22 Son of man, what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, [r] The days are prolonged, and [t] every vision faileth?

23 Tell them therefore, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, [v] The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision.

24 For [a] there shall be no more any [b] vain vision nor [6] flattering divination within the house of Israel.

25 For I am the LORD: I will speak, and [c] the word that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more [c] prolonged: for in your days, [d] O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord GOD.

26 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying,

27 Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel [4] say, [g] The vision that he seeth is [h] for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off.

28 Therefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; There shall none of my words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord GOD.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Reproof of lying prophets, 10 and their untempered morter. 17 Of prophetesses and their pillows.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto [o] them that prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD;

3 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe unto the foolish prophets, that [5] follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing!

4 O Israel, thy prophets are [6] like the foxes in the deserts.

5 Ye have not gone up [7] into the gaps, neither [8] made up the hedge for the house of Israel [8] to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD.

6 [u] They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith: and [x] the LORD hath not sent them: and they have [z] made others to hope that they would confirm the word.

7 Have ye not seen [a] a vain vision, and have ye not spoken [a] a lying divination, [d] whereas ye say, The LORD saith it; albeit I have not spoken?

CHAPTER 13: REPROOF OF LYING PROPHETS 1022

The teaching of lying prophets is plainly denounced, the destruction of their untempered walls of defence is described & the evil influence of the false prophetesses together with their fate & that of their dupes is set forth.

Key verses Vv. 3, 9, 17, 22, 23.

THE SIEGE ENACTED 12:20.

RSV = fearfulness.

RSV = Dismay.
RSV = "Because their land will be stripped..."

NO FURTHER DELAY IN FULFILMENT Vv 23-25.
This proverb designed to discredit the warnings of Jeremiah and others See also 2 Pet 3:4. They were a class who rejected the warnings as false. Contrast Vv 26-28. "Such has been the cry of those of little or no faith." Jer. 5:19; Amos 6:3; Jer. 17:15; Matt 24:48.

The "smooth things" of Is. 30:10 and "flattering lips" of Ps. 12:2-3.

CHAPTER 13. This chapter adds to the indictment of Ch. 12:21-28 and should be read in combination with Jer. 23 which, as Jeremiah was in communication with the exiles, Ezekiel may have seen. Jer. 29:1.

4 The foxes. They are cunning Lk. 13:32. They spoil the vine & its fruit Song 2:15. They burrow among ruins Lam. 5:18; Neh 4:3. So the false prophets were crafty, ruined the vineyard of Yahweh Isa. 5:7, and profited from the ruin of Israel. Christ likened them to wolves Mt. 7:15; Acts 20:29 & Rev 13:11.

FULFILMENT IMPENDING 21-23
18 This was a class who though accepting the warnings as genuine fought that fulfilment in the far distant. This class at least accepted Ezekiel as a prophet.

CHAPTER 13
FALSE PROPHETS
THEIR WORKS 1-16
THEY ARE GUIDED BY THE FLESH 1-9
1 According to fleshly reasoning. Cp Jer. 5:31. 1 Ki. 22:10. Jer. 14:14. 23:16, 26.
2 Nabal = foolish impious (Gr). A mental or spiritual obtuseness that borders on atheism. Insensible to Yahweh's best [illegible] - Inter. Critic. Com.
3 Ravening and Crafty. Deceitful workers 2 Cor. 11:13 who craftily insinuate false doctrine into weak & unstable minds, and greedily catch at advantages to themselves.
4 By a sound exercise of the prophetical office by faithful exhortation and courageous teaching strengthened the spiritual [illegible] fences of Israel. Cp Ch. 22:30. Ps. 106 23 But see Isa. 58:1
5 What they claim to see is vain and false. They proclaimed "peace" Jer 6:14; 8:11. Ezek. 13:10, 16. "The way of peace they know not" Isa 59:8.
6 RSV: "And yet they expect him to fulfil their word."
7 So Ezekiel, in forthright manner, openly accuses the false prophets of lying

Ps 89:7; 111:4; Jer 6:11.
8 Heb. "Sowd" - A secret assembly. RSV = assembly. Those acquainted with the secret intentions and purposes of their prince. Thus those acquainted with the whole counsel of Yahweh. Cp Ps 25:14. Jer 23:18.
9 An allusion to registers usually kept of the members of a city or corporation and which entitles them to its privileges. Ps 87:6. Below

THE WALL THEY ERECT WILL BE BROKEN DOWN. Vv 10-16.
11 By preaching peace when there is none. They lessened the guilt of Israel and the fear of God. They lead people into error and weakened the hands of true prophets.
12 Chowlk - a wall. Context = jerry built tottering wall white with whitewash. Sinuous carelessly covered with whitewash.
13 Following the stream of public opinion.
14 Tophel = smear, plaster, slime. Rend. "foolish" Lam. 2:14. cf. unsavory Job 6:6. RSV: Whitewash. Cp Matt 23:27-28. This whitewash hid the weakness of wall, gave an illusion of stability.
15 RSV: "Great hailstones shall fall." A storm of rain, hailstones and wind speaking of the judgments of Yahweh would wash off the slime, reveal the wall in all its weakness, and bring it crashing to the ground.
16 Where are your assurances of peace? Their doubts were like those of the Pharisees. Cp Matt 28:27; Luke 11:44; Acts 23:5 See right.

THE UNTEMPERED (WHITE WASHED) WALL - "One of the main causes of false prophecy is laid bare in Vv10-16 viz. the instinctive desire to swim with the stream. Those who denounce traditionalism but for all that are normally its slaves very often fail to realise that only the willingness to put Truth before everything else and unflinching surrender of the whole of one's being to it can keep a man from proclaiming what will make him popular. The prophets are pictured as saying, "All is well"—the implication of "Peace"—and as whitewashing the jerry built wall the people have put up. The very approval (whitewashing) by the prophets prevented the people seeing how flimsy was their structure, until the storm of judgement came and swept it all away. The wall was leprous and the whitewash was a futile attempt to hide this plague which condemned the building. Ep. 1Sa 20:13; Mk. 7:24-25. Luke 6:47-49. - 9 Feb 23

8 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore, [b] behold, I am against you, saith the Lord GOD.

9 And mine hand shall be upon [c] the prophets that see vanity, [c] and that divine lies: they shall not be in the (2) assembly of my people, neither [f] shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, [g] neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; [h] and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

11 Say unto them [p] which daub it with untempered morter, that it shall fall: there shall be [r] an overflowing shower; and ye, O [s] great hailstones, shall fall; and [t] a stormy wind shall rend it.

12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith ye have daubed it?

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even rend it with [x] a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my fury to consume it.

14 So will I break down the wall that [y] ye have daubed with untempered morter, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: [h] and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

15 Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them [y] that have daubed it with untempered morter, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed

19 And will ye [o] pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley and [q] for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies?

20 Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against [u] your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls (6) to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.

21 [u] Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and [v] deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; [s] and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

THE WALL THEY ERECT WILL BE BROKEN DOWN. Vv10-16.

11 By preaching peace when there is none. They lessened the guilt of Israel, and the fear of God. They lead people into error and weakened the hands of true prophets.

12 Choyik - a wall. Context: jerry built tottering wall whose flimsiness came only to be covered with whitewash.

13 Following the stream of public opinion.

14 Paphel = smear, plaster, slime. Rend "foolish" Lam. 2:14. unsavory Job 6:6. RSV: Whitewash. Cp Matt. 23:27-28. This whitewash hid the weakness of wall, gave an illusion of stability.

15 RSV: "Great hailstones shall fall." A storm of rain, hailstones and wind speaking of the judgments of Yahweh will wash off the slime, reveal the wall in all its weakness, and bring it crashing to the ground.

16 Where are your assurances of peace. Their doubed walls were like those of the Pharisees Cp Matt 23:27; Luke 11:44; Acts 23:3. See right.

THE WRITING OF THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL V 9.

Registers were kept of citizens of cities and in such were inscribed also the names of proselytes. Ps. 87:6. Ezra 2:62 provides an example of the use made of such registers. The names of false prophets would be excised therefrom and they would not return to the land. In like manner Yahweh has His Book of Lives. Exod 32:32; Isa. 4:3; Dan. 12:1 Cp Amos 9:8-9. Note the contrast between "My people" above and "thy people" Ch. 3:11 13:17.

JERRY-BUILT WALLS

They promise a protection they cannot provide. So when the storm breaks as it will, their disillusioned followers will enquire: "Where is the daubing?" It will be washed away in the storm that will inevitable come. Isa 28:2, 17; 30:30.

V. 20 "To make them fly" RSV: "As if they were birds".

Their superstitions, and amulets etc were like the snares of a fowler designed to catch their dupes as hunters ensnared and caught birds. Yahweh would destroy their snares by making obvious the lying nature of their superstitions.

Entries of Destruction inevitable see the manifestation of self-assertive Women. Gen. 4:22; Isa. 3:18-26.

FALSE PROPHETESSES Vv17-23

See also Jer. 29:21-23. Amos 4:1. Cp. 1 Tim. 2:11-14. Cor 11:10

17 Cp V.2. Babylon gave ample scope for the superstitions here referred to.

The gift of prophesy sometimes bestowed on women Exod 15:20. Jud 4:4. 2 Kgs 22:14 which encouraged others of the sex to aspire to the same gift. Cp. Rev. 2:20.

18 RSV = "Sew magic bands upon all wrists".

19 RSV = "Make veils for the heads of persons of every stature." This flaunting of superstitious and ornamental headress was opposite to the garb of mourning requisite for the occasion (Cp Isa. 47:1-2) in view of true prophets threat of impending disaster (Cp Isa. 3:16). It was equivalent to the daubing with untempered morter.

20 In the sense of deceiving Cp 2 Pet. 2:14.

21 RSV. "Will you hunt down souls belonging to my people, and keep other souls alive for your profit." - A superstitious rite in which these prophetesses professed to discriminate in judgment for meagre reward V. 19.

22 The prophets predicted the destruction of those who resisted Babylon, and life for those who submitted. These false prophetesses proclaimed the very opposite Cp 12:22 with Ezek 6:5. Jer. 29:5-6.

23 RSV. "Behold I am against your magic bands with which you hunt the souls for birds, and I will tear them from your arms and let the souls you hunt go free."

According to International Critical Commentary, archaeology has revealed a Babylonian superstition of this nature here condemned.

He will reveal the magic bands to be the powerless superstition they were in reality.

24 RSV: "Your veils will I tear off" Thus their cheats and impostures would be evident to all.

25 All the above mentioned customs were in that category.

IDOLATRY IN THE HEART — The Word opens the heart and reveals the true state thereof Heb. 4:12.
The Israelites sought the prophets they desired Isa. 30:10. just as an Ecclesia normally receives the ministry it secretly wants. No greater insult can Yahweh be offered than for a man who offers Him no allegiance, or at best a divided one, which He will not accept to come to His prophet and ask to know His will which he will only do if it suits him. people out of your hand: [a] and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

CHAPTER 14.

Summary below

1 God answereth idolaters according to their own heart. 6 They are exhorted to repent, for fear of judgments. 12 God's irrevocable sentence of famine, 15 of noisome beasts, 17 of the sword, 19 and of pestilence. 22 A remnant shall be left.

THEN [c] came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before me.
2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
3 Son of man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put [d] the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: [e] should I be enquired of at all by them?
4 Therefore speak unto them, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth [d] the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols;
5 [g] That I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all [h] estranged from me through their idols.
6 ¶ Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Repent, and turn [i] yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.
7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which [k] separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth [d] the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself:
8 And [l] I will set my face against that man, and will make him a [m] sign and [n] a proverb, and [b] I will cut him off from the midst of my people; [o] and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
9 And if the prophet be deceived when he hath spoken a thing, [p] I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.
10 And they shall bear [q] the punishment of their iniquity: [r] the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him;
11 That the house of Israel [s] may go no more astray from me, neither [t] be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but [u] that they may be my people, [v] and I may be their God, saith the Lord GOD.
12 ¶ The word of the LORD came again to me, saying,
13 Son of man, when the land sinneth against me [w] by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and [x] will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and [y] will cut off man and beast from it:
14 [z] Though these three men, [a] Noah, [b] Daniel, and [c] Job, were in it, [d] they should deliver but their own souls [e] by their righteousness, saith the Lord GOD.
15 ¶ If I cause [f] noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they [g] spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts:
16 [h] Though these three men were [i] in it, [k] as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but [l] the land shall be desolate.
17 ¶ Or if [m] I bring [n] a sword upon that land, and say, [o] Sword, go through the land; so that [p] I cut off man and beast from it:

CHAPTER 14: SUMMARY
Many who have no idols in the sanctuary have idols in their hearts, which is no less a usurpation of Yahweh's throne. When gods of money or fleshly pleasure dominate the minds of men, a message of [illegible] will not be received from Yahweh.

The rejection of Jerusalem is shewn.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, What is the vine tree more than any tree, or than [a] a branch which is among the trees of the forest?

3 Shall wood be taken thereof to do any work? or will men take [c] a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?

CHAPTER 16: SUMMARY

Men must not claim a relationship with Yahweh that they do not, in fact, manifest in action. A relationship with Yahweh demands a loyalty + love towards Him consistent with such a claim. Thus the people of Jerusalem did not reveal, and making known its abominations, Yahweh proclaimed its judgments. Yet, so great is Yahweh's love + so unchangeable His ultimate purpose Mal. 3:6; Rom. 11:29, that finally Jerusalem shall be redeemed.

CHAPTER 16.

THE UNATTRACTIVE FOUNDLING CHILD. Vv 1-5.

1 Under the similitude of a wretched infant is shewed the natural state of Jerusalem. 6 God's extraordinary love towards her. 44 Her sin, matching her mother, and exceeding her sisters, Sodom and Samaria, calleth for judgments. 60 Mercy is promised her in the end.

AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto Jerusalem; Thy [a] birth and thy nativity is of the land of [u] Canaan; thy father was [x] an Amorite, and thy mother [y] an Hittite.

4 And as for thy nativity, [z] in the day thou wast born thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water [7] to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.

5 [b] None eye pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open

1025 and exposed infant. Notice K k her the least concern or interest in it. The normal attention given to a child is not given to it. It is represented as filthy, uncared for, and helpless. Wallowing in dirt and filthy with blood, there is no attraction in the infant for any to be drawn to it. All pass it by as being no concern of theirs — but Yahweh in His love takes it up and tends it.

7. R.V. = "Cleanse."
8 It was apparently the custom to rub newborn babes with salt — probably to dry up the humours of their bodies

CHAPTER 16.

THE UNATTRACTIVE FOUNDLING CHILD. Vv 1-5.

1 Bring home to her the cause of her miseries — why she is suffering. Many Jews at home and abroad were ignorant of this, could not see the full extent of Jerusalem's wickedness and confidently interpreted an early ameleoration of conditions. See Introduction p. [illegible].

2 This was the place which Yahweh selected out of all others in which to place His Name. Originally it was a Canaanite city, and mystically Jerusalem (the State founded on the city) is represented as inheriting its pagan origin rather than the called out state to which it had been brought. Deut 12:5. Ps 132

3 מוֹלֶדֶת moledeth = origin (St).
מוֹלֶדֶת moledeth from יָלַד yalad = birth = birthplace but also issue, offspring etc. Thus the offspring partakes of the character of Jerusalem's origin — Canaanite. Instead of the people changing the character of Jerusalem its heathenish origin is represented as asserting itself and changing the people.

5 These nations were noted for their iniquity Gen. 15:16, so that no association with them was permitted Deut. 7:1-3. Jerusalem was a Jebusite city before David took it. 2 Sam. 5:6. It could have been founded by Amorites and Hittites.
Israel in Egypt before coming to political maturity is represented as a neglected

JERUSALEM: QUEEN AND HARLOT. — An Allegory of Jerusalem. Ezekiel's most elaborate allegory. "The fact that it ill accords with modern taste is no ground for passing over it quickly, for it praises some of his basic concepts ... may be too that if we had not developed a false modesty we should not have so much perverse sexual description in many a modern novel. Of course the imagery is ugly and unattractive, if only matches the even more ugly sin it represents" - Ellison.
The use of Jerusalem is symbolic and political rather than literal. As such, part of "Jerusalem" was ... Ezekiel in exile, and in view of the general attitude (p. 1008) it was necessary to reveal the true spiritual state ... the nation.

6 ¶ And when I passed by thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live.[12]

7 I have caused thee to multiply as the bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to [s]excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare.

8 Now when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I sware unto thee, and entered into a covenant with thee, saith the Lord GOD, and [t]thou becamest mine.

9 Then washed I thee with water; yea, I throughly washed away thy [u]blood from thee, and I anointed thee with oil.

10 I clothed thee also with broidered work, and [v]shod thee with [w]badgers' skin, and I girded thee about with [x]fine linen, and I covered thee with [y]silk.

11 I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put [z]bracelets upon thy hands, and [a]a chain on thy neck.

12 And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and [b]earrings in thine ears, and [c]a beautiful crown upon thine head.

13 Thus [d]wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of [e]fine linen, and silk, and broidered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and [f]thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper into a kingdom.

14 And [g]thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my [h]comeliness, which I had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD. Cp Phil. 3:19

15 ¶ But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications [i]on every one that passed by; his it was.

16 And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places [j]with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. Cp Gen. 37:3

17 Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself [k]images of men, and didst commit whoredom with them, the crowning insult

18 And tookest thy broidered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before them.

19 [m]My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for [n]a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord GOD.

20 Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, [o]whom thou hast borne unto me, and [p]these hast thou sacrificed unto them [q]to be devoured. Is this of thy whoredoms [r]a small matter,

21 That thou hast slain [s]my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through [t]the fire for them?

22 And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered [u]the days of thy youth, when thou wast [v]naked and bare, and wast [w]polluted in thy blood.

23 And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord GOD;)

WORSHIP OF MOLECH VV 20-21. 1026 Moloch worship included a practice which is described as making a son or daughter pass through the fire Ezek 16:20-21; 23:37. The evidence is clear that children were slaughtered - burnt like other sacrificial victims. Josephus says of Ahaz: "He also sacrificed his own son as a burnt offering to the idols according to the custom of the Canaanites." Archaeologists have found hundreds of urns containing the bones of children of from 4 to 12 years of age who had been burned alive. The ancient Melkart festival at Tyre had much in common with Baal worship in other Canaanite communities. When the prolonged heat of summer would burn everything up, the Melkarth would offer himself as a sacrifice to the sun in order to win the favor of heaven. During the month Peritius Forbidden Lev. 18:21; 20:1-5. But observed in times of Apostasy 1 Kg 11:7; 2 Kg 16:3; 21:6, 23:10. Cp Jer. 7:29-34; Ezek 16:20-21; 20:26, 31; 23:37-39. The word is related to the Semitic Melech, king. It originally signified a counsellor. Milchbaal is a Phoenician personal name, & it is certain that the Baal whom Elijah challenged was Baal of Tyre, otherwise known as Melcharth.

According to Albright, the concept of Malkut, or kingship, gave rise to the concept of malkana which means "promise" in Syriac the deity Moloch became the god of vows & solemn promises, & children were sacrificed to him as the hardest & most-binding pledge of the sanctity of a promise.

(Feb-March) the festival of the Awakening was observed. Elijah's command "Cry aloud - perhaps he is sleeping & must be awoken" 1 Kg 18:27 may be a reference to this belief - C.F. Pfeiffer The Patriarchal Age

THE EMINENT PLACE v. 24, 39. - Heb. "Gab" = Curved. A vaulted or arched chamber such as existed in pagan temples. The Latin term for this is "fornix" from which comes "fornication" -- an indication of the nature of the practises associated with this worship.

THE FRANK CRUDE LANGUAGE OF THIS CHAPTER IS AN INDICATION OF THE ABHORRENCE IN WHICH YAHWEH VIEWED THEIR PERNICIOUS PRACTISES.

38 See margin. The Greek, Syriac & Latin versions all understand by this verse a reference to brothels and their signs there were associated with the pagan worship. Cp 2 Kgs. 23:7. Rev. 2:20.

The children were burnt 2 Chr. 19:5; Ezek. 16:21. Diodorus Siculus describes the worship as it took place at Carthage, the Phoenician colony. There was in the Temple an image of Saturn (Moloch) - a human figure with bull's head and outstretched arms. It was made glowing hot with fire inside it, & the child - then laid in its arms & from thence rolled into the fiery lap below. Any crying was drowned by the din of flutes & kettledrums. "Mothers," says Plutarch, "stood by without tears or sobs; if they wept or sobbed they lost the honour of the act, & the children were sacrificed notwithstanding" - Quoted by F.W. Farrer (Pulpit).

sight of many women: and [a]I will cause thee to cease from playing the harlot, and [b]thou also shalt give no hire any more.

42 So [c]will I make my fury toward thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

43 Because thou hast not remembered [i]the days of thy youth, but [k]hast fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore [m]I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord GOD: and thou shalt not [p]commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.

44 ¶ Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this [q]proverb against thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter.

45 Thou art thy mother's daughter, that [s]lotheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of [t]thy sisters, which lothed their husbands and their children: [u]your mother was an Hittite, and your father an Amorite.

47 [c]Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but, [3]as if that were a very little thing, [e]thou wast corrupted more than they in all thy ways.

48 [g]As I live, saith the Lord GOD, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters.

49 Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, [4]fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.

50 And they were haughty, and [c]committed abomination before me: therefore [d]I took them away [f]as I saw good.

51 Neither hath [g]Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and [h]hast justified thy sisters in all thine abominations which thou hast done.

52 [i]Thou also, which hast [u]judged thy sisters, [o]bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, in that thou hast justified thy sisters.

53 When [r]I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them:

54 That thou mayest bear thine own shame, and [z]mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that [v]thou art a comfort unto them.

55 When thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to [c]their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate.

56 For thy sister Sodom was not [t]mentioned by thy mouth in the day of thy [5]pride,

57 Before thy wickedness was discovered, [t]as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of [6]Syria, and all that are round about her, [k]the daughters of the Philistines, which [7]despise thee round about.

58 [m]Thou hast [8]borne thy lewdness and thine abominations, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Under the parable of two eagles and a vine, 11 is shewed God's judgment upon Jerusalem. 22 God promiseth to plant the cedar of the gospel.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, [a]put forth a riddle, and [c]speak a parable unto the house of Israel;

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [f]A great [2]eagle [g]with great wings, longwinged, full of feathers, which had [3]divers colours, [h]came unto Lebanon, and [i]took [k]the highest branch of the cedar:

4 He cropped off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of [m]traffick; he set it in a city of merchants.

5 [p]He took also of the seed of the land, and [s]planted it [q]in a fruitful field; he placed it [s]by great waters, and set it as a willow tree.

6 And it grew, and became [u]a spreading vine [a]of low stature, [b]whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth [c]branches, and shot forth sprigs.

7 There was also [d]another great eagle [v]with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by [m]the furrows of her plantation.

8 It was planted in a good [4]soil by great waters, [e]that it might bring forth branches, and [e]that it might bear fruit, [e]that it might be a goodly vine.

9 Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up by the roots thereof.

10 Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? [v]shall it not utterly wither, when [x]the east wind toucheth it? it shall wither in the furrows where it grew.

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Say now to [b]the rebellious house, [d]Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, [e]the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon;

13 And [c]hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, [f][m]and hath [s]taken an oath of him: he hath also taken [e]the mighty of the land:

14 That the kingdom might be [r]base, that it might not lift itself up, [s]but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand.

He had brought the name of Yahweh into contempt.

THE LAMENTATION Three examples are here cited to illustrate the matter of the previous chapter. Jehoahaz and Jehoiachin only reigned for a few months inheriting trouble caused by their predecessors Zedekiah's infidelity will cause the nation to mourn. Such incidents of history gave rise to the proverb of Ch.18:2 and are dealt with here by the prophet to emphasise that whilst in the ultimate Ch.18:4,9 shall apply, meanwhile the folly of man brings evil on the innocent. It is for the latter to see beyond any present distress to the ultimate when Yahweh will be seen as Just. Even in distress Yahweh overshadows the righteous for their good Jer.24:5. LAMENTATION FOR THE PRINCES

Such songs were sung at the funerals of the dead

1 A lamentation for the princes of Israel, under the parable of lions' whelps taken in a pit, 10 and for Jerusalem, under the parable of a wasted vine. Similar to Ch. 17.

MOREOVER [l] take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,

2 And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among [o] lions, she nourished her whelps among [p] young lions. - The heathen Jer 2:15

3 And she brought up one of her whelps: [r] it became [p] a young lion, and it learned [t] to catch the prey; [u] it devoured men.

4 The nations also heard of him; [b] he was taken in [c] their pit, and [4] they brought him [c] with chains unto the land of Egypt.

Egypt & its allies deemed as the aggressive power of Jehoahaz as men are alarmed at a lion & forces in order to him. Jehoahaz deported to Egypt by Necho. Nah. 2:11-13; 3:8-10.

Jehoiakim who was given the burial of an ass unlamented by the people, is not referred to Jer. 22:18-19

7 And he knew [2] [m] their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and [n] the land was desolate, [n] and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring.

8 [p] Then the nations set against him on every side from [q] the provinces, and [r] spread their net over him: [b] he was taken in their pit.

9 And [u] they put him in ward [4] in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into [5] holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon [b] the mountains of Israel.

10 ¶ Thy mother is [d] like a vine [5] [f] in thy blood, planted by the waters: [g] she was [h] fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.

11 And [i] she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her [k] stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of [m] her branches.

Tribes.

12 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and [n] the east wind dried up her fruit: [i] her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them.

13 And now she is planted [q] in the wilderness, [s] in a dry and thirsty ground.

CHAPTER 20. Above

1 God refuseth to be consulted by the elders of Israel. 5 He sheweth the story of their rebellions in Egypt, 10 in the wilderness, 27 and in the land. 33 He promiseth to gather them by the gospel. 45 Under the name of a forest he sheweth the destruction of Jerusalem. Previous date Ch 8:1

AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of [1] the elders of Israel came to enquire of the LORD, and [2] sat before me.

2 Then came the word of the LORD unto me, saying,

3 Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye come to enquire of me? [3] As I live, saith the Lord GOD, [4] I will not be enquired of by you.

4 Wilt thou [3] judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? [5] cause them to know the abominations of their fathers:

5 ¶ And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when [6] I chose Israel, and [7] lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and [8] made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I [9] lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, [10] I am the LORD your God;

6 In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, [11] to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had [12] espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is [13] the glory of all lands:

7 Then said I unto them, [14] Cast ye away every man the abominations [15] of his eyes, and [16] defile not yourselves with [17] the idols of Egypt: I am the LORD your God.

8 But [18] they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: [19] then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, [20] to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. [9]

9 [21] But I wrought [22] for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, [23] in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.

10 ¶ Wherefore [24] I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them [25] into the wilderness.

11 And [26] I gave them my statutes, and [27] shewed them my judgments, [28] which if a man do, [29] he shall even live in them. [15]

12 Moreover also I gave them [30] my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that [31] I am the LORD that sanctify them. [17]

13 But the house of Israel [32] rebelled against me in the wilderness: [33] they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: [34] then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them [35] in the wilderness, to consume them. [36]

14 [37] But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out.

15 Yet also I [38] lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, [39] flowing with milk

CHAPTER 20 SUMMARY: YAHWEH VINDICATED IN HIS JUDGMENTS:

God takes it as an affront when those come to inquire of Him who are resolved to go on in their trespasses. His judgment in Egypt, in the wilderness and in the Land illustrate that principle. His purpose requires the ultimate redemption of Israel, but that will be accomplished only through judgment & the purging out of rebels. The chapter should end at V.44.

"I WROUGHT" "I LIFTED UP MY HAND"

Israel was brought within the terms of the covenant and the oath Deut. 29:1, 10-13. – the oath made to Abraham Gen. 22. And this will ultimately preserve the nation through the terms of the new Covenant.

22 Nevertheless I withdrew (Above) mine hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth.

23 I @lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would [c]scatter them among the heathen, and [d]disperse them through the countries;

24 Because @they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and [h]their eyes were after their fathers' idols.

25 [k]Wherefore I gave them also statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live;

26 And I polluted them in [a]their own gifts, in that [b]they caused to pass through [d]the fire [b]all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

27 ¶ Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [j]Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have [2]committed a trespass against me.

28 For when I had brought them into the land, for the which [m]I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they saw @every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their [r]sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings. (Heb MAH) See above

29 Then [3]I said unto them, (What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamah [4]unto this day.

30 Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [u]Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers? and [v]commit ye whoredom after their abominations?

31 For when ye offer [x]your gifts, [z]when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, [b]ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, [4]even unto this day: and shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? [f]As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not be enquired of by you.

ISRAEL'S FUTURE ACCEPTANCE OF THE COVENANT V. 37. 1034

- The original covenant endorsed by reading its teaching and sacrifice Exod. 24:3-8. - A covenant victim necessary to confirm a covenant because of sinfulness of human nature Heb. 9:18-20. - Christ is the covenant victim, so to be brought "in to the bonds of the Covenant" Ezek. 20:37 implies acceptance of him Isa. 42:6-7. - A national resurrection to the life of the Kingdom requires acceptance of him Ezek. 37:9, 11 by means of which they will walk "in newness of life" Rom. 6:3. - The acceptance of this New Covenant by Israel through which the condemnation of the first will be done away was predicted by Jeremiah Jer. 31:31-40. - Paul quotes the prophecy Heb 8:7-11 not to show that it was fulfilled, but to prove that the Mosaic being imperfect, a new covenant was to supercede it which would do away with the condemnation of the first Heb 8:7, 10; 9:15. - The New Covenant will not be forced upon them for they "shall be willing" Ps. 110:3. - The rejection of Israel do not indicate that they are "cut off." Cp Jer 31:35-37; 33:24; Rom. 11:25-29. Amos 9:7-10.

46 They would not be able to evade responsibility to Yahweh by burying themselves among the nations but would feel His disciplinary arm there also. Jer 21:5; 42:18; 44:16. Having accepted the Mosaic Covenant they are still answerable to its judgments Cp Gal 5:3.

YAHWEH'S TRIUMPH - Vv 33 - 44 : Yahweh chose Israel for His own purposes - to fulfil His promise to the fathers Rom. 11:28-29. Nothing Israel could do would thwart Him in the working out of His purpose with them. Time and again their wickedness brought them to the brink of destruction, but, in His mercy, He did not pour out upon them their deserts but "wrought for His Name's sake. In the final restoration He will do likewise V. 44 Ch. 36:22.

"a blessing in it," even "an inheritor of Yahweh's mountains," "who shall cause His servants to rejoice, & the nations to shout aloud for joy." (J.T. Mystery of the Covenant of the Land Explained p.1).

the countries, to serve [a] wood and stone. (a rejection of past Deut. 4:1 32)

33 ¶ [c] As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely [c] with a mighty hand, and [c] with a stretched out arm, and [d] with fury poured out, will I rule over you:

34 And [h] I will bring you out from the people, and [h] will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, [e] with a mighty hand, and [e] with a stretched out arm, and [d] with fury poured out.

35 And I will bring you into [m] the wilderness of the people, and there will [o] I plead with you [p] face to face.

36 [q] Like as [o] I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so [o] will I plead with you, saith the Lord GOD. (To pithe them: Isa 6:13)

37 And [t] I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the [3] bond of the covenant:

38 And [u] I will [x] purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: [v] I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and [b] they shall not enter into the land of Israel: [dd] and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; [f] Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but [h] pollute ye my holy name no more with [k] your gifts, and with your idols.

40 For [m] in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall [o] all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there [o] will I accept them, and there will I require [2] your offerings, and the [4] first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.

41 I will accept you with your [2] sweet savour, when [b] I bring you out from the people, and [d] gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and [f] I will be sanctified in you before the heathen.

42 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I [g] lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers.

43 And there [k] shall ye remember [l] your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and [n] ye shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed.

44 [r] And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when [s] I have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked [l] ways, nor according to your corrupt [l] doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

45 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

46 Son of man, [z] set thy face toward the south, and [@] drop thy word toward the south, and [e] prophesy against the forest of the south field;

47 And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, [@] I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every [@] green tree in thee, and every [@] dry tree: the flaming [i] flame shall not be quenched, and all faces [i] from the south to the north shall be burned therein.

48 And all flesh shall see that [n] I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I, [p] Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Doth he not [@] speak parables?

THE BONDS OF THE COVENANT 137. 1035

"The margin reads 'into a delivering of the Covenant,' which Boothroyd renders 'the discipline of the Covenant' - bemahsoreth hab'berith: "Masoreth' signifies fetters, bonds ... from the root Ahsar, he tied or bound. Boothroyd seems to have derived the word Masoreth from mosar, discipline; from the root yehsar chastised, corrected; the margin, however, assigns it to the root mahsar, to deliver from one to another anything in general; hence to deliver instruction, or to teach. But whatever the derivation of masoreth, its sense in the passage is not materially affected. To be in bonds is "to be in discipline," and to be in either is the result of a "delivery into" them. The delivering of the covenant to Israel must precede their being bound or disciplined by it; and this delivering the prophecy shows is preceded by their being gathered out of the countries into the peoples wilderness. When there, the New Covenant will be "enjoined unto" Heb. 9:20 or "made with" Exod. 24:8 them, that is, delivered unto them, as the Mosaic was to their fathers of old." - Mystery of the Covenant of the Holy Land Explained p. 16.

THE SWORD DRAWN FROM THE SHEATH

In Ch.20:49 the prophet complained that he was required to speak in parables – so in this chapter a Key is given to its meaning & he reveals that nothing would divert the threatened judgment on the holy city, holy sanctuary and holy land V.2 for Yahweh was behind the work of Nebuchadnezzar. The meaning of the fire that would consume the forest 20:47 was that the sword of war would devastate the land 21:2.

The title "son of man" is the title of the Judge. John 5:27. So vivid was the record and vision of judgment that it thrust Ezekiel into such deep mourning as was painful to him: deep heartrending sighs, loud crying and howling, smiting of hands on thighs and so forth.

CHAPTER 21.

2 EZEKIEL COMMANDED TO SIGH BECAUSE OF THE SWORD 1-7.

A The three words rendered "south" are here more clearly defined.

1 Nebuchadnezzar. V.21. Jer. 47:6. Ps. 17:8. Jer. 15:2-3. Above.

2 All will be involved in the national disaster: the righteous to go into captivity, the wicked to be destroyed Ezek. 9:5-6. 20:46. Cp Jer. 24:5-6.

3. Cp 20:47 note. The fire would more naturally commence in the dry country of the Negev. – in the dry shrubs. Moreover Judah was to the south of the land.

4 The destruction of the Temple proved that beyond doubt for Yahweh made no move to save it. See note Ezek. 33:10. It was for this reason Ezekiel proclaimed the prophecy to the remnant in dispersion.

5. This is equivalent to saying the flame shall not be quenched until all is consumed 20:48.

6 He is to dramatic his message by acting the part of a mourner deeply mourning the passing of one greatly beloved. He must utter deep sighs as though his loins would break, drawing them deeply up from within him – he must sigh though painful to himself so as to make his breast sore. The prophet was evidently given a vision of the calamity, and this broke him down. Cp Jer. 4:19. Amos 7:2,5. Jer. 11:20.

3 THE SONG OF THE SWORD. Vv 8-17.

7. The wrath of Yahweh will put an edge upon it to effectively cut.

8 It is polished so as to glitter, and become as a flaming sword. Gen. 3:24.

9 Is the warning a mere joke?

10 RSV: "polished to flash like lightning."

11 SHEBET - Branching. Hence sceptre. Ezek. 19:11. Cp Gen. 49:10. Num. 24:17. The government will be completely overthrown. Ezek. 21:26-27.

12 Whether dry or green, all will feel the effects of the sword. Ezek. 20:47.

13 Yahweh rules in the kingdom of men Dan. 4:17 and has polished, or glorified Nebuchadnezzar.

14 He has a purpose in so doing & will certainly effect it.

A sword drawn

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, [a] set thy face toward Jerusalem, and [@] drop thy word toward the holy places, and [a] prophesy against the land of Israel, A

3 And say to the land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of [c] his sheath, and [d] will cut off from thee [e] the righteous and the wicked. 2

4 Seeing then that [d] I will cut off from thee [e] the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of [c] his sheath against all flesh (1) from the south to the north: 3

5 That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of [c] his sheath: [a] it shall not return any more. 5 6

6 Sigh therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh [i] before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer, For the tidings; because it cometh: and [l] every heart shall melt, and [m] all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and [m] all knees (2) shall be weak as water: [o] behold, it cometh, and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord GOD.

8 ¶ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD; Say, (3) A sword, a sword [q] is sharpened, and also [r] furbished: 8

10 [q] It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; [r] it is furbished that it may [s] glitter; 10 should [a] we then make mirth? [p] it contemneth [x] the rod of [y] my son, as every tree. 12 Judah Ezek. 22.

11 And he hath given it [r] to be furbished, 13 that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer. 15 16

12 Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: (2) terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people: [b] smite therefore upon thy thigh.

13 [3] Because it is a trial, and what if the sword contemn even the rod? 20 21 22 it shall be no more, saith the Lord GOD.

14 Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine [4] hands together, 23 and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are slain, [p] which entereth into their privy chambers.

15 I have set the [5] point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is (6) wrapped up for the slaughter.

16 [k] Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, [7] or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.

17 I will also smite mine hands together, and [n] I will cause my fury to rest: I the LORD have said it.

18 ¶ The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying,

19 Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Appoint a way, that the sword may come to (1) Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in Jerusalem the defenced.

21 For the king of Babylon stood at [z] the (2) parting of the way, [a] at the head of the two ways, [4] to use divination: he made bright the arrows, he consulted with images, he looked in the liver.

22 At his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort.

23 And it shall be unto them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call the iniquity to remembrance, that they may be taken.

24 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.

25 And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose day is come, when iniquity shall have an end,

26 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be this: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high.

27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.

28 And thou, son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering:

29 While they see vain things unto thee, while they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end.

30 Shall I cause it to return into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity.

31 And I will pour out mine indignation upon thee, I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy.

32 Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD have spoken it.

JERUSALEM: THE BLOODY CITY EZEK. 22

Blood is a synonym for life. Lev. 17:11. Gen. 9:4. Therefore to "shed blood" is to destroy the life principle. Jerusalem was not so much given over to literal murders, but to destroying spiritual life, so that the blood was shed in the cause of flesh instead of being poured out to Yahweh in dedicated service. In the legislation regarding cities of refuge Deut. 19:1-13 the unintentional manslayer was freed from civil punishment, but submitted to extreme civil inconvenience perhaps for the rest of his life, thereby stressing what the taking of life meant to God. The shedding of blood, except by Divine permission or command, was supremely an insult to Him. How remote from this is the modern indifference to the taking of life (cp. road deaths). Reference for life as God's gift was in part the motivation of the legislation of Lev. 17:1-7.

The decision will appear wrong to the defenders of Jerusalem who have sworn an oath of fealty to Nebuchadnezzar Jer. 37:15. But the Babylonian had little confidence in their assurances. Cp Ezek. 17:15-20 Jer. 37:5-11. 44:21

The treachery of Jerusalem towards Babylon was but a reflection of the treachery of the nation towards Yahweh. Note Jeremiah's advice. Jer. 27:12

RV: "O deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel."

Zedekiah represented the whole state. It was not a mere deposing of the King as in the case of Jehoiachin & Zedekiah 2 Kg. 24:12,17 but complete overthrow of State worship & government. Diadem = MITSNEPHETH rend. mitre - the priestly crown of glory.

Complete overturning of all classes of society. Jeremiah was honored, Zedekiah went into captivity. Jer. 40:1-4. So also Christ.

5 THE SWORD DRAWN AGAINST AMMON 28-32.

The Ammonites freed from immediate alarm by Nebuchadnezzar's attack on Jerusalem, seem to have sought to appease him by attacking Judah. But their sword was not required, and Yahweh pronounced judgment against them.

Their attitude toward Judah Cp. Zeph. 2:8. Their escape caused them to adopt a very insolent attitude towards Judah - but about 5 years later Nebuchadnezzar attacked and overthrew them.

False prophets among the Amalekites - their political leaders or advisers.

To attack Judah.

The crown (royalty) & diadem (priesthood) would be removed. A future restoration would be upon the basis of godliness. HEB 7:3, 12, 15

The judgment of wrath that Yahweh pours out upon the people is thoroughly deserved. Jerusalem destroyed lives and will be scattered; the fire of judgment will reveal only dross; princes, priests, prophets & people are alike in the condemnation & will all be effected by the judgment.

Key Verses. Vs 5, 6, 10, 25-29, 31.

V. 25. Judah's wicked government.

No, He will not. Nebuchadnezzar, as Yahweh's sword, still had work to do. Cp Jer. 27:7.

Their country will be invaded.

DA'AR - To kindle, consume (by fire) - Str. Then one who is indifferent to those being burned. Ps. 49:10. 92:6 etc.

Cp Ch. 25:10. This is in contrast to Judah and the throne of David. Cp V. 27. For Ammon there was no hope of restoration - the melting fire would consume it entirely.

CHAPTER 22.

JERUSALEM: THE BLOODY CITY VV. 1-16.

It is called this, not because of violence in the city merely, but because the sins destroyed the lives of people, and in that sense figuratively shed blood. Thus the leaders were spiritual murderers. Cp Lev. 17:11. Gen. 9:6.

1 Cp Note 20:4. As such he took the sins of the people

2 Murder and idolatry are grouped together as in 18:6, 15, 21:11, 14 for, in fact, they are related. The idolater is a murderer, destroying lives.

4 Threatened Deut. 29:24-27 Fulfilled Dan. 9:16.

INFAMOUS. TAME SHEM. Foul or defiled of name. The name name upon them was Yahweh. Num. 6:27 and that name they profaned Ezek. 36:20. Even the names - Israel (Prince with El) and Judah - praise - were defiled by them. Cp Isa. 65:15.

RV: "everyone according to his power, have been in thee to shed blood." The leaders had been foremost in an example of wickedness that had brought the city to ruin & death. Jer. 5:31. 14:14-16

A state of moral tumult and disorder as a consequence of its iniquity. Cp. 2 Kg. 2:19

14 [b] Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the LORD have spoken it, and will do it.

15 And [c] I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and [d] will consume thy filthiness out of thee.

8 Neither left she her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

9 Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of [3] the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

10 These [n] discovered her nakedness: [o] they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became [p] famous among women; for they had [q] executed judgment upon her.

ISRAEL'S SIN The full enormity of Israel's sin is graphically illustrated by the promiscuous conduct of Oholah and Oholibah. Their continuous adultery aroused the jealousy of Yahweh as their husband. Isa 54:5. See Note top. p. 141.
The chapter is similar to Ch. 16. But there, the unfaithfulness of Israel to Yahweh is highlighted, whereas here, Israel is shown to be unfaithful in her relations to others as well. She is quite amoral. She is out for personal gain and for that is prepared to grant her favors even to those she hates V.17. Note that whoredom (mixing) leads to idolatry. V.30. of Chaldea, the land of their nativity:
16 And (2) as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and [b] sent messengers unto them into Chaldea.
17 And the (3) Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was [4] alienated from them.
18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alienated from her sister.
19 Yet [h] she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance [i] the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot (4) in the land of Egypt.
20 For [j] she doted upon their paramours, (5) [m] whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and [n] whose issue is like the issue of horses.
21 Thus thou [p] calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, [5] in bruising thy teats [k] by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth.
22 ¶ Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, [o] from whom thy mind is alienated, and [t] I will bring them against thee on every side;
23 The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, [p] Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: (6) all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and [s] renowned, all of them riding upon horses.
24 And they shall come against thee with [6] chariots, wagons, and [b] wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee [d] buckler and [d] shield and [f] helmet round about; and I will set judgment before them, and [a] they shall judge thee according to their judgments.
25 And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: [c] they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and [d] thy residue shall be devoured by the fire.
26 [e] They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, [e] and take away thy [7] fair jewels.
27 Thus [f] will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and [g] thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.
28 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of them [u] whom thou hatest, into the hand of them [o] from whom thy mind is alienated: Cp V.17.
29 And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy [9] labour, and shall leave thee [r] naked and bare: and [s] the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.
30 I will do these things unto thee, because [u] thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols.
31 Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give (7) [v] her cup into thine hand.
32 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: [a] thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much.

34 (b)Thou shalt even drink it and (d)suck it out, and thou shalt (f)break (g)the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

35 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because (h)thou hast forgotten me, and (i)cast me behind thy back, therefore (k)bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

36 ¶ The LORD said moreover unto me; Son of man, (l)wilt thou (4)judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, (m)declare unto them their abominations;

37 That they have committed adultery, and (n)blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, (o)whom they bare unto me, (p)to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.

38 Moreover this they have done unto me: (r)they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and (s)have profaned my sabbaths.

39 For when (t)they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day (u)into my sanctuary to profane it; (v)and, lo, (w)thus have they done in the midst of mine house.

40 And furthermore, that ye have sent for men (x)to come from far, (y)unto whom a messenger was sent; and, lo, they came: for whom thou didst (z)wash thyself, (a)paintedst thy eyes, and (b)deckedst thyself with ornaments,

41 And satest upon a (c)stately (d)bed, and a table (e)prepared before it, whereupon (f)thou hast set mine (g)incense and mine (h)oil.

42 And a voice of (i)a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men (k)of the common sort (5)were brought (l)Sabeans from the wilderness, which put (m)bracelets upon their hands, and (n)beautiful crowns upon their heads.

43 Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit (6)whoredoms with her, and she with them?

44 Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women.

45 ¶ And the righteous men, (o)they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and (p)blood is in their hands.

46 For thus saith the Lord GOD; (q)I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them (7)to be removed and spoiled.

47 And the company shall stone them with stones, and (8)dispatch them with their swords; (r)they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and (s)burn up their houses with fire.

48 Thus (t)will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, (u)that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.

49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and (v)ye shall bear the sins of your idols: (w)and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

Priests were called upon to endorse the judgment of Yahweh as something greater than even family Deut 33:8-10. and the priestly nation should do likewise. Cp Mt. 10:34-39; Luke 14:26. See below.

He could sigh - but not aloud V 17 He must make no open display of grief though he felt it inwardly. Why? Because it was a sign of Divine judgment. There should be no public display of mourning for the sufferings of the nation - but rather should they acknowledge that it is just and "bewail" the need name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day.

3 And [b] utter a parable unto [d] the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [f] Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it:

4 Gather [h] the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and [m] the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.

5 Take the choice of the flock, and [2] burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein.

6 ¶ Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to [n] the bloody city, to the pot whose [q] scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; [s] let no lot fall upon it.

7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon [x] the top of a rock; she [z] poured it not upon the ground, [b] to cover it with dust;

9 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city! [1] I will even make [4] the pile for fire great.

10 Heap on wood, [c] kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and [f] spice it well, and let the bones be burned.

11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that [k] the brass of it may be hot, and [l] may burn, and that [m] the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed.

12 She hath wearied herself with lies, and her great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.

CHAPTER 25.

1 God's vengeance, for their insolency against the Jews, upon the Ammonites; 8 upon Moab and Seir 12 upon Edom, 15 and upon the Philistines.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, set thy face against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them;

3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou saidst Aha, against my sanctuary, when [h] it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity;

4 Behold, therefore I will deliver thee to [l] the [2] men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, and they shall drink thy milk.

5 And I will make [o] Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couchingplace for flocks: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

6 For thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast [i] clapped thine [2] hands, and [k] stamped with the [3] feet, and [l] rejoiced in [4] heart with all [m] thy despite against the land of Israel;

7 Behold, therefore [o] I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee [p] for a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

8 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because that [r] Moab and [t] Seir do say, [z] Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the heathen;

9 Therefore, behold, I will open the [v] side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, [5] the glory of the country, [a] Beth-jeshimoth, [b] Baal-meon, and [c] Kiriathaim,

10 Unto the men of the east [6] with the Ammonites, and will give them [d] in possession, that [e] the Ammonites [f] may not be remembered among the nations.

11 And I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

12 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; [i] Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah [9] by taking vengeance, and [k] hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them;

13 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; [m] I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and [n] will cut off man and beast from it; and [o] I will make it

1 LXX = "first month." Jerusalem was taken 9th day of 4th month. Siege commenced 10th day, 10th month, 9th year. 2 Kgs 25:1-2.

2 Sig. Rock - Thus strength. Tyre rejoiced in the adversity of Israel believing that this would result in added profit. The reformation of Josiah had reached north 2 Kgs 23:19. destroying the gods of the Phoenicians 2 Kgs 23:11. and drawing people to the worship of Yahweh in the Temple Jerusalem thus became the gates of the people.

4 Not immediate destruction by one nation, but several over the course of centuries - A continuous beating of Tyre, like the stormy waves upon the shore. The first attack Vv 7-11.

5 Cp V.12. Nebuchadnezzar took Tyre after 13 years siege, according to Josephus but prophecy was fulfilled by Alexander 240 years later. For this difficult siege Nebuchadnezzar received special wages Ezek. 29:18-20.

The prophetic messages against Ammon, Moab, Edom & the Philistines were comparatively short. That against Tyre occupies 3 Chapters. This nation occupied a position of greater privilege and therefore was given greater punishment Cp 2 Sam 5:11; 1 Kgs 5:1. Amos 1:2.

TESTIMONY OF MENANDER. - Josephus asserts, upon the authority of the Phoenician Annals, translated by Menander the Ephesian, into Greek, that Nebuchadnezzar besieged Tyre 13 years, when Ithobal was King, & began the siege in the 7th year of Ithobal's reign, that he subdued Syria & all Phoenicia. Afterwards the Tyrians received their kings from Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar laid siege to Tyre in 585 B.C. - the year after this prophecy proclaimed.

2 Son of man, [b] because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, [c] Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people: she is turned unto me: I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste:

3 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause [f] many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up.

8 He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and [p] he shall make a fort against thee, and [q] cast a mount against thee, and [r] lift up the buckler against thee.

9 And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, and with his axes he shall break down thy towers.

10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of [a] the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, [t] as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

TYRE – Rock = thus Strength located 60 miles N.W of Nazareth, was a double city, one part on an island, the other on the mainland, in a fertile & well-watered plain at the western foot of the Lebanon mountain range, 5 miles south of the mouth of the Leontes River. It was the great maritime power of the ancient world, at its zenith from the 12th to the 6th centuries B.C. with colonies on the N & W coasts of Africa, in Spain & Britain, controlling the commerce of the Mediterranean, with the wares of all nations passing through its port. A city renowned for its splendor & fabulous wealth. With its subjugation by Nebuchadnezzar it ceased to be an independent power. It was later subdued by the Persians; & again by Alexander B.C. 332, who took it by building a causeway half a mile wide from the mainland to the island. It never recovered its former glory, & has for centuries been a bare rock where fishermen spread their nets 26:14,5,14. SUMMARY

CHAPTER 27.

1 The riches, 26 and irrecoverable fall of Tyrus.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,
2 Now, thou son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyrus;
3 And say unto Tyrus, O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art [d] a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O Tyrus, thou hast said, [e] I am [2] of perfect beauty.
4 Thy borders are in the [f] midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty.
5 They have [3] made all thy ship boards of fir trees of [g] Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee.
6 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made thine oars; and [7] the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of [8] the isles of Chittim.
7 Fine linen with broidered work from Egypt was that which thou spreadest forth to be [m] thy sail; [n] blue and purple from the isles of [o] Elishah was that which covered thee.
8 The inhabitants of Zidon and Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy pilots.
9 The ancients of [q] Gebal and the wise men thereof were in thee thy [23] calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise.
10 They of Persia and of [r] Lud and of [s] Phut were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness.
11 The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy 15 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD to Tyrus; Shall not the isles [a] shake at the sound of thy fall, when [b] the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst of thee?

16 Then all [c] the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their broidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with [3] trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be astonished at thee.
17 And [f] they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited [g] of seafaring men, the renowned city, [h] which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, [i] which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it! (Chittiyth - to fear)
18 Now [l] shall the isles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.
19 For thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall make thee a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; [p] when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee; (Pit = Sheol)
20 When [r] I shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory in the land of the living;

THE TRADE OF TYRE "such has been the fate of this city, once the most famous in the world for trade and commerce But trade is a fluctuating thing: it passed from Tyre to Alexandria, from Alexandria to Venice; from Venice to Antwerp; from Antwerp to Amsterdam; and London. Now Tarshish is challenged by the Stokes.

HISTORICALLY. 250 years after Nebuchadnezzar Tyre was so strongly fortified that Alexander did not take it until after a 7 year siege. It rose again into wealth & power under the Seleucidae, & the Romans made it the capital of their province of Phoenicia. It appears as a flourishing town in Mt 15:21. Acts 12:20. 21:3,7 & is described by Strabo (16:2,23) as having 2 harbors & lofty houses. From AD. 636-1125 it was in the hands of the Saracens. Saladin attacked it without success in 1189. 12 [b] Tarshish was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of all kind of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded in thy fairs.

13 [c] Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded [d] the persons of men and vessels of brass in thy [3] market.

14 They of the house of [e] Togarmah traded in thy fairs with horses and horsemen and mules.

15 The men of [f] Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony.

16 Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of [g] the wares of thy making: [h] they occupied in thy fairs with [i] emeralds, [k] purple, and broidered work, and [l] fine linen, and [m] coral, and [6] agate.

