land make thy father and brethren to dwell; [c]in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou knowest any men of activity among them, then make them rulers over my cattle. 3

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh: and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. 5

8 And Pharaoh said unto Jacob, (9)How old art thou?

9 And Jacob said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my (9)pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and [i]have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

10 And Jacob [k]blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh. Eze 47:13-48:35

11 ¶ And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of [m]Rameses, [o]as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, (12)according to their families.

13 ¶ And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine. Dan 2:1; Amos 8:11-14

14 [u]And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house. Hag. 2:8-9, Isa 60:5

JACOB'S AGE. V 20

See opp. p. 17. This was exactly half way from 430 years of sojourn among oppressors. Exod. 12:41 Gal. 3:17. They were evil years in that they were years of adversity & affliction

If Jacob married immediately on arrival at Haran, as seems most likely, this would make Reuben about 71, Simeon about 70, Levi perhaps 69, Judah 68, Dan 66, Naphtali 65, Gad 66, Asher 63, Issachar 63, Zebulun 61, Dinah over 40 Joseph 39, and Benjamin a little over 30.

JOSEPH. The crucial test of Joseph's character now arrived. For the Viceroy of Egypt to acknowledge these foreign supplicants as his brethren, men who had given him every reason for him to repudiate them, called for the highest loyalty & devotion. It will be manifested by the Lord who in the days of his flesh wept over Jerusalem & lamented the hard-hearted state of the people.

Sig Approaching a. The north-eastern section of the Egyptian Delta is usually identified as Goshen. It constituted the "approaches" of Egypt to those arriving from Canaan. It was a very fertile section of the land, excellent for grazing & certain type of agriculture, extending some 30 to 40 miles in length, between Lake Timsa and the Nile.

8 This was the wise course both for the preservation of the people & the cattle. As the people had no grain for their own sustenance they had none for their cattle. Further-ed by Joseph, they were available when the famine ceased.

The famine increaseth.

tians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for [a] why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth. -Lk 16:8-9

16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

9 In view of famine they would not have been of great value.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses: and he [2] fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year.

10 NAHAL - To run with a sparkle, to flow. Hence to conduct, protect, sustain. Joseph confidently fed them. See. Ps 23:2. Isa. 40:11.

18 When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands:

11 After the money spent, not after the commencement of famine Cp V. 23.

19 Wherefore shall we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh: and give us seed, that we may live, and not die, that the land be not desolate. PSA 24:1

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities [12] from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof.

12 They could be more efficiently supplied with food. Gen. 41:35

9 THE PRIESTS' LAND EXEMPT Vv 22-26.

22 [m] Only the land [13] of the priests bought he not; for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands.

13 This will also be the case with the royal priesthood of the Age to come. Note also the Persian decree Ezra. 7:24 Cp Rev 5:10

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is [14] seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.

14 This indicates that it was the last year of famine. The populations of the future will be required to bring forth fruit to Yahweh.

24 And it shall come to pass

Money - the price of redemption - silver

Cattle & Livestock - Activity - the means of livelihood.

Lands & Persons - Inheritance and very being.

"The power of the King of Egypt at that time was absolute, & right of conquest made him the owner of the whole country & master of every living being in it, & the religious directors of the people were his servants. But sooner or later every King of Egypt has found it expedient to be on good terms with the ancient priesthoods of the country; & the early dynastic Kings obtained the support of the priesthood of Nekhen in Upper Egypt & of the priesthood of Per-Uat-chit in the Delta." THE GOD OF JACOB. GEN. 48:16 See NOTE Top p. 1122

He is described as El Shaddai Gen 28:3; 48:3; El Bethel Gen. 31:13; El Gen. 35:3 manifested in Elohim Gen 35:7.; the Mighty One of Jacob Gen. 49:24

The Mighty One - Abiyr (rendered "angels" Ps. 78:25) from a root Abar, to be strong, to soar. rendered "fly" Job 39:26. Eber wings, or pinions - providing strength to soar is derived from the same root. Cp Isa. 40:31. Ps 55:6. Ezek. 17:3.

The title suggests the Lofty One whose strength is sufficient for every need. Like the soaring eagle whose keen vision takes in the panoramic view beneath, so Abiyr is able to see the end from the beginning and because of His might is able to provide for all needs.

Reference to this title is found in:
Psalm 132:2, 5. The Temple in Jerusalem, doubtless because worshippers would be pilgrims like Jacob. Future Isa. 2:3 Mic. 4:2.
Isaiah 49:26; 60:16. where the title is linked with those of Savior + Redeemer.
Isaiah 1:24. where instead of Jacob the reference is to Israel. The context refers to the nation as purged and its enemies subdued.

The God of Jacob

Every reference is in a context which speaks of His overshadowing care in trouble • Ps. 20:1 "The name of the God of Jacob defend thee." • Ps 46:7. "our refuge." • Ps. 59:13. Enemies overthrown reveals "God ruleth in Jacob" • Ps. 94:7. - will avenge • Ps. 114:7 "Tremble O earth at the presence" • Psm. 146:5 "Happy is he that hath Him for help." (El of Jacob). Cp also. Ps. 75:9-10.

The Holy One of Jacob

Sanctified when the increase of children seen Isa. 29:23.

The God of Jacob who appeared at Bethel is He Who Knows the weakness of humanity but proclaims His promise to be with those who trust Him during all the days of their trial during which they may be the victims of the evil thoughts of their fellows as Jacob was that of Laban, or may find themselves in fear of such as Esau. The God of Jacob is He who will bring the heirs of the promise to the land covenanted, with life preserved through unending days. Thus: "Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness" after the dross has been purged away Isa 1:26-27.

"God revived the promise ever which he (Jacob) had brooded for (nearly) 60 years since he learned it in childhood from his mother (cr Angels conversed with him. Gradually he felt more and more the watchful care of an ever-present spiritual father. Face to face he wrestled with a representative of the Almighty. And so even though the [redacted] moral consequences of his early transgressions hung about him, + saddened [redacted] him with a deep knowledge of all the evil of treachery, + domestic envy, + partial judgment, + filial disobedience, yet the increasing revelations of God enlightened the old age of the patriarch; + at last the timid "supplanter," the man of subtle devices, waiting for the salvation of Yahweh, dies the "soldier of God," uttering the messages of God to his remote posterity." ISRAEL'S FUNERAL PROCESSION.

There are six specific groups mentioned (the number of man), and comprising all sections of the community.

1. The servants of Pharaoh. 2. The elders of his house — perhaps religious leaders. 3. The elders of the land - perhaps princes of the realm. 4. All the house of Joseph. 5. His brethren. 6. His father's house. Joseph, himself, makes up the seven - comprising the covenant number.

The procession came to Goren Atad - the threshing floor where a discrimination was made between the wheat + the chaff. The Egyptians mourned greatly - the Israelites were more restrained. 1 Thes. 4:13. From here Jacob's sons carried him to Hebron. A great company of all classes came out of Egypt but Goren Atad separated

REDEEMED GOEL: To redeem, buy back. Followed by DÂM, blood - to require blood.

Since both the right of redemption + the office of avenging bloodshed belonged to the next of Kin, Goel denotes 'near of kin," "near relative" Num. 5:8; Lev. 25:25; Ruth 3:12. or with the article Hagoel, the nearest Kinsman Ruth 4:1, 6, 8.

Since by the Law of Moses it was the office of the next of Kin, when a man died without children, to marry his widow, the verb GÂAL is also transferred to this office + right of a relation. In Ruth 3:13 it is used as a denominative of GÂ'AL rendered in RV: "part of a Kinsman" but more expressive as "marry thee by right of relationship."

GÂ'AL is also rendered "polluted" Ezra 2:62; Neh. 7:64; Mal. 1:7, 12. Stain Isa 63:3. - hence to be stained or polluted, until a Kinsman's blood has been avenged, or that which is to be restored is redeemed. Until that is done, the GÂ'AL is considered as stained or polluted.

EGYPTIAN PHYSICIANS. GEN. 50:2.

RÂPHÂIM. Though medicine was the prerogative of the priesthood, the Edwin Smith Surgical Papyrus (1550 B.C.) named after the Egyptologist who found it, reveals that doctors in Egypt practised real medicine even by modern definition. The papyrus takes up 48 cases of injury — wounds, fractures, dislocations — in a systematic order, starting from the head + working downwards: 10 cases of injury to the brain, 4 to the nose + so on to the spinal column. In each case the condition is carefully described, + the descriptions make abundantly clear than an examination by an Egyptian doctor was a thorough business. It included interrogation, inspection, functional tests, and a diagnosis with one of three conclusions: favorable to treatment, uncertain, unfavorable.

The Ebers Medical Papyrus is also impressive. It provides teaching for general practitioners. It has a section on the heart + its vessels, which is considered a most interesting essay on speculative medical philosophy; + another on pharmacy. One of its remedies is a prescription for castor oil as a laxative. (from Ancient Egypt). Herodotus states (2.84) that Egyptian physicians were specialists devoted to certain disorders. Egyptian medicine, however was closely related to Egyptian mythology, being in the hands of the priesthood. Cf Exod. 15:26 Herodotus claims they were world renowned Cp. 2 Chron. 16:12

HIS BORDER SHALL BE UNTO ZIDON. V.13

This is the only place where yerêkâh has been rendered "border." The word signifies the side or rear. Roth. renders: "With his utmost part upon Zidon."

Why?

Zidon = Tsuwd, "to lie in wait" "to ensnare," and from thence - a fishery.

The Zidonians were among the original inhabitants of Canaan whom the Israelites failed to drive out Jud. 1:31 and they became a thorn to Israel Jud. 10:12.

Jezebel, daughter of Ethbaal, was a Zidonian 1 Kg 16:31 and tried to ensnare Israel with her false worship. Cp Rev. 2:20-21.

Canaanites will not dwell in the house of Yahweh Zech. 14:21 so that those who dwell in the land will have their faces averted from them.

Zebulun's name signifies that the husband will dwell with the wife Gen. 30:20.

POPULATION EXPLOSION

An exception increase of population was promised. Gen. 17:6; 26:4; 28:14; 35:11; 46:3;

Development Gen. 47:27; Exod. 1:7, 12 Deut. 10:22; 26:5.

T.R. Birks in "The Exodus of Israel" claims that "the yearly increase in the scripture narrative, lies almost exactly midway between two opposing limits, the rate under ordinary circumstances, & the extreme rate compatible with the usual laws of birth, marriage & natural fecundity."

"Assume an average of 6 sons, the age of the father varying from 25 to 35 years. Six descents would thus range from 150 to 210 years. Would be 6 compound additions of 51 = 2,379,456. The interval for those who were 20 years old one year after the Exodus, will be 196 years from the Descent, or more than 200 from the birth of the grandsons. We have thus to deduct from the above the births in the last 10 years which would be about 51 X 210 = 10710. Thus, at the above rate, there would be a population of 2,369,000 males above twenty in the sixth descent alone."

In view of the promise of great fecundity Cp Ps. 127:3-5. the increase to 600,000 males within 210 years is not impossible. In addition, Israel went "with their households" some of whom might well be adopted into the tribes Exod. 1:1.

GEN. 49:4. "Unstable as Water" PACHAZ - frothing (fig. lusting). The root PÂCHAZ = to bubble over, or froth as boiling water. "Boiling over like water" d. Suggesting the boiling over of unrestrained lust driven on by flesh weakness. Excell - YÂTHAR - to jut out or exceed excel, have preeminence.

- To establish universal rule Zech. 14:9; Dan. 2:44; 7:27; Rev. 11:15; Isa. 60:12.
- To establish righteousness. Isa. 2:2-4; 61: 11; Zech. 14:16.

THE PORTION OF LAND

GEN. 48:22

Achad Shechem = one Shechem, or one ~~the~~ Ridge - perhaps a reference to the lower slopes of Gerizim upon which was situated Shechem. Jacob "bought" a parcel of a field there, for it was a most significant part of the land to the patriarchs. There Abram was given the promise in the land & there he built his first altar therein Gen. 12:6-7. For that purpose he purchased a piece of land Acts 7:16. When Jacob arrived there, he "bought a parcel of a field" Gen. 33:19. The verb "bought" is from QANAH and signifies, according to Gesenius, to acquire by purchase or redemption. The word is rendered "recover" Isa. 11:11; "redeem" Neh. 5:8. It can therefor relate to the repossession of something. Jacob redeemed it by the purchase of "tombs" but, apparently he also defended it by warfare. The circumstances are not revealed but may have been subsequent to the slaughter of the Shechemites by Simeon & Levi. Jacob may well have been threatened with an attack at that time, ~~whereby~~ at which he manifested his intention to defend it causing the Canaanites to withdraw Cp Gen. 35:5.

Subsequently Joseph, Josh. 24:32 and his brethren Acts 7:16 were buried there. But in the future Joseph will be raised from the dead to enter his inheritance.

GEN. 49:6 "mine honour" The same word KÂBOD is elsewhere rendered "glory" & is so rendered in this place by RV. It is sometimes so used to describe speech. Cp Ps. 16:9; 57:8 108:2 or the tongue by which a man can glorify God.

"A wall" The only difference in Hebrew between "wall" and "ox" are the vowel points. "Wall" is SHUWR and ox is SHOWR. They are from a common root - SHUWR - To travel about. Ox signifies traveller, and a wall goes about a city.

"Anger" and "wrath" - The first is APH prop. the nose, and signifies "anger" because of rapid breathing through passion. "Wrath" is EBRÂHÂH out bursts or outpourings of passion indicating the fulness and intensity of the tide of fury.

"Cruel" QÂSHÂH - To be dense i.e. tough or severe, obstinate.

GEN. 49:9. "Lioness" The lioness is particularly fierce in defending its cubs.

GEN 49:10 "Lawgiver" Isa. 42:4. Deut. 18:18-19; Ps. 60:7. His seed. Isa 53:10. Cp Jer. 3:15. Heb 2:10

Israel, as the priestly nation in Kingdom, burdened with Jew & Gentile. LXX: "Issachar has desired that which is good, resting between the inheritances. And having seen the resting place that it was good, & the land that it was fertile, he subjected his shoulder to labour, & became a husbandman."

"Burdens" - MISHPÂTHAIM - Strong Str. "sheepfolds" - RV. A redeemed ass. Exod. 13:13. at ease among the sheepfolds. Jhn. 10:16.

GEN. 49:15. "Rest" MENUCHAH - Resting place, safe shelter, a husband's house. Ruth. 3:1. Cp Isa. 62:4.

"Bowed his shoulder to bear" - Submitted to the discipline of the yoke or bridle Prov. 26:3. The ass is sure-footed & able to manage on the most frugal diet. It was used to bearing heavy loads. The word for "saddling" is CHABASH - "to bind up" or "gird." Cp Luke 13:35.

"Servant unto tribute" - The phrase is used of tribute rendered by labour 1 Kg 9:21. 2 Chr. 8:8. The LXX above saw in the Hebrew an allusion to agricultural pursuits or husbandry. Cp Zech. 11:5. 2 Tim. 2:6. Mt. 21:33-41.

GENESIS 49.

21 And Israel said unto Joseph, Behold, I die: but [b] God shall be with you, and bring you again unto the land of your fathers. — Gen. 46:4, 50:25.

22 Moreover I have given to thee [27] one [28] portion above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow. (A general name for Canaanite. Gen. 15:16)

CHAPTER 49.

1 Jacob calleth his sons together. 3 He denounceth Reuben, 5 Simeon, and Levi. 8 He blesseth Judah, Zebulun, &c. 29 He chargeth them concerning his burial. 33 He dieth.

AND Jacob called unto his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which shall befall you [m] in the last days.

2 Gather yourselves together, and hear, ye sons of Jacob; and hearken unto Israel your father.

NATURAL SEED DEPOSED

3 ¶ Reuben, thou art [p] my firstborn, my might, [q] and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of [r] dignity, and the excellency of power:

4 Unstable [1] as water, [2] thou shalt not excel; because thou [s] wentest up to thy father's bed; then defiledst thou it: [3] he went up to my couch.

5 ¶ [t] Simeon and Levi are brethren; [u] instruments of cruelty are in their habitations.

6 O my soul, come not thou into [a] their [4] secret; unto their assembly, [b] mine honour, be not thou united: for in their anger they slew a man, and in their selfwill they [5] digged down a wall.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce; and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will [c] divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

8 ¶ Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall [v] praise: thy hand shall be in [w] the neck of thine enemies; [x] thy father's children shall bow down before thee.

9 Judah is [6] a lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: [y] he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up?

10 [z] The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor [a] a lawgiver from between his feet, until [b] Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

11 Binding his foal unto the vine, and his ass's colt unto the choice vine, he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes:

12 His [d] eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

13 ¶ Zebulun shall dwell at the [e] haven of the sea; and he shall be for an haven of ships; and his border shall be unto Zidon.

14 ¶ Issachar is a strong ass couching down between [7] two burdens:

15 And he saw that rest was good, and the land that it was pleasant; and bowed [8] his shoulder to bear, and became a servant [9] unto tribute.

16 ¶ Dan shall [c] judge his people, as [d] one of the tribes of Israel.

17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way, [e] an adder in the path, that biteth the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.

18 I [f] have waited for thy salvation, O LORD.

19 ¶ Gad, [g] a troop shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the last.

20 ¶ Out of Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall yield royal dainties.

21 ¶ Naphtali is a hind let loose: he giveth goodly words.

22 ¶ Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well; whose [10] branches [11] run over the wall:

1 The mourning for Jacob. 7 His burial. 19 Joseph comforteth his brethren. 22 His age, 26 and death.

1 AND Joseph [k] fell upon his father's face, and wept upon him, and kissed him.
2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians [l] to embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Israel.
3 And forty days were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled the days of those which are embalmed: and the Egyptians [2] mourned for him [o] threescore and ten days.
4 And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, [q] If now I have found grace in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,
5 My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave [s] which I have digged for me in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.
6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.
7 ¶ And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,
8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left [b] in the land of Goshen.
9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen:

DEATH OF JACOB. VV 28-33

51 Rean had died before Joseph came in Egypt

POPULATION EXPLOSION

Cont. from p. 75. The statement of Exod. 1:1 suggests that more than 70 came into Egypt, for the "households" would include those acquired on Jacob's travels, such as the remnant of Shechem Gen. 34:29. Abraham's household amounted to 318 males Gen. 14:14, some of whom may have migrated to Egypt & could have been adopted into one or other of the tribes when officially incorporated. See opp. p. 73.

JOSEPH'S FAMILY AFFECTION V. 1.

This meant more to him than all the glory of Egypt. His dignity and greatness did not prevent him paying tribute to his father and openly manifesting his emotion.

THE EMBALMING.

The Egyptians removed the brain & viscera, and then by a concoction of spices & by mummification preserved the body f in order that the KA or ghostly double of the man might return to take possession of the body, & that

7 THE LAST DAYS OF JOSEPH VV 1-26.

1 MOURNING FOR JACOB VV 1-6

1 He doubtless closed the eyes of his beloved father, as God had promised. Gen. 46:4.
2 See opp. p. 72. The physicians were Joseph's servants, perhaps taught in principles of truth. see below.
3 CHANAT – To spice. Joseph approached Pharaoh through others probably because of the circumstances Cp. Est. 4:2. Being in mourning he felt it not becoming to enter the presence of Pharaoh particularly as he would have been unshaven. Cp. 41:14.
5 He evidently had prepared the niche that he would occupy in the Cave of Machpelah. E.I. p. 278.

2 BURIAL OF JACOB. VV 7-13

5A This burial procession comprised a witness to Israel's hope of resurrection. See opp. p. 72.
6 Funeral processions are commonly depicted on the monuments but never with horses. The exceptional character of this procession – and burial in a far-away land would account for that. Also afforded protection.

It might be ready for resurrection. The process took over 30 days according to Diodorus (1.91) Today according to Herodotus (2:86-88).

That of Jacob & Joseph was merely an expedient for preserving the body until burial could take place. It endorsed the Hebrew belief in the resurrection without endorsing the Egyptian superstition of the soul.

and it was a very great company. GOREN ATAD

10 And they came to the threshingfloor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven days.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called [2] Abel-mizraim, which is beyond Jordan.

12 And his sons did unto him according as he commanded them:

13 For [c] his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham [f] bought with the field for a possession of a buryingplace of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 ¶ And Joseph returned into Egypt, he, and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 ¶ And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will peradventure [i] hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they [g] sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying,

17 So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sin; for they did unto thee evil: and now, we pray thee, forgive the trespass of the servants of [a] the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him.

18 And his brethren also went and fell down before his face; and they said, Behold, we be thy servants.

19 And Joseph said unto them, Fear not: [b] for am I in the place of God?

20 But as for you, ye thought evil against me; [3] but [c] God meant it unto good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save much people alive.

21 Now therefore fear ye not: [d] I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake [4] kindly unto them.

22 ¶ And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his father's house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third generation: [5] the children also of Machir the son of Manasseh were [6] brought up upon Joseph's knees.

24 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and [h] God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land unto the land [k] which he sware to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

25 And [l] Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence.

26 So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they [m] embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

ISRAEL IN EGYPT

Population Explosion – see bottom p. 74.

To increase from 70 people to approx 2,000,000 (say 300 families) in 215 requires the population to double itself from the 70 who went down, every 15 years, under prosperous conditions. Cp Exod. 1:7. This is far from an improbability. India today, under adverse conditions almost does so. To increase from 2 to 70 in the first 215 years necessitated doubling the population every 25 years in spite of the small families of Abraham and Isaac.

The Pharaoh of the Exodus?

Amenhotep (1450-1420 B.C.), or Merneptah (1235-1220 B.C.).

● If Amenhotep – then Thotmes III (1500) was the oppressor. Queen Hatshepsut (his half sister was regent 20 yrs., & though he despised her, she completly dominated him. After her death he ruled alone for 30 yrs. He was the greatest conqueror in Egyptian history. Subdued Ethiopia & ruled to the Euphrates, the first great Empire in history. Raided Palestine & Syria 17 times. Built a navy. Accumulated great wealth, engaged in vast building enterprises. His Mummy is at Cairo. If the oppressor, Queen Hatshepsut was "Pharaoh's daughter."

● If Merneptah – then Rameses II was the oppressor. 1300 – one of the greatest of the Pharaohs. A great builder, advertiser (something of a plagiarist – took credit sometimes for accomplishments of his predecessors). Re-established the Empire from Ethiopia to Euphrates. Raided & pillaged Palestine repeatedly. Completed many vast undertakings, fortifications, temples, canals with slave labor. He married his own daughter.

In 1883, Naville identified the site of Pithom. Exod. 1:11. On the gateway he found an inscription of Rameses II: "[built] by [the] Pithom at the mouth of the east." In 1905 Petrie discovered Rameses. On a stele discovered by Fisher at Beth-shan in Palestine, Rameses claims that he "built Pithom with Asiatic Semitic (Hebrew) slaves."

Some scholars claim however that all he did was to re-build or repair that which his predecessor had established before him with Hebrews who did not go out with him. Thus the Pharaoh of the oppression was Thotmes.

● The Stele of Merneptah: This is the one contemporary allusion to Israel in the Egyptian Monuments. A portion of it reads: Plundered is Canaan with every evil. Ascalon is carried into Captivity. Gezer is taken. Yenoam is annihilated. Israel is desolated, her seed is not. Palestine is become a widow for Egypt. All lands are united, they are pacified. Everyone who is turbulent has been bound by King Merneptah.

"His seed is not" – could have been a reference to the slaughter of the male children – and perhaps the Exodus is described also victory – driving the Israelites into the wilderness to perish.

Despite the boast, Merneptah's reign was of short duration and full of disaster.

● BIBLE CHRONOLOGY has established the Exodus at approx. 1450. Thus favoring the reign of Amenhotep. But Egyptologists are at variance on all dates.

● Budge gives Rameses as 1250 and Rent at 1292. See Exod. 1:11. But no certainty can be given to Egyptian dates.

● Those claiming earlier date believe that Moses' account of the name of the city Exod. 1:11 was later changed to conform to the changed name of the city.

EXODUS.

Heb. Ve-eleth shemoth: "And these (are) the Names." The practice of the historical books of the Bible to commence their narrative with the copulative "and"

Gr. Exodos: Lit. "A way out." Hence a departure. Read. "decease" Luke 9:31 2 Pet. 1:15. "departure" Heb. 11:22.

CHAPTER 1

1 The children of Israel multiply, 8 although oppressed by a new king. 22 The male children destroyed.

See opp. p. 71

Now these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt; every man and his household came with Jacob.
Names See p. 73.
2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,
3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,
4 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.
5 And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls: for Joseph was in Egypt already.
6 And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.
7 And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty; and the land was filled with them.
8 Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph.
9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we:
10 Come on, let us deal wisely with them; lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that, when there falleth out any war, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land.
11 Therefore they did set over them taskmasters to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure cities, Pithom and Raamses.
See opp. p. 71
12 But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew. And they were grieved because of the children of Israel.
13 And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour:
Marah. Jud. 1:20.
14 And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in morter, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.
From the chiefs – more than 2 would be required for such increase.
15 And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives, of which the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah:
One who cries out – Heb.
16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools; if it be a son, then ye shall kill him: but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.
Heb-Elohim
17 But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men children alive.
18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men children alive?
19 And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women; for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them.
20 Therefore God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.
21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he made them houses.
22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

The oppression worsens as Pharaoh observes that the previous oppression has not the desired effect. Cp Prov. 19:21. 21:30. Ps. 33:10-11.
14 Splendor, Beauty.
15 Ob nayim – Double stones, birthstool – Kneeling. A chair of peculiar form upon which the patient sat during parturition. They are represented on Egyptian monuments.
16 Fear makes men cowardly, & when a coward rules, he turns into a bully.
17 This was doubtless true – though not the whole truth. The midwives were courageously risking their lives fearing God more than the King. Acts 5:29
18 Atsam – Bony, Substantial – Young. A bone as strong & building of the Body of Israelites, who kept separate having their own form of religion.
19 Them – Lahem (Masc.) Lahen – fem. Pharaoh's subsequent decree v.22 – turned the controversy into a holy war.
Established the houses (Progeny) of Israel. "Them" is in masculine gender cp Ps. 68:6 Marg.

ISRAEL IN EGYPT.
Building at Thebes. (Luxor)
This was completed with slave labor during Israel's sojourn in Egypt & there is no doubt that they played a part in it.
Rameses II claims to have completed the great Hall at Karnak – portion of what is claimed to have been the largest building ever erected. Over the main entrance is one stone 40 ft long, weighing 150 tons. There are 134 gigantic columns, the central ones being, each, 78 ft high, and [illegible] meter. 100 men could stand on top of a column.
Thebes stood on both sides of the Nile, 450 m. south of Cairo. No city had so many temples, palaces and monuments of stone, inscribed in the years of its [illegible] colors, and gleaming in gold. Many of its magnificent monuments, no doubt, represent the toil and sweat and blood of innumerable Israelites. It was at its glory BC. 1600-1300. It was destroyed by the Assyrians 661 BC. Rebuilt. Destroyed by the Persians 525 BC. Ruined by an earthquake 27 BC. In ruins since.
Called No Amon Jer. 46:25. Ezek. 30:14-16. Nah. 3:8.
It was attacked and crushed by Rome BC. 30-29.
In the day of its glory it was the Capital of Upper & Lower Egypt.

EGYPTIAN CHRONOLOGY
"Egyptian chronology is fairly well established back to 1600 BC; but beyond that it is very uncertain. Thus Menes, the first historical King, is dated, by Egyptologists, variously as follows: Petrie 5510 B.C.; Marietta, 5000 BC; Brugsch 4455; Chabas 3623; Lepsius, 3892; Unger, 3623; Hall, 2980; Breasted, 3400; Eaton, 3400 Meyer, 3200; Scharff 3000; Poole, 2700; G. Rawlinson, 2458; Wilkinson, 2320; Sharpe 2000. Thus, it may be seen, Petrie and Breasted, two of the most famous Egyptologists, differ by more than 2000 years as to the beginning point of Egyptian history. These same two men differ by more than 1000 yrs on the date of the pyramids, and 700 yrs on the date of the XIX Dynasty period. Present tendency is to lower the dates, both of Egyptian and Babylonian chronology, placing the Great Pyramid at 2600 or 2500 BC.
Halley: Handbook.

SYNCHRONISING THE DATES.
Egyptologists do not agree upon the dates of the Pharaohs. The first year of Menephtah has been established thus: A.H. Sayce – 1280. E.A.W. Budge 1263. Breasted – 1225. F. Petrie – 1207. See also footnote Light from the Ancient East p. 97.
Comment:
"All Egyptian dates for this period are, however purely conjectural. The date of the Exodus is fixed quite definitely in the Hebrew Text, and as there is nothing certainly known in the records of Egypt to conflict with the Hebrew date there is no reason why it should not be accepted. The Exodus occurred on the 14th Nisan, in the year AN. HOM. 2513. (See opp. p. 17), a year which would be expressed by Ussher as B.C. 1492, but in terms of the scheme of the present writer as B.C. 1539 (Bible dates), and in terms of the ordinary received Chronology as B.C. 1612 (Ptolemaic dates)."
The Romance of Bible Chronology – Martin Anstey.
Comment
The Hebrew text, however, makes no provision for Cainan (See p. 17) which the LXX gives as 130 years. For discrepancies in the Ptolemaic dates, see Appendix. 21.
Concerning Cainan. Luke 3:36; the Comp. Bible comments: "Undoubtedly an interpolation in certain copies of the LXX towards the close of the fourth Cent. AD." The evidence against his existence is to the utmost possible degree clear, full, and positive, and not liable to any evidence or perversion. On the contrary, the evidence for his existence... is inferential, obscure, & open to the suspicion of falsification." – A. Hervey, "The Genealogies of the Lord" Ch. 8, p. 195.
Companion Bible: "Cainan is plainly introduced by mistake. The name, though found in this place of the genealogy in the LXX, is not found in any Hebrew MS of the OT, nor in the Samaritan, Chaldee and Syriac versions. It is omitted in the Codex Bezae (D), and there is some evidence that it was unknown to Irenaeus."

EGYPTIAN RULERS (Accepted Dates).
Amosis – 1580. Organised opposition to Hykos from Thebes, drove them out 1570 & besieged them in the Palestinian fortress of Sharuhen. Exod. 14:6
Amenhotep – 1560.
Thotmes I – Broke with tradition of building Pyramids, built Royal rock-face Tomb. Extended Egyptian rule to Euphrates, which the Egyptians in amazement styled: "The river which flows backwards" – 1540.
Egypt – world power
Thotmes II – 1510. Hatshepsut his half-sister and wife was real ruler. Made frequent raids to Euphrates.
Thotmes III (see Hatshepsut, his half-sister was regent 20 years. He hated her, & after her death removed her name from inscriptions. The greatest conqueror in Egyptian history. Raided Palestine & Syria 17 times. Built a navy. Subdued Ethiopia & ruled to Euphrates – the first Great Empire in history. Accumulated great wealth & engaged in vast building projects. His tomb at Thebes – his mummy at Cairo.
Queen of Egypt's Empire – Hated Hatshepsut
Hatshepsut – Daughter of Thotmes I. One of Egypt's Greatest & most gorgeous rulers. Had many of her statues representing her as a man. Extended the Empire – built many monuments. Hated by Thotmes III, & on her death, he obliterated her name from monuments, & destroyed her statues – the broken remains of some having been discovered.
First great Queen in history
Amenhotep II. – 1450. Many believe that he was the Pharaoh of the Exodus.
Thotmes IV – 1420
Amenhotep III – 1415 – Greatest splendor of the Empire. Repeatedly raided Palestine. Built vast Temples.
Glory of the Empire
Amenhotep IV (Akhenaten) – A religious reformer not a warrior. Under him Egypt lost her Religious Reform – Asiatic Empire. Tried to establish monotheism – Sun-worship. Opposed by the priests of Thebes, he removed his capital to Amarna.

Semenka – 1362. A weak ruler.
Tutankhamen – 1360-1350. Son-in-law of Amenhotep IV. Restored the old religion, & moved the capital back to Thebes. One of the lesser rulers of Egypt at a close of a most brilliant period. Died about 18. His tomb discovered. covered by Mr. H. Carter, 1922.
Religious Reform
Ay (Eye), Setymeromen – 1350. Two weak rulers.
Harmhab (Horembeb) – 1340. Restored Amon worship
Rameses I – 1320
Seti (Sethos) I. – 1319. Palestine recovered. Commenced the Great Hall at Karnak.
Rameses II – 1301. Ruled for 67 years. One of the greatest of the Pharaohs. A great builder, a great advertiser, though sometimes claiming the credit for the accomplishments of his predecessors. Re-established the Empire from Ethiopia to Euphrates. Raided and pillaged Palestine repeatedly. Completed the Hall at Karnak, and other vast works, fortifications, canals & temples, by slave labor or taken in war, or throngs of Negroes from the south, along with native workers, toiling in danger in the quarry or brick fields, or dragging great stone blocks over soft earth. He married his own daughters. His mummy is at Cairo. See Note p. 75.
Pharaoh of the Oppression
Meneptah – 1235. Thought by some to have been the Pharaoh of the Exodus. His throne room at Memphis has been discovered. Ed. Q. p. 75 for inscription on his stele.
The Exodus
Amenmesis, Siptah, Seti II 1220-1200. Three weak rulers.
Rameses III (1198-1167) among the greatest of Egypt's warrior Kings.

KEY TO EGYPTIAN HIEROGLYPHICS.
Ancient Egyptian language was hieroglyphic, picture writing, a symbol for each word. About 800 BC a simpler form of writing came into use called Demotic, which was closer to alphabetic, and was used until Roman times. Then both fell into disuse and were forgotten.
In 1799 M. Boussard, who accompanied Napoleon found the Rosetta Stone, at Rosetta on the westernmost mouth of the Nile. It contained 3 inscriptions one above the other: Greek, Demotic, & hieroglyphic. It was a decree of Ptolemy V, Epiphanes, made about 200 BC.
A French scholar, Champollion, after 14 years (1811-1822) painstaking labor, succeeded in unravelling the mysteries of ancient Egyptian language.

PAST GLORY OF EGYPT
Flinders Petrie claims that the original religion of Egypt was monotheistic. But before the dawn of the historic period a religion had developed in which each tribe had its god, represented by an animal.
The Great Pyramid of Khufu (Gr. Cheops)
It claimed to be the greatest monument of all ages. It covered 13 acres (745 ft sq. now 750). 4,82 ft high (now 450). Estimated to have contained 2,300,000 stones of an average thickness of 3 feet each, and an average weight of 2½ tons. It was built of successive coats of rough-hewn blocks of limestone, with a smooth outer coat of smooth blocks of granite upon which (according to Herodotus) were carved inscriptions. These have been removed & used for local housing over past 500 years.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Moses is born, 3 and in an ark cast into the flags. 5 He is found, and brought up by Pharaoh's daughter. 11 He slayeth an Egyptian. 15 He fleeth into Midian. 21 He marrieth Zipporah.

AND there went [a] a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi.

2 And the woman conceived, and bare a son: [1] and [2] when she saw him that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months.

3 And when she could not longer hide him, she took for him an ark [3] of bulrushes, [4] and daubed it with slime, [5] and with pitch, [6] and put the child therein; and she laid it in [h] the flags by the river's brink. [7]

4 And [i] his sister stood afar off, to wit what would be done to him.

5 ¶ And the [k] daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash herself at the river; [8] and her maidens walked along by the river's side; and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and, behold, the babe wept. [10] And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews' children.

7 Then said his sister to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

8 And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the maid went and called the child's mother.

9 And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became

1 MOSES HID IN THE ARK Vv. 1-4.

1 The third child (cp Vv. 4, Ch. 7:7). Aaron was 3 years older than Moses; Miriam perhaps 11+. Evidently the edict had been issued after the birth of Aaron.
2 Stephen describes him as "exceeding fair"
3 TEBÂH - Only used elsewhere for Noah's Ark.
4 GOME' - The papyrus reed, growing upwards of 12ft high. Leaves used for making boats, mats, ropes, paper
5 Bitumen (Gen. 11:3, 14:10).
6 Probably a vegetable pitch to make it completely water-tight.
7 YE'OR - channel.
2 MOSES SAVED AND NAMED Vv. 5-10
8 Perhaps a daughter of Seti and sister of Rameses. Rameses is reported to have married his own daughter - if so, it could be her.
9 The monuments show women bathing at special places reserved by the river.
10 The weeping child draws the compassion of the woman's heart.
11 She had kept up to where the group of women were admiring the beautiful babe.

Out of Weakness Came Strength
Israel's deliverer was a helpless babe, crying in the arms of Israel's oppressors. From this developed the nation that will yet conquer Egypt (Is. 19:17-25).
Faith triumphed (Heb. 11:23) through the aid of the compassion of Women (Exod. 1:19, 2:3, 4, 6) - the midwives, Jochebed, Miriam, Pharaoh's daughter.

12 ¶ And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 And [o] when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews strove together: and he said to him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

14 And he said, Who made thee [3] a prince and a judge over us? intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But [a] Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by [m] a well.

16 Now the [n] priest of Midian had seven daughters: [o] and they came and [o] drew water, and filled the [p] troughs to water their father's flock.

17 And the shepherds came and [q] drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and [q] watered their flock.

18 And when they came to [r] Reuel their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to day?

19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.

20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he? why is it that ye have left the man?

her son. And she called his name [2] Moses: [5] and she said, Because I drew him out of the water. See opp.

11 ¶ And it came to pass in those days, [b] when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their [d] burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew, one of his brethren.

3 MOSES SEEKS TO SAVE HIS PEOPLE Vv. 11-22.

14 40 years of age (Acts 7:23). He repudiated the title of Pharaoh's son (Heb. 11:24). He had a sound knowledge of the promised Messiah (Heb. 11:26). His connection with Israel (Acts 7:23). And its hope of deliverance (Acts 7:25). Though in Pharaoh's palace, he evidently maintained association with his Hebrew nurse. Her instruction would be supplemented by Divine guidance (Acts 7:25).
15 He did not act recklessly but exercised due + proper caution.
16 The circumstances doubtless indicated this, for Moses had to hide his action, otherwise his championing of the Hated Hebrews would have been reported - but the action was nevertheless premature.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Moses keepeth Jethro's flock. 2 God appeareth to him in a burning bush. 9 He sendeth him to deliver Israel. 15 God's message to Israel.

NOW Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock [x] to the backside of the desert, and came to [y] the mountain of God, even to Horeb.

2 And [a] the angel of the LORD appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of [b] a bush: and he looked, and, behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

3 And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

4 And when the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said, Here am I.

5 And he said, Draw not nigh hither: put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground.

6 Moreover he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for [d] he was afraid to look upon God.

7 ¶ And the LORD said, [e] I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows;

8 And [i] I am come down to [l] deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land [m] unto a good land and a large, unto a land [o] flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of [r] the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

9 Now therefore, behold, [u] the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.

10 Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11 ¶ And Moses said unto God, [z] Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And he said, [c] Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, [d] ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

13 And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?

Shem also signifies "fame," "report" – "and by impl. honour, authority, character" See Str. In. 9:16. It is synonymous with "power." The Rabbins say: "When God judgeth the people He is called Elohim; when He warreth against the wicked, He is called Tsabaoth; when He showeth mercy He is called Yahweh."

The Angel in the Bush V.4

In this verse Yahweh and Elohim are identified with "the angel" of V.2. That angel evidently was angel of His presence Isa. 63:9–14. Stephen declares that Moses saw "an angel of the Lord" Acts 7:30. That in his speech "the [illegible] voice of the Lord came to him" V.31. Thus Yahweh was manifested through the angel Cp. Exod. 23:20–21.

ISRAEL'S CRY FOR HELP

Three words are used to describe this: "cried" 2:23. ZA'AQ – To shriek (from anguish or danger), by anal. to announce or convene publicly. (Str.). "Cry" SHA'AH – To call for help. 2:23. TSA'AQAH – To shriek, from TSA'AQ to shriek, to proclaim (or assembly). As the trouble deepened so the cry became more urgent. Assemblies were called for that purpose.

EHYEH — First person, future tense, "I will be."

YAHWEH — Third person, future tense, "He will be."
"It is from the Hiphil, the causitive form of the verb, & carries not only the meaning "to be" but "to cause to be." It has the idea of constantly creating" — G. Rawlinson.

"Out of over 40 other occurrences of this first person, singular number of future tense of the verb in such a grammatical comparison with this verse, there is only one instance of ehyeh being rendered "I Am" in the A.V. We have "I will be" 27 times, and the remaining occurrences represented by "will I be," "I shall be," "shall I be," "though I be," "should I be" etc. cf v.12. Hos.13:10, 14. Exod. 4:15. 4:12. YAHWEH — "is the first person, singular number, future tense, of HAVAH." "Ehyeh and Yahweh have in their origin a meaning in common. The former is the first person, singular number, future tense, of HAVAH, "to be," and the latter is the third person, singular number, future of HAVAH, an older form of the same verb." J.W. Thirtle.

The Memorial Name, as given in V.15 is Yahweh Elohey abothey chim - Yahweh God of your fathers.

5 THE MEMORIAL NAME PROCLAIM — Sig of Name manifested through Pharaoh's stubbornness. Exod. 9:16 to deliver Israel. Ex D 14-15.

EXODUS 4. Moses' hand is leprous.

14 And God said unto Moses, I AM THAT I AM: and he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, [b]I AM hath sent me unto you.

15 And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, [d]The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is [e]my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

16 Go, and [f]gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The LORD God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, appeared unto me, saying, I [g]have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt:

17 And I have said, [h]I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.

18 And [k]they shall hearken to thy voice: and [l]thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, The LORD God of the Hebrews hath [m]met with us: and now let us go, we beseech thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God.

19 ¶ And I am sure that the king of Egypt [p]will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand.

20 And I will [q]stretch out my hand, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and [s]after that he will let you go.

21 And [t]I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that, when ye go, ye shall not go empty:

22 But every woman [a]shall borrow of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment: and ye shall put them upon your sons, and upon your daughters; and [c]ye shall spoil [2]the Egyptians.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Moses' rod is turned into a serpent. 6 His hand becometh leprous. 14 Aaron is appointed to assist him. 18 Moses leaveth Jethro. 27 Aaron is sent to meet Moses.

AND Moses answered and said, But, behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice: for they will say, The LORD hath not appeared unto thee.

2 And the LORD said unto him, What is that in thine hand? And he said, [h]A rod.

3 And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses fled from before it.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, Put forth thine hand, and take it by the tail. And he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rod in his hand:

5 That they may [m]believe that [n]the LORD God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.

6 ¶ And the LORD said furthermore unto him, Put now thine hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom: and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous [r]as snow.

7 And he said, Put thine hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again; and plucked it out of his bosom, and, behold, [u]it was turned again as his other flesh.

8 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice

7 YAHWEH PROMISES TO REVEAL HIS POWER BEFORE EGYPT VV 19-23

17 Both: "I know..." 18 Gn Ch. 6:11. "No not" = VELO. LO = No. Ve is a copulative particle = "and." Ges = "Preferred to adversative sentences, may be rendered 'but.'" - "Not" but by... "Bern." "Except by" What is His Name?

Them also signifies "fame," "report" — "and by impl honour, authority, character" See Str. In. 9:16. it is synonymous with "power." The Rabbins say: "When God judgeth the people He is called Elohim; when He warreth against the wicked He is called Tsabaoth; when He showeth mercy He is called Yahweh."

THE TOKEN Ex 3:12
Lit. "And this for thee the sign that I have sent thee." 2. The sign was the burning bush, v it guaranteed the certainty of the accomplishment of Yahweh's purpose with Moses. As Moses received his commission at the Mount, so the nation would receive its commission there.

79 THE FIRST MIRACLES BY MAN.

These are the first recorded miracles by man and as such Moses typified the Lord Jesus.

The signs were significant.

The serpent rod showed that Yahweh had delegated into the hands of Moses power to deliver from the serpent (Egypt) Is 27:1. - thus the plagues were invoked, the sea opened and water was given by the rod.

The other sign showed that Yahweh had given means whereby sin could be conquered (so necessary for deliverance) and so pointed forward to the Passover. Leprosy was supposed to be the "disease of Egypt" Deut. 7:15. 28:60.

17. Roth. KV. "&K." Heb. SHAAL.
20 The mixed multitude some of whom may have lodged with Israelites who may not have desired to leave with them.
21 Implying that they had been stripped of these things during their servitude.

CHAPTER 4

8 THE SIGN OF THE SERPENT ROD VV 1-5

1 He recalled their previous unbelief Acts 7:25. See top. P 78.

2 The shepherd's rod is turned into a serpent. This was not only evidence of outstanding power to Pharoah, but typical of Jesus as shepherd and serpent. Gn Exod 4:4 Will it the plagued Egypt Ch 8:5 Smote the river & rock Ch 17:5. Divided the sea Ch 14:16
3 There was need of courage & faith to do this. Normally a snake is taken by the back of the head - so this showed complete control over the serpent power - a symbol of Moses' mission to the people in Egypt and of the work of Christ.
4 True also of the Lord. The sign was first displayed to Israel (vv 30, 31) & afterwards to Pharaoh (Ch. 7:20). The order & type also - first to Israel after words to Gentiles Rom. 1:16
9 THE SIGN OF THE LEPROUS HAND Ex 8
5 Inactivity Ps 74:11 Prov 19. Lu 16:15.
6 The worst kind of leprosy. The sign seems to infer that man is hopelessly caught in the grip of sin - and helpless to effect a cure. But what man cannot do Yahweh can effect - so as He would deliver from the serpent power (Egypt) so He would from its influence manifested in sin by the Passover. Cp Ps 103:3.
7 The leprous hand in the bosom implies the deceitfulness of man's heart Jer 17:9
8 The first sign = Yahweh's ability to save; the = Yahweh's ability to heal. 2 Kings 5:7

of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign.[6]

9 And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also these two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour it upon the dry land: and [a]the water which thou takest out of the river [2]shall become blood upon the dry land.

10 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, O my Lord, I am not [b]eloquent, neither [3]heretofore, nor since thou hast spoken unto thy servant: but [c]I am slow of speech, and of a slow tongue.

11 And the LORD said unto him, Who hath made man's mouth? or who maketh the dumb, or deaf, or the seeing, or the blind? have not I the LORD?

12 Now therefore go, and I will be [d]with thy mouth, and teach thee what thou shalt say.

13 And he said, O my Lord, send, I pray thee, by the hand [k]of him whom thou [e]wilt send.

14 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also, behold, he cometh forth to meet thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

15 And [f]thou shalt speak unto him, and [g]put words in his mouth: and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall do.

16 And he shall be thy spokesman unto the people: and he shall be, even he shall be to thee instead of a mouth, and [h]thou shalt be to him instead of God.

17 And thou [n]shalt take [o]this rod in thine hand, wherewith thou shalt do signs.

18 ¶ And Moses went and returned to [p]Jethro his father in law, and said unto him, Let me go, I pray [q]thee, and return unto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.

19 And the LORD said unto Moses in Midian, Go, return into Egypt: for [r]all the men are dead which sought thy life.

20 And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them upon an ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt: and Moses took [s]the rod of God in his hand.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, When thou goest to return into Egypt, see that thou do all those [t]wonders before Pharaoh, which I have put in thine hand: but [f]I will harden his heart, that he shall not let the people go.

22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, [h]Israel is my son, [i]even my firstborn:

23 And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, [j]I will slay thy son, even thy firstborn.

24 ¶ And it came to pass by the way [m]in the inn, that the LORD [u]met him, and sought to kill him.

25 Then Zipporah took [v]a sharp stone, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and [w]cast it at his feet, and said, Surely a bloody husband art thou to me.

26 So he [q]let him go: then she said, A bloody husband thou art, because of the circumcision.

27 ¶ And the LORD said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness [t]to meet Moses. And he went,

2 RESISTED Ch. 4:10-5:23

1 MOSES' RELUCTANCE Vv 10-12. Cp top. p. 78.

He probably recalled the people's treachery towards him Exod. 2:14.

Cp Ch. 6:12. Perhaps an impediment

8 Lepers [illegible] This does not contradict Acts 7:22. A man can be mighty in word though hesitant in speech.

9 He was not to go in his own strength, wisdom or ability, but in complete reliance upon Yahweh. Cp Luke 21:15. Cp with Christ John 12:49. 7:16.

SIYM (also Heb for "made") - put, appoint. Who gives the ability to speak or otherwise. Cp Exodus 3:26-27.

2 MOSES' REQUEST. Vv 13-17.

Moses' early experience makes him reluctant to make a second attempt. Cp Ch. 2:14. Now he requests that Yahweh would send He Who Will Be - the Seed of the Woman. See below.

Because of the excuse of V.10 not the prayer of V. - that prayer still remains to be answered. see above.

Instead of the Melchizedek Priest for which he prayed there would be set up the Aaronic Cp 1 Sam. 2:27

13 Aaron had been instructed to meet Moses V.27. After an absence of 40 years the knowledge that his illustrious brother was alive would rejoice his heart.

14 In this they foreshadowed Christ John 9:49.

15 Moses would receive direct inspiration from Yahweh

16 He returns to Egypt as a shepherd to lead the people out. John 10:11

Moses request V.13
SHELACH NA BEYAD TISHLACH - Send now by the hand thou will send.

Moses attempted to avoid his own responsibility by requesting an alteration of the Divine purpose.

10 Lit. "speaking he can speak" - He is fluent.

12 Moses would tell Aaron on what to say - he would express it in telling speech.

V.24. In this incident Moses had a demonstration that what Yahweh declared He would assuredly do. Moses had neglected to circumcise his son. In accordance with Divine law (Gen. 17:14) Yahweh was about to slay his son. Zipporah becoming aware of the nature of the case and the danger of her son performed the rite herself. Zipporah now considered herself allied to Yahweh through the rite of circumcision - the token of the covenant (Gen. 17:11). Thus Moses took on a new relationship to her. He became a "husband of bloods" - the blood of the covenant expressed in the rite of circumcision. Husband & wife united in bonds of covenant.

In Arabic (Zipporah = Midian) the word for circumcision is a synonym for that of marriage.

This evidently was the younger son of Moses, called Eliezer: God is My help Cp Ch. 18:18. See bottom p. 81.

24 It was significant that stone be used. Cp Josh. 5:2 note. This incident emphasized the importance of the rite of circumcision. It could have led to a command that all those not circumcised undergo the rite before leaving Egypt See note Josh. 5:2.

24A Perhaps he sought Moses to advise that the Pharaoh who sought his life was dead Cp Exod. 2:15. If so, there was a foreshadowing of Christ's experience. Mt. 2:22. Israel in Egypt experienced a need of Moses.

MENEPHTHAH, successor of Rameses II. was a weak prince, with an exalted opinion of himself. A great invasion of Egypt had occurred at the beginning of his reign, by the skill + valor of his generals. Menephtah had pointedly avoided incurring any personal danger, by claiming to be in communion with the gods who commanded him not to join the army. Nevertheless, he counted his generals' successes as his own, and was as vainglorious + arrogant as if he had won them by his own prowess.

Pharaoh was wholly self-satisfied, worshipped as a god, absolute ruler over thousands, surrounded by obsequious servants, with none to dare contradict + none to disobey. His haughty reply to the request revealed him as proud, headstrong, profane.

and met him in [a] the mount of God, and kissed him.

28 And Moses [d] told Aaron all the words of the LORD who had sent him, and all the [e] signs which he had commanded him.

29 ¶ And Moses and Aaron [g] went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel:

30 [h] And Aaron spake all the words which the LORD had spoken unto Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people.

31 And the people [i] believed: and when they heard that the LORD had [k] visited the children of Israel, and that he [l] had looked upon their affliction, then [m] they bowed their heads and worshipped.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Pharaoh chideth Moses and Aaron for their message. 5 He increaseth the Israelites' task.

AND afterward Moses and Aaron went in, and told Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Let my people go, that they may hold [n] a feast unto me in the wilderness.

2 And Pharaoh said, [o] Who is the LORD, that I should obey his voice to let Israel go? I know not the LORD, neither will I let Israel go.

3 And they said, [p] The God of the Hebrews hath met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the desert, and sacrifice unto the LORD our God; lest [r] he fall upon us with pestilence, or with the sword.

4 And the king of Egypt said unto them, Wherefore do ye, Moses and Aaron, let the people from their works? get you unto your [s] burdens.

5 And Pharaoh said, Behold, the people of the land now are many, and ye make them rest from their [s] burdens.

6 And Pharaoh commanded the same day the [b] taskmasters of the people, and [c] their officers, saying,

7 Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as [f] heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the tale of the bricks, which they did make [f] heretofore, ye shall lay upon them; ye shall not diminish ought thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

9 [2] Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein; and let them not regard vain words.

10 ¶ And the taskmasters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 Go ye, get you straw where ye can find it: yet not ought of your work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble instead of straw.

13 And the taskmasters hasted them, saying, Fulfil your works, [3] your daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick both yesterday and to day, as [q] heretofore?

15 ¶ Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and, behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.

17 But he said, Ye are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let

24 Bowed - To shrivel up. The Jewish custom was to bend the body so that every joint of the backbone became incurvated, and the head was bent towards the knees, so that the body resembled a bow." At Thus they felt in every part of the body the feelings they tried to express in prayer. They did not try to stand "comfortable."

= CHAPTER 5 =

1 MOSES INTERVIEWS PHARAOH vv 1-4

1 This was a rational request. The Israelites could not have sacrificed their animals in Egypt without provoking a burst of religious animosity.
2 Even if I did know him.
3 In his Inscription, Menephthah mentioned the Jews under the name of Israel. See opp. p. 74
4 In explanation of the Name, Yahweh. This was the message they were commanded to deliver. Cp Ch. 3: 18
5 Suggesting the manifestation of Exod. 3:15
6 By invasion through Goshen.
7 What right have you to interfere.

8 PHARAOH INCREASES ISRAEL'S WORK vv 5-9

8 This was a cause of secret fear to Pharaoh. Cp. Ch. 1:9, 10. Menephthah feared invasion - his fears were not groundless. A large force of Libyans invaded Egypt during his reign.

