PSALM 119: THE ALPHABET OF PRAISE TO THE WORD OF YAHWEH.

GENERAL THEME AND CONSTRUCTION: AND SETTING.

- The expressed praise for Yahweh's Law: its benefits and the determination of the writer to keep it. See the Ten Synonyms for Law. p. 789
- After an introduction as to the blessedness of keeping the Law Vv. 1-3, the Psalmist addresses himself in Prayer to Yahweh in such personal ways as implying a specific individual and circumstances. Vv. 10, 19, 27, 46, 51, 60, 73 etc.
- Each of the 22 sections are divided into 8 stanzas which is the number of perfection through circumcision. The aim of the Psalmist is to seek the help of Yahweh in putting away the flesh by the sacrificial dedication of himself. 8 - Octave - Perfect harmony.
- It is an acrostic Psalm, each letter of which prophetically introduces an aspect of the Lord, the Word made flesh. Jhn. 1:14
- The setting of the Psalm is significant. It is preceded by a group of Psalms, the second portion of the Passover Hallel (Ps. 115-118) that prophetically foretold the completeness of the Lord's witness unto death and resurrection and the universal glory of his coming Kingdom. (Ps. 115:1; 116: 7-9; 116: 18-19; 118: 22-24) including the preaching of the Gospel in the call unto the Gentiles Ps. 117.

It is followed by the Songs of Degrees. (Ps. 120-134) that commemorate the strivings of Hezekiah (typical of the saints) to render unto Yahweh that due to His holy name.

- Appropriately the Psalm is suggestive of the co-operation of the Son with the Father in effecting the victory over Sin and Death. Jhn 16:32; Heb. 5: 7-10.
- There was a prayer uttered in Gethsemane with great feeling so that "his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling to the ground" (Luke 22: 44) after an angel had been sent to "strengthen him" V. 43. Did these Psalms have relation thereto?

THE ALPHABETICAL SEQUENCE:

THE CHRIST FAMILY.

'ALEPH which signifies head or, numerically Number One - the First, but with two dots above it it becomes a thousand or family and is so used in Num. 1:16; 10:4. Read family Jud. 6:15

PSALM 122

David's vision of future glory is appropriated for use by Hezekiah in relation to the attack of Sennacherib - typical of the overthrow of Armageddon.

The Temple was Hezekiah's constant thought and care. He began his reign by "opening its doors" and cleansing it (Cp 2 Chr. 29:3 - mentioned 17 times) and Isaiah took Sennacherib's letter there Isa. 37:14. In his sickness, his prayer and answer related to it 2 Kgs 20:5. The sign he asked related to it 2 Kgs 20:8. Isa. 38:22. His songs were to be sung there Isa. 38:20.

David, whose mind was constantly centred upon the unbuilt Temple 1 Chron. 29:1-2, 28:2-21, looked forward with greater intensity to that of the future - 2 Sam. 7:12; Ps. 27:4, 12, 84:10. Perhaps compare Wine "or. Excursion to Zion"

In this Psalm Hezekiah proclaims his confidence in Yahweh whom he has served in the Temple & in the ultimate peace of the city such as is promised.

1 UNTO thee [b] lift I up mine eyes, O thou that [d] dwellest in the heavens.

3 [h] Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with [i] contempt.

Ps 135 is an expansion of Ps 134 and therefore could have been composed by Hezekiah as an appendix to "his songs" Isa. 38:20. It seems to have been used by Ezra & Nehemiah on the occasion of sealing the covenant with Yahweh. Neh 9:4-5. It is a Mosaic of Praise. Cp. V.1 - Ps 113:1; V.2 - Ps. 134:1. V.14 - Exod. 19:5. PSALM 137

JERUSALEM: MY CHIEF JOY.

Historical. The LXX has a title: "Of David by Jeremiah." In the style of David's Psalms (the imprecatory Psalms are from him) but composed by Jeremiah. Though Jeremiah never was in Babylon, his friends did visit the city and could well have returned with the record of their experiences which Jeremiah incorporated in the Psalm. Some such occurrence as Ez. 8:1; 14:1; 20:1 could provide the historical background.

It presents: "a wonderful mixture of soft melancholy and fiery patriotism. The hand that wrote it must have known how to smite sharply with the sword, as well as how to tune his harp. The words are burning words of a heart breathing tender love to his country, unyielding hate to its foes." (Perowne - amended).

Deut. 7:6 Cp Acts 15:14. This imparts responsibility upon Jacob. The Supplanter becomes Israel - a Prince with El. Cp Christ's call to Apostles. Jno 15:19. - to become princes Mt. 19:28.

All the days of the Lord's life were recorded by Yahweh in His book, and were fulfilled in his life. Ps. 40:7. He was a body prepared, and the engraving of the character was of God. Zech. 3:9.

Roth: "The days they should be fashioned, ~~whereof~~ while yet there was not one among them." This would denote that the time of conception and birth was predetermined of Deity Dan 9:24-26.

Perowne: "The days which were ordered when as yet there was none of them" — suggesting not merely the time of birth, but the times of life also ordered. See note 4. He continues: "Some suppose that the yet undeveloped members in the embryo are alluded to, as so many threads rolled a twisted together, and fashioned day by day. But the pronoun must rather be anthropomorphic of the following plural "days"; these are so many threads of life (cp. Isa. 38:12) which were written in God's book." Cp John 6:27.

29 Expressive of the love of the Son for the Father; the close and beautiful communion between them both. Cp. John 1:18. 5:30, 10:30. 15:15. 17:24.

30 It is an inexhaustible theme Rom. 11:33-36.

31 The mind of Christ and the mind of the Father thought in unison. They were "one" John 10:30. His last waking moments were of Him; and as he awoke from sleep he found himself again in His presence Cp Mk. 1:35. This mental unity with the Father was such that there was complete manifestation of the Father in character. so much so, and so much was this derivable upon the moulding of the Son by the Father that men are called upon to honor the Son as they do the Father John 5:23.

4 A PRAYER THAT YAHWEH MIGHT DESTROY THE WICKED AND PERFECT THE RIGHTEOUS Vv 19-24.

32 RÂSHÂ' See note Gen 13:13. They cannot be converted and their destruction is necessary that Yahweh's purpose may be consummated. As light destroys darkness, so Divine goodness cannot for ever tolerate evil. Cp 1 Pet. 3:20. 2 Pet. 3:15. for the reason why Yahweh does not move against them now. Notice their character: Wicked, Violent, blasphemous V. 20, contemptuous of God V. 20.

33 Publicly declares his separation from such, and his abhorrence of their ruthless violence Mt. 25:29-44.

34 Cp Ps. 73:18-19; 74:18, 23-24. Ps 12:4;

35 The enormity of their sin is that the Divine Name has been placed upon them. Num. 6:27. Acts 15:14. See note Prov. 30:9. To take the name in vain is to act inconsistently with it Ezek. 36:22.

36 Divine love is not a boundless toleration of evil, but a very jealous regard of the honor of Yahweh. The love that Christ had for his Father, and which we should have for our Father will not stand silently by when His name is maligned. Cp Ps. 15:4; 31:6; Rev 21:2, 6. Zech 11:8 There should be no compromise Jer. 15:19. Where love is strong enough it will be reflected in jealousy and hate where the object of it is unjustly maligned or treated with enmity.

37 QUWT - To cut off. fig to detest. RV mg. "do not I loathe" Cp. Ps. 119:158. Mal 2:5. Gal 2:11; 1 Tim. 1:20.

38 They may not consciously do this, but in effect they do so Cp Phil. 3:18; 1:15-16.

39 TAKLIYTH - Completion. He expresses a burning ~~evil~~ indignation against evil - including blasphemy and these principles of unrighteousness expressed in the Divine Name. Christ revealed in himself and instilled into others a revulsion of hypocritical formalism, personal selfishness, wrong teaching, indifference to the will of Yahweh. See sermon on Mount.

40 He identifies himself so completely with Yahweh. This is not inconsistent with the teaching to love your enemies - for such love is to express towards them the greatest good. Here it would seek their conversion that they may honor Yahweh - and cease to be at enmity.

41 Yahweh has already done so V.1 and now the Psalmist (in the Spirit of Christ) invites Him to continue to do so - there is purity in his feelings, even in his hatred of evil. He invites the closest scrutiny of his innermost feeling John 8:29; 8:46; 4:34; 5:30

CURSE ON EDOM AND BABYLON Ps. 137:7-9.

"When such thoughts are voiced in prayer is not the issue committed to the hands of the Almighty? And did not the children of Israel know the principle: "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay saith the Lord" (Jer. 11:20; Ps. 94:1 Cp Rom. 12:19. By putting just vengeance into the hands of God they allowed "Him to determine what was to be done, for He knew much better than they did. Or is retribution a thing about which we are so calmly indifferent that we do not care whether it is visited upon the guilty or not." Leupold.

Moreover the Psalm, probably composed by Jeremiah was written on the background of the predicted retribution to be exacted against Babylon by Yahweh's "sanctified ones" Isa. 13:11. The Judge of all the earth is righteous. Gen. 18:25. and as He decreed that the Canaanites should be destroyed, so now He does the children of Babylon. The Israelites failed to carry out the execution upon the Canaanites, and found that the "little ones" grew up to spiritually destroy them.

Christ and the saints shall destroy Babylon the Great and in that contest represent the blessed of this verse.

"The stones" = the Sela - a Divine title.

THE EMBROIDERING V15 The only other occurence of this form of the word is in Exod. 35:35. and relates to the skilful embroidering of the blue, purple, scarlet and fine twined linen which formed the veil, identified with the flesh of the Lord Heb. 10:20; 6:19; 9:3. The process which began at begettal was completed in the resurrection of the Lord, when the full beauty of the skilful work of the Embroiderer was manifested for all to see Rom. 1:4; 1 Tim. 3:16. The work of God in Christ, designed from the beginning was brought to a wonderful completion 1 Tim. 1:15; 2 Cor. 5:19.

a The Spirit in the Psalmist invites us to consider with wonder and with awe the most remarkable event in human history – when God's redeeming power, breeding as did His creative power at man's beginning, thus moved to bring into being a new man, not son of earth as Adam, but son of Mary & thus son of man & Son of God. God's power moved; His

1 PRAYER FOR DELIVERANCE FROM UNPRINCIPLED SLANDERERS Vv. 1-3.

Sheba capitalised upon the general discontent in Israel, so as to divide the nation and reduce it to civil war. David takes the problem to Yahweh in prayer.

Ps. 139 watchful eye never slept, as in secret the interweaving embroidery which belonged to a divine manifestation went on, producing in the fruth a man who bore the divine likeness, for the strands skilfully blended formed a cherubic figure. "

9 The Helmet of salvation Eph 6:17.

10 Would Yahweh do that? He might in punishment of David & of the nation. The revolt of Sheba was permitted for that reason David, by this prayer, humbly recognises that fact & pleads with Yahweh accordingly.

4 A PRAYER FOR THE OVERTHROW OF THE ENEMY. VV 9-11

The triumph of David's enemies would be at the expense of the truth

11 Contrast with V 7.

12 Let the very thing they devise for me happen to them. This was granted. Sheba's head was flung to Joab at Abel of Beth-maachah. 2 Sam 20:15-22.

13 Let Divine Judgement act in the case of Sodom overwhelm them.

14 Sheba's main weapon was the tongue. 2 Sam 20:1 He used the opportunity of general discontent to further his own cause 2 Sam 19:42-43. He sought to supercede David.

15 MEDHEPHAH - To push. Prov 22:21.

5 DAVID'S CONFIDENCE IN THE VINDICATION OF THE RIGHT VV 12-17

16 Not merely because he is afflicted & poor, but because he is such because of his submission to the will of Yahweh. David is the one referred to. Consider his submission to Divinely directed trials. Shimei 2 Sam 16:5-13 19:21.

18 In the land.

THE WARFARE

War against an unscrupulous enemy who attempted to dislodge the King from his throne Cp V. 11. and to that end stirred up rebellion against his authority being Master of the Tongue. Violence V1, scheming V2 slander V3. political ploys V5 are weapons used in the warfare. The King could not descend to match these weapons. He had greater ones. Yahweh was His and would hear & answer him V6. That was the ground of his confidence V12. He aspired that reservoir of power and gained the victory.

THE SENTINEL AT THE TONGUE
Ps. 141: 3.
Cp Ps. 34:13; 39:1; Jam. 3:3-12. The tongue can be our "glory" singing praises to Yahweh's Name Ps. 30:12; 57:8 but too often it is our shame. Then it can become as destructive as an uncontrolled fire Jam. 3:6 thus demanding that we rule our spirit Prov 16:32. A disciplined tongue conserves an acceptable sacrifice to Yahweh Hos. 14:2. If we pray to be delivered V.4. we must play our part in avoiding temptation Prov. 4:14-15 2 Cor. 6:17 - otherwise prayer will be ineffective. The Psalmist shows that thought, word and deed must be in conjunction one with the other.

PRAYER FOR HELP VV5-8
5 A plea for direct Divine intervention, such as typifies the resurrection Ps 18:9. A man must be conscious of personal high destiny, to feel that his deliverance is important enough to presume to call upon Yahweh for direct intervention.
6 His spirit-power. Cp Ezek 1:4-24.
7 A baptism of suffering. Lit. Rise 1 Sam 17:8, 11; 18:12. Goliath's utterance typifies 18 RV: "in thy loving kindness." His enemies are opposing Yahweh's purpose - not merely the Psalmist. It is part of Yahweh's loving-kindness that He cut off all enemies of the truth & deliver those who are His servants. If Ahithophel & Absalom had triumph the cause of truth would have been overwhelmed. He thus prays on the grounds that he is Yahweh's servant. In actual fact, to his personal enemies David showed great mercy at that time. 1 Sam 16:6-11; Ps 138. (Shimei).

DAVID'S PSALM OF PRAISE

This doxology heads the five Hallelujah Psalms with which the book of Psalms concludes. It is itself the final Psalm in the 5th main division of the Psalms. It expands the thought: "Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever and ever." It is addressed to Yahweh as supreme King whose dominion is eternal and universal. It proclaims His majesty, greatness, and goodness; His providential care for all creation; His constant love for those who love and fear Him. It commences with the voice of David Vv.1-2, is taken up by those like-minded Vv 4, 7 and does not cease until all the world joins in the chorus of praise V.21.

The Psalm is recited twice in the daily morning service and once in the evening service of the synagogue.

The Lord's Prayer expresses its praise: Hallowed be Thy Name Vv1-9 Thy kingdom come, Vv 10-13 Thy will on earth as in heaven Vv 17-20. Our daily bread 15-16 Forgiving debts, Vv 10, 12. Deliver from evil 19-20 The power & glory for ever

Not merely an acknowledgment of truth – but what that demands – sincerity, earnestness.

Solomon + Christ both noted for Proverbs, of which there are five kinds: Historical (i.e typical); Metaphorical (using figures drawn from nature to express a moral truth); Enigmas (wrapped up in some riddle); Parabolic (set forth as allegories); Didactical (giving precise instruction on points of morals, religion, behavior). Ps. 49 1-4 Gen. 3:15

"My Son" = Christ

LOVE AND FEAR. The Psalms express the emotion of love; the Proverbs reveal the requirements of Reverence. Both Love and Fear required for true worship. The former prevents the latter degenerating into mere servility; the latter prevents the former from becoming too familiar. A blend of both elevates the respect and filial love that is due to Yahweh so that we honor Him as a Father and obey Him as a Master. Mal. 1:6

SCORNERS Cp Ps. 1:1.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Wisdom promiseth godliness to her children, 20 and direction in good ways.

4 THE BENEFITS OF WISDOM'S WAY CONTRASTED TO THOSE OF THE STRANGE WOMAN Vv. 1-22.

1 MY son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;

2 So that thou d incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;

3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding;

4 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;

5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.

6 For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.

7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a m buckler to them that walk uprightly.

8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints.

9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

10 ¶ When wisdom entereth into thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul;

11 Discretion shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee:

12 To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward things;

13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;

14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the frowardness of the wicked;

15 Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in their paths:

16 To deliver thee from the strange woman, even from the stranger which flattereth with her words;

17 Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

18 For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead.

19 None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the paths of life.

20 That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.

21 For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.

22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

1 Note the tone of entreaty. The father is by no means sure that the son will listen to him as he comes before him in the attitude of supplication & appeal. Generally a new generation must learn the mistakes all over again. Cp. Rehoboam for whom these words primarily written. Solomon's "wisdom" was in heeding them.

1 POSITIVE BENEFITS: A KNOWLEDGE OF YAHWEH

2 Note the gradation: to receive - now to store up as treasure. Cp Ch. 1:29.

"The Hebrew text is uchob eth-ben yirtseh. And in this sense the LXX most evidently understood it.... And as to "ratsah," one of its prime meanings is "to accept," "to receive graciously" "to take into favor"; the translation, therefore, of the LXX and the apostle is perfectly consonant to the Hebrew, and our version of Prov. 3:12 is wrong." - Adam Clarke.

5 Examples of David's instruction 1 Kg. 2:2, 1 Chr. 22:11-13, 28:9

PARENTAL ADVICE CH.4. In this chapter Solomon recalls the instruction & law of his father. Law signifies direction, & by this means David sought to teach Solomon to avoid the pitfalls of life. Why should the father be anxious to instruct & direct the son? Because he has seen more of life — its mystery, peril, tragedy — and he is anxious to preserve him from danger. Thus he would both instruct & lead V.11. A person's time is saved when he is saved from mistakes, & in that way his life is extended V.10. (But Cf. Ecc. 2:12). • Every parent can leave his son the fortune of a godly inheritance & personal example. But most look in the wrong direction for a heritage to leave behind. Let it be the heritage of a home devoted to the Truth, of a good example in the things of Yahweh, of wise counsel and faith; for this is greater than wealth. 3V.15 thou shalt lie down, and thy sleep shall be sweet.

The blessings and benefits of wisdom.

25 [b]Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh.

26 For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall [c]keep thy foot from being taken.

27 ¶ Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.

28 [d]Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to morrow I will give; when thou hast it by thee.

29 [e]Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth securely by thee.

30 ¶ [f]Strive not with a man without cause, if he have done thee no harm.

31 ¶ [g]Envy thou not [h]the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.

32 For the [i]froward is abomination to the LORD: but [k]his secret is with the righteous.

33 ¶ The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the just.

34 Surely [l]he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.

35 The wise shall inherit glory: but shame [m]shall be the promotion of fools.

CHAPTER 4

1 Solomon, to persuade obedience, 3 sheweth what instruction he had of his parents.

[a]HEAR, ye children, the instruction of a father, and attend to know [b]understanding.

2 For I give you good doctrine, forsake ye not my law.

3 For I was my father's son, [c]tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.

4 [d]He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: [e]keep my commandments, and live.

5 [a]Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither decline from the words of my mouth.

6 Forsake her not, and she shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee.

7 Wisdom is [c]the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding.

8 Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she shall [d]bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her.

9 She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory shall she deliver to thee.

10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and [e]the years of thy life shall be many.

11 [f]I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths.

12 When thou goest, [g]thy steps shall not be straitened; and [h]when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble.

13 [i]Take fast hold of instruction: let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.

14 ¶ [k]Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men.

15 [l]Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.

16 [m]For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall.

17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

18 [o]But the path of the just is [d]as the shining light, that shineth [e]more and more unto the perfect day.

19 [f]The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble.

THE ANT: Proverbial for industry in every country.

(1) The ants of the Holyland lay up vast stores of grain in their nests.
(2) To facilitate this act of providence they place their nests as near as possible to the place where the grain is thrashed & stored
(3) They certainly eat this grain during the winter months
(4) They encourage certain insects which secrete sweet juices to consort with them and collect and store their eggs with their own that they may have them at hand for future use when they shall have hatched Unger

Seven things

3 Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend.

4 Give not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids.

5 Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

WISDOM'S WARNING AGAINST SLOTH vv 6-11

6 Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her ways, and be wise:

7 Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler,

8 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the harvest.

9 How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?

10 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

11 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth, and thy want as an armed man.

12 A naughty person, a wicked man, walketh with a froward mouth.

13 He winketh with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fingers;

14 Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; he soweth discord.

15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; suddenly shall he be broken without remedy.

16 These six things doth the LORD hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him:

17 A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood,

18 An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief,

19 A false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

20 My son, keep thy father's commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

21 Bind them continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck.

22 When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee.

23 For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; and reproofs of instruction are the way of life:

24 To keep thee from the evil woman, from the flattery of the tongue of a strange woman.

25 Lust not after her beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids.

26 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life.

27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?

28 Can one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned?

29 So he that goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent.

30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy his soul when he is hungry;

31 But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house.

32 But whoso committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul.

33 A wound and dishonour shall he get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away.

34 For jealousy is the rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.

35 He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though thou givest many gifts.

Solomon persuadeth to a kind familiarity with wisdom. 10 He sheweth the cunning of a whore, 22 and the desperate simplicity of a young wanton.

MY son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with thee.

2 Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the apple of thine eye.

3 Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon the table of thine heart.

4 Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; and call understanding thy kinswoman:

5 That they may keep thee from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words.

6 ¶ For at the window of my house I looked through my casement, RV lattice

7 And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,

8 Passing through the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house,

9 In the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night:

10 And, behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart.

11 (She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in her house:

12 Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in wait at every corner.)

13 So she caught him, and kissed him, and with an impudent face said unto him, 14 I have peace offerings with me; this day have I payed my vows.

15 Therefore came I forth to meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee.

16 I have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, with fine linen of Egypt.

17 I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning: let us solace ourselves with loves.

19 For the goodman is not at home, he is gone a long journey:

20 He hath taken a bag of money with him, and will come home at the day appointed.

21 With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of her lips she forced him.

22 He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks;

23 Till a dart strike through his liver; as a bird hasteth to the snare, and knoweth not that it is for his life.

24 ¶ Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.

26 For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men have been slain by her.

THE HOUSE OF WISDOM is the House of God 1Tim 3:15 Eph 2:19-22. Moses was a servant in that house; the Lord Jesus is a son Heb 3:1-6. The Voice of Wisdom sounds forth from it crying v 1,3 calling v 4, speaking v 6, uttering v 7. The wisdom is Divine, expressive of the purpose of Yahweh in creation Num 14:21 Ps 72:19 Isa 11:9 Hab 2:14. Man was brought into being for that purpose Gen 1:26-28; the Lord personified it Luke 11:31,49 1 Cor 1:24,30. This Wisdom is the Logos, the Declaration of the Divine purpose John 1:1-4. The Lord Jesus was the Logos made flesh John 1:14. All earth is yet to reflect the excellence of His Divine Wisdom Ps 19 brought about by preaching (or "crying aloud" Rom 10:18, 1 Cor 1:21. 3 WISDOM'S APPEAL 4-11

the nature, power, and eternity of wisdom. Ps 147:5 Col 1:15-23; 2:3 1 Tim 2:4-6

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man. (Adam - To high or low)

5 O ye @simple, understand wisdom; and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.

9 They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.

10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.

15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice. (SARAR)

16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth. (Divine wisdom is personified in the Lord)

17 I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me. Ecc 12:1 Isa 55:6 Jam 1:5

18 Riches and honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness. Jam 2:20-26

19 My fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver.

20 I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the paths of judgment:

21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance; and I will fill their treasures. RV "Treasuries"

4 WISDOM PROCLAIMS HER OWN VIRTUES. 12-21

22 The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works of old.

23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were no fountains abounding with water.

25 Before the mountains were settled, before the hills was I brought forth:

26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world.

27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when he set a compass upon the face of the depth:

28 When he established the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep:

29 When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth:

30 Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him;

31 Rejoicing in the habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men. Ps 11:3; 32:1; 128:1,2

32 Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed are they that keep my ways. (SHAMAR - To hedge, guard, protect)

33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

34 Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors.

35 For whoso findeth me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD.

36 But he that sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

[e] WISDOM hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven pillars:

2 She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she hath also furnished her table.

3 She hath sent forth her maidens: she crieth upon the highest places of the city,

4 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

5 Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.

6 Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in the way of understanding.

7 He that reproveth a scorner getteth to himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot.

8 Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise man, and he will love thee.

9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in learning.

10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding.

11 For by me thy days shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased.

12 If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, thou alone shalt bear it.

13 A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing.

14 For she sitteth at the door of her house, on a seat in the high places of the city,

15 To call passengers who go right on their ways:

16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him,

17 Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

Cp Rom. 12:18. Reproof is only of value when it will accomplish good. Then it must be offered even though it bring trouble - we must risk insult for the sake of righteousness. Therefore before reproof can be effectively administered, care must be exercised as to the circumstances in which it is offered, and the character of the one to whom it is directed. THE RIGHTEOUS ONLY SAVED WITH DIFFICULTY v 31.

Peter's quotation of the Proverb (1 Pet. 4:18) shows that it is only with difficulty that the righteous will be saved in time of trouble & therefore there is need for them to constantly seek Divine aid to that end. The context of his quotation is the suffering of the righteous and he warns against them suffering as the consequence of their own folly. Solomon prefaces his proverb with the invitation to "Behold". Behold what? The difficulty by which even the righteous are saved, as the example of such men as Moses and David show. Thus the need to observe the preceding proverbs which are designed to show that as a man sows, so shall he reap - both now and in the future (1 Tim. 4:8). Thus this proverb is an observation and not a true prophecy - it describes a principle which applies now and will apply then. It emphasis that as it will only be with difficulty that the righteous will be saved due concern should be given to these proverbs.

11 (a) By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted: but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.

12 He that is (2) void of wisdom despiseth his neighbour: but a man of understanding holdeth his peace.

13 A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter.

14 (c) Where no counsel is, the people fall: (d) but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

16 (g) A gracious woman retaineth honour: and (h) strong men retain riches.

17 (i) The merciful man doeth good to his own soul: but he that is cruel troubleth his own flesh.

18 The wicked (k) worketh a deceitful work: but to (l) him that soweth righteousness shall be a sure reward.

19 As righteousness tendeth to life: so he that pursueth evil pursueth it to his own death.

20 They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the LORD: but such as are upright in their way are his delight.

21 (t) Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.

22 As (u) a jewel of gold in a swine's (v) snout, so is a fair woman which (w) is without discretion.

23 The desire of the righteous is only good: but the expectation of the wicked is (x) wrath.

24 There is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty.

25 (A) The liberal soul shall be made fat: and (B) he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

26 He that withholdeth corn, (C) the people shall curse him: but blessing shall be upon the head of him that selleth it.

27 He that diligently seeketh good procureth favour: but (D) he that seeketh mischief, it shall come unto him.

28 (E) He that trusteth in his riches shall fall: but the righteous shall (F) flourish as a branch.

29 He that troubleth his own house shall inherit the wind: and the fool shall be servant to the wise of heart.

30 The fruit of the righteous is a (G) tree of life; and (H) he that winneth souls is wise.

31 (I) Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

5 The thoughts of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit.

6 The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.

CHAPTER 13.

Prefaced by "A wise son"

2 SECOND SECTION IN THE COLLECTION 13:1-15:19.

1 ON MAKING THE TONGUE PROFITABLE vv 1-3.

We have two eyes & two ears to see & hear with, but only one tongue fenced with teeth. Let it keep its subordinate position.

2 ON MAKING LABOR PROFITABLE vv 4-8.

1 HOW TO MAKE LIFE PROFITABLE

10 Only by pride cometh contention: but with the well advised is wisdom.

11 [a] Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth [2] by labour shall increase.

12 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but [c] when the desire cometh, it is a tree of life.

13 Whoso [2] despiseth the word shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment [3] shall be [i] rewarded.

14 The law of the wise is a [k] fountain of life, to depart from [l] the snares of death.

15 [m] Good understanding giveth favour: but the way of transgressors is hard.

16 [o] Every prudent man dealeth with knowledge: but a fool [4] layeth open his folly.

17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but [5] [q] a faithful ambassador is health.

18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that regardeth reproof shall be honoured.

19 [s] The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to depart from evil.

20 He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a companion of fools [u] shall be destroyed.

21 [w] Evil pursueth sinners: but to the righteous good shall be repayed.

22 A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and [y] the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.

23 Much food is in [a] the tillage of the poor: but there is that is destroyed for want of [judgment].

24 [d] He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.

25 [e] The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of the wicked shall want.

CHAPTER 14.

EVERY [e] wise [1] woman [c] buildeth her house: but the foolish [d] plucketh it down with her hands.

2 He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but [f] he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him.

3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but [h] the lips of the wise shall preserve them.

4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but much increase is by the strength of the ox.

5 A [n] faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.

6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but [p] knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

7 Go [r] from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit.

9 [t] Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there is favour.

10 The heart knoweth [6] his own bitterness; and a stranger doth not intermeddle with his joy.

11 [x] The house of the wicked shall be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

12 [z] There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but [b] the end thereof are the ways of death.

13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and [c] the end of that mirth is heaviness.

14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself.

15 The simple believeth every

15 [a] There is gold, and a multitude of [b] rubies: but the lips of knowledge are a [c] precious jewel.

16 [d] Take his garment that is surety for a stranger: and take a pledge of him for a strange woman.

2 [f] Every way of a man is right in his own eyes: but [g] the LORD pondereth the hearts.

3 [i] To do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.

4 [j] An high look, and a proud heart, and [k] the plowing of the wicked, is sin.

5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want.

6 [l] The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death.

7 The robbery of the wicked shall [3] destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment.

8 The way of man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right.

9 [4] It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop, than with [5] a brawling woman in a wide house.

10 [t] The soul of the wicked desireth evil: his neighbour [u] findeth no favour in his eyes.

11 [w] When the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise [v] is instructed, he receiveth knowledge.

12 The righteous man wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness.

23 16 The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead.

24 17 He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth wine and oil shall not be rich.

25 18 The wicked shall be a ransom for the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright.

26 19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman.

27 20 There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it up.

28 21 He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour.

29 22 A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the strength of the confidence thereof.

30 23 Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles.

31 24 Proud and haughty scorner is his name, who dealeth in proud wrath.

32 25 The desire of the slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour.

33 26 He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous giveth and spareth not.

34 27 The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, when he bringeth it with a wicked mind?

35 28 A false witness shall perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly.

36 29 A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his way.

37 30 There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD.

38 31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the LORD.

- Humility V 4.

6 f Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.

5 By humility fear of Yahweh, that in turn, results in riches etc Prov 3:16 where humility is duplicated by mistake, etc.

- Restraint. V 5

7 The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender.

6 He brings trouble on himself.

8 He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: and the rod of his anger shall fail.

7 He who regards the life & morals will be for ... Cp 15:5 16:17

9 g He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.

3 AIDS TO DEVELOPING A GOOD NAME 6-12.

- Early training V 6

10 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.

6 CHANAK – Initiate. To Narrow (i.e limit). Str. Gen. "To put in one thing into the mouth, to give to be taken." Thus develops a taste, a desire for it. Apply to a trade, a way of life, to the Truth. Cp Gen 18:19, Deut. 6:6-7

- Independence, V 7.

11 He that loveth pureness of heart, for the grace of his lips the king shall be his friend.

7 EBED – Slave. He loses his freedom of action "He that goes a borrowing goes a sorrowing"

- Integrity V 8.

12 The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, and he overthroweth the words of the transgressor.

8 Such are soon keen for what they can & their scheming ends in nothing.

- Liberality V 9.

h Luke 6:30-35, 38. Lk 21:6 2 Cor 9:6-11

13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I shall be slain in the streets.

- Consideration V 10

14 The mouth of strange women is a deep pit: he that is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein.

10 He is inconsiderate, indulging only in action, not open to reasoning Cp 26:20.

- Sincerity V 11

11 He is not only sincere & without guile in heart – but can express himself with grace 16:13, Ps 45:2

- Reverence V 12.

12 RV: "him that hath knowledge" This is recognised & acted upon by the one of good name.

4 HINDRANCES TO THE ATTAINMENT OF A GOOD NAME 13-16

15 THE FINAL RESTING PLACE OF THE WICKED 21:16.

The man once enlightened who goes astray, has no peace of mind in his vacillation, but will receive permanent rest of body in the second death. The Hebrew for "dead" in this verse is Rephaim. This term is used of some who will not rise Isa. 26:14 and some who will Isa. 26:19. Rend. "deceased" V. 14 and "dead" V. 19. Also "giants" Deut. 2: 11. 3:11. ● Last prophecy 20:1 X-22 ● Next 22:17

● Avoid Contagious Anger 24-25.

● Avoid Suretyship 26-27 Under the conditions described V 27 it is dishonest & adds to the problems of life.

CHAPTER 23.

3 AWE BEFORE APPETITE Vv 1-3

A hexastich, closely connected with Ch 22:29. A warning addressed to a man whose diligence is rewarded by being made the guest of Kings.

1 Darby – "who" It is not a time of self indulgence but of self restraint.

15 Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.

16 He that oppresseth the poor to increase his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want.

17 Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply thine heart unto my knowledge.

18 For it is a pleasant thing if thou keep them within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips.

19 That thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to thee this day, even to thee.

20 Have not I written to thee excellent things in counsels and knowledge, 21 That I might make thee know the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee?

22 Rob not the poor, because he is poor; neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:

23 For the LORD will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them.

24 Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a furious man thou shalt not go:

25 Lest thou learn his ways, and get a snare to thy soul.

26 Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or of them that are sureties for debts.

27 If thou hast nothing to pay, why should he take away thy bed from under thee?

28 Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.

29 Seest thou a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men.

CHAPTER 23.

WHEN thou sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what is before thee:

2 And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man given to appetite.

3 Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are deceitful meat.

4 Labour not to be rich: cease from thine own wisdom.

5 Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven.

6 Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats:

7 For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee.

8 The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou vomit up, and lose thy sweet words.

9 Speak not in the ears of a fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words.

10 Remove not the old landmark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:

11 For their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee.

12 Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of knowledge.

13 Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou beatest him with the rod, he shall not die.

14 Thou shalt beat him with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell.

15 My son, if thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine.

16 Yea, my reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things.

17 Let not thine heart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day long.

18 For surely there is an end; and thine expectation shall not be cut off.

V 12. Instruction MUWCÂR. From a root meaning to chastise. Chastisement, reproof, warning, instruction. Learn through adversity V 12. Teach it to your child. V 13. It will save his life V 14.

V 13. CHILD - NAAR - A boy of age from infancy to adolescence.

WISDOM STRONGER THAN PHYSICAL STRENGTH 24:5

"However feeble in body, the wise, thoughtful man is wise and strong in counsel, firm in purpose, brave in conduct, thoroughly to be depended upon & supported by his perfect trust in Yahweh (4:7,12) In the practical way he can invent labor saving devices that save labor doing the work of many.

CHARACTERISTICS OF A WISE SON ¥24

2 AVOID GLUTTONY. 14:21

One effect of fearing Yahweh

19 Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart in the way.

20 Be not among [b] winebibbers; among [d] riotous eaters [5] of flesh:

21 For the [f] drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: and [g] drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags.

22 Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.

23 (h) Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.

24 (i) The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him.

25 Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall rejoice.

26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.

27 For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 (k) She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth the transgressors among men.

29 [l] Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath [m] wounds without cause? who hath [n] redness of eyes? Their excess openly manifested

30 They that [o] tarry long at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine.

31 Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when it moveth itself aright.

32 (p) At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like [q] an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter perverse things.

34 Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down [r] in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon the top of a mast.

35 They have [s] stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and [2] I felt it not: when shall I awake? [t] I will seek it yet again.

CHAPTER 24

(u) BE not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them. Be separate

2 For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is an house builded; and by understanding it is established: (TABUWN 4:2)

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers be filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 (w) A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength. Always improving his efforts See Note above

6 For (x) by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and (y) in multitude of counsellors there is safety. (CHOMCUTH - Plur. 4:20)

7 [z] Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth [7] in the gate.

8 He that [a] deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person. "Lord of mischief" - by the truly wise

9 The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy (strength) is [7] small. (4:5 Wisdom must be harnessed to courage to implement it)

11 If thou forbear [8] to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain;

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man (d) according to his works?

13 My son, eat thou [c] honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet [2] to thy taste:

14 Note the sweetness of wisdom

47 but also note the warning of

- Is law abiding 28:7 - Avoids contention 29:8 - Controls self in strife 29:11 - Rejoices the hearts of his parents 23:15 Cp V 26, 24

"He that begetteth a wise son shall have joy in him" - 23:24

HEZEKIAH'S SELECTION 25:1 Hezekiah's reform "healed" the nation of its previous spiritual sickness. It demanded both religious & practical reforms, & in these avenues he restored conditions comparable to those of David & Solomon. The practical proverbs now selected were evidently particularly necessary for the revival of the time. They were probably copied under the supervision of Isaiah. See ... abominations, the conjunction "and."

14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

9 AVOID PLOTTING AGAINST THE JUST Vv 15 11

15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place:

16 For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

10 AVOID VINDICTIVENESS 17:14

18 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.

19 Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked;

20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

11 AVOID ENVY Vv 19-20

21 My son, fear thou the LORD and the king: and meddle not with them that are given to change:

12 MANIFEST LOYALTY Vv 21 22

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both?

23 These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment.

24 He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him:

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.

26 Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer.

27 Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house.

28 Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips.

29 Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me; I will render to the man according to his work.

30 I went by the field of the slothful, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;

31 And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down.

32 Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.

33 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to sleep:

34 So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.

CHAPTER 25.

1 Observations about kings, 8 and about avoiding causes of quarrels, and sundry causes thereof.

THESE are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.

2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings is unsearchable.

4 Take away the dross from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

5 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:

7 For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen.

8 Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what

FIVE KINDS OF WORDS, Vv 11-13.

- Reproving words V 12. Faithful words uttered in love with the design to help
- Refreshing words V 13 - Encouraging, reassuring
- Vain words V 14 - Boastful, promising but never performing as disappointing as clouds with out rain
- Kind words V 15. - Understanding, sympathetic, showing out the best in another.

CHAPTER 26.

1 Observations about fools, 13 about sluggards, 17 and about contentious busybodies.

AS snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honour is not seemly for a fool.

2 As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by flying, so the curse causeless shall not come.

3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back.

4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.

5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage.

7 The legs of the lame are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

8 As he that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is he that giveth honour to a fool.

9 As a thorn goeth up into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.

10 The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and rewardeth transgressors.

11 As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool returneth to his folly.

12 Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? there is more hope of a fool than of him.

13 The slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets.

14 As the door turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed.

15 The slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than seven men that can render a reason.

17 He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the ears.

18 As a mad man who casteth firebrands, arrows, and death,

19 So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, Am not I in sport?

20 Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth.

21 As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down into the innermost parts of the belly.

23 Burning lips and a wicked heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross.

24 He that hateth dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him;

25 When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations in his heart.

26 Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness shall be shewed before the whole congregation.

27 Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return upon him.

28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Observations of selflove, 5 of true love, 11 of care to avoid offences, 23 and of the household care.

BOAST not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth.

2 Let another man praise thee, and not thine own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips.

3 A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them both.

4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able to stand before envy?

5 Open rebuke is better than secret love.

6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are deceitful.

7 The full soul loatheth an honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.

8 As a bird that wandereth from her nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place.

9 Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend by hearty counsel.

10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off.

11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer him that reproacheth me.

12 A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself;

The ravens pick out the eyes of helpless lambs deserted by those who would protect them. Cp. Gn 11 Because, for VV DESCRIBES WHAT THE ATTITUDES OF V 16 CAN LEAD TO.

4 THINGS DISCREDITING

The Hebrew (zare) means "hate" and probably relates to an ill-tempered or hating woman who, once married does not restrain her hate or temper, and thus becomes overbearing and disagreeable

Being only used to obeying orders, he has not the ability to rule and thus brings trouble

Not having wisdom to rightly use that with which he has been blessed he becomes overbearing and pompous Becomes insolent and imprudent to the rest of the family.

4 THINGS WHICH SHEW HOW WISDOM CAN GIVE STRENGTH TO THE WEAK. Vv. 24-28

They are moved by a wisdom that comes from the Creator.

With no visible leader yet act in conjunction in their communities, storing together food for the future. So God's people are "made wise" for the future 2 Tim 3:15 (Gen)

27. Cruel oppression V 14 induced by greed.

A fitting conclusion to this section of the book. There is mutual antipathy between the two classes. The attitude of the upright is a standing reproach to the wicked and generates hatred in him. John 15:18-19; 3:19-21.

EVILS THAT WISDOM REVEAL V 10.

Sr. R.V. = "Slander."
Heb. "Galal" - Bring into contempt (D.). The servant has the ear of his master, and if it is shown that he has been falsely accused the accuser will be discredited. Why a "servant." Because one may try to gain favor by so doing, thinking the obscure slave beneath him has not the power to retaliate. See Rom 14:4.

Vv 11-31 6 Groups of 4 sentences each. 4 = universality. FIRST - 4 Generations.

1 THE Words of Agur the son of Jakeh, even the prophecy: the man spake unto Ithiel, even unto Ithiel and Ucal,

2 Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man.

3 I neither learned wisdom, nor have the knowledge of the holy.

4 Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell?

5 Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him.

6 Add thou not unto his words, lest he reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

7 Two things have I required of thee; deny me them not before I die:

8 Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me:

9 Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.

10 Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou be found guilty.

11 There is a generation that curseth their father, and doth not bless their mother.

12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet is not washed from their filthiness.

13 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids are lifted up.

14 There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off

Four things insatiable.

15 The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give.
There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, It is enough:
16 The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough.
17 The eye that mocketh at his father, and despiseth to obey his mother, the ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.
18 There be three things which are too wonderful for me, yea, four which I know not:
19 The way of an eagle in the air; the way of a serpent upon a rock; the way of a ship in the midst of the sea; and the way of a man with a maid.
20 Such is the way of an adulterous woman; she eateth, and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness.
21 For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot bear:
22 For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled with meat;
23 For an odious woman when she is married; and an handmaid that is heir to her mistress.
24 There be four things which are little upon the earth, but they are exceeding wise:
25 The ants are a people not strong, yet they prepare their meat in the summer;
26 The conies are but a feeble folk, yet make they their houses in the rocks;
27 The locusts have no king, yet go they forth all of them by bands;
28 The spider taketh hold with her hands, and is in kings' palaces.

Of chastity, &c.

29 There be three things which go well, yea, four are comely in going:
30 A lion which is strongest among beasts, and turneth not away for any;
31 A greyhound; an he goat also; and a king, against whom there is no rising up.
32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself, or if thou hast thought evil, lay thine hand upon thy mouth.
33 Surely the churning of milk bringeth forth butter, and the wringing of the nose bringeth forth blood: so the forcing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

3 Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy ways to that which destroyeth kings.
4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink:
5 Lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted.
6 Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts.
7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.

b. Heb. "Heed my son." Lemuel is not the only son but the son of the womb and the son of her prayers and true marriage. Bathsheba's first child did not answer to this description. Perhaps so called Solomon, Lemuel to remind him that he belonged to Yahweh more than herself.

CHAPTER I.

1 The preacher sheweth that all human courses are vain: 4 because the creatures are restless in their courses, 9 they bring forth nothing new. 12 He hath found this so in the study of wisdom.

THE words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

2 Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities; all is vanity.

3 What profit hath a man of all his labour which he taketh under the sun?

4 One generation passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth for ever.

5 The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he arose.

away - comparatively quickly & completely; fails to satisfy the mind of man which craves for something more permanent & progressive; that leaves no result or adequate result behind.