17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market [n] wheat of [p] Minnith, and Pannag, and honey, and oil, and [q] balm.

18 Damascus was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

19 Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market.

20 Dedan was thy merchant in [3] precious clothes for chariots.

21 Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, [4] they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and goats: in these were they thy merchants.

22 The merchants of Sheba and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

23 Haran, and Canneh, and Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Chilmad, were thy merchants.

24 These were thy merchants in [1] all sorts of things, in blue [2] clothes, and broidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy merchandise.

25 The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market: and thou wast replenished, and made very glorious in the [5] midst of the seas.

26 ¶ Thy rowers have brought thee into great waters: the east wind hath broken thee in the [5] midst of the seas.

27 Thy riches, and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of war, that are in thee, [7] and in all thy company which is in the midst of thee, shall fall into the [5] midst of the seas in the day of thy ruin.

28 The [9] suburbs shall shake at the sound of the cry of the pilots.

29 [q] And all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land;

47 The ships of Tarshish would call at the various colonies & so add to the glory of Phoenicia.

48 The ship of state (see Intro. to Chapter) has gloriously sailed into the open sea when suddenly it is engulfed by the Euroclydon (Acts 27:14 & Ps. 48:7) in returning in sudden & unexpected disaster.

49 The calamity will affect all connected with the Ship of State, & all be involved in the general ruin.

THE SEAL OF SIMILITUDE: V.12. The King of Tyre aspired to equality with God V.2. In that he followed the pattern of Adam in sinning and being ejected from the Garden of God. He is warned that he is but Adam V.2 and the fate of Adam was to be his. He felt that he was the personification of Wisdom + beauty - so was Adam Vv.4,12. He believed that he was Divine and glorious Ch. 28:2 but Adam was really that. He believed that he possessed Divine Wisdom Ch.28:3 but Adam was taught by the Cherub V.14. And as Adam sinned and was ejected from the Garden so would the King of Tyre from his position because of his great sin Ezek.26:2.

This is a dirge of great irony, satirical in the extreme, in which the record of the one great sin of Adam is used as a similitude of the one great mistake of Ithobal. Figuratively, he had been in Eden because he reflected the sin of Adam: so has everyone who sins similarly. Cp Ezek 31:8.

they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing.

32 And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea?

33 [c] When thy wares went forth out of the seas, thou filledst many people; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise.

34 In the time [h] when thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters thy merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall.

35 [i] All the inhabitants of the isles [k] shall be astonished at thee, and [l] their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance.

36 [m] The merchants among the people shall [n] hiss at thee; [o] thou shalt be [p] a terror, and [q] never shall be any more.

2 God's judgment upon the prince of Tyrus. 11 A lamentation of his great glory corrupted by sin. 20 The judgment of Zidon. 24 Restoration of Israel.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, say unto [t] the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [u] Because [v] thine heart is lifted up, and [x] thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, [c] in the [y] midst of the seas; yet [v] thou art a man, and not God, though [z] thou set thine heart as the heart of God:

3 Behold, [a] thou art wiser than [b] Daniel; there is no secret that they can hide from thee:

4 [c] With thy wisdom and with thine understanding [d] thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures:

5 [2] By thy great wisdom and by [a] thy traffick [b] hast thou increased thy riches, and [c] thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches:

6 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because [d] thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God;

7 Behold, therefore I will bring [f] strangers upon thee, [g] the terrible [e] of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the [h] beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

8 They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas.

9 Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that [3] slayeth thee.

10 Thou shalt die the deaths of [n] the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for [p] I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

11 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

12 Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up [r] the sum, full of wisdom, and [s] perfect in beauty.

13 Thou hast been in [u] Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, [t] the [w] sardius, [x] topaz, and [y] the diamond, [z] the [a] beryl, [b] the onyx, and [c] the jasper, [d] the sapphire, [e] the [f] emerald, and [g] the carbuncle, and [h] gold: [v] the workmanship of thy [i] tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in [r] the day that thou wast created.

14 Thou art the [k] anointed [l] cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon [x] the holy mountain of God; thou hast walked up and Thus Sidon has continued throughout the ages, though in constant trouble. It was attacked by the Babylonians. The Persian yoke was placed upon it. 16 By the multitude of [c] thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.

17 [i] Thine heart was lifted up because of [k] thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may behold thee.

25 Thus saith the Lord GOD; [h] When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and [b] shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then [l] shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob.

26 And [m] they shall dwell [2] safely therein, and shall [n] build houses, and [o] plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, [b] when I have executed judgments upon all those that [p] despise them round about them; [b] and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

The Franks reconquered it in 1197 only to see it quickly retaken by the Muslims & turned to ruins. The Franks rebuilt (1228), the Saracens redevastated (1249). King Louis restored it (1253). The Mongols ravaged it (1260). It was helped by the Templars. It was abandoned after the fall of Acre (1291). It became the scene of struggles between the Druze and Turks. It blossomed into vigorous existence in the 17th century under Fakhr ed-Din, the Druze emir who encouraged and protected its Commerce. Jezzar Pasha of Acre drove the French forth from its gates 1791. In 1840 it was bombarded by the allied fleets (Britain, Austria, Turkey). It was occupied by British troops Oct 6, 1918. (when Ibrahim Pasha was driven out of Syria).

Afterwards came the Romans. In AD 640 Egypt was conquered by the Saracens. In AD 1250 the Saracens gave place to the Mamelukes. Early in 16th century the Turks took possession. Toward the end of 18th century the French came on the scene. They were driven out by the British who handed it back to the Turks. In 1882 the nationalist party under Arabi Pasha revolted, forced the Turkish ruler to flee. The English subdued the revolt, restored the Turkish Khedive and assumed control. 1936 Anglo-Egyptian treaty gave greater internal control to Egyptians,

6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt [g]shall know that I am the LORD, because they have been [h]a staff of reed to the house of Israel.

7 [i]When they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and [m]madest all their loins to be at a stand.

8 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; [n]Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, [o]and cut off man and beast out of thee.

9 And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste; [p]and they shall know that I am the LORD: [q]because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it.

11 [b]No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.

12 And I will make the land of Egypt [d]desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, [d]and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: [e]and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

13 ¶ Yet thus saith the Lord GOD; At the end of forty years [h]will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they were scattered: [f] Cp Exod. 14:1-4.

14 And [b]I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of [d]Pathros, into the land of their [3]habitation; and they shall be there a [4]base kingdom.

16 And it shall be no more [k]the confidence of the house of Israel, [l]which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but [m]they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, [p]Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon [r]caused his army to serve a great service [s]against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was [z]peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that he had served against it:

20 I have given him the land of Egypt [9]for his labour wherewith he served against it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD.

25 New Year's Day 571. The latest dated prophecy in the book. Placed here because of its relationship to subject matter. Neb. besieged Tyre 585 BC (see top. p. 1044) & in 572 the city fell. - Thus the year before this prophecy.
By the constant wearing of helmets under the besieged city.

CONTRASTED WITH PAST GLORY.

Flinders Petrie says that the original religion of Egypt was monotheistic. But before the dawn of the historic period a religion had developed in which each tribe had its own god represented by an animal. (Baker's Petrie Handbook p. 107)

1049 The great pyramid of Cheops (4th dynasty) is claimed to be the greatest monument of the ages. It covers 13 acres, 768 ft square (now 750), 482 ft high (now 456). Estimated to have contained 2,300,000 stones of an average thickness of 3 feet each and an average weight 2½ tons. Built of successive coats of rough-hewn blocks of limestone, the outer coat made smooth by exquisitely carved & close-fitting blocks of granite. These outer blocks have been removed and used in the building of Cairo. In the middle of the north side there is a passage 3' feet wide 4 ft high which leads into a chamber cut into solid rock 100 ft under ground level & exactly 600 ft under the apex. Two other chambers halfway between this and the apex, with pictures and sculptures depicting the king's exploits.
100,000 men labored 10 years to build a causeway from the Nile to the site (the stones were quarried 12 m. to the east & floated across the Nile during inundations). Another 20 yrs to build the pyramid itself.
"The amazing thing about the pyramids is that they were built right at the dawn of history." Petrie says of the Pyramid of Cheops - "the greatest and most accurate structure the world has ever seen." Ency. Brit.: "The brain power to which it testifies is as great as that of any modern man." - Valley Bible Handbook p. 91

BACKGROUND HISTORY. The dating of the prophecies against Egypt shows that each was brought forth by the political events of the time & should be studied in connection with them. Necho - defeated by Nebuchadnezzar at Carchemish (BC 604 - Jer 46) was succeeded by his son Psammetik II (the Psammis of Herod. 2, 160) in B.C. 594. He invaded Ethiopia and died in 588 leaving the throne to his son Uah-prahet, Pharaoh Hophra of Jer. 44:30 the Apries of the Greeks. Herodotus (2. 161) states that he attacked Tyre & Sidon, failed in an enterprise against Cyrene, & was deposed by Amasis (569). Zedekiah courted Egypt Ezek 17:11-18 vainly hoping for help.

THE RIVERS DRY. V 12
Herodotus noted 7 channels in the Delta of which he said that two - the present Damietta & Rosetta branches, were originally artificial, & he therefore speaks of "the five mouths". But "for a long time past there are no navigable and unobstructed branches but these two that Herodotus distinguishes as the work of man". Even these are accessible only to small vessels. The other 5 ancient mouths have long ago silted up, & their course can now hardly be traced through the network

1 The desolation of Egypt and her helpers. 20 The arm of Babylon shall be strengthened.

THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,
2 Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Howl ye, Woe worth the day!
3 For [a] the day is near, even the day of the LORD is near, a cloudy day; [3] it shall be the time of the heathen.
4 And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great [4] pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her multitude, and [b] her foundations shall be broken down.
5 Ethiopia, and [5] Libya, and Lydia, and all [c] the mingled people, and Chub, and the [6] men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.
6 Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: [7] from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord GOD.
7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, [d] and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.
8 [e] And they shall know that I am the LORD, [f] when I have set a fire in Egypt, and when all [g] her helpers shall be destroyed.
9 In that day [h] shall messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless [i] Ethiopians afraid, and [j] great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, [k] it cometh.
10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; [l] I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.
11 He and his people with him, [m] the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and [n] they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.
12 And [o] I will make [p] the rivers [8] [q] dry, and sell the land into the hand of [r] the wicked: and [s] I will make the land waste, and [9] all that is therein, by the hand of [t] strangers: [u] I the LORD have spoken it.
13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; [v] I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of [w] Noph; and [x] there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and [y] I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.
14 And I will make [z] Pathros desolate, and [a] will set fire in [10] [b] Zoan, and [c] will execute judgments in [d] No.
15 And I will pour my fury upon [e] Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off [f] the multitude of No.
16 And [g] I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have great pain, and No [11] shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily.
17 The young men of [h] Aven and of [12] Pi-beseth shall fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity.
18 At [i] Tehaphnehes also the day shall be [13] darkened, [k] when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and [l] the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.
19 Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt: [m] and they shall know that I am the LORD.
20 ¶ And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

SYMBOLS OF EGYPT 1050

DRAGON (TANNIN from TAN, to elongate). Rend. "Whale" (Gen. 1:21), In places relating to Egypt probably the crocodile or leviathan with which it is connected in Scripture. In itself the Dragon signifies a large marine animal: Cp Exod. 7:9. See Ps. 74:13-14; Isa. 27:1. Connected with Rahab Isa. 51:9. Elongate = antiquity?

RAHAB - Pride, Boaster Ps. 87:4; 89:10; Isa. 51:9.

LEVIATHAN from LÂVÂH - To twine - thus a wreathed or protected animal Cp Job 41. See Ps. 74:13-14 Isa 27:1. Involves prophetic references to the future destruction of figurative Egypt. Isa. 27:1.

The past destruction foreshadows the future: Jer. 46:14-15. 32:20-21.

"In ancient Egypt the crocodile was venerated as the symbol of sunrise and it became a hieroglyphic for this. 22 About the time Hophra's abortive attempt

A BASE KINGDOM. Cambyses, the son of Cyrus conquered Egypt (525 BC), followed by Alexander (332) who Hellenised it. In BC 30, after the battle of Actium it was occupied by the Romans. "Since then it has been ruled by Arab and Turk, Fatimid and Saracen, Mamluk, Ottoman, Turk, Albanian. Misrule, extortion and plague have kept the land poor. Even its language has disappeared, displaced first by Greek & then by Arabic, leaving only the 'mere jargon' (Chambers Encyclopedia) of ecclesiastical Coptic. Even if Egypt were to rise once again to the rank of a first-class state, it would be no more a true descendant of the Egypt that once was than a modern Italy of ancient Rome, or Greece of Athens and Sparta" — H.L. Ellison.

23 [f] And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

24 And [h] I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall [i] groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.

25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; [m] and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and [h] he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.

5 THE PARABLE OF THE ASSYRIAN CEDAR Vv. 1-18

In the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude; [p] Whom art thou like in thy greatness?

4 [a] The waters [3] made him great, the deep [3] set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out her [4] little rivers unto all the trees of the field.

5 Therefore [d] his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude of waters, [b] when he shot forth.

6 [c] All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all great nations.

7 Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of [k] his branches: for his root was by great waters.

8 The cedars [l] in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut trees were not like his branches; nor any tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty.

9 I have made him fair by the multitude of [n] his branches: so that all the trees of [t] Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

10 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and [o] his heart is lifted up in his height;

11 I have therefore delivered him into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; [6] he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness.

12 And strangers, [q] the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: [s] upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the

JUDGMENT ON NO (THEBES)

See description of its strength Nah. 3:8-10. Cp Jer 46:25. Once the most splendid city of Egypt, adorned with elegant public buildings, magnificent and colorful Temples & rich mementoes. Some of its private homes were 4 or 5 storeys high. The Temple of Karnack even in its ruinous state is considered a marvel. Thebes was called by the Egyptians: "The house of Amon," "The Mysterious City," "The City of the Hidden Name," "The City of the Lord of Eternity": The Mistress of Might." Splendidly situated in a most fertile & attractive part of the land, on both sides of the Nile, it was protected by a massive wall with reputedly 100 gates. Conquered by Assurbanipal BC 665; then by Nebuchadnezzar some time after 592; the Persian Cambyses (525) who poured out against it the wrath of his insane ferocity. Its majestic temples were burnt, its colossal statues were defaced. The city recovered gradually, but never regained its ancient glory. The capital was removed to Memphis, to Sais, to Alexandria, to Cairo. About the year 89 B.C. it was attacked by one of Egypt's own princes: Ptolemy Lathyrus, grandfather of Cleopatra. For 3 years it defied the siege & when it fell, it was almost entirely levelled to the ground. Judgment had been poured out.

THE WARNING OF ASSYRIA'S FALL.

The might of Assyria did not save her in the day that Yahweh moved against her. This should have provided a salutary warning for Egypt for she had experience the might of Assyria. when in 665 Assurbanipal conquered Egypt & devastated Thebes. This conquest was pressed home to the Assyrian as evidence of the mutability of human might as now the fall of Assyria is brought home to the Egyptian Nah 3:8-11. Necho had gone to the aid of the Assyrian 2 Kgs 23:29. - so there was omin-ous warning in the references to the Assyrians allies. Ezek 31:17.

18 The surviving nations are represented as being in fear & mourning realis-ing that their turn will come; on the other hand, the "trees of Eden," the great kingdoms & Empires of the past that already are in Sheol, are "comforted" with the Know-ledge that yet another one who has defied the lesson of history has joined their company. See a similar parable Isa 14:4-20.

15 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when he went down to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon [g] to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

16 [r] I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down [t] to hell [u] with them that descend into the pit: and [x] all the trees of Eden, [y] the choice and best of [z] Lebanon, [a] all that drink water, [b] shall be comforted [c] in the nether parts of the earth.

CHAPTER 32.

A lamentation for the fearful fall of Egypt.

AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, [c] take up a lamentation for Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like [d] a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a [3] whale in [f] the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and [h] troubledst the waters with thy feet, and [k] fouledst their rivers.

3 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will therefore [n] spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and they shall bring thee up in my [o] net.

4 Then [p] will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and [q] will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.

5 And I will lay thy flesh [s] upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height.

6 I will also water with thy blood [5] the land wherein thou swimmest, even to the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee.

7 And when I shall [6] put thee out, [e] I will cover the heaven, and [g] make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give her light.

8 All the [7] bright lights of heaven will I make [8] dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord GOD.

9 I will also [9] vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which thou hast not known.

10 Yea, I will [m] make many people amazed [i] at thee, and [m] their kings shall be horribly

CHAPTER 32 SUMMARY

Great potentates, if they be tyrannical and oppressive - particularly against Yahweh's people will invariably be judged and humbled. Isa. 54:17; Dan 7:11-12; Rev 13:10.

CHAPTER 32

6 A LAMENTATION OVER 1-16 EGYPT'S FALL

1 March 585 Cp ch 26:1. 19 mths after Fall Jerusalem in 586.

2 QINAH - A funeral dirge, a taunt song.

3 RV: "Thou wast likened ..." Flatterers mouthed their praise likening Pharaoh as one would a lion - the King of beasts. Ezekiel rejected that description though acknowledging that he was often drawn in his own history. He was no force in international politics - but he was at home.

4 RV: "yet thou art as a dragon"; RV: "Dragon. Heb. TAN - Crocodile. Cp. Ch 29:3. Berk. "making water bubble." The crocodile was not normally taken with a net - but Yahweh is stating what he will do. Cp. Jon. 4:1-11. Its carcase becomes a prey to others. Cp Ps. 74:14. RAMUWTH = A heap. - bones, carcase. The dead body will be dragged all over the place.

5 Its blood will taint the very river. Cp Exod. 12:19-20.

11 All the other lights of heaven are represented as mourning the eclipse of this star, but are unable to help.

12 The prophet passes out of the region of metaphor into that of fact. The fall of Egypt will bring fear to other nations when the Babylonian sword is brandished before them. vv. 10-11.

13 This astonishment will induce fear of Babylon.

The Divine judgment on Egypt is an object lesson for every age Jer 32:21.

PHARAOH'S TOUR OF SHEOL

The great funeral procession conducts the dead Pharaoh to his resting place, and there the victims of Nebuchadnezzar's conquests await to greet him. It is perhaps reminiscent of the funeral processions - and belief of life after death, of the Egyptians.

afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and [b] they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, [c] in the day of thy fall.

11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD; [d] The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.

12 By the swords of the mighty will I cause [h] thy multitude to fall, [i] the terrible of the nations, all of them: and [k] they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.

13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; [m] neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.

14 Then will I [r] make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the Lord GOD.

15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and [t] the country shall be [4] destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them [u] that dwell therein, then [v] shall they know that I am the LORD.

16 This is [x] the lamentation wherewith [y] they shall lament her: [z] the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all [a] her multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

17 ¶ It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and [c] cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.

19 [e] Whom dost thou pass in beauty? [f] go down, and [g] be thou laid with [a] the uncircumcised.

20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: [2] she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes.

21 [c] The strong among the mighty [f] shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with [g] them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword.

22 [i] Asshur is there and all her company: his graves are about him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword:

23 Whose graves are set in [m] the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them [c] slain, fallen by the sword, [p] which caused [3] terror [q] in the land of the living.

24 There is [s] Elam and all her multitude round about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.

25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain.

26 There is [b] Meshech, Tubal, and all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living.

27 And [d] they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are

Elam was the centre of very ancient political power. Chedorlaomer was King of Elam. Gen. 14. About 645 BC Susa (Shushan) was taken by Assyria, and later Nebuchadnezzar conquered Elam — See Unger.

THE STRIDENT WARNING SOUND OF THE TRUMPET. V1. "The sound of the Shofar, consisting as handed down by tradition of three distinctive Shofar-notes —tekiah, theruah, teruah — has been looked upon from time immemorial as a call to contrition and penitence, as a reminder of the Shofar-sound of Sinai; and the Day of Memorial, the beginning of the ten days of Repentance, which culminate in the Day of Atonement, as a time of self-examination and humble petition for forgiveness. "The Scriptural injunction of the Shofar for the New Year's Day has a profound meaning. It says 'Awake, ye sleepers, and ponder over your deeds; remember your Creator & go back to Him in penitence. CHAPTER 33.

EZEKIEL RECOMMISSIONED AS WATCHMAN.

Ezekiel is admonished of his duty as watchman. 10 God sheweth the justice of his ways towards the penitent, and towards revolters. 17 He maintaineth his justice. 21 The taking of Jerusalem, 28 and desolation of the land. 30 God's judgment upon the mockers of the prophets.

AGAIN the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, speak to [s] the children of thy people, and say unto them, [t] When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their [a] watchman:

3 If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and [b] warn the people;

4 Then [c] whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not [c] warning; if the sword come, and take him away, [d] his blood shall be upon his own head.

5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul.

6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, [i] he is taken away in his iniquity; but [k] his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

7 ¶ [l] So thou, O son of man, I have [m] set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.

8 When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand.

9 [p] Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; [q] but thou hast delivered thy soul.

10 Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and [r] we pine away in them, [s] how should we then live?

While Ezekiel anxiously awaited news of the doomed city of Jerusalem, he was recommissioned for a new phase of his ministry. Previously he had been primarily a messenger of doom, now he was to proclaim the purpose of Yahweh to restore Israel and rebuild it as a new community.

2 This is a contrast to Ch. 3:17 where Ezekiel is represented as selected solely by Yahweh. Now selected by the people indicates his changed status in the community. As the storm clouds gathered over Jerusalem and it became increasingly evident that his words were being fulfilled, he had gradually won the respect and the ear of the people Vv 30-33 until he became undisputed spiritual leader. Thus both the human and divine V. 7 side of his appointment is given. Though accepted by the people his responsibility to faithfully warn remained the same.

HOPE FOR ISRAEL IF V. 10-11

1 He will have many to console him and to share his fate!! This is rather "cold comfort" for Pharaoh.
CHAPTER 33 SUMMARY.
Watchmen have a responsibility to faithfully proclaim Yahweh's warning or else they will suffer the punishment they predict. Yahweh's word will prove true in all the predictions. This is shown by the fall of Jerusalem & the changed attitude of the remnant. Ref Jer. 21:4 etc. 26, 32-33.
2 Ezekiel had warned them of this back in 4:17, 24:23. as had also the Law Lev. 26:39.

"THE CITY IS SMITTEN!" V.21. - The messenger who brought the sad news was the forerunner of the sad, doleful company of captives brought from the destroyed city to Babylon Jer. 39. His presence caused Ezekiel to speak freely words of warning, reproof and, above all, of hope in the national redemption of Israel. The disobedient remnant would not inherit the land Cp Vv 25,26 but a humbled, disciplined educated people would Ezek. 37.

12 Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, [c] The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, [h] he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth.

13 Cp Isa. 64:6. Paul trusted in his own righteousness which made him a sinner Cp Phil 3:9. & Rom. 10:3.

13 When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it.

14 Truth in consistent action is what was required.

CHAPTER 34

1 A reproof of the shepherds. 7 God's judgment against them. 20 The kingdom of Christ.

AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; [z] Woe be to the shepherds of Israel [t] that do feed themselves! [u] should not the shepherds feed the flocks?

3 [a] Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with the wool, [b] ye kill them that are fed: but [c] ye feed not the flock.

4 [c] The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither [f] have ye healed that which was sick, neither [h] have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither [a] have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and [b] with cruelty have ye ruled them.

5 And [d] they were scattered, [3] because there is no shepherd: and [f] they became meat to all the beasts of the field, when they were scattered.

6 [g] My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and [i] none did search or seek after them.

7 ¶ Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

8 [m] As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock [f] became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock;

9 Therefore, O ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD;

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and [4] I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds [t] feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, [5] that they may not be meat for them.

11 ¶ For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, will [6] both search my sheep, and seek them out.

12 [6] As [v] a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in [d] the cloudy and dark day.

13 And I will bring them out from the people, and [e] gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon [b] the mountains of Israel by [c] the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country.

14 I will feed them in a good pasture, and upon [d] the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: [i] there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a [j] fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

15 [m] I will feed my flock, and I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD.

16 [p] I will seek that which was lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy [t] the fat and the strong; I will feed them [z] with judgment.

17 And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I judge between [2] cattle and cattle, between the rams and the [3] he goats.

18 [v] Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the [a] deep waters, but ye must [b] foul the residue with your feet?

19 And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

20 ¶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle.

21 Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;

22 Therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between cattle and cattle.

23 And I will set up [a] one shepherd [2] over them, and he shall feed them, [d] even [e] my servant David; [3] he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.

24 And [h] I the LORD will be their God, [k] and my servant David [k] a prince among them; I the LORD have spoken it.

25 And I will make with them [m] a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and [o] they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, [27] and sleep in the woods.

26 And I will make them and the places round about [q] my hill [r] a blessing; and [s] I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be [10] showers of blessing.

27 And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand of those that [z] served themselves of them.

28 And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but [c] they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

29 And I [31] will raise up for them [d] a plant [4] of renown, and they shall be no more [5] [e] consumed with hunger in the land, neither [f] bear [g] the shame of the heathen any more.

30 Thus [h] shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord GOD.

MT SEIR (Hairy, shaggy - the mountain range of Edom) - "It attains a general elevation of 4 to 5,000 ft above sea level, far higher than that of Hauran, Gilead or Moab. . . the variety of Mt Seir is thus greater than that of the Range to the north. Besides the cool stony plateaus which it has like the latter but lifts higher, its west flank is a series of ridges, shelves and strips of valley, mazes of peaks, cliffs and chasms that form some of the wildest rock scenery in the world. In the sandstone above the Arabah are the Siks (shafts), clefts or corridors between perpendicular rocks. Springs emerge between the porous upper strata of limestone and at the contact of the latter with the sandstone. On the limestone plateau devoid of springs cisterns preserve some of the winter rain, and at various periods dams and reservoirs have caught the surface

4 The flesh has ever hated the spirit - nationally as well as individually.

6 Loved cruelty and rejoiced in bloodshed.

COMPLETE DESTRUCTION OF EDOM. Vs 7-9.
8 Literally fulfilled as a type. The Nabatheans drove the Edomites out of their possession during Babylonian captivity. They settled in southern Judea & were ultimately conquered and converted by Hyrcanus.
9 Driven from their inheritance they never regained it. So Edom ceased to exist as the flesh will in national sense in Kingdom.

The judgment of mount Seir.

MOREOVER [e] the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Ezekiel as a type.
2 Son of man, set thy face against [c] mount Seir, and [d] prophesy against it,
3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord GOD; [f] Behold, O mount Seir, I am against thee, and [h] I will stretch out mine hand against thee, and I will make thee [6] most desolate.
4 I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, [i] and thou shalt know that I am the LORD. Babylon etc. Rome.
5 [j] Because thou hast had a [5] perpetual hatred, [k] and hast [6a] shed the blood of the children of Israel by the [7] force of the sword [p] in the time of their calamity, [r] in the time that their iniquity had an end:
6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee unto blood, [s] and blood shall pursue thee: [t] sith thou hast not hated blood, [u] even blood shall pursue thee.
7 Thus will I make mount Seir [8] most desolate, and cut off from it [x] him that passeth out and him that returneth. [x] i.e. travellers.
8 And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall [b] that are slain with the sword.
9 [y] I will make thee [9] perpetual desolations, and thy cities shall not return: [z] and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
10 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and [k] we will possess it; [1] whereas [m] the LORD was there:

As a symbol. — In height, in variety, in ruthless, spectacular scenery, Mt Seir thus exceeds its neighbors to the north. Like the flesh, its first sight is calculated to excite admiration, even envy - but hidden behind that facade is the sterility of death.

Mt Seir speaks of the flesh in political manifestation as Mt Zion does of the Spirit.

5 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Surely [i] in the fire of [k] my jealousy have I spoken against the residue [4] of the heathen, and against [l] all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their heart, [m] with despiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey.

6 Prophesy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my fury, because [o] ye have borne [p] the shame of the heathen:

7 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have [q] lifted up mine hand, [r] Surely the heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame.

8 ¶ But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your [v] branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for [5] they are at hand to come.

9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye [b] shall be tilled and sown:

10 And [d] I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and [e] the cities shall be inhabited, and [f] the wastes shall be builded:

11 And I will multiply upon you [h] man and beast; and [i] they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after [k] your old estates, [6] and will do better unto you than at your beginnings: [m] and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and [b] they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth [d] bereave them of men. [12]

13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, [h] Thou land devourest up men, and hast bereaved thy nations;

14 Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither [3] bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord GOD.

15 Neither will I cause men to hear in thee [m] the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, saith the Lord GOD. [7]

16 ¶ Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, [q] they defiled it [8] by [r] their own way and by their doings: their way was before me [s] as the uncleanness of a removed woman.

18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for [x] the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols where-with they had polluted it:

19 And [a] I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: [c] according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

20 And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, [y] they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land.

21 ¶ But I had pity [z] for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went.

22 Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the

CHAPTER 36. SUMMARY

The insolence of flesh which lays claim to the things of God will be rebuked and the Land of Promise will be refilled to accommodate a transformed and restored people

Key Verses. Vv 2, 5, 7, 8, 11, 22-26, 37-38.

Entirely devoted to the consolation of Israel.

CHAPTER 45. SUMMARY

Yahweh is honoured by portions of the Promised Land being set apart for Divine service. Among the appointed offerings are sin offerings, for whilst sin will be restrained, the tendency is not removed until, at the end of 1000 years sin & death are finally eliminated.

Key Verses. Vv 1, 18-20.

CHAPTER 44. SUMMARY

Yahweh's worship is to be exclusive. The East-Gate is used only for the Prince and his associates; Priests are approved for past conduct; the work of mortal and immortal priests is defined and ordinances for their observance are set down.

Key Verses. Vv 3, 7, 9, 10, 15, 28-31

CHAPTER 46 SUMMARY.

The Kingdom will comprise a theocracy with the Prince providing an Example and incentive for worship. Ezekiel is shown the great corner Courts for preparation of the Sacrificial meals, & the offerings are regulated in.

Key Verses. Vv 2, 7, 9, 24, 27.

"NOT FOR YOUR SAKES" • They were chosen for the fathers' sakes, not because of personal greatness. Deut. 4:37. 7:7-8. They will be restored for same reason Rom. 11:28. • Their restoration a token of divine love and an assurance that complete reliance can be placed on all divine promises.

"CAUSE YOU TO WALK IN MY STATUTES" V. 27. This is the foundation of the promise of Lev. 26 the terms of which are outlined in Ezekiel's prophecy of the Restoration. See Note top. p 966.

The blessings of Rom. 11:28

Lord GOD; [a] I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but [c] for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went.

23 And I will sanctify [d] my great name, [e] which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, [f] when I shall be sanctified in you before [2] their eyes.

24 For [g] I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and [h] will bring you into your own land.

25 ¶ Then will I [m] sprinkle [n] clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: [o] from all your filthiness, and [q] from all your idols, [r] will I cleanse you.

26 [t] A new heart also will I give you, and [u] a [1] new spirit will I put within you: [v] and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.

27 And [@] I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to [b] walk in my statutes, and ye shall [d] keep my judgments, and do them.

28 And [g] ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and [h] ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

29 I will also [k] save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for [l] the corn, and will increase it, and [m] lay no famine upon you.

30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, [o] and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen.

31 Then [s] shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and [t] shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.

32 [b] Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel.

33 Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also [e] cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded.

34 And [g] the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by.

35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like [j] the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited.

36 Then [p] the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD [z] build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: [z] I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it.

37 Thus saith the Lord GOD; [z] I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will increase them with men [4] like a flock.

38 As [3] the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem [f] in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: [i] and they shall know that I am the LORD.

[11] THE hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out [p] in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of [q] the valley [r] which was full of bones,

2 And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open [1] valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

1060 CHAPTER 37 SUMMARY

He who made man in the beginning can and will rebuild him again. Scattered atoms can be marshalled in their proper place and every bone assembled in its place by the same wisdom and power by which they were first formed. And this both literally and politically. Ezekiel is given a vision of the Resurrection and explained that the miracle of its occurrence will also be experienced by the nation which will be reformed and transformed into a Theocracy.

Key Verses Vv. 3, 5-6, 11-12, 21-22, 27-28.

JACOB THE SUPPLANTER MUST BECOME ISRAEL - A PRINCE WITH GOD. - THE SPIRIT WILL DO THAT.

Note that "breath" is ruach - spirit - not neshemet as in Gen. 2:7. Here are resurrected bodies energised by the spirit Ch. 36:26-27. (Ruach however, is used for "breath" in Gen. 6:17. 7:15. Job 9:18. 12: 10. 17:1. 19:17 etc.) Ezekiel thus witnesses the Resurrection. Cp Hos. 6:1-3. (ROTH)

THE GRAVES - The word is qēber not sheol, and is rend. "memorial" in EZEK. 39:11 LXX = Mnēmeion. See Note John 5:28. - Memorial Sepulchres. Contrast EZEK. 39:11 Cp Zech. 10:9 NIE man, [a] can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, [b] thou knowest.

4 Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

5 Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, [d] I will cause [f] breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

6 And I will lay [g] sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; [i] and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

7 So I prophesied [m] as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

8 And when I beheld, lo, [q] the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

9 Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the [2] wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from [u] the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and [w] the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

11 ¶ Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole [x] house of Israel: behold, they say, [a] Our bones are dried, and [c] our hope is lost: [d] we are cut off for our parts.

12 Therefore prophesy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, [f] I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and [i] bring you into the land of Israel.

13 And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, 14 And [©] shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD [e] have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD.

15 ¶ The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying,

16 Moreover, thou son of man, [h] take thee one stick, and write upon it, For [k] Judah, and for [l] the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For [N] Joseph, the stick of [o] Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:

17 And [p] join them one to another into one stick; and they shall become one in thine hand.

18 ¶ And when [r] the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, [s] Wilt thou not shew us [t] what thou meanest by these?

19 Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take [z] the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.

20 ¶ And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand [c] before their eyes.

21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, [b] I will take the [2] children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and [c] will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:

22 And [d] I will make them one nation in the land upon [h] the mountains of Israel; and [k] one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two

CHAPTER 40: SUMMARY.

Ezekiel is given a vision of the Temple of the Age to come as a centre of Divine worship. He is introduced to the man with the measuring line and is taken on a tour of inspection. He is shown the various gates, the courts to which they give access, and the inner buildings

From here Israel gathered as a political resurrection, to be joined together. For "graves" see above. Ezekiel did not see the graves opened; he only saw the scattered bones. The opening of the graves must signify the real awakening of the politically dead people of Israel which clearly is shown in the scattered bones.

1 The Army, 8 malice, 14 and judgment of Gog.

AND the word of the [t] LORD came unto me, saying,

2 [u] Son of man, [v] set thy face against [w] Gog, the land of [x] Magog, the chief prince of [y] Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him,

3 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, [z] O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal:

4 And I will turn thee back, and [a] put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and [b] all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with [c] bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords:

7 [l] Be thou prepared, and [m] prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be thou a guard unto them.

8 ¶ [n] After many days [o] thou shalt be visited: [p] in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is [q] gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which [r] have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall [s] dwell safely all of them.

9 Thou shalt ascend and come [t] like a [u] storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee.

10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou shalt [v] think an evil thought:

ROSH ~ The Power of Russia 1062

- "The most ancient form in Hebrew for Russia" (Bochart). - Bible Geography, 1646.
- "The name Russ, Hebrew Rosh, LXX Ros, unfortunately translated in the English version 'the chief,' first appears in Ezekiel 38:2 and 39:1. It is the only name of a modern nation that appears in the OT" (Stanley Eastern Church). p. 280
- "Among the Greeks the national appellation (Russian) has a singular form Ros." Gibbon. Decline & Fall.

ROSH: The Serpent power politically manifested

- The word signifies "head" or "poison". This head of the wicked to be crushed Ps 68:21. Hab 3:13-14.
- Translated "poison" Job 20:16.
- "Venom" Deut. 32:33
- "Gall" Deut. 29:18. 32:32. Probably the poppy from its prominent head. (From that derived opium).

(*Beware) lest there be among you man or woman, or family or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from [illegible] Yahweh our God to serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall (Rosh) or wormwood.

7 [m] So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not [n] let them pollute my holy name any more: and [o] the heathen shall know that I am [q] the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.

8 ¶ [s] Behold, it is come, and [t] it is done, saith the Lord GOD; this is the day [u] whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and [x] shall set on fire and [a] burn [b] the weapons, both [c] the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the [2] handstaves, and the spears, and they shall [y] burn them with fire seven years:

19 And ye shall eat fat [i] till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD.

beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, (a) in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day (b) the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither.

2 (c) In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon (d) a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was (e) like the appearance of brass, (f) with a line of flax in his hand, and (g) a measuring reed; (h) and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and (i) set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: (k) declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And behold (l) a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long (b) by the cubit and (c) an hand breadth: so he measured (m) the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 ¶ Then came he unto the gate (n) which looketh toward the east, and (o) went up the stairs thereof, (p) and measured (q) the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every (r) little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and (s) between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate (t) within was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

8 ¶ [s] Behold, it is come, and [t] it is done, saith the Lord GOD; this is the day [u] whereof I have spoken.

9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and [z] shall set on fire and [a] burn [b] the weapons, both [c] the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the [8] handstaves, and the spears, and they shall [d] burn them with fire seven years:

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and [g] they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass in [k] that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the [6] noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of [7] Hamon-gog.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, [n] that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them [b] a renown the day that [c] I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD.

14 And they shall sever out [5] men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury [9] with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of [t] seven months shall they search.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he [7] set up [v] a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in [r] the valley of Hamon-gog.

16 And also the name of the city shall be [8] Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

18 [f] Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of [5] goats, of [h] bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

19 And ye shall eat fat [i] till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with [j] horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD.

2 HUMILIATION OF OTHER NATIONS. Vv 6-7.

5 The Catholic countries of Central Europe particularly singled out probably because of their past brutality and anti-semitism.

6 Lit. Securely in the coastlands. Probably believing their very remoteness from the centre of destruction will give them immunity from judgment. But see Mic. 4:3. Zech. 9:13. 10:

15 Geber - Memorial See note top p. 1061. Roth: "a piece of memorial for burial."

16 It is said (Targum) that this is the valley east of Jordan and the Sea of Galilee. Evidently the remnant of Gog's host shall retreat north-east across Jordan. 14 + Num 33:45

17 Khosam - To muzzle. "Hamon" not in text. This vast memorial shall remain a token of Yahweh's might & will muzzle the mouths of all who see it.

19 Gathering even bones

Ezek 40:2. "Frame" MIBNEH - from 1064 BÂNÂH - To build - Building or Family. Ezekiel the priest did not recognise the building as a Temple for it had no resemblance to Solomon's with which he was familiar. MIBNEH sig. structure - not frame or such.

"He" Yahweh manifested in the man of Ezek. 1:26 Cp V. 28; 2:1; 2:1-2.; 3:1. The risen Lord.

Ezek. 40:5 "House" - BAYITH from BÂNÂH to build. 'EBEN - Stone Ben Son. Bath - daughter. Ezekiel recognised a house of Yahweh of living stones. 1 Pet. 2:5 as well as Him one of stones. Matt 16:18 + Eph 2:19.

10 So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and [g] they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD.

Take no wood out of field" - Those warlike instruments of war will so lose their power to terrify as to be considered and treated as so much firewood.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass in [k] that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the [6] noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it The valley of [7] Hamon-gog.

PASSENGERS - 'ABARIM - Passers through. = Gog's host. V. 15. RV = "And they that pass through the land shall pass through; and when any seeth a man's bone..." This statement links the bone with Gog's ghost.

12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying of them, [n] that they may cleanse the land.

13 Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them [b] a renown the day that [c] I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD.

Name. 18 The Millennial Day. Gog's overthrow commemorated. Cp. Isa 66:19-20.

14 And they shall sever out [5] men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury [9] with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of [t] seven months shall they search.

19 They shall co-operate with the buryers in the way suggested in V. 15. The land must be completely cleansed of all defilement to all mankind the Holy Place as exhibited in the prophecies of the Glory. The passengers = Gog's host & any bones remaining will be taken to the city of the Dead. Cp 66:24.

15 And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he [7] set up [v] a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in [r] the valley of Hamon-gog.

20 A city of the Dead!! Ps 9:13

16 And also the name of the city shall be [8] Hamonah. Thus shall they cleanse the land.

6 THE NATIONS INVITED TO YAHWEH'S SACRIFICE. Vv 17-20.

17 ¶ And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; [2] Speak [w] unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, [d] Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to [e] my [3] sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.

21 A proclamation to the nations to acknowledge the justness of Yahweh's action & to submit to Christ's rule Rev 14:6. Gen 3:15

18 [f] Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of [5] goats, of [h] bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

22 Symbols of the nations. Dan 4:12. Jer. 12:9.

23 This is Yahweh's Sacrifice, not that offered by man which was to be unblemished flesh. Yahweh's sacrifice is the punishment of sin that man may see the consequences of his actions & repent. Isa 34:6. Jer 46:10. Zeph 1:7. Man offers an unblemished animal to demonstrate the seat of sin & as a token of his intention to crucify the flesh.

19 And ye shall eat fat [i] till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. Mal. 1:7

There is mercy & judgement. Armageddon is sacrificial in character. If Yahweh did not thus move mankind would destroy itself in its own wickedness. Yahweh's judgment is designed to redeem. Isa. 26:9.

20 Thus ye shall be filled at my table with [j] horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD. Cp Note Zech 2:5; 12

25 Thus identifying themselves with the purpose of the sacrifice. John 6:53. & the justness of Yahweh

21 And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the heathen shall see [m] my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.

beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither. RV. Wherein

2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south.

3 And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.

4 And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

5 And behold a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.

6 Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad.

7 And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one reed.

8 He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.

9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.

10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; [c] they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.

11 And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits.

12 The [5] space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were [l] six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.

13 He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: [n] the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door.

14 He made also posts [o] of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate.

15 And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate [r] were fifty cubits.

16 And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts [t] within the gate round about, and likewise to the [7] arches: and windows were round about [u] inward: and upon each post were [u] palm trees.

17 Then brought he me into [v] the outward court, and, lo, there were [x] chambers, and [a] a pavement made for the court round about: [b] thirty chambers were upon the pavement.

18 And the pavement [d] by the side of the gates over against the length of the gates was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court [2] without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward.

20 ¶ And the gate of the outward court [3] that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof.

21 And [d] the little chambers thereof were [e] three on this side and three on that side; and [f] the posts thereof and the [4] arches thereof were [g] after the measure of the first gate: [h] the length thereof was fifty cubits, and [i] the breadth five and twenty cubits.

22 And [k] their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and [m] they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.

23 And the gate [n] of the inner court was over against the gate [p] toward the north, and toward the east; [q] and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits.

24 ¶ After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.

THE HOUSE OF PRAYER. A building whose facade is over one mile long, whose towers are 480 ft high, whose outermost buildings are a double range of magnificent rooms each 100 ft long by 50 wide and perhaps 120 high in their lowest storeys is far greater in magnificence than anything the world has ever seen either in ancient or modern times.

Tall and massive pillars 60 ft high on surbases of 20 ft will grace the centre and sides of the Entrance Hall. The pillars will be in pairs, two on each surbase. Vv14, 16.

[1] This is in addition to the "porch of the gate" vs 8 and projects into the outer court.

[2] Leaving the entrance with its doors at the full end of the 50 ft hall = a porch 16 ft long.

[2A] He retraces his steps noting the number of chambers on each side.

V.14 "He made" - It was too high for him to measure, so the prophet went back in thought to the time when the Man who then explained the building had fashioned it Zech. 6:12.

3,4 Heb. gathered. They were 26 ft high. Each of gates (i.e. for entrance and exit) having two turning leaves Ch. 41:23-26. LXX & Mo. The boundaries to the chambers are 2½ ft thick and formed of lattice work. V.16.

3 The Entrance Hall from chamber to Chamber = 50 ft. Possible measurements: Space for 4 leaves folding doors 8 ft. Divisions between lintels folding doors 2 ft. = The two opening (Exit - Entrance) each 20 ft = 80 ft.

4 The verse speaks of Posts upon a post i.e. tall, slender pillars upon a massive surbase. The suggestion is that as "posts" is plural, the two pillars measure 60 cubits together, thus 30 each. Surbase approx. 8 each. Thus Entrance graced with series of massive double columns shaped like palms 60 ft high on surbases of 26 ft. Cp V. 26. They will be constructed down centre of gateway as well as sides. V.16. Cp note Jer. 52:21.

5 Lit. "Coming in." This is East Gate V.6 which is closed to ordinary traffic. Ch. 43:1-5, 44:1-3, 46:1.

6,8 The Gate facing the inner court closed when Prince resting in Temple but not presiding at special ceremonies.

26 Outer threshold 12 ft. 3 Chambers each 12 ft = 36 ft. 2 Posts between chambers each 10 ft = 20 ft. Porch of gate 16 ft. Posts of same 4 ft. Threshold by Porch 12 ft = 100 ft.

27 Lattice and windows used interchangeably Cant. 2:9. Song 2:9. Windows therefore arabesque which enclose chambers. No walls to chambers therefore these beams necessary. Possible to look through lattice to court outside.

28 The arabesque will decorate the arches. In gate entrances 32 are there are four arches. The person after ascending 7 steps rises overhead a series of arches beautified with arabesque.

29 Series of slender ornamental columns standing upon pedestals ornamented with leaves - a coronal wreath Cp Rev. 3:11-12. Ps. 92:12. Rev. 7:9

30 "The whole space within the walls of an ancient Temple was called the cella, but the interior was frequently divided into several cellae." There are 30 cellae which extend around the three sides measured (vv. 22-24), ie 10 for each side, allowing for either 9 or 11 gates. Heb Rikhkah - See Index

1066 THE GATE: Sha'ar - To split open. Actually a Gateway such as has been found at Megiddo. Christ is the door John 10:7. Access is by elevation of 7 steps 40:16, 22 suggesting a spiritual ascent Heb 6:1; 2 Pet. 1:3-9. 3:18. It leads to a double threshold each 12 ft deep 20 ft wide 40:6, 11 with doorway 26 ft high 40:11. The Gateway is 100 ft long 40:15 by 50 wide 40:13. Made up of 3 Guard-rooms, pillars, threshold, porch etc. (see bottom 1065). Plurality of gates suggest more than one 40:19, 38; 44:1, 17. Cp the City 48:31, 32-34.

28 And he brought me to [a] the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;

29 And [c] the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

30 And the arches round about were [i] five and twenty cubits long, and [k] five cubits [3] broad.

31 [l] And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and [m] the going up to it had eight steps.

32 ¶ And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures.

33 And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.

34 And the arches thereof were toward the outward court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

35 ¶ And he brought me to the north gate, and measured it according to these measures;

36 The little chambers thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, and the windows to it round about: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.

37 And the posts thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the going up to it had eight steps.

38 And [b] the chambers and the entries thereof were by the posts of the gates, where [d] they washed [e] the burnt offering.

39 ¶ And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon [f] the burnt offering and [g] the sin offering and [h] the trespass offering.

40 And at the side without, [2] as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon [n] they slew their sacrifices.

42 And the four tables were [o] of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.

43 And within were [p] hooks, [q] an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 ¶ And without the inner gate [s] were [t] the chambers of [r] the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.

45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, [s] the keepers of the [5] charge of the house.

46 And [t] the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, [u] the keepers of the charge of the altar: [x] these are [y] the sons of Zadok

DESCRIPTION OF INNER TEMPLE

1 Conducted from altar Ch. 40:49 through porch to circular range of buildings. To be brought "to the Temple" implies a space between porch and Temple referred to as "the place left" (Vv. 9-10). This space is 10ft. V. 11.
2 Two posts at the Temple entrance measure 12ft 8in.
3 This is describing posts that are uniform rather than one post similar to Ch. 40:49
4 Lit. "from the face of." This innermost portion of the circular Temple forms the Most Holy, the Baind or breadth of the "Tent."
5 Heb. Ohel - Derived from a word meaning round or ringed-shaped, appropriate to the circular formation of the Temple Cellae. The Ohel is formed by the covering over Mt Zion Isa. 4:5-6

48 ¶ And he brought me to [g] the porch of the house, and measured each [h] post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.
49 [k] The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were [n] pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side. See below Summary bottom p. 1069

V. 49 H.S. paraphrase: "He measured the porch 20 cubits by 11 cubits and also the porch where are the steps 20 cubits by 11 cubits." Thus he measured the porch on the inside of the circular Temple and then went to the outside to measure the corresponding porch. This is the character of the measurements in the following chapter.
6 Entrance = 10 Cubits plus 2 half posts = 16 cubits or 32 feet. Porch same width. Entrance = 11 cubits Ch. 40:49 plus post 5 cubits V. 48 = 16 cubits.

23 And the temple and the sanctuary [d] had two doors.

24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two [e] turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other door.

25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, [9] like as were made upon the walls; and there were [h] thick planks upon the face of [l] the porch without.

26 And there were [m] narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon [o] the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

1 Chambers for the priests. 19 The outward court.

THEN he brought me forth into [p] the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into [r] the chamber that was over against [t] the separate place, and [u] which was before the building toward the north.

2 [v] Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north door, and [z] the breadth was fifty cubits.

3 Over against [a] the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was [b] gallery against gallery in [c] three stories.

4 And before [c] the chambers was a walk of ten cubits breadth inward, [h] a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north.

5 Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries [7 k] were [7] higher than these, [8 l] than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building.

6 For they were in three

PRIESTLY FUNCTIONS (mortals) ~ Shall receive the animal offerings at the northern entrance. In the case of MEAL OFFERING.. flour (life), oil (joy Heb 1:9), frankincense (prayer Rev 8:3) shall be received at southern gate. (Cp Note Ch 40: 43). If presented in form of bread - it will be unleaved wafers (leaven = malice, wickedness 1 Cor 5:8). The law concerning this = Lev 2. priestly functions Lev 6:14-18; 7:9-10. The priest will receive this from hands of worshipper, and retaining the portion prescribed which will be stored in the priests' chambers he will direct the rest to the Altar as the food of Yahweh (See Note Mal 1:7). At the inner Temple the sons of Zadok will take charge of it V 19. Thus Yahweh, immortal priest mortal priests and worshippers united in this offering. See below. GÂDER: fence or inclosure. Lit. "the fence." Admission between the entrance and cellae, and forming part of the entrance. It extends the full length of the gateway entrance (50 cubits) and is formed of pillars, grated open etc. which form division

The verse is explaining how entrance is gained to the upper cellae. The entrance to these is toward the east. The verse can be rendered: "From under these chambers is the entry on the east as one goeth up into them from the outer court." He would turn east and enter a lift (no stairs being provided Ch 41:7). Possibly waters "gushing out" Ch 47. provide the power.

Cp Ch 40:10. These cellae divided with lattice work separating them from inner court.

They will be as long as they are broad — square. See above

This could be rendered: "In the top of the way." It refers to an opening for the use of lifts, for no staircases are provided, and would be inconvenient on account of the size of the building.

DINING ROOMS OF MORTAL PRIESTS. VV 13-14.

The North and South divisions of the inner range of outer buildings reserved for use of mortal priests. There they eat, the store the meat and first fruits, and keep their garments that are for service in the Temple Chronicles

They approach with the sacrifice which is delivered in lieu of veil (Lev 4:6, 17) blood poured to the immortals to be offered on the Altar. The fat are presented to sons Zadok. See Ch 44:15 note. Priests eat portion mortals "approach" but do not come near" Ch 44:13, 16. Ho'ness attached what-stories, but had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building [b] was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

7 And [c] the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.

8 For the length of the chambers that were in the utter court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before [e] the temple were an hundred cubits.

9 And [3] from under these chambers was [4] [h] the entry on the east side, [5] as one goeth into them from the utter court.

10 The chambers were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building.

11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they: and all their goings out were both [l] according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door [m] in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one entereth into them.

13 ¶ Then said he unto me, [p] The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where [q] the priests that approach unto the LORD [r] shall eat [s] the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and [t] the meat offering, and [u] the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.

14 When the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but [a] there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people.

15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward [d] the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.

16 He measured the east [2] side with [g] the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

17 He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.

18 He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed.

19 ¶ He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it by the four sides: [i] it had a wall round about, [k] five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, [m] to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

SIN OFFERING V.R. For general rules Lev 4:1-5:13. Priestly rules Lev 6:24-30. Animals and birds were offered according to status of worshipper. Some amendment of law required for altered conditions. Probably presented to priest with confession of sin Lev 5:5 blood sprinkled towards Temple ever touched sin offering Lev 6:27 -thus cleansing offerer of sin

TRESPASS OFFERING V.13. -General rule. Lev 5:14-6:7 Priestly rules Lev 7:1-7. Similar to sin offering.

Thus, in addition to national festivals and solemn gatherings individuals will present their own individual petitions and offerings so that a state of activity will result. Cp Isa 60:1.

THE ALTAR 'ARI'EYL - 'ARIY Lion + 'AYIL-Ram. - The consumer of the Ram.

ORDINANCES OF THE ALTAR. Vv 18-27. Exod. 29:11-46.

The ritual is similar to that prescribed for the Tabernacle Altar, except there is no anointing with oil, & no consecration of the priests, the priesthood being assumed as already existing.