9 He lost no time. He was determined to crush any insurrection and by heavy labor prevent any meetings for agitation. He hesitated to move against Moses, possibly because of his fear of a rising.
10 NOGESHIM - Exactors or oppressors, more as Ch. 3:7 (SARE MASSIM). The latter probably general superintendents four in number of high rank. The NOGESHIM more numerous - inferior in position.
11 SHOTERIM - scribes. They were Hebrews employed to keep the totals of bricks.
12 Egyptian bricks were usually 20 in. by 8 in. wide, 7 in. thick.
13 Requiring that they scatter over the harvest fields and return to the brickfields.
14 The number.
15 "lazy" Amp. O.T.
16 He did not believe their explanation that Yahweh had met with them. Pharaoh was determined to break the spirit of the people.
17 The Israelites still had leisure. They had been able to cultivate their fields. Deut. 11:10
18 By attending agitators meetings. Vain words = lying words. See below.

9 ISRAEL'S OPPRESSION INCREASED vv 10-14

19 Teben - chopped straw. This was previously provided them, whereas now they gathered long stalks of stubble. Though plentiful it had to be gathered + chopped small for the purpose of binding the clay together into bricks.
20 The common method in Egypt was by the bastinade - the victim lay on the ground face down with his legs drawn up + was beaten on sole of foot. This sometimes crippled them for life.
21 NOGSHIM = To press. They kept at them, urging them on.

10 RELIEF REFUSED vv. 15-19

21 Smarting under the sense of injustice, they bypassed the taskmasters and appealed directly to Pharaoh.
22 "They are saying" d - i.e. they keep saying.

23 "you are lazy" (Amp. OT.) Thus Pharaoh mocked the over-worked people, rejecting their claim that they desired to worship Yahweh. He blamed their "laziness" on their religion.

"UNTO ALL GENERATION" Ex. 3:15. 81

"LEDOR DOR" - For generation, generation. Rend by J. Thomas "for a generation of the race" evidently taking the dual words as applying to a generation coetaneous to the existence of the race. Better as AV: "for all generations." Cp Ps. 45:17; 79:13; 100:5; 102:12; 106:8; 135:13. Luke 1:48 Eph. 3:21.

ZIPPORAH (Cont.). Moses seems to have parted with his family in Horeb + sent them back to Jethro Ex. 18:2

"Vain words" v 9.

This is the description Pharaoh gave to the revelation of Yahweh through Moses. It is the way in which flesh always depreciates the wisdom of God + the requirements of His Word.

THE PEOPLE COMPLAIN V.21.
This is the first of twelve such complaints. Exod. 14:10. 15:24. 16:2. 17:2. 32:1. Num. 11:1. 11:4. 14:1. 16:41. 20:2. 21:5.

MOSES' COMPLAINT V.22.
On eleven occasions he was caused to do this. Exod. 3:13. 4:1, 10, 13. 5:22. 6:12, 30. 17:4. Num. 11:10, 21. Yahweh's purpose Is. 63:11-12.

"TO GIVE THEM": these men then dead - indicating the resurrection. Cp Deut 1:8; 30:20; 1 Chr. 16:16-18 Ps. 105:8-10; Mic. 7:20. Acts 7:4-5

IN EGYPT
Burdened - heard a foreign tongue Ps. 81:5-7.

18 Go therefore now, and work; for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in evil case,[4] after it was said, Ye shall not minish ought from your bricks of [c] your daily task.

20 ¶ And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh:

21 [g] And they said unto them, The LORD look upon you, and judge; because ye have made our savour[2] to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to slay us.

22 And Moses returned unto the LORD, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil entreated this people? why is it that thou hast sent me?

23 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all.

II MOSES BLAMED: HE PLEADS YAHWEH'S HELP Vv 20-23.

26 "Moses + Aaron standing to meet them at their going out" It was not by accident but by design as the two leaders awaited the result of the officers' appeal.

26 The Israelites blame Moses for their plight to call on Yahweh to witness to the truth of their accusation. They claim that his mishandling of the situation threatened them with death.

27 The increasing misery of the people deeply grieved Moses who was sensitive to their sufferings. Yahweh had warned not to expect success at once Exod 3:19. 4:21 but he had not anticipated such increase of suffering. He did not lack faith, but desired to know the purpose of the misery. See above.

CHAPTER 6.

III ACCOMPLISHED CH. 6:1 - CH. 11:10

1 YAHWEH PROCLAIMS HIS INTENTION TO DELIVER Vv. 1-8

1 The time to act had come. It was a time when Israel despaired + Moses doubted!!!

2 Used four times in this declaration of deliverance in association with the Covenant. Cp Vv. 6, 7, 8. See also. Jer. 16:21. Mic. 7:3-6.

2A YÂD - The open, pointing hand = power, direction.

3 Hos. 12:5. Yahweh is derived from hayah, an old form of the verb to be. It could be that the patriarchs used the third person form of this verb to speak of God, without understanding that Yahweh would be His self-imposed family name.
Cp Gen. 32:29 Jacob asked for the name to be revealed - but it was withheld. The time was not ripe then. His name or family purpose was revealed in visiting the Gentiles + calling out His people under these circumstances. Exod. 15:11 one. Cp Ps. 113. 83:18. Acts 15:14.

THE NAME: With men a name is merely a mark of difference. With the case of God it is different. If the significance of His name is known the understanding of a person in relation to Him will be affected. If God is known as Ammon, the main idea will be that He is a riddle + a mystery; if as Shaddai that He is powerful; if as Mazda that He is wise and bountiful; if a God, that He is good. The various titles as El, Elohim, Adonai, Shaddai, Elyon set forth His many + varied attributes + manifestations. His Name Yahweh pronounces His family name and announces that He will perform His will and Covenant and will reveal His attributes in Sons of His choice. 82

1 The land of Canaan the land of spiritual merchandise! Pilgrimage indicates they had a clear objective. Strangers that they must shun + avoid their separateness.

5 This repetition is an assurance in view of Moses' remonstrance. Yahweh does not forget though circumstances seem to indicate that He does Cp Heb. 13:5.

6 There is certainty expressed in the promises of Yahweh. Faith must grasp hold of this - even though circumstances delay the performance.

7 NATSAL - To snatch away.

8 GÂAL - To act as next of kin.

4 "I will be to you for Elohim" Dr. T.

10 The Ecclesia. Deut 6:20-25.

10A The Name Amen by deliverance effected. Ex. 15:6-7; Is. 63:12.

11 Cp Heb. 6:13-18

11A MORASHAH = possession. Used also of Law Deut 33:4 the obedience of Law necessary to possession of land.

II MOSES AND THE PEOPLE ARE DISCOURAGED BY OPPOSITION Vv 13.

12 Or mg. Their oppressions made them impatient - a contrast to Ch. 4:31. They became so crushed as to lose all faith, heart, hope + spirit. A. 18:4.

13 No limitation of 3 days in this demand.

14 Speech not governed by Yahweh's command. See ears Jer. 6:10 heart Jer. 4:10 which cannot hear or understand, so here, lips which can not speak 4:10.

15 Both parties were advised of Yahweh's intentions + both shared responsibility therefor. This verse summarizes Yahweh's transactions with them - summarizing Cp 3:5.

GENEALOGY OF MOSES. Cp Rom. 9:11-12.
Every point in the line of descent departs from that which would imply natural pre-eminence. Moses is not descended from Reuben the eldest son of Jacob, but from Levi, the youngest son of the two united in a curse Gen. 49:5-7. Yet not even from the eldest branch of it, but from Kohath, the second son, Moses was not the natural firstborn of Kohath Amram, but the second son. Thus Israel was taught that Divine selection was not according to natural advantage.

4 YAHWEH CONFERS AUTHORITY ON MOSES TO STAND BEFORE PHARAOH V28-Ch7:4

These verses seem to contrast the reluctance of Moses with what Yahweh accomplished in him Ch. 4. His uncircumcised lips were given a charge & a power that contributed him as God to Aaron and Pharaoh Ch. 4:16; 7:1.

CHAPTER 7.

Moses appeared diffident to appear before Pharaoh Ch 6:30, but is now strengthened & encouraged by the promise of supernatural power. Exod 4:16. Gen 50:19. He would appear as Moses' superior, with right to command his obedience & power to enforce his will.

AARON The first mention of Aaron is found in Exod. 4:14. Some give the meaning of his name as Shining Light or Enlightened. a. (cp Exod 7:10). Both Moses & Aaron typed the Lord: the former as Shepherd-leader; the latter as High Priest. There is obvious reference to Aaron's future priestly office in the title given him at the first mention of his name - Aaron the Levite. In regard to the general organisation of the nation, it has been well summarised: from the tribes of Israel there came the warriors; from the tribe of Levi came the workers; from the family of Aaron the worshippers of God.

17 Thus saith the LORD, In this [@] thou shalt know that I am the LORD: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned [c] to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall [e] lothe to drink of the water of the river.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and [v] stretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their [2] pools of water, that they may become blood; and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he [k] lifted up the rod, and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the [1] waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

21 And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians [n] could not drink of the water of the river; and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 [o] And the magicians of Egypt did so with their enchantments: and [p] Pharaoh's heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them; [r] as the LORD had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he set his heart to this also.

10 CHACHAMIM - Men of learning. Skilled in magic.

11 KASHAPHIM - To whisper (a spell), to enchant - thus to practise magic.

11 CHARTOMIM - from a root cheret CHERET, to engrave, thus a horoscopist.

12 LAHATIM, from LAHAT to burn, set on fire. Rend. "flaming" Gen. 3:24. Thus by sleight of hand, covered by the smoke of burning incense or sacrifices, they did similarly.

13 Lit. "And was hard the heart of Pharaoh" cf. "Then waxed bold the heart of Pharaoh." - Roth. "The verb employed is not active but neuter; and "his heart" is not the accusative but the nominative." - G. Rawlinson. His heart was too hard for the sign to make much impression.

15 KABED - heavy, difficult, stupid - St. RV: Stubborn, marg. heavy.

16 Probably for some religious service in conjunction with the river which would then be subjected to its annual inundation.

18 Two elements related to life being associated with death.

19 The Nile is normally noted for the sweetness of its water & was worshipped by the Egyptians. It was called the father of life and the father of the gods.

20 The canals.

21 The various divisions of the Delta, of which there were seven (Herod. 2:17).

22 Artificial reservoirs.

23 The water of the Nile is muddy & Egyptians filtered it through various kinds of pots. The reeds of wood could relate to some form of filter, after which it was stored in those of stone.

24 It seems as though Moses commenced only with the waters of the river, but as the stubbornness of the Egyptians became apparent he fulfilled the instructions throughout the land V. 21.

7 MIRACLE IMITATED - HEART HARDENED 22-23

25 Cp 2 Tim 3:8 This was probably before all nature was affected. See Note 1.

26 He saw this as a triumph for his gods.

27 Implying that the contest between Moses & the magicians had been concluded before the former went throughout the land. Cp V. 20

28 Not the Hebrews. The water they stored was not affected.

CHAPTER 8.

8 SECOND PLAGUE: FROGS MULTIPLY Vv 1-6

Frogs are sent. 16 The dust is turned into lice, which the magicians could not do. 20 The swarms of flies. 32 Pharaoh is still hardened.

1 TSEPHARDEA from TSÂPHAR - To skip about - A swamp or marsh keeper. Str.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, Go unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Let my people go, [b] that they may serve me.

2 And if thou [c] refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with [d] frogs:[1]

2 Ancient Egyptians were known for their extreme cleanliness. Herod. 2:37, 4 this invasion of their homes must have been both disagreeable & disgusting. They even clung to their persons V. 4.

3 And the river [e] shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up and come into thine house, and into [e] thy bedchamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy [6] kneadingtroughs:

4 And the frogs shall come up both on thee, and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, [h] Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and [i] the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

MIRACLE IMITATED: BUT PHARAOH SEEKS INTERCESSION OF MOSES Vv 7-11

9 7 [k] And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

3. Cp Ch. 7:11.

4 Obviously the magicians could not rid Egypt of the plague, & an acknowledgment of Yahweh's existence & power is forced from the reluctant King who previously boasted that "he knew not Yahweh" Cp. Ch. 5:2

8 ¶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, [l] Intreat the LORD, [4] that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice unto the LORD.

9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, (2) Glory over me: (3) when shall I intreat for thee, and for thy servants, and for thy people, 'to destroy the frogs from thee and thy houses, that they may remain in the river only?

5. Roth. "For what time..." Moses' request was proof of Yahweh's power in that he allowed Pharaoh to choose the time when the plague would cease.

10 And he said, (5) To morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word: that thou mayest know that [n] there is none like unto the LORD our God.

11 And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy servants, and from thy people; they shall remain in the river only.

10 RESPITE: HEART HARDENED Vv 12-15

12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Moses cried [o] unto the LORD because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

6 TSÂ'AQ - To shriek. Roth: "Moses made outcry..." He had ventured to give a specific time, & now prayed earnestly for Yahweh to fulfil it.

13 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, [7] and out of the fields.

7 RV: "courts" Roth. footnote - "enclosures - perhaps courtyard. Houses in Egypt generally had a courtyard attached.

14 And they gathered them together upon heaps: and the land stank. [8]

8 There was relief, but also a constant reminder of the power of Yahweh.

15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was [p] respite, [9] he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

11 THIRD PLAGUE: DUST INTO LICE Vv 16-17

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice [q] throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Not Moses' rod. See Ch. 7:19

17 And they did so; for Aaron [r] stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and [m] it became lice in man, and in beast; [10] all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt. (Cp. Ch. 7:11)

10 KENNIM - To fasten Str. Thought to be the mosquito-gnat. The nearest Egyptian equivalent - Khentiems = Mosquito. See above. 11 It is said that they fly into the nostrils & eyes of animals driving them to madness & fury.

12 MAGICIANS THWARTED Vv 18-19

18 And [o] the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: [12] so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

12 For some reason not specified their trickery failed & they claimed this was due to supernatural powers beyond their control.

4th PLAGUE: Flies or beetles. The sphere of judgment widens: Water, River Earth and Air for these seem to spring from the air. The beetle was sacred to Egyptians (Dwellers on the Nile) Ch. 8:24-29. The beetle was sacred to Ra – the sun god.

5th PLAGUE: Murrain of beasts. Cattle affected V. 7. The Bull (Apis) most sacred. Ch. 9:1-7.

Plague of flies.

19 Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is [a] the finger of God: and Pharaoh's [b] heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had said.

20 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; lo, he cometh forth to the water; and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [c] Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21 Else, if thou wilt not let my people go, behold, I will send [2] swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22 And [d] I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end [e] thou mayest know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth.

23 And I will put [3] a division between my people and thy people: [f] to morrow shall this sign be.

24 And the LORD did so; and [g] there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt: the land was [4] corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

25 ¶ And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26 And Moses said, It is not meet so to do; for we shall sacrifice [h] the abomination [i] of the Egyptians to the LORD our God: lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not [j] stone us?

28 And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness; only ye shall not go very far away: [d] intreat for me.

29 And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will intreat the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to morrow: [5] but let not Pharaoh [5] deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.

30 And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD.

31 And the LORD did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people; there remained not one.

32 And Pharaoh [6] hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

[2] DEBER – Destroying pestilence. LXX = death. Murrain is a contagious disease among cattle, the symptoms of which are – hanging down & swelling of the head, abundance of gum in the eyes, rattling in the throat, difficulty of breathing, palpitation of the heart, staggering, hot breath, shining tongue – all indicative of general inflammation.

HA-'AROB – The Arob. Perhaps the Kakerlaque and Beetle which appear suddenly in great numbers inflicting painful bites with their jaws, gnaw & destroy clothes, household furniture, leather & other articles, and either consume or render unavailable all eatables. They particularly frequent houses.

15 FIFTH PLAGUE MURRAIN ON EGYPTIAN BEASTS Vv 1-7

13. Lit. "of a God." It is supernatural – beyond the power of man.

14 They had given up the unequal contest and urged him to do likewise. Most likely they had not engaged in trickery on this occasion for that reason.

18 The form of service had not then been revealed. Ex. 10:26.

As Pharaoh had appointed this time for the termination of the 2nd plague V. 10, so Moses does now for that of the 4th.

3 Mercy blended with judgment. This delay would enable those Egyptians who heeded to bring their cattle in from the fields. V. 3.

4 He did at least heed the curiosity to ask this, though perhaps he concluded they gave better care to their cattle. In some way he reasoned himself out of the inevitable.

16 SIXTH PLAGUE ASHES INTO BOILS & BLAINS Vv 8-12

Like the 3rd it was sent without notice & affected the person.

5 From the brick-kilns in which Israelites worked & sprinkled in Pharaoh's presence in mute appeal to heaven.

6 Water (1st & 2nd Plagues) Earth (3rd) now heaven drawn into the strife. Contest, Yahweh shown to be Lord of all.

7 A severe cutaneous disease accompanied by pustulus ulcers. Some suppose Elephantiasis or Black Leprosy. Called "the botch of Egypt" Deut. 28:27

8 Lit. "shall be as dust." It would be spread by the air through all Egypt as dust is spread.

9 KIBSHON = Brick-Kiln, though bricks not often baked in Egypt. They may have been so done at this time to supply the vast number of bricks required.

10 The first time this is ascribed to Yahweh.

17 PHARAOH WARNED OF NEXT PLAGUE Vv 13-21

11 The time for mild warnings and slight plagues is finished. Now the worst forms of evil will be felt in rapid succession.

12 To beat into submission that obdurate heart.

6TH PLAGUE Boils and blains. Affected the priests Cp v.11 who would have to intermit their worship Ch 9:8-12. "Toward heaven" v.8. Thus a challenge to the god Neit called "the great Mother of the highest heaven." The scattering of ashes of human beings (victims) was done to the honor of Suteh or Typhon to avert evil.

7TH PLAGUE Storm of hail - Judgment against Shu, the god of light, heat, air and dryness (Dwellers on the Nile). Ch 9: 16-23.

THE TERRIBLE RAISING UP V.16.

Thus we are taught that Yahweh can find a use - even for the wicked. Cp R.17:B.

shall nothing die of all that is the children's of Israel.

5 And the LORD appointed a set time, saying, To morrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land.

6 And the LORD did that thing on the morrow, and [b] all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

7 And Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And [d] the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh.

9 And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be [e] a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10 And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven; and it became a boil breaking forth with blains upon man, and upon beast.

11 And the [g] magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boil was upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

12 [h] And the LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them; as the LORD had spoken unto Moses.

13 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [k] Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

14 For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people; [a] that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

15 For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

16 And in very deed for this cause have I raised thee up, for to shew in thee my power; and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

17 As yet exaltest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

18 Behold, to morrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof even until now.

19 Send therefore now, and gather thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field; for upon every man and beast which shall be found in the field, and shall not be brought home, the hail shall come down upon them, and they shall die.

20 He that feared the word of the LORD among the servants of Pharaoh made his servants and his cattle flee into the houses:

21 And he that [j] regarded not the word of the LORD left his servants and his cattle in the field.

22 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Stretch forth thine hand toward heaven, that there may be [i] hail in all the land of Egypt, upon man, and upon beast, and upon every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

23 And Moses stretched forth his rod toward heaven: and [l] the LORD sent thunder and hail, and the fire ran along upon the ground; and the LORD rained hail upon the land of Egypt.

Note: • The longsuffering of Yahweh towards sinners V.15. Cp Rom 9:17-19. The very stubbornness of Pharaoh helped to save such as Rahab. DEBER - Destroying pestilence. LXX θάνατος murrain is a contagious disease among cattle, the symptoms of which are - hanging down of the head, swelling of the throat, abundance of gum in the eyes, rattling in the throat, difficulty of breathing, palpitation of the heart, staggering, hot breath, shining tongue, all indicative of general inflammation.

15 FIFTH PLAGUE: MURRAIN ON EGYPTIAN BEASTS VV 1-7

As Pharaoh had appointed this time for the termination of the 2nd plague V.10, so Moses does now for that of the 5th.

18 The form of service had not then been revealed Cp Exod 10:26.

Cp Rotherham's New Old Test. - pathsmiter

13 Render: "For now might I have stretched out My hand and smitten thee" . . . . and then thou hadst been cut off from the earth." Yahweh could do this - but His mercy was extended, + His purpose was that all the earth might acknowledge His name and power. Exod. 7:4. Jer. 32:20.

14 By "oppose." Heb. "To raise a mound" or "bank" thence "to obstruct." SKIAL.

18 Thus some among that people's servants were moved by the witness. Cp Phil 3:3.

18 SEVENTH PLAGUE: HAIL + STORM. VV 22-26

This seventh plague introduced those of greater severity as indicated by the preceding warning. In addition they were commenced by Moses stretching forth his hand rather than Aaron as previously. Cp Ch 7:19

19 Moses is now the agent. Exod 10:3, 22.

20 Some electrical display like fire balls, in which the flash is not momentary but remains for several seconds.

8th PLAGUE Locusts - Dreaded by the Egyptians. The god Serapis was supposed to protect the land from them. Ch 10: 1-12:15.

22 Broke the limbs etc so ruining the prospect of fruit.

mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there was none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

25 And the hail smote throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and beast; and the hail [a] smote every herb of the field, and [a] brake every tree of the field.

26 [b] Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.

19 MOSES INTERCEDES FOR PHARAOH 27-35

23 The severity of the plague impressed even Pharaoh. For the first time deaths were reported from among his people V. 25

24 Previously he had been forced to acknowledge the existence of Yahweh Exod. 8:8 - now the existence of His laws. This confession had been wrung from his lips by adversity not love of Yahweh - and was not genuine Cp V. 30.

25 RAHTSADDIK: The Just One.

26 HARESHAIM: The Wicked Ones. See Note on word Gen. 13:13.

27 There is no need of any further plagues: I will submit.

27 ¶ And Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said unto them, [c] I have sinned this time: [d] the LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked.

28 [e] Intreat the LORD (for it is enough) that there be no more [3] mighty thunderings and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay no longer.

29 And Moses said unto him, As soon as I am gone out of the city, I will [f] spread abroad my hands unto the LORD; and the thunder shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that thou mayest know how that the [g] earth is the LORD's.

30 But as for thee and thy servants, I know that ye will not yet fear the LORD God.

31 And the flax and the barley was smitten: [h] for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was bolled.

28 Ruth: "In flower." This occurs towards the end of January - beginning of February at which time the barley also comes into ear.

29 Rie is not grown in Egypt. Heb. CUSSEMETH from CASAM - to have long hair. Some bearded grain meant, perhaps spelt. Ruth = Spelt Wheat harvest = about a month after barley harvest.

30 This is an additional feature of the plague not mentioned earlier. Rain is most unusual in Egypt, so that it is most unlikely that such a detail should have been added later. Only an eye-witness could record this fact.

31 They supported the King in his folly.

32 But the wheat and the rie were not smitten: for they were [5] not grown up. Ruth: = ripe

33 And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and [p] spread abroad his hands unto the LORD: and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured upon the earth.

34 And when Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, [q] he and his servants.

35 And [r] the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel go; as the LORD had spoken [2] by Moses.

1 Locusts are threatened. 7 Pharaoh inclineth to let the Israelites go. 12 The plague of locusts, 21 of darkness. 24 Pharaoh sueth to Moses, but is still hardened.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh: [c] for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I might shew these my signs before him:

2 And that [d] thou mayest tell in the ears of thy son, and of thy son's son, what things [e] I have wrought in Egypt, [3] and my signs which I have done among them; that ye may know how that I am the LORD.

3 And Moses and Aaron came in unto Pharaoh, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of the Hebrews, How long wilt thou refuse to humble thyself before me? let my people go, that they may serve me.

4 Else, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, to morrow will I bring the [k] locusts [4] into thy coast:

5 And they shall cover the [4] face of the earth, [5] that one cannot be able to see the earth: and [m] they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which remaineth unto you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which groweth for you out of the field:

6 And they [o] shall fill thy houses, [6] and the houses of all thy servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned himself, and went out from Pharaoh. 7

7 And Pharaoh's servants said unto him, How long shall this man be [s] a snare [7] unto us? let

CHAPTER 10

20 PHARAOH WARNED - HIS SERVANTS PLEAD IN VAIN VV 1-11

1 KÂBED - To make dull. Therefore condescend to see him once more. See below.

2 With the increased severity of the plagues, and the warning of the King's destruction - the court officials influence became more pronounced. Cp Exod. 9:34.

3 Constantly recalled. Cp. Ps. 78:5, 105:8, 35; 106:6-16, 68:17, 77:14-20, 81:5, 6, 10, 103, 135:8-9, 136:10-15.

3A 7th + last time the request made.

4 ARBEH from RÂBAH - To increase. Indicative of rapid multiplication. They are said to multiply faster than almost anything else in creation.

5 They are known to do so to a depth of 6 inches.

6 Imagine the impossible. Living conditions, with locusts carpeting the floor several inches thick.

7 This was an ultimatum - as how not words were wanted.

8 Cp Note VI. The magicians had already acknowledged the hand of God. Exod. 8:19.

9 MOWQÊSH - A noose or trap to catch animals. Hence to endanger.

HARDENED

Three different words are used:

- KÂBÊD - To be heavy, stupid, dull: Ch 7: 14. 8:15, 32; 9:7, 34; 10:1. 1 Sam. 6:6.
- QÂSHÂH - To be tough, severe Ch 7:3; 13:15; Deut. 2:30
- CHÂZÂQ - Fixed = stubborn resolution - Ch 4:21; 14:4, 17; 7:13, 22; 8:19; 9:12, 35; 10:20; 10:27; 11:10; 14:8.

Pharaoh, therefore, was not only tough and stubborn, but also stupid and dull.

9TH PLAGUE Darkness. Thus the impotence of the god Re made manifest. Ch.10:21-23.

9 ENOSH - A mortal kal-including male & female. Cf. V11

the men go, that they may serve the LORD their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

10 By the courtiers. Pharaoh did not condescend to send for them, but he permitted others to do so.

8 And Moses and Aaron were brought again unto Pharaoh: and he said unto them, Go, serve the LORD your God: but [3] who are they that shall go?

11 So he commenced to bargain with them.

9 And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for [d] we must hold a feast unto the LORD.

12 This would sound reasonable to the Egyptians for they were used to children attending their religious festivals (Herod. 2:60).

10 And he said unto them, Let the LORD be so with you, as I will let you go, and your little ones: look to it; for evil is before you.

13 RSV - "Yahweh be with you if ever I let you and your little ones go: Look, you have some evil purpose in mind." Cp Ch. 8:30.

11 Not so: go now ye that are men, and serve the LORD; for that ye did desire. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

14 This was a challenge that Yahweh took up.

12 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [h] Stretch out thine hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up upon the land of Egypt, and [i] eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail hath left.

15 GEBER = Mighty men - adult males. Cf. V7.

16 New Old Test. "he drove out." or "one drove out." Pharaoh showed his duplicity as an officious attendant thrust them out - an insult not previously offered the brothers.

13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all that night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

21 EIGHTH PLAGUE: LOCUSTS DARKEN THE SKY. 12-15.

17 See before. Locusts need wind to fly.

14 And [m] the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the coasts of Egypt: very grievous were they; [o] before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such.

18 Egypt extends about 520 m. Columns of Locusts 500 m in length are not uncommon. Egypt about 10m deep.

15 For they covered the [q] face of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened; and they [r] did eat every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left: and there remained not any green thing in the trees, or in the

19 The plague was abnormal for Egypt

20 It was so covered with locusts it could not be seen. Cp Ex 45:7

"AN EAST WIND" V.13 Qadim. It crosses the sandy wastes of Arabia Deserta before reaching Palestine. It blows with violence and is the prevailing wind from February to June. Cp Ch. 6:21.

The Khamsin or "wind of the desert" commonly visits Egypt about the time of the vernal equinox, and is accompanied by an awful and weird darkness. This is caused by the dense clouds of fine sand whipped up by the wind which intercept the sun's rays & produce darkness. It usually blows for the space of about two or three days. Cp V.22.

herbs of the field, through all the land of Egypt.

16 ¶ Then Pharaoh [2] called for Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, [a] I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you.

22 MOSES INTERCEDES Vv 16-20.

17 Now therefore forgive, I pray thee, my sin only this once, and [b] intreat the LORD your God, that he may take away from me this death only.

21 This fatal visitation that threatened the life of the nation as well as that of individuals.

18 And he [c] went out from Pharaoh, and intreated the LORD.

19 And the LORD turned a mighty strong west wind, which took away the locusts, and [4] cast them [e] into the Red sea; there remained not one locust in all the coasts of Egypt.

22 RUACH YAM: Wind of the sea i.e. Mediterranean.

20 But the LORD [f] hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go.

23 YAM SUPH - Sea of reeds. So called, it is claimed because of the abundance of alga or sea weed found in it. But, in fact, there is little found in it! Could it not be figurative of sin. Cp Heb 6:8? LXX has Red Sea, perhaps the interpreters gave the meaning intended.

21 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [g] Stretch out thine hand toward heaven, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, [5] even darkness which may be felt.

24 QAZAQ See bottom p.88 Cp 7) Pharaoh's stupidity caused him to resist.

22 And Moses stretched forth his hand toward heaven; and there was a [k] thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days:

25 NINTH PLAGUE: DARKNESS OVER THE LAND Vv 21-23

23 They saw not one another, neither rose any from his place for three days: [l] but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

23 This may have been caused by the Khamsin or Wind of the Desert which afflicts Egypt that time of the year. It is accompanied by an awful, weird darkness caused by dense cloud of fine sand. It drives people indoors and is extremely unpleasant. It continues for two or three days & is "darkness which may be felt."

24 ¶ And Pharaoh called unto Moses, and [n] said, Go ye, serve the LORD; only let your flocks and your herds be stayed: let your [p] little ones also go with you.

26 Indicating the extreme nature of the visitation - worse than any normal Khamsin.

25 And Moses said, Thou must give [6] us also sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the LORD our God.

27 This does not mean that people did not move about indoors, but that they did not venture outside. See Strikes expression Ch. 16:29 the air thick with sand made even artificial light difficult.

26 Our cattle also shall go with us; there shall not an hoof be left behind; for thereof

24 PHARAOH PLEADS BUT REMAINS OBSTINANT 24-29

29 The stubborn King concedes a further point but remains obdurate Cp Vv 10-11

30 He cate gorically refuses any compromise Cp V.4.

10TH PLAGUE Firstborn Slain: As Pharaoh was worshipped judgment was executed against the god elect. Ch.11:4-6.

WHO KEPT THE PASSOVER

"The whole assembly QÂHÂL of the congregation" Ch.12:6. (QÂHÂH feminine of ʿÊD - Witness). The Ecclesia of Witness constituted the male adult members of the nation Exod.12:43-45, 48. The "whole assembly" KÔL QÂHÂL - was divided into families of households as the Ecclesia of Christ is today separated into groups. See below.

must we take to serve the LORD our God; and we know not with what we must serve the LORD, until we come thither.

27 ¶ But the LORD (b) hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let them go.

28 And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more; for in that day thou seest my face thou shalt die.

29 And Moses said, Thou hast spoken well, [c] I will see thy face again no more.

37 His impotent stubbornness gave vent to anger & fury. And this, in turn, aroused Moses to anger Ch.11:8. Thus all future negotiations between the representatives of the Rulers of Heaven & earth were at an end. Prior to leaving, however, Moses spoke the words of Exod.11:4-8.

CHAPTER 11

25 ISRAEL BORROWS OF HER NEIGHBORS vv 1-3.

1 This is a parenthetic statement of a revelation that had been made to Moses before. His conversation with Pharaoh continues from v.4

2 Roth. "he will altogether drive you out from hence." This statement would permit necessary preparations to be made - both in relation to family & flocks.

3 Cp Ex.3:22. SHAAL - ask. See Roth. RV etc.

4 Roth. "Articles." Not merely jewels.

5 His reputation was high. The people could see that Divine power was with him and on behalf of the Israelites.

26 THE FIRSTBORN THREATENED vv4-10

Cp bottom p.102 ←

CHAPTER 11.

1 God's message to the Israelites to borrow jewels of their neighbours. 4 The firstborn threatened.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Yet will I bring [h] one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go hence: when he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out hence altogether. 2

2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man [i] borrow of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

3 [m] And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the LORD, [o] About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt:

5 And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the firstborn of the maidservant [p] that is behind the mill; and all the firstborn of beasts.

6 [q] And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more.

7 [a] But against any of the children of Israel (c) shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the LORD doth put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.

8 And [d] all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people [2] that follow thee: and after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in [3] a great anger. 8

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, [f] Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you; that [g] my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt. 9

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: [k] and the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

6. The howling of dogs commonly accompanies death

7. They shall descend. Get off their high horse, humble themselves before Moses.

8 At the stupidity of Pharaoh. Cp MK 3:5.

9 There was mercy in this for it impressed those who had the humility & wisdom to think and act. Cp Exod.10:1

CHAPTER 12.

1 The beginning of the year is changed. 3 The passover is instituted. 11 The rite of the passover. 15 Unleavened bread. 29 The firstborn are slain. 31 The Israelites are driven out of the land.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 (10) This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you. 2 See below

3 ¶ Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a [t] lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a [t] lamb for an house: Ecclesia Thessal-2 Heb 3:6

THE TENTH DAY

J.B. Segal in "The Hebrew Passover" p.143 suggests that the Hebrews "regarded the first nine days of the spring and autumn months as days of uncertainty. If the heliacal (emerging from the light of the sun) rising of a fixed star had not taken place before the 10th day, then it was necessary to intercalate a month. It was only on the tenth day of the spring month - and not sooner - that it was known whether it was permissible to begin preparations for the Passover."

Who Kept The Passover (cont.)

- Thus all males, as representative of the whole nation were expected to keep it Exod.23:17.
- The QÂHÂL was summoned for both military and religious duties. Military - Num.22:4 (Company) Jud.20:2; 21:5, 8. 1 Sam.17:47. Religious - Deut.5:19, 9:10. 2 Chron.20:15, 30:25. For the Ecclesia as a fighting unit. See Num.1. Note.
- Israel marched out of Egypt as an army Exod.12:51 and springtime (Passover -or deliverance) became the recognised time of war. 2 Sam.11:1. 1 Kg.20:22. 1 Chr.20:1.
- It was obligatory for Israel to register for such. Num.1:2.

90 THE TIME FACTOR IN RELATION TO THE PASSOVER.

- "The beginning of months": The spring equinox pointing to creation or resurrection - a new beginning Rom.6:4.
- "Tenth day." 5X2. Grace for Jew and Gentile
- "Fourteenth day." 7X2 Grace through acceptance of the covenant. Lamb slain
- "Fifteenth day." 5X3. Grace completed through action.

Compare with festivals when harvest gathered in:

- Seventh month: The Autumn equinox. Blowing of trumpets Lev.23:24. Beginning political year.
- Tenth day. Day of Atonement Lev.23:27.
- Fifteenth day. Harvest brought in - Feast Tabernacles. The Passover deliverance consummated.

11 ¶ And thus shall ye eat it; with your loins girded, [22] your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; [23] and ye shall eat it in haste: [n] it is the LORD's passover. PESACH - Exemption.

12 For I [o] will pass through the land of Egypt [p] this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: [p] I am the LORD.

13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you [7] to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And [p] this day shall be unto you [u] for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast [b] by an ordinance [24] for ever.

15 [c] Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; [31] even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, [c] that soul shall be cut off from Israel. [34]

16 And in the first day there shall be [s] an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you; no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every [t] man must eat, that only may be done of you.

17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for [r] in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe [p] this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.

18 ¶ In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a [6] lamb [q] according to your families, and kill the passover.

22 And ye shall take a bunch of [r] hyssop, and [s] dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike [t] the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the bason; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning. [43]

28 PASACH - The root of PESACH, Sig "to spare," and "pass over." Both ideas expressed. LXX "protect."

29 Not merely a recalling of the mind but an awakening of the mind. See Notes 1 Cor 11:24 See above Cp p.100.

30 CHUQQAH (Khook-kaw) from. of CHOQ a signifying the same, i.e. an ordinance.

4 THE FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD. VV. 15-17

31. Cp Mt. 16:6-12. 1 Cor. 5:7.

32 The Day of Preparation when the Passover was killed. Cp Luke 22:1. The killing was preceded by the removal of leaven. This Jesus attended to remove leaven from the minds of the Apostles. Individually Dt. 3:23-24 Ecclesially 1 Cor. 5:6-7.

33 Excommunicated.

34 Necessities provided for

35 A calling together. This was on the 15th & 22nd of Abib Commemorative of calling together to leave Egypt. Heb. MIQRA' = To call out, hence similar to Ecclesia.

37 They left the Land of Sin and Death. They left by night. Deut 16:1 See top p. 98.

5 WHEN IT WAS TO BE KEPT VV. 18-20

38 The 14th Abib was the Day of Preparation & all leaven was excluded. On this day Jude was excluded from the Apostles. Ref. to Day Preparation. Mt. 27:62 Mk 15:42. Lk 23:54. Jn 19:14, 31.

39 GER - the resident alien. Thus in this case, a proselyte.

40 Even though not resident in the Land. To participate, however, he must be circumcised Cp Gen 17:23

42 From the flock.

The hyssop is an aspergillum & was used in this way because it does not allow the blood to coagulate. The Hebrew Papyrus. Jas. Segal.

A small bushy plant growing about 1½ ft high. The leaves have an aromatic smell and a pungent flavor. It was used for medicinal qualities. Used sacrificially for cleansing leper Lev 14:4, 6, 49-52. In conjunction with red heifer for cleansing of defilement of death. Num. 19:6, 18. See also Ps. 51:7. Jn 19:29. Heb 9:19.

The hyssop has been identified as the caper plant (Stanley - Sinai & Palestine p.31) which abounds especially in the desert or in difficult circumstances 1 Kg 4:33. It was generally low & insignificant. It thus suggests humility and faith in action - for it grew in, forth it had to be used. And the became a cleansing agent Ps. 51:7. Others = marjoram.

43 This is in the subsequent celebrations — they actually left at night Deut 16:1. See top p. 95.

EXODUS 12.

The firstborn slain.

The Israelites are

23 For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon [b] the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.

25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, [d] according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

26 And it shall come to pass, [f] when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service?

27 That ye shall say, [h] It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people [i] bowed the head and worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went away, and did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, that [o] at midnight [p] the LORD smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, [q] from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the [4] dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a [o] great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 ¶ And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, [u] both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.

32 [a] Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also.

33 [c] And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their [2] kneadingtroughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they [o] borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment:

36 [g] And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required. And [3] they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 ¶ And [k] the children of Israel journeyed from [m] Rameses to Succoth, about [n] six hundred thousand on foot that were men, beside children.

38 And [3] a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattle.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because [r] they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

40 ¶ Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was [v] four hundred and thirty years.

41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, even the selfsame day it came to pass, that all [x] the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is [6] a night to be much observed unto the LORD for

"YE SHALL SPOIL THE EGYPTIANS" V.36 Ch. 3:22.

"NÂTSAL" - To snatch away. Rend. "save." "Spoil" is an incorrect, not impossible rendering of the Heb. text. The root nâtsal .... occurs 212 times in Scripture & 210 instances its meaning is admitted by all to be to snatch (from danger), to rescue (from a wild beast), to recover (property). .... Its direct object is never the person or thing from whom the saving, or the rescuing, or the snatching has taken place, but always the person or thing rescued. The usual translation, both here and in Ch. 3:22.., is therefore unwarranted, for two reasons. It takes the persons from whom the things are snatched as the direct object; and furthermore, it necessitates an entire reversal of the meaning of nâtsal from save into despoil." - The Soncino Edition of Pentateuch.

The same word is rendered "deliver" in Isa. 19:20

The readiness with which the people responded illustrated that they 92 did not endorse the policy of Pharaoh & his courtiers and saved them from the disaster that overcame his army ultimately & which would have involved the nation if it had continued to resist - as the people feared V.33.

THE NIGHT

THE 430 YEARS EXOD. 12:40.

The statement does not claim that they were in Egypt for that period but that they sojourned for 430 and during that time dwelt in Egypt. Paul states that it reached back to Abram's call Gal. 3:17. It is 30 years longer than Gen. 15:13 because it includes the sojourning of Abram himself.
Abram entered Land 2084. X 430 = 2513. See opp. p. 17.

THE TORAH (Law Ch. 12:49)

This is the first occurrence of this word (see significance of below). It provided a guide to right conduct, it illustrated the reality of sin Rom. 7:13. it made manifest the weakness of flesh Rom. 8:3, and it demonstrated the need of a Redeemer - thus leading to Christ Gal. 3:24.

44 But every man's servant that is [67]bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 [e] A foreigner[66] and an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

2 BEKOWR - Masc. firstborn. As the Passover serves to remind Israelites of the great Redemption, so also does the sanctification of every male firstborn in the homes so blessed. The rite is still remembered in the ceremony of PIDYON HABEN - "Redeeming the Son" conducted on the 31st day of the child's birth. Firstborn Israelites keep this Abib as a fast.

But it was anticipated that they would be in the land for the next Passover Deut. 11:2. and they would there keep it at the place indicated Deut. 16:5-6. Israelites do not keep the true Passover today but will do so in the future when Temple restored Ezek. 45:21.

Note the variation in the significance of the word SHIMMUR in this Verse. If first has the meaning of vigil then of observance: first to watch then to see that we do. This is our night of SHIMMURIM.

BY THEIR ARMIES. CH. 12:51.

The Passover was thus both a religious and military occasion. It was in the Spring near Passover, that armies were mustered for war (see bottom p. 90.)

The Ecclesia likewise is organised for religious and military purposes. 2 Tim. 2:3-4.

12 [a] That thou shalt [2] set apart unto the LORD all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast which thou hast; the males shall be the LORD's.

13 And [c] every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children [e] shalt thou redeem.

14 ¶ [f] And it shall be when thy son asketh thee [4] in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, [g] By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of [5] bondage:

15 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that [h] the LORD slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem.

16 And it shall be for [m] a token upon thine hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, Lest peradventure the people [r] repent when they see war, and they return to Egypt:

18 But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red sea: and the children of Israel went up [6] harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, [u] God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 ¶ And [b] they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness.

21 And [d] the LORD went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night:

22 He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, [i] that they turn and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between [k] Migdol and the sea, over against Baal-zephon: before it shall ye encamp by the sea.

3 For Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are [l] entangled in the land, the wilderness hath shut them in.

4 And [o] I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them; and I [p] will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; [q] that the Egyptians may know that I am the LORD. And they did so.

12 CHAMOWR - Red. from CHÂMAR - To boil, ferment, glow. See Note top page 214. 21. Apparently the Ass was the only unclean animal used by Israel at the time Cp Exod. 20:17. Cp Num. 18:15.

13 PÂDÂH - To sever, i.e. ransom gen. to release, preserve. Contrast Exod 6:6.

14 Israel was stiff necked Exod. 32:9. 33:3,5. Deut. 9:6,13. 10:16. They hardened their neck Deut. 31:27. 2 Chron. 36:13 Neh. 9:29. Ps 78:8.

19 It is the custom of the Jews to write that entire passage Exod. 13:1-16 on two of the four strips of parchment contained in the Tephillin (prayer-phylactery). The others have inscribed on them Deut. 6:4-9, Deut. 11:13-21.

20 See Map. opp. p. 234. See note on Philistines p. 352. They were a strongly intrenched and warlike people.

21 Evidence of His thoughtful mercy.

22 NÂCHAH - To guide

23 CÂBAB - To revolve, surround. Thus "took them into circuit."

24 This brought them hardship from the rigours of the desert, but trained them in discipline and hardened them to war.

12 Roth: "With warriors in every one." Following Gesenius.

13 Roth: "let the heart of Pharaoh King of Egypt wax bold."

14 Confidently and boldly - not as fugitives, but as men in the exercise of their just rights. Perhaps with a certain amount of ostentation which needed to be humbled.

15 The charioteers.

16 The warriors.

18 There was no one else to turn to. But their cry was not one of faith.

19 After all that had been done this was a most faithless accusation as well as being most cowardly. It contrasts sharply with the attitude of Joseph. Gen. 50:24-26.

23 This was Moses' faith though he did not know how it would be brought about.

24 TSÂ'AQ - To shriek, Moses turned with urgency of prayer to Yahweh. In the face of the threatening future, he also needed the strength & consolation of prayer. Even Moses seemed to have become unduly anxious.

7 And he took [a]six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over every one of them.

8 And the LORD [b]hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel: and [d]the children of Israel went out with an high hand.

9 But the Egyptians pursued after them, all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, before Baal-zephon.

10 ¶ And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and, behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel [i]cried out unto the LORD.

11 [k]And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

12 [m]Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness.

13 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, [q]Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will shew to you to day: [2]for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever.

14 [t]The LORD shall fight for you, and ye shall [u]hold your peace.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward:

16 But [v]lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go on dry ground through the midst of the sea.

17 And I, behold, I will [c]harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will [e]get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

18 And the Egyptians [g]shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

19 ¶ And [h]the angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them:

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night to these: so that the one came not near the other all the night.

21 And Moses [w]stretched out his hand over the sea; and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all that night, and [x]made the sea [p]dry land, and the waters were [r]divided.

22 And [s]the children of Israel went into the midst of the sea upon the dry ground: and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

23 ¶ And the Egyptians pursued, and went in after them to the midst of the sea, even all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen.

"HE IS GLORIOUSLY GLORIFIED" V.1 This is the theme or refrain of Moses' song. It commemorates the deliverance from the slavery of Egypt - the land of sin. To go into Egypt is always described as going "down" - as a mark of deterioration Gen. 12:9-10. Isa. 30:2. 31:1. The final snapping of the Egyptian chains of slavery was thus effected by a national baptism Rom. 6:3-4 17-18. and a remarkable outpouring of power that foreshadowed the victory of Heb. 2:14 and Rev. 15:2. All saints can thrill to the joyous victories thus suggested. • See the Song reproduced in relation to the Second Exodus. Isa. 12. Ps. 118 111. Isa. 12. was appropriated by Jesus to himself. Jn. 7:37-39. • The whole world was startled by this amazing manifestation of power Josh. 2:9-10. Jer. 32:20 which revealed the two fold aspect of the Name of Yahweh. Rom. 11:22. Exod. 34:5-7.

34 The Psalmist speaks of earthquake, storm, tempest and pelting rain Ps. 77:16-18.

of fire and of the cloud, and troubled the host of the Egyptians, 35 34

25 And took off their chariot wheels, (2) that they drave them heavily: so that the Egyptians said, Let us flee from the face of Israel; for the LORD [c] fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

26 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, [h] Stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen.

27 [m] And Moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea [o] returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; [q] and the LORD [s] overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And [@] the waters returned, 38 and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as [z] one of them.

29 But [v] the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left. 39

30 Thus the LORD [b] saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore. 40

31 And Israel saw that great [5] work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD, and [6] believed the LORD, and his servant Moses.

THE SONG: "Such is the song of Moses, admirable for the boldness of its imagery, the sublimity of its sentiments, & the dignity of its style, which was sung by the Hebrew people standing upon the shore of Edom's sea. They were now a people saved by Yahweh - a national salvation coeval with the signal overthrow of their enemies, & the destruction of their power. They had just put on Moses, having been all baptised in him in the cloud & in the sea 1 Cor. 10:2. They now constituted the One Body of Moses & the Firstborn Son of Yahweh Exod. 4:22 Zech. 3:2 Heb. 9: and when they arrived at Sinai, 50 days after the institution of the Passover they became the Kingdom of the Deity Exod. 19:5,6,8. CHAPTER 15 — 4 MOSES' TRIUMPHANT SONG OF DELIVERANCE Vv. 1-21.

It begins with Redemption and ends with Glory but those who sung it never entered the land with few exceptions. Cp v 24. 1 Cor. 10:12.

1 THE CAUSE OF THE SONG 1-3.

1 There was no singing in Egypt - only sighing & groaning Exod. 2:23-24.

2 Foreshadowing the "new song" (or song with renewed meaning See Note Ps 33:3.) to be sung in the future when the full significance of this song is appreciated Ps 33:1-7. Cp Ps 98. 149. Rev. 14:3.

27 The victory elevated Yahweh in the sight of Israel and of Egypt. Cp Exod 7:5. 14:4, 8 Cp also Ezek. 38:23.

28 The three principles in which Yahweh is supreme as illustrated by the victory are His status, the praise due to His Name + the performance of works. His status of holiness or separateness in position + character is the theme of Leviticus. Lev. 19:2.

29 He is to be revered in praise + not reduced to common familiarity. We must ever elevate + respect Him in praise.

30 Thus giving concrete evidence of His power.

31 Earthquake was felt at this time, though many bodies were thrown up on the shore Exod 15:31. For earthquake see Ps 77:14-20. There was also earthquake at the resurrection of Christ Mt 28:2. As there will be at Armageddon. Ezek 38:19.

32 As a Shepherd Ps 80:1 77:20 78:52 Isa 63:11-14
Here is a manifestation of loving-kindness or grace in the midst of wrath and punishment against Egypt illustrating the character of Yahweh. Exod. 34:6-7. Israel was led forth in mercy, redeemed in grace, guided by strength.

33 Cp Exod. 6:6. Ps 77:15 Heb. goal – to purchase. Cp. Isa. 51:11. At this point Moses becomes predictive even of the people he led.

THE GOD OF SALVATION

This title frequently occurs throughout Scripture. It is associated mainly with two related Hebrew words translated salvation.

THE DELIVERANCE DRAMATISED THE NAME 14:31

Rom. 11:22 Behold the Goodness and the Severity of God.

• See for Israel: Mercy, Grace, Longsuffering etc. Exod 34:6.

• See for Egypt: By no means clearing the guilty. Exod. 34:7.

Israel saw in this deliverance the vindication of the Name. Exod 15:3. Jer. 32:20. Isa. 52:12. Cp Ezek 20:9, 14, 22. Cp Exod. 10:2

YAHWEH'S PASSOVER. Exod. 12:11.

"Pesach" occurs 56 times in O.T., 49 of which relate to the festival + therefore provide no proper guidance to the significance of the name. It is derived from the verb PASACH rendered "pass over" in Exod 12:13, but actually having the meaning of "to spare." It is rendered in LXX as "protect" in the sense of overshadowing. The use of the word elsewhere in O.T. indicates that its true meaning is "to hover over, stay over, protect, abide over." Therefore, instead of "pass over" it would be more correct to render as "remain over." In 1 Kings 18:21, 26 the word is rendered "halt" and "leaped." It is applied to Israelites who "halted" "wavered" or "hovered" between two opinions and to pagan priests who "hovered" anxiously over their altar – not "leaped over" it as the AV. In 2 Sam. 4:4 the word is rendered "lame." In fact Mephibosheth began to limp, and his swaying motion suggested the hovering of a bird over its young – hence the use of the word in this place. Thus the verb "passing over" should be rendered "hovering over" cf Isa. 31:5 Cp Mat. 23:37-39.

The Passover is the feast of the hovering over of Yahweh. It commemorates the reality of His presence. "I will hover over to protect you" Exod. 12:13. "Yahweh will hover over the door" Exod. 12:23. "Yahweh hovered over to protect..." Exod 12:27. the angel bearing the name Yahweh did not pass over the houses of Israelites but hovered over them to protect them whilst the Angel of Death did his dread work in Egypt. The Passover is the festival of the Hover-over or Abiding Presence of Yahweh to protect + deliver.

THE BITTER TURNED TO SWEET.

Life's journey is studded with bitterness that Yahweh alone is capable of making sweet - and that through "the tree" (the crucifixion of self). ● Israel had experienced bitterness Exod 1:14 in Egypt. ● Naomi did so when she wandered from the house of bread Ruth 1: 21 ● Hannah was in bitterness through persecution and she had no son 1 Sam. 1:6-10. ● Job found bitterness through his sufferings Job 7:11. 9:18. 10:1. ● The Psalmist experience bitterness through the mocking voice of folly. THE WILDERNESS OF SIN (Cont.)

See opp.

The Wady Markhah extends along the seashore, until it merges into the great plain of El Kaa. This leads to a magnificent pass, wild, narrow, and winding; each turn revealing aspects of grandeur and desolation strangely impressive. At the end of the ravine, a majestic dark mass of mountain rises as a haggard precipice from the plain; and across its scarred front are broad bands of brightest colors. The plain widens at this part into a recess on one side at its base, and here are small pyramidal hills of the same dark color, flanked by ridges of the white sandstone. These are so unique as to give the feeling that they have never previously been seen.

The pass led into Wady Shellal, memorable for its inexpressible confusion of blasted hills of all shapes and colors. Ascending another pass we looked back over a [redacted] tumultuous sea of hills of all colors, red, white, green and black. The approach [redacted] is along a defile hemmed in by high precipitous granite cliffs over 1000 feet. (From Horeb and Jerusalem - G. Sandie).

The Israelites would have found water throughout El-Kas, the wilderness of Sin along the coast, but as they toiled up the mountain range to Rephidim they became "faint and weary" Deut. 25:18

18 [a] The LORD shall reign for ever and ever.

19 For the [y] horse of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and [c] the LORD brought again the waters of the sea upon them; but the children of Israel went on dry land in the midst of the sea.

20 ¶ And Miriam [e] the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a timbrel in her hand; and all the women went out after her [h] with timbrels and [i] with dances.

21 And Miriam [k] answered them, Sing ye to the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

22 So Moses brought Israel from the Red sea, and they went out into the wilderness of [n] Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water.

23 ¶ And when they came to Marah, they could not drink of the waters of Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of it was called [2] Marah.

24 And the people [e] murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drink?

25 And he [p] cried unto the LORD; and the LORD shewed him a tree, [k] which when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweet: there he [m] made for them a statute and an ordinance, and there he proved them,

26 And said, [q] If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these [u] diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD [v] that healeth thee.

27 ¶ [z] And they came to Elim, where were twelve wells of water, and threescore and ten palm trees: and they encamped there by the waters.