SUMMARY. Through all the tantalising ironies and wearying repetitions of life there moves an all-embracing Divine control (3:17. 9:1. making towards a future restitution Ecc 12:14 God is constantly recognised (Ch 2:24-26. 3:10-14. 5:19. 8:17. 9:1) which gives the Preacher through present vanities to the final truth. He views life from standpoint of flesh - Wisdom, possessions, pleasure all to one end - personal satisfaction But all fail to truly satisfy for God "hath set eternity in man's heart Ch 3:11 and anything less is not sufficient Ch 5:18 12. 6:7. This want of satisfaction is designed to cause men to seek the higher good Ch 2:25. 3:14 7:14. Thus through this maze of doubt and perplexity a man is brought to the time when all shall be put right 3:17 8:5-12 12:14. WE SHOULD NEVER LET WHAT WE DO NOT KNOW DESTROY OUR FAITH IN WHAT WE DO KNOW.

Scientist today acknowledge that which Solomon here states - that the winds are governed by strict law. See Redfield's theory of storms. The law of evaporation the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.

All nature reveals unvarying repetition bearing no tangible result Lit. "go thither they go again." Constant pouring of rivers into the sea brings no result 7 All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again.

DABAKIM

8 All things are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

12. See. All words are wearisome. To go through the catalogue of vain repetition is both laborious and profitless

Some render: "All things are in restless activity" - bringing no advance, producing nothing permanent.

9 The thing that hath been, it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun.

10 Is there any thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us.

11 There is an unvarying monotony in life which cannot be changed - birth, growth, marriage, family, death

14. "Labor": Word Version, aeroplane are but different ways of doing that which was done before

15. In the vastness of the past, recorded or unrecorded, the seeming novelty has already been known. The discoveries of earlier times are forgotten and seem quite new when revived.

16. First summary. What profit is labor and toil - all is soon forgotten.

THE QUEST BY PERSONAL EXPERIENCE Ch 1-2.

THE SEARCH IN WISDOM Vv.12-18

17. Solomon, writing for posterity uses the past tense.

18. To the Hebrews this was the seat of understanding and intellectual faculties generally.

11 There is no remembrance of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after.

12 ¶ I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.

13 And I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith.

14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.

15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.

16 I communed with mine own heart, saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.

17 And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know

"Darash" - penetrating into the depth of an object immediately before one. "Tur" - A comprehensive survey of things further off.

"This is a sore travail" etc. RV: "It is a" Lit. "Travailed." The word for laborious and painstaking enquiry, the careful selection of facts and the placing of them in their proper perspective The travail here referred to.

Ruath ruach - "A feeding on wind." Ps 49:10-11. Men cannot change the course of events or satisfactorily correct all the anomalies of which life is full He tries and may succeed in part, but there is always "something lacking, and the work is not complete.

25 So in man there does not exist the wisdom to straighten the crooked - the Godly man must seek Yahweh.

26 The Knowledge of wisdom would naturally throw into bold relief its opposite number - madness and folly.

26A 'ANAH not only signifies to pay attention to a matter, but also to respond to it by being humbled - reflected by.

26B 39 times God mentioned as Elohim, never as Yahweh. Why? Elohim rep. God as working in the present order through angels - Yahweh = Covenant God for future. Solomon considering mankind

In general - man does not profit from the experience of the past

CONCLUSION

18 For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

HALAL - Noisy, or showy folly or madness. Same as See 1 Cp. 8:8.

CHAPTER 2.

1 The vanity of human courses in the works of pleasure. 18 The vanity of human labour. 24 Nothing better than joy in our labour; but that is God's gift.

I SAID in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth, therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, this also is vanity.

CONCLUSION.

2 I said of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it?

TUWR - To spy out.

3 I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven all the days of their life.

4 I made me great works; I builded me houses; I planted me vineyards:

Carmel

5 I made me gardens and orchards, and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits:

6 I made me pools of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees:

7 I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all that were in Jerusalem before me:

8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts.

9 So I was great, and increased more than all that were

fem. HBlol

27. "Holeloth" - intensive plural Confusion of thought. An unwisdom which deranges all order and propriety.

28 "Sikluth" - Vice or Wickedness "SiKlwth"

29 The pursuit of fleshly wisdom only served to accentuate the anomalies mentioned earlier. It could not reveal a solution that only lay in a direct ion that such wisdom could not follow. 1 Cor. 1:19 21.

30 The more one knows, the more one is oppressed by the evil and unsatisfactory nature of human affairs

31. To the view of the uncultured or ignorant, the wisdom of the sage seems almost divine - but the wise knows his limitations

(1) Problems he cannot solve
(2) Errors he cannot correct
(3) Evils he cannot remedy
He becomes painfully conscious he does not deserve the reputation he enjoys among his fellows. Particularly does he realise his limitations in the sight of God.

CHAPTER 2.

THE SEARCH IN PLEASURE, WEALTH & GREATNESS. Vv.1-11

1 Sensuous Enjoyment. Vv.1-

Dissatisfied with the quest through wisdom, casting aside the restraints of wisdom, and the thought of Divine Being. Ps 14:1 53:1

2 He found it vanity, a species of delirious intoxication which stupifies reason, coarsens the outlook, and overthrows judgment.

What does it effect towards true happiness and contentment? Prov. 14:13 Such are dead (Rev 3:1) self deceived Tit. 3:3 Their pleasure shortlived Luke 6:24 faced. James 4:5. 1 Tim 5:6

2 Banqueting - Revelry. V.

Lit. "I spied out." Having proved the fruitlessness of sensual pleasure he seeks it in another direction - the pleasures of the Table

Taxes and tribute. See Hebrew

Lit. "While my heart was guided with wisdom." He retained sufficient control to restrain his passions, as not to be wholly given over to vice.

3 Art and Culture. Vv.4-6

Leaving the coarser modes of pleasure he tries others of more refinement

4 a PARDEYSIM = Paradises or enclosed pleasure gardens.

5-6 1 Kings 10:8. Josephus says - 1,000 chariots, 20,000 horses. Drivers, riders = young men of comely appearance, tall and well built with long flowing hair, dressed in tunics of Tyrian purple, and hair powdered with gold dust that glittered as they rode.

8 Taxes and tribute and the rich and unusual presents reserved for Kings - Thus he attended to the business as well as the pleasure of life.

9 In personal prestige, in wealth, in culture, in wisdom and in experience

LESSONS Man, like nature, is confined to a circle from which he cannot free himself; and though he uses all the power with which he is endowed to penetrate the enigma of life, and free himself from it, he is wholly unable to do so. Minor changes and improvements take place but life itself remains throughout the ages subject to the same limitations, calamities, uncertainties and close.

Nature presents a spectacle of constant change and restlessness, but overriding all is the principle of stability in change - a Divine purpose in nature about us.

4 WEALTH AND GREATNESS Vv.7-9.

KOHELETH NOT AN ATHEIST - though Covenant Name not once mentioned, God is referred to 37 times He set forth as the highest Ch 5:1 an Object of fear Ch 5:7. 12:13. of worship Ch 5:1-2. Disposer and Governor of all Ch 7:13. Koheleth acknowledges the existence of such things as truth, error, right wrong, holiness and sin Ch 5:4-6. 7:15-16. 9:2-3

6 SELF GRATIFICATION V10.

The Search in Pleasure 2:1 Entertainments serve a useful purpose as occasional diversion from the serious tasks of life. but the chief + lasting good is not revealed in this section

He retained control of his senses

He tasted to the full the delights of fleshly gratification whether refined or otherwise 1 Jn 2:16

But true happiness cannot be forced – it developes very often, out of the sacrifice of present benefits Luke 18:18

In labour there is a measure of enjoyment and thus there is exhortation Ecc. 9:7-10 But with satiety the pleasure lags. Thus the rejoicing is but temporary.

God had given him the opportunity of indulging every whim. All things come from him Acts 14:17 Jas 1:17. 1 Tim. 6:17. Seeing He is the Giver, He alone can determine their wise use.

RESULT In his pleasure, his misery became most profound He found it did not give true and lasting happiness. The way of pleasure is not the way of peace. It cannot impart lasting happiness and will lead to everlasting misery and shame. At best it is but a form of escapism

COMPARISON OF WISDOM AND PLEASURE Vv 12-23

On the one side Wisdom is contrasted with the actions and habits of madness and folly.

The King has tried everything. He has had the wisdom and wealth to do so to the fullest extent, so that no one coming after the King could possibly do more

There is one result described. A person walking in wisdom can perceive his direction The fool walks from moment to moment in darkness V14

Prov 4:18-19

This is an apt simile, for wisdom comes from above Jas 3:16. Dan. 2:20. 1 Cor 1:30. Eph 1:17. 3:18.

Here is where wisdom fails. Its advantage is short lived In view of an inrush of oblivion, Wisdom is really a disadvantage for it reveals more clearly the anomalies of life and therefore brings greater sorrow Ch 1:18

This is so true that unless recorded in an encyclopaedia the memory of the wise lapses altogether As it is, there are many fools recorded in these books as wise, with their folly camouflaged. Ps 49:10

Empty and a striving after wind.

RESULT - Seek Wisdom. Learn to discriminate between it and folly. It will give advantages though short lived.

THE VANITY OF BUSINESS

a Sorrow in getting success V22
b Sorrow in keeping Riches V23
c Sorrow in parting with them V18

The vanity of human labour. ECCLESIASTES 3. ReRehoboam before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.

10 And whatsoever mine eyes desired I [a] kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of all my labour.

RESULT V11.

11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was [c] vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no profit under the sun.

12 ¶ And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and [d] madness, and [e] folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the king? even that which hath been [1] already done.

13 Then I saw [f] that wisdom excelleth [g] folly, as far as light excelleth darkness.

14 [h] The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I myself perceived also that [i] one event happeneth to them all.

15 Then said I in my heart, As [j] it happeneth to the fool, so it [k] happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity.

16 For there is [l] no remembrance of the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool. Humanity does not learn by experience.

17 Therefore I hated life; because the work that is wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is [m] vanity and vexation of spirit.

18 ¶ Yea, I hated all my labour which I had [n] taken under the sun: because [o] I should leave it unto the man that shall be [p] after me.

19 And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity.

20 Therefore I went about to cause my heart to despair of all the labour which I took under the sun.

21 For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet [q] to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he [r] leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.

22 For what hath man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun?

23 For all [s] his days are [t] sorrows, and his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity.

THE 1st SUMMING UP

24 [u] [k] There is nothing better for a man, than that he should eat and drink, and that he [v] should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God.

25 For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I? apart from Him - NIV

26 For [w] God giveth to a man that is good [x] in his sight wisdom, and knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, [y] that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is [z] vanity and vexation of spirit. Even God's gifts in this life are temporary

CHAPTER 3.

1 By the necessary change of times, vanity is added to human travail. 11 There is an excellency in God's works. 16 God shall judge the righteous and the wicked.

TO every thing there is a [a] season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

2 "Eth" = the beginning
So all things have an appointed beginning and duration of time
3 "Increase" evil = profit or pleasure, but it later came to signify "business" or "matter"

THE CONTRASTS OF LIFE Vv 2-8

14 pairs of contrasts originally printed in parallel columns, one "time" ever against another

4 Those who give the contrasts, must themselves yield to the law of death

Ecc 9:2,7

Dominated by seasons or the will of man
Judicial execution
In need dominated by extraneous circumstances
Dominated by decay that age brings

1 The funeral + wedding
2 Hired mourners + dancers
3 For clearing land + building
4 Repair of fences, tents + mixing - this all things have in common

1 Heb "Olam" - Aged or Eternity. God has set this before man and without this in view the future is an inscrutable mystery of V11.

2 Heb "without" (Yng) A time when love of friends must come to an end

3 A time of prosperity not governed by circumstances over which we have no control.

WISE REACTION TO THESE CIRCUMSTANCES Vv 9-15.

Seeing that all seasons are governed by circumstances beyond man's control, what advantage is there in trying to alter them. We must accept them as they are Ecc 1:13. Note.

Appropriate to its season. The light + warmth of summer, the blazing cold of winter, the invigorating freshness of spring. The grace of youth, the strength of manhood, the experience of unity and calmness of age. The joy of battle, the pleasure of repose. Lux Hinc: "True enjoyment only comes when life is lived in conformity with Divine precepts"

3 A true wisdom is not grief - a true knowledge which is not a pure joy untainted

Success, Kithereunto

30 Adequate remedies
Success gives a temporary enjoyment, but when it is reached the mind ceases
31 pains the effort in obtaining, suffering, pain and travail in problems + success investments, profits returns, often means that he has the facility to enjoy success
Trouble is by God's permission

Man may enjoy good things for what he labors but only according as God permits thus the necessity of doing all things in conformity to His will

Heb = "It is not good in man" Is the standard to gain true value for labor performed not exist in man, it must be sought from God

This is a Hebraism expressing preeminence. Cp. Ecc. 2:24,25

3 A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

4 A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

5 A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

6 A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

7 A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

8 A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

9 What profit hath he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth?

10 I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in it.

11 He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work that God maketh from the beginning to the end.

12 I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life.

13 And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

14 I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should fear before him.

15 That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past.

16 ¶ And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity was there.

17 I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.

18 I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see that they themselves are beasts.

19 For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity.

20 All go unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.

21 Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the beast that goeth downward to the earth?

22 Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

CHAPTER 4.

1 Vanity is increased unto men by oppression, 4 by envy, 5 by idleness, 7 by covetousness, 9 by solitariness, 13 by wilfulness.

SO I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.

2 Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are yet alive.

3 Yea, better is he than both

5 The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own flesh. — Luke 12:15, Prov 15:16

6 Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands full with travail and vexation of spirit.

7 Then I returned, and I saw vanity under the sun.

8 There is one alone, and there is not a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail. — 4 Prov 13:11 Mt.

9 Two are better than one; because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up. - Ep 6:21, 6:1-2

11 Again, if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone?

12 And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

13 Better is a poor and a wise child than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished.

14 For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor.

THE TEN VANITIES - Under the Sun - in human endeavour

HUMAN WISDOM - Ch 2:15-16 - More dead fools can end
HUMAN LABOUR - Ch 2:18-21 - Worker no better than shirker in the end HUMAN PURPOSE - Ch 2:26 - Man proposes but HUMAN ENDEAVOR Ch. 4:4 - Success brings envy not joy
5 HUMAN AVARICE Ch 4:8 - "Much" wants more
6 HUMAN FAME Ch 4:16 - is brief, unreliable, soon forgotten
7 HUMAN INSANITY Ch 5:16 - Money does not satisfy
8 HUMAN CONTRIVE Ch 6:9 - Gain of [illegible] by oppression, &c.

CONCLUSIONS REACHED

Wisdom adds to grief Ch 1:18 and is short lived Ch 2:15. There is no supreme good or lasting happiness in all the pursuits of science; no genuine satisfaction in unbridled lust, no true joy in folly; and that Wisdom excells folly as much as light excells darkness

● First Summary Ch 2:12-17

Wisdom brings grief even though it is superior to folly. Nevertheless both are temporary Ch 2:16
As one's own striving cannot bring lasting good it is best to enjoy God's gredtion in this life whilst recognising that it is temporary. Enjoyment of life now is a good given blessing - but it is temporary Ch 2:24

Conclusion Ch 3:1-15

END Seek to extract pleasure + enjoyment out of one's labour in spite of its temporary nature. There is a measure of good in work well done

CONCLUSION Ch 4:1-3

That good enjoyed by few. Most are subject to oppression, envy, loneliness or frustration of ability

● Second Summary Ch 3:16-22

A man better enjoy the work + the fruits of his labour than be free + worry about them. Even a man who has riches + wealth should not become obsessed by them. Let a man keep interested. Busy work can productively occupied with one's God-given portion of life's experiences, which he has as the gift of God. He will then find pleasure in his possessions.

The next section shows limits on this

Conclusion Ch 5:1-9

Connect these sections Ch 5:10-20. All labour is designed for personal enjoyment to provide, but generally a man remains unsatisfied. What advantage then has he who labours if (being rich) he is wise or if being poor he knows how to comport himself properly, what advantage have such labourers above a fool? None if they remain without regard for a thing present to the eyes in contrast to a future which exists only in the imagination / desire. One man gives himself to the pleasures of wealth, the other man finds himself in want. In the end neither - they all reach the same end Ch 6:6

Wisdom adds to grief Ch 1:18 and is short-lived. Ch 2:15. There is no supreme good, or lasting happiness in all the pursuits of science; no genuine satisfaction in unbridled lust, no true joy to folly; and that Wisdom excells folly as much as light excells darkness.

● First Summary Ch 2:24-26

Wisdom brings grief even though it is superior to folly. Nevertheless both are temporary Ch 1:15. As one's own striving cannot bring lasting good it is best to enjoy God's goodness in this life whilst recognising that it is temporary. Enjoyment of life now is a God given blessing - but it is temporary. v. 26

Conclusion Ch 3:22.

Seek to extract pleasure + enjoyment out of one's labour in spite of its temporary nature. There is a measure of good in work well done.

CONCLUSION Ch 4:2

That good enjoyed by few. Most are subject to oppression 4:1-3; envy 4:4; loneliness - 12 or limitation of ability 13-16

● Second Summary. Ch 5:18-20

A man better enjoy the work + the fruits of his labour than to fret + worry about them. Even a man who has riches + wealth should not become obsessed by them. Let a man keep interested, busy, and constructively occupied whatever his material state, accepting what he has as the gift of God. He will then find pleasure in his possessions.

The next section shows limitations of this conclusion Ch 6:1-9

Connect these verses with vv 2-3. All labour is designed for personal enjoyment or profit, but generally a man remains unsatisfied. What advantage then has he who labours if (being rich) he is wise, or if being poor he knows how to conduct himself properly; what advantage have such labourers above a fool? None if they remain without contentment, for a thing present to the eyes is preferable to a future which exists only in the unfulfilled desire. One man gives himself to the pursuit of wealth, the other man gives himself to wisdom. The fool seeks neither: they all reach the same end' Ch 9:10

9. HUMAN FRIVOLITY Ch 7:6 - It only hides the sad end
10 HUMAN FOLLIES Ch 8:6-11 Bad often rewarded

So Kohcleth is forced to his conclusion - to Serve God for He will bring all things into perfect judgment ultimately righting all wrongs and explaining all apparent anomalies FIND THIS LEADS TO CHRIST the greater than Solomon, and under him we learn to serve God not only because of the reality of vindication and judgment, but in love as to a heavenly Father earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.

Designed - fidd ellipses
All are dependent upon the cultivation of the soil, and this regulates oppression. It is to the King's own benefit that he cares for the peasant If he does not do so he will suffer. But our interference in oppression - if we lack the authority and power - will not help the situation
AVOID THE MISERY AND FOLLY OF AVARICE Vs 10-12
This is in view of the observation recorded in Ch 4:7-12 See Paul's warning 1 Tim 6:9-10
There is no real pleasure or enjoyment in wealth viewed as an end in itself.
This is the point. The one who legitimately uses wealth, as God desires, is not concerned with these evils
Additional riches makes for additional calls - increased taxation and expense, all hateful to the soul for him who sees riches as an end in itself and who is inordinately in love with them
They do not make riches work for them.
They do not use them to good ends, they cannot eat, drink or clothe themselves with riches they can only look at them - and the real pleasure of them is destroyed in worry

LIMITATIONS OF RICHES Vs 10-11.

Frequently acquired by wrong.
Always incapable of yielding true satisfaction.
Often multiply cares
Seldom realise the hopes they raise.
Must eventually be relinquished.

10 He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is also vanity.

11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to [a] the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?

12 The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep.

13 [d] There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for [a] the owners thereof to their hurt.

14 But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.

15 [f] As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may carry away in his hand.

16 And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and [h] what profit hath he that hath [i] laboured for the wind?

17 All his days also [m] he eateth in darkness, and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness.

18 ¶ Behold that which I have seen: [o] it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to [q] enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun [s] all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for [t] it is his portion.

19 Every man also to whom God hath given [u] riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; [w] this is the gift of God.

This verse describes the misery of one who has struggled to acquire riches - then loses them. It is greater than the misery of the poor
B. 49:17. 1 Tim 6:7 Thus the wisdom of seeking something greater than mere wealth.
The recurring thought of the Preacher 1:3, 2:22, 3:19. is accentuated as he considers the additional labor of the avaricious and greedy.
This is in consequence of losing his riches. v.14 He has nothing to console himself and passes his life in gloom and hopelessness.

20 [z] For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

[z] Or, Though he have not much, yet he remembereth, &c.
This is the point - See 1 Tim 6:9 ff

CHAPTER 6.

1 Vanity of riches without use. 3 Of children, 6 and old age without riches. 9 Vanity of sight and wandering desires. 11 The conclusion of vanities.

THERE is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men:

2 A man [a] to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

3 [c] If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and [e] his soul be not filled with good, and also [g] that he have no burial; I say, that [h] an untimely birth is better than he.

4 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and [i] his name shall be covered with darkness.

5 Moreover he hath not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other.

6 ¶ Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet hath he [n] seen no good: do not all go to one place?

7 [p] All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the [q] appetite is not filled.

8 For what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living?

9 ¶ Better is [s] the sight of the eyes [t] than the wandering of the desire: this is also [v] vanity and vexation of spirit.

10 That which hath been is named already, and it is known that it is man: [z] neither may

2 • It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart. HA'ADAM

3 • Sorrow is better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance [m] the heart is made better. YITAB - Made well (Cp. revel)

4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. (KESIL p. 815)

5 • It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.

6 For as the [2] crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.

7 • Surely [n] oppression maketh a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart.

8 • Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and [o] the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

9 [3] Be not hasty in thy spirit to be angry: for anger [p] resteth in the bosom of fools.

10 Say not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire [q] wisely concerning this.

11 • Wisdom is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit [r] to them that see the sun.

12 For wisdom is a [s] defence, and money is a [s] defence: but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom [t] giveth life to them that have it.

13 Consider the work of God: for who can [u] make that straight, which he hath made crooked?

14 • In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath [v] set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find nothing after him.

15 All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongeth his life in his wickedness.

16 • Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise: why shouldest thou [w] destroy thyself?

17 • Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish: [x] why shouldest thou die [y] before thy time?

18 It is good that thou should-est take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.

19 Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten [z] mighty men which are in the city.

20 [a] For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth good, and sinneth not.

21 Also [b] take no heed unto all words that are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee:

22 For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

23 [c] All this have I proved

CHAPTER 8.

1 Kings are greatly to be respected. 6 The divine providence is to be observed. 12 It is better with the godly in adversity, than with the wicked in prosperity. 16 God's work is unsearchable.

WHO is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? [1] a man's wisdom [2] maketh his face to shine, and [3] the boldness of his face shall be changed.
2 I counsel thee to keep the king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God.
3 [c] Be not hasty to go out of his sight: [d] stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him.
4 Where the word of a king is, there is power: and [e] who may say unto him, What doest thou?
5 Whoso keepeth the commandment [f] shall feel no evil thing: and a wise man's heart discerneth both time and [g] judgment.
6 [h] Because [g] to every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him.
7 For [i] he knoweth not that which shall be: for [k] who can tell him [l] when it shall be?
8 [1] There is no man that hath [k] power over the spirit [2] to retain the spirit; [2] neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no [3] discharge in that war; [4] neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it.
9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt.
10 And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity.
11 [l] Because [m] sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil.
12 [o] Though a sinner do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that [r] it shall be well [s] with them that fear God, which fear before him:
13 But it [t] shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are [u] as a shadow; because he feareth not before God.
14 [v] There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, [f] to whom it happeneth according to the

IGNORANCE CAUSES MISERY AND WICKEDNESS V6-11

Here follows four arguments why a wise man should remain under the evils which the present ruler reveal and thus submit to the authorities. "Because" is "for" in Hebrew = "for the same reason" is rendered "therefore" another instance in V7. The four comprise statements forming one argument

[i] See V5
[k] i.e. "for"
[l] This is not the purpose of creation Num 14:21 and may be changed.
The King cannot foresee the future, and thus controls act in his foolish despotism. But retribution is coming Prov 24:22.
[m] He does not realise the hand of God in his affairs
"Ruach" = wind Ecc 1:6
[n] Compared to God's judgments Isa 40:12. Cannot control the forces of nature Jer 10:12
[o] "over" Cp Gen 2:16
// IMPOSSIBLE THINGS SET FORTH
[1] Control of nature
[2] Power over day of death
[3] Discharge from death
[4] The wicked to finally escape.
[5] Ultimately it will be so
The inference is with praise and glory.
[p] Lit "And they come, and from the place of the holy they were forgotten in the city where they had so done" The wicked die in peace, they depart from the holy Temple, their wickedness forgotten, their name in death is praised.
[q] Because their wicked heart is undetected. Cp V10
RV: "emboldened" Ps 52:7
Eccl 8:11, 12. Ps 10:4-11
[r] Because.
[s] Indefinitely Prov 11:21.
[t] Which really reverence him
WISDOM REVEALS THAT RIGHTEOUSNESS WILL ULTIMATELY PREVAIL
[u] The longest life is but a shadow at death Ps 102:11 109:23 144:4 James 4:14. Job 14:2
[v] Meanwhile. Ps 90:12

Cp 1 Cor. 7:32-40. Solomon's first summary applies man's task to his fallen nature Ecc 7:29 & to the "NEW MAN" Rom 12:1-2

Rebel against his authority
Do not [y] be induced to enter into conspiracy of insurrection to rise up to oppose State against authorities because of evil practises. Cp Isa 42:2.
10 Some have rendered "because" so that the statement continues on to show why one might be induced [y] to stand up against the government.

WISDOM OR AN INHERITANCE 7:11

The particle "IM" - with can be rendered "and" as in 1 Sam 17:42. Both Wisdom and an Inheritance are useful to an active man, but Wisdom exceeds the Value of material possessions Prov. 2:1c-11; 3:13-18; 4:5. Eccl 9:16. Let us learn to ponder & decide

THE REASON: CHESHBOWN: Account, reckoning, the sum total Read "account" V.27

The sum of Solomon's experience is low in regard to men as well as women. Why? Because his position of eminence attracted designing men to him. They fawned before him, flattered him; and only few revealed true integrity. Cp Matt 7:14; Luke 13:23-28. His experience with his 1000 wives equally disastrous (he excluded by true wife 1 Kgs 3:11) because they were selected for purpose of alliances etc & not from motives of true love 1 Kgs 11:1-3 = the foundation of true happiness not laid. They did not answer to requirements Gen 2:18; Cp Prov 18:22; 19:14 - also by Solomon. Careful selection necessary. See Note opp p. 261 Col 3

15 Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun.

16 ¶ When I applied mine heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:)

17 Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea farther; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it. Rom 11:33 - How vain are all complaints against God when we neither understand nor can comprehend His providences: this demands faith

CHAPTER 9.

1 Like things happen to good and bad. 4 There is a necessity of death unto men. 7 Of comfort in this life. 11 God's providence ruleth over all. 13 Wisdom is better than strength.

FOR all this (3) I considered in my heart even to (4) declare all this, (5) that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God: (6) no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before them. Cp Mine the purpose - Heb 8:1-4

2 (7) All things come alike to all: there is (8) one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he that feareth an oath.

3 This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is (9) one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.

4 ¶ For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is better than a dead lion. Heb 4:27

5 For the living know that they shall die: but (a) the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a reward; for (b) the memory of them is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.

7 ¶ Go thy way, (c) eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a merry heart; (d) for God now accepteth thy works. see above

8 Let (e) thy garments be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment.

9 (f) Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, (g) which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity: (h) for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou takest under the sun. see below

10 Whatsoever (i) thy hand findeth to do, (k) do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor (l) device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest.

11 ¶ I returned, and saw under the sun, that (m) the race is not to the swift, nor (n) the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet (o) favour to men of skill; but time and (p) chance happeneth to them all.

12 For (q) man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as (r) the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men (s) snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

THE VALUE OF WISDOM AND THE DAMAGE OF AN EVIL EXAMPLE 9:18.

The value of wisdom is forced home at a time of crisis when circumstances make it imperative that something be done. Human nature is such that this soon forgotten.

The attitude of a sinner in rejecting wisdom's counsel when the need no longer exists is followed by others with evil results.

Let us walk wisely at all times & not only when crises force us to do so Eph. 5:15-16.

THE TEACHING OF THE PARABLE
- Wisdom and folly often allied
- Wisdom is superior to force
- Wisdom is often unheeded
- Wisdom is repaid with ingratitude when forced on men
- Wisdom only appreciated when meditated upon

Observations of ECCLESIASTES 10. Wisdom and folly.

when it falleth suddenly upon them.

13 ¶ This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great unto me:
14 There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it:
15 Now there was found in it a [d] poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that same [d] poor man.
16 Then said I, (e) Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless [f] the [d] poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.
17 The (g) words of wise men are heard in [k] quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools.
18 [e] Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but [l] one sinner destroyeth much good.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Observations of wisdom and folly: 16 of riot, 18 slothfulness, 19 and money. 20 Men's thoughts of kings ought to be reverent.

DEAD flies cause the ointment of the (i) apothecary to send forth a stinking savour: so doth a little [a] folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour.
2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.
3 Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh by the way, (j) his wisdom faileth him, and (k) he saith to every one that he is a fool.
4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, [c] leave not thy place; for [d] yielding pacifieth great offences.
5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an [f] error which proceedeth [g] from the ruler:
6 [i] Folly [z] is set [a] in great dignity, and the rich [z] sit in low place.
7 [b] I have seen servants [b] upon horses, and princes walking as servants upon the earth.
8 [c] He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him.
9 Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby.
10 If the iron be blunt, and he do not whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is [f] profitable to [h] direct.
11 Surely the serpent will bite without [i] enchantment; and (l) a babbler is no better.
12 (m) The words of a wise man's mouth are [j] gracious; but (n) the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.
13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is [k] foolishness: and the end of [l] his talk is mischievous [m] madness.
14 [n] A fool [o] also [p] is full of words: [q] a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, [r] who can tell him?
15 The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city.
16 [s] [t] Woe to thee, O land, when [u] thy king is a child, and thy princes [v] eat in the morning!
17 Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes [b] eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!
18 [w] By much slothfulness the building decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house [x] droppeth through.
19 [y] A feast is made for laughter, and [z] wine [z] maketh merry: but [b] money answereth all things.

V.4 BERKELEY.
"If a ruler's temper rises against you, do not resign your position, for composure may remedy serious mistakes."

THE WISDOM OF ACTION vv8-11.
There are dangers in any action taken. These, however can be largely avoided by proper foresight vv8-11 Some action must be taken even though there are dangers Ch 11:4-6 - otherwise nothing will be accomplished We cannot foresee the future Ch 8:17; 9:1.

WORDS ARE NO SUBSTITUTE FOR ACTION 12-15.
The wise uses knowledge aright Prov. 15:2. His tongue is health Prov 12:18. He knows when to keep silent Prov 10:19. The tongue of the fool is that of one who proffers advice but never acts - like a sign post! A fool may be accounted wise if he keeps his mouth shut - but open it & he removes all doubt [illegible]

20 ¶ [a] Curse not the king, no not in thy [2] thought; and curse not the rich [f] in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and [e] that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Directions for charity. 7 Death in life, 9 and the day of judgment in the days of youth, are to be thought on.

CAST thy bread [g] upon the waters: [h] for thou shalt find it after many days.

2 [k] Give a portion to [l] seven, and also to eight; [n] for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth.

3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

4 He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap.

5 As thou knowest not what is the way of the [q] spirit, nor [r] how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works of God who maketh all.

6 In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening [s] withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether [t] shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be [z] alike good.

7 ¶ Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to [a] behold the sun:

8 But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity.

V2. "Him" She does not name him; there is no need to. She is identified with him and so completely absorbed by him that there could be no other.

"Kisses of his mouth" - A kiss had far greater meaning then than today. It was the token of allegiance 1 Sam. 10:1 friendship 1 Sam. 20:41. affection Gen. 45:15 true love 1 Pet. 5:14 adoration Hos. 13:2. It is the natural sign of sympathy & affection, thus Absalom won the hearts of the people by kissing those who came to court with their suits 2 Sam. 15:5. Cf. Prov 27:6. Luke 22:47,48. True & right words are as a kiss of the mouth; the Bride may well expect this of the Groom. Cf Prov. 24:26. Such words demand homage and obedience. The Hebrew of Gen 41:40, "thy mouth shall all my people kiss" for they will submit to the decrees issued therefrom

V3. "The savour of thy good ointments" The precious ointment Ps 133:2 Rejoices Prov. 27:9 Heb 1:9 Heals & soothes Mark 6 Costly Mk. 26:7 The savour is the perfume manifested in proclamation & performance of the Truth 2 Cor. 2:14-17. Eph 5:2 Phil. 4:18

"Thy name is as ointment poured forth" - the attributes of the Name Acts 15:14 Exod 34:6-7 in manifestation & the result of the pouring out of ointment by a sinner Luke 7:37-38 particularly vv 47 to end a saint 1 Tim 1:15 Cf the attitude of Judas - called to be an element of the Bride Vv 4-8.

Ointment - themen from root shamen, to shine

Most shorer some such sense as we describe the whole or chief part shade for the sheep. Ps 23:5

SPIKENARD — A fragrant plant used for healing and perfume in ancient times. It was very costly Mark 14:3 b "Nard" for nard, d for, or, but similar to Heb. nārāh - to glisten, to shine. See Str.

V 4 "Draw me" See Note that this expresses the Bride's willing submission to the lead of her Shepherd husband the Good Shepherd. Contrast Cant "driven" from the Divine presence Gen 3:24 Ch. Hos. 11:4

V 7 "As one that turneth aside" "Going" and RV: "As one that is veiled." The true identity of the Bride is unknown in the absence of Christ. She wanders veiled until the Judgment will reveal her true identity 1 John 1:7

V 9 "My love" Heb ra'yāh fem of rēya' - friend, associate, husband, lover, etc from the root rā'āh (RAH-ah) to tend a flock, hence shepherd. The Bride has these shepherd characteristics that are also possessed by the Groom, they have mutual interests, so that she is his female friend and associate cf Jn 15:14-15

V 10 "Thy cheeks" RV Ark suggests "brows" but the RV renders "thy cheeks are comely with plaits of hair." Long hair is both a glory to a woman 1 Cor 11:15 and a symbol of subjection to the man V 7 as the Nazarite to his vow as separated to Jehovah Num 6:5

"Chains of gold" - Suggests authority Gen 41:42 Dan 5:7-9

V 11 "We" The plural seems to suggest the attendant virgins as in 1:6, whose good graces will help beautify the Bride Rev 19:7

"Borders" - Jerim, round ornaments RV "plaits" hanging down on both sides of the head, like the trappings of a decorated horse - with which the groom has compared his bride. The virgins hearing this promise to provide the decoration - gems of faith and redemption

V 12 "Sitteth at his table" To sit at the Table implies fellowship. The bride seems to be referring to those moments of spiritual communion such as we enjoy at the Table, when the ointment of our living seeds forth its most powerful odor. Christ is with us Mk 14:20 RV in past tense: "When I sat my spikenard sent."

V 14 "Camphire" Heb Kopher - Atonement, the Henna plant. RV - "henna flowers" a creamy white flower used for producing a golden dye. They are very fragrant and noted for their beauty. 5 I am black, but [g]comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON — The Hebraist Dr Mason Good declares: "No translation I have met with has rendered the Song with all the delicacy of diction to which the original is fairly entitled. The chief Error of all results from their having uniformly given verbal renderings of Hebrew terms and idioms which ought to be translated equivalently — a method of which any language in the world, when interpreted into another, may occasionally convey a meaning altogether different to that intended. The observation applies particularly to the organs of the human body. Among the Hebrews, the liver (Heb kabar) as well as the heart was supposed to be the seat of love and delight (Ps. 16:9). "My heart and my glory delighteth" - lit. "My heart and my liver rejoiceth." Among ourselves the spleen is supposed to be the region of disappointment and melancholy. Were a Jew told that Cowper had long laboured under a spleen, he would be ignorant of the meaning the ancient Hebrews used the term "navel" (Heb. shorer) some such sense as we describe the whole or chief part

CHAPTER 2.

1 The mutual love of Christ and his church. 8 The hope, 10 and calling of the church. 14 Christ's care of the church.

I AM the [c]rose of Sharon, and the [d]lily of the valleys.

2 As the [d]lily among thorns, so is [f]my love among the daughters.

3 As the [g]apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down [h]under his shadow with great delight, and [i]his fruit was sweet to my [j]taste.

4 [k]He brought me to the [l]banqueting house, and his banner over me was love.

5 [p]Stay me with flagons, [q]comfort me with apples: for [r]I am sick of love.

6 [s]His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me.

7 [t][u]I charge you, [v]O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

8 ¶ The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills.

9 My beloved is [b]like a roe or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, [x]shewing himself through the lattice.

10 My beloved [y]spake, and said unto me, [z]Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

11 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone;

12 The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the [a]turtle is heard in our land:

13 The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the [*]tender grape give a good smell. [b]Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

14 ¶ O [c]my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the [d]stairs, let me see thy countenance, [e]let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

15 Take us the [f]foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

16 [g][h]My beloved is mine, and I am his: he [i]feedeth among the lilies.

17 [m]Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and [n]be thou like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains [o]of Bether.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The church's fight and victory in temptation. 5 The church glorieth in Christ.

[p]BY night on my bed I [q]sought [r]him whom my soul loveth: [s]I sought him, but I found him not.

2 I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek [t]him whom my soul loveth: [u]I sought him, but I found him not.

3 [v]The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye [w]him whom my soul loveth?

4 It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found [x]him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.

5 [y]I charge you, [z]O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please.

6 [a][b]Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like [c]pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the [m]merchant?

7 Behold his bed, which is

Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel.
8 They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.
9 King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon.
10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem.
11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ setteth forth the graces of the church. 8 He sheweth his love to her. 16 The church prayeth to be made fit for his presence.

BEHOLD, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, that appear from mount Gilead.
2 Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.
3 Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.
4 Thy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.
5 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.
6 Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

7 Thou art all fair, my love;
there is no spot in thee.
8 Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.
9 Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse;
thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck.
10 How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices!
11 Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb:
honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.
12 A garden inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed.
13 Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spike-nard,
14 Spikenard and saffron;
calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices:
15 A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon.
16 Awake, O north wind;
and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ awaketh the church with his calling. 2 The church having a taste of Christ's love is sick of love. 9 A description of Christ by his graces.

Christ's love to the church.

I AM come into my garden, [b] my sister, my spouse: I have [d] gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; [e] I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O [h] friends; drink, [i] yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

2 [k] I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, [b] my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the [n] drops of the night.

3 I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

4 My beloved put in his hand by [o] the hole of the door, and [r] my bowels were moved for him.

5 I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with [s] sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

6 I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed [t] when he spake: [u] I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

7 [v] The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

8 I charge you, [c] O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that [w] I am sick of love.

9 ¶ What is thy beloved more than another beloved, [f] O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

10 My beloved is white and ruddy, [x] the [i] chiefest among ten thousand.

11 His head is as the most [e] fine gold, his locks are [z] bushy, and black as a raven.

12 [f] His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and [3] fitly set.

13 His cheeks are as a [i] bed of spices, as [4] sweet flowers: his lips like [k] lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh.

14 His hands are as gold rings set with the [l] beryl: his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with [m] sapphires.

15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is as [n] Lebanon, excellent as the [o] cedars.

16 [p] His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The church professeth her faith in Christ. 4 Christ sheweth the graces of the church, 10 and his love towards her.

WHITHER is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee.

2 My beloved is gone down into [a] his garden, to the [b] beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather [c] lilies.

3 [b] I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

4 ¶ Thou art beautiful, O my love, as Tirzah, comely as Jerusalem, terrible as an army [c] with banners.

5 Turn away thine eyes from me, for [2] they have [3] overcome me: [d] thy hair is as a flock of goats that appear from Gilead.

6 [h] Thy teeth are as a flock of sheep which go up from the washing, whereof every one beareth twins, and there is not one barren among them.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Love of the church to Christ. 8 Calling of the Gentiles. 14 The church prayeth for Christ's coming.

O THAT thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, I should not be despised.]

2 I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

3 [a] His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

4 [b] I charge you, [c] O daughters of Jerusalem, [2] that ye stir not up, nor awake my love until he please.

5 Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I [4] raised thee up under the [i] apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth: there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

6 [d] Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for [e] love is strong as death; [f] jealousy is [g] cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

7 Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

8 [h] We have a little sister, and [i] she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

9 If she be a wall, we will build upon her a [j] palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will inclose her with [k] boards of cedar.

10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found favour.

11 Solomon had a [l] vineyard at Baal-hamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers; every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

13 Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: [m] cause me to hear it.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Isaiah complaineth of Judah for her rebellion. 5 He lamenteth her judgments. 10 He upbraideth their whole service. 16 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threatenings. 25 He promiseth grace, 28 and threateneth destruction to the wicked.

2 [m] Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

3 [n] The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's [o] crib: but Israel [p] doth not know, my people [q] doth not consider.

4 Ah sinful nation, a people [2] laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have [3] provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are [4] gone away backward.

5 [5] Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will [r] revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

12 Occurs 30 times in Isaiah 13 From Yasha'yah to Isa prophet as the legend has it the Jews did to him in bringing about his death

— His Life — Isaiah was the statesman prophet of Judah. His social status was high. He had familiar interviews with kings (Ch. 7; 37) but could humble himself before the people. He was extremely patriotic, a prophet, poet, historian (2 Chr. 26:22; 32:32). He was married with two

ISAIAH = According to R. Roberts commenced ministry approx. 698 B.C. 852 A.M. Is prophetic work covering reigns of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah (Ch. 1:1). He was required to appear before Kings (Ch. 36-37) as well as humble himself before Israel (Ch. 20:2)

MODERN CRITICS — Suppose that two men wrote Isaiah, and from chapter 40 onwards is attributed to a later writer. This fallacy is exposed by the following testimonies where these chapters are attributed to Isaiah. Ch. 29 (Matt. 15:7-9) Isa. 61 (Luke 4:17) Isa. 40:3 (Matt. 3:3; Luke 3:4; John 1:23) Isa. 42:1 (Matt. 12:17-18) Ch. 53 (Matt. 8:17; Acts 8:32) John 12:38; Rom. 10:16; Isa. 45:1 (Rom. 9:20).

It is hostility to supernatural prediction that underlies the more rabid higher criticism. Those who divide his writings into two books do so because they refuse to believe he could predict the state of the kingdom & the Babylonian oppression as he does in that section.

JUDAH · POLITICALLY STRONG BUT SPIRITUALLY DECADENT

THEIR SACRIFICES, THEIR SERVICE, THEIR PRAYERS – AN ABOMINATION - Prov 15:8 – BUT DIVINE MERCY ALWAYS AVAILABLE Isa 1:18.

CHRIST SEEN V 11 - the devotions of these who have not ● YAHWEH PRESSES THE DIVINE LAW. known/loved Christ are both costly

Chapter 7

V 6 "O love for delights" – ʾahabah from root ʾahav "to be soft, pliable, effeminate" or "luxurient". "Man is for strength, judgment and achievement. Woman is for grace, sympathy and ministration." Between them they form a beautiful unit. "heirs together of the grace of life" R.V. These qualities seem to be perfection in the Groom and his Bride.