● Bullock for Sin Offering. V.19. Cp Exod 29:11,10, Lev 8:14. The priests represent the people & though then immortal, their offering will illustrate how they attained unto that state, and to what the people can aspire. For the priest Lev 4:3.

● The Altar cleansed. "Cleanse" is CHĀTĀ'-To miss. "Purge" is to make atonement V.20. The cleansing is by atonement & the ordinance teaches that the true Altar Heb 13:10. was cleansed from association with sin nature by his own offering Rom 6:10. Heb 7:27. 9:12. 13:20 Cp John 17:19.

● Kid of goats. V.22. — A departure from Mosaic Ordinance. It was the offering for a ruler Lev 4:23-24. But why now in association with the altar? Because the Melchizedek priesthood (priestly rulers) officiate. Rev 5:9-10. Zech 6:13. Acts.

God's glory returneth to the temple. THE MOST HOLY. V.12.

4 And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.

5 So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.

6 And I heard him speaking unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me.

7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.

8 In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger.

9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me, and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

10 ¶ Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern.

11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.

12 This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.

13 ¶ And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar.

14 And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit.

15 So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns.

16 And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof.

17 And the settle shall be fourteen ~~cubits~~ long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his stairs shall look toward the east.

18 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon.

19 And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord GOD, a young bullock for a sin offering.

20 And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on 21 Then shalt thou take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he [d] shall burn it in [e] the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary.

22 And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.

23 When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.

24 And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests [f] shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the LORD.

25 [g] Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.

26 Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall [h] consecrate themselves.

7 [r] In that ye have brought into my sanctuary [s] strangers, [t] uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, [u] to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer [v] my bread, [w] the fat and [x] the blood, and they have broken my covenant because of all your abominations.

8 And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have [y] set keepers of my [z] charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

BLOOD OF BULLS AND GOATS. Cp Heb. 9:12.

The dedication of the Altar seems to be an amendation of the Mosaic purification of the Altar on the Day of Atonement. The Bullock represented the High Priest and his house Lev 16:11,18. The goat represented the people Lev. 16:15,18.

The lesson would teach mankind that sought to be Priest and his house were immortal they had attained that state by sacrificing the flesh, and offering themselves as a burnt offering to be consumed by Divine fire.

10 And [c] the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even [e] bear their iniquity.

11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having [h] charge [i] at the gates of the house, and [k] ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them.

12 Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and [l] caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I [p] lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity.

13 And [t] they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in [u] the most holy place: but [x] they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.

14 But I will make them [z] keepers of the charge of the house, [a] for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.

15 ¶ But [b] the priests the Levites, [c] the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me [h] to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD:

16 They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to [k] my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.

17 ¶ And it shall come to pass, that [m] when they enter in at the gates of [a] the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.

18 They shall have [d] linen [f] bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen [g] breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves [2 3] with any thing that causeth sweat.

19 And when they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court [m] to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not [o] sanctify the people with their garments.

20 [q] Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their [r] locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads.

21 [t] Neither shall any priest drink [t] wine, when they enter into the inner court.

22 Neither shall they take for their wives [v] a widow, nor her that is [5] put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow [6] that had a priest before.

23 And [b] they shall teach my people the difference [e] between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern [f] between the unclean and the clean.

24 And [g] in controversy they shall stand in judgment; and they shall judge it according to my judgments: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all mine assemblies; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.

25 And [i] they shall come at no dead person [e] to defile themselves: but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves.

26 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days.

27 And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the Lord GOD.

28 And it shall be unto them for an inheritance: I am their inheritance: and ye shall give them no possession in Israel: I am their possession.

29 They shall eat the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering: and every dedicated thing in Israel shall be theirs.

30 And the first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

12 "As for the prince, when they come in, he shall come in in the midst of them; and when they go forth, he shall go forth." C.B. "They" represent his associates, the immortals - not the people. He enters by east in the midst of his associates. The people enter either from north or south. He goes forth surrounded by his associates to the Temple.

1 Thus saith the Lord GOD; The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon it shall be opened.

2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at [a] the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.

3 Likewise [c] the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in the new moons.

4 And [e] the burnt offering that the prince [f] shall offer unto the LORD [g] in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish.

5 And [i] the meat offering shall be [k] an ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs [a] as he shall be able to give, and [m] an hin of oil to an ephah.

6 And in the day of the new moon it shall be [n] a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they shall be without blemish.

7 And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according [o] as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.

9 ¶ But when the people of the land [q] shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth [r] over against it.

10 And [s] the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs [b] as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings [d] voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, [h] as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.

Rep. Christ as Priest

13 [i] Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the LORD of a lamb [j] of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it [t] every morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD. Rep. the nation.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for [p] a continual burnt offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord GOD; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift [r] of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to [s] the year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover [t] the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance [v] by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession:

THE RIVER OF LIFE. The waters of the new river, bursting forth from the hill of Zion pass between the newly separated peaks of Olivet, flowing east to Shittim north of the Dead Sea Joel 3:18, here they turn South and north towards the former and the hinder sea Zech. 14:8. The northern stream fills up the Arabah Ezek. 47:8 or such portions which remain at a lower level after the elevation of the terraine. The waters press northwards they cannot go south because of the barrier caused by the rising of the salt sea. They ascend the Jordan Valley gradually filling the basin of the Chinneroth. They pass northward and engulf the site of the cities Chorazin, Bethsaida, Capernaum. A magnificent sheet of inland water will then be formed covering the Jordan (humanity) finding its outlet to the Mediterranean perhaps at Tyre. Mat. 11:21-24 Isa. 33:21.

20 Then said he unto me, This is the place where the priests shall [g] boil [h] the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall [i] bake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, [k] to sanctify the people.

21 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, [2] in every corner of the court there was a court.

22 In the four corners of the court there were courts [l] joined of forty ~~cubits~~ long, and thirty broad: these four [6] corners were of one measure.

23 And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places under the rows round about.

AFTERWARD he brought me again unto [n] the door of the house; and, behold, [o] waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, at the south side of [p] the altar.

2 Then brought he me out of the way of [a] the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto [b] the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

3 And when [e] the man that had [f] the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; [2] the waters were to the ankles.

4 Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.

5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a [3] river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, [4] waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed over.

6 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.

7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the [7] bank of the river were [u] very many trees on the one side and on the other.

8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east [m] country, and go down into the [n] desert, and go into [o] the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.

9 And it shall come to pass, that [p] every thing that liveth, [q] which moveth, whithersoever the [r] rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river [s] cometh.

Outline:

I. Historical Introduction (1:1-2:4a)
II. Gentile Times (2:4b-7:28)
III. Israel and the Gentile Times (8:1-12:13)

Notes:

The 1st 6 chapters are given in the 3rd person, the latter in the 1st person.

The Aramaic language of the Chaldeans (1:4) is used from 2:4 to 7:28.

Daniel was a contemporary of Jeremiah, Ezekiel, Jehoiakim, Jehoiachin, Zedekiah, Ezra, Nehemiah, Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi, Esther, Mordecai, Cyrus, Darius, Ahasuerus, Artaxerxes.

Daniel was the most rigid and fiercely monotheistic of the prophets. In this is seen the influence and work of Ezekiel and Daniel.

[a] blemish, but well favoured, and [b] skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in [c] knowledge, and understanding [d] science, and such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and [e] whom they might teach [f] the learning and the tongue of [g] the Chaldeans.

5 And the king appointed them [h] a daily provision of [i] the king's meat, and of [i] the wine which he drank: so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might [k] stand before the king.

6 Now among these were of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:

7 Unto whom the [l] prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel the name of Belteshazzar: [m] and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abed-nego.

8 ¶ But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's [n] meat, nor with the [i] wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now God [o] had brought Daniel into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces [p] worse liking than the children which are of your [q] sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

11 Then said Daniel to [r] Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us [2] pulse [3] to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, and the wine [i] that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

17 ¶ As for these four children, [t] God gave them knowledge and [u] skill in all learning and wisdom: and [s] Daniel [v] had understanding in all visions and [w] dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.

19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore [x] stood they before the king.

20 And in all matters of [y] wisdom [z] and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all [a] the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 [b] And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

1 Nebuchadnezzar, forgetting his dream, requireth it of the Chaldeans. 10 They acknowledging their inability are judged to die. 14 Daniel findeth the dream. 24 He is brought to the king. 36 The interpretation. 46 Daniel's advancement.

AND [c] in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnez-

NEBUCHADNEZZAR (Nebo Defend the Borders) learns that it is the God of Israel Who rules in the Kingdom of Men and determines "the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation" (Acts 17:26).

THE DREAM: The King never claims to have forgotten the dream. V5. = "the word from me is sure: If you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be torn limb from limb, and your houses shall be laid in ruins" (RSV). V8 = "I know with certainty that you are trying to gain time, because you see that the word from me is sure that if you do not make known the dream to me there is but one sentence for you ..." (RSV). The King was so troubled by the dream that he wanted an exact interpretation. He thus called upon them to explain what it was as a token of their ability to explain it. Cp. V. 9. 24.

2 He was violently agitated, and disturbed in mind he could not rest. See the cause of his restlessness V.29. See Note top p.1083.

THE CLERGY FAIL: THEIR EXECUTION DECREED V10-13

Nebuchadnezzar's dream DANIEL 2. is revealed to Daniel.

2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.

AZDA - fixed, determined

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore no king, lord, nor ruler, asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

14 Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon:

15 He answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel.

16 Then Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation.

ZEMAN = A set time

17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions:

18 That they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.

PREJUDICE IN WORKS OF REFERENCE (Greek Words)

It has been alleged that the presence of Greek words in Daniel argues a late date for the writing of the book. But gradually the list dwindled down to 3 words (according to Dr Driver in his book on Daniel) with even one of these admitted not to be conclusive by itself. The other two are "pesanterin" (psaltery Dan. 3:7) and "sumphonyah." (sackbut Dan. 3:5) Dr Driver says it is "incredible" that these two can have "reached Babylon about 350 BC."

The excavations of ancient Greek cities in Egypt now tell a very different tale! John Urquhart says: "The old contention that Greece carried nothing to Babylonia before the time of Alexander the Great is now too absurd for serious discussion. ... We discover the trace of a very busy commercial intercourse about a century before the time when Daniel was written ... a brisk trade was then carried on in musical instrument. " The seven-stringed harp invented by the Greek poet and musician, Terpander, in 650 BC. is now found to have been in use in Babylonia ten thousand years after that date! - J. S. Baxter.

INTERPRETATION

Early editions of Encyclopoedia Britannica, repudiating the fact that Daniel predicted the course of world history, suggested that the 4th Empire was Greece. The 11th Edition, however declared that the Seleucidaen Power was the 4th Empire referred to. The 14th Edition reverts back to earlier editions stating that the Greeks represent the 4th Empire, and the Seleucidae represented the clay of the Image. See 1 Cor. 1:20.

V19. A night vision. Daniel evidently saw a repetition of the King's dream - a prophecy relating to Gentile night.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR (Nebo Defend the Borders) learns that it is the God of Israel Who rules in the Kingdom of Men and de... "the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation" (Acts 17:26).

THE DREAM: The King never claims to have forgotten the dream. V5. = "The word from me is sure: If you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be torn limb from limb, and your houses shall be laid in ruins" (RSV). "I know with certainty that you are trying to gain time, because you see that the word from me is sure that if you do not make known the dream to me, there is but one sentence for you..." (RSV). The King was so troubled by the dream that he wanted and tried to explain it. Cp V. 9. 26.

V19. A night vision. Daniel evidently saw a repetition of the king's dream - a prophecy relating to Gentile night

DANIEL'S PRAYER Vv19-23 While "blessed the name of God" acknowledging Him as the basis of "all wisdom and power" the request for assistance had been granted and was now followed with a fervent prayer of thanksgiving a prominent feature of prayer in ancient times Neh.11:17 12:8,46. See Ps.26:7. 50:14, 69:30 95:2. 100:4. Phil.4:6. 1 Tim.4:3. All this was in the "name of God" — "Hallowed be Thy Name" See notes on the Name Mal.3. Note the expressions Daniel used in his prayer. THE KING'S RESTLESSNESS Vv1,29: He reveals remarkable qualities of greatness. Instead of driving on in an increasing frenzy of achievement and personal triumph on the field of battle, he takes time to consider the purpose of his own life & the power that had come to him. What would it lead to? What was its destiny? How best could he use it?

20 He has wisdom & the power to implement His intention
21 He alters the course of history that it might conform to His purpose Neb.11:3 Acts 17:26 Ps.102:13 Ps.75:2 mg. He has a "set time" — His purpose not left to chance. The revelation of the dream demonstrated that! See Index: Times & Seasons

29 Nothing said about the dream — It was the interpretation that was the main concern.
GOD REVEALETH SECRETS. Vv27-30
30 Ge Isa.41:21-24
31 The sole control of Babylon with outstanding victories had only recently been experienced by the King who was doubtless contemplating the destiny of the political power he was then in course of establishing.
NEBUCHADNEZZAR married AMUHIA or AMYITIS daughter of Cyaxeres, king of the Medes.

Daniel declareth (The (good) Wisdom. Wisdom = HA-CHOKMAH)

21 times and the seasons: he [a] removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and [b] knowledge to them that know understanding:
22 [d] He revealeth the deep and secret things: [26] he knoweth what is in the darkness, and [e] the light dwelleth with him.
23 I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou [h] God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter. (Manifestation V.28)
24 ¶ Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew unto the king the interpretation.
25 Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, [6] I have found a man of the (7) captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king the interpretation. (Gebar - Chald for Gibbor Ge 10)
26 The king answered and said to Daniel, [m] whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof?
27 Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;
28 But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and (8) maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be [v] in the latter days. [z] Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;
29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts [y] came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and (10) he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.
30 But [c] as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.
31 ¶ Thou, O king, [3] sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible. (His appearance was frightening — RSV.)
32 [f] This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his [4] thighs of brass, (TAB - good)
33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.
34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out [5] [k] without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and [l] brake them to pieces. 2 Sam.22:43
35 Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became (9) like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that (11) no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image [p] became a great mountain, and [q] filled the whole earth.
36 ¶ This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.
37 Thou, O king, art [r] a king of kings: for [s] the God of heaven (12) hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.
38 And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler

35 It was probably a warlike figure symbolising Gentile military power. The metal glowed brightly so that it was exceedingly luminous in its glory.

44 Ge Isa. 14:5. God had given Gen.12:3 to that his status was that of earth's future monarch.

THE HEAD OF GOLD Babylon became the golden city of a golden age (Isa.13:19. 14:4) Ge 3:1 Gold was plentifully used to glorify the city. In an inscription, Nebuchadnezzar declared: "The walls of the cell of Merodach must be made to glisten as the sun. The halls of his temple must be overlaid with shining gold, lapis lazuli, and alabaster. And the chapel of his lordship overlaid with bright gold."
NEBUCHADNEZZAR — He is identified as the head of gold V. 38 He is representative of the great incarnation of human pride and power humbled before the manifestation of Divine wisdom and strength. He made the Image and commanded the world to worship it.

In 19th of his reign the Temple was smitten & 70 years later, in 2nd year Darius the command was issued to rebuild it Ezra 4:24. 6:1. In 23rd of his reign a further and final deportation of captives occurred. Jer.52:30 and 70 years later in 6th Darius the rebuilding of the Temple was completed Ezra 6:15.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR SEEKS TO DEFEAT THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE INTERPRETATION OF THE DREAM

Whilst recognising that Daniel had truly revealed the dream the king sought to frustrate the interpretation and perpetuate his Empire by forcing all to worship the image of his power.

POTTER'S CLAY. - Ancient iron production was by subjecting the ore to intense heat and afterwards driving out clay by beating. When the latter was done imperfectly the result was "slag" in which iron and clay was mixed. THE FEET OF THE IMAGE

"While the head, breast, arms, belly, thighs, legs and toes have all existed, the feet have not yet been formed; so that it has hitherto been impossible for the colossal Image to stand erect as Nebuchadnezzar saw it in his dream. It is, therefore, the mission of the Autocrat to form the feet and set up the Image before the world in all its excellent brightness, and terribleness of form; that all men subject to it the Kingdom of Babylon may worship the work of its creator's power."

CHAPTER 3.

1 Nebuchadnezzar's golden image. 21 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego are cast into a fiery furnace. 26 God delivereth them.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR SEEKS TO DEFEAT THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE INTERPRETATION. OF THE DREAM.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made (a) an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in (b) the plain of Dura, in (c) the province of Babylon. See Supp.
2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together (f) the princes, (g) the governors, and (h) the captains, (i) the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. only the rulers assembled - not the common people.
3 (e) Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

THE KING DEMANDS UNIVERSAL WORSHIP OF AN IMAGE 1-3.

Whilst recognising that Daniel had truly revealed the dream the King sought to frustrate the interpretation and perpetually establish his Empire by forcing all to worship the symbol of his power Ch. 2:38

55 This indicates worship fit only for God - which Daniel rejected. Rev. 22:8 Acts 14:13 Cp V. 30
56 Doubtless in rejecting the King's worship Daniel expounded facts concerning God and His revelation.
57 Thus typifying Christ's coming triumph over Babylon the Great. Rev 16:15-19. Acts 17:31
58 Typifying the brethren of Christ Rev 2:26.

POTTER'S CLAY. - Ancient iron production was by subjecting the ore to intense heat and afterwards driving out clay by beating. When the latter was done imperfectly the result was "slag" in which iron and clay was mixed. The symbol thus speaks of the imperfect efforts of man to weld mankind into a strong alliance of unity and peace. Clay commonly used for man. Job 33:6. Isa 64:8. 1 Cor 15:47. The rust of iron suggests the same defilement of the flesh which it represents. The use of iron tools in construction of altars and Temple was defiling. Deut 27:5. Josh 8:31. 1 Kings 6:7. See top to right 1084

THE FEET OF THE IMAGE

"While the head, breast, arms, belly, thighs, legs and toes have all existed, the feet have not yet been formed; so that it has hitherto been impossible for the colossal Image to stand erect as Nebuchadnezzar saw it in his dream. It is, therefore, the mission of the Autocrat to form the feet and set up the Image before the world in all its excellent brightness, and semblance of form; that all men subject to the Kingdom of Babylon may worship the work of its creator's power."

Luxury, with its accompanying effeminacy & degeneracy, the destroyer of nations as well as individuals, began to corrode & weaken its iron sinews, & thus prepared the way for its subsequent disruption into to kingdoms.

4 Then an herald cried [2] aloud, To you [3] it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages,
5 That at what time [b] ye hear the sound of [d] the cornet, flute, [e] harp, sackbut, psaltery, [5] dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king hath set up:
6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.
7 Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.
8 ¶ Wherefore at that time certain [n] Chaldeans [o] came near, and [p] accused the Jews.
9 They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar, [r] O king, live for ever.
10 Thou, O king, [s] hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:
11 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.
12 There are certain Jews whom [t] thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, [u] have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.
13 ¶ Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.
14 Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto them, Is it [6] true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?
15 Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; [h] well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and [k] who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?
16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not [l] careful to [m] answer thee in this matter.
17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and [q] he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.
18 But if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.
19 ¶ Then was Nebuchadnezzar [7] full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.
20 And he commanded the [8] most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

REVELATION OF THE DREAM

It is not difficult to imagine the amazement & the exultation which the King must have felt at Daniel's remarkable disclosure. The dream was not only outlined in clear focus, but with it an interpretation that was both apt and sure V.45. But as he listened he learned that the same God of heaven Who had given him his power and glory would remove it from Babylon, so that it would ultimately pass to others V.44. He was therefore exalted by the interpretation, and, at the same time humbled by it. The golden image of Dan. 3 was an attempt to circumvent it.

Fiery Furnace. A large erection so that 4 men could walk in it V.25. A large opening at side so the King could watch the execution. V.26. as well as the chimney above.

HEAD OF GOLD: A pure autocracy. No House of Legislature intervened between the will of the King & its exercise. Ch 5:19.
SILVER INFERIOR: Breast & Arms: Medo-Persia. Unlike Babylon, the Kings are bounded by their own decrees. Ch 6:14-16.
BEAR RULS OVER ALL THE EARTH — A characteristic of Alexander's conquest. He "wept because there were no more world's to conquer." He overthrew & occupied Persian monarchy into India. Cp 11:3
The "inferiority" was not of extent of rule, or of power Cp 4:22, but in glory, and in dictatorial authority.

Daniel was not in the category of those called to worship. He was in Babylon Ch. 2:49 those called were "of the provinces. Ch. 3:2.

WHY WAS NOT DANIEL INVOLVED — He could have been absent on King's business. Typically he represents the great Judge - the angel of the furnace. Mal. 4:1-2.

20 The angry, hasty King put fear into his servants. Nervously they set about heating the furnace imperviously to their own danger - and were destroyed. Typically this is repeated today.

Much the Babylonians worshipped. See Appendix 26. The haughty King is humbled. He recognises the majesty of God and recalls his own words Ch. 2:47. He acknowledges publicly that they were servants of a greater Monarch than he.

31 Not merely in word but in deed they served their God.

20 commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonied, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, came forth of the midst of the fire. 28 HADDABERIN - Gen. leaders. LXX = Rebels.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them. 29 See bottom 1087

28 Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

29 Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort. Ch. 2:5

BACKGROUND

If Ch. 3. was shortly after Ch. 2. - thus early in reign Nebuchadnezzar when it was important for him to secure allegiance of all puppet governments and domestic authorities v. 2, Ch. 4. is obviously much later in his reign when his power is secure, and the tremendous building projects he undertook were complete Dan. 40:30. Meanwhile Ezekiel would have prophesied 2:3-7 12. letters would have been received from Jeremiah advising the protracted nature of the captivity Jer. 29. The Jews would have witnessed the humiliation of Zedekiah prostrating himself before Nebuchadnezzar Jer. 51:59 and heard the dramatic Book of Babylon read by Seraiah and dramatically thrown in the Euphrates Jer. 51:59-64. Would have seen successive deportations of captive Jews arrive Ezek. 1:1. with depressing news of conditions in the land. Would have seen the blinded King arrive Jer. 52:11 and heard of the political death throes of the name of my god, and a in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, b saying, Elohin Supp. See above

DANIEL MASTER OF MAGICIANS. V.9. See Note Ch.5:11. These were sometimes called Magi (See Note on Rab-mag Jer.39:13.) though the title relates to Persians more particularly. The LXX has it of the "astrologers" Dan.2:2,10. The "superior Greek version" of Daniel by Theodotion "(Vine) has it also at 1:20. 2:27. 4:7. 5:7,11,15. In his official capacity as Master of the Wise, Daniel was in a position to influence some according to the Truth. This opportunity doubtless continued during Persian domination Dan.6:2. That he did so is indicated by the Magi who came enquiring for the birth of the Lord. Mat.2:1, 7,16. The prophecies of Daniel could well have influenced such. Dan.9:24-27. - particularly when endorsed by such a testimony as Nebuchadnezzar here gives.

9 O Belteshazzar, c master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no d secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; e I saw, and behold f a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and g the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 h The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was i meat for all: k the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, l a watcher and m an holy one came down from heaven;

14 He cried n aloud, and said thus, o Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 p Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by q the decree of r the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: s to the intent that t the living may know u that v the most High w ruleth in the kingdom of men, and x giveth it to whomsoever he will, and y setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, z O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, a forasmuch b as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

19 ¶ Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonied c for one hour, and d his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, e the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies.

21 g Whose leaves were fair, and the fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; h under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation;

22 It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto heaven, and i thy dominion k to the end of the earth.

23 And whereas l the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, m Hew the tree down, and destroy it; n yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of Heb. "The lowest (one) of men He will set over it." Roth: "One low among men" LXX: "Him (who is set at naught He setteth up over it" by men. Thus the original has reference to one individual who will ultimately be set over men. If Nebuchadnezzar wished to retain his rule he must emulate this One's characteristic Cp V.27. THE MOST HIGH GOD.

In Ch2. Neb. is introduced to the "God of heaven" Vv.28, 37, 44. and is forced to the acknowledgement of V.47. In Ch3 he is brought to realise his status Vv.26,24 In Ch 4 his activity in the politics of the nations (Cp Gen.14:19) Cp Vv 2, 17, 24, 25, 32, 34.

Dan. 4:3. Neb. plainly states two fundamental doctrines often disputed by so-called "Christians" 1. God's kingdom shall last for ever. 2. The earth will always be inhabited.

The army entered the city by the northern and southern channels. The soldiers had been instructed to imitate the sound of the revellers until they should assemble around the royal palace in the centre of the city. They did so. When the king heard the noise, supposing it to be the sound of a drunken mob, he ~~opened~~ ordered the gates of the palace to be opened to ascertain the cause of disturbance. The army rushed in and the slaughter commenced.

25 That [b] they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee [d] to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, [e] till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. 28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.
29 At the end of twelve months he walked [3] in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon.
30 [x] The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for [b] the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?
31 [y] While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, [i] saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee [k] it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.
32 And [l] they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. Young = Lit. "look" or Glance Gp V.19
33 [a] The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and [c] his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.
34 And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him [f] that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:
35 And all [t] the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and [m] he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and [q] none can stay his hand, [s] or say unto him, What doest thou?
36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, [x] mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my [v] counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I [a] was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty [c] was added unto me.
37 Now I Nebuchadnezzar [d] praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, [e] all whose works are truth, and [f] his ways judgment: and [h] those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

"IS NOT THIS GREAT BABYLON" V.30 "According to ancient historians, it was a regular square 45 miles in compass, enclosed by a wall 200 ft high, 50 broad; in which there were 100 gates of brass. Its principal ornaments were the temple of Belus, in the middle of which was a tower of 8 storeys" (or towers placed one above another, diminishing always as they went up), "upon a base a quarter of a mile square; a most magnificent palace; and the famous hanging gardens, which were an artificial mountain, raised upon arches, and planted with trees of the largest, as well as the most beautiful sorts." Lowth.
INSCRIPTION. "I finished the great two-fold wall of Babylon. I made strong the city with bricks burnt hard as stones, and piled high as huge masses as mountains. Behold besides the Imgoul-Bel the impregnable fortifications of Babylon, I made inside Babylon on the eastern bank of the river such a fortification as no king before me had ever made. I excavated the ditch: with bricks and mortar I bound its bed; I built above the strong rampart. I adorned its gates. The portals and pillars I plated with bronze. Against presumptuous enemies, the foes of Babylon, I made use of great waters like those of the seas. Thus I made strong the defences of Babylon. May it last forever. Babylon the city which is the delight of my eyes, which I have made glorious."
BUILDING ACTIVITY WITNESSED BY DANIEL - The list of public works undertaken for the improvement of Babylon is amazing. They include more than 20 temples, strengthened fortifications, excavations of canals, vast embankments of the river, hanging gardens etc. Bricks enstamped with the name Nebuchadnezzar throughout the ruins attest his enterprise as well as his opulence and taste. - Angus Bible Handbook.

CHAPTER 5

BELSHAZZAR'S FEAST. 1 Belshazzar's feast, and a handwriting on the wall. 5 Nabonidus, Belshazzar, &

1 BELSHAZZAR the king made a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Belshazzar, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's countenance was changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another.

7 The king cried aloud to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

8 Then came in all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation thereof.

9 Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were astonied.

10 Now the queen by reason of the words of the king and his lords came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever: let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed:

11 There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;

12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will shew the interpretation.

13 Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Jewry?

14 I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee.

15 And now the wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation of the thing:

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

18 O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, and majesty, and glory, and honour:

19 And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down.

20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:

21 And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine heart, though thou knewest all this;

23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:

24 Then was the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

25 And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TEKEL; Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 In that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain.

31 And Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

BELSHAZZAR (Historical Background) 1089

Nebuchadrezzar was succeeded by Evil-Merodach. 2 Kgs 25:27. who was slain after a reign of 2 years by Neriglissar, a general who was Son-in-law to Nebuchadrezzar. The usurper reigned 4 years, leaving the throne to Labarosoarkod his son, a mere child. In less than a year he was murdered and Nabonidus a Babylonian Lord, foremost in the plot, ascended the throne, marrying a daughter of Nebuchadrezzar. Cylinders found at Ur reveal that Belshazzar (a grandson of Nebuchadrezzar. Cp. Jer. 27:7) was the eldest son of Nabonidus, that he was created regent and reigned with his father, and that he was in Babylon (whilst his father was not) when Cyrus took the city. Belshazzar was slain, but Nabonidus, being absent was not and, in fact, was used by Cyrus in an official capacity.

Critics used to challenge the Bible narrative on the score that Nabonidus was the ruling monarch, but archaeological research has confirmed the Bible record.

OVERTHROW OF BABYLON.

• Xenophon (Cyrop. 7.5): "But Cyrus when he heard that there was to be such a feast in Babylon, in which all the Babylonians would feast and revel through the whole night, on that night, as soon as it began to grow dark, ordered many men, opened the dams into the river (i.e. he opened the dykes) which had been made by Semiramis and her successors, to confine the waters of the Euphrates to one channel, and allowed them to again flood the country, so that he could enter Babylon beneath its walls in the channel of the river.

• He quotes the address of Cyrus to his army: "Now let us go up against them. Many of them are asleep; many of them are intoxicated, and all of them are unfit for battle."

• Herodotus (Cb. 1, 191) says: "It was a day of festivity among

THE MYSTERIOUS HAND. This seems to be associated with the Cherubim for under their wings were hidden the hand of a man. Ezek. 1:8. this hand gave Ezekiel (Daniel's contemporary) the little scroll Ezek. 2:9. and was with the prophet guiding him in his work. Ezek. 8:3.

SURROUNDED BY SYMBOLS OF POMP, POWER AND GLORY. Belshazzar believed he could defy the Lord of heaven. The appearance of the man's hand and the writing on the wall turned his arrogance to abject fear — so it will be with the world at Christ's return.

16 And I have heard of thee, that thou canst [2a] make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: [c] now [d] if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom. 20

17 ¶ Then Daniel answered and said before the king, [f] Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy [g] rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

21 And he was [u] driven from the sons of men; and [q] his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with [v] the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and [x] his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will.

22 And thou his son, O Belshazzar, [d] hast not humbled thine heart, [e] though thou knewest all this:

23 But hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven; and [y] they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and [b] thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified:

24 Then was [c] the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

25 ¶ And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.

26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it.

27 TEKEL; [h] Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting.

28 PERES; Thy kingdom is divided, and given to [l] the Medes and [n] Persians.

29 Then commanded Belshazzar, and [o] they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and [q] made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

30 ¶ [r] In that night was Belshazzar the king of [t] the Chaldeans slain.

31 And [x] Darius the Median took the kingdom, [z] being [s] about threescore and two years old.

KEEP YOUR GIFTS! Vv 17-23

21 Daniel knew that Babylon was doomed. Isaiah (Cp 44:28) had named its conqueror. Jeremiah had had its circumstances proclaimed in the very streets of the city Jer. 50, 51. What are its rewards in view of such judgments. LIKE Abraham Gen. 14:17-23 and the Apostles 2 Cor 7. Daniel He rejected the rewards offered by a king who refused to recognise Yahweh. Ecclesiastes 8:13.

22 He fearlessly states that all the power enjoyed by Babylon sprang from the God of Israel. — that the mighty Nebuchadnezzar was but the [illegible] servant of Yahweh. Jer 25:8-9 Ezek. 29:17-19.

23 Yahweh granted him dictatorial powers. Such princes regarded their subjects as slaves.

24 He was taught that he was a slave to a greater Power. Dan. 4:17 Dan 3:26, 7. See Note Rev. 13:7 Supp.

25 Thus defines the head of Gold — an absolute monarchy.

27 Lit. "is Ruler" See Note Ch 4:25.

28 PERES — To dominate, hence a Master, a Dictator. Each learned that there was a greater Dictator than himself

25 This historical fact was known to Belshazzar, but he chose to deliberately ignore them and flout the God of Israel. The world does so today.

26 Arrogantly set yourself up against God.

Mocked at Him as being powerless by publicly displaying the captured vessels of the Temple.

Guilty of sacrilege by contemptuously using them as drinking vessels.

Adversely contrasted Him by praising pagan gods.

Refused to acknowledge the One who humbled his grandfather and Who is the Author of life

THE FALL OF BABYLON - Historical Background: 1090

Dissatisfaction, violence and revolt swept Babylon following the death of Nebuchadnezzar. Evil-Merodach was assassinated, his successor who headed the revolt did not last long. His son was murdered within a year. Unrest continued during the reign of Nabonidus. 5 years after he came to the Throne, Cyrus overcame Astyages the Mede, whose capital, Ecbatana, he made the capital of his enlarged Kingdom. Nabonidus reacted to this victory by moving his army into Arabia Felix, leaving his son Belshazzar in control of Babylonia and its army. Later he returned to Babylonia and defeat (Documents from O.T. Times).

Daniel and his friends would eagerly be watching these signs of the times Isa 41:1.

According to the Cyrus Cylinder Babylonia had not only been inefficiently administered, but there was a religious crisis. Hostility had been shown to local cults, including those of Ur and Marduk.

Cyrus claimed to march at the direction of all the gods captured by the Babylonians and obtain the city without battle.

29 "Upharsin" is a participle of the same verb as from which "peres" derives. It signifies: "And they divided it." The Persians were known to the Chaldeans as Paras - so there was a play on words. Thus this word signified not only that they would be divided - but given to the Persians.

30 Cp v.17. This seems an act of defiance on the part of the King. In any case, it brought Daniel into prominence with the Medes, and thus prepared the way for the further work Yahweh had for him to do Cp Ch. 6:2.

Once the city had fallen, the prominence of Daniel would bring him before the notice of Cyrus. The Persian policy was one of religious tolerance. He proclaimed liberty to the captives of all nations. Daniel could well have shown him the prophecies of Isaiah and Jeremiah - his own prophecy. Dan. 2, 7 - this attested by the miracles for which he was well known could have led to the decree of Ezra 1

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24 And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den.

25 Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

2 Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea.

3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

4 The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet as a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

5 And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh.

6 After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.

7 After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the

VISIONS OF THE NIGHT
A PANORAMA OF WESTERN HISTORY.

THE 4 BEASTS. VV. 1-8

beasts that were before it; and (a)it had ten horns.

8 I considered the horns, and, behold, (c)there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were (e)eyes like the eyes (f)of man, and (g)a mouth (h)speaking great things. See Note. Jer. 51:55

9 ¶ I beheld till (k)the thrones were cast down, and (m)the Ancient of days did sit, (n)whose garment was (o)white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like (q)the fiery flame, and (r)his wheels as burning fire.

10 A (s)fiery (t)stream issued and came forth from before him: (u)thousand thousands (v)ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand (z)stood before him: (a)the judgment was set, and (b)the books were opened. Dan. 12:1-NTE

11 I beheld then because of the voice of (b)the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet (c)their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 (e)I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like (f)the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to (i)the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

14 And (m)there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, (n)that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: (o)his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto (b)one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 (d)These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But (f)the saints of the (g)most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of (p)the fourth beast, which was diverse (q)from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of (v)the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, and the same horn (d)made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until (e)the Ancient of days came, and (f)judgment was given to (g)the saints of the most High; and the time came that (h)the saints possessed the kingdom. V.27.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 And (y)he shall speak (z)great words against (a)the most High, and shall wear out the saints of

CHAPTER 8.

1 Daniel's vision of the ram and he goat. 15 Gabriel comforteth Daniel, and interpreteth the vision. Suppl

IN the third year of the reign of king [k] Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me [l] at the first.
2 And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, when I saw, that I was at [m] Shushan in [n] the palace, which is in the province of [p] Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by [r] the river of [s] Ulai.
BIYRAH - Fortress, Fortified Castle
3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than [s] the other, and the higher came up last.
4 I saw the ram [v] pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he [b] did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat [8] came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and [2] touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.
Rig = A horn clearly seen.
6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power.
7 And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand.
8 Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.
9 And out of [6] one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.
10 And it waxed great, even [5] to the host of heaven; and [o] it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

12 And [9] an host [y] was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down [z] the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

10 BC 334. Alexander challenged might of Persia. The Persian commander entrenched himself behind river Granicus, with a force 5 times that of Alexanders. Nothing deterred the Greeks from the river and attacked with such fury the Persian defeated. Within 3 years, Persian power broken.
11 There were several close engagements + set battles - at Granicus in Phrygia, at the Issus in Cilicia, and in the plains of Arbela in Assyria
12 The Persians showed great cruelty to the Greeks. Darius tried to bribe Alexander's relations to betray him and his friends to destroy him. Thus Alexander would not listen to not terms of peace but relentlessly pursued Darius as a prisoner and a murderer. Suppl.
13 At the height of his power Alexander suddenly died of a drunken orgy at an early age. He was succeeded by his brother Philip and two infant sons, but within 14 years they were all murdered.

5 We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:

12. 6 Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

13 7 O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. 10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. Ps. 44:13; 89:13

16 12 And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jerusalem.

13 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

70 WEEKS. V.24 There appears a double application of this prophecy reaching to epoch of 2nd Advent Daniel was anticipating the manifestation of the full glory is told that the full period of time involved from establishment of Israel in the land (when Jubilee years commenced) until final glorification is 70 X7s (Shebuah) In Lev 25:8 the Jubilee is styled a "week of sabbaths" or 7 sabbaths (7=shabah). According to W.H Carter such a period concludes in 1997. This will see fulfilled completely that which Christ partially accomplished at his first advent and which is enumerated in V.24. And then, as though as to show the reason of this long delay the explanation of V.25 is added leading to the crucifixion of Messiah. The 70 weeks are then linked with Jeremiah's 70 days Φ V.2. The 70 weeks of days and the 70 Jubilees!

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the [7] commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art [8] greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

CHAPTER 10.

Daniel having humbled himself seeth a vision.

IN the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Daniel was mourning three [2] full weeks.

3 I ate [6] no [3] pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold [1] a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Uphaz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my [1] comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground.
10 ¶ And, behold, an hand touched me, which [2]set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.
11 And he said unto me, O Daniel, [3]a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and [4]stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.
12 Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for [f]from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.
13 But [h]the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me [i]one and twenty days: but, lo, [k]Michael, one of [6]the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Persia.
14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people [m]in the latter days: for [n]yet the vision is for [o]many days.
15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set [p]my face toward the ground, and [r]I became dumb.
16 And, behold, [t]one [u]like the similitude of the sons of men [x]touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.
17 For how can [7]the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.
18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me,
19 And said, [a]O man greatly beloved, [b]fear not: [y]peace be unto thee, [c]be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.
20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with [d]the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come.
21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of [g]truth: and there is none that [5]holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up [y]yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of [q]Grecia.
3 And [a]a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.
4 And when he shall stand up, [b]his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward [z]the four winds of heaven; and not to [a]his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

"Four winds of heaven" Cp 1 Macc. 1:7-9. Alexander reigned 12 years + died 323. His brother Aridaeus followed with Perdiccas as regent. Antipater succeeded Perdiccas in 321 but now the unity of the Empire was gone + there was a struggle for power. In 321 Ptolemy Lagus took possession of Egypt; Cassander assumed the government of Macedon - 317. Seleucus Nicator took possession of Syria - 311. In 305 the successors of Alexander took the title of Kings, + in 301 there occurred the battle of Ipsus in which Antigonus who reigned in Asia Minor was killed + then followed in that year the formal division of Alexander's empire between the four victorious princes, Ptolemy, Seleucus, Cassander + Lysimachus. The battle of Ipsus had been fought between Antigonus + his son Demetrius on the one side + the 4 other generals on the other. Antigonus had aimed at universal sovereignty.

In the division Seleucus Nicator obtained Syria, Babylonia, Media, + Susiana, Armenia, a part of Cappadocia + Cilicia. His kingdom in name at least, extended from the Hellespont to the Indies. • Lysimachus extended over part of Thrace, Asia Minor, part of Cappadocia + the countries within the limits of Mount Taurus. • Cassander possessed Macedonia, Thessaly + a part of Greece. • Ptolemy obtained Egypt, Cyprus + Cyrene + ultimately Coelo-Syria, Phoenicia, Judea, + a part of Asia Minor + Thrace.

The kings who reigned in Antioch:

1. Seleucus Nicator 312 - 280
2. Antiochus Soter his son 280-261

Eye is the symbol of intelligence - but it must be adapted to take in light. Mat. 6:22. It is here aided by the Spirit Rev. 5:6 (cp Zech. 1:10. 3:10) See Isa. 11:1-2.

Verse 24.

"Against the strong holds" : He took Pelusium the Key of Egypt, seized upon Memphis, + had siege to Alexandria. Ant. 12:5:2.

Verse 25

Antiochus invaded Egypt 4 times with various degrees of success. In the first, he took Pelusium, + placing a garrison there, retired to winter-quarters at Tyre. In the second, referred to above, he took Memphis + lay siege to Alexandria + was opposed by the Romans. He returned to inflict vengeance on the Jews + Jerusalem for misled by a rumor of his death they had risen in revolt. Meanwhile the Egyptians placed Euergetes II on the throne + Antiochus entered Egypt 3rd time claiming to fight on behalf of Philometer whom he held captive. He restored Philometer but left a strong garrison at Pelusium. 1 Macc. 1:17. = "He entered Egypt with a great multitude, with chariots, and elephants, and horsemen, and a great navy."

"He shall not stand" - At no stage were the Egyptians a match for Antiochus. He was too clever in his schemes - in "forecasting devices."

Verse 27.

Though Ptolemy was in the power of Antiochus, the latter endeavoured to secure his support + treated him as if he were independent in the formulation of their plans each tried to serve the other.

"The end shall be at the time appointed" - = end (or result) shall not be as they desire, as divinely decreed with the emergence of Rome into the M.E Cp vv. 24-30. Rome would supercede the authority of both kings.

Verse 30

In fact the Roman delegation of three ambassadors under Caius Popilius Laenas arrived in ships from Greece. When they delivered their ultimatum to Antiochus of either withdraw or war, he said he would confer with his council. On which Popilius, with his staff drew a circle around Antiochus + declared "Before you leave that circle you must give me an answer that I can report to the senate." Taken aback on reflection, Antiochus said he would do whatever the Senate required.

"Grieved" - KÂ'AH - Despond, dejected, to become faint hearted - by the opposition of the Romans.

"Abomination that makes desolate" This very expression occurs in 1 Macc. 1:54: "Now in the 15th day of the month Casleu in the 145th year they set up the abomination of desolation upon the altar + built idol altars throughout the cities of Judah on every side.." An old man by name of Athenaeus was sent to Jerusalem to instruct the Jews in the Greek religion, + compel them to an observance of its rites. He dedicated the Temple to Jupiter Olympius + on the altar he placed a smaller altar, to be used in sacrificing to the heathen god. Cp also 9:27. The daily sacrifice was forbidden - June 167.

Verse 32.

"Corrupt" There were Jews that did so.

"...en many of the people were gathered unto ...m, to wit, every one that forsook the law, ...ey committed evils in the land" 1 Macc. 1:52

Verse 33

The Maccabees were not immediately nor always successful. Indeed, Mattathias had to flee for his life + many of his followers were slain. Judas Maccabeus had the greatest success. Maccabee is derived from Heb. MAKHBI - Extinguisher, or Aramaic MAQQABA - Hammer.

DANIEL 11.

between the kings of the south and the north.

5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. (22 years from BC 301)

6 And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land. - B.C. 244.

10 But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand. - of the King of Egypt

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it. i.e. - his victory.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and with much riches. (When Ptolemy Epiphanes fought in Egypt)

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall. i.e. ultimately. Vv13-17

15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand. - Antiochus the Great

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him. i.e. Antiochus.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up in his estate a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.

On arriving at Jerusalem he suppressed the Daily and observances of Jewish law. - Sabbaths, festivals, circumcision etc. The Books of law were burnt and those who refused to obey were put to death. Altars and chapels filled with idols were everywhere set up. Officers were appointed to force the people to make monthly sacrifice at places on the King's birthday. FOURTH INVASION OF EGYPT 17
Under pretext of restoring Philometer to the throne.
Against Alexandria to besiege it.
He raised the siege, and marched towards Memphis where he installed Philometer as King. But Philometer came to an understanding with Euergetes and agreed to a joint rule of Egypt. Antiochus then marched against Memphis which he reoccupied. Alexandria alone stood in his way to securing absolute control. But the Roman Embassy, sent at the request of the Ptolemies, met him about a mile from the city. They had left Rome with the utmost diligence. At Delos they found a fleet of Macedonian ships and embarked for Alexandria where they arrived at the height of the crisis. Popilius delivered him the decree of the Senate and demanded an immediate answer. Sorely against his will he had to capitulate and withdraw. The result therefore was not as the original or previous invasions of Egypt. There provinces had been secured to Ptolemy Lagus 301. & again pledged by Antiochus the Great in dowry when Cleopatra was made queen. It was repudiated by Antiochus Epiphanes in consequence of which these fell to Rome. War with Egypt.

AND at that time shall [t] Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, [u] such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, [b] every one that shall be found [b] written in the book.

4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and [h] seal the book, even to the time of the end: many [i] shall [k] run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.

5 ¶ Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the [y] bank of the river, and the other on that side of the [y] bank of [m] the river.

6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, which was [z] upon the waters of the river, [n] How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?

HOSEA.

The remarkable record of Divine love.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Hosea sheweth God's judgment for spiritual whoredom. 10 Restoration of Judah and Israel.

THE word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beeri, [b] in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of [c] Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and [h] I will [i] avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and [k] will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that [l] I will break the bow of Israel, in the valley of Jezreel.

6 ¶ And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name [m] Lo-ruhamah: for [n] I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; [o] but I will utterly take them away.

7 But [p] I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and [q] will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 ¶ Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name [r] Lo-ammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 ¶ Yet [s] the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that [t] in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are [u] the sons of the living God.

11 [v] Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of [k] Jezreel.

HOSEA: PROPHET OF ENDURING LOVE

● He ministered mainly to the northern tribes, and through the tragic circumstances of his own domestic life, symbolised his message to the nation — the message and depth of agape love. Rom. 5:8-11; 1 John 3:16. 1 John 3:16. ● A key word is SHUWB, "return" or "turn back". It occurs at least 17 times. Hos. 2:7,9; 3:5; 5:15; 6:1,11; 7:10,16; 8:13; 9:3; 11:5,5,9; 12:14; 14:1,4,7. There is always hope where this word is used; things have not reached a complete impasse. ● A key verse Ch. 14:9. ● Summary of the book: Yahweh seeks the return of backsliding Israel; pleads with the nation; makes every provision for its repentance.

THE MESSAGE IN SYMBOL The first three chapters are in the nature of a prologue in which Hosea's personal experiences in his domestic relations provide, as a dramatic symbolism, the outline of his message. They record the story of Hosea's unfaithful wife and her three children.

HOSEA'S MARRIAGE TRAGEDY Gomer's gross unfaithfulness dramatises Israel's spiritual adultery. Hosea had married her at the request of Yahweh, and in his love had tried to win her away from her previous habits of infidelity Ch. 1:2. After the birth of the first child (the only one Hosea recognises as his own) painful suspicions were aroused in his mind as to Gomer's loyalty, and these were confirmed later by the discovery of adultery. The first child, Jezreel, is definitely said to have been born to Hosea Ch. 1:3, but the others are not. The second child he does not own. He names the little girl Lo-ruhamah—She-that-never-Knew-a-father's-love. Ch. 1:6. The third child he disowns outright, calling it Lo-ammi—Not-my-people.
Then follows the explanation: "Great shall be the day of Jezreel" Ch. 1:11 Hosea's true son Ch. 1:4. This true seed of Hosea (Salvation) seeks to change the character and names of his half brother and half sister Ch. 2:1. which is only possible by the restoration of Gomer for an estrangement has occurred, but this requires complete repentance and conversion Ch. 2:2-4. Already Hosea had forgiven Gomer twice and she had returned to her adulterous ways! All must concede the justness and mercy of Hosea, and recognise that she was worthy of death. Meanwhile she had sold herself into slavery for money, but even in this state, the compassionate Hosea had extended himself to save her, though complete restoration was unthinkable without certain discipline designed to produce a genuine reformation. Ch. 2:6-13. and cause her to "return" to her true and loving husband Ch. 2:7. When that happened she would hear from his lips words of love and comfort. Ch. 2:14.
The third act in the drama records the restoration that took place, the consequent reparation that was required of Gomer before she took her position again, but her ultimate restoration in the household of Hosea. Ch. 3:1-3.
In each act of the drama, explanations are given explaining the significance of the symbolism to Israel Ch. 1:10-11; Ch. 2:14-23; Ch. 3:4-5.

GOMER'S WICKEDNESS. HARLOTRY—NOT ONLY ADULTERY Adultery is bad enough, but Gomer's perfidy went beyond that. Adultery can be illicit love that is motivated by a genuine affection for the object of it, such as in the case of David and Bathsheba. But harlotry is the selling of oneself for material gain and Gomer (as representing Israel) was guilty of that. So also is the symbolic Jezebel Rev. 2:20. A person who neglects the truth for material gain is guilty of harlotry and not merely adultery. The professional prostitute is the symbol of such. But even the prostitute may have been driven by need to sell her body—what of the wife like Gomer who has the protection of her husband's house but wantonly rejects it as inadequate. See Matthew 6:28-34.

YAHWEH'S LOVE Yahweh's love went beyond law. The Law delivered the adultress over to death. Yahweh upheld the righteousness of the Law but disciplined in love. Hosea presents Him as a grieved and wounded Husband", as Christ does under the metaphor of a sorrowing and compassionate Father. Mark Lk 15:7, 32. For expressions of Divine Love, see Hos. 11-14. Ch. 11:1, 4, 8-11; 12:6, 9-10; 13:14. 14:6. See the ultimate triumph of Love as expressed in Hos. 14:8, and Hosea's wonderment at it in Hos. 14:9. Cp Eph. 3:14-21.

WICKEDNESS OF ISRAEL The nation was steeped in evil. Idolatry, drunkenness, debauchery, perjury, violence, banditry, immorality abounded. "By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and blood toucheth blood" Ch. 4:2. There was "no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land" Hos. 4:1, 6. Priests were like the people 4:9. Idolatry was rife 4:12-14. The nation was heedless of its God. Ch. 8:14; 9:13; 13:9. The political decay of the times was matched by the moral decay which ate into the vitals of the nation.

The Parable: After the birth of Jezreel, Gomer had two illegitimate children in Hosea's own home, and then, seemingly incurably adulterous, sought further illicit loves leaving the prophet to do so 3:1 yet even under those conditions, so great is the measure of Divine love Hos. 11:9, that the prophet went in search of her - or was directed by Yahweh so to do!! Cp Jer. 31:3-4; 31:20.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my [1] drink.

6 ¶ Therefore, behold, [f] I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and [5] make a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, [g] I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not know [h] that I gave her [i] corn, and [6] wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, [7] which they prepared for Baal.

13 And [c] I will visit upon her [d] the days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and [e] she decked herself with [e] her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and [f] forgat me, saith the LORD.

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and [23] speak comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and [f] the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and [h] as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

17 For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day [l] will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and [o] I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down [p] safely.

19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, [q] I will betroth thee unto me in right-eousness, and in judgment, and [s] in lovingkindness, and in mercies.

CHAPTER 3.

1 By the expiation of an adulteress, 4 is shewed the desolation of Israel before their restoration.

THEN said the LORD unto me, [f] Go yet, love a woman beloved of her [g] friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love [h] flagons of wine.

2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an [i] half homer of barley:

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt [m] abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and [p] without a sacrifice, and without [q] an image, and without an [r] ephod, and without [r] teraphim:

5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and [t] David their king; and shall fear the LORD and [u] his goodness in the latter days.

CHAPTER 4.

1 God's judgments against the sins of the people, 6 and of the priests. 15 Judah is warned.

HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and [z] blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore [a] shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for [b] thy people are as [h] they that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shall thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will [k] destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ My people are [l] destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: [m] therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They [n] eat up the sin of my people, and they [o] set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will [p] punish them for their ways, and [q] reward them their doings.

10 For [r] they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom and [s] wine and new [t] wine [x] take away the heart.

12 ¶ My people [y] ask counsel at their [z] stocks, and [a] their staff declareth unto them: for [b] the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 [c] They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills,

15 ¶ Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, [h] nor swear, The LORD liveth.

CHAPTER 5.

1 God's judgments against the priests, the people, and the princes of Israel, for their manifold sins.

HEAR ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been [q] a snare on [r] Mizpah, and a net spread upon [s] Tabor.

2 And the revolters [t] are profound to make slaughter, though I have been [u] a rebuker of them all.

3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 [2] They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And [c] the pride of Israel doth testify [4] to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go [d] with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have [e] dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions.

8 [f] Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at Beth-aven, after thee, O Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Judah were like [v] them that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is [p] oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as [6] rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his [w] wound, then went Ephraim [x] to the Assyrian, and sent [7] to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

The children, looking upon the things of Yahweh lightly, are led by the bad example of their parents forwards Him, to commit carnal adultery. Thus the parents are punished by the scandalous conduct of their children + are deeply wounded thereby.