AND they [d] took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came unto the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel [m] murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness:

1 And they took their journey from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink.

2 Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye tempt the LORD?

3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?

4 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, What shall I do unto this people? they be almost ready to stone me.

5 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel; and thy rod, wherewith thou smotest the river, take in thine hand, and go.

6 Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

8 Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim.

9 And Moses said unto Joshua, Choose us out men, and go out, fight with Amalek: to morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the rod of God in mine hand.

10 So Joshua did as Moses had said to him, and fought with Amalek: and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to pass, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed: and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed.

12 But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat thereon; and Aaron and Hur stayed up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the sun.

13 And Joshua discomfited Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: for I will utterly put out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven.

15 And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it Jehovah-nissi:

16 For he said, Because the LORD hath sworn that the LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.

1 When Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father in law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt;

2 Then Jethro, Moses' father in law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, after he had sent her back,

3 And her two sons; of which the name of the one was Gershom; for he said, I have been an alien in a strange land:

4 And the name of the other was Eliezer; for the God of my father, said he, was mine help, and delivered me from the sword of Pharaoh:

5 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, came with his sons and his wife unto Moses into the wilderness, where he encamped at the mount of God:

6 And he said unto Moses, I your father in law Jethro am come unto you and your wife, and her two sons with her.

7 And Moses went out to meet his father in law, and did obeisance, and kissed him; and they asked each other of their welfare; and they came into the tent.

8 And Moses told his father in law all that the LORD had done unto Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, and all the travail that had come upon them by the way, and how the LORD delivered them.

9 And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods: for in the thing wherein they dealt proudly he was above them.

12 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law before God.

13 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even?

15 And Moses said unto his father in law, Because the people come unto me to inquire of God:

16 When they have a matter, they come unto me; and I judge between one and another, and I do make them know the statutes of God, and his laws.

17 And Moses' father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good.

18 Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee; thou art not able to perform it thyself alone.

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou for the people to God-ward, that thou mayest bring the causes unto God:

20 And thou shalt teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt show them the way wherein they must walk, and the work that they must do.

21 Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens:

22 And let them judge the people at all seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall bear the burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 And Moses let his father in law depart; and he went his way into his own land.

1 In the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day they came into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before the mount.

3 And Moses went up unto God, and the LORD called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel;

4 Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine:

6 And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and an holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 And all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

10 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to day and to morrow, and let them wash their clothes,

11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death:

13 There shall not a hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

14 And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not at your wives.

16 And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled.

17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly.

19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice.

20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount; and Moses went up.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish.

22 And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, sanctify themselves, lest the LORD break forth upon them.

23 And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou chargedst us, saying, Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it.

24 And the LORD said unto him, Away, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest he break forth upon them.

25 So Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

1 And God spake all these words, saying,

2 I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

3 Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

5 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

6 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

7 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

8 Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

9 Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work:

10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

11 For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

12 Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

13 Thou shalt not kill.

14 Thou shalt not commit adultery.

15 Thou shalt not steal.

16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

17 Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's.

18 And all the people saw the thunderings, and the lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off.

19 And they said unto Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but let not God speak with us, lest we die.

20 And Moses said unto the people, Fear not: for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before your faces, that ye sin not.

21 And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near unto the thick darkness where God was.

22 And the LORD said unto Moses, Thus thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, Ye have seen that I have talked with you from heaven.

23 Ye shall not make with me gods of silver, neither shall ye make unto you gods of gold.

24 An altar of earth thou shalt make unto me, and shalt sacrifice thereon thy burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheep, and thine oxen: in all places where I record my name I will come unto thee, and I will bless thee.

25 And if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not build it of hewn stone: for if thou lift up thy tool upon it, thou hast polluted it.

26 Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon.

1 Now these are the judgments which thou shalt set before them.

2 If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3 If he came in by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he were married, then his wife shall go out with him.

4 If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5 And if the servant shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free:

6 Then his master shall bring him unto the judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl; and he shall serve him for ever.

7 And if a man sell his daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out as the menservants do.

8 If she please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.

9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters.

10 If he take him another wife; her food, her raiment, and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish.

11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money, and without price.

12 He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death.

13 And if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

15 And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

16 And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

17 And he that curseth his father, or his mother, shall surely be put to death.

18 And if men strive together, and one smite another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but keepeth his bed:

19 If he rise again, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that smote him be quit: only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall cause him to be thoroughly healed.

20 And if a man smite his servant, or his maid, with a rod, and he die under his hand; he shall surely be punished.

21 Notwithstanding, if he continue a day or two, he shall not be punished: for he is his money.

22 If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow: he shall surely be punished, according as the woman's husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges determine.

23 And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give life for life,

24 Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.

26 And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye's sake.

27 And if he smite out his manservant's tooth, or his maidservant's tooth; he shall let him go free for his tooth's sake.

28 If an ox gore a man or a woman, that they die: then the ox shall surely be stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be quit.

29 But if the ox were wont to push with his horn in time past, and it hath been testified to his owner, and he hath not kept him in, but that he hath killed a man or a woman; the ox shall be stoned, and his owner also shall be put to death.

30 If there be laid on him a sum of money, then he shall give for the ransom of his life whatsoever is laid upon him.

31 Whether he have gored a son, or have gored a daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done unto him.

32 If the ox shall push a manservant or a maidservant; he shall give unto their master thirty shekels of silver, and the ox shall be stoned.

33 And if a man shall open a pit, or if a man shall dig a pit, and not cover it, and an ox or an ass fall therein;

34 The owner of the pit shall make it good, and give money unto the owner of them; and the dead beast shall be his.

35 And if one man's ox hurt another's, that he die; then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money of it; and the dead ox also they shall divide.

36 Or if it be known that the ox hath used to push in time past, and his owner hath not kept him in; he shall surely pay ox for ox; and the dead shall be his own.

1 If a man shall steal an ox, or a sheep, and kill it, or sell it; he shall restore five oxen for an ox, and four sheep for a sheep.

2 If a thief be found breaking up, and be smitten that he die, there shall no blood be shed for him.

3 If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft.

4 If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall restore double.

5 If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, shall he make restitution.

6 If fire break out, and catch in thorns, so that the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field, be consumed therewith; he that kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

7 If a man shall deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him pay double.

8 If the thief be not found, then the master of the house shall be brought unto the judges, to see whether he have put his hand unto his neighbour's goods.

9 For all manner of trespass, whether it be for ox, for ass, for sheep, for raiment, or for any manner of lost thing, which another challengeth to be his, the cause of both parties shall come before the judges; and whom the judges shall condemn, he shall pay double unto his neighbour.

10 If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep, or any beast, to keep;

11 And it die, or be hurt, or driven away, no man seeing it:

12 Then shall an oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept thereof, and he shall not make it good.

13 And if he steal it from him, he shall make restitution unto the owner thereof.

14 If he borrow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, the owner thereof being not with it, he shall surely make it good.

15 But if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make it good: if it be an hired thing, it came for his hire.

16 And if a man entice a maid that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall surely endow her to be his wife.

17 If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall pay money according to the dowry of virgins.

18 Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live.

19 Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death.

20 He that sacrificeth unto any god, save unto the LORD only, he shall be utterly destroyed.

21 Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

22 Ye shall not afflict any widow, or fatherless child.

23 If thou afflict them in any wise, and they cry at all unto me, I will surely hear their cry;

24 And my wrath shall wax hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

25 If thou lend money to any of my people that is poor by thee, thou shalt not be to him as an usurer, neither shalt thou lay upon him usury.

26 If thou at all take thy neighbour's raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliver it unto him by that the sun goeth down:

27 For that is his covering only, it is his raiment for his skin: wherein shall he sleep? and it shall come to pass, when he crieth unto me, that I will hear; for I am gracious.

28 Thou shalt not revile the gods, nor curse the ruler of thy people.

29 Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give unto me.

30 Likewise shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheep: seven days it shall be with his dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give it me.

31 And ye shall be holy men unto me: neither shall ye eat any flesh that is torn of beasts in the field; ye shall cast it to the dogs.

1 Thou shalt not raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an unrighteous witness.

2 Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest judgment:

3 Neither shalt thou countenance a poor man in his cause.

4 If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.

5 If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him.

6 Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause.

7 Keep thee far from a false matter; and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the wicked.

8 And thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

9 Also thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

10 And six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof:

11 But the seventh year thou shalt let it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy oliveyard.

12 Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed.

13 And in all things that I have said unto you be circumspect: and make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

14 Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year.

15 Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: and none shall appear before me empty:)

16 And the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field: and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

17 Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord GOD.

18 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my sacrifice remain until the morning.

19 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

20 Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, provoke him not; for he will not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him.

22 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and an adversary unto thine adversaries.

23 For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off.

24 Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their works: but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, and quite break down their images.

25 And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee.

26 There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will fulfil.

27 I will send my fear before thee, and will destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their backs unto thee.

28 And I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee.

29 I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.

30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land.

31 And I will set thy bounds from the Red sea even unto the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert unto the river: for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee.

32 Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.

33 They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee.

1 And he said unto Moses, Come up unto the LORD, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off.

2 And Moses alone shall come near the LORD: but they shall not come nigh; neither shall the people go up with him.

3 And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words which the LORD hath said will we do.

4 And Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt offerings, and sacrificed peace offerings of oxen unto the LORD.

6 And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the LORD hath said will we do, and be obedient.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words.

9 Then went up Moses, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel:

10 And they saw the God of Israel: and there was under his feet as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they saw God, and did eat and drink.

12 And the LORD said unto Moses, Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law, and commandments which I have written; that thou mayest teach them.

13 And Moses rose up, and his minister Joshua: and Moses went up into the mount of God.

14 And he said unto the elders, Tarry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and, behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

15 And Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount.

16 And the glory of the LORD abode upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the LORD was like devouring fire on the top of the mount in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount forty days and forty nights.

1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring me an offering: of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my offering.

3 And this is the offering which ye shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass,

4 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

5 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

6 Oil for the light, spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense,

7 Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod, and in the breastplate.

8 And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them.

9 According to all that I shew thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it.

10 And they shall make an ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a crown of gold round about.

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners thereof; and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

13 And thou shalt make staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.

15 The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it.

16 And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony which I shall give unto thee.

17 And thou shalt make a mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

18 And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold, of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy seat.

19 And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: even of the mercy seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof.

20 And the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; toward the mercy seat shall the faces of the cherubims be.

21 And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark; and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

22 And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

23 Thou shalt also make a table of shittim wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereunto a crown of gold round about.

25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.

26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof.

27 Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table.

28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.

29 And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, to cover withal, of pure gold shalt thou make them.

30 And thou shalt set upon the table shewbread before me always.

31 And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work shall the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers, shall be of the same:

32 And six branches shall come out of the sides thereof; three branches of the candlestick out of one side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side thereof:

33 Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the candlestick.

34 And in the candlestick shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers.

35 And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick.

36 Their knops and their branches shall be of the same: all it shall be one beaten work of pure gold.

37 And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof: and they shall light the lamps thereof, that they may give light over against it.

38 And the tongs thereof, and the snuffdishes thereof, shall be of pure gold.

39 Of a talent of pure gold shall he make it, with all these vessels.

40 And look that thou make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount.

1 Moreover thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work shalt thou make them.

2 The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 The five curtains shall be coupled one unto another; and other five curtains shall be coupled one unto another.

4 And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling, and likewise thou shalt make in the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second; that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And thou shalt make fifty taches of gold, and couple the curtains together with the taches: and it shall be one tabernacle.

7 And thou shalt make curtains of goats' hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make.

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which coupleth with the second.

11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and put the taches into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the backside of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 And thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

15 And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing up.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board.

17 Two tenons shall there be in one board, set in order one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward.

19 And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty boards:

21 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward thou shalt make six boards.

23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

24 And they shall be coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it unto one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two corners.

25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

26 And thou shalt make bars of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,

27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides westward.

28 And the middle bar in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end.

29 And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold.

30 And thou shalt rear up the tabernacle according to the fashion thereof which was shewed thee in the mount.

31 And thou shalt make a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubims shall it be made:

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold, upon the four sockets of silver.

33 And thou shalt hang up the vail under the taches, that thou may bring in thither within the vail the ark of the testimony: and the vail shall divide unto you between the holy place and the most holy.

34 And thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.

35 And thou shalt set the table without the vail, and the candlestick over against the table on the side of the tabernacle toward the south: and thou shalt put the table on the north side.

36 And thou shalt make an hanging for the door of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework.

37 And thou shalt make for the hanging five pillars of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, and their hooks shall be of gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them.

1 And thou shalt make an altar of shittim wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare: and the height thereof shall be three cubits.

2 And thou shalt make the horns of it upon the four corners thereof: his horns shall be of the same: and thou shalt overlay it with brass.

3 And thou shalt make his pans to receive his ashes, and his shovels, and his basons, and his fleshhooks, and his firepans: all the vessels thereof thou shalt make of brass.

4 And thou shalt make for it a grate of network of brass; and upon the net shalt thou make four brasen rings in the four corners thereof.

5 And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midst of the altar.

6 And thou shalt make staves for the altar, staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with brass.

7 And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the altar, to bear it.

8 Hollow with boards shalt thou make it: as it was shewed thee in the mount, so shall they make it.

9 And thou shalt make the court of the tabernacle: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of an hundred cubits long for one side:

10 And the twenty pillars thereof and their twenty sockets shall be of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver.

11 And likewise for the north side in length there shall be hangings of an hundred cubits long, and his twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

12 And for the breadth of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits: their pillars ten, and their sockets ten.

13 And the breadth of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And on the other side shall be hangings fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 And for the gate of the court shall be a hanging of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework: and their pillars four, and their sockets four.

17 All the pillars round about the court shall be filleted with silver; their hooks shall be of silver, and their sockets of brass.

18 The length of the court shall be an hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty every where, and the height five cubits of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass.

19 All the vessels of the tabernacle in all the service thereof, and all the pins thereof, and all the pins of the court, shall be of brass.

20 And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamps to burn always.

21 In the tabernacle of the congregation without the vail, which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the LORD: it shall be a statute for ever unto their generations on the behalf of the children of Israel.

1 And take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons.

2 And thou shalt make holy garments for A

THE SABBATH REST V.23.

If the translation were correct the previous institution of the sabbath + the knowledge of it by the Israelites could be argued. But there is no definite article in the Hebrew: "that (is) what spoke Yahweh: A festival of rest, a rest of holiness to Yahweh (is) tomorrow . . ." (A New Old Testament-Interlinear). See below

THE MANNA was not the natural product of a desert plant, but was miraculously supplied. It was not known before or after Neh. 9:13,16; Josh. 5:12. It was rained down from heaven Ps. 78:24; John 6:31-32. It appeared only on 6 days not the 7th Exod. 16:24-27. Jesus taught that it came from heaven + not from Moses John 6:31-32 + to this Moses agreed Exod. 16:6,8, 12, 15.

40 They wanted to know what to do with the additional omer.

twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses. 40

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To-morrow is [b] the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade: and it did not [f] stink, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to day; for to day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man [k] in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day. 43

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof [l] Manna: and [o] it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey. 46 Another Miracle

32 ¶ And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, [g] Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up [c] before the Testimony, to be kept.

35 And the children of Israel did eat manna [d] forty years, [e] until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan.

36 Now an omer is [p] the tenth part of an ephah.

46A According to 2 Maccabees 2:8 the Ark + Altar of Incense etc were hidden in a cave [illegible] which later could not be found. Jeremiah declared it would be undiscovered until the latter-day restoration.

THE SABBATH (Cont. see above).

This is the first mention of a sabbath for man in Scripture though God rested on the seventh day of creation. Gen. 2:2. The word sabbath is used 76 times in the singular + 35 times in the plural in the O.T + 60 times in the singular in the New. The word is Shabbath meaning rest from Shabath to repose. Sabbaths were appointed for the 1st day Lev. 23:39, 7th day Exod. 20:8, on the 8th day Lev. 25:39. There were sabbaths of different lengths - a day; Exod. 16:23-29 a year Lev. 25:4. 70 years 2 Chr. 36:21. See summary in Index.

46 Though manna was their main food, it was occasionally relieved by other food V. 12 Num. 9:1-14. Whatever animals may have been brought from Egypt would soon be reduced in supplying flesh for so many people. They had already been travelling a month. Cp. Exod. 12:38. Those herds now depleted. Cp Exod. 17:3.

47 Not the Ark but the Tables of the Law. The pot of manna was laid up inside the Ark before the two tables of stone Heb. 9:4.

JETHRO'S VISIT. This chapter is parenthetical, & historically should be placed between Num. 10:10-11. Because (1) Israel was not yet camped at Horeb 19:1-2, but when Jethro visited Moses they were already there 18:5. (2) According to Moses' own account, he complained of the heaviness of the responsibilities with the people as they were about to leave Horeb Deut. 1:9-18. This complaint was the outcome of talks with Jethro Num. 11:10-11. see below

EXODUS 18.

Jethro's counsel to Moses.

9 And Jethro [a] rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, whom he had delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians.

10 And Jethro said, [c] Blessed be the LORD, who hath delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh, who hath delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the LORD is [m] greater than all gods: [n] for in the thing wherein they [n] dealt proudly he was above them.

12 And Jethro, Moses' father in law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God: and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father in law [x] before God.

13 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people: and the people stood by Moses from the morning unto the evening.

14 And when Moses' father in law saw all that he did to the people, he said, What is this thing that thou doest to the people? why sittest thou thyself alone, and all the people stand by thee from morning unto even?

15 And Moses said unto his father in law, Because [z] the people come unto me to enquire of God:

16 When they have [a] a matter, they come unto me; and I judge between [2] one and another, and I do [b] make them know the statutes of God, and his laws.

17 And Moses' father in law said unto him, The thing that thou doest is not good.

18 ③ Thou wilt surely wear away, both thou, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is too heavy for thee; [e] thou art not able to perform it thyself alone.

19 Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee: Be thou [c] for the people to Godward, that thou mayest [d] bring the causes unto God:

20 And thou shalt [f] teach them ordinances and laws, and shalt shew them [g] the way wherein they must walk, and [h] the work that they must do.

21 Moreover thou shalt provide out of all the people [i] able men, such as [k] fear God, men of truth, [l] hating covetousness; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, and rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens:

22 And let them judge the people [q] at all seasons: and it shall be, that every great matter they shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge: so shall it be easier for thyself, and they shall bear [t] the burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee so, then thou shalt be [u] able to endure, and all this people shall also go to [x] their place in peace.

24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

25 And [y] Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people [c] at all seasons: the hard causes they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 ¶ And Moses let his father in law depart; and [d] he went his way into his own land.

Exod. 18:13-26 (5) The visit was after the Laws had been given 18:16, 19:20 Evidently Moses decided to record these details regarding the family before recording the lengthy details of the law and Tabernacle that follow in Chapters 20 ff.

"THEY MUST DO" V 20. - One word in Hebrew YA'ASUN from 'ASAH - to do. The addition of the NUN ן at the end of the word is a letter of emphasis - thus "must" do. It takes the obligation of doing from Moses on to the people, as much as to say they are the ones who should be doing it & you should insist upon them doing so.

"ISRAEL CAMPED BEFORE THE MOUNT" They encamped in the Wady Rahah before the cliff Sufsafeh which rises 1000 feet before the plain. The plain is broad, beautiful & unobstructed. It is not cut up, as others are, by watercourses, but is remarkably level, & moreover sweeps in grand breadth right onwards to the precipitous cliffs of the mountain, which arise with sheer abruptness and "under" which they could assemble. They could also, as the narrative represents, remove "afar off" in view of the frightening phenomena, when the voice ceased. Its length is 5 miles, and amid the rugged hollows & ravines at the farther end, we can well imagine the multitude seeking for shelter from the immediate terrors of the scene. See "Horeb & Jerusalem." C. Sandie, p. 194.

5 YAHWEH PROCLAIMS HIS COVENANT TO MOSES Vv 1-6.

EXODUS 19.

The people come to Sinai.

IN the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day [b] came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness; and there Israel camped before [d] the mount.

3 And [f] Moses went up unto God, and the LORD [g] called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel;

4 [i] Ye have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles' wings, and brought you unto myself.

5 Now [m] therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a "peculiar treasure [r] unto me above all people: for [s] all the earth is mine:

6 And ye shall be unto me a [r] kingdom of priests, and an [t] holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the LORD commanded him.

8 And [a] all the people answered together, and said, All that the LORD hath spoken we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the LORD.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee [f] in a thick cloud, [g] that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and [i] believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

10 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and [l] sanctify them to day and to morrow, and let them [m] wash their clothes,

11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD [a] will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to yourselves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount shall be surely put to death:

13 There shall not an hand touch it, but he shall surely be stoned, or shot through; whether it be beast or man, it shall not live: when the trumpet soundeth long, they shall come up to the mount.

14 ¶ And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes.

15 And he said unto the people, [o] Be ready against the third day: [p] come not at your wives.

16 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were [s] thunders and lightnings, and a "thick cloud upon the mount, and the [s] voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp [t] trembled.

17 And [a] Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the nether part of the mount.

18 And mount Sinai [b] was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it [c] in fire: [d] and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and [e] the whole mount quaked greatly.

19 And [h] when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and [i] God answered him by a voice.

20 And the LORD came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the LORD called Moses up to the top of the mount; and M[illegible]p.

Seventh	34:4-28	34:29-35.

The giving of the law was after the third ascent 20:1-24:8

The "ascent" of 24:9-11 was only to the mount not up into it.

"When the trumpet soundeth long"

Here v. 13 the word is Yobel (rend. Yobale (Jubilee) and signifies a long continuous note (see Trumpet in Index). Evidently this noise was continuous, [illegible] The shorter notes of the Shophar [illegible] gradually became longer until they gave the Yobale note. In. Lev. 25:9 both words are used in conjunction: the "shophar of the yobale"

10 THE TEN COMMANDMENTS: BASIS OF THE COVENANT Vv 1-17

Deut. 4:40-20. 5:1-33

1A The prelude shows that benefits received should be responded to in loving obedience.

1 Moses and Aaron had drawn "unto" or "up to" the mountain in front of the altar and people (see note above). He was still on the plain Exod. 24:1.

Yahweh had moved from Sinai to Horeb Exod. 19:20. Deut. 4:11 which mount was now enveloped in cloud, fire & lightning. Deut. 4:11. They heard the voice out of fire Deut. 4:12. See Note opp. Num. 33.

2 The Law was given by angels Acts 7:53. Gal. 3:19. Heb. 2:2.

3 In spite of the awful manifestation of cloud, thunder, lightning & fire, the Goodness of Yahweh was in greatest evidence. He would be obeyed through love not fear.

4 Singular number indicating individual responsibility to that covenant impressed individually.

(1) Yahweh only. Cp Vv 2-3

5 Lit. Before my face. i.e in my sight.

(2) The making or worshipping of images prohibited Lev. 26.

There always has existed Law. (Gen 26:5) but if moral law were an element in the nature of things like the Law of gravitation or eating and drinking, it would assert itself, but the universal lawlessness makes law a necessity. In the 10 Commandments, the first four relate to Yahweh, the fifth to parents, the last four to ones relations to his fellowman.

THE PEOPLE WITHDRAW

At the completion of the 10 words Deut 5:22 the people request that they be permitted to withdraw Deut 5:23-31; Heb. 12:19.

THE 10 COMMANDMENTS.

Yahweh spoke directly to the people Deut. 4:10. They were evidently drawn up in a body before Horeb, with the priests in front Exod 19:22. + Moses + Aaron before them. Exod. 19:24. Deut. 5:4-5.

34 There was a danger of irreverent gazing on holy things in spite of the fear of the thunder, for Yahweh had not yet moved from Sinai to Horeb as he was about to do.

35 The heads of each house who slew the Passover lamb Exod. 12:6. The Levites not yet appointed. Cp Exod. 32:25-29.

36 A greater responsibility rested on them — therefore they should particularly heed the instructions.

37 He put more confidence in the preparations the people thandid Yahweh.

38 Constant supervision of flesh is necessary. It soon forgets fear and becomes defiant.

39 Warning them as requested.

21 And the LORD said unto Moses, Go down, [2] charge the people, lest they break through unto the LORD [b] to gaze, and many of them perish. 34 35

22 And let the priests also, which come near to the LORD, 36 sanctify themselves, lest the LORD [d] break forth upon them.

23 And Moses said unto the LORD, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou [2] chargedst us, saying, [f] Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it. (To the foot of the mount)

24 And the LORD said unto him, Away, get thee down, 38 and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through to come up unto the LORD, lest he break forth upon them. Cp Exod 19:13, 17.

10 THE TEN COMMANDMENTS: BASIS OF THE COVENANT Vv 1-17

Deut. 4:40-20; 5:1-33

1A The prelude shows that benefits received should be responded to by loving obedience. Moses and Aaron had drawn "unto" or "up to" the mount in front of the priests and people (see note above). He was still on the plain Exod. 19:1. Yahweh had moved from Sinai to Horeb Exod. 19:20, Deut. 4:10 which mount was now enveloped in cloud, fire + lightning Deut. 4:11. 5 Lit. Before my face. i.e. in my sight.

(2) The making or worshipping of images prohibited Vv. 10 Lit. "To the thousandth generation" Deut. 7:9. Ed footnote

6 The following verse shows that the prohibition relates to the making of them for purposes of worship. Moses made the brazen serpent and ordered the shaping of the cherubic figures.

2 And God spake all these words, saying,

2 [p] I am the LORD thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of [3] bondage.

3 [q] Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Cf. Col 3:5.

4 Thou shalt not make unto thee any [s] graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: Col 3:5.

5 [t] Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am [d] a jealous God, [e] visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me: CHESED - Kindness favor pity.

6 And [u] shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me, and keep my commandments. Mat. 6:9. Ezek 36:20

7 [a] Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain; [f] for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. Not loiter!!

8 [d] Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy. Gen. 2:1-3.

9 [f] Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work: RV: unto + to labor

10 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, [h] nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: + ARAH. Bottom p 119

11 For [i] in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it. Gen. 1:26 Spoken to parents!!

12 ¶ [k] Honour thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee. John 3:15

13 [o] Thou shalt not kill.

14 [g] Thou shalt not commit adultery. Jam. 4:4.

15 [r] Thou shalt not steal. Thy 10:20

16 [s] Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

17 [u] Thou shalt not covet [x] thy neighbour's house, [y] thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbour's. (perceived)

18 ¶ And [a] all the people saw the thunderings, and the [c] lightnings, and the noise of the trumpet, and the mountain [f] smoking: and when the people saw it, they removed, and stood afar off. 23 Cp Deut. 5:22-29

19 And they said unto Moses, [b] Speak thou with us, and we will hear: but [i] let not God speak with us, lest we die.

"VISITING THE INIQUITY" — v.5

Heb. "PÂQAD" - To visit (with friendly or hostile intent); by anal. to oversee, muster, charge, care for" etc. Str. The Soncino Edition of the Pentateuch provides an alternative translation: "remembering." It is wise that Yahweh should so do, carefully overlooking the children of those who are idolatrous lest they follow in the footsteps of their fathers and lead all Israel astray.

23 They retired away from the barrier back into their tents Deut. 5:30. There they did not hear the voice of the angel which would not be the case in that place if it sounded like thunder. For a fuller account see Deut. 5:22-27.

22 The mountains are so constructed that these would reverberate and echo with terrifying effect bonded from crag to crag and roaring along like a wadys, sweeping like a whirlwind among the higher mountains, to be lost in the distance.

After the thunderings which caused the people to crouch in fear the voice of God proclaiming the 10 words or Decalogue must have been as a "still, small (but penetrating) voice," otherwise it would have been lost in echoes.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

Were inscribed on two stones representative of the two great commandments: Love to Yahweh and Love towards neighbour. Mt. 22:40.

The first five on one stone have each an explanatory addition; the last five are brief and emphatic: Thou shalt not's. An explanation of our duty toward Yahweh is necessary for personal experience should teach us how to act towards others. These duties have their root in the principle, "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" Lev. 19:18 applied to life, house, property, honor and possessions. The first five all men owe to Yahweh.

SOCIAL LIFE

The Ten commandments provided the basis of the covenant. Deut. 4:13. 5:9. 1 Kgs 8:9, 21. and introduced a new social order in Israel which was outlined in the statutes introduced at the same time. Deut. 4:14.

24 He first held colloquy with the angel and was authorized to permit the withdrawal of the people, who said God "had spoken well." Deut. 5:23-31 — not here recorded.

25 He attempted to pacify them with assurances that there was no cause for fear providing their hearts were right with Yahweh. Deut. 5:29.

26 They retired to their tents Deut. 5:30 watching the apocalypse of glory from their tent door — but now unable to hear the voice.

SUMMARY - TOP PARAGRAPH

1 Laws for menservants. 7 For womenservants. 12 For murder and manslaughter. 16 For menstealers, 17 for cursers of parents, 18 smiters, &c.

NOW these [r]are the judgments which thou shalt [s]set before them.

2 (V) If thou buy an Hebrew servant, six years he shall serve: and in the seventh he shall go out free for nothing.

3 If he came in [t]by himself, he shall go out by himself: if he were married, then his wife shall go out with him.

4 If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters; the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out by himself.

5 (d) And if the servant [u]shall plainly say, I love my master, my wife, and my children; I will not go out free: Cp Christ

6 Then his master shall bring him unto the [f]judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall [g]bore his ear through with an aul; and he shall serve him for ever. See p. 119

7 ¶ And if a man [i]sell his daughter to be a maidservant, she shall not go out [l]as the menservants do. See bottom p. 106

8 If she [k]please not her master, who hath betrothed her to himself, then shall he let her be redeemed: to sell her unto a strange nation he shall have no power, seeing he hath dealt deceitfully with her.

9 And if he have betrothed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after the manner of daughters. (Sees marrying her himself)

10 If he take him another wife; her food, her raiment, [v]and her duty of marriage, shall he not diminish. Ex 8, 9, 10

11 And if he do not these three unto her, then shall she go out free without money. HOMICIDE

12 ¶ (e) He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death.

13 And [h]if a man lie not in wait, but God deliver him into his hand; then (f) I will appoint thee a place whither he shall flee.

14 But if a man come (g) presumptuously upon his neighbour, to slay him with guile; (g) thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he may die.

15 ¶ And he that smiteth his father, or his mother, shall be surely put to death.

16 ¶ And (h) he that stealeth a man, and [c]selleth him, or if he be [d]found in his hand, he shall surely be put to death.

NAKEDNESS IN WORSHIP 104

"Those organs which enable man to procreate might be regarded as endowing him with the same creative power as God Himself, a notion akin to the perverted one which formed the basis of the revolting fertility cults of those and later days. Such cults were abhorrent to the Creator, and no altar of His was to be, even in the most incidental way, profaned by those who ministered at it, as was the altars at which pagan priesthoods ministered (often in the nude) to the fiendish gods of their own devising." "Law And Grace."

The clothing of Aaron with special garments for this purpose Exod. 28:42-43 made this prohibition unnecessary.

THE BOOK OF THE COVENANT

The Ten Commandments comprised the basis of the Covenant Exod. 34:28; Deut. 4:13. with the Judgments of Exod. 21:1 - 23:33. comprising the Book of the Covenant Exod. 24:7. Upon this nucleus the rest of the Law was based.

All this was proclaimed from Horeb in the hearing of the people Exod. 20:1. Later the 10 commandments were inscribed on Stone and given to Moses. Exod. 31:18.

4 Masters were commanded to treat slaves as hired servants bearing them every consideration Lev. 25:39, 40, 43. Cp. Rom. 6:18. All these circumstances could influence a slave to refuse his liberty when the time came. Cp Christ's love

5 Heb. Elohim. Yahweh's representative or administrators in Israel. In appearing before them, the people appeared, as it were, before Him, for they dispensed His law — Deut. 1:17. For similar use of Elohim see Exod. 22:8, 9. Christ's love for the Father was witnessed by the Elohim. 1 Pet. 1:12

6 Permanently affixed to the house, ready to hear and obey.

MARTSEA[e] from RÂTSA[e] - To pierce. Christ's ears were "dug" or opened. Ps. 40:6. 7-11

(B) THE FEMALE SLAVE

That is, presuming she married as v. 4. If she were not married she was released at the end of 6 years or remained in permanent slavery. Deut. 15:12, 17. Thus this law relates to married slaves.

7 As Yahweh did Israel. Ezek. 16:8.

8 PÂDAH - To sever by selling her to others. See bottom p. 106

11 Yahweh did this to Israel because she broke her covenant. The Ecclesia with Christ is so treated. Shelter and right of cohabitation.

16 The law drew a distinction between intentional and accidental homicide.

God permits it to happen for His inscrutable purpose. He knows all Luke 12:7-8 but allows chance to operate Ecc. 9:11. Thus we must not presume, but take care.

29 As no homicide was intended this was a case for compensation as is seen in the parallel passage Lev. 24:18, 21. The only crimes which were not atoned for by monetary compensation were capital ones like murder Cp Num. 35:31. This law of compensation not only eliminated the need of jails, but reduced crime drastically as the words of enforced today. Where there is no fear of punishment the crime rate will increase.

Capital offences are treated even more extremely Heb. 10:28-30. Hatred is considered as equivalent to murder 1 Jhn. 2:9,11. 3:15. 4:20.; anger without due cause to intent to murder Mat. 5:21-22. The respect the law demanded towards parents is overshadowed by that due to Christ Luke 14:26. Mt. 10:37. In regard to the law of retaliation in non-capital offences, Jesus did not teach that the law was unjust, but asked that love and forgiveness prevail Mat. 5:38-48. Where it does not, the law of Retaliation will be applied at the Judgment Seat Mt. 7:2. Cp Rev. 16:6. 18:6-7. See it applied in the exercise of love Luke 6:35. Consideration of Servants Eph. 6:9. WHY GOD'S VOICE WAS HEARD Exod. 19:19

It was to convince the people that Moses was divinely appointed & sent, and that he was not performing his miracles through sorcery or enchantment like the magicians & priests of Egypt. Note the effect on them of hearing God's voice. Exod. 19:18-22; Dt. 4:11-13, 36; 5:5, 22-24; Heb. 12:18-21

THE PEOPLE SANCTIFIED. EXOD. 19:10

The sanctification referred to, as in Exod. 8:12; Gen. 2:3 does not imply a moral cleansing but a setting apart unto God. This sanctification was for three days only in preparation for hearing God's voice & receiving the law (Vs 10-11; 14-15). In addition, the Mount was sanctified or set apart (V 23). For the people there was a ceremonial washing or cleansing as in dealing of what was required morally. The priests separated themselves or sanctified themselves from the people for the same purpose Exod. 19:22.

Bathing the body always went along with washing the clothes. Both were considered necessary in order to meet Yahweh Lev. 14:8,9,47; 15:5; 17:15-16; 22:6 etc.

THE LAW OF COMPENSATION EXOD. 21:24-27.

These enactments form the basics of justice. They were not intended to be carried out literally. How could one test the exact measure of the hardness of a blow, or the severity of a wound; eye for eye would be flagrantly unjust in the case of a one-eyed man; and certainly it would not be to the public good to augment the number of mutilated people in society. The law demanded compensation, and these are legal terms demending it. This is shown by the parallel passage Lev. 24:18 which says, "He that smiteth a beast mortally shall make it good life for life." Taken literally this would require a man's life in exchange for that of a beast. What was required was fair compensation. Cp. Lev. 24:21.

3 If the sun be risen upon him, there shall be blood shed for him; for he should make full restitution; if he have nothing, then he shall be [e] sold for his theft.

5 Being caught the thief should make full restitution - reforme double V. 4.

4 If the theft be certainly found in his hand alive, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep; he shall [f] restore double.

12 So that there is no certain evidence of it having been stolen. V. 12.

13 Eg. By a fall or an attack by another animal - instilling care & consideration for property of others.

11 Then shall an (p) oath of the LORD be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods;

14 The trustee swears as to how the animal was hurt.

15 To make improper use of the animal against the wishes of the owner was by which it received its injury.

25 This relates to loans for the relief of poverty. Interest could be requested of a stranger Deut. 23:20. The principle of modern banking was not then practised, though it was in N.T. times Luke 19:23. See the Grace of this Law. Neh. 5:7.

26 NĒSHEK - Interest, from NĀSHAR - To strike with a sting (as a serpent). Read "bite." Lev. 10:8, 11. Jer. 8:17. Amos 9:3 etc.

BETROTHED Exod. 21:8-9

"YA'ADOTH" - Fix upon her by agreement, designated, appointed, RV espoused. "Redeemed" - from "Padah" - to sever. Lit. "He shall allow her redemption" - He shall look out for some one else to purchase her

WITCHCRAFT. this was professedly a league with powers in rebellion against Yahweh, how far it was delusion, how far imposture is difficult to say. the word KASHAPH signifies to "whisper" a spell, to "incharm" by which, like spiritualists, they are supposed to "talk with the dead. They are said to have "familiar spirits" Lev. 19:31; 20:6; Deut. 18:11 1 Sam. 28:3ff. 2 Kings 21:6; 23:24; Isa. 8:19; 19:3. This [redacted] is from the Heb. OBOTH, a word rendered the word as "ventriloquists" - apparently because such speak from the belly. Strong derives it from a common root with Ab, father for which see John 8:44. Speaking inwardly from the belly such expressed the feelings of the flesh. By the power of incantations & magical songs, witches, or rend. "bottles" Job 32:19 and likened to the belly. The LXX

CHAPTER 23

1 Of slander and false witness, 3, 6 of justice, 4 of charitableness, 10 of the year of rest, 12 of the sabbath, 13 of idolatry, 14 of the three feasts, 18 of the sacrifice. 20 An Angel is promised.

THOU [t] shalt not [u] raise a false report: put not thine hand with the wicked to be an [x] unrighteous witness.
2 ¶ [y] Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do evil; neither shalt thou [z] speak in a cause to decline after many to wrest [a] judgment:
3 ¶ Neither shalt thou [b] countenance a poor man in his cause.
4 ¶ [c] If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt surely bring it back to him again.
5 If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under his burden, [2] and wouldest forbear to help him, thou shalt surely help with him.
6 [d] Thou shalt not wrest the judgment of thy poor in his cause.
7 [e] Keep thee far from a false matter; [f] and the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for [g] I will not justify the wicked.
8 ¶ And [h] thou shalt take no gift: for the gift blindeth [2] the wise, and perverteth the words of the righteous.
9 ¶ Also [i] thou shalt not oppress a stranger: for ye know the [4] heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.
10 And [l] six years thou shalt sow thy land, and shalt gather in the fruits thereof:
11 But the seventh year thou shalt let it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy [7] oliveyard.
12 [q] Six days thou shalt do thy work, and on the seventh day thou shalt rest: that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger, may be refreshed.
13 And in all things that I have said unto you be [r] circumspect: and [s] make no mention of the name of other gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.
14 ¶ [t] Three times thou shalt keep a feast unto me in the year.
15 [a] Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread: (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt: [e] and none shall appear before me empty:)

THOU SHALT NOT SEETHE A KID IN HIS MOTHER'S MILK V. 19.

The personal laws in the Book of the Covenant (see bottom p.104 Exod 24:7 terminates with this remarkable law which is thrice repeated in the Law Exod. 34:26. Deut. 14:21. It is thought to have been a Canaanitish practice designed to stimulate fertility. But the prohibition seems to constitute a warning against allowing that which is designed for life to become the means of death. The over-indulgence of children can cause that and has been the sad cause of many lives lost for the Kingdom. Num. 14:33-34. Eli's sons 1 Sam. 3:13. Adonijah. 1 Kgs 1:6. Cp Prov. 19:18. 23:13-14. 29:15. 1 Tim. 3:4.

of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field. (See Note top p.90)

17 Three times in the year all thy males shall appear before the Lord GOD. - HA-Adon Yahweh.

18 [b] Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my [3] sacrifice remain until the morning. - Cp 12:10; Lev. 7:15.

19 [d] The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of the LORD thy God. [e] Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

20 ¶ [f] Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared.

21 Beware of him, and obey his voice, [g] provoke him not; for he will [h] not pardon your transgressions: for my name is in him. [i] must seek a Redeemer Gal 3:20

22 But if thou shalt indeed obey his voice, and do all that I speak; then [m] I will be an enemy unto thine enemies, and [n] an adversary unto thine adversaries. Isa 51:22-23

23 [o] For mine Angel shall go before thee, and [p] bring thee in unto the Amorites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites: and I will cut them off.

24 Thou shalt not [q] bow down to their gods, nor serve them, [r] nor do after their works: [s] but thou shalt utterly overthrow them, [t] and quite break down [u] their images.

25 And ye shall [v] serve the LORD your God, and [w] he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and [x] I will take sickness away from the midst of thee.

26 ¶ [y] There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land: the number of thy days I will [z] fulfil.

27 I will send [a] my fear before thee, and will [b] destroy all the people to whom thou shalt come, and I will make all thine enemies turn their [3] backs unto thee.

28 And [c] I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before thee.

29 [d] I will not drive them out from before thee in one year; lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.

30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou be increased, and inherit the land.

31 And [e] I will set thy bounds from the Red sea even unto the sea of the Philistines, and from the desert unto the river: for I will [f] deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand; and thou shalt drive them out before thee. [f] Cp Josh 9:14-15

32 [g] Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.

33 They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me: for if thou serve their gods, [h] it will surely be a snare unto thee. Cp Note 106

20 MOSES CALLED TO THE MOUNT vv 1-2.

CHAPTER 24.

CHAPTER 24 CONFIRMATION OF THE COVENANT.

GENERAL INSTRUCTION vv 1-2.

1 Moses is called up into the mountain. 3 The people promise obedience. 9 The glory of God appeareth. 14 Aaron and Hur are left in charge.

AND he said unto Moses, Come up unto the LORD, thou, and Aaron, [1] Nadab, and Abihu, [2] and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship ye afar off.

2 And Moses [a] alone shall come near the LORD: but they shall not come nigh; neither shall the people go up with him.

3 ¶ And Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the judgments: and all the people answered with one voice, and said, [3] All

(1) Heb. Nadab.
[a] Exod. 19. 22, 24.
(2) Or, nobles.
(3) Heb. The words which the LORD hath said, we will do.

This does not mean in the mount, but close to it when the theophany could be experienced. See similar practice Exod 19:13, 17

1 Foreshadowing the Lord's ascention to the Father Cf v. 15.

21 THE PEOPLE PROMISE OBEDIENCE 3-8

COVENANT ACCEPTED vv 3-8

2 There was no choice in this. The alternative was death for the people were surrounded by enemies and dependent upon Yahweh for food & drink. Yahweh's covenant was a command Deut. 4:13. and they were already under law Ex. 15:25. 16:26-28.

3 Evidently including Joshua his minister v. 13.

4 These were the ones whom Yahweh chose to put his spirit upon. Num 11:16-25. Cf. Ezek. 8:11, 12. 10:1, 17.

4A Note the difference between Moses & Christ; Law & Grace. Eph 2:17.

THE CEREMONY. Exod. 24:4-8.

Altar, book and people all sprinkled with blood.

Altar = Yahweh in sacrificial manifestation

Book = The medium of revelation - the link between Yahweh and man

People = United in dedication.

The principle of sacrifice thus emphasised.

1. The record - the book
2. The hope - the altar in the morning.
3. Recognition of sin - the goats
4. Dedication of self - burnt offerings
5. Fellowship with Yahweh - Peace off.
6. Water and blood - sacrifice effective over a longer period. Cp 1 Jn 5:6.
7. Reading the Book - individual participation.
8. Hyssop - God manifestation in difficult circumstances Cp Exod 12:22.
9. Scarlet - flesh sacrificed.

AT HOREB.

The selected Israelites, representatives of the nation moved to the barrier at the foot of the Mount V.1. thus worshipping "afar off."

Moses returned to the people who had removed back Exod. 20:18

The covenant was accepted and ratified

Moses then ascended Horeb V.13.

He moved on to Sinai V. 18.

Hearing - Ex. 28:18 to Seeing Rev. 21. Hearing now Seeing then.

In the Altar and the Twelve Pillars are seen the two contracting parties - Yahweh and Israel. But as sinful flesh cannot approach the Creator without blood, so He is represented in sacrificial manifestation - as an Altar. The means of approach is the Word.
Cp John 17:17. See Exod. 31:13. Yahweh M'qaddishim.

THE CEREMONY Vv 4-8
Heb. 9:19-20.
- Wrote the book V.4.
- In the morning built the altar & pillars.
- The firstborn slew the beasts as an offering

EXODUS 24: 5-8 — See top right p.109

This forms the basis of Paul's comment in Heb. 9:15-23. which also permit us to fill in details lacking here.

- Moses' altar of 12 stones foreshadows the Christ altar upon the foundation of the Israelitish basis Eph. 2:20. The Apostles representing the 12 tribes Mat. 19:28; Eph. 2:20; Rev. 21:12.
- The young men - representative of Israel as a "Kingdom of priests" Exod. 19:6. comprise the firstborn of the nation, afterwards replaced by the Levites Num. 3:45; 8:16. Cp Jam. 1:17-18; Rev. 14:4; 1 Pet. 2:9; Rev. 5:9-10.
- Burnt offerings (See Note p. 137) - dedication of self; and peace-offerings (See Note p. 138) - fellowship with Yahweh next prepared, the peace-offering providing the means for the sacrificial feast that followed. Lev. 7:15. Paul commenting on the passage, states that the sacrifice comprised "goats and calves" Heb. 9:19. The "goat" typified the stubbornness of flesh; the Calf, the strength of a man. This offered to Yahweh. Cp Note on "goat" Lev. 23:19.
- The blood sprinkled on altar Cp Lev. 17:11 and half retained in basins or cups for the purpose of uniting the people in the fountain Cp Luke 22:17, 20.
- Moses read the book Exod. 24:7. as the Lord exhorted the Apostles before the Memorials. John 13:14-21. Cp Heb. 9:19.
- The people announced that they would be obedient Exod. 24:7. So did the Apostles Mk. 14:29, 31
- Blood sprinkled on people V.8. Cp Luke 22:20.
- Moses + people with him saw a divine theophany. Exod. 24:9-11. So did the Apostles Rom. 1:3-4 1 Thess. 1:1
- They ate and drank a sacrificial meal Exod. 24:11 so did the Apostles. Matt. 26:29

Variations in Paul's account.

- He mentions "goats" which could relate to sin offerings in addition to the burnt + peace offerings, although not necessarily so.
- He mentions "water" which may have been added to prevent coagulation whilst at the same time it is used symbolically of the Spirit Lev. 14:5; John 4:14.
- The scarlet wool + hyssop were the normal means of aspersion - a sprig of the latter being apparently bound to the former to a stick of cedar - all highly significant. Cp Exod. 12:22; Lev. 14:51; Num. 19:1, 19. They represented sin, humility, eternity.
- The sprinkling of the book - though this is most appropriate as binding the people to obey it.

THE SANCTUARY : Separation + unity leading to God manifestation. Cp John 1:12-14; Acts 15:14; 2 Cor. 6:16. John 17:21; Rev. 21:3. By the indwelling of His spirit word Rom. 8:9; John 6:63. an habitation for God Eph. 2:22. therefore to be made after the pattern exactly. Exod. 25: 9, 40. When completed subjected to scrutiny, to inspection a foreshadowing of the Judgment Exod. 39: 33-43. to the Potter Jer. 18:1-6 Cp Eph. 2:10 Rom. 8:29. No embellishment was left to Moses. Those endowed became "workers together with him" 2 Cor. 6:1.

ALMOND. SHAQED from a root SHAQAD - To be alert, i.e sleepless, to be on the lookout (Str). Christ's constant exhortation Luke 21:36; Rev. 16:15.

V.32 SIDES, SIDE TSAD (plural Tsadi) and singular = to sidle off, a side (Str). Cf. V.14.

V.29. DISHES. These were probably used to convey the bread to the Table. Jewish tradition suggests that they were the exact shape of the loaves & some suggest they rested in 12 such dishes one on top of the other on the Table

Exod. 25:25 "Border": This was about 4½ inches in width, and possibly was an addition to the Table to carry the utensils associated therewith V 29. MIGGERETH = something enclosing, i.e. a margin from CAGAR - to shut up, enclose.

V 23. "Table" SHULCHAN - A table (as spread out) by impl. a meal from SHALACH, to spread forth. Hence indicative of fellowship with Yahweh through eating the bread of life - the Israelitish hope. "Shewbread": LECHEM PANIYM - the food of His faces (presence in multitudinous angelic manifestation). bread flat bar half way down legs to table

The border as displayed on the Arch of Titus is shown at ← ~~border rested above the level of the table so as to prevent~~ ~~articles from slipping off~~ - but the Table of the Temple may not have been as that of the Tabernacle.

V.30. SHEWBREAD - See above. LECHEM HAP-PANIYM: other names: LECHEM TAM-MID - the continual bread Num. 4:7; 2 Chr. 2:4 LECHEM HAM MA'ARAKETH - Bread of the ordering, or bread of the row - because placed in rows 1 Chr. 9:32. LECHEM KODESH hallowed or holy bread. 1 Sam. 21:5. Josephus (Ant. 3:6:6) states that it was unleavened bread, the details of which are outlined in Lev. 24:5-10. The shewbread represented the hope of Israel centred in Christ the Word of God made flesh. Each loaf had 2 tenth deals of flour - about 8 lb and, according to Vine, were baked in tubes about the thickness of the thumb.

V.31. THE LAMPSTAND. is identified with the central stem; the other 6 branches come out of the side of it Ex 37:17. Cp. Jhn. 15:5. The central stem had 4 bowls, Knops and flowers. the 6 branches 3. bowls or cups like almonds "with calyx and petals" (Berkeley). Knops = Kaphtor - to encircle, rend "petals" (Berkeley). The cups like almonds, followed by pomegranates (calyx), then by lilies. This ornamentation suggested by Jews is indicative of Divine selection + resurrection (almond), the multitudinous seed manifesting Yahweh (pomegranate) a divine glory lilies (Mat 6:28). Josephus stated Knops = pomegranates.

V.35. The branches were to quit the stem at the point of junction between the pomegranate + the lily; this is significant because the pomegranate signifies the multitudinous Christ Isa. 53:10 and the lilies their glory

V.36. One beaten work. - The Lampstand, the most beautiful, the most useful, the most ornamental, of all the pieces of furniture, was not cast ~~take~~ in a mould, neither was it made in sections + assembled together, but it was beaten into its form + beauty out of a solid block of gold; a task we are given to understand cannot be done today. Cp Exod. 38:30-35. Indicative of the divine glory of the Word Ps. 19:7-11. beyond man's ability to manifest - indicative of inspiration.

V.37. "it" - see mg. Berk. "they shall illumine what is in front of them" - i.e. the shewbread.

Exod. 26:2. The Curtains: These formed the ceiling of Mishkan. The other coverings formed the Ohel. The curtains were woven - God manifest in flesh. + Fine twined linen - Righteousness + Coloured blue, purple, scarlet - divine, manifest in fleshly humanity. + Embroidered Cherubim on it. Elect saints are woven into the pattern of the divine purpose + Formed two curtains of 5 strips each joined together by hooks of gold in loops of blue - all nations (Israelite + Gentile) united by faith (gold) linked with obedience (blue).

V.14. RAMS' SKINS REDDENED. - No word for "dyed" in original. ADYIM - Strong from a root signifying to be strengthened by being "rolled" together Str. Ps. 40:17; Jhn. 16:32. Skins + OWROTH from UWR To be bare, made naked. Hence the rams were made naked to provide a covering for naked man. V.15. BOARDS. QERESHIM, from a root "to split off" Hence a plank. -Implying a separation. BAYN BADIY

V.13. STAVES - Ges. "Separation, something separated." The branches of a tree, the members of the body. Read "by themselves" Exod. 26:9. The staves kept the holy furniture apart from contact when Israel on the move. The principle of holiness, of separation is essential to true worship whether it is stationary or on the move (temporary) from place to place. The Ark, mercy seat, etc. must be treated circumspectly wherever found - whether at meeting or carried into the home.

19 The fifth accent Tsinnor.
20 Definite article: the Law, the commandments.
21 Not enough to have the Law - must understand it. 2 Thess. 2:13, Jer. 32:33 Phil. 2:13
dwelt as a King among His subjects. Jud. 8:23. As the Sanctuary was found in the very centre of Israel, so Yahweh should be in our hearts. It foreshadowed the work of Yahweh in Christ Heb. 9:11, 8:2.
Water animal Cp Ezek. 16 upper violet
12 from a root signifying: That which is despised." The Acacia, a desert plant (Cp Isa. 53:3). with thorns, and hard
= A blending of blue and scarlet = God manifest in flesh. The colour of Royalty

THOU SHALT NOT SEETHE A KID IN HIS MOTHER'S MILK V. 19.

The personal laws in the Book of the Covenant (See bottom p.104 Exod 24:7 terminates with this remarkable law which is thrice repeated in the Law Exod. 34:26. Deut. 14:21. It is thought to have been a Canaanitish practise designed to stimulate fertility. But the prohibition seems to constitute a warning against allowing that which is designed for life to become the means of death. The over-indulgence of children can cause that and has been the sad cause of many lives lost for the Kingdom. Num. 14:33. 1 Eli's sons 1 Sam. 3:13. Adonijah. 1 Kgs 1:6. Cp Prov. 19:18. 2 1 Kgs 1:4-14. 29:15. 1 Tim. 3:4.

V. 10 "They saw the God of Israel" – Are not the angels present at our Memorials? Mtt. 18:20, 10; Heb. 1:14. Luke 15:10.

V. 9. "Seventy" A combination of ten and seven comprising completion and covenant. As a number it comprises the fulness of the harvest gathered in. See Note. Exod. 15:27.

V. 10. "Paved work" LIBNÂH – St. Whiteness, by impl. transparency. "A New Old Testament" rend. "a plate of sapphire." Sapphire sig. engraven with Word. See Note p. 115. It is like the glorious blue of heaven in its clearness. Rev. - Reuben. From hearing to seeing.