V 7 "Like the palm tree" – takes the yrs to reach maturity + by that time it might be over 60 ft in height, tall and graceful. Bear crops for 80 yrs after which a slow decline will set in. There are male or pollen bearing trees as distinct from the female or fruiting trees (Book of the Bible "A Wonderful Tree").

The Palm is noted for ● Uprightness - being tall and straight ● Usefulness - the fruit is nourishing + medicinal, corn etc fed upon the stem, the leaves are used for thatching + weaving into mats, the fibre makes rope and rigging, the juice provides both sugar and liquor, wine vinegar, timber fuel ● Beauty – it is the largest and used for decorative purposes ● Power - conquering the desert with its choking sand, Famine heat, lack of water, fierce tempests ● Stability - it has a deep taproot that drives far into the soil ● Fruitfulness - it is the staff of life to the people of the desert ● Guidance - it is a sure indication of the presence of water ● Permanence - it bears fruit long after most trees and is noted for its longevity

V 8 "Causing those that are asleep to speak" – the sound speech of the bride can do that as in Song 2:14

V 13 "The mandrakes give a smell" Young = love apples. They "gave a smell" or ripened at the wheat harvest Gen 30:14-16 thus indicating harvest time.

"All manner of pleasant fruits" – fruits = dishes. Could be joys, observances, and opulence etc Ps 104:15.

Chapter 8

V 5 "Leaning upon her beloved" United in their love. Her personal struggles are over; she is leaning on him for guidance, strength and wisdom having learned the "lesson of life. Let us do so now."

"I raised thee up..." RV: "Under the apple tree I awakened thee; there thy mother was in travail with thee; there was she in travail that brought thee forth."

The groom recalls the past. The awakening of the bride to love ● The travail of the Ecclesia is in trial and persecution in bringing children to the birth Heb 2:13

V 9 "The wall and the door: The wall is for defence, the door is for admission. One speaks of strength, the other of beauty. One holds at bay any immoral advances; the other permits entrance of that which is legitimate Ps 24:7

V 11 "Baal-hamon" Cf with God's Ecclesia Ezek 38:11 burned in the City of the Dead Ezek. 39:11.

V 12 "My vineyard" This translation (Berkeley) is supported by RV with margin with variation. It indicates that on marriage everything that the Bride has is passed to the Groom though the workers thereof are rewarded with a double tithe – the inheritance of the firstborn 1 Cor 9:7 Zech 9:12

V 14 "Mountains of spices" (Besamim) The Mountains of Bether or separation (Ch 2:17) are now become the Mountains of Besamim or Balsam. The Garden of Shakes bright sweet Spices 2 Sam 9:4 they were used for the anointing oil Exod 25 & 30:23 the Mountain of spices may well signify elevation to Divine nature.

Chapter 7:10 "His desire is towards me" This seems to be the Key to the song. She has already confessed her total dedication to her Lord Ch 2:16 6:3 Now she uses language that links the marriage with the covenant to Eve. The word "Desire" - Teshuwqah occurs only Gen 3:16 & 4:7 Song 7:10 and is rendered "return" in LXX and "restoration" by Concordant. See Notes Cpp Gen 3.

"His restoration is towards me. In this is seen the climax of the Covenant to Eve.

Paul thus interprets the song quoting Isaiah 49:7 in Eph 3:27

LOVE and related words

Dowdim (plural) loves – Beloved Sig "To boil" disturbed, agitated 1:2 – hence to be troubled,

Love – ʾahab "To have affection" (RV) "to desire breathe after, long for." A friend who is loving, intimate, beloved (Ges) 1:3

THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

● CONSTRUCTION

The main arrangement of Isaiah is remarkable. As there are 66 books in the Bible so there are 66 chapters in this book. As the Bible is divided into 39 books in the O.T. + 27 in the New, so there is a natural division of 39+27 chapters in Isaiah, for Ch 40 opens up an entirely new theme. Moreover as the 39 books of the O.T. are based on the have + threaten judgements because of disobedience; so the first 39 chapters of Isaiah are based upon impending Divine judgments. As the N.T. proclaims the doctrine of grace through Christ Jesus + the salvation it will bring, so also does the final section of Isaiah.

● KEY WORDS

A Key word is "Salvation" (Yeshuah name) It occurs more often here (about 27 times) than in any other book of the Bible except Psalms. The "Holy one of Israel" is a Key phrase occurring some 30 times (See bottom p 887) of course one is related to the other.

ISAIAH

Isa. 65:1. (Rom 9:20).

It is hostility to supernatural prediction that underlies the more rabid higher criticism. Those who divide his writings into two books do so because they refuse to believe he could predict the state of the kingdom & the Babylonian oppression as he does in that section.

and [12A] bruises, and [12B] putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with [2] ointment. Note the fate of Sodom 7 13

7 [c] Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, [d] as overthrown by strangers.

8 And the daughter of Zion is left [h] as a cottage [14] in a vineyard, as [i] a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.

9 [15] Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us [j] a very small remnant, we should have been as [m] Sodom, and we should have been like unto [m] Gomorrah.

10 ¶ Hear the word of the LORD, ye [o] rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.

11 To what purpose is [q] the multitude [21] of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of [5] he goats.

12 When ye come [6r] to appear before me, [s] who hath required this at your hand, to tread [a] my courts?

13 Bring no more [t] vain oblations; [u] incense is an abomination unto me; [c] the new moons and [d] sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, [e] I cannot away with; it is [7] iniquity, even [v] the solemn meeting.

14 Your [f] new moons and your [g] appointed feasts [w] my soul hateth: they are [w] a trouble unto me; [x] I am weary to bear them.

15 And [y] when ye spread forth your hands, [z] I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye [9] make many prayers, I will not hear: [a] your hands are full of [3] blood.

16 ¶ [b] Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; [10] cease to do evil;

17 Learn to do well; [b] seek judgment, [10] relieve the [37] oppressed, [c] judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.

18 Come now, and [d] let us reason together, [34] saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, [33] they shall be as white as snow; [35] though they be red like crimson, [36] they shall be as wool.

19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:

20 But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: [e] for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

21 [f] How is the faithful city [38] become an [39] harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

22 [g] Thy silver [41] is become dross, [h] thy wine mixed with water:

23 [i] Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: [42] every one [10] loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: [v] they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.

24 Therefore saith [k] the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and [l] avenge me of mine enemies:

25 ¶ And I will [h] turn my hand upon thee, [10] and [c] purely [k] purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:

26 And I will [m] restore thy judges [n] as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, [r] the faithful city.

2 The coming of Christ's kingdom.

The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

2 And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.

3 And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

4 And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

THE HOUSE OF GOD of JACOB

Cp with Bethel = House of God. Gen 28: 16, 22

Cp with the apostate house of Jacob. Isa 2:5

The prophecy fulfils Solomon's prayer. 1 Kg 8:43.

6 Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers.

7 Their land also is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots:

8 Their land also is full of idols: they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made:

9 And the mean man boweth down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not.

10 Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low:

13 And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,

14 And upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,

15 And upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall,

16 And upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures.

17 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low: and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

1 The great confusion which cometh by sin. 9 The impudency of the people. 12 The oppression and covetousness of the rulers. 16 The judgments which shall be for the pride of the women.

FOR, behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, [1] doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah [2] the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water,

2 The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient,

3 The captain of fifty, and [2] the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the [3] eloquent orator.

4 And [4] I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.

5 And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall [a] behave himself proudly [5] against the ancient, and the base against the honourable.

6 When [a] a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our [6] ruler, and let this [d] ruin be under thy hand:

7 [e] In that day shall he [3] swear, saying, I will not be an [4] healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people.

8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, [f] to provoke the eyes of his glory.

9 [g] The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they [h] declare their sin [i] as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves.

10 Say ye to the righteous, [k] that it shall be well with him: for [l] they shall eat the fruit of their doings.

11 Woe unto the wicked! [m] it shall be ill with him: for [n] the reward of his hands shall be [7] given him.

12 [o] As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, [p] they which lead thee cause thee to err, and [q] destroy the way of thy paths.

13 The LORD [r] standeth up [s] to plead, and standeth to judge the people.

14 The LORD [t] will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have [3] eaten up [u] the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses.

15 What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord GOD of hosts.

5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away [a] the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break down the wall thereof, and it shall be [2] trodden down:

6 And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up [d] briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

7 For [e] the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah [3] his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold [4] oppression; for righteousness, but behold a cry.

8 ¶ Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of the earth!

9 In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, [2] Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.

10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one [f] bath, and the seed of an homer shall yield [k] an ephah.

11 ¶ Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; [g] that continue until night, till wine [h] inflame them!

12 And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but [i] they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider [5] the operation of his hands.

13 ¶ Therefore my people are gone into captivity, [k] because they have no knowledge: and [l] their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst.

14 Therefore hell [m] hath enlarged herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it.

15 And [n] the mean man shall be brought down, and the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled:

16 But [o] the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, and [p] God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness.

17 Then shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of [q] the fat ones shall [6] strangers eat.

18 Woe unto them that draw iniquity with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope:

19 [r] That say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it: and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it!

20 ¶ Woe unto them [s] that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe unto them that are [t] wise in their own eyes, and prudent [u] in their own sight!

22 [v] Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink:

23 [w] Which justify the wicked for [x] reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

24 Therefore as [y] the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so [z] their root shall be as [7] rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and [8] despised the word of [9] the Holy One of Israel.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Isaiah's vision of the Lord's glory. 9 He sheweth the obstinacy of the people unto their desolation. 13 A remnant shall be saved.

IN the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.

2 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.

3 And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.

4 And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.

5 Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.

6 Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:

7 And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken away, and thy sin purged.

8 Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me.

9 And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.

10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.

11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the land be utterly desolate, 12 And the LORD have removed men far away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land.

13 But yet in it shall be a

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND. Ahaz was Judah's vilest King. During his reign he was successively invaded by Syria and Israel. 2 Chr. 28:5. A large number of captive Jews were taken to Damascus. Pekah of Samaria slew in one calamitous day 120 000 and took captive 200,000. Through the remonstrance of the prophet Oded, however, these were released 2 Chr. 28. Now fear swept Judah as they are threatened with a combined invasion Isa. 7:2. Ahaz sought protection of Tiglath-Pileser of Assyria (See Note 2 Kings 15:19) Isaiah appealed to him to seek Yahweh's protection in a sign. He rejected this with the appearance of religious scruple Isa. 7:12. His real reason however was his secret alliance with the Assyrian whom, he was warned would destroy Judah.

CHAPTER 7

THE BOOK OF EMMANUEL

Chps 7-12 have been called "The Book of Emmanuel. They deal with the long history of Israel from days Ahaz to the enthronement of Christ. Ch. 12:6

5 The point ~~where the water had entered~~ where, later Sennacherib challenged Yahweh. Ch. 36:12.

ISAIAH'S ASSURANCE

The assurance was not given because of faithfulness on Ahab's part see V. 9 marg. but because the confederacy sought to establish a new dynasty in Jerusalem (V.6) which would have defeated the covenant with David.

6 Their joint names signify: "Yahweh will save and the Remnant will Return." It was an assurance that Israel would not be completely destroyed. Cp Ch. 10:21-22. Cp 2 Chr. 28

7 Ahaz had probably gone to this place accompanied by his counsellors to see if the waters could be stopped to deny their use to the invaders. Cp 2 Chr. 32:4. It was a public place and probably a large concourse was present to hear Isaiah's message. Cp Acts 16:17

13 = Capital. Sense of passage: Syria's power will not be extended beyond what it now possesses.

[1] Ahaz is comforted by Isaiah. 10 Ahaz, having liberty to choose a sign, and refusing it, hath for a sign, Christ promised. 17 His judgment is prophesied to come by Assyria.

AND it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that [a] Rezin the king of Syria, and [a] Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. Cp. 2 Chr. 28:6 with 2 Kgs

2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria [b] is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind. = Because of previous defeat 2 Chr. 28:6

3 Then said the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and [c] Shear-jashub thy son, at the end of [p] the conduit of the upper pool in the [d] highway of the fuller's field;

4 And say unto him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, [e] neither be faint-hearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of [f] the son of Remaliah.

5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and [f] the son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying, Force it to join the confederacy.

6 Let us go up against Judah, and [g] vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal:

7 Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.

8 For [h] the head of Syria is [i] Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and [j] within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people.

9 And the head of Ephraim is [c] Samaria, and the head of Samaria is [d] Remaliah's son. [k] If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.

10 ¶ [l] Moreover the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying,

11 Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. Given choice of any miracle among heavenly bodies or on earth

12 But Ahaz said, [m] I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD. He asked Assyria instead. Seems.

13 And he said, Hear ye now, [n] O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?

14 Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; [o] Behold, [k] a virgin shall conceive, and bear [q] a son, and [r] shall call his name [m] Immanuel.

15 [m] Butter and honey shall he eat, [s] that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good. Cp Amos 5:15.

16 [t] For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of [u] both her kings.

17 ¶ The LORD shall bring upon thee, and upon thy people, and upon thy father's house, days that have not come, from the day that [v] Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria.

18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall hiss [w] for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.

19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in [x] the holes of the rocks, and upon all [a] thorns, and upon all [6] bushes.

Ahab did not believe Yahweh could give a sign. But he knew many in Judah still believed on Him. These might be disheartened if he asked for a sign which would not be forthcoming, and thereby weakened in their opposition to Syria. Thus he rejected the 1 In Maher-shalal-hash-baz, he prophesieth that Syria and Israel shall be subdued by Assyria. 5 Judah likewise for their infidelity. 9 God's judgments shall be unresistible. 11 Comfort shall be to them that fear God. 19 Great afflictions to idolaters.

MOREOVER the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and [b] write in it with a man's pen concerning [c] Maher-shalal-hash-baz.

2 And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, [c] Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.

7 Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them [i] the waters of [k] the [l] river, strong and many, even [l] the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks:

LEGAL OPPRESSION

1 The woe of tyrants. 5 Assyria, the rod of hypocrites, for his pride shall be broken. 20 A remnant of Israel shall be saved. 24 Israel is comforted with promise of deliverance from Assyria.

1 The peaceable kingdom of the Branch out of the root of Jesse. 10 The victorious restoration of Israel, and vocation of the Gentiles.

Isa 53:2; Zech 6:12

AND there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and a Branch shall grow out of his roots:
2 And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD;
3 And shall make him of quick understanding in the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:
4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.
5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness the girdle of his reins.
6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.
7 And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.
8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den.
9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.
10 ¶ And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious.
11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.

The death of Ashurbanipal (approx. 626 BC) was followed by the sudden and rapid decline of the Empire. Babylon revived under Nabopolassar. Media asserted its independence under Cyaxares. For a moment the invasion of the Scythians delayed the death of Assyria. In 614 Media and Babylon jointly attacked Assyria. Ashur was destroyed, and though Nabopolassar had not arrived in time to help Cyaxares, the two kings met among the ruins of the fallen city and pledged themselves to friendship and confederacy. 7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: [b] they break forth into singing.

8 [c] Yea, [d] the fir trees rejoice at thee, and [e] the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since thou art laid down, no feller is come up against us.

9 [2] Hell from beneath is moved for thee to meet thee at thy coming: it stirreth up [f] the dead for thee, even all the [g] chief ones of the earth; it hath raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.

10 All they shall [h] speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we? art thou become like unto us?

11 Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy [i] viols: the worm [j] is spread under thee, and the worms cover thee.

12 [k] How art thou fallen from heaven, [4] O Lucifer, [l] son [5] of the morning! how art thou [m] cut down to the ground, which didst [n] weaken the nations!

13 For thou hast said in thine heart, [a] I will ascend into heaven, [b] I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon [c] the mount of the congregation, in [d] the sides of the north:

14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; [e] I will be like the most High.

15 Yet [o] thou shalt be brought down to hell, to [p] the sides of the pit.

16 They that see thee shall [q] narrowly look upon thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;

17 That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that [3] opened not the house of his prisoners?

18 All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one [6] in his own house.

19 But thou art cast out of thy grave like an abominable branch, and as the raiment of those that are slain, thrust through with a sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a carcase trodden under feet.

20 [r] Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: [s] the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned.

21 Prepare slaughter for his children [t] for the iniquity of their fathers; [u] that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities.

22 For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon [v] the name, and [7] remnant, and [w] son, and [x] nephew, saith the LORD.

23 I will also make it a possession for [y] the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts.

24 ¶ The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:

25 [z] That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and [8] his burden depart from off their shoulders.

26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.

THE FALL OF BABYLON. Babylon rebelled against Darius Hystaspes. According to Herodotus, fully determined not to yield they resorted to the expedient of strangling all women except their mothers and one female to each family to bake their bread. But the city was taken by the aid of Zopyrus who frightfully mutilating himself, cutting off his nose and ears and scourging himself, he presented himself to the Babylonians as a deserter claiming he had been so treated because he recommended Darius to retire. He insinuated himself into the good graces of the Babylonians and by skill and apparent success against the Persians was put in charge of the walls. Having obtained this object, he opened the gates to the Persians and the city was taken without difficulty.

THE FALL OF BABYLON (cont.) Darius 867 levelled the walls and took away the gates. Xerxes, his son, destroyed the Temples, including the Temple or Tower of Belus. It was again captured by Alexander the Great. Then by Antigonus, by Demetrius, by Antiochus the Great, and by the Parthians. Each successive conquest contributed to its reduction. Seleucus Nicanor founded Seleucia in its neighborhood, on the Tigris, to draw off its inhabitants, and to this new city a great number of its inhabitants migrated. Gradually it declined until in 2nd century it was largely deserted. In 4th century, its walls were repaired and to form an enclosure for wild beasts, and it became a hunting park for the pastime of Persian monarchs.

By 1322, according to the traveller Sir John Maundeville, it was a place deserted and avoided because of the fierce, venomous beasts that abounded there.

THE burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence;

2 He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard cut off.

3 In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall howl, weeping abundantly.

4 And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.

unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall raise up a cry of destruction.

6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is no green thing.

7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook of the willows.

8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof unto Beer-elim.

9 For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

"I am Mesha, the son of Chemosh-melek, the King of Moab, the man of Dibhon; my father reigned over Moab for thirty years, and I sat on the throne after my father. I built a high place for Chemosh in Korha, a place of salvation for Mesha, for he hath delivered me from all monarchs, and he hath let me look with scorn upon all mine enemies. Now Omri the king over Israel, oppressed Moab for many days, for that Chemosh was wroth with the land. His son reigned in his stead and he said, 'Now will I oppress Moab.' Thus spake he even in my days; but I have gained the victory over him and over his house, and Israel is laid waste for ever. Omri took possession of the land of Medeba, and he dwelt therein in his own days and somewhile in the days of his son, even forty years. But in my time, Chemosh gave back the land unto me. Then did I build Baal-Meon, and I have made. . .and I built Kiryathayim. The people of Gad had dwelt in the land of Ataroth from days of old; and the king of Israel built the city of Ataroth. I assaulted the city, and I took it, and I slew all the people thereof in the sight of Chemosh and Moab; and I carried away the Ariel of David, and I dragged it on the ground before the face of Chemosh at Kerioth. And I carried away the people of Saron and the people of. . .And Chemosh said unto me, 'Go carry Nebo over Israel.' And I went up by night, and I fought against the city from dawn even until noon, and I took it, and I slew every man, even seven thousand men, and children, and women, and maidens, and slaves, and I dedicated them unto Ishtar-Chemosh. And I carried away from thence the Ariels of Yahweh, and I dragged them on the ground before the face of Chemosh. And the King of Israel built Yahas and dwelt therein after he had fought against me; but Chemosh drove him forth before me. I led forth two hundred of the men of Moab, I led them up to Yahas, and I took it, that I might join it unto Dibhon. I built Korha, and the forest wall, and the. . . .wall, I built the doors and the towers thereof. I built the royal palace, and I digged the sluices for the water cisterns in the city. There was no well in the city of Korha, therefore I said unto all the people, 'Let every man dig him a well in his own house,' and I digged the water-courses even unto Korha by the hands of

cc. 28-33

Just as the "woes" of Ch 5. and the circumstances of Cc. 1-12 reflected the spiritual state of the nation and its relation to Assyria upto and including the time of Ahaz. so these chapters do so in relation to the time of Hezekiah. They provide the background of conditions leading to the historical interlude.

The first "woe" must have been given before the overthrow of Samaria by Shalmaneser followed and completed by Sargon in Jan. 721 BC. If it is dated before the actual siege which lasted about 3 yrs it would place it about the time Hezekiah commenced to reign.

11 Very well then, with foreign lips & strange tongues God will speak to this people, to whom he said, "This is the resting place, let the weary rest," and "this is the place of repose" - but they would not listen.

Sig. Like giving drink. See 1 Kg. 11:24. Sack of blood. Song 7:4. A beautifully situated city on the eastern side of the Anti-Lebanus, well watered by the Abana so that it appears in the wilderness like a vast and fertile oasis. A beautiful panoramic view of the city is gained from the crest of Antilibanus which rises abruptly on the western side of the city some 500 feet.
In 4th year Ahaz, Tiglath-pileser took Damascus at the instigation of Ahaz 2 Kg 16:7-9 who had refused the sign of Isaiah. Isa 7:1, 11-12. Ahaz became seduced by the altar of Damascus 2 Kg 16:10-15.
Sig. Poor, naked, helpless. A district adjacent to Damascus, having cities of its own not to be confused by the city of Aroer elsewhere, e.g. Num. 32:34; 2 Sam. 24:5.
Shepherds shall lead their flocks to graze there.
No inhabitants to drive the shepherds away.

2 DIVINE JUDGMENT ON ITS ALLY Vv. 3-8.

Ephraim had been allied to Damascus against Judah - Isa 7:8-9 Cp 2 Chr. 28:23-24.
Ahaz hired Tiglath-pileser by despoiling the Temple, & Rezin, King of Damascus was slain. The Kingdom ceased with his death. Cp 2 Kg 16:9. Amos 1:3-5.
An ironical statement illustrated by the next verse. Damascus recovered, but was later attacked by Nebuchadnezzar, as predicted. Jer. 49:23.
See below
Assyria humbled Zion as well as Damascus Isa. 5:8. Judah is included in the latter-day application of the prophecy. - "the glory of Jacob" Israel was taken into captivity by the Assyrian. Shalmaneser completed the work of Tiglath-pileser by depopulating the country 2 Kg. 17:3, 17-23.
Valley of Giants. Philistines twice to despoil Judah's harvests 2 Sam. 23:13; David twice defeated them. 2 Sam. 5:18-25.

3 A REMNANT SAVED 6-8.

There was a typical fulfilment of this in the days of Hezekiah 2 Chr. 30:13-22 when the Assyrian was also overthrown. Cp Zech. 13:9
RA "Ah! See, behold.

Ahaz called upon it to relieve the threat of the northern confederacy of Damascus and Ephraim Vv 1-5 but it would also flood over into Judah Isa. 8:7. ISAIAH 22 : AN INDICTMENT ON THE PEOPLE BECAUSE OF FAITHLESSNESS IN THE FACE OF INVASION

ISAIAH 22.

CHAPTER 22.

1 The prophet lamenteth the invasion of Jewry by the Persians. 15 He prophesieth Shebna's deprivation, 20 and Eliakim, prefiguring the kingdom of Christ, his substitution.

THE burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that thou art wholly gone up to the housetops?

2 Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain men are not slain with the sword, nor dead in battle.

3 All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee are bound together, which have fled from far.

4 Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people.

5 For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord GOD of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the walls, and of crying to the mountains.

6 And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.

7 And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the gate.

8 And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest.

9 Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many: and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool.

10 And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye broken down to fortify the wall.

11 Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it long ago.

12 And in that day did the Lord GOD of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

13 And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing

THE PROPHET LAMENTETH THE INVASION OF JEWRY.

Against Cyrus ruling to Babylon

9 And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground.

10 O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: that which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you.

11 ¶ The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?

12 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye will enquire, enquire ye: return, come.

13 ¶ The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies of Dedanim.

14 The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that fled.

15 For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war.

16 For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Within a year, according to the years of an hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail:

17 And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

"The Tarshish here referred to was doubtless a city or country in Spain (Tartessus), & was the most celebrated emporium to which the Phoenicians traded. It is mentioned by Diod. Sic. 5:35-38; Strab. 3:145; Pliny His. Nat. 3:3. According to Jer. 10:9, it exported silver, according to Ezek. 27:12,25 it exported silver, iron, tin & lead to the Tyrian market. In this chapter vv 1,6,10, it is represented as an important Phoenician or Tyrian colony. All the circumstances agree with the supposition that Tartessus in Spain is the place here referred to. The name Tartessus is derived from the Hebrew Tarshish by a change simply in its pronunciation. See Bochart (Geog. Sacra. lib 3. c. 7) and J. D. Michaelis (Spicileg. Geog. Heb. p. 1. pp. 82-103). —A. TARSHISH (Cont.) of the West. In the course of their business they established B75 trading stations in many distant lands, the most important being Carthage, on the African coast, Gades, in Spain, and possibly Marseilles on the northern coast of the Mediterranean. They vastly improved the art of shipbuilding, & in their more sea worthy vessels they were able, on the one hand, to venture past the Pillars of Hercules (Gibraltar & Ceuta) and traffic in tin with the British. On the other hand, in the opinion of some authorities, from the Red Sea and the Persian Gulf they traversed the Indian Ocean, the China Sea, & the Pacific as far as the coast of Peru. According to Herodotus, they even circumnavigated Asia from Egypt to Gibraltar." (F. J. C. Hearnshaw in "Sea-power and Empire.")

10 Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD.

JUDGMENT ON NORTHERN KINGDOM - A WARNING TO THE RESIDUE.

Historical Background: Invasion Shalmaneser 2 Kings 17:9-12. 1-4 OVERTHROW OF SAMARIA 1 Ch. 5:26.

2 The proud, haughty government of Samaria
3 Spiritual as well as literal. Cp Isa 29:9. Jer 23:9. Cp. 2 Kings 17:2. for state. Israel.
4 Samaria was the pride of the northern kingdom and was a place of great beauty. See note. Isa 40:24
5 The glory of Samaria will fade as does the flowers on the hills of lush valleys when the sun strikes on them. Such valleys were found around Samaria, so that the analogy was always in evidence.
6 A man's reason, conscience, moral feelings and physical strength are soon overcome by such indulgence - the same is true of spiritual wine Eph 5:18.
7 Shalmaneser 2 Kgs 17:3-12. the type of Gog. Cp same expression used for Nebuchadnezzar. Ezek. 18:11
8 As the storm, hail and flood destroys crops - in contrast to the "gentle rain from heaven" Cp Deut. 32:2. so will the invasion of the Assyrian.
9 Bikkurah = Early fig. It appears about May and is styled "boccore" in contrast to the "Kermouse" or proper crop which ripens in September.
10 The fig is immediately eaten. The other may be dried or preserved.

CHAPTER 28.

1 The prophet threateneth Ephraim for their pride and drunkenness. 5 The residue shall be advanced in the kingdom of Christ. 7 He rebuketh their error. 9 Their untowardness to learn, 14 and their security. 16 Christ the sure foundation is promised. 18 Their security shall be tried. 23 They are incited to the consideration of God's discreet providence.

WOE to a the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose b glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are c overcome with wine!

2 Behold, the Lord hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of d hail and a e destroying storm, as a flood of f mighty waters overflowing, shall g cast down to the earth with the hand. = With Violence. LXX.

3 The crown of pride, the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden h under feet: - Like their steps

4 And the glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as i the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he k eateth it up.

5 ¶ l In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for (m) a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people,

6 And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle n to the gate.

7 ¶ But they also o have erred through wine, and p through strong drink are out of the way; q the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in r judgment. s Cp Isa. 1:1. Conference

8 For all t tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.

9 ¶ u Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand 2 doctrine? h them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts. ? = NIV

10 For precept (3) must be upon precept, precept upon precept; i line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

12 To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

13 But the word of the LORD was unto them 6 precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

14 ¶ Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, v ye scornful men, that rule this people which is in Jerusalem.

15 Because ye have said, We have 7 made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the over-flowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for w we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:

16 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, (N) Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, x a tried stone, a precious corner stone, y a sure foundation: z he that believeth shall not make haste. = be ashamed. Rom 10:11

Punishment was to fall on Judah because of the wickedness of its people, though the nation would be delivered.

20 The picture is that of complete debauchery leading to disgusting habits Cp Ch 5:11-12.

CONTEMPT FOR YAHWEH'S WORD. Vv 9-13.

Messengers of God disregarded as being mere repetition of childish instruction.
21 This is the reaction of professed leaders. They are indignant because God treated them as children, as indeed they were Cp Isa 3:4.
22 Whom does He take to be? Mere children!
23 There had been a monotonous repetition of instruction and warning such as a father gives to a child or a teacher to junior class and this irritated the class leaders who were wise in their conceit.
24 Because they reject this instruction
25 Heb "laeg" = "scorning" Ye. Trans. "mocker" Ps. 35:16. As they mocked His word so He would scorn their plight.
26 A foreign language. They would be taken into captivity. Cp 2 Kgs 18:28

THE BENEFIT OF DIVINE JUDGMENT. Vv 23-29.

a The Divine Ploughman is determined to break up the soil

49 Is Yahweh prepared to continue to plow among His people without sowing and reaping! No.

50 Probably fennel or dill the seed of which was mixed with bread to give it flavor. NIV = Caraway.

51 A plant with aromatic flavor.

52 That appropriate means of sowing and harvesting are required to get a crop. So different methods of instructing, punishing, disciplining and educating His people used that some grain might be obtained. And v. 1 the punishment is appropriate to the need.

The siege of Jerusalem foretold.

17 Judgment also will I lay to [a] the line, and righteousness to the plummet: [f] and [b] the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

18 ¶ And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be [2] trodden down by it.

19 From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for [d] morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be [e] a vexation only to understand [f] the report.

20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and [h] the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.

21 For the LORD shall rise up [k] as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth [l] as in the valley of [m] Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his strange act.

22 Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts [n] a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth.

23 ¶ Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.

24 Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? doth he open and [o] break the clods of his ground?

25 When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in [5] the principal wheat and the appointed barley and the [9] rie in their [2] place?

26 [3] For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and doth teach him.

27 For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.

28 Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen.

29 This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, [c] which is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

1 God's heavy judgment upon Jerusalem. 7 The unsatiableness of her enemies. 9 The senselessness, 13 and deep hypocrisy of the Jews. 18 A promise of sanctification to the godly.

WOE to [o] Ariel, to Ariel, [5] the city where David dwelt! add ye year to year; let them [6] kill sacrifices.

2 Yet I will distress Ariel, and there shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me as Ariel.

3 And I will camp against thee [u] round about, and [v] will lay siege against thee with [p] a mount, and I will raise [q] forts against thee.

4 And [r] thou shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and [t] thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of [x] one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall [7] whisper out of the dust.

6 Thou shalt be [b] visited of the LORD of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with [c] storm and tempest, and [d] the flame of devouring fire.

7 ¶ [a] And the multitude of all the nations that fight against [c] Ariel, even all that fight against her and her [d] munition, and that distress her, shall be [f] as a dream of a night vision.

8 It shall even be as when an hungry man [g] dreameth, and, behold, he eateth; but [h] he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and [i] his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.

9 ¶ Stay yourselves, and wonder; [j] cry ye out, and cry: [k] they are drunken, [l] but not with wine; [m] they stagger, but not with strong drink.

10 For [n] the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of [o] deep sleep, and hath [p] closed your eyes: the prophets and your [q] rulers, the seers hath he covered.

11 [r] And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a [s] book [t] that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; [t] for it is sealed:

12 And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned.

13 ¶ Wherefore the Lord said, [u] Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do [v] honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by [w] the precept of men:

14 [x] Therefore, behold, [y] I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for [z] the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.

15 Woe unto [b] them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and [c] they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?

16 Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for [1] shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall [k] the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding?

17 Is it not [m] yet a very little while, and [n] Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, [o] and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?

18 ¶ And [p] in that day [q] shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity, and out of darkness.

19 [r] The meek also [2] shall increase their joy in the LORD, and [s] the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

20 For [t] the terrible one [u] is brought to nought, and the [v] scorner [w] is consumed, and all that [x] watch for iniquity are cut off:

21 That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for [y] him that reproveth in the gate, and [z] turn aside the just [3] for a thing of nought.

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob, Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale.

23 But when he seeth his children, [a] the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, [b] they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear [c] the God of Israel.

14 A type of serpent which inhabits date palms and which flies from tree to tree by twisting the tail around a branch and so forming a spring by which they throw themselves to the next. It is styled by Arabs the FLYING SERPENT. Fiery Serpent of Isa. 14:29.

The people threatened — ISAIAH 30. — for trusting in Egypt.

CHAPTER 30.

1 The prophet threateneth the people for their confidence in Egypt, 8 and contempt of God's word. 18 God's mercies towards his church. 27 God's wrath, and the people's joy, in the destruction of Assyria.

WOE to [a] the rebellious children, saith the LORD, [b] that take counsel, but not of me; and that [c] cover with a covering, but not of my spirit, [d] that they may add sin to sin:
2 That walk [e] to go down into Egypt, and have not [f] asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!
3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. — Heb reproach disgrace
4 For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes.
5 [f] They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach. A BURDEN OF THE BEASTS OF THE NEGEV

7 For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I cried [i] concerning this, Their strength is to sit still. RAHAB the Do Nothing

1 The prophet sheweth the cursed folly in trusting to Egypt, and forsaking of God. 6 He exhorteth to conversion. 8 He sheweth the fall of Assyria.

WOE to them [a] that go down to Egypt for help; and [b] stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD!

THE NABALS TO BE DEPOSED. IIA. 32:5. "The Nabals of the present evil world are to be deposed, that the antitypical David and Abigail may be delivered & enthroned. 'Vile person' in this chapter is nabal, literally a fool - a vain & foolish mortal, from the verb to wither or fade - contrast the evergreens of righteousness (A.J.). And Nabal is the typical fool of the O.T. Scriptures. And David & Christ are the typical 'liberals.' See how David prepared for the temple, fetched his people, & divided the spoil. And see how Christ, 'though he was rich, yet for our sakes became poor, that we through his poverty might be rich.' 2 Cor. 8:9 - CCC.

3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.
4 For thus hath the LORD spoken unto me, Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof.
5 As birds flying, so will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it.
6 Turn ye unto him from whom the children of Israel have deeply revolted.
7 For in that day every man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin.
8 Then shall the Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited.
9 And he shall pass over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

14 Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the [3] forts and towers shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks;

15 Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and [h] the wilderness be a fruitful field, [i] and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field.

17 And [k] the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance for ever.

18 And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places;

19 When [l] it shall hail, [m] coming down on the forest; [n] and the city shall be low in a low place.

1 God's judgments against the enemies of the church. 13 The privileges of the godly.

WOE to thee [r] that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and [s] dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! [t] when thou shalt cease to spoil, thou shalt be spoiled; and when thou shalt make an end to deal treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with thee.

2 O LORD, be gracious unto us; [u] we have waited for thee: [v] be thou their arm [w] every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.

3 At the [x] noise of the tumult the people fled; [a] at the lifting up of thyself the nations were scattered.

4 And your [7] spoil [8] shall be [c] gathered like the gathering of [d] the caterpiller: as the running to and fro of locusts shall he [e] run upon them.

5 [f] The LORD is exalted; for he dwelleth on high: he hath filled Zion with judgment and righteousness.

6 And wisdom and knowledge shall be [k] the stability of thy times, and [l] strength of [4] salvation: the fear of the LORD is his treasure.

7 Behold, their [5] valiant ones shall cry without: [m] the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly.

8 [p] The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth: he [q] hath broken the covenant, [r] he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man.

9 [s] The earth mourneth and [t] languisheth: Lebanon is ashamed and [6] hewn down: [v] Sharon is like a wilderness; and [z] Bashan and Carmel shake off their fruits.

11 Ye shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath, as fire, shall devour you.

12 And the people shall be as the burnings of lime: [f] as thorns cut up shall they be burned in the fire.

[a]COME near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: [b]let the earth hear, and [7]all that is therein; the world, and all things that come forth of it.

2 For the indignation of the LORD is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter.

3 Their [c]slain also shall be cast out, and [d]their stink shall come up out of their carcases, and the mountains shall be melted with their blood.

4 And [e]all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and [m]the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll: and [2]all their host shall fall down, as the leaf falleth off from the vine, and as a falling fig from the fig tree.

5 For [q]my sword shall be bathed in heaven: behold, [s]it shall come down upon Idumea, and upon the people of my [u]curse, to judgment.

6 The sword of the LORD is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, and with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams: for [x]the LORD hath a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Idumea.

7 And the [5]unicorns shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls; and their land shall be [7]soaked with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.

COMPLETE AND UTTER DESOLATION

"I would that the sceptic could stand, as I did, among the ruins of this city, among the rocks and there could open the sacred book and read the words of the inspired penman, written when this desolate place was one of the greatest cities of the world. I see the scoffer arrested, his cheek pale, his lip quivering, his heart quaking with fear, as the ancient city cries out to him in a voice loud and powerful as one risen from the dead; though he would not believe Moses & the prophets, he believes the handwriting of God himself, in the desolation and eternal ruin around him" (Stephens - "Incidents of Travel"). The Holy writings of Petra.

"IT SHALL LIE WASTE" V. 10 - Volney, quoted by Keith

"Evidences of Prophecy" pp 135-168: "... There are to the south-east of the lake Asphaltites, (Dead Sea), within three days journey, upwards of thirty ruined towns absolutely deserted. Several of them have large edifices with columns that may have belonged to the ancient temples or at least to Greek churches. The Arabs sometimes make use of them to fold cattle in; but in general avoid them on account of the enormous scorpions with which they swarm."

THE PROPHET TURNS HISTORIAN. ~ This is the third time this history is recorded. (2 Kgs 17-20 2 Chr 32) thus underlining the great importance of the events narrated. They form the historical basis or type of the prophecies of Isaiah and dramatise the final great controversy by which Yahweh will vindicate His power at Christ's coming and usher in the Kingdom. This had become apparent to me by independent research but was confirmed by the exposition of T.W. Thurtle ('O.T. Problems') endorsed by Companion Bible.

ISAIAH 36. Rabshakeh's blasphemy.

CHAPTER 36.

1 Sennacherib invadeth Judah. 4 Rabshakeh, sent by Sennacherib, by blasphemous persuasions soliciteth the people to revolt.

NOW it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defenced cities of Judah, and took them.

2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.

3 Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the [2]scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

4 And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith [c]the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence [3]is this wherein thou trustest?

5 I say, I sayest thou, (but they are but vain words) [4]I have counsel and strength for war: now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

6 Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust in him.

7 But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar?

8 Now therefore give [6]pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them.

9 How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and [a]put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?

10 And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

11 ¶ Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.

12 ¶ But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the [c]great king, the king of Assyria.

14 Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you.

15 Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, [5]Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;

17 [h]Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards.

HEZEKIAH PRESENTS THE ASSYRIAN LETTER TO YAH. WRS. Vv14-20.

Hezekiah's prayer. ISAIAH 37. Isaiah's prophecy.

14 ¶ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

15 And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying,

16 O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: [c] thou hast made heaven and earth.

17 [c] Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living God.

18 Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the [6] nations, and their countries, 19 And have [8] cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.

20 Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, [i] that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only.

YAHWEH'S FURTHER MESSAGE OF ENCOURAGEMENT Vv21-35.

21 ¶ Then [k] Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

22 This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin, [m] the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

Jerusalem representing the faithful remnant ✠2 COR 11:2.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 [3] By thy servants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down [2] the tall [a] cedars thereof, and the choice [a] fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and [3 b] the forest of his Carmel.

25 I have digged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all [d] the rivers of the [4 d] besieged places.

26 [e] Hast thou not heard long ago, how [f] I have done it; and of ancient times, that [f] I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste [g] defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were [7] of small power, [h] they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy [9] abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy [l] tumult, is come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and [m] my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest. ✠EZEK 38:4

30 And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same: and [o] in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

Whereas Ahaz rejected a sign 7:11 Hezekiah sought one & was given one associated with Nh-az. 38:7-8

• The siege would only last 2 years – in the 3rd they would be able to sow their own grain.

31 And [2] the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again [p] take root downward, and bear fruit upward:

THE WRITING OF HEZEKIAH. Heb. "Michtab" another spelling of "Michtam" - the superscription of some Psalms: (16, 56-60) from Katam (C.B) to cut in or engrave (See Sept). The word points to graven, therefore permanent writing, graven because of its importance. The A.V. & R.V derive the word from Kethem gold, either from its being precious or hidden away. The Michtam Psalms are all pervaded by the common characteristic of being Personal, Direct and more or less Private. The reference is to David's son and Lord; and especially to His death and resurrection; or to a deliverance from imminent danger, or death, or even from the grave itself. Ps 16:10-11. 56:13. 57:3. 58:10-11. 59:16. 60:5,12. (C.B - Condensed.)

33 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, [a] He shall not come into this city, [b] nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with [3] shields, nor [c] cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD.

35 For [d] I will defend this city to save it for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

36 [f] Then the angel of the LORD went forth, and [g] smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and fourscore and five thousand: and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

37 ¶ So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and [i] went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.

38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of [5] Armenia: and Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

CHAPTER 38.

1 Hezekiah by prayer hath his life lengthened. 8 The sun goeth ten degrees backward, for a sign of that promise. 9 His song of thanksgiving.

IN those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, [1] Set [2] thine house in order: for [3] thou shalt die, and not live.

2 Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and prayed unto the LORD,

3 And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept [4] sore.

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying,

5 Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will add unto thy days [21] fifteen years.

6 And [d] I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and [e] I will defend this city.

7 And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken;

8 [h] Behold, I will bring again the [3] shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the [4] sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down.

11 I said, I shall not see [m] the LORD, even [m] the LORD, [n] in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

12 Mine age is departed, and is removed from me [p] as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off [r] like a weaver my life: [s] he will cut me off with pining sickness: [t] from day even to night wilt thou make an end of me.

1 Merodach-baladan, sending to visit Hezekiah, hath notice of his treasures. 3 Isaiah, understanding thereof, foretelleth the Babylonian captivity.

2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and shewed them the house of his [3] precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his [4][5] armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not.

3 ¶ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come [x] from a far country unto me, even from Babylon.
4 Then said he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them.
5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts:
6 Behold, the days come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD.
7 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and [y] they shall be eunuchs in [z] the palace of the king of Babylon.
8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

2. The Suffering Servant of Yahweh .... Chs 49-57
3. The Promised future Glory by Yahweh .. Chs 58-66.

● Chapters 40-48 set forth Yahweh as Supreme in contrast with the vain + impotent idols of the heathen. Deliverance from Babylonian captivity is predicted through Yahweh's political servant whose significant name is given as Cyrus.
● Chapters 49-57 deal with Redemption. They contrast the guilt sufferings of Yahweh's Servant with his future glory + predict deliverance from spiritual captivity. Each of these two sections end

1 COMFORT ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God. - Elohim. Yah in multitudinous manifestation

2 Speak ye [3] comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned: for she hath received of the LORD'S hand double for all her sins.

3 ¶ The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.