THE LATTER AND FORMER RAIN V.3. The early rain (yoreh) commences late in October (Heb. lit. the sprinkler). It commences the agricultural year. The soil, hardened and cracked by the long summer (for a ruling feature of the climate is the division of the year into a rainy and a dry season) is loosened, & the former begin ploughing. Till the end of November the average rainfall is not large, but it increases through December, January and February, begins to abate in March, and is practically over by April. The latter rains (mal qosh - from a root to gather, and thus fig. eloquence -Str), are the heavy showers of March and April. Coming as they do before the harvest & the long summer drought, they are of far more importance to the country than all the rains of the winter months, and that is why they are passed over in Scripture, and emphasis is laid alone on the earlier rains. The early rain softens and fructify the hardened soil; the latter ripens and promotes the harvest by swelling the grain. Cp Deut. 11:11,14. Rain preceded and promoted the harvest by swelling the grain. Cp Deut. 11:11,14. Rain related with lightning. Ps. 135:7. Cp Job. 28:26. Fig for the Word Is. 55:10 Latter & blessings. Ezek. 34:26. CHAPTER 6

THE HEALTHY RESULTS OF AFFLICTION Ho 6:1-3

Yahweh the Healer Exod 15:26 heals and revives His people. Cp Ps 30:3 The LXX prefaces this with "saying" but this probably a gloss. The appeal could be that of Elijah Mal 4. Isa 19:22.

2 Like a Hosea Ch 5:14. 2 Kgs 20:5. The period is "after 2 days", so could date from final rejection of Christ. Cp Lk 13:32 Ps 16:10, 17. Cp Eze 37:5

3 Lit "His face." So He will return. To His people Hos 5:15. His glory will be revealed once more in the Land Ezek 43:1-2

RV: "And let us know, let us follow on to know." This is exhortation Jer 4:1, 6, 14. 6:6. Cp Ezek 39:22 See Note top p. 1145.

Their reforms, piety are very short lived. The work of Jonah, for example, was soon forgotten. Cp also Amos 7:10-17.

7 Note Margin. God provided every good thing for Adam but he violated the command. The fruit of this was seen in Cain's murder of Abel, after Adam had been expelled from the garden. A repetition of this would be fulfilled in Israel: expulsion from the Land as from the garden, the murder of Abel, and the banishment to the land of exile Mic 2:10 4 Ch 7:14.

Though the master baker orders that the dough be kneaded, he does not then stir the fire under the oven to be ready. In due time the fire is stoked, through the spirit he has imparted to the dough which found ready material throughout the nation

Ch 7:1 Benson: The Hebrew is: "When I was healing." At the very time I was healing. The LXX: "When I was in the very act of healing Israel." This was the work of Jehah who could not understand why Yahweh did not blot out brutal Ninevah. But the pride that developed in Israel revealed the wisdom of Yahweh in His treatment of the two nations. Yahweh the Healer would have healed them if they had responded Exod. 15:26.

ON BAKING BREAD Ch. 7:4-6 - Leavened dough was allowed time to work Mt 13:33 Luke 13:21 which might be all night Hos. 7:6. The fire was then stirred up and the leavened mass baked. The leaven = sinfulness. The oven = their heart v.6 which, at the right moment would be stirred up to complete the evil working: of the leaven. Jeroboam I had acted as the "baker" by commencing the leaven working 1 Kg 15:34 etc — they, as his servants had completed the work. He had warmed the oven, then, in the morning of destruction, heated it.

do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ [c] Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: [d] they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, [e] I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, [f] as their congregation hath heard.

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: [g] destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though [h] I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And [i] they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I [k] have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They [l] return, but not to the most High: they are [m] like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword [n] for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 8.

Destruction threatened for impiety and idolatry.

SET [o] the trumpet to [p] thy mouth. He shall come [q] as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because [r] they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 [b] They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of [s] their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 ¶ [a] Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For [t] they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no [u] stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, [v] the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles [w] as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For [x] they are gone up to Assyria, [y] a wild ass alone by himself: [z] Ephraim hath hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall [a] sorrow [b] a little for the burden of [c] the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 [d] I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 [e] They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: [f] they shall return to Egypt.

14 For Israel hath [g] forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but [h] I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the [i] palaces thereof.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.
12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!
13 Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.
14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.
15 All their wickedness is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolters.

35 Naveh = rest (of) implying security. Samaria was strongly fortified 1 Kg 16:24. Aboam's victories brought seeming security to the northern Kingdom.
36 RV: "slayer."
37 In view of the hopeless sin of the people and awful punishment to be meted, the prophet does not intercede for them. He concludes that it would be best to be childless than to bring forth children that dread fate to endure. 23:29
38 Like Gomer Cp 1:3. The "house" here is the land.
39 Their sarim had become sorerim: who should have maintained the Law had been the very ones who undermined it.
40 Though this may be apparent on the face and their prosperity external appearances, in reality this shall prove to be no real fruit.
41 This summarizes the root cause of their misery & punishment. Cp 4:5 Note

CHAPTER 10

THE USELESS VINE MUST BE ROOTED UP

1 RV. "A luxuriant vine is Israel in the days of its prosperity. There was much fruit, but no fruit to Yahweh. Unpruned vines run to leaves & growth in the sap & leaves instead of the fruit. The more abundant the foliage, the more it gives out its strength to leaves & branches & the less it does in fruit.
2 As Israel grew in wealth so did its apostasy. The more flourishing its cities, the more numerous & splendid its altars. Thus there was no true worship of Yahweh.
3 The intimate relationship of the image to the worship designed to illustrate the natural beauty & prosperity of the country & nation.
4 They do not speak truly. Their divided loyalty (Cp 1 Kg 18:21) is "smooth" Bland words. See Mic. 2:11 "If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood & deceitfulness" & "deceitful, hypocritical tongue." The calves By implication - Bethaven = house of wickedness = Bethel. Cp Amos 5:5 Bethel. Cp Amos 4:4 Beth-aven = house of vanity, not of God. Cp Hos 5:8 Bethel = house of God. They are no longer the people of Yahweh, but the people of the calves !!! Cp Amos 5:5 Note. Their heart, the seat of their affections, is not for Yahweh, but for their idols. Cp Ezek 14:3-5 Note. The golden calf Cp Ex 32:4 Note. The principal bride. Because Israel is the principal bride, Bethel is often used as a name for the whole nation - Israel. Cp Amos 3:14 Note. Cp Hos 4:15 Note. Gilgal Cp Hos 4:15 Note. Beth-aven Cp Hos 4:15 Note. Beersheba Cp Amos 5:5 Note. Two sins not only carry away the people, but also their God !! Cp Jer 2:11 Instead of the strong defence of Samaria providing a firm foundation for the kingdom, it shall be carried by force and mind, and as soon as occasion to the sea of nations. Complete destruction. A proverbial saying expressive of utmost scorn and disgust. Cp Jer 44:7 Indicative of the fearful ruin & desolation that would overtake the nation.
5 Their sarim had become sorerim: who should have maintained the Law had been the very ones who undermined it.
6 RV: "guilty." Their smooth heart will be revealed as such, & they will be treated as guilty.
7 See Mg. As such they will be useless for worship.
8 In the day of their desolation and destruction.
9 They sought a king in their self will, but the reverses they would experience would reveal he was but a figurehead without real power, & would show their need of Yahweh Hos 13:10-11.
10 In the absence of Divine help, nothing.
11 Their life is words, words, words devoid of action. Thus was the fruit expended on self, the divided heart serving none but self Luke 16:13 2 Kg 17:33-34.
12 This became typical of their religious, commercial and political life. Eg. 2 Kg 17:4.

3 In the light of his experience with Gomer the prophet could enter fully into God's feelings.
4 The vice of prostitution.
5 They viewed the prevailing prosperity as a reward for their adulterous worship, & thus ignored what was due to Yahweh.
6 The good harvests would cease. Cp Note Ruth 1:6
7 Cp Deut. 11:9
8 Figuratively into a state of exile and slavery, literally into Assyria Cp 11:5 Cp 2 Kgs 17:4
9 Offered with morning & evening sacrifice Exod 29:38-46 and indicative of life given in dedicated service.
10 RV: "Neither shall their sacrifices be pleasing unto him, their bread shall be" Sacrifice - zebach, slaughter, i.e. an animal offering. They never offered the proper offerings when they could and when they desire to do so, they will not be able.
11 They who thus eat are defiled Num. 19:14. Deut. 26:14.
12 RV: "appetite." That which they eat for the preservation of their life, shall not be sanctified by representative offerings Cp Lev. 23:14.
13 They will be then willing to cease their labor to serve Yahweh, but will not be able to do so.
14 RV: "gone away from." As the invasion descends from the north some may attempt to flee even to Egypt - but they will find it a burying ground.
15 The capital of lower Egypt, adjacent to Cairo. Today a ruin, a burying ground of ancient glory !! The refugees would find their flight brought to destruction, and their extremity will seek refuge in the previous place of slavery, only to find there a common, huge pauper grave.
16 Perhaps a reference to their once richly decorated and expensively adorned homes Cp Luke 19:44 1 Pet 2:12. 3 Note. Jer. 8:12. Hos 10:2 Pequddah - an official visit for inspection Cp Ex 20:5
17 This was the attitude of the people towards Yahweh's prophets, for which the greater punishments came upon them.
18 i.e. the extent.
19 RV: "and because the enmity is great."
20 The true watchmen are those prophets who faithfully proclaim Yahweh's Word and act the part of watchmen Ezek 33 in spite of the opposition of the people who seemingly and scornfully decried them as fools, fanatics and madmen.
21 The false prophet, the one who does not act the part of watchman Ezek 33:6
22 His refusal to testify against the sins of the people acts as a snare of the bird-catcher in view of his station, and incites hatred against the house (bayith) of God (the Temple in Jerusalem ?), or in it, against those true watchmen.
23 The abominable & infamous treatment of the Levite's concubine Jud. 19, the foulest blot on Israel's history during the period of the Judges, & one that almost brought the tribe of Benjamin to its end.

3 ISRAEL'S SPIRITUAL DECLINE AND IMPENDING DESOLATION

1 Ki 12:26-27

"All their wickedness is in Gilgal.." There the guilt of Israel was rolled away, by the manifestation of many mercies. By the re-institution of the rite of circumcision, or Abrahamic covenant observation of Passover or deliverance from slavery & sin the washing of the 12 memorial stones, or initiation of Israel into a new way of life the manifestation of the Captain of the heavenly host, or assurance of Divine protection there the Tabernacle had stood and had divided the waters - the token of Yahweh's presence in Israel.
It was whilst Israel was encamped at Gilgal, that the first great wickedness was manifested by Achan, whilst later, during the divided monarchy it became the resort of gross idolatry, Israel completely failing in respect of its holy associations. Because of this there repetition of the promise connected with Yahweh came to His people.

The cry is heart to heart 3 for the fathers'

5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and (2) the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 *It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and [h] they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

11 And Ephraim is as [m] an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon [7] her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride: Judah shall plow, and Jacob shall break his clods.

12 [n] Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and [r] rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

Israel's ingratitude.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as [a] Shalman spoiled Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

Israel's ingratitude for God's benefits.

1 [b] WHEN Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called [d] my son out of Egypt.

2 As [e] they called them, so they went from them: (3) they sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.

3 (4) I taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that (5) I healed them.

4 (6) I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

5 ¶ He shall not return into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, (7) because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the most High, (8) none at all would exalt him.

8 [p] How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as [q] Admah? how shall I set thee as [r] Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

They shall not only carry away the people, but also their god!! Prov. 1:26-27.

21 Instead of the strong defences of Samaria providing a firm foundation, the King shall be driven by tide and wind, cast up as foam or scum on the sea of nations.

22 Complete desolation.

5 Ready to attack the Benjaminites, & thus judgement upon them. This incident was one of the worst in the history of Israel, & resulted in the being almost of the tribe. It was to be the fate of Israel. The Benjamites repulsed two attacks before judgement finally overtook them.

600 Benjamites survived but now greater wickedness (adultery) prevails & a stronger & more righteous Executioner stands opposed to guilty Israel — even Yahweh. The punishment, therefore, will be more severe.

RV. "When it is my desire." When the time comes Yahweh will vindicate His holiness by punishing sin. But cp. Neh 12:6. Jer 31:3,9

10 Yahweh had trained Ephraim by the Law

11 Such oxen were not yoked together but did their work singly — so Ephraim had broken away from Judah. They ate of the corn Deut 20:9 and for that reason, because of material reward she loved the work. She did not work in faith.

12 She was fat & sleek with good living, but upon that fair neck Yahweh would clamp His yoke — even Assyria.

RV: "I will set a rider on Ephraim." She will be taken from her pleasant work & set to ploughing in heavy, hard fields in which found no easy corn. Cp Is 66:12. The rider will restrict & dominate Ephraim.

14 They shall begin at the other end of the work & if they usefully perform this labor they will ultimately eat of the corn. Meanwhile they will be taken from a life of ease & plenty & set to hard labor.

15 Heb. (J.J. Given, Rd. Cain) — "for" (See also RSV). "Sow for yourselves righteousness." They are exhorted to sow such seed as would produce a crop of righteousness, which is the fruit of patient toil Cp Ch 8:7

16 Heb. (J.J. Given) — "according to" — the need to rely upon the mercy (steadfast love - RSV) of Yahweh. For all their sowing they are dependent upon Him to reap Cp 1 Cor 3:6-9

43 The establishment of Shalmaneser, whose Assyrian name = Shulmanu-asharidu, if the incident here referred to took place in the reign of Hoshea Cp 2 Kg 17:3 this section of the prophecy was proclaimed in reign of Hoshea. However, it could be a reference to Shalmaneser III (see Intro p. 495).

Shalman = A remarkable contraction.

44 House of God's ambush (doubtful) identified with Arbella in Galilee (Ant. 12:11:1. 14:15:4. 1 Macc 9:2). The names are significant. Israel will be rewarded for its wickedness in the house of God's ambush.

45 This would be the terrible fruit of their foolish sowing Cp V 13. Cp. Jon 1:9 13. 1:16. 2:7-9

46 The House of God will become the House of God's ambush

47 At a time when a season of prosperity seemed about to dawn. Hoshea attempted this, but too late Cp 2 Kg 17:2

48 He sought to throw off the Assyrian yoke by the help of Egypt but was completely overthrown by Shalmaneser V. 2 Kg 17:4. The northern kingdom was completely overthrown.

4 ISRAEL'S FINAL RESTORATION

YAHWEH IS LOVE CHS 11-14

1 YAHWEH'S EARLY LOVE FOR HIS PEOPLE VV 1-4

1 The Lord enacted this drama as the ideal Israelite (Isa 49:3). Yahweh's true sons will fulfil the type Acts 13:46. Mitsraylm = oppressors as from a root tsûwr — to cramp, confine (Str).

3 The one son has become two children Hos 1:4 but both remain stubborn & rebellious.

4 The same tender care shown towards the 12 tribes was also manifested to the northern kingdom of the division Cp 1 Kg 11:27-28. Jeroboam I, was over the house of Joseph 1 Kg 11:28

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful [4] with the saints.

CHAPTER 12.

A reproof of Ephraim, Judah, and Jacob.

EPHRAIM [a] feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and [b] they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt.

2 [1] The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will [c] punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 ¶ [d] He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength [e] he had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication [f] unto him: [g] he found him in Beth-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; [2] the LORD is his memorial.

6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: [h] keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

7 ¶ He is [3] a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to [4] oppress.

8 And Ephraim said, Yet [5] I am become rich, I have found me out substance: [6] in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me [7] that were sin.

9 And I that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt will yet make thee [b] to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, [3] by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And [c] Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel [d] served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And [e] by a prophet [f] the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

14 Ephraim provoked him to anger [5] most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his [g] blood upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Ephraim's glory vanisheth. 5 God's anger for their unkindness. 9 A promise of mercy.

WHEN Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended [h] in Baal, he died.

2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work [4] of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let [5] the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

O ISRAEL, [g] return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast [h] fallen by thine iniquity.

"THE ROOTS OF LEBANON" V.6 – "Any one who has seen how the mountain itself rises from great roots, cast out across the land like those of some giant oak, will not feel it necessary to mitigate the metaphor" – George Adam Smith. Cp Hab 3:6

Joel commences his prophecy suddenly and abruptly like that of Elijah (whose name he resembles). He could be styled the Elijah of Judah. Both commence by announcing impending disaster (1 Kgs 17:1 Joel 1:1). Both prophecy relief from drought (1 Kgs 18:41. Joel 2:23). Both have experience of earthquake and fire (1 Kgs 19:11-12. Joel 1:19-20. 2:3,10). Both were preachers of Repentance. The personal histories of both are largely hidden from sight. He prophesied after the reign of Jehoshaphat (Ch 3:2) and his ministry seems to have been limited to Judah. His theme is the impending Day of Yahweh against Israel Ch 1:15. 2:1 (p Amos 5:18. He shows Judah plagued by locusts and drought which consumes Yahweh's Vine and Fig Tree and devastates his land. But the plague is driven off Ch 2:20; restoring former and latter rains are provided, the land is relieved of its enemies and Israel is blessed. For time-period see 1:3 (at least 50 yrs - time ent. in an osseh or beginning Joel 1:5 (p Luke 20:14

HASH WARNING OF IMPENDING PLAGUE OF LOCUSTS Vv 1-7

Ho. 5:11. Amos 3:8 Jer. 20:9 Zeph 1:12a. These are words charged with terror.

2 A difficult word meaning perhaps • Persuaded of it • Sept as Bethuel • Abode of El • Is. strengthens Joel, but is not the name of the prophet

3 Judgment of one generation as eaten! Israel to learn from the lesson

4 Four mighty powers, symbolised by 4 species of locusts. Cp Zech. 1:8-11. There were to destroy all vegetation from off the land, or destroy the power of Judah causing even the Temple service to cease. Ch. 1:9. 2:3.

5 In warning. The fulfilment of the prophecy still suffers partly in the future to permit of repentance. Cp Ch. 2:12-14.

6 This verse expressed by 12 words in Hebrew:
Shearers remnant, another eats
Swarmers remnant, devourer eats
Devourers remnant, consumer (or finisher) eats
These are said to be 4 different species of locusts. RSV = That the cutting locust left, the swarming locust has eaten; that the swarming locust has left, the hopping locust has eaten, and what the hopping locust has left, the destroying locust has eaten.

6 An exhortation to the careless, pleasure seeking, insolent Jews. Cp Amos 6:3-7

7 All joy and pleasure to be cut off from Judah. Isa 24:7-11. LXX = joy and gladness.

8 Fig. the locusts. Joel 1:6. 2:5. 3:12 including Assyria Zeph 3:15-17 + Babylon Jer. 46:23. The four species v 4 = four Gentile powers. Cp Dan. 11:11-12.

10 A reference to the strong sharp mandibles of the locusts, indicative of their power to destroy. Cp Rev 9:7. 5:17.

11 As locusts do, Israel as the vine and fig tree (Jer. 24 etc) to be utterly consumed by ravages of successive hordes of locusts which will not only devour foliage, but attack bark as well. "My vine etc" shows the prophecy is national and political and not literal.

HUMBLE YOURSELVES BECAUSE OF IMPENDING JUDGMENT Vv 8-18

13 Israel Jer. 4:8. 49:3

13 Betrothed but not yet wedded (p Matt. 1:19). Such mourning would be bitter and from the heart.

CHAPTER I.

Joel exhorteth to mourning.

1 THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 [a] Hear this, [b] ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. [c] Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 [c] Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 [d] That which [2] the palmerworm hath left hath [h] the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath [i] the cankerworm eaten: and that which the cankerworm hath left hath [i] the caterpiller eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and [m] howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For [n] a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my vine waste, and [s] barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

8 ¶ Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for [t] the husband of her youth.

9 [t] The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, [3] the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine [7] is dried up, the oil [7] languisheth.

11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because [d] joy is withered away from the sons of men.

13 [f] Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

14 ¶ [k] Sanctify ye a fast, call a [3] solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD,

15 Alas for the day! [o] for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, [q] joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The [4] seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 [r] How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep [5] are made desolate.

19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the [6] pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field [u] cry also unto thee: for [b] the rivers of waters [c] are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks: neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded. They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief. The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining: And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?" 1 The alarm sounds, portending great evil, and calling the people to repent and turn to God. "Day of visitation" Isa 10:3 Spiritual and political. Isa 5:30. 8:22. Jer. 4:19. Amos 5:18 The fearful nature of the plague of locusts blotting out the sun.

3 As the tremendous horde of locusts advance, the darkness increases. The plague of Egypt is now turned upon Israel Ex. 10:15. The prophetic fulfilment is brought to consummation from the destruction of AD 70 and the complete blotting out of Israel's sun (Luke 21:25).

"A numerous and strong people shall be spread upon the mountains as the morning" i.e. the enemies of Israel will suddenly appear on the borders of Israel like the early sun upon the mountains. Young's Lit. "as darkness..." (Matt. 24:21. Dan. 12:1) for ever. Cp Mng. The locusts. The effects are similar. Shrubs are denuded of herbage and left as though consumed by fire. Head of locust is as appearance of horses and call them cavalry = cavalry (p Rev. 9:7).

Like the jumping, marching chariots. One etymologist hears the sound of mandibles in process of eating like "the crackling of a prairie fire."

In mourning.

They move straight forward marching like a disciplined army, acting in one body as though organised by a leader. Prov. 30:27. NEB: "They do not jostle one another, each marches in his path; they burst through the defences (i.e. efforts to hinder them) and are not halted."

GENTILE LOCUSTS DEVOUR YAHWEH'S LAND. Locusts are noted for their orderly, ruthless advance Prov 30:27. Some naturalists maintain that they have advance guards to lead the way. A bad plague will darken the sun (v10) with the numbers, and so consume all verdure that it seems as though a bush fire has devastated the country- thus both sun and earth are affected. "Before them - Garden of Eden; behind - a wilderness." The most destructive are the larvae or young insects. Lacking wings they leap and not fly. Nothing will hinder their advance. They have been known to put out fires by mere weight of numbers, to form a bridge of their bodies and so pass over a stream. As they move all nature seems in motion, and they make a noise like the noise of fire in stubble Joel 2:5.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He sheweth the terribleness of God's judgment. 12 He exhorteth to repentance. 21 He comforteth Zion.

1 [c] BLOW ye the [2] trumpet (shophar) [c] in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: [d] for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

2 [e] A day of darkness and [f] of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as [g] the morning spread upon the mountains: [h] a great people and a strong; [i] there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years [3] of many generations.

3 [q] A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as [r] the garden of Eden before them, and [t] behind them [u] a desolate wilderness; yea, and [z] nothing shall escape them.

4 [a] The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 [b] Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of [4] fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: [5] all faces [6] shall gather [6] blackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one [m] thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the [6] sword, they shall not [p] be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 [a] The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for [v] the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and [k] who can abide it?

12 ¶ Therefore also now, [l] saith the LORD, [m] turn ye even to me with all your heart, and [o] with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

13 And [p] rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for [s] he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 [y] Who knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave [a] a blessing behind him; even [b] a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

15 ¶ [c] Blow the trumpet in Zion, [c] sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

16 Gather the people, [h] sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: [k] let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, [m] weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should [c] rule over them: [27] wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 ¶ Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity his people.

THE END OF THE LOCUSTS AND DROUGHT Vv18-20.

28 When Israel makes genuine repentance and turns whole heartedly to God

PLAGUE (invasion) and DROUGHT (Amos 8:11-14) devastate the land to be relieved by the granting of former and latter rains. These, in turn, are followed by signs in the political heavens: at the first advent in the Jewish heavens Acts 2:19 Luke 21:32. - at the second advent in the Gentile heavens Luke 21:25.

29 Restore the ravages of locust plague and drought
Cp Joel 1:10.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for [q] the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.
23 [r] Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you [s] the former rain [t] moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.
24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and [x] the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.
25 And I will restore to you the years that [c] the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.
26 And [e] ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and [y] my people shall never be ashamed.
27 [h] And ye shall know that I am [k] in the midst of Israel, and that [i] I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.
28 ¶ [m] And it shall come to pass afterward, that [n] I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and [b] your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, [c] your old men shall dream [d] dreams, your young men shall see [c] visions:

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it?

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.
12 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch.
13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts,

2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.
3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.
4 Come to Bethel, and transgress; at Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years:
5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.
6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: the one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.
8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
11 I have overthrown some of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.
12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.
13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

CHAPTER 5.

1 A lamentation for Israel. 4 They are exhorted to seek God. 10 The sins of the people. 16 The mourning for their punishment. 18 The vanity of hypocrites. 21 God's hatred of their hypocritical worship.

HEAR ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.
2 The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.
3 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.
4 For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live:
5 But seek not Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beersheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Bethel shall come to nought.
6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Bethel.
7 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,
8 Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name:
9 That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.
10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.
11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.
12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.
13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.
14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.
15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.
16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas, alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.
17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.
18 Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.
19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.
20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?
21 I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.
22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts.
23 Take away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.
24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.
25 Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?
26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.
27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The woe against the careless rich. 4 The luxurious. 8 God's oath against pride. 12 The perverse.

WOE to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!
2 Pass ye unto Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to Hemath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?
3 Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;
4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;
5 That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick, like David;
6 That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.
7 Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.
8 The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.
9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.
10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.
11 For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.
12 Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock:
13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?
14 But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The vision of the locusts. 4 The vision of the fire. 7 The vision of the plumbline. 10 Amaziah complaineth to Jeroboam against Amos. 14 Amos's calling. 16 Amaziah's wife and children are threatened.

THUS hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.
2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.
3 The LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.
4 Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.
5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.
6 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.
7 Thus he shewed me; and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.
8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more:
9 And the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.
10 Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.
11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.
12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:
13 But prophesy not again any more at Bethel: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.
14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of sycomore fruit:
15 And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.
16 Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac:
17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAPTER 8.

1 The vision of the basket of summer fruit. 4 The oppressors. 9 The mourning for the judgment. 11 The famine of the word. 14 The idolaters.

THUS hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit.
2 And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.
3 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.
4 Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail,
5 Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?
6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?
7 The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.
8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.
9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:
10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.
11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:
12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.
13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.
14 They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beersheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAPTER 9.

1 The vision of the destruction of Israel. 7 God's judgments are universal. 8 The sinners shall perish. 11 The restoration of the tabernacle of David. 13 The plenteousness of the days of the Messiah.

I SAW the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.
2 Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:
3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:
4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.
5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that touched the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Egypt.
6 It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name.
7 Are ye not as children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?
8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.
9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.
10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us.
11 In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old:
12 That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.
13 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.
14 And I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.
15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

"2 YEARS BEFORE THE EARTHQUAKE": Historically this is not mentioned, though it is referred to by Zechariah in terms that indicate that it was of unusual extent (Zech. 14:5) Amos prophesied during the reigns of Uzziah and Jeroboam, and as the latter died in the 15th year of the former (See Note p.524: Confusion in Judah and Israel) it must have occurred early in his reign, and not when he usurped the Temple as some (including Josephus) think. It is probably referred to in 2 Chron 26:15. Isa. 5:25. See Note B Cp Amos 4:11
"HABITATION OF SHEPHERDS" "CARMEL" (The fruitful field) V2 - Figuratively these terms apply to Israel, the "habitation of shepherds" Ezek 34:14 and the "fruitful field" of Yahweh's planting Ps. 80:15, but as such it was to experience earthquake & drought

6 MOAB TO BE CUT OFF Vv1-3.
See Note Zeph. 2:8
Perhaps a reference to 2 Kgs 3:26-27 when the king was allied to Israel against Moab. This genuine hatred extreme hatred in Moab whose wrath was directed particularly against Edom. The Moabites tried to capture the King of Edom when this failed apparently took his son, the King elect + The grounds of the indictment were not so much what was done - all the motive: Edom allied to Israel, called forth bitter hatred and extreme bitterness of Moab. For the redemption see 2 Kg 3:27
2 Sig "cities" and taken as an appellative by LXX. But cp Jer 48:24, 41 Kerioth = plural word, perhaps an extension of the ancient capital of Kir Isa 15:1
3 Violently by war. Nebuchadnezzar (Ant. 10:9:7) occupied the land + slew her princes + put them under tribute. The Maccabees conquered them. They finally passed from history.
4 Shophet - chief magistrate or supreme ruler + adjudicator title over others in the sense of Ps 72:1 Moffatt = Monarch & Chief. The government destroyed, the leaderless nation

7 JUDAH TO BE SCORCHED WITH FIRE Vv4-5.

5 The other nations are denounced for their offences against God's people: Judah is indicted for her offences against God Himself. The grounds of the complaint:
- They despised the Law
- They kept not its commandments
- They followed lies - false prophets, idolatry.

ISRAEL TO BE DRIVEN AWAY 6-16

The ministry of the prophet was mainly with Israel. This nation had abused every principle of morality. It was not only rebellious against Yahweh but guilty of corruption amongst themselves.

The first falsely condemned because Judgment perverted by bribes

Taken for little deeds.

Amos 4:1 the needy not justified, but his penury used as an opportunity to acquire his inheritance

A flagrant violation of Yahweh's way Lev 25:14 poor - 'ebyown (ob-jone') destitute

'dal' depressed weak

Vulgate: "Who tread down the heads of the poor into the dust of the earth"

They rule roughshod over the weak. Ezek 16:49

They drive the meek from out of the course of righteousness by their wicked oppression

The very foundations of morality & family life are destroyed. Could have related to worship of Astarte. Its idol feasts, young women prostituted themselves publicly

Prostrate themselves in worship in clothes that testified to their rejection of Yahweh's principles of morality

Ex 22:26. Deut 24:12-13

Indicating the multiplicity of worship set up to Yahweh in addition to Jeroboam's false altars. 1 Kgs 12:29-30. Ter

RV: "in the house of their god they drink the wine of such as have been fined" They used their ill gotten gains in dissipation, in drunken orgies associated with idolatrous worship.

Israel was selected to reflect Yahweh's glory and should have manifested His mercy Mic. 6:5

Noted for national power Num 21:23-35 so that when destroyed by Israel, the surrounding nations felt further resistance useless.

Destroyed both root & branch. Mal. 4:1

They represented all the Canaanites Gen. 15:16

Yahweh first prepared the land for Israel & then transferred them to possess it.

Having mentioned temporal benefits, the prophet now names spiritual ones. To proclaim Yahweh's will & purpose (as did the prophets) is a high & lofty privilege 1 Cor. 14:1-3, but despised by apostate Israel Is 30:10

In the height of their passions, lusty and strong

He called them to separate in a vow of privilege. Cp Num. 6. The Nazarite now highlighted Yahweh's purpose in Israel

Are not the things enumerated, evidences of the high favor paid by Yahweh to Israel! And should not that be reflected in Israel manifesting a holiness of life as befits such a nation?

22 They tried to silence the testimony of those who were bound to Yahweh to act and speak in a certain manner. Cp the urge that caused the prophets to speak Jer. 20:9. 1 Cor. 9:16 and the opposition which Amos himself received Amos 7:10

23 Cp mg. RV: "I will press you in your place as a cart presseth ..."

24 Pressed down by the load of trouble and war that shall overtake them, a spirit of fear & ineptitude shall possess Israel, which shall weaken their hands for war.

25 Those of any strength will not be able to collect it, or put it forth to any good purpose

26 "neither deliver" occurs three times - the travail of Israel. Cp Is 26:18. Ezek 33:5

They had lost all sense of righteousness See the corroborative evidence of a contemporary prophet Hos. 2:8, 20; 10:1, 3, 11; 6:6; 7:11; 11:3.

V.7. "A man and his father" - The youth leads the way.

I ISRAEL'S BASE INGRATITUDE to PAST MERCIES - DIVINE PRIVILEGES Ch. 3

A RESPONSIBILITIES RESTING ON ISRAEL Vv 1-2

1 The 12 tribes are addressed, though the subsequent denunciation is confined to the north Cp V 14, Judah being indirectly warned that she might expect a similar fate if she does not repent.

2 This is an intimate message from the Father to the family. Israel is Yahweh's firstborn son, thus warranting double punishment Jer 16:18 & the Law of Firstborn.

3 Deut 7:6 4:8, 20. 14:2. 2 Sam 23:3. Ps 147:19.

Light brings added responsibility Ezek 9:6 Luke 12:47

B RESPONSIBILITIES RESTING ON AMOS Vv 3-8

He illustrates the principle that every effect has a cause. The two in this context are Yahweh - Israel. Cp Gen 6:19

4 Naturalists declare the lion roars when he sees the prey; he also roars over it - alerting other animals and inducing fear in them. Cp Ch 1:2. 3:5 Israel was the prey against whom Yahweh roared through the prophets.

5 Kephir a cubs lion able to look after itself - which growls over the prey in the lair. The roaring of the prophet was not without cause - Israel was the prey.

6 Israel would not fall into punishment had not Yahweh decreed it for sins. If they had not taken the bait which is sin itself. Cp Num 32:23

7 RV: "Does a snare spring up from the ground when it hath taken nothing?" The troubles about to fall on Israel were not casual.

8 Cp His preparation for their defence. The purpose of Yahweh's warning was that they might forsake their sin and avoid the impending trouble.

11 That they might view national troubles as Divinely directed discipline Cp Isa. 31:2.

12 That there might be opportunity to reform.

13 As the lion's roar causes all to fear so the Divine impulse forces the prophet to speak.

C THE HEATHEN ARE INVITED TO WITNESS TO SAMARIA'S SINS Vv 9-10.

Providing a fulfilment of Deut. 29: 22-28.

14 Philistia and Egypt, the implacable and inveterate enemies of Israel are invited to witness the fall of Samaria and the cause thereof right, saith the, LORD, who store up violence and [2]robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and [7]in Damascus in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts,

14 That in the day that I shall [8]visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also [8]visit [a]the altars of [b]Beth-el: and [c]the horns of the [3]altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite [k]the winter house with the summer house; and [l]the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He reproveth Israel for oppression, 4 for idolatry, 6 and for their incorrigibleness.

HEAR this word, [n]ye kine of Bashan, that are in [o]the mountain of Samaria, which [p]oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord GOD [q]hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that [r]he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow [1]at that which is before her; and [s]ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

"PREPARE TO MEET THY GOD, O ISRAEL!!" — A military phrase, and to be understood as a challenge to battle. A call to Israel to summons its greatest means of defence, to bring out its most powerful gods, and see how all its might will avail against the unconquerable Arm of Yahweh Sabaoth. Cp Amos 5:14-16. The alternative was: "Seek Me and ye shall live" Ch. 5:4, 6, 14.

31 The most solid and enduring symbols of permanency.

CHAPTER 5

AMOS' LAMENTATION OVER ISRAEL'S FALL CH. 5.

A THE EXTENT OF THE IMPENDING DOOM 1-3.

1 A funeral dirge. The prosperity of Israel was only illusory; it could not last whilst the nation remained spiritually decadent.

2 The northern Kingdom as a separate political entity shall never be restored, except as subject to the "House of David" Amos 9:11-12. Zech 12:4-7.

3 A mere tithe Isa 6:13.

B THE URGENCY OF REFORM Vv 4-13.

4 The holy places had become perverted to semi-idolatrous use 1 Kgs 12:28-33. Those of the northern tribes even using Beersheba to that end Ch. 8:14.

5 Heb = play on words: Roll-town shall be rolled away (i.e. in captivity). — Hag-gilgal also = wheel.

6 Heb "Aven" - a thing of nought. Thus Beth-el became Beth-aven Hos 4:15. Beth-el became Beth-aven according how the people treated the word of Yahweh. Cp Josh 7:2.

7 He is a consuming fire Deut 4:24. Heb 12:29.

8 The idolatrous worship of Bethel would not save them.

9 Bitterness — by denying the basic elements of justice Cp Amos 6:12. Deut 29:18.

10 RSV: "And cast down righteousness to the earth." They trod down underfoot the principles of righteousness.

11 This is indirect antithesis to "ye who turn" V.7 contrasting the strength and constancy of Yahweh with the vacillating inconsistency of those who turn.

12 Heb Kimah, "the heap." The Pleiades of Job 38:31. The ancients thought the stars governed the seasons and made careful observations of them for this reason, but Israel

1119 is here exhorted to seek the One Who created them Jer 10:2. His control of nature demonstrated His ability and power to advance or retard the fortunes of Israel Ps 107:23-24. The heap or cluster of 7 stars could point to the covenant of Israel of which He is the Maker.

13 Heb. Kesil, the Rebel. The name being applied to Nimrod - (We will rebel Gen 10:9 note) Such as Nimrod are in His power Amos 6:5.

14 His power over natural creation demonstrates His ability to establish His purpose Jer 31:31-36. and to deliver men from the power of darkness to serve Him in light. Acts 26:18. Amos 5:9. Mic. 3:6. Jer 13:16.

15 He can use the water for judgment or for blessing. So also His Word.

Lamentation for Israel, AMOS 5. and call to repentance.

28 Heb. thus

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

CHAPTER 5.

Lamentation for Israel and exhortation to repentance.

HEAR ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 ¶ For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live:

5 But seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

7 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

8 Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name:

9 That strengthened the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18 Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light. — Zeph. 1:15. Mic. 3:6.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned

22 Suggesting rejoicing and joy they anticipate this but never attain it.

23 The crime specified is that of wresting or withholding justice because the poor can not pay for it. Cp Exod 22:16. Deut 15:9.

24 In such evil times a man desires to advance personally Keeps silent! The prudent do so, but not the man of God. Cp Jer 20:9.

C PUNISHMENT IS IMMINENT: SAFETY IS IN A CHANGED LIFE Vv 14-17.

25 They claimed that they were the covenant people, but did not live so as to justify the claim. Cp Isa 29:13. Mic 3:11. Jer 7:4.

26 Reverse your former way of life.

27 C.B. The Hebrew accentuation marks off this sentence - calling attention not to uncertainty of Yahweh's part but to difficulty on Israel's part to reform.

28 Heb. Sapad - The death wail

29 Everywhere, in town and country, the mourning will be heard.

30 Because of the failure of crops.

32 Recalling the last terrible plague in Egypt Exod. 12:12 when Yahweh will not pass over as He did then.

D WOE PRONOUNCED ON THOSE WHO TRUST IN THE COVENANT BUT OBEY NOT Vv 19-20.

33 For the cynical attitude of Israel see Isa. 5:19. Jer. 17:15. Ezek 12:22, 27.

THE SHEPHERD PROPHET CONDEMNED THE LUXURIOUS, IDLE, SPIRITUALLY DECADENT ISRAELITES.
He described them as reclining at their entertainments, upon splendid couches, anointing their guests with rich perfume, indulging freely in wine, and enjoying vocal and instrumental music — whilst neglecting the worship of Yahweh 1Sa 5:12-13. So he • indicts Vv1-2 • warns Vv2. • Rebukes Vv3-6. • Pronounces impending Judgment Vv7-11 • and declares that it is inevitable Vv12-14.

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, [d] I will not accept them: neither will I regard the [6] peace offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment [7] run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 [h] Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne [2] the tabernacle of your [k] Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The wantonness of Israel, 7 shall be plagued with desolation, 12 and their incorrigibleness.

COMPLETE RUIN AND UTTER DESTRUCTION ANNOUNCED

WOE to them that [4] are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named [5] chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

2 Pass ye unto [q] Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to [r] Hamath the great: then go down to [s] Gath of the Philistines: [z] be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

3 [y] Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause [10] the [7] [z] seat of [b] violence to come near;

4 [c] That lie upon [d] beds of ivory, and [3] stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

5 That [3] chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick, [d] like David;

6 That drink [5] wine [l] in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not grieved for the [f] affliction of Joseph.

7 ¶ Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 [g] The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor [t] the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all [9] that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that [11] burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is [o] by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for [3] we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the great house [p] with [6] breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 ¶ Shall horses run upon the rock? [22] will one plow there with oxen? [31] for [x] ye have turned [u] judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock:

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us [a] horns by our own strength?

14 But, behold, [c] I will raise up had despised Zion 1 Kgs 12:25-33.

3 The leaders of Israel were there to whom the nation looked. But by despising Zion, they gave a bad example. Cp Isa 7:14.
4 A city of Babylon Genesis 10:10 which was overthrown by Assyria Isa 10:9
5 A city of Syria on the Orontes conquered by Jeroboam 2 Kgs 14:25. and the Assyrians 2 Kgs 18:34 under Sargon.
6 To distinguish it from Hamath on the border 2:14.
7 Taken by Uzziah 2 Ch 26:6 overthrown by the Assyrians under Sargon 712. See note under Philistia Punished Zeph 2:4.
Israel's sin was greater Amos 3:1-2 (Cp Nah 3:8).
Their border (power) was greater, yet they were overthrown.

The evils of invasion & of pestilence are in His keeping Amos 3:6.
30 All will be affected - both small and great.
31 RSV: "into bits."

C THE FOLLY OF EVIL-DOERS WHO THINK THEY CAN RESIST THE JUDGMENT OF GOD 12-14
32 Sheep = craggy cliff. Horses were unshod and could only do so at harm to themselves. So Israel could only pursue its present course with harm to itself.
33 It would be foolish = fruitless to do so. So it was with Israel pursuing its present course. RSV, dividing the words differently = "the sea."
34 Their personal prowess = imagined cleverness.
35 Symbols of strength Deut 33:17. 1 Kgs 22:11 The widespread strength of Israel under Jeroboam II was attributed to their own prowess Cp 1 Kgs 14:

Vv 10 They despised the warning of approaching Divine retribution and thus caused it to draw near.
11 Idle luxury while others suffered oppression
12 Select the choicest best for themselves, regardless to the needs of others.
13 Heb. "parat" - "to prattle." They made merry whilst judgment impended & wickedness abounded
14 But he consecrated them to Divine use.
15 Mizraqim - sacrificial bowls. They not only drank to excess, but were sacrilegious in attitude.
16 To be used in Divine service & nowhere else Exod 30:23. They anointed themselves whereas Yahweh called for mourning & repentance.

B THE PUNISHMENT DECREED Vv 7-11
17 RSV: "They shall be the first to go" Israel preceded Judah into captivity
18 Mirzakh - screech i.e. of revellers RSV: Revelry
19 Nephesh - Soul. A confession to human language.
20 Built by exertion, used for voluptuous luxury. But RSV: Strong holds 21 Used in the general sense of confidence Dan 1:20. Ecc 7:19... 12. Gen 31:19. Num 16:22. Job 19:3. The root signifies "accumulation" (Strong) i.e to the extent of the digits 10 = completeness for it is another new age & here means whole house is completely devastated by plague Deut 28:61 & Amos 4:10.
22 By custom, the Passover house Exod 12 limited to 10 persons. Even their solemn feasts could not save.
23 RSV: "And a man's kinsman, he who burns him." The nearest kinsman would have to perform the last rites.
24 This is not treating with anybody specially but with a hypothetical case, showing what would happen when whole families were destroyed.
25 Cremation was sometimes used by the foe in emergency 1 Sam 31:12 and in punishment Josh 7:15. 2 Kgs 23:16. Here the burning was probably to stay the spread of infection. As the city would be surrounded by the enemy there would be no opportunity of burial.
26 The corpse, as in Gen 25. Exod 13:19 &c against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you [b] from the entering in of Hemath [c] unto the [2] river of [e] the wilderness.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The judgments of the grasshoppers, 4 and of the fire, are diverted by the prayer of Amos. 7 By the wall of a plumbline is signified the rejection of Israel. 10 Amaziah complaineth of Amos. 14 Amos sheweth his calling, 16 and Amaziah's judgment.

THUS hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed [3] grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's [f] mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, I beseech thee: [g] by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

3 The LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

7 ¶ Thus he showed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, [a] I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: [b] I will not again pass by them any more:

9 And [c] the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the [d] sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against [a] the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 ¶ Then Amaziah [d] the priest of [f] Beth-el sent to [g] Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou [k] seer, go, flee thee away [m] into the land of Judah, and there [n] eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But [o] prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: [p] for it is the king's [q] chapel, and it is the [r] king's court.

14 ¶ Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I [s] a prophet's son; but I [t] was an herdman, and a gatherer of [7] sycomore fruit:

15 And the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel.

16 ¶ Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and [u] drop not thy word against the house of [b] Isaac.

17 "Therefore thus saith the LORD; [v] Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land [w] shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

5 ISRAEL AS A BASKET OF SUMMER FRUIT IS RIPE FOR DESTRUCTION. THE FOURTH VISION VV1-3.

Amaziah's hostility towards Amos revealed the irredeemable apostasy of Israel. This could only result in punishment and disaster. The vision of the summer fruits showed this to be at hand.

Assyria.
From the northern to the southern border. Num. 34:8. Cp 2 Kings 14:25. The "torrent of the Arabah" is probably the "Wady es Safieh" just south of Dead Sea. Rob. Com.

CHAPTER 7

3 REVELATION Ch. 7:1-9:10.

Five visions with explanations confirming the previous prophecy.

THE CONSUMING GRASSHOPPERS VV1-3.

1 Locusts - Assyria Nah 3:17.
2 When the aftermath was beginning to grow under the influence of the latter rains. If the herbage was destroyed then there would be no hope of recovery in the rest of the year. The invasion of Pul 2 Kgs 15:19 was among the beginning of trouble on Israel.
3 It is supposed that the first crop of grass was set aside for the use of the King's stables.
4 Amos prayed for the people, and the danger of national annihilation passed Cp 2 Kgs 14:24-27.
5 Weakened internecine strife + foreign invasion 1 Kgs 15:16-18, 19.

DEVOURING FIRE

Israel to become the furnace Cp Ezek 22:17-22.
7 Symbolic of nations to be devoured by Assyrians.
8 Ch-hacheleq - the portion, ie set aside for judgment. The second invasion of Tiglath-Pileser III. He conquered Gilead and the north, and took some of the people into captivity. 2 Kgs 15:29.
9 Though the trial was greater, through the more fervent prayer of Amos ("cease" instead of "forgive") the danger passed.

ISRAEL MEASURED FOR DESTRUCTION 7-9

10 Israel - once built with care and accuracy to Yahweh's specifications. It was then solidly constructed - how was it now? Cp Lam 13:10-16.
11 Built with care and according to specifications.
12 To measure it for accuracy or destruction.
13 As it was built by measure, so it would be destroyed by the same means 2 Sam 8:2. The symbol of the wall + plumbline used in that way: 2 Kgs 21:13. Isa 34:11 Lam 2:8.
14 Prayer rendered useless by their complete unrepentance Jer 7:16.
16 Apparently Beersheba was being put to a semi-pagan use Ch. 5:5. 8:14. The term Isaac is used as a synonym for Israel generally V.16.

The idol-temples at Dan, Bethel and Gilgal 1 Kgs 12:29. Hos.
These places had holy associations by patriarchal use, but had been perverted by Israel to semi-pagan worship.
17 Yahweh Sabaoth standing as a warrior against Jeroboam.
18 Popular with the people because of his international success in War 2 Kgs 14:25-28 the murder of his son Zechariah by Shallum 2 Kgs 15:10 led to the overthrow of his dynasty and weakened the nation which was ultimately conquered by the Assyrians and deported.

4 THE PRIESTLY AUTHORITIES REJECT THE WARNING OF AMAZIAH VV10-17

The naming of Jeroboam, and the plain declaration of Yahweh's intention is considered seditious and arouses the ire of the priest Amaziah.
19 He was chief of the apostate priests 1 Kgs 13:31-32
20 Sedition - levelled also against Jeremiah Jer 26:9 + Christ Luke 23:2. Paul Acts 24:5.
21 It will undermine the confidence of the people in the government, and the enemies will use them to overthrow the King.
22 This was a lie. Amos had said that Yahweh would rise against the House of Jeroboam. As far as we know, Jeroboam did not die with the sword 2 Kgs 14:29.
23 As Jeroboam apparently could not be incited to move against Amos, Amaziah returns to the attack.
24 He implies that Amos was being paid for his seditious predictions, probably by Judah.
25 Undaunted by the threats of the priest, Amos denies that he practised prophesying as a profession, or to gain a livelihood.
26 Brought up in the school of the prophets called "sons of the prophets" 1 Kgs 20:35. 2 Kgs 2:3.
5. See Append. 3.
Boser - "a cowherd" but in LXX rendered "shepherd."
The mulberry-fig, sometimes cultivated for sale. The term boles shiqmim may mean either one who plucks the fruit for himself or cultivates it for others.
Like Paul, he asserted his Divine call and authority as prophet Gal 1:1.
Cp MS. As the flock grazed and Amos cared for it.
2 Pet 1:20-21.
For use of the word see Mic 2:11 for the idea, but not the term see Deut 32:2.
32. Amaziah would suffer as a husband, a father and a citizen.
33. Not play the harlot, but used as one by the Assyrians in the sense of Zech. 14:2.
34 This would be exceptional savagery as Assyrians usually spared the young women of conquered cities.
35 Cp V.8. Divided or measured for punishment 2 Sam 8:2. Ps. 60:6. Hab 3:6. Zech 2:1.
In Gentile land. Distinguish the holy land

"THE EXCELLENCY OF JACOB" Ch 8:7 This is a title of Yahweh, rendered "the Pride of Jacob" in Hos. 5:5. 7:10. The word (Ga'own - Gaw-ohn) is used for misplaced pride & arrogance, as well as the righteous elevation and majesty of Yahweh, and the elevation He will bring to Jacob the Supplanter. Rend. arrogancy, excellent, excellency, majesty, pride, proud, pomp, swelling. See for example, the misplaced pride of Jacob, Amos. 6:8

See!
- The manifestation of this attribute by Yahweh at the Red Sea crossing Exod. 15:7.
- The future elevation of Jacob which will stem from Him Ps. 47:4. 68:34.
- This majesty to be centred in Zion Isa. 60:15. as in the past Ezek. 24:21.
- For Israel's restored majesty Nah. 2:2 RV.
- A cognate word (Ga'avah - Gah-avaw) - expressing Divine majesty over Israel in the future Deut. 33:26,29.

1 The gathering of fruit was the final harvest, thus the time was ripe for the final punishment of Israel.
2 A play on words. The two Hebrew words קַיִץ Kaits (fruits) and קֵץ Kets (an end) have a close affinity in sound.

The type of summer fruit.

hold [a] a basket of [b] summer fruit. JER 24

2 And he said, [c] Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, [c] The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.

3 The rejoicing of the revellers Cp Amos 5:23 shall be turned into mourning Neh. 8:10
4 Many corpses through the dread effect of pestilence Ch. 6:8-11. W.J. Deane (Bel. Com.) read: "Many the corpses! in every place He hath cast them forth; Hush!" RSV mg. = "be silent." Thus an admonition to heed and submit to Yahweh whose judgment reveal He will not tolerate sin Zeph. 1:7.

3 And [d] the songs of the temple [2] shall be howlings [3] in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth [4] with silence. Hush!!

4 ¶ Hear this, [k] O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail, [l]

5 Saying, When will the [m] new moon be gone, that we may [n] sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may [o] set forth wheat, [p] making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and [q] falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat? Gen. 43:32

7 [r] The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 [s] Shall not [t] the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by [u] the flood of Egypt. RV: "Sink again"

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day: Isa. 60:1-2. 2 Pet. 3:13.

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

5 THOSE WHO DESPISE THE WORD WILL SUFFER FROM FAMINE (7-10)
This is the bitterness of the end: they would experience the fruits of their sowing. They had rejected the warnings of the prophets (Ch. 7) now the Word and its Light would be withdrawn from them.

6 THE OPPRESSION, GREED AND IRREVERENCE OF THE LEADERS DENOUNCED (4-10)
4 "that pant after" - like a wild beast pursuing its prey. Their grasping ways impoverish them.
Num. 10:10. 28:11 A special service, described as "our solemn feast-day" Ps. 81:3-4 indicating a new beginning. RV: "dealing falsely with balances of deceit" Cp al. so margin.
5 The poor so reduced by debt that they were compelled to sell themselves into slavery Lev. 25:39. Deut. 15:12. Cp Nehemiah's indignation and action Neh. 5. The poor could not obtain justice Ch. 2:6. and thus succumb to oppression.
6 The most trivial debt.
11 Lit. "that which fell through the sieve."
12 By Himself Amos 6:8
13 In judgment, Israel will experience a political earthquake that shall shake everything out of place.
14 LXX: Destruction.
15 The complete inundation of the land by the flood of Assyria Isa. 8:7.
RV: "Troubled."
17 Which rises, inundates the land, subsides and waters the land to provide fruit as a result. Assyria would swamp Israel, but ultimately recede, leaving Israel better for the punishment.
18 In the days of Pekah, sudden calamity overtook Israel in the very height of seeming prosperity 2 Kgs. 15:27-31. 17:1-6. Thus Israel's sun was eclipsed Cp Matt. 24:29. Cp the physical darkness at the crucifixion of the Lord, foreshadowing the political darkness of A.D. 70 Matt. 27:45. The spiritual darkness is predicted in Mic. 3:6.
19 The head was shaven as a sign of mourning Cp Mic. 1:16.
20 A day of mourning of extreme severity Cp Jer. 6:26. Zech. 12:10.

