JOHN'S MINISTRY. Vv 15-17

22 Cp Mat. 11:9-12. Herod who beautified the Temple was called "great" among men, but John who announced the coming of the Founding Stone of the spiritual Temple was great in the sight of God.
23 Thus a Nazarite Num. 6:1-4 Cp Matth. 11:18.
24 Probably fermented liq. or from dates, figs or juice of palm.
25 Stimulated in a holy sense. Cp Eph. 5:18 the spirit sanctifying, illuminating, guiding him. Cp. Jer. 1:5. The spirit overshadowed him for that purpose from birth.

John showed men what they were in the sight of God and what they ought to become and thus prepared them for the reception of Messiah.

A SIGN REQUIRED 18-23.

27 Not so much relating to the birth of the son - for that would soon be apparent, but the ministry of the son, which they would not witness.

JOHN BAPTIST: (Grace of Yahweh)

His exalted status. Matt. 11:11. Luke 7:28. He originally dwelt in the desert Matt 3:1. Luke 1:80. - his aged parents having probably died. The harsh austerity of his early environment helped to mould his character which was stern and unyielding. His isolated life of meditation and prayer disciplined him for his task of reformer. Thus he proclaimed a message of blended kindness and severity.
In him, the voice of prophecy long stilled, was heard again. His austere bearing, his rough, uncultured manner Matt 3:1-4 drew many to him. The impression was so great tho' many thought he was the Messiah Luke 3:15. A deputation was sent to enquire, but modestly John declared that he was nothing more than a voice or a herald (John 1:23) the rejoicing friend of the Bridegroom John 3:29.
He recognised that he must decrease John 3:30, but continued in his work, trying to do what he could to repress current evils. He frequented the court of Herod, tetrarch of Galilee, and exercised some influence over the King Mark 6:20, reproving him for a flagrant breach of morality for which he was cast into prison.
From here he sent a message to Christ evidently becoming impatient at Christ's seeming delay to manifest himself as King and deliver his servants. Matt. 11:3. Luke 7:19.
Josephus refers to him in terms of the greatest respect Ant. 18:5:2.
He was put to death by Herod at the instigation of Herodias Mark 6:17-20 For the growing antagonism of pharisees to John see note Luke 7:29.

MARY'S SONG

MARY VISITS ELIZABETH. Vv 39-45.

There was only one with whom she could share this moment's news. Filled with wonder and excitement she hurried off to Elizabeth 44 Here the priests had their portions Josh 21:4. It involved a journey of about 60 or more miles.

46 An expression of humility. Why is it that the mother of my Lord should thus honor me.

46 Cp V. 38.

MARY'S SONG Vv 46-55. is composed of expressions drawn from Moses Song of Deliverance Exod 15 and Hannah's Song of Triumph 1 Sam. 2:1-10 and expresses the Deliverance and Triumph of Humanity in the promised Redeemer.

For Sequence V.56. is followed by Mat. 1:18.

handmaid of the Lord; [a] be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into [c] the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda;

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth [g] was filled with the Holy Ghost:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, [k] Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of [m] my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And [q] blessed is she (2) that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mary said, [r] My soul doth [s] magnify the Lord,

47 And [t] my spirit hath rejoiced in [u] God my Saviour.

48 For [x] he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth [z] all generations shall [a] call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty [c] hath done to me great things; and [e] holy is his name.

50 And [f] his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

51 [h] He hath shewed strength with his arm; [i] he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 (m) He hath put down [n] the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 (p) He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath [b] sent empty away.

54 He hath [c] holpen his servant Israel, (r) in remembrance of his mercy;

55 (s) As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And [h] her neighbours and her [i] cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and [l] they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that [o] on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and [p] they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but (r) he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name (is) John. And they marvelled all.

64 [v] And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue [b] loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And [d] fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these (3) sayings were noised abroad throughout all [g] the hill country of Judæa.

66 And all they that heard them [k] laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And [l] the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias [g] was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

THE HIGHEST: The RV renders this as Most High as in Heb 7:1. it is identified with El Elyon Gen 14 (NIE) & the conquest of the world. Gr: HUPSISTOS. The power of the Highest came on Mary Luke 1:35 so the Lord was born Son of the Highest Luke 1:32 but conducted his ministry in the name of the Highest Luke 1:76. He proclaimed that his followers can attain unto his title as Children (HUIOI) Sons of the Highest Luke 6:35 — to go forth in the Name of God Rev. 7:12. See it used also Mk. 5:7; Lk 8:28; Acts 7:48; 16:17. Note how it is connected with dominion Luke 1:32-33 < so complements the statement of Gen. 14.

52 Confirmed with oath Gen 22:16-18. Fulfilment anticipated in New Song Ps 98:2-10 to be manifested in her who is barren and desolate Isa. 54:1, 9, 10 Immutable Heb 6:13-18.

MARY WITNESSES THE BIRTH OF JOHN V.56.

55 Cp V.36. She evidently witnessed the excitement of John's birth — the two women wondering at the remarkable happenings & their exalted positions.

56 The record continues. Mat 1:18.

BIRTH OF JOHN Vv 57-66

57 The mother was unclean 7 days Lev 12:2 & so was the child by touching her thus indicating the nature of flesh which must be denied to enter into covenant. Circumcision could take place anywhere & by anyone - even women Ex 4:25. It was often performed in the synod for sake of witness, but here it was done in Elizabeth's house.

58 Overshadowing his development, so that in education, upbringing, environment he was prepared for the work before him Cp V.80.

ZACHARIAS PROPHESIES THE MINISTRY OF HIS SON. 67-79

ZACHARIAS' PROPHECY. recalled the Memorial of Yahweh which corresponds with the names of the patriarchs and unites

Memorial Exod. 3:14-15. "I will be whom I will be, Yahweh Elohim of your fathers. My name for the age my memorial for a generation of the race."

With the oath. Oath. Gen. 22:16-18. "By Myself have I sworn saith Yahweh, for because thou hast done this thing and not withheld thine only son.

Memorial "The Elohim of Abraham" — the father of a great multitude.

Oath That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars heaven, and as the sand upon sea shore.

Memorial Of Isaac - Laughter or Great Rejoicing. And of Jacob - Supplanter (Israel - Prince with El)

Oath. And thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies. In thy seed shall all nations of the earth be blessed — because thou obeyed.

Song of Zacharias.

68 (a) Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath (2) visited and (d) redeemed his people,

69 And hath raised up (f) an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David;

70 (1) As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been (g) since the world began:

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 "To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and (o) to remember his holy covenant;

73 (q) The oath which he sware to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might (s) serve him without fear,

75 "In holiness and righteousness before him, (v) all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called (z) the prophet of (a) the Highest: for (b) thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

77 To give (c) knowledge of salvation unto his people (1) by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the (5) tender mercy of our God; whereby the (6) dayspring from on high hath visited us,

79 (e) To give light to them (f) that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of (p) peace.

80 And (t) the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was (u) in the deserts till the day of his (6) shewing unto Israel.

CHAPTER 2.

THE BIRTH OF THE LORD.

1 The Ways of Providence. A mighty Empire is moved by circumstances, to make a census of its subjects. A humble Carpenter is affected with millions of others — and an unlikely prophecy is fulfilled. Mic. 5:2.

2 A distance of nearly 90 miles imposing great hardship on Mary.

Called Ephrath (Fruitbearing). where Benjamin born. Gen 35:19. Sig. House of Bread where Bread of Life born. John 6. Predicted Mic. 5:2. Mth 2:1-6. John 7:42.

7 The normal treatment afforded any Jewish child. A child was washed, rubbed with salt, wrapped in clothes. Ezek. 16:4.

The place reserved for cattle. The stable. Thus Savior of world born in humblest circumstances, in the home of strangers.

THE BIRTH ANNOUNCED TO SHEPHERDS. Vv 8-14

8 They were evidently singled out for this honor because of their anticipation of Messiah's appearance.

Where David Kept his sheep. 1 Sam 17:15. Cp Ps 78:70.

9 They took it in turns. Cp Mg.

Suddenly the hills were diffused in light. the figure of the angel was seen and the startled shepherds heard the reassuring news.

THE SHEPHERDS SEEK CHRIST 15-20

Christ is circumcised. ST. LUKE 2. The song of Simeon.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, [2] the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto [c] Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 [l] But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 [o] And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called [r] JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when [t] the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, [x] they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord:

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, [a] Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, [b] A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and [e] devout, [@] waiting for the [h] consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was [k] revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not [a] see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came [b] by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, [d] to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and [e] blessed God, and said,

29 [f] Lord, now [g] lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, [h] according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes [i] have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 [k] A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory [l] of thy people Israel.

33 And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child [n] is set for the [p] fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign [q] which shall be spoken against;

35 (Yea, a [s] sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that [u] the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of [v] Aser: she [x] was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with [c] fastings and prayers [d] night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that [f] looked for [i] redemption in [3] Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they re-

"I MUST BE ABOUT MY FATHER'S BUSINESS" As he grew the Lord revealed unusual characteristics. The study of the Word was his daily delight. He evinced great aptitude in grasping its inner meaning. At 12 he was ready to take his place in the ceremonies of the Law. The visit to Jerusalem gave him opportunity of discussing with the foremost teachers of the day the intricacies of the Scriptures. For 3 days he was engaged in this. How he lived is not revealed, but each day found him back in the Temple. The rebuke of Mary was not warranted, for she knew of his destiny, and should have resisted that every opportunity should be allowed him to grow extend.

synagogues, being [a] glorified of all.

16 ¶ [c] And he came to [@] Nazareth, [@] where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, [h] he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and [i] stood up for to read.

17 [k] And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had [m] opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 [n] The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, [o] and recovering of sight to the blind, [p] to set at liberty them that are bruised,

19 [q] To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he [m] closed the book, and he gave it again to the [2] minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were [r] fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the [s] gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, [a] Is not this Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, [b] Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in [c] Capernaum, do also here in [d] thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, [@] No prophet is accepted in [@] his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, [@] many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up [h] three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto [@] Sarepta, a city of [b] Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 [c] And many lepers were [s] in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and [t] thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the [2] brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he [@] passing through the midst of them went his way,

31 And [p] came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And [s] they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

33 ¶ And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, [3] Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? [t] I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not. [u] he was completely cured

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for [c] with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ [t] And he arose [k] out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

It contained a sob- Masaic ornament of stars, palm trees, a stand bearing the basin for purification, a few small rooms reserved for public teaching and use of guests. There was no religious service – this was reserved for Temple. There were two opening benedictions, and extract from the Mosaic books read in Hebrew, followed by a translation in the local tongue (Aramaic). This was followed by a commentary, a prayer, a reading from the prophets, a commentary and the benediction of Num. 6:24-26. All exercises performed with head to- words Jerusalem.

30 What is your business with us!

31 It is said (Gospel Treasury) that there was a tradition among the Jews that Messiah when he appeared would devastate Galilee. The deranged mind of this person recognizing Jesus as such, gave expression to the current idea.

85 A BUSY DAY IN THE LIFE OF THE LORD Vv 33-44

The strain of such days must have been extremely exhausting to the Lord. The work continued all day long. It commence with the preaching in the synagogue, the distress occasioned by the insane raving of the possessed man, the thronging curious crowds about him, the drain of energy occasioned by the curing of Simon's mother-in-Law, and the long hours of healing, speaking answering questions at the close of the day. There was no recreation, no relaxation, little privacy, constant strain, a continued drain on nervous and physical energy – yet patiently he submitted. 1 Pet. 2:21

CHAPTER 6.

TEACHING PETER TRUE DISCIPLESHIP. Vv 1-11

1 Christ teacheth out of Peter's ship. 4 The miraculous draught of fishes. 12 Christ cleanseth the leper: 16 prayeth in the wilderness: 18 healeth the palsy: 27 calleth Matthew: 29 eateth with sinners: 34 foresheweth fastings and afflictions.

He already had been called once. John 1:40-42. Mt 4:18.

AND [u] it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by [x] the lake of Gennesaret, = Harp-shaped.

As the crowds throng around the Lord to hear him, Peter, in a detached way, washes his nets after a disappointing and fruitless night at fishing. He may have manifested a general state of irritability. He acknowledges later, that his motives were wrong v8.

2 [y] And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

Note the informal posture for teaching

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he [a] sat down, and taught the people [b] out of the ship.

Thus upon the calm sea, the Lord proclaimed the Gospel of Peace.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

Sig. Hearing. He had already been named Peter John 1:42 but had not manifested characteristics worthy of it.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, [b] Master, [c] we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, [e] they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake. = lit: "was breaking."

7 And they beckoned unto their [i] partners, which were in [l] the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

6 Peter recognized the significance of the incident, felt himself unworthy of complete discipleship and with this revelation of Divine manifestation felt it move completely and suggested that Christ leave him. However he finally left with Christ v11. He had previously experienced Christ - v5.

8 When Simon Peter saw it, [o] he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, [q] Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were [i] partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, [s] they forsook all, and followed him.

A LEPER HEALED Mt 8:2-4. Mk 1:40-44

12 ¶ [t] And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

Probably in the neighborhood of the city for he was not permitted in it Lev. 13:46.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him. Moved with compassion Mk 1:41

Pleres = Covered over. An extreme case. He would present a picture of abject misery and abhorrence - with head bare, clothes rent, covering on upper lip, and mournful cry. Ostracized by the people, condemned by the Law, he saw in Christ his only hope.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: [z] but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

He did not doubt his ability, he doubted his willingness and compassion.

To cure he had to make contact with the leper but he did so without himself being affected. Cp Note Isa. 53:8.

15 [c] But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes

Cp Lev. 14:2-7. This offering prefigured that of the Lord's by which anti-typical leprosy is cleansed. The priest had to proclaim the leper clean before he would be received in worship.

16 And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

As to how the leprosy of sin would be healed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judæa, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

Disregarding Christ's request. Mk 1:45.

LEPROSY (The scaly disease). There were various forms. The Greek Elephantiasis was the worst. It is a tubercular malady revealed by circular spots or blotches of irregular forms and varying extent appearing on the forehead, the limbs and the body. After a time the central portion of the spots become white and the parts affected contract a certain numbness. In the worst cases the sufferer experiences a living death. The hair falls from head and eyebrows; the nails loosen, decay and drop off; joint after joint of the fingers and toes shrink up and slowly fall away. The gums are absorbed and the teeth disappear. The nose, eyes, tongue and palate are slowly consumed. 86

There were other forms including the Psoriasis vulgaris (The Dry Tetter). It is a non-contagious scaly disease, commencing as small circular patches of silvery white scales Cp Exod. 4:6. 2 Kings 5:27. Num 12:10. which spread to the size of a shilling or half crown. Commencing at elbows and knees, it extends to the abdomen, chest and back, then to head, face and hands. The constitutional disturbance is trifling, and the disease curable, though liable to recur.

LEPROSY is considered a disease of Egypt. Exod 9:8-10. 12:29.

THE LEPER had his clothes rent, his head bare, a covering upon his upper lip, and cried "Unclean, unclean" Lev 13:45. He lived apart. Num. 5:

HEALING THE PALSIED MAN BORNE OF FOUR. Mark 2:3. A DEMONSTRATION OF GOD MANIFEST IN FLESH TO HEAL.

"The power of the Lord was to heal" V.17 – not physical sickness merely but spiritual ills. Cp Ps 103:3. 41:3-4. The man was borne of four Mark 2:3. He was completely incapacitated by the Palsy (Gr. paralysis). Palsy is produced by disease of the brain, the spinal cord, or particular nerves (Cassell's Dict) and is induced by extreme intemperance. In this case the Word produced the cure. It demonstrated the power of God in Christ. His ability to heal the sins of the nation then at a state of extreme paralysis through intemperance. The man borne by four could well have illustrated to the Scribes, Pharisees and Doctors of the Law the state of the nation had they but thought on the matter. The nation's brain was diseased, and the result was paralysis of the nerves. Only great faith could restore it.

PALSY – FROM PARALUO – Unloose, Enfeeble.

came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ [b] And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and [c] doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judæa, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ [h] And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees began [o] to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? [q] Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What [o] reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up [s] that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, [a] glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they [a] glorified God, and [c] were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ [d] And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And [f] he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Levi [g] made him a great [g] feast in his own house: and there was a great company of [i] publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 [l] I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ [m] And [n] they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John [p] fast often, and make [p] prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 [r] But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 ¶ And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the men was the principles of the new covenant. He had not come to patch up the deficiencies of the Pharisaic way of life. Justification by the works of the law had to give way to justification by faith. Meanwhile for them to make his disciples to mourn whilst he was with them would be as incongruous as the new cloth on the old garment. For him to embrace Pharisaic way would be like putting a new garment to patch the old. – both would be ruined.

26 RSV: "Tax office." Possibly a small building for collecting of taxes or customs for goods arriving by water (see Diog.). The conversion of the wealthy Tax gatherer must have caused a sensation. He sacrificed all that he had to that end and immediately followed it up by inviting all his one-time associates to meet with and hear the Lord.
28 Matthew characteristically does not mention this.

30 See confirmation of this attitude quoted from Mal 6:6. in Matthew's account. This occurred during the feast Cp Mark.

A QUESTION OF FASTING 33-39
In Luke's account this question arose at the Feast and was voiced by Pharisees. In Mark it was afterwards when the Pharisees were fasting, in Matthew it was some time afterwards and voiced by John's disciples. See notes. Mk. Mark.

PARABLES OF PATCHED GARMENTS & NEW WINE 36-39

35 The two substances being dissimilar (one rigid and the other supple) will never wear well together but the rigid will tear away the supple. The application suggested is the inexpediency of imposing too onerous burdens on new converts during their development as such – that men cannot be suddenly initiated into unwarranted austerities without proper preparation first. The Pharisees would rend the nation by their schismatic demands on men.
36 RSV: "He will tear the new, and the new will not match the old." Christ is showing that it is no use patching the old with the new. What he set before "HE CONTINUED ALL NIGHT IN PRAYER TO GOD" V.12. "Proseuche" – to pray, worship (Pr). Doubtless to commune. The most signif. I cant decision was about to be made, so the night was spent in communion with the father and in earnest prayer. This would not only have relation to the correct choice about to be made, but the destinies and labors of the Apostles. Previously they had been largely undistinguished among other disciples – now they were to go forth with Divine authority and specific commission. It was an important occasion and a whole night was given over to its preparation. His prayer pre-recorded. Isa 6:8.

new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 Susceptible of two explanations. 1. There would be a natural reluctance to accept Christ's teaching. 2. The need for Christ's own disciples to carefully mature the wine before dispensing it. This is suggested by 39

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

1 Christ reproveth the Pharisees touching the observation of the sabbath: 13 chooseth twelve apostles: 17 healeth the diseased. 20 Of blessings and curses: 27 how we must love our enemies: 46 and join the doing of good works to the hearing of the word.

PLUCKING EARS OF GRAIN ON THE SABBATH V.V 1-5 Matt. 12:1-8 note MK. 2:23-28.

This was thus after the sheaf had been offered Lev. 23:10-11 and the prohibition of the law Lev. 19:10 removed. Thus the Lord honored the law. The preparation of food was made a breach of the law by the Pharisees (Gos Treas).

AND [d] it came to pass on [e] the second sabbath [f] after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Pharisees said unto them, [k] Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jesus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord [q] also of the sabbath.

ANOTHER SABBATH HEALING: THE MAN WITH THE WITHERED HAND. V.V 6-11. MATT 12:9-14 NOTE LUK 3:1-6.

An atmosphere of tension developed as the man took his seat and the Pharisees waited the Lord's reaction.

Fulfilling Is 42:1-3. 35:5-6. Jer 30:10. The Lord was conscious of their thoughts, observed them carefully watching him to make a mistake.

They then broke into his discourse to pose their question

i.e. Reasonings. Cp John 2:24-25

The Lord now drew attention to the man, made him conspicuous before all, showed that he was about to answer their question by a practical demonstration. The synagogue must have seethed with excitement the Pharisees awaited the moment of accusation.

6 [r] And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was [t] withered. (The one most well known – that of Capernaum.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees [z] watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he [a] knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And [a] looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with [b] madness; and communed [c] one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out [s] into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in [g] prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, [h] he called unto him his disciples: [i] and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, Philip and Bartholomew, See Notes p. 2.

15 Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alphæus, and Simon called [l] Zelotes, 16 And [m] Judas [n] the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood [o] in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and [p] a great multitude of people out of all Judæa and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of [r] Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude [u] sought to touch him: for there went [v] virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And [x] he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, [b] Blessed be ye poor: for your's is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed are ye that hunger

APPOINTMENT OF APOSTLES. V.V 12-16. MARK 3:13-19 NOTES

THE SERMON ON THE PLAIN. V.V 17-49

Having made selection of 12 Apostles and thus conferred authority upon them he again addresses the disciples in terms similar to the Sermon on the Mount. Matt. 5.

FIRST - The healing power of his words was demonstrated by his ability to perform miracles. Cp Ps 103:3. He thus gave an example to his Apostles as to what they should do 1. Manifest mercy unto men 2. Draw them to God by the power of the Word.

13 These acts of healing were not done without effort on his part. There must have been a drain of energy, leaving him possibly tired now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they [a] shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 Rejoice ye in that day, and leap [g] for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 [i] But woe unto you that are [j] rich! for ye [m] have received your [n] consolation.

25 Woe unto you that are full! for [p] ye shall hunger. Woe unto you [q] that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 Woe unto you, [s] when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the [t] false prophets.

27 ¶ But I say unto you which hear, [x] Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you,

28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 And [a] unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; [b] and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 And [c] as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 [d] For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for [e] sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 [f] And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But [a] love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; [g] and your reward shall be great, and [c] ye shall be the children of [d] the Highest: for he is [e] kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 Be ye therefore [f] merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 [h] Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: [k] forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 [c] Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your [r] bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them, [u] Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 [v] The disciple is not above his master: but every one [2] that is [w] perfect shall be as his master.

41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

ON JUDGING AND DISCIPLESHIP Vv 37-42.

Here there is an enlargement of Mtk 7:1-6. by intimating that harsh judgment comes of pride and seeking to be above the Master and not seeking to be as him in mercy which incapacitates our service as brethren.

45 [a] A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: [c] for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ [e] And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 Whosoever cometh to me, and [f] heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like: Cp Ezra 7:10.

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that [g] without a foundation built an house [g] upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

JEWISH ELDERS APPROACH CHRIST ON HIS BEHALF Vv 1-5

CHAPTER 7.

1 Christ findeth a greater faith in the centurion a Gentile, than in any of the Jews: 10 healeth his servant being absent: 11 raiseth the widow's son: 19 answereth John's messengers: 24 testifieth of John: 36 sheweth himself a friend of sinners.

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, [1] he entered into Capernaum. – Cp Mark 9:19

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was [l] dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him [m] the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and [n] heal his servant.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, [d] trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto [s] one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. Cp Matt. 8:12.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, [k] the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

spiritual discernment he recognised in him one greater than flesh. He could have gone personally to make the request if he had felt himself worthy. 7 He did not want to trouble Christ and recognising him as a man in authority realised that all that was necessary was a word – and Christ's request would be fulfilled. Thus he used the experiences of life to teach spiritual verities V.8 cp 1 Cor. 11:4.
This experience must have resulted in the more complete worship of the Centurian and his whole house Acts 10:2, preparing the way for his ultimate complete conversion of himself and household. Acts 10:44

JESUS' TESTIMONY CONCERNING JOHN THE BAPTIST. Vv 24-35

24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

Christ's testimony concerning John.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 [a]And there came a fear on all: and [b]they glorified God, saying, That a great [d]prophet is risen up among us; and, [c]That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judæa, and throughout all the region round about.

18 [f]And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and [m]plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he [n]gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

JOHN SEEKS INFORMATION OF JESUS VV 18-23 MATT 11:2-6

13 He had been imprisoned Luke 3:19-20 They periodically visited him - doubtless to report progress.

14 As Shiloh this was a title of Messiah Gp Heb. 10: 37

15 Languishing in prison, fretting at time wasted behind walls, John daily expected Christ to assert his power and releasing him lead the nation to its promised glorious destiny. Though he had testified to the sacrificial mission of the Lord John 1:29 he evidently did not understand it in the way it happened. He daily expected Christ to increase John 3:30 Impatiently he waited Christ to move and vindicate his power.

THE EXAMPLE OF JOHN. V. 24-28. MATT 11: 7-15.

John had doubted - yet he was no reed blown with the wind, or a mere time-server speaking words he did not mean. If he should doubt and be offended, how great was the possibility that others might do likewise. Hence the exhortation - 1 Cor 10:12.

26 By no means. See his address to the messengers of the two most powerful sects Luke 7:24-28. His reproof of the Jewish leaders Luke 5:33

Christ expressed the sense of Mal. 3:1. See Note there

Christ quotes Mal 3:1 to prove that "the least" is greater than John. Despite John's doubts, his original testimony still stands.

35 Referring to John's call to repentance.

36 He exemplified the strictness of the Law in His Nazarite conduct Num. 6:3. calling upon all to follow his example. His was a call to mourn because he exemplified the condemnation of the Law

37 Exemplifying the dispensation of grace. But though the Jews contemptuously rejected the suggestion that they were sinners of the Law, they also obdurately obstinately refused the liberty in Christ.

A PHARISEE AND A SINNER ACCEPT CHRIST'S INVITATION. 36

See completion of Christ's previous discourse with his invitation Matt 11:28.

36 Christ had previously condescended to eat with publican. Now he humbles himself still further by accepting the invitation of a proud self-righteous Pharisee, who so little appreciated the great honor paid him, as to neglect showing his guest the ordinary courtesy Gp Vv 44-46

29 Reclined - as was the Jewish custom, - otherwise the woman could not have stood at his feet behind him V 38.

30 Christ came to save sinners who recognized themselves as such 1 Tim. 1:15.

31 Possibly in answer to Christ's invitation Matt 11:28

32 A beautiful bright stone allied to the marble. The woman took the greatest pains to honor Christ even providing a rich box to carry the ointment.

A HARLOT ASKS CHRIST TO DINE AND A SINNER IS FORGIVEN HER FAULTS. Both had probably acted on the invitation of Christ Matt. 11:28. The Pharisee was probably swayed by conflicting emotions. Apparently drawn to Christ by his miracles and discourse, he nevertheless neglected to extend to him the common acts of courtesy probably to demonstrate to his fellows that he was not a disciple. His attitude was one of confusion cp v. 39. The woman on the other hand, had no doubts; she believed he was Messiah and desired to demonstrate her belief by anointing him. She was anxious to be unburdened of the load of sin she bore. Here emotion is something for meditation and thought – have we such realisation of sin?

33 Her emotion got the better of her. Fast flowing tears of penitence fell from her eyes. To this moment she had been ignored. The Pharisee had permitted her to remain as a test on Christ v 39 – the Lord had ignored her. Thus her weeping became more anguished.

34 An act of hospitality Kindness and humility Cp 1 Tim. 5:10.

35 An act of reverence and humility. It was an ancient custom of the great after washing their hands to wipe them on the hair of some attendant page.

36 A token of subjection Cp Lk 2:49 23.

37 Probably expressive of her faith in him as Messiah – but feeling unworthy to anoint his head.

38 The Lord is courteous and dignified in his approach in spite of the hard thoughts and indifferent attention of the Pharisee.

Both Pharisee and woman were in that position. Like David before Nathan he stood self-condemned as the Lord proceeded to show – for the measure of Simon's appreciation of the Lord's ministry was demonstrated by his lack of courtesy.

SIMON'S LACK OF LOVE CONTRASTED WITH THE WOMAN'S WARM AFFECTION. Vv 44-47.

39 Having condescended to accept Simon's invitation he should have received the normal courtesies.

42 Her great love was exhibited in anticipation of benefits to be received or of those already obtained, and was shown in the warm excess of feeling manifest Cp 1 John 4:9-19.

43 Or who feel that they have but little to benefit from.

38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did [o] wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, [f] This man, if he were [p] a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus [h] answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred [2] pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he [m] frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I [r] entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but [s] she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 [t] Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 [u] My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she [x] loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, [y] Thy sins are forgiven.

The Pharisee thought he was conferring an honor on Christ by supplying him with a morsel of bread – the woman felt herself unworthy of making him the most courtly acknowledgment. 92

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. cp Rev 2, 3.

11 [d] Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation [h] fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit [i] with patience.

16 ¶ [j] No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a [k] vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 [q] For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 [r] Take heed therefore how ye hear: [t] for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he [2] seemeth to have.

19 ¶ [u] Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these [a] which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ [c] Now it came to pass on a certain day, [3] that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of [e] the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: [9] and there came down a storm of wind on [e] the lake; and they were filled with water, and [f] were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, [g] Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, [12] and rebuked the wind and the [i] raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? [14] And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And they arrived at the country of the [15] Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city [o] a certain man, which had devils [p] long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and [r] fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil [x] into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him,

3 They had attempted to restrain him on an earlier occasion Cp Mth 12:46-50 Notes Mk 3:31-35.

7 The Lord had tried to escape them by retiring into the house. Mk 4:10 Evidently the crowd eventually converged on the House so that the Lord, for privacy, took ship and crossed the Lake. V22

HE CALMS A VIOLENT STORM. Vv22-25. Mth 8:23-27 Mk 4:35-41

8 It is even time, he had dismissed the multitude, and exhausted he entered the ship Cp Mk 4:35-36 still pursued by followers. A night on the lake provides opportunity of seclusion & rest.

9 He was completely exhausted after a tiring and exacting day. He took his place on a stuffed leather cushion at the hinder part of the ship where steersmen sat Mk 4:38 and there fell into such a deep sleep that even the roar of the hurricane could not arouse him.

10 It was particularly noted for sudden and violent storms. But see Ps 107:25-27. This one would have driven away the other ships. Mk 4:36.

11 The raging storm with its howling wind and mountainous waves filled them with fear. The boat was in danger of sinking. They gather around him calling for help. Matthew records: "Lord save us" Mth 8:25. Mark: "Carest thou not that we perish."

12 And first rebuked their raging! "Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith!" Mth 8:26.

13 The dashing waves, the howling wind, the heaving, tossing ship, the fears and cries of the seamen – all by a single word were hushed into a calm repose. Note Christ's invitation to us. Mth 11:28-30.

14 So long as Christ was in the boat would God allow it to sink? Mark (4:40) adds: "Why are ye so fearful?" Cp Ps 46:1-3 84:4

LEGION = unclothed, insane, unhoused, associated with death – a symbol of the carnal mind.

The day had been an exhausting one. It had been made more tiring by the ill-judged attempt of his family to assert a claim on his actions Vv 19-21. He sought the isolation and quiet that the eastern side of the Sea of Galilee offered, especially in view of the great crowds who were converging on him V. 19. Math. 8:18. He seemed anxious to get away. Mark 4:36 so exhausted was he. But on the way to the boat he was accosted by those who sought his attention Mth 8:19-22. On the sea he was pursued by others Mk. 4:36. He fell into a deep sleep on the boat which even the storm could not break – though it mercifully drove away the other ships that were pursuing the Lord.

saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into [b] the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into [c] the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, [g] out of whom the devils were departed, [i] sitting at the feet of Jesus, [k] clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the country of the [m] Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into [n] the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now [o] the man [g] out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published [r] throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, [s] when Jesus was returned, the people [t] gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him. <<< Disciples questioned re fasting MT 9:14.

41 ¶ [a] And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had [c] one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent [d] all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the [f] border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, [h] Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and [l] falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath [p] made thee whole; [q] go in peace.

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

HEROD THE TETRARCH - Called by Jesus "that fox" Luke 13:31-34
Herod's younger son by Malthas (See Note Luke 4:7) He slew John the Baptist Mk 6:14-28 and briefly interviewed Jesus Luke 23:7-12. He was the ablest of Herod's sons, and like his father was a great builder. Tiberius was built by him (A.D 22) and named in honor of the Emperor Tiberius. He married the daughter of the Nabataean King Aretas but divorced her in order to marry Herodias, the wife of his half brother Herod Philip. This brought upon him the rebuke of John Luke 3:19-20, which aroused the wrath of Herodias. Josephus (Ant. 18:5:2) declares that Herod was afraid that John's great public following might develope into a riot. He was drawn to John's teaching Mk. 6:20, but trapped into executing him. Aretas naturally resented the insult offered his daughter and seized the opportunity to latter (36) wage war on him. Herod was heavily defeated and Josephus says that many looked on this as divine retribution for the murder of John. In 39 he was denounced by Herodias to the Emperor Gaius by his nephew Herod Agrippa I as a plotter. He was deposed and ended his life in exile.

HERODIAS - The granddaughter of Herod the Great by his son Aristobulus. She was formerly married to her uncle Philip. Some time after her marriage Herod Antipas fell passionately in love with her and made an offer of marriage which was accepted. She deserted her husband, who was only a private person, that she might share with the Tetrarch the honors of a crown. When Herod was exiled she chose to accompany him rather than accept the favor which Gaius was prepared to show to the sister of his friend Agrippa I.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Christ sendeth out his apostles. 7 Herod desireth to see Christ. 17 Christ feedeth five thousand: 22 foretelleth his passion. 28 The transfiguration. 37 He healeth the lunatick: 46 commendeth humility. 57 Divers would follow him, but upon conditions.