4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field:

7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass.

8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand for ever.

9 ¶ O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!

10 Behold, the Lord GOD will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him: behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

11 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd: he shall gather the lambs with his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

12 ¶ Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?

13 Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD, or being his counsellor hath taught him?

14 With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of judgment, and taught him knowledge, and shewed to him the way of understanding?

15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing.

16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.

17 All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

18 ¶ To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him?

19 The workman melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains.

20 He that is so impoverished that he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall not be moved.

21 Have ye not known? have ye not heard? hath it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth? (RVmg "above")

22 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers; that stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain, and spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in:

23 That bringeth princes to nothing; he maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.

24 Yea, they shall not be planted; yea, they shall not be sown: yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

25 To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy One.

26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth.

27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgment is passed over from my God?

28 Hast thou not known, hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding.

29 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength.

30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:

31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

CHAPTER 41.

1 God expostulateth with his people, about his mercies to the church, 10 about his promises, 21 and about the vanity of idols.

[b] KEEP silence before me, O [d] islands; and [e] let the people renew their [4] strength: let them come near; then let them speak: let us come near together to judgment.

2 Who raised up [2] the righteous man from the east, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and [f] made him rule over kings? he gave them as the dust to his sword, and as driven stubble to his bow.

3 He pursued them, and passed [3] safely; even by the way that he had not gone with his feet.

4 Who hath wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I the LORD, [g] the first, and with the last; I am he.

5 The isles saw it, and feared; the ends of the earth were afraid, drew near, and came.

6 They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, [6] Be of good courage.

7 So the carpenter encouraged the [5] goldsmith, and he that smootheth with the hammer [6] him that smote the anvil, [7] saying, It is ready for the sodering: and he fastened it with nails, [t] that it should not be moved.

8 But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob [x] whom I have chosen, the seed of [y] Abraham my friend.

9 Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and called thee from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.

10 ¶ [a] Fear thou not; [b] for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.

CHAPTER 42. HYMN 85

1 The office of Christ, graced with meekness and constancy. 5 God's promise unto him. 10 An exhortation to praise God for his gospel.

[d] BEHOLD [1] [e] my servant, whom I uphold; [2] [f] mine elect, in whom [g] my soul delighteth; [3] [h] I have put my spirit upon him: he shall bring forth judgment [4] to the Gentiles.

2 He shall not cry, nor lift up, nor cause his voice to be heard in the street. [5]

3 A [i] bruised reed shall he not break, [6] and the [j] smoking flax shall he not [k] quench: [7] he shall bring forth judgment unto truth. [8] [9]

4 He shall not fail nor be [l] discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: [m] and the isles shall wait for his law. [10] [11]

5 ¶ Thus saith God the LORD, he that [12] created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein: [13]

6 I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, [14] and [n] will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and [o] give thee for a covenant of the people, [p] for a light of the Gentiles; [15] [16] [17] [18] - Ice Note 23

7 [q] To open the blind eyes, to [r] bring out the prisoners from the prison, [19] and [s] them that sit in darkness out of the prison house. -Zech. 9:11-12.

8 I am the LORD: that is my name: [20] and my glory will I not give to [t] another, [21] neither my praise to graven images.

9 Behold, [u] the former things are come to pass, [22] and [v] new things do I declare: before they spring forth I tell you of them. CHADASH - Rebuild, Repair, Renew [23]

10 [w] Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, [24] [x] ye that go down to the sea, and [y] all that is therein; [z] the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.

11 [a] Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that [b] Kedar doth inhabit: [25] let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains. [26]

12 Let them give glory unto the LORD, [27] and declare his praise in the islands.

13 The LORD shall go forth [c] as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like [d] a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall [e] prevail against his enemies. [28] [29]

14 I have long time holden my peace; [30] I have been still, and [f] refrained myself: now will I cry [g] like a travailing woman; I will destroy and [h] devour at once. [31] [32]

15 I will make waste mountains and hills, [33] and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers [i] islands, and I will dry up the pools. [34]

16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things [j] straight. [35] These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them. -Jer. 23:5-6; Heb. 13:5.

17 ¶ They shall be [k] turned back, [36] [l] they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods.

18 [m] Hear, ye deaf; and [n] look, ye blind, that ye may see.

19 [o] Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he that is perfect, and blind as [p] the LORD's servant? [37] [38] [39] [40] p 118.6; 110

20 [q] Seeing many things, [r] but thou observest not; [s] opening the ears, but he heareth not. [41]

21 The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he [t] will magnify the law, and make [u] it honourable. [42]

22 [v] "at peace with me." They would be at peace, because not conscious of their sins Jhn. 9:41, Thus there were self-righteous. Jhn. 12:40. This became a principle of Gospel preaching Rom. 2:17-21; 11:7-10, 25. See below.

CHAPTER 43

YAHWEH'S WITNESS TO HIS ABILITY TO REDEEM Ch 43:1-44:5

ISRAEL COMFORTED WITH ASSURANCES THAT YAHWEH WILL SAVE Vv.1-7.

CHAPTER 43.

The Lord comforteth the church with his promises. 8 He appealeth to the people for witness of his omnipotency. 14 He foretelleth them the destruction of Babylon, 18 and his wonderful deliverance of his people.

BUT now thus saith the LORD [g] that created thee, O Jacob, [h] and he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: [i] for I have redeemed thee, [k] I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine.

2 [l] When thou passest through the waters, [m] I will be with thee; and [n] through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: [o] when thou [p] walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.

3 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, [q] thy Saviour: [r] I gave [s] Egypt [t] for thy ransom, Ethiopia and [u] Seba for thee.

4 Since [v] thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy [w] life.

5 [x] Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed [a] from the east, and gather thee from the west;

6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring [d] my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth;

7 Even every one [e] that is called by my name: for [f] I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, [g] I have made him.

8 ¶ [h] Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.

9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the people be assembled: [k] who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

10 [l] Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and [m] my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: [n] before me there was [5] no God formed, neither shall there be after me.

11 [o] I, even I, am the LORD; and [z] beside me there is no saviour.

12 I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no [b] strange god among you: therefore [d] ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that [g] I am God.

13 Yea, [h] before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who shall [6] let it?

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, [i] your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, [k] and have brought down all their [7] [r] nobles, and the [s] Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships.

Babylon was noted for its mercantile marine. Its ships traversed the Euphrates leading to the Persian Gulf. A canal linked the Euphrates with the Tigris north of the city called Nahar Malca, or the Royal River.

THE GOD OF JESHURUN. Deut. 33:26; Isa. 44:2. (Cp Jer. 32:20)

The Strength (El) of the Upright One — Christ and the Saints. A diminutive of endearment derived from YASHAR (causat. to make) right, pleasant, prosperous. Str. Gesenius states that the ending "un" is a termination indicating affection or kindness. He suggests "it seems not improbable that it was a diminutive form of the name Israel, a title of affection for them" implying "the righteous little people." The LXX renders it: "beloved Israel." It is significative that the Lord used a diminutive expression when addressing the Apostles: "Little children" John 13:33 & that this was used in turn by the Apostles to believers 1 John 2:1 etc Gal. 4:19. Jeshurun is used 4 times: Of the waywardness of such in prosperity Deut. 32:15; Of their acknowledgment of Divine authority Deut. 33:26; Of their character as selected Isa. 44:2; Of their source of Strength = El Deut. 33:26; future manifestation of Kingly glory.

19 Behold, I will do [h] a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? [k] I will even make a way in the wilderness, and [l] rivers in [m] the desert. - Applies figuratively & literally

20 The beast of the field shall honour me, [p] the dragons and the [q] owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen.

21 [s] This people have I formed for myself; [t] they shall shew forth [u] my praise.

22 ¶ But thou hast not called upon me, O Jacob; but [a] thou hast been weary of me, O Israel. - Amos 8:5-6; Mal. 1:13

23 [b] Thou hast not brought me the [c] small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou [d] honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to serve with an offering, nor [f] wearied thee with [g] incense.

24 Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou [7] filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with thy sins, thou hast [7] wearied me with thine iniquities.

25 I, even I, am he that [n] blotteth out thy transgressions [o] for mine own sake, [p] and will not remember thy sins.

26 Put me in remembrance: let us plead together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified.

27 Thy first father hath sinned, and thy [2] teachers have transgressed against me.

28 Therefore [b] I have profaned the [3] princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob [4] to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.

2 THE GROSS STUPIDITY OF IDOLATRY Vv. 9-20

An expose of an idol factory. The folly of those who worship an handmade god.

9 ¶ [a] They that make a graven image are all of them vanity; and their (2) delectable things shall not profit; and [c] they are their own witnesses; (3) they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed.

10 Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image [g] that is profitable for nothing?

13 The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house.

14 He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, which [7] [m] he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it.

15 Then shall it be for a man [z] to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and [b] falleth down thereto.

THE SMITH V. 12

* The smith was more or less a sacred person, and the iron foundry was an annex of heathen temples. "Mounds of scoriae & iron slag are found near many heathen temples. So writes Prof. Sayce in "The Proceedings of the Society of Biblical Archaeology (1911)" Note the contrast exhibited - perhaps on purpose - with Solomon's Temple 1 Kg. 6:7. C.B.

CYRUS

• The famous cylinder of Cyrus found by Hormuzd Rassam in the 19 century records that he reversed the inhuman policy of the Babylonians & restored to their places the captive peoples who had been forcibly removed therefrom. 2Ch.36:22 implies Divine help. Cyrus claimed this Ezra 1:2. Harpagus in a letter to Cyrus wrote: "Heaven evidently favours you, or you could never have thus risen superior to fortune." Herod. 1:124. Herodotus wrote of Cyrus: "When he considered the peculiar circumstances of his birth, he considered himself more than human. He reflected also on the prosperity of his arms, - that wherever he had extended his excursions he had been followed by success & victory." 1:205.

CHAPTER 45.

1 God calleth Cyrus for his church's sake. 5 By his omnipotency he challengeth obedience. 20 He convinceth the idols of vanity by his saving power.

THUS saith the LORD to [s] his anointed, to Cyrus, whose [t] right hand I [u] have holden, [a] to subdue nations before him; and [b] I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and the gates shall not be shut;

2 I will go before thee, and [f] make the crooked places straight: [g] I will break in pieces the gates of brass, [g] and cut in sunder the bars of iron:

3 And I will give thee [l] the treasures of darkness, and [l] hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, [m] which call thee [n] by thy name, am [o] the God of Israel. • 6 The Purpose 4

4 For (f) Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I have even called thee by thy name: I have [p] surnamed thee, though thou hast [q] not known me.

THE FALL OF BABYLON Hdt. 1:191.

"Having diverted the river, by means of a canal, into the lake, which was before a swamp, he made the ancient channel fordable by the sinking of the river. When this took place, the Persians who were appointed to that purpose, close to the stream of that river, which had now subsided to about the middle of a man's thigh, entered Babylon by this passage. . . It is related by the people who inhabited the city, that by reason of its great extent, when they who were at the extremities were taken, those of the Babylonians who inhabited the Centre knew nothing of the capture; (for it happened to be a festival:) but they were dancing at the time, and enjoying themselves, till they received certain information of the truth: & thus Babylon was taken for the first time."

7 YAHWEH'S INVITATION TO THE NATIONS (20-25)

48 An appeal & a challenge Cp 41:1.

28 Paul renders "confess" or praise Rom. 14:11; Phil. 2:11. This is as the result of judgment personal and national. Rom. 11:12. Cp Isa. 26:19.

29 Cf mg. This will be the confession. They will see in Christ (the "me" or antitypical Isaiah) a manifestation of Yahweh & will acknowledge that all righteousness & strength stems from Him. Paul interprets this as: "That Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father" Phil. 2:11 - "Jesus Christ is Lord" = a Divine manifestation, Yah Saviour Anointed.

3 YAHWEH: SUPREME IN RETRIBUTION. CH. 44-47

1 YAHWEH'S ABILITY TO SAVE CH. 44:1-45:3

1 HEATHEN GOD'S CANNOT SAVE Vv. 1-2.

See below. The impotency of Babylon's gods contrasted with Yahweh. Cp Ch. 45:21. Isaiah's far seeing pictures these gods loaded face downward (bowing) on the back of a pack-animal - the only means whereby it can escape capture. They cannot save themselves, how can they save others!

RV: "The things that ye carried about are made a load" - they were unable to move to their own help.

Themselves

Their influence limited to one small section of earth!!

2 THE INCOMPARABLE MIGHT OF YAHWEH CONTRASTED Vv. 3-7.

These had responded to Hezekiah's appeal to worship 2 Chr. 30: 1-5. Typical of Gentile converts they kept the Passover other than it was written 2 Chr. 30: 18-20.

Cf. V. 2. Yahweh burdens Himself with the problems of His children - not vice versa as the gods Cp Isa. 44:17 Cp Isa. 41:4; 43:11, 25; Ps. 42:2-21 Mal. 1:2; 3:6) Rom. 11:29. Ps. 115: 4-8

3 CONTRASTED WITH THE IMPOTENCY OF IDOLS Vv. 5-11

5 He concedes no comparison has no peers. See bottom p. 442 top p. 443

6 Thus the glory of their god is governed by their purse and the ability of the goldsmith! Cp Col. 3:5 Isa. 2:20-22. Ps. 115:4-8

The broken cylinder of Cyrus records: "The gods of the land of Shinar = Accad... in their own shrines I made inhabit (again), a dwelling of heart's delight. May all the gods whom I brought (again) into their own cities, daily before Bel & Nebo, speak of length of days for me! May they utter words in my favor, & to Merodach my lord, let them say: Cyrus the king that feareth thee & Cambyses his son.... made them dwell in a quiet habitation." — Light from the East p. 225.

Nebo, the prophet, was the great god of learning, & special patron of the sciences. His great sanctuary was the temple called E-Zida, at Borsippa, the principal seat of learning in Babylon. Cp Gen. 11:1-5 901 BEL AND NEBO. The main gods of Babylon. Bel represented the civil power, for his name signified "Lord." Nebo = the religious power. His name means "revealer of secrets" from Nabi, prophet. Nebuchadnezzar was forced to recognize in Yahweh a "God of gods" (civil authority - Cp also Dan. 4:17) and a "Revealer of secrets" Dan. 2:47.

Sennacherib's "prism inscription" Column 3: 55, tells how Merodach-baladan, on the approach of Sennacherib, carried off the patron deities of his land in flight & placed them with their shrines on shipboard for his flight down the Euphrates. But these were overtaken and captured. This happened in the days of Isaiah so his comparison was not without point to his contemporaries.

YAHWEH'S DISOBEDIENT SERVANT.

Israel is set forth as Yahweh's servant, whose ear, however "was not opened" to hear the divine instruction 48:8. Cp. Israel as servant Isa. 41:8-9; 42:19; 44:1,2, 21, called upon to behold the truly obedient servant 42:1, the prophecies of which Chps 49-57 are about to be proclaimed Cp Ch. 48:6. Israel as a nation was called as Yahweh's servant to hearken Isa. 42:18-20, but this decreased to a remnant Ch. 41:8-9. and is culminated in the Messiah Ch. 42:1. The Messiah is thus set forth as the apex of a pyramid, the base of which is Israel after the flesh, and the converging sides the redeemed. They converge on to the apex set forth in Servant prophecy.

13 [c] Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. [d] Let now the [2] astrologers, the star-gazers, [3] the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

14 Behold, they shall be [e] as stubble, the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver [4] themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor [f] fire to sit before it.

15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even [5] thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

CHAPTER 48.

CHAPTER 48. See before

1 God, to convince the people of their foreknown obstinacy, revealed his prophecies. 9 He saveth them for his own sake. 12 He exhorteth them to obedience, because of his power and providence. 16 He lamenteth their backwardness. 20 He powerfully delivereth his out of Babylon.

HEAR ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and [g] are come forth out of the waters of Judah, [h] which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of [i] the God of Israel, but not [k] in truth, nor in righteousness.

2 For they call themselves of [l] the holy city, and [m] stay themselves upon the God of Israel; The LORD of hosts is his name.

3 [n] I have declared the former things [o] from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed them; I did them suddenly, and [p] they came to pass.

4 Because I knew that thou art [q] obstinate, [6] and [r] thy neck is an iron sinew, and thy brow brass;

5 I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: [s] lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, hath commanded them.

6 Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even [t] hidden things, and thou didst not know them.

7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say, Behold, I knew them.

8 Yea, thou heardest not; yea, [u] thou knewest not; yea, [v] from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called a transgressor [w] from the womb.

9 ¶ For my name's sake will [x] I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut thee not off.

10 Behold, [y] I have refined thee, but not [z] with silver; I have chosen thee [a] in the furnace of affliction.

11 [b] For mine own sake, even for mine own sake, will I do it: for [c] how should my name be polluted? and [d] I will not give my glory unto another.

12 ¶ Hearken unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; [e] I am he; [f] I am the first, I also am the last.

13 [g] Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and [h] my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together.

14 All ye, assemble yourselves, and hear; [i] which among them hath declared these things? [j] The LORD hath loved him: [k] he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on [7] the Chaldeans.

CHAPTER 48

- Comprises three discourses preceded by an appeal to Israel to hearken Cp vv 1, 12, 16.
- Discourse One: A remonstrance: Israel reminded of past failures.
- Discourse Two: An Invitation - Israel invited to review that which already had been taught them.
- Discourse Three: An Exhortation: Israel reminded of Yahweh's mercy, of the blessings that come from His way: and urged to flee from Babylon & seek Him as the only place of true peace.

YAHWEH: THE REDEEMER. V.7. See Notes Job 19:25; Ruth 4; Ps.19:14. Ps. 78:35; Prov. 23:11. Goel - Next Kinsman. The title is used most frequently by Isaiah (Yah will save). Cp Isa. 41:14; 43:14; 44:6,24; 47:4; 48:17; 49:7,26; 54:5,8; 60:16; 63:16. Jer. 50:34. Isa 59:20. Significantly it is found there in three prophecies relating to the Suffering Servant. The Redeemer to be revealed through one Isa. 44:6 who is to manifest himself in many Isa. 41:4 (plural see Rev 1:8 note) The Redeemer must have the right, the desire and the ability to redeem. ● The Right as Kinsman Isa 44:24; 54:5; 63:16 ● The Desire Isa 41:10; 43:14; 54:8 ● The Ability Isa 47:4; 48:17; 49:6 ● To be revealed through His Servant Isa. 44:6; 59:20. ● Manifested in Christ. Luke 1:68; 2 Cor 5:19; Cp. Gal 3:13; 4:5. Tit 2:14. 1 Pet. 1:18. Rev. 5:9; 14:3-4. The price paid Acts 20:28; 1 Cor. 6:19-20. Liberty in Christ Rom. 8:1-4; Gal. 5:1.

30 He not only predicted the event but personally supervised its development. The event related to the overthrow of Babylon by Cyrus & the overthrow of Babylon the Great by the Lord.

31 Here the prophet presents his authority as typical of the Christ. Isa. 6:8; Eph. Cp Heb. 9:20.

32 Educates in most profitable ways. Deut. 8:17-18; 1 Kings 8:36; Eccles. 12:11-14; Isa. 54:13. Ps. 25:8,9,12; 73:24.

33 Ps. 32:8; Jer. 6:16.

34 Deut. 5:29; 32:29; Ps. 81:13-16. Luke 19:42.

35 Isa. 32:17, 26:3; 54:13 Cf. Isa 48:22.

36 Like a flowing river bringing the blessings of good to others. Rivers symbolic of plenty & prosperity. Isa. 32:2; 33:21;

CHAPTER 49.

1 Christ, being sent to the Jews, complaineth of them. 5 He is sent to the Gentiles with gracious promises. 13 God's love is perpetual to his church. 18 The ample restoration of the church. 24 The powerful deliverance out of captivity.

LISTEN, [k] O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye / people, from 2 far; [m] The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name.

2 And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword; [4] in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me; - Cp Mt. 22:44.

3 And said unto me, [d] Thou art my servant, O Israel, [e] in whom I will be glorified.

4 Then I said, [g] I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely [k] my judgment is with the LORD, and my work with my God.

5 ¶ And now, saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I [o] be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be my strength. - 2 Cor. 5:19; 1 Tim. 1:16

6 And he said, [q] It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the [5] preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 [v] Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, [e a] to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of [e] the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One of Israel, and [g] he shall choose thee. (Cp Note p. 897)

8 Thus saith the LORD, [h] In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and [i] give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages;

9 That thou mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth; to them that are in darkness,

THE LAND OF SINIM Str.: "A distant oriental region." Gesenius: "The context requires that this must be a very remote country, to be sought for either in the eastern or southern extremities of the world. I understand it to be the land of the Seres or Chinese, Sinenses; this very ancient & celebrated nation was known by the Arabians and Syrians by the name of Sin, Tein, Tshini, & might be known by a Hebrew writer living at Babylon, when it was almost the metropolis of Asia (This, however, was later than Isaiah. But as Isaiah, moved by Divine Inspiration could name Cyrus the conqueror of Babylon, he could under such inspiration mention the Chinese -HPM). . . . . In the Chinese language "dshin" denotes men; whom then may not this name have been given by foreigners to the Chinese. . . . Others suppose the name given to the Chinese from the Dynasty of Thsin (though Isaiah was centuries before this).

God's constant love to his church.

30 Shew yourselves.[30] 31 They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places.[32] 33

10 [c] They shall not hunger nor thirst; [d] neither shall [e] the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them [f] shall lead them, even by [g] the springs of water [h] shall he guide them. 41

11 And [i] I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted. 42

12 Behold, [m] these shall come from far: and, lo, these [n] from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.[43]

13 ¶ [o] Sing, O heavens; and [p] be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, [q] O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon his afflicted.

14 [r] But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me.

15 Can a woman forget her sucking child, [s] that she should not have compassion [t] on [u] the son of her womb? yea, [v] they may forget, [w] yet will I not forget thee. 48

16 Behold, [x] I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me. 49

17 Thy children shall make haste; [y] thy destroyers and they that made thee waste shall go forth of thee. + Armageddon

18 ¶ [z] Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. [k] As I live, saith the LORD, [l] thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and [m] bind them on thee, [n] as a bride doeth.

19 For [o] thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, [p] shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that 905 49:26; 60:16. He declared that there is no Savior besides Him Isa. 43:11; 45:21; and also that He would manifest Himself as Redeemer (next of kin) to Israel; and through a savior. Isa. 19:20 and saviour. Obad. 21.

● In the N.T. the title is applied to God the Father. Luke 1:47; 1 Tim. 1:1; 2:3; 4:10. This last statement declares that He is Savior to all (and not exclusively Israel). Cp also Isa. Titus 1:3,4; 2:10; 3:4; Jude 25. ● Jesus was elevated as Yahweh servant or prince of salvation Acts 5:31; 13:23; 1 Thes. 4:14 Rom. 8:3; 2 Cor. 5:19; 1 Tim. 1:15. That his name Matt. 1:21 John 3:16, and title Luke 2:11; John 4:42; 2 Tim. 1:10; Tit. 1:4; 2:13; 3:6. To Titus Paul links both God and Christ as Savior. (See references) – one manifested through the other. Peter joins Christ's title of Lord with that of Savior. He is the Savior if we recognize God manifested in him, and submit to his authority. See 2 Pet. 1:11; 2:20; 3:2; 3:18.

● As Savior both Yahweh and Jesus' relationship as Redeemer is declared. He is the Savior of the Body 4:23; 5:23 and he is coming to complete the process 1 Cor. 1:7; 5:5; Phil. 3:20; 1 Thes. 1:10; 5:9; 2 Tim. 4:8; Titus 2:13; Heb. 9:28; 1 Pet. 1:5; 2 Pet. 3:12; 1 John 4:14; Jude 21; Rev. 22:20. It is significant that the title is applied more to Yahweh than to Jesus.

YÂSHA' – SAVIOUR. V. 26

Used for Yahweh 2 Sam. 22:3; Ps. 106:21 Jer. 14:8 "No Savior besides Yahweh" – Hos. 13:4. It is Isaiah who uses the title more than any other writer, as is appropriate in view of his name. YESHA'YÂHUW (in the book, but YESHA'YÂH as title) – Yahweh will save. from YÂSHA': He is the Holy One Isa. 43:3; apart from Whom there is no Savior v. 11; Who must be sought Isa. 45:15, 22; the Redeemer Isa.

CHAPTER 50 — An exhortation to trust in God.

CHAPTER 50 — 2 THE WILLING SUB-MISSION OF YAHWEH'S MESSIAH — 1 THE REBELLION OF ISRAEL Vv. 1-3

CHAPTER 50.

1 Christ sheweth that the dereliction of the Jews is not to be imputed to him, by his ability to save, 5 by his obedience in that work, 7 and by his confidence in that assistance. 10 An exhortation to trust in God, and not in ourselves.

THUS saith the LORD, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away.

2 Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst.

3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.

4 The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

5 The Lord GOD hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back.

6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting.

7 For the Lord GOD will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed.

8 He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine adversary? let him come near to me.

9 Behold, the Lord GOD will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? lo, they all shall wax old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up.

10 Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the name of the LORD, and stay upon his God.

11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

Israel was selected as a servant nation Isa. 42:19; 49:21 but did not remain obedient. Christ was the ideal Israelite. Jn 4:34

1 For marriage relationship between Israel & Yahweh, see Isa. 62:5; 54:5; Jer. 3:14; Eze. 16

2 He had not so acted towards Israel therefore no such bill could be found. The nation was without excuse for its waywardness.

3 Under the Law an impoverished parent could relieve himself by selling his children Exod 21:7; Neh. 5:5. Yahweh had not hired of Israel and divorced her; nor had He lacked the means of help.

4 This relates to AD 70 when Israel "cast off" Rom. 11:15.

5 Yahweh came in the person of His son, following His prophets.

6 There was a lack of response. Isa. 65:12; 66:4; Hos. 5:4,7; Zeph. 1:4; 3:2,7

7 That is one of His titles Isa. 49:7; 54:5 - was through redemption from Egypt that the nation came into existence Isa. 63:9. Here, however, the word is not GOEL, but PEDUTH and signifies "division" Exod 8:23.

8 NATSAL - To snatch away

9 Remember the past and apply it to the present Cp Christ's appeal Matt. 23:37

10 The Nile was a symbol of Egyptian political power. In the first plague - the river became as a wilderness - unproductive of life Exod. 7:20-21.

11 Cp Exod. 10:21. Yahweh put a division between Israel and Egypt. The former had light v. 21. But now Israel closed its eyes to the Light John 1:4,11. Cp Isa 50:10.

CHAPTER 50 — 2 THE CHARACTER OF THE MESSIAH Vv. 4-9

12 LIMMUWD - Instructed. RV: "Them that are taught." mg. "disciples." Cp Luke 4:22; 21:15; John 7:15; 8:28. His doctrine was divine stemming from the Lamb John 3:34; 8:47; 14:10; 17:8. Thus a disciple.

13 RV: "that I should know how to sustain with words him..." Matt. 11:28; 12:20

14 He was in constant communion with the Father. He did not receive visions and revelations intermittently like the prophets, for the Father "hath not left me alone" John 8:29.

20 He has alerted him to hear. LXX: "He has given me an ear to hear."

21 Ps. 40:6-8 Diff. word for opened. Cp John 6:24; 10:21; 11:37; Luke 22:42.

22 This was considered a great insult. He endured the greatest indignities.

23 Christ told His disciples that the Scriptures of the prophets (including that he should be spit upon) would be fulfilled. Luke 18:31-32. This is the only place reference is made to this. Cp Mk. 26:67.

25 To go to Jerusalem Luke 9:51 Against the leaders Matt 22:15-36; When physically tortured 1 Pet. 2:21-24.

29 Cp Luke 22:143.

30 These words from Ps 102:26 are cited Heb 1:11 and applied to the Jewish state.

CHAPTER 51 — 3 YAHWEH'S PROMISED DELIVERANCE Vv. 1-8.

1 Threefold clarion call to hearken.

FIRST HEARKEN — 1 LOOK UNTO ABRAHAM 1-3.

1 To Isaiah as type of Christ the suffering servant.

2 The true seed Cp. Rom. 4:30; 2:28, Cf. Rom. 10:1-6 John 8:39-44.

3 The figure is taken from the act of quarrying stone for the purpose of building. The rough stone must be shaped according to specifications. They were to "remember this. Cp Deut. 5:11 6:20-25; 26:5; Josh. 24:2-4. Cp Eph 2:11-13.

4 The excavation from whence the stone was taken. Deut. 26:5; Jer. 24:2-4. Eph. 2:11-13.

5 Called from idolatry, a stranger pilgrim in a land of enemies. Gen 12:6. Heb. 11:8-16.

6 She received strength to conceive Heb. 11:11. Cp 1 Pet. 3:5-6.

7 He will do the same for us though we be lonely, isolated, and surrounded with enemies. This is also Israel's assurance + guarantee.

8 One lonely pilgrim became a numerous nation - so waste lands can be made productive and fertile. Cp Isa. 12:1; 40:11-2; 49:13; 54:6-8; 66:10-14 Jer. 31:12-14; 25; Zeph. 3:14-20. Preaching of Gospel. Isa 61:1-3; 2 Cor. 1:3-4.

2 SECOND HEARKEN: THE SALVATION OFFERED Vv 4-6.

906 ed. See his faith Gen. 15:1-6; Rom 4:16-25.

In his Representative position, Christ represents both Yahweh - as the "Arm of Yahweh" V.5. and the people - as Advocate before the throne of Grace V.9. Thus Yahweh's reply to the appeal is through the Lord V.16. Cp 53:1

5 @My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and [c]mine arms shall judge the people; [f]the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they trust.

6 [g]Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for @the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and [m]the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die [p]in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

7 ¶ [s]Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; [x]fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.

8 For @the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation.

9 ¶ [t]Awake, awake, [y]put on strength, [k]O arm of the LORD; awake, as [l]in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it [5][m]that hath cut [n]Rahab, and wounded [o]the dragon? - Cp Isa. 27:1. Cp 52:9. 63:11-13.

10 Art thou not it which hath [p]dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for [q]the ransomed to pass over?

11 [r]Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away. Cp Isa. 40:1

12 I, even I, am [u]he that comforteth you: [z]who art thou, that thou shouldest [5]be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made [b]as grass; - Isa. 37:27; 40:6-8

13 And [d]forgettest the LORD [s]thy maker, [v]that hath stretched forth the heavens, and [h]laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of [i]the oppressor, as if he [2]were ready to destroy? and [n]where is the fury of the oppressor?

14 [o]The captive [11]exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and [q]that he should not die [r]in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

15 But I am the LORD thy God, [t]that [u]divided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name.

16 And [z]I have put my words in thy mouth, and I @have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and [c]lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, [d]Thou art my people.

17 ¶ [e]Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD [f]the cup of his fury; [7][g]thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out.

18 There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up. - Isa. 15:14.

19 These two things [3]are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and [4]destruction, and the famine, and the sword: [23][z]by whom shall I comfort thee?

20 [f]Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God.

21 ¶ Therefore [v]hear now this, [a]thou afflicted, and @drunken, but not with wine: Cp V.17 note.

22 Thus saith thy Lord the LORD, and [w]thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:

23 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

52 1 Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean.

2 Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.

3 For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and ye shall be redeemed without money.

4 For thus saith the Lord GOD, My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there; and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause.

5 Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is blasphemed.

6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.

7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!

8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

9 Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

11 Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD.

12 For ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rereward.

13 Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, and be very high.

14 As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men:

15 So shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.

53 1 Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4 Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth.

8 He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.

12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

54 1 Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.

2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;

3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.

5 For thy maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy redeemer the Holy One of Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called.

6 For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God.

7 For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will I gather thee.

8 In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer.

9 For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth with thee, nor rebuke thee.

10 For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD that hath mercy on thee.

11 O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, and lay thy foundations with sapphires.

12 And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders of pleasant stones.

13 And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of thy children.

14 In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression, for thou shalt not fear: and from terror, for it shall not come near thee.

15 Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.

16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

17 No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.

55 1 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.

2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.

3 Incline your ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.

4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a leader and commander to the people.

5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee.

6 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near:

7 Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.

8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.

10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

56 1 Thus saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil.

3 Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant;

5 Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

7 Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house of prayer for all people.

8 The Lord GOD which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, besides those that are gathered unto him.

9 All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest.

10 His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter.

12 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and to morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

57 1 The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come.

2 He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness.

3 But draw near hither, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood,

5 Enflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree, slaying the children in the valleys under the clefts of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it.

9 And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

12 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

13 When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall take them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain;

14 And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart.

18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts unto him and to his mourners.

19 I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt.

21 There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked.

58 1 Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.

3 Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast you find pleasure, and exact all your labours.

4 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?

8 Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD shall be thy rereward.

9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity;

10 And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noonday:

11 And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.

12 And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 If thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words:

14 Then shalt thou delight thyself in the LORD; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

59 1 Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke.

18 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence.

19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

20 And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD, My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

60 1 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nourished at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebajoth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy children from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

20 Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

61 1 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

4 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

6 But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall you boast yourselves.

7 For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

62 1 For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

2 And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzibah, and thy land Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

6 I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence,

7 And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

10 Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

12 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken.

63 1 Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?

3 I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 That led them through the deep, as a horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, and the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name.

15 Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

17 O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy name.

64 1 Oh that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence,

2 As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.

9 Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

11 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned up with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste.

12 Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

65 1 I am sought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my name.

2 I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;

3 A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick;

4 Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, which eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

5 Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom,

7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

8 Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

10 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

11 But ye are they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that troop, and that furnish the drink offering unto that number.

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name:

16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

17 For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.

21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

66 1 Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

3 He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

signifies "in like manner" for, in the day of his humiliation many were shocked at his appearance and degradation, so in the day of glory many shall applaud his majesty. His humiliation which shocked many was necessary in order that he might "sprinkle" many nations.

Note the contrast. "many" are shocked at his humiliation, "many" are struck dumb at his glorious appearance — Also "many" are sprinkled by him, many are struck dumb by his glory.

¶ In all places where the Heb. "nazâ" is used it is rendered "sprinkle" and not as RSV or R.V. Blood was sprinkled to cleanse, in the sense of expiating sin Lev. 16:27; 16:14; Heb. 9:19 See 5:9

16 Paul's thrusts of greater prominence. Paul = "them" applies it to the Apostles. John, Christ Apostles fulfilled this in part. Elijah and others typified "the feet" will do so in future. Mal 4:5. For "feet" see Zech. 14:4. They are bearers of grace.

1 Consider! Take heed. The mind is directed to the Messiah. Israel elevated thru "Prosper" see margin. to Gesenius, Lowth etc. the prophet sets his attention on the ultimate glorification of Messiah. Then and sustains him in the face of Messiah's humiliation.

3 For servant character see Heb. 10:7. Devotion to service Ps. 40:6 Elevation Acts 5:30-31 Phil. 2:9, 10, 11 Rev. 3:21 This exaltation is yet to be manifest in Earth.

WHO hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?
2 For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.
3 He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.
4 Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.
5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.
6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.
7 He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.
8 He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.
9 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.
10 Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.
11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.
12 Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

HOPE FOR THE DESOLATE

1 The prophet, for the comfort of the Gentiles, prophesieth the amplitude of their church, 4 their safety, &c.

SING, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD.
2 Enlarge the place of thy tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes;
3 For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.
4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget the shame of thy youth, and shalt not remember the reproach of thy widowhood any more.
5 For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer

THE BARREN SHALL BEAR – Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, Hannah, Manoah, Elizabeth were all "barren" – but they bore children who played a great part in the development of the Divine purpose. Christ, himself, was born of a virgin. The barren will be made to bear through the redemptive work of Yahweh's servant as described in Isa 53.

20. Here is progression – "ways" "thoughts" cf. 2 Cor. 10:5. Not merely in word must we return, but in deed and in thought.
21. Yahweh's thoughts and ways are completely different to those of flesh, thus there must be a forsaking of the latter and an embracing of the former. cp. PHIL 2:5.
11. Yahweh's thoughts are not merely different to flesh, but higher, on a different plane entirely. But how can we think the thoughts of Yahweh or follow His ways, but through His word. JN 6:63
13. It does return as Scripture reveals. Is. 55:7. Jer. 10:13. 51:16.
24 = "except it."
25. Note how Paul links this with righteousness. 2 Cor. 9:10.
26. The redemption of Israel is a token of the power of the Word... The preservation of the Seed shows power of the Word to accomplish that which it promises.
"Go out" = "Go forth" i.e. from wanderings.
27. Jer. 33:6-9.
28. Not merely literal see Heb. 6:7-8.
29. Olahm – Sign of the Hidden Period. Then will be realised value of the Water, Wine and Milk of Yahweh's offering.

CHAPTER 56.

YAHWEH'S OFFER TO THE RIGHTEOUS Ve 1-9.

1 THE BLESSEDNESS OF THE RIGHTEOUS Ve 1-2

1 The prophet exhorteth to sanctification. 3 He promiseth it shall be general without respect of persons. 9 He inveigheth against blind watchmen.

THUS saith the LORD, Keep ye (a) judgment, and do justice: for (b) my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed. – Rom. 1:16-17. 3:25-26.

2 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; (d) that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil. 6

3 ¶ Neither let [b] the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly [7] separated me from his people: neither let [c] the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree. 9

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant; 10

5 Even unto them will I give in (e) mine house and within my walls [12a] a place and (f) a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name // that shall not be cut off.

6 Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant;

7 (h) Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: [p] their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for [q] mine house shall be called an house of prayer (i) for all people.

8 The Lord GOD which gathereth (r) the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet (s) will I gather others to him, [3] beside those that are gathered unto him. 16 17

9 ¶ All ye beasts of the field, come [18] to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest. 19

10 His [s] watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb [a] dogs, they 20 cannot bark; [5] sleeping, [4] lying down, loving to slumber.

11 Yea, they are (k) greedy dogs which (l) can never have enough, and they are [c] shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, (c) every

THE SERVANT OF YAHWEH.

Though "the servant" himself speaks in Isa 61:1-3 the prophecy speaks of servants rather than servant Isa 54:17; 56:6; 63:17; 65:8-9; 66:13-15; 66:14. The development is expressed as a contracting and enlarging pyramid:

ISRAEL = ALL Isa 41:8-9.
THE FAITHFUL MINORITY } Isa 42:19 44:1,2,21,26.
CHRIST 49:3-7 50:10; 52:13; 53:11.
His Faithful Followers Isa 61:6 (See Rejoicing)
ISRAEL REDEEMED Isa 60:21

In Ch. 42. the incomparable majesty of Yahweh is set forth, for all to see in His servant. He is described as one of lofty character, unfailing perseverance – a manifestation of the Father seeking Yahweh's work of redemption thereby. The theme of the servant begins with Israel as a nation; is reduced to a remnant; then concentrated in the Messiah who is the second David, calls forth the second Israel, the Redeemed to restore the nation. A rising pyramid at whose base, apex is the Savior.

one for his gain, from his quarter.

12 [b] Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and [c] to morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

CHAPTER 57.

1 The blessed death of the righteous. 3 God reproveth the Jews for their whorish idolatry. 13 He giveth evangelical promises to the penitent.

THE righteous perisheth, and no man [a] layeth it to heart: and [c] merciful men are taken away, none considering [1] that the righteous is taken away [2] from the evil to come.

2 He shall [c] enter into peace: they shall rest in their [d] beds, each one walking [e] in his [f] uprightness.

3 ¶ But draw near hither, ye sons of [g] the sorceress, [h] the seed of the adulterer and the whore.

4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, [i] a seed of falsehood,

5 Enflaming yourselves [k] with idols [l] under every green tree, [m] slaying the children in the valleys under the clifts of the rocks?

6 Among the smooth stones of the stream is thy portion; they, they are thy lot: even to them hast thou poured a drink offering, thou hast offered a meat offering. Should I receive comfort in these?

7 [n] Upon a lofty and high mountain hast thou set [o] thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice.

8 Behind the doors also and the posts hast thou set up thy remembrance: for [p] thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and [q] made thee a covenant with them; [r] thou lovedst their bed [s] where thou sawest it.

9 And [t] thou wentest to the king with ointment, and didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell.

10 Thou art wearied in the greatness of thy way; yet [u] saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the [4] life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

11 And [v] of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that [w] thou hast lied, and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? [x] have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not?

12 I will declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee.

13 ¶ When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but [y] he that putteth his trust in me [z] shall possess the land, and shall inherit [a] my holy mountain;

14 And shall say, [b] Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.

15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, [c] whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and [d] holy place, [e] with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, [f] to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

16 [g] For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made.

17 For the iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on [5] frowardly in the way of his heart.

CHAPTER 58.

3 The prophet describeth a counterfeit fast and a true one. 8 The promises due unto godliness, 13 and to the keeping of the sabbath.

In view of Ch. 57:18-21.

CRY [h] aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; [i] they take delight in approaching to God.

3 ¶ [j] Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we [k] afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and [l] exact all your [m] labours.

4 Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: [n] ye shall not fast as ye do this day, [o] to make your voice to be heard on high.

5 Is it such a fast that I have chosen? [p] a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as [q] a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

They found a pleasure in their religious services, but afforded none to Yahweh: "Lo! in the day of your fast ye take pleasure, but all your toilers ye drive on!" - Roth.

There was ungodly contention and competition in their religious exercises. Prov. 21:27. Mt. 6:16. 23:14. Cp Phil. 3:18 for their legalistic approach.

They had violent thoughts and feelings towards their fellows.

If you want your voice to be heard on high you must not fast like this.

Do you imagine that this is the fast that I have chosen?. Is this the form of affliction - simply to bow the head as unthinkingly the bulrush does before the wind!

6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen? [r] to loose [s] the bands of wickedness, [t] to undo [u] the heavy burdens, and [v] to let the [w] oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

7 Is it not [x] to deal thy bread to the hungry, and [y] that thou bring the poor that are [z] cast out [a] to thy house? [b] when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from [c] thine own flesh?

8 ¶ [d] Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine [e] health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD [f] shall be thy rereward. Exod. 15:26. Isa. 57:18. Jer. 8:6. Hos. 6:2; 14:4. Cp Prov. Mt. 11:28

9 Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, [g] the putting forth of the finger, and [h] speaking vanity;

10 And if thou [i] draw out thy soul [k] to the hungry, and [l] satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day: changed.

11 And the LORD shall guide thee [m] continually, and satisfy thy soul in [n] drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be [o] like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters [p] fail not. A future generation

12 And they that [q] shall be of thee [r] shall build the old [s] waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, [t] The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

13 ¶ If [u] thou turn away thy foot from the sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath [v] a delight, the holy of the LORD, honourable; and shalt honour him, not doing [w] thine own ways, nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words:

CHAPTER 59.

1 The damnable nature of sin. 3 The sins of the Jews. 9 Calamity is for sin. 16 Salvation is only of God. 20 The covenant of the Redeemer.

BEHOLD, the LORD's hand [1] is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins [2] have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.

3 For [m] your hands [n] are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips [o] have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.

4 None calleth for justice, nor any [p] pleadeth for truth: they trust [q] in vanity, and speak lies; [r] they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.

5 They hatch [s] cockatrice' eggs, and weave [t] the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and [u] that which is crushed breaketh out into [v] a viper.

6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.

7 [w] Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and [x] destruction are in their paths.

8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no [y] judgment in their [z] goings: [a] they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.