7 THOSE WHO DESPISE THE WORD WILL SUFFER FROM FAMINE (7-10)
This is the bitterness of the end: they would experience the fruits of their sowing. They had rejected the warnings of the prophets (Ch. 7) now the Word and its Light would be withdrawn from them.
22 The true revelation & comfort of Yahweh's word will be thirsted for because it has not been sought in love 2 Thess. 2:10. Cp the case of Saul 1 Sam. 28:6 Jer. 8:1 1 Sam. 3:1 This may cause the righteous to groan like the Psalmist Ps. 74:9. The predicted famine still continues for Israel Jer. 8:18, 23.
23 Lit. "To totter," stagger or reel."
24 Not to the true worship in the south which they despised Ch. 6:1 They will turn to every direction but the right one.
25 They will turn everywhere but in the right direction Cp Isa. 8:21-22.
8 They will lose their strength. But contrast Isa. 40:30-31.
11 To worship as Deut. 12:10.
The mode or "way" of worship Cp Acts 9:2 18:25-26 24:14 They claimed that this was the way to the life.

8 THE FIFTH VISION: YAHWEH ON THE ALTAR COMMANDS THE DESTRUCTION OF THE ALTAR (VV1-6)
In Jerusalem - desecrated by the northern kingdom, and profaned by the south. He stands upon or by the Altar to indicate the grounds of His contempt - Israel's profanation of holy things. He stands to avenge the quarrel of His altar Cp Ezek. 9:2.
CB: "Smite the capitals that they shake the foundations: and cut them off (i.e. the pillars) by the head, all of them."
The command is given to the destroying angels Ezek. 9:1-8. 2 Sam. 24:16. Ezek. 9:6. to give the Temple its due upon its supporting pillars sufficient to cause its overthrow. See margin - the capital of the column. Cp Lam. 2:7.

AMOS: THE BURDEN-BEARER.

National Sin means National Punishment.

Amos styles himself a herdsman Amos 7:14. He was no "professional prophet, speaking for a living." He did not belong to the order of the prophets, nor had he been educated in the school of the prophets. The prophetic office was thrust upon him. Amos. 7:14-15. When the call came he exchanged the life of a shepherd and cultivator of sycamore trees for that of a prophet. In his ministry as prophet he showed himself as forthright, fearless and faithful Amos 7:10-17. For his background see p. 1115. He commenced to prophesy "two years before the earthquake" Amos. 1:1. He foretold this earthquake 6:11, 8:8; 9:5.

HISTORY OF EDOM

- THE TERRITORY which they occupied extended from the Dead Sea to the Elanitic Gulf of the Red Sea. The two main cities being the extremely strong fortresses of Petra the capital and Bozrah about 35 miles to the north. Petra is called Sela Isa. 16:1. 2 King 14:7. renamed Jokthеel (Subjection of El) 2 Kings 14:7.
- THE HORITES. The country was originally occupied by the Horites or Cave dwellers Deut. 2:12 Gen. 14:6 but they were expelled by the Edomites.
- GOVERNMENT was by "dukes" or princes, powerful chieftains Gen 36:4-31 and under these they retained their independence until the time of David
- OPPOSITION TO ISRAEL They had an inveterate hatred of Israel. See Note bottom p 1123. The King of Edom refused the reasonable request of Moses to pass through his land, paying for all that they should consume Num. 20:14-19.
- WARS WITH ISRAEL. David gained a great victory over them in the Valley of Salt. 2 Sam. 8:13. 1 Chron 18:12. Ps 60. and Edom itself was garrisoned by Joab who slew the males 1 Kg 11:16. Hadad the King fled to Egypt where he was well received and married Tahpenes the queen 1 Kg 11:18-20. He awaited his opportunity to return to Edom and recover his Kingdom after the dead of David, but did not succeed Jos. 8 Ch 2. Edom continued under Israel, probably ruled by deputies until the time of Jehoshaphat when they unsuccessfully joined forces with Moab and Ammon in an attempt to regain their independence. The campaign ended in disaster and mutual slaughter as Moab and Ammon turned on Edom 2 Chron. 20:22-25. In the reign of Jehoram, the son of Jehoshaphat, they rose in a body and though they suffered great slaughter, they did recover their independence 2 Chron. 21:8-10 Sixty years later, in the reign of Amaziah, ten thousand were slain in battle in the Valley of Salt, many were made prisoners; their capital Selah, was taken by storm, and the 2000 captives were, by Amaziah's orders, thrown down the ragged precipices near the city, and dashed in pieces 2 Kgs 14:7. 2 Chron. 25:12
- JOIN WITH BABYLONIANS AGAINST THE JEWS. The Edomites rejoiced in the fall of Jerusalem Ps. 137:7 They cut off those who attempted to escape; endeavored to level the city with the ground rejoiced in the success of the Babylonians attempted to slay those whom the Chaldeans had left, and were thus held guilty of the crime of treachery by God Obad 10-12, 13. Ezek 25:12-14 35:3-15 for this especially they were denounced by the prophets and threatened with the utter destruction of the nation Isa. 34:5, 6, 17. Jer. 49:7-18. Ezek 25:12-14 35:1-15. Joel 3:19. Amos 1:11 Obad 2, 3, 8, 17, 18. Mal 1:3, 4.
- OVERTHROWN BY BABYLONIANS. Five years after taking Jerusalem, Nebuchadnezzar humbled all the States around Judea, and particularly Edom Jer 25:15-26 Mal 1:3-4
- OCCUPY SOUTHERN PALESTINE During the Jewish exile, the Edomites pressed forward into southern Palestine which they occupied and which received the name of Idumea in consequence.
- THE NABATEANS SEIZE EDOM AND PETRA Between the 6th-4th centuries BC, these Arabians pushed northwards and seized the fortresses of Edom and Moab. Gaining control of the great caravan routes of the Middle East, they developed a remarkable civilisation which reached its peak between 200-100 BC. The great fortress of Petra, 60 m. S.h of Dead Sea became their Capital. They dominated Idumea in southern Palestine. The rose-colored city of Petra was unknowned to the West until 1812. The Nabatean King Aretas IV (9 B.C.-40 A.D.) appointed an ethnarch of Damascus who plotted to apprehend Paul when the Apostle escaped from the city by a basket let over the wall Acts 9:25. In the year 106 AD they were annexed to Rome as a province of Arabia. They were descended from Nebaioth son of Ishmael
- CONQUERED AND CONVERTED BY THE MACCABEES The Maccabees rose to power B.C. 167 through Mattathias and his five sons (Johanan, Simon, Judas, Eleazar, Jonathan). After the death of Simon (BC. 135), John Hyrcanus (135-106) took over control. He was very successful in extending the power of the Maccabees. He destroyed the Samaritan Temple on Mt Gerizim, and captured the towns of Dora and Marissa in Idumea, forcing the rite of circumcision on the people. They were compelled either to submit or they were put to the sword. John Hyrcanus having been exposed to some indignity by a Pharisee, openly left that sect and joined the Sadducees. He built the castle of Baris on a rock within the fortifications of the Temple, called by Herod "Antonia." The daughter of his grandson, Mariamne married Herod the Great. Deut. 23:3-8. Hyrcanus completed the conquest of Idumea initiated by Judas Maccabeus. Mt.
- THE LAST OF THE EDOMITES. During the warlike rule of the Maccabees the Idumeans were completely subdued and compelled to conform to Jewish laws and rites and submit to the government of Jewish prefects. They were thus incorporated into the Jewish nation. Before the siege of Jerusalem by Titus, 20000 Idumeans were admitted to the Holy City, which they filled with robbery and bloodshed. From that time the Edomites disappear from the pages of History. See also Notes Lev. 34. Ezek. 35 etc.

THE FIVE FEARFUL VISIONS OF FATE purge Israel of sin, and lay the foundation of Divine mercy for a purified and regenerated people. The final one involved the southern Kingdom. Ch. 9:5,9,11. "He said" Ch. 9:1 comprises the instructions to the avenging angel against Israel. Exod. 21:21 (See also Ezek. 9:2). The Temple in Jerusalem was scorned by the northern Kingdom and treated with indifference by the south, but involved the whole nation in destruction.

OBADIAH.

Theme / Key verse V15

Parallel with Jeremiah for his prophecy closely resembles that of Jeremiah Ch. 49. If so, he prophesied of the destruction from Babylon impended.

OBADIAH: "Worshipper or servant of Yah". He prophesied concerning Edom whilst he viewed from the standpoint of a worshipper of Yahweh. He may have been contemporary with Jeremiah.

1 The destruction of Edom, 3 for their pride, &c.
17 The salvation and victory of Jacob.

THE vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.

3 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers came to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes?

6 How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

9 And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

10 For thy violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gate, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity;

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

15 For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

17 But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.

18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not remain any of the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it.

19 And they of the south shall possess the mount of Esau; and they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria: and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.

20 And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

21 And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD's.

EDOM: A type of the flesh in political manifestation, and not the Arabs. The former is to be completely destroyed — the latter incorporated into the Kingdom. Isa. 60:6-7. In Hebrew, Edom and Adam have the same consonants different vowel points (Cp Amos 9:12. Acts 15:17). providing the etymology of "red" or the sin power. Isa. 1:18. [redacted] Why Esau's name changed to Edom. Gen. 25:30. Two manner of people. Gen. 25:23. "That profane person..." Heb. 12:16. Israel instructed "not to meddle with Edom." Deut. 2:5. Cp. Rev. 18:14. For Edom as a type of Gog. Cp Isa. 34. Exod. 17. (Moreand Amalek.

NATIONAL CHARACTERISTICS: The Idumeans are "a turbulent and unruly race, always hovering on the verge of revolution, always rejoicing in changes, roused to arms by the slightest motion of flattery, rushing to battle as if to a feast." (Josephus).

GEOGRAPHICAL CHARACTERISTICS — See Notes Ezek. 35.

"THE SIGN OF THE PROPHET JONAH" (Mat.12:39) prefigured the work of Christ. He sacrificed himself for his people was subjected to a death and resurrection, and afterwards preached repentance to the Gentiles. "JONAH WAS A SIGN UNTO THE NINEVITES" (Luke 11:30) as Christ was to his generation. Jonah preached that unless Nineveh repented it would fall within 40 days. Christ did likewise to his generation (Mat.24:34 39). and within 40 prophetic "days" Jerusalem fell. The sign should have taught the Lord's contemporaries certain facts concerning his death and resurrection, that the time for reformation was limited, and that the time was [illegible] preaching repentance to the Gentiles. They saw the sign Mat.3:16, and should have comprehended and heeded it as did Paul 1 Cor.15:4

Having been uttered it cannot return to its source but must accomplish its purpose. Is.55:11. Amos. 3:8. A familiar phrase occurs 7 times in the book emphasizing its literal fulfilment. [illegible] 1:2 to 3:1,3. 4:1. Purpose = John 16:8. Amittai is secondary form of "emeth" — truth. Thus: Dove Son of Truth. The conjunction governs the noun. He was of Gath-Hepher (Winepress of the Well) about 3m. NW of Nazareth. Not a Prophet of Galilee. John 7:52.

It was to be no soft gentle preaching but loud, harsh proclamation such as the urgency of the situation demanded. Jonah knew that Nineveh would be Yahweh's rod against Israel. Amos and Hosea, also in reign of Jeroboam predicted it. Amos 5:27. 6:14. 7:17. Nahum 1:14. If Nineveh repented Israel might be saved. thus Jonah was prepared to sacrifice himself for his people. Used in the cleansing of the leper Lev. 14:4, 22. It was a "clean" bird but never eaten by Jews. JONAH.

CHAPTER 1.

Jonah, fleeing to Tarshish, is cast into the sea.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto [2] Jonah the son of Amittai, saying,

2 Arise, go to [c] Nineveh, [d] that great city, and cry against it; for [e] their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jonah rose up to flee unto [f] Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to [g] Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish [h] from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ But the LORD [7] sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship [8] was like to be broken.

5 Then [i] the mariners were afraid, and [k] cried every man unto his god, and [l] cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and [o] was fast asleep.

6 So [q] the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, [r] What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, [s] if so be that God will [t] think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and [u] let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

8 Then said they unto him, [b] Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear [5] the LORD, [a] the God of heaven, [b] which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men [3] exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea [4] may be calm unto us? for the sea [5] wrought, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men [6] rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea [5] wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto [m] the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and [n] lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, [p] hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea [2] ceased from her raging.

16 Then [q] the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and [8] [r] offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and [s] made vows.

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And [t] Jonah was in the [4] belly of the fish three days and three nights.

His loving Kindness, His Covenant-love expressed in what does not seem as love - correction Cp Heb 12: 6-12 The first lesson had been impressed on Jonah, and it is the lesson of Christ's life. JONAH PAYS HIS VOWS Vv1-4.

JONAH 3, 4. to the Ninevites.

of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of (2) hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 For (a) thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the (3) midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: (b) all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 (c) Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet (d) I will look again (h) toward thy holy temple.

5 The (i) waters (k) compassed me about, (l) even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the (5) (q) bottoms of the mountains; the earth with (s) her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up (t) my life (x) from (7) corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When (v) my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into (a) thine holy temple.

8 (c) They that observe lying (a) vanities forsake (7) their own mercy.

9 But (b) I will sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; (k) I will pay that that I have vowed. (c) Salvation is of the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Jonah, sent again, preacheth to the Ninevites. 5 Upon their repentance, 10 God repenteth.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto (q) Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an (8) exceeding great city of three days' journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So (b) the people of Nineveh believed God, and (c) proclaimed a fast, and (e) put on sackcloth, (f) from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid (l) his robe from him, and (m) covered him with sackcloth, and (o) sat in ashes.

7 And he (p) caused it to be proclaimed and (4) published through Nineveh by (r) the decree of the king and his (6) nobles, saying, Let neither man nor (t) beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, (u) let them (4) turn every one from his evil way, and from (b) the violence that is in their hands.

9 (f) Who can tell if God will turn (g) and repent, and (h) turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 ¶ And God saw their works, that (m) they turned from their evil way; and (w) God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

1 Jonah, repining at God's mercy, 4 is reproved by the type of a gourd.

BUT (o) it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and (p) he was very angry.

JONAH'S DISPLEASURE Vv.1-3.

1 This is the reason for Jonah's action. He desired the overthrow of Israel's future destroyer. See Ch 1 Note 2

1126 | The despatch of the prophet once more to carry out the duty from which he had previously shrunk recalls the narrative of Elijah at Horeb 1 Kgs 19:4. This time Jonah pays his vows. Jon. 2:9. This is analogous to Peter's use of the 2nd Key. Acts 11:2-5. Rom. 9:3. - for the original reluctance of the Apostles to preach to Gentiles. The "sign" revealed that such preaching was "timely"

2 See note on "The Dove as the symbol of Israel" p. 1125. Yahweh's purpose was that Israel should reveal His goodness to man.

1 The preservation of Assyria would be to the hurt of Israel —therefore let it perish. Hab. 2:18 ANS: Acts 10:28,34-35. Yahweh had a purpose with Assyria.

2 Salvation is of the Jews. Any repentance on part Ninevites only temporary and national and would be to the hurt of Israel ANS. Rom. 2:28-29.

3 He realised the weakness of Israel under Jeroboam and feared Not the petulance of a narrow-minded bigot but the heartfelt expression of a despondent man of God who felt he had helped Israel's enemy. Cp Elijah 1Kg. 19:4 Moses. Num. 11:15.

for th. future ANS. Isa. 43:2. 49:6.

4 Like Paul he preferred "he preferred to be accursed" for his brethren's sake if it would save them. ANS: Salvation can only come God's way which was signified in Jonah, for the present prosperity of Israel could be overthrown as easily as it was advanced.

5 Although he realised the Kingdom would be established Acts 2:12. He did not comprehend that Gospel must first be preached to Gentiles Rom. 16:25-26. Eph. 3:3-6. ANS. Rom. 9:30-33.

and repentest thee of the evil. ↳ Ch. 3:10 Note.

3 Therefore now, [a] O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for [d] it is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, [3] Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him [e] a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the [h] LORD God [i] prepared a [6] [7] gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah [9] was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a [k] worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a [2] vehement [b] east wind; and the sun [c] beat upon the head of Jonah, that [e] he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, [4] I do well to be angry, [g] even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast [5] had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which [8] came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I spare [k] Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand [11] persons [l] that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; [m] and also much cattle?

Jonah, as representative of Israel, had sheltered under the protection Yahweh had provided. But this could be as easily withdrawn and then the distress of Jonah would be reflected by the nation. The book was thus an exhortation to Israel to repent. The "booth" that Jonah prepared for himself was not adequate protection against the fierce rays of the sun — any more than Israel's might was sufficient protection without Yahweh's help.

8 RV - Sultry. A particularly scorching destructive wind. Gen. 41:6. Ezek. 17:10. Perhaps it fore down Jonah's booth, so that the fierce hot rays of the sun beat upon him.

JONAH'S DELIVERANCE Vv. 1-2

1 Thus is the record of Jonah's action + desired the assistance of Israel's forbearer. See Ch. 1:1 Exod. 24:1 Deut. 9:10. Num. 11:

Micah's message was to both Samaria + Jerusalem. He indicts their sins, shows that the polluting influence of the former had affected the latter, but that the Divine Covenant of promise was sure. Cp. Ch. 1:1. He saw fulfilled that which Jonah feared to see. (2 Kg 14:25 Jon 1:3 note).

MICAH'S BACKGROUND: As Jotham and Hezekiah were good Kings, but Ahaz extremely wicked, Micah witnessed the apostasy of the Government and its recovery, + had the satisfaction of realising that his witness was largely responsible Jer. 26:18. He was contemporary with Isaiah + Hosea, proclaiming in West Judah, what Isaiah was in Jerusalem + Hosea was in the northern Kingdom. As Shalmaneser besieged and took Samaria in the reign of Hezekiah (See Append 12) he lived to witness the fulfilment of some of the predictions he was constantly reiterating in the ears of the people - Jer. 26:18 Note.

Micah's message was to both Samaria + Jerusalem. He indicts their sins, shows that the polluting influence of the former had affected the latter, but that the Divine Covenant of promise was sure. Cp. Ch. 1:1. He saw fulfilled that

THE CAUSE AND EXTENT OF THE JUDGMENT Vv 1-7

14 Heb. "Who" - thus personifying Samaria as the cause of apostasy. Cp 1 Kgs 17:21-24

15 Founded by the evil house of Omri, chosen as capital because easily defended. See Note 1 Kgs 16:24

16 LXX: "the sin" If "high places" be retained = the apostate places of worship.

17 This prophecy delivered before the destruction of Samaria in the 4th of Hezekiah.

18 "Into an heap." Like a heap of stones flung into a heap from off cultivated land. This ultimately became the state of the city even though Sebaste under Herod to a greater splendour than even old Samaria.

19 RSV: "A place for the planting of vineyards" Likely fulfilled. Samaria was surrounded by a steep valley 1 Kgs 16:24. Following the overthrow of the city the people, in order to make room for their gardens + fields, removed the old stones, pouring them down into the valley.

20 The wages of prostitution which was common to ancient pagan worship. Cp. also spiritual adultery Jer. 3:1-2. Ezek. 16:30.

21 The more costly metal idols.

22 Assyria stripped Samaria of its wealth, fortified upon its idolatrous worship. As this worship originally borrowed from paganism, so represented as "returning" thereto. When Israel turned to the nations for help they trusted upon the pagan gods, for the nations fought in the name of their gods! 1 Sa 26:19.

4 MICAH MOURNS BECAUSE JUDGMENT EXTENDS TO JUDAH Vv 8-11

5 THE EXTENT OF THE PREDICTED JUDGMENT Vv.10-16.

In ironic language the prophet describes the stunning effect of the captivity of Judah when it took place. The invasion of Sennacherib gave a token that Micah's words would be fulfilled - Jerusalem threatened.

30 A proverbial saying 2 Sam.1:20 indicating not to let the enemy of Israel know, lest it be a reproach Cp Neh.2:17.

33 Heb. "I have besprinkled myself with dust." A sign of mourning 2 Sam.13:19. The prophet mortifies himself with Israel's unbelief in contrast to the foreigners of Gath and Acco.

The idiom: "Beauty - town" go forth to foul dishonor.

35 Sig. Out-town. It went not out, but was besieged. The new clause can commence with "In the mourning etc."

36 In the general lamentation, Neighbor town will prove a useless neighbor refusing to help in the crisis and providing only standing room.

Or: "Because..." "They grieved because of the calamities on the nation, not because of its apostasy.

38 Heb. "To the horse, O inhabitress of horsetown." Lachish was a fortified town of the south. 2 Chron.11:9 strategically placed to defend Jerusalem. Sennacherib took Lachish 2 Kg. 18:13-17. thus cutting off any help from Egypt V.21. - from thence turning north against Hezekiah in Jerusalem.

39 Possibly because Israel put its trust in the fortifications of Lachish, and perhaps in a campaign of defence that included a concerted effort by that city and Egypt Isa. 30:1 destroyed by Sennacherib taking the city. Micah portrays the weakness of such a policy of defence as Lachish would flee before the enemy.

40 Instead of placing trust in Yahweh they would try to purchase support of the Philistines. The word "present" = farewell presents. They would have to give up the possession (Moresheth V.14) of Gath, finite cities of foreigners they had possessed.

spears into [c]pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4 [c]But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: [f]for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For [l]all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and [m]we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, [o]will I assemble [p]her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and [n]the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion [a]from henceforth, even for ever.

8 ¶ And thou, O tower of [3c]the flock, [d]the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even [o]the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou cry out [q]aloud? [m]is there no king in thee? [n]is thy counsellor perished? for [o]pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 [q]Be in pain, and [r]labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and [s]thou shalt go even to Babylon; [t]there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now also [d]many nations are gathered against thee, that say, [f]Let her be defiled, and [g]let our eye look upon Zion.

12 But [t]they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for [a]he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13 Arise and [b]thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make [d]thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt [e]beat in pieces many people: and I will [3]consecrate [h]their gain unto the LORD, and [i]their substance unto [k]the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5.

1 The birth of Christ. 4 His kingdom. 8 His conquest.

NOW [1]gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: [2]he hath laid [q]siege against us: [r]they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 [3]But thou, [4]Beth-lehem Ephratah, though thou be little among [5]the thousands of [u]Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be [b]ruler in Israel; whose [6]goings forth have been [f]from of old, from [7]everlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that [h]she which travaileth hath brought forth: then [i]the remnant of his brethren [k]shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And he shall stand and [3p]feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now [s]shall he be great unto [t]the ends of the earth.

5 And [u]this man shall be the peace, [v]when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall [a]we raise against him [b]seven [c]shepherds, and eight [3c]principal men.

6 And they shall [7]waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of [h]Nimrod [3]in the entrances thereof: thus [k]shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, [l]when he cometh

9 [f] Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass [g] in that day, saith the LORD, [h] that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:

1 God's controversy for unkindness, 6 for ignorance, 10 for injustice, 16 and for idolatry.

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou [t] before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear ye, O mountains, [u] the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, [v] what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

4 For [w] I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

5 O my people, remember now [x] what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from [y] Shittim unto Gilgal, that ye may know [z] the righteousness of the LORD.

6 ¶ [aa] Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves [ab] of a year old?

7 [ac] Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? [ad] shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my [ae] body for the sin of my soul?

8 [af] He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but [ag] to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

9 The LORD's voice crieth unto the city, and [ah] the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 ¶ [ai] Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the [aj] scant measure that is abominable?

CHAPTER 6

4 YAHWEH PLEADS BUT WILL ALSO PUNISH Ch. 6.

1 YAHWEH'S INDICTMENT OF HIS PEOPLE vv 1-5.

The prophet becomes the Advocate of Yahweh in His controversy with the people. He presses the matter as in a court case with prosecution, witnesses and defence. Inanimate nature - the symbols of Divine power and permanency - are called upon to testify to His righteousness and the spiritual decadence of Israel. Cp Ch. 1:2.

1 They testify to the existence of the Creator Rom 1:20. Cp Ps 121. Jer 5:22 and are symbols of His power and eternity.

4 YAHWEH'S INDIGNANT INDICTMENT vv 1-2

22 RSV: "The voice of the Lord cries to the city - and it is sound wisdom to fear thy name: Hear, O tribe (AV: rod) and assembly of the city! Can I forget the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is accursed? Shall I acquit the man with wicked scales and with a bag of deceitful weights?" Vv 9-11.

23 Cp Acts 15:14. John 7:42. Matt 4:5. Isa 45:17.

24 Lxx: "tribe." If rod - hear the prophecy of punishment Isa 10:5, 24 and Yahweh Who appointed the Assyrian as His rod.

25 The prosecution counsel tries to awaken the conscience of the people by a series of questions.

26 Does the oppressor continue to heap up unjustly acquired "spoil"?

habitants thereof have spoken lies, and [a] their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I [c] make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

14 [d] Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword.

15 [e] Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

16 ¶ For [2] the statutes of [1] Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of [m] Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I should make thee a [3] desolation, and the inhabitants thereof an hissing: therefore ye shall bear [g] the reproach of my people.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The church, complaining of her small number, 3 and the general corruption, 5 putteth her confidence not in man, but in God. 8 The church's triumph.

WOE is me! for I am as [h] when they have gathered [i] the summer fruits, as [k] the grapegleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired [l] the firstripe fruit.

2 [a] The [1] good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 ¶ That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and [f] the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth [2] his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as [h] a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 ¶ [b] Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6 For [e] the son [f] dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; [h] a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will [k] wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 ¶ Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, [m] the LORD shall be a light unto me.

9 [o] I will bear the indignation of the LORD, [p] because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: [r] he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 [4] Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and [s] shame shall cover her which said unto me, [t] Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now [6] shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

11 In the day that thy [v] walls are to be built, in that day shall [b] the decree be far removed.

12 In that day also he shall come even to thee [c] from Assyria, [8] and from [d] the fortified cities, and [9] from the fortress even to [e] the river, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

13 [9] Notwithstanding the land shall be desolate because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

2 CONFIDENCE C. BE PLACED IN NONE

16 Absolute confidence should be placed in one only. John 10:5. Cf. Gal 2:11. 1 Cor. 11:1

17 There is a gradation here from friend or acquaintance to "familiar friend" to wife.

18 The same condition prevailed in relation to the Ecclesias, so that these words are cited by Christ. Matt. 10:21, 35-36. Luke 12:53. 21:16. They demonstrate that salvation is an individual matter.

19 Lit. "A familiar friend" as also Ps. 55:13. Christ found he could not repose confidence in a so-called familiar friend, or relative.

20 Most deceptive because one naturally anticipates their loyalty. It was this by that brought Jesus to his death.

3 SALVATION IS ONLY FROM YAHWEH V. 7-10

21 Micah typed Christ. His enemy was the nation which brought about his death. However Yahweh brought him from the darkness of Sheol. ● In this he represents Christ both personally & nationally.

Intercession was a mark of the prophetic office. Jer. 27:18. Christ was a prophet. Is. 53:12 and bore the reproach of his people — the multitude Christ whose sins he carried to the tree.

Heb. 7:27 Daniel did likewise. Cp. Dan. 9:5.

The resurrection of Jesus vindicated his claim to be son of God. Rom. 1:3 and contributed to the justification of his brethren. Rom. 4:25.

His righteousness will be exhibited in the redemption of His own. Ps. 71:17-21.

Israel after the flesh.

A.D. 70. Cp. Matt. 24:15-21.

4 YAHWEH WILL RESTORE HIS PEOPLE V. 11-17

RSV: "The boundary shall be far extended."

Deut. 23:18. Obad. 19.

Decree = Heb. Chok, Decree or boundary.

"Men shall come to thee" (Camb. Bible) i.e. "Amen" (Camb. Bible). The return of the exiles. Isa. 11:11, 16. 27:12-13.

30 Cities of Mazor, the Strong Land. - Egypt. Usually Mitzraim, but used in 2 Sam. 24:24. 1 Chr. 21:25. for Egypt.

31 Supply, the ellipsis required by the next verse. "Thy border shall extend ..."

32 Egypt.

33 Prior to reaching this stage referred to in the previous verse. Cp. to 46. Ezek. 19:12-14.

5 A PRAYER FOR THE PEACE OF JERUSALEM V. 14

34 "Shepherd" Yahweh is the Shepherd of Israel. Ps. 80:1. Cp. Ps. 23. Ezek. 34:22. Gen. 49:24.

35 The symbol of office or authority. The shepherd's rod was curved one end & used as a club the other. It was used to guide sheep or club the other. It was used to guide sheep or pull them out of danger, or as a club to defend them. Ps. 23:4. Also used to count them. Ezek. 20:37. Lev. 27:32.

36 Israel. Ezek. 14:11. Ps. 74:7. In trouble. Jer. 12:8-9. 50:11. At peace. Zeph. 3:13. Ezek. 34:26-31. The heritage of Jacob. Isa. 58:14.

37 Comp. Bible: "Dwell thou..." It expresses a prayer for the future fulfilment of the promise. Num. 24:2. Dan. 11:41. Israel called upon to be separate.

29 Not merely the rich, for it is characteristic of all the inhabitants to speak destructive lies and deceit.

5 THE PENALTY V. 13-15

The charges proved, the penalty is now pronounced.

30 Deadly sick or incurable as in Nah. 3:19.

31 The curse of the Law. Deut. 28:39. Lev. 26:25-26. See Ps. 4:10. Hag. 1:6. Cp. Exhortation Phil. 3:10.

32 Thy decoy & humiliation shall stem from within. Heb. "emptiness." 2:6: "There shall be hungers." There will be blessing on the natural increase from Yahweh.

33 Take hold of family & goods to remove them from the enemy.

34 If, by chance, they should escape the initial attack, they shall be ultimately taken. RV The vintage.

6 THE SWEEPING UP V. 16.

The first part of the verse corresponds to Vs. 10-12, the second part to Vs. 13-15.

35 Cp. 1 Kg. 16:25. He is the founder of the evil dynasty which gave Ahab to Israel & the murderess Athaliah (Cp. 2 Kgs 8:26) to Judah.

See Ezek. 36:20 for the manner in which they have been reproached at Yahweh's people. Deut. 29:24-28. Jer. 51:51. To be ultimately removed. Isa. 25:8.

CHAPTER 7.

5 THE PROPHET MOURNS. TRAGEDY BUT ALSO PREDICTS TRIUMPH (Ch. 7.)

1 THE MOURNING PROPHET LAMENTS THE SPIRITUAL DECADENCE OF THE NATION 1-4

The prophet laments his desolate & lonely state in the midst of his people.

2 The best, most spiritually minded of Israel gone. Isa. 57:1.

3 No association of Godly men for mutual co-operation & edification. Those who are such (Isaiah, Micah etc.) labor as individuals independent of any organisation or mutual policy.

5 The refreshing association of Godly men in whom the Word has been ripened. Cp. Hos. 9:10. Ch. Int. 21:18.

7 Khasidh, one who exercises love to others, who is merciful, loving & faithful.

8 Violence and rapine.

9 They are ready and skilful to do evil, and can be bribed to do anything. Comp. Bible: "(Their) hands are (only) for evil, to do (it) earnestly."

The judge to shut his eyes to some wrong.

10 Is ready - to do so for reward.

11 Lit. "We are it together." Comp. Bible. It requires "wrongs" to carry on evil & desire into effect, for it is needful to keep up the forms of justice & this requires some consideration. So the oppressed defrauded.

12 They are hard, piercing, catching and holding all that come their way. 2 Sam. 21:6. 1132

13 The comparatively upright wound and injure all who come in contact with them.

42 Sig. Broad open land. Noted for its well-fed contented sheep & cattle. Cp. Amos 6:1.

and Gilead, as in the days of old.
15 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Egypt will I shew unto him marvellous things.
16 ¶ The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.
17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee.

18 Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.
19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.
20 Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

NAHUM.

CHAPTER 1

The majesty of God in goodness to his people, and severity against his enemies.

1 THE burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.
2 God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.
3 The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.
4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of Lebanon languisheth.
5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and all that dwell therein.
6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.
7 The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.
8 But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.
9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.
10 For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.
11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.
12 Thus saith the LORD; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.
13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

Jonah preached repentance; Nahum proclaimed judgment. Jonah did so on the grounds that Yahweh is slow to anger" Jon 4:2. Nahum because He is a jealous God Nah 1:2, and that wrath restrained is but wrath reserved. Nahum acknowledges that Yahweh is slow to anger" but adds that He will "not acquit the wicked" Nah 1:3. Between them they reveals the two-fold character of Yahweh, viz "good and severity" Rom 11:22 as revealed in preaching to Gentiles. The difference in the destinies of Nineveh and Jerusalem is summed up in the declaration of Nah 1:15, 2:2, 2:29. PERSONAL DETAILS. It is presumed that Elkosh Ch 1:1 was in Galilee, & that the prophet's name is preserved in Capernaum - Village of Nahum. The ruins of El-Kauzeh in Naphtali are supposed by some to be those of Elkosh. If he was of Galilee, he could have evacuated to Judah when the Assyrian Exile repeopulated the northern province with a mongrel population after the deportation of the ten tribes 2 Kgs 17:5-6, 24. This, however, is conjecture. What is certain is that he addresses Judah Ch 1:15. DATE: After the destruction of Thebes 3:8. This was accomplished by Assurbanipal approx. BC 665, thus a contemporary of Manasseh.

Nahum was therefore just prior to the period of Zephaniah who also predicted the destruction of Nineveh. AS TYPE CHRIST - The Lord revealed the sign of Jonah and identified himself with the Village of Nahum Mk 2:1. As the prophet of Galilee, he warned the people of the fate of Ninevites who refused to redent. Mt 12:41. STYLE "Nahum forms a beautiful, vivid, pictorial poem on the grandeur, power and justice of God, & on the conflict between Yahweh and this cruel, defiant world empire of Nineveh. None of the minor prophets seem to equal Nahum in boldness, ardour and sublimity. His prophecy forms a regular and perfect poem; the exordium is not merely magnificent, it is truly majestic; the preparation for the destruction of Nineveh, & the description of its downfall and desolation, are expressed in the most vivid colors, and are bold and luminous in the highest degree."

NINEVEH Gen. 10:81 On Tigris or Hiddekel Gen. 2:14 About 21 m. long, 9 broad = 60 in circumference. A complex of four cities in one, making a vast quadrangle no less than 60 m. round. Based on a trigonometric survey, the full area has been computed as 350 sq miles = the area of modern London. Of course, greater Nineveh included spacious orchards, gardens, pastures and grain fields. Walls = 100 feet high, broad enough for 3 chariots to ride abreast. 1500 towers each 200 ft high (Diodorus Siculus). The mart of the ancient world into which poured the wealth of Persia, India, China and the West (Ch. 3:16). Her spiritual teaching was enforced by military power (Isa 37:10-12). The controversy of Zion was (Isa 34:8): Should Nineveh or Yahweh of Jerusalem prevail and triumph to possess the land = city. All the "order" and "civilisation" concentrated in Nineveh believed that the Lion winged by the Great Eagle (the bird of Jove adored in Nineveh and Rome) was more powerful than Yahweh, the founder and Progenitor of the contemptible little Kingdom of Judea (Isa 37:22-29) AS A TYPE - Nineveh = Babylon typify the twofold aspect of Gogian Confederacy - Constantinople = Rome, Military + religious oppression. The former is first destroyed at Armageddon, the latter, as Babylon the Great is dealt with later.

HABAKKUK I.

The invaders are impeded by the heaps of slain. Her idolatry with its gross immorality. The lavish display of the temples + Cities of Assyria. dazzling display hid the rottenness within. Kesheph, to enchant or practise magic. i.e. to weave well. A reference to the part in seducing nations Cp. Isa 47:9, 12 Isa 36:16-17. Entire nations were deprived of freedom + taken to captivity. Both: "Remove thy skirts over thy face." She shall be treated as a harlot + her shame shall be revealed for all to see Cp Isa 3:17. Jer 13:26. Lam 1:8. They will see her for what she really is: an adulteress. The metaphor is that of a vile woman caught in her iniquity + exposed to the ill treatment of the mobs.

THE LESSON OF THE OVERTHROW vv 6-13

That all may see + take warning. In case they are involved in the same calamity. See Nah. No: Thebes of the god Amon (populous). So was called by Egyptians the House of Amon. It was splendidly situated in a most fertile and attractive part of Egypt on both sides of the Nile. The wealth of Egypt also passed through the ties. Wickedly sacked by Assurbanipal 663 BC (Cf. Nahum: 1 equal to Jonah." Egypt are often so described. Isa 19:1 Jer 46:1

Thebes was surrounded by a wall + with a reputed 100 gates but the river and canals formed additional defence.

The 25th Dynasty of Egypt was Ethiopian in character.

Thebes was once the residence of the Pharaohs + the splendour of the ruins declare the magnificence of the city in its heyday.

Identified with Punt, modern Somaliland - an indication of her widespread influence.

The defeat of the Ethiopians is recorded in the annals of Assurbanipal.

In the most public places. This was the normal treatment of the kings, particularly of the brutal Assyrians.

Usually led by a rope fastened to a ring in the lip.

HABAKKUK. - The Embracer or Wrestler. He embraced the Truth with zeal in a period of apostasy - see Hab 3:17 for the measure of his faith. Probably of the tribe of Levi and associated with the musical arrangements of the Temple Hab 3:19. 1 Chr. 25:1. Prophesied probably in days of Jehoiakim, approx. 15 There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like the cankerworm: make thyself many as the cankerworm, make thyself many as the locusts.

Assemble your armies Jer 46:3 Joel 3:11

16 Thou hast multiplied thy merchants above the stars of heaven: the cankerworm spoileth, and fleeth away.

3 THE CERTAINTY OF THE OVERTHROW Vv 14-19.

The prophet ironically bids the Ninevites to prepare for a long siege. Cp also Ezek 3:7.

28 The soil is of such a tenacious quality that when mixed with water + kneaded it easily formed bricks whether sun-dried or kiln-baked. Both were used + usually chopped straw was added. Ryrie: Lay hold of the brick mould + i.e. Build up your walls etc.

31 Fire + water (Ch 2:6) played a part in the destruction of the city as excavations reveal, which (rivers) slew the inhabitants.

violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not their's.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

12 ¶ Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 They take up all of them with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad.

16 Therefore they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous.

17 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

5 Before him went the pestilence, and [2] burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 He stood, and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.

7 I saw the tents of [5] Cushan [6] in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.

8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thine horses and [8] thy chariots of salvation?

9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. [9] Thou didst cleave the earth with [h] rivers.

10 [i] The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.

11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: [k] at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger.

13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by [3] discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.

14 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages: [a] they [4] came out as a whirlwind [b] to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor [c] secretly.

15 [d] Thou didst walk through the sea with thine horses, through the heap of great waters.

16 [e] When I heard, [f] my belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that [g] I might rest in the day of trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will [9] invade them with his troops.

17 [q] Although the fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall [r] fail, and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be [s] cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:

18 Yet I will rejoice in the LORD, [t] I will joy in the God of my salvation.

19 The LORD God is my strength, and he will make [u] my feet like hinds' feet, and [v] he will make me to walk [w] upon mine high places. To the chief singer on my [x] stringed instruments.

3 THE NEAR APPROACH AND TERRIBLE NATURE OF THE JUDGMENT Vv 8-18

38 There is an urgency about the message. It typified the coming Day. Jer 25:29. As Jewry spurned the words of the prophets so Gentilism has ignored those of the Apostles. Acts 13:40. But Jewry comprised the Ecclesia of the time.

39 Warners shall break down + weep at the destruction on the beloved city.

40 All the expressions of calamity and terror are gathered together. First, of wrath - of the blazing forth of Divine anger.

41 As the effects of Divine wrath are felt by the rebellious people.

42 As though things returned to the primeval chaos Gen. 1:2. Cp Jer 4:23-28.

43 As the Sun withdraws its shining. Joel 2:2. Amos 5:18. Mic 3:6.

44 A day when the storm-cloud of Divine anger roll down over the heavens.

45 Such fury of war as shall overthrow every form of defence.

46 Partially fulfilling Deut 28:20.

47 In their terror + confusion seeking effective leadership.

Fulfilling Deut 28:29.

48 As completely worthless Agg 1:6.

49 The blazing forth of His feelings. From a Root qānā, to flush up red - as in extreme emotion. "A consuming fire, a jealous El" Deut 4:24. 6:15 demanding exclusive service Ex 34:14, punishing those who hate Him Deut 5:9. In this He is imitable Song 8:6 as also should be His people Num 25:11. The same word is rend. "zealous" See Note Zech 1:14.

50 Of Israel, but the same power will consume the Gentile at time of End Ch 3:8.

CHAPTER 2

4 JUDGMENT TEMPERED WITH MERCY Vv 1-3.

Cp Rom 11:22. 9:15-18. 22-33. Ps 103:8-14. Ezek 20:37. Ex 34:7.

1 Qāshash - To become sapless (qāsh - straw). Through drought. The verb in the Hiph'eel conjugation signifies 'collect your thoughts'. ... Possibly a slight irony is intended by the prophet, as much as to say, your thoughts are not worth much, but such as they are gather them together and see if there is no sense of shame no consciousness of sin in you. Roth: "Collect your thoughts aye collect them, O nation" depressed.

2 RV: mg - "that hath no longing." Roth - feckless. The people are quite satisfied with their state + have no desire for what Yahweh promises. They have no vision Prov 29:18. Hos 12:8. Rev 3:17.

3 The Divine purpose is likened to a woman in travail. Notice the thrice repeated warning + see Notes. 1 Thess 5:4. Rep of p. 1656. Meanwhile, though the times were 4 ¶ For [a] Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod [c] at the noon [d] day, and [e] Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; [g] O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, [m] that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and [p] folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; [s] they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: [t] for the LORD their God shall [u] visit them, and [v] turn away their captivity.

8 ¶ [x] I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and [b] magnified themselves [c] against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be [y] as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of [k] nettles, and saltpits, and [l] a perpetual desolation: [m] the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have [n] for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for [o] he will [3] famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, [p] every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

12 ¶ [z] Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be [a] slain by [b] my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and [b] destroy [34] Assyria; [s] and will make [c] Nineveh [d] a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall [f] lie down in the midst of her, [h] all the beasts of the nations: both the [2] cormorant and the [3] bittern shall lodge in the [3] upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: [6] for he shall uncover the cedar work.

15 This is the rejoicing city [10] that dwelt carelessly, [o] that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, [r] a place for beasts to lie down in! [t] every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and [u] wag his hand.

CHAPTER 3

1 A sharp reproof of Jerusalem for divers sins.
8 An exhortation to wait for the restoration of Israel, 14 and to rejoice for their salvation by God.

WOE to [6 7] her that is filthy and polluted, to [a] the oppressing city!

2 She [d] obeyed not the voice; she [e] received not [8] correction; she [f] trusted not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God.

3 [h] Her princes within her are roaring [4] lions; [i] her judges are evening [4] wolves; [5] they gnaw not the bones till the morrow.

4 [n] Her prophets are [6] light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.

5 [p] The just LORD is in the midst thereof; [q] he will not do iniquity: [s] every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but [r] the unjust knoweth no shame.

6 I have cut off the [t] nations: their [2 3] [x] towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, [v] that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, [c] that there is none inhabitant.

2 JUDGMENT ON GENTILES

A salutary warning to Judah + a reason why the people should heed the warning of Vv 1-3.

The 4 nations - East, West, South + North of the land, and by extension the whole world.

1 PHILISTIA PUNISHED Vv 4-7.

Philistia comprised a confederacy of five main cities, four of which are here mentioned. The fifth, Gath, had been destroyed by Jareb in 712 since when it disappeared from history. Nebuchadnezzar, later, finally the Maccabees fulfilled the prophecy, and the Philistines fooled from history.

§ In Hebrew a play on words. Azzah will be azubhah. Gaza - Strong the strong forsaken. Literally fulfilled. Though there is a modern town of Gaza, the ancient city has been forsaken so that only ruins remain crowning hills some miles from the present town.

† Sig. Weighing place (mart) Str. Very beautifully situated on sea coast in a well watered + fertile area. It was held by Turks as late as the early 19th Cent. but has since become a complete desolation, being deserted. Now being revived. The ruins are impressive + the whole site imposing.

‡ The Water Cherub - Keth Hebr. about 35 m. NW Gaza, 3 m. from the sea. The town still exists, as reported, but not the Philistines.

§ The hottest time when noonday sky looks + feels + sudden + unexpected + Gen. 18:1

|| Sig. Dispossessed! Each name had a significance. Military power, and cruel oppression the Western + depopulated wilderness. Gaza shall be destroyed. The site of Ekron became ploughed fields, the only evidence of the ancient city being ruins that were occasionally hunted up.

¶ Philistia convicted of an undue longing given from Tyre to see it above sea level, + extending far inland from Ashdod to Gaza.

Judgment of Moab, &c. ZEPHANIAH 3. Reproof of Jerusalem.

4 ¶ For [a] Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity.

8 ¶ I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen.

12 ¶ Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar work.

15 This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

SIG THE FESTAL ONE
from "Hag" - Feast, Sacrifice Solemnity, thus A GATHERING TO REJOICE BEFORE YAHWEH Cp Lev 23:24 - particularly the PASSOVER WHICH WAS THE FIRST

1 Salvation is promised to Zion.

1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD [2] by Haggai the prophet unto [a] Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, [3] governor of Judah, and to [c] Joshua the son of [d] Josedech, [e] the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

4 Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your ceiled houses, and this house lie waste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

6 Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put into a bag with holes.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

9 Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

10 Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD.

13 Then spake Haggai the LORD's messenger in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD.

14 And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God,

A five-fold message of Grace, Comfort and Hope
Note Christ's discourse in the Temple at the Feast Dedication – December. John 10:22-42

God's promise to Zerubbabel.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; [a] Yet once, it is [b] a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

7 And I will shake [c] all nations, [d] and [e] the desire of all nations [h] shall come: and I will fill this house with [i] glory, saith the LORD of hosts.

8 [k] The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 [o] The glory [p] of this latter house shall be greater than of [q] the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give [s] peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

10 ¶ [u] In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, [x] in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [a] Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 If one bear [c] holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, [f] or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, [f] No.

13 Then said Haggai, If one that is [g] unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, [q] consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:

16 [c] Since those days were, when one came [d] to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to [o] the pressfat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 I [t] smote you with blasting and with mildew and [l] with hail in [m] all the labours of your hands; yet ye [w] turned not to me, saith the LORD.

18 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from [r] the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it.

19 [y] Is the seed yet in [z] the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: from this day [b] will I bless you.

20 ¶ And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

21 Speak to [d] Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, [e] I will shake the heavens and the earth;

22 And [g] I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and [k] I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, [m] every one by the sword of his brother.

23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, [n] my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee [p] as a signet: for [q] I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

Zechariah exhorteth to repentance. 7 Vision of the horses. 12 Comfortable promises to Jerusalem. 18 Vision of the four horns, and the four carpenters.

IN the eighth month, [c] in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, [2] [d] the son of Berechiah, the son of [e] Iddo the prophet, saying,

2 The LORD hath been [3] sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [g] Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and [h] I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 [k] Be ye not as your fathers, [l] unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [m] Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but [n] they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 [r] Your fathers, [s] where are they? and [t] the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 [v] But my words and my statutes, which I commanded [x] my servants the prophets, did they not [4] take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, [5] Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our [6] ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold [m] a man [n] riding upon a red horse, and he stood among [o] the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there [a] red horses, [2] speckled, and white. 9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent [f] to walk to and fro through the earth.

11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and [i] is at rest.

12 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, [m] how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, [o] against which thou hast had indignation [7] these threescore and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with [u] good words and [x] comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I [a] am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.

15 And [d] I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are [e] at ease: for I was but [f] a little displeased, and [g] they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; [h] I am returned to Jerusalem [8] with mercies: [k] my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and [l] a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem. 17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My [p] cities through [5] prosperity shall yet [q] be spread abroad; and [r] the

1st VISION - BACKGROUND

The work of the returned exiles was hindered by the opposition of neighboring nations who were "at ease" Ezra 5:3-4. but from the shadows Yahweh overlooked His people for good. His "eyes" were upon them Ezra 5:5. Yahweh Tzvaoth fought for them under the direction of the Captain of the host Josh. 5:15. Thus all foreshadowed a coming greater triumph still in the future.

The Myrtle Trees drew attention to the feast of Tabernacles at which Haggai had stood up with the promise of Divine Help. Hag. 2:1.

"INDIGNATION THESE 70 YEARS" V.12.

The fulfilment of these 70 years saw manifested a typical fulfilment of the Divine purpose in the returning exiles, rebuilt temple etc. Jeremiah's prophecy of 70 yrs captivity Dan 9:2. formed the basis of Daniel's prophecy of 70 weeks. Dan. 9:24. The Hebrew word - 7s - not weeks of days and can relate to weeks or Jubilees which are 7 weeks. Using the first computation the prophecy fulfilled at 1st advent - Using the second it is fulfilled at 2nd advent. Either way, the foundation is "these threescore and ten years."

Not only Jerusalem, but all Israel will be rebuilt.

4 CARPENTERS. "Four" is the number of Israel, and is also the number of creation for on the fourth day light appeared to bring life on earth. The root of the Hebrew word for "four" indicates the means whereby new life may come. So the four artificers not only fray the horns of the Gentiles but clear the site for building of the city and temple Ch.2.

"YE SHALL KNOW" Vv 9,11. See Exod.29:46. This lesson is that as a nation never came to "Know" for such "Knowledge" brings Eternal Life Jhn 17:3. To "Know" in the true sense is to be begotten by Yahweh's seed in such a way as to produce fruit to His glory. 1 Pet 1:23 James 1:17. 2:18-20.

LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and [a] shall yet choose Jerusalem.

18 ¶ Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold [c] four horns.

19 And I said unto [d] the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD shewed me four [g] carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, [h] These are the horns which have scattered Judah, [k] so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which [m] lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

3RD VISION: JERUSALEM DOWN TREADING LIMITED. Vv 1-13.

The busy activity of measuring, building of the literal Temple, and the instructions accounted therein as recorded Ezra form the basis of this vision.

1 God, in the care of Jerusalem, sendeth to measure it. 6 The redemption of Zion. 10 The promise of God's presence.

I LIFTED up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold [r] a man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, [u] To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And, behold, [v] the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to [b] this young man, saying, [d] Jerusalem shall be inhabited as [e] towns [f] without walls [v] for the multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her [k] a wall of fire [m] round about, and will be [u] the glory [o] in the midst of her.

9 For, behold, I will [y] shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

11 And [u] many nations shall be joined to the LORD [o] in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and [u] thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall [q] inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and [s] shall choose Jerusalem again.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Under the type of Joshua, the restoration of the church, 8 Christ the Branch is promised.

AND he shewed me [a] Joshua the high priest standing before [a] the angel of the LORD, and [b] Satan standing at his right hand [c] to resist him.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, [h] The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD [i] that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this [c] a brand plucked out of the fire?

3 Now Joshua was [p] clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he [s] answered and spake unto those that stood before

SATAN'S OPPOSITION Vv 1-2.

1 Historically Joshua ministered under the eye of the Elohim Ezra 5:5. So also did the Lord Mth 4:11. 26:53.

2 There was vigorous opposition to the work of Joshua and Zerubbabel Ezra 5:3, 4. there was also to the work of Christ.

3 Represented by Michael the archangel Jude 9, the angel described as Israel's prince Dan. 10:21, the captain of Yahweh's army. Josh. 5:15 placed over the affairs of Israel and given the name of Yahweh Exod. 23:20. That authority and position now vested in Christ Dan. 12:1. 1 Thes. 4:16 1 Pet 3:22.

4 He did in days Joshua Ezra 6:7. and in days Christ Luke 21:20-24.

4TH VISION: CLEANSING OF PRIESTHOOD AND PROMISE OF GLORY FOR JOSHUA.

For historical background see next page.

That the vision relates to Christ is shown by V.8 It prefigured the appearance of Christ in the "filthy garments" of the flesh of sin with satan at his right hand to resist him. Thus the change of raiment relates to immortality Phil. 3:21.

This vision follows in natural sequence that which went before, for having made reference to Jerusalem of the future, Zechariah was then shown its future priest-

JOSHUA IN FILTHY GARMENTS. – Historically the chapter is based on Ezra 4,5,6. The adversaries opposed the work of building the Temple Ezra. 4:1-6 so that it ceased V.24. Joshua and Zerubbabel at the instigation of the prophets instituted a reform Ezra 5:2. Opposed by the adversary, the "eye of their God" was nevertheless on them Ezra. 5:5. and the work was successfully completed. As "men of sign" they typified the work of the Lord in laying the foundation of the spiritual Temple 1 Pet. 2:5. In clearing the site and building the foundation Joshua's garments became soiled Cp Heb 2:14. but with the completion of the work, he was given a change of raiment and ministered in the building he helped to erect him, saying, [a] Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, [b] I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and [c] I will clothe thee with change of raiment. Roth. Goodly. = "Robes of State" RV = Rich apparel.

CHANGE OF RAIMENT FOR JOSHUA Vv 3-5.

5 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt [e] keep my [3] charge, then thou shalt also [f] judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee [5] places to walk among these that stand by. – the angels. Cp 1 Pet 3:22.

8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are [6] men wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth [m] my servant [o] the BRANCH.

9 For behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; [p] upon one stone shall be [q] seven eyes: behold, I will [r] engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 [s] In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour [t] under the vine and under the fig tree.

CHAPTER 4.

1 By the golden candlestick is foreshewed the good success of Zerubbabel's foundation. 11 By the two olive trees the two anointed ones.

