AGAG SAVED V. 9.

The decision was evidently the result of a general conference.

Evidently to make a more splendid show at the sacrificial thanksgiving ceremony.

It was a glorying in the flesh Cp V 21. Agag was a victim more fitted for the judgment of God, than the helpless sheep and oxen, whose fat carcases and senseless bleating and lowing filled the prophet with anger and disdain.

SAMUEL REBUKES SAUL Vv 12-19

Sig. "Fruitful field." Not the Mount but a village about 16 M. East Hebron, the residence Nabal. 1 Sam. 25:2 Sept. says he rode there in a chariot.

Heb "Yad" = hand. (See Sept.) Saul probably set up a monument in the shape of a hand set on a pillar as an emblem of victory and power

The appearance of the stern indomitable prophet with long mantle and flowing hair was as a discordant note in the happy enthusiasm at Gilgal.

Before the blazing eyes of the angry prophet Saul conveniently passes over his own guilt.

This was said to justify disobedience. It was not the real reason which was personal aggrandisement. It was doing "evil that good might come" - a principle condemned by Paul Rom. 3:8 Note V. 17.

me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said, @When thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the LORD anointed thee king over Israel?

18 And the LORD sent thee on a journey, and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until [2] they be consumed.

19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the LORD, but didst [c] fly upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the LORD?

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Yea, [f] I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 [h] But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of [k] the things which should have been utterly destroyed, to sacrifice unto the LORD thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, @Hath the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, @to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

23 For rebellion is as the sin of [l] witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and [o] idolatry. Because thou hast rejected the word of the LORD, [r] he hath also rejected thee from being king.

24 ¶ And Saul said unto Samuel, [s] I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and thy words: because I [t] feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sin, and turn again

THE STRENGTH OF ISRAEL V29 – from a root word (Naw-tsakh) meaning "to Glitter" from afar. i.e. To be eminent, permanent, to excell. The word itself (Nay-tsakh) signifies a "goal," i.e the bright object at a distance travelled towards, hence truthfulness, Confidence, Splendour, Eternity, Strength, Victory. Vulgate renders Triumph. Cp 1 Chron 29:11 It is the Goal to which true Israelites [illegible] the context implies that it is here used in the sense of steadfastness, constancy, unchangeableness. Yahweh is the Immutable or Unchangeable One of Israel. He is not like man! inconstant, unreliable, changeable? NETSATH He does not vacillate in his Majesty, feelings or purposes. His Strength or Unchangeableness is (see 1 Sam 15:6).

THE SIGN OF THE TORN MANTLE 27-29

26 D'up the parable of the good Samaritan, the "neighbor" to the needy Luke 10:29,36.

28 And Samuel said unto him, @The LORD hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

29 And also the [3] Strength of Israel [p] will not lie nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.

30 Then he said, I have sinned: yet honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and [t] turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD thy God.

31 So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped the LORD.

32 ¶ Then said Samuel, Bring ye hither to me Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came unto him delicately. And Agag said, Surely the bitterness of death is past.

33 And Samuel said, [u] As thy sword hath made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless among women. And [v] Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the LORD in [w] Gilgal.

34 ¶ Then Samuel went to [3] Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to [x] Gibeah of Saul.

35 And [32] Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death: nevertheless Samuel [s] mourned for Saul: and the LORD [a] repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

THE SIGN OF THE TORN MANTLE 27-29

27 Saul, with his monument of Victory in Carmel v.12, with his preserving of Agag to grace the Victory celebrations had overlooked from Whose the victory had come. Samuel graphically reminds him that victory is of Yahweh. Deut 33:27 ff. 2 Sam 22:35. Ps 20:7.

HONOUR ME BEFORE THE PEOPLE V30-31

28 This could only be done by vindicating Yahweh's word that Saul had brought into contempt before the people. Thus the vigor which Samuel dealt with Agag.

AGAG'S DEATH 12-33

29 Sept. "Trembling." Moffatt "with tottering steps." C.B. "in fetters." J.V. RSV "Shrinks." Delicately implies to choose one's way. Cheerfully. The fettered Agag brought before the angry prophet would see the sentence of death in his face.

30 Lit. "Death is bitter" (Moffatt. A. Clarke) This was a plea for life.

31 The night of the stern, resolute prophet hewing the mighty Gogue in pieces must have impressed the Israelites with a realisation of the spiritual vigor Saul lacked. The Victory celebrations were completely spoiled. The narrative speaks as though Saul, Samuel, having destroyed Agag, abruptly turned his back on Saul and left the gathering at Gilgal. A more dramatic exit could not have been made.

SAMUEL LEAVES SAUL 34-35.

32 Thus Saul by his folly cut himself off from the friends who could help him best.

33 Ps. 119:136, 158; Rom 9:2-3; Phil. 3:18.

34 Saul having confessed his sin is permitted to worship. There is still opportunity for repentence unto eternal life. Moreover to do otherwise could have undermined the present government and led to disorder, intrigue & anarchy.

Constantly arrested in Scripture. It is implied in the Name Yahweh Ithal. 3:6.; It is expressed in the title of Rock as used by Moses Deut. 32:4, 18, 31; It was stated by Balaam Num. 23:19; and proclaimed by Hannah in her song of praise 1 Sam. 2:2. Adon See Note Chief Musician App. p. 11.

23 This implies that Saul had become conceited. Pomp, pride, personal aggrandizement led to his Fall.

23A CHATTATH: This is a title given to the Amalekites. They typified the flesh in perfect manifestation, to be destroyed by one acting as King-Priest.

23B Saul had [illegible] [illegible] of the Lord's commandment. v.18. Amalek. 24 indulges in self-justification.

23C There is an implied censure of Samuel in this phrase - Saul says that Samuel blames him for what was done in honor of Samuel's God. His zeal exceeds that of Samuel.

24 Saul refuses to acknowledge his blame. If he had humbly accepted Samuel's rebuke and sought Yahweh's mercy, a means of redemption may have been found.

TO OBEY IS BETTER THAN SACRIFICE Vv. 22-23.

25 See note in "The Prophetic Office" on message of prophets App. p. 9. Cp Ex. 19:5

26 Teraphim" - Household gods condemned by Samuel. Saul's house was apparently guilty of these Cp. Gen 19:13.

27 Punishable with death. Ex. 22:18; Lev 20:6, 27; Deut 18:10-11 Cp 1 Sam. 28:9.

SAUL IS REJECTED. Vv 24-26.

28 This was the real cause. But was Saul really repentent? Despite the acknowledgement of his sin there was not a forsaking of it. See 2 Sam. 12:10. Therefore his rejection is confirmed. Cp Exod 32:2 Prov 29:25 Isa. 51:12-13 Cp Gal. 1:10.

V.11 He cried all night: He did this on his own only for Saul and the kingdom. He was deeply moved by the circumstances. His feelings are reflected in the vigor of his judgement on Amalek.

For these would seem to be the same two qualities involved.... Hence NETSACH denotes both brilliance (yielding the connotations "preeminence, glory, victory, leadership) and "endurance" supplying "long lasting, remedy" Cp Lam. 3:18.

Though He is said to repent - V.11 - but this is to effect minor changes in relation to His unchangeable purpose brought about by changeable and fickle man. The Strength of Israel always shines with undimmished splendour; the Goal is always prominently displayed for man to see and reach unto. There is no Vacillence in Him. James. 1:17; 1 Thn. 1:5; Heb 6:18 His word is sure Ps 33:4-11; Prov 14:22; Isa. 46:10 His unchangeableness is exhibited in Christ 2 Cor. 1:20 and will find reflection in those who are Christ's Heb. 13:7-9. It is suggestive to observe how the sun, source of earth's energy, embraces and conveys the dual notions, light + durability.

1 SAMUEL 11: EARLY PROMISE OF SAUL'S REIGN

THE SERPENT POWER REPULSED.

Nahash, 1 Ch. 19:1 The Serpent attacks not the strongest part of Israel vs. 7 the Serpent attacks not the strongest part warrior 14 but the weakest. Jabesh-Gilead contributed no rebuke 552 to the Benjamite war, & was visited with time: R's destruction by the armies of the tribes at that s w—. Jabesh (dry) Gilead (heap of witness) suggests dilatoriness that is dried up, not productive, in deliverance. The city is prepared to surrender, but the demand is the removal of the eye of Faithfulness.

The Spirit of God comes on Saul and with the help of Samuel he leads the people to victory. They gather at Bezek (Lightning-Str) and with the help of the Spirit gain a victory.

Samuel gathers the people to Gilgal (where the reproach of Egypt was rolled away) and the Kingdom is confirmed on the basis of victory over Nahash. All Israel rejoice, but it would seem that Samuel did so with reservations as his words of ch. 12 imply.

1 SAM. 11:3 Sent messengers: They evidently were in ignorance of Saul's appointment or had no confidence in his ability. As they had isolated themselves at the time of the Benjamite crisis Jud 21: 5-9. perhaps they did at the appointment of Saul.

Ammonites.: Claimed that Israel had taken territory rightly belonged to them. Jud. 11:13.- but their defeat by Jephthah had so broken their power that a century had elapsed before they renewed their claim.

1 SAM. 11:6 "The Spirit of God came upon Saul": It came upon him when he heard the tidings. This worked upon the new-found knowledge of God revealed to him & the enthusiasm and stimulation this gave him. Already this had caused him to prophesy 1 Sam. 10:6 and gave a new turn to his heart 1 Sam. 10:9. Now the knowledge of God stimulated his anger and motivated him to action. There was no miraculous influence necessary - only the stimulation of the mind by a knowledge of God & His will. In this way all mighty and noble acts of heroism by men of faith are traceable to God. See Jud. 3:10; 6:34; 11:29; 13:25; 14:6; 15:14. When Saul was no longer mentally motivated by Divine principles the Spirit left him. 1 Sam. 16:14-16, 23

A person's faith is stimulated by the Word of God Rom. 10: 17 & is moved thereby to heroic acts Heb 11.

1 SAM. 11:8 Israel & Judah.: This distinction, so early apparent finally resulted in the disruption of the nation. Why the distinction at this point? Perhaps Judah did not enthusiastically receive Saul as King believing that the royal dignity should have been reserved for one of the tribe Gen. 49:8-10. For did not it legally the tribes in the wilderness wanderings?

Number of warriors. This was about half the number of fighting men that came out of Egypt with a less proportion of Judah Cp. Num. 1:27, 46 with Ex. 12:37.

1 SAM. 12:17. THUNDER & RAIN IN WHEAT HARVEST: Instead of blessings from God they will experience wrath if their misconduct in requesting a king manifests itself in rebellion against Him! The One to Whom they owed so much can punish as well as bless.

1 SAMUEL 12. SUMMARY

Samuel's exhortation to the people at Gilgal is not a farewell speech for he continued to exercise authority 15:35, but an appeal to the people to act upon their responsibilities towards Yahweh at that time of new national development. The chapter is divisible into 3 parts.: A testimony to Samuel's integrity as Judge 1-5. Reproof of the people for disobedience and ingratitude 6-11. Yahweh's witness to Samuel's uprightness & teaching 18-25.

Vs. 20-25 sets forth the Sin of Prayerlessness. Men should always pray Luke 18:1. & In spite of rebelliousness v. 20a. & In anticipation of wholehearted service 20b-21. & In view of Yahweh's faithfulness. 22-24. & In hope of overting evil v. 25.

1 SAMUEL 13: FAILURE IN THE TEST OF FAITH

See Numerical p. 326

The test of faith comes. & In the call for battle 1-4. & When the danger mounts 5-6. & When support fails and fear floods the heart vv. 7-8. Lack of faith results in & Impatience and disobedience vv. 9-10. & Excuses vv. 11-12. & Loss of God's blessing vv. 13-14 & Submission to human strength vv. 15-23. Saul fails through impatience. He intrudes into the priest's office and is rejected. A Key thought is Disobedience v. 13. and a Key verse pronounces Rejection v. 14. Saul's external motions of Religion v. 9 were a mere cover for his lack of faith. Natural courage without faith = self confidence.

1 SAM. 13:1 30,000: According to Keil & Delitzsch, it 1000 be read instead of 30, 000 "... the origin of the number 30 must be attributed to the fact, that through the overlight of a copyist the lamed of the word YISRAEL was written twice, & consequently the second lamed was taken for the numeral thirty." The number of chariots (30,000) is disproportionally too large to that of the cavalry — particularly for such hilly terrain. 30,000 chariots could be "thirty chief chariots" v.g. (Pharaoh sent 600 Ex. 14:7. Jabin 900 Jud. 4:3. Zerah 300 2 Chr. 14:9.) or it could relate to charioteers as in 2 Sam. 10:18; 1 Kg 20:21 1 Ch. 19:18.

1 SAM. 13:1. SAUL REIGNED ONE YEAR.: The meaning is "Saul had now, at this point in the narrative, reigned one year, viz. from his first anointing by Samuel at Ramah to his second anointing by him at Gilgal after the defeat of Nahash" M. Anstey.

The historian proceeds to explain that he reigned over Israel 2 years publicly recognised and accepted by all for previously there had been some who disputed the appointment & despised him 1 Sam. 10:17-27.

The implication is that at the end of 2 years Yahweh cast him off, & anointed David in his place. The remaining 37 years of his reign (cp Acts 13:21 & Josephus) are not recognised as legitimate ruling, but treated as a tyranny & persecution. See M. Anstey. Phil. 3:4-9.

Though Saul described as a young man he must have been about 30 yrs old for Jonathan was old enough to have an important command 13:2. RV: 30, but it is incorrect according to the Hebrew.

"MICHMASH" - About 7m NE Jerusalem. Conder: "A narrow gorge with vertical precipice some 800 ft high, hidden until it opens up before one. On the north a narrow spur of hills hides it & on the south a flat plateau extends to the top of the crags. On the south side of this chasm stands Geba of Benjamin, on a rocky knoll with caverns beneath and arable land to the east; and on the opposite side considerably lower than Geba is Michmash, on a sort of saddle, backed by an open & fertile corn field.

1 SAM. 13:16 GIBEAH: should be Geba (mg). This was on the opp. side to Michmash (see note above). Bravely Saul with Jonathan led his small company of warriors to Geba opp. Michmash for a last desperate stand. His little company was contemptuously ignored by the large body of Philistine troops. The Philistines held Saul at bay, whilst small companies of light-armed troops were sent to different parts to plunder the land. V. 17. The Philistines should have directed the full weight of their forces to destroy the few troops commanded by Saul.

1 SAM. 13:11. "BECAUSE I SAW" - Saul excused himself on the grounds of self-sufficiency, failure of others, justification of self and seeming necessity. These are very common excuses to bend the requirements of Yahweh.

1 SAM. 13:3 Chronological adjustment. In 1 Sam. 9:2 Saul is described (BACHUR) as a youth. Here he has a son capable of commanding soldiers. Some 15 or 20 years have been passed over in silence. The attack on the Philistines was evidently ordered by God and was to be initiated by the appointed ceremony v. 8.

1 SAM. 14:3. AHIAH The age for entering the priesthood is not mentioned, but it was probably from 25 Num. 8:24 or 30 yrs of age Num. 4:3. which would imply a period of at least 50 yrs from the taking of the Ark by the Philistines.

I. SAMUEL 16. He anointeth David.

Key Verses - Chosen V.1 Anointed V.13

CHAPTER 16.

1 Samuel sent by God to Beth-lehem. 11 He anointeth David. 15 Saul sendeth to David to quiet his evil spirit.

AND the LORD said unto Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thine horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Beth-lehemite: for [f] I have provided me a king among his sons.

2 And Samuel said, How can I go? if Saul hear it, he will kill me. And the LORD said, Take an heifer with thee, and say, [h] I am come to sacrifice to the LORD.

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and [k] I will shew thee what thou shalt do: and [l] thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name unto thee.

4 And Samuel did that which the LORD spake, and came to Beth-lehem. And the elders of the town [p] trembled at his coming, and said, [r] Comest thou peaceably?

5 And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice unto the LORD: [s] sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.

6 ¶ And it came to pass, when they were come, that he looked on [3] Eliab, and [v] said, Surely the LORD's anointed is before him.

7 But the LORD said unto Samuel, Look not on [4] his countenance, or on the height of his stature; because I have refused him: for the LORD seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh on the [5] outward appearance, but the LORD looketh on the [6] heart.

8 Then Jesse called [7] Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

9 Then Jesse made [8] Shammah to pass by. And he said, Neither hath the LORD chosen this.

10 Again, Jesse made [9] seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. And Samuel said unto Jesse, The LORD hath not chosen these.

11 And Samuel said unto Jesse, Are here all thy children? And he said, [b] There remaineth yet the youngest, and, behold, he keepeth the sheep. And Samuel said unto Jesse, [t] Send and fetch him: for we will not sit [10] down till he come hither.

12 And he sent, and brought him in. Now he was [11] ruddy, and withal [12] of a beautiful countenance, [13] and goodly to look to. And [14] the LORD said, Arise, anoint him: for this is he.

13 Then Samuel took [15] the horn of oil, and [x] anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and [y] the Spirit of the LORD came upon David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to [16] Ramah.

14 ¶ But [z] the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and [a] an evil spirit from the LORD troubled him.

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubleth thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants, which are [c] before thee, to seek out a man, who is a cunning [17] player on an harp: and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall [d] play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, [e] Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

The narrative temporarily ignores chronological order to consider the result of th deposing of Saul in favour o David.

17 A spirit of insanity induced by circumstances afflicted an terrified Saul. It is said to have come "from Yahweh" becau he was responsible for the el evation of David which caus ed a moody spirit of jealousy in Saul. This flamed into fit of acute insanity. Jesse joined David in his wanderings and David placed him under the care of the King of Moab. 1 Sam. 22:1-4.

David was called the "son of Jesse" by Saul as a mark of contempt for his humble origin 1 Sam. 20:31, 22:7, 25:10. This contemptuous form of address was imitated by those who refused the rule of David 2 Sam. 20:1. 1 Kings 12:16. 2 Chron. 10:16.

The same term is used in the prophets to emphasise the humble beginnings of the house of David. 2 Sa. 11:1, 30. Rom. 15:9. The humble descent of Messiah from the obscure house of Jesse is contrasted with the glory of his coming Kingdom. Isa. 11:1 Cp Mic. 5:2.

DAVID'S DRAMATIC INTRODUCTION TO THE NATION

From henceforth David's relationships with Saul are coloured and conditioned by the incident recorded in this Chapter. See top p.395. V.11 Saul, as the tallest man in Israel, the challenge was issued directly at him.

Saul sendeth for David.

I. SAMUEL 17.

Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, and a mighty valiant man, and a man of war, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and the LORD is with him.

19 ¶ Wherefore Saul sent messengers unto Jesse, and said, Send me David thy son, which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them by David his son unto Saul.

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him greatly; and he became his armourbearer.

22 And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he hath found favour in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

CHAPTER 17.

1 The Israelites and Philistines being ready to battle, 4 Goliath challengeth a combat. 12 David accepteth the challenge, and slayeth the giant. 55 Saul taketh notice of David.

NOW the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle, and were gathered together at Shochoh, which belongeth to Judah, and pitched between Shochoh and Azekah, in Ephes-dammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and pitched by the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines.

3 And the Philistines stood on a mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on a mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them.

4 ¶ And there went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.

5 And he had an helmet of brass upon his head, and he was armed with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass.

6 And he had greaves of brass upon his legs, and a target of brass between his shoulders.

7 And the staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and one bearing a shield went before him.

8 And he stood and cried unto the armies of Israel, and said unto them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I a Philistine, and ye servants to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come down to me.

9 If he be able to fight with me, and to kill me, then will we be your servants: but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then shall ye be our servants, and serve us.

10 And the Philistine said, I defy the armies of Israel this day; give me a man, that we may fight together.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid.

12 ¶ Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Beth-lehem-judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man went among men for an old man in the days of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sons of Jesse went and followed Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next unto him Abinadab, and the third Shammah.

14 And David was the young-

20 These qualities subsequently aroused Saul's jealousy. Cp 18:12-14.

21 This estimate of David's character is interesting. He was
1. An excellent musician
2. Used to discipline (man of war)
3. Courageous in action Cp Ch 17:14
4. Discreet in speech
5. Pleasant in appearance
6. A Shepherd - used to leading and caring for the flock
7. Blessed of Yahweh with the Holy Spirit.

GENERAL ACCOUNT OF DAVID'S MINISTRATIONS To Saul 16:20-23.

22 Such a present was a mark of respect Cp Ch 10:27.

23 He demonstrated briefly his qualifications to Saul after which he returned home Ch 18:1-5. The Philistine war again brought him to notice of Saul who now impressed with his general demeanor requests his constant presence at his court Ch 18:2

24 The sympathy and affection of the bright eyed, virile boy was excited by the sad appearance of the gloomy King, whom David was destined to supplant. This affection surmounted Saul's murderous attacks on David and lasted until the end. 2 Sam 1:23.

25 Thus he became his constant companion in peace and war. Heb. 'instrument bearer'. Cp V.14

26 Saul was lifted out of his gloomy melancholy by the soothing and exhilirating music played by the "sweet Psalmist of Israel" and designed to stimulate and comfort. 1 Chron 25:1-3.

Note: The inscription of Ps 8 - 'muth-labben' = 'the death of the man' identifies the Psalm with this incident, and could well portray the thanksgiving of David. Ps. 144 in Sept. has 'inscription - 'A Psalm of David concerning Goliath' & possibly represents the prayer of David as he faced the Giant.

2 They advanced along the valley of Elah V.2 a long winding valley that extends from the Philistine plains just north of Ashdod to the heart of Judea. About 16m. S.W. Jerusalem there is junction formed by two other narrow valleys. At this junction there is a level plain, a ½ mile broad cut by two brooks which combine to form the stream which flows down Vale Elah. To south of it, on the low hills overlooking the valley, has been identified Shochoh in front of which the Philistines encamped facing the Israelites. Shochoh is a strong position, isolated from the rest of the hills overshadowing Vale Elah, and giving position to keep open the line of retreat if necessary.

ABIGAIL: WOMAN OF BEAUTY & BRAINS.

Her name means Father or Giver of Joy - but of her parentage or genealogy we know nothing.

She was a woman of beauty and wisdom 1 Sam. 25:3 and added to these attributes was her faith and understanding of God's ways & purpose 24-31

In these qualities she was matched by David 1 Sam. 16:12, 18.

She was married to Nabal whose name matched his character 1 Sam. 25:25 & whose characteristics illustrate Prov. 30:22. A wealthy man, he was churlish & evil, a disgrace to the house of Caleb Vv 2-3. He was a drunken sot, boorish, rude & brutal, selfish & avaricious, entirely lacking the sensitivity & spiritual qualities of his wife.

She combined humility & tact with her beauty & brains maintaining the peace in the home, so that the young man did not hesitate to approach her in the time of crisis V.14. Probably such approaches had often been made before.

Her tact & wisdom are shown in that she did not attempt to check David's turbulent feelings by argument but won him by her sweet humility, her unexpected gift and the wisdom of her verbal appeal. David was entirely won over and was compelled to say "Blessed be thy advice" V. 33.

Qualities of Abigail: ● Good understanding V.3. -wise & tactful ● Beautiful but not conceited V.3. ● Humble & Godly - unspoiled by wealth or status 2, 6, 23-35. ● She was grateful and prepared to ever-greet it Vv. 14-19. ● She was approachable and reasonable Vv 14-17. ● Quick to act & energetic to save in time of danger V.18. ● Did not nag her husband for his mean & churlish ways, but patiently lived with him, tolerating the abuse she no doubt received from him V 3, 19, 36. ● Understanding the needs of others was of a generous nature V.18. ● Was discreet Vv 19, 36. ● Remained calm in face of crisis 17-19. ● Was courageous V 20 ● Loyal - accepting the responsibility of her husband's action Vv 25, 28. ● Courteous and diplomatic Vv 30-31 ● Clear-sighted in the failings of her husband & yet tried to save & protect him V.25. ● Had the faith to recognise the purpose of God with David Vv. 28-31

HARMONISING DAVID'S LIFE

It has been assessed (See Dorke's Bible) that there are 115 harmonies between the books of Kings Samuel and Chronicles. In Chronicles the circumstances are reviewed from the Divine standpoint without regard to chronology which is sometimes ignored to emphasise the moral & spiritual viewpoint cp 1 Sam. 17:52; 1 Sam. 27:12

1 The constant enemies of Saul 14, 47-52. For their origin see note Jud. 13.
2 They advanced along the valley of Elah V.2. a long [illegible] looking the valley, has been identified as South of it on the low hills overShochoh in front of which the Philistines encamped facing the Israelites. Shocoh is a strong position, isolated from the rest of the hills overshadowing Vale Elah, and in a position to keep open the line of retreat if necessary.

the converging valley that formed the junction of Philistines dominated road leading to Western plains. Saul could have chosen a position, not immediately opposite, but a little way up the slopes of incoming valley, and so placed that the Philistines, in attacking must cross not only the level land and the mainstream, Goliath's challenge accepted by David.

est: and the three eldest followed Saul. Cp Ps 63:8

15 But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Beth-lehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

17 And Jesse said unto David his son, Take now for thy brethren an ephah of this parched corn, and these ten loaves, and run to the camp to thy brethren;

18 And carry these ten cheeses unto the captain of their thousand, and look how thy brethren fare, and take their pledge.

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 ¶ And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the trench, as the host was going forth to the fight, and shouted for the battle.

21 For Israel and the Philistines had put the battle in array, army against army.

22 And David left his carriage in the hand of the keeper of the carriage, and ran into the army, and came and saluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the armies of the Philistines, and spake according to the same words: and David heard them.

24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were sore afraid.

25 And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that is come up? surely to defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who killeth him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel.

26 And David spake to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?

27 And the people answered him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 ¶ And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake unto the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why camest thou down hither? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride, and the naughtiness of thine heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see the battle.

29 And David said, What have I now done? Is there not a cause?

30 ¶ And he turned from him toward another, and spake after the same manner: and the people answered him again after the former manner.

31 And when the words were heard which David spake, they rehearsed them before Saul: and he sent for him.

32 ¶ And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him; thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine.

33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him: for thou art but a youth, and he a man of war from his youth.

34 And David said unto Saul, Thy servant kept his father's sheep, and there came a lion,

DAVID AT KEILAH 1 Sam 23. 395

With bitter determination and ruthlessness Saul pursues David, who in his extremity seeks the help of Yahweh - as shown in the Psalms composed at the time and is strengthened by his friend Jonathan. Six places are described:
Keilah - Enclosure, Citadel, Refuge; Ziph - Refining; Hachilah - Dark, gloomy, the wasting of faintness (Dic. Proper Names); Jeshimon - Solitary; Maon - Habitation; Sela-hammah lekoth - The Cliff of Divisions or Separations.
The names provide a parable. Driven from his refuge by the treachery of his tribal associates, he is refined by adversity through this dark & gloomy period. Though driven into solitude, he discovers a habitation, and is saved from Saul by the intervention of God at the Cliff of separations. It is the parable of Christ.

KEYNOTE: DAVID'S SUCCESS: RELIANCE ON YAHWEH 1 Kings 11:6. EXERCISE OF WISDOM IN ALL HIS WAYS. 1 Sam. 23:22. "David's reliance on God did not release him from the use of what means and measures were at his disposal for the bringing about of what he might desire... Furthermore, David's contribution to the achievement of results by the exercise of personal vigilance and wisdom did not in the least interfere with his indebtedness to God for those results: whence there arises an obvious teaching of wisdom. First if a man is indolent & supine because he trusts God, he is not making an enlightened use of his trust. 2: When a man by utmost skill and energy secures results, the door is shut against personal pride and boast. —RR.

35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth: and when he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and smote him, and slew him.

36 Thy servant slew both the lion and the bear: and this [a]uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, [a]seeing he hath defied the armies of the living God.

37 David said moreover, [c]The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said unto David, Go, and [f]the LORD be with thee.

38 ¶ And Saul [4]armed David with his armour, and he put an helmet of brass upon his head; also he armed him with a coat of mail.

39 And David girded his sword upon his armour, and he assayed to go; for he had not proved it. And David said unto Saul, I cannot go with these; for I have not proved them. And David put them off him.

40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the [5]brook, and put them in a shepherd's [6]bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and [m]the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 And when the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and [n]ruddy, and of a fair countenance.

And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew nigh to meet David, that David hasted, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine.

49 And David put his hand in his bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunk into his forehead; and he fell upon his face to the earth.

50 So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and smote the Philistine, and slew him; but there was no sword in the hand of David.

SAUL'S MOODY DEPRESSION AND INSANITY VV. 9-12.

The palace now became a place of tension and drama as the gloomy King gave way to moods of savage jealousy induced by the presence of David — keen-faced, bright-eyed and virile in all his ways

CHAPTER 18.

1 Jonathan loveth David. 5 Saul envieth his praise, 10 seeketh to kill him in his fury, 17 offereth him his daughters for a snare. 28 Saul's hatred, and David's glory increaseth.

AND it came to pass, when he had made an end of speaking unto Saul, that a the soul of Jonathan was knit with b the soul of David, c and Jonathan loved him as his own soul.

2 And Saul took him that day, d and would let him go no more home to his father's house. Initiated by Jonathan Ephraic 20:18.

3 Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul.

4 And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his garments, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his girdle. (younger brother.)

5 ¶ And David went out whithersoever Saul sent him, and e behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants. Saul could not bear the continuous praise.

6 And it came to pass as they came, when David was returned from the slaughter of the f Philistine, that g the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with h tabrets, with joy, and with i instruments of musick.

7 And the women j answered one another as they played, and said, k Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands. Sig to be hot, blaze up

8 And Saul was very wroth, and the saying l displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but m the kingdom?

9 And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.

10 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that n the evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and o he prophesied in the midst of the house: and David p played with his hand, as at other times: and there was a javelin in Saul's hand.

11 And Saul q cast the javelin; for he said, I will smite David even to the wall with it. And

DAVID'S JUDICIOUS BEHAVIOUR AROUSES SAUL'S BITTER JEALOUSY AND MOODY INSANITY

David's service under Saul became a school for him. He learned of war and government, he saw the bright and dark side of court life, he perceived the folly and hopelessness of a ruler in a theocracy who had turned from Yahweh.

19 Demoted from general. V.5. To captain - accepted without complaint

20 Suddenly Saul threw away all pretense. Lifting up the spear he aimed it at David who dodged the blow. The mad rage of Saul caused him to attack the second time, but again David eluded him, and avoided the King until the madness subsided.

SAUL PRETENDS TO HONOUR DAVID Vv. 13-19

21 Saul did not realise this. He only saw the continued success of David and felt his own failure.

22 As armour-bearer.

25 Saul's object seems to have been motivated by 2 reasons: (1) - In battle David might find his death. (2) - By suddenly elevating one so young and inexperienced for public life, David might be induced by pride or ignorance to commit some sin worthy of punishment, or excite the contempt or anger of the people. The experiment miserably failed. 24 He was both modest, prudent and successful and came more and more before the public's eyes.

David's conduct gained him increasing popularity - whilst the moody, jealous, insane King found more and more turning from him.

26 Not only his own tribe

30 The wars of Israel were not for lust of conquest, or personal aggrandisement, but for Yahweh's honour.

31 He hesitated to so flagrantly flout the Law by an action that would at the same time bring the wrath of the people upon him.

33 Sig. "Flock of Ki."

David avoided out of his presence twice.

12 ¶ And Saul was afraid of David, because [b] the LORD was with him, and was [c] departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and [d] he went out and came in before the people.

14 And David [e] behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and [f] the LORD was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he was afraid of him. NUK - Sore afraid. Stronger than V.12

16 But [g] all Israel and Judah loved David, because he went out and came in before them.

17 ¶ And Saul said to David, Behold my elder daughter Merab, [m] her will I give thee to wife: only be thou [i] valiant for me, and fight [n] the LORD's battles. For Saul said, [o] Let not mine hand be upon him, but let the hand of the Philistines be upon him.

18 And David said unto Saul, [p] Who am I? and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son in law to the king?

19 But it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given unto [q] Adriel the [r] Meholathite to wife.

20 And [s] Michal Saul's daughter loved David: and they told Saul, and the thing [t] pleased him.

21 And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be [u] a snare to him, and that [v] the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul said to David, Thou shalt [f] this day be my son in law in the one of the twain.

22 ¶ And Saul commanded his servants, saying, Commune with David secretly, and say, Behold, the king hath delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the king's son in law.

23 And Saul's servants spake those words in the ears of David. And David said, [w] Seemeth it to you a light thing to be a king's son in law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?

24 And the servants of Saul told him, saying, [x] On this manner spake David.

25 And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David, The king desireth not any [h] dowry, but an hundred foreskins of the Philistines, [y] to be avenged of the king's enemies. But [z] Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.

26 And when his servants told David these words, it [p] pleased David well to be the king's son in law: and [q] the days were not [s] expired.

27 Wherefore David arose and went, he and [r] his men, and slew of the Philistines two hundred men; and [t] David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full tale to the king, that he might be the king's son in law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter to wife.

28 ¶ And Saul saw and knew that [v] the LORD was with David, and that Michal Saul's daughter loved him.

29 And Saul was yet the more [t] afraid of David; and Saul became David's enemy [a] continually.

30 Then the princes of the Philistines [d] went forth: and it came to pass, after they went forth, that David [e] behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was much [7] set by.

Her name comes from a Hebrew root signifying "Container" & therefore is said to denote a Brook because it contains water (2 Sam. 17: 20). She loved David, being enamoured of the young hero & made no effort to conceal her passion for fondness for him (1 Sam 18:20). Unfortunately she did not have the same love for David's God. Her early love for David caused her to protect him against the jealous hatred of her father, & thus she died fearlessly Ch. 19:12. However, her love perhaps waned, for she did not follow David into exile, but was given in marriage to Phalti 25:44. With Saul's death, David was elected to King over Judah. Michal and Phalti

SAUL'S MURDEROUS INTENTIONS FRUSTRATED BY JONATHAN VV 1-3

Key Verses 1, 10, 12, 15

Saul's envy now burst out without disguise. Every officer about David's person had positive order to destroy him. Ch 20:14, 15; Acc. 9:3; Jer. 9:3. He probably did so in a subtle manner, and in looking that the family and royal appointments of the Kingdom will suffer from the election of David.

A Saul's plans were taking shape & there were three about him, like Dogs - only too ready to fulfil them - whatever they might be.

Jonathan would lead his father into the field where David was hiding that David might hear the nature of the conversation

SAUL'S MURDEROUS HATE PURSUES DAVID. VV 1, 10, 12, 15.

1 Jonathan discloseth his father's purpose to kill David. 4 He persuadeth his father to reconciliation. 8 By reason of David's good success, Saul's malicious rage breaketh out against him. 12 Michal deceiveth her father. 18 David fleeth to Samuel in Naioth. 23 Saul prophesieth.

AND Saul spake to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David.

2 But Jonathan Saul's son [c] delighted much in David: and Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeketh to kill thee: now therefore, I pray thee, take heed to thyself until the morning, and abide in a secret place, and hide thyself:

3 And I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and I will commune with my father of thee; and what I see, that I will tell thee. - spoken also great loyalty with zeal in death ch 31

4 ¶ And Jonathan spake good of David unto Saul his father, and said unto him, Let not the king [f] sin against his servant, against David; because he hath not sinned against thee, and because his works have been to thee-ward very good: 5 This would be felt as the most cutting loss to his pride Judg 15:28!

5 For he did [g] put his life in his hand, and [h] slew the Philistine, and [i] the LORD wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou sawest it, and didst rejoice: wherefore then wilt thou sin against [k] innocent blood, to slay David without a cause?

6 And Saul hearkened unto the voice of Jonathan: and Saul sware, As [l] the LORD liveth, he shall not be slain.

7 And Jonathan called David, and Jonathan shewed him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as [n] in times past. Reconciliation effected.

8 ¶ And there was war again: and David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slew them with a great slaughter; and they fled from [2] him.

9 And [a] the evil spirit from the LORD was upon Saul, as he sat in his house with his javelin in his hand: and David [b] played with his hand. MURDER OR MUSIC??

10 And Saul sought to smite David even to the wall with the javelin; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the javelin into the wall: and David fled, and escaped that night. Pr. 21:30 Isa 54:17

11 [d] Saul also sent messengers unto David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: and Michal David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to night, to morrow thou shalt be slain.

12 ¶ So Michal [e] let David down through a window: and he went, and fled, and escaped.

13 And Michal took an [3] image, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster, and covered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, He is sick.

15 And Saul sent the messengers again to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, there was an image in the bed, with a pillow of goats' hair for his bolster.

17 And Saul said unto Michal, Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal answered Saul, He said unto me, Let me go; [m] why should I kill thee?

18 ¶ So David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to [o] Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth. 14, 17 - or Nevaioth, no place so named.

As Christ demonstrate that he was "Lord of the sabbath" Matt. 12:8, David in exile became "Lord of the shewbread" to be dispensed to his followers. At the time, as now, the Ark & Tabernacle were separated the ordinances of the Law were relaxed because of this, and as the shewbread was to be changed that day, it was considered in a manner common and not as holy. When Tabernacle, Ark were united. The loaves were in a manner common, and in a manner holy - like the bread in the absence

SAUL AMONG THE PROPHETS. VV 19-24

Jonathan and David

19 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth in [a] Ramah. (Prov. 29:12) vv 11, 14

20 And Saul sent messengers to take David: [b] and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as appointed [1] over them, the Spirit of God was upon the messengers of Saul, and they also [c] prophesied. Above left

21 And when it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophesied likewise. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they prophesied also. Pro. 27:22.

22 Then went he also to Ramah, and came to a great well that is in Sechu: and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, they be at Naioth in [a] Ramah. 19

23 And he went thither to Naioth in [a] Ramah: and the Spirit of God was upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in [a] Ramah.

24 And he stripped [2] off his clothes also, and [m] prophesied before Samuel in like manner, and [e] lay down [n] naked all that day and all that night. Wherefore they say, [p] Is Saul also among the prophets? A person can have the spirit & prophesy - yet be a bad influence.

CHAPTER 20.

1 David consulteth with Jonathan for his safety. 11 They renew their covenant. 18 Jonathan's token to David. 24 Saul seeketh to kill Jonathan. 35 Jonathan lovingly taketh leave of David.

AND David fled from Naioth in [1] Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity? and what is my sin before thy father, that he seeketh my life? - Nephesh

2 And he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that he will [2] shew it me: and why should my father hide this thing from me? it is not so.

3 And David sware moreover, and said, Thy father certainly knoweth that [c] I have found grace in thine eyes; and he saith, Let not Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved: but truly as [d] the LORD liveth, and as [f] thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death.

4 Then said Jonathan unto David, [3] Whatsoever thy soul [1] desireth, I will even do it for thee.

5 And David said unto Jonathan, Behold, to morrow is the [g] new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that [h] I may hide myself in the field unto the third day at even.

6 If thy father at all miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run [k] to Beth-lehem his city: for there is a [l] yearly [5] sacrifice there for all the family.

7 If he say thus, It is well; thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wroth, then be sure that [p] evil is determined by him.

8 Therefore thou shalt [q] deal kindly with thy servant; for [r] thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the LORD with thee: notwithstanding, [s] if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

9 And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee: for if I knew certainly that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee? - Vv 39, 42; Ch. 19:2.

10 Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer thee roughly? - Cp Vv 30-34 below

"DAVID FLED" ! The breach with Saul is realized as no temporary one. Jonathan's loyalty to his father (the flesh) results in the separation of those who are brethren. So it always has been.

Whilst Saul remained under the prophetic influence there was a measure of reconciliation which David did not altogether trust. It was expected that David should take his place at the King's table Vv. 5, 6; 25, 26.

CHAPTER 20.

DAVID PLEADS JONATHAN'S AID 1-3

The presence of Saul at Ramah showed that the King would not respect the presence of Samuel, and therefore David was not safe with the prophet. As a member of Saul's household his duty was to be present at the feast of the new moon about to take place.
Knowing that Saul was determined on his death, David hastened back before the King to enlist the help of Jonathan. Though Yahweh had promised him the Kingdom it was still necessary to exercise wisdom to attain it - faith, courage and patience would not lack its reward. Meanwhile, the difficulties

2 And he said unto him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, but that David experienced moulded his life, preparing him to assume the exalted position of Shepherd and Ruler of Israel.

Jonathan could not believe that his father would act so basely towards David - particularly in view of the oath that Saul had sworn. Ch. 19:6

There was a close bond of affection between Jonathan and his father and often the former was torn between conflicting loyalties. This incident brings out his deep love for both his father and his friend, and his bitter disappointment at his father's ungovernable fury. Saul was frank in his statements when speaking with Jonathan. Cp 14:1.

To emphasise his own full conviction of the intensity of Saul's hatred.

3 The love that existed between David and Jonathon was a cause of Saul's insane jealousy - though Jonathan in his affection and loyalty for his father could not understand it. Jonathon's "grace" was his acceptance of David's friendship

6 Apparently this was a special occasion when the feast was prolonged for 3 days. David could excuse himself for the score that a similar annual feast was held by his family
V. 6.
7 David's intention is to demonstrate to Jonathon the extent of his father's anger. He knows that such an answer as he suggested would call down the wrath of Saul on Jonathon.
8 Thus David claims protection by reminding Jonathan of the Covenant made Cp Ch. 18:3 See Centre below
9 David here suggests that if Jonathan should think he is plotting against the state or Saul to kill him, himself.
10 Jonathan rejects the thought that David might be plotting against Saul and agrees to tell David if he discovers any plan of his father to slay his friend. See Note V. 2.

THE COMPACT BETWEEN THE TWO FRIENDS. Vv 11-17

11 They desired the greatest privacy, which the field gave them - and there the two friends solemnly and sorrowfully planned the moves that were destined to result in there separation one from the other. See also V. 16.

Direction, Separation
The two friends analysed the difficulty Jon must have in imparting the information to David. It might be watched to see if him communicated with D. hence this subterfuge to disarm suspicion. J. followed out his plan but finding David had been already warned that he was no into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

12 And Jonathan said unto David, O LORD God of Israel, when I have [c]sounded my father about to morrow any time, or the third day, and, behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and [d]shew it thee;

13 [b]The LORD do so and much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will 'shew it thee, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace: and [d]the LORD be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

14 And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of the LORD, that I die not:

15 But also [e]thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever: no, not when the LORD hath cut off the enemies of David every one from the face of the earth.

16 So Jonathan [f]made a covenant with the house of David, saying, [g]Let the LORD even require it at the hand of David's enemies.

17 And Jonathan caused David to swear again, [h]because he loved him: [i]for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

18 Then Jonathan said to David, [k]To morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be missed, because thy seat will be [7]empty.

19 And when thou hast stayed three days, then thou shalt go down [m]quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself [n]when the business was in hand, and shalt remain by the stone [o]Ezel.

20 And I will shoot three arrows on the side thereof, as though I shot at a [p]mark.

21 And, behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, find out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come thou: for there is peace to thee, and [q]no hurt; [r]as the LORD liveth.

22 But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee; go thy way: for the LORD hath sent thee away.

23 And as touching [s]the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD be between thee and me for ever.

24 ¶ So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

26 Nevertheless Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, [t]he is not clean; surely he is not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday, nor to day?

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, [u]David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee; for our family hath a sacrifice in the city; and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there: and now, if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. Therefore he cometh not unto the king's table.

30 Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, [v]Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, of the true Mercy Seat. they were part of the Mosaic ordinance to be revived in their completeness when the Temple was built, as the Mosaic principles will be revived at the coming of the Lord. Mal. 4:4.

The Shewbread, or Bread of His Presence was supplied by Israel, + therefore representative of them brought into the presence + communion with Yahweh - and now dispensed by David to his followers who followed him in his poverty + rejection. The bread was given by "the King's brother" uniting the King + Priest. The enemy (Doeg). Fear + the fear of man brought a snare to David Prov. 29:29. The sword of Goliath typified what was required, for it had slain the giant. Heb. 2:14. Accepting the shewbread, David acted as priest. Sword in hand he headed for the city of the Giant - to have his weakness brought home to him.

24 Jonathan realised the destiny of David was in the hands of Yahweh, and in the inscrutable ways of Providence, David may be required to depart for a season. He thus saw his father only as an instrument in Yahweh's purpose.

SAUL'S MURDEROUS INTENTIONS REVEALED. Vv 24-34

Goaded beyond endurance by what he feels is a general conspiracy against him, Saul aims a murderous blow at his son Jonathan.

25 A feeling of tension must have pervaded the feast. The gloomy King determined upon murder and meditating its means - the tensed and watchful Jonathan torn between loyalties to his father and his friend and fearful of the outcome, Abner the soldier who would not be unmindful nor unmoved by the current and passions that dominated the court. Each was suspicious and watchful of the other.

26 This is indicative of the high position to which he had risen in the court of Saul.

27 If David was ceremonially unclean, Saul could think he would be present morrow Lev 7:21. 11:21-28

28 An expression of contempt See note p. 393

28A So his back was protected + none could do to him what he was prepared to do to others.

28B Saul knew David was trustworthy + some legitimate reason was the cause of his absence.

29 It blazed forth in rebuke and hate against even his son. The mad King felt himself surrounded by enemies, felt he could not trust anybody, + of him it seemed that even his son was against him. As he spoke he worked himself up into a temper until he was consumed by an ungovernable rage - and once more the spear sped on its murderous mission - this time against Jonathan.

31 Saul viewed with jealousy and anger the growing affection between J. and David.
32 RV: "Shame." To Saul it was a shame for Jonathan to lose the Kingdom — How far he had travelled from the modest young man of 1 Sam 9:21.
33 By birth Jonathan should have the Kingdom — for it or to go to another would be dishonour his father — Saul's son. 14:50

37 There was no reasonable answer Saul could give Jonathan — so that unreasonable anger could only be expressed in one way — personal violence.
37 Jonathan's utter disappointment at his failure to effect reconciliation between Saul and David, his irritation at the unreasonable attitude of his father, the knowledge that Saul was fighting not merely David but also Yahweh and His purpose — caused him to flee from his place filled with dismay and anger.

3 Now therefore what is under thine hand? give me five loaves of bread in mine hand, or what there is present.
4 And the priest answered David, and said, There is no common bread under mine hand, but there is hallowed bread; if the young men have kept themselves at least from women.
5 And David answered the priest, and said unto him, Of a truth women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and the bread is in a manner common, yea, though it were such and such a place." David thus states that he has to meet certain companions for whom he requires provisions, relying Ps 119:29. Gal. 5:4. Cp. R.S.V. = "of a truth women have been kept from us as always when I go on an expedition; the vessels of the young men are holy, even when it is a common journey; how much more today will their vessels be holy."

Christ's reference to this incident implies that David's visit was on the Sabbath when the bread would be changed Lev. 24:8. Cp. Mat. 12:1 Mark 2:23 Luke 6:1, 7. Hence, in a way, the old bread was common.

sanctified this day in the vessel.

6 So the priest gave him hallowed bread: for there was no bread there but the shewbread, that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

7 Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg, an Edomite, the chiefest of the herdmen that belonged to Saul.

8 ¶ And David said unto Ahimelech, And is there not here under thine hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste.

9 And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it: for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is none like that; give it me.

10 ¶ And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.

11 And the servants of Achish said unto him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands?

12 And David laid up these words in his heart, and was sore afraid of Achish the king of Gath.

13 And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scrabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down upon his beard.

14 Then said Achish unto his servants, Lo, ye see the man is mad: wherefore then have ye brought him to me?

15 Have I need of mad men, that ye have brought this fellow to play the mad man in my presence? shall this fellow come into my house?

DAVID therefore departed thence, and escaped to the cave Adullam: and when his brethren and all his father's house heard it, they went down thither to him.

2 And every one that was in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him; and he became a captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

3 ¶ And David went thence to Mizpeh of Moab: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and be with you, till I know what God will do for me.

4 And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.

5 ¶ And the prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold; depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

6 ¶ When Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, (now Saul abode in Gibeah under a tree in Ramah, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him;)

DAVID IN FEAR. The presence of Doeg at Nob forced David to change his plans. He realised that Saul, knowing his whereabouts would ruthlessly pursue him. In his extremity he chose the desperate expedient of seeking refuge at Gath, the hometown of Goliath and his enemies. That would be the last place Saul would expect to find him. But it also brought him within the grasp of other enemies, though from there he hoped to pass unnoticed. See Ps 56. His confidence was in Yahweh, to Whom he looked for salvation. The Psalms express his feelings. He feels himself surrounded by enemies Ps 56: 1-2. he knows that at court there are those who play upon Saul's jealous v10.

David's play-acting reaped the desired results. The sight of him publicly making a spectacle of himself, beating upon the huge iron doors of the city, frothing at the mouth, aroused only repugnance in Achish, and he ordered that David be expelled therefrom.

CHAPTER 22.

DAVID GATHERS SUPPORTERS AT ADULLAM. Vv. 1-2

A new phase opens for David. He gathers about him those who are likeminded preparatory to reigning. These historical details became the pattern of the Lord's work of calling a people for the Name. David thus typed the Lord

1. Rejected by the Nation
2. Gathering together his co-labourers.

1 Cp. Ps 142. for David's feeling. Troubled, brought low, dispirited, and conscious that all were against him, that he was opposed by powerful forces against which he could not cope, David put his trust in Yahweh, pleading with Him for help. Heb 11: 38

2 "In the vast columnar hall and arched chambers of this subterranean palace, all who had any grudge against the existing system gathered around the hero of the coming age, the unconscious material out of which a new world was to be formed." (Stanley).

Their lives were in danger now that Saul had openly declared himself against David, David sent and invited them to share with him (Psa). Like the Lord, he turned not to his own.

The afflicted, oppressed and those distributed will flock to the standard of conditions under Saul gathered to him, as similar ones gathered to the Lord. MT. 11: 28

They may have gathered to David with the object of looking the countryside - if so they were disappointed. They were subjected to discipline, and David became the "Captain of their Salvation" - a type of the Lord. Cp Mat 9: 12-13 Heb 2: 10

7 Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites; will the son of Jesse give every one of you fields and vineyards, and make you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds;

8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that [3]sheweth me that [c]my son hath made a league with the son of Jesse, and there is [d]none of you that is sorry for me, or [3]sheweth unto me that my son hath stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

9 ¶ Then answered [e]Doeg the Edomite, which was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to [f]Nob, to Ahimelech the son of [g]Ahitub. Prov. 30:21-22 above

10 And he [a]enquired of the LORD for him, and [h]gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in [f]Nob: and they came all of them to the king.

12 And Saul said, Hear now, thou son of Ahitub. And he answered, [5]Here I am, my lord.

13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast [a]enquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, [c]to lie in wait, as at this day?

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, which is the king's son in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?

15 Did I then begin to [a]enquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king impute any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for thy servant knew nothing of all this, [2]less or more.

16 And the king said, Thou shalt surely die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's house. – Cf. Deut. 24:16 & Mt. 2:16

17 ¶ And the king said unto [4]the footmen that stood about him, Turn, and slay the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the LORD.

18 And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall upon the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and he fell upon the priests, and [i]slew on that day fourscore and five persons that [k]did wear a linen ephod.

19 And [l]Nob, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 ¶ And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named [m]Abiathar, [n]escaped, and fled after David.

21 And Abiathar shewed David that Saul had slain the LORD's priests.

22 And David said unto Abiathar, I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy father's house.

Doeg here types Antichrist for David's hatred of him See Ps. 52. For Doeg's character See Ps. 52.

Appropriate that Antichrist type should be an Edomite. See Notes Obadiah 20 this was incorrect, but in keeping with Doeg's character Cp. V. 15

SAUL'S MOODY JEALOUSY

Saul seems to have discovered that David is Yahweh's choice Cp V. 8. and is found in a state of constant readiness to pursue him. His mind is restless and filled with gloomy suspicions against all and sundry including his own son.

SHOCKING MURDER OF PRIESTS OF NOB

Tragedy strikes at the house of Eli in connection with the warning of 1 Sam. 2: 31-33.

They hesitated to be involved in such a crime against those who were sanctified to Yahweh's service. They could see how completely unreasonable and unjust was Saul's demand.

As a type of the Apostasy Ps 52. he had a compunction against murdering the priests of Yahweh Cp Rev.

4 Then David enquired of the LORD yet again. And the LORD answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for [e] I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

5 So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

Saul pursueth David.

THE HILL OF HACHILAH V.19. A ridge that ran eastward of Maon called El Koloh (Unger), running out of the Ziph plateau toward the Dead Sea south of Jeshimon, the Solitude. The word signifies desert & is used generally for deserts in various places. Here it refers to "the dreary desert which extends between the Dead Sea & the Hebron mountains. It is called Jeshimon or Solitude in the O.T. & the wilderness of Judea in the New. It is a plateau of white

I. SAMUEL 24.

David at En-gedi. 27 Sig the Spring of the wild goat." About 1½ due east of Ziph, divided by the harsh, barren waterless wilderness, with hardly a bush "when, suddenly, over the edge of a precipice, 1400 ft below him, he sees a river of verdure burst from the rock, and scatter itself, reeds, bush, trees and grass, down other 300 ft to a broad mile of gardens by the beach of the blue sea. [see below]

CHAPTER 24.

1 David in a cave at En-gedi, having cut off Saul's skirt, spareth his life. 8 He sheweth thereby his innocency. 16 Saul, acknowledging his fault, taketh an oath of David, and departeth.

AND it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-gedi.

2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats.

3 And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave.

4 And the men of David said unto him, Behold the day of which the LORD said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privily.

5 And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt.

6 And he said unto his men, The LORD forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the LORD's anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the LORD.

7 So David stayed his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.

8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face stooped earthward, and bowed himself.

9 And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered thee to day in mine hand in the cave: and some bade me kill thee: but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the anointed of the LORD.

11 Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou huntest my soul to take it.

12 The LORD judge between me and thee, and the LORD avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

13 As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

14 After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea.

15 The LORD therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of thine hand.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his voice, and wept.

17 [a] And he said to David, Thou art [b] more righteous than I: for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil.

18 And thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the LORD had [t] delivered me into thine hand, thou killedst me not.

19 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the LORD reward thee good for that thou hast done unto me this day.

20 And now, behold, [e] I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand.

21 [f] Swear now therefore unto me by the LORD, [g] that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house.

22 And David sware unto Saul. And Saul went home; but David and his men gat them up unto [u] the hold.

SAMUEL DIED. V1. According to Josephus he lived 18 years contemporary with Saul's reign. Samuel's life marked the beginning of the 2nd stage of Israelitish history. Moses gave the law; Samuel provided the education of the law in the School of the Prophets - so that the prophetic office is dated from him. Acts 3:24. He saw the king appointed, the firm establishment of royal power, & the anointing of the true King.

4 ¶ And David heard in the wilderness that Nabal did [a] shear his sheep.

5 And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and [2] greet him in my name:

6 And thus shall ye say to him that liveth in prosperity, [c] Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

7 And now I have heard that thou hast shearers: now thy shepherds which were with us, we [3] hurt them not, neither was there ought [g] missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

8 Ask thy young men, and they will shew thee. Wherefore let the young men [h] find favour in thine eyes: for we come in [k] a good day: give, I pray thee, [m] whatsoever cometh to thine hand unto thy servants, and to thy son David.

9 And when David's young men came, they spake to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and [4] ceased.

10 ¶ And Nabal answered David's servants, and said, [o] Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there be many servants now a days [q] that break away every man from his master.

11 [r] Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my [s] flesh that I have killed for my shearers, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be?

NABAL SCORNS DAVID'S GREETING. Vv 10-13.

David reacts violently.

In his churlish behaviour Nabal acted the part of the fleshly prosperous man of Ps 73:1-8. The record indicates he snapped at the men like a dog. ⇔ margin V14.

21 This was said contemptuously. All Israel knew David. Nabal's churlish behaviour was entirely contrary to the generous, sunny nature of David, especially in his attitude toward Saul. Ch 20:17 again, and came and told him all those sayings.

13 And David said unto his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about [b] four hundred men; and [b] two hundred [c] abode by the stuff.

14 ¶ But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to [d] salute our master; and he [2] railed on them.

15 But the men were very good unto us, and we were not [e] hurt, neither missed we any thing, as long as we were conversant with them, when we were in the fields:

16 They were [f] a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do; for [i] evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such [l] a son of Belial, that a man cannot speak to him.

18 ¶ Then Abigail made haste, and [n] took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, [t] and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred [v] clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

20 And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and, behold, David and his men came down against her; and she met them.

21 Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness of all that pertained unto him: and he hath requited me evil for good.

22 So and more also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light any that pisseth against a wall.

23 And when Abigail saw David, she hasted, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground,

24 And fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be: and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid.

25 Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Belial, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send.

26 Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the LORD hath withholden thee from coming to shed blood, and from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.

27 And now this blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let even be given unto the young men that follow my lord.

28 Forgive, I pray thee, the trespass of thine handmaid: for the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house; because my lord fighteth the battles of the LORD, and evil hath not been found in thee all thy days.

29 Yet a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek thy soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And it shall come to pass, when the LORD shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and shall have appointed thee ruler over Israel,

31 That this shall be no grief unto thee, nor offence of heart unto my lord, either that thou hast shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the LORD shall have dealt well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid.

32 And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me:

33 And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging myself with mine own hand.

34 For in this instance, as the LORD God of Israel liveth, which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst hasted and come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal by the morning light any that pisseth against a wall.

35 So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and said unto her, Go up in peace to thine house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.

36 ¶ And Abigail came to Nabal; and, behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light.

37 But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told these things unto him, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

And David sent and communed with Abigail, to take her to him to wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.

42 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

43 David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they were also both of them his wives.

NABAL'S MEN APPEAL TO ABIGAIL. Vv14-17

Nabal's foolish action caused fear in his household, especially among those who had been in touch with David and knew the force at his disposal. One of them appealed to the lovely and intelligent Abigail.

Abner was the son of Ner and uncle of Saul. (see bottom 382). He became Captain of his army & because of his relationship to Saul, his position & his force of character he exercised great influence during & after the reign of Saul 1 Sam 14:50-51; 17:55,57; 2 Sam 3:6. 20 David is prepared to leave Saul to Yahweh's judgement, to natural mortality, or the accident of battle.

LORD shall smite him; or [a] his day shall come to die; or he shall descend [b] into battle, and perish.

11 The [d] LORD forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against [e] the LORD's anointed: but, I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.

12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster; and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked: for they were all asleep; because [k] a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen upon them.

13 ¶ Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off; a great space being between them:

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou that criest to the king?

15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then hast thou not kept thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to destroy the king thy lord.

16 This thing is not good that thou hast done. [p] As the LORD liveth, ye are [4] worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master, [e] the LORD's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster.

17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, [r] Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

18 And he said, [t] Wherefore doth my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If the LORD have [c] stirred thee up against me, let him [2] accept an offering: but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the LORD; for [f] they have driven me out this day from [3] abiding in [g] the inheritance of the LORD, saying, Go, serve other gods.

20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the LORD: for the king of Israel is come out to seek [h] a flea, as when one doth hunt a [i] partridge in the mountains.

21 ¶ Then said Saul, [l] I have sinned: return, my son David: for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul [m] was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, [n] I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.

22 And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear! and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 [o] The LORD render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness: for the LORD delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the LORD's anointed.

24 And, behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt both do great things, and also shalt still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

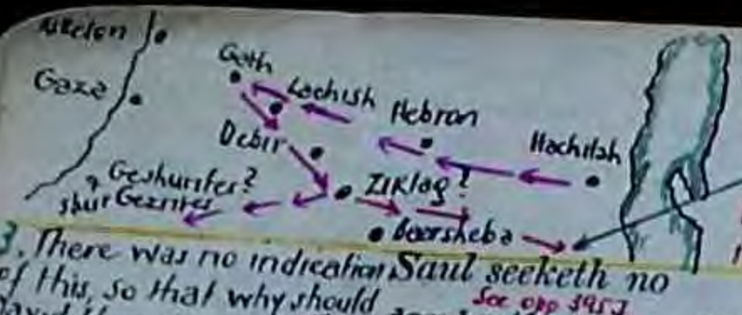
CHAPTER 27.

1 Saul hearing David to be in Gath seeketh no more for him. 5 David beggeth Ziklag of Achish.

AND David said in his heart, I shall now [5] perish one



All the events of 1 Sam 27:1 – 2 Sam 1:27 took 16 months 1 Chr. 27:7.

ACHISH. Ben Maoch – I will blacken (or terrify) – Dictionary or Serpent charmer (Davie). Maoch – Bruising (Vgl or Maachah – Oppression 1 Kg 2:39. David twice sought refuge with him Cp Ch. 21:10-15, 27:5-12. He appears to have been a very gullible man 21:14-15, 27:12. 29:2-3. friendly to David 27:5 He outlived David & must have died very old 1 Kg 2:39. As David took Gath when he conquered the Philistines 1 Chr. 18:1. he evidently reversed his previous kindness by permitting him to remain as tributary King.

3. There was no indication of this, so that why should David thus reason? There were those among his own followers who did not hesitate to criticise his leadership Ch. 30:6. – his numbers had greatly increased Cp V.2. with Ch. 23:13, and this could have been due to persecution by Saul against his sympathisers, for it is obvious that he was seeking an occasion against David V. 4. Perhaps David was harried & his faith weakened by the agitation of his own followers who felt their insecurity and that of their families, and weakened David's hands in consequence.

This was the flesh reasoning – it was good logic, and excellent strategy, but it weakened David's spiritual outlook.

Evidently Saul's madness had again broken out after their recent reconciliation Ch. 26:21.

His numbers had increased Cp Ch. 23:13. 2 Sam. 15:18. including a body of archers and slingers from Saul's own tribe who joined David in Ziklag 1 Chr. 12:1-7 See note. Ch. 21:10.

This would constitute a considerable body of people whose presence at Gath would become an embarrassment requiring alternative accommodation Cp Ch. 28: 42-43.

ACHISH PROVIDES DAVID WITH REFUGE IN ZIKLAG. VV. 5-7.

Achish doubtless looked upon David as one he could use against the Israelites He probably looked upon him as a little weak mind ed Ch. 21:14 and easily pliable to his will.

10 Uncertain derivation. First given to Judah, then Simeon Josh. 15:31. 19:5. then passed into hands of Philistines. It was an outpost that protected Gath.

2 This indicates Achish's confidence in David. Deceived by his conduct Ch 27:10 the King of Gath felt he had a reliable and powerful ally in David.