9 ¶ Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: [b] we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.

10 [c] We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.

11 We roar all like bears, and [d] mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, [e] we know them:

13 In transgressing and lying against the LORD, and [f] departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and [g] uttering [3] from the heart words of falsehood.

14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and [h] equity cannot enter.

15 Yea, truth [i] faileth; and he that departeth from evil [k] maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and [4] it displeased him that there was no judgment.

16 ¶ And [l] he saw that there was no man, and [m] wondered that there was no [n] intercessor: [o] therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.

17 For [p] he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of [q] vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloke.

18 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence.

19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

20 And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

21 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD, My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

CHAPTER 60.

1 The glory of the Church. 4 The conversion of the Gentiles. 8 The return of the dispersed. 13 The beauty of the Church. 15 The felicity of the Church. 19 The glory of God.

ARISE, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.

5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.

6 The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they shall show forth the praises of the LORD.

7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebajoth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory.

8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?

9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy children from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.

10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee.

11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought.

12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bowing unto thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness.

18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.

19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

20 Thy sun shall no more go down; neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

21 Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.

22 A little one shall become a thousand, and a small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

CHAPTER 61.

1 The preaching of the gospel. 4 The restoration of the Church. 8 The covenant of the Redeemer. 10 The joy of the Church.

THE spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;

2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;

3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

4 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

6 But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory shall you boast yourselves.

7 For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be unto them.

8 For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.

9 And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD hath blessed.

10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

CHAPTER 62.

1 The glory of the Church. 6 The prayer of the Church. 10 The return of the captives.

FOR Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

2 And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God.

4 Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzibah, and thy land Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee.

6 I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence,

7 And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness.

10 Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

12 And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken.

CHAPTER 63.

1 The vengeance of God against his enemies. 7 The mercies of God to his people. 15 The prayer of the Church.

WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah, this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?

3 I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 That led them through the deep, as a horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, and the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name.

15 Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

17 O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

18 The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little: our adversaries have trodden down thy sanctuary.

19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy name.

CHAPTER 64.

1 The prayer of the Church. 5 The confession of sin. 8 The mercy of God.

OH that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence,

2 As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away.

7 And there is none that calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand.

9 Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people.

10 Thy holy cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.

11 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, is burned up with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste.

12 Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

CHAPTER 65.

1 The calling of the Gentiles. 8 The remnant of Israel. 11 The destruction of the wicked. 17 The new heavens and the new earth.

I AM sought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my name.

2 I have spread out my hands all the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts;

3 A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick;

4 Which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments, which eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels;

5 Which say, Stand by thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day.

6 Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom,

7 Your iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore will I measure their former work into their bosom.

8 Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not, for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' sakes, that I may not destroy them all.

9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains: and mine elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.

10 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.

11 But ye are they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that troop, and that furnish the drink offering unto that number.

12 Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted not.

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be ashamed:

14 Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of spirit.

15 And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, and call his servants by another name:

16 That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from mine eyes.

17 For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.

18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.

19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, nor the voice of crying.

20 There shall no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner being an hundred years old shall be accursed.

21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.

22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.

23 They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them.

24 And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.

25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 66.

1 The vanity of outward worship. 5 The calling of the Gentiles. 7 The fruitfulness of Zion. 15 The coming of the Lord. 18 The glory of the Gospel.

THUS saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest?

2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word.

3 He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations.

4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcases of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

CHAPTER 62.

1 The fervent desire of the prophet to confirm the church in God's promises. 5 The office of the ministers (unto which they are incited) in preaching the gospel, 10 and preparing the people thereto.

FOR [1] Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until [m] the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth.

2 And [n] the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and @all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by [o] a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name.

3 Thou shalt also be @a crown of glory [p] in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem [q] in the hand of thy God.

4 @Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed [r] Desolate: but thou shalt be called @Hephzi-bah and thy land @Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married.

5 ¶ For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and [s] as [t] the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so @shall thy God rejoice over thee.

6 I have set @watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: @ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence, — Ps. 122:6.

7 And give him no @rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem @a praise in the earth. — Gp Notes Isa. 60 p. 916.

8 The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured:

9 But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it @in the courts of my holiness.

10 ¶ Go through, go through the gates; [v] prepare ye the way of the people; [w] cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; [x] lift up a standard for the people.

11 Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, @Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; [y] behold, his reward is with him, and his [z] work before him. Gp Notes Isa. 40 note.

12 And [a] they shall call them, [b] The holy people, [c] The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, @A city not forsaken.

THE CONQUEROR OF EDOM. VV. 1-6.

1 Christ sheweth who he is, 2 what his victory over his enemies, 7 and what his mercy toward his church. 10 In his just wrath he remembereth his free mercy. 15 The church in their prayer, 17 and complaint, profess their faith.

WHO is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save.

2 Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat?

3 I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment.

4 For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come.

5 And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me.

6 And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth.

7 ¶ I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.

8 For he said, Surely they are my people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour.

ISAIAH 63. — Israel's rebellion.

9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare them, and carried them all the days of old.

10 ¶ But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them.

11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit within him?

12 That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name?

13 That led them through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble?

14 As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, to make thyself a glorious name.

15 ¶ Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels and of thy mercies toward me? are they restrained?

16 Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, our redeemer; thy name is from everlasting.

17 ¶ O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance.

19 We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy name.

CHAPTER 64.

1 The church prayeth for the illustration of God's power. 5 Celebrating God's mercy, it maketh confession of their natural corruptions. 9 It complaineth of their affliction.

OH that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that [n] the mountains might flow down at thy presence,

2 As when [o] the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations may tremble at thy presence!

3 When [p] thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence.

4 For since the beginning of the world [q] men have not heard, nor [r] perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye [s] seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him.

5 Thou [t] meetest him that rejoiceth and [u] worketh righteousness, those that remember thee in [v] thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: [w] in those is continuance, and we shall be saved.

6 But we are all as [x] an unclean thing, and [y] all our righteousnesses are [z] as filthy rags; and [a] we all [b] do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have [c] taken us away.

7 And there is none that [d] calleth upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for [e] thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast [f] consumed us, [g] because of our iniquities.

8 But now, O LORD, thou art our father; [h] we are the clay, and [i] thou our potter; and [k] we all are the work of thy hand.

9 ¶ Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, [l] neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, [m] we are all thy people.

CHAPTER 66.

The glorious God will be served in humble sincerity. 5 He comforteth the humble with the marvellous generation, 10 and with the gracious benefits of the church. 15 God's severe judgments against the wicked. 19 The Gentiles shall have an holy church.

THUS saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest? 2 For all those things hath mine hand made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word. 3 He that killeth an ox is as if he slew a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations. 4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.

5 Hear the word of the LORD, ye that tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed.

6 A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies.

7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child.

8 Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.

9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.

10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her:

11 That ye may suck, and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.

12 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream: then shall ye suck, ye shall be borne upon her sides, and be dandled upon her knees.

13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.

14 And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and his indignation toward his enemies.

15 For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire.

16 For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the slain of the LORD shall be many.

17 They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall be consumed together, saith the LORD.

18 For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory.

19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the Gentiles.

20 And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD.

21 And I will also take of them for priests and for Levites, saith the LORD.

22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, saith the LORD, so shall your seed and your name remain.

23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD.

24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcases of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

JEREMIAH'S TIMES

"It was Jeremiah's lot to prophesy at a time when all things in Judah were rushing down to the final and mournful catastrophe, when political excitement was at its height, when the worst passions swayed the various parties; and the most fatal counsels prevailed .... to see his own people whom he loved with the tenderness of a woman, plunging over the precipice into the wide, yet terrifying ruin" — Dr. moorehead.

CENTRAL THEME "I will punish - I will restore. Whilst failure through sin, there shall be final triumph through the love of God. Though there is wrath to the full there is

He entered into the feelings of both Yahweh and the people. His sympathy with the people was such that he could almost plead against the threatened chastisement as too severe (Ch. 4:10, 19, 20. 10:23-25. 14:7-9, 19-22). But there come a change as he found the people refused to repond. He found them stubborn, he suffered their derisive mockery, discovers their

JEREMIAH: MAN OF SORROWS AND ACQUAINTED WITH GRIEF

THE PROPHET

Unlike most of the prophets, Jeremiah introduces himself. • He was a priest by birth 1:1. • He was called to his ministry at an early age 1:6, but was reluctant to take the service, pleading his youth, inexperience & deficiency of speech as an excuse 1:6. • In answer he was told that he was marked out before birth 1:5. • He then officially received the Divine appointment, authority and commission 1:9-10. • The ministry was a difficult one. He had to proclaim a stern message of rebuke and warning, one that cost this tender-hearted and truly patriotic man of God much sorrow and many tears 9:1; 13:17; 14:17; Lam. 2:11, and wrung his heart. • Whereas Isaiah prophesied of the suffering servant of Yahweh, Jeremiah fellowshipped his sufferings. He lacked the comfort of a wife, for he was commanded not to marry 16:1-2. He received bitter opposition from the people. His own family 12:6, and his home-town acquaintances 11:18-23 conspired against him. The people of Jerusalem rejected his message 18:18. He was taken into custody, beaten, and placed into stocks 20:1-3. Released, he was assaulted and almost killed 26. He was imprisoned several times 37:11-15; 38. On the fall of Jerusalem, he was released by Nebuchadnezzar, and given choice of staying in the land, or of an honored position in exile. He remained to assist the new governor, but on the assassination of Gedaliah by Ishmael 41:1-4, he was compelled against his will to accompany the refugees to ~~Jerusalem~~ Egypt. • Tradition says that he met his death there by stoning after a ministry of forty years.

THE BOOK "Thus saith Yahweh" occurs 420 times

• See Notes Ch.1. p. 933 etc. The book is a combination of history, biography, and prophecy; but it is not written in chronological order. Among other things in that:
• It records that the Ark will have no place in restored Israel 3:16.
• It uses the phrase: "rising up early and speaking" some 11 times 7:13, 25; 11:7; 25:3, 4; 26:5; 29:19; 32:33; 35:14, 15; 44:4 though it is only used once outside of Jeremiah 2 Chr. 36:15. written after Jeremiah.
• It refers to impending judgment as "the time of visitation 8:12; 10:15; 11:23; 23:12; 46:21; 48:44; 50:27; 51:18. Jeremiah was as Yahweh's priest inspecting the leprous house of Israel Lev. 14:34-38.
• Dramatic terms are used constantly. "Forsake" and "forsaken" occur 24 times, "backsliding" or "backslider" 13 times; "return" 47 times.
• It is a book of outstanding exhortation: warning against forsaking a fountain for a broken cistern 2:13; against mere external reformation 2:22; false claims of peace 6:14; appeal to return to the old paths 6:16. Lost opportunities 8:20; What to glory in 9:24; need of regeneration 11:13; Yahweh a stranger 14:8; Premature decay 15:9; the word absorbed by Jeremiah 15:16; its power 23:29; condition of heart by nature 17:9; Yahweh Tzidkenu 23:6; conversion of Israel 24:7; 31:31-34; Yahweh's appeal 31:3; 44:4.
• It draws on unusual expressions: "the generation of his wrath" 7:29; their shameless sin described as "neither could they blush" 6:15; 8:12.
• Note the prophet's prayers: 1:6; 4:10; 12:1-4; 14:7-8; 44:11, 25; 15; 17:13-18; 18:13-18; 20:7; 32:16-25.

DIVINELY INSPIRED 9-10

This was evidently a vision.

9 Then [i] the LORD put forth his hand, and [k] touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, [l] I have put my words in thy mouth.

10 See, I have this day set thee [m] over the nations and over the kingdoms, [n] to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

To proclaim with authority Yahweh's destiny in relation to them.

THE SIGN OF THE ALMOND ROD Vs 11-12

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see [o] a rod of an almond tree.

12 Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

Heb. Shaked – "The watcher" So called from its early blossom as being the first of the trees to wake from the sleep of winter.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see [q] a seething [r] pot; and the face thereof is [s] toward [t] the north.

Heb. Shoked – a play on words. Lit. keeping watch am I over my word "(Roth) This was a grim message for Josiah confirming that of Huldah. 2 Kings 22:15-17.

To prophesy – to blow Yahweh's bellows – bringing it to the boil.

THE SIGN OF THE SEETHING POT Vs 13-16

14 Then the LORD said unto me, [u] Out of the north an evil [s] shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.

15 For, lo, I will call [a] all the families of the kingdoms [v] of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and [b] they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.

16 And [d] I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

Babylon ready to boil over on to Judah.

These two signs set the pattern of his prophecy: 1. The time at hand. 2. From the north will come destruction.

17 ¶ Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and [a] speak unto them all that I command thee: [c] be not dismayed at their faces, lest I [2] confound thee before them.

A confederacy of the north under Nebuchadnezzar Ch 25:9; 34:1.

As the symbol of power and conquest. Cp Ch 46:10. 49:38.

GET UP AND FIGHT 17-19

Cp Eph 6:12-14.

18 For, behold, I have [e] made thee this day a defenced city, and [h] an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.

19 And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

CHAPTER 2.

3 [t] Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and [u] the firstfruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, [v] What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and [w] have walked after [x] vanity, and [y] are become vain?

CHAPTER 2.

YAHWEH'S MEMORY – ISRAEL'S FORGETFULNESS Ch 2 – Ch 3:1-5.

A REVIEW OF ISRAEL'S SINS

Yahweh still loves His people – He expostulates on their ungrateful return for past goodness – shows that their wickedness has resulted in calamity – Concludes with an appeal to them to return.

ISRAEL'S EARLY PROMISE

5 A dedicated thing, of which the High Priest was the symbol Cp Exod 28:36. Jer 8:11. Marriage and priesthood are linked in Ezk 44:22. Both require separation, dedication, the husband rendering due benevolence or kindness to the bride. 1 Cor 7:3. the bride honoring the husband. 1 Pet 3:6.

Recalling the growth out of Egypt commemorated each harvest. Deut 26:1-11 note Vs 10

Like Achan who touched devoted thing. Josh 7:11, 19-21.

As firstfruits Israel belonged to Yahweh and must be either redeemed or destroyed. Exod 13:13.

degrading persecution, and that is driven by their cruel treachery to cry out that Yahweh will punish them – not in a spirit of revenge, but from a sense of outraged justice and Kindness. (Ch. 11:19-20. 18:18-23 20:10-12 32:16-23. 42:20-22)

His love for Yahweh and his fellowman resulted in the manifestation of patient perseverance in the face of the most ungrateful repudiation of his message. He bravely persisted despite the humiliation heaped on him by an unheeding people. Here was love. 1 Cor. 13:4, 7 "Every prediction of coming judgment is soaked in tears; every pleading is punctuated with sobs" (Baxter).

He was completely faithful. Though his sensitive nature shrank from the task set him, he continued it to the bitter end, feeling the pain of his message, yet determined to do the bidding of Yahweh though none should hearken Ch 11:19; Ch 7:27 intellect leads to perversion of conduct. They become false in believing, in thinking, in doing, and forbearing. Even in the midst of Josiah's reformation this vanity – induced by original false worship persisted. Error pervaded the whole life of the nation and the individual. They supposed they knew and honored Yahweh but were mistaken; they supposed they were doing His will and securing their own welfare, while they were doing and securing the exact opposite. 2:13.

12 This is the lament of the prophets. Cp Amos 2:16 Mic 6:3.

TAHPANES Jer 2:16. "In the eastern Delta, 12 m. north of Tell-el Mash Kuta, the mound known as Tell Defenneh is located on the Pelusiac branch of the Nile. Tell Defenneh is thought to mark the site of ancient Tahpanes." (Historical Geography of the Bible).

THE ENORMITY OF ISRAEL'S CONDUCT ONCE MORE STRESSED Vv 9-19.

The present generation repeats the errors of its fathers.
As he pleaded with their fathers through the prophets so he would plead with them that they might be without excuse.
27 Cilium in Cyprus to Kedar - the rough tribes of the Syrian desert - from West to East.
28 The heathen nations kept to their heathen gods - even if they did incorporate one another's worship. It was but a variation of the common superstition - but Israel had bartered Truth for Error that which was supreme value for that which was worthless.
24 Yahweh styled their Excellency Amos 8:7. They exchanged this for shame Ch 3:24 11:13.
25 Josiah headed these heavens which ultimately would be filled with fear then made desolate.
26 The teaching of Truth and its application = Fountain life Prov. 10:11 13:14 14:27. This with Yahweh Ps 36:9. He is Fountain because sustains quickens life Jer. 17:13. Cp. Ezek 4:16. Cp. Isa 2:3. ISRAEL SUFFERS BECAUSE IT TURNED FROM YAHWEH Vv 19.

27 Jeremiah at times addresses himself to whole nation because a remnant still remained in north (Jer. 31:6).

7 And I brought you into [2] a plentiful country, to eat (l) the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye (m) defiled my land, and made mine heritage an abomination.

8 The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and [e] they that handle the law knew me not: [f] the pastors also transgressed against me, and [g] the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after [h] things that do not profit.

9 ¶ Wherefore I [i] will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and [z] with your children's children will I plead. See Note V. 23

10 [j] For pass [k] over the isles of [3] Chittim, and see; and send unto [l] Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing.

11 Hath a nation changed their gods, [4] which are yet no gods? but my people [m] have changed their glory for [n] that which doth not profit. — Cp 4:5

12 Be astonished, [o] O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD.

13 For my people have committed two evils; [p] they have forsaken me [q] the fountain of [r] living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.

20 ¶ For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and thou saidst, I will not (c) transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, [c] playing the harlot.

21 Yet I had planted thee (c) a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me? Cp Deut. 32:32.

The prophet contemplates their fondness for false worship to the eagerness with which the dromedaries traverse the plain running in all directions. The impossibility of restraining those fleet animals when hurried away by the impetuous call of nature is represented as a parallel to that unbridled lust and eagerness with which Judah ran after their gratification for idolatry or spiritual adultery. 12 "And I said, After she hath Promises to 7 (a) And I said after she had done all these things, [2] Turn thou unto me. But she returned not. And her [b] treacherous [c] sister Judah saw it.

8 And I saw, [d] when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery [e] I had put her away, and given her [f] a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also.

9 And it came to pass through the [4] lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with [k] stones and with stocks.

10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me [m] with her whole heart, but [7] feignedly, saith the LORD.

11 And the LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel [p] hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah.

12 ¶ Go and proclaim these words toward [q] the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, [8] saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever.

13 "Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the [v] strangers [x] under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD.

14 Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for [c] I am married unto you: and I will take you [f] one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:

15 And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.

16 And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it [2] come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall [3] that be done any more.

17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and (a) all the nations shall be gathered unto it, (b) to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem: neither [i] shall they walk any more after the (5) imagination of their evil heart.

18 In those days [i] the house of Judah shall walk [6] with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of [n] the north to [o] the land that I have [8] given for an inheritance unto your fathers.

19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee [a] pleasant land, [2] a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, [r] Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from me.

20 ¶ Surely as a wife [s] treacherously departeth from her [t] husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith the LORD.

21 A voice was heard upon [x] the high places, weeping and (a) supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their way, and [b] they have forgotten the LORD their God.

22 [44d] Return, ye backsliding children, and I [c] will heal your [y] backslidings. Behold, we come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God.

25 We lie down in our shame, and [c] our confusion covereth us: for [d] we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, [e] from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.

CHAPTER 4.

1 God calleth Israel by his promise. 3 He exhorteth Judah to repentance. 19 A grievous lamentation.

IF thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, [f] return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then shalt thou not [g] remove.

2 [h] And thou shalt swear, [i] The LORD liveth, [k] in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and [l] the nations shall bless themselves in him, and [m] in him shall they glory.

3 ¶ For thus saith the LORD to the men of Judah and Jerusalem, [n] Break up your [o] fallow ground, and [p] sow not among thorns.

4 [q] Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem: [r] lest my fury come forth like fire, and burn that none can quench it, [s] because of the evil of your doings.

5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, [t] Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, [u] Assemble yourselves, and let us go into [v] the defenced cities.

6 [w] Set up the standard toward Zion: [x] retire, stay not: for I will bring evil from [y] the north, and a great [z] destruction.

7 [a] The lion is come up from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place [b] to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, [c] without an inhabitant.

8 For this [d] gird you with sackcloth, lament and howl: [e] for [f] the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us.

9 And it shall come to pass at that day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall [g] wonder.

10 Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! [h] surely thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, [i] saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul.

11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, [k] A dry wind of [l] the high places [m] in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, 12 Even [n] a full wind from those places shall come unto me: now also will I [o] give sentence against them.

13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be [p] as a whirlwind: his horses are [q] swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! [r] for we are spoiled.

14 O Jerusalem, [s] wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee?

15 For [t] a voice declareth [u] from Dan, and publisheth affliction from [v] mount Ephraim.

16 Make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.

they against her round about; because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD.

18 Thy way and thy doings [b] have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness, because [c] it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart.

19 ¶ [d] My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at [e] my very heart; [e] my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, [g] the sound of the trumpet, [h] the alarm of war.

20 [i] Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is spoiled: suddenly are [m] my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment.

21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear [g] the sound of the trumpet?

22 For my people is foolish, [o] they have not known me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding: [q] they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.

23 [r] I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was [s] without form, and void; and the heavens, and [t] they had no light.

24 I beheld [u] the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly.

25 I beheld, and, lo, [v] there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens [b] were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and by his [h] fierce anger.

27 For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet [l] will I not make a full end.

28 For this [o] shall the earth mourn, and [p] the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and [q] will not repent, neither will I turn back from it.

29 The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell therein.

30 And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou [f] deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy [3] face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy [k] lovers [l] will despise thee, they will seek thy life.

31 For I have heard a voice as of [u] a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter [x] of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that [y] spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul [z] is wearied because of murderers. 2 And [e] though they say, [f] The LORD liveth; [f] [g] surely [i] they swear falsely.

3 O LORD, are not [k] thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not [m] grieved; thou hast consumed them, but [n] they have refused to receive correction: [q] they have made their faces harder than a rock; [r] they have refused to return. -i.e. repent

JEREMIAH'S DEEP PERSONAL CONCERN AT THE IMPENDING DESTRUCTION Vv 19-22.

His very vitals are affected. His emotion is deep-seated. Cp. Isa. 22:4. 16:11.
His heart beats rapidly in fear — it thumps as though it could be heard.
Remain calm
Art hearkening (Heb: present tense — Expositor's Bible).
His own habitation is involved in the general calamity. For use of term see Ch. 6:20. 49:29.
"Must" — Expositor's Bible.
Refused to hearken to his message and indulged the flesh becoming selfish.
Cp Hos. 4:6. 6:6. 9:9. Isa. 5:13. Ps. 82:6. Jer. 8:9. 1 Cor. 4:20.

JUDAH TO BE COMPLETELY DESTROYED Vv 23-29.

Though the redemption of Zion is ultimately certain Ch. 31:7. Judah is warned that the current reformation would not bring it about. The primeval state of Creation Gen. 1:2. becomes the type of the impending destruction of Yahweh's national creation. Heavens and earth (Isa. 1:2) mountains and hills (Dan. 2:35) animals and birds (Jer. 12:4) are used as national symbols. Jeremiah saw the mountains tremble before the advance of the Babylonian for even such powerful nations as Egypt feared the wrath of Nebuchadnezzar.
Thus punishment supervised by the Angel of His presence. Isa. 63:9.
A remnant saved. Cp Ch. 5:10, 18. Rom. 11:5. Neh. 9:31. Cp Isa 1:2.

Vv 23-31 An Outline

"His lyric fervour enabled him to see with utmost distinctness the havoc wrought by the invaders: the surprise of cities, the looting of houses, the flight of citizens to the woods and hills at the approach of the enemy; the desertion of the country towns, the devastation of fields and vineyards, confusion and desolation everywhere, as though primeval chaos had returned; and he tells it with all the passion and intensity of one who is relating an actual personal experience" (Expos. Bible).

1. See Note Ch. 4:12. Enslaved to the empty terrors of their own imaginations, they who cowered before dumb idols stood untrembling in the awful Presence of Him whose laws restrained the ocean within due limits and kept the mighty orbs of heaven in place, upon Whose sovereign will the fruitfulness and increase of the field depended Ch. 5:21-24.

3. Being drunk with Babylonish wine and thus unable to discern the chastening of Yahweh Prov. 23:35.
4. Instruction

As he observed the seeming crowds indifferent to the ways of Yahweh, he excused them on the basis that they were the poor and foolish — not the leaders of the nation. In 5 he considers the latter to find they were no different. Cp Vv 30-31.
The debasement of standard of life among the ruling classes was a sure symptom of danger to the nation from laxity of principle among the masses.
6 Having despised their Shepherd they are given over to the jungle animals: the Lion (Babylon) for strength, the Leopard (Greece) for speed, the evening wolf for rapacity (Rome). The first slays, the second spoils, the third keeps watch — anxious to oppress. Son of these nations in Israel. See also Hos. 13:7-8. Vv 15-17. Zep. 3:6. 22.

They did not shrink behind Yahweh's reference Cp Isa. 22:14 Therefore the other shall fall.
Made Him a liar — denying that the prophets' words were Yahweh's.

37. None shall be immune.
38 The prophet saw the Babylonians sweep down through the land spoiling the cities spreading destruction and vice on every side, causing fear and panic as they approach Jerusalem Overthrown.
His eyes follow the course of devastation until it reaches the metropolis.

As she witnesses but cannot avert the slaughter of her children Zion's shrieks tell of her sorrow and echo in the ears of the prophet.
Continuous and increasing pain.
In prayer 1 Kgs. 8:22. But it is not confession of sin and a plea for pardon — but a complaint at punishment which Zion claims is unwarranted.

CHAPTER 5

JUDAH'S SINS.

PERJURY Vv 1-6.

The Apostasy had blunted the spiritual perceptions of the people. So complete, so widespread was the national decline that it seemed impossible to find one good man in the capital (the slaughter of Manasseh had reduced the population of this class 2 Kings 21:16.). In the gay crowded streets, the busy bazaars, the Temple, the gate where justice was administered there was found complete indifference, which whilst ex-

4 Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; [5] [a] they are foolish: for [b] they know not the way of the LORD, nor [b] the judgment of their God.

5 I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for [b] they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but [f] these have altogether broken the yoke, and [h] burst the bonds.

6 Wherefore [D] a lion [k] out of the forest shall slay them, and [m] a wolf of the [2] evenings shall spoil them, [n] a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings [3] [q] are increased.

7 ¶ [r] How shall I pardon thee for this? [s] thy children have forsaken me, and [t] sworn by [u] them that are no gods: [x] when I had fed them to the full, [y] they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

8 They were as fed horses in the morning: every one [b] neighed [c] after his neighbour's wife.

9 [d] Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

10 ¶ [h] Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but [a] make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD's.

11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah [k] have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

12 [m] They have belied the LORD, and said, It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; [o] neither shall we see sword nor famine:

13 And the [∧] prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done unto them.

14 Wherefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, [c] I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people [d] wood, and it shall devour them.

15 Lo, I will bring [e] a nation upon you [g] from far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, [e] a nation whose language thou knowest not, [l] neither understandest what they say.

16 Their quiver is as [o] an open sepulchre, they are all mighty men.

17 And [p] they shall eat up thine harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy [z] fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword.

18 Nevertheless in those days, saith the LORD, I [e] will not make a full end with you.

19 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, [f] Wherefore doeth the LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as [f] ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so [g] shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not your's.

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,

21 Hear now this, O [i] foolish people, and without [4] understanding; [4] which have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not:

22 [n] Fear ye not me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the [p] bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof [q] toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it?

23 But this people hath a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.

24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

25 Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from you.

26 For among my people are found wicked men: they lurk, as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men.

27 As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and waxen rich.

28 They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.

29 Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

30 A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in the land;

31 The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

CHAPTER 6.

[x] The enemies sent against Judah 4 encourage themselves. 6 God setteth them on work because of their sins. 9 The prophet lamenteth the judgments of God because of their sins. 18 He proclaimeth God's wrath. 26 He calleth the people to mourn for the judgment on their sins.

O YE children of Benjamin, [x] gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and [a] blow the trumpet in [c] Tekoa, and set up [d] a sign of fire in [g] Beth-haccerem: for evil appeareth [v] out of the north, and great destruction.

2 I have likened the daughter of Zion to a [@] comely and [h] delicate woman.

3 [k] The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.

4 [p] Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up [q] at noon. Woe unto us! for [r] the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.

5 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6 ¶ For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and [b] "cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city [z] to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.

7 [z] As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: [b] violence and [c] spoil is heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds.

8 Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest [e] my soul [t] depart from thee; lest I make thee desolate, a land [v] not inhabited.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, [k] They shall throughly glean [k] the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets.

10 [w] To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, (O) their ear is uncircumcised, and [y] they cannot hearken: behold, [q] the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it.

11 Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; [r] I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out [s] upon the children abroad,

12 And [f] their houses shall be turned unto others, with their [g] fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD.

13 For [i] from the least of them even unto the greatest of them [k] every one is given to covetousness; and [l] from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

14 They have healed also the [z] hurt [a] of the daughter of my people slightly, [b] saying, Peace, peace; when [m] there is no peace.

15 [n] Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, [o] they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: [p] therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

16 Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for [q] the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, [r] and ye shall find [s] rest for your souls. [t] But they said, We will not walk therein.

17 Also I set [u] watchmen over you, [v] saying, Hearken to the sound of [w] the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken.

18 ¶ Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.

19 [x] Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even [y] the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it.

20 [z] To what purpose cometh there to me [a] incense from [b] Sheba, and [c] the sweet cane from a far country? [d] your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD, [e] Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish.

22 Thus saith the LORD, [h] Behold, a people cometh from [k] the north country, and a great nation [m] shall be raised from the sides of the earth.

23 They shall lay hold on bow and [o] spear; they are [p] cruel, and [q] have no mercy; [r] their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion.

24 We have heard the fame thereof: [s] our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, and [t] pain, as of a woman in travail.

25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and [b] fear is on every side.

26 ¶ O daughter of my people, [d] gird thee with sackcloth, and [e] wallow thyself [f] in ashes: make thee [i] mourning, as for an only son, most [l] bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon us.

27 I have set thee for [o] a tower and [q] a fortress among my people, that thou mayest know and [r] try their way.

THE DRAMA OF THE OCCASION - The people stand in the outer court facing the court of the priests in which stood the Temple itself. Jeremiah stands facing them as visible mediator with the Temple - the Throne of Yahweh behind him. He does not congratulate them upon their manifest devotion, the generosity of their contributions, the enthusiasm of their service - his message is a shock to their self-esteem, an alarm to their slumbering conscience and confidence, a menace of wrath and destruction upon them and their holy place which they had converted into "a den of robbers" V.11. Thus this incident anticipated the dramatic entry of the Lord into the Temple as recorded Mark 11:17

A call to repentance.

THE HYPOCRISY AND FALSE CONFIDENCE OF JUDAH IN RELIGIOUS FORMALISM - to CH10.

Probably proclaimed before 2nd reform of Josiah when the people were enthusiastically contributing to rebuilding of Temple See note 2 Chron 34:9

REPAIR THE TEMPLE & YOUR LIVES! VV.1-7

1 They were enthusiastically pressing forward with contributions for the repair of Temple and worship there! Chr 34:9-10

3 Heb. Yatab = make good. Let your external enthusiasm be reflected inwardly.

They could escape threatening punishment by true reformation, but they rejected the advice and Huldah's prophecy was vindicated 2 Chron 34:24-25.

Flatter not yourselves that the formalism of the Temple will suffice in place of V.3 & Mic 3:11. Their attitude to the Temple could become a form of idolatry.

As He had placed His name they believed He would not permit evil against it and therefore they were safe. & Mat. 24:2.

4 A true reformation required. 1: They must be true & honest in attitude. 2. They must worship Yahweh alone. Cp. 2 Kgs 21:16.

THE WARNING OF SHILOH & The Temple - A den of thieves.

From false prophets who contradicted Jeremiah's warnings and promised peace. Cp Ch. 6:14, 8:11. 5:31.

7 They neglected these "weightier" things though they swore by the Temple and rested on ritualism. Cp Mat. 23:23-24.

They had the effrontery and impudence to do this. They stood before Yahweh as servants yet rejected His commands; they claimed Him as their King yet acted in rebellion to His commands; they set themselves up as His sons yet rendered Him no honor or filial affection. 11 Cp Mal. 3:8.

THE WORD OF THE LORD

1 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 [e] Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship the LORD.

3 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and [h] I will cause you to dwell in this place.

4 [i] Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, are these.

5 For if ye throughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye [o] throughly execute judgment between a man and his neighbour;

6 If ye oppress not the stranger, [r] the fatherless, and the widow, and [s] shed not innocent blood in this place, [t] neither walk after other gods to your hurt:

7 [v] Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in [b] the land [v] that I gave to your fathers, [d] for ever and ever.

8 ¶ Behold, [e] ye trust in [f] lying words, that cannot profit.

9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and [i] swear falsely, and [l] burn incense unto Baal, and [m] walk after other gods whom ye know not;

10 And come and stand before me in this house, [3] which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to do all these abominations? - See Note 5

11 Is [o] this house, which is called by my name, become [p] a den of robbers in your eyes?

A LIP-SERVICE RELIGION.

Cp V.4 with Vv. 17-18, Vv 30-31.

The sacrifices and festivals of the Temple were combined with the feasting and debauchery of Astarte and the heartless savagery of Moloch.

12 But go ye now unto [a] my place which was in [b] Shiloh, [c] where I set my name at the first, and see [d] what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.

13 And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, [g] rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and [g] I called you, but ye answered not;

14 Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh.

15 And I will cast you out of my sight, [k] as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of [l] Ephraim.

16 [m] Therefore [n] pray not thou for this people, [m] neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither [p] make intercession to me: [m] for I will not hear thee.

17 ¶ Seest thou not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?

18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, [z] to make cakes to the [zz] queen of heaven, and [a] to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, [c] that they may provoke me to anger.

19 [v] Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: [h] do they not provoke themselves [k] to the confusion of their own faces?

20 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, [n] and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.

hosts, the God of Israel; [a] Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and [d] eat flesh. 19

22 [f] For I spake not unto your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, [2] [f] concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices: 20

23 But this thing commanded I them, saying, [g] Obey my voice, and [m] I will be your God, and [n] ye shall be my people: and [n] walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that [p] it may be well unto you.

24 [q] But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but [r] walked in the counsels and [r] in the [s] imagination of their evil heart, and [3] [t] went backward, and not forward. = NO STRAIGHT STEP

25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt unto this day [u] I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them:

26 [d] Yet they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but [e] hardened their neck: [f] they did worse than their fathers.

27 Therefore [g] thou shalt speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: [h] thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee.

28 But thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, [k] nor receiveth [v] correction: [l] truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.

29 ¶ [m] Cut off thine [w] hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on [q] high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.

30 For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house [x] which is called by my name, to pollute it.

31 [b] And they have built the high places of [c] Tophet, which is in [e] the valley of the son of Hinnom, [g] to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; [h] which I [28] commanded them not, neither [3] came it into my heart.

32 ¶ [k] Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called [c] Tophet, nor [e] the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: [o] for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And [r] the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, [31] and for the beasts of the earth; [w] and none shall fray them away.

34 Then will [y] I cause to [z] cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, [z] the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, [b] the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for [c] the land shall be desolate.

CHAPTER 8.

1 The calamity of the Jews. 4 He upbraideth their foolish and shameless impenitency. 13 Their grievous judgment, 18 and desperate estate.

AT that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of [i] the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves:

2 And [o] they shall spread them before [p] the sun, and the moon, and [p] all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and [r] whom they have worshipped: [3] [s] they shall not be gathered, [t] nor be buried; [u] they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.

12 Your eyes are fixed on the Temple - to are mine. You see a national Palladium. I see a desecrated sanctuary, a shrine polluted and profaned which will destroy you.

13 It was whilst the Ark was at Shiloh that it was taken captive by Philistines. 1 Sam. 4:11. Shiloh was in Ephraim which had suffered from Assyrians — Judah could suffer a like fate, the Temple would not protect Mat 24:2.

14 From the land Jon. 1:3.

15 In the absence of wholehearted universal reformation YS intercession was useless Ch 11: 14. Ch 15:1.

SPIRITUAL ADULTERY IN THE CITY. 17-20

16 Allotr, like pulse, lie barbequed set up in the streets where the worship of Astoreth, the voluptuous goddess of love and dolt dance was practised by whole families. These were later destroyed by Josiah to the regret of many Ch. 44:17-19

This was the time worship, the cere being in that sho See. Gen. 14 note 2

17 The anger they engender in Yahweh shall rebound in punishment on their own heads.

18 Prayers and tears ceremonies and promises shall be unavailing.

YAHWEH DESIRES OBEDIENCE NOT MERELY RITUAL 21-22

19 Moffatt = "You can add your burnt offerings to your other sacrifices and eat the flesh yourselves!" In short - Keep your sacrifices! Judah did not appreciate the true significance of sacrifice which should be a token of a man offering himself. Yahweh is not pleased in sacrifice for sin alone - He desires the forsaking of sin.

20 Ie in the absence of the lesson they were designed to teach - ie the forsaking of sin.

21 Sacrifice in the absence of this unavailing.

22 They did not advance in the knowledge and love of Yahweh. They steadily retrograded in moral worth until they became hopelessly corrupt and past correction Lit. = "They became back and not face." They turned the back to Him.

23 Cp V.9. Ch. 6:13. 8:5 9:3. 12:1. Where Truth is not prized debased ideas of God and false conceptions of morality must creep in.

"And they found a copy of the Law" — 2 Kings 23.

Ch. 7:34 ... Luke 23:28-29.

Destroyed by Josiah 2 Kgs 23:10. Rabbins say derived from Toph = Drums used to drown shrieks children.

28 As though Yahweh would be pleased with this stern, vile, inhuman slaughter of His first born Exod 13:13 1 Tim. 2:14. Lev 20:2-5.

JUDAH GIVEN TO TOPHET 32-34

29 There will be no drums to drown the shrieks of dismay.

30 Gratis or nothing. It will be well known who consigned thereto.

31 Jeremiah is quoting from Deut. 28:26. the context shows they will be defeated in battle and their king taken into captivity V.76. Cp Jer 3:3

Thus Yahweh will defile Tophet with the graves of the people as did Josiah 2 Kgs 23:10.

32 No encouragement to marry when desolation and ruin surrounds them.

CHAPTER 8

1 As it was the custom of many nations to deposit wealth with the dead, it was also the habit of conquerors to break open tombs in the search of such.

2 Thus showing such gods were indifferent to their fate. Josiah attempted to destroy such worship 2 Kgs 23:5

Words are multiplied to express the extraordinary zeal of these worshippers.

4 Thus fulfilling Deut. 28:15

3 And [a] death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all [c] the places whither I have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise? shall he turn away, and not return?

5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem [f] slidden back by a perpetual [g] backsliding? [h] they hold fast deceit, [k] they refuse to return.

6 I [l] hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to [n] his course, as the horse [o] rusheth [p] into the battle.

7 Yea, [r] the [s] stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and [t] the turtle and [u] the crane and [w] the swallow observe the time of their coming; but [x] my people know not the judgment of the LORD.

8 How do ye say, We are wise, and [@] the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly [5] in vain made he it; [b] the pen of the scribes is in vain.

9 [c d] The wise men are [e] ashamed, they are dismayed and [e] taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and [7] what wisdom is in them?

10 Therefore [f] will I give their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely.

11 For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.

12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, [b] they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation [8] they shall be cast down, saith the LORD.

13 ¶ [2] I will surely consume them, saith the LORD: [d] there shall be no grapes on the vine, [e] nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.

14 Why do we sit still? [i] assemble yourselves, and [i] let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us [m] water of [3] gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD.

15 [9] We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of health, and behold trouble!

16 The snorting of his horses was heard [z] from Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of [v] his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and [4] all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein.

17 For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will not be [c] charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD.

18 ¶ When I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint [8] in me.

19 Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people [9] because of them that dwell in [0] a far country: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her king in her? Why have they [k] provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities?

1 Thus he wept over Jerusalem as did the Lord. LUKE 19:41.

JEREMIAH'S GRIEF 1-3

HE WOULD PREFER ISOLATION

Jeremiah's prayer VII-1 followed by Yahweh's answer Vv. 4-6.

2 An isolated place for passing travellers where they would come and go over night.

3 Cp James 4:4. This was also Christ's lament Mth 16:4

4 See similar prophecy relating to Christ Ps. 64:2-4. Cp V.8

THE NATION WALLOWS IN DECEIT Vv4-8.

The nation had sunk so low morally that deceit was rampant, the closest relations trying to overreach one another.

5 Deceive one another with the object of overreaching them. Note Mg.S. Roth "dupe" i.e. make a fool of them.

6 This has become habitual.

7 So continuously is it practised.

8 His presence among them - their reactions to his message revealed their true character.

9 It blinded their eyes to the fact of sin.

10 By casting them in to the furnace of affliction. Isa 1:25. Jer. 6:29, 30

11 All other means have proved ineffectual.

5 As warned. Deut 28:64. The impenitency of the people. 19 Inspection. The house of Judah was leprous - the priests Jeremiah had inspected it, so it is to be cast down in accordance with the terms Cp Lev 14:44-45.

26 Poppy-Water or fire on water. Rush-head of a plant. Israel had grown the plant Deut 29:18. 32:32 and now must drink the water Cp Jer. 9:15. 23:15.

27 They listened to the false prophets that promised peace and health.

28 From the north comes judgment Cp Vv6

29 It is all laid waste by the marauding Chaldeans.

Adders. The Babylonians will not be bought off.

"Sorrow is upon me past my remedying; my heart within me is faint" (Blayney). He keenly feels the wickedness of the people and the hopelessness of their cause.

Roth: "Lo the voice of the cry for help of the daughter of my people from a land far away"

The people blind to the cause of their troubles. See similar question by Gideon Jud 6:13. The condition of the people shows that a preliminary captivity takes place.

30 The complaining voice of the people in the siege. The false prophets promised the peace Cp Ch 28 Jerusalem was besieged in the winter of the year but not taken until the end of the next summer Jer. 52.

THE STUPIDITY OF JUDAH'S APOSTASY Vv4-12.

6 If men fall to the ground do they not try to recover? 7 If a traveller turn out of the right way will he not turn back when apprised of the fact? 8 The wrong way.

Yahweh represents Himself as patiently waiting for some genuine sign of real reform on the part of the nation

9 All the eagerness, heedlessness and recklessness of sin

All living creatures are subject to laws upon which their wellbeing depends - as winter approaches, these birds detect it, and seek warmer climate.

Understand neither their duty nor happiness, apprehend not the meaning of Yahweh's mercy or judgment nor how to adjust themselves to either, or how to survive!

This was their boast Ch 18:18

For any use they make of it.

= false. The Scribe not only wrote but interpreted as did Ezra who is styled a scribe Ezra 7:6. Neh 8:1-13 their pen was a lying pen (See mg). Thus Jeremiah's rebuke anticipated that of the Lord Cp Mat 15:6.

Are shown to be fools for the very judgments they ignored will overtake them.

So Deuteronomy is again fulfilled Ch. 28:30

See Notes Ch. 6:13-15 where these words repeated.

CHAPTER 9.