THEN [l] he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And [n] he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 [o] And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet [p] for a testimony against them.

6 [q] And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ [r] Now [s] Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he [t] was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? [b] And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ [c] And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. [d] And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called [e] Bethsaida.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and [h] spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and [i] healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to [k] wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and [m] lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶ And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and [u] he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that [b] one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God.

21 [c] And he [f] straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 [g] Saying, [k] The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and [m] take up his cross [n] daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or [p] be cast away?

26 [q] For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ [s] And it came to pass about an [a] eight days after these [2] [b] sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain [c] to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was [d] altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his [a] decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him were [c] heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw [d] his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as [e] they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, [h] Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: [i] not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as [e] they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. [e] And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ And it came to pass, that on the next day, [r] when they were come down from [2] the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, [t] look upon my son: for he is [u] mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly [x] crieth out; and it [v] teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

THE MOUNT OF TRANSFIGURATION. This was probably Mt Hermon as Christ was in its neighborhood. Mt Hs. 16:13, Mark 9:30. Hermon signifies High Mountain Deut 3:9 and would be appropriate for this purpose Ps. 133:3. It is a splendid snow-capped mountain, whose glittering peak is visible in the clear atmosphere as far south as the Dead Sea. The barrier of Hermon closes the northern frontier of Palestine, a spot significant in the Song of Solomon as a place of inspection of the Promised Land. Song 4:8 Toward this direction Christ slowly made his way until its lower slopes had been reached. Strong: Hermon, "Abrupt" from a root- "To seclude," thus separate.

7 Their lack of understanding at that stage revealed that they were ill-equipped for the work of preaching in the fullest extent.

THE GLORY EXHIBITED: THE TRANSFIGURATION. 28-36. Matt. 17:1-8. Mark 9:2-8 Note.

Cp. Mth 17:1 Mk 9:2 - after 6 days. Luke was numbering from the day referred to in v 27. The other writers showed a full 6 days intervened. For Christ glorified it will constitute the 8th day in the scene of Gen. 1:1-14, but it will be the 7th day in the sense of the millenium.

As he continued long in earnest prayer, they "fell asleep" in very weariness V32. Only to be wakened by the shining forth of Divine love and glory. His face and raiment became changed with light and glory. Matt 17:2-3. Mk. 9:2-4. Thus the Apostles saw His glory. MOSES AND ELIAS ● The Law and the Prophets. ● The Dead Deut 34:5-6 and the living 2 Kgs 2:1-11 (as he was caught away, so also shall they). ● Moses = "Drawing out" and speaks of resurrection. Elijah = "My Strength is Yahweh" reveals the purpose of resurrection. ● The Apostles recognized them - possibly through the conversation that ensued - but it argues the individual identification of saints in the millenium. ● Their conversation related to the very matter for which Christ had to rebuke Peter for lack of understanding a few days previously Mth 16:22 sq in the age to come we will see all things from the divine perspective.

buked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. [b] But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples,

44 Let these sayings [d] sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 [e] But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ [h] Then there arose [i] a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, [k] perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: [n] for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ [p] And John answered and said, [r] Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time [u] was come [x] that he should be received up, he [y] stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent [z] messengers before his face: and they went, and [a] entered into a village of the [c] Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And [f] they did not [g] receive him, because [h] his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, [@] even as Elias did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 [c] For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ And it came to pass, that, [e] as they [f] went in the way, [f] a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 [f] And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, [o] I will follow thee; but let me first go [q] bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, [s] having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is [t] fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Christ sendeth out seventy disciples: 17 admonisheth them to be humble, and wherein to rejoice: 25 teacheth how to attain eternal life: 41 reprehendeth Martha, and commendeth Mary.

AFTER these things the Lord appointed [a] other [b] seventy also, and [c] sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, [i] The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

WHO SHALL BE THE GREATEST? v.46. Though the disciples failed to understand that sufferings must precede the glory they did realise that some momentous incident related to some development towards the Kingdom was at hand. They thought it was the Kingdom itself Luke 19:11. The Transfiguration would have encouraged such belief. The fact that three only had been permitted to see the vision aroused a degree of jealousy – Who is to be greatest. Thus whereas Christ would have impressed upon them the principles of suffering and denial, their disputation "Instead of stimulating their self denial, it awoke their ambition; instead of confirming their love and humility, it stirred them up to jealousy and pride" (Tarbet) for the moment Christ chose to ignore their arguments, quietly rebuking them later when they were gathered in the house.

Here follows the Disciples' question: Why could we not cast it out? Matt 17:19-21 Mrs. Mk. 9:28-29.

Matthew, Mark add "shall kill him and he shall be raised the third day"

They were so filled with the coming glory of the Kingdom could not grasp the prior sufferings. They possibly thought he was speaking in a figurative sense. Cp Jn. 4:10.

Only about 6 months remain of his life before his death (from Feast Tabernacles in Oct. to Passover the following April)

97 JAMES, JOHN AND THE SAMARITANS. V.54

They were probably the messengers V.52. He had surnamed them "Sons of Thunder" Mk 3:17. John had earlier been reproved for manifesting an exclusive spirit like the Samaritans Luke 9:49-50. They were to occupy prominent positions in the ecclesia, and, like Peter, were singled out for special instruction and reproof. Mth. 16:18, 22.

They did not receive him because he was going to Jerusalem. Accustomed welcome received. Jhn 4:39-45

Yet they were willing to receive Him as a prophet. Jhn. 4:19.

This was the beginning of the hostility that was to grow until both Jews and Gentiles were to rise against him.

So completely did they misunderstand his mission despite the instruction of the last few days. Luke 9:22 They became hot with indignation at the insult paid their Lord. It was probably to teach them this lesson that he sent them to the village knowing they would be rejected. V.52.

As they proceed on their way they are accosted by a fellow-traveller who recognises Jesus.

A repetition of Mt. 8:19-20 but a different incident. He was about to cross the sea there – here he is walking to Jerusalem. See Notes. Mth 8:19-20.

THE LORD'S INVITATION REPULSED. Vv 59-60. Sacrifices the things of life enough entered into

This was a test to which this man did not, apparently, respond. The Lord seemed to walk ahead of the disciples except those who wished to converse with him. Cp. V.11, 46. Thus he illustrated their spiritual walk.

A perfectly reasonable request – but Christ saw beyond it to the real motive.

POMPOUSNESS REBUKED Vv61-62

The request of Elisha which was granted 1 Kg. 19:20. It was refused by the Lord, for he doubtless could see that this person having once come again under the spell of those things "at home at my house" would be diverted from an undivided loyalty to Christ. Two persons and circumstances cause instructions to alter.

Diag. Clarke = "first to set in order my affairs." This would have delayed his discipleship to Christ would have caused him to put his hand to the plough and look back.

He was going to sacrifice for Christ, not rest on the sacrifice of Christ!! There seems to be a sense of impressing Christ with the sacrifice he was prepared to make for his cause.

To plough a straight furrow the eye must be steadily set on the object ahead – all else must be subservient to it. Phil. 3:13-14.

"AFTER THESE THINGS" LUKE 10:1. Luke 9:51 corresponds with Mth 19:1a Mk 10:1a. Jhn 7:2-10 fills in details, shows Lord went "privately" to feast, delaying his departure Jhn 7:2-9 and instead of going usual route through Perea, he went the way of Samaritan. Luke 9:52. He then teaches at the feast Jhn 7:14,37. 10:1-20. Two views, the latter here is still in Jerusalem Jhn 10:22, and there is nothing to contradict the idea that the time was spent in Judea. If so, the 70 taught in the hitherto neglected portion of Judea, and Luke 10:1 - 13:21 gives incidents of this period neglected by other writers. After feast dedication Christ left Jerusalem Jhn 10:40, for Perea beyond Jordan. Here events of Luke 13:22 - 17:10 take place. Recalled to Bethany by death Lazarus. Jhn. 11. he later retires to Ephraim Jhn 11:54. From there he commences a leisurely return to Jerusalem, traveling north to Galilee Luke 17:11 crossing the Jordan & returning to Jerusalem via Perea.
* That Christ taught throughout "all Judea" is claimed in Luke 23:5. Acts 10:37

5 Like reapers into the harvest. Appropriate just after Feast Tabernacles. See introductory note to Matt. 10.

4 Cp Note Mt. 9:37 There was now a greater urgency than the time he uttered these words to the 12, because of the lateness of the time, thus a further 70 "reapers" are sent out.

5 They were not forbidden, as were the 12 Mt. 10:5, to go into the way of Gentiles or cities of Samaritans. Like the 70 bullocks in Feast Tabernacles, the 70 could call both Jews & Gentiles - whilst the 12 exclusively for Israel. Their ministry illustrated the words proclaimed just before this Jhn. 10:16.

6 They were to give themselves entirely to the work in hand, not allowing matters of mere compliment to detain them.

Even his unbelieving relations urged this Jhn 7:4. It was thus nearing the time he should be "received up" i.e into heaven indicating that his mind was on the future glory despite present problems and trials Heb. 12:2. Thus he "stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem" Cp Isa 50:7-8 but he went secretly Jhn 7:10 through Samaria Luke 9:52. That this was not the last time he visited the city is shown by Luke's other references. Luke 11:22. 17:11. 18:31. 19:11.

WHAT SHALL I DO? Vv 25-28

23 The word in itself means thoroughly to prove, as in [illegible] but the context shows that the lawyer wanted to put the Lord at a disadvantage. Already Christ had said people must believe in him. Jhn 6:29. 8:24. Gr EXPLIRAZO

24 The man being a lawyer, Christ takes him on his own ground. He would be wearing phylacteries on his wrist containing the very words to which the Lord draws attention. So it is as though he said: Look at your phylacteries - what do you read!

THE GOOD SAMARITAN: PARABLE AND PROPHECY.

It arose out of the question: What shall I do to inherit Eternal life? Man has journeyed from God, has been robbed + despoiled by sin. The representatives of the Law + Sacrifice have passed him by in his need, but one decried as a Samaritan John 8:48, has come to his help with oil + wine Isa 61:1 and this practical manifestation of sacrifice + truth in action we are called upon to emulate.

The parable also showed that the Jewish interpretation of the law was wrong, for it limited acts of Kindness to Jews only in spite of the Law's injunction Exod. 23:9. Lev. 19:34. Exod. 23:4-5. Deut. 22:1-4. The Law should have led to Christ, causing them to see in the unfortunate + stranger they were called upon to help a picture of themselves. Instead their interpretation turned them away.

HEALING THE DUMB DEMONIAC W.14-26. MATT. 12:22-45 records in very similar words the curing of one who was both blind and dumb, a miracle that was followed by a similar charge and answer as here. So similar are the circumstances that at first sight it seems a repetition of the same incident. But that in Matthew occurred in Capernaum, this near Jerusalem. The repetition of the charge would be quite natural though in Matthew it is made by the Pharisees, here by the people. Possibly the Pharisees of Jerusalem were circulating the scandal that Christ's miracles were the effect of Christ himself being possessed thus causing some to lay the charge against the Lord.

14 In Matthew - blind & dumb.

15 In Matthew - the Pharisees.

E Some, probably instigated by the Pharisees were spreading the idea that he performed the miracles through the instrumentality of the possessed. Thus some asked a sign from heaven such as would authenticate that the miracle was of God.

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, [c] Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And I say unto you, [d] Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he [2] offer him a [f] scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: [m] how much more shall your heavenly Father give [n] the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 ¶ [o] And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out devils through [3] Beelzebub the chief of the devils.

16 And others, [s] tempting him, [t] sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 [u] But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your [a] sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with [b] the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

22 This must have been a discerning woman, impressed by all she had seen and heard suddenly and dramatically raised a voice from the artificial unity of the crowd, but in her ignorance glorifying the flesh.

23 This glorying in the flesh anticipates the attitude of the Papacy who describes Mary as the Queen of heaven, but dishonors her by not doing and bringing not a blessing but desolation - as did Israel Jer. 44:16-29. Mary looked forward to the overthrow of such brutal systems as the Papacy Luke 1:51-55

34 [i] The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first [n] washed before dinner.

39 [o] And the Lord said unto him, [a] Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of [b] ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 But rather [d] give alms [4] of such things as ye have; and, behold, [p] all things are clean unto you.

ARGUMENT IN THE HOUSE OF THE PHARISEE. 37-54. The Pharisees or separatists would be pleased than other more to hear Christ reprovoth the people of being in a filthy, dam and condemned state unless they felt that such justified their own separation.

42 [q] But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye [r] tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love [s] the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and [t] greetings in the markets.

44 [u] Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the [v] lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! [f] for ye [w] lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 [x] Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye [g] allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said [y] the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and [z] persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed [y] from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the [c] temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 Woe unto you, lawyers! [e] for ye have taken away the key of [f] knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye [5] hindered.

4 THE LAWYERS SILENCED. Vv 45-52.

THE BREAKFAST ENDS IN AN UPROAR

The invitation was probably given out of curiosity. It brought the Lord into a company of Scribes and Pharisees who watched his every move, prepared to criticised. His reclining without washing was observed in supercilious amazement, and their state of mind brought forth the outspoken rebuke that ultimately involved the whole company. It ended in an uproar with the Lord leaving the house badgered by the Pharisees v.53. Outside a numerous company had gathered the noise of which was doubtless heard inside the house.

43 The lawyers were versed in the law and identified with the scribes Cp v. 44.

44 Their interpretations of the law became the oral law. They imposed restrictions and penalties which they themselves were not prepared to shoulder.

45 They preserved and garnished these memorials of the prophets, but by their hard-hearted attitude proved they were true sons of those who killed them.

12 Aristaō, the morning meal - a light repast about 11 o'clock. The Jews had two meals, the heaviest being dinner at night.

13 Diao. "and reclined." He did not ponder his tradition by first washing. It was not for hygienic purposes but a heedless pseudo-religious formalism.

THE PARABLE OF NABAL - THE WEALTHY FOOL! Vv15-21.

Cp 1 Sam 25. Cp V.38. A "fool" is defined as a Godless man Ps 14:1 which expresses the sense "No God for me!" (Note that "there is" is in italics). The Psalmist depicted the rich fool Ps 49:6, 11-13. and his pernicious influence Psalm 73.
Contrast the attitude of the wealthy David 1 Chron 29:14.

In his passion to hoard wealth the rich fool had no thought of their Divine source, and the use of them for Divine purposes. He was caught up in the "love of money" 1 Tim. 6:10. and deceitfulness of riches Mth. 13:22. The rich fool was thus a spiritual bankrupt. Cp Prov. 13:7-11. because he was not rich towards God Luke 12:21. Cf. 2 Cor. 6:10. Jam. 2:5. Rev. 2:9. Rev. 3:17. The danger of riches Mth. 19:23-24.

49 Both: "From thence he came out." The meal broke up in confusion with the Lord abruptly leaving & the Pharisees throwing off all guise of friendliness or interest, pouring upon him a flood of questions and invective to catch him. Thus they revealed their real character.

Christ preacheth

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to [b] urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:
54 [c] Laying wait for him, and [c] seeking to catch something out of his mouth, [f] that they might accuse him.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Christ preacheth to his disciples to avoid hypocrisy: 13 to beware of covetousness. 22 Of worldly carefulness. 49 Of divisions, on account of the gospel.

IN the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, "Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is [o] hypocrisy.
2 [p] For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.
3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in [r] closets shall be proclaimed upon the [s] housetops.
4 And I say unto you [t] my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.
5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.
6 Are not five sparrows sold for two [z] farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?
7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.
8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before [a] the angels of God:
9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.
10 And [d] whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.
11 [g] And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto [h] magistrates, and [i] powers, [i] take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:
12 [m] For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.
13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.
14 And he said unto him, [q] Man, [r] who made me a judge or a divider over you?
15 And he said unto them, [s] Take heed, and beware of covetousness: [t] for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.
16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:
17 And he [v] thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to [a] bestow my fruits?
18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my [b] barns, and build greater; and there will I [a] bestow all my fruits and my goods.
19 And I will say to my soul, [d] Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.
20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, [e] this night [3] thy soul shall be required of thee: then [g] whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

17 Merimnao = anxious thought (Cp R.V.). This is how his disciples are to conduct themselves among their enemies so as to avoid denying him. They are to remain calm, patient, relying on Divine guidance, avoiding undue anxiety. His recent experience Luke 11: 37-54 illustrated this. See Mth. 10:19.

CHAPTER 12.

1 INSTRUCTING THE DISCIPLES ATTITUDE Vv1-12

Outside a tremendous crowd had gathered, and fresh from his experience of Pharisee hypocrisy, the Lord warns the people of such teaching.

2 DANGER OF THE LEAVEN OF THE PHARISEES Vv1-12

1 Lit. myriads. A myriad = 10,000. It must have been galling to the Pharisees to see such interest in Christ and to hear his public denunciation of their attitude.
2 This hypocrisy worked silently but effectively through the nation - others imitating the example set.
3 Play-acting. They acted a part out of their true character. The word literally signifies a reply, an answer as the actors spoke in dialogue - thus their acting was all words - mere word + sound.
4 Sunkaluptō - an intensive form of to cover meaning to do so completely.
5 Cp Ecc 12:14. Mth. 10:26 Luke 8:17. 1 Cor. 4:5.
6 Insinuation + invective. Speech will be brought into judgment. Mth 5 vs 37. Cp Jam 3:5-10. The Lord's words were such that he had nothing to hide or be ashamed of & directed that they should be treated as men's words shall be treated at the Judgment. Mat. 12:37.
7 Secret things then to be publicly revealed. 2 Cor. 5:10.
8 This was not the entire multitude but John 15:14.
9 The Lord had just exhibited this fearlessness Luke 11:39-54. See Prov. 29:25.

12 Not "by" God, but "before" Him. In ordering creation He has not overlooked the needs of the most humble of His creatures - those that minister to man's sustenance. Ps 104 vs 27-30.

The Rich fool becomes the self-centred fool. Note the repetition of "I" and "my" Vv17-19. There was no thought of God. His ground had produced plentifully - but who had given the sunshine + rain? Cf. Prov. 3:9-10. Mal. 3:8-11.

The self centred fool becomes the Ambitious Fool Luke 12:18-19. forgetting God in his search for material possessions. Ambition in itself is not evil, but when indulged in at the expense of God it is. He wanted security for many years to come

Through God's bounty

The intention of the Pharisees

They are preserved for in the order of creation.

Thus confessing his lack of trust in God. He had a love of ease, not recognising the will of God that he should labor. He wanted to indulge his love of pleasure without acknowledging his debt to God for all that he had. V 21

The Ambitious Fool thus become the Doomed Fool for he did not live to enjoy his wealth. - nor is their real enjoyment in such when a man lives without God. Instead of his barns he had a burial. "As the partridge sitteth on eggs and hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, & not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, & at his end shall be a fool" Jer. 17:11

Permitted - but not at the exclusion of God. See Mark.

14 DAN INTERRUPTION: SPEAK TO MY BROTHER 3x

It was an ill-timed interference, governed by covetous self-interest. The man heard words of authority + power, and sort the opportunity to press his personal claims.

18 Christ came to sacrifice his self interest to save lives. How incongruous to demand that he urge his self interest.

THE PASSOVER FOR CHRIST'S FOLLOWERS. Vv 35-38 - The expressions used (V 35) are those of the Passover (Exod. 12:42) in celebration of which lamps were lit. It is described by the Jews as a "Night of watching unto the Lord" Exod. 12:42 when the utmost vigilance had to be observed in readiness for the call. After partaking of the Passover, the door is opened as indicative of the time when Elijah shall come to announce the promised Deliverer (the open door representing Israel's open reception of him). "Gamos" is used both for the actual wedding feast and that which preceded it at betrothal (M. & M.). Espousal was a covenant as binding as a marriage and apparently ceremoniously indicated by placing the garment of the Groom over the Bride Ruth 3:9. Isa. 61:11.12. In Ezek. 16:8 the Passover is represented as the betrothal feast. Such marriage was arranged between the Bridegroom and his father who then negotiated for it Gen. 34:4 and dowry and 21 So is he that (a) layeth up treasure for himself, and (b) is not rich toward God. (GV.11)

4 AVOID WORLDLY ANXIETY - MANIFEST TRUST 22-30

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, (a) Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 See note Mt. 6:25

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor [i] barn; and [k] God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his [o] stature [p] one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, (2) neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 ¶ But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, [v] little flock; for (a) it is your Father's good pleasure to give you (a) the kingdom.

33 [b] Sell that ye have, and [c] give alms; [z] provide yourselves bags which wax not old, (c) a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 [c] For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 [e] Let your loins be girded about, and [f] your lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from [g] the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 [h] Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find [j] watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall [m] gird himself, and [n] make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the [q] second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 [r] And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready also: (2) for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 ¶ Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable [t] unto us, or even [u] to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise [x] steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

8 ANOTHER INTERRUPTION: FOR WHOM IS THE PARABLE? Vv 41-48.

Peter was perhaps concerned lest the multitude construe the Apostles to be among those classed as not watching.

35 The Lord did not directly reply - instead answered with another parable demonstrating qualities of a good steward.

36 It is not sufficient to be faithful, discretion must also be manifested. Mt. 24:46.

38 They were usually slaves or freedmen elevated to position of privilege. Christ was stewards and had to manifest an example of faithfulness. 1 Cor. 4:1-2 and discretion. Ps. 112:5. But Peter, whose question was here answered, shows that all are stewards of the Truth they have received and must be faithful to its requirements. Tit. 1:7-9.

39 A greater responsibility rests upon those who have attained positions of authority.

39 Milk necessarily comes first 1 Pet. 2:2. 1 Cor. 3:2 but stewards should see to the maturing of those under their care Eph. 4:14. Heb. 5:12-14. thus "in due season" providing meat.

40 The steward is a slave. Doulos - one whose will is swallowed up in that of another. See 1 Pet. 5:1-4. Cp R. 12:1. 7:1.

41 Oppressive to fellow slaves under him indifferent to the Household V 42 THERAPEIA = healing, service, care, attention. The word also occurs in the parallel passage Mt. 24:45 though some mss. have OIKETEIA - a household of servants.

5 WHAT CHRIST'S DISCIPLES SHOULD SEEK. Vv 31-34.

Zeteo - to search. "seek" in V 30 is ziteitheo, an intensive form of the verb indicating the earnest, continual seeking that the nations give to materialism. Cp Luke 11:9. See Notes Mt. 6:33

The prophecy of the flock revealed that was cause for Zech. 13:7.

6 HOW THEY SHOULD ACT. Vv 33-34.

36 Instead of storing up as the wealthy did be liberal, make your riches work. It is a good investment! Prov. 19:17.

37 Cf. Hag. 1:6. The Truth must become a practical reality even at the cost of self

THE PASSOVER FOR CHRIST'S FOLLOWERS (Cont.) gift were given to the bride and her father Gen. 34:12. The same principle of separation and dedication existed between the Bride and Groom as a priest and Yahweh Isa. 61:11. Jer. 2:3.

Here Christ is shown joyfully returning from the espousal feast. As Bridegroom he has paid his dowry and gift to his Bride and her Father-Yahweh. And his Father has negotiated for the marriage Rom. 5:8. Now he returns to rejoice with his servants who rejoice with him, he lovingly reward them for their vigilance and interest in his welfare.

12 WHILST THERE IS TIME - REPENT

V.53 cites Micah's prophecy. In Mic 6 Israel's apostasy is argued as in a court of Law, with the warning of Punishment to come vv 11-13.

The Lord now warns the people of coming punishment & exhorts them to repent while there is time. The exhortation can be applied personally.

CHAPTER 13

13 THE SLAIN GALILEANS Illustrative of Christ's

1 That was the philosophy of pagans Acts 28:4 and of Job's ignorant friends. Cp Luke 9:11

2 This is confirmation of John's warning message Mt 3:1-2 Luke 3:7-14. AD 70 saw repetition of VI in city.

14 THE DOOMED BARREN FIG TREE vv 6-10.

5 He detected in them a spirit of smug self complacency V.1. as to suggest they had escaped disaster by their own virtue.

6 Emblem of Israel Joel 1:7. Cp Mth 21:18-22 with 24:32.

9 Render inactive, i.e. useless, to spoil. Gulf in danger. The Fig Tree was not only fruitless, but robbed the soil of nutriment so that others could not bear. Such is influence of fruitless persons.

THE FATE OF THE REJECTED. - The Scriptures give a clear indication of this. They speak of "shame" Dan. 12:2. "tribulation, anguish and wrath" Rom. 2:8-9, hurt and corruption Rev. 2:11. Gal. 6:8 banishment to outer darkness Mth. 22:13. weeping, gnashing of teeth Mth. 13:28, burning up with fire unquenchable Mk 9:44. Isa. 66:24 Mal 4:1-2. His "naked-ness is first seen Rev. 16:15. he is publicly condemned in the presence of angels, and fellow-servants Rev 3:5-9 Luke 12:8 and then banished into the world of unbelievers Luke 13:46.

WHO WERE THE GALILEANS? Luke 13:1. 104

The answer to that is conjecture. Some think it was Judas the Galilean (Acts 5:37). but such acts of violence were common, and the Galileans were among the most turbulent of people. The attack was evidently unprovoked as far as the sufferers were concerned, and they were slaughtered as they worshipped. Perhaps Pilate took a sadistic delight in this cold-blooded attack for they were subjects of Herod who was his bitter enemy. It may have been for this reason that Herod was in Jerusalem with armed soldiers at the following Passover either for his own protection or for that of his subjects. Luke 23:11. When Pilate knew that Jesus was "a Galilean" he sent him to Pilate and so effected a reconciliation Luke 23:6-12

Perhaps for the same reason Barabbas was released. He was a "notable" prisoner, Mt 27:16, a robber John 18:40 who had committed murder during an insurrection Mk 15:7. This could have been the occasion.

It is significant that the death of Christ should unite these two evil men (as the world is united against the Truth) and brought about the release of the criminal.

14 THE DOOMED BARREN FIG TREE Vv6-10.

WHO WERE THE GALILEANS? Luke 13:1. 104

The answer to that is conjecture. Some think it was Judas the Galilean (Acts 5:37) but such acts of violence were common, and the Galileans were among the most turbulent of people. The attack was evidently unprovoked as far as the sufferers were concerned, and they were slaughtered as they worshipped. It is significant that the death of Christ should unite these two evil men (as the world is united against the Truth) and brought about the release of the criminal.

THE PARABLE OF THE BARREN FIG TREE is a warning to a fruitless world, a fruitless believer, a fruitless nation, a fruitless Ecclesia.
It had a threefold condemnation: 1 It was fruitless 2 It occupied a privileged space that other trees could fill 3 It drained the soil of nutriment at the expence of surrounding growth.

EVANGELISING IN PEREA. Luke 13:22. He left Jerusalem for Bethabara in Perea John 10:40. After preaching here for a while he commences a circuit of Perea en route for Jerusalem (Luke 17:22. See note opp. p. 143) a journey that was interrupted by the raising of Lazarus John 11. That this section relates to Perea is indicated in Luke 13:22.

DRAMA IN THE JUDAEAN SYNAGOGUE V.10-21
A DESPERATELY SICK WOMAN IS HEALED AND A BIGOT IS OPENLY REPROVED.

THE MIRACLE 10-13
10 Among the congregation the Lord saw this object of pity. The infirmity of the flesh caused her face to be turned always to the ground, his influence, power lifted it up. In her desperate state she found solace in divine worship & thus was cured.
11 We can imagine the poor, bent up woman shuffling forward, the eyes of all the congregation on her

THE RULER'S INDIGNATION & THE LORD'S QUOTATION REBUKE 14-17
12 As such he exercised judicial authority. See note p. 51
13 He stands forth in clumsy, angry zeal, to defend the formalism of Judaism. The murmurs of wonder & admiration at the miracle, as well as the expression of some V.17 is now answered by the pompous Pharisaism of the hour.
14 He dare not attack the Lord whose power was evident, nor the woman who had done no wrong, but the addressing people.
15 He thus unconsciously recognised the fact of the miracle, & thus of God's power up on which his words now stand in judgment!
Play-actor. He pretended not to oppose Jesus' work of mercy but to reprove the people out of his zeal for God. Cp Prov. 29:1. The Lord reveals his inner inconsistency.
And why? Because such care will result in better service to its master.
16 The Lord recognised her true character (cp 19:9) She was probably well known for her piety. Cp Luke 19:9

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. Somewhere adjacent to Jerusalem. Cp Map p. 98
11 ¶ And, behold, there was a woman which had a [c] spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise [f] lift up herself.
12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.
13 And he [i] laid his hands on her: and immediately she was [k] made straight, and [l] glorified God. See Note top p. 52.
14 And [o] the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, [p] because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, [q] There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and [u] not on the sabbath day.
15 The Lord then answered him, and said, [v] Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose [z] his ox or his ass from the [b] stall, and lead him away to watering?
16 And ought not this woman, [d] being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day? 2 Cor. 12:7.
17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and [g] all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.
18 ¶ Then said he, [k] Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?
19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.
20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God? See Notes Mt. 8:21-22.
21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.
22 [d] And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and [e] journeying toward Jerusalem.
23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few [g] that be saved? And he said unto them,
24 ¶ [h] Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. desire. Zeteo
25 [m] When once the master of the house is risen up, and [n] hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, [q] Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, [r] I know you not whence ye are:
26 Then shall ye begin to say, [s] We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and [z] thou hast taught in our streets.
27 But he shall say, I tell you, [t] I know you not whence ye are; [a] depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.
28 [c] There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see [e] Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.
29 [e] And they shall come [f] from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God. Cp Rom. 1:16
30 And, behold, [h] there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.
31 ¶ The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart [l] hence: for [m] Herod will kill thee.

25 Great in comparison with the usual run of herbs.
26 Cp Dan. 4:12. The Mustard seed was used for birds' food. "Because of its hot, fiery vigor, and giving only its best virtues when bruised, it is therefore attractive to the taste of birds who are drawn to the herb for food & shelter."

4 PARABLE OF LEAVEN: THE INTENSIVE NATURE OF KINGDOM. Vv 21-22.
21 Zumŏo - to ferment (as if boiling up) from root zĕo - to be hot. Rend. "fervent" Acts 18:25 Rom 12:11. Str. The hidden effects of Truth as it will permeate mankind.
28 It is significant that a man sows the seed, but a woman hides the leaven. Christ will establish the Kingdom in its political aspect, the Bride will sow its teaching among men.
Christ at Feast Dedication John 10:22. See Note top p.

CIRCUIT OF PEREA. V 22.
See note above - outline next page.
29 His intention was evidently a leisurely journey to Jerusalem by a circuitous route such as is suggested in Luke

JESUS AND THE PHARISEES V 23 - 14:24.

1 AGONISE TO ENTER. Vv 22-30
30 Though not specifically stated, the context implies a Pharisee Cp V.31. Ch. 14:1.
31 This seems to be a self-righteous question, as though the speaker did not doubt he would be saved, but contemptuously considered that but few of a privileged class would be with him. The Lord's answer implies this, warning him that only by hard personal effort would he be saved.
32 The individual was representative of a group.
33 Gr. Agonise 1 Cor. 9:25. The Lord emphasises the need for personal effort that personal salvation might be effected & thus turns the questioner's mind from the class which he represented, to himself. Cp Vv 23, Cp Mt. 7:21-22
34 Salvation is to be sought now Deut 4:15, Ps 32:6, Isa 55:6, 2 Cor 6:2
35 They agonise too late!
36 At the table!
37 Through our means. A teacher must be more than a mere way-mark or sign-post - pointing the way but never going there!

2 HYPOCRITICAL WARNING OF PHARISEES. Vv 31-35.
It appears as though the Pharisees were intriguing with Herod, and perhaps urged him to imprison John. They were opposed to the latter. See note Mt. 3:8. There opposition caused Christ to leave Judea John 4:1-2 just prior to John's imprisonment Mt. 4:12. Now they warn him to leave Perea because of Herod's threats. The Lord's reply implies that he knew that they were on terms of familiarity with Herod V.32 and that he 13 He declared in Heb a spirit of smug self-complacency V.1. as to suggest they had escaped disaster by their own virtue.

It was deliberately planted in rich soil carefully nurtured and protected.
Christ's ministry had now occupied three years. Could also relate to three seasons of Israel's history: Moses, Kingdom (with the prophets) the Restoration.
Render inactive, useless, to spoil. But longer. The Fig Tree was not only fruitless but robbed the soil of nutriment so that others could not bear. Such is influence of fruitless persons.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day [c] I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless I must [d] walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that [e] a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.

34 [f] O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen [g] doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

CHAPTER 14.

1 Christ healeth the dropsy on the sabbath: 7 teacheth humility: 12 to feast the poor. 15 The parable of the great supper. 25 What is required of those who would be Christ's disciples. 34 Of salt that hath lost his savour.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees [a] to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they [b] watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus [c] answering spake unto the [d] lawyers and Pharisees, saying, [e] Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

5 And [f] answered them, saying, Which of you shall have [g] an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And [h] they could not answer him again to these things.

