Number of Heb. 1 Fish - Very common. Egypt noted for fresh Isa 19:8. 2 Cucumbers - about 1 foot in length - very delicious. 3 Water-melons were used as food, drink + medicine 4 Leeks young + green as in 1 Kg 18:5. Cress etc. Eaten by common people as a delicacy. Cooks relate to lettuce etc. 5 Onions were similar to ours but the juices did not make eyes water. 6 Garlick - very common. All food permitted by the Law - but the lusting for them under the circumstances wrong. Priority wrong. Luke 17:27.

COMPLAINERS Ch. 11:1.

There was complaining before which was not severely punished Exod. 14:11-15; 15:24-26; 16:2-4, 9, 20, 27, 28. 17:2-4 but now the people had entered into covenant relationship with Yahweh, and had enjoyed greater responsibility to obey.

MOSES' COMPLAINT 95

Num. 11:11 & Deut. 1:9-15.

The complaint + remonstrance of Moses may be compared with that in 1 Kg 19 with Jonah 4:1-3, and contrasted with the language of Abraham Gen. 18:23. The meekness of Moses Gen. 12:3 sank under vexation into despair. His language shows us how imperfect + prone to degeneracy are the best saints on earth. (1) He undervalues the help of Yahweh and fails to share the burden with Him V. 11. (2) He magnifies his responsibilities V. 12. (3) He limits the ability of Yahweh V. 13

BEATEN GOLD. CH. 8:4.

Gold, though a heavy metal, is the most malleable & ductile of all metals and may be beaten into leaves less than .000005 of an inch thick. A single ounce can be drawn into a wire 50 miles long. A three inch cube can be beaten out to cover the area of an acre. Gold leaf may be less than a tenth of a thousandth on an inch thick, & such gold leaf was used by ancient Egyptian

THE PEOPLE'S PILGRIMAGE PASSOVER. Was both retrospective and prospective. It was the memorial of a past deliverance, and the pledge of a prospective inheritance. So also, the Lord's communion is both a memorial and a pledge. It looks back to the offering of the past; it points forward to the glorious consummation. It looks backward to "shew the Lord's death"; it looks forward "until he come" 1 Cor. 11:26. "And now abideth faith, hope, love." 1 Cor. 13:13. At the Lord's Table, Faith looks back to his offering and is strengthened; Hope looks forward to his Coming and is brightened; Love looks up to the Right Hand of the Father, and is deepened. Christ's communion is described as "this passover" Luke 22:15. as distinct from the "Jews Passover" Jhn. 6:4. It commemorated "His Exodus" accomplished at Jerusalem "Luke 9:31.

CHAPTER 9.

5 THE SECOND PASSOVER. Vv 1-5.

1 This was prior to the record with which this book commences Ch. 1:1. and about the time that the instruction of Leviticus was given. See Introductory note.
2 The only instruction given was that it should be kept in the land Lev. 23:10. Exod. 13:5. Exod. 12:25. Now, with the Tabernacle set up, instructions are given to keep it.
3 (c) ÂSÂH - To do or make in wildest sense. Rend. "prepare" Num. 15:5, 6, 12. Josh. 22:26.
4 As far as they were able in the circumstances. There were no doors for sprinkling of blood etc. And later it was taught that it had to be kept at Jerusalem Deut. 16:5-7. Meanwhile it was appropriate for the feast to be celebrated, for the giving of the Law and setting up of the Tabernacle were significant steps in ultimate deliverance.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in the (f) wilderness of Sinai, (h) in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel also keep (m) the passover at his appointed season. 2

3 In the fourteenth day of this month, (q) at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, (4) shall ye keep it.

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

Israel, as a nation is "unclean" by contact with death and is "in a journey afar off" Num. 9:10. and thus must await the delayed Passover at Christ's return Ezek. 45:21. Luke 22:15-16. Cp Zech. 14:1.

AT THE AGE OF FIFTY Vv 25-26. there was a significant change in the service of Levites. Their physical labor was extended and the experience that maturity should bring was used. No longer did they prepare the sacrifices etc but they did continue to supervise the conduct of those about them, and that "keep" or overlook the charge given them.

FIRE BY NIGHT. An emblem of the purifying and protecting presence of Yahweh. Isa. 4:5; Zech 2:5; Ezek. 1:27; 8:2. The Holy Spirit appeared as cloven tongues of fire Acts 2:3. The verses Vv.15-23 very emphatically declare the ever-present watchful care of Yahweh over Israel. He provided light in darkness Ps 119:105; 119:130. The cloud was dark by day & luminous by night. A sign of the divine presence Matt 17:5; Acts 1:9. The brightness declares Yahweh's Glory; the darkness shrouds it 1 Kg 8:12.

keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: (6) ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land. 10

15 ¶ And [c] on the day that the tabernacle was reared up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and [c] at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning. Ps 78:14; 139:11-12

16 So it was alway: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloud (7) was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents. 14

18 At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched: (8) as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents.

19 And when the cloud (9) tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel [m] kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not.

20 And so it was, when the cloud was [p] a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

21 And so it was, when the cloud (10) abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

22 Or whether it were two days, or a month, [r] or a year, [15] that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel [17] abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed. 16

23 At the commandment of the LORD they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the LORD they journeyed: they [d] kept the charge of the LORD, at the commandment of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Use of the silver trumpets. 11 The Israelites remove from Sinai to Paran. 33 Moses' blessing.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of [y] a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the [z] calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when [1] they shall blow with them, all the [2] assembly shall assemble themselves to thee at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are [1] heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow [a] an alarm, then [b] the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward.

6 When ye blow [a] an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie [c] on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow [a] an alarm for their journeys. QÂHÂL 3

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not [d] sound an alarm.

8 [e] And the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an ordinance for

CHAPTER 10

DIVINE CONTROL BY THE SILVER TRUMPETS

Vv 1-10

1 CHATSOTSERÂH from CHATSAR - To surround (i.e. as with a stockade), to separate etc. They were long, straight & narrow, with an expanded mouth, and should be distinguished from the Shophar.

2 MIQSHÂH - beaten work. Suggestive of trial. So Roth.

3 For Eleazar and Ithamar see Nadab & Abihu having died. El is helper. Land of the Palm - representing the saved. Later, with the increase of priests the trumpets increased. At least 120 in Solomon's day. 2 Chron. 5:12.

4 [1] ÊDÂH fem of ÊD, witness. When gathered to be gathered in that capacity. The trumpet would indicate.

5 Directions for the way.

6 Both of them.

7 By their appointed representatives.

8 TERÛ W'RÛH - Probably a protracted or repeated blowing - Roth. Used Jos. 6:13-20; 2 Sam. 6:15; 1 Chr. 15:28; 2 Chr. 5:13; 7:6; 29:28. Also used for the blowing of the Shofar. Lev. 23:24

9 See bottom p.200.

10 LXX inserts similar instructions for camps west and north.

11 TÂQA' - To clap (vv. 3, 4, 5 etc.) - evidently short, staccato notes.

15 YOMIN - Days, an undefined period often equivalent to a year Lev. 25:29. This statement recorded after conclusion of the wanderings.

Vv 15-23 These verses very emphatically point out the ever-present watchful eye of Yahweh over Israel, and their response to His will in their travelling arrangements.

THE SILVER TRUMPETS Israel's voice to Yahweh

- "The song of Yahweh began with the trumpets" 2 Chron. 29:27; 5:13.
- The penetrating, dominating, commanding note of the silver trumpets began the song of Yahweh. It should do so in our case for it is the symbol of petition or praise to be used alike in War and worship. The sounding trumpets were an appeal to Yahweh to help Num 10:9 or to accept V10. They were blown by Eleazar (El hath helped) and Ithamar (The land of the palm). Later increased. At least 120 in Solomon's day. 2 Chron. 5:12.
- The CHATSOTSERÂH was a symbol of prayer. It brought the Assembly before Yahweh V3, guided them in their wanderings V5, caused them to be remembered by Yahweh V9, ensured relief from oppression V9, and suitably presented the various aspects of worship before Him as a memorial V10.
- Prayer, therefore, should be clear, fervent, determinate, like the clear, dominant, insistent sound of the silver trumpets. Cp Jam. 5:16; Phil. 4:6. Cp 2 Chr. 13:14.
- When we call on Yahweh we should stir ourselves up to take hold of Him - the stirring note of the trumpet should impel us Isa. 64:7.
- Moreover the trumpets emit an enthusiastic, ringing joyous note which we should express to God Phil. 2:2, 4.

13 Thus a symbol of prayer. Acts 10:4

13A Not over sin-offerings. The trumpet drew Yahweh's attention to the self-dedication + fellowship of the nation to Him. The sin-offering blotted the remembrance of sin out.

14 They were to be used both for war and for worship Cp Ps. 81:3, 2 Chr. 20:28

10 Also 14 in the day of your gladness, and in your solemn days, and (e) in the beginnings of your months, ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; that they may be to you for a memorial before your God: I am the LORD your God. These who murmur without cause are seen given cause to murmur!!!

Israel had the power to conquer – they had the invitation of Yahweh to enter the land (Deut. 1:8) but instead of keeping their eyes firmly fixed on the future glory, they permitted present difficulties to obscure their vision. Grumbling led to complaining and found the people comparing the comforts they had left with their hard state in the wilderness, so that even Moses was discouraged. Vv10-14. Contention then broke out among the leaders (Ch.12) and finally the spies' defeatest attitude brought ruin to the whole project (Ch.13). It all commenced with a little grumbling!

Yahweh had not intended that they eat only manna continually – He was leading them towards a change of Diet – Deut. 8:7-8. But they looked back in the future & desired the satisfaction of the present.

30 And he said unto him, I will not go; but I will depart to mine own land, and to my kindred. Cf. Gen. 12:1

31 And he said, Leave us not, I pray thee; forasmuch as thou knowest how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou mayest be to us [d] instead of eyes.

32 And it shall be, if thou go with us, yea, it shall be, that [e] what goodness the LORD shall do unto us, the same will we do unto thee.

33 ¶ And they departed from [f] the mount of the LORD three days' journey: and the ark of the covenant of the LORD [1] went before them in the three days' journey, to search out [1] a resting place for them.

34 And [m] the cloud of the LORD was upon them by day, when they went out of the camp.

35 And it came to pass, when the ark set forward, that Moses said, [n] Rise up, LORD, and let thine enemies be scattered; and let them that hate thee flee before thee.

36 And when it rested, he said, Return, O LORD, unto the [5] many thousands of Israel.

CHAPTER 11.

1 The burning at Taberah. 4 The people lust for flesh. 31 Quails are given.

AND [1] when the people [o] complained, [1] it displeased the LORD: and the LORD heard it; [q] and his anger was kindled; and the [u] fire of the LORD burnt among them, and consumed them that were in the uttermost parts of the camp.

2 And the people cried unto Moses; and when Moses [w] prayed unto the LORD, the fire [6] was quenched.

3 And he called the name of the place [9] Taberâh: because the fire of the LORD burnt among them.

4 ¶ And the [a] mixt multitude that was among them [c] fell a lusting: and the children of Israel [4] also [3] wept again, [1] and said, [b] Who shall give us flesh to eat?

5 [c] We remember the fish, which we did eat in Egypt freely; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlick:

6 But now our soul is dried away: there is nothing at all, beside this manna, before our eyes.

7 And [f] the manna was as coriander seed, and the [i] colour thereof as the colour of [k] bdellium.

8 And the people [k] went about, and gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in a mortar, and baked it in pans, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was as the taste of [1] fresh oil.

9 And [o] when the dew fell upon the camp in the night, the manna fell upon it.

10 ¶ Then Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every man in the door of his tent: and the anger of the LORD was kindled greatly; Moses also [q] was displeased.

11 [r] And Moses said unto the LORD, Wherefore hast thou afflicted thy servant? and wherefore have I not found favour in thy sight, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me?

12 Have I conceived all this people? have I begotten them, that thou shouldest say unto me, [z] Carry them in thy bosom, as a [7] nursing father beareth the sucking child, unto the land which thou [s] swarest unto their fathers?

13 [b] Whence should I have flesh to give unto all this people? for they weep unto me, saying, Give us flesh, that we may eat.

COMPLAINTS AT TABERAH Vv1-3 See Deut. 9:22. Cp. Ex. 16:8

1. From natural standpoint they had grounds for complaints. Consider the harsh, arid country (Deut. 1:19. 8:15. Jer. 2:6). The monotonous diet. The tiring dusty, daily trudging. The problems of tired irritable children etc.

2. Not in original. The fire possibly swept through the camp, consuming the tents of the people as a warning.

Swept right through

EXHORTATION –

9 ANAN – To murmur, i.e. to their condition in Yahweh! To complain at their hard lot. Cp. use Lam. 3:36-39. Such complaining was "speaking against God" Cp. Ps 78:19. Cp. Jude 16. RV: "And the people were as murmurers..." Their attitude rather than their words illustrated this. Cp. Deut. 9:22

ON GRUMBLING We may look upon grumbling as a little sin, but it was the root cause of Israel's failure. If we permit it to become habitual it will spring on us at all times and spoil every endeavour Cp. Phil. 2:14; 4:11

THE REAL ISSUE V.6.

Was not the food of Egypt which they permitted to fill their thoughts, but the plainness of their desert diet & the monotony of the manna. Their complaint was really a thrust at Yahweh, saying in essence: What you do is not good enough for us. This in spite of its miraculous nature Cp. Rom 13:14

CHINNAM – for nothing. from CHEN – kindness, favour.

COMPLAINTS TURN TO DESIRE Vv. 4–6.

The people permit their eyes to turn back upon the pleasures they had left rather than forward to promised land. EXHORTATION 1 Cor. 10:12. Phil 3:13-14. Cp Prop. 195.

4 Gentiles who had joined with Israel. Exod. 12:38. Lev. 24:10

5 Hebraism indicating intense desire. Cp MS. Cp p.195. Ps. 106:14

6 Affected by Gentile influence

7 Forgetfulness and impatience (Ps 106:13-14) led them to test Yahweh, doubting as to whether He could provide flesh, even though He had performed many miracles (Ps. 78:19-20) thus limiting Yahweh (Ps 78:41). Thus they manifested lack of trust and belief (Ps 78:22). Thus their hearts were "hardened" (Is. 91:8) or blinded to realities (Rom. 11:7). 6 thing remembered!

8 Their hearts had turned to Egypt. (Acts 7:39) See below left

THE MANNA. Vv. 7–9.

Cf Exod 16:13-14. John 6:30-31 Rev. 2:17.

This was the bread of life. The Israelites complained that their souls were "dried up" with eating it, but actually it kept them alive. Cf 1 Cor. 10:3. As they lived of it so some live of Christ.

9 It apparently fell between the dews. Exod. 16:13-14. See note John 6:48.

Manna described as "Angel's food" "Corn of heaven" Ps. 78:24-25 "bread of heaven" Exod. 16:4

11 Why did Yahweh supply it? Because of promise to Abraham Ps. 105:42. Ps. 106:44-45.

MOSES DISCOURAGED Vv10-15

Grumbling & complaining causes Moses to become discouraged.

10 Tired and discouraged Moses turns in complaint to Yahweh

11 With Israel. Indicated by use "Me"

12 YÂBESH – be ashamed, disappointed. In Exod. 16:31 it is likened in flavor to honey. Both honey & oil are used symbolically of the Word.

13 This complaint is completely wrong & entirely contrary to Moses' protest at Divine punishment recorded Exod. 32:11-13. Moses had become discouraged by the people and so spoke unadvisedly. Cp Elijah 1 Kg 19. Jonah Ch.4. Moses was exasperated with the people, & forgot himself.

V.33. Fellowshipping their trials he would also share their hopes and joys.

THE ARK "went before" in the centre of leading them as a leader goes out in command of his troops. Num. 27:17; Deut. 31:3; 1 Sam. 18:16. This it did through the cloud, the presence of which made the Ark what it was. "Return" V.36 applies to the cloud visibly like as such.

YAHWEH'S DIGNITY & GOODNESS is manifested in His answer to Moses, providing for his need yet ignoring the intemperate outburst - recognising it, & making allowance for the provocation.

THE SEVENTY. As Moses appointed 70 so did Christ (Luke 10:1). Moses' organisation thus consisted of himself as chief, the twelve princes who led the tribes, the 70 elders, and numerous lesser Judges. Christ's organisation similar. The Gentiles were divided into 70 nations Gen. 10. And Yahweh's purpose with His people was to manifest through them His purpose to the world. Cp Jer. 13:11 See Note Exod. 15:27. Christ will accomplish this. 70: symbolic Cp Exod. 1:5.

V.15. According to 9 two of Dr. Kennicott's manuscripts have "their wretchedness."

70 rep. Israel that came into Egypt Gen. 46:27 Exod. 24:1, 9. -Nay, prime endorsement 20 Cp Ps. 78:41 21 Cp. Deut. 19:17 relating to the earlier appointment Exod. 18:24. He evidently went out of the Tabernacle Cp 7:89.

ELDERS APPOINTED. VV. 24-30

21A RV "the cloud" - the theophany appeared in the cloud of the Tabernacle. 21B Not "from him." There was no diminishing of Moses' glory but an enlargement of the power. 21C KAPHAR - To add, repeat. RV "did so no more." See below. 21 Cf 1 Cor. 14:3. They doubtless exhorted the people against the state of mind into which they were falling, but all to no avail V.33. See p. 189. 22. They were unable to assemble with the others. 22A El is Love. 22B Affectionate Love in action. The events certainly illustrated the truth of these names. 24A They surrounded the Ohel, that facing all the Tribes for whom they were to minister. Evidently the names repeated. 25. Note the similar attitude of the disciples Mark 9:38 Luke 9:49. 26. See Num. 12:3. Loyalty must not blind us to worthiness in the efforts of others. The cause is greater than the individual 27 Cf 1 Cor 14:5

FLESH SUPPLIED. VV. 31-32.

27. An East then a South wind (Ps 78: 26-28) drove the quail out of their course so that they appeared over the camp of Israel flying low through tiredness. 28. Extensively for some miles. The camp itself occupied about 9 sq. m. Day's journey = 30 m. (C.B.) 28A. NĀTASH - To smite (as if beating out), pound. Thus "threw them down on the camp" "dispersed them." "Driven by the Wind towards the camp.

QUAILS. SALVIA - Sluggish. In the Spring the quails move north from Africa. They follow the coast of the Red Sea until they come to the bifurcation by the Sinaitic Peninsula, & then they cross at the narrow part. - Tristram - Nat. Hist. of Bible. "On this occasion an east then a south wind drove huge numbers to the camp of Israel Cp Ps. 78:26. See p. 194. left.

THE HOLY SPIRIT WITHDRAWN V.25. The Spirit was given as a sign of authority & then was withdrawn, or ceased: a foreshadowing of 1 Cor. 13:10 "And not did they continue" K.

16 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, Gather unto me [e]seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and (h)officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee. P. 189

17 And I will [k]come down and talk with thee there: and [l]I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear [m]the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone. For Moses Instructions See Deut. 1:16-18.

18 And say thou unto the people, (n)Sanctify yourselves against to morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for ye have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, Who shall give us flesh to eat? [p]for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and ye shall eat. Base ingratitude. Cp Exod. 14:11-12.

19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days; As on the previous occasion Ex 16:18

20 But even a [2]whole month, (t)until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that ye have despised the LORD which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, [x]Why came we forth out of Egypt?

21 And Moses said, (v)The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand footmen; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.

22 Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to [a]suffice them? Mt. 19:26; Luke 1:37

23 And the LORD said unto Moses, (c)Is the LORD's hand waxed short? thou shalt see now whether (c)my word shall come to pass unto thee or not.

24 ¶ And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD, and [g]gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle. 24A

25 And the LORD [h]came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and [i]took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass, that, when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them; and they were of them that were written, but [o]went not out unto the tabernacle: and they prophesied in the camp.

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp. See top p. 203 P189

28 And [q]Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one [r]of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, [s]forbid them.

29 And Moses said unto him, Enviest thou for my sake? (u)would God that all the LORD's people were prophets, and that the LORD would put his spirit upon them!

30 And Moses gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

32 And the people stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least gathered ten homers: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.

33 And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, ere it was chewed, the wrath of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD smote the people with a very great plague.

CHAPTER 12.

1 God rebuketh the sedition of Miriam and Aaron. 10 Miriam's leprosy is healed at the prayer of Moses. 14 Miriam shut out of the camp.

AND Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, Hath the LORD indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? And the LORD heard it.

3 (Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.)

4 And the LORD spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out.

5 And the LORD came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood in the door of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam: and they both came forth.

6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream.

7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house.

8 With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the LORD shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?

9 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed.

10 And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous.

11 And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned.

12 Let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he cometh out of his mother's womb.

13 And Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee.

14 ¶ And the LORD said unto Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again.

15 And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeyed not till Miriam was brought in again.

AARON'S FAILING.

As in the case of the golden calf Aaron allowed himself to be drawn into a false position. Like many weak men, he was of an affectionate disposition Lev 10:19, and so emotionally drawn into situations he later regretted. In addressing Moses as "Lord" he acknowledged his subordinate status V.11 before all Israel.

They broke up from Sinai on 20 day 2nd month of 2nd year of their departure out of Egypt, corresponding to the early part of May, they came into the desert of Paran whence spies were sent up the mountain into Palestine, "in the time of the first ripe grapes" and these returned to the camp at Kadesh after 40 days. As grapes begin to ripen in Judah in the month of July, the return of the spies is to be placed in September. They were ordered to turn back by way of the Red Sea Num. 14:25 though it appears they abode "many days" in Kadesh. In August of the 40th year - the 1st day of 5th month, Num. 33:38 Aaron died as the new generation made its way to the Promised Land after an absence of 38 years. Deut. 2:14.

INSTRUCTIONS.

15 From a root "pawar" signifying to "gleam," to beautify or, vaunt self. - which Israel did to exclusion of Yahweh

PARAN extended from Kadesh Num. 13:26 - to Kadesh on Red Sea Gen. 14:6. It lay east of the wilderness of Beersheba. Gen. 21:14, 21 gradually merging into the wilderness of Zin (cf Num. 13:26 with 20:1) - thus included the plateau or mountain country (Deut. 32:2 Hab. 3:3) south of Canaan. Most of it is from 2000 to 2,500 ft above sea level. Its arid barren condition is described in Deut. 1:19, 8:15 Jer. 2:6.

This brought Israel to the land of Amorites a powerful people consigned to destruction because of wickedness. Deut. 2:19, Gen. 15:16.

This seems to imply that Paran commenced after Hazeroth, which has been estimated to be about 30 miles from Sinai. Apart from the delays consequent upon their own wickedness Israel could have reached the Promised Land in 11 days. Deut. 1:2.

16 And afterward the people removed from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

15 Of the tribe of Gad, Geuel the son of Machi.

Majesty of El Pining

16 These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses called Oshea the son of Nun Jehoshua.

Because he would bring them

17 And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way southward, and go up into the mountain:

18 And see the land, what it is; and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many;

19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strong holds;

20 And what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not. And be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the firstripe grapes.

21 So they went up, and searched the land from the wilderness of Zin unto Rehob, as men come to Hamath.

22 And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron; where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

23 And they came unto the brook of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs.

24 The place was called the brook Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

25 And they returned from searching of the land after forty days.

26 And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land.

27 And they told him, and

ISRAEL'S REVOLT

Paul sets the account of Israel on the border of the Promised Land as a prime example of "unbelief" Heb. 4:11. The word signifies disbelief which manifests itself in disobedience. The Psalmist recorded: "they despised (Heb. spurned, turned from) the pleasant land, they believed not His word" Psalm 106:24-25. The seeds of revolt, however, were planted long before they reached this point. Their growth was revealed by the complaining, the grumbling that was inspired by the mixed multitude among them Num. 11:1-5. and culminated in this revolt from which they were prohibited entering the land. And this is recorded "for our admonition" 1 Cor. 10:11. They reveal:

1. The Israel of God brought nigh to the promised rest, almost within sight, and actually within taste of it
2. Refusing to enter the rest through unbelief
3. Sentenced to exile from the rest they would not enter
4. Vainly attempting to enter the rest in their own strength

- Israel no longer pilgrims but wanderers
- If their wandering not aimless yet their aim mere self-preservation
- Progress stops, but not declension. It repeats the revolt. Amos 5:25-26 • Covenant sign of circumcision lost Josh. 5:2-6.

• THEIR SITUATION They were in the "wilderness of Paran" Num. 12:16. that "great and terrible wilderness" Deut. 8:15; but they were also in the "wilderness of Zin" on the threshold of the Land of Promise. The worst of the journey was behind them. They had reached the foot of the plateau that leads to the highlands of the southern portion of the land. Only one steep climb and they would have reached their haven of rest. A little patience, faith and fortitude and they would have reached their goal.

• THEIR REQUEST They were not prepared to move forward in faith notwithstanding the evidences of Divine goodness and providence they had experienced: deliverance from Egypt, defeat of Amalekites, provision of food + drink but requested that representative men of the tribes spy out the state of the land Deut. 1:22-25 Their request was granted. Yahweh delights in His children acquainting themselves with "the riches of the glory of His inheritance" Eph. 1:18, and also of "counting the cost" Luke 14:28. An appraisal of difficulties does no harm so long as sufficient faith is in evidence to conque them 1 Jn 5:4. Yahweh granted Israel's request; permitted His representatives to see the land + taste its fruits. The Apostles are our representatives who report to us the result of their investigations. Jn. 17:20-21. Cp Heb. 6:4-5. Cp 2 Cor. 12:2-3; Rom. 8:18. The Israelites heard the description of the land + had opportunity to view and taste of its fruits.

• THEIR REPORT. undue emphasis was given to the problems before them, without an equal emphasis given to the power to conquer. 1 Cor. 10:13. Yahweh's strength was adequate for this as had been shown by the deliverance from Egypt. The expression "we saw!" shows that present difficulties obscured the vision of faith in consequent of which they brought an "evil report" on it v. 32. and uttered a scandal against it 14:36.

• THEIR RESPONSE The fruits of their refusal was firstly mourning 14:1. then murmuring 14:2. then the madness of rebellion 14:4. They were dependant upon Yahweh for their sustenance — how could they return to Egypt? It was the madness of bitter disappointment and frustration which faith should have conquered. But they were a faithless generation. The proposal to return to Egypt was as unfeasible as it was wicked. Cp Heb. 10:38-39.

• THEIR EXCUSE Was faithless and cowardly. They based it upon the suggested fate of their wives and children 14:3. They concluded that it would be better to die in the wilderness 14:2. These words were uttered before God, and care should be taken under such circumstances.

• THEIR FATE Yahweh took them at their word. They perished in the wilderness, their graves being strewn along the route they took 1 Cor. 10:5. whilst their children, whose fate they declared was in jeopardy actually conquered the land. Num. 14:28-38.

• THEIR OBSCURITY It is highly significant that of the spies selected to represent Israel absolutely nothing is known of ten of them apart from the incident here recorded. Their names have been blotted out of the Book of Life. On the other hand, the purpose of Yahweh remained and was proclaimed with greater emphasis at this point Num. 14:21.

And all this when they were on the eve of success!!

ESHCOL V. 23. Brook = NACHAL. RV = Valley. Here dwelt the Amorite who identified himself with Abram rather than with his native tribe Gen. 14:13; and now arrived the Israelites to prune the fruits of the land but with such faithlessness as to prevent them conquering it. It was renamed Eshcol receiving a new significance to the old name. Beit ISHKAHIL about 4½m N.W. Hebron?

THE LAND V. 32. : they claimed that it would "eat up the inhabitants thereof." In so saying they spoke with truth. In their assessment they gave a factual report. One fact, however, they overlooked because unseen: the fact of faith which when manifested becomes a substance that ensures victory. Heb 11:1 1 Jhn 5:4

WHY IS CALEB ALONE MENTIONED Ch. 14:24?

Caleb alone is mentioned yet Joshua, Aaron, Eleazar, perhaps the Levites also entered the land. Why is Caleb alone mentioned? Because he represented the people. Joshua, Aaron, Eleazar etc were all of Moses party, and represented him. Caleb was an exception + was doubtless selected by the people.

See the work of faith rewarded Josh. 14. From this latter chapter we learn.

- Caleb treasured the promises in his heart. So completely did he do this that he could quote the date + place he received them some 45 years later Josh. 14:7, 10, 12.
- Caleb expected to fight for his inheritance. Life under Yahweh is a life of action, of endeavor Phil. 3:14; 1 Tim. 6:14. Mk. 11:12. See Over.

THE LORD OF ALL THE EARTH

The first time this title (Adon of all the earth – its Lord and Ruler) is used it is in conjunction with the triumph of the Tabernacle passing over the Jordan. Josh. 4:11, 19. The antitype is revealed in the Lord Jesus. Mt. 28:18; 1 Pet. 3:22. Israel recognised the connection, for in defeat, they took the Ark to battle against the Philistines. But it was taken and for a time remained with the Gentiles until it returned to Israel. So also with the Lord Jesus Christ, who after his resurrection was made "Lord + Christ" Acts 2:36 and before whom all mankind will ultimately prostrate themselves Phil. 2:11. Cp Ps 24:1. Mi. 4:13; Zech. 4:14; 6:5 see also Jer. 10:7 Zeph. 2:11

- The inherent thought behind the use of the word Adon is that of authority, rulership. Yahweh would have flesh know that He rules in the kingdom of men. Dan. 4:17. The title in full is used of Yahweh as King Ps 97:1-5, as well as of Christ the manifestation of Yahweh Mic. 4:13; Zech. 4:14.
- Yahweh is set forth as Adon or Ruler Neh. 8:10; 10:29. He is Adon of Lords Deut. 10:17, King over Israel Jud. 8:23 Ps 84:3; 89:18; 95:3; 98:6. The earth is thus called to tremble before His mighty power Ps 114:7. His governance is felt in restoring Israel, healing the meek etc. Ps 147:1-5 23, in the past, as Adon He punished Israel Isa. 3:1 and rebuked Assyria Isa. 10:16, 33. See also Isa. 51:22, Hos. 12:14.
- As Adon of Lords Deut. 10:17; Ps. 136:3. He is Adon above all Elohim Ps. 135:5. and angels obey His commands. Ps. 103:19-22. As the manifestation of the Father they assume the title, Adon. Dan. 10:16, 17, 19; Zech. 1:9; 4:4, 4:5; 4:13; 6:4.
- The title is combined with other titles in Isa. 1:24 to express the mighty power of Yahweh.
- It is used of Christ as the manifestation of Yahweh in Ps 8:1, 9; 45:11; 110:1. Isa. 19:14; Mal. 3:1. In the N.T. he is set forth as the head of the Ecclesia Eph. 1:22; 4:15; Col. 2:19; Heb. 3:6. CALEB (Cont.)

- Caleb expected hardships. He knew the Anakim infested the country, but he believed that Yahweh had spared him for something greater than retirement, & he realised that he had been granted the strength to accomplish it Josh. 14:11.
- He manifested both dependence & confidence. He made no boast of his own ability or power but depended on Yahweh Josh. 14:12. Cp Rom. 8:37.
- He radiated loyalty & faith without waiting to receive promotions. With Joshua, he obviously inspired faith in the younger generation during the years of wandering, preparing them to enter the land.
- Caleb had to ask for that which had been promised him. He asked, believing he would receive. That was the measure of his faith. Mk. 11:24.

4 And wherefore hath the LORD brought us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

"WE SAW" — Present difficulties obscured the vision of faith. Israel "despised" (Heb. spurned, turned from) the pleasant land. "They believed not His word" Num. 14:31 see Ps. 106:24-25. Faith in the true-hearted says: Let us go up at once, we are well able to take possession." But must have not faith. The very men who went with Caleb have no sympathy with him.

REGRET FOR SPIES — Dare not push forward • their eyes were fixed on their inheritance. But as it often the case, courage oozed out at the decisive moment, & cowardice, disguised as prudence, called for further information," and clucked-on of the faint-hearted."

V.30. Lit. "Going up we go up".

"All these things are recorded as types — let he who thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall." 1 Cor. 10:11-12. Deut. 9:7

TAPH = not the usual word for children. Root = take quick, little steps. Includes all the little toddlers. RV = little ones.

3 They disarmed that Yahweh hated them. Deut. 1:27.

4 Yahweh accepted this prayer at its face value — Vv. 27-29. Thus showing the need to exercise care in our expressions ... "Forgive as we forgive ..."

5 Note the hypocrisy. Faith would have recognised that the best thing for these dependents was to lean on Yahweh. See His answer v. 31. The peoples' words were "HOW CAN WE CONQUER?" Deut. 1:28

6 They actually appointed him Neh. 9:17. Heb. Korah?

6 Their encouraging words are given in Deut. 1:29-31. The people's reaction in Neh. 7:39. They "thrust him from them."

7 The people having repudiated Moses these two spies tried to stem the revolt.

8 There was no doubt about this, as Moses had already shown. Deut. 1:31-33 See v. 9. 2 Chron. 32:8 Ps. 34:22 1 Pet 3:10-13.

9 CHAPHETS — To incline to. This requires action on our part. 1 Sam. 15:22.

9A TOWB = Good. No comparative in the original — Yeom.

9B Lit. "They (are) like our bread, their shadow hath turned aside from off them." When the sun shone on the manna, it melted. Ex. 16:21. So would the Canaanites, as Israel had themselves declared. Ex 15:15.

PROVOCATION OF YAHWEH VV. 10-12. Ps. 78:56 — p. 208

10 The tents of Moses and Aaron were before the entrance of the Tabernacle, and now Yahweh dramatically intervenes in the dispute, probably by His glory shining forth powerfully. This fearful sign would remind the people of His power and cause all murmurings to cease, saving the faithful servants of Yahweh from being stoned to death by the base and treacherous congregation.

11 To what extent will they go to provoke me.

11B Deut. 9:2. The "despise" of RV, Young. 11D Dispossess — see Young. 11E EMPTIER = Destruction, Ex's Death.

12 This was a public test imposed on Moses and demonstrated to the people his disinterestedness in leading them. It would reveal to all that those who should for Yahweh would see nothing by sacrificing. In substance Yahweh's intention was fulfilled for the generation of wicked was destroyed

THE BEAUTY of KADESH BARNEA. (Ain Qadeis). 70m south Hebron, 50m Beersheba.

Dr. Trumball, an American traveller has described it thus —

"It was a marvellous sight! Out of the barren and desolate wilderness of burning desert wastes, we had come with magical suddenness into an oasis of verdure and beauty unlooked for, and hardly conceivable in such a region. A carpet of grass covered the ground. Fig trees grew along the shelter of the southern hills. Shrubs and flowers shorted themselves in variety and profusion. Running water gurgled under the waving grass. There were flowers, and grass and weeds quite unlike anything we had seen in the peninsular of Sinai. Bees were humming, and birds were flitting from tree to tree. We started a hare. We saw larks and [illegible]. It was in fact hard to realise that we were in the desert or near it.

"Oh that My people had hearkened unto Me,
And Israel had walked in My ways!
I should soon have subdued their enemies
And turned My hand against their adversaries"
Yahweh's comment on these events.

LORD, Then the Egyptians shall hear it, (for thou broughtest up this people in thy might from among them ;)

14 And they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land: for they have heard that thou LORD art among this people, that thou LORD art seen face to face, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, by day time in a pillar of a cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 ¶ Now if thou shalt kill all this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of thee will speak, saying, LXX has "Thy name" 9 Ex. 3:15

16 Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he sware unto them, therefore he hath slain them in the wilderness.

17 And now, I beseech thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou hast spoken, saying,

18 The LORD is longsuffering, and of great mercy, forgiving iniquity and transgression, and by no means clearing the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation.

19 Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according unto the greatness of thy mercy, and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.

10 CAUSES OF MURMURING AGAINST MOSES — 206

1 For water Exod. 15:24-26.
2 For food Exod. 16:2-8
3 For Water Exod. 17:3-7.
4 Out of Jealousy (Miriam and Aaron) - Num. 12:1-5.
5 Fear + cowardice at spies report - Num. 14:2-38
6 Korah - Jealousy Num. 16:1-35
7 Bitterness Num. 16:41-50
8 Levites - Jealousy Num 17:1-11.
9 For Water Num 20:1-13
10 For food. Num 21:4-9.

Half the murmurings were for this world's goods; 3 arose out of jealousy; 2 were prompted by bitterness and cowardice. All stemmed from lack of faith.
Cp Pss. 78:18, 41, 56. 95:9; 106:14. 1 Cor. 10:9.

"THE PEOPLE MOURNED GREATLY" V 39.

Their belated attempt to gain the land was too late. When people became abandoned to rebellion as here, Yahweh is obliged to abandon them to judgment, and all the weeping + wailing to prevent it will avail nought. Mt. 25:41; 25:46, &c. 16:19-31;

"WE HAVE SINNED" V 40.

This statement was made not from any real realisation of sin, but disappointment at having lost the land. Their 'repentance' consisted in a frantic effort to avoid the punishment not overcoming sin by obedience.

v. 22 - Tempted - NASAH - Put me to the proof.

THE FIRST GENERATION
"Their long slavery had debased their minds; their confidence in the Divine protection gave way at once before their sense of physical inferiority, and the total deficiency of moral courage. 'Back to Egypt!' is the general cry. The brave Joshua and Caleb in vain reprove the general pusillanimity. Their own lives are in danger and in bitter disappointment the Law-giver perceives that a people accustomed to the luxuries of a relaxing climate, and inured to slavery from their birth are not the materials from which he can construct a bold, conquering and independent nation." — Milman.

They lose their character of being strangers + pilgrims and become — like Cain — mere wanderers without purpose

34 [a]After the number of the days in which ye searched the land, even [c]forty days, each day for a year, shall ye [d]bear your iniquities, even forty years, and ye shall know my [2]breach of promise.

20 Sept. "vengeance." As Israel had broken their covenant Ex 24:3 so Yahweh was forced to change His purpose. TENUWAH - alienation from. NUW - To refuse, forbid, neutralise. Cp Num 30:5 all Occasions. Cp. Num 32 R.V. "My alienation" Mg = "the revoking of My promise." Young = "Who are opposing Me" 14:11 Dt 1:27 etc.

35 [f]I the LORD have said, I will surely do it unto all [g]this evil congregation, that are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.

36 [i]And the men, which Moses sent to search the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up a slander upon the land, (see ten plagues p.203)

37 Even those men that did bring up the evil report upon the land, [m]died by the plague before the LORD.

21. For exhortation see 1 Cor. 10:10. Heb. 3:16-19. Jude 5. The sudden death of these princes probably affected the people as described in v 40.

38 "But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, which were of the men that went to search the land, lived still.

ISRAEL DURING THE WANDERING (p 229) 213.

Yahweh continued to communicate with them through Moses. Num. 15:1, 17, 35. He gave the manna, supplied water and provided raiment Deut. 8:2–6. 29:5–6.

But the rite of circumcision was discontinued (Josh. 5:4–8). and the Passover seems to have been omitted. The people perhaps felt they were cut off from the Covenant Deut 12:8-9

From 2 Ch 20:10-26 11 Mmos 5:25-26 we learn that the Law was badly disobeyed, Sabbaths profaned (cf Num 15:32) idolatrous practices persisted

SOURCES OF OFFERINGS.

- From the herds: cows, oxen, bullocks, calves, heifers Vv 3, 8, 11; Lev. 1:1-9
- From the flocks: Rams, Lambs, Sheep, Goats + Kids Vv 3, 5, 6, 11; Lev. 1:10-12
- Supplementary - Bird-life: Pigeons + Turtledoves Lev 1:14-17.
- From the fields: cultivated fields, Olive trees, Vineyards Vv 1-10; Lev. 2.

All these were symbols of Israel. whose should see themselves in the offerings made. Cp Mal 3:17.

The quantity of meal increase with size of animal: 1/10 - Lamb. 2/10 - Ram 3/10 - young bull. Oil = ¼ hin ¼ ℓ. Wine also.

1. Their trust was in weapons of war Deut. 1:41. not in Yahweh.
2. A clear token that Yahweh was not with them. p 182.
23. For Hormah see Index.
23. Heb. Dedication or Destruction. Thus they were chased from Kadesh (or the Sanctuary Ch 13:26) Known also as En-mishpat (Gen 14:7) or Well of Judgment to the Place of Destruction. Driven also east to Seir Deut. 1:44

After this disastrous defeat the scattered remnants of the army returned to Kadesh, and pleaded with Yahweh, but repeated failures on their part had proved them unfit for His purposes and He turned a deaf ear to their pleading (Deut. 1:45). Israel was in the position of the unwise virgins (Mat. 25:11-12. Mat. 7:23) "Israel remained in Kadesh many days" Deut 1:46 See Note p. 178. v. 25 a Law Of Offerings 1-16.

2. This presumes that the Generation to perish would discontinue their offerings. See note below left.
3. The burnt or slain offering might be offered in any of these three ways as well as ordinary sacrifices which do not come into question here. Cp Lev. 1:1 - 3:17. Cp p 208
4. For details see Lev. 2. The command to offer the meal offering in every such case has not been recorded previously, but from Lev 23:13, 18 it had been the practice to do so.
5. See note Lev. 5:11. = ¼ Gallon
6. Oil + wine - joy in the new life Yayin Note Lev 23:13.
7. Nte Lev. 24:5. The meat + drink offerings were proportionate to the size of the victim. 1 Gallon.
8. 29 Vv. SHELIYSHIY. Third completing the triangle, thus uniting the two as one.

SWEET SAVOUR (p 241)
Savour of rest - NIYCHOACH Genesis 8:21. The repetition of these laws seems to have been to highlight that they were to partake of the character to indicate the attitude of mind of the offerer. Cp. 2 Cor. 2:15; Phil. 4:18

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PEOPLE — The failure of the people at Kadesh and their banishment in the wilderness is used as a salutary basis for a well merited lesson on the solemnity of vows and offerings for the new generation that would inherit the land. Among these instructions were specific warning to avoid the sin committed by the generation that died in the wilderness. Vv 30-31.

Sins of ignorance atonable - Emphasizing Yahweh's mercy.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drink offering half an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.
11 Thus shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or a kid.
12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one according to their number.
13 All that are born of the country shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.
14 And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whosoever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; as ye do, so he shall do.
15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourneth with you, an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the LORD.
16 One law and one manner shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.
17 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Even all that the LORD hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the LORD commanded Moses, and henceforward among your generations;
24 Then it shall be, if ought be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt offering, for a sweet savour unto the LORD, with his meat offering, and his drink offering, according to the manner, and one kid of the goats for a sin offering.
25 And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their ignorance:
26 And it shall be forgiven all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; seeing all the people were in ignorance.
27 And if any soul sin through ignorance, then he shall bring a she goat of the first year for a sin offering.
28 And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinneth ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the LORD, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

PRESUMPTUOUS SINS V.30.

"With a high hand." That is bold, daring, deliberate acts of transgression against the fullest evidence, + in despite of the Divine authority. Such conduct "reproached Yahweh" as if His commandments were needless, unreasonable and inimical to the happiness of man; His favor of little value, nor His wrath to be feared; in short as if it were more advantageous to rebel against Him than to serve Him. Such acts admitted of no atonement; the person was condemned to bear his own iniquity + to be cut off.

David "despised" the command, but obtained forgiveness 2 Sam. 12:9. Israel did so + was cut off 2 Chr. 36:16. Cp Prov. 13:13; Jhn. 12:48.
Reproaching Yahweh Ps. 69:9; 74:18, 22; 79:12; 89:51.

"THE GLORY OF YAHWEH" Num. 14:21.

The context shows that this statement proclaims Yahweh's intention and vow that sin on earth will be put down and His sovereignty established there in Christ's reign will bring all into subjection to Him. 1Cor. 15:24-28. Col. 1:10. Rev. 20.

14. 'ARIYCÂH - To comminute. Str. Only used here + in Neh. 10:37; Ezek. 44:30 Probably related to the grain ground in preparation of the new corn for baking or eating. Cakes to be made of it for purpose of offering V.20. See opp.
(C) Sins of Ignorance To Be Atoned. Vv 22-29.
15. RV: "if it be done unwittingly..." i.e. the non-observance of any requirement of the Law. Hence this has relation to sins of omission, whereas Lev. 4 relates to sins of commission. For "ignorance" see Lev. 4:2. See bottom p. 140

THE SABBATH BROKEN. This presumptuous act typified the whole cause of Israel's failure. The Sabbath rest typified the true Israelites rest from the works of sin Heb 4:3,9,10. so that to deliberately refuse to observe it was tantamount to rejecting completely Yahweh's means of salvation.

2 And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, [h]famous in the congregation, men of renown:

3 And [b]they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, [3]Ye take too much upon you, seeing [m]all the congregation are holy, every one of them, [c]and the LORD is among them: wherefore then lift ye up yourselves above the congregation of the LORD?

4 And when Moses heard it, [q]he fell upon his face:

5 And he spake unto Korah and unto all his company, saying, Even to morrow the LORD will shew who are his, and who is [r]holy; and will cause him [5]to come near unto him: even him whom he hath [t]chosen will he cause to [u]come near unto him.

CHAPTER 16

The disappointment of the people, the defeat of Ch. 14:2-5. the general murmuring and disturbed state of the nation became a fruitful ground for sedition and Korah seized the opportunity. Josephus rates this sedition as the most serious of any nation. He describes Korah as prominent, wealthy and a good orator.

Other references - Num. 26:9. 11 Num. 27:3. Deut. 11:6 & Ps. 106: 16-18. Jude 11. 2 Pet. 2:9-13. Not again mentioned perhaps he was grown from the conspiracy.

REBELLION Vv. 1-3.

1 A prominent man in family of Kohathites, first cousin to Moses and Aaron. Exod. 6:18, 21. 1 Chron. 6:2-3. Evidently jealous that Aaron who was only his equal in rank should be High Priest. See note. V. 32. Back V1.

2 These were prominent men Num. 26:9. doubtless incensed that Judah instead of Reuben should be leading tribe. Moses having failed to take them to promised Land, it was an opportunity to wrest leadership from him. Cp v. 7.

3 Should be placed after "Korah" He incited the rebellion.

4 The Heb. QARAH signifies "called out" or "appointed." These were men of standing. Jude 6.

5 The Levites wanted the position of priests V. 5. the Reubenites, the civil administration Vv. 13-14. The circumstances were ripe for rebellion. The mission had failed, and now Israel was condemned to march up and down amid naked rocks and barren sands. Moses had refused to lead the people when they attacked the inhabitants Num. 14:44. Perhaps that was a bone of contention

6 See 2 Pet. 2:3-4, 10. They despised the government of Yahweh in Moses, and promised liberty from his domination 2 Pet. 2:19.

7 They challenged the Divine appointment of Moses and Aaron and wanted to substitute it with mob rule.

THE CHALLENGE OF LEVITES ACCEPTED. Vv 4-11.

The 250 men were princes of the appointed assembly. (V 2. C.B). or of Levi which tribe was separated from all others. Moses confidently proposes that their claim be decided by Yahweh.

6 The Levites were holy or separate from other tribes but family of Aaron were separated from even Levi for this purpose so that Aaron is called "the saint" Ps. 106:16.

9 Ps. 105:26. Ex. 28:1. Thus Levi had to give to the priests, a tithe of the tithes they received from Israel Num. 18:26-28.

10 This was a challenge indeed! It was the duty of the priests alone to offer incense Ex. 30:7-8. 2 Chron. 26:18. Luke 1:9. Any others offering were in danger of death Ex. 30:9 Lev. 10:1. See v. 40.

Korah = Ice, bald, smooth. Izhar = oil, anointed. Kohath = allied. Moses family. Exod. 6:16-20. Dathan = their Law. Abiram = Lofty father Eliab = God of his father. On = Ability, power, wealth, strength. Peleth = flee, swiftness, escape

V.19. This was the exciting moment. Expectancy would grow to a great pitch. The shining out of the divine glory would make one and all in that immense assembly feel that the matter in debate was worthy of Divine adjudication. But on what side? The rebels were confident that right was with them, and they were in anticipation of a divine endorsement. The congregation sympathised with them. But the decision was soon reached. V.21 specifically the Levites instigated the revolt - the Reubenites only subordinates.

Dathan & Abiram. V.12. Having remonstrated in vain with Korah & company Moses appeals to G. & A hoping to turn them back to a sense of duty.

9 The challenge against Moses & Aaron was really a challenge of the authority of Yahweh. cf. in Exod. 16:2,8
* Note the warning Deut. 11:6. Ps 106:17

10 Korah is the only Levite mentioned, but evidently he represented a volume of opinion - the "princes" V.2. were Levites. Cp V.18 evidently 11 They despised the high position to which they had been called and aspired to higher things. In so doing they were bringing the service of Yahweh into contempt before all the people.

12 This involved solemn duties before Yahweh which they despised Deut. 10:8.

See V.7 Note to. What Korah hoped to gain out of this is difficult to see. Perhaps he had received the Spirit as per Ch.11:17 and imagined himself the equal or superior of Moses. If so it was the deceitfulness of sin. See Note: The Revolt.

14 Moreover thou hast not brought us into a land [k] that floweth with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou [l] put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

15 And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the LORD, [m] Respect not thou their offering: [n] I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

23. Against Moses & Aaron.

DIVINE INTERVENTION VV 19-21.

The appearance of Korah and company with censers before all the congregation involved them in the general rebellion & was a challenge to Yahweh. See V.7
22. Strong - Splendor Probably luminous cloud, or bright shining forth like the flaming sword Gen. 3:24. Ps 18:8.

INTERCESSION V.22.

25 Yahweh is the source of life, and death is a negation of His purpose.

DIVINE JUDGMENT VV 23-35. Jude 6 2 Pet 2:9-13. The way of salvation was separation.
26 Apparently Korah had retired to the Tent of Dathan and Abiram, perhaps when Divine glory and wrath was manifested, for Dathan and Abiram had remained in their tents. V.12.
27. But not the children of Korah who perhaps refused to follow their father in rebellion Num. 26:11.

MOSES' COUNTER CHALLENGE V.28-30 - see opp. left

28 Contact was defiling, thus the type of death. See Heb. 12:20.
29 The greater number left, but apparently not all 32.
30 HA'ISH - "the one man" - Korah who had inspired the rebellion & ruled the rest. The verb WYYIKKACH "and he took" V.1. is in the singular number - in the Hebrew & Korah at the head of the verse - showing he inspired the revolt. Everywhere it is referred to it is attributed to him. Ps 106:16-17.

THE REVOLT

It was inspired by Korah who gained the support of Dathan, Abiram and On. On, perhaps withdrew V.12. but further support was gained from 250 princes ~~many of whom were~~ from the tribe of Levi vv 8, 10. The rebellion spread from this group of rebels until ultimately 14,700 died V.49.

The censers, or fire-pans, had evidently been manufactured especially for the revolt so that they were ready to take over the priesthood Lev. 10:1,2; 16:12-13. Cp. Num. 16: 37-39.

THE CHILDREN OF KORAH. Num. 26:11

They were saved to become great in Israel, and to rise to prominence in the family of Kohath. Heman the singer, and Samuel the prophet were KoRahites (1 Chron. 6:33-37). The descendants of Heman were organised by David as singers 1 Chron. 15:19. 16:41-42. 25:1,5. Some Psalms were dedicated to the sons of Korah (Ps 42, 44-49, 84, 85 etc). They were gate-keepers 1 Chron. 9:19. 26:19. and bakers for sanctuary, preparing the shewbread and sacrificial cakes. Ch 9:31-32. Thus whilst the father was held in dishonour, the sons rose to fame. CONTRAST Moses. Lev. 10:3. See Ezek. 18:20.

THE TABERNACLE OF KORAH DATHAN & ABIRAM V.24. It appears that they had set up a spacious tabernacle on the [illegible] side of the Tabernacle of Yahweh in the midst of the tents of their families, where they apparently met in council, kept court, & hung out their flag in defiance of Moses. At this headquarters Dathan & Abiram remained whilst Korah & the 250 princes left for the eastern precincts of Yahweh's Tabernacle Vv. 18, 24. to await the issue of their trial. Meanwhile earthquake destroyed the headquarters of the revolt & afterwards fire consumed the princes with the censers V.35. The only way the threatened congregation could escape the Divine judgement was to separate from the guilty parties V.21. MISHKAN Vv 9, 24, 27 is distinguished from OHEL Vv. 18, 19, 42, 48, 50 Read. "tents" 26, 27.

30 But if the LORD [3] make a new thing, and [c] the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they [d] go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men [e] have provoked the LORD.

31 ¶ [f] And it came to pass, as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave asunder that was under them:

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, and [h] all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

33 They, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Israel that were round about them fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

35 And there [i] came out a fire from the LORD, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

THE MEMORIAL OF THE ALTAR. Vv. 36-40.

36 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

37 Speak unto [o] Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning, and scatter thou the fire yonder; for they are hallowed.

38 The censers of these [q] sinners against their own souls, let them make them broad plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the LORD, therefore they are hallowed: [r] and they shall be a sign unto the children of Israel.

THE TWELVE SPIES 211

REUBEN: See a son for he that is impressed shall be Remembered.
SIMEON: Hear, The Judge is becoming the noble.
JUDAH: Praise wholeheartedly, for whom a way is prepared
ISSACHAR: He will reward avenge increase
EPHRAIM: Double fruit, salvation, perpetuity

ZEBULUN: My dwelling and my portion is God in Whom I confide.
JOSEPH: Increasing after forgetting my troop and My home-confidence in truth.
DAN: Judge the people of God who are burden bearers (Camelish).

ASHER: Blessed are the hidden like unto God
NAPHTALI: Those who wrestle in secret shall receive additional reward.
GAD: A troop manifesting the majesty of it shall succeed my pining or poverty.

The names of the spies proclaimed the glory of God, but their actions belied the message they proclaimed. Meanings from Strong or A Dictionary of Scripture Proper Names (C.T.S. Jackson).

Vv 46-48 A striking example of the efficacy of the very priesthood & divine appointment which they had despised. Foreshadowing that of the Lord Jesus.

39 And Eleazar [36] the priest took the brasen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and [b] they were made broad plates for a covering of the altar:

40 To be a memorial unto the children of Israel, [d] that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the LORD; that he be not as Korah, and as his company: as the LORD said to him by the hand of Moses.

41 ¶ But on the morrow all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the LORD.

42 And it came to pass, when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and, behold, [i] the cloud covered it, and [k] the glory of the LORD appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

45 [m] Get you up from among this congregation, that I [n] may consume them [n] as in a moment. And they fell upon their faces.

46 ¶ And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: [p] for there is wrath gone out from the LORD; the plague is begun. See bottom p. 202

FURTHER MURMURING Vv 41-43

The people blamed Moses for the calamity probably on the basis that he falsely accused Korah etc before Yahweh - Thus the Divine vindication that followed.
38. Thus they executed Korah looking upon him as the injured party. See top p. 225.
38A. Not above it as usual, but close upon it to hide the full power of the Theophany Ch. 12:5, 10.
43. Probably in the cloud becoming exceedingly luminous attracting the attention of all causing a moment of dramatic tenseness. All the congregation. This was sin against the Holy Spirit for which there was no forgiveness. Matt. 12:31. Thus the plague commenced See p. 182.

14,700 DESTROYED BY PLAGUE Vv 44-50

44. Israel had not yet learned the lesson of Lev 10:3. They crowded up to Tabernacle with hearts full of anger and complaints against Moses and without that reverent mind and sacrifice in hand that Yahweh had commanded Num. 8:19.
47. The prayers of Moses and Aaron were not sufficient on this occasion - there was a proper procedure to be carried out: Num. 17:11.
47. The smoking incense would doubtless bring all the people into the attitude of prayer Luke 1:10. The Atonement was for sin. Lev 16:11-14 Heb "the censer" The golden censer of Heb 9:4 used on Day of Atonement Lev 16:12 & cp Deut. 9:21
48. Apparently the plague commenced with those nearest the Tabernacle who would have led the revolt and been most belligerent in their attitude. The rebellion seems to have sprung from a blatant disregard of the High office of Moses and Aaron, and the manner in which Yahweh had separated them in Israel.

Aaron's rod among all the rods of the tribes only flourisheth. 10 It is left for a monument against the rebels.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them a rod according to the house of their fathers, of all their princes according to the house of their fathers twelve rods: write thou every man's name upon his rod.

3 And thou shalt write Aaron's name upon the rod of Levi: for one rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle of the congregation before the testimony, [c] where I will meet with you.

5 And it shall come to pass, that the man's rod, [d] whom I shall choose, shall blossom: and I will make to cease from me [e] the murmurings of the children of Israel, [m] whereby they murmur against you.

6 ¶ And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, and every one of their princes gave him [g] a rod apiece, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in [q] the tabernacle of witness.

Aaron's rod that budded (Heb. 9:4).

The principle was that of Divine appointment against the voice of the people, and this was testified through the budding of a dead rod testifying of Resurrection — A beautiful type of Christ whose Divine selection was exhibited beyond all doubt by resurrection Rom.1:3. 1 Cor. 15:15-6.

Never again did Levi attempt to grasp the priesthood or Reuben the Government. The two tribes became entirely parted asunder in their characters and fortunes. The one was incorporated into the innermost circle of the land; the other hovered on its very outskirts.

The selection of Aaron's Name on the rod of Levi was a distinct rejection of the pretensions of the rebellious Levites. The budding of it argued against the rebellious pretensions of the other larger group.

2 ENDORSEMENT OF AARON'S APPOINTMENT BY THE ROD THAT BUDDED

CHAPTER 17

MIRACULOUS BUDDING OF AARON'S STAFF OF OFFICE

A Declaration of the Divine Authority Vested in him.

In what was quite obviously a miracle, the Divine appointment of Aaron was demonstrated beyond all doubt.

A CHALLENGE TO THE MURMURERS. Vv. 1-5

1 Heb. "matteh" = staff or sceptre - the symbol of authority. Ezek. 19:14. Mic. 6:9. The word has been rendered "staff" and very freq. "tribe." It was probably shaped out of the wood of Almond tree which the Hebrews knew as the "WAKING" tree to symbolise the watchfulness of the one bearing the badge of office. Jer. 1:11 occurs Ps. 110:2.

The Levites were kept separate from the other tribes Num. 1:47, their political organisation being different, therefore they rod had to be supplied them.

3. In front of the ark containing the two tables of the Law. Exod. 25:21.

AARON'S STAFF PRODUCES FRUIT. Vv. 6-9.

In murmuring against Aaron & Moses they murmured against Yahweh Who appointed them Cp Exod. 16:8 Acts 9:5.

2. It is significant that Moses was allowed in Tabernacle where normal Levites were not permitted. Num. 18:2. As the type Christ Deut. 18:15. he combined the offices of Ruler and Priest. Moses must have entered the Most Holy after the symbol of Resurrection appeared. Cp. V. 10. Heb. 9:4. Witness = "EDUWTH fem. "ED. Rend. "Testimony" V.4.

Num 21:28. "the lords of" LXX has "swallowed up" reading BALE"AH for BA"ALE. Numb. 22:7. Rewards of DIVINATIONS. No need for "rewards" QECEMIM - Divinations. Perhaps the materials, drugs, etc to help in the incantations.

AARON'S ROD V.10.

Subsequently it was placed in the Ark Heb. 9:4; though by Solomon's time it had disappeared 1 Kg 8:9. This symbol of selection & resurrection was a token "against rebels."

BEAR THE INIQUITY V.1. A person must be circumspect to approach Yahweh Lev 22:9 Yet the priests were given the privilege of doing so on behalf of people who sinned. Gal 6:2:11 NASA has the double sense of enduring and removing or bearing away.

Aaron's Rod - naturally important when severed from the parent tree foreshadowed the miracle of Christ's perfection & resurrection as the Branch Ps 80 4:2; 11:1 Isa 53:2; Jer. 23:5; 33:15; Zech 6:12. Rom. 4:25 2 Cor 5:19

Yielded - GÂMAL - To ripen, mature. See above

There was no possibility of Moses effecting a fraud here overnight for the Almond does not produce buds, blossoms and fruit together. Almond. Heb = Shaked or Awaking Tree, symbol of Resurrection. For the budding of David's power see Ps 132:17. 18. for blooms and fruit Isa 4:2. Political Resurrection of Israel. Ezek 17:24. For fruit out of dry vine Cp. Ezek 19:12 with John 15:1-6.

A TOKEN Vv. 10-11.

3 As Aaron's staff was laid up in Most Holy after symbol of resurrection, so also the Lord Jesus. Heb 6:19.

This remains as a token against Jewish rebels to His authority.

DISMAY IN ISRAEL

4. "Gâwaw" signifies an extreme difficulty in breathing, which producing suffocation ends in death. The people asked if only Aaron could approach the Tabernacle, that meant they were cut off from contact with it and thus doomed. The next chapter provides the answer showing that Aaron was to represent the whole nation.

CHAPTER 18

PRIVILEGES OF PRIESTS REAFFIRMED BY YAHWEH

Having established the authority of the Priesthood in Aaron and his sons, their duties and privileges are again set down before the people.

OFFICERS OF PRIESTS AND LEVITES DEFINED VV. 1-7.

1. "Iniquity" - Heb. "avon" from root "to be bent" or "crooked," i.e. "wrung out of course." Israel's contact with the Sanctuary defiled it which therefore required periodical cleansing - and that was the duty of the High Priest. Lev 16:20. This foreshadowed the work of Yahweh in Christ Heb 9:11. See also note Ex 28:38

2. They also required cleansing Lev. 16:11

3. A play on words - Levi meant "Joining."

4. Assistants to the priests. SHARATH - To attend as ministers. 10:15.

5. This showed Levites that although separated from rest tribes and joined to the priests, they were still dependent upon ministrations of latter. Nor could the priests arrogate themselves, for they had to "bear their iniquity" So all were humbled before Yahweh.

5A Cp 1 Tim. 1:18 See top. A 213.

The priesthood was identified with the people as Christ was with believers by bearing their nature. See. Num. 16:3 1 Jn 1 Isa 53:6, 11; Heb 13:17. 1 Pet. 2:24.

"THOU SHALT KEEP THE CHARGE"

MISHMERETH fem. of MISHMAR - Guard, watch, act as sentry, post, preserve. Thus a military term. Cp. Song 3:7; 1 Tim. 1:18. Cf. EZEK. 44:7.

THE INTERIM. CH. 15. With the rejection of the 2nd generation Israel entered into a period of wilderness wanderings that lasted some 38 years. Deut. 2:14. Little is known of what took place. Circumcision was not practised Josh 5:2-8; the Passover was not celebrated Josh. 5:10. Stephen declared "God gave them up..." Acts 7:42; Ps. 81:12. And that the people gave themselves to sportsory Acts 7:43-43; Amos 5:25-26. Nevertheless, the new generation was educated by trip during that same time Deut. 8:2-3. 8 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Behold, [s] I also have given thee the charge of mine heave offerings of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them [u] by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons, [w] by an ordinance for ever. Lev 7:34-36

9 This shall be thine of [a] the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of their's, every [c] meat offering of their's, and every [d] sin offering of their's, and every [e] trespass offering of their's, which they shall render unto me, shall be [a] most holy for thee and for thy sons.

14 [n] Every thing devoted in Israel shall be thine.

15 [o] Every thing that openeth the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless [r] the firstborn of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed from a month old shalt thou redeem, [t] according to thine estimation, for the money of [t] five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, [x] which is twenty gerahs.

17 [z] But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem; they are holy: [b] thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the LORD.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the [f] wave breast and as the right shoulder are thine.

19 [h] All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters

THE PARABLE OF THE PRIESTHOOD

Though a holy people Israel were denied contact with the Tabernacle Num. 17:12-13. they looked to the Levites to that end, for upon them they placed their hands at their Consecration Num. 8:9-10. The Levites in turn looked to the Priests — the Priests to the High Priest, and he, in turn, to the Blood of the Atonement Lev. 16:2-3.

with thee, by a statute for ever: "it is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee.

20 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part and thine inheritance among the children of Israel. See below

21 And, behold, [c] I have given the children of Levi all the tenth in Israel for an inheritance, for their service which they serve, even [d] the service of the tabernacle of the congregation. See Summary bottom p. 280

22 [f] Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, [g] lest they bear sin, [3] and die.

23 But the Levites [i] shall do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and [k] they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, that among the children of Israel they have no inheritance.

24 But the tithes of the children of Israel, which [l] they offer as an heave offering unto the LORD, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, [o] Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up an heave offering of it for the LORD, even [r] a tenth part of the tithe.

27 [s] And this your heave offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the corn of the threshingfloor, and as the fulness of the winepress.

28 Thus ye also shall offer an heave offering unto the LORD of all your tithes, which ye receive of the children of Israel; and ye shall give thereof the LORD's heave offering to Aaron the priest.

29 Out of all your gifts ye shall offer every heave offering of the LORD, of all the [2] best thereof, even the hallowed part thereof out of it.

30 Therefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye have heaved the [2] best thereof from it, [e] then it shall be counted unto the Levites as the increase of the threshingfloor, and as the increase of the winepress.

31 And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households: for it is [h] your reward for your service in the tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And ye shall [i] bear no sin by reason of it, when ye have heaved from it the best of it: neither shall ye [m] pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

1 Water of separation made of the ashes of a red heifer. 11 Law for the use of it in purification.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, [p] and upon which never came yoke:

3 And ye shall give her unto Eleazar the priest, that he may bring her [q] forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face:

4 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood with his finger, and [r] sprinkle of her blood

Red for sin, "without blemish" without personal transgression. The Law in relation to the offering of this heifer concerned defilement through death. — touching a dead body. It was a curing of the effects of death through death. The Antitype Heb. 2:14.

1. Thousands had died through the plague. Ch. 17:49 many thousands would be defiled by contact with death — thus the provision of this Law at this stage.

2. Typical of Christ's offering Heb. 9:13 A heifer probably to denote purity — being a virgin animal. Gp to Gen 3:6

3. Usually used to subdue its wild nature and compel subjection. Christ voluntarily subjected himself. Heb. 10:9

4. "All hath helped" The High Priest to come.

PARABLE OF RED HEIFER. 2114

- Under control of the High Priest elect but slain by another in his sight V3. fulfilled by Christ, Rome + Israel.
- Covenant confirmed in its blood V.4.
- Priest clean at the even - fulfilled by Christ as the evening of Judah's Commonwealth. V.7.
- The one who slays it apparently burns it - it is adjudged unclean until even. Fulfilled at evening of Christ's return. V.8.
- A clean man gathers up the ashes — the gatherer V.9.

- One defiled by death is subject to a twofold cleansing: on the 3rd + 7th day I. V. 12.
- As a community offering appropriate for Yahweh's Bride. A heifer denotes virginity, a female implies submissiveness, but also "first in the transgression." 1 Tim 2:9-15.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LEVITES vv. 25-32.

Despite the privileged position of Levites, they, in turn, were dependent upon the priests, and thus were also commanded to pay tithes 23 In the wilderness they received the tithes of animal increase, but in the land that which was grown as well.. see Note under Discrepancies p. 298.

V.20 "Thine inheritance" — As one of the 12 tribes, they were to have certain cities + suburbs, but not in one place like the other tribes Josh. 14:4. They were to erect the portable of strangers + pilgrims in the midst of Israel.

See Note bottom p. 214 The paying of tithes was to be witnessed at a solemn offering to Yahweh.

NO INHERITANCE IN LAND v.20

16 Note that this said just after they were turned back from Land, showing that although that generation had failed, Yahweh's purpose had not. The anti-type see Heb. 11:13; 13:14.

7 Lit. "Tithe." Of all the Tithe Levi received, they had to pay back a Tithe to Priests See V 28. Cp Neh. 10:37; 12:44.

8 The fate of Korah was a warning Ch. 17. that Yahweh's instructions must be obeyed.

9 All Israel had contact with the Sanctuary through the Levites for at their consecration, they placed their hands on them. Num 8:9-10. Thus the Levites represented all Israel.

For special sacrifices of Levites and induction service see Num 8:5-19. Cp Num. 18:1.

20 They were to rely upon Yahweh exclusively for their sustenance and were thus an object lesson for all Israel v.20. - Ps. 16:5-6. They studied and expounded the Law Lev. 10:11. Deut. 24:8), acting as its judges Deut. 17:9. They were given 48 cities throughout Israel. Num. 35:2-8. See Note bottom p. 250

DEATH IS A NEGATION OF THE DIVINE PURPOSE Ps.36:9. Acts 17:25. Ps.104:30.
The tragedy of Korah's rebellion was used to teach the purpose of salvation in the ordinance of the Red Heifer. Here was one sacrifice efficacious for thousands and continued to cleanse after the immediate requirements had been satisfied, keeping them in a "clean place" to be used as required V.9.

THE UNCLEANNESS was imputed not actual, but it cut a man off from contact with Tabernacle. Lev. 15:31 cf Rev 21:27. and thus showed that his natural state was one of hopelessness.

THE CLEANSING: was not only ceremonial but physical. There was washing involved V.19. This was a good health rule, but it was more than that. The uncleanness associated with death taught the close relationship between sin & death. The individual's death was not the result of his sin, but being subject to death was part of the penalty of sin Gen. 3:19.

DEATH PREVALENT (in 3 days)
If 600,000 men over 20 died in the wilderness in 40 years and an equal number of women did likewise it would represent 30,000 deaths a year or nearly 86 per day. If only the men died it would be over 160 per day. Thus the ashes of the heifer were constantly required and the bones of Israelites were strewn through the wilderness. 1 Cor. 10:5.

28 V.13. The uncleanness of death was not simply a personal matter it involved, if not duly purged, the whole congregation for whoever made contact was defiled - so it would effect the very worship of the Tabernacle. The defilement is often excommunication, whilst the offender made himself liable to the direct visitation of Yahweh. See Index "Cut off" & compare with Lev 15:31

MIRIAM (the prophetess Ex. 15:20), AARON (the priest) MOSES (Lawgiver): stand pre-eminently for the old Covenant. The death of Miriam and of Aaron on the very eve of entering the land, and the failure of Moses, taught that the Law, the Prophets or the Priesthood could not lead into the promised rest, and it was left to Joshua, the Jesus of the times (Yahoshua) to do so.

DENIED ENTRANCE TO LAND OF PROMISE

Provoked beyond measure by the rebellion of the people after 40 yrs from Egypt Moses is led to act and speak unadvisedly against Yahweh and is denied entrance to the Land

6 The large concourse of people suddenly making demands on the Oasis at Kadesh probably caused a failure of water. This perhaps induced by Yahweh Who thus tried His people Ps. 81:7.
7 They were probably excited at the prospect of soon entering Land of Promise, but now complete disaster threatens. They doubtless recalled the end of previous generation and feared less they suffer a like fate. 1 Cor 10:10-11.
10 No word for "God" in Heb.
13 This is ever the cry of despair, lack of faith and of impatience. Senseless + Unreasonable.

Moses Punishment

This is not so great as is sometimes supposed. He died full of strength Deut. 34:7. He was spared the gradual decline of his powers, the subordinate position he would have to take, the pain of seeing the uncompleted mission. His death taught a powerful lesson showing Israel that the temporary possession of land was not reward He has in store for His faithful. Heb. 11:26. Moses saw the Land afar off Deut. 34:1-4. Num 21:1. ATHARIM

This is not the usual word for "spies" but is the plural for "steps" or "places". The site is unknown, but evidently the Israelites were moving out from Kadesh Barnea via Beersheba and Arad towards the south of the Dead

MT HOR. It was on the boundary of Edom Num. 20:23; 33:37, the halting place next after Kadesh 20:22; 33:37. and they quitted it for Zalmonah 33:41 on the road to the Red Sea 21:4. "There is a mountain that fully meets the requirements of the Bible... That mountain is Jebel Madurah (about 15m. NE of Kadesh). It is near the western extremity of Wady Feqreh, a little to the southwest of the passes es-Sufah and el-Yemen. Its formation, its location, its name go to identify it with the place of Aaron's burial. There is even a smack of local tradition in its favour... In its location, Jebel Madurah stands at a triangular site, where the boundaries of Edom, of Canaan, and the Wilderness of Zin meet. If not the extremest NW boundary of Edom, yet it is not within in that boundary line. It is on the very verge of the land of Promise, yet it is not within the outer limits of that land" (Trumbull, "Kadesh-barnea" p. 179. quoted by Unger). In Deut. 10:6 It is identified with Mosera KADESH-BARNEA. Called also En-Mishpat or well of Judgment Gen. 14:7. and Meribah, Strife Num. 20:13. Judgment on Spies, Korah + Miriam took place here Num. 20:1. Identified with "Ain Kadeis some 70 miles south Hebron. "With the region S or E on. north also well watered, Israel acquired the most fruitful part of the Sinai Peninsula" Unger.

