24 And all the princes, and the mighty men, and [6] all the sons likewise of king David, [g]submitted themselves unto Solomon the king.

25 And the LORD [1]magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and [h]bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

26 ¶ Thus David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel.

27 And the time that he reigned over Israel was [k]forty years; [l]seven years reigned he in Hebron, and thirty and three years reigned he in Jerusalem.

28 And he died [m]in a good old age, [n]full of days, riches, and honour: and Solomon his son reigned in his stead.

29 Now the acts of David the king, [1]first and last, behold, they are written in the [5]book of [o]Samuel the [7]seer, and in the [5]book of [p]Nathan the prophet, and in the [5]book of [q]Gad the [7]seer, 30 With all his reign and his might, and [b]the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

JOAB (Cont'd) When David resolved to number the people, Joab endeavoured to dissuade him from his purpose & when he failed to do so, performed the task reluctantly so to give the King opportunity to reconsider the matter 2 Sam. 24:1-4. When he was supplanted by Amasa, he murdered him 2 Sam. 20:4-13. When Solomon was proclaimed King, Joab joined with Adonijah, & later, when he failed to keep the conditions imposed by Solomon he was put to death 1 Kings 2:5, 28-34. for he served David's ends as well as his virtues.

● He was a man of great military prowess, valiant, capable He had scant respect for authority whether that of the King or of God. David made the mistake of permitting him to become too familiar with him. To world at his enemies he was ruthless, revengeful, treacherous.

THE ECCLESIA RESPONDS 20-22

Stimulated by the action and worship of the King the people give themselves over to the pure joy of Divine worship, offering up Peace offerings of which they likewise partook in communion with Yahweh. See Notes Josh. 8:31

26 They paid him reverence as Yahweh's Anointed and representative on earth.
27 Appropriate to each offering. Cp Num. 15:5, 7, 10
28 These were thank offerings See Lepp. 138. The peace offerings for thanksgiving only a portion was the priests - the worshippers his friends feasted on the rest. See 1435. Fellowship.

DAVID - A SUMMARY.

By Birth a peasant - by upbringing a shepherd, in youth a hero, by Divine choice a King, in manhood a monarch, in old age an example.

JOAB: THE OVER-AMBITIOUS - Sig. Yahweh is Father

Joab was a man of over-weening ambition whose one objective was to succeed. He loved self. He was prepared to murder those who stood in his way, and had it not been for David, Joab would have sought the throne of Israel itself.

He was a man of outstanding ability in war, of great courage and determination, but those excellent qualities were not matched by faith and so he is revealed as a ruthless seeker of power. His loyalties were for the flesh whether they were manifested towards David or himself, and not for Yahweh Whose name he bore.

● He was one of three sons of Zeruiah (see), the sister of David. His father is not named in Scripture, but Josephus (Ant. 7.1.3.) gives it as Seri. He seems to have resided in Bethlehem, & died before his sons came into prominence, as we find mention of his sepulchre at that place 2 Sam. 2:32.

● He first came into prominence with his brothers, Abishai and Asahel in charge of David's army against Abner who was championing the cause of Ishbosheth. Abner was worsted in battle, but in flight he slew Asahel. 2 Sam. 2:10-23.

● Joab was greatly angered at the death of his brother, but bided his time. Later Abner, quarrelling with Ishbosheth, defected to David, & approached him in Hebron to enlist in his service. Joab, hearing of this, chided with David. He then sent messengers after Abner who returning at once was treacherously & ruthlessly murdered by Joab. David deplored the act, but in view of the unsettled conditions of the nation took no other steps to restrain his able & intrepid nephew. (2 Sam. 3:28-39)

● His undoubted courage earned him the title of "Chief Captain" of the army of all Israel 1 Chr. 11:5-8. He had a chief armour-bearer of his own, Naharai, a Beerothite 1 Chr. 11:39. & ten attendants to carry his equipment & baggage 2 Sam 18:15. He was addressed by the title of "Lord" 2 Sam. 11:11, and bore the title of "General or Prince of the King's army" 1 Chr. 27:34. His usual residence was in Jerusalem, but he also had house & property in the country (2 Sam. 14:30).

● His military achievements were considerable. He showed commendable loyalty to David and expended himself on his behalf. In the case of Uriah & Bathsheba, however David was brought under obligation to Joab who served him as he desired whereas a better service would have been to oppose the King. He helped Absalom when the King banished him 2 Sam. 14, but loyalty remained with the King when he went into exile & ruthlessly put Absalom to death in spite of the King's injunction to spare him 2 Sam. 18:2, 11-15. 1 The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon. 7 Solomon's choice of wisdom is blessed by God. 13 Solomon's strength and wealth.

AND Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and [c] the LORD his God was with him, and [d] magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to [e] the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 So Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to [f] the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, [g] which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

4 [h] But the ark of God had David brought up from [i] Kirjath-jearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover [j] the brasen altar, that [k] Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, [l] he put before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the congregation [m] sought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the brasen altar before the LORD, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and [n] offered a thousand burnt offerings upon it.

7 ¶ [o] In that night did God appear unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead.

9 Now, O LORD God, let thy promise unto David my father [p] be established: for thou hast made me king over a people [q] like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great?

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, [r] wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches, and [s] wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

13 ¶ Then Solomon came from his journey to [t] the high place that was at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tabernacle of the congregation, and reigned over Israel.

14 [u] And Solomon [v] gathered chariots and horsemen: and [w] he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, which he placed in [x] the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

15 And the king [y] made silver and gold at Jerusalem as plenteous as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in the vale for abundance.

16 And [z] Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and linen

CHAPTER 2.

1, 17 Solomon's labourers for the building of the temple. 3 His embassage to Huram for workmen and materials. 11 Huram's kind answer. In the Hebrew text this verse concludes Ch. 1

AND Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.
2 And Solomon told out threescore and ten thousand men to bear burdens, and fourscore thousand to hew in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred to oversee them.
3 And Solomon sent to Huram the king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.
4 Behold, I build an house to the name of the LORD my God, to dedicate it to him, and to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual shewbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the LORD our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.
5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods.
6 But who is able to build him an house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then, that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?
7 Send me now therefore a man cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide.
8 Send me also cedar trees, fir trees, and algum trees, out of Lebanon: for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon; and, behold, my servants shall be with thy servants,
9 Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be wonderful great.
10 And, behold, I will give to thy servants, the hewers that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.
11 Then Huram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.
12 Huram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, endued with prudence and understanding, that might build an house for the LORD, and an house for his kingdom.
13 And now I have sent a cunning man, endued with understanding, of Huram my father's,
14 The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skilful to work in gold, and in SOLOMON EMPLOYS 153,600 AS BEARERS & HEWERS Vv 1-2.

1 Lit. "said." Solomon came to this work naturally as by birth and education. His father dreamed & spoke thought of little else. He gathered material for it from friend and foe alike. He warned and instructed Solomon concerning it. It would have been a negation of Solomon's position and work not to have gone ahead with it.
2. For Yahweh's glory. In building for His glory, he built for the glory of the Kingdom. Deut 12:5, 11 1 Chr 28:5; 1 Chr 22:10
3. Counted. These workmen were aliens V. 17 Cp 1 Sam. 12:11 2 Chr. 22:1, 15. They were distinguished from the 30,000 Israelites who also labored by rotation 1 Kings 5:14.

SOLOMON APPEALS TO HIRAM FOR AID Vv 3-10

4. Various meanings given. See Note 1 Kings 5:1. Some suggest "Ah" - brother "rom" - Exalted. Their whole concept of God is exalted.
5. He typed the latter day Tyre. Ps. 45:12. Isa. 26:18
6. Solomon goes to trouble to explain exactly what was required. Hiram doubtless had some understanding of the procedure of worship. See 1 Kings 5:7. His detailed explanation was a guard against any idea that the Temple was Yahweh's literal home — as the temples of idols housed their gods — it was only the place where worship was offered Cp V. 6.
7 Not in size but in beauty and significance. It was not a place for congregations of worshippers, but for worship.
8 With all his wisdom, Solomon could not dispense with the humble labours of others. He was dependent on their co-operation. Cp 1 Kings 5:6
9 Lit. To Carve.
10 See Notes 1 Kings 5:11
11 The Grecian Juniper. It reaches to height of 65 ft and grows in shape of pyramid. Hiram also sent his navy to Ophir to procure timber in Lebanon; and, because for Solomon the Wood. This is identified with sweet scented Almug Wood. This is identified as red sandalwood and grows to height of a vast tree, with trunk 4½ ft in circumference. The timber is very heavy & fine grained, black outside & inside a rich ruby red which takes a fine polish giving forth a pleasant perfume. Cp 1 Kings 10:12 (All the plants of the Bible).

HIRAM'S WORK. In 1 Kings 7:14 his work is limited to brass or copper or bronze (a compound of copper & zinc) - nowhere that he wrought in gold. His workmanship is described 1 Kg 7:14 as of Bezaleel Exod. 31:3 but lacks the statement "filled with the Spirit of God" His natural ability in the things of the Hosh (copper) was used under Solomon.

BUILDING THE TEMPLE Jerusalem has three eminences: Acra - South = city. Zion (north) = Palace David. Morriah (middle East) = Temple. The wall that enclosed the Temple and surrounding buildings was built at tremendous trouble and expense (Ant. 15:11) from bottom of deep valley Kedron. " The first stage in the building operations was the digging of spacious trenches right across the sides of the mount, in rectangular form, and then their filling in with stone rubble and mortar - the concrete of those days. Upon this strong foundation the lower walls were erected (Jer. 's its Temples') The walls are formed of solid masonry, the stones averaging 25ft long 6ft wide 8ft high, some examined by Palestine exploration experts are marked with Phoenician letters, and in vermillion - the work of Hiram's men Cp 1 Kings 6:7. See Note 1 Kings 6.

THE BUILDING COMMENCED. Vv 1-2.

The place, and time of building the temple.
3 The measure and ornaments of the house.
11 The cherubims. 14 The vail and pillars.

1 THEN [r] Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount [s] Moriah, [7] where the LORD appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshingfloor of [w] Ornan the Jebusite.

2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign. [x]

3 ¶ Now these are the things wherein Solomon was [6] instructed for the building of the house of God. [t] The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the [u] porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty: [v] and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And [w] the greater house he [x] cieled with [y] fir tree, [z] which he overlaid with fine gold, and set [a] thereon [b] palm trees and [c] chains.

6 And he [d] garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim. [e]

7 He overlaid also the house, the [f] beams, the [g] posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof, with gold; and [h] graved cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made the [i] most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and [k] he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents. [l]

9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the [m] upper chambers with gold.

10 And in the [n] most holy house he made [o] two cherubims [p] of image work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 ¶ And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five

THE GROUND-PLAN OF THE TEMPLE. Vv 3-7. Cp 1 Kings 6:2.

Intense activity was now the order of the day. In the north Hiram's skilled craftsmen, together with the 10,000 Israelites 2 Kings 5:13-14, prepared the materials - wood, stone, metals, which were quarried by the 153,600 strangers. Down the Mediterranean came the crafts to Joppa. The seaport became a hive of industry, and along the road to Jerusalem, the transports conveyed the timber to the capital.

Beneath the holy mount stone was quarried and shaped for the Temple so that quietly, with the minimum of noise the remarkable edifice arose. For the stone of Jerusalem. See Note. Ezek 40.

Like the Altar in the days of Christ this was probably made of rough stones covered with brass. Cp. Exod 20:26 The priests ascended to top Altar by means of an inclined plane. Steps around it would reduce the burning area.

They were 4 cubits sq x 3 high. They had lions, oxen, cherubim as bas-reliefs upon the ledges that were above the bases with 4 wheels to roll them from place to place, with brackets at each corner to hold the laver. Set not given but each held 40 baths approx 335 gallons 1 Kg 7:26-39.

588 JACHIN & BOAZ (Cont.): What was the purpose of the pillars? They do not appear to have been structural & evidently were monumental. It has been suggested that they were huge cressets or fire altars on which sacred incense was burned. The glow of the fire at night & the smoke during the day being reminiscent of the pillar of cloud by day & the pillar of fire by night Exod 40: 35-38. providing a symbolic representation of the Divine Presence in Israel's past and present.

THE CASTING OF THE BRAZEN VESSELS

The casting of such huge objects as the pillars and the sea was a remarkable engineering achievement. For instance, the weight of the sea has been estimated as between 25-30 tons. Succoth has been identified with Deir Alla north of the Jabbok where it makes the turn westward towards the Jordan, half way between the two seas. Excavations have revealed metal slag & portions of a crucible. Zeredathah has been identified with Tell es-Sa'idiyeh about 14m north of Adam, Tell ed-Damiyeh. Surface exploration by Nelson Glueck confirmed by excavations of James Pritchard in 1963-64 show these sites to have been thriving bronze-foundry centres in Solomon's time. See Beacon on 1 Kings 7.

16 The pots also, and the shovels, and the fleshhooks, and all their instruments, did Huram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the LORD of bright brass.

17 In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.

18 Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.

19 ¶ And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon the shewbread was set;

THE ARK BROUGHT INTO THE SANCTUARY VV 2-10.

2 ¶ Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

3 Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in the feast which was in the seventh month.

4 And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the ark.

5 And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the priests and the Levites bring up.

6 Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD unto his place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims:

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark and the staves thereof above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And there it is unto this day.

10 There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put therein at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.

Instead of plural (seeing) relating to staves, this in singular - Ark. Chronicles was written perhaps by Ezra, but after the destruction Jerusalem. 2 Chr. 36:22-23 and the return. This statement could apply to the new Ark that was placed in the 2nd Temple and identified with the first (the Lord identified the two buildings as one Mark 11:17) or it could relate to the fact that the Ark was but a symbol of that which always existed - the Mercy Seat is always there - though its earthly symbol was removed. Thus Daniel prayed towards the Temple though it was in ruins Dan 6:10 & 9:17-21. The material Temple was but a symbol of the reality

The Judges + Saul were chosen by Yahweh as temporary rulers of Israel, but not to establish a permanent and hereditary authority over the people as was the case with David. the clause is wanting in the parallel passage of Kings but it helps to clarify the sense. Cp v.5; 1Kgs 8:16.

4 And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spake with his mouth to my father David, saying,

5 Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build an house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:

6 But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.

7 Now it was in the heart of David my father to build an house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

8 But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thine heart to build an house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thine heart:

9 Notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house; but thy son which shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name.

10 The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken: for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.

11 And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Israel.

12 ¶ And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands:

13 For Solomon had made a brasen scaffold, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled down upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven,

34 If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name;
35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their [5] cause.
36 If they sin against thee, (for there is no man [6] which sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and [7] they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;

38 If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name:
39 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their [5] cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee.
40 Now, my God, let, I beseech thee, [b] thine eyes be open, and let [c] thine ears be attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.
41 Now therefore [d] arise, O LORD God, into thy [e] resting place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in [f] goodness.

of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of musick of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.

7 Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the brasen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offerings, and the meat offerings, and the fat.

8 Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt.

9 And in the eighth day they made a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.

10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away into their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

12 And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for an house of sacrifice.

13 If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

14 If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

15 Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent unto the prayer that is made in this place.

16 For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

17 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments;

18 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.

These cities were in Asher not far south of Tyre. They were possibly unoccupied by Israelites - therefore in need of repair. They were not much use to Hiram who therefore returned them.

20 Then will I @pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a byword among all nations.

21 And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus unto this land, and unto this house?

22 And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

See Note p.207. Once in the land the wars of Joshua would have interfered with the establishment of full worship. the "place" had not then been defined Deut.12:11 although some went up to the Tabernacle (1Sam.1:3). The anarchy of times of Judges would suggest this was far from a general rule however. The closing days of Eli and ministry of Samuel saw the Ark separated from the Tabernacle, so that Day of Atonement could not be kept, the days of Saul saw the Ephod in hands of fugitive priest so that the High Priest was absent from people.

Now, for first time ~~Ark~~ "the place" defined, the Ark united with Most Holy, and the full order of worship commenced. So it will be in the Kingdom.

AND @when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, [2] she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart. 4 - 1 Kg 4:11

5 And she said to the king, It was a true [4] report which I heard in mine own land of thine [5] acts, and of thy wisdom:

6 Howbeit I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and, behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard. 15 Enough

9 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices 18 great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought [7] algum trees and precious stones.

SUMMARY SOLOMON AND THE QUEEN OF SHEBA - His Splendour and Revenue. The witness of wisdom. Those who honour Yahweh will gain honour. Key Verses V.1 - fame V.2

there were none such[5] seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatsoever she asked, beside that which [a]she had brought unto the king. So she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

13 ¶ [b]Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold;

14 Beside that which chapmen and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and [3]governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 ¶ And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with [7]pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and [8]stays on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the stays:

19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

20 ¶ And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of [9]pure gold: [9]none were of silver; it was [r]not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

21 For the king's ships went to Tarshish[1] with the servants of Huram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold, and silver, [2]ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22 And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 ¶ And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

25 ¶ [d]And Solomon had [c]four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; whom he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

26 ¶ [e]And he reigned over all the kings from the [4]river even unto the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt.

27 And the king [5]made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar trees made he as the sycomore trees that are in the low plains in abundance.

28 And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 ¶ [f]Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, [1]first and last, are they not written in the [7]book of [m]Nathan the prophet, and in the [n]prophecy of [o]Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of [p]Iddo the [8]seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

Heb. "Kissai" from same root as Kopher - Atonement and signifying a covered or canopied throne. This was set up in the Porch of Judgment 1 Kings 7:7. and was the principal throne of state and Judgment, though other lesser Judges occupied other thrones Cp Ps. 122:5.

It represented Yahweh's Throne on earth Ps 94. Isa. 6:1. Ezek. 1:26. and anticipated the great Throne of future age Rev. 3:21. Rev. 20:11. with which is associated lesser thrones Rev. 20:4 Matt. 19:28. LUKE 22:30. See particularly. Isa. 22:23. Ps. 45:16.

DIVISION CH. 10:1 marks the point in history at which the Kingdom of God brought to its zenith under David + Solomon was torn in two. Solomon's son + successor was both weak and inept, the victim of a shrewd + powerful antagonist, Jeroboam. He not only turned from the counsel of the older men but that also of his father.

THE CONFERENCE AT SHECHEM VV. 1-5.

See Notes. 1 Kings 12: 1-5.

The first step taken by R. was judicious + conciliatory. He went out of his way to cement the north to the south. But obviously J. continued to agitate.

DIVIDED COUNSELS 6-15

See Notes. 1 Kings 12:6-15. Prov. 19:20; Ecc. 2:19

2 He was over 40 years of age. 1 Kg 14:21 + should have been experienced enough to accept right advice. Note the appealing terms of the advice of the experienced counsellors. 1 Kg 11:7 Despite his age, Rehoboam was inexperienced Cp Ch. 8:7.

1 There existed a spirit of discontent + Jeroboam was called to represent the malcontents. He was over time overseer of the forced labor. 1 Kg 11:27-28

1 And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king. - 1 Kg 12:1 Note.

2 And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt, (b) whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spake to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed. 2

6 ¶ And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, (c) If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

11 For whereas my father [2] put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I [c] will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men,

14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I [c] will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people: for the [3] cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spake by the hand of (d) Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 ¶ And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Rehoboam raising an army to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemaiah. 5 He strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and provision. 18 The wives and children of Rehoboam.

AND when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. - Below

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all [f] Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against [1] your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built [m] cities for defence in Judah.

6 He built even [o] Beth-lehem, and [p] Etam, and [q] Tekoa,

7 And [r] Beth-zur, and [s] Shoco, and [t] Adullam,

10 And [d] Zorah, and [e] Aijalon, and [f] Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin [g] fenced cities.

11 And he fortified [4] the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victual, and of oil and wine.

12 And in [5] every several city he put shields and spears, and made them exceeding strong, having Judah and Benjamin on his side.

13 ¶ And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel [3] resorted to him out of all their coasts.

14 For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons [d] had cast them off from executing the priest's office unto the LORD:

15 And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for [e] the devils, and for [v] the calves which he had made.

16 [h] And after them out of all the tribes of Israel such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they [k] strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon,

18 ¶ And Rehoboam took him Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David to wife, and Abihail the daughter of [m] Eliab the son of Jesse;

19 Which bare him children; Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham.

20 And after her he took [t] Maachah the daughter of Absalom; which bare him [x] Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen

THE REBUKE OF SHEMAIAH

He explains the cause of invasion and calls for national acceptance of punishment.

National crisis. They wisely devising means counter-attack

SHISHAK had given an asylum to Jeroboam when he fled from Solomon (1Kin.11:40). This was indicative of his policy to encourage the weakening of Israel, whose strength under David and Soloman must have occasioned alarm. He invaded Israel approx B.C.971 subduing the forts, occupying Jerusalem, and humbling Rehoboam. He may have invaded Judah at the instigation of Jeroboam. He would have little time for Rehoboam for although Solomon married Pharaoh's daughter the King was the son of an Ammonitess. Shishak has been identified as the 1st King of the 22nd or Bisropolitan dynasty, the Sesonchis of profane history. His name has been found on Egyptian monuments in the form of Sheshonk. He is said to have been of Ethiopian.

wives, and threescore concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and threescore daughters.)

22 And [b] Rehoboam made [c] Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, unto every fenced city: and he gave them [f] victual in abundance. And he [g] desired [h] many wives.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Rehoboam, forsaking God, is punished by Shishak. 5 His repentance. 13 His reign and death.

AND it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and [i] had strengthened himself, [k] he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.

2 And it came to pass, that [m] in the fifth year of king Rehoboam Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD,

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the [n] Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the [o] Ethiopians.

4 And he took [p] the fenced cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then came [q] Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, [r] Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, The LORD is righteous.

7 And when the LORD saw that they [s] humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them [t] some deliverance; and [u] my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know [x] my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.

9 [h] So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold [k] which Solomon had made.

10 Instead of which king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and fetched them, and brought them again into the guard chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: and also in Judah things went well.

13 ¶ So king Rehoboam [y] strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for [z] Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, [a] the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he [b] prepared not his heart to seek the LORD.

origin, and it is supposed that, with the support of the military caste, he dethroned the Pharoah who gave his daughter to Solomon. 1 Kin. 3:1.

Shishak commemorated this expedition in a pictorial inscription on the wall of the temple of Karnak (Breasted: History of Egypt p. 529)

The gold-masked body of Shishak was uncovered intact in his burial chamber at Tanis (1939). The mummy was found in a sarcophagus of silver encased in solid gold-possibly some of Solomon's gold.

In his own record of the campaign, on the wall of the Temple of Karnak, towns throughout Judah, and into Gilead are mentioned. He invaded the Northern Kingdom as well. He is depicted as presenting 156 cities of Palestine to his god Amon. Included in the cities taken was Megiddo. If he came up to help Jeroboam he consolidated his power by afterward asserting himself in the northern Kingdom. There may have been stirrings of revolt against J. In the cities he took. Known as Sheshonk I. the founder of the 22nd Dynasty noted for Kings of Libyan origin.

THE IDEAL ABIJAH - We forget Abijah's character in his eloquence. He carries a spell with him V.22. Judging from his speech, one would suppose him faultless, entirely noble in every aspiration, sublimely religious and unselfish. But it is not the true Abijah we see. 1Kin.15. This is but a man pleading a cause with the skill of a lawyer. Words are cheap. The Spirit's exhortation is: "Show me thy faith by thy works" James 2:18. He preached well to others but failed to apply it himself.

Men can appear so dazzlingly good as to blind their fellowmen. They are religious on occasions. Nearly all go to a funeral, few are so at a wedding. Abijah had a great cause to serve. He addressed himself to it with the skill of an orator, the piety of a mind that never tenanted a worldly thought. But God knows the heart!

The Royal Cemetery. Possibly in the slopes of Kidron or Hinnom. In the King's sepulchres II of 22 Kings said: David, Solomon, Rehoboam, Abijah, Asa, Jehoshaphat, Ahaziah, Amaziah, Jotham, Hezekiah, Josiah. For Asa 16:14. Hezekiah 32:33 special places of honour were found. Jehoiada the priest buried there 24:16. Jehoram & Joash were buried in the city of David, but not in sepulchres of Kings 21:20; 24:25 Below

ABIJAH'S APPEAL. Vv 4-12.

He attempts to win over the men of the north by a telling appeal. Jeroboam uses the opportunity to cover his strategem V.13.

This incident could have taken place early in the reign of Abijah before his apostasy had fully set in.

10 Thus Jeroboam's status is lowered in the hearing of the people. Cp 1 Kg. 11:26

11. But this was endorsed by Yahweh - which Abijah overlooks. Cp 1Kin. 11:29, 12:21-23.

12 Sons of worthlessness. See note Josh 19:22. Abijah claims that Jeroboam has attracted only those who are prepared to support any cause so long as they are paid. His followers are unprincipled men. Many soldiers of Jeroboam would probably agree with this estimate for dissatisfaction was developing in the north. Cp Deut. 13:13. Heb REYQ (Raka) - Empty. Like "Empty pit" Gen. 37:24, Empty ears corn Gen 41:27 - Those emptyheaded.

THE IDEAL ABIJAH

The cleft words & hard blows of Abijah were effective. Jeroboam never regained strength as the rest of his years did some 24yrs after Abijah. Ing 15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, [c] first and last, are they not written in the [2] book of [d] Shemaiah the prophet, and of [e] Iddo the [f] seer concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and [k] Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

Victory through Reliance upon God

CHAPTER 13.

1 Abijah succeeding maketh war against Jeroboam. 4 He declareth the right of his cause. 13 Trusting in God he overcometh Jeroboam. 21 The wives and children of Abijah.

NOW [m] in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.

2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was [q] Michaiah the daughter of [1] Uriel of [r] Gibeah. [s] And there was war [3] between Abijah and Jeroboam.

3 And Abijah [t] set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand [5] chosen men: Jeroboam also [t] set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valour.

4 ¶ And Abijah stood up upon mount [u] Zemaraim, which is in [b] mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel;

5 Ought ye not to know that the LORD God of Israel [d] gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by [f] a covenant of salt?

6 Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, is risen up, and hath [6] rebelled against his lord.

7 And there are gathered unto him [k] vain men, [7] the children of Belial, and have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was [b] young and tender-hearted, [8] and could not withstand them.

8 And now ye think to withstand [9] the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye be a great multitude, [10] and there are with you [g] golden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods.

9 [h] Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whosoever cometh [11] to consecrate himself with [12] a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are [13] no gods.

10 [p] But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; [14] and the priests, which minister unto the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business:

11 And they burn [15] unto the LORD every morning and every evening [16] burnt sacrifices and [17] sweet incense: [18] the [r] shewbread also set they in order upon the pure table; [19] and [s] the candlestick of gold with the lamps thereof, [t] to burn every evening: for we [20] keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him.

12 And, behold, God himself is with us for our captain, and his priests [u] with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, [v] fight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; [21] for ye shall not prosper.

13 ¶ But Jeroboam caused [h] an ambushment to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambushment was behind them.

14 And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they

So they built and prospered. Cp 2 Chr 32:7.

14 Sig. At the head. In the Lowlands (Shephelah) of Judah about 30 m. SW of Jerusalem. Rehoboam had fortified this place 2 Chr. 11:8.

15. Sig. Watch tower. A valley about 1 mile NE of Mareshah. Sheltered by the fortress above Asa saw the huge army pass below the sheer weight of numbers threatening to crush Israel. Asa's faith was equal to the occasion. Using as prayer the words of faithful Jonathan 1 Sam. 14:6. he attacked.

7. He acted with determination and courage in this matter, defying his strong-willed mother in doing so. Cp Ch. 15:16-17. 1 Kin. 15:12-13.

4. Asherim Masc. plural. The Sodomites 1 Kings 15:12-13. associated with this impure worship. See Note on Asherah. 1 Kings 15:13. Jer. 17:2.

6 The royal decree from the throne of David enforced that of heaven.

6 RV "Pillars." Heb Massebah originally an obelisk or monolith standing by an altar as the symbol of the god represented by the altar. Later the mere symbol was succeeded by the image of the god.

7. But Cp Ch. 15:17. The context implies that the high places here referred to were those associated with pagan worship.

HIS MILITARY POLICY Vv 6-8.

8 He fortified the border between Israel and Judah, being a man of peace. This fortification of the border doubtless incited the attack of Baasha recorded Ch. 16.

9 Zinnah - A large shield covering the whole body.

Magen - A small shield to cover head and heart. Thus Asa's army was divided between heavy-armed warriors and light-armed troops.

JUDAH INVADED BY HUGE FORCE ETHIOPIANS Vv. 9-15

THE REMARKABLE VICTORY OF MARESHAH

The largest collected army mentioned in Scripture invades Judah - to be signally defeated by the peace-loving Asa.

11 Sig. "Turning up of Light." Dawn. He is identified with Osorkon I or II successors of Shishak Ch. 12:2. He may have been called Cushite because he was crown prince when he led the expedition against Judah and bore the title Prince of Cush. The army he led was a mixed force of Egyptians and Ethiopians Cp. Ch. 16:8.

12. The largest collected army mentioned in Scripture. It does not exceed the known numbers of Oriental armies in ancient times. Darius Codomannus - force of 1,000,000 at field Arbela. Xerxes crossed into Greece at head over million combatants. Artaxerxes Mnemon (404-359) 400 to meet the attack.

16 Zerah was probably unaware of the hostile army in the heights above and found himself suddenly attacked. The men of Judah fought in the name of Yahweh and this gave them strength for the battle. The Ethiopians were reduced to nothing before the fierce & determined onslaught of the numerically smaller army of Judah Deut. 32:30. - an army imbued with the righteousness of its cause. The army of Egypt broke and fled. Above Right.

18 The notable victory made a tremendous impression on all who witnessed it. Asa extended his power deep into enemy territory. Zerah had doubtless used these cities as storeplaces for his huge army. Now filled with supplies a great spoil was taken by Asa. This vv19 later dedicated to Yahweh Ch. 15:11. See below

THE ENCOURAGING MESSAGE OF AZARIAH Vv.1-7.

1 Sig. Yahweh hath helped. Son of Oded — "he hath restored." His name was significant in view of the recent victory of Asa Cp Ch. 14:12. Nothing further is known of Azariah. He was possibly of the company of prophets (1 Sam. 19:20) See notes on the Prophets who was selected for this duty in similar manner to Paul and Barnabas Acts 13:2.

2 Probably as he returned, full of the excitement of victory to Jerusalem.

3 Cp. 1 Chr. 28:9. Heb. 13:5.

4 R.V. = "for long seasons," J. Parker = "Many a time hath Israel been..." The history of Israel presents many periods of apostasy followed by repentance and deliverance. The prophet shows how sin brought suffering. For examples see Jud 3:7,12 4:1. 6:1. 1 Sam 10:11. Mal. 2:7. Deut. 31: 10.

THE VICTORY OF MARESHAH. The complete and glorious victory over Egypt had a profound effect. All fear of Egypt as an aggressive power ceases, and they now appear as an ally of Israel and Judah. Subsequent Kings of Judah entered into mutual alliance with Egypt 2 Kings 17:4. 18:21. to disgust of prophets Isa 30:1.

12 So the LORD [d] smote the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.

13 And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them unto [h] Gerar: and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that they could not [i] recover themselves; for they were [4] destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they smote all the cities round about [h] Gerar; for "the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

Not "mahlach" - To reign as in 1 Chr. 1:46 but "malchooth" = Kingdom as in Num. 24:7 C.B. "Her Kingdom was exalted" of Judah. "The Ramah" or Elevation. This was a determined attempt to stem the growing power of Judah. Asa wa war bu He Divi reveal ASA SEEKS PEACE – Whilst peacemakers are commended in Scripture, we are also warned that there must be the proper conditions for peace. James 3:17. Asa sought peace, but not in the way prescribed. He sought it by alliance with the world, desiring that the peace of his reign be not disturbed. Thus he did not heed the counsel of his wise forefather: "There is a time of war..." Eccl 3:8. When that time comes the seeking of peace can lead to sin.

Asa is reproved by Hanani.

[a] sought him with their whole desire; and he was [a] found of them: and the LORD [c] gave them rest round about.

16 ¶ [d] And also concerning Maachah the [2] mother of Asa the king, he removed her from being queen, because she had made an [3] idol in a grove: and Asa cut down her idol, and [e] stamped it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron.

17 But [f] the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

18 ¶ And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more war unto the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Asa, by the aid of the Syrians, diverteth Baasha from building Ramah. 10 He imprisoneth Hanani. 13 His death and burial.

IN the [p] six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, to the intent that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria, that dwelt at [7] Damascus, saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee, as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of [5] his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon, and Dan, and [6] Abel-maim, and all [6] the store cities of Naphtali.

5 And it came to pass, when Baasha heard it, that he left off building of Ramah, and let his work cease.

6 Then Asa the king took all Judah; and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, wherewith Baasha was building; and he built therewith Geba and Mizpah.

7 ¶ And at that time [g] Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast [k] relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the LORD thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped [6] out of thine hand.

8 Were not [l] the Ethiopians and [m] the Lubims [4] a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen? yet, because thou didst rely on the LORD, [n] he delivered them into thine hand.

9 For [o] the eyes of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole earth, [5] to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose [r] heart is perfect toward him. Herein [s] thou hast done foolishly: therefore from henceforth [t] thou shalt have wars.

10 Then Asa was wroth with [h] the seer, and put him in [u] a prison house; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. And Asa [v] oppressed some of the people the same time.

11 ¶ And, behold, [x] the acts of Asa, [y] first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

12 And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the LORD, but to the physicians.

War between Asa + Baasha. Asa's rebuke + death. Yahweh's displeasure at Asa's distrust. The arm of flesh is relied upon more than His power + goodness. Let us lean on the Rock of Ages not on broken reeds. Cp vv. 7-9, 12.

FURTHER RELIGIOUS REFORMS. Vv 16-19.

ASA'S ENTHUSIASM FOR REFORM stimulated by the encouragement of Azariah, Asa redoubled his efforts to reform.

18 Asa's long reign came to an end and he was buried with all pomp and glory. The burning of spices on such occasions evidently became the custom having thus commenced. Jer.34:5; 2Chr.21:19.

Asa exhibited great faith and courage particularly early in his reign, but as his reputation advanced he could not bear with criticism. This became a pitfall for him and led him into grievous errors. The pomp and splendor of his funeral could not erase the wickedness of his action towards Hanani.

CHAPTER 17.

Chs 17-20. THE REIGN OF JEHOSHAPHAT.

References in Kings - 1Kings 22:41-35, 41-50

A most significant period in Israel's history when the drama enacted by Ahab, Jezebel and Elijah foreshadowed the conflict between the Roman whore and the Ecclesia during the dark ages.

THE STABILITY OF HIS REIGN 1-6

1 Sig. Judgment of Yahweh. Cp 1 Kings 11:26. The stability of his reign was a great contrast to the civil war and distress in the north Cp vv. 4-5. Judah was strengthened at the expense of Israel. The latter was weakened by internal strife, and by continuous desertions by people who found the more settled conditions of Judah to their liking Cp Ch.15:9.

2 This was a healthy policy in view of the spiritual condition in Israel, but unfortunately it was later abandoned Ch.18:1. with disastrous results.

3 Sept omits "David" In any case early days of David and Asa were better than latter days.

4 Congratulatory gift at his accession.

5 He found a great joy in the Divine service, it gave him ineffable pleasure.

6 See note Ch.14:5, and compare Ch.20:33. This illicit worship had gradually crept into Judah again during Asa's long reign.

JEHOSHAPHAT CORRECTS A GENERAL REVIVAL IN DIVINE KNOWLEDGE vv 7-9.

Teachers are sent throughout the land for that purpose. He recognised it wasn't enough to destroy the external evidences of false worship v.6. he must do it in the hidden recesses of the heart to be effective. Ch19:4-11.

v.14. Sepulchres. A sepulchre usually consisted of an underground apartment, into which opened a number of long, narrow cells, placed side by side, each adapted to receive one body, the cells were 6 or 7ft long, 2 feet wide, & 3ft high. They were closed by a stone placed at the end of each.

one and fortieth year of his reign.

14 And [a] they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had [2] made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled [c] with sweet odours and [d] divers kinds of spices prepared by [e] the apothecaries' art: and they made [f] a very great burning for him.

AND [b] Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Israel.

2 And he placed forces in all [m] the fenced cities of Judah, and set [n] garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, [o] which Asa his father had taken.

3 And the LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the [3] first ways [o] of his father David, and sought not unto Baalim;

4 But [r] sought to the LORD God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after [s] the doings of Israel.

5 Therefore the LORD stablished the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah [t] brought to Jehoshaphat [t] presents; [u] and he had riches and honour in abundance.

6 And his heart [v] was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: moreover he took away [z] the high places and [y] groves out of Judah. The work was not completed Ch.20.

7 ¶ Also in the third year of his reign he sent to his princes, even to Ben-hail, and to Obadiah, and to Zechariah, and to Nethaneel, and to Michaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah.

8 And with them he sent Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-adonijah, [b] Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, [b] priests.

9 And they taught in Judah, and had the book of the law of the LORD with them, and went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught the people. Cp Deut.28:61; 30:10; 31:26; Jos.1:8

10 ¶ And [c] the fear of the LORD [3] fell upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. Those about Geror 14:14-15

11 Also some of the [4] Philistines [k] brought Jehoshaphat [l] presents, and tribute silver; and the [4] Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he goats.

12 ¶ And Jehoshaphat [p] waxed great exceedingly; and he built in Judah [4] castles, and [q] cities of store. - cp Ch.11:11-12.

13 And he had much business in the cities of Judah: and the men of war, mighty men of valour, were in Jerusalem.

14 And these are the numbers of them according to the house of their fathers: Of Judah, the captains of thousands; Adnah the chief, and with him mighty men of valour three hundred thousand. Under his direction

15 And [7] next to him was Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand.

16 And next him was Amasiah the son of Zichri, [z] who willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.

604 300000 v.14. These numbers have been criticised on the grounds that they imply a minimum population of 1480 to the sq. mile which is greater than that of any country in the world. They produce a double of the next largest estimate of the military force of Judah, the 580,000 of 2Ki 8. And they relate to the forces only at Jerusalem Cp vv. 13,14. They can be considerably lessened if 'ELEPH is rendered "chiefs" instead of "thousand" Vv 14, 16.

JEHOSHAPHAT'S TEACHING MISSION. vv 7-10 Three classes of men were employed: Princes, Levites & priests. We may presume the first instructed the people in the nature of the civil law & constitution of the Kingdom; the second in every thing pertaining to the Word & the requirements thereof; the third in the nature & design of their religion & the Temple service. Thus the nation became thoroughly instructed in their duty to Yahweh, the King & each other. JEHOSHAPHAT'S FOOLISH ALLIANCE WITH AHAB. - He commenced by "strengthening himself against Ahab Ch.17:1 he ended by joining in three unequal yokes: Marriage Ch.18:1 21:6 War 18:2-34 Commerce 20:35-36. The ultimate consequence of this was that Jerusalem ran with blood. This Marriage took place about or before 11th of Ahab, because - Ahaziah, son of Jehoram began to reign in 12th year of Joram, son Ahab 2 Kin.8:25-26. Joram began reign 18th Jehoshaphat 2 Kin 3:1. Thus 12th Joram = 30 yrs after Jehoshaphat commenced to reign (i.e. 5th Jehoram Cp 2 Kings 3:1. 8:16, 1 Kin 22:42). Ahaziah = 22 When he commenced to reign Therefore he was born about 8th year of Jehoshaphat and the marriage must have taken place approx. 6th or 7th of J. He began reign 4th Ahab. 1 Kin. 16:29. Cp 15:10. Thus the marriage approx. 11th Ahab.

CHAPTER 18.

1 Jehoshaphat and Ahab go against Ramoth-gilead. 4 Ahab, seduced by false prophets, according to the word of Micaiah, is slain there.

NOW Jehoshaphat, [c] had riches and honour in abundance, and [d] joined affinity with Ahab. HERE FOLLOWS 1 Kin.17 - See above.

2 And [5] after certain years [e] he went down to Ahab to [f] Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and [g] persuaded him to go up with him to [h] Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 ¶ And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel, Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

5 Therefore the king of Israel gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for God will deliver it into the king's hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD [8] besides, that we might enquire of him?

7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never prophesied good unto me, but always evil: the same is Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.

8 And the king of Israel called for one of his [2] officers, and said, [3] Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla.

9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat king of Judah sat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a [4] void place at the entering in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

10 And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and said, Thus saith the LORD, With these thou shalt push Syria until [6] they be consumed.

11 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the messenger that went to call Micaiah spake to him, saying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king [7] with one assent; let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of their's, and speak thou good.

13 And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, even what my God saith, that will I speak.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he said, I did see all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master; let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not prophesy good unto me, [2]but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I saw the LORD sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the LORD said, Who shall [a]entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one spake saying after this manner, and another saying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will [a]entice him. And the LORD said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt [a]entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak unto thee?

24 And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go [c]into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

26 And say, Thus saith the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

27 And Micaiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.

28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they [b]compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat [c]cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God [d]moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to pass, that, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again [3]from pursuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow [4]at a venture, and smote the king of Israel [5]between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am [7]wounded.

34 And the battle increased that day: howbeit the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even: and about the

THE PROPHET JEHU'S FAITHFUL EXPOSTULATIONS TO JEHOSHAPHAT V2
He went out to meet him as he returned from the war. Though physically unscarred the King must have been uneasy in mind. Jehu, the son of the prophet who rebuked his father was the last man he wished to meet. But the prophets of Israel never hesitated to meet the highest men of the realm as higher than them. They were not afraid of Kings. They represented a greater Monarch and from Him pronounced words of indictment for acts of folly.

CHAPTER 19.

JEHOSHAPHAT REPROVED BY JEHU. Vv1-3.

1 Jehoshaphat, reproved by Jehu, visiteth his kingdom. 5 His instructions to the judges, 8 to the priests and Levites.

1 AND Jehoshaphat the king of Judah [c] returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem.

2 And [d] Jehu the son of Hanani [f] the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest [3] thou help the ungodly, [4] and [5] love them that hate the LORD? therefore is [i] wrath upon thee from before the LORD. [6] [7]

3 Nevertheless there are [m] good things found in thee, in that thou hast [n] taken away the groves [8] out of the land, and hast [o] prepared [9] thine heart to seek God.

4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and [p] he went out again through the people from Beer-sheba to [q] mount [10] Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD God of their fathers.

5 ¶ And he set [r] judges in the land throughout all [s] the fenced cities of Judah, city by city,

6 And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for [t] ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, who is with you [u] in the judgment.

7 Wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is [b] no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor [d] respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

8 ¶ Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set [f] of the Levites, and of the priests, and of the chief of the fathers of Israel, [v] for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies, [12] when they returned to Jerusalem. [13]

9 And he charged them, saying, Thus shall ye do [g] in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a [h] perfect heart.

10 And [a] what cause soever shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even [b] warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so [d] wrath come upon you, [14] and upon your brethren: [v] this do, and ye shall not trespass.

11 And, behold, [h] Amariah the chief priest is over you [k] in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah [16] the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, [k] for all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. [18] Deal courageously, and the LORD shall be with the good. [19]

CHAPTER 20.

1 Jehoshaphat in his fear proclaimeth a fast. 5 His prayer. 22 The overthrow of his enemies. 26 The people exult. 37 His convoy of ships destroyed.

IT came to pass after this also, that the children of [r] Moab, [1] and the children of [t] Ammon, [2] and with them other beside the [x] Ammonites, [3] came against Jehoshaphat to battle. [4]

2 Then there came some [5] that told Jehoshaphat, saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria; [6] and, behold, they be in [z] Hazazon-tamar, [7] which is [a] En-gedi. [8]

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and [9] set [b] himself to [c] seek the LORD, and [d] proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah. [10]

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the LORD: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the LORD.

5 ¶ And Jehoshaphat stood [11] in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court, [12]

6 And said, O LORD God of our fathers, art not thou [f] God [13] in heaven? and rulest not thou all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou our God, who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and [14] [g] gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend [15] for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein for thy name, saying,

9 If, when evil [16] [h] cometh upon us, as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, we stand before this house, and in thy presence, (for thy name is in this house,) and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab and mount Seir, [17] [i] whom thou wouldest not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not;

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us; neither know we what to do: but our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

THE CONFEDERACY: From the south-east came the Edomites, from the east as far as Persian Gulf came the Ishmaelites (Gen 25:18) from east of the Dead Sea the Moabites and from the Nth East the Hagarenes, and further north the Gebalites. The Ammonites and Amalekites, bitter foes of Israel, were there. Philistia on the west and Tyre to the north were represented and even remote Assyria sent a contingent to support the confederacy. 13 And all Judah stood before the LORD, with their little ones, their wives, and their children.

14 ¶ Then upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, came the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation;

15 And he said, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, Thus saith the LORD unto you, Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not your's, but God's.

16 To morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to morrow go out against them: for the LORD will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the LORD, worshipping the LORD.

19 And the Levites, of the children of the Kohathites, and of the children of the Korhites, stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 ¶ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem; Believe in the LORD your God, so shall ye be established; believe his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, and that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 ¶ And when they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten.

26 ¶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of [5] Berachah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of the same place was called, The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

Spurred on by Athaliah Jehoram deserted the worship of Yahweh for that of Baal. The Temple worship was discouraged, and permitted to fall into decay. Its wealth was robbed and bestowed upon the Temple of Baal set up as rival worship. Ch. 24:7. 17. With the death of Jehoshaphat Athaliah apparently threw off all restraint and came out boldly in her true colors doubtless being the moving spirit behind the murder of Jehoram's brethren.

5 ¶ Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a light to him and to his sons for ever.

8 ¶ In his days the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah thereto.

12 ¶ And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD

God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

Pro 2:12, 20

13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like to the whoredoms of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, which were better than thyself:

14 Behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 ¶ Moreover the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Ethiopians:

17 And they came up into Judah, and brake into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 ¶ And after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being desired. Howbeit they buried him in the city of 3 He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellors after the death of his father to his destruction.

5 He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram.

6 And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.

7 And the destruction of Ahaziah was of God by coming to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to pass, that, when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.

9 And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdom.

10 ¶ But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.

11 But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

12 And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

15 out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of [a] Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said unto them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as [b] the LORD hath said of the sons of David.

4 This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the [c] doors;

5 And a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of [d] the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.

6 But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and [f] they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy: but [g] all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.

7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest [i] dismissed not the courses.

9 Moreover Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God.

10 And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right [6] side of the [2] temple to the left side of the [2] temple, along by the altar and the [2] temple, by the king round about.

11 Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, [h] God save the king.

12 ¶ Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people [e] running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD:

13 And she looked, and, behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entering in, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of musick, and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, [j] Treason, Treason.

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Have her forth of the ranges: and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.

15 So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering of the [k] horse gate by the king's house, they slew her there.

16 ¶ And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORD's people.

17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

18 Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD by the hand of [m] the priests

Here is the power of a good influence and example. The decline of Judah's spiritual condition was halted by the life of Jehoiada.

2. See 2 Kgs 12:3 for added note showing limitation of the reform. It was the custom of Jewish parents to superintend the choice of wives for their sons - Jehoiada stood in position of guardian to Joash.

CHAPTER 24.

Joash reigneth well all the days of Jehoiada. 15 Jehoiada being dead, 17 Joash falleth to idolatry. 23 He is spoiled by the Syrians, and 25 slain by his servants.

JOASH was seven years old when he began to reign, and [m] he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Joash [n] did that which was right in the sight of the LORD [o] all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada took for him two wives; [p] and he begat sons and daughters.

4 ¶ And it came to pass after this, that Joash [q] was minded to repair the house of the LORD.

5 And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out unto the cities of Judah, and gather of all [r] Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. [s] Howbeit the Levites hastened it not.

6 And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said unto him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of [t] Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the [f] tabernacle of witness?

7 For [g] the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the [h] dedicated things of the house of the LORD did they bestow upon Baalim.

8 And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it [k] without at the gate of the house of the LORD.

9 And they made [l] a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD [i] the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.

10 And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to [u] mend the house of the LORD.

Joash is slain by his servants.

13 So the workmen wrought, and [1] the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in his state, and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, [c] whereof were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and [2] to offer withal, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

15 ¶ But Jehoiada waxed old, and [3] was full of days when he died; an hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in [4] Israel, both toward God, and toward his house.

17 Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served [5] groves and [6] idols: and [7] wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

19 "Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they [8] testified against them: but they would not give ear.

20 And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, which stood above the people, and said unto them, Thus saith God, 'Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

21 And they conspired against him, and [9] stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king, [a] in the court of the house of the LORD.

22 Thus Joash the king remembered not [b] the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD [d] look upon it, and [e] require it.

23 ¶ And it came to pass [10] at the end of the year, that [f] the host of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all [g] the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of [11] Damascus.

24 For the army of the Syrians [h] came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So [m] they executed judgment against Joash.

25 And when they were departed from him, (for they left him in great [n] diseases,) [o] his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, [p] but they buried him not in the sepulchres of the kings.

26 And these are they that conspired against him; [q] Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad [r] the son of [12] Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 ¶ Now concerning his sons, and [s] the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the [13] repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the [t] story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

JOASH DRAWN FROM HIS DIVINE ALLEGIANCE 17-19
The extent of Jehoiada's influence for good demonstrated by Joash's apostasy after his death.
18 They could have become jealous of the growing influence of the priesthood.
19 The Targum gives the sense as follows: "The great men of Judah came and adored King Joash, and seduced him; and then the King received from them their idols." He could not stand against the flattery of these great men.

At this time Syria was afflicting Israel 2 Kgs 10:32. 13:3 & 6-8. Was only about 11 m from southern border Israel. This raid was possibly designed to impress Judah with power Syria, to induce fear into the latter & make them more vulnerable for when the full scale attack might come. That was not objective but in the ways of providence it was Divine punishment on Joash.
24 The punishment was not long delayed.

CHAPTER 25.

SUMMARY OF AMAZIAH'S REIGN. Vv.1-2. See Notes 2 Kings 14.

Amaziah smiteth the Edomites.

1 AMAZIAH [a] was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not [b] with a perfect heart.

3 ¶ Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was [3] established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father.

4 But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

5 ¶ Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them [k] from twenty years old and above, and found them [l] three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could [m] handle spear and shield.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel [6] for an hundred talents of silver.

7 But there came [o] a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.

8 But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle: God [q] shall make thee fall before the enemy: for [r] God hath power to help, and to [q] cast down.

9 And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the [s] army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

10 Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that was come to him out of Ephraim to go [2] home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home [w] in great anger.

11 ¶ And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and [y] went to the valley of salt, and smote of [z] the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And other ten thousand left alive did the children of Judah carry away captive, and brought them unto the top of [y] the rock, and cast them down from the top of [y] the rock, that they all were broken in pieces.

13 ¶ But [5] the soldiers of the army [f] which Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, [v] fell upon the cities of Judah, from [h] Samaria even unto [i] Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 ¶ Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that [u] he brought the gods of [z] the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

15 Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, which said unto him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, [x] which could not deliver their own people out of thine hand?

16 And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him, Art thou made of the king's counsel? forbear; [t] why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbare, and said, I know that [t] God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

17 ¶ Then [b] Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.

18 And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son to wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trode down the thistle.

19 Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; and thine heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldest fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear; for [d] it came of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because [e] they sought after the gods of Edom.

21 So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.

22 And Judah was [g] put to the worse before Israel, and they fled every man to his tent.

23 And Joash the king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of [h] Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem from the [i] gate of Ephraim to [j] the corner gate, four hundred cubits.

24 And [k] he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with [m] Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

25 ¶ [a] And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years.

26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, [c] first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

27 ¶ Now after the time that Amaziah did turn away [f] from following the LORD they [5] made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there.

28 And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of [7] Judah.

Uzziah is smitten II. CHRONICLES 26. with leprosy.

6 And he went forth and warred against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Mehunims.

8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entering in of Egypt; for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert, and digged many wells: for he had much cattle, both in the low country, and in the plains: husbandmen also, and vine dressers in the mountains, and in Carmel: for he loved husbandry.

11 Moreover Uzziah had an host of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

12 The whole number of the chief of the fathers of the mighty men of valour were two thousand and six hundred.

13 And under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the host shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong.

16 ¶ But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; ~~neither shall it be for thine honour from the LORD God.~~

19 Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar.

20 And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked upon him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself hasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

21 And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

UZZIAH'S FOLLY. Vv. 16-21.
2 Kings 15:5 states that Yahweh smote him with leprosy - here is given the reason. 2 Kings 15:4 show that Yahweh's will was ignored in that the people worshipped on the high places. The prophets indicate that apostasy was growing in Israel.
34 Blinded by pride through his success, Uzziah infringed the privileges of the priesthood and became guilty of sacrilege. He was not able to endure the temptation of success.

41 Uzziah's sin was mentally conceived before it was actually committed. The leprosy thus appropriately struck him in the forehead. Contrast his leprous forehead with that of the High Priest Exod. 28:36-38. Leprosy was a living death. So that the terms of Matt 18:7 were accomplished. Thus in the sight of the startled priests the sign of pollution was manifest.
42 He realised the calamity and the full enormity of his action now apparent even to him, he stumbled out of the sanctuary polluted.