7 ¶ And he [i] put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he [j] marked how they chose [k] out the [l] chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a [m] wedding, sit not down in the [n] highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou [o] begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 [p] But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, [q] Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 [r] For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade [s] him, When thou makest a [t] dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou [u] makest a feast, call [v] the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for [w] thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection [x] of the just.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, [y] Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 Then said he unto him, [z] A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And sent his servant at supper time [a] to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and [b] I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither [h] the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, [i] Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, [o] That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them,

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet [c] him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that [d] forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

PARABLE OF THE GREAT SUPPER. – In pleading to be excused one claims a pretended necessity: "I must needs go..." one sets forth his own will: "I go to prove them" one claims an impossibility: "I cannot come..." All perish by things in themselves lawful, but pressed against that which should have taken the precedence. Cp Lu 10 41-42.

VERSE 26. True discipleship is a work of soberness, of calm, fixed and determined purpose, and no man can properly enter on it who does not resolve by the grace of God to fulfil all His requirements, and make it the prevailing and dominating business of his life. It will cost the mortification of sin, and a life of self-denial and a conflict with our lusts, and the enmity and ridicule of the world – often of our relations. It may cost us our life and our liberties, and all that is dear to us. Paul says: "But what things were gain to me I counted loss for Christ...." Phil. 3:7-8.

16 Jn XII 5:40. The real ground of all these excuses is contempt for the feast. They are glad to have something to make their excuse sound legitimate.

17 The time being short for Jewry – so the urgent appeal is made to the common people.

18 These are the ones the Pharisee had been told to invite to his Sabbath meal V.14. as being those who would more readily respond to the favor shown – they have the greater need of the "supper." Cp Ecc. 11:7.

19 Among the Gentiles. Cp Acts 2:46.

20 To press earnestly, not to compel by force. Paul illustrated the method 2 Cor. 5:11, 20. 2 Tim. 4:2. Acts 20:31.

21 Yet they were the privileged class. Prov 1:24. Mt. 21:43. Acts 13:46.

JESUS AND THE MULTITUDE 25-16:13.
THE COST AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF DISCIPLESHIP 25-35

22 As the good shepherd he was leading the flock.

23 Figurative language expressing a great love for one than the other. 9:11 with Matt. 7:30-31. Cp Mtk. 10:37 where literal meaning is given: "love father & mother more than Me." See the terrible covenant Deut 33:8-9 Mt. 10:37-39 Acts 20:24 Rev. 12:11.

25 The insignia of a condemned criminal going to his death. See notes Lu. 10:38. Mk. 8:34. Cp Gal. 6:14.

26 So the Lord would have us carefully weigh up the reality of the duties before us, the sacrifices to be made, the obligations to be resisted, that we might seek the necessary strength and resources to complete that which we set out to build.

27 The work must not be abandoned in the absence of it, but rather in our own personal weakness we should seek the all-sufficient strength Phil. 4:13.

28 His invitation is swept away in his joy. He recognises the natural tendency of sheep to wander. He sees it footsore and weary and tenderly cares for it, joyfully bearing it homewards. He rejoices with his friends, not in the value of the saved, but in the fact of having done so.

29 Is natural for sheep to stray. See Peter's comment on this parable: 1 Pet. 2:25.

30 The personal loss might not be great, though the shepherd had to account for all Gen. 31:39. but his reputation required the greatest care of each member of the flock Cf. Ezek. 34:11-16. See the Good Shepherd accounting to the Father John 17:12. going after the "lost" Luke 22:31-32. teaching the shepherd John 21:15-19.

31 He would not abandon them, but provide for their shelter and safety.

32 Actually all were in that state Isa. 53:6. 1 Pet. 2:25. – like wandering sheep, lost in solitude's stony places.

28 Prov. 20:18. Eph. 6:10-20. 1 Tim. 6:12. Peter rashly encountered the enemy in his own strength and was put to flight Luke. 22:31-34. 54-61 – which enabled him to exhort his brethren as to where the source of true strength lay. – 1 Pet. 5:6-9.

29 Unless a person considers and understands the cost of discipleship and realizes that it demands all sacrifices to attain success, he will reap but shame and failure. Christ did not mean that one should count the cost and finding it heavy evade the issue (that would bring shame – Jn 12:42-43) but rather seek Divine strength in the inevitable battle of life 2 Cor. 12:9.

30 Apotassō – to set apart, to appoint. Apo – off, from. Tassō, to arrange. Hence to take leave of, to separate oneself from. A disciple must not be so closely identified with possessions as to not be able to completely put them aside in sense of 1 Tim. 6:17-19.

31 The case of those who had not provided for the difficulties of discipleship and after a profession of same, cease to manifest the power of the Truth. See use of word 2 Cor. 2:14-17.

CHAPTER 15.

2 CRITICISED FOR ASSOCIATING WITH PUBLICANS

1 Hamartōlos (one who misses the mark). This word seems to apply to irreligious people who lived like Gentiles Mt. 9:10, 11, 13. 11:19. and for Gentiles Mk. 26:45. Gal. 2:15. In their contempt of God, they could be guilty of immorality, having thrown off the restraints of religion.

2 Diagonguzō – A multiplier murmur, grumble in a low tone (gonguzō) with "dia" added. – To murmur through the crowd. The murmur was designed to influence the crowd against Christ.

3 PARABLE OF LOST SHEEP vv3-7.

3 There are three aspects of one parable in this chapter: See note top next page.

4 Apollumi – completely lost. "the subject being the sufferer" (Bull.). The sheep had strayed through taking its eyes off the shepherd, and seeking pastures that seemed to offer better food. It was thus itself responsible for straying (unlike the coin) – drawn aside by greed or curiosity. – natural inclination of the flesh, for it

THREE PARABLES THAT ARE ONE. The three parables of this chapter are described as one v.3. and thus flow naturally one into the other without introduction vv 8, 11. they illustrate three aspects of one subject - the work of redemption. THE SHEEP - had strayed through curiosity or desire for better pasture. THE COIN - had been lost not by its own action, but by that of the woman. THE SON - had deliberately, wilfully and consciously left the house. The first represented a 1% loss, the second a 10% loss, the third a 50% loss!! - but their reclamation was all equally sought. And in the characters suggested, there are revealed the three mediums of reconciliation: the Shepherd, the woman (Ecclesia), the Father. The first centres attention on the LOST, the second on the SEARCH, the third on the RESTORATION. The dominant verbs are LOSE, SEEK, FOUND.

Parable of ST. LUKE 15. the prodigal son.

9 The language of irony. They think they have no need of repentance - they are self-righteous. Cp Mk. 2:17. Luke 5:32. = the indignant Pharisees.

4 THE LOST PIECE OF SILVER. Vv 8-10.

This Parable would appeal to women in the audience as that of the Shepherd would appeal to the men.

10 Connecting this parable with that which preceded it.

11 Women wore upon their brow a frontlet called "semedi" made up of coins largely valueless but which had the stamp of authority for it signified betrothal or marriage relationship. Though of little monetary value, they were priceless to the woman in their sentimental value, in their charm and adornment - thus the keen and earnest search. So it should be for those lost to Christ "in the house."
The 1st par. = Tenderness
The 2nd par. = Earnest care.

5 PARABLE OF LOST SON vv 11-32.

12 He had a legal right to the inheritance Deut. 21:17. but it was an act of grace for the father to give it to him during his lifetime.

13 He cut himself off from his home - figuratively from God - for that is what the expression could mean to a Hebrew. Cp Jonah 1:3.

14 Amos 3:11-12. This adverse circumstance was providential for the good of the son.

15 Kollaō - to glue, cement, or join firmly. In his extreme want - homeless and hungry - he forced himself on to the citizen as the Jews have on the Gentiles following with Lockey. Gave him the most degrading and humiliating task.

16 The carob-pods, the fruit of the Carob-tree, were fed to swine. It was considered only fit for animals and the Jews had a saying: "When Israel is reduced to the Carob-tree, they become repentant."

17 they looked upon the miserable degraded son with contempt, it beneath their notice. Yet once he was heir to a fortune and liberally gave to all.

18 So his action in deserting his father and home (or the Father) was a form of lunacy.

20 He recognises his need, and humbled by reverses seeks the Love he previously despised.

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me [r] the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them [s] his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and [t] took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And [u] he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he [x] came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, [c] I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And [d] am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But [b] when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and [c] ran, and [d] fell on his neck, and [e] kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, [f] I have sinned against heaven, [g] and in thy sight, and [h] am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth [i] the best robe, and put it on him; and put [k] a ring on his hand, and [l] shoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the [m] fatted calf, and [o] kill it, and let us eat, and [p] be merry:

24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard [r] musick and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and [s] asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: [t] therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me [a] a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast [b] killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, [e] thou art ever with me, and [f] all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad:

24 The Symbol of Authority

24 The Sign of status. Slaves were not allowed to wear shoes. - thus the badge of sonship

25 A special animal - Speaking of communion.

26 This was the attitude of the Pharisees who rejected the Divine mercy because Christ taught "sinners" - the Gentiles with Gentile ritual.

27 The attitude of faith who rested on the Law. Rom. 10:13. Unconsciously, and in his anger he degrades himself to the status of a servant and his brother as a son. v. 30.

28 In his self-righteousness he does not acknowledge him as brother!!

29 The graciousness of the father restores the relationship.

THE PARABLE OF RESTORATION 108

- The Shepherd (Christ) tended the straying Sheep.
- The Woman (Ecclesia) sought the lost Coin.
- The father (Yahweh) restored the wayward son.
- Israel = Yahweh's firstborn Ex. 4:22.
- Christ was extending mercy to those who the leaders of Israel were condemning as "sinners" i.e Gentiles v. 1.
- Their attitude ultimately caused them to exclude themselves Luke 1:52 and opened the way to Gentiles Rom. 7:16.

- The way to restoration - even for the elder son - is the way of humility for in refusing to enter the house, he repeated in a different way, the error of the younger son. Deut. 4:38. Jer. 29:10-14. Deut 30:1-3.

THE UNJUST STEWARD. 1 He wasted his lord's goods and was called to account. 2 Recognising the urgency of his case he made the most of his limited opportunities in the only way he knew how, in this he was wiser than the children of light, but not in the methods he used. 3 For the lord "commended" him (epainēō) highly lauded him for his shrewdness - which would be the most effective way of destroying his purpose!! (who would employ such a shrewd steward!!) 4 Christ commends faithful service in little matters that will ensure promotion in those bringing authority. Vv 4-12. Lessons: • Make the greatest use of limited opportunities. • Never handle small matters in an unfaithful manner. • Demonstrate by personal integrity in material things an apprenticeship for spiritual stewardship.

for this thy brother was dead, [a] and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAPTER 16.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ reproveth the hypocrisy of the covetous Pharisees. 19 The rich glutton, and Lazarus the beggar.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had [c] a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the [c] steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, [f] they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred [g] measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred [g] measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord [h] commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for [i] the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, [k] Make to yourselves friends of [l] the [m] mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, [n] they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 [b] He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous [2] mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 ¶ [d] No servant can serve two masters: for either he will [e] hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, [f] who were covetous, heard all these things: and they [g] derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which [h] justify yourselves before men; but [i] God knoweth your hearts: for [k] that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

16 [m] The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 [p] And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 [q] Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

19 ¶ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his [z] gate, full of sores,

THE UNRIGHTEOUS STEWARD Vv 1-12.

The Apostles were stewards 1 Cor. 4:1-2 & the Pharisees also stood in that position Mt. 23:2-3 & the disciples 1 Pet. 4:10.

Luke 12:42. 1 Pet. 4:5. Rom. 14:12.

The Stewardship of the Kingdom was about to be taken from the rulers. Mt. 21:43.

This is the very question of Israel asked in relation to those who had abused their stewardship. Is. 10:3.

COMMENDED V 8.

Epainēō - an intensive form of aineō to praise. Hence to praise so loudly. This would not commend him to other employers.

Equal to the Bath - the largest measure in Hebrew = 8 gals. 6 pints. (7½ Gallons) Cor - Equal to the Homer - the largest measure in Hebrew = 11 gals. 5 pints.

He wrote a new bill cancelling the old, and this was endorsed by the steward. - having absolute control over his master's goods that was in his legal right to do so.

The steward's master gave grudging commendation of his shrewdness, thus acknowledging his legal right to do as he had done. See above.

They quickly recognise their limited opportunities and make the best use of them. In that regard they often see more clearly than sons of light.

The Father, Son and angels Gk Ch 15:10

Ek - out of. Not with.

A Syriac word for "rich" is said to be derived from Hebrew root aman - to trust, confide. We create friends by the way we use worldly possessions which to most people constitute their sole trust and confidence. Cp Mt 6:19. Luke 12:15. 1 Tim. 6:17. The steward did not consider the monetary loss that he might make provision for the future. He was unjust because the riches were not his own. If he received commendation for that, how much greater would his commendation be if he served wisely and truly. His own folly had made obvious the urgency of his need to do something - when that is brought home to "children of light" they need to see the same urgency.

But would the creditors receive the unjust steward in their houses seeing he treated his master in such dishonest fashion? The answer is No! Thus the point of Vv 7-9 were flagrantly breaking God's laws and therefore incurring His anger. Their attitude to marriage brought every concept of truth into disrespect - broke up the family unit and destroyed communal worship. Like the rich man in the Parable - outwardly prosperous and happy, but hated of God.

9 THE RICH MAN (Dives) AND LAZARUS. Vv 19-31

10. We must be faithful in little matters with the Mammon of unrighteousness and then we will never be in the state of the unjust steward. If we render faithful service we need never fear the future as did the steward.

13 We can demonstrate our faithfulness in small matters Eph. 5:22. 6:5.

14 The steward was unjust when the consequences of this were brought home to him he tried to make amends in further dishonesty - but who of the debtors would employ him in the light of that? Where as faithful service would have its sure reward.

15 Material things are the property of God delivered into our hands as stewards 1 Tim. 6:17. 1 Pet. 4:10. If we prove faithful to God in these (and covetousness makes that difficult Col. 1:5) we will receive the true.

16 Which you can treat as your own - over which you have complete jurisdiction as did the steward. Despite his shrewdness the debtors certainly would not employ him as steward.

7 LESSON OF THE PARABLE V 13.

17 The unjust steward attended this but failed. See Note Mth. 6:24.

18 Katafhroneō - To think down upon or against anyone.

8 CHRIST REPROVES THE SNEERING PHARISEES 14-18

19 Therefore Idolatrous Col. 3:5, occupying a position for which they were not fitted Exod. 18:21.

20 Ekmukterizō - To turn up the nose (ek - from. mukterizō - to deride, mock, from mukter, the nose). But of this sneer was born the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. Their avarice made them ridicule the doctrine that they were but stewards of the wealth they possessed.

21 Bdelugma - to cause to stink. - like the putrefacting sores of Lazarus. See note Rev. 21:8. Cp Prov. 10:5. 1 Tim. 6:10.

22 They foreshadowed the things that were being fulfilled in Christ which included forgiveness of sins.

23 As being within the scope of every man to attain, and not the exclusive preserve of the Pharisees.

24 Biazō - press violently, or make forcible entrance. KJV - "entereth violently" Same word (but in passive voice - her middle voice) rendered "suffereth violence." Mt. 11:12. Note: Publicans and sinners were pushing Pharisees aside to enter. See Luke. 7:29. 15:1. 19:1-10.

25 The fact that all men were seeking the Kingdom (and all kinds were doing so) did not mean that the principles of the law would be relaxed. They convinced genuine men of sin Rom. 7:13.

26 In marriage laws the Pharisees were notoriously lax. So the Lord presses this home showing that their

V. 11. He travelled north from Ephraim to the border of Galilee and Samaria along which he proceeded east to Perea. At Galilee he met a company of friends, including women Mk. 15:41. He probably moved north by appointment for this purpose.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by [a] the angels into Abraham's [b] bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in [d] hell [e] he lift up his eyes, being in [f] torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in [b] his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool [i] my tongue; for I [m] am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, [o] remember that thou in thy lifetime [q] receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may [v] testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith unto him, They have [x] Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, [a] If they hear not Moses and the prophets, [c] neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAPTER 17

1 Christ teacheth to avoid occasions of offence: 3 to forgive one another. 6 The power of faith. 11 He healeth ten lepers. 22 Of the kingdom of God, and the coming of the Son of man.

THEN said he unto the disciples, [g] It is [h] impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come!

2 [c] It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 ¶ [d] Take heed to yourselves: [h] If thy brother trespass against thee, [k] rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee [m] seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And [p] the apostles said unto the Lord, [r] Increase our faith.

6 [s] And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this [t] sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him [u] by and by, when he is come from the field, [z] Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and [a] gird thyself, and [z] serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are [b] unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, [d] as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of [e] Samaria and [f] Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, [i] which stood afar off:

The parable Ch 16:19-31 was spoken to the Pharisees but for the disciples
THE USE OF PARABLES,
• The things believed by Pharisees were impossibilities, but that was no bar to their use in parabolic expressions - the sea making a declaration Ps 29:3-4. the floods clapping their hands Ps 98:8, the trees sending a deputation and appointing a government Jud. 9:8, the thistle being married 2 Chr. 25:18.
• Paul warned of Jewish fables Tit. 1:14 Christ warned of their teaching Matth 16:6, 12. Lk 11:1-9 but made use of it for purposes of illustration (Beelzebub) Matth. 12:27.
• Josephus shows that this parable is based on Jewish tradition borrowed from Grecian mythology
ABRAHAM'S Bosom - from Josephus' Discourse to Greeks Concerning Hades is described as a place of darkness where angels "distribute to them temporary punishments agreeable to everybody's behavior and bad" The "bosom of Abraham" was the place of the righteous (Jews course) The souls of the wicked are drag[illegible] into the region of fire in the sight of the righteous. They feel the heat of the fire, they see "the place of the fathers and of the just" and are thus punished. "A chasm deep and large is fixed between them, insomuch that a just man that hath compassion upon them cannot be admitted nor can anyone that is unjust if he were bold enough to attempt it, to pass over it."
• The parable thus stressed by an appeal to the Pharisees' own traditions that now is the day of opportunity - but in action they denied both Scripture and their own traditions

As required Lev 13:46 making the dull, hoarse warning, hopeless cry "Unclean! Unclean!" Vv 11-13
They acknowledged His power and had faith that he could cure.
Each had to show himself individually to the priest to obtain the right to mingle again with society.
They were men of faith & obedience. At the word of the Lord they went to find priests, confident in His power to heal. And as they went they felt in their bodies the healing effect of the cure. Now joy was added to their faith and obedience.
Recognized that there was something more than the formalism of the Law required - even gratitude and love to God.
Returned in thanksgiving Ps 116.
What hindered the nine? The formalism of the Law? A selfish acceptance of God's bounty without appreciation of His Son? Had faith, they obeyed; if they did not express gratitude - this developed because of selfish heart. Cp Ps 106:13.
Jesus then. He probably acknowledged God as readily because it was not a great thing for a Jew to praise God before the feet of Jesus.

29 But [z] the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man [a] is revealed.

31 In that day, [b] he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 [c] Remember Lot's wife.

33 [d] Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall [p] preserve it.

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 [e] Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 [f] Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, [g] Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

TWO PARABLES ON PRAYER.
The power of persistent prayer Vv 1-8.
The need to pray aright Vv 9-14.

THE PHARISEE AND THE PUBLICAN Hypocrite
•He searched his heart and found only good
•He stood apart in pride
He stood upright in confidence
Worldling
•He searched his heart and found only evil
•He stood apart in shame
He stood with bowed head recog nising his need.

Destitute of help.
The Law demanded that careful consideration be given to the widow Deut 27: 19. Isa 1:17. Yahweh is a Judge of such Ps 68:5. Ps 146:9

2 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

"Came" - Continuous tense - continued to come.
1A EKDIKEO - Vindicate me - Do me justice Vincent.
RSV = Vindicate. She did not desire revenge

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor [a] regard man; annoyeth - Roth.

5 [b] Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she [g] weary me.

Word occurs again Luke 9:27

6 And the Lord said, Hear what [h] the unjust judge saith.

7 And [i] shall not God [k] avenge his own [l] elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them [m] speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain [o] which trusted [p] in themselves [q] that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men [r] went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a [s] publican.

11 The Pharisee [t] stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, [u] extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I [x] fast twice in the week, I [y] give tithes of all that I [z] possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, [a] would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but [b] smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

Hilaskomai - to be propitious - reconciliation

14 I tell you, this man [c] went down to his house [d] justified rather than the other: for [e] every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 [f] And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall [c] in no wise enter therein.

18 [d] And a certain [e] ruler asked him, saying, Good [f] Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, [m] Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet [r] lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or JERICHO (Cont. see below) and being also on the main caravan route, there was a tax and custom house there. Thus it was noted for priests and publicans! The former would know of the plot among the priestly class against Jesus, and His, perhaps was the reason that the Lord, at this stage, warned his disciples of the tragedy about to be enacted. A lesson in humility Cp Isa 65:5-7.

9 Histēmi. To cause to stand, to take one's place. The idea seems to be to ostentatiously take one's place. He stood upright secure in his self-esteem.

11 Pride was the God he worshipped and on the terms of objectional familiarity he proclaimed what he was to God in his own sight taking 5 times as many words as the publican to do so.

12 His prayer was governed by self. It was divided in to two parts: 1. He did no harm to others. 2: He paid to God his dues. There was no recognition of his need of God, no thanks giving for benefits received. He approached God on the basis of his own merit and as an equal. God owed him something, not vice versa. Cp Rom. 10:2-3.

13 The Pharisee fasted on the 2nd & 5th days of every week - the first because Moses ascended the Mount the 2nd because he descended because of worship Golden Calves. The Law commanded one fast - on atonement Lev 16:29.

All around waved groves of feathery palms, rising in stately beauty. Gardens of roses and especially sweet scented balsam plantations filled the air with fragrance. Set in the deep Jordan valley it enjoyed a tropical climate. It was the resort of priests, some 12,000 having their residence there

112 JERICHO: THE CITY OF FRAGRANCE

Six miles away the Jordan, after a tortuous descent loses itself in the slimy mass of the Sea of Death, and the harsh barren country leads to the fragrant fertility of Jericho. Across the river the dull reddish hills of Moab stand, whilst on the left as one moves north the white limestone hills of the Land of Promise, arid and bare. Jericho is 600 ft below sea level, Jerusalem 3000 ft above it - a hot winding road the haunt of thieves and robbers.

Jericho was a rich, prosperous and important city of 100,000 people the 2nd in the land. It had been partially rebuilt, fortified and adorned by Herod the Great + Archelaus his son who had erected a palace there.

Here grew palm trees, sycamores, the cypress flower, the myrrh balsamum which yielded precious oil and especially the balsam plant. The city thus presented a picture of flashy glory with its massive theatre and ampitheatre, the new palace and its splendid gardens

31 ¶ [d] Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be [e] delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and [h] spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And they [i] understood none of these things: [m] and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ And it came to pass, that [o] as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain [p] blind man sat by the way side begging:

39 And they which went before [u] rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come near, he asked him, 42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath [f] saved thee.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Of Zaccharus a publican. 11 The ten pieces of money. 28 Christ rideth into Jerusalem: 41 weepeth over it: 45 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple: 47 teaching daily in it. The rulers would destroy him, but fear the people.

AND Jesus [f] entered and passed through Jericho.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zacchæus, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought [i] to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of [k] stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a [p] sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must [r] abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and [s] received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all [t] murmured, saying, That he was gone [u] to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have [x] taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him [y] fourfold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, [z] forsomuch as [a] he also is [b] a son of Abraham.

10 [c] For the Son of man is come to [d] seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he [e] added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 He said therefore, [d] A certain [e] nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his [g] ten servants, and delivered them ten [g] pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But [h] his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the [g] money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been [p] faithful in [q] a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a [r] napkin:

21 [s] For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, [u] Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. [v] Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into [a] the bank, that at my coming I might have [b] required [c] mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, [h] That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, [k] which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and [i] slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, [m] he went before, [n] ascending up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass, [o] when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, [t] the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: [u] and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent

THE KINGDOM IN A FAR COUNTRY 114

The context clearly shows that the Kingdom is not in the "far country" but only the Authority, for his servants are not set up in control until he returns.
That is Christ's position now Acts 17: 7.
His servants = Eph. 2:12-13. 6:20.
The Judgment of the household precedes that of the world 1 Pet. 4: 17. Ps 149. Zech. 1. Matthew Judgment. Acts 10:42. 2 Cor. 5:10. 2 Tim. 4:1. According to works. 1 Cor. 3:8. Rev. 22:12. 5:10

THE PARABLE OF THE POUNDS. VV 11-27.
This is exclusive to Luke but similar to that of talents. Mat 25:14-30.
It was called forth by the action of Z. who having "done little" received "much" V 17.
1 Cp. Acts 1:6. He tried to teach them. Cp 4:13-31
21 Orig. "man of noble birth." Cp Mat. 1:1.
22 i.e. the authority, like Archelaus. Cp Dan. 7: 13-14. 1 Pet. 3:22.
23 Representative of all. See Note Zech 8:23
24 In this parable = the Gospel, given alike to all. Ct. with talents. See Note above.
25 "Trade" See Diaglott. The word signifies to gain by trading. The Gospel must become the business of life and we must extend it. See note. Rom. 12:11. To trade is to be busy with it.

In humility he does not say: "I have gained." but "Thy pound hath gained."

There will be varying degrees of authority exercised by the approved in the Kingdom. Rev 5:9-10. 7:4. Mic 3:21. Dan. 7:27. 12:11.

SOUDARION - from Sudor sweat.

He had carefully preserved the Truth entire, but had not been active in trading with it. He saw the Lord only as a hard man - not understanding and merciful.
In this type of fear there is no love 1 John 4:18.

The word signifies hard, severe.
A proverbial saying, indicating that he demands more than he deserves to receive. It is the language of those who state that the Truth demands of us more than we can render. A 18:26. This is the language of irony. The Lord does not claim to be what the servant made him out to be but judged him on his attitude developed out of a faulty conception of his character.

Faithfulness in the absence of the Lord will be rewarded.

Probably delivered in the house of Zaccheus that night. Cp V. 5.
Probably based on action of Archelaus who on the death of his father - Herod the Great - sought confirmation of his father's will in Rome. He was opposed by a deputation of 50 Jews - an act of rebellion which he avenged in blood on his return.
COMPARISON WITH PARABLE OF TALENTS. Mth. 25:14-30.
The Pounds represent equal amounts but unequal rewards: the talents unequal amounts but equal rewards. The first represents the Gospel given alike to all - but some use it to better advantage. The latter represents native ability differing in each one but if faithfully applied according to ability will bring a corresponding reward.
The parable of the pounds.

33 Trapeza = A table, a money table, the A broker's office for loans.
34 He had been guilty of the sin of omission.

48. MTH 21:[illegible] 11:15-18 NIVE

THE LORD'S VIEW OF THE CITY. At the first glimpse V.37 the excited multitude raise their voices praising Yahweh and the mighty miracles testified that he came in His Name. Again the procession advanced. The road descends a slight declivity and the glimpse of the city is again hidden behind the intervening ridge of Olives. A few moments & the path mounts again. It climbs a rugged ascent, reaching a ledge of smooth rock, and in an instance the whole city bursts into view. Here was the City of the great King in all its glory. Before him the Kidron Valley and the proud, hard, magnificent Temple – but also could be seen the Roman Fortress in the city. The crowd saw its glory & rejoiced, but Christ beheld it V.41 besieged, storming, broken up, and the people taken into captivity. And Jesus wept. So the weak, excitable, fickle populace streamed through the gates of the city bearing with it the Passover lamb.

Grimly overshadowing the Temple was the Tower Antonius – the fortress of Roman secular power of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and [a] praise God with a loud voice for all the [b] mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, Blessed be [c] the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: [c] peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 [d] And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, [h] the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when [i] he was come near, he beheld the city, and [k] wept over it,

42 Saying, [l] If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall [o] cast a trench about thee, and [p] compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And [q] shall lay thee even with the ground, and [r] thy children within thee; and [s] they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not [u] the time of thy [z] visitation.

45 [v] And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, It is written, [w] My house is the house of prayer: but ye have made it [x] a den of thieves.

47 And he [c] taught daily in the temple. But [e] the chief priests and the scribes and [f] the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people [g] were very attentive to hear him.

[d] AND it came to pass, that on one of those days, [f] as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 [m] But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: [n] for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable; [t] A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country [z] for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And [d] again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And [d] again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

To deliver him to Pontius Pilate V.20 and discredit him before the people V.26.

THE SADDUCEES tried to reason from logic to reveal the absurdity of the position – but they overlooked both the principle of faith and the teaching of scripture. They tried to defeat Christ by ridicule but failed.

"YE DO ERR NOT KNOWING THE SCRIPTURES, NOR THE POWER OF GOD" MT. 22:29. MK 12:24. : With these words the Lord prefaced his reply to the Sadducees. ("Err" = planaō – To wander). They were self deceived by a false hypothesis – namely that if there be a future state it must be like the present, and on ignorance of the true meaning of Scripture.

vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they [a] reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be our's.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, [d] God forbid.

17 And he [e] beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, [f] The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour [g] sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 [h] And they [i] watched him, and sent forth [i] spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might [k] take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto [l] the power and authority of [m] the governor.–Pontius Pilate

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God [2] truly:

22 Is it lawful for us to give [q] tribute unto Cæsar, or no?

23 But he perceived their [r] craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a [3] penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæsar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which be Cæsar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not [b] take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, [c] If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the [6] resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be [n] accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are [p] the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

40 And after that [d] they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 [e] And he said unto them, How say they that Christ is David's son?

42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, [h] The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 ¶ Then in the audience of all the people [m] he said unto his disciples,

46 Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the [n] highest seats in the synagogues, and the [o] chief rooms at feasts;

47 Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ commendeth the poor widow: 5 foretelleth the destruction of the temple, and of Jerusalem: 25 the signs before the last day, &c.

AND he looked up, [a] and saw the rich men casting their [1] gifts into the treasury.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two [2] mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the [1] offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ [2] And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which [a] there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: [f] for many shall come in my name, saying, I am [g] Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and [i] commotions, be not [k] terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not [l] by and by.

10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 But before all these, [p] they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and [q] into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.

13 And [r] it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 [t] Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to [u] meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you [x] a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends, and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

CHAPTER 22.

1 The Jews conspire against Christ. 7 The apostles prepare the passover. 19 Christ instituteth his holy supper. 24 His agony in the garden. 47 His betrayal. 50 He healeth Malchus' ear. 54 and is thrice denied of Peter.

NOW [a] the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ [c] Then entered [h] Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and [i] captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them @in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ [b] Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent [d] Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, [f] he sat down, and the twelve [g] apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, [s] until it be fulfilled [z] in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and [z] gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For [b] I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ [e] And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: @this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ But, behold, [c] the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 [c] And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And [g] they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ [h] And there was also a strife among them, which of them [i] should be accounted the greatest.

25 @And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But ye shall not be so: [l] but he that is greatest among you, let him be as @the younger; and he that is [n] chief, as @he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in [r] my temptations.

29 And I [t] appoint unto you @a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That [v] ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and [w] sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, [c] Satan hath desired to have you, that he may [d] sift you as wheat:

32 But [f] I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art @converted, strengthen thy brethren.

IN THE ABSENCE OF THE MULTITUDE

This was merely to avoid a riot. They wanted the execution of Jesus whilst people were gathered together but care had to be exercised in his capture & judgement.

In the "Hebrew Passover" J.B. Segal, p. 35 claims: Mishna Sanh. 4:1 states that a trial on a capital charge must not be held on a festival nor the day preceding it. But they must have waived this latter but "It is true that the elder who rebels against the Court was to be kept in guard until one of the haggim" was to be put to death on one of the haggim - Mishna Sanh. 11:4.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

"LET HIM BUY A SWORD" V.36.
That Christ did not mean this direction to be taken literally is shown by his answer to them V.38, his attitude when one was used V.51 and his reproof of Peter for using it Mt.26:52. (See also John 18:10-11.) In graphic manner the Lord was warning them that an intensification of trials was at hand V.31 and that the shepherd was to be smitten and the sheep scattered Zech.13:7. They would thus be thrown more on their own, individual resources Luke 21:12.

"THE CUP" V.42. It embraced all his sufferings—the treason of Judas, the denial of Peter, the desertion of the apostles; the cruel, relentless enmity of the priests & rulers; the heartless abandonment of the people; the insults; the scourgings; finally the painful death itself.

THE TWO SWORDS — Why should they be carrying swords? Perhaps because of the growing hostility. Certainly they were unknown to Jesus in the garden.

34 This is the second boast. John 13:37. See also Mk 14:29. Either did not really believe that this was before him. Luke 19:11 and had forgotten the Lord's prayer Mt. 6:8.