THE CLOSING TRAGIC ACTS IN A LIFE OF FAILURE

It was a fearful journey that dark night, for the Philistines were encamped in Shunem directly between Gilboa and Endor. Such a visit under such conditions was perilous in the extreme, and nothing could have induced Saul to venture thither but the agony of despair. But if he left in agony, how great was his despair and misery as he returned to take up his post with his worst fears confirmed.

13 FAMILIAR SPIRIT

'OWB similar to Ab - father (Str). One who claimed to have power to call up the dead. Read "bottles" in Job 32:19 and there related to the belly. Like ventriloquists they spoke from the belly, thus imitating the supposed dead whom they claimed to have called up. They had the ability by speaking from the stomach, to throw the voice with various modifications into different places, so that it would seem to come from a grave, or from an image of a dead person, that was made to appear at the proper time. Cp V. 8. The LXX renders Isa. 8:19: "And if they say unto you, seek the ventriloquists, and those speaking from the earth, and speaking vain things, who speak from the belly."

The Vulgate rendered familiar spirits as Pythons, for which see Acts. 16:16

SAUL'S FINAL ACT OF WORSHIP — AT ENDOR. Saul was governed by a false idea of religion. He was like Cain, or Saul of Tar-sus before his conversion — his sense of what was required took precedence over Yahweh's will. In him, religion broke out in wild ungovernable acts of zeal, and then left him more a prey than ever to his own savage disposition. Thus he first destroys all those with familiar spirits, then seeks their help. His impatience to sacri-fice when threatened by the Philistines (1Sam. 13:8) showed that he understood imperfectly the distinction between moral and ceremonial duty. His action in saving Agag and the best of the animals (1Sam. 15:21) doubtless to grace the national ceremony of sacrificial thanksgiving brought about his downfall and demonstrated he was unfit to rule a theocracy SEE BELOW

23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him; and he hearkened unto their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat upon [d] the bed.

32. In a climate where meat will not keep for long, it was common to have such an animal on hand for such a purpose. It was more quickly baked than leavened bread. But it was only the sacrifice of flesh & the unleavened bread of sincerity & truth that could have saved him.

24 And the woman had [e] a fat calf in the house; and she hasted, and killed it, and took [g] flour, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof: 25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they did eat. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

DAVID TURNS TO YAHWEH vv 6-8.

6. This was undoubtedly David's darkest hour but unknown to him relief was at hand – the King whom was soon to be his. Believing them to be destroyed or beyond help. How this incident teaches the folly of giving way to despair, and the wisdom of such counsels. Luke 18:1.
7 Heb. "Chazeq". "To fasten upon." R.V.: "Strengthened." David's extremity forced him to turn to Yahweh. Thus the disaster had a salutary effect upon him, producing a healthier state of mind. Cp Ps. 42: 5 f. 5:3; 4, 11.

SURELY overtake them, and without fail recover all.

9 So David went, he and a the six hundred men that were with him, and came to the c brook Besor, where those that were left behind stayed.

10 But David pursued, he and four hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint that they could not go over the c brook Besor.

11 ¶ And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat; and they made him drink water;

12 And they gave him a piece of f a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, g his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days agone I fell sick. Executioners, or Cutters off

14 We made an invasion upon the south of the Cherethites, and upon the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this company? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this company.

16 ¶ And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

15. An indication of the ruthlessness of the Amalekites. Though they had booty enough + means to carry him, they left this poor sick slave to die.
16. Calmet maintains that the Kerethi, which without the points, might be read Creti, were not only at this time Philistines but Aborigines of Crete, and thus called Cherethites or Cretans Cp Zeph. 2:5. Ezek. 25:16. Some were incorporated into David's bodyguard. 2 Sam. 11:18 See Note on Philistines Jud. 13.

THE RAIDERS DISCOVERED v 16

18. They felt themselves safe and immune from attack. Knowing Israel and Philistia were engaged in war. What must have been the fear of the captors at their fate as they viewed this revelry. They must have felt cut off from all help – yet salvation was at hand. Another incident commending the wisdom of Christ's exhortation Luke 18:1 See note v 6
19 The Philistines would return from the victory overflushed with success – only to find their cities devastated.

SUMMARY, CH. 31: Those called to the Truth are in a deplorable condition who despairing of the mercy of God would seek to evade the conflict within them by death. This terminates any hope of redemption so that all that remains is judgment. Heb. 9:27; 2 Cor. 5:10-11.
The only gleam of light in this chapter is the act of courage & gratitude by the men of Jabesh-Gilead. Like Joseph & Nicodemus at the death of Christ, they identify themselves with what seemed a lost cause. Are we equally grateful in confessing Christ who delivers us from eternal death?

DAVID'S PRESENT TO THE ELDERS OF HIS TRIBE Vv. 26-31.

DAVID RECOVERS THE SPOIL. Vv. 17-20.

I. SAMUEL 31.

David recovereth and divideth the spoil.

17 And David smote them from the twilight even unto the evening of [2] the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, which rode upon [b] camels, and fled.

18 And David [c] recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all.

20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drave before those other cattle, and said, [k] This is David's spoil.

21 ¶ And David came to the [m] two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the [n] brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him: and when David came near to the people, he [5] saluted them.

22 Then answered all the wicked men and [r] men of Belial, of [6] those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead them away, and depart.

23 Then said David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the LORD hath given us, who hath preserved us, and delivered the company that came against us into our hand.

24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but [v] as his part is that goeth down to the battle, so shall his part be: they shall part alike.

25 And it was so from that day [3] forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel unto this day.

26 ¶ And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, Behold a [x] present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD;

27 To them which were in Beth-el, and to them which were in [y] south Ramoth, and to them which were in Jattir,

28 And to them which were in [z] Aroer, and to them which were in [a] Siphmoth, and to them which were in [b] Eshtemoa,

29 And to them which were in Rachal, and to them which were in the cities of [c] the Jerahmeelites, and to them which were in the cities of [d] the Kenites,

30 And to them which were in [e] Hormah, and to them which were in Chor-ashan, and to them which were in Athach,

31 And to them which were in [g] Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men were wont to haunt.

CHAPTER 31.

1 Saul having lost his army, and his sons being slain, he and his armourbearer kill themselves. 8 The Philistines triumph over the dead bodies. 11 They of Jabesh-gilead recover the bodies, and bury them at Jabesh.

NOW [1] the Philistines fought against Israel: and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down [7] slain in mount [f] Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines slew [h] Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Melchi-shua, Saul's sons.

3 And [2] the battle went sore against Saul, and the [8] archers [9] hit him; and he was sore wounded of the archers.

DEATH OF SAUL & HIS SONS. Vv. 4-7.

4 Then said Saul unto his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. Therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armourbearer, and all his men, that same day together.

7 And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, and they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

ISRAEL RETREATS UP MT. GILBOA. Vv. 1-2.

8 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people.

10 And they put his armour in the house of Ashtaroth: and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-shan.

11 And when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard of that which the Philistines had done to Saul;

12 All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and burnt them there.

13 And they took their bones, and buried them under a tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

THE END OF SAUL 1 Sam 31:1-10

The body in its mutilated ghastly dishonour fastened to the Wall of Bethshan — House of Quiet - quiet at last after all its agitation + noise. The armour in the Temple of a female goddess. And the crown to Zikkag — enveloped in grief (See Dictionary of Bible Names). But David promises a brighter future. Saul's final end was creation a contrast to Gen. 50:25.

They spread panic everywhere, causing the inhabitants of the towns to flee, adding to the general confusion. THE LAMENTATION OF THE BOW OR HOW ARE THE MIGHTY FALLEN!

David's lament over the death of Saul who had been such a bitter enemy. (See opp. 395) shows that the imprecatory psalms were not motivated by personal vindictiveness. Cp Ps. 139:21-22.

V. 14. David implies that he should have helped Saul escape. By the Amalekite's own acknowledgment Saul's life was "yet whole" within him V. 9. David had no particular love or trust of Amalekites at that moment 1 Sam. 30:1.

3. Sadly wounded 1 Sam. 31:3. and overwhelmed with a sense of impending doom 1 Sam. 22:19

3A Another ensign of royalty crown-head a bracelet -arm or strength.

II. SAMUEL

David's lament for

by chance upon mount Gilboa, behold, [a] Saul leaned upon his spear; and, lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked behind him, he saw me, and called unto me. And I answered, Here am I.

8 And he said unto me, Who art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

9 He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for [c] anguish is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took [h] the crown that was upon his head, and [k] the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and [m] rent them; and likewise all the men that were with him:

12 And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.

13 ¶ And David said unto the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he answered, I am the son of a stranger, an Amalekite.

14 And David said unto him, How wast thou not [q] afraid to stretch forth thine hand to destroy [r] the LORD's anointed?

15 And [t] David called one of the young men, and said, Go near, and fall upon him. And he smote him that he died.

16 And David said unto him, [v] Thy blood be upon thy head; for [x] thy mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I have slain [r] the LORD's anointed.

17 ¶ And David [a] lamented

4 He was probably one of those who came "to strip the slain" on the morrow 1 Sam. 31:8

4 An Amalekite took the crown from off the head of Saul which he had forfeited by his disobedience in the case of Amalek 1 Sam. 15:26; Cp Ex. 17:8-16 Num. 24:20

5 R.V. margin - "giddiness." Heb. = "a dreadful darkness" The Amalekite implied that Saul was badly wounded and that the giddiness of impending death was on him. Surely some record of this would have occurred in the historic account 1 Sam. 31 if it had actually happened and this conversation had taken place.

6 Heb. "Nezer" - Same root as "Nazarite." Sig. "Set apart." Used also of hair. In this case probably a simple fillet or diadem as an ensign of royalty.

DAVID'S GRIEF & REVENGE. VV. 11-16.

7 The Amalekite gloried in his action feeling that it was deserving of praise. But to David he had slain Yahweh's Anointed and earned the extreme penalty of the law. Ex. 22:28; Lev. 24:15. 2 Sam. 4:10 Contrast attitude of David under similar conditions 1 Sam. 24:6. 26:9.

8 Gen. 9:5-6; Deut. 19:10; 1 Sam. 26:9.

8 Prov. 6:2; Matt. 12:36; Luke 19:22; Rom. 3:19

9 David was moved by the national tragedy - which overwhelmed the sense of relief at the death of a personal enemy.

THE LAMENTATION OF THE BOW. VV. 17-27.

A most tender and striking tribute. It covers over all the evil that Saul had done to David when afflicted by the spirit of madness and despondency, and reverts back to the earlier happier days when all Israel applauded the handsome and courageous king, who had so endeared himself in the affections of the nation that even Samuel wept bitterly when he was rejected by Yahweh 1 Sam. 15:11.

The Lamentation is unequally divided by grief into longer and shorter breaks, as David's recollections hurry from one point to another.

His reverence for Saul as Yahweh's anointed, his tender affection for the selfless Jonathan, and his admiration for their bravery and skill finds full expression.

"It is almost impossible to read the noble original without finding every word swollen with a sigh, or broken with a sob. A heart pregnant with distress and striving to utter expressions descriptive of its feelings, which are repeatedly interrupted by an excess of grief, is most clearly painted throughout the whole." (A.C.)

The deep mourning of all Israel, the sense of loss at the defeat of Gilboa, and the death of the King is thus expressed by the banished David.

V. 21. Read the latter part: "there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul was not anointed with oil (but with blood)." Shields were usually anointed with oil in preparation for war Isa. 21:5.

20:16-17; 20:41-42; 23:18. It was completely disinterested. Jonathan realised that the Throne was to be David's & was prepared to be second where David was first 1 Sam. 23:17. - It did not destroy his loyal love for his father. 18 (Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the bow: behold, it is written in the book [e] of Jasher.)

19 The beauty [f] of Israel is slain upon thy high places: [b] how are the mighty fallen!

20 [c] Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of [d] Askelon; lest the daughters of the Philistines [e] rejoice, lest the daughters of [f] the uncircumcised triumph.

21 Ye [g] mountains of Gilboa, let there be no dew, neither let there be rain, upon you, nor fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mighty is vilely cast away, the shield of Saul, as though he had not been [i] anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of the mighty, [l] the bow of Jonathan turned not back, and the sword of Saul returned not empty.

23 Saul and Jonathan were lovely and [o] pleasant in their lives, and in their death they were not divided: they were [n] swifter than eagles, they were [o] stronger than lions.

24 Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet, with other delights, who put on [p] ornaments of gold upon your apparel.

25 How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle! O Jonathan, thou wast slain in thine high places.

26 I am distressed for thee, my brother [u] Jonathan: very pleasant hast thou been unto me: [w] thy love to [u] me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

27 [x] How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

11 A purer, more unselfish love would be hard to imagine. It originated in admiration 1 Sam. 16:1, 3. It was cemented by adversity through pledged words of faith 1 Sam. 18:3-4; 20:16-17 Above.

CHAPTER 2.

All now seemed ready for David to assume the authority and position promised him, and for which he had been anointed. But it was characteristic of the man that he seek Yahweh's guidance first; thus acting on the principle inculcated in Ps. 37:5.

AND it came to pass after this, that David [a] enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah? And the LORD said unto him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up? And he said, Unto [b] Hebron.

2 So David went up thither, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail Nabal's wife the Carmelite.

3 And [c] his men that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household: and they dwelt in the cities of Hebron.

4 [d] And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. And they told David, saying, That the men of [h] Jabesh-gilead were they that buried Saul.

5 ¶ And David sent messengers unto the men of [h] Jabesh-gilead, and said unto them, [i] Blessed be ye of the LORD, that ye have shewed this kindness unto your lord, even unto Saul, and have buried him.

6 And now [j] the LORD shew kindness and truth unto you: and I also will requite you this kindness, because ye have done this thing.

7 Therefore now let your hands be strengthened, and [k] be ye valiant: for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.

8 ¶ But [l] Abner the son of Ner, captain of [g] Saul's host, took [l] Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to [p] Mahanaim;

9 And made him king over Gilead, and over the [q] Ashurites, and over [r] Jezreel, and over [q] Ephraim, and over [q] Benjamin, and over all Israel.

10 Ish-bosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David.

11 And the [2] time that David was king in [b] Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

12 ¶ And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to [t] Gibeon.

13 And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met [3] together by the pool of Gibeon: and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool.

14 And [u] Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise, and play before us. And Joab said, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose and went over by number twelve of Benjamin, which pertained to Ish-bosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David.

16 And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: wherefore that place was called [t] Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was a very sore battle that day; and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David.

18 ¶ And there were [1] three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was [m] as light [4] of foot as a wild roe.

19 And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left [2] from following Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? And he answered, I am.

21 And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay thee hold on one of the young men, and take thee his [3] armour.

THE BOOK OF DAVID — See other notes 2 Sam 1

He was the real founder of the monarchy, the great hero of the nation, the legislator and poet of his country, the reorganiser of its religious worship, and, above all, the one to whom the third great covenant of promise was made. No wonder the description of his life and government occupies so large a place in the Divine record. The Books of Samuel thus consist of three interlaced biographies – Samuel, Saul and David

Abner slayeth Asahel. II. SAMUEL 3. David waxeth stronger.

18 Abner evidently recognised in this defeat in the battle of his own choosing the certainty of the ultimate downfall of the house of Saul & eventual need of coming to terms with the determined & ruthless Joab.

But Asahel would not turn aside from following of him.

22 And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside from following me: [a] wherefore should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to Joab thy brother?

23 Howbeit he refused to turn aside: wherefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him under the fifth rib, that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place: and it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still.

24 Joab also and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon.

25 ¶ And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then, ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, As God liveth, unless [d] thou hadst spoken, surely then [e] in the morning the people had [f] gone up every one from following his brother.

28 So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and they came to [g] Mahanaim.

30 And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel.

31 But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred and threescore [h] men died.

32 ¶ And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem. And [c] Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

He was courageous, determined = persistent, as was shown by his pursuit of Abner 2 Sam. 2:19-23. He died for his persistence, being slain by Abner in self-defence. He was the youngest in the family 2 Sam. 2:22. His death was treacherously avenged by Joab 2 Sam. 3:27, to the great dismay of David.

Civil war creates bitter blood feuds that could continue long after the Kingdom is established. Prov. 17:14.

I KINGS: THE BOOK OF DAVID

See other notes 2 Sam 1

He was the real founder of the monarchy, the great hero of the nation, the legislator and poet of his country, the reorganiser of its religious worship, and, above all, the one to whom the third great covenant of promise was made. No wonder the description of his life and government occupies so large a place in the Divine record. The Books of Samuel thus consist of three interlaced biographies – [illegible]

ABNER: THE FOOL

2 Sam. 3:33.

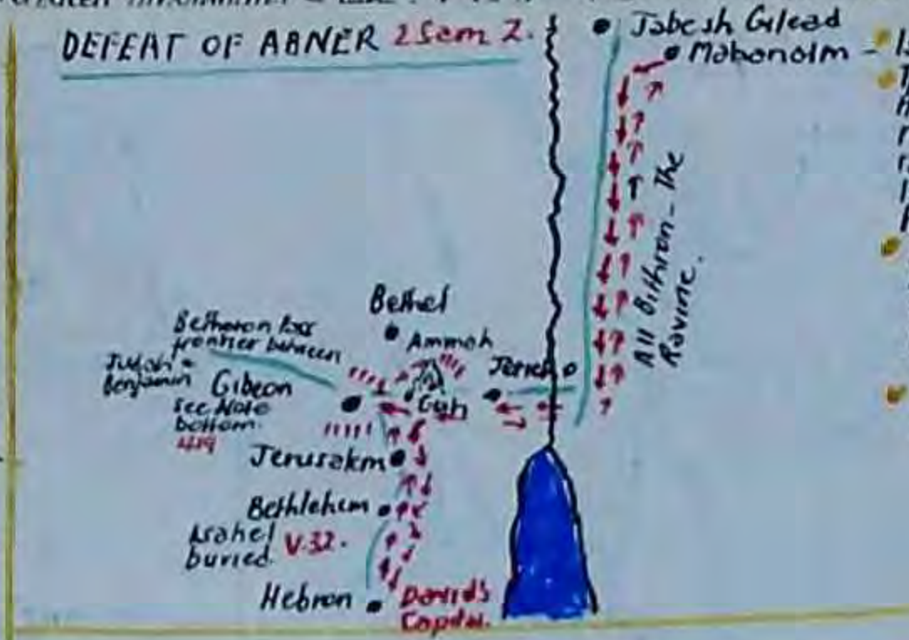
See note on David's dirge at this place. Abner preferred fleshly loyalty rather than God's way, and was destroyed in consequence.

- He was Saul's uncle 1 Sam. 14:50 p. 382 and because of his relationship to the King, his ruthless ability, and his skill in war, he exercised considerable influence during Saul's reign and afterwards 1 Sam. 14:50, 51; 17:55, 57.
- His name signifies Father of Light, and his father's name Ner means Lamp or Brightness, but despite his prominence and power his light was darkened by the equally ruthless Joab.

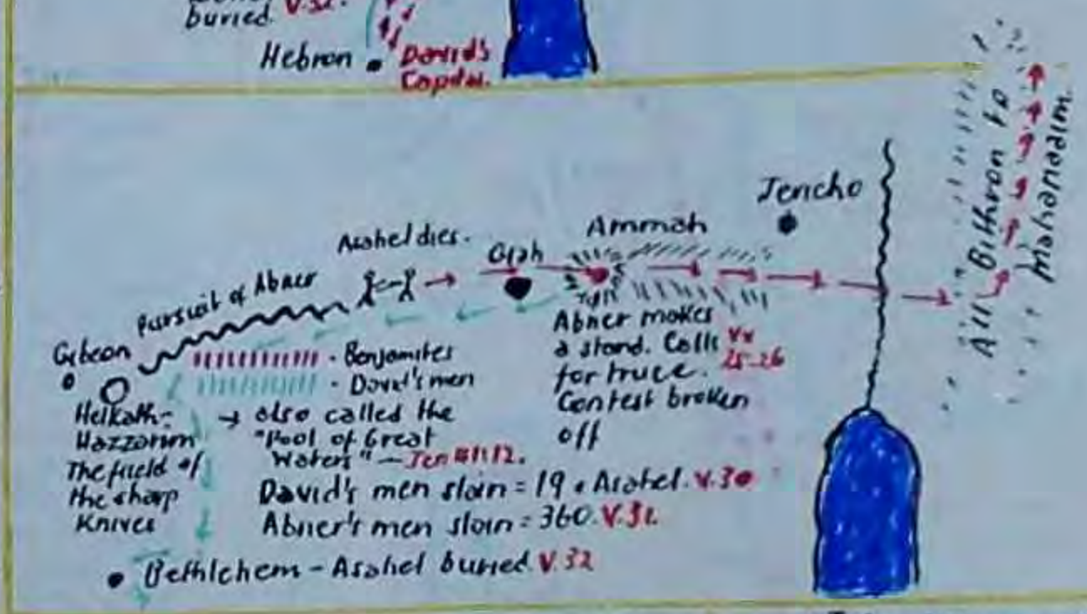
For in his opposition to David he ignored the Divine promise + in his ambition divided the nation and held it in a state of war.

- Abner was not merely ruthless but ungoverned by ideals of morality or considerations of feelings 2 Sam. 3:8, 16. the objects of personal ambition motived him.
- As Commander-in-Chief of the national army, on the death of Saul he should have laid his command at the feet of David. Instead he set up Ish-bosheth, Saul's son, as King 2 Sam. 2:8.
- He incited the personal enmity of the equally ruthless and ambitious Joab. He fought long + bravely against him + after a severe defeat, killed Asahel in self defence 2 Sam. 2.
- As a proud man, he bitterly resented the remonstrance of Ish-bosheth over the matter of Saul's concubines + governed only by fleshly pride + loyalty negotiated with David to support him as King 2 Sam 3:7-12.
- As an unprincipled man he reaped what he had sowed. Joab fearing the loss of his own position + throne for revenge murdered Abner at Hebron calling forth the Dirge of David.
- David gave him a public funeral 2 Sam. 3:32 + later charged Solomon to avenge his murder 1 Kg 2:5-6.

DEFEAT OF ABNER 2 Sam. 2.



- The prepositions of V 9 imply that he exercised stronger rule in the north than in Ephraim, Benjamin etc. He evidently moved south to strengthen his position there.
- Abner had evidently strengthened his position in the north perhaps driving the Philistines from Beth shean V. 9, See note overleaf "Ish-bosheth's reign".
- David remained in Hebron consolidating his strength in Judah.



2 Sam. 1:19. The Beauty of Israel. TSEBIY- The Gazelle. Also sig. prominent, splendour. From a root TSÂBAH - to amass, array an army. The compname of Jonathan indicative of the way he could inspire others. The name is also given Asahel, read "roe" Ch. 2:18

2 Sam. 2:10. Ish-bosheth's age. An interval of 5 years evidently occured before Abner secured the support of the tribes to the elevation of Ish-bosheth. This may have been occupied by Abner in re-establishing control in the area taken by the Philistines in their overthrow of Saul. He was evidently 35 years old at death of his father. The expedition to Gibeon may have been to set up his capital at Gibeah of Saul.

TYPICAL FORESHADOWING Ch. 2.

David anointed first by Samuel 1 Sam. 16:13. Then banished. Now returns to Hebron (to unite) and is there first anointed by Judah Zech. 12:7. This is at the "set time" appointed of Yahweh 2:1. He reigns "in the midst of his enemies" Ps. 110:2. David's rule consistently widens and strengthens. Ch. 3:1. Saul's house represents the strength of the flesh.

DAVID'S SIX SONS IN HEBRON. 2 Sam 3: 2-5.

1. Amnon of Ahinoam : Faithful : Brother (or King) of pleasantness
2. Chileab of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite: Sustained of a Father, the Father of Joy separated from the fool from the Vine of God.
3. Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai King of Geshur: Father of Peace out of Pressure (or Bruising) through My furrows (our own doings) of Pride.
4. Adonijah of Haggith - My Lord is Yah of the Festivals.
5. Shephatiah of Abital - Yah judges as the Father of Dew
6. Ithream of Eglah - Abundance of people through the heifer. She is said to be "David's wife"

- Through faith the broker of pleasantness is sustained through the Father of joy and separated from fools of the vine of God. The Father will give peace out of pressure brought on by the flesh, confirming His covenant name in the festivals, anticipating vindication at the Judgement of the Father of Dew manifested in a multiplicity of people saved by sacrifice + constituting the multitudinous bride of the Beloved.
- David's wives indicated his increasing prosperity and status. Though his polygamy resulted in great tragedies in home life. That a King should permit his daughter to marry David is indicative of his increasing importance among the surrounding nations.

THE BOOK OF DAVID

See other notes 2 Sam. 1

He was the real founder of the monarchy, the great hero of the nation, the legislator and poet of his country, the reorganiser of its religious worship, and, above all, the one to whom the third great covenant of promise was made. No wonder the description of his life and government so large a place in the living [illegible]

● From Ziklag David sends presents to friends of the elders of Judah. 1 Sam. 31: 26-31. - Underlined: ——

INCREASING SUPPORT FOR DAVID

Brave & skilful warriors moved to swell the numbers of David's supporters at last recognising that there was no national future with the house of Saul 1 Chr. 12:1. Every day the number of such were augmented until he had a large army 1 Chr. 12:22. Men of Benjamin Vv. 2-7. Gad Vv. 8-15 Judah V16 were among their number. These added to the captains of Manasseh who had joined him at Ziklag 1 Chr. 12:19-21. ● But there was no national acknowledgment of his stature. This led him to enquire of Yahweh 2 Sam 2:1.

DAVID ANOINTED AT HEBRON CH 2:4.

The Philistines must have known of this but did nothing to crush his rising power. Why? Because they imagined that they were allied to him through Achish, saw his uprise and the growing antagonism between David & the house of Saul as furthering their cause & adding to their dominance.

ISHBOSHETH'S REIGN V. 9.

A different preposition is used for the first three names from that employed afterwards, as though Ishbosheth's reign was a reality over Gilead & Jezreel, but only a shadowy claim over Ephraim etc.

To exercise control over Asher & Jezreel, Abner must have either expelled the Philistines from Bethshan, or gained definite advantage over them. The Trans jordan tribes could muster 120,000 men of war 1 Chr. 12:37 so that Abner had sufficient forces at command to successfully resist or expell the Philistines in Jezreel.

DEFEAT OF SAUL: The initiative to battle evidently came from the Philistines who massed at Aphek 28:1. Saul evidently took what army he had to Gilboa to seek the witch V.7. At the spring of Harod he had no where to retreat 29:1. The witch confirmed the public declaration of Samuel 15:28, a general sense of defeatism pervaded Israel causing many to desert to David at this time 1 Chr. 12:19-21. so that Saul's fall was inevitable. The Philistines on sensing this had massed their full army for a final conflict.

BATTLE BAAL-PERAZIM CH5:17-25.

Two battles. In the first the Philistine idols are shown to be impotent; in the second the Philistines are cut off. The battle is Yahweh's; He is Lord of the Bursting forth. In the first the Philistines are swept away as through violence of waters - Baptism; in the second destroyed through war. - Armageddon. Between both there is anxiety & weeping. This is suggested by the presence of the BĀKĀ' trees. The word signifies "weeping". Ps. 84:5-8. In the plural BEKAIM - weepings. Life can be a Vale of Tears until the marching forth of the Elohim is heard. The identification of the Tree is unknown. The battles resulted in. 1. Revenge on the captivity of the Ark, taken by the Philistines - for their idols prove impotent in captivity. 2. Decisive "cutting off" of P. COAZED by conquest.

ABNER INTRIGUES WITH ELDERS OF ISRAEL vv17-18

17 ¶ And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David [2] in times past to be king over you:

18 Now then do it: [c] for the LORD hath spoken of David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19 And Abner also spake in the [d] ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin.

20 So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with him a feast.

21 And Abner said unto David, I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, [h] that they may make a league with thee, and that [i] thou mayest reign over all that thine heart desireth. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

22 ¶ And, behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.

23 When Joab and all the host that was with him were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee; why is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25 Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to

ABNER'S TREACHERY 12

28 Abner seems to have double-crossed Ish bosheth, for while intriguing with David, he arranged for Ish bosheth to force Michal to return to her former husband. His negotiations with David were probably conducted secretly whilst to Ish bosheth, he probably represented that it would be best to conform to the demand of David who was daily growing in power. Ish bosheth seems to have been unaware of Abner's intention of serving David. Cp. Ch. 4:1.

DAVID DEMANDS THE RETURN OF MICHAL vv13-16

22. See Note 1 Sam. 18:20.
23. A formal demand was made, probably at the suggestion of Abner.
24. However distressing it was to take Michal from a husband who loved her tenderly, prudence and policy demanded that David strengthen his position. He could not leave a princess in the possession of a man who might, in her right, make pretensions to the throne. She was David's lawful wife and not that of Phaltiel, and to have her restored to him at this time would demonstrate to the followers of Saul the strength of his claim to the power and the weakness of the opposition. It would also show that he bore no malice against the House of Saul. The restoration again made David sovereign to Saul, showing how strong were his claims to the throne.

INTRIGUE WITH BENJAMIN vv19-21

A special approach was necessary in this the tribe of Saul. But who better to accomplish this than the wily Abner who was also of Benjamin

They were doubtless tired of the bloodshed and civil war, and the leadership of Ish bosheth, the weak, irresolute son of Saul.

Delegates of the tribes.

"Man proposes, but God disposes." It was not in the power of Abner to give or withhold the Kingdom from David. Yahweh was the Disposer. Abner was not permitted to do what he here proposes.

In good faith.

JOAB ACCUSES ABNER OF TREACHERY vv22-25.

David's Kingdom was established in the South, and it required not only that he wage war with house of Saul, but with those enemies without who were pressing on the borders, and invading the land.

Sig. Yah is Father. Anoph of David Ch. 2:18.

Joab sought revenge upon Abner because he had occasioned the death of his brother Asahel Ch. 2:23. In addition, Joab was jealous lest he be superceded by the powerful Abner. David's methods had been very faithful & highly useful to him in his distresses; & from gratitude & natural affection he had 26 And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him again from the well of Sirah: but David knew it not.

27 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab [e] took him aside in the gate to speak with him [2] quietly, and smote him there [f] under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.

28 ¶ And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD for ever from the [3] blood of Abner the son of Ner:

29 [g] Let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not [4] fail from the house of Joab one [h] that hath an issue, or [i] that is a leper, or that leaneth on [k] a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

30 So Joab and Abishai his brother slew Abner, because he had slain their brother [l] Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.

31 ¶ And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, [m] Rend your clothes, and [n] gird you with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the [o] bier.

32 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

33 And the king [p] lamented over Abner, and said, Died Abner as a [5] fool dieth?

34 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man falleth before [6] wicked men, so fellest thou. And all the people wept again over him.

35 And when all the people came [b] to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day, David sware, saying, [c] So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or ought else, [d] till the sun be down.

36 And all the people took notice of it, and it [2] pleased them: as whatsoever the king did [2] pleased all the people.

37 For all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to slay Abner the son of Ner.

38 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

39 And I am this day [7] weak, though anointed king; and these men [h] the sons of Zeruiah [i] be too hard for me: [k] the LORD shall reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

That is Judah. This was said for the benefit of Benjamin and northern tribes. The murder of Abner seems to have delayed the union in the nation for it was 5 yrs after death of Ishbosheth before David accepted by whole nation 5:1-3.

Joab's action threatened to destroy the work of reconciliation and to stir into flame the embers of revolt and war that were smouldering. David therefore publicly demonstrated that neither he nor his followers condoned the murder of Abner.

The Hebrew can be rendered as future — "It will rest" etc. this prophecy fulfilled. I Kings 2:32-33

Can be rendered: "There shall not..." Joab had acted in such merciless fury as to put himself beyond the help of Yahweh and leave himself open to all manner of trouble. All kinds of disasters would be felt by the house of Joab 54 David was depressed by the murder of Abner. It weakened his hold on the kingdom, ruining the opportunity of reconciliation, and delaying the fulness of the King de jure being established. David desired to do what was right in the sight of Yahweh but was hindered by Joab.

DAVID'S DIVERSIFIED ARMY

The Benjamite division was particularly skilful in "handling the bow" and in slinging stones with either hand 1 Chron. 12:2.

The Gadites were noted for speed and in their use of shield - buckler 1 Chr. 12:8

The men of Judah bore shield and spear 1 Chr 12:24.

The men of Naphtali bore shield and spear 1 Chr. 12:34.

The Zebulunites with various instruments of war were noted for their discipline and determination 1 Chr. 12:33.

Those of Issachar were outstanding in scouting and specialised in guerrilla independent action 1 Chr. 12:32.

David could call upon tribal contingents to furnish bowmen • slingers light and heavy lancers, the former good at fighting in individual combat in difficult terrain, the latter (the Judah contingent) forming the closely arrayed heavy phalanx. These were assisted by spearmen, who would hurl their spears before charging the foe with drawn swords. Other contingents less specialised were trained to fight in rank and file.

In addition to these specialised forces twelve monthly, non tribal and non-territorial divisions were created. This provided a force of 24,000, on one month active reserve duty each year 1 Chr 27:1.

Some interesting details are added by 1 Chron.12:23-40 of the manner in which the various tribes on both sides of the Jordan came to Hebron + the joyful festivities on that occasion. The consummation to which events in Yahweh's providence were directed had now come. Saul, Jonathan, Abner, + Ish-bosheth were dead. Many had already turned to David; the Philistines + possibly other enemies were restless + threatening; and to acknowledge David as King was to the advantage of all. DESERTION OF GIBEONITES. V.1-3

They had suffered from Saul. 1 Sam. 21:1 and now practised vengeance from the house of Saul.

These captains were naturally familiar with the custom of the country to work very early and late and to rest during the heat of the day at noon.

It was the custom to allow soldiers a certain quantity of corn, with other articles of provision and some pay, and as it was the custom to grind the corn, as need be at the break of day, these two captains went very early the day before to the palace where it was stored to fetch wheat in order to distribute it to the soldiers beneath them. — Treasury of Scriptural Knowledge.

The Sept. and Jos. (Ant. 7:2:4) add that the attendant of the door whose job was to sift the wheat had, in the heat of the day, fallen asleep. Thus the circumstances were ripe for the act of revenge and murder.

The act of Revenge and Treachery was committed, and with the grueseome evidence of the crime the two conspirators sped through the darkness of night to the refuge of David's city where they expected to receive the reward that usually accompanies good tidings.

DAVID PUNISHES THE MURDERERS. V.9-12.

16 This was the attitude of David in the face of all the trials and difficulties, the violence and dark deeds of treachery and murder that had surrounded him. Yahweh had saved him out of it all and he had no use for the treachery and murder of these two captains to assist him to the Kingdom.

David fetcheth the ark.

4 And they brought it out of [d]the house of Abinadab which was at Gibeah, [3]accompanying the ark of God: and Ahio went before the ark.

5 And David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD on all manner of instruments made of fir wood, even on harps, and on psalteries, and [h]on timbrels, and on cornets, and [i]on cymbals.

6 ¶ And when they came to [4]Nachon's threshingfloor, Uzzah [l]put forth [m]his hand to the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen [5]shook it.

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and [p]God smote him there for his [6]error; and there he died by the ark of God.

8 And David was displeased, because the LORD had [q]made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place Perez-uzzah to this day.

9 And David was afraid of the LORD that day, and said, How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?

10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom [u]the Gittite.

11 And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite three months: and [v]the LORD blessed Obed-edom, and all his household.

12 ¶ And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed [w]the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. [x]So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom into the city of David with gladness.

13 And it was so, that when [y]they that bare the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed [z]oxen and fatlings.

14 And David [a]danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was girded [b]with a linen ephod.

15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.

16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, Michal Saul's daughter [c]looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart.

17 ¶ And [d]they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in [e]his place, in the midst of the [f]tabernacle that David had [7]pitched for it: and David [r]offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

18 And as soon as David had made an end of offering burnt offerings and peace offerings, [g]he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts,

19 And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine. So all the people departed every one to his house.

20 ¶ [x]Then David returned to bless his household. Joab attempted it: perhaps the wily 425 Joab received help from within the city, from some confederate among the Jebusites. We are not told he did, but there are indications to support the suggestion. Josephus says Araunah was not slain by David in the siege because of the goodwill he bore the Hebrews, and a partiality benignity and affection which he had for the King himself. He is later found 2 Sam. 24:23. In close proximity to the city and in circumstances of great prosperity. Was that his reward for his assistance to the Israelites on this occasion?

CH. 6:18. David was discredited by this tragedy. Such punishment for a mere thoughtless act seemed extreme. But perhaps the house of Abinadab had been indifferent to that due to the Ark all the time it was there. No reference is made to it being blessed as was that of Obededom.

27 He was prepared to humble himself completely in the cause of Yahweh. Isa. 50:6; 53:7. Mat. 5:11-12; Acts 5:41-42. Heb. 12:2.

28 True Israelitish women would understand and applaud the motives of David.

29 Thus the house of Saul was completely cut off from the throne, David no longer having Michal to wife. Cp. Ps. 127:3

YAHWEH REFUSES DAVID'S REQUEST. vv. 4-7.

Nathan gave his opinion - which proved to be wrong, showing that inspiration was not constant with the prophets, and that they had to constantly rest on the guidance of Yahweh. David had shed much blood. 1 Chr. 22:8. and, whereas his motive was right, and Yahweh acknowledged it in making this covenant - to permit him to build the temple would have destroyed the type. See the similarity with the Abrahamic covenant. Gen. 15:12-17.

9 See margin of v. 8. The difference between the Hebrew word for all tribes and judges is very slight. שבטי Shibtey = tribes שפטי Shophetey = Judges. The apex under the letter "pe" is the only difference. This sentence thus could read "judges" the difference being due to a slight error in transcription. Yahweh had expressed His intention of establishing His worship in a set centre Deut. 12:5. and had revealed His intention of supplanting the Tabernacle by the Temple to at least Samuel without giving explicit instructions that any individual should build it. Cp. 1 Chr. 22:2. 28:2. Both = Pe.

for ever before thee: [a] thy throne shall be established for ever.

17 According to all these words, and according to all this [b] vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

18 ¶ Then went king David in, and sat before the LORD, and he said, [c] Who am I, O Lord GOD? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

19 And this was yet a small thing in thy sight, O Lord GOD; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come. [d] And is this the [e] manner of man, O Lord GOD?

20 And what can David say more unto thee? for thou, Lord GOD, [f] knowest thy servant.

21 For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all these great things, to make thy servant know them.

22 Wherefore [g] thou art great, O LORD God: for [h] there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

23 And [i] what one nation in the earth is like thy people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, and to make him a name, and to do for you "great things and terrible, for thy land, before thy people, which thou redeemedst to thee from Egypt, from the nations and their gods?

24 For thou hast [j] confirmed to thyself thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever: and thou, LORD, art become their God.

25 And now, O LORD God, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, "establish it for ever, and do as thou hast said.

26 And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel: and let the house of thy servant David be established before thee.

27 For thou, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, hast [2] revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee an house: therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer unto thee.

28 And now, O Lord GOD, thou art that God, and [d] thy words be true, and thou hast promised this goodness unto thy servant:

29 Therefore now [o] let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may continue for ever before thee: for thou, O Lord GOD, hast spoken it: and with thy blessing let the house of thy servant be blessed [p] for ever.

EXTENSION OF THE KINGDOM.
7 FURTHER VICTORIES SUMMED.
DAVID'S SURROUNDING ENEMIES.

With Jerusalem delivered from the Jebusites + the Ark in glory brought to the city, these battles can typify the 7 thunders of Rev 10:3-4

(1) PHILISTIA INVADED. v 1.

See Margin RV: "The bridle of the mother city." The idiom of the Hebrew – "David subjected the metropolis of the entire Philistines to himself (R.V.m.).

David divided into two companies those who were to be spared the drawing-line and those who were to be put down to the ground.

2 Though Gath, the chief of the five cities of Philistia was taken, it was the key of the whole country, & was in the hands of David, the Philistines continued to resist so 2 Sam. 21:15-22. 1 Chron. 20:4-8

For note on Philistines see Gen 10

(2) MOAB SMITTEN. v2. Cp 1 Chron 18:2.

David was previously friendly with the Moabites and had sought shelter for his parents there 1 Sam 22:3-4. Something must have occurred to destroy these friendly relationships. Cp David's attitude towards friendly Ammon 2 Sam 10:2. Jewish tradition suggests that the King of Moab slew the parents of David.

3 He carefully planned the invasion See a similar expression Hab. 3:6.

4 It does not define what was cast to the ground – but it must have been the strong holds of Moab – leaving the country without adequate defence.

5 He determined to impose an overwhelming defeat on the Moabite Army. Josephus declares that 2 parts of the army was destroyed.

THE DAVIDIC COVENANT upon which the glorious Kingdom of Christ "of the seed of David according to the flesh" Rom 1:3 is founded Scenes — 1 A GREAT NAME V.9.

2. A DAVIDIC HOUSE – or posterity V.11
3. A DAVIDIC THRONE – or royal authority V.13
4. A DAVIDIC KINGDOM – or sphere of rule V.16
5. A DAVIDIC KING – or Head of State. V.12.
6. ISRAEL REDEEMED, RESTORED Vv. 10, 24
7. ALL TO BE "FOR EVER."

David saw the promise of Christ in this covenant. Cp V.19 Acts 2:30. His Psalms are steeped with its theme.

Since the days of Zedekiah (Ezek. 21:27), only one King of the Davidic family has been crowned in Jerusalem, and He was crowned with thorns. But the covenant is immutable, by the oath of Jahweh (Ps 132:11) Ps 89:30-37 and Yahweh will yet give to the thorn-crowned one, "the throne of his father David." Ps. 110:1-2 Luke 1:31-33. Acts 2:29-33. 15:16-17.

Olahm – the hidden past. Cp Dan 2:44

In David's sight. See use of phrase in V.15. Cp 132:9-17. Ps 45:6; 72:5-17. Isa 9:7. Luke 1:32-33.

Chizzayoun – A revelation from Chazah, to gaze at, mentally to perceive, to contemplate (with pleasure).

THE HUMBLED KING'S APPRECIATION Vv 18-29.

Unmerited grace or favour is the most humbling of all experiences. The King, in his glory, proposed to build a Temple for Yahweh, but was refused on the basis that Yahweh had already provided for the need from David's own line. His glory was but a means to an end – the end being the glorification of Yahweh's Name. See Note V.1.

In the presence of Yahweh he recognised his utter dependence on Him for everything. His glory seen when he sat before himself now appeared tarnished, as nothing.

This title is appropriate for the subject is future rulership in the earth.

Small in comparison to the honor paid if Cp 8

It is not a difficult thing for Yahweh to elevate an obscure house such as David's to the pinnacle of glory. See note on the house of Saul p 393

Note "is" In Hebrew not "was". Cp and J. Thomas render "This is the Law (Oracle) of the Adam" (Heb Haadam). David recognised the sonship promised as a fulfilment of Edenic covenant – The first Adam in relation to the last Adam.

Words fail me. Chronicles adds: "For the honour which is done to thy servant." 1 Chron 17:18.

Approved, accepts. Cp Ps 19:14. Jer. 1:5.

14 They interposed between David and his own land, thus threatening his rear, and cutting off any line of retreat. Josephus says that Hadad was King in Damascus at this time (Benhadad is derived from this name). He quotes profane history (Nicolaus of Damascus) recording David's battle

15 Whilst fighting his way out of the encircling Syrians, news apparently reached David of an invasion of Judah by Edom. See 1 Ki. 11:16. Had the attack been successful David's victory in the north would have been rendered useless. Note the anxiety expressed in the early part of the Psalm. It was a critical moment, but David promptly despatched a force under Joab which routed the Edomites in the Valley of Salt. V.11 Cp Ps. 60 Title.

1 AND it came to pass after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his stead.

2 Then said David, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hanun their lord, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 When they told it unto David, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they stank before David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Maacah a thousand men, and of Ish-tob twelve thousand men.

7 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

6 Now when Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he answered, Behold thy servant!

7 ¶ And David said unto him, Fear not: for I will surely shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I am?

9 ¶ Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thy master's son all that pertained to Saul and to all his house.

10 Thou therefore, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in the fruits, that thy master's son may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread always at my table. Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.

11 Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. As for Mephibosheth, said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.

12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Micha. And all that dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants unto Mephibosheth.

13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table; and was lame on both his feet.

The tribes have besought him to lead them, he has united the nation, driven its enemies from its borders, extended its conquests in every direction, revived the worship of Yahweh, ordered the manner of service. He stands before the people as civil ruler and head of a theocracy, the great upholder of the worship and service of Yahweh, and his Psalms are used as the vehicle of the peoples' devotion. Yet from this high pinnacle of exalted virtue, he is in a moment plunged into the depths of infamy and sin 1 Cor. 10:12. Yet in condemning David we indict ourselves.

Maacah, were by themselves in the field.

9 When Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians:

10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will come and help thee.

12 Be of good courage, and let us play the men for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the LORD do that which seemeth him good.

13 And Joab drew nigh, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abishai, and entered into the city. So Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.

15 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the river: and they came to Helam; and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And when it was told David, he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew the men of seven hundred chariots of the Syrians, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, who died there.

19 And when all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were smitten before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER 11

1 Joab besiegeth Rabbah. 2 David committeth adultery with Bath-sheba. 14 Uriah carrieth to Joab the letter of his death. 17 Uriah is slain. 26 David taketh Bath-sheba to wife.

AND it came to pass, after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they destroyed the children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried still at Jerusalem.

2 ¶ And it came to pass in an eveningtide, that David arose from off his bed, and walked upon the roof of the king's house: and from the roof he saw a woman washing herself; and the woman was very beautiful to look upon.

3 And David sent and enquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bath-sheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Uriah the Hittite?

4 And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in unto him, and he lay with her; for she was purified from her uncleanness: and she returned unto her house.

5 And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.

6 ¶ And David sent to Joab, saying, Send me Uriah the Hittite. And Joab sent Uriah to David.

7 And when Uriah was come unto him, David demanded of him [2]how Joab did, and how the people did, and how the war prospered.

8 And David said to Uriah, Go down to thy house, and [a]wash thy feet. And Uriah departed out of the king's house, and there [3]followed him [b]a mess of meat from the king.

9 But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to his house.

10 And when they had told David, saying, Uriah went not down unto his house, David said unto Uriah, Camest thou not from thy journey? why then didst thou not go down unto thine house?

11 And Uriah said unto David, [d]The ark, and Israel, and Judah, abide in tents; and my lord Joab, and [e]the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields; shall I then go into mine house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? as thou livest, and [f]as thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing.

12 And David said to Uriah, Tarry here to day also, and to morrow I will let thee depart. So Uriah abode in Jerusalem that day, and the morrow.

13 And when David had called him, he did eat and drink before him; and he made him drunk: and at even he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but went not down to his house.

14 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah.

15 And he wrote in the letter, saying, Set ye Uriah in the forefront of the [7]hottest battle, and retire ye [8]from him, that he may [h]be smitten, and die.

16 And it came to pass, when Joab observed the city, that he assigned Uriah unto a place where he knew that valiant men were.

17 And the men of the city went out, and fought with Joab: and there fell some of the people of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also.

18 ¶ Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war;

19 And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an end of telling the matters of the war unto the king,

20 And if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say unto thee, Wherefore approached ye so nigh unto the city when ye did fight? knew ye not that they would shoot from the wall?

21 Who smote [c]Abimelech the son of [4]Jerubbesheth? did not a woman cast a piece of a millstone upon him from the wall, that he died in Thebez? why went ye nigh the wall? then say thou, Thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

22 ¶ So the messenger went, and came and shewed David all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said unto David, Surely the men prevailed against us, and came out unto us into the field, and we were upon them even unto the entering of the gate.

24 And the shooters shot from off the wall upon thy servants; and some of the king's servants be dead, and thy servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.

25 Then David said unto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say unto Joab, Let not this thing [5]displease thee, for the sword devoureth [6]one as well as another: make thy battle more strong against the city, and overthrow it: and encourage thou him.

26 ¶ And when the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she mourned for her husband.

NOTE WELL

(1) The honesty and faithfulness of the Scriptural record. There is no attempt at justifying the national hero. His action is set forth in all its stark evil.

(2) The severe punishment. All Israel, all the world knew it. When David stands again in life this realization will be there. He and Bathsheba must yet again face Uriah. Years of suffering were brought on him. Incest, fratricide, rebellion, civil war, intrigue, revolt comprised the sorry harvest of sin. With strict justice every action is punished. Even the very spot where the sin was conceived became the site of his disgrace (Cp. 2 Sam. 11:2 with Ch. 16:22). The child died, David lost the services of his friend Ahithophel, he found himself in the power of the unscrupulous Joab, his sin was discovered, and he who ruined the family life of Uriah found his own family a ruin.

(3) The sin was the culmination of a process. See Note v.5. Pride and lust, the desire to cover up a sin led step by step to a deeper and deeper wickedness until it seemed to the tortured mind of the king there was no way out but in murder. The real way out was in Jas. 5:16. 1 John 1:9.

(4) The Scriptures do not cover the sin (Cp. 1 Kings 15:5. 1 Chr. 29:29. Matt. 1:6).

UNDER THE SHADOW OF DIVINE DISPLEASURE Cp Ps. 51, Ps 32. ~ It has been suggested that this incident is not suitable for public discussion, but David did not think that way (Ps 51:13, 32:6) It illustrates in a remarkable degree the character of Yahweh (1 Sa 24:15-17) He is shown as both just and merciful. His justice is exhibited in that He demands restitution, His mercy is revealed in forgiveness. David emerges a greater man for the experience. He humbly confesses his sin, he seeks to redeem his conduct, he is emptied of all pride, and willing to make the most public acknowledgement of sin (even to delivering his pleading Psalms for forgiveness to the Chief Musician for public service), for his sin is the sin of his people. The sin of all (See Note p. 411). GOD'S ATTITUDE TOWARDS SIN IS CLEARLY SHOWN IN vv. 1-14. An appeal to common justice 1-6. An appeal to conscience 7-9. The devastating results of sin 10-12. Repentance + forgiveness v 13. Sin must be revealed for what it is. v. 14. Nathan's parable of the ewe lamb.

26 As David well knew, though pride and lust had temporarily blinded his eyes Cp Ps 5:6, 51:4; Ex. Rom. 12:19; Heb. 10:31

27 And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she [a] became his wife, and bare him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

The generosity of his nature was aroused at the meanness of the offender, and his indifference to the feelings of the poor man! What a terrible revelation to come.

Heb "Ben maveth"; "Son of death" = an extremely bad man not deserving to live. The law did not provide death for such an offence (& it did for adultery Cp note. Ch 11:5) but David's anger was stirred at the picture presented though blind to his own fault. No parable would be more calculated to stir the Shepherd of Israel than this.

7 Such a pronouncement must have brought home to David the sense of guilt to such an extent as has to transfix him. The anger expressed at the rich man & the parable was now felt by himself against himself. He appreciated the loathing others felt at his conduct — and the manner in which Yahweh viewed it.

3 But the poor man had nothing, save one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children; it did eat of his own [b] meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was unto him as a daughter.

4 And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that was come unto him; but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

5 And David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, [c] As the LORD liveth, the man that hath done this thing [d] shall surely die:

6 And he shall restore the lamb [e] fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.

10 These words show why David accepted the cursing of Shimei or the revolt of his son. It was punishment he realised he must bear.

11 It is a token of the good heart of David that he not only accepted this reproof but added to it by delivering up to the Chief Musician such Psalms as 51, 32. that Israel might learn the lesson of his own sin.

12 Such a statement does not mean that Yahweh would directly cause a thing to be done, but that He will not prevent it happening. He will permit it.

PUNISHMENT Vv 13-14

13 One can imagine the pause that would follow the words of Nathan. As the enormity of his guilt filled the mind of David he realised that great as his sin against Uriah was his sin against Yahweh was greater, for he imagined he could do this thing without punishment, as though Yahweh condoned it.

14 A heart-felt confession will find forgiveness 1 John 1:9. Matt. 12:31. See also Ps. 32:3-5. Ps 51:4. Top 433

14 Death was the penalty for Adultery. Lev 20:10. Num. 35:31-33. but in David's case Yahweh waived the penalty. In the past David had refused to take action against others, such as Saul, leaving the vengeance to Yahweh, and now his faithfulness stood him in great stead, and forgiveness was extended to him to the

433a extent that he would not die. How this illustrates the teaching of the greater than David Mat. 7:1-2. Cp Ps. 51:16-17

16 This is noted in the Masorah as one of the emendations of the Sopherim who altered the original text out of a mistaken reverence for David & Yahweh. The original reading was: "Thou hast greatly blasphemed Yahweh." (C.B.). But how true the AV rendering has proved. Men know more about David's sin than his virtues.

BATHSHEBA'S CHILD DIES Vv 15-18

Nathan abruptly left the King. Then the child sickened, and with that the realisation that the punishment was about to be inflicted and must be borne.

17 About this time Ps 51 composed.

CHAPTER 12. NATHAN'S PARABLE – Was wisely constructed by not having too near a resemblance, to make David unwittingly pass sentence on himself. The parable was in David's hands what his own letter was in the hands of Uriah – it proclaimed his own doom. Nathan began with great prudence, and great need there is of prudence in giving reproof, but at length he spake as Yahweh's ambassador, reminding David of great benefits and privileges received, charging him with contempt of Divine authority, and proclaiming judgment upon him for his folly. Those who despise the Word and Law of Yahweh, despise Yahweh Himself and will assuredly suffer for such contempt.

"I have sinned" v. 13. Saul made the same confession 1 Sam. 15:24. Why was David forgiven? 1 Sam. 24:10. Cp. Luke 18:14. 1 Jn. 1:9; 2:1. Ps. 51:10. 130:3-4.

How this illustrates the teaching of the greater than David Mat. 7:1-2. Cp Ps. 51:16-17

16 This is noted in the Massorah as one of the emendations of the Sopherim who altered the original text out of a mistaken reverence for David & Yahweh. The original reading was: "Thou hast greatly blasphemed Yahweh." (C.B.) But how true the A.V rendering has proved. Men know more about David's sin than his virtues.

BIRTH OF SOLOMON Vv. 24-25

She gave birth to four sons of whom Solomon was the youngest 1 Chr 3:5. 2 Sam 5:14. Thus seven years passed before the birth of Solomon. Yahweh had predicted the birth of Solomon 1 Chr 22:9 but David, like Abraham had to await the time of promise. This was allied David time to repent of his sin and vindicate himself.

A. Jedidiah. Beloved of Yahweh. Cp Neh 13:26

This confirmed that he was the one promised. The younger son thus became Yahweh's and elevated to the position of firstborn. Ps 89:27

CHAPTER 12. NATHAN'S PARABLE – Was wisely constructed by not having too near a resemblance to make David unwittingly pass sentence on himself. The parable was in David's hands what his own letter was in the hands of Uriah – it proclaimed his own doom. Nathan began with great prudence, and great need there is of prudence in giving reproof, but at length he spoke as Yahweh's ambassador, reminding David of great benefits and privileges received, charging him with contempt of Divine authority, and proclaiming judgment upon him for his folly. Those who despise the Word and Law of Yahweh, despise Yahweh Himself and will assuredly suffer for such contempt.

18 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died. And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead: for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spake unto him, and he would not hearken unto our voice: how will he then (a) vex himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?

19 But when David saw that his servants whispered, David perceived that the child was dead: therefore David said unto his servants, Is the child dead? And they said, He is dead.

20 Then David arose from the earth, and [c] washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the LORD, and (d) worshipped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child, while it was alive; but when the child was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread.

22 And he said, While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept: [e] for I said, Who can tell whether GOD will be gracious to me, that the child may live?

23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him; but [f] he shall not return to me.

24 ¶ And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in unto her, and lay with her: and [g] she bare a son, and (h) he called his name Solomon: and the LORD loved him.

25 And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name (i) Jedidiah, because of the LORD.

26 ¶ And [k] Joab fought against [l] Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city.

27 And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city of waters.

28 Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it: lest I take the city, and (m) it be called after my name.

29 And David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it.

30 [n] And he took their king's crown from off his head, the weight whereof was a talent of gold with the precious stones: and it was set on David's head. And he brought forth the spoil of the city [o] in great abundance.

31 And he brought forth the people that were therein, and [p] put them under [q] saws, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through [r] the brick-kiln: and thus did he unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. 2 And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar: for she was a virgin; and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.
3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother: and Jonadab was a very subtil man.
4 And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the king's son, lean from day to day? wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absalom's sister.
5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy father cometh to see thee, say unto him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.
6 So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.
7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go now to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress him meat.
8 So Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he was laid down. And she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

Summary. He was the son of Maacah, a foreign princess 2 Sam. 3:3. He was perfect in body, of outstanding personality, handsome, charming, eloquent and dignified. But ruthless, traitorous, murderous, merciless, godless, and conceited. He murdered his brother; betrayed his father + died in vanity, seeking a kingdom he was in no way qualified to rule. V. 20 Amnon. Mg Aminon - A diminutive, probably used as a mark of contempt as lessening his status as firstborn.

13 And I, whither shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king; for he will not withhold me from thee.
14 Howbeit he would not hearken unto her voice: but, being stronger than she, forced her, and lay with her.
15 Then Amnon hated her exceedingly; so that the hatred wherewith he hated her was greater than the love wherewith he had loved her. And Amnon said unto her, Arise, be gone. Heb. 'AL = No! No Heb. for "cause" See NIV.
16 And she said unto him, There is no cause: this evil in sending me away is greater than the other that thou didst unto me. But he would not hearken unto her.
17 Then he called his servant that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.
18 And she had a garment of divers colours upon her: for with such robes were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her.
19 And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went on crying.
20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon thy brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is thy brother; regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom's house.
21 But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

8 Used in sense of unchastity in Gen. 34:7 thus aligning crime with stupidity. Tamar appears to date Genesis.
9 This was probably said to divert Amnon from his intention
10 This was said as a last resource. There was little chance of David agreeing to break the law in that fashion. Lev. 18:9, 11. In any case Amnon's brutal passion brooked no delay.

DAVID'S ORGANISATION CH 8:16-18.

As the Kingdom of God, in the midst of the 7 Thunders. The Theocratic organisation is set up. Typically Joab foreshadows the belligerent or militant aspect, with Absalom's sons as priests.

CHIANT. 13. AMNON'S CRIME. ABSALOM'S VENGEANCE. DAVID'S WEAKNESS. VV. 13, 32, 39.

Fleshly lusts bring their own punishment. They not only war against the soul, but the body also rots as rottenness to the bones Prov 14:30. Sexual sin causes awful mischief & the sinner serves a hard master. See Right.

435 V. 25. "Chargeable" - David's court had become so lavish that a court-visit to his son would involve heavy expense for the latter.

"Blessed him" - The invitation put David off guard. He forgot the results of his good nature in permitting Tamar to visit Amnon, & imagining that Absalom had likewise forgiven the crime permitted the festival to go ahead.

V 28. "Be courageous" — Though revenge was the main purpose, neither Absalom nor his men would overlook that Amnon stood between him and the throne.

DAVID'S POLYGAMY. The Kings of Israel were commanded not to multiply wives Deut. 17:17. But David had seven wives (including Michal) 1 Chron 3:1-5 including numerous concubines 2 Sam. 15:16; 5:13. These wives with their children lived in separate establishments (Cp 2 Sam. 13:7,20) David's sin and punishment arose out of this state of affairs. From it came rivalry and jealousy that added to David's troubles and precipitated the crisis that led to Absalom's usurpation of the throne.

II. SAMUEL 14.

3. About 6 m. south of Bethlehem, the home town of Amos. Amos 1:1. Or, Shepherd or Herdsman
4. One able to disguise the woman, and said unto her, I real motive of the visit, and pray thee, feign thyself to be act the part that Joab desired for her. Cp the skill of the women of Endor.

Joab's artifice to bring Absalom home.

2 And Joab sent to [a] Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said unto her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner, and put on now mourning apparel, and [c] anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that had a long time mourned for the dead:

3 And come to the king, and speak on this manner unto him. So Joab [f] put the words in her mouth.

THE WOMAN'S PLEA Vv 4-11.

She presents a case in which forgiveness should be exercised. One brother had killed another, but he had been incited to do so V. 6. The remaining son was heir (as was Absalom) and the woman pleaded the intervention of David that her heir be not destroyed by the avengers of Blood. Such action would bring to an end the house of her husband. David was touched by the case so much like his own) and granted the request.

4 ¶ And when the woman of Tekoah spake to the king, she [g] fell on her face to the ground, and did obeisance, and said, [2] Help, O king.

5 And the king said unto her, What aileth thee? And she answered, [i] I am [k] indeed a widow woman, and mine husband is dead.

6 And thy handmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was [3] none to part them, but the one smote the other, and slew him. – Cp Num 35:16.

7 And, behold, [o] the whole family is risen against thine handmaid, and they said, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may kill him, for the life of his brother whom he slew; and [o] we will destroy the heir also: and so they shall quench my coal which is left, and shall not [p] leave to my husband neither name nor remainder [6] upon the earth. Absalom was now the heir.

8 And the king said unto the woman, Go to thine house, and I will give charge [4] concerning thee.

9 And the woman of Tekoah said unto the king, My lord, O king, [r] the iniquity be on me, and on my father's house: [t] and the king and his throne be guiltless.

10 And the king said, Whosoever saith ought unto thee, bring him to me, [5] and he shall not touch thee any more.

The family division of the Tribe – not necessarily her children. She calls them "the people" V. 15. She claims that the Avenger should be not allowed to destroy. Evidently each section of the Tribe exercised justice within its own section with the right to appeal to the King.

Heir light – David is called "the light of Israel" Ch. 21:17
GACHELETH – To glow or kindle.

David had authority to execute judgment. Ch. 8:15.

She was prepared to bear any punishment that her son be restored – so ought the King extend mercy. Below

The King accepted full responsibility for his action not realising that in doing so he passed judgment on his own action towards Absalom.

V 9 The King had given a general promise to help the widow, but she wants a specific assurance that her son would be pardoned + restored. Less than this would not help Absalom's case. She therefore represents herself as dissatisfied + pleads for full forgiveness. As this would be a violation of the levirate law, she undertakes to accept herself the full penalty if necessary. The King would be guiltless.

11 Then said she, I pray thee, let the king remember the LORD thy God, [3] that thou wouldest not suffer [b] the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they destroy my son. And he said, [d] As the LORD liveth, [e] there shall not one hair of thy son fall to the earth.

12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on.

13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought such a thing against [h] the people of God? for the king doth speak this thing as one which is faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again [l] his banished. You cannot restore the life of Amnon Cp V. 1.