This computation ignores Ahaz on the basis that his reign was so evil as not worthy of consideration in a time period expressing Yahweh's judgment Cp. 1 Chr. 28:22, 28. Dr. Light-foot declared: "The Holy Spirit chooseth rather to reckon by holy Jotham in his grave, than by wicked Ahaz alive." Notice that 2 Kgs 15:30 does not say that Jotham reigned for 20 years.

1 Jotham reigning well prospereth. 5 He subdueth the Ammonites. 7 His reign. 9 Ahaz succeedeth him.

JOTHAM [1] was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok. = The Just One

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: howbeit [2] he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet corruptly. Cp Isa. 65:5

3 He built the [m] high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of [n] Ophel he built much.

4 Moreover he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built [o] castles and towers.

5 ¶ He fought also with the king of the [p] Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand [q] measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second year, and the third.

6 So Jotham became mighty, because he [r] prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

7 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

Judah had every appearance of strength. But this was illusory and dependent upon the relationships of the people with Yahweh. Cp Isa. 6.

10 = Korim. "Kor" = 11 bushels.

11 Towards the end of Jotham's reign, Judah suffered from the growing aggression of Syria 2 Kings 15:37. Ammon took the opportunity of throwing off the yoke of Judah and claiming its independence by refusing to pay the tribute. This was probably at the instigation of Syria.

CHAPTER 28.

1 Ahaz reigning very wickedly is greatly afflicted by the Syrians. 22 In his distress he groweth more idolatrous. 27 He dieth, and is succeeded by Hezekiah.

AHAZ [1] was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father:

2 For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also [a] molten images for [b] Baalim. Cp. Ch. 34:2.

3 Moreover he [c] burnt incense in [d] the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt [e] his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every [f] green tree.

5 Wherefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they [g] smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to [4] Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 ¶ For [r] Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all [7] valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. - Cf. Josh. 1:2-8

Ephraim, slew Maaseiah [c] the king's son, and Azrikam [d] the governor of the house, and Elkanah [e] that was [2] next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their [d] brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that [m] reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God?

11 Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and [n] Jehizkiah the son of [o] Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war,

13 And said unto them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So [p] the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men [q] which were expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and [r] gave them to eat and to drink, and [s] anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, [t] the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

16 ¶ [u] At that time did king Ahaz send unto the kings of Assyria to help him.

17 For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away [3] captives.

18 [v] The Philistines also had [w] invaded the cities of [x] the low country, and of the south of Judah, and had taken [y] Beth-shemesh, and [z] Ajalon, and [a] Gederoth, and [b] Shocho with the [4] villages thereof, and [c] Timnah with the [4] villages thereof, Gimzo also and the [4] villages thereof: and they dwelt there.

19 For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of [5] Israel; for he [6] made Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the LORD.

20 And [7] Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.

21 [8] For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

22 ¶ And in the time of his distress did he trespass yet more against the LORD: this is that king Ahaz.

23 For [d] he sacrificed unto the gods of [9] Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice

15 And they gathered their brethren, and [d] sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, [2] by the words of the LORD, [e] to cleanse the house of the LORD.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the [g] brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, [e] We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shewbread table, with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover [f] all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away in his [j] transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and, behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

THE SEVEN-FOLD SACRIFICE FOR PEOPLE AND NATION 20:24

The labors of Levites and priests showed that not merely a new reign but a new epoch had opened. The excitement must have increased as the preparations neared completion. Now a great convocation is called that King, people and nation might dedicate themselves anew.

The Bullocks, Rams and Lambs - burnt offering
The 7 = Complete dedication. In a burnt offering the offerer was conscious of past failure, he recognised he was a sinner and the shed blood provided atonement. But the prevailing yearning was desire to serve Yahweh to the limit of his power. Head, fat and flesh (intellect, strength being Deut. 6:5) were all pledged to God in the spirit of self-dedication to service.

This all solemnly impressed upon the people.

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, [h] to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel.

31 Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have [c][2] consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and [d] thank offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and [d] thank offerings; and as many as were [e] of a free heart burnt offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt offerings, which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: wherefore [f] their brethren the Levites [g] did help them, till the work was ended, and [h] until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more [i] upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.

35 And also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with [j] the fat of the peace offerings, and [k] the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.

AND Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation [3] in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the [c] second month. [4]

3 For they could not keep it [c] at that time, [5] because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing [6] pleased the king and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree to [l] make proclamation throughout all Israel, [m] from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover unto the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort as it was written.

6 So [n][7] the posts went with the letters [8] from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, [o] turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of [p] the kings of Assyria.

7 And [q] be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore [r] gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now [s] be ye not [t] stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but [u] yield yourselves unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, [v] that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

ISRAEL INVITED TO WORSHIP AT JERUSALEM. The condition of the Kingdom of Samaria was favorable to the enterprise. Hoshea, already threatened by Shalmaneser, had but a weak hold upon the country in which he was but nominal sovereign. Cp 2 Ki. 17:4-5. All the bonds which unite a healthy state together were relaxed; the extremities were no longer content to yield an unquestioning obedience to orders issued from the head; they were inclined to think for themselves and had perhaps been shaken in their allegiance to the established system of religion by the bold and passionate invectives which their own native prophets had launched against it (Hos. 4:15-19. 8:5-6. 10:1-15+). Letters were sent to "all Israel" with molestation though they were received with ridicule. Ch. 30:1, 10.

14 An appeal on the basis of Yahweh's character. Israel had sinned nationally, had been punished nationally, and now national repentance could find for the nation mercy, at home or abroad.

the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find [a] compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is [c] gracious and [d] merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, [e] if ye return unto him.

HEZEKIAH'S APPEAL REJECTED IN ISRAEL. 10 So [f] the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even unto Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and [g] mocked them.

15 They rapidly travelled through but the north, but with little success. The majority were too immersed in folly to take heed. 2 Ki. 17:15

17 They recognised their desperate need. Cp Ch. 33:12

JUDAH ACCEPTS. V. 12

11 Nevertheless divers of [h] Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah the hand of God [i] was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, [k] by the word of the LORD.

13 ¶ And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the [m] second month, a very great congregation.

18 The circumstance that God had brought on them reacted favorably because they were better educated in the word of Yahweh

14 And they arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and [n] cast them into the brook Kidron.

THE GREAT PASSOVER. Cp Ch. 29:16 Note.

Vv. 15-22.

Great enthusiasm is generated throughout the land. A huge congregation assembles in Jerusalem.

15 Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the [m] second month: and the priests and the Levites [o] were ashamed, and [p] sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt offerings into the house of the LORD.

19 The Passover sometimes called this. 2 Ki. 23:21-23. 17:20

16 And they stood in [q] their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received of the hand of the Levites.

20 As a preparation for the Passover, Jerusalem cleansed of the leaven of wickedness.

17 For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD.

21 Those who had previously held back. See Note Ch. 29:34.

18 For a multitude of the people, even [b] many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover otherwise than [r] it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one 22 In spite of irregularities the worship was accepted because of the sincerity of the people and the intercession of the King. • This was also correct. 34:18.

19 That [h] prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he be not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.

21 And the children of Israel that were [t] present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread [u] seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with [v] loud instruments unto the LORD.

22 And Hezekiah spake [w] comfortably unto all the Levites [x] that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they did eat throughout the feast seven days, offering peace offerings, and [y] making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.

A FURTHER 7 DAYS WORSHIP. Vv. 23-25.

Tremendous enthusiasm has been generated in the people. They have experienced the great joy of Divine service and communion. They feel the need for further such experience and another 7 days is thus spent together.

23 And the whole [z] assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.

24 For Hezekiah king of Judah [a] did give to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes [b] gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests [c] sanctified themselves.

IDOLATRY DESTROYED. — "The great Passover was followed by a tumultuary proceeding of a remarkable character. Hezekiah, having stirred the spirit of his people, and, in part, of their northern neighbors, to an unwonted pitch of enthusiasm, determined to take advantage of the occasion for the removal, not merely of recent religious innovations, but all that tended to cherish an idolatrous spirit among his subjects" (Rawlinson).

the Levites, and all the congregation [b] that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

IDOLATRY DESTROYED V.1.

In the full flush of enthusiasm the people returned from their religious exercises stirred beyond measure with a feeling of revulsion against all forms of idolatry which took expression in violent destruction of idolatrous symbols.

1 They did this with the full support of Hezekiah 2 Kings 18:4

2 Heb. Asherim. See note Ver 17:2.

Though sometimes this related to the eminence upon which irregular worship was offered, it also seemed to relate to a pillar of stone, covered with rich carpets, robes and shawls. 7 He gave a personal example of sacrifice, thus providing a lead for the people. All the services of the Mosaic order were restored.

INVASION OF SENNACHERIB. Cp 2 Kings 18:13. Isa 36:1

Hezekiah renounced suzerainty of Assyria (Cp 2 Kgs 18:7, 16-7) Thereupon Sennacherib invaded Judah forcing Hezekiah to pay tribute (2 Kgs 18: 13-16) Having discovered the weakness of Judah, S. next demanded unconditional surrender. Strengthened by Isaiah, Hezekiah resisted.

(f) In his 14th year: 2 Kgs 18:13. Isa 36:1. The kings of Assyria: Sanherib (Heb) Sin-Ahi-Irib (Assyrian) Son of Sargon (Isa 20:1). Father Esa-Haddon (2 Kgs 19:37 Ezra 4:2). He probably acted at this time in capacity of regent. See note Isa. 20:1. He was grandfather Ashur-bani-pal commonly identified with Osnapper (Ezra 4:10) Under his dynasty Assyria reached the height of its power. The Empire included Babylon (Sfe quently in revolt) Syria and under Esar-haddon and Ashurbanipal, Egypt. After the death of latter the Empire dwindled.

(g) He claims to have taken 46 fortified cities & 200,150 captives. Cp Inscription p 530.

625 He found 2nd wall enclosing pool on west. He suggested this could be the wall.

[8] Not normally for trained soldier. Hezekiah prepared to man the walls with the populace en mass. the darts to Hurl and the shields to protect. These message indicate how desperate was the position.

HEZEKIAH EXHORTS THE PEOPLE Vv 6-8.

Notice the warning of Isaiah (Isa. 22:9-11). some put confidence in material might, some showed complete lack of faith Isa. 22:12-14. Some like Shebna felt there was no danger, probably relying on Egypt. Isa. 22:15. 30:1-2.

Reproved by Isaiah Hezekiah prepared his spiritual defences Shebna was deposed and the people warned to seek the help of Yahweh.

12 The spiritual reform of Hezekiah had been tested by this crisis and shone forth as gold. True kingly qualities were revealed by him and a grand lead given to the people.
13 The words of the King impressed and sobered the people. Those who had given themselves over to the abandonment of pleasure now sought Yahweh; those who saw their only hope in weapons of war recognised in Him a more effective defence, those who trusted in Egypt now sought Yahweh. The nation was united in its resolve and "placed its burden on Yahweh". A new spirit of confidence and faith swept the nation.

street [9] of the gate of the city, and [10] spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 [c] Be strong and courageous, [d] be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for [e] there be more with us than with him:

8 With him is an [f] arm of flesh; but [h] with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people [i] rested themselves [6] upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 ¶ [k] After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his [4] power with him,) unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 "Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide [5] in the [p] siege in Jerusalem?

11 Doth not Hezekiah [q] persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, [r] The LORD our God shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 "Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands? [7] were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 "Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah [t] deceive you, nor [u] persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And [v] his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 He wrote also [l] letters to rail on the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, [l] As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 Then they [m] cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem [o] that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city.

19 And they spake [r] against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, which were [t] the work of the hands of man.

20 And for this cause [x] Hezekiah the king, and [y] the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.

21 ¶ [z] And the LORD sent an angel, which cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with [b] shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels [6] slew him there with the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all Cp 2 Kgs 20:12-15.

Thus the experience Hezekiah saved him and the people. Sins were a reflection of theirs, so that when were laid on him. He suffered for his people, and when they learned the reason they were turned to humble themselves. The sickness was laid on him to remove the sin of pride that was in his heart even before expression was given to it.

HEZEKIAH'S FAILURE. 31

Both the overthrow of Sennacherib and the recovery of Hezekiah. The ostensible reason was to congratulate Hezekiah on his recovery, but the real reason was to gain Judah over to an anti-Assyrian alliance. See Notes on 2 Kgs 20:12.

23 And many brought [b] gifts unto the LORD to Jerusalem, and [2] presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that [c] he was magnified in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.

24 ¶ In those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and prayed unto the LORD: and he spake unto him, and he [4] gave him [h] a sign.

25 But Hezekiah [i] rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him; for [k] his heart was lifted up: therefore there was [l] wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Notwithstanding Hezekiah [m] humbled himself for [6] the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them [n] in the days of Hezekiah.

33 [a] And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the [5] chiefest part of the sepulchres of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

27 Thus the experience of Hezekiah saved himself and the people. His sins were a reflection of theirs, so that theirs were laid on him. He suffered for his people, and when they learned the lesson they were warned to humble themselves. The sickness was laid on him to remove the sin of pride that was in his heart even before expression was given to it.

The story of the digging is told on an Inscription found on spot in 1880 today exhibited in Istanbul Museum ~

"The boring through is completed. And this is the story of the boring: while yet they plied the pick, each towards his fellow and while yet there were three cubits to be bored through, there was heard the voice of one calling to the other that there was a hole in the rock on the right hand and on the left hand. And on the day of the boring through the workers in the tunnel struck each to meet his fellow, pick upon pick. Then the water poured from the source to the pool 1200 cubits, and a hundred cubits was the height of the rock above the heads of the workers in the tunnel."

used enchantments, and [a] used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image, [c] the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:

8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers; so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the LORD spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken.

11 ¶ Wherefore [m] the LORD brought upon them the captains of the host [3] of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the [n] thorns, and bound him with [4] fetters, and [q] carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, [r] he besought the LORD his God, and [6] humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And prayed unto him: and he [t] was intreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh [u] knew that the LORD he was God.

These preparations were in anticipation of an impending political struggle between Assyria and Egypt. It was important to the Assyrian to have an ally in the strong fortress of Jerusalem. A forgiven enemy is often the surest friend. In the ensuing struggle the only Palestinian power which seems to have deserted Assyria was Tyre according to inscriptions.

The times were troubled. Babylon was growing in power; Media was pressing on the eastern frontier of Assyria; Egypt had rebelled and shaken herself free from her Assyrian conquerors. War was in the air, and preparations were prudent.

A MAN OF POLICY

IDOLATRY - Vigorously pursued. IMMORALITY - His idolatry let loose a flood of iniquity. PERSECUTION - Martyrdom became the cost of service to the Truth. DESTRUCTION - The Word of God was consigned to the flames (Cp. Ch. 34. 14). REPENTANCE - But he had slain the men who could have helped him make this really effective.

CAPTIVITY OF MANASSEH

Inscriptions show that Manasseh paid tribute to Esar-haddon and Asshur-banipal (see Note 2 Kg. 21. 12). Archaeology also shows that there was a general insurrection against the latter King in which perhaps Manasseh took part. His son Amon was named after an Egyptian divinity which could argue an alliance with that country. The restoration of M. is not incredible. Necoh of Egypt was first put in fetters and afterwards sent back to Egypt

Manasseh carried into Babylon.

CAPTIVITY OF MANASSEH

V.11 Nineveh had conquered Babylon. Josephus records Judah was invaded and Manasseh captured by a stratagem. Babylonians were then imported into Judah by Esar-haddon. Ezra 4. 2. Though Manasseh's captivity may have been under Asshur-bani-pal.

CAPTIVITY of MANASSEH V.11

There was a general insurrection against Asshur-banipal in which Manasseh perhaps took part.

2 Ch. "hooks" (the Hebrew word is similar). A monument has been found depicting this King Esar-haddon leading two captives with hooks through their lips. It declares "I transported (from Syria) into Assyria men and women innumerable . . . I counted among the vassals of my realm 12 Kings of Syria beyond the mountains, Baalu, King of Tyre, Manasseh, King of Judah."

Yahweh threatens to do to Assyria what Assyria did to others. Isa. 37. 29. 2 Kgs. 19. 28. Likewise to the latter day Assyrian. Ezek. 38. 2.

3 Babylon was subject to Nineveh at this time and both Esar-haddon and Asshur-banipal resided there occasionally. Both conducted campaigns against Egypt and subjected Manasseh to tribute and Josiah to invasion.

MANASSEH'S HUMBLES HIMSELF V.12. 13

4 Adversity in Babylon taught him the folly of confidence in pagan gods. Prosperity could never do that. In his Babylonian prison he had time to reflect on the stupidity of his ways.

7 In northern wall.

8 Judah was wedged in between Egypt and Assyria and was in danger of being crushed out of existance.

Manasseh seems to have reversed both his political and religious policies.

MANASSEH'S REPENTANCE. Vv 15-17. RECKON

He desperately tried to undo the evil he had done, but he had slain those who could have helped. Idolatry was still rampant in the days of Josiah.

9 The remarkable circumstances of his life illustrated the mercy of Yahweh. It was an exhortation to the people that He would accept them if only they would come to Him. As a loving father he sought to lead the people to repentance.

10 They did this openly because they feared the King. Secretly they served pagan gods and this was openly done in the succeeding reign.

POLITICAL BACKGROUND — Esarhaddon several times invaded the West. Sidon was attacked and Tyre subdued. Judah was invaded and captives from Babylon and elsewhere transplanted there Ezra 4:2,9. About 675 he invaded Egypt and though forced to retreat by a sandstorm, returned the next year and began the conquest that was completed 3 yrs later (671). Ashurbanipal who succeeded him in 669 again invaded Egypt two years later, and again a few years later when Memphis was sacked and Thebes captured (The No-Amon of Nah. 3:8 Jer. 46:25.)
The reign of Ashurbanipal marks the beginning of the break-up of the great Assyrian Empire, that reached the height of its power by the conquest of Egypt. The new emperor prided himself on his courage, and in his early years showed before the LORD, [a] as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon [3] trespassed more and more. 14

24 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 ¶ But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

JOSIAH [1] was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 ¶ For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to [m] seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began [2] to purge Judah and Jerusalem [n] from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the [o] molten images.

4 [p] And they brake down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the [3] images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he brake in pieces, and made dust of them, and strowed it [r] upon the [7] graves of them that had sacrificed unto them. 3

5 And he [s] burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And so did he in the cities of [t] Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, with their [2] mattocks round about. 8

7 And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had [b] beaten the graven images [4] into powder, and cut down all the [c] idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem. 26 YRS OLD

8 ¶ Now [d] in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent [e] Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and [f] Maaseiah [10] the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz [h] the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. (Kenl. "a ruler") 14

9 And when they came to [k] Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of [l] Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and amend the house:

11 Even to the artificers and builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for [q] couplings, and [5] to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. 17

12 And the men did the work faithfully: 18 and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of [6] Merari; and [7] [t] Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the [5] Kohathites, [v] to set it forward; 23 and other of the Levites, all that could skill of instruments of musick. 24 himself no mean general, but he deserves to be remembered more for his love of learning, attested by the antiquities found in his famous library — his pen has left its mark of posterity — but it needed more than a pen to keep the Empire intact.

The Cimmerians from the north and the Scythians were pressing on the border. In 658 Ashurbanipal crushed a Scythian revolt. The same year Egypt rebelled under a local governor Psammetichus who between 658 & 651 drove Assyrians out and reassumed independence. In 652 Ashurbanipal's brother, a vassal King of Babylon rebelled and war not defeated until 4 years later. The last years of his reign were disturbed by family strife and sickness. He died in 626 B.C. His successor Ashur-etil-ilani had to fight for his throne, and the following year Nabopolassar was established as independent King of Babylon. (Historical Background J.W. JEREMIAH PROPHESIAS:

Josiah's work of reform was apparently taken up enthusiastically by the people. So the King might have thought, but in his 13th year the work was interrupted by a discordant note. The harsh tones of Jeremiah were heard Jer. 1:2. denouncing Judah for hypocrisy: "Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart but feignedly, saith Yahweh" Jer. 3:10. This was the tragedy of Josiah's reign later re-echoed by Zephaniah, Zeph. 1.

THE BOOK OF THE LAW FOUND. VV 14-17 2 Kgs 22:8-9

Apparently Manasseh had suppressed the Law (See note on his Apostasy p 536.) and perhaps had destroyed all copies. The Temple copy (Deut 17:18) Kept in side Ark (Deut 31:26) and publicly read (Deut 31:10-11). Was neglected but not destroyed and was now discovered. To this Jeremiah apparently makes mention Jer. 15:16.

The Divine use of a woman for this purpose argues the degeneracy of the times.

14 ¶ And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found a book of the law of the LORD given [5] by Moses. 26

15 And Hilkiah [d] answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

17 And they have [7] gathered together the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.

18 Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read [8] it before the king. 29

19 And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes. 30 - He humbled himself - weeping and praying - so deeply did he feel the disgrace

20 And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and [9] Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying,

21 Go, enquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

22 And Hilkiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of [2] Hasrah, keeper of the [3] wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem [4] in the college:) and they spake to her to that effect.

23 ¶ And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me,

24 Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:

25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore [e] my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched. 32

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard;

27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

28 Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thine eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

29 ¶ Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

THE PASSOVER. - The confirmation of the Covenant was followed by a unique celebration of the Passover. From all parts of the land the people flocked up to the renovated Temple and joined with every demonstration of enthusiasm in the festivity provided for them. 30,000 males of full age attended. The King gave them their paschal offerings, a lamb or a kid for each, and furnished besides 3,000 bullocks for thank offerings; while the leading priests and chief Levites were proportionately liberal. The requirements of the Law were scrupulously carried out, the ceremonials of David and Solomon carefully revived. V.18. The crowd entered into the ceremony with the greatest enthusiasm - perhaps stimulated to do so by the novelty of the occasion - but the true spirit of repentance was missing. Cp. 2 Kings 23:22 note

II. CHRONICLES 35. a solemn passover.

30 And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, [2] great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.

31 And the king [e] stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.

32 And he caused all that were [3] present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand [f] to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

33 And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were [g] present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not [4] from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

8 And his princes [7] gave willingly unto the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: [m] Hilkiah and [n] Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the [k] passover offerings two thousand and six hundred [o] small cattle, and three hundred oxen.

CELEBRATION OF THE PASSOVER Vv. 10-19

2 Chronicles says that it was kept by companies of no less than 10 Ver. 6-9 for it was not lawful to eat it singly. At the time appointed (approx 3 pm to 6 pm) representative of each group brought their animal to Temple the gates of which were closed when the allowed number were inside - until the next relay.
The priests stood between the slaughter place and altar to officiate and to assist one another.
The people acted as priests and slew their own offering V.11.
The Levite stood at their places Cp 1 Chr. 25 singing Psalms 113-118 repeatedly

13 YEARS PASS AWAY. Vv 14-20. - The Voices of Jeremiah now Zephaniah, probably Nahum have been heard. The former two sternly indicting the people - laying bare their iniquity, revealing that the reform had not touched their hearts, that the letter of the law might have been scrupulously followed, but its spirit was unknown to the people. POLITICALLY. it was a time of great unrest. Asia was invaded by the Scythians. They appeared suddenly from the north, from behind the long mountain barrier formed by the Himalaya, Caucasus, Taurus, Taurus, Alps, fierce, uncivilised, uncouth to fall upon the sophisticated peoples of the south - Assyria, Babylon, Syria, Egypt. One division swept

24 These were divided among the groups of worshippers. These officiating separated those portions of the animals slain which were of the nature of burnt offerings to the priests at the altar thereto be consumed. The officers took the portions to the officiating priests of the Altar

25 The slain lamb would be carried back to their homes and there roasted.

26 A peace offering was eaten before the Passover lamb (see Ant. of Jews Vol I, P 461-462).

and [b] the blood from their hands, and [b] the Levites flayed them. 23

12 And they [24] removed the burnt offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.

13 And they [c] roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: [25] but the other holy offerings [26] sod they in [g] pots, and in [h] caldrons, and in [i] pans, and [k] divided them speedily among all the people.

14 And afterward they made ready [27] for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph [28] were in their [6] place, according to the commandment of [o] David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's [q] seer; and [r] the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; [s] for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

16 So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.

17 And the children of Israel that were [2] present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of [t] unleavened bread seven days.

18 And [29] there was no passover like to that kept in Israel from the days of [u] Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of [d] Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were [2] present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept. [30]

20 ¶ [e] After all this, when Josiah had prepared the [3] temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against [31] Charchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him.

21 But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, [f] What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against [5] the house wherewith I have war: for God commanded me to make haste: [k] forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

22 Nevertheless Josiah would not [l] turn [32] his face from him, but [m] disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and hearkened not unto the words of Necho [n] from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of [p] Megiddo.

23 And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away; for I am sore [7] wounded.

24 [t] His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem, and he died, and was buried [8] in one of the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem [u] mourned for Josiah. [33]

25 ¶ And Jeremiah [x] lamented for Josiah: and [y] all the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations to this day, and made them [b] an ordinance in Israel: and, behold, they are written in the lamentations. [34]

26 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his [9] goodness, according to that which was written in the law of the LORD,

They were met and stopped by Psammetichus of Egypt after sacking the Temple of Astarte at Ascalon Herod. I 105. They left one permanent trace of their passage as they scoured through the plain of Esdraelon. The city of Bethshan on its eastern extremity from them received the name it subsequently bore of Scythopolis.

Bought off by Egypt they returned north ravaging the country burning, plundering, bringing terror to the inhabitants. But with in ten years they had retired behind their mountain barrier, disappeared like an evil apparition.

The world breathed with relief, but it was soon convulsed by war.

632 FALL OF ASSYRIA - With the death of Ashurbanipal (See Note top p 628) the sudden and rapid collapse of Assyria began. To the Nth east Cyaxares came to power in Media, and uniting all Aids beyond the Halys, marched against Nineveh. In the Sth East of Mesopotamia (app. 625 BC) Nabopolassar founded the Neo-Babylonian Empire. The sudden appearance of the wild, barbaric Scythians delayed the death of Assyria. When they retired the attack was renewed. The Medes and Babylonians bore down upon the Assyrians on two fronts north and south, and the brutal Empire was crushed as in a vice. A fragment of cuneiform text in the British Museum records: "In the month of Du'uz (June-July 609) the king of Assyria procured a large Egyptian army and marched against Harran to conquer it. .... Till the month of Ulul (Aug.-Sept.) he fought against the city but accomplished nothing." After fall Nineveh, the remnants of Assyrian forces retreated to Northern Mesopotamia. Their King embarked upon the forlorn hope of reconquering from there what he had lost. Neco hastened to help him, but when, after 2 mths fighting not even Harran had fallen he retired.

32 He wanted to keep his country free from foreign domination. If Egypt was successful in the north, Judah would fall under its influence. Despite the comparative weakness of his army he stood against the Egyptian possibly expecting Yahweh to intervene as against Sennacherib - but he did not ask Divine counsel.

The King of Babylon and Cyaxares met each other among the ruins of the city, pledged themselves to friendship & a confederacy... They took vast quantities of booty in the city and reduced it to a "heap of rubble & ruins." (Babylonian chronicle). By 612 Assyria was destroyed.

THEN [f] the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt [g] put him down at Jerusalem, and condemned [1] the land in an hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 ¶ [h] Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God.

6 [i] Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar [2] king of Babylon, and bound him in [k] fetters, to [l] carry him to Babylon.[3]

7 [m] Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 [n] Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, [5] behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and [3] Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 ¶ [b] Jehoiachin was [c] eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD.

10 And [2] when the year was expired, [d] king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, [e] with the [3] goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made [4] Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.

11 ¶ [h] Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

12 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God, and humbled not himself before [i] Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD.

13 And he also [k] rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, [l] who had made him swear by God: but he [m] stiffened his neck, and [n] hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD God of Israel.

14 ¶ Moreover all the chief of the priests, and the people, [p] transgressed very much after all the abominations of the heathen; and [5] polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

15 And the LORD God of their fathers [r] sent to them [6] by his messengers, rising up [7] betimes, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place:

16 But they [s] mocked the messengers of God, and [t] despised his words, and [u] misused his prophets, until [v] the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no [8] remedy.

Carchemish in which Necho was decisively defeated. He fled through Palestine followed by the jeers of Jeremiah Cp ch. 47.

In the moment of victory Nebuchadnezzar heard of the death of his father. Without waiting to consolidate his gains he returned home to secure the throne, receiving the submission of Judah and other Syrian states.

EGYPT & BABYLON See Note 31, P. 632

On the defeat of Assyria, the Medes and Babylonians divided up the Empire. The former annexed the Nth and Nth-East, the latter lay claim to the South and South West. This brought Syria, Palestine etc into the hands of the Babylonians.

By his victory over Judah, Necho became suzerain of Syria, and the rise of the Babylonian Empire made a conflict between the two powers certain. It was at this time that 2 Chr. 36:4 was fulfilled.

Four years later the conflict took place. Crown Prince Nebuchadrezzar, son of Nabopolassar marched against Egypt. A battle took place at with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or [c] him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand.

18 And [d] all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes; all these he brought to Babylon.

19 [e] And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the [f] palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the [g] goodly vessels thereof.

20 And [2 h] them that had escaped from the sword carried he away to Babylon; where they were servants to him and his sons until [m] the reign of the kingdom of Persia:

21 To fulfil the word of the LORD by the mouth of [o] Jeremiah, until [b] the land had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as she lay desolate [d] she kept sabbath, to fulfil threescore and ten years.

23 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the LORD God of heaven given me; and he hath charged me to build him an house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? The LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.

CYRUS DECREES THE RESTORATION. VV. 1-4.

REMARKABLE FULFILMENT OF 200 YEAR OLD PROPHECY. Isa 44:26-28. 45:1, 13. See Notes. 2 Chr 36:22-23.

By His control of circumstances. See Note on Fall Babylon. p. 1091. Notice language of Jer. 25:12, 14. 29:10 Ps 126:1-6. Prov 21:1. Josephus claims he was shown prophecies of Isaiah and was "seized with an earnest desire and ambition to fulfil what was so written". Isa 44:28. 45:13. The elevation of Daniel just prior to Babylon's fall. Dan 5:29 would contribute to this. The Cyrus Cylinder records his policy of religious tolerance to many gods but in regard to Yahweh, he gave special assistance as Ezra records.

2 This was the philosophy of History revealed by Daniel to Nebuchadnezzar and probably passed on by him to Cyrus. Dan. 2:37-38. 4:25, 32. 5:18-21

Jeremiah attempts to flee. The siege renewed. - The prophet imprisoned 37:6-21. Taken by Zedekiah from the dungeon to the court of the prison 37:21. 32:1-2. he purchases the field of Hanameel Ch. 32.

19 70 years = 10 Sabbatical years. See Note Dan 9:24. Lev 26:2. warned if did not "Keep my sabbaths & reverence My Sanctuary" they would be put under bands of yoke V. 13. and land enjoy sabbaths. V. 43. Cp Jer 7:8-11. Jer 17:21. These exhortations rejected. Thus 70 years. See Notes top. p. 966.

DECREE CYRUS 22-23.

20 When he became sole ruler of Babylon Aug 1. (he was already King of Persia) fulfilling the prophecy (which reach 200 yrs earlier Isa 45:1) Dan. 5:29.

He was first King of a small state in Elam, to east Babylonia. In 549 he conquered Media. In 546 overthrew Croesus, famous King of Lydia, and entered Babylon after a short and easy campaign. - a career of meteoric brilliance.

The incredulous reaction of Godly Jews to this proclamation is anticipated in Ps. 126. Cf. Ps 107.

Whilst Cyrus proclaimed a policy of religious tolerance and invited all captive people to return home he singled out Yahweh and Israel for special mention. His Babylonish neighbors.

THE JEWS RESPOND

Considerable excitement was caused by the proclamation — certain leaders instantly acting upon it. Doubtless doubtless assisted in this though his age would prevent him participating in the return.

6 Evidently a fund immediately established for this purpose.

Prov. 16:1. The number of those that responded was disappointing. Many had become assimilated into the ways of Babylon and did not want to be uprooted.

23 As Chronicles is the last book in Hebrew canon, these encouraging words conclude the Hebrew Bible. Here is a reason for the repetition of these words.

Styled "all Israel" (See note on Discrepancies p. 636). So Israel and Judah used interchangeably. The regathering is accounted as Judah only — cf Neh 4:20, 16. 6:7, 16, 18 Bottom 635.

DISCREPANCIES IN THE REGISTERS. Cp Neh. 7:6-69. Though the sum total in each of these enumerations is equal namely 42,360, yet the particulars reckoned up make in Ezra only 29,818, and in Nehemiah 31,089. We find that Nehemiah mentions 1765 persons which are not in Ezra, and Ezra has 494 not mentioned by Nehemiah. If the surplus in Ezra is added to the sum in Nehemiah and the surplus of Nehemiah to the number in Ezra the numbers are equal. Thus - the number in Ezra 29,818 + surplus Nehemiah 1765 = 31,583. Number in Nehemiah + surplus in Ezra 494 = 31,583. This leaves a deficiency of 10,777. - see below

There were large infiltrations of the northern tribes into Judah before the dispersion 2 Chron. 11:13-17. 15:9. 34:6-9.

636 there was a careful selection screening of returning exiles - so that all had to confess their endorsement of the hope of Israel. Acts 15:14. Eph 2:11-12.

Thus there were Jews who could proudly show their genealogy and which were recorded.

There were those who had little to show except the fact that they were undoubtedly of Israel.

DISCORDANT VOICES. VV 12-13.
Only about 53 years had elapsed since destruction of Temple Hag 1. There was a poverty about this new Temple which caused sorrow. The Ark, the Shekinah glory, the manifestation of Urim Ch 2:63. were all missing. As large as the grant of Persia may have been V 7. it nowhere near equalled that of David. These elders of Israel thought of these things and wept.
12 Fulfilling Jer. 31:10-11. They shouted with enthusiasm because of the promise of greater things to come. They were not deterred by the "day of small things" Zech. 4:10. for they knew nothing better.
The mingled noise of weeping and joy reflected the spirit of the times. The city in ruins, the temple as yet a mere shadow, fear on every side V 4. there was much work to be done, many difficulties to overcome.

12 The language of diplomacy.

13 Assurbanipal. See note 2 Kgs 17:24. It is suggested that this is an Aramaic form of the word. Assurbanipal claims to have penetrated Elam, took Susa the Capitol, and carried off many inhabitants to Assyria.

14 The mention of these might well gain the support of the Persian. [5] RV = "and so forth." The rest of the introduction to the letter is not included.

16 RV = "Have finished the walls and repaired the foundations." This evidently expresses their intentions for the next verse states the work not completed.

17 Cp Note. 6.

9 Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their [5] companions; [b] the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the [c] Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the [d] Elamites,

10 And the rest of the nations whom the great and [12] noble [f] Asnapper brought over, and set in the cities of [g] Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the [5] river, [h] and [7] at such a time.

11 ¶ This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king; Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time.

12 Be it known unto the king, that the Jews which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have [2] set up the walls thereof, and [3] joined the foundations.

13 Be it known now unto the king, that, if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not [5] pay [7] toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the [6] revenue of the kings.

14 Now because [7] we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonour, therefore have we sent and certified the king;

15 That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and [8] hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have [2] moved sedition [3] within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.

16 We certify the king that, if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.

17 ¶ Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their [6] companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the [7] river, [c] Peace, and at such a time. Cp v. 10.

18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been [h] plainly read before me.

19 And [9] I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath [9] made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.

20 There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have [k] ruled over all countries beyond the [4] river; and [l] toll, tribute, and custom, was paid unto them.

21 [e] Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another commandment shall be given from me.

22 Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings? Cp Note 6

23 ¶ Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease [8] by force and power.

24 Then ceased the work of

THE EARLY ENTHUSIASM IS BLUNTED. The unexpected opposition to the work of God discouraged the people. If any of the wall had been set up Ezra 4:12 it had been broken down Ezra 4:23. Neh. 2:17. The foundations of the Temple if built Ezra 3:10. had to be again restored, for building Hag. 2:18. The people had dispersed to the cities Ezra 2:70. claiming the time had not come for building Hag. 1:4. A spirit of gross materialism set in. Houses were built and glamorised Hag. 1:4, every effort was made to build up personal wealth. Hag. 1:6 but there was no true prosperity. Zech. 8:9-11. A succession of bad seasons left the people impoverished. Hag. 1:10-11. and completely dispirited. Haggai's message was "Consider Your Ways!"

HAGGAI & ZECHARIAH PROPHESY.

THE WORK IS RESUMED 1-2.

1 Actually grandson being son of Berachiah Zech 1:1

2 Stimulated by the prophets, the leaders inspired the people to labor in turn. Hag 1:12-14. Four classes of men were thus united in this work. the civil Governor, the high Priest, the prophet order - and the people.

5 The neglected foundation was restored. In the 24th day 6th month the material was got ready, the site was cleared of debri and on 24th day of 9th month actual building commenced. Hag 1:15, 2:18. Meanwhile at feast Tabernacles Haggai had encouraged the people Hag 2:1-4.

A CHALLENGE BY THE PERSIAN GOVERNOR. Vs 3-5.

3 He was Governor-General of the Provinces south of Euphrates. His challenge seems to have been stimulated by the Samaritans with whom Shethar-boznai is identified. Cp Ch 6:6. 4:9 This was the Satan at the right hand of Joshua. Zech. 3:1-2.

4 RSV: "They also asked them this ..." Syr. GK. Cp V 10 Cp Zech. 3:1. Dan 10:13. They were stimulated by the assurances of Haggai and Zechariah and in faith continued to build.

TATNAI'S LETTER TO DARIUS. Vs 6-17.

He seems to have been a fair-minded man and to have acted in an unprejudiced manner - instituting a thorough inquiry and acting with great caution. The Jews had the assurance of Zech. 4:9-10.

The letter EZRA 5. to Darius.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Zerubbabel and Jeshua, incited by Haggai and Zechariah, set forward the building of the temple. 3 Tatnai and Shethar-boznai could not hinder the Jews. 6 Their letter to Darius.

THEN the prophets, (b) Haggai the prophet, and (c) Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them.

2 Then rose up [d] Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and [d] Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

3 ¶ At the same time came to them [g] Tatnai, governor on this side the [h] river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them, [i] Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall?

4 Then said we unto them [j] after this manner, What are the names of the men [3] that make this building? For answer Vs 11-16

5 But [m] the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they [o] returned answer by letter concerning this matter.

6 ¶ The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king:

7 They sent a letter unto him, [s] wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace.

8 Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with [2] great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, [a] Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls?

10 We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

11 And thus they returned us answer, saying, [7] We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded [e] and set up.

12 But [f] after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of [k] Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.

13 But in the first year of [k] Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.

14 And [n] the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was [p] Sheshbazzar, whom he had made [4] governor;

15 And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place.

16 Then came the same Sheshbazzar, [8] and [q] laid the foundation

tion of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and [b] yet it is not finished.

17 Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, [d] let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Darius maketh a new decree for advancing the building. 13 By the help of the enemies, and the directions of the prophets, the temple is finished. 16 Feasts of the dedication 19 and of the passover.

THEN Darius the king made a decree, [a] and search was made in the house of the [3] rolls, where the treasures were [4] laid up in Babylon.

2 And there was found at Achmetha, in [h] the palace that is in the province of the [i] Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:

3 In the first year of Cyrus the king the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits;

4 [m] With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house:

5 And also let [o] the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and [2] brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to his place, and place them in the house of God.

6 Now therefore, [a] Tatnai, governor beyond the [4] river, Shethar-boznai, and [3] your companions the [c] Apharsachites, which are beyond the river, [4] be ye far from thence:

7 Let the work of this house of God alone: let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in his place.

8 Moreover [3] I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's [e] goods, even of the [f] tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given unto these men, that they be not [4] hindered.

9 And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, [7] and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail:

10 That they may offer sacrifices [8] of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and [k] pray for the life of the king, and of his sons.

11 Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, [9] let him be hanged thereon; and let his house be made [l] a dunghill for this.

12 And the God that [m] hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

DECREE OF CYRUS CONFIRMED BY DARIUS. VV1-12.

1 RSV: "Archives."

2 RSV: "search was made in Babylonia in the house of the archives where the documents were stored."

3 Persian denotation? Sg. A house for a summer residence. Supposed to be in southern parts of Media. Identified with Ecbatana whose glory Herodotus refers to 4 This is larger than Solomon's specifications. 1 Kgs. 6:2-3. but it lacked the glory of Solomon's -the Shekinal light, the Ark etc. Cp Ezra. 3:13.

5 Similar in construction 1 Kgs. 6. 36. These detailed instructions show the interest Cyrus took in the project. He must have enquired regarding the previous construction and ascertained exactly what was required

6 Cp Ch. 1:7. The King's grant also provided for sacrifices. V.9. But it was supplemented by the offerings of the people. Ch. 1:4-6.

7 This is a simple straightforward and open statement of fact contrasting the many lying and deceitful statements of the great king

8 He reverses the decree of the usurper and endorses that of Cyrus. Cp. Ezra. 4:7-24. Politically this was a wise move reflectedly adversely upon the pseudo-Smerdis (who falsely claimed to be the brother of Cambyses, son of Cyrus) indicating that Darius was not only descendant of the great Cyrus but ruled in accordance with his decrees.

9 Thus binding the developing power of Judah firmly to Persia. It had been a time of revolt in Persia (See top. 642) The supporters of the usurper Smerdis were the opponents of Darius. He would be more likely thus to look upon the Jews more favorably. Thus through the Ways of Providence the Divine purpose was advanced.

641 Zech. 3. Of the foundation stone of the Spiritual Temple Zech. 3:9 The two Olive Branches representative of the people who labored and of Zerubbabel who would complete the building Zech. 4. Of the Branch, the Builder whose Temple will draw all men to him Zech. 6:13

As the people labored they heard these stirring words of encouragement Cp. V. 14.

Meanwhile, in Shushan Ahasuerus celebrated his glorious power Est. 1:1-5. (See chronology. p. 629. Hag. 1)

THE DECREE IS IMPLEMENTED VV13-14.

Activity is greatly increased. All doubt is at an end. The prophecies of Zechariah spoken at this time showed how these things foreshadowed the future. He had the vision of the line stretched forth over Jerusalem 1:16-17. of the four carpenters 1:20. according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily.

10. The whole nation was united in the work. Those once doubtful now joyfully threw in their lot. An official delegation approached Zechariah asking whether certain fasts held to commemorate the miseries of the dispersion should be continued. Zech. 7:1-3. They were told to obey the Law V.9. & turn their fasts into feasts of rejoicing Zech. 8:18-19. This approach to the Temple is seen as a type of the universal approach in the latter days. Zech. 8:20-23

14 And [a] the elders of the Jews builded, and [e] they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the [2] commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the [2] commandment of [c] Cyrus, and [f] Darius, and [g] Artaxerxes king of Persia. See note above

15 And this house was finished on the third day of the month [i] Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. Link with Esther 3:7

THE TEMPLE COMPLETED. V.15.

DEDICATION OF THE HOUSE. V.16-18

It was immediately dedicated in anticipation for the Passover.

19 And the children of the captivity [16] kept the passover [r] upon the fourteenth day of the first month.

They were all ready at one time to observe the proper rites and ceremonies, & had no need of a second Passover as provided by the Law for those accidentally defiled, or at a distance from the Temple. See Note 2 Chron 30:1-3.

20 For the priests and the Levites were [s] purified together, all of them were pure, and [t] killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves.

21 And the children of Israel, which were come again [17] out of captivity, and [v] all such as had separated themselves unto them from the [a] filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat, 19 Here ends the 11th portion of the Book with the Temple built and the People rejoicing in the accomplishment of their hands.

Artaxerxes is an appellation like Pharaoh See top p. 638. Xerxes in his Inscription at Persepolis calls himself in one sentence Xerxes the great King and Darius the King.

He thus become Arta-Xerxes or Great-Shah as well as King of Assyria Ezra. 6:22. King of Kings Ezra 7:12. King of Babylon Neh. 13:6.

be Bardis or Smerdis the brother of Caby-ses, and several others.

His influence contributed to the Judaism of Maccabean times all that was good in it- its zeal, its fervent patriotism, its passionate attachment to the Law, its burning desire to keep itself unpolluted from the impure idolatries and debasing superstitions of heathenism. He gave it the stubbornness and strength to resist the persecuting Hellenism of Antiochus, and to battle for years on almost equal terms with the mighty legions of Rome. With the synagogues, the elevation of the exclusiveness of the Law, his spirit remained with the nation, so that through him its elders "sat in Moses seat" Matt. 23:2. until the promised prophet LIKE unto Moses appeared to take over his mightier position.

THE LIFE OF EZRA commences with CH.7. See outline CH.1. With the work of Ezra there is a parallel with that of Zerubbabel. The latter built the Temple, the former reformed the people. Thus RESTORATION now follows with REFORMATION. The purpose of Ezra's return (See Notes Ezra 7:6) was to "further the people and the house of God" Ch.8:36. The Temple had been rebuilt — now there was a need to instruct the people and further its work. Nothing further is heard of Joshua and Zerubbabel though subordinate priests are mentioned Ch.8:33. They could have died in the meantime making Ezra's presence the more desirable. There was a need for REORGANISATION Ch.7:25.

NOT ONLY A LIBERAL DECREE BUT A GENEROUS GIFT V.15.

10 Here is a testimony to his character. He prepared his heart to SEEK, DO, TEACH. There was objectivity in his study. — he was a dedicated man who became skilful in his labors. V.6.

ARTAXERXES DECREE

VV.11-26 A most generous decree proclaimed granting complete liberty to Ezro.

11 From here to V.26 is in Aramaic.

12 It is evident from this and the King's decree that Ezra had expounded something of the Divine purpose to the King. Cp V.14, 15, 16, 17, 23.

13 There was to be no compulsion — only those moved by a love of Zion would return.

14 This was the extraordinary commission granted him speaking of the influence of Ezra with the King.

15 Here was an example for the Jews. Cp 8:20.

16 He had liberty to use the rich gift as he desired providing it was according to the Law.

If he lacked the vigor of Nehemiah — he was also older, being over 70 when commissioned by the King. Cp Ch.7:1.

EZRA 7.

The gracious commission of Artaxerxes to Ezra.

Heb: a scribe erudite; upright 2

10 For Ezra [a] had prepared his heart [1] to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and judgments. Cp Neh 8:8.

11 ¶ Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

12 Artaxerxes, [d] king of kings, [2] unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, [e] and at such a time.

13 [f] I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his [g] seven counsellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand;

15 And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his [3] counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, [h] whose habitation is in Jerusalem,

16 [i] And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, [m] offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem:

17 That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their [p] meat offerings and their [r] drink offerings, and [s] offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God.

19 The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem.

20 And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house.

21 And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do [c] make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, 22 Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred [3] measures of wheat, and to an hundred [f] baths of wine, [9] and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

23 [5] Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of [h] the king and his sons?

24 Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose [t] toll, tribute, or custom, upon them.

25 And thou, Ezra, after [u] the wisdom of thy God, that is in thine hand, set [v] magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and [q] teach ye them that know them not.

26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or [6] to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

Ezra proclaimed they had no private revenue! 1 ch. 4. 13.

16 This implies that the Jews were high in favor — the influence of Esther.

17 Ezra must have shown that Yahweh repays those who curse Israel. He could have instanced the downfall of Babylon and the prophecies of Jeremiah. Cp Zech. 1:14-17.

18 Darius Hystaspes had 3 sons by his first wife, born before he was King, and 4 others by Atossa the daughter of Cyrus. There was some dispute about the succession which was decided by Darius who appointed Xerxes to succeed him (Herodotus book VII). This is slight corroborative evidence identifying Artaxerxes with Hystaspes.

19 Here was a most generous exemption of tribute.

20 There was evidently a state of chaos and need for reorganisation and consolidation on both civil and Divine principles.

21 The greatest authority was granted Ezra yet he exercised it mostly trying to draw the people by the power of the Word.

LEZRA: THE HELPER WHO HONORED THE WORD. His name means "helper" and he became such through his devotion to the Word Ezra 7:10. He was a deep student Ezra 7:10. an obedient worshipper, and a skilful expounder Ezra 7:6, 11. Neh 8:2-8. He was also an able administrator. 643

He was a man of prayer Ezra 7:27,28 and of faith Ezra 8:22 a man who deeply felt the sins of his people and spared no pains to bring them to repentance. Ezra 9:3. 10:6.

Tradition, via the Talmud, makes Ezra one of the most celebrated persons in Jewish history. It ascribes to him: (1) The founding of the "Great Synagogue" or synod of learned Jewish scholars consisting of 120 members, the successors of the prophets. (See Appendix p3) Their aim was to restore again the crown and glory of Israel. They collected the sacred Writings and completed the canon of Scripture, organised the ritual of the synagogue: etc. (2) The settlement of the canon of Scripture and its arrangement into Law, Prophets, and Writings. (3) The change over in the old Hebrew script to the new Assyrian square characters. (4) The compilation of Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah. (5) The institution of local synagogues.

Much of this tradition is rejected by scholars as legendary — others accept it.

He was devout seeing the outworking of providence in the things of life Ch.7:6, 28; 8:18, 31.

In temperament he was passionate and emotional Ch. 8:22 9:3, Ch 10:1.

He had a deep sense of the majesty of Yahweh 9:3 He saw His severity 9:14, 10:8 but also His mercy Ezra 9:8. Neh 9:17, 31.

Thus he was encouraging, hopeful and helpful Neh 8:10.

Companions of Ezra, who returned from Babylon.

Few heeded the call to return; conditions in Babylon were too good! Davidic line, a few of the relatives of those in the land — the rest a few undistinguished families. The 1754 rep. resent males only — families could have been with them bringing the total up to 5-6 thousand. Against this it should be remembered that the return was limited to those who could teach See. Ch.7:25-26 thus the need to supplement with additional Levites.

WHY DID NOT EZRA RETURN WITH ZERUBBABEL?

The familiar language by which the King addresses him Ch.7:12-26 would suggest that he held some position of authority in Persia which he could well have been given under Cyrus. But now he makes request to return Ch.7:6 and the terms of the commission granted him is to "enquire" concerning existing conditions V:14 and establish the nation according to its ancient laws 7:26.

WHAT WAS THE PURPOSE OF HIS MISSION?

It was reorganisation Ch.7:25. Though the Temple was built, Jerusalem was far from prosperous, and Judah in affliction Neh.1:3, the Law was not properly understood or obeyed, mixed marriages were common. Ezra 9. 1, the long period of famine and want Hag.1:9-11 Zech.8:10 had left many people impoverished whilst the wealthy had seized the opportunity to oppress them Neh.5. Altogether there was need for general reorganisation.

WHY SHOULD ARTAXERXES ASSIST?

Apart from the personal interest through the influence of Ezra, Nehemiah, Esther, it was a most sound policy politically. If Judah could be built into a strong nation it would ensure a valuable ally in that difficult part of the Persian Empire. It could only be established thus on the basis suggested in Artaxerxes decree — upon the basis of the Law established & enforced Cp Note Ch8:36.

PRIESTS AND LEVITES APPOINTED TO GUARD THE TREASURE Vv24-30

As ministers of the Temple they were dedicated to guard it with their lives.
29 Evidently there were priests beside Gershom and Daniel V.2. This is suggested in V.15. The number 12 suggests the tribes. 12 Levites selected as well V.30. They probably carried it in the heart of the travelling company.

HE CAME BEARING THE LAW WITH HIM.

Ezra was a ready Scribe in the Law Ch.7:6. His commission was to establish that as the way of life in Judah Vv25-26. For that purpose he required additional Levites. Ch8:18-19. The possibilities are that he brought the Law with him. See Note. Ch8:1.

THE START. would offer a strange scene, picturesque and exciting, but full of tenderness and pathos. Instead of be farewells, there would be all the noise and confusion of preparation. But at last all would be ready. The leader would take the head - and the rest would follow. It was the story of Abram over again.

FROM AHAVA. The circuitous route they probably took involved a journey of some 900 miles and occupied some 4 months. Ch. 7:8-9. That suggests there were several stops such as that at Ahava. There was a need, too, for Ezra to deliver the decree of the King to the officials of Syria Ch. 7:21. All this took time and must have been wearying - especially to such as Ezra now over 70 years of age. From Jericho they would ascend to Jerusalem above. The scenery from [a] Merari, his brethren and their sons, twenty;

20 Also of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them [a] were expressed by name.

21 ¶ Then I [c] proclaimed a fast there, at the river [d] of [f] Ahava, that we might [g] afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a [h] right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a [i] band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, [m] The hand of our God is upon all them [o] for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that [p] forsake him.

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was intreated of us.

24 ¶ Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, [u] Sherebiah, [z] Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed unto them [a] the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the [b] offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there [d] present, had offered:

26 I even weighed unto their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents;

27 Also twenty [f] basons of gold, of a thousand [g] drams; and two vessels of [3] fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said unto them, Ye are [i] holy unto the LORD; the vessels are [l] holy also; and the silver and the gold are [q] a free-will offering unto the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in [c] the chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So took the priests and the Levites the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

31 ¶ Then we departed from the river [d] of [f] Ahava on the [k] twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and [l] the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

32 And [n] we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.

33 ¶ Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels [q] weighed in the house of our God by the hand of [s] Meremoth the son of [t] Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was [v] Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of [z] Binnui, Levites;

34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

35 Also the children [e] of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, [e] twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the LORD.