7 ALL TO BE LEFT TO MEET TO THEIR OWN RESOURCES Vv.35-38

Christ had warned that all were to be tested V.31. There had been Divine protection overshadowing and guiding them. This was designed to develop their confidence in Yahweh when they would be called upon to endure more for His name.

37 There was to be an intensification of opposition and persecution, and as he was about to be taken from them, they would be thrown more on their individual resources. The time was at hand when they would no longer be treated as fellows of the profane but would be numbered "with the transgressors" V.37

The agony of prayer Cp Col. 4:12 was not merely for the contest before him, but for all the other issues involved, including the future of the disciples Cp V.31 and for the successful completion of his ministry by which he would be saved out of death on behalf of all Heb 5:7. As Jacob wrestled with the angel at Peniel, so the Lord was in an agony of earnestness and concentration in the garden. Physical pain did not concern him, but his sensitive mind was so repelled by the dreadful sin to be shortly committed that he prayed for strength. He saw it in all its hideousness, and into his full feelings our lower minds with coarser feelings cannot penetrate. Like the disciples we are far off and asleep. See p 63.

PRELIMINARY JEWISH TRIALS. These were designed to establish a case against Jesus which had not been done. He was led first to Annas John 18:12-23 during which the first denial was uttered. This was in one section of the high priest's house. Annas son of Seth, was the most influential of the ex-high priests (Ep. p. 165), and may, as Sagan (Deputy) or Nasi (President) have virtually wielded the sacerdotal power, for the utmost reverence was paid to his age, wealth, power, and shrewdness. Meanwhile the council of the Sanhedrin was assembling Mt. 26:3-5 and Jesus was taken into another part of the palace for this trial before Caiaphas. (Mt. 26:57-68 Mk. 14:53-65). Though it did not have any legal validity being held at night. The third trial was held early in the morning before the full Sanhedrim — or at least those who could be assembled Luke 22:66-71. Mt. 27:1. Mk 15:1. Luke does not relate much of the Jewish trials, perhaps because he was writing for a Gentile who would not be able to follow the intricacies of Jewish law.

5 Pres. Urgent. Faced with Pilate's acquittal, the leaders feared lest Jesus escape after all, and became more vehement, [illegible]
6 This chance remark gave Pilate his opportunity. Pilate feared to release or condemn Jesus. He feared the influence of the Jews at Rome where his once powerful patron Sejanus had fallen - and he feared the remarkable man before him. He thus attempted to shift the responsibility.

17 SECOND GENTILE TRIAL

"Jesus was to Herod Antipas what a juggler is to a rated court — an object of curiosity." He was viewed with a monstrous mixture of levity and superstition, in the face of which he maintained a dignified silence. In Jerusalem Herod occupied the old palace of the Asmonean princes (Acts. 23:8,10)

8 They refused to treat him seriously & mocked him, not as a criminal, but as a mischievous religious enthusiast — but this was actually acquittal of the charges levelled by the Jews.
9 Cp Mt. 20:19. Empaizo — To play like a child. Thus to insult by childish play-acting.
10 Lampros - bright. Probably a white festal mantle such as was assumed by Jewish Kings.
11 The union of two such bitter enemies through their mutual enmity to Christ was a matter of sad wonderment to the early Ecclesia Acts 4:27.

18 THIRD GENTILE TRIAL Mt. 27:15-26. Mk. 15:6-15. Jn. 18:39-19:

Pilate resumes the trial. Cp Jn. 18:38-39. Crowds have gathered outside Pilate's residence (Tower Antonio) to request the release of a prisoner. Jesus is again brought before him, but his accusers have to force their way through the surging multitude. The crowd was demanding that Pilate release a prisoner Mt. 15:8 and Pilate again seized this as an opportunity to release Jesus.

FROM THE PALACE TO THE COUNCIL

The palace of the high priest Luke 22:54, a huge pile of buildings including a central court-yard and including the high priest's own courtroom. When it was day the Lord was conducted to the council room of the Sanhedrin just south of Temple area Luke 22:66. Afterwards to the Praetorium, or Pilate's Judgment Room just north of the Temple John 18:28. Thus he was publicly paraded in front of the Temple probably viewed by Judas and the other disciples

PERVERTING THE NATION Luke 23:2, 14

This could involve religious or political agitation. Hunter's "Roman Law" p. 1066 declares: "Prophets were to be beaten and expelled

121 from the city ... Persons introducing new kinds of worship, unknown to custom or reason disturbing weaker minds were to be punished, if persons of rank, with deportation; if not of rank, with death

Political agitation could take the form of treason or sedition

Treason — is a breach of the duty to render allegiance to the Emperor Cp John 19:12

Sedition — is an act or teaching that excites discontent & dissatisfaction against the Sovereign, to excite ill-will between different classes of his subjects, to bring into hatred or contempt the Sovereign or Government, the laws or constitution of the realm, or excite public disorder or unlawful assemblies, insurrections etc. All were punishable with death.

The charge of the Jews involved all forms, though Pilate limited it to the political aspects.

PILATE'S THIRD APPEAL V.22. He took step after step to secure the release of Jesus. 1 He publicly proclaimed that he was innocent 2 He sent him to Herod. 3 He offered to release him as a concession - thus appealing to the people over the heads of the priests 4 He tried to make scourging take the place of crucifixion 5 He appealed to compassion. John shows how in successive stages of the trial he set aside 1 The vague general charge of "an evil doer." 18:30. 2 Of being in any seditious sense "a king" 18:34. 3 Of any guilt in his religious claims 19:12. He only yields at last through fear 19:12 which makes him also release a man guilty of the very crime for which he delivers Christ to death. The fact that Pilate's patron Sejanus had probably by this time fallen, and that Tiberius was executing all associated with him may have enhanced Pilate's fears. An accusation of High Treason was generally fatal and Pilate capitulated to pressure.

27 THE REPENTANT THIEF. Vv.39-43.

Both begin to mock. Mt. 27:44 but one repents. Perhaps the wording of the superscription induced in him some sober reflection.

28 THE SUPERSCRIPTION. V.38. Mt. 27:37. Mk. 15:26. Jn. 19:19-22. Note.

Luke mentions the superscription at this place possibly because it in some way may have influenced the repentant thief. As his eyes mockingly rested on the Title and he possibly recalled the teaching of Jesus, the revelation came to him that the claim was a true one. Cf. Mt. 27:44.

THE REPENTANT THIEF WAS DISCERNING AND HUMBLE
1 He realised Jesus would rise from the dead
2 He acknowledge that he would come again in Kingly dignity
3 He recognised that he would then reward his saints
4 He clearly saw his own failings & need for forgiveness
5 He was humble, made no demand except He be remembered.

42 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Arimathæa, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

CHAPTER 24.

1 Christ's resurrection is declared by two angels. 13 Christ himself appeareth to two disciples: 36 afterwards appeareth to the apostles, reproving their unbelief: 47 giveth them a charge: 49 promiseth the Holy Ghost: 51 and ascendeth into heaven.

NOW upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembered his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

PUNCTUATION

"Punctuation as we have it today is entirely absent (from the Greek text of the N.T.). The earliest two MSS have only an occasional dot, this on the level of the top of the letters. The text reads on without any divisions between letters or words until MSS of 9th cent. when there is seen for the first time a single point which separates each word. This dot is placed in the middle of the line but is often omitted.

"None of our modern marks of punctuation are found until the 9th Cent. and then only in Latin versions and some cursives. From this it will be seen that the punctuation of all modern editions of the Greek text, and of all versions made from it rests entirely on human authority and has no weight whatever." (C.B.)

The testimony of John the Baptist.

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto [d] his own, and his own received him not.

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he [2] power [f] to become [g] the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 Which were born, [h] not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but [i] of God.

14 And [j] the Word [q] was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld [r] his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of [u] grace and truth.

15 ¶ John bare witness of him, and [x] cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, [z] He that cometh after me is [b] preferred before me: [c] for he was [a] before me.

16 And of his [1] fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For the law was given by Moses, but [u] grace and [t] truth came by Jesus Christ.

18 [r] No man hath seen God at any time; [s] the only begotten Son, [c] which is in [v] the bosom of the Father, he hath [r] declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of John, when [t] the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, [u] I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou [v] Elias? And he saith, I am not. [w] Art thou [4] that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am [e] the voice of one crying in the wilderness, [a] Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the [b] Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, [c] Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that [c] Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, [b] I baptize with water: [f] but there standeth one [k] among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who [m] coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's [o] latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done [n] in Bethabara [l] beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, [2] and saith, Behold [y] the Lamb of God, which [2] taketh away the sin of the world.

30 [c] This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was [p] before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should [k] be made manifest to Israel, [m] therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John [q] bare record, saying, [z] I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is [z] he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is [z] the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, [b] Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

1 The Logos set before men the hope of Eternal Life, and this, in turn, illuminated their minds. It became the Light of Life. John 8:12.

10 Primarily light is a luminous emanation which enables the eye to discern form and color. It requires an organ adapted to its reception Mat. 6:22. Where this is absent or impaired light is useless. Man naturally is incapable of receiving spiritual light. Cp 1 Cor 2:14 1 John 3:19 Cf Luke 16:8

11 Here is conflict, or enmity, as light dispelled, or destroyed darkness.

12a Katalambano = "to lay hold of" in the double sense of to possess as one's own, or to seize in order to destroy. Darkness could not lay hold of light, but could only be destroyed by it, and though the forces of darkness down the ages have attempted to seize and destroy light the efforts have inevitably failed because 12:46 1 John 2:8

JOHN: THE WITNESS OF LIGHT 6-8

John did not witness concerning Jesus, for he did not originally know him to be the promised Messiah 1:31. He witnessed to the fact that the time was at hand for the fulfilment of the promise in the Declaration or Word of Deity 15a Heb. Yohanan = Yah hath been gracious.

14 The Logos illuminated men with the Light of Life which could only come through the promised Seed, the true Light. John witnessed to that fact. Cp Mat 3:14 John 1:19-27 29-30. He thus bore witness to the Light but was not the manifestation of the Light as some thought. Cp v 8

9a Kosmos - Order, Arrangement. It relates to the "world" that came to save, John 3:17. which stretched back as well as forward in point of time. This verse cannot apply to the world at large for many enter that world who are not illuminated by the Light. It relates to the Divine Order, which commenced from the beginning and of which the Israelitish phase was an important section (Cp Ps 105:10). Every man entering the Divine order was illuminated by the Light.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saith unto them, ᵒ What seek ye? They said unto him, ᶜ Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where ³dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was ⁵about the tenth hour.

40 ᶠ One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth ᵐ his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the ⁿ Messias, which is, being interpreted, ᵗ the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus ᵖ beheld him, he said, Thou art ʳ Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called ˢ Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.

43 ¶ ⁼The day following Jesus would ᵘ go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now ⁼Philip was of ᵃ Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth ᵉ Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom ᶠ Moses in the law, and the prophets, ᵈ did write, Jesus ᵍ of Nazareth, ʰ the son of Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, ᵏ Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an ˡ Israelite indeed, ᵐ in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, ᶜ Rabbi, thou art ᵇ the Son of God; thou art ᵈ the King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, ᶠ believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ᵍ Hereafter ye shall see ʰ heaven open, and ⁱ the angels of God ascending and descending upon ˡ the Son of man.

WATER INTO WINE Vv.1-11

The first "miracle-sign" Cp. VII

1. The number of completeness. The 3rd day completed the fundamentals of creation, the following three being a repetition. Also included the principle of resurrection for the earth rose out of the water and fruit out of the earth Gen. 1:9-13.

This was also the 5th day recorded (Cp Ch.1:29,35,43) - the number of grace. (Cp 7:6 note)

2. Sig. Place of Reeds, from root - to erect (as a reed) to create, to cause to stand up. This was home town of Nathanael Ch.21:2 See also Ch.1:46

3. Sig. Circle (Cp 1:19-34)

4. Was already there. Evidently the marriage of relation, and Mary there in some official capacity. Notice the calm authoritative way the commands the servants. V.5 Josephdried?

5. Construction of sentence to singular implying Disciples invited for his sake - not he for theirs: Rotherham: "Jesus also was invited with his disciples."

6. "Wine falling short" - Rotherham. Perhaps the presence of unexpected guests was the cause.

7. Used not in disrespect but as a tender expression John 20:15, 19:26. Defines new standing in family relations not merely Jesus son of Mary but Christ Son of God. Luke 2:49, Mat. 12:48-50, Luke 11:27

8. He does not call her "mother." Subordination passed away in new mission.

9. An expression, not of disrespect denoting he was dedicated to the will of God. These seemed to be a desire on part Lord's relations that he openly declare himself before all. They did not realise the suffering involved. Jhn 7:3-7. Mary 59 Le Messiah MK 8:29 The prophets revealed him as ... 2 Sam. 7. Ps. 2. Isa 9:6.

60 The power of the universe subject to my control. Matth. 28:18. 1 Pet. 3:22.

61 As Son of man he comes with judgment John 5:27. and with him will be the angelic host. Matth. 25:31.

57 Prophetic Cp Matth. 16:17.

53 There must have been magnetism in the glance of the Lord. Moreover Philip was prepared by the study of the Word. v.21. Cp Matt. 5:6

54 See Note p.159.

55 It is obvious from this that Philip and Nathanael had frequently discussed these prophecies.

56 Cp V.49. Luke 1:31.

57 See Note Matth 2:23.

58 Not Jacob the supplanter in whom there was guile. Cp Ps 32:2. Nathanael had overcome the flesh. Later. 1:3

127 Knew he was Christ had heard it pronounced by John desired him demonstrate his power. His gentle rebuke was combined with words that implied the sufferings involved when the hour should come.

c The number of man - flesh. Used for washing hands of feet guests: Cp MK 7:3-4 Luke 11:39 Matt 15:2. A resting on the Law.

1 Flesh cannot tell God's great love to man. (Though its effect is felt)
2 sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.
3 9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?
4 10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?
5 11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.
6 12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?
7 13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.
8 14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:
9 15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.
10 16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.
11 17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.
12 18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.
13 19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.
14 20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.
15 21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

16 22 ¶ After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judæa; and there he tarried with them, and baptized.
17 23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.
18 24 For John was not yet cast into prison.
19 25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.
20 26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.
21 27 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

He finished it so as to be fit for use in 9 years, but additions were constantly being added to it. The work had commenced about 18yrs before birth of Lord and he was now 30 yrs age Luke 3:23. Additions continued to be added to it until just prior to the destruction of Jerusalem AD 70. Viewed from Mt Olives, the city must have been dazzling. Situated on a plateau which drops sharply to east above the brook Kishon, it has a perfect stage setting. The gleaming white walls of Temple were formed of cyclopean blocks of stone, gold shone on the facade of it and the enormous mass of the Sanctuary with its courtyards, porticoes and towers dominated the scene. BORN FROM ABOVE John 3:3. — Is to have Christ formed in one's heart, is to be impressed with the Divine Image, is to seek those things that are above. This can only be done by emptying oneself of self-importance and replacing it with Spirit-Word — thus thinking, acting living in accordance with it.

Without such birth one cannot mentally perceive the Kingdom now V 3. nor will he enter it then.

It is said that Jews used this saying to denote the change that took place when a Gentile accepted Judaism (Gage Treas). Nicodemus, however, could not understand the application of the phrase to Jews. He asked (V. 4). What was the new birth! Was it a sort of transmigration?

Even in the midst of summer when the land is parched and dry, Shechem is green and inviting. It was thus a place of rest. The narrow valley opens out on to a large field, thought to be the parcel of ground yet to be received by Joseph.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ talketh with a woman of Samaria. 31 His zeal for God's glory. 39 Many Samaritans believe. 43 He departeth into Galilee, and healeth the ruler's son.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and [k] baptized more disciples than John,

He permitted his disciples to continue the witness of John.

2 (Though [m] Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left [o] Judæa, and departed [p] again into Galilee.

4 And he [q] must needs go through [r] Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called [t] Sychar, near to the parcel of ground [u] that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied [z] with his journey, sat [v] thus on the well: and it was about [x] the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto [d] the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for [h] the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee [d] living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But [i] whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into [l] everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, [n] Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, [r] call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art [d] a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in [b] this mountain; and ye say, that in [c] Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, [e] the hour cometh, [f] when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship [g] the Father.

22 Ye worship [i] ye know not what: we know what we worship: [k] for salvation is of the Jews.

him, Sir, [a] come down [b] ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now [a] going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at [d] the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 [h] This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come [i] out of Judæa into Galilee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Jesus on the sabbath day cureth one diseased for eight and thirty years. 10 The Jews therefore cavil. 17 He reproveth them, shewing by the testimony of his Father, 32 of John, 36 of his works, 39 and of the scriptures, who he is.

AFTER this there was [k] a feast of the Jews; and Jesus [l] went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep [2] market a pool, which is called [o] in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, [p] withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For [r] an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, [c] Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day [e] was the sabbath.

10 ¶ [f] The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, [2] a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: [m] sin no more, [n] lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because [q] he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jesus [s] answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, [t] and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews [u] sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but [x] said also that God was [y] his Father, [z] making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing [a] of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For [d] the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and [f] he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and [i] quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but [l] hath committed all [m] judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they [p] honour the Father. [r] He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [u] He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but [x] is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [b] The hour is coming, and now is, when [d] the dead shall hear [e] the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; [h] so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And [k] hath given him [l] authority to execute [m] judgment also, [o] because he is the Son of man.

28 [r] Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 [u] And shall come forth; [x] they that have [y] done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have [a] done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 [d] I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because [g] I seek not mine own will, but [b] the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 [c] If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ There is [e] another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 [f] Ye sent unto John, and [h] he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and [k] a shining [m] light: and ye were willing [o] for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But I have [q] greater witness than that of John: for [s] the works which [t] the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that [x] the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, [y] hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor [a] seen his shape.

38 And [c] ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 ¶ [f] Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and [y] they are they which testify of me.

40 And [t] ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 I receive not [m] honour from men.

42 But [p] I know you, that ye have not [q] the love of God in you.

43 [s] I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if [t] another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 How can ye believe, which receive [c] honour one of another, and seek not [b] the honour that cometh from God [c] only?

45 Do not think [e] that I will accuse you to the Father: [f] there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, [h] in whom ye trust.

PHILIP (Gr = Warrior or A lover of Horses) Mat 10:3 Mk 3:18 Luke 6:14 John 1:43-48 12:21-22 14:8-9
A man of timid, retiring disposition (In Acts 1:13
Since Andrew and John, Philip did not approach Jesus, but waited till he accosted him and invited him to join his company. John 1. His name is 3 times bracketed with Nathanael as companion and fellow-worker. Both were Galileans. Though timid Philip instantly responded to the invitation of Christ John 1:43 and instantly converted Nathanael his friend V 45. His timidity expressed below V 7 where instead of boldly measuring up to the test of faith, he made a mental calculation of money involved. His timidity was revealed again when he was afraid to lead the seeking Greeks to Christ John 12:21. He was slow to apprehend Truth (Cf. John 6:69 with John 16:8) but Christ ever dealt with him kindly and sought to conquer his timid retiring disposition.

Mat. 14:13. Mk 6:31-33. Luke 9:10

Matthew states he was influenced by receiving the news of the murder of John - Mark that he invited the disciples to rest after their recent exertions. The Lord, too, had been preaching on his own. Mat. 4:17. He desired privacy. Luke 9:

He had made Capernaum his headquarters. (Mk 6:17-29) (Lk 7:36) The boat journey was not far - along the north shore tip of the sea, the people saw him go, and excited by the reports they followed him by land. Mark 6:33 Distance = miles. They were joined by the thronging groups of Passover pilgrims. Mk 6:33

He climbed the hillside & there waited a short time whilst the multitude assembled around him. V 5. His need for rest was forgotten in his compassion for the people who lacked true guidance. He taught and healed all day long. Mt 14:13 Mk 6:35 Luke 9:11-12.

Sig. Manliness. Also of Bethsaida, once a disciple of John and has distinction of being first missionary for Christ

7 [d]Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, [e]Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith unto him,

9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two [d]small fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now [f]there was much grass in the place. So [g]the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had [i]given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. Cp Deut 8:3 Mat 5:6

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve [d]baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

17 And entered into [s]a ship, and went over the sea toward [u]Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about [x]five and twenty or thirty [z]furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately [a]the ship was at the land whither they went.

ST. JOHN 6.

Christ is the true bread of life.

V 17 They expected the latter to be back at its moorings driven by the contrary wind.

23 (Howbeit there came other [a] boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that [d] the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him [k] on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, [l] Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 [z] [p] Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat [r] which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: [t] for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work [u] the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, This is [v] the work of God, [w] that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, [x] What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 [d] Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, (c) He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is [b] he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, [c] Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, [b] I am [e] the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and [e] he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, [f] That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 [g] All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and [i] him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For [m] I came down from heaven, not to do [n] mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of [g] all which he hath given me [o] I should lose nothing, but [q] should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which [r] seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 [z] The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, [z] I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, [b] the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me [f] draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written (f) In the prophets, (h) And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and [i] hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 [i] Not that any man hath seen the Father, [m] save he which is [n] of God, he hath seen the Father.

THE SEALING V 27 - The expression denotes Christ's commission as a prophet. As a person who wishes to communicate his mind or will to someone at a distance authenticates it with his seal, so the Father had the Son His Character, Doctrine, Miracles constituted the seal. The Lord was the fully accredited Ambassador of God sent to treat with His rebellious subjects and call them back to their proper allegiance.

They were still seeking material blessings V 34. The Lord does not descend to their state by giving a simplified explanation, but launches into a difficult dissertation demanding their close and prayerful consideration

41. Mat 5:6.
42. Isa 55. John 4:14 He in turn will become a source of thirst-quenching truth.
43 The Lord repudiates the people as coming to him in the true sense & predicts he will have a genuine following.
44 The expression represents a humble supplicant coming nervously to the house of a great person to cast himself upon his care. The Lord used a double negative: "I will not, no I will not..."
45 This defines a genuine disciple Cp John 17:12 with 6
46 See John 10:29, 17:2, 10. is illustrative of 1 Tim 2:4
46 Theoreō - To behold as a spectator, indicating a careful perusal of details. Like Israel beholding the serpent John 3:14
47 In contrast to the temporary life sustained by the manna in wilderness

5TH REBUKE: YOU DON'T ACCEPT ME BECAUSE YOU ARE NOT TAUGHT OF GOD

Gongyzō = to mutter, grumble, speak words to oneself in low tone. The signification of the word is indicated in its sound. They could not understand Christ. They were confused as to who he was as their predecessors were by the manna.
Exod 16:7f
49 The Lord does not dispute that the doctrine is hard to understand but reminds them they must be led of God 1 Cor 2:14
50 Cp Mat 13:3; Cp 12:24 He draws by enlightening the understanding which in turn inclines the will and influences the mind
Notice significant words this follow this quote. Cp its prominity to that predicting Christ's sufferings Isa 53 Cp. Isa 54:13, 17.
62. Horaō - not merely to see but to discern. We see the Father through the Son. 14:9, 14:8. 12:45.

you, [a] He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 [d] I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread [g] which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and [i] not die.

51 I am [l] the living bread [l] which came down from heaven: [m] if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and [o] the bread that I will give is my flesh, which [p] I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore [r] strove among themselves, saying, [t] How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except [u] ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and [x] drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, [b] hath eternal life; and [c] I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, [e] dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and [f] I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is [k] that bread [l] which came down from heaven: [m] not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in [q] Capernaum.

60 [r] Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an [t] hard saying; [t] who can hear it?

61 When Jesus [v] knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 [b] What and if ye shall see the Son of man [c] ascend up [e] where he was before?

63 [f] It is the spirit that quickeneth; [g] the flesh profiteth nothing: [h] the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are [h] life.

64 But [k] there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning [k] who they were that believed not, and [n] who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, [q] that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time [s] many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto [u] the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then [v] Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast [e] the words of eternal life.

69 [v] And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, [d] the Son of [e] the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not [f] I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot [h] the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of [u] the twelve.

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for [a] he would not walk in Jewry, [o] because [p] the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the Jews' [s] feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 [u] His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that [x] thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

FEAST TABERNACLES. - 15-21st days 7th Month. Num. 29:12-38 Rev 23:34

Special sacrifices offered - law daily read - trumpets sounded 21 times each day - made succahs of Palm trees etc erected on flat roofs of houses. Neh 8:16 joyously paraded the streets with branches of trees (lulab) and citron-fruit in hands. Priest drew logs water and poured over Altar.

LAST DAY. - Priest drew 3 logs water which was carried in triumphal procession to Temple. - See Note on V37. Great Hallel (Ps 113-118) then sung (prophetic of Christ) emphasised by waving branches when "O give thanks unto Yahweh for His mercy endureth forever" was sung.

5 They desired him to go boldly and openly to the Feast, to work miracles, thus demonstrate his status. They seemed ashamed of him.

THEIR ADVICE REJECTED Vv 6-9

6 It is not opportune for me to go to the Feast and publicly manifest myself just yet for I have testified against the world and it hates me. It does not hate you, so you can freely mix with it and go up any time.

7 [f] The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for [g] my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. [for the time] [Luke 9:57-62]

10 ¶ But when his brethren were [h] gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 [i] Then [j] the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he? - Cp 7:19 note. (Cp 6:14, 41)

12 And [k] there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, [l] He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he [m] deceiveth the people.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast Jesus [p] went up [q] into the temple, and taught.

15 And [r] the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man [s] letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, [t] My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 [u] If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

CHRIST'S BRETHREN Cp Ps 69:8

He had brothers and sisters. (Matt 12:55-56 Mk 6:3)

His brethren were with him in his early ministry Jhn 2:12 but as it gathered momentum they became ashamed of him. His dedicated ministry, his burning zeal (Ps 69:9) was misunderstood by them, and they tried to put him under constraint Mark 3:21. Their familiarity with him bred a contempt and misunderstanding of his mission and at times when enthusiasm was greatest they attempted an unwarranted interference (Matt 12:46 Mk 3:31. Luke 8:19) and received a well merited rebuke. They had apparently prevailed upon his mother to join with them on these occasions. The reason for this is given above V.5. They were ultimately converted by his resurrection. (1 Cor 15:7 cp Gal 1:19). and from thence on associated with the Apostles (Acts 1:14). 1 Cor 9:5. Acts 12:17. 15:13.

There seems to have been a certain strong opinionativeness, a Judaistic obstinacy about them which may have accounted for this opposition

"JESUS WROTE ON THE GROUND" CH 8:6. In the "trial of jealousy" the priest took "holy water in an earthen vessel," and mixed some of the dust of the floor of the tabernacle with the water. The woman was "set before Yahweh," and the priest holding in his hand the bitter water that caused the curse charged the woman with an oath of cursing. He then wrote the curses in a book, blotting them out with the bitter water of which he made the woman drink. The guilt or innocence of the woman was revealed by its effects upon her (Num. 5:11-30). If guilty she revealed all the external evidences of bearing fruit without doing so. In the Temple was the finest wheat in the earthen vessel of human nature the holy water of Truth, forming the adulterous rulers of the nation, writing the curse against it in the dust of the ground, fulfilling Jer. 17:13. Judah showed all the external evidence of bearing fruit, but was, in fact completely adulterous, and doomed to the punishment decreed by Moses.

2 And [z] early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and [d] he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; [f] and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now [c] Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, [m] tempting him, [o] that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger [q] wrote on the ground, [1] as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he [s] lifted up himself, and said unto them, [t] He that is without sin among you, [u] let him first cast a [1] stone at her.

138 THE CHALLENGE CH 8:5 - If the Lord endorsed the judgment of Moses, he could be accused to the Roman authorities who retained the penalty of death and who would hardly grant it for this cause. If he failed to condemn the woman he might be said to have countenanced the sin of adultery.

Witnesses are the executioners. Are they prepared to flout Roman law and carry out that of Moses which the Lord upheld! They are not!

CHAPTER 8

WOMAN TAKEN IN ADULTERY. Vv 1-11

As Christ was teaching in the Temple he was rudely interrupted by a group of Scribes and Pharisees who dragged an adulteress into the circle of listeners and cruelly accused her. It was an unseemly thing to do - a wanton outrage on decent feelings. A brutal violation of the principles of mercy - let alone justice - for where was her companion in crime!

1 A work of darkness Job 24:15 Prov 7:9 of which Jerusalem was guilty Isa. 1:15-21.

2 Without any consideration of feeling, they dragged her to the most prominent place - there to embarrass the Lord.

3 Rabbi or Teacher

4 Their crude indelicacy, their complete want of all feeling is expressed in the very terms of the public accusation.

5 See above.

6 They did not understand the symbols of his attitude, misread his silence for defeat, and noisily pressed the question on him

THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD V.12. The feast of Tabernacles was over (Ch.7:2) ... One of the ceremonies consisted of the lighting of four large candelabra in the Court of the Women, which, from their elevated position, shed a radiance over all the city... These lamps were lit as memorials of the "pillar of fire" by which Israel's God led them in the wilderness. There is some uncertainty how often the lamps were lit during the week, but all authorities agree that during the last evening it did not take place: this omission provided Jesus with the opportunity to draw attention to himself as the true Light and the counterpart of the divine manifestation in the wilderness. (C.J.) Christ the light of the world.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, [a] being convicted [e] by their own conscience, went out [f] one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had [g] lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? [h] hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, [i] Neither do I condemn thee: go, and [@] sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, [@] I am the light of the world: [k] he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, [a] Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: [b] for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, [@] my judgment is true: [c] for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and [d] the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, [e] Ye neither know me, nor my Father: [@] if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus [23] in [a] the treasury, [b] as he taught in the temple: and [c] no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and [d] ye shall seek me, and [e] shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said [f] the Jews, [f] Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, [m] Ye are from beneath; [n] I am from above: ye are [@] of this world; [o] I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that [p] ye shall die in your sins: [q] for if ye believe not that [n] I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same [r] that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is [s] true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have [g] lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but [t] as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is [u] with me: [w] the Father hath not left me alone; [x] for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, [@] many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on [y] him, [z] If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know [a] the truth, and the [a] truth [@] shall make you free.

Christ sheweth his authority and dignity.

33 ¶ They answered him, [a] We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And [e] the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but [f] the Son abideth ever.

36 If [g] the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abraham's [h] seed; but [i] ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have [k] seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with [l] your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, [m] If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now [n] ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have [o] heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, [p] We be not born of fornication; we have [q] one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, [r] ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; [s] neither came I of myself, but [t] he sent me.

43 [u] Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 [v] Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was [w] a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When [x] he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 [b] Which of you [c] convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 [d] He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because [f] ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a [g] Samaritan, and [h] hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And I seek not [i] mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [k] If a man keep my saying, [l] he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: [b] it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God:

55 Yet [e] ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be [k] a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Abraham [k] rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, [o] I am.

59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAPTER 9.

1 The man that was born blind restored to sight. 13 He is brought to the Pharisees, who are offended at it, and cast him out. 38 He confesseth Christ.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, [e] Master, [f] who did sin, this man, or [g] his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but [h] that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I must work [i] the works of him that sent me, [k] while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, [l] I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, Go, wash in [m] the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) [n] He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had [o] seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he [p] that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, [q] A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And [r] it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then [s] again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not [t] of God, [u] because he keepeth not the sabbath day. [v] Others said, [w] How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And [x] there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is [y] a prophet.

18 But [z] the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because [a] they feared the Jews: for [b] the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, [c] he should be put out of the synagogue.

The work of God. THE 6TH SIGN. See Note. P. 128

The man born blind could well represent Israel spiritually or naturally. In relation to Israel after the flesh, illumination will come on the Sabbath - Millenium V. 14.

The blind man himself manifested the work of God. He was — Obedient to the decree of the Lord.
Faithful in testifying to others of him.
Submissive to His instruction
Earnest in his devotion

One born blind — receiveth sight.

Material lying there for completing & restoring the building supplied them with missiles

It was a superstition that Christ's own circumstances refut - that men suffer in accordance with the extent they sin. Cp. Acts 28:4. Luke 13:2-5. Ps. 73: Cp the case of Job.

The doctrine of transmigration of souls used in Egypt and borrowed by Grecian mythology had been incorporated into Jewish thought as Josephus shows. They believed that sins perpetrated in earlier existance was atoned for in subsequent lives. The disciples thus voiced a prevailing superstition which the Lord refuted. This does not imply his pre-existance. The same expression used of John. Ch. 1:6.

THE CURE vv. 6-7.

Demonstrating that the power of the cure came from within Jesus. If the clay had been made of water people may have thought that virtue was in the water.

ANTAGONISM OF PHARISEES

Vv. 13-18.

The interest aroused by the cure excited the opposition of Pharisees who casting around for a reason to condemn the Lord did so on the basis of the Sabbath.

Mat. 12:3,8. John 7:22. See Note above.

ILL. Did keeping the sabbath prove that the Pharisees were of God?

This was a complete answer, demonstrating the authority of the Lord. Note the purpose of Sabbath - for man's benefit. Mark 2:23-28.

The Jews taught that prophets were exempt from the Sabbath, like the priests.

THE PARABLE OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD - arose out of the action of the Pharisees in excommunicating the man Christ had healed John 9:34. They had acted the part of the hireling. It was doubtless based on the promise of Ps 23 and the indictment of Ezek. 34:1-19 as well as its prophecy of Ps 40:6-8.