Moses In The Mount V. 18

Moses observed a complete fast – one without eating or drinking for 40 days. Deut. 9 9-17. He apparently observed two other similar fasts. Deut. 9: 18, 25; Deut. 10:10; Exod. 34:28. Cp Elijah's fast 1 Kg 19:8 and that of the Lord's Mat. 3:2.

CHAPTER 25.

V. 3. Gold.: was required to cover the boards of the Ark V. 11, for the crown of gold that surmounted it; for the rings V. 12, the mercy seat V. 17, the Cherubim V. 18, the dishes, spoons, covers, bowls V. 29, the candlestick V. 31, the tongs + snuff dishes V. 38, the hooks + hooks Ch. 26: 6, 32; the covering of the table of shew-bread Ch. 25:24, the staves + pillars 25:28; 26:32, 37 as well as parts of the dress of the high priest Ch. 28: 6-14.

SILVER required for the sockets that supported the boards of the Tabernacle Ch. 26:19, the hooks + fillets of the pillars of the court Ch. 27:10. + Gold depicts Deity's qualities + the spirit + the flesh, then silver the means of reconciliation

BRASS. – Bronze or copper. Bronze – a combination of copper + Tin was used extensively in ancient times. Some has been found with an admixture of zinc (Brass = an alloy of copper + zinc) approaching the production of brass, but bronze was more frequently used. The tin is supposed to have come from Cornwall, traded by the Phoenicians. Zinc mines have been discovered in Laurium in Greece which could have supplied that metal for the purpose. Bronze was required for the taches which coupled together the curtains of the tent Ch. 26:11; for the sockets of the pillars V. 37; for the external coating of the altar Ch. 27:2 and the covering of its staves V. 6; for the sockets of the pillars of the court V. 10; for the pins of the court V. 19 and for the vessels of the tabernacle V. 19.

The wealth would have come from the spoiling of the Egyptians and the Amalekites.

V. 4. BLUE – This dye was obtained from a shellfish on the coast of Phoenicia called Helix Ianthina. Josephus (Ant. 3:7:7) states that it was emblematic of the sky, i.e. the deep, dark hue of the mid-eastern heaven. The AV in Esth. 1:6. (mg) has rendered it as Violet. It was the color used by royalty Ezek. 23:6. Cp. Num. 15:38.

PURPLE – A brilliant red-blue color prized by the ancients for dyeing Prov. 31:22; Jer. 10:9. The chief source of the best colour was from a tiny mollusk (murex) found along the coast of Phoenicia. Great labor + skill was required to extract the dye so that only royalty or the rich could afford it. Cp Luke 16:19. John 19:2; Acts 16:14.

SCARLET – Tola'ath-shani – worm scarlet. Ps. 22:6. The tola is a small insect about the size of a pea. The word here is feminine. The females are collected + dried, + from them is obtained the dye known as Crimson, Lake and Cochineal. The female used is called Coccus ~~illicis~~ illicis.

V. 5 "Dyed red" MEODDAMIM. from Adam – To show blood, to flush red (Stf).

BADGER'S SKINS. LXX: Blue skins. ORÔTH TECHASHIM. Vulgate = skins dyed violet. Bochardt contends that the colour is hysginus, a deep blue. A hard wood. 2 Tim. 2:3.

SHITTIM.: Wood from Shittah tree Isa. 41:18-20. Wood mentioned frequently, the tree only once. It is the [redacted] name for the Acacia seyal (All the plants of the Bible). Sig. to pierce, flog (Str.). It is a thorny tree with yellow golden flowers, sweet smelling. It is as large as a mulberry tree + has a gnarled rough black bark + angular, spreading branches covered with sharp thorns. It is indestructible by insects, grows in desert + on cutting + medicinal gum. ← The LXX renders this as "incorruptible wood"

The principle of priestly office is emphasised.

8 Hyssop-bad manifestation in difficult circumstances Cp Exod. 12:22.

9 Scarlet – flesh sacrificed.

V. 7. ONYX STONES. – SHOHAM – "To shine forth with the lustre of fire" – Soltau. Cp Gen. 2:12. Called "Stones of Memorial" Exod. 28:12. The stone of After-blessed. Blessedness come from sinlessness Ps. 1:1. or from forgiveness of sins Ps 32:1.

V. 8. SANCTUARY. Mikdash, from KADESH, to separate. See opp. 108

DWELL – SHÂKAN – To reside permanently. Cp Rev. 21:2-3. from whence Shekinah. Cp Exod. 29:45-46. Num. 5:3; 35:34. Deut. 12:11. 1 Kg 6:13; 8:12. 2 Chr. 6:1. Ezra. 6:12. Ps 68:16, 18; Isa 57:15; Zech 2:10, 11; 8:3, 8; 2 Cor. 6:16. Col. 3:16.

V. 9. PATTERN – TABNIYTH – Structure, by implie a model, resemblance. Moses evidently had impressed upon his mind in vision the actual Tabernacle. The same expression is used for Solomon's Temple 1 Chron. 28:11-12. and the future Temple Ezek. 43:10. The same idea is carried over into the Greek Heb. 8:5. (TUPOS – A figure, image, form) See Note p. 116

V. 10. ARK – ARON from ÂRAH – To pluck, "Gather As such" appropriate for multitudinous Christ which it typed. Joseph was placed in a coffin (same word) Gen. 50:26. It is called the Ark of the Testimony Exod. 25:22; 26:33; 40:3, the testimony being the ten commandments Exod. 25:16, 21; 34:28 they being the basis of the Covenant Exod. 34:28 (Testimony is Edoth – feminine of Ed – Witness), hence it is also called the Ark of the Covenant Num. 10:33; 14:44; Deut. 10:8. It was the throne of Yahweh in Israel Ps 80:1. It contained the manna – hope of life eternal, Aaron's rod – divine selection + resurrection; "tables of the covenant" – need for obedience. It was covered by mercy and developed into God manifestation between the Cherubim. This was the covenant, whilst the witness, or testimony, set forth what was required of Israelites. It was associated with prayer, through the golden censer Heb. 9:4. Testimony being in the feminine gender the association with Israel shadowed forth the principle of marriage between Yahweh and the nation. See Ezek. 16:8-14; Isa. 54:5.

V. 18 "BEATEN" MIQSHAH – hammering. Cp. Ter. 27:29. See note on Yahweh YATSAR p. 901. Cp. Isa. 43:11.

V. 17. "MERCY SEAT" – The word "seat" is not in the Hebrew, but it is appropriate to the work of mercy completed by Christ. See Heb. 10:11-12 who then sat down. Christ thus became the Alpha (Author) – Brazen Altar, and Omega (finisher) Mercy seat of our faith Heb. 12:2; Rev. 1:8. It was that which covered over the covenant of Law Gal. 3:13. and gave hope of life eternal through a resurrection 1 Cor. 15:20. When completing his work of mercy on the cross, the Lord appropriately declared "It is finished" John. 17:4; 19:30. Cp Ps. 22:1. Rom. 4:25; 1 John 4:10

V. 21. "TESTIMONY" – EDOTH, see Note on Ark above. See Ps. 119 Note

5. The Ark is called (1) "The Ark of the Testimony (2) "The Ark of the Covenant (3) "The Ark of Yahweh" Josh. 3:13. (4) The Ark of Covenant of Yahweh Josh. 3:11 (5) "The Ark of the covenant of God" Jud. 20:27. The Ark of God

The Ark is called: (1) – The Ark – 53 times 25:22. (2) The Ark of the Testimony – 13 Times. 25:22 (3) The Ark of the Covenant – 12 times of Yahweh Num 10:33 (4) The Ark of the covenant of the Adon of all the earth" Josh. 3:11 (5) The Ark of the covenant of Yahweh Adon of all the earth" Josh. 3:13. (6) The Ark of the covenant of God Jud. 20:27. (7) The Ark of God 1 Sam. 3:3 (8) The Ark of the Covenant of Yahweh of Hosts 1 Sam. 4:4. (9) The Ark of the God of Israel 1 Sam. 5:1 (10) The Ark of Adonai Yahweh. 1 Kg. 2:26 (11) The Ark of our God 1 Chr. 13:3 (12) The Ark of God Yahweh 1 Chr. 13:6. (13) The Ark of Yahweh Elohim of Israel 1 Chr. 15:14. (14) The Ark of Thy Strength 2 Chr. 6:41; Ps. 132:8 (15) The holy Ark 2 Chr. 35:3.

The titles are significant. When Israel wanted Yahweh to manifest Himself belligerently against the enemy, it is called The Ark of the Covenant of Yahweh of hosts 1 Sam. 4:4; when it is taken across Jordan – The Ark of Yahweh Lord of all the earth Josh. 3:13. It is the Ark of Testimony because of the witness of the Laws inside it; the Ark of the Covenant because of the Covenant established on the sacrifices associated therewith; The Ark of thy strength because it represented what Yahweh was to Israel in power + blessing; the Holy Ark because of the separateness + sacredness necessary for proper worship.

V. 22. "I will meet with thee" This became the appointed place where Israel would meet with Yahweh – and there were appointed times for this to take place Cp Exod. 23:14, 17; 29:42-46; 34:23-24; 40:33-35. So also in Christ Heb. 10:25; "Meet" – YÂAD – to "fix" upon. To meet by agreement or appointment by implication at a stated time. MO'ED from PTO the root. See Note Lev. 23.

CHAPTER 25.

1 What the Israelites must offer for the making of the tabernacle. 10 The form of the ark, &c.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 [o] Speak unto the children of Israel, that they [2] bring me an [3] offering: [q] of every man that giveth it willingly with his heart ye shall take my [r] offering. (Lit "whose heart impels him" NADAB)
3 And this is the [3] offering which ye shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass,
4 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and [4] fine linen, and goats' hair,
5 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,
6 [a] Oil for the light, [b] spices for anointing oil, and for [c] sweet incense,
7 [d] Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the [e] ephod, and in the [f] breastplate.
8 And let them make me a [i] sanctuary; that [k] I may dwell among them. opp. 108
9 [l] According to all that I

1 TERUMAH – Heave offering from RUWM – To be high, i.e. lifted up. Something taken out from the bulk for a special purpose – In this case 'lifted up' for Yahweh's use. The people did this to such good will that they were finally restrained Exod. 36:5. Normally a "heave-offering" was a portion stipulated by Yahweh. Here it was left to the judgment of the people. Gold and silver brought from Egypt Ps. 105:37 ℣ Hag. 2:8-9.

2 THE OFFERING DEFINED

2 Heb. Zahab – pure, highly polished gold. There are 6 number of words in Hebrew for gold, each of which defines the metal in a particular state. Symbol – Tried faith. 1 Pet. 1:7. See opp

3 Symbol – Redemption. 30:13 The silver seems to have been obtained by the fashion described in Exod. 30:12-16. CHRIST

4 Symbol of flesh, purified by fire Num. 16:37-38. 1 Cor. 11:13. MEN

5 Symbol of God manifestation Num. 5:17. Deut. 33:2.

6 A blending of blue and scarlet: God manifest in flesh. The colour of Royalty

7 Symbol, the flesh. – sinful flesh. Isa. 14:11. See opp.
8 Symbol Righteousness. Rev. 19:8
9 Was used for sin offering Lev. 16:15 thus symbolising covering for sin.
10 Lit. "the skins of red Rams" such as did abound in the East. Ram = strength. It was the Protector of the flock. Heb. = Elim – ORDH ELIM MEADOWLAND (from Admond).
11 By Bochart thought to be a colour-deep blue. Others see it as the skin of some water animal ℣ Ezek. 16:10. Sept. = sea violet
12 From a root signifying: That which is despised. The Acacia, a desert plant (℣ Isa. 53:2-3), with thorns, and hard close grained wood of beautiful appearance, and fit for this purpose. The wood symbolised human nature.

THE ARK. Vv. 10-16. 3

2½ cubits long, 1½ deep, 1½ wide. Contained — The tables of stone with Commandments, hence known as Ark of Covenant, or Testimony. Aaron's rod that budded — thus showing Divine selection of Priests. Pot of Manna, symbolising Word of Life. Heb. 9:4. Throne = Vv. 20-22. Heb. "Aron" = Chest. Noah's Ark, and Moses' ark hidden in the bullrushes = Heb. "tebah" = a box-like vessel. See opp. p. 104.

The Ark and its covering symbolised multitudinous Christ in glory, and as such finds a place in the symbology of the Apocalypse. Rev. 15:5; 16:17 etc.

1 Cubit approx. 18 in.

2 Human nature covered with gold of faith. Cp. Note 35:5; 25:2. 5 v. 25.

3 The crown of glory, the glory of faith. Luke 14:14; 24:10.

4 As Israel was divided into 4 encampments Num. 2, so the Ark — rep. of true Israel — had its four rings.

5 As the Ark was borne aloft by two staves, so the true Israel has been sustained by two great covenants Heb. 8:13.

6 2 Tables stone bearing to Com.

THE MERCY SEAT. V. 17 4

7 The golden lid of the Ark. It was overshadowed by the Cherubim. From it God spoke Num. 7:89. It symbolised Yahweh in manifestation. It was made with Gold, purified with fire, and beaten into shape according to Divine specifications. Heb. "Kapporeth" = cover. From same root as "Kaphor" — atonement. In N.T. rendered "Propitiatory" Rom. 3:25. Heb. 9:5. and identified with the work of Yahweh in the Lord Jesus. He is a "cover" for our sins Rom. 4:7. if we put him on in the way appointed. Gal. 3:26-28. 5

THE CHERUBIM Vv. 18-22.

From Ezek. 1 we learn that the two Cherubim had four faces answering to the 4 divisions of Israel. From Rev. 5:9-10 these 4 faces are identified with the saints. In the Tabernacle they were formed of the same slab of gold as the Mercy Seat — they are "one with Christ Jesus." The faces of the Cherubim symbolised the principle of God manifest in flesh. See Ex. 6:1. Ps. 118; 36:7; 57:1; 63:7 etc.

8 The four wings answer to the four extremities of Israel, the four camps into which it was divided. Num. 1:52 The Tabernacle was like a city of Refuge Josh. 20.

Moses commanded to shew thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the instruments thereof, even so shall ye make it.

10 ¶ [b] And they shall make an ark of shittim wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

11 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, [f] within and without shalt thou overlay it, and shalt make upon it a [g] crown of gold round about.

12 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in the four corners thereof; and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

13 And thou shalt make staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

14 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be borne with them.

15 [i] The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it. — See above.

16 And thou shalt put into the ark [m] the testimony which I shall give thee.

17 And thou shalt make [n] a mercy seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

18 And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold, of [p] beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy seat.

19 And make one cherub on the one end, and the other cherub on the other end: even [3] of the mercy seat shall ye make the cherubims on the two ends thereof.

20 And [r] the cherubims shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another; 27 So the faces of saints should be turned one to another for their mutual profit and towards Christ for the constant pattern and example thus set. For a description of the faces see Ezek. 1. Agreement, fellowship. 1 Cor. 1:10 Phil. 3:15-16

21 [a] And thou shalt put the mercy seat above upon the ark; and [c] in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

22 And [d] there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

23 ¶ [h] Thou shalt also make a table of shittim wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

24 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make thereto a [s] crown of gold round about.

25 And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden [t] crown to the border thereof round about.

26 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four [f] feet thereof.

27 Over against the border shall the rings be for [u] places of the staves to bear the table.

28 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be borne with them.

29 And thou shalt make [g] the dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, [3] to cover withal: of pure gold shalt thou make them.

30 And thou shalt set upon the table [x] shewbread before me alway.

31 ¶ [i] And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of 110 wch in manifestation between the Cherubim in the Most Holy. 111 signify disorder or disorganisation as it is one short of 12. Thus it suggests the sense of incompleteness, and as such is appropriate to that which signifies sin's flesh. The eleven disciples was an incomplete number Luke 24:33. Acts 1:26.

19. 6 x 5 = 30. Six is the number of man who was created on 6th day. Here it is associated with 5, the number of grace. Cp with size of curtain covering Mishkan v. 2, thus if extended to ground. See introductory note to Chapter.

20. Thus 44 cubits long in comparison to the linen curtain = 40 cubits, and the Tabernacle which was 30 cubits.

11 And thou shalt make fifty taches of brass, and put the taches into the loops, and couple the (2) tent together, that it may be one.

12 And the remnant that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the backside of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side (4) of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.

14 And thou shalt make a covering for the tent of (a) rams' skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers' skins.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood standing up.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board.

17 Two (b) tenons shall there be in one board, set in order one against another: thus shall thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side southward.

19 And thou shalt make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall be twenty boards:

1 The altar of burnt offering, with the vessels thereof. 9 The court of the tabernacle. 20 The oil for the lamp.

AND thou shalt make [i] an altar of shittim wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be four-square: and the height thereof shall be three cubits.

2 And thou shalt make the horns of it upon the four corners thereof: his horns shall be of the same: and thou shalt overlay it with brass.

3 And thou shalt make his pans to receive his ashes, and his shovels, and his basons, and his fleshhooks, and his firepans: all the vessels thereof thou shalt make of brass.

4 And thou shalt make for it a grate of network of brass; and upon the net shalt thou make four brasen rings in the four corners thereof.

5 And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midst of the altar.

6 And thou shalt make staves for the altar, staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with brass.

7 And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the altar, to bear it.

8 Hollow with boards shalt thou make it: [d] as [2] it was shewed thee in the mount, so shall they make it.

9 ¶ And [j] thou shalt make the court of the tabernacle: for the south side southward there shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of an hundred cubits long for one side:

10 And the twenty pillars thereof and their twenty sockets shall be of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets shall be of silver.

11 And likewise for the north side in length there shall be hangings of an hundred cubits long, and his twenty pillars and their twenty sockets of brass; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

12 ¶ And for the breadth of the court on the west side shall be hangings of fifty cubits: their pillars ten, and their sockets ten.

13 And the breadth of the court on the east side eastward shall be fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of one side of the gate shall be fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And on the other side shall be hangings fifteen cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 ¶ And for the gate of the court shall be an "hanging of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needlework: and their pillars

12 THE ALTAR OF BURNT OFFERING

13 Heb "paroketh" = to separate. That which divides and hides from view. The workmen were Divinely moved with wisdom to accomplish this work Ch. 35:30-35.

14 Heb "Meqtsoth" = Right. The corner boards were set at right angles. This would allow for 6 Boards plus 2 angle boards at each end. The total outside measurements thus be 10½ cubits, but allowing ½ cubit for thickness of boards, the inside measurements be 10 cubits. The length of the Tabernacle would thus be extended by ½ board, but this would allow for pillars of the veil giving inside measurements: 20 cubits for Holy, and 10 cubits for Most Holy.

THE COURT OF THE TABERNACLE Acts Vv. 9-19. 17

A wall of white linen separated the holy from the profane, excluding everything that defiled. It was 300 cubits long (approx 150ft) by 50 cubits broad (75ft).

17 Rightcourness Rev. 19:8. Such material clothed the priests

18 There were 60 pillars in all. See Note V. 16. 6x10 = the number of man associated with completeness. There was hope for all if they would approach Yah'weh in the appointed way. These pillars stood in sockets of brass (flesh purified) and were tipped with silver, or filleted or capped on top. Silver = redemption Cp Ex. 30:13. So the flesh through which entrance reaches up to redemption.

19 The linen wall of rightcourness was displayed on the silver hooks speaking of redemption.

20 See Note Lev. 24:2 11. This curtain was both attractive and easily opened. It symbolised the flesh, which had to be pushed aside that entrance might be gained. 1 Pet. 3:21 Heb. 10:19-20.

21 Christ is the door. John 10:7

22 It was thus wide allowing scope for all to enter. 2 x 10s = Jew and Gentile.

Aaron and his sons EXODUS 28. are set apart.

shall be four, and their sockets four.

17 All the pillars round about the court shall be filleted with silver; their hooks shall be of silver, and their sockets of brass.

18 ¶ The length of the court shall be an hundred cubits, and the breadth [a]fifty every where, and the height five cubits of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass.

19 All the vessels of the tabernacle in all the service thereof, and all the pins thereof, and all the pins of the court, shall be of brass.

20 ¶ And [b]thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, to cause the lamp [c]to burn always.

21 In the tabernacle of the congregation [d]without the vail, which is before the testimony, [e]Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the LORD: [f]it shall be a statute for ever unto their generations on the behalf of the children of Israel.

CHAPTER 28.

1 Aaron and his sons are set apart. 6 The ephod. 30 The Urim and Thummim. 36 The plate of the mitre.

AND take thou unto thee [g]Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office, even Aaron, [h]Nadab and Abihu, [i]Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons.

2 And [j]thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother for glory and for beauty.

3 And thou shalt speak unto all that are [k]wise hearted, [l]whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

4 And these are the garments which they shall make; breastplate, and [m]an ephod, and [n]a robe, and [o]a broidered coat, [p]a mitre, and [q]a girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.

5 And they shall take gold, and [r]blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

6 ¶ [s]And they shall make the ephod of gold, of [r]blue, and of purple, of scarlet, and fine twined linen, with [t]cunning work.

7 It shall have the two shoulderpieces thereof joined at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joined together.

8 And the [u]curious girdle of the ephod, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of [r]blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two [v]onyx stones, and grave on them the names of the children of Israel:

10 Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth.

11 [w]With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the children of Israel: thou shalt make them to be set in ouches of gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel: and [x]Aaron shall bear their names before the LORD upon his two shoulders [y]for a memorial.

13 ¶ And thou shalt make ouches of gold;

THE COURT. Ch. 27:9. The Linen wall was a barrier: it prevented unlawful approach, and so preserved the sanctity of the Tabernacle. It was a protection: it kept out any intrusion that was ungodly. It was impassable. It was a clear line of demarcation! It established the principle of separation. It was a way of approach: a symbolism was was required for acceptable worship. 25

THE BREASTPLATE Vv 15-30 The breastplate of judgment.

EXODUS 28.

CHAINS OF GOLD. Vv 22-25.

Doubled so as to form a bag. 2 rings of gold were placed inwards at bottom and 2 were attached to the Ephod just above the curious belt, and these were bound one to the other by a lace of blue. V 23 Two wreathen chains of gold were fastened to the ouches in which the onyx-stones were set and were also fastened at their other ends to two rings at the top of the Breastplate. Thus the Ephod, Onyx Stones and Breastplate were all linked together and comprised the prophetic dress of the High Priest. 1 Sam 2:28. 1 Chr 23:6. Ps 17:8. 2 Sam 23:1.

24 Gesenius = "Twisted work," thus "two chains of pure gold twisted wreathen work."

25 Decisions were made by the aid of Breastplate. It was the prophetic dress of High Priest see note re Lot. Num 26:55. 26 See Note Ch. 28:6. 27 See Note Ch. 28:6. 28 As the camp of Israel Num. 2 and the New Jerusalem Rev 21:16. 29 γ inch. 1 Sam 17:49.

30. The manner in which these rows were placed is not given. The indication is "according to tribes." Thus Judah (1st row) on East or right 2nd row on bottom, 3rd row on left, and 4th row on top.

The chosen race Hag 2:23. Cp Note. V. 14.

14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends; of wreathen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the wreathen chains to the ouches.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make the breastplate of judgment with cunning work; after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen, shalt thou make it.

16 Foursquare it shall be being doubled a span shall be the length thereof, and a span shall be the breadth thereof.

17 And thou shalt set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this shall be the first row.

18 And the second row shall be an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

19 And the third row a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst.

20 And the fourth row a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be set in gold in their inclosings.

21 And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet; every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes.

22 ¶ And thou shalt make upon the breastplate chains at the ends of wreathen work of pure gold.

23 And thou shalt make upon the breastplate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate.

24 And thou shalt put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breastplate.

25 And the other two ends of the two wreathen chains thou shalt fasten in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod before it.

26 ¶ And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breastplate in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod inward.

27 And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart thereof, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

28 And they shall bind the breastplate by the rings thereof unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the ephod.

29 And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually.

30 ¶ And thou shalt put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be upon Aaron's heart, when he goeth in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before the LORD continually.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

32 And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an habergeon, that it be not rent.

33 ¶ And beneath upon the hem of it thou shalt make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, round

THE URIM & THUMMIM – Yahweh is Urim (Lights - Jas 1:17) and Thummim (Perfections or fulness – for with Him there is no shadow of turning Eph 1:17 Cp Ps 18:30 Deut 32:4) and Christ is the manifestation of the Father (Deut 33:8). The Sept. renders: "Delosin" Aletheian" = Manifestation and Truth. Cp Eph 5:14 Urim sometimes mentioned without Thummim Num 27:21. 1 Sam. 28:6. The Light gave the gems the fulness of glory without which it was merely fulness. To ask Judgement (Num 27:21) involved penetrating the Most Holy (Jud. 20:18,23,27), though this was not necessary when the Ark was not available. Cp 1 Sam. 30:7-8. For that purpose Moses originally entered the Most Holy Exod. 25:22.

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be.

38 And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts; and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the LORD.

39 ¶ And thou shalt embroider the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle of needlework.

40 ¶ And for Aaron's sons thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make for them, for glory and for beauty.

41 And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priest's office.

42 And thou shalt make them linen breeches to cover their nakedness; from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach:

43 And they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sons, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near unto the altar to minister in the holy place; that they bear not iniquity, and die: it shall be a statute for ever unto him and his seed after him.

Aaron as God's Representative for man.

In Ch. 28 he is revealed as a mediator; bearing their burdens V. 12 Compassionate on their behalf V. 29 Wisely guiding and judging them V. 30, teaching V. 35, proclaiming holiness to Yahweh Vv. 36, 38 & he must be properly prepared. This takes the form of bathing (washing) clothing and consecrating him.
11 This ram seems to take the form of a peace offering Lev. 7: 1-17. though differing from such inasmuch as blood is applied to the persons of the priests implying the complete dedication of their lives and all their powers to the service of Yahweh as His representative to the people.
12 This represented the life of the offeror given back to them in order that it might be devoted to Yahweh.
13 This second anointing Cp V. 6 is indicative of Eternal Life. The oil is mixed with the blood of the altar, indicating a life devoted in accordance with the Spirit.
17 ALYAH - from a root signifying strength and indicating the the strait part - the fat tail. RV - "fat tail."
16 SHOWQ from a root signifying to run. Hence the leaping a runner, implying activity.
17 MILLUIM - Fillings, fill hands: filled with the offerings illustrated by what he was called to do. The offerings were entirely consumed, there was to be no corruption V. 34.
18 RAQIYQ (plur. RAQIYQEY) from RAQAQ - To beat, pound, spread out by beating, thus to make thin, three deductions: Unleavened 1 Chr. 23:28; Impregnated with oil the Word; beaten thin - learning obedience Heb. 5:1-4, 7-9.
19 As mediator Gal. 3:19.
Bread = fruit of labour, fat = best & richest portions of life. Shoulder = physical ability.
10 In this transaction Moses represented Yahweh & received the breast - the seat of affection. In subsequent transactions this was given to the High Priest who represented Yahweh to the people.
11 A short digression here V. 27 to explain future conversations. On such occasions (Moses not officiating) the breast & right shoulder were to go to the priests.
12 Given to Yahweh by being heaved up. It was the choicest cut of the meat & the strongest part of the animal, denoting the best of physical power offered to Him.

THE LINEN BREECHES

The Hebrew BAD is used to describe this linen, not SHESH as elsewhere in this chapter. Both words are used in Exod. 39:28 for the same garment. All the garments are so described with the word BAD in Lev. 16:4, 23, 32. The angelic man is clothed with BAD linen Ezek. 9:2, 3, 11; 10:2, 6, 7. In Ezek. 44:17-18 PISHTEH is used. Str. - comminuting - i.e. to reduce to minute particles by carding, re combining.

BAD is from BÂDAD - To divide, be solitary & is translated "alone." Lev. 13:46. Num. 23:9. Deut. 33:28. Perhaps linen was set aside for the breeches as it was for all garments. The breeches could have been the last item made and therefore of the fine linen that remained. They seem, however, to have been made of the same kind of linen.

Evidently the breeches were only put on when ministering in the Tabernacle of congregation (Mo'ED) - of appointed meeting. They reached from loin to knee and hidden from human sight were only apparent to Yahweh. Thus sexual irregularities should be excluded even in thought. Cp Dt. 5:27-28

See Note Exod. 20:26.

BAD is used for Breeches. Exod. 28:42; 39:28 (this verse suggests that "bad" was a different weave of sheth - both being basically the same material). A special garment for taking up the ashes as well as the breeches Lev. 6:10. The child Samuel's Ephod 1 Sam. 2:18 David's ephod 1 Chron. 15:27. The angel of judgment's garment Ezek. 9:2, 3, 11; 10:2, 6, 7. The high priest's attire for offering Atonement Lev. 16:4 23, 32. The linen ephod of the common priests 1 Sam. 22:18 David's ephod 1 Chr. 15:27.

11 CHUQQAH - An enactment, appointment. (RUWM) ↳ rendered "Levy" Num 31:28. The Word ~~signifies~~ Certain portions were levied for Divine use. Heb TERUWMAH a present as offered up from RUWM, To be high, to rise or raise. Probably ceremonially lifted up + down to indicate fellowship between heaven + earth. Cp Lev. 7:14, 30-32. NTE = Heave possession.

13 A second digression to indicate the future use of the priest's garments. Vs 29-30. See Eleazar's use of them. Num. 20:28.

The priests were not to leave the Tabernacle for 7 days. Lev. 8:33. Thus Enoch-en observed priestly ministrations always available: Yahweh always accessible. Ps. 134:1; 88:1.

End of the diversion. Cp. V. 27.

The size + value of the burnt + peace offerings = the same. V. 14. Their response to divine mercy in forgiveness was to devote their lives to His service + by overcoming sin enjoy His fellowship. To the extent they did the first (burnt off), they enjoyed the second. Hence of equal value.

Contrast Exod. 12:9. An absence of haste, a more deliberate, gradual development. See below.

ZUWR - Heb. to turn aside - hence a profane person. One not a priest. Only one who turned aside from Yahweh would presume to so eat. Relationship exclusive. Lit. "a holy place." Outside the door of Tabernacle. Lev. 8:31.

KAPHAR - To Cover. Flesh covered or set aside.

There must be no putrefaction. Cp Exod. 12:10. Acts 2:27. The lesson being that the priestly nation must seek moral purity.

A token of the fellowship enjoyed by the priestly nation. Fellowship is exclusive. Ch. Ezek. 44:7.

The whole ceremony repeated 7 times. See Index on 7. Cp. ● enacted seating of Jericho 7 days. Josh. 6:3-4. ↳ Washings Naaman 2 Kgs 5:14. Ascents of Carmel by Elijah's servant.

6 SANCTIFICATION OF THE ALTAR W 36-37.

17 This was the same bullock as served for Aaron and his sons. Cp Lev. 8:15. All the ceremonial was repeated 7 times and not only the atonement for the altar Lev. 8:33.

18 CHATA' - Sin. Roth: "thou "... and shalt make a sin-" cleansing for the altar..." Moses smeared blood on its horns, and poured the remainder at its base Lev. 8:15.

"Thou shalt purify the altar in thy making atonement for it..." (New Old Testament). Or "by making..."

It represented the presence of Yahweh Exod 29:42-43.

Cleansing required of the priests who approached it Exod. 30:17-21.

It represented the Table of Yahweh, and the food consumed thereon - the flesh, fat + meat - were as His bread. Lev. 21:6, 17. See Note. Mal. 1:7.

There the priests ate in fellowship with Yahweh. Lev. 7:15.

CHAINS OF GOLD. Ch. 28:14. "At the ends" = MIGBAROTH - Gen. "of wrathen work" whereas "wrathen work" in the AV is from "ma'aseh" - cords or ropes. "Two chains of pure gold, of wrathen work, like unto ropes shalt thou make them." The gold intertwined to make a chain or rope is indicative of the strength of unity and co-operation. Cp the School of the prophets.

SEETHING THE SACRIFICE V. 31 - Seething is a slower, more thorough process of cooking than roasting. It is accomplished by baptism's heat. The word BASHAL signifies fig. To ripen, to be done, hence to bring to maturity. The bubbling water is suggestive of zealous activity in the things of Yahweh. Ps. 119:139. 69:9 Tit. 2:14; Col. 4:18. The meat was cooked in pots 1 Sam. 2:13-14. Both the flesh and the broth were eaten Jud. 6:19.

SHITTIM WOOD Ox. Ges. - Probably a loan word from Egypt. If so - a reminder of Egyptian nature of flesh. Strong derives it from root SHOTET to pierce, scourge Josh. 23:13, the acacia from its scourging thorns. W. Brown, The Antiquities of the Jews: "The original word comes from a root which signifies "despised, hated or persecuted." It thus represents human nature which must be pierced or crucified and which in turn will pierce or crucify. See Note Exod. 25:5. The acacia seyal is a darkish wood, hard, close grained, but hardly large enough to provide the long planks Ch 27:21 although it could then have grown larger than today.

The brazen altar provided atonement; the golden altar completed the process in communion.

This was the purpose of the call Deut. 28:9 to Jer. 13:11. Acts 15:14.

among them: I am the LORD their God. Altar Incense: Wood = Gold = human nature = faith.

THE ALTAR OF INCENSE Vv.1-10.

1 The altar of incense. 11 The ransom of souls. 17 The brasen laver. 22 The holy anointing oil. 34 The composition of the perfume.

AND thou shalt make [b] an altar to burn incense upon: of shittim wood shalt thou make it. [f] Thus small = Gold. Prayer = a combination human nature

2 A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof; foursquare shall it be: and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same.

3 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the [g] top thereof, and the [h] sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and thou shalt make unto it a [k] crown of gold round about.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two [l] corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it; and they shall be for [k] places for the staves to bear it withal.

5 And thou shalt make the staves of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 And thou shalt put it before the vail that is by the ark of the testimony, before the [m] mercy seat that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee.

7 And Aaron shall burn thereon [n] sweet incense every morning: when [o] he dresseth the lamps, he shall burn incense upon it.

8 And when Aaron [p] lighteth the lamps [2] at even, he shall burn incense upon it, a perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations.

9 Ye shall offer no [r] strange incense thereon, nor burnt sacrifice, nor meat offering; neither shall ye pour drink offering thereon.

10 And [t] Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year with the blood [a] of the sin offering of atonements: once in the year shall he make atonement upon it throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the LORD.

11 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 [c] When thou takest the sum of the children of Israel after [2] their number, then shall they give every man [d] a ransom for his soul unto the LORD, when thou numberest them; that there be no [e] plague among them, when thou numberest them.

13 This they shall give, every one that passeth among them that are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary: (a shekel is twenty gerahs:) an half shekel shall be the offering of the LORD.

14 Every one that passeth among them that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the LORD.

15 The rich shall not [6] give more, and the poor shall not [7] give less than half a shekel, when they give an offering unto the LORD, to make an [i] atonement for your souls.

16 And thou shalt take the atonement money of the children of Israel, and [u] shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be [v] a memorial unto the children of Israel before the LORD, to make an atonement for your souls.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 [w] Thou shalt also make a laver of brass, and his foot also of brass, to wash withal: and thou shalt [x] put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein.

19 For Aaron and his sons [y] shall wash their hands and their feet thereat:

A MAIDSERVANT. Cf with Ch. 20:10. Here Exod. 21:7. the word is AMAH, and signifies a maidservant. Usually these were bought to be made the concubines or secondary wives of their masters. If this intention were carried out, then they were entitled to their status + maintenance as wives during their lifetime even though their husband took another legitimate wife. Cp 1 Cor. 7:10. For maidservant as a concubine, see Gen. 16:1. Hagar. "bondwoman" Jud. 9:18. Gen 20:17. Rend. "bondwomen" Gen. 21:10, 12, 13. Exod. 23:12. Ruth 3:9 Typical of Mary as the mother of the Lord Ps. 86:16; 116:16. The expression is often used deprecatory in the spirit of humility. 1 Sam. 1:11, 16; 1 Kings 1:13. and even as a term of endearment.

19 BURNT OFFERINGS + PEACE OFFERINGS

Exod. 24:5. Burnt offerings - Cp Lev. 1. Peace offerings Cp top p. 138. The former offered the dedication of self; the latter established fellowship with Yahweh on the basis of the former. Though the law regarding sacrifices had not then been given, they knew what kind of offerings to make from the time of Adam Gen. 4:3-7; 8:20-21; 12:7; 13:4; 15:9-12; 22:13; 26:25; 31:54; 35:7; Exod. 8:26; 10:19, 26.

The incidents recorded in Vv.5-8 are the subject of Heb. 9:15-23. where "testament" should be rendered "covenant" and the word "men" should be rendered "covenant victims" (epi nekrois) referred to here. This incident provides a basis for the ratification of the New Covenant.

I. The Altar of Incense symbolised prayer, and the fact that it was associated with sacrifice indicated that prayer is unacceptable except through the slain lamb.

12. It acted as a link between Holy and Most Holy. Heb. 9:1-4.

THE FIVE INGREDIENTS OF THE ANOINTING OIL
- Free-flowing Myrrh - Bitter fragrant. The Knowledge of the Truth induces this
- Sweet Cinnamon - The inner life of uprightness which is its development.
- Sweet Calamus - To erect, be upstanding. "Quit you like men, be strong" 1 Cor. 16:13
- Cassia - To bow the head in reverential worship.
- Oil - God manifestation + faith (purple + gold Zech. 4:12. All mixed with oil of faith.

120

THE EFFECT OF ANOINTING Isa. 11:2.
- MYRRH - Wisdom + Understanding 500 shekels - Life giving Words dropped freely from his lips. John 18:20
- CINNAMON (250 shekels) - Counsel - The inner thought.
- CALAMUS (250 shekels) - MIGHT - That which enables one to stand erect.
- CASSIA (600 shekels) - Knowledge and fear of Yahweh. - Inducing reverential worship.

The first + last are related - thus 500 of each - Wisdom, Understanding; Knowledge, fear. Prov. 1:7

The holy anointing oil.

20 When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not; or when they come near to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the LORD:
21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not: and it shall be a statute for ever to them, even to him and to his seed throughout their generations.

22 ¶ Moreover the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, (BESEMIM - fragrance)
23 Take thou also unto thee principal spices, of pure myrrh five hundred shekels, and of sweet cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels, spice more fragrant when
24 And of cassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oil olive an hin: (Heb. V. 11)

33 Whosoever compoundeth any like it, or whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people. Excommunicated. Cp Nr. 21:33, 30
34 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbanum; these sweet spices with pure frankincense: of each shall there be a like weight:
35 And thou shalt make it a perfume, a confection after the art of the apothecary, tempered together, pure and holy:
36 And thou shalt beat some of it very small, and put of it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meet with thee: it shall be unto you most holy. Heb. 4:16. 6:19. 10:22.
37 And as for the perfume which thou shalt make, ye shall not make to yourselves according to the composition thereof: it shall be unto thee holy for the LORD.
38 Whosoever shall make like unto that, to smell thereto, shall even be cut off from his people. Cp V. 33. See Prov. 12:

CHAPTER 31.

13 INCENSE + PRAYER. Ps. 141:2. Luke 1:10 Rev 5:8 8:3
1. A Kind of myrrh brought forth from the tree by deep cuts in trunk. Cf Christ's sufferings Phil. 3:10
2. Made from white sea-shell found on shores Red Sea, speaking of deliverance. It is fragrant smelling.
3. Gum's own an anti-smelling preparation when burnt. Its main use was keeping serpents away.
4. A spice tree which yields a white gum at slight cut scratch - speaking of ready response to prayer at all times to all requirements Lages Vol. 19 p. 54.
5. The Stacte or Nataf in Heb. "Nataph" = "a liquid drop." Other than a fat flowing From a root root "drop" i.e. prophecy or proclaim Yahweh's will in Ezek. 20:46, 21:2, Amos. 7:16. Read "prophesy" Mic. 2:6, 11. Zech. 13:3. Thus we pray in Christ's name John 14:13, 16 and according to His will 1 John 5:14. Cp Luke 22:42.
6. Was burnt to give the odor. The realization of Divine help and presence would be apparent at such a time - utter dependence on Him.
7. Heb Chelbenah, from "Cheleb" - fat. Cp Lev. 3:16 17
8. Heb Lebonah: White ness, i.e. purity. "Frankincense" = Free-flowing

Cf. Prov. 28:9. 15:8 16. Jer. 7:16. 11:14. 14:11 37:16. Ps. 50:16.
10. So we must be holy before Yahweh.
11. Such adoration for no one else, done, each time [illegible] be ready for Him.

25. Emphasising the importance of constant Bible study. Deut. 32:46-47. Ps. 119:9. John 5:39. 17:17.
26. Worship in the absence of this cleansing through the Word avails naught.
27. See note above.
28. Heb. RV = base. KEN from KUWN - To stand erect, upright. Root faithfulness. Ps. 89:2 established 2 Sam. 7:12; Ps. 89:2, 4. Eastern people wash in running water not bowl. Note "thereat" not "in" v. 19. Perhaps the base was like an under basin + washing performed by an outlet from above. Thus living water John 4:10.

12 THE HOLY ANOINTING OIL Vv. 22-33.

28 DEROWR = freedom, spontaneity. Str. Trans. "liberty" Lev. 25:10. Isa. 61:1. Jer. 34:8, 15, 17. Ezek. 46:17. RV - "flowing." The shrub that yields myrrh (a White gum) produces two kinds: one that flows spontaneously (the best) and another of inferior quality which flows from incisions made in the bark.
1 Heb. mor - bitter. See note p. 946. The shrub = Balsamodendron myrrha. - a thorny tree like the acacia. The taste of myrrh is bitter, but its smell agreeable. Ezek. 3:3, 14. Rev. 10:9.
BESEM - fragrant or spicy. / Qing. known
Sig. Erect. Upright. From the inner bark of the tree (growing in Ceylon or India) Produces a golden oil, suggestive in the inner life.

QIDDAH from a root QADAD - To shrivel up, to bend the body or neck in deference. Ps. 35:14. To stoop, bow down. Ps. 57:6. Cassia is a coarser variety of cinnamon, but it is uncertain as to whether Cassia is here intended. (a diff. word in Ps. 45:8).
24. Berries ripened by sun; purple in color; tree beaten when ripe; olives crushed, baptised in boiling water to refine.
Of Egyptian origin! Approx 6 pints. RAQACH - Perfumer
30. Not a simple mixture, but a careful compounding by one skilled in the art. There must not be imitations of the Spirit or the Spirit Word. One must be begotten by the Spirit-Word before the doctrine is efficacious! Thes. 1:3:5. This must come from above - Jam. 3:17, from the Word. 1 Pet. 1:23. Rev. 1:2.
31. Inanimate objects first anointed before the priests Cp Heb. 9:22-24. Exod. 29:4. 7:11-24. Lev. 8:12. Ps. 133. Heb. 1:9. See Note.

THE SABBATH: A SIGN.
- A sign with Israel of sanctification setting forth the basis of salvation (defilers of it to be put to death) and the purpose of Yahweh as foreshadowed in the creation week. Exod. 31:13-17.
- It commemorates the rest from Egypt the land of sin-rebirth. Deut. 5:15.
- No fire to be kindled. Exod. 35:2-3.
- Death penalty imposed. Num. 15:32-36.
- No burden to be borne Jer. 17:21-27.
- For sabbath in relation to believers, see notes in Index under SDA.

STACTE - This name derived LXX. The Greeks applied this name to myrrh & to gum storax - the product of a tree allied to the poplar & known as Styrax officinalis. Grows abundantly in the Land & was frequently used by the ancients. RV mg: Jewish tradition = opobalsamum.

WORKMEN OF WISDOM. Vv. 1-11.
1 Suggesting intimate relationship. Is. 62:4 Dan. 12:3.
2. Under the Shadow (Protection) of El.
3 Light - Enlightened.
4 Like the Apostles. Acts 2:14. 4:8 effect. Acts 4:13.
5 Thus a practical man. (1) The ability to grasp (2) Apply (3) Experience & acquaintance with facts (4) Application. Cp 2 Tim 2:15.
6 "To plan designs" d. Within the scope of the revealed plan. He could apply himself to the best means etc.
7 Tent (Ohel) of his father. Appropriately he seems to have been in charge of textiles. Exod. 38:23.
8 Brother of support.
9 Natural ability used in Divine service. Heb 4:10. Mt. 25:14-30.
BEGEDEY HAQODESH - SEBAD - Garments of weaving. The clothing. Clothing vestments of service worn by the High Priest - Robe, Ephod, Girdle, Breastplate. See also 39:1.
BEGEDEY HAQODESH Garments of holiness. The rest of his clothing which constituted all his garments on day Atonement. Lev. 16:4.

THE SABBATH. SIGN Vv. 12-17.
The Exclusive Israelitish Sign.
10. This is connected with the Keeping of the Sabbath - a resting from the works of sin. Isa. 58:13-14. Heb 4:10.
11 To do unnecessary servile work. To work for God at His direction was permitted. or necessary work for existing life. Cp Mt. 12:1-7, 10-12.
[redacted] those flagrantly breaking it should be put to death. Num. 15:32-36.
12. Why introduce the Sabbath at this place? Because all the service of the Tabernacle was summed up in it. It brought the Tabernacle service as a practical observation into the life of the individual. 13 See attitude Israel's mocking enemies. Lam. 1:7 Cp Obad. Cp Ezek. 20:12, 20

1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 See, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:
3 And I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,
4 To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass,
5 And in cutting of stones, to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship.
6 And I, behold, I have given with him Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan: and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted I have put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee;
7 The tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy seat that is thereupon, and all the furniture of the tabernacle,
8 And the table and his furniture, and the pure candlestick with all his furniture, and the altar of incense,
9 And the altar of burnt offering with all his furniture, and the laver and his foot,
10 And the cloths of service, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office,
11 And the anointing oil, and sweet incense for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded thee shall they do.
12 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
13 Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the LORD that doth sanctify you.
14 Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore; for it is holy unto you: every one that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people.
15 Six days may work be done; but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath day, he shall surely be put to death.
16 Wherefore the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant.
17 It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.
18 ¶ And he gave unto Moses, when he had made an end of communing with him upon mount Sinai, two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

CHAPTER 32.
1 The people cause Aaron to make a calf. 19 Moses breaketh the tables. 25 The idolaters slain. 30 Moses prayeth for the people.

AND when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.
2 And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me.
3 And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron.

CHAPTER 32.
THE TABERNACLE DELAYED CHS 32:1-34:35
ISRAEL'S LAPSE INTO IDOLATRY. Vv 1-6.
1 Cor. 10:6-7. As in the days of Exod. the people required some visible evidence of Deity - for worship.
1 The cloud had removed to enter Sinai Exod. 24:15. At the foot of Horeb it would be unseen. So the people were left without any visible evidence of God.
In fact there was not any true delay Deut. 9:9. but it seemed so to the people who were without visible leadership. See the danger of this thought. Luke 12:45. Mat. 24:48. 2 Pet. 3:4.
This attitude of mind. The first step in apostasy.
There was a general feeling of impatience with the manifestation that Yahweh's providence demanded at that time. Cp Exod 16:13. This provided the second step in backsliding.
3 "A god" - all both "gods" because construed with a plural verb. "Elohim."
4 The demand for visible signs of worship when faith should govern our actions was. The third step in backsliding. Cp 1 Sam. 4:3-8.
5 Should it be likely that Yahweh should provide the means of escape from Egypt to destroy them in the wilderness? Ignorance comprised. The fourth step in backsliding. Cp. Mat. 24:42. Cp Exod. 9:19 21, 25 26. Josh. 24:42. Cp Exod. 9:19 21, 25 26. Josh. 24:42. Cp Exod. 9:19 21, 25 26. Josh. 24:42.
6 This jewelry later used for Tabernacle. Exod. 35:22.
7 Both. "and made it a molten calf."
8 "This (it) thy god" - d. The bull Apis was worshipped in Egypt with headquarters in Memphis, the bull Mnevis was worshipped in Heliopolis. See Bethel p. 123.

YAHWEH M'QADDISHIM V. 13. 121
This is the first appearance of this Name. See it in Lev. 20:7-8, 21:8, 15, 23; 22:9, 16, 32.
He thus commands "sanctify yourselves," & to show that flesh requires help to that end, adds: "I am Yahweh M'qaddishim - that sanctifieth."
To sanctify is not only to set an object apart for a special use, but to see that it is worthy of such use. For flesh Yahweh sets an impossible standard. Lev. 19:2. But He will "work in" those who reveal a repentant heart and dedicated will Phil. 2:13.
His will is our sanctification 1 Thess 4:3. This must be revealed in living 1 Pet. 1:15, self-sacrifice Rom. 12:1, prayer 1 Tim. 2:8.

Sanctification is effected by God Jude 1, in Christ 1 Cor. 1:30, Heb. 10:10; 13:12, through the Spirit 1 Pet. 1:2. Eph. 2:18.
Christ sanctified himself that he might become the sanctifying medium for others John 17:19.
Sanctification in the Kingdom Rev. 21:24-27.
Sanctification throughout creation 1 Cor. 15:28.
Rend. Hallow. Lev. 22:32. Cp Mk. 6:9-10.

"THY PEOPLE" V.7.
They had been baptised into him and were now one with him. He, as mediator was their representative to Yahweh. They thus constituted the multitudinous body of Moses. Jude 4.

EXODUS 32.

8 A visible symbol of the invisible God who brought them out.
9 Not "it" but the reaction of the Israelites. "And saw Aaron, and he built" d. He thus "followed a pivot idiade to do evil" Exod. 23:2 and encouraged the idolatry he felt powerless to restrain.
10 He had not abandoned the worship of Yahweh, but saw the golden calf as a manifestation or visible symbol of that worship. The Israelites were familiar with it being offered in sacrifice. Ex. 8:26.
11 There was an eagerness to satisfy their longing for some visible evidence for their worship.
12 See comment 1 Cor. 10:7.
13 The sensuality associated with idol worship. Cp V. 25.

2 MOSES SENT BACK TO DISCIPLINE THEM SUCCESSFULLY INTERCEDES Vv 7-14.

14 There is tentative repudiation hinted at in these expressions.
At that time Moses on Sinai 1-3 m. distant from Horeb, and the people were out of his sight.
15 "This (11) thy god" d.
16 The angel had evidently refused to allow the enormity of Israel's apostasy to sink in.
17 The first time this expression used. Israel manifesting the characteristic of a stubborn ass in danger of having its neck broken. Exod. 13:13.
18 This, however would have published the failure of both Yahweh & Moses, from the time Moses reached full manhood. Exod. 2:11 he had thrown in his lot with the people Heb 11:24-26 He had been appointed their leader Exod. 3:10; they had accepted him as such Exod. 4:31.
19 Cp Deut. 9:18, 26-29. Ps. 106 21. Gal. 3:19-20.
20 So as to destroy them. He pleads for Israel on 3 counts:
1. To destroy them would be to defeat His own purpose
2. Egypt would then triumph.
3. The Covenant of faith would be broken.
Moses could not intercede on the basis of the Sinaitic Covenant for that was conditional. Exod 19:3-8. See bottom 123
21 Cp V.7.
22 LETSALHAQ - To wanton d. The same word rendered "sport" Gen. 26:8 & "mock" Gen. 39:14, 17 obviously implies fornication or sexual depravity.
23 This is expressive of the power of prayer. Moses had indicated his intention of "wrestling with God" Gen. 32:26 as Jacob with the angel & Abram in his intercession for Sodom Gen. 18:23-32. It indicates the power of man a righteous man to divert the divine intention Jas. 5:16-18.

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron saw it, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation, and said, To morrow is a feast to the LORD.

6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

7 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Go, get thee down; for thy people, which thou broughtest out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves: (awakening a sense responsibility)

8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them: they have made them a molten calf, and have worshipped it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

10 Now therefore let me alone, that my wrath may wax hot against them, and that I may consume them: and I will make of thee a great nation.

11 And Moses besought the LORD his God, and said, LORD, why doth thy wrath wax hot against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mighty hand?

12 Wherefore should the Egyptians speak, and say, For mischief did he bring them out, to slay them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turn from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou swarest by thine own self, and saidst unto them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give unto your seed, and they shall inherit it for ever.

14 And the LORD repented of the evil which he thought to do unto his people.

15 ¶ And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

16 And the tables were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, graven upon the tables.

17 And when Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, he said unto Moses, There is a noise of war in the camp.

18 And he said, It is not the voice of them that shout for mastery, neither is it the voice of them that cry for being overcome: but the noise of them that sing do I hear.

19 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as he came nigh unto the camp, that he saw the calf, and the dancing: and Moses' anger waxed hot, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and brake them beneath the mount.

20 And he took the calf which they had made, and burnt it in the fire, and ground it to powder, and strawed it upon the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

21 And Moses said unto Aaron, What did this people unto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sin upon them?

22 And Aaron said, Let not

V.4. Fashioned it with a graving tool"
This deliberate action belies the statement of Aaron V.24 and the statement of V.5. "Fashioned" is Yatsar - to compress, squeeze etc. "graving tool" is CHERET from the same root as CHARIT, rend "bag" 2 Kgs 5:23. The phrase can be rendered: he squeezed it into a bag almost identical with 2 Kg 5:23, exonerating Aaron from the deliberate action of fashioning the idol.

It should be noted that behind these words scarcely concealed, lies encouragement to intercession" (Roth.). Moses almost reechoes Jacob's words: "I will not let thee go, except thou bless me."

Will we be found worshipping the golden calf at Christ's return! thus indulging in the idolatry of covetousness! Col. 3:5.

THE GOLDEN CALF
In Egypt, the goddess Hathor is often depicted as a [illegible] woman with the horns of a calf, or as a cow or calf. Hathor was the goddess of love, happiness, dance and music. Cp Exod. 32:6.