36 ¶ And they delivered the king's [4] commissions unto the king's [k] lieutenants, and to the [m] governors on this side the river: and they [n] furthered the people, and the house of God.

PRIESTS AND LEVITES APPOINTED TO GUARD THE TREASURE Vv 24-30

As ministers of the Temple they were dedicated to guard it with their lives.

19 Evidently there were priests beside Gershom and Daniel V. 2. This is suggested in V. 15. The number 12 suggests the tribes.

THE TREASURE DELIVERED V. 33

A solemn conference was held and the treasure officially passed over to those in charge. By an impressive service of sacrifice the returning exiles acknowledged their debt of gratitude to Yahweh and were received into the body of the nation.

COMMISSIONS DELIVERED 36

28 Vulg. Regia satrapis. Satraps of the king.

There was a chief satrap of Syria Ezra 5:6. to whom local governors were subject. Zerubbabel had evidently died and others put in his place, and as faithful as he Neh. 5:14-15. A state of chaos ensued. Ezra's position was not that of governor but more that of Chief Justice. He was empowered to settle everything relating to the nation's religion and the life regulated by it, and maintain everything quietly as it was established by law. In those directions (as governed by the Law) his authority was higher than the local governors. In both Jerusalem Ezra

THE PRESSING QUESTION. After several months without disturbance or special annoy, Ezra was suddenly asked to turn his attention to a matter of the deepest interest to the community. Foreign marriages had become matters of every day occurrence. Perhaps the colonists had not been accompanied by an adequate proportion of females. They replenished their need from the inhabitants of the land, the Levites and Priests as well as the princes being foremost in the transgression, without these Gentiles embracing the Covenant. Thus the holy seed became mingled, idolatry became tolerated and superstitious practises became common. Ezra's handling of the problem set a precedent for how any violation of the Law should be dealt with. The Law had to be scrupulously upheld at all costs. His immediate problem was to induce in the people a readiness to accept what the Law demanded.

CHAPTER 9.

REFORMATION BEGINS.

THE EVIL OF MIXED MARRIAGES REPORTED TO EZRA. VV1-2.

See Note bottom p. 644. Ezra 8:26. EZRA'S PROBLEM.

1 He was commissioned to establish the nation on the basis of the Law and to set in office men who could teach it. Ch. 7:21-26. He probably brought a copy of Law with him. It is mentioned only before appearance of Ezra. Ch. 8:4. 28 times after in Ezra Nehemiah.

Given to the princes just returned to teach the people. Ch. 7:25. It was now revealed for the first time how far astray they were from the spirit of His teaching.

In this they gave a bad example to those Gentiles who had separated themselves. Ezra 6:21.

2 According to the original inhabitants of the land. Many nations. Hyde has ceased the evil of their presence ingrained in Deut 9:4. They were called to complete separation from such. Deut. 7:2-4 how neglect of this threatened the success of the Return. Deut. etc.

Cp. Deut. 7:3. Exod. 34:16. Neh. 13:25. Mal. 2:11.

Zarah = to traffic, barter, give pledges etc. In marriage they met these Gentiles on equal ground instead of asserting their superiority as the holy seed, and accepted them in marriage without insisting that they conform to the Truth.

3 Ma'al = treachery, unfaithfulness, breach of trust.

EZRA'S GRIEF. VV3-4.

The extent of his sorrow measures the depths of his feelings for the Truth. He did not excuse the action of the guilty ones. Jehovah had been defied - and such sin could only be expiated by a sacrifice.

His inner and outer garment.

A symbolic action indicating the rawness of his feelings and that they were revealed for all to see. Cp. Rev. 16:15.

4 In excess of grief - the self-inflicted pain in measure compensating for his sorrow. The difference in character between Ezra and Nehemiah has been summarised by this action. Whereas Ezra tore out the hairs of his head, Nehemiah did those of his adversaries. Neh. 13:25.

Shamem - meme - to stun, grow numb, stupefy. The knowledge that the Jews were foremost in the transgression must have struck him with the greatest amazement.

EZRA'S PRAYER. VV5-15.

5 In the attitude of the deepest humility to plead.

6 As though as to seize hold of Jehovah. Cp. Isa. 64:7.

7 Ashem = guilt done in ignorance.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Ezra mourneth for the affinity of the people with strangers. 5 He prayeth unto God with confession of sins.

NOW when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not [b] separated themselves from the people of the lands, [d] doing according to their abominations, even of the [f] Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the [g] Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. Seed of the Sanctuary.

2 For they have [k] taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have [m] mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and [o] rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

3 And when I heard this thing, [p] I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down [q] astonied.

4 Then were assembled unto me every one that [r] trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat [q] astonied until the [s] evening sacrifice.

5 ¶ And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my [t] heaviness; and [z] having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and [a] spread out my hands unto the LORD my God,

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our [b] trespass [b] is grown up unto the heavens.

7 [c] Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities [d] have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to [e] confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a little [2] space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a [c] remnant to escape, and to give us [4] a nail in his holy place, that our God may [e] lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 [h] For we were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but [i] hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and [4] to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us [u] a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments,

11 Which thou hast commanded [5] by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it [6] from one end to another with their [7] uncleanness.

12 Now therefore [u] give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor [v] seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and [8] leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

13 And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for [c] our great trespass, seeing that thou our God [9d] hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;

EZRA'S PRAYER. There was careful preparation for approach to Jahweh, and one calculated to impress the people with the seriousness and urgency of the situation. By this means he prepared not only himself but the people who must have had a desire to obey Jahweh. "Overwhelmed with horror, he sank involuntarily on the ground, and all the men of more tender conscience gradually assembled around their leader, still utterly unstrung, and wailing deeply; but not until the time of evening sacrifice could he recover from the profound shock he had sustained sufficiently to pour forth his feelings in prayer. In words wrung from his inmost feeling he implored God to have pity on His people, who though long sunk so low by their ancient sins, had now, by this violation of His express commands, imperilled even the feeble commencement of a somewhat improved condition, only recently vouchsafed them by God" (Cornill - History).

He identifies himself with the sins of the people. Cp. Dan. 9.

The sight of the distraught, prostrate and elderly priest must have been a pathetic and compelling sight.

REFORMATION COMPLETED.

SHECHANIAH SUGGESTS. MAKE A COVENANT TO PUT AWAY. NUMB. VV1-5.

Ezra's action and prayer so impressed the people with the need for reform, that from their own number the request arose. The whole throng of the elderly priest, bowing, weeping, distraught with torn clothes - deeply affected the whole congregation. Gloom settled over it as it recognised the sin committed.

1 Jahweh has Himself deeply moved by the attitude of Ezra, he makes the suggestion that was ultimately acted upon. He makes confession in the name of the nation, not acknowledging himself culpable except perhaps in condoning the sin - for he is not listed among those who committed these marriages.

2 Answered his prayer. He was not personally addressed.

EZRA'S PRAYER - Perhaps there is no more compelling prayer in all Scripture than this. Ezra's actions and words so moved the people that they were induced to renounce the closest of all relationships because it was opposed to the will of Yahweh. Only the greatest preparation on the part of this Presiding Brother - only the greatest communion of mind between him and his God could produce this result.

EZRA ADDRESSES THE PEOPLE 9-11

It was in December, the coldest, wettest time of the year. The bleak, gloomy conditions matched the depressed feelings of the people. Ezra stood up to address the shivering, fearful multitude 15 The broadspace. They were gathered in the large court of the Temple.

16 Rā'ad - To shudder. The depressing conditions and circumstances both helped to induce this. There was nothing to alleviate them.

17 Nokree - foreign. See Note 4 on 9. They were foreign in every sense. Ezra 9:1-2. If they had embraced wholeheartedly the hope of Israel they would doubtless have been accepted as Ruth, but they refused and evidently still referred so. That Hope was the only Course. Otherwise Rahab would have constituted a precedence

THEY ACCEPT THE TERMS 12

12 It imposed hardship and sacrifice on them, but they recognised their sin and submitted. The history of Israel revealed that to do otherwise would be to court danger. Cp Jud. 3:1-6. Therefore it was a kindness to deliver the nation from the threat though painful for the individuals concerned.

15 O LORD God of Israel, [g] thou art righteous: for we remain yet [f] escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee [i] in our trespasses: for we cannot [k] stand before thee because of this.

1 Shechaniah encourageth Ezra to reform the strange marriages. 6 Ezra assembleth the people. 9 At the exhortation of Ezra they repent, and promise amendment. 18 The names of those who had married strange wives.

NOW [m] when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and [n] casting himself down [o] before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people [p] wept very sore.

2 And Shechaniah the son of [p] Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have [q] trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God [s] to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that [t] tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done [x] according to the law.

4 Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: [y] be of good courage, and do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, [z] to swear that they should do according to this word. And they sware.

6 ¶ Then Ezra rose up [b] from before the house of God, and went into the [d] chamber of [e] Johanan the son of [e] Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did [h] eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned [l] because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And [l] they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be [3] forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 ¶ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, [r] trembling because of this matter, and for [4] the great rain.

10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and [5] have taken strange wives, to increase the trespass of Israel.

11 Now therefore [u] make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and [w] separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do.

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work

EZRA'S ACTION - Put an end to the scandal for the time being. The decision which Ezra enforced so inexorably must have borne hardly on many of the wives and children who thus suffered through the guilt of their husbands and fathers. But the suffering involved would probably not have been very great. In the East there has always prevailed a large facility of divorce, and the discarded wife, unless where her own misconduct has provoked the repudiation, is received back into her family without incurring reproach or disgrace. No slur rests on her children. She has a right to reclaim her dowry. But Ezra would scarcely have felt himself bound to consider consequences. He had a plain duty to perform and was determined to enforce the law at whatever cost. He regarded upon these marriages as unreal, as no better than ordinary illicit connections. For the evils which flow from such

THE OPPOSITION Cp V. 15.

There were some who opposed the reform, and the influence of these may have been responsible for the further decline in this matter which Nehemiah noted. Neh. 13:13-27. This probably took place during the absence of Ezra.

EZRA'S ABSENCE. - He had been 5 mths in land, and probably at the conclusion of the time returned, like Nehemiah, to present the report that the Commission given him required Ch. 7:14. Thus 8 years' break occurs between the two books - which in Hebrew are but one. Cp p. 619

EZRA: THE BOOK OF RESTORATION

- Ezra was a descendant of Hilkiah, High Priest in the reign of Judah, who found a copy of the law 2Ch.34:14. He gave himself to the study of the Word of God Ezra 7:10 becoming its great expositor. Through his ministry, the Word of Yahweh was elevated as of first consideration in the nation. It wrought wonders in the life of the nation, so that its authority became respected as never before.
- Originally Ezra and Nehemiah were one book, but since 1448 Hebrew Bibles have the twofold arrangement of the English Bible.
- The Scriptures were restored to their proper status so that the theme or key phrase of the book is "the word of Yahweh" Ezra 1:1. with its emphasis on the law 3:2. Commandments of the God of Israel. 6:14. Book of Moses 6:18 Law of Yahweh 7:10 Law of Moses 7:6 Law of thy God 7:14 Words of the God of Israel 9:4. Commandments of God 10:3-5

NEHEMIAH : THE BOOK OF RECONSTRUCTION

It begins and ends with prayer
It reveals that the secret of success in the work of God is found in prayer Ch. 1:4, preparation Ch. 2:12-16, performance Ch. 4:6, perseverance Ch. 4:15-23.
The last year indicated in Ezra is the 7th of Artaxerxes Ezra 8:33 which would make the first month of Ezra 10: 17 his 8th year; thus there is a break of about 12 years to 20th Artaxerxes between Ezra and Nehemiah Neh. 1:1 (See Chronology p. 639).
On the basis that Darius, Artaxerxes and Ahasuerus were different titles of the same monarch (See Notes pp. 638, 642, 648) the events recorded in the Book of Esther took place at this time - from the 3rd Est. 1:1-5, 6th Est. 2:8-16, 7th Est. 2:17-18 & 12th years of his reign Est. 3:7. The uprisings against the Jews would have formed the basis for Nehemiah's anxious enquiry Neh. 1:2 and the state of the city walls Neh. 1:3. Gp Ezra 8:8-12; 9:16.

1 Nehemiah, understanding by Hanani the misery of Jerusalem, mourneth, fasteth, and prayeth. 5 His prayer.

THE words of [c] Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in [f] the twentieth year, as I was in [g] Shushan [h] the palace,
2 That [i] Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.
3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also [o] is broken down, and [p] the gates thereof are burned with fire.
4 ¶ And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,
5 And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:
6 Let [s] thine ear now be attentive, and [t] thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and [u] confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: [v] both I and my father's house have sinned.
7 We have [w] dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, [x] which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.
8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, [y] If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:
9 [z] But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; [a] though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them [b] unto the place that I have chosen to set my name there.
10 [c] Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.
11 O Lord, I beseech thee, [d] let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, [e] who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's [f] cupbearer.

YAHWEH CREATES THE OPPORTUNITY — NEHEMIAH SEIZES IT.

REQUEST OF THE KING Vv 1-8

After a 4 months wait of preparation Ch. 1:1, 4.

He probably alternated with other Cup bearers and now appeared on duty for the first time after receiving the sad news of Jerusalem.

It was a capital offence to appear sad in the King's presence. Cp Est. 4:2.

The King's tone to Nehemiah perhaps suggested that he considered him hiding some sort of treachery.

Thus Nehemiah's ancestors came from Jerusalem.

Waiting till night fell, he mounted an ass or mule and accompanied by a few followers on foot, he descended into the Vale of Hinnom, and threaded his way in and out among the gigantic masses of ruin and rubbish. Each point he reaches is recorded by him as with that thrill inspired by the sight of objects long expected, and afterwards long remembered. — the Spring of the Dragon; the gate outside of which lay the piles of the sweepings and off-scourings of the streets; the masses of fallen masonry, extending as it would seem all along the western and northern side; the blackened gaps where the gates had been destroyed by fire; till at last by the royal reservoir the accumulations became so impassable that the animal on which he rode refused to proceed; then he turned in the dead of night along the deep shade of the Kedron watercourse looking up at the eastern wall, less ruinous than the rest, and so back once more by the gate that opened on the ravine of Hinnom. In silence and deep darkness the Pechah returned to his house within the city with a full understanding of the desolation and the extent of work of reconstruction entailed.

AND it came to pass in the month [d] Nisan, in [e] the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and [f] I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

2 Wherefore the king said unto me, [g] Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,

3 And said unto the king, [p] Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when [q] the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and [r] the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to [s] the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (the [t] queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a [u] time.

7 Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to [x] governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's [y] forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the [z] palace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for [a] the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, [b] according to the good hand of my God upon me.

Sig. Beginning, Opening. — Abib or April.

Ezra 8. 31 – V. 18.

9 ¶ Then I came to the [c] governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 When [e] Sanballat the [h] Horonite, and [i] Tobiah the servant, the [k] Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man [m] to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 [o] So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12 ¶ And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night by the [l] gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the [n] dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were [x] broken down, and [y] the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the [z] gate of the fountain, and to the [a] king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the [b] brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the [l] gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the [d] rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the [d] rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 ¶ Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

19 But when [e] Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?

20 Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

NEHEMIAH ARRIVES AT JERUSALEM. Vv 9-11

The appearance of Nehemiah with an armed escort and presenting all the credentials of Persian power was viewed with sullen resentment by the enemies of the Jews.

9 Cf. Ezra 8:22. By the King's command these were sent. It was not wise for Nehemiah to reject them. Moreover — in view of the unsettled conditions — this evidence of Persian favor was helpful to Nehemiah's cause.

10 Lockyer: "The Enemy is Secret." "The branch of Hollow-ness." If he were of Horonaim (Isa. 15:5) he would more likely be called a Moabite. He was evidently influential for Tobiah was his servant. Perhaps Governor of Samaria.

13 Yahweh is Good. Evidently this Ammonite had accepted the Samaritan principles and incorporated the Divine name.

12 Adam i.e. anybody.

15 For 3 days nothing was done as Nehemiah reviewed the situation and doubtless interviewed the elders of Israel.

SANBALLAT - The moon god-Sin, has given life - Ung.

The hidden branch a, others - the secret enemy. Horonite - Cave dweller. Ch.2:10. Nehemiah's most inveterate opponent. According to Josephus, he was satrap of Samaria Ant. 11:7. 2. and probably of Beth-Horon in Samaria Cp. Ch.4:1-2. He opposed the restoration of Jerusalem with bitter hostility, and in this were joined by his associates Tobiah the Ammonite Ch.2:10, and Geshem the Arabian 2:19; 4:7.

His anti-Semitic leaning were indicated by his anger at the news that a man had appeared on the scene to seek the welfare of the children of Israel 2:10 and he conspired to defeat the purpose of Nehemiah.

First he used the the weapon of scorn, at the same time accusing Nehemiah of insurrection Ch. 2:19, but resisted by Nehemiah Ch.2:20 who went ahead with the work Ch.3, Sanballat next used the weapon of ridicule Ch.4:1-3. This was answered by prayer and labour Ch.4:4-6. Sanballat then used the threat of force Ch.4:7-8 but that was countered by prayer and vigilance 4:9. A plan of attack Ch.4:11 was answered by an organised defence Ch.4:13-15, and such an example of dedicated work that the wall was rapidly built.

Thoroughly defeated and outmanoeuvred, Sanballat tried to discredit Nehemiah by hypocritical cunning. He sought a conference with Nehemiah, planning to do him mischief Ch.6:1-2, but Nehemiah refused to become involved 4:3. Next he circulated an open letter through the land to discredit him Ch.6:5-7 but it was answered by a simple rebuttal on the part of Nehemiah and an appeal by him to God Ch.6:8-9.

Foiled in these attempts, Sanballat bribed some of Nehemiah's pretended friends to compromise him 6:9-10, but once again, the astute Nehemiah saw through their scheming and defeated it 11-14, although gullible men of Judah continued to press the claims of Tobiah and urge that Nehemiah consider his case more favorably. Vs. 17-19.

Manasseh, son of Eliashib the high priest married the daughter of Sanballat, and through him polluted the divine worship. But Nehemiah drove him from the precincts of the Temple 13:28. Josephus claims that he supervised the building of a rival worship on Mt. Gerizim and so established the order of the Samaritans. So the rivalry of the two men continued on after their deaths.

TOBIAH: THE SLAVE - Yah is Good

Tobiah was an Ammonitish servant Ch.2:10,19 probably of Sanballat who promoted him. He joined himself with Sanballat in an attempt to defeat the work of Nehemiah.

Though a slave and an Ammonite, Tobiah found means to ally himself with a priestly family, & his son Johanan married the daughter of Meshullam, the son of Berechiah, while he, himself was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah 6:18 & these family relations created for him a strong faction among the Jews.

It was probably this union that lead this Ammonite to assume the name Tobiah, honoring the God of Israel — Jehovah is good.

As the tool of Sanballat he opposed the building of the wall of Jerusalem by Nehemiah - tried intimidation, suggesting that Nehemiah was a rebel against the King of Persia. But Nehemiah, entrenched in his own authority warned Tobiah and Sanballat that they had no authority in Jerusalem 2:19,20.

He joined with Sanballat in heaping ridicule upon the efforts of Nehemiah 4:3, in establishing a league with the surrounding nations against the Jews 4:7, in attempting to arrange a conference with Nehemiah with the intention of harming him 6:2.

When defeated on all points of strategy, he attempted to undermine the authority of Nehemiah by carrying on a secret correspondence with Jewish leaders hostile to Nehemiah 6:17-19. During Nehemiah's absence Eliashib, the high priest, installed Tobiah in one of the buildings attached to the Temple, but from this honoured position he was ejected by Nehemiah on his return. 13:4-9.

NEHEMIAH'S APPEAL

Ch.2:17-18.

- First he presented the problem: the people distressed, the city defenceless, deserted of many (Cf. Ch.11), the gates burned - mere blackened, gaping holes in walls.
- Next: an appeal. Let us recognise and repair the reproach.
- Thirdly: encouragement. Practical evidence that if was according to the will of God that they should engage in the work.
- Finally: the time propitious. He revealed to them the ways of Providence working on their behalf as exhibited by the words & actions of the King.

GESHEM THE ARABIAN 2:19.

His name signifies "to shower violently (Str) & therefore to beat down. He was allied to Sanballat & Tobiah against the Jews 2:19. 6:1,6. but apparently in a subordinate position, never really taking the initiative, but rather echoing & supporting the threats of the other two. The Ammonites, Arabians & Ashdodites with the Samaritans were opposed to the Jews Ch.4:7, and Geshem was leader of the Arabians. He was used as a tool by Sanballat to support the lies he circulated regarding Nehemiah 6:6. His name is given as "Gashmu. Geshem is the Hebraised form of Gashmu" with the dropping of the nominative ending "u" and Gashm resolving into Geshem" - Ung.

THE GOVERNORS.

The Persian Empire was divided into number of satrapies. "The satrap had absolute civil authority & considerable military power. Persian or not, he might grow independent & greedy. Darius was quite aware of this & set up controls to prevent it. Next to each satrap was the ~~military~~ local army commander in chief, directly responsible to the King. The local tax-collector was also the King's man, making sure that all forms of tribute made its return before reaching the ~~king~~ royal treasury. A secretary at the satrap's elbow was liaison to the King. At any time the king's eye might glower down on them. This eye - a high official or perhaps a brother or son of Darius - toured the empire continuously, with his own army if necessary, dropping in for unannounced checkups & putting the fear of the Wise Lord into the satraps - The Medes and Persians - Robert Collins.

According to Josephus, Sanballat was satrap to Samaria.

Eliashib - Cont.

He labored at the north eastern section of the wall 3:1 adjoining the Temple, and, most likely, his own mansion 3:20-21, but also was allied, probably through marriage in some way, with Tobiah, the Ammonite 13:4 for whom he ~~was~~ prepared an anteroom in the Temple, a desecration that excited the indignation of Nehemiah 13:4,7. who vigorously ejected the Ammonite. Eliashib's grandson was son-in-law to Sanballat 13:28, so that it is obvious that he was prepared to compromise the Truth for personal advantage.

Eliashib is referred to in Ezra 10:6 as the father of Johanan, with whom Ezra consulted concerning the transgression of the people in taking Gentile wives. Cp Neh. 12:10,22.

See p. 663.

ELIASHIB: THE HIGH PRIEST See p. 663.

He was energetic in material duties Ch. 3:1) but negligent in spiritual requirements. He saw the need of building the city wall, but not the need of excluding its enemies.

"COME, AND LET US BUILD UP THE WALLS OF JERUSALEM THAT WE BE NO MORE A REPROACH"

It was a reproach that after so long a time the city should reveal such evidences of neglect. It was the subject of ridicule to the world — and it reflected upon Yahweh. Slipshod methods adopted ecclesially today can bring a like reproach on us.

Nehemiah generated enthusiasm for the work. He was a born leader. He carefully surveyed the work required Vv 12-16 quietly planned his methods V. 16 and then secured adequate co-operation. Vv 17-18.

probably on the morrow he called together a conference of those responsible and laying before them what was required disclosed to them the extent of the power conferred on him by the King V. 18 ✓ CHARGES-parched, desolate. 26 ✓ Ch. 1:3. 27 His enthusiasm was contagious and found instant reaction in them. All indecision and ineptitude was at an end, and they were keen to commence.

THE ADVERSARIES MOCK. Vv 19-20 Ch 4:1-4

It soon became known what was intended. Sanballat first protested then had resort to indirect. Patiently and quietly Nehemiah set about his task. 28 Sig. Firm, Strong (Lockyer) See opp. p. 638. 29 Often the most difficult of opposition. 30 This was the reply of Zerubbabel to the Samaritans. Apparently Sanballat first tried to intimidate Nehemiah by accusing him of rebellion. When that failed and he heard of the royal commission he hypocritically offered help to be firmly rejected. Nehemiah knew the offer was not genuine.

— CHAPTER 3.

NEHEMIAH ORGANISES THE LABORERS.

All are pressed into the work: Priests, Levites, Nobles, Commoners. It levels them all in one great act of service. The commoners of Tekoa are shown to be more noble than its princes. V.S. Ch 4:6 The work was parcelled out among 44 working parties.

THE MALCONTENTS OF SAMARIA Cp Neh 2:10,19-20. The city was held by a Persian garrison called "the army of Samaria" Neh.4:2. Its governor, doubtless deriving his authority from the satrap of Syria, was Sanballat. He position was one of dignity and influence. He was on terms of close alliance with an Ammonite chief Tobiah, and an Arab sheikh Geshem who commanded a band of those persistent marauders who seemed to be willing at any time to put their swords at the disposal of Sanballat. Sanballat was allied in marriage to Eliashib, high priest elect: his daughter Nicaso being wedded to Manasseh, son of Joiada and grandson of Eliashib Jos Ant. 11:7. Neh 13:4. Tobiah also was allied to Eliashib Neh 13:4. Sanballat was thus in a position which of itself rendered him formidable, and being of a reckless and violent temper might be expected to cause serious trouble. He had from the first disliked Nehemiah's

Cp Ch.2:19

BUT it came to pass, [a] that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they [b] fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which are burned?

3 Now [c] Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if [d] a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall. (Rvmg. Jackal)

4 [e] Hear, O our God; for we are [f] despised: and [g] turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity: See Note Ezra 6:16

5 And [h] cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work.

7 ¶ But it came to pass, that when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the [m] Arabians, and the [n] Ammonites, and the [o] Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem [6] were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth, r Cp p. 655

8 And [q] conspired all of them together to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and [7] to hinder it. - overthrow the wall by error or causing error

9 Nevertheless we made our prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. See Keth. below.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass, that when the Jews which dwelt by [b] them came, they said unto us [c] ten times, [3] From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you.

13 ¶ Therefore set I [4] in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, [p] Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is [h] great and terrible, and [i] fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

15 And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had [j] brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the [p] spears, the shields, and the bows, and the [p] habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. See below

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded [5] by his side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

21 So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from [b]the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, [c]saving that every one put them off for washing.

CHAPTER 5.

1 The Jews complain of their debt, mortgage, and bondage. 6 Nehemiah rebuketh the usurers, who make a covenant of restitution. 14 He forbeareth his own allowance, and keepeth hospitality.

AND there was a great [d]cry of the people and of their wives against their [h]brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's [e]tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now [f]our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our [g]sons and our [r]daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 ¶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.

7 Then [2]I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, [i]Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

8 And I said unto them, We after our ability have [d]redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

9 Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk [i]in the fear of our God [f]because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

10 I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.

11 Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, [k]also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.

12 Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and [l]took an oath of them, [k]that they should do according to this promise.

13 Also I shook my [m]lap, and said, So God [n]shake out every man from his house, and from his [p]labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and [t]emptied. And all the congregation said, [s]Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.

NEHEMIAH: CHAMPION OF THE POOR. TROUBLE WITHIN. COMPLAINT OF THE POOR JEWS vv1-5.

Troubles within as well as without. 2 Cor. 7:5.
Their numerous families was a benefit to the State but imposed a heavy burden to maintain them. This was accentuated as their time was given to building. Instead of helping them the rich nobles laid them under heavy burdens, for they were obliged to run into debt.
They would have these if they could not raise the monthly interest, and their absence building the wall added them in a position of great difficulty. They would have to leave off to provide for this interest.
They had become their slaves. Exod. 21:7. - the nobler having this aspect of the law but overlooking that which required release in the Sabbatical year Exod. 21:2.
Through the additional sacrifice of the wall. Appealing to the rich they would only help on these hard terms.

They had refused to lend except on security. The borrower was required to mortgage his house, land or both Neh. 5:3 or offer as security his person, or that of his son or daughter v5. Whilst the law permitted this in measure (it allowed a man to pledge the person of a daughter Exod. 16:7 but made no such provision for a son) it required that such go free, in the Sabbatical year Exod. 21:2. Deut. 15:12. and required that the creditor, at the time of release, should "furnish the man liberally" out of his own

Some had been sold into the hands of the heathen Neh. 5:8. The population of the land was seriously diminished by this drain upon it, and that of Jerusalem was especially scanty Neh. 7:4. Failure of crops. Neh 5:3. heavy tribute v4. oppressive government. v15 had accentuated the difficulties. The law concerning Usury Exod. 22:25. Lev. 25:36. the Release of the Jubilee Lev. 25:24-31. had become a dead letter. The building of the wall accented the problem. For these poor slaves - as they virtually were - still had to provide the monthly interest whilst being denied the opportunity to provide it - they being engaged in building. The oppressed rose against their oppressors and found a champion in Nehemiah.

9 Nehemiah's action gave an example of what should be done. Already some sold unto heathen had been redeemed or repurchased (Heb. Kâsâh) and it was incongruous that this should be done only for them to fall into the hands of their brethren.

10 The inconsistency of the Jews caused the What is the use of building the wall if God was not on their side.

These are extracts from his diary.

Cp Paul's example. 1 Cor. 9:15, 18. 2 Thess. 2:8-9. Acts 20:33-34

He never loved the people.

14 ¶ Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their [a] governor in the land of Judah, from the [b] twentieth year even unto the [c] two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not [f] eaten the bread of the [a] governor.

NOW it came to pass, when (1) Sanballat, and (2) Tobiah, and (3) Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;)

Nehemiah's letter from the King Ch 2:7-8 did not defer Sanballat calling up the army, and with Tobiah, his Ammonite hanger-on, entering into a league with the Philistines, Ammonites, and Arabians Vv 7-8 to defeat the project. Though subject to Persian control they could do this. The satrap under Persia "had absolute civil authority and considerable military power." As the priests and Levites formed nearly half the population of Jerusalem Neh. 11:6-19. they were pressed into the work of guarding the city.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Nehemiah committeth the charge of Jerusalem to Hanani and Hananiah. 5 A register of the genealogy of them which came at the first out of Babylon, 9 of the people, 39 of the priests, 43 of the Levites, 46 of the Nethinims, 57 of Solomon's servants, 63 and of the priests which could not find their pedigree. 70 Their oblations.

NOW it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had [b] set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed, 1A

2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and [d] Hananiah the ruler of [e] the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was [f] a faithful man, and [g] feared God above many.

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the city was [i] large and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

5 ¶ And my God put into mine heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up [m] at the first, and found written therein,

6 [n] These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city;

Nehemiah now took up the problem of scant population. He decides on a census as the first step. V.5. and as a basis of comparison looks up the genealogical record of those who came with Zerubbabel.

7 This was "a work of God." It was important to determine who were the true seed of Israel. See Notes. 13 Well chosen for such an act of treachery as to take Nehemiah off his guard.
14 This was a wrong appeal to a man of courage and instantly put Nehemiah on his guard. He detected the treachery V.11. It would be desecration to enter the Temple for such a purpose.
NEHEMIAH'S REPLY: "SHOULD SUCH A MAN AS I FLEE!" 11-14.

THE WALL IS FINISHED 15-16.

There was opposition from this class from the beginning Neh. 3:5. It doubtless increased as they saw their lucrative source of income taken from them Neh. 5.
Thus there could be no relaxing. The adversaries did not cease though the work was completed. His treachery resulted in clear alliance later. Cp Neh. 13:

His actions were God-governed because he constantly thought upon God. "If he proposed good it was because God "put it in his heart" 7:5, 2:12. If he did good, it was because "the good hand of the Lord was upon him" 2:18. If he executed good, it was because he correctly prayed God "to remember him for good" 5:19, 13:31. BUILDING THE WALLS. Ch. 3.

The work united the nation, reducing all classes to one common level. Thus men of Jerusalem worked side by side with men of Tekoa, Gibeon & Zanoah. Priests v.1, Levites v.17, Commoners v.5 Tradesmen v.8, rulers v.9, women v.12, merchants v.32. Many labored at spots where they had a particular interest. Thus priests labored at the Sheep Gate close to the Temple v.1, others prepared the wall at points where it protected their dwellings. vv.10, 23, 24, 28, the Nethinim repaired by the Water Gate where they resided v.26. In the work of the Truth, the home is the starting place of all. The work demanded careful organisation, general cooperation, and a general challenge to all, whatever class or status to work together for the common interest.

Building Time Ch. 6:15.

In 52 days it was finished. But much of the work was the "repairing" of walls already standing. The word CHAZAQ signifies to fasten upon, hence to strengthen, repair. Moreover archaeologists believe that the length of the wall was nowhere near as at present. The adversaries ridiculed that which was built. Ch. 4:3.

EZRA'S RETURN See Note P 648 Nehemiah's religious reform was effected in conjunction with a colleague. If had returned, Nehemiah could possibly have made application to Artaxerxes that he be sent to assist him in the important work that now opened up. Certainly he could have got no better assistant. Nehemiah was a layman and could not command the respect of either the priests or the nation in religious matters that a priest would receive. Eliashib was deeply involved with the enemies of Nehemiah Neh 13:4,28 and not likely to give him much support. Ezra was the most distinguished and the most elderly priest of the day, being a member of the high priestly family Ezra 7:1-5, high in the favor and confidence of the Persian King, eminent above all others for his learning Vv 6,10 and below.

Chapter should begin here, as per LXX. (a) Ezra 3:1.

Public reading & instruction of Law required in Sabbatical years. Deut 31:10

1 The religious manner of reading and hearing the law. 9 They comfort the people. 13 The forwardness of them to hear and be instructed. 16 They keep the feast of tabernacles.

AND all the people [d] gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before the [f] water gate; and they spake unto Ezra [g] the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. (QÂHAL)

2 And Ezra the priest brought [i] the law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon (m) the first day of the seventh month.

3 And [l] he read therein before the street that was before the [f] water gate (c) from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. (some 6 hours)

4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a (e) pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood [n] Mattithiah, and Shema, and [o] Anaiah, and [p] Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and [q] Malchiah, and [r] Hashum, and Hashbadana, [s] Zechariah, and [t] Meshullam. See Notes - opp.

5 And Ezra opened the book in the [u] sight of all the people; (for [v] he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: (to pray)

6 And Ezra [x] blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, [a] Amen, Amen, with (f) lifting up their hands: and they [c] bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground. 11 See opp.

7 Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, [b] caused the people to understand the law: and the people [c] stood in their place.

8 So they read in the book in the law [d] distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading. - During pauses in reading.

9 ¶ And Nehemiah, which is (g) the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites [h] that taught the people, said unto all the people, [k] This day is holy unto the LORD your God; (mourn not, nor weep. For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. A year of Release. See below.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD is your strength.

11 So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved. (Rejoice)

12 And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to [r] send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had [s] understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the second day [x] were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law. - Ezra conducted study

EZRA'S RETURN (cont.) possessed of a personal influence that was remarkable. Ezra 10:1-16. His support would permit Nehemiah to effect the reforms he desired to implement. He probably returned just prior to the 7th month when the people were commanded to gather together.

The whole programme was doubtless carefully prepared in its details. The leading part was assigned to Ezra. His age, his priestly character, his known learning as well as his prestige enabled him to speak on religious matters in a way impossible to Nehemiah. His mastery of the law enabled him to read and expound it, and so enforce it on men's consciences as no living person could have done. The weight of his authority with priests and Levites more than counterbalanced any opposition that Eliashib might have attempted whilst his reappearance in a public capacity after an absence of 12 years would lend the charm of surprise and novelty to the proceedings which attracted general attention.

• This was evidently a sabbatical Year of Release. Cp v. 18 with Deut 31:10. So that sadness was out of place.

11 Following this time of prayer the reading commenced. V3. Scattered throughout the crowd were 11 Levites who assisted whose task appears to have been to repeat and explain the words read by Ezra where they could not reach. Cp V 8 Thus any questions were answered quietly and on the spot by these Levites moving among the audience.

R.V. Margin - "with an interpretation." Heb "mephorash" equivalent to "mephoarash" - the word used in Persia to denote procedure when an official read Aramaic document in the vernacular of the province. An indication that some who had returned could not understand Hebrew correctly. "Mephorash" from "parash" - to expand. They analysed, dilated and expounded at length showing the import of every word.

Sekom sechel - put weight to it. Showed its value and utility by personal application.

Gave them a mental taste and perception of these matters so they were "instructed" in the law" Rom 2:18 This was on all the morning V 3. The reason was profound V 9 A taste for spiritual things was engendered bringing the people together on the morrow. V 13

THE PEOPLE MOURN BUT WERE INSTRUCTED TO REJOICE 9-12

15 The import of the Word not overwhelming resulting in great emotional reaction. This was inconsonant in view of the opening year and the prospects of the future. The exhortation of Ezra and Nehemiah was to forget the past and work for the future. Phil 3:13.

16 Mashmân = a rich dish. A different word to Lev 7:23

17 In your rejoicing remember the poor. Deut 26:11-13. Ps 41:1 Isa 58:7.

18 His strength is adequate for every need. Acts 2:42-47. 2 Cor 12:9 Phil 4:13

19 Marrying through the crisis they stilled their emotional grief pointing to the joy of the occasion. See below p 661

20 Understanding was the basis of both joy and sorrow.

SECOND DAY OF INSTRUCTION Vv 13-15.

21 This was apparently a more select gathering of elders to ascertain what practical applications of the law should be implemented.

22 Lev. 23:34-43. Deut 16:13-15 etc.

Their taste of the good things of Divine Instruction had induced in them a desire for more. Ps 119:97

THE SERVICE Probably carefully designed by Ezra was intended to bring home to the people a deep sense of responsibility; an acknowledgment of what was required an an appreciation of their own history which revealed the cause of failure in the past. THE PRAYER. "The high honor due to "the Name" of God is taught by the sacred writers with one uniform voice from Moses. Exod. 20:7 to the last surviving Apostle Rev. 15:4." (G. Rawlinson).

23 Lev. 23:34. Deut. 16:16 23A The Scriptures do not record that such a specific proclamation should be made, but merely the fact of the impending feast should be made known. Lev. 23:4. Doubtless, that is what is here meant, & this verse records the way it was done. For significance of branches used see Notes. Lev. 23.

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES KEPT. Vv 16-18

It celebrated the goodness of Yahweh in both Deliverance and provision of harvests and was appropriate at this time. It had been celebrated by Zerubbabel Ezra 3:4 and Solomon 2 Chron 8:13 and doubtless on other occasions, but not in the manner here shown.

23 A confession of dwell in [a] booths in the feast of the seventh month:

16 ¶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon [d] the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in [e] the street of the water gate, and in the street of the [f] gate of Ephraim. Bottom p. 652.
17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day [g] had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very [h] great gladness.

NOW in the twenty and fourth day of [k] this month the children of Israel were assembled with [l] fasting, and with [m] sackclothes, and [n] earth upon them.
2 And [o] the seed of Israel separated themselves from all [p] strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers.
3 And they [q] stood up in their place, and [r] read in the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

6 [j] Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; [k] thou hast made heaven, [l] the heaven of heavens, with [m] all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou [n] preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.
7 Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose [o] Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of [p] Abraham;
8 And foundest his heart [q] faithful before thee, and madest a [r] covenant with him to give the land [s] of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and [t] hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:
9 And [u] didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest [v] their cry by the Red sea;
10 And [w] shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they [x] dealt proudly against them. So didst thou [y] get thee a name, as it is this day.

COMMUNAL PRAYER. Vv 4-37 GOD'S MAJESTY & POWER. 5-6

This prayer is a recapitulation of Israel's history demonstrating the goodness of Yahweh, the folly of the nation, and the need to obey His precepts. It was designed to lead to the signing of the Covenant.

8 Some (with LXX) read Sons of Chenani. See opp. Deut.
9 They were prostrate confessing their sin.
10 Every thing demonstrates this, even the reverses Israel had suffered during its long history.
11 The Covenant Name guaranteeing the continuance of the nation.
12 Creator—and therefore capable of fulfilling what the Covenant Name promises.
13 Vetitah mechayyeh eth cullam. thou gavest life to them all. They have vitality and prosper under Thy hand.

15 Thus the principle of separation lay the very foundation of the Nation Josh. 24:2-3.

NEHEMIAH 9.

Ps 143:10

11 And [a] thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into [b] the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover thou [c] leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 [d] Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them [1] right judgments, and [e] true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy [m] holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And [g] gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and [f] broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should [e] go in to possess the land [3] which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers [a] dealt proudly, and [v] hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

17 And refused to obey, neither [a] were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but [v] hardened their necks, and in their rebellion [c] appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art [c] a God ready to pardon, [d] gracious and merciful, [n] slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

PINE BRANCHES. CH 8:15.

ETS SHEMEN — Shemen, = fat, rich, oil, to shine occurs 1 Kg 6:23, 31-33 (olive) Is 41:19. (oil tree). The RV reads. Neh. 8:15 wild olive + in margin Is 41:19 "oleaster." It evidently indicates some tree rich in oleaginous or resinous matter, the presence of which is a sign of fertility. Some fat-wood tree, for example any of the pines. It grows in the mountains, has branches suitable for booths and produces wood of the size + hardness suitable to furnish material for a carved image 10 cubits high. 1 Kings 6:23.

THY MANIFOLD MERCIES

This characteristic of Yahweh is constantly asserted. Vv. 19, 27, 28, 31. RACHAM is the foremost characteristic of Yahweh. It signifies compassion, and by extension the womb. Hence it relates to the feminine quality of feeling for one's offspring. Yahweh combines qualities of both male + female as did Adam before separation.

This cloud assumed three positions: 1 As a cloud in the form of a pillar (cp Bethel) it lead the way. 2 As a pillar of fire by night it gave light and was a rallying point for the whole camp. 3 As an extended cloud it hovered over them as a covering refreshing them with its dews and providing shelter from the heat.

them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to [c] thy manifold mercies thou gavest them (4) saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

SUMMARY OF ISRAEL'S HISTORY: SINNING BRINGS SUFFERING - SUPPLICATION BRINGS SALVATION 28-30

28 But after they had rest, [d] they did evil again before thee: therefore leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and (5) many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they [k] dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, [m] which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and (6) withdrew the shoulder, and [n] hardened their neck, and would not hear. (2 Kgs 17:13. 2 Chr. 36:15-16)

30 Yet many years didst thou (7) forbear them, and [o] testifiedst against them by thy spirit [5] (8) in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: [r] therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands.

31 Nevertheless for [s] thy great mercies' sake [t] thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a [u] gracious and [x] merciful God.

32 Now therefore, our God, the [y] great, the mighty, and the terrible God, (9) who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the [z] trouble seem little before thee, [a] that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, [9] since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.

33 Howbeit [c] thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but [b] we have done wickedly:

34 Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them.

35 For they [f] have not served thee in their kingdom, and in [g] thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and [g] fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

36 Behold, [i] we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it:

37 And [l] it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

38 And because of all this [p] we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, [6] seal unto it.

ELIASHIB (Cont.) Tobiah, Nehemiah's 662a old antagonist (Neh. 4:7, 8. 6:1, 12, 17-19) Cp Neh 13:4-9. Other chambers (Neh 13:9) were likewise desecrated. Eliashib likewise permitted the Sabbath to be desecrated Neh 13:15-16. "The quiet of the sabbath was disturbed, its rest destroyed, its sanctity profaned, by the chaffering of greedy traders and excited buyers in the streets and squares, the greater part of the former being foreigners, whose outlandish ways and strange speech would draw particular attention. One of the distinguishing features of Jewish life was thus obliterated, and for the time being lost."

The presence of these foreigners in such intimate association with Jerusalem threatened to bring it under the influence of idolatry (Cp Nehemiah's observation Neh 6:16. with that of Malachi Mal. 3:5)

Why did Eliashib permit all this? He was a worker Neh. 3:1. but one probably led away by spurious liberality, probably looking on God as father of all and viewing with aversion and distaste the exclusiveness and narrowness of Nehemiah and Ezra. He was tolerant in his viewpoint seeing a "larger, nobler and freer way" - which nearly brought the nation to ruin and was only prevented by the direct, decisive action of Nehemiah.

WHERE IS ELIASHIB? Neither Ezra nor Eliashib are mentioned as sealing the covenant. Ezra was presiding, and there supervised the transaction – but where is Eliashib, the high priest (Neh. 3:1)? He is not prominent at this time. It could have been that Nehemiah requested assistance of Ezra to counter the adverse influence of Eliashib. (See note on Ezra's return p. 659. The popularity and influence of Ezra were so great as to entirely overshadow that of the high priest, and the reformation was so foreign to his liking that perhaps he refrained from participation. Shortly after the reform, Nehemiah was recalled and perhaps Ezra also (for nothing is heard of him) and he doubtless would have prevented the decline that took place if he had been present). Eliashib permitted the marriage law to be relaxed. Before

THE WOOD OFFERING V.34.

The Gibeonites or Nethinim originally provided this Josh 9:21. But with the land under foreign domination and wood doubtless being scarce, some other provision was required to ensure that wood was available. So the lot was taken to determine the districts that would supply it. When the wood was brought, it was delivered to the Levites who saw that it was cut, prepared and stacked, and finally delivered to the priests when required. Gradually this delivering of the wood was done on one day, and became a great day called by Josephus: The Carrying Of the Wood. Jud. lib. 2. Ch. 17. Sect. 6.

3 This was additional to Exod. 30:11-16 and comprised a voluntary yearly offering to support the Divine service Cp. Neh 10:32.
3A This ultimately was altered to a half-shekel. Mt. 17:24-27.

Prob "wave offerings" and "peace offerings" Lev. 7:14, 15 "holy to the priest for Yahweh."
3D Probably the cleaning & internal maitenance.
3E The contribution of certain amount of wood at set seasons. Fuel had evidently become scarce - probably the land had been stripped by its invaders. Thus need was willingly shouldered by the people. Contrast Neh. 13:31

663 ELIASHIB (Cont). The people intermarried so that a strange jargon was soon heard in the streets as infantile tongues babbled half in Aramaic, "half in speech of Ashdod" Neh. 13:24 - their mothers speaking to them in one tongue, their fathers in another! This called forth the rebuke of Malachi Mal. 2:11, 14, 16.

As the chief support of the Reforming party were the priests and levites it was to the advantage of Eliashib's policy to diminish their influence. He seems to have connived at the non-payment of tithes and firstfruits Mal. 3:8, and so impoverished the sacerdotal order that they were compelled to leave Jerusalem and employ themselves in the cultivation of fields. Thus the Temple became "forsaken" Neh. 13:11 the choral services discontinued, the treasuries emptied, the once crowded courts deserted.

Eliashib seemed to connived at all this. The storehouses now empty he converted into dwellings one of which was given to p. 662.

38 And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house.

39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.

He shows outstanding moral and physical courage, taking his place with the common soldier and laborer. Such is unusual in a trained soldier; it is remarkable in Nehemiah, the royal favorite, the dainty courtier, the cupbearer.

He knew fear 2:2. but showed courage He was threatened 2:19. but refused to be intimidated.

He was liberal and generous ruling the province without exacting the revenue Ch. 5:14, 15. at heavy cost to himself V.17.

The sum result was a thorough reform Judaism was strengthened to meet and repel the challenges it had to face from then until the appearance of Messiah.

JADDUA V.11. "Jaddua went out from Jerusalem to Sapha to meet Alexander the Great B.C. 330 The fact must be accepted but not the chronology, which makes him 4448-330 = 158 years old. If the Chronology of the period of the Persian Empire from the 4th year of Cyrus B.C. 536, to the last year of Darius who was slain by Alexander the Great B.C. 330 is reduced from the 208 yrs of Ptolemy's Canon to the 123 years of Daniel's prophecy, Jaddua's age would be reduced by 208-123 = 82 years. This would make him 158-82 = 76 years of age when he went out to meet Alexander at Sapha. This is probably the true chronology of the period between the last recorded date in the O.T. history and the first reliable date in Greek history." — The Romance of Bible Chronology. H. Anstey. RECORD OF THE LEVITES VV 22-26.

What King this was is not recorded. Last Persian King Darius Codommanus. It could have been Darius II Nothus (Cp Append 21) who, according to Ptolemy, commenced to reign about 77 years after Nehemiah came to Jerusalem. Darius, however, is but a little.

Every attempt was made to restore the priesthood and Levites after the old order. Lack of numbers prevented this being done.

I some read Bani. as in 9:4, 8:7; 9:4-5; 10:13 instead of Ben.

Berkeley: "As for the Jews in the days of Eliashib (etc) ... a record was kept of the heads of fathers houses; also this was true for the priests during the reign of Darius the Persian." M text = "in the reign." Θ = Darius Hystaspis.

JOIAKIM. — Josephus claims that he became high priest on the death of Jeshua about the time Ezra came to Jerusalem. Ant. 11.5.1. and that Eliashib became H.P. on the death of Ezra 11.5.5. which he places before Nehemiah came to the city. He ignores Ezra's work with Nehemiah. Jeralim evidently a bridge between death Jeshua & arrival Nehemiah Eliashib = H.P.

NEHEMIAH'S RETURN. CH. 13. The circumstances almost suggest those of the parable of the nobleman Luke 19. He was recalled to the court of Persia and there sought authority to return V6. On his return he found his work undermined. Vigorously he set about punishing those responsible for this, and promoting those who had proved faithful V8 Nothing is mentioned of Ezra. Perhaps he had died in the meantime, as Josephus says "an old man." But this seems to be the period of Malachi. (See Note on Eliashib p 663). He denounces, with a vigor worthy of Nehemiah, the very sins here out mentioned: intermarriage with heathen wives and the repudiation of loving Jewish wives who bathed the Altar with tears Mal. 2:13, the absolute robbery of withholding tithes and offerings. 37 And at the [b]fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by [c]the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the [c]water gate eastward.

38 And [f]the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the [g]tower of the furnaces even unto the [h]broad wall;

39 And from above the [i]gate of Ephraim, and above the [m]old gate, and above the [o]fish gate, and the [q]tower of Hananeel, and [q]the tower of Meah, even unto the [q]sheep gate: and they stood still in the [r]prison gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests; Eliakim, [t]Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai, [x]Zechariah, and [v]Hananiah, with trumpets;

42 And [t]Maaseiah, and [s]Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and [b]Uzzi, and [b]Jehohanan, and [t]Malchijah, and Elam, and [c]Ezer. And the singers [7]sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: [e]for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

44 ¶ [h]And at that time were some appointed over the [i]chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions [9]of the law for the priests and Levites: [2]for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites [6]that waited.

45 And both the singers and the porters kept [10]the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, [11]according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.

46 For in the days of David and [l]Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel in the days of [l]Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, [n]every day his portion: and [p]they [4]sanctified holy things unto the Levites; and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: [b] for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes [c] king of Babylon came I unto the king, and [d] after certain days [e] obtained I leave of the king:

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that [f] Eliashib did for [g] Tobiah, [h] in preparing him [m] a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they [o] cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again [i] the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

10 ¶ And I perceived that [q] the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, were fled every one to [r] his field. Prov 28:21 CONTRAST CH 10:37

16 There dwelt men of [h] Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. Cp 11:1

17 Then [w] I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?

18 [p] Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem [6] began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.

7 See Mg. He was anxious to complete the work of reformation.

It did not take him long to size up the situation. With characteristic vigor he set about reforming it.

This constituted sabotage of the most flagrant kind.

The high priest set the example of complete apostasy which was followed by some in the nation.

Ps. 69:9.

Flushed with indignation at the indifference of Eliashib and the impertinence of Tobiah, Nehemiah did not waste time in explanations or arguments, but immediately went into drastic action, dramatically casting the furniture out, showing scant respect for the high priest or his Ammonite friend.

Once crowded with worshippers, it was now deserted through the impiety of Eliashib. The energetic Nehemiah sought to immediately correct this.

The set forms of worship were again organized - the centers set in their order, and worshippers flocked back.

Herodotus continues: "Such was the revenue which Darius derived from Asia, and a small part of Libya. Later in his reign the sum was increased by the tribute of the Islands and of the nations of Europe as far as Thessaly" (Book 3:96). Thucydides says: "The Ionians had attained great prosperity when Cyrus and the Persians having overthrown Croesus, and subdued the countries between them and the river Halys and the sea, made war against them and enslaved the other of the mainland. THE FINAL REFORM. VV28-31. The recalcitrant priest took refuge with his father-in-law and with his permission built a rival Temple on Mount Gerizim over which he presided as high priest (See Josephus). For some centuries this continued to be a thorn in the side of Judah, a refuge for traitors and renegades, a centre of hostility and antagonism, a constant source of trouble and difficulty. Manasseh had his revenge, but in doing so made Nehemiah's reform more permanent. His attitude showed how essential were the reforms instituted. The practical result was, that with Manasseh's withdrawal, annexation ceased. The reforms were established; the nearly freed nation grew up upon the foundations laid by Ezra and Neh.

ESTHER : THE INVISIBLE GOD RULES IN THE KINGDOM OF MEN

Cp. Dan. 4:17, 37; Isa. 54:17; 51:22-23; Rom 8:31; 2 Cor. 4:15. The Book of Esther reveals the Drama of Providence. The Name of God is not openly expressed, though His finger is apparent guiding events; we see the reality of the Divine presence though His person is hid from human eyes. (See Note Cp. p. 671). Thus the Key verse is Ch. 4:14. Ezra speaks of Restoration; Nehemiah speaks of Reconstruction; Esther speaks of Preservation.

V.1 • 127 Provinces. : Heb. MEDINAH. It does not correspond to the Persian satrapy, but is applied to every tract which had a governor. There were originally no more than 20 satrapies (Herod. 3:89-94) but there was a much larger number of governments. Judea was a medinah Ezra 2:1; Neh. 11:3 though only a portion of the satrapy of Syria.