The parable V6. Gr. Paroimia - not "parabole, as per the synoptics. The parable is a short narrative, but this is not narrative. It is an extended metaphor rather than a parable, and is better described as an allegory. John does not use the word "parabole." The only other places where this word used, it is rendered "proverb" John 16:25,29. 2 Pet. 2:22.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, [b] Give God the praise: we know that this man is [d] a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not [i] hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, [l] we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, [m] Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that [o] God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, [q] him he heareth.

32 [r] Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not [u] of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast [v] altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they [2b] cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had [b] cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou [c] believe on [d] the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him, [a] Thou hast both seen him, and [c] it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he [e] worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, [f] For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that [g] they which see might be made blind.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, [h] Are we blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, [k] ye should have no sin: [h] but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Christ is the door, and the good shepherd. 24 He proveth by his works that he is Christ the Son of God.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a [n] robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him [p] the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he [s] putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And [x] a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This [z] parable spake Jesus unto them: [a] but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

COURAGEOUS TESTIMONY OF THE BLIND MAN 9:24-38
The Pharisees interrogate the man trying to destroy his evidence of the miraculous power of the Lord.
This was virtually putting him to an oath. Cp Josh. 7:19.
Calling on the Name of God, they unrighteously and hypocritically tried to get the answer they wanted to fit their mouth.
Eliminate as per R.V. The matter was not open to doubt as far as he was concerned. The Blind man knew him not as a sinner.
But see. Mat. 9:34.
And as such they stood condemned. Luke 16:31. John 5:45-47. Rom. 2:17.

There are grades of sinners but the Blind man was contrasting unbelievers with worshippers. In that sense the world is divided between saints and sinners of whom sin, but the former only are heard.

HE IS EXCOMMUNICATED BY THE OVERBEARING PHARISEES.
Confirming the superstition of transmigration of souls which Josephus says was rife in Israel.
There were two grades of excommunication. One excluded a man for 30 days and from contact with wife or friends. The other excluded for life and prohibited Jew from buying or selling.

THE LORD MINISTERS TO HIS NEED 9:35-38.
The man having demonstrated his integrity, the Lord directs him in the course he should pursue. This conversation evidently was held in public.

11 Better: "door to the sheep" Cp. Jhn. 14:6. Eph. 2:18.

12 The use of the present tense - "are" shows that the Lord was referring to contemporaries. They were there before he appeared claiming to open the way of salvation for the people - but they were thieves and robbers for they did not lead the sheep to the door when it was opened for them.

40 The punishment appointed was stoning Lev. 20:1-16. The scribes began to early meditate this charge against Christ Mk. 2:7. It was the charge ultimately proffered against him Mt. 26:66-66.

41 That is they claimed he was saying he was divine thus higher than man. - which was true. On a previous occasion they had said similarly when he claimed God for his Father John 5:17-18. 10 Thus a shepherd must get to know his sheep & allow them to know him.

11 Better: "Door to the sheep" Cp John. 14:6. Eph. 2:18.

12 The use of the present tense - "are" shows that the Lord was referring to contemporaries. They were there before he appeared claiming to open the way of salvation for the people - but they were thieves and robbers for they did not lead the sheep to the door when it was opened for them.

THE SHEPHERD. Had to endure much for the sheep, living frugally, accustoming himself to hardship, braving all weathers, giving first care to the flock. He knew little of the joys of companionship except the animals about him which he guarded resolutely in time of danger. Shepherds who typed Christ include Abel, Moses, David. See Ps. 23. me are thieves and [g] robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am [d] the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and [e] shall go in and out, and [f] find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 I am (h) the good shepherd: the good shepherd [i] giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an [j] hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth [m] the wolf coming, and [o] leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and [q] scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and (s) careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and [u] know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 [x] As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and [a] I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And (b) other sheep I have, which are not of this [d] fold: [f] them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; [g] and there shall be one [h] fold, and (b) one shepherd.

17 [l] Therefore doth my Father love me, [m] because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but [o] I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and [q] I have power to take it again. This [r] commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ¶ There was [u] a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and (p) is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him [t] that hath a devil. [b] Can a devil [c] open the eyes of the blind?

22 ¶ And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple [g] in Solomon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou (k) make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, (l) I told you, and ye believed not: [m] the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, [p] as I said unto you.

27 [r] My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

28 And I give unto them eternal life; and [t] they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 (c) My Father, (d) which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 [c] I and my Father are one.

31 Then the Jews (q) took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many [i] good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for [n] blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, [p] makest thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in [s] your law, (t) I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father [a] hath sanctified, and [b] sent into the world, [c] Thou blasphemest; [d] because I said, I am [f] the Son of God?

"I LAY DOWN MY LIFE" V 18

As shepherd he laid down his life for the sheep. As sheep Isa 53:7. he benefited from so doing. The father commanded it because there was no other way.

The shepherd had to lead the sheep through the defiles of death Ps. 23. for the pathway to life lead through death. It could only come through putting to death the flesh. Christ did physically what the flock did figuratively. Gal. 5:24 thus leading the flock exhibiting what was required in God's sight! Rom. 12:1.

"SHEEP NOT OF THIS FOLD" V. 16

It was appropriate that Christ should thus [illegible] Feast of Tabernacles - for there 70 bullocks were offered as the traditional number of the Gentiles in relation to Israel. It was the Feast of the full harvest and this was the means whereby this was to be accomplished. It was appropriate that he should send out the 70 after this feast. See Notes Luke 10:1. Num. 29

"THE FEAST OF DEDICATION" V 22 - The 25th Chisleu - answering to December - it lasted 8 days - was a period of general rejoicing instituted by Judas Maccabaeus to commemorate the cleansing of the Temple (c. 165 - 3 years after its profanation by Antiochus Epiphanes. Also called "the Lights" for a general illumination was made in the home of the people. The occasion recalled the heroic [illegible]

28 He is mad and not worth hearing. This was the only answer his enemies had and they continually reiterated it Mk 11:18. 12:24. John 7:20. 8:48

There was no answering this and it must have been galling to the enemies of the Lord to hear it. But it was a negative approach. It announced what he was not - it stopped short at what he was!!

4 AT THE FEAST DEDICATION V 22

From the surrounding district of Judea (See Note top p. 98) the Lord had returned to Jerusalem.

1 TELL US PLAINLY IF THOU ART CHRIST Vv 22-24.

30 This explains why Christ was walking under cover. The porch would be festooned with lights, and the Lord quietly walked up and down mediating the joyous celebrations

31 So called because it was thought to be a section of the old Temple that was found remaining after the Return. The true Prince of Peace now walked there. Acts 3:11

32 RSV: "They gathered around him" - in an obtrusive and urgent manner. (Same word Luke 11:29. Here only. Rev. 12:9) prior to entering his meditative perambulations, determined to have it out with him. They were in an excited state due to the celebrations

33 Lit. "Kept saying." Probably several in the audience doing so.

34 Quoten Airō - To raise / breath, or to lift the soul. Vine suggests: "How long dost thou raise our expectations without satisfying them?" Cam. "excite our minds?" Their motives possibly mixed. Some hovering between faith & hostility. Others merely curious. Some desired to incriminate him. All desired "their Messiah" - the one who would deliver them from Rome & exceeding the heroic deeds of the Maccabees.

2 I AM GOD MANIFEST IN FLESH Vv 25-30

They yearned for political deliverance - they felt no need of personal deliverance from sin. They would delight in Jesus as a temporal Messiah (cf John 6:15) They hated him as the Son of God.

35 Lit. "shall certainly not" - with for the age "they shall never die for all eternity" (Cambridge Bible).

36 Harpazō - to snatch by force. RV - snatch. Same word as "catcheth" V. 12.

37 As the father gave them to me, to snatch them out of my hand they must snatch them out of His who is greater than all, even the Son. John 14:28.

CHAPTER 11.

[1] Christ raiseth Lazarus. 45 Many Jews believe. 47 The high priests and Pharisees take counsel against Christ. 49 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Jesus hideth himself. 55 The Jews lay wait for him.

NOW a certain man was sick, named [p]Lazarus, of [q]Bethany, the town of [r]Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (It [s]was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, [t]but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus [u]loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still [v]in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judæa again.

8 His disciples say unto him, [w]Master, [x]the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, [b]Are there not twelve hours in the day? [d]If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But [f]if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our [i]friend Lazarus [k]sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall [m]do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said [y]Thomas, [z]which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave [a]four days already.

18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, [b]about fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jews came [c]to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, [b]as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary [c]sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, [e]Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, [f]whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

LAZARUS THE SICK - Though the subject of the greatest and most startling miracle of the gospel record, his voice is not heard, his life is not recorded. He was the loved friend of Jesus. We know of him only as a sick man who died and was raised again - the brother of Mary and Martha. The miracle caused the leaders of Jewry to determine finally that Jesus must die John 11:47-51 and occasioned the persecution of the retiring Lazarus as well John 12:9 With this statement the record of his life ceases and this quiet man passes from the scene.

47 Asteuō = persuasion, conviction, faith etc. Here in the aorist tense indicating the single act.

48 Ginoskō - To come to know

49 Pisteuō - but though the same verb in the same sentence, it is here in present tense indicating not a single act of belief but continuous belief. Many attained to a momentary conviction of his messiahship John 2:23, 4:45, 7:31, 8:30, 10:42, 11:45, few went beyond a transitory conviction John 2:24, 6:66, 8:31, 12:42.

WITHDRAWS TO BE PERSUASIVE

50 Not to stone him but take him before Sanhedrin. Whilst they discuss (sought) the method to be adopted, he quietly withdrew probably mingling with some of the less hostile members of the crowd whilst the others were busy.

[u] Likewise Christ been away two millenial days. Hos. 6:2.

MARTHA THE INDUSTRIOUS - She had a tender affection for the Lord, and sought to make him comfortable and show him respect in her house Luke 10:38-42. but Christ showed her that he regarded the inward cravings of his followers for spiritual things of greater importance.

She was impetuous and active as is indicated by her open rebuke of her sister, the practical way she rushed to meet Christ with words of reproach John 11:20-21 Yet though so blunt she was not wanting in love and when the Lord called for Mary she approached her secretly to tell her this John 11:28. In our last glimpse of these two women, Martha is preparing the meal and Mary forgetful of material things is paying a tribute to the spiritual John 12.

The world which loves bodily comfort pays its tribute to Martha. It is left to Christ to do so to Mary.

MARY THE STUDIOUS. - She was impractical from worldly standards preferring the hearing of Christ to mundane serving thus storing her spiritual opportunities Luke 10:38-42. She was thoughtful and considerate John 12:3-7. pondering the meaning of things. John 11:20. In contrast to her more active but less thoughtful sister, more demonstrative in love & sorrow 11:32.

WALK IN THE LIGHT

7. Christ's day ended at the appointed time, until then they could walk with confidence in the light of the Sun of Righteousness John 9:4-5.

MARY MEETS JESUS. VV28-32.

17. The presence of Jesus was not without risk and danger. VV 8-16.

18. The appearance of the more emotional Mary was different to that of Martha. The latter met Christ dry-eyed; the former had tears streaming from her eyes.

19. Contrast with the words that followed from Martha. She who was used to ministering to others' comfort wanted something done. Mary was content to leave it to the Lord.

20. He felt keen emotion at the sorrow of his friends.

21. He allowed the circumstances to deeply distress him.

Pessimistic yet courageous, inquisitive and incredulous yet zealous. When he saw what he ought to do he had the courage to do it in the face of what looked like certain death John 11:16. He had the determination to do what Christ required if shown how to do it John 14:5. But he demanded proof and was only prepared to believe in the Lord's resurrection on terms he laid down which indicated that to that moment he lacked faith John 20:28.

After that moment courage and determination was harnessed to faith. Until then Thomas questioned but was driven to follow Christ by sheer determination and courage.

Resurrection

24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again (a) in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, I am [c] the resurrection, and the [d] life: [f] he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me [g] shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that [i] thou art the Christ, [m] the Son of God, [p] which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, [r] The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place [v] where Martha met him.

31 [x] The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, [b] that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she [e] fell down at his feet, saying unto him, [o] Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and [z] was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 [k] Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold [l] how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, [o] which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again [b] groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was [e] a cave, and [g] a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, [h] Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he [k] hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, [m] Said I not unto thee, that, [o] if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see [q] the glory of God?

41 Then they took away [g] the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus [s] lifted up his eyes, and said, [t] Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but [u] because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may [x] believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, [a] Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, [c] bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then [d] many of the Jews which came to Mary, and [f] had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to [h] the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ¶ Then [i] gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and [m] the Romans shall come and take away both our [n] place and [n] nation.

17. The presence of Jesus was not without risk and danger. Vv 8, 16.

18. The appearance of the more emotional Mary was different to that of Martha. The latter met Christ dry-eyed; the former had tears streaming from her eyes.

19. Contrast with the words that followed from Martha. She who was used to ministering to others' comfort wanted something done. Mary was content to leave it to the Lord.

20. He felt keen emotion at the sorrow of his friends.

21. He allowed the circumstances to deeply distress him.

THE LORD'S SORROW Vv 33-38.

22. Lit. "shed tears." He silently wept. Not cried aloud as in Luke 19:41.

23. Gr. "de" - But as in v. 7. The hostile tone of criticism. Could he not have come and raised his friend. Or perhaps they looked on his weakness as emotion as a sign of weakness and frustration as though unable to remedy the terrible situation.

"Being agitated within himself" (Dods). The critical comments of his enemies, the genuine sorrow of his friends, the hired mourners, the atmosphere of hatred into which he had moved deeply affected him, especially as it was all concentrated around the ghastly work of death.

Moreover the miracle as a sign must have brought home to him his own impending death when criticism, hatred, enmity, sorrow would again be blended together.

"TAKE AWAY THE STONE"

A sepulchre of this nature together with the fact that Martha owned the house, and the extent of mourning indicated that the family was wealthy.

26. Thus publicly declaring the Power was of God.

27. This public prayer had been preceded by private petition.

28. The resurrection demonstrated this Rom. 1:3.

"LAZARUS COME FORTH"

A hush would have fallen on the assembly, the critics, the enemies, the friends would all watch wonderingly when Lazarus came shuffling forth. What incredulity, what amazement, what joy.

29. Cp John 5:28. Matt. 28:

DIVIDED STATE OF PEOPLE

29. The miracle divided the concourse into Christ's followers and those who could not dispute his power, but served the flesh. It was a form of judgment. These latter sought to gain favour with the authorities.

THE SANHEDRIN ASSEMBLES Vv 47-48

30. Gr. Sunedrion. The supreme national court consisting of 71 members, originating from the council of 70 elders with Moses at their head. cf Num. 11:24.

They claimed the right of regulating all affairs of religion. Cp John 1:19.

31. It will raise a general insurrection.

32. They claimed for themselves what belonged to Yahweh. The "place" = the Temple.

THE SANHEDRIN met in an atmosphere of hatred and perplexity. They could not deny the miracle; they would not believe in Jesus. They feared his growing influence; they vainly raged in impotent council of how to rid themselves of him. They sought a means to justify and legalise a crime.

49 And one of them, named [a]Caiaphas, being the high priest [b]that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider [c]that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest [b]that year, [d]he prophesied [e]that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 [e]And [m]not for that nation only, [n]but that also he should [o]gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth [p]they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore [q]walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to [r]the wilderness, into a city called [s]Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And [t]the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many [a]went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, [b]to purify themselves.

56 [d]Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAPTER 12.

Jesus excuseth Mary anointing his feet. 9 People flock to see Lazarus. 12 Christ rideth into Jerusalem. 20 Greeks desire to see Jesus. 37 The Jews are generally blinded. 44 Jesus calleth earnestly for confession of faith.

[m]THEN Jesus six days before [k]the passover came to Bethany, where [n]Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There [o]they made him a supper; and [p]Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took [q]Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and [r]anointed the feet of Jesus, and [s]wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and [t]had the bag, and [u]bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my [v]burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much [w]people of [x]the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, [y]whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ But [z]the chief priests [a]consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because [b]that by reason of him [c]many of [x]the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ On the next day much people that were come to [d]the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, [e]Hosanna: [f]Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

As such he also denied the influence of Providence imagining he possessed absolute power to do good or ill. He was high handed, callous, insolent - yet under domination of Annas Luke 3:2. IN THE HOSTILE TENSE ATMOSPHERE OF JERUSALEM. The leaders were determined that Christ must die Jhn.11:47 and had issued instructions to arrest him V.57. In that atmosphere, he arrived at Bethany and was received by his friends with love and kindness. Lazarus testified that he was the resurrection and the life; Martha attended to his physical needs, and Mary's act of devotion proclaimed her belief that he is Messiah and King. Of all she was the most thoughtful, performing for him "a beautiful thing" Mt.26:10 KJV. proclaiming her conviction that he was King in spite of the opposition, and humbling herself before him in excess of feeling. Thoughtfully pondering the issues involved; and with the miracle of Lazarus clearly etched in her mind, she seemed to grasp what eluded all others – the impossibility of his being accepted into the Jerusalem Temple by the Sanhedrin as the proclamation of the King.

Christ prayeth

15 Fear not, [a] daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 [d] These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when [g] Jesus was glorified, then [h] remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 [k] For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, [l] Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain [m] Greeks among them [n] that came up to worship [o] at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to [p] Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them, saying, [q] The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [r] Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 [s] He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that [t] hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and [u] where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 [v] Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me [w] from this hour: but [x] for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 [y] Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I [z] have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is [a] the judgment of this world: now shall [b] the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be [c] lifted up from the earth, will draw [d] all men unto me.

33 [e] This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of [f] the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be [g] lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is [h] the light [i] with you. [k] Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for [l] he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be [m] the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and [n] did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, [o] who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again, pending death of the Lord, and by her action of anointing his feet and wiping them with her hair indicated her willingness to follow him wherever it may lead. She knew of the prevailing hostility and Jesus had not hesitated to speak of his death. The symbolic import of her action would anoint his feet and thus refresh and help him along the difficult path he had to tread. It was a "beautiful thing" she did – an acknowledgment that he would die, but that he was Christ and she in faith would follow him. She "broke the jar" Mk. 14:3 containing the ointment – perhaps indicating by so doing the impending death of eyes, and [a] hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Esaias, [e] when he [f] saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless among [h] the chief rulers also many believed on him; but [i] because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest [j] they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they loved [m] the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jesus cried and said, [q] He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, [s] but on him that sent me.

45 And [u] he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 [z] I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, [2] I judge him not: for [a] I came not to judge the world, to save the world.

48 He that [c] rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: [d] the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him [f] in the last day.

49 For [g] I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me [i] a commandment, [k] what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Jesus washeth his disciples' feet: exhorteth to humility: 34 commandeth them to love one another.

NOW [o] before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that [b] his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved [c] his own [d] which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, [l] the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;

3 Jesus knowing that [k] the Father had given all things into his hands, and [m] that he was come from God, and [n] went to God;

4 [p] He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and [r] girded himself.

5 After that he [t] poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and [2] Peter saith unto him, [v] Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; [b] but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, [c] If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, [h] Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and [i] ye are clean, but not all.

11 For [m] he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and [n] had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

NOT THE PASSOVER : The washing of feet is not a feature of the Passover meal, the reclining and dipping into a common bowl would have occurred at any communal meal. On the other hand the giving of alms. John 13:29 might have taken place before the Passover, but not at the meal itself, when money could no longer be employed for the festival requirement. - J.B. Segal : The Hebrew Passover p. 37

CHRIST'S OWN EPITOME OF HIS TEACHING

John corroborates his own summary by quoting the Lord himself. His public ministry closed at V. 36. These words could have been spoken earlier, or perhaps privately to the 12.

His belief does not end there, for he was Yahweh's representative and they must see him as such. Cp John 1:21. Christ's constant theme. John 1:5-9. 3:19. 8:12. 9:5. 12:35.

Whilst there was light in the dwellings of Israel, there was darkness over the land of Egypt. Exod. 10:21-23. The question now was, Who controlled spiritual Egypt. Cp 1 John 2:7.

A neutral word implying neither belief nor unbelief. (Camb. B.)

Diag. "Keep not" i.e. fulfil them.

Because they do not believe. But he did condemn those who knowingly slight him as a teacher. John 3:19. 15:22-24.

Diag. "[illegible] hot that judging him" The Word becomes his judge without sentencing him. Cp 3:18. 8:15.

The hearer may receive the Word but connote evade the responsibility

The words of Jesus are to be understood as the Eternal Spirit communing with the disciples from upon the Mercy Seat, between the Cherubim upon the Ark of Testimony. Ex. 25:22.

This was constantly asserted by Christ. John 3:32. 5:30. 7:16-17. 8:38. 14:10, 24. 17:8, 14.

Lego = The substance of what is said.

Laleo = The actual words. Thus not only what he should teach, but how it should be conveyed. Cp Mt. 7:28-29.

Obedience to His command - to the communion Jesus received of the Father will result in Life Eternal for those who heed. John 3:16.

NOT THE PASSOVER : The washing of feet is not a feature of the Passover meal, the reclining and dipping into a common bowl would have occurred at any communal meal. On the other hand the giving of alms. John 13:29 might have taken place before the Passover, but not at the meal itself, when money could no longer be employed for the festival requirement. - J.B. his disciples' feet. 1 The festival took place on 15th Abib

2 Cp 4. 7:6. 11:9. His hour had come. His enemies could do nothing but plot. Cp Ch 7:30. 8:20.

3 Telos has the significance of "the uttermost" or "the ultimate". See trans. 1 Thess. 2:16.

4 RV: during supper. Diag. "was preparing." Cam. B also = "supper was beginning". Cp v. 4.

5 The false accusers: the Jewish leaders. Luke 22:4-5. Treachery in a friend is one of the severest trials. Cp Ps. 55:12-13.

6 Cp Mt. 11:27. 28:18. He had conquered: could even have escaped. Mt. 26:13. Cp John 10:18.

7 Expressive of his great station. Cp John 1:18. 3:35. 6:62. 8:42. 16:28. 17:5.

8 Diag. "Mantle" - His upper garments.

9 This was the office of the meanest slaves. 1 Sam. 25:41. Even Judas submitted to this with thoughts of betrayal in his heart. Cp V. 2.

10 Cp e.g. Luke 22:26.

11 "Not, not shall thou wash my feet to the age." Diag. (used for emphasis) - Impetuous dogmatism.

12 This implied a spiritual import to the action. Cp Eph. 5:26 which requires humility on the part of the receiver as well as the giver. Peter was not actuated by humility in rejecting the act - but desired to demonstrate his great humility.

13 Peter's typical impetuosity now finds expression in words that completely miss the spiritual import of the act.

14 Louō = Completely washed - RV: Bathed. So where in this chapter Niptō - wash part of the Body. For Louo see Heb. 10:22. A man that is bathed need not to bathe save when he washes his feet, but only to wash the dust off his feet - for he is completely clean.

Thus there is a need for daily washing by the priests at the laver.

Peter's love for his Master showed itself in his [illegible]

CHAPTER 13.

5 WEDNESDAY 14th ABIB

John (Ch 12:23-36) mentions events that probably occurred on the Monday after which the Lord "hid himself." V. 36. On the Tuesday the conspiracy of the Jews and the continued treachery of Judas is recorded Luke 22:1-6. On Tuesday evening (Wednesday) they proceeded to the Guest-chamber Mark 14:12-16. The Supper was introduced by Jesus as recorded by Luke Ch. 22:14-18 and continued as recorded by John above.

HUMILIATION Vv 1-10.

148 falseness V. 27, his impetuous attack on Malchus John 18:10, his denials Vv 25, 27 etc. all showed the need for daily washing of the feet to cleanse the dust off in his pilgrimage to the Kingdom.

The second intimation of a traitor in their midst Cp John 6:70. But the statement must have set them all thinking with secret disturbing thoughts V. 22. Mt. 26:22.

Didaskalos = Teacher Lit "The Teacher and the Lord." Christ commends them for using his titles, "too great familiarity in their address was not good; respect and reverence became his position." Cp Acts 2:

56

"The servant is not greater than the Lord" V.16

This statement, introduced with a double "verily" to show its importance occurs four times in the Gospels 1 - To show that disciples must expect no better treatment than their Master Mt.10:24 2 - To show their responsibilities as teachers for their disciples will imitate them Luke 6:40. 3 - To emphasise the need of humility in service John 13:16. 4 - The same as Mt.10:24 but on another occasion Mt.15:20.

CHRIST'S LOVE IN KEEPING HIS OWN.
CH 13:31 - 15:27.
Freed from the oppressive presence of the traitor, Jesus burns out into a declaration of the glorification of the Father through the Son - an example the faithful must follow. The discourse continues to the end of Ch.14. They then rise from the table. The teaching becomes more sustained & ends with Christ's prayer Ch.17 a Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If I then, your Lord and Master, d have washed your feet; e ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
15 For I have given you an example, f that ye should do as I have done to you.
16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, h The servant is not greater than his lord; neither i he that is sent greater than he that sent him.
17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.
18 ¶ m I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, n He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.
19 o Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that p I am he.
20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, q He that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.
21 When Jesus had r thus said, he s was troubled in spirit, and t testified, and said, u Verily, verily, I say unto you, that v one of you shall betray me.
22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.
23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom w one of his disciples, x whom Jesus loved.
24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.
25 He then y lying on Jesus' breast z saith unto him, Lord, who is it?
26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had b dipped the sop, c he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.
27 And after the sop d Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, e That thou doest, do quickly.
28 Now f no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.
29 For some of them thought, because g Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of h against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.
30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.
31 ¶ i Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man j glorified, and k God is glorified in him.
32 If God be glorified l in him, God shall m also n glorify him in himself, and o shall straightway glorify him.
33 Little children, p yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: q and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.
34 a A r new commandment b I give unto you, d That ye love one another; s as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.
35 h By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.
36 ¶ Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, i whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, j thou canst not follow me now; but k thou shalt follow me afterwards.
37 l Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.
38 Jesus answered him, m Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, n The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me o thrice.

CHRIST'S LOVING CONCERN FOR HIS OWN. CHPS 14-17

In spite of the atmosphere of hate and the certainty of impending death, Christ's thoughts are for others and by encouragement, precept and prayer he tries to prepare them for what lays ahead. Inside the room there was the Light of Life, but outside there was the darkness of night. Ch 13:30.

"ABIDE" Gr. Meno'. This word is frequently used by John but has been variously translated. In John 15:9-11 it is rendered by 3 words: "abide" "continue" "remain." It is used of present abiding in a home which implies more than mere position, and includes fellowship, family relations, harmony, friendship. It signifies not merely a passing acquaintance, but an intimate, continual association and communion.

10 SHOW US THE FATHER Vv 8-14.

13 This had all been explained before John 12:45 but the deep things of the Word need constant repetition.

14 Philip had been one of the first called Ch 1:43 + with Nathanael had been given evidence of Christ's Divine power Vv 45-51. There was a gradual unfolding of the Apostles mind - not until after Pentecost did they fully understand. Cp Ch 7:12. 16. Mt. 15:16. Acts Mk. 9:32 Luke 9:45. 18:34. 24:25. Acts 1:6.

15 See how gently he treats with Philip and the affectionate repetition of his name.

There was a measure of unbelief in the Apostles, even in matters that Christ had taught positively. Cp 2. 10:38

The very miracles performed by Christ demonstrated the Father was with him and that his words were authoritative and should be accepted without question.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples: 6 professeth himself the way, the truth, and the life: 13 prayers in his name effectual. 16 He promiseth the Holy Ghost: 27 and leaveth his peace with them.

LET [d] not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In [g] my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. [h] I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, [i] I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that [m] where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 [p] Thomas saith unto him, Lord, [r] we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Cp Eph 4:20-24.

6 Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, [s] the truth, and [t] the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. Eph 2:18.

7 [u] If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from [e] henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 [f] Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. See Note John 6.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? [h] he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that [v] I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you [v] I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, [w] he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: [x] or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, [q] He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and [a] greater works than these shall he do; because [b] I go unto my Father.

13 [c] And whatsoever ye shall ask [d] in my name, that will I do, that [z] the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 ¶ [o] If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another [l] Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

17 Even [p] the Spirit of truth; [q] whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for [q] he dwelleth with you, and [r] shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you [3] comfortless: [t] I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye [u] see me: [a] because I live, ye shall live also.

20 [c] At that day ye shall know that [d] I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

22 [y] Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and [o] the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

20 Christ's labours were limited to Palestine but their's would be world wide. His Saviourship + preaching was limited, but their's would incorporate the full measure of Salvation.

21 This limits prayer, shows that prayer and pray-er should have such affinity to Christ that he is able to endorse them. See the emphasis on pray- er V.16. Ch 16:23,24,26 etc. They should use the strengths available to them.

22 Him - To the end the Father is glorified in the Son because of the conquest of flesh by His power - 2 Cor 5:16. The position of authority offered the Son a token of that glorification.

11 PROMISE OF THE COMFORTER 15-17

23 By this love they would keep "in the Name." But Jesus showed in word and action that the only test of true love is obedience. This love is moral + not emotional. See Note in Index.

24 Alloi - additional not different. Thus another like himself.

25 "To the age" - Drag. This was in control to Christ the Advocate who was about to leave them.

26 It requires more than intelligence, scientific knowledge and learning to discern this, even humility and self-renunciation. See. Jam 1:21

27 Lit. "abideth." The spirit of truth and he in it Gp I John 2:27

12 PROMISE OF FELLOWSHIP. Vv 18-24.

28 Gp Ch 13:33 It was a common idea for a teacher to look upon his disciples as his children.

29 His resurrection commenced a period of indwelling by the Spirit that ordained fellowship.

30 All confusing doubt and misunderstanding will be at an end.

31 Here is love defined - not merely feeling but fellowship suggested V.20 + dependence upon action on the Apostles part. This brought him home to Peter John 13:

32 What has happened that you are going to manifest yourself only unto us and not (as we expected) unto the world?

33 A figurative expression Gp Eph 3:20 indicating the indwelling influence of the spirit Word creating the mind of Christ Phil 2:5. Rom 8:5 Col 3:16 to 2 Cor 10:5 See Cor 3:16. 6:19. 2 Cor 6:16

34 Love + the indwelling presence are death to sin. The former is self-denial necessary to obey the word; the latter is found through the power of the Word itself. The Word was enunciated by the Lord, but originated from the Father Gp Deut 18:18.

13 CHRIST'S CARE FOR HIS OWN IN HIS ABSENCE 27

Vv 18-20 PARAPHRASE "Though I am leaving you through death, I will not leave you friendless and forlorn, but will visit you after my resurrection, and dwell in you by the Spirit of truth after my ascension. This will be to your unspeakable comfort + advantage. Shortly these men who hate me + put me shall see me no more on earth, but you will see me, and when I ascend into heaven you will still be in union with me by the spirit of Truth that shall bind us to Him and unite us with the Father. At that time through the illumination that you will receive you will understand how the Father is manifested in me, and that We are [illegible] in you.

LOVE DEFINED.

THE COMFORTER Lit. "Called to one's side" i.e. aid. (Gr. Parakletos), thus a helper. In Greek usage: a witness called to one's side in a law case, an advocate called in to plead a cause; a person called in to instill encouragement in a company of depressed and dispirited men (such as a company of soldiers facing a dangerous and difficult consignment). Originally the word Comforter came from the word forth's meaning "brave." Thus Jesus, in speaking of the difficult and dangerous mission before the Apostles provided them with the means of help such as was beyond the power of mere flesh. For the work of the Helper see Eph 2:18. Rom 8:27,34. The word is translated "Advocate" in 1 John 2:1.

29 And [q] now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 [r] Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for [t] the prince of this world cometh, and [x] hath nothing in me.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The consolation and mutual love between Christ and his members. 18 Comfort in the hatred and persecution of the world. 26 Office of the Holy Ghost.

I AM [a] the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 [f] Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now [k] ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 [l] Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, [l] ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same [r] bringeth forth much fruit: for [s] without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and [c] is withered; and [d] men gather them, and [e] cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, [g] ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 [i] Herein is my Father glorified, that [l] ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in [m] my love.

10 [p] If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that [t] my joy might remain in you, and [u] that your joy might be full.

12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 [v] Greater love hath no man than this, [b] that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, [d] if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father [q] I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but [h] I have chosen you, and [q] ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that [l] your fruit should remain: that [m] whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 If [o] the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

16 WHAT THEY MAY EXPECT FROM THE WORLD Vv 18-27.

Philein (a liking) contrast with agapan of V 12.

CHRIST OUR SACRIFICE – He submits out of love for mankind, obedience to the Divine will, with unshaken courage. As a shepherd he thus led the sheep who should have the love of God and man as their motive and principle, the glory of God for their end, and His will for their rule.

LET US GO HENCE – It was probably towards midnight = Jesus had to vacate the room before the return of Judas. He went forth to die, counselling and comforting the little band as he did so, and in the stillness of night invoking the protection and blessing of the Father to attend, to sanctify, and to guide them in the arduous labors, the trials and persecutions that they were yet to endure.