A SHOUT OF JOY!

Israel turned the southern corner of the Idumean range at the head of the Gulf of Elath, and skirting the eastern border of Edom marched north to the range of forest and pasture lands on the East of Jordan. As they neared the Promised Land, the excitement of the people grew and their joy found expression in poems of triumph and happiness, three of which are recorded in this chapter. 3A Whilst the Israelites moved along their eastern & north-eastern border, the Moabites supplied them with provisions Deut. 2:29, perhaps desiring to be rid of them, but not disdaining to make some profit of them. But the sudden defeat & overthrow of their own Amorite conquerors by the Israelites Num. 21:25-26, filled them with terror, and forced them to take some action though they dared not commence open hostilities. They first sought allies.

THE ADVERSARY — The dreadful appearance of the Angel on the way, the desperate resistance of the terrified animal, the furious determination of the Prophet to advance, the voice which breaks from the dumb animal that has saved his life, all heighten the expectation of the message he is to deliver. The Ass (symbolic of Israel) would see invisible presence of Yahweh 2Pet 2:16

Balaam must have known that Yahweh's blessing was with Israel Josh. 2:9-11, but contrary to Yahweh he sought to curse the people.

BALAAM OFFERED GREATER WEALTH AND HONOR TO CURSE ISRAEL Vv15-21.

Having suppressed the fact that there was no possibility of a curse against Israel, Balaam had left the way open for this second approach.

17. Balak thought it was merely the matter of the reward.

18. See note. V.11.

15 ¶ And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

16 And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the son of Zippor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me:

REBUKED BY THE ASS. Vv. 28-30.

For Apostolic comment see 2 Pet. 2:16.

23. The astonishment of Balaam at the ass speaking is not expressed, but doubtless was very evident. As a sorcerer, he lived in an atmosphere of superstition, so that his astonishment would not be so manifest as otherwise would have been the case Cp V. 31.

28 And the LORD opened the mouth of the ass, and she said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29 And Balaam said unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.

30 And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay.

Not because he believed but because he had been visited and warned.

19. Sept. eliminates this word. It could be that Balaam was claiming Yahweh among the Elohim he worshipped. He may have claimed to be in touch with Yahweh equally with gods of all nations. This statement does not necessarily imply that he was a true worshipper.

20. Note the conditions Vv21-22. The princes & servants went with him. The princes may have moved ahead but his 2 servants were with him when the ass spoke.

22. He did not wait for the conditions to be fulfilled. His avarice 2 Pet 2:15-16 got the better of him. Balaam's action justified the Angelic accusation of V.32.

BALAAM'S INVISIBLE ADVERSARY. Vv. 22-27.

The anger of Yahweh was manifest in the awful presence of the Angel with drawn sword. Balaam's life was saved through the action of the Ass. In like manner Yahweh can invisibly manipulate circumstances for our benefit Rom. 8:28. All this constituted a warning to Balaam to proclaim only the words of Yahweh. V.20.

times: unless she had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive.

34 And Balaam said unto the angel of the LORD, [b]I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: now therefore, if it [2]displease thee, I will get me back again.

35 And the angel of the LORD said unto Balaam, Go with the men: [f]but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak. So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 ¶ And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him unto a city of Moab, which is [h]in the border of Arnon, which is in the utmost coast.

37 And Balak said unto Balaam, Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? wherefore camest thou not unto me? am I not able indeed [i]to promote thee to honour?

38 And Balaam said unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto thee: have I now any power at all to say any thing? [k]the word that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speak.

39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came unto [l]Kirjath-huzoth.

40 And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the [m]high places of Baal, that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

CHAPTER 23

1 Balaam's multitudinous Altars in the City of Streets Num 22:39. Thwarted by wisdom of Yahweh Isa. 17:7.

AND Balaam said unto Balak, [n]Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven oxen and seven rams.

2 And Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam [a]offered on every altar a bullock and a ram.

3 And Balaam said unto Balak, [o]Stand by thy burnt offering, and I will go: peradventure the LORD will come [d]to meet me: and whatsoever he sheweth me I will tell thee. And [3]he went to an high place.

4 [e]And God met Balaam: and he said unto him, I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ram.

5 And the LORD [g]put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return unto Balak, and thus thou shalt speak.

6 And he returned unto him, and, lo, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 And he [i]took up his parable, and said, [p]Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from Aram, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come, [q]curse me Jacob, and come, [r]defy Israel.

8 How shall I [s]curse, whom God hath not [s]cursed? or how shall I defy, whom the LORD hath not defied?

9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, [t]the people shall dwell alone, and [u]shall not be reckoned among the nations.

10 [v]Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let [w]me die [x]the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his!

11 And Balak said unto Balaam, What hast thou done unto me? I took thee [y]to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast blessed them altogether.

12 And he answered and said, [z]Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balak said unto him,

= BALAAM. = His home is beyond the Euphrates among the mountains of Mesopotamia (Num. 22:5. 23:7. 24:6.) But his fame is known across the Assyrian desert, throughout the Arabian tribes, down to the very shores of the Dead Sea. He ranks as a warrior chief with the five Kings of Midian Num. 31:8. He is regarded throughout the whole of the East as a Prophet whose blessing or curse was irresistible, the rival, and possible conqueror of Moses. Stanley.

20. MISH'OWL - narrow path. The vineyard, wall etc. shews that he was approaching a city, no doubt the goal of his journey.

21 Crouched - as in Gen. 49.

22. Balaam knew his heart and realised how much he had sinned. Heb. "chata" - see Note. Gen. 13:13.

23. Yahweh overrides evil for good. Balaam did not keep to this, and was destroyed Num. 31:8.

25. "Unto Ir-Moab," probably "Ar" the boundary town at the time Num. 21:15. The Israelites were north of Ar and the Arnon at the time.

26. A vain boast, particularly in view of the fact that Balak was in fear of losing his own Kingdom. The flesh always thus boasts. The memory & fear of the angel was still in his mind.

BALAAM ACKNOWLEDGES HIS SIN

PISGAH (V.14. Num. 21:20. Deut. 3:27. 4:49. 34:1) The headland of the rugged Abarim range in Jordan (Moab), breaking through the ridge and skirting the N.E. end of the Dead Sea by Jericho Deut. 34:1. slightly N.W. of Nebo, which is it's highest summit. It has been identified as Jebel Siyaghah. Of the view from this point, Dr. Smith (Hist. Geog. p563) writes: "The whole of the Jordan valley is now open to you, from Engedi, beyond which the mist become impenetrable, to where on the north, the hills of Gilead seem to meet those of Ephraim. The Jordan flows below. Jericho is visible beyond. Over Gilead, it is said, Hermon can be seen in clear weather, but the heat hid it from us. The view is almost that described as the last on which the eyes of Moses rested, the higher hills of West Palestine shutting out all possibility of the sight of the (Mediterranean) sea."

Perhaps the view of only a very little of it might change the situation. In his superstition, he probably imagined that viewing the camp from a different perspective might bring a better result. Cf Mic. 6:5.

On his left were the red mountains of Edom and Seir: opposite were the dwelling-places of the Kenite, in the rocky fastnesses of Engedi; further still was the dim outline of the Arabian wilderness where ruled the then powerful tribe of Amalek; immediately below him lay the vast encampment of Israel among the acacia groves of Abel-Shittim — like the water courses of the mountains, like the hanging gardens beside his own river Euphrates, with their aromatic shrubs, and their wide-spreading cedars. Beyond them on the western side of Jordan rose the hills of Palestine, with glimpses through their valleys of ancient cities towering on their crested heights. And beyond all, though he could not see it with his bodily vision, he knew well that there rolled the deep waters of the great sea, with the Isles of Greece, the Isle of Chittim — a world of which the first beginnings of life were stirring of which the very name here first breaks upon our ears. the happiness of Israel.

falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

5 How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob, and thy tabernacles, O Israel!

6 As the valleys are they spread forth, as gardens by the river's side, as the trees of lign aloes which the LORD hath planted, and as cedar trees beside the waters.

7 He shall pour the water out of his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters, and his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.

8 God brought him forth out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength of an unicorn: he shall eat up the nations his enemies, and shall break their bones, and pierce them through with his arrows.

9 He couched, he lay down as a lion, and as a great lion: who shall stir him up? Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.

10 ¶ And Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he smote his hands together: and Balak said unto Balaam, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and, behold, thou hast altogether blessed them these three times.

11 Therefore now flee thou to thy place: I thought to promote thee unto great honour; but, lo, the LORD hath kept thee back from honour.

12 And Balaam said unto Balak, Spake I not also to thy messengers which thou sentest unto me, saying,

13 If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the commandment of the LORD, to do either good or bad of mine own mind; but what the LORD saith, that will I speak?

14 And now, behold, I go unto my people: come therefore, and I will advertise thee what this people shall do to thy people in the latter days.

The Star of Jacob.

15 ¶ And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor hath said, and the man whose eyes are open hath said:

16 He hath said, which heard the words of God, and knew the knowledge of the most High, which saw the vision of the Almighty, falling into a trance, but having his eyes open:

17 I shall see him, but not now: I shall behold him, but not nigh: there shall come a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and shall smite the corners of Moab, and destroy all the children of Sheth.

18 And Edom shall be a possession, Seir also shall be a possession for his enemies; and Israel shall do valiantly.

19 Out of Jacob shall come he that shall have dominion, and shall destroy him that remaineth of the city.

20 ¶ And when he looked on Amalek, he took up his parable, and said, Amalek was the first of the nations; but his latter end shall be that he perish for ever.

21 And he looked on the Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwellingplace, and thou puttest thy nest in a rock.

22 Nevertheless the Kenite shall be wasted, until Asshur shall carry thee away captive.

23 And he took up his parable, and said, Alas, who shall live when God doeth this!

24 And ships shall come from the coast of Chittim, and shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber, and he also shall perish for ever.

25 And Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place: and Balak also went his way.

"TENTS (Ohalim) of Jacob and tabernacles (Mishkenoth) of Israel" V.5 — 223

Ohel = a tent or dwelling as clearly conspicuous from a distance (Ch) from a root 'ahal, to be clear, or shine. So the dwelling of Jacob in the land will testify of Yahweh's goodness Zech. 8: 13, 23 Jer. 33:9. Used in sense of covering. Ps

Mishkan is from a root, shâkan, to dwelling and relates to a permanent abode, in which Yahweh will dwell. Used for Tabernacle proper, and Temple.

The Valleys, V.6. Nachalim — Water courses or torrents which pour down in parallel courses from the upper slopes. The channels of the water of life Zech. 14:8. Ps. 104:10. Israel's tents are spread out - indicative of a numerous people.

MOAB V.17. See Note top p. 1160. Pertaining to a father Jhn 8:44. A man of the flesh - here allied to Midianite or Arabs - as the next will be at the time here indicated.

KENITES V.22 (Heb. Kainee) Jethro - that Midian Exod 3:1. then in alliance with Moab III. The Kenites stood aside from them as they did later from apostate Israel Cp. Deut 33:18-19. They were Yahweh's purchased people. from qânâh (Kanah) Heb. redeemed Neh. 5:8 Cp. Exod. 15:9 Num. 10:29

AGAG (Gog LXX) Str. flame, i.e. the fiery one, or the lofty one. = Aggag. King of Amalekites, related to Kohmites. The first of the nations. Num. 24:20. defeated by Joshua Exod. 17:8-16. to be destroyed for ever Exod. 17:16. Agag was spared by Saul, but destroyed by Samuel, the warrior priest 1 Sam. 15: 8, 32-33.

Haman the Agagite - typical of the flesh in personal and political manifestation Est. 3:1; 8:3, 5; 9:24. destroyed by Mordecai.

TITLES OF YAHWEH V.16 - Strength; Dominion (Most High); Redeemer/Destroyer.

HIS BUCKETS V.7. Roth footnote "According to the Massoretic pointing: "his two buckets." Israel after the flesh and spirit will distribute the water of life. Cp Zech. 14:20-21. EZEK. 48:19. For the use of the metaphor see Isa. 48:1

CEDAR V.6. Heb. 'erez (ch-rez) from 'ârar, to be firm indicating the tenacity of its roots. Cp Hos. 14:5.

TREES — Ps. 104:16; 148; 96:11; 19:6; 92:12; Ezek. 31:4-14; 47:12; Song 4:12-15; 6:11; Isa. 5:9; 11; Jer. 31:12.

3 Prostrate to the ground. "Falling down and having his eyes open" (RV). In such a position, he did not see contemporary Israel, so his description is that of the future.

4 Well ordered, beautifully set out - Ps. 1.

5 Sept: "As tents which Yahweh hath pitched." Heb. "Ohalim." Same word translated "tents" V. 5. Cp Ps. 104:16.

6 Not only of handsome appearance, but the wood is most durable, and considered incorruptible if preserved. See above.

7 Plentiful supply of water. It was drawn out of wells by buckets. For spiritual import see. Jhn 4:10-14.

8 Symbolic of nations. Jer. 51:13. Rev. 17:1. Sept. "he (i.e. the seed) shall rule over many nations."

9 Sept: Gog. Cp. Exod. 17:16. Cp Ps. 2:1.

12 Fulfilling the Abrahamic Covenant.

20 'eythan - to continue, permanence. Roth. "Enduring" Cp. Jer. 35:18-19.

21 Heb. Bly 'im (Beeem) can have the force of a negative question: "Kain shall surely not be wasted." Shall not be completely destroyed, shall be taken into captivity. Thus the next question. See Marg. Roth: "How long shall Assyria hold thee captive."

20 Cont. Heb. sâwm - "put" i.e. put down, bring to pass. Roth: "Who shall survive its fulfilment by God."

BALAAM'S ANGER V.10

Balaam thus betrayed his trust. Cp Num. 31:8. Rev. 2:14.

CHAPTER 24

1. They were useless against Israel Num. 23:23.

2. Familiar Spirit Deut. 18:10-14. Acts 16:16. RV: "to practise Enchantments" - Heb. Nâchash pl. to hiss, i.e. as the root of Nâchâsh Serpent. Cp Note. Gen 3:1.

2 Râ'âh - to see. Cp châzâh V.4. Like the Serpent "the saw" perceived but his eyes were closed to spiritual realities.

3RD PARABLE: THE GOODNESS, EXALTATION, VICTORY & BLESSING OF ISRAEL. Vv. 3-9.

3 Not as Israel thought was.

4 Shâ'tham - unveiled Cp V. 15. But this was covered "shuttith" in Gen 3:15. and endorsed by Satan under the word sâkal Gen 3:6. His eyes were opened but his spiritual vision was not clear. See Note VII. "saw" Israel, for had been opened to his words were petrified by the physical sight of his eyes remained, as it was. RV = "was closed."

5 Châzâh - To gaze mentally to perceive contemplatively with pleasure.

6 Cp Ps. 1:3; 72:16; Jhn 15:5 As trees overhanging on watercourses.

THE ECCLESIA V.8 Egypt - Mitsrayim from mâtsar to hem in, wound, besiege, distress. Israel was brought out of the hand of slavery to sin and death as the Ecclesia in the Wilderness. Cp Deut. 5:15. Acts 7:38.

"PIERCE WITH HIS ARROWS" Heb. mâchats, to dash asunder, to crush, smash or violently plunge. fig. to subdue or destroy. Roth: "the loins of him he crusheth." Arrows - chets = piercer. Crush them with his piercer, or horns. He will treat the 4th beast as it has treated others Dan. 7:7.

10 Ya'ats - advise, counsel, deliberate. This prophecy resulted in the evil counsel of Num 31:16.

4TH PARABLE - THE STAR OUT OF JACOB. Vv. 15-24.

11. Lit. "The end of the days." Denotes a definite period. Gen 49:1. Deut. 4:30. Isa. 2:2. Jer. 23:20; 30:24. Ezek. 38:16. Dan. 10:14.

12 "Shetham" - shut. But Yahweh had opened them cf V.4 where word is "gâlâh" - open. See margin V.3 R.V: "was closed."

13. He was prostrate of the ground. Yâda' = "and Knowing" Yâda' = To know by seeing, careful observation of facts. In this case the revelation = the vision.

14 Luke 1:78. 2 Pet. 1:19. Rev. 2:28. Rev. 22:16. Luke 1:32-33. Cp Gen. 49:10. Ps. 2:6; 110:2; Isa. 9:7; 11:1, 10.

15. There is a latter day Moab (Britain) Jer. 48:42-47 who shall be smitten Isa. 11 and humbled under Messiah See More below. Cp 23rd Note. 8:12.

17 Kar'kar" - Subdue. R.V. = "break down." Dictionary & Davis gives meaning of word here as "tumult" and R.V. has rendered it as such. Ps. 60:8 Rev. 11:18. Roth: "the tumultuous." Cp Ps. 72:9-11.

18. All mankind. Isa. 60:12. Obad. 21. Ps 60:8-12; 110:1-7.

19. Babylon the great. Rev. 16:19. of which Petra was a type. Ps. 60:9. Isa. 26:1-5; 63:1.

20. Most powerful within the sight of Balaam. Cp V. 7. (Agag was title assumed by Amalekite Kings 1 Sam. 15:7, 8. Est. 3:1; 7:9-10. 9:24 Cp Exod. 17:16. 21 & Ex. 17:14. 1 Sam 15:3, 8.

Sig. "My purchase" a Heb. - "Kainee" But see Jud. 1:16

23. Play on words. Heb. "Kain". Allusion is to eagle which forms its nest among the inaccessible rocks and mountains. The metaphor suggests security - secured by dwelling among Israelites - but "fleshly" Israel were to be humbled. Jud. 1:16

24 One of sons Japhet whose posterity according to Josephus. Ant. 1:3 c. 2:2 settled in Cilicia, Macedonia, Cyprus, & Italy. Italians probably referred to here. see Dan. 11:30 Cp Matt. 24:15.

1 The Israelites' whoredom and idolatry with Moab. 6 Phinehas killeth Zimri and Cozbi.

AND Israel abode in [b] Shittim, and [c] the people began to commit whoredom with the daughters of Moab.

2 [c] And they [f] called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods.

3 And Israel [g] joined himself unto [k] Baal-peor: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel.

4 And the LORD said unto Moses, [m] Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before the LORD against the sun, [n] that the fierce anger of the LORD may be turned away from Israel.

5 And Moses said unto [o] the judges of Israel, [p] Slay ye every one his men that were joined unto [k] Baal-peor.

6 ¶ And, behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were [s] weeping before the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 And [u] when Phinehas, [x] the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from among the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand;

8 And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly. So [z] the plague was stayed from the children of Israel.

They were thus for some days in the grim depression which normally offers extremely little food or water, and closed in by barren steep mountains. A little north of Ezion-geber they could turn east and cross over to where the Wadi el Yutm opens a pass in the hostile mountains not unlike something spelt Wadi Ithm). This is a gloomy defile squeezed to narrow proportions by precipitous, harsh granite mountains. "Gradually, the wadi grows smaller as the hills encroached upon us until we were surrounded by queer, crooked mountains, crumpled & fissured ... I had never seen such an extraordinary landscape before..." Your Guide to Jordan. N. Nelson.

THE BRASEN SERPENT 21:9. was in resemblance the same as those that brought death — but was inoperative Heb. 2:14. The people looked at it at the invitation of Yahweh's Word, & learned thereby what they should do Gal. 3:24. They saw a figure of him John 3:14-15. who came in the likeness of sinful flesh, and as a sacrifice of sin condemned sin in the flesh. Num. 8:7. Cp 2 Cor. 5:21. Gal. 3:13. The eye of faith fixed on him perceived the method of redemption — crucifixion of self.

FIERY SERPENTS. The Echu Coloratus, Ank, with black encircled white patches. - "Portrait of a desert" "The venom of Echis is more potent, weight for weight, than in any other viper; it is notorious for being aggressive & easily provoked & is described as "bad tempered", whereas most of the large vipers are placid & the bite is usually fatal but death usually takes several days — enabling Moses time to prepare the cure. "The injection of this venom does not always cause intense pain but the internal destruction goes on steadily. The victim may even feel better for a time but after a severe bite left untreated, the process continues until death" G.

ISRAEL DECREASED IN NUMBER.

In preparing to enter the land Israel was numbered that each person might pay the necessary ransom. Exod. 30:12. It was found that whereas they had multiplied rapidly in Egypt, they had decreased in the wilderness wandering, so that fewer entered the land than left through the Red Sea. For the reason see Job 12:9, 10, 14, 21.

THE SUM OF ISRAEL Vv. 1 - 51

GILEAD V.29. his mother
Gilead was the son of Machir. From 1 Chr. 7:14, it appears that she was a stranger from Aram, the country of Laban. This was perhaps the reason why he was called Gilead - for it was the border established by agreement between Laban and Jacob. It probably explains the subsequent allotment of territory in that direction to the Machirites Num. 32:40. See reference to Gilead's family in Jud. 11:2.

"SHOUT OF A KING" 23:21. TERUWAH - same word as "blowing" Lev. 23:24 or for Jubile Lev. 25:9.

NUM. 23:23. Enchantment (divination both relate to consulting God by signs + omens. NACHASH - to hiss (learn by experience Gen. 30:27) has to do with the flight of bird. Divination (QESEM - a lot) refers to the casting of lots by arrows Ezek. 21:21. Balaam could use no such auguries to help him.

DESCENDANTS OF BENJAMIN Vv. 38-41.

226 • The list of Genesis names 10, of whom, however, we learn from above V. 40 that two were grandsons.
• These formed 7 families, five named after sons, two after grandsons. The list in Gen. 46:21 contains ten names, three are omitted and some of the others changed in form. Evidently these omitted died out as families in the wilderness.
• Whilst Becher is given as the 2nd son in Gen. 46:21; 1 Chron. 7:6 he is not mentioned here nor in 1 Chron 8. However a Becher is mentioned among the Ephraimites Num. 26:35. Perhaps by marriage the family was at that time, for purpose of inheritance + possession, reckoned with Ephraim, though blood descendants of Benjamin. The "family of Bechrites" V. 35 would then comprise descendants of Ephraim + Benjamin.
• 1 Sam. 9:1-2 omits Ashbel, but includes Jediael (Knowing God). Perhaps Jediael was a descendant of Ashbel who distinguished himself in some remarkable way, so that the family was named after him. Ashbel is included as a son in 1 Chr. 8:11. He could have come into prominence in the days of David. 1 Chron. 7:2.
• 1 Chr. 8:1-2 gives 5 sons to Benjamin, as above. Aharah instead of Ahiram; and Nohah + Rapha instead of Shupham + Hupham. Perhaps they were variations of the names. Shupham, Serpent-like becomes Nohah - quietness. Hupham - Protection, becomes Rapha - Giant, Invigorating.
• Summary
• Genesis - those who went into Egypt.
• Numbers - families that remained after 40 yrs
• 1 Chron 7 - Those prominent in David's day.
• 1 Chron 8 - Genealogy leading to Saul.

30 One name is missing from Gen 46:17 / 1 Chr. 7: 30-31 - Ishua. Perhaps his family become extinct.

2 INHERITANCE ACCORDING TO LOT Vv. 52-56.

6 The lot apparently determined the position the tribe was to occupy, and not the size of the cantonment which was decided by the size of the tribe, though the inheritance of each family was also established by lot. Josh. 17:5. 19:51. [j] Num. 27:21. This was supervised by the Priest acting in conjunction with Urim and Thummim Num. 27:21. 1 Sam. 14:41-5. Note the expressions used. Josh. 18:11. 19:1. 19:17. All that were numbered at Sinai were numbered for victory & an inheritance, but rebellion & sin made this second numbering necessary. CHAPTER 27

LAW OF INHERITANCE CLARIFIED Vv. 1-11.

As Israel was about to exchange a nomadic existence for the inheritance of Yahweh in the Land, there was a need to impress the law of inheritances. The unusual case of the daughters of Zelophehad helped to clarify the matter.

It showed that in the matter of inheritance, the daughters assumed the right of sons. V. 8. Cp Gal 3:28.

MOSES' IMPENDING DEATH

The explanatory note V.14 would appear to be quite unnecessary except to emphasise the point + illustrate the type (Rom. 8:13; Heb. 11:28) for succeeding generations. This appears to be the spirit of the whole transaction. Moses makes no plea to enter the land but only for a successor to act as shepherd to the people. He thus reveals himself to be somewhat indifferent - dauntless recognising that the rewards of faith will be his Heb. 11:26 and the significance of the type + the importance of the lesson to succeeding generations.

WHY SHOULD INSTRUCTION ON SACRIFICIAL OFFERINGS BE HERE INCLUDED?

Like the rite of circumcision (Josh. 5:5), it seems that many of the daily and yearly offerings were omitted during the desert-sojourn. Offering of firstfruits Num. 28:26. Tabernacles Lev. 23:39 were governed by the harvest - so inappropriate in desert. Thus the need for re-instruction as a preparation to entering the land. See p. 207.

Monthly sacrifices varied in Ezek. 46:6-7

1 Offerings to be observed. 3 The continual burnt offering. 9 The offering on the sabbath, 11 the new moons, 16 the passover, 26 and day of firstfruits.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, My offering, and my bread for my sacrifices made by fire, for a sweet savour unto me, shall ye observe to offer unto me in their due season.

3 And thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD; two lambs of the first year without spot day by day, for a continual burnt offering.

4 The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb shalt thou offer at even;

5 And a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a meat offering, mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil.

6 It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in mount Sinai for a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

7 And the drink offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin for the one lamb: in the holy place shalt thou cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink offering.

8 And the other lamb shalt thou offer at even: as the meat offering of the morning, and as the drink offering thereof, thou shalt offer it, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD.

9 ¶ And on the sabbath day two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, and the drink offering thereof:

10 This is the burnt offering of every sabbath, beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

11 ¶ And in the beginnings of your months ye shall offer a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, seven lambs of the first year without spot;

12 And three tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, for one bullock; and two tenth deals of flour for a meat offering, mingled with oil, for one ram;

13 And a several tenth deal of flour mingled with oil for a meat offering unto one lamb; for a burnt offering of a sweet savour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

14 And their drink offerings shall be half an hin of wine unto a bullock, and the third part of an hin unto a ram, and a fourth part of an hin unto a lamb: this is the burnt offering of every month throughout the months of the year.

15 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering unto the LORD shall be offered, beside the continual burnt offering, and his drink offering.

16 And in the fourteenth day of the first month is the passover of the LORD.

17 And in the fifteenth day of this month is the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.

18 In the first day shall be an holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work therein:

19 But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt offering unto the LORD; two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without blemish:

MONTHLY — Additional 7 Lambs, 2 young bullocks, one ram, one Kid of goats for sin offering. Trumpets sounded

YEARLY — 14th day of first month - PASSOVER. 7 weeks later — FIRST-FRUITS or Pentecost (Lev. 23:15-16). 7th Month. 1st day - blowing of trumpets. 10th Day - Atonement. 15th Day - Tabernacle for seven days. Additional offerings made on all these occasions. (New ordered for the time. See above.)

* Worship is an essential part of man's relationship to Yahweh. The laws of worship to Israel were so elaborate as to appear confusing. One lesson stood out: There is appropriate worship to every time + place. The offering of a consecrated life is always in season, at all times, every day, week, month, year.

N. 28:2. "My offering even My bread" The meat offering connected itself, from its very nature, with the life of the Israelites in the Land, not in the wilderness. It was annexed

THE PRINCIPLE OF SACRIFICE – Blood represented life (Lev. 17:11, 14). The shedding of blood was the ritual recognition and declaration by the worshipper that he was under condemnation, and had no right to his life. He acknowledged that in coming to Yahweh in the appointed way.

Tisri - 7th of Ecclesiastical but 1st of Civil year (approx. Sept). = New Years Day. Neither this day, nor the Day of Atonement are mentioned in Ezekiel. But see Ezek 40:1

14. Pointing to the two great divisions of humanity + to Israel natural + spiritual to the sacrifices as a token that the people must dedicate to Yahweh the fruits of the labor as well as their own persons. cp Lev. 21:6.

CH. 28:7. SHECHAR. The Israelites, in the wilderness had in their lack of wine, substituted shechar made from barley for it. They observed the spirit but not the letter of the Law. The Drink offering was poured on the flesh of the offering or around the foot of the Altar. See Exod. 30:9.

CH. 28:7 HOLY PLACE: The exact portion was beyond the altar when the priest ate the sin-offering. Num. 18:10 It is called the Most Holy. The Temple comprised an outer and an inner court.

FIRSTFRUITS. Vv. 26-31. Same as monthly.

50 days after Passover when the sheaf of the wave offering had been presented Lev. 23:15-16. It is called Pentecost, or "fifteeth day" in the N.T., but Jews styled it "Ostrah" or "Restraining" or "shutting up" for the joy of harvest was then restrained until the full ingathering at the Feast of Tabernacles.

17. This offering was evidently additional to that prescribed in Lev. 23:17-19. It concerned the offering particularly related to the "firstfruits" v. 26. whereas that of Lev. 23 related to Pentecost after "counting the days."

David 1 Sam. 16:13-14; Daniel 5:14; Christ Jn 3:34; John Baptist Luke 1:15; Stephen Acts 6:5. It helped qualify them for leadership as does also the Spirit Word.

WHY 70 BULLOCKS. During the seven days of the Feast 70 Bullocks were offered, answering to the 70 families that went into Egypt. Gen. 46:26 and the 70 nations into which mankind was divided (See Gen. 10:1 note). As these seventy nations are divided into 2 families, so 14 lambs were offered speaking of the perfect sacrifice doubled. As all this finally ended in a normal offering on eighth day when at this new beginning sacrifice ceased for a time, so it will be in the Millennium. The full ingathering of harvest symbolised by Feast of Tabernacles (Deut. 5: 14. 16:13-15). will be complete. 1 Cor. 15:28. See sending forth of 70. Luke 10:1. Cf. Ezek. 45:25

FEAST TABERNACLES 7TH MONTH 15TH DAY. Vv. 12-40.

12 ¶ And [a] on the fifteenth day of the seventh month ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work, and ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days:

13 Bullocks, 2 Rams 14 Lambs 1 Goat

13 And [b] ye shall offer a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the LORD; thirteen young bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year; they shall be without blemish:

14 And their meat offering shall be of flour mingled with oil, three tenth deals unto every bullock of the thirteen bullocks, two tenth deals to each ram of the two rams,

15 And a several tenth deal to each lamb of the fourteen lambs:

16 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering, and his drink offering.

[b] Ezra 3. 4. previously ordered but not prescribed. Lev. 23: 34-44

2nd DAY. 17-19.
12 Bullocks, 2 Rams 14 Lambs 1 Goat

17 ¶ And on the second day ye shall offer twelve young bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without spot:

18 And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, [c] after the manner:

19 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, and the meat offering thereof, and their drink offerings.

3rd DAY Vv. 20-22.
11 Bullocks 2 Rams 14 Lambs 1 Goat

20 ¶ And on the third day eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish;

21 And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, [d] after the manner:

22 And one goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.

The diminution of Bullocks: The reduction of one every day signifies the gradual reduction of nations until all are brought under the government of the Messiah.

23 ¶ And on the fourth day ten bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

24 Their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

25 And one kid of the goats for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering, and his drink offering.

26 ¶ And on the fifth day nine bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without spot:

27 And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

28 And one goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, and his meat offering, and his drink offering.

29 ¶ And on the sixth day eight bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

30 And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

31 And one goat for a sin offering; beside the continual burnt offering, his meat offering, and his drink offering.

32 ¶ And on the seventh day seven bullocks, two rams, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

33 And their meat offering and their drink offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

FEAST TABERNACLES "Now, as if after the hush of solemnity on Day Atonement, now the outburst of praise can not be restrained, the lambs are doubled. The rams also & the bullocks mount to 13. It is the exultant outburst of millennial joy - but this settles down as daily they are reduced on 7th day = 7 bullocks then on 8th day they return to number of atonement - reminding of judgment at end Millennium.

215 Offerings. If, in addition to the 70 bullocks, the evening and morning sacrifices are added to the other offerings they total 215 — the number of years Israel was in Egypt.

Num 21:14. What He did in the Red Sea. (WAHEB IN SUPHAH)

"This is the opening phrase in a fragment from the ancient song book... They are two place-names in Moab or to do with the watersheds in that area. AV has followed V. 'as He did in the Red Sea, so will He do in the streams of Arnon,' which depends on ancient Jewish exegesis. It involves in reading 'Waheb' as the rare Hebrew root y-h-b (give: common in Aramaic, Syriac, Arabic), be supah as equivalent to be (yam) sup, and the objective particle as introducing what to us is the subject, which does happen occasionally in Hebrew. LXX read zhb for whb + took + supah from the root s-p-p (burn, Aramaic). - Century Bible.

LXX: "Therefore it is said in a book: A war of the Lord has set on fire Zoob, and the brooks of Arnon."

"Waheb - the name of some unidentified town with the accusative, & requires some verb like "we captured" to be understood before it. "In Suphah" Or in storm. Perhaps it is the same place as Suph, mentioned in Deut. 1:1." - Soncino.

WHY STATE THE LAW of VOWS AT THIS TIME? Because a new start was to be made in the land of Promise. Israel had vowed at Sinai (Exod. 24:7). As an express reminder of the solemnity and binding nature of that Oath, a special regulation was issued governing all vows. (Num. 30:2 Deut. 23:21). A "permitted" oath must stand – it demanded fulfilment. But the vow of a wife or daughter had to be permitted by the husband or father who stood in the family in the position that Yahweh stood in the Nation.

CHAPTER 30.

1 Vows are not to be broken. 3 The exception of a maid's vow. 6 Of a wife's. 9 Of a widow's, or her that is divorced.

AND Moses spake unto [d] the heads of the tribes concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded.

2 [e] If a man vow a vow unto the LORD, or [f] swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not [4] break his word, he shall [3] do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vow a vow unto the LORD, and bind herself by a bond, being in her father's house in her youth;

4 And her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand: and the LORD shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she had at all an husband, when [2] she vowed, or uttered ought [3] out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it: then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

8 But if her husband disallowed her on the day that he heard it; then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect: and the LORD shall forgive her.

[9 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.]

10 And if she [6] vowed in her husband's house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath;

11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul shall stand.

12 But if her husband hath utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void; and the LORD shall forgive her. 7

Having laid down the general principle of the sacredness of vows, the law proceeds to qualify it in three special cases of vows made by women under authority. Thus our vows are all subject to the authority of Christ.

NUM. 26:5. THE FAMILIES.

The families of all the tribes excluding Levi, number 57. The ancestral heads after whom these families are named correspond nearly with the grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Jacob, enumerated in Gen. 46:8. Both lists consist mainly of grandchildren of Jacob, both contain also the same two great-grandchildren of Judah & the two grandchildren of Asher. The document in Genesis should be regarded as a list, not of those who went down in their own persons with Jacob into Egypt but of those whose names were transmitted to their posterity at the date of the Exodus as the heads of Israelitish houses, & who may thus be reckoned the early ancestors of the people.

NUM. 31. MIDIAN AVENGED

Balaam predicted that the sceptre to arise would destroy all "the sons of tumult" Num. 24:17. As a token of this Moses wages war against Midian – men of strife. For fulfilment & for result see: Vengeance Isa. 34:2; 63:4; Rev. 11:18; Isa. 26:9.

10 Centring upon Christ's offering! "this do in remembrance" LUKE 22:19

11 These are treated of in Lev. 22:18-33, etc. "All the offerings commanded in these chapters amounted to 1071 lambs, 113 bullocks, 37 rams, 30 goats, in the lunar year, together with 111 bushels of flour, more than 370 gallons of oil & about 340 gallons of wine, supposing that the drink offering was proportionate throughout." R. Winterbotham. Cp 8.47:8

9 LAW OF VOWS MADE BY WOMEN 30:1-16

Vows = Religious Promises to Yahweh and could relate to —
1. Abstinence or humiliation V.13
2. Nazarite Num. 6:3
3. Giving certain things or sacrifices to Yahweh Lev. 7:16.

This Law guarded against rash Vows.

WHEN A VOW MUST STAND Vv. 1-2.

1 ISSAR – A vow of abstinence or restriction.
2 See Mg. Cp Christ's example. A. 1:1a, 1a, 18; A. 22:21; Lk. 22:18.

II FATHER CAN ANNUL A DAUGHTER'S VOW. Vv 3-5.

Other aspects include: Nazarite Vows Num 6, the rash Vow Lev 5:4-5, Redemption of persons & property that have been vowed Lev 27, Importance of keeping vows Deut. 23:21-23.

3 RSV. "Hears of her vow". He can repudiate it when he hears of it or when she vows. Cp 4:5.

A HUSBAND CAN ANNUL A WIFE'S VOW. Vv. 6-8.

4 A betrothed woman not yet living with her husband. Cp V.10. She is then subject to her father & her husband.

5 The authority of the husband maintained. Cp 1 Cor. 11:3-7; 1 Tim. 2:9-15; Cp Matt. 19:20.

ALL OTHER VOWS SHALL STAND Vv 9-15

6 This is the case of the woman whose marriage is complete. A Categories thus described • An unattached woman V.3 • A betrothed woman V.6 • An independent woman V.9 • A fully married woman V.10.

7 Yahweh recognises the authority & rights of the husband & gives him power in regard to the married woman in certain particulars. He did this to ensure basic the proper leadership of the man over the woman & to keep peace in the home.

1 Cor 11:3. Eph 5:16 1 Cor 14:35 Num 31:16.

Num. 26:5. Phinehas leads the army. The high priest cannot do so since he must have no contact with the dead. Cp 16:37 where Eleazar is deputed to deal with the ritually unclean censers, his father, Aaron being high priest at the time. He was also marked out as a fitting director of the campaign by Num. Deut. 25:17-19.

Yahweh & the Home
He treats the home as a unit with varying degrees of authority. His legislation is not divisive of the home but designed for its greater unity.

WITH THE EXCEPTION OF THE CANAANITES WHO WERE DEVOTED TO UTTER DESTRUCTION, the nations were first offered the choice of peace or war (Deut. 20:10-18). This was not done in the case of Midian because their attempt to seduce Israel from the worship of Yahweh showed they did not deserve this privilege.

Ch. 31. The Midianites only are mentioned. Evidently they took the initiative in putting the evil counsel of Balaam into effect. v.8, 16.

13 Every vow, and [4] every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void. [4A] - see above

14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day; then he establisheth all her vows, or all her bonds, which are upon her: he confirmeth them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them.

15 But if he shall any ways make them void after that he hath heard them; then [5] he shall bear her iniquity.

16 These are the statutes, which the LORD commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her father's house.

1 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

2 [h] Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: [i] afterward shalt thou [k] be gathered unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of yourselves unto the war, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the LORD of Midian.

4 [2] Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye send to the war.

5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand [p] armed for war.

6 And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand of every tribe, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow in his hand.

7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the LORD commanded Moses; and [q] they slew all the males.

8 And they slew the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, [6] Evi, and Rekem, and [6] Zur, [7] and Hur, and Reba, [8] five kings of Midian: [d] Balaam also the son of Beor they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattle, and all their flocks, and all [s] their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly castles, [9] with fire.

11 And [t] they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, unto Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at [10] the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan near Jericho.

13 ¶ And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them [1] without the camp.

14 And Moses was wroth with the [m] officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, which came from the [3] battle.

15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved [n] all the women alive?

16 Behold, [o] these caused the children of Israel, through the [q] counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of [r] Peor, and there was [s] a plague among the congregation of the LORD.

17 Now therefore [u] kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman that hath

THE MIDIANITES 233

The five Kings mentioned are said to be vassals of the Amorite King Sihon Josh. 13:21 and are described as "dwelling in the country." Therefore, they only comprised portion of Midianitish power, which again rose later to dominate the Israelites Judges 6:3-7.

NUM. 26:56. "This division by lot seems to have respect only to the quarter, or situation, which each tribe was to possess, & not to the quantity or extent of the land, which was to be proportioned to the numbers of each tribe according to the register now formed. Thus, for instance, it was determined by lot which of the 12 tribes was to inherit in the south, which in the north, &c. then, in that quarter where the lot fell, a larger or smaller portion of land was assigned them, according to the goodness of the soil, & in proportion as they were more or less numerous. . . . This equal division of property was, under God, the great bulwark & strength of the Hebrew commonwealth. According to calculations, Canaan contained 14,976,000 acres which divided among 600,000 men, will allow of about 21½ acres each, leaving 1,976,000 acres for the princes of tribes, levitical cities etc so that there was an ample provision to enable each person with all the advantages of that fertile soil & fine climate to live in comfortable circumstance - more land when 2½ tribes east taken into account.

MACHIR TAKES BASHAN. Ch 32:39: Machir was the only son of Manasseh Gen 50:23 born during the lifetime of Joseph. The descendants of Manasseh are sometimes identified with Machir Josh. 13:31; Deut. 3:15. and later particularly that section of the tribe east of the Jordan Josh. 17:1-2. this division is preserved in Chronicles Cp. 1 Chr. 2:21,23; 7:14-17.

The Machirites were warlike Josh. 17:1. They distinguished themselves in the defeat of Og Num. 32:39; 21:33; Deut. 3:8. Jair particularly distinguished himself in the mopping up of centres of resistance Deut. 3:14-15. Manasseh's population was great. 32,200 to Ephraim 40,500 at first census, but 52,700 to 32,500 at the second. See the large number of soldiers at crowning of David. 1 Chr. 12:22-40. See below.

18 But all the women children, that have not known a man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

19 And [a] do ye abide without the camp seven days: whosoever hath killed any person, and [c] whosoever hath touched any slain, [d] purify both yourselves and your captives on the third day, and on the seventh day.

20 And purify all your raiment, and all [4] that is made of skins, and all work of goats' hair, and all things made of wood.

21 ¶ And Eleazar the priest said unto the men of war which went to the battle, This is the ordinance of the law which the LORD commanded Moses;

22 Only the gold, and the silver, the brass, the iron, the tin, and the lead, (or copper)

23 Every thing that may abide the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean: nevertheless it [d] shall be purified [f] with the water of separation: and all that abideth not the fire ye shall make go through the water.

24 And ye shall [g] wash your clothes on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean, and afterward ye shall come into the camp.

25 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

26 Take the sum of the prey [5] that was taken, both of man and of beast, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the congregation: EDAH

27 And [1] divide the prey into two parts; between them that took the war upon them, who went out to battle, and between all the congregation: EDAH

28 And levy a tribute unto the LORD of the men of war which went out to battle: [k] one soul of five hundred, both of the persons, and of the beeves, and of the asses, and of the sheep:

31 And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

32 And the booty, being the rest of the prey which the men of war had caught, was six hundred thousand and seventy thousand and five thousand sheep,

33 And threescore and twelve thousand beeves,

34 And threescore and one thousand asses,

COMPROMISE: ON THE EAST OF JORDAN 235

In the choice of the 2½ tribes, there is typically set out the choice of those who do not want to sever themselves from their brethren, yet, on the other hand, are dazzled by present advantages so that they do not want to completely "go over Jordan" Ch. 32:5 In doing this they exposed themselves to greater danger ultimately coming under the domination of Moab and others. Moses warned them in forthright terms, which seemed to express a doubt of their true motives and which climaxed in the solemn warning of V.23.

'CALEB WHOLLY FOLLOWED YAHWEH." V.12.

See note Num. 14:24. MÂLÊ' (maw-lay) sig. to fill or be full of. He filled his heart with the desire to serve Yahweh. He followed Him faithfully, wholly, fully, refusing to lower his standards.

He matched his faith with his courage. Giants did not perturb him, nor did the faithless multitude who would stone him deter him. At 80 years of age he asked for a mountain Josh. 14:12 and expelled the Anakim therefrom. Jud. 1:20. He was a man of heights literally + spiritually, never content with the average or commonplace. His inheritance was fittingly called Kirjath-Arba + Hebron. Josh. 14:15.

14 The arrangements were evidently confirmed by Yahweh.

the land, they discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land which the LORD had given them.

10 [c] And the LORD's anger was kindled the same time, and he sware, saying,

11 [d] Surely none of the men that came up out of Egypt, [e] from twenty years old and upward, shall see the land which I sware [h] unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; because they have not [2] wholly followed me: Num. 14:24, 30; Josh. 14:8-9

12 Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh the [i] Kenezite, and Joshua the son of Nun: [k] for they have wholly followed the LORD.

13 And the LORD's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them [m] wander in the wilderness forty years, until [n] all the generation, that had done evil in the sight of the LORD, was consumed.

14 And, behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of the LORD toward Israel.

15 For if ye [o] turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and ye shall destroy all this people.

16 ¶ And they came near unto him, and said, We will build sheepfolds here for our cattle, and cities for our little ones:

17 But [p] we ourselves will go ready [r] armed before the children of Israel, until we have brought them unto their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fenced cities because of the inhabitants of the land.

18 [u] We will not return unto our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance.

19 For we will not inherit with them on yonder side Jordan, or forward; [a] because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side Jordan eastward.

20 ¶ And [b] Moses said unto them, If ye will do this thing, if ye will go armed before the LORD to war, Gp v.23.

21 And will go all of you [e] armed over Jordan before the LORD, until he [l] hath [f] driven out his enemies from before him,

22 And the land be subdued before the LORD: then afterward ye shall return, and be guiltless before the LORD, and before Israel; and this land shall be your possession before the LORD. Gp Deut. 3:12-18; Josh. 1:15; 22:9

23 But if ye will not do so, behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure [14] your sin will find you out.

24 [l] Build you cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which hath proceeded out of your mouth.

25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spake unto Moses, saying, Thy servants will do as my lord commandeth.

26 Our little ones, our wives, our flocks, and all our cattle, shall be there in the cities of Gilead:

27 But thy servants will pass over, every man [q] armed for war, before the LORD to battle, as my lord saith.

28 So concerning them Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and [s] Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel:

29 And Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over Jordan, every man armed to battle, before the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you; then ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession:

ASSURANCES OF THE TRIBES Vv. 16-19.

12. Repair the cities

13. This proposal was faithfully executed. It did not imply that all the men should go up and leave their families defenceless. There were still powerful enemies east of Jordan. Thus in the last census Ch 26 Reuben "43,730 men, Gad - 40,500 and Manasseh - 52,700, a total of 110,930, but from Jos. 4:13 we learn that 40,000 passed over Jordan leaving 70,930 to care for those that remained.

"Ready" = CHUWSH - To hurry. "He will arm ourselves in haste" Ry - "We ourselves will be ready armed to go.." They promised not to delay the forward movement of Israel, but would hasten to erect the necessary buildings, + to array themselves for war.

"BE SURE YOUR SIN WILL FIND YOU OUT" V. 23

Moses meant: You will recognise your sin when it overtakes you. Frequently men fail to acknowledge sin as sin until the consequences are forced home. The sin which Moses warned them against was the sin of selfishly deserting their brethren, and refusing to fight in Yahweh's battles. The cities they saw seemed important, permanent + desirable settlement in contrast to their black tents and nomadic life, but they ultimately proved a delusion. The curse of Reuben Gen. 49:4. began to take effect through circumstances of his own choice. He settled himself close on the frontier of Moab, where he could not have peace + prosperity for any length of time, but which promised an easy immediate gain. They changed the names of the cities V 38 in a superficial desire to serve Yahweh, but it was not long before they reverted to their old names, and were re-conquered by Moab.

THE 38 YEARS WANDERING Deut. 2:14 This is passed over in almost complete silence, merely recording the places visited Ch. 33:19-36. However, the following facts should be noted (1) Yahweh did not wholly abandon the rebellious people; He continued to communicate with them through Moses Num. 15:1, 17, 35 etc. He supplied manna and water, provided raiment and shoes Deut. 8:2-6; 29:5-6 (2) The rite of circumcision, Passover were discontinued -the people were without hope Cp Josh. 5:4-5 = restored with new hope. (3) The Law was ignored, Sabbaths profaned, Wolatrous practises engaged in Ezek 20:10-26 Amos 5:25-26 (4) The evidence suggests that for the most part they remained adjacent to Kadesh where the Tabernacle apparently was permanently stationed -hence the name. See top p238.

15. The Sept. here adds "to do battle before Yahweh, then shall ye bring over their baggage, and their wives, and their cattle earlier than you into the land of Canaan; so shall..."

Or perhaps Moses saw it as appropriate that Manasseh have 2 portions + suggested it.

16. Apparently these subsequently joined with the other tribes in the request. So Manasseh, as the firstborn of Joseph received two portions of inheritance. Cp Deut. 21:15-17. These = the families of Machir v.39. Josh. 17:1f. Reward for their valour.

CHAPTER 33.

1 Two and forty journeys of the Israelites. The Canaanites are to be destroyed.

THESE are the journeys of the children of Israel, which went forth out of the land of Egypt with their armies under the hand of Moses and Aaron. Ps. 77:20; Mic 6:4.

2 And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the commandment of the LORD: and these are their journeys according to their goings out.

3 And they [d] departed from Rameses in [e] the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month; on the morrow after the passover the children of Israel went out [f] with an high hand in the sight of all the Egyptians. Cp Ps. 105:38, 105:36

4 For the Egyptians buried all their firstborn, [g] which the LORD had smitten among them: [h] upon their gods also the LORD executed judgments.

5 And the children of Israel removed from Rameses, and pitched in [i] Succoth.

6 And they departed from Succoth, and pitched in [k] Etham, which is in the edge of the wilderness.

7 And they removed from Etham, and turned again unto [l] Pi-hahiroth, which is before [l] Baal-zephon: and they pitched before [l] Migdol.

8 And they departed from before Pi-hahiroth, and [n] passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, and [o] went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and pitched in Marah.

9 And they removed from Marah, and came unto [q] Elim: and in Elim were twelve fountains of water, and threescore and

v.10. The Red Sea

The road from Wadi Ghurundel led to the interior, the other side of a continuous ridge which hid the Red Sea from view. At the mouth of the Wadi-et-Tayibeh, the distance of about 3 days journey, it opens again on the plain along the margin of the Red Sea. Thus, the description is made

WAR WITH SIHON AND OG AND CONQUEST OF THE LAND Deut 2

ARNON: WAR Cp Num. 21:14. Deut. 2:24-25. "This day the dread of you" Deut. 2:25. "I have begun to give you" V. 31 before the battle at Jahaz.

KEDEMOTH: A city of Reuben Josh. 13:18. which extended from the Arnon to Jabbok. (Sihon's territory). Site unknown. A message sent to Sihon from "the wilderness of Kedemoth" Deut. 2:26.

DIBON: A stopping place Num. 33:45. the Moabite stone implies that Jahaz was near Dibon.

JAHAZ: War resumed Num. 21:23. Deut. 2:32. Sihon advanced from Heshbon a little south of the latitude of Jericho, and apparently Israel moved north from Dibon and the clash took place at Jahaz. Sihon decisively defeated and the following strongholds fell to Israel: See Num. 21 Jahaz V. 23 Heshbon V. 25 Dibon V. 30 Nopha V. 30 Medeba V. 30 Jaazer V. 32. BEER ELIM. CONQUEST OF NORTH-EASTERN GILEAD AND BASHAN Num. 32:40-42. by the Machirites. The record indicates that it was effected by a few chiefs of great military prowess, who overran rapidly a far greater district than they could colonise. The father of Jair, however, Segub, was of Judah (Cp. 22:41 & note / Chr. 2:21-22) & it is likely that the Manassite leaders induced many of the more adventurous of this tribe, & some possibly of other tribes, to join them in their enterprise against Bashan. The Machirites did not exterminate the whole population of this district Cp Josh. 13:11-31. During the troublous times of the Judges the eastern Manassites rendered good service to the nation Jud. 5:14. Gideon, & probably Jephthah, were of this tribe, & reflect in a later generation the warlike & adventurous spirit which Jair & Nobah did in the days of Moses.

HOREB

From Senech = Thorny, i.e. Left with Bare.

The requirements of Scripture are: a "mount" that might be touched, an elevation from which Israel could hear the 10 Commandments, a summit from which Moses could neither see nor hear the revelries beneath, a stream descending from the mount to the plain. All are here provided for.
The Plain Before The Mount.
See Note p 102.
SINAI Here Moses received the Tables of Stone & remained for 40 days. It is defined as the "top of the Mount" (Exod. 19:20; 24:16-17; 34:2). This was a distance from the plain, for he heard and saw nothing of the revelry taking place until he came closer Exod 32:7-20. At Sufsafeh the scene burst upon him & in anger he smashed the Tables of Stone at the foot of the mount. Exod. 32:20.
HOREB is named "the mount of God" Exod. 18:5; 4:27; 24:13; (1 Kgs 19:8) which is distinct from Sinai "the top of the mount." Horeb is close to the "the nether part of the mount" Exod. 19:17 "before Yahweh under the mount" Deut. 4:10. Yahweh is represented as speaking face to face "with the people. Deut. 5:4. Sufsafeh, (which) rises precipitously from the plain and overhangs it (unlike Sinai which throws out from its base a number of spurs and rocky projections far into the plain) It is therefore a mountain that might be touched" Heb. 12:20 requiring the construction of a barrier Exod. 19:12.
YAHWEH SPOKE TO THE PEOPLE FROM.
HOREB They were gathered together before Horeb for that purpose. Deut. 4:10; 5:4, 22, 24. The heard & understood the words Deut. 4:12, 33, 36; 5:23; Exod. 20:22. This would only be the case if the voice thundered from a hidden eminence 3 m distance. It would be broken up by echoes. Nor would there be need to "gather the people together." Later, when the people returned to their tents, they no longer heard the voice, so necessitating the need to come close to the mount to hear it. Exod. 20:21; Deut. 5:27-32. Moses then on the plain Cp 2 Ki. 1:3 & 15.
THE MOUNT unnamed includes the entire range of which Horeb and Sinai are two peaks. The plain of the foot of Sinai does not answer to the description of the encampment, being a narrow, rugged, sloping valley with spurs from the hill reaching far into it.
THE WILDERNESS OF KEDEMOTH
Site unknown. A message sent to Sihon requesting permission to travel via the Kings Highway. Deut 2:26-31. This was evidently after an initial clash at the Arnon. The war was resumed at Jahaz.

SIHON AND OG WERE AMORITES WHO HAD INVADED THE EAST AND OCCUPIED THE TERRITORIES OF BASHAN & MOAB.
BASHAN
Kingdom of Og.

THE ARNON (Sig. Rushing torrent)
Is an enormous trench across the plateau of Moab, a deep gorge bisecting the highlands to the east of the Dead Sea. "At the point south of Dibon, it is about 23 miles wide, and the river bed lies 1,650 feet below the top of the cliffs. It thus provides a natural frontier.
The war with Sihon was evidently at the border, but the upper reaches of the Arnon also extended to Jahaz.

BEER-ELIM (The Well of the Heroes).
Site unknown. "The plateau is without springs, and Israel's stations upon it would be determined by the water courses which cut it between the Arnon and Heshbon. One itinerary gives us four stations. Beer, where Israel had to dig for water, and sang the Song of the Well, some undiscovered spot near the Upper Arnon; Mattanah; Nahaliel, or the Valley of God, which is not an unfit name for the Wady Zerka Main with its healing springs; Bamoth, or High Places, which may be represented by any of the ancient cromlechs and altars about the Wady Jideid." - G.A. Smith.
THE HEAD OF PISGAH WHICH LOOKETH TOWARD.
JESHIMON Num. 21:20
"Before you descend from the rising ground, which alone divides it from the Plateau, you instinctively seek the nearest high mound for a last view backwards. There is the great plain of Moab, southward broken only by the eminence of Medeba and the hollow of Arnon, but in front of you, it rolls away unbroken, unveiled, save for a few clouds on the featureless wilderness into the infinite East. You turn westward, descending the ridge through the corn-fields, & traverse the long flinty ridge to the limestone knoll upon it, which bears the name of Ras or Head of Nebo. You have left the eastern view but all Western Palestine is in sight..." G.A. Smith.
From different points different views are obtained. Jeshimon, the wilderness, can therefore refer to what can be seen south, east, or west in the Jordan valley, and the passage of the Jordan. Cp Num. 13:21; 1 Sa. 23:19; 26:1, 3.

a. "The Passage through the mountains"
"The Mouth of the gorges" Str.
Between Migdol (Watch-tower) and Baal-zephon (Baal of the North) - but these places are unknown. 15 miles south of Suez is a ridge of harsh mountains that terminates abruptly on the shore & is called Ras Attakah or Mountain of Deliverance. It has a grim and terrible aspect, rising precipitously from the past below where mountainous heaps of sand dunes lay scattered in awful desolation. The ridge circles round to the north, from whence the enemy approached; hills to the west and south and sea to the east shut them in.
Some claim that the crossing was at the head of the Gulf of Suez and was caused by the action of wind and tide. But this would require a north-east wind, when as the narrative says east, and if the sea was merely driven back, it would not permit a wall of water on either side.
Moreover the Egyptians could easily have cut off the Israelites by riding around the head of the Gulf.
Josephus states: "They were shut up between the mountains and the sea-mountains that terminated at the sea, which were impassable by reason of their roughness, and obstructed their flight."
The terrain at Ras Attakah answers to that description. See "Horeb and Jerusalem" by G. Sandie.

11 And the coast shall go down from Shepham (c) to Riblah, on the east side of Ain; and the border shall descend, and shall reach unto the [2] side of the sea (d) of Chinnereth eastward:

12 And the border shall go down to Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be at [e] the salt sea: this shall be your land with the coasts thereof round about.

13 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, (f) This is the land which ye shall inherit by lot, which the LORD commanded to give unto the nine tribes, and to the half tribe:

14 (g) For the tribe of the children of Reuben according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance; and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance:

15 The two tribes and the half tribe have received their inheritance on this side Jordan near Jericho eastward, toward the sunrising.

16 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

17 These are the names of the men which shall divide the land unto you: [1] Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun.

18 And ye shall take one [m] prince of every tribe, to divide the land by inheritance.

CITIES FOR THE LEVITES
VV 1-2.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses in (a) the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

2 (b) Command the children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites of the inheritance of their possession cities to dwell in; and ye shall give also unto the Levites [k] suburbs for the cities round about them.

3 And the cities shall they have to dwell in; and the [k] suburbs of them shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, and for all their beasts.

VV 4-5

THE GOSPEL PREACHED BY CITIES OF REFUGE See further Comments Josh. 20.
Murder was punishable by death by the next of kin. The flesh is a murderer (Jhn 8:44) under condemnation. Cities of Refuge were provided where the accused could flee to have his case tried to see if the death was deliberate or not. So Paul exhorts Heb. 6:18 Prov. 18:10 Release came through the death of the high priest. Until then chat in under the Law Gal. 2:23.

NATIONAL
Israel murdered Christ, and since then has been persecuted by the Avenger (Acts 7:52), but they ignore the City of Refuge that could shelter them

NATIONAL
The Gentiles, too, are guilty of the blood of Christ Acts 4:27-28 & nationally ignore the City of Refuge — so death takes its toll.

the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city and outward a thousand cubits round about.

5 And ye shall measure from without the city on the east side two thousand cubits, and on the south side two thousand cubits, and on the west side two thousand cubits, and on the north side two thousand cubits; and the city shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the (c) suburbs of the cities.

6 And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites there shall be (d) six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither: and [2] to them ye shall add forty and two cities.

7 So all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites shall be (f) forty and eight cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs.

8 And the cities which ye shall give shall be [g] of the possession of the children of Israel: [i] from them that have many ye shall give many; but [i] from them that have few ye shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites according to his inheritance which (h) he inheriteth.

9 ¶ And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, (i) When ye be come over Jordan into the land of Canaan;

11 Then [m] ye shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killeth any person (5) at unawares.

12 And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger; that the manslayer die not, until he stand before the congregation in judgment.

13 And of these cities which ye shall give (6) six cities shall ye have for refuge.

MURDER DEFINED Vv. 16-21
To take life by any means whatever is accounted murder. If it is done in enmity it is treated as such. If it is not done in enmity it is treated as accidental homicide. Cp. Gen. 9:5-6; Exod. 21:12-14; Lev. 24:17. Capital punishment evidently was abandoned by the likes of Lamech before the Flood but was re-instituted by Yahweh through Moses afterwards.
If he does not die. See Exod 21:18.
Thus fulfilling the Law to Noah. Gen 9:6. Revenger = Goel. V.12. Cp Deut. 19:6, 12; Josh. 20:3,5.

ACCIDENTAL HOMICIDE OR MANSLAUGHTER DEFINED Vv 22-28.
Exod 21:13; Deut 19:5 Josh 20:3,5
In this case the killer was confined to City of Refuge and strictly warned against leaving it.
No allowance was made for accident if it was the result of premeditated anger. Therefore the greatest care had to be exercised. Cp Eph. 4:26.
The case of the innocent slayer is here contemplated in a watchful care there would need be judicial enquiry as to the guilt or innocence of the person claiming the right of asylum. Cp V.12; Josh. 20:6. See note below

CITIES OF REFUGE Vv. 6-8
With the six cities of Refuge, the Levitical cities numbered 48. Cp Josh. 21:41 Hence the number divisible by 6x8 - Flesh reaching perfection.
From the combined large territory of Judah & Simeon 9 were surrendered, but the rest, great & small, gave up heads, except Naphtali (last on the list) who gave 1. Cp Josh. 21.

PURPOSE OF CITIES OF REFUGE Vv 9-15.
They were to be easily accessible Vs 14 Deut. 4:41-43. Josh 20:7-8. on both sides Jordan V. 14. Could be increased, if necessary, to nine. Deut. 19:8-9. Special roads to be built to converge on them Deut 19:3 Cp application to note above.
The deliberate murderer, like the deliberate sinner who refuses mercy of Yahweh not provided for. Josh 20:2.

Refuge until death of High Priest v.25. Cp instructions to Noah Gen. 9:5-6. Cities of Refuge promised Exod 21:13.

THE TRIAL Vv. 24-28
After the manslayer had been received into the City of Refuge the Revenger of Blood could only act as prosecutor. The magistrates in the presence of the people were appointed to decide the cause, according to the rules here laid down. Probably the accused was tried at or near the place where the deceased had been slain, and where evidence could most easily be brought, and if acquitted by decision of the judges & the approbation of the people, he was conveyed back to the city of refuge where he was protected as a kind of prisoner at large till the death of the high priest; & then permitted to return to his own inheritance. But if, in the meantime, he attempted to leave the city, and the avenger met him & slew him, he was accounted as having merited his doom by neglecting the provision of Yahweh for his preservation, & the avenger was not punished. If the avenger slew an innocent man on sight, he was considered guilty. Two witness were required for a case to succeed.

DEUTERONOMY is an exhortation based on the Law, re-affirming its principles. This was necessary for the new generation about to enter the land because for 38 years the Law had been relaxed, the Passover had not been kept, the rite of circumcision not practised, the sacrifices not offered. See opposite.

10. The homicide was safe only within the walls of his city of Refuge. He became a virtual exile from home. The provisions here marked the gravity of the act of manslaughter, even when not premeditated. See note top p. 241.

25 And the congregation shall deliver the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of [c] the high priest, [d] which was anointed with the holy oil.

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come without the border of the city of his refuge, whither he was fled;

27 And the revenger of blood find him without the borders of the city of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; [2] he shall not be guilty of blood:

28 Because he should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 So these things shall be for [6] a statute of judgment unto you throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 Whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the [k] mouth of witnesses: but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die.

31 Moreover ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is [l] guilty of death: but he shall be surely put to death.

32 And ye shall take no satisfaction for him that is fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

33 So ye shall not [m] pollute the land wherein ye are: for blood [n] it defileth the land: and [5] the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but [p] by the blood of him that shed it.

1 Of the inheritance of daughters. 5 Of marrying in their own tribes.

AND the chief fathers of the families of the [c] children of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near, and spake before Moses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the children of Israel:

2 And they said, [d] The LORD commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel: and [e] my lord was commanded by the LORD to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters.

3 And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance [h] be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe [3] whereunto they are received: so shall it [h] be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 And when [i] the jubile of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe [3] whereunto they are received: so shall their inheritance [h] be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word of the LORD, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph [m] hath said well.

6 This is the thing which the LORD doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them [6] marry to whom they think best; [o] only to the family of the tribe of their father shall they [6] marry.

DEUTERONOMY

WORDS OF WARNING AND EXHORTATION TO THE NEW GENERATION ABOUT TO ENTER THE LAND COMPRISING EIGHT DISCOURSES AND AN EPILOGUE.

Moses already had tangible evidence that the new generation were no better than their fathers (Num. 26:1-6) and he knew that everything depended on their obedience – life itself, possession of Canaan, victory over foes, prosperity, happiness. So, with all the force of his own ardent nature, the leader pleaded with the people – for he recognised the weakness of human nature. Deut. 31:28-30. Quoted about fifty times in the N.T. See above

DEUTERONOMY is an exhortation based on the Law, reaffirming its principles. This was necessary for the new generation about to enter the land because for 38 years the Law had been relaxed, the Passover had not been kept, the rite of circumcision not practised, the sacrifices not offered. See opposite.

3 Lesson of this Record Impressed on this New Generation. Ch.4:1-40.
4 Appointment of Cities of Refuge. . . . Ch.4:41-43.

Known among the Jews as "The Book of Reproofs", the places mentioned in v.1. are related by them to places which witnessed the more serious sins of the people

Deut. 1:1.

Moses' speech at the end DEUTERONOMY 1. of the fortieth year.

Paran. Cp Num. 12:16
Tophel - quagmire. Perhaps Tafileh in Jebal west of Edom-ish mountains, supposed by some to be where they purchased provisions 2:28-29. Hoe they passed from wilderness to inhabited land
Laban - White. Perhaps Libnah. Num 33:20.
Dizahab. - Having gold. Perhaps Mersa Dahab or Mina Dahab - Gold harbor.
The enumeration of these places = brief remainder of harsh land traversed. Above
Mt Seir: Range of Mountains running south Dead Sea to Elanitic Gulf East of Arabah. - Given to Esau, forbidden to Israelites Deut 2:5.

Purpose: To make clear The Law of God Deut. 26:16. 1:5

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Israel shall [2b] keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And [c] every daughter, that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe; but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance.

10 Even as the LORD commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad:

11 [d] For Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married unto their father's brothers' sons: – or-unto the sons of their kinsmen.

12 And they were married [3] into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father.

13 These are the commandments and the judgments, which the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses unto the children of Israel [e] in the plains of Moab by Jordan near Jericho.

1A RSV: Beyond. LXX: "on the bank of the Jordan west of the wilderness that reaches to the Red Sea." Heb. EDER - the crossing 18 They commenced 20th of 2nd month. From 10th of 1st from approx. 1yr. 9mth. Cp. v3 with 2:14.
3. A momentous year. On 1st Month Miriam died Num. 20:1. 5th Month - Aaron Num. 33:38. Finally Moses Deut. 34:5. The Law thus recapitulated to a new generation of Deut. 2:14.
4 Thus avenging the disastrous defeat of the first generation Deut 1:44 and giving point to the exhortation – "Fear not!" Notice how important the victory over the Amorites was to Moses. Contrast. Deut. 1:7, 19, 20, 27, 44 with Deut 3:2, 8 v 46-47. 31:4. Josh 2:10. 9:10. 24:8-12. See Num 21. The destruction of these Kings was tangible evidence that Yahweh would deliver the land into the hands of the Israelites.

4 After he had slain [e] Sihon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in [a] Heshbon, and [f] Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Astaroth in [b] Edrei:

5 On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 The LORD our God spake unto us in Horeb, saying, [g] Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount:

7 Turn you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and unto [3] all the places nigh thereunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the vale, and in the south, and by the sea side, to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Lebanon, unto the great river, the river Euphrates.

8 Behold, I have [h] set the land before you: go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers, [i] Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to their seed after them.

9 ¶ And @I spake unto you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you myself alone:

10 The LORD your God hath multiplied you, and, behold, (c)ye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude. 1:3.

11 (d The LORD God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you, as he hath promised you!) 13A

12 (e How can I myself alone bear your (f)cumbrance, and your burden, and your strife?

13 (g)Take you wise men, and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you.

14 And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken is good for us to do.

15 So I took the chief of your tribes, wise men, and known, [1] and [2] made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and (h)officers among your tribes. SAM-Cp. Deu. 8:25

16 And I charged your judges at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and (i)judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him. Exod. 23:2-3.

17 (j)Ye shall not (k)respect persons in judgment; but ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man; for (l)the judgment is God's: and the cause that is too hard for you, (m)bring it unto me, and I will hear it. (Deut. 1:5, 40. 12:28, 32. Act. 20:20, 27)

18 And (n)I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do. Cp Deut. 16:18-19 Cr. II, 58:1

19 ¶ And when we departed from Horeb, [2] we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which ye saw by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and [b] we came to Kadesh-barnea.

20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the LORD our God doth give unto us.

21 Behold, the LORD thy God hath set the land before thee: go up and possess it, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 ¶ And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come.

23 And the saying pleased me well: and (o)I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe:

24 And [k] they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto [m] the valley of Eshcol, and searched it out.

25 And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which the LORD our God doth give us.

26 Notwithstanding ye would not go up, but [p] rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God;

27 And (q)ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD (r)hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us. —Cp Num. 14:3

28 Whither shall we go up? [s] our brethren have discouraged our heart, saying, (t)The people is greater and taller than we; the cities are great and walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the (u)Anakims there. —Josh. 11:21-22. 15:14.

29 Then I said unto you,

PLEADING OF MOSES Vv. 29-31.
This plea was apparently made the following day. For background see. Num. 14:15.
It is not recorded in Numbers.

CH. 2:16
At Kadesh Moses sent messengers to Edom. The people then were hostile and would not permit Israel to cross their country. Now they feared the Israelites. Num 20:14-22. Deut 2:4.

WHY MOSES WAS DENIED ENTRANCE INTO THE LAND. - It was "for your sakes" 3:26; 4:21. For the background see Num. 20. In smiting the Rock twice, he typed those who heed not Yahweh's word and "crucify the son again putting him to an open shame" Heb. 6:6. The fate of all such is shown by Moses being refused entrance. But it was for Israel's sake - to teach them a lesson. Moses will ultimately receive the "recompence of the reward" Ps. 99:6. Heb. 11:24-26. See references to this in Deuteronomy 3:24-26. 4:21-23 on their way.

Dread not, neither be afraid of them.

30 The LORD your God which goeth before you, [b] he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes;

31 And in the wilderness, where thou hast seen how that the LORD thy God [c] bare thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

32 Yet in this thing [d] ye did not believe the LORD your God,

33 [e] Who went in the way before you, [f] to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.

34 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, [g] and sware, saying,

35 [m] Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I sware to give unto your fathers,

36 [n] Save Caleb the son of Jephunneh; he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath [o] wholly followed the LORD.

37 Also the LORD [p] was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither.

38 But [q] Joshua the son of Nun, [r] which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: [s] encourage him: for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover [u] your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children, which in that day [z] had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, [a] turn you, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea.

41 Then ye answered and said unto me, [a] We have sinned against the LORD, we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us. And when ye had girded on every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill.

42 And the LORD said unto me, Say unto them, [d] Go not up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spake unto you; and ye would not hear, but [e] rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and [2] went presumptuously up into the hill.

44 And [i] the Amorites, which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you, [l] as bees do, and destroyed you in Seir, even unto Hormah.

45 And ye returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD would not hearken to your voice, nor give ear unto you.

46 So [o] ye abode in Kadesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The story is continued, that they were not to meddle with the Edomites, 9 nor with the Moabites, 19 nor with the Ammonites. 33 Sihon is overcome.

THEN we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea, [r] as the LORD spake unto me: and we compassed mount Seir many days.

2 And the LORD spake unto me, saying,

3 Ye have compassed this mountain [t] long enough: turn you northward.

4 And command thou the people, saying, [s] Ye are to pass through the coast of your brethren the children of Esau, [b] which dwell in Seir; and they shall be afraid of you: take ye good heed unto yourselves therefore:

This underlines the perverseness & ingratitude of the people to which Moses next alludes V. 22. 2 THIRTY-EIGHT YEARS OF WANDERING. 2:1 - 3:29.

Moses turns from the description of the rebellion at Kadesh & its tragic outcome to the period preceding his oration. There is only brief reference to the long period of 38 years spent in the wilderness in the region of Kadesh. Particular reference is made to the dealings with Edom, Moab & Ammon.