AND the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, [c] as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold [@] a candlestick all of gold, [u] with [e] a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and [2] seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

3 And [@] two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. (Responded. Roth)

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, [v] Not by [4] might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, [h] O great mountain? [8] before Zerubbabel thou shalt [i] become a plain: and he shall bring forth [k] the headstone thereof [l] with shoutings, [m] crying, Grace, grace unto it. 12. Explaining the vision.

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel [n] have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and [t] thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of [x] small things? [7] for they shall rejoice, and shall see [y] the [8] plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with [18] those seven; they are [a] the eyes of the LORD, [b] which run to and fro through the whole earth. – See Note Ch. 3:9.

11 ¶ Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches [18] which [z] through the two golden pipes

CHAPTER 7.

1 The captives enquire concerning fasting. 4 Zechariah reproveth their fasting.

AND it came to pass [g]in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in [a]Chisleu;

2 When they had sent unto [c]the house of God Sherezer and Regem-melech, [3]and their men, [3]to pray before the LORD,

3 And to speak unto [d]the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to [e]the prophets, saying, Should I weep [7]in [f]the fifth month, [g]separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When [k]ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and [l]seventh month, even [m]those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, [4]did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

7 [5]Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried [6]by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and [t]in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, [7]Execute true judgment, and [u]shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And oppress not [d]the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor [e]the poor; and [f]let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and [v]pulled away the shoulder, and [8]stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, [h]lest they should hear the law, and the

CALL TO REPENTANCE
1-14
The basic mistake of the pre-exilic nation had been a failure to hear the Word and the development of cold empty formalism in religion. The same blunder was still being made Vv 4-7.
6 The fast He desires Isa. 58:3-7.
7 Rahamim from rehem - womb. The Brotherly covenant Amos 1:9.
8 Their Redeemer will get against you. See notes p. 370.
9 Desires a change not only externally but also inwardly. Ps 51:6.
10 This is why you are fasting. From the yoke Cp Hos. 4:16. Neh. 9:29. Mth 11:29.
11 Deliberately refused to hearken.
12 Shamah = hear intelligently. Sty - with implication to do.
13 Because they refused to heed the WORD.
14 Zarah = whirl, storm, winnow Amos 9:9. Jer 24:4.

ZECHARIAH'S ANSWER Ch.7. - External fasts and religious formalism useless in absence of true conversion of the heart. Ch 7 - Negative answer Ch 8 - Positive
CHAPTER 8 - Divided into two parts (Vv 1-17 & 18-23). The first proclaims the ultimate glory based on the past; the second gives specific answer to the question of Ch. 7:3. The certainty of the fulfilment is emphasised by the statement: "Thus saith ..." or "the Word of Yahweh ..." some 16 times. "Yahweh" occurs 22 times.
It emphasises how fasts will become Joyful Feasts.
It shows:
- Yahweh does not change V.2.
- Zion will be changed V.3.
- Peace + prosperity will come to it Vv 11-13.
- For Yahweh's power is adequate V.6.
- Thus National regeneration is sure Vv 7-8.

AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; (i)I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called "a city of truth; and [o]the mountain of the LORD of hosts @the holy mountain. Ezek. 43:12.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand [p]for very age. Isa. 65:17-20.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be (j)marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, [r]I will save my people from the east country, and from (k)the west country; [10]

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: [l]and they shall be my people, [m]and I will be their God, [n]in truth [13] and in [M] righteousness. — Jer. 4:2.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; [d]Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of (e)the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built. — Cp Hag. 2:18.

10 For before these days there was no [h]hire for man, nor any hire for beast; [11] neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For [k]the seed shall be (l)prosperous; the vine shall give [t]her fruit, and [m]the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were [u]a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and [v]ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; [w]As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, [x]and I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 ¶ These are the things that ye shall do; [y]Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; [z]execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

UPRISE OF PROUD WORLD CONQUEROR - ALEXANDER
At Battle Issus in South-eastern Asia Minor (approx 333 B.C.), Alexander inflicted such a defeat on Darius and the Persians so as to immediately open Syria and Palestine to his lightning-like conquests, exposing Egypt to his victorious armies. A detachment of his forces subjugated the land of Hadrach, taking the key towns of Damascus & Hamath. He devastated these nations that had previously oppressed Judah - but remarkably they escaped.

Zechariah divides the nations philologically whilst Daniel Ch 2 does so politically. It is claimed that there are 10 distinct groups of languages in use today among Indo-Europeans (Cf Bruce: "The Books & the Parchments). The use of "language" implies men will use Hebrew, being subject to Christ not only politically but in thought and speech also Zeph 3:9.

HUMAN CONQUEROR & DIVINE PRINCE OF PEACE
SWEEPING VICTORIES OF ALEXANDER. Vv 1-7
From root nasa' - To lift up - in three tenses

1150 ALEXANDER AND JERUSALEM.
After surrender of Gaza (see Note V.5) Alexander marched against Jerusalem. He was met by a procession from the city headed by Jaddua the high priest (Jos. Ant. 11:8:3) who had rejected Alexander's demand that they should pay him the tribute normally given to Persia. When Alexander saw the procession headed by the high priest he paid reverence to the God of Israel claiming that he had received a vision of this procession in a dream at Dios in Macedonia.

6 RSV: "Hamath also which borders thereon." Hamath would not escape. It was a city on the Orontes, the capital of a portion of Syria, forming, at one time an independent Kingdom of the same name. It is mentioned in Num. 34:8 as forming a northern border of Palestine.

He "speaks peace" - proclaims it authoritatively. Isa. 9:6. Ps 85:8.

ALEXANDER OR CHRIST. CH. 9:9. Against the background of the invincibly marching armies of Alexander, however, envisioned as only a tool in the hand of God, emerges a strikingly contrasting figure of another great King and Deliverer not a human conqueror, but a Divine Prince of Peace; not one who inspires fear and dread, but one whose coming calls forth paeans of lilting joy; not a foreign tyrant but Israel's own King, not cruel and oppressive, but infinitely righteous, not slaying his foes, but providing salvation; not rich and powerful, but poor and meek; not astride a prancing steed but riding upon a humble ass an animal of peace (M.F. Unger) for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and [c] his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go [d] with whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and [e] they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they [f] shall be filled like bowls, and as [h] the corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as [k] the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, [m] lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

17 For [n] how great is his goodness, and how great is [o] his beauty! [p] corn shall make the young men [q] cheerful, and new wine the maids.

CHAPTER 10.

1 God is to be sought unto. 3 As he visited his flock for sin, so he will save and restore them.

ASK ye [t] of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make [u] bright clouds, and [v] give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For [x] the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; [a] they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they [y] were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I [z] punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts [a] hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth [f] the corner, out of him [b] the nail, out of him the battle bow, out of him every oppressor together.

5 ¶ And they shall be as mighty men, [c] which tread down their enemies [b] in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and [3] the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and [f] I will bring them again to place them; for I [g] have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and [i] will hear them.

7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and [i] their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 [p] I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them: and [r] they shall increase as they have increased.

9 And [s] I will sow them among the people: and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and [v] Lebanon; and [4] place shall not be found for them.

11 And [5] he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and [c] the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and [e] they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

ALEXANDER OR CHRIST. CH. 9:9. Against the background of the invincibly marching armies of Alexander, however, envisioned as only a tool in the hand of God, emerges a strikingly contrasting figure of another great King and Deliverer not a human conqueror, but a Divine Prince of Peace; not one who inspires fear and dread, but one whose coming calls forth paeans of lilting joy; not a foreign tyrant but Israel's own King, not cruel and oppressive, but infinitely righteous, not slaying his foes, but providing salvation; not rich and powerful, but poor and meek; not astride a prancing steed but riding upon a humble ass an animal of peace (M.F. Unger)

His words are thus a vivid description of the invasion whilst symbolising what would be involved.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Destruction of Jerusalem. 3 The elect being cared for, the rest are rejected. 10 The staves of Beauty and Bands broken by the rejection of Christ. 15 Type and curse of a foolish shepherd.

OPEN thy doors, [a] O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

2 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the [4] mighty are spoiled: howl, [c] O ye oaks of Bashan; for [5] [e] the forest of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ There is a voice of [f] the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of [g] young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God; [h] Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and [i] hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will [7] deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 [k] And I will feed the flock of slaughter, even you, [l] O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called [m] Beauty, and the other I called [n] Bands; and [o] I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul [p] loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: [q] that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest [r] eat every one the flesh [s] of another.

10 ¶ And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day: and [2] so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, [3] If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So [t] they weighed for my price [d] thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto [u] the potter: a [h] goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even [6] Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be [v] cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor [m] heal that that is broken, nor [n] feed that that standeth still: but [w] he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

salem [a] a cup of [2] trembling unto all the people round about, [3] when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And [c] in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with [d] astonishment, and his rider with madness: and [e] I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the governors of Judah [f] like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and [g] they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD [h] defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and [z] he that is [8] [9] feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek [v] to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And [@] I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

THE GLORIOUS CONSUMMATION
FINAL GENTILE TRIUMPH OVER JERUSALEM Vv 1-3

The first picture commences on a grim note of siege, spoil and bloodshed, consummating however in victory & glory as Yahweh asserts Himself.

1 The destroyers of Jerusalem destroyed. 4 The coming of Christ, and the graces of his kingdom. 12 The plague of Jerusalem's enemies. 16 The remnant shall turn to the Lord. 20 and their spoils shall be holy.

BEHOLD, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.
2 For [r] I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and [s] the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. (Cp Ob. 11-13)
3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

1 Jerusalem will fall, and the spoil of the city will be divided among its Russian confederated conquerors. At this very point Divine intervention will snatch away the fruits of victory

Malachi — With its clear insight into the real needs of the times, its stern reproof even of the priests themselves, its bold exposition of eternal truth and of the certainty of ultimate national judgment and vindication of righteousness, the series of prophetic books closes with Malachi in a manner not unworthy of its lofty predecessors.

master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. [b] And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

7 Ye [3] offer [e] polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, [f] The table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And if ye offer [g] the blind [4] for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or [i] accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech (5) God that he will be gracious unto us: [m] this hath been [6] by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, [q] neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For [s] from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great [t] among the Gentiles; and in every place [z] incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure [z] offering: for [a] my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, [d] what a weariness is it! [2] and [f] ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: [g] should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the deceiver, [2] which hath in his flock [a] a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord [c] a corrupt thing: for I am [d] a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He sharply reproveth the priests for neglecting their covenant, 11 and the people for idolatry, 14 for adultery, 17 and for infidelity.

AND now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 [h] If ye will not hear, and if ye will not [k] lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, [l] I will even send [m] a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will (7) corrupt your seed, and [8] [o] spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and [9] [p] one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 [s] My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him [t] for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 [v] The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and [b] did turn many away from iniquity.

7 [c] For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is [c] the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to [3] stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore [h] have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law.

10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done [2] again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and crying, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 ¶ Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 ¶ Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

The altar was thus considered as the Table of Jahweh. cf 1 Cor 10:21. Thus polluted bread constituted offerings as described in V.8 & Ezek 44:7.
That is - You have treated it lightly.
Lev 23:22-38. Yahweh demands the very best in our offerings and service. Anything less is an affront to His honour and position. Sacrifice implies loss on the part of the giver. Chron. 21:24-25. Yahweh will repay such service performed in faith. Mal 3:10. Hag 2:18-19.
Israel would pay greater respect to the governor than to Jehovah Tzvaoth because they had not the faith to discern the latter.
An ironical statement in line with Jud 10:14 to illustrate the folly of their present service to Yahweh. All their words, their "beseeching" would accomplish nothing. He would not accept their persons. Action was what was needed. Note that the speaker was Yahweh, and not the prophet.
i.e. Priests V.6. There was no service they would do willingly in love without desire for reward.
Instead of "mi" (who) one reads "ki" (surely) which is adopted by Houbigant & Newcombe, see also Segol) who renders: "Surely the doors shall be closed against you, neither shall ye kindle the fire of my altar in vain." — A prediction of the abolition of Aaronic priesthood with which the next verse follows in natural sequence.

THE PEOPLE REPROVED FOR HEATHEN PRACTICES AND UNBELIEF VV 10-16.
Israel was the Son of God Deut 32:6. Isa 43:1, 44:2, 24 Deut. 14:1. Mal 1:6.
The people also had violated the covenant Deut 5:2-3 Exod 19:5-6. This demanded separateness. Deut 7:1-5. By divorcing Jewish wives and marrying heathen women they were injuring their brethren by the ill-treatment of their sisters or daughters whom they had taken in marriage. cf V.14. The covenant of Yahweh was thus violated. Marriage on earth a type of marriage with Him. Jer 3:14.
Godless looked upon as fathers by worshippers Jer 2:27.
Those who teach these practices are sinful. Note margin. One who instructs as one who awakes the ear of a disciple. Is. 50:4.
Those who listen to such teaching. Religious service will avail nothing in the absence of practise. [false]
Love of the wronged wives and children. Note the command of the Law. Matt 7:2-4. Exod 34:7.

He that hath the excellency of the Spirit had made a man and wife one flesh.

fore all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but [2] [a] have been partial in the law.

10 [b] Have we not all one father? [c] hath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he [4] loved, [i] and hath [k] married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, [5] the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and [m] him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 ¶ [t] Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and [u] the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she [x] thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And [y] did not he make one? Yet had he the [7] residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek [8] [b] a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal [2] treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For [f] the LORD, the God of Israel, saith [3] that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 ¶ Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

CHAPTER 3.

Of the messenger, majesty, and grace of Christ. 7 Of the rebellion, 8 sacrilege, 13 and infidelity of the people. 16 The promise of blessing to them that fear God.

BEHOLD, I will send [e] my messenger, and [f] he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, [g] whom ye seek, [h] shall suddenly come to his temple, even [i] the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But who may abide the day of his coming? and [n] who shall stand when he appeareth? for [o] he is like [p] a refiner's fire, and like fullers' [q] soap:

3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and [r] purge them as gold and silver, that they may [s] offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in [6] former years.

5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift [z] witness against [a] the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that [9] [c] oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and [d] that turn aside [e] the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For I am the LORD, [22] [o] I change not; [h] therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed.

The heart of the fathers to the children

The prophets represent the fathers of the nation as being ashamed of the spiritual declension of the people - frequently "their children" Isa 29:22-23. 63:16. but the reformation of Elijah will effect such a change as to cause them to rejoice and to "turn to them" again.

Cum Privilegio

THE LORD JESUS.

Gained the strength to conquer from Above. Ps. 80:15, 17. Isa. 11:3.

Was the manifestation of Deity and so above all others. Jhn. 15:15, 20 Luke 10:22.

People saw in him a manifestation of Divine power Luke 7:16. Luke 9:43.

CHRIST'S HUMBLE BIRTH. Luke 2:7.

The Inn was probably the House of Chimham. Jer. 41:17. 2 Sam. 19:37-38 so that there was a link with David. In the rude limestone grotto attached to it as a stable, among the hay and straw spread for the food and rest of the cattle, weary with their day's journey, far from home, in the midst of strangers, obeying a Roman law, in circumstances so devoid of all earthly comfort or splendor that it is impossible to imagine a humbler nativity, the Savior of the world, earth's future monarch was born.

The circumcision took place 8 days later Luke 1:59. 2:21. Mary's ceremony of purification 33 days after Lev. 12:4. They evidently returned to Bethlehem where Magi visited them. (See Sequence p. 83.). Thus for 40 days they were left in peace and obscurity, in a spot surrounded by many scenes of interest and hallowed by traditions of family and of race.

At Nazareth he was subject to Mary and Joseph and learned the trade of a carpenter Luke 2:51. becoming one of a numerous family. Mark 6:3. Ultimately Joseph seems to have died before the public ministry of the Lord.

HIS TEACHING AND APPEAL.

The Lord possessed the power of moving hearts by his voice. The blind sought him with their sightless eyes, the deaf mutes turned their blank faces, there was no wound too disgusting to be shown to him, and he unwearingly responded. Even the leper, in spite of the Mosaic prohibition (Lev. 13) ventured in among the crowd; displaying the horrible red wound surrounded by sparse white hairs, and crying 'Lord if thou will, thou canst make me clean'

MATTHEW: THE GIFT OF GOD.

Jesus Christ as King : The Cherubic Face of a Lion

Key Verse: "Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham" — Matt. 1:1.

CHRIST'S ROYAL DIGNITY IS STRESSED. Matthew makes no less than 60 references to the O.T. writings, so that the word "fulfilled" becomes characteristic of the book. The word "Kingdom" is met with 55 times. "Kingdom of Heaven" 32 times. "Son of David" 7 times. The Jews laid great store on Scripture, & this Gospel written particularly for them, abounds in such references.

MARK — A LARGE HAMMER (Jer. 23:29).

JESUS CHRIST AS SERVANT : The Cherubic Face of an Ox.

- Key Verse: "The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life as a ransom for many" (Mark 10:45).

- CHRIST IS REVEALED AS YAHWEH'S SERVANT TO SAVE. See Isa. 42-53 epitomized p. 904. • Mark was John's Roman name. He was closely associated with Peter (1 Pet. 5:13) and it is believed that this Gospel was directed by Peter, as Luke's was by Paul. • Being originally written (as is thought) for Romans, there are very few references to the Old Testament Scriptures contained in this Gospel (contrast Matthew's). • Jewish words are explained (Ch. 3:17; 5:41; 7:11,34; 14:36). • Jewish customs are explained (Ch. 7:3-4; 14:12; 15:42). • Latin expressions are frequently used such as Legion, Centurion, etc. • The Romans admired action, & this Gospel depicts the Lord as a worker — the Ox.

LUKE - LIGHT-GIVING

Jesus Christ As The Perfect Man — The Cherubic Face of a Man.

- Key Verse: "When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man" (Luke 23:47).

- CHRIST IS REVEALED AS THE SON OF MAN. His humanity is stressed. It was written particularly for Greeks who delighted in wisdom, beauty and system. Luke, therefore, tells the story of Jesus from the beginning, unfolding his development in a systematic manner, setting the facts in chronological order, in a manner not attempted by the other writers. Luke was an artist with the pen, drawing the portrait of Jesus as the perfect man.

JOHN : THE GRACE of YAH.

Jesus Christ as the Word made flesh ⟶ the cherubic face of the eagle.

- Key Verse: "These are written that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name" (Jhn 20:31).

- JOHN stresses the heavenly origin of the Lord: Yahweh in manifestation. His gospel is noted for its repetition of key words. Dominant throughout is the word "believe" which occurs over 80 times. It is a cognate word with faith, implying more than mere acceptance of a proposition, involving faith or conviction in it. As such, this Gospel was written for Believers. Such are enabled thereby to perceive the inner-strength of Jesus, & to see that it stemmed from a Greater than he, even Yahweh. Another peculiarity is the frequent use of the word, Jew. It is found only once in Matthew, twice in Mark, twice in Luke, but over 60 times in John. John concerns himself more with the Judean ministry of the Lord which Matthew and Mark hardly touch upon, & he records only eight miracles (which he terms "signs"). These set in sequence the whole purpose of Yahweh in Christ.

OMISSIONS IN THE GENEALOGICAL LINE. Four rulers are excluded between Joram and Uzziah in V.8. Ahaziah, Athaliah, Joash, Amaziah. Their exclusion is not an oversight, however, but a very careful discrimination, the reason for which is outlined on p.616 of O.T. See Note on delay of David as King O.T. top p.388

Matthew traces the genealogy of Joseph + Luke that of Mary. Jesus is shown to be descended from David + heir to the throne not only by family descent through Joseph but of actual fleshly descent through Mary. In Matthew the Lord is traced as descending from Abraham + David; in Luke he is shown as ascending from Adam + linked with God. Matthew shows descent to Christ, of 14 stages in 3 epochs. V.17.

CHAPTER I.

1 The genealogy of Christ. 18 He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary when she was espoused to Joseph. 19 The angel satisfieth the misdeeming thoughts of Joseph.

THE [a] book of the generation of Jesus Christ, [b] the son of David, [c] the son of Abraham.

2 [d] Abraham begat [e] Isaac; and Isaac begat [f] Jacob; and [g] Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And [h] Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and [i] Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz of [j] Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And [k] Jesse begat David the king; and [l] David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7 [m] And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And [t] Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

11 And [u] [v] Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time [w] they were carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, [x] Jechonias begat [y] Salathiel; and Salathiel begat [z] Zorobabel;

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat [16] Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ [k] Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child [l] [m] of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a [p] just man, and not willing [q] to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him [s] in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is [2] conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 [u] And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name [3] JESUS: for [4] he shall save his people [5] from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 [6] Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and [5] they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

NOW when [f] Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came [1] wise men [2] from the east to Jerusalem,
2 Saying, [m] Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen [n] his star in the east, and are come to worship him.
3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.
4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and [o] scribes of the people together, [p] he demanded of them where Christ should be born.
5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of Judæa: for thus it is written by the prophet,
6 [q] And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.
7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.
8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.
9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.
10 When they saw the star, they [b] rejoiced with exceeding great joy.
11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, [e] they [1][2] presented unto him gifts; [f] gold, and frankincense, and [h] myrrh.
12 And being warned of God [i] in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.
13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.
14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:
15 And was there until the death of Herod: [3] that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, [r] Out of Egypt have I called my son.
16 ¶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, [2] according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.
17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by [s] Jeremy the prophet, saying,
18 In [t] Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.
19 ¶ But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the

There was no proper Passover held that year, for the disturbances incidental to the death of Herod were such that Archelaus banned any gatherings of the people. So, whilst the true Passover is absent Israel is without real sacrifice.

HEROD. See also Note Luke 1:5. Judea was a province of the Empire. It was taken about B.C.63 by Pompey and placed under tribute. Herod received his appointment from the Romans and reigned 36 years at birth of the Lord. He was called Great because he distinguished himself in wars against his enemies, showed talent in ruling, rebuilt the Temple, built up and ornamented the cities. He was notorious for his cruelty. Josephus calls him "a man of great barbarity, and a slave to his passions." The slaying of infants was in complete accord with his odious character. He arranged for the murder of Aristobulus, brother of his wife Mariamne, because the Jews of Jerusalem evinced affection towards him. In the 7th year of his reign he put to death Hyrcanus, the 80 yrs old grandfather of Mariamne, who had formerly saved his life. His beloved and beautiful wife, whom he professed to idolise, he publicly executed, and her mother 26 He inherited the blood thirsty characteristics of Herod. In the beginning of his reign he massacred 3,000 Jews who rioted in Temple. The Jews hated him & ultimately complained to Rome. In 10th year he was banished by Augustus to Vienne in Gaul, where he died.

27 He made his fears the subject of petition to Yahweh. Darby = "Having been divinely instructed."

CHAPTER 3.

1 John preacheth: his office, life, and baptism.
13 He baptizeth Christ in Jordan.

IN those days came [q] John the Baptist, preaching [r] in the wilderness of Judæa,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for [w] the kingdom of heaven is at hand. = Explained by next Verse

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, saying, [y] The voice of one crying in the wilderness, [z] Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same John had his raiment of [b] camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was [c] locusts and [d] wild honey.

5 Then went out to him [e] Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 [g] And were baptized of him [h] in Jordan, confessing their sins. At Bethabara - east Jordan Jn 1:28

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the Pharisees and [l] Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, [m] O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from [b] the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits [2] meet for repentance:

9 And [c] think not to say within yourselves, [d] We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: [e] therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. ???? See Luke 3:16-17 notes

11 I indeed [3] baptize you with water [g] unto repentance: [h] but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall [l] baptize you with [m] the Holy Ghost, and with [n] fire:

12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will throughly purge [o] his floor, and [p] gather his wheat into the garner; but he will [s] burn up the chaff with [t] unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ [u] Then cometh Jesus [x] from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil [a] all righteousness. Then he suffered him. Cp Isa 42:21

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw [f] the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 [h] And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my [4] beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. - an index to his earlier life.

JOHN'S WORK CONTRASTED WITH MESSIAH'S. 11-12 Luke 3:16-17

3 John's baptism was for repentance (v.2) He objected to the Pharisees being baptised (v.7) because they were not truly repentant, nor did they intend to reform. He now objected to baptising Jesus (v.14) because he esteemed the Lord more righteous than himself - though he did not then know he was the Messiah (Jn 1:30) for it had not then been revealed (vv. 16-17).

4a So that through the Spirit-Word (1 Thess. 5:19) they would become an daily type of Burnt-Offering - dedicating their whole beings to His service. See Note Lev. 1:1-9.

5 John's work was of Divine command, consequently obedience to it was obligatory on every faithful Israelite and to that obedience the Lord submitted (Rom. 2:17, Heb. 5:8 2:10). It was also the means designed of God to introduce the ministry of Christ (Jn 1:31). Before the priests were allowed to enter Holy Place they had to be washed and suitably robed (Lev. 8:6-13, Lev. 16:2-4).

Christ's baptism foreshadowed his death Luke 12:50. Thus it was not on his own behalf merely but of that of others — "us."

Luke only adds that on the baptism he prayed. The descending Spirit was doubtless an answer to his prayer.

The Sermon on the Mount = The Law and Prophets in fulfillment — Isa. 33:14-16. An amplification of Psalm 15.

The Law of Moses comprised rules for regulating the lives of mortals living together as a nation among other nations — Christ's precepts are for individuals separated from the nations

Galilee contained 204 towns and villages with average pop. 15,000 (Jos. Bell. Jud. 3:3:2) = 3,060,000. Perhaps 3 mths. this way occupied with a day in each, resulting in growing crowds following him. He traversed first western side Jordan to north disseminating his fame in surr. Decapolis. Secondly returned south then west through Galilee probably towards Tyre and Sidon, then south to confines Samaria, then east to Jordan and north to Capernaum. His fame spread over the borders and crowds flocked to hear and be healed. This exhausting work — meeting people, expounding, healing, teaching — must have greatly drained his strength.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ beginneth his sermon in the mount: 3 declaring who are blessed, 13 who are the salt of the earth, 14 the light of the world, the city on an hill, 15 the candle. 21 What it is to kill, 27 to commit adultery, 33 to swear: 38 exhorteth to suffer wrong, 44 to love even our enemies, 48 and to labour after perfectness.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a (a) mountain: and when he was (b) set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he (i) opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 (k) Blessed are (l) the poor in spirit: for (m) their's is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are (n) they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are (o) the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: (p) for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are (q) the pure in heart: for (r) they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are (s) they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you (t) falsely, for my sake.

12 (u) Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for (v) so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: (w) but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 (x) Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men (c) light a candle, and put it under (2) a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, (d) that they may see your good works, and (e) glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ (f) Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, (g) Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 (h) Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed (x) the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said (y) by them of old time, (z) Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in (a) danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That (a) whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, (b) Raca, (c) shall be in danger of (d) the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou (e) fool, shall be in danger of (f) hell fire. - Gehenna.

23 Therefore if thou bring (g) thy gift to the altar, and there

As these were commonly broken there was a need for righteousness, justification without the Law. Rom. 4:1-6. Gal. 2:16. He shall be the farthest from attaining it Cp. v. 20. INTERPRETING THE LAW: "THOU SHALT NOT KILL" vv. 21-26. Seeking the spirit - not the letter.

THE CIRCUMSTANCES. - Must have been colorful. The Lord seated on the sun drenched, brown mountain side, probably overlooking the blue Sea of Galilee, and with the white hills in the distance. Not far could be seen Safed. Around him were gathered the people. The colorful garments worn by them added to the brightness of the scene. Intently they listened to the Lord's teaching, which laid the basis of those who would enter the mysteries of his Kingdom. His teaching took a practical form. He selected topics which were doubtless most usual in the religionists of to-day.

ST. MATTHEW 5.

Christ's sermon on the mount. See below

remember est that thy brother hath ought against thee;
24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.
25 [e] Agree with thine adversary quickly, [f] whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the [g] officer, and thou be cast into prison.
26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.
27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said [h] by them of old time, [i] Thou shalt not commit adultery:
28 But I say unto you, That whosoever [k] looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.
29 [l] And if thy right eye [m] offend thee, [n] pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into [o] hell.
30 [p] And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.
31 It hath been said, [q] Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:
32 But I say unto you, That [r] whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.
33 ¶ Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, [s] Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but [t] shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:
34 But I say unto you, [u] Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is [v] God's throne:
35 Nor by the earth; for it is [w] his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is [x] the city of the great King.
36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.
37 [y] But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.
38 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, [z] An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:
39 [a] But I say unto you, [b] That ye resist not evil: but [c] whosoever shall [d] smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.
40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also.
41 And whosoever shall [e] compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.
42 [f] Give to him that asketh thee, and [g] from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.
43 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, [h] Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and [i] hate thine enemy.
44 But I say unto you, [j] Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and [k] pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;
45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for [l] he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.
46 [m] For if ye love them which

Lit. "One going to law against another." Cp 1 Cor. 6:1.
36 According to Roman custom, an aggrieved person could compel the party he go with him before the praetor, unless he agreed by the way to adjust the matter.

37 A word formed of Latin quadras (four) = a Roman coin. There was a smaller coin than this used by Jesus. Mk. 12:42.

ON ADULTERY. Vv 27-28.
The very intent to be avoided. Cp. Ps. 51:10. Lit. 2 Pet. 2:14. 2 Cor. 12:21. Job 31:1, 9-11

29 The eye used for warfare. Cp Note. 1 John 1:12. The eye is used as a metaphor for that which causes sin. Mk. 9:47. Rom. 6:13.
30 This painful sacrifice and apparent loss will ultimately prove profitable.

DIVORCE & REMARRIAGE 31-32.
Very common in days Lord.

Deut. 24:1. Matth. 19:3. Mark 10:2.
32 "Porneia" - strictly intercourse with prostitute (porne) but comprising all forms of unchastity of which "moicheia" (adultery) is one. Word is used to describe adultery. Jno. 8:41. Rev. 17:2. 19:2.
Illicit conduct generally. Lev. 18:29. 20:5. Lev. 21:9.
Incest: Cor. 5:1.
Whoredom including Adultery. Lev. 18:13 cp Matt. 15:19
Illicit conduct including Sodomy. Jude 7.
The Law punished above with death thus severing marriage. The Law Christ overlooking death deemed marriage broken.
Marriage laws universal

Divorce and remarriage under Mosaic Law — Lev. 21:7, 14 & Ezek. 44:22.
The Jews legalised adultery by their abuse of the Law. They permitted divorce for any cause. Rabbi Akiba: "A man may put away his wife, if he see another woman that pleases him better." Christ here expresses the spirit of Deut. 24:1. on which there were wide differences of opinion by Jewish teachers.

ON OATHS. Vv 33-37 Cp James 5:12.
The Jews treated this matter very lightly declaring that a man can swear by his lips but annul it in his heart.
Paul often called on God to witness his sincerity or truth. Rom. 9:1, but the Lord appears to refer to oaths by which a person undertakes to do something.

OATHS - Some avoided oaths in the Name of Yahweh so as to escape responsibility. They did so by heaven - but that was God's throne; or by earth - but that was His footstool; or by Jerusalem - but that was where his name was placed. Or by the hair of their heads - but who caused that to grow.

The least Commandments. 19: The Scribes divided the commandments into categories Cp Mt. 22:36, so could justify the breaking of them - to do so will limit their status in the kingdom. 1 Cor. 6 Luke 19:

34 Swear falsely.
35 Often, the more vigorously a man affirms the more reluctant he is to obey.
36 Probably referring to common oaths sworn in relation to things they were powerless to control. Cp Jer. 3:22, 23.
37 The destiny of the city is beyond human control.
38 A common practice. The hand was apparently placed on the head during the swearing, implying imprecation in case of perjury. To swear by the head is to swear by the life.

"RESIST NOT EVIL" 38-42
Do not insist on your rights.
39 Christ gave a practical illustration of this. Lk. 20:16.

50 Litigation could be defeated by the letter of the Law and a debtor who was unscrupulous could avoid his obligations. Exod. 22:26. We must face up to our obligations.
The Persians established horsemen in different parts to carry dispatches. When the horse moved the rider could by law compel the first man he met to supply him with a fresh horse. The Jews and other provinces were compelled by the Roman Governors, or tetrarchs, to furnish horses, and themselves to accompany them. (Plin. Epis. 10. 121, 122). Thus we are not to resist the despotism of Governmental demands.
LOVE IS UNIVERSAL IN APP. RSV: "Sons" Gr. Huios cf v. 9. Jno.
45 Not necessarily "by those of old" though the Law rightly discriminated between Israel and the Gentiles.
We illustrate this ourself. Rom. 5:10.
47 Thus manifesting Divine characteristics. Acts 14:17.

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Christ continueth his sermon in the mount, speaking of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgiving our brethren, 16 fasting, 19 where our treasure is to be laid up, 24 of serving God, and mammon, 25 of worldly things, 33 of God's kingdom.

TAKE heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. – Cp Luke 2:13. Ps 34:15.

7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Ps 99:3. 111:9. Isa 63:16. 64:8.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread. Temporal Deut 8:3. John 6:48-51. Job 23:12. Prov 30:8.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. Eph 4:32

13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. Mtth 18:21-35.

16 ¶ Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: Cp James 5:1-3.

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

THE LORD'S PRAYER – ANALYSED.

It is made up of 6 petitions. The first three are expressions of our love of God in the desire that His honor should be widespread.
It is followed by 3 petitions which are expressive of our confidence in God's love of us.
It is concluded by three statements expressive of His ability to grant our requests.

Do not insist on your rights.
49 Christ gave a practical illustration of this Lk 6:27-36.

50 Litigation could be defeated by the letter of the law and a debtor who was unscrupulous could avoid his obligations. Exod 22:26. We must face up to our obligations.
51 The Persians elected horsemen in different parts to carry despatches. When the horse met the rider could by compel the first man met to supply him with a fresh horse. The Jews and other provinces were compelled by the Roman governors, or felt constrained to furnish horses themselves to accompany them. (Plin. IN PRAYER Vv 5-15

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore [d] the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ [e] No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. [f] Ye cannot serve God and [g] mammon.

25 [h] Therefore I say unto you, [i] Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, [s] O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) [v] for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; [w] and all these things shall be added unto you.

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.
24 Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:
25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.
26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:
27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.
28 And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine: Deut. 18:15-19 a Christ cleanseth the leper, 5 healeth the centurion's servant, 14 Peter's mother in law, 16 and many other diseased: 18 sheweth how he is to be followed: 23 stilleth the tempest on the sea, 28 driveth the devils out of two men possessed, 31 and suffereth them to go into the swine.

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.
2 And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.
3 And Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.
4 And Jesus saith unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

Christ had no use for the mere sight-seeker who followed him to view his miracles. He therefore prohibited the man to publish the facts concerning his cure. See the result when Christ's instructions were not followed. Mark 1:45.
Some thought Christ intended to do away with the Law. He found it necessary to refute the suggestion Matt. 5:17. And in this case instructed the leper to carry out the Law for a "testimony unto them." See further Note. Luke 5:14.
6 Cp Dan 10:9.

5 ¶ [a] And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, [a] I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but [f] speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, [h] I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That [k] many shall come from the east and west, and [l] shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But [m] the children of the kingdom [n] shall be cast out into outer darkness: [o] there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 ¶ [p] And when Jesus was come into Peter's house, he saw [s] his wife's mother [t] laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he [u] touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were [x] possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, [b] Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, [c] he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 And [e] a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, [g] suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ [i] And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, [q] O ye of little faith? Then [r] he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 ¶ And when he was come to the other side into the country of the [z] Gergesenes, there met him [v] two [x] possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

16 One word in Greek DAIMONIZOMENOUS (DAIMONIZOMAI) = Demon-possessed. They were believed by the Greeks to induce certain evils and illnesses, especially epilepsy and mental disorders. An explanation of one so "possessed" is given in Acts 16:16. Such "demons" are identified with false gods. 1 Cor. 10:20, 21; Acts 17:18. Cp Lev. 17:7; Deut. 32:17; Ps. 106: 37; 96:5. Such a belief, endorsed by Josephus, led to the statement of Mtt. 9:34.

ANOTHER CALL OF MATTHEW. V 9. See Notes Luke 5:27-28. MK 2:13-14.

B Matthew's call is recorded by all three Synoptists. Mark and Luke call him Levi. Matthew calls himself by his own name. Mark and Luke call him the son of Alphaeus. Matthew does not.

16 Among them was his family for the second time trying to restrain him Mk 3:19.

17 Being absolutely exhausted. See Note p. 93.

18 He was perhaps well known and perhaps imagined in his pompousness that his official rank would make him a more desirable disciple.

19 The Lord tired, exhausted discouraged by the attitude of his family saw through the effervescence of his enthusiasm. Perhaps "in the man's flaring enthusiasm, He saw the smoke of self-egotistical self-deceit."

20 His service was not one of wealth, honor, and delight - but complete self-sacrifice - even in regard to family. "Of a truth the Son of God" He was even then seeking a place for rest.

21 He thus indicated that he did not properly comprehend the call of Christ which demands a covenant as exacting as that of Levi who were not to be defiled for the dead. See Note Deut. 33:9-10. Cp Luke 10:26-28.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, [a] What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou [b] Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the [g] possessed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, [i] they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

CHAPTER 9.

a Christ cureth one sick of the palsy. 9 He calleth Matthew, 10 eateth with publicans and sinners, 14 defendeth his disciples for not fasting, 20 cureth the bloody issue, 23 raiseth from death Jairus' daughter, 27 giveth sight to two blind men, &c.

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into [m] his own city.

2 [n] And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus [r] seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins [s] be forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus [z] knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and [c] glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ [d] And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named [e] Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, [f] many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master [h] with publicans and sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn [k] what that meaneth, [l] I will [m] have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, [m] but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ [o] Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees [q] fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, [s] Can [t] the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the [u] bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and [v] then shall they fast.

wine into old bottles: else [a] the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ [f] While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and [g] worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ And, behold, a woman, which was diseased [m] with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched [n] the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the [s] minstrels and the people making a noise,

24 He said unto them, Give place: [u] for the maid is not dead, but [x] sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But [z] when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And [3] the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶ And when Jesus departed thence, [16] two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, [d] Thou son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then [b] touched he their eyes, saying, [c] According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus [d] straitly charged them, saying, [e] See that no man know it.

31 [v] But they, when they were departed, [w] spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ [18] As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man [i] possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, [o] He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

35 [p] And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, [q] teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 ¶ But [r] when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they [2] fainted, and were scattered abroad, [3] as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, [v] The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;

38 [a] Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will [b] send forth labourers into his harvest.

Christ sendeth out his twelve apostles.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphæus, and Lebbæus, whose surname was Thaddæus;

4 Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not:

6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses,

10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat.

11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;

18 And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.

19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

24 The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?

26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

THEIR ATTITUDE IN MIDST OF ENEMIES. Vv 16-18 Mk 6 Luke 9

24 Innocent and harmless in an hostile world. A sheep is a most cleanly, patient, harmless, useful and expensive kind of animal.

25 Fierce and implacable men. Wolves are crafty, greedy, ravenous, fierce, and of quick smell. Among these the disciples had no defence.

26 See the world in that light. Behave with the utmost prudence, never giving cause for provocation nor needlessly exposing yourself to danger. Rom. 16:17. Eph. 5:15. Col 4:5.

27 It is said that no animal equals the serpent in the rapidity and skill it evinces in escaping danger.

28 Inoffensive, sincere, meek.

29 A serpent - even an harmless one - excites our enmity, but who would kill a dove. Christ corrects the simplicity of the dove by the cunning of the serpent, and the cunning by the simplicity of the dove.

30 There was unlimited scope for Apostolic labours. The Lord "came" in A.D. 70. Matt. 24:27. Thus if persecuted in one city flee to the next, for there are plenty of cities to be served.

TOLERANCE OPPOSITION AND PERSECUTION Vv 23-25.

BE FEARLESS. Vv 26-31.

32 Be bold and fearless in preaching, recognising that whatever they suffer - though hidden from men - is known of God. Whatever accusations are levelled against them V 25 will ultimately be shown in their true light by God. Their justification must come from Him.

33 The same consideration that lead to boldness in preaching, is to preserve carefulness in avoiding hypocrisy. Luke 12:2-9. NTE.

34 In secret, in private.

35 An allusion to the practice in the synagogues. The Law was read solely in Hebrew, and repeated aloud by the interpreter (Targumista) in the common dialect. What Christ spoke to them privately, should be proclaimed openly.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE APOSTLES.

Having witnessed the Lord's methods, heard his discourses, seen his miracles, they are now further instructed before being sent out on a preliminary mission themselves. This would be to fit them for the greater work of preaching later, and so Christ's words include advice for those times when they would meet the active opposition of ruthless enemies.

a John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 Christ's testimony concerning John. 18 The opinion of the people, both concerning John and Christ. 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness and impenitence of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum: 25 and praising his Father's wisdom, 28 he calleth to him all such as feel the burden of their sins.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 [h] Now when John had heard [i] in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou [l] he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 [n] The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and [p] the poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not [r] be offended in me.

7 ¶ And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out [i] into the wilderness to see? [x] A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? [a] A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

CHRIST WILL CONFESS THOSE WHO CONFESS HIM Vv 32-33.

What a contrast! Humble unnamed (whosoever) men and women confess the Christ, and he lifts them out of anonymity to acknowledge them. They confess him on EARTH - he confesses them in HEAVEN. They confess him before MEN. He confesses them before GOD. Let us never minimise or despise any humble labor for Christ. Cp Mark 8:38.

CONFESSING CHRIST INVOLVES SACRIFICE Vv 34-39.

The Jews believed that the coming of Messiah would reveal material prosperity to the land (i.e. Israel. Cp Luke 4:25. - same word) but it brought the destruction of A.D. 70 because of their rejection of him. He directed the Romans against the Jews. Mat. 23:38. 22:7.

3 Christ must be loved supremely or he is not loved at all. We love our own best, by loving Christ first. Cp Eph. 5:22-28. 6:12.

44 This is an allusion to the custom of the Romans who forced criminals to carry their own cross to the execution. Cp John 19:17. Thus speaks of public exhibition of a devoted or dedicated life. 20 ¶ [m] Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, [o] Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in [q] sackcloth and [r] ashes.

22 [a] But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for [c] Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, [n] Capernaum, [d] which art exalted unto heaven, [f] shalt be brought down to hell: [p] for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 ¶ [t] At that time Jesus [k] answered and said, I thank thee, [l] O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, [m] because thou hast hid these things [u] from the wise and prudent, and hast [p] revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 [s] All things [v] are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, [w] save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

28 ¶ Come unto [y] me, all ye that labour and are [z] heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 [a] Take my yoke upon you, and [d] learn of me; for I am [e] meek and lowly in heart: and [f] ye shall find rest [ll] unto your souls.

Darby: "in judgment day." The judgment on Tyre and Sidon was severe. Ezek 26, 28:21 It included severe defeat by invading armies, and the complete overthrow of Tyre. Yet there is to be a latter-day revival of mystical Tyre Isa. 23:18. Those cities of Galilee were to be similarly destroyed with no latter-day revival. They were completely destroyed by the Romans, and in the great earthquake whereas Tyre will be honored, these Galilean cities will be forever blotted out (i.e. their very site). H. WORKING ON THE SABBATH. – Having shown that the Sabbath was not designed to deny men the necessities of life, the Lord proceeds to show that it was a fit occasion for doing the works of God. 1Ch. 23:31. He treated it as a Day of Release. The man with withered hand is prevented by his affliction from fully working for God. Christ's healing influence cured his affliction, released him from the bondage, and equipped him to better serve God.

CHRIST'S TEACHING. 19,20. Though Son of God he exercised his office with meekness, gentleness, and humility, without noise, tumult, or political disturbance. "A bruised reed shall he not break," i.e. he will not bear hard upon a wounded, contrite and truly humble heart, bowed down by a sense of its infirmity. "Smoking flax" – the faintest spark of returning virtue he did not extinguish by severity; but will cherish and encourage the one, and will raise animate and enliven the other, bringing forth judgment to victory.

A PARTIAL CIRCU. OF THE SEA OF GALILEE PREACHING AND HEALING Vv15-21 Mark 3:7-12 Mt.

3 This was a reproof for the Pharisees. David was induced to do what was unlawful by the persecution of Saul. But his criminality, inexcusable as it was, was as much to be imputed to his persecutors as to himself. Thus Saul was the more guilty party, and grievously broke the law by his attitude of needless hatred. This was a worse offence than the breaking of a formalism of the law under pressure of need. The Pharisees in their wickedness were following the example of Saul, though the Lord does not allow that his followers were wrong.

RSV: "Presence."

He is greater than David whose violation of law was excused because of dire need, he is greater than the priests who profane the sabbath and were blameless.

ANOTHER SABBATH HEALING THE MAN WITH THE WITHERED HAND. Parallel Mk 3:1-6. Luke 6:6-11.

Attention is suddenly drawn to this man. Perhaps he came before the Lord mutely drawing attention to his affliction. Perhaps the Pharisees had arranged for him to be there. In any case, he was sitting in the audience Luke 6:7, the centre of attention. The Lord was teaching at the time Luke 6:6.

See the circumstances leading to this question. Luke 6:6-9. Later the Lord made the Pharisees almost ashamed to pose the question they did on this occasion Luke 14:1-6.

Dr Lightfoot quotes Rabbinical sayings in support of this. The law decreed that the sabbath should be a day of release even for inferior animals Exod. 23:12.

They had refused to answer Mk. 3:4. So he boldly replied. And looking around in anger Mk. 3:5 he healed the man.

As the priest had to trim the wicks in the golden lampstand that the light might burn the brighter, so in a figurative sense, the Lord did in regard to the disciples. He carefully and daily ministered to them to bring out the best in them. This trimming of the wick (the flax) is comparable to the pruning of the vine Jhn 15:1-2. It is a painful duty designed to produce the brighter light. He performed the task so skilfully and tenderly so as not to quench the light Mt. 12:20. 1 Thes. 5:19.

18 BEELZEBUB: PRINCE OF DEVILS V.24
The name signifies: the god of the flies. It was the god of Ekron, and it was thought that he had control over the insects that infested those warm climates, and which frequently proved a noisome and deadly plague. The Jews are said to have changed the name to Beelzebul – the god of the dung-heap.
If the Jews accepted the demons as a term descriptive of disease (see Index note), they were sneeringly mocking at Christ, but attributing his success to association with the god of the manure heap.

THE PARABLE OF THE SOWER. This appears to contain an allegory as well as moral teaching. It roughly divides the areas where the Gospel made its appearance. Thus the ministry of the Word, along the path so often trod by the prophets might be compared by the sowing of the seed by the wayside. In Asia Ecclesias quickly sprang up but time revealed that they had little true endurance. In Greece and Rome it encountered many thorns which sprang up to choke the Word. The English-speaking world has produced greater fruit in the last days.

THE same day went Jesus out of [e] the house, and [f] sat by the sea side.

2 [h] And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that [i] he went into [k] a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among [q] thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and [t] brought forth fruit, some [u] an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 [v] Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. Cp Rev. 2,3

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because [y] it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 [a] For whosoever hath, to him [b] shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even [d] that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which saith, [g] By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears [l] are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should [m] be converted, and I should heal them.

16 "But [o] blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, [p] That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ [r] Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word [s] of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh [x] the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and [z] anon [a] with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but [c] dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, [d] by and by [e] he is offended.

WHY SPEAK IN PARABLES?

Vv 10-17. Mk 4:10-12 Luke 8:9-10

This question is evidently out of sequence and posed after he had given several parables. The disciples evidently saw this as the key to all parables, and at the end of the day sought him out to ascertain its meaning. His questioners were not limited to the twelve Mark 4:10.

Those with a seeking mind would be aided in understanding. James 1:5 Ps 25:14.

PARABLE OF MUSTARD SEED Vvt-12. Mk 4:...

The future magnific... was despised.

THE PARABLE OF TARES. — Also contains an allegory as well as a warning. It is an exhortation to vigilance — the tares were sown whilst "men slept" but it is also prophetic of what came to pass. For hypocrites within the Ecclesia as well as an apostate Christendom is here predicted. The Apostles seemed to recognise that. Acts 20:28. 2 Tim. 3:1-5. 4:1-5. 1 Tim. 4:1-3.

THE PARABLE OF LEAVEN. Leaven works secretly, silently but certainly. It is hidden from view but its effect is ultimately seen. So it is with the Kingdom which has been in preparation from the beginning of time. Matt. 25:34.

22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and [a] the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of [c] riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another [h] parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but [z] gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, [d] The kingdom of heaven is like to [a] a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, [b] it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that [d] the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ Another parable spake he unto them; [e] The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in [f] three [g] measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 [i] All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, [j] I will open my mouth in parables; [k] I will utter things which have been kept secret [l] from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into [m] the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us [n] the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 The field is [o] the world; the good seed are [p] the children of the kingdom; but the tares are [q] the children of [r] the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; [s] the harvest is [t] the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 "The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all [u] things that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 And shall [z] cast them into [b] a furnace of fire: [c] there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

THE TARES. — The weed referred to here is a noxious plant peculiar to the east, very like darnel. It resembles the wheat in almost all points until maturity, when it is discovered by some slight differences; such as that it is coarser and less compact; but principally by its want of fruit, a few grains only appearing in a large full ear. It is not only unprofitable but destructive; its seed being mingled with the flour occasioning inebriety, vertigo, and often a lethargic and mortal torpidity. The ancients said that it injured both the head and the eyes. Our tares are a pulse that may be used; but this weed is fit only for fuel.

The future magnitude of that now despised. See Notes Luke 13:18-19.

PROGRESSIVE TEACHING IN THE PARABLES.

1. THE SOWER — Widespread proclamation of the Gospel.
2. THE TARES — Coming discrimination at the Judgment of household and world.
3. THE GOOD SEED (Mark) — The blessing of God on the Righteous. Mtt. 4:26-29.
4. THE MUSTARD SEED — Future magnitude of that at present despised.
5. THE LEAVEN — The influence of the Kingdom message in future

PRACTICAL LESSONS: 1. Take care how we hear. 2. Do not be led astray by tares. 3. The laborer should seek Divine blessing. 4. Small things can produce great results. 5. Divine teaching can be a silent worker.

PARABLES FOR THE DISCIPLES. Vv44-50.
They were spoken "in the house" V36 and they teach the need of 1 Complete self dedification
2 Careful selection of Divine Truth
3 Ultimate discrimination between wicked and just.

1 There is hid treasure to be found. V44
2 We must "sell all" to obtain it. Vv45-46
3 All kinds will seek it. Vv47-50.

43 Then shall [a] the righteous shine forth as the sun in [c] the kingdom of their Father. [d] Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto [h] treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and [k] selleth all that he hath, and [l] buyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found one [o] pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is [r] like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered [s] of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at [x] the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and [z] sever the wicked from among the just,

50 [b] And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, [e] Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every [g] scribe which is [i] instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 [m] And when he was come into [n] his own country, [o] he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they [q] were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these [b] mighty works?

55 [e] Is not this the [f] carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and [g] his brethren, [i] James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they [m] were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, [n] A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And [p] he did not many mighty works there [q] because of their unbelief.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Herod's opinion of Christ. 3 Why John Baptist was beheaded. 15 Christ feedeth five thousand: 22 he walketh on the sea, 34 and healeth the sick by the touch of the hem of his garment.

AT that time [t] Herod [u] the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,

2 And said unto his [v] servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore [a] mighty works [2] do shew forth themselves in him.

3 ¶ For Herod [c] had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, [d] his brother Philip's wife.

4 For John said unto him, [f] It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, [h] he feared the multitude, because they counted him as [k] a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being [p] before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a [r] charger.

nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a [b] charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 ¶ [c] When Jesus heard of it, [d] he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and [g] was moved with compassion toward them, and he [h] healed their sick.

15 ¶ And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and [k] the time is now past; [l] send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; [m] give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and [o] looking up to heaven, [p] he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve [2] baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 ¶ [s] And straightway Jesus [3] constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up [t] into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the [4] fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him [u] walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; [5] and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; [i] be not afraid.

28 And Peter [6] answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, [7] Come. And when Peter was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind [8] boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, [v] O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and [w] worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art [x] the Son of God.

34 ¶ And when they were gone over, they came into the land of [y] Gennesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and »»» Here follows the discourse of Jn 6:25-71 probably at Capernaum.

CHAPTER 15.

3 Christ reproveth the scribes and Pharisees: 11 sheweth what defileth a man. 21 He healeth the daughter of the woman of Canaan, 30 and other great multitudes: 32 and with seven loaves and a few little fishes feedeth four thousand men, beside women and children.

THEN [c] came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress [d] the tradition of [e] the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, [f] Honour thy father and mother: and, [g] He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is [h] a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus [i] have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying,

8 [k] This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines [l] the commandments of men.

10 ¶ And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 [m] Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, [n] Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: [o] they be blind leaders of the blind. And [p] if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered [q] Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 [r] Do not ye yet understand, that [s] whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But [t] those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile [u] the man.

19 For [v] out of the heart proceed [w] evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat [x] with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of [y] Tyre and Sidon.