14 For we must [j] needs die, and are as [m] water spilt on the ground, [4] which cannot be gathered up again; [4] neither doth God respect any person: yet doth he [7] devise means, that his banished be not expelled from him. – Below 14:1

15 Now therefore that I am come to speak of this thing unto my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and thy handmaid said, I will now speak unto the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his handmaid.

16 For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of [q] the inheritance of God.

17 Then thine handmaid said, The word of my lord the king shall now be [7] comfortable: for [s] as an angel of God, so is my lord the king [s] to discern good and bad: therefore the LORD thy God will be with thee.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee.

THE WOMAN PLEADS FOR ABSALOM Vv 12-17

5 She goes beyond the law, pleading the mercy of Yahweh Exod 34:6 which mercy David has himself benefited from Ps. 51:3 2 Sam 12:1-2.

6 In granting this immunity for the widow's son, the King was waiving the principle that Kept Absalon in exile.

7 She goes beyond the law, pleading the mercy of Yahweh Exod 34:6 which mercy David has himself benefited from Ps. 51:3 2 Sam 12:1-2.

8 As though the nation endorsed the action of the King. It was a subtle suggestion that if the King recalled Absalom from exile this action would be endorsed by the nation.

9 It was a suggestion based on what Joab knew the King wanted. Cp V. 1.

10 Our opportunities to do good are limited to the time we have life.

11 The Law recognised death or redemption. If Absalom was not to suffer death, he should be recalled.

12 She disowns responsibility for the liberty taken, claiming it to be the will of the people.

13 She is about to express the real reason for her visit + coaxes + flatters the King to avow

14 Having given judgment in the hypothetical case presented earlier, the King, to be consistent should recall Absalom.

15 How far from the truth this proved!

16 He has divine authority to forgive + restore

RECALLED BUT NOT FORGIVEN Vv 18-20.

18 Then the king answered and said unto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee.

19 And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak. And the king said, As thy soul liveth, my lord, I cannot turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for it is [8] Joab my servant that commanded me, he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

21 And the king said unto Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: go therefore, bring the young man Absalom again.

22 And Joab fell to the ground on his face, and bowed himself, and thanked the king: and Joab said, To day thy servant knoweth that I have found grace in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his servant.

23 So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

436 V. 17 "To discern good + bad" As King his mission is too high to hear the good + the evil + be influenced by externals only. Having heard the evidence, thought over it carefully, he will judge rightly + not merely by human passion. He will be motivated by Divine principles. The plea was carefully stated + based on David's own forgiveness. The sequel showed that all are not worthy of such forgiveness.

Woman's plea: You have granted my request that relates to but one family in Israel. If the law can be set aside for my son if can be also for yours. All Israel has a share in your son. You cannot restore the life of Amnon: it is like water on the ground. God devises means of forgiveness, you should do also.

15 Absalom appealed to the flesh and traded on such appeal. He became renowned for his hair, the weight of which was recorded throughout the Kingdom.

16 But long hair was a shame to the spiritually minded unless allowed to grow in accordance with the Nazarite vow Num. 6:5.

17 The exact weight unknown. This hair proved the undoing of Absalom Ch 18:9

And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.

19 And the king said, Is not the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, [c] As thy soul liveth, my lord the king, [d] none can turn to the right hand or to the left from ought that my lord the king hath spoken: for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and [e] he put all these words in the mouth of thine handmaid:

20 To fetch about this form of speech hath thy servant Joab done this thing: and my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth.

23 So Joab arose [f] and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.

24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. So Absalom returned to his own house, and saw not the king's face.

25 ¶ [5] But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: [g] from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he [h] polled his head, (for it was [i] at every year's end that he polled it: because the hair was heavy on him, therefore he polled it:) he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the king's weight.

27 And [m] unto Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: [n] she was a woman of a fair countenance.

28 ¶ So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and saw not the king's face.

29 Therefore Absalom sent for Joab, to have sent him to the king; but he would not come to him: and when he sent again the second time, he would not come.

30 Therefore he said unto his servants, See, Joab's field is [2] near mine, and he hath barley there; go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom unto his house, and said unto him, Wherefore have thy servants set my field on fire?

32 And Absalom answered Joab, Behold, I sent unto thee, saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Wherefore am I come from Geshur? it had been good for me to have been there still: now therefore let me see the king's face; and [g] if there be any iniquity in me, let him kill me.

33 So Joab came to the king, and told him: and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king [h] kissed Absalom.

David had revealed his feelings to Joab, and easily detected the influence of his subtle Captain in the transactions.

15 NIV: "To change the present situation." RV: "To change the face of the matter."

RECALL OF ABSALOM Vv 21-24.

16 Joab's request + action was probably motivated by policy - the absence of Absalom being detrimental in its effect. Both father + son would feel an obligation to him.

17 This action was even more diversive, bound to arouse the ire of the vain + ambitious Absalom. He would view the growing influence of Bathsheba + Solomon with distaste.

ABSALOM SEEKS POWER 28-31

Though recalled from exile, the King's obvious disapproval of Absalom stood in the way of his ambition for power. Absalom reveals the ruthlessness of his nature in his action towards Joab 20 Joab felt he had done sufficient for Absalom. He did not want to risk David's anger too much.

20A GESHUR - Bridge. A principality in Syria on the east of Jordan lying between Mt. Hermon, Maachah + Bashan Deut. 3:13-14

21 In this action is seen the shape of things to come. Absalom assumes the status of a prince dealing with the insubordination of a disobedient servant.

22 Absalom felt he could justify his action of murder + therefore should be completely exonerated.

23 Absalom's Kiss was as the Kiss of Judas Prov 27:6 Luke 22:47-48. David's Kiss was like that of the father of the Prodigal son Luke 15:20 one of perfect reconciliation and restoration.

CHAPTER 15

ABSALOM'S CONSPIRACY

HE BETRAYS HIS FATHER'S CONFIDENCE AND UNDERMINES HIS INFLUENCE

HE ASSUMES ROYAL STATE V1

Having been restored to royal favour, Absalom now meditates seizing the throne. He was now the eldest son, and normally heir to the throne, but perhaps he had heard that he would be superceded Cp 1 Chron. 22:9.

1 This was regal dignity. Cp. the similar action of Adonijah when he contemplated usurping the throne 1 Kings 1:5. Heb = "a chariot."

2 The appearance of the lordly and handsome Absalom, in Kingly dignity, preceded by 50 runners, travelling slowly in a chariot became a familiar sight in Israel. His handsome appearance, and

3. ABSALOM CAPTURES THE HEARTS OF THE PEOPLE BY FLATTERY AND DECEIT Vv 2-6.

3 He was industrious in his determination to grasp the throne from his father. He thus appeared at the seat of Judgment before any of the cases were heard.

4 He courted popularity by constantly appearing at the royal seat of Judgment as though vitally interested in the welfare of the people.

5 He accosted them before their cases were heard.

Absalom's conspiracy. David's flight.

then Absalom called unto him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of Israel.

3 And Absalom said unto him, See, thy matters are good and right; but there is no man deputed of the king to hear thee.

4 Absalom said moreover, [d] Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man which hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice!

5 And it was so, that when any man came nigh to him to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed him.

6 And on this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment: so Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

7 ¶ And it came to pass [e] after forty years, that Absalom said unto the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed unto the LORD, in Hebron.

8 For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode at Geshur in Syria, saying, If the LORD shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.

9 And the king said unto him, [f] Go in peace. So he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 ¶ But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soon as ye hear the sound of the trumpet, then ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.

11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were [g] called; and they went [h] in their simplicity, and they knew not any thing.

12 And Absalom sent for [i] Ahithophel the Gilonite, [k] David's counsellor, from his city, even from [l] Giloh, while he offered sacrifices. And the conspiracy was strong; for the people [m] increased [n] continually with Absalom.

13 ¶ And there came a messenger to David, saying, [o] The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom.

14 And David said unto all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Arise, and let us flee; for we shall not else escape from Absalom: make speed to depart, lest he overtake us suddenly, and [p] bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.

15 And the king's servants said unto the king, Behold, thy servants are ready to do whatsoever my lord the king shall [q] appoint.

16 And the king went forth, and all his household [r] after him. And the king left [s] ten women, which were concubines, to keep the house.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and tarried in a place that was far off.

18 And all his servants passed on beside him; and all [t] the Cherethites, and all [u] the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men which came after him from [w] Gath, passed on before the king.

19 ¶ Then said the king to [x] Ittai the Gittite, Wherefore goest thou also with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king: for thou art a stranger, and also [y] an exile.

20 Whereas thou camest but yesterday, should I this day [z] make thee go up and down with us? seeing I go [a] whither I may, return thou, and take back thy brethren: mercy and truth be with thee.

5 No one. No word for "man"

The number of cases were doubtless more than could be conveniently handled. There was therefore a lag. Absalom appeared early on the scene to complain that if only those appointed had the interests of the people at heart they would not consider their own convenience but would be early on the spot to administer justice.

6 By any easy familiarity towards all he insinuated himself into their good graces. The people loved to see thus honored by the handsome, regal Prince. Those dissatisfied with the judgment received returned home to speak of the advantages that would accrue if Absalom came to power.

Under pretext of a pilgrimage to Hebron, he removes from Jerusalem to head a formidable revolt against his father.

8 This cannot mean after Absalom returned from exile, but could mean in the life of David. It could represent 40 years from the time David anointed King 2 Sam. 16:1. This anointing was due to the disobedience of Saul, and now through his own folly, David was experiencing a similar punishment. Josephus – 4 (XIV)

Some suggest that "arba-im" (40) should be "arba" (4)

9 This was the birth place of Absalom. 2 Sam. 3:2-3. There the handsome Absalom would be particularly well known. There was possibly some jealousy in Hebron that he could work on due to the transference of the capital from that city to Jerusalem. See note on Hebron. Ch. 2:11

DAVID'S FLIGHT – "There is no single day in the Jewish history of which so elaborate an account remains as that which describes this memorable flight. There is none, we may add, that combines so many of David's characteristics – his patience, his high-spirited religion, his generosity, his calculation. We miss only his daring courage. Was it crushed, for the moment, by the weight of parental grief, or of bitter remorse!" (Stanley). See Note Ps 61:1-8

The ark is sent back to Jerusalem.

lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even there also will thy servant be. Ruth 1:16,17 Heb. 11:16

22 And David said to Ittai, Go and [b] pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him. See opp. col.

23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the [d] brook [2] Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the [e] wilderness.

24 ¶ And lo [3] Zadok also, and all the Levites were with him, [h] bearing the ark of the covenant of God: and [m] they set down the ark of God; and [n] Abiathar went up, until all the people had done passing out of the city.

25 And the king said unto Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city: if I shall find favour in the eyes of the LORD, he [q] will bring me again, and shew me both it, and [r] his habitation: – Ps 132:5, 13-14

26 But if he thus say, I have no [s] delight in thee; behold, here am I, [t] let him do to me as seemeth good unto him.

27 The king said also unto Zadok the priest, Art not thou a [v] seer? return into the city in peace, and [x] your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.

28 See, I will tarry [z] in the plain of the wilderness, until there come word from you to certify me. See opp. Col.

29 Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem: and they tarried there.

30 ¶ And David went up by the ascent of mount Olivet, and wept as he went up, and [f] had his head covered, and he went [u] barefoot: and all the people that was with him covered every man his head, and they went up, [a] weeping as they went up.

31 ¶ And one told David, saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. And David said, O LORD, I pray thee, [c] turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, that, when David was come to the top of the mount, where he worshipped God, behold, Hushai the [g] Archite came to meet him [i] with his coat rent, and [k] earth upon his head:

33 Unto whom David said, If thou passest on with me, then thou shalt be [l] a burden unto me: Ps 3:1-5, 7; 4:1-3; 20:1-5; 91:15.

34 But if thou return to the city, and say unto Absalom, [o] I will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so will I now also be thy servant: then mayest thou for me [p] defeat the counsel of Ahithophel.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests? therefore it shall be, that what thing soever thou shalt hear out of the king's house, [o] thou shalt tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests.

36 Behold, they have there [x] with them their two sons, Ahimaaz Zadok's son, and Jonathan Abiathar's son; and by them ye shall send unto me every thing that ye can hear.

37 So [b] Hushai David's friend came into the city, [c] and Absalom came into Jerusalem. See bottom p. 441

THE MOURNING PROCESSION V. 23.

A second pause occurred by a solitary olive tree. (2 Sam. 15:18-Sept) that stood by the road to the wilderness where the procession was properly formed. David reviewed the situation + decided on flight. He indicated this by advancing to the head of the march and passing over the deep ravine of the Kedron. V. 21.

As they moved on in flight a wail of grief burst from the people + echoed back by mountain and valley.

DAVID ORDERS THE ARK TO RETURN Vv. 25-29.

29 At this point David overtaken by another procession – the priests bearing the Ark. 30 leaving the Ark in charge of Zadok, Abiathar ascended the hill there to watch the procession flow past. 31 He had too much reverence for Yahweh to risk the Ark in his personal peril. Yahweh would restore him if it were His will. Meanwhile he would bear his discipline.

2 Jewish bread was baked in thin cakes, not loaves as we know them.

David's Flight. Ch. 15:14.

This brought out all that was best in David's character: the understanding of the full enormity of his sin; his thought for others; his complete dependence on and faith in Yahweh. His anguish was deep at Ahithophel's treachery Ps. 41:9, but it inspired faith not fear Ps 41:12. His main sorrow was the loss of his religious privileges at Jerusalem Ps 63:1-8. He gave himself to prayer Ps. 3:4 Ps. 55. describes his agony but also his trust. Ps 27 – He and all his true servants could desire that nothing should turn him.

PUT NOT YOUR TRUST IN FLESH. – We have in David a sad vicissitude of human affairs, and a fearful proof of their instability. The greatest King who ever lived, a profound politician, an able general, the hero and deliverer of his people is rejected and repudiated by a fickle public for a vain and cowardly upstart. Cp. David's feelings Ps. 42:3. and the judgment of Yahweh upon the nation Ch. 24:1. The mournful procession dominated by a sense of injustice is reminiscent of the Lord's walk to the cross – the weeping friends, the betraying Judas, the mocking adversaries are all there.

v. 10. The fact that Yahweh permits a thing or destines it does not absolve the guilty party from blame. Thus the Jews were guilty of Christ's death Acts 2:23, 7:52; 13:27-29 though it was essential to the Divine purpose Acts 4:27,28 Rom 3:25. The Gentiles are held guilty for persecuting Israel Zech 1:15 Obad 15-16. Cp the condemnation of Assyria Isa 10:6-7.

DAVID'S FLIGHT 2 Sam 15:14. Vs 35 describes his deep anxiety at the news of the revolt, his longing to escape from the turmoil of life, to flee into the wilderness & be at rest: his grief at his desertion by men in whose company he had worshipped in the house of God. His indignation at the way in which he had been duped into connivance

ZIBA'S SLANDER. Vv. 3-4.

The cunning Ziba uses the opportunity of slandering his master and so enriching himself. The deception is revealed however and restitution made. See notes Ch 14:24-30 Ch 4:10.

3 And the king said, And where is thy master's son? [h] And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he abideth at Jerusalem: for he said, To day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my father.

4 Then said the king to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained unto Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, [i] I humbly beseech thee that I may find grace in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 The King's anger is aroused against the supposed base ingratitude of Mephibosheth, and carried away by emotion he rashly judges the matter before looking into it properly. He later reversed his decision however.

THE CURSING OF SHIMEI Vv. 5-8.

Sorrow is added to sorrow as a representative of Saul's fallen house meets David in flight - cursing and recrimination on both sides follow.

6 Sig. Young Men. Just beyond Olivet about 1½ miles from Jerusalem. There the weeping Rachel bade farewell to Michal returning to David Ch 3:16. There Jonathan and Ahimaaz hid themselves Ch 17:18. It was Shimei's home town Ch 19:16.

440 DAVID'S FLIGHT (Cont) with Absalom's plans V 21. But his confidence in God is unshaken Ps 11-12. In Ps 61, 62, probably written at Mahanaim, he is calmer - his confidence is returning. As regards his terror & flight Ps 55: 5-8 from Jerusalem, he probably considered that to remain in Jerusalem would be to involve the nation in a hopeless state of civil war in which cooped up in the city all that he had established & stood for would be destroyed. Away from the city there was opportunity to restore the state of things. It was what Absalom feared Ch 17:8-10.

AHITHOPHEL'S REPREHENSIBLE COUNSEL 20-23

1 The advice rendered was possibly instigated by feelings of private revenge against David. It would prevent any hope of reconciliation between father and son. Wives of a conqueror normally became the right of the conqueror, showing the extent of his conquest. But in this case, King and counsellor were defying Yahweh's law Deut 20:11 This would not concern Absalom who had already defied the 5th Commandment.

26 The narrative shows Absalom as vain, cowardly, ambitious, vindictive, proud, overbearing, hypercritical, ungodly, adulterous, and a parricide, completely lacking in feelings of decency.

27 Men rested on flesh instead of the Word, and because his counsel was from Yahweh, he was revealed as but the "brother of folly" after all.

CHAPTER 17.

AHITHOPHEL'S VIGOROUS COUNSEL Vv 1-3

1 Motivated by a spirit of personal revenge, and perhaps doubtful that the young Absalom had sufficient wisdom or courage to successfully lead the anxiously awaited army to victory, he offers to raise a specially selected force and immediately attack David. In the weakened state of the captive King this was almost certain to succeed. Cp Ps 3, 4.

2 Such sound vigorous action received the applause it deserved.

CALL HUSHAI Vv 5-6.

Absalom was doubtful of Hushai's genuineness, and now put him to the test. Was he prepared help overthrow David and demonstrate the truth of his protestations? Ch 16:19.

AHITHOPEL A TYPE of JUDAS. (Ahithophel = A brother of folly). Absalom sent for him (2 Sam.15:12). doubtless because he saw in him a ready tool. Ahithophel was grandfather of Bathsheba (2 Sam.11:3 cf with 2 Sam.23:34-39). And would be doubtless incensed at the public disgrace brought upon the family by David, and the murder of Uriah. He became "brother of folly" by nursing resentment when Yahweh had forgiven and by "cursing Yahweh's Anointed". He persuaded Absalom to abuse David's honor as David had that of his house (2 Sam.16:22) He appeared to use the Divine condemnation of David to legalise his own revenge (2 Sam. 12:7-14). He should have observed the Law Ps 41:9; 55:12-14.

Ahithophel's counsel II. SAMUEL 17. defeated by Hushai's.

the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.

20 ¶ Then said Absalom to Ahithophel, Give counsel among you what we shall do.

21 And Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Go in unto thy father's [a] concubines, which he hath left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou [b] art abhorred of thy father: then shall [c] the hands of all that are with thee be strong.

22 So they spread Absalom a tent upon [d] the top of the house; and Absalom went in unto his father's concubines [f] in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had enquired at the [6] oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel [g] both with David and with Absalom.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Ahithophel's counsel is overthrown by Hushai's. 15 Secret intelligence is sent to David. 23 Ahithophel hangeth himself. 25 Amasa is made captain.

MOREOVER Ahithophel said unto Absalom, Let me now choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David this night:

2 And [3] I will come upon him while he is [1] weary and weak handed, and [4] will make him afraid: [5] and all the people that are with him shall flee; and I will smite the king only:

3 And [7] I will bring back all the people unto thee: the man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: so all the people shall be in peace.

4 And the saying [9] pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel.

5 Then said Absalom, Call now [m] Hushai the Architе also, and let us hear likewise [2] what he saith.

6 And when Hushai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake unto him, saying, Ahithophel hath spoken after this manner: shall we do after his [3] saying? if not; speak thou.

7 And Hushai said unto Absalom, [l] The counsel that Ahithophel hath [4] given is not good at this time.

8 For, said Hushai, [n] thou knowest thy father and his men, that they be mighty men, and [3] they be [5] chafed in their minds, as [o] a bear robbed of her whelps in the field: and thy father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people.

9 [s] Behold, he is hid now in some pit, [p] or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of them be [q] overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom.

10 And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, shall utterly [h] melt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mighty man, and they which be with him are valiant men.

11 Therefore I counsel that all Israel be generally gathered unto thee, [i] from Dan even to Beer-sheba, [k] as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that thou go to battle in thine own person.

12 So shall we come upon him in some place where he shall be found, [t] and we will light upon him as the dew falleth on the ground: [u] and of all the men that are with him there shall not be left so much as one.

13 Moreover, if he be gotten into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river,

The advice rendered was possibly instigated by seeking of private revenge against David. It would prevent any hope of reconciliation between father and son. Rites of a conqueror normally became the right of the conqueror, showing the extent of his conquest. But in this case, King and counsellor were defying Yahweh's law (12:11) This would not concern Absalom who had already defied the 5th Command.
26 The narrative shows him as vain, cowardly, ambitious, vindictive, proud, overbearing, critical, ungodly, adulterous, and a parricide, completely lacking in feelings of decency.
27 Men rested on flesh instead of the Word, and because his counsel was from Yahweh, he was revealed as but the "brother of folly" after all.

CHAPTER 17.

AHITHOPHEL'S VIGOROUS COUNSEL Vv1-3. contrast Hushai
Motivated by a spirit of personal revenge, and perhaps doubtful that the callow Absalom had sufficient wisdom or courage to successfully lead the army to victory, he offers to raise a specially selected force and immediately attack David. In the weakened state of the captive King this was almost certain to succeed.
Cp Ps 3,4.
Such sound vigorous advice received the applause it deserved.

CALL HUSHAI. Vv5-6.
Absalom was doubtful of Hushai's genuineness, and now put him to the test. Was he prepared help overthrow David and demonstrate the truth of his protestations? Cf. 2:4-7

Contrast 7-8 Below Right.

HUSHAI SERVES ABSALOM Vv7-14
David's future trembled in the balance as the court waited to hear the counsel of Hushai. Contemptuously brushing the previous advice aside as unsound he drew a picture of the extreme difficulties it presented, then sketched a plan for a general campaign
4 Perhaps Absalom reasoned that as Ahithophel was an old servant of David he should exercise caution lest he be led into a trap. Hushai perhaps worked on those fears.
5 Now follows a clever diplomatic speech calculated to appeal to the fear and vanity of Absalom, combining sagacity with poetic expressions which drew vivid pictures in the minds of his audience of the points he wished to drive home, and which found ready response in those who heard him.
8 He stoops to the fears of the coward Absalom who knew full well the fighting qualities of his father.
Extremely angry, determined and dangerous!
Among animals the bear is particularly noted for maternal instinct and ferocity in caring for its young. Thus Hushai urges his case with all the force and appeal of parable and poetry. Whilst Ahithophel relied upon his undoubted reputation alone he will not be taken so easily.
Ahithophel imagined
10 He warns Absalom that his popularity with the people is not that great - and it would not withstand the slightest reverse.
11 He appeals to the vanity of Absalom.
12 He identifies himself with the cause of Absalom and offers his services as Ahithophel had done — but in a subordinate position.
13 Silently and unexpectedly
14A force sufficient to besiege the strongest fortress and break down its walls and battlements stone by stone casting them in the valley beneath.
15 NACHAL = A ravine or gorge worn away by summer torrents. Generally bordered by steep cliffs the remnants of a dammed city could be dragged to such sites and flung over to their depths.
16 GERAB = To approach in a hostile manner. The word is not used for actual battle. In stating that Absalom should go in the midst of the army, Hushai is feeding the suspicious Absalom that Ahithophel may have ulterior motives. Cf "thy own person" with "I will" etc Vv1-3. He is implying that Ahithophel could turn on Absalom as he has on David.

ZERUIAH AND ABIGAIL: DAVID'S SISTERS V.25.

Cp 1 Chr. 2:17. Zeruiah sig. Balsam from Yahweh. She was evidently a desired + welcomed daughter. She was the mother of Abishai, Joab + Asahel who are always referred to as "the sons of Zeruiah." Her name thus occurs 25 times suggesting that she was a remarkable woman of outstanding ability.

Abigail signifies Father or begetter of joy. She is identified as David's sister in 1 Chr. 2:16-17. This would mean either that Nahash (Cp V.25 below) was the second name of Jesse, or that it was the name of Jesse's wife, or that he married the wife of Nahash + that Abigail was half-sister to David not on the father's, but on the mother's side. They are always identified with their mother to mark their relationship & because the rank was on her side.

until there be not one [a] small stone found there.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. For the LORD had [2] appointed [c] to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

15 ¶ [d] Then said Hushai unto Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled.

16 Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, [e] saying, Lodge not this night [g] in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people that are with him.

17 Now Jonathan [h] and Ahimaaz stayed by [i] En-rogel; for they might not be seen to come into the city: [k] and a wench went and told them; and they went and told king David.

18 Nevertheless a lad saw them, and told Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a man's house [l] in Bahurim, which had a well in his court; whither they went down.

19 And [m] the woman took and spread a covering over the well's mouth, and spread [n] ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known.

20 And when Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And [o] the woman said unto them, They be gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came to pass, after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and [p] said unto David, Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you.

22 Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over Jordan: by the morning light there lacked not one of them that was not gone over Jordan.

23 ¶ And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not [3] followed, he saddled his ass, and arose, and gat him home to his house, to [e] his city, and [4] put his household in order, and [f] hanged himself, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

24 Then David came to [6] Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 ¶ And Absalom made [k] Amasa captain of the host instead of Joab: which Amasa was a man's son, whose name was [5] Ithra an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of [6] Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, when David was come to Mahanaim, that [m] Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and [o] Machir the son of Ammiel of [p] Lo-debar, and [q] Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim,

28 Brought beds, and [7] basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched corn, and beans, and lentiles, and parched pulse,

29 And honey, and butter, and sheep, and cheese of kine, for David, and for the people that were with him, to eat: for they said, The people is hungry, and [t] weary, and thirsty, "in the wilderness.

II. SAMUEL 18. Absalom is slain.

CHAPTER 18.

1 David viewing the armies in their march giveth them charge of Absalom. 14 Absalom is slain by Joab. 33 David mourneth for him.

AND David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.

2 And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also.

3 But the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they [3] care for us: but now thou art [5] worth ten thousand of us: therefore now it is better that thou [6] succour us out of the city.

4 And the king said unto them, What seemeth you best I will do. And the king stood by the gate side, and all the people came out by hundreds and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.

6 ¶ So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the [h] wood of Ephraim;

7 Where the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, and there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country: and the wood [2] devoured more people that day than the sword devoured.

9 ¶ And Absalom met the servants of David. And Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great [a] oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanged in an oak.

11 And Joab said unto the man that told him, And, behold, thou sawest him, and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten [e] shekels of silver, and a [f] girdle.

12 And the man said unto Joab, Though I should [4] receive a thousand [e] shekels of silver in mine hand, yet would I not put forth mine hand against the king's son: [g] for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, [7] Beware that none touch the young man Absalom.

13 Otherwise I should have wrought falsehood against mine own life: for there is no matter hid from the king, and thou thyself wouldest have set thyself against me.

14 Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus [8] with thee. And he took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the [9] midst of the oak.

15 And ten young men that bare Joab's armour compassed about and smote Absalom, and slew him.

16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel: for Joab held back the people.

17 And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit

ABSALOM'S IGNOMINIOUS DEATH vv 9-17

In attempting to escape, Absalom rode to his doom. Riding furiously under the thick, bowed branches of a large oak, the twisted branches or some low forked bough of the tree caught him by the neck or by the loops of his long thick hair, which were once his pride, but had now become his bane. Thus Divine vengeance caught up with this rebellious son of David.

10 The military belt was the chief ornament of a soldier and was highly prized. Cp 1 Sam 18:4

10A Heb more definite: "And lo, no! weighing in my palm a thousand of silver, I would not put forth my hand...."

11 He would be false to his own interests.

12 Here is a true estimate of Joab's character, apparently well known to his own soldiers.

13 "Get out of my way! Don't waste my time!"

Absalom, as a rebellious son, was worthy of death Deut 21:21. but Joab's motives were not governed by Law but by self-interest of the cause with which he was associated.

14 Staves as 23:21. Shaker shortened at the end

16 The Jewish signal to call the people together.

The battle was received on the death of either of two men - David or Absalom. David had many followed the counsels Ahithophel in staying home Ch 17:1. Absalom had been led astray into a false move by Hushai in going to battle himself Ch 17:11.

17 The slaves were but temporary weapons. Joab's armour bearers now slew Absalom with his proper weapons. He had used the staves to illustrate he took full responsibility for Absalom's death. Having been advised of Absalom's predicament, he had hastened ahead to supervise his execution v.10.

THE BATTLE vv6-8.

6 The site is unknown but it is supposed by some to be the place where the Ephraimites were defeated by Jephthah. Jud. 12:4-6. Thus the conspiracy was defeated. Prov 11:21.

7 Though overwhelmingly outnumbered, Joab evidently attacked so strongly and to such good purpose as to cause Amasa and Absalom to retreat and the army to scatter.

8 They retired to the shelter of the wood, but here, according to Josephus their condition was worse. Swamps and pits accounted for many, others became entangled in the growth and were cut down by David's men, they lost any advantage in number by being divided up — thus were completely defeated.

JETHER. Ch. 17:25. Ithra is called Jether in 1 Chr. 2: 1647. The former is an intensive form of the latter. Here he is called an Israelite, there he is termed an Ishmaelite. According to Encyclopaedia Biblica the best texts have Jezreelite above, & thus is carried forward into the Vulgate. It could be a mistake in copying & in both places the word Ishmaelite should appear. The term "Israelite" could be used to indicate that the sympathies of Ithra were with the other tribes rather than with Judah & Absalom used Amasa, the illegitimate son of Abigail accordingly. The description indicates that Ithra = Abigail were not married when Amasa was born. 1443

THE VALUE OF THE RECORD. — These things are recorded not merely because they are true, but because they are valuable for instruction at all times. Thus the fickleness of the people turning first to Absalom then to David Ch.19:10. shows the folly of putting confidence in flesh. The whispering, conspiring, mischief-making Abidam is a familiar figure, while Ahithophels who betray their friends have existed throughout history.

15. The fate of Achan. Cp Josh. 7:26. It is said that it became a custom for Jews passing this spot to add to the heap of stones in disgrace of Absalom.

18 ¶ Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself [c] a pillar, which is in the king's dale: for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance: and he called the pillar after his own name: and it is called unto this day, Absalom's place.

19 ¶ Then said [d] Ahimaaz the son of Zadok, Let me now run, and bear the king tidings, how that the LORD hath [e] avenged him of his enemies.

20 And Joab said unto him, Thou shalt not [f] bear tidings this day, but thou shalt bear tidings another day: but this day thou shalt bear no tidings, because the king's son is dead.

21 Then said Joab to [i] Cushi, Go tell the king what thou hast seen. And Cushi bowed himself unto Joab, and ran.

22 Then said Ahimaaz the son of Zadok yet again to Joab, But [g] howsoever, let me, I pray thee, also run after Cushi. And Joab said, Wherefore wilt thou run, my son, seeing that thou hast no tidings [h] ready?

23 But howsoever, [i] said he, let me run. And he said unto him, Run. Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of [m] the plain, and overran Cushi.

24 And David sat between the two gates: and [n] the watchman went up to the roof over the gate unto the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold a man running alone.

25 And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is tidings in his mouth. And he came apace, and drew near.

26 And the watchman saw another man running: and the watchman called unto the porter, and said, Behold another man running alone. And the king said, He also bringeth tidings.

27 And the watchman said, [k] Me thinketh the running of the foremost is [o] like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, [p] He is a good man, and cometh with good tidings.

28 And Ahimaaz called, and said unto the king, [q] All is well. And he fell down to the earth upon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath [r] delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the king.

29 And the king said, [s] Is the young man Absalom safe? And Ahimaaz answered, When Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant, I saw a great tumult, but I knew not what it was.

30 And the king said unto him, Turn aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stood still.

31 And, behold, Cushi came; and Cushi said, [t] Tidings, my lord the king: for the [u] LORD hath avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against thee.

32 And the king said unto Cushi, Is the young man Absalom safe? And Cushi answered, [v] The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.

33 ¶ And the king was much moved, and went up to [w] the chamber over the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he said, [x] O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! would God I had died for thee, O Absalom, my son, my son!

1 Heb = The Cushi. RV = the Cushite — an anonymous Ethiopian who lacking feeling for the King would not hesitate to tell him the news bluntly. Cush = Black. He could have been one of Joab's bodyguard who slew Absalom V.14. In any case, being a man of low degree would indicate that his tidings were not good. He had tidings - but not such as David would want to hear.

Thinking he would not be able to overtake the Ethiopian.

He evidently knew the country better than the Ethiopian and by this alternative route was able to outstrip him.

The outer and inner gates of the city wall.

This was a good omen, if many men were running it would indicate bad news — the army in retreat.

An indication that completer tidings were on their way.

ABSALOM'S HOPELESS END V.6-8

6 Heb. Absalom's Hand. — a symbol of Victory and Power. Cp 1 Sam. 15:12. But what hollow Victory and Empty Power! He was King for a few months, he caused no less than 20,000 deaths and infinite misery, he died an execration on the lips of Israelites, he was an embarrassment to his father, he died with no son to carry on his name.

TIDINGS OF VICTORY AND MOURNING. V.9-32.

Cp with Ch.8:16-18.

- Benaiah is elevated to 2nd place in the realm, from 5th place as before.
- Jehoshaphat previously 2nd is demoted to 4th position
- In the 3rd place of the 1st list are the priests. Here they are 6th & instead the 3rd place is taken by Adoram over the Tribute, an office to have woeful consequences in the reign of Solomon & Rehoboam.
- The Name Seraiah - Dominion of Jehovah is changed to Sheva - Vanity, indicative of decline.
- Instead of 3rd position, the priesthood is placed 6th. — the province of flesh & farther separated from the King.

CHAPTER 19

DAVID'S RESTORATION TO THE THRONE

A good man & a good cause will again recover their credit & interest, though for a time they may seem to have lost them. The good services performed will still be remembered when men come to properly assess matters.

Key verses 14, 22, 23.

22 He evidently had a peculiar mode of running.

23 Not only in honor of David but in humble reverence to Yahweh to whom he ascribed the victory. The more our hearts are fired and enlarged in thanks — giving to Yahweh for our mercies, the better disposed we shall be to bear with patience the afflictions mixed with them. Ahimaaz knew the sad tidings the King would soon hear and tried to prepare his heart to receive them.

24 He tried to break the news gently to the King.

This was not said out of love for his rebellious son Cp 18:28 - but the ominous words of Ch.12:10. One man had died; the sword had devoured another. Where would it stop

DAVID'S GRIEF V.33

David's sorrow doubtless arose partly out of the realisation that he was partly responsible for the tragedy. He possibly also hated the successful sorrows to his own guilt in the matter of Bathsheba. The revolt of Absalom was really a testimony that he had failed somewhere in the discipline of his son. In the realisation of his own terrible guilt he could not bring it upon himself to condemn others. He looks with softened countenance on Absalom, Shemei and Ziba. His hand in judgement is weakened because of his own folly.

20 In his grief he hastened from the public place between the gates to the shelter of the chamber

CHAPTER 19

DAVID'S REPRIMANDS

DAVID V.1-8

1 threatens that all desert the King & cease his mourning for Absalom

They were robbed of joy, and therefore of fruit of victory.

He was inconsolable in his grief blaming himself for the tragedy that were robbed him one by one of his sons.

David's immoderate grief was undoubtedly imprudent, and Joab's firm and sensible reproof was necessary to arouse him to a sense of duty to his people, but Joab was overbearing in his approach, exceeding the bounds of that reverence which a servant owes a master & subject a prince.

This was brutally incorrect, but David had learned to accept every reproof with meekness & humility as the result of his sin.

The public place, to receive the congratulations of his subjects as they came before him to pay their respect and loyalty. David thus accepted the reproof of Joab fully, though it was given in an offensive manner — a great example to all to do likewise despite provocation.

THE NATION FLOCKS TO DAVID V.9-10.

The people flock to Mahanaim to pay their respects to the King; but (perhaps through shame) Judah is reluctant.

5 Many were half-hearted at the King's return. See Note. Ch.19:41. The SORROW TURNED TO MOURNING. - Sorrow can degenerate into selfishness, Mourning, whilst right and proper, must be limited and controlled. Life is larger than one hour of its duration no matter how tragic. — it has its duties, its battles, its conflicts — and these must be maintained in spite of depression and gloom. David's grief was a result of self-reproach as Psalms written at this time indicate. A second blow of judgment had struck & his self-control gave way. Mentally it would have been better if he had gone to the battle rather than sit in gloomy self-reproach between the gates. David was condemning himself as being responsible for bringing back murder, rebellion into his own house by his sin.

5 Some ceremony had taken place at Hebron ch 15:10 which led the tribes to Absalom so the nation divided into Israel & David's servants.

5 How fickle is the attitude of the mob! How foolish to put confidence in flesh. The benefits of today are forgotten tomorrow, and one's popularity can ebb and flow like the tides of the sea. Ps. 146:3. David, humbled by adversity, crushed by grief, had reached the stage where the opinion of flesh did not much matter.

JUDAH REBUKED. VV11-15.

6 As the priests had been sent back at the height of the rebellion and had remained in Jerusalem throughout they were now in the position to act as David's envoys.

7 This was a most judicious move calculated to show to all Judah that a general amnesty would be granted and no reprisals exacted.

8 This would show, too, that the King was not prepared to tolerate the degree of insubordination of which Joab had been guilty - that of a positive public command.

8A Obviously the spirit of revolt was greater in Judah which was closer to David's troubles. He was ready to humble himself to establish unity.

SHIMEI GROVELS IN PENITENCE. Vv.16-23.

Shimei is revealed as a man of considerable importance for he brings with him 1,000 followers.

9 David was conducted in state to the Jordan where was gathered a great concourse of people to welcome him back with ceremony. Foremost among them were many of his erstwhile enemies.

10 The first use of this in Scripture. Josephus says they built a bridge. They could have made a pontoon of ferry boats - or perhaps the A.V. is correct. Perhaps there was built a Royal Barge to take the King over in style.

11 It is obvious that Shimei was a man of considerable importance in Benjamin. Prominent men of that tribe evidently watched the revolt of Absalom with interest perhaps with the object of restoring one of Saul's descendants to the throne.

CHAPTER 19.

JOAB REPRIMANDS DAVID VV1-8.

He threatens that all will desert the King unless he cease his mourning for Absalom.

He evidently had unfair mode of mourning.

1 They were robbed of the joy, and therefore the fruit of victory.

2 He was inconsolable in his grief blaming himself for the tragedies that were robbing him one by one of his sons.

3 David's immoderate grief was undoubtedly imprudent, and Joab's firm and sensible reproof was necessary to arouse him to a sense of duty to his people, but Joab was athletic and overbearing in his approach, exceeding the bounds of that reverence which a servant owes a master or a subject a king.

3A This was brutally incorrect, but David had learned to accept every reproof with meekness & humility as the result of his sin.

4 The public place, to receive the congratulations of his subjects as they came before him to pay their respect and loyalty. David thus accepted the reproof of Joab readily, though it was given in an offensive manner — a great example to all to do likewise despite provocation.

THE NATION FLOCKS TO DAVID VV9-10.

The people flock to Mahanaim to pay their respects to the King, but (perhaps through shame) Judah is reluctant.

5 Many were half-hearted at the King's return. See Note. Ch. 19:42. The people were divided into three groups: the royalists v.9. those who previously supported Absalom & who doubtless feared reprisals v.10; Others who were indifferent to David & Absalom. The appointment of Amasa helped to unite the people.

Not only in honest David but in humble reference to Yahweh to whom he ascribed the victory. The more our efforts are tried and purged, in thankfulness to Yahweh for His mercies, the better we shall be able with patience the afflictions mixed with it. Ahimaaz knew bad tidings the king would soon hear & tried to prepare, at least to receive it. He tried to break it gently to the king.

This was not out of love for the rebellious son v.28 - but the bitter words of v.10. One king had devoured the other. Where will it stop.

GRIEF V33.

Sorrow doubtless thrust out of the heart that he was responsible for. He possibly felt the succession was to his own son & the matter of the revolt to say was really a disloyalty that he had David thus accepted the reproof of Joab somewhere in the decline of his life the realisation of the terrible sin could not be upon himself & even others with softened penance as Shemei and hand in hand is weakened of his own

He ceaseth mourning. His message to Zadok.

AND it was told Joab, Behold, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom.

2 And the victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people: for the people heard say that day how the king was grieved for his son.

3 And the people gat them by stealth that day [a] into the city, as people [b] being ashamed steal away when they flee in battle.

4 But the king [d] covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, O my son Absalom, O Absalom, my son, my son!

5 And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy servants, which this day have saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives, and the lives of thy concubines;

6 [1] In that thou lovest thine enemies, and hatest thy friends. For thou hast declared this day, [5] that thou regardest neither princes nor servants: for this day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then [k] it had pleased thee well.

7 Now therefore arise, go forth, and speak [6] comfortably unto thy servants: for I swear by the LORD, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night: and that will be worse unto thee than all the evil that befell thee from thy youth until now.

8 Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told unto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doth sit in the gate. And all the people came before the king: for Israel [p] had fled every man to his tent.

9 ¶ And all the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saved us out of the hand of our enemies, and he delivered us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land for Absalom.

10 And [s] Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why [3] speak ye not a word of bringing the king back?

11 ¶ And king David sent to [6] Zadok and to Abiathar [6] the priests, saying, Speak unto the elders of Judah, saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, even to his house.

12 Ye are my brethren, ye are my bones and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last to bring back the king?

13 And say ye to Amasa, [7] Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? [g] God do so to me, and more also, if thou be not [h] captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joab. [8]

14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, [i] even as the heart of one man; so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou, and all thy servants.

15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan. And Judah came to [l] Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

16 ¶ And [m] Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite, which was of [n] Bahurim, hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and [o] Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went over Jordan before the king.

18 And there went over a ferry boat to carry over the king's household, and to do [7] what he thought good. And

THE HOUSE OF JOSEPH V 20

Ephraim was the dominant tribe of the north. To it had been granted the title of firstborn 1 Chr. 5:1 and it was very proud of its status Cp Jud 8:1. In Amos 5:6 the term denotes all the northern tribes - such is its sense here. As a prominent Benjamite Shimei offered David the allegiance of the tribe from whence came the nation's first King; as an Israelite, i.e. professed to represent the tribes of the north.

DAVID ESCORTED TO JERUSALEM. 20:2. Large numbers of Israelites had met to welcome the King back but the antagonism roused by the argumentation of the men of Judah 19:43 + the hasty call for revolt by Sheba caused them to withdraw leaving only the deputation from Judah to escort the King back. This must have been greatly disappointing to David, leading to the mistake of 24:1

II. SAMUEL 19.

Shimei is pardoned. David returneth

Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, as he was come over Jordan;

19 And said unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant [b] did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should [d] take it to his heart.

20 For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore, behold, I am come the first this day of all [f] the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king.

21 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he [g] cursed the LORD's anointed?

22 And David said, [h] What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me? [k] shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over Israel?

23 Therefore [l] the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die. And the king sware unto him.

24 ¶ And [m] Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dressed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came again in peace.

25 And it came to pass, when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, [n] Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Mephibosheth?

26 And he answered, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king; because thy servant is lame.

27 And he hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king; but my lord the king is [a] as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes.

28 For all of my father's house were but [2] dead men before my lord the king: [c] yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table. What right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king?

29 And the king said unto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the land.

30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yea, let him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

31 ¶ And [k] Barzillai the Gileadite came down from [i] Rogelim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

33 And the king said unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.

34 And Barzillai said unto the king, [3] How long have I to live, that I should go up with the king unto Jerusalem?

35 I am this day fourscore years old: and can I discern between good and evil? can thy servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? wherefore then should thy servant be yet [o] a burden unto my lord the king?

29 He had evidently gone down to the Jordan to meet the King, but had perhaps been lost in the crowds. Then, later, he sought David in Jerusalem.

SHEBA'S REVOLT. Ch. 20:1.

He must have been already well known, the effect of his appearance was immense. The occasion which he seized was the loyal emulation of the northern and southern tribes in the great assembly gathered at Gilgal for the return of the King. He at that moment, from the midst of the crowd, blew his trumpet, and raised the cry of revolt 'To your tents, O Israel.' ... The north of the land followed him. (Stanley)

THE MULTITUDE Exod. 23:2.

A fickle multitude, gathered to honour the King soon gave and transferred their allegiance to Sheba. Most are ready to "follow a multitude to do evil," they have little or no invention of their own. They would never originate rebellions or lead insurrections, or devise plots involving great disasters. They are but followers, imitators, echoes not voices, persons who go by the bulk and not by detail, being only of consequence in proportion to their number, having no independent spirit of their own when taken one by one.

He heeded the dissension between Judah + Israel 19:43 + terminated it by sounding the trumpet and raising the cry of revolt & many of the disheartened Israelites responded. He had come originally to welcome the King, but the argument stimulated his natural antipathy for him.

25 The cleavage that took place in the days of Jeroboam already in evidence. The whispering campaign of Absalom had left deep-seated trouble, which was later to flare out into open rebellion.

26 Whatever respect the men of Israel had for their King they would not have quarrelled so fiercely about their own respect if their first desire was to honor the King.

27 There was more reason and weight of logic with them.

29 A whole-hearted act on the part of Judah. A half-hearted act on the part of Israel in which there was much strife. Cp Ch 19:9 The prominence afforded Judah seemed to have been resented by the other tribes.

29A The rest of Israel quickly followed the first half V 40

29B Judah had acted by stealth + without the concurrence of the other tribes.

35 The cleavage that took place in the days of Jeroboam already in evidence. The whispering campaign of Absalom had left deep-seated trouble, which was later to flare out into open rebellion.

DAVID'S TROUBLES CONTINUE — The internecine controversy between the tribes gave opportunity for any turbulent spirit to attempt to renew the rebellion of Absalom, and multitudes flocked to the standard of revolt. The meanest man may pull down a wall, set fire to a palace, or whisper a slander about the King. The remarkable thing is that whilst society realises this, it is ready to lend an ear to every wicked speaker who arises, insisting upon the old and detestable sophism that although the report may not be wholly and literally true, there must be some foundation in it Cp V.3.

• We must not think it strange when the end of one trouble is the beginning of another, but Yahweh will victoriously bring us through them all, if we trust His wisdom.

SHEBA RAISES THE STANDARD OF REVOLT. Vv 1-2.

2. Cp Note Jud. 14:22. He has a double genealogy — a natural and a spiritual parentage. The latter is known by the deeds he commits. Jhn 8:39.

Sig. "In oath." Nothing more is known of him than what this chapter reveals.

Or Bichrite — a member of the family of Becher, second son of Benjamin Gen. 46:21.

Called the people together to raise the standard of revolt. Used in contempt. Seemingly on bottom p. 393. He could have been a clear acquaintance of Saul and thus raised again the old expression of contempt he had heard so often.

One of the emendations of the Sopherim, by which they transposed the middle two letters of the primitive text and made it read "tents" instead of "gods." The same was done in 1 Kings 12:16; & 2 Chr. 10:16. C.B.

There was widespread dissatisfaction in Israel, and upon if Sheba played to good effect.

The revolt united Judah solidly behind David. The earlier reluctance to accept him was swept aside. Cp Ch. 19:11

DAVID COMMISSIONS AMASA TO CRUSH THE REBELLION. V. 4.

Cp Note Ch. 17:25, 19:13. This was his opportunity to demonstrate his merit and confirm his appointment as Commander in Chief.

He was either incompetent or had difficulty in raising men for David. In either case he seriously jeopardised the King's plans by his delay. It was imperative that David strike immediately before Sheba had opportunity to properly mobilise his forces.

IN AMASA'S ABSENCE ABISHAI IS SENT Vv. 6-7.

12. Time helped Sheba, and given sufficient he was in the position to do more damage than Absalom. Are Scripture

37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant [b] Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good unto thee.

38 And the king answered, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt [2] require of me, that will I do for thee.

39 And all the people went over Jordan. And when the king was come over, the king [c] kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned unto his own place.

40 Then the king went on to Gilgal, and [3] Chimham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

41 ¶ And, behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have brought the king, and his household, and all David's men with him, over Jordan?

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is [1] near of kin to us: wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or hath he given us any gift?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David than ye: why then did ye [9] despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king? And [m] the words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Sheba maketh a party in Israel. 4 Amasa, made captain over Judah, is slain by Joab. 14 Joab pursueth Sheba unto Abel. 16 A wise woman saveth the city by Sheba's head.

AND there happened to be there [a] a man [13H] of Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew a trumpet, and said, [c] We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: [d] every man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his [e] concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in [4] ward, and fed them, but went not in unto them. So they were [5] shut up unto the day of their death, [6] living in widowhood.

4 ¶ Then said the king to [g] Amasa, [7] Assemble me the men of Judah within three days, and be thou here present.

II. SAMUEL 20.

Amasa is slain. Sheba is beheaded.

Joab's garment that he had put on was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loins in the sheath thereof; and as he went forth it fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to (a)kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand: so (b)he smote him therewith (c)in the fifth rib, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and (3)struck him not again; and he died. So Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri.

11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of (h)the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him stood still.

13 When he was removed out of (h)the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 ¶ And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto (i)Abel, and to Beth-(k)maachah, and all (l)the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in (i)Abel of Beth-maachah, and they (o)cast up a bank against the city, and (4)it stood in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab (5)battered the wall, to throw it down.

16 ¶ Then cried a wise woman out of the city, Hear, hear; say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I may speak with thee.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 Then she spake, saying, (6)They were wont to speak in old time, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at (i)Abel: and so they ended the matter.

19 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou (c)swallow up (f)the inheritance of the LORD?

20 And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should (c)swallow up or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: but a man (g)of mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri (7)by name, hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

22 Then the woman went unto all the people (8)in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they (9)retired from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem unto the king.

23 ¶ Now (m)Joab was over all the host of Israel: and (10)Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over (p)the Cherethites and over the Pelethites:

24 And (q)Adoram was over the tribute: and (r)Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was (s)recorder:

25 And Sheva was scribe: and (t)Zadok and Abiathar were the priests:

FEAR IN THE CITY

The determined efforts of the ruthless and fearless Joab aroused the greatest anxiety in the city in which a woman noted for her sagacity took the lead. She undertook to negotiate with Joab.

23 The activity of Joab and his supporters was suddenly halted by the appearance of this woman.

24 Most translators render this as though it was proverbial to ask wisdom at Abel. But accepting the marginal reading, it is possible that there was a group in Abel that agreed to give asylum to Sheba confident that Joab would seek the peace of the city in accordance with Deut. 20:10.

25 "Peaceable" and "faithful" are in the plural, representing a group in Abel of which the woman was mouthpiece.

It still adhered to David.

"A city, even a mother (city) in Israel." Abel was a metropolis in the north, dominating surrounding smaller places.

Cp. 2 Sam. 8:1. Num. 32:41. Josh. 13:11. "villages"

Hebrew: "daughters."

The destruction of this fortified place in the north would remove a protecting bastion for the whole country from any invader.

Though of Benjamin, Sheba's strength stemmed from the north.

She agitated against Sheba, and the direction in which the people found themselves going pointed to her comment, so they readily assented to her request. Joab's vigor and energy had helped bring victory.

DAVID'S STANDING RESTORED. Vv. 23-25.

31 His position was now established beyond doubt. And there is little doubt that whilst deploring the savage murder of Amasa, that but for Joab, Sheba's revolt might have been successful. David's hands were

Sig. "Stumbled." Joab pretending to stumble so that the short sword he was wearing should fall out. He had contrived to conceal the dagger so that it would fall out as he advanced. This gave him the opportunity of picking it up and having it in his hand as he went forth to meet his unsuspecting cousin.

16 He had taken the sword in his left hand to take Amasa off guard.

17 The blood of Amasa spurted over Joab as he clasped him in the treacherous embrace. 1 Kings 2:5. So Joab continued on into battle with the stain of his ruthlessness upon him.

18 The statement implied that there was no other Commander than Joab, and he was steadily attached to David.

19 The ghastly sight of the dead body soaking in blood shocked the most hardened soldier.

19A This implies that Amasa had not been truly loyal to David & had been properly executed by Joab in consequence. But those who came upon the corpse did not so interpret it. They knew Joab!

Inhabitants of Beeroth, according to Josephus in northern Galilee and identified by "The Land and the Book" with a place adjacent to Safed. They must have been sympathetic to David's cause to follow Joab to battle against Sheba.

The forepart only being by degrees to be brought closer to the wall to mounted bare. "Everyday Life in O.T. Times" - "The major engineering operation in siege-warfare was the construction of a steep embankment against the city walls to enable the engines and battering-rams to be moved into position. This ramp was hastily thrown up with stones, soil and trees felled in the neighborhood." Joab no doubt acted with the greatest despatch in this work, for in northern Israel he was surrounded with enemies.

CHAPTER 21.

1 The three years' famine for the Gibeonites ceaseth, by hanging seven of Saul's sons. 10 Rizpah's kindness unto the dead. 12 David burieth the bones of Saul and Jonathan in his father's sepulchre. 15 Four battles against the Philistines, wherein four valiants of David slay four giants.

THEN there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David [c]enquired of the LORD. And the LORD answered, It is for Saul, and for his [1]bloody house, because [d]he slew the Gibeonites.

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them; (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but [e]of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: and Saul sought to slay them in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.)

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherewith shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless [f]the inheritance of the LORD?

4 And the Gibeonites said unto him, [g]We will have no silver nor gold of Saul, nor of his house; neither for us shalt thou kill any man in Israel. And he said, What ye shall say, that will I do for you.

5 And they answered the king, The man that consumed us, and that [h]devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel,

6 Let seven men of his sons be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up unto the LORD [i]in Gibeah of Saul, [k]whom the LORD did choose. And the king said, I will give them.

7 But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of [l]the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.

8 But the king took the two sons of [m]Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bare unto Saul, Armoni [2]and Mephibosheth; [3]and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she [4]brought up for Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite:

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the LORD: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, in [5]the beginning of barley harvest.

10 ¶ And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, [6]from the beginning of harvest until water dropped upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the air to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done.

12 ¶ And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from [n]the men of Jabesh-gilead, [o]which had stolen them from the street of [m]Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa:

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son buried they in the country of Benjamin in [p]Zelah, in the sepulchre of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. And after that [q]God was intreated for the land.

Many years had passed since the actual offence, but for His own inscrutable purpose, punishment is often delayed by Yahweh. It reminds us that though time may have blunted our memories of evils done, we often establish conditions of antagonism that are deep seated though hidden and continue to cause trouble long after we have forgotten the cause. We need to act with care. Saul massacred "in his zeal" — but zeal must be modified with knowledge Rom. 10:2. Gal 4:17.

9 It was Saul and his house that were guilty V1. Those condemned on this occasion must have been personally associated with the massacre or else condoned and justified it.

10 Saul's action had been done "in his zeal" V1. as though endorsed by Yahweh. So long as justice remained undone to the Gibeonites Yahweh appeared as unjust before Israel. The public execution of these sons demonstrated that such massacres and repudiation of solemn agreements could not be tolerated. THE BROKEN-HEARTED SORROW OF RIZPAH. Vv10-11.

These bodies were left hanging in the blazing sun until about October, a ghastly sight for putrefaction would soon set in. In that climate this being so, this poor, broken-hearted woman must have endured her fatiguing vigil for 5 months, perhaps.

18 This expression implies the normal autumnal rains in October, but it could, of course, relate to a special summer rain which would have reduced the time of the vigil considerably. A rain in summer would be a providential token that the famine was over. Deut 28:23

There is nothing to say that Yahweh endorsed this action — in fact His law concerning hanging is not in accordance with it Deut. 21:23. But Saul, by breaking his covenant with Gibeonites, put himself in their power and David, by agreeing to their terms V3, sanctioned likewise. Yahweh demands that solemn oaths be kept — even those given with sin due thought to the consequences. Cp Num 30:2 Ps 15:4

19 Rizpah's action could well invite sympathy for her sad state and arouse the smouldering antagonism against David. She had to do something to demonstrate that he bore no personal ill-will against family of Saul of thanksgiving.

15 ¶ Moreover the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines: and David waxed faint.
16 And Ishbi-benob, which was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David.
17 But Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David sware unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the light of Israel.
18 And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Saph, which was of the sons of the giant.
19 And there was again a battle in Gob with the Philistines, where Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Beth-lehemite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.
20 And there was yet a battle in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant.
21 And when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimeah the brother of David slew him.
22 These four were born to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER 22.

A psalm of thanksgiving for God's powerful deliverance, and manifold blessings.

AND David spake unto the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul:
2 And he said, The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer;
3 The God of my rock; in him will I trust: he is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge, my saviour; thou savest me from violence.
4 I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.
5 When the waves of death compassed me, the floods of ungodly men made me afraid;
6 The sorrows of hell compassed me about; the snares of death prevented me;
7 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried to my God: and he did hear my voice out of his temple, and my cry did enter into his ears.
8 Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of heaven moved and shook, because he was wroth.
9 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.
10 He bowed the heavens also, and came down; and darkness was under his feet.
11 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: and he was seen upon the wings of the wind.
12 And he made darkness pavilions round about him, dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies.
13 Through the brightness before him were coals of fire kindled.
14 The LORD thundered from heaven, and the most High uttered his voice.
15 And he sent out arrows, and scattered them; lightning, and discomfited them.

DAVID'S PSALM OF THANKSGIVING

There are variations in the form of the Psalm as it here appears and Psalm 18. The latter is a revision of this original by David for public worship.

4 Stability in the midst of a splendid future for his posterity.

In this hour of his great prosperity and happiness David composed this magnificent hymn of thanksgiving, wherein he surveys the course of ancient binding fast (life); he traces the hand of death. Yahweh in every step; his heart overflows in joyous gratitude. The inspiring thought of the whole Psalm is that Yahweh has made him what he becomes it that he has been preserved, and guided and to his present height of predicted as far as David was concerned had come to pass, and was illustrative of the greater prophecy contained therein - that relating to Messiah V 51 (Ps. 18:50). It also emphasised the fundamental righteousness of David's character in spite of his sin which Yahweh had blotted out. The expressions of innocence. Vv. 21-26 (Ps 18 20-24) still apply for David faithfully endeavoured to make full restitution along the lines he had promised Ps 51:13-14.

CONDITIONS OF PSALMIST.

"At length the warrior-King was at peace. The hair-breadth escapes of his flight from Saul, when his life was in hourly peril & he knew not whither to turn for safety; the miseries and bitterness of civil strife, through which, though chas-

et of Yahweh to rule. His people he had established as the way to the throne; the wealth with surrounding nations which jealous of Israel's rising power tried to crush the scarcely consolidated Kingdom, - all were past and over. David had been preserved through every danger; victory had accompanied his arms; he was the acceptable King of the united people; the nations around acknowledged God his supremacy. To crown all, Yahweh's message communicated by Nathan opened out the prospect symbolise Yahweh's theophany. The majestic though terrible phenomena of nature are the expression of His presence. The power of prayer is exhibited in the symbolism David used to describe the answer given to [illegible] rumble of thunder, the sudden roar as heaven's artillery breaks forth in all its power, the sudden shaft of lightning, the heavy sweeping downpour of rain, beating flat all before it - are graphically describes [illegible] hail' beat down and destroy

41 Yahweh comes to the rescue of His servant. As His trusting servant shelters in the cleft of the Rock, or the mountain caves, earthquake, fire, tempest, 2SAM. 22:2 FORTRESS: A rock difficult of access forming a safe retreat. It is entirely a natural formation, & not a building. So Yahweh - difficult of access but secure.

DELIVERER: PÂLAT - To rescue Cause to Escape

Addressed to Yahweh as a testimony of praise for deliverance; or as an imperative, seeking help. Cp Ps. 18: 2; 40:17; 43:1; 70:5; 71:12; 144:2. Manifested in Christ Acts 7:35; Rom. 11:26.

V.8. In 1 Chron. 11:10 they are described as those "who strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom" at a time when all Israel desired him. With David's elevation to Kingship those who had supported him as strangers and pilgrims in the land were suitably rewarded with portions of honour. 2 Tim. 2:12; Rev 5:9-10

There are variations of the names as here given as compared with those in 1 Chr. 11:10-47 and this may well be due to replacements due to death

The Tachmonite in Hebrew is "Yasheb bashshebeth the Thachmonite". His name was Jashobeam. See Note 33. "Bashshebeth" is the Hebrew for "in the place" V.7. The Scribe evidently was led astray by copying this word at this place, his eye evidently catching sight of it at this point. "Captains" See 1 Chr 11:11

"Adino the Eznite" see Note 34

Adino = slender & Eznite = Spear. Str.

V.9. Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite" Heb. Ben Dodai Ben Ahohi. El has helped the son (i.e. filled with) Love, the member of the Brotherhood (Ahohi). Probably a descendant of Ahoah of Benjamin 1 Chron 8:4. If so, his love of the Brotherhood transcended that of the flesh, for though of Benjamin, he sided with David. Other Benjamites joined David 1 Chron. 12:1-7. other members of the family joined David V.28; 1 Chr. 11:29; 27:14. Command 2nd Division of army.

"There" - Given as Pas-dammim: 1 Chron. 11:13 Pas = Palm of hand = perhaps Dell of Bloods. Cp 1 Sam. 17:1.

V.10 "His hand clave" Evidently by cramp. Examples have been known of warriors hands after extreme battle could only be relaxed after hard fighting by hot fomentations.

Victory. "TESHUWAH - Salvation from SHAVA' = Freedom from trouble as the result of a call for help. Read. "Salvation" 1 Sam. 11:13, 19:5.

"Returned after him" - His example inspired them to regroup their forces and follow him.

V.11 "lentils" - ADASHIM from ADEESH, to tend a flock. It is considered food for the poor & was reaped soon after the wheat harvest in June. Its name indicates that it was food for peasants & herdsmen. Shammah acted as a shepherd.

V. 13. The three: It could be that the exploit in which these triumphed led to the appointment of the second three besides Jashobeam, Eleazar, & Shammah. The three in question appear to have been Abishai V.18, Benaiah V 20 and another. the narrative shows how extraordinary was David's power to inspire his men.

"In the harvest time" - Heb = to (i.e. towards) harvest. Heb. QÂTSIYR from a root QÂTSAR - to sever, cut off, curtail. Perhaps to the point where the army was assembled to "harvest" the Philistines. 2 Chr. 11: 15 = "to the rock" (TSUR). If the Qoph p was dropped from QATSIYR, the remaining consonants would look remarkably like TSUR. Perhaps it was added in mistake.

V.15. Nothing but water from the well of the House of Bread would suffice! Cp. John 4:14. Christ both bread & water of life.

THE DEED OF SHAMMAH

VV. 11-12. Place after 1 Sam. 17:58. In 1 Chr. 11:13-14 this is said to have taken place in "Pas-dammim" Str: Dell of Bloodshed. Dict. = Spreading out of bloods. Cp. 1 Sam. 17:1.