THE STORY OF THE WILDERNESS. Deut. 1:1. : MIDBÂR from DÂBÂR – To arrange parts of words. MIDBAR IS from this in the sense of driving, Actions, speech. It is the place of education + meditation. Krummacher: "It comes from a word which means both to speak and to lead, + so to be in the wilderness is under leading amounts to nearly the one + the same thing." The final end of the wilderness is to blossom as the rose + bring forth fruit abundantly. Isa. 35:1-2; 27:6. for us it leads to the Judgment Seat Rom 14:12. 2 Cor. 5:10

5 [a] Meddle not with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a foot breadth; [b] because I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession.

6 Ye shall buy meat of them for money, that ye may eat; and ye shall also buy water of them for money, that ye may drink.

7 For the LORD thy God hath blessed thee in all the works of thy hand: he knoweth thy walking through this great wilderness: [d] these forty years the LORD thy God hath been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.

8 [e] And when we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the plain from [f] Elath, and from [g] Ezion-gaber, we turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

9 And the LORD said unto me, [h] Distress not the Moabites, neither [a] contend with them in battle: for I will not give thee of their land for a possession; because I have given [k] Ar unto the children of Lot for a possession.

10 [l] The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as [o] the Anakims;

11 Which also were accounted [p] giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites call them Emims.

12 [r] The Horims also dwelt in Seir beforetime; but the children of Esau [s] succeeded them, when they had destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their [t] stead; as [t] Israel did unto the land of his possession, which the LORD gave unto them.

13 Now rise up, [v] said I, and get you over the [w] brook Zered. And we went over the [w] brook Zered.

14 And the space in which we came from [b] Kadesh-barnea, until we were come over the [2] brook Zered, was ~~thirty and eight~~ years; [b] until all the generation of the men of war were wasted out from among the host, as the LORD sware unto them.

15 For indeed the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from among the host, until they were consumed.

16 ¶ So it came to pass, when all the men of war were consumed and dead from among the people,

17 That the LORD spake unto me, saying,

18 Thou art to pass over through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day:

19 And when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor [a] meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto [h] the children of Lot for a possession.

20 (That also was accounted a land of [i] giants: giants dwelt therein in old time; and the Ammonites call them [5] Zamzummims;

21 [m] A people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakims; but the LORD destroyed them before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead:

22 As he did [n] to the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, when he destroyed [q] the Horims from before them; and they succeeded them, and dwelt in their stead even unto this day:

23 And [u] the Avims which dwelt in Hazerim, even unto [x] Azzah, [x] the Caphtorims, which came forth out of Caphtor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their stead.)

24 ¶ [z] Rise ye up, take your journey, and [a] pass over the river Arnon: behold, I have given into thine hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his land: begin to possess it, and contend with him in battle.

25 This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the nations that are under the whole heaven, who shall hear report of thee, and shall tremble, and be in anguish because of thee.

26 And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon king of Heshbon with words of peace, saying, 27 Let me pass through thy land: I will go along by the high way, I will neither turn unto the right hand nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sell me meat for money, that I may eat; and give me water for money, that I may drink: only I will pass through on my feet;

29 (As the children of Esau which dwell in Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did unto me;) until I shall pass over Jordan into the land which the LORD our God giveth us.

30 But Sihon king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him: for the LORD thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day.

31 And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give before thee Sihon and his land: begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land.

32 Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to fight at Jahaz.

33 And the LORD our God delivered him before us; and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people.

34 And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed the men, and the women, and the little ones, of every city, we left none to remain:

DEFEAT OF SIHON 32-37

25. Means "Trodden underfoot." Between Medeba & Dibon. Later assigned to Reuben Josh.13:16 & to the Levites Josh.21:36. Cp. Num 21:23-30. Jud. 11:20-23. Neh.9:22. Ps.135:11.

Cf "Laid under ban" Lev.27:28

Reason - Gen. 15:16.

Devoted to destruction

27 MATHIM - adults, persons of both sexes. Cp Job.11:3; 24:12. Thus "every inhabited city, including the women & children." Reason - Num.31:15.

To the habits & circumstances common to Moab are wanting in regard to Ammon. The Ammonites seem fierce & cruel marauders 1 Sam 11:2; Am. 1:13; Jer 49:6-7. It seems Moabites were settled & civilized whilst Ammonites the predatory & bedouin section. Thus the fierce god of Ammon (Molech) dwelt in a tent Amos 5:26

60 CITIES OF ARGOB.

"The 60 walled cities are still traceable in a space of 308 sq. m. The architecture is ponderous & massive; solid walls 6 ft thick, and stones on one another without cement. The roofs enormous slabs of basaltic rock like iron; the doors and gates are of stone 18 inches thick, secured by ponderous bars. The land bears still the appearance of having been called 'the land of giants under the giant Og'." (Porter - Giant cities of Bashan. See also top. p 248. Trachonitus Luke 3:1 = the rough country.

20 but until the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as he hath given unto you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: then shall ye return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

21 And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest.

22 Ye shall not fear them: for the LORD your God he shall fight for you.

23 ¶ And I besought the LORD at that time, saying,

24 O Lord GOD, thou hast begun to show thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?

25 I pray thee, let me go over and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon.

26 But the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter.

27 Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

28 But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see.

29 So we abode in the valley over against Beth-peor.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Moses exhorteth to obedience. 5 The excellency of the law. 9 Israel is charged to remember God's mercies. 15 Idolatry is forbidden. 25 Moses foretelleth their idolatry, dispersion, and repentance. 32 God's mercies to Israel. 39 Therefore they must keep his statutes. 41 Moses severeth three cities.

NOW therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you.

2 Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Baal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you.

4 But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8 And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons;

10 Specially the day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness.

12 And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; only ye heard a voice.

13 And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even ten commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of stone.

14 And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

15 Take ye therefore good heed unto yourselves; for ye saw no manner of similitude on the day that the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire:

16 Lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female,

17 The likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flieth in the air,

18 The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

20 But the LORD hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day.

21 Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance:

22 But I must die in this land, I must not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land.

23 Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee.

24 For the LORD thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God.

25 When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and ye shall have remained long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and shall do evil in the sight of the LORD thy God, to provoke him to anger:

26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye pass over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you.

28 And there ye shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if from thence thou shalt seek the LORD thy God, thou shalt find him, if thou seek him with all thy heart and with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the LORD thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice;

31 (For the LORD thy God is a merciful God;) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he sware unto them.

32 For ask now of the days past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one side of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath been heard like it?

33 Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live?

34 Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know that the LORD he is God; there is none else beside him.

36 Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he showed thee his great fire; and thou heardest his words out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt;

38 To drive out nations from before thy face greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

39 Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.

40 Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever.

41 Then Moses severed three cities on this side Jordan toward the sunrising;

42 That the slayer might flee thither, which should kill his neighbour unawares, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities he might live:

43 Namely, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites.

44 And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel:

45 These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses spake unto the children of Israel, after they came forth out of Egypt,

46 On this side Jordan in the valley over against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote, after they were come forth out of Egypt:

47 And they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, which were on this side Jordan toward the sunrising;

48 From Aroer, which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even unto mount Sion, which is Hermon, 49 And all the plain on this side Jordan eastward, even unto the sea of the plain, under the springs of Pisgah.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Moses rehearseth the covenant in Horeb. 6 The ten commandments. 22 The people's fear. 28 God's approbation of their promise. 31 Moses is bidden to stay with God to receive the commandments.

AND Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and keep, and do them.

2 The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.

3 The LORD made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.

4 The LORD talked with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the fire,

5 (I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to shew you the word of the LORD: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount;) saying,

6 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

7 Thou shalt have none other gods before me.

8 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

9 Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me,

10 And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

11 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

12 Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee.

13 Six days thou shalt labour, and do all thy work:

14 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; that thy manservant and thy maidservant may rest as well as thou.

15 And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD thy God brought thee out thence through a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD thy God commanded thee to keep the sabbath day.

16 Honour thy father and thy mother, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

17 Thou shalt not kill.

18 Neither shalt thou commit adultery.

19 Neither shalt thou steal.

20 Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour.

21 Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour's wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbour's house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is thy neighbour's.

22 These words the LORD spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: and he added no more. And he wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me.

23 And it came to pass, when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that ye came near unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders;

24 And ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath shewed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he liveth.

25 Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die.

26 For who is there of all flesh, that hath heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

27 Go thou near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say: and speak thou unto us all that the LORD our God shall speak unto thee; and we will hear it, and do it.

28 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, when ye spake unto me; and the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto thee: they have well said all that they have spoken.

29 O that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever!

30 Go say to them, Get you into your tents again.

31 But as for thee, stand thou here by me, and I will speak unto thee all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it.

32 Ye shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God hath commanded you: ye shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

33 Ye shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be well with you, and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Moses exhorteth to the fear of God, and obedience to his commandments. 4 The unity of God. 5 The love of God. 6 The words of God must be in the heart. 7 They must be taught to children. 8 They must be bound for a sign upon the hand, and for frontlets between the eyes. 9 They must be written upon the posts of the house, and upon the gates. 10 Moses warneth them not to forget God in the land of plenty. 13 They must fear God, and swear by his name. 14 They must not go after other gods. 16 They must not tempt God. 17 They must keep his commandments. 20 The use of the law. 24 The end of the law.

NOW these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go to possess it:

2 That thou might fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged.

3 Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it; that it may be well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee, in the land that floweth with milk and honey.

4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD:

5 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

6 And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:

7 And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

8 And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.

9 And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

10 And it shall be when the LORD thy God shall have brought thee into the land which he sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee great and goodly cities, which thou buildedst not,

11 And houses full of all good things, which thou filledst not, and wells digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and olive trees, which thou plantedst not, when thou shalt have eaten and be full;

12 Then beware lest thou forget the LORD, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

13 Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his name.

14 Ye shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round about you;

15 (For the LORD thy God is a jealous God among you) lest the anger of the LORD thy God be kindled against thee, and destroy thee from off the face of the earth.

16 Ye shall not tempt the LORD your God, as ye tempted him in Massah.

17 Ye shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he hath commanded thee.

18 And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the good land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, 19 To cast out all thine enemies from before thee, as the LORD hath spoken.

20 And when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What mean the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD our God hath commanded you?

21 Then thou shalt say unto thy son, We were Pharaoh's bondmen in Egypt; and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand:

22 And the LORD showed signs and wonders, great and sore, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes:

23 And he brought us out from thence, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he sware unto our fathers.

24 And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as it is at this day.

25 And it shall be our righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as he hath commanded us.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The Israelites are commanded to destroy the Canaanites. 3 They must not make marriages with them. 5 They must destroy their idols. 6 They are a holy people. 7 God's love is free. 9 He is faithful. 12 He will bless them. 17 They must not fear their enemies. 20 God will send hornets. 22 He will consume their enemies by little and little. 25 They must not covet the idols' silver or gold.

WHEN the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than thou;

2 And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them:

3 Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son.

4 For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly.

5 But thus shall ye deal with them; ye shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire.

6 For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

7 The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people:

8 But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9 Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations;

10 And repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face.

11 Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them.

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, if ye hearken to these judgments, and keep, and do them, that the LORD thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he sware unto thy fathers:

13 And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

14 Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle.

15 And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee.

16 And thou shalt consume all the people which the LORD thy God shall deliver thee; thine eye shall have no pity upon them: neither shalt thou serve their gods; for that will be a snare unto thee.

17 If thou shalt say in thine heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?

18 Thou shalt not be afraid of them: but shalt well remember what the LORD thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt;

19 The great temptations which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby the LORD thy God brought thee out: so shall the LORD thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid.

20 Moreover the LORD thy God will send the hornet among them, until they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed.

21 Thou shalt not be affrighted at them: for the LORD thy God is among you, a mighty God and terrible.

22 And the LORD thy God will put out those nations before thee by little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee.

23 But the LORD thy God shall deliver them unto thee, and shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed.

24 And he shall deliver their kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from under heaven: there shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them.

25 The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God.

26 Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Moses exhorteth to obedience. 2 He putteth them in remembrance of their wilderness travels. 5 God chastiseth his people for their profit. 7 The land of promise. 10 They must bless God for it. 11 They must not forget God in the time of prosperity. 17 They must not ascribe their wealth to their own power. 19 They must not forget God, lest they perish.

ALL the commandments which I command thee this day shall ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.

3 And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.

4 Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years.

5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee.

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him.

7 For the LORD thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

8 A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive, and honey;

9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass.

10 When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the LORD thy God for the good land which he hath given thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day:

12 Lest when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein;

13 And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied;

14 Then thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the LORD thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage;

15 Who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there was no water; who brought thee forth water out of the rock of flint;

16 Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end;

17 And thou say in thine heart, My power and the might of mine hand hath gotten me this wealth.

18 But thou shalt remember the LORD thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

19 And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the LORD thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that ye shall surely perish.

20 As the nations which the LORD destroyeth before your face, so shall ye perish; because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Moses exhorteth to humility. 4 Not for their own righteousness. 6 But for the wickedness of the nations. 7 Moses putteth them in remembrance of their rebellion. 23 And of their unbelief. 25 He maketh intercession for them. 27 He remembereth God of his promise.

HEAR, O Israel: Thou art to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and fenced up to heaven,

2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak!

3 Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy God is he which goeth over before thee; as a consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, and make them to perish quickly, as the LORD hath said unto thee.

4 Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath cast them out before thee, saying, For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD doth drive them out from before thee.

5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked people.

7 Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD.

8 Also in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you.

9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10 And the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.

11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.

12 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 And I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the LORD to wrath.

23 Likewise when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24 Ye have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

25 Thus I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

26 I prayed therefore unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin:

28 Lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power and by thy stretched out arm.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Moses maketh the second tables. 6 The death of Aaron. 8 The office of the Levites. 10 Moses' prayer is heard. 12 What God requireth of his people. 16 They must circumcise their hearts. 17 God's power and mercy. 20 They must fear God, and cleave unto him.

AT that time the LORD said unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an ark of wood.

2 And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the ark.

3 And I made an ark of shittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, having the two tables in mine hand.

4 And he wrote on the tables according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the LORD spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me.

5 And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they be, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera: there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his stead.

7 From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters.

8 At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day.

9 Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD thy God promised him.

10 And I stayed in the mount, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD hearkened unto me at that time, and the LORD would not destroy thee.

11 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, take thy journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give unto them.

12 And now, Israel, what doth the LORD thy God require of thee, but to fear the LORD thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul,

13 To keep the commandments of the LORD, and his statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good?

14 Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens is the LORD's thy God, the earth also, with all that therein is.

15 Only the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.

16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked.

17 For the LORD your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward:

18 He doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.

19 Love ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

20 Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name.

21 He is thy praise, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes have seen.

22 Thy fathers went down into Egypt with threescore and ten persons; and now the LORD thy God hath made thee as the stars of heaven for multitude.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Moses exhorteth to love God, and to keep his commandments. 2 He putteth them in remembrance of his mercies and judgments. 8 He exhorteth to obedience. 10 The land of promise. 13 The blessing of obedience. 16 The curse of disobedience. 18 The words of God must be in the heart. 19 They must be taught to children. 20 They must be written upon the posts of the house, and upon the gates. 22 The blessing of obedience. 26 Blessing and cursing.

THEREFORE thou shalt love the LORD thy God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, always.

2 And know ye this day: for I speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not seen the chastisement of the LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched out arm,

3 And his miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land;

4 And what he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD hath destroyed them unto this day;

5 And what he did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into this place;

6 And what he did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel:

7 But your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which he did.

8 Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possess the land, whither ye go to possess it;

9 And that ye may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs:

11 But the land, whither ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven:

12 A land which the LORD thy God careth for: the eyes of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

13 And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,

14 That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn and thy wine and thine oil.

15 And I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be full.

16 Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them;

17 And then the LORD's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you.

18 Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.

19 And teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

20 And thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thine house, and upon thy gates:

21 That your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth.

22 For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him;

23 Then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves.

24 Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea shall your coast be.

25 There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you.

26 Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse;

27 A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day:

28 And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day

1 Then we turned, and took our journey by the way of the wilderness of Bashan: and they went up by the way of Bashan; and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, unto battle at Edrei.

2 And the LORD said unto me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.

3 So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we smote him until none was left to him remaining.

4 And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, threescore cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; besides unwalled towns a great many.

6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children, of every city.

7 But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.

8 Also at that time took we out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river Arnon unto mount Hermon;

9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion; and the Amorites call it Shenir;

10 All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

12 And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants.

14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob unto the coasts of Geshuri and Maachathi, and called them after his own name, Bashan-havoth-jair, unto this day.

15 And I gave Gilead unto Machir.

16 And unto the Reubenites and unto the Gadites I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon half the valley, and the border even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon;

17 The plain also, Jordan, and the coast thereof, from Chinnereth even unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, under Ashdoth-pisgah eastward.

18 And I commanded you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess it: all that are valiant men, shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all that are meet for the war.

19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (for I know that ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you;

20 Until the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as he has given you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and then shall ye return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

21 And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest.

22 Ye shall not fear them: for the LORD your God he shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the LORD at that time, saying,

24 O Lord GOD, thou hast begun to show thy servant thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?

25 I pray thee, let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon.

26 But the LORD was wroth with me for your sakes, and would not hear me: and the LORD said unto me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto me of this matter.

27 Get thee up into the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not go over this Jordan.

28 But charge Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him: for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which thou shalt see.

29 So we abode in the valley over against Beth-peor.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Now therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers gives you.

2 Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Baal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God has destroyed them from among you.

4 But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For what nation is there so great, who has God so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8 And what nation is there so great, that has statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons;

10 Specially the day that thou stoodest before the LORD your God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire unto the midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness.

12 And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: you heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; only you heard a voice.

13 And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even ten commandments; and he wrote them upon two tables of stone.

14 And the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that you might do them in the land whither you go over to possess it.

15 Take ye therefore good heed unto yourselves; for you saw no manner of similitude on the day that the LORD spake unto you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire:

16 Lest you corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female,

17 The likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flies in the air,

18 The likeness of any thing that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God has divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

20 But the LORD has taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as you are this day.

21 Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance:

22 But I must die in this land, I must not go over Jordan: but you shall go over, and possess that good land.

23 Take heed unto yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the LORD your God has forbidden you.

24 For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God.

25 When thou shalt beget children, and children's children, and you shall have remained long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and shall do evil in the sight of the LORD your God, to provoke him to anger:

26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto you go over Jordan to possess it; you shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and you shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you.

28 And there you shall serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if from there you shall seek the LORD your God, you shall find him, if you seek him with all your heart and with all your soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things are come upon thee, even in the latter days, if thou turn to the LORD your God, and shall be obedient unto his voice;

31 (For the LORD your God is a merciful God;) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he swore unto them.

32 For ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one side of heaven unto the other, whether there has been any such thing as this great thing is, or has been heard like it?

33 Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live?

34 Or has God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto you it was showed, that you might know that the LORD he is God; there is none else beside him.

36 Out of heaven he made you to hear his voice, that he might instruct you: and upon earth he showed you his great fire; and you heard his words out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because he loved your fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought you out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt;

38 To drive out nations from before you greater and mightier than you are, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

39 Know therefore this day, and consider it in your heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.

40 You shall keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command you this day, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days upon the land, which the LORD your God gives you, for ever.

41 Then Moses severed three cities on this side Jordan toward the sunrising;

42 That the slayer might flee there, which should kill his neighbour unawares, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities he might live:

43 Even Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites.

44 And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel:

45 These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses spake unto the children of Israel, after they came forth out of Egypt,

46 On this side Jordan, in the valley over against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote, after they were come forth out of Egypt:

47 And they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, which were on this side Jordan toward the sunrising;

48 From Aroer, which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even unto mount Sion, which is Hermon,

49 And all the plain on this side Jordan eastward, even unto the sea of the plain, under the springs of Pisgah.

CHAPTER 5.

1 And Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that you may learn them, and keep, and do them.

2 The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.

3 The LORD made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.

4 The LORD talked with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the fire,

5 (I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to show you the word of the LORD: for you were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount;) saying,

6 I am the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

7 You shall have none other gods before me.

8 You shall not make unto you any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

9 You shall not bow down yourself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me;

10 And showing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

11 You shall not take the name of the LORD your God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that takes his name in vain.

12 Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD your God has commanded you.

13 Six days you shall labour, and do all your work:

14 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD your God: in it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your manservant, nor your maidservant, nor your ox, nor your ass, nor any of your cattle, nor your stranger that is within your gates; that your manservant and your maidservant may rest as well as you.

15 And remember that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD your God brought you out thence through a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

16 Honour your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you; that your days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with you, in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

17 You shall not kill.

18 Neither shall you commit adultery.

19 Neither shall you steal.

20 Neither shall you bear false witness against your neighbour.

21 Neither shall you desire your neighbour's wife, neither shall you covet your neighbour's house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is your neighbour's.

22 These words the LORD spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: and he added no more. And he wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me.

23 And it came to pass, when you heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that you came near unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders;

24 And you said, Behold, the LORD our God has showed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God does talk with man, and he lives.

25 Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die.

26 For who is there of all flesh, that has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived?

27 Go you near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say: and speak you unto us all that the LORD our God shall speak unto you; and we will hear it, and do it.

28 And the LORD heard the voice of your words, when you spoke unto me; and the LORD said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken unto you: they have well said all that they have spoken.

29 O that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might go well with them, and with their children for ever!

30 Go say to them, Get you into your tents again.

31 But as for you, stand you here by me, and I will speak unto you all the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which you shall teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it.

32 You shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God has commanded you: you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

33 You shall walk in all the ways which the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live, and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Now these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that you might do them in the land whither you go to possess it:

2 That you might fear the LORD your God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command you, you, and your son, and your son's son, all the days of your life; and that your days may be prolonged.

3 Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it; that it may be well with you, and that you may increase mightily, as the LORD God of your fathers has promised you, in the land that flows with milk and honey.

4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD:

5 And you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might.

6 And these words, which I command you this day, shall be in your heart:

7 And you shall teach them diligently unto your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up.

8 And you shall bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

9 And you shall write them upon the posts of your house, and on your gates.

10 And it shall be when the LORD your God shall have brought you into the land which he swore unto your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you great and goodly cities, which you built not,

11 And houses full of all good things, which you filled not, and wells digged, which you digged not, vineyards and olive trees, which you planted not, when you shall have eaten and be full;

12 Then beware lest you forget the LORD, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

13 You shall fear the LORD your God, and serve him, and shall swear by his name.

14 You shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the people which are round about you;

15 (For the LORD your God among you is a jealous God) lest the anger of the LORD your God be kindled against you, and destroy you from off the face of the earth.

16 You shall not tempt the LORD your God, as you tempted him in Massah.

17 You shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he has commanded you.

18 And you shall do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land which the LORD sware unto your fathers, 19 To cast out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has spoken.

20 And when your son asks you in time to come, saying, What mean the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which the LORD our God has commanded you?

21 Then you shall say unto your son, We were Pharaoh's bondmen in Egypt; and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand:

22 And the LORD showed signs and wonders, great and sore, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our eyes:

23 And he brought us out from there, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he sware unto our fathers.

24 And the LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as it is at this day.

25 And it shall be our righteousness, if we observe to do all these commandments before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us.

CHAPTER 7.

1 When the LORD your God shall bring you into the land whither you go to possess it, and has cast out many nations before you, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than you;

2 And when the LORD your God shall deliver them before you; you shall smite them, and utterly destroy them; you shall make no covenant with them, nor show mercy unto them:

3 Neither shall you make marriages with them; your daughter you shall not give unto his son, nor his daughter shall you take unto your son.

4 For they will turn away your son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy you suddenly.

5 But thus shall you deal with them; you shall destroy their altars, and break down their images, and cut down their groves, and burn their graven images with fire.

6 For you are a holy people unto the LORD your God: the LORD your God has chosen you to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth.

7 The LORD did not set his love upon you, nor choose you, because you were more in number than any people; for you were the fewest of all people:

8 But because the LORD loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, has the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

9 Know therefore that the LORD your God, he is God, the faithful God, which keeps covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations;

10 And repays them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hates him, he will repay him to his face.

11 You shall therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command you this day, to do them.

12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, if you hearken to these judgments, and keep, and do them, that the LORD your God shall keep unto you the covenant and the mercy which he sware unto your fathers:

13 And he will love you, and bless you, and multiply you: he will also bless the fruit of your womb, and the fruit of your land, your corn, and your wine, and your oil, the increase of your kine, and flocks of your sheep, in the land which he sware unto your fathers to give you.

14 You shall be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle.

15 And the LORD will take away from you all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which you know, upon you; but will lay them upon all them that hate you.

16 And you shall consume all the people which the LORD your God shall deliver you; your eye shall have no pity upon them: neither shall you serve their gods; for that will be a snare unto you.

17 If you shall say in your heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?

18 You shall not be afraid of them: but shall well remember what the LORD your God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt;

19 The great temptations which your eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby the LORD your God brought you out: so shall the LORD your God do unto all the people of whom you are afraid.

20 Moreover the LORD your God will send the hornet among them, until they that are left, and hide themselves from you, are destroyed.

21 You shall not be affrighted at them: for the LORD your God is among you, a mighty God and terrible.

22 And the LORD your God will put out those nations before you by little and little: you may not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon you.

23 But the LORD your God shall deliver them unto you, and shall destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed.

24 And he shall deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall destroy their name from under heaven: there shall no man be able to stand before you, until you have destroyed them.

25 The graven images of their gods shall you burn with fire: you shall not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto you, lest you be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD your God.

26 Neither shall you bring an abomination into your house, lest you be a cursed thing like it: but you shall utterly detest it, and you shall utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing.

CHAPTER 8.

1 All the commandments which I command you this day shall you observe to do, that you may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers.

2 And you shall remember all the way which the LORD your God led you these forty years in the wilderness, to humble you, and to prove you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments, or no.

3 And he humbled you, and suffered you to hunger, and fed you with manna, which you knew not, neither did your fathers know; that he might make you know that man does not live by bread only, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD does man live.

4 Your raiment waxed not old upon you, neither did your foot swell, these forty years.

5 You should also consider in your heart, that, as a man chastens his son, so the LORD your God chastens you.

6 Therefore you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him.

7 For the LORD your God brings you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

8 A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive, and honey;

9 A land wherein you shall eat bread without scarceness, you shall not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig brass.

10 When you have eaten and are full, then you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which he has given you.

11 Beware that you forget not the LORD your God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command you this day:

12 Lest when you have eaten and are full, and have built goodly houses, and dwelt therein;

13 And when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied;

14 Then your heart be lifted up, and you forget the LORD your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage;

15 Who led you through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there was no water; who brought you forth water out of the rock of flint;

16 Who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers knew not, that he might humble you, and that he might prove you, to do you good at your latter end;

17 And you say in your heart, My power and the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth.

18 But you shall remember the LORD your God: for it is he that gives you power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto your fathers, as it is this day.

19 And it shall be, if you do at all forget the LORD your God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that you shall surely perish.

20 As the nations which the LORD destroys before your face, so shall you perish; because you would not be obedient unto the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Hear, O Israel: You are to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than yourself, cities great and fenced up to heaven,

2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom you know, and of whom you have heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak!

3 Understand therefore this day, that the LORD your God is he which goes over before you; as a consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before your face: so shall you drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD has said unto you.

4 Speak not you in your heart, after that the LORD your God has cast them out before you, saying, For my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD does drive them out from before you.

5 Not for your righteousness, or for the uprightness of your heart, do you go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD your God does drive them out from before you, and that he may perform the word which the LORD sware unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD your God gives you not this good land to possess it for your righteousness; for you are a stiffnecked people.

7 Remember, and forget not, how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that you did depart out of the land of Egypt, until you came unto this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD.

8 Also in Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you.

9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10 And the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.

11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.

12 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get you down quickly from here; for your people which you have brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 And I looked, and, behold, you had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf: you had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes.

18 And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread nor drink water, because of all your sins which you sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burned it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, you provoked the LORD to wrath.

23 Likewise when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and you believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24 You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

25 Thus I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

26 I prayed therefore unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, destroy not your people and your inheritance, which you have redeemed through your greatness, which you have brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin:

28 Lest the land whence you brought us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are your people and your inheritance, which you brought out by your mighty power and by your stretched out arm.

CHAPTER 10.

1 At that time the LORD said unto me, Hew you two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make you an ark of wood.

2 And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark.

3 And I made an ark of shittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, having the two tables in my hand.

4 And he wrote on the tables according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the LORD spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me.

5 And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they be, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera: there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his stead.

7 From there they journeyed unto Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters.

8 At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day.

9 Wherefore Levi has no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD your God promised him.

10 And I stayed in the mount, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also, and the LORD would not destroy you.

11 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, take your journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give unto them.

12 And now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul,

13 To keep the commandments of the LORD, and his statutes, which I command you this day for your good?

14 Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens is the LORD your God's, the earth also, with all that therein is.

15 Only the LORD had a delight in your fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.

16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked.

17 For the LORD your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regards not persons, nor takes reward:

18 He does execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loves the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.

19 Love you therefore the stranger: for you were strangers in the land of Egypt.

20 You shall fear the LORD your God; him shall you serve, and to him shall you cleave, and swear by his name.

21 He is your praise, and he is your God, that has done for you these great and terrible things, which your eyes have seen.

22 Your fathers went down into Egypt with threescore and ten persons; and now the LORD your God has made you as the stars of heaven for multitude.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Therefore you shall love the LORD your God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, always.

2 And know you this day: for I speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not seen the chastisement of the LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched out arm,

3 And his miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land;

4 And what he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD has destroyed them unto this day;

5 And what he did unto you in the wilderness, until you came into this place;

6 And what he did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel:

7 But your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which he did.

8 Therefore shall you keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land, whither you go to possess it;

9 And that you may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, a land that flows with milk and honey.

10 For the land, whither you go in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from where you came out, where you sowed your seed, and watered it with your foot, as a garden of herbs:

11 But the land, whither you go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinks water of the rain of heaven:

12 A land which the LORD your God cares for: the eyes of the LORD your God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

13 And it shall come to pass, if you shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,

14 That I will give you the rain of your land in its due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your corn, and your wine, and your oil.

15 And I will send grass in your fields for your cattle, that you may eat and be full.

16 Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and you turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them;

17 And then the LORD's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest you perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD gives you.

18 Therefore shall you lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.

19 And you shall teach them your children, speaking of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, when you lie down, and when you rise up.

20 And you shall write them upon the door posts of your house, and upon your gates:

21 That your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth.

22 For if you shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him;

23 Then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and you shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves.

24 Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea shall your coast be.

25 There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that you shall tread upon, as he has said unto you.

26 Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse;

27 A blessing, if you obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day:

28 And a curse, if you will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which you have not known.

29 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD your God has brought you in unto the land whither you go to possess it, that you shall put the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount Ebal.

30 Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goes down, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the champaign over against Gilgal, beside the plains of Moreh?

31 For you shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God gives you, and you shall possess it, and dwell therein.

32 And you shall observe to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

CHAPTER 12.

1 These are the statutes and judgments, which you shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD God of your fathers gives you to possess it, all the days that you live upon the earth.

2 You shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which you shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree:

3 And you shall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and you shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place.

4 You shall not do so unto the LORD your God.

5 But unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall you seek, and there you shall come:

6 And there you shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and heave offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks:

7 And there you shall eat before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice in all that you put your hand unto, you and your households, wherein the LORD your God has blessed you.

8 You shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every man whatever is right in his own eyes.

9 For you are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the LORD your God gives you.

10 But when you go over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God gives you to inherit, and when he gives you rest from all your enemies round about, so that you dwell in safety;

11 Then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there; there shall you bring all that I command you; your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which you vow unto the LORD:

12 And you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you, and your sons, and your daughters, and your manservants, and your maidservants, and the Levite that is within your gates; forasmuch as he has no part nor inheritance with you.

13 Take heed to yourself that you offer not your burnt offerings in every place that you see:

14 But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you.

15 Notwithstanding you may kill and eat flesh in all your gates, whatever your soul lusts after, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which he has given you: the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, as of the roebuck, and as of the hart.

16 Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it upon the earth as water.

17 You may not eat within your gates the tithe of your corn, or of your wine, or of your oil, or the firstlings of your herds or of your flocks, nor any of your vows which you vow, nor your freewill offerings, or heave offering of your hand:

18 But you must eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God shall choose, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your manservant, and your maidservant, and the Levite that is within your gates: and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all that you put your hand unto.

19 Take heed to yourself that you forsake not the Levite as long as you live upon your earth.

20 When the LORD your God shall enlarge your border, as he has promised you, and you shall say, I will eat flesh, because your soul longs to eat flesh; you may eat flesh, whatever your soul lusts after.

21 If the place which the LORD your God has chosen to put his name there be too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock, which the LORD has given you, as I have comm

EDREI. 41.3:1. A town of Bashan where Og was defeated, afterwards assigned to eastern Manasseh Josh.13:31. Num.32:33. Modern Ed-Dera'-ah. discovered by Wetzstein in 1860, explored & mapped by Schumacher in 1886. The ruins reveal a remarkable subterranean city. There is a small court 26 ft long, 8 ft wide. some 60 ft below the ground, and approached by a passage some 20 ft long is a large enclosure shut off by a stone door with 60 ft air holes. Then follows a large underground city with streets, dwellings, market-places, cisterns for water. This subterranean city provided a refuge for the people of Edrei in time of danger. The weakness was the air holes. If an enemy discovered these and cut off the air supply the besieged would have had to surrender or perish. See Unger.

THEN we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and (k)Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei.
2 And the LORD said unto me, Fear him not: for I will deliver him, and all his people, and his land, into thy hand; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto (o)Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Heshbon.
3 So the LORD our God delivered into our hands Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: (p)and we smote him until none was left to him remaining.
4 And we took all his cities at that time, there was not a city which we took not from them, threescore cities, (r)all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan.
5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates, and bars; beside (z)unwalled towns a great many.

Moab & Ammon Cont.
To the habits & circumstances common to Moab are wanting in regard to Ammon. The Ammonites seem fierce & cruel marauders 1 Sam 11:2; Am. 1:13; Jer 49:6-7. It seems Moabites more settled & civilized whilst Ammonites its predatory & bedouin section. Thus the fierce god of Ammon (Molech) dwelt in a tent Amos 5:26

60 CITIES OF ARGOB.
"The 60 walled cities are still traceable in a space of 308 sq. m. The architecture is ponderous & massive; solid walls 4 ft thick, and stones on one another without cement: the roofs enormous slabs of basaltic rock like iron; the doors and gates are of stone 18 inches thick, secured by ponderous bars. The land bears still the appearance of having been called 'the land of giants under the giant-Og'" (Porter - Giant cities of Bashan. See also top. p 244) Trachonitus Luke 3:1 = the rough country.

From "The Giant Cities of Bashan" by Dr. J.L. PORTER. "The houses of Kerioth and other towns of Bashan appear to be just such dwellings as a race of giants would build. The walls, the roofs, but especially the ponderous gates doors and bars are in every way characteristic of a period when architecture was in its infancy, when giants were masons and when strength & security were the grand requisites. I measured a door in Kerioth; it was 9 ft high and 4½ft wide & 10 inches thick — one solid slab of stone. I saw the folding gates of another town still larger and heavier. Time produces little effect on such buildings as these . . . there can scarcely be a doubt, therefore, that these are the very cities erected and inhabited by the Nephilim, the aboriginal occupants of Bashan. See bottom 247 stroying [a] the men, women, and children, of every city.

7 But all the cattle, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves.

8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Hermon;

9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion; and the Amorites call it Shenir;)

10 All the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, unto Salchah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan.

11 For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in [p] Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit [q] of a man.

12 And this land, which we possessed at that time, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and half mount Gilead, and the cities thereof, gave I unto the Reubenites and to the Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh; [x] all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of [x] giants.

14 Jair the son of Manasseh took all the country of Argob unto the coasts of [b] Geshuri and Maachathi; and called them after his own name, Bashan-havoth-jair, unto this day.

15 And I gave Gilead unto Machir.

16 And unto the Reubenites and unto the Gadites I gave from Gilead even unto the river Arnon half the valley, and the border even unto the river Jabbok, [b] which is the border of the children of Ammon;

17 The plain also, and Jordan, and the coast thereof, from [c] Chinnereth [d] even unto the sea of the plain, [e] even the salt sea, [2] under Ashdoth-pisgah eastward.

18 ¶ And I commanded you at that time, saying, The LORD your God hath given you this land to possess it: ye shall pass over [h] armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all that are meet for the war.

19 But your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle, (for [m] I know that ye have much cattle,) shall abide in your cities which I have given you;

20 Until [o] the LORD have given rest unto your brethren, as well as unto you, and until they also possess the land which the LORD your God hath given them beyond Jordan: and then shall ye return every man unto his possession, which I have given you.

21 ¶ And I commanded [q] Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that the LORD your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the LORD do unto all the kingdoms whither thou passest.

22 Ye shall not fear them: for [v] the LORD your God he shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the LORD at that time, saying,

24 O Lord GOD, thou hast begun to shew thy servant [c] thy greatness, and thy mighty hand: for what [g] God is there in heaven or in earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?

25 I pray thee, let me go over, and see [f] the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and [h] Lebanon.

26 But the LORD [i] was wroth with me for your sakes, and

RABBATH of AMMON. Vv 11 Sig. "Great." Modern Amman, about 22 miles from Jordan situated in a valley which is a branch, or perhaps the main course of the Wady Zerka, usually identified with the Jabbok. The only city mentioned of the Ammonites, & therefore frequently called "of the children of Ammon" (Cp Gen. 14:18. Zeph 2:8) Not included in the territory of Israel, the border of God stopping at this point Josh. 13:25. In the days of David, Abishai held the Ammonites in check at this spot 2 Sam. 10:10,14 whilst Joab & the main army rested at Medeba 1 Chr. 19:7. The next year Joab attacked Rabbath 2 Sam. 11:1, which after a siege of perhaps 2 years fell 2 Sam. 12:26 1 Chron. 20:1. One of the ~~executive~~ men slain at the time was Uriah the Hittite 2 Sam. 11:17. It was then styled the royal city 2 Sam. 12:26 and 250 years later, still contained the sanctuary of Molech, the King Amos 1:14. Within its walls Baalis, King of Ammonites plotted the attack of Ishmael that cost Gedaliah his life and drove Jeremiah into Egypt Jer. 40:14. It received the name Philadelphia from Ptolemy Philadelphus (BC. 285-247). under Pompey (B.C. 63) Philadelphia was made a member of the Decapolis. Rabbath was punished because of its antagonism to Israel Ezek. 25:1-7, 20. Its punishment and restoration was predicted by Jeremiah Jer. 49:1-6. Cp Ezek 21:20

RIVER ARNON Num. 21:13. The territory between Arnon & Jabbok (50m) was disputed territory. The Ammonites claimed it as originally theirs, & that Israel took it Jdg 11:13. 1 An exhortation to obedience. 14 A dissuasive against idolatry. 41 Moses appointeth the three cities of refuge on that side Jordan.

NOW therefore hearken, O Israel, unto (a) the statutes and unto the judgments, which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD God of your fathers giveth you.

2 (b) Ye shall not add unto the word which I command you, neither shall ye diminish ought from it, that ye may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you.

3 Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of (c) Baal-peor: for all the men that followed Baal-peor, the LORD thy God hath destroyed them from among you.

4 But ye that did cleave unto the LORD your God are alive every one of you this day.

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do them; for this is (d) your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, (e) Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For (f) what nation is there so great, who hath (g) God so nigh unto them, as the LORD our God is in all things that we call upon him for?

8 And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

9 Only take heed to thyself, and (h) keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but (i) teach them thy sons, and thy sons' sons;

10 (k) Specially (l) the day that thou stoodest before the LORD thy God in Horeb, when the LORD said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

11 And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the (m) mountain burned with fire unto the (n) midst of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and thick darkness.

12 (o) And the LORD spake unto you out of the midst of the fire: (p) ye heard the voice of the words, but saw no similitude; (q) only ye heard a voice.

13 (r) And he declared unto you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even ten (s) commandments; and (t) he wrote them upon two tables of stone.

14 ¶ And (u) the LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them

16 Lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female,

17 The likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flieth in the air,

18 The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sun, and the moon, and the stars, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the LORD thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

Queen of heaven. Jer. 7:18.

20 But the LORD hath taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day. 18 Deut. 32:9 1 Pet. 2:9.

21 Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and sware that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance:

22 But I must die in this land, I must not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over, and possess that good land.

23 Take heed unto yourselves, lest ye forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, which the LORD thy God hath forbidden thee.

26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye go over Jordan to possess it; ye shall not prolong your days upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the LORD shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the LORD shall lead you.

whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath been heard like it?

33 @Did ever people hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live?

34 Or hath God assayed to go and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, [e] by temptations, [f] by signs, [17] and [g] by wonders, and by war, and [h] by a mighty hand, and [i] by a stretched out arm, and [k] by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know that the LORD he is God; [l] there is none else beside him.

36 [m] Out of heaven he made thee to hear his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he shewed thee his great fire; and thou heardest his words out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because [p] he loved thy fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt;

38 [q] To drive out nations from before thee greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

39 Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that [u] the LORD he is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: [x] there is none else.

40 [z] Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, [a] that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days upon the earth, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, for ever.

41 ¶ Then Moses [b] severed three cities on this side Jordan toward the sun rising;

42 That the slayer might flee thither, which should kill his neighbour @unawares, and hated him not [c] in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities he might live:

43 Namely, [d] Bezer in the wilderness, in [f] the plain country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites.

44 ¶ And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel:

45 These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses spake unto the children of Israel, after they came forth out of Egypt,

46 On this side Jordan, [n] in the valley over against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel [o] smote, after they were come forth out of Egypt:

47 And they possessed his land, and the land [q] of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, which were on this side Jordan toward the sun rising;

48 [s] From Aroer, which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even unto mount [t] Sion, which is [t] Hermon, 49 And all the plain on this side Jordan eastward, even unto [v] the sea of the plain, under the [v] springs of Pisgah.

3 Spoken before written, while it may be "to ministry of death" 2 Cor. 3:7 it is not a dead letter. It is designed to enlighten true Israelites to the consciousness of sin + righteousness, leading to the Redeemer Rom. 10:6-11; Gal 3:24.

CHAPTER 5.

Israel is taken back to Horeb, and placed amid the solemn surroundings of the giving of the Law. They are reminded of Yahweh as the Deliverer from Egyptian darkness. He did not claim their love without having done that which should secure it for Him. But this love must have reverence or fear in it also; nothing is more offensive than the familiar tone assumed toward God by some who have absorbed the lack of respect that is typical of today 2 Tim 3. A Godly fear is both purgative + preservative 2 Cor. 7:9-11 and in that sense gracious. There remains for us, after grace is come a "fear of the Lord" which is not terror but allows for no undue familiarity, but provides for comfort, that of the Holy Spirit Word Acts 9:31. Cp. 2 Cor. 7:1; Phil. 2:12; Heb. 12:28.

THE LAW AS A SCHOOLMASTER

All have broken the Law in one particular or the offer Rom. 3:23; 7:9-10; 15-18. A Saviour is therefore needed who can deliver from the curse of the Law Gal. 2:13-14; Gal. 3:13. and give the promise of the Spirit by faith Gal. 3:14. Thus we can have the law "written in our hearts" Heb 10:16. So as to perform the things written therein Rom 2:14. and rejoice in that love which is the fulfilling of the law Rom. 13:9-10.

Covenant in Horeb. DEUTERONOMY 5. The ten commandments.

2 [a] The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.
3 The LORD [b] made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.
4 The LORD talked with you [d] face to face in the mount out of the midst of the fire,
5 ([e] I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to shew you the word of the LORD: for [f] ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount;) saying,
6 ¶ [h] I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of [2] bondage.
7 Thou shalt have none other gods before me.
8 Thou shalt not make thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth:
9 Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me,
10 [l] And shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.
11 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.
12 Keep the sabbath day to sanctify it, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee.
13 Six days thou shalt labour, and do all thy work:
14 But [o] the seventh day is the sabbath of the LORD thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; that thy manservant and thy maidservant may rest as well as thou.
15 [c] And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the LORD thy God brought thee out thence through a mighty hand and by a stretched out arm: therefore the LORD thy God commanded thee to keep the sabbath day.
16 ¶ Honour thy father and thy mother, as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee; [i] that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.
17 [p] Thou shalt not kill.
18 [q] Neither shalt thou commit adultery.
19 Neither shalt thou steal.
20 Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour.
21 Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour's wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbour's house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is thy neighbour's.
22 ¶ These words the LORD spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice: and he added no more. And [m] he wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me.
23 And it came to pass, [n] when ye heard the voice out of the midst of the darkness, (for the mountain did burn with fire,) that ye came near unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders;
24 And ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath shewed us

MANIFESTATION OF YAHWEH'S GLORY. V.22.
2 The 10 Commandments were given from Horeb Deut 4:10 Exod 20:1 The rest of Law given — though Moses On Sinai.
FEAR OF PEOPLE VV. 23-27.
They desire Moses to act as Mediator
These verses 23-33 are an extended version of Exod 20:18-21. Because of the request of the elders, Moses took upon himself the role of mediator. Yahweh approved the request of the people V.28 because it showed their feelings of unworthiness to enter into direct communication with Him. The terror of the occasion so acted upon them to reveal their sinfulness + unworthiness of approach to God direct.

"THOU SHALT LOVE YAHWEH THY GOD."
Deut. 6:5 Cp Exod 20:6; Deut. 5:10.

"This is the first instance in human history that the love of God was demanded in any religion. The love of God is the distinctive mark of His true worshippers. The worshipper, as he declares the Unity of God, thereby lovingly + unconditionally surrenders his mind + heart to God's holy Will. Such spiritual surrender is called "taking upon oneself the Kingdom of heaven." If the Unity of God is the basis of the Jewish creed, the love of God is to be the basis of the Jewish life. And the noblest spiritual surrender + love of God, the Rabbis held, was so to live + act toward our fellowmen as to make God + His Torah beloved in their eyes.

"The meaning of the love of God is that a man should be longing + yearning after the nearness of God, blessed be He, + striving to reach His holiness, in the same manner as he would pursue any object for which he feels a strong passion. He should feel that bliss + delight in mentioning His name, in uttering His praises + in occupying himself with the words of the Torah which a lover feels towards the wife of his youth, or the father towards his only son. The earlier saints attained to such disinterested love of God; as King David said in Ps 42:1-2: "As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after Thee, O God"

An exhortation

Rom. 11:22 & Deut 11:2 - Note

2 that thou might fear the LORD thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be prolonged.

3 Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it; that it may be well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee, in the land that floweth with milk and honey.

4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God is one LORD:

5 And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

6 And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart:

7 And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

8 And thou shalt bind them for a sign upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes.

9 And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and on thy gates.

10 And it shall be, when

The Jewish phylacteries were strips of parchment on which passages of the Law (Exod 13:2-10, 11-17; ch 6:4-10, 13-22) were written, and these enclosed in a box, were bound on the forehead & left wrist, & worn at prayers by the worshippers Mth 23:5. The inscriptions of the law they literally wrote on their homes. But they failed to apply the teaching personally

TALK: DâBar - To arrange. Hence to do so effectively. Boaz Ruth. 2:4 Cp Ps 37:30, 40:9; 119:13, 46; 145:11; Ps 6:20-22 feed Prov. 10:21. Acknowledge aright Ps 12:2, 7. Prov 3:16. Treasure Mt 12:35. No corrupt Eph 4:29. Col 4:6. 1 Pet 3:15. Cp Psalm 39:1.

THE HITTITES. CH.7:1.
Sig Terror from Cheth (Heth). They were descendants of Heth, a son of Canaan. Gen.10:15; 23:3-18; 27:46; 49:32. They were a powerful, civilized nation that held sway in Syria and Asia Minor from 1800 - 900 B.C. The land of the Hittites was given to Israel and taken by Joshua (Josh. 1:4). Some served as officers in David's army 2 Sam. 11:3, 23:39. They served Solomon 1Kg 9:20-21, but retained their own King in the north of Syria & other parts 1Kg 10:29, 2Kg 7:6, 2Chr. 1:17. Their power was completely broken by the time of Nebuchadnezzar. See before.

• Israel failed. Jud. 1:28, 30, 33. • Israel reminded & warned Jud 2:1-3.
• Israel tried. Jud. 3:1-7.

13 They were on the point of quitting a nomad life for a fixed & settled abode in the land. A double danger faced them. 1. A God-forgetting worldliness in their prosperity. 2. A false tolerance of Gentile idolatry. The former error Moses tries to guard against in the verses before us; the latter in vv. 24-11.

13 And he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee: he will also bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee.

14 At such times Yahweh should be called to mind and thanked. Ch.8:10, 12.

14 Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your cattle.

15 Gp Deut 32:15. Beware = give heed to yourself, be on your guard. Five Hermits. Beware of angels Exod. 23:21. Forget Yahweh & His goodness Deut. 6:12. Forget His laws etc Deut. 8:11. Evil thoughts 15:9. Forgetting vows Jud. 13:4, 8.

15 And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee.

16 Quoted by Christ in the wilderness Temptation it covers the full range of worship: fear (see Note), serve - obedience to precepts. Swear - intercourse with others. So "fear" looks inward, "serve" looks upwards, and "swear" looks neighbourwards Cf. Matt. 4:10.

16 And thou shalt consume all the people which the LORD thy God shall deliver thee; thine eye shall have no pity upon them: neither shalt thou serve their gods; for that will be a snare unto thee.

17 This is done to confirm the integrity of a person's intensions or life. All actions are thus performed as before and unto Him. Eg. Eph. 6:5-6.

17 If thou shalt say in thine heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?

18 But thou shalt remember what the LORD thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt;

19 The great temptations, the plagues, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the stretched out arm, whereby the LORD thy God brought thee out: so shall the LORD thy God do unto all the people of whom thou art afraid.

But the injunction was obeyed, & men considered their word only binding when confirmed with an oath. Hence Christ's prohibition Matt 5:33-37. It is significant that he did not include this phrase in his answer to the Tempter. Below 18 Stating negatively what is stated affirmatively in V. 11. Cp 1 Thes 5:21.

19 He is not to be trifled with. He will not share our loyalty with others. Cp Rom. 11:22.

(2) PROSPERITY PROMISED IF YAHWEH OBEYED Vv16-25

20 Shamar - To hedge about as by thorns. To guard, protect. Cp 1 Thes 2:3.

20 Moreover the LORD thy God will send the hornet among them, until they that are left, and hide themselves from thee, be destroyed.

21 Yashar - Straight i.e upright Heb. 12:13. Deut. 12:25-28, 13:18

22 Towb = Good in widest sense. That which gives pleasure to Yahweh.

21 Thou shalt not be affrighted at them: for the LORD thy God is among you, a mighty God and terrible.

23 Need the warning Ch 9:4.

22 And the LORD thy God will put out those nations before thee by little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee.

24 A new generation arises that has not so openly experienced the goodness of Yahweh.

23 But the LORD thy God shall deliver them unto thee, and shall destroy them with a great destruction, until they be destroyed.

25 Deut 4:24. As a devouring fire He consumes them as it would the Canaanites.

24 And he shall take their kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from under heaven: there shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them.

25 The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God.

26 Thou shalt not bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing.

CHAPTER 8.

1 All the commandment which I command thee this day shall ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.

3 And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.

4 Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years.

5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee.

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him.

7 For the LORD thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

8 A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land of oil olive, and honey;

9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass.

10 When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the LORD thy God for the good land which he hath given thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day:

12 Lest when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein;

13 And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied;

14 Then thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the LORD thy God, which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage;

15 Who led thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and thirsty ground, where there was no water; who brought forth to thee water out of the rock of flint;

16 Who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end;

17 And thou say in thine heart, My power and the might of mine hand hath gotten me this wealth.

18 But thou shalt remember the LORD thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he sware unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

19 And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the LORD thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that ye shall surely perish.

20 As the nations which the LORD destroyeth before your face, so shall ye perish; because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Hear, O Israel: Thou art to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than thyself, cities great and fenced up to heaven,

2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak!

3 Understand therefore this day, that the LORD thy God is he which goeth over before thee; as a consuming fire he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, and make them to perish quickly, as the LORD hath said unto thee.

4 Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath cast them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD doth drive them out from before thee.

5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thine heart, dost thou go to possess their land: but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD thy God doth drive them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked people.

7 Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD.

8 Also in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you.

9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I abode in the mount forty days and forty nights, I neither did eat bread nor drink water:

10 And the LORD delivered unto me two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them was written according to all the words, which the LORD spake with you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.

11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.

12 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, get thee down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore the LORD spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and, behold, it is a stiffnecked people:

14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation mightier and greater than they.

15 So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 And I looked, and, behold, ye had sinned against the LORD your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights: I did neither eat bread nor drink water, because of all your sins which ye sinned, in doing wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

19 For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, wherewith the LORD was wroth against you to destroy you. But the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also.

20 And the LORD was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even until it was as small as dust: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

22 And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, ye provoked the LORD to wrath.

23 Likewise when the LORD sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you; then ye rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and ye believed him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24 Ye have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.

25 Thus I fell down before the LORD forty days and forty nights, as I fell down at the first; because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

26 I prayed therefore unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not unto the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin:

28 Lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out by thy mighty power and by thy stretched out arm.

CHAPTER 10.

1 At that time the LORD said unto me, Hew thee two tables of stone like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an ark of wood.

2 And I will write on the tables the words that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the ark.

3 And I made an ark of shittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and went up into the mount, having the two tables in mine hand.

4 And he wrote on the tables according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the LORD spake unto you in the mount out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them unto me.

5 And I turned myself and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they be, as the LORD commanded me.

6 And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Jaakan to Mosera: there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his stead.

7 From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbath, a land of rivers of waters.

8 At that time the LORD separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day.

9 Wherefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren; the LORD is his inheritance, according unto all that the LORD thy God promised him.

10 And I stayed in the mount, according to the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD hearkened unto me at that time also, and the LORD would not destroy thee.

11 And the LORD said unto me, Arise, take thy journey before the people, that they may go in and possess the land, which I sware unto their fathers to give unto them.

12 And now, Israel, what doth the LORD thy God require of thee, but to fear the LORD thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the LORD thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul,

13 To keep the commandments of the LORD, and his statutes, which I command thee this day for thy good?

14 Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens is the LORD's thy God, the earth also, with all that therein is.

15 Only the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.

16 Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiffnecked.

17 For the LORD your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which regardeth not persons, nor taketh reward:

18 He doth execute the judgment of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.

19 Love ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

20 Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and swear by his name.

21 He is thy praise, and he is thy God, that hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes have seen.

22 Thy fathers went down into Egypt with threescore and ten persons; and now the LORD thy God hath made thee as the stars of heaven for multitude.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Therefore thou shalt love the LORD thy God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgments, and his commandments, always.

2 And know ye this day: for I speak not with your children which have not known, and which have not seen the chastisement of the LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched out arm,

3 And his miracles, and his acts, which he did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land;

4 And what he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Red sea to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD hath destroyed them unto this day;

5 And what he did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into this place;

6 And what he did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession, in the midst of all Israel:

7 But your eyes have seen all the great acts of the LORD which he did.

8 Therefore shall ye keep all the commandment which I command you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in and possess the land, whither ye go to possess it;

9 And that ye may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give unto them and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 For the land, whither thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs:

11 But the land, whither ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of heaven:

12 A land which the LORD thy God careth for: the eyes of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.

13 And it shall come to pass, if ye shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,

14 That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn and thy wine and thine oil.

15 And I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be full.

16 Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them;

17 And then the LORD's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you.

18 Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.

19 And teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

20 And thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thine house, and upon thy gates:

21 That your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth.

22 For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him;

23 Then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves.

24 Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea shall your coast be.

25 There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you.

26 Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse;

27 A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day:

28 And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known.

29 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount Ebal.

30 Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goeth down, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the champaign over against Gilgal, beside the plains of Moreh?

31 For ye shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it, and dwell therein.

32 And ye shall observe to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

CHAPTER 12.

1 These are the statutes and judgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, all the days that ye live upon the earth.

2 Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall possess served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree:

3 And ye shall overthrow their altars, and break their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place.

4 Ye shall not do so unto the LORD your God.

5 But unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt come:

6 And thither ye shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and heave offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks:

7 And there ye shall eat before the LORD your God, and ye shall rejoice in all that ye put your hand unto, you and your households, wherein the LORD thy God hath blessed thee.

8 Ye shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes.

9 For ye are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the LORD your God giveth you.

10 But when ye go over Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God giveth you to inherit, and when he giveth you rest from all your enemies round about, so that ye dwell in safety;

11 Then there shall be a place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which ye vow unto the LORD:

12 And ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, and your maidservants, and the Levite that is within your gates, forasmuch as he hath no part nor inheritance with you.

13 Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in every place that thou seest:

14 But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command thee.

15 Notwithstanding thou mayest kill and eat flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee: the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, as of the roebuck, and as of the hart.

16 Only ye shall not eat the blood; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water.

17 Thou mayest not eat within thy gates the tithe of thy corn, or of thy wine, or of thine oil, or the firstlings of thy herds or of thy flock, nor any of thy vows which thou vowest, nor thy freewill offerings, or heave offering of thine hand:

18 But thou must eat them before the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

19 Take heed to thyself that thou forsake not the Levite as long as thou livest upon the earth.

20 When the LORD thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt say, I will eat flesh, because thy soul longeth to eat flesh; thou mayest eat flesh, whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

21 If the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to put his name there be too far from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy herd and of thy flock, which the LORD hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates whatsoever thy soul lusteth after.

22 Even as the roebuck and the hart is eaten, so thou shalt eat thereof: the unclean and the clean shall eat alike of it.

23 Only be sure that thou eat not the blood: for the blood is the life; and thou mayest not eat the life with the flesh.

24 Thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eat it; that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.

26 Only thy holy things which thou hast, and thy vows, thou shalt take, and go unto the place which the LORD shall choose:

27 And thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of the LORD thy God: and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of the LORD thy God, and thou shalt eat the flesh.

28 Observe and hear all these words which I command thee, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the LORD thy God.

29 When the LORD thy God shall cut off the nations from before thee, whither thou goest to possess them, and thou succeedest them, and dwellest in their land;

30 Take heed to thyself that thou be not snared by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee; and that thou inquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise.

31 Thou shalt not do so unto the LORD thy God: for every abomination to the LORD, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods.

32 What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

CHAPTER 13.

1 If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder,

2 And the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them;

3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

4 Ye shall walk after the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ye shall serve him, and cleave unto him.

5 And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he hath spoken to turn you away from the LORD your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, to thrust thee out of the way which the LORD thy God commanded thee to walk in. So shalt thou put the evil away from the midst of thee.

6 If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, which is as thine own soul, entice thee secretly, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which neither thou nor thy fathers have known;

7 Namely, of the gods of the people which are round about you, nigh unto thee, or far off from thee, from the one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth;

8 Thou shalt not consent unto him, nor hearken unto him; neither shall thine eye pity him, neither shalt thou spare, neither shalt thou conceal him:

9 But thou shalt surely kill him; thine hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people.

10 And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he die; because he hath sought to thrust thee away from the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

11 And all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wickedness as this is among you.

12 If thou shalt hear say in one of thy cities, which the LORD thy God hath given thee to dwell there, saying,

13 Certain men, the children of Belial, are gone out from among you, and have withdrawn the inhabitants of their city, saying, Let us go and serve other gods, which ye have not known;

14 Then shalt thou inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought among you;

15 Thou shalt surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is therein, and the cattle thereof, with the edge of the sword.

16 And thou shalt gather all the spoil of it into the midst of the street thereof, and shalt burn with fire the city, and all the spoil thereof every whit, for the LORD thy God: and it shall be a heap for ever; it shall not be built again.

17 And there shall cleave nought of the cursed thing to thine hand: that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and show thee mercy, and have compassion upon thee, and multiply thee, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers;

18 When thou shalt hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep all his commandments which I command thee this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD thy God.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Ye are the children of the LORD your God: ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for the dead.

2 For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to be a peculiar people unto himself, above all nations that are upon the earth.

3 Thou shalt not eat any abominable thing.

4 These are the beasts which ye shall eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat,

5 The hart, and the roebuck, and the fallow deer, and the wild goat, and the pygarg, and the wild ox, and the chamois.

6 And every beast that parteth the hoof, and cleaveth the cleft into two claws, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that ye shall eat.

7 Nevertheless these ye shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven hoof; as the camel, and the hare, and the coney: for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; therefore they are unclean unto you.

8 And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcase.

9 These ye shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales shall ye eat:

10 And whatsoever hath not fins and scales ye may not eat; it is unclean unto you.

11 Of all clean birds ye shall eat.

12 But these are they of which ye shall not eat: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

13 And the glede, and the kite, and the vulture after his kind,

14 And every raven after his kind,

15 And the owl, and the nighthawk, and the cuckow, and the hawk after his kind,

16 The little owl, and the great owl, and the swan,

17 And the pelican, and the gier eagle, and the cormorant,

18 And the stork, and the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat.

19 And every creeping thing that flieth is unclean unto you: they shall not be eaten.

20 But of all clean fowls ye may eat.

21 Ye shall not eat of anything that dieth of itself: thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien: for thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God. Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

22 Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth year by year.

23 And thou shalt eat before the LORD thy God, in the place which he shall choose to place his name there, the tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the firstlings of thy herds and of thy flocks; that thou mayest learn to fear the LORD thy God always.

24 And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it; or if the place be too far from thee, which the LORD thy God shall choose to set his name there, when the LORD thy God hath blessed thee:

25 Then shalt thou turn it into money, and bind up the money in thine hand, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose:

26 And thou shalt bestow that money for whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatsoever thy soul desireth: and thou shalt eat there before the LORD thy God, and thou shalt rejoice, thou, and thine household,

27 And the Levite that is within thy gates; thou shalt not forsake him; for he hath no part nor inheritance with thee.

28 At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithe of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay it up within thy gates:

29 And the Levite, (because he hath no part nor inheritance with thee,) and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, which are within thy gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou doest.

CHAPTER 15.

1 At the end of every seven years thou shalt make a release.

2 And this is the manner of the release: Every creditor that lendeth ought unto his neighbour shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother; because it is called the LORD's release.

3 Of a foreigner thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother thine hand shall release;

4 Save when there shall be no poor among you; for the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it:

5 Only if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day.

6 For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.

7 If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother:

8 But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.

9 Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry unto the LORD against thee, and it be sin unto thee.

10 Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

11 For the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in thy land.

12 And if thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee.

13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:

14 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy wine press: of that wherewith the LORD thy God hath blessed thee thou shalt give unto him.

15 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day.

16 And it shall be, if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee; because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee;

17 Then thou shalt take an awl, and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever. And also unto thy maidservant thou shalt do likewise.

18 It shall not seem hard unto thee, when thou sendest him away free from thee; for he hath been worth a double hired servant to thee, in serving thee six years: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest.

19 All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep.

20 Thou shalt eat it before the LORD thy God year by year in the place which the LORD shall choose, thou and thy household.

21 And if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the LORD thy God.

22 Thou shalt eat it within thy gates: the unclean and the clean person shall eat it alike, as the roebuck, and as the hart.

23 Only thou shalt not eat the blood thereof; thou shalt pour it upon the ground as water.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Observe the month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the LORD thy God: for in the month of Abib the LORD thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night.

2 Thou shalt therefore sacrifice the passover unto the LORD thy God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the LORD shall choose to place his name there.

3 Thou shalt eat no leavened bread with it; seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of affliction; for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of thy life.

4 And there shall be no leavened bread seen with thee in all thy coast seven days; neither shall there any thing of the flesh, which thou sacrificedst the first day at even, remain all night until the morning.

5 Thou mayest not sacrifice the passover within any of thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee:

6 But at the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou camest forth out of Egypt.

7 And thou shalt roast and eat it in the place which the LORD thy God shall choose: and thou shalt turn in the morning, and go unto thy tents.

8 Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread: and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work therein.

9 Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee: begin to number the seven weeks from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corn.

10 And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the LORD thy God with a tribute of a freewill offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the LORD thy God, according as the LORD thy God hath blessed thee:

11 And thou shalt rejoice before the LORD thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the LORD thy God hath chosen to place his name there.

12 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt: and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.

13 Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou hast gathered in thy corn and thy wine:

14 And thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy manservant, and thy maidservant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates.

15 Seven days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD shall choose: because the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.

16 Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: and they shall not appear before the LORD empty:

17 Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee.

18 Judges and officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment.

19 Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

20 That which is altogether just shalt thou follow, that thou mayest live, and inherit the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

21 Thou shalt not plant thee a grove of any trees near unto the altar of the LORD thy God, which thou shalt make thee.

22 Neither shalt thou set up any image; which the LORD thy God hateth.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Thou shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God any bullock, or sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evilfavouredness: for that is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

2 If there be found among you, within any of thy gates which the LORD thy God giveth thee, man or woman, that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the LORD thy God, in transgressing his covenant,

3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded;

4 And it be told thee, and thou hast heard of it, and inquired diligently, and, behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Israel:

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, even that man or that woman, and shalt stone them with stones, till they die.

6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.

7 The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So thou shalt put the evil away from among you.

8 If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within thy gates: then shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the LORD thy God shall choose;

9 And thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and inquire; and they shall show thee the sentence of judgment:

10 And thou shalt do according to the sentence, which they of that place which the LORD shall choose shall show thee; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee:

11 According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall show thee, to the right hand, nor to the left.

12 And the man that will do presumptuously, and will not hearken unto the priest that standeth to minister there before the LORD thy God, or unto the judge, even that man shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil from Israel.

13 And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

14 When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me;

15 Thou shalt in any wise set him king over thee, whom the LORD thy God shall choose: one from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not put a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

16 But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, Ye shall henceforth return no more that way.

17 Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

18 And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book out of that which is before the priests the

ALL the commandments which I command thee this day [u] shall ye observe to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers. 1 Eph. 2:11-7

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the LORD thy God led thee [v] these forty years in the wilderness, [3] to humble thee, and [4] to prove thee, [w] to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.

3 And he humbled thee, and [x] suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did thy fathers know; that he might make thee know [y] that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the LORD doth man live.

4 [z] Thy raiment waxed not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these forty years.

5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that, as a man [a] chasteneth his son, so the LORD thy God chasteneth thee.

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, [b] to walk in his ways, and to fear him.

7 For the LORD thy God bringeth thee into a good land, [c] a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that spring out of valleys and hills;

8 A land of wheat, and barley, [d] and vines, and fig trees, and pomegranates; a land [4] of oil olive, and honey;

9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without [e] scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; a land [f] whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills thou mayest dig brass.

10 When thou hast eaten and art full, then [g] thou shalt bless the LORD thy God for the good land which he hath given thee.

11 [h] Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God, in not keeping his [i] commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day: —1:3.

12 [j] Lest when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein;

BRASS Either bronze (copper with alloy of tin), or pure copper. It is suggested that bronze was made directly from a copper ore containing tin long before the two metals were artificially mixed (Camb Bible). Nechosheth signifies copper in Job 28:2 where it is a metal smelted directly from the ore. Copper + bronze utensils have been found at Lachish + at Troy — evidently copper hardened with tin to make the alloy bronze. Cent. Bible.

CHAPTER 8

3 ATTITUDE TOWARDS YAHWEH'S WORD Vv 1-20

1 WILDERNESS WANDERINGS ILLUSTRATE ISRAEL'S DEPENDENT ON YAHWEH'S WORD Vv 1-6

Yahweh proves His servants by trial Gen 22:1, manifestations of glory done in their view Exod 16:28; 20:20], afflictions and calamities Jud 2:22; 3:4. Ps 17:3. 81:7, as well as by benefits Exod 16:4. Humbled so as to recognise his own weakness, chastened out of self-conceit by affliction, man learns his dependence on Yahweh and submits to Him. Then the Divine mercy + bounty leads him in love to serve Him. Cp Rom. 11:22.

1 The previous generation did none of these: they died in the wilderness, the population decreased Cp Num 26., the Nation did not enter the Land.

2 The very privations of life + relief afforded by Yahweh were calculated to induce a state of humble dependence, + submissive obedience, + hopeful trust. Cp Rom. 6:1-5

3 Cp 2 Chr. 32:25-26; 33:12, 19, 23. Job 33:16-17; 42:5-6. Luke 16:14; Jam. 4:6, 10. 1 Pet. 5:5-6. Future. 1 Sa. 2:17. Cp Gen. 22:11; Ex. 16:25; 1 Ki 4:; 2 Chr. 8:; Rev. 13:; Mat 24:9.

36. Yahweh is not removing one nation to make room for another - His purpose is to remove in order to purify the holy land from unspeakable evil. Cp Ezek. 36:13-15. Cp Ps 9:5; Prov 10:7; Jer 10:10-12.

36A Deut. 11:25; Josh. 1:5; 10:8; 23:9. Isa 54:17. Rom 8:32. 1 Cor 15:57.

NOT FOR THY RIGHTEOUSNESS. Vv1-6.

Thus the Law discounted justification by works and emphasised Divine Mercy. Those warned against the pride of self-righteousness. Vv 4-5 and revealed the Divine grace behind the Law.

CHAPTER 8 They were to remember Yahweh's paternal Love & Care, manifested through His discipline & provision. Food - Manna. Clothing that did not wear. Gal 3:28. Feet property shod. Eph. 6:15. There were trials, but also tenderness and care as Yahweh gave the people guidance through the wilderness. Isa 63:14. And warning lest in God-given prosperity they be lifted up in pride (Deut. 8:14).

Not for my righteousness. VII. This clearly teaches the doctrine of grace through faith, not of self. Eph. 2:8-9. as in Deut 30: 12-14. cited in. Rom. 10: 6-8. Hence the Law emphasised the need of faith and grace to succeed.

3 Understand therefore [l] this day, that the LORD thy God is he which [1] [a] goeth over before thee; as a [c] consuming fire [d] he shall [3] destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: [h] so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them quickly, as the LORD hath said unto thee. 1 Cp Ch. 8:17

4 [j] Speak not thou in thine heart, after that the LORD thy God hath cast them out from before thee, [2] saying, For my righteousness the LORD hath brought me in to possess this land: but [m] for the wickedness of these nations the LORD [h] doth drive them out from before thee.

6 Understand therefore, that the LORD thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked people.

7 ¶ Remember, and forget not, how thou provokedst the LORD thy God to wrath in the wilderness: [e] from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the LORD.

8 Also [e] in Horeb ye provoked the LORD to wrath, so that the LORD was angry with you to have destroyed you.

The five requirements of Grace.

- FEAR: Awe at His Majesty and Glory.
- WALK: Application of principles in action
- LOVE: A readiness to sacrifice self interest in performance of His will
- SERVE: Dedication to His service
- KEEP: Observance of His revelation.

7 HOW ISRAEL SHOULD REPAY THE DIVINE MERCY AND LOVE 12-11:1.

12 Reverence and love are inseparable elements of true worship. Fear prevents love degenerating into presumptuous familiarity. Love prevents fear becoming mere abject dread and superstitious servility. Fear, walk, love, serve present a progression of worship. There is a fear which has for ingredient which love expels as its antagonist 1 Jhn 4:18. Fear induces a proper walk; love finds expression in service. Cp John. 14:11, 23. See Below left 13 It is to our benefit to obey 1 Tim. 4:8. He will then honor us. 1 Sam. 2:30, Psa. 22:29. Jo. 12:26.

14 The mighty remote omnipotent Creator who controls all creation condescended to choose Israel as His people Cp Ch. 7:6-7 Ps. 102:8-12

15 God commendeth His love Rom. 5:8.

CHÂSHAQ - To cleave, join, love. Expressive of affection, love, choice.

Chastisement: V.20. MUWSÂR denotes moral education J.H. Hertz - Soncino. "the sight of God's wonders ought to have exerted upon the Israelites a disciplinary influence, subduing waywardness & pride, and promoting humility & reverence."

V.2. Moses seemed to have addressed himself particularly to the elders who had witnessed Yahweh's wonderful works. Cp V.7. "Know" can be used in the sense of "own", "acknowledge".

V. 20. "Fear": This does not denote a feeling of terror which causes men to repel & shrink from God, but a grateful reverence & respect which leads them to cleave & cling to Him. The Jews coined a special phrase for this feeling: "Loving fear" See note on love bottom p. 252. FEar. bottom p. 259.

V.21. "Praise" Tehillâh - laudation, hymn of praise Deut. 26:19; 1 Chr. 16:35 2 Ch. 20:22 Neh. 12:46. To Him alone is praise due for what He has done Cp. Exod. 15:11; Jer. 17:14.