THE VINE is a plant that requires a great deal of attention if the best fruit is to be obtained. The ground has to be perfectly clean and cultivated. It must be subjected to heavy pruning. All non-fruit-bearing branches must be drastically removed (or at any rate) so that they will drain away none of the strength of the plant 25 HATED – Christ had warned of this Mk 13:9-13. Mt 10:17-22. 23:29. Luke 12:2-9, 51-53. The Roman Government hated Christians because of their alleged disloyalty. They opposed the principle of Caesar worship. Though opposed by the Caesars at first, there came slowly the day when once a year every inhabitant of the empire had to burn his pinch of incense to the godhead of Caesar. By so doing he showed that he was a loyal citizen of Rome. When he had done so he received a certificate to say he had done so. Here was the practise and the custom and the convention which made all men feel they were part of Rome.

and which guaranteed their loyalty to Rome. Now Rome was the essence of toleration. After he had burned his pinch of incense and had said, 'Caesar is Lord' a man could go away and worship any god he liked, so long as the worship did not affect public decency and public order." (W. Barclay - Called John). The Christians also refused military service. So they were hated as insurrectionists. Their motives were distorted. They were falsely accused of flagrant & promiscuous immorality from their love feasts, of interfering with family relationships because of demands of separateness, and finally they were hated because their manner of life was a constant reproach to that of the ungodly. The basic demand on Christ's followers is the demand that they should have the courage to be different. This implies the hostility of the world

30 Kosmos in this context is human society organising itself without God.

31 The world hates non-conformity, and the basic demand on Christ's followers is the demand that they have the faith & courage to be different.

32 "Tereo" - Watch, wait for Diog. "observed." In a hostile, critical sense Luke 11:53-54. Cp. Acts 5:18 etc.

33 Cp. John 16:2. Rom 10:2. 1 Thes 2:15.

17 KNOWLEDGE & CULPABLE IGNORANCE RESPONSIBILITY Vv22-25.

Jesus exposed sin, telling men what grieved God and exhibiting the right way before them. He also provided a remedy for sin, opening the way for forgiveness and providing in the Truth the dynamics and power to rise above it.

Sin would not have been imputed, or publicly laid to their charge Rom. 5:13, NTE Luke 12:47. Their sin was against light John 3:12. 5:36. 10:38. 14:11.

Ps. 69:21 See the entire ministry of the Lord outlined therein. See also Ps. 35:19. 109:3. 69:4. Disciples of the Lord must expect similar opposition 1 Jn 3:20.

18 CO-OPERATING WITH GOD. Vv26-27.

Effective witness will only result from drawing upon available Divine aid.

It comes from the Father & yet Jesus sends it because all heavenly authority will be vested in him. Mt 28:18.

The Holy Spirit bringing all things to remembrance Ch 14:26 will make obvious things at present hidden from them & thus give power to their testimony.

CHAPTER 16.

19 CONFLICT AND CHALLENGE. Vv1-4.

Christ offers not the path of ease but the way of glory. He desires men who are prepared to dare something with open eyes for his name.

Or stumble - thus he forewarns them.

Latreia - the normal word for the service that a priest rendered at the altar - thus religious service. Cf Phil 3:3. 2 Thess. 2:11

"I GO AWAY." Vv5,7,10. There are three different Greek words here. Vv5,10 = Hupago - To withdraw, generally "I depart" and "depart" = "I go my way." The first has the idea of withdrawal, the second of separation, the third of going on to a goal.

THE WORK OF THE ADVOCATE ON EARTH - "To Reprove" V.8 Gr. Elenchō (Crine). Used in sense of expose in Jn 3:20 Eph 5:11. "It is the word that is used for the cross-examination of a witness, of a man on trial, or an opponent in an argument. It has always this idea of cross-examining a [redacted] man until he sees and admits his errors, or acknowledges the force of some argument which he had not yet seen. It is, for instance, sometimes used by the Greeks for the action of conscience on a man's mind and heart. Now clearly such cross examination can do two things - it can convict a man of the crime or wrong he has done; or it can convince a man of the weakness of his own case and the strength of the case which, up to this time, he has opposed. In this passage we need both the meanings; we need both convict and convince" (W. Barclay).

This illustrates the work of the earthly Advocate the Spirit of Truth.

An example of the work of this Advocate is shown in Peter's Gospel address. He convinced and convicted the Jews of Sin Acts 3: 13-18. Righteousness Acts 3: 19-21. Judgment to come Acts 3: 22-24. Cp also Peter 2:4-9. 2 Peter 2:4-9.

22 THEIR SORROW WILL TURN TO JOY. 16-24.

The Apostles are confused and they are warned that this would inevitably mold sorrow - but on return this world will be joy.

30 but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, [a] The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, [c] they will also persecute you; [d] if they have kept my saying, they will keep your's also.

21 But [e] all these things will they do unto you [f] for my name's sake, [g] because they know not him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, [l] they had not had sin: [m] but now they have no [21] cloke for their sin.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them [p] the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in [t] their law, [u] They hated me without a cause.

26 But when [v] the Comforter is come, [w] whom I will send unto you from the Father, even [c] the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

27 And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me [h] from the beginning.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples against tribulation by the promise of the Holy Ghost, &c. 23 Prayers made in his name are acceptable to his Father. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not [n] be offended.

2 They shall [p] put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, [q] that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known [3] the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And [b] these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now [e] I go my way to him that sent me; and [5] none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou? - but cf. 13:36. 14:5.

6 But because I have said these things unto you, [k] sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, [2] the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, [q] I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will [3] reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: KV "convict" see note below

9 [2] Of sin, because they believe not on me;

10 [3] Of righteousness, [r] because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of judgment, because [b] the prince of this world is judged.

12 [d] I have yet many things to say unto you, [t] but ye cannot bear them now. (must decline in sensitivity)

13 Howbeit when he, [s] the Spirit of truth, is come, [g] he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will [i] shew you things to come. (cf per 1 Jn 2:18-22)

14 He shall [k] glorify me: for [m] he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

15 [2] All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 [n] A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and [r] ye shall see me, [t] because I go to the Father.

3 Even though they professed religious zeal.

4 Not merely the prediction of persecution, but all the other features he had expressed - the course & scope of persecution; the going to the Father; the coming of the Comforter etc.

20 THE NEED OF CHRIST'S DEPARTURE & WORK OF THE SPIRIT 5-11.

Despite the confusion & sorrow of the Disciples, Christ's departure was necessary for their spiritual development.

5 If they had rightly enquired the cause and purpose of his leaving they would have found cause of rejoicing 14:2,

6 but they did not understand & were confused & sorrowful.

7 A self-centred sorrow that allowed no place for the Divine purpose or the consolation of future glory & triumph.

8 For their own spiritual development & as the High Priest into the Most Holy to intercede for them Heb 9:23.

This earthly Advocate, the Spirit of Truth would bring their minds into prayerful fellowship with the intercessory work of the Lord behind the veil Ch 14:16,17 Rom. 8:26,27

Of the need and possibility of justification See note in Galatians.

The resurrection and ascension of Christ declared his righteousness. Cp Rom 4:25.

In this humble state of suffering and abasement Ch John 17:24.

The execution of the judgment had yet to follow.

21 THE NEED OF GREATER KNOWLEDGE Vv12-15.

Cp 1 Cor 2:10 John himself was to receive the revelation as indicative of the [illegible] "from" It will not be an independent revelation but one stemming from God. This is a Hebraism, a personification as per Prov 8 so that the Spirit is represented as listening to and obeying the instructions of the Father, and thus receiving and passing on to the Apostles, the revelation of Yahweh. Like a connecting telephone, the Spirit would LINK them with the Father & the Son passing on to them the revelations of Heaven.

16 Doxazo from Dokeo, opinion. Thus to magnify, extol, praise. The revelation of the Spirit concerning Christ does that. Cp 1 Cor. 12:3.

ALL THINGS THAT THE FATHER HATH ARE MINE" V.15. - All the fulness of being Col.2:9. all the treasures of wisdom & knowledge. Eph.1:17. all the power and Authority Mt.28:18. 1 Tim.6:15-16 all the manifestation of Divine glory. Jhn 17:5 are delivered unto the Son so that He became the full revelation of the Father. Heb.1:3. What He is in measure can become. Rom.5:2. 8:17. 2 Pet.1:4. Rev.

"THOU SPEAKEST NO PARABLE" V29. - The Apostles thought they understood but subsequent events soon showed that they failed to comprehend either the manner of his death or his ascension (Acts 1:6). They probably said these words in relief feeling they did understand that the Lord, like Elijah, was to be taken from them for a short time (to death and resurrection.

"I sanctify myself" Ch 17:19.

Sanctify. - Hagiazō = To consecrate, ie to separate for Divine use, and is related to Hagios, Saints, Holy.

The Lord Jesus was sanctified as a prophet, and sent into the world by the Father Jhn 10:36. Now he is about to sanctify himself as a Sacrifice and a Priest Jhn 17:19 to enter into the Most Holy on the behalf of saints Heb 9:12. In order that the Ecclesia might be sanctified Eph. 5:26.

In Christ, believers are sanctified or set apart for God Acts 20:32 by the Spirit-Word Rom. 15:16. and an understanding & application of the lessons of the Atonement Heb. 10:10. 13:12. 1 Cor. 1:2, 30. Heb. 2:11.

Thus believers are separated from the world and moulded by the Father 2 Cor. 4:6-7 through the Word Jhn 17:17. Ps. 12:6. 119:9. Their sanctification (Hagiasmos) must be pursued earnestly and understandingly 1 Tim 2:15. Heb. 12:14. for the holy character (Hagiosune) 1 Thess. 3:13 is not vicarious, it cannot be imputed or transferred, but must be individually developed, built up, little by little, through obedience to the Word and the example of Christ Mt. 11:29. Jhn 13:15. Eph. 4:20. Phil. 2:5. in the power of the spirit word Eph 3:16. Rom. 8:13.

The agency in sanctification is the Spirit-Word Rom. 15:16. 2 Thess. 2:13. 1 Pet. 1:2. 1 Cor. 6:11. But recall that Spirit is not the heavenly effluence is shown by the fact that the believers of Samaria were baptised before the Holy Spirit was given Acts 8:16 but not before their hearts had been touched by the influence of Philip's teaching Acts 8:12, 12.

The effect of sanctification is to turn a believer away from those ways as would dishonor God and Her Son 2 Tim 2:21 and to acknowledge in all things the Lordship of Jesus Christ 1 Pet. 3:15.

The word is derived from a root compounding a, a negative; and ge, earth = thus to separate from earth or common use, and to make holy.

Christ's prayer includes this double principle.

For [a] the Father himself eth you, because ye have ed me, and have [b] believed at I came out from God.
[d] I came forth from the Far, and am come into the rld: again, I leave the world,

Jesus answered them, [k] Do

24 CHRIST'S CONFIDENCE IN THE FATHER Vs 29-33

motives were distorted. They were falsely accused of flagrant & promiscuous immorality from their love feasts, of interfering with family relationships because of deviant's of separateness, and finally they were hated because their manner of life was a constant reproach to that of the unbeliever. The basic demand on Christ's followers is the demand that they should have the courage to be different. This incites the hostility of the world

THE DRAMA OF JOHN 17

Though facing treachery, disgrace and death the Lord spoke of victory and triumph as though they were already accomplished.

Ch. 16:33.

Ch. 17:2. "All flesh" is a Hebraism which includes the brute creation Gen. 6:19. 7:15, 16, 21. 8:17. 9:11, 15, 16, 17, etc. Thus the Lord does not limit his Messiahship to Jewry, but includes all mankind in fulfilment of Gen. 1:26 Like David going forth to meet with Goliath, he does so with a prayer on his lips and in full assurance of victory. This is anticipation Heb 2:8

Give Eternal life to as many - Though jurisdiction is over "all flesh" some are selected out for special privilege and they become the subject of the prayer V. 16.

As Thou hast given him - As antitypical of the Levites who were "given" unto Aaron. Num. 18:6.

This is life eternal. Such an expression can signify: This is the basis upon which life eternal will be granted. Though the present tense is used in this prayer, it is done so on the grounds of the certainty of impending victory. Thus cp. V. 2. with Mt. 28:18. 16. See similar language Jn. 3:14: "This is condemnation ..." (It is the basis of condemnation) Jn 6:29: "This is the work of God, that ye believe.." (rather the basis by which work of God performed). Jn 12:50 "His commandment is life everlasting..." See Note Jn 17:11.

The only true Alethines - real, genuine. The reality of that which is manifested. See Note Jn 1:9.

Verse 4. "I glorified Thee on earth, having finished" (i.e. perfected) Cp Jn 12:28. 13:31. The prophet embraces the future, and Christ speaks from the standpoint of completed labor.

Which Thou hast given Me to do Thus completing the compassionate work of Yahweh in sending His messengers - 2 Chron. 36:15. Jn 1:6.

Verse 5 "with" The first and third occurrences of this word are, para in Greek with the Dative case and signifies "beside" a person or thing. This part of the prayer is expressive of the hope of Ps 110 then in the mind of the Lord Cp Mt 22:42-45. As the Lord promised the Father on earth so He prays the Father will honor him at the side of His own self in Heaven Acts 2:34-36.

But para with the Dative can also signify "in the estimation or opinion of" (Bullinger) and examples of this are found in Mt. 6:1 Mt 16:27 Luke 1:30. 18:27. So the Lord is requesting the Father to grant him that position of glory and honor at His side, that He determined to grant him from the beginning. Fulfilled. Acts 2:33

This same glory is now given to the Lord Christ, as the Father gave it to him "before the world" 7:22. Yahweh is able to use the present tense for things yet future because of the absolute certainty of their accomplishment Rom. 4:17. Luke 20:37.

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus [1]knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall [m]weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but [n]your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A [o]woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have [p]sorrow: but I will see you again, and [q]your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And [r]in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, [s]Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, [t]that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in [u]proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in [2]proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 [v]At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 For [w]the Father himself [x]loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have [y]believed that I came out from God.

28 [z]I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and [a]go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no [3]proverb.

30 Now are we sure that [b]thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this [c]we believe that [d]thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, [e]Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, [f]the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that [g]ye shall be scattered, [h]every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and [i]yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that [k]in me ye might have peace. [l]In the world [m]ye shall have tribulation: but [n]be of good cheer; [o]I have overcome the world.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him, 6 to preserve his apostles, 20 and all other believers.

THESE words spake Jesus, and [b]lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, [c]the hour is come; [d]glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 [e]As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to [f]as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the [g]only [h]true God, and Jesus Christ, [i]whom thou hast sent.

4 [j]I have glorified thee on the earth: [k]I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, [l]glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory [m]which I had with thee [n]before the world was.

ALL THINGS THAT THE FATHER HATH ARE MINE" V15. - All the fulness of being Col 2:9 all the treasures of wisdom & knowledge. Eph 1:17 all the power and Authority Mt 28:18. 1 Tim 6:15-16 all the manifestation of Divine glory. Jhn 17:5 are delivered unto the Son so that he became the full revelation of the Father Heb 1:3. What he is we, in measure, can become Rom 5:2. 8:17. 2 Pet 1:4 Rev 3:12. Cp Mth 8:48.

"THOU SPEAKEST NO PARABLE" V29. - The Apostles thought they understood but subsequent events soon showed that they failed to comprehend either the manner of his death or his ascension Cp Ack 1:6. They probably said these words in relief feeling they did understand & that the Lord, like Elijah, was to be taken from them for a short time in triumph.

18 These words not in the best texts. Diag.

19 They were evidently walking towards Gethsemane Cp Ch 18:1. in the darkness of night as they followed the Lord, they would have opportunity to make these whispered exchanges without (as they thought) being detected.

20 Cp Ps 10. The whole discourse confused them.

21 Cp John 16:16.

22 Comment on the moment Exod 16:15. Jhn 6:51

23 They were shy and hesitant to reveal their lack of spiritual understanding.

24 He does not explain what he means (he had told them of his impending death often) and refuse to accept it) but warns them of impending circumstances greatest sorrow that will turn to joy. His words amount to a "wait and see..."

25 Not merely succeeded by joy, but sorrow become joy. They would finally learn of the resurrection, but the purpose of his death. Rom 4:25

26 A figure used in O.T for the grief of Israel. Is 26:17. 66:6-7. Hos 13:8.

27 This sorrow would be as birth pangs of the rejection of the Son of God and of the multiplied Christ Eph. 4:13-16

28 They were confused and shocked by his discourse, & would become utterly downcast at his death.

29 Cp. Mk 10:24. See Note. 16:5. This joy did not fully come until the Holy Spirit was given to lead them into all Truth.

30 The day of fulness of joy when the Holy Spirit would open to the Apostles the full comprehension of the Father-Son relationship Ch 14:20.

31 Erotao - a request or question asked one of another on a footing of familiarity & equality (Vine). Meaning: "Ye shall ask me no question." Reason below V.13. 14:26.

32 Aiteo - suggests a request on the part of a servant who desires help. This limits the "whatsoever" to what is in accord with Christ's will 3 the present tense (Cambr.) "go on asking" Luke 11:9 Aiteo.

33 See Note Ch 15:11. "Full" = "fulfilled," "completed" (Marg.). The joy would be found in the proclamation of the Gospel and this could be brought to fulfilment by co-operation with the Father through the Son. Thus out of darkness of despair there would emerge to the glorious light of a complete understanding and the joy of this revelation would be completed in bringing the same message of salvation to others.

23 THEIR PRIVILEGED RELATIONSHIP 25-28.

A wonderful revelation is to come which shall sweep aside all doubts and misunderstandings and will make manifest the love of God to them.

25 Paroimia - parables, but also signifying a hard saying, a saying that is veiled to the casual hearer, a pithy saying expressed briefly so that the mind must grapple with it.

26 Cp Acts 1:3. Because their minds would be receptive to his teaching through events that would clear up misunderstandings.

27 Parrhesia - freely, unreservedly. They were then ready for this revelation. Cp Luke 24:25

28 Fully recognising the relationship of the Father and the Son & knowledge that the fast-fulfilling experiences they were about to receive would prepare them to accept.

29 Erotao See Note 16:30. As they have communion with the Father through the Son and the Father loveth them, there would be no need to press for any requests they might make in his name. However, sin can break that communion requiring his help as an advocate. 1 Jhn 2:1. Cp Eph 2:18.

30 Pisteuo - a fatherly and loving affection.

31 Para - "from the side of" Cp Nte Gen 2:21. Here as an extension of the Father (God should be Father as Eve was of Adam) they had recognised him as an emanation of the Father (i.e. the Son of God) and not merely as another prophet. Jhn 11:13 16:30.

32 Many readings have "ek" out from V 27 = [illegible] proceedeth forth from the side of, and here "out of" He was an emanation from all of the Father, sent forth.

CHRIST'S CONFIDENCE IN THE FATHER Vv 29-33

The Apostles thought they understood & were confident in their belief - but Christ knew the extent of human weakness and placed his confidence in the Father 33 Because he was answering their questions before they expressed them. Vv 19, 23.

34 This is the sense in which they believed & not that he corporeally descended or pre-existed. He understood it in the sense of God manifestation & the Lord endorsed their belief. V 27 Cp. Ch 1:49.

35 Asked ironically to put them on a full examination of the heart.

36 Cp Gen 22:6-7

37 Therefore we should be as little in the world as our Master's service will allow. 1 Cor 7:35. 1 Tim 6:8-10. 2 Tim 2:4

38 He overcame by the indwelling power of the Word Mt 4:4-7, 10 & now face to face with treachery & double & death, can still triumphantly claim the victory & in his victory his followers can likewise share. 1 Jhn 2:13-14. 4:4 5:4. Rom 8:37

25 THE INTERCESSORY PRAYER Vv 1-26

1 For Himself. Vv 1-5.

1 Culminating in the certainty of victory Cp 16:33.

2 See earlier prayer for this request. Ch 12:23-28. Fulfilled in His resurrection. Acts 3:13. 13:32. Phil 2:9-10.

3 By bringing forth fruit Jhn 15:8 by causing God to be praised 1 Pet 1:3, 21. the resurrection did this for it demonstrated the benefits accruing from self-sacrificing obedience to God. Rom 4:25. Luke 1:51-53. Isa 9:6. Jer 22:16

4 Ginosko It implies not merely to know but to know in such a way as to establish a relationship between the person knowing & the object known (Thos). In this context it implies faith & obedience. Cp 1 Sam 2:12 Exod 16:4. 33:13. It is used to convey the thought of union between man & woman & to bring fruit to the glory of the Father Mt 7:23. Cp. 1 Cor 8:3. The importance of these Knowledge Jer 9:23-24 Phil 3:8 Prov 2:5. Cp. Rom 10:2.

The partial fulfilment of this 1 Pet 1:20. Cp 1 Tim 3:16 Heb 2:5-8. 1 Jhn 4:2 Cp 2 Jhn 7 "flesh" includes both Jew and Gentiles. Eternal life will 153 THE INTERCESSORY PRAYER - This was uttered in the darkness of night from time they left the room Ch 13:31 and walking through the city came to its outskirts Cp 18:1 It was a prayer uttered aloud in the knowledge of certain victory Ch 16:33 As the high priest on the Day of Atonement made intercession for himself, his household and the nation Lev 16:17 so our Lord prays for himself Vv 1-5, for the Apostles Vv 6-19 for the whole Ecclesia Vv 20-26, all his petitions were made on the grounds of his impending offering. Thus the expressions are anticipatory. Cp. V2 with Mt 28:18.

"I pray not for the world." The Apostles were appointed to carry on the work commenced, and therefore were in need of the intercession of the Lord, for they were to reveal and glorify him. 1 Cor. 4:9-10, 2 Cor. 4:9-11, Gal. 2:20, Exhortation 1 Cor. 4:16, 11:1, Phil. 3:17, 2 Thess. 3:7.

THE PRAYER. It composed of three main sections
1: Christ's own commission & fulfilment of it 6-8
2: Care for the Apostles who are to represent him in the world 6-19.
3: The union in love of the whole Ecclesia, welded together as one with the Father and the Son.

FAMILY CHARACTERISTICS are expressed in this prayer: * As a Father, Yahweh is entitled to filial respect, love, Mal. 1:6. * As holy, Heb. 2:11. * As righteous V. 25, 1 Jn. 2:29. * As loving 1 Jn. 4:6-21.

C THE PRAYER BASED ON THEIR NEED AND STATUS. Vv 11-19.

They would have greater need of help during Christ's absence. The prayer adopts the language of Rom. 4:17, the language of anticipation.
He is about to pray for the sanctification of saints and so ascribes in the character of the Father. Cp. 1 Pet. 1:15-17.
"Keep them in thine name" R.V. - i.e. in Thine form. God 5:10, Acts 15:26, 1 Thess. 1:1, from Jn 17:6, Jn 2:6, 8:31, Ch. Ver. 23-27, 1 John 2:12. "Keep" = Tereo. See Note 9.

Tereo - To watch over Cp V.6. Now that he is about to leave them he delivers his charge unto the Father.
Phulasso - guarded.
Apollumi - perished, a contrast word to Perdition. A play on words: None perished but the Son of Perdition.
Better: They may... Christ is praying aloud as they walk in the darkness of night that they may be comforted.
Thy Logos, doctrine. This was a privilege and a consolation which they could rejoice. Ps. 1:2, 15:16.
The Truth, inevitably produces this. Gen 3:15 That the contrast: A relationship with the Father, the supervision & protection of Christ V.12, the joy of the Truth V.13, the hatred of the World - but even thus it is a source of happiness rejoicing Mt 5:

6 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.
7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.
8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.
9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.
10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.
11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are.
12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.
13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.
14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.
16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.
18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.
19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.
20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;
21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.
22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:
23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me.
24 Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.
25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.
26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

trayed him, knew the place: for Jesus ofttimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 [c] Judas then, having received a band of men and [d] officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and [g] torches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, [h] Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, [i] Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: [k] the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then [l] the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 13 And [m] led him away to [a] Annas first; for he was father in law to [b] Caiaphas, which was the high priest [c] that same year.

14 Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, [o] that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ [p] And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: [17] that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into [e] the palace of the high priest.

16 [f] But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto [h] her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith [k] the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ¶ [l] The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, [t] I spake [m] openly to the world; [u] I ever taught [n] in the synagogue, and [o] in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and [p] in secret have [t] said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what [t] have said unto them: behold, [r] they know what [t] said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the [s] officers which stood by [t] struck Jesus [2] with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Annas [v] had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. [d] They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

a whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

28 ¶ Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Christ is scourged, crowned with thorns, and beaten. 4 Pilate delivereth him to be crucified. 26 He commendeth his mother to John. 28 He dieth. 31 His side is pierced. 38 His burial.

THEN Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore

DID THE JEWS HAVE AUTHORITY TO PUT TO DEATH?

The Talmud declares this right was taken from Jews 40 years before the destruction of the city. However Josephus (Ant 20:9:1) indicates they still had this power. Some claim (see Camb. Bible) that the Talmud is wrong. Certainly Acts indicates the Jews still had this power. Acts 5:31. 7:59. 21:31. 26:10. The Jews could have meant that it was not lawful to put him to death at that time with the Passover so close, nor put him to death the way they wanted – by crucifixion. See v.32. Cp Deut 21:22-23. "Hence the name of the hated, "the Hung," applied to Christ in the Talmud, and Christians are called "servants of the Hung." Their reasons for desiring His Crucifixion may have been manifold, besides the motives of hatred and revenge." (Farrar).

First Jesus is taken to the official assembly of Sanhedrin Luke 22:66-71

TRIED BY GENTILES.

1 FIRST GENTILE TRIAL Mt. 27:2, 11-14 Mk 15:1-5 Lk 23:1-6

Still bound like a dangerous criminal Mk 15:1.

The RSV adds quite incorrectly "the house of." He came from the Council Room of Sanhedrim South of Temple Luke 22:66 to the Praetorium which was to its north.

RSV: The Praetorium. The residence of the Roman Governor when in Jerusalem. This was most likely the Tower of Antonia overlooking the North West corner of the Temple.

Observe the blatant hypocrisy. This was but a rabbinic tradition (Delitzsch - Talm. Com.) but they would observe that with murder in their hearts. They knew these ceremonials but not the Truth. Acts 8:21-23 Ps 51:7

They fulfilled the prediction of Christ Mt. 20:19. Though clean in their own right Jn 7:19 they were loathsome in the sight of Yahweh Gal 3:10-13 Dt 27:26 were bringing on their city the curse of Deut 21:1-9. Cp Mt 27:7.

By this demand for formal accusation, Pilate indicated he would officially try the accused. The Jews had not expected that what they hoped he would immediately endorse their accusation. Blasphemy was no crime to Herod Cp Acts 4:16 hence the vagueness of their first charge. They then laid charge of seditious agitation, refusing tribute, and claiming Kingship Luke 23:2 for they added Blasphemy Jn 10:33

This would have been by stoning Lev 24:14 but they wanted such a death as would curse him Gal 3:13.

The formal charge laid Luke 23:2

So that he "stood before the Governor" Mt 27:11 and the rulers of the two "worlds" faced each other

In what sense do you use the word "King"? As a Roman I have a right to know if I am setting myself up in opposition to Caesar, or are you merely repeating what you have heard from my countrymen?

I am investigating a charge preferred by your countrymen. I have nothing personally to charge against you!!

Jesus enters a plea of Confession & Avoidance – a common defence in civil action. "In addition to or instead of denying the allegation made in the statement of claim, the defendant may in his defence set up an affirmative case, either by stating his version of the facts or showing that the plaintiff has no cause of action on the true facts, or he may plead in confession & Avoidance & show that notwithstanding the facts stated by the plaintiff, he has a defence." (English Law).

He admits the charge of being King but points out the true facts of the matter.

In the Greek this is reversed: "If of this world were my kingdom..."

Huperetes – officers. So RV mg.

Nun – "the actual present time, now in relation to time" (Bull.).

Enteuthen – "this place." But it will be ultimately. Luke 21:24. Mt 5:35. Luke 19:11.

Oukoun (ouk-not) (oun, therefore) Gr. "Not then a King art thou!" "After all, therefore you are a King!" "It is not a judicial enquiry, but a burst of ironical surprise" (J. Ex. ell, Pul. Comment.). He had satisfied himself that Jesus was no political rival, and now flashes out with haughty rebuke which receives a dignified reply.

Higher than Caesar! But the accusation makes Pilate pause. He recalls the reports he has heard of this one, the remarkable events in the garden that must have been reported to him, Ch 18:6-12, the solemn warning of his wife Mt 27:19, and his own superstitious fears, and perhaps his troubled conscience, begins to work on him

5 PILATE TRIES MORE STRENUOUSLY TO SAVE JESUS VV 8-12.

42 The Diag. has a full colon here indicating the end of a statement. Christ thus answers: 1. He was born to be King. 2. He came to the world to witness unto the Truth. Cp John 17:18 note 3?

This is an explanation why he has not assumed his royal authority. His first advent was as a prophet proclaiming the Truth – and those truly accepted him as King who heard his voice.

John 1:17. Rom 5:21. 1 Pet 3:22. Cp John 8:32-46. 1 Jn 1:6.

45 These alone are his subjects now. They are out of the Truth. Once clearly told Pilate here is no political agitator.

46 Pilate thus dismisses Christ's claim as irrelevant. What has truth to do with the charge of political sedition pressed by Jews! Nothing!

47 Ans – accusation is legal ground for prosecution.

Here follows the 2nd Gentile trial – before Herod Luke 23:6-12.

2 BARABBAS RELEASED Mt Vv 39-40. Mk 15:6-11. Lk 23:15-26. Mk 15:6-15. Lk 23:16-25.

Oun – now King thus logical inference. Pilate possibly hoped to move the Jews to compassion by the sufferings of Christ. See Note to 1?

Mastigoo – The Jews form more humane than the Roman form? Cp 24, but here used for latter. Cp Mt 27:26. The flagellation humiliated tortured the Lord Mk 15:19. Is 50:6. 53:5.

Himation – an outer garment. This evidently in addition to the scarf of Mt 27:28.

4 PILATE TRIES AGAIN TO SAVE JESUS Vv 4-7

On his own.

This is an appeal to compassion to let him go.

Bleeding, bruised, mutilated, covered in spit – they can see how right he had been humiliated he had been humbled.

Ecce Homo: Look on pitiable figure; you see what has been done to so-called King! Is it not enough!

Their hearts are hardened, their hatred too intense to be touched with sympathy.

Pilate gave them permission to crucify! but their law only permitted death by stoning

IN HEBREW, GREEK, LATIN Thus it was proclaimed to the religious, cultural and political world that Jesus is King or Christ. Thus did they: "say among the heathen that Yahweh reigneth" Ps 96:10.

heard that saying, [a] he was the more afraid;

9 And went [c] again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, [d] Whence art thou? But [e] Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no [l] power at all against me, except it were [m] given thee [k] from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend: [p] whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæsar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, [q] he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but [r] in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was [s] the preparation of the passover, and about [t] the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, [u] Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, [v] Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, [w] We have no king but Cæsar.

16 Then [x] delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And [y] they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he [z] bearing his cross [1] went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and [2] two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, [3] JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written [4] in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, [b] What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ [5] Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, [6] to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, [7] woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, [8] They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ [9] Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, [10] Mary the wife of [11] Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, [12] whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, [13] Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto [14] his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that [15] the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set [16] a vessel full of vinegar: and [17] they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon [18] hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said,

14 THE PROOF OF HIS DEATH Vv 31-37.
In the midst of deliberate judicial murder, the Jews are scrupulous about ceremonial observances. Note the normal sabbath. Cp Mt 28:1. Cp MK 15:42. See Jhn 19:31
This brutal custom, called crurifragium was added to crucifixion in order to conform to Law Deut 21:23. The broken legs prevented the released victims escaping. Perhaps the Jews also desired additional proof that Jesus was not the lamb of God as publicly announced by John.
The perfect tense indicates that the writer is the one referred to (Cosmb.). John had thus returned to the cross Jhn 1:27.
Diag: "He having seen has testified" John was a personal eyewitness of the events he records
Diag: "He knows that he is saying true things, so that you also may believe." John is referring not merely to the death of the Lord, but all things recorded Cp Jhn 1:1
15 THE BURIAL Vv 38-42 Mt 27:57-60. MK 15:46. LK 23:50-56
He made his grave with the rich Isa 53:9.
Heb: Ramoth, height. See Note Jhn 11:51 Perhaps Ramathaim-Zophim (The Lofty Place) where dwelt Elkanah & Hannah
He took courage Mk 6:41
The best MSS have eligma = roll
Cp Ps 45:8. Mt 2:11 These the elderly Nicodemus had probably prepared for his own burial. To one gave the grave, the other the spices • They buried with royal honor, the one cursed by the cross, • reared on the stake of shame Cp 2 Chr. 16:14
These were bandages dipped in the oil of myrrh, which would glue hard together like lead • thus embalm the body. The large excess was probably poured on over the body as it lay in the shallow, rock-hewn trough
Asa was laid in a bed filled with spices 2 Chr 16:14
There was also one in Eden before death entered the world and one where Jesus prayed • was betrayed!