V.14. The garrison - MATSTSÂB - Garrison but in 1 Chr 11:16 = NETSYIB - Officer. Evidently the chief commander.

V.27. MEBUNNAI. Elsewhere Sibbecai Evidently from mistaking a D sometech for a D mem, & a] Nun for a] Caph. The difference in vowel points.

V.29. ITTAI. In 1 Chr. 11:31 ITHAI. results from the dropping of 'Yod & the duplication of the following letter.

2 Sam 22:26. Merciful CHÂSYD - Kindness towards men and love towards God.

DAVID'S MIGHTY MEN 2 Sam. 23:8-39

Men of faith and courage who battled their way to Victory against great odds. Heb. 11:33-34. Cp. 2 Cor. 10:3-6; Eph. 6: 10-18; 2 Tim 3-4. Ps. 23:5.

"The Tachmonite" V.8 : "He that sat in the seat" Is Jasheb-bashshebeth in Heb. Cp Note 33. but in 1 Chr 11:11 = Jashobeam, the people will return Tachmonite is there Hachmonite, or the son of Hachmoni, the Wise. Why not a variation of names, or the name in Chronicles and the title here. Adino is given by Strong as "his spear" Eznite = sharp or strong. — His Spear is Strong - also part of his title. "He sat in the seat" - a place of honour Cp Eph 2:6.

2 Sam. 23:7 Utterly burned" Cp Isa. 27:4; Matt. 3:10-11; 13:42; Luke 19:14, 27; John 15:6; 2 Thess 1:8; 2:8; Heb 6:8.

2 Sam. 20:6. "Lord's" - Heb. plural Adonim In contrast to 2 Sam. 11:11 = singular. The former relates to the King directly related to the King of heaven; the latter concerns Joab. The King's business depends upon the blessing of heaven whom he directly represents. See also 1 Kings 1:33.

DAVID'S HEROES.

Christ has his heroes who, like David's are influenced by his example, fight his battles against the spiritual enemies of His Word, and in his strength are more than conquerors. Phil. 4:13; Rom. 8:35-39. They exhibited.

- Fearlessness and daring courage such as Jashobeam displayed. V.8. This is stimulated by faith which when matched with courage will gain the victory against great odds 1 John 5:4
- Independence & single handed effort. Vv 9,10 as did Shammah who stood alone who stood alone and turned the tide of attack causing others to return to the defence
- Steadfastness in endurance & active endeavour as when Shammah stood his ground V 12 A single act of fearlessness & independence is not sufficient: it must be maintained. Luke 9:57; Eph. 6:14; 1 Cor. 15:58; Gal. 6:9
- Divine help Vv 10,12. Human effort is needful, but in itself is ineffectual. It avails only in the help of God. Ps. 121:2. Every deliverance calls for acknowledgement and thanksgiving.
- The Pleasure of the King Vv 15,16. All the qualities above are combined in the spontaneous act of love & devotion by the "three mighty men". They risked life itself to "please him" who had chosen them to be soldiers 2 Tim. 2:2-4. Their intense attachment to their leader, their fervent desire to satisfy his 'want' became a sacrifice of love to Yahweh Cp John 15:13 They were enthusiastic, spontaneous, prompt and cheerful in their endeavour.
- Considered acts of Bravery. 20-23. He took on two Moabitish princes or champions of God; a ferocious lion in a pit - the terror of others; an Egyptian Giant. We must not be dismayed by the power of the enemy; their number and ability - 2 to 1; their lionlike ferocity; their strength & height Cp 1 Cor. 16:13; Phil. 1:28; 2 Tim. 2:17; 1 Pet. 5:8.

2 Sam 21:22 - "Four". Perhaps symbolic of the extra 4 stones in David's sling. Cp 1 Sam 17:40

[illegible] his fame and hell are [illegible] fied as hunters, with [illegible] and traps.

[illegible] ories it that he has been [illegible] served, and guided and raised [illegible] his present height of power.

[illegible] My cry [illegible] peated request, and the Divine ear was open to receive it.

II. SAMUEL 22.

David's psalm of thanksgiving.

symbolise Yahweh's theophany. The majestic though terrible phenomena of nature are the expression of His presence. The power of prayer is exhibited in the symbolism David used to describe the answer given to it. As Yahweh moves to his help, the earthquakes, the lowering sky, the ominous rumble of thunder, the sudden roar as heaven's artillery breaks forth in all its power, the sudden shaft of lightning, the heavy sweeping downpour of rain, beating flat all before it - are graphically described. These things were prophetically fulfilled in the overthrow of Judah in A.D. 70.

SUMMARY OF 2 SAMUEL

The book is divided into 3 sections. The first 10 chapters set forth David as the theocratic King. As such he takes "the heathen for his inheritance", and founds an Empire. He makes significant changes to the original forms of worship. To the levitical sacrifices he adds a far more spiritual service of Psalms, & instrumental service Amos 6:5, doubtless guided by Samuel Cp. 1 Sam. 19:20-21 1 Chr. 9:22. His service of sacred song is termed 'prophecy" 1 Chr. 25:1-3.

He also arranged specific services of song by Levites to accompany the various parts of daily and regular service 1 Chron. 23:24-32; Neh. 12:24. Such psalmody drew attention to the evangelic meaning of the levical ordinances drawing out the inner and deeper meaning of their symbolism. They taught the true nature of God, the wonderful provision of the atonement, the universal scope of the Kingdom to come, the true significance of the daily striving against the problems of life, and the anticipated birth, death, resurrection, ascension and future glorification of the coming seed of David.

The second part of David's life is dominated by his sad sin. In this is illustrated not the Lord Jesus Christ as an individual, but the multitudinous Christ, daily conscious of imperfection and in need of forgiveness Ps. 51, 32. His hands are weakened by his own crime, and brings him under the influence of such as the ruthless Joab. Yet the expressions of David then are among the most comforting to those in need of spiritual help today.

These experiences therefore act as a bridge between the Exodus and the fervent outpourings of the prophets in their vision of the future.

The third section in an appendix that set forth incidents that are illustrative of David's life and times. Six incidents are traced. (1) Judgment on Saul's house 21:1-15 (2) Heroic incidents of war 21:16-22 (3) David's Psalm of deliverance Ch. 22 (4) David's last words Ch. 23:1-7 (5). David's honour roll of Gibborim 23:8-39 (6) The visitation of pestilence because of the numbering of the people

SAUL'S SLAUGHTER OF THE GIBEONITES - 2 Sam. 21.

This incident is not dated so probably was early in the reign of David. It would have been purposeless to have delayed such judgment, & could have aroused antagonism if it had taken place after David's own transgression.

Saul slaughtered "in his zeal" V.2. He early manifested great zeal in matters that were done blindly & in which he had no true understanding of Divine reason. He put to death all wizards and witches 1 Sam. 28:9 & evidently attempted to slay the Hivites of Gibeon in accordance with Deut. 7:2.

Saul's descendants or "house" had profited by this slaughter, evidently acquiring the lands of those slain & so endorsed the action of the King. They should have made restitution.

2 Sam 21:15 "Moreover" "Again" These expressions indicate that the heroic acts recorded are taken from record and here included as an introduction to the Psalm of Thanksgiving that follows. They are repeated in 1 Chr 20:4-8 where they are placed immediately after the taking of Rabbah. They are probably extracted from the Book of Jasher 2 Sam. 1:18

"The Giant" 21:16 - Rapha; and therefore a member of the race of the Rapha, a physically well developed people, and perhaps another name for the original inhabitants having that characteristic. There are several races of Canaan of great stature that are similarly described. See Deut. 2:11; 3:11.

The lion 23:20 - A ferocious lion had been driven by a heavy fall of snow into the neighbourhood of human habitations, to the terror of the inhabitants, and had taken refuge in a pit or empty cistern and from thence preyed upon the inhabitants.

V. 37 Armourbearer - Heb. = plural. Joab had 2 foreigners among his armourbearers. He was assisted by at least 10 in his bodyguard 2 Sam 18:15

V.39 37 in all: The Thirty become a technical name, and might receive additional members. But if Asahel's place is filled up the number is exact - there being 30 ordinary members, three chiefs of the first class and three of the second, of whom, however, one name is omitted. In Chronicles 16 additional names are given, probably men admitted to the order to fill up vacancies. Sometime variations of a name also take place.

2 Sam 21: Summary.

When afflicted by Divine judgment, we should enquire the cause & when it is revealed seek to correct it, that the Divine blessing be renewed.

Key Verses 3, 7, 14

In mistaken zeal Saul attempted to exterminate the Gibeonites. It was evidently a family sin V.6 the severity of which is expressed V.5 mg. Such a sin could not be atoned for by silver & gold. Ps. 49:8 but only by the utter repudiation of the flesh which motivated it. 7 descendants (men who doubtless gave themselves as representatives of his house V.1.) paid the penalty in blood - a repudiation of the flesh. Deut. 21:22. Gal. 3:13.

Under normal circumstances, the bodies of criminals remained on the tree for one day - but here, in this national sin, which represented the antagonism of fleshly Israel against Gentiles who embraced the hope of Israel, the bodies were publicly exhibited (like Israel under the curse) until Yahweh's forgiveness of the crime is openly manifested. - as in the case of Israel today. This was from ~~until~~ Passover ~~Pentecost~~ until after Tabernacles - that being the time of Israel's dispersion - a period of drought until the coming of rain Joel 2:23.

Rizpath, (Vulture or Kite) of Aiah (Burning coal) was Saul's concubine 2 Sam. 3:7 & which seems to have been a Hivite Gen. 36:24; 1 Chron. 1:40.

Bereft of husband & children she was left to fight a battle against loneliness & poverty with the sight of her children's bodies ever before her. She seems to picture Israel in dispersion Jer. 12:9. refusing to be comforted Jer. 31:15 until buried by David, the Beloved.

BATTLING WITH GIANTS.

2 Sam. 21:15-22.

Ishbi benob: My dwelling place is Nob - a priestly city 1 Sam. 22:19 Fruit-where Tabernacle placed. Abishai: Father of a Gift. Zeruiah = Cleft by Yah. The Gift is Christ.

By him the multitudinous David is succoured in distress.

2 Sam. 21:18.

At Gob (Af). Saph - Threshold, or basin - as limiting or containing. The threshold (diff. word) was treated with reverence in Philistine worship 1 Sam. 5:4-5. which certainly endeavoured to limit or contain the power of Yahweh Zeph. 1:9.

Destroyed by Sibbechai - my thickets, from a root SABBAK - To entwine, wrap around suggesting strength in fellowship. Hushathite - to make haste. Suggesting the speed of help from true fellowship.

2 Sam. 21:19.

At Gob (Af). Elhanan - God is a gracious Giver. Jaare-oregim = forest of weavers = to plait or weave together - such as the Wood of life. Bethlehemite - One of the House of Bread. Goliath - See 1 Sam. 17:4. Gittite - Winepresser - tread underfoot.

2 Sam. 21: 20-21

No name but distinguished by form representing the flesh in work & in walk. Destroyed by Jonathon - Grace or gift of Yah. Shimeah - Hearing or Reporting. Related to David, the Beloved.

THESE FOUR 2 Sam 21:22

Apostasy, False Religion, Sin in the flesh, and the active manifestation of wickedness.

2 SAM. 22:3. "The God of my Rock" is changed to "My God my Rock". Here the Elohim are subject to Yahweh as the Rock or Shelter of David. The Rock is both a Sela V.2. and David's fortress - not a building but a mountainous peak difficult of access forming a secure retreat. The Rock is a vast mountainous mass suggesting both grandeur & immovable might.

21 Yahweh comes to the rescue of His servant. As His trusting servant shelters in the cleft of the Rock, or the mountain caves, earthquake, fire, tempest, hail beat down and destroy the enemy.

In graphic language David describes the anger of Yahweh, in storm, sweeping in ... driving all Earthquake and storm are used to ... Vested.

David's psalm of thanksgiving.

16 And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the [a]rebuking of the LORD, at the blast of the breath of his [3]nostrils.

17 [d]He sent from above, he took me; [e]he drew me out of many waters;

18 [f]He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.

19 They [k]prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

20 He brought me forth also [o]into a large place: he delivered me, because he [p]delighted in me.

21 [q]The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness: according to the [r]cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

22 For I have [t]kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

23 For all his [u]judgments were before me: and as for his statutes, I did not depart from them.

24 I was also [x]upright [3]before him, and have kept myself from mine iniquity.

25 Therefore [a]the LORD hath recompensed me according to my righteousness; according to my cleanness [5]in his eye sight.

26 With [c]the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful, and with the upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright.

27 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt [6]shew thyself unsavoury.

28 And the [g]afflicted people thou wilt save: but thine eyes are upon the haughty, that thou mayest bring them down.

29 For thou art my [7]lamp, O LORD: and the LORD will lighten my darkness.

30 For by thee I have [2]run through a troop: by my God have I leaped over a wall.

31 As for God, his way is perfect; [b]the word of the LORD is [4]tried: he is [c]a buckler to all them that trust in him.

32 For [f]who is God, save the LORD? and who is a rock, save our God?

38 I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them; and turned not again until I had consumed them.

40 For thou hast [v]girded me with strength to battle: [s]them that rose up against me hast thou [4]subdued under me.

In graphic language David describes the anger of Yahweh, His storm sweeping in from the distance, driving all before it, to break with angry fury on the earth beneath. Equalled by the terrible pillar of fire which destroyed the Jewish heavens and earth. Cp Acts 2:19; Luke 21:11 symbolised by the darkness that came over the land at the crucifixion of the Lord. AN EPILOGUE TO THE PSALMS AND DAVID'S LIFE 2 Sam. 23:1-7.

In these words David sums up the theme of his Psalms and the great hope and faith that motivates all his actions and life. His hope centres upon the great Messiah whom he typified and who will destroy Belial & the place where Belial lifted up the spear against them thus permitting all the righteous to triumph.

DAVID'S MIGHTY DELIVERER. David's last words.

II. SAMUEL 23.

David's mighty men.

[a] people which I knew not shall serve me.]

45 [2] Strangers shall [3] submit themselves unto me: as soon as they hear, they shall be obedient unto me.]

46 Strangers shall fade away, and they [c] shall be afraid [d] out of their close places.]

47 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and exalted be the God of the [g] rock of my salvation.]

48 It is God that [e] avengeth me, and that [h] bringeth down the people under me,]

49 And that bringeth me forth from mine enemies: [k] thou also hast lifted me up on high above them that rose up against me: thou hast delivered me from the [m] violent man.]

50 [n] Therefore I will give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and I will sing praises unto thy name.]

51 He is the tower of [p] salvation for his king: and sheweth mercy to his [r] anointed, unto David, and [s] to his seed for evermore.]

CHAPTER 23.

DAVID'S ROLL OF HONOUR. 1 David, in his last words, professeth his faith in God's promises to be beyond sense or experience. 6 The different state of the wicked. 8 A catalogue of David's mighty men.

NOW these be the last words of David.] [u] David the son of Jesse said,] [x] and the man who was raised up on high,] the anointed of the God of Jacob, and the sweet psalmist of Israel, said.]

2 [b] The Spirit of the LORD spake by me, and his word was in my tongue.]

3 The God of Israel said,] [c] the Rock of Israel spake to me, He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling [d] in the fear of God.]

4 And he shall be as the light of the morning, when [e] the sun riseth, even a morning without clouds;] as the [21] tender grass springing out of the earth] by clear shining after rain.]

5 Although my house be not so with God;] [b] yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my salvation, and all my desire, although [c] he make it not to grow.]

6 ¶ But the sons of [f] Belial shall be all of them as thorns thrust away, because they cannot be taken with hands:]

7 But the man that shall touch them must be [g] fenced with iron and [i] the staff of a spear; and they shall be utterly burned with fire in the same place.]

8 ¶ [l] These be the names of the mighty men whom David had: [o] The Tachmonite that sat in the seat, chief among the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite: [p] he lift up his spear against eight hundred, whom he slew at one time.

9 And after him was [q] Eleazar the son of Dodo the Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when [t] they defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away:

10 He arose, and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave unto the sword: and the LORD wrought a great [v] victory that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.

11 And after him was [a] Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite. And the Philistines were gathered together [w] into a troop, where was a piece of ground full of lentiles: and the people fled from the Philistines.

12 But he stood in the midst of the ground, and defended it, and slew the Philistines: and the LORD wrought a great [x] victory.

PAQAD = Visit, muster + execute

The proportion was evidently discussed in Council. They were to be numbered for war which would mean an increase of these 288,000 already so used at the rate of 24,000 per month 1 Chr 27. Such an increase would be additional increase of expense to the people, + would be the cause of additional antagonism. This could have caused Joab's opposition.

THE ROUTE TAKEN. Vv 5-8.

It signifies "nakedness" or "ruin." It is significant that the census should commence at a place of this name for it made Israel figuratively naked before Yahweh. The city stood on northern side of River Arnon. Sig. Helpful. Further to east. See Morgan and cp. 1 Chr. 5:

10. This newly acquired territory was far east in extremity of Gilead.

Sig Dan of the Woods. In the extreme north. Jud. 18:29.

Far West. Josh. 19:28 Josh. 19:47

Far South - so in the census they covered the whole nation in a circuitous route.

The Tribe. Cp. Num. 33:

45-46. NTE

AROER V.5. Not the city in Reuben on which is invariably connected with the Amon. Joab pitched in a valley on the Jazer side of Aroer about 7 m. west of Rabbah. This was relatively close to Jerusalem + so central for his purpose.

10 Joab shifted his camp from place to place to conveniently continue his census.

11 Evidently a protectorate of David's. Josh 19:29

12 Communities of these peoples still remained in Israel but were required to contribute their part in the national organisation.

II. SAMUEL 24. Three days' pestilence.

JUDGMENT ON ISRAEL WHO HAD REJECTED ITS MESSIAH

Israel purged of sinners + humbled David pleading for his people + making preparation for the Temple Rom. 11:26. Judgment stayed at the threshing floor of the Jebusite Joel 3:14. Araunah acknowledged as king V.23. Sin purged - burnt offerings + peace offerings conclude the record of 2 Samuel V.25. See Araunah opp.

Key Verses 10, 24

CHAPTER 24.

[a] David forceth Joab to number the people. 10 David, having three plagues propounded by Gad, repenteth, and chooseth the three days' pestilence. 17 He intercedeth for the people. 25 He buildeth an altar. The plague is stayed.

AND [@] again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and [2] he moved David against them to say, Go, number Israel and Judah.

2 For the king said to Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, [3] Go now through all the tribes of Israel, [h] from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people.

3 And Joab said unto the king, Now [m] the LORD thy God add unto the people, how many soever they be, an hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see it: but why doth my lord the king delight in this thing?

4 Notwithstanding the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the host. And Joab and the captains of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.

5 ¶ And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in [o] Aroer, on the right side of the city that lieth in the midst of the [t] river of Gad, and toward [p] Jazer:

6 Then they came to Gilead, and to the [q] land of Tahtim-hodshi; and they came to [q] Dan-jaan, and about to [r] Zidon,

7 And came to the [s] strong hold of Tyre, and to all the cities of [t] the Hivites, and of the Canaanites: and they went out to the south of Judah, even to Beer-sheba.

8 So when they had gone through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

13 This length of time indicates how thorough was the census, and possibly some resistance on the part of the people. Perhaps this caused the half shekel tax to be waived. The number of fighting men counted would suggest a population of 6,000,000 or more.

JOB'S PROTEST V.3.

Joab probably misunderstood David's objective. It probably was not motivated by pride in numbers, but to suppress any attempts at revolt. Total conscription was required even of foreigners V.7. This would prevent any further revolt such as that of Absalom or of Shimei. this numbering is referred to in 2 Chr. 2:17 where it is added that Solomon in a separate 10 ¶ And [@] David's heart smote him after that he had numbered the people. And David said unto the LORD, [11] I have sinned greatly in that I have done: and now, I beseech thee, O LORD, take away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have [i] done very foolishly.

11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the LORD came unto the prophet [k] Gad, David's [l] seer, saying, 12 Go and say unto David, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

13 So Gad came to David, and told him, and said unto him, Shall [n] seven years of famine come unto thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or that there be three days' pestilence in thy land? now advise, and see what answer I shall return to him that sent me.

14 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the LORD; for his mercies are [3] great: and let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 ¶ So the LORD sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people [x] from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men.

454 census found that there were in Israel no fewer than 153,600 aliens. Probably the half shekel was omitted because aliens were included + thus oversight made Israel unenable to judgment.

The census was not completed 1 Chr. 27:24. Benjamin was not counted. 1 Chr. 21:6

Joab's protest may have merely voiced some popular disapproval of a measure designed to further some program of conscription, forced labour or taxation. He could use language that he knew would appeal to David. This is indicated by the inclusion of Hivites + Canaanites V.7.

NUMBER V.1. MANAH - To allot or enroll.

THE RESULT OF THE CENSUS. V.9.

9 It was not fully completed 1 Chr. 21:6.

10 cf 1 Chron. 21:5 The discrepancy is accounted thus - The 800,000 valiant men were only part of the army - they were the veterans. The 500,000 men of Judah included some non combatants See 1 Chron. 21:6

DAVID IS REBUKED - HIS CHOICE OF PUNISHMENT. Vv 10-14.

11 This induced by men of God. V.11.

12 David recognises his fault - It was a sin of the heart: pride or resting in flesh. Perhaps he wished to find out how large a following he could command. If so he acted entirely out of character. It would constitute a denying of Yahweh and relying on flesh. P. 33:5

12A GHOZEH = Gazon That looks with fixed eyes to the will: purpose of God.

13 The Sept: reads "three" and Zain (7) probably has been mistaken for 3 Gimel (3) cf 1 Chron 21:12. Both could be right - "Shall seven or even three" etc

15 The time was not completed, it was shortened by David's intercession.

15A 1 Chron. 21:15

16 This vast number, together with the rapidity of its action showed that the pestilence was a Divine visitation.

17 He changed his purpose. In His immutability, He has arranged that all such decisions should be governed by human conduct.

enough: stay now thine hand.
And the angel of the LORD was by the threshingplace of Araunah the Jebusite.
17 And David spake unto the LORD when he saw the angel that smote the people, and said, Lo, I have sinned, and I [c] have done wickedly: but these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my father's house.
18 ¶ And Gad came that day to David, and said unto him, Go up, rear an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Araunah the Jebusite.
19 And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up as the LORD commanded.
20 And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on toward him: and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king on his face upon the ground.
21 And Araunah said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, [k] To buy the threshingfloor of thee, to build an altar unto the LORD, that the plague may be stayed from the people.
22 And Araunah said unto David, Let my lord the king take and offer up what [b] seemeth good unto him: behold, here be oxen for burnt sacrifice, and [d] threshing instruments and other [e] instruments of the oxen for wood.
23 All these things did Araunah, as a king, give unto the king. And Araunah said unto the king, The LORD thy God [f] accept thee.
24 And the king said unto Araunah, Nay; but I will surely buy it of thee at a price: neither will I offer burnt offerings unto the LORD my God of that which doth cost me nothing. So David bought the threshingfloor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.
25 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and [h] offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So [i] the LORD was intreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

NOW king David was old and [a] stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat.
2 Wherefore his servants said unto him, [b] Let there be sought for my lord the king [c] a young virgin: and let her stand before the king, and let her [d] cherish him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get heat.
3 So they sought for a fair damsel throughout all the coasts of Israel, and found Abishag a [e] Shunammite, and brought her to the king.
4 And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him: but the king knew her not.

KINGS The two books originally formed one, but were divided in the LXX about 3rd Cent B.C

The Author is unKnown, but is thought by many to have been Jeremiah, for the style of writing is considered to be very much like that of the prophet

If so, he selected his material, under Divine guidance, from available records, to which there are frequent references 1 Kings 11:41; 14:19, 29; 15:7; 22:31. 16:5, 14, 27. See also 2 Kings 15, 17, 20 with Isa. 36-39 where he seems to have drawn from Isaiah's account

The Author takes his record to the Babylonish captivity and writes as a temporary of the Temple 1 Kings 8:8 and its overthrow 2 Kings 17:23; 25:27.

In style of Language, he digresses of subsidiary matters before treating his main theme. He thus relates events concerning Israel before giving the contemporaneous history of Judah. This leads him to sometimes narrate the same event in connection with the two Kingdoms, 1 Kings 15:16 with 32. 2 Kings 17:5-6 — 18:9.

ATTEMPTED USURPATION
THE SPOILED ADONIJAH TRIES TO SEIZE POWER

As David nears the end of his life the atmosphere of the palace became charged with tension. Who will succeed to the throne? Solomon was being prepared for this honor Cp 1 Chr. 22:9. 2 Sam. 12:24-25. but Adonijah had the right of primogeniture. In the absent of any open move by David to this time, suspicion and conspiracy became the order of the day

Chronologically these events lead up to 1 Chron 23:1.

DAVID'S DECLINE Vv1-4

Here the record is given from human standpoint - in 2 Sam 24:1 from the Divine

ARAUNAH Cp 1 Chr 21.
He & his 4 Sons threshing wheat (Singular). Hid himself when angel appeared - but when angel emerged as a King V. 24.
In the Hebrew given 11 variations that appear as a parable.
* As a thresher of Wheat: ARAVNAH V. 16 - Make to shine.
* When threshing floor selected as site of Altar - ARAVYAH - Joyful singing of Yah Y. 18. Cp Zeph. 3:17.
* When presented to the King Araunah - To shout for joy. The name appears 7 times in this form Vv. 20-24.
* ORNAN - Light perpetuated. 1 Chr. 21:15
Threshing at time of Judgment: Hidden from angel of Death; Caused to sing as threshing floor became an altar; introduced to the King as a King Isa 26:20-21. See note p 373.

15. Was he previous King of Jebus? See note 2 Sam. 6. The words "a King" are missing in Sept and other versions. Though a Jebusite, Araunah speaks and acts as one converted to the Truth. There were many such from among the Gentiles among David's followers. e.g. 2 Sam. 23:37, 39. 1 Chr. 11:35, 46.
16 He whose religion costs him nothing is worth nothing. How an nation appreciates better what it has to pay for.
17 See notes. Josh. 8:31.
18 Fire from heaven flamed down in the sight of the little company of worshippers, consuming the offering. Cp Lev 9:24.

2 He was only about 69. He was 30 when commenced his reign and died in 70th year (2 Sam 5:4. 2:11) He was prematurely aged due to the exacting and fatiguing trials that befell him and undermined his health (many Psalms speak of ill-health). In that he was like the Lord. See note Isa. 52:14. Mankind exceeded 90.
3 Cp Ps 41:1-4. 32:1-4.
4 It is commonly believed that the contact of youth with age can help to restore vitality and health. Cp Ruth 4:15.
5 Sig. Father of wandering, i.e. error or blundering. She caused the death of Adonijah. Ch 2:21-22.
6 Sig. Two resting places. A town of Issachar. Josh. 19:18.
7 The purpose of her presence was purely curative. See note V. 2. She ministered as a servant
V. 2. David: See above. The 2 books open with King David & close with King of Babylon.
7A This is mentioned to explain the history of 2:13-15. Had it been otherwise Adonijah would never have presumed to seek her in marriage, nor Bathsheba to promote her help. It would have been contrary to the laws as incest Lev 18:8 & abhorred to all Israelites.

"HIS FATHER HAD NOT DISPLEASED HIM AT ANY TIME" v6. In his abounding love for his family, David spoiled his sons (Cp 2 Sam. 13:21,39). In this he was cruel though he imagined himself kind. Neglect in youth is often paid for in old age. Poor eyesight or faulty limbs can result from such neglect. Parents recognise their fault in such cases, but fail to do so in regard to child-training. To press for this is often to be decried as a sentimentalist — yet how often do parents pay for such neglect. Cp PROV. 29:15. Notes.

ADONIJAH REVOLTS. Vv5-10.

The deaths of Amnon, 2 Sam. 13:29. Absalom 2 Sam. 18:14 and probably Chileab 2 Sam. 3:3, made him the eldest. He was probably jealous of the favour shown to Solomon and decided to seize power himself.

5 ¶ Then @Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king: and [b]he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him.

6 And his father had not displeased him [4]at any time in saying, Why hast thou done so? and he also was a very goodly man; [d]and his mother bare him after Absalom.

7 And [5]he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with @Abiathar the priest: and they following Adonijah helped him.

8 But [e]Zadok the priest, and [h]Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and [i]Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and @the mighty men which belonged to David, were not with Adonijah.

9 And Adonijah slew sheep and oxen and fat cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by @En-rogel, and called all his brethren the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants:

10 But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and @Solomon his brother, he called not.

11 ¶ Wherefore Nathan spake unto Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith doth reign, and David our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solomon.

13 Go and get thee in unto king David, and say unto him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear unto thine handmaid, saying, @Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne? why then doth Adonijah reign?

14 Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in after thee, and [3]confirm thy words.

15 ¶ And Bath-sheba went in unto the king into the chamber: and the king was very old; and [c]Abishag the Shunammite ministered unto the king.

16 And Bath-sheba bowed, and did obeisance unto the king. And the king said, [6]What wouldest thou?

17 And she said unto him, My lord, [f]thou swarest by the LORD thy God unto thine handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne.

18 And now, behold, Adonijah reigneth; and now, my lord the king, thou knowest it not:

19 [m]And he hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the sons of the king, and Abiathar the priest, and Joab the captain of the host: but Solomon thy servant hath he not called.

20 And thou, my lord, O king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwise it shall come to pass, when my lord the king shall [o]sleep with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon shall be counted [9]offenders.

22 ¶ And, lo, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in.

23 And they told the king, saying, Behold Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne?

BATHSHEBA APPEALS TO DAVID. Vv15-21.

He had no originality. He imitated the methods of Absalom. Cp 2 Sam. 15:1 which however nearly succeeded. With David now so feeble Adonijah may have reasoned this time they will succeed.
Like Absalom, he was a handsome man appealing to the flesh.
i.e. Haggith. Not Maacah the mother of Absalom. This statement indicates that he was now the eldest. Cp v11.
Joab was in disgrace since death of Absalom. He had been once deposed in favour of Amasa 2 Sam. 20:4 and probably feared the same would happen on the accession of someone else unless he had a hold over them.
Probably jealous of the rising power of the rival house of Eleazer in the person of Zadok.
See Notes. 1 Chr. 11:22-25. 2 Sam. 8:18. He was Captain of the Guard.
Sig. Famous. Probably the son of Elah later honoured by Solomon. Ch 4:18. But see note 2B
Sig. Friendly. Unknown.

This marked the beginning of the revolt — A royal feast in a public place, to celebrate Adonijah's inauguration. It was probably sacrificial as Abiathar was with him. The people saw the Royal company, saw the High Priest and Commander-in-Chief of the Army with the usurper, and heard the congratulations showered on him. Surely must succeed.

GIHON = Gushing forth. Hezekiah brought the waters into the city 2 Chr. 32:30; 2 Kg 20:20. by the Siloam tunnel. Manasseh built an outer wall of the city west of it 2 Chr. 33:14.

THE EYES OF ISRAEL. v20. The monarchy was unsettled. No one knew who was to succeed to the crown; and the minds of people were unsettled in view of the age of the King. It was neither hereditary nor elective; the King named his successor doubtless seeking Divine guidance. In this instance Yahweh had already assigned the throne to Solomon 2 Sam. 23:1-2; 1 Chr. 22:8-10; 28:5,6,10; 29:1.

TYPES AND SHADOWS: Eleazar the 3rd Son typifies Resurrection; Ithamar, the 4th = Natural Israel.

Zadok (Righteousness) of house of Eleazar (El the Helper i.e Holy Spirit) supplants Abiathar (Father of Superfluity) of house of Ithamar (Place of Palm Trees - i.e the Temple Ps 92:12-14), so Christ supplanted the Levitical order (Heb 7:11-12) rendered superflous. Abiathar also = Father of the Liberals!

JOAB (Yah is Father) supplanted by Benaiah (Yah hath built) so those who rest in fleshly descent replaced by those whom Yahweh establishes. (Cp John 8:38-42).

Zadok descendant Eleazar (El the Helper) symbolic of the Spirit (Cp Abraham, the Father's servant to obtain a Bride for Isaac.) Gen 24.

"MULE" V. 33 David had not disobeyed Deut. 17:16 as Absalom had done 2 Sam. 15: and Adonijah 1 Kg. 1:5. Heb: feminine gender PIRDAH (centre = FEARED). The result of crossing a donkey stallion with a horse mare. Combined the strength + size of horse with surefooted nerve of ass. But sterile. Cp Lev. 19:19. Imported 1 Kg 10:25; Ez 27:14. Very stubborn Cp Ps. 32:9. Like Gentiles incorporated into Israel - no offspring of such.

day, and hath slain oxen and fat cattle and sheep in abundance, and hath called all the king's sons, and the captains of the host, and Abiathar the priest; and, behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, (2) God save king Adonijah.

26 [a] But me, even me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant Solomon, hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed it unto thy servant, who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

DAVID CONFIRMS HIS PROMISE TO BATHSHEBA. Vv28-31.

28 ¶ Then king David answered and said, Call me Bath-sheba. And she came [3] into the king's presence, and stood before the king.

28. With the recall of Bathsheba, Nathan withdrew from the King's presence. V.32

29 And the king sware, and said, [f] As the LORD liveth, that hath redeemed my soul out of all distress,

30 [h] Even as I sware unto thee by the LORD God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit upon my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day.

29. The oath of David was founded upon the promise of Yahweh. The vow probably made probably at the Divine revelation given at the birth of Solomon 2 Sam. 12:24-25.

31 Then Bath-sheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, [i] Let my lord king David live for ever.

29A His decisive actions show that though old V.1 physically feeble V.15, his mental powers were unimpaired.

DAVID INSTRUCTS THAT SOLOMON BE ANOINTED KING. Vv32-37.

32 ¶ And king David said, [m] Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before the king.

33 The king also said [n] unto them, Take with you [o] the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon [5] mine own mule, and bring him down to [q] Gihon:

34 And let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet [r] anoint him there king over Israel: and [s] blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon.

32 Plural: Adonijah serving the King.

33 Maimonides states that it was a capital offence to ride upon the King's mule, to sit upon his throne or to handle his sceptre without permission Cp Est. 4:11. See Note Mal. 2:1-5. See above left.

35 Then ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne; for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him [30] to be ruler over Israel and over Judah. 30A

36 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen: the LORD God of my lord the king say so too.

37 [b] As the LORD hath been with my lord the king, even so be he with Solomon, and [c] make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.

38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the [d] Cherethites, and the [e] Peleth-ites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39 And Zadok the priest took an horn of [g] oil out of the tabernacle, and [t] anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and [k] all the people said, God save king Solomon.

40 And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with [l] pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

41 ¶ And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. And when Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city being in an uproar?

42 And while he yet spake, behold, [u] Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said unto him, Come in; for [p] thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings.

43 And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Verily our lord king David hath made Solomon king.

ADONIJAH HEARS THE NEWS. Vv41-49

The revelry of Adonijah is disturbed by the trumpet sound and shout of triumph by followers of Solomon. Startled by this unexpected noise, their rejoicing is turned to fear when Jonathan burst in upon them with the news that their conspiracy had been discovered, and Solomon had been anointed King.

35 He was probably appointed to spy on Solomon and his followers. David's messenger See m.

DAVID IN OLD AGE Though sick and with the knowledge of approaching death, the King is not idle. There is much to be done and little time to do it. The plans of the Temple must be delivered to Solomon now officially appointed his successor, and Israel encouraged to aid the young King in the great task ahead of him. The Temple service must be established along the lines earlier suggested by Samuel, the breath, the leaders, the various officials must be confirmed in their duties. All now exercised the mind of the ailing King and was brought to its climax by the great national convention in which Solomon was officially and publicly charged with the duties of his office. The charge of 1 Kings 2. was private instruction. 1 Kings 1:39 & 1 Kings 2:4. 1 Chron 28,29. 1 Chron Chps 23-29. should be chronologically placed between 49 And all the guests that were with Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feareth king Solomon: for, lo, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to day that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52 And Solomon said, If he will shew himself a worthy man, [t] there shall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die.

53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

PUBLIC JUDGMENT

David seems to have entered into this essential & necessary duty of judgment with reluctance. Nobody, as he passed judgment on such as Joab he bore in mind his own shortcomings

JOAB. Vs 5-6.

5 He stabbed them whilst pretending to embrace them so that their blood spilt over his cloak 2 Sam 20:8

12 In view of the crimes of Joab, this was a just decision. A public scandal would have been committed if Joab were allowed to go unpunished. It would have been morally wrong for the nation. David left this duty to Solomon, probably feeling that his own shortcomings prevented him acting as he knew it was right to act.

SOLOMON'S SOLE REI

12 Solomon was agai publicly anointed at Rome 1 Chr. 29:22. C 20yrs age.

ADONIJAH'S REQUES

By right of primo centure, the Throne o the people, the suppo of the Commander- in Chief and High priest lacked only the en dorsement of Yahweh Whose Kingdom it was though Adonijah did not recognise it.

DAVID DIED V.10. How short is a lifetime in the record of history — but how crowded with incident and personal experience. What opportunities, triumphs, failures, crimes, ambitions, desires, hidden actions, open incidents are compressed within the confines of a single life. For a short time the energy of a life bursts forth — then is covered in the darkness of the grave. How wise to pray: "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." (Ps 90:12). See Below.

Mention of Absalom recalls Shimei

SHIMEI. VV8-9.

12 Do not consider him innocent man but treat him as he deserves, but "bring not his hoar head down "etc, because I swore to him... This is how Solomon understood David's instructions, for it is how he carried them out.

The negative particle "lo" in the former clause "hold him not guiltless" should be repeated in the latter clause though not expressed. Examples of this (found frequently in Hebron). Jud. 5:10. 1 Sam 2:3. Ps 1:5; 9:18; 37:1. 2 Sam 3:29 from Sikh. 24:9 etc. Treasury of Scrip. Knowledge Ed.

ADONIJAH'S REQUEST 16-18.

16 By right of primogeniture, the voice of the people, the support of the Commander-in-Chief and High priest. It lacked only the endorsement of Yahweh Whose Kingdom it was though Adonijah did not recognise it.

12 Now Bathsheba apparently looked upon the request as non-political.

The household of an eastern monarch was considered as part of the regal succession (Cp 2 Sam 16:21) and it was considered treason for a subject to claim any wife or virgin who once formed part of it. Solomon (who was wiser than Bathsheba) saw this as part of a plot on the part of the previous conspirators.

18 Sig. Answered prayers. A city of Benjamin given to priests. Josh 21:18. About 3 miles North-East Jerusalem. Birthplace Jeremiah. Jer. 1:1. 11:21.

19 Abiathar apparently did not dispute Solomon which could argue the truth of the King's accusation.

1 And the days of David drew nigh that he should die; and he charged Solomon his son, saying,

2 I go the way of all the earth: be thou strong therefore, and shew thyself a man;

3 And keep the charge of the LORD thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his judgments, and his testimonies, a as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and whithersoever thou turnest thyself:

4 That the LORD may continue his word which he spake concerning me, saying, If b thy children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, c there shall not fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel.

5 Moreover thou knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the son of Ner, and unto Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

6 Do therefore according to thy wisdom, and let not his hoar head go down to the grave in peace.

7 But shew kindness unto the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother.

8 And, behold, thou hast with thee Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I sware to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword.

9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him; but his hoar head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

10 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11 And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

12 Then sat Solomon upon the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly.

13 And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest thou peaceably? And he said, Peaceably.

14 He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on.

15 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign: howbeit the kingdom is turned about, and is become my brother's: for it was his from the LORD.

16 And now I ask one petition of thee, deny me not. And she said unto him, Say on.

17 And he said, Speak, I pray thee, unto Solomon the king, (for he will not say thee nay,) that he give me Abishag the Shunammite to wife.

18 And Bath-sheba said, Well; I will speak for thee unto the king.

19 Bath-sheba therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself unto her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand.

20 Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; I pray thee, say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother: for I will not say thee nay.

21 And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother to wife.

22 And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; for he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

23 Then king Solomon sware by the LORD, saying, God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah have not spoken this word against his own life.

24 Now therefore, as the LORD liveth, which hath established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me an house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day.

25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell upon him that he died.

26 And unto Abiathar the priest said the king, Get thee to Anathoth, unto thine own fields; for thou art worthy of death: but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou barest the ark of the THEN ADONIJAH CH.3:1. : It is significant that Adonijah's attractive appearance is mentioned immediately after Abishag's beauty & connected by "then." Perhaps this spurred him on to gain both the throne and her in marriage.

Several considerations caused him to seek the throne. 1. his seniority Ch.2:22. 2. His personal attractions inducing popularity 3. The support of such as Joab V.7. 4. David's indulgence towards him V.6.

SEPULCHRE OF DAVID

David died at age 70 (Ant. 7:15:2) Buried in City of David. His Sepulchre long remained Neh 3:16 Acts 2:29 (Jos. Ant. 7:15:3. 13:8:4: 16:7:1) - Solomon buried vast treasure therein. Broken open by Hyrcanus and Herod the Great. Gradually fell into ruin — finally lost. To be buried in the city was a departure from normal custom & a mark of high honour. It was an honour afforded other Kings.

DAVID DIED V.10. How short is a lifetime in the record of history — but how crowded with incident and personal experience. What opportunities, triumphs, failures, crimes, ambitions, desires, hidden actions, open incidents are compressed within the confines of a single life. For a short time the energy of a life bursts forth — then is covered in the darkness of the grave. How wise to pray: "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." (Ps 90:12). See Below.

David's death. Adonijah is slain.

12 Mention of Absalom recalls Shimei came to me when I fled because of Absalom thy brother,[12]

SHIMEI. VV8-9

8 And, behold, thou hast with thee @Shimei the son of Gera, a Benjamite of Bahurim, which cursed me with a [2]grievous curse in the day when I went to [b]Mahanaim: but @he came down to meet me at Jordan, and @I sware to him by the LORD, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword.

13 Do not consider him a innocent man, but treat him as he deserves, but "bring not his hoar head down "etc, because I sware to him.... This is how Solomon understood David's instructions, for it is how he carried them out. The negative particle "lo" in the former clause "Hold him not guiltless" should be repeated in the latter clause though not expressed. Examples of this found frequently in (Hebron) Jud. 5:30. 1 Sam. 2:3. Ps. 1:5; 9:18; 37:11. 25:5. Prov. 5:16. 24:12 etc. Treasury of Scrip. Knowledge C.B.

9 Now therefore [f]hold him not guiltless: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou ought*est* to do unto him; but his hoar head [g]bring thou down to the grave with blood.

10 So [h]David slept with his fathers, and was buried in [k]the city of David.

The household of an eastern monarch was considered as part of the regal succession (Cp 2 Sam 16:21) and it was considered treason for a subject to claim any wife or virgin who once formed part of it. Solomon (who was wiser than Bathsheba) saw this as part of a plot on the part of the previous conspirators.

I. KINGS 2.

Lord GOD before David my father, and because ⓒ thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my father was afflicted.

27 So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest unto the LORD; that he might ⓒ fulfil the word of the LORD, which he spake concerning the house of Eli in [e] Shiloh.

28 ¶ Then tidings came to Joab: for Joab [f] had turned after Adonijah, though [h] he turned not after Absalom. And Joab fled ⓚ unto the tabernacle of the LORD, and ⓜ caught hold on the horns of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab was fled unto the tabernacle of the LORD; and, behold, he is by the altar. Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, Go, fall upon him.

30 And Benaiah came to the tabernacle of the LORD, and said unto him, Thus saith the king, Come forth. And he said, Nay; but I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me.

31 And the king said unto him, [p] Do as he hath said, and fall upon him, and bury him; ⓟ that thou mayest take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me, and from the house of my father,

32 And the LORD [r] shall return his blood upon his own head, who fell upon two men more righteous and [s] better than he, and slew them with the sword, my father David not knowing thereof, to wit, [x] Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and [y] Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the host of Judah.

33 Their blood shall therefore return [z] upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever: but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for ever from the LORD.

34 So [b] Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell upon him, and slew him: and he was buried [d] in his own house in the wilderness.

35 ¶ And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his room over the host: and [g] Zadok the priest did the king put in the room of [i] Abiathar.

36 ¶ And the king sent and called for [l] Shimei, and said unto him, Build thee an house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and go not forth thence any whither.

37 For it shall be, that on the day thou goest out, and passest over [n] the brook Kidron, thou shalt know for certain that thou shalt surely die: [o] thy blood shall be upon thine own head.

38 And Shimei said unto the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king hath said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem many days.

39 And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away unto ⓕ Achish son of Maachah king of [t] Gath. And they told Shimei, saying, Behold, thy servants be in Gath.

40 And Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath to Achish to seek his servants: and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath.

41 And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and was come again.

42 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said unto him, Did I not make thee to swear by the LORD, and protested unto thee, saying, Know for a certain, on the day thou

SHIMEI DEFIES SOLOMON'S RESTRICTIONS.
29 64 miles away.

If Solomon allowed this defiance to go unnoticed it could have led to further insubordination. It was a deliberate flouting of the restrictions placed on him.

20 Many years had passed since the prophecy uttered. Men had forgotten it. Some perhaps thought it had been overlooked, but ultimately it was fulfilled.

JOAB SLAIN Vv 28-34.

The ruthless Joab - assassin, murderer, betrayer is now dealt with. The long arm of Judgment and Retribution stretched forth to claim him and vindicate the justice of Yahweh. All Israel knew the type of man Joab was. Cp 2 Sam. 18:13. and a public scandal would have been committed if judgment had not ultimately fallen on him V. 31.

It is claimed by the rabbis that death of the altar ensured burial amongst his fathers.

Hidden away so as to incite no more trouble.

1 No presumption was permitted in the protection the Tabernacle granted. Cp Exod. 21:14.

2 David, too, had given judgment in this matter Vv 5-6.

3 The guilt of blood remained upon him & his house so long as the murder of Abner and Amasa remained unavenged.

5 Unjust suspicions were cast upon David by by these two crimes.

26 Solomon became the executor of Divine justice Cp Exod. 20:5; 34:7. See also David's curse - mg. Solomon is fulfilling a religious duty - he is not motivated by the spirit of revenge

The altar was of Gibeon which was also the scene of Joab's last murder 2 Sam 20: 8.

SOLOMON'S PALACE CH 7:1

This appears to have been a complex of royal buildings, closely associated with the Temple. There was therefore a very close connection between King & Priest as it will be in the future. Zech. 6:13. Therefore what appears to be an interruption in the description of the Palace V. 13. may be understood as an indirect implication that these royal buildings along with the Temple made up the whole Temple-Palace complex

SHIMEI "WITH THEE" V. 8 : Does this mean "near him" or a supporter. The expression seems to denote the latter Ch. 1:8. He was a chief of the house of Saul + of Benjamin + commanded 1000 men at the return of David 2 Sam. 19:17; and could provide powerful support. Nevertheless, the grievous curse against Yahweh's anointed must be punished Solomon had to use his wisdom to that end. See also top p 448.

David is not motivated by vindictiveness but by that which is right. Note reference to "hoar head" V. 9. It was to be respected Lev. 19:32; Prov 16:31 but Shemei's 460 age only indicated that deserved punishment had not been meted & provided a bad example in Israel. In the judicial deaths of Joab + Shimei it was shown that justice will overtake at last the murderer + the blasphemer. Cp Ecc. 8:11.

[k] Ki 9:11 "Galilee" : This originally designated but a small part of the considerable tract later known as Galilee - the northern part of Manasseh Jos 20:7; 21:32. It is a mountainous part - the region originally comprised the summit of a broad mountain ridge - useless for corn lands which Hiram probably wanted. It was close to Phoenicia. One of the cities was CABUL. Josh. 19:27. which Sn. = Limitation or Sterile - a name Hiram now gives the whole district. Kell connects it with a Hebrew word = Pound or Fetter + concludes merely given as security for ultimate payment goest out, and walkest abroad any whither, that thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst unto me, The word that I have heard is good.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have charged thee with?

44 The king said moreover to Shimei, Thou knowest [d] all the wickedness which thine heart is privy to, that thou didst to David my father; therefore the LORD shall [e] return thy wickedness upon thine own head;

45 And king Solomon shall be blessed, and [f] the throne of David shall be established before the LORD for ever.

46 So the king commanded [h] Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; which went out, and fell upon him, that he died. And the [m] kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Solomon marrieth Pharaoh's daughter. 2 High places being in use, he sacrificeth at Gibeon. 5 Solomon, preferring wisdom, obtaineth wisdom, riches, and honour. 16 Solomon's judgment between the two harlots.

AND [a] Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the [n] city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and [o] the house of the LORD, and [p] the wall of Jerusalem round about.

2 Only the people sacrificed in high places, because there was no house built unto the name of the LORD, until those days.

3 And Solomon [q] loved the LORD, [r] walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in high places.

4 And the king went to [s] Gibeon to sacrifice there; [t] for that was the great [u] high place: a [w] thousand burnt offerings did Solomon offer upon that altar.

5 ¶ [x] In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon [b] in a dream by night: and God said, [y] Ask what I shall give thee.

6 And Solomon said, Thou hast shewed unto thy servant David my father great [z] mercy, according as he [c] walked before thee in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great kindness, that thou [f] hast given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day.

7 And now, O LORD my God, [g] thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father: and I am but [h] a little child: I know not how [i] to go out or come in.

8 And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou [k] hast chosen, a great people, [l] that cannot be numbered nor counted for multitude.

9 [m] Give therefore thy servant an [n] understanding heart [o] to judge thy people, that I may [p] discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this thy so great a people?

10 And the speech [q] pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing.

11 And God said unto him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself [r] long life; neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies; but hast asked for thyself understanding [s] to discern judgment;

12 [t] Behold, I have done according to thy words: [u] lo, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart; so that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto thee.

CHAPTER 3 SUMMARY

The disposition of a little child is necessary to attain unto true wisdom (V.7 Cp Matt. 18:3). A knowledge of our own limitations is necessary to true success (vv. 8-9 - Luke 10:21; 1 Cor 1:21, 26-30. If we have learned that the power of the Omnipotent God is available for help.

TABERNACLE AT GIBEON Ch. 3:5.

For the journeyings of the Ark & the Tabernacle see Note top. 402.

SOLOMON'S SACRIFICE AT GIBEON.

30 Solomon sees the circumstances as Divinely judicial.

31 By discerning wickedness and stamping it out. Blessedness will not come by winking at sin.

CHARACTER OF SOLOMON. V.3.

1 He quickly gained favour with the people, aided by the peaceful conditions of his reign. Cp 1 Chr. 29:25; 2 Chr. 1:1

2 See note V.2.

3 He called a general assembly of Israel's leaders, and arranged a national day of thanksgiving and praise to Yahweh. 2 Chr. 1:2-3 / Gibeon.

4 Solomon apparently already married to Naamah, for Rehoboam 41 at ascention 1 Kg 14:21 Cp 11:42. Marriage 43. See Note

5 In Benjamin. see note Josh. 9:3 p 509 for further details see 2 Chr. 1:2-6.

6 Zadok ministered at Gibeon 1 Chr. 16:39. Abiathar was priest before the Ark and tent David had erected for it at Jerusalem. 2 Chr. 1:2-4. Solomon called for a general assembly of leaders 2 Chr. 1:2-3 to inaugurate his reign. Hence the large number of offerings

V.1. Affinity - Agreements & treaties between nations were frequently sealed by a royal marriage. Marriage with foreign women was permitted subject to them renouncing their gods & confessing faith in Yahweh. Deut. 21:10-14.

461 They should have limited their worship to this high place Cp V.2. The "Mountain of Yahweh's house shall be the high place of the future Isa. 2:2-4 Israel indicted for retaining the high places when Temple built, so providing a worship of convenience 15:14; 22:43; 2 Kg 12:3; 14:4; 15:4, 35; 18:4, 22

V.9 UNDERSTANDING: Solomon began by asking wisdom from Yahweh; Rehoboam began by asking counsel from men Ch. 12:6, 8

Such a marriage not condemned if the wife renounced her beliefs & endorsed worship of Yahweh Cp Deut. 21:13. No condemnation for this marriage 43. See Note

SHIMEI DEFIES SOLOMON'S RESTRICTIONS

29. 64 miles away

If Solomon allowed this defiance to go unnoticed it could lead to further insubordination. It was a deliberate flouting of restrictions placed on him.

The antitype of Christ. Isa 11:1-4. 49:2.

It is obvious the pretended mother did not really care for the living child but wanted to avoid the bitter reproach that her dumsiness & neglect had caused the death of her own. Having asserted that she had to maintain her story boldly before the king. That she really did not care about the fate of the child is obvious from V.26. She was hard-headed, vindictive.

CH.4:26. HORSES. This was a violation of the law Deut. 17:16 the reason being the tendency to put confidence in them rather than in Yahweh. Ps. 20:7; Isa 31:1-3. Why should a man of wisdom do this? He probably reasoned that it was for trade & not for war. 10:29 - or perhaps for ceremonial usage.

1 Kg 4:5. PRINCIPAL OFFICER - Kohen NATSAB: The station or office of Kohen - mediator or adviser. Cp Note V.2. "Probably chieftain, exercising priestly functions" = O.T. In a theocracy, an officer would be expected to do that.

V.15. Illustrating Ps 127:2: "He giveth His beloved (Jedidiah) in sleep".

Cp Ps. 84:11-12; Rom. 8:32; Eph. 3:20

14 i.e. Mon. Heb = 11th

Solomon gave expression to this in the Proverbs - for the fruits of wisdom are riches and honour. Prov. 3:13-18. He failed to measure up to the requirements of this promise Cp Ch. 11:42.

16. A great ceremonial feast of communion in which Yahweh, priest, King and subjects took part - and Solomon dedicated himself to the work before him. See Note Josh. 8:31. Per. Dedication & Fellowship. Cp Top p138

Solomon's judgment

thee that which thou hast not asked, both (e)riches, and honour: so that there [2]shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.

14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, [b]as thy father David did walk, then I will (c)lengthen [1]thy days.

15 And Solomon [d]awoke; and, behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before [e]the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings, and offered peace offerings, [f]and made a feast to all his servants.

16 ¶ Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, [g]and [3]stood before him.

17 And the one woman said, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.

18 And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house.

19 And this woman's child died in the night; because she overlaid it.

20 And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom.

21 And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear.

22 And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spake before the king.

23 Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living.

24 And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king.

25 And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for her bowels [1]yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it.

27 Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof.

28 And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the [1]wisdom of God was [2]in him, to do judgment.

Probably in the public place in the seat of Judgment in the gate of the city. Josephus 8:2:4 says people were standing by. They would see the youthful King aged about 20 but heard a wisdom such as the sages would express.

CH. 4:6. HOUSEHOLD = HOUSE Established by Solomon, it was a continuing position in the Jerusalem court 18:3. 2 Kgs. 18:18 equivalent to that of Joseph in Pharaoh's court. Gen 41:40 - Similar to Prime Minister. An indication of the growing size & magnificence of the court.

SOLOMON DEMONSTRATES HIS WISDOM. VV16-28.

The reign has commenced on an auspicious note. On all sides there is peace. The question in most men's minds doubtless how would the new King handle the affairs of state. The solving of this problem demonstrated the gift of wisdom he received and showed to all he was not a man to be trifled with. 9 the divine

18. It developed into a heated argument interrupted by the strange but astute judgment of the King.

V.16 "Unto the King" Direct access to the King was open to the public in need of justice or appeal. Cp 2 Sam. 14:4. As Yahweh's representative, he was called upon to manifest social concern - justice to the people Deut. 10:18; 27:19. The lack of it was decried by the prophets Is 1:17,23; 4:1; 7; Zech 7:10; Mal. 3:5. Future Ezek. 46:18; Ps 72:12-14.

V.15. A FEAST: MISHTEH - Drink King and so a banquet after the example of David 1 Chr. 16:3. They ate flesh and drank wine - hence a sacrificial meal. Lev. 7:15, 31.

CH. 4:22. MEASURES: Heb = Cors. "According to Fuerst, the homer was originally an ass load, & hence a measure of like capacity. It was supposed to have been called kor because of its being a circular measure. The homer contained 10 ephahs Ezek. 45:11, nearly 8 bushels" - Unger.

TIPHSAH was a strong fortress on the western side of Euphrates "situated at the termination of the great trade road from Egypt to Mesopotamia & the Kingdoms of Inner Asia, its possession was of great importance" (Unger). It evidently dominated both sides of the river. "On all sides" = Same word.

1 And King Solomon was king over all Israel.
2 And these were the princes which he had; Azariah the son of Zadok the priest,
3 Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder.
4 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host: and Zadok and Abiathar were the priests:
5 And Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers: and Zabud the son of Nathan was principal officer, and the king's friend:
6 And Ahishar was over the household: and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the tribute.
7 ¶ And Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, which provided victuals for the king and his household: each man his month in a year made provision.
8 And these are their names: The son of Hur, in mount Ephraim:
9 The son of Dekar, in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Beth-shemesh, and Elon-beth-hanan:
10 The son of Hesed, in Aruboth; to him pertained Sochoh, and all the land of Hepher:
11 The son of Abinadab, in all the region of Dor; which had Taphath the daughter of Solomon to wife:
12 Baana the son of Ahilud; to him pertained Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by Zartanah beneath Jezreel, from Beth-shean to Abel-meholah, even unto the place that is beyond Jokneam:
13 The son of Geber, in Ramoth-gilead; to him pertained the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; to him also pertained the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, threescore great cities with walls and brasen bars:
14 Ahinadab the son of Iddo had Mahanaim:
15 Ahimaaz was in Naphtali; he also took Basmath the daughter of Solomon to wife:
16 Baanah the son of Hushai was in Asher and in Aloth:
17 Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar:
18 Shimei the son of Elah, in Benjamin:
19 Geber the son of Uri was in the country of Gilead, in the country of Sihon king of the Amorites, and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer which was in the land.
20 ¶ Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking, and making merry.
21 And Solomon reigned over all kingdoms from the river unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt: they brought presents, and served Solomon all the days of his life.
22 ¶ And Solomon's provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and threescore measures of meal,
23 Ten fat oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and an hundred sheep, beside harts, and roebucks, and fallowdeer, and fatted fowl.
24 For he had dominion over all the region on this side the river, from Tiphsah even to Azzah, over all the kings on this side the river: and he had peace on all sides round about him.
25 And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solomon.
26 ¶ And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen.
27 And those officers provided victual for king Solomon, and for all that came unto king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they lacked nothing.
28 Barley also and straw for the horses and dromedaries brought they unto the place where the officers were, every man according to his charge.

29 ¶ And God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart, even as the sand that is on the sea shore.
30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east country, and all the wisdom of Egypt.
31 For he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about.
32 And he spake three thousand proverbs: and his songs were a thousand and five.
33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.
34 And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

CHAPTER 5

1 And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants unto Solomon, when he had heard that they had anointed him king in the room of his father: for Hiram was ever a lover of David.
2 And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying,
3 Thou knowest how that David my father could not build an house unto the name of the LORD his God for the wars which compassed him about, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.
4 But now the LORD my God hath given me rest on every side, so that there is neither adversary nor evil occurrent.
5 And, behold, I purpose to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, he shall build an house unto my name.
6 Now therefore command thou that they hew me cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants: and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the Sidonians.
7 And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be the LORD this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people.
8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have considered the things which you sent unto me for: and I will do all your desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir.
9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea: and I will convey them by sea in floats unto the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household.
10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees according to all his desire.
11 And Solomon gave to Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.
12 And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together.
13 And king Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men.
14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and Adoniram was over the levy.
15 And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mountains;
16 Besides the chief of Solomon's officers which were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, which ruled over the people that wrought in the work.
17 And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.
18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the stonesquarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

CHAPTER 6

1 And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD.
2 And the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.
3 And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house.
4 And for the house he made windows of narrow lights.
5 And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of the oracle: and he made chambers round about:
6 The nether chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.
7 And the house, when it was in building, was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.
8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.
9 So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar.
10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.
11 And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying,
12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I perform my word with thee, which I spake unto David thy father:
13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.
14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.
15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the ceiling: and covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.
16 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the most holy place.
17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long.
18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen.
19 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD.
20 And the oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar.
21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.
22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.
23 And within the oracle he made two cherubims of olive tree, each ten cubits high.
24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.
25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure and one size.
26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.
27 And he set the cherubims within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.
28 And he overlaid the cherubims with gold.
29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, within and without.
30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.
31 And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive tree: the lintel and side posts were a fifth part of the wall.
32 The two doors also were of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm trees.
33 So also made he for the door of the temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part of the wall.
34 And the two doors were of fir tree: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding.
35 And he graved thereon cherubims and palm trees and open flowers: and covered them with gold fitted upon the graving.
36 And he built the inner court with three rows of hewed stone, and a row of cedar beams.
37 In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Zif:
38 And in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all the parts thereof, and according to all the fashion of it. So was he seven years in building it.

CHAPTER 7

1 But Solomon was building his own house thirteen years, and he finished all his house.
2 He built also the house of the forest of Lebanon; the length thereof was an hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams upon the pillars.
3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the beams, that lay on forty five pillars, fifteen in a row.
4 And there were windows in three rows, and light was against light in three ranks.
5 And all the doors and posts were square, with the windows: and light was against light in three ranks.
6 And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was before them: and the other pillars and the thick beam were before them.
7 Then he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from one side of the floor to the other side of the floor.
8 And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of like work. Solomon made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had taken to wife, like unto this porch.
9 All these were of costly stones, according to the measures of hewed stones, sawed with saws within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court.
10 And the foundation was laid with costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.
11 And above were costly stones, after the measures of hewed stones, and cedars.
12 And the great court round about was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the house of the LORD, and for the porch of the house.
13 ¶ And king Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre.
14 He was a widow's son of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass: and he was filled with wisdom, and understanding, and cunning to work all works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his work.
15 For he cast two pillars of brass, of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of them about.
16 And he made two chapiters of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapiter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapiter was five cubits:
17 And nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapiter, and seven for the other chapiter.
18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and so did he for the other chapiter.
19 And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily work in the porch, four cubits.
20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates also above, over against the belly which was by the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred in rows round about upon the other chapiter.
21 And he reared up the pillars in the porch of the temple: and he reared up the right pillar, and called the name thereof Jachin: and he reared up the left pillar, and called the name thereof Boaz.
22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished.
23 And he made a molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about.
24 And under the brim of it round about there were knops compassing it, ten in a cubit, compassing the sea round about: the knops were cast in two rows, when it was cast.
25 It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.
26 And it was an hand breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies: it contained two thousand baths.
27 And he made ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it.
28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: they had borders, and the borders were between the ledges:
29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the ledges there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work.
30 And every base had four brasen wheels, and plates of brass: and the four corners thereof had undersetters: under the laver were undersetters molten, at the side of every addition.
31 And the mouth of it within the chapiter and above was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and a half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round.
32 And under the borders were four wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.
33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axletrees, and their naves, and their felloes, and their spokes, were all molten.
34 And there were four undersetters to the four corners of one base: and the undersetters were of the very base itself.
35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base the ledges thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.
36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubims, lions, and palm trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about.
37 After this manner he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one size.
38 Then made he ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty baths: and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten bases one laver.
39 And he put five bases on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward over against the south.
40 And Hiram made the lavers, and the shovels, and the basons. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the house of the LORD:
41 The two pillars, and the two bowls of the chapiters that were on the top of the two pillars; and the two networks, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars;
42 And four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, even two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two bowls of the chapiters that were upon the pillars;
43 And the ten bases, and ten lavers on the bases;
44 And one sea, and twelve oxen under the sea;
45 And the pots, and the shovels, and the basons: and all these vessels, which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the LORD, were of bright brass.
46 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarthan.
47 And Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the brass found out.
48 And Solomon made all the vessels that pertained unto the house of the LORD: the altar of gold, and the table of gold, whereupon the shewbread was,
49 And the candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, with the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs of gold,
50 And the bowls, and the snuffers, and the basons, and the spoons, and the censers of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, to wit, of the temple.
51 So was finished all the work that king Solomon made in the house of the LORD. And Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated; even the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, did he put among the treasures of the house of the LORD.