It would not be convenient for all governors to leave their portions together. In like manner, the Truth has been revealed to God's chosen ones throughout the ages.

V.5 • The King's palace. Ecbatana was the summer residence of the kings, and Susa the winter. The palace at Susa has been excavated. It was commenced by Darius I and improved by later Kings. Built upon a high mound or plateau, the central hall containing 36 pillars occupied a space nearly 380 ft long by 250 wide. With a square of 185 ft taken out for the central building, the garden = a space of 60,000 sq. feet. The code of Hammurabi was found at Susa. In an inscription Darius records how he brought materials from afar to decorate the building: columns of stone from a town called Aphrodisias of Ogio, cedar from Lebanon, silver from Egypt, gold from Bactria, and ivory from India. It was looted & destroyed by Alexander.

CHAPTER I.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts. 10 Vashti, being sent for, refuseth to come. 13 Ahasuerus maketh the decree of men's sovereignty.

NOW it came to pass in the days of [b]Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from [c]India even unto [d]Ethiopia, over [e]an hundred and seven and twenty [f]provinces:)

2 That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus [g]sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in [i]Shushan the palace,

4 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days. (the males Gk)

5 And when these days were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were [2]present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of [h]the garden of the king's palace:

6 Where were white, green, and [3]blue, hangings, fastened with cords of [l]fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: [m]the beds were of

It illustrates that in the normal events of life the hope of Israel is worked out to a successful conclusion Gn 3:6. 4:14. 6:13. 10:7 and that Providence guides the destiny of nations

Five figures move before us: Ahasuerus, the Persian monarch, Vashti, the deposed queen, Haman, the Jew hunter, Mordecai, the Jewish leader, and Esther the Jewish girl who became a queen.

The background is the Royal Palace, the Persian Capital, the millions of Jews scattered throughout the world.

The Book.

(1) Historically reveals the hidden ways of God — Providence overlooking His people from the shadows, ensuring the ultimate triumph of Righteousness

(2) Demonstrates the principle that the Devil (Haman) will be crucified on the stake intended for Christ.

(3) It is a Parable setting forth the purpose of God for the Redemption of His people.

26 Had them punished by whipping. Deut 25:2.
27 Had them shaven as the mark of the greatest ignominy.
28 They evidently tried to verbally justify their conduct.

29 Jos. = Manasseh. Boldly he met the challenge of Nehemiah and refused to comply. He was supported by others of the priesthood. V28 and they defied the Governor. Nehemiah was equally staunch and in his capacity as Civil Governor, he passed a sentence of exile.
30 Manasseh's party. This is the last bitter act recorded in Old Testament: Temple cleansed, priesthood reformed, rebellious priests excluded from the city.
These words can be understood "Thou will remember etc."
31 There are mentioned as particularly valuable reforms for they provided for the continuance of Temple service.

7 His enemies having been subdued. See Notes in identification. p. 670 first two years occupied in subduing revolt against his authority.
8 The feast extended for 180 days and was followed by one of 7 days. V10. If this represented in duration of days the length of Persian rule in years See Appendix 21. The length of time permitted the nobles of the various provinces to appear before him in turn. Thus the 180 days comprised a series of feasts for the different provinces. This is suggested by the fact that the local one lasted only 7 days V5.

FEAST FOR THE PEOPLES.

The princes and nobles throughout his extensive realm having paid homage, the people of Shushan were similarly entertained.
9 The Palace itself being used to accommodate them.
10 Couches - the Persians reclining at their meals. These couches were covered with gold and silver cloth.

(4) It is a foreshadowing of the final crisis when Israel shall be delivered in the time of Jacob's trouble and Gog be destroyed.
(5) It is typical of the whole history of Israel — a complete summing up.
See Typology p. 671.

Herodotus (3:95) Thucydides (Book 1), and Plato, all tell us that Darius Hystaspes subdued all the Islands of the Aegean Sea, and Diodorus Siculus (Book 12) tells us that they were all lost again by his son Xerxes, before the 12th year of his reign (BC 474), which we can well believe after the humiliating defeat of his vast army and navy at Thermopylae, Salamis and Platea, B.C. 480. The later Kings of Persia held none of these Islands except Clazomenæ and Cyprus (Xenophon, Hellenica Book 5). This is conclusive, both for the identification of Ahasuerus as Hystaspes, and against his identification with Xerxes, or with any later occupant of the Persian throne. 4 The dates and events of the book fit in exactly with the reign of Hystaspes. See below.

7 And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and [3]royal wine [1]in abundance, [4]according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 ¶ On the seventh day, when [a]the heart of the king was merry with wine, [1]he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, [b]Harbona, [c]Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven [5]chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, 11 To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the [d]crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was [2]fair to look on.

12 But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment [3]by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 ¶ Then the king said to the [f]wise men, [6]which knew the times, (for so was the king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment:

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and [k]Memucan, the [l]seven princes of Persia and Media, [m]which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;)

15 [1]What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?

16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and wrath.

19 [1]If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment [7]from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the [e]Medes, [8]that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate [2]unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall [9]give to their husbands honour, [1]both to great and small.

21 And the saying [1]pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into [n]every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and

This does not suggest the profligacy and excesses of Xerxes, but more the restraint of Darius.

DARIUS HYSTASPES (Cont.) Cp Est. 1:3. During the first 2 years of his reign in overthrowing 9 pretenders and other pretenders to the throne of Persia, Babylon revolted twice: once in the 1st year of his reign and again in the 4th. On this 2nd occasion the siege was a tedious affair, lasting nearly 2 years (Herod. 3, 151). This brings us down to 6th year Darius and explains how it was that though Vashti was divorced in his 3rd year he was not married to Esther until his 7th year Est. 1:3. 2:16.

There is nothing in the character of Ahasuerus that does not fit all we know of Darius from classical literature. In fact [illegible] the reference to the money matters, to the 670 postal service, and above all to the friendly disposition of Ahasuerus toward the Jews, agrees exactly with what we know of Darius, the organiser of the Empire who issued the decrees of Ezra 6:6-12. 7:12-26.

The argument from the identification with Xerxes through the similarity between the old Persian name Khshayarsha, the Hebrew Achashverosh and the Greek Xerxes, is of no force, for the word in any form, and however spelt, is simply the word Shah, and might be applied to any monarch who sat on the throne of Persia. — Romance of Bible Chronology.

8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens [a] were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she [b] obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her her [d] things for purification, with [e] such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and [f] he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

ESTHER 3. Haman is advanced.

of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, [b] the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and [2] favour [3] in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king [g] made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a [4] release to the provinces, and [5] gave gifts, [6] according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together [i] the second time, then Mordecai sat [m] in the king's gate.

20 [n] Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was [q] brought up with him.

21 ¶ In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, [s] Bigthan and [r] Teresh, of those which kept [6] the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, [a] who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king thereof in Mordecai's name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in [c] the book of the chronicles before the king.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Haman, advanced by the king, and despised by Mordecai, seeketh revenge upon all the Jews. 7 He casteth lots. 8 He obtaineth by calumniation a decree of the king to put the Jews to death.

AFTER these things did king Ahasuerus [d] promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the [e] Agagite, and [d] advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants, that were [f] in the king's gate, bowed, and reverenced Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were [f] in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressest thou the [h] king's commandment?

4 Now it came to pass, when they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai [o] bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman [p] full of wrath.

6 And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

HAMAN Sig. Well disposed. He probably appealed to the flesh. He had an innate passion for elevation 3:1, 6, 6-7. But the higher he rose, the more contemptuous and overbearing he became and the more indifference to the fate of those beneath him. But Mordecai pricked the bubble of his pride when he refused to bow down to him - for the curse of Yahweh rested on the Amalekites Exod. 17:14-16. All the tragedy of Haman is condensed in the statement that he was the "Jew's enemy" Est. 3:10. 7:6. 8:1. 9:10,24. As such, he was cursed of God. Haman, the vain and fussy courtier, the vulgar and foolish upstart, the cruel and unscrupulous enemy of the Jews, the villian of the plot is still hated by the Jews. FEAR AND TERROR AMONG THE JEWS. VV1-3

A wail of despair was heard throughout the Empire when the terrible decree was published. The Jews were in despair, their enemies rejoiced. Mordecai looked upon himself as greatly responsible and led in the general grief.

1 Recognising the terrible peril Mordecai left the precincts of the palace V2. and in the midst of the city gave vent to his grief in loud and piercing cries.

2 After aimless, grief-stricken wandering he returned to the palace taking up his stand in the court before the gate.

3 Throughout the Empire the edict of Nehemiah was repeated by Jews who realised the desperate peril they were in.

4 She did not know the cause of his grief and thinking it but a temporary sorrow sought to alleviate it by sending the change of raiment.

HAMAN (Cont.) He was a complete man of the flesh. Vindictive Est. 3:6. Vain 6:7. Crafty 3:5. revengeful 3:6. boastful 5:11. Wicked and unjust 3:5-9. small-minded so that little things irritated him 5:13. He was driven by immoderate ambition 6:7-8. intense self-interest 5:12. He could not tolerate the slightest infringement of his rights, so that small matters soon assumed mountainous proportions.

Thus he was servile and cruel, using his power for disgraceful purposes. Elevated to authority the world appeared at his feet - but it was all but temporary and the greater his elevation, the more calamitous and headlong the awful the 673 headlong plunge. "As ropes on a beast upon the shore. But above its hoarse roaring rises the Voice of the Almighty and Almighty Disposer of events: hitherto shalt thou come and no further, and here shall thy proud waves be stayed" Ps 93:1. 77:19. Prov 8:29, 19.

Haman's doom is as sudden as it is ironic. In power he is terrible, in decline he is pathetic. One day he vaunts himself; the next day he is impaled by his own stake.

Cp the doom of Haman in the light of Yahweh's declaration of war with Amalek Deut. 25:17-19. There can be no peace with such. Cp 1 Sam. 15:33.

IF HAMAN'S INFLUENCE HAD BEEN USED FOR HARM IN INTERCEDING WITH THE KING WHY SHOULD NOT ESTHER'S BE USED FOR GOOD.

MORDECAI. KIND AND GENEROUS. – When Esther lost her parents his heart and home were opened to her Ch 2:7. His affection was governed by his belief but were extended without stint. Nor did they cease when she was wedded to the king. He still overlooked her care and sought her good. Ch 2:11 DETERMINED AND RESOLUTE – Yet in time of danger he insisted that she risk her life for her people. He was inexorable in that. As much as he loved Esther he realised that the nation came first. FAITHFUL – He saw a Divine Providence in his life. – he had implicit faith in the destiny of his people Ch. 4:14. Why then had he not.

ESTHER ACCEPTS THE RESPONSIBILITY. Vv1-8

She calls for a three days fast!

11 She was resigned to her fate, and determined to carry through her difficult task for the good of her people.

12 Thus an element of hope was brought to the Jews in Shushan as they commenced their 3 days' fast as were driven by adversity to seek their God.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of [b] the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.

6 Hatach was evidently in the confidence of the Queen. Possibly in view of the crisis Mordecai revealed her true identity to Hatach that she might plead for her people.

8 Also he gave him [d] the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

MORDECAI'S DEMAND PLACES ESTHER IN MORTAL DANGER. Vv10-14

7 The dreadness of this situation was now obvious to the court officials. Hatach became the go-between Esther and Mordecai. This would have put him in mortal danger if the King learned of it.

The King assumed Divine honors, no one daring to appear in his presence except they were bidden.

It was the symbol of Royal power if withheld, of Royal favor if extended of Royal mercy if person accepted, of Royal bounty in exceptional cases. Ch 5:2.

10 ¶ Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

11 All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into [e] the inner court, who is not called, [h] there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom [k] the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

MORDECAI IS INEXORABLE: ESTHER MUST RISK HER LIFE. Vv13-14.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there [i] enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

i Gp Mg. Breath or life.

10 Mordecai has no doubt of this. He has complete faith and confidence in God. In a flash he realises the meaning of the remarkable events that had projected Esther into the position of prominence she held. His concern was with the nation which was greater than the individual, as the cause is greater than the man.

15 ¶ Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are [2] present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink [a] three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and [c] if I perish, I perish.

17 So Mordecai [3] went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

CHAPTER 5.

ESTHER BEFORE THE KING. Vv1-3.

1 Esther obtaineth the grace of the golden sceptre, and inviteth the king and Haman to a banquet. 6 She inviteth them to another banquet the next day. 9 Haman repineth at the contempt of Mordecai. 14 He buildeth gallows for him.

NOW it came to pass [e] on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in [f] the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that [f] she obtained favour in his sight: and [l] the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee [m] to the half of the kingdom.

4 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

1 She had evidently been previously garb in sackcloth as appropriate to her fasting. Ch 4:16

2 In a Persian palace hall the throne would be at the further end elevated by steps. The king would look down the pillared vista towards the open door where he would see with some surprise the graceful form of his young bride. Ch 2:17 Touched by her unexpected appearance he instantly held out the golden sceptre.

3 Gp Ch 4:11.

LET THE KING & HAMAN COME TO THE BANQUET Vv4-5

Unsuspecting of the developing drama, Haman doubtless looked upon this as an honor. So the banquet proceeded, Esther awaiting a propitious opening for her request.

PRUDENCE VERSUS GUILE. Haman had worked on the king by guile insinuating that the Jews were out to destroy the Empire, representing himself as such a patriot that he was prepared to lose a large sum of money to protect the King. Esther had to work prudently, had to secure the fullest confidence and affection of the King. Therefore she moved slowly, carefully, patiently. With an intuitive feeling that the time was not ripe, that she might lose all by her precipitancy, she delayed her petition and her patience was rewarded. It gave providence time to work. Patience is an excelling grace. Ps 40:1-4 James 1:3,4

ESTHER DELAYS HER REQUEST. VV6-8

4 At the time wine was served. The King had waited in vain for Esther to begin and now made the opening.

5 For some reason Esther delays her request. Perhaps she saw she was gaining the affection of the King and believed delay would assist still further. There would be a natural hesitancy to press the request for it would entail a battle royal with Haman the other favorite. In any case the delay was providential.

HAMAN'S CONCEIT AND IRRITABILITY. VV9-13.

Cp Prov 16:18. 11:2.

Haman exulting at these signs of royal favor is exasperated at the sight of Mordecai. He seems to himself to have attained the pinnacle of greatness, or to be on the eve of it.

9 Previously he had refused to bow. Now he treats Haman as a personal enemy, not even acknowledging his presence, acting towards him with supreme contempt.

9 He did not openly reveal his hatred though he seethed inwardly. He awaited the 13th day of 12th month to exact personal revenge, for was it not his lucky day! Ch 3:7

9 Not only to boast to them in his conceit but to seek their advice as to the best way to humiliate Mordecai.

9 This is what he enjoyed – the adulation that comes from authority – to dominate over others. He was vain and jealous, having an equal, but servile in the presence of a superior.

10 How completely had Esther hidden her real intention. If only Haman could have foreseen the next few HOURS! Thus temporal wealth, position and happiness is at the mercy of circumstances.

11 His pleasure is ruined at the thought of Mordecai. He is [illegible]

8 [d] If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and [2] to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said.

10 Nevertheless Haman [i] refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and [6] called for his friends, and [l] Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and [m] the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had [o] promoted him, and how he had [o] advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to morrow am I [q] invited unto her also with the king.

13 Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

14 ¶ Then said [r] Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a [6] gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Ahasuerus, reading in the chronicles of the good service done by Mordecai, taketh care for his reward. 4 Haman unawares giveth counsel to do him honour. 12 His friends tell him of his final destiny.

ON that night [3] could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring [c] the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of [1] Bigthana and [6] Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the [5] door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

3 And the king said, What [k] honour and [k] dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

4 ¶ And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into [n] the outward court of the king's house, [p] to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

5 And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man [9] whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to myself?

7 And Haman answered the king, For the man [9] whom the king delighteth to honour,

THE BANQUET must have been charged with tension: Haman with disturbed mind hastened in; the Queen knowing that this was the fateful day; the King wondering what disturbed the Queen. They reclined at ease upon the couches provided V.8. As it proceeded Haman's fears would probably subside - and then came the fateful question...

8 [f] Let the royal apparel be brought [g] which the king useth to wear, and [a] the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head:

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most [b] noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and [5] bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: [6] let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

ESTHER 7.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Esther sueth for her own life and her people's. 5 She accuseth Haman. 7 The king causeth Haman to be hanged on his own gallows.

SO the king and Haman came [1] to banquet with Esther the queen.

2 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, [c] What is thy petition, queen Esther? [2] and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? [3] and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, [d] If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:

4 For we are [e] sold, I and my people, [7] to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.

5 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, [8] that durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Esther said, [9] The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman [h] was afraid [2] before the king and the queen.

7 ¶ And the king arising from the banquet of wine [1] in his wrath went into [i] the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was [m] evil determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of [1] the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon [o] the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also [3] before me

[8] Esther's accusation has taken the King by surprise. He had been told that the decree was issued against enemies of the State. Ch. 3:8. Esther claims it is a matter of personal revenge against her and her people. The King still refuses to believe it is Haman thinking some one was taking advantage of the decree for personal revenge. His words, in Hebrew express confused surprise: Mi huE ze H vE ze H hue asher melao libbo laasoth Ken. "Who? He! This one! And whom This one! He! Who hath filled his heart to do thus!" His confusion is partly due to the fact countenance revealed to Haman that evil was determined against him.

5 What humiliation! The people, already perplexed, Esth 3:15, would be utterly confused with the sight of Haman the "Jews' enemy" Lev 3:10. thus applauding Mordecai, who had now openly shown his contempt for the Agagite Ex. 17:9. What dark, bitter thoughts must have filled Haman's mind. How he must have cursed his enemy in his heart as he viewed his honor. And what an amazing sight for the condemned Jews of Shushan. Mordecai doubtless saw this as the first open manifestation of the Hand of Providence - an answer to his prayers.

HAMAN'S DESPONDENCY AND FOREBODING. Vv 12-14.

6 He is depressed and fearful at the turn of events, and dare not look anybody in the face.

12 He pleaded with Esther with all the earnestness in his power, and at last threw himself forward on the couch where she reclined seeking perhaps to grasp her feet or garments, as is usual with supplicants in the East. In this attitude the angry King found him.

13 This terrible charge brought matters to a conclusion. It was interpreted by the attendants as a call for action. Haman's face was covered as one not fit to see the light. The very ones who previously were prepared to fawn upon him now led him to execution.

676 that he was partly guilty. He now sees clearly that his favorite has gained an advantage over him and placed him in a most difficult position. He leaves the hall to ponder the problem. But his confused ejaculation has revealed in acrostic form the One Who would defeat Haman, for the letters form the Divine Name Ehyeh Cp A 671.

10 He now experienced what the Jews had suffered. All his premonitions of foreboding flooded his heart as he felt the shadow of death stretch over him.

Thoughtful Persians became proselytes and added their number to the Jews banded together for defence. The influence of Daniel among the wise men, the decree of Cyrus, the reformers of the Jewish State – men like Ezra, Nehemiah, Mordecai and others must have played a part in this conversion. There was such a spirit moving among the Persians Ch. 6:8 and this continued for a long period. Mth. 2:11

11 On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace [6] was brought before the king.
12 ¶ And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted

THE BATTLE IN SHUSHAN 8-15

17 The edict permitted this Ch. 8:11 but they showed restraint in the matter. This is emphasised VV15,16 and shows that the Jews were not animated with animosity – merely the desire for protection and defence.

FURTHER PETITION GRANTED ESTHER 12-14

13 Not a question but an exclamation. If 500 died in Shushan how many were destroyed throughout the Empire.
14 Nevertheless if their security measures are required the Jews they will be granted.

20 There was evidently good reason for this not supplied by the narrative Possibly a faction was getting ready to initiate a revolt against the Jews, perhaps also the crown.

22 They probably constituted an anti-semitic party dedicated to continued warfare on the Jews.

FESTIVAL HELD IN

26 The contrast between Jews of Shushan and elsewhere led to some confusion in establishing feast of Purim

27 Though debility not given it undoubtedly would have a religious basis

28 The rich to the poor V.22. The "portions" probably relating to parts of sacrifice.

PURIM ESTABLISHED. Vv 20-32.

It falls in early Spring a month before Passover on the 2 days established by Mordecai and Esther. A feast of Rejoicing Deut. 16:14.

29. He wrote up the details of Vv16-18 as a basis for a suggestion he made that 2 days be occupied in the feast V.21. This being readily accepted he authoritatively confirmed it V.29.

The two days of Purim are made festival.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do [c] to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and [z] let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

15 For the Jews that were in Shushan [g] gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but [i] on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews [k] that were in the king's provinces [g] gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but [i] they laid not their hands on the prey,

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day [5] of the same rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together [o] on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews [q] of the villages, that dwelt in the [r] unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and [u] a good day, and of [x] sending portions one to another.

Cp Neh. 8:10

20 ¶ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 To [b] stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into [d] a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of [e] sending portions one to another, and [f] gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews [h] undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them;

24 Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, [l] had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to [3] consume them, and to destroy them;

25 But [4] when [m] Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should [n] return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.

26 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of [6] Pur. Therefore for all the words of [p] this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

27 The Jews ordained, and [h] took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as [s] joined themselves unto them, so as it should not [7] fail, that they would keep [t] these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;

28 And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these

FEAST PURIM (Cont. from p.E80) A COMMEMORATION OF DIVINE DELIVERANCE Purim = lots Ch 3:7. It illustrates Prov 16:33. It points to Divine grace which shown to Jewry is a token of that extended to all mankind which in Christ Jesus is "mighty to save."

WHEN CELEBRATED AND HOW

From 13th to 15th of month Adar Est 9:1,18. one month before the celebration of the Passover. It thus emphasised the principle of Divine selection as the Passover does that of Divine deliverance.

The 13th day is called the Fast of Esther Cp Est. 4:16-16. Sundry prayers expressive of repentance are offered, and, as on all fast days,

Exod 32:11-14; 34:1-11 are read with Isa 55:6-56:8 as the Haphtarah.

13th Day. As soon as the stars appear, candles are lighted, the people resort to the synagogue where, after the evening service, the benediction is uttered, & the book of Esther is read by the prelector. Every mention of Haman is accompanied by shouts: "Let his name be blotted out, the name of the wicked shall rot" whilst children spring rattles. The benediction is said & all return home to eat milk & eggs.

14th Day. Several prayers are inserted into the regular ritual. Exod 17:8-16 is read as the lesson from the Levi, & Esther as on the previous evening. Attendance at synagogue on this day is in the morning & the rest of the day is given up to rejoicing and giving of presents.

15th Day. The rejoicings commence on this day and the festival terminates on the evening.

If 13th Adar falls on a Sabbath, the fast is kept on the Thursday previously.

It is significant to note how that Purim acts as a preparation for Passover one month later

"Feast of Purim. Other festivals were ordained by Divine authority: this one by that of Mordecai and Esther. Yet its commemoration was undisputedly sanctioned by God Whose merciful interposition it records. The observance consists of a preliminary fast, of a sacred assembly in the synagogue when the Megillah (or Roll) of the Book of Esther, is unfolded and solemnly read aloud; and of a repast of herbs followed by merry making and the sending of presents. It is 1. A REMINDER OF AN ERA OF CAPTIVITY - commemorating their exile - a token of their sin and God's displeasure, yet showing they had not been neglected nor forsaken, but in His mercy spared and recalled to the land of Promise. A MEMORIAL OF THE ENEMIES AND FRIENDS OF THE NATION - When "Haman's name is mentioned the synagogue is filled with the noise of stamping and rattling, with shouts of "Cursed be Haman! May his name perish!" whilst the memory of Esther & Mordecai is cherished with grateful honour.

Job's testing came from God. — Job 2:3, 19:21, 42:11, Job 2:5, 6:10
It revealed the truth concerning suffering and righteousness, showing that character it purified thereby. It demonstrated that the love of God can be sufficiently strong for a man to hold on to it when faced with loss and suffering. Patience in suffering on the part of a righteous man can draw sinners to God, for by the exercise of such he gives a practical demonstration of his belief of the value of righteousness. 9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?

10 Hast not thou [b] made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? [d] thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his [3] substance [e] is increased in the land.

11 [f] But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, [g] and he will curse thee [k] to thy face.

12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy [4] power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

13 ¶ And [p] there was a day [r] when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine [t] in their eldest brother's house:

14 And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:

15 And [t] the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, [u] The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, [v] The Chaldeans made out [z] three bands, and [y] fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, [a] Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:

19 And, behold, there came a great wind [2] from [c] the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

20 Then Job [g] arose, and [h] rent his [4] mantle, and [2] shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped, 21 And said, [i] Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the [m] LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; [o] blessed be the name of the LORD.

22 [q] In all this Job sinned not, nor [r] charged God foolishly.

3 [x] And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he [a] holdeth fast his [b] integrity, although thou movedst me against him, [2] to destroy him [c] without cause.

CHAPTER 2

4 THE ADVERSARY'S CONTINUED MALIGNITY Vv 1-8

/ TUMMÂH — a cognate word to TAM — perfect. Cp Prov. 11:3.
2 I.e. without sufficient cause.

SUMMARY Ch. 1:21-22.

True worship will not be destroyed by reverses. It will accept with fortitude adverse circumstances due either to Divine manipulation, or our own folly. It will recognise the right of Yahweh to test His servants. It will also recognise that adversity is limited to Divine providence, and the Godly man will resign himself to his state — even though he cannot see the reason. There is a need to search out the purpose of trial. Cp. Rom. 5:1-3; Heb. 4:14-5:9

JOB'S DISEASE — Continued from p. 682.

● He was helpless, + his futile attempts to rise from the ground provoked the merriment of the children who played about the heap where he lay Ch. 19:18. ● The disease was held to be incurable, though the patient might linger many years, + his hopelessness of recovery made him long for death Ch. 3:20 and often. (The Cambridge Bible).

4:17 — Note the development ENOSH - GEBER - SERVANT - ANGEL, as a contrast to the decree of mortality & weakness (4:19-20). Man is first seen as mortal, then upright, then called to service, then appointed to minister Gen 3:14-15 as a contrast to the "Angels that sinned." Jude 6

SATAN was a believer Ch.1:6 of wide experience through travel Ch.1:7 but envious, mercenary Ch.1:9, vindictive Ch.1:11,12 self centred Ch.2:4

JOB'S WIFE in her outburst Ch.2:9 imagined she was sympathising with Job, but, in fact she was only adding to his burden. She had suffered a lot with the loss of her family & their wealth, but had become self-centred in her misery. She takes her place with such as Lot's wife (another anonymous character) in failing to render aid to her husband in his need. Her advice was equivalent to urging him to commit suicide. Women need to guard the warmth of their emotions at such times.

3 A proverbial expression signifying that to keep his own skin intact a man will sacrifice that of another. This was really the philosophy of Satan. Thus the motives of Job were distorted by him.

4 Satan had no power to afflict. God permitted Job to be tested in accordance with Satan's will.

5 God would test Job as Satan desired him to be tested with this limitation.

6 SHECHIN - Inflammation. Str. In the singular. He suffered from an ulcer that covered his whole body. Used for leprosy Lev. 13:18,19,20,23. the botch of Egypt Deut 28:27,35. Gesenius = A burning sore, an inflamed ulcer.

7 A state of utter degradation; a sad decline from the wealthy, honored, respected Job of Ch.1:1-3.

5 JOB'S PATIENCE IN EXTREMITY Vv 9-10.

8 Satan had not suggested Job's wife be taken - probably realising that she would constitute an added trial.

9 Under extreme trial having lost her family & now seeing her husband afflicted with a dishonorable disease - she breaks - and adds to Job's trials. Consider the attitude of Christ's bride. Thus she urges Job to do exactly what the Satan declared he would Ch.1:11; 2:5.

10 NABAL - Stupid, dull, then wicked impious. The perversion of intellect which comes on men when their understanding is corrupted & degraded. 1 Sam 25:25. 2 Sam. 13:13. Ps. 14:1. Isa. 32:6. Cp Luke 12:16-21.

11 He recognised both as coming from God - though he knew not the purpose. Cp John 18:11. Rom. 12:12. Acts 12:9-11. 1 Thess. 5:10-11.

6 THE CONCERN OF JOB'S FRIENDS Vv 11-13

4 And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.
5 [a] But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will [b] curse thee to thy face.
6 [d] And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; [e] but save his life.
7 ¶ So went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore [f] boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown.
8 And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; [g] and he sat down among the ashes.
9 ¶ Then said his wife unto him, [k] Dost thou still [l] retain thine integrity? [m] curse God, and die.
10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as [n] one of the foolish women speaketh. What? [p] shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job [q] sin with his lips.
11 ¶ Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the [s] Temanite, and Bildad the [t] Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had [u] made an appointment together to come [v] to mourn with him and to comfort him.
12 And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they [b] rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled [c] dust upon their heads toward heaven.
13 So they sat down with him upon the ground [d] seven days and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

1 Job curses the day and services of his birth. 13 The ease of death. 20 He complaineth of life, because of his anguish.

AFTER this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.
2 And Job [a] spake, and said,
3 [c] Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived.
4 Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.
5 Let darkness and [g] the shadow of death [h] stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; [i] let the blackness of the day terrify it.

2 DIALOGUE Ch 3:1-42:6

1 JOB: OPENING LAMENTATION. Ch 3

1 BIRTH LAMENTED 1-10

1 The abhorrence he discerned in the attitude of his friends at his stroke - their failure to find words to express any expression of hope - caused the patriarch to speak unadvisedly. It expressed his utter hopelessness. Cp. Jer. 20:14-18

2 Job having now spoken (Cf. Job 1:10) gives way to vocal utterance of impotent extreme despair. There was nothing he could do but relieve his feelings.

3 A special blessing

4 His wish: that the day had never been.

5 Select it as a day of particular pleasure

6 Let it be noted for death not life.

7 Let it be noted for storms that darken the sky in daytime.

8 OPHEL - RV "thick darkness."

9 RV. "rejoice among..."

10 Let it never be particularly remembered.

11 RV "Barren." Let no one be born in it.

12 A reference to astrology. "The Egyptian Typhon, who by swallowing the sun god produces eclipses. But Job merely refers to the tradition without endorsing it.

13 The pyramids were desolate or lonely places where the king lay in solitary splendor, filled with treasures of gold & silver such as excited the wonder of the world there now. Stillborn and hidden out of sight.

15 Such as Job.

16 NABAS - Tark - master. Same word as Exod 3:7. Cp Ecc. 9:4-6. Isa 38:18,19.

3 MANHOOD LAMENTED Vv 11-26

17 Why! Why should men continue in life who prefer death. The book reveals the answer.

18 Because of the extreme pain & anguish they suffer.

19 Who does not know which way man to take, & therefore can see no escape from his misery.

20 Hedged in in such a way that flesh can see no escape. His experience ultimately supplied the answer.

21 It takes the place of his daily food. Cp A. 42:2.

22 Loud cries of men in pain Ps. 22:4, 24:5.

23 Perhaps his devotions were to guard? He to against such a venture as Job Ch. 1:5.

24 SIGHAV - To be tranquil, to secure. Str. He had not been complacent, or secure in confidence so as to relax his religious obligations. He did not refrain from them. This claim of personal righteousness called forth the challenge of his friends?

1 ELIPHAZ' FIRST SPEECH: OBSERVATION PROVES JOB A HYPOCRITE Ch 4:1 - 5:27

1 A COUNTERFEIT APOLOGY FOR SPEAKING Vv 1-2.

1 Thus he commences with a gentle & tactful appeal hop

JOB'S DISEASE: "It is generally agreed that the disease of Job was the leprosy called Elephantiasis, so named because the swollen limbs & the black & corrugated skin of those afflicted by it resemble the elephant. It is said by ancient authors, as Pliny, to be peculiar to Egypt, but it is found in other hot countries such as the Hijaz, & even in northern climates such as Norway. It is said to attack the limbs first, breaking out below the knees and gradually spreading over the whole body. We are probably to consider, however that Job was smitten 'from the sole of his foot to his crown' all at once Job 1:7. Full details of its appearance & the sensations of those affected may be gathered from the Book, though, being poetically coloured, they will hardly bear to be read like a page from a handbook of Pathology. • The ulcers were accompanied by an itching so intolerable that a piece of potsherd was taken to scrape the sores & remove the feculent discharge Ch 2:8. • The form and countenance were so disfigured by the disease that the sufferer's friends could not recognise him Ch 2:12 • The ulcers seized the whole body both without & inwardly Ch 19:20 making the breath fetid & emitting a loathsome smell that drove everyone from the sufferer's presence Ch 19:17, & made him seek refuge 'outside the village upon the heap of ashes' Ch 2:8. • The sores which bred worms Ch 7:5, alternately closed, having the appearance of clods of earth, & opened & ran, so that the body was alternately swollen & emaciated Ch 16:8. • The patient was haunted with horrible dreams Ch 7:14, and unearthly terrors Ch 3:25, & harassed by a sensation of choking Ch 7:15, which made his nights restless & frightful Ch 7:4 as his incessant pains made his days weary Ch 7:1-4 • His bones were filled with gnawing pains, as if a fire burned in them Ch 30:30, & as if his limbs were tortured in the stocks Cp 13:27, or wrenched off Ch 30:17 [See p. 681]

2 INFANCY LAMENTED. Vv 11-19.

13 The pyramids were desolate or lonely places where the kings lay in solitary splendor, filled with treasures of gold & silver such as excited the wonder of the world then & now.
14 Stillborn and hidden out of sight.
15 Such as Job.
16 NÂGAS - Taskmaster. Same word as Exod 3:7. Cp Ecc. 9:4-6. Isa. 38:18-19.

3 MANHOOD LAMENTED 20-26

17 Why! Why should men continue in life who prefer death? The book reveals the answer.
18 Because of the extreme pain & anguish they suffer.
19 Who does not know which way to take, & therefore can see no escape from his misery.

CHAPTER 4.

2 FIRST TRIAD Ch 4:1 - 14:22

1 ELIPHAZ' FIRST SPEECH: OBSERVATION PROVES JOB A HYPOCRITE Ch 4:2 - 5:27

1 A COURTEOUS APOLOGY FOR SPEAKING Vv 1-2.

a Then he commences with a gentle & tactful appeal hoping to [illegible]

THE LESSON OF JOB'S LAMENT

Job's trial came upon him suddenly, without warning, like a bolt from the blue. He neither knew the cause nor the ultimate result. His lament therefore stemmed from ignorance. But the overshadowing care of Yahweh was there all the time. Job is set forth as an example Jam 5:11. Let us remember the cause and the final end of his trials and exercise faith, courage & patience in our own.

"I HAVE SEEN" - Notice how Eliphaz appeals to conclusions based on personal observation & experience V 8, V 12, Ch. 5:3, 27. Notice how "I" predominates.

Eliphaz reproveth Job,

16 Or as an hidden [a] untimely birth I had not been; [b] as infants which never saw light.
17 There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary be at rest.
18 There the prisoners [c] rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor.
19 The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his master.
20 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the [d] bitter in soul;
21 Which [e] long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for [f] hid treasures;
22 Which rejoice [g] exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave?
23 [h] Why is light given to a man [i] whose way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in?
24 For, my sighing cometh [k] before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.
25 For [l] the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me.
26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet, yet trouble came.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job for want of religion. 7 He teacheth God's judgments to be not for the righteous, but for the wicked. 12 His fearful vision, to humble the excellency of creatures before God. SEE SUMMARY. P 684

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,
2 If we assay [m] to commune with thee, wilt thou [n] be grieved? but [o] who can withhold himself from speaking?
3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou [p] hast strengthened the weak hands.
4 Thy words have upholden [q] him that was falling, and thou [r] hast strengthened [s] the feeble knees.
5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.
6 Is not this thy fear, thy [t] confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?
7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?
8 Even as I have seen, [u] they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.
9 By the blast of God they perish, and [v] by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.
10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the [w] young lions, are broken.
11 The old lion [x] perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.
12 Now a thing was [y] secretly brought to me, and mine ear received [z] a little thereof.
13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when [a] deep sleep falleth on men, 14 Fear [b] came upon me, and [c] trembling, which made [d] all my bones to shake.
15 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:
16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes, [e] there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,
17 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker?
18 Behold, he [f] put no trust in his servants; and his angels [g] he charged with folly:
19 How much less in them that dwell in [h] houses of clay, whose foundation is in [i] the dust, which are crushed before [k] the moth?
20 [l] They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it.

JOB 4. and relateth his vision.

2 HE COMMENDS JOB'S FORMER PIETY. Vv 3-7

2 By bringing their sin home to them.
3 There is a hard sarcasm about these words that belie the earlier apology.
4 RV: "Is not thy fear of God thy confidence, and thy hope the integrity of thy ways?" If Job is convinced of his piety as he professed to be, he should show confidence in God. The fact that he lacks confidence implies his guilt.
5 Abel for one!! Though not in the absolute ultimate sense. This is the crux of his theory.

3 THE [redacted] THEORY OF OBSERVATION: SINNERS SUFFER. Vv 8-11

6 RV: "According as I have seen." - i.e. as far as my observations have proceeded. There is an air of sweet reasonableness about the reasoning of Eliphaz.
7 'AMAL - To labor with wearing effect. RV: "trouble."
8 Cf. [redacted] experience of Asaph Ps. 73:3. There is an element of truth in the observation of Eliphaz Cp Prov. 22:8; Hos 8:7; 10:13. Cp the Flood. But he is making a universal experience out of a limited one & upon this faulty foundation sets up his false theory.
9 By His judgments. The figure is that of a hot, fiery wind, which dries up & destroys fields of grain.
10 The deep breathing of one moved to anger. See mg.
11 SHÂRÛY - Suggesting violence, from SHÂRAH - To pluck. Used of violent men Ps. 7:12; 10:9, 17:11; 22:13; 27:12. The lion is savage, stealthy, greedy, threatening and dangerous. Eliphaz uses it figuratively of men.
12 SHACHAL - Rosers.
13 KEPHIYR - from KÂPHAR - To cover, (Cf the mane). Cet. A young weaned lion beginning to hunt for prey.
14 Eliphaz is not drawing upon the normal experience of lions but is saying that savage, unscrupulous men - like men inevitably receive their punishment - though at different times - Youth, manhood, old age.
15 LÂYISH - To crush, from its [illegible]
16 LEBÂOWTH. Lioness. To roar in ferocity. All the expressions used speak of power & ferocity - which avails naught in the face of Divine judgment.

4 THE SUPPOSED ENDORSEMENT OF HIS THEORY BY REVELATION. Vv 12-21

His "thoughts" (SIS'PIH - Dreadful) were troubled, and he received or thought he received, a vision from God. Perhaps his troubled thoughts came from pondering Job's case.
17 Geber - Strong man. Job's complaint Cp Ch 7:12 has reflected against God.

ELIPHAZ THE TEMANITE - Sig God of Pure Gold. A descendant of Esau Cp Gen 36:15. The Temanites were noted for wisdom Jer. 49:7. Eliphaz was evidently the eldest of the three, and the most courteous also. HE WAS THE RELIGIOUS MORALIST and spoke from the standpoint of personal observation and experience. He claimed a personal revelation based upon a weird experience he had Ch 4:12-21. His speeches are hard, cruel and rigidly dogmatic, and his theme is summarised in Ch 4:7. He emphasised the unapproachable majesty & purity of God Ch 4:17-21) Ch 15:12-16, but attempted to justify God by pressing Job into the mould of his theory relating to sin.

He commences on a very polite note, but he is obviously irritated and severer in his second speech Ch 15 Cp Vv 2-16. In his third speech he outrightly condemns Job Ch 22 Cp Vv 5-9, where he flatly contradicts his own commendation of Job in his first speech.

● Eliphaz is the Religious Moralist speaking from the standpoint of supposed revelation from God and personal Experience.

ELIPHAZ' DRAMATIC VISION: Did he really have such a visitation? He firmly believed that he did and this colored his comments. Cp v.18 with Ch 15:15. But are these words true of Scripture revelation. No See Exod 23: 20-23; Ps 34:7, Dan 4:17 — and of His greatest servant. Mat 28:18. 1 Pet 1:12. See also Heb 1:14; 2:5.
The revelation is hardly of such importance as to justify such a visitation. Certainly angels are just in Yahweh's sight. Eliphaz has retired to rest pondering his theory, and with troubled mind v.11. Fell asleep. He dreams and believes he has received a message from God, particularly as this confirms his theory. In the face of such experience reason has little impact.

18 What virtues they manifest soon cease.
19 Without really manifesting the full wisdom of their own experiences which must be learnt again by the next generation. Cp 2 Sam 3:33.

The happy end

21 [a]Doth not their excellency which is in them go away? they die, even without wisdom.

CHAPTER 5.

5 SUFFERING STEMS FROM PERSONAL FOLLY. Vv.1-7.

Eliphaz prefers the teaching of the Vision by the evidence of personal experience.
General Proposition Vv1-2.
1 Bring forth evidence to refute what I am going to say.
2 By this he means the support of Revelation from heaven such as he has supplied.
3 RV. "jealousy." Covertly - not yet openly - Eliphaz suggests that secret anger & jealousy has so motivated Job as to cause him to turn from God & so reduce him to his present state.
Proof. Vv3-5.
4 Suddenly, immediately, without hesitation he pronounced him accursed of God. Eliphaz tested his theory & found it sound. On a faulty premise he adjudged all suffering accordingly.
5 LXX: "erring."
6 How this cruel insinuation must have cut Job to the heart - but he patiently endured it.
7 Subjected to litigation and legal oppression Cp Isa 1:17,23.
Covetous men grasp the family possessions.
The hedges designed to protect it.
Trouble Inevitable. Vv6-7.
This trouble Vv4-5 had all happened to Job & was pressed home with ruthless cruelty by the cold, courteous appearance of wisdom assumed by Eliphaz.
10 Cp Ch 4:8. There is cause to these things, a person sows to them Cp Gal 6:7-8. True, but the application false. Cp Christ's sufferings - Abel's death.

AS SUFFERING IS DIVINE

6 JUDGMENT ON SIN JOB SHOULD SEEK GOD'S FORGIVENESS Vv8-16.

Seeing that trouble is Divine judgment for sin and man is born with a nature that tends to it - Job should seek God's help in his secret sin.
8 RV: "But as for me..."
12 He restrieves the parched earth and drought. Cp Jer 14:22.
13 To raise men from despair & cause them to see the mercy of God in natural provisions Mat 5:45.
Their reasoning records on their own heads. Ps 7:15. 9:15.
15 Develops before it is ripe, so that it is easily detected.

CHAPTER 5.

1 The harm of inconsideration. 3 The end of the wicked is misery. 6 God is to be regarded in affliction. 17 The happy end of God's correction.

CALL now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou [1]turn? (Of God Cp 11:20)
2 For wrath killeth the foolish man, and [2]envy slayeth the silly one. (prosper for a time)
3 I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.
4 His children are far from safety, and they are crushed [a]in the gate, [b]neither is there any to deliver them.
5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their [c]substance. (Heb. thirsty - those who thirst after it)
6 Although [3]affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground; (Human Nature. Ps 51:5, Rom 7)
7 Yet man is [d]born unto [4]trouble, as [e]the sparks fly upward.
8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause: ~ Cp Ps 17:15. Prov 16:3.
9 Which doeth great things and unsearchable; marvellous things [5]without number:
10 [f]Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the [7]fields:
11 [g]To set up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.
12 He [h]disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands [9]cannot perform their enterprise. (TUSHIYAH ~ Substantial result.)
13 [i]He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the [k]froward is carried headlong.

"CRUSHED BEFORE THE MOTH" Ch 4:19.

"Moth" - 'ASH is from 'ASHASH - to shrink, fail, be consumed. As the feeble moth can destroy, so man is overcome by things in themselves frail. The day of man in rebellion against God is extremely limited v.20. and is subject to constant trouble. These words are not true if spoken about man generally - for the righteous do not perish forever. Nor if they are spoken only of the wicked for they often prosper Cp Ps 73.

SPEECH OF ELIPHAZ

Eliphaz' basic mistake is applying what ultimately will be to present circumstances - & so observing all things from that biased viewpoint.

- Introduction: Apology for speaking Ch 4:1-2.
- He criticises Job's reaction to the disaster. Ch 4:3-7.
- His theory of observation: Sinners suffer. Ch 4:8-11.
- He claims Divine revelation for his theory. Ch 4:12-21.
- The history of a fool according to personal observation Ch 5:1-7.
- The saints confidence in God Ch 5:8-16.
- The blessedness of profiting by chastening. Ch 5:17-27.

JOB 5. of God's correction.

14 They [1]meet with darkness in the daytime, and [b]grope in the noonday as in the night.
15 But [c]he saveth the poor from the sword, [2]from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.
16 So the poor hath hope, and [d]iniquity stoppeth her mouth.
17 Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore [e]despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty:
18 For he maketh sore, and bindeth up: [f]he woundeth, and his hands make whole.
19 [g]He shall deliver thee in six troubles: yea, in seven [h]there shall no evil touch thee.
20 [m]In famine he shall redeem thee from death: and in war [3]from the power of the sword.
21 Thou shalt be hid [4]from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.
22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.
23 For thou shalt be [o]in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.
24 And thou shalt know [5]that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not [6]sin.
25 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be [7]great, and thine [8]offspring [9]as the grass of the earth.
26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn [10]cometh in in his season.
27 Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it [z]for thy good.

16 (c) Isa. 59:10; (c) John 9:4-5.
17 (c) Or, reprove. From cruel & destructive words. Ps 57:4. 64:3. 52:2. Ultimately this is true, but not in the meantime. Mt 5:11.
18 (d) Ps. 59:13.

7 IF JOB PLACES HIMSELF IN THE HANDS OF GOD HE MAY DELIVER HIM Vv17-27.

A new turn to the subject. Previously Eliphaz has treated affliction only as punishment - now he considers it as corrective producing benefits.
19 No permanent evil.
20 Eliphaz is giving a present application to that which shall prove ultimately true Cp Heb 11:36-40.
21 It had been manifested against Job.
22 One's walk will be unhindered by inanimate creation. Cp Ps. 91:12.
23 Cp Ch. 1:12
24 RV.: "...thy fold & shalt miss nothing."
25 More & more Eliphaz touches on matters that directly affect Job.
26 Is reaped at its proper time - not like Job - prematurely cut down.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Job sheweth that his complaints are not causeless. 8 Wisheth for death, wherein he is assured of comfort. 14 Reproveth his friends of unkindness.

JOB'S ANSWER: He ... plea...

1 JOB'S ANSWER. CH. 6:1-7:21

1 JOB JUSTIFIES HIS GRIEF AND IMPATIENCE 1-7.

1 KA'AS ~ Vexation (not "wrath" Ch 5:2)
2 His friends have unjustly condemned his grief by not properly accounting his calamities.
3 Cp mg. RV: "Therefore have my words been rash." He has reckoned his feelings by his words.
4 They are poisoned darts & such as would take his life.
5 In addition to the agony of his illness he is assailed by depression & fears that range themselves like an army against him.
6 He rejects the theory of Eliphaz as wrong. His words were without salt. Col 4:6. Mk 9:49. Lev 2:13.
7 The reasoning of Eliphaz is stupid.
8 RV: "My soul refuseth to touch them - they are as loathsome meat to me." Thus Job rejects the theories of Eliphaz.

2 JOB REITERATES HIS DESIRE FOR DEATH Vv8-13.

9 Eliphaz had warned that God might punish with death. Ch 4:9, 20-21. 5:2.
Job had expressed the primary wish that he had never been born Ch 3:1-10, next that he had died Ch 3:11-19.
10 In the cessation of anguish in the rest of death.
11 RV: "Exult in pain" i.e. if he knew that death were near.
12 Therefore he could look forward to a glorious resurrection. Jn 6:39, 40, 54.
13 Eliphaz had suggested that Job might recover if he abandoned his sin Job 5:18-26. Job refutes the conclusion of Eliphaz & claims he is too weak physically to have hope of recovery.
14 What has he got to live for with family & fortune dead. But cp. Eph 1:16-21

JOB'S ANSWER: He justifies his grief and impatience Ch.6:1-7 • Reiterates his desire for death Ch.6:8-13. • Reproaches his friends for their want of sympathy Ch.6:14-23 • Rejects the conclusions of their arguments Ch.6:24-30. • Justifies his complaints on the grounds that he expects no alleviation Ch.7:1-11. • Expostulates with God and pleads for forgiveness of sin Ch.7:12-21.

2 JOB'S ANSWER. CH.6:1-7:21

1 JOB JUSTIFIES HIS GRIEF AND IMPATIENCE 1-7.

Job accuseth his friends of unkindness.

BUT Job answered and said,
2 [Oh that my (a) grief were throughly weighed,] and 2 my calamity laid in the balances together!]
3 For now it would be heavier than (b) the sand of the sea: therefore (c) my words are swallowed up.]
4 For (d) the arrows of the Almighty are within me,] the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit:] (e) the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.] (Job's complaining is not cavilled)

9 Even that (m) it would please God to (n) destroy me;] that he would let loose his hand, and (o) cut me off!]
10 Then should I yet have comfort;] yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: (p) let him not spare;] for I have not (q) concealed the words of (r) the Holy One.] (RV: "Denied")

12 Is my strength the strength of stones?] or is my flesh (t) of brass?]
13 Is not my help in me?] and is (u) wisdom driven quite from me?] (RV: "Even be him that")

28 Now therefore be content, (m) look upon me;] for it is (n) evident unto you if I lie.]
29 (o) Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity;] yea, return again, my (p) righteousness is (q) in it.] (RV: "My cause is righteous")
30 Is there iniquity in my tongue?] cannot (r) my taste discern (s) perverse things?]

1 KA'AS - Vexation read. "wrath" Ch.5:2
2 His friends have unjustly condemned his grief by not promptly attesting his calamities.
3 Cp Mg. RV: "Therefore have my words been rash." He has relieved his feelings by his words.
4 They are poisoned arrows such as would take his life.
5 In addition to the agony of his illness he is assailed by depression & fears that range themselves like an army against him.
6 Job rejects the theory of Eliphaz as wrong. His words were without cause. Col.2:6. 1 Pet.1:14. Lev.21:1.
7 The reasoning of Eliphaz is inverted.
8 RV: "My soul refuseth to touch them - They are as loathsome meat to me." Thus Job rejects the theories of Eliphaz.

JOB REITERATES HIS DESIRE FOR DEATH Vv 8-13.

9 Eliphaz had warned that God might punish with death. Ch.4:9, 20-21, 5:2. Job had expressed the harmony with that he had never been born Ch.3:1-10, next that he had died Ch.3:11-19.
10 In the cessation of anguish in the rest of death.
11 RV: "Exult in pain" i.e. if he knew that death were near.
12 Therefore he could look forward to a glorious resurrection. Job 19:25.
13 Eliphaz had suggested that Job might recover if he abandoned his sin Job 5:18-26. Job refutes the conclusion of Eliphaz & claims he is too weak physically to have hope of recovery.
14 What has he got to live for with family & fortune dead. But cp. Eph.2:16-21.

Eliphaz' basic mistake is applying what ultimately will be to present circumstances - so observing all things from that limited viewpoint.

15 The unrealistic theorising of Eliphaz was irritating in view of the pain & suffering of the righteous Job.
16 RV: "Is it not that I have no help in me." He is so weakened that he lacks the strength to bear up against his exhausting malady.
17 TUSHIYAH - Substantiate, support, ability. He lacks strength to resist his illness. RV: "And that effectual working is driven quite from me."

3 JOB REPROACHES HIS FRIENDS FOR THEIR LACK OF SYMPATHY. Vv 14-23

18 All that Eliphaz had done was to press a theory that Job knew was untenable.
19 NACHAL - A wady, a winter brook that dries up with the heat of summer rash, what he said was true.

39 He could adjudge nothing wrong in what he said. Later, however, Job came to regret his words as he understood better his own case from God's standpoint. He then admitted that he "understood not" Ch.42:3 and repented for so speaking Ch.42:6.

This Chapter contains.
- A desperate man's defence 1-7
- A miserable man's prayer 8-11
- Cold hearted unkindness and unjust insinuations repelled 14-30.

10 The channel of water. "The simile is remarkably complete. When little needed the torrent overflows; when needed it disappears. In winter it does not refresh; in summer it is dried up. Nor is it merely useless: it deceives, allowing the traveller by the appearance of verdure promising refreshment & giving none." E-Book.
21 QADAR - Ashy, dark colored thus turbid or muddy. The melting ice causes flooding & erosion.
22 When the streams of water are needed to comfort & revive they are lacking.
23 LAPHATH - Turn or twist around. The channels of water-courses do that, ending up in the desert - like the reasoning of Eliphaz. The distress of Eliphaz Ch. 4:11.
24 As Job was in his friend's like the dried up water courses of the wadies when faced with a problem they cannot help.
27 They came intending to comfort - but when they saw the extent of his affliction they considered it Divine punishment. Thus their theory was built up of inference not fact. They could not prove any concrete fact of sin against Job.
28 I did not ask you to come.
29 I did not ask you to seek the services of some influential person to assist Job.
30 He did not seek any of these things from his friends only understanding compassion - & this he did not receive.