4 MOSES AND STONES BROKEN. 19-24.
Deut. 9:16-17, 21.
27 Moses saw the extent of their sin Deut. 9:11 and deliberately broke the stones as emblematic of what the people had done, indicating thereby that only Yahweh could restore the covenant. Deut. 9:17.
28 Called "the sin" Deut. 9:21.
29 He melted their god in fire, beat it into plates, ground them into powder, cast it into the brook - the source of their drinking water & so made them consume their very god. Thus he revealed how contemptible a god it was! Cp Deut. 9:21.
30 Moses learnt that it was not without cause that Yahweh's wrath was hot V.10. Cp Exod. 14:31

LEVITES REPLACE FIRSTBORN. When the firstborn of Egypt were slain, blood on the lintel and side door posts was needed to protect Israelite firstborn from a similar fate. They then became the special property of Yahweh, consecrated to Him as a memorial (Exod. 13:11-16). Instead of the firstborn Levites were chosen for the sanctuary, because when the people had broken the covenant by making the golden calf, they alone had voluntarily returned to their allegiance and shown zeal for His honor (Exod. 32:26-29. Num. 3:9, 11-13, 40, 41, 45; 8:16-18).

24 And I said unto them, [h] Whosoever hath any gold, let them break it off. So they gave it me: then I cast it into the fire, and there came out this calf.

25 ¶ And when Moses saw that the people were naked; (for Aaron [k] had made them naked unto their shame among [2] their enemies:)

26 Then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, Who is on the LORD's side? let him come unto me. And all the sons of Levi gathered themselves together unto him.

27 And he said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Put every man his sword by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the camp, and [m] slay every man his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbour.

28 And the children of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men.

29 For Moses had said, [3] Consecrate yourselves to day to the LORD, even every man upon his son, and upon his brother; that he may bestow upon you a blessing this day.

30 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses said unto the people, [n] Ye have sinned a great sin: and now I will go up unto the LORD; [o] peradventure I shall [p] make an atonement for your sin.

31 And Moses [d] returned unto the LORD, and said, Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have [b] made them gods of gold.

32 Yet now, if thou wilt forgive their sin—[q]; and if not, [e] blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book which thou hast written.

33 And the LORD said unto Moses, [r] Whosoever hath sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book.

34 Therefore now go, lead the people unto the place of which I have spoken unto thee: [s] behold, mine Angel shall go before thee: nevertheless in the day when I visit I will visit their sin upon them.

35 And the LORD plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

40 Confession of sin.

41 "a god of gold" d.

42 Supply the ellipsis — "Well and good" Cp similar sentence construction. Gen. 30:27. Cp Paul's attitude Rom. 9:2-3.

43 He rejects the substitutionary offering of Moses Cp Ezek. 18:20.

44 This was a revocation of the sentence passed in v. 10. The action of the Levites and the appeal of Moses had accomplished that much.

45 He thus threatens to withdraw His presence. Cp Ch. 34:6-6, 14-16.

46 Evidently the guilt extended beyond the 3000 slain, for which the plague was sent.

47 NÂGAPH — To strike, in the manner in which this was done is not revealed. It was not necessarily by disease.

CHAPTER 33.

7 YAHWEH REFUSES TO GO WITH THE PEOPLE

Vv. 1-3.

1 40 days of fasting and prayer had been occupied in the Mount. Deut. 9:18.

2 This was the basis of Moses' appeal Ch. 32:13.

3 Israel had not kept their agreement Exod. 23:22 but Yahweh in grace renews it. Exod. 23:23.

4 Figurative of great fertility and plenty. Cp Exod. 3:8.

5 Yahweh offers to withdraw His presence, His glory from Israel on the grounds that, if they offend, He will exact the punishment that sin demands. But compare Vv. 12-17.

8 MOSES INTERCEDES FOR THE PEOPLE VV. 4-11.

6 They were evil to them because they could recall the guidance of the pillar of cloud Exod. 13:21. Yahweh's close presence Exod. 33:22. His counsel when needed Exod. 15:25. His aid in battle Exod. 17:8-13. Gentiles may be able to get on alright without God, but it is impossible for true Israelites to do so.

7 They "sorrowed to repentance" 2 Cor. 7:9-10. willingly fulfilling Yahweh's requirements of extend regret.

8 "And" d. This was subsequent to 4. The people desire Yahweh to go with them and remove their ornaments. Yahweh responds by warning that His presence would entail

33 Probably literally & figuratively so. Literally for the dancing & figuratively in a helpless state if their enemies should attack. See use of expression 2 Chron. 28:19.

34 The principal gate — for their ceremony. 16:27

35 Lit. "Who for Yahweh" d.

36 The tribe of Moses & Aaron. Perhaps to support the former and atone for the latter.

37 Cp Deut. 33:9. The slaying would be limited to those still engaged in licentious rites Cp. Luke 14:25-26

38 Moses exhorted them to manifest zeal and activity ("fill your hands" — mg.) in this matter with the assurance that they would be blessed in so doing. The blessing was the priestly tribe appointment. Num. 3:6-13.

39 Israel would have been in deep mourning with 3000 slain & the consciousness of sin.

40 Cp Deut. 9:18-20 Moses elder describes the anger of Yahweh, his fast for 40 days, the difficulty for intercession, the danger Aaron experienced.

123 "WHY DOTH THY WRATH WAX HOT?" V. 11

Yahweh is normally long-suffering and patient 2 Pet. 3:15 slow to anger Ps. 103:8; 145:8. To set up another god is an act of base ingratitude well calculated to inspire anger Deut. 4:25; 9:18; 31:29. Cp Num. 14:22 for Yahweh's witness to His people. This sch of the people inspired a new name for Yahweh: Jealous Exod. 34:14.

Ceremonially unclean. Deut. 23:10-14.
Proselytes first brought for a period Josh. 6:23.

The references all relate to sin in some way which broke the covenant and could only be atoned for on principles outside the Law. Exod. 14:7 is the first instance where this is recorded.

Cp. 1 Cor. 5:7, 11, 13. Rev. 21:27.

17 midst of thee in a [a] moment, and [c] consume thee: therefore now put off [b] thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what to do unto thee.

6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments by the mount Horeb. ‖ – See Map p100.

7 And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp, [h] and called it the Tabernacle of the congregation. And it came to pass, that every one which [k] sought the LORD went out unto the tabernacle, of the congregation, which was without the camp.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man [m] at his tent door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the [q] cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the LORD [3] talked with Moses.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and [z] worshipped, every man in his tent door.

11 And [e] the LORD spake unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp: but [f] his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 ¶ And Moses said unto the LORD, See, [d] thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know whom thou wilt send with me. Yet thou hast said, [f] I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, [b] shew me now thy way, that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is [d] thy people.

14 And he said, [e] My presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee [f] rest.

15 And he said unto him, [g] If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For wherein shall it be known here that I and thy people have found grace in thy sight? [i] is it not in that thou goest with us? so [i] shall we be separated, I and thy people, from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And the LORD said unto Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast spoken: for [n] thou hast found grace in my sight, and [o] I know thee by name.

18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me [p] thy glory.

19 And he said, I will make all [r] my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim [s] the name of the LORD before thee; [t] and will be [u] gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.

20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for [v] there shall no man see me, and live.

21 And the LORD said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock:

22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee [b] in a clift of the rock, and will [c] cover thee with my hand while I pass by:

23 And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back parts: but my face shall [c] not be seen.

1 The tables are renewed. 5 The name of the LORD proclaimed. 29 Moses' face shineth.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, [h] Hew thee two tables

1 If He went with them & they sinned in similar fashion again there would be no hope for them.

10. YARAD - To descend, put down. Rend. "lay off" d Hob. Remove them permanently. Ch. 14. Put = SHIYTH - to place.

11 RV = "From Mt Horeb onwards" - From thence onwards they left off wearing ornaments

12 Ohel. His own tent. Yahweh had proclaimed that He would not go in the midst of the people v.3. and as Moses wished to commune with Him, he found it necessary to remove his tent outside the camp where it became a centre of meeting. Cp Heb 13:13.

13 Note. Lev. 1:11.

14 Illustrating Heb. 13:13. because of sin true atonement must be sought for beyond the Law.

15 Probably at set times indicated by word moade - congregation.

16 In reverence realising that he went to intercede for them. It would not be possible for all to see him, but all could turn their faces towards the tent at set times, themselves also engaging in prayer.

17 They would see it descend from the mountain above. When they saw this they bowed in worship.

18 He returned to the camp where, if the Tent above was his own, alternate accomodation had been provided. He returned to minister to the people.

19 The mediatorship of Moses depended upon the antitypical Joshua. Cp Heb 9:15. SHARATH - Minister So RV.

9 MOSES IS RE-ASSURED Vv. 12-17

20 Moses avails himself of the privilege of speaking to Yahweh as a friend v.11

21 He had said He would not go with them v.3.

22 Indicating a very personal relationship. v.11. Cp John 15:15

22 See Note. To be Gen 3:24. - Heb Walk. Here in Jn 17:3

23 PÂNIYM - faces. Manifestations of His Grace symbolised in the faces of the Cherubim.

24 NU WACH - To rest, settle down. Also Deut. 3:20. Etc See Mg. But 1S. 4:5, 11 = MENUCHÂH - Rapos (see p. 344) Cp Heb 4.

25 Moses desires an assurance that Yahweh will be with the people as well as with himself.

26 The presence of Yahweh in a Community is necessary for the success of a venture - that alone really constitutes them a separate people. Cf Exod 33:13, 2 Cor 6:14-18.

27 PÂLÂH - Distinguished. This really constitutes one's separateness.

28 Thus Israel fully restored to grace.

10 MOSES IS PROPITIATED A REVELATION OF DIVINE GLORY. 1-8.

29 He had already seen this in measure Exod 19:18; 24:18 but desired the fulness of the revelation. Rom 11:22 NIV

30 Yahweh's Goodness & Grace is Bound up in His name. Jhn 17:26.

31 Yahweh refuses to be bound to Israel unless they obey. See Note Num. 9:15.

32 ADAM. Mortal flesh cannot look upon unveiled Divine glory, even though manifested through an angel.

33 TSUR - Cliff. A sure foundation symbolising the faithfulness & unchangeableness of Yahweh Deut. 32:4, 15, 18, 30, 31.

34 The Angel proposes a manifestation of full glory.

35 Yahweh as a shelter. Cp Song 2:14. The rock upon which Moses stood & the cleft in which he sheltered were emblematic of

THE ANGEL. Exod. 23:20 ●; 33:14-15.

The Angel is described as the "face of Yahweh" because he was the manifestation of Yahweh and commanded angels in stakes below him Josh. 5:14. References to the overshadowing care of this Angel are found in Gen. 48:16. Exod. 3:2-6; 14:19; 23:20; 32:34; 33:2, 14; Num. 20:16; Josh. 5:13-14; 6:2; Isa. 63:9; Exhortation. Ps. 34:7; 91:11; Mal. 3:1; 1 Cor. 10:9-10.

124 Christ in whose person, character and salvation alone there is revealed the glory of Yahweh. Thus Moses desired to see. Heb 11:26. John 1:14. 2 Cor 4:6.

37 Protect him from harm. Cp v. 20. See A. 91: 1-4. Deut. 33:12.

38 "my back" - Moses would be permitted to see as much of the Divine glory as he would be able to bear.

CHAPTER 34.

11 MOSES AGAIN INVITED INTO THE MOUNT Vv 1-3. Cp Deut 10:1-5.

1 Yahweh had made the first Ch 32:16 but Israel having broken the covenant must take steps to restore it. For this Moses had to return to the people.

For twofold aspect of Divine character see Heb. 1:9. Rom 11:22.

2. "Channum" - The gracious One. He who is goodness itself, the loving God.

3. "Erech Appayim" - Long suffering. The Being who because of His goodness and tenderness is not easily irritated, but merciful & kind.

4. "Rab" - The Great & Mighty One.

5. "Chesed" - The Bountiful Being. He who is exuberant in His beneficence.

6. "Emeth" - The True or True One. He alone who can neither deceive or be deceived. Who is the Fountain of Truth and from Whom all wisdom & knowledge is derived.

7. "Notser Chesed" - The Preserver of Bountifulness. He whose benefits never ends, keeping for thousands of generations, showing compassion and affection while the world endures.

8. "Nose Aron Vapesha Vechattah." - He who bears away iniquity, transgression and sin. Properly the Redeemer, the Pardoner, the forgiver. The Being whose prerogative alone is to forgive sin and give life.

"BEHOLD THE GOODNESS AND THE SEVERITY OF GOD" Rom. 11:22.

YAHWEH WHOSE NAME IS JEALOUS.: Here JEALOUS (QANNÂ) is pronounced for the first time as a Name and not merely an attribute as in Exod. 20:5. Yahweh demands of us an undivided loyalty such as Israel had failed to manifest when Moses was in the Mount. The command is more sweeping than the corresponding one in Exod. 23:24 and mention is made of "the groves" for the first time suggesting they may have formed part of the worship of the golden calf. This may have comprised part of the worship of the Image of Tedcury. Ezek. 8:3,5. Yahweh will not tolerate spiritual adultery, for He is Jealous Exod. 20:5, Josh. 24:19. He is also jealous for • His Name Ezek. 39:25 • His land Joel 2:18 • His adversaries Nah. 1:2. • Jerusalem and Zion Zech. 1:14, 8:2. ASHERIM. THE OBJECT OF JEALOUSY. Nothing is more calculated to draw a person away from the purity of Divine worship than sexual impurity. It coarsens the mind & blunts the moral perceptions. It formed the basis of the worship of the groves. The Asherah was a pillar or image of wood, worshipped by libidinous rites and lascivious practices. The word is derived from the root ASHAR, to be straight, upright, erect. The pillar was set upright or erect like a totem pole. It was either a living tree with the top cut off and the trunk fashioned into a certain shape Deut. 16:21. or a log fashioned into an idol and set erect in the ground. 1 Kg. 14:15; 16:33. Lg. 17:8. Though usually made of wood Jud. 6:26. it was perhaps in some cases made of stone. Such poles could be.

A resting from the works of flesh.

21 ¶ Six days thou shalt work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest: in earing time and in harvest thou shalt rest.

17 HARVEST FESTIVALS MUST BE MAINTAINED V.22.
The ultimate spiritual harvest.

22 ¶ And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the first-fruits of wheat harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the year's end.
18 The 7th month began the civil year.

18 THREE FEASTS MUST BE CELEBRATED Vv 23-24.
Protection promised to serve Yahweh.

23 ¶ Thrice in the year shall all your menchildren appear before the Lord GOD, the God of Israel.

24 For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy borders: neither shall any man desire thy land, when thou shalt go up to appear before the LORD thy God thrice in the year.
19 This would make it more difficult to come together for the feasts, but in spite of that they must be observed. Protection is promised.

25 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leaven; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left unto the morning.

19 LEAVEN EXCLUDED FROM BLOOD SACRIFICE V.25.
Sacrifice must be according to specification.

26 The first of the firstfruits of thy land thou shalt bring unto the house of the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

20 FIRSTFRUITS OF LAND SEETHING A KID V.26.
Rendering to Yahweh His dues - And care in the family of God.
Both legislations terminate with the same proviso - indicating its great importance.

27 And the LORD said unto Moses, Write thou these words: for after the tenor of these words I have made a covenant with thee and with Israel.

22 THE FACE OF MOSES SHINES. Vv 29-35.
Cp 2 Cor. 3:7.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai with the two tables of testimony in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mount, that Moses wist not that the skin of his face shone while he talked with him.

30 And when Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid to come nigh him.

31 And Moses called unto them; and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him: and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh: and he gave them in commandment all that the LORD had spoken with him in mount Sinai.

33 And till Moses had done speaking with them, he put a vail on his face.

34 But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the vail off, until he came out. And he came out, and spake unto the children of Israel that which he was commanded.

35 And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone: and Moses put the vail upon his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

23 "Through his speaking with Him" d. RV: "By reason of..."
Ezek. 1:28 Rev. 1:17. Matt. 28:3-4 Cf. Mark 9:2-8 the Transfiguration.
He proclaimed the good new of forgiveness and the new covenant.
TSAVAH - to constitute, enjoin RV: "When."
"And finished Moses from speaking with them, and he put upon his face a veil" d
The fading glory of the law.
The sense of the original & of the Sept. is that when Moses had finished talking, the Divine glory was fading & to hide this he covered his face with a veil, until he appeared before Yahweh when he took it off to rekindle the glory 2 Cor 3:13-14
So they did not discern the fading glory of the Mosaic ordinance, nor the full glory of Yahweh.

Originally the idol was worshipped as a symbol of the Tree of Life, but later perverted to mean the origin of life and pictured with the male organs of procreation Ezek. 16:17. Such symbols became the object of worship carried on with all forms of impurity, perversion and licentiousness and with the most obscene orgies. The worship centred in the Canaanitish nations and spread to others. The first mention of the idol in the Bible Exod. 34:13. stamp it as the special object of Yahweh's 126 hatred, and if we set at this idol that He revealed that His Name is Jealous.
The nature of this worship is implied in Jer. 5:7. 7:30-31. 19:4-5; 32:34-35; Hos. 4:10-14. Amos 2:7-8.

4 ¶ And Moses spake unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, [b] This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying,

5 Take ye from among you an offering unto the LORD: whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the LORD; gold, and silver, and brass,

6 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair,

7 And rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood,

8 And oil for the light, and spices for anointing oil, and for the sweet incense,

9 And onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod, and for the breastplate.

10 And [i] every wise hearted among you shall come, and make all that the LORD hath commanded;

11 [k] The tabernacle, his tent, and his covering, his taches, and his boards, his bars, his pillars, and his sockets,

12 [m] The ark, and the staves thereof, with the mercy seat, and [n] the vail of the covering,

19 [d] The cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office.

20 ¶ And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came, every one [e] whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the LORD's offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.

22 And they came, both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought [g] bracelets, and [h] earrings, and rings, and [i] tablets, all jewels of gold: and every man that offered offered an offering of gold unto the LORD.

23 And every man, [l] with whom was found [n] blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and red skins of rams, and badgers' skins, brought them.

24 Every one that did offer an offering of silver and brass brought the LORD's offering: and every man, with whom was found shittim wood for any work of the service, brought it.

25 And all the women that were [s] wise hearted did spin with their hands, and brought that which they had [a] spun, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

26 And all the women [d] whose heart stirred them up in wisdom [a] spun goats' hair.

The gem displays layers of different colours which alternate with each other & bear some resemblance to the whitish white & flesh coloured bands of the finger-nail. Sardonyx is more sharply defined with bands of dark red & white. These colours flashing with the gleam of fire from the sun emphasise the manner by which a True Love life reflects the divine glory: sacrifice crystallising

EXODUS 24.: Introduction. After the Decalogue had been proclaimed in the hearing of all the people, Moses again ascended the mount Ch. 20:18-21, and received the commandments which form the Book of the Covenant (Ch. 20:22-23:33) Cp Ch. 24:7. Yahweh commanded Moses to place these laws before the people, v then approach the mountain with Aaron, Joshua, Nadab Abihu and seventy elders Ch. 24:1. Though he alone was to ascend the mountain V.2. Accordingly Moses communicated the words of Yahweh to the people V.3. and having ratified the covenant with sacrifice went up with the men named as representatives of the nation, when they were shown a divine vision. Then Moses was commanded to ascend further with Joshua V12. After 6 days of waiting, during which the cloud covered the mount, Moses alone was summoned to penetrate the cloud He did so & remained 40 days in the mount.

"According to the fashion thereof which was shewed thee in the mount" Exod. 26:30. "Fashion" is MISHPAT - Verdict pronounced judicially. And "shewed" is rendered as "thou wast caused to see." See note on pattern Exod. 25:9. Moses evidently saw a Vision of the Tabernacle • discussed the construction of it which was explained to him. Any problems were judicially decided upon.

THEN wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every [n]wise hearted man, in whom the LORD put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD had commanded.

2 And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whose heart the LORD had put wisdom, even every one [o]whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it:

3 And they received of Moses all [e]the offering, which the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it withal. And they brought yet unto him [p]free offerings every morning.

4 And all the wise men, that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made;

5 ¶ And they spake unto Moses, saying, [h]The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work, which the LORD commanded to make.

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary. So the people were restrained from bringing.

7 For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

8 ¶ [m]And every wise hearted man among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work made he them.

THE VEIL V 35 These colours are referred to some 24 times in Exodus, but always in the same order. ● BLUE — the deep azure blue of heaven reminded Israel of its heavenly origin, and of the responsibilities attached thereto (Num. 15:38; Deut. 22:12). It foreshadows the holy origin of the Lord, the true Israel of God. Jhn. 1:14 Isa 49:3 Cp Israel's ribband of blue Num. 15:37-41 commanded on the background of an indigo dark when one had "forgotten" and was executed for so doing Vv 30-36. ● PURPLE: God-manifestation - hence the colour of Royalty, for Yahweh is a great King Ps. 24:10; 84:3; 89:18; 95:3; 98:6. A blend of blue + scarlet. Cp Jud 8:26; Jhn 19:2 Song 3:10; 7:5. See Below.

10 And he coupled the five curtains one unto another: and the other five curtains he coupled one unto another.

11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

12 Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches: so it became one tabernacle.

14 ¶ And he made curtains of goats' hair for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one size.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain which coupleth the second.

18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 And he made a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above that.

20 ¶ [b] And he made boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood, standing up.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.

22 One board had two tenons, [d] equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made boards for the tabernacle; twenty boards for the south side southward:

24 And forty sockets of silver he made under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for his two tenons, and two sockets under another board for his two tenons.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards,

26 And their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

29 And they were [2] coupled beneath, and [2] coupled together at the head thereof, to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.

30 And there were eight boards; and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, [3] under every board two sockets.

31 ¶ And he made bars [a] of shittim wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle,

32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 ¶ [c] And he made a vail of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: with cherubims made he it of cunning work.

THE GOLDEN JUGS V. 16.

The purpose of these jugs is not specifically stated. Probably they contained wine which was poured out into the cups or "bowls". This is a translation of MENAKKIYOTH defined by Strong as a sacrificial basin for holding blood. The word is from a root NAKAH - to be or make clean.

On the Sabbath, the bread was eaten in the holy place, the frankincense offered on altar, and possibly the wine drunk by the priests. Cp Lev. 24:5-9.

THE TWO ALTARS. Ch. 37:25; 38:1 The brazen altar was outside; the golden altar inside. The former was made of wood overladen with brass; the latter was made of wood overladen with gold. — Thus both were related to human nature. The first with flesh purified, the latter with faith. The first altar had no crown; the second had a crown. The first altar represented Christ in his humiliation (as a sacrifice); the second represented him in glory (at the right hand of the father). The brazen altar was the place of suffering + typified Christ as sorrow. The Golden altar was the place of glory + typified him as Mediator. Sinners came to the first to be made saints; saints made their way into the second seeking for glory.

out the six branches going out of the candlestick.

20 And in the candlestick were four bowls made like almonds, his knops, and his flowers:

21 And a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it.

22 Their knops and their branches were of the same: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made his seven lamps, and his snuffers, and his snuffdishes, of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof.

25 ¶ [a] And he made the incense altar of shittim wood: the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit; it was foursquare; and two cubits was the height of it; the horns thereof were of the same.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto it a crown of gold round about.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the staves to bear it withal.

28 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 ¶ And he made [d] the holy anointing oil, and [e] the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary.

AND [g] he made the altar of burnt offering of shittim wood: five cubits was the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof; it was foursquare; and three cubits the height thereof.

2 And he made the horns thereof on the four corners of it; the horns thereof were of the same: and he overlaid it with brass.

3 And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basons, and the fleshhooks, and the firepans: all the vessels thereof made he of brass.

4 And he made for the altar a brasen grate of network under the compass thereof beneath unto the midst of it.

5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of brass, to be places for the staves.

6 And he made the staves of shittim wood, and overlaid them with brass.

7 And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withal; he made the altar hollow with boards.

8 ¶ And he made [b] the laver of brass, and the foot of it of brass, of the [2] lookingglasses of the women [3] assembling, which [3] assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

9 ¶ And he made [c] the court: on the south side southward the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, an hundred cubits:

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brasen sockets twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets were of silver.

11 And for the north side [f] the hangings were an hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of brass twenty; the hooks of the pillars and their fillets of silver.

131 HANGINGS. Kelaim. The word is also used to define a "sling" Jud. 20:16, and to "cast" a people out 1 Sa. 10:18. It is used to grave, sculpture, + make indentations like slings (1 Kg 6:29, 32, 35) or for the leaves of a door 1 Ki 6:34. The LXX has translated by the word "sails" (the Arabic word for sails is similar to kelaim) + from this the Jews have thought that a closely woven sail-cloth is intended. There is no certainty of this + the term could relate to a form of hanging such as could be moved in and out by the wind.

THE WEIGHT AND ITS VALUE

No money had been coined; it had to be weighed. Actual values of gold and silver can be estimated only approximately. Classically a talent of gold equaled $30,000 and a talent of silver $2000; a shekel of gold $10 and a shekel of silver 65c. One standard of value remains - a day's wages and what can be bought for it; but monetary wages are not mentioned in our early scriptures.

CHAPTER 39.

1 The cloths of service and holy garments. 2 The ephod. 8 The breastplate. 27 The coats, mitre, &c. 32 All viewed and approved by Moses.

AND of (a) the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made (b) cloths of service, to do service in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron; (c) as the LORD commanded Moses.

2 (d) And he made the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they (e) did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into (f) wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with cunning work.

4 They made shoulderpieces for it, to couple it together: by the two edges was it coupled together.

5 And the curious girdle of his ephod, that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the LORD commanded Moses.

6 ¶ And they wrought onyx stones inclosed in ouches of gold, graven, as signets are graven, with the names of the children of Israel.

7 And he put them on the shouiders of the ephod, that they should be stones for a memorial to the children of Israel; (g) as the LORD commanded Moses.

8 ¶ And he made the breastplate of cunning work, like the work of the ephod; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 It was foursquare; they made the breastplate double: a span was the length thereof, and a span the breadth thereof, being doubled.

10 And they set in it four rows of stones: the first row was a (2) sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

12 And the third row, a ligure, an agate, and an amethyst.

13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were inclosed in ouches of gold in their inclosings.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes.

15 And they made upon the breastplate chains at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold rings; and put the two rings in the two ends of the breastplate.

17 And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breastplate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulderpieces of the ephod, before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, upon the border of it, which was on the side of the ephod inward.

20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forepart of it, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

21 And they did bind the breastplate by his rings unto the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the

CHAPTER 40

THE ROBE OF BLUE

The Robe is the insignia of the priestly office. And as "the law of truth" was in his mouth" Mal. 2:6-7 and the priest was essentially a teacher 2 Chr. 15:3. the garment expressed this. The colour recalled the Commandments of Yahweh Num. 15: 38-39. It is described as having mouth and head and lip (See Ch. 28:32) (see: 23.

Exod. 28:32. Lit. "And shall be the mouth of the head of him in its midst, a lip shall be to the mouth of him round about, the work of a weaver like the mouth of a habergeon."

Habergeon = TACHARA - derived from CHARAH - to glow or grow warm and hence a military garment. LXX has "fringe" Kitto = from Aramaic root ETHPEAL, "to fight." Perhaps to be strengthened to that end. Cp Num 8:23-26; 1 Tim 6:12.

The Robe by its very colour expressed the idea of heavenly calm and purity - there is nothing purer, more calming, refining than the deep soft azure of heaven. It was woven without seam Exod 39: 23 expressing unity John 17:21-23. It had a mouth which was strong would not rend. Cp John 7:46; Luke 4:22.

HOLINESS TO YAHWEH

KODESH from KADASH - To be clean. The word implies separateness + consecration. True Israelites are called upon to worship Yahweh "in the beauty of holiness" (holy array) 1 Chron. 16:29; 2 Chr. 20:21 (RV) Ps. 29:2. 96:9. They are to become as the plate of gold Zech. 2: 3. The Temple of the future Zech. 14: 20-21. Saints are to be sharers of His holiness Heb. 12: 10, 14. 1 Pet. 1:15; Rev 20:6

THE COAT OR TUNIC OF LINEN

This was a gown worn immediately over the drawers. It reached to the feet, and had tightly-fitting sleeves (Jos. Ant. 3:7:2). KETHONETH sig to cover, or to hide. It is the word used in Gen. 3:21. Though this was the High Priest's undergarment it was the only garment allowed to the ordinary priests Exod 28: 39-42 Cp Lev 16:4 1 Pet. 1:16.

See Index note on LINEN.

On the 1st day of the 1st Month — 11½ months after leaving Egypt the Tabernacle was set up. It would have thrilled the people and filled them with awe to see the results of their gifts and labors taking shape before them. The people had done their best in their freewill offerings of goods and services; skilled workmen had fashioned the materials into lovely pieces of art; Moses had accepted the finished products and had placed them according to the instructions of Yahweh in proper order for His house. Evening came with the new Sanctuary in the midst of Israel and as a mark of Divine approval the cloud which previously rested on the temporary structure moved to the new site. In all this Moses acted as priest. Vv 15, 23, 27, 29, 31.

4 And [d] thou shalt bring in the table, and set in order [2] the things that are to be set in order upon it; [e] and thou shalt bring in the candlestick, and light the lamps thereof.
5 [g] And thou shalt set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the hanging of the door to the tabernacle.
6 [i] And thou shalt set the altar of the burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.
7 And [k] thou shalt set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shalt put water therein. [5]
8 And thou shalt set up the court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court gate.
9 And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and [m] anoint the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it, and all the vessels thereof: and it shall be holy. [6]
10 And thou shalt anoint [o] the altar of the burnt offering, and all his vessels, and sanctify the altar: and it shall be an altar [7] most holy.
11 And thou shalt anoint [o] the laver and his foot, and sanctify it.
12 [p] And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.
13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, [t] and anoint him, and sanctify him; that he may minister unto me in the priest's office.
14 And thou shalt bring his sons, and clothe them with coats:
15 And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, [7] that they may minister unto me in the priest's office: for their anointing shall surely be [e] an everlasting priesthood throughout [8] their generations.
16 Thus did Moses: according to all that the LORD commanded him, so did he.
17 ¶ And it came to pass in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the [h] tabernacle was reared up.
18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened [k] his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and [n] set up the vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony; as the LORD commanded Moses.
22 ¶ [p] And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the vail.
23 [q] And he set the bread in order upon it before the LORD; as the LORD had commanded Moses.

— CHAPTER 1 —

INTRODUCTION V 1.
Indicates a close connection with Exodus. The Sanctuary is set up - now follows instruction re Worship.
2 Exod. 25:22. Num. 12:8.
3 Mow'ēd. An appointment, meeting etc. from yā'ad - to fix upon, to meet (Str.) Cp Exod 25:22. 29:42, 43. 30:6, 36. Thus the "Tent of Meeting" (Am. Jewish Trans), where Yahweh met with Israel, and so the Tent of Revelation.
BURNT OFFERING: GENERAL PRINCIPLE Vv 1-9. (National Lev. 6:8) Cp Phil. 4:18
4 Not the priests. This was the concern of the people. The Sanctuary was for their use and they had contributed for its construction Exod. 25:2.
5 Sex discrimination prominent in the appointments of the Law. The numbering of Israel applied to males. Num. 1:2. Law of firstborn Exod. 13:12. Attendance at feasts. Exod. 23:17. Deut. 16:16. The seal of covenant Gen. 17:10. For contrast between offerings of sexes - see Lev. 27:4-7. Lev. 12. A female animal could only be used at sacrifice for peace offering Lev. 3:16 or for the sin of one of the common people. Lev. 4:28
Reason 1 Tim. 2:11-14. 1 Cor. 11:7.
Thus the male was the very best in sacrifice and only the best is good enough for Yahweh.
6 Korban - "that which is brought near" - Hence a voluntary offering. Cp Mk. 7:11. Phil. 4:18.
7 Thus identified with the offerer who was of the herd or flock of Yahweh. 1 Cor. 9:9. Mat. 3:17.

THE SACRIFICES. The burnt offering expressed the individual's self-surrender to God's will; the peace offering gratitude for His bounties and mercies; the sin-offering, sorrow at having erred from God's way and firm resolve to be reconciled with Him. The congregational sacrifices taught the vital lesson of the interdependence of all members of the congregation as a sacred Brotherhood, and kept alive within the nation the consciousness of its mission. (Jewish comment)
The sacrifices could not bring their great lessons home except to those who were

26 ¶ [a] And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation before the vail:
27 And he burnt [b] sweet incense thereon; as the LORD commanded Moses.
28 ¶ [d] And he set up the hanging at the door of the tabernacle.
29 [f] And he put the altar of burnt offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt offering and [g] the meat offering; as the LORD commanded Moses.
30 ¶ [i] And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash withal.
31 And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet thereat:
32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; [l] as the LORD commanded Moses.
33 [m] And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate. So Moses finished the work.
34 ¶ Then [c] a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and [c] the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. See left top.
35 And Moses [c] was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud abode thereon, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. (An intensely brilliant light)
36 [h] And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel [2] went onward in all their journeys:
37 But [k] if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not till the day that it was taken up.
38 For the cloud of the LORD was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.)

OFFERING. "Korban" occurs throughout Lev. 1 - Lev. 2:12 then "Minchâh" from Lev. 2:2 to end of chapter. It signifies "apportion."

See Peter's play on this name.

Exod. 27:16 The colors of the door taught the character which is required of the human burnt offering.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The burnt offerings. 3 Of the herd, 10 of the flocks, 14 of the fowls.

AND [a] the LORD [b] called unto Moses, and spake unto him [d] out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying, (OHEL = Tent of meeting)
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, [f] If any man of you bring an offering unto the LORD, ye shall bring your offering of the cattle, even of the herd, and of the flock. (Even a Gentile if he turned to God - 1 Kg. 8:41)
3 If his offering be a burnt sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male [h] without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD.
4 [a] And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt offering; and it shall be [c] accepted for him [e] to make atonement for him. (See Note, the burnt offering p. 137)
5 And he shall kill the bullock before the LORD: and the priests, Aaron's sons, shall bring the blood, [g] and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
6 And he shall [g] flay the burnt offering, and cut it into his [i] pieces. (Skin it Nve. 3:3.)

LEVITICUS. - The Law of the Priests - is the oldest name, Leviticus being derived from LXX.

The first half deals with sacrifice and the laws that safeguard the priestly character of Israel, the other half with holiness and the sanctification of human life.

Chaps 1-7 = Laws of sacrifice for the individual, the congregation, the priests. Chaps 8-10 = the inauguration of worship in the completed Sanctuary.
Chaps 11-17 = Laws of clean and unclean, purity and purification, culminating in the Day of Atonement.
Ch 18-26. Regulate on marriage, personal and social ethics, the Sacred Festivals, land tenure, and conclude with a solemn exhortation on the 136 connection between Religion and national welfare. Ch 27 is a supplementary chapter on vows and tithes.

All the precepts are merely a translation into terms of daily life of the Divine call: Be ye holy for I am holy" Ch 19:2. This is shown as an active principle, shaping and regulating every sphere of human life and activity.

10:11. Isa. 7:25. 32:20. amenable to discipline. Isa. 1:3 and representative of one who uses his labor for God. 1 Cor. 9:9
14 the seat of life. Lev. 17:11 now yielded back to God the Author of Life. Rom. 12:1. Whilst the worshipper slew the offering (see next page)

THE BURNT OFFERING The offerer in presenting it was conscious of weakness of flesh – thus blood was shed, confession was made and the blood as symbol of life was offered on the altar. But the real motive of the offering was an earnest desire to serve Yahweh to the fullest extent of one's being. Head (intellect) fat (strength) flesh (being) were placed in order upon the altar Vv8-9 after a thorough washing and pledged to God in a spirit of total dedication to His service Deut. 6:5. All was consumed

LEVITICUS

Hebrew Vayichrah – "And he called" It emphasises the mercy of Yahweh Who has condescended to dwell among the people Ch.1:1. Leviticus is from the LXX "Leuitikos" – that which pertains to Levites – but, in fact, the Levites are only mentioned directly once Lev.25:32-33. The instruction concerns all Israel and not merely the Levites.

The whole instruction given and events recorded come between 1st Abib (April) and 20th of second month, Zif. On 1st Abib, the Tabernacle set up. Exod. 40:2,17 Cp Lev. 1:1. and on 20th Zif they departed from Sinai Num. 10:11. Cp Exod 40:2 Num 1:1 Ff Imm.

THE PARABLE OF THE PENTATEUCH.

- GENESIS: The fall and Divine selection – revealing Divine Authority and Power
- EXODUS: Deliverance through Separation – revealing Divine Mercy.
- LEVITICUS: Fellowship through Worship – revealing Yahweh's holiness.
- NUMBERS: Divine Guidance and care – revealing Yahweh's Goodness & Severity
- DEUTERONOMY: The attainment of hope – revealing Yahweh's Faithfulness.

Leviticus is appropriately found in the centre of the Pentateuch bridging the separation of Exodus and the guidance and final glory of Numbers and Deuteronomy.

LEVITICUS: FELLOWSHIP THROUGH SANCTIFICATION.

- PROBLEM: How can sinful man acceptably approach Yahweh? Only on the basis of blood-shedding and sanctification Heb. 9:22.
- KEY VERSE – Lev. 19:2.
- IN THIS BOOK: Yahweh is directly mentioned almost 100 times • "Holy" occurs some 87 times • "Atonement" is mentioned some 45 times.
- ANALYSIS. The book commences with a statement Ch.1:1 indicating that Yahweh was ready to enter into fellowship with the people on the basis of Heb. 9:22. Lev.17:11. involving the obligations of 1 John 1:7.

THE ORDER OF THE OFFERINGS IN LEVITICUS. Often the sin offering comes before the burnt offering, but the order in which they are presented in Leviticus points forward to the perfect sacrifice – Christ. He was first a burnt offering, then offered for sins.

Reason / Lesson
Thus the male was the very best in sacrifice and only the best is good enough for Yahweh.
6 Korban - "that which is brought near" - Hence a voluntary offering Cp Mk. 7:11 Phil. 4:18.
7 Thus identified with the offerer who was of the herd or flock of Yahweh 1 Cor. 9:9. Mal. 3:17.

THE BURNT OFFERING The offerer in presenting it was conscious of weakness of flesh – thus blood was shed, confession was made and the blood as symbol of life was offered on the altar. But the real motive of the offering was an earnest desire to serve Yahweh to the fullest extent of one's being. Head (intellect) fat (strength) flesh (being) were placed in order upon the altar Vv8-9. after a thorough washing and pledged to God in a spirit of total dedication to His service Deut. 6:5 All was consumed by the Divine fire Lev. 9:24 and ascended as a sweet savor to Yahweh Lev. 1:9. It thus expressed submission to Yahweh's will. The word "burnt" – Heb. olah (that which ascends) Lev. 1:3 expressed the offerer's desire to elevate his worship to a state that would please and glorify God Cp 2 Chron. 7:1. K. 20:1-3 mg. Since communion with Yahweh was impossible to anybody tainted with sin (Isa. 59:2) and since no man could be sure of being sinless, the rite of burnt offering first had an expiatory effect before the worshipper's yearning for fellowship with God was fulfilled The burnt offerings. Priest retained the skin Ch. 7:8. See p. 143-bottom. Lev. 1:4-5.

PEACE OFFERINGS From Shelem = To bring as one, suggesting the idea of Divine fellowship. Yahweh the priestly Mediator and the worshipper were united as one by a sacrificial feast Lev 7:15. This was thus a cause of great rejoicing as the word suggests. (See Jhn 14:27. Acts 10:36. Rom. 5:1. 10:15. Eph 2:14-15 4:3. 6:15. Col 1:20. Heb 7:2. ZEBAH SHELAMIM. Gr. eirene (i-ray-nay) from root "to join" Str.) Three types of offerings. THANKSGIVING - Probably offered in gratitude for some token of Divine favor Lev. 7:12. VOW OFFERINGS - Probably offered in fulfilment of a pledge made in conjunction with a prayer for some token of Divine favor Lev. 7:16. VOLUNTARY - A spontaneous act of worship Lev 7:16. WITH PEACE OFFERINGS offerer had to bring Unleavened Cakes, Wafers, or fried dough with oil Lev 7:12. plus leavened bread. Lev 7:13. Below

10 And [c] that which is left of the meat offering shall be Aaron's and his sons': it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

11 No meat offering, which ye shall bring unto the LORD, shall be made with [e] leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the LORD made by fire.

12 ¶ [f] As for the oblation of the firstfruits, ye shall offer them unto the LORD: but they shall not [g] be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour.

13 And every oblation of thy meat offering [h] shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer [i] the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offering: [k] with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt.

14 And if thou offer a meat offering of thy firstfruits unto the LORD, thou shalt offer for the meat offering of thy firstfruits green ears of corn [m] dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of [n] full ears.

15 And [o] thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a meat offering.

16 And the priest shall burn [p] the memorial of it, part of the beaten corn thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: it is an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

PEACE OFFERINGS (Cont.)

Deformed animals were allowable in free will offerings Lev. 22:23 indicating that Yahweh would have none withheld his worship of love.

The fat, kidneys & caul of the Liver were burned on the altar Lev. 3:3-4. The breast & right shoulder were separated from each other, the shoulder being the offerers portion for the priest & the breast being given to Yahweh from Whom the priest then received it Lev 7:30-34.

The rest of the offering belonged to the offerer, but had to be eaten within two days according to the nature of it Lev. 7:15-16. In the case of public peace offerings all the flesh went to the priests Lev. 23:20.

Public peace offerings were customary on occasions of festive inauguration Exod. 24:5. 2 Sam. 6:17. 1 Kg 8:63. The election of Kings 1 Sam 11:15. The completion of successful enterprises Deut. 27:7. Josh. 8:31. Pentecost Lev 23:19. The Festivals Num. 10:10. 2 Chr 30:22. Other occasions 1 Kg 9:25.

It seemed always to accompany the burnt offering Lev 9:7. See Ch. 7.

SALT OBLIGATORY V.13.

12 It prevented putrefaction whilst honey and leaven produced it. Salt has relation to the covenant Num. 18:19 and only through the covenant could Israel offer to Yahweh. Cp 2 Kg. 2:20. 2 Chr 13:5. Ezek 43:24. Matt. 5:13. Mk 9:49-50. Luke 14:34. Col. 4:6.

PARCHED EARS OF FIRSTFRUITS V.14-16.

Parched ears were a common article of food among the poor. So all classes of society, all tastes were provided for in the meal offering.

This rep. prayer offered publicly on altar burnt off. As this was consumed by it gave off a most fragrant odor ascending upward - a symbol of love worship demonstrating that works are not for own sake but to glory Yahweh.

CHAPTER 3.

THE PEACE OFFERING OF THE HERD V.V 1-5

1 Korban = A gift "brought near" the altar. See Note 6 Ch 1.

2 There was a slight restriction in regard to this concerning the offering for voluntary peace sacrifice (see above) Lev. 22:23. Thus Yahweh would have none withheld his worship of love even though conscious of personal inadequacy to render it.

PEACE OFFERINGS

A GOAT. Vv 12-16.

The fat tail is not included Cf. V.9.

6A Not only when they are in the land but even when in dispersion and having no access to the altar they must abstain from fat and blood.

7 The poured out blood rep. life. The fat = the strength & goodness of life. Thus a man giving his time, love, service and substance, gives the fat of his life. Phil. 4:18.

THE FAT. V.17.

Life and strength belong to Yahweh.

(1) INTRODUCTION 1-2.

1 Shegâgâh - "mistake or inadvertent transgression" Str. from Shâgag - to stray. RV. = "unwittingly" ing "through error." The word denotes the natural tendency of the flesh to fail in contradistinction to the wilful despising of God's Law.

For the obstinant despising of Yahweh's Law there was no mercy. Num. 15:30-31. Heb. 10:26-29.

For the use of Shegâgah see Gen. 6:3. Num. 15:27.

THINGS TO BE NOTED IN REGARD TO THE SIN OFFERING

• Yahweh's intolerance of sin. • His justice in demanding acknowledgment of it even though committed unwittingly, in ignorance. • His merciful love towards sinners. • His careful assessment of degrees of responsibility. • The need to recognise sin, so that it is not committed in ignorance. • Our response in thankfulness to the Divine mercy.

The sin offering LEVITICUS 4. for the priest, &c.

11 And the priest shall burn it upon the altar: it is [a] the food of the offering made by fire unto the LORD.

12 ¶ And if his offering be a goat, then [c] he shall offer it before the LORD.

13 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about.

14 And he shall offer thereof his offering, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

15 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The sin offering of ignorance, 3 for the priest, 13 the congregation, 22 the ruler, 27 the people.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, [m] If a soul shall sin through ignorance against any of the commandments of the LORD concerning things which [o] ought not to be done, and shall do against any of them:

3 If the priest [p] that is anointed do sin according to the sin of the people; then let him bring for his sin, which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish unto the LORD for a sin offering.

4 And he shall bring the bullock [q] unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the LORD; and shall lay his hand [r] upon the bullock's head, and kill the bullock before the LORD.

5 And the priest that is anointed [d] shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation:

6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and [d] sprinkle of the blood seven times before the LORD, before the vail of the sanctuary.

7 And the priest shall [e] put some of the blood upon the horns [s] of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour [t] all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for the sin offering; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is upon the inwards,

9 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away,

THE FAT. V. 17. Life and strength belong to Yahweh.

CHAPTER 4. The provisions of this chapter are based upon an understanding that a knowledge of sin has been brought home to the sinner V. 23.

(1) THE SIN OFFERING OF IGNORANCE Ch.4:1-

(1) INTRODUCTION. 1-2

1 Shegâgâh – "mistake or inadvertent transgression" Str. from Shâgag – to stray. RV. = "unwittingly" "ing through error." The word denotes the natural tendency of the flesh to fail in contradistinction to the wilful despising of God's Law.

For the obstinant despising of Yahweh's Law there was no mercy. Num. 15:30-31. Heb. 10:26-29.

For the use of Shegâgah see Gen. 6:3. Num. R. 27.

(2) FOR THE PRIEST 3-12.

Failing on the part of the high priest could adversely influence the people, by example so as to make them guilty. Thus the most solemn rites of expiation were demanded

(Here sins of commission; in Num. 15:22-29 sins of omission)

(Miss the mark)

The high priest (ahmah = guilt.)

If the anointed Priest shall sin so as to bring guilt on the people" (RV)

2 Yar – to break forth in strength – Str. Thus strength given in sacrifice to Yahweh.

THE SIN OFFERING

• This legislated for sins done unwittingly, and in so doing taught that sin is related to nature. Yahweh would teach us that behind all conscious acts of the will there are natural or involuntary movements or propensities of which we are hardly conscious, but for which, nevertheless, we are held responsible. Even thought must be controlled. 2 Cor. 10:5. 1 Pet. 1:13. 2:11. Prov. 24:9.

• The greatest fault was that they were

139 committed in ignorance. The most heinous offender was the priest for his "lips should keep knowledge" Mal. 2:5-7 and for him to sin without being conscious of it was sin indeed!

• Sin = Chattâ – to miss the mark. (Cp Jud. 20:16). This can be done through "swerving" 1 Tim. 1:6. or lack of strength so as to fall short of the glory of God Rom. 3:23, the grace Heb. 12:15. or the rest Heb. 4:1. See Mg Prov. 8:36 "He that misseth me."

• The sin-offering deals thus with Sin the root, as well as sins = transgressions, the fruit. To plead ignorance did not absolve from responsibility, but added to the guilt, for none should be in ignorance of sin so as to justify it. Lev. 5:17.

2 A sharp contrast to the offerer, constituting the example ideal Heb. 2:17. 21-24

3 Thus identifying himself with it, confessing his sin Lev. 5:5 Cp Note Ch. 1:4. The head governs the motions of the body.

3A Where the sin, in fact had been committed 15:31 Cp 4.

4 A dedicated life Lev. 17:11.

5 As the priest ministered in the Holy Place, his sin was virtually committed there.

6 In remembrance of the covenant.

7 The colors of which indicated to what he had been called, and the Most Holy beyond, the attainment of his hope Heb. 10:19-20.

8 They were extended upward in the attitude of prayer towards heaven. Cp Note Ch. 8:15

10 See Note. Ch. 1:11-4:

Thus the life must be given in dedication, being connected with the burnt offering Cp Exod. 29:12.

12A @ Sar – To turn into fragrant smoke. This was the fat & the inward parts of the sin offering, but not the flesh which was consumed (2) different Cp V. 12. word being used. Cp the inward qualities of Christ

13 Indicating that the real bearing away of sin was beyond the law Heb. 13:11.

(3) FOR THE CONGREGATION. Vv 13-21.

Three different words translated Congregation: 'edeh - feminine of 'ed - witness. Qâhâl - To convolve, the Ecclesia. Mo'ed, appointed time.

A case of the congregation sinning - Josh 9 ref. 1 Sam 14:32.

18. 'edah - it should witness to Truth.

19 The leaders.

20 Qâhâl - The Ecclesia. A representative body of the whole nation, convoked for the purpose.

21 The offering is similar to that of the priest, for the nation, as a witnessing community should exercise the greatest care in legislation and decisions. Their decisions and decrees affect others, as does the example of the priest.

22 Represented by the priests, the congregation ministered in the Tabernacle, so that the sin was committed there.

14 When the sin, which they have sinned against 20 it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a 21 young bullock for the sin, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation. Ps V.4

15 And the elders of the congregation 18 [e] shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the LORD: and the bullock shall be killed before the LORD.

16 [f] And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood to the tabernacle of the congregation: 22

17 And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, even before the vail.

19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn it upon the altar.

20 And he shall do with the bullock as he did [n] with the bullock for a sin offering, so shall he do with this: [p] and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

(4) FOR A RULER Vv 22-26

The responsibility lessened, a smaller offering is made.

23 'ezim from 'azaz "to harden" be stout etc. The waywardness of flesh, but in a Kid - undeveloped. Christ was of our nature but kept it in subjection. Kid - sa'yr - shaggy, the goat. From sa'ar to shiver with fear.

24 In contrast to the for priest a cereal offering on horns of altar of incense Vv. 7, 18. The limit of the priest's penetration into the Tabernacle - his finger. Sprinkled upon it.

As the blood is presented taken into the Tabernacle, he is dependent upon the priest for redemption, so flesh not to be eaten without the covering but eaten by priests in the court of the Tabernacle Ch. 6:26.

25 Doubtless, fat, caul, kidneys etc. See Ch. 3:3-5 Exod 29:13

(5) FOR A COMMONER Vv 27-35.

The ritual is the same as that for a ruler. A female offering is made, indicating subjection of the sinner. 1 Tim 2:11 and recalling 1 Tim. 2:14-15., 2 Cor. 11:3. Gen 3:6.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF SIN

There seems to be a greater public acknowledgement of the sin, the greater the crime. Note the emphasis "before Yahweh" which declines until it is not mentioned in the case of the commoner.

With the constant teaching of the law, sins of ignorance should have been comparatively rare.

In the burnt offering the emphasis was on the word "accepted" Ch. 1:4 here it is on "forgiven."

The instructions in Num. 15:22-29 are different from those above. Lev. 4:1-35-5:7-13. In the former, the victim is always a yearling goat; in the latter the victims are graded according to the status of the offender. In the former there is no provision for the poor; in the latter provision is made for such. The former seems to be dealing with sins of omission relating particularly to unwitting mistakes in connection with the kneading-trough etc; the latter relates to sins of commission to sin-offerings in general.

SACRIFICE : Three animals & two birds are named in the Law as suitable for sacrifice: the ox, sheep, goat, dove & pigeon. These were all offered by Abraham in the great sacrifice of the Covenant Gen. 15:9. The animals has the following characteristics in common. 1. They were clean; 2. Were commonly used for food. 3. Being domesticated they formed a part of the home wealth of the offerer.

The offerer brought it to the door of the Tabernacle Lev 1:3 Pressed his hand upon its head 1:4 uttering a prayer or making confession Lev. 16:21. - except in the case of the Peace Offerings
The animal was slaughtered on the north side of the altar Lev. 1:11; 6:25; 7:2. Tradition says that it was bound by a cord to one of the rings fixed on the north of the altar at the instance that the confession was completed the fatal stroke was given. SACRIFICE (Cont.)

The mode of killing appears to have been similar to slaughtering animals for food. Cp. Mal. 1:7. The throat was cut while a priest or assistant held a bowl under the neck to receive the blood Lev 9:9; 17:13-14. The disposal of the blood was different in the case of the burnt offering, peace offering & trespass offering Lev. 1:5, 11; 3:2, 8, 13; 7:2 to that of the sin offering Cp Lev. 4. The Temple altar had holes through which the blood drained off into the Kedron.
With the blood disposed of, the skin removed, & the animal cut in pieces, the sacrificer or his assistant, washed the entrails & feet. In the case of the burnt offering, all the pieces were then taken to the Altar & salted. They were then placed in order: the hind limbs probably placed at the base of the pile, then the entrails with the offal covered with the fat, then the fore limbs with the head at the top.

THE TRESPASS OFFERING there is little difference between sin & trespass, the offering for one being closely associated with the other Ch. 7:7. Like the Sin Offering it was the consciousness of a specifically guilty act Lev. 5:15,17. Lev. 6:1-5. However it differed in that it was a trespass, the invasion of the rights of another, whether Yahweh or man necessitating reparation. The offerer not only sought forgiveness but made material restitution to the one he had wronged Lev. 5:16. 6:1-5. – that is, where that could be done – Cf. Lev. 5:17-19 Every sin fell into the category of trespass, but every trespass was a sin for which one animal only was permitted for sacrifice (No!) – a ram, the value of the ram differing according to the gravity of the offence Lev. 5:15,18; 6:6.

according to the (2) manner: [a] and the priest shall make an atonement for him for his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

11 ¶ But if he be not able to bring two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering [b] the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering; [c] he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon: for it is a sin offering.

12 Then shall he bring it to the priest, and [f] the priest shall take his handful of it, even a memorial thereof, and burn it on the altar, [g] according to the offerings made by fire unto the LORD: it is a sin offering.

13 [h] And the priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sin that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him: and [m] the remnant shall be the priest's, as a meat offering.