CHAPTER 8

1 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, that they might bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.
2 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto king Solomon at the feast in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month.
3 And all the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark.
4 And they brought up the ark of the LORD, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, even those did the priests and the Levites bring up.
5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled unto him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be told nor numbered for multitude.
6 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims:
7 For the cherubims spread forth their two wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.
8 And they drew out the staves, that the ends of the staves were seen in the holy place before the oracle, and they were not seen without: and there they are unto this day.
9 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone, which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.
10 And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the LORD,
11 So that the priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of the LORD.
12 Then spake Solomon, The LORD said that he would dwell in the thick darkness.
13 I have surely built thee an house of habitation, a place for thy dwelling forever.
14 And the king turned his face about, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: (and all the congregation of Israel stood;)
15 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who spake with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying,
16 Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that my name might be therein; but I chose David to be over my people Israel.
17 And it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.
18 And the LORD said unto David my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to build an house unto my name, thou didst well that it was in thine heart.
19 Nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my name.
20 And the LORD hath performed his word that he spake, and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and built an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.
21 And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.
22 ¶ And Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven:
23 And he said, LORD God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk before thee with all their heart:
24 Who hast kept with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.
25 Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me.
26 And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.
27 But will God indeed dwell on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded?
28 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day:
29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make toward this place.
30 And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.
31 If any man trespass against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house:
32 Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.
33 When thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and shall return and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee in this house:
34 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest to their fathers.
35 When the heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou afflictest them:
36 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.
37 If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities; whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness there be:
38 What prayer and supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house:
39 Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his ways, whose heart thou knowest; (for thou, even thou only, knowest the hearts of all the children of men;)
40 That they may fear thee all the days that they live in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.
41 Moreover concerning a stranger, that is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for thy name's sake;
42 (For they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy strong hand, and of thy stretched out arm;) when he shall come and pray toward this house;
43 Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as do thy people Israel; and that they may know that this house, which I have builded, is called by thy name.
44 If thy people go out to battle against their enemy, whithersoever thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the LORD toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I have built for thy name:
45 Then hear thou in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.
46 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, so that they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;
47 Yet if they bethink themselves in the land whither they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness;
48 And so return unto thee with all their heart, and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:
49 Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their cause,
50 And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before them, that they may have compassion on them:
51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron:
52 That thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for thee for.
53 For thou didst separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord GOD.
54 ¶ And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.
55 And he stood, and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying,
56 Blessed be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant.
57 The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us:
58 That he may incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.
59 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel at all times, as the matter shall require:
60 That all the people of the earth may know that the LORD is God, and that there is none else.
61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.
62 ¶ And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD.
63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.
64 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt sacrifices, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: because the brasen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt sacrifices, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.
65 And at that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.
66 On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of the heart for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

CHAPTER 9

1 And it came to pass, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do,
2 That the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon.
3 And the LORD said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication, that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, to put my name there forever; and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.
4 And if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments:
5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel forever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.
6 But if ye shall at all turn from following me, you or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them:
7 Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people:
8 And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house?
9 And they shall answer, Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the LORD brought upon them all this evil.
10 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD, and the king's house,
11 (Now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.
12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they pleased him not well.
13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul unto this day.
14 And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.
15 ¶ And this is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.
16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomon's wife.
17 And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the nether,
18 And Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land,
19 And all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.
20 And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel,
21 Their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of bondservice unto this day.
22 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.
23 These were the chief of the officers that were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.
24 But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto her house which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.
25 And three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, and he burnt incense upon the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.
26 ¶ And king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red sea, in the land of Edom.
27 And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon.
28 And they came to Ophir, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

CHAPTER 10

1 And when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions.
2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.
3 And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not.
4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built,
5 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up into the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.
6 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts, and of thy wisdom.
7 Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.
8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom.
9 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the LORD loved Israel forever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice.
10 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.
11 And the navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of almug trees, and precious stones.
12 And the king made of the almug trees pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, harps also and psalteries for singers: there came no such almug trees, nor were seen, unto this day.
13 And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.
14 ¶ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold,
15 Beside that he had of the merchantmen, and of the traffick of the spicemerchants, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the governors of the country.
16 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.
17 And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold; three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.
18 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.
19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood by the stays.
20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom.
21 And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.
22 For the king had at sea a navy of Tharshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.
23 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.
24 And all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.
25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, and harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.
26 ¶ And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.
27 And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycomore trees that are in the vale, for abundance.
28 And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price.
29 And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.

CHAPTER 11

1 But king Solomon loved many strange women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonians, and Hittites;
2 Of the nations concerning which the LORD said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in unto you: for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods: Solomon clave unto these in love.
3 And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.
4 For it came to pass, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father.
5 For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.
6 And Solomon did evil in the sight of the LORD, and went not fully after the LORD, as did David his father.
7 Then did Solomon build an high place for Chemosh, the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech, the abomination of the children of Ammon.
8 And likewise did he for all his strange wives, which burnt incense and sacrificed unto their gods.
9 And the LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice,
10 And had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he kept not that which the LORD commanded.
11 Wherefore the LORD said unto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded thee, I will surely rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy servant.
12 Notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it for David thy father's sake: but I will rend it out of the hand of thy son.
13 Howbeit I will not rend away all the kingdom; but will give one tribe to thy son for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.
14 ¶ And the LORD stirred up an adversary unto Solomon, Hadad the Edomite: he was of the king's seed in Edom.
15 For it came to pass, when David was in Edom, and Joab the captain of the host was gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in Edom;
16 (For six months did Joab remain there with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom:)
17 That Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt; Hadad being yet a little child.
18 And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran: and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, which gave him an house, and appointed him victuals, and gave him land.
19 And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him to wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen.
20 And the sister of Tahpenes bare him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house: and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household among the sons of Pharaoh.
21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead, Hadad said to 30 And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all [c]the children of the east country, and all [c]the wisdom of Egypt.

31 For he was [d]wiser than all men; [e]than Ethan the Ezrahite, and [f]Heman, and Chalcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all nations round about.

32 And [g]he spake three thousand proverbs: and his [h]songs were a thousand and five.

33 And he spake of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto [i]the hyssop that springeth out of the wall: he spake also of beasts, and of fowl, and of creeping things, and of fishes.

34 And there came of all people to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from [j]all kings of the earth, which had heard of his wisdom.

2 And [n]Solomon sent to Hiram, saying,

3 Thou knowest how that David my father could not build an house unto the name of the LORD his God [o]for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet.

I. KINGS 5. Hiram's gifts for the temple.

5 And, behold, I [2]purpose to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spake unto David my father, saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy room, [a]he shall build an house unto my name.

6 Now therefore command thou that they hew me [1]cedar trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants: and unto thee will I give hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt [3]appoint: for thou knowest that there is not among us any that can skill to hew timber like unto the [1]Sidonians.

7 ¶ And it came to pass, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, [b]Blessed be the LORD this day, which hath given unto David a wise son over this great people.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have [4]considered the things which thou sentest to me for: and I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of [2]fir.

9 My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon unto the sea: and I will convey them by sea in floats unto the place that thou shalt [c]appoint me, and will cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receive them: and thou shalt accomplish my desire, [d]in giving food for my household.

10 So Hiram gave Solomon cedar trees and fir trees according to all his desire.

11 And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand [5]measures of wheat for food to his household, and [e]twenty [5]measures of pure oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.

CHAPTER 5 SUMMARY: PREPARATION FOR BUILDING THE TEMPLE Vs. 5, 17. Cp 1 Pet. 2:1-10

V. 13 LEVY - Heb. MAS - A burden (as causing to faint) - Str. The same word as in Exod. 1:11. Solomon introduced this forced labour or ultimately at the cost of the Kingdom. Israel had been fatally familiar with the ugly word MAS, the labour wrung from them by hard task-masters" (Farrer). Discontent with this system eventually rent the Kingdom in twain. In contrast to this forced labour, the Tabernacle of old was the result of the free-will offerings of the people.

CEDAR OF LEBANON 'ERÊZ - Firm, Strong from the tenacity of its roots. A noble evergreen upwards of 120ft tall, 40ft in girth with branches that shoot horizontally from the trunk some 10ft from the ground. It exudes a gum or balsam which makes the wood so fragrant that to walk in a grove of cedars is a delight. Some specimens of Lebanon are judged to be over 2000 years of age. The wood is particularly adaptable for building as it does not quickly decay, nor is it eaten by insect larvae. It is of a beautiful warm red tone, solid and largely free from knots. Cp 1 Kings 4:33. Isa. 60:13, 21; 65:22; 55:12; 61:3.

THE TEMPLE Ch. 6:3 : The word sig. Spacious, hence Magnificent building. The same word denotes the Tabernacle 1 Sam 4:9; the royal Palace 1 Kg 21:1; 2 Kg 20:18; Ps 45:8, 15; Prov. 30:28; Dan. 1:4. and of heaven. 2 Sam 22:7.

This records the period during which Israel - Governed by God continued as a Theocracy culminating in the building of the Temple. The periods of the servitude and usurpation of Abimelech are not included in the Theocratic years of the reckoning of God, though they are reckoned in the computation of the years of the World.

"The method appears strange & almost impossible to the modern mind. With its highly developed historical sense, its worship of truth, its keen scent for fact, and its pantheistic indifference to distinctions of good and evil. Nevertheless, there are gaps in the history of individuals and years in the history of the nations which we would fain blot out of the calendar of time....

"The monarchs of Assyria, and other nations of antiquity, left copious records of their conquests and their victories, but they did not chronicle their disasters and their defeats. The nations of the east were accustomed to treat their history in that way. They kept account of the years of prosperity, but they omitted from their chronology altogether the years of national humiliation and disgrace. We do not write our histories in that way...." NOTE REGARDING JUDGES.

From Jud. 5:6-7 it will be seen that the Judgeship of Shamgar is included in the 20 years of the 3rd Servitude under Jabin.
From Jud. 15:20 it will be seen that Samson judged Israel during the 6th servitude under the Philistines.
The consecutive and continuous records of Judges are completed at Jud. 16:31. This is followed by three undated and illustrative appendices (including Ruth) and the consecutive narrative is continued at 1 Sam. 1.
Josh. 10:8-9 refers to two distinct periods. The exact translation is: "And they broke & crushed the children of Israel in that year eighteen years all the children of Israel who were beyond Jordan in the land of the Amorites which is in Gilead. And the children of Ammon crossed over Jordan...."
The construction of V.8 is difficult. The second statement relating to 18 years is elliptical, its verb having to be supplied from the first statement. "That year" evidently relates to the first year of Jair when Ammonite oppression was felt in the south, but the effective administration of Jair prevented it extending to the north. The 18 years evidently relate to the Ammonite oppression which continued for this period of time after the death of Jair.
This agrees with other figures and provides circumstantial evidence to show that the period between the settlement in the land and the commencement of the servitude under Cushan was 13 years thus: (see over).

As the finest stones were selected for the Temple, so out of nature's dark quarry, living stones (1 Pet. 2:5) have been hewed, cut and polished for a place in the spiritual Temple. 2 Cor. 6:16. Isa 51:1-2.
The stones were quarried and prepared away from the Temple and brought together for building — V.7 so also for Yahweh's spiritual Temple. See note 2 Chr. 3. also p 466.

13 ¶ And king Solomon raised a [2] levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men.

14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses: a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home: and [c] Adoniram was over the levy.

15 And Solomon had [b] threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and fourscore thousand hewers in the mountains;

16 Beside the chief of Solomon's [d] officers which were over the work, [b] three thousand and three hundred, [e] which ruled over the people that wrought in the work.

17 And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, and [f] hewed stones, to lay the foundation of the house.

18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders did hew them, and the [g] stonesquarers: so they prepared timber and stones to build the house.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The building of Solomon's temple. 5 The chambers thereof. 11 God's promise concerning it. 15 The cieling and adorning. 23 The cherubims. 36 The court. 37 The time of building it.

AND it came to pass in [k] the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, [l] in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is [m] the second month, that he [3] began to build the house of the LORD.

2 And [n] the house which king Solomon built for the LORD, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

3 And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof before the house.

4 And for the house he made [3] windows of narrow lights.

5 ¶ And against the wall of the house he built [4] chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple and of [5] the oracle: and he made [6] chambers round about:

6 The [c] nethermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house he made [7] narrowed rests round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

7 And the house, when it was in building, [h] was built of stone made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.

8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right [9] side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.

9 [i] So he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house [2] with beams and boards of cedar.

10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

11 ¶ And the word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, [o] if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I

CH. 6: THE BUILDING OF THE TEMPLE

The erection of this splendid sanctuary was the greatest event in the history of the city. It made Jerusalem what it was not until then: the religious capital. The stronghold of the Jebusites, of David, became the Citadel of Yahweh. Ps 132:13-14.

13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

14 So Solomon built the house, and finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the cieling: and he covered them on the inside with wood, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

16 And he built twenty cubits on the sides of the house, both the floor and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long.

18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with knops and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen.

19 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. Cp 8:6-8

20 And the oracle in the forepart was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold; and so covered the altar which was of cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition by the chains of gold before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

See notes Heb 9:4

23 ¶ And within the oracle he made two cherubims of olive tree, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing unto the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure and one size.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.

27 And he set the cherubims within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he overlaid the cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, within and without.

30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

31 ¶ And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive tree: the lintel and side posts were a fifth part of the wall.

32 The two doors also were of olive tree; and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold upon the cherubims, and upon the palm trees.

33 So also made he for the door of the temple posts of olive tree, a fourth part of the wall.

"It has a high stalk of clear green, with bright and shining leaves, and blossoms poised on the summit. The flower bends its head to protect the anthers from rain and so guard the pollen. These anthers were referred to by botanists of old as "little hammers of gold." The flower is known of the scarlet Martagon because of its brilliant scarlet petals and sepals. An underground bulb stores nourishment, and supplies the flower with food even through the drought of the desert. 23 ¶ And he made [h] a molten sea, ten cubits from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of thirty cubits did compass it round about. Estimated to hold 10,000 gallons

31 And the mouth of it within the chapiter and above was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, foursquare, not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels; and the axletrees of the wheels were [f] joined to the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.

"What the verse says about the circumference is that they stretched a string around it, and when they laid the string out flat they had to go 30 times with the cubit, i.e a man had to put his elbow down 30 times until he got to the end. No doubt the last time he put his elbow down the string came short. In other words, the sea was 9 and a bittock across and 29 and a bittock round. As a matter of fact, if a circle be 9ft 6 inch across, it is just over 29ft. 10in round. Such a circle I think would be described in Hebrew a "ten with the foot-rule across" and "thirty with the foot-rule" in circumference. COPPER SMELTING 3000 YEARS AGO 1937 Nelson Gluck, excavating at Ezion Geber found evidences of large scale industry in the days of Solomon. "In the middle of a square walled enclosure an extensive building came into view. The green discoloration on the walls left no doubt as to the purpose of the building: it was a blast furnace. The mud brick walls had two rows of openings. They were flues: a skilful system of air passages was included in the construction. The whole thing was a proper up to date blast furnace, built in accordance with a principle that celebrated its resurrection in modern industry a century ago as the Bessemer-system. Flues and chimneys both lay along a north to south axis. For the incessant winds and storms from the Wadi el-Arabah had to take over the role of bellows. That was 3,000 yrs ago: today compressed air is forced through the forge." (Bible as History). See below.

COPPER SMELTING (Cont) Earthenware smelting pots with a capacity of 14 cubic feet have been found. Gluck reports: "Ezion-Geber was the result of careful planning and was built as a model installation with remarkable architectural and technical skill. In fact practically the whole town of Ezion-geber, taking into consideration place and time was a phenomenal industrial site, without anything to compare with it in the entire history of the ancient orient. Ezion Geber was the Pittsburg of old Palestine and at the same time its most important sea port."

South of Gaza Flinders Petrie excavated iron smelting installations, with similarly constructed (though smaller) furnaces. David had disputed the Philistines' right to their monopoly of iron (see note Jud. 13.) and had extracted their secret smelting process or ore

THE GLORIOUS DEDICATION – The work was completed and the Day of Dedication dawned. It was the day on which Israelites look back upon as the culminating glory of their nation. Instead of two sanctuaries as before (one in the Gentile city of Gibeon and one on Zion), there was to be but one. The Ark from Zion and the Tabernacle from Gibeon were both removed and brought to the new Temple. A great gathering met to witness the ceremony. The two processions converged at Mount Moriah. Special services attended the removal of the Ark. Sacrifices without number, burning incense, Psalms of praise, joyful music, general excitement and happiness attended the occasion.

7. Apparently the golden pot of manna, and Aaron's rod that budded had been lost. The ark described in Heb. 9:4 described the Ark in Tabernacle in Moses' day. These Tables comprised the basis of the Mosaic Covenant Solomon being witness V.21. Cp. Heb. 8. 2 Chr. 6:11

8. The propitious occasion was celebrated by innumerable sacrifices. Josephus says the road streamed with blood. (Ant. 8:4:1), the air was darkened and scented with clouds of incense, song and dances continued without pause. The King occupied the foremost position in the sacrificing. On this solemn day he appears as a Royal Priest, as King-priest, type of Christ.

9. "Debir" signifies both "innermost" and "Word." From there was revealed the instructions of Yahweh.

10. The Ark at rest, its wanderings over. R.V. "Its staves were so long" whilst retaining AV in margin. Latter correct. Most Holy in temple twice size Tabernacle. If staves too big Temple, would have reached far into the Holy of Tabernacle. They were drawn out that their heads might be seen in the Holy testifying to those who ministered there that the wanderings over. Cp. Ex. 25:15. Outside the Holy. But all Israel knew of it by report.

DIVINE GLORY FILLS THE HOUSE Vv10-11 Cp 2 Chr 5: 11-14. Ps 136 Was Benevolence

15. This indication of Divine approval was the climax of the day. The assembled singers and players (among them 120 priestly trumpeters) rent the air with their praises 2 Chr. 5:12-14 as the excitement of the moment permeated the whole assembly.

16. This gave real richness and glory to the building. Without it it was an empty shell Cp Jer. 7:4. James 4:1. Luke 21:6.

SOLOMON'S EMOTION Vv17-21

17. As the thick cloud filled Temple, Solomon was moved by the wonderment of it all. His words signify: "Here is the manifestation of Yahweh's presence, here is the place of His glory" Cp V.27.

V.5. "Before the Ark"

Prayers + sacrifices were offered toward the Mercy Seat. Ps. 28:2; Exod. 20:22. Apparently the Ark rested on rock enabling sacrifices to be offered Cp 2 Sam. 6:13. The greatest ceremonial care was necessary. Cp 2 Sam. 6:7. Josephus adds that to each quantity of incense was burnt - that men preceded the Ark singing + dancing. Ant. 8.4.1

The choirs of the priests and levites met in fullest force arrayed in white linen. As the procession moved up the slope leading to the eastern gateway, it could have been that the Psalm was sung: "Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up ye everlasting doors, and the King of Glory shall come in." The trumpeters and singers were "as one" (2 Chr. 5:13). In their mighty Halleluyah. The King and the people stood watching the Temple as the Ark was conveyed within to the strains of the assembled singers and musicians behind the Altar. As the Ark entered the Temple was filled with a cloud of glory, the symbol of Yahweh's acceptance of the nation's offering. With heart filled with gladness the King turned V.14 and blessed the people. Solomon faced the Temple while he stood to the people whilst speaking Vv.12-13. Then "turned" and "blessed them. V.14.

Solomon's prayer at the dedication of the temple.

21 And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is [a] the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And Solomon [b] stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and [c] spread forth his hands toward heaven:

23 And he said, LORD God of Israel, [d] there is no God like thee, in heaven above, or on earth beneath, [e] who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that [f] walk before thee with all their heart:

24 Who hast kept with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

25 Therefore now, LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that thou promisedst him, saying, [g] There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; [h] so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me.

26 ¶ And now, O God of Israel, let thy word, I pray thee, be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

27 But will God indeed dwell on the earth? behold, [i] the heaven and [j] heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house that I have builded?

28 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer, which thy servant prayeth before thee to day:

29 That [k] thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, [l] My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make [m] toward this place.

30 And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray [m] toward this place: and hear thou in heaven [n] thy dwelling place: and when thou hearest, forgive.

31 ¶ If any man trespass against his neighbour, [o] and [p] an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house:

32 Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, [q] condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

33 ¶ [r] When thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and [s] shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee [t] in this house:

34 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land which thou gavest unto their fathers.

35 ¶ [u] When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou afflictest them:

36 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, that thou [v] teach them [w] the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

Throughout the whole scene the person of King Solomon is the one central object, compared with whom even priests and prophets are for the time being subordinate. Like David in the bringing up of the ark, he appears in a liturgical character — blessing the congregation, offering up the solemn prayer, dedicating the Temple, hallowing the court. Zadok is not mentioned in this.

The solemn day was followed by a week of festival, merging into the feast of Tabernacles, the time of the completed vintage. Representatives of all the tribes, elders, fathers, captains, proselytes from newly acquired territories (2 Chron. 6:32. 1 Kings 8:41, 66; 2 Chron 7:8) all were assembled rejoicing in the actual glory and bright hopes of Israel. But danger was near at hand Cp 1 Kings 9:6-7.

THE DEDICATORY PRAYER. - With all the splendour of this day of Glory, the people might well believe that the Millenium had set in, that all things would begin anew, and the time of tragedy, rebellion and suffering had passed away. Did they not experience peace and prosperity, had they not seen the dedication of the resplendant Temple and the manifestation of Divine glory in their midst? Solomon's prayer dispelled the thought. It contrasted the majesty of Yahweh with the frailty of flesh, it gives expression to man's need of Divine patience and forebearance, it anticipates the fact of personal transgression, national revolt, the evils of famine, military defeat, and national dispersion. It suggests that all this need not be, that if they will but try the faith, patience and obedience of Israel once again and again, then at this moment of history when they are called upon to realise their need of Divine help, Yahweh will hear and forgive.

The people witnessing this and the glory that filled the house, responded with the words of Ps. 136.

OATHS. The first of the 7 petitions of the prayer calls upon the (Covenant-keeping God to watch over the covenants of His people. An oath could be requested of accused persons Ex. 22:11; Lev. 6:1-4. or offered at an end of strife Heb 6:16. Every Oath was an affirmation "by the God of truth" (Mt. 23:16-22; Isa. 65:16) an appeal to the knowledge, power or justice of Yahweh the God of Covenant (Lev 19:12; Deut. 6:13; 10:20; 20:4; 48:1) Jer 12:16; 44:26) A false oath dishonoured the Divine Name, polluted the sanctuary dedicated to that Name. If it went unpunished it would signify the Name could be blasphemed with impunity.

54 And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from (a) kneeling on his knees with his hands spread up to heaven.

55 And he stood, and (b) blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying,

56 Blessed be the LORD, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not [2] failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant.

57 The LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not (c) leave us, nor [h] forsake us:

58 That he may [k] incline our hearts unto him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his judgments, which he commanded our fathers.

59 And let these my words, wherewith I have made supplication before the LORD, be nigh unto the LORD our God day and night, that he maintain the cause of his servant, and the [n] cause of his people Israel (d) at all times, as the matter shall require:

60 (e) That all the people of the earth may know that [o] the LORD is God, and that there is none else.

61 Let your heart therefore be perfect [p] with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

62 ¶ [q] And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD.

63 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered unto the LORD, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD.

64 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings: because [c] the brasen altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And at that time Solomon held [d] a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from [e] the entering in of Hamath unto [f] the river of Egypt, before the LORD our God, [i] seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.

66 [i] On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they (3) blessed the king, and went unto their [l] tents joyful and [m] glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

The attainment of that rest demands a resting from the works of sin Heb 4:9, 10. 2 Cor 5:17-21. For Yahweh's resting place, see Isa. 66:1-2.

THE DIVINE RESPONSE Vv. 1-9. Cp 2 Chr. 7:11-22.

As Solomon rose from his knees upon the lofty platform overlooking the people Ch 8:54 a new page in the history of Israel opened.

In this answer to his prayer there is solemn warning, as though as to remind him that the moment of glory was past, and danger threatened. Cp Isa. 21:14.

4 Here add 2 Chr. 7:13-15. where Yahweh deals with specific points in Solomon's prayer, and expresses that His mercy will always be available in times of punishment.

THE TEMPLE TO ISRAELITES

"The Temple was the forum, the fortress, the University, as well as the Central Sanctuary of Israel. The People loved it; the pomp and ceremony, the music and song of the Levites, the ministration of the priests, the high priest as he stood and blessed the prostrate worshippers and profound silence on Atonement Day. As for the choicer spirits, their passionate devotion found expression in words like those of the Psalmist (Ps 84:1-12).

The destruction of the Sanctuary could not down Israel's undying love of the "House of Holiness". Throughout the ages down to this day, the sole relic of its ancient glory - the so-called Wailing Wall - has remained for millions of Jews, the most sacred memorial of their ruined Sanctuary, a Holy Place from which the Shekinah has never departed.

BUILDING ACTIVITY IN SOLOMON'S DAY. – See also p. 467. Archaeologists Loud and Guy excavated some of remarkable stables of Solomon's time. "They found that several large stables were always grouped around a courtyard, which was laid with beaten limestone mortar. A 10 foot wide passage ran down the middle of each stable. It was roughly paved to prevent the horses from slipping. On each side, behind the stone stumps, lay roomy stalls each of which was exactly 10 ft wide. Many of them had still remains of feeding troughs and parts of the watering arrangements were still recognisable. Even for present day circumstances they were veritable luxury stables" (Bible as History)

6 But if ye shall at all turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and worship them: Warning fulfilled.

7 Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all people: 10 Neh. 4:4; Ps. 44:14

8 And at this house, which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and to this house? In derision. Jer. 18:16; 25:9

9 And they shall answer, Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the LORD brought upon them all this evil.

10 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD, and the king's house,

11 (Now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,) that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they pleased him not.

13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul unto this day.

14 And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

15 ¶ And this is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised; for to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer.

16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomon's wife.

17 And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-horon the nether,

18 And Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land,

19 And all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

Cannot be identified with certainty. Josephus (Ant. 8:6:4) says it was The Golden Land of India. That Solomon's ships went to India seems obvious from 1 Kings 10:22; 2 Chr. 9:21. Ophir has also been identified with Africa and other places.

The discrepancy could easily be accounted for by the likely assumption that in Chronicles relates to gross receipts after deducting certain expenses (cf. 2 Chr. 8:18 = 450 talents).

120 Talents of it was probably assessed for services and supplies rendered. Hiram returned them as unsatisfactory. Cp. 2 Chr. 8:2

"When the whole establishment was uncovered, Guy counted single stalls for at least 450 horses and sheds for 150 chariots. A gigantic royal stable indeed! Cp. 1 Kings 4:15; 10:26. In view of the size of the royal stable at Megiddo and the stables and chariot sheds of similar size type which have been found at Tell el-Hasi, at Hazor, at Taanach, and also at Jerusalem, the Biblical references must be regarded as mere hints at the reality. These tremendous results of the excavations give us a clear conception of the lavishness to which old Jerusalem was accustomed in its imperial days. "Megiddo was after all only one of the garrisons for Solomon's new chariot corps which formed part of the Kings standing army.

"In one of the ancient stable buildings which were cut deep into the rock underneath the high walls of the city of Jerusalem, the Crusaders tethered their horses after the conquest of the Holy City by Godfrey of Boulogne almost 2,000 years after Solomon." (Bible As History).

Now Pharaoh reasserting the ancient and long discontinued authority expelled the inhabitants and gives it as dowry for his daughter's marriage.

MUTE EVIDENCE FROM THE LAND OF SPICES TESTIFIES TO THE ANCIENT GLORY OF SHEBA.

South Arabia was the principal export country for spices. "In fortunate Arabia," wrote Dionysius (AD 90), "you can always smell the sweet perfume of marvellous spices, whether it be incense or wonderful myrrh. Its inhabitants have great flocks of sheep in the meadows, and birds fly in from distant isles bringing leaves of pure cinnamon." Excavations have revealed that Marib, just in land from Aden, was the capital of Sheba. The 4,000 inscriptions discovered reveal an alphabetic script originating in Palestine. The names of four Spice Kingdoms are mentioned — Minaea, Kataban, Hadhramaut and Sheba. Cont. p. 476.

did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

23 These were the chief of the officers that were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that wrought in the work.

24 ¶ But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David unto her house which Solomon had built for her: then did he build Millo.

25 ¶ And three times in a year did Solomon offer burnt offerings and peace offerings upon the altar which he built unto the LORD, and he burnt incense upon the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house.

26 ¶ And king Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion-geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red sea, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent in the navy his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon.

28 And they came to Ophir, and fetched from thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

AND when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bare spices, and very much gold, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Solomon told her all her questions: there was not any thing hid from the king, which he told her not.

4 And when the queen of Sheba had seen all Solomon's wisdom, and the house that he had built,

5 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, and his cupbearers, and his ascent by which he went up unto the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

6 And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thy acts and of thy wisdom,

7 Howbeit I believed not the words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the half was not told me: thy wisdom and prosperity exceedeth the fame which I heard.

8 Happy are thy men, happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and that hear thy wisdom.

9 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel: because the LORD loved Israel for ever, therefore made he thee king, to do judgment and justice.

10 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

11 And the navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of almug trees, and precious stones.

QUEEN SHEBA VISITS JERUSALEM Vv1-3.
SHE IS AMAZED AT WISDOM GLORY SOLOMON.

As an indication of how widespread is the fame of Solomon is the visit of this Queen from the fabulous spice Kingdom of Sheba with an impressive retinue which was however, far eclipsed by the glory witnessed in Israel's Capital.

This notable event typed the future Ps. 72 v10. Isa 60:6. Luke 13:29. Cp Matt. 8:11-12. Luke 11:31.

Dedicatory inscriptions speak of gods, tribes and cities of 4,000,000 inhabitants. Assyrian documents of 8th Cent. B.C. speak of Kings of Sheba under the title of "Mukarrib" – "priest-princes." A gigantic dam blocked the river Adhanat in Sheba, conserving water for irrigation purposes. Remains of this technical marvel in walls over 60ff high still defy the sands of the desert. Sheba became one vast scented garden of the costliest spices in the world, in the midst of which was the capital Marib. It lies at southern tip of Arabian peninsula about 6,000 ft on the eastern spur of the mountain range that skirts the Red Sea.

About 542 B.C. the vast dam burst, and ultimately the desert claimed its own. See below.

Used in Ceremonial Processions to Temple

When the King went unto the Temple, he was ceremoniously conducted over the valley (Bridged) separating the Palace from the Temple, up the steps with their railings of red Sandal wood 1 Kings 10:12. by a guard of 300 (i.e. 300 shields) preceded by their chief Ch. 14:27. He probably ceremoniously bore the "Key of House of David" Cp Ch. 14:27 with Isa. 22:21-22.

This procession would pass 3 detachments of guards, stationed at Palace Gate, Temple Gate, Inner Court Gate 2 Chr. 23:5. Immediately inside that entrance was the King's Pillar or Platform. 2 Kings 11:14, 23:3 2 Chr. 23:13 Cp EZEK. 46:2.

13 And king Solomon gave unto the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned and went to her own country, she and her servants.

14 ¶ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred threescore and six talents of gold,

17 And he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three pound of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. See Notes
18 ¶ Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the best gold.
19 The throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was round behind: and there were stays on either side on the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the stays.
20 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any kingdom. An armoury
21 ¶ And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold; none were of silver: it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon.
22 For the king had at sea a navy of Tharshish with the navy of Hiram: once in three years came the navy of Tharshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.
23 So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth for riches and for wisdom.
24 ¶ And all the earth sought to Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart.
25 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.
26 ¶ And Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the cities for chariots, and with the king at Jerusalem.

27 And the king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycomore trees that are in the vale, for abundance.
28 ¶ And Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen yarn: the king's merchants received the linen yarn at a price. Note 2 Chr. 1:16.
29 And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and an horse for an hundred and fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out by their means.

29. Cp Ch. 7:7-5. See also the comment of Isa. 8 which shows that the people had forgotten the spiritual significance of the Shields as the defence of faith.
The Shields were taken away by Shishak in the reign of Rehoboam Ch. 12:26 and replaced by brass – Israel came to rely upon flesh instead of faith.

ANCIENT GLORY SHEBA Cont. from above. 476

Archaeologists have exposed ruins of architecture of surprising splendour and beauty. The Temple of Moon god was a beautiful edifice. A processional way, flanked with pillars led to an Inner Court in which sparkling fountains played and through which was wafted the scent of fragrant spices.

Concerning recent discoveries not yet published, Prof. W.F. Allbright declares:

"They are in process of revolutionising our knowledge of Southern Arabia's cultural history and chronology. Up to now the results to hand demonstrate the political and cultural primacy of Sheba in the first centuries after 1000 B.C."

The treasures of Africa trickled northwards along the ancient Incense Road through 1250 miles of desert. Israel was the terminus. From there they turned to Egypt or North to Syria, but they were utterly dependent on Israel when power was with its King, so that the "fame of Solomon" would certainly come to the ears of Sheba's queen.

under the canopy of the Ivory throne there was misery. Ecc. 1:2, 18; 2:11, 17. Wisdom was turned to folly, peace into tyranny, prosperity into misery and ruin. The King countenanced Polygamy, Polytheism, Despotism. It was not merely that he had "many wives" but that they were "strange" women introducing spiritual adultery into Israel. The Proverbs are full of warning against such in the natural sense – the Scriptures in the spiritual sense. Solomon permitted his multitudinous Bride licence. Contrast the Greater than Solomon. 23 ¶ And God stirred him up another adversary, [4]Rezon the son of Eliadah, which fled from his lord [@]Hadadezer king of Zobah:

24 And he gathered men unto him, and became captain over a band, when David slew them of Zobah: and they went to [h]Damascus, and dwelt therein, and reigned in Damascus.

25 And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, beside the mischief that Hadad did: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

26 ¶ And [k]Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an [l]Ephrathite of [m]Zereda, Solomon's servant, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman, even he [o]lifted up his hand against the king.

27 And this was the cause that he [o]lifted up his hand against the king; Solomon built [p]Millo, and [q]repaired the breaches of the city of David his father.

28 And the man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valour: and Solomon seeing the young man that he [6]was industrious, he made him ruler over all the [7]charge of the house of Joseph.

29 And it came to pass at that time when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet [8]Ahijah the [t]Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field:

30 And Ahijah caught the new garment that was on him, and [6]rent it in twelve pieces:

31 And he said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces: for thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, [c]Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to thee:

32 (But he shall have [37]one tribe for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen [37B]ASAB "to loosen" "release" out of all the tribes of Israel:)

33 Because that they have forsaken me, and have worshipped [r]Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, [s]Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and [t]Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in mine eyes, and to keep my statutes and my judgments, as did David his father.

34 Howbeit I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand: but [u]I will make him prince all the days of his life for David my servant's sake, whom I chose, because he kept my commandments and my statutes:

35 But [v]I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee, even ten tribes.

36 And unto his son will I give [6]one tribe, that David my servant [w]may have a [6]light always before me in Jerusalem, the city [x]which I have chosen me to put my name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt reign according to all that thy soul desireth, and shalt be king over Israel.

38 And it shall be, if [6]thou wilt hearken [y]unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that is right in my sight, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that I will be with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel unto thee.

39 And [z]I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not for ever.

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam. And Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, unto Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

THE MILLENNIUM OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD

Solomon commenced to reign about 1,000 yrs before Christ. Some date his reign almost exactly 1,000 years before the birth of Lord, others 1,000 yrs before ministry of Lord. In either case here was a millennium designed for peace and righteousness but which through folly of the flesh ended in was noted for turmoil, trouble, strife, division apostasy, frustration, finally dispersion. How greater will be the millennium of the "greater than Solomon." In this the type is but the shadow of the antitype. The root cause of this 2 Kings 21:7-8.

Used to the adulation of crowds - the glory of his doubtless oppressive pomp and display on the occasion He

There was no reason that the conference should not have been held at Shechem, the capital of Ephraim, rather than at Jerusalem, the capital of Judah? Shechem was the place where Joshua had assembled the whole nation of Israel to renew the Covenant with God (Josh. 24:1-25). It was the place where Abraham had received the promise of the land (Gen. 12:6). It was the place where Jacob had purchased a piece of land (Gen. 33:18-20). It was the place where Joseph was buried (Josh. 24:32). It was the place where Abimelech had been made king (Judg. 9:6). It was the place where Rehoboam's father, Solomon, had been anointed king (1 Chron. 29:22). It was the place where Rehoboam's grandfather, David, had been anointed king (2 Sam. 5:3). It was the place where Rehoboam's great-grandfather, Saul, had been anointed king (1 Sam. 10:1). It was the place where Rehoboam's great-great-grandfather, Samuel, had been anointed king (1 Sam. 16:13). It was the place where Rehoboam's great-great-great-grandfather, Jesse, had been anointed king (1 Sam. 16:13). CONFERENCE AT SHECHEM. 1-15. 2 Chron. 10:1-15.

REHOBOAM REJECTS THE NORTHERN TRIBES' APPEAL

THE NORTH'S PETITION 1-5

1 The Israelites, assembled at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, by Jeroboam make a suit of relaxation unto him. 6 Rehoboam, refusing the old men's counsel, answereth them roughly. 16 Ten tribes revolt. 20 Jeroboam is made king over them.

AND [i] Rehoboam went 2 to [k] Shechem 3: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king. His first move very judicious = conciliatory. He went to them in their city.

2 And it came to pass, when [l] Jeroboam 4 the son of Nebat, who was yet in [m] Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt;)

3 That they sent and called him. And Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying, (or, grievous, harsh.)

4 ¶ [n] Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heavy yoke which he put upon us, [6] (KAL) lighter, and we will serve thee. 7 (esth.)

5 And he said unto them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed. — Hopefully.

6 ¶ And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, that [o] stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, and said, How do ye advise that I may answer this people? Prov. 15:

7 And they spake unto him, saying, [p] If thou wilt be a servant unto this people this day, and wilt serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy servants for ever. dismissed

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which [o] stood before him: Cf. Prov. (1:20; 2:1-12; 3:1-3; 10:2-4.

9 And he said unto them, What counsel give ye that we may answer this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us lighter? 10

10 And the young men that were grown up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it lighter unto us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins. Prov. 13:

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with [q] whips, but I will chastise you with [r] scorpions//

12 ¶ So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, [s] as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day.

Adoram was possibly sent to treat with the rebels, but they could only identify him with their grievances, and possibly looked upon his presence as a further act of tyranny. It intensified the excited feelings of the people who rejected all approach by stoning the King's representative. This was virtually an act of war.

19 feeling was running extremely high. The King felt this act of violence could threaten himself. He lacked the courage to handle the matter and fled ignominiously back to Jerusalem. It was not the homecoming he expected!

20 The return of J. was quite an event in Israel. His reputation was high with the people. They probably recalled the prophecy of Ahijah, and saw in him the one person capable of presenting their grievances to the King. 15 Wherefore the king hearkened not unto the people; for the cause was [d] from the LORD, that he might perform his saying, which [e] the LORD spake by Ahijah the Shilonite unto Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 ¶ So when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, [g] What portion have we in David? [h] neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your [i] tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents.

21 ¶ And when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came unto [b] Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

23 Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house; [f] for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the LORD, and returned to depart, according to the word of the LORD. See above. Betrayed by Abimelech

25 ¶ Then Jeroboam [o] built Shechem [p] in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built [q] Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

27 If [m] this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Judah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Judah.

28 Whereupon the king took counsel, and made [r] two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: [s] behold thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in [t] Beth-el, and the other put he in [t] Dan.

30 [u] And this thing became a sin: for the people went to worship before [z] the one, even unto [t] Dan.

1 Abijah being sick, Jeroboam sendeth his wife, disguised, with presents to the prophet Ahijah. 5 Ahijah denounceth God's judgment. 17 Abijah dieth. 19 Nadab succeedeth Jeroboam. 21 Rehoboam's wicked reign. 25 Shishak spoileth Jerusalem. 29 Abijam succeedeth Rehoboam.

AT that time [1] Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick.

2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam; and get thee to [g] Shiloh: behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, which told me that [h] I should be king over this people.

See Right Col.

3 And [i] take [6] with thee ten loaves, and [k] cracknels, [7] and a [l] cruse of honey, and go to him: he shall tell thee what shall become of the child.

4 And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose, and went to [m] Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. But Ahijah could not see; for his eyes [8] were set by reason of his age.

5 ¶ And the LORD said unto Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask a thing of thee for her son; for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her: for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign herself to be another woman.

6 And it was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam; why feignest thou thyself to be another? for I am sent to thee with [3] heavy tidings.

7 Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, [d] Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee prince over my people Israel,

8 And [f] rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it thee: and yet thou hast not been as my servant David, [h] who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in mine eyes; See above 7

9 But hast done evil above all that were before thee: for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and [i] molten images, to provoke me to anger, and [6] hast cast me behind thy back:

10 Therefore, behold, [6] I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam [9] him that pisseth against the wall, [9] and him that is shut up and left in Israel, and [r] will take away the remnant of the house of Jeroboam, as a man taketh away dung, till it be all gone.

11 [9] Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat: for the LORD hath spoken it.

12 Arise thou therefore, get thee to thine own house: and when thy feet enter into the city, the child shall die.

13 And all Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him: for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him

ECCLESIAL DIVISION. THROUGH REHOBOAM'S FOLLY. V.30. (Mat. 12:25) A miserable state of things now existed in the once united nation. The nation was weakened and opened to invasion, wars and disputings were spread over this land where there should have been peace. Families were divided for intermarriage had taken place between tribes. Political expediency took the place of Divine worship, apathy and error abounded. This was all a grief of mind to those who truly loved Jerusalem and the Temple. Meanwhile along the border forts were built 2 Chr.11. standing armies were established, barriers were erected, and every attempt to destroy unity was made. Israel had commenced along the road to ruin. Yahweh was for peace See. 2 Chr.11:4. Controversy? Yes! See Jude. the bitterness of hatred and war! No! See also 1 Kgs. 15:6,7.

[a] there is found some good thing toward the LORD God of Israel in the house of Jeroboam.

14 [d] Moreover the LORD shall raise him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day: [e] but what? even now. 14

15 For the LORD shall smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and he shall [f] root up Israel out of this [g] good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them [h] beyond the river, [i] because they have made their groves, [k] provoking the LORD to anger.

16 And he shall give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did sin, and [l] who made Israel to sin.

17 ¶ And Jeroboam's wife arose, and departed, and came to [m] Tirzah: [n] and when she came to the [o] threshold of the door, the child died;

18 And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, [p] according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by the hand of his servant Ahijah the prophet.

19 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he [q] warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

20 And the days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he [r] slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. [s] Rehoboam was forty and one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city [t] which the LORD did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was [u] Naamah an Ammonitess.

22 [b] And Judah did evil in the sight of the LORD, and they [c] provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they had committed, above all that their fathers had done.

23 For they also built them [f] high places, and [g] images, and [g] groves, on [h] every high hill, and [i] under every green tree.

24 And there were also [m] sodomites in the land: and they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

25 ¶ And it came to pass [q] in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt [s] came up against Jerusalem:

26 And he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold [s] which Solomon had made.

27 And king Rehoboam made in their stead brasen shields, and committed them unto the hands of the chief of the [3] guard, which kept the door of the king's house.

28 And it was so, when the king went into the house of the LORD, that the guard bare them, and brought them back into the guard [a] chamber.

29 ¶ [b] Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

30 And there was [c] war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.

31 And Rehoboam [e] slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. [f] And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess. [g] And Abijam his son reigned in his stead.

THE HISTORY OF JUDAH. is the history of a dynasty rather than a nation, of a city rather than a country. The people were few, the territory small yet it outlived its more powerful neighbour and is destined to have greater influence on the whole of mankind than any other nation. Yet how slender to mortal eyes, was the thread upon which that future often seemed to hang!

The "cause" of all this confusion and trouble was R. harshness, folly & despotic pride, and this was not from Yahweh. The word SIBBAH (from SHUV, to turn or change) signifies that the change or revolution was from Yahweh. God stirred up the people to revolt from a man who had neither skill nor compassion to rightly govern. He "maketh the wrath of man to praise Him" Ps. 76:10. Cp A. 5:10. Amos 3:6; Acts 2:23; 4:28.

ABIJAM'S SHORT REIGN 3 SUMMARY: The sowing of evil yields its fruit. Key word: WAR 6, 16, 20, 29, 32. 22:46 - Not completely

v. 1-8 Cp 2 Chr. 13.

There are two sides to Abijam's character as unfolded in the accounts of Kings + Chronicles. Apparently he commenced well, with a notable victory over Israel but his heart being lifted up 2 Chr. 13:21. His character deteriorated.

1 Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat reigned Abijam over Judah. Not the first-born 2 Ch 11:20-22

2 Three years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom.

3 And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him: and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father. Above Jer. 33:16.

4 Nevertheless for David's sake did the LORD his God give him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem: 11:36, 2 Sam 21:17, Ps 132:17

5 Because David did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aside from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, save only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. Ps 89:20; Acts 13:22

6 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

7 Now the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abijam and Jeroboam.

8 And Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead.

9 And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel reigned Asa over Judah. Above Right

10 And forty and one years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Maachah, the daughter of Abishalom. He sons 8 Kings on throne of Israel. See below

11 And Asa did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did David his father.

12 And he took away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. Mt. 10:13; 12:46-50.

13 And also Maachah his mother, even her he removed from being queen, because she had made an idol in a grove; and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brook Kidron. See Note 2 Chr. 14:3,5

14 But the high places were not removed: nevertheless Asa's heart was perfect with the LORD all his days. Heb: "wholly"

15 And he brought in the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which himself had dedicated, into the house of the LORD, silver, and gold, and vessels. Below left

16 ¶ And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.

17 And Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not suffer any to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. Many were leaving the north for the south.

18 Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants: and king Asa sent them to Ben-hadad, the son of Tabrimon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

19 There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent unto thee a present of silver and gold; come and break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

20 So Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of the hosts which he had against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-beth-maachah, and all

The early hopes of the conspirators were not realised - Israel's trouble multiply.
33 Began in 3rd year Asa, died in 26th year Ch. 16:8 Cp Note 2 Chr. 16:1. In 16th year of Asa's reign = 10th of Baasha, he instituted the attack of Judah that failed. Baasha's future as King indicated by large numbers that fled to Judah at this time 2 Ch. 15:9

JEHU THE PROPHET PRONOUNCES DOOM AGAINST HOUSE BAASHA

See Appendix p. 8 - The Prophetic Office
1 Sig. Jah is He. His father was a prophet 2 Chr. 16:7-10. Thus father and son suffered on Jehweh's behalf in two Kingdoms. Jehu later reproved Jehoshaphat for aiding Ahab, and wrote a narrative of Jehoshaphat's reign 2 Chr. 19:2, 20:34.
2. What Jah wills He makes, but He is not responsible for the abuse of power.
3 Nagid = One raised up.
4. He had executed judgment against the house Jeroboam but had not profited by its mistakes. Thus the same judgment rested on Baasha

1 Asa's fear of Baasha was very real. He fortified Mizpah on the border and provided independent water supply for it to withstand any siege. Jer. 41:9.
2 Sig. Hare. A city of Naphtali, the plain of Gennesaret. Mat. 4:13-16. By Sea Galilee.
3. To meet the threat from the north (apparently Ben-Hadad withdrew)
4 Sig. Pleasantness. Noted for beauty. Song. 6:4. See Note 1 Kings 14:17.
5. This indicates the determined nature of Baasha's attempt and the strength of the fortress he was building.

9. Possibly gout. This was 3 years before his death. He sought physicians instead of Jehweh 2 Chr. 16:12.

NADAB'S EVIL REIGN Vv25-26.

11A If it has been rightly supposed that R. was about 21, 22 at his accession Asa's age would not exceed 50! Solomon was considered "old" at less than 60! Ch. 11:4. = end of life.

NADAB ASSASSINATED
BAASHA REIGNS 27-28.

12 Sig. "To Stink," "Offensive" St. A ruthless energetic man who arranged the assassination of Nadab, the murder of Jeroboam's descendants, and prosecuted the war with Asa with such vigor as to cause a long remembered fear in the Southern Kingdom. Jer. 41:9
13 Israel found its troubles did not disappear when house David cast off. The nation suffered reverses. It was weakened by many migrating south. See Note p. 480. dissatisfaction was rife, the Philistines had gained strength and invading the land, occupied Gibbethon. This was Baasha's opportunity. He organised the conspiracy and arranged the murder of Nadab.
14. Sig. Conical height. A town of Dan. Josh. 19:44. Nadab's attack was not successful Ch. 16: If it had been it may have saved him

There was no King's dignity with Elah. He returned home drinking with his servants whilst the army battled on the borders. Israel Zimri knew that at a certain hour of the day he could be assured that Elah would be in a drunken stupor.

ZIMRI'S 7 DAYS' REIGN OF TERROR. Vv11-14.

Immediately he gained power, he set about consolidating it by destroying the posterity of Baasha - thus unconsciously fulfilling Yahweh's prophecy. V. 4.

THE TREACHEROUS ZIMRI. --He was a born traitor. Treachery was in his very blood. In the case of Elah, Zimri had a marked advantage; for Elah was a drunken fool; he was in the habit of visiting the house of another of his servants, a steward named Arza, and there he had what drink he asked for; and he asked for a good deal, so much so that he was often drunk in his servant's house, and on one of these occasions Zimri went in and killed him, and reigned in his stead. These are the facts. Are they very ancient, or are they happening around us every day? Is Zimri clean gone for ever? And is the door of the servant Arza closed, so that the master can drink no more with the servant. Elah lives in every man who has great opportunities, but allows them to slip away through a leak in his character - drunkenness, indecision, idleness, pleasure etc.

Zimri's treason, fields shall the fowls of the air eat.

DEATH BAASHA: 7. 5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

6 So Baasha slept [4] with his fathers, and was buried in @ Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead.

7 And also by the hand of the prophet [d] Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because he killed him.

8 ¶ In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years.

9 And his servant [7] Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza [2] steward of his house in Tirzah.

10 And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead. -for 7 days!

11 ¶ And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him [i] not one that pisseth against a wall, [3] neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends.

12 Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, (k) according to the word of the LORD, which he spake against Baasha [l] by Jehu the prophet,

13 For all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their @ vanities. ||

14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? ||A

15 ¶ In the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah did Zimri reign seven days in Tirzah. And the people were encamped [12] against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines.

16 And the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp. [13A]

17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.

18 And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died,

19 For his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in @ walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin.

20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his [h] treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 ¶ Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

THE ARMY REVOLTS AGAINST ZIMRI. IT CHAMPIONS THE CAUSE OF OMRI Vv. 15-20

12. Re-occurring threats were coming from the Philistines. 26 years earlier Nadab had laid seige to this city 15:27.

15 Sig. Wrought. Impetuous. A captain of vigor and skill whose dynasty continued for some time, but who gained a reputation for wickedness exceeded only by Ahab. Cp. Mic. 6:16. Zimri's wholesale murder V. 11 had created numerous enemies throughout Israel.

ZIMRI COMMITS SUICIDE 15:2

18 An act of despair and resignation which imitated the action of some pagan Kings. In the smoking ruins of the Palace the short reign of Zimri came to a dramatic end.

18A As Gibbethon was in the Shephelah Josh. 19:44a, this expression is exact, Tirzah being in the hill country. See Note 14:17.

18B In each verse V. 19 of wickedness he showed the same contempt for Yahweh's requirements as did Jeroboam.

TIBNI CHALLENGES OMRI 21-22

Civil war breaks out as Tibni attracts a following. In the dark deed of treachery, murder, and internecine strife Israel experienced the measure of suffering that comes from rejecting the true worship.

21 Tibni probably succeeded to Zimri's position Cp V. 9.

15. Sig. Stravy. In the face of Omri's vigor he proved a man of straw.

16. Uncert. deriv. A man of obscurity. Ys = perhaps A Garden

17. The contest for power was so fierce as to be beyond the hope of compromise. It could only be resolved in the death of one of the two pretenders. The construction of the verse implies Tibni died as the result of war or murder. The war lasted about 4 years. Cp Vv 21-22.

OMRI: PRINCE OF EVIL MEN Vv. 23-28.

Ruthless, skilled in war, Omri feared neither God nor man. Expediency was the god he worshipped and in its cause he sacrificed every principle of righteousness, exceeding the wickedness of the Kings before him V. 25 In his time (882-871) a deadly danger was arising in the north in the developing power of the ruthless, brutal Assyria. Already all Mesopotamia was ground under its heel and now it looked to the south. Ashurnasirpal II in inscriptions records an attack he launched on Syria - "I

SUMMARY OF BAASHA'S REIGN. Vv 32-34.

The early hopes of the conspirators were not realised - Israel's foes multiply.

[a] Begun in 3rd year of Asa, died in 26th year Ch. 15:8 Cp Note 1 Chr. 16:1. In 18th year of Asa's reign - 10 years Baasha, he instituted the attack of Judah in which that failed. Baasha's sure as King indicated by large number that fled to Judah at Ramah 15:9

OMRI: PRINCE OF EVIL MEN (Both Khumri - House of Omri) Mentioned 6x Jonah in O.T. and 3x Johnnes in New 2 = Assyrian inscriptions

Omri heard of this menace with dark foreboding. He set about strengthening his defences. The Moabite Stone shows how successfully instead of Moab and brought that nation under his control. Cp Appendix p. 14.

He chose as his capital a city easily defended and in every way prepared Israel for the attack that he feared. So successful was he that he gained the respect of Assyria. Omri and Israel were identified as one and a century after his dynasty had crashed Israel was still officially called the "House of Omri" in cuneiform texts.

Cp V. 15. Omri commenced reign in 27th Asa jointly with Tibni, but his sole reign commenced in 31st Asa. In all he reigned 12 years V. 29.

19 Sig. Place of Watch. An excellent site strategically and a city easily defended. It lies on solitary hill about 300 ft high which rises gently out of a broad and fertile valley and is surrounded by a semi-circle of higher mountains. A spring gives adequate water to withstand seige. The view westwards extends to the Mediterranean.

AHAB'S VILE REIGN CHPTS 16-22

Expediency drives him to exceed the wickedness even of Omri. Weak and irresolute he was dominated by the strong-willed Jezebel to the hurt of himself and the kingdom. She dwells not 22 Sig Unmarried, chaste. See significance in Rev. 2:20. She personifies complete wickedness. Stands as type of those who are supposed to be "chaste virgins to Christ" but who commit spiritual fornication.

23 Sig. "With Baal." He was according to Josephus Priest of the obscene worship of the Phoenician goddess Aitarte, Apion 1:18. To whose worship Jezebel was fanatically devoted. The marriage may have been one of convenience to strengthen Israel. If so it had disastrous effect upon the spiritual character of the nation.

ELIJAH — GREATEST OF THE PROPHETS

Without introduction, harsh and uncompromisingly he appears in the sacred narrative. His patronage is not known, he leaves no posterity. He suddenly appears and is as suddenly gone, like a slave doing his master's bidding - his constant expression 1 Kings 17:1; 18:15 Cp 1 King 10:8. There is a wildness, an isolation, an austerity, a roughness, a hardness about him contrasting forcibly even with the mild benediction of Life of God. Reminded the defiance of God's will in Bethel. See Bottom left 489.

DISASTER AT JERICHO

A grim warning to Israel that the World of Yahweh should be honoured. The forgotten curse on Jericho claimed its victims, but in what way is not revealed.

— CHAPTER 17 —

Jehoshaphat now reigns in Judah, having originally opposed Ahab 2 Chr. 17:1. He later married his son to Ahab's daughter 2 Chr. 18:1. Amity thus reigned between the north and south, though Ahab's wickedness increased. This union proved disastrous for Judah.

ELIJAH CAUSES DROUGHT V1.

His abrupt introduction into the history is suggestive of the driving power of the Spirit which drove him suddenly to leave the hostile Metropolis of Gilead for the soft, luxurious comfort of Ahab's court to present his ominous, uncompromising warning and threat.

Elijah's threat was

CHAPTER 17.

1 Elijah, having prophesied against Ahab, is sent to Cherith, where the ravens feed him. 8 He is sent to the widow of Zarephath. 17 He raiseth the widow's son. 24 The woman believeth him.

AND Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said unto Ahab, As the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.

2 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

3 Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

4 And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.

5 So he went and did according unto the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

6 And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.

7 And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

9 Arise, get thee to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee.

10 Israel, twelve years: six years reigned he in Tirzah.

24 And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, Samaria.

25 ¶ But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all that were before him. → Cp Mic. 6:16

26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

27 Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he shewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria: and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 ¶ And in the thirty and eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty and two years.

30 And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD above all that were before him.

31 And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him.

32 And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria.

33 And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 ¶ In his days did Hiel the Beth-elite build Jericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates thereof in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Joshua the son of Nun.

Josh 19:25. noted for oil Deut 33:24. so that it is understandable that she should still retain a little of this commodity in time of drought V. 12

Elijah in enemy territory - like Israel. Rev 11:3.

24 Yet though he did all this, he did not entirely cut off contact with the true worship. He employed the righteous Obadiah Ch. 18:3. Perhaps recognising the growing threat from Assyria and with superstitious regard for religion he worshipped both Baal and Yahweh, seeking alliances where he could.

25 See Note Ch. 15:13.

ELIJAH HIDES AT ZAREPHATH V8-16.

The drought continues but Elijah finds help in the very territory of his enemy Jezebel. Luke 4:26-25. In similar manner in the time of spiritual drought Christ finds support in the territory of Jezebel.

(to refine) See Smelting Furnace. In territory of Asher.

488

A challenge to Jezebel. A religious war was instituted with power on the side of Baal. The prophets of Yahweh were slain, despite the efforts of such as Obadiah to help them. Ch. 18:13. Thus the voice of civil and religious opposition to tyranny was raised though but feebly in the absence of Elijah. Cp Rev. 11.

WIDOW'S SON. V17-23

ELIJAH (Cont.) eficence of Elisha. Sometimes character is mysteriously and very deeply affected by country. Gilead was a wild and mountainous district bordering on Arabia, and consequently half Arab in its customs. There was a wonderful similarity between the man and the region — stern, bleak, grand, majestic, and awful were they both. Like John Baptist Elijah seemed to bring the wilderness with him when he came into the city. APPEARANCE — Long shaggy hair flowed over his back, a large mantle of rough sheepskins wrapped his clothing, fastened with a girdle of hide (2 Kings 1:8 ● Tishbite = inhabitant (TOSHBEH) without the vowels exactly alike. Elijah raiseth the widow's son.

10 So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thine hand.

12 And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but an handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.

13 And Elijah said unto her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me thereof a little cake first, and bring it unto me, and after make for thee and for thy son.

14 For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth.

15 And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days.

16 And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spake by Elijah.

17 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said unto Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come unto me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?

19 And he said unto her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.

20 And he cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son?

21 And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried unto the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again.

22 And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.

23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth.

24 ¶ And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.

1 Elijah meeteth Obadiah. 17 He reproveth Ahab. 40 Baal's prophets slain. 41 Elijah, by prayer, obtaineth rain.

AND it came to pass after many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, shew thyself unto Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth.

2 And Elijah went to shew himself unto Ahab. And there was a sore famine in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadiah, which was the governor of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly:

4 For it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took an hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)

10 Like Ahab of Jezebel this Gentile woman. Cp. Luke 4:25-26. a An evidently of thoughtful mind, enquiring the cause of drought and arriving at the decision that the God of Israel was behind it. There must have been something compelling in the appearance of Elijah for her to so readily agree to share her meagre provisions. She remains anonymous as do all those heroes who defied Jezebel in dark days.

THE PERSECUTION. Jezebel dominated her husband and thus the government. With fanatical zeal she extended the worship of Baal and Astarte. The State combined with Jezebel to persecute the saints. Prophets were put to death (vv 4, 13. 22. 2 King. 9:7), the faithful were hunted down and took refuge in caves and dens of earth, the Altars of Yahweh were broken down v.30 Ch. 19:10 the Truth was worshipped only in jeopardy of life itself which extended beyond the borders of Israel v.10. A vast Temple was built in rivalry of that in Zion (1 Kgs 16:32. 18:19). Against this system of iniquity the loftiest and sternest of Israel's prophets stood up to challenge face to face the proudest and fiercest advocate of ~~Asiatic~~ paganism – Jezebel.

THE SEVERITY OF THE DROUGHT. vv 5-6.

The land became parched, the springs, fountains, brooks dried up. Cp Ch. 17:7. So extreme became the crisis that even the King had to search for water. According Josephus, heathen records tell of the drought. Menander – Jos. Ant. 8.13.2.

AHAB'S APOSTASY.

Jezreel, "the sowing of El" rivalled the glory of Samaria. It was the headquarters of Jezebel's worship of Astarte. Ch. 18:19. 18:46. It commanded the view of Carmel on the West, the Jordan Valley on East. A high tower commanded the eastern approach 2 Kings 9:17. A Palace was built close to the walls, the windows of seraglio looked out to the public street within the gate. 2 Kings 9:30-31. The worship of Baal was established at Samaria 1 Kings 16:32. A house of Baal was built the interior being a holy place for gods. in which were set on pillars figures of Phoenician gods carved in wood.