4 JOB REJECTS THE CONCLUSIONS OF THEIR ARGUMENTS. Vv 24-30

31 Eliphaz has implied that Job suffers as the result of sin. Ch.4:8-11.5.
32 YAKACH YAKACH - Reproving reprove. You accuse me of sin - justify your accusation.
33 Is your accusation based only on my words, my outburst of Ch.3 & 6:4-5.
34 They are said in the heat of the moment and are gone, and are not worth a reprint. He admits they are rash (RV: "would cast lots") Job implies that they are revealing themselves to be so pitiless - so lacking in consideration that they would be capable of casting lots for the children of an intolerable debtor at his death. Cp Joel 3:3.
36 RV "be pleased to" - look me straight in the face and judge whether I lie!
37 RV: "let there be no injustice." - Reconsider my case.
38 The only thing they can accuse him of is being rash with his tongue. He has admitted this Vv.3, 26 but claims that the rest

BILDAD THE SHUHITE – Probably a patronymic from Shuah, a son of Abraham of Keturah Gen. 25:2. An Arab tribe, perhaps identified with Suhu on the west of Euphrates. Cp Job. 1:1. Bildad = Lord of Hadad and. Hadad means "to shout" – Lockyer. He is noted for his vehement speech. Shuhite is from root (shuwach) "to sink" and is rendered "bow down," "incline," "humble" Str. He does not reason but meekly quotes tradition, bowing down to the opinions of others. He is a forthright declaimer rather than a reflective reasoner, more dogmatic, blunt, severe and cruel than the courteous Eliphaz, though endorsing the latter's teaching. He was a religious legalist, resting upon tradition. Job 8:8; 18:5-20. His first address is an appeal Job 8; the second, a rebuke Job 18; the third an evasion. Job 25. His comments are based on appearance. Cp Job 8

3. The shades of night when his labor shall cease. RV: "his wages."

4. Empty of any good to him.

5. Sickness always seems worse at night. It is said that the pains of Elephantiasis are greatest at night, and that the sufferer experiences restlessness & frightful dreams

7. When he might doze off for a time.

8. In Elephantiasis worms breed in ulcers that form on the body and putrefy.

9. Forming on the skin putrefying ulcers which covered his body.

RV: "My skin closeth up & breaketh out afresh." In Elephantiasis papules or tubercles form on the skin, gradually enlarging, & after a time soften & break up. An ulcer forms and a discharge of a loathsome & virulent character follows. After a while that stops, the ulcer heals, only to break out elsewhere.

Job seeks a little understanding sympathy & comfort.

5 JOB JUSTIFIES HIS COMPLAINTS ON THE GROUND THAT HE EXPECTS NO RELIEF vv. 1-11.

1 IS there not (a) an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of an hireling?

2 As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work:

3 So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.

4 When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day.

5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome.

6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.

7 O remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

8 The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thine eyes are upon me, and I am not.

9 As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.

10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.

11 Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;

14 Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions:

21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Bildad sheweth God's justice. 8 He alleggeth antiquity to prove the certain destruction of the hypocrite. 20 He applieth God's just dealing to Job.

THEN answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?

3 Doth God pervert judgment? or doth the Almighty pervert justice?

4 If thy children have sinned against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression;

5 If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;

6 If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.

7 Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase.

16 Let me enjoy the few years that remain.

26 Job implies that man is so insignificant in God's sight that God should not find it necessary to constantly watch over him, punishing his every failure, if he be such a sinner; there is some other reason for his sufferings.

27 Ie turn thine eyes from me.

28 Grant me a little respite – sufficient time to swallow my spittle. A proverb expressing a brief moment.

29 Job concedes that he is a sinner but questions whether his sin is such as to justify such punishment). LXX = "If I have sinned." Job is not conscious of any particular sin he has committed.

POETRY FROM THE ANCIENTS

In Vv 11-19. Bildad appears to be quoting from the proverbs of the ancients – words which doubtless Job knew – but which are now given a personal twist.

Bildad must justify Job's previous prosperity in the light of his theory that the wicked inevitably suffer, and does so by the application of this ancient proverb to Job.

"ARCTURUS WITH HIS SONS." Job 38:31-32. "Astronomers have ascertained that this giant of the sky, at least a million times larger than our own sun, flies through space with its retinue of worlds or 'sons' at the rate of more than 400,000 m.p.h., or at nearly 9 times the speed of Mercury, or 10 times that of the earth. Surely only Omnipotence can 'guide Arcturus and his sons' on their mad rush through space." – Starland p135.

4 JOB'S ANSWER TO BILDAD: HE DOES NOT KNOW WHY HE SUFFERED. Ch1 9,10.

1 GOD IS JUST Vv 1-3.

Yahweh's answer Ch 40:2. Could not vindicate himself once in a 1,000 questions. In other words – all have sinned – including Bildad (And all are guilty before God. Rom 3:19-23. But Cp. 33:23.

2 GOD IS OMNISCIENT AND OMNIPOTENT 4-15.

2 As Creator Vv 8-9 He has power to do this. Cp Job 28:9. Ps. 46:2; 114:6 Zech. 14:4-5

3 Eg. the foundations of the earth. Job did not believe that the earth was literally supported on pillars as it sometimes alleged. Cp Job 26:7.

4 The Sun, the king of the heavenly bodies is subject to divine law. Gen 1:14-18. Cp. Exod. 10:21-22, Josh. 10:12.

5 Shuts them away by the interposition of clouds.

6 The vast, illimitable vault of heaven speaks of His majesty, infinity and omnipotence. Gen. 1:6-7. Ps. 33:6. 136:4 40:22. 42:5.

7 There is perhaps nothing more irresistible nor awe-inspiring than a storm at sea – but even this is subject to God. Ps. 93:4. Isa. 17:13.

8 Heb. ASH – The assembled. Yet Yah has made, numbered and named the stars. Gen. 1:14. Isa. 40:26. Ps. 147:4 so that they witness to His power and purpose. See further reference to this constellation. Job 38:31-32. Amos 5:8. See note above.

14 Job refers to Job. 1:21.

16 If the earth is shaken & mountains moved by His power, if the hosts of heaven obey His behest, if men of exalted rank are prostrated by Him, how can I presume to dispute with God?

17 Though Job was confident in His personal righteousness, he would accept God's decision in the matter, recognising He is both Just and Wise. Instead, he would supplicate Him.

18 He would doubt the evidence of his senses – even the audible voice of God. Cp Job 33:12-13. He is so exalted & lofty as to refuse to enter into discussion with mortal man. He acts dictatorially as a sovereign without giving His reasons. Vv 17. Not reasonably like a judge. Cp Vv 15

1 Then Job answered and said,

2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should man be just with God?

4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not which overturneth them in his anger.

6 Which shaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.

7 Which commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars.

8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.

9 Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south.

10 Which doeth great things past finding out; yea, and wonders without number.

11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.

9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)

10 Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?

11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flag grow without water? (Or my Reed-grass)

12 Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.

13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish:

14 Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider's web.

15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.

16 He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.

17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

18 If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.

20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers:

21 Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.

22 They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Job, acknowledging God's justice, sheweth there is no contending with him. 22 Man's innocency is not to be condemned by afflictions.

6. Bildad is preparing to quote from the writings of these good men before & apply them to Job.

7. We do not live as long as they did & therefore lack their wisdom & experience.

8. These luxuriant water plants gave the appearance of lasting prosperity while conditions were propitious. But they rapidly declined when the water was withdrawn – as it regularly was in Egypt. Thus they represented the hypocrite who was inevitably punished and so revealed as such.

9. They seem to flourish, but it is only for a time.

10. Short-lived and unsubstantial.

11. Like the spider does its web.

12. Like a succulent creeper.

13. Before the heat of the sun lights upon it.

14. Every evidence of lasting prosperity.

15. The succulent creeper covers over the heap of stones & thus hides the lack of depth of earth for roots. In this it is like the hypocrite.

16. "If" – See V. 4. & "Yet." The sun lights upon it and destroys it. Despite its appearance of succulence and permanence, it is quickly dried up.

17. The very earth that once gave it nourishment now seems to repudiate it. There is nothing so despondent-looking in appearance than a withered creeper vine.

18. A sarcastic reference to the short-lived prosperity of the hypocrite.

19. He makes way for others.

5 APPLICATION TO JOB. Vv. 20-22.

20 Bildad's inference is ironical in view of God's estimation of Job. Job 1:1. The principle is right, but the application to Job is wrong. Cp Job 42:7 & 8:1-3.

21 Ge Mg. See Isa. 12:6. Acts 5:16.

22 Bull. "Then wait" – and He'll thy mouth with laughter & till." RV. "He will yet fill."

JOB'S ANSWER – Chps 9, 10.

Bildad had upheld Eliphaz who had set forth the theory of exact retribution – that suffering is an evidence of sin, claiming that to state otherwise would be to set forth that God is not just. Job 4:17. In reply, Job acknowledges that God alone is just, for no man is absolutely free of sin. Job 4:17-5. He acknowledges God's omniscience and omnipotence, and recognises that man should not presume to sit in judgment on His actions. Vv. 4-15. He recognises his feebleness in comparison with God's power and declares that if he set up to justify himself against the declared revelation of God he would be self-condemned. Vv. 16-21. However, he repudiates that suffering is an evidence of sin in every case. Vv. 22-24. At the same time, advancing his own extreme sufferings, Job confesses confusion as to their cause and purpose, and would that he had a "daysman" to intercede on his behalf and secure an answer of peace. Vv. 25-35. In Ch. 10 he turns directly to God seeking the reason why He should treat him so, urging that he knows of no cause in himself for His. Vv. 1-12. He recognises his utter confusion. Vv. 13-17, and pleads for some alleviation of his condition before death claims him. Vv. 18-22.

3 HE ACTS DICTATORIALLY WITHOUT REVEALING HIS PURPOSE. Vv. 16-21.

ORION: THE POWERFUL ONE. Job 9:9.

The most brilliant & splendid of all the constellations, containing 78 stars including a most remarkable nebula, the centre of which is empty. It is shaped like a colossal cave described as "the open space of Orion." "This yawning abyss is thought to have a diameter of sixteen trillion and 750 billion miles. If so, since the diameter of the orbit of the earth is one hundred & eighty six million miles, 90000 of these orbits side by side, forming one straight line could enter the appalling chasm." — In Starland, F. Chase. "This nebula in the sword of the constellation Orion is computed to be 2,200,000,000,000,000,000 or two trillions, two hundred thousand billions times larger than the sun."

20 Cp Ch. 7:19.
21 His sufferings are beyond what he can endure and beyond what he felt was just.
22 He could not successfully dispute God's power.
23 He had no advocate to take up his case on his behalf.
24 Without an advocate to help him, he would say wrong things that would be self-condemnatory. His very sufferings could blind his eyes to facts and move him to speak without proper thought.
25 Job does not claim to be without sin, but rather, his sins are not commensurate to his sufferings.
26 If I claimed to be perfect, it would prove that I did not know myself.
27 Justify his condemnation.

4 SUFFERING IS NOT ALWAYS AN EVIDENCE OF SIN. VV 22-24.

RV: "It is all one; therefore I say—" It is all the same whether one is wicked or not — he suffers, so that nothing can be argued about the character of a person from the experiences he has.
Both suffer. Ps 90:3. Ecc 2:14-16. Dan. 1:15-16. Luke 13:1-5.
To man God seems indifferent to his sufferings. He does not interpose to relieve them though He has the power to do so. Cf. Job 21:7; 12:6. Ps. 144:22. Heb. 11:36-37.
Those of discernment are caused to mourn. Cp 2 Sam. 15:30; 19:4; Est. 6:12; 7:8. Jer. 44:4.
RV: "If it be not he, who then is it?" — If God does not do it, who does?

5 THEREFORE JOB SEEKS TO KNOW THE CAUSE OF HIS EXTREME SUFFERINGS VV 25-35.

40 Therefore the combat would be unequal. Job would be overawed in his presence, & feel the need of a go between or advocate.

30 If I wash myself with snow water, and [v] make my hands never so clean;
31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall [y] abhor me.
32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and [z] we should come together in judgment.

PLEIADES. Ch 9:9: Rend. "the seven stars." Amos 5:8. "the sweet influences of Pleiades" Job. 38:31. Six points of light are seen by the naked eye, & the ancients said that the seventh had been lost. The telescope, however, revealed it — and also revealed the cluster to comprise 50 or more stars. The Pleiades arise in the Spring, and were to the ancients the herald of such, and so constituted "the sweet influences" Job 38:31. (See alternative rend.), pointing to immortality. But see comment on Amos 5:8. More powerful telescopes trained upon the Pleiades reveal clusters containing thousands of stars.

JOB'S CONFUSION. His friends justify God's treatment of him by claiming that he is guilty. This Job repudiates – but why does he suffer? Did he derive pleasure from it? Job 10:3. Was His vision defective as man's is 10:4? Was He fallible, governed by human prejudices 10:5-7? These are impossible suggestions – but what is the alternative for such bitter trials as Job experienced? God had brought him to birth (vv.8-11), lavished blessings upon him V.12, then plunged him into greatest trial. Why? Job realised others suffered Job 9:22. What was the purpose? Later he discovered that others benefited as well as himself Job 42. Heb 5:11-9. Let us try to learn the same lesson through less-er trouble.

Zophar reproveth Job.

18 "If I sinned then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity.
15 If I be wicked, woe unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see thou mine affliction;
16 For it increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion: and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me.
17 Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; changes and war are against me.
18 Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me!
19 I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
20 Are not my days few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,
21 Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death;

CHAPTER 11

1 Zophar reproveth Job. 13 Blessing of repentance.

THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified?
3 Should thy lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?
4 For thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes.
5 But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;
6 And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth.
7 Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection?
8 It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?
9 The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.
10 If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?
11 For he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?
12 For vain man would be wise, though man be born like a wild ass's colt.
13 If thou prepare thine heart, and stretch out thine hands toward him;
14 If iniquity be in thine hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.
15 For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yea, thou shalt be stedfast, and shalt not fear:
16 Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:
17 And thine age shall be clearer than the noonday: thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.
18 And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yea, thou shalt dig about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.
19 Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yea, many shall make suit unto thee.

ZOPHAR THE NAAMATHITE – Zophar sig689 MUST be sinful seeing that trouble has come, but Zophar declares Job is sinful because his teaching demands it. He is the less courteous and more drastic of the three, though that may have been due to impatience as he heard Job refute his friends' arguments. Job had logically refuted that the "law of exact retribution" was obviously wrong in that both righteous & wicked suffer Job 9:22, and he had appealed for further light. All that Zophar could offer was that God knew Job's sins, even though hidden from Job & as God is just Job should seek repentance.

If Zophar had ended here, Job might have taken hope from his suggestion of restoration - but he must have a final dig at Job.

JOB'S REPLY. Zophar's air of superiority aroused the ire of Job, who answered with heavy sarcasm: "Thou art the people, without doubt, & wisdom shall die with you!" He declared that his understanding was not inferior to theirs both wise and omnipotent V.7 - 13:2. From these premises he proceeds to show that he has thought on the problem more deeply than his friends (Cp Ch. 13:1-2), but now desires to set his own case personally before God. God is just so that there must be an answer to his problem (Ch. 13:3-13). He then reverently speaks with God (Ch. 13: 14-28), pleading for an explanation of his

6 JOB'S ANSWER TO ZOPHAR: GOD ALONE CAN EXPLAIN THE MYSTERY OF HIS SUFFERINGS 12, 13, 14.

1 JOB'S KNOWLEDGE NOT INFERIOR TO THAT OF HIS FRIENDS VV. 1-5.

1 The attitude and teaching of his friends have made Job bitterly ironical.

2 The facts they are advancing (that the theory based on them) are well known — matters of common knowledge.

You accuse me of mockery Job 11:3, but you have mocked me. Cp Ch. 11:2-3, 11, 13, 20.

4 Job reminds them that they are mocking one who was deeply religious, and whose prayers in the past had been answered.

5 RV: "In the thought of him that is at ease there is contempt for misfortune; it is ready for them whose feet slippeth." — "It" = contempt. Job's foot had slipped into misfortune.

2 TWO INCONTESTABLE FACTS VV. 6-25.

A THE WICKED PROSPER IN SPITE OF THE DOGMA OF HIS FRIENDS. V. 6.

6 Job reverts to this fact Job 9:24; 21:7-15. Cp Ps. 73:3, 12; 73:11-12; Jer. 5:27. Cp Jeremiah's query. Jer. 12:1.

B CREATION WITNESSES TO THE OMNIPOTENCE AND ORDER OF GOD VV. 7-25.

God has absolute direction of all creation.

7 Zophar had professed an exalted knowledge of God Job 11:6-12. Job replies that his knowledge is elementary — and even the lower creation could help to educate him. Cp Ch. 11:2.

Later God teaches Job from the same source Job 38-39. Among the beasts the fierce, rapacious & violent successfully preyed on the meek & inoffensive. (This will not always be — Isa. 11:6). Yet God is over all — Ps. 104:21-30.

8 The same lesson taught — whilst the instincts of birds, their amazing inbuilt migratory habits point to Divine order & guidance.

9 That the fierce & ferocious prey on the feeble — God has appointed it thus.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Experience teaches the facts of Job's observations. Natural creation finds beasts preying one upon another. History reveals the wisdom and ability of man often frustrated. Obviously God is behind all this, but what is His purpose? That is not openly revealed. Neither is it in the case of Job, the theory of his friends notwithstanding.

This ended the first triad. Perhaps it was at the close of the day, and the friends retired to ponder the results of their discussion.

JOB 14. THE DEATH WAIL OF HUMANITY The record of creation Gen. 1:26; 2:7 sets forth the dignity of man as the crown of creation Ps. 8:6 as the handiwork of God Job 10:8; Ps. 100:3; Matthew as the image of his Maker (Col. 9:6; Acts 17:28; 1 Cor. 11:7; Jam. 3:9). Job now supplies the companion picture of the misery of man by represent-ing him as (1) Descended from woman, the weaker vessel 1 Pet. 3:7; first in the transgression 1 Tim. 2:14. (2) A creature of the dust coming forth as a flower & fading in like manner Ps. 90:5-6; Isa. 15; Jam. 1:10. (3) Insubstantial as a shadow that moves across the earth and then vanishes. Ps. 102:11; 144:4. (4) An unclean thing revealing itself as such.

2 God is open to such an approach Isa. 1:18; Eph. 2:6. Job desires it Job 9:34-35. His friends, however, by their in-terference & their treating of their argu-ments prevent it.
3 Or their theory. Job 4:7-8; 8:13-14; 11:11, 14, 20.
4 They had done so for 7 days 2:13. They should have remained ever.
JOB'S APPEAL TO HIS FRIENDS 6-18
5 Their hearers accustomed to that though they did not intend it.
6 In seeking to justify God in the light of Job's case, they have been forced into a position where they have not been able to exercise impar-tiality, therefore leaning heavily to-wards Him, they have spoken wickedly on His behalf.
7 Reveal the stupidity of your theories.
8 Do you think you can deceive God, or that He will not condemn your theories merely because you claim to speak in His support?
9 SEARCH - Exploration.
10 Cause you to hesi-tate to speak? so await His revela-tion.
11 RV: "Your memor-able sayings are pro-verbs of ashes." They had relied on so-called wise sayings! Job 4:7-8; 8:8-11.
12 RV: "Your defen-ces are defences of clay." - Your argu-ments are weak.
13 He must speak, he must defend him-self, or he would die Ch. 6:19.
14 If he is in the wrong let God punish Him.
15 To eat one's own flesh is to do oneself harm Ecc. 4:5; Isa. 49:26. This sentence is better as a declar-ation, not a question.

19 He is anxious to present his cause before God, especially as he has not been able to move his friends. But how to begin - with whom will he plead! Who will represent God? Elihu hears and waits Job. 33:6.
20 Before the contest commences, Job voices two conditions V.21. (1) That God will relieve his bodily sufferings for a time. (2) That for the same time he might be relieved from his mentally suffering as heretofore Ch. 6:4; 7:16; 9:34.

26 In reviewing his case Job can only conclude that [redacted] in view of the claims of his friends & in bringing up against him some youthful failings.
A well known form of punish-ment Job 7:21. Elihu takes up this charge Job 33:11.

30 RV: "Though I am like a rotten thing that consumeth." BALAH - to wear out, decay - Str. Emphasizing his weakness in contrast to God's power.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Such a one is born into a con-stitution of sin Cp. Job 15:14; 25:4. Ps. 51:5; Matt. 19:11; Rom. 5:12-21.
2 Job 7:1, 6; 9:25; Gen. 47:9; Ps. 39:5; 90:10.
3 Insubstantial.
4 One of the great miracles of life is that God condescends to do so. Ps. 8:4; Job 7:17; 15:14.
5 and so takes heed of man.
6 The thought of being brought to judgment by such a One - Divine, Perfect, and untouched by human frailty, inspires one with fear 2 Cor. 5:11; Heb. 4:12-13; 1 Thes. 4:11. However, Job came to learn that God is not only Divine, and untouched by human frailty, but is also just and merciful. Job 42:7-8; Rom. 5:11. See His provision for weak humanity John 5:22; Heb. 4:15; 7:25; 1 Tim. 2:1.
7 A reference to the weakness of flesh of one born of a woman? Job 15:14, 25:4-6; Gen. 8:21; Ps. 51:5; 90:5; John 3:6; Rom. 5:12-19; 8:3, 8-9. Recognised by mercy Luke 2:21-24. This unclean thing invariably sins Rom. 3:9, bringing it under the judgment and wrath of God Eph. 2:3; Rev. 6:16-17. Only God can bring a clean thing out of the unclean, and this He did in His Son Rom. 1:3; Luke 1:35 and has made it possible by a new birth, for man to be cleansed 1 John 1:7-9. This at Calv. crucifixion Gal. 5:24.
8 Seeing man is but a frail mor-tal. Cp. Job 7:17-18.
R.V. "Look away from him" Job pleads that in view of the weakness of frail mortals

JOB'S QUANDARY. He did not realise that his sufferings not only helped to perfect his character but would also play a necessary part in the proper education and redemption of his friends. In this he typed Christ Heb. 4:15-16; 5:1-2, 8-9 and is cited as an example of a righteous man whose intercession saved others. Ezek. 14:14,20. His trials were more difficult to endure because he was ignorant of this and so he is found constantly pleading with God for enlightenment. But if this had been given to Job earlier than it was, his experience would have failed in the purpose of God to set forth a principle in adversity for the encouragement

10 Who is relieved and pleased when the heavy day's work is done.

JOB PERPLEXED AND DEPRESSED. Vv.16-22. It seemed to him that God only sought out his sins, storing them up against him. Such treatment heaped upon weak mortal man imposed an intolerable load under which he must wilt away. To the perplexed Job there was no real cause or purpose in his sufferings; it was that he was plunged into a state of utter depression, so that hope was taken away.

|| GEBER - A valiant man or warrior. The greatest of men.

12 Eccl. 12:7 God's power by which creation is sustained: Job 26:13; 33:4; 34:14. It pervades all creation. See Ps. 104:29-30.

13. Rivers and seas are subject to this, so that where they once were they no longer are. For example, the Aralian Gulf has silted up, so that today no evidence of sea remains where once it extended.
The natural heavens are appointed forever Ps. 148:4-6, but the political heavens are to pass away Ps. 102:26; Isa. 51:6; 2 Pet. 3:10 at which time the responsible shall be raised from their sleep. Cp Isa. 65:17, 66:22; Rev. 20:11; 21:1.

Cp Job 13:15.
At the Judgment Seat, he will have confidence because a complete revelation will be given. Cp 1 John 2:28 Cf. Job 13:22. See Ps. 50:4-5.

20 A character shaped and moulded by Yahweh. Phil. 2:13. Isa. 60:21. 1 Pet. 4:19. Ps. 138:8. Job realises that his character was the result of God's influence. He therefore would have confidence in the day of judgment. Cp his expostulations vs. 10:3,8.

23 RV: "But." Job contrasts his present state with that of the future. He has no confidence. For some reason, it seems, God is angry with him — observing each step in case he makes a false one, apparently seeking to find but his sins without any heed of his righteous deeds. Cp Job 10:14.

24 Cp Deut. 32:34. Instead of revealing & forgiving his sin & transgression, it seems as though God has carefully stored them up so that they can be produced at any time. If the theory of the friends is right, God has added all his sins together to make one large total.

and help for all in all times. This is that we should trust in God at all times and under all circumstances, the experiences of Job, the prophets and the Lord bearing witness Jam. 5:10-11. Job "endured" in spite of his lack of knowledge thus becoming an object lesson for all who would take heed to do so patiently realising that in His dealings with the "righteous and the wicked" the "Judge of all the earth doeth right" Gen. 18:25. Job's trial was thus a trial of faith, and through faith he gained the victory. See 1 John 5:4.

692 23 A mountain overthrown by earthquake cannot be restored.
26 RV: "The overflowing thereof washeth away the dust of the earth."
27 When God moves against man violently as when an earthquake shatters a mountain Job felt that God had acted against him in that fashion Cp Gn. 19:10.
28 This is a repetition of the statement of Eliphaz Ch. 4:20. He had claimed that this was the fate of evil men only. Job claims it is not so, but it is the fate of those against whom God moves violently as in the case of the mountain — and himself. If that is due to sin, then God must watch for every little misdemeanour and store them up for judgment W. 16-17. How can weak man prevail against God!

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety. 17 The unquietness of wicked men.

3 Should he reason with [k] unprofitable talk? or with speeches wherewith he [i] can do no good?

ELIPHAZ' SE
Why do you allow your feelings to dominate over truth?
KHAM - To tremble (in reverence) - Str. for Job's fearful expression had indicated his contempt of Eliphaz' reasoning.
This is a mere "beating of the air" or toying of words. Job had endorsed this portion Ch. 9:2, 10:11 but had also claimed that he would be justified from the aspersions of his friends! He does not claim to be sinless 7:20, 13:26 RV: "How much more one that is abominable & corrupt." i.e. Job himself.
RV: "a man." The reference seems to be to Job himself.
THE VOICE OF EXPERIENCE PROVES JOB A SINNER. 17-35
vv 17-19 = a introduction to the alleged teaching of sages of ancient dating back to after the Flood or Creation. In vv. 20-35 elaborate & varied arguments are advanced to show that the wicked cannot possibly escape being miserable and experiencing their richly deserved punishment.
RV: "Even the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor."
Reference to Job. Cp. 12:5 - trouble word.
No hope of escaping his approaching misery. Cp Job 20:21-22
The day of death is near. Job felt this 10:20.
He fights against God as though a spear is in his hand.
RV: "with a stiff neck." The wicked man is described as fighting God. He is like a bull charging its enemy.
RV: "with" h the metaphor of a bull is replaced by that of a warrior.
The course of his further impiety if his prosperity continue.
Not only impious and greedy, but violent and rapacious, acquiring riches by war, driving the inhabitants away.
Despite his apparent success.

1 ELIPHAZ SECOND SPEECH. JOB'S WORDS CONDEMN HIM AND ARE CONTRARY TO EXPERIENCE. VV 1-35
1 HIS ARGUMENT: PROVE HIM TO BE IMPIOUS 1-16
1 Cp Mtg Scene Job 6, 7. The wind is noisy, sweeps all before it, & is always changing.
2 The most destructive of winds.
Cp Hos. 12:1.
3 Eliphaz claims Job does not show proper reverence for God. Perhaps he has in mind such bold expressions as Job 13:3, 15, 15, 16, 18, 22, 24, etc.
4 SIYACH - Meditation. RV: Devotion. Cognate word rend. "meditation" Ps. 119:97
Job's attitude is superficial - it lacks real thought
5 A more direct thrust than Job 5:12. Same word as subtle Gen. 3:1.
2 HIS ATTITUDE REVEAL HIM TO BE CONCEITED & ARROGANT. 7-16
6 Is your experience or knowledge greater than ours?
7 RV: "Secret counsel" No mention of her. Cp Jer. 23:18; Mk 13:32. Acts 1:6; Rom. 11:34. 1 Cor. 2:10-12.
8 Job indulged in same sarcasm against his friends 12:2.
9 Job has admitted that age & experience count Cp 12:12. Now Eliphaz claims that of this & previous generations are on their side.
10 By this Eliphaz means his own theory.

ELIPHAZ. (cont.) grounds of experience? 693
what he has seen and learned Vv 17-35.
In this speech his tone is much severer, as he has become exasperated with Job. It is also much shorter as he runs out of arguments. His rigid theory is epitomised in the statement: "Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished being innocent? Or where were the upright cut off?" Job 4:7

are but thinly disguised allusions to Job which must have cut him to the quick and increased his sufferings. In this speech he claims it is only the wicked who suffer.

Bildad Ch.18 insists that the wicked always suffer. Zophar declares Ch.20 that any seeming prosperity of the wicked is short-lived. Job answers each. In his first speech Ch.4,5 Eliphaz had shown some consideration for Job, exhorting him to return to God. In this speech he argues as though Job was beyond help. Job replies in a tone of bitterness + distress, turning first to his friends and then to God - and back again. His endurance is almost at an end. He tells Eliphaz that his arguments are commonplace v2. empty v3. governed by irritability v3 facile v4. thoughtless v5.

JOB'S CONFIDENCE IN DIVINE JUSTICE CH 17.

He is confident that death was near Ch 16:22-17:1 but also Divine justice would somehow be asserted Ch 17:9. Because of that he desired a pledge that God would hear and adjudicate his case Ch 16:21; 17:3. His friends had not the ability to do this because their eyes were blinded through a false theory. Ch 17:4-6. Nevertheless upright men would consider his case, and would be roused to indignation against his friends V.8. As for him, he would maintain his course in the assurance of ultimate vindication V.9. Thus, though Job might not understand the purpose of God and might consider the burden he was caused to bear was in excess of any requirements, he did not doubt the final justice of God. 1:9.

Job reproveth his friends,

CHAPTER 17.

See Mg. He is at the end of his resources. But the text may be better. A fetid breath speaks of approaching discomfort from "Corrupt" = CHARAL - to wind strongly - giving the idea of strength. His breath was strong.

QUBURIM sepulchres. The plural probably relates to the various niches made in a tomb each to receive various bodies.

All that his eye can see are those provoking him.

RV: "Give now a pledge, be surety for me with Myself." In view of the incompetency of his friends to do so, Job appeals to God to be permitted to bring his cause directly to Him.

They had given him up as a prey to calamity + sin.

Proverbial expression - Shall receive dire punishment to the dismay of their children. Mat 5:22 i.e. a proverb. This was truer than Job realised. Jas 5:11 He meant that God had reduced him so as to cause all people to speak against him.

RV: "I am become an open abhorring" Because filled with fears. Weak, unstable. At the sufferings of one such as Job. That still remains the case, though they possess the Key in Heb 2:10 - perfect through suffering. At the extent of his sufferings. See note at top. Roused to indignation at the allegations of his friends. Job would not be deflected from his course by his friends. Time would prove and more establish his integrity.

JOB REPUDIATES FALSE HOPES OF RECOVERY: DEATH DRAWS NEAR Vv 10-16

16 Return to your attacks - I am ready for you.

18 I have not long to live - any plea for the future in vain.

19 My detractors refute V8. They claim I will never 25 Not merely as a temporary cover but permanently. Perhaps it adhered to his many open sores 2:7.

26 His pride + dignity. Job 21:8. The dark shadows under the eyes of the drawn face portend death.

RV: "Although there is no violence in my hands." The accusations of his friends were unjust + Job wanted justice. Therefore, when blood remained as a dark blot upon the earth it figuratively cried for vindication. Cp Isa 26:21; or revenge Ezek. 24:7.

RV: "Even now" Job claims God for his Witness, + looks to Him for the ultimate vindication of his character, though he cannot understand the purpose of His present treatment of him. Cp Job 19:25-27.

RV: "He that vouches for me." This is a tremendous testimony to his faith in view of his intense sufferings.

32 He had to live with such. Cp Ch 30:11-13.

33 Though he may feel that he had been hardly treated, though he uttered complaints regarding his sufferings (for they were extreme) the idea has never entered his head of looking elsewhere for help, nor [illegible] re- course to any other support or stay. Cp Job 13:15. Thus but "the dregs" he cries unto

4 HE DECLARES THAT HE HAS BUT A SHORT TIME TO LIVE V.22-CH 17:1

See Note Ch 10:21. Job is referring to the finality of death + not to the fact of resurrection in which he believes Job 14:14-15; 19:25-27. See for similar expression Ps 39:13 Isa 38:11.

694 recover on their terms. Cp Job 5:18-26; 8:21-22; 11:15-19. Job did recover, but not on their basis or premise.

20 RV: "If I look for Sheol" etc - where is then my hope. Cp V.15 Job desired death and saw no hope apart from it.

21 Regard himself as already there.

22 Thou art my close relation - I am joined to it with close ties as a son to his father.

BILDAD'S SECOND SPEECH: THE WICKED ALWAYS SUFFER 1-21

LEADER OF JOB FOR INTERPRETATION SPEECH VV 1-4

1 A concise speech - Bildad is angered by the length of Job's replies.

2 RV: "Consider." Take heed to what you have said + listen to our replies.

3 "Gaping upon him" Job 16:9,10.

4 RV: "Thou that tearest Thyself in Thine anger." Job had accused his friends of doing this to him 16:9. Bildad replied that Job did it to himself.

Job had respected things of God which would have revealed the course of nature Job 14:1-6; 9:32-35; 17:3; 21:4-11. Bildad reproaches Job without thought of his trials.

THE INEVITABLE FATE OF THE WICKED 5-21

Bildad strives to gather a number of apparently proverbial sayings which therefore have come down in them since the days of Job.

5 His lamp + his light. Prov 20:20.

6 His whole house that suffer.

7 RV: "His lamp above him shall be put out." - come violently to an end. Ps 18:28.

8 His activity shall be confined Lit - Ps 18:16.

9 SEBAKAH - Network - Covered pitfall.

10 RV: "A noose is hid" - Bildad has listed 6 forms of hunting, indicating the different ways in which the wicked can be taken unexpectedly.

11 Vague fears. Cp Job's words 3:25; 6:4; Jer 4:28; 13:21.

12 RV: "and shall chase him at his feet." Like the pursuit of wild dogs or wolves.

BILDAD'S SECOND SPEECH

See note top p. 686. The first speech had been an appeal [1] this one is a rebuke. Eliphaz had insisted that only the wicked suffer Ch 15. Bildad now adds that they invariably do so. He presses his point against Job personally with brutal forthrightness. Probably angered by Job's contemptuous words concerning his "comforters" 16:2, 11; 17:10, he casts Job as a "wicked man" vv. 5, 21.

SUMMARY OF THE FATE OF THE WICKED

- His material prosperity fails vv 5-10
- He is afflicted by terrors & deadly disease vv 11-13
- His family is cut off vv 15-17
- He becomes an object of general abhorrence vv 18-21.

My hopes and expectations.
The prison-house of the grave Zech 9:11-12.
Bald: "And rest together with me in the dust."

CHAPTER 18
BILDAD'S 2nd SPEECH: THE WICKED ALWAYS SUFFER 1-21
REBUKE OF JOB FOR INTEMPERATE SPEECH vv 1-4

A concise speaker himself, Bildad is angered by the length of Job's replies.
RV: "Consider." Take heed to what you have said & listen to our replies.
"Leaping upon him" Eccl. 9.
RV: "Thou that tearest thyself in thine anger" Job had accused his friends of doing this to him
Bildad replied that Job did ill to himself.
Job had neglected things of God which would have reversed the course of nature Job 1:1-6, 9:32-35, 11:7; 21:27. Bildad reproaches Job without thought of his trials.

THE INEVITABLE FATE OF THE WICKED 5-21.

Bildad strings together a number of apparently proverbial sayings which though true in themselves become false when applied to Job.
His splendour, glory Prov. 4:19.
His whole house shall suffer.
RV: "His lamp above him shall be put out" - come violently to an end. Ps. 18:28.
His activity shall be confined Lk. 9:16.
SEBÂKÂH - Net work - Covered pitfall.
RV: "Another is his" - Bildad has listed 6 forms of hunting, indicating the different ways in which the wicked can be taken unexpectedly.
Vague fears. Cp Job's words 9:25, 64, 7:14, 9:28, 13:25.
RV: "and shall chase him at his feet." Like the pursuit of wild dogs or wolves.
Strength shall fail through hunger.
Ready to seize

695 ctrmake himself.
10. He can see no light in any direction.

From prosperity to calamity.
NÂDAD - To wave. He will be hurried to his grave - people will be glad to hear of his death.
RV: "son's son." Cp Job 1:19.
RV: "Where he sojourned." The wicked loses his family and is driven from his home - like Job!
At his fate Ps. 37:13.
Before and after are Hebrew expressions for east and west.
Knowledge of his fate shall spread from the west to the east.
This sums up Bildad's estimation of Job.

CHAPTER 19.
JOB'S ANSWER: HE APPEALS FOR PITY AND PROCLAIMS HIS CONFIDENCE IN HIS REDEEMER vv 1-29.

HE EXPOSTULATES WITH HIS FRIENDS vv 1-6

Cause of ten Deut. 28:2.
Job at no time maintained he never sinned Cp. Ch 14:17. He even acknowledges to intemperate speech 4:26, 9:14, 20.
I know where I have gone wrong and am prepared to suffer the consequences of it.
If you insist upon ignoring my words, and are still determined to reproach me with imagined wickedness - consider my condition: the severity of God's action against me vv 7-12, the manner in which his relations & friends have deserted him vv 13-19, the pain he suffered v 20 and if justice will not move them to abstain from persecuting him, desire for pity's sake v 21.
The reproach that Job made was that God had afflicted him. On that basis they claimed he was a dreadful sinner.
'ÂVATH - To wrest. To bend, make crooked, turn upside down &c. Hence to turn around or reverse. God had reverse His previous blessings into the present sufferings.
Bildad had claimed that Job had been taken in his own net. Ch 18:8

HE RECOUNTS HIS SUFFERINGS AT THE HAND OF GOD. Vv. 7-13.

RV: Mg: "I cry out, Violence" He appealed to God and made mention of the violence he suffered.
He is hemmed in on every side and knows not how to against his friends in the assurance might not understand the burden he [illegible] sorements, he did

CHAPTER 17.
See Mg. He is at the end of his resources. But the text may be better. A fetid breath speaks of approaching dissolution. "Corrupt" = CHÂBAL - to wind strongly - giving the idea of strength. His breath was strong.
QEBERIM) Sepulchres. The phrase probably relating to the various niches made in some such to receive various bodies.
All that his eye can see are those provoking him.
RV: "Give now a pledge, be surety for me with Myself." In view of the incompetency of his friends to do so, Job appeals to God to be permitted to bring his cause directly to Him Ch 19:7
They had given him up as a prey to calamity & sin.
Proverbial expression - Shall receive dire punishment, be the dismay of their children. Mat 5:22
I.e. a proverb. This was truer than Job realised Jas 5:11
He meant that God had reduced him so as to cause all people to speak against him.
RV: "I am become an open abhorring"
Because filled with fears.
Weak, unstable
At the sufferings of one such as Job. That still remains the case, though they possess the Key to Heb 2:10 - perfect through sufferings.
At the extent of his sufferings. See note at top.
Roused to indignation at the accusations of his friends.
Job would not be deflected from his course by his friends.
Time would more and more establish his integrity

JOB REPUDIATES FALSE HOPES OF RECOVERY: DEATH DRAWS NEAR Vv 10-16.

Return to your attacks - I am ready for you
You are all guilty of folly - an opinion later endorsed by God 42:7, 8.
I have not long to live - any plans for the future are vain.
My detractors refute vv. 11. they claim I will soon

REDEEMER - GOEL. "To redeem (according to the Oriental law of kinship - to be next of kin" Str. Rendered "kinsman" Ruth 4:1,3,6,8 "near kinsman" Ruth 3:9,12 "avenger" Num 35:12. Josh 20:3. "redeemer" Ps 19:14. 130. 47:4. 63:16. 44:24. 45:17. 54:8. 41:14. 49:26. 60:16. 43:14. 44:6. 49:7. 54:5. 54:10. 59:20. 63:16. The BOOK of Ruth illustrated the work of the GOEL, and established him as a near Kinsman. The Redeemer must have the right, the power + the will to redeem. The use of the term in relation to Yahweh presupposed that He must in some way reveal Himself as near-kinsman to mankind - and this, indeed was promised in the declaration of Gen 3:15.

11 His prosperity.
12 His dignity.
13 RV: "Broken me down." His affairs were in complete ruin and he is as good as perished.
14 RV: "plucked up."

9 He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.
10 He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree.
11 He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he [b] counteth me unto him as one of his enemies.
12 His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle.
13 He hath put my [c] brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me.

15 They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an (alien) in their sight.
16 I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I intreated him with my mouth.
17 My breath is strange to my wife, though I intreated for the children's sake of [8] mine own body.
18 Yea, [9] young children despised me; I arose, and they spake against me.
19 All [a] my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.
20 [d] My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth.
21 Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me.
22 Why do ye [e] persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?
23 [f] Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!
24 That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever!
25 For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth:
26 [2] And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God:
27 Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not [3] another; [4] though my reins be consumed [5] within me.
28 But ye should say, Why persecute we him, [6] seeing the root of the matter is found in me?
29 Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is a judgment.

Zophar sheweth the state and portion of the wicked.

THEN answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,
2 Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this [7] I make haste.
3 I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.

CHAPTER 20

5 ZOPHAR'S REPLY: ANY SEEMING PROSPERITY IS SHORT-LIVED 1-29.
See Note before 4:1.
1 ZOPHAR'S ANGRY ANSWER 1-3.
Because of Job's concluding rebuke + warning 19:28-29.
RV: "because of my haste that is in me." - Because of my impetuous spirit.
RV: "reproof that putteth me to shame."
He claims to answer from the standpoint of reason not from one's
2 PROSPERITY OF WICKED SHORT-LIVED 4-9
This is the stand taken by Eliphaz 4:8-11. 5:3-5. 15:21,34 + Bildad 8:11-19 but opposed by Job 21:7,8 who claims that retribution can be long delayed, though it will ultimately be received 24:24. 27:13-23.
Job has not disputed this - but Zophar has Job personally in mind. This is a refutation of 15:21-35.

ZOPHAR'S REPLY

It is more harsh than the first Ch. 11. He adds coarseness + rudeness to his previous hastily W 7,15. Roused by the closing warning of Job 19:28-29. Cp 20:2-3, his discourse is a covert denunciation of Job as a wicked hypocrite 5, 12, 19, 29. deservedly punished by God. He predicts the violent death of Job and the ultimate manifestation of heaven and earth in witness against him W 24-28.

7 He endorses Job's words 7:8-10 using them as vindication of his theory + to justify his claim that Job is a wicked hypocrite.

HIS RELATIONS AND FRIENDS TREAT HIM WITH HARSHNESS 13-19.

Treated Job with gross insolence.
For some necessary but probably distasteful service.
The fetid odor is offensive to her so that she has turned from him + no longer renders those services that were his due.
RV: "And my supplication to the children of my mother's womb." - Not much use turning to them Cp v. 13. Ch. 6:15
They probably mocked him upon the ashes, Ch. 2:8
RV: "If I arose they speak against me."
Those with whom he normally took counsel. The three friends would be among this number RV - present tense - abhor.

4 HIS PAINFUL DISEASE V. 20.

He is so emaciated that his bones seem to stick out of his skin Cp 33:21
The only functioning part of his body is the skin between his teeth - his tongue

5 HIS PLEA FOR PITY W 21-22

His friends would agree. But they would consider him unworthy of pity on the grounds that God had justly "smitten" + afflicted "him". Ps 73:14.
Without giving a sound reason for it.
Not satisfied to see me suffer, but add to it by imputing wrong motives.

6 JOB'S FAITH IN A REDEEMER 23-29.

His refutation of hypocrisy - of evil motives and actions, that the vindication of ~~him~~ it might be acknowledged. Job's wish was granted.
RV: "inscribed."
A public memorial inscribed in stone with letters cut out by a iron stylus and made permanent by being filled in with lead. More than this was done for they were recorded in Yahweh's Book of Life.

THE CALAMITIES EXPERIENCED BY THE WICKED 10-28

8 They will be reduced to seeking the help of those whom they oppressed.
9 He will be forced to make restitution to those whom he robbed (Cp Zaccheus Lk 19:8)
10 He is strong + lusty one moment + but overwhelmed the next. Cp Job's answer 21:22.
11 Though he delights in his wickedness.
12 Savouring its flavor.
13 He enjoys his wicked gains + is like an epicure who turns his food over + over in his mouth so he can continue to taste + enjoy it.
14 His "meat" turns to poison in his stomach. In other words, retribution suddenly overtakes him.
15 Sin, or the serpent shall inevitably bring its own punishment.
16 He shall not enjoy the fruits of (Godly symbolized by flowing brooks, rivers, brooks of honey etc. Cp Exod 3:8, 17.
17 He will have to part with even the froth of honest labor.
18 RV: "the substance that he hath gotten." - Whatever his success he shall not find happiness Ch 21:7-17. AV = he is forced to make restitution.
19 Zophar has Job personally in mind. See how Eliphaz makes the application more directly. 22:5-7. Cp. Job's denial of the charge 27:11-13.
20 He within him (RV mg). His greed is insatiable.
21 Kills Job every thing lost.
22 RV: "There was nothing left that he devoured not; therefore his prosperity shall not endure."
23 ʿAMEL - Toiling once, a laborer. Str. RV: "The hand of everyone that is in misery ..."
24 Sever more wickedness. Cp W 12-14.

ZOPHAR'S REPLY IS A VICIOUS ATTACK on Job personally Vv 6-7, 10-29.

19b The serpent uses its tongue to flick on the surface of earth, in search of mice or other prey.

6 JOB'S ANSWER: FACTS DEMONSTRATE THAT ZOPHAR IS WRONG. 1-34

1 JOB APPEALS FOR A CAREFUL CONSIDERATION OF HIS REMARKS Vv 1-6.

4 Be quiet
5 He is overwhelmed at the thought of the impiety of the wicked – and the manner in which they pervert their wickedness without apparent restraint.

2 THE WICKED ARE OFTEN AS PROSPEROUS AS THEY ARE IMPIOUS 7-15.

6 Zophar had claimed the contrary 20:5.
7 Contrast 20:10.

ZOPHAR'S REPLY: ANY SEEMING PROSPERITY SHORT-LIVED 1-29.

See Note bottom 694

1 ZOPHAR'S ANGRY ANSWER 1-3.

Because of Job's concluding remarks warning 19:28-29.
RV: "because of my haste that is in me." – Because of my impetuous spirit.
RV: "reproof that putteth me to shame."
He claims to answer from the standpoint of reason not from anger.

2 PROSPERITY OF WICKED SHORT-LIVED 4-9

This is the stand taken by Eliphaz 4:8-11. 5:3-5. 15:21,29 & Bildad 8:11-19 but opposed by Job 21:7,13. Who claims that retribution can be long delayed, though it will ultimately be received 24:24. 27:13-23.
6 Job has not disputed this – but Zophar has Job personally in mind. This is a refutation of 19:25-27.

JOB'S REPLY.

Job answers with devastating logic. Whereas his friends had theorised upon sin and judgment and had proclaimed as truth what they would like to see – all wicked-ness instantly judged, Job points to facts the wicked often prosper throughout life & die in the midst of happiness Ps. 73. Therefore their premise is wrong – their imputations against him also without foundation.
But this still leaves unresolved the main question: Why did God bring suffering on a righteous man?

10 Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the [a] organ.

13 They spend their days [3] in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

14 Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and [c] what profit should we have, if we pray unto him?

16 Lo, their good is not in their hand: [d] the counsel of the wicked is far from me.

17 How oft is the [e] candle of the wicked put out! and how oft cometh their destruction upon them! God distributeth sorrows in his anger.

18 They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm [g] carrieth away.

19 God layeth up [h] his iniquity [i] for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

20 His eyes shall see his destruction, and [f] he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

22 [g] Shall any teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

23 One dieth [4] in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

24 His [5] breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow.

25 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

26 They shall lie down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For ye say, Where is the house of the prince? and where are [2h] the dwelling places of the wicked?

29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens,

30 That the wicked is [b] reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to [4] the day of wrath.

31 Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done?

32 Yet shall he be brought to the [5] grave, and shall [6] remain in the tomb.

33 The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.

34 How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth [9] falsehood?

1 Eliphaz sheweth that man's goodness profiteth not God. 5 He accuseth Job of divers sins. 21 He exhorteth him to repentance, with promises of mercy.

They maintained that God recompensed them in this life so that they might know it. The RV has: "Let him recompense it unto himself and he shall know it" "Let his eyes see . . . Let him drink . . . " v. 20. That construction makes this Job's answer to their claim that God punishes the wicked in their children — a teaching contrary to Ezek. 18:20.

He judges Job from the punishment he received.

ELIPHAZ' ANSWER

He presses the same philosophy that the wicked always suffer, but does so with greater vehemence possibly because he finds Job's arguments difficult to refute. Boldly he accuses Job of specific sins vv. 5-10, smugly claims that he does not suffer because he is righteous vv. 19-20, and irritatingly calls on Job to repent vv. 23-30.

4 CHEPHETS - Pleasure, desire, done - Valuable. There is no actual "gain" to God, but He does derive pleasure (diff. word) from it. Ps. 147:11. 149:4. It would have been wiser for Eliphaz to allow God to express Himself on that point.

3 RV: "Surely he that is wise is profitable unto himself." Such can only help himself not God.

Eliphaz inferred that if Job's observations were true, God it must be because men render some profitable service to God, or be unable God to punish Eliphaz accuses Job of permitting his tongue to express thoughts, to indulge in strong assertion. Seems.

9 This was completely false Job 19:18. 1:8

10 False 29:11-12.

11 This again was a false premise. God was putting Job to the faithful, though none of the parties knew it. See Note p. 681.

This was a fact 1916 - though not for the reason Eliphaz ascribes.

3 JOB ACCUSED OF IMPIETY 22:4

1 Eliphaz falsely implies Job fails to acknowledge the omnipotence & omniscience of God

Eliphaz falsely infers this from what Job has said probably in such statements as 9:22. 21:21-26. Ps 97:2. 1 Kings 8.

12. In claiming that Job taught this Eliphaz maligned and misrepresented him.

JOB'S ANSWER

Job's answer is full of emotion. He complains that the extent of his sufferings is not appreciated V.2, and then expresses his earnest desire for a revelation from God. Ch.23. In Ch. 24 he more calmly presses home the fact that many wicked do prosper and no judgment comes upon them. He specifies many such: oppressors, thieves, murderers and so forth. The facts are indisputable and Eliphaz and Zophar make no further answer. Bildad alone gives a feeble platitudinous reply - but it is evident he cannot match Job's arguments.

INJUSTICES MANIFESTED IN LIFE Ch.24:2-24 WHY???

Robbery, oppression and violence continue often unchecked by God. ● Flocks of marauders roam at large, without restraint, swooping down on fields of standing corn, lying in wait all night, enduring every discomfort to gain their ends Vv 5-8. ● Others, landowners, unscrupulously remove landmarks, or violently rob their neighbors of their flocks, oppressing widow, the poor & the meek 2-4. ● In the city wickedness is manifested openly. 7-13 and in secret 14-24. Thus Job found oppression and wickedness in all works of life. ● IN RURAL COMMUNITIES Vv 2-4. ● Brigands & marauders Vv 5-8 ● Business Community Vv 9-13. Murderers, Adulterers etc 14-18. ● Yet they die unpunished 19-24.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Job protesteth his sincerity. 8 The hypocrite is without hope. 11 The blessings which the wicked have are turned into curses.

BILDAD'S ANSWER

Far from accepting Job's challenge 24:25 and grappling with the problem of the seeming prosperity of the wicked, Bildad's weak reply avoids the subject and re-endorses the theory of Eliphaz with a few evasive platitudes. However he does avoid the reckless charges of Elphaz 22:5-9 as well as the harsh implications of Zophar 20:5-29. All that he declares is that God is pure as though Job had disputed that or had claimed that God is unjust. Job's point is that he cannot understand the working of Providence. Bildad's weak answer closes the arguments of the friends and leaves Job's observations unanswered.

JOB'S REPLY

Bildad completed his words by likening man (Enosh - weak, mortal man) to a Rimmah - a maggot that rapidly breeds on putrifying matter and to a Tola - indicative of weakness. Its implications are obvious. Job's leprous sores bred worms 7:5; his ulcerous body, fetid breath & loathsome smell 19:17-20, witnessed to his abject weakness. But, as Job proceeds to state, acknowledging his weak condition, Bildad has not strengthened him. With sarcasm he sets aside Bildad's words. What strength is found in his words! What saving power! what inspiration! 2-4. Then in more serious terms he speaks of God's power 5-14.

THE CROOKED SERPENT JOB 26:13.

18 His Ruach or breath drives the clouds away and garnishes the heavens for the stars appear. They are given for signs Gen 1:14. The crooked, or swift (RV) serpent then appears. This is a constellation in the heavens known to the ancients most relate it to Draco, the Dragon - "a long, twisting line of stars, stretching between the Large & Small Dipper, nearly encircling the latter, and finally reaching out its head, a quadrilateral group of stars almost to the body of Hercules" (In Starland). Its head is under the feet of Hercules. This constellation represents the serpent power ruling in the heavens.