It is finished: and he bowed his head, and [b] gave up the ghost. (For his final prayer cp. Luke 23:46)
31 The Jews therefore, [c] because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was [d] an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Gr. to lift up. Cp Mt. 12:11 Mk 6:5
32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.
33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: of a broken heart Ps 69:20
34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out [k] blood and water.
35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and [l] he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.
36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, [m] A bone of him shall not be broken. The soldiers unconsciously fulfilled the prophecy.
37 And again another scripture saith, [n] They shall look on him whom they pierced.
38 ¶ [r] And after this Joseph of Arimathæa, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly [s] for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.
39 And there came also [u] Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and [v] brought a mixture of [x] myrrh and [z] aloes, about an hundred [a] pound weight. (Lit. 33 litra = 1200 ounces)
40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and [d] wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to [f] bury.
41 Now In the place where he was crucified there was a [g]arden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid. [g] Cp Lev. 4:12.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' [e] preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

1 Mary cometh to the sepulchre: 3 as also Peter and John. 11 Jesus appeareth to Mary Magdalene, 19 and to his disciples. 24 The incredulity, and confession of Thomas.

THE [p] first day of the week cometh, Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth [h] the stone taken away from the sepulchre. (MK 16:2-4)
2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, [i] whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.
3 [m] Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.
4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.
5 And he [p] stooping down, and looking in, saw [q] the linen clothes lying; [r] yet went he not in.
6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, [s] and seeth the linen clothes lie,
7 And [t] the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place [x] by itself.
8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. Diag. = "believed [her]"
9 For as yet they [c] knew not the [e] scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.
10 Then the disciples went away again [y] unto their own home.

1 PETER & JOHN AT THE TOMB. Vv 1-10.

1 She left before the others disturbed in mind (See Note) MK 16:1 but evidently by arrangement.
2 This suggests they had different places. She first calls Peter and they convey message to John.
3 Suggests others with her Cp MK 16:1-2.
4 He was not only younger Jhn 21:18 but possibly also from the reflection that he might have strange news to tell Jesus' mother Jhn 19:27.
6 He realized that this meant more than what Mary said Vv 2. His fantastic
6 His natural impetuosity asserting itself.
7 Robbers would not so meticulously have spared for the grave clothes - and he would not release himself. A thief would not have left the grave clothes or would have done so in great disorder.
8 He had deferred in respect to the older man.
9 There came on him a dawning belief in the resurrection. However this was not induced by Scripture evidence, but the testimony of Mary Mt 28:10 as yet imperfectly understood.
10 Diag. = "They returned" They returned to their companions in the place they were occupying. Thus the term came to signify home.

BLOOD & WATER. Vv 34. "Pathologists have established that the effusion would have taken place as a natural consequence of such a wound, • that if, under all circumstances, decisive evidence of the actual death of Christ. 'Medical writers are indeed not agreed whether is meant the small portion of water found in the pericardium, called lymph, or (which is more probable) the sanguineous and aqueous liquid found in the cavities of the pleura after a mortal wound, or that following a stab in the pleura, when the pericardium has been pierced, which is always mortal; consequently a proof that if Christ had not been already dead, this wound would certainly extinguish the last remains of life. He thus died in reality • did not merely suffer a syncope or faint.
Dr Strand (Pulpit) claims that such might follow the piercing if the Lord's death had been caused by rupture of heart following his intense agony. Ps 22:14 Ps 69:20
Jewish tradition says that when Moses struck the Rock twice, the first blow produced blood • the second water 1 Cor 10:4
Figuratively it could represent the water of life following his sacrifice - thus blood • water Jhn 7:38.
But the blood poured out - the atoning efficacy of a sacrificial victim: the life dedicated Lev 17:11.
Prophecy fulfilled 2 Sam 23:7. Zech 12:10. Ps 22:16.
The soldiers would have realized death had occurred by the blood ceasing to flow from his wounds. The medical faculty has shown that after death the blood in the heart changes to cruor - a liquid "watery • bloody." After a short time very little remains, indicating Jesus had just died.

11 ¶ But [a] Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest[3] thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and [b] saw Jesus standing, and [h] knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? [i] whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have [j] borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, [k] Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet [l] ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend [m] unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ [n] Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, [o] when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled [p] for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and [q] stood in the midst, and saith unto them, [r] Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, [s] he shewed unto them his hands and his side. [t] Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: [u] as [v] my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, [w] he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:

23 [x] Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas, one of the twelve, [y] called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see [z] in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, [aa] the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and [bb] thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: [cc] blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have [dd] believed.

30 ¶ [ee] And many other [ff] signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 [gg] But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, [hh] the Son of God; and that believing [ii] ye might have life [jj] through his name.

NATHANAEL - The Gift of God. Jhn 1:45-49. 21:2 - His name only appears in John. He is identified with Bartholomew which is said to be not really a name but a patronymic = Son of Tolmai. It appears only in lists of Apostles (Mt 10:3. Mk 3:18 Luke 6:14 Acts 1:13) He is described as a true Israelite without guile Jhn 1:47. He owned his introduction to Jesus to a friend, but required proof that Jesus was Messiah. He was a student of Word waiting for the Christ, and he had his hope realised in a most unexpected manner, and found Messiah in a place he little realised would reveal him Jhn 1:45-46. He was prepared to submit to evidence however v 47. His faith pleased the Master + secured for him the promise of growing blessing -

MARY AT THE TOMB. Christ appeareth to his disciples. Vv 11-18 (Mk 16:9)

11 She evidently arrived after they had left.

12 She is confused + puzzled at the events since the night before. If he had really risen why did he not appear? Why indeed? Had not the Lord appeared unto her? Mt 28:9.

13 Why indeed? Had not the Lord appeared unto her? Mt 28:9.

14 She was disturbed by some movement behind her which caused her to turn. Having addressed him she turned back to the tomb.

15 Recognising him, receiving fuller confirmation of her experience the night before, she turns again as though to take hold of the Lord.

16 An exclamation of tender reverence, signifying My loved Lord and Teacher (Mk in N.K.)

Rabbouni - "Lay hold of" "cling to" for prolonged possession" (Expositor). Thus: Do not cling to me as though you would possess me thus for ever. He was to leave them to prepare a place for them. Jhn 14:1-3. 16:7.

17 There was work for Mary to do. The use of the word "brethren" gave her a message of comfort + of hope for her sins were forgiven. He was the root cause of their failure to perceive the true mission of Messiah. They thought he would reign in Jerusalem + set up his power there + did not understand the heavenly mission. Jhn 3:3. Mary's message reminded them all with the key to their mistake. But they still failed to understand + believe. They did so even later. Lk 24:6. Cp Mark 16:9-11

JAMES (Jacob) Supplanter Jhn 21:2 159 Mk 6:3

Son of Zebedee and elder brother of Jhn 1 one of the earliest disciples Mt 4:21 coming from a family of some affluence for his father was a fisherman with hired servants Mk 1:19-20. He was called from his labor to work in higher service. He was, with his father, in partnership with Peter and Andrew Luke 5:10. He was given special privileges. Mt 17:1 Mk 5:37. 9:2. 13:3. being present at resurrection of ruler's daughter, Transfiguration, Olivet prophecy, Gethsemane 14:32 (Luke 8:51, 9:28).

From Mt 27:56, Mk 15:40, 16:1 Jhn 19:25. seems Salome his mother and that she was sister to Mary mother Jesus. Thus he would be cousin to Christ.

The family was evidently of some social standing for they were known to Caiaphas Jhn 18:16 and were property owners Jhn 19:27.

James name usually precedes John's from which it is assumed he is the elder.

They were named Sons of Thunder because of their fierce anger against the Samaritan village that rejected Christ Mk 3:17 Luke 9:54-5 they received the indignation of fellow Apostles for their ambitious self-seeking Mk 10:35-41. Yet he drank of this cup for he was first Apostle to die at hands Herod Agrippa I.

The resurrection provided the means to the fulfilment of Jhn 14:27

He had already appointed them Apostles to Israel Mt 10:6 + now is about to do so to all nations Mt 28:18-20.

25 A symbolic act pointing to what would be later granted them. Acts 2:4. Through this means he was to be the Author of Life to a spiritual creation Acts 3:15 + they were to be as in Eden. Thus he figuratively breathed upon them Gen 2:7. Thus they were sent forth to have dominion. Cp v 23.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ appeareth again to his disciples. 6 The great draught of fishes. 15 Christ's charge to Peter. 18 He foretelleth him of his death. 25 The conclusion.

AFTER these things Jesus [a] shewed himself again to the disciples [b] at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas [c] called Didymus, and Nathanael of [d] Cana in Galilee, and [e] the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and [f] that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, [g] Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples [h] knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus saith unto them, [i] Children, have ye any meat? [k] They answered him, No.

6 And [l] he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that disciple [m] whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he [n] girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was [o] naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in [p] a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw [q] a fire of coals there, and [r] fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: [s] and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, [t] Come and [u] dine. [v] And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and [w] taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now [x] the third time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, [y] Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me [z] more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, [a] lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, [b] Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, [c] lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him [d] the third time, Love thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, [e] thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 [f] Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou [g] girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Christ, preparing his apostles to the beholding of his ascension, gathereth them together to mount Olivet, bidding them to expect in Jerusalem the sending down of the Holy Ghost. 9 The ascension. 12 They return, and give themselves to prayer. 26 Matthias is chosen in place of Judas.

THE former treatise have I made, O p Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until the day in which q he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost r had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 s To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of t the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And, u being assembled together with them, commanded them v that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for w the promise of the Father, which, x saith he, ye have heard of me.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time a restore again the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, b It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, c which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive d power, e after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be f witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judæa, and in g Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, h he was taken up; and a i cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two k men stood by them in l white apparel;

11 Which also said, m Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? n this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, o shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem [a] a sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into [c] an upper room, where abode both [d] Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphæus, and Simon Zelotes, and [h] Judas [i] the brother of James.

14 These all [k] continued [l] with one accord in prayer and supplication, with [o] the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with [q] his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty.)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost [t] by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, [l] which was guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For [x] he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.

18 Now [a] this man purchased a field with [c] the reward of iniquity; and [e] falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in [g] their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, [h] The field of blood.)

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, [i] Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and [m] his [z] bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus [n] went in and out among us,

22 [p] Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was [q] taken up from us, must one be ordained to be [b] a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they [r] appointed two, Joseph [s] called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and [u] Matthias.

24 And they [v] prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, [o] which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take part of [m] this ministry and [n] apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go [y] to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

1 The apostles, filled with the Holy Ghost, and speaking divers languages, are admired by some, and derided by others. 14 Peter's sermon. 41 He baptizeth a great number that were converted, the apostles working many miracles, and God daily increasing his church.

AND when [a] the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all [b] with one accord in one place.

2 And suddenly there came [b] a sound from heaven [c] as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of [d] fire, and [d] it sat upon each of them.

4 And [i] they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began [k] to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now [g] when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were [l] confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all [r] amazed

THE ACTS 2. Peter's sermon on the day of Pentecost.

and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak [a] Galilæans?
8 And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born?
9 Parthians, and [c] Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judæa, and [b] Cappadocia, in [c] Pontus, and [d] Asia,
10 [m] Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about [n] Cyrene, and [o] strangers of Rome, Jews and [p] proselytes,
11 [r] Cretes and [s] Arabians, we do hear them speak in our tongues the [t] wonderful works of God.
12 And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?
13 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine.
14 ¶ But Peter, standing up with [b] the eleven, [c] lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:
15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, [d] seeing it is but the third hour of the day.
16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;
17 [e] And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, [h] I will pour out of my Spirit [i] upon all flesh: and your sons and [k] your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:
18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:
19 And I will shew [l] wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:
20 [r] The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:
21 And it shall come to pass, that [b] whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.
22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words; [c] Jesus of Nazareth, a man [f] approved of God among you by [g] miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:
23 Him, being [s] delivered by the [u] determinate counsel and [t] foreknowledge of God, [u] ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:
24 [v] Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.
25 For David speaketh [x] concerning him, [e] I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:
26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:
27 [e] Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.
28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.
29 Men and brethren, [z] let me freely speak unto you of [1] the patriarch David, that [m] he is both dead and buried, and [n] his sepulchre is with us unto this day.
30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that [o] God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, [2] according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;
31 He seeing this before spake

THE WONDERFUL WORKS OF GOD.

This commences the second part of Peter's address. The 1st part, addressed specifically to local inhabitants refuted the mocking claim that the disciples were drunk - this part, addressed to all assembled people, called upon them to heed the message of salvation.

This interpenetrates all present which set Judea or the dispersion.

The emphasis is upon God. Cp John 1:46.

Apodeiknumi, to point out, to exhibit (apo, forth; deiknumi, to show). Diak has: "A man from God celebrated among you." Roth: "A man pointed out of God unto you..." Here was a unique man. Mt 1:21. 1 Tim 2:16.

Dunamis - inherent ability, supernatural power. John 5:17, 19 Cp Rom 8:3 2 Cor 5:19 As he did through Apollos Acts 18:24-28. They could not refute the facts they prepared the way for the acknowledgement of the greatest miracle, wonder, sign of all - the resurrection.

Luke 2:52 Cp Joseph Gen 45:5 Samson Jud 14:4 Rehoboam 1 Ki 12:15. Jahweh's will was worked out though the people followed Man's own choice. Cp Jesus to Abide Sun 19:11. Isa 10:19

Cp Ch 3:14-15 7:52. many participated in ignorance Acts 3:17 RV: "pangs." The "cords" of Ps 18:5 mg.

Because he revealed a character that was Divine, and as the righteousness of God demanded it. Cp Rom 1:25. The illegality of Christ's trial, the amazing events associated with his resurrection were known to many Mk 28:16. There were important points to stress in this address.

Peter interprets this Psalm to show that David had Messiah in view.

Pro-oraō (pro, before, horao - to see). David speaks of Christ who would ever have Jahweh in view.

To help and support Cp V 31.

Obviously by resurrection

By elevation to the father V 33

Lit. "men (i.e. males) who are my kin." men (i.e. males) who are my brethren." RV. Diag Roth: "brethren"

Here is clear, palpable, visible evidence that the Psalm quoted did not apply to David, and so the ellipsis must be supplied: "and so he was not speaking of himself."

To Hades or Sheol - the sepulchre remained to this time Acts 7:16

Ps 89:3, 4, 35. 1 Ki 8:25 2 Ch 6:16

These words are wanting in Diag. RV. Cp Ps 132:11.

RV. "foreseeing this..."

For souls out of loins, see Gen 46:26 Exod 1:5. Cp Mk. 26:38 "My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death."

APPOINTMENT OF MATTHIAS.

The detail given relating to Joseph suggests that he was the more prominent and favored among the Apostles - yet the appointment fell to the other. God thus made His choice, reading the hearts

Whereas the death & resurrection of the subject of Ps 16 is distinctly affirmed.
Quoted with a slight variation from LXX (indicating an independent Greek translation from the Aramaic actually used) in Mk 12:36.
See the frequent use of this important Testimony. Mk 14:62. Acts 7:55. Rom. 8:34. Eph. 1:20. Col. 3:1. Heb 1:13. 8:1, 10:12, 12:2. 1 Pet. 3:22.
If this was the case he must certainly was not equal to God. Cp Acts. 4:12, 5:30,31; 10:
His resurrection confirmed his authority and status. He was thereby 13:33 He was thereby baptism and resurrection. He was anointed as prophet, priest and King. But having crucified (cf. 2:23) this one they were without hope.

3 THE FIRST RESPONSE Vv 37-40.

Diag. "Pierced to the heart" – where the eye cannot penetrate. Heb 4:12
See Note V. 29
Peter did not subscribe to the British Israel theory Cp Mt 10:6. 15:24. Acts 3:12.
Their sorrow V.37 was genuine and found expression in action Cp 2 Cor. 7:9-10. Metanoeo. To change one's mind & purpose from Meta, after, and Noeo, from nous, the mind. Diag. = Reform. "Sorrowed unto repentance" 2 Cor 7:9-10. "Granted repentance" Acts 11:18 Cp Acts 5:31 26:20.
Luke 24:47. Acts 10:43. Rom 3:25. Heb 9:22.
Evidence of which gift they had seen in the Apostles.
This is in explanation of Joel's prophecy – the sons and daughters therein referred to Acts 2:17.
Not only dwellers in Jerusalem. The Truth was to spread through out the world Acts 1:8.
Thus included Jew and Gentile in accordance with the "all flesh" of Joel's prophecy Cp V.21.
Diag. "perverse" RV: "crooked" Phil 2:15 Skolios – Crooked through dryness (Cp 2) Separation necessary lest they perish with it 2 Cor. 6:14-18.

4 THE FIRST RESULTS Vv 41-42.

Diag. RV = "received." Gr. Apodechomai To readily receive that offered without reserve
This does not necessarily mean that they were all baptized on the one day but that Peter's preaching was accompanied for such being added to the ecclesia.

Formula Mt 28:19

THE GIFT OF HOLY SPIRIT LIMITED: According to Joel's prophecy, the promise was limited to the current and following generation. This was in conformity to the manner of its bestowal – the laying on of Apostles hands Acts 6:6. 8:18. 19:6. 1 Tim. 4:14. 2 Tim. 1:6. With the death of the last of the Apostles, the divinely appointed medium would not be available and the gift would cease – as predicted 1 Cor. 13:8-10.
For the various gifts see 1 Cor. 12, 13, 14 Cp. 12:7-11. Speaking in tongues was the least important 1 Cor. 14:5. On Pentecost, however, there was more than that gift manifested, for the Apostles also discovered the gift of prophecy 1 Cor. 14:3. as Peter's discourse revealed.

ALL THINGS IN COMMON. See Note above. The newly baptised converts probably delayed their return home in order to have the benefit of further Apostolic instruction. This imposed a heavy strain on local members, and so, with enthusiasm, they made a common effort of it. But this was not a permanent arrangement is implied by 1 Cor. 16:1.

1 Base based upon the fulfilment of prophecy Vv 14-19
2 Indicative of an approaching crisis V. 20.
3 The need of personal salvation V. 21
4 The death of Jesus was sacrificial V. 23.
5 He was the manifestation of God in Israel V. 22.
6 He rose from the dead revealing the way of life Vv 24, 28.
7 This was in fulfilment of prophecy 25-28
8 Prophecy demands that he who rose from the dead should reign on David's throne Vv 30-32.
9 Prophecy requires that he ascend into heaven until the time of his return Vv 33-35
10 Salvation is only possible through Jesus Christ V 36
He taught by implication • the mortality of man V. 21, 31, 34 • Hope of life through resurrection V. 23, 24, 34 • That Jesus did not pre-exist V 30. • He was subordinate to the Father Vv 32, 33, 34, 35. • He is to return to reign Vv 30, 25, 36.

61 of Israel,

104 was set at nought
105 of you
106 builders,
107 which 108 is become 109 the head
110 of the corner.
111 Neither
112 is there
113 salvation
114 in any other:
115 for
116 there is none other name
117 under heaven
118 given
119 among men,
120 whereby
121 we must be saved.
122 Now
123 when they saw
124 the boldness
125 of Peter
126 and
127 John,
128 and
129 perceived
130 that they were 131 unlearned
132 and
133 ignorant men,
134 they marvelled;
135 and
136 they took knowledge of them,
137 that
138 they had been 139 with
140 Jesus.
141 And
142 beholding
143 the man
144 which was healed
145 standing
146 with them,
147 they could say
148 nothing
149 against it.
150 But
151 when they had commanded them
152 to go aside
153 out of the council,
154 they conferred
155 among themselves,
156 saying,
157 What
158 shall we do
159 to these men?
160 for
161 that indeed
162 a notable miracle
163 hath been done
164 by them
165 is manifest
166 to all them that dwell
167 in Jerusalem;
168 and
169 we cannot deny it.
170 But
171 that it spread no further
172 among the people,
173 let us straitly threaten 174 them,
175 that
176 they speak henceforth 177 to no man
178 in this name.
179 And
180 they called them,
181 and
182 commanded them
183 not
184 to speak
185 at all
186 nor 187 teach
188 in the name
189 of Jesus.
190 But
191 Peter
192 and
193 John
194 answered
195 and
196 said
197 unto them,
198 Whether
199 it be right
200 in the sight
201 of God
202 to hearken
203 unto you
204 more than 205 unto God,
206 judge
207 ye.
208 For 209 we 210 cannot but 211 speak
212 the things
213 which
214 we have seen
215 and
216 heard.
217 So
218 when they had further
219 threatened them,
220 they let them go,
221 finding
222 nothing
223 how they might punish them,
224 because 225 of the people:
226 for
227 all men
228 glorified God
229 for that which was done.
230 For
231 the man
232 was above forty years old,
233 on
234 whom
235 this miracle of healing
236 was shewed.
237 And
238 being let go,
239 they went
240 to their own company,
241 and
242 reported
243 all that
244 the chief priests
245 and 246 elders
247 had said
248 unto them.
249 And
250 when they heard that,
251 they lifted up their voice
252 to God
253 with one accord,
254 and said,
255 Lord,
256 thou
257 art God,
258 which
259 hast made
260 heaven,
261 and
262 earth,
263 and
264 the sea,
265 and
266 all that in them is:
267 who
268 by the mouth
269 of thy servant David
270 hast said,
271 Why
272 did the heathen rage,
273 and
274 the people imagine
275 vain things?
276 The 277 kings
278 of the earth
279 stood up,
280 and
281 the rulers
282 were gathered together
283 against the Lord,
284 and
285 against his Christ.
286 For
287 of a truth
288 against thy holy child Jesus,
289 whom
290 thou hast anointed,
291 both
292 Herod,
293 and
294 Pontius Pilate,
295 with
296 the Gentiles,
297 and
298 the people of Israel,
299 were gathered together,
300 for to do
301 whatsoever
302 thy hand
303 and
304 thy counsel
305 determined before
306 to be done.
307 And
308 now,
309 Lord,
310 behold
311 their threatenings:
312 and
313 grant
314 unto thy servants,
315 that with all boldness
316 they may speak
317 thy word,
318 by stretching forth thine hand
319 to heal;
320 and
321 that signs
322 and 323 wonders
324 may be done
325 by the name
326 of thy holy child Jesus.
327 And
328 when they had prayed,
329 the place was shaken
330 where they were assembled together;
331 and
332 they were all filled
333 with the Holy Ghost,
334 and
335 they spake
336 the word
337 of God
338 with boldness.
339 And
340 the multitude of them that believed
341 were of one heart
342 and
343 of one soul:
344 neither
345 said any of them
346 that
347 aught of the things
348 which
349 he possessed
350 was his own;
351 but
352 they had all things common.
353 And
354 with great power
355 gave the apostles witness
356 of the resurrection
357 of the Lord Jesus:
358 and
359 great grace
360 was upon them all.
361 Neither
362 was there any among them
363 that lacked:
364 for
365 as many as were possessors
366 of lands
367 or houses
368 sold them,
369 and
370 brought the prices
371 of the things that were sold,
372 and
373 laid them down
374 at the apostles' feet:
375 and
376 distribution was made
377 unto every man
378 according as he had need.
379 And
380 Joses,
381 who
382 by the apostles
383 was surnamed Barnabas,
384 (which is
385 being interpreted,
386 The son
387 of consolation,)
388 a Levite,
389 and
390 of the country
391 of Cyprus,
392 having
393 land,
394 sold it,
395 and
396 brought the money,
397 and
398 laid it
399 at the apostles' feet.

unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was [a] about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their [d] rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And [f] Annas the high priest, and [g] Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, [k] By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 Then Peter, [l] filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we this day be [n] examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is [p] made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that [r] by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom [s] God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This is [t] the stone which was [u] set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 [c] Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and [e] John, and [e] perceived that they were unlearned and [f] ignorant men, they marvelled; and [k] they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed [m] standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of [n] the council, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, [b] What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is [e] manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us [h] straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they [i] called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them, [m] Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 For [o] we cannot but speak the things which [q] we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, [t] because of the people: for all men [u] glorified God for [z] that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, they went to [b] their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God [d] with one accord, and said, [f] Lord, [g] thou art God, [h] which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

The use of it in this prayer is significant. It testified that Yahweh is in absolute control and all are subject under him. In the deliverance of Peter and John there was an example of this regal sovereignty. Cp Ps. 95:3. 98:6. 47:2.
Thus expressive of His unlimited power over all creation.

BOLDNESS IN PREACHING V.8 NIC
- With the blessing of the Father this brought success to the preaching of the Apostles. - It attracted attention Ch. 4:13. - They prayed for it V.29. - Manifested by Paul 9:27, Apollos 18:26 - Advocated Eph 3:12, Phil. 1:20, 1 Tim 3:13.

THE FIRST DISCIPLINE - Was exercised by the manifestation of the first hypocrisy. Under cover of a righteous act Ananias and Sapphira practised a lie - and that against the Holy Spirit. To have permitted this to go unpunished would have been tragic for the Ecclesia for it would be for sin to triumph. A terrible, but salutary warning was given demonstrating that God is not mocked. It impressed the rapidly increasing Ecclesia that the things of God cannot be treated lightly.

2 And [k] kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and [m] laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, Ananias, why hath [o] Satan [p] filled thine heart [q] to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words [z] fell down, and gave up the ghost: [b] and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

CHAPTER 5

12 THE FIRST DISCIPLINE vv 1-11.

See Note above.

1 The first discordant note in the newly formed Ecclesia. This must have come like a sudden, unexpected blow in the face. Until now all had gone along joyously, moving from one triumph to another. The external challenge was met Ch. 4:14, but this internal one threatened the foundations of unity, love and mutual trust upon which the Ecclesia was built.

2 A Sapphire. Hebrew = to inscribe, imbed. As a contrast to this couple, compare Priscilla and Aquilla who gave their all Rom. 16:4.

3 By the power of the Spirit he read his heart as Elisha did that of Gehazi 2 Kgs 5:25. One received death, the other leprosy - a living death.

4 The satan was Ananias' own covetous, deceitful inclinations: "thou hast conceived this thing" v.4 "ye have agreed together" v.9 Cp James 1:14-15.

5 Ananias may not have realised it, but his action was a lie to God not man. To ignore it would have been to undermine God's power and authority.

6 To do what he would with it. There was no compulsion as regards disposing of it. The act was one of deliberate hypocrisy.

7 Neiphzo - set apart, remove, purloin (Tit. 2:10). Having been given to God, Ananias not only deceived, but robbed God.

8 Expsucho, to expire (Vine. Dict.) Lit. To breathe out the soul, or life. For soul (psuche) rendered life. See Mt. 10:39.

9 They recognised the powers and deity of the One they worshipped, & the undivided loyalty they had to render to Him.

10 "Wrapped him round" R.V.

11 Probably by the authority of Peter, for otherwise Sapphira would have been fast informed of the tragedy.

12 This gave her the opportunity of confessing & seeking forgiveness.

13 Petrazo = To try, test, prove. They had evidently deliberately set out to test God. It was virtually a case of blasphemy against the Holy Spirit Mt. 12:31.

30 This was a primary application of the Psalm, to be completely fulfilled in the future.
31 Pl. Diag. "holy servant." Gr pais. See Note Ch 3:13. An allusion to Isaiah's servant prophecies Cp Isa 41:8, 44:1, 49:3.
32 Kurie (Kurios). Not as v.24.
33 These powers & influences of the enemy is too great for the disciples to resist, so they in their weakness they threw themselves on the strength of Yahweh. Cp Hezekiah with Sennacherib's letter 2 Kg 19:14. 2 Cor. 12:9.
34 Doubtless.
35 They pray for strength to continue the testimony already begun v.12.
36 Through the Apostles, as the Lord Acts 2:22. Hebrews 2:4.
37 Pais (Paheece), perhaps from paio - to hit. Thus beaten, or slave (Str.) Cp Vine Ch 3:13. Cp v.27 & 4:30.
38 The greatest effectiveness and unity prevailed. They thought & acted as one.
39 Not the immortality of the soul.
40 See Note Jas 4:6. James wrote out of a personal experience of the Divine favor on the early Ecclesia.
41 As the Jews would have boycotted any who embraced the Truth, this was a possibility, but it was met by the community of goods, and by support of the Gentile believers Gal 2:10. Rom. 15:24. 1 Cor. 16:1. 2 Cor. 8:1-5, 14-15. Cp Heb 13:16. Acts 2:44.
42 Diag. "were constantly selling & bringing the value." The Greek indicates the process as continuing.
43 He that pardons. The RV has Joseph, Thereas for Barnabas.
44 RV: Exhortation. He evidently excelled in this Acts 11:23. Barnabas = son of prophecy. He was called a prophet Acts 13:1. 1 Co 1 Cor 14:3.
45 As a Levite, the Law gave him the right to receive tithes, but as a follower of Christ, he gave up material possessions & left to preach the Word.

BARNABAS - He was noted for his exuberant generosity which became an object lesson to all Acts 4:36-37. - He was trusting, thoughtful and kind as shown by his attitude towards Paul Acts 9:27. - He was high in reputation as a "good man" noted for the power of his exhortation Acts 11:22-24. - He had an impressive personality. The Lycaonians named him Jupiter Acts 14:12. so that he evidently had a commanding, dignified, and venerable appearance. - His inspiring ministry. He urged Paul on to the work Acts 11:25-26 was thoroughly reliable Acts 11:29-30. was adapted to missionary work Acts 13:2. Often took the lead Acts 12:25. 13:2, 7 14:14. 15:12. - He was a devoted toiler & self-supporting 1 Cor. 9:6. - Related to Mark. Col. 4:10. - He was susceptible to influences. He had sharp contention with Paul over Mark his relative Acts 15:36-39. - perhaps one was too stern and the other too easy. He was swayed by the dissimulation of the Judaisers Gal. 2:13. These incidents suggest a lack of firmness in the otherwise strong character of Barnabas.

- History - A native of Cyprus and a Levite by extraction Acts 4:36. who was early converted to the Truth and gave an outstanding example of generous self-sacrifice. - He was in the forefront of disciples and attested the sincerity of Paul Acts 9:27. Was sent by Jerusalem Ecclesia to report on the result of preaching at Antioch, and being impressed, he sent to Tarsus for Paul a "labored among them for a year Acts 11:19-26. - Hearing of poverty in Jerusalem the brethren of Antioch sent relief by the hands of Barnabas & Paul Acts 11:27-30. cp 12:25. [Whilst in Antioch there was contention Gal. 2:11.]

- They returned bringing John Mark, Barnabas' nephew with them. Acts 12:25. - 1st Missionary Journey. By Divine direction they were appointed missionaries Acts 13:2. Visited Cyprus & Asia Minor Acts 13:14. At Lystra, they were taken for gods & Barnabas was named Jupiter Acts 14:8-12. Returning to Antioch, they found the Ecclesia disturbed by Judaisers & were sent with Judas & Silas to confer with the Apostles Acts 15. returning to Antioch 15:22-35.
- 2nd Journey mooted - it was abandoned through contention & Barnabas & Mark went to Cyprus Acts 15:36-41. - Here his history ends as far as Acts is concerned.

young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And [b] by the hands of the apostles were many [c] signs and wonders [d] wrought among the people; (and they were all [e] with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And of the rest [g] durst no man join himself to them: but [h] the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more [i] added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick [2] into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least [k] the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing [m] sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then [p] the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the [q] Sadducees,) and were filled with [3] indignation,

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But [r] the angel of the Lord by night [s] opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak [b] in the temple to the people all [t] the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But [u] the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called [v] the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the [x] captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: [y] for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, "Did not we [z] straitly command you that ye should not teach [illegible]? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and [a] intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, [b] We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 [c] The God of our fathers [d] raised up Jesus, [e] whom ye slew [illegible] and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be [f] a Prince and [g] a Saviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and [h] forgiveness of sins.

32 And [k] we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, [m] whom God hath given to them that obey him.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, [c] a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as [d] obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of [e] the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as [d] obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even [f] to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had [g] called the apostles, and [a] beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, [h] rejoicing that they were [i] counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily [d] in the temple, and [d] in every house, [j] they ceased not to teach and [k] preach Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The apostles, in their care for the poor, 3 appoint the office of deaconship to seven chosen men. 5 Of whom Stephen, a man full of faith, and of the Holy Ghost, 12 is taken, and falsely accused of blasphemy.

AND in those days, [a] when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring [2] of the [3] Grecians against the Hebrews, [4] because their widows were neglected [b] in the daily [5] ministration.[6]

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve [7] tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, look [c] ye out among you seven men of (honest) report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. (RV "good")

4 But we will [d] give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, [e] a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and [f] Philip, [g] and [h] Prochorus, and Nicanor, [i] and Timon, [j] and Parmenas, and [k] Nicolas a [l] proselyte of [m] Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had [n] prayed, they [o] laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and [p] a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith. (RV. Disc. Grace)

8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 ¶ Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of [q] Asia, disputing with Stephen.

"FULL OF FAITH AND OF THE HOLY SPIRIT" V.5 In V.5 this is described as "full of faith (or best mid-charis, grace) and power." The Holy Spirit gave power to his preaching but the H.S. could relate to the strength of his belief John 6:62, as well as its power to perform miracles.