I. KINGS 18. Elijah reproveth Ahab.

Elijah meeteth Obadiah.

5 And Ahab said unto Obadiah, Go into the land, unto all fountains of water, and unto all brooks: peradventure we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, @that we lose not all the beasts.

6 So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.

7 ¶ And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art thou that my lord Elijah?

8 And he answered him, I am: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

9 And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to slay me?

10 As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation or kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

12 And it shall come to pass, as soon as I am gone from thee, that [m]the Spirit of the LORD shall carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he shall slay me: but I thy servant fear the LORD from my youth.

13 Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid an hundred men of the LORD's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?

14 And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here: and he shall slay me.

15 And Elijah said, [n]As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely shew myself unto him to day.

16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him: and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, [a]Art thou he that [b]troubleth Israel?

18 And he answered, I have not [b]troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, [c]in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and [d]thou hast followed Baalim.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel unto mount [e]Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of [f]the groves four hundred, which eat at [g]Jezebel's table.

20 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and [h]gathered the prophets together unto mount [e]Carmel.

21 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two [i]opinions? if the LORD be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

22 Then said Elijah unto the people, [j]I, even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; [k]but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.[l][m]

23 Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that [o]answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, [p]It is well spoken.

THE CONTEST ON MT CARMEL. vv 20-25

11 He permitted the contest possibly believing that it would bring Elijah within his power.

12 Lit "limp." Thus in dating the gratuitous actions of the priests, leaping from side to side & contorting their bodies with their gesticulations. Can be rendered "hop about" i.e. upon two boughs like birds. Cp Gen 31:

13. The challenging rebuke of Elijah was met with deathly silence as the people awaited the issue, prepared to follow whichever proved the strong God.

14. i.e. To do public battle on behalf of Truth.

15. This excluded the priests of Astarte. Cp

16. This was taking the contest into the enemy's camp. Baal was probably Apollo, the Sun god or god of Fire.

THE CONTEST ON CARMEL 18 miles from Jezreel. The Kishon below, but now dry. The Mount pitted with caves and still called "Mar-Elias." There the congregation of Israel met full of doubts. The 450 prophets of Baal assembled in their splendid and impressive vestments. Opposed to them was the one solitary prophet clad in his rough sheepskin cloak. It was a dramatic moment for both the prophet and the people. It was early morning and as the sun arose from the east it heralded what could have been a new day for Israel.

1 Kng 19:15-16. "Anoint": In no. place is Elijah described as anointing these men to their various offices. However, this was figuratively correct inasmuch as they were set apart for the work appointed them to do.

21 The sun was at its strength when Apollo should have answered.

26 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, [1] hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that [2] answered. And they [3] leaped upon [4] the altar which was made.

27 And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry [5] aloud: for he is a god; either [6] he is talking, or he [7] is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

28 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till [8] the blood gushed out upon them.

29 And it came to pass, when midday was past, and they prophesied until the time of the [9] offering of [h] the evening sacrifice, that there was [i] neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any [10] that regarded.

ELIJAH'S REPAIRS ALTAR

25 The Altar reaffirmed the hope of Israel in the face of apostacy and following the destruction of the prophets of Baal. To be fulfilled by the anti-typical Elijah (My El is Yah) in the day of Yahweh.

Notice the calm deliberate action of Elijah - "he built," "he made" "he put" etc.

26 V.35. But the sea was close by. Barrels = Pitchers.

30 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

31 And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the LORD came, saying, [k] Israel shall be thy name:

32 And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.

33 And he [l] put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and [a] pour it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time.

35 And the water [2] ran round about the altar; and he filled [b] the trench also with water.

36 And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD [c] God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, [d] let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that [e] I have done all these things at thy word.

37 Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

38 Then [m] the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, [n] The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God.

40 And Elijah said unto them, [o] Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they [4] took them: and Elijah brought them down to the [p] brook Kishon, and [q] slew them there.

41 ¶ And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is [5] a sound of abundance of rain.

HE BUILT AN ALTAR

This was a solemn renewal of the original covenant when Moses similarly built an altar. Exod. 24:1-8. These renewals occur from time to time following intervals of apostasy. Such was the case in the time of Josiah (2 Kings 23:1-3 2 Chr. 34:29) and in the time of Nehemiah (Neh. 10:28-39). The altar may have dated from before Temple built or a temporary one built by one of the 7,000. 12 stones, peculiar against Division. Josh. 4:3-9. Principle: The people are one & belong to Yahweh.

THE CONTEST ON CARMEL

"What doest thou here Elijah": There had been specific Divine directions in all Elijah's other movements 17:2, 18:1 etc. but not in this.

18:44 This repetition explains the reason of his presence, though now it is being born home to Elijah that he has acted hastily and apart from Divine direction. There are close parallels with Moses who also acted hastily in the rock smiting.

I KINGS 15:24

IN the account of Asa's reign the historian includes incidents beyond the reign of Nadab of Israel whom he had not yet introduced. He then goes back to record the history of the northern Kingdom. He continues from this point onwards to 2 Kg 1:1 except for brief items concerning Jehoshaphat's reign in 1 Kg 22:41-50, 2 Kings 8:16-24, a large part of which relates to Elijah and Elisha suggesting that prophets rather than kings dominated the period. It was a troubled period for Israel.

Elijah, at Beer-sheba,

43 And said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.

44 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth [a] a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, [3] Prepare [b] thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not.

45 And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to [c] Jezreel.

46 And the [d] hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he [f] girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab [4] to the entrance of [c] Jezreel.

ELIJAH FLEES TO BEERSHEBA. V.3.

Here is an exhortation never to give up, never to be overcome by discouragement. The incident is quoted by Paul to illustrate that point. Rom. 11:3.

This was not the first invasion of Israel by Syria there was an earlier one by the direct instigation of Judah 1 Kings 15:18-20 Later, in time Omri, cities were taken 2 Kings 20:34 and deference shown by Israel to its north ern neighbour. The invasion of Syria by Assyria probably relieved the pressure on Israel by the former. See note bottom P. 487.

BEN-HADAD'S ULTIMATUM.

With pomp and ceremony. V. 16 attended by a great display of power well calculated to induce fear in Israel. Ben-hadad invaded the land at the head of 32 Vassal Kings Vv 12, 16.

[2] See Note Ch. 16:24. Ahab's army retired before the advance of Ben-hadad to the shelter of Samaria's walls. There had been no battle as yet Cp. V. 11. The over of the Syrian advance fed the vanity and arrogance of Ben-hadad.

[3] The 32 Kings with Ben-hadad illustrate the nature of his ultimatum to Ahab. In accepting it the latter showed he was prepared to become a vassal ruler under the Syrian. That is what is meant by

[4] This implies that submitting to the former ultimatum did not necessarily mean leaving Samaria. It apparently meant no more than becoming as one of the Vassal Kings V. 1

HE FOUND ELISHA V. 19

He found a successor and perhaps in that, after his outburst V. 10 he found a gentle rebuke. He found a young man (for 10 years later Elisha was still acting as prophet), bald-headed, in comfortable circumstances. This can be adduced from the statement that there were 12 yoke of oxen ploughing in the fields of his father. — eleven of his father's servants were ploughing with him. Even the name of the place — Abel-meholah V. 16 suggests ease and comfort for it signifies The Meadow of Dancing. But from such, as from all walks of life, Yahweh drew His servant.

HAZAEL, JEHU + ELISHA 1 Kg 19:15-16.

By this anointing or appointing Elijah learns that Yahweh is not unmindful of the circumstances. Hazael would punish Israel; Jehu would destroy the house of Ahab + Jezebel, and Elisha would minister to the 7000 of Yahweh's people. Far from the work of Elijah being fruitless or from the prophetic order being extinguished, provision is now made for its continuance and for his successor.

9 Wherefore he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.

10 And Ben-hadad sent unto him, and said, The gods [b] do so unto me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that [3] follow me.

11 And [c] the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his [d] harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.

8 He conducted the siege as a picnic. His drunkenness made him first arrogant and boastful; then rash and headstrong; finally cowardly and disgraced.

THE PROPHET'S COUNSEL 13-14

9 The belligerent attitude of Benhadad doubtless caused fear in Samaria - which was followed by a measure of relief by the message of the prophet.

He came on the scene at a time when there was conflict between true worship with its standards for holy living, + the worship of Baal with its emphasis upon debauchery, when the temptation to live by physical and sensuous impulse loomed large 1 Kg. 16:30. It required not only a great spirit but great deeds.

AHAB'S ATTACK 14-21

BENHADAD IS IGNOMINIOUSLY DEFEATED

12 In view of the straitness of the siege this was unusual and attracted attention.

13 He heard a disturbance and sent out to enquire the cause.

14 He treated the attack with contempt and by his foolish order laid the foundation for the defeat of his own army.

15 The young men sallied forth + put to rout those sent to take them. Encouraged by this and the fulfilment of the prediction of v. 14 Ahab followed at the head of his army of 7,000 men.

BEN-HADAD PLEADS FOR MERCY. VV. 31-32.

He Appeals To Ahab's Vanity. 24 In great contrast to the cruelties pracwill fight against them in [a] the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened unto their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to [d] Aphek, to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbered, and [e] were all present, and went against them: and the children of Israel pitched before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.

28 ¶ And there came [f] a man of God, and spake unto the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, [h] The LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys, therefore [i] will I deliver all this great multitude into thine hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

29 And they pitched one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to [d] Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, [g] into an inner chamber.

31 ¶ And his servants said unto him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, [k] put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to [l] the king of Israel: peradventure he will save thy life.

32 So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to [b] the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.

33 Now the men [c] did diligently observe whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.

34 And Ben-hadad said unto him, [g] The cities, which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in [j] Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will send thee away with this covenant. [k] So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

35 ¶ And a certain [m] man of the sons of the prophets said unto his neighbour [n] in the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And [o] the man refused to smite him.

36 Then said he unto him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou art departed from me, a lion shall slay thee. And as soon as he was departed from him, [p] a lion found him, and slew him.

37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, [q] so that in smiting he wounded him.

38 So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and [r] disguised himself with ashes upon his face.

39 And as the king passed by, [s] he cried unto the king: and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man unto

What is the lesson behind this incident? The Raven is an unclean bird Lev. 11:15. This took place during an epoch of famine when Elijah was hidden from Israel. At a similar time Peter was shown the sheet of unclean animals + birds + invited to eat. They became defiled to preach to the Gentiles. Elijah's experience foreshadowed this.

SYRIAN WAR RESUMED. AHAB SEEKS THE AID OF JEHOSHAPHAT.

See Note on the latter's foolish alliance. See Note 2 Chron. 18.

An interlude of neither peace nor war during which each side developed its military potential.

Ahab's recent victories had been foretold by a prophet 1 Kg 20:13, from which Jehoshaphat might suppose that Yahweh was with Ahab.

A council of State & of War was held at the entrance of Samaria with prophets & councillors present.

4 And he said unto Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.

5 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

6 Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

7 And [k] Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we might enquire of him?

8 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

9 Then the king of Israel called an [3] officer, and said, Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.

10 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a [4] void place in the entrance of the gate of [o] Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

19 And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: [n] I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and [p] all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left.

MICAIAH'S GREATEST MOMENT. See whether it is not a moment to be proud of when Micaiah turns away in the custody of his persecutors, having delivered his soul with fearlessness that did not cower or blanch even at the sight of death in its most ghastly forms. Surely it is due to history to recognise the fact that there have been men who have no counted their lives dear unto themselves when they were called upon to testify for truth and goodness. The martyrs must never be forgotten. Dark will be the day in any nation when the men who shed their blood that truth might be told and honor might be vindicated, are no longer held in remembrance. In vain do we bring forth from our hidden treasure the coins of ancient times, the robes worn in high antiquity by kings and priests, the rusty armor of warriors, if there be no longer in our heart the tenderest recollection of men who wandered in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute afflicted, tormented — that they might save the torch of truth from extinction and the standard of honor from overthrow.

20 And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

21 And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.

22 And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so.

23 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.

24 But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

25 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back unto Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

27 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.

28 And Micaiah said, If thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, O people, every one of you.

29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

32 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out.

33 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: wherefore he said unto the driver of his chariot, Turn thine hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.

35 And the battle increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound into the midst of the chariot.

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country.

37 ¶ So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; and they washed his armour; according unto the word of the LORD which he spake.

THE KINGS MARCH TO WAR. 29-30.

Despite his repudiation of Micaiah, Ahab is ill at ease. Instead of relying upon the Word of Yahweh he engages in a trick by disguising himself. He knew that Benhadad would seek him out. The Syrians would know that there were two kings and finding the King of Judah in his robes would seek to find Ahab similarly dressed. Thus they would be confused. Cp Gen. 21:12a

DEATH OF AHAB. 34-36.

40. He did not know he was aiming at Ahab. He was probably one of a contingent of Archers covering the rest of Syrian army by a flight of arrows.

41. Probably between the breastplate (or coat of mail) and the appendages to it. The wound would be in the lower part of the body.

43. There was charge and counter charge as the Israelites strove to break through the Syrians to Ramoth-Gilead and the latter desperately resisted. The death of Ahab brought the battle to an end.

44. Despite the pain, the bitter knowledge of defeat, the growing weakness, Ahab courageously supported himself in the chariot to encourage his followers. 2 Chr. 18:34 says "he stayed himself up."

The one example cast the shadow of death — the other revealed the Light of Life. 19 Kings reigned over the north for a period of 250 years, whilst 20 Kings reigned in the south from the time of the Disruption for 390 years. The 19 Kings of the north came from 7 different dynasties in contrast to the one in the south.

2nd KINGS: THE BOOK OF REBUKE AND RETRIBUTION

SCOPE • It opens with the translation of Elijah to heaven and closes with the transportation of captive Jews to Babylon.

• The perfect order of 1+2 Kings as one book is outlined by Bullinger: "The book begins with King David and ends with the King of Babylon; opens with the Temple built and ends with the Temple burnt; begins with David's first successor on the throne of his Kingdom, and ends with David's last successor released from the house of his captivity."

• It contains the history of Israel and Judah from Ahab to the captivity: a period of about 300 years.

• The first half of the book is largely taken up with an account of Elisha's ministry of 66 years. The book records 16 miracles by Elisha, whereas only 8 were performed by Elijah.

• One of Judah's best Kings – Hezekiah – was the father of the worst of Kings Ch.21. • Note the subtle difference between the commendations of Hezekiah Ch.18:5 and Josiah Ch.23:25. • Note how nearly the only surviving descendant in the Davidic line Ch.11:1-3, and the only existing copy of the Law Ch.22:8-20 perished. • 34 wars in 317 years. • For author see over

KEY WORDS • The phrase "man of God" is found in it 36 times – more than any other book in the Bible. In a time of increasing apostasy, Yahweh's faithful witnesses raised their voices in rebuke. Cp. 1 Tim. 6:11.

• The tragic summary: "Did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh" is met with 21 times (Ch.3:2; 8:18; [illegible] 8:27; 13:2, 11; 14:24; 15:9, 18, 24, 28; 16:2; 17:2, 17; 21:2, 6, 15, 16, 20; 23:32, 37; 24:9, 19). What they did was no doubt expedient, but it was opposed to the Divine rule of faith.

• The opposite statement: "Did right in the sight of Yahweh" is met with only 8 times. Ch.10:30; 12:2; 14:3; 15:3, 34; 18:3; 2013 22:2.

• The phrase: "The word of Yahweh" or its equivalent is met with 24 times Ch.1:17; 3:12; 4:44; 7:1, 16; 8:19; 9:26, 36; 10:10; 14:25; 15:12; 19:21; 20:4, 16, 19; 22:13, 16, 18, 20; 23:2, 3, 16, 24; 24:2. The the fulfilment of Yahweh's word is sure, both to saint and sinner.

• Notice the prominence given to Divine emotion: Compassion Ch.13:23 Anger 13:3; 17:18; 23:26; 24:20 (note the increasing anger expressed in these verses). Wrath 22:13, 17; 23:26.

DAVID: THE STANDARD OF JUDAH 1 Kgs 11:4, 6, 33, 38; 14:8; 15:3, 11; 2 Kgs 14:3; 16:2; 18:3; 22:2.

JEROBOAM: THE STANDARD OF ISRAEL 1 Kgs 15:26, 34; 16:19, 25, 26, 31; 22:52. 2 Kgs 3:2, 3; 10:29, 31; 13:2, 6, 11; 14:24; 15:9, 18, 24, 28; 17:21, 22; 23:15.

ILLUSTRATING • "The soul of the transgressors shall eat violence" Prov. 13:2 • "The way of transgressors is hard" Prov. 13:15. • "The wages of sin is death" Rom. 6:23. • "God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap" Gal. 6:7. • "If disobedience received a just recompence of reward; how shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation.." Heb. 2:3. • "Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord we persuade men..." 2 Cor. 5:11

AUTHOR.

1+2 Kings originally one book. Divided into 2 by Septuagint 294-289 B.C.

It appears Isaiah + Jeremiah were the authors using the public records of the Kings. Among the recorders were Nathan, Gad, Iddo, Abijah, Jehu + others. (2 Chr. 9:29; 12:15; 20:34; 26:22; 32:32)

It could be that Isaiah wrote to the time of Hezekiah 2 Chr. 32:32. Jewish tradition says that Jeremiah was the author.

PURPOSE

to show reason for Davidic Kingdom being disrupted + to reveal why Yahweh sent Israel into captivity 2 Kgs. 21: 24-32.

ELISHA SON OF SHAPHAT OF ABELMEHOLAH 1 Kings 19:16-19 : 2 Kings 2-13.

El of Supplications or Riches son of the Judge of the Meadow of Dancing of the tribe of Issachar (Reward).

A contrast with Elijah (Yah is Strength). Who suggests the Law whilst Elisha suggests Grace + Riches. 2 Cor. 8:9

Elijah prepared Elisha for his ministry 2 Kings 2:11-14 + the one supplemented the other Mk. 5:17; Isa. 42:21.

Elisha's character is marked by mercy + healing 2 Kings 2:21; Curing of Leprosy 5:1-14 Disinterestedness 5:15-16 Demand of integrity in his followers 5:20-27; a victorious death 13:14-19 (promising victory over Israel's enemies). and a miraculous posthumous influence 13:20-21. In all this he foreshadowed Christ.

A man of: Faith 1 Kg 19:20-21 • Action. 2 Kg 2:12-18 • Miracle • Dauntless courage 2 Kg 3:13-14 • Deep sympathy 2 Kg 4:1-8 • Emotion 2 Kg 8:7-15

Elijah was the forerunner upholding the Law 1 Kg 19: 10-14, 16. Elisha was more merciful + beneficial setting forward the principal of Grace. Elijah was more destructive, even in miracle; Elisha provided benefits: restoring + raising. He had double the power of Elijah 2 Kg 2:8, 9, 15. Elijah was mainly prophetical; Elisha was mainly miraculous: Elijah's ministry was one of stern denunciation; Elisha's task was that of teaching + winning.

THE TWO KINGDOMS 1 Kgs 12:1 - 2 Kgs 17:41

The Books of Kings are not recorded merely for their historical details – they are included to provide important understanding concerning the people whom Yahweh had elected to be the channel of His salvation to the world (See note Heb. 13:11).

To fulfil this purpose the people of Israel had to set an example of the standards required. The historian set forth his people's history from the standpoint of these basic considerations led by the Spirit of God, he gave the interpretation set forth in the section above. Although concerned about Israel as God's people, he wrote with the Kings, and the latter frequently appearing preaching + teaching prophets in full view. The united Kingdom under David and much of Solomon set the standard. It was the golden age of Israel's Kingdom when glory to God in the highest and peace in Israel preceded what was possible to all. They were powerful; and David's heart was "wholly right" with God (1 Kg 11:4), and Solomon had "loved Yahweh" (3:3). the people were at peace; the Temple was built and the service arranged by David was fully established, and those beyond the borders were attracted to its glory and conditions, bringing with them their tribute 10:1; 10:23-25.

However sin in human heart, expressed in actions + relationships, began to change the peaceful, effective influence of the Kingdom. Spiritual conflict manifesting the prophecy of Gen. 3:15 became evident. It appeared that the Kingdom of God was gaining a great victory but it was defeated when Solomon condoned the idol worship of his wives and multiplied to himself wealth and means of war. Deut 17:14-20

Hope was provided in that the punishment was not to be absolute 1 Kg 11:39. Nevertheless a temporary + sad decline and dispersion was anticipated. 1 Kg 8: 33-34. He wrote at the time of the total collapse of the nation, and perhaps whilst he himself was in exile 2 Kgs 25:9-11. A measure of hope for the Kingdom was seen in the release of Jehoiachin 2 Kgs 25:27-30. as in the prayer of Solomon. 1 Kg 8:33-34., and the continued promises and predictions of the prophets. Isaiah 2:2-4.

The Two Histories Synchronised.

1 Kg 12:1 – 2 Kg 17:41 synchronises the histories of the 2 Kingdoms. He made use of various records in so doing, guided by the Spirit for all Scripture is THEOPNEUSTOS or God-breathed. 2 Tim. 3:16. See 1 Kgs 14:19 etc. relating to the northern Kingdom and 2 Kgs 1:18; 15:6 etc for the Southern Kingdom – at least 27 times in all.

Guided by the Spirit in the selection and recording of this material the two histories as they are synchronised show the continuity of the throne in Jerusalem, + the House of David reigning thereon. By contrast the northern Kingdom did not achieve dynastic stability.

Concerning the Division

This undoubtedly was Divine judgment on the "house of David" because of the action and attitude of Solomon. The factor of tribal jealousy had its roots as far back as the time of the conquest Josh. 21 and manifested itself intermittently afterwards Judg 8:1-3; 12:1-6; 2 Sam. 20:1. Heavy taxation apparently was a justifiable complaint 1 Kgs 12:4; preference in political appointments may have been weighted in favour of Judah 1 Kg 4:1-6. But these were secondary causes; the means whereby Divine judgment became a reality.

V. 10. Fire from heaven. Ahaziah in the cause of Baal-zebub had challenged Yahweh to a trial of strength + these soldiers came in the name of that god. The honour + strength of Yahweh had to be vindicated otherwise spiritual anarchy would have reigned. Elijah as the Restorer of the law vindicated it. The Lord was the minister of grace Luke 9:55.

2nd KINGS. ISRAEL'S TRAGIC RECORD. — Opens with the translation of Elijah to heaven and closes with the transportation of the captive Jews to Babylon. The great empires of Assyria, Babylon, Persia now dominate the scene. It traces their influence upon the two divisions of Israel. The northern Kingdom became more and more steeped in infidelity and moral degradation until with the full measure of wickedness the nation was destroyed. Later the battered, broken tribes of the southern Kingdom dragged ignominiously behind the chariots of their heathen conqueror demonstrated the truth: "The way of the transgressor is hard" Prov. 13:15.

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty and five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

43 And he walked in all the ways of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless the high places were not taken away; for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.

44 And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

47 There was then no king in Edom: a deputy was king.

48 Jehoshaphat made ships of Tharshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they went not; for the ships were broken at Ezion-geber.

49 Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab unto Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships. But Jehoshaphat would not.

50 ¶ And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.

51 ¶ Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel.

52 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin:

53 For he served Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger the LORD God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

See Note "finished a corpse" bottom 505

David conquered Edom and Judah reigned by deputies. Later Edom revolted 2 Kings 8:22. Occupying this territory, Jehoshaphat had free access to the port of Ezion-geber.

Cp 2 Chr. 20:36 "To go to Tarshish." See notes on 1 Kin. 9:26-28, 10:11, 22.

For reason see 2 Chr. 20:37. He had permitted Ahaziah to join him in the building of the ships in the first instance but this partnership was censured by Eliezer who announced as a divine judgement in wreck of the vessels. A 2nd time Jehoshaphat resumed his plan and when Ahaziah wished to join him, or permit his servants to join the ships, he refused.

8 years before his death V. 42. During these years, about 6 years before his death he entered into alliance.

The incident this Chapter referred to in Luke 9:54 Though Lord deprecates use "heavenly fire" at present time, will come when he will use it. 2 Thes. 1:8.

The King was startled at their early return. They had a remarkable story to tell. A stern, bold, uncompromising man appearing them in the name of Yahweh — are where very demon- ner challenged them- led them with fear so they could not say: Get out of our way - We have the king's business to perform." Elijah represented a greater King, and to Him they were forced to bow.

It was a case of Jahweh versus Baal-zebub.

It was a case of the God of Israel versus the god of Ekron. Ahaziah was guilty for as a traitor he had turned to a foreign god.

There was no mistake in this great enemy of the house of Ahab.

500 The Northern Kingdom was compared to the shameful example of Jeroboam; the southern Kingdom to the glory of David. The one example cast the shadows of death — the other revealed the Light of Life. 19 Kings reigned over the north for a period of 250 years, whilst 20 Kings reigned in the south from the time of the Disruption for 390 years. The 19 Kings of the north came from 7 different dynasties in contrast to the one in the south.

Other references to Ahaziah. 1 Kings 22:40, 48-53.

His name means: "Yahweh hath sustained." but this use of the Name was merely lip service. His reign lasted only 2 years. 1 Kings 22:40, 51. He joined with Jehoshaphat in fitting out ships, but the vessels were wrecked. Ahaziah proposed a second attempt but Jehoshaphat, warned by a prophet, declined. 1 Kings 22:48, 49. "second year of Jehoram son of Jehoshaphat" V.17. Jehoshaphat's reign had not expired for 8 or 9 years. 1 Kings 22:42. nor was Ahab's reign expired by 2 or 3 years for this was his 20th year. (He reigned 22 years 1 Kings 16:29 and Jehoshaphat commenced in his 4th year 1 Kings 22:41.) The reason why both Ahaziah and Jehoram of Judah came to the throne at the same time and whilst their fathers were living is because the latter were engaged with the Syrian war and made their sons viceroys in their stead.

3 But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say unto them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to enquire of [b]Baal-zebub the god of [c]Ekron?
4 Now therefore thus saith the LORD, [2]Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed.

5 ¶ And when the messengers turned back unto him, he said unto them, Why are ye now turned back?
6 And they said unto him, There came a man up to meet us, and said unto us, Go, turn again unto the king that sent you, and say unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to enquire of [b]Baal-zebub the god of [c]Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.
7 And he said unto them, [4]What manner of man was he which came up to meet you, and told you these words?
8 And they answered him, He was [f]an hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah [g]the Tishbite.

9 Then the king sent unto him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and, behold, he sat on the top of an hill. And he spake unto him, Thou [h]man of God, the king hath said, Come down.
10 And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then [i]let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

11 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly.
12 And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And [d]the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

13 ¶ And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and [e]fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, [4]be precious in thy sight.
14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.
15 And the angel of the LORD said unto Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

Time and again the royal house was threatened with extinction. It was in mortal danger when faced with the revolt of Jeroboam. 1 Kings 12:16. It hung on a thread by the murder of the seed royal and the preservation of the baby Joash. 2 Kings 11:1-2. It did so when the childless Hezekiah was faced with destruction by Assyrians 2 Kings 19:1-4 and then with death 2 Kings 20:1. So that sword and sickness threatened it. It was in danger when the message came from Jeremiah to Jeconiah "write this man childless" Jer. 22:30 and the royal house was continued in captivity through the subsidiary line of Nathan supplanting that of Solomon. It was challenged by the massacre of the infants and the flight of the Lord to Egypt Matt 2:13-16. Finally by the crucifixion. But through all this Jahweh's strength was made perfect through weakness 2 Cor. 12:9.

12. He did not regard his own safety, or his life. He went without hesitation to proclaim the Divine judgement upon a foolish monarch. He was taken into the very palace. 1 Kings 22:39. Into the bedroom of the king and whilst the latter looked up at him with hatred, fear and dread, Elijah proclaimed his message of doom. Though perhaps fettered as a prisoner he did not hesitate to fearlessly express his mind.

TRANSLATION OF ELIJAH.

The last sad journey from Gilgal to Gilead. He returns with his spiritual son back to his native soil for the last dramatic incident in his life.

1 Elijah, taking his leave of Elisha, with his mantle divideth Jordan, 11 and is taken up by a fiery chariot into heaven. 12 Elisha, dividing Jordan with Elijah's mantle, is acknowledged his successor. 19 Elisha healeth the unwholesome waters. 23 Bears destroy the children that mocked Elisha.

AND it came to pass, when the LORD would [a] take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with [b] Elisha from [c] Gilgal.

2 And Elijah said unto Elisha, [d] Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to [e] Beth-el. And Elisha said unto him, [f] As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el.

3 And [g] the sons of the prophets that were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master [h] from thy head to day? And he said, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace.

4 And Elijah said unto him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to [i] Jericho. And he said, [j] As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho.

5 And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master [h] from thy head to day? And he answered, Yea, I know it; hold ye your peace.

6 And Elijah said unto him, Tarry, I pray thee, here, for the LORD hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, [j] As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on.

7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood [k] to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.

3 Nevertheless he cleaved unto the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, which made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

4 ¶ And Mesha king of Moab was a sheepmaster, and rendered unto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambs, and an hundred thousand rams, with the wool.

8 And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom.

THE STRATEGY. Vv 8-9.

Joining forces in Judah the confederate army marched south of the Dead Sea into Moab. It is an arid part of the country and lack of water soon brought the combined army to a state of extremity.

They probably intended to take the King of Moab by surprise, but evidently the whole project was ill-planned. The Kings consulted only with themselves - not at the mouth of Yahweh.

This is a circuit familiar to Elijah. Elisha, as his successor, went through strengthening the schools of the prophets standing before them as their leader.

CHAPTER 3.

THE MIRACLE OF MOAB

SUMMARY OF JEHORAM'S REIGN. Vv 1-3.

1. Known also as Joram. Sig. "Yahweh is high." There was a son of Jehoshaphat of the same name Ch. 1:17 - perhaps an indication of the close affinity between the two houses.

2 See difficulty reconciled Ch. 1:17. In the south his cousin was reigning jointly with Jehoshaphat 3 His brother had died because he sought Baal-Zebub instead of Yahweh (2 Kings 1:2-3). Jehoram decided to avoid the same mistake. But his intentions were dictated by fear, and love of Yahweh and He who rules the hearts was not deceived.

To calf worship.

MESHA'S REVOLT. Vv 4-5

5 Sig. Deliverance, Salvation According to the Moabite Stone that records his success, he took advantage of the weakened state of Israel to secure his independence. During the reign of Ahab he had engaged in frontier fighting with some success. On the death of Ahab he threw off completely the yoke of Israel. 2 Ch. 17:11

JEHORAM'S ALLIES Vv 6-7.

6 He had returned from the Syrian war (2 Kings 8:28-29) probably spring time, approx. May, and undertook a religious reformation of Judah (2 Chr. 17:7-9). Then followed war with a confederacy of Ammon Moab & Edom in which the latter was brought to its former subjection. 1 Kings 22:47. 2 Chr. 20:22. Ahaziah died at end of this year & the next year Jehoram sought assistance of Jehoshaphat in subjecting Moab. The latter probably desired to chastise the Moabites further and agreed. He brought the vassal King of Edom with him. He was at peace with Israel (1 Ki 22:44) & ignorant of the revolt (2 Ki 1:1) & ignorant of the revolt & probably of the rebellion of Edom as well.

But through want of resolution and determination they fail to carry out Yahweh's instructions thoroughly enough and suffer as a result.

THE KINGS ARE FORCED TO SEEK COUNSEL OF YAHWEH Vv 10-12.

To date they have not consulted Him; they have relied upon their own strength and ingenuity and desire for revenge.

8 The disaster is blamed on to Yahweh. It is claimed that He has blinded them and led them on to their destruction.

9 Jehoshaphat remembers the duty he should have performed before setting out. Adversity often turns men religious Vv 26-27. They could have saved themselves much trouble by first seeking Him.

10 He had evidently followed the armies to battle as deliverers by Divine command.

11 He was well known as a prophet of Yahweh to all Kingdoms. 1 Kings 17:1.

ELISHA'S CUTTING REPROOF Vv. 13-14.

a Though Israel was a Theocracy it had denied the power thereof.

b Do not repel me. Elisha's bitter taunts made Jehoram feel his irreligion.

c As a servant. 1 Kings 18:46 note.

16 This language was in the true spirit of Elijah. The very tones of the old master are heard in the new disciple.

THE PROMISED MIRACLE Vv 15-20.

In the arid dismal part of Edom with the armies brought to an extremity of distress and the Kings humbled by disaster the prophet calmed his mind with the strains of the harp, putting his mind into communion with the Father.

17 Lit "a harper." Music played a big part in the religious exercises of the prophets. 1 Sam. 10:5-6. 1 Chr. 25:1. Elisha's mind was agitated by the no water for the host, and for the cattle that [2] followed them.

10 And the king of Israel said, [a] Alas! that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab!

11 But [b] Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may enquire of the LORD by him? And [d] one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, [e] which poured water on the hands of Elijah.

12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

13 And Elisha said unto the king of Israel, [f] What have I to do with thee? [g] get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said unto him, Nay: [h] for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab.

14 And Elisha said, [i] As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I [k] regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee, nor see thee.

15 But now bring me [l] a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that [m] the hand of the LORD came upon him.

16 And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley full of [p] ditches.

17 For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattle, and your beasts.

18 And this is but [r] a light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand.

19 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and [s] mar every good piece of land with stones.

20 And it came to pass in the morning, when [t] the meat offering was offered, that, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

21 ¶ And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they 'gathered all that were able to [u] put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border.

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood:

23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely [v] slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but [w] they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.

25 And they beat down the cities, and [m] on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: [x] only in Kir-haraseth left they the stones thereof; howbeit the slingers went about it, and smote it.

26 ¶ And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men [q] that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27 Then he took his eldest son that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

2 Thess. 2:11.

26 The early morning sun, reflected from the red hills of Edom, The red light reflected from the red hills seemed like blood in the stagnant pools dug by the army.

27 There was no movement in the Israelitish army. The people were at their religious devotions. The water was unexpected, its color a deception. There was only one explanation left — the three kings had fallen out. Mutual destruction had given Moab an easy victory. Giving thanks to Chemosh, they rushed to the spoil.

J.F. Jehoshaphat was rebuked by Jehu the prophet for joining alliance with Ahab 2 Chr 19:2 but either ignored or overlooked it. He was possibly influenced by Jehoram's attitude towards Baal worship. See V.2.

NOW there cried [1] a certain woman of the wives [2] of the sons of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the LORD: and [h] the creditor is come to take unto him my two sons to be bondmen.

2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil.

3 Then he said, Go, [k] borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels; [4] borrow not a few.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.

MESHA'S MOABITE STONE Ch. 3:4 See ch. 1:2, 16. 2 Kings 3:9. "fetched a compass"

It claims: ● That Moab recovered from the blow dealt by David 2 Sam. 8:2, 12. ● That Omri reconquered the state & that it remained subject to Israel throughout the reign of Omri, Ahab & into the reign of Ahaziah. ● That the independence was secured by war in which Mesha took many towns of the Israelites at Baal-Meon Num 32:38, Kirjathaim V.37, Ataroth V.34, Nebo V.38, Jahaz Josh. 13:18 etc. ● That the Moabites recognised Yahweh as the God of Israel ● That there was a sanctuary to Yahweh at Nebo, where "Ariels" were used in His service.

The readiest way was across the Jordan by Jericho. But Edom had resumed its dependence on Judah although a year before it had been in alliance with Moab 2 Chr 20:22. The kings of Edom was a deputy 1 Kg 22:47. The "compass" involved Edom in the war.

The faith of the woman is tried further and an important lesson taught.

19 And he said unto his father, My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.

26 She had doubtless heard how Elijah had raised the widow's son of Zarephath to life 1 Kings 17:22. She realised her only hope was in Yahweh and acted accordingly.

21 And she went up, and laid him on [g] the bed of [h] the man of God, and shut [i] the door upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to [h] the man of God, and come again.

TO ELISHA FOR HELP Vv 23-25.
27 He did not realise his son was dead, and the woman did not want to waste time in explanation — nor did she want to harass her husband's feelings until the [3] had tried the one recourse open to them.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither [j] new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be well.

24 Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive and go forward; [k] slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee.

25 So she went and came unto the man of God to [l] mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her [m] afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that [n] Shunammite:

26 Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she answered, It is well.

27 And when she came to the man of God to [o] the hill, she [p] caught [q] him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. [r] And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is [s] vexed within her: and the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me.

28 Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? [t] did I not say, Do not deceive me?

29 Then he said to Gehazi, [u] Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, [v] salute him not; and if any salute thee, answer him not again: and [w] lay my staff upon the face of the child.

30 And the mother of the child said, [x] As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

31 And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor [y] hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not [z] awaked.

32 And when Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and [a] prayed unto the LORD.

34 And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he [b] stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child waxed warm.

35 Then he returned, and walked in the house [c] to and fro; and went up, and [b] stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

36 And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this [d] Shunammite. So he called her. And when she was come in unto him, he said, Take up thy son.

37 Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and [e] took up her son, and went out.

She had been reluctant to express her mind for the satisfying of it seemed so impossible, and she had "learned to be content." 35 She sees hope only in the presence of Elisha and insists on him coming to the scene of tragedy. So Gehazi speeded ahead, the prophet and the woman, with hearts filled with anxiety and minds puzzled with the meaning of it all, came more slowly behind.

38 He had no power in himself and earnestly besought Divine aid.
39 He also tried natural means hoping Yahweh might work through them. The warmth of his body was transmitted to that of the dead child. By blowing into his mouth, he tried to inflate the lungs thus he probably tried a means of artificial respiration using every means in his power to restore life whilst praying for Divine aid.
40 In order to recover the natural warmth which had been absorbed by the cold body of the child. He walked to

1 Naaman is sent to Samaria to be cured of his leprosy. 8 Elisha, sending him to Jordan, cureth him. 15 He refuseth Naaman's gifts. 20 Gehazi, abusing his master's name unto Naaman, is smitten with leprosy.

NOW Naaman, [r] captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man [1] with his master, and [2] honourable, because by him the LORD had given [3] deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by [c] companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she [3] waited on Naaman's wife.

3 And she said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were [4] with the prophet that is in Samaria! for he would [5] recover him of his leprosy.

4 And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel.

5 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And he departed, and [e] took [6] with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten [f] changes of raiment.

6 And he brought the letter to [g] the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy.

7 And it came to pass, when [g] the king of Israel had read the letter, that [h] he rent his clothes, and said, [i] Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore [9] consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me.

VV 8-12.

DIRECTED TO ELISHA HE REVEALS THE FOLLY OF PRECONCEIVED NOTIONS

8 ¶ And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that [g] the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.

9 So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, [15] and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean.

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper.

12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bidden thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?

14 Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

15 And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing of thy servant.

16 But he said, As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused.

17 And Naaman said, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD.

18 In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing.

19 And he said unto him, Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.

20 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said within himself, Behold, my master hath spared this Naaman the Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him.

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw one running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well?

22 And he said, All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of raiment.

23 And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of raiment, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him.

24 And when he came to the tower, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went no whither.

26 And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants?

27 The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.

Naaman - a captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honourable, because by him the LORD had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a leper.

Cp Dan. 4:17 Naaman was the unconscious instrument of this similar to 2 Ki. 10:5.

4 This could have been in defence against Assyria or in the war with Israel (from 22:34). Syria had recently regained independence at expense of N. Israel.

5 Cp Lev. 13. Leprosy treated ceremonially by the law as symbolic of sin, but it was not so treated by the Syrians who were ignorant of its typical meaning as Gentiles were ignorant of the true significance of sin. Nevertheless he recognised the danger of his condition. It humbled him in spite of his greatness making him pliable to the maid's suggestion.

There is nothing within the entire range of human phenomena which illustrates so impressively the divine power of the Redeemer, and the nature and extent of his work of mercy on man's behalf as this leprosy. There are many most striking analogies between it and that more deadly leprosy of sin which has involved our whole race in one common ruin. It is feared as contagious; it is certainly and inevitably hereditary; it is loathsome and polluting; its victim is shunned by all as unclean; it is most deceitful in its action. II. KINGS 5.

Naaman is cured of his leprosy.

16 All Elisha did was designed to humble Naaman, make him realize that he was approaching the great Monarch of the Heavens, and to induce in him a proper reverence. The preaching of the gospel is designed to that end.

17 He came with preconceived notions. What "I thought" took precedence over the teaching of Yahweh and like so many who hear the gospel in like manner he turned away in disgust.

and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean. See the Law. Lev 14:7,9

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, [23] I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and [t] strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper.

12 Are not [s] Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage.

13 And his servants came near, and spake unto him, and said, [h] My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?

14 Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and [i] his flesh came again like unto the flesh of a little child, and [j] he was clean.

15 ¶ And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that there is [p] no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing of thy servant.

16 But he said, [t] As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused.

17 And Naaman said, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice unto other gods, but unto the LORD.

18 In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of [b] Rimmon to worship there, and [c] he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing.

19 And he said unto him, [d] Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.

20 ¶ But [e] Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, [g] as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him.

21 So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he [i] lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, [7] Is all well?

22 And he said, All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from [k] mount Ephraim two young men of [m] the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments.

AND [d] the sons of the prophets said unto Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too strait for us.
2 Let us go, we pray thee, unto Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye.
3 And one said, Be content, I pray thee, and go with thy servants. And he answered, I will go.
4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood.
5 But as one was felling a beam, the [7] axe head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master! for it was borrowed.
6 And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he shewed him the place. And [h] he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron did swim.
7 Therefore said he, Take it up to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it.
8 ¶ Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my [8] camp.
9 And the man of God sent unto [a] the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians are come down.
10 And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and [b] warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice.
11 Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled [9] for this thing; and he called his servants, and said unto them, Will ye not shew me which of us is for the king of Israel?
12 And one of his servants said, 'None, my lord, O king: but Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bedchamber.
13 ¶ And he said, Go and spy where he is, that I may send and fetch him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in [c] Dothan.
14 Therefore sent he thither horses, and chariots, and a [5] great host: and they came by night, and compassed the city about.
15 And when the [6] servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?
16 And he answered, Fear not: for [i] they that be with us are more than they that be with them.

HOW ANGER + BLIND VENGEANCE CAUSED JEHORAM TO ACT WITHOUT REASON.

In threatening Elisha the king acted the most puerile and ridiculous part. Men are driven under the blindness of their vengeance to do things upon which they do not consult their reason, for Reason would instantly pronounce them mad! Cp the base ingratitude in Ch. 6:21. with V. 21.

ELISHA TAKES THE ARMY CAPTIVE TO SAMARIA

22 This is irony. It is not likely that the Syrians had any further desire to take Elisha, but only to extricate themselves from their predicament. Elisha did not deceive them - he brought home to them the folly of their ways. They were forced to follow him - not as an army to approhend an enemy, but as captives doing the bidding of their master: "This is not the way, neither the city for you ..."

23 Which he did. They also worshipped the King. See Note I Kings 16:24 about 9th cent. Sth. V. 14.

As their vision cleared they found themselves to their astonishment in the power of the very one they had come to destroy.

Like most weak men Jehoram became ruthless when he had others in his power. He knew they had been sent to destroy Elisha and now offers to slay them on his behalf. See Top.

A definite benefit developed out of Elisha's kindness. The marauding bands no longer continued their excursions. Ben-hadad replied with full-scale attack.

18 And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed unto the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with [b] blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.

19 ¶ And Elisha said unto them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: [3] follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria.

20 And it came to pass, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, [c] LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.

21 And the king of Israel said unto Elisha, when he saw them, [d] My father, shall I smite them? shall I smite them?

22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive [e] with thy sword and with thy bow? [f] set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.

23 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So [m] the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

24 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that [p] Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

25 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for fourscore pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver.

The Blindness

The word appears in Scripture only here and in Gen 19:11 (Note). The word implies that a state of confusion resulted from the bright shining forth of Glory. This produced a dazed effect with mental bewilderment. The army made an initial attack on the city V. 18. As it did so Elisha prayed, a blinding light startled, confused, bewildered the people - placing them at the mercy of the prophet. Dove's Dung.

It is suggested this is kind of pulse, or bean. The Arabs have a sort of pease which they give this name because of the supposed resemblance between the two.

"I believe that the Hebrew chiryonim, or khir yonim was a name for a coarse and cheap sort of food, a kind of bean, as some think, to which this whimsical title was given on account of some fancied resemblance between the two." - Thompsons "Land and Book."

Vv. 21-22. Sense of Elisha's words would allow for the question: "Would you smite these as though you had taken them captive..?" Having not won any victory over them Jehoram had no such right. To do so would defeat the Divine purpose which was to bring home His power to those in Syria.

INTRODUCTION TO CHAPTER 7. — When the King rushed in with his bold and impious threat Ch. 6:33 it appeared that he had the upper hand. The city was on the point of extinction, people were dying on all sides, the most horrible acts were being committed. In such conditions, men who remain calm and untruffled because they possess Divine vision become the mark for attack on the part of those lacking these resources and jealous of their power of immunity. Their worship of God is mere superstitious convenience. If He exists demonstrate it by miracle. Life thus becomes a demand for more and more miracles. They forget that their repudiation of Yahweh has produced the very conditions they lament. On this occasion Elisha was able to demonstrate Yahweh's power. To the astonishment of his hearers, he was able to predict that the corn-market at the gate of Samaria would present an extremely busy scene the following day.

CHAPTER 7. — Elisha prophesieth incredible plenty.

ELISHA'S INCREDIBLE PROPHECY. VV1-2.

1 THEN Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD, [a] To morrow about this time shall a measure [2] of fine flour be sold for a shekel, [3] and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.

2 Then [4] a lord on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, [c] if the LORD would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

3 ¶ And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die? [6]

4 If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.

5 And they rose up in [f] the twilight to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians [g] to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us [h] the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7 [i] Wherefore they arose and fled in [f] the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, [5] some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household.

10 So they came and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents [6] as they were.

11 And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

12 ¶ And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.

13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, [k] five of the horses that remain, which are left [l] in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed:) and let us send and see.

14 They took therefore two chariot horses; [m] and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.

17 ¶ And the king appointed [b] the lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake [d] when the king came down to him.

THEN spake Elisha unto the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn: for the LORD [m] hath called for a famine;

TYPICAL HISTORY

The woman sojourns in the land of the Wanderers in a time of famine in Israel. The famine continues 7 years after which she returns to be presented before the King and receive her inheritance.

Edom as a separate Kingdom became a threat to Judah. In the reign of Ahaz it successfully invaded the land, took captives 2 Chr. 28:17. When the Babylonians besieged Jerusalem they urged them to destroy it. Ps. 137:7 they rejoiced at its destruction Obad 12, cut off fleeing refugees Dt. 23:14 Exodus.

and it shall also come upon the land seven years.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

3 And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house and for her land.

4 And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.

5 And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had [c] restored a dead body to life, that, behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed unto her a certain [g] officer, saying, Restore all that was her's, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.

7 ¶ And Elisha came to Damascus; and [f] Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king said unto [h] Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go, meet the man of God, and [k] enquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

11 And he 1 settled his countenance 2 stedfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.
12 And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and 1 wilt dash their children, and 1 rip up their women with child.
13 And Hazael said, But what, is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria.
14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldest surely recover.
15 And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.
16 ¶ And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah 7 began to reign.

20 ¶ In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.
21 So Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him: and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about, and the captains of the chariots: and the people fled into their tents.
22 Yet Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time.
23 And the rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
24 And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.
25 ¶ In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel did Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah begin to reign.
26 Two and twenty years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Israel.
27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab: for he was the son in law of the house of Ahab.
28 ¶ And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.

JEHU – Yahweh is He Executor of Divine Judgment and founder of 4th Dynasty in Israel. A chief captain in Jehoram's (Joram's) army. He had been present when Elijah proclaimed the Divine judgment against Ahab. 2 Kings 9:25-26. His coming elevation had been announced to Elijah. 1 Kings 19:16. He had a reputation for mad, furious driving 2 Kings 9:20. probably an indication of his ruthless, boundless enthusiasm. He seemed to have nursed the hope of reigning ever since the proclamation of Elijah, and willingly waded through blood to that end. In obeying the command of Yahweh He was commended Ch. 10:30. but his hidden motive were condemned. 10:31; 17:4. His zeal for Yahweh did not extend to establishing the pure worship in its purity. Though he destroyed Baal and Ashtoreth he retained the schismatic calf worship. 10:29-31

CHAPTER 9.

1 Jehu anointed king. 24 He killeth Joram in the field of Naboth. 27 Ahaziah is slain at Gur. 30 Jezebel is thrown down out of a window, and eaten by dogs.

AND Elisha the prophet called one of [m] the children of the prophets, and said unto him, [n] Gird up thy loins, and take this [o] box of oil in thine hand, and go to [p] Ramoth-gilead:

2 And when thou comest thither, look out there [q] Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among [r] his brethren, and carry him to an [s] inner chamber;

3 Then take the [o] box of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel. Then open the door, and flee, and tarry not.

4 ¶ So the young man, even the young man [9] [m] the prophet, went to Ramoth-gilead.

5 And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting; [t] and he said, I have an errand to thee, O captain. And Jehu said, Unto which of all us? And he said, To thee, O captain.

6 And he arose, and went into the house; [u] and he poured the oil on his head, and said unto him, Thus [v] saith the LORD God of Israel, I have anointed thee king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel.

7 And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, [c] at the hand of Jezebel.

8 For the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and [d] I will cut off from Ahab [e] him that pisseth against the wall, and [9] him that is shut up and left in Israel:

9 And I will make the house of Ahab like the house of [h] Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of [i] Baasha the son of Ahijah:

10 [k] And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the portion of [l] Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the door, and fled.

11 ¶ Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, [q] Is all well? wherefore came [r] this mad fellow to thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his [s] communication.

12 And they said, It is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I have anointed thee king over Israel.

13 Then they hasted, and [t] took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and [u] blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu [6] is king.

14 So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram had kept Ramoth-gilead, he and all Israel, because of [a] Hazael king of Syria.

15 But [b] king [7] Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians [8] had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it be your minds, then [9] let none go forth nor escape out of the city to go to tell it in [l] Jezreel.

16 So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram

3 The army remained on guard there, though the King had retired wounded.
4 He is Yahweh
5 Judgment of Yahweh
6 Drawn out, i.e. brought out. "Brought out is the Judgment of Yahweh for He is Yahweh."
7 The utmost drama and secrecy was to be observed. This was well calculated to impress the captains with the Divine credentials of the prophet.

JEHU'S COMMISSION 4-10
8 Trans = "the servant of the prophet"
9 He surprised the captains whilst they were in conclave together. They were perhaps discussing the serious state of the country. Perhaps Jehu was waiting the opportunity to conspire – for he remembered the prophecy pronouncing doom on the house of Ahab. Vv. 25-26.
They saw the roughly dressed prophet clad as in a hurry, with a wild unnatural appearance
VII. suddenly burst into the room startling the assembled officers.
10 He silently led him into the inner chamber and to the astonishment of the captains the door closed on the scene that then took place.
11 He was to act as Vice-regent for Yahweh performing His Will.

V. 29 Ramah = Elevated. Jezreel = God sows. Jezreel more accessible than Samaria. It was closer and would avoid the mountainous country of Samaria. Ahaziah to go to Jezreel would descend to Jericho & move north up Jordan valley. He descended from the Vision of Peace in every way.

Thus friendship for the house of Ahab brought these two Kings into the city Jezreel (Ez sows). "It was of God." 2 Chr. 22:7 Jehu executed the Divine Judgment on these two Kings because of their evil ways. All Judah's trouble stemmed from seeking peace where there was none. 1 Kgs 22:44; Jam. 3:17

Jehu was left with the Army on Ramoth Gilead. Ch. 8:28, 29.

JEHU'S COUP was successful as he relied on Secrecy & Surprise. V.15 Speed 17-20 21-24.

12 To the astonished gaze of the captains the door suddenly opened and without heeding them or speaking a word the prophet hastened through the house and was gone.

JEHU PROCLAIMED KING. Vv 11-13.

13 He was well known as the associate of Elisha. As to "his communication," Jehu would imply that they were in the secret. They had possibly been discussing the possibility of wresting power from Joram. A symbolic action indicating that as they put their garments under his feet so they placed everything under his authority & acknowledged that they were his servants. The readiness with which they did this argued that they were contemplating some such conspiracy.

15 Probably a landmark outside the house to see and hear.

16. Jehu was the willing tool of Yahweh seeking power for his own prestige.

17 The city had evidently been taken by the confederate army. Cp Ch. 8:28.

18 Knowledge of the elevation of Jehu had penetrated the city and the greatest secrecy was necessary to preserve the element of surprise.

JEHU'S ADVANCE ON JEZREEL Vv 16-21

19 Jehu moved swiftly to secure his position. With mind filled with the prophecies of vengeance on the house of Ahab. V.25. he ruthlessly moved to use these means to secure his own ambition.

V 14 Had Kept Ramoth-Gilead. Heb. pretence: "was keeping". Joram had retired to Jezreel because of his wounds. But the army remained on the alert at Ramoth. This was convenient for the conspiracy.

JEHU AS A TYPE - He became the Anointed of Jahweh, the King of Israel. He executed Divine vengeance on the Apostate Kings; on Jezebel the widow who declared she would see no sorrow V.10. Rev. 18:7, and effected a spiritual revolution in the land. He destroyed both Jezebel and her children. Rev. 2:20-23. The reality will be accomplished by the Lord Hos. 1:11.

20 So the Divine drama. 2 Chr. 22:7. brought these three characters together that judgment might be poured out upon the guilty house of Ahab lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah was come down to see Joram.

17 And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take an horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?

18 So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he cometh not again.

19 Then he sent out a second on horseback, which came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.

20 And the watchman told, saying, He came even unto them, and cometh not again: and the [5] driving is [v] like the driving of Jehu [h] the son of Nimshi; for he driveth [6] furiously.

21 And Joram said, [6] Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And [k] Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and [2] met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.

22 And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the [6] whoredoms of thy mother Jezebel and her [o] witchcrafts are so many?

23 And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah.

24 And Jehu [6] drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he [2] sunk down in his chariot.

25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar his [b] captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for remember how that, when I and thou rode [c] together after Ahab his father, [d] the LORD laid this [6] burden upon him;

26 Surely I have seen yesterday the [3] blood of Naboth, and the [3] blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and [d] I will requite thee in this [t] plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the [t] plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.

27 ¶ But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot. [f] And they did so at the going up to Gur, which is by [f] Ibleam. And he fled to [s] Megiddo, and died there.

28 And his servants [t] carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the city of David.

29 And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began [6] Ahaziah to reign over Judah.

30 ¶ And when Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she [m] painted her face, and tired her head, and [n] looked out at a window.

31 And as Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Had [p] Zimri peace, who slew his master?

32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three [t] eunuchs.

Cp 2 Chr. 22:9

The account in Chronicles provides additional details. Jehu followed Ahaziah only for a short distance, then commanded his followers to take up the chase. He was headed off from Jerusalem and forced to hide in Megiddo. Meanwhile (2 Chr. 22:8) Jehu turned back to Jezreel, slaughtered Jezebel, then sends to Samaria demanding the death of Ahaziah's posterity. He marches to Samaria meeting Jehonadab on the way, slays the brethren of Ahaziah. He then sought for Ahaziah who remained hidden. At last he was found at Megiddo. He was brought to Jehu at Megiddo. He was slain and carried in a chariot to Jerusalem

THE COMING OF THE ASSYRIANS 2 KINGS 17:3 : "The invasion of Shalmaneser was perhaps in his 1st year. The archives of Tyre mentions him as warring against Hiram king of Tyre. The Assyrians passed from Phoenicia into Galilee where they attacked Beth-arbel, treating the people with great severity Hos. 10:14, in order to alarm Hoshea who then submitted & became tributary. Shalmaneser then returned to Assyria. Hoshea rebelled in his 7th year sending presents to the King of Egypt Hos. 7:11. The Assyrians again attacked & overthrew Samaria in 3 years. The 10 tribes were taken into captivity & placed in cities remote to their land Ch. 17:4-6. – Condensed from Davis.

4 This was a declaration of war, and knowing the ruthless reputation of Jehu and that he was a man of energy, decision, and single-minded purpose, it filled them with fear, they had no true love for Ahab's house.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Jehu causeth seventy of Ahab's children to be beheaded. 12 He slayeth two and forty of Ahaziah's brethren. 18 By subtilty he destroyeth all the worshippers of Baal, 29 yet followeth Jeroboam's sins. 32 Hazael oppresseth Israel. 34 Jehoahaz succeedeth Jehu.

AND Ahab had seventy sons in [f] Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, [g] to the elders, and to them that brought up Ahab's children, saying, afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand?

5 And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the bringers up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, [b] We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be [c] mine, and if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time. Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up.

7 And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in [d] baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel.

8 ¶ And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate until the morning.

9 And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye be righteous: behold, [e] I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these?

Fear lay heavily on the people at the approach of the ruthless and energetic captain, a fear that was fully justified in the massacre that took place. The people suffered for their support of Ahab.

his [a] priests, until [b] he left him none remaining.

12 ¶ And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the [c] shearing house in the way,

13 Jehu [1] met with the [e] brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we go down [2] to salute the children of the king and the children of the [f] queen.

14 And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them.

15 ¶ And when he was departed thence, he [7] lighted on [g] Jehonadab the son of [h] Rechab coming to meet him: and he [i] saluted him, and said to him, Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, [j] give me thine hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot.

16 And he said, Come with me, and see [m] my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew [o] all that remained unto Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, [8] which he spake to Elijah.

18 ¶ And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, [9] Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu shall serve him much.

19 Now therefore call unto me all the [t] prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal; whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, [2] Proclaim a [c] solemn assembly for Baal. And they [d] proclaimed it.

21 And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the [f] house of Baal; and the house of Baal was [4] full from one end to another.

22 And he said unto him that was over the [k] vestry, [l] Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments.

23 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, [n] his life shall be for the life of him.

25 And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the [p] guard and to the captains, [r] Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with [9] the edge of the sword; and the [p] guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal.

26 And they brought forth the [s] images out of the house of Baal, and burned them.

27 And they brake down the image of Baal, and brake down the house of Baal, and made it [u] a draught house unto this day.

Throughout the land. Death was the penalty of non-compliance. The people had ample evidence that Jehu would carry out his threat if they disobeyed. From all parts of Israel the devotees of Baal converged on the huge temple in Samaria.

SLAUGHTER OF AHAZIAH'S RELATIONS

The actual "brethren" of Ahaziah had been carried off & slain by the Arabians 2 Chr. 21: 17; the youths here mentioned were their sons & Ahaziah's nephews 2 Chr. 22:1. Their friendship with the house of Ahab resulted in their destruction. Rev. 18:4

[3] A Lavatory. Ezra 6:11; Neh. 3:15; 3:29. For the word "draught" see Psalm 15:17

V.17. "According to the saying..." This restoration. See V.10 shows that the judgment was according to God's will, but does not endorse Jehu's motives. He was working for himself and not alone for Yahweh. Hence judgment was denounced upon his house even for "the blood of Jezreel" Hos. 1:4. See top. 516

JEHU AND SHALMANESER III (858-824 BC) The black obelisk of Shalmaneser records a succession of bloody campaigns. In the 6th, 11th & 14th years of his reign he came up against a coalition of Syrian Kings. (See Note p. 495) of Syria and Palestine. In the campaign in his 18th year however, only one king opposed him – Hazael. The second row of the relief shows a long queue of heavily laden envoys in richly ornamented tunics and peaked caps. The relevant text reads: "Tribute of Jaua of Bit-Humri: Silver, gold, a golden bowl, golden goblets, a golden beaker, pitchers of gold lead, sceptres for the King and balsam wood I received from him." "Jaua of Bit-Humri" is "Jehu of the house of Omri" (See Note "Omri Prince of Evil men" p 487)

Baal-worship never effectively took on again in Israel. To that extent the revolution was successful.

28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

JEHU'S SHORTCOMINGS

29 ¶ Howbeit from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, (a) who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, (b) the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan.

His "zeal for Yahweh" V.16 did not extend to turning completely to Him. Expediency governed his actions in spite of the fact that the curse of God had been pronounced openly against it by Yahweh's prophet 1 Kg 13:2 & attested by miracles vv 4-5. Although calf worship, however, Israel would "return to the house of David" 1 Kg 12:26-30) – thus Jehu feared.

30 And the LORD said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in mine heart, (c) thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.

31 But Jehu [b] took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, [a] which made Israel to sin.

ISRAEL OPPRESSED BY HAZAEL Vv 32-33.

32 ¶ In those days the LORD [a] began (c) to cut Israel short: and [b] Hazael smote them in all the coasts of Israel;

33 From Jordan (d) eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, [k] from Aroer, which is by the river [3] Arnon, [a] even Gilead and Bashan.

34 Now the [1] rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Jehu slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.

36 And [3] the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

10 And to the captains over hundreds did the priest give king David's spears, and shields, that were in the temple of the LORD.

11 And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, along by the altar and the temple.

12 And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, God save the king.

DEATH OF ATHALIAH vv. 13-17.

13 ¶ And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD.

14 And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: and Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, Treason.

15 But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges: and him that followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD.

16 And they laid hands on her; and she went by the way by the which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she slain.

V.5. "He commanded them" Some time elapsed between the events of these verses as chronicles records. They visited the cities of Judah to 18 And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and brake it down; his altars and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD.

19 And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.

20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword beside the king's house.

521 CHAPTER 13: In this chapter the record returns to the history of Israel, taking it from the death of Jehu Ch 10:35 and briefly sketching the reign of Jehu's son Jehoahaz and that of his grandson, Jehoash or Joash. The Syrian oppression was the great event of the reign of Jehoahaz.

A LAST OPPORTUNITY. In Israel and Judah there reigned three able sovereigns in Amaziah, Uzziah, and Jeroboam II. The weakness of surrounding nations was there opportunity. A vigorous struggle broke out to raise the nation from the depression into which it had fallen. Syria and Edom were reduced, the borders were extended, the struggle partly successful, but it was frustrated by calamities beyond human power. The kings conquered their enemies but not themselves and thus failed in the struggle for complete independence. Those whose pride makes them too eager to fight, may get enough of it in quick order. Many would have honours wealth enough, if they but knew when they had enough.

it. Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD's deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in [b] Aphek, till thou have consumed them.

18 And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground. And he smote thrice, and stayed.

19 And [c] the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times; then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but [f] thrice.

20 ¶ And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.