Another constellation - Serpens - represents a serpent struggling vainly in the grasp of O-phi-u-chus. He is shown having Job protesteth his sincerity. JOB 27, 28. The hypocrite without hope.

5 JOB'S MONOLOGUES. 27:1 - 31:40.

1 THOUGH GOD'S WAYS ARE INSCRUTABLE WE SHOULD FEAR & OBEY HIM. 27:1-28:28.

JOB'S SOLEMN ASSEVERATION TO SPEAK ONLY TRUTH Vv.1-6

1 There was probably a pause at this point as Job waited for Zophar to take up the debate. When he did not, thus conceding Job's arguments, Job commenced his monologue, summarizing the position as he saw it.

2 MASHAL - A weighty discourse design to rule. See Note p. 606.

3 He speaks before the Living God to Yahweh's use of this phrase. Num. 14:21. Ezek. 17:16, 33:11.

4 CLAVE. To put asside as or with held. There had been no vindication of Job, no answer to his prayer or pleas.

5 He has consistently asserted what he believes is true and is determined to do so whilst life continues.

A careful warning in view of his statements to follow Vv.11-23. He is not prepared to concede that suffering is inevitably an indication of guilt.

7 He has endeavored to live righteously in the past and will continue to do so until death. He succeeded. Jam. 5:11.

2 HIS ABHORRENCE OF THE WICKED Vv 7-10.

In claiming they are not always in trouble he does not mean they are blessed of God.

8 He is going to show that they are without God & ultimately are punished.

9 He may obtain an advantage in this life, but it is short-lived.

10 He will not. This is the state of the wicked even in his prosperity. Job can understand this, but cannot understand why he should suffer - why God does not hearken to his cry.

3 THE WICKED ARE ULTIMATELY PUNISHED. Vv 11-23

11 He has been practical throughout. They have been silenced because they could not properly refute that sometimes the wicked prosper. Thus refuting their theory - now Job advances the other side - the wicked nevertheless are ultimately punished being abandoned of God to circumstances v.9.

12 He takes up the exposition of Zophar 20:29 and reveals the truth of the matter.

13 In the prosperity of the wicked as he had previously stated 21:7-11.

14 If they escape the fate of the sword they shall be afflicted with famine. Ex. 11:5.

15 "Buried in death" - not merely die. They shall be completely forgotten, lost sight of. Ps. 49:11-20.

16 A man may be prosperous, but if he lives without God, adversity will reach out ultimately - in this case in the persons of his children or descendants. God is just vindicates Job.

MOREOVER Job continued his parable, and said,

2 As God liveth, [b] who hath taken away my judgment;] and the Almighty, who hath [c] vexed my soul;]

3 All the while my breath is in me,] and [1] the spirit of God is in my nostrils;]

5 RV: "they are forgotten of the foot that passeth by." i.e. the shafts are opened far from where men are wont to walk.

6 RV: "They hang afar from men, they swing to and fro" i.e. as they descend the shaft by a rope. In other words, to extract the secrets of the earth they engage upon the most dangerous occupations remote from the assistance of others - but God's secrets are far beyond them.

JOB'S FIRST MONOLOGUE

Does Job abandon his previous position in Ch 27:13-23? Some (CB) claim that this is the voice of Zophar; others that Job is contradicting his previous arguments; others, again, that he is summarizing the arguments of his friends. The first two suggestions are inadmissable; the third is artificial. If Job summarized his friends' arguments where is his retraction of them? He is conceding them. What Job is conceding is that the wicked cannot flout God with impunity V17. If they prosper, retribution awaits their children V19. He therefore recognizes that God does punish the wicked but not that disaster is inevitably an indication of sin Cp. 2:7.

MAN CAN SEEK INTO THE DEPTHS OF THE EARTH and reveal its hidden secrets and its wealth. – but the wisdom of God eludes him. Job 28
Perfect wisdom dwells only with God. V. 23. Man's highest wisdom, therefore, is in reverencing God and departing from evil. V. 28.

CHAPTER 29

2 JOB'S FINAL REVIEW AND APPEAL 29:1-31:40

1 JOB RECALLS HIS PREVIOUS STATE Vv 1-25.

1 HIS PROSPERITY WHEN GOD BLESSED HIM vv. 1-6.

See Note • Mg Job 27:1. The statement marks more than a pause – it suggests a change of subject. RV. "of old." It seemed as to Job since he enjoyed prosperity.
1:3 Held up to reveal the path ahead Cp Note. Ps 18:28 & Ct. Job 18:6. 21:17.
4 CHOREPH – Autumn. RV: "Ripeness of my days." His age when he experienced his calamities.
5 Eyng. "council" He enjoyed communion with God. Cp Ps 25:14 &
6 There is inexpressible sadness in these words, as if seems to Job that God now viewed him as an enemy. Cp 6:4 & 7:14, 9:17, 16:9.
It was so plentiful, that he figuratively walked upon it. God so blessed him that his olive grew prosperously in rocky soil. Job saw God as the source of his blessings. Job 2:10.

2 THE HONOR PREVIOUSLY ACCORDED JOB. Vv. 7-11.

9 RV: "When I went forth to the gate unto the city."
10 RECHOB. – Broadway. A large space or square by the Gate used for public assemblies. Cp. Neh 8:1. Job took his place there as leader & judge.
11 Having shown the honor afforded him by his fellow rulers, he now describes how his blessings were received by the common people. They noted that he redressed wrongs and sought to help them in their trials.
12 He exercised his authority as God would have him do. Cp Messiah's predicted rule. Ps. 72:12-14.
13 Those in utter despair blessed Job because he helped them in their need.

GOD'S WONDERS IN CREATION

Vv. 23-26.

"Weight for the winds": "God has given an atmosphere to the earth, which, possessing a certain degree of gravity perfectly suited to the necessities of all animals, vegetable, and fluids, should be the cause, in His hands, of preserving animal and vegetable life; for by it the blood circulates in the veins of animals, and the juices in the tubes of vegetables. Without this atmospheric pressure there could be no respiration; and the elasticity of the particles of air in animal and vegetable bodies would rupture the vessels in which they are contained, & destroy both kinds of life."

AIR ATMOSPHERE AND WIND

"If we could see it from outer space, the air in which we live would appear as a thin shell of gas surrounding the earth. But to man at the bottom of this gaseous envelope, the atmosphere of the earth – our air – is a deep ocean. Like a curious fish at the bottom of the sea, man looks upward through his invisible ocean – and wonders.
"The air is in constant motion, & the air has weight. It is composed of many gases, including water vapor, the invisible water gas. When water vapor condenses, we can see the water in the air in the form of clouds. Out of these clouds fall the rain & snow that nourish the earth.
"Although it is almost 100 million miles away, the sun is an important part of the atmosphere. It provides the air with energy. Heated by the radiant energy from the sun, the air rises to form clouds. The uneven heating of the oceans, earth, & air by the sun causes the air to move & creates wind & storms.
"The air moves about the earth. In this way unhealthy gases, smoke & dirt, which would otherwise collect at the bottom of the ocean of air, are dispersed, & the air we breathe is kept clean. Without our wind our air would soon be poisoned & we could not live." – The American Museum of Natural Science."

AS A LEPER, Job was treated with disrespect by the absolute dregs of humanity - unemployable wretches who obtained their sustenance by scavenging. Ch. 30:1-8

The experience of Job was shared by Christ. Cp V.9 with Isa. 53:3-4,5. Ps. 35:15. 69:12. Cp V.10. with Isa. 50:6. Mtt. 26:67; 27:30.

JOB RIGHTEOUS IN HIS OWN EYES CH.32:1.

All the arguments of his friends had not shown him otherwise than righteous. In fact, Yahweh pronounced him such 1:1; 2:3; 42:7. He had declared that he was not guilty of the charges laid against him by them 6:29-30, 10:2-7, 13:15, 23:7, 27:4-6, 29:11-17, 31:1-33:40. They could not refute his arguments and so conceded the debate.

YOUTH TO THE RESCUE. In Chps 32-37 a new voice is heard. Elihu speaks. He is young + impatient. His irritation against Job + the others had grown until he could hardly bear it 32:2,3, 6, 18-19. But he is biased. His anger is turned on Job almost to the exclusion of the 22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder blade, and mine arm be broken from [3] the bone.

23 For [c] destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.

24 If [d] I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;

1 Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends. 6 Because wisdom cometh not from age, he excuseth the boldness of his youth. 11 He reproveth them for not satisfying Job. 16 His zeal to speak.

So these three men ceased [1] to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel [k] the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had [7] waited till Job had spoken, because they were [9] elder than he.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

5 ELIHU'S DISCOURSE 32:1-37:24.

He takes the place of the silenced Zophar in this third Triad.

1 THE PERSONALITY

They could not convict him of unrighteousness - to Job's concluding speech was met by an eloquent silence.

He is my El

A son of Nahor Gen. 11:29. 22:20-21.

Perhaps Aram the son of Hemuel, a brother of Huz and Buz. Gen 22:21

Job recognised that some expressions were extreme 6:26. He was reprimanded by Yahweh 40:8 but also commended 42:7. 22:6-7. But Elihu makes a similar mistake 33:9-12. 34:5-9.

22 For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

3 HE ACKNOWLEDGES THAT JOB HAS SILENCED THE OTHERS Vv. 8-13.

12 I have carefully considered all that has been said.

RV: "God may vanquish him..." He did 32:4-6, meanwhile Elihu claims inspiration to do so 32:8. 33:4,6.

He will never be worsted by your arguments.

4 I WILL SILENCE JOB Vv. 14-17.

He will take a different stand.

His words will not be a rehash of their friends' arguments.

Cp "They have not a word to say..." Elihu turns to Job and summarises the result of the debate to that point.

RV: "And shall I wait because they speak not; because they stand by, and answer no more."

He manifests all the impatience + confidence of youth. Vv 6, 33:1-6.

5 IT WILL BE A RELIEF FOR ME TO SPEAK 18-20.

My inward feeling: struggle for expression. The others feel similarly Cp Zophar 20:2-3. Job 11:1-19.

There was intense feeling, emotion + tension in the debate.

others. 34:37. Elihu, like Eliphaz, claimed a measure of inspiration 32:8; 36:2-4, such as to justify him to act as an umpire between Job and God 33:6.

This was rather presumptuous, for Elihu like Job was in ignorance of the object of suffering - namely to demonstrate a principle 1:9-11.

Elihu's theory contained more truth than that of the others, but his bias towards Job destroyed its effectiveness. He wrongly accused Job of asserting things against which he argues 33:8-10; 34:5-6, 34:9; 35:3. He has little feeling for the acute sufferings of Job - wealth, status, possessions gone; family dead, afflicted with a painful, fatal disease inflicted by God, and accused him of being a scorner 34:7, associating with wicked men 34:8, rebellion, sin 34:36. He implied Job's prayers were not answered because of his pride 35:12. See Foreshadowing.

2 ELIHU EXCUSES HIS YOUTHFULNESS Vv 6-10.

How young, how old? Job lived 140 years after his restoration 42:16. Perhaps he was then about 60 - Elihu 30-40?? Perhaps the friends about 100.

All head no heart

Yet Elihu's theory was a great advance on that of the others, and expressed some divine truths. This suggests he was all head and no heart, and that prejudice blinded him to the proper application of truth. Like the Pharisees, he proclaimed truths he did not apply Mt 23:23-24. See top 707

ELIHU (Cont. See opp). ● His theory ● God is greater than man and mankind therefore have no right or authority to require an explanation of Him 33:12-13. ● However God does instruct if man will but listen 33:14-16. with a view to restraining = rescuing them from evil 33:17-18. ● Moreover, He chastens with a view to healing = restoring man. 33:21-28. ● Therefore Job's sufferings were educational, designed to teach him something + when the lesson were learned, he would be restored 33:29-33. ● God would not do wickedly 34:12. ● He is perfect in discernment 34:23. and never acts without cause or purpose 34:24-30. ● Suffering is not merely for punishment but for correction, not merely to chastise but to chasten. Thus it is designed ● To restrain from evil 33:16-18. ● To chasten 33:19-28. ● To restore 33:23-28. ● Divine affliction is often remedial rather than judicial 36:9-12, 15-16. though it can be otherwise 27:13; 31:5-8.

● If a man responds, God will help him 33:25-26. and Most, in deed, is the purpose of suffering 33:31-33. ● In Ch. 34. he declares God acts with absolute righteousness, impartiality, and discernment + that many of Job's expressions were out of place 34:16, 17-19, 21-23. ● As God's afflictions were remedial, Job had not properly responded, otherwise he would have been helped 36:15-21.

● His Appeal. The others had urged Elihu to reconcile his hypocrisy + sin + cease from them. They kept harping on some supposed wickedness in the past, Elihu is concerned with a wrong attitude in the present. They claimed He suffered because he sinned; he declared he

(2) ELIHU REBUKES JOB AND CLAIMS TO SET FORTH THE REAL PURPOSE OF AFFLICTION. VV. 1-33.

(1) WHY JOB SHOULD HEED HIS WORDS. VV. 1-7.

1 RV: "Nevertheless" However you view me - even if my youthfulness irritates you.
Give them your undivided attention.
He has carefully "tested" or considered all he has to say.
His heartfelt beliefs.
Sincerely - RV. The facts will be outlined clearly and sincerely.
He recognises that he is in the presence of God; that man has been made in His image + likeness, and should reflect that in his words + action. This he was determined to do.
RV: "If thou canst, answer thou me."
Job has expressed a desire to do this before God 23:4.
He will represent God's view, as Job desired. 9:33. 13:3, 8, 13-24. 16:21. 23:2-4. 31:35.
Therefore no need to fear me or you have declared you would fear God. 6:14. 7:14. 9:34-35.
Job complained God's terrors do this. 9:34. 13:21.
Job complained that God's hand was heavy on him 13:21.

(2) HE GIVES A BRIEF EPITOME OF WHAT HE BELIEVED JOB TAUGHT. VV. 8-11.

13 It was not Job but Zophar who claimed this 11:4. In fact, Job had said the reverse 16:17. However he had maintained he had not sinned as the others claimed he had 9:21. 10:7. 12:4. & 17:9+. but God had evidently that unbeknown to Job or Elihu 1:8. 2:3.
Job had not stated this Cp. 7:20-21. 9:20. 13:23, 26. 14:17.
YEHOWAH - Aforetime Str. RV mg "Causer of a beginning". Rend. Breach of promise. Num. 14:34.
This is really a distortion of Job's words. See notes at. 6:24. 19:11 and fails to take into account the context in which the expression is used. Job did complain of the severity of his sufferings on the ground that he did not understand their cause or purpose. 10:2.
In his ignorance of the purpose of the trial + in the face of the theories of his friends, Job had complained that if he suffered for iniquity, God must very carefully consider his every step. See Note. 14:16.

(3) ELIHU'S VINDICATION OF GOD AND THEORY OF AFFLICTION. 12-30.

1 Elihu's zeal to speak, afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion. 7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom. 8 But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding. 9 Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment. 10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will shew mine opinion. 11 Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst ye searched out what to say. 12 Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words: 13 Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man. 14 Now he hath not directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches. 15 They were amazed, they answered no more: they left off speaking. 16 When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no more;) 17 I said, I will answer also my part, I also will shew mine opinion. 18 For I am full of matter, the spirit within me constraineth me. 19 Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles. 20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer. 21 Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man. 22 For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

2 CHAPTER 33. 1 Elihu offereth himself instead of God, with sincerity and meekness, to reason with Job. 8 He excuseth God from giving man an account of his ways. 14 God calleth man to repentance by visions, 19 by afflictions, 23 and by his ministry. 31 He inciteth Job to attention. WHEREFORE, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words. 2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth. 3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly. 4 The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life. 5 If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up. 6 Behold, I am according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am formed out of the clay. 7 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee. 8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying, 9 I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me. 10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy, 11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths. 12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man. 13 Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters. 14 For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man perceiveth it not. 15 In a dream,

3 (A) GOD IS GREATER THAN MAN WHO OUGHT THEREFORE TO SUBMIT 12-13.

18 Therefore we should patiently submit. Why strive against Him? Better to quietly seek out the reason for trouble. This Job may have done but for the intervention of the others.
19 You cannot force Him to answer; As He is greater, He cannot be compelled.
20 God has His own way of speaking to man. which are not like that Job has been expecting. It requires thought and attention to comprehend it.

(B) GOD DOES INSTRUCT - TO RESTRAIN MAN FROM HIS WAYS 14-17.

ELIHU'S ADVICE FOR JOB'S CURE.

God alone can cure, for God alone has afflicted. That appears to be Elihu's reasoning Vs 18–26. Why can he reason with such assurance? Because Job's illness was that of leprosy. See bottom. p. 682. And leprosy was an incurable disease. Among the people of God it was treated as a God-imposed punishment Exod. 15:26-27. which God alone can cure. See top. p 154.

ELIHU (Cont. from bottom. p 707) sinned through his sufferings. • He appeals for teachable humility on the part of Job 36:12-13 a recognition of his impotence & ignorance in the face of God's righteousness 37:14-24. • He asks for submissive patience. All God's judgments proceed from His absolute understanding 34:21-23. and are both right 36:10-12 • resistless. 34:11-20,29. See 35:15 • He calls for faith in God Himself rather than in some explanation 37:23-24. See top. 709.

16 Then [2] he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction,
17 That he may withdraw man from his [3] purpose, and hide pride from man.
18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life [4] from perishing by the sword.
19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:
20 So that [5] his life abhorreth bread, and his soul [6] dainty meat.
21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.
22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.
23 If there be a messenger with him, an [7] interpreter, [m] one among [n] a thousand, to shew unto man [o] his uprightness:
24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit; I have [p] found [8] a ransom.
25 [q] His flesh shall be fresher [r] than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:
26 He shall [s] pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and [t] he shall see his face [u] with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.
27 [9] He [a] looketh upon men, and if any [b] say, I [c] have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;
28 He will deliver [d] his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.
29 Lo, all these things worketh God [e] oftentimes with man,

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.
32 If thou hast any thing to say, [a] answer me: [b] speak, for I desire to justify thee.
33 If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall [c] teach thee wisdom.

1 Elihu accuseth Job for charging God with injustice. 10 God omnipotent cannot be unjust. 31 Man must humble himself unto God.

FURTHERMORE Elihu [d] answered and said,
2 Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.
3 [e] For the ear trieth words, as the [f] mouth tasteth meat.
4 [g] Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good.
5 For Job hath said, [h] I am righteous: and [i] God hath taken away my judgment.
6 [k] Should I lie against my right? [l] my wound is incurable [m] without transgression.
7 What man is like Job, [n] who drinketh up scorning like water?
8 Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.
9 For [o] he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.
10 Therefore hearken unto me, ye [p] men of understanding: far be it from God, [q] that he should do wickedness: and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
11 [r] For the work of a man shall he render unto him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.
12 Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.

[1] By repeating His teaching v. 14: - whether it be by word or by adversity as in the case of Job - so that if it is acted upon. In other words, if Job does not heed, the adversity will continue.

(C) TO THE SAME END HE OFTEN VISITS HIM WITH AFFLICTION Vv 18-22.

He thus reasons that affliction is not necessarily an indication of God's wrath - but of His love. But does that differ much from the conclusion of Eliphaz? Cp. Job 5:16-19.

Affliction is designed to save him from an abiding place in the grave.

Divine judgment.

Illness is to be considered as an affliction from God. God is kind & loving in imposing pain, for He has ultimate salvation in view.

MIMTHEEM - Manslayers. a. - The disease or illness he has.

(D) BUT IF HE RESPONDS GOD WILL HELP HIM Vv 23-30.

MALACH - RV. angel. Elihu probably meant himself as one who could interpret the Divine will - but the Great Messenger of Yahweh is the God of Judgment or Messiah. Mal. 2:7. He has interpreted the meaning of suffering. Heb. 5:1-4. 12:1-13. 1-18. Ultimately Job did receive a messenger Job 33:1.

Skilled in wisdom and advice. Ecc. 7:28.; Song 5:10.

How he should receive the discipline so that he does act upon it.

The messenger is gracious to the sufferer, & will pray for him as Abraham prayed for Abimelech. Gen. 20:17.

A satisfactory ransom depends upon the attitude of mind of the offerer. Job 42:7-9.

He shall be cleansed 2 Kgs 5:14. In Scripture, leprosy is considered as Divine punishment which God alone can cure. Thus dependence must be placed on Yahweh Rophekha Exod. 15:26-27. See Notes top p 154.

For God shall cause His face to shine upon him. Num. 6:25. Ps. 4:6-7. 16:11.

RV: "He singeth before men and saith, I have sinned ..." He is Job. Elihu a confesses his former sins with a light heart, in the realisation that God has forgiven him, as encouragement to others to follow in his way. Cp. Ps. 32:1-6.

RV: "He hath redeemed my soul ..." Cp mg. This is still the song of the penitent.

Not invariably. Elihu teaches that God uses revelation, visions, dreams & affliction to teach man. Job has come under the latter. It is an evidence of God's concern for him. But if he follow the course suggested, he would find restoration. This advice was sound in many cases, but as we know, it was not so in Job's. Job was not tried for that reason at all.

36. Suffering is for discipline and correction - not for vengeance; it is often administered by God in love and not in anger. Cp Job. 5:16-19. Heb. 5:7-8. 12:5-11.

(E) HE APPEALS FOR PATIENCE AS HE REVEALS WHAT TRUE WISDOM CONSTITUTES Vv 31-32.

Elihu proceeds to theorise instead of meeting the facts of Job's case - why should such a man, striving for righteousness suffer as he did - obviously from God's hand? In avoiding the facts & merely theorising Elihu took his stand with the others Cp v. 37.

Ultimately this is true, but meanwhile it is not always so. Cp Heb. 11:36-38; 12:3-6.

A mere beating of the air - a rhetorical amplification of v. 10.

(B) HE IS OMNIPOTENT Vv 13-16.

(C) IT IS WRONG TO CALL IN QUESTION SUCH A RIGHTEOUS OMNIPOTENT CREATOR Vv 17-19.

Is it conceivable that the Ruler & Controller of the universe is unjust?

It is most unbecoming.

GOD IS OMNISCIENT & EXECUTES JUDGMENT ON ALL Vv 20-22.

They are all under the power of death which may take them at any moment.

Calamities such as earthquake or storm might take them.

Without human agency. RV: "For he needeth not further to consider a man." His wisdom is such that he can instantly determine the right course of action. He does not need to review the circumstances.

Therefore man has no grounds for a second trial - or to dispute the justice of God's actions.

(E) THE WICKED & HYPOCRITES ARE PUNISHED 24-30

RV: "In ways past finding out." Is. 55:8-9. Ps. 92:5. 139:17. Dan. 2:21; 4:37.

In order to do this properly, He takes heed to their ways.

When God grants rest or peace. Cp Prov. 16:7.

CHAPTER 34

3 ELIHU'S SECOND SPEECH: GOD IS RIGHTEOUS & ALL-POWERFUL. LET JOB SEEK OUT THE REASON WHY HE IS AFFLICTED AND REPENT. 1-37.

1 HE APPEALS TO ALL TO CONSIDER HIS WORDS 1-4.

Perhaps he again paused, but Job remained silent.

He addresses the friends as well.

He borrows Job's own expression. 12:11.

Let us analyse all the facts & determine what is right.

2 JOB HAS SCORNED GOD & CHARGED HIM WITH INJUSTICE Vv 5-9

Job has not said this. He has stated he would be justified 13:18 & in that spoke truth. 27:2. Elihu distorted Job's words. He had stated that only in the sense that God had withheld from him the judgment on his case that he desired - not that He had perverted it or wrongly condemned him. This is quite unwarranted. It is an echo of Eliphaz' words. 15:16. He is condemning Job - not mediating for him Cp 33:6.

This is a distortion of Job's words. He had declared both righteous & wicked are often subjected to calamity. His attempt to live righteously had not saved him from such. Cp 12:4.

3 AN EXAMINATION & REFUTATION OF THESE CHARGES 10-30

(A) GOD IS RIGHTEOUS 10-12

ELIHU (cont. from opp.). • Summary. Though in advance of the other three, Elihu's explanation falls far short of the facts. It actually adds little to what Job has stated, but at the same time makes some glaring mistakes. Job's intemperate speech did not stem from his sufferings as Elihu supposed. Cp 2:10 but from the cruel, unjust implications of his friends' —yet Elihu has little to say on that score. • He claimed Job's requests not heeded by God as they were asked in a wrong spirit 33:4-10 but that was not so in Job's case 2:3. • In fact, Yahweh terminated the debate by answering Job 38:1. • He is wrong in alleging that God is unaffected either by man's sin or righteousness 35:6-7 and in claiming that a true response to suffering always brings restoration to prosperity 33:21-30, 35:16. Job had appealed for pity 6:10; 19:21, or demonstrating him as being motivated by pride! 35:12, therefore Elihu seems to be one of head but no heart - knowledge but no love. 1 Cor. 8:1. See bottom 710.

7:17, 9:14. Ps 106:29, 139:7-12.

God omnipotent cannot be unjust.

JOB 35.

14 If he set his heart [2] upon man, if he gather unto himself his spirit and his breath;
15 All flesh shall perish together, and man [a] shall turn again unto dust.
16 If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.
17 Shall even he that hateth right [3] govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just? (RV: "just and mighty.")
18 Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?
19 How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the [d] rich more than the poor? for they all are the work of his hands.
20 In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and [e] the mighty shall be taken away without hand.
21 (G) For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.
22 [h] There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves. -Heb. 4:13.
23 For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should [f] enter into judgment with God.
24 He shall break in pieces mighty men (I) without number, and set others in their stead.
25 Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are (J) destroyed.
26 He striketh them as wicked men [3] in the open sight of others; -publicly, openly.
27 Because they turned back [5] from him, and would not consider any of his ways: -Cp Prov. 1:24-32
28 So that they (K) cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.
29 When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:
30 That the hypocrite reign not, lest [b] the people be ensnared.
31 Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:
32 That which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.
33 [4] Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore [c] speak what thou knowest. (Give your decision.)
34 Let men [5] of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.
35 Job hath spoken [f] without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.
36 [7] My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end because of his answers for wicked men.
37 For he addeth rebellion unto his sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

1 Comparison is not to be made with God. 9 Many cry in their afflictions, but are not heard for want of faith.

ELIHU spake moreover, and said,
2 Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's? (Cp Satan's comment 1:9)
3 For thou saidst, [1] What advantage will it be unto thee? and, [k] What profit shall I have, [l] if I be cleansed from my sin?
4 [6] I will answer thee, and (L) thy companions with thee.

6 If thou sinnest, [o] what doest thou against him? or if thy

(A) GOD IS HIGHER THAN MAN AND DERIVES NO BENEFIT FROM HIS OBEDIENCE OR OTHERWISE vv.4-8

4 He does not do this. He does little more than to repeat & expand the thoughts of Eliphaz 22:2-3. Cp Num 23:21. Jas 1:7.
5 They do not injure Him • He does not punish in a spirit of revenge, but in order to correct and improve.

RASHA - To declare wrong. RV "condemn." God has all things under His control so that He can bring prosperity or adversity upon a man or a nation. When He blesses such who can condemn or treat him as a guilty person? As God alone can permit trouble we must learn to look to Him in times of such.

No one. At such times one can but pray as in 33:4-6. RV "Godless man." Trouble and affliction restrain human relationships. He withdrew His favor from an ungodly King to reduce his influence. In short: there is always some purpose for the punishment & trouble God inflicts.

(F) JOB SHOULD SEEK ENLIGHTENMENT FROM GOD AND CEASE HIS REBELLIOUSNESS vv.31-37.

The RV presents this as a question: "For hath any said unto God, -but whether question or statement, the implication is the same • Elihu takes his stand with Eliphaz 5:8, Bildad 8:5 • Zophar 11:13-15 in advising Job to confess his sin, accept the punishment & amend his ways. Found no support for RV mg. RV: "Shall his recompence be as thou wilt, that thou refusest it?" Job must learn to accept what God lays upon him.
RV: "For thou must choose, and not I." It is for Job to act; Elihu can but suggest what should be done as in vv.31-32.
As Job does not answer, Elihu turns to the others: RV: "Men of understanding will say unto me, Yea every wise man that heareth me..." For such see Vv.2,10.
He spoke with greater wisdom than the men of so-called understanding • wisdom. Vv.2,4,10,13
BACHAN - To test like metal. If Job or an individual as well as his ideas were so tried in the furnace of experience; and the result - 42:6.
If the AV: Because he has claimed wicked men sometimes go unpunished. If the RV: "thus answering like wicked men" - referring to Vv.5,6,9. - Elihu's conception of Job's rash words. Elihu believes that Job's condition was punishment for sin Cp V.31. 4 In refusing to acknowledge this, he is guilty of rebellion.
A sign of anger Num. 24:10 or derision Job 27:23.
In justifying himself and complaining of his state.
He ridicules Bildad 8:2-3. Zophar 11:2-3. Eliphaz 15:2-3. Cf. 22:7.

CHAPTER 35.

(1) ELIHU'S THIRD SPEECH: RIGHTEOUSNESS DOES PROFIT Vv.1-16.

An answer to Job's alleged claim that it does not 34:9 which Elihu believes is fundamental to his argument.

1 ELIHU'S OPINION OF JOB'S BELIEF Vv.1-3.

He probably pointed to

(C) IT IS WRONG TO CALL IN QUESTION SUCH A RIGHTEOUS OMNIPOTENT CREATOR Vv.17-19.

Is it conceivable that the Ruler • Controller of the universe is unjust?
It is most unbecoming

(D) GOD IS OMNISCIENT & EXECUTES JUDGMENT ON ALL Vv.20-23.

They are all under the power of death which may take them at any moment.
Calamities such as earthquake or storm might take them.
*Without human agency.
RV: "For he needeth not further to consider a man." His wisdom is such that he can instantly determine the right course of action. He does not need to review the circumstances.
Therefore man has no grounds for a second trial - or to criticise the justice of God's actions.

(E) THE WICKED* HYPOCRITES ARE PUNISHED 24-30

RV: "In ways past finding out."
Isa. 24:16-7, 43:25 Dan. 2:21; 4:17.
In order to do this properly, He takes heed to their ways.
When God grants rest or peace. Cp Prov. 16:7.

709 Job did not answer

2 Job has not said this. He has claimed that God has blessed sinners 12:6. In that He showers His goodness on them Cp Mt. 5:45. and that the innocent suffer as well as the guilty 9:22-24. He queried the purpose • good of such as himself suffering as he did 10:2-3. Elihu evidently took such expressions to mean what he now charges against Job. If so he pushed Job's words beyond what they say Cp 34:5,9.
3 RV: "And what profit shall I have more than if I had sinned." The righteous are no better off than the sinner. Job has not said this. He has maintained that in many cases the sinner materially prospers more than the righteous - and that God has failed to GOD THE TEACHER (Cont.). remedy and save. As a Teacher, God (El) has • THE ABILITY – He is timeless, omniscient, omnipresent, omnipotent, all-seeing Heb. 4:12-13. Jhn. 2:24-25. • THE POWER – He is Wisdom personified Jhn. 1:1. Prov. 8. and our Wisdom is in reverencing Him. Prov. 1:7. Men were drawn by the power of Christ's teaching. Mt. 7:29. • VARIETY – His works Job 37:11. Word Ps. 94:10. Revelation Neh. 9:20; Prov. 1:23. – Christ = works, Word, Revelation. • adapted to the capacity of His students Isa. 28:9-10. • Elihu saw Him as • Authoritative and Incomparable 36:22. • Omniscient and Holy Thus consistent. 36:23. • Inscrutable • Eternal. 36:26. • Illustrative in Creation. 36:25. Ch. 37. Cp 36:27,29,31.

• El is an appropriate title for the Teacher, for His lessons are taught by His power in creation & revelation.

6 If you persistently & obstinantly continue to sin.
7 You still do not injure Him.
8 Nothing in material advantage, but much in pleasure. Isa. 66:2. Still remain unprofitable servants Luke 17:10. These sentiments were expressed by Eliphaz 22:2-3.
9 You can injure or help a fellow man, and put them under an obligation, but you cannot do so to God.

(B) WHY PRAY IS NOT OPENLY ANSWERED vv 9-14.

Job complained that God did not answer his prayers. Elihu says that this is not universal, but if it is because they are not asked in proper manner.

RV: "they cry out" i.e. [illegible] for help, or to one another.
These in authority, who exercise power. Thus only God is higher.
Their cries are cries of pain wrung from them by the "arms of the mighty" – not a proper seeking after God with a desire to submit to what He would impose as Maker.
Can cause rejoicing at the darkest & most gloomy part of the day. – But these observations hardly touch Job's case.
Job had referred to such in order to illustrate his case. 24:6, 12. Man has greater knowledge than beasts & should read more intelligently if he does not, God will not regard. Therefore any lack of answer to prayer is because it is not used in proper spirit Jam. 4:3. Perhaps Yahweh's sudden intervention is an answer to this allegation. Job 38:1.
They ask – demand in pride, not in humility.
The empty outpourings of men motivated only by self interest. Cf. Jam. 5:15-16. Elihu's observations are true, but do they apply to Job?
RV: "How much less when thou sayest thou beholdest Him not." Job had complained of this Job 9:11. 23:3, 8-10, claimed God had treated him as an enemy. 33:10. God is not ignorant of Job's case – and the answer will come.

(C) JOB INDICTED vv 15-16

14 RV: "But now because He has not visited in His anger." Because God has not added to Job's afflictions despite his intemperate expressions.
RV: "Neither doth he greatly regard arrogance" – i.e. God has not particularly heeded Job's arrogance to punish him more. God will not hear him because he refuses to properly assess the cause of his suffering. i.e. his complaints of the undue suffering he had endured & the silence of God to his appeals.

CHAPTER 36.

(5) ELIHU'S FOURTH SPEECH: AFFLICTION IS OFTEN REMEDIAL. CREATION DEMONSTRATES THAT GOD IS POWERFUL WISE AND PURPOSEFUL 36:1 – 37:24.

(1) INTRODUCTORY. ELIHU CLAIMS THE RIGHT TO COUNSEL. vv. 1-4.

There is still much that he can urge on God's behalf.
Like Bildad 8:8 he claims that he will advance profound irrefutable, little known truth – but there is little that is profound in his statements.
A presumptuous & arrogant statement. How can any human claim this. She was ignorant of the prologue.

(2) FACTS REVEALING THAT GOD IS JUST. 5-16.

710 ELIHU'S ATTACK ON JOB.

He falsely accuses Job Job 35:2-3; 33:8-10; 34:5-6; 34:9; 35:13.
Claims inspiration 32:8; 33:6; 36:2-4.
Little feeling 34:7
His pride 35:12.
Claims Job acted in wrong spirit 35:4-16
If Elihu right Job was not a good man.

4 MA'AC – To spurn. Job had stated this 10:3. on the grounds that God apparently did not heed his plea. The facts show Elihu to be right.
5 Job has not claimed that He does – he has stated that He sometimes permits the wicked to prosper. 21:7-9, 30.
6 Job had implied that He did – at least watch over them for good. 24:2.
He sometimes elevates them into places of authority.
i.e. permanently.
If they are in affliction, He reveals the cause, or brings about their reformation.
RV. "behaved themselves proudly."
Adversity from God's hand is disciplinary & restorative.
Job's case reveals the fallacy of this theory.
In ignorance of the purpose of God's disciplinary action.
By refusing to be disciplined.
To God for they have no thought for Him.
Suggested by Eliphaz 15:22. 22:16. Refuted by Job. 21:23-25.
RV: "by." Cp. Ps. 119:67, 71. Heb. 12:11.
SUNTH – Prick, seduce. RV mg. Text = led. Trouble designed to be disciplinary – but Job resisted it.

(3) JOB'S STUBBORNNESS ADDED TO HIS AFFLICTION vv 15-17.

He had acted like the wicked in complaining against God's justly received judgment reserved for the wicked.

(4) JOB URGED TO REPENT 18-21.

RV: "lest thou be led away by thy sufficiency."
If there is no repentance Ps. 49:7-8.
RV: "Will thy riches suffice, that thou be not in distress." Material resources or personal strength will not prevent trouble falling on one who despises God.

RV: "He covereth his hands with the lightning; And giveth it the charge that it strike the mark." Weather is under the control of God-designed laws – not that God personally directs each flash of lightning. Elihu is speaking in the language of hyperbole.

CHAPTER 37.

God is to be feared because of his great works.
15 His wisdom is unsearchable in them.

AT this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place.
2 Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.
3 He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his [u] lightning unto the [x] ends of the earth.
4 After it a voice roareth: he [a] thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.
5 God thundereth marvellously with his voice; [d] great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.
6 For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; [y] likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.
7 He sealeth up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.
8 Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their [h] places.

11 Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scatereth [l] his bright cloud:
12 And it is turned round about by his counsels: [i] that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth.
13 He causeth it to come, whether for [r] correction, or [s] for his land, or [q] for mercy.
14 Hearken unto this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.
15 Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?
16 Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge?

Job has not said that, but he has reasoned that God has given the world into the hands of the WICKED and that He was seemingly indifferent to the sufferings of such as himself.

In so reasoning he did so from external appearances & not from insight of God's purpose & truth that had been revealed.

RV: "Which distilleth rain from his vapour."

RV: "All men have looked thereon."

RV: "Overspreadeth" – evaporation.

Thunder. Gp v.26. the storm was already gathering 38:1.

Lightning 37:3. 38:25; 39, 36.

From the highest heaven to the depths of the earth, God's control extends. Gp 38:4ff.

For their discipline or their benefit 37:13. 38:22-23.

RV: "He covereth his hands with the lightning; And giveth it a charge that it strike the mark." Whether it is under the control of God-designed laws – not that God personally directs each flash of lightning. Elihu is alluding in the language of hyperbole.

Roth: "His rolling thunder telleth concerning him."

OTHER EXAMPLES OF GOD'S INSCRUTABLE POWER. Vv. 6-24

(A) SNOW AND RAIN 6-8

He has determined the seasons & it is beyond our power to alter them. Gp 38:22. Ps. 147:16-18.

He forces them indoors so that they have to cease their labor.

Recognize that his work is subject to the blessing of God – may feel his dependence on God.

(B) WHIRLWIND, COLD; FROST 9-10

A different word to V.22.

MEZARAH – Scatterer.

CHEDER – Inner chamber.

RV: "Out of the chamber of the south cometh the storm." Gp Ps. 104:13.

The slight motion of the air when frost is formed, is likened to the breathing of God. Gp Job 38:29. Sometimes used for punishment Ps 78:49. 147:16.

RV mg – "Congealed."

RV: "Yea he loadeth the thick cloud with moisture."

After the rain storm, the light of the sun is reflected on the scattered clouds.

By the mysterious force of nature the rain is driven to other parts.

RV: "Whether it be for correction, or for his land, Or for mercy He causeth it to come." God's inscrutable dealing are designed for one of these three purposes. Gp Job 38:26.

(C) THE PHENOMENA OF THE CLOUDS Vv. 11-16.

The wondrous works of El Ji outlined in Elihu's discourse 36:27-33. 37:2-13.

There are many things in nature which man accepts in the light of V.13. without questioning God. Job must learn to do the same in his case, knowing whatever God did it was for man's benefit.

RV: "how God layeth His charge upon them." i.e. arranges for their course or sequence according to V.13.

The rainbow.

Poised in motionless glory in contrast to their sometimes rapid scurrying across the sky.

(D) CHANGE IN TEMPERATURE Vv. 17-18

Bringing warm weather. If you accept such changes of temperature why question God in His working with man.

The vast canopy of heaven speaks of immensity and eternity.

To one so Immense, Great, Wise, Powerful, Inscrutable.

(E) GOD IS BEYOND OUR REACH 19-22

THE STORM

As Elihu was speaking signs of an approaching storm were heard Ch.36:29. This illustrated both the greatness 36:26 and inscrutability of God 36:26-29. Who knows why the storm was sent – yet it affects both man & beast 36:31-33. The roar of thunder and flash of lightning illustrate His great power 37:1-5. There are other things of nature illustrative of this: snow, rain, storm, cold and so forth 37:6-13. These happenings show God to be inscrutable, Vv. 14-15. 19-13. We must accept what he does as the effects of His teaching and submit in faith.

CHAPTER 37.

THE STORM: EVIDENCE OF GOD'S INSCRUTABLE POWER Vv.1-5

At the noise of thunder, a particular crash of which seems referred to in 36:33.

Gp mg. "Hearken, hearken to..."

The reverberations of the thunder clap roll across the entire cloud-canopied sky

THE DIVINE ARCHITECT JOB 38:5 It was created to be inhabited Isa 45:18. Careful planning was that used to that end Prov 8: 22-30. It is said that the earth rotates on its axis 1000 mph; if it were 100 mph our days + nights would be 10 times as long, & the hot sun would likely burn up the vegetation, whilst surviving plants would freeze or die in the long night. • The earth has been placed the proper distance from the sun to give it the right amount of warmth. - If it were half as much more we would roast. • The angle of the earth, tilted at 23 degrees provide us with seasons. If it had not been tilted, vapors from the ocean would move north + south, piling up continents of ice. • It is claimed that if the moon were too close, tides would periodically cover the continents, • If the crust of the earth had been only 10 ft thicker, there would have been no oxygen + animal life could not live. • Had the ocean been a few feet deeper, carbon dioxide • oxygen would have been absorbed • vegetable life could not exist.

"THY PROUD WAVES STAYED" JOB 38:11 governed not only by lunar + solar of time by the earth's rotation ro every 12 hours. The tides act as a washing away the organic matte keeping the ocean in constant mo going too far. So God exercises m heart. Jer. 5:22. Isa. 57:20.

Our great ignorance of one so high and wise, humbles us, so that we cannot question Him.

God challengeth Job to answer.

God controls it by the invisible force of gravity so that it acts as a cleansing agent.

He controls the seeming uncontrollable raging of the sea, so that it is limited to doing His will Ps 104:9. An assurance to Job in his troubles.

The formation of the ocean is likened to the birth of a child

C THE LIGHT OF THE MORNING 12-15.

The golden dawn illuminates the earth driving away the obscurity + darkness of night at the exact time the Wisdom of Yahweh determines

This great time-piece of heaven teaches that the reign of darkness is limited Jer 33:20. Mal 4:2 Ps 74:16. 104:19. 139:12. Ps 5:3. 49:14. 119:147. 130:6. Cannot be altered

Was he there when it was established - the language of irony. Has he the authority to command when the dawn shall be! No! In Yahweh's own time, he shall see the light!! - Acting will come.

As a seal turned clay from a mere lump to a figured surface so the light of dawn reveals true shape + detail. 1 Jn 3:2. 2 Cor. 4:6. But the timing is in Yahweh's hands!

Which is darkness.

D HIDDEN REALMS 16-18

Gen. 7:11. Its hidden depths. The raging of the sea can be seen + felt, but not its hidden depths - no more could Job penetrate to the motives of things. How then hope to comprehend the breadth of Divine wisdom. Rom 11:33-36 Eph 3:17-21

2 IN RELATION TO THE HEAVENS 19-38

A LIGHT + DARK 19-21

Established in beginning Gen 1:3. Ps 104:2. Job spoke of those who rebelled against the light 24:13-16 yet sought to reverse God's order in his own case. 3:4-5 questioned its benefits. 3:20-23 claimed duration limited 10:20-22. Complained light taken away 29:2-3. 30:26. 12:22. A hatred of darkness with trials 23:17. Job cannot get to the dwelling place of light - he must wait when God has established all opportunities.

B THE ELEMENTS 22-30.

CHALAQ - distrib. did. i.e. all over the earth once the sun appears.

A destructive wind. So from the same direction, there comes the benefit of sun's rays dispersing darkness or East wind destroying growth. Ps 27:12

See note above. RV: "who hath clefts a channel for the waterflood." i.e. opened the clouds as a water-spout. Ps 78:15. Ps 104:6-8. Jer 14:22. Ps 29:3-10

This may seem a complete waste, but it is not so. Yahweh has concern for all His creatures not man only. Ps 104:10-30, 37-28. Perhaps His dealings with Job may help others. Ps 107:35. He can bring fertility to Job's arid condition!!

He provides refreshment in the heat of summer Neh 9:11.

God has the power to change the condition of things - Job has not the powers by which a liquid is metamorphosed into a solid is unknown - though the fact that this takes place at the temperature of 32°F is well known. God brings to bear His influence upon man to produce a metamorphosis Rom 12:2. Job saw in nature a change brought about only by adverse conditions.

THE HEAVENLY BODIES 31-32.

CHIMAH - To tie, or link together in a company or league. Pleiades symbolise immortality 9:9. The means to that - Amos 5:8.

RV "the cluster of the Pleiades." Job had made mention of these 9:9. This seems to be a request that he apply the knowledge he has. See Note p 698. See Note top p 698.

Can he loosen the tie that holds the sun and members of this constellation together? Of course he cannot!!

A plural word from KESEH - to hold along set apart, devote. Gesenius = The Zodiac. Jerome = The mansions of the stars. The 12 signs of the Zodiac - answering to the months of the year are connected with different seasons. The variations of the months are for the general good - but are beyond the ability of Job to effect.

F SUMMARY: THE ALMIGHTY IS OMNIPOTENT, INSCRUTABLE, JUST VV 23-24

Rom. 11:33. 1 Tim 6:16. This is merely repeating Zephar. 11:7 Job 26:14. Job has acknowledged His 9:4. 19. 12:13. He will not unjustly decree. Implying that His was the fault of Job. Thus with the debate still unresolved (See notes top p 709, Yahweh speaks.

1 JOB'S IGNORANCE AND IMPOTENCE CONTRASTED WITH YAHWEH'S OMNISCIENCE AND OMNIPOTENCE CH 38:1 - 19:20.

1 IN RELATION TO THE EARTH VV. 1-18

A ITS CREATION VV. 1-7.

He completely ignores Elihu who claimed to be in God's stead. 32:6 & who had claimed God did not answer because His was not approached in correct manner 35:1 4-16. Yahweh will always reveal Himself in His time.

Job had been goaded by his friends to speak unwisely 23: 4-5. claiming he was not heard. 13:7. He set out to teach the ways of Providence being ignorant of them 27:11. It is better to be silent than to speak without knowledge. Prov 17:28. 18:13. Job had the sense to acknowledge this 40:4.

Job had expressed a desire to do i.e. Job. 31:35

Destroyed because of his presumption - therefore Job should take heed.

Heb. "when." When the winds clear the sky of cloud.

Cp mg. Job had likened God's wisdom of Divine ways Job 28:1-6, 12. Elihu states that such a revelation comes from the North - symbolic of the dwelling place of God. See Note top 760. It is not in man.

"THY PROUD WAVES STAYED" 38:8-11 This is governed by the flux & reflux of the tides of time by the earth's rotation round its axis. There is a high tide every 12 hours. The tides act as a sanitation preventing pollution washing away the organic matter which rivers etc. deposit & keeping the ocean in constant motion, whilst preventing its waves going too far. So God exercises invisible but perfect control over man. Jer. 5:22. Isa. 57:20.

A CHANGE IN QUESTIONS 38:25 Hitherto the questions would have convinced Job of his ignorance and short-sightedness revealing plan & purpose in everything God did. Now Yahweh reveals impotent Job was. As he knows so little, he should not question Yahweh's actions but though not understanding them, should acknowledge wisdom was manifest in them all - so let him realise that he has not the power to change the course of things.

Having shown Job His universal power - and hence the futility of challenging Him - Yahweh proceeded to reveal His universal care - and hence the needlessness of sorrowing.

There is no need to do - there is inbuilt instinct power & ability for the lioness to accomplish it. Yahweh has provided it. Would not He provide what was needful for Job. 13:14-16

(a) Mic. Lev. 11:15. In antithesis to the lion, the raven is also under the care of Yahweh. (a) Matt. 6:26. It's main diet is dead or dying carcases, in which it performs the useful work of scavenger. Thus He provides for the King of beasts - Israel. Gen. 49:9 as birds as the raven - the unicorn

Food (the prey - 4:39) is provided for both the lion & the raven, but it involves suffering. Thus good can come through suffering.

CHAPTER 39.

B BEAST PREYED UPON 1-12.

1 YA'ELIM. - Climber. The Ibex. Always in plural because an herd animal. Associated with mountains Ps. 104:18. Thought to be a synonym for 'AGGO Deut. 14:5 - therefore a clean animal. Never been domesticated in any way. therefore bring forth their offspring unknown and unaided by man. Very agile, sure-footed, long horns that bend over back.

2 AYALOUTH - from root - Strength. female deer. Clean Deut. 12:15. very shy & fleet of foot. Understated - so apart from man. But ordained under the control of Yahweh through nature Ps. 29:9.
RV: "Become strong"
They quit their dams early and fend for themselves.

PERE - Sig Running. The Onager - The untamable wild ass. Known for its fleetness - now almost extinct.
Yahweh - providing this as defence.

[illegible]

6 ARAWO - from 'ARAB - to lurk - an Onager from his lonesome habits - Str. Very fleet & difficult to catch, fleeing to the open plain where his speed is his defence.
RSV: "whom I have given the steppe for his home, and the salt land for his dwelling place." Jer. 2:24.

Avoids the haunts of man. does not submit to the discipline of domestication.
And rocky areas seeking out the small patches of pasture there to be found.

10 REIM - from root - To be lifted up. Hence eg. Conspicuous. A two-horned beast like a bison Deut. 33:17. The aurochs (now extinct) c. "the bulls were enormous, over 6 ft at the shoulder with long, forward-pointing horns. Now extinct. Because of its size & conspicuousness, it sheltered in forests." It was not only the most powerful hoofed animal they knew but it was also the largest, apart from the hippopotamus & elephant.
c. Read. "wild ox" RV. Noted for its strength Num. 23:22 fierceness Ps. 22:21 majesty of power Ps. 92:10. Thus Yahweh gives agility to one V.1. speed to another V.5 strength to a third V.9. To all creation (including Job) according to its need.
Even if you could harness him. Thus he is different to the domestic ox - yet

OSTRICH: Fastest Animal On Two Legs. Some 4-legged animals can run faster (the cheetah can reach 70 mph.) but the ostrich is by far the fastest animal on two legs. It can keep up a speed of 40 mph for some considerable distance; and relies upon its extremely keen sight & strong legs to escape danger. It will abandon its young in face of danger. "As with most animals, the baby ostriches are at greatest risk immediately after they are hatched. All kinds of predators—lions, leopards, cheetahs, hyenas, jackals, snakes and birds of prey—are waiting to strike (even crows) . . . But the birds may be endangered even before they are hatched. George Adamson watched a hyena prowling about 1000 yards from a nest containing 17 eggs, which were being incubated by one parent bird. A few hours later, only the shells were left." World of Wild Life.

16 See previous Note. When displaying, the cock bird waves & shakes its plume-covered wings in a characteristic way.
17 The cock does most of the incubation, including throughout the night. During the day the hen often leaves the eggs partly or wholly covered with warm sand to a depth of several inches.
18 In fact they have such thick shells that they are not easily broken. Few animals have mouths large enough to smash one.
19 Noted for indifference or cruelty. Lam. 4:3. Cp V. 14. When a pack of ostriches or their kind are chased by hunters, the adult birds often run away, hoping to draw off the intruders, while the chicks lie flat on the ground, their mottled down & feathers providing good camouflage.
RV: "Though her labor be in vain, she is without fear." She does not learn to fear, but goes through the same process again. She is actually extremely timid.
The Ostrich is proverbial for its stupidity.
A reference to her long neck which she lifts up high like a periscope to view her surroundings.
Along so fleet of foot she can easily outpace them.
GEBURAH - (Not as v 11) valor, force, power, martial might. From GABAR (Cp Gibbor), strong, to prevail, confidence.
RA'AM - a peal of thunder, from RA'AM to tumble, to be violently agitated. A reference to the mane which like thunder traveling through the clouds is violently agitated - with snorting nostrils, glaring eyes, outstretched neck, the horse plunges irresistably forward like a tornado. RV: "quivering mane" - mg: Heb. "shaking."
RV "leap as a locust" the bounding motion of a galloping horse. "Appearance of head of horse - Grasshopper similar. See Note Joel 2:4. Top p. 1111.
Verb plural. RV mg "they" - line of cavalry, all pawing in eager to be off is intended.
KOWACH (as VII) vigor, force, strength. The horse is more eager & excited than its rider.
RV mg. "the weapons". It manifests fearless courage especially when directed to a charge.
He fears his way through the ranks of opposing infantry, brushing aside the most dangerous weapons.
RV mg: "neither standeth he still at the" It is only with difficulty that he is restrained at the noise of battle.
The impatient neighing to get into the fight.
The open & quivering nostrils

D TWO FIERCEST VULTURES. Vv 28-30.

NETS - To dart, speaking of rapidity of flight, a fierce bird of prey. Note Lev. 11:16. "Fly" = "soar" RV. The hawk's strength of wing is marvelous, and it is among the greatest of natural marvels. A bird of prey (in the various species - falcons, kestrels etc) it catches its prey by its keen sight and flashing speed.
The marvel of the migration of birds which sends the hawk family to Africa in the autumn. Cp Jer. 8:7.
NESHER. See Note Lev. 11:13 & Job 9:26. Here the Griffon-vulture seems referred to. It is between 3 & 4 feet long with a wing span of 8 ft.
Noted for the height to which it ascends.