22 And, behold, a woman of [z] Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, [a] thou son of David; my daughter is grievously [b] vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, [c] Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, [d] I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

THE PHARISEES CRITICISE CHRIST'S DISCIPLES VV1-2. MK 7:1-5 NOTES

1 This custom was so strictly commanded the Jews at this time that to neglect it was to be held guilty of a heavy and capital crime. "He that takes meat," says Rabbi Akibe, "with unwashed hands, is worthy of death." It is said he himself perished by washing his hands, in preference to drinking the water provided for him in prison, when a part of it was carefully spilt" (Treasury)

CHRIST'S ANSWER: "YOU TRANSGRESS" V3. A CASE IN POINT: THE COMMANDMENT. VV4-6 MK 7:10-13

3 The Word of God commanded care of mother and father. Tradition said a man could buy himself out of this obligation by making a gift to the Temple, which would be counted to him as if he had applied it to the support of his parents. Cf note Mark 7:10.

4 The disciples had recently returned from their preaching tour. MK. 6:30. and having experienced the excitement of success possibly were offended themselves in Christ's uncompromising methods. In view of the recent murder of John Baptist there was also an element of danger in antagonising such powerful opponents.

PHARISEES & SADDUCEES SEEK A SIGN. Vv1-4. MK 8:10-12

1 The former, by resting in the typical sacrifices denied the need of Christ's first advent; the latter by their denial of the resurrection denied his second advent. Cp Rom. 10:4. Acts 23:8

So had the Lord, but they were willingly ignorant John 1:11. They may have thought Christ evaded the request for signs before John 6:30. Matt. 12:38 and so returned to the attack.

4 Gr ἐκ - from out of. MK 8:11 = Apo. - from. They evidently wanted some visible manifestation out of heaven. They had already had this - at his baptism: To this he draws their attention.

5 They deliberately closed their eyes to the facts of the times. All the signs pointed to the coming of Messiah: The Messenger Mal. 3:1. The fulfilment of 70 weeks Dan 9:24. They were not ignorant of that. Cp Luke 3:15. See John's testimony. Jn 1:19-27.

See Note! The Pharisees were formalists whose teaching generated pompous self-righteousness or hypocrisy Luke. The Sadducees denied of a resurrection Acts 23. allowed them to wield considerable to efficiency in order to use the ruling power. Herodians were Sadducees MK 3:15. Thus the leaven of both was pompous formalism and political expediency. See over.

PERSONAL CONCEIT Mat. 23:5. Israel had been guilty of the same light-hearted pompousness in worship and ostentatious love of display Amos 4:5. The Ecclesia was warned against it 1 Cor. 5:6-8 for "its glorying was not good."

Leaven caused flour to swell and become light! It works secretly, silently, certainly though none can see its [illegible] progress. So it was with the doctrine of Pharisees which was hypocrisy. Luke 12:1. It concealed the real import of their teaching and by plausible reasoning instilled God-dishonouring principles into the mind. Erroneous doctrine is like leaven in the following respects. 1 They are at first slight and unimportant in appearance. 2 Their true import is subtle and difficult of detecting. 3 Their effects develope gradually. 4 They act most certainly. 5 They will ultimately permeate the whole truth.

TEACHING THE DISCIPLES: BEWARE OF THE LEAVEN OF PHARISEES. Vv5-12. MARK 8:14-21.

9 The coast of Bethsaida. The Lord was travelling towards Caesarea Philippi V.13.

10 These minds became dominated by the need of bread, so that in their hunger for material things they forgot the power of God to provide. Spiritually we can "forget to take bread" and then develop a tendency to covet the food of others.

11 They doubtless saw the one loaf in the boat MK 8:14 and were filled with concern at their oversight. The Lord observing this used the opportunity to press home a salutary warning.

12 As leaven blew up bread, so the doctrines of the Pharisees led to pompous display and

"HE LEFT THEM AND DEPARTED" V.4. There is something final in these words. The Lord left them suddenly, abruptly, hurriedly, so that they forgot to take bread. This was probably caused by the reception he received. In Galilee he found the self-satisfied hypocrites (Pharisees) and political time servers drawn up in array to oppose his labors. V.1. He did not press his mercies on a people who rejected them. As later the nation was permitted to prefer its robber and murderer to the Lord of life so now the Galilaeans were permitted to keep their Pharisees and lose their Christ. He left them, never again to return on a public mission (though he visited the neighborhood once more), to work miracles or to teach and preach.

14 They took the Lord literally. The mutual animosity of the Jewish sects made them avoid, as much as possible, all dealings, even buying and selling with those of the opposite party. This led the apostles to think that Christ was concerned with the provision of literal bread.

15 They had discussed the problem among themselves, and now Christ replies with a series of unanswerable questions.

MtH 17:14-21 NOTES.

THE KEYS OF THE KINGDOM. Christ is the door Jhn 10:9. There are twofold Keys required to open that door to the understanding, namely the sufferings of Christ and the Glory that should follow" 1 Pet. 1:11. Christ proceeded to enlighten the Apostles on these two aspects of truth Mth. 16:21 17:1-2. and later the same Keys were used to enlighten Jews Acts 2,3 and Gentiles Acts 10. The two Epistles of Peter illustrate these Keys. The first is concerned with the sufferings of Christ 1 Pet. 1:11. 2:21 3:17-18. 4:1, 13. The second with the Glory 2 Pet. 1:4, 17. 3:9-13. See Luke 24:25-27.

The Key of office was the symbol of authority and distinction. Isa. 22:22.

THE PHARISEES AND SADDUCEES HAD LOST BOTH KEYS. — The former rejected the principle of the Messiah suffering, the latter the truths of the resurrection and second advent glory. Jews, today, reject the first — Gentiles the second. Our duty is to restore the Keys!

Peter prefers Christ's transfiguration. ST. MATTHEW 17. The lunatick healed.

fore them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him.

4 Then [b] answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: [c] if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 While he yet spake, behold, [f] a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples [i] heard it, they [k] fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and [m] touched them, and said, Arise, and [o] be not afraid.

8 And when they had [q] lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 [t] And as they came down from the mountain, [u] Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that [b] Elias must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and [c] restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but [h] have done unto him whatsoever they [i] listed. Likewise shall also [l] the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of John the Baptist.

14 ¶ [o] And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, [r] kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is [a] lunatick, and sore vexed: for [s] ofttimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and [d] perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I [e] suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus [l] apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: [n] for verily I say unto you, [p] If ye have faith as a [r] grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto [s] this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this [x] kind goeth not out but by [y] prayer and [z] fasting.

22 ¶ [a] And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, [c] The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and [d] the third day he shall be raised again. [f] And they were exceeding sorry.

24 ¶ [g] And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received [2] tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master [k] pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus [m] prevented him, saying, [n] What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take [p] custom or [q] tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

DISCUSSION ON ELIJAH Vs 9-13. Mk 9:9-13. Notes.

THE DEMONIAC DEAF AND DUMB CHILD HEALED Vs 14-21. Luke 9:37-43 Mk 9:14-27 NOTES.

THE DEMONIAC SUFFERS Matt. 17:14-21

His sufferings unto death were for the purpose of:

1 ATONEMENT. As the Lamb of God He was a Representative sacrifice requiring redemption himself 2 Cor. 5:21. Heb. 7:27. 9:12. 13:20. Part of the righteousness required of him was to submit even unto death Jhn. 10:17. The indignities he suffered constituted the repudiation by the Serpent power of the Divine glory it saw revealed. The death the Father permitted him to suffer Acts 2:23. was a public exhibition that the flesh profits nothing 1 Pet 2:24. His resurrection set forth the principle of hope for in acknowledging the flesh to be evil and that God is P p righteous to impose death as wages of sin, and pleading forgiveness in Christ we have hope of the life unto which he attained Cp Isa. 53:4-6, 10-12. Rom. 3:24-26. 4:22-25. 5:6-11. 1 Pet. 1:18-21 2:24. 1 John 2:2. 4:10.

2 FELLOWSHIP SUFFERINGS. - He is touched with feeling of our infirmities - and we have a greater confidence in realisation of his sympathy. Heb. 2:17-18. 4:15-16.

3 CRUCIFIXION OF SELF - Teaching the folly of trust in the flesh Gal. 5:24. 2:20. Rom. 7:12-6.

4 THE POWER OF EXAMPLE - Submission to God's will 1 Pet. 4:1-2. Patient endurance - forgiveness of enemies 1 Pet. 2:20-24.

THE TRIBUTE MONEY. They returned with thoughts filled with the manifestation of glory on the Mt of Transfiguration, with the firm belief that the Kingdom was at hand Luke 19:11 and disputing who would be the greatest therein Luke 9:46. But in Capernaum, a Collector of the Contribution (tobhin shekalim) approached Peter asking if Christ paid the Temple tribute. But if Jesus were Christ and King, and if the Kingdom was about to be set up, why pay taxes? Then Peter, under pressure of the world, spake unadvisedly. He was instructed to submit to authorities Rom 13:1-2. 1Pet 2:13-14. Sent back to his worldly avocation to obtain the money, and found that his labors in that regard were Divinely guided to provide for all that was necessary. Christ's submission to tax paying showed the Kingdom was not at hand. It was also a good lesson in submission for those who argued — Who is the greatest!

ST. MATTHEW 18. Christ teacheth his disciples humility, &c.

17 A yearly tax claimed on the basis of Ex 30:13. But there the LXX = "Half of a didrachma. Here = "a didrachma." Thus the Temple authorities were demanding twice that required by the law - which did not legislate for it to be paid yearly anyway. But Christ submitted. Yet, later ordered this to be paid into the Roman Treasury (Jos. War. 7:6.)

15 Lit. Teacher. Some Rabbis were exempt from the Tax (Farrar) but Peter's answer showed that Christ submitted.

Different word. Gr. Kensos. Latin Census. Registration involved taxation.

17 Romans were exempt from tribute imposed by others. Christ's use of this term instead of didrachma shows that there was no justification for the levy. It was a tax levied on foreigners. The Kingdom was his, the Temple was his - he should be exempt.

18 Though they have no real genuine claim to levy such taxes, pay them - it violates no principle. Rom 13:1-2. 1Pet 2:13-14.

19 Peter is sent back to his occupation to provide for what is required.

20 His labors are Divinely guided to provide for all needs. What they are is nothing in the sight of God. Ps 146:3. Mk 8:25.

It is quite common for fish to pick up bright objects in their mouths.

CHAPTER 18.

WHO IS THE GREATEST? A LESSON IN HUMILITY. Vv 1-6. LUKE 9:47-48. MK 9:33-37 NTE.

They had been arguing as to who among them was the greatest Luke 9:46. Perhaps the selection of Peter, James & John for the Transfiguration led to this. They agree to submit the question to the Lord, but couch it in different words leaving out the personal angle. Christ answered with a question Mk 9:33, which brought their true motive to the light of day and silenced them.

Strepho = Turn around from previous pompousness. Faithful and trusting. See Note to Mt. 17:20.

Not even get in — let alone being the greatest.

WOE TO THE WORLD. V. 7.

Woe came on the Jewish world because of this baiting of Christ and his disciples. Mt 23:34

See Note. Mk 9:42.

It is predicted Acts 2:23.

1 At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? Cp Mk 9:34. Lk 22:24.

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, Mk 9:36

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye [p] be converted, and [q] become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And [r] whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6 [s] But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea. See Jesus' interruption Mk 9:38-40

7 ¶ Woe unto the world because of [t] offences! [=] for it must needs be that offences come; [u] but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh! = Activity Word

8 [v] Wherefore if [w] thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or [x] maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. Cp Jude 7.

PETER'S RETURN. V.21. - A feeling of jealousy had developed among the 12. (See Note p. 97) probably induced by the way Christ singled out individual disciples. Cp Ch. 16:18, 17:1, Mk 5:37. This jealousy seemed particularly aimed at Peter who was more prominent than the others. In his absence to obtain the tax money Ch 17:24-27, the disciples approached Christ with their question Ch. 18:1. (See Notes Mk 9:33-37) during which John interrupted his discourse on humility. Mk 9:38. This merged into instruction on the forgiveness of sins. Meanwhile Peter had returned to ask the question of Matth 18:21.

if two of you shall agree on earth as touching [a] any thing that they shall ask, [b] it shall be done for them of [c] my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together [d] in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, [e] how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? [f] till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, [g] Until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would [1] take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand [2] talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be [i] sold, and his wife, and [m] children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and [3] worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred [4] pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and [3] besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou [o] desiredst me:

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAPTER 19.

[a] Christ healeth the sick: 3 answereth the Pharisees concerning divorcement: 10 treateth of marriage: 13 receiveth little children: 16 instructeth how to attain eternal life, 20 and how to be perfect, &c.

AND it came to pass, [k] that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from [n] Galilee, and came [o] into the coasts of Judæa beyond Jordan;

2 [p] And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 ¶ The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man [q] to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that [r] he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, [s] For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and [t] they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

CHAPTER 19.

FINAL DEPARTURE FROM GALILEE V.1-2 MK 10:1.

1 Teleō - to complete, perfect, bring to an end. This was not at the point mentioned at the end of the previous chapter but some 6 mths later. Matthew omits details given by Luke possibly because they are similar to those he has already recorded. e.g. Mk 10:35, Luke 17:14.

2 Logos - his teaching. After completing his teaching in Galilee.

3 There is a finality about the RSV: "he went away."

4 He had ascended up from Ephraim John 11:54 through Samaria then east along border of Galilee to Perea then south to Jerusalem Luke 17:11.

5 Erchomai - to go or come. Bull. = here - to go. Thus he 'went.'

6 Epi = toward. He had thus travelled down Perea and was probably at Bethany beyond Jordan. John 1:28 R.V. 10:40.

7 Some, including a company of women, had attached themselves to the Lord in Galilee Mk 15:41. others now flocked to the place where John had previously taught John 10:41 and the Lord had previously performed miracles.

DISPUTE ON DIVORCE

Vv 3-9. Mk 10:2-9.

Wherever the ministry of Jesus became public there were

Here is the answer to what is lawful.

10 Mal 2:16.

The Pharisees tempted him V.3.

The Lord was in the same territory where he had answered the taunts of the Pharisees by accusing them of breaking the spirit of the Law and had proved this by reference to their teaching on divorce Luke 16:17-18. See note Top p. 95.

Now they return to the charge.

29 the Pharisees watching, lying in wait for him, tempting him, trying to entrap him into some mistaken judgment or rumour decision.

8 This was a question fraught with difficulties. The nation was divided between the schools of Hillel (Divorce for anything) and Shammai (only in the case of scandalous unchastity), but in addition the Lord was in the district of Herod who had beheaded John because of his pronouncement on divorce.

Divorce was then common, not only in Palestine but throughout the Empire. Seneca declared that women no longer reckoned their years by the consuls, but by the number of their repudiated husbands. Even Josephus, a man who laid claim to a devout & religious life, had 3 wives.

See additional Notes. Mk 10:2-9.

MARRIAGE IS INDISSOLUBLE (except for one cause).

1 Because it is a Divine institution V.4
2 By express command V.5
3 Because God has yoked them together V.6.
4 Illustrated by example first couple V.8.
5 Because of evil consequences attendant upon it V.9.

A WRITING OF DIVORCEMENT. V.7.

The two great schools of thought: (See Notes) were sharply divided over the interpretation of Deut. 24:1-3 and particularly the word ervath (uncleanness). The Lord's answer showed that the school of Shammai was morally right but exegetically wrong (for Moses' regulation was to guard against hardness of heart" - not adultery) whilst Hillel was exegetically right but morally wrong.

The Lord restored the subject of marriage to its right standing rejecting the principle, endorsed by both schools, that under certain circumstances divorce was a duty.

V.4 RVmg "maketh her an adulteress." See Peshitta, Codex Ephraemi, Coptic Version, Origen, Clement. See Nat. Marriage p.65

11 Moses by civil regulations sought to restrain their licentiousness and callousness, for Divorce comes from sinfulness, violates nature. To please God we must avoid it. So the Lord repudiated alike the schools of Hillel and Shammai and set before them the Divine viewpoint

12 This boldly supported the earlier declaration of John that Herod Antipas (in whose territory the Lord now was) was an adulterer - and it warned Jews guilty of the same thing of their standing in God's sight. They had asked: "Is it lawful ..." V.1. They knew what the Law had to say of adultery.

13 There was no answer to this and the Pharisees apparently retired publicly rebuked to plot further attacks equally malicious and equally fatile.

XIX. For the disciples conversation in the house Cp MK 10:10.

Aitia - Cause V.3. = Accusation

Bull. = profitable. If a man cannot put his wife away for any cause, if marriage is so restrictive, if it is so binding, then it is better not to marry. - granting more freedom. profitable to what? True discipleship.

16 Some are so completely dedicated to discipleship that they become "eunuchs for Christ's sake" 1 Cor. 7:5 Isa. 56:4 Reason 1 Cor. 7:32-33. Nevertheless marriage is honorable Heb. 13:4 Eph. 5:25 and therefor, where no impediment to marriage exists, and a person does not want to avoid it to dedicate himself to Kingdom work, he needs to acknowledge the truth of Gen. 2:18 and submit to the law of marriage with its discipline.

17 This is the answer to the question, namely where the restrictions of Vv 9 11 12 do not apply men should marry. Note that Paul's apparently contradictory counsel is governed by 1 Cor. 7:26 See Gr. V.16

No man is inherently good - not even Jesus. (Rom 3:10-12 3:6-7). All goodness is derived from an outward source (Daniel 1:17) The young man regarded Jesus in the sense in which the Rabbis, Poets and Philosophers of Greece were regarded - Men popularly supposed to have light and good in them as inherent qualities did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the [b] hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. (of creation. MK 10:6 top left)

9 [c] And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and ~~shall marry another~~, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 ¶ His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, [i] it is not good to marry. (Meta = in association with)

11 But he said unto them, [k] All men cannot [l] receive this saying, [m] save they to whom [n] it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, [p] which were made eunuchs of men: and [r] there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ [t] Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them. (See additional explanatory words 19:13)

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for [u] of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ And, behold, [a] one came and said unto him, Good [b] Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life? (echō = to grasp, implying lasting possession)

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but [f] if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, [g] Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 [c] Honour thy father and thy mother: and, [d] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be [f] perfect, [x] go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and [h] thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me. (for this Christ did. 2 Cor 8:9)

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That [o] a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. (with difficulty - Diog.)

24 And [q] again I say unto you, It is easier for a [s] camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus [u] beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is impossible; but [x] with God all things are possible.

27 ¶ Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have [z] forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore? (The covenant of Levi. Stek)

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the [c] regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, [d] ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, [e] judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Of the labourers in the vineyard. 17 Christ foretelleth his passion: 20 teacheth his disciples to be lowly, 30 and giveth sight to two blind men,

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a [1] penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the [f] eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, [g] Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So [d] when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his [e] steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against [b] the goodman of the house,

12 Saying, These last [2] have [d] wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and [e] heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, [g] Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take [h] that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 [k] Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye [l] evil, because I am [m] good?

16 So [n] the last shall be first, and the first last: [o] for many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ [p] And Jesus [q] going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 Behold, [r] we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be [s] betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

19 And shall deliver him [u] to the Gentiles to [x] mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and [z] the third day he shall rise again.

20 ¶ [a] Then came to him the mother of [b] Zebedee's children with her sons, [c] worshipping him, and desiring [1] a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons [f] may sit, the one [g] on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

MATT. 21:5. The Ass/Mule symbol of ancient pastoral condition of nation. Used by Abraham Gen. 22:3, 5. Moses Exod. 4:20. Judges, Kings, as symbol of rank (Judges 5:10. 10:4. 12:14. 2 Sam. 16:1-4. 1 Kings 1:33,38). Horse introduced from Egypt and is symbol pride and power (Josh 11:6. Ps. 33:17). Reference to horses in Scripture is invariably to warhorse. The humble Ass or Mule was despised by Egyptians. Israel was identified with it, and represented as worshipping Ass's head (See Josh. Apion 1:7). Heb = "Hemer" meaning "hot." It was a high spirited animal. The firstling of an Ass alone redeemed under law by lamb. Exod. 13:13.

There are two words used for Ass: Onos (the usual word) and Hupozugion = Under the yoke from Hupo - Under, and zugos, a yoke. The two words are used in MT. 21:5: "sitting upon an ass (onos) . . . the colt the foal of an ass (Hupozugion). See also 2 Pet. 2:16.

ST. MATTHEW 21. Christ's entry into Jerusalem.

[a] the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with [b] the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, (d) Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, [h] but it shall be given to them for whom it is [i] prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, [k] Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles [l] exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but [m] whosoever will be great among you, let him be your [n] minister;

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant:

28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, [r] but to minister, and [s] to give his life a ransom for [t] many.

29 [u] And as they [z] departed from [y] Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 ¶ And, behold, [a] two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, [d] because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David.

32 And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?

33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and [c] touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem. 12 He driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple.

AND [e] when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to [f] Bethphage, unto [g] the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 [m] All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 [p] Tell ye the daughter of Sion, [q] Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they set him [z] thereon.

8 And a very great multitude [b] spread their garments in the way; others [c] cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And [d] the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, [e] Hosanna to the son of David: [f] Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna [g] in the highest.

10 [h] And when he was come into Jerusalem, [i] all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus [k] the prophet of [l] Nazareth of Galilee.

HEALING OF THE BLIND MTH 20:30-34. MK 10:46-52. LUKE 18:35-43.

Luke reports it as having happened before the Lord entered Jericho, Mark claims it happened afterwards and names the blind man, Matthew say the miracle involved two men. It is also obvious from Luke 19:5. that Christ stopped overnight in Jericho. What happened was probably this. On approach to Jericho the miracle recorded by Luke took place. Overnight the Lord stopped with Zacchaeus. Knowledge of the miracle would meanwhile sweep the city. On departing therefrom two more blind men adopt the same procedure, one being well known (Bartimeaus) and acting as spokesman. The Lord ignores their pleas. The blind men cry out louder than ever. The crowd commence to tell them to keep silent, at which point the second miracle is performed.

It is also stated that [illegible] may be rendered: "When he was nigh Jericho" which is as true of him who has gone a little way from it as he who is about to enter it. But it seems obvious that Luke records a miracle that [illegible] Jesus entered the city.

They were trying to trap him to accuse and destroy him Luke 7:44. 11:49-57. 12:10. MK 11:18 Judas had already conspired to that end MT.26:14. The charge had to be one of blasphemy based on the claim that he was the Son of Yahweh. Mat.26:63. He could claim to be a son of Elohim, of David without this charge being pressed and whilst Jesus did not forbid them

Purging of the temple. ST. MATTHEW 21. Parable of the two sons. (see before)

12 ¶ [a] And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the [c] tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold [e] doves,

13 And said unto them, It is written, [f] My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it [h] a den of thieves.

14 And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them. (Jhn 11:1 to Note)

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, [k] Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased, (Mat 23:39)

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, [m] Out of the mouth of [n] babes and sucklings thou hast [o] perfected praise? (See Psa 8:2)

17 ¶ And he left them, and went out of the city into [r] Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 [s] Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered. (The way like)

19 And when he saw (2) a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away. (RSV — "at once")

20 [u] And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away! (ANTICIPATORY = 12th ABIB. See Mark 11:20)

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, [x] Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and [a] doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto [d] this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And [b] all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶ [d] And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, (1) By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things. (John's testimony. Jhn 1:29, 34.)

25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they [l] reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; [p] we fear the people; for all hold John as [q] a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things. (See Note above)

28 ¶ [t] But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day [v] in my vineyard. (Cp Isa 5:1-7)

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he [z] repented, and went. (Cp Luke 3:12.)

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. (Cp Mat 3:7.)

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the [b] publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

PSALM 8 Quoted V 16 This, with many other Messianic Psalms in the LXX is designated eis to telos — "on the end." This particular Psalm indicates the use of the Messianic title "Son of Man." The LXX has: "A Psalm of David concerning the secrets of the Son."

33 THE PRIESTS' QUESTION (Rehob ch 1:5) thus addressing him MK. 21:15. he did warn the disciples not to broadcast his claim to be the Christ the Son of God (Yahweh) for the nation was not ready to receive it. Cp MK. 16:15, 20. 17:9. It could have been that Judas disclosed this confession to the priests which formed the basis of their accusation and condemnation.

3 MONDAY 12th ABIB
• On way into city discusses withered fig tree MK. 11:20
1 JESUS AUTHORITY CHALLENGED VV 23-27. MK. 11:27-33. LUKE 20:1-8

21 RSV: Entered. He was "walking" therein. MK. 11:27. and as the people began to flock around him, he taught them Luke 20:1.
22 Probably members of the Sanhedrim. If they could get Jesus to admit that he was the Son of Yahweh, they had grounds for a charge of blasphemy. But "his hour had not yet come."
23 Entering the city as a King, cleansing the Temple, teaching in its courts.
24 RSV: "argued." RSV Luke 20:5: = discussed." So, caught by the astute question, they argued and discussed it whilst Christ and the people waited the answer! They did not ask among themselves What is Truth, but how to get out of their dilemma. See their earlier query on this point John 1:25. His rebuke of them. MK 3:7-11.
25 Who might stone us. Luke 20:6.

2 PARABLE OF THE TWO REBELLIOUS SONS. V 28
26 Thus this parable is based upon the previous discussion between Christ & Pharisees.
27 He was blatantly defiant & boldly rebellious & therefore dishonoring to his Father. He answers to the publicans and harlots.
28 He was hypocritical professing something he did not do, openly respecting, but inwardly indifferent, not moved by a true love.
29 It is not the mere profession of Truth that counts but a practical manifestation of it. Rom 2:13. 15. James 1:21-23. Cp Gen 3:24. 6. Exod 12:13, Num 9:12. 16. 17. 14:4. 23. 22:4. 24:14, 23.
• Note the smooth polite reply of the hypocrite with the rough, blunt refusal of his brother.
And note V 31 "before you" that in the mercy of the Father there was still time and opportunity for repentance.

PARALLELISM OF THE PARABLES. In the discourse of the Lord from Mat. 21:28 to end of Mt. 25 The Jews are ARRAIGNED AND CONDEMNED by Parable, by Precept and by Prophecy in five distinct discourses, each series of which are divided into 3 sections with a fourth connecting it with the next series (1st SERIES: Parables mainly connected with the first advent: 1 - The two Sons Ch. 21:28-32. 2 - The Householder etc Ch 21:33-46. 3 - The Marriage Ch 22:1-10 4 - The Wedding Garment (part of the parable Vv. 11-14) in which the despisers of the King are rendered speechless and which is therefore a fitting introduction to the series of Questions which followed the answers to which left the accusers of the Lord speechless: 2nd SERIES: Enemies rendered speechless 1 - The worldly-minded Herodians Ch. 22:15-22. 2 - The infidel Sadducees Vv 23-33 3 - The self-righteous Pharisees Vv. 34-40. 4 -

31 Implying there is a close connection between belief (faith) and practise. The unrepentant state of mind not only prevents the acceptance of vital Truth, but of worthy actions.

3 THE PARABLE OF THE HOUSEHOLDER, THE HUSBANDMEN & THE SON

Vv 33-46. Mk. 12:1-12. Luke 20:9-19

32 They had already been subjected to public exposure and would doubtless feel most uncomfortable as this new parable commenced.

In this parable opposition v. 10 blossoms out into open rebellion and destruction.

33 He separated the nation and protected it Deut 7:1-8. by the law.

The ordinances of worship the provision of Tabernacle & Temple allowed for the production of fruits.

He set over it watchmen. Ezek. 3:17. Hab. 2:1.

The priests - Leaders of the nation.

Mk. 12:4 adds: "Treated him shamefully" - which simply and powerfully expresses Israel's treatment of the prophets.

Illustrative of Yahweh's increasing concern.

Mk. 12:6 - "A beloved Son" Gn 22:2, 12, 16. Mt 3:17.

Show respect towards, humble oneself before. So to the chagrin of the priests he publicly made known their secret intentions Mk. 11:18.

Thus he predicted what was to happen a couple of days later.

RSV: "He will put those wretches to a miserable death." They were forced to say this before the crowds and thus pass judgment on themselves. In Mark - Luke the Lord adds his confirmation of this, and as the significance became apparent to the priests they were forced to exclaim "God forbid!" Luke 20:16. This called forth Christ's comment of V. 42.

Looking steadily at them Luke 20:17.

Part of the Passover Psalm they were about to sing!

The householder went away "for a long time" Luke 20:9 and servants were sent singly. The son is also a "beloved son" V 14 and the Jewish leaders grasp the point of the parable ejaculating: "God forbid" V 16.

and ye believed him not: but the [a] publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, [c] repented not afterward, that ye might believe him. Cp Deut. 32:21

33 ¶ Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted (A) a vineyard, and (B) hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and [i] went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, [l] that they might receive the fruits of it. Cp Deut 32:6-8. 2 Tim. 2:6-7.

35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and (M) beat one, and (N) killed another, and (P) stoned another.

36 Again, he sent [q] other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will [s] reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is [v] the heir; come, (E) let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 [b] And they caught him, and cast him [c] out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They say unto him, [g] He will miserably destroy those wicked men, [h] and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, (K) The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, [b] The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. (as the Jews did)

44 And whosoever (C) shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, (D) it will grind him to powder. Isa 8:14 + Dan. 2:34,35,44

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. Cp Luke 8:19.

2 [s] The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a [t] marriage for his son,

3 And sent forth his servants [x] to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth [a] other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my [d] dinner: [e] my oxen and my [f] fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them [i] spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth [l] his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready.

THE PARABLE OF THE MARRIAGE FEAST COMPARED WITH THAT OF THE SUPPER. LUKE 14:16-24.

In Matthew it is a command, in Luke an invitation; in Matthew they are rebels, in Luke they are discourteous; in Matthew they are destroyed, in Luke they are shut out. The offence being greater, the doom is more dreadful. In Luke the excuses pretended are all ultimate in themselves, but such as should have given place to the invitation — in Matthew their crimes are revealed.

Of tribute to Cæsar. ST. MATTHEW 22. The Sadducees silenced.

but they which were bidden were not [b] worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, [d] both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man [h] which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, [k] Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he [l] was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the [m] servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and [n] cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 [o] For many are called, but few are chosen.

15 ¶ [p] Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the [q] Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for [z] thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give [y] tribute unto [z] Cæsar, or not?

18 But Jesus [b] perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye [c] hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, [a] Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The same day came to him the [e] Sadducees, [f] which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, Moses said, [g] If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the [2] seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, [q] not knowing the scriptures, nor [r] the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection [t] they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are [u] as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 [a] I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, [d] they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Pharisees had heard that he had [e] put [f] the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which [1] was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

9 CHRIST'S QUESTION: WHAT THINK YE OF CHRIST? Vv 41-46 Mk 12:35-37 Luke 20:41-44

As he was the Word made flesh, the Law & the Prophets in the midst of Israel, he now drew attention to himself as one they should hear and heed.

Christ now calls the attention of his interrogators to himself as the Word which they should hear Mk. 12:29. We are to think of what he is & does for us. Heb 3:1, 12:2. His example Eph 5:2, 1 Pet 2:21, Heb 12:1. As forerunner. Heb 11:39, 6:20.

Demonstrating that he was more than mere man. See Jhn 16:28. He is thus hinting at Peter's great confession Mt. 16:16. - & truth the people were not yet ready to receive - & which provided the ground of his condemnation Jn. 5:18, 6:63. But see 2 Sam. 7:14

40 An eloquent silence followed the question - to the embarrassment of his enemies

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [c] for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one [f] proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of [h] hell than yourselves.

beatitude: Pure Children of God We are called to be Temples 2 Cor. Believers were once shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

17 Ye [2] fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by [e] the gift that is upon it, he is [2] guilty.

19 Ye [f] fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or [g] the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by [m] him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by [o] the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 [p] Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and [3] anise and cummin, and [q] have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 [a] Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! [r] for ye make clean the outside of the [h] cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and [k] excess.

26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 [s] Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto [t] whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of [u] all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 [b] Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and [d] garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that [h] ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 [i] Fill ye up then the [k] measure of your fathers.

33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of [n] hell?

34 ¶ [p] Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and [v] scribes: and [s] some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and [t] some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and [z] persecute them from city to city:

35 That [y] upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous [z] Abel unto the blood of [a] Zacharias son of [c] Barachias, whom ye slew between the [c] temple and the [f] altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O [i] Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that [j] killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have [m] gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens [o] under her wings, and ye would not!

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, [w] Blessed is

"ONE IS YOUR MASTER" V.8. – Didaskalos = Teacher. The word is used of teachers in the Ecclesias (Acts 13:1 Eph 4:11. Heb 5:12 Eph 4:11 1 Tim 2:7. 2 Tim 1:11), but the words of Christ show that such must reveal Christ to the people. Jhn 16:1. and a heavy responsibility rests upon them to do so. Jam 3:1. It was not to be used as an empty official title.

FATHER V.9. – Whilst the official title is to be avoided, experienced brethren are to reveal the attributes of the Father by nourishing and guiding those under them, caring for his spiritual children 1 Cor. 4:15. who are theirs also. Phil. 2:20 1 Tim. 1:2. thus the Apostles acknowledged the status if not the title. 1 Jhn 2:18. There is a tremendous responsibility on such to reveal the Father to their brethren.

Vv 34-36 – Proclaimed privately in Luke 11:49-51 – here publicly.
Vv 37-39 – Previously proclaimed in Perea. Luke 13:34-35 – here in Jerusalem.

8th Beatitude: Peacemakers. children of God 5:9. We are called to be living Temples 2 Cor. 6:16. Sepulchres were annually whitened before Passover to prevent people inadvertently touching them & becoming defiled. It was normally the rich for whom sepulchres were built the graves of the poor were often so permitted to fall into neglect that "they appeared not" and men walked over them unknowingly & were defiled. In Luke 11:44 the Lord likened the Pharisees to these graves – for they defiled people by their presence without the people knowing it.

THE PUBLIC REBUKE

Such forthright language as Mt. 23. involved a final and hopeless rupture V 39. After language such as this there could be no reconciliation, and it must have startled and dismayed the disciples as much as any others. 3 ¶ And as he sat upon [n] the mount of Olives, [o] the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what [p] shall be the sign of thy coming, and of [r] the end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, [s] Take heed that no man deceive you. (+1 Lk)

5 For [u] many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; [x] and shall deceive many. (2) +1 Lk

6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that [y] ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

ROMAN INVASION

Romans erected image & swine over southern gate of Temple. Jupiter erected on site. Temple. Jerusalem became pagan city.

The Romans under Cestius Gallus were successful in their initial attack, but to amazement Jewish leaders (and especially Josephus who realized weakness of Jewish defence) they were suddenly and unexpectedly withdrawn.

Neh. 13:19. It would have been difficult and dangerous. Christians already looked upon as anti-Moses, and to attempt a flight on Sabbath would have incited trouble.

i.e. the Siege. There were many things that could have protracted it and resulted in extermination. Jewry. The strength of Jerusalem, the advice Titus' generals starve it out, the bitter hatred of the Romans — but God overlooked result. For a time Titus crucified 500 Jews daily.

Diag. Even the elect

v. 20. The initial siege took place at the commencement of October 66 when the weather was yet mild & favorable for travelling. The final siege, if any Christians lingered ... till then, took place in the still more favorable months of April, May.

Jerusalem was first besieged by Cestius Gallus, president of Syria in AD 66 — but he withdrew amid successful assaults by pursuing Jews confirming them in their wickedness — but a salutary warning to believing Christians.

THE 3 QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

The End of the Age Vv 4-14.
The sign of when "these things shall be" Vv 15-28
The Sign of the parousia Vv 29-36

Vespasian was deputed in the room of Cestius. He subdued the country & prepared to besiege the city. But the death of Nero then Galba and the disturbances that followed & the civil wars between Otho & Vitellius Acts Vespasian & Titus in suspence. Thus the city was not actually besieged until Vespasian was established in power and the command given Titus who fulfilled ... This was the Christians opportunity.

CHAPTER 25.

1 The parable of the ten virgins, 14 and of the talents. 31 A description of the last judgment.

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 [m] Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

THE ANOINTING AT BETHANY AND TREACHERY OF JUDAS. Vv 6-16. (MK. 14:4-9)

The proper chronological order is given by John (ch 12). Matthew & Mark, having discontinued the history after Jesus left Jericho until his entry into Jerusalem Mat 21:1. delay referring to these incidents until they specifically treat with the treachery of Judas. Her devotion is contrasted with his cold-hearted iniquity. To anoint the head was customary Ps 23:5. Ecc. 9:8. expressive of love Ps 133:1-2. separation Exod. 30:29 respect. Luke 7:46. To pour it on the feet was uncommon, was a mark of humility and respect expressing her reverence for the Messiah Ps 2:2-6, God manifest in flesh Cp Exod. 30:32. This was the Gospel proclaimed by Mary's action. Mt 26:13.

Christ eateth the passover.

3 [a] Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the [b] palace of the high priest, who was called [c] Caiaphas, [4] consult that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ [d] Now when Jesus was in [e] Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, John 12:1.

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But when [g] his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for [h] much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For [i] ye have the poor always with you; but [j] me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my [k] burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told [l] for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ [m] Then one of the twelve, called [n] Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, [o] What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they [p] covenanted with him for [q] thirty pieces of silver. – Zech 11:12 NTE

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ [r] Now [s] the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city [t] to such a man, and say unto him, [u] The Master saith, [v] My time is at hand; I will [w] keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had [x] appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and [ac] began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, [ad] He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me. – Cp Ps 41:9.

24 [ae] The Son of man goeth [af] as it is written of him: but [ag] woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it [ah] had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, [ai] answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ [aj] And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and [ak] blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; [al] this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and [am] gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my [an] blood of the new testament, which is shed for [ao] many [ap] for the remission of sins.

Spikenard – "genuine nard" ASV. "It was the costliest anointing oil of antiquity, and was sold throughout the Roman Empire, where it fetched a price that put it beyond any but the wealthy." (Com. B.)

Mark adds "they reproached her" (RSV) MK 14:5.

Mary's act is the anointing for the coronation of the King. Jesus honors the deed by connecting it with his – the Savior King's burial anointing. Cp 2 Chr. 16:14

1 JUDAS AGREES TO BETRAY HIM. Vv 14-16. MK 14:10-11 NTE

Tote = At that time. So this occurred on the Sabbath before Jhn 12. The day the lamb was to be inspected. Judas thus represented Judah carefully inspecting the Lamb for blemishes.

1 TO THE GUEST-ROOM Vv 17-19. MK 14:12-16 NTE LUKE 22:7-13.

Mish. Sanh. 4:1: "No trial for capital charge may be held on a sabbath, or festival or on the preceding day." The Hebrew Passover – J.B. Segal p 13. The trial had to be held earlier though the execution could take place at the festival. See p. 149 (bottom)

THE CONSPIRACY. – The leaders left the encounter with Jesus Mat 22. seething with anger. Not only had they been silenced one by one, not only had they been forced to confess their ignorance of scripture Mt 22:46. but they had been publicly humiliated in the very citadel of their sanctity – the Temple. This had to cease! The very vigor of Christ's testimony united all enemies against him – Pharisees, Sadducees, Herodians, Priests Scribes. They met together to formulate their policy. He must die! But die in such a way as to demonstrate that he was not the Christ. To have him executed on the stake of shame by the Romans would accomplish this purpose.

But not on the festival for that would excite an uproar among the people. Actually, with the vast crowds gathered in Jerusalem at this time, it would be the best for their purpose if it could be done stealthily. See e.g. Acts 21:23. And the best time before the festival, before the crowds dispersed, so that news of it could be carried throughout the land.

"Through the Mishna tract "Sanhedrin" we learn" (IX, 4) that one who knows letters (Cp John 7:14-15) one versed in the Scriptures must not be executed through the Tribunal of his own town; rather must he be brought to the high court in Jerusalem. There he must be held prisoner till the festival & there be executed. for it is written: "All Israel shall hear and fear & not trespass henceforth" (Deut. 17:13) Cp Luke 23:27

WARNING OF BETRAYAL Vv 20-25 MK 14:17-21 JHN 13:21

Opsia = Late. After sundown.

Including Judas who had returned from his conference with the Jews & who must have been most uneasy in the presence of Christ.

He had already hinted at this Jhn 13:10. but at this moment the traitor's presence so wrought upon him John 13:21 that he expressed himself more plainly.

This question showed that the full import of the question had not been appreciated. They did not realize the extent of the betrayal.

When Covenants were made it was the custom of the two parties to eat together of the flesh of the sacrifice Gen. 31:46. 26:28-30. Exod. 24:5, 11 Heb. 9:16.

Here was extreme hypocrisy and impudence! Note his use of title "Rabbi" or Teacher in contrast to the others "Lord." V 22 Judas possibly tried to cover up by the question

The others probably did not hear or understand this. As for Judas, he was probably taken aback – but what could he do?

30 a And when they had sung an (2) hymn, b they went out into the mount of Olives.
31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be c offended (3) because of me this night: for it is written, I will d smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.
32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee. The angels reminded the disciples of this 33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, e yet will I never be offended.
34 Jesus said unto him, f Verily I say unto thee, That this night, g before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.
35 Peter said h unto him, i Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.
36 ¶ j Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called k Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder. Leaves 3 John
37 And he took with him Peter and l the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy. In anguish Ps. 69:20
38 Then saith he unto them, m My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.
39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and n prayed, saying, o O my Father, if it be possible, let this p cup pass from me: nevertheless q not as I will, r but as thou wilt.
40 And s he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, t What, could ye not u watch with me one hour?
41 (10) Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: (11) the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.
42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not (Note 35) pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. v Ac 4:0-1-8. Heb. 10:7-10.
43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were w heavy. (4)
44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.
45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on x now, and take your rest: behold, y the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Gentile or Jew who acted like such Gal. 2:15
46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me. Treachery within!
47 ¶ z And while he yet spake, lo, a Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and b staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.
48 Now he that betrayed him c gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast. Phileo
49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, d master; and (12) kissed him. Kataphileo
50 And Jesus said unto him, e Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. Prag - Companion Additional words Luke 22:48
51 And, behold, f one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew g his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear Additional words John 18:11
52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for h all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. Absolutely last John 7:46
53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me i more than twelve legions of angels? If / request this 54 But how then shall j the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?
55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.
56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

CHRIST'S AGONY IN THE GARDEN - Christ had to drink the cup of sufferings to its dregs. This involved not merely physical pain + death, but also witnessing the most vile sin ever committed + this by a people he had come to save. In rejecting him they rejected Yahweh Cp Mt. 10:40. John 13:20. He had already wept over Jerusalem in his emotion at their disobedience of the people, and at his knowledge of what would happen to it Luke 19:41-44. Cp Rom. 9:1-3. And now, acutely sensitive to the vileness + enormity of sin (such as we who sin cannot comprehend) he had to witness and personally participate in the terrible shame of Israel's rejection of both Yahweh + himself. The reproaches to be heaped upon him were reproaches uttered against his Father and they broke his heart Ps 69:20. 116:3.
The fact that these things were predicted did not make the sorrow of their realisation any less keen. If Jeremiah with the same knowledge could speak of his heart being broken because of the prophets' Jer. 23:9 and could pour out such heart-rending lamentations because his prophecies were fulfilled Jer. 9:1. Lam. 1:12, how great or was the agony of Christ who had to witness:
1 One of the Apostles betray him with a kiss 2 The high priest pervert the Law 3 The people prefer a murderer to their Messiah 4 His own Apostles deny him + flee from his presence 5 The nation commit spiritual suicide, to bring about its rejection + suffering.
Christ prayed not to escape death (for cp John 12:24,32. John 3:14. 1 Tim. 1:15) but that the cup of witnessing all this sadness and sin might be taken from him for he intensely + personally felt the failings of those he came to save.
His feelings at this time were for others: for the Apostles Luke 22:31-32. for the nation Mt. 23:37; for scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I [a]sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the [f]scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then [k] all the disciples [m] forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to [q]Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the [s]servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all [x] the council, sought false witness [y] against Jesus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many [y] false witnesses came, Yet found they none. At the last came [z] two false witnesses,

61 And said, This fellow said, [a] I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

63 But [b] Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, [i] I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, [k] Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting [m] on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is [b] guilty [c] of death.

67 Then did they [c] spit in his face, and [f] buffeted him; and [g] others [h] smote him with the palms of their hands,

68 Saying, [l] Prophesy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

69 ¶ [s] Now Peter sat without in the [p] palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of [r] Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into [t] the porch, [u] another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And [a] after a while came unto him [b] they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them; for [d] thy speech [e] bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter [f] remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, [h] Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

75 And so the case should have collapsed. It was a moment of frustration for Caiaphas – and a moment of utmost tension for the whole court – with the high priest dramatically standing up in pretended horror – the witnesses having revealed their weakness – and the quiet, calm, thoughtful Lord taking in the whole hypocritical scene.

CHAPTER 27

14 THIRD JEWISH TRIAL v. 1. Mk 15:1. Luke 22:66-71 Note.

The full council of the Sanhedrin met to give legality to the proceedings. According to their own rules they could not pronounce sentence of death by night. For interrogation see Luke 22:67-71.

JUDAS' ACTION OF DESPAIR from the palace of the high priest they took Jesus to the official council room of the Sanhedrin, called by Josephus "the hall of hewn stone" just south of the Temple. From here they led Jesus bound to Pilate's Judgment Hall, the Praetorium, just north of the Temple area. In doing so they passed in front of the holy place, and in his fit of despair + remorse Judas flung the blood money down. In doing so however, he signed his own death warrant for the bribed informer was a dangerous man to have about once he has "repented". So he forestalled his execution by suicide.

JUDAS' DEATH - He rushed from the Temple and city into the blackness of night unrelieved by the glimmer of any dawn. Filled with bitter remorse, haunted by the full realisation of the enormity of his useless crime, completely without hope, he rushed down into and across the Valley of Hinnom, up the steep sides of the overhanging mountain, ascending some precipitous rock, he unwound his girdle in which he had perhaps carried the pieces of silver, fastened it to his neck, & securing it to some tree, flung himself from the height. The horrible result is recorded Acts 1:18. He is the A.Hitherto of the N.T 2 Sam. 17: 23. Ps. 41:9. 55:12-14.

Christ is accused

2 And when they had bound him, [a] they led him away, and [c] delivered him to [d] Pontius Pilate [e] the governor.

3 ¶ [g] Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, [5] repented himself, and [7] brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, [i] I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? [6] see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and [l] hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the [n] treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, [p] The field of blood, [q] unto this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, [r] And they took the thirty pieces of silver, [2] the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 And Jesus stood before the governor: [t] and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, [u] Thou sayest.

12 [v] And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, [a] he answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, [b] Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 [b] Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people [f] a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a [h] notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, [k] Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day [m] in a dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude [o] that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather [z] a tumult was made, he [a] took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am [z] innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, [z] His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 ¶ Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had [c] scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

WHICH OF THE TWAIN SHALL I RELEASE?

It could possibly have been that Pilate at this point brought the two men before the mob - the murderer and the Savior; the Son of the father (the flesh) and the Son of God.

JUDAS' REMORSE - He knew that Jesus could be condemned on a charge of blasphemy, but he did not reckon with what followed - the casting out from the People of Salvation & the delivery to the Romans for the cursed death of crucifixion of him whose companion he had been for 3 years. When all this becomes terrible reality, remorse seizes him. It must not come to this that Jesus end on the stake of shame. He tries to arrest the course of things. According to Jewish law if a serious objection is raised (no matter how late) it must be heard in defence of the accused or condemned - but the priests reject the plea + Judas hangs himself, bringing on himself the curse of the law.

THE PRIESTS LEAVE THE CROSS. a The daily evening liturgy normally begins in the Temple at 1:30pm. Today it is earlier than usual because of the preparation of Passover & before 6pm a long programme of ritual must be carried out. First the lamb for the daily evening sacrifice is slaughtered in the Temple. Then the 24 senior members of the priestly order who only appear all together in the holy city for the three great pilgrimage feasts assemble, & the most sacred ritual of atonement begins as a preparation for the Passover. The innumerable Passover lambs are slaughtered, and the priests sprinkle the atoning paschal blood on the altar. Meanwhile the Temple trumpets announce the hours of prayer & summon the whole city to the evening worship. The Passover slaughtering continues. The Levites strike their harps & sing the Hallel: "I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord" Ps 118:17. "The stone that the builders rejected is become the head of the corner" Ps. 118:22. Trumpet blasts or bugle calls can be heard far away, proclaiming the great event — God at

The blood-sprinkled altar is making reconciliation and peace with His people. Then the festal crowd leaves the temple mount with the slaughtered lambs, and the paschal lambs are roasted in the houses, & by 6 p.m. the father of the house has inaugurated the Passover meal" (E. Stauffer — "Jesus and His Story p. 111-114).

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then [a] Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 And laid it [c] in his own new tomb, which [f] he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled [h] a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was [i] Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the [m] preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate,

63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, [o] After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have [b] a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

CHAPTER 28.

1 Christ's resurrection declared. 9 He appeareth to the women, 16 and to his disciples, 19 and sendeth them to baptize and teach all nations.

[m] IN the end of the sabbath, [p] as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and [s] the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for [x] the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back [z] the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 [b] His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment [c] white as snow:

4 And for fear of him [d] the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel [g] answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, [e] which was crucified.

6 He is not here: for he is risen, [k] as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples [y] that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, [l] he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with [z] fear and great joy; and [p] did run to bring his disciples word.

9 ¶ And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met [q] them, saying, All hail. And they came and [r] held him by the feet, and [s] worshipped him.

2 [c] As it is written in the prophets, [d] Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 [e] The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judæa, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the [b] latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

9 [f] And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from [g] Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens [z] opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

SYNAGOGUES. - See Also Luke 4. It is not known when these were first established, but it could have been at the Captivity. They were only erected where 10 men of age, piety & every circumstances could be found to attend the services. The erection of a synagogue being a mark of piety, they soon multiplied. In Jerusalem alone, there were 460-80 in Christ's time. A Council of 3 attended to civil matters and sometimes inflicted summary punishment Matt 10:17. Mk 13:9. The Pentateuch was so divided into portions to be read on Sabbaths that the whole was covered in a year. Portions from prophets having an affinity to Law likewise read, or were selected by reader Luke 4:17 for edification. Synagogues were built in imitation of Temple. The Law was kept in a Chest near rostrum. The chief seats, Mat 23:6 were also near rostrum.

Here follows John 1:19. See p. 131.

14 [g] Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching [h] the gospel of the kingdom of God,

15 And saying, [i] The time is fulfilled, and [k] the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 Now [l] as he walked by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And [r] they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered [t] into the synagogues and taught.

22 And [x] they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone; [a] what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? [b] I know thee who thou art, [c] the Holy One of God.

25 And Jesus [b] rebuked him, [d] saying, [e] Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had [f] torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 [m] And forthwith, when they were come [n] out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and [o] anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, [p] when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all [q] the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And [s] he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and [u] suffered not the devils [2] to speak, because they knew him.

35 [v] And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and [z] departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

16 The word can signify manner of teaching.

17 The Scribes quoted the Rabbins and schools of thought. The Lord expounded Scripture on his own authority, plainly and powerfully. He did not set before the people a cold, formalised religion as did the Scribes many of whom were Pharisees Matt. 23:14. He was not haughty, censorious, obscure, and careless, but warm and condescending, sympathising with the

49 He spoke a language they understood, of those subjects they felt. He was gently persuasive, and powerful. The earnestness and energy of his teaching contrasted with the cold, indifferent discourses of Scribes, and was supplemented by powerful miracles. Cp John 7:46. Luke 4:22 says he spake "with power."

Son of God rested on his heavenly Father and found renewal of strength to continue the heavy burden of his work. But he was not permitted this long, for the thoughtless disciples and the multitude sought him out. Frequently P.T.O.

Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for [a] therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached [d] in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

40 [e] And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and [f] kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he [k] straitly charged him, and forthwith [i] sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 [m] But he went out, and began to publish it much, and [n] to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus [o] could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: [p] and they came to him from every quarter.

AND again [1] he entered into [2] Capernaum after some days; and it was noised that he was [3] in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was [s] no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them.

3 [b] And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, [b] they [c] uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins [g] be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and [h] reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? [i] who can forgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all [q] amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the sea side; and [r] all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 [z] And as he passed by, he saw [v] Levi the son of Alphæus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

A QUESTION OF FASTING (See Notes Matthew, Luke) The evidence shows that this was posed three times. Luke 5:33-39 relates obviously to the Pharisees. Mark 2:18 was a question put a little later by the people. Matt. 9:14 was asked much later (see Note Mtt 9) and by John's disciples who, among others "were waiting for him." Luke 7:18-20. The question and answer were most important and expressed a note of divergence between the popular John and the new teacher who had been endorsed by John. The answer also claimed 1. That Christ was the Bridegroom or Messiah. 2. And set aside the extreme asceticism of the Pharisees. As news of his answer circulated among the people, they approached him for confirmation thereof. Finally the disciples of John made their individual and personal approach.

there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

DISCIPLESHIP CONTRASTED Vv 18-22. Similar questions had been asked at Matthew's feast by Pharisees. Luke 5. Others, hearing of this, return to the theme. 10 RSV: "Now John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting." This was evidently after Luke 5:33. The Pharisees fasted on certain days of the week. See Index. 11 RSV: "people." The day of fasting revived what Christ had earlier told the Pharisees. 12 See Margin and Note 35. Luke 5:36

18 [c] And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 [d] But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

21 No man also seweth a piece of [2] new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles. See Note Luke 5:37-39 ???