21 And it came to pass, as they were burying a man, that, behold, they spied a band of men; and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha: and when the man [g] was let down, and touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

22 ¶ But [k] Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz.

23 [l] And the LORD was gracious unto them, and had compassion on them, and [m] had respect unto them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his [n] presence as yet.

24 So Hazael king of Syria died; and Ben-hadad his son reigned in his stead.

25 And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz [o] took again out of the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael the cities, which he had taken out of the hand of the strength of Israel and its borders beyond the Jordan.

2 He was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, yet not like David his father: he did according to all things as Joash his father did.

4 Howbeit the high places were not taken away: as yet the people did sacrifice and burnt incense on the high places.

5 ¶ And it came to pass, as soon as the kingdom was confirmed in his hand, that he slew his servants which had slain the king his father.

6 But the children of the murderers he slew not: according unto that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, wherein the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to death for his own sin.

7 [r] He slew of Edom in the valley of salt ten thousand, and took Selah by war, and called the name of it [r] Joktheel unto this day.

8 ¶ Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face.

INTERNATIONAL SUCCESS. For fuller details and notes see 2 Chr. 25:5-12. Amaziah employed mercenaries out of Israel. At the rebuke of a prophet he reluctantly dismissed them. They returned incensed to their own land and from there, ravaged the northern cities of Judah. This became a bone contention and cause of war between the two kingdoms. Meanwhile Amaziah fell into idolatry after returning from Edom. He took captive & further 10,000 2 Chr. 25:12.

HE AVENGES HIS FATHER'S MURDER. Vv5-6. Acts graceful defence by his father had resulted in a conspiracy developing which brought about his death. Apparently the conspiracy was widespread and Amaziah had to wait till his power was firmly entrenched before executing punishment. Amaziah, apparently not sure of his own standing before the people, evoked the Law. This dealt with the murderers. His heart "was not perfect" and he would not have had any compunctions about slaying the children if he feared not the re-actions of the people who endorsed the murder of his father.

JEROBOAM 2 — A PERIOD OF POLITICAL STABILITY BUT SPIRITUAL APOSTACY. (HISTORICAL BACKGROUND) See Note p.31

In the period of Shalmaneser 4th, Assyria was challenged by the Kingdom of Urartu (Ararat), heir to the ancient Hittite Empire. This weakened Assyria and provided the opportunity for expansion of power by Israel and Judah under the ambitious leadership of Jeroboam and Uzziah. Jeroboam's reign lifted Israel to heights of prosperity never before attained by the divided Kingdom. It created an atmosphere of ease and security so dangerous to spiritual life. Israel wallowed in luxury, a luxury that undermined spiritual vigour, and to which archaeology testifies. See Introductory note to Hosea's prophecy.

Both Kings were flushed with military success (vv 11-14) and little disposed to give way. Amaziah's punishment was of Yahweh 2 Chr. 25:16 He had been made vainglorious by success & his fall followed Prov. 11:2; 16:18; 29:23.

Despite his power Jeroboam evidently had misgivings concerning the future. ⟵

THE PROSPERITY OF ISRAEL UNDER JEROBOAM WAS A DELUSION & A SNARE

523

Two prophets raised their voices in warning and rebuke: Hosea and Amos. Their stern harsh language revealed the true state of the nation. Hosea was a citizen of the north for he speaks of the land Ch. 1:2 and "our King" Ch. 7:5. The rough shepherd Amos was from Judah. He beheld with indignation the soft luxury and abandoned life in the northern Kingdom. He gives a frightful picture of an apostate, licentious and decadent Israel:

"lying on ivory beds, stretching on couches
Eating lamb from the flock and calves from the stall.
Singing their wanton songs to harps
such as David contrived,
Drinking wine by the bowlful soothed with fine lotions.
They feel no smart though their nation be broken."
Amos 6:4-6.

See Appendix p. 14 for conditions as described by Hosea and Amos.

A WEAKENED ASSYRIA PROVIDES A FALSE SENSE SECURITY TO JUDAH AND ISRAEL. "... the contemporary Assyrian records from the 14th year of Amaziah (B.C. 843) to the 35th Uzziah (B.C. 772), are a blank. According to Willis J. Beecher this is a period of 61 years during which the only Assyrian records are those of the 10 years reign of Shalmaneser III (IV), a net blank of 51 years between the two Assyrian Kings, Rammân-nirâri III and Asshur-dân III. The Assyrian Records omit these 51 years, consequently we must either omit 51 years of the history contained in the Biblical Record, or else add 51 years to the Assyrian Record, for the events of the Biblical and Assyrian Records synchronise both before and after." CONFUSION IN ISRAEL AND JUDAH

"From the 15th Jeroboam 2 when Amaziah was slain (2 Kings 14:17-22), to the 27th year of Jeroboam when Uzziah was made king instead of his father Amaziah (2 Kings 15:1). is a period of 11 years during which the throne of Judah was vacant. . . . For 15 years Uzziah and Jeroboam reigned as contemporaries. Jeroboam reigned 41 years. (2 Kings 14:23. 15:8) Jeroboam's 27th year was Uzziah's year 1. Therefore 3 years 41 was Uzziah's year 15. Then follows a gap of 22 years from the year after Jeroboam's year 41 or Uzziah's year 16 to Uzziah's years 37, both inclusive, a from Uzziah's year 15 to his year 38 both exclusive, an interregnum in the Kingdom of Israel of 22 years." (Romance Bible Chronology" - Martin Anstey) It was a period of confusion and distress. In Judah, a conspiracy had driven Amaziah from the throne. (Cp Note 2 Chr. 25:1). In Judah & Israel confusion, distress and dissatisfaction reigned. After the throne was vacant 22 years, Zachariah reigned to be murdered 6 mth later. 2 Kings 15:8 The northern Kingdom only continued for another 41 years after this.

23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two years.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

25 But Pekah the son of Remaliah, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the palace of the king's house, with Argob and Arieh, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his room.

26 And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

27 In the fifty and second year of Azariah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty years.

28 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.

29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglathpileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali, and carried them captive to Assyria.

30 And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah.

31 And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign.

33 Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.

34 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

35 Howbeit the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burnt incense still in the high places. He built the higher gate of the house of the LORD.

AHAZ OR JEHOAHAZ.

In an inscription of the Assyrian Tiglath-pileser III (744-727 B.C.) referred to as Pul 2 Kg 15:19 occurs the name of Ahaz. In an account of payment of tribute by various vassel states of Syria-Palestine occurs "Iauhazi (Jehoahaz i.e. Ahaz) of Judah" - Unger.

This was formed whilst Tiglath-pileser was conducting a campaign in Uartu. Apparently Philistia + Edom had been coerced to join + an attempt made to force Judah to do so 15:37. But Jotham Ahaz' father refused. They then attacked Judah under Ahaz 16:5) 1 Ch. 7:1-2. But Ahaz held them off + against the prophet's advice, purchased the help of Assyria. See Notes 16:5-6.

JUDAH REJECTS THE SYRIAN CONFEDERACY. Vv 36-38.

Syria tried to meet the Assyrian threat with a confederacy of Aramaean nations. Jotham stood aloof trusting in Yahweh. Ahaz stood aloof trusting in Assyria. The confederacy was publicly condemned by Isaiah Isa 8:9-12. who pointed to the only source of true help v.11. The salvation wrought in Hezekiah's time was proof of his words.

27 This antagonism flared into open war and invasion in days of Ahaz.

INVASIONS OF SYRIA AND ISRAEL. Vv 5-6

They were disastrous to Judah. Though Jerusalem was not taken, Judah was thoroughly defeated. Syria took a large number captive to Damascus. Israel destroyed a third of Judah's army 2 Chr. 28:6. The King's son and his advisers were slain. The Syrians swept through the land and occupied Elath. For the cause of the attack see note at 2 Kings 16:24. On their withdrawal Ahaz set about strengthening his defences Isa 7:3. He had heard rumours of a further invasion Isa 7:2. He was met by Isaiah and his son Shear-jashub who appealed to him to turn to Yahweh Isa 7:4. But Ahaz spurned the offer of help for he had already turned to Assyria, and he had no confidence in the God of Israel. He rejected the Sign but one was given Israel. The remnant of Judah did return in Jotham's good reign.

36 ¶ [a] Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

37 [2] In those days the LORD began to send against Judah [d] Rezin the king of Syria, and [e] Pekah the son of Remaliah.

IN the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father. See Note

4 And [g] he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and [p] on the hills, and under every green tree. - Prophets protest.

5 ¶ [q] Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but [s] could not overcome him.

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drave the Jews from Elath: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.

7 [v] So Ahaz sent messengers to [7] Tiglath-pileser king of 9 And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against [3] Damascus, and [4] took it, and carried the people of it captive to [h] Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 ¶ And king Ahaz went to [i] Damascus to meet [7] Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to [7] [k] Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof.

HOSHEA'S REIGN. He conspired against Pekah and ascended the throne with the connivance of Assyria. (See note 2 Kings 15:30) Thus he had to pay homage and tribute to the Assyrian power. Having successfully conspired against Pekah he also tried to double-cross Assyria, ignoring the warnings of the prophet (2 Kings 17:4, Isa 10:14) and brought destruction on himself and the nation. He was attacked by Shalmaneser V who died unexpectedly during the siege. Sargon (Isa 20:1) his successor continued the attack. CHAPTER 17

ISRAEL IS DESTROYED

HOSEA'S EVIL REIGN 1-2

A period of 8 years of anarchy followed the conspiracy of Hoshea against Pekah (cp Ch. 15:10 at the conclusion of which, he had introduced all opposition evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him. 3 Cp Ho 2:8-11

3 ¶ Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and gave him presents.

4 And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

5 ¶ Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.

6 ¶ In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

7 For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,

8 And walked in the statutes of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

9 And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city.

10 And they set them up images and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree:

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger:

12 For they served idols, whereof the LORD had said unto them, Ye shall not do this thing.

Sargon settled foreigners in Israel. He records: "People of the lands, prisoners my hand had captured, I settled there. My officials I placed over them as governors. I imposed tribute and tax upon them as Assyrians."

Thus by ruthless dictators the Israelites were rooted out of their land and transplanted elsewhere.

The inscriptions imply that Hoshea was incited to revolt by the action of Iau-bi'di of Hamath. Hanunu of Gaza, who had thrown off the Assyrian yoke on the death of Tiglath-Pileser also joined the coalition with the support of Egypt. The Assyrians first defeated Hamath, then Samaria, and overthrew a joint army at Gaza which was supported by Egyptians in a battle on the Egyptian border near Rapihu they were defeated, but Sargon had to intervene again later against Ashdod and Gaza which, instigated by Egypt, sought to include Palestine, Judah, Edom and Moab in an anti-Assyrian league. The failure of this coalition left the Egyptian to bring a token gift. Egypt had proved but a broken reed.

SARGON RECORDS.: After defeating Samaria! "among them I equipped 50 chariots for my royal army. .... the city of Samaria. I restored and made it more habitable than before. I brought into it people of the countries conquered by my own hands. I my official I set over them as district governor.

13 Yet the [a]LORD [c]testified against Israel, and against Judah, [b]by all the prophets, and by all [c]the seers, saying, [d]Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you [2]by my servants the prophets.

14 Notwithstanding they would not hear, but [e]hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God.

15 And they rejected [f]his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed [m]vanity, and [n]became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the LORD [o]had charged them, that they should not do like them.

16 And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even [p]two calves, and made [q]a grove, and worshipped [r]all the host of heaven, and served [s]Baal.

17 And [t]they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and [u]used divination and [v]enchantments, and [w]sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, [x]to provoke him to anger.

18 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them [y]out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah [z]only.

19 Also [a]Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the [b]statutes of Israel which they made.

20 And the LORD [c]rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and [d]delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

21 For [e]he rent Israel from the house of David; and [f]they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam [g]drave Israel from following the LORD, and [h]made them sin a great sin.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them;

23 Until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, [k]as he had said [l]by all his servants the prophets. [i]So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria unto this day.

24 ¶ [o]And the king of Assyria brought men from [p]Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from [q]Ava, and from [r]Hamath, and from [s]Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD [t]sent lions among them, which slew some of them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and, behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

24 ¶ He would be only able to teach them according to the schismatic worship of the northern Kingdom with which was blended the false worship of the nations. Nos 15:18 Jn 4:22

28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in [a] Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.

29 Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in [d] the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of [e] Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,

31 And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites [f] burnt their children in fire to [k] Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared the LORD, and [l] made unto themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in [d] the houses of the high places.

33 [m] They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations [2] whom they carried away from thence.

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, [n] whom he named Israel;

35 With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, [o] Ye shall not fear other gods, nor [p] bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But the LORD, [q] who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and [r] a stretched out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice.

37 And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment, which he wrote for you, [s] ye shall observe to do for evermore; and [t] ye shall not fear other gods.

38 And the covenant that I have made with you [t] ye shall not forget; neither [t] shall ye fear other gods.

39 But [u] the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 [w] So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

1 Hezekiah's good reign. 4 He destroyeth idolatry. 9 Samaria is carried captive for their sins. 13 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 17 Rab-shakeh, by blasphemous persuasions, solliciteth the people to revolt.

NOW it came to pass in [a] the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that [b] Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign.

2 Twenty and five years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was [c] Abi, the daughter of Zachariah.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did.

4 ¶ He removed the high places, and brake the [d] images, and cut down [e] the groves, and brake in pieces the [f] brasen serpent that Moses had made: for unto those days the children of Israel did burn incense

529 HEZEKIAH CO-REX WITH AHAZ CH 18:1

Hoshea's year 1 was Ahaz's year 12. 2 Kgs 17:1 Thus Hoshea's year 3 = Ahaz's year 14. Ahaz reigned 16 years 2 Kgs 16:2. This 3rd year of Hezekiah's accession year Ch 18:1, he was thus Co-Rex with Ahaz during the years 14, 15, 16.

At the commencement of his reign he reversed the policy of his father. It was a sudden religious coup d'etat, but preparation had been made during his 3 years co-reign doubtless through the inspiration of Isaiah and Micah Jer 26:18 The revulsion of the people was deep and widespread on death of Ahaz. He capitalized on it.

See Note. Jer 17:2

6 Such unqualified praise is given to only two other kings: Asa 1 Kgs 15:11 & Josiah 2 Kgs 22:2. All three were sons of ungodly fathers - illustrating the influence of the mothers.

7 He had already, at the beginning of his reign reopened the Temple & drawn it 2 Chr. 29:3, 17, 35 uniting together the Levites & restoring the service 2 Chr. 29:4-35.

THE SWEEPING REFORM OF HEZEKIAH apparently gained the widespread belief which penetrated even to adjacent countries, that the worship of Yahweh had been abandoned. 2 Kgs 18:22. 2 Chr. 32:22.

SENNACHERIB'S INVASION He was probably regent with his father Hezekiah renounced suzerainty of Assyria encouraged by Egypt. Cp Isa 20. Thereupon Sennacherib invaded Judea and Hezekiah was forced to pay heavy tribute. Having discovered the weakness of Judah S. next demanded unconditional surrender. Hezekiah resisted strengthened by Isaiah

V.8 PHILISTIA CONQUERED This was part of the welding of an anti-Assyrian league. The King was taken captive to Jerusalem. (See Taylor Prism) The formation of the league and resting on Egypt cited the attack of Sennacherib.

Samaria is taken.

6 A play on words:— "Nachash" = serpent. "Nehusht" = piece of brass. He to it: and he called it [2]Nehushtan. 6 BRTACH - Take refuge
Thus destroyed mere formalism, even the institutions of Moses that had lost their meaning.

5 He [a]trusted in the LORD God of Israel; [b]so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him, Bottom 531
6 For he [c]clave to the LORD, and departed not [3]from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses. Ps. 80:1

7 And [d]the LORD was with him; and he [h]prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he [i]rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.
8 He [e]smote the Philistines, even unto [4]Gaza, and the borders thereof, [f]from the tower of the watchmen to the fenced city. See Note - top right-hand corner

9 ¶ And [g]it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it.
10 And at the end of three years they took it: even in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken.
11 And the king of Assyria did carry away Israel unto Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river [5]of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:— Cp 17:6 Note
12 Because [6]they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but [k]transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them. See above

13 ¶ Now [7]in the fourteenth year of king [l]Hezekiah did [8]Sennacherib king of Assyria come up against all the fenced cities of Judah, and took them.
14 And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to [9]Lachish, saying, I have offended; return from me: that which thou puttest on me will I bear. And the king of Assyria appointed unto Hezekiah king of Judah [10]three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. 31 Talents Taylor Prism
15 And Hezekiah [m]gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house. Ahaz had done similarly. Ch 16:8 Judah's wealth at low ebb.
16 At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave [11]it to the king of Assyria. 15 Second invasion (cp 1-5) 701

17 ¶ [n]And the king of Assyria sent [12]Tartan and Rabsaris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a [o]great host against Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by [p]the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field. - En-rogel
18 And when they had called to the king, there came out to them [q]Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and [r]Shebna the [s]scribe, and Joah the son of [13]Asaph [t]the recorder. Spoiled 2 Kgs 5:1
19 And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, [u]What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? 11 Cp Prov 21:30-31
20 Thou [14]sayest, (but they are but [v]vain words,) [15]I have counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? His words were not borne out by fact. 2 Chr. 32:7-8
21 Now, behold, thou [16]trustest upon [w]the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him.
22 But if ye say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?
23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.
24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?
25 Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.
26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language in the ears of the people that are on the wall.
27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?
28 Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:
29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:
30 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.
31 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;
32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us.
33 Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?
34 Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?
35 Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?
36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.
37 Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

Assyrian monarchs had long been looking towards Philistia with covetous eyes; and now that Sargon was King of Assyria (See note top p. 527) and at war with Sabatok or Sevechus of Egypt, he had a great desire to add Philistia to his empire. About the year BC 720 he overthrew Hanun, King of Gaza, in a great battle near Raphia notwithstanding he had the help of an Egyptian contingent. Philistia, upon this, became disorganised; and it was probably before she could recover herself, that Hezekiah made his expedition. The Assyrians would certainly have regarded such a proceeding on his part with jealousy; and it may be questioned whether Hezekiah would have ventured upon it unless he was prepared to cast off the Assyrian yoke and declare himself independent. This he appears to have done about 711, when Sargon reckons Judah among the nations that were conspiring against him. — "The people of Philistia, Judah, Edom and Moab ..... were speaking treason." 19 Chief of the Captains. - Possibly a political officer - C.B.

Taylor Prism (British Museum No. 91032)

In my third campaign I marched against Hatti. The awful splendour of my lordship overwhelmed Luli, king of Sidon, and he fled far off over the sea and died (an infamous death). The fearsome nature of the weapon of the god Ashur, my lord, overwhelmed Great Sidon, Little Sidon, Bit-Zitti, Zariptu, Mahalliba, Hshu, Akzib (and) Akko, his strong walled cities, places where there were food and drinking facilities for his garrisons, and they bowed in submission at my feet. Tuba'alu (Ethbs'al) I sat on the throne to be king and imposed upon him tribute, due to my lordship, (to be rendered) annually without ceasing.

As for Menahem of Samsimuruna, Tuba'alu of Sidon, Abdili'ti of Arvad, Urumilki of Gebal (Byblos), Mitinti of Ashdod, Budu'ili of Beth-Ammon, Kammusunadbi of Moab (and) Aiarammu of Edom, all of them kings of Amurru; they brought valuable gifts, - heavy submission gifts - before me for the fourth time and kissed my feet. But as for Sidqa, king of Ashkelon, who did not bow in submission to my yoke, I deported and sent away to Assyria his ancestral gods, himself, his wife, his sons, his daughters, his brothers and the descendants of his ancestors. I set Sharrulundari, son of Rukibtu, their former king, over the people of Ashkelon and imposed on him the rendering of tribute, katre-presents for (to acknowledge) my lordship so that he now drags at the (yoke) ropes!

In the course of my campaign, I surrounded, captured and carried off the spoil of Beth-Dagon, Joppa, Banaibarqa, Azuru, cities belonging to Sidqa, who did not bow in submission at my feet quickly. The officials, nobles and people of Ekron, who had thrown Padi, their king, into iron fetters as one loyal to the treaty and obligations of Assyria, had given him up to Hezekiah, the Jew, as an enemy. On account of the offence they had committed, their heart took fright and they implored help from the kings of Egypt, bowmen, chariots of the kings of Ethiopia (Meluhha), an innumerable host, and, indeed, they came to help them. In the plain of Eltekeh, their battle array being drawn up over against me, they prepared their weapons. On the help of Ashur, my lord, I clashed and effected their defeat. Amid the battle, my own hands captured alive the Egyptian charioteers and princes, together with charioteers belonging to the Ethiopian king. I besieged and captured the town of Eltekeh and Timnah and carried off spoil from them. I drew near to Ekron and slew the officials and nobles who had committed the crime and hung their bodies on posts around the city. I counted as prisoners of war the citizens who had done hostile and abusive things. I ordered the release of the rest of them, who were not convicted of any crime or misbehaviour, against whom there was no charge. I caused Padi, their king, to come out of Jerusalem and sat him on the throne as lord over them, fixing upon him tribute to my lordship.

But as for Hezekiah, the Jew, who did not bow in submission to my yoke, forty-six of his strong walled towns and innumerable smaller villages in their neighbourhood I besieged and conquered by stamping down earth-ramps and then by bringing up battering rams, by the assault of foot-soldiers, by breaches, tunnelling and sapper operations. I made to come out from them 200,150 people, young and old, male and female, innumerable horses, mules, donkeys, camels, large and small cattle, and counted them as the spoils of war. He himself I shut up like a caged bird within Jerusalem, his royal city. I put watch-posts strictly around it and turned back to his disaster any who went out of its city gate. His towns which I had despoiled I cut off from his land, giving them to Mitinti, king of Ashdod, Padi, king of Ekron, and Silli-bel, king of Gaza, and so reduced his land. Moreover, I fixed upon him an increase in the amount to be given as katre-presents for my lordship, in addition to the former tribute, to be given annually. As for Hezekiah, the awful splendour of my lordship overwhelmed him, and the irregular and regular troops which he had brought in to strengthen Jerusalem, his royal city, and had obtained for his protection, together with 30 talents of gold, 800 talents of silver, precious stones, antimony, large blocks of red stone, ivory couches, ivory arm-chairs, elephant hide, tusks, ebony-wood, box-wood, all kinds of valuable treasures, as well as his daughters, concubines, male and female musicians he sent me later to Nineveh, my lordly city. He sent a personal messenger to deliver the tribute and make a slavish obeisance.

Chronological Difficulties.

Sennacherib began to reign B.C. 705 and this was his third expedition. It is Scripturally stated to be in 14th of Hezekiah 2 Kings 18:13 and he reigned 28 years. But it is computed that he died in year 700. On this basis many reject the chronology of the Bible, or believe there is a mistake here.

Martin Anstey (The Romance of Bible Chronology) states that Hezekiah's 14th year was B.C. 711 and answers to the 11th year of Sargon reign who reigned 17 years. He suggests that this expedition took place in 705, 6 years before Sennacherib came to the throne. As the crown prince he received the tribute of Hezekiah in the name of the King of Assyria

George Smith says: "Sennacherib held some official rank during his father's reign, and it is quite possible that he commanded the expedition in B.C. 711 as his father's deputy. In the Tablet K2169, Sennacherib is called 'Rabsaki' (Rabshakeh) or General, and 'great royal son,' that is, heir to the throne: and is said to possess his own scribe. The passage reads:

"Tablet of Ala-suzubu-ilith the Scribe of the Rabsaki, of Sennacherib, the great royal son of Sargon, King of Assyria."

SENNACHERIB'S ATTACK

At the time Sargon was killed in the land of Tabal, Merodach-baladin established himself as King of Babylon and organised a coalition of revolt against Assyria.

He was disciplined by Sennacherib who the conducted a campaign against the rebellious states to the south west.

Crushing Tyre many states defected from the confederacy. Ashkelon, Ekron & Judah refused to capitulate.

S. overwhelmed Ashkelon. The Philistines had made an alliance with Shabaka, who sent Egyptian-Ethiopian troops to resist him. They were defeated at Eltekeh (North of Ekron - west of Timnath. He then took Lachish about 15 m. south-West thereof

Note. Samaria fell in the reign of Sargon II, his son Sennacherib leading the army as his father's representative and with his authority. He is referred to as Sargon's tartan in Isa. 20:1. Sargon took Samaria B.C. 722 2 Kg 18:10. which was 6th Hezekiah. Sargon reigned 722-705, and therefore was the ruling monarch during the period of Sennacherib's attack. The inscriptions reveal that he attacked Merodach Baladan and that the death of Sennacherib occurred 681. His death, therefore, was sometime after his defeat outside of Jerusalem. See Index p.1 for suggested two invasions of Sennacherib. First about 701 B.C. second during the reign of Tirhakah of Egypt 18:21; 19:9. about 688 B.C.

THE GLORY OF SENNACHERIB. He was the eldest son of Sargon, and succeeded his father without interregnum or difficulty, in the summer of 705 B.C. Born to the purple and bred up as Crown Prince, his primary characteristic was an overweening pride and arrogance which shows itself in all his inscriptions. He calls himself "the great King, the powerful King, the King of the Assyrians, of the nations, of the four regions, the diligent ruler, the favorite of the Great Gods, the observer of sworn faith, the guardian of law, the establisher of monuments, the noble hero, the strong warrior, the first of Kings, the punisher of unbelievers, the destroyer of wicked men." He was mighty both in war and peace. His warlike glories are attested by Herodotus, by Polyhistor, by Abydenus, by Demetrius, and by his own 20 He had evidently been deposed from his previous position. Cp Notes Isa 22:15-19.

18:19. Hezekiah. Notice the arrogant rudeness of Rab-shakeh. He omits any title to the King. Cp 22, 29, 30, 31, 32.

Rab-shakeh inciteth the people to revolt.

18 But when he called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

19 And Rab-shakeh said unto them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this wherein thou trustest?

20 Thou sayest, (but they are but vain words,) I have counsel and strength for war. Now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

21 Now, behold, thou trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him.

22 But if ye say unto me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem? A. 123.

23 Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

24 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? Isa 31:1-3.

25 Am I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

26 Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, unto Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews' language in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

27 But Rab-shakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

28 Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spake, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:

29 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:

30 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

31 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern:

32 Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us.

33 Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand?

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

37 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

SENNACHERIB (Cont.) annals. His peaceful triumphs are witnessed to by the great palace which he erected at Nineveh and the magnificent series of sculptured slabs with which he adorned it, by his canals and aqueducts, his gate towers and embankments, his Bavian sculpture and his stele at the Nahr-el-Kelb. He was a worthy successor of his father Sargon, and of the second Tiglath-pileser active in his military enterprises, indefatigable, persevering, full of resource. No more energetic soldier ever found himself at the head of a huge army eager for battle; no more vigorous administrator ever commanded the resources of a vast empire. -Robinson

CH. 18:6 "He clave to Yahweh": The term used for marriage union. Gen. 2:24. Cp Deut. 10:20; Josh. 23:8; Acts 11:23. Even Asa, through weakness of faith, sought the help of Benhadad 2 Chr. 16:7 and Jehoshaphat joined in alliance with the idolatrous Ahab 2 Chr. 18:1; 1 Kings 22:2 but Hezekiah clave to Yahweh with entire confidence & unreserved obedience throughout his life. It was manifest in his loving obedience.

HEZEKIAH VERSUS SENNACHERIB. — The warlike aspect of Hezekiah seriously threatened the plans of the Assyrian. Sennacherib's main objective was Egypt but the revolt of Hezekiah meant that he would have an enemy in his rear capable of cutting off his communications with his country. He therefore decided to overthrow the city.

TIRHAKEH His name appears as Taharka in the Egyptian records. At the time an Ethiopian dynasty was ruling Egypt in the person of Shabaka the uncle of Tirhakeh who, however, led the army. At the time of Hezekiah's revolt against Ekarhaddon, he was defeated 3 yrs later (670 BC). He may have been regent. He ultimately became Pharaoh, and initially ruled when 25th Dynasty took over under Psamtik I (Ungers Dictionary). expelled from Memphis. He maintained himself in Upper Egypt until his decease in 663.

ISAIAH: Hosea + Micah, perhaps others, contemporary. But Isaiah more accessible.

HE CALLS FOR ISAIAH'S HELP. V.2-5. ISA 37:2-5.

Isaiah's fame and influence were great in Israel. The King and priests combine with the prophet to invoke Yahweh's aid. All three offices are combined in the Lord Jesus who will supervise the overthrow of the anti-typical Sennacherib. Isaiah as a type of Christ acts on behalf of both King and Priests.

3 He had been elevated over Shebna. See notes Isa. 22.

4 Yahweh had been insulted - which is cause for mourning on the part of His priests and all who respect and love Him. Tow'kachath = punishment chastisement. They looked upon their reverses as punishment for their sins.

26 The Assyrians have undoubted power.

Sennacherib (See Taylor Prism) records that he defeated a combined force of Egyptians + Ethiopians at Elteke 5m. south west of Gezer. This could account for him describing Egypt as a broken reed Ch. 18:21. Perdeaux (Connexion Vol. 1 pp 141) and Herodotus speak of him being turned back from Egypt defeated. The former states through the intervention of Tirhakah, the latter through a plague of mice.

Possible sequence. Invasion of West. Defeated Samaria and Syria etc. Overthrow of Egyptian confederation. Tribute paid by Hezekiah. Siege of Lachish. Demand on Hezekiah.

Troublous tidings relating to Tirhakah. Letter to Hezekiah. Reverse for Sennacherib. He retires to Assyria.

Tirhakah was Ethiopian by birth, but later became ruler of Egypt by conquest. He was later defeated by Esarhaddon, son of Sennacherib who is shown on a stele leading Tirhakah captive with cords. But see Index p1.

19 Assyrian success only attained because their adversaries have not access to One like Yahweh. The Assyrians destroyed the gods of conquered nations to demonstrate their might over what was the object of greatest power to their enemies.

TESTIMONY OF HISTORY

"Whatever the agency employed in this remarkable destruction - whether it was caused by a simoon, or a pestilence, or by a direct visitation of the Almighty, as different writers have explained it, the event is certain. Its truth is written in the undeniable facts of later history, which show us a sudden cessation of Assyrian attack in this quarter, the kingdom of Judea saved from absorption, and the countries on the banks of the Nile, left absolutely unobstructed by Assyria for the third part of a century."

1 Hezekiah by prayer hath his life lengthened.
8 The sun goeth ten degrees backward for a sign of that promise. 14 Isaiah foretelleth the Babylonian captivity. 21 Hezekiah dieth, and is succeeded by Manasseh.

IN h those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, 2 Set thine house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then he turned his face 1 to the wall, and prayed unto the LORD, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O LORD, 3 remember now how I have walked before thee in truth and with k a perfect heart, and l have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept m sore.

4 And it came to pass, afore Isaiah was gone out into the middle (3) court, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying,

5 Turn again, and tell Hezekiah 4 the captain of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD.

6 And I will add unto thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and (f) I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. 5 = purpose.

7 And a Isaiah said, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on 6 the boil, and he recovered.

8 ¶ And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day?

9 And Isaiah said, This sign shalt thou have of the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he hath spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees? 7 Lit. steps

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for 8 the shadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the shadow return backward ten degrees.

Beresus as quoted by Eusebius states that Merodach-Baladan grasped power from the Assyrian Viceroy. He manifested great hostility towards Nineveh, seeking Allies to assist him in his anti-Assyrian campaign. This insurrection was ultimately crushed by Sennacherib who placed his son Assordan (Esarhaddon) on throne.

15. He had heard of the successful resistance of Hezekiah and sought him as an ally. Cp 2 Chron 32:31. This occurred in the interregum between 2 Kings 19:36-37.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Manasseh's reign. 3 His great idolatry. 10 His wickedness causeth prophecies against Judah. 19 Amon's wicked reign. 23 He being slain by his servants, and those murderers slain by the people, Josiah is made king.

MANASSEH [v] was twelve years old when he began to reign, and reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hephzibah. 4 of Jerusalem accord. Josephus

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, [b] after the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he built up again 6 the high places [b] which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, [c] as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped [d] all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 And [e] he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, [f] In Jerusalem will I put my name. 2 Ch 6:4-6 & Ch 33:4

5 And he built altars for [d] all the host of heaven in [h] the two courts of the house of the LORD.

6 And [i] he made his son [k] pass through the fire, and [l] observed times, and [l] used enchantments, and dealt with [m] familiar spirits and wizards: he wrought much wickedness in the sight of the LORD, to [o] provoke him to anger. Gave position of authority

7 And he set a graven image of the grove that he had made in the house, of which the LORD said to David, and to Solomon his son, [q] In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 [s] Neither will I make the feet of Israel move any more out of the land which I gave their fathers; only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them. → See bottom of next page

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasseh seduced them to do more evil than did the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake by his servants the prophets, saying,

11 [z] Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, [a] and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and [e] hath made Judah also to sin with his [d] idols: Filthy idols Cp. Lev 26:30

5 His folly was in seeking gods whose weakness evident in sight Yahweh's power for he had destroyed them. He was probably influenced in this course by his advisers (Cp 2 Chr 24:17-0) who adhered to policy of Ahaz exciting in him a fanatical hatred of the Truth, and politically seeking alliances with foreign powers. MANASSEH'S APOSTASY. – The polytheism of surrounding nations was encouraged to an unprecedented extent with all their vile rites. The idolatrous furnace of Tophet was rebuilt on an enlarged scale Jer. 7:31. 19:5-6. 32:35. and he sacrificed his own child 2 Chr. 33: 6. 14 The power of Assyria under Esarhaddon son of Sennacherib asserted itself at this time and reversing the policy of his father Manas- seh capitulated and paid tribute. His name is mentioned as doing so in the inscriptions of Esarhaddon (not 2 Kgs 19:37. Isa 37:38. Esra 4:2) and Ashur- banipal. This however, was but the beginning of trouble

12 Therefore thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, [a] both his ears shall tingle.

13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem [b] the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab: and I will wipe Jeru- salem as a man wipeth a dish, [2] wiping it, and turning it upside down.

14 And I will forsake the rem- nant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies;

15 Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have [d] provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day. See Above & Index

16 [e] Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem [4] from one end to another; beside his sin [g] wherewith he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

17 ¶ Now [f] the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Cp 2 Chr 33:18-20

2 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

3 ¶ And the king stood by [a]a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, [b]to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant.

KINGSH Jeremiah received great help from various members of Shaphan's family and entrusted with this member a letter to the exiles in Babylon which was not calculated to increase the popularity of the bearer - for it called upon the captives to establish themselves in Babylon for they would be there some time Jer. 29:5
JAAZANIAH - The black sheep of the family. A man of prominence who used his position and status for evil for he was a leader of idolatry in times Zedekiah, Ezek 8:11.
MICAIAH. - Son of Gemariah. To him Baruch read the scroll of Jeremiah and he reported its contents to elders. Jer. 36:11-13.
GEDALIAH Honored by Nebuchadnezzar and made governor after the captivity. 2 Kings 25:22 He was son of Ahikam. He received Jeremiah out of prison and cared for him Jer. 39:14. He set up his residence at Mizpeh and called upon the people to serve the Chaldeans.

MANASSEH'S SIN AND REPENTANCE. 2 Chr. 33:1-20.
Manasseh was the son of Hezekiah and Hephzibah. He was born when his father was 29 years old and reigned 55 years. He was the most wicked king of Judah. He undid all the good his father had done. He was a cruel man and shed much innocent blood. He was carried captive to Babylon where he repented and was restored to his kingdom. He died at the age of 67 and was buried in the garden of his own house.

AMON'S SIN. 2 Chr. 33:21-25.
Amon was the son of Manasseh and Meshullemeth. He was born when his father was 42 years old and reigned 2 years. He was a wicked king and did not repent. He was killed by his own servants and was buried in the garden of his own house.

JOSIAH'S BIRTH AND EARLY YEARS. 2 Chr. 34:1-7.
Josiah was the son of Amon and Jedidah. He was born when his father was 22 years old and reigned 31 years. He was a good king and did much to restore the worship of God. He was killed in battle at the age of 39 and was buried in the garden of his own house.

JOSIAH'S REFORMS. 2 Chr. 34:8-33.
Josiah began to reign in the eighth year of his reign. He began to seek the God of his father David. He began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, the groves, the graven images, and the molten images. He broke down the altars of Baal in his presence. He cut down the images that were on high above them. He broke in pieces the groves, and the graven images, and made dust of them, and strewed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them. He burned the bones of the priests upon their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem.

JOSIAH'S DEATH. 2 Chr. 35:20-27.
Josiah was killed in battle at Megiddo. He was shot by archers and was carried in his second chariot to Jerusalem, and died, and was buried in the sepulchres of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for him. Jeremiah lamented for Josiah.

RISE OF BABYLON

After the death of Ashurbanipal (632 B.C.), the Assyrian hold over Babylonia gradually weakened until in 626 B.C. the Babylonians proclaimed their independence under Nabopolassar, the founder of a strong native Chaldean Dynasty.

Nineveh was finally destroyed by the Medes + Babylonians and the last king of Assyria, Ashurubalit established his throne in Harran. He was driven from Harran and evidently found refuge in Carchemish with Necho. Nineveh had fallen in 612 by combination of Medes + Babylonians. Ashurubalit reigned in Harran a few years but was eventually driven Westward by the Empire to an end Zeph. 2:11-15 Nahum 3:1-3 and was divided between the Medes + Babylonians.

NECHO II AIDS ASSYRIA

Nabopolassar + his son Nebuchadnezzar had been prominent in the attack on Assyria. Necho had been resisted by help of Assyria 2 Kgs 23:29; 2 Chr. 35:21. He was Josiah on the plain of Megiddo. 2 Kings 23:30. He evidently allowed Necho to traverse Judah to battle him up in the narrow Pass of Megiddo. Judah's king was a refuge in the case of defeat. He was mortally wounded + died on the return to Jerusalem.

Necho was defeated at Haran and retreated to Carchemish. Euphrates by Nebuchadnezzar (Babylonian Chronicle confirms quarters of Ribleh, Scripture - see Documents from O.T. Times, p. 80). See reference to Jehoahaz p.S.

Zedekiah's Rebellion 2 Kings 24:1-20

He remained a loyal vassal for 8 years 605 Apries (Hophra) succeeded Necho and to Pharaoh II (594-589). Necho died to Pharaoh II (594-589). Zedekiah's rebellion synchronized with elevation of Apries (Hophra)

When challenged N's control along the Mediterranean heralded a revolt of Egypt against Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar was compelled to attack this time when Necho succeeded his father Psammetichus. Jehoiakim shelved Egypt to withdraw he must fear the threat of Apries army coming to the support of Zedekiah Jer. 37:5, 7-9

30 So he exercised an influence for good even in death. Meanwhile the corpse had been taken away by the Assyrians. Nah. 1:14.

31 The fury of his reforming zeal extended to the north where his political influence must have penetrated. This extended to the limits of the Northern Kingdom. 2 Chr. 34:6. The invasions of the Scythians, the rising power of Babylonia and Medes weakened Assyria permitting Josiah greater independence.

32 By slaying them upon their own altars he indicated that the worship of such could only result in death. The nation was heading towards a similar sacrifice. Zeph. 1:8.

WORK OF REFORM CONTINUED. V 24.

35 Cp Ch 18:5. and note the difference. Hezekiah looked beyond the Law 2 Chr. 30:18. He relied not upon mere formalism 2 Chr. 30:22. Josiah's adherance to the Law was ceremoniously more correct, but accomplished much less in actual conversion of the next verse and prophecies of Jeremiah and Zephaniah show. The very fury of his work was as the thunders of the Law condemning and destroying whereas Hezekiah converted. Thus though Zephaniah excluded the King whose integrity is undoubted, he condemned and indicted the rest of the nation. Cp. Zeph. 1:8.
36 Because in spite of all the fury of reforming zeal the hearts of the people were largely untouched. The reform was too late!! Cp Jer. 3:10

THE LESSON OF JOSIAH'S REFORM. - It was a warning to the people that they must look beyond the law of Moses which would only condemn (v.25). Mere external reform with emphasis on formalism was not enough in the absence of the heart. In similar manner the excitement of Revivals will not save today apart from the Word. This was the burden of the prophets' message. Matt. 6:6-9. Psa 51:17. 69:31. Prov. 21:3. Hos. 6:6. Isa. 66:1-2.

V.20 They were stirring times. The Most High was ruling in the nations to bring about the judgement on Judah. The great Assyrian empire (Herod. 1,103-106 had weakened nations). Nineveh had fallen, Babylon was rising & the Medes had gained independence - were asserting themselves.

JERUSALEM BESIEGED 10 Apparently at the first attack of the Babylonian army, Jehoiachin & his mother "humbled themselves" and capitulated - city spared. Jer 13:18, 22:26. What was the cause of the attack? Apparently Nebuchadrezzar had permitted Jehoiachin to reign after the death and in his father. JERUSALEM BESIEGED Apparently at the first onslaught of the Babylonian army, Jehoiachin & his mother "humbled themselves" and capitulated. Jer. 13:18, 22:26.
What was the cause of the attack? Apparently Nebuchadnezzar had permitted Jehoiachin to reign after the death of his father. Perhaps the son was intriguing with Egypt (V.7) or Nebuchadnezzar suspected of him of it. Perhaps that is why V.7 is placed where it is. Cp Jer. 20:4. See Introd. to Ezekiel.
10 Cp Dan. 1:2. The vengeance of Yahweh slumbered against Babylon for this act of desecration. Jer 50:28, 27:19-22.

THE NEED OF THE GENEALOGIES. The preservation of the trunk and main branches of Israel's tree, the tree destined to produce Messiah became vital after the exile (when Chronicles was written. 2 Chron. 36:22) Families had been uprooted, connections broken, records lost (e.g. Ezra 2:59). These lists bridge the period (Ps Ch. 9:2-34). Preeminence is given to Judah because it had become pre-eminent among the tribes.

Ch. 1. Adam to Jacob.
Ch. 2. Jacob to Judah to Jesse. The house of Caleb - Chief in Judah is traced, but is superceded by that of David
Ch. 3 David to Zedekiah
Chs 4-8 The rest of tribes, their allotments, etc.

WORDS of the DAYS: See bottom 550

Comprising extracts from records by divine direction. DABARI - plural of DABAR in this connection signifies "matters," "acts," or "history" rather than "words." It incorporates "things omitted" providing different viewpoints of things recorded elsewhere, or suggestive additions.

DESCENDANTS OF NOAH 1:1-27
1 The branches are given first and the main trunk taken up later: by this means the continuity of the line is better kept in view. As in the case of Seth a younger son is again given preference over the natural firstborn illustrating the intention of Yahweh towards his son. Ps A 89:27.
2 See Margin. The Hebrew Daleth ד and Resh ר are very similar and easily mistaken.
3 Cain & Abel omitted. The chronicler being intent upon showing the preservation of the true line of descent
Ch 2:26 Caleb-Ephrathah.
If a place in the land is meant, perhaps Hezron, like Jacob & Joseph arranged for his burial to be there and he was taken out of Egypt. Ps Acts 7:15-16

THE CROWDED CEMETERY OF HISTORY
There lie Kings and commoners, wise men and fools, heroes or cowards. Their lives a record of faithful service or missed opportunity. What they meant in life now means little - but what the future holds out for them means all. The centuries come and go, but through them all the purpose of Yahweh is Replete

25 Summary of David's Reign. His Death . . 29:26-30

The principle of Divine Selection in the line leading to Messiah, and preserving alive the covenants of promise is here clearly set forth. The mighty and powerful are passed over by Yahweh when necessary for those who more adequately suited His purpose. It is remarkable how frequently younger sons received the pre-eminence over the natural firstborn as though as to remind humanity that the first Adam is to be superceded by the second. 1 Cor. 15:45.

Sons of Shem V.17.
In Gen 11:10-26 = 10:21-32. the 9 sons are really 5 sons + 4 grandsons, Uz, Hul, Gether + Meshech being descendants of Aram, the last named son of Shem.

AUTHOR: The style is said to be identical with that of Ezra, and that he compiled it with the aid of reliable sources being inspired in the selection and recording.

Isaiah wrote a history of the Kings of Judah + Israel 2 Chr. 32:32; 27:7 & reference is made to a Midrash (or Commentary) on this 2 Chr. 24:27.

PURPOSE: Although Chronicles repeats the history of the past, it does so from a different standpoint. Whatever bears on the Temple — its preservation + restoration, the purity of its worship, the regularity and orderliness of its services, whatever moves idolatrous rites hateful, or elevates Yahweh to His proper throne in the hearts of His people is here emphasised.

For example Chpt. 11-29 are occupied with the reign of David, but many of his early adventures, his sin + Absalom's revolt are omitted whilst attention is given to his abundant preparation of material for the Temple (Ch. 22); his preparatory numbering + distributing of the Levites + priests (Chpt. 23-24), his arrangement of singers, musicians + porters are included. They are all in anticipation of the Temple.

2 CHRONICLES. The same selection of material relating to the Temple persists in 2 Chronicles. The account of Solomon's reign is shorter here than in Kings yet no less than 6 of the 9 chapters are given to the Temple. Only brief mention is made of the national division + then the record concentrates on Judah + Jerusalem, the Temple city. Moreover all political, military + personal facts are subordinated to its interests or to that of its worship.

UNIFORCATION WITH EZRA: Even the genealogies serve this purpose for they lead up to the returned remnant in the land as a basis for Temple service Ch. 9:1-3

Chronicles were written after the return 2 Ch. 36:22-23 and the first work was the restoration of Temple service Cp 1 Ch. 9:10-34. This was essential for it was to comprise the Government in the land. The Throne was over-Throne until he come whose right it is Ezek. 21:25-27 and orderly life now depended upon the rule of God in the nation.

It was important therefore that the Temple be first restored on the Return, and afterwards the city. Haggai indicted the people because they attempted to reverse this order Hag. 1:2-6. That is the order in which we should build today.

To help them they had a threefold motivation.

- The history of the past which clearly showed the cause of apostacy + its frightful consequences. — supplied by the record of Chronicles.
- The prophetic promise of the future based upon restored Throne of David. Though overthrown the line of David was still alive in their midst with the hope of the Messiah to come.
- The evidence of Yahweh's goodness with them in the present — indicated by the decree of Cyrus and the restoration Ezra 1:1-4

1 Chronicles provides the necessary link:

- It retains the nation's principal genealogies + illustrates the Divine call + overshadowing therein Chpt. 1-9
- It recasts the nation's history from a religious viewpoint showing it to be a theocracy based upon the Davidic line Chpt. 10-2
- It illustrates the great link between the Davidic Throne + the Temple by recording the vast preparations David made for it Chpt. 22-29. The Temple + its worship were the great unifying principles between the people + Yahweh awaiting the restoration of the Throne.

Whereas Samuel + Kings comprise an indictment on the nation; Chronicles comprise an incitement encouraging more loyalty. Chronicles are linked with Ezra, Nehemiah + Esther.

1 Chronicles	Retrospection
2 Chronicles	Anticipation Cp 36:21-23.
Ezra	Restoration
Nehemiah	Reconstruction
Esther	Preservation.

THEME: 1 CHRONICLES: THE DIVINE THEOCRACY: "Thou reignest over all." 1 Chron 29:12.

Emphasis given to God's people, King, Throne, Worship + Temple.

- The people of Yahweh 1-9
- The Anointed of Yahweh 10-12
- The Ark of Yahweh 13-16.
- The Covenant of Yahweh 17-21
- The Temple of Yahweh 22-29.

The Divine hand in human history is more clearly revealed for a people about to be restored.

For example 1 Sam. 31 merely records that the Philistines slew Saul 1 Chr. 10:1-14 it is clearly revealed as Yahweh's judgment.

- In Samuel only one chapter 2 Sam. 6 is devoted to an account of the removal of the Ark to Jerusalem, but in Chronicles three 1 Chr. 13, 15, 16 and the reason why Yahweh slew Uzziah + David's confession are recorded.
- In Samuel David's sin is recorded in length, but entirely omitted in Chronicles — when Yahweh forgives it is blotted out. 25.
- There is a reference to David's numbering of the people — but only because of its relationship to the site of the future temple
- In relation to this sin Chronicles reveals God's part in it not so clearly shown in Samuel.
- There are other additional items so that the Sept. gives Chronicles the Title of PRAETERMISSORUM or Things Omitted.

1 CHRONICLES: THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE THEOCRACY.

- Divine Selection the determining factor:
  1. The Preservation of the True Seed. 1-9
  2. The Rejection of Saul 10
  3. The Establishment of the True Theocracy. 11-29

Both main sections are rounded off by a supplement

- a. The post-exile resettlement Ch. 9
- b. Death of King David. Ch. 29:26-30

2 CHRONICLES: THE GLORY IS DEPARTED: Key Verse 12:1.

Decline ends in dispersion but, the lesson learned, there is a call to Restoration: "Who is there among you of His people . . let him go up" Ch. 36:23.

Chronicles helps to provide a balanced view to Kings by setting forth additional items from the standpoint of God.

- Jeroboam not only set up the calves but also worshipped devils 2 Chr. 11:15.
- The devout address + appeal to God of Abijah concerning whom Kings has nothing good to record 2 Chr. 13:5-18.
- Only Chronicles records that Asa neglected Yahweh in his final illness 2 Ch. 16:12 • Jehoshaphat entered into a threefold alliance with Ahab — Matrimonial 2 Ch. 21:6; Military 17:3 + Commercial 20:35 • that Athaliah had committed sacrilege 24:7 • Why Yahweh smote Uzziah with leprosy 26:16-21
- 2 Kings (2 Kgs 18:13-20:21) 3 verses are given to Hezekiah's reformation + 3 chapters to his secular affairs; in Chronicles 3 chapters to his reformation Ch. 29-30
- Manasseh's reformation + restoration is recorded only in Chronicles 33:11-13.

A PARALLEL WITH JUDGES.

As with Judges it illustrates that seeking Yahweh brings salvation but sinning invariably leads to sorrow.

- A phrase constantly met is "seek Yahweh" many times. 1 Sam. 7:3; 12:10; 14:47; 2 Sam. 3:18; 5:2; 7:8; 12:7; 1 Ch. 11:2; 17:6; 17:4; 19:3; 20:2, 4; 22:8; 1 Kgs 2:32; 8:16; 9:22; 11:34; 14:7; 16:2; 21:8; 2 Kgs 17:21; 21:7; 22:18. In contrast Cp. 12:14; 16:12, 24; 28:6, 19.
- The power of prayer and the assurance of help from leaning on Yahweh is shown in 1 Sam. 7:5; 12:23; 2 Sam. 7:27; 21:1; 24:10; 1 Kgs 3:6; 8:23; 2 Chr. 1:8; 20:9; 30:18; 32:20; 33:12. Cp. 1 Sam. 2:3; 1 Chr. 5:20; 20:27; 26:6, 7, 8
- The words of Jehoshaphat sum up the records of 2 Chronicles: "Believe in Yahweh your God, so shall ye be established; believe His prophets, so shall ye prosper" 20:20

Elect Abinadab Shimma Nethaneel Raddai Ozem DAVID

Salma Boaz Obed Jesse

he was the son of Zabdi, the Zimri of the previous verse. By the punishment + death of the house of Achan it may be presumed that the line of Judah through him became extinct.

ZERUIAH — Balsam from Yahweh. Indicating she was a much desired + welcomed daughters. Her sons are always referred to as "sons of Zeruiah" not of their father suggesting she very dominant person. Thus mentioned 25 times in Scripture

CALEB. Caleb formed an important group in the south 1 Sam. 30:14, Josh. 14:13-15:13. Hebron, their city, became the first capital of David. The record thus shows again how a younger son gained the pre-eminence Ge 4:9.

Sept. Cf Shem. V.17.

NAME: The LXX gives the title as PARALIPOMENA - "matters omitted". Jerome translated the Heb rew "DIVRE HAYYAMIN - "Events or annals of the days" (1 Chr. 27:24) by the Latin word CHRONICORUM - "The chronicle of the entire divine history".

Chronicles is placed with the "Writings" or Hagiographa in the Talmudic Canon. However in the LXX + the Vulgate, they follow immediately after the books of Kings.

They provide perspective + historical continuity to the returning exiles set to the task of restoring the Temple + its worship. Therefore, whereas Samuel + Kings record history from the standpoint of Prophets, Chronicles do so from the standpoint of Priests. The Genealogies lead to the establishment of the throne of David + the throne to the Temple.

Chronicles is interested in "these times" "those men" + "those events" that were to be the basis of the rebuilding of a new nation to receive Messiah.

THE SEED ROYAL OF THE NATIONS. — The genealogy of the Holy Nation To the House of David — but though Israel constituted the Holy Nation, the principle of Divine Selection remained. Cp Ch. 5:1-2. Thus none can presume. The natural firstborn was frequently superceded by a younger son. Thus Judah supplanted Reuben.

THE SEED ROYAL OF THE NATIONS. — The genealogy of the Holy Nation To the House of David — but though Israel constituted the Holy Nation, the principle of Divine Selection remained. Cp Ch. 5:1-2. Thus none can presume. The natural firstborn was frequently superceded by a younger son. Thus Judah supplanted Reuben.

1 Dan + Naphtali were sons of Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid, so are here linked with Rachel's children Gen. 35:25.
2. Judah takes the pre-eminence over Reuben. Cp Ch. 5.
3 The circumstances by which these children were born to Judah reflected no credit on him, showing the principle of his choice was by Divine selection, and according to foreknowledge. Cp Gen. 49:
8. Sig. Call for Help. See Str.
10. His sons were granted pre-eminence despite the circumstances of their birth
The line that led to Messiah was traced through the lesser family, Pharez Ruth 4:18-22
- Onan also was judicially slain Gen. 38:10. The descendants of Shobal are listed Ch. 4:21-23.
Sig. Sunrise. Cp Gen. 46:12 His children were born after he left Canaan + therefore are not listed in Genesis & Num. 26:20; 1 Chr. 27:11, 20

The different spelling of many of these names in the Heb. is due to certain vowels being written out in full ("plene"). Where not written they are called "defective." The fact of this difference in Chronicles shows a different origin. CB.

The house of Caleb formed an important group in the south 1 Sam. 30:14. Josh. 14:6-15:13. Hebron, their city, became the first capital of David. The record thus shows again how a younger son gained the pre-eminence Cp v. 9.

KINGS IN EDOM. vv. 43-50

The political development of Edom was far more extensive and rapid that that of Israel. From eye of flesh it seemed that they must outlast Israel, but Divine selection was with the latter.

43 Now these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the children of Israel; Bela the son of Beor: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

44 And when Bela was dead, Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his stead.

45 And when Jobab was dead, Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead.

46 And when Husham was dead, Hadad the son of Bedad, which smote Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Avith.

47 And when Hadad was dead, Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his stead.

48 And when Samlah was dead, Shaul of Rehoboth by the river reigned in his stead.

49 And when Shaul was dead, Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.

50 And when Baal-hanan was dead, Hadad reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pai; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab.

51 Hadad died also. And the dukes of Edom were; duke Timnah, duke Aliah, duke Jetheth,

52 Duke Aholibamah, duke Elah, duke Pinon,

53 Duke Kenaz, duke Teman, duke Mibzar,

54 Duke Magdiel, duke Iram. These are the dukes of Edom.

Machir, the father of Abiah, Hezron's wife, was a prominent Manassehite, and though Jair was descended from Hezron, he is accounted, through Abiah, to Manasseh in Num. 32:41; Deut 3:14 and as such was the founder of a tribal family or clan 2 Sam. 21:19. ZERUBBABEL CH 3:19. - "In Ezra 3:2; Hag. 1:1; Matt. 1:12; Luke 3:27. Z. is said to be the son of Shealtiel, a term which could mean grandson. But the inference here is that he was a nephew of S. & a son of Pedaiah. Keil seeks to solve the seeming discrepancy by showing that by the Levirate marriage law (Deut. 25:5-10) Pedaiah could have married his sister-in-law after S. death & raised up a son in his brother's name. Thus Haggai, Ezra, & Matthew would have been correct in calling Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel instead of Pedaiah. - Beacon.

V.9. TAMAR: There may have been other daughters. They are normally not mentioned unless they caused the line of descent or else had for a special reason to make a place for themselves in history.

CHAPTER 6. SUMMARY. The material in this chapter is repeated, expanded in Chps 23-26. It contains a record of the descendants of Levi, the line of the High Priests down to the captivity & the enumeration of Levitical cities. The great detail & repetition here reflect the importance placed upon the order & worship of those returning from the captivity.

THE GENEALOGICAL SEQUENCE 1 Chron. 6:11-13: Between Amariah & Hilkiah only 3 names are given for which 9 generations or sequences are furnished of the kings of Judah. The period is about 200 yrs. Further, no one of the names of this part of the list occurs among those High Priests mentioned during this time. The explanation seems to be that it is not a list of High Priests, but the genealogy of Jozadak whose line of descent partly coincided with the High Priests & partly differed from it. Where it coincided, all the names are given; where it differed, some are omitted, in order (perhaps) to render the whole list from Phinehas a multiple of seven - Comp. 14 to v. 10. 7 to Seraiah v. 14 - executed by Nebuchadnezzar

CHRONICLES: Summary.: Originally one book it was divided in to 2 by Sept. followed by Jerome. The book, according to the Jewish Canon concludes the O.T. Therefore beginning with the first Adam it concludes at the point where history is prepared for the second Adam. Whereas Kings presents man-ruled history, Chronicles shows it from the viewpoint of God-ruled history. & the record of Saul's death 1 Sam. 31:6 1 Chr. 10:13-14. 4 verses in Kings are given to Hezekiah's reform 2 Ki. 18:4-7 against 3 Chapters in Chronicles Chs 29-31.

15 Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers.

16 And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, upon their borders.

17 All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of (m) Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 ¶ The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasseh, of (n) valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and (o) to shoot with bow, and skilful in war, were four and forty thousand seven hundred and threescore, (p) that went out to the war.

19 And they made war with the Hagarites, with (q) Jetur, and (r) Nephish, and Nodab.

20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for (s) they cried to God in the battle, and he was intreated of them; because they (t) put their trust in him.

21 And they (u) took away their cattle; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred and fifty thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of (v) men an hundred thousand.

22 For there fell down many slain, because the war was of God. And they dwelt in their (w) steads until the captivity.

23 ¶ And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land: they increased from Bashan unto Baal-hermon and (x) Senir, and unto (y) mount Hermon.

24 And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Epher, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valour, (z) famous men,

THE 48 LEVITIC CITIES
(See Josh 21:1-40; Num 35:1-8)
Vv 54-81 Cp. Josh. 21.
The list in Joshua includes 2 additional cities: Juttah after Ashan V.59 and Gibeon before Geba V.60. These are required to make up the 13 cities V.60. and have apparently dropped out of the text here
14 The returning priests could claim these cities on this basis
15 R.V. = "they gave the cities of refuge." All were accounted cities of refuge, though some in a secondary sense. See Introductory note. - Josh. 21. Before Page 553
16 Tirathim = Enclosures. See Notes Gen 25 16; Num. 3:14a. The word denotes a settlement enclosed
17 "first lot." See Josh 21:10

CITIES OF PRIESTS & LEVITES ~ Some cities are missing from the list given in Joshua 21, some names are different. The totals given here do not always agree with the number enumerated. (see introductory note after V.54) this could be because the missing names have fallen out of text or because the number of towns allocated, they were not immediately occupied by returning exiles. The difference in name could be due to changes over the years. Levitical cities were provided as centres of teaching (see note top p.324) and cities of Refuge revived to emphasise the principle of the Gospel (see top p.324). On both sides of Jordan easily accessible and elevated so as to be clearly seen - places of Refuge spoke also of Christ. Heb 6:18

SUMMARY: Genealogical data on an additional six tribes. Zebulun and Dan are omitted entirely from these tables. The tribes of Issachar & Asher, the first & the last considered here, are especially noted for their prowess in war; Ephraim for a particular tragedy VR 24-74

V.2 "IN THE DAYS OF DAVID" The genealogies have been subjected to criticism in that they do not account for omissions and discrepancies from the earlier books of the Bible but this may be accounted for in that it is linking the Return with the state of the Houses of the Tribes in the days of David to ensure that whatever is established in the land may conform therewith as much as possible. Cp v 24.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE GENEALOGIES. They helped to identify returning exiles and their right to an inheritance in Judah, or the Land. Cp Ezra 2:62-63; 8:1,3 Neh. 7:5,64.
Cp the genealogy of saints. Ps 87:4-6.

I. CHRONICLES 7. Sons of Naphtali, &c.

1 The house of Tola formed the main division of the tribe of Issachar. Of the eldest son Uzzi there was numbered 33,000 men. Of younger sons 22,600 = 55,600 out of a total of 87,000.
2 When he numbered the people. 2 Sam 24.
3 He will be my defence
4 He will be Pregnant
5 Yah will Shine. Some Mss eliminate these words (Cf. Pulpit) leaving him as one of the 5 sons of Uzzi. If so learned, he & his sons comprised the 5 families of Uzzi.
6 Who like God; Servant of God; Strength of God; Yah will Lend.
7 Sig. Young camel. Missing in Ch 8; Num. 26:38. It is suggested that he or his heir married an Ephraimite & that his house passed into Ephraim in which the Bachrites are placed. Num. 26:35.

1 To break or subdue
2 Brother of the Dawn

The sons of Benjamin.

2 And the sons of Tola; Uzzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Jibsam, and Shemuel, heads of their father's house, to wit, of Tola: they were valiant men of might in their generations; whose number was in the days of David two and twenty thousand and six hundred.

3 And the sons of Uzzi; Izrahiah: and the sons of Izrahiah; Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, Ishiah, five: all of them chief men.

4 And with them, by their generations, after the house of their fathers, were bands of soldiers for war, six and thirty thousand men: for they had many wives and sons.

5 And their brethren among all the families of Issachar were valiant men of might, reckoned in all by their genealogies fourscore and seven thousand.

6 The sons of Benjamin; Bela, and Becher, and Jediael, three.

7 And the sons of Bela; Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri, five; heads of the house of their fathers, mighty men of valour; and were reckoned by their genealogies twenty and two thousand and thirty and four.

8 And the sons of Becher; Zemira, and Joash, and Eliezer, and Elioenai, and Omri, and Jerimoth, and Abiah, and Anathoth, and Alameth. All these are the sons of Becher.

9 And the number of them, after their genealogy by their generations, heads of the house of their fathers, mighty men of valour, was twenty thousand and two hundred.

10 The sons also of Jediael; Bilhan: and the sons of Bilhan; Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tharshish, and Ahishahar.