CHAPTER 40.

1 Job humbleth himself to God. 6 God stirreth him up to shew his righteousness, power, and wisdom. 15 Of the behemoth.

MOREOVER the LORD [d] answered Job, and said,
2 Shall he that [h] contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it.
3 ¶ Then Job answered the LORD, and said,
4 Behold, [i] I am vile; what shall I answer thee? [m] I will lay mine hand upon my mouth.
5 [n] Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, [n] twice; but I will proceed no further.
6 ¶ Then answered the LORD unto Job out of [q] the whirlwind, and said,
7 [r] Gird up thy loins now like a man: [s] I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
8 [z] Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, [y] that thou mayest be righteous?
9 Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?
10 Deck thyself now with majesty and excellency; and [e] array thyself with glory and beauty.
11 Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and [d] behold every one that is proud, and abase him.
12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.
13 Hide them in the dust together; and bind their faces in secret.
14 Then will I also confess unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee.

28 Her keen sight is proverbial & with flashing speed she dives on the prey. The Talmud quotes a proverb that "a vulture in Babylon can see a carcase in Palestine." Cp Mt. 24:28.

CHAPTER 40.

JOB'S REPLY TO YAHWEH'S FIRST SPEECH 1-5.

1 YAHWEH'S REBUKE Vv 1-2.

1 Having paused to let the lesson of the first answer sink in - Yahweh's universal power & care. See Note top column p. 713. He now challenges Job. Cp Job 13:15. 9:3. 23:13. RV: "Shall he that cavilleth contend with the Almighty? Does he really imagine he could successfully contend with Him?

2 JOB CONFESSES HIS FOLLY 3-5.

2 I have already spoken too much. He acknowledges the folly of contending with God, but there is not the full & frank confession as in 42:2-6.

YAHWEH'S SECOND SPEECH: YAHWEH'S ABILITY TO RULE THAT WHICH IS BEYOND MAN TO CONTROL. V. 6 - 41:34.

1 JOB INVITED TO GOVERN THE WORLD. 6-14.

4 In view of what has been said Ch. 38-39 would Job cancel the divine MISHPAT or verdict in Creation.
5 His ignorance of God's purpose in his own case had led him to justify himself & to unadvisedly question the righteousness of God. 32:2.
6 Have you strength to rule like El?
7 Does your voice inspire fear & respect like His? Cp Ps. 29. Job 38: 34-35.
8 Attributes of God. Ps. 111; 104: 1. Job is invited to assume the Divine majesty & sovereign of the 9 Job is invited to improve upon the methods of the Almighty in putting down the proud. Job had questioned as to why the Almighty permitted the wicked to prosper. Job 24:1-23.

10 When Job can do what he is challenged to do in Vv 9-13, then he may presume to dispute with God & act independently of Him. Two examples of creation were submitted for Job's consideration as representative of fleshly pride and power - behemoth & Leviathan. They are beyond the ability of man to control, hence man needs the help of God for salvation Rom. 8:3 & must accept in faith the measure he receives from the Almighty's hand as YAHWEH'S CHALLENGE CH.40:8.: Job's conduct, in maintaining his own righteousness, and in presuming to dispute with the Almighty, or even desiring to do so, actually involved two implications. • That improvements can be made to the Divine government of creation, and. • That he was more righteous than God. On these grounds, God invited him to try his hand at controlling creation vv.9-14. Job did not intend this a "was appalled at the logical implication of his words Ch.42:6, but nevertheless that remained the implication.

LEVIATHAN: If man cannot conquer the crocodile how can he successfully contend with God v.10. Why did He make such an animal? Why does He permit certain developments among the children of men! He has His reasons - not always apparent. We must accept the enigmas of life in faith.

JOB SILENCED CH.40:3-5

JOB'S CONFUSION

The very extremity and bitterness of his trials had confused Job. • He recognised God as just 9:1-3; but saw no justice in his current experiences. 6:29-30; 7:12-21. • He looked to God as his Redeemer 19:25, but feared that to be incongruous with His present silence. • He acknowledged that He was omnipotent so that even and birds were controlled by His law 12:7-25; 9:9, but was confused and depressed that the Omnipotent ought to permitted him to suffer as he did - more, designed and directed those sufferings as he viewed them. • He desired to contend with God (so assured was he of the justness of his case) whom, he imagined, treated him as an enemy 13:21-24. Perhaps he stored up past sins against him instead of forgiving them 13:25-28, or had knowledge of some secret sins unknown to Job 14:16-21. • Why should he be left to the ungodly 16:11-16, for he had not been unjust, but pure 17:21. This he constantly asserted 13:18-17. • He claimed that God's wisdom cannot be discovered 28:12-22, and that His silence added to the cruelty of his case. 30:19-24. No matter how much Job sought Him, God remained hidden 23:8-9, His wisdom could not be discovered 28:12-22. His silence was regretted 30:19-24.

YAHWEH'S ANSWER

The obviously wrong assessment made by Job's friends relating to his case strengthened his conviction of his personal righteousness. He felt it incongruous that he should suffer as he did, and desired to reason his case with God direct. He was disillusioned and dissatisfied with traditional and current thought of God, and sought a conception of the divine Being that would meet the moral and intellectual demands that he felt impelled to make. But the God he wanted remained hidden and in that state he felt isolated and without direction. 23:8-9. Now Yahweh answered Job and silenced him. • First he spoke to Job of his universal power and wisdom, and hence the futility of Job challenging him. 38:1-38. • Job was not present at creation and was limited in his conception of Divine purposes. 38:4f. • But all creation is governed by laws for man's benefit and to maintain life on earth: earth and heavens, land and sea, light and dark, sunshine and rain are all governed by laws that restrain and guide for the glory of Yahweh and the wellbeing of man. Cp 38:13, 23, 26 and Heart v.27. Job's knowledge of this extremely limited vv.12, 16, 17, 24, 33 etc. • Job had made reference to some of the wonders of creation Cp Ch.9:2-10 Cp 38:31-32. but failed to apply the lessons of it in his own case. If he searched the laws of creation, he would find perfect adjustment to all the needs of Yahweh's creatures: laws which permitted the storm but controlled it; that caused the tides of the ocean to rise but limited them; that set forth principles that were illustrative of His work in the affairs of man Gen.1:14; Dan.4:17, 25; Is.40:7,20; Jer.33:22,26. References by Job that Yahweh now invites him to apply to his own condition are found in 26:7, 24:13-16; 10:20-22, 26; 1-14. 27:21. 9:1-13.

• Job had referred to beasts and birds as teaching the things of God 12:7. He was invited to examine the evidence to see that it exhibited a universal care, a wonderful balance of nature on the part of Yahweh, exhibiting that there was no need for Job to challenge God. • This revealed that Yahweh had care and consideration for His lower creation Mat.10:29-31; 1 Cor.9:9; Ps.104:14-27. • It revealed that in the imperfect state introduced by sin, life is only sustained by the sacrifice of an innocent unsuspecting victim. In the future, the lion will eat straw like the ox 11:7. as at the beginning; but in the meantime it is carnivorous and only obtains the necessary chlorophyll (the sun's health-giving rays) by preying on herbivorous animals. (In the life of nature death is not as extensive as the mortality of man on the roads! - World of Wild life). Therefore suffering and death have an invaluable purpose in the natural order of creation in sustaining life. • From the beginning all animals and birds have been divided into clean and unclean categories Gen.7, and their characteristics are illustrative of those of man. There is the assertive, quarrelsome wild goat; the innocent, timid hind; the free, independent and swift wild ass; the slow-moving extremely powerful wild ox; the stupid, vain ostrich. Yahweh has care for them all Matt.5:45.

• In the sphere of nature, both animals and birds of prey stalk innocent unsuspecting victims, illustrating in this time of curse that such [redacted] necessary to the continuance of life under the present constitution of things. Job was as a "clean" beast in the sight of Yahweh, but had been "preyed" upon by the Satan of the prologue. • Nature should have taught Job 1 Cor.11:14. that the call of God - true righteousness - is a call to self sacrifice that others might benefit. Job recognised that his sufferings were under the cognisance of God and therefore were of benefit either for himself John 15:2. or others 1 Cor.15:29-32. Job's sufferings were necessary, both for the purification of self and for the salvation of his friends. • God desires all "to come to repentance" 2 Pet.3:9; Jhn 3:16-17. and so provided the antitype in Jesus Jam.5:10-11. Acts 2:22-24; 3:11-15. and the Ecclesia Col.1:14; Phil.1:21; 3:9-10. in which the Apostles were foremost. 1 Cor.4:9; 1 Thess.3:0; 2 Cor.4:10; Phil.3:10. • Job's sufferings, therefore, illustrated Gen.3:15; Heb.5:8; 2 Cor.5:14. which principle had been implanted as a testimony in the very laws of nature Rom.1:20; Gen.1:14. Sin had made such a contest inevitable to obtain unto the dominion Gen.1:28; Jhn 17:1-2. • The lesson of suffering was not openly and clearly proclaimed because in such circumstances Yahweh frequently is hidden from view. There are many things that cannot be explained now; and only the future will reveal its true purpose and objective. Let us be assured that if we give our lives into the keeping of God that we will ultimately find that all suffering is beneficial in its scope.

JOB'S DEVELOPMENT

• Job's doubts were exhibited in stages. At first he had none 1:22. • However, his resignation, as expressed in 2:10 is not as complete as formerly 1:20-22. • Even when he cursed his day Ch.3. there is no murmur of complaint against God. It is a long moan, a terrible cry of [redacted] human despair, but it is not a complaint against God. • The criticism and false theory of his friends was the last straw. He claims his sufferings are from God 6:4, though he has not denied His words 6:10. • But now he gives full vent to his feelings - scornfully repudiating the conclusions of his friends, but also remonstrating with God, claiming that he cannot find Him 23:4. • Gradually he became calmer searching for a solution to his problem resting upon his hope 19:25-26. but still confused with his state. • He was left with heart-wrung cries and questions that even the new approach by Elihu failed to answer,

It can keep up a speed of 40 mph for some considerable distance; and relies upon its extremely keen sight & strong legs to escape danger. It will abandon its young in face of danger. "As with most animals, the baby ostriches are at greatest risk immediately after they are hatched. All kinds of predators—lions, leopards, cheetahs, hyenas, jackals, snakes and birds of prey—are waiting to strike (even crows) . . . But the birds may be endangered even before they are hatched. George Adamson watched a hyena prowling about 1100 yards from a nest containing 17 eggs, which were being incubated by one parent bird. A few hours later, only the shells were left." BEHEMOTH: Symbol of Fleshly Pride V.11

- The powerful head of the hippopotamus bears a strong resemblance to a horse—hence the name the Greeks gave to it which signifies "River-horse."
- However, the massive barrel-shaped body with its diminutive legs, stumpy tail and gleaming, hairless skin, closely resembles a huge pig—and indeed, it does belong to the same suborder, of Suiformes.
- In bulk, it is second only to the elephant—and in some cases even rivals that huge animal. The hippopotamus can weigh up to 4 tons, stands almost 5 feet at the shoulder, and is about 14 feet long.
- The water plays a vital part in controlling the animal's body temperature (prolonged exposure to heat is dangerous) so that it spends most of the day in water, or in mud. It can swim, dive or float without difficulty and because of its huge lungs, can remain submerged for 10 minutes or more. If spared the hottest time of the day basking in the water with only eyes, ears and nostrils exposed.
- On land it can walk, trot and even run with comparative facility. It is basically a herbivore and has to satisfy its voracious appetite by roaming the plains and savannahs adjacent to the lakes and rivers. It can run up to 30 mph.
- Though not particularly belligerent it fears no enemy. Hippos have been known to attack sharks when swimming between the African mainland and the island of Zanzibar. In jealously preserving the territory it marks off for itself, it has been known to scare off elephants, and emerge victorious from an attack by lions. When aroused hippos will attack each other with fatal fury.
- "The hippo's teeth are indeed formidable weapons. The incisors are smaller than the canines & may be altogether absent from the upper jaw. The enormous lower canines, which are clearly visible when the jaws are open, are arranged vertically. Since each may be about 2 feet long (root included) & weigh 7-8 lb they obviously have deadly possibilities" (World of Wild Life).
- According to statistics, the animal's relationship to man reveal it to be "the most dangerous of all the wild animals that habitually prowl lake and river banks."
- It has an enormous appetite. Its terrible teeth act as scythes. "In a single night an adult male hippopotamus may consume & digest upwards of 300 lb of mixed vegetation, comprising grass, leaves, shoots, branches, bulbs and roots."

This animal witnessed to the glory & majesty of its Creator, as Job was compelled to acknowledge Job 42:2. If Job could not tame or control Behemoth—how could he contend with God. If he could not understand why God permitted such creatures to exist, how could he comprehend His purpose in all the confusing issues of life. Best then to accept life in faith with the realization that a Divine providence—all powerful & beneficent is behind these confusing issues.

Behemoth represented fleshly pride, greed and power. It was beyond the power of man to dominate or tame this. The Creator alone had that ability. Job & all others must wait for Him to manifest it.

In fact the hippopotamus—grotesque, greedy, ugly, dangerous helps to maintain the balance of life & enrich the places of its habitat. So do men of flesh in that they form part of an environment calculated to bring the influences of the truth to perfection. Prov. 16:4.

LEVIATHAN: SYMBOL OF FLESHLY POWER.

- Job, who would not have argued with a crocodile, desired to contend with God. Ch 41:10. As it is only with difficulty and stealth that the crocodile is ensnared and tamed, so it is so with man in the political realm Ch 41:34. The world at large will ultimately be captured as is the crocodile. These are some of the lessons suggested by this chapter.
- Furthermore—if the hunter revealed his intentions and methods to the crocodile, would he capture it? He would not. It would evade him.
- So here was Yahweh's answer to Job. Fleshly pride & power must be subdued to Yahweh—but if He revealed the means, it would defeat the purpose. We must accept in faith without question the vicissitudes of life, confident in the assurance that they are for our good, no matter how painful.

The armour-plated crocodile. (The Nile crocodile).

- Length—17 feet (according to reports there used to be Nile crocodiles up to 21 feet long but they do not exist today.
- Weight—up to one ton.
- Teeth—18-19 in each half of upper jaw; 14-15 in each half of lower jaw.
- Habitat—Previously throughout Middle East—once infested the Nile, but today scarce & protected. It was worshipped in Egypt in Thebes.
- The teeth tear and chop up, but are incapable of masticating. The fierce, wide jaws remain open most of the time & whilst the crocodile eats birds, it allows the plovers to enter its mouth & clean the teeth of [illegible] scraps of food & the tongue of leeches. They also act as sentinels, giving out their characteristic rapid alarm call & warning the recumbent reptile of the approach of danger.
- "The narrow, vertical, brilliantly green eyes of the Nile crocodile indicate that its nocturnal vision is excellent. In fact it normally hunts for food during the night, at dawn, and again at dusk" —World of Wild Life.
- They possess vocal cords and can emit a wide range of sounds, the male roaring loudly during the mating season.
- It is fierce, strong, a powerful & swift swimmer, attacking mankind & the largest animals with daring impetuosity. Nothing that it once seizes can escape; and, chopping its prey to pieces, it is swallowed without mastication.

The skin is penetrable in few places only & it can be harpooned only with extreme difficulty and danger.
Ironical. Do this once - it will be enough. You will not live to do it the second time.
The hope of capturing or killing him is vain for the normal person.
The very sight of an attacking crocodile is enough to paralyze one with fear.

2 ITS TERRIFYING APPEARANCE vv. 10-24

RV: "first given to me" God is under no debt to man.
Who hath laid me under any obligation to my creatures. Yet Job who would not have argued with a crocodile wanted to do so with God to justify himself. Job 9:3; 15; 10:2-7, 13; 23:3-9. See Note opposite.
RV: "Who can strip off his outer garment?"
Who can rip up the hide or pierce the armour of this monster.
RV: "Who shall come within his double bridle. The fearsome double range of teeth - of this creature which has the largest mouth of all monsters.
Go on top jaw; strong lower - sharp, strong, large - designed to tear the prey & not to masticate.
No chinks in that armour. The guard is strong Ezek 29:3
As sun seen peeping over the horizon, so the pig-like eyes of crocodile can see its prey whilst body is almost entirely submerged
Obs. for sneezing. Spurting of water out of nostrils, the drops of which form sort of iris or rainbow.
According to Naturalists — when the crocodile emerges after lying long under the water & being forced to hold its breath, the breath, long repressed is hot, and bursts forth so violently, that it resembles fire and smoke.
The snorting of the crocodile when it emerges has this appearance.
The strength of its head has been commented upon by naturalists. It is as virile as the head & widens out to the width of the body.
RV: "And terror danceth before him."
Those parts of the body which are normally soft & flabby in other animals are tough & hard in the crocodile. The muscles are so firm that the crocodile has difficulty in turning.

4 IT'S INVINCIBLE COURAGE vv. 25-34

25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves.
26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon.
27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.
28 The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble.
29 Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.
30 Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.
31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.
32 He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.
33 Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear.
34 He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

25 RV: "When he lifteth himself up the mighty are afraid: by reason of his crashings they are beside themselves."
26 RV: "The sword of him that reacheth unto him cannot avail: the spear, the dart, nor the shaft."
27 RV: "He counteth iron as straw, & brass as rotten wood."
28 RV: "The arrow cannot put him to flight: slingstones are turned with him into stubble."
29 RV: "Clubs are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the rushing of the javelin."
30 RV: "Sharp potsherds are under him: he spreadeth as it were a threshing-wain upon the mire."
31 RV: "He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment."
32 RV: "He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to have hoary hair."
33 RV: "Upon earth there is not his like, that is made to be without fear."
34 RV: "He beholdeth every thing that is high: he is king over all the children of pride."

Why does God allow such persecuting powers to develop? They play a part in moulding the lives of saints as the experience of Israel in Egypt showed. Man cannot control them, but God can. See note above.
Only with extreme difficulty, great skill, and personal risk. Herodotus refers to the manner in which Egyptians caught the crocodile in that way. Cp. Ezek. 29:4.
RV: "Or press down his tongue with a cord."
Yahweh did to the Assyrian Leviathan 2 Kg 19: 28 & will do so to the Gogian Ezek 38:4.
Ironical. Will he plead for his life?
Can you tame him? This has been done with difficulty in Egypt & worshipped like 2:69, Jer 27:8
A pet-play mate around the house.
RV. "Shall bands of fishermen make traffic of him?" — not normally

24 His heart is as firm as a stone; yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.
25 When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid; by reason of breakings they purify themselves.
26 The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon.
27 He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.
28 The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble.
29 Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.
30 Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.
31 He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.
32 He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.
33 Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear.
34 He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

CHAPTER 42.

1 Job submitteth himself unto God. 7 God, preferring Job's cause, maketh his friends submit themselves, and accepteth him. 10 He magnifieth and blesseth Job. 16 Job's age and death.

THEN Job answered the LORD, and said,
2 I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee.
3 Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.
4 Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
5 I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now mine eye seeth thee.
6 Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.
7 ¶ And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.
8 Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.
9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job.
10 And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.
11 Then came there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold.
12 So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

"They Keys that David struck have reverberated ever since. They have found harmony in the heart of the exile, the sufferer, the joyful, the triumphant, they have helped in moments of sadness and of joy, in sorrow and in happiness, in disaster and in triumph, in sin and in right-eousness. The Psalms provide the right note for moods of thankfulness, sorrow, despair, hope, rage, love, mercy, doubt, vengeance, faith. In the vicissitudes of David's life we have a companion who can utter the words we feel in all the trials that come our way — in wandering, escapes, captivity, banishment, bereavement, persecution. He expresses for us the exaltation that comes from the below

CHAPTER 42.

JOB HUMBLES HIM-SELF BEFORE YAHWEH Vv 1-6

1 Yahweh is omnipotent.
2 RV: "And that no purpose of Thine can be restrained." He has been shown God's universal power & universal care even in the jungle (see right top p. 711). He has been shown that God has created for His purpose animals that personify the pride of flesh 40:11 and the political power 41:34, and therefore He has all creation under His control. His creatures, therefore, must accept all the vicissitudes of life in faith, knowing that He is in control, and will do all things well. Cp. Mk. 7:37 and all will work out for the best.
3 Job repeats Yahweh's words and confesses that he had done so.
4 In condemning why he did not desire to vindicate himself. Job's ready confession reveals his true greatness and genuine humility.
5 Cp. 38:1; 40:7. Job is humbled.
6 Previously he demanded an audience 9:35; 10:2; 13:22. In order to vindicate himself. Now he pleads that his confession of failure be heard.
Again he quotes the words of Elihu from out of the storm, and humbly confesses that all he has to say is an apology for his insolence.

quiet contemplation of nature (Ps 8, 29, 104), the excitement of the battlefield of Israel (Ps 20, 60, 110), the splendor of great coronations (Ps 45). The Apostles dwelt often on these moods and quoted freely from the Psalms. The Psalms are prophetic, they take us into the future and cause us to thrill at the great drama yet to be played in the earth and which is fittingly expressed in these Songs of Zion" (amended)

The Psalms guide our emotions and feelings as other Scriptures do our faith and action. The Israelites used them in the Temple, the Jews used them in the synagogue; Christ

The title Psalms is endorsed by N.T. usage: Luke 20:42. Acts 1:20. 13:33.

JOB: SUMMARY. Jam. 5:11. We have seen a man subjected to trials, deserted of friends, reproached by his wife, perplexed by specious arguments, driven to implore him self, yet successfully brought through it all by God honored at last. We may experience trials, defection of friends, misunderstanding — let us remember the end of Job. The sky may be dark, the storm of debate fierce, the thunder & lightning of attack ominous — but the Voice of Yahweh can be heard in its midst above it. A man does not reveal himself at best in argument debate on self justification, but in Job

It was in his final confession that Job reached the height of his power, a true vindication. It was in this that Yahweh was finally vindicated & Satan defeated. And this had necessarily to be done without a formal explanation of the real cause purpose of the suffering.

Like the Pentateuch, the Psalms are divided into 5 books. As the writings and labour of Moses brought Israel to nationhood, so the writings and labour of David formulated the Kingdom. David acts as a bridge between Moses and Christ. And like Christ's dissertation on the mount, David's words in the Psalms likewise commence with a beatitude. • The last five Psalms repeat the Pentateuch.

13 [a] He had also seven sons and three daughters.

2 But [c] his delight is in the law of the LORD; and [d] in his law doth he meditate day and night.

4 The ungodly are not so: but are [g] like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
5 Therefore the ungodly shall not [h] stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
6 For [i] the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

1 The kingdom of Christ. 10 Kings are exhorted to accept it.

WHY do [r] the heathen [8] rage, and the people [9] imagine a vain thing?
2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,
3 Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.
4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall [a] laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.
5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and [3] vex them in his sore displeasure.
6 Yet have I [4] set my king [5] upon my holy hill of Zion.
7 I will declare [6] the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.
8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.
9 Thou shalt [t] break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces [m] like a potter's vessel.
10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.
11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with [o] trembling.
12 [p] Kiss the [q] Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, [s] when his wrath is kindled but a little. [t] Blessed are [u] all they that put their trust in him.

2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah.

PSALM 8

A Messianic Psalm.

A person is said to have a good name because of the character he bears. In the days of Goliath this was by the vindication of His power to redeem and save in the face of the blasphemies of Goliath that typed the future. Note David's words. 1 Sam 17:46. Above the Jewish heavens.

The striding David was a babe in the sight of Goliath. He first testified to Yahweh's greatness by proclaiming the Truth, and later indicated it in conflict. So also do the saints Cor. 1:27. Matt. 11:25. Ps 44:9

The Psalm is thus historic and prophetic, bridging the dramatic introduction of David to Israel with that of Messiah in the future.

This Psalm celebrated the glory of David's victory. It was the prayer before the contest.

Enosh. First occurence - Men of name Gen 6:4 Always in a bad sense (Isa 5:22, 45:14, Jud. 18:25) Morally - depraved. Physically - weak, frail. 1 David encourageth himself in God against his enemies. 4 The providence and justice of God.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

IN the LORD put I my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?
2 For, lo, [a] the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon [2] the string, that they may [3] privily shoot at the upright in heart.
3 If [b] the foundations be [4] destroyed, what can the righteous do?
4 The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD's throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, [5] his eyelids try, the children of men.
5 The LORD [c] trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.
6 Upon [6] the wicked he shall rain [7] snares, fire and [8] brimstone, and [9] an horrible tempest: this shall be [h] the portion of their cup.
7 For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance doth behold the upright.

PSALM 12.

David, destitute of human comfort, craveth help of God. 3 God's judgments on the wicked.

To the chief Musician [9] upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David.

HELP, LORD; for [m] the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.
2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with [3] a double heart do they speak.
3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh [4] proud things:
4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips [5] are our own: who is lord over us?
5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that [2b] puffeth at him.
6 [c] The words [11] of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.
7 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve [12] them from this generation for ever.
8 The wicked walk on every side, when [5] the vilest men are exalted.

2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?
3 Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: [g] lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

PSALM 18.

David praiseth God for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

To the chief Musician. A Psalm of David, [a] the servant of the LORD, who spake unto the LORD the words of [b] this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: And he said,

[c] I WILL love thee, O LORD, my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, [1] my strength, [d] in whom I will trust; my buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower.

3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised: so shall I be saved from mine enemies.

4 The [e] sorrows of death compassed me, and the floods of [f] ungodly men made me afraid.

5 The [g] sorrows of hell compassed me about: the snares of death [2] prevented me.

6 [h] In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.

7 Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also [i] of the hills moved and were shaken, because he was wroth.

8 There went up a smoke [3] out of his nostrils, and [k] fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down: and darkness was under his feet.

10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, he did [l] fly upon the wings of the wind.

11 He made darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were [m] dark waters and thick clouds of the skies.

12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed, [n] hail stones and coals of fire.

for his manifold and marvellous blessings.

in the heavens, and the Highest gave his voice; [a] hail stones and coals of fire.
14 Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.
15 Then [d] the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils.
16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of [5] many waters.
17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated me: [e] for they were too strong for me.
18 They [h] prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.
19 He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.
20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.
21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.
22 For all his judgments were before me, and [i] I did not put away his statutes from me.
23 I was also upright [6] before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.
24 Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands [7] in his eyesight.
25 With the merciful [8] thou wilt shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;
26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt [3] shew thyself froward.
27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down [b] high looks.
28 For thou wilt [c] light my [2] candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.
29 For by thee I have [3] run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.
30 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is [4] tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.
31 For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?
32 It is God that [e] girdeth me with strength, and [f] maketh my way perfect.
33 He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.
34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.
35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and [6] thy gentleness hath made me great.
36 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that [7] my feet did not slip.
37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.
38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.
39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast [9] subdued under me those that rose up against me.
40 Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.
41 [k] They cried, but there was none to save them: even unto the LORD, but he answered them not.

THE REVELATION OF HIS GLORY IN HIS WORD. vv.7-11

PSALMS.

David praiseth God. He prayeth for grace.

I did cast them out as the dirt in the streets.

43 Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.

44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves unto me.

45 The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.

46 The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

47 It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me.

48 He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

49 Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises unto thy name.

50 Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore.

Gp Isa 55:3, Jer 32:40

PSALM 19.

1 The creatures shew God's glory. 7 The word his grace. 12 David prayeth for grace.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament sheweth his handywork.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,

5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

6 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it: and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.

8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart: the commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever: the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold: sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned: and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

PSALM 20.

The church's confidence in God's succour.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David.

THE LORD hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob defend thee;

2 Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion;

3 Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt sacrifice; Selah.

4 Grant thee according to thine own heart, and fulfil all thy counsel.

5 We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the LORD fulfil all thy petitions.

6 Now know I that the LORD saveth his anointed; he will hear him from his holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.

7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.

8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright.

9 Save, LORD: let the king hear us when we call.

1 THE king shall joy in thy strength, O LORD; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!
2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.
3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.
4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest it him, even length of days for ever and ever.
5 His glory is great in thy salvation: honour and majesty hast thou laid upon him.
6 For thou hast made him most blessed for ever: thou hast made him exceeding glad with thy countenance.
7 For the king trusteth in the LORD, and through the mercy of the most High he shall not be moved.
8 Thine hand shall find out all thine enemies: thy right hand shall find out those that hate thee.
9 Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the LORD shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.
10 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.
11 For they intended evil against thee: they imagined a mischievous device, which they are not able to perform.
12 Therefore shalt thou make them turn their back, when thou shalt make ready with thy strings upon thy face against them.
13 Be thou exalted, LORD, in thine own strength: so will we sing and praise thy power.

PSALM 22

THE LORD AS SIN OFFERING

The intensely personal character of the language bears witness that it springs from the experience of an individual life — whilst in its predictions it goes beyond individual experience.

CHRIST'S PLEA FOR DIVINE CERTIFICATE Vv. 1-10

Yahweh is still "his El" — he has not lost faith, or feels himself abandoned.
Such a question does not necessarily indicate the speaker does not know the answer — in this case, Why Christ had to suffer but merely that he had committed nothing to merit the evils inflicted. (See similar usage in ...)
Christ knew the reason (Ps. 22:21). It was therefore not a cry of reproach, but expressive of Christ's sinlessness. Thus the answer is that which had laid on him the chastisement of our peace.
Not forsaken in the sense of abandoned or betrayed, but the sense of withdrawal. The El or Power of Spirit of Yahweh was now withdrawn. Cp. John 16:32. Heb. "Azab" = leave, leave.
Yahweh's withdrawal of His spirit caused Him to be "far off" from helping the Lord.
RSV: Groaning. "Cp Matt. 26:39.
The questions are asked in the light of Note 2 above.
R.V. = "answereth not." There was no way out. The Father's Will required the offering of the Son.
RV = "But find no rest." Cp Luke 12:50. Historically David had a similar experience.
Heb. "Kodesh." = Separate. He is separate from the limitations and imperfections of man - and thus pure, righteous, perfect. Therefore, in the sacrifice of Christ there was no imperfect... the willing... the sin bear...

YAHWEH HAS DONE THIS Cp V 11. The song of praise, begun by the Psalmist (v. 22), is echoed by the Ecclesia, is taken up by Israel. All the nations of the earth swell the chorus, and the strain reverberates around the world. So gloriously ends the Psalm which began in the darkest sorrow. It is a parable of Christ, of the Ecclesia, of Israel, of the world.

"It is finished!" Joh 19:30

The last line of this Psalm according to C.B: "It is finished."

The promise to Jacob in Gen. 28:15 beautifully unites the first and last lines of the Psalm. The Lord likewise uttered the first and last line Cp John 19:30. Probably the whole Psalm which may have impressed the repentant thief.

THE MOCKING CROWDS vv 7-8

David prayeth in great distress.

8 [2]He trusted on the LORD that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, [c]seeing he delighted in him.

9 But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou [d]didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts.

10 I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly.

11 Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is [e]none to help.

12 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset me round.

13 They [f]gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am [g]poured out like water, and all my bones are [h]out of joint: my heart is [i]like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

15 My strength is [j]dried up like a potsherd; and [k]my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

16 For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the wicked have [l]inclosed me: [m]they pierced my hands and my feet.

17 I may tell all my bones: [n]they look and stare upon me.

18 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

19 But be not thou far [o]from me, O LORD: O my strength, haste thee to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the [p]dog.

21 Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast [q]heard me from the horns of [r]the unicorns.

22 [s]I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

23 [t]Ye that fear the LORD, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, [u]glorify him; and [v]fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.

24 For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but [w]when he cried unto him, he heard.

25 My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: [x]I will pay my vows before them that fear him.

26 [y]The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the LORD that seek him: [z]your heart shall live for ever.

27 [a]All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the LORD: and all the [b]kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.

28 [c]For the kingdom is the LORD's: and he is the governor among the nations.

29 All they that be [d]fat upon earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall [e]bow before him: and none can keep alive his own soul.

30 A seed shall serve him; [f]it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

In David's day the presence of Yahweh, the King of Israel was indicated by the Ark, and the conveying of it to its resting place Ps. 132:13-14 was preparatory to the building of Solomon's Temple. In that Temple, the Gates and Doors were elevated or lifted up as became the glory of the One ...ting the Ark Ps. 20:11. It is significant that after David brought the Ark to Zion, he immediately wanted to build the Temple, or "lift up the Gates" 1 Sam. 7:2.

THE LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.
3 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.
4 One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple.
5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.
6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.
7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
8 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.
9 Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

deliver me speedily: be thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me.

3 For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for the name's sake lead me, and guide me.

4 Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily for me: for thou art my strength.

5 Into thine hand I commit my spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth.

6 I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD.

7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities;

8 And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a large room.

9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly.

10 For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed.

11 I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see me without fled from me.

12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

13 For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together against me, they devised to take away my life.

14 But I trusted in thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God.

15 My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them that persecute me.

1 Blessedness consisteth in remission of sins, 3 Confession of sins giveth ease to the conscience. 8 A Psalm of David, Maschil.

BLESSED is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the LORD [f] imputeth not iniquity, and [9] in whose spirit there is no guile.

8 I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: [13] I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 [m] Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: [14] whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

10 [q] Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but [r] he that trusteth in the LORD, mercy shall compass him about.

Ps 35 Introduction - See opp. bottom.

There is agony in this Psalm. David is beset with powerful + unscrupulous enemies. They try ruthlessly to destroy him, contemptually laying traps for him, consumed by bitter hatred of him.

It is the first of the imprecatory Psalms. Yet in spite of grievous wrong suffered, nowhere does he express the intention or the wish of taking personal revenge upon his adversaries or traducers. He desires their punishment that Yahweh's course (which is also his cause) might be vindicated, but he leaves this entirely in the hands of Yahweh. Ep Rom 12:19; Deut 32:35

PSALM 38.

David moveth God to take compassion of his [Typ. p.720] pitiful case. See above

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; neither is there any rest in my bones because of my sin.

4 For mine iniquities are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me.

5 My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness.

6 I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly: I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and 35 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay tree.

36 Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found. SHIN

37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off. TAU 39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble.

40 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

The Psalm comprises the outpouring of praise:
1. For a mighty deliverance already received V.V. 1-12.
2. For the assurance of continued help. Vv. 13-20

From V. 11 it was composed after the Ark had been established in Zion Ps. 132:13-14.

This was followed by a time of peace 2 Sam. 7:1 disrupted by wars as powerful enemies attempted to destroy David's authority 2 Sam. 8:1-7, 12-15, 10:1-19.

Such victories provide occasion of praise in such words as V. 5, 6.

David also conscious of the seeds of trouble in the nation V. 13. He tried to correct this by showing kindness to Mephibosheth 2 Sam. 16 through Ziba; but the internal enmity with still rankled among the followers of Saul flared into open rebellion at the first opportunity as was shown by the attitude of Shimei. 2 Sam. 16:5. The Psalm seems expressive of this V. 13.

Ps. 7 - Confidence in Yahweh despite powerful opposition
Ps. 8 - Victory on the field of battle anticipating Heb. 2:5-9
Ps. 9 - Conquest of ... national enemies whose disruptive beasts are thus quieted — foreshadowing future victories.

V. 1. "Marvellous works" - A special term for the wonderful works of Yahweh on behalf of His people Ex. 3:20; Ps. 78:4, 11, 32. To recount & celebrate these is the duty & delight of the saints.

PSALM 39.

David's care of his thoughts. 4 Of the brevity and vanity of life.

To the chief Musician, even to 2 Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

I SAID, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and my sorrow was [b] stirred.

3 My heart was hot within me, while I was musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue,

4 LORD, [c] make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know [d] how frail I am.

5 Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth; and [e] mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man [f] at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

6 Surely every man walketh in [g] a vain shew: [h] surely they are disquieted in vain: [i] he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: [j] make me not the reproach of the foolish.

9 [k] I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; [l] because thou didst it.

10 [m] Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the [n] blow of thine hand.

11 When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest [o] his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah.

12 Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry; [p] hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a [q] stranger with thee, and a sojourner, [r] as all my fathers were.

2 How thou didst [m] drive out the heathen with thy hand, and [n] plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out.

PSALM 44: DELIVERANCE IN TIME OF NEED. 2 Cor. 4:8-11

HISTORICAL: The circumstances expressed by the Psalm require a time of military setback, and a people greatly perturbed thereby as feeling they were undeserving of it Vv 17-22. The precarious military situation recorded in 2 Sam. 8:3-13 when David's attack on Hadadezer was jeopardized by the counter-attacks of the Damascenes and Edomites answer to the requirements. (The circumstances of the nation in the days of Hezekiah - to whom C.B attributes the Psalm hardly answer to Vv 17-21). An indication of the serious nature of the situation can be gathered from 1 Kg 11:15 which suggests that the issue was so grave that Joab had to bury the dead secretly lest the enemy discover how greatly his forces had been weakened.

This was the prayer for help. Ps. 20 was the prayer of thanksgiving for the victory Cp Ps. 60.

PROPHETICAL: V. 11 is cited by Paul Rom. 8:36 and applied to the Ecclesia beset by opposition & trials in the warfare of faith but ultimately victorious.

PSALM 45: THE KING AND HIS CONSORT. - An Anthem celebrating their marriage

HISTORICAL - Possibly celebrated the marriage of Solomon to his bride from Egypt. 1 Kgs 3:1 of whom no evil is recorded such as in 1 Kgs 11:1-4. The language (see superscription) is similar to Song - a series of love songs - in which the bride is linked with Egypt. Song 1:9. Solomon as Gibbor 1 Kgs 4:26. 9:15. 2 Chron 8:3-5.

3 "BUT THOU ART NOT HELPING US!" Vv 9-16.

10 'APH - Very emphatic, as marking a great contrast - as if a note of surprise.
11 This was the appearance at the time - particularly when the Edomites attacked. See Intro. This is often the appearance in the warfare of faith, as Yahweh tries His servants.
12 Cp 1 Sam. 8:18. Evidently initial reverses of a serious nature took place (particularly at the hands of the Edomites) before final victory was won.
13 There had been heavy loss of life. See Intro. • Cp 1 Kgs 11:15.
14 Some had been taken captive.

10 Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves.

11 Thou hast given us [3] like sheep appointed for meat; and hast [d] scattered us among the heathen. ~ Cp Ps 60:1-3 and introduction.

4 "WE ARE DESERVING OF HELP" Vv 17-22.

This section illustrates Rom. 8:36 cp Heb 12:3-13. 5:8

17 All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we [t] dealt falsely in thy covenant.

18 Our heart is not [u] turned back, neither have our [v] steps [v] declined from thy way;

19 Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of [a] dragons, and covered us with [b] the shadow of death.

20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or [c] stretched out our hands to [g] a strange god;

21 Shall not [i] God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22 Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

19 Jackals. The Edomites came from the wilderness to cowardly attack a defenceless people.

20 This Name was vindicated in the first Passover deliverance. Exod. 15:3 Jer 32:20 Ps. 63:12. Ps. 139:11. Jer. 17:10. Heb 4:13.

22 Those slain fighting the work of Yahweh died as did the martyrs of the early Ecclesia Rom. 8:36 and, as Paul showed, not without hope or without Yahweh. Their ultimate victory is sure - was typified in the complete crushing of Edom by David who thus "got him a name" 2 Sam. 8:13. Ps. 60. Title. Thus out of uncertainty and doubt there come the confidence and vindication of faith and a wonderful victory. Let us look to that time. Heb. 11:1, 6. The prayer of faith will ultimately be surely answered as was David's.

5 "THEREFORE DO THOU HELP US" Vv 23-26.

23 The Psalmist did not shrink from using human language in regard to Yahweh in spite

23 [o] Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression?

25 For [c] our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Arise [2] for our help, and redeem us for thy [r] mercies' sake.

PSALM 45.

The majesty and grace of Christ's kingdom. To the chief Musician [4] upon Shoshannim, for the sons of Korah, [5] Maschil, A Song of loves.

MY heart [7] is inditing a good matter: I speak of the things which I have made touching the king: my tongue is the [t] pen of [k] a ready writer.

2 Thou art fairer than the children of men: [l] grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

3 [o] Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most mighty, with thy [p] glory and thy majesty.

4 And in thy majesty [6] ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness: and thy right hand shall teach thee [r] terrible things.

5 Thine [s] arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

6 [x] Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

7 [z] Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore [2c] God, thy God, hath [d] anointed thee with the oil of [f] gladness above thy fellows.

8 All thy garments smell of [h] myrrh, and [h] aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

9 Kings' daughters were among [l] thy honourable women: [m] upon thy right hand did stand the queen in [n] gold of Ophir.

10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear;

SIMILARITY BETWEEN PS 46 & 48 744

"In both we have the same triumph, the same proud affection for the holy city - sanctuary, the same confidence in God's dwelling there, the same vivid picturing of the scattering of enemies & their rapid dispersion, the same swift movement of style in describing that overthrow. The same thought of the diffusion of God's praise in the world as its consequence, the same closing summons to look upon the tokens of deliverance, with the difference that in the former Psalm, these are the shattered wreckage of the defeated foe, & in this the unharmed battlements & palaces of the delivered city." - Maclaren. THE EXHORTATION. "Who can rest confident in his own strength when he sees David fall? Who can despair of Divine mercy when he sees him forgiven? 'Sad triumph of sin over all that is great or excellent in man.' Glorious triumph of grace over all that is shameful or dreadful in sin!" 1 John. 1:9.

David's prayer for remission of sins.

fieth me: and to him that ordereth his conversation *a*right will I shew the salvation of God.

PSALM 51.

1 David prayeth for remission of sins, whereof he maketh a deep confession. 6 He prayeth for sanctification, &c.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, 2 when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bath-sheba.

HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.

2 Wash me throughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done (this) evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.

5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.

6 Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom.

7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

8 Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

9 Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.

10 Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me.

11 Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not thy holy spirit from me.

12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit.

PSALM 52.

David, condemning Doeg, propheseth his destruction.

To the chief Musician, (1) Maschil, A Psalm of David, when (2) Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech.

WHY boastest thou thyself in mischief, O (z) mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually.

2 (a) Thy tongue deviseth (a) mischiefs; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

PSALM 51 (cont.)

SIN AND GRACE COMBINE TO PRODUCE A PSALM OF HUMILITY AND BEAUTY.

The Psalm is quoted by Paul Rom. 3:4 and used by him collectively for Israel, the Ecclesia. See also similar references in the prophets. V 1 with Isa 63:7. V 3 - Isa 59:12. V 7 - Isa 43:25 44:22. V 11 Isa 63:10-12.

Thus David who so often types Christ, here types the multitudinous Christ.

His sorrow is deep, he makes public his need for Divine help that others might be taught. V 13 He delivers the composition to the "chief musician" for public use for all those in similar case. Thus the Chief Musician is the advocate of penitent Israel, Rom 8:34 - the reaction when his prayer was accepted.

PRAYER FOR FORGIVENESS. Vv 1-2.

Cp "Transactions" Note: He needs the free bestowal of favour. There is no excuse for his conduct. RACHAM - The womb - He leans upon the revealed character of Yahweh. Exod 34:6,7 Ps 103:8-9 Ps 145:8 Notice the gradation - Favour, loving kindness, Tender mercy. The loving, the anxious desire of a Father to protect and save his own. The verse implies the helplessness of David apart from grace or cancel. He acknowledges his guilt and recognises the mercy of Yahweh can do it. Notice development "Blot out" - "Wash thoroughly" "cleanse" Heb. "pasha" = Rebellion. Note development "iniquity" "Sin." Lit. "Wash me again and again." Cp the burnt offering Lev 1:9. Niphal - so as to make fit for fellowship Cp Lev 13:6,34 Cf. V 4.

CONFESSION. Vv 3-5

Lit. "I know" (Definite). He has been led to things apparent to Yahweh and Nathan's revelation has cleared his spiritual vision. There had been twinges of conscience, but they had been stifled until now. Ps 32:3.

We do not know the circumstances relations between Bathsheba and Uriah, but in any case, the hurt to them was as nothing in comparison to Yahweh's hurt. In imagining that Yahweh could overlook such conduct was to malign His Holy Name. David's sin combined all possible avenues of sin (2 Sam. 11 note) and therefore gathered all sin to one head. By doing he was rescued from none but Yahweh - his sin could not bring him into condemnation. The sheep were entrusted to his care and he was responsible to the owner. See notes 2 Sam. 12:13

Wrong: Lit: "Thou art righteous in thy words: thou art pure in thy judging." Cp Rom. 3:4 and there applied to the ecclesia, so that David here stands as a type of multitudinous Christ, for whom the Lord daily pleads. What judgment Rom 3:4

Instruction given on David's experience. Doeg slew the priests of Yahweh and hounded David. He typifies the Apostasy which has done similarly Cp Rev. 13:7-9.

The Psalm is divided into two parts: I. The coming destruction of the Wicked. 2. The eventual success of the righteous.

COMING DESTRUCTION OF THE WICKED. Vv 1-5

Doeg's information was designed to harm David's cause. David in turn felt his indignation to avenge the murderers of Doeg, and rests upon the power of Yahweh. Gibbor. Sept. = a lawless one. He was type of antichrist whose boasts against the righteous are verbial.

The braggart here thinks himself safe, but there is a greater than he who will call him into account.

Loving Kindness. The word rendered "mercy" in V 5. The confidence of saints in this life is in this Cp Rev.

Thus Yahweh's kindness is contrasted with the cruel boasting in his wealth, but El shall so completely break it down, as to make the restoration of its ruins impossible, and take him as a man does a coat from the hearth with tongs, and plucking him out of his dwelling, drive him forth as a homeless wanderer. He is spreading himself "as a green bay tree" Psa 37:35 but will be uprooted.

THE REJOICING OF THE RIGHTEOUS. Vv 6-9

The judgment that must assuredly have come upon Doeg, but which is not recorded, foreshadowed coming national judgment on the Antichrist. 2 Thess 2:8

The first impression caused by El's judgments

The sins of tongue = falsehood, slander, false witness. Doeg endulged in this, so also the Apostasy. Rev 13:5-6

Lit. "very wickedness." RV.

Instead of performing service in removing hair or beard, it is used to hurt.

Habitually practises

Not merely truth, but truth that promotes justifications.

Words that consume Cp Rev. 13:15

Heb. Yittotscha = "pull down" thy building. Clarke. the doom of the wicked is forcibly described by various figures. He fancies himself securely entrenched in the fortress of his own strength, but El shall break it down. He is at ease in his home.

for the cleansing of the leper and restoring him to society Lev.14:1. for cleansing from the defilement of death Num.19:6 Cp 1 John 1:7. Hyssop = agent of cleansing.

19 The blood on the hyssop points forward to the blood of Christ by which there is granted forgiveness of sins, the washing points forward to the action of the Word which brings a moral renewal Eph.5:26.

20 Cp Isa.1:18.

21 This would only be possible if Yahweh blotted out his sin.

22 David felt crushed by his sin. The bones of the criminals on the cross were broken to hasten their death. Jhn 19:31-36 David was in the position of the repentant thief. Cp Ps 32:3.

23 Lit. "Create me..." David recognised that Yahweh alone could do that. He desired something that had not existed before. Religious formalism was no indication of this "new" heart as Paul showed. See note. Gal.6:15.

24 Lit. "make new."

25 Note: "right spirit," "holy spirit" v.11 "free spirit" v.12. Ruach Nachon = "constant," "steady" "determined." See Margin. Note the promise to Israel. Ezek. 36:26

26 Cp Ps.11:7, 41:12.

27 Rejected from access to Divine worship, then associated with Tabernacle. When Israel driven from the land, it was from "Yahweh's presence." Cp 2 Kings 13:23, 17:20 24:20. Jer. 7:15.

28 Kadesh Ruach. This was taken from Saul and given to David 1 Sam.16:13-14 and now David dreads that it will be taken from him. The exercise of this gift was the greatest joy of his life, by it the Psalms came into being Cp Acts 1:16. Heb 3:7. The Holy Spirit also sanctified Rom.15:16. by the power of its teaching 1 Cor. 2:13 Gal.5:16. Hebrew Student's Manual" renders: "Spirit of Thy holiness."

29 This had been lost in the doubt as to whether Yahweh would forgive.

30 Ruach Nedibar = a free, generous princely spirit. Word rendered "willing" Exod.35:5, 22 where Israel asked to render back to Yahweh an offering in view of the liberality they had experienced from Him Cp James 1:17. Luke 6:35. Now David pleads that the generous, princely spirit of Yahweh should be extended to forgive, sustain, and uplift him.

DAVID'S VOWS. Vv 17-15

31 David was true to his promise. He helped to give the greatest publicity to his own shortcomings and Yahweh's generosity by delivering these Psalms up for public use and instruction for the benefit and guidance of others. Cp Ps. 32:6.

32 He acknowledges his sin is worthy of death. See note. 2 Sam.11:5. In David's case, as it does in the case of us all, Yahweh's mercy triumphed over His law.

33 Yahweh remained just whilst extending mercy Cp Rom. 3:25. David had to openly acknowledge his sin, and was severely punished for it. 2 Sam. 12:6, 11-14. Note v.10.

- Pardon 1-4
- Problem 5-6
- Purge 7-12
- Promise 13-17
- Prophecy 18-19
- Confession 1-4
- Explanation 5-6
- Petition 7-12
- Supplication 13-17
- Anticipation 18-19

34 This would only be possible by granting his petition.

DAVID'S OFFERING Vv 16-17.

35 The law provided no formal or legal forgiveness for such a sin as had been committed Cp Ex. 21:14 There was but one thing possible — to throw himself completely on the mercy of Yahweh offering a penitent heart, and broken spirit. How much greater was David for the experience he underwent.

36 Any formalised religion in the absence of what Yahweh desires is of little value. Ps.40: 6; 50:8. Prov.15:8. Jer. 7:21-24. Amos 5:21-22, Mark 12:33.

37 Ruach Nishbarah = break into pieces. Ps. 34:18; Ps. 147:3. 2 Kings 22:19. Luke. 18:11-14. Ps.22:24.

38 Heb. "leb nishbar venidkah." "Dakar" = beat out thin. Reduce thick masses metal into thin plates easily bent to any desired shape. Thus a heart so reduced that it is pliable to the moulding hands of Yahweh.

DAVID'S DESIRE Vv 18-19.

39 Sig. Sr. = Conspicuous, a guiding pillar. Called the City of David 2 Sam. 5:7. David's sin threatened to undo all that Yahweh had promised relating to Zion. His prayer for forgiveness was not merely for present advantage, but future glory. The Son promised had not yet been born. 1 Chr. 22:9.

40 Guard and protect. David's sin threatened to bring trouble on the nation if Yahweh withdrew His protection. So whatever might happen to the King - save the nation.

41 Cp Isa. 56:7. Jer. 33:17-18. David's mind looks forward to the glorious future upon which the whole of his life was based. Yahweh is pleased with sacrifices offered in proper spirit Ps. 66:13-15. Ps 118:27. Heb 9:23. 13:16.

42 Olah - Denotes sacrifices ascending in smoke and flame. From Hiphil of Verb 'alah - to cause to ascend. Note that Israel so consumed because they rejected the sacrifice of Yahweh. Acts 2:19.

43 Kalil - Entirely consumed. The process completed.

44 David was a prophet. Acts 2:30. Cp. Ezek. 45:22.

THIS PSALM was probably composed as David lay all night upon the ground in excess of grief when the full enormity of his sin was brought home to him 2 Sam. 12:16.

IT IS LINKED with Ps.32. which acknowledges his gratitude to Yahweh in covering his sin.

For almost a year (see 2 Sam. 12) he stubbornly refused to acknowledge his sin in spite of the accusing voice of conscience and seemingly the admonitions of sickness (Ps 32:3-4) which may have been the cause of his long absence from the war which meanwhile was conducted (2 Sam. 12:26-28). Nathan's message, however, struck home to his heart and revealed the full measure of his guilt and ingratitude (2 Sam. 12:7-9) to Yahweh.

David threw himself upon Yahweh's mercy, and because he had exhibited mercy in the past to such as Saul, he now received a like treatment.

Psalm 52

V.1 Boastest - Doeg - Timid, or fearful. He told Saul a partial truth with a false accusation 1 Sam. 22:10, 22. His presence caused David to seek refuge in Gath.

V.2 Mischiefs - HAVVATH - "eagerly coveting = rushing upon.

V.3. Love evil: Note the development • He boasts in" mischief • His tongue speaks very wickedness, such as is studied • plotted. • He works deceit • He loves evil more than good. • He delights in falsehood • He loves words that destroy others • Has tongue is deceitful - pretending friendship whilst concerting evil v.4.

V.5 For ever. NETSACH = GOAL. Ges. includes meaning = perpetual, completely As the reaching of a goal completes an action, so his destruction will be absolute.

PSALM 53.

This Psalm is a repetition of Ps. 14 with a slight variation in V.5. In the great events of history: the Flood, Babel, Sodom etc. there was evidence of man in ignorance of God and following the dictates of depraved human nature, refusing to recognise that God is with the righteous. Ps. 14:5-6. Ps. 53:4.

The historical circumstances that illustrated this could well have been the contempt of the Jebusites for Israel and its God 2 Sam. 5:6-10. The taking of Jebus, Zion, paved the way for David's extension of power 2 Sam. 5:10.