CONFLICT WITH THE PHARISEES RE THE SABBATH Vv 23-28. Matt 12:1-8 Mk Luke 6:1-5 ??? 13 After the incident above recorded the Lord visited Jerusalem, Jhn 5:1, and the incident of the cure of the infirm man at Bethesda took place. It included a discussion on the sabbath after which he went through the corn fields Luke 6:1.

23 [f] And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, [m] as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God [14] in the days of [o] Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said unto them, [b] The sabbath was made for man, [15] and not man for the sabbath:

28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord [d] also of the sabbath.

THE HERODIANS Mark 3:6. These distinguished themselves from the other Jews by concurring with Herod's scheme of subjecting himself and his dominions to the Romans, and likewise complying with him in many heathen practices, such as erecting temples with images for idolatrous worship, building theatres and instituting pagan games, and placing a golden eagle over the gates of the Temple of Yahweh. This worldly policy was probably the "leaven of Herod" referred to by the Lord. Mtt 16:6. Herodians were mainly of the sect of the Sadducees the least religious of any of the Jews. Caiaphas was a Sadducee. In their eyes the teaching of Jesus endangered them with Rome. Jhn 11:47.

ANOTHER SABBATH HEALING: THE MAN WITH THE WITHERED HAND Mtt 12:1-6. Mk 1:21-24 Lk 4:31-37 6:6-11 NRC.

5 This was his practice when threatened. Luke 4:28-30. Jhn 7:1. 6:15 for as Matthew observes in quoting from Isaiah, the time when he should reveal himself in power had not yet come.

He incurred the hatred of the Pharisees in seeking for the people an emancipation from spiritual thraldom — the Herodians feared that the popularity of his mission might interfere with their political policy. He withdrew from a quarter where violence threatened to the seashore where multitudes gathered.

1 They realised that he had read their thoughts and being filled with madness upon him because they with this convicted, desired his death. For further details and question see Mk 12. Luke 6.

2 He was indignant at their stubbornness. This anger was not unlawful. Eph 4:26. Ps 7:11 97:8. Jas 1:19. Prov 15:18.

3 Here was release for the man held in bondage by his infirmity. And as he was healed by a word, — without even a touch — how could they cavil that even their rigid interpretation of the law had been broken. At the same time they had been publicly convicted of breaking the sabbath and thus left the synagogue in a fury. Luke 6:11.

1 The parable of the sower, 14 and the meaning thereof. 21 We must communicate the light of our knowledge to others. 26 The parable of the seed growing secretly, 30 and of the mustard seed. 35 Christ stilleth the tempest on the sea.

AND [c] he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into [d] a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, [e] and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

"COUNTRY OF THE GADARENES" Ch 5:1. - "The long famous instance of 'discrepancy' as to the place in this narrative has been cleared up in recent years by the decision of textual critics that the correct text in Luke is Gerasenes, as well as in Mark (See RV), and by Dr Thompson's discovery of a ruin on the lake shore, named Khersa (Gersa). If this village was included (a very natural supposition) in the district belonging to the city of Gadara, some miles south-eastward, then

THE MANIAC OF GERASA. Vv 1-20. Mat. 8:28-34. LUKE 8:26-39

Here there lurked two unclothed maniacs, terrifying in aspect. Mth 8:28. One was a grotesque monster who could not be bound even with chains. Bleeding from gashes of self-imposed wounds, exceeding fierce, he prevented anyone coming near.

1 Seeing the boat, the wild maniac dashed down to meet it. A new adventure thus faced the disciples. Mth 8:28. "exceeding fierce so that none might pass that way. LUKE 8:27. "neither abode in any house. This part is noted for caverns which were used as tombs for the dead.

3 Revered him Rev. 1:9 Luke 8:28. "fell down at his feet."

4 A Hebraism implying unauthorized interference. Some knowledge of Jesus had penetrated the bemused mind of the maniac, but in his disordered state, knowing nothing of the love of Christ it moved him only with fear. Mth 8:29 adds: "Art thou come hither to torment us before the time?"

"HE SAW JESUS" V.6

He stopped before he reached the boat, and threw himself upon the ground. Something in his disordered mind felt a power greater than his madness.

7 Ravenous beasts that feed on carrion, husks etc. - even their own young. They look towards and dig in the earth, wallowing in the mire. They are very lazy and sleepy and destroy cultivated gardens and fields.

8 "At the feet of Jesus" Luke 8:35.

9 They learned of Christ's power, they saw the evidence of it in the cured maniac - but their livelihood, their material possessions, were affected. They preferred the swine to the Lord, and besought him to return.

10 The raging sea, the maniacal fury of the lunatics had not been sufficient to deter the Lord, but the hardness of hearts of these thoughtless people was sufficient to do it.

11 This poor wretch, now cured and restored, saw with dismay the return of his benefactor and friend. He wanted the great privilege of being with his Lord - but he had other work for him to do. Thus the Lord granted the prayer of the crowd and left them to their fate, but he refused the prayer of the cured man, but left him a great work to do.

12 This is the first duty of discipleship as opposed to Apostleship.

THE RELIGIOUS LUNATICK CURED. – His madness seemed religious in character, though his religion, his conception of Jesus was completely false and governed entirely by fear. V7. They seemed to typify those who are maddened by the intoxicating wine of Babylon. (Jer. 51:7. 25:16. 11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And [d] they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and [e] clothed, and [f] in his right mind: and they were afraid. (2 Tim. 1:7)

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine.

17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, [g] he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began [h] to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel. (For further work here see Mk 7:31)

21 [i] And when Jesus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

25 And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years,

JAIRUS SEEKS HIS HELP.

Vv 22-24. Matt 9:18-19. Luke 8:40-42

16 The Lord's discussion is interrupted by the urgent plea of the distraught Jairus who bursting into the group around Jesus tearfully besought his help.

17 See note – next page. There had been miracles performed and controversy at Capernaum Mat. 12:24 ff. From all this Jairus had remained aloof. He held a position of responsibility. On the other hand he had abundant evidence of Christ's power yet had not earlier sought him to cure his daughter. Perhaps he feared the leaders of the people. But now with the crisis in his daughter's life he sets aside his scruples and seeks the Lord.

18 There is no standing aloof now. His need of Christ had been graphically brought home to him.

His only daughter, aged 12. Luke 8:42

HE IS DELAYED BY THE WOMAN WITH ISSUE OF BLOOD Vv 25-34 Mtt 9:20-22 Luke 8:43-48.

With the crowd pressing around him, he is approached by a [illegible] emaciated woman, made timid by the censoriousness of her affliction, so that she did not want to confess it openly. But her need gives courage to her timidity. Roughly pushed back by the crowd, but spurred on by her boundless confidence in Christ she endured the crushing and bruising. Thus weak and exhausted, she kept her despair at bay, and struggled through the crowd until she was close to the Lord.

"At the feet of Jesus" Luke 8:35.

They learned of Christ's power, they saw the evidence of it in the cured maniac – but their livelihood, their several possessions, were affected. They preferred the swine to the Lord, and besought him to return.

The raging sea, the maniacal fury of the lunatic had not been sufficient to deter the Lord, but the hard-ness of hearts of these thoughtless people was sufficient to do it.

This poor wretch, now cured and restored even with dismay the return of his benefactor and friend. He wanted the great privilege of being with his Lord – but he had other work for him to do. Thus the Lord granted the prayer of the crowd and left them to their fate, but he refused the prayer of the cured man, but left him a great work to do.

This is the first duty of discipleship as opposed to apostleship.

"For they were taken with fear" Luke 8:37

He was connected with a town associated (Gergesa with the Gentiles and the Decapolis (Region of the Ten) The inhabitants preferred the swine to the Lord. But the swine perished in the deep, as will the serpent ultimately Rev. 20:9.

Christ left that city to its fate and according to Josephus it was one of the first cities to be destroyed by the Romans. Cp. Mat. 22:7. – and the ultimate fate of Rome

Christ alone has the power of driving out daemons individually (ie religious ones) or otherwise Revelation 16:14. This miracle typed his purpose.

THE POWER OF PRAYER Cp Vv. 17, 18

The Lord punished the men of the city by granting their prayer, he rewarded the cured man by refusing his.

So, sometimes, we are rewarded when prayer is refused.

22 She felt that the Lord might be reluctant to touch her and thus contract legal uncleanness. Lev. 15:19. The legal uncleanness was such that those with an issue were treated as lepers and put out of the camp Num 5:2.

23 There was a chorus of denials Luke 8:45. during which, doubtless, the woman shrunk back in her timidity – but the eye of the Lord rewarded her out 1:42.

24 The lord turned around. His eyes sought out those of the woman. The miracle of healing demanded the confession and testimony of truth.

25 Here was allegorical confession of sins and a witness to Truth. Cp Ps. 32:1.

JAIRUS' DAUGHTER DIES — BUT IS RAISED TO LIFE AGAIN. Vv 35-43. Matt 9:18,26. Luke 8:49-56.

The clergy above must have sorely tried Jairus whilst the miracle must have strengthened his faith. But now, the advent of the messenger confirmed his fears and brought him overwhelming grief.

Compassionately the Lord looked into the tragic eyes pulled with sudden grief and spoke unbelievable words of comfort and assurance.

It was a test on Jairus designed to teach a wonderful truth, to show that the Lord of life was in their midst not only capable of restoring to fellowship (as in the case of the woman) but of granting new life. Cp Luke 8:50. He shall be made whole.

He also saw his majesty on the Mount. Matt 17:1-7 and witnessed his suffering in the garden. Matt Mk 14:32. All were excluded from the house save these three and the father and mother. Luke 8:51.

Indicating the hopelessness of the Law in the face of death — only faith can save. Death is but sleep, a rest, to those who will rise therefrom. 2 Pet 3:4. Acts 7:60. 1 Cor 15:6.

This was the measure of the mourning.

That is how the world treats the doctrine of the resurrection. Acts 26:8 & 17:32.

So also Peter. Acts 9:40.

Christ had no use for the mere sight-seer. So the resurrection will be hidden from the world. Further: when the Lord of Life is present. Rev 1:8. what need is there of mourners?

Luke 8:55 adds: "Her spirit came again."

The woman with the issue had been afflicted 12 years. V.25. One for each of the tribes!

But who could remain silent! Matt 9:26 = "the fame hereof went abroad into all that land." Cp Note 31st. Christ was more anxious to teach the spiritual import of the miracle, than the fact of the wonders themselves. John 6:26.

H RULER OF THE SYNAGOGUE V. 22. The Jews had 3 Courts of Judicature at Jerusalem. The Great Sanhedrim of 71 in cities large enough to produce 120 men fit to bear office, the lesser Sanhedrim, or council of 23 Judges. These possessed much power extending to life and death in some cases, and are the councils mentioned in Mat 10:17. (Cp Mth. 5:21-22). In the smallest towns a court of 3 Judges exercising lesser powers, such as matters of theft, damages, restitution etc. This court appertained to the synagogue, and was exercised by its rulers. 56 One Greater Than The Law

THE ALLEGORY OF THE WOMAN WITH ISSUE.

The normal menstrual flow in healthy women was acknowledged as a sample of the physical results of Adam's transgression and became the cause of 7 days (the prolongation of sin and death) uncleanness. Lev 15:19-24. cp Gen 3:16. It was a constant warning against the flesh. Defilement was contracted by contact with the cause of uncleanness, that which emanates from the flesh.

But as this was normal, so the allegory taught that of itself flesh is not pleasing to God, and that we must look beyond it to gain that strength that will overcome it.

But this woman was diseased. In her case some deep-seated physical disease of the very springs of life, was exuding noisome matter — an issue of the flesh. It symbolised persistent sin. Mark. 7:20-23.

The law decreed uncleanness for such. Lev 15:25. All such were excluded from the camp before it left Sinai. Num 5:2. 9:6. Rev. 20:9. 21:27.

● She typed Israel. Ezek 36:17. And like Israel she had wasted her substance in incompetent physicians. Jer. 8:22. for only Yahweh can cure the incurable disease of Zion. Jer. 30:17. 33:6.

● She saw in Christ a Physician who could help. She hesitated to appeal. p. 57

JAIRUS (WHOM GOD ENLIGHTENS) MEETS THE LORD OF LIFE The 12 year old child, like the woman with the 12 year old complaint, seems to represent Israel under the Law – ruled by the synagogue. Death meant defilement, but was conquered by Christ who came with his disciples into the house, into the very presence of death, and touched the corpse Cp Num. 19:11-13. The miracle of [redacted] resurrection was delayed by the needs of the woman with the issue of blood during which the child died. So in tending to the needs of sin death came to Israel after the flesh. Thought it will [redacted] experience a resurrection therefrom to the amazement of all Ezek. 37. Meanwhile men laugh at the possibility of a resurrection, personal or political. Christ will come to an afflicted Israel and as Lord of Life will command the mourners to be gone Jer. 31:15-17.

what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet [c] for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom [2] and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and [d] preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, and [h] anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 [i] And [k] king Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 [m] Others said, That it is Elias. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and [@] laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had [@] a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday [a] made a supper to his lords, [b] high captains, and [c] chief estates of [d] Galilee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, [f] unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway [l] with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me [m] by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; [@] yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not [o] reject her.

28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his [q] corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 [r] And [s] the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

JOHN BAPTIST'S DEATH

John remained imprisoned for several months, though he was not badly treated MK 6:20. But to such an active man this inactivity must have been frustrating. Apparently he was able to entertain his disciples, for through them he sent a message to the Lord Luke 7:18-28. According to Josephus the prison-fort was towards the border of Herod Antipas' dominions, almost on the Nabatean frontier, on the east of the Dead Sea.

From the prison he could look down into a deep cleft nearly 4,000 ft below where the Dead Sea shone like a scrap of the sky fallen into the gorge to the north

JOHN BAPTIST'S DEATH (Cont) rose the clear outline of Nebo, where Moses looked upon the Promised Land in a ecstasy of hope. John likewise had to content himself with hope. He had declared: "He must increase and I must decrease." There was no doubt about the Messiahship of Jesus when the Baptist's disciples returned with their answer John had to resign himself to God. Death came suddenly and as a merciful release to a man eating out his heart in prison.

SALOME'S DANCE from "A Life of Jesus" by Alexis Muralt: "The Great banquet is at its height in the brilliantly lit hall of the fortress; wine has flowed freely; immoderate shouts of laughter echo through the building; coarse jests are bandied; debauchery is in the air. The dissolute King seeks fresh excitement for his guests. With depraved familiarity he calls for his step-daughter Salome, to quicken their drunken senses. They watch her sensual movements with delight. The exhibition over, intemperate voices roar acclamation, Antipas, his vanity flattered, rouses himself from 33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 [c] And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, [f] because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and [g] he began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And [i] they say unto him, [k] Shall we go and buy two hundred (3) pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat? denarii

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down (6) by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and [h] would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out: Cp Matt. 14:26

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves [l] beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For they [m] considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was [o] hardened.

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,

55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched (6) him were made whole.

CHRIST CHALLENGES THE FORMALISM OF THE JEWS

The most natural order seems that supplied by Matthew. For example, it seems obvious that Christ's question was retorted upon that of the Pharisees. The harmonising seems as follows:

Matt.	Mark 7:9.	Ex 20:12 for he while
Matt 15:4-5	Mark 7:10-11	for Gentiles.

1 Then came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem,[2]
2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with [2]defiled, that is to say, [c]with unwashen, hands, they found fault.
3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands [@]oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.
4 And when they come from the market, except they [e]wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of [f]cups, and [@]pots, brasen vessels, and of [@]tables.
5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands? (See Note Matth 15:2)
6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, [@]This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

8 For laying aside the [v]commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as [1]the washing [@]of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. See Note Matth 15:2

10 For Moses said, [@]Honour thy father and thy mother; and, [@]Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

1 i.e. "Devoted" - Alienating by an oath to a pretended sacred use that which should have been used for support of parents. The gifts were then reckoned to be consecrated to God, and having been thus sworn could not be used for any other purpose.
To evade the duty of supporting parents some Jews thus dedicated their goods to eventual sacred use. Meanwhile they retained the benefit of their goods, without the responsibility of doing their duty to parents.
14 Thus demanding action of God. Ps 119:126.
15 The Pharisees must have heard this public denunciation with the greatest indignation, but also with frustration because they could not refute it.
PUBLIC REPUDIATION OF PHARISAIC HYPOCRISY. VV14-16. Matt 15:10-11

18 This was a public answer to the private question of the Pharisee V.5. The Lord's answer shows that the prohibitions of the Law are doctrinal in character. A man is defiled not by the meat or dust that might adhere to the hands, but by defiance of God in taking to himself things polluted. Then the heart is polluted. Cp 1 Cor. 8:4, 8-13. 1 Tim. 4:3.

21 Cp Matt. 12:35. Acts 8:22. James 4:8. Josh. 7:20. Jer 17:9. 11:8. 4:14.
22 Each that prohibited by the Law in defiance of it is a sin of the heart. To go beyond the Law as the Pharisees were was likewise a sin of the heart.
Gen. 6:5. Ps. 14:1-3. The Pharisees had come from Jerusalem the heart of the nation and of all nations. Ezek. 5:5-6. Jer. 4:14. Cp Jam. 3:6. The capital of the nation set by Yahweh as the heart of His people, had become a fountain of evil, polluting the water of life. Its emissaries went forth impeding the free diffusion of Truth, finally crucifying the Son of God. Cp Matt. 23:37.
23 Such false reasoning as these whereby the Pharisees contrived to get rid of the obligations to obey the EIGHTH Commandment violating the SEVENTH Commandment Deut. 5:18 This charge been laid against Jerusalem Ezek. 16

25 The SIXTH Commandment Deut 5:17. Jerusalem was preeminently guilty Ezek 22:1-4. Matt 23:37. In Matthew "murders" is placed before "adulteries, fornications."
27 The EIGHTH Commandment Deut 5:19. Jerusalem guilty Ezek 22:12-13. Mic 3:10-12. Mal 3:5
28 Matthew adds after "thefts" - "false witness" mentioned in the NINTH Commandment. Deut 5:20. See the indictment Ezek 22:9. "Covetousness" condemned by the TENTH Commandment. Deut 5:21. In Greek - plural (see Darby) - the manifestations being wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness. See Eph. 4:19. 5:3. Deut 5:21.
29 This the Pharisees had when they sought means to prove that Christ broke the Sabbath. And by this evil eye they broke the sabbath Matt. 9:14. 12:1-2. Luke 6:7. John 5. or FOURTH Command.

a See the THIRD Commandment Deut. 5:11. In this respect the Scribes of Jerusalem were guilty Mk 3:22.

MARK'S SUPPLEMENTARY ACCOUNT: MK. 7:32-37. In an instance where a concise account of Matthew is expanded into a circumstantial detail by Mark, who is frequently so accommodated to Matthew as to begin where he ends, or vice versa. Thus MK. 7:32-37 comes in exactly between MTH 15:29-30; MK 7:25 takes up MT 15:24; MK 8:10 concludes MT. 16:1-4; MK 8:19-20 follows on MT. 16:10; MK 9:33-50 concludes where MTH 18:1-35 begins; and what is among the most striking instances of all, MK. 16:5-8 in its account of that event, begins precisely where MTH. 28:6 in his account of just before, had made an end.

CHRIST REMOVES TO WESTERN SIDE LAKE VV

MTH. 15:39 Note.

Jesus returns to Galilee via Decapolis.

He journeyed eastward along the north border of the land through Decapolis. This was a gentile occupied territory. Here Jesus was known for it was the area where the man called Legion published his remarkable cure. Cp MK. 5:20.

He heals a deaf man with impediment in speech 32-37

See the case of the blind man, probably near the same place MK 8:22. Both were brought to him. Both were taken aside. Both were healed gradually, and both told not to publish the matter. Both seemed to demonstrate physically the prophecy of Isa 32:1-4 which will gradually spread over the world.

35 So should we beseech the throne of Grace for hearing, understanding ear, and a ready mouth. Exod 4:10-11. They go together. 1 Pet 3:15.

36 There was careful discrimination. It was to those taken aside from the multitude to whom Christ said: "Blessed are your ears..." MTH 13:16. So, to effectively teach the Truth we need to take men aside and quietly open their ears to Truth.

THE GREAT CONFESSION V.29. The Lord was about to enter the final phase of his ministry that would lead to his death. For this his disciples had to be prepared. Thus taking them into the quietude of the area of Caesarea Philippi, he introduced this phase by extracting from them the confession that he was the Christ V.29, then revealing he must die shamefully V31 and then revealing his glory MK.9. This was all first preceded by prayer Luke 9:19. Caesarea Philippi is about 30 m from Bethsaida and though he visited the towns and villages V.27 he evidently did not perform miracles so that no crowds followed him. "The journey would be through the most splendid scenery of Palestine – under the shadow of the Lebanon range, in whose wild and solitary glades they had time for reflection and private conversation" (Nazareth Revisited). It was the area where Abraham won his notable victory Gen 14 and had returned in triumph and spirit of reverence to Melchizedek. It was also the scene of great apostasy in later times Jud. 18:27-31. 1 Kgs 12:28-30. Moses viewed it from afar Deut. 34:1. Now the solitary Saviour and his companions walked in its shadow speaking of the greatest victory, the greatest apostasy, and seeing afar off the Divine inheritance.

"WHO DO MEN SAY I AM?" The answer was a sad one. The Apostles dared not and would not speak aught but the words of soberness and truth, and they made the disheartening admission that the Messiah had not been recognised by the world which he had come to save. They could only repeat the idle guesses of the people. Some, echoing the verdict of the guilty conscience of Antipas, said that he was John the Baptist; some, who may have heard the sterner denunciations of his imprisoned forerunner, caught in that mighty utterance the thunder tones of a new Elijah; others who had listened to his accents of tenderness and words of universal love, saw in him the plaintive soul of Jeremiah, and thought that he had come, perhaps, to restore them the lost Urim and the vanished Ark: others, and these the most numerous, regarded him only as a prophet and a precursor. None – in spite of a Messianic cry wrung from the confession of the multitude, amazed by some unrivalled display of power – none dreamt of who he was. The Light of Truth, demands sacrifice even to a criminal's death.

The blind man entered into [a] a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of [d] Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he [f] sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into [i] the ship again departed to the other side.

14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he [l] charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of [m] Herod.

16 And they [n] reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, [q] neither understand? have ye [r] your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake [s] the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when [t] the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to [v] Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him [x] to touch him.

23 And he [y] took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had [b] spit on his eyes, and [c] put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he [c] put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go [g] into the town, [h] nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ [k] And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cæsarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 [o] And he [p] charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And [s] he began to teach them, that the Son of man [t] must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called [z] the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Jesus is transfigured. 11 Of the coming of Elias. 14 He casteth forth a dumb and deaf spirit: 30 foretelleth his death and resurrection: 33 exhorteth his disciples to humility: 38 bidding them not to give offence to any of the faithful.

AND he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God [f] come [g] with power.

2 ¶ [h] And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding [i] white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, [j] Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 [k] For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 [a] And as they came down from the mountain, he [b] charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elias must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and [h] be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, That Elias is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ [l] And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were [m] greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye [2] with [n] them?

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he [o] teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you?

A great contrast unfolds for the reader between the peace, glory and heavenly communion on the mountain top, and the frustration, rage, unbelief and agony which marked the first scene that met the eyes of Christ on his return. It was Christ's absence from his disciples that caused this, as it does now! In his absence they lost the power of performing miracles, and manifested lack of faith. Cp Luke 18:8. The cure of the boy was probably a test-case, and the cause of the disputation of v. 14. The father of the boy had evidently been swept away by the faithless attitude of the Scribes, so that all deserved the rebuke of Mth. 17:17.

THE CHALLENGE OF FAITH

Christ casteth out a dumb and deaf spirit.

how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit [c] tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed [d] foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came [e] running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

RV: "when he is killed, after three days he shall rise again."

[a] Luke 9. 45.

32 [a] But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ [b] And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye [e] disputed [f] among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way [g] they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, [h] If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and [i] servant of all.

36 And [k] he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and [m] whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ [o] And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and [p] we forbad him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jesus said, Forbid him not: [q] for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For [r] he that is not against us is on our part.

41 For [s] whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 And [t] whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

33 They first approached him with a question. Mth. 18:1. He replied with a question that caused them to be silent in shame.

34 They were consumed with shame.

35 This was vital - something that all should understand.

• The Child in Lord's arms - faith illustrated. See Note Mt 17:20 Note

36 They would see the child trustfully nestling in the arms of the Lord, not self-assertive - not fretful of the future - content with the loving arms about it.

37 See prefatory words in Mth 18:3-4.

38 Instead of boasting who is the greatest and lauding it one over the other they were to respect the humblest among them as they would Christ. So the humblest is elevated as the highest. Thus "he that is least shall be great" See added comment Luke 9:48.

JOHN'S INTERRUPTION. SHALL WE FORBID THOSE WHO FOLLOW NOT US. W 38-41 LUKE 9:49-50.

The statement "in my name" recalls an incident and a problem to John who now poses a question.

41 And as these are very few do not discourage them.

42 Because such are giving to Christ. Prov 3:9. Mal. 1:8. Eph 5:22. Col 3:22-23. 4:1.

43 = RV: Cause to stumble. "Skandalizo" means to put a snare or stumbling block in the way. The Skandalon originally was the name of the part of the trap to which the bait was attached. Hence the snare itself Cp Rom 11:9. See Rom 14:13. Luke 17:1. The greatest care must be exercised that we do not lead others away by the use of attractive bait.

45 This was a form of punishment afflicted on criminals of the worst kind by Greeks and Romans (but not Jews). Thus those who have acted like Gentiles will be treated as such.

47 Ruthlessly exclude - even at the expense of pain and loss those things that would draw away.

50 Salt is good - Christ's disciples are the salt of the earth. Mat 5:13. Lk 14:34-35. Col 4:6. Salt is a preservative. Christ's disciples are to preserve the world from corruption. Salt is a purifier. Christ's disciples are to purify the world. Salt is a seasoning. Christ's disciples are to season the world with the truth. Salt is a healer. Christ's disciples are to heal the world of its sin. Salt is a flavouring. Christ's disciples are to flavour the world with the love of God. Salt is a fertilizer. Christ's disciples are to fertilize the world with the seed of the word. Salt is a light. Christ's disciples are to light the world with the light of the gospel. Salt is a salt. Christ's disciples are to salt the world with the salt of the earth. Salt is a salt. Christ's disciples are to salt the world with the salt of the earth.

SALTING THE SACRIFICE V.49. As salt is sprinkled over every sacrifice for its purification Lev.2:13 so the living sacrifice. Rom.12:1,2 must be purged by salt or by fire to be fit for the Kingdom, or even by both. By the salt of Truth (the Covenant Lev.2:13) applied to the conscience, (1Pet.1:22) and which will guide one what to do. Or by the fire of trial which purges but does not consume (1Pet.4:12-13). The sacrifice was first salted then consumed. So with the living sacrifice. It is salted with the covenant, it is salted with fire that destroys impurities (1Pet.1:7). It is consumed by Divine fire of Truth.

48 Gehenna. See Index.
49 Until there is complete destruction. Cp a similar usage of this phrase. Jer.7:20, 17:27, Jude 7
50 Christ spoke of Hand, Foot, Eye, answering to the lust of flesh (hand) lust of eyes (eyes) pride of life (foot). These terms also used for Ecclesial members. 1 Cor.12:14-15,27.
51 The figure is taken from Lev.16:29 which sets forth a picture of Judicial condemnation and destruction in the Age to come. If man goes that shall be tested by fire. Rev.4:6, 15:2. 1 Cor.3:13 and in which there is a possibility that we shall suffer loss. 1 Cor.3:15. Though entering into life ourselves.
52 The salt of the covenant must be active in ourselves in refining, purging, purifying. It must be manifest in searching self-judgment and self-severity. Otherwise it is not active - it has lost its savour. Do not be filled with envy and jealousy against each other. Cp V.33. Be united, of one, helping one another as the stinging, healing salt purifies and cures your own failings. Galatians 5:17-18. Col.3:1

45 And [e] if thy foot [2] offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

47 [f] And if thine eye [2] offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:

49 For every one shall be salted with [h] fire, [i] and [G] every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

[a] Christ disputeth with the Pharisees touching divorcement. 13 He blesseth the children: 17 resolveth a rich man how he may inherit life everlasting. 23 The danger of riches. 35 James and John reproved. 46 Blind Bartimæus restored to sight.

AND [r] he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judæa by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, [s] as he was wont, he taught them again.
2 ¶ And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? [t] tempting him.
3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Moses command you?
4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.
5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.
6 But from the beginning of the creation God made them male and female.
7 [d] For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;
8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.
9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.
10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.
11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.
12 And [G] if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.
13 ¶ [l] And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.
14 But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for [u] of such is the kingdom of God.
15 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.
16 And he [G] took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.
17 ¶ [z] And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and [v] kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?
18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

A DISPUTE ON DIVORCE
Vs 2-9. MTH 19:3-9 NOTES.
The Jews having greatly abused that provision of the Law Deut. 24:1-4 the Lord emphasised that the only legitimate cause was adultery. Mt. 5:32. Moses' law only specified the way divorce should be legalised and limited its effect without specifying what constituted a genuine cause of divorce.

BLESSING LITTLE CHILDREN V.13
This is of greater significance in that it follows immediately upon his discussion of the marriage state and particularly the conversation of Mt. 19:10-12. Early in his ministry he had blessed a marriage feast, now as though as to rebuke all false and unnatural idea of the extreme virtue of religious celibacy he blessed the product of marriage lifting up and fondling the little children - manifesting an affection unusual in a young bachelor.

JESUS LOVED HIM. V.21. He had the earnest, generous, enthusiasm of youth, as yet unpoisoned by the sophistication, the intrigue and jealousy that sometimes accompanies middle age. There was an openness about him as he knelt before the Lord v.17, a becoming modesty as he answered him See Mth 19:20 an enthusiastic zeal as he came running Mk. 10:17. There was not in him the pride of riches, nor the self-sufficiency they engender, nor the pride of conscious moral purity or the formalised hypocrisy of the Pharisees. All that he had heard and seen in Jesus quickened to greatest intensity his desire to serve. But Jesus' look into his heart was more searching. He knew what was required of the young man more clearly than he did. He could sound depths of wickedness and need (not yet developed) that the young ruler never knew existed. Thus his advice to seek earth's poverty and heaven's riches.

With clouded face he gazed upon what he lacked — in Christ he saw what he needed. But he departed very sorrowfully for his rich home, a poverty-stricken man! What of the future? Who knows? Christ loved him!

Their minds were so filled with pictures of Messianic glory that they could not conceive of the shame of the cross and doubtless gave Christ's words a parabolic meaning. See Luke 12:50. 19:11. In Matthew it is the mother with the sons who makes the request. They joined with her in this ill-timed request.
24 (z) They had asked in their blindness for that position which but a few days afterwards they were to see occupied in shame and anguish by the two crucified "robbers" — one of whom did have his request granted him - a request made in deepest humility and contrition.

2 THE THOUGHTLESS PETITION OF ZEBEDEE'S SONS Vv 35-40. Mt. 20:20-23. See Mark.

Their minds were so filled with pictures of Messianic glory that they could not conceive of the shame of the cross and doubtless gave Christ's words a parabolic meaning. See Luke 9:36. 19:11. In marking it is the mother with the sons who makes the request. They joined with her in this ill-timed request.

24 They had asked in their blindness for that position which but a few days afterwards they were to see occupied in shame and anguish by the two crucified "robbers" — one of whom did have his request granted him - a request made in deepest humility and contrition.

25 Mt. 20:21 = Kingdom.

26 The attainment of the Kingdom involved bitter tribulation Acts 14:22. - that of authority therein involved present dedicated ministry and humble service to others. Vv. 41-45. And far from this they had previously disputed who was the greatest Mk 9:33-34.

28 They answered (like Peter Mt 26:33) unthinkingly, and in ignorance, perhaps feeling, in view of Vv 29-34 that some opposition might be encountered, but confident in their ability to surmount it. These three had seen the glory of the Transfiguration Mt. 17:1.

29 James was first Apostle to suffer martyrdom Acts 12:2. John - Cp Rev. 1:9. Said also of Peter Jhn. 21:18-19.

"A RANSOM FOR MANY" V.45. In 1 Tim 2:6. he is described as "a ransom for all." thus indicating that the ransom was provisionally universal though all do not avail themselves of it by accepting the conditions associated with it. The preposition in 1 Tim. 2:6. is huper - "on behalf of." but here it is "anti" (see below) which can mean "instead of" or "appropriate to". In Timothy "Ransom" in anti lutron" (a ransom paid - lutron - equivalent to - anti - what is necessary. Here it is lutron = A means of loosing from luo - to loose. Gal 1:4. Jhn 10:17-18. The Ransom is the price paid for redemption as, for example, a slave. Cp Exod 30:11-16. with 1 Pet. 1:18. The Scriptures set forward 1 the hope Job. 19:25. 2 the problem. Ps 49:7-9. 3 the result. Of James and John.

30 not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimæus, the son of Timæus, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Christ rideth with triumph into Jerusalem: 12 curseth the fruitless fig tree: 15 purgeth the temple: 20 exhorteth his disciples to stedfastness and forgiveness: 27 and defendeth the lawfulness of his actions, by the witness of John.

AND when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

THE TEMPLE The outer court had been converted into a kind of market where sacrificial victims, and money could be obtained. It had been called the Bazaar of Anna because Anna as high priest had set up a rule that since every sacrifice had to be perfect the priests had to inspect them; but at Passover time it was impossible so they pre-inspected a great number of animals & kept them in the Temple courts for sale. Exhorbitant prices were charged, the Talmud says as much as 15 times the normal value.

The yearly Temple tax of half shekel had to be paid in native coin called Temple Shekel - this, too open to abuse.

Cf. V 18 The priests benefited tremendously from the lucrative trade. It is computed that money-changers alone made a profit of £9000 (daily wage laborer = 8d). The high priest controlled the trading. (N.T. Archaeology — J. Polilejan, p. 128).

The Son of the Beloved appealed to by the Son of the defiled. His need and desire was made evident, his persistence was rewarded.

Jesus permitted this unlike modern faith healers. It provided a perfect lesson to his disciples who were blind to many of his sayings but not recognising their need, did not ask. Cp Mt. 7:7.

The procession stopped, and now attention was focussed upon the two blind men as they made their stumbling way to Jesus.

Why did not Jesus go to him? To teach the lesson that some personal effort is needed to obtain the Divine grace, and to demonstrate the extent of his blindness. Isa. 42:16-19.

It is said that edible green figs should appear before the leaves – if they do not, none will be borne. Christ could have expected some of the ripened winter figs, or, as there were leaves, some of the early green figs. Though it was not the time of figs, sometimes they appeared early. Cp Isa 28:4.

THE SADDUCEES • From Zadok - Just. The richest sect though comparatively few in number. They were of the priestly order and, according to the Rabbins founded by Zadok approx BC 260 (though some trace them to Zadok in the days of David, the title indicating their claim to position of high-priest). • Like Eliashib in days of Nehemiah they placed political expediency above religious probity. They were removed from office by the Maccabees and thence after turned more completely to politics. • According to Josephus they accepted the letter of the law (Ant. 13:10:6) and rejected the traditions maintaining the right of private interpretation (18:1,4) • Zadok (260 BC) was a pupil of Antigonus Sachaeus, president of the Sanhedrin. Vv1-12 · Mt. 21:33-46 · Luke 20:9-19.

CHAPTER 12.

The parable of the vineyard let out to unthankful husbandmen. 13 Of paying tribute to Cæsar. 18 The Sadducees confuted. 28 The first commandment. 38 The people are bidden to beware of ambition, &c. 41 The poor widow commended above all.

AND [c] he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, [i] his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be our's.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 [l] What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture; [m] The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 [a] And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: [b] and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ [d] And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the Herodians, to [e] catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God [f] in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cæsar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why [g] tempt ye me? bring me a [2] penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and [h] superscription? And they said unto him, Cæsar's.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Moses wrote unto us, [k] If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

understanding the doctrine of his master, drew the inference that there was no future state of rewards or punishment and this became a basic teaching of the sect. • They denied the resurrection Mat. 22:23, Acts 23:8 • They carried the ideas of human freedom to the extreme of asserting that men were absolute masters of their own actions and at full liberty to do either good or evil. This led to profligacy and licentiousness. • They rejected the authority of all but the Pentateuch and considered the Messiah as a temporal prince to set up universal rule and thus found John Baptist's message exciting and attractive. • They believed in the absolute mortality of man, but confined all hopes to this age, thus indulging themselves in every form of luxury. • They looked forward to the splendor of the Kingdom, but the lowly Savior offended their hopes of glory. • Politically, they were favored by John Hyrcanus, Aristobulus and Alexander Jannaeus (135-75 BC) so that they rose to power under the Romans and the Herods - the high-priesthood being in their hands at that time. Acts 5:17

THE SCRIBE'S QUESTION. The "great commandment" Mt. 22:36. was a matter of great controversy among the Scribes, as involving the comparative importance of different precepts, some maintaining the pre-eminence of one and others of another. Some claimed sacrifice, some circumcision, some the sabbath, some the law of meats, washing and so forth. Whilst they divided the Divine precepts into 613 different principles, they gave greatest stress to the ceremonials. They divided these into great and small. They divided the commandments up into 248 affirmative ones (the number of the members of the body) and 365 affirmative ones (the number of the days of the year), the total of 613 being the number of the letters of the Decalogue. Some were great others small, and the question was which was, "the great commandment" Mt. 22:36. as well as which was the first. Christ had no difficulty with the answer, sweeping all their traditions aside.

and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.
22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.
23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.
24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?
25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.
26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how [k] in the bush God spake unto him, saying, [l] I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?
27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.
28 ¶ And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them [r] well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?
29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, [q] Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:
30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.
31 And the second is like, namely this, [a] Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.
32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said [s] the truth: for there is one God; and [a] there is none other but he:
33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all [b] the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, [c] is more than all [d] whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

36 For David himself said by the Holy Ghost, [i] The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.
37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people [m] heard him gladly.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two [z] mites, which make [a] a farthing.

At his departure after the capture of the city, he left the 10th legion under the command of Terentius Rufus to carry out the work of demolition, & the whole enclosing walls & precincts of the temple were so "thoroughly levelled & dug up that no one visiting the city would believe it had ever been inhabited" (Jos. JUDAS PREPARES TO BETRAY JESUS Vv 10-11. Mt 26:14-16 Nte.

Matthew supplies the time when this occurred - on Saturday after the anointing

4 It was an unsolicited act of base treachery.

1 TO THE GUEST ROOM. Vv 12-16. Mt 14 26:17-19. Luke 22:7-13.

The evening before.

2 This was distinct from the Feast itself Luke 22:1. This was the Day of Preparation. See Note Mt. 26:2. On this day the room was prepared, all leaven removed. Cp 1 Cor. 5:7-8.

Pascha, Heb. Pesach = the victim. From a root = To step over. Cp Exod. 12:13

Peter & John whom the Lord had instructed to go and prepare See Luke 22:8 note.

The greatest secrecy had to be observed, that Judas might not know where the Lord would go for he was waiting such an opportunity to deliver him up. Luke 22:6. Therefore he did not openly give the address. Christ knew the man Mal 26:18 who was a disciple.

It was quite unusual for a man to bear a pitcher, thus he would easily be picked out. But where would the disciples go? Obviously to the pool of Siloam, the only living water in the city. (See Note John 9:7) for this water was for purification, and for that living (i.e. spring) water was used. It was customary to replenish the house cisterns with such water at Passover.

i.e. Teacher (RSV). So he was a believer.

2 WARNING OF BETRAYAL Vv. 17-21. Mt 26:20-25 Nte. John 13:21.

JUDAS (Cont.) own following John 12:10 of which the Apostles were conscious John 11:16. he might, to save his own skin, show the leaders that he was not really a follower. The pitiful sum he received would demonstrate he was performing the betrayal as an act of patriotism to the state. ● NATURAL AVERSION: - Many of the sayings of the Lord were opposed to the principles of Judas and that which once attracted him now began to repel. Suspecting the criticism of the Lord he openly received it at Bethany. John 12:4-9 and this made him angry. He could feel in the rebuke of the Lord that he had discovered his secret sin John 8:16. & this knowledge instead of shaming him & causing him to seek forgiveness angered him further and resulted in him throwing in his lot completely with the enemy.

Peter and James and John, and began [a] to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, [l] and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, [c] the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, [c] Abba, Father, [d] all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake [f] the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) [h] neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, [k] the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ [l] And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the [a] young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ [o] And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and [t] warmed himself at the fire.

55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness [m] agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, [n] I will destroy this temple [o] that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another [p] made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

Two whose evidence provided sufficient to establish a case of blasphemy against the Temple - as was later pressed against Stephen Acts 6:13-14.

This had been said 2 years earlier John 2:19 indicating how carefully the Lord's enemies heeded his sayings. Possibly the two witnesses had been primed with this evidence & under questioning broke down. Their charge, according to Matthew, varied from that recorded by Mark - so that the disagreement is indicated by the two accounts.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Jesus is brought bound, and accused before Pilate. 15 Pilate, prevailed on by the people, giveth up Jesus to be crucified. 17 He is crowned with thorns, 27 crucified between two thieves, 43 and honourably buried by Joseph.

AND [b] straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole [c] council, and bound Jesus, and [d] carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 [e] And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 [m] Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

SIMON BEARS THE CROSS: The cross was formed of an upright stake & a transom. It was raised only a little above the ground, so that beasts of prey were able to gnaw the bodies thereon. The condemned's feet were raised up until the soles lay flat on the upright beam. Nails were driven through hands & feet & the body was supported partly by these & also by a projecting pin called the seat. There was no rest for the feet. A slight covering was allowed for decency's sake, the rest of the body being stripped of clothing, so that the sufferer, bleeding from the cruel scourge, suffering untold agonies, was left to slowly die.
Exhausted with his long vigil & lack of food, suffering the agony of pain, sorrow & shame, his body tortured with open wounds & loss of blood, the Lord sank beneath the weight of the stake as he staggered wearily along the hilly road - so that the impatient soldiers commandeered Simon to relieve the Lord of his burden.

rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out [b] again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 [d] And the soldiers led him away into [e] the hall, called [f] Prætorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,

18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees [g] worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compel one Simon a Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 [i] And they bring him [m] unto the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.

23 And they gave him to drink wine mingled with [n] myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was [p] the third hour, and they crucified him.

GOLGOTHA — "Gordon's Calvary" is the only spot fitting every scriptural allusion. It is a small hill just outside the city to the north. As one comes out of the Damascus Gate in the middle of the north wall, one sees, directly in front of him, across the road running parallel with the north gate-wall, a precipice about as high as a house forming the south side of the hill called "Gordon's Calvary". In that wall of rock there are found three large holes somewhat resembling the eye-sockets & mouth hole of a skeleton skull. The procession would probably turn east then north a little further, then again to the left to ascend the slope to the top of the ridge.

JOSEPH'S COURAGE Jesus died just before the close of the Day of Preparation see Note bottom p.158. Joseph "took courage" and made request for the body. Evening had now come 23:52 - this meant that Joseph had to ignore the sabbath law - by identifying himself so completely with one who was charged with blasphemy - sedition, run the risk of himself being so charged. But he did the Lord an honor. Normally the bodies would remain on the ground to be attacked by carrion or animals until only bones or skull (hence the name) remained - or be flung into the fires of Gehenna. Joseph courageously identified himself with the Lord in spite of the stigma attached to so doing. Thus as Passover feast commenced, the Lord was buried Cp Luke 23:56.

CHAPTER 16.

1 An angel declareth the resurrection. 9 Christ appeareth to Mary Magdalene: 12 to two disciples, 14 then to the apostles, 15 whom he sendeth forth to preach. 19 He ascendeth into heaven.

AND [h] when the sabbath was past, [i] Mary Magdalene, and [l] Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had [m] bought sweet [a] spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And [c] very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre [d] at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw [b] that [f] the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And [g] entering into the sepulchre, they saw [h] a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a [i] long [k] white garment; and [m] they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and [p] Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, [r] as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: [u] neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 ¶ Now when Jesus was risen early [x] the first day of the week, [y] he appeared first to [z] Mary Magdalene, [a] out of whom he had cast seven devils.

10 And [b] she went and told them that had been with him, as they [c] mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, [e] believed not.

12 ¶ After that he appeared in [f] another form [g] unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the residue: [k] neither believed they them.

14 ¶ Afterward [m] he appeared

But these two had already seen Jesus! Mt 28:9 Why return? Because they evidently doubted the evidence of their senses! They came with a group of other women Luke 24:10 who evidently disbelieved the story they told Luke 24:11, 22-24 Mt 28:17 John 20:25

There was general disbelief that he was the true Messiah Luke 24:21. Every sign had failed. The crucifixion cursed him of God, he did not "save himself" as Zechariah declared the King would do; Elijah had not appeared to him hearty of the people. Even when he appeared personally before the disciples, they explained it away as a vision Luke 24:37.
The two Marys had seen him in the darkness of the night before. Their story was rejected as a vision. What more natural to be gradually won over to that opinion also. The open tomb and fear-stricken soldiers could easily be naturally explained as the result of earthquake - or the whole experience as the hallucinations of over-wrought minds
Cp Mk 2:22b.

76 Thus he appeared in the aspect of a mortal, when he met the two on way to Emmaus.

11 The naming of Peter, who had denied him, showed that mercy + forgiveness was to be extended to all.

3 THE LORD APPEARS TO MARY. Vv 9-11 John 20:11-18 NIV

13 Not "when he rose" Mark does not say when this was, but Matthew does. Mat 28:1-5. The comma should appear after "risen." The interlinear Greek (Darby): "Having risen and early first of week he appeared first to Mary." See Note punctuation p 1115
14 They refused to accept the evidence of this one time, highly strung, emotional woman, noted for mental aberrations.
15 They were thus long to deal patiently with others slowness of heart + dulness of understanding Acts 3:17-21. Heb 5:2
4 THE LORD APPEARS TO 2 ON WAY TO EMMA US Vv 12-13. LUKE 24:13-33 NIV

WHO SHALL ROLL AWAY THE STONE?

A perfectly natural story evolves from the circumstances. The two Marys in the dusk of the evening had seen the Lord Mt. 28:9.

Their story was rejected as the hallucinations of over-wrought women. Indeed Mary Magdalene was once afflicted in such a way Mk 16:9. They no more believed it possible than later the Ecclesia thought it possible that Peter was Released Acts 12:15-16.

Under pressure of the Apostles See Note 1. opp. the women themselves imagined they had made a mistake or that it was a hoax. There is no evidence that they saw angelic manifestation of glory in the angel of the tomb (it could have been reserved for the soldiers), and all that the women could report, and what they possibly come to understand was that the tomb was open and the body taken.

It may have been represented to them that it had been taken away by his enemies to be flung into Gehenna, & the words of the angel represented as many designed to take one off guard.

"Go back next morning," they probably were told, "and you will find the stone in its place."

WHAT HAPPENED SUNDAY MORNING

Mary Magdalene rose up before dawn Jhn 20:1. and either on her own or with the other two made her way to the sepulchre.

The open tomb was sufficient confirmation of her previous night's experience and without entering she hastened back to tell Peter Jhn 20:2.

The other two entered the tomb to experience what Mark records Mk 16:5-8.

Meanwhile the other women, led by Joanna came with the spices which had been purchased on Friday (after the Passover high day sabbath) by the 2 Marys and Salome Mk. 16:1 and prepared before the normal Sabbath by the general company of women Luke 23:56. They had probably followed after the others leaving it to the latter to make initial preparations for embalming.

By the time they arrived the others had fled.

They did not comment upon the fact that the tomb was open because they expected preparations to have been made by those who had gone before. Indeed, they immediately entered Luke 24:3. to experience what is recorded in Luke 24:4-10.

Their story confirmed that of the two Marys but was still refused.

MARY MAGDALENE RETURNS TO THE TOMB.

If the body is not there, the Apostles now declare, it has been taken by the Jews or Romans. What concrete evidence was there of resurrection!! (Cp words Thomas. Jhn 20:25). Who had seen him! Two hysterical women in the darkness of the previous night!! But they could have been mistaken! Luke 24:22-24. The only evidence is an empty tomb.

With such reasoning as that, Mary returned to the tomb! If the Lord were really alive why did he not show himself to the Apostles? Why did not he reveal himself openly! It must be that she had made a mistake and hence her question recorded Jhn 20:13

JOHN BELIEVES. JOHN 20:8.

John believed on seeing the empty tomb & yet the next verse declares that "they knew not the Scriptures!" Who did he believe? The Diaglott declares: "he believed her." This could only mean the declaration of the night before.

NOTABLE ABSENTEES

Of those present at the Cross at the time of death there are three absentees who one would feel should have been there: Mary, Martha, & Lazarus. Why were they absent! This was probably a security precaution based on the knowledge of the Jews determination to ~~follow~~ destroy the close followers of the Lord, as well as Christ himself Jhn 12:10. This also would explain the abject fear of the disciples.

EVIDENCE FOR AUTHENTICITY OF VV 9-20.

It comes from 3 sources: 1- Mss. 2- Versions 3- Early Christian writers.

- MSS. - No older mss than 4th century. The two oldest lack these verses. All others retain them.
- VERSIONS - Syriac all contain them including Peshitto (2 cent.) Curetonian (3 cent.), Philoxenian (5 cent) & Jerusalem (5 cent).
  - Latin. Jerome 382 who had access to older Greek mss than now available retain these vv.
  - Gothic 350. Egyptian Versions from 3 to 5 cent. Armenian (5), Ethiopic (4-7), Georgian (6th cent.) all retain these verses.
- FATHERS - Aspias (100) quotes V. 18. (as stated by Eusebius 3:39) Justin Martyr (151) V 20 Irenaeus (180) V 19 Hypolytus (190-227) Vv 19-19. Vincentius (256) quoted 2 verses of 7th Council of Carthage held under Cyprian. Eusebius (325) discussed these verses, as quoted by Marinus from a lost part of his History. CONCLUSION OF MARK'S GOSPEL

"After a lengthy examination of the evidence, internal, intrinsic, and transcriptional, Westcott & Hort conclude that 'there is no difficulty .... in supposing (1) that the true intended continuation of vv 1-8 either was very early lost by the detachment of a leaf or was never written down; and (2) that a scribe or editor unwilling to change the words of the text before him or to add words of his own, was willing to furnish the Gospel with what seemed a worthy conclusion by incorporating with it unchanged a narrative of Christ's appearances after the Resurrection which he found in some secondary record then surviving from a previous generation. If these suppositions are made, the whole tenour of the evidence becomes clear and harmonious. Every other view is, we believe, untenable .... II (the addition W. 9-20) manifestly cannot claim any apostolic authority; but it doubtless founded on some tradition of the apostolic age." (Appendix to Introduction p. 31). - Quoted by Rotherham.

Other authorities claim it is authentic. See overleaf.

The Message: "Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me believeth not on me but on Him who sent me. Vv 44, 45. For I have not spoken of myself, but the Father, He gave me a commandment what I should say and what I should speak. And I know that His commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me so I speak" Vv 49-50

The Mission: "I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth in me should not abide in darkness. And if any man hear my words and believe not, I judge him not for I came not to judge the world but to save the world. He that rejecteth me and receiveth not my words hath one that judgeth him; the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day. Vv 46-48.

MARY: Sig. Bitterness (Marah Ruth 1:20.) or My Myrth (Cp Note song). Mary sorely tried as to character Matth. 1:18-20. Privations Luke 2:7. Threat Mat. 2:13-14. Fugitive Mat. 2:20-21. Affliction Luke 2:35. But as the waters of Marah were sweetened by the tree cast into them (Exod. 15:22-27) so there was sweetness to the troubled spirit of Mary in the reassuring words of Gabriel Luke 1:30 to be brought to her by the Stem of Jesse she produced. Her experience illustrates the truth of Gen 3:15 and of 1 Tim. 2:15. Compare Mary's song with that of Hannah 1 Sam. 2:1-10. Hannah saw beyond the rivalry of her adversary and the work of her son, to the victory of the two witnesses of the Apocalypse & the triumph of the King Messiah.

21 Lit. "He will be joy and gladness to thee."

The angel and Zacharias. ST. LUKE I. The salutation of Mary.

14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness; and many shall [a] rejoice at his birth.
15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and [f] shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even [h] from his mother's womb.
16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.
17 [j] And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to [m] turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient [n] to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people [o] prepared for the Lord.
18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, [p] Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.
19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am [q] Gabriel, [r] that stand in the presence of God; and [s] am sent to speak unto thee, and to [t] shew thee these glad tidings.
20 And, behold, [u] thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.
21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.
22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for [c] he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.
23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as [d] the days of his [e] ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.
24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and [h] hid herself five months, saying,
25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he [a] looked on me, to [b] take away my reproach among men.
26 And in [d] the sixth month the angel [q] Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,
27 To a virgin [g] espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, [i] of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.
28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art [2] highly favoured, [k] the Lord is with thee: [l] blessed art thou among women.
29 And when she saw him, [m] she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.
30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast [q] found favour with God.
31 And, behold, [r] thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and [t] shalt call his name JESUS.