CIRCUMCISION OF THE HEART V.16.

This is opening it to Yahweh by removing all reservations, coverings, secrets, unbeliefs. It is a command. God promises to help man in this matter Deut. 10:16; Lev. 26:41; providing he will humble himself & permit him to.

It was through the flesh that man first sinned, and it also in the flesh, its functions, that the root of man's rebellion against God chiefly manifests itself still. It was fitting therefore that the symbol which should denote the removal of this estrangement from God should be wrought in the body.

RAIN: 3 diff. words in V.14.

9 Intellect. What is A blessing and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul,

14 That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil.

15 And I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be full.

16 Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them;

17 And then the LORD's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD giveth you.

18 Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontlets between your eyes.

19 And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

20 And thou shalt write them upon the door posts of thine house, and upon thy gates:

21 That your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD sware unto your fathers to give them, as the days of heaven upon the earth.

22 For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him;

23 Then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and ye shall possess greater nations and mightier than yourselves.

24 Every place whereon the soles of your feet shall tread shall be your's: from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea shall your coast be.

25 There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you.

26 Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse;

27 A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day:

28 And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known.

29 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD thy God hath brought thee in unto the land whither thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt put the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount Ebal.

30 Are they not on the other side Jordan, by the way where the sun goeth down, in the land of the Canaanites, which dwell in the champaign over against Gilgal, beside the plains of Moreh?

31 For ye shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God giveth you, and ye shall possess it, and dwell therein.

32 And ye shall observe to do all the statutes and judgments which I set before you this day.

CHAPTER 12.

All that has gone before may be regarded as the religious + historical prelude to that which follows. Moses refers generally to the need to observe the Covenant of Horeb. Now he becomes more specific regarding conduct in the land.

These laws relate to 1 Religious institutions + worship. 12:1-16:17.
2 Government of the people 16:18-18. 3 Criminal Law. 19-21:1-9. 4 Domestic life 21:10-25.
5 Conclusion of the Code: Firstfruits, tithes and accompanying prayer, 26:1-15. An expansion of the 10 Commandments. Ch. 12-14 deal with the worship of God (first 3). Ch. 15-16:17 - Holy festivals analogous to 4th Commandment. 16:18-18 Civil + Religious Government which plays the real part in National life as parents in the home (5th command). The remainder involves the responsibility of man to his fellowman.

9 The "rest" – MENUCHAH required both the land & the Temple, for where David speaks of "Thy rest" Ps. 95:11 Moses has "the land" Num. 14:30; Deut. 12:35. The MENUCHAH is the security of marriage. Note how David refers to Yahweh our MAKER Ps. 95:6, the Husband of Israel Isa. 54:5. Such a MENUCHAH demands of the bride that she make herself attractive to her Groom, hence the need to "labor to enter into that rest" Heb. 4:11.

10 There were likewise the words of Solomon but there was a need for the people to enter them. 1 Ki 8:56

1A [a] THESE are the statutes and judgments, which ye shall observe to do in the land, which the LORD [1] God of thy fathers giveth thee to possess it, [a] all the days that ye live upon the earth. Deut. 7:6; 26:18 Num. 33:51-52

2 Ye shall utterly destroy all the places, wherein the nations which ye shall [2] possess served their gods, [c] upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every green tree:

3 And [1C] ye shall [3] overthrow their altars, and break [d] their pillars, and burn their groves with fire; and [h] ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and destroy the names of them out of that place.

4 [k] Ye shall not do so unto the LORD your God. See above Gen. 20:4

5 But [m] unto the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes to put his name there, even unto his habitation shall ye [4] seek, and thither thou shalt come:

6 And thither ye shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your [o] tithes, and heave offerings of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and [q] the firstlings of your herds and of your flocks:

7 And [r] there ye shall eat before the LORD your God, and [t] ye shall rejoice in all [u] that ye put your hand unto, ye and your households, wherein the LORD thy God hath blessed thee.

8 Ye shall not do after [y] all the things that we do here this day, [z] every man whatsoever is right in his own eyes. See Note bottom p. 157

11 [12A] Then there shall be [a] place which the LORD your God shall choose to cause his name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you; your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave offering of your hand, and all [3] your choice vows [13] which ye vow unto the LORD: 14

12 And [t] ye shall rejoice before the LORD your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your menservants, [15] and your maidservants, and the Levite that is within your gates; forasmuch as [16] he hath no part nor inheritance with you.

13 [l] Take heed to thyself that thou offer not thy burnt offerings in every place that thou seest: 12 Cp Vv. 19, 30

14 [17] But in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy burnt offerings, and there thou shalt do all that I command thee. 16:26 Cp Acts 10:13

15 Notwithstanding [x] thou mayest kill and eat [18] flesh in all thy gates, whatsoever thy soul lusteth [19] after, according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee: [z] the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, [a] as of the roebuck, and as of the hart. 16

THE PROMISED REST V. 9 262

MENUCHAH – Rest, security, consolation (spec. matrimony) – Str. is in feminine gender and is expressive of a permanent abode, the security a wife finds in her husband's home Cp Ruth 3:1. The generation of Israelites that left Egypt never attained unto that "rest" Ps. 95 & 11. What then are we to make of 1 Chron. 23:25 1 Kg 8:56 In Chronicles the word is NUWACH – Rest, the root of Menuchah. In the Psalm, David appeals to the people to give themselves to Yahweh in such a way that He will take them into His house as His bride Cp Ps. 95:6-8; 116:5-7

David evidently saw a distinction between Yahweh's rest Ps. 95:11 and the rest the people enjoyed towards the close of his reign. And Paul, commenting upon his words described it as still future Heb. 3:7 – 4:11 Cp Ch. 4:8

In Solomon's day, in the provision of the Temple, Yahweh had provided a place of rest. 1 Kg 8:56 (Note how Moses links the rest with the Temple Deut. 12:8-11), but David warned that to really enjoy that rest the people must avoid the sin of the wilderness and "hearken" Ps. 95:7 This they failed to do the Temple was destroyed & the promised resting place offered to Gentiles. Isa 11:10

CHAPTER 13.

1 Enticers to idolatry, 6 how near soever unto thee, 9 are to be stoned to death. 12 Idolatrous cities are not to be spared.

IF there arise among you a prophet, [1] or a [r] dreamer of dreams, [s] and giveth thee a sign or a wonder, as in Exod.4:28.

2 And [2] the sign or the wonder

25 In contrast to Vv.20-22.

25A A false god implies what is false: evil morally Cp. 1 Cor.15:15,33. This is demonstrated by Paul's development out of Idolatry in Rom.1

26 Some pierced out by the side of the Altar. Lev.4:7 - In case of the sin offering. The blood of the burnt offering placed on the Altar Lev.1:5-9.

27 This relates to the peace offering. Lev.3:1,2,8,13.

28 Things to be observed: Feast Unleavened bread Ex.12:17 Passover Ex.12:24. Sabbaths Ex.31:16. Atonement Lev.23:26-29. Feast Weeks (Pentecost). Ex.34:22. Tabernacles Lev.23:39-44. 6 EXERCISE CARE AGAINST ENTANGLEMENT BY ENVIRONMENT Vv.29-32.

29 The foregoing has to do with the maintenance of the sovereignty of Yahweh, the following treats with those who turn aside to other gods.

29 The very investigation of false forms of worship can lead to the ultimate embracing of them. Cp 1 Tim. 4:16. The Israelites were to be distinguished even in their mode of worship.

29A The warning reiterated. Ps. 106:34-38. Ezek.20:23. Rom. 12:2. Eph.4:17

29B Jer.10:2

29 TOW'ĒBÂH - Something disgusting, an abhorrence, the immorality & inhumanity of Canaanite worship rendered it abominable in the eyes of Yahweh.

30 Excavations at Gezer, Taanach & Megiddo have revealed regular cemeteries around heathen altars in which scores of skeletons of infants have been found, showing traces of slaughter & painful consumption by sacrificial fire. See Comment - Sanctuary.

- It was to be a liberal service Vv.17,14

Ch.12:2, "EVERY green tree": The oak was reckoned sacred to Jupiter; the Laurel to Apollo; the Ivy to Bacchus; the Olive to Minerva; the Myrtle to Venus etc.

FALSE PROPHETS. The warning has application to Christian times. 2 Pet. 2:1. Mt. 24:11. 1 Tim. 4:1. They produced their signs and wonders Mt. 24:24. 2 Thess. 2:9-10. False teachers are classified as false prophets. Mt. 7:15; 2 Pet. 2:1. The readiness of people to believe them arises from want of knowledge Rom. 10:14; the itch for novelty 2 Tim. 4:3; a diseased craving for the marvellous Cp. the credulity of spiritualism 2 Thess. 2:9-13; the desire to believe and to superimpose the inclinations of depraved hearts on the Truth 2 Tim. 3:1-8.

There is to be no fellowship with such. Tit. 3:10. 2 John. 9-11. Mt. 18:17.

The instructions seem harsh, but they were necessary to preserve the faith & the nation. An operation is necessary when cancer appears 2 Tim. 2:16-19.

264 8 Jn. 3:36; 12:48-50; 2 Tim. 3:15-17; Rev. 22:18-19. Anything contrary to what is plainly stated therein is false regardless of the seeming endorsement by sign or miracle. God allows signs & wonders to prove men Vv 3-4, trials to test one's love for Him V. 3. Even heretics can make manifest the approved 1 Cor. 11:18-19; 2 John 7-11.

Israel was to learn the supremacy of the moral over miracle. To many the supernatural is accepted to as establishing any thing as truth. Not so God. Confirm truth it may; awaken attention to it it will; but that which creates and establishes faith is the Word Rom. 10:17. A strong delusion will cause one to believe a lie 2 Thess. 2:11. False prophets 1 Kg. 13:8; Ezek. 13:1-3, 10-16. Gal. 1:6-9. Matt. 7:15.

THE "PLACE" RESERVED FOR WORSHIP

Constant reference is made to the place to be selected of Yahweh in Deuteronomy. Ch. 12:5, 14, 18, 21, 26; 14:23; 15:20; 16:2, 6, 7, 11, 15, 16; 17:8; 18:6; 23:16; 26:2; 31:11. CLEAN BEASTS.

In this chapter, unlike Lev. 11, these are enumerated vv 4-6. They form two categories: Domesticated animals used for sacrifice, and wild animals used only for food — Israel after the flesh and spirit.

Ch. 14. The whole life and walk of the people to be governed by the principle: Ye are the children of Yahweh. Vv 1-21. Cp Lev. 21. Any variations — whether omissions or additions probably due to time & circumstances.

God's children must not disfigure themselves in mourning. 3 What may, and what may not be eaten, 4 of beasts, 9 of fishes, 11 of fowls. 22 Tithes of divine service. 28 The tithe of alms and charity.

1 Their privileged status demanded conduct consistent therewith.

2 Death was defiling and to be avoided in every way. They were therefore to look beyond death. 1 Thess. 4:13. Acts 26:7. Ps. 49:15. Ps. 73:24. Cp Notes. Deut. 31:8-9. Lev. 19:28. Ezek. 44:20. Extreme & unnatural signs of mourning were out of place.

3 CEGULLAH - To shut up, wealth (as closely guarded), purchased.

YE are [a] the children of the LORD your God: [b] ye shall not cut yourselves, nor [f] make any baldness between your eyes for the dead.

f Shew forth. Hiphil. (Ar.) 2:92

2 [c] For thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God, and the LORD hath chosen thee to be [d] a peculiar people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth. — below.

3 ¶ [e] Thou shalt not eat any abominable thing. — See below right

4 [g] These are the beasts which ye shall eat: the ox, the sheep, and the goat,

5 [m] The hart, and [m] the roebuck, and [m] the fallow deer, and the wild goat, and the [2] pygarg, and [o] the wild ox, and the chamois.

6 And every beast that parteth the hoof, and cleaveth the cleft into two claws, and cheweth the cud among the beasts, that ye shall eat. See Note Lev. 11:3

7 Nevertheless these ye shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of them that divide the cloven hoof; as the camel, and the hare, and the coney: for they chew the cud, but divide not the hoof; therefore they are unclean unto you.

8 And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, [t] nor touch their dead carcase.

9 ¶ These ye shall eat of all that are in the waters: all that have fins and scales shall ye eat: Not mentioned elsewhere ?

4 Their privileged status demanded conduct consistent therewith.

4 TOW'EBAR — Disgusting, an abhorrence (spec. idolatry) Str. Made so by decree. See Note. Lev. 11:2 20:25

5 SHOWR - Traveller. A beast of burden. The laborer.

6 RESEB - To decominate. Milk, wool, meat - food and clothing whether living or dead.

7 EZ - Strong. See Note 6

8 ? AYL - Strong. A stag or male deer. A clean beast not used for sacrifice. Deut. 12:15,22. Likened to the Godly man. Ps 42:1. Sure-footedness 2 Sa. 22:34. Likened to Christ Song 2:9, 17; 8:14 in his speed and beauty.

9 TSEBIY - Prominently beautiful. The gazelle.

10 YACHMUR — from a root - to boil up, perhaps indicating the reddish color of the deer.

10 And whatsoever hath not fins and scales ye may not eat; it is unclean unto you.

11 ¶ Of all clean birds ye shall eat.

12 But these are they of which ye shall not eat: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the ospray,

13 And [b] the glede, and the kite, and [c] the vulture after his kind, Lev. 11:14

14 And every raven after his kind, Lev. 11:15 Lev. 11:16

16 The little owl, and the great owl, and the swan, Lev. 11:19

17 And the pelican, and the gier eagle, and the cormorant, Lev. 11:18

18 And the stork, and the heron after her kind, and the lapwing, and the bat. Lev. 11:19

19 And [e] every creeping thing that flieth is unclean unto you: [l] they shall not be eaten.

20 But of all clean fowls ye may eat.

21 ¶ [n] Ye shall not eat of any thing that dieth of itself: thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is in thy gates, that he may eat it; or thou mayest sell it unto an alien: [p] for thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God. [q] Thou shalt not seethe a kid in his mother's milk.

22 [r] Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, that the field bringeth forth year by year.

23 [s] And thou shalt eat before the LORD thy God, in the place which he shall choose to place his name there, the tithe of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and [t] the firstlings of thy herds and of thy flocks; that thou mayest learn to fear the LORD thy God always.

24 And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it; or [x] if the place be too far from thee, 22A Cf Lev. 17:15. The stranger in the wilderness would have become a proselyte in the full sense of the word styled GER TZEDEK but in the land there may be many who abandoned idolatry but had not fully embraced the Truth. They were called GER TOSHAV - A stranger dwelling temporarily - a resident alien.

5 TITHING FOR DIVINE SERVICE VV 22-27

On tithing see Note. Deut. 12:17-19. Also summaries on bottom. pp 180, 280.

19 This was left to the conscience of the Israelite. He knew the amount he should bring. = A second tithe. Cp Num. 18:26

22 This is a variation of the instructions of Num 18 which provided for the wilderness journey. In the land there would be a superabundance providing ample food for Levites as well as the feasts here indicated and the special arrangements of the third year. Cp Vv 28-29.

This appears to be a second tithe providing for the expenses of appearing before Yahweh at the times specified and to be shared with the Levite and the poor. This accumulated for every third year Vv. 28-29.

Many ancient nations believed in their descent from gods • demi-gods. But the relation was conceived physically. In the Hebrew Scriptures, however whilst Sarah received strength to conceive, the fatherhood of Yahweh & Israel's sonship are halo-ical and ethical based on God's love, deliverance, and providence

THE YEAR OF RELEASE — This sabbatical year brought rest to the land which was not sown nor reaped and the produce of which became the common property of all Lev. 25:2-7; reminding the Israelite that the blessings he received came not from his labor merely, but from above Josh. 1:13. He was to manifest kindness to the poor as Yahweh had to him in Egypt Deut. 24:19-22. Debts were waived for the time being Deut. 15:1-2. yet lending to the poor must not be refused on that account for Yahweh who heard Israel's cry in Egypt would hearken to the voice of the poor and punish the hard-hearted Ve 7-10. The lending to which the Law took heed was that to those in extreme want, the poor Deut. 15:4. Cp Exod. 22:25; Lev. 25:35-38; Deut. 23:19-20. Hebrew shows relieved = liberally helped Deut. 15:12-18 — though this not necessarily the Sabbatical year.

which the LORD thy God shall choose to set his name there, when the LORD thy God hath blessed thee:

25 Then shalt thou turn it into money, and [b] bind up the money in thine hand, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose:

26 And thou shalt bestow that money for whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatsoever thy soul [3] desireth: and [d] thou shalt eat there before the LORD thy God, and thou shalt rejoice, thou, and thine household,

27 And (f) the Levite that is within thy gates; thou shalt not forsake him; for (h) he hath no part nor inheritance with thee.

28 ¶ [i] At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithe of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay it up within thy gates:

29 (k) And the Levite, (because [h] he hath no part nor inheritance with thee,) and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, which are within thy gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that (l) the LORD thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou doest.

CHAPTER 15

1 The seventh year a year of release for the poor. 7 It must be no let of lending or giving. 12 Of Hebrew servants' freedom. 19 All firstling males of the cattle to be sanctified unto the Lord.

AT the end of (a) every seven years thou shalt make a release. (Sh'mittah)

2 And this is the manner of the release: Every (c) creditor that lendeth ought unto his neighbour shall release it; he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother; because it is called the LORD's release.

3 (e) Of a foreigner thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother thine hand shall release;

4 [2] Save when there shall be no poor among you; (a for the LORD shall greatly bless thee in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it:)

5 Only if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day.

6 For the LORD thy God blesseth thee, as he promised thee: and (c) thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt not borrow; and (d) thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.

7 ¶ If there be among you a poor man of one of thy brethren within any of thy gates in thy land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not [k] harden thine heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poor brother:

8 [l] But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.

9 Beware that there be not a (n) thought in thy (s) wicked heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine (w) eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and [o] he cry unto the LORD against thee, and (p) it be sin unto thee.

10 Thou shalt surely give him, and (r) thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him: because that (s) for this thing the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all [t] that thou puttest thine hand unto.

11 For (u) the poor shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying,

THE SABBATICAL YEAR CALLED. YAHWEH'S RELEASE V. 2. — 266

- It was the year of forbearance for debts contracted, the counterpart of "the acceptable year of the Lord" Luke 4:19. Cp 2 Cor. 6:1,2; Mt. 6:12. Of freedom from servitude Rom. 6:18.
- As a moral exercise, it was a check on human greed. Debts were remitted though not cancelled. The poor had to be helped in recognition of the dependance of all on Yahweh's bounty. Cp 1 John 3:17; Hom 2:5-9; 5:1-4; Mt. 25:31-46.
- It was the year of personal release as well as from debt, for slaves were liberated. It was a reminder that they "were not their own" 1 Cor. 6:19,20; 1 Pet. 1:18-19.
- The land was left fallow - a reminder that all increase came from Yahweh and they were dependant on Him.
- The first born were His to be delivered up to Him in sacrifice - a witness to the status of the nation to Him. Exod. 4:22. Cp Heb. 12:23; Jam. 1:18; Rev. 14:4.

See bottom 258

CAUSES OF SLAVERY were mainly poverty or crime. A man who could not pay the purchase price of a bride might serve for her a term of years (Gen. 29:18). A father might sell his children either through poverty, or from desire to connect his house with that of an influential neighbor (Exod. 21:7). The insolvent debtor might be sold 2 Kg 4:1; Neh. 5:5,8). A man through want might be forced to sell himself Lev. 25:39. A thief might be sold to make good what he has stolen Exod. 22:2. Stealing & selling a man was punishable by death, Exod. 21:16. CONDITION OF SLAVES was good. He enjoyed all the rites and benefits of religion Deut. 5:14-15. 12:18. 16:11. Exod. 23:12. Even though considered as property of his master (Exod. 21:21,32) the law guarded against excessive abuse (Exod. 21:20,26).

16 Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poor, and to thy needy, in the land. Heb. 'ebyown, in want, destitute

12 ¶ And [c] if thy brother, an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six years; then in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from thee. Yours = send, more definite

13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:

14 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy winepress: of that wherewith the LORD thy God hath [f] blessed thee thou shalt give unto him.

15 And [g] thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee this thing to day.

16 And it shall be, [h] if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee; because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee;

17 Then thou shalt take an aul, and thrust it through his ear unto the door, and he shall be thy servant for ever. 24A And also unto thy maidservant thou shalt do likewise.

18 It shall not seem hard unto thee, when thou sendest him away free from thee; for he hath been worth a double [o] hired servant to thee, in serving thee six years: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest.

19 ¶ [q] All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the LORD thy God: [r] thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep.

20 [t] Thou shalt eat it before the LORD thy God year by year in the place which the LORD shall choose, thou and thy household.

21 [b] And if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the LORD thy God.

22 Thou shalt eat it within thy gates: [d] the unclean and the clean person shall eat it alike, as the roebuck, 29 and as the hart.

23 [e] Only thou shalt 30 not eat the blood thereof; thou shalt pour it upon the ground as water. Cp Ch. 12:23-24

CHRIST OUR PASSOVER. 257

"None can eat his flesh, if they would, but those who are circumcised in heart; for to eat his flesh is to digest, & to make a part of our mental selves the truth concerning the Kingdom of God and Jesus Christ. . . . .

"The bread & wine of the Lord's supper are the remains of the passover, which are to be shared by the circumcised of heart & ears, until Christ comes in power & great glory. I am informed by a Jew that when they eat the passover they eat no lamb, but have a dry bone of one on a dish; & that all who celebrate take hold of the lip of the dish, & unitedly offer a petition. This is remarkable. They have slain the true lamb, which believers of the Gospel feed upon; while only a dry bone remains to them, strikingly illustrative of themselves. Faith in the Lamb of God supplies the absence of the lamb in the

THE THREE PILGRIMAGE FESTIVALS CH. 16.

These Pilgrimage Feasts had a double significance. They each had reference to an historical incident of importance: Deliverance; Giving of the Law; Wandering in Wilderness. But they also marked the three seasons of the agricultural year: Spring, Summer, Autumn, with the beginning, fulness, and completion of harvest – and preparation for renewed harvest!

"It is well to keep in view the agricultural aspect of the Three festivals. It helps us to realize the fact that Israel was once an agricultural people & that its commercial character is not, as is commonly thought, inborn, but is the result of the unkindly conditions in later ages. It is good for us & for the world at large to remember that the history of our race has its idyllic side." — M. Joseph.

Lord's Supper. The broken bread and poured-out wine memorialize his sacrifice for believers; and the testimony: "This do in remembrance of me till I come" keeps alive the hope of his appearing in the Kingdom of God. When hope becomes a reality, the supper will give place to the Passover; for when Christ is come, the memorial of his coming ceases to be prophetic of the event "(Clarke) Israel 2 Kg 23:21 Cp Ezek. 45:21-22

This was treated as a special festival not noted here Lev 23:39-40. This chapter does not aim to give a list of all the special days, but only of the 3 main festivals. Hence Special Days as the Day of Atonement, the New Year & the 8th Day of Tabernacles omitted.

"JUSTICE JUSTICE THOU SHALT FOLLOW" V20 The duplication emphasises the supreme duty of even handed justice to all whether to your profit or loss, whether in word or action, whether to believer or non-believer. — for justice is the vindication of truth & righteousness Amos 5:24. Part of the Passover celebrations was the sin offering eaten by the priests after boiling. Num. 28: 16-25. The word is translated "ripe" in. Joel 3:13 Gen 40:10. In. 2 Chron 35:13. the same word is translated both "roast" and "sod" - boiled, the context showing this to be correct.

10 The Passover was eaten in the guest-chambers of local residents, after which they returned home or to the temporary dwellings of pilgrims in Jerusalem.

15 [a] Seven days shall thou keep a solemn feast unto the LORD thy God in the place which the LORD shall choose: because the LORD thy God shall bless thee in all thine increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.

16 ¶ [d] Three times in a year shall all thy males appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose; in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: and [h] they shall not appear before the LORD empty: 2 Chr. 19:5-11. 24:1

17 Every man shall give [g] as he is able, [k] according to the blessing of the LORD thy God which he hath given thee.

18 ¶ [l] Judges and [m] officers shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which the LORD thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgment.

19 [p] Thou shalt not wrest judgment; [q] thou shalt not respect persons, [r] neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the [5] words of the righteous.

20 [t] That which is altogether just shalt thou follow, that thou mayest live, and inherit the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

21 ¶ [u] Thou shalt not plant thee a grove of any trees near unto the altar of the LORD thy God, which thou [i] shalt make thee.

22 Neither shall thou set thee up any [v] image; which the LORD thy God hateth.

PASSOVER AND TABERNACLES

- The former was at the beginning of the religious year the latter of the civil year.
- On 10th day 1st month a lamb was taken; on 10th day 7th month - the Day of Atonement.
- On 15th day 1st month, a feast commenced for 7 days; on 15th day 7th month likewise
- Passover = Spring Equinox (Day & Night equal); Tabernacles = Autumn Equinox.
- Passover takes place before the grain harvest. There are everywhere the signs of new life. The first crop - barley - is standing in the green ready to be harvested. Tabernacles occurs in the season when the fruit is gathered. It marks the end of the summer and the beginning of a new agricultural year. Farmers make preparation at this time for the new ploughing season.

- Passover points to impending harvest in Christ 1 Cor. 5:7; Tabernacles to the fulness of ingathering at the Return Rev. 7:9-16. & preparation for renewal of labor. Rev. 14:14-20. (cp the grain & vine with "corn & wine" of Deut. 16:13). Joel 3:14.
- In both Passover & Tabernacles the moon (nation of Ecclesia) is at the full & the two feasts equally divide the year. There was a careful watching for the full moon at Passover, & proclamation through the land. "Intercalation was regularly effected in the Israelite calendar by the insertion of an extra month, and normally before the end of the year." S.T. Segal: The Hebrew Passover, p. 116.

V.19. "Thou" - The Hebrew is in the singular providing a personal exhortation to each judge individually as to what was effected of him. "Wise judgment" - is the Hebrew idiom for "showing impartiality" Gn Amos 3:10. An unjust judgement can be given out of pity for the poor, or to humiliate one held in high esteem before the people Ex Prov 21:13; Ecc. 7:17.

THINGS SACRIFICED MUST BE SOUND V.1

Of sacrifices,

1 THOU [a] shalt not sacrifice unto the LORD thy God any bullock, or [2] sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evilfavouredness: for that is an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

2 ¶ [d] If there be found among you, within any of thy gates which the LORD thy God giveth thee, man or woman, that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the LORD thy God, [e] in transgressing his covenant,

3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded;

4 And it be told thee, and thou hast heard of it, and enquired diligently, and, behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Israel:

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman, which have committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, even that man or that woman, and [n] shalt stone them with stones, till they die.

6 [o] At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.

7 [p] The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterward the hands of all the people. So [r] thou shalt put the evil away from among you.

8 ¶ [s] If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, [t] between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within thy gates: then shalt thou arise, and get thee up [u] into the place which the LORD thy God shall choose;

9 And thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto [b] the judge that shall be in those days, and enquire; [c] and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgment:

10 And thou shalt do according to the sentence, which they of that place which the LORD shall choose shall shew thee; and thou shalt observe to do according to all that they inform thee:

11 According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand, nor to the left.

12 And the man that [h] will do presumptuously, and will not hearken unto the priest [k] that standeth to minister there before the LORD thy God, or unto the judge, even that man shall die: and [l] thou shalt put away the evil from Israel.

13 And all the people [m] shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

14 ¶ When thou art come unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, [p] I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me;

15 Thou shalt in any wise set him king over thee, [q] whom the LORD thy God shall choose: one [r] from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

16 But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people [s] to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply horses: forasmuch as the LORD hath said unto you, [t] Ye shall henceforth return no more that way.

17 Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart x The Lord is the priests' and Levites' inheritance. 9 The abominations of the nations to be avoided. 15 Christ the Prophet is to be heard.

CHAPTER 18.

THE priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, y shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel: they (a)shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance.

2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the LORD is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them. Gen 15:1; 1 Pet 2:4 9

3 ¶ And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and (c)they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw.

4 (d)The firstfruit also of thy corn, of thy wine, and of thine oil, and the first of the fleece of thy sheep, shalt thou give him.

5 For the LORD thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, r to stand to minister in

CITIES OF REFUGE

The flesh (i.e desires thereof) is a murderer John 8:44 and to give way to it, or sow to it, is to court death. Gal 6:8. Thus lawlessness, in which one refuses to be brought under the influence of Divine law is a sin unto death. 1 John 3:4; 5:16. Thus one who hates his brother is a murderer for which there is no City of Refuge. 1 John 3:15.

But there are sins not unto death, for which forgiveness will be granted 1 John 5:16. 1 John 1:9; 2:2. We therefore should seek that City of Refuge Heb. 6:18 along the Living Way Heb. 10:20. That City is Prominent and easy of access Cp Deut 19:3.

17 And the LORD said unto me, [g] They have well spoken that which they have spoken.

18 [c] I will raise them up a Prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and [d] will put my words in his mouth; and [e] he shall speak unto them all that I shall command him.

19 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will [h] require it of him.

20 But the prophet, which [h] shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or [k] that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.

21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken?

22 [l] When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it [o] presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him.

4 ¶ And this is the case of the slayer, which shall flee thither, that he may live: (b) Whoso killeth his neighbour [5] ignorantly, whom he hated not [3] in time past;

5 As when a man goeth into the wood with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the [2] head slippeth from the [4] helve, and [g] lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and live:

6 Lest [p] the avenger [5] of the blood pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and [6] slay him; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he hated him not [7] in time past.

7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee.

8 (m) And if the LORD thy God [m] enlarge thy coast, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, and [n] give thee all the land which he promised to give unto thy fathers; 11:22-25. 6

9 If thou shalt keep all these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the LORD thy God, and to walk ever in his ways; [p] then shalt thou add three cities more for thee, beside these three: 7

10 That innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and so blood be upon thee.

11 ¶ But (c) if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him [9] mortally that he die, and fleeth into one of these cities:

3 And shall say unto them, Hear, O Israel, ye approach this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts [2] faint, fear not, and do not [3] tremble, [4] neither [5] be ye terrified because of them;

4 For the LORD your God is he that goeth with you, [5] to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

5 ¶ And [i] the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not [k] dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it.

6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not yet [6] eaten of it? let him also go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it.

7 [o] And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her.

8 And [i] the officers shall speak further unto the people, and they shall say, What man is there that is fearful [7] and faint-hearted? let him go and return unto his house, lest his brethren's heart [8] faint as well as his heart.

II ATTITUDE TOWARDS WARFARE Vv. 1-20.

1 TO FIGHT IN FAITH Vv. 1-4.

Even in War Israel is to display kindness & mercy. The betrothed are to be exempt from service; offers of peace are to be made to the enemy; & fruit trees are to be preserved. The conduct of war is to be guided by reason & mercy. Israelitish Kings were famed for their humanity 1 Kg 20:31 whereas others were noted for inhuman savagery and for the devastation of fields and cultivated tracts 2 Kg 8:12.

2 THOSE EXCLUDED FROM FIGHTING Vv. 5-9

Cp 19:13. This expression is used in regard to • The Canaanites 7:16. • Those who entice from the Word 13:8 • Certain acts of indecency 25:11. • False witness 19:21.

Ch. 20:3 "Let not" Ps. 27:1-3. Yahweh's servant - Isa. 41:10-14. Fear Yahweh - Matt. 10:16, 28, 31. Future - Isa 35: 3-4. Fight the fight of faith 1 Tim. 6:12 Cp Heb. 13:6.

Israel discouraged by the spies Num 13:31-14:3; 32:9. Cp 1 Cor. 15:37.

The Priest. V. 2: The Rabbins claim the Priest was called: "The Anointed of the War" Hence perhaps the expression: "Consecrate War!" Jer. 6:4; Joel 3:9, Num. 31:6. Cp 1 Sam 4:4, 11 - Ark 2 Chr. 13:12 - Yahweh - Phinehas Cp 1 Kg 8:63. 1 Chr. 7:15?

DEDICATING THE HOUSE V. 5: Evidently by some religious ceremony. Cp Title Ps 30. Neh 12:27.

12. Fear is infectious so that the presence of such in the host could be a source of weakness & danger. Cowardice is contagious & so also is courage when given freedom of choice the contagion of courage would probably shame one to unexpected acts of bravery. The law made militarism its slave and not its master.

speaking unto the people, that they shall make captains of the armies (2) to lead the people.

10 ¶ When thou comest nigh unto a city to fight against it, [b] then proclaim peace unto it.

11 And it shall be, if it make thee answer of peace, and open unto thee, then it shall be, that all the people that is found therein shall be tributaries unto thee, and they shall serve thee.

12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make war against thee, then thou shalt besiege it:

13 And when the LORD thy God hath delivered it into thine hands, [c] thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword:

14 But the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that is in the city, even all the spoil thereof, shalt thou [6] take unto thyself; and [f] thou shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which the LORD thy God hath given thee.

15 Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities which are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations.

16 But [g] of the cities of these people, which the LORD thy God doth give thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth:

17 But thou shalt utterly destroy them; [h] namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; as the LORD thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That [i] they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods; so should ye [j] sin against the LORD your God.

19 ¶ When thou shalt besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof [a] by forcing an axe against them: for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down (for the tree of the field is [c] man's life) [4] to employ them in the siege:

20 Only the trees which thou knowest that they be not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy and cut them down; and thou shalt build [d] bulworks against the city that maketh war with thee, until [5] it be subdued.

CHAPTER 21.

1 The expiation of an uncertain murder. 10 The usage of a captive taken to wife. 15 The firstborn is not to be disinherited upon private affection. 18 A stubborn son is to be stoned.

IF one be found [1] slain in the land which the [f] LORD thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him:

2 Then thy elders and thy judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain:

3 And it shall be, that the city which is next unto the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take an heifer, which hath not been wrought with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke;

4 And the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto a rough valley, which is neither eared nor sown, and shall strike off the heifer's neck there in the valley:

5 And the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for [k] them the LORD thy God hath chosen to minister unto him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and [k] by their [7] word shall every controversy and every stroke be tried:

6 And all the elders of that city, that are next unto the slain man, [m] shall wash their hands over the heifer that is beheaded in the valley:

The meaning is that the officers should then subdivide the levies, & appoint leaders of the smaller divisions thus constituted.

V 11. Tributaries: The 'answer of peace' would be the acceptance of the terms of peace. These would involve the endorsement of the Mosaic Covenant in circumcision. So these laws could apply to the Canaanite cities as well. However if the terms of peace were rejected Vv. 12-18 applied. Cp Josh. 11:19

---

2 Lit. "For the man is a tree of the field." A fruit bearing tree typ. the righteous must not be destroyed in providing means of warfare. Probably a spiritual lesson implied. Cp Ps. 1. trees portray the aim for better living Rev. 22:2. Man is treated as trees bringing forth fruit either good or bad in the following Matt. 3:10; 7:15-20; 21:19; Luke 13:7-9; John 15:2-6.

(12) ATTITUDE TOWARDS HUMAN LIFE AND RIGHTS. Vv 1-23.

(1) TREATMENT OF THE UNSOLVED MURDER Vv 1-9.

Deut. 19:11-13 Note.

"Blood defileth the land" Num. 35:33. Cp Gen. 9:5. Ps. 9:12. Prov. 28:17.

4 With red heifer. Num. 19:2

3 Thus a virgin cow in full vigor of life. Its blood was not shed - hence not a sacrifice; it was not "without blemish" therefore not without sin. It stood for the victim, its death dramatising his violent end.

4 RV: "unto a valley with running water which is neither plowed nor sown." The deserted spot represented the scene of the crime, unnoticed by any. The running stream to bear away the responsibility of the crime as far as the innocent were concerned. Below

5 They represented Yahweh who knew the guilty.

6 RV: "Break." Hence not a sacrifice.

7 Cp Ch. 10:8

8 Publicly testifying their innocence. Ps. 26:6; 73:13; Mal. 2:17

9 Cont. NACHAL AITHAN can be rend. "rapid torrent." The ground must be uncultivated - no evidence of cultivated growth, because it is a sacrifice for murder, & consequently would pollute the Crops. See note 2 above, see use Amos 5:24

The Heifer V 3: The heifer which has never produced fruit, or set to decay work, is to be slain in a valley never produced fruit to atone for the death of a man prematurely debarred from producing fruit through his untimely death, the running water symbolising the removal of defilement from the land - Sin.

273 LAW OF HOMICIDE DEUT. 21

It impressed the sacredness of human beings, made in the image = likeness of God. Gen. 1:26-28; 9:6; Jam. 3:9.

The gravity of murder - the cutting off of one created to glorify Yahweh - terminating a life of service & usefulness to God & man & of his preparation for eternal life.

It emphasised the fear & dread of the vengeance of God for such a crime

The results of such crimes should they be ignored or but lightly punished.

The moral pollution of the people if innocent blood was shed & no effort was made to discover & punish the criminal

INQUEST ON THE UNSOLVED MURDER.
- Those called to account disclaim responsibility
- The Jewish leaders were murderers. Acts 7:52
- But sin in flesh was real murderer Jhn 8:44. Rom. 7:20

THROUGH LOVE TO LIBERTY 10-14
Through the warfare of faith Christ has obtained a captive bride who receives her liberty through him, but who he will drive away if he have no delight in her.

DEUTERONOMY 22.

Usage of captives.

7 And they shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.
8 Be merciful, O LORD, unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, [a] and lay not innocent blood unto thy people of Israel's charge. And the blood shall be forgiven them.
9 So shalt thou put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the LORD.
10 ¶ When thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, and the LORD thy God hath delivered them into thine hands, and thou hast taken them captive,
11 And seest among the captives a beautiful woman, and hast a desire unto her, that thou wouldest have her to thy wife;
12 Then thou shalt bring her home to thine house; and she shall shave her head, and pare her nails;
13 And she shall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thine house, and [k] bewail her father and her mother a full month: and after that thou shalt go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife.
14 And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go whither she will; but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not [l] make merchandise of her, because thou hast [m] humbled her.
15 ¶ If a man have two wives, one beloved, and another [p] hated, and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be her's that was hated:
16 Then it shall be, [r] when he maketh his sons to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn [s] before the son of the hated, which is indeed the firstborn:

Of a rebellious son.

17 But he shall acknowledge the son of the hated for the firstborn, by giving him a double portion of all [t] that he hath: for he is the beginning of his strength; [u] the right of the firstborn is his.
18 ¶ If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that, when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them:
19 Then shall his father, and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place;
20 And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard.
21 And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you; [v] and all Israel shall hear, and fear.
22 ¶ And if a man have committed a sin [w] worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree:
23 His body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day; (for [x] he that is hanged is [y] accursed of God;) that [z] thy land be not defiled, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

V.22. 'Thou shalt hang him on a tree'
The Hebrews understand this, not of putting to death by hanging, but of hanging after death. Cp. Num. 25:4 Josh. 8:29. 10:26. Hanging between heaven & earth, the condemned seemed abandoned of both. See below left.

SHARAR — To turn (away) i.e. morally, refractory
23 Gen. 25:5,6, 32, Str. 34. 1 Chr. 5:1.

ZÂLAL — To shake to shake out, squander. — a waster.
28 The penalty was inflicted by the community not the father. A parent might chastise with severity, but not so as to endanger his life Prov 19:18
29 Thus even Christ was cursed, the detriment associated with hanging being imputed to him in a similar sense to Num 15:1. Exod. 28:38.
TREATMENT OF CRIMINALS PUBLICLY EXECUTED. Vv 22-29.
30 Thus publicly exhibiting him as a criminal worthy of execution. Cp Num 25:4; Gen. 40:19
In Christ's case his sin's flesh was exhibited as worthy of death John 6:44 Gal. 5:24 He had conquered it in life and had submitted to it being put to death.
31 QELÂLÂH from QÂLAL — To make light, thus to bring into contempt.
The curse of God resting upon the hanged, the offender could not remain on the face of the earth without defiling it. Lev 18:25,28 Num. 35:34.

ACCURSED OF GOD. 274
Cp Gal. 3:13. What was "cursed" or brought into contempt: the man Christ Jesus, the righteous character of the Lord? or flesh with the lusts thereof? Undoubtedly the latter. God cursed this, revealed it as an object of contempt Acts 2:23 and in doing so called upon mankind to recognise the flesh as the cause of sin Mark 7:15. Rom. 7:17, 18. Gal. 5:17.
Christ was strengthened to overcome the flesh. Ps. 80:17. 2 Cor. 5:21.
"Hang him upon a tree" (Deut 21:22).
These words are used by Peter to describe the action of the Jews towards the Lord Acts 5:30. Hence they put him "to an open shame" Heb. 6:6. But God permitted this as an act of atonement Acts 2:23. For "he bare our sins in his own body on the tree" 1 Pet 2:24.
But he was taken down, buried and rose again to life eternal and thus was redeemed from the curse are are all those "in him" who with him "crucify the flesh with the affections and lusts" Gal. 5:24.
The world imagined that the Lord was "stricken, smitten of God, afflicted" Isa 53:4. It was wrong. It was flesh not the Lord, thus treated.

See above
23 In this context the word signifies a secondary affection as in Gen 29:31, 33. Mal. 1:3. Luke 14:26 Rom. 9:13.
This does not necessarily imply polygamy as one wife may have died and he remarried.

3 CONSIDERATION EVEN FOR WITLESS BIRDS. Vv 6-7
3 Yahweh's Eyes are upon all Luke 12:6.
6 The extirpation of any species of birds whether edible or birds of prey, is often attended with serious consequences, upsetting the balance of nature. Thus the Law takes heed of both moral & practical principles.
4 CONSIDERATION FOR OTHERS IN BUILDING V 8

DEUTERONOMY 22 IN THE MODERN WORLD

This chapter speaks with chastening soberness to the modern world.
- To an age of ruthless indifference to the wellbeing and consideration of others, it inculcates principles thought for the property of others VV 1-4
- To a generation which is exploiting natural resources with terrifying thoroughness,

13 ATTITUDE TOWARD CIVIL RESPONSIBILITIES VV 1-23:25.

2 THE SEXES TO BE CLEARLY DISTINGUISHABLE BY APPAREL V 5

Top 277

For the sexes to imitate one another is to destroy that which Yahweh has established between them. Go 1 Cor 11:14-15. It leads to gross familiarity

3 CONSIDERATION EVEN FOR BIRDS. VV 6-7

Yahweh's Eyes are upon all Luke 12:6

The extirpation of any species of birds whether edible or birds of prey, is often attended with serious consequences, upsetting the balance of nature. Thus the Law takes heed of both moral & practical principles.

4 CONSIDERATION FOR OTHERS IN BUILDING V 8

They are of different sizes & motions & to yoke them together would bring pain, discomfort & interfere with the efficiency of the work. 2 Cor 6:14. Amos 3:3

DEUTERONOMY 22. Of humanity. Of slander, &c.

2 And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him again.

3 In like manner shalt thou do with his ass; and so shalt thou do with his raiment; and with all lost thing of thy brother's, which he hath lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise: thou mayest not hide thyself.

4 ¶ [c] Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again.

5 ¶ The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the LORD thy God.

6 ¶ If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground, whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, [d] thou shalt not take the dam with the young:

7 But thou shalt in any wise let the dam go, and take the young to thee; [e] that it may be well with thee, [f] and that thou mayest prolong thy days.

8 ¶ When thou buildest a new house, then thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof, that thou bring not blood upon thine house, if any man fall from thence. parapet. Mt 18:6-7. Acts 20:26-27

9 ¶ Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard [g] with divers seeds: lest the [h] fruit of thy seed which thou hast sown, and the fruit of thy vineyard, be defiled.

10 ¶ Thou shalt not plow with an ox and an ass together.

11 ¶ [i] Thou shalt not wear a garment [j] of divers sorts, as of woollen and linen together.

12 ¶ [k] Thou shalt make thee [l] fringes upon the four [2] quarters of thy vesture, wherewith thou coverest thyself.

13 ¶ If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and hate her,

14 And give occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid:

15 Then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate:

16 And the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hateth her;

17 And, lo, he hath given occasions of speech against her, saying, I found not thy daughter a maid; and yet these are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.

18 And the elders of that city shall take that man and chastise him;

19 And they shall amerce him in an hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and she shall be his wife; he may not put her away all his days.

20 But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damsel:

21 Then they shall bring out the damsel to the door of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die: because she hath [m] wrought folly in Israel, to play the whore in her father's house: so shalt thou put evil away from among you.

and flouting long-established distinctions, it speaks of the Divine order in nature. (Vv 5-12) which can be ignored only at peril. This may not, indeed, be used to justify hidebound prejudice; on the other hand the final consequences of every scientific breakthrough are not always seen in advance, and many a breakthrough leads ultimately to a breakdown.

- To a social order which condones increasingly the exploitation of human beings as pawns in the game of sex, it speaks of the Divine order among men, requiring recognition of the sanctity of marriage (Vv 13-30). People are not simply bodies to be played with.
- In an era of anarchy that is intent upon throwing off all restraint the law speaks of the basis of an orderly world. The basis is not law itself, but respect for it. To defy it is to court both licence and anarchy. Divine law cannot be broken - Yahweh's purpose will prevail - we can only break ourselves against it. - Beacon Amended.

The tokens of virginity must be preserved in Christ. 2 Cor. 11:2, 1 Pet. 1:19. It is claimed that in Egypt, Syria & Israel it was customary for parents to claim the spotted bed clothes after a marriage night as evidence of their daughter's virginity (Dorsey).

The Fringe of Blue

The word GEDILIM means something twisted & is used of the festoon or wreathen work worked on the capitals of columns 1 Ki 7:17. Probably the TSIYTSITH Num 15:38 was a fringe around the 4 corners of the garment, with the threads twisted together to form a fringe of rough line braided work. Jewish tradition says that it was made of blue & white threads. See Century Bible & Barnes on Numbers.

14 WHO MAY OR MAY NOT ENTER THE CONGREGATION. VV. 1-8.

These regulations underline the principle that Yahweh requires the perfection of His people Deut. 18:13. Mt. 5:48. Israel constituted a Kingdom of priests Exod. 19:6, and bodily blemish disqualified a person from serving as priest Lev. 21:16-20. This had relation to the external typical aspect of the Israelitish constitution.

In fact, Eunuchs were not excluded from religious privileges. The could "take hold of Yahweh's covenant" Keep the Sabbath, choose the things pleasing to Him, and so be part of spiritual Israel, though excluded from that which was external and national. They will be brought into the Temple of the future Isa. 56:4-5. thus to demonstrate that "the flesh profits nothing" John 6:63. The Ethiopian Eunuch was baptised Acts 8:27, 38.

The law was not meant to exclude such Israelites from the common benefits of civil society, or any essential religious advantage of worship, but merely to lay them under a disgraceful distinction.

17 (1) Therefore they must overlook his enmity. Num. 20:18-21.

DEUTERONOMY IN THE MODERN WORLD

1 Consideration for one's neighbor Ch 23:19-25 (Luke 10:25-37)
2. A proper respect for marriage Ch 24:1-5. (Matt 19:3-9).
3 Care for the needy Ch 24:6-22 (Jas 1:27)
4 Consideration for the helpless Ch 25:1-19. (1 Tim 4:16)

DEATH OF MOSES. "To labour & not to see the end of our labours; to sow & not to reap; to be removed from this earthly scene before our work has been appreciated, & when it is still carried on not by ourselves but by others — Is a law so common in the highest characters of history that none can be said to be altogether exempt from its operation" Stanley and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

22 NEWLY WEDS EXEMPTED FROM WAR. 4 5

4 i.e. Public duties. Cp Rev 19:7.

5 ¶ [a]When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, [2]neither shall he be charged with any business: but he shall be free at home one year, and shall [b]cheer up his wife which he hath taken.

23 MILLSTONE NOT TO BE TAKEN AS PLEDGE V. 6.

6 ¶ No man shall take the nether or the upper millstone to pledge: for he taketh a man's life to pledge.

Here commences a series of laws concerned with the needy. Vv 6-24 See bottom p 276.

7 ¶ [c]If a man be found stealing any of his brethren of the children of Israel, and [d]maketh merchandise of him, or selleth him; then that thief shall die; and thou shalt put evil away from among you.

5. The Mill (RSV) or Hand-mill (Moffatt). The small hand mills ground sufficient for a day's consumption: "Give us each day! . . ." Cp Num 11:8

24 MANSTEALING PROHIBITED V 7.

6 Rome has been guilty of this Cp 2 Pet 2:3. Rev 18:13. Ys = Tyrannised. See note 21:21

25 LAW OF LEPROSY TO BE ENFORCED 8-9

8 ¶ [e]Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that thou observe diligently, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them, so ye shall observe to do.

8 They should remember both the cause (rebellion against Moses) and the cure (exclusion from the camp).

9 See also. Luke 17:32; 1 Cor. 10:6, 11. Endorsed by Christ Mt 5:19

9 Remember what the LORD thy God did [f]unto Miriam by the way, after that ye were come forth out of Egypt.

26 HOME OF DEBTOR TO BE RESPECTED 10-13

10 Cp Ch 13:18.

10 ¶ When thou dost [4]lend thy brother any thing, thou shalt not go into his house to fetch his pledge.

11 Thou shalt stand abroad, and the man to whom thou dost lend shall bring out the pledge abroad unto thee.

11 Yahweh sets forth principles of mercy and consideration such as He will bless in return. Cp Onesiphorus and Paul 2 Tim. 1:16-18.

12 And if the man be poor, thou shalt not sleep with his pledge:

12 Cp Eph. 4:26.

13 [g]In any case thou shalt deliver him the pledge again when the sun goeth down, that he may sleep in his own raiment, and [z]bless thee: [h]and it shall be righteousness unto thee before the LORD thy God.

13 The fruits of applying the golden rule Matth. 7:12. Cp Jam. 1:27; 2:15-23.

14 He will take heed. Isa. 66:2

27 WAGES TO BE PUNCTUALLY PAID 14-15.

14 ¶ Thou shalt not [5]oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy, whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates:

15 Yahweh will repay. Prov 14:31; 22:16. Cp Luke 14:14. Cf. Mal. 3:5. Gospel workers Luke 10:7.

15 At his day [a]thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor, and [2]setteth his heart upon it: [c]lest he cry against thee unto the LORD, and it be sin unto thee.

V 7. "Put away" — BA'AR - To kindle, burn. Thus to purge by burning.

16 [d]The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

16 Cp Prov. 3:27-28.

17 ¶ [k]Thou shalt not pervert the judgment of the stranger, nor of the fatherless; [k]nor take a widow's raiment to pledge:

17 Yahweh will plead the cause of the poor Prov 22:22, 23:10-11.

18 But [m]thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt, and the LORD thy God redeemed thee thence: therefore I command thee to do this thing.

28 SINS OF FATHER NOT TO REST ON FAMILY 16

Perfect justice to be manifested, and individual responsibility stressed. 17 Yg: "along with"

19 ¶ [n]When thou cuttest down thine harvest in thy field, and hast forgot [p]a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not go again to fetch it: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow: that the LORD thy God may [4]bless thee in all the work of thine hands.

29 JUDGMENT OF NEEDY TO BE JUST 17-18

18 They are to imitate Yahweh's ways in extending help to such. Deut. 10:18 Mt. 5:44-48 A curse against those who do otherwise Deut. 27:19. Reason. Exod 22:21-22 Lev. 19:33-34 See definition true religion Jam. 1:27.

19 The principle enjoined. Mk 7:12. Deut 5:15; 15:15; 16:12

30 GLEANING OF FIELDS TO BE LEFT TO THE POOR 19-22

20 ¶ When thou beatest thine olive tree, [5]thou shalt not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

20 Lev. 23:22. Typically they represent the Gentile and the bereft in Israel to whom the Gospel was preached. Ruth 2:16 Ps. 41:1 Jam. 2:5.

21 When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not [o]glean it [6]afterward: it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow.

21 Ps. 41:1-3, 112:9 Prov 11:24-26, Isa. 32:8; 58:7 11. Luke 6:35, 38; 14:13-14 2 Cor. 9:6-8 1 Jhn 3:17-19.

22 And [u]thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt: therefore I command thee to do this thing.

22 They should see in the stranger etc a reflection of their condition when oppressed in Egypt, and should manifest Yahweh's ways towards them Ex 6:6 ff.

CHAPTER 25.

1 Stripes must not exceed forty. 4 The ox is not to be muzzled. 5 Of raising seed unto a brother. 11 Of the immodest woman. 13 Of unjust weights. 17 The memory of Amalek to be blotted out.

1 ¶ If there be a controversy between men, and they come unto judgment, that the judges may judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked.

2 And it shall be, if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his fault, by a certain number.

3 Forty stripes he may give him, and not exceed: lest, if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then thy brother should seem vile unto thee.

4 ¶ Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn.

5 ¶ If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no child, the wife of the dead shall not marry without unto a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in unto her, and take her to him to wife, and perform the duty of an husband's brother unto her.

6 And it shall be that the firstborn which she beareth shall succeed in the name of his brother which is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel.

7 And if the man like not to take his brother's wife, then let his brother's wife go up to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel, he will not perform the duty of my husband's brother.

8 Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak unto him: and if he stand to it, and say, I like not to take her;

9 Then shall his brother's wife come unto him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto that man that will not build up his brother's house.

10 And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe loosed.

11 ¶ When men strive together one with another, and the wife of the one draweth near for to deliver her husband out of the hand of him that smiteth him, and putteth forth her hand, and taketh him by the secrets:

12 Then thou shalt cut off her hand, thine eye shall not pity her.

13 ¶ Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights, a great and a small.

14 Thou shalt not have in thine house divers measures, a great and a small.

15 But thou shalt have a perfect and just weight, a perfect and just measure shalt thou have: that thy days may be lengthened in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee.

16 For all that do such things, and all that do unrighteously, are an abomination unto the LORD thy God.

17 ¶ Remember that which Amalek did unto thee by the way, when ye were come forth out of Egypt;

18 How he met thee by the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, even all that were feeble behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary; and he feared not God.

19 Therefore it shall be, when the LORD thy God hath given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under heaven; thou shalt not forget it.

GLEANING vv. 19-22. Lev 25:40-43. Ps 14:31, 22:26 Amos 2:7

How much better this provision to relieve poverty is than the Gentile dole. This provided the means for every man to maintain his independence in laboring for his living 2 Thess. 3:10 and so keep initiative and self-respect alive. The provision for gleaning provides a counteraction to selfishness, induces a consideration of the poor & needy, and encourages liberality. The Mosaic dispensation was based on love to God and benevolence to man. What blessings man received from God, he was expected to pass on to his fellow man.

PUNISHMENT LIMITED TO 40 STRIPES. Vv 1-3.

Scrupulous justice to be observed - thus being a divine principle.

A scourging Lev. 19:20 Cp Prov. 10:13; 19:29, 26:3. After receiving his punishment he is described as "thy brother" v 3 See below. The punishment was designed to reclaim but if it became too heavy it might defeat this purpose, and the guilty party become completely disgraced 2 Cor. 2:11. See p. 278

(From Latin "Levir" - husband's brother).

4 Not necessarily in the same house, but in the same community.

5. Not merely sonless. Daughters received the right of inheritance Num. 27:4-11. Here, however, the word is "BEN" son.

6 As one occupied land by walking on it, the shoe became the symbol of taking possession. The woman A gesture of contempt Num. 12:14 Deut 25:9 that indicated that he was not worthy to stand in his brother's place & she rejected him. To walk barefooted was considered a disgrace Isa. 20:2-4; 2 Sam. 15:30. Gen 13:17 Josh. 1:3 24. Ps. 60:8; 108:9.

V 3. "Thy brother" Cf. v 2. Once a man has expiated his offence, let the past be forgotten & he received back into the Brotherhood of Israel.

40 THE NUMBER OF PROBATION frequently associated with humiliation, affliction, punishment. Moses twice humbled himself 40 days in prayer & fasting (Deut. 9:9, 18) Elijah (1 Kings 19:8) Christ. (Mat. 4:2). Israel afflicted 40 yrs. (Num. 14:33-34) Egypt likewise (Ezek. 29:11-13). 40 days purification followed the birth of a boy and twice 40 for a girl (Lev. 12:4-5) The flood continued 40 days & nights (Gen. 7:12). Jonah preached impending disaster 40 days (Jon. 3:4). The Canaanites had 40 yrs. repent after spies had searched the land 40 days. (Num. 14:34) The old world had three 20 years preaching to repent (Gen. 6:3). Christ taught disciples 40 days after his resurrection (Acts 1:3, 9), and after 40 years preaching the Gospel, the Jewish State was destroyed in A.D. 70.

Was designed to preserve the family name & inheritance intact. The first was God-given; the second was God's heritage Ps. 127:3 and the medium of His redemption Gen. 3:15. 22:18 Therefore, in cases of childlessness, the normal rules as to inter-marriage are waived Lev. 18:16. The obligation was onerous Ruth 4:6 & might be repugnant. The duty was out of affection for the memory of the deceased; it was not one that could be enforced by Law. That it continued down to the time of the Lord is apparent by the question asked by the Sadducees Mt. 22:24. Levir = Latin for husband's brother

YAHWEH THE GIVER OF GOOD. Jam. 1:17.

Yahweh thy Elohim is used 299 times in Deuteronomy. It expresses a personal and exclusive relationship between Yahweh and Israel here emphasised as the Giver of Good. This was emphasised by the ritual below. Every Israelite had to individually avow that the inheritance was from Yahweh and not by personal merit. It also proclaimed the doctrine of GRACE and GRATITUDE, the offering in return thus being one of reason Rom. 12:1. In presenting his basket of firstfruits the worshipper pledged his life and service to Yahweh. Thus in presenting the tithes every three years, he had to publicly declare that he had withheld nothing that was Yahweh's due V 14. + on the basis of that invoke a blessing upon the People and land. TITHING There seems to have been 3 tithes.
1. A tax of a tenth of all edible vegitable products collected by the ministry for its own support. Num. 18:21-24.
2. A second tithe of some products together with the cattle tithe Lev. 27:32. furnished a feast for the owners & guests at Jerusalem. Deut. 14:22-27
3. The poor tithe set aside every 3rd year for charity. Deut. 14:28, 26:12. Josephus = 3 Tithes. See Jos. Tob. 1.7.8. Maimonides claims 3rd & 6th years 2nd tithe shared between poor Levites.

The offering of the firstfruits. DEUTERONOMY 26. CONCLUSION OF THE CODE

CHAPTER 26.

2 The confession of him that offereth firstfruits.
16 The covenant between God and the people.

AND it shall be, when thou art come in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and possessest it, and dwellest therein; See Intro. Q 13:10 NOTE

2 That thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of thy land that the LORD thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the LORD thy God shall choose to place his name there. Heb. 7:26. 10:12. 13:15. 1 Pet. 2:5.

3 And thou shalt go unto the priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto the LORD thy God, that I am come unto the country which the LORD sware unto our fathers for to give us. Cp Heb. 12:22 & Cp p. 279

4 And the priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD thy God. Heb 13:10

5 And thou shalt speak and say before the LORD thy God, (h) A Syrian [1] ready to perish was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a [2] few, and became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous: Exod 1:7,9 Ps 105:23-24.

6 And (n) the Egyptians evil entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage:

7 And [o] when we cried unto the LORD God of our fathers, the LORD heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression:

8 And [q] the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and [r] with great terribleness, and with signs, and with wonders:

9 And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even (a) a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 And now, behold, I have brought the firstfruits of the land, which thou, O LORD, hast given me. And thou shalt set it before the LORD thy God, and worship before the LORD thy God:

11 And (b) thou shalt rejoice in every good thing which the LORD thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thine house, thou, and the Levite, and the stranger that is among you.

12 ¶ When thou hast made an end of tithing all the [f] tithes of thine increase the third year, which is [g] the year of tithing, and hast given it unto the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be filled;

13 Then thou shalt say before the LORD thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of mine house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments which thou hast commanded me: I have not transgressed thy commandments, (c) neither have I forgotten them: See opp col.

14 [m] I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I taken away ought thereof for any unclean use, nor given ought thereof for the dead: but I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD my God, and have done according to all that thou hast commanded me. V 7. Ps 115:12-15

15 [p] Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swarest unto our fathers, (a) a land that floweth with milk and honey. Heb. 6:13-18.

A SECOND TITHE?

The law of Deut. 14:22-29 could relate to a second tithe due to the Divine blessing of prosperity, but which must not replace the tithing of Num. 18. Cp Deut. 14:27. Certainly there is no reference to this practise in subsequent times when prosperity was not in evidence. See 2 Chron. 31:11-12. Neh. 10:37-39. 13:12.

The people commanded to write the law upon stones, 5 and to build an altar of whole stones. 11 The tribes divided on Gerizim and Ebal. 14 The curses pronounced on mount Ebal.

AND Moses with the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day.

2 And it shall be on the day [a] when ye shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaister them with plaister:

3 [b] And thou shalt write upon them all the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the land which the LORD thy God giveth thee, [c] a land that floweth with milk and honey; as the LORD God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Therefore it shall be when ye be gone over Jordan, that ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, [d] in mount Ebal, and thou shalt plaister them with plaister.

5 And there shalt thou build an altar unto the LORD thy God, an altar of stones: [e] thou shalt not lift up any iron tool upon them.

6 Thou shalt build the altar of the LORD thy God of [f] whole stones: and thou shalt offer burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD thy God:

7 And thou shalt offer peace offerings, and shalt eat there, and rejoice before the LORD thy God.

8 And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law very plainly.

9 ¶ And Moses and the priests the Levites spake unto all Israel, saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Israel; [g] this day thou art become the people of the LORD thy God.

10 Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the LORD thy God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

11 ¶ And Moses charged the people the same day, saying,

12 [h] These shall stand upon mount Gerizim to bless the people, when ye are come over Jordan; Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin:

13 And [h] these shall stand upon mount Ebal [i] to curse; Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali.

14 ¶ And [j] the Levites shall speak, and say unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice,

15 [k] Cursed be the man that maketh any graven or molten image, an abomination unto the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and putteth it in a secret place. [l] And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

He came to bless, but as the blessings (vv. 1-14) were heavily outweighed by the cursings (vv. 15-68) as Ebal overshadowed Gerizim.

thy land in his season, and [c] to bless all the work of thine hand: and [c] thou shalt lend unto many nations, and thou shalt not borrow.

13 And the LORD shall make thee [d] the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the LORD thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them:

14 [e] And thou shalt not go aside from any of the words which I command thee this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.

15 ¶ But it shall come to pass, [f] if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day; that all these curses shall come upon thee, and [m] overtake thee:

16 Cursed shalt thou be [g] in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.

17 Cursed shall be thy basket and thy store.

18 Cursed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy land, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep.

19 Cursed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and cursed shalt thou be when thou goest out.

20 The LORD [n] shall send upon thee cursing, [o] vexation, and [p] rebuke, in all [q] that thou settest thine hand unto [r] for to do, until thou be destroyed, and until thou perish quickly; because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast forsaken me.

21 The LORD shall make [s] the pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land, whither thou goest to possess it.

22 The LORD shall smite thee with [t] a consumption, and with [u] a fever, and with an inflammation, and with an extreme burning, and with the [v] sword, and with [w] blasting, and with [d] mildew; and they shall pursue thee until thou perish.

23 And [f] thy heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron.

24 The LORD shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed.

25 [h] The LORD shall cause thee to be smitten before thine enemies: thou shalt go out one way against them, and flee seven ways before them: and [k] shalt be [3] removed into all the kingdoms of the earth.

26 And [l] thy carcase shall be meat unto all fowls of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and [n] no man shall fray them away.

27 The LORD will smite thee with [p] the botch of Egypt, and with [q] the emerods, and with [r] the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst not be healed.

28 The LORD shall smite thee with [s] madness, and blindness, and [t] astonishment of heart:

29 And thou shalt [u] grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways: and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled evermore, and no man shall save thee.

30 [b] Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: [c] thou shalt build an house, and thou shalt not dwell therein: thou shalt plant a vineyard, and shalt not [5] gather the grapes thereof.

As Moses proceeds, the language of terrible denunciation passes into the no less ominous language of terrible prediction.

CHAP. 28 Cont. The Chapter should be considered in conjunction with Exod. 23: 20-23, Lev. 26 and particularly with its sequel Deut. 29, 30. The prophecies concerning the dispersion + degradation of the Jewish race are plain, precise and factual; whilst those speaking of the political revival of the nation are exciting, hopeful and full of promise.

"A removing" — ZA'AVAH - Agitation. The word signifies to be tossed to and fro at the will of others; i.e. driven from one country to another with — out any certain settlement. RV = "tossed to and fro among."

Deut. 32:11 As the eagle stirreth up her young...

The purpose is to disturb her young, to excite them so they are the more willing to leave the nest & learn to fly. So Yahweh permitted troubles in Egypt to make Israel willing to leave. What was troubling was for their benefit.
"Fluttereth over them": Broods over them protectively to keep them warm & preserve them from evil, so Yahweh sought to develop Israel to strength.

DEUT. 32:28 A NATION VOID OF COUNSEL.

Otherwise they would have considered their latter end instead of living only for the present lusts & pleasures that were destroying if their obedience would have ensured victory over innumerable odds whereas now comparatively smaller numbers would defeat them, & they would be taken into captivity cp vv 29-35.

37 Taken into slavery. In a number of countries particularly Spain & Portugal the Government has cruelly decreed that they be taken from their homes & compulsorily educated in the Popish religion. Jer. 15:7-9. Joel 3:8

WORMWOOD: The desert species Artemisia Monosperma. Grayish in colour, with a strong aromatic odour (so attractive), with a taste so bitter, that even sheep, in poor pasture lands of the semi-arid wilderness will spurn it. It is expressive of bitterness Jer. 9:14; Lam. 3:15, 19 Jer. 23:15. A bitter drink was derived from the sap and added to wine. Absinthe being the Greek for its sap. The well-known wine Vermouth is flavoured with wormwood – Plants of the Bible.

6 NATION REDUCED, SCATTERED, THREATENED WITH EXTINCTION

The Roman armies at length besieged, sacked, and utterly desolated Jerusalem: and during this seige, the famine was so extreme, that even rich and delicate persons, both men and women, ate their own children, and concealed the horrible repast, lest others should tear it from them! 'Women snatched the food out of the very mouths of their husbands, and sons of their fathers, and (what is most miserable) mothers of their infants.' 'In every house, if there appeared any semblance of food, a battle ensued, and the dearest friends and relations fought with one another; snatching away the miserable provisions of life.' 'A woman distinguished by birth and wealth, after she had been plundered by the tyrants (or soldiers) of all her possessions, boiling her own sucking child, ate half of him, and concealing the other half, reserved it for another time!'

5 DEUTERONOMY 28: A SUMMARY

Yahweh's primary intent is to bless – hence the precedence of blessings over cursings. This is in accordance with Yahweh's character. Hos 11:8-9. Lam. 3:32-34. Ps 103:6-18. Jer 29:11-13.

The way to blessing is obedience
The penalty of disobedience is judgment.

This national principle emphasized in Deuteronomy is also a personal principle. Those who will not receive Christ as Savior will face him as Judge. Jhn 3:18, 36. 2 Cor. 2:15-16.

SEALING THE COVENANT: The principles of the Covenant, including the benefits of obeying and the penalties of breaking it, have been set forth. There only remains the formal endorsement of it by the Nation. It is that act & the accompaniments to it that are the subject of Chps. 29-30. The leading elements of it are thus repeated in brief. Deut. 29:1-9 answers to the historical prologue in Ch. 1:6-4:49. 29:16-29 answers to the sanctions of 28:1-68. 30:8,10-14 alludes to the stipulations of the covenant embodied in 5:1-26:19. Finally 30:15-20 contains the summons to the oath of confirmation & the invocation of witnesses. The covenant contains strong exhortatory appeal.

Ch. 29 Summary (see above) An exhortation to obedience.

The recapitulation of the covenants: fruitful of blessings, powerful in warning; the former conditional upon a hearing ear. The goodness of Yahweh is set before them as evidence of His faithfulness an incentive of obedience. But otherwise His threatenings would be as faithful as His promises.

69 Figuratively into exile & captivity. Cp Rev 11:8. As the Exodus was the birth of the Kingdom of God the return would be its death.

70 Not as free men but cooped up in slave ships.

71 There would be so many Jewish slaves that they would no longer command a price. This happened in Rome.

1 Moses exhorteth them to obedience. 10 All are presented before the Lord to enter into his covenant. 18 The great wrath on him that flattereth himself in his wickedness. 29 Secret things belong unto God.

THESE are the words of the covenant, which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, beside [k] the covenant which he made with them in Horeb. Amplification 4:10, 13, 23

2 ¶ And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, [m] Ye have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land;

3 [p] The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs, and those great miracles: (P. 284)

4 Yet [q] the LORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day. Mt. 6:31-32

5 [r] And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: [s] your clothes are not waxen old upon you, and thy shoe is not waxen old upon thy foot. Neh. 9:15; Ps 78:24-25

6 [t] Ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine [1] or strong drink: that ye might know that I am the LORD your God. Num 20:8; 1 Cor. 9:25; 10:4. Eph 5:18

7 And when ye came unto this place, [u] Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battle, and we smote them:

8 And we took their land, and [a] gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of Manasseh. Heb 13:20-21

9 [a] Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may [f] prosper in all that ye do.

10 ¶ Ye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your [v] officers, with all the men of Israel,

11 Your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp, from [h] the hewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water: Gen. 15:10; Jer. 34:18-19

12 That thou shouldest [2] enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into his [a] oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day:

13 That he may [i] establish thee to day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, [a] as he hath said unto thee, and [a] as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. Gen. 17:7. Ex. 3:15; 6:7; Heb. 11:16

14 Neither with you only [a] do I make this covenant and this [t] oath;

15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, [x] and also with him that is not here with us this day:

16 (For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt; and how we came through the nations which ye passed by;

17 And ye have seen their abominations, and their [z] idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them:) Deut. 11:16-17; 13:1-15; 17:2-7. Heb 3:12 "make sure that there is no" NIV

Joshua was a man of independent mind & outstanding courage. This led him to defy the other spies and, with Caleb, give a report of faith Num. 14:4. This was not an easy position to take, for the whole nation turned against them.

He was prepared for his task by the lessons of Experience, Example and Exhortation. Experience is necessary. A person may be educated in the various techniques of a sport (i.e. swimming or boxing), he may have read & studied every book on the subject, but if he has not practised it he will be a most imperfect performer. Joshua learned by experience to have faith in Yahweh by being placed in the most difficult situations - Amalek Exod. 17:8-16. Sinai Exod. 24:13-18; 32:15-18. The Spies Num. 14: 12, 24. Jericho etc. Joshua learned to lean upon the guidance and help of the "captain of Yahweh's host" Josh. 5:13-15.

He had the example of Moses, for he had the unique opportunity of serving at his minister Exod. 24:13; Josh. 1:1. He saw Moses in triumph Exod. 14:15 and in tribulation Num. 14:12-23. He saw his dependence on Yahweh, his recourse to prayer, his reliance on faith. He saw him in meekness Num. 12:3, and in anger. It was Joshua who heard the noise of the people in their pagan worship Exod. 32:17, & witnessed Moses smashing the tables of stone. He saw him patiently bearing with them in their 24 Even all nations [r] shall say, [6] Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this land? what meaneth [t] the heat of this great anger?

25 Then men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt: Jer. 19:13-13; 44:2-6

26 For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and [3] whom he had not [4] given unto them:

27 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book:

Vv. 10-29. Moses reviews the various orders of people, all assembled to enter into covenant with Yahweh. He considers others who hereafter shall take place in such solemn acts. He warns every one against harbouring evil in their hearts, & presuming to escape in the general righteousness. He proclaims how the sinful individual shall be separated for doom, the land of a sinful tribe overthrown in a curse. But he adds words of mercy, and earnestly entreats appeals to choose life & not death.

ISRAEL MULTIPLIED. V.5. Keil observes: "If there is to be an increase in the number of Jews when gathered out of their dispersion into all the world, above the number of their fathers, and therefore above the number of the Israelites in the time of Solomon & the first Monarchs of the two kingdoms, Palestine will never furnish room enough for a nation multiplied like this." Since the days of Keil the nation has increased numerically as indicated requiring more land for the returning exiles and causing a fulfilment of Isa 49:20. 8 And thou shalt return and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day.