The repetition Ps. 53 could have been brought forth by Hezekiah in the face of Sennacherib's threat + Rab-shakeh's lying words against the God of Israel whom he decried as being no better than the gods of the heathen. 2 Chron. 32:15-19. Cp Ps 53:5.

It is quoted by Paul to show that humanity is under the domination of sin + needs redemption from such. Rom. 3:9-12. Note Paul's conclusion Vv 19-31.

THE UNIVERSAL CORRUPTION OF MANKIND AND THE DIVINE REDEMPTION FROM IT

1 THE PREVAILING WICKEDNESS OF MANKIND AND ITS CAUSE VV. 1-3.

1. NÂBAL. - A stupid person whose stubbornness makes him wicked. Cp Nabal 1 Sam. 25:25. Abner died as such, failing to recognise or heed that Yahweh was with David + dying at the hand of Joab 2 Sam. 3:33. Cp the Parable of the Fool Luke 12:20.
2. Not externally. Even where God is respected he is atheistic. It is a practical atheism. Where God is not a reality evil conduct abounds. Cp Num. 14:21. Folly is the opposite of ~~[illegible]~~ wisdom in its highest sense. Predicated of forgetfulness of God or impious opposition to His will Deut. 32:6, 11; Ps 74:18, 22.
- Gross offence against morality 2 Sam. 13:12-13. Sacrilege Josh. 7:15. Ungenerous churlishness 1 Sam. 25:25.
- For a description of a fool in his folly see Isa. 32:5-6. (Vile person - Nabal; villainy - NEBELÂH). - The last generation of Israelites; Amnon + Tamar; Abner; Nabal. Men must forget God to act like that.
3. A practical atheism + not merely a theoretical denial of God. Ps 10:4; 73:11; Jer 5:12; Zeph. 1:12. Rom. 1:28
4. Reminiscent of the Flood Gen. 6:11-12. Atheism of the heart corrupted them.
5. No one apart from those who seek God Cp. Gen. 6:5.
6. He is infinitely just + merciful. Cp Babel Gen. 11:5. Sodom Gen. 18:21.
7. Cp the pleading of Abraham - for lo's sake Gen. 18:23-32. Basis of Intercession - Abraham's respect for God's Word Gen. 18:17-19. Effectiveness of it Gen. 19:29.
8. Roth. "Tainted." 'ÂLACH - To muddle, turn sour like milk.

2 THE DEPRAVITY OF MANKIND EXEMPLIFIED IN ITS OPPOSITION TO GOD'S PEOPLE: HIS CARE SHOWN IN THEIR DELIVERANCE VV 4-5.

9. Cannot they discern between right + wrong?
10. Easily + without thought. Cp Num. 14:9.
11. These words are additional to Ps. 14. Referring to Sennacherib's host which was suddenly overwhelmed by fear whereas previously it was full of confidence. Thus Hezekiah used David's Psalm of Instruction, and applied it to his own circumstances.

12 Cp Ps. 2:4-5.

3 PRAYER FOR THE FINAL DELIVERANCE OF ISRAEL V.6.

This prayer is applicable to the wresting of the City of David from the Jebusites Ps. 14. as well as the deliverance of Jerusalem from the hands of Sennacherib. Both are typical of the future. Here the Psalmist has Elohim instead of Yahweh - perhaps an allusion to the Angel of Death. Cp 2 Chr. 32:19-21.

13. RSV: "Restores the fortunes." But the Psalmist sees the present deliverance as a token of a greater one to come.
14. Israel after the flesh + spirit
15. From NÂGAN - To strike or smite; hence smitings. Referring to God's smitings with words and acts. Cp v.5. which differs from Ps. 14:5-6. Relating also to the future.

PSALM 55

PRAYER IN THE FACE OF WICKED CONSPIRACY AND THE DEFECTION OF A FORMERLY TRUSTED FRIEND.

- Historical: The defection of Absalom + Ahithophel. 2 Sam. 16:20. David's enemies are many, for through the treachery of his son, Jerusalem seethed with discontent. 2 Sam. 15:1-6.

1 A PASSIONATE APPEAL FOR HELP VV 1-3A

1. RUWD - To tramp about, to ramble. RV. "I am restless."
2. HUWM - Agitate, be distracted. RV mean. Roth: "Be driven to and fro."
3. Insulting, calumniating, threatening.
4. HÂQÂH - Constraint - to hem in or crush down.

2 THE VIRILITY OF THE PERSECUTION AND ITS DEPRESSING EFFECT. VV. 3B-5.

5. They devise mischief against him + hurl it at him so as to figuratively stone him to death.
6. RV "persecute."
7. CHUWL - To twist or whirl. "Writhes" as in travail-pangs.
8. David did not lack the courage to battle with an enemy - but this was no ordinary fight Cp Vv 12-13. The throne of Yahweh's Kingdom was endangered by the rebellion of his son + the defection of his friend. David keenly felt the shame of this + would rather have died than to have Absalom undermine Yahweh's authority in the way he had. Rather than fight, he fled the city. 2 Sam. 15:10-14. Cp 2 Sam. 16:11 2 Sam. 18:33.

Christ's sensitive feelings must have been similar at the defection of Judas.

3 HE DESIRES REFUGE IN SOME SOLITARY PLACE VV. 6-8

9. To a place of shelter inaccessible to flesh Song 2:14. Jer. 9:2. He has no heart to fight those opposed to him - Note the sub-scription.

The corruption of man.

7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength; but [a] trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his [b] wickedness.

8 But I am like [c] a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

9 I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it: and I will wait on thy name; [d] for it is good before thy saints.

PSALM 53.

1 David describeth the corruption of a natural man. 6 He glorieth in the salvation of God.

To the chief Musician upon Mahalath, Maschil, A Psalm of David.

[m] THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good.

2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God.

3 Every one of them is [n] gone back: they are altogether become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have [o] the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not called upon God.

5 There [p] were they in great fear, [q] where no fear was: for God hath [r] scattered [s] the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them.

6 [t] Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

The corruption of man.

SAVE me, O God, by thy name, and judge me by thy strength.

2 Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my [e] complaint, and make a noise;

Key Verse V.11.

PSALM 58.

David describeth the nature of the wicked.
To the chief Musician, [1] Al-taschith, Michtam of David.

DO ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?
2 Yea, ~~in heart~~ ye work wickedness; [a] ye weigh the violence of your hands in the earth.
3 [b] The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray [c] as soon as they be born, speaking lies.
4 [d] Their poison is [e] like the poison of a serpent: they are like the deaf [f] adder that stoppeth her ear;
5 Which will not hearken to the voice of [g] charmers, [h] charming never so wisely.
6 [i] Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the [k] great teeth of the young lions, O LORD.
7 Let them [l] melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in pieces.
8 As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away: like [m] the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.
9 [n] Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as with a whirlwind, [o] both living, and in his wrath.
10 The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall [p] wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.
11 So that a man shall say, Verily there is [q] a reward for the righteous: verily [r] he is a God that judgeth in the earth.

RV: Verily there is a God. Zech 12:8.

PSALM 58

A CALL FOR JUDGMENT ON UNRIGHTEOUS LEADERS

Historical & David's action in returning to take vengeance on Saul 1 Sam 26:10; 24:13.
Prophetical. Mal 2:3; 3:1; Dan 7:26-28; 11:40-45; 12:1-3. Mic 3:2.

1 REBUKE OF HYPOCRITICAL LEADERS VV. 1-5

1 ELEM - Silence. RV: "in silence." The leaders neglect their duty. They are dumb when they should speak. Ps 132, 56:10 Ch. 1 Sam 5:11. Ps 40:9-10; Jer 11:7-10, 17-19. Exod 2:13-5. John Mk 3:3-10 Mk 2:3
2 Sons of Adam - not sons of God. Silently scheming evil Mk 3:2.
RV: "ye weigh out." An ironical statement. The Jews were careful in scrupulous adherence to the law while oppressing others. Mk 23:4; Jn 18:28
RASHA - See Note Gen 13:13.
ZUWR - Treat as foreigners. LXX APALLOTRIOO, used Eph 4:18; Col 1:21 & Ps 58:3 Eph 2:3. Prov 22:14.
Gen 8:21.
Their venemous & harmful talk Ps 140:3.
The name given to a snake that does not respond to the appeal of charmers. The Asp - most venemous of all serpents. All snakes are deaf - though they have some capacity to sense vibrations received through the ground - a snake is charmed through the movement of the pipe - not the sound. Nothing can win these men ever Ps 58:5.

2 A PLEA FOR GOD TO RESTRAIN THEM 6-9

The Greek LXX renders or perfects: "God shall surely break" as with VE which becomes prophetic. The figure is that of a ferocious lion hunting the prey but rendered harmless. True of the ruthless Saul and such as Doeg and of those who pursued the Lord. A present tense = prayer to render them harmless.
RV: "runneth apace" - quickly disappear. Such enemies last only for a time. Ps 37:1-2.
The wicked leaders.
RV: "When he aimeth his arrows, let them be as though they were cut off" - Their power broken, their power to harm destroyed.
"As it goes along" - Destroyed in the tracks. RSV: "Let them be like the snail which dissolves into slime." It leaves a slimy track, but is soon destroyed.

3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul:

PSALM 61

A Psalm of David.

1 Hear my cry, O God;
attend unto my prayer.
2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed:
lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
3 For thou hast been a shelter for me,
and a strong tower from the enemy.
4 I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever:
I will trust in the covert of thy wings. Selah.
5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows:
thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.
6 Thou wilt prolong the king's life:
his years as many generations.
7 He shall abide before God for ever:
prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.
8 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever, that I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM 62

To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David.

1 Truly my soul waiteth upon God:
from him cometh my salvation.
2 He only is my rock and my salvation;
he is my defence; I shall not be greatly moved.
3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man?
ye shall be slain all of you:
as a bowing wall shall ye be,
and as a tottering fence.
4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency:
they delight in lies:
they bless with their mouth,
but they curse inwardly. Selah.
5 My soul, wait thou only upon God;
for my expectation is from him.
6 He only is my rock and my salvation:
he is my defence; I shall not be moved.
7 In God is my salvation and my glory:
the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.
8 Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him:
God is a refuge for us. Selah.
9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie:
to be laid in the balance,
they are altogether lighter than vanity.
10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery:
if riches increase, set not your heart upon them.
11 God hath spoken once;
twice have I heard this;
that power belongeth unto God.
12 Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy:
for thou rewardest every man according to his work.

THE WINGS OF THE DOVE

The pinions or extremities are only seen when the bird is in full flight. Thus Israel, once prostrate among the sheepfolds (John 10:4) is pictured as lifted up, extending its influence throughout the world. The Sun of Righteousness shining on this bird causes it to [illegible] the glory of redemption & faith. The gold is "green-[illegible]" YERAQRAQ - the color of grass, reminding of Passover "bitter herbs". Hab. 3:17 -Green ears.

HERMON OR ZION. Vv 15-16. Hermon (5,166 ft) dominated the mountainous barrier of Bashan Deut 3:9. It is the grandest of the mountains of the Holy land. It is formed of rugged basaltic rocks which rise in precipitous peaks high above the fellow mountains suggesting the ideas of majesty, antiquity & impregnability. It stood as a sentinel in the north, but its snow-capped peak can be seen far in the south. In comparison Zion is an inconspicuous mountain about 2500 ft. Yet Yahweh chose it, as He chooses the humble Y.K. Dan 4:17 1 Cor 1:26-31.

SNOW IN SALMON V.14

Scattered – PÂRAS. To spread forth as in 1 Kgs 8:7. not PUWTS as in Ps. 68:1. These Kings are spread forth through the land "for her" (see mg) i.e. the resplendant dove – redeemed Israel. The Kings = In Mk. 14:28.

As Snow – SHÂLAG – Snow-white (Snow – SHELEG) Yahweh's word Isa. 55:10. Purity Ps. 51:7. Isa. 1:18 Lam. 4:7. Divine glory. Dan. 7:9. Mt. 28:3. Christ's crown of glory Rev. 1:14. Snow protects the crops; melting snow fructifies the earth, feeds the crops, provides water. The Kings will minister to all their needs. Snow is also a means of discipline Job. 38:22 Ps. 147:16. 148:8. Every snow-drop is a six-pointed crystal, no two being the same in design. Thus – flesh purified.

SALMON – A hill by Shechem Jud. 9:48. Sig. Shady, Dark – probably because wooded. Thus – "It will be snow-white in a dark place." This in consequence of V.13. Roth: "It will gleam like snow in the gloom." Snow reflects sunlight extremely well, each crystal part being like part of a mirror.

THE GIFTS. V.18

Paul's application of this scripture is an interpretation, not a quotation, thus:

"Ascended": From this he argues the death, burial + resurrection of the Lord. Eph. 4:9-10. and his ascension into heaven.

"For men" BAADAM – "among men" i.e. – i.e. as God manifest in flesh. But Paul renders: "gave gifts unto men" – the gifts being grace to all Eph. 4:7. and the ministry of apostles, Preachers etc for the edification of all Vv 11-16. This is the intent of the passage before us. David received tribute on behalf of Yahweh which he gave to Israel for the building of the Temple. A king accepts tribute on behalf of a nation and so the nation is enriched thereby.

In this sense Paul interpreted the passage and so did the Jews. The Targum paraphrases the verse thus: "Thou didst ascend to the firmament, O prophet Moses! thou didst lead captivity captive; thou didst teach the words of the law; thou didst give gifts unto the sons of men."

Though the Targum in its present form is much later than Paul, its comment must likely represented the oral teaching of the Jews at the time of the Apostle – Com. Bible.

"The rebellious" The literal Hebrew: "and the revolters to dwell Yah Elohim." i.e. "And" or "Yea" (NV). is APH – accession, also. H.C. Leupold renders: "Yea the rebellious who are destined to dwell with the Lord God." Browne: "Yea with the rebellious (also) shall Yah God abide."

2 OVERTHROW OF GOG V.21.

38 Rosh as in Gen. 3:15. Ezek. 38:2.

39 KODKOD SEAR – The crown of Seir (Edom – Gen. 25:25). Or the long hair could represent consecration to war Joel 3:9. Babylon survives the destruction of Gog Rev. 17:14.

PSALM 69

DELIVERANCE IN DISTRESS

1. A PRAYER FOR HELP Vv1-21
   1. HIS DIRE NEED Vv1-6.

1 He is like a drowning man. The flood of calamity has risen till it threatens his life. See the metaphor Ps. 124:4. 32:6. 66:12. 124:4. Cp Luke 12:50

2 Fording a river the current of which, suddenly rising, threatens to sweep him away. Cp Gen. 2:5. Luke 12:50.

3 Having considered external pain, he now present his hidden feelings – tired out, tears dried up, anxious waiting for God. Cp Isa. 7:11 – Luke 12:50. "How am I constrained" Heb 5:7.

4 Both in David's case as in Christ's. But see Luke 12:7. Mt. 10:30. Mk. 5:30.

5 The word here used "Ashmah" has many times been used for trespass offering Lev. 6:5 an animal to which was imputed the sins of the people. Jesus was such, possessing in common with all men sin's flesh 1 Pet. 2:24 Cp 3:18. Rom. 4:3.

This does not appear so much confession of specific sins, as recognition that if they exist God knows them. David was unjustly accused: "I restored that which I took not away." So also was Christ. Without retaliating they both left it but to judge. In David's case he was guilty of folly, trespass but in the Lord's case only that which was imputed to him for purpose of atonement. Gal 3:13.

6 These titles speak of His strength to save. The future of Israel depended on David + on Christ. But the former departed into Sheol, the latter into the grave. The former through his own weakness, the latter because of sins of humanity Ro 4:25. Heb. 7:27. Both conscious of the weakness of flesh called on Jahweh to save. Ps. 102 Title.

Psalm 69 reveals the means.

The Chief Musician — Christ.
Shoshannim - Lilies. - see Introduction

POSSIBLE HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

- Was it the desert victory of David over the Amalekites after the sacking of Ziklag? 1 Sam. 30.
- Never was David's popularity at lower ebb, never did the future look so dark and hopeless. His followers even threatened to stone him, but he strengthened himself in Yahweh 1 Sam. 30:6.
- He defeated the Amalekites, took "captivity captive" recovered the spoil, adjudicated over his followers + rewarded them establishing permanent principles of law and justice 1 Sam. 30:22, and was shortly after re-united to his people and acknowledged as King.

Allusions in the Psalm.

- He strengthened himself in Yahweh by whom he gained the victory. 1 Sam. 30:6. Ps. 68:1.
- The Amalekites were acknowledged as "the enemy" of Yahweh 1 Sam. 30:26. Ps. 68:1.
- The victory was overwhelming through the aid of Yahweh 1 Sam. 30:23. so that the wicked perished "as smoke is driven away" Ps. 68:2.
- It was gained by riding through the desert. 1 Sam. 30:9-15. Cp Ps. 68:4.
- The fatherless and widows were restored 1 Sam. 30:19 Cp Ps. 68:5-6.
- The pursuit and battle took David into the regions of Sinai reminding him of the march of Israel. Ps 68:7-8.
- The refreshment of victory "confirmed the inheritance when it was weary." 1 Sam. 30:9-10 Ps 68:9. David saw a repetition of mercy and help such as the desert had been the scene in the past Ps. 68:7-11.
- There was Divine sanction for the pursuit 1 Sam. 30: 8. Ps 68:11.
- Statute about dividing the spoil 1 Sam. 30:24-25. Ps 68:12.
- Elevation from a state of complete hopelessness to one of great glory. 1 Sam. 30:1-2 Sam. 2:4 Ps. 68:12.
- Site of battle. Passing over brook Besor south of Beersheba, David came upon an Egyptian who had been abandoned 3 days earlier. The Amalekites would therefore be in the region of Sinai (Cp Exod. 17:8) this being the site of battle where "captivity was led captive" Ps. 68: 17-18. recalling the earlier victory Exod. 17:8.
- Escape from death. This is what the recovery of the captives could be compared with. Ps. 68:19-20.

ASSOCIATION WITH THE TEMPLE

- This incident was decisive to the future elevation of David, a step to his elevation to glory which he [illegible] considered as the apex, the building of the Temple. Ps. 27:4. 2 Sam. 7:2. He was not permitted to build it, but the plans were revealed to him by the Spirit 1 Chron. 28:11-19. preparations were made for it 1 Chron. 22:1-16 and in conjunction with Samuel, appointments made in regard to it 1 Chron. 9:11.
- This Psalm anticipates its influence + glory. V. 29.

- DELIVERANCE IN DISTRESS
- A PRAYER FOR HELP VV.1-21
- HIS DIRE NEED VV.1-6.

1 He is like a drowning man. The flood of calamity has risen till it threatens his life See the metaphor Ps. 18:16. 32:6. 66:12. 124:4. Cp Luke 12:50

2 Fording a river the current of which, suddenly rising, threatens to sweep him away. Cp Isa. 2:15. Luke 12:50.

3 Having considered external pain, he now presents his hidden feelings - tired out, tear-dried & anxious waiting for God. Cp Isa. 38:14 - Luke 12:50. "How am I constrained" Heb 8:7.

4 Both in David's case as in Christ's But see Luke 12:7.

5 The word here used "Ashmah" has many times been used for trespass offering Lev. 6:5 an animal to which was imputed the sins of the people. Jesus was such, possessing in common with all men sin's flesh Rom. 8:3. Cp Rom. 7:13. This does not appear so much confession of specific sins, as recognition that if they exist God knows them. David was unjustly accused: "I restored that which I took not away. So also was Christ. Without retaliating they both left it but to justice. In David's case he was guilty of folly & trespass but in the Lord's case only that which was imputed to him for purpose of atonement. Cp Isa 53:5. These titles speak of His sufferings to save. The future of Israel depended on David & on Christ. But the former departed into Gath, the latter into the grave. The former through his own weakness, the latter because of sins of humanity Rom. 5:12. Heb. 7:27. Both consisted of the weakness of flesh called on Jahweh to save. Ps 102 Note.

11 Why [a] withdrawest thou thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom.

13 [c] Thou didst [3] divide the sea by thy strength: [d] thou brakest the heads of the [4] dragons in the waters.

17 Thou hast set all the borders of the earth: thou hast [7] made summer and winter.
18 [r] Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and that the foolish people have blasphemed thy name.
19 O deliver not the soul of thy turtledove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever.
20 Have respect unto [z] the covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty.
21 O let not [a] the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor and needy praise thy name.
22 Arise, O God, [b] plead thine own cause: remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily.

Chayyah – Same word as "wild beast" – the Cherubim of Ezek 1. The corresponding Arabic word means "such a ligatured group as was guided in war + on the march by one chief, migrating together + forming generally a single settlement" (Robertson Smith – Kinship + Marriage in Early Arabia pp 8 – Camb.). From the meaning of life or living, the word came to mean a clan, a group of one blood on the principle "the life of the flesh..." Lev. 17:11 (Camb.)

PRAISE TO THE VICTORIOUS GOD Vv 1-4

A consideration of God's great and gracious works. Foolish questions induced by fleshly reasoning

To the chief Musician, [1] to Jeduthun, A Psalm of Asaph. [2]

1 I CRIED unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me.

2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

5 I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search.

7 Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore?

9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.

10 And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High.

11 I will remember the works of the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

13 Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God?

14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

15 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee; they were afraid: the depths also were troubled.

17 The clouds poured out water: the skies sent out a sound: thine arrows also went abroad.

18 The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook.

19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.

20 Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

FAITH'S CONQUEST OF DEPRESSION

I. THE PROBLEM. Vv 1-9

Occupation with self - Vv 1-3

1 I CRIED unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and he gave ear unto me.

2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be comforted.

3 I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah.

Introspection - Vv 4-6

4 Thou holdest mine eyes waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.

5 I have considered the days of old, the years of ancient times.

6 I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart: and my spirit made diligent search.

Despair - Vv 7-9

7 Will the Lord cast off for ever? and will he be favourable no more?

8 Is his mercy clean gone for ever? doth his promise fail for evermore?

9 Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.

II. THE SOLUTION. Vv 10-20

Occupation with God. Vv 10-12

10 And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years of the right hand of the most High.

11 I will remember the works of the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old.

12 I will meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings.

13 Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God?

14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy strength among the people.

15 Thou hast with thine arm redeemed thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

Result: Relief from depression. In God's presence, in service, in sacrifice. Vv 16-20

16 The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee; they were afraid: the depths also were troubled.

17 The clouds poured out water: the skies sent out a sound: thine arrows also went abroad.

18 The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the earth trembled and shook.

19 Thy way is in the sea, and thy path in the great waters, and thy footsteps are not known.

20 Thou leddest thy people like a flock by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

YÂRÂY - THE TERRIBLE ONE Ps 76:11-12.

To fear, revere, cause to tremble, venerate. Because of His power, majesty, remoteness, holiness. He is the One high above all human power or thought. Who as Creator and Sustainer of the universe should be feared, revered, admired, respected.

A similar attitude, though on a lower plane, should be shown towards • Godly parents Lev 19:3. • Successful leaders Josh 4:14. • the Sanctuary Lev 19:30. • An oath 1 Sam 14:26. – thus indicated by love, respect, reverence, personal integrity.

• THE TITLE. Rend. The Terrible One Ps 76:11; Dreadful El Dan 9:4 RVm; "My name is dreadful" Mal 1:14; 2 Mal 4:5. – A name of remoteness.

His character is manifested by His terrible, awe-inspiring, fear-impelling works. Exod 34:10; 1 Chron 17:21. He is the Avenger of wrong Lev 19:14; 25:17. Israel's sin is summarised in the statement: "they have not feared" Jer 44:10.

• MANIFESTATIONS. His "Name of Terribleness" manifested to and through Israel 1 Chron 17:21; through Christ Ps 45:4; before whom all will bow ultimately Isa 45:23; Phil 2:10,11.

• WORSHIP. Awe of Yahweh; reverence for His august majesty; fear to offend One we deeply love; respect for Him in view of great privileges granted are essential to acceptable worship, and befitting to man the created before El the Creator. Thus "thou shalt not take My name in vain" Exod 20:7.

• FAMILY CHARACTERISTIC. Fear of God will be expressed in action, in defiance, if need be, of human authority Exod 1:17; Acts 5:29; Josh 6:18; 1 Sam 3:19-13; Matt 10:28; 1 Pet 2:17. Exclusive to Yahweh. help.

- In the day of distress, he strove in vain to find comfort in prayer Vv 1-3
- In the watches of the night he pondered the past history of Israel Vv 4-6, and asked could God have cast off His people 7-9.
- The Solution. Vv 10-20
- The problem must be in himself V 10, and the answer sought in searching Yahweh's revelation of Himself in the past Vv 11-15
- He considers Yahweh's mighty power 16-19, and seeks comfort in His shepherd-like characteristics. V 20.

13 CHAMAR - To end, cease. The promise Josh 1:5

2 THE SOLUTION Vv 10-20

- Occupation with God. 10-12
The above reasoning stems from his infirmity Ps 6:2, 31:9
He will counter his depression by recalling Yahweh's Mighty deeds "Most High" Cp Ps 20 but Most Abraham's victory ever great still. The Covenant Name. Cp. Isa 63:12
RV: "make mention" - Not only commune but speak.
SIYACH - Ponder, converse aloud with oneself - Str. Ps 105:2; 119:27, 143:5
- Result: Relief from depression. In God's presence, in service, in sacrifice Ps 63:2,3; 73:17; 84:2; 150:1.
13 Exod 15:13-16 And what of our Forever Deliverance.
GAAL. Exod 15:13,16.
He is named because in saving the lives of the people he became as a second father to them. Cp the antitypical Joseph.
14 The Divine control of nature indicative of His greatest power Cp Mal 3:6; Exod 15:5,8 "Afraid" - CHIYL - To writhe. The receding waters writhed - trembled - "the birth pangs of the nation" - Unseen. Like the Red Sea troubles.
Earthquake + storm both played their part on that terrible night Exod 14:20-25.
GAGAL - Rolling - the vault or circuit of heaven. RV = "whirlwind."
From out of all the storm and turmoil there emerged this quiet pastoral scene. The flock quickly following the Shepherd into open pastures and tender green pasture.
So it is with the storm and turmoil + doubt of life: after the storm there came the calm.

Ps. 77 recalls Yahweh's wonderful works of old for the encouragement of faith in the hour of distress; Ps. 78 invites readers to draw a lesson of warning for themselves from the past history of the nation. Again and again Yahweh's people forget the record of the past, with base ingratitude, that memoried faithlessness ignore His authority & goodness. Ps. 77 refers to Yahweh's shepherding of the nation by the hands of Moses & Aaron; this Psalm points to David serving in a similar capacity. Yahweh's overshadowing care and goodness in spite of Israel's forgetfulness & apostasy is clearly seen.

In a prophecy relating to the impending destruction of Jerusalem Jer. 10:17-25 Jeremiah quotes this Asaph as applicable (Ps. 79:6 with Jer. 10:25. And in a prayer (yet to be answered) founded on Jeremiah's prophecies Dan. 9:2, Daniel seems to make reference to it. Cp. 1 Chr. 9:10; Dan. 4:16; Ps. 74:9. was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel:

60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men;

61 And delivered [a] his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand.

62 He [c] gave his people over also [d] unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance.

63 The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not [e] given to marriage.

64 Their priests fell by the sword; [h] and their widows made no lamentation.

65 Then the Lord awaked as one out [m] of sleep, and [n] like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine.

66 And [o] he smote his enemies in the hinder [q] parts: he put them to a perpetual reproach.

67 Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim:

68 But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion [p] which he loved.

69 And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath [t] established for ever.

70 He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:

71 [u] From following the ewes great with young he brought him to [v] feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.

72 So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

PSALM 79.

1 The psalmist complaineth of the desolation of Jerusalem. 8 He prayeth for deliverance.

(Elohim.) A Psalm [9] of Asaph.

O GOD, [a] the heathen are come into [b] thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.

2 [d] The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.

3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was [f] none to bury them.

4 We are become a [g] reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.

5 How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy [s] jealousy burn like fire?

6 [t] Pour out thy wrath upon the [y] heathen that have [k] not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name.

7 For they have devoured Jacob, and [y] laid waste his dwelling place.

8 [m] O remember not against us [g] former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily [z] prevent us: for we are brought very low.

9 [q] Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, [r] for thy name's sake.

10 [s] Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight by the [6] revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed.

11 Let [x] the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power [8] preserve thou those that are appointed to die;

12 And render unto our neighbours [v] sevenfold into their bosom their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.

13 So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks for ever: we will shew forth thy praise [2] to all generations.

3 THEIR CHARACTER INCONSISTENT WITH THEIR STATUS Vv. 5-6

Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me;
9 There shall no strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god.
10 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.
11 But my people would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me.
12 So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in their own counsels.
13 Oh that my people had hearkened unto me, and Israel had walked in my ways!
14 I should soon have subdued their enemies, and turned my hand against their adversaries.
15 The haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves unto him: but their time should have endured for ever.
16 He should have fed them also with the finest of the wheat: and with honey out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

PSALM 83.

A complaint to God of the enemies' conspiracies. 9 A prayer against them that oppress the church.

A Song or Psalm of Asaph.

KEEP not thou silence, O God: hold not thy peace, and be not still, O God.
2 For, lo, thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head.
3 They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against thy hidden ones.
4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.
5 For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against thee:
6 The tabernacles of Edom, and the Ishmaelites; of Moab, and the Hagarenes;
7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; the Philistines with the inhabitants of Tyre;
8 Assur also is joined with them: they have holpen the children of Lot. Selah.
9 Do unto them as unto the Midianites; as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the brook of Kison:
10 Which perished at En-dor: they became as dung for the earth.
11 Make their nobles like Oreb, and like Zeeb: yea, all their princes as Zebah, and as Zalmunna:
12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves the houses of God in possession.
13 O my God, make them like

PSALM 87 A TRUE CITIZEN OF ZION. "This Psalm is fittingly placed here, for it expands the thought of Ps 86:9. In the style and spirit of prophecy it is terse, abrupt, enigmatic, like a prophetic oracle." In its breadth of view and fulness of Messianic hope it vies with the grandest of prophetic utterances. It depicts Zion as the metropolis of the universal Kingdom of God, into which all nations are received as citizens. The franchise of Zion is conferred upon them as though it were theirs by right of birth." (Com. Bible)

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND – See Subscription. J.W. Thirtle: "Concerning, or relating to, Mahalath (for M'hâlôth) Leannoth' = 'Dancings with shoutings.' The catchwords are intended to serve as a reminder of a time of great rejoicing in the life of David. The bringing of the Ark to Zion is plainly recalled (2 Sam. 6:12, 14, 15. 1 Chr. 15:25-29). The Psalm reads as though it were written to commemorate the event. The Ark must lodge in Zion the city of God V.3. It cannot remain in any of the dwelling of Jacob V.2. Zion is established by the Most High V.5, and in the great census nothing will compare with being a citizen thereof."

2 A Song or Psalm 3 for the sons of Korah, to the chief Musician upon Mahalath Leannoth, 4 Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite. LXX. Ismachie

O LORD a God of my salvation, I have b cried day and night before thee:

2 Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry:

3 For my soul is full of troubles: and f my life draweth nigh unto the grave.

4 I am counted g with them that go down into the pit: I am as a man that hath no strength:

5 Free among the dead, like the slain that lie in the grave, whom thou h remembrest no more: and they are i cut off from thy hand.

6 Thou hast laid me in k the lowest pit, in darkness, in l the deeps.

7 Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, and thou hast afflicted me with m all thy waves. Selah.

8 Thou hast put away n mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me o an abomination unto them: I am p shut up, and I cannot come forth.

9 q Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: LORD, r I have called daily upon thee, s I have stretched out my hands unto thee.

10 Wilt thou t shew wonders to the dead? shall u the dead arise and praise thee? Selah.

11 Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave? or thy faithfulness in destruction?

12 Shall v thy wonders be known in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?

13 But w unto thee have I cried, O LORD; and x in the morning shall my prayer y prevent thee.

14 LORD, why z castest thou off my soul? why a hidest thou thy face from me?

15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted.

16 Thy fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off.

17 b They came round about me daily like water; they c compassed me about together.

18 d Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine acquaintance into darkness.

h I WILL sing of the i mercies of the LORD for ever: with my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness k to all generations.

2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.

3 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have l sworn unto David my servant,

4 Thy seed will I establish for ever, and build up m thy throne to all generations. Selah.

5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.

6 For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?

7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.

8 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD n like unto thee? or to thy faithfulness round about thee?

MAN'S FADING GLORY AND UTTER DEPENDENCE ON YAHWEH

PSALM 90.

Moses, setting forth God's providence, 3 complaineth of human fragility, 7 divine chastisements, 10 and brevity of life.

A Prayer of Moses the man of God.

1 YAHWEH: A REFUGE, INFINITE POWER AND SOVEREIGN DISPOSER OF HUMAN LIFE 1-6

LORD, (z) thou hast been our dwelling place [a] in all generations.]

2 Before the mountains were brought forth,] or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,] even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.]

3 Thou [b] turnest man to destruction;] and sayest, Return, ye children of men.]

4 For (c) a thousand years in thy sight] [b] are but as yesterday [2] when it is past,] and as a watch in the night.]

5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood;] [c] they are as a sleep:] in the morning they are [d] like grass which [e] groweth up.]

6 [f] In the morning it [g] flourisheth, and groweth up;] in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.]

7 For we are consumed by thine anger,] and by thy wrath are we troubled.]

8 [k] Thou hast set our iniquities before thee,] [l] our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.]

9 For all our days are (d) passed away in thy wrath:] we spend our years [6] as a tale that is told.]

10 [7] [m] The days of our years are threescore years and ten;] and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years,] yet is their strength labour and sorrow;] for it is soon cut off, and we fly away.]

11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger?] even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.]

12 [q] So teach us to number our days,] that we may [8] apply our hearts unto wisdom.]

13 [8] Return, O LORD, how long?] and let it [9] repent thee concerning thy servants.]

14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy;] that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.]

15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us,] and the years wherein we have seen evil.]

16 Let (y) thy work appear unto thy servants,] and thy glory unto their children.]

17 And let [a] the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us:] and establish thou [a] the work of our hands upon us;] yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.]

PSALM 93.

The majesty, power, and holiness of Christ's kingdom.

THE LORD reigneth, [a] he is clothed with majesty;
the LORD [a] is clothed [a] with strength, wherewith [m] he hath girded himself:
the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.
2 [n] Thy throne is established
[o] of old:
thou art from everlasting.
3 The floods have lifted up,
O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves.
4 [p] The LORD [m] on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.
5 Thy testimonies are very sure:
holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, [q] for ever.

PSALM 94.

The prophet complaineth of tyranny and impiety. 8 He teacheth God's providence. 12a The blessedness of affliction. 16 God is the defender of the afflicted.

O LORD (a) God, [b] to whom vengeance belongeth;
O
God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself.
2 Lift up thyself, thou (c) judge of the earth:
render a reward
to the proud.
3 LORD, [d] how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?
4 How long shall they [k] utter and speak hard things?
and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?
5 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage.
6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.
7 [e] Yet they say, The [d] LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.
8 [f] Understand, ye brutish
among the people:
and ye fools,
when will ye be wise?
9 (g) He that planted the ear, shall he not hear?
he that formed the eye, shall he not see?
10 He that [h] chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct?
[n] he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?
11 (p) The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.
12 Blessed is the man whom thou [r] chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law;
13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until [s] the pit be digged for the wicked.
14 For (t) the LORD will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.
15 But judgment shall return unto righteousness:
and all the upright in heart shall follow it.
16 Who will rise up for me
[v] against the evildoers? or who will [x] stand up for me [v] against [a] the workers of iniquity?
17 (c) Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had (u) almost dwelt in silence.
18 When I said, [y] My foot slippeth;
thy mercy, O LORD,
[z] held me up.
19 In the multitude of my
[a] thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.

Who is there apart for Yahweh. Conscient

PSALM 95 The Psalm is divided into two main parts: the first, expressing the joy and privilege of worship; the second outlining the solemn responsibilities associated therewith. The one set forth the Goodness of Yahweh the other His severity. Rom. 11:22. The first calls forth joy & thankfulness; the second, self-examination & repentance. The former calls to mind Yahweh's greatness and loving kindness, the latter, man's weakness and danger.

Vv 14-22. "The concluding portion of the Psalm extols the greatness and the majesty of Him who has thus stooped in pity to His children. The Psalmist had begun by calling upon his own soul to bless Yahweh for His goodness; he had associated with himself, as partakers in that goodness, all who feared Yahweh. Now he concludes by calling on the angels of heaven and all creation, inanimate as well as animate, to ascribe blessing and honor and power to Him who sitteth on the throne. Lastly from all that vast congregation of worshippers praising God, he again turns to himself, that his voice might not be wanting in the mighty anthem, "Bless thou Yahweh, O my soul." — Perowne - amended.

mercy toward them that fear him.

12 As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

13 Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

14 For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.

15 As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.

16 For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.

17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children;

18 To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them.

19 The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.

20 Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.

21 Bless ye the LORD, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.

22 Bless the LORD, all his works in all places of his dominion: bless the LORD, O my soul.

PSALM 104

A Psalm of David LXX

A meditation upon the power, 7 and providence of God. 31 God's glory is eternal.

BLESS the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great; thou art clothed with honour and majesty:

2 Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain:

3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters: who maketh the clouds his chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the wind:

4 Who maketh his angels spirits; his ministers a flaming fire:

5 Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be removed for ever.

6 Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment: the waters stood above the mountains.

7 At thy rebuke they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

8 They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the place which thou hast founded for them.

9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; that they turn not again to cover the earth.

10 He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses quench their thirst.

12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation, which sing among the branches.

13 He watereth the hills from his chambers: the earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

14 He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth;

15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap; the cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted;

Ps. 105 & 106. Psalm 105 places the emphasis upon what Yahweh did for His people; the expressions are cheerful and sunny. Psalm 106 records how Israel requited Him, and in the very nature of the case, the expressions are sombre and sad. In Psalm 105, Israel's history forms the basis of a thanksgiving, in Psalm 106 it is the burden of a confession. "Nothing is more remarkable in these great historical psalms than the utter absence of any word or sentiment tending to feed the national vanity. All the glory of Israel's history is confessed to be due, not to her heroes, her priests, her prophets, but to God; all the failures which are written that history, all discomfitures, losses, reverses, the sword, famine, exile, are recognised as the righteous chastisement which the sin of the nation has provoked." — Perowne.

Israel's rebellions, and God's mercies.

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise? 3 Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at all times. 4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that thou bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy salvation; 5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory with thine inheritance. 6 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, even at the Red sea. 8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known. 9 He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness. 10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. 11 And the waters covered their enemies: there was not one of them left. 12 Then believed they his words; they sang his praise.

13 They soon forgat his works; they waited not for his counsel: 14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert. 15 And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into their soul. 16 They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD. 17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram. 18 And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the wicked. 19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image. 20 Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass. 21 They forgat God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt; 22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea.

23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them. 24 Yea, they despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word: 25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD. 26 Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness: 27 To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to scatter them in the lands. 28 They joined themselves also unto Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead. 29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them. 30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: and so the plague was stayed. 31 And that was counted unto him for righteousness unto all generations for evermore. 32 They angered him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes:

51 On the basis of such mercy, Moses prayed for forgiveness of Israel Ps. 90:11.

52 So that the full rigours of oppression were not felt. Solomon prayed for a continuance of this experience 1 Kg. 8:50.

3 PRAYER FOR DIVINE HELP V.47.

This prayer is the climax of the Psalm and is the point to which the long confession of national sin has been leading. It does not necessarily argue a late date for the Psalm for Solomon offered a similar prayer 1 Kg 8:46-53 and David who was a prophet was familiar with the future dispersion. Deut. 4:27-28. 2 Sam. 7:10. David could well pray this now in anticipation of the final glory Ps. 14:7. See a similar prayer for the peace of Jerusalem by David Ps. 122:6-9. Cp Isa. 62:7.

THE TRILOGY.

Notwithstanding the division of the books Pss 105, 106, 107 form a Trilogy. ● Historically Ps. 105 reviews Israel's history to the Exodus. Ps. 106 takes it on to the Babylonian Captivity Ps. 107 to the Restoration. Thus Ps. 105: 47 prays for the Restoration and Ps. 107 expresses thanks for it. The Exile is described as a lost caravan Vv. 4-8, an imprisonment Vv. 9-15, recovery from illness 16-22, delivery from the dangers of storm Vv. 23-32. See also note top 783.

They also form a Trilogy from a different viewpoint. Ps. 105 celebrates Yahweh's goodness in the choice of Israel & the deliverance from Egypt. Ps. 106 is a confession of Israel's obstinate rebellion against Yahweh's purpose for it. Ps. 107 is a call to thanksgiving for its restoration from exile. They refer to three successive periods of the national history. The first contains the fulfilment of the promise: "He gave them the lands of the nations" Jos. 11:23. The second contemplates warning: "He would scatter them to the lands" Lev. 26:33. The third the restoration: "He gathered them out of the lands." 107:3. The refrain of 107:6, 13, 19, 28 is an echo of 106:44. Cp. 107: 2 with 106:10; 107:11 with 106:13, 33, 43; 107:20 with 105:19.

"CRY UNTO YAHWEH IN THEIR TROUBLE"

PRAISE TO THE GIVER OF VICTORY

Historical: This Psalm is composed of sections of two other Psalms. Vv. 1-5 come from Ps. 57:7-11, and Vv. 6-13 from 60:5-12

These two Psalms were composed during periods of difficulty in David's life from which he was delivered. The sections were doubtless combined by him for public worship as prophetically expressing the future victory of the Beloved, the Messiah.

PRAYER FOR HELP AND FOR JUDGMENT UPON UNRIGHTEOUS AND MALICIOUS ADVERSARIES

PSALM 108.

David encourageth himself to praise God. 5 He prayeth for God's help, according to his promise.

A Song or Psalm of David.

O GOD, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.
2 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.
3 I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations. ("peoples") EHEYEH.
4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.
5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;
6 That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me.
7 God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth.
8 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; Judah is my lawgiver;
9 Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe; over Philistia will I triumph.
10 Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom?
11 Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts? ~ Zech. 9:14 cpp
12 Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man.
13 Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

2 For the mouth of the wicked and the [2] mouth of the deceitful [3] are opened against me: they have spoken against me with a lying tongue.
3 They compassed me about also with words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause.
4 For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer.
5 And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.
6 Set thou a wicked man over him: and let Satan stand at his right hand.
7 When he shall be judged, let him be condemned: and let his prayer become sin.
8 Let his days be few; and let another take his office.
9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.
10 Let his children be continually vagabonds, and beg: let them seek their bread also out of their desolate places.
11 Let the extortioner catch all that he hath; and let the strangers spoil his labour.
12 Let there be none to extend mercy unto him: neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.
13 Let his posterity be cut off; and in the generation following let their name be blotted out.
14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD; and let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.
15 Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth.
16 Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart.
17 As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: as he

THE IMPRECATIONS OF THE PSALMIST.

The Treasury of Scriptural Knowledge on Ps. 35:4-8 observes: "All the verbs in these verses in the original are in the future tense, as a prediction, and should probably be so rendered; though as that tense is frequently used in Hebrew for the imperative, most translators both ancient + modern, have considered them as an imprecation."

H.C. Leupold writes: "All verb forms in the Hebrew that are not strictly to be construed as optatives (a verb mood expressing a wish) are regarded as futures (an interpretation which is grammatically quite possible). Thus the sting seems to be taken out of them. The writer does not wish these things to befall others; he merely predicts them as likely to befall them. However, as since these predictions continue at such length + with such detail, it is all but impossible to keep the wish that they might occur from becoming a reality."

The Cambridge Bible: "These imprecations cannot be explained away, as some have thought, by rendering the verbs as futures + regarding them as authoritative declarations of the certain fate of the wicked. . . . The form of the verb is that which specifically expresses a wish or prayer, and it cannot be rendered as a simple future."

The Solution

These imprecations express not merely a prophecy, or a wish, but the inevitable consequence of the action taken by those against whom they are expressed. The righteousness of Yahweh demands the condemnation + punishment of the wicked. When the wicked abandons Yahweh + identify themselves with evil they will receive the result of their choice, and every true saint must endorse the rightfulness of the judgment. The Psalmist thus stands as Judge, + in doing so upholds the right of Yahweh to punish. To forgive Judas when he sinned so grievously would have been a triumph for sin and would have placed every Son of God in jeopardy. Forgiveness is only legitimate and moral when sin is acknowledged and forsaken. Judas had placed himself in such relationship to God that he could not be helped. He had to be condemned; there was no place for his prayer, he had brought upon his children the consequence of his folly. The Psalmist (+ for that matter all of us) must stand as Judge over Judas. Shall he be exonerated + permitted to retain his position of honor, or shall he be condemned and driven off. The answer is: Let him be condemned. It is not a wish, it is the only judgment possible if righteousness is to be upheld.

In similar manner, all Israel had to endorse the judgment on Achan Josh. 7:15, 24-26. This was not done in the spirit of revenge, but in judgment upholding the righteousness of Yahweh's law. The punishment was to dissuade others from the same suicidal course of action.

The Psalm is not expressive of vindictiveness, for the Law did not permit of such. Lev. 19:17-18; Prov. 20:22; 24:17-18; 25:21-22. The Psalm is the expression of the Spirit, and Paul reasoned: "Is God unrighteous that taketh vengeance" Rom. 3:5.

PSALM 109. SUMMARY.

The Psalmist is opposed by bitter enemies headed by a leader whose wickedness is so great as to ensure that he will be judged without hope of relief, whose very prayer will be accounted sin. The sad state of the Psalmist in the face of such opposition is described, but the Psalm concludes with his assurance of vindication at the hands of Yahweh. It foreshadows the attitude and fate of Judas Iscariot in his betrayal of the Lord.

PSALM 110

Mizmor - To make melody

Peter quotes this Psalm to teach the resurrection and ascension of the Lord. Acts 2:29-36. by which Christ must be acknowledged as Lord & Christ.

In so doing, Yahweh has so elevated His son as to place his enemies as the footstool of his feet. Paul quotes the Psalm to show this has been accomplished 1 Cor. 15:25-27. Notes though the complete subjugation of "all things" as required by B.E.6 still await the future.

To accomplish this, Christ has been given the full authority of the Father. Mt. 28:18. 1 Pet. 3:22. an authority that will continue until the work and result required is complete, then there will be a change for he will pass over the perfected Kingdom to the Father. This is the reasoning of Paul based upon the use of the word "until" 1 Cor. 15:24-28. Contrast Eph. 1:22.

This even in Zion, Christ is figuratively at "the right hand of Yahweh" for the throne is Yahweh's Jer. 3:17 and He is with him in the judgment. this is the picture presented in such references as Rev. 5:7.

1 Cp Dan. 2:34-35, 44-45. Zech. 9:13-16. 10:3-12.

3 Military power: CHAYIL = army as in Exod. 14:28 (host) Dan. 11:4 (army), military strength as in Ps. 18:32, 33 etc. As he musters his army for the work of conquest the Jews will willingly offer themselves to him whom they will then recognise as their King.

Cp Ezek. 40:46. 43:19. 44:15. 48:11. As head of the Kingdom of priests and holy nation Exod. 19:6 this is the right of the King who is firstborn of the nation. PSALMS 111, 112.

These two Psalms are similar in structure, contents, & language. As to structure, they are both acrostic; each consists of 22 lines, which begin with the letters of the alphabet in regular order; each is arranged in 8 couplets and two triplets - the former comprising Vv. 1-8 & the latter Vv. 9-10. Psalm 111 praises Yahweh's works; Psalm 112 praises His Ways. the former celebrates His power, goodness & righteousness; the latter describes the prosperity, beneficence, & righteousness of those who fear Him. the former reveals Him to be a God of action; the latter shows how that action is extended to His worshippers. Psalm 112 reveals that the Godly man is a reflection of the character of Yahweh.

Thus Cp. 111:10 - 112:1a; 111:2 - 112:1b; 111:3b - 112:3b, 9b; 111:4b - 112:4b; 111:4a - 112:6b; 111:7-8 - 112:7-8. Ps. 111 = Character Yahweh. 112 Characteristics His children.

YAHWEH ADONAI He who shall be Lords or Rulers. This Divine name in this form occurs only in Ps. 68:20; 140:7; 141:8; Hab. 3:19, and in each case in a context of need for help or strength. Christ was "strengthened" by an angel in his time of need Luke 22:43, whilst the sufferings he endured equipped him to become Lord of lords - to rule over others Heb. 5:7-9; Rev. 17:14; Prov. 16:32. Let us submit to the rule of heaven. This Name used on background of submission to evil.

David's Knowledge of Messiah David must have recognised that his promised seed would be a person of superhuman dignity 2 Sam. 7:19 - his Lord as well as his son. He foresaw his sacrifice Acts 2:30-31, his elevation to the right hand of power in Heaven, the abrogation of the whole Levitical ceremony Heb. 7:11-12. He returns as warrior to subdue his enemies Ps. 110:5-6, and to provide refreshment v. 7. This Psalm provided the basis of Peter's Pentecostal address Acts 2:34-35 and the inspiration of a large section of Hebrews Heb. 1:13; 5:6; 6:20; 7:17. ~~See Note bottom of p. 720~~. It is cited more than any other 4 The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

5 The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.

6 He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.

18 As he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones.

19 Let it be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually.

20 Let this be the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul.

21 But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord, for thy name's sake: because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me.

22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.

23 I am gone like the shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.

24 My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness.

25 I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me they shaked their heads.

26 Help me, O LORD my God: O save me according to thy mercy:

27 That they may know that this is thy hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it.

28 Let them curse, but bless thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice.

29 Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

30 I will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yea, I will praise him among the multitude.

31 For he shall stand at the right hand of the poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.

ISRAEL'S CHANGED STATUS AT THE EXODUS 1-2.

PSALMS. The psalmist's love to God.

11 Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.
12 The LORD hath been mindful of us: he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless the house of Aaron.
13 He will bless them that fear the LORD, both small and great.
14 The LORD shall increase you more and more, you and your children.
15 Ye are blessed of the LORD which made heaven and earth.
16 The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's: but the earth hath he given to the children of men.
17 The dead praise not the LORD, neither any that go down into silence.
18 But we will bless the LORD from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the LORD.

PSALM 116.

1 The psalmist professeth his love and duty to God for his deliverance. 12 He studieth to be thankful.

I LOVE the LORD, because he hath heard my voice and my supplications.
2 Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.
3 The sorrows of death compassed me, and the pains of hell gat hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.
4 Then called I upon the name of the LORD; O LORD, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.
5 Gracious is the LORD, and righteous; yea, our God is merciful.
6 The LORD preserveth the simple: I was brought low, and he helped me.
7 Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the LORD hath dealt bountifully with thee.

PSALM 115.

The psalmist exhorteth to confidence in God, who is to be blessed for his blessings.

NOT unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory, for thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.
2 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is now their God?
3 But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.
4 Their idols are silver and gold, the work of men's hands.
5 They have mouths, but they speak not: eyes have they, but they see not:
6 They have ears, but they hear not: noses have they, but they smell not:
7 They have hands, but they handle not: feet have they, but they walk not: neither speak they through their throat.
8 They that make them are like unto them; so is every one that trusteth in them.
9 O Israel, trust thou in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.
10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD: he is their help and their shield.

An exhortation to praise

8 For thou hast delivered my soul from death, mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling.
9 I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.
10 I believed, therefore have I spoken: I was greatly afflicted:
11 I said in my haste, All men are liars.
12 What shall I render unto the LORD for all his benefits toward me?
13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of the LORD.
14 I will pay my vows unto
the LORD now in the presence of all his people.
15 Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.
16 O LORD, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant, and the son of thine hand-maid: thou hast loosed my bonds.
17 I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the LORD.
18 I will pay my vows unto
the LORD now in the presence
of all his people,
19 In the courts of the LORD's house, in the midst of thee,
O Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM 117.

An exhortation to praise God for his mercy and truth.

O PRAISE the LORD, all ye nations: praise him,
all ye people.
2 For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the LORD endureth for ever. Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM 118.

1 An exhortation to praise God for his mercy.
5 The psalmist sheweth how good it is to trust in God. 19 Under the type of the psalmist the coming of Christ in his kingdom is expressed.

O GIVE thanks unto the LORD; for he is good: because his mercy endureth for ever.
2 Let Israel now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.
3 Let the house of Aaron now say, that his mercy endureth for ever.
4 Let them now that fear the LORD say, that his mercy endureth for ever.
5 I called upon the LORD in distress: the LORD answered me, and set me in a large place.
6 The LORD is on my side;
I will not fear: what can man do unto me?
7 The LORD taketh my part with them that help me: therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.
8 It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man.
9 It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in princes.
10 All nations compassed me about: but in the name of the LORD will I destroy them.
11 They compassed me about;
yea, they compassed me about:
but in the name of the LORD
I will destroy them.
12 They compassed me about like bees; they are quenched as the fire of thorns: for in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
13 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall: but the LORD helped me.
14 The LORD is my strength and song, and is become my salvation.
15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.
16 The right hand of the LORD is exalted: the right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.
17 I shall not die, but live,