14 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

15 [p] If a soul commit a trespass, and sin through ignorance, in the holy things of the LORD; then [r] he shall bring for his trespass unto the LORD a ram without blemish out of the flocks, with thy estimation by shekels of silver, after [s] the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass offering:

16 And he shall make amends for the harm that he hath done in the holy thing, and [t] shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it unto the priest: [u] and the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ram of the trespass (3) offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

17 ¶ And if a [v] soul sin, and commit any of these (4) things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the LORD; [a] though he wist it not,

[b] yet is he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity.

18 [c] And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation, for a trespass offering, unto the priest: [d] and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and wist it not, and it shall be forgiven him.

19 It is a trespass offering: he hath certainly trespassed against the LORD.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 If a soul sin, and [i] commit a trespass against the LORD, and (5) lie unto his neighbour in that [l] which was delivered him to keep, or [z] in [4] fellowship, or in a thing taken away by violence, or hath [n] deceived his neighbour;

3 Or [o] have found that which was lost, and lieth concerning it, and [q] sweareth falsely; in any of all these that a man doeth, sinning therein:

4 Then it shall be, because he hath sinned, and is guilty, that he shall restore that which he took violently away, or the thing which he hath deceitfully gotten, or that which was delivered him to keep, or the lost thing which he found,

5 Or all that about which he hath sworn falsely; he shall even [x] restore it in the principal, and shall add the fifth part more thereto, and give it unto him to whom it appertaineth, [5] [6] in the day of his trespass offering.

6 And he shall bring his trespass offering unto the LORD, [z] a ram without blemish out of the flock, with thy estimation,

ATONEMENT: MEAL OFFERING Vv. 11-13.

The offering of extreme poverty, evincing the mercy of Yahweh. Though no specific blood was shed, the offerer would bring it to the priest who would burn part on the altar for a memorial, thus connecting it with the daily national burnt offering! Cp. Heb. 9:22.

11 [c] Korban.

12 This was an omer Exod. 16: 36. about 5.1 pints - constituting the portion of manna assigned each individual for his daily food. Exod. 16:16-20. A remainder of the manna for what it stood. Deut. 8:3.

13 The very best results of labour - and therefore a dedication of service to Yahweh.

14 Cf. Lev. 2:1. The Word been overlooked.

15 Cf. Lev. 24:1. There has been neglect of things of Yahweh.

16 Thus linking it with animal sacrifices - the national offering - and revealing that what man in his poverty could not provide - Yahweh would supply. Ps 49:8

5 THE TRESPASS OFFERING V.14 - 6:7.

See above.

17 See Note Ch. 4:2.

18 MAHAL - Treachery. From a root, to act unfaithfully or covertly.

19 In tithes, offerings, first-fruits etc. Thus robbing Yahweh. Mal. 3:8.

20 The priest was to assess the loss an apportion accordingly so that a fifth could be added. The Ram was to be the value of the loss. Paid in silver for redemption.

21 Which specified a certain weight Exod. 30:13. Other shekels were lighter.

1 RAM AND RESTITUTION FOR TRESPASS IN HOLY THINGS Vv 14-16

2 IGNORANCE DOES NOT EXCUSE Vv 17-19.

22 This is a sin of commission in contrast to that of omission in Vv 15-16. There is no material loss involved, therefore no material restitution. His very ignorance is a trespass. Cp V. 18.

23 ASHAM - Guilt. RV. Guilt offering.

WHY RESTITUTION?

It is not only just but teaches an important lesson. The penitent is not only to say "I am sorry" but "What can I do about it?"

A FIFTH PART MORE V. 16.

The measure of grace that he seeks in forgiveness. Grace means favour. But what kind of favour? for favour is of many kinds. Favour shown to the miserable we call mercy; favour shown to the poor we call pity; favour shown to the suffering we call compassion; favour shown to the obstinate we call patience: but favour shown to the unworthy we call Grace. This is favour indeed; favour which is truly Divine in its source & character. Light is shown upon it in Rom 3:24 "being justified freely by his grace." The word "freely" occurs again in Jhn 15:25 & is translated "without a cause" – Bullinger (Numbers).

142 THE RAM.

Typical of Christ: the Protector of the Flock. He gave all. See Psalm 69.

THE FAT.

CHELEB – To be fat. The fat is the richest or choicest part. Ashes = DECHEN, fat. The latter is not consumed into smoke, but remains as grease to consolidate & gather to be removed into a clean place. Lev 6:10-11

GRACE in Heb. is CHEN, from CHANAN – To bend or stoop in kindness to an inferior.

ASHAM - Guilt. RV - Guilt offering. He must first make restitution & then offer. If the offended party is dead the restitution is to be paid to next of kin or priest Num 5:8

6 AYIL = Strength, especially a chief. The Protector of the flock. Cp V. 18

1 MAHAL - See Note Ch. 5:15.

2 Though done in regard to a neighbour it is against Yahweh.

3 RV mg - pledge.

4 Robbery.

= CHAPTER 6 =

3 OFFERING FOR TRESPASS DONE KNOWINGLY VV 1-7

THE ALTAR CONSTANTLY IN USE

The evening sacrifice burned slowly all through the night • then was followed by the morning sacrifice which burned through the day • which with the other offerings made called that the altar was constantly in use • as is Christ our altar. On that Altar, the sacrifice is always burning. Day and night the eyes of Israelites could look toward the altar and see the ascending smoke of the burnt offering — so we can figuratively towards Christ.

Each morning • evening the ashes were removed, the fire replenished • the burning continued.

THE SIN OFFERING was treated as most holy Lev. 10:17. The flesh, representing the offerer was solemnly, • exclusively, appropriated by the mediating priests. The far reaching symbolism of the act met its perfect fulfilment in Christ who bore our nature • who appropriates us to himself.

THE LAW OF THE OFFERINGS Ch 6:8 - 7:38

THE PRIESTHOOD (MEDIATION) V.8 - 10:20.

THE BURNT OFFERING 6:13.

Law of the burnt offering, LEVITICUS 6. and of the meat offering, for a trespass offering, unto the priest:

7 [b] And the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD: and it shall be forgiven him for any thing of all that he hath done in trespassing therein.

8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

9 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt offering: It is the burnt offering, (2) because of the burning upon [6] the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar shall be burning in it. — Cp 4:18.

10 And the priest shall put on his linen garment, and his [k] linen breeches shall he put upon his flesh, [7] and take up the ashes which the fire hath consumed with the burnt offering on the altar, and he shall put them [m] beside the altar. [8]

11 And [n] he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, [9] and carry forth the ashes (1) without the camp unto a clean place.

12 And the fire upon the altar shall be burning in it; it shall not be put out: and the priest shall burn wood on [p] it every morning, and lay the burnt offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon [r] the fat of the peace offerings. [11]

13 The fire shall ever be burning upon the altar; it shall never go out.

14 ¶ [t] And this is the law of the meat offering: the sons of Aaron shall offer it (before) the LORD, (before) the altar.

15 And he shall take of it his handful, of the flour of the meat offering, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is upon the meat offering, and shall burn it upon the altar for a sweet savour, even the [v] memorial of it, [13] unto the LORD.

16 And [a] the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: [N] with unleavened bread shall it be eaten (C) in the holy place; in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eat it. [C] Mo'ade Lev. 1:1. RV marking

17 [d] It shall not be baken with leaven. [E] [e] I have given it unto them for their portion of my offerings made by fire; [f] it is most holy, as is the sin offering, and as the trespass offering.

18 (g) All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it. [h] It shall be a statute for ever in your generations concerning the offerings of the LORD made by fire: (i) every one that toucheth them shall be holy. Cp Hag. 2:11-14. Is. 52:11 Matth. 23:19.

19 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, Cp V.22.

20 [l] This is the offering of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall offer unto the LORD in the day when he is anointed; the tenth part of an (o) ephah of fine flour for a meat offering perpetual, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night. [17]

21 (p) In a pan it shall be made with oil; and when it is baken, thou shalt bring it in: and the baken pieces of the meat offering shalt thou offer for a sweet savour unto the LORD. [19A]

22 And the priest of his sons that is anointed in his stead shall offer it: it is a statute for ever unto the LORD; [s] it shall be wholly burnt.

23 For every meat offering for the priest shall be wholly burnt: it shall not be eaten.

24 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, saying, [u] This is the law of the sin offering: (x) In the place where the burnt offering is killed shall the sin offering be killed before the LORD: [y] it is most holy.

Roth: "as unleavened cakes shall it be eaten."

14 Rend. "Unleavened shall it be eaten."

Cp 1 Cor. 5:6-8

14A The meal representing works offered unto Yahweh must be pure from that which symbolizes wrong ulterior motives. See also Frankincense. 2:16.

15 Thus, before all Israel they enjoyed fellowship with the Father. He shared the offerings with His ministers • they ate in the Holy Place Cp 1 John 1:3. Cp 1 Cor. 9:13; 10:18 Heb. 13:10

AT THE CONSECRATION OF A PRIEST Vv 19-23.

See BETOW † Cp Nte 5:11.

16 Cp Ch. 2:1. Our best offerings: Intellect, study, thought, deed, time, energy. Christ fulfilled this: his sons should aim to do likewise.

17 Thus the whole of it was given to Yahweh - spread over the whole day. Even our normal labor can become service to Him. Eph. 6:5.

18 The Spirit-word.

19 It was entirely given with out any memorial taken therefrom (it being for the priest) - so Christ gave Himself entirely. It was completely consumed by the Divine fire. Jhn 2:17.

19A Aaron's sons referred to in V.20 must be the successors of high priests who succeeded him.

20 Doubled for emphasis - entirely consumed in Yahweh's service. Laboring "in season • out of season" 2 Tim 4:2.

THE SIN OFFERING Vv 24-30 See above

General rules Ch 4:1-5:13.

21 On the north side of the altar before Yahweh Lev. 1:11. Christ slain on north side of city Cp Luke 13:33.

22 The association of the sin offering with the burnt offering is significant. The dedication of self is required as well as the forgiveness of sin. The latter must be specific. We must mention the sins - confess them — and not trust vaguely to the provisions of mercy.

24 Cp Jhn 16:32.

6 Cp mg. Rend - "Shall burn upon the hearth upon the altar." For the general rules of the burnt offering see Ch. 1:1-17.

7 Flesh covered right • courses exhibited.

8 This permitted them to cool - for they would be still burning.

8A DESHEN - Fat See Note bottom p. 142.

9 Thus suggesting that other than the priest would bear the ashes away. When the Lord died upon the stake, the work of sacrifice was complete. He had submitted to death voluntarily John 10:17-18 but his supporters conveyed his body to a clean place. Jhn. 19:41.

10 Pointing forward to the wood of the stake upon which the anti-typical burnt offering was laid.

11 The portions of the peace offerings. Ch. 3:3, 9, 14. Offered with the burnt offering because true fellowship only possible with a dedicated life.

12 Divine fire Ch. 9:24. probably always used for sacrifices. Gen. 22:7. No sacrifice acceptable without it. It typifies the Spirit-word. Cp 1 Thess. 5:19.

THE MEAL OFFERING Vv. 14-18.

General rules Ch. 2:1-16. Priests' portion Ch. 7:9-10.

13 This portion represented the whole offering as Christ represented the whole body.

THE BURNT OFFERING 143 THE MEAL OFFERING

Continually burning, entirely consumed: "I come to do Thy will, O Yahweh." See Ps. 40. • Christ both sacrifice • Priest. Animal carefully washed, dismembered, placed in order on altar, after first being skinned. The skin given to priest Lev. 7:8 so that the inner animal revealed. John. 8:46. • Priest: Flesh covered in robe righteousness. Cp Ps. 132:9. • Preside thus until completely consumed Lev. 6:10. • Change of garment — priestly ministry in which righteousness not so clearly emphasized Jhn 19:38. • Ashes conveyed to a clean place Jhn 19:41. • Wood on the altar Acts 5:30 • Slain north of the altar Lev. 1:11 - Calvary. • Peace Offering: Lev 6:12 Fellowship. John 17:14.

The memorial of the best labor offered on the altar. • The antitype John 4:32-34. 1 Cor. 5:6-8. • It comprised the basis of fellowship Jhn 6:51 • Had to be eaten in the holy place • Those touching it were constituted holy. Heb. 3:1.

THE CONSECRATION OF THE PRIEST

The priest's labor given entirely to Yahweh as the dedication of self, consumed by divine fire. It was first offered at the Consecration • henceforth - each day with lambs. Ex. 29:38-46.

THE SIN OFFERING.

● It was "most holy" Luke 1:35. ● It was killed on the north of the altar Lev. 6:25 (Calvary) ● Before Yahweh Jhn 16:32. ● The offering for rulers and people eaten by priests to signify acceptance by Yahweh & resumption of fellowship ● That for Priest & Congregation burnt without the camp — implying the repudiation of sin & that complete redemption was beyond the Law. Heb. 13:11-14. ● The offering of Jesus is identified with this last indicating that it was for himself as well as for the congregation. Heb. 7:26-28. ● The sin offering not invariably associated with specific sins, but also with the sin nature Cp Lev. 12:6. 15:30

25 Chattah - To miss the mark.

26 So absorbing it into his very being & identifying himself with it Lev 10:17-18. Hos. 4:8. Cp 1 Pet. 3:23

27 Christ bore sin's flesh in the sight of all in the antitypical holy place.

28 The blood was considered holy & therefore not to be taken outside — so with the antitypical blood.

29 The fat was burned upon the altar Lev 4:35. & the flesh boiled as food for the priest.

30 Being more likely to be impregnated with the flesh. — being unglazed.

31 The blood of the offering for Priest & Congregation was taken into the holy & therefore the flesh was burned Lev 4:5-7, 16-18.

6 [b] Every male among the priests shall eat thereof: it shall be eaten in the holy place: [d] it is most holy.

7 As the sin offering is, so is the trespass offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it. BURNT & MEAL OFFERING

8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt offering which he hath offered.

9 And [h] all the meat offering that is baken in the oven, and all that is dressed [i] in the fryingpan, and [2] in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.

10 And every meat offering, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another. See below left

11 And [n] this is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he shall offer unto the LORD. See note top p 138

12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving [g] unleavened cakes [h] mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, [r] fried.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering [t] leavened bread [i] with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace offerings. (1 Cor. 5:11 each cakes)

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for an heave offering unto the LORD, [k] and it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace offerings.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings [v] for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning. 19

16 But [z] if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten

4 This signified acceptance by Yahweh & resumption of fellowship

5 They are similar See Note top p. though trespass more serious. Sin related to natural tendency to go astray & thus viewed against the flesh as such. It was sometimes used as a reminder of weakness of flesh Cp Lev. 12:6. 15:30

6 He ate as Yahweh's representative & received the cereal as man's representative. Gen 3:21. As mediator between God & man. The latter was clothed by him.

7 Apart from those offered on the altar Cp Lev. 23 for on. See Note below

8 This would keep & therefore could be stored & apportioned as directed

9 Shelamim from Shalem, to be complete or make whole. See Note top p. 138

10 All three forms in which the prepared meal offering could be offered, indicating every aspect of labor to be channelled into acceptable offering Cp Lev 2:4ff. 6:13.

11 CHALLAH - Perforated Cakes from CHALLAH bore.

12 RAKIK - A thin cake

13 Because this was a spontaneous expression of devotion from those that were not completely rid of sin & evil See below.

14 KORBÂN - Presentgift.

15 T'RUMÂH - Apportionment lifted up, or raised up.

18 What remained after the fat etc had been burned on altar Lev 3:4 & the right leg & breast had been given to the priest Lev 7:30-34.

19 This suggests that he invited his guests to gather with him & he could not eat the whole ox, heifer or lamb at his own Cp Deut 12:7. This command would encourage him to invite as many as possible - broadening his thanksgiving & worship. Deut 16:11

22 See Note V. 15 and bottom p. 144.

22A The ages of man are divided into 3 great dispensations — Patriarchal, Mosaic, Christian. In the third, the type becomes the reality.

23 Roth: "He that brought near shall not be accepted, it shall not be reckoned unto him."

24 PIGGUWL - To stink. Cp Lev 19:8

25 Be guilty of an offence, probably requiring a sin offering.

26 In the moral sphere uncleanness is likened to wine transmitted. 1 Cor 5:6. 15:33. Doctrinal — 2 Tim. 2:17.

27 Figurative of moral uncleanness.

28 Excommunicated — at least until atoned for. Cp Gen. 17:14 Cf. Lev. 22:3. - and Titus without hope.

7 CONCERNING FAT AND BLOOD. Vv 22-27.

29 CHELEB - Fat - Here the richest or choicest part. — The saved up riches of the animal - stored energy. This was to be completely given unto Yahweh. Thus is the fat earlier specified Lev. 3 etc.

30 Sacrificial animals. The roebuck, hart etc were exempt.

31 Prohibited Exod. 22:31. Lev. 22:8

32 It appears from Deut. 32:14 that it was only the fat of sacrificial animals that was prohibited whereas other could be eaten if slain properly. The fat intermingled with flesh is never in question.

33 It is styled "the food of the offering" Lev. 3:11, 16, to emphasize that it belonged to Yahweh, the offerer had to present it to the priest with his own hands Lev. 7:30.

THE LAW OF THE SACRIFICE 7:11

What is here added relates to the accompanying Minchah, the classification of Peace-offerings into: a. Thank-offerings; b. Vow-offerings; c. Voluntary offerings; & the conditions to be observed by the worshipper in eating the flesh. All of which shows the practical response of a worshipper in acts of fellowship that he can perform in response.

THE MALES SHALL EAT V. 6. 144

They had the sign of the Covenant in their flesh Lev. 12:3. Gen. 17.

They belonged to Yahweh for service Exod. 13:12, 15.

They had to appear before Yahweh 3 times a year Exod. 23:17. Deut. 16:16.

LEAVEN BREAD V. 13

The use of this in sacrifice taught that everything eaten was sanctified by the Word & Prayer 1 Tim. 4:4-5. 1 Cor. 10:23. Cp. (If being the normal bread eaten) & that food that enters the stomach does not defile Mk. 7:11.

THANKSGIVING. VOTIVE & FREE WILL OFFERINGS

Cf V. 15, 16. The former were considered of greater significance as thanks for specific act of good apart from one for which a vow had been made or one expressing the general good of Yahweh.

20 RV: Freewill. NEDÂBÂH - Spontaneous, or abundant (Str.) It differed from the votive offering because it was not vowed and from the thank offering by not having reference to any special mercy received. It arose out of the consciousness of Yahweh's tender mercies & covenant faithfulness, with a resultant sense of obligation. The Tabernacle built with these offerings Exod. 35:5, 21.

21 Promises to Yahweh in hope of His help Ps. 66:13-14. 116:1-19.

CHRIST: THE PEACE OFFERING
• John 14:27. 16:33. Preaching peace by Jesus Christ Acts 10:36. Eph 2:14,15,17. • Thank offering Mt. 11:25-30. Phil 4:6 2 Cor. 9:11-12, 13. Heb 13:15. • Votive Offering Ps. 116. Pr 22:25. • Freewill Offering John 10:17-18

BLOOD PROHIBITED
It represented the life which should be wholly dedicated to Yahweh Lev 17:11. Though originally prohibited to Noah Gen. 9:3-5, now the prohibition limited to Israel Deut. 14:21.

The blood of sacrificial animals was left on the altar for all to see - that of others covered by dirt Lev 17:10-13 - the former rep. life devoted to Yahweh, the latter a life given to satisfying flesh. Blood in N.T. Cp Acts 15:28-29. 1 Cor. 8:7-9, 11-13 1 Cor. 10:25-29.

the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten: 22

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither [b] shall it be imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an [d] abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity.

19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that pertain unto the LORD, [g] having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul [i] shall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreover the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as [m] the uncleanness of man, or any [n] unclean beast, or any [o] abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which pertain unto the LORD, even that soul [p] shall be cut off from his people.

22 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, [r] Ye shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

24 And the fat of the [2] beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use: but ye shall in no wise eat of it.

25 For whosoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people. Cp V.20 NTC

26 [a] Moreover ye shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

27 Whatsoever soul it be that eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

28 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

29 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, [c] He that offereth the sacrifice of his peace offerings unto the LORD shall bring his oblation unto the LORD of the sacrifice of his peace offerings.

30 [e] His own hands shall bring the offerings of the LORD made by fire, the fat with the breast, it shall he bring, that [f] the breast may be waved for a wave offering before the LORD.

31 [h] And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

32 And [l] the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for an heave offering of the sacrifices of your peace offerings.

33 He among the sons of Aaron, that offereth the blood of the peace offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

34 For [q] the wave breast and the heave shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel from off the sacrifices of their peace offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons by a statute for ever from among the children of Israel.

35 ¶ This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sons, out of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, in the day when he presented them to minister

8 THE PRIESTS PORTION OF THE PEACE OFFERING Vv 28-30

34 KORBAN - Present, gift. From KOREB - to approach or draw near.

35 Cp Note V. 35: see below Wave Offer.
36 Roth. footnote: "the fat upon the breast" see Ch 8:26-27. The breast = heartiness + willingness. The fat - the richest or choicest of stored energy. Col. 3:23. 1 Cor. 15:58
37 It was waved towards the altar to indicate that it was Yahweh's + back to priests to indicate that it was given by Him to them.

9 SUMMARY OF PRIESTS' PORTION Vv 31-36

38 Yahweh cares for His work + men. Cp 1 Cor. 9:13-14. Gal 6:6.
39 Symbolising activity and support - this associated with the breast indicating love in action - the basis of fellowship with Yahweh. 1 John 3:16.
40 These were lifted up towards heaven + down towards earth, indicating fellowship with both.
41 His activity + support of the offerer made this appropriate. So with our priest.
42 This still applies being antitypically fulfilled in Christ.

43 MISCHAH will bear the meaning of portion as well as anointing, so that some render: "This is the portion of Aaron" etc. The portions signify love in action, and this we should give unto Christ to ensure fellowship with the Father 1 John 1:6-7.

7 CONCERNING FAT AND BLOOD Vv 22-27

29 CHELEB - Fat. Here the richest or choicest part - The saved up riches of the animal - stored energy. This was to be completely given unto Yahweh. This is the fat earlier specified Lev 3:3 etc.
30 Sacrificial animals the roebuck, hart etc were exempt.
31 Prohibited. Exod 23:18. 34:25. Lev 22:8
32 It appears from Deut 32:14 that it was only the fat of sacrificial animals that was prohibited whereas other could be eaten if slain properly. The fat intermingled with flesh is never in question.
33 It is styled "the food of the offering" Lev 3:11, 16, to emphasise that it belonged to Yahweh, the offerer had to present it to the priest with his own hands Lev. 7:30.

THE OBLATION
Heb. KORBAN - Present, Gift from a root KOREB - To approach or draw near. By introduction of our great High Priest we, through the Gospel "draw near" unto Yahweh Heb. 7:19. 10:21, 22. This must be done personally; it cannot be done by proxy.

THE FAT ON THE ALTAR
This fed the fire + caused it to burn freely. So by giving the richest part of our being to Yahweh, our energy to His service the zeal of our offerings will be freely consumed 1 Thess. 5:19.

WAVE OFFERING
Though the offerer presented this, it was in association with the priest. Num. 6:20. The Mishna says that this was done by the priest placing his hands under those of the offerer upon which the wave breast was laid + then moving them to and fro. In type it showed that true love in activity is stimulated by the priest - the Lord Jesus.

THE RIGHT SHOULDER V.32
In Deut 18:3 the shoulder, two cheeks + maw (Str. pouch - gebah) are allocated the priest. The variation is evidently due to the changed conditions in the Land with increased number of priests.

THE PARABLE OF THE PRIESTS. Israel was called to be "A Kingdom of Priests" Exod. 19:5-6. Therefore the consecration of the priests set forth parabolically what was expected of them, and the whole congregation was called together to witness it Lev. 8:3. The priests represented the nation in miniature, but their failings. e.g. Lev. 10 brought home the grim reality that they fell short of the ideal. Further, in that a section of the priestly people were permitted to minister at the Altar and Tabernacle, Israel was reminded that as yet it was unfit to assume the priestly privileges to which it has been called. In the symbolism of the consecration service the people would thus discover a spur to effort and a check to pride.
The consecration of priests was on same day as that of Tabernacle etc Exod. 29. See V. 44 - Antitypical Tabernacle, Altar set up Heb 8:1,10. 9:24

CH. 8. 1 Consecration of Aaron and his sons. 14 Their sin offering, 18 and burnt offering. 22 The ram of consecration. 31 Place and time of consecration.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
2 [p] Take Aaron and his sons with him, and [q] the garments, and [r] the anointing oil, and [s] a bullock for the sin offering, and two rams, and a basket of unleavened bread;
3 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
4 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him; and the assembly was gathered together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.
5 And Moses said unto the congregation, [u] This is the thing which the LORD commanded to be done.
6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sons, [v] and washed them with water.
7 [a] And he put upon him the [b] coat, and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, [a] and bound it unto him therewith.
8 And he put the breastplate upon him: also he [c] put in the breastplate the Urim and the Thummim.
9 [e] And he put the mitre upon his head; also [f] upon the mitre, even upon his forefront, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moses.
10 [1] And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them.
11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them.
12 And he [14] poured of the anointing oil upon Aaron's head, and anointed him, to sanctify him.
13 [o] And Moses brought Aaron's sons, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and [z] put bonnets upon them; as the LORD commanded Moses.
14 [t] And he brought the bullock for the sin offering: and Aaron and his sons [u] laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the sin offering.
15 And he slew it; [x] and Moses took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it.
16 [z] And he took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it upon the altar.

THE THREE BURNINGS.

The fat V.16. Qâtar = To smoke, to turn into fragrance. Same word for incense Exod. 40:27. - Prayer in action

Bullock V.17. Sâraph = Destroy by fire. Sin purged.

Ram V.18 Qarbân Qorbah: Come to ascend.

SEVEN PORTIONS OF THE RAM OF CONSECRATION. V.28.

The fat revealed the healthiness, the inward vigor of the animal. No human life could perceive this development of life to its fullest extent until it was slain. Cp Ps. 40:8. Christ's appeal Ps. 139:23. His claim Jhn 8:29.

20 The lesser omentum, a layer of the inner lining of the cavity of the belly partly enveloping the liver. Thus the liver - the vital organ - was exposed showing prepared to expend energy at the expence of life itself Exod. 29:13.

21 They help separate and expel poisons from the body.

22 Thus representing the repudiation of sin. The blood poured out = Life dedicated. Fat consumed = Energy delivered to God. Flesh destroyed = Sin driven from the camp.

RAM BURNT. 18:21.

23 Heb Yayil = Strength. All burnt = the heart, mind affections all given to Yahweh. Cp Mark 12:30

24 The consecrated life - a "sweet savour" unto Yahweh Rom. 12:1. Cp Rev. 9:24. See Mat 1: Note 19.

RAM OF CONSECRATION. VV22-30.

Following the Burnt offering representing vows of dedication they are consecrated or "set" (Heb) in office.

26 Blood is life, and when applied to the leading faculties of Aaron and his sons indicated that their lives were to be devoted to hearing, working and walking in the ways of God.

26A. The Rump stores the fat for use of the body. ?ALYAH = Strength

26B. See Note Lev. 3:14

26C. Strength to support.

27 Sincerity, Truth 1 Cor. 5:8

28 Rejoicing in the Truth Isa. 61:3.

29 Feeding on Word. Jhn 6:57.

30 The full support of the body.

THE LIVER -- Inspects food and rejects poison. It stores food reserving sufficient to keep the body functioning for some days. ~~It produces bile that helps in the process of digestion~~. Bile - a waste product - is converted by the liver into a fluid to aid digestion.

THE KIDNEYS. KILYATH. From a root to completely prepare a thing.

CONSECRATION.

Cp V. 22. It denotes devoted activity in the service of Yahweh V27. The priest was not to own property nor support himself. He was to live from the Tabernacle service Vv 31-32 & his life was to be devoted exclusively to this on behalf of Israel. Like Christ he must be about his Father's business Luke 2:49.

THE EIGHTH DAY.

This was particularly identified by sanctity. • Children remained in the uncleanness of birth until 8th day when received the seal of the covenant a token purification Lev. 12:2-3. • Beasts unfit for sacrifice until then Lev. 22:27. • Illustrating flesh unclean. • Those ceremonially unclean had to wait until 8th day. Lev. 11:4-40, 15:13-14 Num. 6:9-10. • Actual sins need atoning • After etc 7 days cleansing Exod 29:37.

Heb. SH'MOWNÂH From SHÂMAN To shine (i.e through plenty. "The idea of plumpness; a cardinal number eight (as if a surplus above the 'perfect' seven) - Streng.

ye die not: for so I am commanded.

1, 8 Aaron's offerings for himself and the people. 23 Moses and Aaron bless the people. 24 Fire cometh from the Lord, upon the altar.

AND [d]it came to pass on the [e]eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders of Israel;

2 And he said unto Aaron, [g]Take thee a young calf for a sin offering, [h]and a ram for a burnt offering, without blemish, and offer them before the LORD.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, [i]Take ye a kid of the goats for a sin offering; and a calf and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt offering;

4 Also [m]a bullock and a ram for peace offerings, to sacrifice before the LORD; and [o]a meat offering mingled with oil: for [p]to day the LORD will appear unto you.

5 ¶ And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: [r]and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD.

6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commanded that ye should do: and the glory of the LORD shall appear unto you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, [t]and offer [u]thy sin offering, and [u]thy burnt offering, and make an atonement for thyself, and for the people: and [w]offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the LORD commanded.

8 ¶ Aaron therefore went unto the altar, and slew the calf of the sin offering, which was for himself.

9 [@]And the sons of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dipped his finger in the blood, and [b]put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar:

10 [c]But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sin offering, he burnt upon the altar; [e]as the LORD commanded Moses.

11 [f]And the flesh and the hide he burnt with fire without the camp.

12 And he slew the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons presented unto him the blood, [g]which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 [i]And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 [k]And he did wash the inwards and the legs, and burnt them upon the burnt offering on the altar.

15 ¶ [@]And he brought the people's offering, and took the goat, which was the sin offering for the people, and slew it, and [r]offered it for sin, as the first.

16 And he brought the burnt offering, and offered it according to the [@]manner.

17 And he brought [@]the meat offering, and [s]took an handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, [t]beside the burnt sacrifice of the morning.

THE LAW-GIVER AND THE PRIEST.

Having been consecrated as priest Aaron stood by the altara blessed the people. The Lord, having been made a priest Heb 7:11 did likewise on the Mount of Olives Luke 24:50.
Then both law-giver and priest disappeared into the Tabernacle, to afterwards appear and again bless the people.
At that time the glory of Yahweh appeared.

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar; 7
21 And the breasts and the right shoulder 8 Aaron waved for a wave offering before the LORD; as Moses commanded. 9
22 And Aaron [e] lifted up his hand toward the people, and [e] blessed them, and came down from offering of the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and peace offerings.
23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, 10 and [i] came out, and blessed the people: [i] and the glory of the LORD appeared unto all the people. 12
24 And [l] there came a fire out from before the LORD, and consumed upon the altar the burnt offering and the fat: which when all the people saw, [l] they shouted, and [m] fell on their faces.

1 Nadab and Abihu are burnt by fire. 12 The law of eating the holy things.

AND [o] Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, [p] took either of them (his) censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered [r] strange fire before the LORD, which [s] he commanded them not.
2 And there [t] went out fire from the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD. 1
3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the LORD spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them [u] that come nigh me, and before all the people I will be [v] glorified. (In submission) And Aaron held his peace.
4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of [b] Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come near, carry your [d] brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.
5 So they went near, 10 and carried them in their coats out of the camp; as Moses had said.
6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons, [b] Uncover not your heads, [l] neither rend your clothes; lest ye die, and lest [d] wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD hath kindled. 13
7 [f] And ye shall not go out from the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: [h] for the anointing oil of the LORD is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.
8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, saying,
9 [k] Do not drink [l] wine [m] nor strong drink, 15 thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations:
10 And that ye may [n] put difference between holy and unholy, and between unclean and clean;
11 [q] And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the LORD hath spoken unto them by the hand of Moses.
12 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, and unto Eleazar and unto Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take [t] the meat offering that remaineth of the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and eat it without leaven [e] beside the altar: for [v] it is most holy:
13 And ye shall eat it in the holy place, 21 because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of the sacrifices of the LORD made by fire: for [c] so I am commanded.

TRAGEDY MARS THE FIRST DAY

The excitement of Divine acceptance shown by the appearance of fire was followed by the horror of tragedy which revealed that there must be no presumption in Yahweh's worship V 3. The first day of Aaron's ministry had not yet closed. He had offered the sacrifices, had entered & returned from the holy with Moses. Ch. 9:23. The people were standing in mute expectation, & Yahweh had shewn his approval with a miraculous fire emblematic of himself, which caused them to prostrate themselves. Moses & Aaron were facing the people the ministers of Yahweh to man, when, in excess of excitement, Aaron's two eldest sons, without awaiting instructions, in their censers with common fire, & stepped forth - with the tragic results described.

24 Which should have been eaten by the priests Lev 6:26

25 He did this by eating it, by absorbing it into his very being + thus identifying himself with the offerer to present it to Yahweh. See Note, Lev 6:26. "Iniquity" = AVON – Evil, perverseness. Also rendered "punishment" Gen 4:13, Lam 4:6 (AV). Lev 26:41, Lam 4:22, 1 Sam 24:10. Relates to tendency of flesh to go astray Ps 18:23 RV; Is 53:6. From root 'AVAH – "crooked." That which is bent out of the way. See Note. Exod 28:38 Num 18:1 RVm. The prophet "bore the iniquity" of Israel by identifying himself with it Ezek 4:4-6 (Note Daniel's prayer Dan 9:15). Jesus bore our iniquities Isa 53:11 that he might "bear away" the sin of the world Jn 1:29.

26 He assumes responsibility for the action of his sons!

27 They have not ignored the requirements of Yahweh.

28 In view of the family tragedy it was impossible for him, with a father's love, to do this. Yahweh, Who is a Father would understand. Ps 103:13-14. The letter of the law had been broken, but Yahweh Who knew the situation overlooked it. Cp Hos 6:6. Mk 12:7.

17 And the little owl, and the cormorant, and the great owl,

18 And the swan, and the pelican, and the gier eagle,

19 And the stork, the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

20 All fowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these may ye eat of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above their feet, to leap withal upon the earth;

22 Even these of them ye may eat; the locust after his kind, and the bald locust after his kind, and the beetle after his kind, and the grasshopper after his kind.

23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you.

24 And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcase of them shall be unclean until the even.

25 And whosoever beareth ought of the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

26 The carcases of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not clovenfooted, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them shall be unclean.

27 And whatsoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the even.

28 And he that beareth the carcase of them shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they are unclean unto you.

29 ¶ These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth; the weasel, and the mouse, and the tortoise after his kind,

30 And the ferret, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole.

31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth touch them, when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even.

32 And upon whatsoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whether it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whatsoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even; so it shall be cleansed.

33 And every earthen vessel, whereinto any of them falleth, whatsoever is in it shall be unclean; and ye shall break it.

34 Of all meat which may be eaten, that on which such water cometh shall be unclean: and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be unclean.

35 And every thing whereupon any part of their carcase falleth shall be unclean; whether it be oven, or ranges for pots, they shall be broken down: for they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you.

36 Nevertheless a fountain or pit, wherein there is plenty of water, shall be clean: but that which toucheth their carcase shall be unclean.

37 And if any part of their carcase fall upon any sowing

BIRDS - carnivorous birds of prey excluded — unholy appetites condemned.
CREEPING THINGS - Leapers permitted. They use the earth only for essentials and for locomotion rise above it. The land bound are excluded. Earthiness, ugliness, the repulsiveness of sin clearly indicated. "We are (like the locusts) "strangers + pilgrims in the earth."

seed which is to be sown, it shall be clean.

38 But if any water be put upon the seed, and any part of their carcase fall thereon, it shall be unclean unto you.

39 And if any beast, of which ye may eat, die; he that toucheth the carcase thereof shall be unclean until the even.

40 And [a] he that eateth of the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: he also that beareth the carcase of it shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

41 And [c] every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth shall be an abomination; it shall not be eaten.

42 Whatsoever goeth upon [e] the belly, and whatsoever goeth upon all four, or whatsoever [g] hath more feet among all creeping things that creep upon the earth, them ye shall not eat; for they are an abomination.

43 Ye shall not make yourselves [s] abominable with any creeping thing that creepeth, neither shall ye make yourselves unclean with them, that ye should be defiled thereby.

44 For I am the LORD your God: ye shall therefore sanctify yourselves, and [t] ye shall be holy; for I am holy: neither shall ye defile yourselves with any manner of creeping thing that [h] creepeth upon the earth.

45 [i] For I am the LORD that bringeth you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: [k] ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the law of the beasts, and of the fowl, and of [m] every living creature that [h] moveth in the waters, and of every creature that creepeth upon the earth:

47 [p] To make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that may be eaten and the beast that may not be eaten.

1 The purification of women after childbirth.
6 Her offerings for her purifying.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman have conceived seed, and born a man child: then she shall be unclean seven days; [b] according to the days of the separation for her infirmity shall she be unclean.

3 And in the [d] eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised.

4 And she shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirty days; she shall touch no hallowed thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying be fulfilled.

5 But if she bear a maid child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and six days.

6 And [f] when the days of her purifying are fulfilled, for a son, or for a daughter, she shall bring a lamb [4] of the first year for a burnt offering, and a young pigeon, or a turtledove, for a sin offering, unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, unto the priest:

7 Who shall offer it before the LORD, and make an atonement for her; and she shall be cleansed from the [l] issue of her blood. This is the law for her that hath born a male or a female.

CHAPTER 12
2 A CLEAN WOMAN OF LIFE OUT OF BIRTH V.1-5
1 LAWS FOR WOMEN AFTER CHILDBIRTH V.1-8

1 The basis of the law was the physical fact of uncleanness. V.7. During this period she made all she touched unclean Cp Lev. 15:19-28

2 Christ was offered and glorified at his 33rd year. Luke 2:23. opening the way into the holiest Heb. 10:19-20. for his "mother" Gal. 4:4 retrospectively as well as prospectively. Heb. 9:15.
During the 33½ days her defilement was not as absolute as with 7. for the fact of her enduring his circumcision she well that she was moving towards purification, but until that complete she must touch no hallowed thing etc. The 66 days is probation, & the completion of which the firstborn son given to Yahweh Luke 2:22-24

3 The Ecclesia - from the probation state of actual sin & from Jew & Gentile into relation with Yahweh.

4 The Sin offering is presented after the burnt offering which is a reversal of the normal order, this being done for purification alone. No sin has been committed, but a reminder is made of the sinful nature of flesh.

ATONEMENT MADE V.7.

The mother was thus caused to recall the circumstances of Gen. 3:16. and to recognise that all are born into a constitution of sin Ps. 51:5. Rom. 5:14. 1 Cor. 15:22. so all are potential sinners. Indeed child bearing has been made necessary to keep the race alive as well as for redemption. 1 Tim. 2:13-15.

Burnt offering + sin offering were alone necessary: the former for re-dedication of self, the latter as a reminder of the curse + need of child bearing. No peace offering was necessary for fellowship with God had not been disrupted by actual sin. Note that even Mary offered a sin-offering. Luke 2:22-24.

MOTHERHOOD.

The law was both practical and spiritual. In relation to the former, it screened the mother in an acceptable + wholesome exclusion, in a way permitting of more thorough recovery, than if she merely trusted to her own feelings as to how far and how soon she might venture on the resumed intimacies of friendship.

In a spiritual sense it aligned child birth with the bearing away of sin. Gen. 3:15. Mtt. 2:18. 1 Tim. 2:13-15.

Child birth constantly recalled the fact of Eve's transgression. Gen. 3:15.

THE TREATMENT OF LEPROSY. ● Connection with birth. It is significant that the previous chapter teaches the fact of hereditary uncleanness through birth. No treatment of sin can be thorough, unless its connection with nature is properly understood. Mark 7:18-23. Rom. 7:14-25. Leprosy is active sin; the outworking of that which is inherent in flesh. Isa. 53:4-5. There was no need for any Israelite to become leprous. Cp Exod. 15:26.
● SYMPTOMS: Six cases are dealt with ● a scab Vv 2-8 ● a spot after a boil Vv 18-23. ● after a burning Vv 24-28 ● a plague in hair or beard Vv 29-37. ● Spots in the skin Vv 38-39 ● a sore in a man's bald head Vv 42-44. ● The isolation of the leper Cp Vv 45-46.

the priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shall be clean.

CHAPTER 13.

1 The laws and tokens whereby the priest is to be guided in discerning leprosy.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh [b] a [2]rising, a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosy; [c] then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sons the priests:

3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh: and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosy: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague seven days:

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more:

6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and, behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he [f] shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

7 But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again:

8 And if the priest see that, behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosy.

9 ¶ When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest;

10 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the rising be [a]white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be [3]quick raw flesh in the rising;

11 It is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not [d] shut him up: for he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosy break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of [e] him that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, wheresoever the priest looketh;

13 Then the priest shall consider: and, behold, if the leprosy have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white: he is clean.

14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosy.

16 Or if the raw flesh turn again, and be changed unto white, he shall come unto the priest;

17 And the priest shall see him: and, behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: he is clean.

4. Appears to be deep-seated and not merely external. The second symptom.
5. If the symptoms are not decisive.
6. "shut up the plague spot" - see Roth. The priest shall treat the affected part by binding it up, though Vs indicate that he would be confined to his house.
7. Thus a careful investigation such as sin requires.
8. He is still kept under supervision. Even "the appearance of sin" should be investigated.

1 LAWS FOR WOMEN AFTER CHILD BIRTH Vv 1-8

1. The basis of this was the physical fact of uncleanness. 7. During this period she made all she touched unclean. Cp Ch. 15:19-28.

2. Christ was offered - and glorified on His 34th year. Luke 2:35. opening the way in to the holiest Heb. 10:19-20. for His "mother" Gal. 4:26 retrospectively as well as prospectively. Heb. 2:16.
During the 33 days her defilement was not as absolute as the for the fact of her bearing his circumcision showed that she was moving forward purification, but until that complete she must touch no hallowed thing etc. The 40 days of probation, at the completion of which the first born son given to Yahweh. Luke 2:22-24
The Ecclesia - from the probation based of actual sin & redemption a Gentile into relation with Yahweh.
The Sin offering is presented after the burnt offering which is a reversal of the normal order, this being done for purification alone. No sin has been committed, but a reminder is made of the sinful nature of flesh.

● Leprosy Identified with Sin - The expressions of David suggest this Ps. 51:7. Christ told the leper his "faith" had saved him Luke 17:11-19. Thus the leper was taken to the priest for treatment, not a physician Mt. 8:1-4. Luke 5:12-15.
● PARALLELS BETWEEN LEPROSY AND SIN - ● It can appear in the body or the head, it can be from an old scar, from a boil or inflammation of the part of the body - so with sin. It can be an old habit reasserting itself, it can be from body or head, or caused by a local inflammation. ● It makes its appearance in the flesh without any special personal act of the sufferer to bring it on. Therefore its origin is mysterious. ● Its slight beginning - It appears to be as nothing - a mere spot in the skin which in many cases often comes and goes without injury. Therefore it is difficult to diagnose. ● Its Early Painlessness. In its first stages it does no harm. It is merely a spot which only a keen eye can observe. It may continue for some time without seeming to do harm. ● Its Slow Growth. It may remain relatively dormant for years according to the health of the individual. On other occasions its onslaught can be rapid. ● Its Insidiousness. It may remain long in the flesh without spreading, lingering therein to ultimately manifest itself. ● Its Cure. Leprosy can be cured if treated early. In the case of the Israelite he should seek a cure from Yahweh Rophekà. ● Its Final Hideousness. Offensive running sores appear, the gums bleed, the nose blocks up, the joints mortify and drop off one by one, the appearance becomes horribly disfigured, the facial features becoming shockingly repulsive. ● Its Ultimate Agony. As though as to make up for its early painlessness, its final stage is one of agony and death is sudden. Success seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower than the skin, and the hair thereof be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosy broken out of the boil.

21 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower than the skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days: Cp V.5.

22 And if it spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague.

23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

There is to be discrimination between an old scar and a leprous spot, though the former might be the most likely spot for the latter to appear. Like an old sin breaking out again.

25 Then the priest shall look upon it: and, behold, [b]if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper than the skin; it is a leprosy broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

26 But if the priest look on it, and, behold, there be no white hair in the bright spot, and it be no lower than the other skin, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven days: Cp V.5.

[b] ver. 6.

27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread much abroad in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosy.

28 And if the bright spot stay [c]in his place, and spread not in the skin, but it be somewhat dark; it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning.

[11] Adry scurfy ulcer.

31 And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and, behold, it be not in sight deeper than the skin, and that there is no black hair in it; then the priest shall shut up *him that hath the plague of the scall seven days: Cp V.4

32 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the plague: and, behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall be not in sight deeper than the skin;

33 He shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave; and the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall seven days more:

12 Lest the plague become irritated & inflamed so that the priest cannot form an accurate judgment.

34 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall: and, behold, if the scall be not spread in the skin, nor be in sight deeper than the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and [d]he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

[d] ver. 6.

35 But if the scall spread much in the skin after his cleansing;

36 Then the priest shall look on him: and, behold, if the scall be spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow hair; he is unclean.

P SUMMARY OF LAWS OF LEPROSY. 54-57

MARRIAGE PROHIBITIONS. Lev. 18:6-17. 158

Notwithstanding these prohibitions, it is obvious, that in the infancy of the world marriage between close relatives took place of necessity which under present conditions are properly considered immoral and inexpedient. For 1. As human nature now is, it is very expedient that those who are so much together in youth should, by such restriction, be taught to look upon all such intercourse as prohibited and incestuous; for otherwise, it would be impossible to prevent the prevalence of immorality among young people to the destruction of the family and of such.

2. That the duties owing by nature to relatives might not be confounded with those of a social or political kind; for could a man be a brother + a husband, or a son and a husband, at the same time, + fulfil the duties of both? Impossible.

3. By intermarrying with other families, relationship + the endearments might be diffused, and the nation as a whole might be more closely united together as one.

These prohibitions, therefore, are essential to preserve the moral + political stability of the nation - and the race.

NORMAL AND ABNORMAL ISSUES: Even the normal menstrual flow in healthy women was classed as a cause of 7 days uncleanness – an indication of the hereditary effects of the original sin Lev. 15:19-24 Cp Gen. 3:16. Though the source of defilement was hidden away out of sight, its existance could not be denied. The source of corruption was within the flesh, "some deep-seated physical disease of the very springs of life, was exuding noisome matter" (Law. Grace p. 48). Thus the Law proclaimed what Christ taught. Mk. 7:20-23. Thus the order. Num 5:2. – Put out of the Camp as Adam + Eve were put out of the Garden. Cp Lev 13:51

A A RUNNING ISSUE (DEFILEMENT). Vv. 1-12.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and to Aaron, saying,
2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, [f] When any man hath a [3] running issue out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean.
3 And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh run with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness.
4 Every bed, whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is unclean: and every [4] thing whereon he sitteth, shall be unclean.
5 And whosoever toucheth his bed [i] shall wash his clothes, and [k] bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
6 And he that sitteth on any thing whereon he sat that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
7 And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
8 And if he that hath the issue spit upon him that is clean; then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
9 And what saddle soever he rideth upon that hath the issue shall be unclean.
10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth any of those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
11 And whomsoever he toucheth that hath the issue, and hath not rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.
12 And the [6] vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.
13 And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue; then [g] he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.
14 And on the eighth day he shall take to him two (h) turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest:
15 And the priest shall offer them, [l] the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; [m] and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the LORD for his issue.
16 And [n] if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.
17 And every garment, and every skin, whereon is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even.
18 The woman also with whom man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and [o] be unclean until the even.

Ch. 16. Note 24 the helplessness of man to effect his own cover was thus emphasised. Aaron did everything to bring the blood into the Most Holy. Christ did likewise - this was emphasised in that the Apostles fled from his presence when he was taken. He accomplished the work himself. John 10: 17-18; Heb. 1:3; 7:27; 9:26; 9:12 His lonely offering thus prefigured by the Day of Atonement.

UNCLEANNESSES - TRANSGRESSIONS

16:16. The Tabernacle represented the elect, the Israel of God. The sacrifice represented the putting to death of the lusts of the flesh - the uncleanness - and the forgiveness of actual transgression, + (the blood) the rededication of the Tabernacle to Divine will and use. The form of confession used on this occasion in later times was: "O Lord, Thy people, the house of Israel, have transgressed, they have rebelled, they have sinned before Thee. I beseech Thee now atone the transgressions, their rebellion, & their sin that they have sinned against Thee, as it is written in the law of Moses Thy servant, that on this day he shall make atonement for you to cleanse you from all your sins, ye shall be clean." BLOOD PROHIBITED.

Gen. 9:3-4; Lev. 3:17. Originally (as with circumcision, distinction of meats, animal sacrifices) the prohibition of blood rested upon all in covenant relationship, but not to those outside Deut. 14:21. (The "strangers" of Lev. 17:10. were proselytes and bound to keep the law Exod. 12:48-49.

Apostolic recommendation. Acts 15:28-29. = a concession to Jewish scruples. Cp Paul on meats. 1 Cor. 8:7-9, 12-13. 1 Cor. 10:19-24, 25-29. On circumcision Acts 16:3 cf. Gal 2:3. On Temple purification Acts 21:26. - Cp 1 Cor. 9:19-20.

Seven times prohibited in the law Lev. 3:17; 7:26; 17:10,12,14; 19:26; Deut. 12:16; 12:23-27; 15:23.

1 Blood was shed to sustain life. This underlined the principle of the Atonement & had to be acknowledged. Cp 1 Cor. 10:31

2 Excommunicated, which, in the wilderness, would bring death, unless restored to fellowship.

B THE PEACE OFFERINGS TO BE MADE 5-6.

3 Thus fellowship is retained 1 Jn. 1:3,4

4 ZEBACH - Slaughter. By impl. sacrifice. The animal was sacrificed to sustain the life of the worshipper as below

C SACRIFICING TO DEVILS PROHIBITED. V. 7. — Cp Lev. 4:23

5 Sairim = "hairy ones" frequently rendered "goat," and was applied to the fanciful, lustful animal called "Satyr," of whom the god Pan was representative. Pan had the likeness of a goat and was worshipped with the greatest solemnity in Egypt. He was the emblem of fecundity & the ancients looked upon him as the principal of all things.

Here Israel commanded not to sacrifice to the Pans of the heathen, but to Yahweh, the Author of every good & perfect gift.

Occurs also 2 Chron. 11:15. Cp 1 Cor. 10:20-21. 1 Tim. 4:1.

D THE OFFERINGS TO BE BROUGHT TO THE ALTAR. 8-9.

6 Proselytes like the Rechabites. See 17:7.

7 THE ONE USE OF BLOOD. 10-16

7 Heb. "kaphar" - signifies "A Covering." see note. Lev. 23:27

8 The Jewish method of killing ensures the maximum effusion of blood, & the remaining blood is extracted by means of the washing & salting of the meat.

9 Put to death. Having been excommunicated.

10 Life dedicated. Heb 9:22. Mal 6:25; 10:39.

11 KAPHAR - To do or make.

V.4 - Yahweh now sets His face against such. The prohibition to eat blood 7 times repeated in the Pentateuch Gen. 9:4; Lev. 3:17; 7:26; 19:26 Deut. 12:16; 15:23.

V.5. Israelites are commanded to bring the beasts specified that they were then slaying in the open field ("which they (Now) offer in the open field) to the door of the Tabernacle and slay them there. In this verse the word "offer" is "slaughter" in both cases. See comment bottom 167.

Having acknowledged that the animal belonged to Yahweh, the worshipper received back the flesh as Yahweh's gift.

11 Blood shed in sacrifice was splashed upon the altar, blood shed for food - to sustain the flesh - was covered with dirt & thus hidden away. One displayed - the other hidden. Cp Ezek. 24:7. Cp blood at side of Altar Exod 29:12 Lev 4:7. See Note top p 64. This provision has relation to wild animals considered "clean" in contrast to those also used for sacrifice (i.e. domesticated animals) Cf. Vv. 3-5.

12 The importance of this law - 1 Sam. 14:32-35. Ezek. 4:14. 44:31. Relates to "things strangled" Acts 15:20.

13 That had not been properly bled. He may eat it inadvertently. Cp 1 Sam. 14:32-33.

B Cp Ch. 16:26. Seeing that blood had been shed for him, he had to dedicate his life in clean living before Yahweh.

Animals improperly bled or that died of disease could be full of pollution and dangerous to health

3 CHUQQÂTH - appointments RV = statutes. They were to ignore the statutes of the land V.3.

5 The frequent repetition of this formula in these parts of the law emphasized that the doctrine was to be manifested practically in performance. Cp Eph. 5:22 etc 1 Pet. 2:9.

ATTITUDE TOWARDS EGYPT AND CANAAN

Egypt represented the highest and most successful form of civilisation, so that the temptation to imitate its apparent successful ways would be great - but it was prohibited. On the other hand, the ways of Canaan presented the prevailing custom of the land to which they were going and the temptation would be to conform. It was Yahweh's ways they must follow and not man's - no matter how successful they were nor how convenient. Cp V. 3.

you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you eat blood.

13 And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, which hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust.

14 For it is the life of all flesh; the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh: for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off.

15 And every soul that eateth that which died of itself, or that which was torn with beasts, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger, he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even: then shall he be clean.

16 But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh; then he shall bear his iniquity.

"MARRIAGE IS HONORABLE BUT.." Heb. 13:4

"The general opinion has always been that this phrase 'to uncover nakedness' is a prohibition of marriage between the parties mentioned ... but the common Hebrew expression for marriage is 'to take to wife', 'to marry' (lit. to be lord over) a wife', 'to join in affinity with any one'. It seems that, rather a prohibition of fornication or whoredom than of marriage, yet as these were unlawful at all times & with all persons, it is difficult to account for such minute details, if legal marriage be not meant here." – Young.