9 And the LORD thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the LORD will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers:

10 If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

11 For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off.

12 It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

14 But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

15 See, [f] I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil;

16 In that I command thee this day to love the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply: and the LORD thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

17 But if thine heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but [g] shalt be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them;

18 [h] I denounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, and that [i] ye shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it.

19 I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that [j] I have set before you life and death, [k] blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:

20 That thou mayest love the LORD thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him: for he is thy [m] life, and the length of thy days: that thou mayest dwell in the land [n] which the LORD sware unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them. see bottom p. 284

THE RIGHTEOUSNESS OF FAITH

Paul quotes Deut. 30: 11-14 as an example of the righteousness which is of faith. He interprets these words and applies them to Christ as the Word made flesh.

He also quotes Lev. 18:5 as expressing the righteousness which is of the law, but in doing so he was not interpreting Leviticus as such, but as Jewish legalists used it. Their approach to the Law was wrong. In fact, Leviticus with its emphasis on sacrifice and priesthood demonstrated that flesh of itself was inadequate and the provisions provided were typical of the true sacrifice and priest that would come. The Jewish legalists did not see it like that and incorrectly quoted Leviticus. Paul answered with Deut. 30:11-14 which teaches that it is the Word in heart and mouth that motivates action v.14 to perform the Law.

"The Law could thus give life, but not in itself or by itself. It was the divinely arranged medium for the manifestation of faith, but it was not designed to give life in the way that the Jews understood the purpose of it being given to them. This is seen by the further teaching of Moses, through whom they received the law. (J. Carter. Romans p. 90).

YAHWEH THE JUDGE – DAYÂN See also Shâphat.

● A Judge or Advocate, from DIYN (deen), to rule; by implication to judge (as an umpire), to strive (as at law. Gen. 6:3). DAYÂN – only Ps. 68:5. He is a Judge of widows – those who have no help of their own. By caring for such we gain the favor of the Dayân. See Notes Ps. 68:5.

● For characteristic in judging Deut. 32:36. Ps. 135:14.

● DIYN + SHÂPHAT occur in conjunction in Ps. 7:8. RV: "Yahweh minister(h), judgment (DIYN) to the peoples ... judge me (Shâphat) – a judgment favorable to the petitioner – do me justice.

● Judge the world in righteousness Ps. 9:8; Acts 17:31. Ps. 96:10; 110:6.

● Judge His people Ps. 50:4. 54:1. Heb. 10:30. See below.

3 The LORD thy God, he will go over before thee, and he will destroy these nations from before thee, and thou shalt possess them: and Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as the LORD hath said.

4 And the LORD shall do unto them as he did to Sihon and to Og, kings of the Amorites, and unto the land of them, whom he destroyed.

5 And the LORD shall give them up before your face, that ye may do unto them according unto all the commandments which I have commanded you.

6 Be strong and of a good courage, fear not, nor be afraid of them: for the LORD thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

7 And Moses called unto Joshua, and said unto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and of a good courage: for thou must go with this people unto the land which the LORD hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them to inherit it.

8 And the LORD, he it is that doth go before thee; he will be with thee, he will not fail thee, neither forsake thee: fear not, neither be dismayed.

9 And Moses wrote this law, and delivered it unto the priests the sons of Levi, which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and unto all the elders of Israel.

10 And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, in the solemnity of the year of release, in the feast of tabernacles, 11 When all Israel is come to appear before the LORD thy God in the place which he shall choose, thou shalt read this law before all Israel in their hearing.

12 Gather the people together, men, and women, and children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law:

13 And that their children, which have not known any thing, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as ye live in the land whither ye go over Jordan to possess it.

14 And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the LORD appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

16 And the LORD said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us?

18 And I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be [b] a witness for me against the children of Israel. 18

20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I sware unto their fathers, [c] that floweth with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and [d] waxen fat; 14 then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and [e] provoke me, and [f] break my covenant. - Isa. 24:5.

21 And it shall come to pass, [g] when many evils and troubles are befallen them, that this song shall testify [2] against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for [h] I know their [i] imagination which they [3] go about, even now, before I have brought them into the land which I sware. / Vv 4, 14.

22 ¶ Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

23 [k] And he gave Joshua the son of Nun a charge, and said, [l] Be strong and of a good courage: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I sware unto them: and [m] I will be with thee. Acts 7:45.

24 ¶ And it came to pass, when Moses had made an end of [n] writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, The priests V. 9. Sebastian 289.

25 That Moses commanded the Levites, [o] which bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, 2 Kg 22:8-11; 2 Chr. 34:14-15.

DEUTERONOMY 32.

The song of Moses.

9 For the LORD's portion is his people; Jacob is the [3]lot of his inheritance.

10 He found him in a desert land, and in the [4]waste howling wilderness; he [5]led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as [6]the apple of his eye.

11 As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings:

12 So the LORD alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him.

13 He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields; and he made him to suck [7]honey out of the rock, and [8]oil out of [9]the flinty rock;

14 Butter of kine, and milk of sheep, with fat of lambs, and rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats, with the fat of kidneys of wheat; and thou didst drink the pure [10]blood of the grape.

15 But Jeshurun waxed fat, and [11]kicked: [12]thou art waxen fat, thou art grown thick, thou art covered with fatness; then he [13]forsook God which made him, and lightly esteemed the [14]Rock of his salvation.

16 They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger.

17 [15]They sacrificed unto devils,

18 Of the Rock that begat thee thou art unmindful, and hast [16]forgotten God that formed thee.

19 And when the LORD saw it, he [17]abhorred them, because of the provoking of his sons, and of his daughters.

20 And he said, [18]I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be: for they are a [19]very froward generation, children in whom is no faith.

21 [20]They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God; they have provoked me to anger [21]with their vanities: and [22]I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people; I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

22 For a fire is kindled in mine anger, and [23]shall burn unto the lowest hell, and [24]shall consume the earth with her increase, and set on fire [25]the foundations of the mountains.

23 I will heap mischiefs upon them; [26]I will spend mine arrows upon them.

24 They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with [27]burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also send [28]the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poison [29]of serpents of the dust.

25 [30]The sword without, and terror [31]within, shall [32]destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also with the man of gray hairs.

26 [33]I said, I would scatter them into corners, I would make the remembrance of them to cease from among men:

27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemy, lest their adversaries should behave themselves strangely, and lest they should say, Our hand is high, and the LORD hath not done all this.

VERSE 39. "The inquisitive will not begrudge the trouble of examining the context which leads up to this animated & impressive passage. It will be seen that, with keenest irony, idolatrous Israel has just been advised to apply in her extremity to the false gods of which she boasted. "See Now" if haply ye have at length discovered that I, I am He, and there are no gods with me. I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand. For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever. If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment; I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me. I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy. Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people: for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful unto his land, and to his people. And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he, and Hoshea the son of Nun. And Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel: Set your hearts unto all the words which I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law. For it is not a vain thing for you; because it is your life, and through this thing ye shall prolong your days in the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it. And the LORD spake unto Moses that selfsame day, saying, Get thee up into this mountain Abarim, unto mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel for a possession: And die in the mount lest they should [a] say, [2] Our hand is high, and the LORD hath not done all this. (for v28-9 p 284)

28 For they are a nation void of counsel, neither is there any understanding in them.

29 O that they were wise, that they understood this, that they would consider their latter end!

30 How should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousand to flight, except their Rock [h] had sold them, and the LORD had shut them up?

31 For [k] their rock is not as our Rock, [m] even our enemies themselves being judges.

36 [a] For the LORD shall judge his people, [b] and repent himself for his servants, when he seeth that their power is gone, and [d] there is none shut up, or left.

37 And he shall say, [e] Where are their gods, their rock in whom they trusted, 38 Which did eat the fat of their sacrifices, and drank the wine of their drink offerings? let them rise up and help you, and be your protection.

V. 39. cont. covered how utterly vain is their help — "that I, I" emphatically repeated, as if to invite a penitent nation to fill in the blanks from the stores of revving memories. "I" — your own, your real, your living God; "I" — your long forgotten, but yet faithful, loving God, still waiting; even now after all this, to be gracious. "See NOW, that I, I am he;" or, "am the one, and the only one, that can help you." "And there are no gods with me." — strong negative of substantive verb, hence accent on "no." "I kill" — separate nominative pronoun — hence emphasis on pronoun. "And make alive" — nominative pronoun not repeated, hence none needed in English: the contrast between "Kill" and "make alive" at this point suffices. "I wound" — again no separate nominative, & no emphasis on "I" this time permissible. But then finally, when bringing in the climax "I heal" there is a triumphant stress to be laid on the "I". The Translator protests that, while he does real homage to the elocutionary instinct which is common to all men, & is well trained in most educated men, he considers it very unlikely that such instinct could ever unaided, have divined the existence of such authoritatively indicated variations as these; of which, indeed, familiarity with the original idiom can alone give trustworthy information. CHAPTER 33.

1 The majesty of God. 6 The blessings of the twelve tribes. 26 The excellency of Israel.

AND this is [o] the blessing, wherewith Moses [p] the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.

2 And he said, [q] The LORD came from Sinai, and rose up from Seir unto them; he shined forth [r] from mount Paran, and [s] he came with ten thousands of saints: [t] from his right hand went [u] a fiery law for them. [Sam. esh ur - a fire shining out of Hebrew]

3 Yea, [v] he loved the people; all his saints are in thy hand: and they [w] sat down at thy feet; every one shall [x] receive of thy words.

4 [a] Moses commanded us a law, [b] even the inheritance of the congregation of Jacob.

5 And he was [c] king in [d] Jeshurun, when the heads of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together. Continuance of people

6 ¶ [f] Let Reuben live, and not die; and let not his men be [h] few. Deliverance of the people

7 ¶ And this is [i] the blessing of Judah: and he said, Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people: let his hands be sufficient for him; and be thou an help to him from his enemies.

V.6. The latter part of this verse is attributed to Simeon by the Alexandrian MSS of Septuagint - rated the oldest and most valuable extant.

8 ¶ And of Levi he said, [a] Let thy Thummim and thy Urim be with [k] thy holy one, [l] whom thou didst prove at Massah, and with whom thou didst strive at the waters of Meribah; Mar 12:37

9 Who said unto his father and to his mother, I have not [g] seen him; [m] neither did he acknowledge his brethren, nor knew his own children: [n] for they have observed thy word, and kept thy covenant.

10 [o] They shall teach [p] Jacob thy judgments, and Israel thy law: [q] they shall put incense [5] before thee, [r] and whole burnt sacrifice upon thine altar.

11 Bless, LORD, his substance, and [s] accept the work of his hands: smite through the loins of them that rise against him, and of them that hate him, that they rise not again.

12 ¶ And of Benjamin he said, The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by him; and the LORD shall cover him all the day long, and he shall dwell between his shoulders.

13 ¶ And of Joseph he said, [t] Blessed of the LORD be his land, for the precious things of heaven, for [6] the dew, and for the deep that coucheth beneath,

14 And for the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things [7] put forth by the [8] moon,

15 And for the chief things of the ancient mountains, and for the precious things [e] of the lasting hills,

16 And for the precious things of the earth and [9] fulness thereof, and for the good will of [u] him that dwelt in [v] the bush: let [w] the blessing come [x] upon the head of Joseph, and upon the top of the head of him that was separated from his brethren.

17 His glory is like the [y] firstling of his bullock, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns: with them he shall push the people together to the ends of the earth: and they are the ten thousands of Ephraim, and they are the thousands of Manasseh.

18 ¶ And of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy going out; and, Issachar, in thy tents.

19 They shall call the people unto the mountain; there they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness: for they shall suck of the abundance of the seas, and of treasures hid in the sand.

20 ¶ And of Gad he said, Blessed be he that enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a lion, and teareth the arm with the crown of the head.

21 And he provided the first part for himself, because there, in a portion of the lawgiver, was he seated; and he came with the heads of the people, he executed the justice of the LORD, and his judgments with Israel.

22 ¶ And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion's whelp: he shall leap from Bashan.

23 ¶ And of Naphtali he said, O Naphtali, satisfied with favour, and full with the blessing of the LORD: possess thou the west and the south.

24 ¶ And of Asher he said, Let Asher be blessed with children; let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oil.

25 Thy shoes shall be iron and brass; and as thy days, so shall thy strength be.

26 ¶ There is none like unto God, O Jeshurun, who rideth upon the heavens in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky.

27 The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them.

28 Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew.

29 Happy art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the LORD, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency! and thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee; and thou shalt tread upon their high places.

CHAPTER 34.

1 Moses views the land from Pisgah. 5 He dies. 7 His age. 8 The mourning for him. 9 Joshua succeeds him. 10 The excellency of Moses.

AND Moses went up from the plains of Moab unto the mountain of Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. And the LORD showed him all the land of Gilead, unto Dan,

2 And all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmost sea,

3 And the south, and the plain of the valley of Jericho the city of palm trees, unto Zoar.

4 And the LORD said unto him, This is the land which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither.

5 So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD.

6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab over against Beth-peor: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.

7 And Moses was an hundred and twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated.

8 And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days: so the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.

9 And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses.

10 And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,

11 In all the signs and the wonders, which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land,

12 And in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses shewed in the sight of all Israel.

JOSHUA THE SOLDIER - Though dwarfed by the greatness of Moses. Deut. 34:10. he nevertheless emerges as an outstanding leader of faith and courage, to take his place as one of the really great men of history. Known first as Hoshea (Salvation), his name was changed to Yehoshua (Yah's Salvation), thence contracted to Joshua, or Jesus. Num. 13:16. He was a leader of Ephraim (Num. 13:8). led the people to war at Rephidim against Amalek (Ex. 17:8-16). became Moses' personal attendant and ascended Sinai with him (Ex. 24:13. 32:17-18), had charge of the first tent of Meeting Ex 33:11. was among spies to search out the land, pleading with the people to obey Yahweh (Num. 13:8. 14:6-9). At the end of the 40yrs sojourn in the wilderness, by Divine direction, Moses placed Joshua before the high priest and the congregation in Shittim and publicly proclaimed him as successor (Num. 27:18-23 Deut. 1:38) and just before his death he took him to the Tabernacle to receive his charge from Yahweh (Deut. 31:14-23).

In his campaign he blundered in making a treaty with the Gibeonites (Josh. 9:3). and in omitting to garrison Jebus after apparently taking it (cp. Josh. 10:23. Jud. 1:8. Josh. 15:63). by which Judah was cut off from northern tribes. ~~He also failed to complete the extermination of the Canaanites~~.

He saved the people from their enemies as the Lord does his from their sins Mat. 1:21. His campaigns against the "seven nations" of Canaan (Deut. 7:1) typed the coming conquests of Christ P. 109. but where Joshua failed he will succeed.

CHRONOLOGY.
In 1931 Garstang claimed to have established the date of Jericho's capture as 1407. This, however, has since been disputed, though it conforms to Bible chronology.

TWO EXTREMELY DIFFICULT OBSTACLES FACED ISRAEL IN THE CONQUEST OF CANAAN – the first was the swiftly flowing, deep waters of the Jordan, then in flood. Josh. 3:15. and the second was the mighty fort of Jericho barring the way into the interior. Garstang reports that the defences of these cities were outstanding with towering massive walls, sometimes over 20 ft thick, and with towers 60 or more feet high. See Note - "Giant Cities of Bashan" Deut 3.

1 CHERESH - Craft, silence. They were men young in years 6:23 but with ability to act skilfully on their own account, & keep their mouths closed.

1. Joshua doubtless remembered the last disastrous result of sending spies, and now did so without the cognisance of Israel. But these spies returned with a different report cp. V. 24. See top left

2 Sig "Place of fragrance." Also known as "City of Palms" Jud 3:13. Jos 1:16. It lay 825 ft. below sea level in a very fertile part, watered by a copious spring of water, and commanding the passes to the uplands of Palestine. The fort itself was only a few acres in extent but was doubtless the citadel around which many people dwelt. See map left

12 ¶ And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh, spake Joshua, saying,

13 Remember the word which [c] Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, saying, The LORD your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land.

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle, shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but ye shall pass before your brethren [3] armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them;

15 [c] Until the LORD have given your brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the LORD your God giveth them: [2] then ye shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the LORD's servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sunrising.

16 ¶ And they answered Joshua, saying, All that thou commandest us we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go.

17 According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we hearken unto thee: only the LORD thy God [f] be with thee, as he was with Moses.

CHRONOLOGY OF THE CROSSING 297

Ch. 1:11 speaks of the possibility of crossing the Jordan within three days, but 2:22 records that the spies spent at least three days in the mountains, having made a covenant with Rahab. Finally, in 3:2 the statement is made that after three days the officers went through the host.

Suggested chronological order. ① the spies are sent out Ch. 2, Cp his v. 1 ② Imbal preparation follows, Ch. 1:10 & 16 ③ Preparations for the march.

Alternate suggestion 1:10; 3:2; = synonymous events + Ch 2. parenthetical - the spies having been sent out first

LEV. THE SCARLET CORD Ex 25:4. No 4

This became typical of the Atonement. It first saved the spies v. 15 and then Rahab and her household v. 18. The house represents the Ecclesia. It must be displayed prominently at the window, whilst the inhabitants shelter safely inside. SHANY - Crimson. the insect or the color. Heb for "line" = TIQVAH. from a root = to bind together, + so, figuratively = expectancy. In other places TIQVAH used "hope" Ps. 71:5. Prov 19:18, 26:12, Ezek 37:11 etc. Scarlet Cp Lev 14:4.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Joshua cometh to Jordan. 7 The Lord encourageth him. 9 Joshua encourageth the people. 14 The waters of Jordan are divided.

AND Joshua rose early in the morning; and they removed [q] from Shittim, and came to Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they passed over.

2 And it came to pass [r] after three days, that [s] the officers went through the host;

3 And they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and [t] the priests the Levites bearing it, then ye shall remove from your place, and go after it.

CHAPTER 3.

The narrative is now continued from Ch. 1. Note Ch. 1:11. The spies had been sent out, they had returned, the host had descended from the Plain of Acacias to the bank of the Jordan, the encouraging message of Ch. 1 had been heard, and now initial preparations were made.

Shittim to Jordan about 8 miles.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE CROSSING Vv. 1-4.

1 Previously the Ark was in the midst of Israel. Num. 10. 21. but now it takes the lead. For significance see Type. Cp Mt. 8:19; Rev 14:4.

2 This seems to have been habitual with Joshua. Cp. 6:12, 15. 7:16. 8:10. A 30 ft.

3 It was while they lodged here & after the spies returned that the instruction of Ch. 1:11 were given.

4 Levites who were priests. Cp Josh. 8:33; Deut. 31:9.

PROBABLE ORDER OF EVENTS

30 days mourning for Moses Deut 34:8. ● 3rd Abib spies sent out Josh. 2:1. ● 6th - the spies return. 2:23. ● 7th the camp removed from Shittim to the banks of the Jordan 3:1. and the command 1:11 is issued. ● 10th Nisan 11 crossed 4:19.

THE AMAZING TYPE The Ark (the Lord Jesus. Heb. 9:11) previously concealed in midst of Israel (Num. 10:21). now openly manifest before all. Borne by the Priests, as Israel Spiritual proclaims Christ to world, it passed over about 2,000 cubits before Israel, as Christ did 2,000 years before those he came to save. It thus "showed the way ye must go" (v. 4). By the proclamation of Christ the descending water of the river is arrested and caused to flow back into the living lake. Previously it descended from Adam to the Dead Sea. v. 16. See bottom right p. 299. Ps 114:3.

4 [a] Yet there shall be a space between you and it, about two thousand cubits[2] by measure: come not near unto it, that ye may know the way by which ye must[3] go: for ye have not passed this way heretofore.

5 And Joshua said unto the people, [c] Sanctify yourselves: for to morrow the LORD will do wonders among you.

6 And Joshua spake unto the priests, saying, [d] Take up the ark of the covenant, and pass over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people. Matt. 3:17 Lk. 3:22

7 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, This day will I begin to [e] magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that, [k] as I was with Moses, so I will be with thee.

8 And thou shalt command [m] the priests that bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When ye are come to the brink of the water of Jordan, [p] ye shall stand still in Jordan.

9 ¶ And Joshua said unto the children of Israel, Come hither, and hear the words of the LORD your God. Gn. 9:16 Is. 7:14

10 And Joshua said, Hereby ye shall know that [r] the living God is among you, and that he will without fail [s] drive out from before you [t] the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebusites.

11 Behold, the ark of the covenant of [u] the Lord of all the earth passeth over before you into Jordan.

12 Now therefore [v] take you twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, [w] out of every tribe a man.

13 And it shall come to pass, [b] as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests that bear the ark of the LORD, [u] the Lord of all the earth, shall rest in the waters of Jordan, that the waters of Jordan shall be cut off from the waters that come down from above; and they [b] shall stand upon an heap.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, when the people removed from their tents, to pass over Jordan, and the priests bearing the [d] ark of the covenant before the people;

15 And as they that bare the ark were come unto Jordan, and [f] the feet of the priests that bare the ark were dipped in the brim of the water, (for [g] Jordan overfloweth all his banks [h] all the time of harvest,)

16 That the waters which came down from above stood and rose up upon an heap very far from the city Adam, that is beside [x] Zaretan: and those that came down [m] toward the sea of the plain, even [o] the salt sea, failed, and were cut off: and the people passed over right against Jericho.

17 And the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the midst of Jordan, [q] and all the Israelites passed over on dry ground, until all the people were passed clean over Jordan.

6 The duty of these men described Ch. 4:2-4.

THE AMAZING MIRACLE The passage of this this deep and rapid river (about 60ft across) at the most unfavorable season was more manifestly miraculous than that of the Red Sea; because here was no natural agency whatever employed, no mighty wind to drive the water back; no reflux of the tide upon which doubters might fix to depreciate the miracle. It seems, therefore, to have providentially been designed to silence cavils respecting the former; and it was done in the noon-day, in the face of the sun, and in the presence of the neighboring inhabitants, striking terror in their hearts so that they did not contest the passage.

"THE LORD OF ALL THE EARTH": Yahweh would have flesh understand like He rules in the Kingdom of men Dan 4: 17. For use of the title see opposite p. 205.

THE TIME OF HARVEST V. 15: This commences with the barley (the wheat is about 2 weeks later) in Pentecost). The barley and flax ripen together Exod. 9:31, 32. Hence Rahab was drying the green flax at the same time as barley was about to be harvested. This ripened first in the semi-tropical Jordan valley.

JESUS WAS BAPTISED Jhn 1:28 at Bethabara (Sig. The House of the Crossing) probably this very spot. SEE John Baptist's comment regarding "these stones" Mat. 3:9. The crossing of Jordan, unlike that of Red Sea was not a Baptism. The water was "living water" — a symbol of the Spirit (Jhn. 4:10,14. 7:37-39). foreshadowing the Spirit birth of the redeemed. Jhn 3:3,7. 1 Cor. 15:44-49
On this day Israel passed over Jordan followed by Circumcision and Passover. — Spirit outpouring, the cutting off of flesh, the celebration of deliverance - then manifested as Man of War.

11 And it came to pass, when all the people were clean passed over, that the ark of the LORD passed over, and the priests, in the presence or the people.

12 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and half the tribe of Manasseh, passed over (c) armed before the children of Israel, (d) as Moses spake unto them:

13 About forty thousand (e) prepared for war passed over before the LORD unto battle, to the plains of Jericho.

14 ¶ On that day the LORD (f) magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they feared Moses, all the days of his life.

15 And the LORD spake unto Joshua, saying,

16 Command the priests that bear (h) the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of Jordan.

17 Joshua therefore commanded the priests, saying, Come ye up out of Jordan.

18 And it came to pass, when the priests that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD were come up out of the midst of Jordan, and the soles of the priests' feet were [4] lifted up unto the dry land, that the waters of Jordan returned unto their place, and [5] flowed over all his banks, [k] as they did before.

19 ¶ And the people came up out of Jordan on the tenth day of the first month, [l] and encamped [m] in Gilgal, in the east border of Jericho.

20 And (n) those twelve stones, which they took out of Jordan, did Joshua pitch in Gilgal.

21 And he spake unto the children of Israel, saying, (o) When your children shall ask their fathers [6] in time to come, saying, What mean these stones?

THE WATERS FLOW AGAIN Vv. 15-18

Previously the river was an obstacle to the possession of Canaan; now it becomes a barrier to any who would return. The truth demands irrevocable decisions

6 Thus showing that the common explanation of the miracle — the damming up of the river by an earthquake — is not satisfactory to explain it. It would require a second earthquake to dislodge the barrier. See Question Bible

HOW ISRAEL FOUGHT Israel was not a martial people. Their prowess stemmed from faith and not military might. Their confidence was in Yahweh and not in weapons of war, of which they were largely deficient. They had no seige engines, battering rams and the like to reduce the mighty walls of the enemys' cities, and before they went into battle, a strange and unmilitary procedure was followed described in Deut. 20:1–10.

NATIONAL CIRCUMCISION

Vv. 2-4. מוּל MUWL - Cut short, curtail

1. Heb "mool" sig. "to destroy." It typified the destruction, cutting off, or repudiation of flesh. Deut. 30:6. Jer. 4:4. Rom 2.25-29. Col. 2:11. This is a process that commences with baptism and ends in the bestowal of Divine nature. Thus the expression "circumcise again." Apparently those who came out of Egypt were circumcised (v. 4) but the rite was discontinued by the generation condemned to die in the wilderness. This double national circumcision thus fulfilled the type. See notes. Gen. 17 MT 16:11

2 Heb "chorboth Ysurim." – Knives of stone, rock or flint. These were not used because Israel was in "the stone age" as alleged, but for ceremonial purposes. Metallurgy was well known to Israel, but iron was considered defiling Exod. 20:25 Deut. 27:5 – the rust of iron being tantamount to the decay of flesh. Cp. Josh 8:31

3 שׁוּב - To turn. Str. Not necessarily the second time. It can signify a return into a former state, as well as "again."

4 Evidently there had been a general circumcision of those not circumcised before leaving Egypt. Cp. v. 5. Exod. 4:24-26.

22 Then ye shall let your children know,[1] saying, [a] Israel came over this Jordan on dry land. Ex. 14:11; Neh. 9:11. Isa 43:16; 63:12-14

23 For the LORD your God dried up the waters of Jordan from before you, until ye were passed over, as the LORD your God did to the Red sea, [c] which he dried up from before us, until we were gone over: [2]

24 That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the LORD, that it is [3] mighty: that ye might [b] fear the LORD your God [2] for ever. [10] Ps 76:6-8; 89:6-7; Jer. 10:7; Prov. 1:7 Jer 32:39

AND it came to pass, when all the kings of the Amorites, which were on the side of Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, [l] which were by the sea, [m] heard that the LORD had dried up the waters of Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we were passed over, that their heart [n] melted, [o] neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel. – Fulfilling Ex. 23:27 Spies watching

3 And Joshua made him [2] sharp knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at [e] the hill of the foreskins. — See p 320

4 And this is the cause why Joshua did circumcise: [u] All the people that came out of Egypt, that were males, even all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 Now all the people that came out were circumcised: but all the people that were born in the wilderness by the way as they came forth out of Egypt, [4] them they had not circumcised. [5]

6 For the children of Israel walked [b] forty years in the wilderness, till all the [5] people that were men of war, which came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: unto whom the LORD [a] sware that he would not shew them the land, which the LORD sware unto their fathers that he would give us, [p] a land that floweth with milk and honey. [7]

7 And [1] their children, whom he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised: for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them by the way. See left margin. P 321

8 And it came to pass, [3] when they had done circumcising all the people, that they abode in their places in the camp, [k] till they were whole. [6] See left hand

11 And [9] they did eat of the [6] old corn of the land on the morrow after the passover, unleavened cakes, and [s] parched corn in the selfsame day.

12 ¶ And [t] the manna ceased on the morrow after they had eaten of the old corn of the land; neither had the children of Israel manna any more; but they did eat of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

Jericho was the Key to the country, but it stood in proud defiance of its assailants. And what was the command? That the people should lay siege to it and take it by war? No: but that the priests should compass it seven days and on the seventh day, seven times, when as they blew the trumpets, the walls would fall down flat. This was a test of Joshua's faith, but it was equal to the occasion. Faith conquered Jericho Heb 11:30. Jericho warned by the marching Cp Ezek. 33:11. Rev. 10:

times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times.
16 And it came to pass at the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, Joshua said unto the people, Shout; for the LORD hath given you the city. Like Babylon the Great Isa 26:5
17 ¶ And the city shall be (2)accursed, even it, and all that are therein, to the LORD: only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because [c] she hid the messengers that we sent.
18 And ye, [c] in any wise keep yourselves from the [3]accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the [3]accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel [3]a curse, and trouble it. -1 Sam. 14:28-42. Ecc 9:18
19 But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are (3)consecrated unto the LORD: they shall come into the treasury of the LORD.
20 So the people shouted when the priests blew with the trumpets: and it came to pass, when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that [f] the wall fell down [4] flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city.
21 And they [f] utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, with the edge of the sword.
22 But Joshua had said unto the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house, and bring out thence the woman, and all that she hath, as ye sware unto her. -Ecc 5:4.
23 And the young men that were spies went in, and brought out Rahab, [5] and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had; and they brought out all her [8]kindred, and left them without the camp of Israel.
24 And they burnt the city with fire, and all that was therein: [a] only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of the LORD.
25 And Joshua saved Rahab the harlot alive, and her father's household, and all that she had; and [d] she dwelleth in Israel even unto this day; because she hid the messengers, which Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.
26 ¶ And Joshua [d] adjured them at that time, saying, [e] Cursed be the man before the LORD, that riseth up and buildeth this city Jericho: he shall lay the foundation thereof in his firstborn, and in his youngest son shall he set up the gates of it.
27 [g] So the LORD was with Joshua; and [h] his fame was noised throughout all the country.

CHAPTER 7.

DEFEAT AT AI
Achan's folly brings Disaster To Israel.

36 Killed as the army flees before the enemy.

SECRET SIN V.1
1. The sin was committed secretly in ignorance of the nation as a whole, and yet the whole congregation suffered shame and disgrace. Being one Body, Yahweh attributes the crime of the individual to the whole until the trespass is discovered and avenged by a public act of reprobation and punishment.
So one act of folly by a member can disgrace the Truth
2. Devoted to Yahweh. As His exclusive property should not be touched by flesh. Lev. 27:26-29.

5-7 MA'AL from a root to cover, hide, hence treachery. LXX - NOSPHIZOMAI - embezzle as used. Acts 5:3.

8 This estimate was inaccurate. The total population was only 12,000 Ch 8:25 which would provide an effective army of approx. 2-3000 soldiers.
9 Good success lifts up flesh in too much confidence.

DEFEAT. VV4-5.
4 Sin leads to defeat. Cp Lev 26:36-38 Deut 28:25 Josh 23:15
5 RV. "Quarries." Cp 10 Sig. "Breaches" or "Broken places" and probably refers to the broken ranks of Israeli army.
11 It was not the loss of 36 men that caused this despair, but the knowledge that it gave that Yahweh was no longer with them. Faithful Gen 4

DESPAIR Vv6-9
12 This was a sign of deep lamentation and grief. It possibly symbolised that a person's feelings were uncovered or revealed, and that he was without defence.
13 They would be prostrate on the ground and would pour dust on their heads, symbolising that their glory was brought down to the earth.
14 Not in the Hebrew
15 The promise of Yahweh was the opposite of this Ex 23:22
16 Joshua realised that the Name of Yahweh was bound up in the future of Israel Ex 32:11-13. There was nothing offensive in his prayer - he wanted to know the cause of defeat. See bottom p.

THE CAUSE Vv10-12
11. This is no time for complaint - there is work to be done.
Pretended to have kept the Covenant 2 Kg 5:25-26 Jn 21 6:6. Acts 5:1-2 1 Tim 6:10
12 Having acquired for their own use that which Yahweh had devoted to Himself, Israel now became a devoted thing.
20. Israel was identified with the sin, until the nation had expiated it. Achan's action defied the omniscience of Yahweh & this would have spread if it were permitted to go unnoticed.
V.9. "Thy Great Name" Ps 106:6-8; Ezek 20 12:62:12; Ezek 36:22 Josh 2:11 Jn 12:27 There would be none to exalt it.

AI BESIDE BETH-AVEN (Ruin beside the House of Vanity V2)

HOW SIN CAN DESTROY THE WORK OF FAITH

It is commonly identified with el-Tell some 1½ m. from Bethel. Archaeological excavations indicate that it was in ruins at this time. Perhaps a new town had been built at the site of the ruins. all the people to labour thither; for they are but few.

4 So there went up thither of the people about three thousand men: and they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men: for they chased them from before the gate even unto Shebarim, and smote them in the going down: wherefore the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.

6 ¶ And Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the eventide, he and the elders of Israel, and put dust upon their heads.

7 And Joshua said, Alas, O Lord GOD, wherefore hast thou at all brought this people over Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? would to God we had been content, and dwelt on the other side Jordan!

8 O Lord, what shall I say, when Israel turneth their backs before their enemies!

9 For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear of it, and shall environ us round, and cut off our name from the earth: and what wilt thou do unto thy great name?

10 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face?

11 Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff.

12 Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed: neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you.

13 Up, sanctify the people, and say, Sanctify yourselves against to morrow: for thus saith the LORD God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according to your tribes: and it shall be, that the tribe which the LORD taketh shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the LORD shall take shall come by households; and the household which the LORD shall take shall come man by man.

15 And it shall be, that he that is taken with the accursed thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he hath wrought folly in Israel.

16 ¶ So Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes; and the tribe of Judah was taken:

17 And he brought the family of Judah; and he took the family of the Zarhites: and he brought the family of the Zarhites man by man; and Zabdi was taken:

18 And he brought his household man by man; and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 And Joshua said unto Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to the LORD God of Israel, and make confession unto him; and tell me now what thou hast done; hide it not from me.

ACHAN'S SIN and its fatal charge V11

The seriousness of Achan's sin is described Vs 11, 15 in the same terms as that of Israel Jos 23:13. Israel had been warned that their sin would find them out Num 32:23 Here in the case of Achan the people had a demonstration of that fact. To have ignored it would have been to have placed the whole Campaign in jeopardy. Achan should have pleased the mercy of God in the beginning of the investigation, or at this failure to take it. He did not.

ACHAN'S SIN Gn Jos 7:1: The N + R being interchanged perhaps to accommodate the name to the noun ACHAR – trouble.

Achan saw, coveted + took. David did likewise, and involved others in the effect of his sin 2 Sam. 11:2-4. Both events illustrate that "none of us liveth to himself + no man dieth to himself" Rom. 14:7. Cp 1 Cor. 12:26. Sooner or later a man must face up to his doings + give a full accounting Cp 1 Tim. 5:24.

CHAPTER 8.

AI TAKEN

The purging of Achan's sin leads to the Victory of Ai.

The city completely destroyed through Divine Strategy.

With false confidence in their ability, induced by the earlier victory, the soldiers of Ai were induced to leave the shelter of their walls with disastrous results.

The whole victory was a triumph of faith, and Yahweh is shown to be Conqueror of both Israel and the Canaanites.

CHAPTER 8.

ACHAN'S PUNISHMENT 3 94

He was stoned, but the narrative is vague as to the fate of his family. Perhaps as party to the deception they were brought out to witness the execution V. 24. The "them" of V. 25 could apply to his possessions demonstrating the extent of his loss. Otherwise why were they not buried with him. Burning the bodies of the dead is condemned Cp Jer. 19:5.

Josh. 7:7-9. Joshua's prayer was one of bewilderment + despondency, of complaint + disbelief that stemmed from his failure to understand the circumstances. It expressed human weakness due to restrain + disappointment. See also Moses' reaction Cp Num. 11:11-15, 21-22. See opp. bottom

Josh. 7:10. Prayer is useless when the cause of failure remains unchecked. Sin had to be removed. Cf. Prov. 15:8, 29 with 28:9. Cp Jer. 7:16; 11:14. 14:11. If sin is cleansed out of the life, a prayer is offered in the Name of the Lord it will be answered according to God's will. Mt. 17:20; 21:22. Mk 9:23. 11:22-24. 2ND ATTEMPT ON AI TO BE MADE 1-2.

AND the LORD said unto Joshua, @Fear not, / neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war 2 with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, [b] I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land: 6:2. Pr. 44:3.

2 And thou shalt do to Ai and her king as thou didst unto [d] Jericho and her king: only [e] the spoil thereof, and the cattle thereof, shall ye take for a prey unto yourselves: lay thee an ambush for the city behind it. * Joshua did not presume on his divine guidance but thought.

3 ¶ So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, 3 to go up against Ai: and Joshua chose out [7A] thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away by night. – 1 Thess. 5:2. 2 Pet. 3:10

4 And he commanded them, saying, Behold, / ye [4] shall lie in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not very far from the city, but be ye all ready:

5 And I, and all the people that are with me, will approach unto the city: and it shall come to pass, when they come out against us, as at the first, that [g] we will flee [6] before them,

6 (For they will come out after us) till we have [6] drawn them from the city; for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first: therefore we will flee before them.

7 Then ye shall rise up from the ambush, and seize upon the city: for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand.

8 And it shall be, when ye have taken the city, that ye shall set the city on fire: according to the commandment of the LORD shall ye do. [o] See, I have commanded you.

1. This message would be transmitted to the people in a national ceremony. See Deut. 20:1-4 & 7. Note at Josh. 5.
2. It does not appear that all were used, but that all were present to view the victory. Of the full quota of fighting men, only 30,000 were actually used. This was ample against Ai. Cp. V. 25.

THE STRATEGY EXPLAINED Vv 3-8

3 The bulk of these remained out of sight to be called upon as re-inforcements if necessary. If the King of Ai had seen half a million soldiers approaching he would not have left the shelter of his walls.
4 That is, a representative part of this 30,000. In fact, 5,000 people V. 12.
5 25,000 soldiers, the rest lying concealed in the valleys some distance from the city.
6 The feint drawing the men of Ai from the city, they would be caught in the pincers of Joshua's army.
7A An increase the forces needed to conquer.

9 ¶ Joshua therefore sent them forth: 7 and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, [p] on the west

THE FORCES DEPLOYED. Vv 9-13

7. Under cover of night, these 5,000 men were hidden in the valley which separated Bethel and Ai, about 3m. distant from each other. Joshua went with them V. 13 to see that they were properly placed and arranged for the signal by which they would know they were to act. FAITH RESTORED The confidence of Israel had been shattered by the defeat at Ai. The spies sent out to report on the city recommended that only 2 or 3 thousand soldiers required for the purpose Josh. 7:3 of taking it. This was confidence in the flesh. Israel was not a martial people, and the record of the campaign shows their complete dependence on Yahweh. Now Joshua is commanded to take "all the people, and selecting 30,000 from thence, he set 5,000 as an ambuskade between Bethel and Ai, whilst the main body remained in the valley in front of city as a decoy. Joshua remained on the height above to direct the campaign. The Battle was joined and the city taken. For type See Note 12 below.

2ND ATTEMPT ON AI TO BE MADE IN 1-2.

1. This message would be transmitted to the people in a national ceremony See. Deut. 20:1 etc. Note at Josh. 1.

12. It does not appear that all were used, but that all were present to view the victory. Of the full quota of fighting men, only 30,000 were actually used. This was ample against Ai Cp. v. 25.

THE STRATEGY EXPLAINED Vv3-8

3 The bulk of these remained out of sight to be called upon as re-inforcements if necessary. If the King of Ai had seen half a million soldiers approaching he would not have left the shelter of his walls.

4. That is, a representative part of this 30,000. In fact, 5,000 people v. 12. 5,000 soldiers, the rest lying concealed in the valley some distance from the city.

5 The feint drawing the men of Ai from the city, they would be caught in the pincers of Joshua's army.

7A An increase the forces needed to conquer.

THE FORCES DEPLOYED. Vv9-13

9 Under cover of night, these 5,000 men were hidden in the valley which separated Bethel and Ai, about 3m. distant from each other. Joshua went with them v. 13. to see that they were properly placed and arranged for the signal by which they would know they were to act. He then returned to the main body of troops v. 9. which he had early next morn-side of Ai: but Joshua lodged that night among the people. 3:1. 7:16. Ps. 119:60.

10 And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

11 And all the people, even the people of war that were with him, went up, and drew nigh, and came before the city, and pitched on the north side of Ai: now there was a valley between them and Ai.

12 And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Beth-el and Ai, on the west side [6] of the city.

13 And when they had set the people, even all the host that was on the north of the city, and [4] their liers in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

14 ¶ And it came to pass, when the king of Ai saw it, that they hasted and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at a time appointed, before the plain; but he [c] wist not that there were liers in ambush against him behind the city.

15 And Joshua and all Israel [d] made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. - 18:12

16 And all the people that were in Ai were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and [d] were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai or Beth-el, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

18 And the LORD said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thine hand. And Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand toward the city.

19 And the [12] ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city, and took it, and hasted and set the city on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and, behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no [2] power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to [a] the wilderness [13] turned back upon the pursuers.

21 And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and slew the men of Ai.

22 And the other issued out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that [14] they [b] let none of them remain or escape.

23 And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.

24 And it came to pass, when Israel had made an end of slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness wherein they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all the Israelites returned unto Ai, and smote it with the edge of the sword. Cp Deut. 20:17. Cp. 10:28 Josh 11:14

25 And so it was, that all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai.

26 For Joshua drew not his hand back, wherewith he stretched out the spear, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai.

VICTORY FOR ISRAEL. Vv. 19-24.

12. The Stratagem. Vv. 3-4 9 vv. 6-8

13 The word wilderness signifies open country or pasture land. (ST.) As they saw the smoke of the city ascending, they realised they were caught in a strategy that had drawn them from the shelter of their walls, and turning back to regain this position were helplessly caught between the pincers of Joshua's army.

DESTRUCTION FOR AI Vv 25-29

Nothing is said about the destruction of Bethel. Though Ai became a heap, Bethel remained to be occupied by Israel. Its Canaanitish inhabitants were slain by Ephraim's soldiers Jud. 1:22. for it stood on the border between Ephraim and Benjamin Josh. 16:2. Josh. 18:13. The destiny of these two cities is thus according to the type. Gen. 13:3.

Josh. 6:4. Trumpets of rams horns. The words shopheroth hyyovelim = Jubilee Trumpets. The entrance into the land was a Jubilee to the Israelites, a time of liberty, and returning home. Lev. 25:9-10 Cp Isa. 27:13; Zech. 9:10

Rams horns completely wrong

John 7:38 : The river was that Israel had broken the covenant Lev. 26:14-17.

10. Confident in their ability to repeat the earlier victory, fortified by the presence of reinforcements from the neighboring city of Bethel v. 17 the King sallied forth to do battle, and for the moment all went well.

11 They had their strategy well worked out also. v. 16 which seemed to augur success.

11A In the direction of the Arabah.

11B Vulgate: "Raised a cry" - an exultant shout of anticipated victory. The status of Ai elevated through victory over forces that destroyed the mighty Jericho fortress.

12. In the confusion Joshua apparently ascended the heights opposite Ai v. 11. where he could be seen by the ambuscade. With spear outstretched towards Ai, he became as the standard bearer, or Ensign of Israel. Cp Moses at Rephidim Ex 17:8-16. See note Josh. 5:13. Joshua remained in this attitude until Victory complete V. 26. Thus there was a temporary set back experienced by Joshua due to sin which was followed by total victory. For the antitype see Heb. 2:14. Cp Josh. 8:29. Cp Exod. 8:1 17:11. Cp Ps 7:26 As in the case with Moses & Amalek, the stretched out spear showed the victory was Yahweh's.

The numbers used to defeat the comparatively small population of Ai taught the people never to minimise the damaging effect of sin - no matter how slight it may appear.

Josh. 3:1 "Early in the morning" This expression is found about 35 times in Scripture. See note top N.T. p. 50. From certain passages it implies the camp down 6th. 2 Kl. 3:22. Mk. 11:20.

19. To "cut a covenant" is a very solemn undertaking demanding strict compliance to its demands As Yahweh keeps His covenant so must His children under even adverse conditions Ps. 24:4-5. Ps. 15:4 Israel had entered into an unconditional covenant with Gibeon and must obey. See Gen. 15 for solemnity of Covenant.

THE GIBEONITES REDUCED TO SLAVERY VV 22-27.

15. The case of Rahab showed they could have received honored treatment by a proper approach - but now they are reduced to servitude Yet - Psalm 84:10.

16. The people were for repudiating the oath of the princes v.18 but the princes promised or told the people that the Gibeonites would be reduced in status if they permitted them to live.

17. This was the office of the Nethinim - given, devoted. 1 Chr. 9:2. Ezra. 2:43-54, 58; 7:7; 8:20 See Note p 637. Cp Josh. 9:27

18 Careful investigation of the facts had been followed by ascertaining what Yahweh had pronounced in His Law. Josh. 2:9-10 of Exod. 23:31-33. Num. 33:51-56. Deut. 7:1-2, 23-24. 20:15-18

Josh. 7:7. Joshua's complaint. This is like an echo of the old generation Ex 17:3 - but at least Joshua gave himself to prayer. Under such circumstances there is need for careful agreement of conditions. Cp Mark 8:17-18. Rom. 8:28 - "All things" work together for good."

THE AMORITES: They had already been defeated on other side of River Num. 21:31. Joshua confused - does not know course of defeat. - Expresses what could happen.

They ignored the warning of Sodom, the judgement on Egypt, Sihon, Og, Jericho

WHY THE CANAANITES WERE CONDEMNED. - The whole land was given over to iniquity and wickedness that has shocked those archaeologists who have unearthed its evidence. Prostitutes and Sodomites were associated with the religious worship. Infant sacrifice was common - the whole land was a veritable Sodom and Gomorrah on a large scale, and was condemned to destruction - aged and young alike - as a nest of serpents would have been Cp Lev. 18:25. Deut. 18:12. 9:5.

It is better that the wicked be destroyed than they should tempt those who are as yet innocent to join their company. Even as it was the remnant of the Canaanites that remained caused the people of Yahweh to turn from His service. If the occupation of the land had been conducted on more peaceful lines, the whole of Israel would soon have lost its distinctive character, and the precious heritage that has come through them to us would have been lost. Thus in their bitter war of annihilation with the Canaanites, they fought for us. Thus the sword of Israel wrought a work of mercy for all mankind. Rev. 5:9-10. See Note Josh 8:14.

THE BATTLE of BETH-HORON — ONE OF THE WORLD'S DECISIVE BATTLES.

Joshua's success against the confederacy which attacked Gibeon laid open the whole land to Israel — ensuring the success of the campaign. On the basis of that success Jews claim the right to return to the land today.
"Yahweh brought the counsel of the heathen to nought" — Ps. 33:10.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Five kings war against Gibeon. 6 Joshua rescueth it. 10 God fighteth against them with hailstones. 12 The sun and moon stand still at the word of Joshua. 26 The five kings hanged. 28 Seven more kings conquered. 43 Joshua's return.

NOW it came to pass, when [1]Adoni-zedec king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; [d]as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them;

2 That they efeared greatly, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the [2]royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty.

3 Wherefore Adoni-zedec king of Jerusalem sent unto [f]Hoham king of [g]Hebron, and unto [h]Piram king of [i]Jarmuth, and unto [k]Japhia king of [l]Lachish, and unto [m]Debir king of [n]Eglon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for it hath made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of [o]Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made war against it.

JOSHUA'S PETITION OR DECREE

The terms employed to record the miracle agree with the accustomed manner of describing the motions of the sun and earth. Many vain enquiries have been made concerning the way this miracle was wrought, and many difficulties and objections have been urged against it. But the FACT is authenticated by the Divine record; and the MANNER in which it was accomplished lies entirely out of our province, because beyond our comprehension. He who created nature can certainly use its forces. Cp. V. 12 "Before Israel." The scene is dramatic. The storm rolling away over the mountains towards the sea, the enemy in full retreat, panic-stricken & in wild confusion, the sun bursting forth behind the storm-clouds, & Joshua standing before the people attesting his command-ing decree. Cp Hab 3.

sent unto Joshua [a]to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Slack not thy hand from thy servants; come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains are gathered together against us.

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he, and [p]all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

8 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, [q]Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand; there shall not a man of them stand before thee.

9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.

10 And the LORD [r]discomfited them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Makkedah.

11 And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, [s]that the LORD cast down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they died: they were more which died with hailstones than they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 ¶ Then spake Joshua to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, (4)Sun, [t]stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of [u]Ajalon.

13 And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of [3]Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and [x]hasted not to go down about a whole day.

GIBEON ATTACKED BY A CANAANITISH CONFEDERACY

THE CONFEDERACY FORMED. Vv. 1-4. See Ch 9:1-2.

1. Sig. "Lord of Righteousness" Compare with Melchizedec Gen. 14:18 Title remains, but character prevails. Vs. "Foundation of Peace."
2. Sig. "Vision of Peace." It is significant that the first occurrence of the name is associated with war. It shows that it relates only to the Vision of Peace.
3. The capitulation of Gibeon opened the way to Jerusalem only about 7 miles distant. To hold the enemy at bay, Gibeon had to be taken, and the Pass held.
4. It was head of the independent group of four cities & was a place of importance — not an insignificant place such as Ai. Its capitulation threatened the independence of the whole country.
5. Sig. "Union." About 12 m. South Jerusalem, and same distance north Beersheba. Called by Arabs El Khalil — the well beloved — in remembrance of Abraham.
6. Sig. "Swift." — A wild ass.
7. Sig. "Height." Sth Jerusalem
8. Sig. "Gleaming." Vs = Beautiful
9. Sig. "Tenacious" — "Difficult to capture" Davis. About 16 m. S.W. of Jerusalem.
10. Sig. "Oracle."
11. Sig. Circle — Young Calf-like-ung.

GIBEON ATTACKED. V.5.

11A A selection of the best troops seem to be implied here — perhaps a special contingent of forces.
11B This hailstorm must have preceded the advancing Israelites. It delayed the rapid advance of the Israelites whilst devastating & destroying the enemy. It was like advancing tanks behind which the infantry move.

APPEAL TO JOSHUA FOR ASSISTANCE Vv 6-7.

11C The preposition LE (lit. "to") is also frequently rend. "of" as in "a Psalm of David." It has the sense of "on account of" Gen. 4:23; Josh. 9:9 (rend. "because of"). Using the same meaning here, it signifies that Joshua spoke of or by Yahweh to the people — by divine inspiration. Or using "because of" he was induced to make his request because of the miraculous intervention of the hail-storm.

SUN. Shemesh. From a root 8120 = MINISTRANT, SERVANT — Vs. 5:1? Activity, Brilliance. MOON - Ges. Yg = The yellow one.

12. There seems to have been two places of the name — the one by Jericho, the other by Shechem. Deut 11:30 The latter was better suited for his campaign as Joshua had shifted his camp there Ch 8:30-35. It seems to have been the one referred to. Note Ch 9:6
13. Panic in Gibeon as they see the converging forces and realised the fate in store for traitors

JOSHUA ATTACKS SUDDENLY AT DAWN. Vv 9-11

15. By a forced march, covering the 20 miles and unexpectedly attacking the enemy in the rear, with the sun in their eyes.
16. About 5 miles the pass
17. A long rocky ascent sinking and rising more than once before the summit is reached. At the summit a wide view opens over the valley of Ajalon which runs in from the Plain of Sharon.
18. Sig. "House of Holiness." There were two towns of same name Josh 16:3,5 13 m. apart but 600 ft difference in altitude. This steep descent is rough rocky road, with loose stones, sheets of smooth rock, and steps. Down this slippery descent the fugitives rushed.
19. Sig. A field newly dug and set out with vines." About 15 m. distant from Beth-horon, and S.W. of Jerusalem indicating the fugitives chased out of their way. 1 Sam 17:1
20. Sig. "A Place of Shepherds." Sit. unknown.
21. The slippery steep descent made all the more difficult by a terrible storm which Yahweh now unleashed against the enemy.
22. His words demonstrated that Yahweh was greater than the sun & moon worshipped by the many Canaanites. This was not the only miracle performed with the sun. 2 Kings 20:11.
23. Sig. "Place of hart" or gazelles.
24. Evidently it was approaching evening time.

Time Period.
Though Makkedah fell to Joshua "that day" V.28 some weeks would have been occupied in the conquests listed in this chapter.

The five combined kings are slain.

14 And there was [d] no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD hearkened unto the voice of a man: for [b] the LORD fought for Israel.

15 ¶ And Joshua [c] returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

16 But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at [e] Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.

18 And Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and set men by it for to keep them: [f] Ps. 18:37-41.

19 And stay ye not, but pursue after your enemies, and [2] smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the LORD your God hath delivered them into your hand.

20 And it came to pass, when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, [k] till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them entered into fenced cities.

21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: [m] none [29] moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out those five kings unto me out of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon.

24 And it came to pass, when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, [t] and said unto the captains of the men of war which went with him, Come near, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came near, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Joshua said unto them, [d] Fear not, nor be dismayed, [o] be strong and of good courage: for [s] thus shall the LORD do to all your enemies against whom ye fight. -Rom. 8:37

26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: and they [n] were hanging upon the trees until the evening.

27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had been hid, and [i] laid great stones in the cave's mouth, which remain until this very day.

28 ¶ And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all the souls that were therein; [q] he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah [m] as he did unto the king of Jericho.

29 Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto [o] Libnah, and fought against Libnah:

30 And the LORD delivered it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain in it; but did unto the king thereof as he did unto the king of Jericho.

31 ¶ And Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, unto Lachish, [45] and encamped against it, and fought against it:

32 And the LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel,

The main purpose of the southern campaign was to destroy the military potential of the important city-states and overthrow any hope of a successful coalition. There does not seem to be any attempt to occupy or to completely control the area, or even to establish garrisons in the conquered territory. In fact several of the sites had to be retaken at a later period. Ch 15:13-17.

Joshua made it possible for Israel to conquer, but individual initiative was necessary. Josh. 18:3. Cp Heb. 2:14. Cp Matt. 11:12.

WHERE THE CAMPAIGN FAILED Jerusalem was not taken and remained a thorn in the side of Israel until the conquest of David. The Israelites apparently did not occupy the cities they conquered V.43. with the result that refugees re-occupied them (See Gezer Josh 16:10). Hebron. Josh 14:10-12 Debir Josh 15:15-17 Jud 1:11-12). The apathy of Israel later permitted these enemies to remain Josh 17:11-13. Josh 23:13 - Jud. 1:27.. They were as Sin in the Flesh in the Body Politic of Spiritual Israel. It is not sufficient to destroy evil, it must be replaced with good. Eph 4:22-24.

which took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all that he had done to Libnah.

33 ¶ Then Horam king of [e]Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

34 ¶ And from Lachish Joshua passed unto Eglon, and all Israel with him; and they encamped against it, and fought against it:

35 And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

36 And Joshua went up from Eglon, and all Israel with him, unto Hebron; and they fought against it:

37 And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining, according to all that he had done to Eglon; but destroyed it utterly, and all the souls that were therein.

38 ¶ And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to [s]Debir, and fought against it:

39 And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein; he left none remaining: as he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to the king thereof; as he had done also to Libnah, and to her king.

40 ¶ So Joshua smote all the country of the hills, and of the south, and of the vale, and [a]of the springs, and all their kings: he left none remaining, but utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD God of Israel [b]commanded.

41 And Joshua smote them from [c]Kadesh-barnea even unto [d]Gaza, and all the country of [f]Goshen, even unto Gibeon.

42 And all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time, because the LORD God of Israel fought for Israel.

1 Divers kings overcome at the waters of Merom. 10 Hazor is taken and burnt. 16 All the country taken by Joshua. 21 The Anakims cut off.

AND it came to pass, when [i]Jabin king of [k]Hazor had heard those things, that he [l]sent to Jobab king of [m]Madon, and to the king of [n]Shimron, and to the king of [o]Achshaph,

2 And to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of [p]Chinneroth, and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor on the west,

3 And to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and [r]the Jebusite in the mountains, and to [t]the Hivite under [u]Hermon in the land of [z]Mizpeh.

4 And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, [y]even as the sand that is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many.

5 And when all these kings were (2)met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

6 ¶ And the LORD said unto Joshua, [a]Be not afraid because of them: for to morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou YAHWEH ENCOURAGES JOSHUA. V. 6.

21. Israel had not fought a pitched battle with the foe, nor contended against chariots or cavalry. But the Divine assurance was sufficient for faith and doubtless came in answer to the national prayer that would be offered on such an occasion. See Deut 20:1-4 for the pre-battle ceremony of Israel.

19. This general summons brought a stream of recruits from all parts of the land to Hazor in the North. It was the greatest accumulation of power as yet faced by Joshua, and for the first time he had to contend with chariots. Josephus declares that the allied force comprised 300,000 foot 10,000 horse and 20,000 chariots. These chariots were supposed to be armed with iron scythes fastened to the wheels. This formidable host was thus amply equipped to meet Israel.

JABIN "THE WISE" MASSES HIS FORCES. Vv. 1-5

Joshua faces the Most Powerful Army of all. Chariots as well as Infantry used in the Battle of the North. Note the stages: Jericho - unresisting; Ai - a sortie; Gibeon - Conspiracy; Jabin aggressive.

2. Sig. "Wise." It may have been a title assumed by the King of Hazor, because it is found again in Jud 4:2. He was overlord of the other Canaanitish chieftains Jud 11:10.

JOSHUA'S SURPRISE ATTACK. Vv. 1-9

23 If Joshua had been at Gilgal near Shechem, it would have involved a forced march of about 60 miles. Suddenly unexpectedly when Jabin imagined him miles away, Joshua attacked before the cavalry and chariots had a chance to get into action.

Like a bolt from the blue.

25 Distance of about 30 miles. ← ?

THE BATTLE of MEROM — The final effort of a defeated cause. Alarmed and roused by the disasters of the south, and the rapid progress of Joshua throughout Canaan, Jabin, the chief of all the Canaanitish Kings Josh. 11:10. now masses all his forces — chariots as well as infantry to repel the invader — but all in vain. HALAK v.17. Seems to mark the southern extremity of Joshua's conquest perhaps related to the bald hills of the Ascent of Akrabbim. Num 34:4 Josh. 15:2-3
BAAL-GAD: the god of Good Luck. Isa. 65:11 NTE.

shalt [a]hough[22] their horses, and burn [c]their chariots with fire. Compare Deut. 17:16. Ps. 20:7; Isa 31:1.

7 So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom [e]suddenly;[23] and they fell upon them.[24] Josh. 11:22, 12:1, 21:44.

8 And the LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, who smote them, and chased them unto (3) great Zidon,[25] and unto (4) Misrephoth-maim,[26] and unto the valley of (5) Mizpeh eastward; and they smote them, until they left them none remaining.

9 And Joshua did unto them [n]as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire.

10 ¶ And Joshua at that time turned back, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword: for Hazor beforetime was the head of all those kingdoms.[27]

11 And they smote all the souls that were therein[28] with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not (6) any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire.[29] Josh. 10:28, 10, 32, 35, 37, 39, 40.

12 And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, [r]as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded.[29]

13 But as for the cities that stood still (7) in their strength, Israel burned none of them, save Hazor only; that did Joshua burn. Num 31:9; Deut. 6:10-11, 20:14

14 And all the spoil of these cities, and the cattle, the children of Israel took for a prey unto themselves; but[30a] every man they smote with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them, neither left they any to breathe. v.11

15 ¶ (d) As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so (e) did Moses command Joshua, and (b) so did Joshua; (3) he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.[30]

16 So Joshua took all that land, [d]the hills, and all the south country, (f) and all the land of Goshen, and the valley, and the plain, and [g]the mountain of Israel, and the valley of the same; Arabah. See opp 312

17 [h]Even from [i]the mount Halak, that goeth up to [i]Seir, even unto (1) Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon under [m]mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them. also called Baal-Hermon Judg 3:3; 1 Chr. 5:23 See top.

18 Joshua made war [o]a long time with all those kings.

19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save [p]the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: all other they took in battle. v.3.

20 For (g) it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, [r]as the LORD commanded Moses.

21 ¶ And at that time came Joshua, and cut off (8) the Anakims from the mountains, from (i) Hebron, from (k) Debir, from (l) Anab, and from all the mountains of [j]Judah, and from all the mountains of Israel: Joshua destroyed [s]them utterly with their cities. Jg. Gropes

22 There was none of the Anakims left in the land of the children of Israel: only in (m) Gaza, in [v]Gath, and in [z]Ashdod, there remained. Divide the Book

23 So Joshua took the whole land, (n) according to all that the LORD said unto Moses; and [b]Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel according to their [c]divisions by their tribes. [e]And the land rested from war.[39]

[23] Heb. "The Adam" = man as a race. Metals were put through the fire. Num 31:21.

[24] V. 21. shows a distinction between Israel and Judah, and some have used that as evidence to support that the book was written after the division of nation. But Judah entered its inheritance first Josh 15. whilst tribes remained at Gilgal, then Ephraim and Manasseh occupied their inheritance Josh 16-17 whilst the tribes sojourned at Shiloh. Josh 18:1. Thus there was an incipient division, Yahweh granting the inheritance first to Judah.

[28] Apparently they could have made peace on conditions Deut. 20:10-18. but these conditions were too stringent or else they thought they could successfully resist.
[29] Not by forcing them to do what they did not want to do, but by permitting circumstances to lead them on. For eg. the numbers that rallied to Jabin's call would make him obstinate. Cp similar case of Pharaoh. Exod. 9:34-35. 10:1 & 14:4 Rom. 9:18, 22, 23.
[30] The Canaanites were gradually subdued, thus giving Israel time to become used to the new manner of life - thus agriculture was maintained, wild beasts kept under restraint and the land prepared by the heathen for occupation by Israel. Exod 23:29-30

The command was to complete the work initiated by Joshua Josh. 11:1, and this is described as being very great. In like manner the Lord described the work before the Apostles as being "greater work" than that accomplished by himself. 1 John 14:12. CHAPTER 12.

1 The two kings whose countries Moses took and disposed of. 7 The one and thirty kings on the other side Jordan which Joshua smote.

NOW these are the kings of the land, which the children of Israel smote, and possessed their land on the other side Jordan toward the rising of the sun, from the river Arnon unto mount Hermon, and all the plain on the east: (Arabah Index)

2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, and ruled from Aroer, which is upon the bank of the river Arnon, and from the middle of the river, and from half Gilead, even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon; 1B Ch. 13:16

3 And from the plain to the sea of Chinneroth on the east, and unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea on the east, the way to Beth-jeshimoth; and from the south, under Ashdoth-pisgah: 2A

4 And the coast of Og king of Bashan, 2C which was of the remnant of the giants, that dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, Num. 21:33. Gen 14:5

5 And reigned in mount Hermon, and in Salcah, and in all Bashan, unto the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and half Gilead, the border of Sihon king of Heshbon. Deut. 3:14

6 Them did Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel smite: and Moses the servant of the LORD gave it for a possession unto the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh. 13:8-32

7 And these are the kings of the country which Joshua and the children of Israel smote on this side Jordan on the west, from Baal-gad in the valley of Lebanon even unto the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir; which Joshua gave unto the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions; Josh 11:17. 11:23

8 In the mountains, and in the valleys, and in the plains, and in the springs, and in the wilderness, and in the south country; the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites:

9 The king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Beth-el, one;

10 The king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one;

11 The king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one;

12 The king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one;

13 The king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one;

14 The king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one;

15 The king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one;

LAND UNCONQUERED. JOSH. 13.

Philistines = men of the Philistine who wandered into the realm of the Canaanites Josh 13.

CHAPTERS 13-19. DIVIDING THE LAND.

The conquering of the Kings destroyed organised opposition in the land. The army of Israel could now be disbanded and though pockets of resistance remained, they were small enough for individual tribes to handle. Thus each man was required to "go in and obtain" his inheritance. - In a spiritual sense. "work out his own salvation." Joshua, like

THE LOT seems to have determined the position, not the extent of the possessions, room being left for the revision of boundary lines according as the result of the ordinary tribes

JUD. 3:7 : Groves. Dt 17:2. The Asherah (Asherahs). "Probably local manifestations of the fertility goddess Asherah, now known from the Ras Shamra myths as the consort of the senior god El & the mother of the divine family. She was often represented as the tree of life, which is often represented in Canaanitish art as being flanked by capridi (goats?), who reach up to the fruit. ... The tree of life is stylized in Canaanite art, & in the fertility-cult in Canaan was represented either by a natural tree which was planted, or even by a stylised tree or wooden pole, the Asherah." (Century Bible). See Dt 16:21, 2 Kgs. 23:6, 7.

JUD. 3:20. "SUMMER PARLOUR." - See mg. A cool roof chamber on the flat roof, a lodging place for guests 1 Kg. 17:19; 2 Kg. 4:10 or for entertainment. These are usually simple shelters, but this one was more elaborate, having folding doors that bolted V 23, and apparently a separate chamber that served as a lavatory V 24 through which Ehud may have escaped V. 23.

Jud 3:22. "THE DIRT CAME OUT" The phrase is omitted in LXX. The Massoretic Text has "wayyese hap-parsedonah" the last word of which is unattested in the O.T. Some have suggested that it is a corruption of a gloss on the next phrase noting the way of Ehud's exit. Thus, as suggested by Kittel it might indicate an original gloss sa'ar hap-pinnah - "the door in the corner."

JUD 3:22. "WENT OUT INTO THE PORCH" Heb. ham-misderonah. The root of the word "sar" suggests "order, row, or gradation", though it is not certain, therefore gives rise to "porch" or "vestibule" (RSV) or "outside stairway" - Century Bible. Ehud could have closed the door and escaped down the outside stairway.

JUD. 3:15 "LEFT HANDED" - See mg. Either through disease or disuse, he made little or no use of his right hand, & so was the less fit for war, because he would most likely wield a dagger awkwardly; yet God chose this left-handed man to be the minister of his retributive justice. It was God's right hand that gained Israel the victory Ps 44:3; Isa. 63:12, not the right hands of the instruments He employed. See Next Col. 7 weak things.

JUDGES: BY TRIBES.

JUD. 3:24 DOORS LOCKED.

Early oriental locks consisted of a wooden slide drawn into place by a string and held there by teeth or catches. Sometimes the lock was a heavy slide put into the doorpost and held in place with small bolts of iron. The lock was placed inside the door; a hole was made in the door through which a hand could be passed & a key inserted.

Keys V. 25 were usually of wood, though some were of iron or brass. The ordinary wooden key was from 6 inches to 2 feet in length. At the end were wire pins designed to loose the fastenings of the lock or slide. Keys were borne on the shoulder. Isa 22:22.

SEVEN WEAK THINGS. Note 7 weak things in this book illustrating 1 Cor. 1:27; 2 Cor. 12:9. Left hand 3:21.; ox goad 3:31; a woman 4:4; a nail 4:21; piece of millstone 9:53; pitcher 7:20; jawbone of an ass 15:16.

JOSH. 11:17; JUD 3:3. JOSHUA'S CONQUESTS. Joshua appears to have subdued the Hivites as far north as Baal-God, in the Valley of Lebanon under Mt. Hermon Josh 11:17; 12:7, but no further Josh. 13:5. There was an unsubdued Hivite population to the north of Baal Hermon (prob. Baal-God under Hermon as it is not synonymous with Hermon - see 1 Chr. 5:23) in the entering in of Hamath; i.e. the fertile valley of Coele-Syria. Hamath is always spoken of as the extreme northern boundary of the land of Canaan. It was the gate of approach to Canaan from Babylon, & all the north. Zech. 9:2 Jer. 39:5 It formed part of the territory of Solomon 2 Chr. 8:4. and of the future inheritance of Israel as seen in vision by Ezek. Ez. 47:16

JUD. 3:12. YAHWEH STRENGTHENED EGLON: This was a special work of God because Israel had "done evil". He was successful in the political field for he dominated Ammon & Amalek V. 13. The Amalekites were inveterate & bitter enemies of Israel Exod. 17:8 A mountain in Ephraim was named after them - perhaps as a memorial of their joint invasion marking a scene of victory Jud. 12:15.

JUD. 3:13. CITY PALM TREES.

Jericho 1:16 having been utterly destroyed by Joshua & not rebuilt till the time of Ahab Jos. 6:24-26 1K. 16:34 could only have existed at this time as an unwalled village.

LAWLESSNESS: SOLD INTO THE HANDS OF CUSHAN-RISHATHAIM.

The sin of lawlessness manifested 1 Jhn 3:4. Law reveals sin for what it is Rom. 3:20; 7:7-8. Lawlessness does not recognise sin for what it is. It is the unsubject spirit of self-will that governs man away from God but provides no satisfaction when gratified. "Their god is their belly" declares the Apostle of such Phil. 3:19. Israel forgot Yahweh and was "sold" into the hands of the Blackness of Double Evil as his name signifies. Note Christ's warning John 8:34 Cp Rom. 6:16.

JUD. 3:19. QUARRIES. Pesilim - "Boundary stones" - perhaps carved images defining the border of Ehud's Kingdom, the extent of protection afforded by his gods.

JUDGES 4:1. "EHUD WAS DEAD"

According to 2:18-19. Israel served Yahweh all the days of each judge. If this applied to Ehud he must have been over 100 yrs when he died for the land had rest 80 yrs 3:30 & he was a mature man when he delivered Israel. 3:15-30

JUD. 4:6 "TAKE 10,000 MEN" - contrast this 10,000 commanded to go to war with the 10,000 not permitted to do so. Circumstances & the state of those referred to govern the command. Cp. Gk. 7:3-6.

JUD. 4:2. "HAROSHETH" - Sig. Carving, cutting, artificers' work - Hence to shape or dominate. Opposed by Barak of Kedesh-Naphtali - The Sanctuary of the Wrestler.

THE SONG OF DEBORAH

This consists of 8 stanzas. The first opens with devout thanksgiving Vv 2-3. The second describes the awe-inspiring scenes at Sinai where covenant was entered into with Yahweh Vv 4-5. The Third states the apostasy & consequent & inevitable punishment of Israel 6-8. the fourth contrasts their present happy state 9-15. The Fifth censures the recreant tribes who failed to help 16-18. The Sixth records the wonderful victory 19-23. The Seventh proclaims a panegyric on Jael 24-27. The Eighth describes the scene of disappointment and defeat in Harosheth & pronounces a curse on Israel's enemies. 28-31.

5 APPORTIONING THE INHERITANCE
CH. 13-22.

DESCRIPTION OF UNCONQUERED LANDS. 13:2.

1 All the border of the Philistines - from Sihor before Egypt, to Ekron, the north of Philistia V.2-3.
2 All of Geshuri. V.2. - an Aramaean Kingdom, located near the east of Bashan + north toward Syria Josh. 12:5; Deut. 3:14; 2 Sam. 15:8; 1 Chr. 2:23 There was also a branch of the tribe in the south of Judah 1 Sam 27:8. Perhaps both sections are referred to here as unconquered. David married the daughter of Talmai, who ruled over the Geshuri 2 Sam. 3:3. Her name was Maacah + her son was Absalom 2 Sam. 3:3. It was the possession of Manasseh, although its original inhabitants were not expelled Josh. 13:13. Thither Absalom fled after killing Amnon 2 Sam. 13:37-38.
3 The Avites. A branch of the Giants who occupied S.W. corner of the seacoast. They were driven out by the invading Philistines possibly driving the remnant of them northward. Deut. 2:23.
4 The land of the Canaanites in the south extending north to Mearah near Sidon in Phoenicia + east to Aphek in Syria.
5 The land of the Giblites V.5. or Gebalites. The inhabitants of Gebal or Byblos, a maritime town of Phoenicia. V.5. Ps. 83:7; Ezek 27:9.
6 All Lebanon east from Baal-gad under Hermon to Hamath in Upper Syria. V.5.
7 The country west of Lebanon to Misrephoth-Maim. Generally identified with Khirbet el-Musheirifeh 11 miles NW Acre at the base of Ras En-nechurah. V.6.
8 The area around Sidon. V.6.

V3. Lords of Philistines. - SERENIM (Seh'reniy) Lit. axles - bear the weight and affairs of state turn upon them. The title applied only to Philistines. Read "plain" (axles) in 1 Kg. 7:30.

V.4 Mearah that is beside" : Interlinear = that belongeth. See also Young. He gives Mearath as "forest, meadow".

V.8-33. The writer appends to the command of God V.1-7 a statement that the other 2½ tribes had already had their inheritance marked out for them by Moses. The boundaries of this territory as a whole are first set forth V.8-14, and afterwards the portions assigned within it to the 2½ tribes are severally described V.15-33.