VV. 1-2. Jeremiah would prefer isolation & the hospitality of stranger than endure the rebelliousness of the people toward Yahweh & the nation's drift to ruin.

Jeremiah lamenteth their manifold sins.

22 Is there no [d]balm in Gilead; is there no [e]physician there?
why then is not the health of the daughter of my people [f]recovered?

CHAPTER 9.

1 Jeremiah lamenteth the Jews for their manifold sins, 9 and for their judgment. 12 Disobedience is the cause of their bitter calamity. 17 He exhorteth to mourn for their destruction, 23 and to trust not in themselves, but in God. 25 He threateneth both Jews and Gentiles.

1 [g]OH [h]that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!
2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them!
for [i]they be all adulterers,
an assembly of treacherous men.
3 And [j]they bend their tongues like their bow for lies:
but [k]they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to evil, and [l]they know not me, saith the LORD.
4 [m]Take ye heed every one of his [n]neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly [o]supplant, and every neighbour [p]will walk with slanders.
5 And they will [q]deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, and weary themselves [r]to commit iniquity.
6 Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; [s]through deceit they refuse to know me, saith the LORD.
7 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will [t]melt them, and try them; for [u]how shall I do for the daughter of my people?
8 [v]Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; [w]it speaketh deceit:
one [x]speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but [y]in heart he layeth [z]his wait.
9 ¶ [a]Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?
10 For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and [b]for the [c]habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are [d]burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; [e]both [f]the fowl of the heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone.
11 And I will make Jerusalem
[g]heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities of Judah [h]desolate, without an inhabitant.
12 ¶ [i]Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and [j]is burned up like a wilderness, that none passeth through?
13 And the LORD saith, Because they [k]have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice,
neither walked therein;
14 But [l]have walked after the [m]imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, [n]which their fathers taught them:
15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, [o]I will feed them, even this people, [p]with wormwood, and [q]give them water of gall to drink.
16 I [r]will scatter them also among the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them.

WHERE IS WISDOM? Vv 12-16.
Paul seems to quote on this chapter in 1 Cor. 1:19-31. V.31 is a direct quotation of V.24 whilst V.20 seems a paraphrase of Ch. 8:8-9. It speaks of the blindness of Judah and its absolute failure in the face of Divine Wisdom manifested in the Word - both spoken & manifested.

CALL FOR WAILING WOMEN.
LAMENT THE RAVAGES OF DEATH
Vv 17-22 Cp V.10.
18. The ghastly ravages that the self afflicted judgments of El will bring upon the people. Observe them in all their hideousness and mourn the frightful effects of turning from Yahweh.

"LET NOT MAN GLORY..." Cp Vv 23-24.
It is not the outward props of state-craft, and strong battalions, and inexhaustible wealth, that really and permanently uphold a nation; not these but the knowledge of Yahweh, a just insight into the true nature of God, and a national life regulated in all its departments by that insight. There Judah failed. And an Ecclesia can fail in the same direction.

19 Both = "Woe." There" shall-ful in lamentation" Amos 5:16.

A call to mourning.

[a] the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come:

18 And let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that [c] our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

20. The funeral dirge of Zion follows to end V. 22.
21 Both. = "left." i.e driven out.

19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out.

20 Yet hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation.

22. Death is represented as a thief entering not by the door which is barred, by "climbing up some other way." Bars and bolts will prove futile against such an invader.

21 For death is come up into our windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.

22 Speak, Thus saith the LORD, Even the carcases of men shall fall [k] as dung upon the open field, and as [m] the handful after the harvestman, and [o] none shall gather them.

FUTILITY OF FLESHLY WISDOM. Vv 23-24. Cp Jer 10:21. 17:5-10
23 In V. 12. he laments the lack of wisdom in apprehending the intentions of Jahweh. Some may have hearkened to the prophet, acknowledged the wisdom of his words, but attempted by their personal wisdom or diligence, their might or preparations to resist the enemy, or their riches or material resources to sustain such an attack. There will be no escaping the wrath to come. The only value will be in - V. 24. the judgment will overtake all, but for some it will be for good Jer 24:5.

17 The prophet exhorteth to flee from the calamity to come. 19 He lamenteth the spoil of the tabernacle by foolish pastors. 23 His humble supplication.

HEAR ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house of Israel:

1 These words seem to be directed to the righteous element that would be taken into captivity Jer 24:7. They constitute an appeal not to succumb to their idolatrous environment.

22 Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, and [z] be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

2 They may be inclined to do so attributing the success of Babylonish army to potency of the nations' gods.

3 For the [a] customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, [b] with the axe.

3 Isa 47:8. Jer 6:2

4 They deck it with silver and with gold; [c] they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

4 Breath or mere wind

5 They are [d] upright as the palm tree, [e] but speak not: [f] they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, [g] neither also is it in them to do good.

5 Flesh humbles it to the dust - then worships it. One of thousands in a forest cut crudely out done with an axe.

IN CONTRAST - GREAT IS YAHWEH. 6-16

6 Forasmuch as there is [h] none like unto thee, O LORD; [h] thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

7 There appears a blending of the song of Moses and of the Lamb in these two verses. Cp Rev 15:3-4. Jeremiah was as a bridge between these two great leaders, interpreting Deuteronomy and anticipating the message of the Apocalypse.

7 "Who would not fear thee, [i] O King of nations? for [k] to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all [l] the wise men of the nations, and [m] in all their kingdoms, there is none like unto thee.

8 But they are [n] altogether [o] brutish and [p] foolish: [q] the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

This is the Covenant Name as during Israel that it would not remain under thralldom of Babylon forever.

Supreme in power - disposing of the destiny of nations. Dan. 4:17. Rev 15:3

9 Silver spread into plates is brought from [r] Tarshish, and gold from [s] Uphaz, the work of [t] the workman, and of the hands of [t] the founder: blue and [u] purple is their clothing: they are all the work of cunning men.

10 But Jehovah is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

11 Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

12 He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

13 When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasuries.

14 Every man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

15 They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

16 The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name.

17 Gather up thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant of the fortress.

18 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, that they may find it so.

19 Woe is me for my hurt, my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it.

20 My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.

21 For the pastors are become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered.

22 Behold the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons.

23 O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps.

24 O LORD, correct me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing.

25 Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

1 These warning words were probably uttered when the people stood to the covenant (2 Chr 34:33) They would be most impressive as emphasizing the key point of the covenant and solemnly underlining the responsibility assumed by "standing to it" to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God: 2 Cor.6:17-18 Exod.19:6.

5 That I may perform (b) the oath which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them [c] a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, (c) So be it, O LORD.

6 Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and [d] do them.

7 For I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, [h] rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.

8 [h] Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the (a) imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, [d] which I commanded them to do; but they did them not.

9 And the LORD said unto me, [m] A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

10 They are turned back to [p] the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able [y] to escape; and [t] though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken unto them.

12 Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their [z] trouble.

13 (a) For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that [3] shameful thing, even altars to burn incense unto Baal.

14 Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that they cry unto me for their [5] trouble.

15 [6] [e] What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and [g] the holy flesh is passed from thee? [7] when thou doest evil, [f] then thou rejoicest.

16 The LORD called thy name, (1) A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.

17 For the LORD of hosts, [m] that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves [o] to provoke me to anger in offering incense unto Baal.

18 ¶ And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings.

19 But I was [q] like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that [r] they had devised devices against me, [s] saying, Let us destroy [2] the tree with the fruit thereof, and [u] let us cut him off from [x] the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.

20 But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, [y] that [z] triest the reins and [a] the heart, [b] let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I revealed my cause.

21 Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophesy not in the name of the LORD, that thou die not by our hand:

22 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine:

Q.

6 Apparently drought had stricken the land. It had been threatened. Ch. 3:3. Now, as warned by Deut. 28:23. Yahweh had begun to impose natural punishments which later develop into a widespread dearth. Ch. 14:1 - As

1 RIGHTEOUS art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet [g] let me [p] talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they [s] happy that [t] deal very treacherously?

2 Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken root: [u] they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: [v] thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins.

3 But thou, O LORD, [w] knowest me: thou hast seen me, and [x] tried mine heart [5] toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and [b] prepare them for [c] the day of slaughter.

4 How long shall [f] the land mourn, and the herbs of every field wither, [f] for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? [y] the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end.

5 ¶ If thou hast run with the footmen, and they have wearied thee, then how canst thou [m] contend with horses? and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in [a] the swelling of Jordan?

6 For even [c] thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have [f] dealt treacherously with thee; yea, [3] they have called a multitude after thee: [y] believe them not, though they speak [4] fair words unto thee.

7 ¶ I have forsaken mine house, I have left [h] mine heritage; I have given [5] the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.

8 [h] Mine heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; [6] it [7] crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it.

9 Mine heritage is unto me as a [6] speckled bird, [i] the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, [y] [m] come to devour.

10 Many [o] pastors have destroyed [q] my vineyard, [r] they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my [3] pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.

11 They have made it desolate, and being desolate [t] it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man [z] layeth it to heart.

12 The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace.

13 [d] They have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: [e] they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and [8] they shall be ashamed of [h] your revenues [i] because of the fierce anger of the LORD.

14 ¶ Thus saith the LORD against all [k] mine evil neighbours, [l] that touch the inheritance [n] which I have caused my people Israel to inherit; Behold,

This latter prophecy was probably delivered during the reign of Jehoiakim, the above probably at the end of Josiah's reign.

6 Jeremiah shall not. He predicted they shall be punished. Confident in their prosperity, determined to destroy the prophet Ch. 11:21. they contemptuously laughed off his warnings by saying that he will not see their last end.

YAHWEH'S ANSWER: WORST IS COMING. 5-6.

10 The Temple, the People, the Nation - His beloved. Ch. 2:2. This verse expresses His ultimate intention.

11 Boldly defiant, fiercely roaring against the requirements of Yahweh.

Thus the relations of the Prophet to his own house reflect the relations of Yahweh to His. So the Prophet is better able to look at things from Divine standpoint.

12 Hated her - Roth. Showing the state to which the nation sunk.

13 In Heb. it is expressed as a question of astonishment. "Is My heritage become as a vulture to Me?" Having repudiated Yahweh's goodness the nation is left to its own devices (its claws and talons).

14 Shepherds. The depredations of the invading nations is likened to the havoc wrought by nomad shepherds with their flocks treading down the gardens and vineyards.

CHAPTER 13.

1 In the type of a linen girdle, God prefigureth the destruction of his people. 12 Under the parable of the bottles filled with wine he foretelleth their drunkenness in misery. 15 He exhorteth to prevent their future judgments. 22 He sheweth their abominations are the cause thereof.

THUS saith the LORD unto me, Go, and get thee [o] a linen [p] girdle, and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water.
2 [r] So I got a girdle according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.
3 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying,
4 Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go to Euphrates, and hide it there in [z] a hole of the rock. Cp Rock-dwelling Christ
5 So I went, and hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.
6 And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded thee to hide there.
7 Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the girdle [a] was marred, it [b] was profitable for nothing.
8 Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
9 Thus saith the LORD, [c] After this manner will I [a] mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.
10 This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which [h] walk in the [2] imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which [b] is good for nothing.
11 For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; [i] that they might be unto me for a people, and [m] for a name, and [n] for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.
12 ¶ Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, [q] Every bottle shall be filled with [r] wine: and [s] they shall say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?
13 Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even "the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, [v] with drunkenness.
14 And [x] I will dash them [3] one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, [4] but destroy them.

ISRAEL TO BE SCATTERED Ch. 13:1-7.

1 Hypocrites are slow to acknowledge their own folly and Yahweh's righteousness

It was the barbarous custom of Gentiles to lead their captives bound - figuratively demonstrated the lack of defence. Judah has rejected its defence

Christ Mat. 21:30 and Stephen Acts 7:51 echoed this statement

CHAPTER 14: HISTORICAL BACKGROUND. – Probably in Jehoahaz or early in Jehoiakim's reign. The prophet has spoken of drought in the reign of Josiah Ch.12:4. He here predicts it will reach serious proportions. Deuteronomy predicts drought followed by captivity Deut.28:23-25. Jeremiah warns of the fulfilment despite the opposition of the false prophets. V.13. for the people had broken the Covenant Jer.11.

your God, before [a] he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, [b] he turn it into [c] the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.

17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret places for your [h] pride; and [i] mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

18 Say unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your [g] principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory.

19 The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

20 Lift up your eyes, and behold [j] them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock?

21 What wilt thou say when he shall [5] punish thee? for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee: [k] shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail?

22 ¶ And if thou say in thine heart, [l] Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are [m] thy skirts discovered, and thy heels [6] made bare.

23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? [n] then may ye also do good, that are [7] accustomed to do evil.

24 Therefore will I scatter them [o] as the stubble that passeth away by the wind of the wilderness.

25 [p] This is thy lot, the portion of thy measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in [h] falsehood.

26 Therefore will I discover thy skirts upon thy face, that [b] thy shame may appear.

27 I have seen thine adulteries, and thy [d] neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations [f] on the hills in the fields. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! [g] wilt thou not be made clean? [2] when shall it once be?

1 The grievous famine 7 causeth Jeremiah to pray. 10 The Lord will not be intreated for the people. 13 Lying prophets are no excuse for them. 17 Jeremiah is moved to complain for them.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning [1] [k] the dearth.

2 Judah mourneth, and [l] the gates thereof [m] languish; [n] they are black unto the ground; and [o] the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.

3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; [q] they were ashamed and confounded, and [r] covered their heads.

9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonied, as a mighty man [b] that cannot save? yet [c] thou, O LORD, art in the midst [d] of us, and [2d] we are called by thy name; [f] leave us not.

10 ¶ Thus saith the LORD unto this people, [g] Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore [i] the LORD doth not accept them; [k] he will now remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.

11 Then said the LORD unto me, [l] Pray not for this people [m] for their good.

12 [n] When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and [o] when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but [p] I will consume them by [q] the sword, and by [r] the famine, and by [s] the pestilence.

13 ¶ [t] Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you [u] assured peace in this place.

14 Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets [d] prophesy lies in my name: [f] I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and [i] divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their heart.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and [f] I sent them not, [m] yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; [n] By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.

16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and [o] they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.

20. Probably a public fast had been called because of the lack of rain - instead of heeding it Yahweh threatens three additional judgments.

DIRE PUNISHMENT FOR THE FALSE PROPHETS. Vv 13-16.

Whilst Jeremiah was proclaiming a doctrine of impending doom, false prophets were busy blithely comforting the people with assurances that the drought would not reach famine proportions.
Against these false teachers, the most sweeping punishments are proclaimed: the fruit of their own wickedness. This would fall both on the deceivers and the deceived.
Jeremiah came into personal opposition with one of these false prophets in the person of Pashur Cp Ch 20. 1-6.

17 ¶ Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; [p] Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and [q] let them not cease: for the virgin [h] daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow.

18 If I go forth into [k] the field, then behold the slain with the sword! and if I enter [k] into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, [m] both the prophet and the priest [3] go about [q] into a land that they know not.

19 [r] Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath thy soul lothed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and [z] there is no healing for us? [s] we looked for peace, and there is no good; and [s] for the time of healing, and behold trouble!

20 We acknowledge, O LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: [b] for we have sinned against thee.

21 Do not abhor us, [c] for thy name's sake, do not disgrace the throne of thy glory: [c] remember, break not thy covenant with us.

22 [g] Are there any among [h] the vanities of the Gentiles that can cause rain? or can the heavens give [k] showers? [l] art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

THE MOTHER CITY'S BEREAVEMENT. Vv 6-9 – "The cup of national iniquity was full, and its baleful contents overflowed in devastating flood. "In the gates of the land" – the point on the north-west frontier where the armies met – Yahweh winnowed His people with a fan, "separating those who were doomed to fall from those who were to survive, as the winnowing fan separates the chaff from the wheat in the threshing floor. There He bereaved the nation of their dearest hope, "the breath of their nostrils, Yahweh's anointed" (Lam. 4:20); there He multiplied their widows. And after the last battle He brought the victor in hot haste against the "Mother" of the fallen warriors, the ill-fated city, Jerusalem, to wreak vengeance upon her for her ill-timed opposition. But, for all this bitter fruit of their evil doings, the people turned not back from their own

2 And it shall come to pass, if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; [b] Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity.

3 And [d] I will appoint over them four [2] kinds, saith the LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy.

4 And [f] I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of [g] Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.

THE word of the LORD came also unto me, saying,
2 Thou shalt not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place.
3 For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land;
4 They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth.

offspring was no pledge of permanence, for universal death was hanging over a condemned nation. If also marked a point of development in the spiritual life of the prophet. He no longer repines at his dark lot Ch 15:10, 15-18, no longer even complains at the Divine will, and the burden laid upon him. He sees now that he must refuse even natural and innocent pleasures for the truth's sake; to foresee calamity and ruin; to unceasingly denounce sin, to sacrifice a tender and affectionate heart to a life of asceticism. He stands as the last fortress of truth in an age of sham - for Truth he surrenders his all. Contrast with Ch 15:15-21.

CHAPTER 16.

6 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them:
7 Neither shall men tear themselves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.
8 Thou shalt not also go into the house of feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink.
9 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride.

14 ¶ [f] Therefore, behold, [g] the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, [h] The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;

15 But, [h] The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel [n] from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and [p] I will bring them again into their land that I gave unto their fathers.

16 ¶ Behold, I will send for many [z] fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of [v] the holes of the rocks.

17 For [a] mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid from my face, [a] neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes. (See also Deut 21:6,7,9. They had defrauded Yahweh.)

18 And first [b] I will recompense their iniquity and their sin [d] double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with the carcases of their detestable and abominable things.

19 O LORD, my strength, and [g] my fortress, and [h] my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, [m] vanity, and things [o] wherein there is no profit.

20 Shall a man make gods unto himself, and [p] they are no gods?

21 Therefore, behold, I will [q] this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand and my might; and they shall know that [e] my name is [z] The LORD.

CHAPTER 17.

1 The captivity of Judah for her sin. 5 Trust in man is cursed, 7 in God is blessed. 9 The deceitful heart cannot deceive God. 12 The salvation of God. 19 The sabbath to be kept holy.

THE sin of Judah is written with [t] a pen of iron, and with the [u] point of [k] a diamond: it is [l] graven upon the table of their heart, and upon [m] the horns of [o] your altars;

2 Whilst [p] their children remember their altars and [q] their groves [r] by the green trees upon the high hills.

3 O [s] my mountain in the field, [n] I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all thy borders.

4 And thou, even [t] thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for [u] ye have kindled a fire in mine anger, which shall burn for ever.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and [v] maketh flesh his arm, and whose heart departeth from the LORD. (See - To turn off or swerve)

6 For he shall [w] be like the heath in the desert, and [x] shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in [y] a salt land and not inhabited.

7 [z] Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, and whose [a] hope the LORD is.

8 For [b] he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but [c] her leaf shall be green; and shall [d] not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from [e] yielding fruit.

9 The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?

10 I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings.

11 As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool.

12 A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our sanctuary.

13 O LORD, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters.

14 Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise.

15 Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.

16 As for me, I have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee: neither have I desired the woful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was before thy face.

17 Be not a terror unto me: thou art my hope in the day of evil.

18 Let them be confounded that persecute me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.

19 ¶ Thus said the LORD unto me; Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;

20 And say unto them, Hear ye the word of the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:

21 Thus saith the LORD; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;

22 Neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.

23 But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction.

24 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein;

25 Then shall there enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and this city shall remain for ever.

26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices of praise, unto the house of the LORD.

27 But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

JEREMIAH'S ANSWER TO THE PEOPLE

9A. They could put thee, to the reform of Josiah, but cp. Ch 11:10 Cp Lev. 3:17.

11. The newly found book of the Law continues to testify against them Cp Deut 28, 29.

11 Here is negative positive wickedness Cp A.I.

12. There was manifested a state of religious and moral degeneration that went from bad to worse

A GLIMMER OF HOPE

Vv 14-15.

14. Blayney: "After this he adds: "It is obvious that this notice of a future restoration was here inserted on purpose to guard the people, during their exile, from falling in to idolatry through despair by letting them see they still had a prospect of recovering God's wonted favor and protection."

20. Their idols, called lifeless carcases, hateful and vile in Yahweh's sight. Cp Lev. 26:30 Ezek. 41:7,9. They cannot see, but He does. They cannot hear, but He does. They cannot punish or reward but He can and will.

CONVERSION OF GENTILES.

Vv 19-21.

Contrast Ch 15:18-19. Jeremiah turns to Yahweh in words of prayer that captures the glorious vision of Isa. 2:2-4. He sees the very nations whose gods Judah had embraced turning to Yahweh. This doubtless because of Vv. 14-15. This attitude of Gentiles is a judgment on their gods whilst fulfilling the purpose of Yahweh in Israel. Cp Jer. 13:11. Zech. 8:13.

CURSING & BLESSING INTERPRETED Vv 5-8.

The thought here expressed could have been prompted by the curses and blessings expressed in the Law Cp Deut 27:15-28:20 and which formed the basis of Judah's confession.

A time of drought Jer 14:1 such as the Law warned Deut 11:17 but which here Jeremiah shows to have a spiritual lesson to convey. Finally it is a warning against placing confidence in Egypt or any other power to avoid the Judgement pronounced in Vv 1-4. Those who do so will be abandoned to their folly, those who trust in Yahweh will be upheld even in spite of national judgment.

THAT "SWERVING" HEART V.5. A man is accursed who puts confidence in the changeable, inconstant heart of flesh. Hidden from view, it is a secret that baffles all human judgement. Who can take upon himself to say whether a person has or has not truly confided in Yahweh and rested on Him. The human heart is an unfathomable sea beyond the scope of man to probe, affected from moment to moment by differing circumstances and environments, and tainted with a subtle disease (V.9) that affects the will and intentions, the conscience and affections, warping judgment and making clear perception difficult.

15 Need not fear drought. Here was encouragement for those individuals who sought Yahweh in such times. Though the nation was to go into captivity they need not fear Cp Ch. 24:6.

THE SABBATH: A WARNING AND A CHOICE VV19-27.

This prophecy commences a series which seem to set forth a sequence. To observe the sabbath in its true spirit Isa 58:13 was to observe the covenant to which they had put their hand. 2 Kgs 23:3 but the general attitude of the people was that described by Amos. Ch. 8:5. The words of Jeremiah were highly significant for the Sabbath was associated with the breaking of Egypt's bonds Deut 5:12-15 whereas under Jehoiakim, Judah was in bonds to Egypt 2 Kgs 23:35. The following prophecies provide the sequence. The people's choice Ch. 18. Yahweh's decree 19:1-15. Consequences to Jeremiah ch. 20:1-6.

CHAPTER 18.

1 Under the type of a potter is shewed God's absolute power in disposing of nations. 11 Judgments threatened to Judah. 18 Jeremiah's prayer.

THE word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Arise, and go down to [1] the potter's house, and there I will cause thee to hear my words.

3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he wrought a work on the [2] wheels.

4 And the vessel [3] that he made of clay [4] was marred in the hand of the potter: so he [5] made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.

5 Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

6 O house of Israel, [r] cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, [s] as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O house of Israel.

7 At what instant I shall speak [t] concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, [u] to pluck up, and to pull down, and to destroy it;

8 If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, [v] turn from their evil, [w] I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.

9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, [x] to build and to plant it;

10 If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.

11 ¶ Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame [5] evil against you, and devise a device against you: [y] return ye now every one from his evil way, and [z] make your ways and your doings good.

12 And they said, [a] There is no hope: [b] but we will walk after our own devices, and we will every one do [c] the imagination of his evil heart.

13 Therefore thus saith the LORD; [d] Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done [6] a very horrible thing.

14 Will a man leave [7] the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place [e] be forsaken?

15 Because [f] my people hath forgotten me, they have burned incense to [g] vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the [h] ancient [i] paths, to walk in paths, in a way not [k] cast up;

16 To make their land [l] desolate, and a perpetual [m] hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and [n] wag his head.

17 I [o] will scatter them as with [p] an east wind before the enemy; I will shew them [q] the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

18 ¶ Then said they, Come, and [r] let us [s] devise devices against Jeremiah; [t] for the law shall not perish [u] from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, [v] nor the word from the prophet. Come, and [w] let us smite him [8] with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.

1 Pashur, smiting Jeremiah, receiveth a new name, and a fearful doom. 7 Jeremiah complaineth of contempt, 10 of treachery, 14 and of his birth.

NOW [1]Pashur the son of [2]Immer the priest, who was also [3]chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied these things.

2 Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in [b]the stocks that were in the high [c]gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD.

3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the [b]stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but [6]Magor-missabib.

4 For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make thee [m]a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.

5 Moreover [b]I will deliver all [c]the strength of this city, and all [e]the labours thereof, and all [g]the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and [b]carry them to Babylon.

6 And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, [l]to whom thou hast prophesied lies.

7 ¶ O LORD, thou hast [n]deceived me, and I was [2][n]deceived: [p]thou art [7]stronger than I, and [q]hast prevailed: I [r]am in derision daily, every one mocketh me.

8 For since I spake, I cried out, I cried [s]violence and spoil; because [u]the word of the LORD was made [v]a reproach unto me, and [v]a derision, daily.

9 Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name. But [p]his word was in [a]mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and [c]I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay.

10 ¶ [e]For I heard the defaming of many, [4]fear on every side. [f]Report, and [g]say they, and we will report it. [3][f]All my familiars [h]watched for [i]my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and [q]we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

These verses probably out of chronological sequence. (Jeremiah not in chronological order)

JEREMIAH REBUKES PASHUR Vv 3-6.

6. He probably expected to see him cowed by reverses and pain and completely disarmed.

7. Cp v. 10. Jeremiah seems to have gained inspiration from Ps. 31:13. The Psalm probably sustained him in prison. It would lift him out of the depression suggested by Vv 14-18. Cp also Jer. 6:25. Lam. 2:22.

8. Same word rendered "Treasures" Prov. 15:6. Ezek 22:25. Cp 2 Kings 24:13.

9. The Temple.

JEREMIAH'S COMPLAINT 7-9

10. The word "patha" signifies "persuaded" as well as deceived and this verse has so been rendered. For Yahweh's permission see Jer. 1:7-9. Instance of use of word 1 Kgs 22:20-22. Prov. 25:15.
11. Ya'kole (prevailed) in Pihel signifies to fortify, encourage. Deut. 1:38. 3:28. Isa. 40:9. He had been encouraged by being told he would prevail Jer. 1:17-19. But the sum result of his labors seemed derision and mocking.
12. Blayney: "for as often as I speak, whether I cry out against injustice or proclaim devastation, the word of Jehovah is turned against me into matter of reproach and derision continually."
13. RV: "And if I say..."
14. RV: "...then there is in..."

JEREMIAH'S CONFIDENCE 10-13.

15. Magor-missabib v. 3.
16. RV. "Denounce and we will denounce him, say all my familiar friends, they that watch for my halting."

The name given to Pashur would suit me! Thus Jeremiah's private communings with God.

17. On my side
18. Mighty to defend, to save, to vindicate
19. Terrible in attack, to confound, to avenge.

Chronology of ch 20.
v1-2 Jeremiah publicly humiliated by Pashur.
v14-18 Jeremiah laments his humiliation v7-13 Jeremiah's triumph over his depression & humiliation.
v3-6 Judgment pronounced against Pashur.

JER. 21 A FORESHADOWING OF MATH. 24:15-16.

As Christ warned that resistance to the Romans would prove in vain, and told his followers to flee the city when the saw the invader – so did Jeremiah Vv 8-9 As the Romans temporarily withdrew permitting Christians to escape, so did the Babylonians. Jer. 37:5 permitting some who believed to escape Luke 7:16. See Jer 37 for historical background to this chapter.

therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and [b] they shall not prevail: [c] they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their [d] everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten.

20. Tries the faith and patience of such to effect their purification

21. See Note Jer. 11:20. Sees the inward motives and the intellect.

12 But, O LORD of hosts, [f] that triest the righteous, and [f] seest the reins and the heart, [g] let me see thy vengeance on them: [f] for unto thee have I opened my cause.

22. The prophet merges from prayer into praise and this exercise of faith dispels the gloom and turns his sorrow into joy.

13 [i] Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD: [i] for he hath delivered the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers.

JEREMIAH'S FEELINGS IN PRISON 11:18. See after V. 2.

14 ¶ [k] Cursed be the day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed.

Lowth maintains this is legitimate poetical language designed to emphasize the extent of grief. It is normal poetic language designed to indicate the depressed feelings of the prophet.

15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, A man child is born unto thee; making him very glad.

In happy circumstances all are blessed – in adverse circumstances all are considered as contributing to the curse. Thus David in his lamentation over Saul cursed the Mountains of Gilboa. 2 Sam. 1:21. Logically this is absurd, but it makes excellent poetry to express the feelings.

16 And let that man be as [o] the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear the cry in the morning, and [q] the shouting at noontide;

17 [t] Because he slew me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be always great with me.

In prison, oppressed, in pain, depressed Jeremiah expresses the extent of his feelings, but setting his spiritual vision on the joy before him, he turned from carnality to prayer, from praying to praise – and thus provided an example for all (cp V. 13. See Heb 5:7-9.

18 [u] Wherefore came I forth out of the womb [z] to see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

CHAPTER 21.

1 Zedekiah enquireth of Jeremiah concerning the war. 3 He foretelleth a hard siege and miserable captivity. 8 counselleth the people to fall to the Chaldeans, 11 and upbraideth the king's house.

CHAPTER 21.

BABYLON ATTACKS!

ZEDEKIAH ENQUIRES CONCERNING THE OUTCOME

JEREMIAH PREDICTS DOOM.

THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him [a] Pashur the son of Melchiah, and [d] Zephaniah the son of [g] Maaseiah the priest, saying,

2 [b] Enquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for [a] Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to all [e] his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.

1. This would be in the 9th year, but prior to the 10th month when the siege commenced. See Jer 37 for background.

2. Sig. Free, or Multiplying Liberty. Perhaps he was sent because his name suggested a good omen. He too is referred to again Ch. 38:1.

7. Sig Yahweh is King.
Sig Yahweh has hidden
Work of Yahweh. Shemaiah had complained of Jeremiah to Zephaniah calling upon him to throw him into prison. Zephaniah did not believe the message now delivered from and died at the hands of the Babylonians Jer. 29:25. 37:2. 2 Kings. 25:18.

6 Heb. Darash = the seek, ie. in prayer not to enquire ab to Yahweh's will. Cp. Jer. 37:3, 7.

3 ¶ Then said Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:

4 Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, [h] I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, [a] which besiege you without the walls, and [i] I will assemble them into the midst of this city.

6. These were hypocritical words. Zedekiah wanted only one answer – confirmation of his hopes for victory with the help of Egypt. Cp. Jer 37.

JEREMIAH'S ANSWER

YAHWEH WILL FIGHT AGAINST JUDAH 3-7

Such an answer was inevitable in the light of previous prophecies Cp Ch. 27:2. Zedekiah's approach was therefore so much wishful thinking.

7 They had a greater Weapon in Yahweh if they only turned to Him in heart.

5 And I myself will fight against you with [m] an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even [n] in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath.

6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.

7 And afterward, saith the LORD, [r] I will deliver Zedekiah [s] king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; [v] he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.

8. This must have sounded seditious. It evidently aroused much antagonism as is suggested by Jer. 37:4 though for the moment nothing more was done.

8 ¶ And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, [b] I set before you the way of life, and the way of death.

A WAY OF ESCAPE

9. The way of life was in obeying the Word of Yahweh. At the present this took the form of submitting to the Babylonians. If the Government persisted the wise might escape by fleeing the city.

10. Jeremiah himself attempted to act on this advice but was prevented by so doing Jer. 37:13.

9 [d] He that abideth in this city shall die [b] by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: [e] but he that goeth out, and [f] falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live,

11 He shall barely escape. A principle expressed in 1 Pet. 4:17

12 Yet it was the city in which He had placed His Name, in which He desired to dwell Ps 132.

THE CAUSE OF YAHWEH'S WRATH 11-14

13. Act quickly! Later on, when it seemed Jeremiah's words were on the point of fulfilment, there was a belated attempt to act on this advice. Cp Jer. 34.

14. Jerusalem. See Note Isa. 22:1-5.

15. A reference to rocky Mt. Zion. Mishore (plain) = straight = fig justice, justly, from yâshar = to be straight i.e. right, be upright. Perhaps a sarcastic reference to what it should have been.

16. Figurative of the nation Ch. 22:7. Ezek. 20:46.

CHAPTER 22.

A RIGHTEOUS BRANCH PROMISED TO DAVID

CH. 22-8. Historical Background. Just prior to 2 Kgs 24:1. In reign of Jehoiakim Cp Vv 18-19

THE KING WARNED

1. He had been speaking at the Temple Ch 19:2. His appeal had been rejected by the priests. Now he took his stand on lower ground and proclaimed this warning in the Palace.

2. Thus reminding him of the high position he held.

3. All are involved, all are responsible.

4. Imitate the virtues of the promised Seed (cp Ps. 72. Jehoiakim was noted for the evils here enumerated V. 17.

5. for which Manasseh was noted 2 Kgs 21 and Jehoiakim (see V. 17. and for which Jerusalem was overthrown 2 Kgs 24:4.

6. Defraud not.

and [a] his life shall be unto him for a prey.

10 For I have set my face against this city for evil, and not [c] for good, saith the LORD: [f] it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and [g] he shall burn it with fire.

11 ¶ And touching the house of the king of Judah, [i] say, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

12 O house of David, thus saith the LORD; [j] Execute judgment [m] in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, [o] lest my fury go out like fire, [o] and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.

13 Behold, [r] I am against thee, O [4] inhabitant [u] of [v] the valley, and rock of the plain, saith the LORD; which say, [u] Who shall [v] come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?

14 But I will [s] punish you according to [a] the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and [c] I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, [c] and [g] it shall devour all things round about it.

CHAPTER 22.

1 He exhorteth to repentance. 10 The judgment of Shallum, 13 of Jehoiakim, 20 and of Coniah.

THUS saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,

2 And say, [g] Hear the word of the LORD, O king of Judah, [i] that sittest upon the throne of David, [t] thou, and thy servants, and thy people [g] that enter in by these gates:

3 Thus saith the LORD; [j] Execute ye judgment and righteousness, [j] and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and [n] do no wrong, do no violence [p] to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither [r] shed innocent blood in this place.

4 For [6] if ye do this thing indeed, [b] then shall there enter in by the gates of this house [kings [d] sitting [8] upon [7] the throne of David, [b] riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.

5 But if ye will not hear these words, [h] I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house [k] shall become a desolation.

6 For thus saith the LORD unto the king's house of Judah; Thou [9] art Gilead unto me, and the head of [10] Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and [p] cities which are not inhabited.

7 And I will [q] prepare destroyers against thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down [t] thy choice cedars, and [z] cast them into the fire.

8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, [=] Wherefore [11] hath the LORD done thus unto this great city?

9 [b] Then they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, [b] and worshipped other gods, and served them.

10 ¶ [d] Weep ye [b] not for [e] the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore for [f] him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.

11 For thus saith the LORD touching [h] Shallum the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, [f] which went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more:

12 But he shall die [m] in the place whither they have led him captive, and shall see this land no more.

13 ¶ [o] Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his [q] chambers by wrong; [s] that useth his neighbour's service [t] without

WHAT A SENSATION AS THE PEOPLE HEARD THIS INDICTMENT AGAINST JEHOIAKIM PROCLAIMED AT THE VERY GATES OF THE PALACE

CONIAH.– Yahweh establisher. Also named Jehoichin and Jeconiah both signifying Yahweh will establish. Jeremiah shortened his name thus implying, thus cutting off from it the idea of futurity. Yahweh establishes but this prince will have no future establishing. For Jeconiah see 24:1; 27:20; 28:4; 29:2.

wages, and giveth him not for his work;

14 That saith, I will build me a wide house and [2]large [b]chambers, and cutteth him out [3]windows; and it is [c]cieled with cedar, and painted with vermilion.

15 Shalt thou reign, because thou [f]closest thyself in cedar? did not thy father eat and drink, and [h]do judgment and justice, and then [i]it was well with him?

16 He judged [k]the cause of the poor and needy; then [i]it was well with him: was not this [l]to know me? saith the LORD.

17 [o]But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and [o]for oppression, and for [t]violence, to do it.

18 Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning [r]Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; [s]They shall not lament for him, saying, "Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! [u]they shall not lament for him, saying, [v]Ah lord! or, Ah his glory!

19 He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, [22]drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.

20 ¶ Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from [e]the passages: for all [d]thy lovers are destroyed.

21 I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear. This hath been thy manner [f]from thy youth, [g]that thou obeyedst not my voice.

22 The wind shall eat up all [i]thy pastors, and [d]thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness.

23 O [7]inhabitant of Lebanon, [h]that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, [a]the pain as of a woman in travail!

24 As I live, saith the LORD, though [d]Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were [6]the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck thee thence;

25 And [v]I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.

26 [m]And [n]I will cast thee out, and [p]thy mother that bare thee, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die.

27 But to the land whereunto they [5]desire to return, thither shall they not return.

28 Is this man [d]Coniah a despised broken idol? is he [t]a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they [z]cast out, he and his seed, and are [m]cast into a land which they know not?

29 [6]O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD.

30 Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man [3b]childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, [e]sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

INIQUITY OF PROPHETS 9-12

16 For the land is full of adulterers; for [11] because of [12] swearing the land mourneth; [13] the pleasant places of the wilderness [n] are dried up, and their [14] course is evil, and their [15] force is not right.

11 For [d] both prophet and priest are profane; yea, [e] in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD.

12 Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery ways [f] in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: [g] for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

13 And I have seen [16] [i] folly in the prophets of [17] Samaria; [k] they prophesied in Baal, and [l] caused my people Israel to err.

14 I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem [m] an horrible thing: [n] they commit adultery, and [o] walk in lies: they [p] strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and [q] the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

15 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with [r] wormwood, and make them drink [s] the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is [18] [t] profaneness gone forth into all the land.

16 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain, [u] they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD.

17 They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, [v] Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the [w] imagination of his own heart, [x] No evil shall come upon you.

18 For [19] [y] who hath stood in the [20] counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word, and heard it?

YAHWEH OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

There is a significant challenge in this title, for the name of the last king on Judah's throne was Zedekiah: Righteousness of Yahweh Gp Ezek 21:25-26. Zedekyah.

He is the "righteous branch" Tsemach (see Note Isa. 4:2.) indicating that he is the legitimate heir to the throne. Human, legal and divine principles are combined for the "righteous shoot" is described as Yahweh our Righteousness. In Jer. 33: 14-16 the Tsemach promise is set in line with promises to Abraham, David, the Levite priesthood etc. from Yahweh. Zech. 3:8 describes him as Servant.

12 es Mem Gp Heb. 7:14.
Our Lord sprang (or sprouted (anatole - LXX equivalent for root of Tsemach). Luke 1:78 (anatole - LXX equiv. for root Tsemach) can be rendered "Branch from on high" - the Branch from Yahweh.

19 Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even [a] a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked.

20 [b] The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: [d] in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly.

21 [f] I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied.

22 But if they had [i] stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have [l] turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.

23 Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and [q] not a God afar off?

24 [p] Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. [q] Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD.

25 I have heard what the prophets said, [r] that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I [t] have dreamed, I have dreamed.

26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are [u] prophets of the deceit of their own heart;

27 Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal.

28 The prophet [v] that hath a dream, [t] let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the LORD.

29 [w] Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; and like a hammer that [a] breaketh the rock in pieces?

30 Therefore, behold, [c] I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that [x] steal my words every one from his neighbour.

31 Behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, [z] that use their tongues, and say, He saith.

32 Behold, I am against them [c] that prophesy false dreams, saith the LORD, and do tell them, and [c] cause my people to err by their lies, and by their [g] lightness; [h] yet I sent them not, nor commanded them: therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.

33 ¶ And when this people, or [k] the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, saying, What is [m] the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? [n] I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.

34 And as for [k] the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, [m] The burden of the LORD, I will even [s] punish that man and his house.

35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every one to his brother, [t] What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

36 And the burden of the LORD shall ye mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of [x] the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God.

37 Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, [t] What hath the LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken?

38 But since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD;

39 Therefore, behold, I, even I, [b] will utterly forget you, and [n] I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your

THE FIG TREE was an excellent symbol for Israel for fruit was continually ripening upon it. Travellers speak of three sorts of figs: the first (boccore) here referred to which come to maturity towards the middle or latter end of June; the Kermez or summer fig, which ripens seldom before August; and the winter fig. This is usually of much longer shape and darker complexion than the Kermez, hanging and ripening on the tree, even after the leaves were shed, and provided the winter proves temperate, is gathered as a delicious morsel in the spring. There were those Christ expected to find at the time of the Passover in March. FIGS = TE'ENIM. = General term for figs. used throughout the chapter. But note v.2. fathers, and cast you out of my presence:

40 And I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

CHAPTER 24.

1 Under the type of good and bad figs, 4 he foresheweth the restoration of them that were in captivity, 8 and the desolation of Zedekiah and the rest.

THE LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set before the temple of the LORD, after that (b) Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive [1] Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and [m] the princes of Judah, with [o] the carpenters and [n] smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.

2 One basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are [r] first ripe: and the other basket had [b] very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, [3] they were so bad.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil.

4 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

5 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I [q] acknowledge [t] them that are carried away captive of Judah, [t] whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans [x] for their good.

6 For I will [v] set mine eyes upon them [x] for good, and [z] I will bring them again to this land: and [a] I will build them, and not pull them down; [c] and [c] I will plant them, and not pluck them up.

7 And [f] I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and [g] they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me [a] with their whole heart.

8 ¶ And as [b] the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give [d] Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and [e] them that dwell in the land of Egypt:

9 And I will deliver them [2] [p] to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, [t] to be a reproach and [k] a proverb, [2] [k] a taunt and a [m] curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.

10 And [p] I will send [v] the sword, [q] the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

PUNISHMENT IMPENDING FROM THE NORTH Vv 8-11.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Because ye have not heard my words,

9 Behold, I will send and take all [i] the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, [n] my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and [2] against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them [o] an astonishment, and [o] an hissing, and perpetual desolations.

10 Moreover [2] I will take from them [p] the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, [q] the sound of the millstones, and [h] the light of the candle.

11 And this whole land shall be [m] a desolation, and [o] an astonishment; and [r] these nations shall serve the king of Babylon [s] seventy years.

12 ¶ And it shall come to pass, [t] when seventy years are accomplished, that I will [u] punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and [v] will make it perpetual desolations.

13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written [d] in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations.

14 For [f] many nations and [v] great kings [h] shall serve themselves of them also: and [i] I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands.

16 And [x] they shall drink, and [y] be moved, and be [q] mad, [r] because of the sword that I will send among them.

17 Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and [z] made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me:

CHAPTER 26.

1 Jeremiah exhorteth to repentance. 8 He is apprehended, 10 and arraigned. 16 He is quit in judgment, by the example of Micah, 20 and of Urijah, 24 and by the care of Ahikam.

IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying,
2 Thus saith the LORD; [u] Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, [v] all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; [w] diminish not a word:
3 If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way, that [x] I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them [y] because of the evil of their doings.