THE LAND VOMITETH: The Land acquired & separated for His people by Yahweh is impersonated & represented as vomiting out its inhabitants because of their indulgence in the abominations specified. The Israelites are exhorted to a pure & holy life because Yahweh is their God. Unfortunately the Land ultimately did vomit them out Ezek 36:12-14,17. Rev. 3:16.

• Normally a moral act is recognized as that which is right such as the conscience declares. In that regard, the conscience possesses greater authority than the flesh though it may have lesser power than passion. However, under the law, moral duties, holiness, takes higher ground that the right or wrong of conscience being established by Divine decree: "I am Yahweh." Holiness is separation for Divine use, and therefore Yahweh alone knowing the use of the vessel decrees the form that holiness should take. Thus when the time came, Yahweh, by decree widened the exclusiveness of the Law to include Gentiles. 1 Pet. 1: 15-19.

• Holiness is shown to be a practical manifestation of morality involving – • FAMILY – Respect of Parents V. 3 • WORSHIP – Sabbath rest V. 3. • ASPECTS OF WORSHIP • Negative – no competing idol V. 4. • Positive – Gratitude to Yahweh extended to consideration for others W. 5-10. • HONESTY Vv 11-12 • NO TAKING ADVANTAGE OTHERS UNFAIRLY. A repetition of sundry laws.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, SEPAH 4:15
2 Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them, [g] Ye shall be holy: for I the LORD your God am holy. - Gp Mt 5:48 Above
3 [h] Ye shall fear every man his mother, and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I am the LORD your God. See below
4 Turn ye not unto [i] idols, [k] nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the LORD your God. ↳ Gods made according to fleshly desires. ZABACH - Slaughter
5 And [l] if ye offer a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD, ye shall offer it [m] at your own will. - Jhn 3:16; Rev. 22:17. Gp Lev 1:3
6 It shall be eaten the same day ye offer it, and on the morrow: and if ought remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in the fire.
7 And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is [n] abominable; it shall not be accepted.
8 Therefore every one that eateth it [o] shall bear his iniquity, because he hath profaned the hallowed thing of the LORD: and [p] that soul shall be cut off from among his people.
9 And [q] when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest. Josh 7:11; Jer 3:40
10 And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard · thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the LORD your God.

13 National punishment if condoned.

14 Excommunicated. Thus individual responsibility.

15 Judgement Lev. 19:15, 35. MISHPAT is rendered by Berkeley Version as "court decision." or "in court".

16 Charge (RV). Heb. MUHMEAETH - To watch as a sentry at the post.

17 CHUQQATH - Not merely customs, but statute laws - young. Thus the law of land must be ignored Acts 4:19-20

5 KEREM can denote a garden or a vineyard

5A PERET = a stray berry. RV = "the fallen fruit." Hence the instruction relates to fallen fruit of any kind and to a garden of any kind. It is repeated twice more in vs 22; Deut 24:19-22 NTC

5B As such could not possess land in Israel.

F STEALING ETC. PROHIBITED V 11
Contrast to vv 9-11

G ON PROFANING THE NAME V. 12.
Hypocrisy to be avoided.

H ON DEFRAUDING V. 13.
The principle of honesty towards Yahweh is to be manifested towards one's neighbor.

I AFFLICTING THE UPPERSED. V. 14. See p 159
He can hear and see and will reward accordingly.

J ON PERVERTING JUDGMENT. V. 15
The wise will apply this principle. Prov 24:23
Those that don't will be judged Ps 82:2. Jam 2:9. See above
Justice and truth must be maintained irrespective of persons or popular opinion Deut. 1:17.

K TALEBEARING PROHIBITED. V 16.
Gp Prov. 18:13. Ps 15:3 Jer 6:28. Ezek 22:9. Gp Warning 1 Pet 4:15 Exhortation Jam 5:20. One should seek to cover and convert not to proclaim and condemn. This relates to private failings not to public misdemeanors or false doctrine.
By false evidence Exod 23:1, 7 Examples: 1 Kg 21:11. Mat 26:60
And will judge Ps 68:5

L HATRED OF BRETHREN PROHIBITED. V 17.
Recognising the seriousness of sin we must not withhold reproof in a bitter spirit or through cowardice or a desire to avoid trouble. Gp Luke 17:3. Mt 18:15-17; 1 Tim 5:20; 2 Tim 4:2. Tit 1:13. 2:15
By abstaining from rebuke, we condone the action and share the sin Ezek 33:4-6

M LOVE OF NEIGHBOUR COMMANDED V 18.
Act in faith knowing that Yahweh will avenge Deut 32:35; Rom 12:17; Heb 10:30.
This command sums up the second half of the Law Mt 22:36. Rom 13:8-10
The parable of the Good Samaritan is based on it. Luke 10:25-37
Gp Rom 5:8. Jhn 3:16

N SEPARATENESS OF KIND COMMANDMENTS. V 19.
Love must not be interpreted as permitting indiscriminate mixing of that which Yahweh has separated.
17. Having established the motivating principle of love, the need of observing Divine law in its manifestation is emphasised, and then follows the need of separation.
18 As in the case of mules, it will result in sterility. Mules were found in Israel 2 Sam 18:9. 1 Kg 1:33 Indicating the law was broken or the mules imported 1 Kg 10:25.

"Be ye holy" (Cont.)

V 12. relates to the 3rd Commandment - that of reverence.
Vv. 17, 18, 33, 34 to the 6th Commandment - the Law of Love (Thou shalt not kill)
Vv 20, 29. to the 7th Commandment - the Law of purity (Against Adultery).
Vv 9, 10, 13. against covetousness, - the 10th Commandment, the Law of contentment.
This Chapter therefore foreshadows the Sermon on the Mount.

BE YE HOLY" CH 19:2. That exhortation expressed the whole purpose of the Law. It is still binding 1 Pet 1:15-16 even though the Law is inadequate for salvation 1 Pet. 1:18-19.
They express the ten Commandments in the terms of practical application. Thus the duties of the 5th, 4th, 1st, 2nd Commandments are referred to in Vv 3-4. Those 4 Laws are, in their positive aspects (1) - The religious law of social order on which the nation rested (2) - The law of positive obedience to Yahweh's command ment. (3) - The law of reverence to an invisible God. (4) - The law of faith that believes on Him without the need of visible idols.
In Vv. 11, 14, 16, 35, 36 reference is to the 8th & 9th Commandments: The Laws of honesty & truthfulness.

ZIMMAH - from ZAMAM, to plan. dilated with d. plotted, plan designed. Ez. unch 29:20; 14; lewdness Ac 20:6 Thought (Le) Prov. 24:9.

ZARAR - To de ers by packing e together, M A man is not fatte a second e who is likely n a spiteful per, or any else se to annoy or the first wife ch & hated.

UNLAWFUL LUSTS AND PERVERSION Vv 19-23.

Penalty: 20:18 d cere- nal penalty of ex uncleanness 15:24. Twice ered to by Ezek as a great sin K. 18:6; 22:10. It is a completely unnat- l act dishon- ng to the nam with Gp Exod. 8: Ezk. Ezek. 16:20 or this horrible erversion See od. 2:16.

2 GENERAL ADMONITIONS Vv 1-37.

A INTRODUCTION: REASON FOR THE REGULATIONS 1-2.

B BASIS: FAMILY & RELIGIOUS LIFE - HONOR PARENTS + OBSERVE THE SABBATH V 3

C ABSTAIN FROM IDOLATRY V 4.
ELILIM - Nothings - a contrast to ELOHIM. Cp. 1 Cor. 8:4
MANNER OF

D OFFERING PEACE OFFERINGS 5-8
The affirmative aspect of worship of 4 is the negative - seeking fellowship with Yahweh.
Rotherham: "That ye may be accepted" - i.e. in such a way as implying the fact is as others, i.e. things may be eaten on second day as well Lev 7:16.
See Notes. Ch. 7.
Excommunicated without any appointed means of sacrifice for restitution. Cp. 7:20

E ON GLEANING THE HARVEST 9-10
Consideration for others.
IDOLS ELILIM from AL (same consonants as EL) - Not, hence nothings.
V. 15 RESPECT - NASA - to lift Cp Ps 4:6, 89:15 to treat differently. Pity for the poor can lead us to favor them against the right. Respect for those of rank is both laudable & lawful - but must not cause us to close our eyes to what is right. Ps. 2:1-4

THE CIRCUMCISED TREE

- Trees are emblematic of men. Ps 1:3. Mt. 3:10. Isa. 61:3. 60:21. Jude 12.
- First thoughts + forward desires are vanity as coming from the flesh. To let them ripen is to insure character Col. 2:11.
- The fourth millenium witnessed the appearance of Yahweh's firstfruit — the Lord Jesus. The fourth Dispensation will be the millenial when the full crop of firstfruits will praise Yahweh. Rev. 14:1-4. ● V.23 below
- The fifth year points to the end of 1000 years when all flesh will rejoice in the grace of Yahweh. 1 Cor. 15:24-28.

[ ] = Lit. "then you shall circumcise its fore-skin" K. "ORLATH" fem. of 'AREL = Make Prune?

V.25. The fruit... probably reason... as not to deceive... is a sound agri... ural principle. ... the tree time ... wood & ultimate... bear better ... Aboth: belittle ... the belly.

LEVITICUS 20. of sundry laws.

19 It is not conducive to the best crops, one fighting the other and the harvest ripening at different times. Cp Deut. 22:9.

A repetition

19 kind: [a] thou shalt not sow thy field with mingled seed: [b] neither shall a garment mingled of linen and woollen come upon thee.

20 They are not appropriate. One is for summer, the other for winter.

The principle is that of separation: Truth + Error cannot mix. Cp 1 Cor. 10:21. 2 Cor. 6:14-16. See below

P REGARDING CARNAL KNOWLEDGE Vv.20-21

21 See Mg. After due investigation one or both parties shall be scourged.

22 Presumably both wife + husband were slaves. Adultery with a free woman or a betrothed free virgin was punishable with death. Lev. 20:20. Deut. 22:23-28. Cp Exod. 21:2.

23 It being both a sin and a trespass — the invasion of the rights of another. See note. Lev. 5:14.

24 No mention is made of compensation to the husband because presumably he was a bondman.

P RESTRICTIONS ON EATING FRUIT Vv.23-25

25 It is not good for a young tree to let the fruit ripen upon it. To circumcise it is to pinch off the young blossoms before they form into fruit. In the fourth year the fruit will reach perfection. See above.

26 As the perfected firstfruits they would be presented unto Yahweh. Pointing forward to the appearance of Jesus in the 4th millenium.

27 The fulness of grace. Gal. 5:22-26. Those before Christ labored in anticipation to that end. See top right

Q EATING BLOOD, OBSERVING SUPERSTITIOUS RITES PROHIBITED. 26-28

28 Blood being associated with the sacrifice of true religion. Lev. 17:11 p. 167

29 NICHESH - To whisper or mutter. Probably related to NACHASH - Serpent. Cp Gen. 30:27. Cp. Deut. 18:10. 2 Kg. 17:17. Isa 8:19. Cp p. 167

30 A Gentile tonsure having a religious significance. See Note Jer. 9:26 Mg.

31 A Gentile form of mourning having a religious significance. Isa. 15:2. Jer. 48:37.

32 Another form of Gentile mourning having a religious significance. Isa. 15:6. 48:37. 1 Kgs. 18:28. Cp Note Deut. 14:2.

33 Tattoo themselves in memory of the dead. Instead they should look to life. Lev. 21:11-12. Cp Luke 20:37.

36 [s] Just balances, just [7] weights, a just [t] ephah, and a just [u] hin, shall ye have: I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

37 Therefore [x] shall ye observe all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Of giving of seed to Molech. 4 Of him that favoureth such an one. 6 Of going to wizards. 7 Of sanctification. 9 Of him that curseth his parents. 10 Of adultery. 11, 13, 14, 17, 19 Of incest, sodomy, &c.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [c] Again, thou shalt say to the children of Israel, [c] Whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that giveth any of his seed unto Molech; he shall surely be put to death:

V.19 "A garment mingled of linen + woollen" lit "a garment made of two kinds of stuff" K. The Hebrew SA'ATNEZ is used only here + in the parallel Deut. 22:11 where it is defined as "wool + linen together" hence it is introduced into the text here. The LXX has KIBDELOS (spurious). The reference is to cloth woven wrongly, that is, from yarn of two different materials. Many synthetic cloths would thus be barred.

V.20. SHIPHCHAH - A servant member of a household. Cp. Ruth 2:13. 1 Sam. 25:27. Also a concubine Gen. 16:1; 29:24, 29.

● BETROTHED = CHARAPH - read by some

166 The Century Bible as "assigned to" "acquired for" LXX: "a home servant kept for a man". There has been an agreement whereby a girl is to go to a certain man as his concubine, but nothing further has been done. The agreement has not been implemented or cancelled.

● Redeemed" = PADAH - payment made ransom. He has not paid for her, nor has she been given her freedom.

● "She shall be scourged" - BIQQORETH = Examination. RSV + RV mg = "there shall be an inquisition"

Normally a fine of one fifth is added to a trespass Lev. 5:16, but in this case nothing has been paid for her. As such she is free of the marriage bond + under normal conditions the man would be compelled to marry her. Ex. 22:16. But this situation reveals the facts - he is not ... See Yahweh ...

1 A group representing the whole community as in 2 Kgs. 11:14.

2 They a Temple to worship Yahweh + Molech together. Ezek. 23:38-39.

2A If the opportune body fails in its duty Yahweh will act against the man.

B OF CONDOING SUCH WORSHIP Vv.4-5

3 Charges of blasphemy were heard before the authorities + the witnesses commenced the execution. Deut. 13:8-11. 17:2-5. If the authorities refused to adjudge the penalty of death Yahweh would execute judgment. V.5: OF INDULGING IN SPIRITUALISM V.6

C

4 Cp Isa. 8:20. A sociology of knowledge from a forbidden source. It was this that originally brought sin into the world. Gen. 3:6

D OF SANCTIFICATION 7-8

5 The Spirit-Truth is the means provided. John 17:17.

6 Yahweh M'qaddishim. See Note Exod. 31:13.

E OF DISHONOURING PARENTS V.9

7 They stand in relationship to the family where Yahweh + the Covenant did with the nation. Cp Gal. 4:24.

F OF COMMITTING ADULTERY ETC. Vv.11-21

8 V.9. QÂLAL - The term signifies not merely to curse, but to speak contemptuously, disrespectfully, or to make light of a person; so that all speeches that have a tendency to lessen our parents in the eyes of others, or to render their judgment lightly etc. suspect or contemptible is included. Term used in relation to "Father Abraham" Gen. 12:3 + God Lev. 24:15. On other hand Eph. 6:1-3. Cp. Prov. 20:20; 30:11, 17.

UNFORGIVABLE SINS.

Under the Law there were offences that could not be atoned and were not forgiven, but in Christ there was justification for things "that could not be justified under the Law." Acts 13:39. MK. 3:29.

NAKEDNESS. 'ERVAH. Ox. Ges = Nakedness, pudenda. Hence shameful exposure. "Uncovered" is GALAH - to denude - especially in a disgraceful sense - Str.

1 A group! represents the whole community as in 2 Kgs 11:14.

2 They attempted to worship Yahweh + Molech together. Ezek. 23:37, 38, 39.

2A If the appointed body fails in its duty, Yahweh will act against the man.

B OF CONDONING SUCH WORSHIP Vv 4-5

3 Charges of blasphemy were heard before the authorities + the witness commenced the execution. Deut. 13:8-11. 17:2-5. If the authorities refused to adjudge the penalty of death, [illegible] Yahweh would execute judgment. V.5.

C OF INDULGING IN SPIRITUALISM V 6.

4 Gp Isa. 8:10. A sacking of knowledge from a forbidden source. It was this that originally brought sin into the world. Gen. 2:16.

D OF SANCTIFICATION 7-8

7 They stand in relationship to the family where Yahweh + the Covenant did with the nation. Gp Gal. 4:26.

F OF COMMITTING ADULTERY ETC. Vv 11-21

8 V.9. QALAL - The term signifies not merely to curse, but to speak contemptuously, disrespectfully, or to make light of a person; so that all speeches that have a tendency to lessen our parents in the eyes of others, or to render their judgment, acts etc suspect or contemptible is included. Term used in relation to "Father Abraham" Gen. 12:3 + God Lev. 24:15. On other hand Aph. 6:1-3. Gp. Prov. 20:20; 30:11, 17.

3 And [b] I will set my face against that man, and [c] will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to [e] defile my sanctuary, and [f] to profane my holy name.

4 And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and kill him not:

5 Then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and [c] will cut him off, and all that [k] go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from among their people.

6 ¶ And [l] the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them, [m] I will even set my face against that soul, and [c] will cut him off from among his people.

7 ¶ [o] Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the LORD your God.

8 [q] And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them: [r] I am the LORD which sanctify you.

9 ¶ [s] For every one that [t] curseth his father or his mother shall be surely put to death: he hath cursed his father or his mother; [u] his blood shall be upon him.

10 ¶ And [v] the man that committeth adultery with another man's wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife, the adulterer and the adulteress shall surely be put to death.

11 [w] And the man that lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

12 [x] And if a man lie with his daughter in law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought [y] confusion; their blood shall be upon them.

13 [z] If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

14 [a] And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.

15 [b] And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast.

16 And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman, and the beast: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

17 [c] And if a man shall take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness; it is [d] a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; [e] he shall bear his iniquity.

18 [f] And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath [g] discovered her [h] fountain, and she hath uncovered the [i] fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

19 [k] And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mother's sister, nor of thy father's sister: for he [l] uncovereth [b] his near kin: they shall bear their iniquity.

20 [o] And if a man shall lie with his uncle's wife, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: they shall bear their sin: they shall die childless.

8A Herodotus claims that these perversions were common in Egypt, + even formed part of their superstitious worship. Doubtless known among the Canaanites - and are becoming more common in the modern world Rev. 21:8.

9 Publicly excommunicated Gp. 1 Cor. 5:4-5.

10 No permission + provision of restoration by means of sacrificial offerings. Restoration could only be effected by Divine forgiveness (Gp David's case Ps. 51) or by special decree of spirit endowed men (as in the case of Paul towards the incestuous brother 2 Cor. 2:5-8).

11 Excommunicated, for a period of 7 days. Lev. 13:4 See note. Lev. 18:14.

12 CHESED. - RV Shameful. Normally tend. loving Kindness. Young says "it is rendered (by way of antiphrasis) 'shame'.

12 No forgiveness until appropriate sacrifice offered.

13 Probably signifies that any children of the union should be reckoned to the uncle. Gp Jer. 22:30.

Lev. 17:5 Cont. from bottom p. 163.

The law for the slaughtering of animals bore witness to the sanctity of life, reminding the people of the solemnity of the grant (or sacrifice) of the lives of the inferior creatures as made to Noah Gen. 9:2-3.

It connected a habit of thanksgiving with the provision of such, and, in the offering of fat, a vow to use the strength derived therefrom back to Yahweh in acceptable service Gp 1 Tim. 4:3-5.

167 THE BLOOD. Lev. 19:26: "With" is AL, upon or at the top, thus "upon the blood." The LXX has "on the mountains" reading HRM (the consonants for "mountains" instead of H-D-M "the bloods". "R" + "D" in Hebrew are very similar. Gp Ezek. 18:6, 15. The prohibition, therefore, is to illegitimate sacred meals upon mountains. The introduction of blood in this context is a little incongruous seeing it is thoroughly explained in Ch. 17.

• Enchantment etc. The reference is to the practice of augury, the superstitious taking of omens.

SEGREGATION AS OPPOSED TO INTEGRATION OR MISCEGRATION

Miscegration means the mixture of races, especially those of different colour or type. The Bible even goes further than opposing this, it is against different branches of the same stock intermarrying such as Israelites marrying other descendants of Abraham. Ezra 9:10-15; Exod. 34:16. Deut. 7:3-6. Josh. 23:12-13. Miscegration brought a curse on Israel Num. 25:1-8. Jud. 3:6-7. It was Solomon's sin 1 Kg 11:1-4. It was the sin of Israel on returning from Babylon Ezra 4:1-2; 10:2, 3, 18. National distinctions will remain in the Kingdom Isa. 2:2-4; Dan. 2:13-14. Zech 14:16-21. Moth 19:28; Mic. 4:8. Though all are now "One" in Christ Gal. 3:26-28; Rev. 5:9-10 the segregation of such from the rest of mankind is carefully preserved Acts 15:14; 2 Cor. 6:14-18; Rev. 18:4.

21 @And if a man shall take his brother's wife, it is [2] an unclean[14A] thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness; they shall be childless.[14]

22 ¶ Ye shall therefore keep all my [b] statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: that the land, whither I bring you to dwell therein, @spue you not out. - Cp Ezek 36:13-14. [4] Rev. 3:16

23 And ye shall not walk in [14B] @the manners of the nation, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and [c] therefore I abhorred them.

24 But I @have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land [d] that floweth with milk and honey: I am the LORD your God, [e] which have separated you from other people. [15] 1 Kg 8:53.

25 Ye shall therefore [m] put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean: [o] and ye shall not make your souls abominable[15A] by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner [3] of living thing that [4] creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

26 And ye shall be holy unto me: [q] for I the LORD am holy, and [r] have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine. [16]

27 ¶ [s] A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: [z] they shall stone them with stones: [11] their blood shall be upon them.

1 And the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, @There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people:

2 But for his kin, that is near unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

3 And for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath had no husband; for her may he be defiled.[2A]

4 But [3] he shall not defile himself, being a chief man [3] among his people, to profane himself.

5 [f] They shall not make baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be holy unto their God, and @not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and [4] the bread of their God, they do offer: therefore they shall be holy.

7 [n] They shall not take a wife that is a whore, or profane; neither shall they take a woman [p] put away from her husband: for he is holy unto his God.

8 Thou shalt sanctify him therefore; for he offereth the bread of thy God: he shall be holy unto thee: for [r] I the LORD, which sanctify you, am holy.

9 ¶ And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: [u] she shall be burnt with fire.

10 [x] And he that is [a] the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and [z] that is consecrated to put on the garments, [b] shall not uncover his head, nor rend his clothes;

HUMAN CORPSES. - Unclean. Whoever touched one unclean for 7 days. Num. 19:11. & was obliged on 3rd & 7th days to purify himself according to instructions Num 19:12. In the case of the priests external signs of mourning were prohibited except for nearest relatives Lev. 21:2-3, - and for the high priest even this was restricted Vv 10-11 He was expected to look beyond death: the principle being 1 Thess. 4:13. See Deut. 33:8-10.

168 PROFANE CHÂLAL - To open, give access to; Gr. BEBELOO - To desecrate.

To profane is to make common, to defile, since holy things were not open to the public. e.g. A Sanctuary Lev 19:8; 21:9 the Sabbath Exod. 31:14 the Name of God Exod. 19:22. Mal. 1:12. A father's bed by incest Gen. 49:4 Esau, by despising his birthright was called a profane person Heb. 12:16. In Jer. 23:11 it is said "both prophet & priest are profane". CHÂNEPH - Soiled - the opposite of holiness.

BRANCHES. Kapholh, bendings, curvings, or hands. See Note p. 742. The word is used of the palm of the hand or the sole of the foot. On the tree branches spread out like the foot walking, or produce foliage & fruit like the hands working. Cp Isa. 9:14; 19:15.

EATING OF HOLY THINGS. Cp 1 Cor 9:13

- A priest was disqualified by uncleanness, typical of sin.
- He was disqualified by contact with death, that being related to sin.
- A stranger must become proselyted to entitle him to the privileges of the Law Cp V 10. so a person must first accept Christ.
- To eat of the holy things he must become a slave to the priest, or a member of his family Vv 11-13 - so also with the Gospel
- To permit of others to eat of holy things was a most serious crime V 9. Cp Heb 13:10.

G TENANTCY OF LAND CONDITIONAL UPON KEEPING STATUTES, & JUDGMENTS IN SEPARATENESS Vv 22-26

22 ¶ Ye shall therefore keep all my [b]statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: that the land, whither I bring you to dwell therein, @spue you not out. - Cp. Ezek 36:13-14. Rev. 3:16

14B CHUQQATH - Statutes, appointments. From a root sig. something engraven. The manner of life established by habit, tradition or law

23 And ye shall not walk in @the manners of the nation, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and [c]therefore I abhorred them.

15 A status of privilege Exod. 19:5, Grace Exod. 33:16 & responsibility 1 Kg. 8:53, Cp. 2 Cor. 6:14-18. Heb. BÂDAL - divided, distinguished. Segregation as opposed to integration. This incorporated into nature itself all of which is "after the kind" Gen. 1:11-12, 21, 24-25. Nations divided Gen. 10:32 Abraham separated his family Gen. 25:6. Esau & Jacob Gen. 25:23

H SPIRITUALIST MEDIUMS TO BE PUT TO DEATH V. 27.

This false source of knowledge more likely to draw away from separateness than any other influence. Cp Isa 8:19-20.

24 But I@have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it, a land [h]that floweth with milk and honey: I am the LORD your God, [i]which have separated you from other people. 1 Kg 8:53.

15

25 Ye shall therefore [m]put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean: [n]and ye shall not make your souls abominable[3] by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing that [o]creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

26 And ye shall be holy unto me: [p]for I the LORD am holy, and [q]have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine. 16.

27 ¶ [r]A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: [s]they shall stone them with stones: [t]their blood shall be upon them.

2 REGULATIONS FOR THE PRIESTS. CH 21,22.

1 PROHIBITED PRACTISES CH 21:1-24.

A REGARDING MOURNING VV 1-5.

Cp Deut. 23:9 NTE Luke 14:26.

1 Of the priests' mourning. 6 Of their holiness. 8 Of their estimation. 7, 13 Of their marriages. 17 Of priests that have blemishes.

AND the LORD said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, @There shall HUMAN CORPSES. - Unclean. Whoever touched one unclean for 7 days. Num. 19:11. I was obliged on 3rd & 7th days to purify himself according to instructions Num 19:12. In the case of the priests external signs of mourning were prohibited except for nearest relatives Lev. 21:2-3. - and for the high priest even this was restricted Vv 10-11 He was expected to look beyond death: the principle being 1 Thess. 4:13. See Deut. 33:8-10.

168 PROFANE CHÂLÂL - To open, give access to; Gr. BEBELOO - To desecrate.

To profane is to make common, to defile, since holy things were not open to the public. e.g. A Sanctuary Lev 19:8; 21:9 the Sabbath Exod. 31:14 the Name of God Exod. 19:22. Mal. 1:12. A father's bed by incest Gen. 49:4 Esau, by despising his birthright was called a profane person Heb. 12:16. In Jer. 23:11 it is said "both prophet & priest are profane". CHÂNEPH - Soiled. - the opposite of holiness.

F OF PRIESTS THAT HAVE BLEMISHES W. 19–24.

13 There must be a perfect balance in character on the part of all that so approach to provide the best service for worshippers. Heb 5:1-4.
14 The blind cannot lead the blind.
15 Cp Heb. 12:16.
16 The full beauty of the Word must be revealed by the priest.
17 He must not add to the Word by his own imaginings. Deut. 4:2.
18 Cannot walk straight or work efficiently himself.
19 Cannot stand upright.
20 Cannot command.
21 Mal 1:12-23.
22 Cannot reproduce seed. Cp Isa 53:10 Cf. Gal 4:12.
23 Perfection of body is typical of perfection of mind and action.
24 In the above list of blemishes, we meet some that might cause the priest's office to be ridiculed & others that would be impediments in the discharge of priestly duties. They all typify mental & moral imperfections.
25 They were possibly employed in less er duties perhaps in examining lepers, or in duties outside the sanctuary.

12 [a] Neither shall he go out of 9A the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for [b] the crown 9 of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the LORD.

13 And [c] he shall take a wife in her virginity. 10

14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, or an harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife. 11

15 Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for I the LORD do sanctify him.

16 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of thy seed in their generations that hath any blemish, let him not [h] approach to offer the [2] bread of his God. Heb 7:26; 1 Thess 2:10; 1 Tim 3:2. 4 Num 16:5; Ps 65:4; Ezek 44:15.

1 The priests in their uncleanness must abstain from the holy things. 10 Who of the priest's house may eat of them. 17 The sacrifices must be without blemish. 26 The age of the sacrifice.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they [d] separate themselves / from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they [e] profane not my holy name in those things which they [f] hallow unto me: I am the LORD.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations, that 2A goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the LORD, [i] having his uncleanness upon him, [k] that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

4 What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath a [3] running issue; 3A he shall not eat of the holy things, [l] until he be clean. And [9] whoso toucheth any thing that is unclean by the dead, or [o] a man whose seed goeth from him; 3C

5 Or [p] whosoever toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or [q] a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath;

6 The soul which hath touched any such shall be unclean until even, 3D and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he [r] wash his flesh with water. 3E

7 And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things; because [s] it is his food. 3F

8 [t] That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: I am the LORD.

9 They shall therefore keep mine ordinance, [u] lest they bear

2A QARAB - Draweth near. i.e. to eat. See use word Gen 43:24. Cp Exp. p. 155.
3A ZUWB - To flow (freely) spec. to have a (sexual) flux. RV = Issue.
3B NEPHESH. Hence: "any uncleanness of a person" K "Not necessarily of a dead person" - Young.
3C "An emission of semen" K
3D i.e. until the beginning of a new day. Gen 1:5.
3E BOW' - Go, or come as Gen 7:9. The Hebrews always regarded the sun as entering into his chamber Ps. 19:5.
3F An evidence of Divine mercy.
4 NEBELAH = a carcase from a root "to wilt, fall away, etc." "Death of itself" = "unnaturally". The reason being it would contain blood. Cp Lev 7.
5 There was no mercy for the wilful, presumptuous transgression of the Law. There is a law of extremity also under the Gospel Mt 12:31-32 Heb 6:4-6, 10:26-29 1 Thes 5:16.

EATING OF HOLY THINGS. Cp 1 Cor 9:13

- A priest was disqualified by uncleanness, typical of sin.
- He was disqualified by contact with death, that being related to sin.
- A stranger must become proselyted to entitle him to the privileges of the Law Cp V. 10. so a person must first accept Christ.
- To eat of the holy things he must become a slave to the priest or a member of his family VV 11-13 - so also with the Gospel
- To permit of others to eat of holy things was a most serious crime V. 9. Cp Heb 13:10.

LEV. 23:40. THE FRUIT OF TREES OF GLORY. 169

"Goodly" = HADAR = Magnificence or glory from a root to swell up, to favour, or to honor. Such a tree = Ps 21:5 Ref - "honour" Ps. 8:5. "majesty" Ps 21:5; 45:3-4; 96:6; 104:1 "honour" "beauties" Ps. 110:3, "Glorious" Ps 111:3 "honour" Ps. 149:9.

BRANCHES. Kapholh, bendings, curvings, or hands. See Note p. 742. The word is used of the palm of the hand or the sole of the foot. On the tree branches spread out like the foot walking, or produce foliage & fruit like the hand working. Cp Isa. 9:14; 19:15.

ANIMALS FOR SACRIFICE V.19

These limited to oxen, sheep, goats. The roebuck and hart are clean beasts, but are too wild, intractable and free to be used as fit symbols for sacrifice. They represent Christ and the saints in other ways.

HALLOWED BE THY NAME V32.

QÂDÂSH — To be, make, pronounce or observe as clean (Str). Thus to purify, sanctify, consecrate.
Reflx. Mitqodashim. Exod 31:13.

LEV. 23:10. SHEAF = Omer, Ger. derives from abic = a bundle. It is elsewhere used as a measure Exod 16:16, 18, 22 etc. though also as a sheaf Deut. 24:19; Ruth 2:7, 15 (Gen 37:7 diff word). From root AMAR, to heap up, bundles. From idea of binding, (not of "to set or to make servant, or to serve. Cp Deut. 21:14; 7 sin for it, and die therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD do sanctify them. Cp Exod 31:14.

C WHO MAY OR MAY NOT EAT OF HOLY THINGS Vv. 10-13.

6 Only members of the priest's family may eat. A slave was considered such, but not a hired servant who retained his independence.

7 A slave who thereafter becomes part of the priest's household. Maimonides — "But any slave whom a priest has bought with his own money may partake of it, and children born in his house may share his food."

8 A Hebraism for marriage. When that takes place it is no longer the responsibility of the father to provide for his daughter. Marriage with the alien is wrong. Gen 6:1-2.

4 Divine mercy always outstretched to those who return. Luke 15:11.

9A TOWSHAB - A tenant or a settler, not merely a sojourner. 1 Kgs 17:1

D PENALTY OF EATING UNWITTINGLY Vv. 14-16.

9 He thus acknowledged his wrong and paid the penalty stipulated in Lev 5:15-16.

10 There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner[9A] of the priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing. 6 Hired for limited time

11 But if the priest buy any soul [2] with his money, he shall eat of it, and he that is born in his house: they shall eat of his meat.

12 If the priest's daughter also be married unto [4] a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things. TERUMMAH - Heave offering Ex 25:2-3.

13 But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is [5] returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat: but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

14 ¶ And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest with the holy thing.

15 And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD;

16 Or suffer them to bear the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the LORD do sanctify them.

17 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, Whatsoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his freewill offerings, which they will offer unto the LORD for a burnt offering;

19 Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish, of the beeves, of the sheep, or of the goats.

20 But whatsoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.

21 And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace offerings unto the LORD to accomplish his vow, or a freewill offering in beeves or [2] sheep, it shall be perfect to be accepted; there shall be no blemish therein.

22 Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the LORD.

23 Either a bullock or a [5] lamb that hath any thing [h] superfluous or lacking in his parts, that mayest thou offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

24 Ye shall not offer unto the LORD that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall ye make any offering thereof in your land.

25 Neither from a stranger's hand shall ye offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their corruption is in them, and blemishes be in them: they shall not be accepted for you.

26 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

27 When a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat, is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

28 And whether it be cow or [7] ewe, ye shall not kill it [8] and her young both in one day.

29 And when ye will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the LORD, offer it at your own will.

30 On the same day it shall be eaten up; ye shall leave

3 PROHIBITED OFFERINGS. VV. 17-33

A SACRIFICES TO BE WITHOUT BLEMISH Vv. 17-25.

THE CONCESSION OF V.23.

Sacrifices had to be without blemish. This held good for the Peace Offering as for the other animal offerings (Lev 3) with this difference that here the insistence on the absence of blemish bore a specific relation to the qualities of the offering viewed as something to be eaten, viewed as food. Provided the value of the animal as food was unimpaired, some slight disproportion which in the sin offering or burnt offering would have been incongruous and unbecoming, was in the case of the voluntary peace offering tolerated without any compromise of principle. (Cp Vv. 21-23).

The sacrificial law thus bid none to withhold his service through consciousness of personal inadequacy to render it. And not in this respect only: Burnt offering ranged from bullock to pigeon, Sin offering from bullock to meal, Meal offering from fine flour to "corn beaten out of full ears." None therefore was restrained from offering through lack of means. In one offering only - Trespass offering - this concession was not provided - F.B. cond.

IMPORTANCE OF VOWS. V.23.

Any vow made unto Yahweh was considered to be in the last degree obligatory — no variation or departure from the strict terms of it was permitted. Deut 23:21-22. Eccles 5:4-5. Ps. 76:11.

THE BURNT OFFERING. which consisted of either a bullock, sheep, or goat (or fowls) being males, perfect Cp 1:3, 10. but sin-offerings & peace-offerings might consist of females Cp 3:1; 4:32.

B THE AGE OF THE OFFERING Vv. 26-30

24 Extreme immaturity is not pleasing as an offering to Yahweh Gen 17:1 Mt 5:48. 8th day - Day Crown a sign beyond nature.

25 Consideration for others thus inculcated. To sacrifice (as for food) mother & child in one day would bring the life of that family to an end & was designed to save it. Life is spared because life is sacrificed Mk 12:31.

26 See Note Lev 1:5.

LEV. 23:2. "MY FEASTS" = My appointed seasons & therefore not of human origin.

8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.
9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,
10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, [s] When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a [2] [3] sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest:
11 And he shall [t] wave the sheaf before the LORD, [u] to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.
12 And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf an he lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt offering unto the LORD.
13 [k] And the meat offering thereof shall be two tenth deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour: and the drink offering thereof shall be of [l] wine, the fourth part of an hin.
14 And ye shall eat neither bread, nor [p] parched corn, nor [p] green ears, until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
15 ¶ And [2] ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:
16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number [x] fifty days; and ye shall offer [u] a new meat offering unto the LORD.
17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baken with leaven; they are [z] the firstfruits unto the LORD.

- PASSOVER is a Spring Festival and takes place at a time when the agricultural processes inaugurated at Tabernacles are approaching their climax. The first crop, that of barley, has appeared, and is standing in the green in most of the country.
- Tabernacles is an Autumn Festival. The fruit has been gathered in V 39 and preparations for a new harvest are being made. Cp Rev. 14:14-20.
- Both are celebrated of the 15th day of the respective month. "In early Israel lunations were determined by observation, and, since the phasis follow one or two days after the conjunction, the night of the 14-15 day after the phasis must be the night of the full moon, or the night after the full moon; certainly it can not occur before the full moon" (J.B. Segal: The Hebrew Passover, p. 116.).
- Thus observation would commence at the new moon — and the feasts celebrated when at its full. Isa. 30:26
- Both festivals were primarily New Year celebrations: the first religious; the second civil or political.

MANNER OF CELEBRATION. Vv 39-44.

Among the Jews this was preeminently the feast - called simply Chag (Cp Haggai - and the blessing). See Bokem p. 172.

43 Whereas Passover looked to 7th day V.8 this looked to 8th - beyond millennium. Ezek. 43:27. It is the final outcome of waving of first sheaf on 1st day week

44 Tradition identifies this with the Citron Cp Prov. 25:11. See Note bottom p. 165. Ps 92:12 Note 169.

45 Or "thick-leaved tree" = the Myrtle. See Note Zech. 1. Neh. 8:15.

47 Some suggest the poplar, but the willow seems indicated in Job 40:22. It favors moist places, grows rapidly, is easily propagated by cuttings. Its leaves are pretty, its bark is used medicinally (Salicene, a substitute for quinine is extracted from it) its roots bind banks of rivers keeping them from being washed away — thus beautiful, healthful and useful. Compared by Isaiah to godly people who make quick progress. Isa. 44:4. Cp Ps 1.

48 Sâmach - To brighten up, to make blithe or gleesome. Str.

49 Sukkah - A hastily constructed and unsubstantial edifice causing them to recall their wanderings. Cp Deut. 5:15 and called to Israel in their prosperity to remember evil days thanking Yahweh repeatedly and leading a humble and modest life.

Feast of tabernacles.

LEVITICUS 24. The law of blasphemy.

and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD. For special offerings Cp Num. 29:12-40.

39 Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have [c] gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath. SABBATHOWN Cp V 24 Lev 23:24 172.

40 And [f] ye shall take you on the first day the [g] boughs of goodly trees, branches [f] of palm trees, and the boughs [f] of thick trees, and willows of the brook; [h] and ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days. Top p. 172

41 [i] And ye shall keep it a feast unto the LORD seven days in the year. It shall be a statute for ever in your generations: ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 [m] Ye shall dwell in booths seven days; all that are Israelites born shall dwell in booths: Exod 23:20

43 "That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

44 And Moses [o] declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the LORD. Light = lamp = singular here Cp Ps 132:2. Isa. 5:7; 44:4

CHAPTER 24.

1 The oil for the lamps. 5 The shewbread. 17 Of murder. 23 The blasphemer is stoned.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [p] Command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure oil olive beaten for the light, [r] to cause the lamps to burn continually. 'ARAK - See Note below

3 Without the vail of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron order it from the evening unto the morning before the LORD continually: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations.

4 He shall order the lamps upon [s] the pure candlestick before the LORD continually.

5 ¶ And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake [t] twelve [u] cakes thereof: two tenth deals shall be in one cake. (App. 61)

6 And thou shalt set them in two [d] rows, six on a row, [e] upon the pure table before the LORD.

7 And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memorial, even an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

8 [v] Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the LORD continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

9 And [k] it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; [l] and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him of the offerings of the LORD made by fire by a perpetual statute.

10 ¶ And the son of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and this son of the Israelitish woman and a man of Israel strove together in the camp;

11 And the Israelitish woman's son blasphemed the [w] name of the LORD, and [q] cursed. And they [r] brought him unto Moses: (and his mother's name was Shelomith, [13] the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan:)

12 And they [x] put him in ward, [z] that the mind of the LORD might be shewed them. See Note p. 155

13 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, See Note p. 155

14 Bring forth him that hath cursed without the camp; and let all that heard him [x] lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him. "the reviler" K

15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God [y] shall bear his sin.

16 And he that blasphemeth the name of the LORD, he shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, as he that is born in the land, when he blasphemeth the name of the LORD, shall be put to death.

17 And he that killeth any man shall surely be put to death.

18 And he that killeth a beast shall make it good; beast for beast.

19 And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour; as he hath done, so shall it be done to him;

20 Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again.

21 And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it: and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death.

22 Ye shall have one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for I am the LORD your God.

23 And Moses spake to the children of Israel, that they should bring forth him that had cursed out of the camp, and stone him with stones. And the children of Israel did as the LORD commanded Moses.

2 REQUIREMENTS FOR THE TABERNACLE Vv. 1-9

A OIL FOR THE LAMP Vv 1-4

This provided the purest oil. The berries were picked, foreign matter (twigs etc) excluded, then beaten - so the skins etc became mixed. So with the Word. Ps 45:2. Rev 1:12-20.

YE SHALL REJOICE V.40. 173

The antitype of this has not yet appeared. Peter anticipated it on the Mount of Transfiguration, saying: "Lord it is good for us to be here. If thou wilt let us make three tabernacles, one for thee, one for Moses, and one for Elijah" Mat. 17:4. What Peter desired was not possible then but will be revealed in the Age to Come.

In excess of joy the people shook the willow and palm branches and engaged in a form of dancing in the Temple. See Rev. 7:9. Zech. 4:9.

THE OIL AND THE FLOUR

The commandment regarding these is introduced at this place because the provision of such represented the response of Israel to the teaching of the Feasts. In the oil of the lamps the people acknowledged their obligation to shine forth as witnesses of Yahweh: in the provision of flour for the shewbread, their obligation to dedicate the fruits of labor to His service.

Aaron shall order it V 3. 'ARAK signifies to arrange in order, to set in a row as in V. 2 & Sue Lev 1:7, Exod 40:4. The context suggests that it was the oil so "ordered" - the bowls being replenished each evening so there be no danger of the light going out when all slept. In the morning the lamps were "ordered" Cp V. 4. or "dressed" Exod 30:7 so that light was always burning as Josephus testifies.

See also Num. 8:3 See Note Exod 39:37.

The shewbread rep. Yahweh's provision as the hope of Israel's communion in the plated bread of life through Jesus through whom acceptable service stands Eph. 2:18

VERSE 2. By trimming the wicks to cause to burn brighter (Cp with pruning the Vine Joh 15:2). The Lord used infinite patience in that task. Isa 42:3 Mat 12:20.

B SHEWBREAD FOR THE TABLE Vv 5-9

4 Pointing to Christ the bread of heaven John 6:31. The grain gives up its life, is bruised to flour, and submitted to heat to produce the bread. So did Christ.

5 From a root ASHAH - To accumulate, to grow rich. Str. Thus pointing to riches in Christ available for Jew and Gentile. Eph. 1:18; 3:8-13. Col. 2:2-3.

6 One in Christ. 1 Cor. 10:17.

7 Josephus states that two cups or vials of it were placed between the rows. (Ant. 3:7:6)

8 See note. p. 160

9 There is value in regularity of service. 1 Chron. 24:19.

10 The hope of Israel partaken of only by class termed "priests of God" - eaten in "holy place" during present dispensation Heb. 13:10. As they represented Yahweh to the nation their eating was typical of His acceptance of the nation in fellowship.

11 As a form of meal offering, they symbolized the dedication of the nation's fruits of labor unto Yahweh - replaced each Sabbath - the day which was the sign of the Covenant between Yahweh and Israel Exod 31:16-17

C THE PENALTY OF BLASPHEMY Vv 10-23.

A THE BLASPHEMER TO BE PUT TO DEATH Vv 10-16

12 He was of the mixed multitude Exod 12:38

13 This was the first act of deliverance. Such were not permitted in the congregation until 3rd generation. Deut 23:3

8. He should have remained in the separate allotment of the camp appointed for such.

14 According to Jewish tradition he claimed the right to a position in the allotment of Dan, thus occasioning the strife.

15 NACHAV - Blasphemed. Incorrectly rendered "pronounced" in KJV. "upon the basis of this faulty translation, that the name has been forbidden by Jews (Talmud Com).

17 According to the instructions of Exod 21:12. Cp Num 35:16.

18 Peace offering fem. Solomon.

21 Words - Too much talk - not enough action!

20 'EDAH - fem. ED - witness

21 The man referred to above both cursed and blasphemed.

THE JUBILEE: A FORESHADOWING OF THE MILLENIUM: The Sabbatical years proclaimed a rest in Israel, when the people enjoyed the fruits of the land as Yahweh's bounty as in Eden before sin. It was a "year of rest in the land" V.5. and foreshadowed the rest in Christ Mt. 11:28, Heb. 4:11. This came to it climactic symbolism in the year of Jubilee, which was the Year of Release. The Trumpet sounded "throughout all the land" on the Day of Atonement V.9. Like every 8th day and every 8th year it heralded a new beginning. The trumpet at the Sanctuary was doubtless sounded when the high priest (see below).

CHAPTER 25.

[1] Sabbath of the seventh year. 8 The jubile. 14 Of oppression. 23 Redemption of land, 29 of houses. 35 Compassion of the poor. 47 Redemption of servants.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land [1] keep [2] a sabbath unto the LORD.

3 Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof;

4 But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the LORD: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.

5 [b] That which groweth of its own accord of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes [3] of thy vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land.

6 And the sabbath of the land shall be meat for you; for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee,

7 And for thy cattle, and for the beast that are in thy land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.

8 ¶ And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years unto thee, seven times seven years; and the space of the seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years.

9 Then shalt thou cause the trumpet [5] of the jubile to sound on the tenth day of the seventh month, [i] in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land.

10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you; [m] and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

11 A jubile shall that fiftieth year be unto you: [n] ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it [n] of thy vine undressed.

12 For it is the jubile; it shall be holy unto you: [p] ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.

JUBILEE (Cont.) emerged from the holy place after the presentation of the atoning blood of the bullock and goat of Sin Offering, and drove off the scapegoat as it bore Israel's iniquities away from the face of Yahweh Lev. 16:21-22. The echoes of its notes as they reverberated throughout the land thus spoke of sins forgiven, iniquities pardoned, transgressions covered, and this was manifested in a very real manner by physical freedom to slaves, for cancelling of debts committed and acquisition of inheritance granted by Yahweh.
It thus foreshadowed the trumpet sound of the future. 1 Cor. 15:52. 1 Thess. 4:16.
It commenced with the public proclamation of the will of Yahweh Deut. 31:12-13.

The feeding together of the cattle and wild animals V.7 points forward to the universality of the blessings of the future Gen. 9:9-10. 12:3.
It anticipated the time of true rest and safety. Vv. 18-19. A grand reunion VV 10, 41.
The Preaching of the Gospel Isa. 61:1-2. Luke 4:18
Proclaimed. The pardon of sin or releasing of debt. The unity and equality of all in fellowship. The promise of everlasting rest.
There is need for the Gospel Trumpet to sound loudly
In regard to the preaching of the Gospel the present is always a Jubilee an "acceptable year" Luke 4:19, a time of rejoicing Rom. 5:11 Phil. 4:4.

BENEFITS OF SABBATIC YEAR ● It changed agricultural into pastoral life — greater attention was given to the rearing and tending of flocks and herds. This induced meditation, for a pastoral life induces reflection - thus the nation became a nation of shepherds. ● It reproduced in Israel a condition of things similar to those in Eden before sin entered. It thus stimulated faith and witnessed to the providence of Yahweh Cp Vv 18-20. ● It promoted the principle of brotherhood for Israel had "all things in common" Vv. 6-7 Acts 4:32. ● It called for special instruction in the ways of Yahweh Deut 31:10-13. ● It emphasised that the land belonged to Yahweh and all good gifts come from Him. V. 23.

ye shall return every man unto his possession.

14 And if thou sell ought unto thy neighbour, or buyest ought of thy neighbour's hand, ye shall not [c] oppress one another:

15 [d] According to the number of years after the jubile thou shalt buy of thy neighbour, and according unto the number of years of the fruits he shall sell unto thee:

16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruits doth he sell unto thee.

17 Ye shall not therefore [f] oppress one another; [g] but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the LORD your God.

18 ¶ [h] Wherefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; [k] and ye shall dwell in the land in safety.

19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and [l] ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, [m] What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, [n] we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:

21 Then I will [o] command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 [p] And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of [r] old fruit until the ninth year; until her fruits come in ye shall eat of the old store.

23 ¶ The land shall not be sold [s] for ever: for [t] the land is mine; for ye are [u] strangers and sojourners [with] me.

24 And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

25 ¶ If thy brother be waxen poor, and hath sold away some of his possession, and if [a] any of his kin come to [7] redeem it, [b] then shall he redeem that which his brother sold.

26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and [2] himself be able to redeem it;

27 Then [e] let him count the years of the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; that he may return unto his possession.

28 But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it until the year of jubile: and in the jubile it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.

29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold; within [i] a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if it be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it throughout his generations: it shall not go out in the jubile.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them shall be counted as the fields of the country: [3] they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubile.

32 Notwithstanding [p] the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Levites redeem at any time.

33 And if [l] a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, [4] shall go out in the year of jubile: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

F REDEMPTION OF HOUSES Vv 29-34

Being built by human industry they are not treated as Yahweh's land is, however the country are treated merely as appurtenance of the land.

11 This provided opportunity for foreigners (Proselytes) to obtain inalienable rights to property & thus made a necessary provision for conversion.

Ever = TSEMITHUTH - Root cut, cut off. Not to be sold so as to "cut it off" permanently.
11A These stipulations being known to both buyers & sellers there could be no complaint on the part of either as to the price paid.

12 The Levites had no inheritance among the tribes of Israel Deut 18:1, only their cities to dwell in, and because the houses of their cities were all they could call their own they were not entirely alienated. Cp Deut. 18:8

13 OWLAM - Age during

14 MIGRASH - Country cut off for pasture. Rend pasture. A Thousand 2000 cubits on each side of the city Num. 35:5

Rev 5:9-10. Ezek 46:16-17.

THE LAND IS MINE

The earth is given to man for an inheritance Gen 1:26-28; Ps. 8:5-9; 115:16 but its tenure was on condition of faith and obedience as was Israel's Deut 30:15-20; Acts 3:11-14

As Adam & Eve expelled from Eden so Israel was from the land.

The Land was the antitype of Eden, for it was described as a good land "Deut 8:7-10 "the glory of all lands" Ezek 20:6, 15

In the institution of the Law of Redemption we are promised the eternal inheritance of the Land Gen 13:14-16. Heb. 11:8-16; Matt. 5:5.

As the possessions of the Levites were inalienable Lev 25:34. so also are those of the priests of the future 1 Pet 2:5;

The legislation concerning the Land witnessed that all good gifts come from Yahweh and the wealthy should not presume upon their riches. Matt 3:12. 1 Cor 4:7. James 1:17; 1 Tim 6:17-19; Ecc. 2:24-26.

The Land not to be sold permanently so as to "cut it off" from the original owner, though a house in a walled city might thus be sold. Vv 23, 30. By this means the possessions of one tribe were prevented from being taken over from them either by sale or by marriage, as in the daughters of Zelophehad Num 36:7.

V 24. "for all the land you have, for that land you must allow redemption". Berkeley. REDEMPTION - GEULLAH from from GA'AL

THERE WAS A SLAVERY WHICH TERMINATED AND ONE WHICH DID NOT

- The Israelite received his liberation the foreigner did not Cp V. 46.
- Lesson. 1 Cor. 7:22.

V.36. NESHEK is interest paid regularly; TARBUWTH is an increase paid as a lump sum at the end.

V.37 MARBIYTH (increase) - Int. on Capital. From common root with TARBUWTH

G RELIEF OF POVERTY VV. 35-38

12 Amp. "And if your (Israelite) brother has become poor, and his hand wavers (from poverty, sickness, or age, and he is unable to support himself) then you shall uphold (strengthen, relieve) him (treating him with courtesy and consideration that you would) a stranger or a temporary resident with you (without property) so that he may live (along) with you 1 Tim 5:17.

This rendition (to be preferred - Pul. Com) limits the duty of relief to Israelites who should be treated with the forebearance shown to foreigners to whose state he had reduced himself by the loss of his land.

13 He cared for them when they were without means of help, and now "commendeth His love towards them" Rom. 5:8

35 ¶ And if thy brother be waxen poor, and [2] fallen in decay with thee; then thou shalt [3b] relieve him: yea, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner; that he may live with thee. A foreigner who dwelleth among you

36 [d] Take thou no usury of him, or increase: [3] but [e] fear thy God; that thy brother may live with thee. Lest you be brought into similar condition

37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase. NATHAN - Give NESHEK See above MARBIYTH - Also TARBUWTH "

38 [g] I am the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

39 ¶ And [4] if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not [6] compel him to serve as a bondservant: 14 15

40 But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubile:

41 And then shall he depart from thee, [m] both he and his children with him, and shall return unto [o] his own family, and [o] unto the possession of his fathers shall he return.

42 For they are [p] my servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold [7] as bondmen. V.39

43 [r] Thou shalt not rule over him [s] with rigour; but [t] shall fear thy God. 17

44 Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you; of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids.

45 Moreover of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of them shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land: and they shall be your possession. 14

46 And [a] ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them for a possession; [6] they shall be your bondmen for ever: but over your brethren the children of Israel, [c] ye shall not rule one over another with rigour. V. 43.