V.21. Dukes. This is a different word to that rend. "dukes" elsewhere a probably relates to vassals appointed or dedicated to their position with a tribe from

2 THE BY

V26. Debir. To be distinguished from the fortress city overthrown by Joshua Josh. 10:3, 5, 16, 26. This was in Gad not far from Mahanaim. Possibly the same as Lo-debar 2 Sam. 9:4; 17:27. one of the towns from which provisions were brought to David at Mahanaim.

• JOSH. 15:25: In this verse two towns only are named: Hazor + Kerioth-Hezron which is Hazor (the old Hazor). "Kerioth", prefixed to a name, bespeaks military occupation, as Hazor points to pastoral pursuits. The place would therefore seem to be an ancient pastoral settlement which had been fortified by the Anakim, and called accordingly Kerioth; to which name the men of Judah, after they had captured it, added that of Hezron, in honour of one of their ancestors. Gen. 46:12; Ruth. 4:18.

• JOSH. 15:32. "Twenty nine" The AV gives 34 names. The confusion is due either to a copyist confusing letters similar in form which were used as numerals; or to the separation of names that originally were one eg 4:25.

THE SHEPHELAH Josh 15:32.

is bounded on the south by the Negeb, on the west by the Mediterranean, on the north by the plain of Sharon, on the east by the mountains. V.48. It is a well-defined district, of an undulating character, and highly fertile and thickly populated. The towns in this area, like those in the Negeb are classed in four groups: 1. 33-36 2. 37-41 3. 42-44 4. 45-47. 1. First group: 14 towns belonging to the NW eastern portion of the Shephelah 2. Middle portion 3. South. 4. Philistine seacoast

TIMNATH-HERES changed to Timnath-Serah. The place in the sun becomes a Place of Quaking as Israel Was shaken out of the Land Heb. 12:26-27. - Work side "of Coash" - Quaking.

JUDGES 2:7 If Joshua was about 80 at the entrance into Canaan 30 yrs would bring him to the end of his life V.8. The "elders" = all from 20 yrs able to take part in wars 3:1-2 perhaps a period of 50 yrs, or 20 yrs after the death Joshua.

These verses are connected with each other. The intermediate verses form a general explanatory summary of the real enemy in the midst of the nation (see Analysis) in comparison with enemies without.

As in the early Ecclesias and foreshadowing them, "the mystery of iniquity already worked" 2 Thess. 2:7.

Man is so constituted that he must worship something Gen. 1:26; Ecc. 3:11. He has a religious instinct that demands satisfaction. Paganism is a perversion; atheism is a disease of cultivation; Communism is the worship of Self. Hence the well-known saying: If there were no God, it would be necessary to invent one. Paganism is the Inventing of the sort of God flesh desires Rom. 1:21-23. They could not go higher than Yahweh but they did go lower, and in the creatures below man found in the animals etc there which represented the lower instincts, cravings, appetites of men with no check of conscience, or morality. In the beast there is an unmoral nature which appeared to sanction that which is immoral. In the animals they worshipped that which is clothed with the most depraved + immoral rites + become brutish Ps. 49:20; 92:6; 94:8; Prov. 12:1 Jer. 10:8, 14, 21 Ezek. 21:31

BAAL (See 327) Sig. "husband" "Lord" with the primary meaning of dominance, ownership. It is used of Yahweh (Isa. 54:5; Jer. 32:32). But He finally rejects the word in favour of Ishi (my man). - a closer identification of relationship implying an extension of man. Ishah meaning Out-man. As such it expresses the thought of complete God-manifestation Hos. 2:16-17. BAAL = Dominance of flesh Rom. 6:18

THE GADITES. They were more sheltered from the seductive influences of Gentiles than were Reuben & Manasseh, & this seems to have had some reflection upon their character. They became more dependable in War (1 Chron 5:18, 12:8). Jephthah came from this tribe.

"By lot." V2. The lot supplemented the directions of Moses providing divine confirmation of his words. It endorsed Yahweh's inheritance to be as such.

CHAPTER 15. Inheritance by prophecy.

Balaam is slain.

22 ¶ ②Balaam also the son of Beor, the ②soothsayer, did the children of Israel slay with the sword among them that were slain by them.

23 And the border of the children of Reuben was Jordan, and the border thereof. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben after their families, the cities and the villages thereof.

24 And Moses gave inheritance unto the tribe of Gad, even unto the children of Gad according to their families.

25 And their coast was ⓔJazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and ⓕhalf the land of the children of Ammon, unto ⓖAroer that is before ʰRabbah;

26 And from Heshbon unto Ramath-ⁱmizpeh, and Betonim; and from ʲMahanaim unto the border of ᵏDebir;

27 And in the valley, ˡBeth-aram, and ᵐBeth-nimrah, and ⓗSuccoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon king of Heshbon, Jordan and his border, even unto the edge of the sea of ⁿChinnereth on the other side Jordan eastward.

28 This is the inheritance of the children of Gad after their families, the cities, and their villages.

29 ¶ And Moses gave inheritance unto the half tribe of Manasseh: and this was the possession of the half tribe of the children of Manasseh by their families.

30 And their coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and ⓘall the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, threescore cities:

31 And half Gilead, and ⓙAshtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were pertaining unto the children of Machir ᵖthe son of Manasseh, even to the one half of the children of ᵇMachir by their families.

1 The nine tribes and a half to have their inheritance by lot. 6 Caleb by privilege obtaineth Hebron.

AND these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, ⓐwhich Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and ⓑthe heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance to them. Cp Num. 26:55

2 ⁱBy lot was their inheritance, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half tribe. Num. 32:29-42 Deut 3:12-17

3 ᵍFor Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes and an half tribe on the other side Jordan: but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For ᶠthe children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their ᵍcattle and for their substance.

5 ʰAs the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.

6 ¶ Then the children of Judah came ⁱunto Joshua in ⓒGilgal: and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the ⓓKenezite said unto him, Thou knowest ⓔthe thing that the LORD said unto Moses ⓕthe man of God concerning me and thee in Kadesh-barnea.

After 38 yrs of wandering in wilderness. Deut. 2:14. and six yrs warfare in the land, the aged Caleb infers his inheritance exacting revenge on those people who had frightened his fellow-spies before. This was a great token to this generation that Yahweh does vindicate His word.

6 Caleb was their representative. Judah thus entered their inheritance first. (Cp. Josh. 15:1. 16:1 18:2). Judah was first in the approach of the brethern to Joseph Gen. 44:18 & and over this tribe David first reigned in Hebron 2 Sam. 2:1-4. Antitype Tents Judah saved first by Messiah Zech. 12:7.

A PROMISE TO CALEB VINDICATED

Cp W. 6-14. This is the first mention of Caleb since the death of Moses. He seems to have had the gift of knowing when to keep silent & when to speak. When he spoke he was always on Yahweh's side. Num. 13:30; 14:6-9.

He had been promised "the land he had trodden upon" Deut. 1:36. so he registered his claim. Cp Num 14:9. He had been preserved alive (v.10) to vindicate the Divine promise before all Israel. His character W 8, 9, 14. He was a complete man. Cp Ecc. 12:13. Cp ff p. 204.

See Analysis - bottom p. 314.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The borders of the lot of Judah. 13 Caleb's portion. 16 Othniel obtaineth Achsah. 21 The cities of Judah. 63 The Jebusites not conquered.

THIS then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families; even to the border of Edom the wilderness of Zin southward was the uttermost part of the south coast.

2 And their south border was from the shore of the salt sea, from the bay that looketh southward:

3 And it went out to the south side to Maaleh-acrabbim, and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kadesh-barnea, and passed along to Hezron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa:

4 From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt; and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast.

5 And the east border was the salt sea, even unto the end of Jordan. And their border in the north quarter was from the bay of the sea at the uttermost part of Jordan:

6 And the border went up to Beth-hoglah, and passed along by the north of Beth-arabah; and the border went up to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben:

7 And the border went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor, and so northward, looking toward Gilgal, that is before the going up to Adummim, which is on the south side of the river: and the border passed toward the waters of En-shemesh, and the goings out thereof were at En-rogel:

8 And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom unto the south side of the 9B The Land became his birthday present. It vindicated Yah's claim that Israel could have taken it

So Achan open granting territory did not supersede the principle of the Lot, for in the latter Yahweh was as much the Disposer there of as in the former.

10 The King of Hebron had been defeated in the battle of Beth-horon Josh. 10 and the Anakim driven from the precincts of the city Josh. 11:21-22. but apparently during the years of war that followed Josh 11:18 they had returned to re-establish themselves there under three chiefs Josh. 15:14. The neighboring city of Debir was conquered by Othniel Caleb's brother who, in consequence, also became his son-in-law Josh. 15:16-17

11 Wished him well in his contest with the Anakims

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, whereof the LORD spake in that day; for thou heardest in that day how the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced: if so be the LORD will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the LORD said. It was fitting that he should do so.

13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the son of Jephunneh Hebron for an inheritance. Cp 15:13, 21:11-12, Ju 1:20

14 Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenezite unto this day, because that he wholly followed the LORD God of Israel. 1 Cor. 15:58

WHY THIS INCIDENT WAS RECORDED

Type The Lion of Judah, Deliverer of Israel obtains by conquest a Bride who name signifies ornament. Their prize is termed the Oracle or Book-Town. They obtain fertile fields of living Water to refresh their inheritance, which is in a dry part.

Example It showed Israel that while the Lot determined the inheritance of the Tribe each must "work out his salvation" by personally working for it. Thus Othniel obtained more than he was promised for his act of faith, on the other hand, others hesitated and lost. Both faith + works necessary.

Othniel — Vv. 16-19

JOSHUA AS A TYPE Heb. 4:8; Acts 7:45.

1. He began his life by sharing the sufferings of his people in Egypt Phil. 2:5-7.
2. There is no evil recorded against him. He was free of the desire of self-aggrandisement or lust of gain. There was no taint of selfishness to mar his character. He manifested cheerful confidence in the face of difficulties, and by his prompt action won victories for his people.
3. He took over where Moses left off Cp. Ch.1:1-5. and accomplished the work set him to do Ch.21:43-45. He provided a rest for the people which Moses failed to do Ch.22:4.
4. He made it possible for the Israelites to obtain their inheritance, but the initiative to do so lay with them. Josh. 18:3. Cp Mt.11:11-14.

Apparently the Jebusites retained their hold on the citadel whilst Judah and Benjamin occupied different portions of the city. Each tribe in turn tried to eject the Jebusites (Jud. 1:8,21) but they remained a thorn in the side of Israel until the time of David. 2 Sam. 5:7.
Jerusalem Josh. 18:28. Jerusalem is attributed to Benjamin The border V.8. was drawn along the Valley of Gehenn dividing Mt Sion on which stood the fortress from the lower city and giving portion to Judah and portion to Benjamin. See Note Deut. 33:12.
This shows that the Book was not recorded at a very late period as some Higher Critics allege.

THE CITIES ENUMERATED

Did not comprise all the cities within the borders of a tribe, for some of the Levitical cities are not listed in the tribal inheritance. They were evidently listed to define borders, or perhaps comprising outstanding centres.

OTHNIEL SON OF KENAZ: Lion of El, son of the Hunter. He was bold in war but shy in peace. He attacked and occupied the difficult & important fortress of Debir Josh. 15:16-17 but was hesitant to claim off Caleb the additional territory his wife desired and ultimately obtained. As Judge Jud. 3:9-11, he was possessed of the Spirit, he acted as magistrate in decisions to be made, he effectively acted as leader in battle, he exercised a general administration over the people.

It seems that although Joshua ejected the Canaanites, they returned to their former cities whilst he completed the campaign elsewhere. This required that each Tribe make its own effort to obtain its individual holding, although the land as a whole had been won for Israel. In like manner Christ has opened the way to life eternal, but we each must conquer our individual inheritance. See Note "Dividing the Land." Ch. 13. (The keep of witness)

MANASSEH'S LOT. Vv. 1-11.

1 In addition to that of his brother Ephraim. This statement may be in consequence of Vv 14-18 Note V 17.

Manasseh had Ephraim to the south Trans-Jordanian Manasseh to the East Asher to N.W and Zebulun and Issachar to the north. The Sea was western border.

He had thus an inheritance on both sides Jordan Cp Deut. 21:15-17 or Solomon Sig. "Sole". Only son of Manasseh and thus represents his descendants. As the posterity of this tribe increased, new families were set apart from the main line, and thus the family of Machir became one among the families of Manasseh Num. 26:29. This family became known for its warlike ability by which it subdued Gilead and possessed it Num. 32:39-40. It was thus a fit tribe to guard the frontier

Upon the incident of these verses appears to be based the admonition of Paul to the Hebrews — Heb. 4: 6, 11.

Joshua had made it possible to conquer; Jahweh had promised strength, but it remained with Israel to use the means available. Ephraim rested upon the blessing, but did not use the means available to gain it.

THE REQUEST OF THE TRIBES OF JOSEPH. VV. 14-18.

10 See. Ch. 16:1. This request seems to have followed the lot of Ephraim Cp. V 17 with V. 1. This was Joshua's tribe and perhaps they expected preferential treatment which they did not receive. The combined tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh were more populous than any other. The territory first allotted them was very confined especially as the Canaanites occupied so much of it in strength and they lacked the faith to drive them out.

17. You will do it IF you exhibit faith and courage. There was apparently a tendency in these tribes to presume upon their privileged position as firstborn and their relationship to Joshua. For this they were reproved. Joshua reminds them that they had the strength and opportunity to succeed. The only barrier was their slothfulness. This is natural to us all, and the advice of the Lord is similar to that of his prototype. Jhn 9:4. Luke 13:24. Heb. 11:6, 11. Mk. 11:12.

V 14 This boast does not seem warranted by facts. At the census Num 26. the 2 tribes combined were not much greater than Judah. They seem to exhibit the arrogance & jealous spirit manifested on later occasions. Jud. 8:1; 12:1) 2 Sam. 19:41) 2 Chr. 28:7. they are reproved by Joshua who was of the tribe of Ephraim.

EXHORTATION TO GO IN AND POSSESS. VV 3-7.

3 Having rested so long upon the help of Yahweh and the leadership of Joshua, they had lost the initiative to act for themselves. From this state Joshua tried to arouse them. Cp Mt. 11:12.
4 This was a general survey of territory not occupied. In the final analysis it was found that whilst Ephraim complained of lack of territory, Judah had too much and Simeon and Dan were incorporated into the territory of this tribe. Ps. 136:4 Ad Loc.

7 THE LAND SURVEYED. VV. 8-9.

The results were recorded in a book V. 9. which would include charts and divisions and geographical data of immense importance. It is obvious by the way that the countries of the ancient world and journeyings of Israel are recorded that the principles of geography and mathematics were well known to the Hebrews.

BENJAMIN WAS SO PLACED — Next to Ephraim and Manasseh that the unity established during the wandering in the wilderness when these tribes marched together was preserved in the land. See the note "The Tribes Enumerated." Num. 35.

and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, that I may here cast lots for you before the LORD in Shiloh.—V. 1.

9 And the men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven parts[8] in a book, and came again to Joshua to the host at Shiloh.[4] Ys. on.

10 ¶ And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD: and there Joshua divided the land unto the children of Israel according to [5] their divisions.

11 ¶ And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families: and the coast of their lot came forth between the children of Judah and the children of Joseph.—15:1-8; 16:1-10

12 [h] And their border on the north side was from Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north side, and went up through the mountains westward; and the goings out thereof were [h] at the wilderness of [i] Beth-aven.[6]

13 And the border went over from thence toward Luz, to the side of Luz, [k] which is Beth-el, southward; and the border descended to [l] Ataroth-adar, near the hill that lieth on the south side [o] of the nether Beth-horon.

14 And the border was drawn thence, and [p] compassed the corner of the sea southward, from the hill that lieth before [o] Beth-horon southward; and the goings out thereof were at [q] Kirjath-baal, which is Kirjath-jearim, a city of the children of Judah: this was the west quarter.

15 And the south quarter was from the end of Kirjath-jearim, and the border went out on the west, and went out to [d] the well of waters of Nephtoah;

The cities of Benjamin.

16 And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the [6] valley of the son of Hinnom, and which is in [a] the valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the [b] valley of Hinnom, to the side of Jebusi[7] on the south, and descended to [c] En-rogel,

18 And passed along toward the side over against [2] Arabah northward, and went down unto Arabah:

19 And the border passed along to the side of [g] Beth-hoglah northward: and the outgoings of the border were at the north [3] bay of the salt sea at the south end of Jordan: this was the south coast.

20 And Jordan was the border of it on the east side. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the coasts thereof round about, according to their families.

21 Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were [m] Jericho, and [n] Beth-hoglah, and the valley of Keziz,

THE PEOPLE CIRCUMCISED. Ch. 5:8.

Humanly speaking this was a most unmilitary act incapacitating them for normal warfare for some time. "With apparently not the least fear that the Canaanites should muster their forces, and fall suddenly upon them — with a deep feeling obviously that his first concern was to be right before God, & to recall his soldiers & people right in heart & true to every precept of their God, he suspended all military movement; gave his enemies time to recover from their panic; halted his army not only for some days of circumcision, but for the feast of the passover, seven days, — all as if religion was infinitely more than military strategy — as it truly was."

THE CANAANITES. C11-5:1.

The Amorites were the chief of the nations occupying the hill country of Judea whilst the Canaanites by the sea dwelt in the low lands. The description, therefore, is equivalent to saying: "All the kings of the highlands & all the kings of the low lands."

The youngest of Leah's sons, but mentioned before his elder brother Issachar. This was perhaps to preserve the meaning of the names in their sequence as in Josh. 21.

The territory was bounded by Asher in West, Manasseh in South, Naphtali in North and N.W. and Issachar in E.
It measured about 15 m. N & S. by about 8 m. The country was mountainous but fertile and included the N.W. corner of Plain Esdraelon.

CHAPTER 19.

1 The lot of Simeon, 10 of Zebulun, 17 of Issachar, 24 of Asher, 32 of Naphtali, 40 of Dan. 49 The children of Israel give an inheritance to Joshua. So no boundary lines drawn!

AND the second lot came forth to Simeon, even for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families: and their inheritance was within the inheritance of the children of Judah.

2 And ᶠthey had in their inheritance ᵍBeer-sheba, ʰor Sheba, and Moladah,
3 And ⁱHazar-shual, and Balah, and ᵏAzem,
4 And ˡEltolad, and Bethul, and ᵒHormah,

6 And Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhen; thirteen cities and their villages:
7 ᵠAin, ʳRemmon, and ˢEther, and ᵗAshan; four cities and their villages:
8 And all the villages that were round about these cities to ᵘBaalath-beer, ˣRamath of the south. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families.
9 Out of the portion of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Judah was too much for them: therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance within the inheritance of them.
10 ¶ And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families: and the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid:
11 And their border went up ʸtoward the sea, and Maralah, and reached to ᶻDabbasheth,

RE-INSTITUTION OF CIRCUMCISION AND PASSOVER. JOSH. 5:4-7.

The sentence of Num. 14:28-35. abrogated the covenant as far as the nation was concerned - at least for a time. The discontinuance of the Passover - Circumcision was a token of that. The purpose of Jahweh to restore it was made known, however Num. 14:31. They are now called to renew the Covenant - after first been given wonderful proof of His readiness to establish them in the Land in the conquest of Sihon & Og, and in the miracle of Jordan. Circumcision & Passover both restored the Covenant and confirmed it - pointing forward to cutting off of flesh & restoration of fellowship in Age to come HOLY LAND. It is a unique land the tribes inherited – "set apart" or secluded from the rest of the world by Rivers, Desert, Mountain and Sea, so that Israel might "dwell alone" among the nations. It is small and compact and yet its central situation gives it a commanding strategic value. Yet the vast diversity and variety of its features gave it a universal character, for it combined within its borders – sea, mountain, plains, desert, fertile valleys, tropical vegetation, springs, earthquake, perhaps volcanoes, heat in summer snow in winter, sharp divisions between one state and another. A variety of Gifts and a diversity of character.

The lot of Naphtali.

25 And their border was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Achshaph, (Jewel) (Hollow, Belly)
26 And Alammelech, and Amad, and Misheal; and reacheth to Carmel westward, and to Shihor-libnath; (See below)
27 And turneth toward the sunrising to Beth-dagon, and reacheth to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah-el toward the north side of Beth-emek, and Neiel, and goeth out to Cabul on the left hand, (Glowing, Worm) (Open Space of Street)
28 And Hebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, even unto great Zidon; (Place of Reed)
29 And then the coast turneth to Ramah, and to the strong city Tyre; and the coast turneth to Hosah; and the outgoings thereof are at the sea from the coast to Achzib: (broad)
30 Ummah also, and Aphek, and Rehob: twenty and two cities with their villages. (See bottom 317)
31 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

32 ¶ The sixth lot came out to the children of Naphtali, even for the children of Naphtali according to their families.
33 And their coast was from Heleph, from Allon to Zaanannim, and Adami, Nekeb, and Jabneel, unto Lakum; and the outgoings thereof were at Jordan. (God builds) (Obstruction)
34 And then the coast turneth westward to Aznoth-tabor, and goeth out from thence to Hukkok, and reacheth to Zebulun on the south side, and reacheth to Asher on the west side, and to Judah upon Jordan toward the sunrising. (Warm Springs)
35 And the fenced cities are Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, Rakkath, and Chinnereth, 36 And Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor, (Village) (Earth) (Height)

Joshua's inheritance.

37 And Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-hazor, (Sanctuary) (Mighty) (Fountain of the Village)
38 And Iron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh; nineteen cities with their villages. See bottom 317.
39 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their villages.

40 ¶ And the seventh lot came out for the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families.
41 And the coast of their inheritance was Zorah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-shemesh,
42 And Shaalabbin, and Ajalon, and Jethlah,
43 And Elon, and Thimnathah, and Ekron,
44 And Eltekeh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath, (Mistress)
45 And Jehud, and Bene-berak, and Gath-rimmon,
46 And Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border before Japho. (Waters of yellowness) (Rock from a near-by Spring)
47 And the coast of the children of Dan went out too little for them: therefore the children of Dan went up to fight against Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and possessed it, and dwelt therein, and called Leshem, Dan, after the name of Dan their father. See Map. Jud. 18
48 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities with their villages.

49 ¶ When they had made an end of dividing the land for inheritance by their coasts, the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them: Num. 24:9 ←
50 According to the word of the LORD they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnath-serah in mount Ephraim: and he built the city, and dwelt therein.

Fruitful Field or from Kerem-El – Field or Vineyard of God. As a common noun rendered "fruitful field" Isa. 10:18; 29:17; 32:15-16. "Plentiful field" Isa. 16:10; Jer. 48:33. In 2 Kg 19:23; 2 Chr. 26:10 incorrectly rendered as proper nam (RV: fruitful field).

A prominent headland on the south of the Bay of Acre, bearing about south, southeast for more than 12 miles, terminating suddenly by an eastern bluff. Its average height is 1500 ft. It is still prolific in the growth of trees.

GREAT ZIDON.

Tsidon-rabba, Great Zidon, or Zidon the metropolis. About 25m N. Tyre. Situated on a small promontory in the narrow plain between Lebanon & the sea. Assigned to Asher but never conquered Jud. 1:31. It had a commodious harbor. It claimed to be the mother city of which Tyre was a colony, though it was outstripped by its daughter Isa. 23:12. Zidon was threatened by Joel 3:4 = Jeremiah 27:3. See Ezekiel's prophecy against Zidon Ezek. 28:20-23. Sig. Fishery – idea of ensnaring or catching fish.

The cities of refuge. JOSHUA 20, 21. The Levitical cities.

51 [a] These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, divided for an inheritance by lot [e] in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. [11] So they made an end of dividing the country.

CHAPTER 20.

1 God commandeth, 7 and the children of Israel appoint the six cities of refuge.

THE LORD also spake unto Joshua, saying,
2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, [m] Appoint out for you cities of refuge, whereof I spake unto you by the hand of Moses:
3 That the slayer that [o] killeth any person unawares and [p] unwittingly may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the avenger of blood.
4 And when he that doth flee unto one of those cities [q] shall stand at the entering of the gate of the city, and shall declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city, they shall take him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among them.
5 And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not [r] deliver the slayer up into his hand; because he smote his neighbour [s] unwittingly, and hated him not beforetime.
6 And he shall dwell in that city, [t] until he stand before the congregation for judgment, and until the death of [u] the high priest that shall be in those days: then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.
7 ¶ And they [2] appointed [v] Kedesh in Galilee in mount Naphtali, and [w] Shechem in [x] mount Ephraim, and [y] Kirjath-arba, which is Hebron, in the mountain of Judah.
8 And on the other side Jordan by Jericho eastward, they assigned [z] Bezer in the wilderness upon [a] the plain out of the tribe of Reuben, and [b] Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and [c] Golan in Bashan out of the tribe of Manasseh.
9 These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for [d] the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever [e] killeth any person at unawares might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, [f] until he stood before the congregation.

1 Eight and forty cities given by lot, out of the other tribes, unto the Levites. 43 God gave the land, and rest unto Israel, according to his promise.

THEN came near the heads of the fathers of the Levites unto [g] Eleazar the priest, and unto Joshua the son of Nun, and unto the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel;
2 And they spake unto them at [3] Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, [h] The LORD commanded by the hand of Moses to give us cities to dwell in, with the [4] suburbs thereof for our cattle.
3 And the children of Israel gave unto the Levites out of their inheritance, at the commandment of the LORD, these cities and their suburbs.
4 And the lot came out for the families of the Kohathites: and [i] the children of Aaron the priest, which were of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of Simeon, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen cities.

CITIES FOR THE LEVITES

The population of these Cities was not limited to Levites (Saul dwelt at Gibea David at Hebron etc), but they had the privilege of dwelling therein, having houses and lands appointed to them. The house could be sold - reverting back in Year of Release Lv 25:32-34 but not the lands. On the other hand the Levites could dwell in cities other than Levitical ones. Deut. 18:6. 1 Sam. 21:1.

The Jews say they were all Cities of Refuge where any body could repair when wanted & care tried. But the special privileged attached to the appointed Cities of Refuge did not appertain to these.

JOSHUA COMMANDED TO APPOINT CITIES OF REFUGE Vv1-6.

The Purpose of the Cities. 1-6.

1 Heb. "The cities"
2 Lit. In error, unintending it. Cp Num. 35:16-18; Deut. 19:5
2A Inadvertently as in Lev 4:13, 2 Chr.

3 Some word used for Redeemer See Num. 35. Heb. Goel. Cp. Ruth 4 LXX. "next of Kin." It was a divine command to punish violence with death. Gen 9:6. Exod 21:12-14. Lev. 24:17-21. A person unlawfully taking life destroyed that which the possessor owed Jehovah & by which he could serve him. It acknowledged the real mortality of man.

THE CITIES SELECTED Vv. 7-9.

4. They were conveniently situated at proper distances from each other. It is said they were situated on heights so as to be easily seen, whilst good roads kept in well repair gave easy access to them. Deut. 19:2. They typed the Lord Heb. 6:17-18.

2. The hill country.

THE LOT FOR DAN Vv. 40-48.

A stretch of country about 8 m. N&S and 25 m. E. & W. squeezed in between Ephraim and Judah, with Benjamin on E and Sea on W. They were confined to mountainous parts by Canaanites and finding this too confined obtained further territory in extreme north by conquest in fertile country near Lebanon.

49A Though leader, he did not take anything for himself & only received a share after others supplied. 10 Name Sig. Extra Portion." About 12 m. NW from Shiloh. Said to be a barren spot in a barren country. Perhaps Joshua was trying to show that he looked for a greater reward and considered the present inheritance only temporary.

1. Rebuilt. The city was on the north of the hill Gaash Josh. 24:30 signifying "quaking." Possibly referred to earthquake which may have destroyed the previous city.

THE PARABLE. Heb. 6:18. 323

KEDESH — to set apart, to consecrate (Root) - hence to make holy.

SHECHEM — from "shathem", to be ready forward, diligent. hence "shoulder" because of its readiness to bear burdens - to "prop up," "sustain."

HEBRON — from "chabar" to unite. hence fellowship, friendly association union.

BEZER — A fortified place.

RAMOTH — from "raam" to be raised, made high, exalted. Hence "High places" "Eminences."

GOLAN — from "galah" - to remove, transmigrate or pass away. Some derive it from "gal" - to rejoice Hence "Rejoicing or Exultation"

CITIES FOR LEVITES For the appointment see Num. 35:2. For the duties and privileges of Levites see Num. 18. particularly the note on V.23. 6 And [e] the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.

7 [f] The children of Merari by their families had out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.

8 [g] And the children of Israel gave by lot unto the Levites these cities with their suburbs, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 SELECTED FOR AARONITES Vv 9-19.

9 From Judah & Benjamin the priests were thus appropriately given residences adjacent to the place where centuries later the Temple was built. This illustrates divine selection combined with purpose.

9 ¶ And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are here [5] mentioned by name,

10 [h] Which the children of Aaron, being of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi, had: for their's was the first lot.

Most of these cities were of Judah, so that this tribe gave more cities than any other for the reason given in Num. 35:8.

11 [i] And they gave them [6] the city of Arba the father of [7] Anak, which city is Hebron, [z] in the hill country of Judah, with the suburbs thereof round about it. Lv.2.

His labour. They were set before Israel as the ideal Israelite. The very nature of their duties precluded the possibility of them becoming rich in material things, and they were taught not to trust these but to seek the true riches of Yahweh. As they were an object lesson to the nation of Israel so the saints – separated ones – should be to the world

THE FOUR FAMILIES OF LEVI The inclusion of the Aaronites as a separate family divided Levi into four groups answering to the four horns of the Altar around which they ministered or the four camps of Israel to which they ministered.

THE LAND GIVEN TO ISRAEL. Vv 43-45 : this was the Land promised to Moses Josh 11:23. not that promised Abraham Gen. 15:18-20. (note the Jebusites included, but see Josh. 15:63). Cp Num. 34:5-8 with 1 Kgs 8:65. The Land was "given" by Lot, but they still had to go in and possess it — and this they failed to do Josh. 23:4-6. Cp Vv 12-13. Cp Josh. 16:10. 17:12. Jud. 1:27-28.

1 Yahweh had reduced their enemies to impotence and thus paved the way for their individual victory. All they now needed was the faith to grasp and hold that which He had made available. Because they lacked this they "entered not into their rest" Cp Heb. 4:8.

In like manner, Yahweh has conquered the enemy before us through the sacrifice of His son - failing in nothing that He has promised, but we must use faith, courage and initiative in order to obtain for ourselves the inheritance. The recipe for success see Josh. 1:7-8.

6 He gave them the power to conquer.

EXPOSTULATION
Vv. 15-20.

In their approach to the Transjordan Tribes, Israel prejudged their brethren. And now the 2½ Tribes revealed commendable restraint in not taking umbrage, but in calmly rebutting the accusation.

If you think that by living the other side of Jordan you are cut off from contact with Yahweh's altar, we will give you room among our own inheritance for you to dwell among us.

YAHWEH EL ELOHIM. V. 22.

This is Yahweh's Name as Judge. It is stated that "He knoweth." The verb YADA' signifies to ascertain by seeing or investigation. The Elohim are the angels who supervise the saints as "ministering spirits" Heb. 1:14. The same Name is used in a context of Judgment in Ps. 50:1. The scope and purpose of judgment are expressed Vv. 2-6. A similar title in a context of judgment is mentioned in Deut. 10:17. The Elohim comprise the angels under the supervision of Michael Exod. 23:20; Josh. 5:14-15. Dan. 12:1.

reasons when angry passion may well have got the better of them. Thus good sense and brotherly kindness prevailing, tragedy was averted.

There was not need for the Altar, for externals cannot bring unity in the Truth. That is something that needs no forcing and cannot be destroyed when the elements exist for its creation. Unity cannot be created when a Knowledge is lacking (v.24), and when it is present the altar is rendered superfluous. It is like forcing Ecclesial unity by Regulation and Business motion and decree!!

the LORD, [a] wherein the LORD'S tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the LORD, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar beside the altar of the LORD our God.

20 [b] Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and that man perished not alone in his iniquity.

21 ¶ Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh answered, and said unto the heads of the thousands of Israel,

22 The LORD [c] God of gods, the LORD God of gods, he [f] knoweth, and Israel he shall know; if it be in rebellion, or if in transgression against the LORD, (save us not this day,)

23 That we have built us an altar to turn from following the LORD, or if to offer thereon burnt offering or meat offering, or if to offer peace offerings thereon, let the LORD himself require it;

24 And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, [3] In time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying, What have ye to do with the LORD God of Israel?

25 For the LORD hath made Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad; ye have no part in the LORD: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the LORD.

26 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice:

27 But that it may be [l] a witness between us, and you, and our generations after us, that we might [m] do the service of the LORD before him with our burnt offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings; that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the LORD.

28 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the [c] pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings, nor for sacrifices; but it is a witness between us and you.

29 God forbid that we should [d] rebel against the LORD, and turn this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offerings, for meat offerings, or for sacrifices, beside the altar of the LORD our God that is before his tabernacle.

30 ¶ And when [g] Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation and heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spake, [h] it pleased them.

31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive that the LORD is [i] among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against the LORD: [j] now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the LORD.

32 ¶ And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, [k] out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again.

"They served Baalim" Jud. 2:11. : "Baal means 'lord, possessor, owner or husband.' Baalim was a nature religion. Its keynote was fertility. This diabolic cult probably originated from the false idea that a supernatural being is responsible for the productivity of each tract of land, & of the domestic animals. Baal was a well known Semitic deity in Egypt. He was the guardian god of the Phoenicians. He was worshipped in Moab Num 22:41. Among the Philistines he was known as Baal-zebub "the lord of flies" (2 Kg. 1:2). In Chaldea he was regarded as the ruler of the heavens. With this abominable worship were associated various lascivious rites (See Note bottom p. 107); Kissing Baal's image Hos. 13:2, human sacrifice Jer. 19:5, and various forms of sexual indulgence. The main deity was probably the sun. See bottom opp. 313.

The fact that they had erected it not on their territory but upon that of their brethren v.11 indicated that it was not intended to use it as a basis of schismatic worship. It was designed as a witness and reminder of the worship at Shiloh.

30 The genuineness of their zeal for God is demonstrated by their readiness to accept the explanation of their brethren. Had they been actuated by jealousy or party spirit they would not admitted no defence, or would have discovered some new grounds for complaint. Instead they were pleased at a reasonable explanation. Josh. 24:12. "whether the gods" – Joshua was not giving them a choice of worship but attempting to extract a confession of faith such as follows. • Yahweh is the God that brought them out of Egyptian bondage V.17. • He preserved the nation to this time, manifesting great signs (such as manna) V.17 • He drove out the people whose land is now occupied V.18 • Therefore we will serve Him. JOSHUA'S FINAL WORK. Chapts. 23-24.

It is not conceivable that Joshua would pass from the scene without recording for posterity the important advice contained in these chapters, and that he did so is expressly stated Josh 24:26. He was doubtless the amanuensis under Yahweh of the whole book with additional explanatory notes added perhaps by Phineas.

CHAPTER 24.

1 Joshua assembleth the tribes at Shechem. 2 A brief history of God's benefits from Terah. 14 The covenant renewed. 26 The stone of witness. 29 Joshua's age and death. 32 Joseph's bones are buried.

AND Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to (l) Shechem, and (m) called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their (n) officers; and they (o) presented themselves before God. 1 - ha-Elohim

2 And Joshua said unto all the people, (p) Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, (q) Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they served other gods. 6 See above 7

3 And (r) I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and (s) gave him Isaac.

4 And I gave unto Isaac (t) Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto (u) Esau mount Seir, to possess it; (v) but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt. Ps 105:26

5 (w) I sent Moses also and Aaron, and (x) I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them: and afterward I brought you out. Ps. 78:43-51. 105:27-36. 135:8-9

6 And I (y) brought your fathers out of Egypt: and (z) ye came unto the sea; (a) and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen unto the Red sea.

7 And when they (b) cried unto the LORD, (c) he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, (d) and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and (e) your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and ye dwelt in the wilderness (f) a long season.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwelt on the other side Jordan; (g) and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hand, that ye might possess their land; and I destroyed them from before you.

9 Then (h) Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and (i) sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you:

10 (j) But I would not hearken unto Balaam; (k) therefore he blessed you still: so I delivered you out of his hand. Ps. 114:3.

11 And (l) ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and (m) the men (n) of Jericho (o) fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered them into your hand. Neh. 9:24-25 Ps 78:55 Acts 13:19.

12 And I (p) sent the hornet before you, which drave them out from before you, even the two kings of the Amorites; but (q) not with thy sword, nor with thy bow. Prov 13:22.

13 And I have given you a land for which ye did not labour, and (r) cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not do ye eat.

14 ¶ (s) Now therefore fear the 7 ʾOPHELAH - Thick, intense gloomy darkness. Occ. only here.

8 Cp Num. 21:21-35; Deut. 2:32-36; 3:1-11. Josh. 12:1-6. The Kingdoms of Og & Sihon.

4. A defensive war in which Balaam was his main artillery!

9 ʿĀBAH - to be unwilling. Not the normal word for "would" - which is a prefixed letter. It was Yahweh's "predetermined purpose" that Israel should not be accursed.

11 BAʿALI - Lords or rulers.

5. Their resistance consisted in shutting their gates and preparing to defend themselves.

6. This has been interpreted both figuratively and literally. It has been suggested that Hornet was symbol of Egypt was the hornet and that Canaan had been weakened by invasion of Egypt just prior to that of Joshua. But against that, the statement of Ex. 23:28. Deut. 20 is prophetic of something then yet to occur. The Heb. "TSIR'AH" comes from root TSIR - to scourge, and is rendered "leper." There was a town Zoreah which was another form of TSIRIAH and probably the site where this scourge was revealed in a very vivid manner. TSIR'AH could thus be fear, plague, pestilence — anything that might sting or scourge the enemy and so lower his power of resistance. Josh. 2:11. 9:3. 10:2

EXHORTATION — IT PAYS TO SERVE YAHWEH. Vv 14-15.

7. In view of the manifest evidence of Yahweh's power and goodness towards Israel
8. Deeply reverence Him as a loving heavenly Father.
9 YAGAʿ - To gasp, hence to be exhausted. Thus exhaustion to labour.
Fear is beginning of wisdom. Ps. 111:10. Rev. 1:17.
Fear leads to forgiveness. 1 John 1:9. Walk in Acts 9:31.

"We will serve Yahweh" Cp Gen. 18:19, Ps. 101:2, 119:106, 111, 112, Acts 11:23.

The gods of the Amorites V.15

This is the language of extreme irony. The gods had not been able to save their worshippers. Yahweh had given them the victory and it would be Yahweh Whom Joshua would continue to serve. Ez. 20:18, Amos 5:25-26

24. The death of Joshua.

And they said, We are witnesses. Deut 26:17, Mic 6.

23 Now therefore © put away, [d] said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the LORD God of Israel.

24 And the people said unto Joshua, The LORD our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey. 15B

25 So Joshua [h] made a covenant with the people that day, and set them [k] a statute and an ordinance in Shechem.

26 ¶ And Joshua [m] wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took [n] a great stone, and set it up there [o] under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the LORD. (See Note bottom p.334)

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be [p] a witness unto us; for [r] it hath heard all the words of the LORD which he spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye [s] deny your God. KÂCHASH - to be untrue)

28 So Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance. My 10:33, 2 Tim 2:12-13, Tit 1:16, Rev 3:8, Prov 30:9

29 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old. - Gen 50:26 one of Joseph

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in [t] Timnath-serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the north side of the hill of [b] Gaash. A quaking Cp Note Jud 2:9

31 And Israel served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that [u] overlived Joshua, and [v] which had known all the works of the LORD, that he had done for Israel. Experimentally - Deut. 11:2; 31:13.

32 ¶ And the bones of Joseph, [w] which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem, in a parcel of ground [x] which Jacob bought of 330 Stone coffin of Joseph had been carried from place to place a memorial to the people of a faithful servant of Yahweh, as the death of Jesus is to Spiritual Israel. Now its wanderings are at an end. - laid to rest by his faithful descendant. See note Gen. 50:25.

26 See note Gen. 48:22

Vs. 14-15. The gods of the Chaldeans: fire, light, the sun. etc. Those of the Egyptians: Apis, Anubis, serpents, crocodiles, the Nile etc. Those of the Amorites etc: Baal-peor, Ashtoreth, Moloch etc. They gratified the lusts of the flesh & that drew them away.

15 Cp Jacob Gen. 35:2 Strangers' gods

15A This requires a conscious effort. Ps 45:10; Prov 22:17

15B Similar words had been uttered before Cp Deut. 5:28-29.

THE PEOPLE'S COVENANT TO SERVE 24-28.

16 Heb. "Cut a Covenant." For the solemn responsibility of this see Gen 17:9-10. Abram had built an altar here Gen 12:7 and near bye was the altar built by Joshua on which was inscribed the blessings & cursings of the Law. Josh. 8:30-32. S MISHPAT Heb: Sentence. This is given in V. 20.

THE WITNESS OF THE BOOK AND STONE 16-28

18 The words of Man are added to by Joshua the type of Jesus. So Yahweh's revelation in the Book is increased. Cp. Josh. 1:8

19 The stone of Israel Cp Jacob at Bethel Gen 28:18. Also GEN. 49:24 Referred to Jud 9:6.

20 An historic Oak. For typical meaning see Gen. 12:7. For references see Gen. 35:4 1 Sam. 15:9. Note

DEATH OF JOSHUA Vs 29-31. See also Jud 2:8

21 Like his great antitype he never married (as far as we know). He was the greatest man in Israel, yet he received nothing from them. Though they received houses v.13 he had to build Josh 19:50. He maintained loyal, consistent, painstaking labour, with service to Yahweh and the people as his sole objective. That is true patriotism. Jud. 2:8

22 See note re poverty of this inheritance Josh 19:50.

THE COVENANT OF JOSHUA

1. The authority of the one making it — he was type of Christ
2. Its liberty — there was no force used.
3. Its basis — knowledge
4. Its requirements — Sincerity and Truth.
5. Its Solemnity — Confirmed by sacrifice before Yahweh.
6. The Extent of its Demands — Complete dedication
7. The Certainty of the Consequences — for good or ill.

TAMIYM - Entire

The word signifies "completely." with entirety.

But even in sincerity is not sufficient - it must be faithfully in accordance with His word.

11. There was a secret worship of false gods. Wherever Israel had gone some of the evil influence of the place had remained with them — whether Babylon, Egypt Canaan. The secret worship of these gods was still in their midst. Cp Ezek 8:12.

12. A divided loyalty is the worse state of Apostasy. Cp Amos 5:26 Acts 7:41-43. Ps 95:10. Why did Joshua REASON with the people. Why not FORCE them to do his bidding! Because a FORCED worship is of no benefit to Yahweh or man. If it is not induced by filial affection and complete loyalty, Yahweh will repudiate it. Josiah forced the nation to serve Yahweh aright, but though he seemed to succeed, Yahweh rejected the nation Lev 1:7-8

They were horrified at the suggestion that the presence of other gods implied the forsaking of Yahweh. They apparently thought they could give service to both. Idolatry is not limited to pagan worship - 1 Sam. 15:23. Col. 3:5.

CONCLUDING REMARKS. There are monuments still in existence, which prove that the Carthaginians were a colony of Tyrians who escaped from Joshua; as also that the inhabitants of Lepkis, in Africa came originally from the Sidonians, who abandoned their country on account of the calamities with which it was overwhelmed. Procopius relates that the Phoenicians fled before the Hebrews into Africa, and spread themselves abroad as far as the pillars of Hercules; and adds, "In Numidia there now stands the city Tigisis (Tangiers), they have erected two columns, on which, in Phoenician characters, is the following inscription: 'We are the Phoenicians who fled before the face of Joshua the son of Nave.'" — The Treasury of Scriptural Knowledge.

15 Lit. "the field". The area referred to in Josh. 15:18, which had become well known, was especially valuable because of its springs. No dismounting was a mark of respect. See Josh. 15:18.

6 This would impede his usefulness in war. He would not be able to draw the bow, nor effectively pursue the enemy. But mutilation was a Canaanitish custom, not the punishment required by Yahweh. Josh. 8:29. shows the early influence of Canaanitish practise.

7 This accrued honor to the conqueror, but Yahweh's way condemned the flesh.

SUMMARY See Jer. 2:6-8. A remarkable history of long-suffering. None need despair for Yahweh is merciful — none should presume for He is just.

Not a continuous narrative based on chronological order, but a series of incident to illustrate spiritual truths.

AUTHOR — Probably Samuel. Written after the establishment of Kings (Ch 17) 6: 18:1: 19:1. but before the accession of David (Ch 1:21)

IT IS A STORY OF FAILURE THROUGH COMPROMISE — There was no visible leadership and the people lacked the faith to hearken to Yahweh.

THE CAUSE OF FAILURE. — Compromise with explicit instructions of Yahweh (V. 28) and imitation of Canaanitish practises to the glorification of the flesh V. 6. This chapter lists centres of Canaanitish influence — many of which were sites of resounding victories by Joshua. He, like the Lord Jesus. (Heb 2:14), made individual victory possible, but so often the individual failed.

Note the decline. Judah & Benjamin attempt to destroy Canaanites though not successful. Nevertheless commended for the attempt Vv 19,22. Other tribes allow them to remain, & when strong put them under tribute. Vv 27-30. Asher, Naphtali dwell among "them" Vv 31-33. Dan ejected by Amorites Vv. 34-36.

V.29 Yet Ephraim did better than Manasseh for the Canaanites remained in their territory only in Gezer.

went up out [a] of the city of palm trees,[11] with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of (C)Arad; [d] and they went and dwelt among the people.[14]

17 [e] And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited (D)Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. [14] And the name of the city was called (N)Hormah.[15]

18 Also Judah took (O)Gaza with the coast thereof, and (P)Askelon with the coast thereof, and (Q)Ekron with the coast thereof.

19 And [m] the LORD was with Judah; [n] and he drave out the inhabitants [16] of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had [p] chariots of iron.

20 (R)And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, [q] as Moses said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Anak.[21]

21 [s] And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites [24] that inhabited Jerusalem; but [t] the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day.[28]

22 ¶ And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Beth-el: [22] and the LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Joseph [v] sent to descry Beth-el. (Now the name of the city before was (U)Luz.) [23]

24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and (b) we will shew thee mercy.

25 And when he shewed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let go the man and all his family.

26 And the man went into [b] the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz: [23] which is the name thereof unto this day.

27 ¶ (c) Neither did Manasseh drive out the inhabitants of [24] Beth-shean and her towns, nor Taanach and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor [25] and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns: [26] but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

28 And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out.

29 ¶ Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer; [27] but the Canaanites dwelt in Gezer among them. (see below)

30 ¶ Neither did Zebulun drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the (F)inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.

31 ¶ Neither did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of (G)Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of (H)Aphik, nor of (I)Rehob:

32 But the Asherites [x] dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

33 ¶ Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of (K)Beth-shemesh, nor the inhabitants of (L)Beth-anath; but he [x] dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath (c) became tributaries unto them.

34 And (M)the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountain: for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley: [36]

THE BOOK OF JUDGES shows that in Scripture we are dealing with men of like passions with ourselves. Its display of human passion, acts of violence and imperfections come as a shock. It demonstrates that though the Truth is Divine, the professors of it are all too human. The Sacred Historian has faithfully recorded the imperfections, barbarities and irregularities of his people — it is our wisdom to no less faithfully study them. 2 Tim 3:16.

Israel rebuked at Bochim.

Mount of the Sun 31 Border Dan

1 And an (a) angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal (c) to Bochim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I sware unto your fathers; and I said, I will never (d) break my covenant with you.

2 And (e) ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land; (k) ye shall throw down their altars: (m) but ye have not obeyed my voice: why have ye done this? See below.

3 Wherefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be (n) as thorns in your sides, and (r) their gods shall be a (s) snare unto you.

4 And it came to pass, when the angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place (t) Bochim: and they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

6 ¶ And when (u) Joshua had let the people go, the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land. - See bottom p. 334.

7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that (x) outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD, that he did for Israel. - Cp Deut. 11:2, 7; 31:13. Opp p. 313.

8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

9 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in (y) Timnath-heres, (z) in the mount of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill Gaash.

10 And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which (a) knew not the LORD, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel.

11 ¶ And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim:

12 And they (f) forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed (g) other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and (h) bowed themselves unto them, and (i) provoked the LORD to anger.

13 And they forsook the LORD, and (o) served Baal and Ashtaroth.

14 ¶ And (p) the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he (q) delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and (r) he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they (s) could not any longer stand before their enemies.

15 Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and (t) as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed. See below

16 ¶ Nevertheless (u) the LORD raised up judges, which (v) delivered them out of the hand of those that spoiled them.

17 And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they (w) went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: (x) they turned quickly out of the way which their fathers walked in, obeying the commandments of the LORD; but they did not so.

18 And when the LORD raised them up judges, then [b] the LORD was with the judge, and delivered them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for [d] it repented the LORD because of their [e] groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and vexed them.

19 And it came to pass, [f] when the judge was dead, that they returned, and [2] corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down unto them; [g] they ceased not from their own doings, nor from their stubborn way.

20 ¶ And [h] the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel; and he said, Because that this people hath [i] transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not hearkened unto my voice;

21 [j] I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations which Joshua left when he died:

22 That [k] through them I may [3] prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their [l] fathers did keep it, or not.

23 Therefore the LORD [4] left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

1 The nations left to prove Israel. 6 By communion with them they commit idolatry. 8 Othniel delivereth them from Chushan-rishathaim. 12 Ehud from Eglon. 31 Shamgar from the Philistines.

NOW these are [5] the nations which the LORD left, to prove Israel by them, even as many of Israel as had not known all the wars of Canaan;

2 Only that the generations of the children of Israel might know, to teach them war, at least such as before knew nothing thereof;

3 Namely, [a] five lords of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwelt in mount [c] Lebanon, from mount Baal-hermon unto the entering in of Hamath.

4 And they were [f] to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would hearken unto the commandments of the LORD, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 ¶ [h] And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, and Perizzites, and Hivites, and Jebusites:

6 And [k] they took their daughters to be their wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

7 [m] And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgat the LORD their God, [o] and served Baalim and [p] the groves.

8 ¶ Therefore [q] the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he [r] sold them into the hand of Chushan-rishathaim [7] king of [s] Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Chushan-rishathaim eight years.

9 And when the children of Israel [t] cried unto the LORD, the LORD "raised up a [6] deliverer to the children of Israel, who delivered them, even [u] Othniel, the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother.

10 And [v] the Spirit of the LORD [7] came upon him, and he judged Israel, and went out to war: and the LORD [7] delivered Chushan-rishathaim king of [8] Mesopotamia into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim.

CAPTIVITY

EHUD of BENJ. DELIVERS FROM EGLON INVAD. ISRAEL Vv. 12-30

9 His name means "little calf" - probably Israel's recollection that brought him fame, not personality. His power evaporated in the face of determination and faithful leadership. Probably named because of his head. V. 11. 80 years

9 He crossed Jordan and set up headquarters at Jericho.

DELIVERER ISRAEL.

10 According to Josephus, he was a man who had acquired fame for prowess and power. Jdg. 20:16 It was possible that a count of this tribute was entrusted to the tribute bearers. This seems to have been a characteristic of the tribe of Benjamin and gave Ehud the means and name means a prominent member of the tribe. Cp 1 Chron. 12:2 Tribute. Weakness of the Moabite king superintended the elevation of Ehud the means of implementing for Israel's freedom was made possible.

THE PLOT

13 Heb. "gomed" - to trudge about 9 miles.

14 This was carried out in state, with attendants, as to Josephus. It was probably accompanied with great ceremony and ostentation of politeness and respectability and reverence. He went a distance and then he went as far as the place of parting and returned. "a message of gods." This is to put everyone on their guard.

V8 Not Canaanite among the Israelites — the former = the upper hand. Cp Ps. 104:1. Eph. 6:12-18.

2 EHUD (BENJAMIN) DELIVERS FROM EGLON OF MOAB: SHAMGAR FROM PHILISTINES 12-31

CHRONOLOGICAL SEQUENCE OF JUDGES 2:1-5.

Though our notes suggest this angel could have been a mortal, it could also have applied to that angel whom Joshua last saw at Gilgal - namely Michael. Josh. 5:13-15. The message is very similar to Joshua's speech Josh. 24, and evidently the visitation took place just prior to the giving of the speech. Thus Jud. 2:6 is identical with Josh. 24:28. The discourse of Joshua 24:1-15 is but an expansion of the brief discourse of the angel. Jud. 2:1-3. The expostulation regarding false gods is in accordance with the 334 complaint of the angel of Jud. 2:2. The declaration of the people Josh. 24:18, 21, 24 is in accord with their emotion of Jud. 2:4. It would appear that both incidents took place adjacent to the Tabernacle Josh. 24:11, 26 Jud. 2:5. Finally Joshua makes mention of the Stone of Witness as having heard "all the words of Yahweh that He spake unto us." Josh. 24:27. The inference is that Joshua's address was delivered immediately after that of the angel. Having heard the angel at Bochim, (Shiloh?) the people convened at the request of Joshua at Shechem — there to see the blessings & curses Josh. 8:30-35 and to renew their vows.

ASHTAROTH. Jud. 2:13. From a root 'ĀSHAR, to increase. The feminine plural of Ashtoreth. Another name for Astarte probably identified with the moon (See Gen. 14:5 - the horns of Ashteroth). Astarte is the ancient semitic goddess of love, fertility & maternity. She was worshipped east of the Jordan in days of Abraham Gen. 14:5, by the Sidonians & Phoenicians (1 Kg. 11:33), the south Arabs & the Philistines (1 Sam. 31:10). In Babylonia & Assyria, Astarte (there known as Ishtar) was also a war goddess. Her worship included prostitution as a religious rite. Even Solomon was led astray by Ashtaroth 1 Kg. 11:5. In the days of Jeremiah she was called "the queen of heaven" Jer. 7:18. She was known to the Greeks as Aphrodite, & to the Romans as Venus. Note how Baal-Ashtaroth are associated together Jud. 10:6. 1 Sam. 7:3, 4. 12:10. See Note bottom 3p 7.

Ehud killeth Eglon.

forty years. And Othniel the son of Kenaz died.

12 ¶ "And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they had done evil in the sight of the LORD.

13 And he gathered unto him the children of [d] Ammon and [e] Amalek, and went and smote Israel, and possessed [f] the city of palm trees.

14 So the children of Israel [g] served Eglon the king of Moab eighteen years.

15 But when the children of Israel [h] cried unto the LORD, the LORD raised them up a deliverer, Ehud, the son of Gera, [i] a Benjamite, [k] a man lefthanded: and by the children of Israel sent [l] a present unto Eglon the king of Moab.

16 But Ehud made him [m] a dagger which had two edges, of a cubit length; and he did gird it under his raiment upon his right thigh.

17 And he brought the present unto Eglon king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fat man.

18 And when he had made an end to offer the present, he sent away the people [p] that bare the present.

19 But he himself turned again [q] from the [r] quarries that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret errand unto thee, O king: who said, Keep silence. And all that stood by him went out from him.

20 And Ehud came unto him; and he was sitting in [t] a summer parlour, which he had for himself alone. And Ehud said, I have [u] a message from God unto thee. And he arose out of his seat.

21 And Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly:

22 And the haft also went in after the blade; and the fat closed upon the blade, so that he could not draw the dagger out of his belly; and [2] the dirt came out.

23 Then Ehud went forth through the porch, and [c] shut the doors of the parlour upon him, and [f] locked them.

24 When he was gone out, his servants came; and when they saw that, behold, the doors of the parlour were locked, they said, Surely he [3] covereth his feet in his summer chamber.

25 And they tarried till they were ashamed: and, behold, he opened not the doors of the parlour; therefore they took a key, and opened them: and, behold, their lord was fallen down dead on the earth.

26 And Ehud escaped while they [1] tarried, and passed beyond the [m] quarries, and escaped unto Seirath.

27 And it came to pass, when he was come, that [n] he blew a trumpet in the [o] mountain of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him, and he before them.

28 And he said unto them, Follow after me: for [p] the LORD hath delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took [s] the fords of Jordan toward Moab, and suffered not a man to pass over.

29 And they slew of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, all [t] lusty, and all men of valour; and there escaped not a man.

30 So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And [1] the land had rest fourscore years.

CHAPTER 4

1 Deborah and Barak deliver them from Jabin and Sisera. 18 Jael killeth Sisera.

AND [d] the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead.

2 And the LORD [e] sold them into the hand of [h] Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in [h] Hazor; the captain of whose host was [i] Sisera, which dwelt in [k] Harosheth of the Gentiles.

3 And the children of Israel [m] cried unto the LORD: for he had nine hundred [n] chariots of iron; [o] and twenty years [p] he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time.

5 And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah between [r] Ramah and Beth-el in [s] mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.

6 And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of [t] Kedesh-naphtali, and said unto him, Hath not the LORD God of Israel commanded, saying, Go and draw toward mount [o] Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

7 And I will draw unto thee to the [r] river Kishon Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and [q] I will deliver him into thine hand.

8 And Barak said unto her, [b] If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go.

9 And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for the LORD shall [a] sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

10 ¶ And Barak called [c] Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men [c] at his feet: and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Heber [f] the Kenite, which was of the children of [g] Hobab the father in law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto [l] the plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh.

12 And they shewed Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount [c] Tabor.

13 And Sisera [s] gathered together all his [q] chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles unto the river [r] of Kishon.

14 And Deborah said unto Barak, Up; for this is the day in which [t] the LORD hath delivered Sisera into thine hand: [u] is not the LORD gone out before thee? So Barak went down from mount [o] Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And the LORD [v] discomfited Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host, with the edge of the sword before Barak; so that Sisera lighted down off his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

16 But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword; and there was not [e] a man left.

17 Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

From Kedesh in Naphtali, Barak and Deborah sent out a joint summons to all Israel. Barak's tribe, Naphtali, to-gether with Zebulun answered the call. They were directly menaced by Sisera.

Chiefs of Israel likewise come, some of Ephraim, and Manasseh. The battle cry of Benjamin was heard. Nothing was heard of Judah, Dan and Asher remained in their ships. The Transjordanic Tribes met by one of the rushing streams of their native hills to decide their course of action. Great was the debate! Great the wavering! Reuben remained among the sheepfolds - the Gileadites in their dwellings, safe beyond the Jordan. Thus the greatest weight fell on Naphtali and Zebulun, largely unarmed in the face of Sisera's might and prowess.

THE VICTORY COMPARABLE WITH THE EXODUS.

3. Hear O Kings! Give ear, ye princes!
I, even I, will sing unto Yahweh;
Will sound the harp to Yahweh Elohim of Israel.
4. Yahweh! When Thou wentest out of Seir,
When Thou didst march out of the field of Edom!
The earth quaked, and the heavens poured,
Yea, the clouds poured down with water.
5. The mountains melted before Yahweh,
That Sinai from before Yahweh Elohim of Israel.

ANGUISH IN ISRAEL.

RSV: "The caravans ceased" reading 'ORHOT for Masoretic text 'ORAHOT.

6. In the days of Shamgar, son of Anath,
In the days of Jael, the highways were deserted,
Through the winding by-path stole the traveller,
7. Upon the plains deserted by the hamlets.
They ceased in Israel, until that I Deborah arose,
Till I arose, a mother in Israel.
8. They chose new gods;
War was in their gates!
Was buckler seen, or lance
'Mong forty thousand sons of Israel?

REVIVAL IN ISRAEL

9. My heart is toward the chiefs of Israel,
Who offered themselves willingly among the people
Praise ye Yahweh with me!
10. Ye that ride on snow-white asses
Ye that sit to judge on rich carpets,
Ye that plod on foot the open way,
Come, meditate the song!

plural of mad - Str. R.V. Rich Carpets. Vg. "long robes" - Rod garments Ps. 104:18

Too poor to ride.

The Hebrew includes the word SIYACH - Consider! or Meditate! RSV following LXX: "To the sound of musicians..."

11. Far from the noise of archers
In the places of drawing water,
There they rehearse the righteous acts of Yahweh
The righteous acts of His rule in Israel.
And enter their deserted gates the people of Yahweh.
12. Awake, awake, Deborah!
Awake, awake, utter a song;
Arise Barak! and lead captivity captive,
Thou son of Abinoam.

THE ASSEMBLING OF THE FAITHFUL

The tribes innumerated serve to indicate the territory menaced by Sisera.

13. With him a valiant few went down against the mighty
Yahweh appointed me among the heroes.
14. Out of Ephraim came those whose root is in Amalek. - See above.
After thee the bands of Benjamin.
From Machir came rulers of the people.
From Zebulun they that handle the staff of the scribe.
15. And Issachar's brave princes came with Deborah Issachar, the strength of Barak.
Into the valley they hastened at his feet.

V.22. The flight was so rapid & over such rough ground that the unshod hoofs of the horses were broken & splintered so that they became lame & could not carry off their riders. "Broken" is from the same Hebrew word rendered "smote" or hammered in V.26.

THE TRIUMPH.

SO PERISH ALL THY ENEMIES, O YAHWEH!
BUT LET THEM THAT LOVE HIM SHINE FORTH AS THE SUN
THE SUN IN ALL ITS GLORY!!

"I will draw to the Kishon" V.7 suggests a diversionary force to Sisera's south adjacent to Taanach

THE FAITHLESS IN ISRAEL

By the watercourses of Reuben
There were great resolves of heart!
16. Why sittest thou among the sheepfolds,
To hear the bleating of the flocks?
At the watercourses of Reuben there was deep debating.
17. Gilead lingered on the banks of Jordan
And Dan, why did he remain in ships?
And Asher dwelled in his seashore havens,
And sat upon his rocks precipitous.

V.17. Abode = tabernacled - at ease/ indifferent to the national crisis. Remain - sojourn, in fear. Seashore - haven of the seas, where he was in safety - Young.

THE BATTLE

18. But Zebulun was a people that jeopardized their lives unto death
And Naphthali on the high places of the field.
19. The kings came and fought;
Then fought the kings of Canaan —
In Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo,
For spoil that they won not.

V.19. The Kings. Jabin evidently with Sisera. Ps. 83:9.

DEFEAT AND VICTORY.

20. They fought from heaven
The stars in their courses fought against Sisera,
21. The torrent of Kishon swept them away.
That ancient torrent, the torrent Kishon.
Trample down, O my soul, their strength!
22. Then stamped the clattering hoofs of prancing...
By reason of the prancing, the prancings of their strong ones.

THE FLIGHT

23. Curse ye Meroz, saith the messenger of Yahweh,
Curse ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof.
Because they came not to the help of Yahweh,
To the help of Yahweh, with the heroes.

DEATH OF SISERA

24. Blessed above women be Jael
The wife of Heber the Kenite,
O'er all the women blest, that dwell in tents.
25. Water he asked - she gave him milk
The curded milk in her costliest dish.
26. Her hand she stretched out to the tent-pin
Her right hand grasped the workman's hammer
And hammered Sisera, and smote his head,
And beat and struck through his temples,
27. At her feet he bowed; he fell; he lay,
Where he bowed, there he fell down slaughtered.

IN SISERA'S HOME-TOWN.

28. Through the window, she looked forth, she cried
The mother of Sisera through the lattice,
"Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why tarry the wheels of his chariots?"
29. The wise ones of her princesses answer her —
Yea she herself gave answer to herself —
30. They have seized, and are dividing the spoil,
One damsel, two damsels to each chief!
To Sisera the spoil of divers colours.
The spoil of divers colours of embroidery
Meet for the necks of them that take the prey.

JUDGES: THE BOOK OF DECLENSION See opp. 1 Kings 6

See top 366.

It is not mere history based upon chronological sequence, but a record of events of spiritual significance showing how Israel failed through Compromise, underling the exhortation of 1 Cor. 10:12. It is epitomized in Psalm 81:10-16. 106:34

As we read the book we may well be amazed that such low living can be associated with such a high calling. Human nature supplies the answer. "It is possible to be moral without being spiritual; it is even possible to be spiritual without being moral." We can know about God and His ways and purpose; converse upon His truths, and yet fail to apply the principles expressed therein.

FLIGHT of SISERA 17-20
Sisera had little hope of mercy from a people he had oppressed so terribly v.2. Hostile faces would be turned on him from all sides. One resting place between the site of battle and Jabin's country gave hope of shelter - the nomadic tents of Heber whose friendship had resulted in disclosing to Sisera the Jerusalem revolt Jud. 4:11. Over 40 m. separated him from the encampment. 21 In approaching the tent of Jael instead of Heber Sisera violated Arabian hospitality and this was punishable with death. He doubtless did so for greater security. 22 Tired and thirsty; the buttermilk more readily induced sleep. An Arab is bound to protect his guest especially when the latter has partaken of his food. Sisera, therefore, relaxed in the assurance of help and protection.

337 SHAMGAR SON OF ANATH CH. 3:31

Shamgar Sig. "Here a stranger" a. Anath = answer. This stranger provided a temporary answer to the groaning of Israel during the oppression of Jabin Cp Jud. 5:6. Hence chronologically it is included within that period. Shamgar was ready when the need arose. He used what he had in the service of Yahweh. Thus Yahweh can use the most unlikely men - means to effect His will. Probably the Philistines took the opportunity of Israel's weakness during Jabin's oppression to assert themselves & were temporarily subdued by defeat at the hands of Shamgar. Dictionary Names: The Desolate. Dragged

- Kishon - Bending, winding. Also spelt "Kison" Ps. 83:9 & known as the "waters of Megiddo" Jud. 5:19 - a torrent of seasonal stream rising in the hills about Tabor + Gilboa + running in a north-westerly direction along the Plain of Esdraelon, emptied into the Mediterranean at the foot of Mt Carmel. The two channels of the stream unite a few miles north of Megiddo. The channel of the stream is here deep and miry. The ground for some distance on both sides is low + marshy, + the fords during winter are often, after heavy rain, impassable, though in summer the whole plain + river bed are dry + hard. Most of the year, the stream is confined to a few miles near the sea. It is given the name today of NAHR EL MUKATTA - The River of Slaughter 1 Kg 18:40. The River before Jokneam. Josh. 19:11. TABOR. Lev. 26:17. 338

Sig. Broken. A conical, symmetrical mound of limestone, on the NE of Plain of Esdraelon, about 6m E. Nazareth. It rises sharply from the Plain itself some 400 ft above sea level to a height of 1350 ft. The ascent is usually from the West near the village of Deburieh, probably the Daberath of Josh. 19:12. 3 And so it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east, even they came up against them;

4 And they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, till thou come unto Gaza, and left no sustenance for Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass.

5 For they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude; for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it.

6 And Israel was greatly impoverished because of the Midianites; and the children of Israel cried unto the LORD.

7 ¶ And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the LORD because of the Midianites,

8 That the LORD sent a prophet unto the children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage;

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drave them out from before you, and gave you their land;

10 And I said unto you, I am the LORD your God; fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice.

11 ¶ And there came an angel of the LORD, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the Abi-ezrite: and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites.

12 And the angel of the LORD appeared unto him, and said unto him, The LORD is with thee, thou mighty man of valour.

13 And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the LORD be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the LORD bring us up from Egypt? but now the LORD hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

14 And the LORD looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: have not I sent thee?

15 And he said unto him, Oh my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.

16 And the LORD said unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Midianites as one man.

17 And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then shew me a sign that thou talkest with me.

18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou come again.

19 ¶ And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

BARAK AND DEBORAH AS TYPES.

The words of Deborah relating to Barak Jud. 5:12 are applied by Paul to Christ Eph. 4:8. In this Barak ("Lightning") son of Abinoam-father of Grace, typifies Christ, and Deborah (Bee) wife of Lapidoth (Lightnings) rep. the Bride, who stings him into action. The destruction of Sisera follows a scene of judgment in which some of the tribes reveal themselves worthy, and some do not Jud. 5:14-18. Sisera is finally destroyed by Jael, a relative of Moses who in the allegory represents Israel after the flesh. Jer. 51:20-24; Zech. 9:13-16; 14:14.

21 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and [b] there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. Then the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gideon [c] perceived that he was an angel of the LORD, Gideon said, Alas, O Lord GOD! [d] for because I have seen an angel of the LORD face to face.

23 And the LORD said unto him, [e] Peace be unto thee; fear not: thou shalt not die.

24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD, and called it [f] Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet in [g] Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

25 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and [h] cut down the grove that is by it:

26 And build an altar unto the LORD thy God upon the top of this [i] rock, [j] in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the grove which thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

28 ¶ And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

29 And they said one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the city said unto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it.

31 And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will ye plead for Baal? will ye save him? he that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar.

32 Therefore on that day he called him [k] Jerubbaal, saying, Let Baal plead against him, because he hath thrown down his altar.

V. 28

They submerged their will in that of their master Baal: under his direction attacked the citadel of Error. ENOSHIM.

THE ALTAR - YAHWEH SHALOM. V. 24

Gideon - "A cutter off" or "hewer down" i.e. A Great Warrior (Isa 9:6) whose name was changed to Jerubbabel - "Let Baal contend" or "Contender with Baal" and later to Jerubbesheth - "He shall contend against confusion + shame" (2 Sam. 11:21) He contended with Midian (contention) at Jezreel (El sows) V. 33 - a type of Christ's triumph (Hos. 2:22 Isa. 9:4 : 10:26). The Altar prefigured Christ's victories and was built upon the Rock [redacted] for the victory was Yahweh's. Ch. 7:26.

As Gideon labored all night to destroy the altar of Baal and bring respect to the Yahweh-Altar and so earned the title of Contender against Confusion and Shame so also does the Lord Jesus. As the dawning of a new day found the people enquiring the meaning and purpose of the Yahweh Altar and laid the foundation for the destruction of Israel's enemies so will be at Christ's return. As there are two stages in Christ's ministry, so there were in Gideons - first the sacrificial, then that of National deliverance.

The erection of the Yahweh Altar amidst the ruins of the Baal Altar with the smoking ashes of the pole and burned bullock prefigured the coming triumph of the Truth over all forms of error Jer. 16:19.

V. 27. He did it by night. Though it is right - Christ co-operates with his servants Jn 9:4; 14:12; Mat 28:18-20.

V. 27. Men of the city - suggests remnant of the Canaanites - hence Jezebel's daughter (Ath.) + her house + Gentiles.

CONSTERNATION

29 Evidently Gideon frowned upon the idolatry of his father's house and was known for his opposition, thus the people quickly jumped to the conclusion of who was responsible.

Joash = Yah is strength. thus - "The Great Warrior filled with Yah's strength"

JOASH'S DEFENCE

He had inwardly no great respect for Baal - and this truth was to be the deciding factor.

30 Joash's defence is clever. Any pleading for Baal interferes with his sovereignty and reflects of his power, and is, therefore, himself worthy of death.

TWO STAGES IN THE TYPE OF GIDEON.

First was a contending for the faith; second was a battle against the enemy. The first was against his household & the men of the city; the second against the invaders. Joash stands as a type of Yahweh. Though the Baal-altar is described as his (V.25) it is obvious that he did not treat the worship with respect (V.31) and that he only permitted what he did not approve. The contention ended in a day of Judgment for all associated with the action of Gideon (V.11).

The battle is preceded by a call and a judgment. 32,000 were reduced to 300 - with them the victory was won, and, ultimately, Israel brought under the control of Gideon.

Jud. 4:18 Margin: The etymology of this word, only used here, is uncertain. LXX translates by "covering" or "screen" using a word which generally translates "tent-curtain." The reference could be to the screened quarter of the women, which would give scope for a sense of false security and, from Jael's point of view, for the entertaining guest.

Gideon's signs.

THE SIGN OF THE FLEECE (V.36-40)

An indication of his own character. Cool in the heat of all around - dry when all around were damped with fear.

So preparations were made for what appeared a most uneven contest - the unnumbered hordes of Midianites, well armed, haughty in their power against the fear stricken, fugitives of Israel. Cp. V.2. No wonder signs were needed, not for Gideon so much as those he must lead.

This is an honorable title specially given to Moses. Deut 34:5; Exod. 14:31; Num. 12:7 Josh. 1:1 (Cp Heb 3:5). In later books, the title "the servant of God" is used (1 Ch. 6:49; Neh. 10:29; Dan 9:11; Rev. 15:3).

- It is applied to Joshua only here and in Josh. 24:29. - It is spoken of David Ps. 18 title and generally of the prophets, like the analogous phrase "man of God" - it is transferred by Paul to the ministers of Christ - Tim. 2:24; James 1:1.