11 All these the sons of Jediael, by the heads of their fathers, mighty men of valour, were seventeen thousand and two hundred soldiers, fit to go out for war and battle.

12 Shuppim also, and Huppim, the children of Ir, and Hushim, the sons of Aher.

13 ¶ The sons of Naphtali; Jahziel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.

14 ¶ The sons of Manasseh; Ashriel, whom she bare: (but his concubine the Aramitess bare Machir the father of Gilead:

15 And Machir took to wife the sister of Huppim and Shuppim, whose sister's name was Maachah;) and the name of the second was Zelophehad: and Zelophehad had daughters.

16 And Maachah the wife of Machir bare a son, and she called his name Peresh; and the name of his brother was Sheresh; and his sons were Ulam and Rakem.

17 And the sons of Ulam; Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh.

18 And his sister Hammoleketh bare Ishod, and Abiezer, and Mahalah.

19 And the sons of Shemidah were, Ahian, and Shechem, and Likhi, and Aniam.

20 ¶ And the sons of Ephraim, Shuthelah, and Bered his son, and Tahath his son, and Eladah his son, and Tahath his son,

21 ¶ And Zabad his son, and Shuthelah his son, and Ezer, and Elead, whom the men of Gath that were born in that land slew, because they came down to take away their cattle.

DESCENDANTS OF BENJAMIN Vv 6-12

In Gen 46:21 = 10. When Chronicles written the others probably extinct. Even in Num 26:38 only 5 mentioned. Cp also Ch 8:1 Cf
Bela = 22,034
Becher = 20,200
Jediael = 17,200
59,434
In Genesis 10 sons are mentioned (though Naaman, Ard & Gera appear to have been grandsons Num. 26:40; 1 Ch 8:3-4). In Numbers (see Mg) = Five. Neither list includes Jediael who probably was a later chief form & son in the sense of descendant. It is conjectured that Becher has disappeared from the list in Num. 26:35 because he or his heir married an Ephraimite & was incorporated into the Tribe as Bachrites Num. 26:35. He retains his place here in the time of David V.7 because by right of blood he belonged to Benjamin.
The lists here Vv. 7,8,10 differ from those elsewhere Perhaps the persons mentioned were prominent descendants at the time of David's census.
Zemira = Causing Singing. Joash = Yahweh hastened (Heb. diff to elsewhere). Eliezer = God of Help. Elioenai = My eyes are to Yahweh. Omri = Untaught, Imperious. Jerimoth = Elevations. Abiah = My Father is Yah. Anathoth = Answered Prayers. Alemeth = Concealment of Virgins.

These are not listed as sons of the second Shuthelah = could be brothers of the first. The tragedy of the family led to the birth of a son that produced Joshua. V.27. As the returning Jews had been through trouble, this incident would have stimulated faith.

BENJAMIN V.6 The genealogy here listed does not agree with that of Ch 8:1-32, nor with those in Gen. 46:21; Num. 26:38. It is difficult to see why 2 Genealogies should be given for Benjamin but none for Zebulun and Dan. In geographical order Zebulun should appear here with Issachar. Many believe that this listing belongs to Zebulun. A scribal error is possible and Vv 6-12 related to Zebulun - Bloch.

THE THRESHING FLOOR OF CHIDON: It signifies something to strike with such as a dart or a javelin and may have been so named because of the smiting of Yahweh 1 Chr. 13:10. It is from a root signifying a Crushing, a Calamity. Also called Nachon's 2 Sam. 6:6. - Prepared, set up. From a root signifying to be Established (Str). That which was established or set up was struck down. The site was probably given the name Chidon after the tragedy.

This chapter is concerned with the post-exilic community at Jerusalem of which there were some of Saul's descendants. There are similar lists in Neh. 11:1-19.

DESCENDANTS OF SAUL

Ulem V. 39 is twelfth from Saul, and reference is made to his sons and grandsons V. 40. As Hezekiah was thirteenth from David his time must have been reached. Saul's posterity was numerous and prominent V. 40.

The fact that Saul of Tarsus was able to trace his lineage to this tribe implies that detailed records were kept. (Note the comparison between the two men. Top left p. 390.

MAASIAI Operative - Lit. Worker becomes Amashai Spoil bearer. ADIEL - Ornament of God. JAHZERAH - Protection (Str). Sometimes identified with Azareel. Neh. 11:13 MESHULLAM - See notes in Nehemiah. MESHILLEMITH - IMMER, See notes in Nehemiah.

Uthai - Succouring Ammihud - People of Splendor. Omri - Heaping. Imri - Heroism. Bani - Built. Pharez - A Breach

V.7. In Neh. 11:7 the predecessors of Meshullam vary from those here given. Both writers evidently drew from a common + fuller record, but for purposes of condensing their accounts omitting certain names. There are also variations in the names - some here not included in Nehemiah + vice versa.

JONATHAN'S POSTERITY. see Note V. 44. The house of Saul continued through Jonathan. It is remarkable that Benjamin so bitterly hostile to the house of David at first should be so closely identified with it afterwards. Josh. 18:16, 28. Jud. 19:10-11. They were a warlike people. Adonizedek of Jerusalem raised the confederacy against Gibeon Josh. 10:1-4. The King was destroyed by Joshua Josh. 12:10 but evidently the Jebusites retained or re-occupied the royal city Judges 1:21 until the time of David. Living on the border of Judah + Benjamin, they are represented as dwelling with Judah Josh. 15:63 + with Benjamin Jud. 19:21. to which tribe Jerusalem belonged Josh. 18:28. from Ezra 9:1 Jebusites seem to have remained in the days of Ezra. Archaeology suggests that Jebusite Jerusalem, the city of David, lay on the eastern only side of the city South of the higher temple area. - which was rather the site of a Canaanitish Temple. Portion of the Jebusite city wall + fortifications have been uncovered including the western gate dating back to 2000 BC.

1 Saul's overthrow and death. 8 The Philistines triumph over Saul. 11 The kindness of Jabesh-gilead towards Saul and his sons. 13 Saul's sin.

NOW [1] the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down (1) slain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sons; and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and [2] Abinadab, and Malchi-shua, the sons of Saul.

3 And [1] the battle went sore against Saul, and the [2] archers (3) hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come and [4] abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was sore afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and all @his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in [b]the valley saw that [b]they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, then they forsook their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings [d]unto their idols, and to the people.

10 And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened [e]his head in the temple of Dagon.

11 ¶ And when all Jabesh-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul,

12 They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under [h]the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

13 ¶ So Saul died for his transgression which he [i]committed against the LORD, even [f]against the word of the LORD, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of @one that had a familiar spirit, to enquire of it;

14 And @enquired not of the LORD: therefore he slew him, and @turned the kingdom unto David the son of [j]Jesse.

CHAPTER 11.

1 David is made king at Hebron. 4 He winneth the castle of Zion from the Jebusites by Joab's valour. 10 A catalogue of David's mighty men.

THEN [g]all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 And moreover [2]in time past, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the LORD thy God said unto thee, Thou shalt [3]feed [4]my people Israel, and thou shalt be [l]ruler over my people Israel.

3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, @according to the word of the LORD [k]by Samuel.

4 ¶ And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus; where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come hither. Nevertheless David took the @castle of Zion, which is the city of David.

6 And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first [g]shall be [5]chief and captain. So Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was chief.

7 And David dwelt in the castle; therefore they called it the city of David.

8 And he built the city round about, even from Millo round about: and Joab [6]repaired the rest of the city.

9 So David [9]waxed greater and greater: for the LORD of hosts was with him.

10 ¶ These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who [7]strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king, [r]according to the word of the LORD concerning Israel.

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had; [p]Jashobeam, [4]an Hachmonite, [r]the chief of the captains: [s]he lifted up his spear against three hundred slain by him at one time.

MILLO: Always with the article: the Millo. Evidently a rampart consisting of 2 walls with a space between them filled in. The article implies that it was a well known fortress probably one that had been built by the Jebusites to protect their city (see bottom p. 558) & was built (fortified) round about from Millo (2 Sam. 5:9; 1 Chr. 11:8). as did Solomon (1 Kg 9:15; 11:27). It formed a prominent part of the fortifications of Hezekiah 2 Chr. 32:5. This was evidently the "House of Millo" where Joash was killed 2 Kg 12:20-21. Masonry on the N end of the city of David on Ophel is thought to be part of Millo—Southeyer.

were with David; he was the potent chief of the army; he sat upon the throne of judgment, anointed with the holy oil, all the prophets and wise men standing about him. When he went to battle, he was assisted from on high; and when he sat down to teach the law, the true meaning arose in his mind. He was clad and pleasant, of a beautiful mien and lovely countenance, exercised in wisdom, prudent in counsel, and strong in virtue; the prince of the assembly, of a melodious voice, marked weapons; he carried a spear, to which was appended the engraving of the first in battle, and overthrew with his spear three hundred men at one time.

THE EXPLOITS OF THE MIGHTY – David inspired his men with superhuman courage. They were prepared to fight against great odds on his behalf, they were prepared to expend themselves even to the jeopardy of their own lives. Their counterpart is found in the Apostles and Disciples of the Lord who fought the good fight of faith without fear or favour.

They had invaded the land in a determined attempt to overthrow David.
Eastern people are great connoisseurs in the taste of water, and learned to distinguish the peculiar quality of water from different springs. The actual excellence of the water from the "well of Bethlehem" may partly account for David's longing to drink of it, but there were probably also home yearnings in his heart.
They were not commanded to do this, but acted voluntarily out of love for David – as others have for Christ.
They must have hemmed David in, but at great hazard of their lives these three heroes penetrated the line of the enemy.

13 He was with David at [2] Pas-dammim, [a] and there the Philistines were gathered together [m] to battle, where was a parcel of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines.

14 And [a] they [4] set themselves in the midst of that parcel, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great [c] deliverance.

15 ¶ Now [7] three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam: and the host of the Philistines encamped [c] in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines' [c] garrison was then at Bethlehem.

19 And said, My God forbid it me, that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men [e] that have put their lives in jeopardy? for with the jeopardy of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mightiest.

GROWING SUPPORT FOR DAVID

It was obvious to many in Israel that Saul's cause was lost, and the only hope of national salvation was in David. A constant flow of support continued to arrive at Ziklag until he found himself at the head of a mighty army (v.22).

Vv.1-7 Saul's own tribe of Benjamin had been the most reluctant to accept David as king (2 Sam. 2:8-9). Many of Saul's kinsmen had fought against David (2 Sam. 3:1). Now, however, they were beginning to realise that Saul's cause was lost, and that David was the man of the future.

Vv.8-15 The Gadites were also from Saul's own territory (Josh. 13:24-28). They were famous warriors (1 Chr. 5:18). Their leaders were men of outstanding courage, skill and fighting ability. These men found David in the wilderness, rather than their master in the fortress of Gibeah. Their faithful courage was rewarded by Benaiah (27:6) being appointed to the military division for the 3rd month (27:5-6), remained faithful to David during Absalom's rebellion (2 Sam. 15:18, 20:23), and then supported Solomon's succession (1 Kings 1:8). Adonijah (1 Kings 1:9) — He assisted at the coronation of Solomon (1 Kings 1:33) and as chief of the guard executed him (1 Kings 2:25). Jehoiada (1 Kings 2:35) and Shimei (1 Kings 2:36-46) and Shimei (1 Kings 2:44) He succeeded Joab (1 Kings 2:35). He was probably a prominent (1 Chron 27:5) and probably leader of the three (2 Sam. 23:8) that joined the army (2 Sam. 23:11) place David on the throne (1 Chron 12:27).

Vv.16-18 David looked with some suspicion on this second band and questioned whether their intentions were genuine.

these representatives of the tribes who gathered to support his cause when he was made king of the whole nation.

Vv.16-18 David looked with some suspicion on this second band and questioned whether their intentions were genuine.

Vv.19-22 The Philistines were also aware that David's cause was growing. They were afraid that he would lead the Israelites into battle against them. Achish, the king of Gath, had already given David a place to live (27:2-7). He had also appointed him to be one of his bodyguard (1 Sam. 28:1-2), showing that he trusted him. David commenced the [illegible] or continuation of the beginning of [illegible] before the death of [illegible] thought it was [illegible] ed until the end [illegible]

Vv.23-37 The numbers that follow Union (16) find no parallel in 2 Sam. 23. Among them there are the 30 with Adina v.42. It would appear therefore, that the Chronicler is not setting out the Thirty of 2 Sam 23:13, but the "valiant men of the armies" v.26.

Vv.38-40 The description of these differs from v.1-7 seems to imply that they made their way to Ziklag after the fall of Saul. This was perhaps in response to his prayer 1 Sam 30:26-31.

The Chapter is retrospective. It provides, 1. (1-22) the names & some accounts of heroes who came to the help of David in three great crises. 2. (23-40) An enumeration of

He had also appointed him to be one of his bodyguard (1 Sam. 28:1-2), showing that he trusted him. David commenced the [illegible] or continuation of the beginning of [illegible] before the death of [illegible] thought it was [illegible] ed until the end [illegible]

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads.
20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.
21 And they helped David against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host.
22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

They were hindered in their intention by enemies who tried to resist them.

SECOND COMPANY FROM BENJAMIN WITH SOME OF JUDAH
Vv.16-18.

David looked with some suspicion on this second band and questioned whether their intentions were genuine.

18 Then the spirit came upon Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers; for thy God helpeth thee. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not: for the lords of the Philistines upon advisement sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands that were of Manasseh.

21 And they helped David against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time day by day there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

23 And these are the numbers of the bands that were ready armed to the war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the war.

25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the war, seven thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred.

27 And Jehoiada was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred;

28 And Zadok, a young man mighty of valour, and of his father's house twenty and two captains.

29 And of the children of Benjamin, the kindred of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept the ward of the house of Saul.

30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand and eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, which were expressed by name, to come and make David king.

32 And of the children of Issachar, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their commandment.

33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, with all instruments of war, fifty thousand, which could keep rank: they were not of double heart.

34 And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty and seven thousand.

35 And of the Danites expert in war twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Asher, such as went forth to battle, expert in war, forty thousand.

37 And on the other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and of the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, an hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and meat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Israel.

CHAPTER 13.

1 David consulteth with his captains. 5 He fetcheth the ark from Kirjath-jearim. 9 Uzzah is smitten for his error. 11 David is displeased. 13 The ark is carried into the house of Obed-edom.

Moreover David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us:

3 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we inquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So David gathered all Israel together, from Shihor of Egypt even unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim.

6 And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.

7 And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drave the cart.

8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 And when they came unto the threshingfloor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen shook it.

10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God.

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perezuzza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

13 So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

CHAPTER 14.

1 David's house and family. 3 His children born in Jerusalem. 8 He discomfiteth the Philistines coming against him.

Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him an house.

2 And David perceived that the LORD had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of his people Israel.

3 And David took more wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more sons and daughters.

4 Now these are the names of his children which he had in Jerusalem; Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

5 And Ibhar, and Elishua, and Elpalet,

6 And Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia,

7 And Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphelet.

8 And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place Baal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burned with fire.

13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David inquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

15 And let it be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for then shall God go forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And the fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him upon all nations.

CHAPTER 15.

1 David prepareth a place for the ark. 3 He assembleth the children of Aaron and the Levites. 11 He appointeth them their offices. 16 He appointeth singers. 25 The ark is brought with joy into the city of David. 29 Michal despiseth David.

And David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:

7 Of the sons of Gershom; Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty:

8 Of the sons of Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred:

9 Of the sons of Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren eighty:

10 Of the sons of Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab,

12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye did it not at the first, the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of musick, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the Sheminith to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was for musick: he instructed about the musick, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Joshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark.

25 So David, the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and making a noise with cymbals, sounding with psalteries and harps.

29 And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

CHAPTER 16.

1 David offereth burnt sacrifices and peace offerings. 4 He appointeth Levites to minister before the ark. 7 He thanketh the LORD by Asaph and his brethren. 37 He appointeth Asaph and his brethren to minister before the ark continually. 39 He appointeth Zadok and his brethren to minister before the tabernacle at Gibeon. 41 He appointeth Heman and Jeduthun to sound with instruments of musick.

So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt sacrifices and peace offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD.

3 And he dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, both to men and women, to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to record, and to thank and praise the LORD God of Israel:

5 Asaph the chief, and next to him Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-edom: and Jeiel with psalteries and with harps; but Asaph made a sound with cymbals;

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 Then on that day David delivered first this psalm to thank the LORD into the hand of Asaph and his brethren.

8 Give thanks unto the LORD, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him, talk ye of all his wondrous works.

10 Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.

11 Seek the LORD and his strength, seek his face continually.

12 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;

13 O ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

14 He is the LORD our God; his judgments are in all the earth.

15 Be ye mindful always of his covenant; the word which he commanded to a thousand generations;

16 Even of the covenant which he made with Abraham, and of his oath unto Isaac;

17 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance;

19 When ye were but few, even a few, and strangers in it.

20 And when they went from one nation to another, and from one kingdom to another people;

21 He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproved kings for their sakes,

22 Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm.

23 Sing unto the LORD, all the earth; shew forth from day to day his salvation.

24 Declare his glory among the heathen; his marvellous works among all nations.

25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised: he also is to be feared above all gods.

26 For all the gods of the people are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

27 Glory and honour are in his presence; strength and gladness are in his place.

28 Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

30 Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved.

31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.

32 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because he cometh to judge the earth.

34 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

35 And say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and triumph in thy praise.

36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.

37 So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required:

38 And Obed-edom with their brethren, threescore and eight; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be porters:

39 And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gibeon,

40 To offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt offering continually morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel;

41 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever;

42 And with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthun were porters at the gate.

43 And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

CHAPTER 17.

1 David's purpose to build the LORD a house. 3 God's answer by Nathan. 7 God's promise to David. 16 David's prayer.

Now it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.

3 And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in:

5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedars?

7 Now therefore so shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel:

8 And I was with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thy face, and have made thee a name like unto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee that the LORD will build thee an house.

11 And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will stablish his throne for ever.

13 I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:

14 But I will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be established for evermore.

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

20 O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem for a people to himself, to make him a name of greatness and terrible things, in driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God over Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

25 For thou, O my God, hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him an house: therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

26 And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto thy servant:

27 Now therefore let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O LORD, and it is blessed for ever.

CHAPTER 18.

1 David's victories. 9 Hadarezer's gifts. 12 Abishai's victory. 14 David's officers.

Now after this it came to pass that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to stablish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to succour Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith Solomon made the brasen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 Now when Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah,

10 He sent Hadoram his son to king David, to enquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer had war with Tou;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

11 Which also king David did dedicate unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12 Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt eighteen thousand.

13 And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice among all his people.

15 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, recorder.

16 And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and Shavsha was scribe;

17 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief about the king.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Hanun shameth David's messengers. 6 The Syrians hire soldiers. 9 Joab discomfiteth the Ammonites. 16 The Syrians are discomfited by Israel. 18 David slayeth seven thousand of the Syrians.

Now it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entering in of the gate: and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were vanquished, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river: and Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew the men of seven thousand Syrians which fought in chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host.

19 And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Rabbah is taken. 4 Sibbechai slayeth Sippai. 5 Elhanan slayeth Lahmi. 6 A man of great stature is slain. 8 These were born to the giant.

And it came to pass after the year was expired, at the time when kings go forth to battle, that Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so did David unto all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines; at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Sippai, that was of the children of the giant: and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.

6 And yet there was war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot, and he also was born to the giant.

7 But when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAPTER 21.

1 David numbereth Israel. 7 God's displeasure. 9 Gad's message. 13 David's choice. 14 The pestilence. 18 David buildeth an altar in the threshingfloor of Ornan. 22 He buyeth the threshingfloor. 26 He offereth burnt offerings. 28 The LORD answereth him by fire.

And Satan stood up against Israel, and provoked David to number Israel.

2 And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.

7 And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 And the LORD spake unto Gad, David's seer, saying,

10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things: choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Take thee

12 either three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the coasts of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what answer I shall return to him that sent me.

13 And David said unto Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very great are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.

14 So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.

15 And God sent an angel unto Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thine hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.

16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

17 And David said unto God, Is not it I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thine hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be plagued.

18 Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and set up an altar unto the LORD in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite.

19 And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.

20 And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the place of this threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be withdrawn from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt sacrifices, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat offering; I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.

25 So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering.

27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.

29 For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon.

30 But David could not go before it to inquire of God: for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

CHAPTER 22.

1 David prepareth for the building of the house of God. 6 He charges Solomon to build it. 17 He commands the princes to help Solomon.

Then David said, This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt offering for Israel.

2 And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance without weight;

4 Also cedar trees in abundance: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be builded for the LORD must be exceeding magnifical, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will now therefore make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God:

8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

10 He shall build an house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only the LORD give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

13 Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.

14 Now, behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD an hundred thousand talents of gold, and a th

Cp similar uses of the expression Gen 24:60 1 Sam 4:10 Job 1:16 The C.B. estimates his support at this time to be approx 300,000 men. FURTHER SUPPORT AT HEBRON Vv.23-38

The removal of David from Ziklag to Hebron showed that the time was ripe for David to assume the position of authority that all Israel knew he was destined to receive 2 Sam. 2:2-4a. These tribes came to David after the death of Ishbosheth 2 Sam. 4:5.

See Note, 1 Chron 11:3.

No definite article - though the general state of unrest, international + civil war probably caused them to arm ready for an emergency.

Fewer of Judah took part in the transaction possibly because David already was recognised as the king.

DAVID'S ARMY AT THIS TIME

Judah	6,800
Simeon	7,100
Levi	4,600
Aaronites	3,700
Zadok - Captains	22
Benjamin	3,000
Ephraim	20,800
Manasseh	18,000
Issachar - Heads	200
Zebulun	50,000
Naphtali	37,000
Captains	1,000
Dan	28,600
Asher	40,000

Cost of Jordan 179,000 = 340,822.

22 The numbers of the tribes indicate the exterminating effect of the wars with the Philistines. It was particularly felt by Judah. In addition, some tribes sent only certain types as representing the whole. Cp. v.32. Perhaps in Judah there was reluctance to enthuse David too enthusiastically Mark 6:4c

JERUSALEM: CENTRE OF DIVINE WORSHIP

The Glory Returns to Israel ~ 1 Sam. 4:21-22

For years the Ark remained disregarded and in obscurity, but now it is brought in triumph to Zion ~ A WONDERFUL TYPE OF FUTURE OCCASION.

David's victory over the Jebusite fortress of Zion had established Jerusalem tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of war for the battle, an hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of war, that could keep rank, came [d] with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover they that were nigh them, even unto Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on [e] camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and [f] meat, meal, [h] cakes of figs, and [i] bunches of raisins, and wine, and oil, and oxen, and sheep abundantly: for there was joy in Israel.

CHAPTER 13.

1 David fetcheth the ark with great solemnity from Kirjath-jearim. 9 Uzza being smitten, the ark is left at the house of Obed-edom.

AND David consulted with the captains of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good unto you, and that it be of the LORD our God, [k] let us send abroad unto our brethren every where, that are [l] left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are [2] in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us:

3 And let us [3] bring again the ark of our God to us: for [m] we enquired not at it in the days of Saul.

4 And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So [o] David gathered all Israel together, from [p] Shihor of Egypt even [q] unto the entering of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from [a] Kirjath-jearim.

6 [b] And David went up, and all Israel, to [c] Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.

7 And they [d] carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drave the cart.

8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with [3] singing, and with [f] harps, and with [f] psalteries, and with timbrels, and with [f] cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 ¶ And when they came unto the threshingfloor of [g] Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen [4] stumbled.

10 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he [k] died before God.

11 And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called [7] Perez-uzza to this day.

12 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

13 So David [5] brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD [u] blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

CELEBRATION AT HEBRON.

A covenant was generally followed by festivities! Gen 11:44 46 and with a stable government, the cessation of civil war, and a united nation, there was ample to rejoice in.

Sept.: "And their neighbours, as far as Issachar etc. brought to them on asses etc." The word "lahem" - to them, has probably been mistaken for lechem - bread. "Oil, figs, raisins" suggest this occasion was held in autumn, a good time for the assembly to be held. Foreshadowing millennium.

CHAPTER 13.

RELIGIOUS REVIVAL.

A CALL TO COOPERATION

1 Having established his power, he now sets about instituting religious reform and stabilising the worship of Yahweh. This was his greatest ambition. He had consulted with Samuel in regard to it 1 Chr. 9:22. His earnest prayer and strong desire was for its consummation Ps. 132:11-6.

2 He adopted the spirit of appeal, not the driving force of command. Men work best when thus consulted. Their sense of responsibility is developed, their instinct of honor is happily touched. The work becomes more personal & intimate. David desired the fullest co-operation of all the people, and therefore approached them through their leaders.

3 Heb "qahal" equiv to Ecclesia. See Note, 1 Sam. 17:47. The congregation or assembly of leaders thus called out.

4 A call through the leaders to the people everywhere for a general national assembly for the purpose of bringing the Ark to Zion.

5 If the leaders approved an approach would be made unto Yahweh for guidance, and the people talked together.

6 In a place, approved of Yahweh, were it might become the centre of worship. See Deut. 12:5. Ps. 63:2.

7. The Ark was at one place 1 Sam. 7:1-2, and the Tabernacle at another 1 Sam. 21: 1-4. The priesthood having been defiled in the days of Eli, and Saul having proved useless for a true restoration the proper worship had lapsed. The feasts had probably been indifferently celebrated, and the Day of Atonement perhaps discontinued.

14 It was hallowed or set apart for this exclusive purpose. In providing the new cart the people were actuated by feelings of reverence but they neglected the explicit instructions of Yahweh in the matter, and thus were responsible for the tragedy that followed. The instructions were that it was to be carried on staves Exod. 25:14-15 Exod. 37:4-5 on the shoulders of the Kohathites Num. 4:15 and it had to be covered from the vulgar gaze by the priests in the way specified. SECOND INVASION 9-17 — See Notes. 2 Sam. 5: 22-25

8 ¶ And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David. And David heard of it, and ᵉwent out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and ᶠspread themselves in the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So they came up to Baal-perazim; and David smote them there. Then David said, ⑦God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place ᵍBaal-perazim.

12 And when they had left their gods there, David gave a commandment, and they were ⑧burned with fire. - Deut. 7: 5, 25

13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David enquired again of God; and God said unto him, Go not up after them; turn away from them, and come upon them over against the mulberry trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle: for God is gone forth before thee to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him: and they smote the host of the Philistines from ⑨Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And ᶜthe fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought ᵈthe fear of him upon all nations.

CHAPTER 15.

1 David, having prepared a place for the ark, ordereth the priests and Levites to bring it from Obed-edom. 25 He performeth the solemnity thereof with great joy. 29 Michal despiseth him.

AND David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and ⑩pitched for it a tent.

2 Then David said, ⑪None ought to carry the ⑫ark of God but the Levites: for them hath the LORD chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David ⑬gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the LORD unto ⑭his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites:

5 Of the sons of ⑮Kohath; Uriel the chief, and his ⑯brethren an hundred and twenty:

6 Of the sons of ⑰Merari; Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty:

7 Of the sons of ⑰Gershom; Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty:

8 Of the sons of ⑯Elizaphan; Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred:

9 Of the sons of ⑯Hebron; Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore:

10 Of the sons of ⑯Uzziel; Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab,

12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves, both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye did it not at the first, the LORD our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of musick, psalteries and harps and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of Kushaiah;

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass;

20 And Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on Alamoth;

21 And Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the Sheminith to excel.

22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was for song: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark.

24 And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obed-edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark.

25 So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.

26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rams.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and making a noise with cymbals, sounding with psalteries and harps.

29 And it came to pass, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking through a window saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

CHAPTER 15

THE ARK BROUGHT IN IN TRIUMPH

Despite the tragedy of Uzzah, there was no doubt in David's mind as to the whether the Ark should be brought to Jerusalem. He recognised it was merely a matter of rightly conducting the matter. Thus for the 3 months the Ark was delayed at the home of Obed-Edom Ch. 8:16 preparations were made for the reception of the Ark, and the proper procedure for conveying it to its resting place was thoroughly investigated Cp V 11-15

A PLACE PREPARED. 1 The Tabernacle set up. 2 The blessings that were showered on the house of Obed-Edom 2 Sam. 6:11 P. demonstrated that David's intentions were in accordance with the Divine will, though his method of carrying the out were not.

3 See margin. Previously it had been carried on the cart Ch. 13:7. It should have been carried on the shoulders of the Levites.

METHOD OF CONVEYING THE ARK. V. 15.

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel.

THE MUSICIANS PREPARED V. 16-24.

They proceeded six paces & sacrificed 6:13 and could tell that Yahweh was with them.

This represented the offering for all Israel, and was in addition to the ox and fatling referred to in 2 Sam. 6:13 and which men thinks was the offering.

See note. V. 22.

This was the normal vestment of all priests 1 Sam. 22:18. the high priest's ephod being a more elaborate garment Ex. 28:6-12. This ephod was worn exceptionally by David, who as Israel's anointed assumed the status of a one-priest for this occasion. In that, he prefigured his greater son.

V. 26. "God helped": Those who bear the vessels of Yahweh have great need of Divine help in their ministrations, that Christ may be glorified in them & the Ecclesias edified through them. 1 Sa. 5:2-11. With great awe fear the Ark now lifted.

CONVEYING THE ARK TO ZION. With some trepidation the second attempt was undertaken. Would it again be marred by tragedy? the preparations were made, the people were assembled, the orchestra and singers were put in processional order - and then the selected Levites, bearing the Ark upon their shoulders by means of the staves as commanded by the law, took 6 experimental steps forward 2 Sam 6:13. All was well! It was obvious that the attempt was in accordance with the Divine will and purpose. The procession stopped. The King offered his sacrifice 2 Sam. 6:13 the nation likewise responded. 1 Chr. 15:26 Then, amid the acclamation of the people with cymbals loudly marking the time, the sound of trumpets, and other instruments playing the tune whilst male and female choirs sung the appropriate Psalms (65, 19, 24, 132 etc) the Ark was conveyed up the long winding valley road leading to Zion. Its removal was supervised by the King dressed as one of the Priests, and appropriately blessing the people. It was the greatest day in David's glorious history.

of thanksgiving.

24 Declare his glory among the heathen; his marvellous works among all nations.

25 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised: he also is to be feared above all gods.

26 For all the gods of the people are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.

27 Glory and honour are in his presence; strength and gladness are in his place.

28 Give unto the LORD, ye kindreds of the people, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

29 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come before him: worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

30 Fear before him, all the earth: the world also shall be stable, that it be not moved.

31 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice: and let men say among the nations, The LORD reigneth.

32 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof: let the fields rejoice, and all that is therein.

33 Then shall the trees of the wood sing out at the presence of the LORD, because he cometh to judge the earth.

34 O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

35 And say ye, Save us, O God of our salvation, and gather us together, and deliver us from the heathen, that we may give thanks to thy holy name, and glory in thy praise.

36 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel for ever and ever. And all the people said, Amen, and praised the LORD.

37 ¶ So he left there before the ark of the covenant of the LORD Asaph and his brethren, to minister before the ark continually, as every day's work required:

38 And Obed-edom with their brethren, threescore and eight; Obed-edom also the son of Jeduthun and Hosah to be porters:

39 And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of the LORD in the high place that was at Gibeon,

40 To offer burnt offerings unto the LORD upon the altar of the burnt offering continually morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the law of the LORD, which he commanded Israel;

41 And with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever;

42 And with them Heman and Jeduthun with trumpets and cymbals for those that should make a sound, and with musical instruments of God. And the sons of Jeduthun were porters.

43 And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

NOW it came to pass, as David sat in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Lo, I dwell in an house of cedars, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD remaineth under curtains.

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart; for God is with thee.

Blessings promised — I. CHRONICLES 17. — to David's seed.

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in:

5 For I have not dwelt in an house since the day that I brought up Israel unto this day; but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

6 Wheresoever I have walked with all Israel, spake I a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me an house of cedars?

7 Now therefore thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheepcote, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldest be ruler over my people Israel:

8 And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.

9 Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover I will subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore I tell thee that the LORD will build thee an house.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will stablish his throne for ever.

13 I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:

14 But I will settle him in mine house and in my kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be established for evermore.

15 According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak unto David.

16 ¶ And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O LORD, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

20 O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken

CHAPTER 18.

1 David subdueth the Philistines and Moabites. 3 He smiteth Hadarezer and the Syrians. 9 Tou sendeth presents to David. 11 The presents and spoil David dedicateth to God. 13 He putteth garrisons in Edom. 14 His officers.

NOW after this it came to pass, that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took [a] Gath and her [b] towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ And David smote [c] Hadarezer king of Zobah unto [d] Hamath, as he went to stablish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put [a] garrisons in Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from [4] Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, brought David very much brass, wherewith Solomon made the brasen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 ¶ Now when [5] Tou king of [d] Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah;

10 He sent [6] Hadoram his son [7] to king David, to enquire of his welfare, and [8] to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer [9] had war with Tou;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.

11 ¶ Them also king David dedicated unto the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12 Moreover [3] Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt eighteen thousand.

13 ¶ And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 ¶ So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice among all his people.

CHRONICLES 19 — omits the story of David's kindness in seeking out and befriending Mephibosheth (2 Sam. 9). This is in accord with the pattern of the book which overlooks the relations of David with Saul. Chronicles is more concerned in presenting David as the founder of a Theocratic Government and of the religious institutions of the Temple, and thus concentrates on incidents relating to these matters.

CHAPTER 19.

1 David's messengers, sent to comfort Hanun, are villainously entreated. 6 The Ammonites, strengthened by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abishai. 16 Shophach is slain by David.

NOW it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, 9 Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee for to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they had 10 made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of [a] Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-[b] maachah, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of [b] Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before [c] Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themselves in the field.

10 Now when Joab saw that 7 the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose out of all the 8 choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of 9 Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battle; and they fled before him.

To extend his power. Cp Ps. 75:4-6; 89:18, 24; 92:12. figuratively to add to the strength or honour of anyone. In this case through the blessing of a numerous family: 7 sons + 3 Daughters. Cp Ps. 127:3-5. Lack of the leaders of song and music once blessed by Yahweh. Cp Ps. 137:2. But suggests the pleasure of heaven in the harmony of song and instrument. The leaders exercised discipline to their song. V.6. They, in turn, were under the direction of David - Mentioned K.S.

"With their brethren" Ch. 27:3

Under the 3 main leaders were their 24 sons, and added to them were 11 each additional members called "brethren" making 288 in all. Some, however, comprised the children of the 24. Cp V. 10.

The 288 were divided into 2 Classes: The instructors and the scholars. Instructed is from LAMAD - To goad + by imp. to teach and answer. The scholars (TALMIYD) of KR which is derived from LAMAD. "Cunning" or Skilful is derived from BIYN - To separate distinguish between, discriminate and is rendered "Teacher" in V. 8.

There was both delegation of duties, respect for teachers, constant supervision and practise Cp Ps 11 (9-10) 1 Tim. 3:6

"the teacher + the scholar" V.8 - Teacher - BIYN The same word as is rendered "cunning" in V.7. "Scholar" is TALMIYD" from LAMAD - To goad. Both teachers + scholars participated in the actual service the latter gaining experience by the former working with them.

The selection by lot. V.9. : The selection elevated the second son of Asaph into first position like his famous namesake. Moreover the record gives him a unique position concentrating upon him more by adding the formula "his sons + his brethren". This doubtless due to the Divine direction of the Lot Pro 16:33. The first casting brings up the 2nd son Asaph; the second brings up the elevation of Jeduthun. etc

3 "32,000 soldiers exchange" of 1000 sent by the King of Maachah, are mentioned in the parallel passage 2 Sam. 10:6 but of chariots or cavalry there is no mention. But as the word "rider" denotes not only a charioteer but a rider (see Isa. 21:7) it might most probably be rendered here, in a collective sense, cavalry; then the number of troops will exactly agree with the passage of Samuel. It is probable that they were a kind of auxiliary troops who were usually mounted on horses, or in chariots, but who occasionally served as foot-soldiers. (Illustrative of Scripture knowledge) Thus both "footmen" V.18 or "horsemen" 2 Sam. 10:18 would be correct.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 ¶ And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the (2)river: and (3)Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven (d)thousand (5)men which fought in chariots, and forty thousand (d)footmen, (6)and killed Shophach the captain of the host.

19 And when the servants (7)of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

1 Rabbah, besieged and taken by Joab, is spoiled by David. 4 Three giants are slain in three several overthrows of the Philistines.

AND (e)it came to pass, that (5)after the year was expired, (5)at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and (f)wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. (g)And (f)Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 And David (h)took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it (6)to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the city.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and (@)cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 ¶ (@)And it came to pass after this, that there (i)arose war at (k)Gezer with the Philistines; at which time (4)Sibbechai the Hushathite slew (l)Sippai, that was of the children of the (m)giant: and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Philistines; and (n)Elhanan the son of (o)Jair slew (p)Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear staff was like a weaver's beam.

6 And yet again there was war at Gath, where was (q)a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was (2)the son of the giant.

7 But when he (3)defied Israel, (r)Jonathan the son of (s)Shimea David's brother slew him.

8 These were born unto the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

We stand aghast at great punishments but who trembles to equal extent at great sins. We are sensitive when the flesh suffers - but not so much when Yahweh is mocked. But punishment reveals the true measure of sin and is as beneficial as pain which prevents a person mortally hurting himself. Let it be strong to vindicate Yahweh's ways and judgments. There was benefit in these judgments, they awoke in Israel and David a consciousness of sin which, if it had slumbered could have brought about the complete rejection of both.

Cp 2 Sam. 24:1.

5. David evidently wanted to know the extent of his power. But there was a danger in doing so. Cp the warning of Deut. 17:17 with 2 Chr. 32:25-26.

The words "the times that a census was taken in Israel, what the capital commanded of Jonah Num 1:2, 26:2, etc. was for the purpose of working out the same three years had to be paid whether the actual strength of the nation was not dependent on numbers Exod 30:12. Cp Ps 33:17.

6 He was spokesman for the princes 2 Sam 24:4 who possibly pressed the point here expressed. Why should David persist? He was blinded by the exceptional circumstances that must have weighed particularly heavily on him.

David's sin was a "sin of the heart" 2 Sam 24:10. Cp v 8. Something not revealed. He acknowledges his sin and he is evil v 17. Having resisted this, he makes no attempt to cover it, no debate in defence, no agile argument in self justification.

7 The King and nation would be jointly lifted up in pride, and would be in danger of punishment. The community is a unit. The guilt of one falls on all unless all repudiate it. See Notes Lev 4:13, Josh 7:1.

For the route taken see 2 Sam 24:4-8. The time occupied was nine months 20 days.

Different figures are given in 2 Sam 24:9. There Israel = 800,000 and Judah 500,000, but the computation seems different. See note at that place.

10. All makes over 20 Num 1:20.

SIN REVEALED Vv 6-8.

Levi not to be numbered for war Num 1:47-9. They were numbered separately Num 3:15, 26:57. Apparently Joab was interrupted in the course of conducting the census Cp Ch. 27:24.

It was revealed to Joab as such. Perhaps he was advised of God's audience with the King and the prophet's condemnation of David's action v 11. There is little doubt that David would have called off the census as soon as he had received the message.

With the plague on David was not alone in the sin. Perhaps Israel was also glorying in its strength. Certainly it had just previously rejected its King and therefore Yahweh.

14. This had been revealed to the King by God 2 Sam 24:11. Early in the morning he had demanded an audience with the King, and plainly revealed to him the attitude of Yahweh to the matter. Instantly recognising his folly he pleads for a means of restitution. David now recognises the sufficiency of his iniquity to which he was previously blinded. It was ever ready to be removed. See Psalm.

5 And Joab answered, [6] The LORD make his people an hundred times so many more as they be: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be [a] a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people unto David. And all they of Israel were [b] a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was [b] four hundred threescore and ten thousand men that drew sword. [10]

6 [c] But Levi [11] and Benjamin counted he not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab. [12]

7 [d] And God was displeased with this thing; therefore he smote Israel. [13] Ps 25:11; 32:5

8 And David said unto God, I have sinned greatly, [14] because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly. Ps 51:1-3

9 ¶ And the LORD spake [15] unto Gad, David's seer, saying, [16]

10 Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I [e] offer thee three things: [17] choose thee one of them, that I may do it unto thee.

11 So Gad came to David, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [f] Choose thee [17]

12 Either [18] three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days

PUNISHMENT PROCLAIMED Vv 9-13

The severity of the punishment reveals the full measure of both David and Israel's sin.

PUNISHMENT REVEALED

This showed the fallacy of David or Israel trusting in numbers. They could all be wiped out as easily as 70000 were destroyed in 3 days!

23. Indicating how complete the destruction could have been. These men doubtless deserved to die, but as it was it revealed that David was responsible his prestige among the people would be lowered. Thus both King and people were purified.

saying of Gad, which he spake in the name of the LORD.

20 [2]And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshingfloor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

22 Then David said to Ornan, [3]Grant me the place of this threshingfloor, that I may build an altar therein unto the LORD: thou shalt [3]grant it me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people.

23 And Ornan said unto David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat offering; I give it all.

24 And king David said to Ornan, Nay; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt offerings without cost.

25 So David gave to Ornan for the place [3]six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called upon the LORD; and [4]he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt offering.

27 And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath thereof.

28 ¶ At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshingfloor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.

29 ¶ For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon.

30 But David could not go before it [a]to enquire of God: for he was [b]afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

2 And David commanded to gather together [d]the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew [e]wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the [f]joinings; and brass in abundance [h]without weight;

JERUSALEM THREATENED V.16. For 3 days the dreaded plague swept through the land from north to south encircling Jerusalem with death and mourning 2 Sam 24: 15. until every family was affected and the whole nation prostrated with grief. Then the Angel of death took his stand in threatening aspect towards Jerusalem. The plague commenced in the Capital, but suddenly the time was up, and expiation having been made, the plague ceased. Both King and people were punished. The horror of David at the result of his action is expressed in the heart broken words of V.17. But the people were also guilty. They had rejected Yahweh's Anointed & thus Yahweh Himself.

THE FUTURE SITE OF THE TEMPLE PURCHASED 20-27. See Note "Jacob's Exploit" 2 a. Ornan still retained possession of the valuable site of Mt. Zion which made the special circumstances of this tragedy he told to David 31 The threatening aspect of the angel startled Ornan. As he had been threshing wheat, he saw in terror he and his sons hid themselves from the awful appearance. Cp. Job 3:13-15

32 By driving oxen over it (Same word translated "place") 33 Uniform as in Ruth unto not known as in 2 Sam 24:24 as Ruth referred to the whole threshing area, and the two words relate to two different transactions. 34 He was as anxious for the plague to be stayed as David was. Cp Lev 10:19

35, 36 Threshing sledges were composed of balls of timber with sharp stones or iron pieces beneath. Cp Isa 41:15. Amos 1:3. 6:20-23. 37 Ornan bearing a Jebusite. 38 Cp Prov 3:19 He whose religion costs him nothing has a religion that is worth nothing. If Ornan's offer had been accepted it would have been his sacrifice!! 39 Cp 2 Sam 24:24 This amount was for the "place" the account in 2 Sam was only for the floor and the oxen. The "place" was the whole site of the future Temple - the "floor" was only part of this. This represented a very great sum of money. But David was prepared to pay a large sum to stop the plague. It also represented the high value he placed on the holy site of the future Temple. 40 See note Josh 8:31. This accepting the altar, the place and the offering. 41 Acceptable sacrifice was consumed by Divine fire Cp Lev 9:24. always kept burning Lev 6:13 See Note Mal. 1:7.

A DEDICATED SITE V.23-Chap 29 Made necessary by the sin of the people, and purchased with blood. 42 These verses are a parenthesis showing why David had to select a new place for worship.

NUMBERING THE PEOPLE Was not entirely without value. It became the basis of establishing the genealogy & right to inheritance of the returning exiles under Zerubbabel. Cp. 1 Chron. 7:2.

PLACE OF THE ALTAR V.18 This significant place was where Abraham's faith was justified by works. Gen 22:2,9. And perhaps where he took bread & wine from Melchizedek Gen 14: 17-20 David also offered sacrifices including bread & wine 1 Chr 21:23.

ORNAN OR ARAUNAH. See Jacob's Exploit top p. 425. and the Parable of his names. top right p. 451. Evidently a converted Gentile for his name honours Yahweh. 2 Sam 24:18 - and as a king 2 Sam 24:23 high in status. His occupation foreshadowed the Gospel. 41 Ch. 16:39; 1 Kg 3:4. 2 Chr. 1:3, 13.

43 It stood between Jerusalem and Gibeon, and the severity of the plague made immediate action essential.

ENTHUSIASTIC PREPARATIONS FOR THE TEMPLE Vv 2-5: David gives full vent to his desire to establish the Temple making tremendous preparations to ensure its completion. It was the greatest desire of his heart though he never lived to see it. Cp. Ps 27:4. 132:4-5.

DAVID'S CHARGE TO SOLOMON V.6 Reason why David forbidden to build the Temple: He was exclusively a man of war, and the future Builder will be Prince of Peace. Isa 9:6. Zech 6:12-13.

9 It was his ardent desire to do so. See Ps. 132:2-5; but the time was not right. 1 Kg 5:3.

CHAPTER 22 SUMMARY

What it needs to build acceptably for Yahweh. • A desire to perform and a knowledge of Yahweh's will 9-11 • Wisdom - understanding 12 • Obedience 12-13 • Determination - courage 13.

573 DAVID PREPARED. Though not permitted to build, he could prepare and allow the glory of the building to another. There was no peevishness in David's character. He did not say, If I cannot do all, I will do nothing. In his enthusiasm he went as far as he could. What a contrast to those Jews of Haggai's day Hag. 1:2.

The Strangers: Become proselytes Exod 12: 48-49. Must be treated fairly Ex. 22:21. 23:9 Gleanings provided Lev. 19:10. Treated as one of the land. Lev. 19:33-34 Extend help Lev 25:35-36 Loveth the stranger Deut. 10:18-19. Perhaps at tribal gatherings at Shechem Josh 8:33-35. David used them because of their diversified skills & mercly for cheap labor. 2 Ch. 2:17-18. 11-16

GOLD FOR THE TEMPLE V.14.

The Arabic version = "Gold a thousand talents, and silver a thousand talents." Parkhurst in his Lexicon suggests that these are the traces of a very important various reading in that copy of the LXX from which that version was made; and he defends his opinion by many critical and historical arguments. (Ant. of Jews. -Brown. Vol.I, P.152). Adopting this reading this could be a general statement by David that metal in 4000 talents had been stored - the specific amounts stored being given in Ch.29.

came to me, saying, @Thou hast shed blood abundantly, 7 and @hast made great wars: thou shalt not build an house unto my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him @rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be 'Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness unto Israel in his days.

10 'He shall build an house for my name; and 'he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now, my son, "the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only the LORD @give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

13 Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to fulfil the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: @be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.

14 Now, behold, @in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD an 'hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron "without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and 'workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is 'no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and "the LORD be with thee.

17 ¶ David also commanded all @the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

18 Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he 'not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people.

19 Now 'set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring "the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD.

DAVID RETIRES. V.1.

His reign merges into that of Solomon so they become as one, typifying that of Christ.

1 Lit. "Satisfied with days." His experience of the many done things of life was complete. There was but one thing he desired. Ps.27:4

2 There comes a time when all should retire when age brings inefficiency, and no longer should a nation or a congregation be afflicted with one who has past beyond the ability of rendering effective service. Perhaps David remembered the example of Samuel. See Note 1 Sam. 12.

ORGANISATION OF THE LEVITES. Vv. 2-6.

3 He assembled them by royal command, that all might be put in order in preparation of Solomon's reign Cp. Ch. 22:5.

4 This was a different census from that conducted by Joab Cp Ch.21 6.

5 In accordance with the Mosaic Law Num

574 4/4 but this was later altered by David Cp V. 27. Cp Ezra 3:8

6 Lit. "By their polls." "Poll" obsolete word for head. Their heads were counted because they were expected to use them: We count by hands - those who will help us, if necessary, without thought.

7 They had increased from the 23,000 in the time of Moses Num. 26:62. They were divided into 24,000 Overseers, 6,000 Officers and Judges, 4,000 porters, 4,000 musicians Vv 4-5.

8 From the use of this expression in Ezra 3:8-9 this appointment had relation to the building of the Temple. Cp 2 Chr. 2:2, 18. 34:12.

GOD FOR THE TEMPLE V.1.

SOLOMON. One of 7 named before birth: Ishmael. Gen.16:11; Isaac Gen.17:19; Solomon. 1 Chr.22:9. Josiah 1 Kg.13:2 Cyrus Isa.44:28-45:1; John the Baptist Luke 1:13; Jesus Luke 1:31

7 This is the first time recorded. The antitype requires a man of peace as well as of war. Isa 9:6-7

8 These words are additional to those of 2 Sam 7. Have descriptive of the typical forshadowing of the Covenant.

9 Thus enabling him to concentrate upon this important project. For the antitype See. Hag. 2:6-9

Lit. Shelomoh from "Shalam" Peaceable. His name was also Jedidiah 2 Sam 12:25. See the feminine form in Song. 6:13

Shalom. - Life, at ease, prosperous, happy

1 Kings 4:25 5:4.

Or selection not begotten Cp Ch.28:6 As such he typified Christ to whom the words really applied Cp Heb.1:5

BA The Heb. does not express future time. Roth. = "A son born to thee..." This statement evidently an addition at latter one than that of 2 Sam.7.

14 From a root "bere" - "To separate, distinguish." The application of Wisdom Cp Deut.17:14-20 Prov.4:3-13

The basis of true prosperity Josh 1:1-8; Ps. 1:1-3. Mt.5: 3-10. Cp Deut.4:1.

Cp instructions to Joshua Josh 1:4; 1 Cor.16:13; Eph.6:10; 2 Tim.2:1

Do not let anything deter or discourage you.

In spite of war, treachery, domestic problems, his own failings, he never lost sight of the one supreme object and desire of his life. Ps.27:4, 13 Ps.122:5.

20 According to Clarke 1 Talent Gold = 3000 Shekels = £507 15s 11d. £507, 5s, 12s. CB: Talent of Gold 131 lb = £6,150.

21 Clarke = £373-11-10: £353,5W, 46:13:4. CB: Talent Silver 117 lb troy Clarke gives total value: £5C1 16s 7d: 13:4. Perhaps symbolic for superfluous. If Sept. reading is accepted, Dav. id said this had been gathered in his poverty" (See Marg.) This was to emphasise that the project in hand was far above such wealth which was but a token of true value - without price.

22 Indicating the great project left to Solomon. The fact that he was exhorted to add to such wealth emphasised the importance and magnitude of the task

CHAPTER 23. SUMMARY. There is work for all in the service of Yahweh. and in it all should work. Key Verse 28.

9 Heb "Shalam" Sig. "To write" i.e. a Scribe. A superintendent or magistrate. Scribe (Sopher) is a different word. The appointment was according to the Law Deut. 17:18 They evidently superintendered the execution of certain laws and instructions Cp Deut. 20:5, 8, 9. 31:28. 1 Chr. 26: 29. their duties related to "outward business" 26:29.

10 Shaphat - to pronounce sentence. Cp Deut. 1: 16. 2 Chr. 19:5.

11 RV - Door Keepers. For their duties see Ch.26.

DAVIDIC COVENANT. WHEN WAS THE STATEMENT OF VV 8-10 MADE? Solomon was not born nor David married to Bathsheba at the time the Covenant of 2 Sam. 7 made. The wording of this promise differs from that of 2 Sam. 7 that applies directly to the Lord. This evidently made later. See note V.9. This is described as a direct revelation to David V.8 whereas that of 2 Sam. 7 was given through Nathan. Perhaps David performed the Father following his transgression & received this reassurance that his sin was forgiven. Cp. 1 Chr. 21:5; 2 Sam. 12:24.

THE SERVICE OF THE HOUSE. The remaining verses record general arrangements regarding the offices and future work of the Levites. They comprise some of the last instructions of David. See below Duties of Levites.

26 Cf Num. 4:3. The wilderness wanderings imposed greater duties on Levites and with more settled conditions it was possible thought fit to introduce younger men to the work. Cf 4:27. At first David appointed the Levites to work from 30 yrs up wards V.3 but once the Temple was built with its chambers, courts, etc. and the worship more organised throughout the land, a more numerous ministry would be required - hence, possibly, the reduction in age.

Styled a "Saint" in Ps 106:16.

The separation of Heron for this purpose taught the Holy Nation that it was profane and would contaminate the Holy things unless such as he sanctified for the purpose should thus minister Cp Note Exod. 28:1.

A wonderful testimony of a wonderful man. We can all become "men of God" irrespective as to personal fleshly ability.

The title is used 5 times for Moses Deut. 33:1; Neh. 12:36; 2 Chr. 30:16; Ezra 3:2 to David 2 Chr. 8:14; Neh. 12:24, 36 once to Shemaiah 1 Kg 12:22. Plus title Ps 90

19 Therefore his sons were incorporated as houses among the Amramites.

JAHATH SON OF SHELOMITH or SHELOMOTH. CH. 24:22 - Sig. Unity. A descendant of Izhar, Kohath's 2nd son. Ch. 23:12.

18 Jahath is the 3rd name of this series of "other sons of Levi". The absence of these 3 names from the list of Ch. 23:6-23 suggests that while that list is occupied with fathers' houses this one is occupied with the official classes of the Levites who were to be engaged as described in Ch. 23:28

SONS OF HEBRON. V.19. Jeriah - Yahweh will throw = Shoot

Amariah - Yahweh has said or promised. Jahaziel - El seeth. Jekameam - The people will rise.

THE PRIESTS. (See also Num. 18).

Each course served a week in turn 2 Chr. 23:4-8 2 Kings 11:7 commencing on a Sabbath.
Perhaps like Levites, commenced initiation at 25 (Num. 8:24) and at 30 commenced full duties Num. 4:3 but Cp. 1 Chr. 23:24. The Levites retired at 50. Nothing said regarding the commencement or retirement of Priests.
Apart from initiation of Aaron's immediate sons, no rite of initiation prescribed. Sufficient if they could establish their genealogical right (Ezra 2:61-63 Neh. 7:63) and were free from bodily blemish or legal pollution (Lev. 21:16,23).

According to the Jews each course divided 3 ranks - Chief of the course, Chief of every family, Common priests. Thus there was a constant system of subordination and supervision that all things might be done "decently and in order." Cp Col. 2:5; 1 Cor. 14:40.

CHAPTER 24.

1 The divisions of the sons of Aaron by lot into four and twenty orders. 20 The Kohathites, 27 and the Merarites divided by lot.

NOW these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. (1) The sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
2 But [a] Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.
3 And David distributed them, both (b) Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and [b] Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.
4 And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men [c] of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar [d] according to the house of their fathers.
5 Thus were they divided by [e] lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.
6 And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and [f] Zadok the priest, and [g] Ahimelech the son of [h] Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one [i] principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.
7 Now the first lot came forth to Jehoiarib, the second to [k] Jedaiah,
8 The third to [l] Harim, the fourth to Seorim,
9 The fifth to [m] Malchijah, the sixth to Mijamin,
10 The seventh to [n] Hakkoz, the eighth to (o) Abijah,
11 The ninth to Jeshuah, the tenth to Shecaniah,
12 The eleventh to Eliashib, the twelfth to Jakim,
13 The thirteenth to Huppah, the fourteenth to Jeshebeab,
14 The fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to [p] Immer,
15 The seventeenth to Hezir, the eighteenth to Aphses,
16 The nineteenth to Pethahiah, the twentieth to Jehezekel,
17 The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul,
18 The three and twentieth to Delaiah, the four and twentieth to Maaziah.
19 These were the orderings of them in their service [q] to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.
20 ¶ And the rest of the sons of Levi were these: Of the sons of (r) Amram; Shubael: of the sons of Shubael; Jehdeiah.
21 Concerning [s] Rehabiah: of the sons of Rehabiah, the first was Isshiah.
22 Of the Izharites; (t) Shelomoth: of the sons of Shelomoth; Jahath.
23 And the sons (u) of Hebron, Jeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, Jekameam the fourth.
24 Of the sons of Uzziel; [v] Michah: of the sons of Michah; Shamir.

The division of the singers.

Isshiah: of the sons of Isshiah; Zechariah. 26 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi: the sons of Jaaziah; Beno. 27 The sons of Merari by Jaaziah; Beno, and Shoham, and Zaccur, and Ibri. 28 Of Mahli came Eleazar, who had no sons. 29 Concerning Kish: the son of Kish was Jerahmeel. 30 The sons also of Mushi; Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth. These were the sons of the Levites after the house of their fathers. 31 These likewise cast lots over against their brethren the sons of Aaron in the presence of David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren.

CHAPTER 25

THE TEMPLE MUSICIANS APPOINTED Vv1-8

1 MOREOVER David and the captains of the host separated to the service of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen according to their service was: 2 Of the sons of Asaph; Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asarelah, the sons of Asaph under the hands of Asaph, which prophesied according to the order of the king. 3 Of Jeduthun: the sons of Jeduthun; Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the LORD.

MUSICAL SEERS V.5.

The chief singers were called "seers" 2 Chr. 29:30. 35:15. 1 Chr. 25:5. Doubtless their ministrations helped men like David to concentrate their minds more completely on eternal things and thus reveal the future more vividly. Cp 2 Kings 3:15.

HEMAN'S SONS.

Heman was blessed with a numerous progeny. V.5. The names of the last seven sons form the following prayer:

Be gracious unto me, O Yahweh;
Be gracious unto me!
Thou art my El,
Thou hast magnified and exalted help for him that sat in distress.
Thou hast given visions abundantly

This has caused critics to suggest that the names are fictitious, designed only to express the prayer. What it shows is that Heman, in naming his sons, did so with the set purpose of glorifying Yahweh thereby as parents have frequently done since. (C.B.). Such combinations of names are common in Scripture. E.g. Gen. 49. Zech. 11.

4 Of Heman: the sons of Heman; Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, and Mahazioth: 5 All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God to lift up the horn. And God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. 6 All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, psalteries, and harps, for the service of the house of God, according to the king's order to Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman.

7 So the number of them, with their brethren that were instructed in the songs of the LORD, even all that were cunning, was two hundred fourscore and eight.

8 And they cast lots, ward against ward, as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar.

9 Now the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph: the second to Gedaliah, who with his brethren and sons were twelve:

10 The third to Zaccur, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

11 The fourth to Izri, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

12 The fifth to Nethaniah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

13 The sixth to Bukkiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

14 The seventh to Jesharelah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

15 The eighth to Jeshaiah, he, his sons, and his brethren, were twelve:

16 The ninth to Mattaniah,

"UNDER THE HANDS OF THEIR FATHER" Vv2,3,4.

Family groups combined to produce glorious harmony in the service of Yahweh. The father educated his sons in the music, and led them in the playing. They were subservient to him and under his direction united to produce beautiful sound leading the people to Divine Worship. Yod - the open hand of power, direction.

CONCERNING the divisions of the porters: Of the Korhites was [b] Meshelemiah the son of Kore, of the sons of [c] Asaph.

4 Moreover the sons of [e] Obed-edom were, Shemaiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the fifth,

5 Ammiel the sixth, Issachar the seventh, Peulthai the eighth: for God blessed [3] him.

6 Also unto [f] Shemaiah his son were sons born, that ruled throughout the house of their father: for they were mighty men of valour.

7 The sons of Shemaiah; Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, Elzabad, whose brethren were [g] strong men, Elihu, and Semachiah.

8 All these of the sons of Obed-edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men for strength for the service, were threescore and two of Obed-edom.

9 And [h] Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, [i] strong men, eighteen.

10 Also [1] Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons; Simri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the chief;)

11 Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah were thirteen.

12 Among these were the divisions of the porters, even among the chief men, having wards one against another, to minister in the house of the LORD.

29 Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges.

30 And of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, were officers among them of Israel on this side Jordan westward in all the business of the LORD, and in the service of the king.

32 And his brethren, men of valour, were two thousand and seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, for every matter pertaining to God, and affairs of the king.

6 Sons of Leah are given, then 6 (actual or legal) of Rachel. There is no mention of Gad or Asher, probably because there was a desire to limit the princes to 12, and Dan having migrated from south to extreme north assumed pre-eminence over Asher and for the same reason Manasseh in the east takes the place of Gad. Zadok as prince of Aaron stands as representative of Israel as a whole.

3 But God said unto me, (n) Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of war, and hast shed (o) blood. 1 Sam 16:6-13 7:8-16

4 Howbeit the LORD God of Israel [q] chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel (r) for ever: for he hath chosen (s) Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, [x] the house of my father; and [y] among the sons of my father he liked me to make me king over all Israel:

5 [z] And of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) (t) he hath chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of [d] the kingdom of the LORD over Israel.

6 And he said unto me, (u) Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father.

CHAPTER 29.

1 David, by example and intreaty, 6 causeth the princes and people to offer willingly. 10 David's thanksgiving and prayer. 20 The people make Solomon king. 26 David's reign and death.

FURTHERMORE David the king said unto all the congregation, [1]Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet [a]young and tender, and the work is great: for the [b]palace is not for man, but for the LORD God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; [c]onyx stones, and stones [d]to be set, [e]glistering stones, [f]and [m]of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and [g]marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own [h]proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

4 Even [i]three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of [j]Ophir, and seven thousand talents of [k]refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses withal:

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing [l]to consecrate his service this day unto the LORD?

6 ¶ Then [m]the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with [n]the rulers of the king's work, offered willingly,

7 And gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand [o]drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom [p]precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, [q]by the hand of [r]Jehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they [s]offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 ¶ Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, [t]Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

11 Thine, O LORD, is the [u]greatness, and the [v]power, and the [w]glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the [x]kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 [y]Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and [z]in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should [a]be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and [b]of thine own have we given thee.

15 For we are [c]strangers before thee, and [d]sojourners, as were all our fathers: [e]our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none [f]abiding.

16 O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou [c]triest the heart,[3] and [d]hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen [e]with joy thy people, which are [2]present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in [4] the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and [f]prepare their heart unto thee:

19 And give unto Solomon my son [g]a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the [1]palace, for the which [h]I have made provision.

20 ¶ And David said to all the congregation. Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation [i]blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and [j]bowed down their heads, and worshipped the LORD, and the king.

21 And they sacrificed sacrifices unto the LORD, and offered burnt offerings unto the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their [a]drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel:

22 And did eat and drink before the LORD on that day with [5] great gladness. And they made Solomon the son of David king [a]the second time, and [b]anointed him unto the LORD to be the chief governor, and [a]Zadok to be priest.

23 [c]Then Solomon sat on [f]the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.