47 ¶ And if a sojourner or stranger [5] wax rich by thee, and [f] thy brother that dwelleth by him wax poor, and sell himself unto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the stranger's family:

48 After that he is sold he may be redeemed again; one of his brethren may [h] redeem him: 18 GELUAH from GA'AL

49 Either his uncle, or his uncle's son, may redeem him, or any [k] that is nigh of kin unto him of his family may redeem him; or if [l] he be able, he may redeem himself.

50 And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubile: and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, "according to the time of an hired servant shall it be with him.

51 If there be yet many years behind, [q] according unto them he shall give again the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for.

52 And if there remain but few years unto the year of jubile, then he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

53 And as a yearly hired servant shall he be with him: and the other shall not rule [u] with rigour over him in thy sight. 19

54 And if he be not redeemed [8] in these years, then he shall go out in the year of jubile,

SLAVERY UNDER THE LAW

- It was limited to a period of six years; on the seventh they could go free. Deut. 15:12.
- When freed, treated with greatest liberty and provided with material means to start afresh Deut 15:14.
- Rigorous exaction and harshness were sternly forbidden Lev. 25:43.
- If serious bodily injury was inflicted the slave received his freedom Exod. 21:26.
- Undue punishment was avenged by the judges Exod. 21:20-21
- The slave was permitted to acquire property of his own, or amass enough to buy his own freedom Cp V. 44
- The Hebrew slave was to be treated as a "hired servant" Cp V. 40, 44. When sold to a foreigner to be redeemed W 47-49. If not, he shall be treated with care. V 53. If he escape from foreign slavery, he was to retain his freedom. Deut 23:15-16.

YAHWEH'S. Lev. 27:11. A person in his zeal may desire to devote himself, or some of his family to the service of Yahweh. This, however, could unduly increase the number of those employed in divine service. Whilst they were allowed to devote themselves, they were required also to redeem themselves by paying an equivalent for the services in money. The generous spirit of self-devotion was thus encouraged, checked at the same time.

THE LEVITICAL COVENANT AS PROPHECY. 177

Yahweh's promise to the repentant implies that they are not pardoned merely on the ground of their repentance, though it is set forth as the condition of their acceptance. The basis of the promise is the Covenant made to Abraham. The Mosaic Covenant still indicts Israelites Gal. 3:10, but the Abrahamic Covenant will rescue them Gal. 3:3 Cf. Jer. 31:31.

● The bands of Gentile oppression broken. That was the basis of the establishment of the Levitical Covenant Lev. 26:13, and a similar freedom from servitude will provide the foundation of the Abrahamic Covenant Jer. 30:5-7; Ezek. 34:27. Armageddon will accomplish this Joel 2:20; 3:1. Ezek. 39:21-29. Isa. 35:7; 49:9; Zech. 10:11; Isa. 41:17.

● Rain in Season. Cp Isa. 30:23. Hos. 6:3. Joel 2:23. Cf. Jer. 3:3. Amos 4:7. Drought. Hag. 1:11. Isa. 50:2. Hos. 2:3.

● Plentiful harvests. Lev. 26:4-5. Famine Ps. 105:16. 2 Kg. 8:1. Isa. 51:19. Ezek. 14:13, 21. Deut. 28:22-29. Plenty Ezek. 36:29-30; Joel 2:19; Ezek. 34:27; Isa. 30:23. Jer. 31:5. Isa. 4:2. Isa. 65:21-25.

● Dwell in Safety. Lev. 26:5, 18, 19. Cp Jer. 21:6; 32:37; 33:16; Isa. 14:30; Ezek. 28:25-26; 34:25, 28; Hos. 2:18. Zech. 14:11. Warning against mistaken conception of safety - by Gog Ezek. 38:8, 11, 14. by Israel Ezek. 39:26.

ENJOYING THE SABBATHS. V34

From the reign of Saul to the death of Josiah (i.e the initial attack of Nebuchadnezzar against Judah) was approximately 490 years during which period there were 70 sabbaths of years neglected by the Hebrews. This was compensated for by the Babylonian captivity of 70 years and during that time the land of Israel rested, as stated. 2 Chron. 36:21 See Note top p. 462. Daniel's prophecy of the 70 weeks (Dan. 9) reveal that time is limited for the fulfilment of Yahweh's purpose Ps. 102:13. See Note p1097. Meanwhile the land has rested & the full prosperity is yet to come Amos 9:13-15.

30 And [v]I will destroy your high places, and cut down your [w]images, and [@]cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols, and my soul shall [b]abhor you.

31 [c]And I / will make your cities waste, and [d]bring your sanctuaries unto desolation, and I will not smell the savour of your sweet odours.

32 [y]And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be [a]astonished at it.

33 And [c]I will scatter you among the heathen, and will draw out a sword after you: and your land shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

34 [c]Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies' land; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

35 As long as it lieth desolate it shall rest; because it did not rest in your [n]sabbaths, when ye dwelt upon it.

36 And upon them that are left alive of you [k]I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; and [m]the sound of a [z]shaken leaf shall chase them; and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall when none pursueth.

37 And [o]they shall fall one upon another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth: and [q]ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.

38 And ye shall perish among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

39 And they that are left of you [t]shall pine away in their iniquity [A]in your [4]enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

40 If they shall [*]confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with [=]their trespass [4A]which [4B]they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me;

41 And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their [4]enemies; if then their [+]uncircumcised hearts be [/]humbled, and they then accept of [h]the punishment of their iniquity:

VOWS Leviticus 27 is an appendix to the book which is completed with the Covenant of Ch.26 and the summary of v46. But a man might desire to do something beyond the provision of the Law and the instruction regarding vows, provided such men (Ish - v.2) with the opportunity so to do. "There are moments in every spiritual man's life when gratitude yearns for special vents of utterance — times when he feels strongly what David said on a certain occasion: 'I will not offer unto the Lord my God that which hath cost me nothing' (2 Sam.24:24) Words in a sense past him nothing: he longs to do something more than offer praise It is not that he supposes God can be enriched by anything he can give Ps.50:10, or that he can put God under obligation, or that he can establish a claim to His favor by anything he can do: for such a man carnally Believ.

3 VOWS, CONSECRATIONS, TITHING. vv1-34

CHAPTER 27.

1 Of vows. 26 Of the Lord's firstlings. 28 Of devoted things. 32 Of tithes.

A REDEMPTION OF A PERSONAL VOW vv.1-8

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man [n] shall make a singular vow, the persons shall be for the LORD by [o] thy estimation. ↳ See top. 176

1 Ish. ↳ To separate or consecrate.

2 Heb. "pala" rendered "wonder" "marvellous" - a particular or exceptional vow - one in addition to all offerings normally required. See use! Num. 6:2. See above ref.

3 And thy estimation shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old, even thy estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, [q] after the shekel of the sanctuary.

3 The priest shall declare the amount at which they can be redeemed

4 And if it be a female, then thy estimation shall be thirty shekels.

4 Barkeley = 50 Dollars CA = Unknown. Young = about 2/- = shekel.

5 And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

6 And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, then thy estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female thy estimation shall be three shekels of silver.

7 And if it be from sixty years old and above; if it be a male, then thy estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

Israel under Law

8 But if he be poorer than thy estimation, then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him; [r] according to [s] his ability that vowed shall the priest value him.

9 And if it be a beast, whereof men bring an offering unto the LORD, all that any man giveth of such unto the LORD shall be holy.

10 He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the LORD, then he shall present the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: [2] as thou valuest it, who art the priest, so shall it be.

13 [p] But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part thereof unto thy estimation.

14 ¶ And when a man shall sanctify his house to be holy unto the LORD, then the priest shall estimate it, whether it be good or bad: as the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

SINGULAR VOW. PALA word. "marvellous" Ps.78:23; 119:14 "Wonderful" Jgs.13:5; 2Sm. Thus something difficult, remarkable. He could vow to the service of Yahweh himself, his wife, children, slaves, beasts, fields - anything he possessed. But it was not obligatory upon him to vow. Deut. 23:22. Once made, however, they had to be kept Eccl. 5:4-6 Mat. 5:33-37.

VOWS. In the adoption of the covenant, Israel had made a Vow of self-dedication, & Yahweh had fixed in the commandments an estimation of what was required in sanctification. Israel found the vow beyond their ability to pay. Hence learned to recognise their inability & to avoid vows Matt. 33-35 & Note the provision of Grace as in the Gospel v 8

5 The mercy of Yahweh left it to the discretion of the priest to lower the price of redemption, if it was beyond the ability of the person vowing to pay

6 Like the talents given unto us and which we should use in the service of Yahweh Matt. 25:15

B REDEMPTION OF VOWED BEASTS vv.9-13

9 It cannot be redeemed.

7 If he attempt to change the beast vowed on the plea that it was too good or not good enough for sacrifice, both were to be given up.

7A These regulations prevented rash vows. All brochure says exactly what was involved in each case.

8 If not redeemed it became the property of the Sanctuary.

C REDEMPTION OF VOWED HOUSES vv.14-15

The house of Israel so sanctified = the commandments Heb. 3:3-6.

The Levitical Covenant (Cont.) 179 Thus the Second Exodus likened unto the first. Isa 11:11; Jer. 16:14-15; 23:7-8

Joel 3:16; Amos 9:14; Obad 17; Mic. 7:14; Zech. 13:9.

Broken the bands of your yoke Lev. 26:13: This was preliminary to the establishing of the Covenant and by it Yahweh obtained a Name in the earth. (See Notes Exod 15). It is likewise essential to the restoration of the covenant in the future Cp Ezek 34:27; Isa. 9:4; 10:20-27; 14:25; Jer. 30:8; Ezek. 34:27; Nah. 1:13-15; Joel 2:18-20; Ezek. 38:17, 23.

Remembered the Covenant of Abraham Lev. 26:42 As in the past Exod. 2:24; Ps 105:9, 42; 132, 29:22-24; 42:8; 89:2; 63:16; Jer 33:26; Mic. 7:20. Rom 11:28.

Vows (Cont.) recognises above all things What David also said when he handed over incomputable treasure of gold & silver to the divine service "All things come of thee, and of Thine own have we given thee": all this store that we have prepared cometh of Thy hand, and is all Thine own" (1 Chron 29: 14-16) Yet he feels an intensity of gratitude that can only find satisfactory expression in deeds of self-deprivation — above and beyond the free-will & thank-offerings of sacrifice provided for in the routine service of the Tabernacle" — R.A: The Law of Moses.

Vows provided a channel for the expression of the chief command: "Thou shalt love..." Mark 12:30.

The gift that pleases Yahweh most Prov 21:3 Isa. 66:2.

Vows must be Kept Deut. 23:21; Num. 30:2; Eccles. 5:4-5.

Things devoted.
Jericho Josh. 6:17-18; 7:11, 11, 12, 15; 1Chr. 2:7. Animals 1 Sam. 15:21. People 1 Ki. 20: 42. 2Ch. 20:15. Jacob Is. 43:28. Sacrifices Ezek. 44:29. The word is used for punishment if it does not conform to Yahweh's requirement in dedication it was given to destruction Zech. 14:11; Mal. 4:6.

SANCTIFY OR DEVOTE — The former means to "set-apart" and things sanctified could be redeemed. Those things devoted were wholly given to the Lord, and could not be redeemed. Vv. 28-29. A life devoted to God must be wholly given to Him, it must be consumed in His service, and such a one is said to "die" to the present life 1 Pet. 3:18; 4:1-2. Jericho was devoted Josh. 6:17-19. Sanctify is QADASH - Devote is CHEREM to exclude.

D REDEMPTION OF VOWED HEREDITARY LANDS Vv. 16-21

9. The cost of the seed required for sowing it. Identified with Passover. Gideon's army likened to barley cake Jud. 7:13
9A. This is the same as required for a full grown male V.3. - again identifying the field with men Gn. Inf. 13:16.
9B. This relates to property derived by inheritance as opposed to that purchased. Cf. V.22.
9C. We should sanctify our inheritance in the Truth. Israel's field or inheritance was the Land - which they sold V.20 so that they were expelled therefrom. It will be granted the priests V.21. Rev. 5:9-10

15 [a] And if he that sanctified it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be his.
16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the LORD some part of a field of his possession, then thy estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: [3] an homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver. 9A
17 If he sanctify his field from the year of jubile, according to thy estimation it shall stand.
18 But if he sanctify his field after the jubile, then the priest shall [g] reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the jubile, and it shall be abated from thy estimation.
19 [h] And if he that sanctified the field will in any wise redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of thy estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.
20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more.
21 But the field, [i] when it goeth out in the jubile, shall be holy unto the LORD, as a field [j] devoted; [k] the possession thereof shall be the priest's.
22 And if a man sanctify unto the LORD a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of [q] his possession;
23 [r] Then the priest shall reckon unto him [s] the worth of thy estimation, even unto the year of the jubile: and he shall give thine estimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the LORD.
24 [t] In the year of the jubile the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong.

10. He had to pay the redemption money immediately because of his limited ownership of the land in contrast to the legal owner who presumably could pay in instalments.

25 And all thy estimations shall be according to [b] the shekel of the sanctuary: [c] twenty gerahs shall be the shekel. [11]
26 ¶ Only [d] the [2] firstling of the beasts, which should be the LORD's firstling, no man shall sanctify it; whether it be ox, or sheep: it is the LORD's.
27 And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to thine estimation, [e] and shall add a fifth part of it thereto: or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy estimation.
28 [f] Notwithstanding no devoted thing, that a man shall devote unto the LORD of all that he hath, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy unto the LORD.
29 [i] None devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be redeemed; but shall surely be put to death.
30 And [k] all the tithe of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the LORD's: it is holy unto the LORD.
31 [m] And if a man will at all redeem ought of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth part thereof.
32 And concerning the tithe of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever [p] passeth under the rod, the tenth shall be holy unto the LORD.
33 He shall not search [l] whether it be good or bad, [l] neither shall he change it: and if he change it at all, then both it and the change thereof shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.
34 [x] These are the commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses for the children of Israel [y] in mount Sinai.

G WHAT DEVOTED THINGS DO COMMANDED BE REDEEMED Vv. 26-34
12. Such as the Exod. 13:12
12A. The ass was redeemed.
13. CHEREM - To seclude.
14. As the Canaanites offered at Horm. Num. 21:2.
15. As the sheep, oxen of the Amalekites 1 Sam. 15:21
16 Gn. 4:21.
16A. Young: "all" The Canaanites whose offerings were devoted not by men, but "all men by Yahweh." It does not refer to persons vowed [illegible] who were redeemed.
17. Originally the firstborn was given to the family as an act of faith. Gen. 4:26 Should be so now Gal. 6:6. 1 Cor. [illegible]
For Summary of tithing see below P. 280.
18. The tithe is not something we give of our own to Yahweh, but a token payment now closing all that we have is His Ps. 50:10-12.
19. For counting rabbinic say that the rod was dipped in vermillion or red ochre that each tenth lamb was branded with the color.
20. If it was already voted

PAY THY VOWS Cp Num 30:2.
We are instructed to be not rash with thy mouth Ecc. 5:2. for vows made are expected to be paid. Cp Prov. 20:25. Christ will perform his vows. Ps. 22:25; 56:12; We expected to do likewise Ps. 50:14; 61:5-8; 66:13-15; 116:14, 18. 180

However the vows made by a wife or daughter are subject to confirmation by a husband or father Num. 30:1-16.

THINGS DEVOTED
Could not be redeemed. Jephthah said: "It shall be Yahweh's or offered as a burnt offering." His daughter could not be offered as a burnt offering; it had to be devoted or put to death Jud. 11:30, 31, 39. Saul's vow almost resulted in Jonathan dying 1 Sam. 14:24-30, 37-45.

THE TITHE REPRESENTED THE HOLY SEED
See Isa. 6:13. Christ is the tithe of the true seed and as such is holy unto Yahweh. He sets the example of how the true seed should be given unto Yahweh
The true seed constitute His tithe of all nations Acts 15:14 and should provide an example of Godly living unto all mankind

The tithes were used for the maintenance of Yahweh's ministers and the relief of the poor & the stranger Deut. 14:29. We honor Yahweh with our substance Prov. 3:9, acknowledging Him as the Author of our increase & store Deut. 8:11-18. We do so supporting His servants 1 Tim. 5:17-18, Gal. 6:6. 1 Cor. 9:11 Mt. 10:40-41, Mk. 10:8, Luke 11:41; 12:33. We therefore should be liberal in spiritual things. Mt. 25:35

NUMBERS

- Hebrew "Be-midbar" – "in the wilderness." Ch. 1:1. Septuagint – Greek "Arithmoi." Latin – "Numeri." It is called "Numbers" from the two numberings – of those who came out of Egypt Ch. 1 and of these who entered the Land Ch. 26.
- Theme: "Behold the goodness and the severity of God" Rom. 11:22. The book provides a warning against presumption 1 Cor. 10:1-12 as well as one against unbelief or lack of faith. Heb. 3:19. 4:6.
- Key thought: The need for discipline. The called are separated to service and must discipline themselves to that end. It is necessary to implement in action, in the wilderness Rev. 17:3. the holy principles taught by sacrifice (Leviticus).
- Time Period – Numbers does not supply a true sequential chronological order. For example, though it commences at at "the first day of the second month of the second year" Ch. 1:1. the celebration of the Passover Ch. 9:2. took place on the 14th day of the first month, and the instruction was given prior to that Ch. 9:1. The appointment of Levites Ch. 3:6-8, instruction regarding the lighting of the lamps etc Ch. 8:1-4 obviously all took place before the celebration of the Passover, and therefore before the period set down for the opening of the book. This suggests a careful selection of subjects designed to establish certain principles. The time covered is a period of 38 years 10 months. to 11th/40. Deut. 1:3.
  - The dedication of the Tabernacle with the offering of the princes (7:1-2) & the descent of the cloud (9:15) = 1st day Abib in year 2. — 14 days.
  - The second Passover (9:5) 14th day of Abib in year 2. — 17 days.
  - The census at Sinai (1:1) 1st day of second month (Zif) in year 2 . . . — 13 days.
  - The supplementary Passover (9:11) 14th day of Zif . . . — 6 days.
  - The commencement of the march (10:11) 20th day of Zif . . .
  - The death of Miriam (day not given) (20:1) 1st Month of 40th year (Sabbath?) — 37 yrs. 11 mth —
  - The death of Aaron (Ch. 33:38; 20:28) 1st day Ab (5 mth) of 40th year. — 3 mth 10 days
  - Address of Moses on the Plain of Moab – 1st day 11th Month of 40th year Deut. 1:3. — 6 mth
  - Compare the above with Num. 1:1 and Deut. 1:3 . . . . . — 38 yrs. 10 mths.

  See top. p. 204.
- The last of the old generation perished at the brook Zered after Thirty-eight years of aimless wandering Deut. 2:13-15.

THE FOURTH BOOK OF MOSES, CALLED NUMBERS.

Israel came out of Egypt a rabble of slaves. They left Sinai a well-organised army.

Family implies subjection to authority. Father's house suggests a unity in love. Here rule should be as easy as obedience is delightful.

Known of God

CHAPTER 1. See note Top. p. 182.

1 God commandeth Moses to number the people. 17 The number of every tribe. 47 The Levites are exempted for the service of the Lord. Top. p. 183 OHEL

AND the LORD spake unto Moses [c] in the wilderness of Sinai, [d] in the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying, Except Levites v. 47

2 [f] Take ye the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by [g] their polls; Skull

3 From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to war in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them by their armies. Heb. 1sh Lit. the army.

4 And with you there shall be a man of every tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers.

5 ¶ And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: of the tribe of Reuben; Elizur the son of Shedeur.

6 Of Simeon; Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. God is Peace

7 Of Judah; [h] Nahshon the son of Amminadab. People of Liberality

8 Of Issachar; Nethaneel the son of Zuar. Small, little. God Given

9 Of Zebulun; Eliab the son of Helon. Valorous, strong

10 Of the children of Joseph: of Ephraim; Elishama the son of Ammihud: of Manasseh; Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

11 Of Benjamin; Abidan the son of Gideoni. Warlike Helping Brother

12 Of Dan; Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. People of the Shaddai

13 Of Asher; Pagiel the son of Ocran. Troubler - from Root - outturn. God meets.

14 Of Gad; Eliasaph the son of Deuel. God gathers. God is Recompense

15 Of Naphtali; Ahira the son of Enan. Having Eye. Evil Brother

16 These were the [a] renowned of the congregation, [b] princes of the tribes of their fathers, [b] heads of thousands in Israel.

17 ¶ And Moses and Aaron took these men which [e] are expressed by their names:

18 And they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, by their polls.

19 As the LORD commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 And the [k] children of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

21 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuben, were forty and six thousand and five hundred.

22 ¶ Of the [j] children of Simeon, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war;

23 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

OUTLINE OF LEV. 20
As an appendix to the Book it provides a summary to the importance of giving unto Yahweh.
The vows were voluntary in their undertaking, but not in their fulfilment when undertaken.
The personal vow In the adoption of the covenant - Israel made a vow of self-devotion unto Yahweh - and He required the fulfilment. We likewise have made such a vow 1-6 In entering into covenant.
The Sacrifice - Represents - fire of the offerer - typical or Gentile - clean or unclean 9-15.
The House - nation or Ecclesia. Heb 3:1-6; 10:4-5.
The land. The fruit of their labor. 16-25. (Mth. 13:1-9, 38)
Provision of Responsibility. What cannot be vowed - because it is His. The Firstborn 26-27 (Gal.)
Anything already devoted 28-29. Banned things cannot be given.
The tithe - as an acknowledgement that all were Yahweh's - a token of His rights, the bestowal of which was the source of victory Mal. 3:16. 30-34 To be revoked in Kingdom.

NUMBERS 18

ORGANISATION IN THE WILDERNESS, Num. 2.

In the plan of march the first steps towards nationhood are evidenced. Its basis was intertribal relationships; its structure was that of a city with properly defined quarters for all and all could be easily located; a plan of march so that it would be orderly, a plan of worship so that the peoples' religious & politico-military activities would be integrated. It constituted the Ecclesia in the wilderness.

5 SUMMARY. VV. 44-46.

44 [c] These are those that were numbered, which Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, being twelve men: each one was for the house of his fathers.

45 So were all those that were numbered of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to war in Israel; See below

46 Even all they that were numbered were [g] six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

6 LEVITES EXEMPTED FROM WAR VV. 47-54

47 ¶ But [h] the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them.

48 For the LORD had spoken unto Moses, saying,

49 Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel:

50 [i] But thou shalt appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof; and they shall minister unto it, [m] and shall encamp round about the tabernacle.

51 [n] And when the tabernacle setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: [o] and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

52 And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and [a] every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts.

53 [b] But the Levites shall pitch round about the tabernacle of testimony, that there be no [c] wrath upon the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites [d] shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony.

54 And the children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did they.

The order of the tribes in their tents.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 [f] Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house: far off about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch.

3 And on the east side toward the rising of the sun shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch throughout their armies: and [k] Nahshon the son of Amminadab shall be captain of the children of Judah.

4 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were threescore and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

5 And those that do pitch next unto him shall be the tribe of Issachar: and Nethaneel the son of Zuar shall be captain of the children of Issachar.

6 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

7 Then the tribe of Zebulun: and Eliab the son of Helon shall be captain of the children of Zebulun.

STANDARDS AND ENSIGNS.

- The standard marked the division or camp VV. 9, 16, 24, 31; the "ensign" the family. There would thus be four standards one for each camp of three tribes.
- "Fathers" houses = subdivisions of the tribes.
- Family: See Note Num 1:2. MISHPÂCHÂH from SHÂPHAH" to bare (str). But Parkhurst "to humble, subject" - to be under the authority of the master of the family. So in Latin, familia, a family, is from famulus a servant" (Numerical Bible - Numbers).

Yahweh, having established a commonwealth in Israel by His just + equitable laws, having ordained everything relative to His own worship, + the erection of the Tabernacle, His dwelling place + throne in Israel; having completed the giving of His laws, and the appointment of the priests + Levites, now commanded the mustering of the people for certain reasons: • That they might be properly organised for war in a fight of faith • That they might enter the land + gain the inheritance promised to Abraham. • That they might be properly organised in relation to divine worship 2:32-33. • That the tribes + families might be distinguished 2:34. • That proper order might be observed in the coming invasion + settlement of the Promised Land Josh 13:1-25, 31-33.

3 LEVITES SELECTED TO REPLACE FIRSTBORN VV.11-13.

13 ZUWR - To turn aside - thus not completely devoted. See below.

14 There were approximately the same number of Levites (22,000) as firstborn (22,273) Ve 39-43. The surplus were redeemed. The reason for the choice of Levi probably Exod. 32:29 Cp Deut. 33:9.

15 Israel had to view him as such Deut. 12:19. 14:27 and share with him his good things Deut. 12:12, 18; 14:24; 16:11, 14; 26:11

Eleazar + Ithamar. V.2.

This is the proper order when (as in days of Eli) Ithamar's descendants are exalted above Eleazar's there is failure.

THE LEVITES. VV.12-13.

These verses give the reason for the injunction + gift recorded in VV.6-9. Yahweh, in sparing the firstborn of man + beast in Egypt claimed them as His own. He afterwards chose the tribe of Levi instead of these firstborn, + now transfers them as a gift to His servant Aaron + his sons, for assistants in His service. See Ex. 13:12 Cp ~~Deut. 14:24~~; Deut. 33:9.

4:13. On the other hand, Aaron begat an hereditary priesthood. Aaron + Moses jointly type Christ whose priesthood precedes His Kingship.

THE STRANGER V.10.

ZUWR signifies "to turn aside." (especially for lodging). Thus it does not necessarily signify a foreigner. But can relate to an apostate Israelite, or to one not particularly related to a specific duty and who can therefore "turn aside" to something else. Thus in Num. 1:51 it relates to any not Levites, but here even to Levites if not appointed to priestly duties. The ordinary Levites must not infringe upon the exclusive rights of Aaron and his sons.

SPIRITUAL LESSON OF NUMBERS: It is the trial of the believer in the world in which, unfortunately, his failure becomes obvious – but Yahweh's grace does not fail; the resources of the priesthood foreshadowing those of Christ whose resurrection is the token of his competence, are emphasised, the enemy is defeated, the curse is turned into a blessing, & they move on in strength to the promised inheritance. The Levites & their service are prominent – the Ecclesia's responsibility to carry & exhibit Christ in the world. The people are seen as Yahweh's host, united in a common warfare. The enemy is not so much without as within – the evil does not break out. Note a five-fold division: 1. Ordering the Camp 1:1-10:10. 2 Growing departure from God: the testimony of history as to the people 10:11-16:35; 3 The Resources of the Priesthood made authoritative by the token of the Resurrection 16:36-20:. 4. The testing in its consequences 20-27. 5 The Divine Overshadowing 28-36.

SPIRITUAL LESSON OF NUMBERS: It is the trial of the believer in the world in which, unfortunately, his failure becomes obvious – but Yahweh's grace does not fail; the resources of the priesthood foreshadowing those of Christ whose resurrection is the token of his competence, are emphasized, the enemy is defeated, the curse is turned into a blessing, & they move on in strength to the promised inheritance. The Levites & their service are prominent – the Ecclesia's responsibility to carry & exhibit Christ in the world. The people are seen as Yahweh's host, united in a common warfare. The enemy is not so much without as within – the evil does not break in, it breaks out. Note a five-fold division: 1. Ordering the Camp. 1:1-10:10. 2 Growing departure from God: the testimony of history as to the people 10:11-16:35; 3 The Resources of the Ancient-hood made authoritative by the token of the Resurrection 16:36-20:21. 4. The Testing in its consequences 20:22-27. 5 The Divine Overshadowing 20:28-36.

Chapt. 4 lists the totals of those able to serve in the various tasks.

Family.	Males 1 month upwards	Males between 30 & 50.	Location

Merarites	6,200	3200	North (Dan)
Moses and Aaron			East (Judah)
Total	22,300	8,500.

THE NUMBERS
22,273 first-born nearly 300 more than the first-born e.g. "house" Num. 3:40.
TOTAL NUMBER OF LEVITES 39
The numbers here given (Vv. 22, 28, 34) amount to 22,300. Formerly the numbers in the Hebrew were expressed by letters and not words at full length, and if two nearly similar letters were mistaken for each other, mistakes could occur. It is probable a mistake has crept into the numbers of Gershonites (V. 22) where for 7,5 we should read 7,2 The Hebrew "Resh" (200) might easily have been mistaken for "Caph" (500) especially if the down stroke of the latter was a little shorter as it often is in MSS (Kennicott).
Or the missing 300 could represent the firstborn who were thus not included in this numbering. Cp V. 41.

"The sacred shekel" (The Sanctuary Talent of the Pentateuch - a just weight Rev. 16:6. Ezek. 45:10.
A standard weight From SHAQAL - To suspend, i.e. a form of basis of exchange.
4 (the number of the tribes of Israel) Separate the first-born or Levites represented all Israel.
From GÂRAR = To drag or bring up (i.e. to ruminate) thus related to the cud.
The significance of this Ransom money is significant. Approximate - suggesting thought, care, fullness etc. Gerah = a berry like a bean.

THE NUMBER OF FIRSTBORN. V 43.
22,273 firstborn in a nation of 600,000 males requires nearly 80 in each house. It would therefore appear that the firstborn were such in houses, such as family groups e.g. "house of David" Jer. 3:14 They were expressed "by name" Num. 3:40 indicating a careful supervision.

AS LEVI REPLACED THE NATURAL FIRSTBORN — So the "Israel of God" Gal. 6:16. replaced Israel after the flesh, the natural firstborn Exod. 4:22. See Note Gen. 49:3. & Num. 3:45.

KOHATHITES FIRST 4:2.
- Gershon not Kohath was the firstborn ch. 3:17. illustrating the principle of the firstborn.
- The service & the carriage of the holy things through the wilderness a type of the Ecclesia's presentation of the Truth to the world.
- Kohath with the precious vessels including Ark, Table etc. Christ proclaimed.
- Gershon with the fine linen and coverings - teaching the need of such.
- MERARI with the boards and pillars - the need of organisation.

Of the missing 300 could represent Levite firstborns who were thus not included in this numbering. Cp V. 41.

12 FIRSTBORN NUMBERED 40-41.

33 Showing a personal knowledge. Yahweh has His true firstborn always in personal remembrance. Mal. 10: 28-31.

13 REDEMPTION OF SURPLUS OF THE FIRSTBORN Vs. 44-51.

34 Roth: "shall belong unto me, me Yahweh"

35 PÂDÛ WY - Ransom. See Peter's comment. 1 Pet. 1:18-19. As there were more firstborn than Levites no opportunity is there for all to avail themselves of the ransom paid Heb. 2:9.

36 "The sacred shekel" (The Soncino Edition of the Pentateuch) - a just weight. Lev. 19:36. Ezek. 45:10.

37 A standard weight. From SHÂQAL - To suspend, i.e. a form or basis of exchange.

38 4 (the number of the fulness of Israel) X 5 - Grace. The firstborn or Levites represented all Israel.

39 From GÂRAR - To drag or bring up (i.e. to ruminate) thus related to the cud. The significance of this Pentecon money is ~~significant~~ appropriate - suggesting thought, care, justness etc. The Gerah = a berry like a bean.

5 SHEKELS. - From 18:16 we learn from hence forth to constitute the Redemption money Cp Lev. 27:16.

40 It was doubtless used for the support of the Tabernacle worship.

CHAPTER 4.

14 AGE AND TIME OF SERVICE OF THE KOHATHITES. Vv 1-4.

1A This second enumeration was for the purpose of their special labor answering to the task of the layIsraelites Num. 1:3 Ch. 23: 24 John Baptist & Jesus commenced their ministeries at that age 1 Ch. 5:23 1 Chron. 23:24. The Rabbins say that Levites commenced to learn their duties at 25 and at 30 commenced public ministrations.

2 They formed part of a spiritual army. Cp 1:3 More experience needed.

KOHATHITES SERVICE IN CONVEYING THE TABERNACLE

3 The veil that separated the holy & most holy.

Cp Num. 18:7-8.

4 They were never removed Exod. 25:15. The expression probably signifies that they adjusted the staves for carrying. Cp V. 11.

6 Eliminate "about". They had charge of the items in the Holy & Most Holy.

7 This was a special covering for this purpose and not the covering of the Tabernacle Cp V. 25. Heb = "a covering."

8 Lit. PANIYM - face or presence. No word for bread in this place.

ZOAN Ch. 13:22. : Sig: A Place of Departure. See also Is 19:11. (See The Numerical Bible). A strange name for the seat of Egypt's power; a verbal striking delineation of what the world's power and glory is. Hebron, though dominated by giants could be occupied by those who departed from Egypt as Abram showed before Zoan founded.

THE KOHATHITES HAD LIGHTEST LABOUR. (Ch. 4:4-15) They carried the Ark, table, candlestick altar etc. They had 8,600 over a month (Ch. 3:15, 28) of which 2750 were effective for the service. (Ch. 4:30).

THE GERSHONITES had charge of the Tabernacle coverings and hangings of court etc. They had 7500 over month (Ch. 3:22). with 2630 effectives (Ch. 4:40). 4:24-26

THE MERARITES had heaviest labour - They had charge of boards, bars, pillars, sockets etc. (Ch. 4). They had only 6,200 over month, but 3,200 effectives, thus a natural provision for heavier work (Ch. 3:34, 4:44) Thus Yahweh provided strength where it was needed.

EACH HAS HIS WORK TO DO IN THE ECCLESIA IN A CO-OPERATIVE EFFORT TO THE GENERAL GOOD

By this co-operation the Tabernacle was set up from place to place with the least trouble, and the means of general worship made possible. Dominate word-Service. See Note V. 30. USED 21 Times!!

MOSES' FAILURE. CH. 20:12. He refers to this several times as one of the most disappointing things of his life. 120 years had been spent in preparation for his work & in leading the people only to fail to enter at the last moment. It illustrates the limitations of the Mosaic Covenant which he typified. It also illustrates that success in Christ life is based upon obedience. For Jehovah's purpose in us. See Eph 2:10.

Service of the Kohathites. NUMBERS 4. The charge of Eleazar.

5. Roth: "the dishes and the pans and the bowls and the libation cups." The first two for the meal offering the last two for the drink offering?
5A Lit. Bread of continuity—young. So called because it was never looking 2 Chr. 2:4. The word is also applied to burnt-offerings, incense, etc. for the antitypical bread of his presence see Jno 12:24-25
5B Fellowship (the Table) only possible through sacrifice.
6 MACHFAH from CHAPHAH To lay hold, to pick up (fire). Also rend, censer Num. 16:6, firepans. Exod 27:3. Evidently metal pans available for different purposes.

7. Roth. "a frame." LXX "a rest" Evidently a bearing-frame. Mowt = yoke, such as pole on which spies carried grapes Num 13:23.
8. Adjust them for carrying.

9 All vessels and utensils not expressly mentioned.

10. DASHEN = be fat. Roth: "fat ashes." Evidently remove the fat from the altar to cleanse it prior to removal.
11 The LXX adds at the conclusion of this verse: "They shall take a purple cloth and cover the laver & its foot & they shall put it in a blue cover of skin, & put it on bars."
The Kohathites had charge over 7 items: The Ark, the golden altar, the table of shewbread, the Lampstand, the instruments of ministry, the brazen altar, the laver.
12. Though boards etc were put on wagons, all pieces of the tabernacle furniture were carried by men Cp 7:11-4 Cp. 1 Chr. 15:
13. Even the Levites who were chosen & consecrated to bear the most holy things could not touch them unwrapped lest they die. They could only carry them after being covered & made ready for travel by the priests V.5.

THE NAZARITE VOW CH. 6.

Nazarite signifies separation. The separation was threefold 1. From the vine; 2 From cutting the hair; 3 From contact with the dead.
• The Vine. Wine "takes away the heart" Hos. 4:11, it artificially stimulates. Ps. 104:15; Eph. 5:18 (See note below p. 192). It represents pleasure and relaxation both good & otherwise Jud. 9:13. Hence at the conclusion of the vow wine may be used Num. 6:20. Hence the vow is for the denial of pleasure & relaxation for a period of time.
• The separation demands not only denial of wine, but all associated products even though non-intoxicating Num. 6:4. This is a denial of even legitimate pleasure, & in that regard pictures the believer. Christ is the one suffering joy for the believer. To him, Christ is to be "all in all" Col. 3:11. Even pleasures in themselves legitimate are excluded for that ideal, even those things related to the intoxicating joys of life. Mat. 5:16; Jn 7:37 This may seem extreme to the world, as the exclusions required of the Nazarite appear extreme & unnecessary to us.
• Second point of separation is from the dignity & pride of mankind. The long hair is the sign of subjection. Cp. 1 Cor. 11:14-17; Luke 22:26.
• Third separation = contact with the dead 1 Thess. 4:13. The "body is dead because of sin" Rom. 8:10 presented as a "living sacrifice" Rom. 12:1.

The Levites are in as distinct relation to the Book of Numbers as the priests are to the Book of Leviticus. The former guard it from without, or attend upon it in its travels, the latter belong to the sanctuary when set up, and have their place therein as intercessors & worshippers. The former face outwards guarding it from pollution; the latter face inwards leading to God. This is the essential difference between ministry & priesthood. Both Levites who minister or prepare for worship, and priests who conduct it are types of the saints who both minister and act as a spiritual priesthood Heb. 13:15-16. 1 Pet. 2:5. Levite service is from God and for God towards men. This is ministry. The name Levi signifies "joined" and their work was to lead men to God.

PROPHESIED (Count). 1 Sam. 19:20 Chr. 25:2-3 or praising. To act so as to show to be under the impulse of an influence beyond oneself, hence to act as if mad 1 Sam. 18:10; Jer. 29:26 2 Kg. 9:11. To speak in some miraculous way as with tongues, giving evidence of Yahweh's apparent influence. There was old Hur ones then the spirit was withdrawn. Their authority was established. Taken exception to, others being appointed. Moses' reaction reveals the incomparable greatness of his character. He loves his people more than he loves himself. When a man is really great & good he longs that all should be as he is & better.

PROPHESIED: the Hebrew NÂBÂ' sig. to cause to bubble up, hence to pour forth words abundantly, as is done by those who speak with ardour or divine elevation of mind. This could take the form of singing 1 Sam. 10:11 see above

The seventy elders and the officers had gradually emerged during the oppressions of the people in Egypt. Exod. 5:6, 10, 14, 15, 19; Exod. 24:1, 9. and hence were "known" of Moses Num. 11:16; Deut. 1:15. Their status and authority were now given Divine endorsement. Cp Exod. 18:13-26. for an earlier appointment of Judges. ● ELDERS = Zaqen ancient, i.e. experience ● OFFICERS = shoter writer, i.e. ability. LXX = Grammateus, scribe. They were scribes or secretaries who were appointed to subordinate positions.

The first word is lit. the young men HA-NA'AR and signifies a youth. The second is BECHURIM from a root to select, implying a group of selected men who were deputed duties. Joshua stood in a special relationship as Moses' minister Cp Exod. 24:13, as "servant" should be rendered. Who was "the young man"? We are not told. Some suppose him to be Gershom the son of Moses. Perhaps it was one appointed by the firstborn as they had recently been superseded by the Levites, and they may have

1. Angerly addressed the people instead of speaking to the rock.
2. Emphasized "we" instead of Yahweh
3. Neglected to speak to the rock
4. Smote it twice in anger
5. Failed to believe. V. 12.
6. Failed to sanctify Him in the eyes of the people. V. 12.

Cp the fruits of anger Eph. 4: 26.

"SPIRIT OF JEALOUSY" V.14. The use of RUACH in the sense of an over-mastering rush of feeling is true in essence of the word. When used of the wind it denotes a strong powerful wind. Similarly the ruach of God rushes suddenly & powerfully on a man Jud. 14:6; Acts 2:2. A man can be dominated by his spirit & needs to learn to rule it Prov. 16:32. Jealousy is a powerfull emotion & people do find themselves controlled & driven by it to do the most violent & extreme actions. This changing of a man is a characteristic feature of the work & influence of the spirit word on a believer in Christ. Jhn 6:63; Gal 5:16-18.

"WITHOUT THE CAMP" V.3. In addition to the vital spiritual import of this action it was also hygenically sound practise. Today those with infectious diseases are medically isolated lest others contract the disease. This = its means such segregation and isolation.

2 Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every [k] leper, and every one that hath an [l] issue, and whosoever is defiled by the dead: A1 See above Cp 12:14-15?

3 Both male and female shall ye put out, [n] without the camp shall ye put them; that they defile not their camps, [o] in the midst whereof I dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out [r] without the camp: as the LORD spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

A1 NEPHESH. Touch dead body of person - unclean 7 days. 19:11 31:19. Those touching carcase of beast - until even Lev. 11:27,39 + 22:6

1 The sin offering was likewise taken "without the camp" but into a "clean place" Lev. 4:12. See top. p. 184.

THE INSTRUCTIONS OF CHAPTS 5, 6

Seek to establish by Law the sanctity of Yahweh's people. Thus the nation typified the Ecclesia within which, in its perfection, nothing that defiles is permitted to remain. Cp. Matt. 8:22; Rev. 21:27. Thus in preparation for journeying: a. Camp Cleansed V1-4. b. Trespass Law enjoined V5-10 c. Secret sin exposed V11-31 d. Status of the Nazarite established Ch. 6

THE THREE FORMS OF UNCLEANNESS DISFELLOWSHIPPED

LEPROSY: Rare and dreadful - the disease of Egypt - typical of open and notorious wickedness.

AN ISSUE: Common & little noticed. - like sinful habits that spring out of ordinary life & are little regarded.

DEFILED BY DEAD: The taint of the flesh - subject to death through sin. This is treated as "sin" Num. 6:11. - The "natural" affections of life that interfere with our service to Yahweh. A mourner was one who sympathised with or for the dead - for one fallen away.

HER OFFERING

Barley meal without incense or oil - without the sanctifying influence of prayer or the joy of divine communion, but the humblest product of the earth typical of the earthy conduct of the woman whether guilty or not (for her conduct to her husband could have caused the jealousy) - which by the offering she promises in the future to render as service to Yahweh in the manner required. Eph. 5:22-23. Barley was the cheapest grain. Even in time of famine it rated only half the price of wheat 2 Kg 7:1,16,18. The poorer classes in distress used barley Ezek. 4:12 John 6:9-13. The well-to-do used it for fodder 1 Kg. 4:28 Rev 6:6. = ½ the price of wheat.

8 As the head of the house the husband provided the offering whom he considered guilty. It was the cheapest grain 2 Kg 7:1, 16, 18. Barley was the food of poverty Jud. 7:13; 2 Kg 4:42; Ezek. 13:19. The more well to do used it as fodder 1 Kg 4:28. A tenth part of Ephah = app. 3 qrt 1 pint.

Miriam would be clean according to that description. Lev. 13:12, Num. 12:10. Snow is usually moist and wet in which case "the snow" would suggest an open wound or ulcer which is what is involved in Lev. 13. This fits in with "flesh half consumed" V. 12 an effect of true leprosy.

THE LAW OF JEALOUSY. • Yahweh is a jealous God Exod. 20:5; 34:14; Deut. 4:24; 5:9. • Israel is His bride. Is. 54:5. Lev. 20:26. • There was no provision for a wife to press a case against a husband because this Law saw beyond natural relationships to those existing between Yahweh • His people so that both sects from their place in the provision. • Though the wife might be cleared of the accusation of adultery, her conduct to her husband was the cause of her humiliation, and to that extent she was guilty and deserving of the shame heaped upon her. • Israel became guilty of spiritual adultery Jer. 7:13. Ezek. 23:25. • With the Temple service etc, there was all the appearance of bearing seed – but more to the glory of the Father. • Those humbled but who have not been guilty of adultery will be restored + will bear seed. • Thus it is the parable of Israel provoking Yahweh to jealousy. See below. Further references Deut. 6:15; 29:20; 32:16, 21 Exod. 20:5; 34:14; Ps. 78:58; 106:16; 79:5; Nah. 1:2; Zeph. 3:8; 1 Cor. 10:22.

25 Then the priest shall take the jealousy offering out of the woman's hand, and shall [c] wave the offering before the LORD, and offer it upon the altar:

26 And the priest [d] shall take an handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth aside to another [f] instead of her husband, and is defiled;

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous over his wife, and shall set the woman before the LORD, and the priest shall execute upon her all this law.

"OFFERING OF JEALOUSY" V. 15
Whereas elsewhere in this chapter, the word is singular QIN'AH, here it is in the plural QIN'ATH. There is a double jealousy - both the husband + God. There is also a twofold meaning in the word, for it can signify both jealousy of and zeal for or against anything or anybody.
'UNCOVER THE WOMAN'S HEAD" V. 18. RV: "Let the hair of the woman's hair go loose" – The analogy is the leper Lev. 13:45; whose hair was a sign of uncleanness.
BARLEY. V. 15. The offering being of the cheapest grain 2 Kings. 7:1, 16. rep. the abased condition of the woman. Uncovered head uncovered in shame.

21 Reth. "shall wipe them out into..." The curses were written with a soluble ink that could be wiped off with a water filled sponge which would be returned to the bitter water, so that the woman would virtually drink the very words of the curse.
22 This is said in anticipation, for she did not drink until after the offering. V. 26
23 Roth. places this as an adjective before "water."
Cp Note Lev. 7:30.
25 According to the law of the MINCHAH. (Lev 2) a handful was burnt as a "memorial" and the balance placed at the side of the altar to be subsequently given to the priests.
'AZKARAH - A memorial offering from common food with Yahweh. Cp Lev. 2:2, 9, 16. Num. 5:18.
26 There would be a moment of terrible tension as all would await the verdict.
27 Or "as bitter." See note V. 24.
This was the fate of Israel among the nations because of her spiritual adultery. See margin.
29 No punishment was provided for the man even though he, being of a jealous disposition had caused his wife to go through this ordeal needlessly. Unfounded jealousy is cruel, but lawful jealousy is a protection of the home + a divine characteristic Ex. 34:14; Deut. 4:24; 5:9; 6:15; Josh. 24:19; Ezek. 39:25; Nah. 1:2; Zech. 1:14; 8:2; Cp Song 8:6. Yahweh's wife Isa. 54:5 was the cause of much jealousy, hence this law as a reminder to all Israelites both male + female.

THE HOMER. Num. 11:32.
The homer (heap) contained 10 Ephahs Exod. 45:11 nearly 8 Bushels (Unger). 1 Ephah was the amount paid back in sacrifice. See Note Exod. 16:36. According to Fuerst, the homer was originally an ass load. (Unger) Hence the Israelites gathered more than they could carry. They labored hard for this, but not for the food that would lead to life eternal. This explains Yahweh's subsequent punishment.

10 This was the token of subjection of a wife to her husband 1 Cor. 11:5, 7. – that being the relationship of the nation to Yahweh Is. 54:5. As in the case of Samson its strength was its subjection to Divine Law. Deut. 28:7-10. Cp Ezek. 44:20

Like the priest, his vow was greater than natural feelings. He was a priest. Lev. 21:10-12 Deut. 33:9.
See similar requirements of Christ in relation to his followers. Mt. 10:37. Mk. 10:29. Luke 14:26. The hair of the Nazarite was to him what the diadem on the mitre was to the high priest.

Nazarite vows were for various lengths of time. Only a few are on record as lasting a lifetime. Samson Jud. 13:5 & 16:17. Samuel 1 Sam. 1:11 John Baptist Luke 1:15. Samson is called a Nazarite but not Samuel or John; only the law of the Nazarite applied to them. It seems from Acts 21:23-27 that Paul once took a Nazarite vow

When either man or woman shall [a] separate themselves to vow a vow of [b] a Nazarite, [c] to separate themselves unto the LORD: (Rend. "unpruned" = unpruned vines. Lev 25:5 & 11)

3 He shall separate himself from [d] wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, [1] or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried.

4 All the days of his [e] separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the [f] vine tree, from the kernels even to the husk.

5 All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no [g] razor come upon his [h] head: until the days be fulfilled, in the which he separateth himself unto the LORD, he shall be holy, and shall let [i] the locks of the hair of his head grow.

6 All the days that he separateth himself unto the LORD [m] he shall come at no dead body.

7 [n] He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the [o] consecration of his God is upon his head.

8 All the days of his separation he is holy unto the LORD.

9 And if any man die [q] very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration; then he shall [s] shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it.

10 And [t] on the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons, to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation:

11 And the priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make ~~an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead~~, and shall hallow his head that same day.

21A As at the consecration of the priests Exod. 29:2. Lev. 7:13.
22 Thus the Nazarite had to acknowledge the need of the priest.
22A As V. 11 Cf. v. 14.
22B Amp. = "its"
22C That all might know that he was free of his vow.
23 In token of the fact that the realisation of his vow had brought him true fellowship with Yahweh.
24 So that officially & publically the Nazarite acknowledged the need of the priest by recognising the right of the priest to these portions.
25 This was the left shoulder. The right or heave shoulder was already the priest's by general rule Lev. 7:32. Num. 6:20. That the offered shoulder was also "waved" & accepted by Yahweh as his portion to be consumed in His name by the priest was a further token of God's pleasure in the self-dedication of the Nazarite & the fulness of communion enjoyed.

THE NAZARITE VOW. Strong drink forbidden. V.3. It befogs the mind & impairs spirituality Lev. 10:9-11. Counterpart is purely emotional religion. Not to cut hair V. 5. it is a sign of lamentation or rejection Jer. 7:29 (Cf Jud. 16:17-21) Not to lament for the dead. Vv. 6-8 (Cf Luke 9:58-62). The long hair = the token of subjection of a wife 1 Cor. 11:5, 7 11:2 Cor 11:3
It made priests of laymen. It separated men and consecrated them to service of Yahweh. The priests like the Nazarites were prohibited strong drink during their service (Lev 10:8-11), were not to become defiled for the dead (Lev. 21:1-3, 10-12) nor ~~cut their hair~~ (Lev 21:5). They were to maintain their separateness. Lev 21:6. His crown of glory grew out of his head.
The Nazarite was a living example, the embodiment of an "Israelite indeed" the living exhortation, the personification of the "Kingdom of priests."
Though inferior as a layman to the priests, he was superior inasmuch as his was voluntary service – and yet he was dependant upon the priest v. 17 thus showing this voluntary priest had need of a priestly mediator.
Defilement by Nazarite entailed a greater offence & required a more elaborate means for cleansing Num 5:2-3, 19:11-8 with Num 6: 9-19 and. 31:19

2 That the princes of Israel, [i] heads of the house of their fathers, who were the princes of the tribes, [k] and were over them that were numbered, offered:

[i] ver. 10. Ex. 40. 17, 18. Lev. 8. 10, 11.

[k] ch. 1. 7.

3 And they brought their offering before the LORD, six [l] covered wagons, and twelve oxen; a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one an ox: and they brought them before the tabernacle.

[l] Ex. 30. 13.

[m] ch. 1. 4, &c.

4 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

5 Take it of them, that they may be to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his service.

[m] Heb. who stood.

6 And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites.

[n] ch. 1. 49. No word for "meat"

7 Two wagons and four oxen [o] he gave unto the sons of Gershon, [n] according to their service: — Cp 4:24-28

[o] Is. 66. 20.

8 And four wagons and eight oxen [p] he gave unto the sons of Merari, according unto their service, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

[p] Cp. Ex. 30. 34.

9 But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none: because [q] the service of the sanctuary belonging unto them @was that they should bear upon their shoulders.

11 And the LORD said unto Moses, They shall offer their offering, each prince on his day, for [r] the dedicating of the altar.

12 ¶ And he that offered his offering the first day was [s] Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah:

[s] ch. 1. 7.

13 And his offering was one silver [t] charger, the weight thereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after [u] the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a [x] meat offering:

[t] Ex. 30. 13.

[u] ch. 1. 4, &c.

[x] Heb. meat.

14 One spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of [y] incense:

[y] Is. 66. 20.

[z] Cp. Ex. 30. 34.

Temple (Kings 8:63; 2 Chr. 7:5) to train up a child Prov 22:6. The Altar was dedicated in the sense of being consecrated, by the anointing with oil, & the blood of the initial services Lev. 8:10, 15. On the same day the princes offered their gifts, but by Divine decree these were presented in a special 12 day ceremony subsequent to this day. Cp V.11.

The day. V.1. Yowm - is figuratively used in a general sense for "time". The Tabernacle was set up on the 1st day of 1st mth of 2nd Year Exodus. Ex. 40:17 & the following offerings a month later Num. 1:1.

2 God is pleased with individual initiative providing it does not violate His law. The gift of waggons etc was a thoughtful gesture which found Divine approval. It assisted in the successful operation of God's wishes. It is a precedent for our own individual efforts.

OBSERVATIONS.

- The gifts were voluntary so Yahweh is pleased to accept of our abundance Prov 3:9.
- The gifts were all connected with the consecration of the altar Num. 7:84 though actually presented on succeeding days – so our offerings are all associated with a specific day 2 Cor 8:14.
- The offerings were for the easier conveyance of the onward movement of the Sanctuary – so we should give to that end Mk 12:43; Luke 12:48; 2 Cor. 8:12.
- The offerings were minutely recorded to the point of monotony – so records are kept of those things we do pleasing to Him. Mal 3:16, Mt 10:42; 25:40; Heb 6:10; 13:16
- Whilst the burnt offerings & peace offerings were multiplied, the sin offering remained the same – let us increase the dedication of ourselves and the fellowship with others.

- 1 Thess 5:18-19;
- As Moses spoke with Yahweh V. 89 – let us see the manifestation of His glory in Christ Jesus with the veil torn asunder Mt. 27:51; Jhn. 1:18; 2 Cor. 3:14. Heb. 9-8 – and hearken to his counsel Jhn 12:49-50.
- The peace offering was shared with others Lev 7:15, 19 – so let us call others to share with us our joy in Yahweh.

- This is perhaps the longest and most monotonous chapter in Scripture – but what powerful lessons it presents.