Jud. 2:11 "Did evil in the sight of Yahweh"

This statement begins the narrative of what really did happen after the death of Joshua, but of which Ch 1 conveys no hint. The people served Yahweh during his lifetime, Jos. 24:7 but afterwards "did evil". Then, from V.14 to the end of the chapter, follows a summary of the whole contents of the book. The phrase "did evil in the sight of Yahweh" is the regular formula throughout Scripture for falling into idolatry. It occurs 9 times in Judges as descriptive of the 7 apostasies of Israel 2:11; 3:7; 4:1; 6:1; 10:6; 13:1. See Summary on p. 349 & Note on 2:14. Cont. p. 313.

PPS LÂQAQ is similar to the sound a dog makes when he drinks. Those who thus drank were the calmer, so the rash are removed from the army. 8 ¶ And he went up thence to [r] Penuel, and spake unto them likewise: and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered him. (safe = sound. Shalom = wholeness; peace is a secondary meaning)

9 And he spake also unto the men of Penuel, saying, [t] When I come again in peace, [u] I will break down this tower.

10 ¶ Now Zebah and Zalmunna [9] were in Karkor, [10] and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of [b] all the hosts of [c] the children of the east: for there fell [3] an hundred and twenty thousand men that drew sword.

11 ¶ And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwelt in tents on the east of [h] Nobah and Jogbehah, and smote the host: for the host was [i] secure.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and [h] took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and [6] discomfited all the host.

13 ¶ And Gideon the son of Joash returned from battle before the sun was up,

14 And caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and enquired of him: and he [7] described unto him the princes of Succoth, and the elders thereof, even threescore and seventeen men. Wrote down for him. (N)

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, "Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hand, that we should give bread unto thy men that are weary?

16 "And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he [8] taught the men of Succoth.

17 [9] And he beat down the tower of Penuel, and slew the men of the city.

18 ¶ Then said he unto Zebah and Zalmunna, What manner of men were they whom ye slew at [s] Tabor? And they answered, As thou art, so were they; each one [2] resembled the children of a king. (commanding personalities)

20 And he said unto Jether his firstborn, Up, and slay them. But the youth drew not his sword: for he feared, because he was yet a youth.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall upon us: for as the man is, so is his strength. And Gideon arose, and [c]slew Zebah and Zalmunna, and took away the [3]ornaments that were on their camels' necks.

22 ¶ Then the men of Israel said unto Gideon, Rule thou over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son also: for thou hast delivered us from the hand of Midian.

23 And Gideon said unto them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you: [h]the LORD shall rule over you.

24 ¶ And Gideon said unto them, I would desire a request of you, that ye would give me every man the [i]earrings of his prey. (For they had golden earrings, [j]because they were Ishmaelites.)

25 And they answered, We will willingly give them. [4]And they spread a garment, and did cast therein every man the earrings of his prey.

26 And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was a thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold; [k]beside [3]ornaments, and [5]collars, and [l]purple raiment that was on the kings of Midian, and beside the [m]chains that were about their camels' necks.

28 ¶ Thus was Midian subdued before the children of Israel, so that they [r]lifted up their heads no more. [s]And the country was in quietness forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 ¶ And Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and dwelt in his own house.

31 And his concubine that was in [u]Shechem, she also bare him a son, whose name he [7]called Abimelech.

32 ¶ And Gideon the son of Joash died [v]in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, [w]in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

33 And it came to pass, [x]as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and [y]went a whoring after Baalim, and made [z]Baal-berith their god.

34 And the children of Israel [a]remembered not the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hands of all their enemies on every side:

The full greatness of Gideon shown in this incident. He rejected the offer of hereditary Kingship on the basis that Israel was a Theocracy.
The full measure of Gideon's faith and victory is shown in this request. But Gideon knew the victory was Yahweh's not his. Contrast his refusal of the Kingship with Abimelech's grasping of this position
Jud 9:2 & 1 Sam 8:1
Ishmaelites and Midianites were both descended from Abraham by different mothers. (Gen. 25:2, 4, 12-18) & the Ishmaelites were the most powerful of Abraham's descendants (apart from Israel) the other tribes were grouped by them, and known by their name.

GIDEON'S ERROR. vv. 24-27

Though he resisted the offer of a throne, Gideon fell into the error of meddling with the priestly office. Perhaps he thought this warranted in view of the Altar he had been commanded to build and over which he had officiated. It is not certain whether he used the Ephod himself, or called the High Priest from Shiloh to do so. He may have made it as a memorial in the same way as the altar of Ed (Josh. 22:26-29) Whatever the motive the rich garment became a snare to Gideon and his house. 28.

The Olive, the Fig, and the Vine are too busy ministering to the good of man to rule — and it is left to the idle bramble — only good to kindle fire — to do so. Abimelech was apparently given this title in addition to his first name which is not recorded.

SUWM is only used for additional names given ex. 2 Kings 17:34 Neh. 9:7. Jotham's parable

1 And Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem unto his mother's brethren, and communed with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, 2 Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the men of Shechem, Whether is better for you, either that all the sons of Jerubbaal, which are threescore and ten persons, reign over you, or that one reign over you? remember also that I am your bone and your flesh. 3 And his mother's brethren spake of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words: and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, He is our brother. 4 And they gave him three-score and ten pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vain and light persons, which followed him. 5 And he went unto his father's house at Ophrah, and slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, being threescore and ten persons, upon one stone: notwithstanding yet Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself. 6 And all the men of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, and went, and made Abimelech king, by the plain of the pillar that was in Shechem.

7 ¶ And when they told it to Jotham, he went and stood in the top of mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said unto them, Hearken unto me, ye men of Shechem, that God may hearken unto you. 8 The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said unto the olive tree, Reign thou over us. 9 But the olive tree said unto them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? 10 And the trees said to the fig tree, Come thou, and reign over us. 11 But the fig tree said unto them, Should I forsake my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to be promoted over the trees? 12 Then said the trees unto the vine, Come thou, and reign over us.

13 And the vine said unto them, Should I leave my wine, which cheereth God and man, and go to be promoted over the trees? 14 Then said all the trees unto the bramble, Come thou, and reign over us. 15 And the bramble said unto the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, then come and put your trust in my shadow: and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.

16 Now therefore, if ye have done truly and sincerely, in that ye have made Abimelech king, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done unto him according to the deserving of his hands; 17 (For my father fought for you, and adventured his life far, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian: 18 And ye are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, threescore and ten persons, upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his maidservant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother;) 19 If ye then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice ye in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you: 20 But if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the men of Shechem, and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech.

dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

22 ¶ When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel,

23 Then [a]God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem; and the men of Shechem [b]dealt treacherously with Abimelech:

24 [c]That the cruelty done to the threescore and ten sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, which slew them; and upon the men of Shechem, which [3]aided him in the killing of his brethren.

25 And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and made [3]merry, and went into [d]the house of their god, and did eat and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, [f]Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? is not he the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? serve the men of [g]Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him?

29 And [h]would to God this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

30 ¶ And when Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was [8]kindled.

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech [2]privily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren be come to Shechem; and, behold, they fortify the city against thee.

32 Now therefore up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field:

33 And it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the city: and, behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them [4]as thou shalt find occasion.

34 ¶ And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies.

35 And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from [d]the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

37 And Gaal spake again and said, See there come people down by the [6]middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of [7]Meonenim.

38 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy mouth, wherewith thou saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray now, and fight with them.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech.

43 And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and, behold, the people were come forth out of the city; and he rose up against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the company that was with him, [c] rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the city: and the two other companies [c] ran upon all the people that were in the fields, and slew them.

45 And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and slew the people that was therein, and [h] beat down the city, and sowed it with [i] salt.

46 ¶ And when all the men of the [j] tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into an [k] hold of the house [l] of the god Berith.

47 And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the [j] tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gat him up to mount [m] Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him; and Abimelech took an axe in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people that were with him, What ye have seen [n] me do, make haste, and do as I have done.

50 ¶ Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and encamped against Thebez, and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the city, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the city, and [b] shut it to them, and gat them up to the top of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the [o] door of the tower to burn it with fire.

53 And a certain woman [d] cast a [e] piece of a [f] millstone upon Abimelech's head, and all to brake his skull.

54 Then [g] he called hastily unto the young man his armour-bearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man unto his place.

The tendency of flesh is to make another King than Yahweh and to neglect the use and blessing and joy represented by the olive, fig and vine to "wave" over others. Royalty came naturally to the thorn bush that had to give up bearing – and whose fruit was thorns and evil. So the earth was disquieted. Prov. 30: 21-23.

and he dwelt in Shamir in mount Ephraim.

2 And he judged Israel twenty and three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir.

3 ¶ And after him arose Jair, a Gileadite, and judged Israel twenty and two years.

4 And he had thirty sons that rode on thirty ass colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called (2)Havoth-jair unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead.

5 And Jair died, and was buried in Camon.

6 ¶ And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsook the LORD, and served not him.

7 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon.

8 And that year they vexed and (7)oppressed the children of Israel: eighteen years, all the children of Israel that were on the other side Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

9 Moreover the children of Ammon passed over Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was sore distressed.

10 ¶ And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Baalim.

11 And the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?

12 The Zidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, did oppress you; and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

13 Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: wherefore I will deliver you no more.

14 Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen; let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

15 ¶ And the children of Israel said unto the LORD, We have sinned: do thou unto us whatsoever seemeth good unto thee; deliver us only, we pray thee, this day.

16 And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the LORD: and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in Gilead. And the children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in Mizpeh.

18 And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, What man is he that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

JAIR'S CITIES. V.4. The words "cities" and "ass colts" are the same consonants in Hebrew being a play on words 'ÂYIM. Their common root is 'UWR (עור), signifying to "open" the eyes, to "awake" or rise up. The 30 sons acted as 30 princes over 30 cities. Their status was displayed by their association therewith.

Quietness of Extreme Quietness

Quietness has no history. War, bloodshed, victory, defeat are recorded in detail. But peace, quietness, industry, patience, have no historian, yet the things of the Truth are often pursued under such circumstances.

a Sig. "Thorn." Site unknown. Shechem was in Ephraim, and it could have been that Tola removed from Issachar to Shamir to better re-organise and supervise the affairs of Israel after the anarchy of Abimelech See V.1.

JAIR OF GILEAD Vv1-5.

7 Seg. "He enlightens." A previous Gileadite of the same name, and probably family had conquered the towns called "Havoth-jair" Num. 32:41. Jair's influence seems to have been mainly east of Jordan.

THE LAND INVADED Vv7-9

Thus sin gave way to suffering. Israel was sold into the hands of those whose gods they worshipped.

Lit. "They brake and crushed." All resistance was swept aside as the victorious Ammonites imposed their will on a people that had neglected and deserted its true Defence

YAHWEH SUPPLICATED Vv10-14.

Under the terrible oppression they suffered the people learned to appreciate the goodness of Yahweh Whom they had neglected. Once more they turn to Him.

This is inevitable. One cannot for long cast God without serving some god, even if it is only self. V.6.

"The Hebrew words for "to divine" "to practise magic" "idolatrous priests" and like words are of Syriac origin. The Syrians must have proved very attractive to King Ahaz 2 Kings 16:10-12.

"DID EVIL AGAIN" V. 6.

This statement links with Jud. 6:1, indicating that the apostasy which followed could have been contemporaneous with that of Jair. See the use of this phrase throughout Jud. 2:11; 3:7; 4:1; 6:1; 10:6; 13:1 relating to 6 servitudes. It is not recorded that Jair defended the people from an invader - merely that he judged them. He could have defended Gilead from the encroachments of the Ammonites in the south - which the narration now proceeds to describe. See Note pp. 1 Kg 6:1.

Quietness has no history. War, bloodshed, victory, defeat are recorded in detail. But peace, quietness, industry, patience, have no historian. Yet the things of the Truth are often pursued under such circumstances.

JAIR'S CITIES. V.4. The words "cities" and "ass colts" are the same consonants in Hebrew being a play on words 'AYIM. Their common root is 'UWR (עור), signifying to "open" the eyes, to "awake" or rise up. The 30 sons acted as 30 princes over 30 cities. Their status was [illegible]

THE TWELVE DISTRICTS OF JUDAH JOSH. 15.

This is as much Scripture as other portions of the Word should be treated as such.

DISTRICT 1: THE NEGEB. Vv. 21-32.

The best-known of the places are Kadesh, Beersheba, Hormah, Ziklag. Portion of this territory was also allocated to Simeon Ch. 19:2-6.

DISTRICT 2: THE SHEPHELAH Vv. 33-36.

Particularly east & west of the north-South depression from Zorah & nearby Eshtaol Jud. 13:25. just north of valley of Sorek to Azekah which dominates the Valley of Elah just west of the great depression, and the heights north (Jarmuth) & south of the Wadi es-Sant (Socoh, Adullam). The best known places are Zorah (Samson's birthplace on border Dan) Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah. The total is given as 14 cities Josh. 15:36. but 15 are listed. LXX omits Adithaim perhaps consciously harmonising the record. Perhaps the Hebrew took no heed of Zorah as relating to Dan.

DISTRICT 3: ALSO PART SHEPHELAH Vv. 37-41.

Particularly in the south-west and probably centred around the fortress of Lachish

DISTRICT 4: CENTRAL SHEPHELAH Vv. 42-44.

This was between the Wadi es-Sant and Wadi el-Afrans. Notable places in O.T. are Libnah, Keilah, Mareshah, home of Micah the prophet Mic. 1:1.

DISTRICT 5: THE PHILISTINE PLAIN Vv. 45-47.

It is obvious that Philistine power had not developed to the extent that we find it in the time of the Judges.

DISTRICT 6: THE HILL COUNTRY Vv. 48-51.

The beginning of the hill country south of Hebron & north of Beersheba. This is described as "the land of Goshen" Ch. 11:16. Goshen probably being the capital of the district.

DISTRICT 7: THE HILL COUNTRY. Vv. 52-54.

A little north of the previous district, including the city of Hebron.

DISTRICT 8: THE HILL COUNTRY Vv. 55-57.

East of the watershed and south-east of Hebron. The region where David maintained himself as an outlaw from Saul. Maon, Carmel, Ziph, and Jezreel are among its settlements.

DISTRICT 9: THE HILL COUNTRY Vv. 58-59

The hill country north of Hebron, with Beth-zur as its capital.

DISTRICT 10: THE HILL COUNTRY Vv.

The LXX adds an additional verse describing the hill country around Bethlehem – "The Ko and Ephratha that is Bethlehem, & Phagor & Aitan & Koulon & Tatam & Sobes & Karem & Galem & Thether & Manocho - eleven cities & their villages.

DISTRICT 11: THE HILL COUNTRY V. 60.

The area around Jerusalem. Only two cities are mentioned: Kirjath Jearim & the unknown Rabbah.

DISTRICT 12: THE WILDERNESS OF JUDAH Vv. 61-62.

The steppe south-east of Jerusalem to the Dead Sea & the lower Jordan Valley reaching south to En-gedi.

DEBORAH & SISERA DELIVER ISRAEL

JEPHTHAH: THE AMMONITES AND EPHRAIM

- 10,000 recruits from Naphtali & Zebulun. 4:10.
- Concentrate their forces on the easily defended slopes of Tabor overlooking the Valley Esdraelon. 4:6
- Sisera's 900 chariots move to the base of Tabor eventually besieging Barak. "Drawn there" by concentration forces 4:6
- Contingents from Ephraim, Benjamin and Issachar converge on Taanach & Megiddo adjacent to the Kishon Jud. 5:14-15.
- This concentration of hostile forces at his rear "draws" Sisera towards the Kishon in the marshy area close to Megiddo and Taanach Jud. 4:7. 5:19.
- As storm clouds gather (5:20) Deborah gives the order to attack Jud. 4:14. The storm renders the chariots ineffective, & Sisera's forces flee on foot to escape back to Harosheth.
- Sisera panicked and ignominiously fled towards Zaanaim. Partook to report to Jabin in Hazor

NOTES.

- The number of Sisera's chariots is not unduly excessive. Pharaoh Thutmose III captured 924 chariots as used by his Canaanitish opponents in what is called The Battle of Megiddo.
- In this same spot in April 1918 torrents of water contributed to the defeat of the Turks, and numbers of their fleeing troops were swept away & drowned. In Nov. 1 English troops found that 15 minutes of rain on the clay soil rendered cavalry manoeuvre absolutely impossible - "Conquest - Crisis."

JEPHTHAH'S CAMPAIGN

CH. 11:11. As a man of faith Heb. 11:32. immediately upon his elevation, he spread the whole matter before Yahweh in prayer, both his choice to the office and his execution of the office. He leaned not to his understandings or courage, but depended on God & His favour. In all his ways he acknowledged Yahweh & sought His direction. He opened his campaign with prayer.

V.12. He acted according to the law Deut. 20:10-11, 21:26. Cp Prov. 25:8-9.

V.14. He acted moderately & refused to be incensed by the King of Ammon's refusal to concede facts.

V.16. Jephthah had well studied the records of Moses. His arguments are clear & cogent & his demands reasonable. He only demanded that the Ammonites cease to harass a people who had neither injured them, nor intended to do so. In V.24. he acknowledges the Divine over-ruling of national powers & possessions Dan. 4:17; Acts 17:26. The Israelites did not take the lands of the Moabites or Ammonites but that of the Amorites - and they were God-directed in doing so.

STRATEGY. Ammon was in a strategic & geopolitical position of the first order due to its command of a section of the "Kings' Highway", the international artery linking Syria with southern Transjordan, whence it continued to the Gulf of Aqaba & the Arabian peninsula, while another branch ran across the Jordan into western Palestine. This domination of an intersection of roads lent Ammon considerable political power & unusual economic prosperity, particularly in periods when it could bring under control the caravan trade of the desert tribes.

On the other hand because of its precarious geographical position, a lack of "strategic depth," & because of the frequent pressure of marauding desert tribes to the east as well as more settled nations to the west and south, the Ammonites were compelled to fortify their borders far more thoroughly than their neighbours who were able to rely partly on natural defence lines. The great organisational & technical ability of the Ammonites is clearly evidenced in the chain of border fortresses surrounding Rabbath-Ammon on the west & south Num. 21:24 which were discovered during the archaeological surveys of the 30s & again, the 50s - 60s of the present century by Glueck and others. The store network of some built on a square or rectangular plan, but mainly of them of a distinct circular type (known as Rujm el-Malfuf) offered an efficient means of communication, vital in foiling attempts of penetration into the heart of the country.

Gideon's hope of victory under God, lay in surprising his enemy while dismounted & off guard (i.e. at night). JEPHTHAH'S CHARACTER. It is not only testified that he was a man of faith Heb. 11:32. but this is manifested by his reply to Ammon that revealed a thorough grip of Yahweh's dealing with the nation. He evidently brought up his daughter in the fear of Yahweh, and his dignified handling of Ephraim reveals a man of faith, courage understanding and tact.

Driven from home, he betook himself to a wild marauding life on the borders of the tribe. In this way he acquired the tactics of warfare and the art of leading and governing men. W.

his brethren, and dwelt in the land of [a]Tob: and there were gathered [b]vain men to Jephthah, and went out with him.

4 ¶ And it came to pass [c]in process of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel.

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, [d]the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of [a]Tob:

6 And they said unto Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, [e]Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why are ye come unto me now when ye are in distress?

8 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we turn again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be [f]our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, shall I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, The LORD be witness between us, [g]if we do not so according to thy words.

11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him [h]head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words [i]before the LORD in [j]Mizpeh.

12 ¶ And Jephthah sent messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, [c]Because Israel took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from [d]Arnon even unto [e]Jabbok, and unto Jordan: now therefore restore those lands again peaceably.

14 And Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon:

15 And said unto him, Thus saith Jephthah, [o]Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon:

16 But when Israel came up from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness [p]unto the Red sea, and [q]came to Kadesh;

17 Then [r]Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: [s]but the king of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in like manner they sent unto the king of Moab: but he would not consent: and Israel [t]abode in Kadesh.

18 Then they went along through the wilderness, and [u]compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and [v]came by the east side of the land of Moab, [w]and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 And [x]Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said unto him, [y]Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land into my place.

11 Who was to lead them? There was only one organised army - the body guard of Jephthah - and men of faith were conspicuous by their absence. In their necessity they remembered him whom they despised

THE RECALL

12 Evidently Jephthah's brothers were among the elders, or the latter endorsed and supported the action of the former.

12A The national emergency required an interpreter. A band of men turned instinctively to Jephthah, whose reputation as a military leader was already established.

13 Notice how action of elders, endorsed by the people, and ratified by Yahweh

14 Civil and military leadership. Both had been offered him Cp 11:5-8.

15 An official ceremony in which his new status was endorsed before Yahweh and the people.

16 This was heartbroken of people in Gilead. See note Ch 10:17.

DIPLOMACY. Vv 12-28.

17 Notice the official and authoritative form of address.

MIZPEH: 2 Places. By Jacob's "Heap of Witness" Gen. 31:49 Or Ramoth-Mizpah of God Josh. 13:26. It was the home town of Jephthah Jud. 11:34. (other Mizpeh east of Jordan). As the Tabernacle was in Shiloh Jud. 18:31. evidently the high priest came to Mizpeh with the Ephod Cp 1 Sam 23:6, 9.

AMMON. - Descendants of younger son of Lot. Gen. 19:38. Originally occupied a tract of country east of Amorites, and separated from Moab by River Arnon previously in possession of a gigantic race called Zamzummims Deut. 2:20. Israel commanded not to attack them Deut. 2:19 but this act of friendship not returned. Deut. 23:4. They are still found in hostile attitude in connection with the invasion of Eglon the Moabite Jud. 3:13. Now the Israelites are found seeking the god of their oppressors Jud. 10:6 - so Yahweh gave them into the hand of Ammon.

3 Notice the plausible but not factual reply Israel was commanded "not to meddle" with Ammon Deut. 2:19 but the Ammonites abused this preferential treatment Deut. 23:3. Israel had found some of the land of Ammon and Moab occupied by Amorites, who rejecting the friendly approach by Moses, waged war on Israel, and were defeated. The Ammonites had thus no claim against Israel. See Notes Deut. 3:11.

MOAB'S HOSTILITY Vv 16-19

16 Apparently Moab and Ammon allied at this time. The land referred to is mainly the territory of Moab. Num. 21:

He sought peace Jg. 12:17; Judg. 12:18; Heb. 12:14; 1 Pet. 3:11.

The peaceful approach of Israel being thus rejected Moab was responsible for the results of any hostility

Vv 12-28. All the localities mentioned in the correspondence were in Moab not in Ammon, the god Chemosh v 24. was the Moabite god. Perhaps Ammon had occupied Moab giving further point to Jephthah's argument. If Ammon occupied Moab's territory it had no point of quarrel with Israel for doing likewise.

AMORITES INCITED ISRAEL TO BATTLE Vv. 19-20.

Amorites assumed control of Moab lost its right to the land.

21 Thus war was forced on Israel. Jephthah's recital of the historical facts shows that Ammon never directly attacked.

YAHWEH GAVE ISRAEL THE LAND Vv. 21-22.

18 "THAT YEAR" - Perhaps the closing year of the oppression when the Ammonites crossed Jordan. The first act would bring the Israelites to repentance 10:11-16.

10:6-7. THE PHILISTINES.

Previously restricted to the south of Judah 3:31., they gradually increased their power until they reached their height in the days of Saul. In the present instance they were probably in alliance with Ammonites, holding western tribes in check whilst the Ammonites did the eastern across.

349 JEPHTHAH'S CASE

1. Ammonites had lost to Amorites V 20.
2. Israel conquered from Amorites who had waged unprovoked war on Israel V 20.
3. Moab had rejected friendly advances of Israel V 17.
4. Yahweh gave the land as a Divine grant to His people V 21. As Ammon and Moab accepted the authority of Chemosh so Israel did that of Yahweh V 24.
5. Israel had occupied the land 300 yrs. V 26.
6. It had never been reclaimed by Ammon all that time - Thus the present pretensions unjustifiable V 26.

months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows."

38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned unto her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel,

40 That the daughters of Israel went yearly to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gilead-ite four days in a year.

It is specifically stated that he did "according to his vow" V.39. Yet to excuse the mistaken act of the great judge, it is claimed that he dedicated his daughter to perpetual virginity! Was this "according to his vow"? There was no provision in the law for such an act. Jephthah's action is plain. He dedicated to Yahweh that which came out of his house, and if suitable he would offer it as a burnt offering. In either case it meant death. Lev. 27:28. It did also in the case of Jonathan when Saul made a similar foolish vow (see Note V.30) and he was only saved by the action of the people. Jephthah's grief makes only too evident that death faced his daughter. Josephus well characterises the vow as "neither sanctioned by the mosaic law, nor acceptable to God."

Moab never fought to recover lost land though it did for person aggrandisement Judg. 3:12-14.

YAHWEH DISPOSSESSED AMORITES VV. 23-24

22 Yahweh is a greater authority than the Ammonites
23 The god of Moab, but worshipped also by Ammon. See Note Num. 21:29. They claimed him as their guide and strength, and must be content with the possessions he was supposed to grant. They held on to lands they conquered. They did not originally possess the land upon which they dwelt. Deut. 2:19-20] — so also would Israel.

PREPARATIONS FOR WAR.

29 Diplomacy having failed Jephthah set out to mobilise his forces. Stirred to enthusiasm by the Spirit of Yahweh, he swept through the land from one end to the other, to kindle the torch of war and rouse the population
29 A rallying point for the eastern tribes Cp. V. 11.
Jephthah seems first to have roused the warriors of Mt Gilead, then crossed the Jabbok into Manasseh, then returned at the head of his recruits to his headquarters at Mizpeh & then with his whole army marched against the Ammonites who occupied the southern parts of Gilead.
29. Cp. 6:34. NTE 13:25. Cp. Acts 16:6-7.

JEPHTHAH'S VOW.

Let it be clearly recognised, that many men more cruelly sacrifice their daughters than did Jephthah when they give them up to the Altar of pride, position or worldliness, encouraging a fleshly vanity for the things of the world that can lose for them the Kingdom. The Spirit directing Jephthah in what was required for victory V.29, did not prevent him erring in his unwise vow, nor Gideon doing so in regard to the Ephod Judg. 8:27. Cp 1 Cor. 14:23. Cor. 8:2; 11-14. He could have been motivated by Abraham's example in not withholding his son.

THE VOW. VV. 30-31

The vow was a rash one, made in the enthusiasm and excitement of the moment, under pressure of circumstances similar to that of Saul 1 Sam. 14:24. Cp VV. 27-29. 44-45.

28 But even accepting margin, it still implied death for the one offered Lev. 27.

VICTORY VV. 32-33.

Unconscious of the tragedy impending Jephthah wins a great victory, being stimulated by the Spirit of Yahweh.
29 Along eastern border. [c] Aroer (Ahlily) not V.26. but a town built in God Num 32:34. Minnith = mod. Menneh - 4 m. east Heshbon

TRAGEDY. VV. 34-36

From the joy and thrill of victory, and the happy picture of Jephthah's daughter leading the dance of victory, the narrative is plunged into the depths of grief and tragedy.
30 What did Jephthah imagine would come out of his door to meet him V.31. He possibly did not give it any thought at the time. Only now does the folly of the vow break home upon him. Faith demands its execution Lev 5:4.
31 The triumph of faith and victory is crushed in the sacrifice. Jephthah feels he must make the acclamation of the people, the joyful celebrations headed by his own daughter were hushed as the grief-stricken parent recognises the implication of his own rash vow. So there was mourning in Israel in the moment of deliverance.
32 Lit. "Thou hast crushed me! Thou hast crushed me!" Were these the expressions of a man about to give his daughter to the Tabernacle service as implied by some!

In that he was right. But he was wrong in his conception of the character of God that led him to making such a vow.

CHAPTER 12

EPHRAIM PLUNGES ISRAEL INTO WAR. As was the case with Gideon

GIL summary of EPHRAIM'S PRIDE

Proud men cannot bear to see others praised. Envy brings jealous contention into the ranks of those who should be united to fight Yahweh's battles.

Jud. 8:1. Ephraim took offence because they had not been called to take a foremost part in the battle and victory. They looked upon themselves as the principal tribe for the position of firstborn came to them through Joseph. 1 Chron. 5:1. and Joshua was of Ephraim Num. 13:8. Usually applied in sense it cannot pronounce Shibboleth of sect considered heretical But that not sense here. But that not sense here used. The Ephraimites had mocked Jephthah and now were lying to conceal their true identity It was but a small thing - the pronunciation of a letter - that revealed them for what they were. So it is in life. It is the little things that reveal our true character. These are the Shibboleths that will ultimately bring our acceptance or rejection at the Judgement seat.

351 EPHRAIM AS TYPE Jud 8:25 8:1

Ephraim wins a decisive battle, yet Judg 7:25, but no fortress for pride demands the first place Jud. 8:1 and becomes abusive in its demands. The tribe is only appeased by Gideon's genuine humility. Many a sainted warrior in public life become a dangerous man depending more on in peace. Christ's followers have been given the status of priesthood + this has proved a snare to the house of the anti-types Gideon leading the way to the false priesthood - priests of Rome.

EPHRAIM'S OVERBEARING PRIDE Jud

12:1 : The tribe again reveals a divisive attitude - as it did towards Gideon Jud. 8:1. See also its attitude towards Joshua Josh. 17:14-18. This finally caused complete separation in the time of Jeroboam.

CIVIL WAR IN ISRAEL

Instead of applauding the faith and victory of Jephthah, and acknowledging that Yahweh worked through him, Ephraim plunges Israel into civil war to further trouble by their overbearing attitude.

With insolent disregard of Jephthah's service and worth, they mock him and his men, saying in effect: "You are but fugitives of the tribes, ill-born, ill-bred, Ephraim won't have you! Manasseh won't have you! You are playing between the two, being fugitives of both. I pray with you!"

2 ¶ And there was a certain man of [c] Zorah, [3] of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; [3] and his wife [6] was barren, and bare not. [7]

3 And the [c] angel of the LORD appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive, and bear a son. [Solomon left. Heb 11:32]

Before the introduction of iron [1200 B.C.] copper [then bronze [tin added to copper] had been used for the manufacture of implements and weapons.

Once the Philistine power was broken by Saul and David, the secret of the iron smelting process became known, and metal became into common use in Israel. See app.

[3] See "Hornet" from a root "to scourge." It became the home town of the scourge of the Philistines. Zorah stood on a vine-clad rising overlooking the broad plains of Philistia, [4] with their fields of waving corn, their plains between Judah and Ephraim, and lacking the protection of the hill country felt the full weight of the Philistine oppression.

[6] Her name is nowhere given in Scripture, yet she stands as an example of good logic in reasoning and of high spiritual calibre. According to Josephus, they [7] fervently desired children, and supplicated Yahweh for such. As Samson was to be a Nazarite from the womb, she was required to also live the life of a Nazarite.

[8] His long hair was the symbol of his mission. He apparently took no vow and thus was not a Nazarite in the full sense of term. See Num. 6:9-18. Samson's life did not conform fully to that of the Nazarite.

THE PROMISE OF A DELIVERER. Vv. 1-23.

The deliverance effected by Jephthah relieved the pressure of the Ammonites upon the North-Eastern section of Israel, but still left the Philistines dominating in the south. Jud. 10:7 Now a Deliverer is promised for the south-west.

thou didst send come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born. / ha-Elohim

9 And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman made haste, and ran, and shewed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day. [12]

11 And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him, Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am.

12 And Manoah said, Now let thy words come [13] to pass. How shall we order the child, and [5] how shall we do unto him? [14]

13 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto the woman let her beware.

14 She may not eat of any thing that cometh of the vine, [k] neither let her drink wine [1] or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: all that I commanded her let her observe.

15 ¶ And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, I pray thee, [n] let us detain thee, until we shall have made ready a kid [6] for thee. [15]

16 And the angel of the LORD said unto Manoah, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread: [16] and if thou wilt offer a burnt offering, thou must offer it unto the LORD. For Manoah knew not that he was an angel of the LORD.

17 And Manoah said unto the angel of the LORD, [q] What is thy name, that when thy sayings come to pass we may do thee honour?

PHILISTINES CONT.

Smelting. This is inferred from excavations and from 1 Sam. 13:19-22. With their superior iron weapons they were able to dominate the Israelites [Westminster Historical Atlas]

Before the introduction of iron [1200 B.C.] copper then bronze [tin added to copper] had been used for the manufacture of implements and weapons.

Once the Philistine power was broken by Saul and David, the secrets of the iron smelting process became known, and metal became into common use in Israel. See App. 35B.

SAMSON: He was a man strong physically but weak morally, who suffered shipwreck through following "the desire of the eyes"; & permitting himself to be ensnared by a heathen woman. His life came to nothing. Blinded by his enemies, he buried them & himself in the ruins of the idolatrous temple in which the Philistines had gathered to feast over his miseries. "The story of Samson & his ruin struggles fitly closes the period of the Judges, while presaging the more ominous times when the Jebusite will seek & find, in union under a central monarchy, their freedom & their future." -Gardiner. (From songna)

Something more than mere faith necessary. Heb. 11:32. The story of Samson is full of sadness. It reveals a nation utterly deteriorated & disintegrated, & a man who through self-indulgence wrecked & excruciatingly loses his God-given power to deliver his people. The time was also, to come, when Scripture would record of him "he knew not that Yahweh was departed from him" Jud. 16:20. [to all of it of Israel. Rom. 11:25

Ex. 13:13 "And every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the firstborn of man among thy children shalt thou redeem." Ex. 13:15 "And it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the LORD slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the firstborn of my children I redeem." Ex. 22:29 "Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give unto me." Ex. 34:19 "All that openeth the matrix is mine; and every firstling among thy cattle, whether ox or sheep, that is male." Num. 3:12 "And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of every firstborn that openeth the matrix among the children of Israel: therefore the Levites shall be mine;" Num. 3:13 "Because all the firstborn are mine; for on the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast: mine shall they be: I am the LORD." Num. 8:16 "For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; instead of such as open every matrix, even the firstborn of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me." Num. 8:17 "For all the firstborn of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them for myself." Num. 8:18 "And I have taken the Levites for all the firstborn of the children of Israel." Num. 18:15 "Every thing that openeth the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the LORD, whether it be of men or beasts, shall be thine: nevertheless the firstborn of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem." Deut. 15:19 "All the firstling males that come of thy herd and of thy flock thou shalt sanctify unto the LORD thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of thy bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep." Luke 2:23 "(As it is written in the law of the LORD, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the LORD;)"

SAMSON. • It was his amusement to plunge headlong into peril, from which he extricated himself by his remarkable strength.
• The terror of his name retarded the progress of the Philistines and their conquests, and inspired courage into the disheartened Israelites
• His life began in marvel and ended in the deepest tragedy. See pp. 352, 354
• Above all else he was a man of faith. — Heb. 11:32.

18 And the angel of the LORD said unto him, [a] Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is (2) secret?

19 So Manoah [c] took a kid with [d] a meat offering, and offered it upon a rock unto the LORD: and the angel did wonderously; and Manoah and his wife looked on.

20 For it came to pass, [f] when the flame went up toward heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar. And Manoah and his wife looked on it, and [i] fell on their faces to the ground.

21 But the angel of the LORD did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife. [l] Then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the LORD.

22 And Manoah said unto his wife, [m] We shall surely die, because we have seen God.

23 But his wife said unto him, If the LORD were pleased to kill us, he would not have received [n] a burnt offering and a meat offering at our hands, neither would he have shewed us all these things, nor would as at this time have told us such things as these.

24 ¶ And the woman bare a son, and called his name Samson: and [r] the child grew, and the LORD blessed him.

25 [s] And the Spirit of the LORD began to [t] move him at times in the camp of Dan between Zorah and Eshtaol.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Samson desireth a wife of the Philistines. 5 He killeth a lion, 8 and findeth honey in the carcase. 10 Samson's marriage feast. 12 His riddle is made known. 19 He spoileth thirty Philistines.

AND Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines.

2 And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore [b] get her for me to wife.

3 Then his father and his mother said unto him, Is there never a woman among the daughters of [e] thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the [g] uncircumcised? And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me; for she pleaseth me well.

4 But his father and his mother knew not that it was [h] of the LORD, that he sought an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time [k] the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

5 ¶ Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and, behold, a young lion roared against him.

6 And [o] the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and he had nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

7 And he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.

8 ¶ And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcase of the lion: and, behold, there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcase of the lion.

9 And he took thereof in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat: but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the carcase of the lion.

10 ¶ So his father went down unto the woman: and Samson made there a feast; for so used the young men to do.

CHAPTER 14.

THE WOMAN OF TIMNATH.

Timnath (Sig. "An assigned portion") was on the border of Judah and Dan, then in occupation of Philistines. Originally given to Judah Josh. 15:57, but afterwards given to Dan. Josh. 19:43.

SAMSON DESIRES MARRIAGE WITH PHILISTINE WOMAN 1-7.

Led by the beauty of a woman to transgress the Law, Samson's offence is used by Yahweh to punish the Philistines.

1 Such a marriage was contrary to the Law Ex. 34:16. Deut. 7:3.

2 They were outside the covenant and thus consigned to death. See note Gen. 17:14.

3 Thus the appeal of the flesh blinded Samson to the requirements of Law.

4 He permitted it — but this did not justify Samson. Cp. Jdg. 16:6-7.

5 Heb. "A lion of lions."

6 He apparently went down on his own — not with his parents

7 He did not destroy it in his own strength, nor did it come at his own command.

8 There is here an absence of vanity Ch. 15:16.

As bees avoid all kinds of decomposition, all decayed material must have been cleared away by birds or other means, leaving a skeleton.

9 Regarding marriage see Note 3 Ch. 3.

10 It was not in a public place

THE MARRIAGE Vv. 10-11

To arrange payment of dowry

13 A NIGHTER - Drinking party — a Philistine custom, incongruous for a Nazarite

14 Saw what sort of a man he was. LXX = Because they feared him.

THE GOOD LOGIC OF MANOAH'S WIFE 22-25.

BIRTH OF SAMSON 24-25

19 Sig. "Little Sun." He was strong, bright and beaming as the sun. His seven weaving locks Jud. 16:13, twisted together, yet distinct, which hung over his shoulders were like the beams of the sun. See below He is shown to be humour as well as strength. Is. 11:5. The coarse, stupid and brutal Philistines became the butt of his wit and humour.

20 As he grew it became obvious that he was no ordinary child, and that Yahweh had a special work for him. He was filled at the appointed time with the Spirit.

21 He felt the degrading bondage of his countrymen and a strong desire to effect something for their deliverance.

22 Probably the site of the first encampment of Dan. Josh. 19:41. It was the ancestral burying place of Manoah Jud. 16:31. Samson's work was probably to stimulate the people of Dan to trust in Yahweh and throw off the yoke of Philistia. These incidents are not recorded. Samson's life was far greater than the few incidents recorded indicate Heb. 11:32.

23 Sig. "Petition." On border of Judah.

Lit. - "To strike him" — like a gong, until the sound reverberated throughout Israel. - like the balls on Aaron's garments. "People's Bible" — "To agitate" or thrash him."

They are like Babylon the Great: religion, but belligerent + warlike, particularly towards those separated unto God. They were hinderers in the path of Abraham + Isaac, invariably opposed to Israel, + ultimately laying claim to the Land of Promise which is given the title of Palestine in consequence. The Nazarite, separated one, is set in opposition: strong but weak. The work of Samson the Nazarite is completed by Samuel the Nazarite. 1 Sam. 7:9 and David the King.

SAMSON: "Shimshon does not mean "sunlike", "there of the sun", from 'shemesh' (the sun), but, as Josephus explains it (Ant. 5 & 8), "the strong or daring one from the intensive form shim shem of," shamen, in its original sense of "to be strong" or "daring" - Kell - from Monumental Bible.

SAMSON'S UNFORTUNATE MARRIAGE 2 Cor. 6:14

He who in the choice of a wife is guided only by his eye + governed by his fancy must afterwards thank himself if he finds a Philistine in his arms. V. 3. Yahweh overrules his mistakes to raise occasion against His enemies. Vv. 4, 6, 19.

ASHKELON V19. According to Barnes Rameses III took Ashkelon & ruled in it for 25 years. His inscriptions reveal that the city was occupied by Hebrews at the time, not Canaanites.

SAMSON'S ACCOUNT is divided into three sections: 1. The notice of his judgeship of 20 years providing evidence of his heroic acts which win for him the place of acknowledged authority which he retains for the time 2. His fall & ruin through being false to his Nazariteship 3. His descent and restoration.

15 These were styled "Friends of the Bridegroom," the chief of whom was styled "the friend" See Jn 3:29. Josephus comments: "In pretence to be his companions but in reality to be a guard upon him that he might not attempt any disturbance." Samson seems to have treated them with ridicule and contempt.

12 ¶ And Samson said unto them, I will now [a]put forth a riddle unto you: if ye can certainly declare it me within [d]the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty [3]sheets and thirty [e]change of garments:

13 But if ye cannot declare it me, then shall ye give me thirty [3]sheets and thirty [e]change of garments. And they said unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it.

14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, [h]Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, [k]lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us [4]to take that we have? is it not so?

16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, [l]Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

17 And she wept before him [G]the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because [m]she lay sore upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, 20 But Samson's wife [f]was given to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Samson is denied his wife. 3 He burneth the Philistines' corn. 9 He is bound by the men of Judah, and delivered to the Philistines. 14 He smiteth them with a jawbone.

BUT it came to pass within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with [f]a kid; and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in.

2 And her father said, I verily thought that thou hadst utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she? [5]take her, I pray thee, instead of her.

3 ¶ And Samson said concerning them, [H]Now shall I be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a displeasure.

4 And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took [2]firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails.

5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both "the shocks, and also "the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives.

6 ¶ Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And

SAMSON - THE TYPE.

- His last act was a mighty act of faith in which he destroyed many enemies, and sacrificed the flesh. — So it will be with Israel ultimately.
- He will rise to a glorious resurrection. — So will Israel. Hos. 6:2-3.

- In Samson — Israel had a mirror reflecting the characteristics of the nation.
- He was a Nazarite from birth — so also was Israel.
- He had a God-given strength — so also had Israel.
- He was impervious to the attack of his enemies — so also was Israel.
- The Philistines could not understand wherein the great strength of Samson lay — nor do the Gentiles understand the strength of Israel.
- He was constantly being led astray — so also was Israel.
- He became guilty of fornication — so also did Israel.
- His folly caused him to betray his vow — so also did the folly of Israel.
- His sin led to blindness — so also did the sin of Israel.
- Even in adversity his enemies were punished — so also are the enemies of Israel.
- Apart from obvious weaknesses, he has a record of faith and the assurance of a great future — so also has Israel.

they answered, Samson, the son in law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, and [a] burnt her and her father with fire.

7 ¶ And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will cease.

8 And he smote them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and dwelt in [c] the top of the rock Etam.

9 ¶ Then the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah, and [d] spread themselves in Lehi.

10 And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they answered, To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us.

11 Then three thousand men of Judah [e] went to [c] the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines are [h] rulers over us? what is this that thou hast done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them.

12 And they said unto him, We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves.

13 And they spake unto him, saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two [i] new cords, and brought him up from the rock.

14 ¶ And when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and [m] the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and [i] the cords that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands [2] loosed from off his hands.

15 And he found a [3] new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and [b] slew a thousand men therewith.

16 And Samson said, With the jawbone of an ass, heaps upon heaps, with the jaw of an ass have I slain a thousand men.

17 And it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place [5] Ramath-lehi.

18 ¶ And he was sore athirst, and called on the LORD, and said, Thou hast given this great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?

19 But God clave [f] an hollow place that was in the jaw, and there came water thereout; and when he had drunk, [g] his spirit came again, and he revived: wherefore he called the name thereof [7] En-hakkore, which is in Lehi unto this day.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Samson carrieth away the gates of Gaza. 4 Delilah enticeth him, 15 and overcometh him. 21 The Philistines put out his eyes. 23 Their feast to Dagon. 26 Samson's death.

THEN went Samson to [1] Gaza, and saw there [2] an harlot, and went in unto her.

2 And it was told the Gazites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they [m] compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were [3] quiet all the night, saying, In the morning, when it is day, we shall kill him.

3 And Samson lay till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and went away with them, [2] bar and all, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of an hill that is before Hebron.

4 ¶ And it came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman [3] in the valley of [a] Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

5 And [b] the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, [c] Entice him, and see wherein his great strength lieth, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to [d] afflict him: and we will give thee every one of us eleven hundred pieces of silver.

6 ¶ And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee.

7 And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with seven [e] green withs that were never dried, then shall I be weak, and be as [f] another man.

8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven [g] green withs which had not been dried, and she bound him with them.

9 Now there were men lying in wait, abiding with her in the chamber. And she said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he brake the withs, as a thread of tow is broken when it [h] toucheth the fire. So his strength was not known.

10 And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound.

11 And he said unto her, If they bind me fast with [h] new ropes [i] that never were occupied, [k] then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

12 Delilah therefore took [h] new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he brake them from off his arms like a thread.

13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Hitherto thou hast mocked me, and told me lies: tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound. And he said unto her, If thou weavest the seven locks of my head with the web.

14 And [d] she fastened it with the pin, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awaked out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web.

15 ¶ And she said unto him, [e] How canst thou say, I love thee, when thine heart is not with me? thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth.

16 And it came to pass, when she [f] pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was [g] vexed unto death;

17 That he told her all his heart, and said unto her, [a] There hath not come a razor upon mine head; for I have been a Nazarite unto God from my mother's womb: if I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this once, for he hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought [i] money in their hand.

19 And she made him sleep upon her knees; and she called for a man, and she caused him

It was evidently not in his stature. Samson's strength was out of proportion to his size.

The Philistines apparently imagined that his remarkable strength was the result of a charm. This suggestion from Samson kept alive by suggesting green withs, new ropes, binding of his seven locks.

THE FIRST ATTEMPT. Vv. 6-9.

The green withs prove ineffectual. See top.

Pliant tough wood, twisted in the form of rope. Samson allowed his human full play in permitting Delilah to bind him, but as soon as the presence of Philistines became known the humour disappeared - the strong tough fibre rope was broken and the man stood forth in all his fearsome power.

Coarse flax or hemp for spinning or twining - highly inflammable

THE THIRD ATTEMPT. Vv. 13-14

The binding of Samson's locks proves ineffectual.

13. His thread might be weaved in the loom.

14. Seven = perfection perhaps indicative of perfection of his status as Nazarene. See note Jud. 13:24

15. The web was the part of the loom which spread the thread out. The Sept. adds: "and shalt fasten them with the pin in the wall, I shall become weak, like other men and so it was that when he slept, Dalilah took the 7 locks of his head, & wove them with the web, & fastened it with the pin to the wall..."

Gilsburg suggests that some scribe, in copying the first words back to these last words, and so omitted the section preserved by the Sept.

THE FOURTH ATTEMPT. The Traitress Succeeds. Vv. 17-20.

16. These words illustrate the nature of Samson's wooing. Calmet has observed: "The weakness of Samson's heart in the whole of this history, is yet more astonishing than the strength of his body." (2 PET 2:7)

20 And she said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and [c]shake myself. And he wist not that the LORD was departed from him.

21 ¶ But the Philistines took him, and [3]put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gaza, and [f]bound him with fetters of brass; and [g]he did grind in the prison house.

22 Howbeit the hair of his head began to grow again [5]after he was shaven.

23 Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto [h]Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.

24 And when the people saw him, they [k]praised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, [6]which slew many of us.

25 And it came to pass, when their hearts were [m]merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made [7]them sport: and they set him between the pillars.

26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.

27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport.

28 And Samson called unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, [o]remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.

29 And Samson [4]took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and [2]on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, Let [q]me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that were therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than they which he slew in his life.

31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him [t]between Zorah and Eshtaol in the buryingplace of Manoah his father. And [t]he judged Israel twenty years.

THE STORY OF TWO LEVITES Chaps 17-21

The first is a story to be read aloud, to form the basis of public exhortation. The second to be read privately, and pondered over, both because of its terrible record, and the just and tremendous retribution dealt out to men who inflicted on Israel a scandal so bad, it was never to be forgotten.

The incidents of these chapters reduced Benjamin from a large tribe (Num. 26) to the smallest.

CHAPTER 17

MICAH THE EPHRAIMITE SETS UP A NEW HOUSE OF WORSHIP

MICAH THE ROBBER. Vv 1-3.

DAGON - Dag, little fish - term of endearment. Cp 1 Sam. 5:4. Ancient Babylonians believed that a being part man + part fish emerged from the Erythraean Sea + appeared at Babylonia in the early days of its history, teaching the people the various arts necessary to their well being. The god was supposed to represent the reproductive powers of nature, + the fish was an appropriate creature for such an idea, due to the enormous powers of reproduction. See Gen. 1:20. A single fish of some species can lay 30,000,000 annually. Representations of this have been found at Nineveh.

17 Typical of the lawlessness of the times. Did what was right in her own eyes - a form of self worship Col. 2:23.

MICAH'S WORSHIP was in its object and intention the worship of Yahweh. The images etc. were external emblems, like the calf of Aaron and calves of Jeroboam to aid in Divine worship. The religion of the not very honest Micah consisted in a blind and superstitious veneration for outward and visible symbols, and on ceremony and ritual. Hence his anxiety to have a priest, that the priest should be properly consecrated and clothed, and especially that he might be a legitimate Levite. His expectations were founded on this – not on character in himself or his Priest.

MICAH'S SON. His appointment as priest was but a makeshift. The thing was unnatural. He was too close to the family to demand the respect required. The wandering Levite was the answer.

V7. "He sojourned there"

Heb = GER-SHOM. Some render "son of Gershom" as in 18:30. He was grandson of Moses.

4. RV = "And."

V9. "Where I may find a place." – This shows the confusion & unsettled state of Israel, the cause of the apostasy. Levites were supposed to minister to all 12 Tribes. & not wander from place to place, like this. See note on their inheritance. Num. 19:23.

MICAH: THE BUILDER OF A CHURCH. V4.5-6.

From robbery to the building of a Church to his personal honor is a character ill-not confined to Micah's day.

5 This was like a private chapel within the house of Micah. Cf. 18:2, 16-17.

& Condemned by Samuel. 1 Sam. 15:23. R.V. They were images, but not of a particular Deity. That they were external objects designed to remind the possessor of the fact of Divine power – Jeroboam was condemned for doing similarly 1 Kings 12:33. See Margin. He filled his hand with a sacrifice. This was completely wrong.

The incidents submitted for our consideration illustrate the complete lawlessness of the times both politically and religiously. Cf Ch. 18:1; 19:1; 21:25 with Deut 12:8; Prov. 21:2.

MICAH: MAKER OF PRIESTS V4: 7-13.

Each step Micah takes is worse than the previous one.

7 He was evidently appointed to the tribe of Judah, but dissatisfied with his status there, he wanders forth looking for means to fulfil his ambition. V.9.

This wandering Levite seeking means to fulfil his ambition, who has deserted his true avocation to serve Micah and is ready to desert Micah to serve others, is an example of the "astonishing and horrible" state of the land. See Jer 5:30-31. See top margin

Here was security and sufficient substance for a beginning. So Micah's son was deposed. V.5 and the stranger installed.

For the time being.

Lit: "Filled his hand." See margin V.5. Consecrated him by a sacrifice. It was the duty of the Levite to instruct Micah, but to have done so would have forfeited the money, clothing and food.

14 Not Yahweh's priest.

15 An indication that his conscience was troubled, and a measure of his superstition. The presence of a priest is often thought "to do good" – but good only comes from individual effort. The answer to Micah's hope is given in the next chapter, where the priest from whom he expected good willingly deserts him. He was probably influenced by the Levite relationship to Moses. 2 And the children of Dan sent of their family five men from their coasts, [3] men of valour, from [i] Zorah, and from Eshtaol, [l] to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said unto them, Go, search the land: who when they came [m] to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they lodged there.

3 When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite: and they turned in thither, and said unto him, Who brought thee hither? and what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here? Pr 28:21. Is 56:11. Ez 13:19 Jn 10:12

4 And he said unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath [q] hired me, and I am his priest.

5 And they said unto him, [r] Ask counsel, we pray thee, [s] of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous.

6 And the priest said unto them, [u] Go in peace: before the LORD is your way wherein ye go.

7 ¶ Then the five men departed, and came to [w] Laish, and saw the people that were therein, how they dwelt careless, after the manner of the Zidonians, [b] quiet and secure; and there was no [7] magistrate in the land, that might put them to shame in any thing; and they were far from the Zidonians, and had no business with any man.

Close by the house of Micah was the chapel or building erected for worship. The Danites evidently heard the Levite intent upon his duties.

DANITES SEEKING AN INHERITANCE LOCKE BY MICAH. V1-2

MICAH'S WORSHIP He was prepared to spend hundreds of shekels in making the images of his worship, but only ten shekels a year to the priest consecrated to assist him.

MICAH'S HOUSE: The Danites lodged at his house 18:2 adjacent to which was his Beth-Elohim 17:5 and probably other buildings 18:4. They probably formed a court which was entered by a single gate. The whole settlement was probably called Beth-Micah.

8 And they came unto their brethren to [b] Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brethren said unto them, What say ye?

9 And they said, [c] Arise, that we may go up against them: for we have seen the land, and, behold, it is very good: and are ye [d] still? be not slothful to go, and to enter to possess the land.

10 When ye go, ye shall come unto a people [e] secure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands; [f] a place where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

11 ¶ And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of [b] Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men [g] appointed with weapons of war.

12 And they went up, and pitched in [h] Kirjath-jearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place [i] Mahaneh-dan unto this day: behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim.

13 And they passed thence unto [m] mount Ephraim, and came unto the house of Micah.

14 ¶ [n] Then answered the five men that went to spy out the country of Laish, and said unto their brethren, Do ye know that [p] there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? now therefore consider what ye have to do.

15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even unto the house of Micah, and [q] saluted him.

16 And the [r] six hundred men appointed with their weapons of war, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entering of the gate.

17 And [s] the five men that went to spy out the land went up, and came in thither, and took [a] the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood in the entering of the gate with the six hundred men that were appointed with weapons of war.

18 And these went into Micah's house, and fetched the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. Then said the priest unto them, What do ye?

19 And they said unto him, Hold thy peace, [t] lay thine hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, [h] and be to us a father and a priest: is it better for thee to be a priest unto the house of one man, or that thou be a priest unto a tribe and a family in Israel?

20 And the priest's [u] heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.

21 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and [v] the carriage before them.

22 ¶ And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

23 And they cried unto the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said unto Micah, What aileth thee, [w] that thou comest with such a company?

24 And he said, [x] Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, What aileth thee?

25 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest [y] angry fellows run upon thee,

TYPICAL FORESHADOWING

The Danites leave their God-given inheritance for a life of ease and fleshly indulgence V.v1, 27. They meet up with the hireling priest. The greater personal advantage to himself outweighs all obligations to his employer and makes him "glad" V. 20. For the Danites there is no need to respect the man who by reason of his office has, or is supposed to have, the ear of God. Somerality is divorced from religion. Prophetical foreshadowing.

11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in into this city of the Jebusites, and lodge in it.
12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn aside hither into the city of a stranger, that is not of the children of Israel; we will pass over to (2)Gibeah.
13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and let us draw near to one of these places to lodge all night, in Gibeah, or in (1)Ramah.

HAPPY RECONCILIATION. VV 5-8

Peace between parties having been established, the father-in-law in his great joy is loathe to see the expense of his son-in-law depart. V 25. It was probably this same attitude that caused the estrangement with his wife in the first instance. Love in the picture - or any other sense was lacking.

SÂ'ND - Support, strengthen, refresh.

The legal scruples of the Levite show in sharp contrast his criminal action in saving his life at the expense of his wife.

Meanwhile the fateful decision is made, and the impending tragedy brought a step nearer.

So unsuspecting they quietly trudge on to disaster and bloodshed.

Only 4 miles further on - but how fateful - what scandal, shame and violence they brought! Gibeah signifies "Hill". It was on the high road to the north and was the place of Saul's residence 1 Sam. 10:26. This was, to the Levite, a place of friends!!!

14. Here is true hospitality. He is prepared to put himself out for the benefit of the passing stranger and to bear the cost of doing so. The only person prepared to show hospitality in that evil place was this stranger v 16.

THE VILE CHARACTER OF THE BENJAMITES OF GIBEAH 22-25

"Sons of worthlessness." Translated "the wicked one" in Nah. 1:15. It also signifies extreme wickedness and destruction, the latter indicating the destiny of the former (vine). In 2 Cor 6:15 Belial personifies impure religion. Originally the word possibly signified "Lord of the forest" possibly being identified with the impure rites of paganism. See margin. R.V. m.

These Benjamites of Gibeah were profligate rascals of the deepest dye, vile brutes being a disgrace to humanity, unfit to live, so that the protection Benjamin gave them was inexcusable. See note Jud. 20:5

He was a stranger in Gibeah (V 16) as also was Lot.

The term of hospitality in the East demanded that the host not only provided shelter, but the utmost protection also.

THE TRAGEDY Vv 25-28

This was a similar offer as that made by Lot Gen. 19:7 but in neither case was the suggestion acted upon for there is no record of the daughter of this man being given over to the mob. Could it be that the suggestion was made to shame the men and not to be acted upon seriously.

Their threats of violence became more pronounced.

12 ¶ And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you?

13 Now therefore deliver us the men, the children of Belial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel:

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men lefthanded; every one could sling stones at an hair breadth, and not miss.

17 And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war.

18 ¶ And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first for us to battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first.

19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in battle array against them at Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men.

22 And the people the men of Israel encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until even, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)

24 And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

26 Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

27 And the children of Israel inquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, 28 And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of my brother Benjamin, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for to morrow I will deliver them into thine hand.

29 And Israel set liers in wait round about Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

32 And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways.

33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar: and the liers in wait of Israel broke forth out of their place, even out of the meadows of Gibeah.

34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but they knew not that evil was near them.

35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty and five thousand and one hundred men: all these drew the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah.

37 And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise up out of the city.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.

40 But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and, behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven.

41 And when the men of Israel returned, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them.

43 Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trode them down with ease over against Gibeah toward the sunrising.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and followed hard after them unto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them.

46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valour.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock Rimmon, and abode in the rock Rimmon four months.

48 And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, as well the men of every city, as the beast, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they came to.

11 There would be a murmur of approbation that would find expression in the proposition voiced by someone possibly among the chiefs. This was followed by lot by which were selected men to provision the army.

12 Note the emphasis is on "we." There was little trust in Yahweh in all this.

13 They realised that the task was not an easy one. The men of Gibeah were out standing warriors and it is far easier to defend than to take a city. They thus prepared for a long siege.

REPUDIATION 12-17

The tribe of Benjamin - missing in the general gathering are invited to join in repudiating the sin. In reflecting the summons they condoned the sin.

PURIFICATION

15 They mustered 26,000 men of war, and 700 left-handed slingers, a total of 26,700 men.

16 They had 7 times as many men as Benjamin, and 7 times as many left-handed slingers.

17 They had 10 times as many men as Benjamin.

18 They went up to Bethel, the house of God, and asked counsel of God. They were not ignorant of the cause, but prompted to assist the tribes.

19 They went up to Bethel, the house of God, and asked counsel of God. They were not ignorant of the cause, but prompted to assist the tribes.

20 They went out to battle against Benjamin, and put themselves in array against them at Gibeah.

21 They went out to battle against Benjamin, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men.

22 They encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23 They went up and wept before the LORD until even, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.

24 They came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 They went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

26 They went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

27 They enquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, 28 And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for to morrow I will deliver them into thine hand.

29 They set liers in wait round about Gibeah.

30 They went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 They went out against the children of Benjamin, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, and slew, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

32 And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as at the first. But the children of Israel said, Let us flee, and draw them from the city unto the highways.

33 And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-tamar: and the liers in wait of Israel broke forth out of their place, even out of the meadows of Geba.

34 And there came against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was sore: but they knew not that evil was near them.

35 And the LORD smote Benjamin before Israel: and the children of Benjamin destroyed that day of Israel twenty and five thousand and one hundred men: all these drew the sword.

36 So the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten: for the men of Israel gave place to the Benjamites, because they trusted unto the liers in wait which they had set beside Gibeah.

37 And the liers in wait hasted, and rushed upon Gibeah; and the liers in wait drew themselves along, and smote all the city with the edge of the sword.

38 Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the liers in wait, that they should make a great flame with smoke rise up out of the city.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battle, Benjamin began to smite and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons: for they said, Surely they are smitten down before us, as in the first battle.

40 But when the flame began to arise up out of the city with a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them, and, behold, the flame of the city ascended up to heaven.

41 And when the men of Israel turned again, the men of Benjamin were amazed: for they saw that evil was come upon them.

42 Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel unto the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and them which came out of the cities they destroyed in the midst of them.

43 Thus they inclosed the Benjamites round about, and chased them, and trode them down with ease over against Gibeah toward the sunrising.

44 And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valour.

45 And they turned and fled toward the wilderness unto the rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and followed hard after them unto Gidom, and slew two thousand men of them.

46 So that all which fell that day of Benjamin were twenty and five thousand men that drew the sword; all these were men of valour.

47 But six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness unto the rock Rimmon, and abode in the rock Rimmon four months.

48 And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, as well the men of every city, as the beast, and all that came to hand: also they set on fire all the cities that they came to.

Israel had learned its lesson. Humbled by disaster it had turned completely to Yahweh, offering sacrifices, acknowledging their own shortcomings, and their desire for fellowship with Him.

VINDICATION Vv 29-36.

Israel's dedication is now followed by victory

34 For a more detailed account of this action see from Verses 37 onwards. Though Yahweh promised success they had to use proper precautions

25 Having so much right on their side, they had no doubt as to the justice of their cause, or the propriety of their conduct. They still did not realise that the action of the Gibeahites was the pattern of disobedience throughout the land. Thus they had to be humbled. Yahweh destroyed them to punish, but in His way. They had to become His humble instruments.

26 With 40,000 men slain Israel was humbled, but Benjamin confirmed in its wickedness. Their cause was right, but they had not properly sought the help of God.

The Benjamites finally smitten and destroyed.

1 Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the LORD in Mizpeh.

2 And the chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen that drew sword.

3 (Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Mizpeh.) Then said the children of Israel, Tell us, how was this wickedness?

4 And the Levite, the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, I came into Gibeah that belongeth to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge.

5 And the men of Gibeah rose against me, and beset the house round about upon me by night, and thought to have slain me: and my concubine have they forced, that she is dead.

6 And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel: for they have committed lewdness and folly in Israel.

7 Behold, ye are all children of Israel; give here your advice and counsel.

8 And all the people arose as one man, saying, We will not any of us go to his tent, neither will we any of us turn into his house.

9 But now this shall be the thing which we will do to Gibeah; we will go up by lot against it;

10 And we will take ten men of an hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victual for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have wrought in Israel.

11 So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you?

13 Now therefore deliver us the men, the children of Belial, which are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel:

14 But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities unto Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.

15 And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities twenty and six thousand men that drew sword, beside the inhabitants of Gibeah, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16 Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men lefthanded; every one could sling stones at an hair breadth, and not miss.

17 And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war.

18 And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked counsel of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first for the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the LORD said, Judah shall go up first.

19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gibeah.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in battle array against them at Gibeah.

21 And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day two and twenty thousand men.

22 And the people the men of Israel encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until even, and asked counsel of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the LORD said, Go up against him.)

24 And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25 And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

26 Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came unto the house of God, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until even, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

27 And the children of Israel inquired of the LORD, (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, 28 And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days,) saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease? And the LORD said, Go up; for to morrow I will deliver them into thine hand.

29 And Israel set liers in wait round about Gibeah.

30 And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as at other times.

31 And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city; and they began to smite of the people, and kill, as at other times, in the highways, of which one goeth up to the house of God, and the other to Gibeah in the field, about thirty men of Israel.

36 Israel was drunk with success. The liers in wait behind Gibeah, a further company of Baal-Tamar, and those who made the frontal assault on the city to draw the Benjamites with their feared slingers away therefrom. Confident of an easy victory the Benjamites were drawn from Gibeah, but their rejoicing in the prospect of a third victory gave place to consternation as they suddenly saw the smoke ascend of their fenced city V. 38. Immediately the third company of Baal-Tamar entered the conflict, the retreating Israelites turned on their pursuers. The Benjamites found themselves surrounded. They fled to the east but were strongly pursued by Israel who having fasted fiercely savagely revenged themselves on their brother tribe, slaughtering all with no discrimination of age or sex, until but 600 escaped. Thus a horrible three days of evil and bloodshed came to its dark and terrible close.

The liers in wait.

As the liers in wait entered Gibeah the resistance of the fleeing Israelites awaiting the ambush stiffened.

The Benjamites were caught off guard, and in the moment of supposed victory were suddenly encompassed with their terrible defeat.

Though the numbers of the Benjamites were tremendously superior to Benjamin, though the strategem was carefully thought out and bravely executed at loss of life, the inspired historian ascribes the victory to Yahweh and the defeat smitten Benjamin with a miracle.

had stirred the nation to its depths. A lust for blood seized men as they gave Benjamin over to slaughter. The land became a smoking ruin. Cities were overthrown, their inhabitants ruthlessly slain without sense or mercy, and men mad with the desire for violence marched through the land, putting all to an indiscriminate slaughter, until the tribe was on

CHAPTER 21.

1 The people bewail the desolation of Benjamin. 16 The elders consult how to find wives for those that remain. 23 The virgins surprised.

NOW the men of Israel had sworn in (b) Mizpeh, saying, There shall not any of us give his daughter unto Benjamin to wife.

2 And the people came (d) to the house of God, and abode there till even before God, and lifted up their voices, and wept sore;

3 And said, O LORD God of Israel, why is this come to pass in Israel, that there should be to day one tribe lacking in Israel?

4 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and (g) built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings.

5 And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that came not up with the congregation unto the LORD? For they had made a great oath concerning him (k) that came not up to the LORD to Mizpeh, saying, He shall surely be put to death.

6 And the children of Israel repented (l) them for Benjamin their brother, and said, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day.

7 How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?

8 ¶ And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpeh to the LORD? And, behold, there came none to the camp from (m) Jabesh-gilead to the assembly.

9 For the people were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead there.

10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, (a) Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

11 And this is the thing that ye shall do, (c) Ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that [3] hath lain by man.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead four hundred [4] young virgins, that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the camp to (e) Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan.

13 And the whole congregation sent some (n) to speak to the children of Benjamin (f) that were in the rock Rimmon, and to (o) call peaceably unto them.

14 And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-gilead: and yet so they (h) sufficed them not.

15 And the people (i) repented them for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel.

16 ¶ Then the elders of the congregation said, (j) How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?

17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: (m) for the children of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

AVOIDING PAYMENT. vv.4-7. Their oath had bound them to the extent that there was no hope for Benjamin. The people should have confessed to the rashness of their vow and besought Yahweh for forgiveness, offering suitable restitution. Instead they seek to legally fulfil it whilst in spirit defeating it. Thus Israel is plunged into further bloodshed and misery.

1 A day of service and dedication to Yahweh convened. The people gathered together for that purpose.
2 Signifying self consecration and fellowship with Yahweh See note Ch. 20:26
5 To avoid the terrible consequences of their own folly, Israel now look for a scapegoat.

MORE BLOODSHED. 10-12. So the senseless, indiscriminate slaughter continued. The original cause by now forgotten, Israel sought a means of self-justification. The senseless oath did not permit them to give their daughter to Benjamin but permitted them to slaughter so others could be given them.

Israel again resorts to legal means to defeat its own oath. They cannot give their daughters but they can condone Benjamin stealing them!

12 What sort of a feast is here described? Transfer to none of the three main feasts Lev. 23 and seems to have been completely associated with pleasure making.

CHAPTER 20 SUMMARY: The need for humility & proper motivation. We cannot expect God's help in our enterprises, unless we seek it by humbling ourselves before Him. Men are often confident that they will be blessed because their cause is good; their confidence in their own right blinds them to their personal needs. Note the emphasis on "one" vv 8-10 & compare with key verses 11, 18, 26.

BOOK OF JUDGES forms an important link in history of Israelites. It furnishes a lively description of a fluctuating and unsettled nation; a striking picture of the disorders and dangers of a republic without magistracy, and a theocraty where Yahweh was forgotten, and "everyone did that which was right in his own eyes" Jud. 17:6. It exhibits the contest of true religion with superstition, and shows the benefits of the former and the evils of the latter. Unbridled savagery, national misery, a legal approach to Yahweh which denied the spirit of His teaching and relied on self justification were some of the evils which resulted in consequence.

NAOMI DECIDES TO RETURN. Vs. 6-7.

Lonely and destitute in the land of Dispersion Naomi turns to the Land of the Covenant.

Notice the language by which the breaking of the drought is described. Men would call it the "laws of Nature." The Truth sees it in a different light and learns to appreciate the good gifts of Him Who is the Giver of all. Cp how Yahweh is held responsible in bringing famine 2 Kings 8:1. Lev 26:19-21, 24.

The word "famine" in Hebrew signifies "hunger." For the most terrible famine of all See Amos 8:11-14

THE BOOK OF RUTH. Originally formed a supplement to Judges. It shows that despite the disorders, bloodshed and apostacy evident in these times there were individuals who humbly and frequently in obscurity served Yahweh in spirit and in truth. Such have ever existed in all ages.

Ruth gleaneth in the fields of Boaz.

16 they lifted up their voice, and wept.

10 And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people.

11 And Naomi said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me? are there yet any more sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

12 Turn again, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have an husband. If I should say, I have hope, if I should have an husband also to night, and should also bear sons;

13 Would ye tarry for them till they were grown? would ye stay for them from having husbands? nay, my daughters; for it grieveth me much for your sakes that the hand of the LORD is gone out against me.

14 And they lifted up their voice, and wept again: and Orpah kissed her mother in law; but Ruth clave unto her.

15 And she said, Behold, thy sister in law is gone back unto her people, and unto her gods: return thou after thy sister in law.

16 And Ruth said, Intreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go; and where thou lodgest, I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God:

17 Where thou diest, will I die, and there will I be buried: the LORD do so to me, and more also, if ought but death part thee and me.

18 When she saw that she was stedfastly minded to go with her, then she left speaking unto her.

19 So they two went until they came to Beth-lehem. And it came to pass, when they were come to Beth-lehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they said, Is this Naomi?

20 And she said unto them, Call me not Naomi, call me Mara: for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me.

21 I went out full, and the LORD hath brought me home again empty: why then call ye me Naomi, seeing the LORD hath testified against me, and the Almighty hath afflicted me?

22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter in law, with her, which returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Beth-lehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Ruth gleaneth in the fields of Boaz. 4 He taketh knowledge of her, 8 and sheweth her favour.

AND Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech; and his name was Boaz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitess said unto Naomi, Let me now go to the field, and glean ears of corn after him in whose sight I shall find grace. And she said unto her, Go, my daughter.

3 And she went, and came, and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and her hap was to light on a part of the field belonging unto Boaz, who was of the kindred of Elimelech.

4 ¶ And, behold, Boaz came from Beth-lehem, and said unto the reapers, The LORD be with you. And they answered him, The LORD bless thee.

5 Then said Boaz unto his servant that was set over the reapers, Whose damsel is this?

6 And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Moabitish damsel that came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab:

367 Yahweh bless thee with the increase of the field, and grace to use his bounty to the glory of the Giver.

There is nothing servile or humiliating in this scene, nothing merely sentimental. It is the pledge of happy fellowship, of sacred and prosperous co-operation. It is an index to the character of Boaz and the conduct of his labour - and this is further exemplified in his attitude and kindness towards Ruth.

8 He had heard of Ruth, but did not know her personally. V. 11

9 Angelic ministration: Exod. 23:20; Josh. 5:14-15. Dan. 10:21 Matt. 18:10

They wept in unison, with one voice. It witnesses to the character of Naomi that they were prepared to do this.

RUTH CLEAVES TO HER MOTHER-IN-LAW. 1:10-14

The law made provision for a Levirate marriage, in which the nearest of kin should provide seed on behalf of his brother who died childless. Deut 25:5-10. Luke 20:28. Naomi could have claimed the right on her own behalf but she was beyond age of children, thus without hope. She doubtless felt that the Moabitish wives of her sons would find it difficult to find any to raise seed in their house. Though Moabite was not specifically forbidden by law, a Moabite man was not allowed in the congregation Deut 23:3.

RUTH'S VOW 1:15-18.

This indicates that Ruth and Orpah were not converted, and indicates the laxity of Elimelech, Mahlon and Chilion.