THIS WAS A REPETITION OF THE MESSAGE DELIVERED IN JOSIAH'S TIME -- BUT IN THE FACE OF GREATER OPPOSITION CH
It foreshadowed the mission of the Lord, particularly such incidents as are recorded in John 7:14-52

4 Christ likewise drew attention to the authoritative doctrine his enunciated. Jhn. 7:16.

4 And thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; (a) If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,

5 [c] To hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, [e] whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, [e] but ye have not hearkened;

6 Then will I make this house (c) like Shiloh, and will make this city [f] a curse [g] to all the nations of the earth.

6 i.e. in the courts, also described as the Temple. Jhn 8:20 Acts 21:26. The people were attracted to him, and gathered around him to hearken.

THE PEOPLE ARE ENRAGED 8-9

7 They took the lead in the matter and agitated the people against Jeremiah. In Christ's day the Scribes took the place of the prophets. Mth 23:2-3.

8 They surrounded him angrily threatening to murder him.

7 So [h] the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

8 ¶ Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that [h] the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die. — Cp John 7:19.

9 Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be [e] like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate [m] without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

10 ¶ When the princes [i] of Judah heard these things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down [j] in the entry of [o] the new gate of the LORD's house.

11 This was the attitude of the leaders of Christ's day. Jhn 7:25-26.

11 Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the princes and to all the people, saying, [k] This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears. — See Jhn 7:30.

12 This was the charge finally preferred against the Lord. Mark 14:58. Mat 26:61.

JEREMIAH'S COURAGEOUS DEFENCE Vv 12-15.

13 This is the basis of his defence — his Divine commission and authority. He disclaims any personal authority for his message — calls upon them to accept it — draws attention to his lack of defence — reminds them that in attacking him they attacked Yahweh.

12 ¶ Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city

13 Therefore now (b) amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you.

14 As for me, behold, [d] I am in your hand: [4] do [d] with me [2] as seemeth good and meet unto you.

14 As he was a prophet of Yahweh, he touched him at their own peril.

15 But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye shall surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, (5) and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof: for of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

15 Cp Mat 23:29-32. 27:4 Luke 23:13-15.

1 Under the type of bonds and yokes he prophesieth the subduing of the neighbour kings unto Nebuchadnezzar. 8 He exhorteth them to yield, and not to believe the false prophets. 12 The like he doeth to Zedekiah. 19 He foretelleth the remnant of the vessels shall be carried to Babylon.

IN the beginning of the reign of [v] Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Thus [t] saith the LORD to me; [c] Make thee bonds and [d] yokes, and put them upon thy neck,

3 And send them to the king of [e] Edom, and to the king of [e] Moab, and to the king of the [e] Ammonites, and to the king of [e] Tyrus, and to the king of [e] Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem [v] unto Zedekiah king of Judah;

5 [b] I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and [c] by my outstretched arm, and [d] have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me.

6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, [g] my servant; and [h] the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him.

8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and [r] that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, [s] with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

SOUND ADVICE FOR ZEDEKIAH

Vv12-15.

Zedekiah had sworn fealty to Nebuchadrezzar 2 Chr. 36:13. and now Jeremiah calls upon him to keep faith with his word.

HANANIAH'S CHALLENGE - Jeremiah continued to wear his wooden yoke Jer. 28:10. as a constant reminder to the people. The mention of the 5th month, v1. suggests that he had been wearing it since the beginning of the year. This had doubtless excited the interest and comment of the people which Hananiah now attempts to stem. The dramatic contest took place in public, in the Temple before a large concourse of people.

13 [b] Why will ye die, thou and thy people, [c] by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, [d] as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?

14 [e] Therefore hearken not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: [i] for they prophesy a lie unto you.

15 [j] For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy [2] a lie in my name; [m] that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

16 Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; [o] Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, [p] the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: [o] for they prophesy a lie unto you.

17 Hearken not unto them; [t] serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city [u] be laid waste?

18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now [z] make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that [a] the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.

20 Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, [c] when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;

21 Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem;

22 [f] They shall be carried to Babylon, and [g] there shall they be until the day that [h] I visit them, saith the LORD; then [k] will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

JEREMIAH CHALLENGED BY HANANIAH.

Jeremiah's action Ch. 27. had incited the false prophets. It was challenged by a foremost man of the order-Hananiah.

AND it came to pass [n] the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that [q] Hananiah the son of [r] Azur the prophet, which was of [s] Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,

4 The encounter dramatically took place in the Temple before a large concourse of people.

5 It was solemnly & blasphemously pronounced in the Name of Yahweh, to a people who doubtless were awaiting some such Divine revelation.

CORRESPONDENCE WITH BABYLON CHAP. 29. "There is no person that can read this chapter with attention, without being sensible of an embarrassment and incoherence in particular parts of it, which leaves a suspicion of some capital defect either in the text or its arrangement. Happily the LXX are found to step in here to our relief, by evidencing a transposition of V. 15, which they have placed where undoubtedly it ought to stand immediately before verse 21. . . . . But there is still another difficulty in this chapter to be accounted for, which is, that it undoubtedly contains the substance of two letters written at different times, as is evident from comparing V 28 with VV 4, 5. although the title at the beginning announces Hananiah's false See below. JEREMIAH 29. prophecy, and death. 16 The utmost power over people and nations Ep Dan 2:38.

of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD,

10. He expressed his hearty concurrence in the hope that the false prophecy was true. 9p 12a 4:1

6 Even the prophet Jeremiah said, [b] Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon into this place.

11. The words concern not you alone but all the people.

12. Jeremiah submits corroborative evidence as to the truth of his words inasmuch as they are confirmed by the prophecies of Joel, Amos, Hosea, Micah etc. who predicted evil against the Jews and neighboring countries.

7 Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people;

8 The prophets that have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.

13. Unconditionally as did Hananiah. Jeremiah offered peace if the people turned from their evil ways. Hananiah confirmed them in their actions. To prove him a true prophet his words must be fulfilled for there were the conditions attached. Thus Jeremiah proposes the test of Deut. 18:22.

9 [f] The prophet which prophesieth [g] of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him.

HANANIAH'S SYMBOLIC ACTION 10:11

10 ¶ Then Hananiah the prophet took the [h] yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it.

He felt the sting of Jeremiah's words & retaliated in a way calculated to get the mob on his side. This was equivalent to Jehoiakim's burning of the scroll Jer. 36.

11 And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; [i] Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon [m] from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.

12 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken [k] the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

13 Go and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron.

15

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; [n] I have put a yoke of iron [m] upon the neck of all these nations, [o] that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and [p] I have given him the beasts of the field also.

16

15 ¶ Then said the prophet Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; [q] The LORD hath not sent thee; but [q] thou makest this people to trust [r] in a lie.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, [s] because thou hast taught [t] rebellion against the LORD.

17

17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

HANANIAH'S DEATH PREDICTED VV 15-17.

JEREMIAH'S LETTER TO THE EXILES.

INTRODUCTION V 1-3.

1. Heb. Cepher = Writing or Book — actually includes the substance of two letters. See Note above.

NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of [l] the elders which were carried away captives, and [k] to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon;

2 (After that [u] Jeconiah the king, and [v] the queen, and [w] the [x] eunuchs, [y] the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and [q] the carpenters, and [q] the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;)

2. Elhath made. 3 Yahweh has fulfilled. 4 Yahweh is Protection. The father of Jeremiah? Jer 1:1 He evidently sent them as ambassadors to assure Nebuchadnezzar of his continued loyalty. There had been some efforts to draw Zedekiah into an anti-Babylonian alliance Ch. 27:3 but the protests of Jeremiah evidently had the effect of stopping this action. Nebuchadnezzar evidently was not satisfied with this and demanded the personal presence of the King which took place the 4th year. Ch. 51:59

3 By the hand of Elasah the son of [z] Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of [a] Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem unto Babylon;

22 And (x)ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

23 (z)Behold, the whirlwind of the LORD goeth forth with fury, a (4)continuing whirlwind: (a)it shall (5)fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

13 Then shall the virgin rejoice [u]in the dance,] both young men and old together:] for I will turn their mourning into joy,] and will comfort them, and [x]make them rejoice from their sorrow.]

14 And I will [28][z]satiate the soul of the priests with fatness,] and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.]

15 ¶ Thus saith the LORD;] [b]A voice was heard in [c]Ramah,] lamentation, and [e]bitter weeping;] Rahel [3]weeping for her children refused to be comforted for her children, because [t]they were not.]

16 Thus saith the LORD;] Refrain thy voice from weeping,] and thine eyes from tears:] for thy work [29]shall be rewarded, saith the LORD;] and [t]they shall come again from the land of the enemy.

Christ is promised. JEREMIAH 31. His new covenant.

19 Surely [40] after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I [41] smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach [42] of my youth.

20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a [1] pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore [2] my bowels [3] are troubled for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD.

21 Set thee up [43] waymarks, make thee high heaps: [44] set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these thy cities.

22 ¶ How long wilt thou [45] go about, O thou [46] backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass [47] a man.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, [b] when I shall bring again their captivity; [d] The LORD bless thee, [e] O habitation of justice, and [f] mountain of holiness.

24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, and [h] in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks.

25 For I have [i] satiated the [m] weary soul, and I have replenished every sorrowful soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me.

27 ¶ Behold, [q] the days come, saith the LORD, that [48] I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with [49] the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass, that [b] like as [c] I have watched over them, [d] to pluck up, and [d] to break down, and to throw down, [d] and to destroy, and to afflict; [b] so will I watch over them, to [s] build, and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 [h] In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth [t] are set on edge.

30 [m] But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge.

31 ¶ [p] Behold, [q] the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make [u] a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:

32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that [z] I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, [a] although [c] I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:

33 [a] But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, [c] I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and [g] will be their God, and they shall be my people.

34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for [i] they shall all know me, [k] from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I [l] will forgive their iniquity, [p] and [p] I will remember their sin no more.

35 ¶ Thus saith the LORD, [r] which giveth the sun for a light by day, and [t] the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, [z] which [v] divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; [x] The LORD of hosts is his name:

36 If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.

37 Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner.

39 And the measuring line shall go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook Kidron, unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

A NEW COVENANT 31-34. Cp Ezek 36:25-27

The Law shewed man his duty - Christ brings the grace of regeneration, by which the heart of man is changed and he is enabled to do his duty. The Law pointed forward to this, but the new confirmed Covenant reveals it Rom 16:25. This is hidden from Israel Rom. 11:25. THE CITY OF THE FUTURE That this prophecy "was not fulfilled" says Dr. Dodd "from the return out of Babylon to the days of Christ" we are assured from sacred history; where we read that Mount Gosth, or Golgotha (which word in Hebrew signifies 'the Heap of Gotha'), was situated without Jerusalem. The same may be said of the 'Valley of dead bodies and of ashes.... We might also add that the last clause of the Chapter cannot refer to the Jerusalem rebuilt after the captivity...."

CHAPTER 32.

1 Jeremiah, imprisoned by Zedekiah for his prophecy, 6 buyeth Hanameel's field. 13 Baruch preserves the evidences. 16 Jeremiah's complaint. 26 God confirmeth the captivity, 36 but promiseth a gracious return.

THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD [a] in the [1] tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, [c] which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up [g] in [h] the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house.

3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, "Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and "he shall take it;

4 [c] And [3] Zedekiah king of Judah [d] shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, [e] and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes [e] shall behold his eyes;

5 And [y] he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be [h] until I visit him, saith the LORD: [i] though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper.

6 ¶ And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

7 Behold, Hanameel the son of [o] Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in [p] Anathoth: for [s] the right of redemption is thine to buy it.

8 So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me [u] in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in [q] Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD.

9 And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in [q] Anathoth, and [b] weighed him the money, even [2] seventeen shekels of silver.

10 And I [3] subscribed the evidence, and [d] sealed it, and [e] took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.

11 So I took the evidence of the purchase, both [f] that which was sealed according to the law and [j] custom, and [f] that which was open:

12 And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto @Baruch [f] the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of [e] the wit-

CHAPTER 32.

JEREMIAH IN PRISON Vv 1-5

1 The events of this Chapter follow those of Ch 37:21.
2 Jeremiah had sought his liberty. The King had taken him from out of the dungeon, but had imprisoned him in the court of the Palace prison house See Note Ch 37:15-16 this was not so severe a restraint.

3 This had been constantly asserted by Jeremiah, especially during the last few months when the crisis had been developing. Ch 34:3.
4 Evidently a plan of escape was in the mind of the King should his plans for the defence of the city miscarry. The King was probably embarrassed by thus having his thoughts revealed.

JEREMIAH PURCHASES THE FIELD OF HANAMEEL Vv 6-12

7 El hath plied.
8 Recompence
10 This would be within 2000 cubits of Anathoth. Num 35:5
11 A little north of Jerusalem Sig Answered prayers.
12 He could possibly have avoided this on the grounds of his own poverty.
13 Yerushal'ah - not the usual word for inheritance = occupancy, conquest, patrimony. This field was then in the hands of the Babylonians and would revert to Hanameel at year of Jubilee Lev 25:25 Num 36:2. The purchase could not benefit Jeremiah for he could not occupy the land until freed and the Babylonians ejected.
14 Exact value unknown & with shekel at 2/6 = £2 2 6! Jeremiah had predicted a 70 year captivity so to him the purchase was not of much value. Hanameel probably submitted this proposition of Law to Jeremiah believing he would reject it and thus be shown up as one who does not conform to the Law. He may have been among those who ridiculed the prophet on an earlier occasion Jer. 12:6 Instructed by Yahweh, however, Jeremiah agrees to the foolish purchase.
15 This comprised the title deeds of the transaction and the contract. Cp Heb 11:1 not. The sealed portion probably comprised the Title Deeds, the open part the details of the transaction with the signatures of the witnesses.

JEREMIAH'S WONDERFUL INVESTMENT. In the court of the prison a drama was enacted with Jeremiah's cousin Anathoth for a pitable sum. The Babylonians were in possession of the field. Jeremiah had predicted their success in the impending siege, he had prophesied a 70 years captivity, but he had also proclaimed the ultimate triumph under Messiah Jer. 23:5-8. There was no opportunity of Jeremiah occupying this field except at Messiah's return. But as a testimony to the reality of this glorious consummation he agreed to it — and the witnesses confirmed it.

16 Thus they became witnesses to his hope. See above.

WITNESSING FOR THE FUTURE Vv 13-15.

17 They witness to his words and symbolic action.
18 Obviously until the days when V. 15 fulfilled. He evidently buried it at Anathoth. Cp Ch 37:12. Cp 32:44

19 Kanah - owned redeemed recovered, purchased. Jeremiah redeemed it with the right to possess and occupy V.8. Yahweh will see that he does not lose by the transaction. This verse looks beyond the end of the 70 years which Jeremiah did witness.

nesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat [b] in the court of the prison.

13 ¶ And I charged [d] Baruch before them, saying,

14 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days.

15 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and [g] fields and vineyards shall be [h] possessed again in this land.

16 ¶ Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto [i] Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying,

17 Ah Lord GOD! behold, [n] thou hast made the heaven and the earth [p] by thy great power and stretched out arm, and [q] there is nothing [r] too hard for thee:

18 Thou shewest lovingkindness unto thousands, and [s] recompensest the iniquity of the fathers [t] into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, [u] the Mighty God, [x] the LORD of hosts, is his name,

Despite terrible sins, gross ingratitude, shocking perversion of Truth, Yahweh remembers His Covenant and will restore His people – a fact that permits every son and daughter of Yahweh to take comfort in their shortcomings, to seek His mercy and to trust in His promises.

31 For this city hath been to me as [2] a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; [c] that I should remove it from before my face,

32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done [e] to provoke me to anger, [f] they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

33 And [i] they have turned unto me the [3] back, and not the face: though I taught them, [l] rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened [m] to receive instruction.

34 But [n] they set their abominations in the house, [n] which is called by my name, [n] to defile it.

35 [q] And they built the high places of Baal, [q] which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, [s] to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; [q] which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, [x] to cause Judah to sin.

36 ¶ And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, [z] It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence;

37 Behold, [a] I will gather them out of all countries, [b] whither I have driven them [c] in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will cause them [c] to dwell safely:

38 And [g] they shall be my people, and I will be their God:

39 And I [i] will give them one heart, and one way, [l] that they may fear me [2] for ever, [a] for the good of them, and of their children after them:

40 And [b] I will make an everlasting covenant [x] with them, that I will not turn away [4] from them, to do them good; but [d] I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

41 Yea, [g] I will rejoice over them to do them good, and [h] I will plant them in this land [5] assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD; [k] Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, [k] so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.

43 And [o] fields shall be bought in this land, [p] whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; [r] it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

44 Men shall buy [t] fields for money, and [t] subscribe evidences, and [t] seal them, and [t] take witnesses in [u] the land of Benjamin, and in [u] the places about Jerusalem, and in [u] the cities of Judah, and in the cities of [u] the mountains, and in the cities of [u] the valley, and in the cities of [u] the south: for [y] I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

4 For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which [4]are thrown down by [e]the mounts, and by the sword;

5 [f]They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain [i]in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness [j]I have hid my face from this city.

6 Behold, [o]I will bring it health and cure, and [o]I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth.

7 And [q]I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, [r]as at the first.

8 And [s]I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and [t]I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me.

9 ¶ And [u]it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and [v]they shall [a]fear and [b]tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it.

10 Thus saith the LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, [c]which ye say shall be desolate without man and without beast, even [f]in the cities of Judah, [f]and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man, and [h]without inhabitant, and without beast,

For [d]I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the first, saith the LORD.

12 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Again in this place, which is desolate [h]without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be [k]an habitation of shepherds [m]causing their flocks to lie down.

13 In [n]the cities of the mountains, in [n]the cities of the vale, and in [n]the cities of the south, and in [n]the land of Benjamin, and in [n]the places about Jerusalem, and in [n]the cities of Judah, [p]shall the flocks pass again [q]under the hands [r]of him that telleth them, saith the LORD.

14 [t]Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I [x]will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

15 ¶ In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David; and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

16 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, [y]The LORD our righteousness.

17 ¶ For thus saith the LORD; [z]David shall never want a man [e]to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;

18 Neither shall [g]the priests the Levites want a man before me [i]to offer burnt offerings, and [k]to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.

THE CERTAINTY OF FULFILMENT. Jr 22.

LACHISH + AZEKAH – The last of The Fortresses. V.7. – Twenty miles south-west of Jerusalem the green valley of Elah pushes its p- far into the mountains of Judah. From the little brook – scene of the due be- tween David and Goliath, the hill slopes gently upwards to a height of 1000 ft. From the top the plain of old Philistia stretches out to reach the Med- iterranean. On this height archaeologist Frederick J. Bliss identified Azekah. About 10-12 miles to south, J.L. Starkey dis-interred Lachish. "Eighteen ostraca, inscribed clay sherds, contained information about forward posts, observation posts and strong points held by Judahite troops which had not yet been overwhelmed. These despatches on clay had been sent to "Yaush," the "commandant of the fortress of Lachish," during that fateful "10th month" of the year 588 B.C. The messages, scratched out in haste, indicate with every line the frightful tension that existed just before the collapse. One of the last of these eye-witness reports reads: "May Yahweh grant that my lord should hear good tidings ... we are salem, and against all the cities thereof, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to [a] Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, [c] I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and [e] he shall burn it with fire:

2 With the approach of their Egyptian allies and the temporary raising of the siege the Jews imagined that their difficulties were over. Jeremiah's audience with the King dispelled all hopes of that!

3 And [g] thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and [g] delivered into his hand; [l] and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, [m] and [2] he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and [k] thou shalt go to Babylon.

3 The prophecy threatened the King in particular. It so incensed the King that he imprisoned the prophet. Cp. Ch. 32:2-5 or rather because the grounds upon which he refused to release him for h had already been imprison ed by Shelemiah. See Jer. 37:13.

4 [i] Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword:

4 By natural means.

5 [4] But [i] thou shalt die in peace: and with [m] the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and [p] they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

5 It was customary for the Jew to honor their great men at their funerals by burning odors for them 2 Chr 16:14, 21:19. Thu Zedekiah is promised a mor honorable death than Jehoia Kim was promised Jer 22:18.

6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,

7 When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against [u] Lachish, and against [7] [x] Azekah: for [y] these [z] defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah.

THE REASON WHY IT WILL NOT ESCAPE – IT IS FALSE TO ITS OATH Vv 8-11.

8 ¶ This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, [a] to proclaim liberty unto them;

The King had made a bold attempt to save the nation by binding it to the Covenant of Yah weh. But there was no genuineness in it. Already Rehoboam proved false to Nebuchadnezzar Ezek. 17:15, and now was attempting to double-cross Yahweh.

9 [c] That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, [c] go free; [d] that none should serve

[c] Under Mosaic law Israelites were not permitted to reduce their brethren in perpetual bondage but had to let them go free after 6 years. Exod. 21:2, Deut. 15:12. On the approach of Babylonians Zedekiah gained all Jerusalem in a covenant to honor this principle. By a solemn and impressive ceremony the nation undertook to honor the principle. Vv 18-19. Zedekiah was possibly moved by religious and political motives.

It honored Yahweh, and it released servants who could serve the State better in the prosecution of the war. But on the withdrawal of the Babylonians due to the advance of Egyptians Jer. 37:5, it seemed that the danger was passed and the nation went back on its word. It had broken solemn covenants made with Yahweh, its own people, and the Gentiles

FUTURE INHERITANCE OF RECHABITES.

"There shall be no failure of one in the line of Jonadab the son of Rechab standing before Me continually." (Blayney) See Notes. C.B also states "In 1913, 25,000 families, claiming to be his descendants, were found five days' journey from Bussorah." They were among the scribes after the return. 1 Chr. 2:55. There are true Rechabites today in those Gentiles who seek the kings of Yahweh in truth. The term "standing before Me" implies attendance upon royalty as a follower which requires the presence of the Prince when, at last, the fulfilment of the parable will be completed.

18 ¶ And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath commanded you:

19 Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; [3] Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man [d] to stand before me for ever.

Not in prison. He was either under some defilement or had been prohibited from publicly speaking in the Temple as per. Acts 4:18, 5:40. He was obviously not imprisoned because he was told to hide V. 19.

(See. Ch. 45. for encouragement given to Baruch at this time.

BARUCH - Grandson of Maaseiah, Governor of Jerusalem in Josiah's time 2 Chr. 34:8. and brother of Seraiah, the chief chamberlain Jer. 51:59.

1 And it came to pass [e] in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,

2 Take thee [g] a roll of a book, and [h] write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and [i] against Judah, and [k] against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, [l] from the days of Josiah, even unto this day.

3 [m] It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that [n] they may return every man from his evil way; [o] that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.

4 Then Jeremiah called [p] Baruch the son of Neriah, and [q] Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto him, upon [r] a roll of a book.

5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, [s] I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD:

6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house upon [t] the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.

7 [b] It may be [u] they will present their supplication [v] before the LORD, and [c] will return every one from [w] his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people.

8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house.

9 And it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, [x] that [y] they proclaimed [z] a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem.

10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in [a] the chamber of Gemariah the son of [b] Shaphan [c] the scribe, in [d] the higher court, at the [e] entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people.

11 ¶ When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of [f] Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD,

12 Then he went down into the king's house, into [g] the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama [h] the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and [i] Elnathan [k] the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of [f] Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.

13 Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the audience of the people.

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read the book in the audience of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our audience. So Baruch read it in their audience.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now how thou didst write all these words at his mouth.

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where you be.

20 And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not.

32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

BARUCH, SON OF NERIAH, SON OF MAASEIAH. (Work of Yahweh Jer. 32:12). appears suddenly in the narrative, as the trusted scribe of Jeremiah's, faithfully recording in writing what the prophet had proclaimed in speech. Courageously he read the record to the people in the Temple when Jeremiah was unable to do so. (V.VS-8). On a wintry day in December, he appeared in the chamber of a friendly noble - Gemariah which commanded a prominent position overlooking the entrance to the Temple V.10. The things heard by Gemariah's son where carried to the princes. At their demand, and doubtless at considerable personal risk, Baruch read it also to them (V.V 15-19).

Baruch witnessed the purchase of the field by Jeremiah (Ch. 32:12) and to him the imprisoned prophet delivered the deeds with instructions how they were to be cared for (V.14).

He became more and more identified with the prophet, and came up for censure by Johanan after the captivity Ch. 43. Due to the antagonism thus incited he, with the prophet, was forcibly taken to Egypt Ch. 43:6.

THE BURNING OF THE BOOK. synchronised with the year of Nebuchadnezzar's dream Dan 2:1. It had been written in the year when Nebuchadnezzar took the city. Jer 36:1. Thus, dramatically, the Word had been presented officially to Judah for the last time and rejected - and in far away Babylon revealed to Gentiles. The rejection of Judah thus initiated the times of Gentiles.

JEHOIAKIM EXCLUDED FROM THE GENEALOGY OF CHRIST. Mat. 1:10.

The genealogy is divided into 3 x 14's. Mth. 1:17. the first in anticipation of the Kingdom the second during the Kingdom, the third when the Kingdom was in dispersion. In the ~~first group~~ second group Ahaziah, Joash and Amaziah were excluded for they are linked with the house of Ahab 2 Kgs. 8:27. Jehoiakim was also excluded because the independence of the Kingdom came to an end with the defeat of Josiah at Megiddo. Nor did he receive mention in the third group because he never went into dispersion and he never received personal mention because his great apostasy and "that which was found in him" 2 Chr. 16:5. showed that he was not truly of the seed of David.

THE PRINCES REQUEST TO HEAR THE SCROLL 14-19

14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them.

15 And they said unto him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.

16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, [b] they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.

17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How didst thou write all these words at his mouth?

18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and [i] I wrote them with ink in the book.

19 Then said the princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be.

THE PRINCES REPORT TO JEHOIAKIM. V. 20.

20 ¶ And they went in to the king into the court, but they laid up the roll [k] in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king.

21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of [m] Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes [p] which stood beside the king.

22 Now the king sat in [q] the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was a fire on the hearth burning before him.

23 And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth.

24 Yet they were not afraid, [c] nor [d] rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.

25 Nevertheless [e] Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah [f] had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them. - Cp Prov. 21:29.

26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and [g] Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, [h] to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid them.

27 ¶ Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,

28 Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned.

29 And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, [l] The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from thence man and beast?

30 Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; [n] He shall have none [o] to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be [r] cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.

31 And I will [s] punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them; but they hearkened not.

32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.

32 Bethaar has opher = The knife of the scribe. Implements for writing were evidently before the King ready for the scribe or secretary's use in case necessary. Among them were the knives used for cutting the pen or making erasures. Furious with anger and contemptuous of the source of the writing the King took up the knife and slashed the scroll to pieces, and then burning it. He thus boldly and impiously showed his ministers that he was determined to continue his own way irrespective as to Yahweh's rebuke.

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND Trust in Egypt had revived with the accession to the throne of a young and enterprising prince by name Uaphra or Hophra. Syria and Palestine were once more stirred with the hope of shaking themselves free from the Chaldean yoke. Zedekiah sent an embassy to the court of Hophra, offering his alliance and asking that troops might be sent to his assistance Ezek 17:15. A secret treaty was probably made, and about the 6th year of his reign Zedekiah took the plunge and despite the warnings of Jeremiah, broke his fealty and openly raised the standard of rebellion against his overlord (2 Kings 24:20 2 Chr 36:13) - an act treated by Ezekiel as a heinous crime (Ezek 17:15, 16, 18, 19; 21:25 etc). Nebuchadnezzar immediately put his forces into motion. Since his expedition against Jerusalem, he had been maintaining an army on the coast of Syria which had been besieg-

32 ¶ Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many [3] like words. 47

CHAPTER 37.

THE GATHERING CRISIS.

IRRESOLUTE RULE ZEDEKIAH. Vv1-2.

He was but a tributary King having taken an oath of homage to Nebuchadnezzar. He was also proved feeble and irresolute, having little of true piety, virtue or policy. In the 5th year of his reign, Ezekiel commenced to prophesy. Ezek 1:2. Josephus says that false prophets discredited the words of Jeremiah and Ezekiel by professing to find discrepancies in them. Jos. Ant. 10:7:4. See Jer. 21. When Nebuchadnezzar set out, Zedekiah inquired of Jeremiah through Pashur as to the outcome.

AND DEPUTATION TO JEREMIAH Vv3-5.

On the attack of Nebuchadnezzar, Zedekiah had sought advice of Jeremiah which he had not heeded. Jer. 21. Jer. 37:2. Now, with danger more imminent he sought the prayers of the prophet as Hezekiah did those of Isaiah Isa. 37:2. This was probably following the covenant referred to in Jer. 34. which was promptly forgotten as soon as the danger had passed. Yahweh is Able. The same as Jucal Ch. 38:1. Yah is Recompense. See Note Jer. 21:1.

EGYPT ADVANCES - CHALDEANS RETREAT. V.5 - TO ATTACK

The news that Egypt was advancing caused Nebuchadnezzar to raise the siege and move quickly south against Egypt. Zedekiah evidently took this as an omen that the false prophets were correct and Jerusalem would not fall to the Babylonians, and revoked the covenant he had put his hands to. Jer. 34:18.

1 The Egyptians having raised the siege of the Chaldeans, Zedekiah sendeth to Jeremiah to pray for the people. 6 Jeremiah prophesieth the Chaldeans' certain return and victory. 11 He is taken for a fugitive, beaten, and put in prison. 16 He assureth Zedekiah of the captivity. 18 Intreating for his liberty, he obtaineth some favour.

AND [a] king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of [b] Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.

2 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, [2] did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake [3] by the prophet Jeremiah. Here see Jeremiah 21

3 And Zedekiah the king sent [p] Jehucal the son of [q] Shelemiah and [r] Zephaniah the son of [s] Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us. Here see Jeremiah 34

4 Now Jeremiah [t] came in and went out among the people: [u] for they had not put him into prison.

5 Then [x] Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them [6] they departed from Jerusalem. Parallel captive come Jews. Jer 52:29.

6 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto the prophet Jeremiah, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, [a] that sent you unto me to enquire of me; Behold, [b] Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, [b] shall return to Egypt into their own land.

8 And [c] the Chaldeans shall come again, and [c] fight against this city, and [c] take it, and [d] burn it with fire.

9 Thus saith the LORD; Deceive not your [2] selves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart.

10 [e] For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but [4] wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and [g] burn this city with fire.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, that [k] when the army of the Chaldeans was [5] broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, 12 Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, [6] to separate himself thence [m] in the midst of the people.

13 And when he was [o] in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward [n] was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of [t] Shelemiah, the son of [t] Hananiah: and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, "Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans.

14 Then said Jeremiah, It is [v] false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to [x] the princes.

15 Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, and smote him, and [c] put him in prison in [d] the house of [16] Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison.

ing Tyre; but His body of troops could not be spared from its uncompleted task. Nebuchadnezzar deemed it necessary to come in person with a large army 2 Kgs 24:1. from Babylon and sit down in full strength before Jerusalem. But Judah was not his only or his principal enemy. Moab, Ammon, Philistia, Edom were all more or less hostile. At a certain point in his advance he came to a crossroad which led to Ramah on the one hand and Jerusalem on the other. Here he had recourse to divination which directed him on to Jerusalem (Ezek 21:20-22). Judah was ravaged far and wide. All the strongholds fell except Lachish and Azekah

Jer 24:7. Nebuchadnezzar personally directed the siege of Jerusalem. Mounds were raised against the walls especially to the north, movable towers were brought up, the city was assailed with battering-rams and engines of various kinds, slingers and archers drew nearer and nearer, resistance seemed hopeless when the hopes of the defenders were raised by the news that Egypt was on the march. The siege was raised and Nebuchadnezzar marched south to meet this new menace. Jer. 37:5

THE KING SEEKS AN AUDIENCE WITH THE PROPHET VV 16-17.

Jeremiah is cast into a dungeon.

16 ¶ When Jeremiah was entered into [b] the dungeon, and into the [3] cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;

17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took him out: and the king asked him [2] secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, [c] thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

18 Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?

19 'Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?

20 Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: [4] let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; [l] that thou cause me not to return to [m] the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah [n] into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily [o] a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, [p] until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained [n] in the court of the prison.

3 Thus saith the LORD, [d] This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, [f] which shall take it.

4 Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, [g] let this man be put to death: for thus [h] he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the [3] welfare of this people, but the hurt.

5 Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: for [k] the king is not he that can do any thing against you.

6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into [m] the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was [o] in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And [q] in the dungeon there was no water, but mire: so Jeremiah [s] sunk in the mire.

8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying,

9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and [c] he is like to die for hunger [c] in the place where he is: for [@] there is no more bread in the city.

Jeremiah's advice

10 Then the king commanded [b] Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men [2] with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.

11 So [b] Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast [g] clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.

12 And [b] Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine [k] armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.

13 So they drew up Jeremiah [m] with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

ZEDEKIAH'S FINAL INTERVIEW WITH JEREMIAH 14-16

14 ¶ Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the [3] third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me.

15 Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me?

16 So Zedekiah the king sware [t] secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, [u] As the LORD liveth, [v] that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of [w] these men that seek thy life.

SECOND ADVICE: CAPITULATE Vv 17-18.

17 Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly [a] go forth [b] unto the king of Babylon's princes, then [c] thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house:

"THE END HAS COME" EZEK. 7:2.

18 But [a] if thou wilt not go forth [c] to the king of Babylon's princes, then [d] shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, [d] and they shall burn it with fire, and [e] thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

19 And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews [f] that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they [h] mock me.

20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. [i] Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so [l] it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live.

SAFETY LAYS IN OBEDIENCE 20-23.

21 But if thou refuse [n] to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me:

22 And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, [4] Thy friends [o] have set thee on, and [p] have prevailed against thee: thy feet [q] are sunk in the mire, and [r] they are turned away back.

23 So they shall bring out all thy wives and [s] thy children to the Chaldeans: and [t] thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and [5] [t] thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

24 ¶ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die.

25 But [x] if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee:

THE FLIGHT.

It was night and under cover of darkness Zedekiah and his little army hurried in the opposite direction. By the rocky ravine of the Kedron they fled as far as the plains of Jericho, hoping to cross the Jordan and elude their pursuers — in vain.

The siege had lasted 1 year 5 mths 27 days. It was early July and the wheat harvest ought have been near. But provisions had long since began to fail. Still there was no thought of surrender. Zedekiah stayed within the walls from very weakness of mind; the princes because they would rather starve than surrender. Sights of horror were enacted in the homes Lam. 2:20, 4:10. The famished warriors could no longer defend the one weak point in their fortifications. With a wild shout, the besiegers poured through a breach in the northern wall.

27 Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So [3] they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

1 Jerusalem is taken. 4 Zedekiah is made blind, and sent to Babylon. 8 The city destroyed, 9 the people taken captive. 11 Nebuchadrezzar's charge concerning Jeremiah. 15 God's promise to Ebed-melech.

IN the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and they besieged it.

2 And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the city was broken up.

3 And [m] all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and [n] sat in the middle gate, even Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, [o] Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, [p] Rab-mag, with all the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass, that [q] when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain.

5 But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to [b] Riblah in the land of Hamath, where [b] he [2] gave judgment upon him.

6 Then the king of Babylon slew [c] the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: [d] also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

7 Moreover he [e] put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him [t] with chains, to carry him to Babylon.

8 ¶ And [h] the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

9 Then Nebuzar-adan the [3] captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and [i] those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained.

10 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left [i] of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields [7] at the same time.

11 ¶ Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah [s] to Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard, saying,

12 Take him, and [s] look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee.

13 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushasban, [r] Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, [4] Rab-mag, and all the king of Babylon's princes;

At Ramah he was ceremoniously released with words of commendation which indicted his hard-hearted fellow-citizens who had rejected the message.

What a reproach to the fallen Jews – to hear such a statement from the pagan commander. The shackles on their hands were a token that they were enslaved to sin and thus appropriately were on their way to Babylon.

This tragic incident which sealed the fate of those left in the land was commemorated by a fast Zech. 7:3 which was continued until the blessing of Yahweh at the return Zech. 8:19 which fasts and feasts foreshadow the conversion of the former to the latter at Messiah's return.

NOW it came to pass [a] in the seventh month, [b] that [c] Ishmael the son of Nethaniah the son of [d] Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to [e] Mizpah; and there [f] they did eat bread 3 together in Mizpah. 2 [b] Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, [n] whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. 4

3 Ishmael also slew all [b] the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and [b] the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war. 5

4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,

6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, [3] weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.

7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, [d] and cast them into the midst of [e] the pit, he, and the men that were with him.

8 But ten men were found among them that said unto Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have [f] treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he for-

Johanan warns Him of Ishmael's Treachery

26 Sig In exultation Sfr.
27 The vengeance of Yahweh awaited them for such deeds as this Jer. 49:4-6. Zech. 14:
28 Gedaliah's trusting nature could not believe such treachery of a fellow Jew. He measured all on the standard of his own integrity
29 He could see the urgency of the matter, and urged that he be permitted to murder the arch-enemy. His suggestion shocked Gedaliah who thought that none could be so base as Johanan represented Ishmael to be.
30 Johanan realised that Ishmael threatened the lives of the remnant in the land as well as that of Gedaliah. The cause itself was threatened.
31 Thus governed by his feelings Gedaliah permitted the tragedy to be developed. He should have sought counsel of Yahweh as he doubtless could have done through Jeremiah.

981 He would prefer to be chieftain over a small band of Jews in Ammon than that! Cp V. 10. Meanwhile the revolt had to be kept secret at any cost.

CHAPTER 41

ISHMAEL STRIKES!

MASSACRE AT MIZPEH 1-3.

The grossest act of base treachery is committed by Ishmael against the trusting Gedaliah.
1 On the 4th month the city had been breached Ch. 39:2. On the 5th month Jer. 52:12. had commenced its systematic destruction. Thus Gedaliah had only been established in his position, hence proclaimed his policy of appeasement Ch. 40:10.
2 See Note Jer 40:8.
3 This is an act of friendship Isa. 21:14 tantamount to a covenant. Ishmael's action was designed to take Gedaliah off his guard and to indicate that he concurred with his policy. Gedaliah had rejected all warnings. Ch. 40:13-16.
4 This was the reason for the attack. At the signal given by Ishmael when he arose, the conspirators likewise arose and commenced a systematic slaughter of all Jews present beginning with the governor. It was rebellion against Babylon.
5 This was a declaration of war. Ishmael had burned his boats behind him. There could be no peace with Babylon. The slaughter involved all sympathisers with Gedaliah's policy in Mizpeh. Yet for a time the assassins kept their crime secret outside those immediately affected.

10 Thus disguising himself as a supporter of Gedaliah and overwhelmed with the calamities on Israel. His motive seems rage against acceptance of any domination of Babylon. V. 2.

THE RETURN TO EGYPT. The escape of Ishmael placed Johanan in a predicament. Had he been able to deliver the arch-conspirator to the Chaldeans he may have been able to obtain a continuance of Nebuchadrezzar's favour. But appearances were against him. He had allowed a few bold men to subvert the existing organisation, to kill the representatives of Babylon, and to escape unpunished. Vengeance would assuredly be taken for this. They decided to make for Egypt and by-passing Mizpah pressed on to the place near Bethlehem where a caravansary had been set up by Chimham the son of Barzillai. 2 Sam. 19:37-38. Here a fresh council of war was held. It was no slight matter for them to return to the very land out of which they had been divinely guided. They approached Jeremiah as suppliants promising to cheerfully obey the commands of Yahweh. But in vain!

9 Now [a] the pit wherein Ishmael had cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain [2 3] because of Gedaliah, was it [c] which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.

10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people [4] that were in Mizpah, [h] even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, [i] whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to [k] the Ammonites.

WARNING IF THEY RETURN TO EGYPT. Vv 13-18

13 ¶ [f] But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God,

14 Saying, No; but [h] we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor [i] hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:

They probably showed on their faces their disappointment at this message. As he saw their sullen obstinacy Jeremiah warned of the dire results of returning to that land, which Yahweh delivered them at such cost to Egypt.

4 Jeremiah was probably cognisant of their murmurings. Doubtless Baruch had apprised him of the discussions that had taken place. P Ch. 43:3.

15 And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; [d] If ye wholly [f] set your faces to enter into Egypt, and [g] go to sojourn there;

16 Then it shall come to pass, that [h] the sword, [i] which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and [h] the famine, whereof ye were afraid, [2] shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

17 [3] So shall it be with all the men that [m] set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; [p] they shall die [h] by the sword, [h] by the famine, and by the pestilence: and [q] none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.

The punishment threatened against David (2 Sam. 24:13) was now to be confirmed against his faithless seed.

18 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As [t] mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and [z] ye shall be [z] an execration, and [z] an astonishment, and [a] a curse, and [a] a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

JEREMIAH ACCUSES THEM OF HYPOCRISY. Vv 19-22

8 For it is the land of idolatry.

9 This forthright speech is a token of the tremendous courage of Jeremiah. Despite the desperate attitude of the people, their impatience of any opposition, and the violence of the times he does not hesitate to speak his mind freely and without restraint.

20 For [e] ye dissembled in your hearts, [e] when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, [e] Pray for us unto the LORD our God; [g] and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it.

21 And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing [k] for the which he hath sent me unto you.

CHAPTER 43.

1 Johanan, discrediting Jeremiah's prophecy, carrieth Jeremiah and others into Egypt. 8 Jeremiah prophesieth by a type the conquest of Egypt by the Babylonians.

AND it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words,

2 Then spake Azariah the son of [c] Hoshaiah, and [f] Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the [h] proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, [k] Go not into Egypt to sojourn there:

3 But [m] Baruch the son of Neriah [n] setteth thee on against us, [o] for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon.

4 So [s] Johanan the son of Kareah, and [s] all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah.

5 But [s] Johanan the son of Kareah, and [s] all the captains of the forces, took [u] all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah;

6 Even [x] men, and [x] women, and children, and [y] the king's daughters, and every person that [z] Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and [m] Baruch the son of Neriah.

7 So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to [2b] Tahpanhes.

8 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in [b] Tahpanhes, saying,

9 Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in [c] the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in [b] Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;

10 And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, [d] my servant, and [g] will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.

11 And when he cometh, [i] he shall smite the land of Egypt, and deliver [l] such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.

12 And [p] I will kindle a fire in the houses of [q] the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and [r] carry them away captives: and he shall [t] array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace.

13 He shall break also the [4] images of [5] Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and [q] the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

LOOK AT ROLL STATE OF JEWS IN EGYPT
JEREMIAH CALLS UPON THEM TO CONSIDER THEIR WAYS
1-10.

EGYPT BRINGS IDOLATRY AND DISASTER.
The women of Judah take the fore in turning to idolatry. Cp. Amos 4:1.

The Jews' idolatry in Egypt threatened.

1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at [a]Migdol, and at [b]Tahpanhes, and at [c]Noph, and in the country of [d]Pathros, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are [e] a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein,

3 Because of their wickedness which they have committed [f] to provoke me to anger, in that they went [g] to burn incense, and to serve [h] other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers.

4 Howbeit [i] I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, [i] rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

5 [j] But they hearkened not, [j] nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, [k] to burn no incense unto other gods.

6 Wherefore [l] my fury and mine anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are [m] wasted and [n] desolate, as at this day.

7 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil [o] against your souls, to cut off from you [p] man and woman, [q] child and suckling, [r] out of Judah, to [s] leave you none to remain;

8 In that ye [t] provoke me unto wrath with [u] the works of your hands, [v] burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be [w] a curse and [x] a reproach among all the nations of the earth?