Doubtless Naomi explained the responsibilities Ruth would entail by thus linking her fortunes with her mother-in-law. There must be a forsaking of country, people, religion and hope. All this Ruth accepted.

This is a common formula in connection with an oath (Cp. 1 Sam. 3:17; 14:44; 20:13 etc). It was binding in a similar way to a covenant confirmed by a sacrifice. See Note Gen. 15:10.

All these things worked together in the purpose of Yahweh, to bring about a matrimonial connection ultimately bound up the birth of Christ and the salvation of the world.

Boaz was a farmer, a valiant man and wealthy, beloved by his servants, prosperous in his day, and yet not above doing the common labor in the field. He was permitted by the grace of Yahweh to forecast the future, becoming like the Lord the God or Redeemer of his family.

Naomi though overshadowed by the virtues of Ruth is nevertheless revealed as an outstanding woman of faith, courage and kindness. She never lost the first even in dire distress, but sought Yahweh's way. Her solicitude for her daughters in law, her trust in Yahweh when adversity came upon her, her reliance upon the Law to which she drove Ruth were finally rewarded with great joy

THE CHARACTERS.

Ruth quietly and faithfully accepted the path of duty wherever it lead. It brought her into poverty and difficulty, but through it all Yahweh was with her protecting and guiding her to the great joy that lay hidden in the future.

She was modest, industrious, and doubtless beautiful. She had the qualities to attract Boaz and engage his affection, whilst her tender solicitude to Naomi, her cheerful shouldering of the cares of the household her voluntary acceptance of poverty could not fail to arouse his esteem.

When the jealous exclusiveness of the Jews is considered, this ungrudging portrayal of the Moabitess with as the focus of admiration and the grandmother of Israel's most illustrious King demonstrates: (1) - Its Divine inspiration and truth. (2) - The typical significance of the narrative.

The record of Ruth must have been cheering for those who lived at those times, and who were oppressed with the evils of their day. As they pondered its meaning they would be buoyed up with the realisation that they were not without a Redeemer See Job 19:14,25. to help in view of the spiritual famine, the violence and frustrations of the age.

LOVE'S REQUEST. Ruth the virtuous suppliant - appeals to the chivalrous Kinsman.

NAOMI'S INSTRUCTIONS

VV 1-5 MANOEUVRE

1 See note Ch. 1:9. Heb. "menuchah". Sig. "a safe shelter." It is the word by which Hebrews used to speak of a husband's house. It was a woman's menuchah, or safe resort. Cp Ch. 2:9. Contrast Deut 24:25.

2 Naomi has in mind the Levirate marriage of the Law Deut. 25:5-10. Matt. 22:23-28. Levirate from Latin Levir = Brother in law. 3 The evening breeze would be convenient for this purpose, facilitating the carrying away of chaff. Ruth had to make herself ready Rev. 19:7 for the purpose Naomi had in mind. 5 It is said that women of the East when going to the bed of their lawful husband, through modesty, and in token of subjection, go to the bed's foot, and gently raising the cloth-es, creep under them up to their proper place. [Clarke quoting Calmet]

There was nothing indelicate in Naomi's suggestion, or Ruth's action. It was in the nature of an appeal based on the Law.

8 Heb. "wing". Signifies protection. This was the symbolic act by which Boaz would show he was prepared to give shelter, or protection, or menuchah V.1. to Ruth. Ruth in making the request was simply making a legal claim in the approved manner of the time. It was the appeal of the widow for the protection the Law provided. The casting of an outward garment over the bride's head was the customary ceremony of old time Eastern marriages in token of the husbandry protection thenceforward given to the bride. This was apparently also done ceremoniously on espousal. Cp. Ezek. 16:8, Isa. 61:11 See note Luke 12 - Top of page. Singular form of same word rend. "wings". Cp 2:12.

BOAZ'S GRACIOUS RESPONSE.

VV 10-13.

10 Ruth's desire was to build up the house of her deceased husband. To that end she gave up hope of obtaining a young rich husband of her own account and sought Boaz. The world with its attractions must be set aside if we would serve Christ. 10A Those who count: His judges, rulers.

11 This is possibly the reason why Boaz did not offer to perform the part of Goel, thus forcing Ruth to make the first move. Boaz seems to have been moved by love for Ruth but felt his nobility V. 10. Ch. 2:8. and the fact of the nearer Kinsman prevented that love being returned.

12 The consideration of Boaz is here exhibited to the fullest extent. He does not touch Ruth as she lies at his feet, in case the nearer relative might agree to marry her. He risks being compromised by her presence and only lets her return when it is light enough for safe travelling. Hurried away feet all night Jhn 9:4

CHAPTER 4.

1 Boaz calleth into judgment the next kinsman. 6 He refuseth the redemption according to the manner in Israel. 11 Boaz marrieth Ruth. 13 She beareth Obed.

THEN went Boaz up to [a] the gate, and sat him down there: and, behold, [b] the kinsman of whom Boaz spake came by; unto whom he said, Ho, such a one! turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside, and sat down.

2 And he took ten men of [c] the elders of the city, and said, Sit ye down here. And they sat down.

3 And he said unto the kinsman, Naomi, that is come again out of the country of Moab, selleth a parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's:

4 And [d] I thought to advertise thee, saying, [e] Buy it [f] before the inhabitants, and before the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem it, redeem it: but if thou wilt not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know: for there is none to redeem it beside thee: and I am after thee. And he said, I will redeem it.

5 Then said Boaz, What day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy it also of Ruth the Moabitess, [g] the wife of the dead, [h] to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance.

6 ¶ [i] And the kinsman said, I cannot redeem it for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance: redeem thou my right to thyself; for I cannot redeem it.

7 [j] Now this was the manner in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning [k] changing, for to confirm all things; a man plucked off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbour: and this was a testimony in Israel.

8 Therefore the kinsman said unto Boaz, Buy it for thee. So he drew off his shoe.

9 ¶ And Boaz said unto the elders, and unto all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was [l] Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi.

10 Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, [m] the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, [n] to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren, and from the gate of his place: ye are witnesses this day.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, said, We are witnesses. The LORD make the woman that is come into thine house like unto Rachel and like Leah, which two did [o] build the house of Israel: and [p] do thou worthily in [q] Ephratah, and be famous in Beth-lehem:

12 And let thy house be like the house of Pharez, whom Tamar bare unto Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give thee of this young woman.

13 ¶ So Boaz [r] took Ruth, and she was his wife: and when he went in unto her, [s] the LORD gave her conception, and she bare a son.

14 And [t] the women said unto Naomi, Blessed be the LORD, which hath not [u] left thee this day without a [v] kinsman, that his name may be famous in Israel.

15 And he shall be unto thee a restorer of thy life, and [w] a nourisher of [x] thine old age: for thy daughter in law, which loveth thee, which is [y] better to thee than seven sons, hath born him.

16 And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse unto it.

CHAPTER I.

1 Of Elkanah and his two wives. 9 Hannah's prayer. 20 Samuel is born, 24 and presented to the LORD.

NOW there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was [b] Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, [c] an Ephrathite:

2 And he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but [d] Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went up out of his city [e] yearly [f] to worship and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in [g] Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there.

4 ¶ And when the time was that Elkanah offered, [h] he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions:

5 But unto Hannah he gave [6] a worthy portion; for he loved Hannah: but the LORD had shut up her womb.

6 And her adversary also [8] provoked her sore, [9] for to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb.

7 And as he did so year by year, [2] when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and did not eat.

8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? am not I [d] better to thee than ten sons?

9 ¶ So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a post of the temple of the LORD.

10 And she was [3] [9] in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore.

11 And she [k] vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed [m] look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and [n] remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid [6] a man child, then I will give him unto the LORD all the days of his life, and [p] there shall no razor come upon his head.

12 And it came to pass, as she [7] continued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth.

13 Now Hannah, she spake in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard:

INTRODUCTION TO BOOK OF SAMUEL

In the Hebrew Bible, the two books of Samuel (like those of Kings and Chronicles) appeared as one book. They were first divided and treated as two books by the Septuagint translators (3 cent. B.C.) who named them the first and second books of the Kingdoms. This was probably done because Greek takes approximately a third longer than Hebrew, and the scrolls were probably the same size in length. Thus one was filled before the long book was completed.

AUTHORSHIP - Jews believed that Samuel wrote first 24 chapters and Gad and Nathan added balance. This based on 1 Chron. 29:9. Others believe written by later hand from memoirs left by persons concerned. Thus - "Kings of Judah" Ch. 27:6 implies division of nation. Eponyms on Samuel not likely to have come from his hand Cp Ch. 2:26. The death of Samuel referred to Ch. 7:15. Samuel wrote a book (1 Sam. 10:25. 1 Chron. 29:9), and this could have become the basis of what another hand completed under the guidance of the Spirit. ATO Samuel is born.

therefore Eli thought she had been drunken. — Acts 2:13.

14 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee.

15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman [2] of a sorrowful spirit:
I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have [c] poured out my soul before the LORD.

16 Count not thine handmaid for a daughter of [d] Belial: for out of the abundance of my [3] complaint and grief have I spoken hitherto.

17 Then Eli answered and said,
[e] Go in peace: and [g] the God of Israel grant thee thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

18 And she said, [i] Let thine
handmaid find grace in thy sight.
So the woman [4] went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more sad.

19 ¶ And they rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned, and came to their house to [m] Ramah: and Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and [o] the LORD remembered her.

20 Wherefore it came to pass,
[p] when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name [7] Samuel, [r] saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD.

21 And the man Elkanah, and all his house, [s] went up to offer unto the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow.

22 But Hannah went not up;
for she said unto her husband,
I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide [b] for ever.

23 And [t] Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good; tarry until thou have weaned him; [u] only the LORD establish his word. So the wo-

I am the woman that stood by thee here, praying unto the LORD.

27 For this child I prayed;
and the LORD [h] hath given me

THE SONGS OF HANNAH AND MARY COMPARED (Luke 2:46-55)

REJOICING IN YAHWEH'S SALVATION V.1

Heart · Horn · Mouth · Salvation.

My heart exults in Yahweh
My strength (RSV) is exalted in Yahweh
My mouth is opened wide against my enemies;
Because I rejoice in Thy salvation.

YAHWEH'S MAJESTY. V.2

He alone absolutely exists - all other existence is secondary, derived. Outside of Him, therefore, no true continued existence. Eccl. 12:13

There is none holy as Yahweh;
For there is none beside Thee;
Neither is there any Tzur like our Elohim

HE REBUKES THE PROUD BUT SAVES THE MEEK Vv.3-5.

Talk no more so exceeding proudly;
Let not arrogancy come out of your mouth;
For Yahweh is a El of Knowledge,
And by Him actions are weighed.
The bows of the mighty are broken,
But the feeble gird on strength.
They that were full have hired out themselves for bread; (Or reduced)
RSV. But those who were hungry have ceased to hunger
So that the barren hath born seven;
And she that hath many children is waxed feeble.

HE WILL ELEVATE HIS SAINTS Vv.6-8.

Yahweh killeth, and maketh alive;
He bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up,
Yahweh maketh poor, and maketh rich;
He bringeth low, and lifteth up,
He raiseth up the oppressed (CB) out of the dust,
And lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill,
To set them among princes,
And to make them inherit the throne of glory;
For the pillars of the earth are Yahweh's,
And He hath set the world upon them.

COMING NATIONAL JUDGMENTS Vv.9-10.

He will guard (RSV) the feet of His saint (chasid)
RSV. But the wicked shall be cut off in darkness.
FOR by strength shall no man prevail,
The adversaries of Yahweh shall be broken in pieces.
Out of heaven shall He thunder upon them.
Yahweh shall judge the ends of the earth.
And He shall give strength unto His King,
And exalt the horn of His Anointed.

In this song Hannah reveals herself to be a prophetess indeed, seeing beyond the rivalry of her adversary and the work of her son to a greater rivalry between the two women of the Apocalypse, and the triumph of the King Messiah.

Samuel, though only a Levite, performed the functions of the priest as did Moses before him, and Solomon after. He typified the Lord who will be revealed as both Judge and King Acts 17:31. Heb. 7:11-22.

For the first time in Scripture the title Messiah is used in connection with the promised Saviour.

Hannah's song, like that of Sarah Gen. 21:6 and Zechariah Luke 1:68-79. anticipated the glorious words of rejoicing of Mary the Mother of Jesus.

Hannah's song comprised the Promise - Mary's the partial fulfilment.

Mary's Hymn of Praise.

My soul doth magnify the Lord,
And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour
For He hath regarded the low estate of His handmaiden;
For, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
For He that is mighty hath done to me great things;
And holy is His name.
And His mercy is on them that fear Him
From generation to generation
He hath showed strength with His arm;
He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts,
He hath put down the mighty from their seats,
And exalted them of low degree.
He hath filled the hungry with good things;
And the rich He hath sent empty away.
He hath holpen His servant Israel,
In remembrance of His mercy;
As He spake to our fathers,
To Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

1. Heb "aw-lats" - "To jump for joy" indicating the intense happiness of Hannah as with prophetic vision she looks beyond her own triumph and that of Samuel and sees in these circumstances a type of Messiah's triumph. Samuel as Judge and Priest (though not of line of Aaron) typified the Lord Jesus.
2. St. A.V = "enlarged."
3. Heb "Qadesh" from root "to be clean." He is just and the Justifier" of those who believe. Rom. 3:26.
4. He is the incomparable One.
5. Heb "Awthawk" - from a root signifying "to remove," or "grow old." The idea seems to be to view the things of Yahweh with contempt, to become indifferent to them through very familiarity.
6. From root "yawdah" - "to know through seeing." Thus to know firsthand. Though invisible to human sight, Yahweh is the All-Seeing One. The word also signifies that Yahweh takes heed with the object of rewarding or punishing as may be appropriate. The word is rendered "Kinsman" in Ruth 2:1. i.e. One who knew Naomi intimately by personal observation.
7. Heb. Gibbor - Heroes - They appear such to those who rejoice in them. Ps. 37:15.
8. A.V. = "Stumbled." i.e those who are weak and need support and direction. All are really in this state but some do not realise it, they trust on the arm of flesh.
9. Mat. 5:6.
10. A complete progeny. Ps. 68:6. Isa. 54:1, 53:10
11. Here the Mother of Harlots Rev. 17. is contrasted with bride of Christ Rev. 19.
12. Rev. 3:21.
13. Sheol - the Hidden place. Thus Hannah sung of Resurrection
14. The foundations of both the material and political worlds are established by Yahweh.
15. CB = The Lawless.
16. Heb. = Ish.
17. Armageddon

- First reference to the School of the prophets founded by Samuel Ch. 10:5; 19-20.
- Remarkable teaching on the influence of the Holy Spirit: • the Channel of regeneration • new heart 10:6,9 • the author of righteous anger 11:6 • Inspirer of courage and prudence of speech 16:13,18 • Protector of oppression and evil 16:14 • The power of the spirit word supplemented by prayer can effectively help us.
- Constant reference to prayer thus illustrating the title: "Asked of God" - Ch. 1:12, 26, 27, 28; 2:1, 16, 20, 27; 7:5, 8, 9; 8:6, 10, 21; 12:19, 23; 13:12; 15:11, 16, 21; 16:23; 28:6, 15.
- Samuel given by prayer 2:1 • Victory given by prayer 7:5, 10. • King provided through prayer 8:5-6. • Secrets granted 7:13 Neglect of prayer = a sin 12:19, 23 • Prayer, a privilege denied such as Saul 28:6.

CH. 2:25. "Who shall intreat for him"

The coming Messiah, V.10 is the only one who can mediate man's course with Yahweh - but in his coming and ministry these wicked priests had no faith. See his mediatorial labour. Matt. 26:28; John 3:16 2 Cor. 5:21; 1 Tim. 1:12-16; 2:2-5; 1 John. 2:1-2.

SAMUEL'S EVIL ENVIRONMENT. — The godly reverential household of Elkanah was a great contrast to the shocking state of wickedness that now opened to Samuel's infant eyes at the very Tabernacle itself. The aged priest was powerless to do more than mildly rebuke his sons whose blatant sins brought the worship of Yahweh into disrepute. The narrative seems to provide a contrast between the pure innocent child growing up amid the rank evils of his time and yet untouched by it all. Contrast V.21. with 22-26. 26 with 24-29. Ch. 3:1. The word "child" - NA'AR denotes a boy, lad, youth up to and including adolescence. Ch.1:22, 24. 2:11. The actions of Hophni & Phinehas constituted ● A public scandal V.23 ● A cause of stumbling V.24 ● A sin against Yahweh V.25. They showed Profanity, Greed and Lechery.

hath born seven; and [a] she that hath many children is waxed feeble.

6 [b] The LORD killeth, and maketh alive: he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.

7 The LORD [c] maketh poor, and maketh rich: [d] he bringeth low, and lifteth up.

8 [e] He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, [h] to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for [k] the pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and he hath set the world upon them.

9 [m] He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness; for by strength shall no man prevail.

10 The adversaries of the LORD shall be [p] broken to pieces; [q] out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: [r] the LORD shall judge the ends of the earth; and he shall give strength unto his king, and [t] exalt the horn of his anointed.

11 And Elkanah went to [u] Ramah to his house. [x] And the child did minister unto the LORD before Eli the priest.

12 ¶ Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial; [b] they knew not the LORD.

13 And the priests' custom with the people was, that, when any man offered sacrifice, the priest's servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a fleshhook of three teeth in his hand;

14 And he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; [c] all that the fleshhook brought up the priest took for himself. So they did in Shiloh unto all the Israelites that came thither.

15 Also before they [c] burnt the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest; for he will not have sodden flesh of thee, but raw.

16 And if any man said unto him, Let them not fail to burn the fat [Q] presently, and then take as much as thy soul desireth; then he would answer him, Nay; but thou shalt give it me now: and if not, I will take it by force.

17 Wherefore the sin of the young men was very great [f] before the LORD: for men [7] abhorred the offering of the LORD.

18 ¶ But [i] Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child, [l] girded with a linen ephod.

19 Moreover his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him [m] from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.

20 ¶ And Eli [o] blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, The LORD give thee seed of this woman for the [s] loan which is lent to the LORD. And they went unto their own home.

21 And the LORD [z] visited Hannah, so that she conceived, and bare three sons and two daughters. And the child Samuel [y] grew before the LORD.

22 ¶ Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons [2] did unto all Israel; and how they lay with the women that [4] assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for [5] I hear of your evil dealings by all this people.

24 Nay, my sons; for it is no good report that I hear: ye make the LORD's people [6] to transgress.

25 If one man sin against another, [d] the judge shall judge him: but if a man sin against the LORD, who shall intreat for him? Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto the voice of their father, [D] because the LORD would slay them.

26 And the child [2] Samuel [g] grew on, and was [h] in favour the first of the three double books that record the rise and fall of the Israelitish monarchy.

Though it briefly touches upon the state of anarchy that existed in the times of the Judges, the firm sure hands of Samuel bring a measure of order to the affairs of the nation, leading to the setting up of the Kingdom.

THE TYPE — EGYPT = The Call. RED SEA = Baptism. SINAI = Education. WILDERNESS WANDERING = Failure of a generation that rested on its own strength. JOSHUA = How Messiah made it possible for the people to conquer. JUDGES = Disorder and lost opportunities after appearance of Messiah. RUTH = Individual walk to kingdom. SAMUEL = Desire for King realised.

CH. 1:24 Dead Sea Scrolls, LXX & Syriac - followed by Roth. NIV = 3 year old bullock.

19 He judged Israel 40 yrs. 4:18. Samuel was probably brought before him some years prior so as to be trained for Priesthood.

HOPHNI, PHINEHAS AND SAMUEL. were all brought up in the same environment. Sacred associations religious services, were as deadening and hardening to the former, as they were elevating and purifying to the latter. The atmosphere was thus charged with influences moving for good and evil for the future. "Speak Yahweh for thy servant heareth" Ch.3:9. become the keynote of Samuel's life. and "To obey is better than sacrifice and to hearken than the fat of Rams" Ch.15:22 - the National policy he followed. Stern, unyielding, he would sacrifice himself or anyone else for his policy.

YAHWEH REPROVES THE HIGH PRIEST V. 27-36
TERRIBLE PUNISHMENT AGAINST THE HOUSE OF ELI THREATENED
Full Measure of Iniquity Reveal-ed

With dramatic suddenness a prophet of doom appears before the aged priest to proclaim a message of retribution and punishment both with the LORD, and also with men. Luke 2:52

27 ¶ And there came a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [d]Did I plainly appear unto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaoh's house?

28 And did I [f]choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to [h]wear an ephod before me? and [i]did I give unto the house of thy father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel?

29 Wherefore [l]kick ye at my sacrifice and at mine offering, which I have commanded in my [m]habitation; and honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 Wherefore the LORD God of Israel saith, [o]I said indeed that thy house, and the house of thy father, should walk before me for ever: but now the LORD saith, [q]Be it far from me; for them that honour me [r]I will honour, and [s]they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed. - Privilege brings responsibility which they had ignored.

31 Behold, [u]the days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see [v]an enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be [x]an old man in thine house for ever.

33 And the man [z]of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die [a]in the flower of their age. as ENOSHIM.

34 And this shall be [b]a sign unto thee, that shall come upon thy two sons, on Hophni

CHAPTER 3.

SAMUEL LEARNS THERE IS ANOTHER VOICE BESIDES THAT OF ELI

To date his education had come from Eli; now he receives a new revelation. There is presented the picture of the child Samuel, sleeping the sleep of innocence unaffected by the dark and terrible deeds about him and the awful message of doom uttered against house Eli, roused by the mysterious Voice, listening in awe to its dread message. The quiet, spiritual character of the child contrasted with the violent profligacy of the times. thus the child became father to the man.

THE CALL OF SAMUEL V.1-14

1 Doing minor duties, such as opening doors etc V.15.
2 See Ex 7:9 ap with 4:4
3 Most likely the priests had dwellings built near Tabernacle. In one of these, near to Eli, perhaps under the same roof, Samuel lay.
4 Lit. "extinguish." Probably relates to the dressing of the lamp each morning by the priest; preparatory to re-lighting it. Exod. 27:20-21 30:7-8 Lev. 24:2-4 The phrase would thus mean before morning.
5 Samuel is as carefully

1 How the word of the Lord was first revealed to Samuel. 11 God telleth Samuel the destruction of Eli's house. 19 Samuel groweth in credit.

AND [p]the child Samuel ministered unto the LORD before Eli. And [p]the word of the LORD was precious in those days; there was no open vision.

2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, [t]and his eyes began to wax dim, that he could not see;

3 And ere [z]the lamp of God went out [z]in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was, and Samuel was laid down to sleep;

4 That the LORD called Samuel: and he answered, Here am I.

5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

6 And the LORD called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my son; lie down again.

7 [b]Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD, neither was LIKE MOSES, though a Levite, he mediated like a priest. [Jer. 7:9, 17; 13:8; 16:2. The ark was at Kirjath Jearim with a Levite ministering to it [1 Sam. 7:1], though Ahitub, Ahiah's father was probably high priest; it is Samuel who is prominent. With him a new order of things began. Prophecy became established institution; he the first of the prophets. So the prophecy was fulfilled in Samuel, Zadok & Christ in the order of Melchizedec Priesthood. Cp Acts 3:24.

HOPHNI ETC. (cont.) Their office was holy, but their character corrupt. The touched sacred things with unworthy hands. The full extent of their wickedness was perhaps covered over by claims of expediency. But Yahweh tore away the mask, and revealed the full measure of their iniquity. These men were officially the highest men of their day. They bore a holy name, they engaged in sacred duties, they pronounced holy words, they wore emblematic robes. But this was all a cover for a hidden wickedness. Thus was revealed the deadly result of corruptness in influential quarters — and "the people love to have it so" Jer. 5:31. The iniquity of the priests excused and justified their own sins, and they snatched at anything to justify their own laxity, indifference and contempt of religious duty and service they "compared themselves with themselves" 2 Cor. 10:12. What they should have done — Mal. 2:3.

first revealed to Samuel. I. SAMUEL 4. The Israelites overcome.

Before he realised that it was Yahweh speaking. (Note marg.)

THE VOICE
Samuel made ready to receive message of Yahweh. See Ephod 2:18. Yahweh with infinite patience: mercy permits in His call. Why repeat the doom of Eli's house? To give opportunity to repent. Why warn at all if this was not the purpose?

the word of the LORD yet revealed unto him.

8 And the LORD called Samuel again the third time. And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou didst call me. And Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, LORD; for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And the LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak; for thy servant heareth.

11 ¶ And the LORD said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, [h] at which both the ears of every one that heareth it shall tingle.

12 In that day I will perform against Eli [i] all things which I have spoken concerning his house: [6] when I begin, I will also make an end.

13 [7] [i] For I have told him that I will [j] judge his house for ever for the iniquity which he knoweth; because [m] his sons made themselves [9] vile, and he [10] restrained them not.

14 And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that [p] the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

15 ¶ And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. And Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he answered, Here am I.

17 And he said, What is the thing that ~~the LORD~~ hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: God do so to thee, and [5] more also, if thou

CHAPTER 4.

1 Israel overcome by the Philistines. 11 The ark is taken, and Hophni and Phinehas slain. 18 Eli, hearing the news, falleth backwards, and breaketh his neck. 19 Ichabod is born.

AND the word of Samuel [3] came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside [k] Eben-ezer: and the Philistines pitched in [m] Aphek.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when [2] they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of [3] the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 ¶ And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the LORD smitten us to day before the Philistines? [q] Let us [4] fetch the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of [r] Shiloh unto us, that, when it cometh among us, it may save us out of the hand of our enemies.

4 So the people sent to [r] Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the LORD of hosts, [s] which dwelleth between the cherubim: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing heretofore.

8 Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit yourselves like men, and fight.

10 And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11 And the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

SAMUEL. "Asked of El" - Shemuel "Name of El." He exerted an influence on Israel that was felt for ages Jer. 15:1. Nor is he charged with a single fault in the fulfilment of his public duties, but stands out on the sacred page as one of the most upright, conscientious and noble men with whom the nation was ever favoured.
He ended the period of Judges, and headed the epoch of the prophets, acting as a bridge to the monarchy, laying down principles of education for "all Israel."
He came at a crucial period, at a time when it seemed that Israel must be crushed, when "the glory had departed. He arrested the nation's decay, built it up into an orderly state. He undertook the task of giving Israel a mental culture bims: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel [a]shouted with a great shout, so that the earth [b]rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp. Verb in singular.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! for there hath not been such a thing [4]heretofore. Verb + adjective in plural.

8 Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, and [5]quit yourselves like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: [5]quit yourselves like men, and fight.

10 ¶ And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, and [f]they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen. Neither cavalry or chariots (Josh 11:6)

11 And [g]the ark of God was taken; and [h]the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

12 ¶ And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to [k]Shiloh the same day [l]with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head.

13 And when he came, lo, Eli sat [m]upon a seat by the wayside watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God.

The death of Eli.

And when the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old; and his eyes [2]were dim, that he could not see.

16 And the man said unto Eli, I am he that came out of the army, and I fled to day out of the army. And he said, What [3]is there done, my son?

17 And the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken. Misery is heaped upon misery

18 And it came to pass, when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

19 ¶ And his daughter in law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near [7]to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; for her pains [8]came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death the women that stood by her said unto her, [9]Fear not; for thou hast born a son. But she answered not, [9]neither did she regard it.

21 And she named the child [m]I-chabod, saying, The [n]glory is departed from Israel: because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father in law and her husband.

"THE GLORY IS DEPARTED"

Israel was brought to the lowest extremity. High priest dead – his two eldest sons dead – the army overwhelmingly defeated – the enemy triumphant – the Ark in captivity. Without an army, deserted of its God, Israel reached the lowest state of despondency and weakness. But out of this bottomless pit of misery there came a great deliverance at the hands of Samuel. Shiloh never recovered the disgrace cp Ps. 78: 60-64. Jer. 7:12; 26:9.

SAMUEL (Cont.) and stable government, planting it firmly on the path that led to the Kingdom of God.
He was a Nazarite 1Sam 1:11, and like Moses, he officiated as a priest though only a Levite. In Ps 99:6 he is connected with Moses and Aaron. Austere and aloof, dedicated exclusively to his mission, his presence was received with mingled joy and fear. 1Sam 16:4-5
He was intensely loyal – to Yahweh, the Nation, the High Priest, the King. He hesitated to tell Eli the dread message, he wept and prayed for Saul, though the King was ignorant of his intercession, yet he was fiercely jealous of the honour of Yahweh's.

CHAPTER 5.

1 The Philistines set the ark in the house of Dagon. 3 Dagon falleth down. 6, 9, 12 The Philistines are smitten with emerods.

AND the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from (a) Eben-ezer unto (c) Ashdod. (d) Spoiler – hence spoil taken there.

2 When the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of (e) Dagon, and set it by Dagon. Prostrate as though worshipping

3 ¶ And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was (h) fallen upon his face to the earth before the ark of the LORD. And they took Dagon, and set him in his place again. Emblems of reason + activity

4 And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; and (k) the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only (l) the stump of Dagon was left to him. Before left

5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, tread on the (m) threshold of Dagon in Ashdod unto this day.

6 But (n) the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he (o) destroyed them, and smote them with (p) emerods, even Ashdod and the coasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for his hand is sore upon us, and upon Dagon our god.

8 They sent therefore and gathered all the (r) lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto (a) Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither.

9 And it was so, that, after they had carried it about, (b) the hand of the LORD was against the city (c) with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 ¶ Therefore they sent the ark of God to (f) Ekron. And it came to pass, as the ark of God came to (f) Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people.

11 So they sent and gathered together all the (i) lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to his own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the city; (j) the hand of God was very heavy there.

12 And the men that died not were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The Philistines take counsel how to send back the ark. 10 They bring it on a new cart with an offering unto Beth-shemesh. 19 The people are smitten for looking into the ark.

AND the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

2 And the Philistines called for the priests and the (q) diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place.

3 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not (s) empty; but in any wise return him (t) a trespass offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall (u) be known

No one wanted to touch the Ark now. The carriers from Gath left it at Ekron, and again plague broke out causing a fear of death among the people. See Note V. 9.

The Philistines send back the ark.

Seven months of affliction had passed by for the Philistines. Doubtless many "cures" had been attempted. Now the Diviners suggest that the people humble themselves under the God of Israel by a Trespass offering. If this effected a cure they would then know why His judgements had not been taken away previously.

4 They did not let the people go. The Philistines were only too willing to get rid the Ark.

5 This is suggested in ignorance of Yahweh's requirements. (Num. 4:15, 7:9; 10:21) which it was not expected that they should know. But contrast David's "new cart" and the disastrous end that brought. 2 Sam. 6:3

EMERODS : MICE : Ophalim (Emerods) sig. tumours, swellings, its basic meaning being a hill 2 Chr. 27:3. But it was never read as such in the synagogues, the reader substituting the word TEHORIM (burning) as in 5:6, 17, the vowels of which are attached to the consonants of OPHALIM in our Hebrew Bibles. The word was not thought fit for public reading in the synagogues. Some have identified the emerods or swellings with the bubonic plague (characterised by swellings, particularly in the lymph glands of groin & armpits) & so identified with mice or rats. If so this would be the first time in history that the plagues has been associated with rodents. See Animals of Bible Lands.

The attack began before Samuel completed his worship heaven's artillery opened out upon the enemy from the overcast sky above came an awful ear-splitting crash of thunder that shook the ground. The storm broke forth in all its fury against the Philistines, and doubtless lightning destroyed many of them.

Their curiosity got the better of them. They should have known the law and its prohibition (even Levites gazing into the Ark Ex. 19:21. Num 4:15, 18, 20. In humility and reverence they should have averted their gaze.

This being out of all proportion to size of Beth-shemesh has led to various readings. Some codices omit altogether. The Syr. and Arabic versions = 5 instead 50. The Vat. reads "seventy men, even fifties and one thousand" = 1,170 (C.B.). Josephus = "Seventy men of the village of Beth-Shemesh, approaching the ark, which they were not worthy to touch (not being priests) were struck with lightning." Thus he omits the 50,000.

The common reading may be defended, if we may suppose the omission of a single letter, the particle of comparison (Ke, "like," "as," or "equal to." This would cause the reading to compare the 70 men as "equal to" 50,000. i.e. they would be leaders, elders or governors of the people (Clarke).

They blamed Him as Lord to please not recognising their own fault.

SPIRITUAL REVIVAL IN ISRAEL. Vv.1-2. SAMUEL'S INFLUENCE BEGINS TO BE FELT

They probably consulted Samuel and acted on his instructions.

Heb. - "in Gibeah." 2 Sam. 6:3-4.

Sig. - "Father of Liberality" It remained in this place until the time of David 2 Sam. 6:3. 1 Chron. 13:7.

Probably set him apart to look after the Ark and prevent a repetition of the disaster of Beth-Shemesh.

Sig. "El hath helped."

According to C.B. 89 yrs elapsed between its captivity by Philistines and its removal to Zion. 2 Sam. 6:17. on the second attempt by David.

A new sentence should commence here.

Twenty years have passed away and the people lament, because of state of things in Israel. The Ark was in Kirjath-jearim longer than 20 years. 383 bottom)

Heb. "Nawhaw" - to groan, bewail. But also (Sr.) to assemble as if on proclamation. R.V. marg. follows this: "were drawn together." Here was the work of Samuel, bringing a sense of shame to the people, and drawing them together after Yahweh.

H2 UNITES THE PEOPLE IN TRUTH 3-6.

A national convention at which Samuel addressed the people. His preparation complete, he now stands forth as their leader. Over the years he has slowly but surely assumed that position and his stern, unyielding principles, his appearance in long, flowing mantle, untrimmed hair and beard, his reputation for integrity and austerity is known to all.

His address at this time seems to have been to the tribal leaders, for he calls for a gathering to Mizpeh of all people V.6.

Not merely in externals.

Actions as well as intentions required.

Ruthlessly examine yourselves that Yahweh may reign supreme.

False idols - Consort. Vicious depraved fertility goddess of sex.

Plural of Ashtaroth (Sg. Ashtoreth) female idols.

Watchtower. See Note Gen 28:11.

27 Now Israel attacked. The Philistines already fearful panicked. No longer fearing their weapons, Israel pressed home the advantage and victory was won.

28 Sig. "House of the [illegible]" See Note The use of the word "under" suggests that it was on a rising. Here Israel had been defeated 20 yrs earlier. Ch. 4:1 Cp. V.12 below.

29 Sig. "Tooth" - A jagged rock. For "hitherto" Cp. Acts 26:22 2 Cor. 1:10

THE VICTORY OF FAITH. 13-14

30 I.e. as permanent conquerors. Cp. Ch. 13:5. Thus work Samson completed Jud. 13:5. Yahweh had brought Israel down to the point of national extinction; the glory had departed Ch. 4:21. but now, through faith Heb. 11:32 and His miraculous interference, He lifts them up and humbles their proud oppressors to the dust.

V.5. Mediator. Like Abraham, Moses Ex. 17:11 Elijah 1 Kg 18:36, Ezra 9:5 Christ.

Water poured out is a sign of penitence, sorrow and weakness Ps 22:14 Lam 2:19 Ps 42:3. 1 Sam. 1:15 Symbolic of tears that pour out of the eyes on such occasions.

See Note and first occurrence of word. Jud 20:26.

At this time of national repentance, he not only brought the people closer to Yahweh, but redressed wrong one to the other, and laid the foundation for better political administration. The assembly was thus held for religio-political-military purposes (natural as well as supernatural premises).

FEAR IN ISRAEL. VV.7-8

The influence of Samuel would not have gone unnoticed by the enemies of Israel. They would have realised matters were coming to a head, and decided to intervene before they developed too far.

They had cause to fear. See note of Philistine Josh. 13:3

The Philistines held a corner in iron 1 Sam. 13:19-22 and possessed the weapons to hold Israel in abject suppression.

They knew that Yahweh was with him 1 Sam. 3:21 They had every confidence in his ability to wisely guide and assist them.

YAHWEH VINDICATES HIS POWER. VV. 9-12.

A Levite could offer at direction of a priest 1 Chron 24:31 but here it seems that Samuel went beyond this - doubtless by virtue of his Divine appointment. He thus acted as priest, typifying the Lord in so doing.

If had to be at least 8 days old. Lev 22:27 Bottom p.390 See Note Josh 5:2. The offering of Samuel would be conducted in the face of the threatening Philistines. The courageous, calmly conducting Judge, calmly conducting this worship in spite of the threat of attack would doubtless steady the panicking Israelites.

The Heb. comes from a root "to shriek" as in anguish or danger. The word also signifies to gather together. His wild shriek would thus gather together in one voice the agitation of all Israel, supplicating the help of Yahweh in their fears. A dramatic scene thus opens to the mind: the fear-ridden ranks of Israel, the army of the Philistines preparing to attack, and the prophet with flowing hair and beard, presiding over the tragic wheel of fate. Vivid deliver out of the hands of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15 And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

16 And he went from year to year in circuit to Beth-el, and Gilgal, and Mizpeh, and judged Israel in all those places.

17 And his return was to Ramah; for there was his house; and there he judged Israel; and there he built an altar unto the LORD.

CHAPTER 8.

1 By occasion of the ill government of Samuel's sons, the Israelites ask a king. 6 Samuel praying in grief is comforted by God. 10 He telleth the manner of a king.

AND it came to pass, when Samuel was old, that he made his sons judges over Israel.

2 Now the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, Abiah: they were judges in Beer-sheba.

3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted judgment.

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah,

5 And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.

6 ¶ But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed unto the LORD.

7 And the LORD said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

8 According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, wherewith they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken unto their voice: howbeit yet protest solemnly unto them, and shew them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.

10 ¶ And Samuel told all the words of the LORD unto the people that asked of him a king.

11 And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: He will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and some shall run before his chariots.

12 And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties; and will set them to ear his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and instruments of his chariots.

13 And he will take your daughters to be confectionaries, and to be cooks, and to be bakers.

14 And he will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your oliveyards, even the best of them, and give them to his servants.

15 And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants.

16 And he will take your menservants, and your maidservants, and your goodliest young men, and your asses, and put them to his work.

17 He will take the tenth of your sheep: and ye shall be his servants.

18 And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king which ye shall have chosen you; and the LORD will not hear you in that day.

8. desire a king. The Judges had acted no tribute of Israel, nor put them to any charge. But they now desired a King like other nations with a standing army and visible power to repel invasion. They lacked the faith to put confidence in Yahweh.

11 Without asking permission or consent.

19 Nevertheless the people refused to obey the voice of Samuel; and they said, Nay; but we will have a king over us;

20 That we also may be like all the nations; and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles.

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD.

22 And the LORD said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his city.

2 And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people.

3 And the asses of Kish Saul's father were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses.

ISRAEL DEMANDS A KING

Samuel's sons prove unworthy to Rule 1-5

Deu. 13:10-11, Acts 13:20-21 The elders sought a King without consulting the will of Yahweh, but Samuel prayed.

5 And when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let us return; lest my father leave caring for the asses, and [c] take thought for us.

6 And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city [d] a man of God, and he is an honourable man; [e] all that he saith cometh surely to pass: now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

7 Then said Saul to his servant, But, behold, if we go, [f] what shall we bring the man? for the bread [2] is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to [d] the man of God: what [3] have we?

8 And the servant answered Saul again, and said, Behold, I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver: that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our way.

9 (Beforetime in Israel, when a man [i] went to enquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a Prophet was beforetime called [g] a Seer.)

10 Then said Saul to his servant, [h] Well said; come, let us go. So they went unto the city where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as they went up the hill to the city, they found [k] young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here?

12 And they answered them, and said, He is; behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city; for there is a [l] sacrifice of the people to day in [m] the high place:

1 Saul despairing to find his father's asses, 18 cometh to Samuel. 19 Samuel entertaineth Saul at the feast. 25 Samuel bringeth Saul on his way.

NOW there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was [a] Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, [b] a Benjamite, a mighty man of power.

2 And he had a son, whose name was Saul, [c] a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: [m] from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people.

3 And the asses of Kish Saul's father were lost. And Kish said to Saul his son, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses.

4 And he passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of [o] Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalim, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

I. SAMUEL 10. Samuel anointeth Saul.

14 And they went up into the city: and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

15 ¶ [c] Now the LORD had told Samuel in his ear a day before Saul came, saying,

16 To morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and [d] thou shalt anoint him to be captain over my people Israel, that he may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have [e] looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me. caused Hist. Ch. 7:13.

17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the LORD [f] said unto him, [h] Behold the man whom I spake to thee of! this same shall [3] reign over my people. Implying a stricter, stern rule

18 Then Saul drew near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seer's house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place; for ye shall eat with me to day, and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart. In plural - includes servant.

20 And as for [i] thine asses that were lost [7] three days ago, set not thy mind on them; for they are found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel? Is it not on thee, and on all thy father's house? It with the promise Gen 46:10

21 And Saul answered and said, Am not I a Benjamite, of the [m] smallest of the tribes of Israel? and [n] my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou [o] so to me?

22 And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the [a] parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.

24 And the cook took up [b] the shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said, Behold that which is [4] left! set it before thee, and eat: for unto this time hath it been kept for thee since I said, I have invited the people. So Saul did eat with Samuel that day. Read "he" The Cook to Saul had charge of everything prepared.

25 ¶ And when they were come down from the high place into the city, Samuel communed with Saul upon [5] the top of the house.

26 And they arose early: and it came to pass about the spring of the day, that Samuel called Saul to the top of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad.

27 And as they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Bid the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on,) but stand thou still [6] a while, that I may shew thee the word of God. Whom Yahweh calls He qualifies 9:24 in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and, lo, thy father hath left [2] the care of the asses, and [c] sorroweth for you, saying, What shall I do for my son?

Nor asses but men must be sought.

3 Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, and thou shalt come to the [d] plain of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God to [f] Beth-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine:

4 And they will [5] salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread; which thou shalt receive of their hands.

5 After that thou shalt come to [i] the hill of God, where is the [k] garrison of the Philistines: and it shall come to pass, when thou art come thither to the city, that thou shalt meet a company of prophets coming down [m] from the high place with a psaltery, and a [n] tabret, and a pipe, and a [n] harp, before them; and they shall prophesy:

6 And [o] the Spirit of the LORD will come upon thee, and [p] thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned into another man.

7 [q] And let it be, when these [r] signs are come unto thee, [s] that thou do as occasion serve thee; for [t] God is with thee.

8 And thou shalt go down before me [u] to Gilgal; and, behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings: [x] seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and shew thee what thou shalt do.

9 ¶ And it was so, that when he had turned his [y] back to go from Samuel, God [z] gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day.

10 And [a] when they came thither to the hill, behold, [b] a company of prophets met him; and [c] the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 And it came to pass, when all that knew him beforetime saw that, behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said [3] one to another, What is this that is come unto the son of Kish? [d] Is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one [e] of the same place answered and said, But [f] who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, [g] Is Saul also among the prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 ¶ And [h] Saul's uncle said unto him and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that [q] the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

17 ¶ And Samuel called the people together [r] unto the LORD to [s] Mizpeh;

18 And said unto the children of Israel, [t] Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you:

tation of mind and feeling that caused him to resolve to seek the way of Yahweh. God "gave" him this heart in the same way as He hardened Pharaoh's heart - by guiding the circumstances that would lead to that end. See Exod 9:14-35 Hom. 6:6

ISRAEL LAMENTED. 1 SAM. 7:2.

The word embraces two ideas: sorrow for sin & gathering together around Yahweh. This was the result of Samuel's labour. How he did this we are not told. With the recovery of the Ark there was no restoration of national worship nor 383 of political independence. But quietly & calmly Samuel was laboring to put all things right - moving from place to place, instilling a sense of responsibility until the urge for reform & independence was so powerful that the people gathered together in sorrow for the past & determination to repair their mistakes. This gathering incited the war that followed. 1 Sam. 7:7. Samuel called upon them to rearm spiritually in preparation for an attempt to execute political independence V.3.

THEY HAVE REJECTED ME!" It was not a mere theoretical, but a practical casting off of Yahweh. Such a rejection is one of the great dangers of the life in Christ. It is an experience full of heart-breaking sadness. Men retain God in their written creeds but depose Him from the throne of their lives. Men who would be startled to be called atheists, yet live athiestically. They believe in God but hold Him at arm's length. They possess a form of Godliness, but deny its power and transforming force. They have a creed but no life in it, a worship, but it is one of the eyes whilst the heart remains cold and dumb — they listen but do not heed.

28 In this impressive ceremony Israel was first drawn up in 12 massed divisions, among which Benjamin was by far the smallest. Then as the lot fell on Benjamin, that tribe would be drawn up divided into its large family groups. Then the House of Matri was brought before the rest - until Saul was selected. Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore [b] present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands.

20 And when Samuel had [c] caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

21 When he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families, the family of Matri was taken, and Saul the son of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they [d] enquired of the LORD further, if the man should yet come thither. And the LORD answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the stuff.

23 And they ran and fetched him thence: and when he stood among the people, [e] he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him [f] whom the LORD hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, [g] God save the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people [h] the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 ¶ And Saul also went home to [i] Gibeah; and there went with him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched.

AMMONITE ATTACK ON JABESH-GILEAD ROUTED

NAHASH INVADES THE EAST. VV 1-3.

1 Sig "Serpent." Later befriended by Saul. 1 Sam. 20:42. Was at variance with Saul. 2 Sam. 10:2.

2 Descendants of Lot. See note Deut. 2:19. Invaded Israel in days of Ehud Jud. 3:13 and Jephthah Jud. 10:6, 9, 18. See opp. 392.

3 Sig. "Dry." "Rough." They seemed to have been friendly towards the Israelites, for they refrained from participating in the general rising against them. Jud. 21:8-15. As a result of which, the town was put to the sword. There must have existed a sympathy Benjamin? the town particularly as intermarriage was so complete. Jud. 21:12. The town was situated in the high-lands on the edge of the Jordan Valley. For it to fall to Ammon would be a threat to the central tribes of Israel.

According to Josephus these events occurred about 1 month after the appointment of Saul.

Jabesh was besieged and waited in vain for relief. Their case seemed hopeless, and the criticism of Saul which was sweeping the land seemed to have been justified. They realised they were in no condition to risk a war and sought the terms of peace.

Thus in capacitating them for war. He who opposes his shield to the enemy with his left hand, hides his left eye, and requires his right eye for sight.

It was an insult to all Israel showing they had left their brethren to the fate of the enemy. Nahash doubtless thought he had all Israel in fear, and sensing an easy victory consented to the terms of the respite that followed. Cp. 17:26.

8 They, too, had lost confidence in the ability of Saul. See opp. 392.

SEVEN DAYS RESPITE 4-9.

SAMUEL'S SPEECH OF RESIGNATION - There is nothing decrepit or wanting in this speech - nothing to suggest the impairment of his faculties. He finished his course in full vigour of all his power. How different to those who know not when to retire and who, in consequence, outlive their usefulness — whose retirement is impatiently awaited by a people who have forgotten their past services and bear in mind only their present failing powers and shortcomings. His farewell like the people as did Moses Deut 31 - Joshua Josh 24

CHAPTER 12.

SAMUEL RESIGNS IN FAVOUR OF SAUL

HE CLEARLY REVEALS TO THE PEOPLE THEIR RESPONSIBILITY

There is something grand in the picture of the aged, grey-headed Judge publicly laying down his leadership, calling upon the people to testify to his personal integrity and leading them, for the last time, to the worship of Yahweh.

HE CALLS UPON THE PEOPLE TO TESTIFY TO HIS INTEGRITY Vv.1-5

1 This speech evidently formed part of the celebrations of this time. The old grey-headed Judge was able to challenge the world to bring a just accusation against his ministry.

2 cp Ch 8:5-6 for the request that brought forth this answer. Note that it is couched in similar terms.

3 As a shepherd would his flock. cp Num. 27:17.

4 Generally agreed these words intimate that Samuel had deprived them of public employ and reduced them to level of common people. The people could deal with them as they thought fit.

5 He had been subjected to the glare of public gaze from childhood. 3:19-20

6 His appeal is to the people. He does not claim to be without fault in Yahweh's sight.

7 cp Exod 23:8. Lev 6:4 Lk 19:8. The Law demanded this Ex 22:4

9 Not natural ability but Divine guidance. Neh. 9:14. Ps 77:20. Is 12. Isa 63:7-14. Hos 12:13.

By a consideration of the way of Providence learn what was required, in their attitude towards Yahweh.

11 So the peaks and shadows of Israel's history were governed by the spiritual attitude of the people and nation.

12 These words epitomize the history of the Judges which can be summarised under four headings: SINNING - SUFFERING - SUPPLICATION - SALVATION.

Made in the sense of appointed. 1 Ki 12:31. Samuel impresses the people with the fact that their national greatness is due exclusively to Yahweh. The Exodus was the great turning point in their history.

10 To Gilgal. This seems almost like a further sign. Saul has to observe faith and patience. His attention given to the anti-typical 7th day. He obeyed this sign 11:14 - but failed to do so on a subsequent occasion 13:8.

10 11. Is Saul among the prophets? This question implies that Saul of prophets well known & that such character was such as to make this reaction surprising. cp 4:12.

men of Jabesh; and they were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, To morrow [a] we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that seemeth good unto you.

11 And it was so on the morrow, that [c] Saul put the people [s] in three companies; and they came into the midst of the host in [h] the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were scattered, so that two of them were not left together. BOOZ. From 3:6.

12 ¶ And the people said unto Samuel, [i] Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? [k] bring the men, that we may put them to death.

13 And Saul said, [m] There shall not a man be put to death this day: for to day [o] the LORD hath wrought salvation in Israel.

14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to [p] Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there. Cp 10:24, 27. Ch 11:12

15 And all the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king [r] before the LORD in Gilgal; and [s] there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

Reason reveals that obedience brings happiness: disobedience = ruin

1 Samuel testifieth his integrity. 6 He reproveth the people of ingratitude. 16 He terrifieth them with thunder in harvest time. 20 He comforteth them in God's mercy.

AND Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto [b] your voice in all that ye said unto me, and [d] have made a king over you.

2 And now, behold, the king [f] walketh before you: [g] and I am old and grayhead; and, behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my childhood unto this day.

3 Behold, here I am: witness against me [b] before the LORD, and before [b] his anointed: [c] whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I [d] defrauded? whom have I [d] oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any [e] bribe [e] to [e] blind mine eyes therewith? and I will restore it you.

5 And he said unto them, The LORD is witness against you, and [b] his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found ought [t] in my hand. And they answered, He is witness.

A loud wail of lamentation, usual to distressed cities was heard in Gibeah.

At this time of national emergency the shy, retiring Saul was found following the herd rather than attending to affairs of State. Whilst this shows the humility of the monarch it also served to emphasize the apparent validity of the criticism of the men of Belial Ch 10:27. Jud. 3:10. 6:34. 11:29. 1 Sam. 11:6 etc. He felt himself strongly excited to attempt the relief of his brethren.

He was consumed with a burning anger.

Vs. 16-19.

Heb. "dabar" = Word. The sign indicated the power of prayer. James 5:17-18. Yahweh spoke to Israel through this incident, and by it showed the people they were able to call upon One Who could save. It demonstrated that Yahweh could advance or retard the fortunes of Israel beyond the natural striving of man, for He is above and beyond the normal forces of men or nature.
June-July. Rainless months.
See note. Ch. 2:6.
Suddenly a heavy bank of clouds could be seen driving towards the people, blotting out the blue Palestinian sky, darkening the bright, burning sun. As the people trembled at the unusual sight, the thunder rolled and roared above, terrible lightnings flashed and the rain sheeted down.

To the people, the dark awful omen spoke of Yahweh's anger and fury, and with a consciousness of their shortcomings they pleaded with Samuel to intercede for them.
25. They recognised their failings, which reached its climax in asking for a King instead of awaiting Yahweh's own time. He had promised a King. Even Hannah had recognised that in her song. Ch. 2:10.

Portion of the land could be dominated by them. Hence the Philistine garrison. This was the route taken by Joshua. Josh. 8.

11 And the LORD sent (a) Jerubbaal, and Bedan, and (b) Jephthah, and (c) Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe.
12 And when ye saw that (d) Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, (e) ye said unto me, Nay; but a king shall reign over us: when (f) the LORD your God was your king.
13 Now therefore (g) behold the king (h) whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired! and, behold, (i) the LORD hath set a king over you.
14 If ye will (k) fear the LORD, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the (l) commandment of the LORD, then shall both ye and also the king that reigneth over you (m) continue following the LORD your God: – Or severe, Hifil unfinished!!
15 But if ye will (n) not obey the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then shall (o) the hand of the LORD be against you, (p) as it was against your fathers.
16 ¶ Now therefore (q) stand and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes.
17 Is it not (r) wheat harvest to day? (s) I will call unto the LORD, and he shall send thunder and rain; that ye may perceive and see that (t) your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking you a king.
18 So Samuel called unto the LORD; and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day: and (u) all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.
19 And all the people said unto Samuel, (v) Pray for thy servants unto the LORD thy God, that we die not: for we have added unto all our sins this evil, to ask us a king.

SIGNS FOR SAUL CH. 10. V. 2. Saul is sent out of his way to seek for the men (like the nation) seeking for him. The first sign takes him back to the origin of his tribe. Rachel died giving him life; her grave stood at the extremity of his tribal inheritance. He must give up his life to serve his people. The 2nd sign V. 3. speaks of fellowship Ecc. 4:12. based upon sacrifice & communion. Tabor signifies Broken or Rough. This is by the 'ELOWN - Oak or Strength moving up to Bethel. The 3rd sign V. 5 reveals the problem & solution: the Philistines on the hill of God but the strength & ability to conquer provided by the Spirit of God. - together with the need to wait for God. V. 8.

Samuel reproveth Saul. I. SAMUEL 13. The Philistines' policy.

Jonathan, under command of Saul that Saul had smitten a [a] garrison of the Philistines, and that Israel also was had in abomination with the Philistines. And the people [c] were called together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 ¶ And the Philistines gathered themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people [f] as the sand which is on the sea shore in multitude: and they came up, and pitched in Michmash, eastward from Beth-aven.

6 When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait, (for the people [k] were distressed,) then the people did hide themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in [m] high places, and in pits.

7 And some of the Hebrews went over Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. As for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.

8 ¶ And [o] he tarried seven days, according to the set time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him.

9 And Saul said, Bring hither a burnt offering to me, and peace offerings. And he offered the burnt offering.

10 And it came to pass, that as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might salute him.

11 ¶ And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the days appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselves together at Michmash;

12 Therefore said I, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not [2] made supplication unto the LORD: I [b] forced myself therefore, and offered a burnt offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, [d] Thou hast done foolishly: [e] thou hast not kept the commandment of the LORD thy God, which he commanded thee: for now would the LORD have established thy kingdom upon Israel for ever.

14 [g] But now thy kingdom shall not continue: [h] the LORD hath sought him a man after his own heart, and the LORD hath commanded him to be captain over his people, because thou hast not kept that which the LORD commanded thee.

15 And Samuel arose, and gat him up from Gilgal unto [n] Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were [i] present with him, [o] about six hundred men.

16 And Saul, and [p] Jonathan his son, and the people that were [4] present with them, abode in [3] Gibeah of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmash.

17 ¶ And [r] the spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned unto the way that leadeth to [s] Ophrah, unto the land of Shual:

18 And another company turned the way to [t] Beth-horon: and another company turned to the way of the border that looketh to the valley of [u] Zeboim toward the wilderness.

19 ¶ Now [x] there was no smith found throughout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears:

20 But all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his share, and his [y] coulter, and his axe, and his mattock.

14 See Note. Josh. 9:11.
20 He thus acted unconstitutionally. His impatience revealed he did not have the calmness and faith necessary to lead a Theocracy.
21 He came on the seventh day, and thus within the time prescribed. Saul should have waited a little longer, strengthening himself with such assurance as 2 Chron. 32:7.

SAUL REJECTED. Vs 11-14.

22 The smoking sacrifices, the small group of fear-stricken men, the worried King, now had to face the anger of the stern resolute Prophet.

23 This was doubtless true Saul acted sincerely but completely out of character. NIV: "I felt compelled to offer." His religion at best was flesh motived. The situation was perilous. Saul descended to Gilgal expecting to gather the forces of the whole nation about him. Instead the people fled leaving him only 600 V. 15. The Philistines occupied Michmash & might at any moment pour down into the valley to Gilgal. Delay might prove fatal. Hence Saul "forced himself" to make the offering.

Ch. 16:1, 12. 2 Sam. 7:15-16. Ps. 78:70. Ps. 89:20-21. Neh. 13:22.

24 His own pleasure One who though fallible would give 25 strict adherance to the Law and worship. 2. Acknowledge the regal supremacy of Yahweh. 3. Faith to accept His Word and be guided by Divine revelation. 4. In his public official conduct seek the Divine will.

Thus the day witnessed both a military and a moral defeat.

SAUL IN GIBEAH Vv. 15-16.

The Sept. adds: "and the rest of the people went up after Saul to meet the army when they arrived from Gilgal." The eye of the scribe going back to this last Gilgal instead of the previous one.

Heb. "The hill." The triumph of the Philistines made Saul a refugee in his own Kingdom.

See Ch. 14:2.

The number of men (created on the 6th day, and of conjure for it lacks that which would make it the perfect number.

4 V. 2. An important fort above the precipitous pass of Michmash guarding the direct route from the Jordan valley to the coastal plain Palestine.

THE PHILISTINES RAVAGE THE LAND. Vv. 17-18.

Bands of Philistines ranged the countryside giving themselves over to pillage and destruction, bringing the people under a thraldom of fear. Heb. The Destroyer.

Sig. "Mind." A town of Benjamin Jos. 18:25. north of Michmash situated on a conical hill giving a splendid view of the surrounding country. About 4 m. NW. East of Bethel.

Sig. "Fox" or "Jackal." Probably denotes wild uninhabited part where these animals abounded.

Sig. "House of Hollowness," To the west. A rough mountainous part on the borders of Ephraim and Benjamin Josh. 16:10 controlling the main pass.

(Hyenas). East in Benjamin. Thus the tribe of Benjamin particularly affected to the embarrassment of Saul. His elevation to dignity had proved no blessing to his tribe.

ISRAEL'S HUMILIATION Vv. 19-22.

The Philistines carefully guarded the secret of iron

21 Yet they had [2]a file for the mattocks, and for the coulters, and for the forks, and for the axes, and [3]to sharpen the goads.

22 So it came to pass in the day of battle, that [4]there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found.

23 And the [4]garrison of the Philistines went out to [5]the passage of Michmash.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Jonathan miraculously smiteth the Philistines' garrison. 15 A divine terror maketh them beat themselves. 24 Saul's unadvised adjuration.

NOW [6]it came to pass upon a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said unto the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side. But he told not his father.

2 And Saul tarried in the uttermost part of [1]Gibeah under a [5]pomegranate tree which is in [1]Migron: and the people that were with him were about six hundred men;

3 And [7]Ahiah, the son of Ahitub, [8]I-chabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD's priest in [9]Shiloh, [10]wearing an ephod. And the people knew not that Jonathan was gone.

4 ¶ And between [11]the passages, by which Jonathan sought to go over unto the Philistines' garrison, there was a sharp rock on the one side, and a sharp rock on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh.

5 The [12]forefront of the one was [13]situate northward over against Michmash, and the other southward over against [1]Gibeah.

6 And Jonathan said to the young man that bare his armour, Come, and let us go over unto the garrison of these [14]uncircumcised: it may be that the LORD will work for us: for [15]there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few.

7 And his armourbearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee; behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over unto these men, and we will discover ourselves unto them.

9 If they say thus unto us, [16]Tarry until we come to you; then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up unto them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for [17]the LORD hath delivered them into our hand: and [18]this shall be a sign unto us.

11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid themselves.

12 And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armourbearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armourbearer, Come up after me: for the LORD hath delivered them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armourbearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armourbearer slew after him.

14 And that first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armourbearer slew, was within as it were an half acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow.

15 And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Ahiah, Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

19 ¶ And it came to pass, while Saul talked unto the priest, that the noise that was in the host of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul and all the people that were with him assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was very great confusion.

21 Moreover the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the country round about, even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 So the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over unto Beth-aven.

24 And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food until evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted any food.

25 And all they of the land came to a wood; and there was honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in an honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened.

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Thy father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food this day. And the people were faint.

29 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely this day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon: and the people were very faint.

32 And the people flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the blood.

33 Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day.

34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slew them there.

35 And Saul built an altar unto the LORD: the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.

36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us draw near hither unto God.

37 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But he answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, Draw ye hither all the chief of the people: and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day.

39 For, as the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and, lo, I must die.

44 And Saul answered, God do so and more also: for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: as the LORD liveth, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed them.

48 And he gathered an host, and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of them that spoiled them.

49 Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishui, and Melchi-shua: and the names of his two daughters were these; the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal:

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the captain of his host was Abner, the son of Ner, Saul's uncle.

51 And Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, he took him unto him.

JONATHAN'S VICTORY OF FAITH CONFIRMED THE PROMISE OF DEUT. 32:30 AND GAVE NEW HEART TO THE ISRAELITES. IT WAS BASED ON SUCH CONFIDENCE AS IS EXPRESSED IN 2 CHRON. 32:7-8. Saul's oath V. 24 would bind God to curse what He had already blessed.

SAUL'S SECOND FAILURE — RASH WILFULNESS.

SAUL'S FOOLISH OATH V. 24 • Caused the innocent to suffer 24-30; 37-46 • Weakened the people 31-34. • Lessened his victory 30 • Silenced God V. 37. • Antagonised the people 45. • Enabled Philistines escape contributing to his own death at their hands.

bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were [2]an half acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow.

15 And there was trembling in the host, in the field, and among all the people: the garrison, and [c]the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was [3]a very great trembling.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in [f]Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and, behold, the multitude [g]melted away, and they went on [i]beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, and see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armourbearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Ahiah, Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was at that time with [j]the children of Israel.

19 ¶ And it came to pass, while [m]Saul talked unto the priest, that the [4]noise that was in the host of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, Withdraw thine hand.

20 And Saul and all the people that were with him [5]assembled themselves, and they came to the battle: and, behold, [6]every man's sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great [p]discomfiture.

21 Moreover [q]the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Israel which [r]had hid themselves [7]in [s]mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle.

23 [t]So the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over [u]unto Beth-aven.

24 ¶ And the men of Israel [8]were distressed that day: for Saul had [v]adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food until evening, that I may be avenged on mine enemies. So none of the people tasted any food.

25 And [9]all they of the land came to a wood; and there was [k]honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, [k]the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dipped it in an [l]honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened.

28 Then [10]answered one of the people, and said, Thy father straitly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food this day. And the people were [11]faint.

29 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 And they smote the Philistines that day from [r]Michmash to [s]Aijalon: and the people were very faint.

32 And the people [x]flew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and

SAUL'S FOOLISH RESTRICTION

Vv. 24-26. See above

Saul quickly seized the opportunity afforded him through the faith of his son, and setting his rapidly increasing army in battle array, gave the order to advance against the enemy together with a command of abstinence which exhibited a zeal but not according to knowledge. Contrast this action with the wiser counsel of the other Saul in the storm-tossed ship. Acts 27:34

25 His concern was for his personal triumph and he pursued this even at the expense of the needs of the people.

They held a "corner" on the iron market however and closely guarded the trade secrets of its production. This we infer from the excavations, and from the interesting passage in 1 Sam. 13:19-22.

Once the Philistine power was broken by the first Kings, Saul and David, the secret of the iron-smelting process became public property, and the metal came into use in Israel. This promptly resulted in an economic revolution and higher standard of living for the common man. The war with the 15 His news of Jonathan's attack came to the ears of Philistines they were further troubled by a sudden earthquake. A sense of impending disaster gripped them. A panic some attempted to flee; others tried to prevent them the result - mutual slaughter. Vv. 16, 20.

SAUL PREPARES TO ATTACK. Vv. 16-23.

16 Saul, from his vantage point could see them dispersing in all directions in superstitious fear and dread. Thus: 1. The earth trembled. 2. The Philistines did so from fear. 3. The Israelites did so in joy.

23 Saul's impatience got the better of him. Hearing the increasing noise of the approaching Philistines he did not wait to ask counsel of Yahweh but brushing the restraining hand of the priest aside, he impetuously went to war. V. 24. Is. 10:6-18.

THEY RECEIVE THE SIGN TO ATTACK V. 11

14 An indication of the abject condition of Israel, and the contempt in which they were held by their haughty conquerors.

15 This was said in mockery and with no intention that it should be acted upon. But it was the sign Jonathan wanted.

Jonathan, taken by lot, is saved by the people.

oxen, and calves, and slew them on the ground: and the people did eat them [a] with the blood.

33 ¶ Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against the LORD, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have [2] transgressed: roll a great stone unto me this day.

34 And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his [f] sheep, and slay them here, and eat; and sin not against the LORD in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox [3] with him that night, and slew them there.

35 And Saul [4] built an altar unto the LORD: [6] the same was the first altar that he built unto the LORD.

36 ¶ And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the [m] priest, Let us draw near hither unto God.

37 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But [n] he answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, [7] Draw ye near hither, all the [7] chief of the people: and know and see wherein this sin hath been this day.

39 For, [r] as the LORD liveth, which saveth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the LORD God of Israel, [2] Give a perfect [b] lot. And [c] Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people [3] escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, [d] Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, [e] I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and, lo, I must die.

44 And Saul answered, [g] God do so and more also: [h] for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath wrought this great salvation in Israel? God forbid: [k] as the LORD liveth, [l] there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he hath wrought with God this day. So the people rescued Jonathan, that he died not.

V. 41 Cont from below. Kitto (Cyc. Biblica) amends the LXX to read: "And Saul said, 'O Yahweh God of Israel, why dost thou not answer thy servant today? If this fault be in me or in Jonathan my son, give Urim, and if it be in Thy people Israel, give Thummim.' Thereupon Saul & Jonathan were taken & the people went free. Then Saul said 'Cast between me & Jonathan my son; he whom Yahweh takes shall die': ... So they cast between him & Jonathan, his son, and Jonathan was taken..." The LXX read Urim as Orim derived from Torah, Law. See Deut. 33:10.

V. 17. Under direction Samuel, Saul reserved of the spoil of his victorious, gold ch. for Temple. 1 Chr. 26:28.

35 Thus Saul's foolish abduration was the cause of the people violating Yahweh's law Lev. 3:17. 17:10-12. Gen. 9:4

SAUL'S ALTAR. Vs 33-35.

The stone became a great slaughter block, and then, in turn, an altar. The food of the people became the offering for the law demanded that a certain portion of beast slain should be "murdered" ed Lev 17:3-6. The priest with Saul would supervise the proper disposal of the meat-the offering to Yahweh, the portion for priests, the remainder for the people. It was a rude and shocking commitment conceived in the heat of battle and through the urgency of the people's need. It was another result of Saul's impetuosity, haste and thoughtless folly.

Such a call would assure them that they would not be called upon to continue the chase until they had satisfied their hunger.

YAHWEH REFUSES COUNSEL TO SAUL Vs 36-37.

37 The man of action and opportunity thus speaks - the will of Yahweh is not mentioned by him.

He recognised that a greater Power than Saul was fighting for Israel. Exod 23:20 & Ps. 73:28 When often hundred Saul, he with faithful courage called them to God. If he were Ahimelech he dressed Saul 1 Sam 22:12-19

WHO HAS SINNED? Vs 38-42.

The vow though a most unwise and thoughtless one having been made must be carried out Ecc. 5:2-4. But for the moment Saul did not realise that it was the violation of the vow. He seemed to have thought it was some sin that stood between Yahweh and the people Cp V. 41. Saul's words were answered by a deep hush. Israel disclaimed responsibility thus the house of Saul was separated. All the people sensed a tragedy. Was the young faithful Jonathan who had wrought such a notable victory to be slain through the folly of his father?

40 Imitating Samuel 7:17. Instead he should have sought his co-operation & help.

41 Conscious that his foolish oath had prevented a decisive victory, he proposed to repair the damage by a night attack.

V. 41 Cont from below. Kitto (Cyc. Biblica) amends the LXX to read: "And Saul said, 'O Yahweh God of Israel, why dost thou not answer thy servant today? If this fault be in me or in Jonathan my son, give Urim, and if it be in Thy people Israel, give Thummim.' Thereupon Saul & Jonathan were taken & the people went free. Then Saul said 'Cast between me & Jonathan my son; he whom Yahweh takes shall die': ... So they cast between him & Jonathan, his son, and Jonathan was taken..." The LXX read Urim as Orim derived from Torah, Law. See Deut. 33:10.

V. 17. Under direction Samuel, Saul reserved of the spoil of his victorious, gold ch. for Temple. 1 Chr. 26:28.

40 See note below Gen 26:5. Num 16:5. Prov. 16:33

41 Lit. "for best" They had previously shown their disapproval by silence. They are now appealed that the offense might be made right & victory should be restored & protected.

THOU MUST DIE JONATHAN V. 43-44.

Swept along by the notable victory of the day and the swift moving events, Saul did not consider that the fault was his. Jonathan made no oath. He had not heard the King's instructions. Yahweh did not condemn Jonathan, but merely revealed that a solemn vow had been broken & restitution must be made.

RESCUED. V. 45-46

45 Heb. "padah." - Redeemed. Evidently by sacrifices. But the broken vow meant the end of the war. The Philistines escaped through the folly of Saul.

SAUL'S WARFARE PROWESS Vs 47-52.

Relieved of the pressure of Philistines Saul extended his conquests on every side, even to far distant Zobah.

Saul destroyeth Amalek. He spareth Agag, &c.

All he caught or took - but many escaped. 27:8.

and the name of the younger [a] Michal:

50 And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of the captain of his host was [b] Abner, the son of Ner, [c] Saul's uncle.

51 And [d] Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of [e] Abiel.

52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any strong man, or any valiant man, [f] he took him unto him.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Samuel sendeth Saul to destroy Amalek. 8 He spareth Agag and the best of the spoil. 10 God rejects him for disobedience. 24 Saul's humiliation.

SAMUEL also said unto Saul, [m] The LORD sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the LORD.

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, [n] how he [r] laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt.

3 Now go and smite Amalek, and [o] utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay [t] both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.

4 And Saul [s] gathered the people together, and numbered them in [u] Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.

5 And Saul came to a city of Amalek, and [t] laid wait in the valley.

6 ¶ And Saul said unto [a] the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them: for [b] ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And [c] Saul smote the Amalekites from [c] Havilah until thou comest to [d] Shur, that is over against Egypt.

8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed [h] all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people [i] spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but every thing that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

10 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Samuel, saying,

11 [l] It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king: for he is [m] turned back from following me, [o] and hath not performed my commandments. And it grieved Samuel; and he cried unto the LORD all night.

12 And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to [q] Carmel, and, behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal.

13 And Samuel came to Saul: and Saul said unto him, [m] Blessed be thou of the LORD: I have performed the commandment of the LORD.

14 And Samuel said, What meaneth then this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: [s] for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the LORD hath said to Indicating the King was subservient to the Prophet, and the latter had the right to command the former.

Ex. Exod. 17:8 14, 16. Deut. 25:17-19. 400 yrs had passed, and now Divine retribution was about to fall.

Heb. "Devote to destruction."

Amalek represented the Serpent power; the young were as harmless serpents, but Yahweh knew their potentiality for evil. If it had been other wise He would have saved them as He did the children of Korah. See. See note Num. 16

Sig. "Little Lambs" Thought to be south of Judah.

Amalek was a descendant of Esau Gen. 36:12 and occupied land adjacent to Kadesh which seems to be the city referred to here. Num. 13:29. 14:25

Sig. Lambs - spotted ones - Dark. See pp. 393

Nachal = torrent-bed - River Paran?

CH. 14: 47-52. SUMMARY.

The Summary is placed here because with the defeat of the Philistines Saul consolidated his control of the nation. His victories include the war with the Ammonites Ch. 11:11. and the Amalekites, Ch. 15:3-7. Saul's Victory in battle made him impatient with God.

CHAPTER 15 ● PROJECT Accomplished 1-7. ● Partial Obedience 8-11 ● Professed faithfulness 12-13. ● Public failure 14-19. ● Poor excuse 20-21. ● Prophetic rebuke 22-23. ● Pretended repentance 24-27. ● Predicted rejection 28-29 ● People feared 30-31. ● Punishment administered 32-33. ● Parting of ways 34-35

The full measure of Amalek's wickedness is not revealed, but it must have justified the measures here ordered for its extermination. Gen. 18:25. Cp Num. 15:18