9 Have ye forgotten the [y] wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of [z] their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of [a] your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?

10 They are not [b] humbled even unto this day, neither have they [c] feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

11 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, [d] I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah.

12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have [e] set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and [f] they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed [f] by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, [g] from the least even unto the greatest, [f] by the sword and by the famine: and [h] they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and [i] a curse, and [i] a reproach.

13 [k] For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, [f] by the sword, [f] by the famine, and [f] by the pestilence:

14 So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall [l] escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they [m] have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape.

PHAKOAH-HOPHRA v.30. (cp p.976). Known as Pharaoh Apries. According to ancient historians (Herodotus etc) the Egyptian subjects rebelling, he sent Amasis a general, to reduce them to their duty. But no sooner had Amasis begun to appeal to them than they fixed a helmet on his head, and proclaimed him King. Amasis accepted the title and confirmed the Egyptians in their revolt; and the greater part of the nation declaring for him Hophra was obliged to retire into Upper Egypt. The country thus weakened by intestine war, was attacked and easily overcome by Nebuchadrezzar whoon quitting it left Amasis his viceroy. Hophra then marched on Amasis but being defeated at Memphis, was taken prisoner 21 Melecheth - Queen St. The women had tired of the reforms of Jeremiah and desired to return to their former easy state. Jer. 7:18. They could not see any material advantage in serving Yahweh for they lacked faith.

22 The flesh being satisfied all was well. They would serve Yahweh if He satisfied the flesh.

23 Their forms of worship were similar to those enjoined by Yahweh. Exod. 9:23 Lev. 2:14. 23:16. Num. 15:10. but were offered to a false god. This was perversion and apostasy. 24 Their vows had been endorsed by the men, and as the law demanded (cp Num. 30:6-16) why should Jeremiah complain!

JEREMIAH'S REPLY. YOUR RELIGION IS THE CAUSE OF YOUR TROUBLES. 44:20-23.

25 They spake and acted as though Yahweh was ignorant of their actions, as though He were like the idols they worshipped dumb, deaf, inanimate. Jeremiah reminds them that the current troubles were due to the fact that He was cognisant of their actions

18 Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,

16 As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee.

17 But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.

18 But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.

19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our men?

20 ¶ Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying,

21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind?

22 So that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed: therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day.

23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

24 Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt:

25 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

26 Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD liveth.

27 Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.

28 Yet a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs.

29 ¶ And this shall be a sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, EGYPTIAN INTERVENTION & BATTLE CARCHEMISH. - When Ashur-uballit had withdrawn from Nineveh to Harran to establish the Assyrian royal court there, he was supported by Egyptian troops, with whose aid he held the city for two years. The city ultimately fell. To bring adequate support Nechoh marched from Egypt & established himself in Carchemish 2 Kgs 23:29. 2 Chr. 35:20. From there, in company with Ashur-uballit Necho crossed the river to regain Harran but was unable to do so. (see Note 2 Chr. 35:20). The Euphrates now became the Egyptian - Babylonian border and the aged Nabopolassar was unable to dislodge his enemy. Finally under the Crown-prince Nebuchadrezzar the decisive battle took place.

CHAPTER 45.

This Chapter is linked with Ch 36 but finds its position here because it is a natural introduction to the Chapters which follow. These chapters could form some of the additional matter given Jeremiah at the time Cp. Ch 36:32.

2 The unexpected success of the Babylonians became the occasion of several prophecies concerning of ultimate destruction at their hands. Cp. ch. 25:1. 36:1. 45:1. 3-4 VAST EGYPTIAN PREPARATIONS. In a very animated style and great poetic energy and colouring the prophet describes the Egyptian preparations to meet the Babylonian attack at Carchemish. 2A "Coats of mail" (Blayney).

THE VISION OF DEFEAT. 5-6 3 The prophet describes a vision he saw of the discomfited Egyptians, panic-stricken and fleeing.

4 It will be useless for them destruction will be complete.

EGYPTIAN CONFIDENCE. 5-10 The confidence of Nechoh to meet the threat of Nebuchadrezzar is here described. Hitherto successful he is led on to doom unconscious of the fact that in this the purpose of Yahweh is fulfilled V.10.
5 Carchemish and on to Babylon.
6 Bochart and others maintain that Arabs adjacent to Egypt here referred to. 6A and the Lydians = Ethiopia.
7 "Because" (Blayney). They are led on to their doom because of His reason.
8 The defeat of the Egyptians was absolutely decisive. According to Babylonian records, under the vigorous generalship of Nebuchadrezzar the Egyptian were overwhelmed at Carchemish. They retired to Hamath with the Babylonians on their heels. Here a further battle took place even more disastrous than the first. Egyptian resistance was broken 12 The nations have heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together.

13 ¶ The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.

14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee.

15 Why are thy valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them.

16 He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another: and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.

17 They did cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed.

18 As I live, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.

19 O thou daughter dwelling in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant.

20 Egypt is like a very fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north.

21 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation.

22 The voice thereof shall go like a serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.

23 They shall cut down her forest, saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable.

24 The daughter of Egypt shall be confounded; ~~she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.~~

25 The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saith; Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him:

26 And I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD.

27 ¶ But fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for, behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and be in rest and at ease, and none shall make him afraid.

28 Fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD: for I am with thee; for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee: but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure; yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

IN 1881 (Pulpit Com.)

No confirmatory evidence existed that Nebuchadnezzar ever invaded Egypt, and the fact was disputed. Three of his own inscriptions have since been discovered near Tahpahnes proving he invaded Egypt in his 37th year about 18 years after Jeremiah uttered the prophecy of Jer. 43:10.

DESTRUCTION OF MEMPHIS V19.

With the overthrow of Thebes, Memphis again became the Capital. In the 7th Century it was the Residence of the Governor of Egypt who made terms there with the Arab Invaders. The founding of Cairo drew the people away from Memphis. Yet its glory remained. An Arab traveller, Abd-ul-Latif (13th Cent.) wrote: "Its ruins still offer to the eye of the spectator a collection of wonderful works which confound the intellect, & to describe which the most eloquent man would labor in vain. The longer we look upon the scene, the higher rises the admiration it inspires; every new glance that we cast upon the scene reveals a new charm..." (Wonders of Prophecy - J. Urquhart).

Egypt never fully recovered. It was successively dominated by the Persians, Greeks, Romans, Saracens, and Mamelukes. Early in the 16th Century the Turks took possession. Towards the end of 19th Century the French came on the scene. They were driven out by the English who handed control back to Turks. In 1882 the national party under Orabi Pasha revolted and forced the Turkish ruler to flee - and Britain marched in to restore order. Today Russia is attempting the same. 36 Therefore mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: because the riches that he hath gotten are perished.

37 For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.

38 ~~There shall be lamentation generally upon all the house-tops of Moab~~, and in the streets thereof: for ~~I have broken Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD.~~

39 They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying to all them about him.

40 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab.

41 Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.

42 ~~And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD.~~

43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, ~~saith the LORD.~~

44 He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD.

45 They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.

46 Woe be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives.

47 ¶ Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

CHAPTER 49.

1 Judgment of the Ammonites. 6 Their restoration. 7 Judgment of Edom, 23 of Damascus, 28 of Kedar, 30 of Hazor, 34 of Elam. 39 Restoration of Elam.

CONCERNING the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities?

2 Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD.

3 Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together.

4 Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me?

5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth.

6 And afterward I will bring

7 ¶ [b] Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; [d] Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?

8 [h] Flee ye, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of [i] Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him.

9 [m] If grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? [m] if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough.

10 But [o] I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his brethren, and his neighbours, and [r] he sois not.

11 Leave thy fatherless children, I [t] will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, they whose judgment was [x] not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and [z] art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but thou shalt surely drink of it.

13 For [a] I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that [c] Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.

14 [e] I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, [v] saying, Gather ye together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.

CHAPTER 51.

1 The severe judgment of God against Babylon in revenge of Israel. 59 Jeremiah delivereth the book of this prophecy to Seraiah, to be cast into Euphrates, in token of the perpetual sinking of Babylon.

THUS saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in the [a] midst of [d] them that rise up against me, [e] a destroying wind;

2 And will send unto Babylon [f] fanners, that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for [k] in the day of trouble they shall be against her [l] round about.

3 Against [m] him that bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against [m] him that lifteth himself up in his [n] brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; [o] destroy ye utterly all her host.

4 Thus the slain shall fall in the land of the Chaldeans, and they that are [q] thrust through [r] in her streets.

5 For [s] Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.

6 [u] Flee out of the midst of Babylon, [x] and deliver every man his soul: be not [y] cut off in her iniquity; for [z] this is the time of the LORD's vengeance; [b] he will render unto her a recompence.

7 Babylon hath been [d] a golden cup in the LORD's hand, that made all the earth drunken: [e] the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations [f] are mad.

8 [g] Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: [i] howl for her; [k] take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.

9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: [u] forsake her, and [o] let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth [b] unto heaven, and is lifted up even to [b] the skies.

10 The LORD hath brought forth [c] our righteousness: come, and [d] let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God.

11 [h] Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: 'the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of [k] the Medes: for [l] his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; [m] because it is the vengeance of the LORD, [m] the vengeance of his temple.

12 Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, [n] make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the [o] ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon.

13 [q] O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy covetousness.

14 The LORD of hosts [s] hath sworn [3] by himself, [t] saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with [x] caterpillers; and they shall [t] lift up [z] a shout against thee.

15 [a] He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding.

16 When he uttereth his voice, there is a [1] multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures.

17 Every man [c] is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.

18 They are vanity, the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.

19 The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and [@] Israel is the rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name.

20 [g] Thou art my battle axe and weapons of war: for [3] with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms;

21 And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider;

22 With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces [p] old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces [p] the young man and the maid;

23 I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers.

24 [u] And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea [y] all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD.

25 Behold, I am against thee, [b] O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee down from the rocks, and will make thee [c] a burnt mountain.

26 And they shall not take of thee [d] a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be [9] desolate for ever, saith the LORD.

27 [e] Set ye up a standard in the land, [f] blow the trumpet among the nations, [o] prepare the nations against her, call together against her [h] the kingdoms of [i] Ararat, [k] Minni, and [l] Ashchenaz; appoint a [m] cap-

THE CITY IS TAKEN. 30ff.

A year before the siege of Babylon Cyrus defeated a Babylonish army after which they retired behind their walls. When he entered the city he made proclamation that the people remain in their houses on pain of death. In similar fashion the defeat of Gogue will cause Babylon the Great to retire behind its borders.

Neubigauer renders: "Courier comes to meet courier —messenger meets messenger —to inform the King of Babylon that his city is taken at the extremity, that the passages are stopped (i.e. surrounded), that fires are burning among the reeds, that the men of war are terrified." bylon;] and [a] her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.]

48 Then [d] the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers [shall come unto her from the north, saith the LORD.

49 [3] As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all [3] the earth.

50 [k] Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: "remember the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem "come into your mind!

51 [p] We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house.

52 [r] Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that [t] I will do judgment upon her graven images: and [t] through all her land [x] the wounded shall groan.

53 Though Babylon should [v] mount up to heaven, and though she should [v] fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD.

54 [a] A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans:

55 Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great [b] voice; when [c] her waves do roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered:

56 Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: for [d] the LORD God of recompences shall surely requite.

57 And [h] I will make drunk her princes, and [i] her wise men, [b] her captains, and [b] her rulers, and her mighty men; and [c] they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, [c] and not wake, [e] saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

58 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [2] [v] The broad walls of Babylon shall be [w] utterly [l] broken, and [m] her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labour [n] in vain, and [i] the folk [j] in the fire, [f] and [m] they shall be weary.

60 So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even [4] all these words that are written against Babylon.

61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words;

62 Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against this place, to cut it off, [e] that none shall remain in it, [z] neither man nor beast, but that it shall be [8] desolate for ever.

63 And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that [6] thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates:

64 And thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon [d] sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: [e] and they shall be weary. [f] Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

THE SIEGE OF JERUSALEM

VV 4-7 Additional notes Ch 39

8 Proclaimed a fast. Zech. 8:19.

Jerusalem is besieged and taken.

1 ZEDEKIAH was one and twenty years old when he [2]began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

2 And he did that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

3 For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

4 ¶ And it came to pass [a]in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about.

5 So the city was besieged unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

6 And in the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

7 Then the city was broken up, [b]and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain. →Araboh

8 ¶ But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

9 Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him.

JUDGMENT ON ZEDEKIAH

VV 10-11 Notes. Ch 39.

10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.

THE CITY DESTROYED. VV 12-14.

12 ¶ Now in [c]the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, [c]which was [d]the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzar-adan, [6][7]captain of the guard, [8]which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem,

13 And burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned he with fire:

14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem round about. [e] 2 Kg 25:10

15 Then Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carried away captive [f]certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those [g]that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude.

16 But Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard left [i]certain of the poor of the land for vinedressers and for husbandmen.

In 2 Kg 28:8 = 7th day Nebuzaradan came from Riblah to Jerusalem; but it seems he did not set fire to the Temple & City until the 10th day being probably occupied on the intervening days in taking the vessels out of the house of Yahweh & collecting all the riches that could be found. In commemoration of this tragedy two fasts were held - the 17 of 4th Month for destruction of Jerusalem & 9th of 5th month for destruction of the Temple Zech 7:3-5; 8:19.

watching for the signal stations of Lachish, according to the signals which my lord has given ... we are no longer receiving signals from Azekah." This message told Jaush, the commanding officer at Lachish, that Azekah had fallen. Nebuchadrezzar could now withdraw his engineers for the attack on the last fortress but one. "The Biblical History" Starkey revealed that Lachish was overthrown by a new technique. The forests were cleared for miles around and the wood piled high against the walls of the doomed fort. This was fired. Sheets of flame must have kept skyhigh as a ring of fire encased the fort. Ultimately the white-hot stones burst and the walls caved in. Lack of wood prevented this technique being used at Jerusalem. Instead it was attacked by battering rams and siege engines. After 18 months it fell.

[a] the caldrons, and [b] the candlesticks, and [a] the spoons, and [c] the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, took the captain of the guard away.

20 The two pillars, one sea, and [d] twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: [2] the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

21 And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and [g] a [3] fillet of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was [h] hollow.

22 And a chapiter of brass was upon it; and the height of one chapiter was [i] five cubits, with [j] network and pomegranates upon the chapiters round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these.

23 And there were [m] ninety and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about.

24 ¶ And the captain of the guard took Seraiah [o] the chief priest, and Zephaniah [p] the second priest, and [q] the three keepers of the [3] door:

25 He took also out of the city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and [r] seven men of them that [7] were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the [s] principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.

26 So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard took them, priests who stood at the door to receive the offerings of the people, and were Hus Keepers of the sacred treasury; an office of high trust and consideration 2Kg 1001 see Index opp. W. for Threshold.

and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. Jer. 39:5.

27 And the king of Babylon smote them, [10] and put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus [10A] Judah was carried away captive out of his own land.

28 This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: [11] [e] in the seventh year three thousand Jews and three and twenty:

29 [f] In the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two [8] persons:

30 In the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard [k] carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.

31 ¶ [m] And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in [9] the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach [n] king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of [q] Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison, Prov. 21:1

32 And spake [6] kindly unto him, and set his throne above the throne [t] of the kings that were with him in Babylon,

33 And changed his prison garments: and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life. 2 years!!

34 And for his [u] diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, [v] every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

MINOR DEPORTATION OF JEWS. Vv 28-30.

See Note Ezek. 1. The departations mentioned here seem to be minor ones not referred to elsewhere and gathered together in this place to complete the picture.

11 These were probably those taken into captivity by the bands of Chaldeans etc. sent by Nebuchadnezzar recorded in 2 Kgs 24 1-2.

12 When the siege was broken off at the advance of the Egyptians Jer. 37:5 and doubtless relates to the prisoners in the camp. (The city fell the following year)

13 Engaged in the siege of Tyre, Nebuchadrezzar sent an expedition against the Ammonites, Moabites etc. probably taking captive these refugee Jews. Josephus speaks of this expedition as taking place in the 23rd year.

But 10 years were not up and their hopes were soon dashed. Within 2 years a revolt occurred. Evil-Merodach was slain and Neriglissar - a usurper - took the throne. Jehoiachin probably fell with his patron.

The friendship of Babylon did not help Jehoiachin

But as they were in 4 sets of rows on the wreath work of the 2 pillars (i.e. "toward every wind") there must have been 4 angular pomegranates that could not be said to be toward the wind. In 4 sets there would total 16 giving the complete number of 400. Thus each set was 100 round about.

AN ELEGY IN A GRAVEYARD — is divided into 5 different Elegies, four of which the first four are acrostic. The fifth, though divided into 22 vv answering to Hebrew alphabet is not acrostic. It is as though, in that closing prayer, the poet forgot his mechanical device in his excess of grief and poured out his heart to Yahweh in an outburst of intense feeling.

The Book forms an Introverted poem the two former chapters corresponding to the two latter ones and being bridged by the long centre Chapter.

JERUSALEM'S SAD PLIGHT

BEWAILED BY THE PROPHET. 1-11. 18:6-7

Jeremiah mourns Jerusalem's sad reverses, at the same time sorrowfully confessing that all her miseries were of her own seeking, the result of national wickedness and rebellion against Yahweh.

HOW hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger!

2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground: he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof.

3 He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about.

4 He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like fire.

5 The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

CHAPTER 3 - CONSTRUCTION — Each verse in this Chapter is a line in the Hebrew in which the chapter is divided into 22 vv. Thus each verse has 3 lines and each line commences with the same letter. In it the prophet is representative of the nation and speaks in the name of the whole. He is also typical and prophetical of the Lord who took upon himself the sins of the nation and whosoever will approach the father through him.

OUTLINE OF THE CHAPTER.

Jeremiah as an example of the most severe and trying afflictions Vv 1-21.
Points to the inexhaustible mercy of Yahweh as a never-failing source of consolation & hope. Vv 22-30.
He is ever gracious to those who seek Him, He is prone to pardon and pity and takes no delight in punishing Vv 31-38.
He is not like man delighting in tyranny, malice and injustice 34-36.
Yahweh's goodness is such that none can rightly complain of injustice 37-39
This is evident if we examine our motives and actions 40-47
Jeremiah stresses his grief at the current evils 48-51
They remind him of his own sufferings 52-54
But he recalls his salvation 55-58
He mentions current evils 59-63
And anticipates Divine judgment on such. 64-66

33 For [a] he doth not afflict willingly nor grieve the children of men.

34 To crush under his feet all the prisoners of the earth,

35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the most High,

36 To subvert a man in his cause, the Lord approveth not.

37 Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?

38 Out of the mouth of the most High proceedeth not evil and good?

39 Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.

41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

42 We have transgressed and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned.

43 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, thou hast not pitied.

44 Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, that our prayer should not pass through.

45 Thou hast made us as the offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people.

46 All our enemies have opened their mouths against us.

47 Fear and a snare is come upon us, desolation and destruction.

48 Mine eye runneth down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people.

49 Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any intermission,

50 Till the LORD look down, and behold from heaven.

51 Mine eye affecteth mine heart because of all the daughters of my city.

52 Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause.

53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon me.

54 Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off.

55 I called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon.

56 Thou hast heard my voice: hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry.

57 Thou drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou saidst, Fear not.

58 O Lord, thou hast pleaded the causes of my soul; thou hast redeemed my life.

59 O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong: judge thou my cause.

60 Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all their imaginations against me.

61 Thou hast heard their reproach, O LORD, and all their imaginations against me;

62 The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.

63 Behold their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their musick.

64 Render unto them a recompence, O LORD, according to the work of their hands.

65 Give them sorrow of heart, thy curse unto them.

66 Persecute and destroy them in anger from under the heavens of the LORD.

THE TERRIBLE PLIGHT OF JERUSALEM.

The punishment it reaped was worse than that of Sodom V6 because its guilt was greater 1Kin.11:21-24. It experienced a slow, lingering death two frightening examples of which are given. ● The shocking effects of the famine that ravaged the city Vs 8-9. ● The vile and gruesome murders that were occasioned by it V.10. ● Every aspect of compassion, kindness, and decency was destroyed by the extremities to which the people were reduced.

[1007] ying southern Judea were finally completely absorbed by the Maccabees.

37 With trouble. As V.16.

38 Terrible as the punishment was it was not comparable to the sin, and it was limited. Jer. 25:11-12, 29:10.

35 YACAPH - To add, augment. Str. to increase.

36 "Carry away" = GALAH - To denude, to strip Str. Ges = to uncover, to reveal some hidden thing. Rend. "reveal" Isa. 20:2-4. Jer. 13:6. No additional denuding or stripping to be revealed. Thus they will return.

37 In contradistinction this will result in utter extinction.

38 Yahweh covers sins when He forgives Ps. 32:1. He "discovers" them by punishing Jer. 20.

3 ISRAEL'S VAIN CONFIDENCE IN GENTILES 17-20

RV: "Our eyes do yet fail in [2] looking for our vain help" They relied on the broken reed of Egypt Isa. 36:6, Jer. 37:7-8.

Evidently the city was defended street by street & house by house - adding to the misery & mortality of the defenders.

Their keen eyes espied the prey and swiftly they swooped to the kill Jer. 4:13.

Fugitives had no hope of escape.

The King on the theocratic throne 1 Chr. 29:23 represented the life-breath of the nation. Once he was taken the throne ceased. Ezek. 21:25-27. Cp Ps. 89:39.

Hunted like an animal. Cp. 2 Kings 25:4-6.

So long as the King remained, there was some hope of national existence among the Gentiles, but once the "breath of their nostrils" was taken - the nation expired.

4 EDOM WARNED: HER REJOICING WILL BE SHORT-LIVED 21-22

An ironic invitation to Edom to savour her rejoicing to the full for it shall be short lived. Cp Obad. Jer. 49:7-22. They most ungenerously rejoiced at the calamities of Israel, cutting off the fugitives from Beersheba Obad. 10-11. and forgetting the responsibilities of the Brotherly Covenant Amos 1:9.

PRAYER IN TIME OF NEED.

"Is any afflicted? - let him pray." Jam. 5:13. Nehemiah: "Let not all the trouble seem little before Thee, that hath come upon us" Neh. 9:32.

HOPE IN THE END. V.22. The RVmg = "But" at "Unless". Both: "For though Thou hast not utterly rejected us." The desolations fallen on Zion are inconsistent with the covenant relationship of faith in Abraham and David which guarantees the future of the nation. Thus the Lamentations end on a faint note of Hope. See also. Jer. 29:10-14.

CHAPTER 5.

A pitiful complaint of Zion in prayer unto God.

[b] REMEMBER, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and behold our reproach.

2 [f] Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our houses to aliens.

3 We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are as widows.

4 We have drunken our water for money; our wood [g] is sold unto us.

5 [i] Our necks are under persecution: [k] we labour, and have no rest.

6 [m] We have given the hand [o] to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

7 Our fathers have sinned, and are not; and we have borne their iniquities.

8 [t] Servants have ruled over us: there is none that doth [u] deliver us out of their hand.

9 We gat our bread with the peril of our lives because of the sword of the wilderness.

10 [x] Our skin was black like an oven because of the [y] terrible famine.

11 [a] They ravished the women in Zion, and the maids in the cities of Judah.

12 Princes are hanged up by their hand: the faces of [a] elders [c] were not honoured.

13 They took the young men [d] to grind, and the children [e] fell under the wood.

14 The elders have ceased from the gate, the young men from [@] their musick.

16 [j] The crown is fallen from our head: woe unto us, that we have sinned!

17 For this [@] our heart is faint; for these things [n] our eyes are dim.

18 Because of the mountain of Zion, [p] which is desolate, [q] the foxes walk upon it.

19 [r] Thou, O LORD, remainest for ever; [s] thy throne from generation to generation.

20 [t] Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, and forsake us [s] so long time?

21 [@] Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned; renew our days as of old.

ATTITUDE OF JEWS after 1st deportation.

The Jewish exiles were distributed into different settlements throughout Babylonia, forming small communities with certain organisation and freedom to worship

One such colony was of Tel-abib Ch 3:15 and in it Ezekiel must have been a dominant figure Ezek. 11:21.

In Jerusalem the deadly dope of false prophets (Gp Jer. 27:9. 29:1-10) had spread the idea that those who remained were Heaven's favorites, that the city was inviolate and they would not be removed. Gp Ezek. 11:15. 33:24.

In exile, the infatuated Jews were permeated with the delusive idea that their captivity would soon end Ezek 13:10, 17

Fleeting continually

Their teaching was supported by Hananiah of Jerusalem who predicted they would return in 2 yrs with the vessels of the Temple (Jer. 28). Jeremiah wrote to the exiles warning them to take no heed. Jer. 29. His letter was replied to by one of the exiles - Shemaiah suggesting that the priest Zephaniah should imprison Jeremiah as a madman Jer. 29:24-28.

But the death of Hananiah, the voice of Ezekiel, necessitate captivities destroyed all hopes of a speedy return.

EZEKIEL was a man of determination not deterred by opposition Ezek. 3:8-9. He was commanded to proclaim the Word, which was [a] the fifth year of [b] king Jehoiachin's captivity,

3 The word of the LORD came expressly unto [c] Ezekiel [c] the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and [e] the hand of the LORD was there upon him. There was no doubt about it assuredly

THE EXILE IN BABYLONIA RECEIVES A VISION COMPARABLE TO THE EXILE IN PATMOS. The glory of the future Cherubim foreshadowed in Eden. Gen 3:24. In the Tabernacle where Yahweh revealed Himself to man. Exod 25:18-22. In the future glory when the Visions of Elohim revealed in Temple. Ezek. 41:1-2.

As the Cherubim in Temple was the Chariot of Divine Majesty or throne of Yahweh in Israel 1 Chr. 28:18. and as the 4 divisions guarded the Tabernacle, the symbol of His presence, so the Cherubim are the foundation of the future.

He seemed to be held in respect by the Jews. Ezek 33:31 though they did not heed his words. Seems rather austere, standing aloof from what took place about him, condemning it by symbolical action as well as by words.

THE NEED OF THE CHERUBIC VISION 1010

We need to catch that vision in days like these. Science has put staggering new powers and weapons into man's hands. Wickedness finds much bigger and far more terrifying forms of expression than ever before. Things move on such a vast scale and with such frightening contingencies, and at the back of such antagonised forces, that the international situation easily becomes profoundly disturbing. The reins of providence seem to hang loosely. Evil forces in large areas of the earth seem to have it pretty much their own way. It is easy for our eyes to become so held by the startling evolution of human history today that we lose our vision of that glory-flashing throne high over all, and our sense of Divine sovereignty.

TO WHOM DID EZEKIEL PROPHESY? He prophesied of but not to Jerusalem. As Jer. 24 shows, after the captivity of Jehoiachin those left in Jerusalem put it down to the sinfulness of exiles. There probably did the same. But Jeremiah declared exile an act of grace those left in Jerusalem due for dire punishment. This hard to accept either at home or abroad. Until exiles realised that Yahweh really brought them into exile that He might make them the beginning of a renewed people Ezekiel could not begin his task of preparing them for the future. So during the last dark years of Jerusalem, before Nebuchadnezzar executed God's punishment to the full upon the guilty city, Ezekiel had to explain to the exiles the inner meaning of the 21 Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul.

TO WHOM DID HE PROPHESY? ... agony that was going on in their fatherland. His message was not for Jerusalem for there was no hope for that city. But when Temple and City was destroyed and the nation was no more, some, at least, of the exiles were willing to listen to him and learn as he prepared a new generation for the return. Yahweh had promised after 70 years.

Thus Ezekiel commences with "now" or "And" as a sort of appendix to the letter of Jeremiah sent to the exiles Jer. 29.

THE 430 DAYS. Between Ch.12, 8:1. are exactly 1 year and 2 months. The Jewish year is a lunar year of 354 days, the months being alternatively 30 and 29 days in length. If it was a leap year (which today comes around about twice in 3 years) a further 29 days were added making 442 in all. From that a further 7 must be deducted to provide for Ch. 3:15. This leaves 5 days for the vision of the Cherubim and the instructions and preparations for this parable.

The siege of Jerusalem lasted longer than 430 days. Cp Jer. 52:4-6. but it was raised for a time on the approach of Egyptians Jer. 37:5. so the actual period could have been 430 days divided into two periods of 40 and 390 days? Cp. V9

THE SIGN OF THE TILE

CHAPTER 4

Summary below

1 Under the type of a siege is shewed the time from the defection of Jeroboam to the captivity. 9 The hardness of the famine.

THOU also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and [u]pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem:

2 And [x]lay siege against it, and [b]build a fort against it, and [c]cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and [e]set [6]battering rams against it round about.

3 Moreover take thou unto thee [7]an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and [i]set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. [b]This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.

4 Lie thou also [d]upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt [g]bear their iniquity.

5 For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.

6 And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee [3]each day for a year.

7 Therefore thou shalt set thy face toward the siege of Jerusalem, and [n]thine arm shall be uncovered, and thou shalt prophesy against it.

8 And, behold, [q]I will lay bands upon thee, and thou shalt not turn thee [4]from one side to another, till thou hast ended [r]the days of thy siege.

9 ¶ Take thou also unto thee wheat, and barley, and [s]beans, and [t]lentiles, and millet, and [u]fitches, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof, [x]according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, [r]three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof.

10 And [a]thy meat which thou shalt eat shall be [a]by weight, twenty [d]shekels a day: [y]from time to time shalt thou eat it.

11 [z]Thou shalt drink also water [v]by measure, the sixth part of [h]an hin: [y]from time to time shalt thou drink.

CHAPTER 5.

Summary below Right

1 Under the type of hair, 5 is shewed the judgment of Jerusalem for their rebellion.

AND thou, son of man, [u] take thee [a] a sharp knife, take thee [2] a barber's razor, and [c] cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair. cp V.12.

2 Thou shalt burn with fire [e] a third part in the midst of [f] the city, when [g] the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part [h] thou shalt scatter in the wind; and [i] I will draw out a sword after them.

3 [o] Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in thy [3] skirts.

4 [b] Then take of them again, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; for thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.

5 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; This is Jerusalem: I have set it in the midst of the nations and [p] countries that are round about her.

6 And she [k] hath changed my judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and [m] my statutes, they have not walked in them.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye [o] multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, [s] neither have done according to the judgments of the nations [t] that are round about you;

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, am against thee, and [x] will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations.

9 And I will do in thee [z] that which I have not done, and whereunto [1] I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations.

10 Therefore [d] the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I [h] scatter into all the winds.

11 Wherefore, [i] as I live, saith the Lord GOD; Surely, because [m] thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy [w] detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also

SHAVING THE HAIR

If a Nazarite "defiled the head of his consecration" he was required to shave his head and commence anew his vow of separation Num 6:9. As representing the nation, Ezekiel as defiled shaved his head. As the righteous remnant, he again commenced his vow of separation and permitted his hair to grow. Ezek. 8:3.

THESE PROPHECIES PROBABLY PROCLAIMED TO THE PEOPLE AS EZEKIEL LAY RECUMBANT IN HIS HOUSE

Ch.4:6 — Ezekiel's work Cp Ch.6:9.

Four expressions stand out in the early verses of Ch.6 - high places, altars, images, idols. The first were to be destroyed, the second made desolate, the third destroyed, the fourth to become witnesses of the terrible punishment, indicating the extent of the iniquity. The picture presented V.6 - cities laid waste, high places desolate, idols broken, images cut down, works abolished, people slain, until the prophet bursts out: "Clap your hands, stamp your feet, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel"

@diminish thee; [b] neither [c] shall mine eye spare, [c] neither will I have any pity. Ch.7:4.

12 ¶ A [d] third part of thee shall die with [h] the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and [m] I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and [n] I will draw out a sword after them.

13 Thus [p] shall mine anger be accomplished, and [q] I will cause my fury to rest upon them, and [r] I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD [t] have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them.

14 Moreover [z] I will make thee waste, and [2] a reproach among the nations [a] that are round about thee, [b] in the sight of all that pass by. Deut 28:37

15 So it shall be a reproach and [d] a taunt, [e] an instruction and [g] an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury and [i] in furious rebukes. I the LORD have spoken it.

16 When I shall send upon them [j] the evil arrows of famine, which shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and [p] will break your staff of bread:

17 So will I send upon you [r] famine and [s] evil beasts, and they shall [t] bereave thee; and [u] pestilence and [u] blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring [r] the sword upon thee. I the LORD have spoken it.

CHAPTER 8: SUMMARY.

Worship can be but the facade for wickedness. Though the nation had entered into covenant with Yahweh & boasted in the Temple Jer. 7:4, few had absorbed the Word of Jeremiah. Jer. 15:16. Though they attended the Temple their hearts were not with God. Secretly they gave themselves to idolatry.

Key verses Vv. 6, 12, 18.

1016 reveals that a careful discrimination would be maintained in all the Divine judgments. Those who would ultimately form part of the Cherubim would be carefully preserved. Ezek. 9:4, Amos. 9:9. This same principle is preserved in the Apocalypse for judgment is hindered until the sealed are preserved. Rev. 7:3.

To gain a clear picture, it must be borne in mind that in one major detail Solomon's Temple differed widely from Zerubbabel's and Herod's. On the Temple-mount from north to south lay three groups of buildings, the Temple, the Palace, and the House of the Forest of Lebanon. The first two each had its own court while the whole complex was surrounded by "the great court." In other words the Temple had only one court strictly belonging to it. The incidents seen by Ezekiel took place partly in the Temple court proper, partly in the adjacent great court. - Ellison.

12 Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth.

13 ¶ He said also unto me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do.

14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz.

15 ¶ Then said he unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these.

16 And he brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east.

17 ¶ Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose. Israel had turned from Shepherd Israel (Yahweh) to that of Babylon. His name given in Babylon Dumu-zi probably signifies Son of Life. His name given to 4th month (July) when harvest fully in, and summer is in its strength. The worship is associated with a nature myth - the return of sun in strength and the resurrection of growth from the earth after winter.

22 This is said to be in imitation of Persian worshippers of Sun who held a branch, or a bunch of dates, or pomegranate or piece of tamarisk tree so their breath could not contaminate the glory of the rising god.

23 This text said to be one of places amended by Jewish Rabbins and should read in my nose" i.e. face. The idea being that these heathen customs were flaunted before the very face of Yahweh. LXX = "They are as those who mock me!" or "publicly affront me."

What Ezekiel saw in vision is constantly seen in reality. Men who have been unfaithful to their trust have been similarly abandoned by Yahweh, so that the Divine Name might be no longer compromised by their infidelity, worldliness and depravity.

V.7. "A hole in the wall": This suggests a secret entrance which Ezekiel proceeds to enlarge, so exposing the wickedness of the worship. This worship was conducted not openly but clandestinely V.12.

1017 V.10. This is suggestive of Egyptian worship, probably stimulated by Jehoiakim's Egyptian alliance 2 Kg 23:33-35 and which Zedekiah endeavoured to renew. See Ezek.

V.5. "Then" Ezekiel was first shown the vision of glory, then the image of jealousy in way of contrast. The guilt of Judah was measured by the contrast.

V.6 "I should go" - Yahweh remains only to pour out judgment.

V.11. Seventy men. - Parallel with 70 elders who saw the glory originally Exod. 24:1,9. Some such representation of elders may have been maintained - but the Sanhedrin as such was not formally organised as such until after the return of the captivity.

EZEKIEL 9, 10.

The vision of the coals of fire, &c.

HE cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them [b] that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.

2 And, behold, six [c] men came from the way of [c] the higher gate, [d] which lieth toward the north, and every man [3] a slaughter weapon in his hand; and [e] one man among them was [k] clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn [6] by his side: and they went in, and stood beside [m] the brasen altar.

3 And [n] the glory of the God of Israel [o] was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to [p] the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side;

4 And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and [q] set a mark upon [r] the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof.

5 ¶ And to [s] the others he said in [t] mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: [u] let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity:

6 [v] Slay [w] utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but [x] come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and [y] begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at [1] the ancient men which were before the house.

7 And he said unto them, [m] Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and slew in the city.

8 ¶ And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, [z] that [a] I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, [b] Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all the residue of Israel [a] in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem?

9 Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and [d] the land is [2] full of blood, and the city full of [3] perverseness: for they say, [e] The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and the LORD seeth not.

10 And as for me also, [f] mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but [g] I will recompense their way upon their head.

11 And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the inkhorn by his side, [7] reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

CHAPTER 10.

Summary below

1 Vision of the coals of fire, 8 of the cherubims.

THEN I looked, and, behold, in [c] the firmament that was above the head of the cherubims there appeared over them [d] as it were a sapphire stone, [e] as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.

2 And he spake unto [f] the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between [g] the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill [2] thine hand with [h] coals of fire from between the cherubims, and [i] scatter them over the city. And he went in [k] in my sight.

3 Now the cherubims stood [h] on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled [k] the inner court.

4 Then [l] the glory of the LORD [4] went up from the cherub, and stood over [m] the threshold of the house; and [n] the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory.

5 And [o] the sound of the cherubims' wings was heard even to the outer court, as the 9 All things are for the sake of the elect 2 Cor. 4:15. Thus the Cherubim are shown diverting the Eschatological host.

THE CHERUBIM A[GAIN] DESCRIBED

Identified as Cherubim, further details are supplied.

9A Ayin - Eye. Mentioned 21 times in 1:10, the Golden-Beaver. Now the eye becomes the cherub - chariot to be conveyed about.

10 There was apparently one head and four faces in each direction. For the head see 4:15.

11 So that the general appearance was that of an eye of Cherubim. Cp Ch. 1:4, 16:18 Zech. 4:10b.

12 Heb. Ophan, the Wheels which turns around.

13 Heb. Galgal = Heb. Galgal = Wheel, i.e. the action of moving around. The Cherubim are commanded to commence their duties.

14 Cp Ch. 1:10. The Cherub replaces the ox, probably to indicate the duties of Cherubim. The ox is servant, the man, the Cherub is the servant of Yahweh.

Ps. 8:10 Ox = Shoveller. Heb. = A traveller.

In this description the ox is seen first in front of the man Ch. 1:10, then Ezekiel saw it to the south, here it is from the West and East.

THE BERYL or TARSHISH. - Generally rendered by LXX and Vulgate as chrysolite (i.e. gold stone) so called by the ancients because of its fine gold yellow colour. It is now called Topaz. It is a very beautiful gem in its pure and perfect state, though very rarely found so: and the finer pieces of it in hardness are second only to the diamond. Cp Ch 1:16.

THE MAN IN LINEN = ISH. Vv 2,3,6

THE CHERUBIC MAN'S HAND: ADAM. Vv 8, 14, 21 - Thus identifying the Cherubim with Adamic race.

7 Strength of Destroyers, sounding like thunder. As the glory took up its position at the threshold, the Cherubim moved to attend upon it. Ps. 29. The name of God as ruling over nature.

8 Roth: "The cherub" Cp V. 2. The general aspect of the living beings was that of a man or the Cherub Ezek. 1:5.

9 All things are for the sake of the elect. 2 Cor. 4:15. Thus the Cherubim are shown directing the Eschatic host.

THE CHERUBIM AGAIN DESCRIBED. 8-22

Identified as Cherubim, further details are supplied.

9A AYIN - Eye, mentioned as the ox in 1:10, the burden-bearer. Now the ox becomes the cherub-chariot to be conveyed along.

10 There was apparently one head and four faces in each direction. For the head see 4:15.

11 So that the general appearance was that of an eye of amber. Cp Ch. 1:4 Cp Gen 16:13 Zech. 4:10 Note

12 Heb ōphan, that which turns around

13 Heb. Galgal = the whirling, i.e. the action of moving around. They are commanded to commence their duties.

14 Cp Ch. 1:10. The Cherub replaces the ox, probably to indicate the duties of Cherubim. As the ox is servant of man, the Cherub is the servant of Yahweh. Ps. 97:10 Ox-Shower in Heb. = A traveller.

In this description the ox is seen first instead of the man Ch. 1:10 for then Ezekiel saw it from the south, here he sees it from the West travelling East.

THE SINGULAR CHERUB & THE PLURAL CHERUBIM

The cherub indicates the ark, the plural indicating the angelic company who conveyed the glory away. Cp Acts 1:9

7 voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh. Ish. Cp Ps 77:18

6 And it came to pass, that when he had commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels.

7 And one cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out. Ch 9:2.

8 ¶ And there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings.

9 And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone.

10 And as for their appearances, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel.

11 When they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.

12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.

13 As for the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel.

14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

15 And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river of Chebar.

16 And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

18 Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubims.

19 And the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.

20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims.

21 Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.

22 And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward.

15 Note plural and singular number. A multitude condensed into one. The four divisions of Israel made one nation. Cp Gal. 3:28. John 17:21.

16 "The spirit of the Living One" - Roth. Cp Eph. 4:4-12: 18. The spirit, at present, is the Mind of Christ brought into being by the Word Rom. 8:9 Vv 4-8. We serve in this "newness of spirit" Rom. 7:6

17 Having left the Temple it is borne by the living Cherubim. Cp Rev. 1:14. Meanwhile Ps 78:60-61. In like manner the glory left Jerusalem 1900 years ago. Mat 23:37-39

18 Roth: "it stood" i.e. the glory. The gradual departing of the glory answered to the repeated sins of the nation which were driving Yah weh from it. Cp Jer. 6:8 & 7:12-13.

eastward: and behold at the door of the gate [c] five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of [c] Azur, and [d] Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.

2 Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city:

3 [h] Which say, [2] It is not near; let us build houses: [m] this city is the caldron, and we be the flesh.

4 ¶ Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.

5 [n] And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know [o] the things that come into your mind, every one of them.

6 [p] Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; [s] Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, [t] they are the flesh, and this city is [m] the caldron: but [u] I will bring you forth out of the midst of it.

8 [v] Ye have feared the sword; and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD.

9 And [w] I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and [x] deliver you into the hands of strangers, and [y] will execute judgments among you.

10 [d] Ye shall fall by the sword; I will judge you [f] in the border of Israel: [h] and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

11 [i] This city shall not be your [m] caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but [c] I will judge you [f] in the border of Israel:

12 [h] And ye shall know that I am the LORD: [3] for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but [b] have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you.

13 ¶ And it came to pass, when I prophesied, [e] that [d] Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then [f] fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, [g] Ah Lord GOD! [f] wilt thou [k] make a full end of the remnant of Israel?

14 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

15 Son of man, thy brethren, even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession.

16 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Although I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet [g] will I be to them as [r] a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come.

17 Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [z] I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.

18 And they shall come thither, and [a] they shall take away all [b] the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence.

19 And [c] I will give them one heart, and I will put [g] a new spirit within you; and I [i] will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh:

20 [k] That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them: and [l] they shall be my people, and I will be their God.

11 He shall be caught like an animal in the snare. His attempt at escape will prove vain because Yahweh has decreed otherwise.

I am the LORD, [a] when [b] I shall scatter them among the nations, and [b] disperse them in the countries.

16 [c] But I will leave [2] a few men of them [f] from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare [g] all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

17 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

18 Son of man, eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and [i] with carefulness;

19 And say unto the people of the land, Thus saith the Lord GOD of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that [k] her land may be desolate from [3] all that is therein, [l] because of [m] the violence of all them that dwell therein.

20 And [n] the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