CHAPTER 6.

15 THE FIRST ORGANISATION Vv 1-7.

Dissatisfaction is overcome by proper organisation.

1 With multiplication there came increased problems. The original simplicity had to be supplemented by a more complex organisation

2 Gongusmos, a murmuring, muttering, secret debate. An onomatopoeic word, representing the significance by the sound of the word, as in murmur (Vine)

3 RV Grecian Jews. Diag. Hellenists. Those Jews who spoke or otherwise followed Greek usages mainly foreign Jews, living in Grecian parts

4 Those who clung tenaciously to Aramaic 2 Cor. 11:22. Phil 3:5 Acts 21:40.

5 This implies an order of widows maintained at the common cost of the Ecclesia, and engaged in certain official duties. Acts 9:41. 1 Tim. 5:3,9,10,11,16.

6 In the distribution of the common fund, it seemed that the Hellenistic widows were being neglected Ch. 4:34

7 RV "fit."

8 Their great duty was to preach and expound the Word.

9 The word "ministration" V1. "serve," and "deacon" are all derived from a common word - Diakonia, Diakonein, Diakonos.

10 The choice was not governed by popularity, but a careful assessment of each one was to be made

11 RV. Spirit. Diag. "full of Spirit."

12 They were brought before the Apostles who instructed them in their duties. Diag "set over" instead of appoint

13 Their prayers took in all the manifold needs of the Body which first had to be sought out, their prayers were powerful and occupied time Cp Acts 1:24

14 They appreciated the value of the Apostles being freed for this most important duty and privilege.

15 From Stephanos a crown. As he had a Greek name it could have been that he was a hellenistic Jew. All the seven have Greek names.

16 Sig Warrior. See Ch 8.

17 Leader of singers.

Conqueror.

Honorable

Faithful

Conqueror of the people Cp Rev 6:2.

It is publicly endorsing their office. Num 27:23. Deut 34:9.

Note the development Ch 2:42 Ch 12:12. 5:14.

16 THE FIRST MARTYR V 8 - Ch 7:60

FALSE ACCUSATION Vv 8-11

24 He had the disposition and the ability to work and exercised them to the full.

25 There was evidently a synagogue in Jerusalem frequented by Jews from these parts

26 Latin for "freedman." They seemed to have been Jews who were taken as slaves to Rome & then freed - or the descendants of such. Others identify them with Libertum, a city of region in Africa.

STEPHEN (Crown or Wreath Cp Rev 2:10) 169

Stephen became the most prominent of the seven selected disciples. Although called to dispense relief to the needy, he did not limit his work to that, but became a powerful preacher Ch. 6:10 Called before the Sanhedrin as a result, they could not resist the power of his words, and with growing irritation at the opposition they were receiving from Christ's followers, they illegally and brutally stoned him to death. Stephen was a man:

Full of faith - There was no place for doubt or fear in his heart Acts 6:5

Full of grace - His disposition was kindly and considerate towards others Acts 6:8 RV.

Full of power - He had a God-given ability to do things! Acts 6:8.

Full of the Word - His adversaries could not match his exposition of it Acts 6:10

Full of wisdom - He could give practical manifestation of the things he believed Ch 6:3

Full of courage - the opposition (fierce) of man did not deter Stephen Ch 7:51-53

Full of love - He was able to forgive his very murderers. Ch 7:60

Stephen's death helped to bring to spiritual life one of the greatest of his opponents - the young man Saul. Ch 7:58. 22:20

27 These were associated with the same synagogue - which would suggest that the Libertines were those of Africa, adjacent to Cyrenia in Africa and Alexandria. These were possibly rabid Hellenists.

28 Tarsus was the capital [illegible] most likely Paul was among the disputants. Ch 7:58.

STEPHEN'S TRIAL The similarity of his trial to that of Christ's is remarkable, and must have impressed the believers of that day. There is the same set purpose to silence a true-speaking tongue by death; the same base employment of false witnesses; the same wresting of good words into criminal ods; and the same meekness and patience unto death closing with a petition on the behalf of the persecutors Ch. 7:60. Stephen died happy Mt 5:10-12. 1 Pet. 4:14-16.

STEPHEN'S DEFENCE He was indicted because he taught that the present order was but temporary. He was accused of blasphemy because he alleged that true worship was possible apart from the Temple & the law. He answered by showing: a. Divine revelation shows that Yahweh was never exclusively interested in the land nation, law and Temple Vv2-50. b. that in rejecting and crucifying Christ they had repeated the error of their fathers, & thus were guilty of blasphemy in rejecting Yahweh & His Son.

29 RV: "Withstand." This wisdom and power came from the Holy Spirit which guided him Luke 21:15.

30 Hupo ballo – To throw or put under. To suggest, whisper, prompt (Vine). In legal sense, to procure a person who will take a false oath. The Greek word suggests under-hand work

31 Nothing more calculated to rouse the anger = passions of the mob than this.

ARRESTED AND CHARGED

32 They spread their evil report, arousing the feelings of the people exciting them to arrest Stephen.

33 Sunarpazo – To snatch violently, to carry with force. RV: seized.

There was no doubt a semblance of truth in the charge. If Stephen had spoken as Christ did at Jn. 4:21. Mk 13:2 or the Apostles did in Col. 2 16-17. Heb 8:13. Gal. 3:19 his words could easily be misrepresented by unscrupulous false witness.

This is so said in contempt. Cp Mt. 26:57-59. Luke 20:1-19. Mt. 24:15-21. Luke 21:24

RV "fastening their eyes." The charge having been made they all turned to him, expecting him to reply. But they were transfixed at what they saw – for his face shone as with a Divine radiance. This should have prepared them to hearken diligently to him and carefully analyse his words – but they were too blinded by prejudice to do so.

CHAPTER 7

THE DEFENCE Vv 2-53.

The Call Came To Abraham in Mesopotamia 2-3

RV: "Brethren & fathers." Lit. men, brethren. i.e. men who are brethren. Thus Stephen identified himself with Israel. The "fathers" a term of respect for the elders.

Cp 1 Pt 1:11 The glory one time shone in the Most Holy but not in Herod's Temple as Stephen's accusers knew!! See note below

This double call confirmed. Gen. 15:7. Neh. 9:7.

The call came to Abram whilst he was in Ur showing that Yahweh was not exclusively interested in Haran in the Land. See notes on "Defence" above.

Abraham Never Obtained Permanent Inheritance Therein 4-5

From this it is obvious that the present order was temporary. Cp Gen. 11:26, 32; 12:4 Though Abram mentioned first, he was not the oldest. It is normal in Scripture to mention the Israel first born first, though in years they may have been younger. e.g. Josh 24:2. Heb 11:20. Exod. 6:23. Gen. 38:5. Gen. 9:26 (cf. Gen. 10:21)

So why should the Jews imagine that their current order was permanent? Cp Ch. 6:10. Cp Heb. 11:8-9

13 And set up [g] false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this [h] holy place, and the law:

14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall [m] destroy this place, and shall change the [30] customs which Moses delivered us.

CHAPTER 7.

Stephen answereth to the accusation of blasphemy: 2 sheweth that Abraham worshipped God rightly: 51 reprehendeth their rebellion, and murdering of Christ, the Just One, 54 whereupon they stone him to death.

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, [x] Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, [z] before he dwelt in Charran,

3 And said unto him, [b] Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee. (a)

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chaldæans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, [c] he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell. (Metoikizo – technical word for planting a colony – not to stay abide)

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that [b] he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, That [@] his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil [e] four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and [f] serve me in this place.

8 And [k] he gave him the covenant of circumcision; and [l] so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and [@] Isaac begat Jacob; and [p] Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs, [q] moved with envy, [r] sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and [s] gave him favour, and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 [v] But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And [w] [a] at the second time Joseph [c] was made known to his brethren; and [d] Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh.

14 [e] Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to him, and [f] all his kindred, (@) threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jacob [h] went down into Egypt, and [k] died, he, and [l] our fathers,

16 And [m] were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that [n] Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons

THE DEFENCE SUMMARISED

1. In rebuttal of the claim that the Jews as a nation, & the Land as the sole scenes of God's labors Acts 6:13. (as Locality were)
   a. Abram was called when in Mesopotamia V.2
   b. Even in the land he received no inheritance V.5
   c. Abram's seed served God in Egypt Vv6-7.
   d. The Patriarchs rejected Joseph who served God & was honored by Gentiles in Egypt for "God was with him" Here
2. In either Word or Practise he had taught or acted inconsistently with the teaching or actions of Moses Ch. 6:11.

a. In birth V.20, upbringing V.21 education V.22 marriage & begettal of his sons V.29 as well as his

e. Jacob and his whole family had to leave the Land to be Divinely succored in Egypt Vv 11-16
f. God did not desert them in Egypt V.34.
g. The Law was given & form of worship established during 40 yrs wilderness wandering V.36

It could not be rightly claimed that he had spoken blasphemous words against God or the Temple (i.e the holy place) for all that he said was confirmed by history and revelation

a. Jacob and his whole family had to leave the Land to be Divinely succored in Egypt Vv 11-16
b. God did not desert them in Egypt V.34.
g. The Law was given & form of worship established during 40 yrs wilderness wandering V.36

8 These words are derived from Exod 3:12. & relate to Sinai, not Zion. The bond promised to Abram the Uncircumcised

9 All that He had promised before, had been to Abram the uncircumcised, i.e. – the Gentiles Cp. Rom 4:10-17.

Gentiles Honor Whom the Patriarchs Despised

10 History was repeating itself Cp V.52. They treated Joseph the type of Christ as they did the anti-Christ. Most of the God-given leaders and their greatest benefactors had been thus treated, illustrating Gen. 41:15

11 Gentiles accepted and honored whom the Patriarchs persecuted. So it would be now with the Gospel.

The Patriarchs Themselves sought Food in Egypt Vv 11-16

12 Necessity drove them from the Covenant-Land – so there was a precedence for change

13 The type of Christ

14 NV: "appeared."

15 Deg. "Urged them to depart." This also was the message of Christ.

16 Here was precedence for change.

17 This was the same treatment as Christ received.

18 Evidently all the patriarchs were carried over into Shechem and there buried.

19 There is no record of this transaction, that Abraham could have purchased the field when in Shechem Gen 12:6 The Diaglott has a footnote "The best critics are of the opinion that 'Abraham' as found in the text is spurious and has been inserted by some officious transcriber. In the text it supplies the name Jacob.

Stephen reveals such a thorough knowledge of history that it is inconceivable that he should make a great mistake in such a well-known and famous transaction.

Deg. "having outwitted our race..." to the end. RV that they should cast out.. "Evidently the first objective of Pharaoh was to ill treat them that in desperation the Israelites would cast out their children

20 "A goodly child" Exod 2:2. Heb 11:23. Josephus records Pharaoh's daughter as captivated by his beauty, Deg. "Divinely beautiful."

21 Cast out by Israel, accepted by Gentiles like Christ.

22 Deg. Educated. RV "Instructed." Philo says he was skilled in music, geometry, arithmetic, philosophy, & the whole circle of arts and sciences.

23 Period of probation Deut 25:3. He was 40 years in Egypt, 40 years in the wilderness Acts 7:30, 40 years leading the people Cp Deut. 34:7.

27 This was the same treatment as Christ received.

28 Opposition from Israelites drove Moses Away Vv 29-

THE DEFENCE – Commences on a note of conciliation V.2. but concludes with a forthright indictment Vv 51-52. This was doubtless induced by the growing impatience manifested in the members of the Council as the background to their opposition was expounded by an appeal to their typical history V.37. 1 Cor. 10:11. The sudden change of V.51 was probably induced by the manifestation of growing impatience, perhaps noisy interjection on the part of his audience. Stephen's defence was really an attack, for by an appeal to history and the Pentateuch, he was able to prove (1) The temporal nature of the Temple, law, God's interest in the Jewish nation exclusively, and the Land as the scene of His manifestation is taught therein (2) their action in crucifying Christ and rejecting the teaching of the Ecclesia was typical of the nation's history in repudiating the prophets Vv 51-53.

23 And when he was full forty years old, @ it came into his heart @ to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian: ⊙—⊙ Diag.

25 [s] For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 @ And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, [k] Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 @ Then fled Moses at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, [b] where he begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, [e] there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

THE DEFENCE SUMMARISED (Cont.) 171

1. God called by Yahweh to deliver Israel V.30a. Moses had close associations with heathen lands and people & little with his own. He never entered the Land.
   a. Moses was misunderstood by his brethren V.25 forced to flee V.29 and even after delivering the nation was he rejected V.39.
   c. Moses taught that he typed the Messiah whom it was imperative to heed V.37.
2. He rebutted that the rites of the Law were always necessary for righteous living Acts 6:13,14
   a. It came late in the history of acceptable worship, after Circumcision V.8 & the deliverance from bondage V.38.
   b. It was given to a nation absorbed in idolatrous practices V.41 that had rejected Moses V.40
3. He rebutted the principle that the Temple was essential to worship Acts 6:14.
   a. God communicated with Abram at Ur V.2.
   b. Moses stood on holy ground at Sinai V.33.
   c. The nation worshipped at a movable Tabernacle in the wilderness and Land 44-45
   d. David was not permitted to build a Temple V.46.
   e. Yahweh proclaimed He dwelt not in Temples made with hands V.48.
4. The Rites of the Law of God had not been changed before so why not again.
5. The Tabernacle had been replaced by the Temple and the limitations of the latter clearly stated.
6. He accused his accusers in a manner they could not refute
   a. Moses indicted the nation as stiff necked and unregenerate V.51
   b. Their history was a record of persecution of righteous men V.52
   c. they could not justly claim anything against Jesus, who for all their illegal prosecution remained the Just One V.52.
   d. they were guilty of false witness and murder V.52
   e. they were indicted by the very law to which they appealed V.53.

Stephen's defence and accusation was confirmed by the Revelation V.55. which was visual proof of his claim that they had murdered the Just One.

STEPHEN'S SPEECH cp VII.ff. - The design of Stephen was to show that the Jews placed too much dependence on outward symbols. They had not used the Tabernacle, the Law, the Temple aright in the true manner. Their personal instruction. Yahweh did not limit His worship to one place or form. The Patriarchs worshipped Him without Tabernacle or Temple in the land and in Egypt. He was worshipped in a movable Tabernacle in the wilderness and in the land.

David, the man after His heart, was not permitted to build the Temple, and when Solomon did he was told that it was but the shadow of the reality and not the true place of rest.

them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,
40 Saying unto Aaron, [a] Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him.
41 And [c] they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.
42 Then God [d] turned, and [e] gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, [f] O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?
43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of [g] Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.
44 Our fathers had [h] the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he [i] had appointed, [j] speaking unto Moses, [k] that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.
45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in [l] with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David;
46 Who [m] found favour before God, and [n] desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.
47 But Solomon built him an house.
48 [o] Howbeit [p] the most High [q] dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet.
49 [r] Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?
50 Hath not my hand made all these things?
51 ¶ Ye [s] stiffnecked and [t] uncircumcised in heart and ears, [u] ye do always [v] resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.
52 [w] Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they [x] have slain them which shewed before of the coming of [y] the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:
53 Who have received the law [z] by the [2] disposition of angels, and have not [a] kept it.
54 ¶ [b] When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they [c] gnashed on him with their teeth.
55 But he, [d] being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God,
56 And said, Behold, I see [e] the heavens opened, and [f] the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.
57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and [g] ran upon him with one accord,
58 And cast him [h] out of the city, and [i] stoned him: and [j] the witnesses [k] laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.
59 And they stoned Stephen, [l] calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, [m] receive my spirit.
60 And he [n] kneeled down, and cried [o] with a loud voice, [p] Lord, [q] lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, [r] he fell asleep.

37 Their rejection of Moses led them to desire Egypt in their hearts. This in turn brought them to idolatry, and worshipping the work of their own hands. So Yahweh rejected them and national disaster resulted. As Moses was a type of the Messiah who should come their rejection of Christ must lead to a similar result.
38 The twelve Minor Prophets were considered as one book.
39 The answer is No, they did not! Israel disobeyed Yahweh throughout their history, as they did in Stephen's time.
40 KY: Rephan — the Coptic name of the god Saturn. The Hebrew text has כִּיּוּן Chiun, which might possibly be a corruption of כַּוָּכָב, as it would be very easy to mistake the ך for ר resh, and the vau shured for ף pe" (A.C). There is no authority for this correction in either MSS or Versions however. Probably Saturn was more known by its Greek term than its Coptic term in the days of Stephen.
41 Amos has "Damascus." Stephen's statement is historically correct, and he is evidently applying Amos to an interpretive way. See Notes there.

52 Stephen's address abruptly changes here and this could have been due to growing impatience on the part of his hearers who perhaps were making this obvious.
53 This was the very language of rebuke that Moses himself used Exod. 32:33, making Stephen's rebuke even more cutting. See the two reproaches together Deut. 10:16.

3 PREACHING IN JUDEA & SAMARIA Vv1-25
1 THE SCATTERED WITNESSES Vv1-4

1 Suneudokein — To consent or fully approve. In his savage hatred Ch. 9:1 Saul completely identified himself with the action taken.

59 Emphasising the principle of free will. Phil. 2:12-14.
56 Did Stephen personally hear the similar words spoken by the Lord? Mt. 5:12. 23:34-37. Luke 11:49-51. Was he one of the 70?
57 Di Kairos — Rightly. A reference to the fact that they could not justify their accusations against Christ.
58 And thus indictable by the very law they had urged against Stephen.
59 Moses never saw Yahweh personally. Num. 12:8. Exod. 20:1. Baal Heb 2:2. Acts 7:38.

MARTYRDOM Sk 6:8

Now their rage knew no bounds. Unable to resist the truth of his words, they gave vent to anger, screaming invectives on him, and then gnashed their teeth in fury.
60 Cp Note Acts 5:21. In a paroxysm of uncontrolled anger. In his quiet faith, he was lifted out of the environment of the angry chamber of unjust judgment and strengthened & calmed by the presence of God's Son. He saw a revelation of the Shekinah glory. Cf. Heb 1 and 12. Cp Mt. 22. Mk. 12:19-20. Jas 5:4. He was seen standing to extend help to Stephen. In vision he was taken into the unveiled presence.
61 The judge. Jhn 5:22. At the place of authority. Ps. 110:1. Dan. 7:13 where he has the care of the saints.
62 They manhandled him out of the Sanhedrin chamber, rushed him through the streets of the city, and out beyond its bounds to keep the Law. Num. 15:35. Luke 4:29.
Scrupulously observing the Law Deut. 17:7. Neanias. See also Acts 20:9. 23:17, 18, 22. The term could apply probably to the age of 30. So Paul is dramatically introduced.
71 Diag. "Invoking." He did so in the name of the Lord Jesus.
72 Diag = "Dexai mou" also be rendered "sustain" or support. Booth, in his Lexicon of Primitive Words, gives this as one of the significations of the word. The prayer of Stephen then would read, "Lord Jesus sustain my spirit, or assist me to die."
The AV: a prayer to accept his sacrifice as an offering on the Christ altar.
No support for Trinitarianism can be derived from this incident, for the separate identity of the Father & Son & His subordinate position is clearly affirmed in 56.
73 Diag. "Bending his knee." Probably, as he was collapsing to the

He doubtless would have thrown stones but that was the duty of the witnesses.
The successful action taken against Stephen launched a full-scale persecution designed to crush completely the new-born Ecclesia. Saul became the spearhead of the attack.
But as the seed is blown abroad to fructify in different places.
Courageously they remained in Jerusalem to hold together the persecuted Ecclesia, that the witness might be maintained.
Thus the objective of the persecutors was completely frustrated.

This area had been prepared by the preaching of Christ Jhn. 4:1-9-42
PHILIP'S PREACHING
Samaria is always used in NT for the District not the city which was then called Sebaste. Gr. = "a city." See Jhn 4:5.
RV: "The multitudes." Received the same reception as did the Lord. Partly because of the healing, partly because of the preaching — the one supplementing and illustrating the other.
Vat. MSS - Diog = "a city." Other MSS = "the city." Cp Jhn 4:29-42.
SIMON CONVERTED Vv9-13

He landed on the credulity of people by dealing in the exercise of magical powers manifested in incantations, spells and charms.
RV = "amazed."
He was known throughout the whole district. Justin Martyr states that he was of Gitton, or Gittah, a village of Samaria. The Samaritans seem to have been easily led first accepting Jesus, then Simon, then Philip.
RV: "That power of God which is called great." This seems to have been a title that he assumed.

He constantly attended on Philip viewing with amazement a display of genuine power.
RV: "he was amazed" He never experienced the feeling he had inflicted on his dupes before — and he knew that these miracles were genuine.

throughout the regions of Judæa and [b] Samaria, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and [c] made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, [d] he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore [h] they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 Then [i] Philip went down to the [g] city of Samaria, [f] and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For [m] unclean spirits, [n] crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was [q] great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which beforetime in the same city [u] used sorcery, and [v] bewitched the people of Samaria, [w] giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, [a] from the least to the greatest, saying, [b] This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they [d] had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they [p] believed Philip preaching [r] the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he [s] continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the [t] miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when [e] the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent unto them Peter and John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, [x] that they might receive the Holy Ghost: 16 17 18

16 (For [y] as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only [z] they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)

17 Then [1] laid they their hands on them, and [2] they received the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money,

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Peter said unto him, [3] Thy money perish with thee, because [4] thou hast thought that [5] the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither [6] part nor lot in this [7] matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, [8] if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in [9] the gall of bitterness, and in [10] the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, [11] Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had [12] testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and [13] preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 And [14] the angel of the Lord spake unto [15] Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south

GRADUAL EXTENSION OF TRUTH

The Apostles were brought by gradual steps to comprehend the truth enunciated by Peter Acts 10:34,35. [a] First to Samaritans as a mixed racial entity between Jew & Gentile; [b] second, to a Gentile proselyte; [c] third to a sympathetic Gentile (Acts 10) [d] Finally to the hostile world Acts 13.

PHILIP THE WARRIOR (sig. A lover of Horses, or Warrior) His general character Acts 6:3. Philip was not content to serve tables, but was also driven by the urge to boldly preach the Word. The death of Stephen and the persecution of the Ecclesia did not deter him. He courageously obeyed the Spirit as it guided him. His preaching in Samaria was attended with great success Acts 8:5-13. He was the means of introducing Christ to a heathen country Acts 8:26-39 on the road from Jerusalem to Gaza. He preached at Ashdod (Azotus), and continued to preach from city to city until he reached Caesarea v.40. He was in that city years later when Paul visited it. He had 4 daughters with the gift of prophecy 21:8-9.

PETER AND JOHN SENT TO SUPERVISE THE WORK IN SAMARIA vv.14-17

16 Thus the Holy Spirit was not necessary for conversion or belief, but for the manifestation of Divine Power.

17 ane – "he, she or it was." Bull. See also 8:1. The word is part of the verb, and is not emphatic (i.e. the personal pronoun) nor independent

18 Epipipto – to fall upon in the sense of taking hold or embracing. Used of fear Luke 1:12 Acts 19:17. reproaches Rom. 15:3. Also used literally

19 Though Philip had preached the preaching he could not confer the Spirit. Cp. Acts 6:6. 19:6. 1 Tim. 4:14. 2 Tim. 1:6. Cp. Note Acts 9:17. Thus showing that this form of Spirit-power is not essential to the development of a Christ-like character or the understanding of Truth.

SIMON REBUKED vv.18-24

20 He believed v.12, but sought to obtain by money, the prominence in the Ecclesia that he had enjoyed as a sorcerer. Thus though he believed, he was not thoroughly converted.

21 This implies the complete condemnation of Simon.

22 This describes what men now call Simony.

23 The expression based on O.T. usage indicated that Simon's attitude separated him completely from the brethren. Cf. Logos. "Word." – The Word of salvation. Cp. 5:20. 10:36. 13:26.

24 Metangeon. See note Acts 2:38. Cp. Deut. 29:18. Heb. 12:15. The expression denotes defection from the Truth & the defiling & corrupting of others. For "bond of iniquity" see Isa. 58:6.

The attitude of humility suggests that Simon saw the error of his way. The will of Yahweh having been revealed, the Apostles proceeded to preach accordingly.

THE ETHIOPIAN CONVERTED

THE PREACHER SENT vv.26-29

The instructions given are simple, clear, explicit. This is Divine guidance and is given in the Word. See examples of similar cases Acts 9:11. 10:5.

We need to seek Divine guidance. The Doctrines of Truth are clearly recorded, if men would but hearken! They will teach what one should do if one will but respond as did Philip, as did the Ethiopian.

SAMARIA HEARS THE WORD vv.5-25

See Instructions Ch.1:8. The area had been prepared by the preaching of Christ John 4:39-42. PHILIP'S PREACHING

SIMON CONVERTED vv.9-13

He headed on the credulity of people by boasting in the exercise of magical powers manifested in incantations, spells and charms.

RV. "amazed"

He was known throughout the whole district. Justin Martyr states that he was of Gitton, or Gitta, a village of Samaria. The Samaritans seem to have been easily led first accepting Jesus, then Simon, then Philip.

RV. "that power of God which is called Great." This seems to have been a title that he assumed.

He constantly attended on Philip viewing with amazement a display of genuine power.

RV. "he was amazed" He now experienced the feeling he had induced on his dupes before – and he knew that these miracles were genuine.

SIMON: SEEKER OF POWER.

This Samaritan mountebank was was a clever impostor who so enjoyed power that he was prepared to buy it. He amazed the people with his sorcery, claiming great innate powers, and enjoying the status that this gave him. The preaching of Philip destroyed the popularity he enjoyed, and thus isolated he was caused to examine the Gospel more closely and to accept it. He, in turn, now became amazed at the miracles performed by Philip which he was compelled to acknowledge were genuine – unlike his own! He was even more impressed with the greater power of the Apostles, and imagining that everything has its price, and recognising that this power would restore to him the prominence and authority he had once held, he offered to purchase it. His attitude showed how shallow was his grasp of the Truth, for he loved the praise and adulation of men. He was condemned by Peter who told him that his attitude revealed that he was unworthy of eternal life, and who pleaded with him to repent. Simon was sufficiently humiliated by the Apostle to seek the intercession of the Apostle (Cp. 1 John 5:16. Jam. 5:16. Gen. 20:17). Thus the Truth triumphed over fleshly ambition and simony.

Simon's sin created the word simony, meaning the effort to secure spiritual office by gift. It is akin to the more common attitude which acts upon the assumption that gifts of money constitute an acceptable substitute for individual effort in the things of God, implying that we can buy our way into the Kingdom of God.

unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem unto [a] Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, [d] a man of Ethiopia, [e] an eunuch [f] of great authority under Candace queen of the [g] Ethiopians, who had [h] the charge of all her treasure, and [i] had come to Jerusalem for to worship,

28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, and said, [j] Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should [g] guide me? And [g] he desired Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, [k] He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and [l] began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth [a] hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that [b] Jesus Christ is [c] the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, [m] the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he [n] preached in all the cities, till he came to [o] Cæsarea.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Saul, going towards Damascus, 4 is called by Christ: 18 is baptized by Ananias. 20 He preacheth Christ bo'dly. 31 Peter healeth Æneas, 36 and restoreth Tabitha.

AND [p] Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto [r] the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that, if he found any [s] of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 [t] And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, [u] and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus [v] whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, [w] what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, [x] Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And [y] the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hands, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel:

16 For I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached the Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 And after that many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him:

24 But their laying wait was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cæsarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Judæa and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Æneas, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Peter said unto him, Æneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

32 There was a willingness and a warmth in Philip's approach to the work. He instantly responded to Divine guidance.
33 Lit. "an Ethiopian." He was, therefore, a proselyte of the gate.
34 This was a term given to persons of high authority to whom the literal meaning did not apply. Gen. 37:36. 39:1 In serving their high office, they were sometimes compelled to act like one. Mt. 19:12.

40 It was normal for one so engaged to read aloud like the Scribes in Synagogue. "The Spirit" see before.
41 Thus indicating his humility & search for knowledge.
42 This is the normal Jewish interpretation, but it had the eunuch puzzled. This opening gave Philip his opportunity.

43 The preaching must have been thorough for the eunuch perceived of himself that baptism was necessary.

● THE CONVERSION EFFECTED Vv 36-39

44 Robinson (Bibl. Res. Vol. 2. p. 340) declares that upon the most southern route from Jerusalem to Gaza, through uncultivated land, at Tell-el-Safiy pools of water are found in the adjacent wady. It is on the main street road from Beit Jibrin (Eleutheropolis) to Gaza. (Rul. C.)
45 This verse is rejected as spurious by Griesbach which 9 others & many cursives by Griesbach which 9 others & many cursives support. It is included in margin by R.V. But Irenaeus, in the third book Against Heresies, ch 12:8 distinctly quotes a portion of it and refers to the very incident. Cyprian, in his third book of Testimonies, 43, quotes the other part of it to prove that belief should be followed by baptism. So that in the 2nd & 3rd Centuries, long anterior to the oldest existing mss, this entire verse must have been found in the codices both of the Greek and Latin Congregations (see Bul. Com)

THE ETHIOPIAN WAS READING V.30

"The diffusion of the Holy Scriptures among the Gentiles by means of the Jewish dispersion and the facility given to Gentiles for reading the Scriptures by their translation into Greek at Alexandria, and by the universal use of the Greek language through the conquests of Alexander the Great, are striking instances of the providence of God working all things after the counsel of His own will." - A.C. Hervey (Bul.).

THE ETHIOPIAN AND PAUL: A CONTRAST IN CONVERSION

messenger sent him and who was able to move him by words. The other was a man of dynamic energy turned into the fury of action by his hatred of Christianity, breathing the very atmosphere of threatening & slaughter, and expending it in blast after blast of hatred & fury. With such a man you cannot reason, therefore Yahweh suddenly strikes him to the ground, humbles him in the very dust.

SAUL: THE INQUISITOR: OR THE GREAT PERSECUTION. It has been suggested on the basis of Acts 26:10 that Saul was a newly appointed member of the Sanhedrin, but this by no means follows. If he were a member of that Council, the fact would surely be disclosed in his controversies with the Judaizers or in such biographical notes as Phil. 3:5-6. His commission came not from the Tribunal, and on the basis of Isa. 53 alone believed Messiahship of Jesus, the resurrection, the est. of the Kingdom.

In the conversion of Saul we have Christianity's greatest triumph! Humanly it was a matter-miracle! Here was a leader of the Pharisees: a scholar, a man of high and influential station. Sanhedrin, though it doubtless endorsed it but from the chief priests Acts 9:1,2. He was possibly a member of a committee appointed for the suppression of Christianity and in that capacity gave his vote against those imprisoned. Saul "made havoc" of the Ecclesia Acts 8:3. The word "portheo" signifies to destroy, ravage, lay waste & in the LXX is used of a wild boar uprooting a vineyard Ps. 80:13. He invaded the sanctity of the home & violently seizing men & women committed them to prison Acts 8:3 and even procuring their execution Acts 22:4, 26:9-10, calling upon them to retract Acts 26:11. Nor did he confine his activities to Jerusalem Acts 26:11. It was with bitter remorse that Paul later made reference to his persecution of the Ecclesias Gal. 1:13, 23, Phil. 3:6, 1 Cor. 15:9, 1 Tim. 1:13. He describes himself as "a blasphemer, a persecutor, and injurious," "not meet to be called an Apostle because he persecuted the Ecclesia." Cp Acts 22:4-20.

17 [c] And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and [d] putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and [h] be filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and [a] was baptised. (A token of his spiritual enlightenment)

LEAVES TO DAMASCUS. Though the High Priest had spiritual jurisdiction over Jews abroad, it would be most unlikely that Paul could have exercised the powers he sought unless the authorities were completely in sympathy with him. Aretas was King 2 Cor. 11:32 and was sympathetic to Jewish interests. This was a name common to many of the Kings of Arabia Petraea (Nabatean Kings). Aretas was father-in-law of Herod Antipas. Herod afterwards married the wife of his brother Philip and in consequence of this the daughter of Aretas returned to her father. This resulted in war, & Herod's army was destroyed. Complaint being made to the emperor, he sent Vitellius to punish Aretas, but while on the march news was received of the death of Tiberius A.D. 37. Caligula who ultimately banished Herod, probably assigned the city to Aretas. Vitellius the Governor of Syria was on the march through Judea to Petra when he suddenly heard of the death of Tiberius, and withdrew. Damascus was evidently occupied by Aretas.

As Herod was hated of the Jews, there was naturally a sympathy by the latter towards Aretas, one of Acts 21:22 towards the Jews. This, doubtless, formed the basis of Paul's appeal to Theophilus Acts 9:2.

The high priest, in granting these letters Acts 22:5 acted on behalf of the Sanhedrin as a deputation.

There was a numerous Jewish population in Damascus. Josephus writes of 10,000 Jews massacred in a massacre in Nero's time (11:20:2). All there could have been so. No synagogue.

Lepis from Lepo, to peel. Sig flakes. - Str. A medical term used by Hippocrates for diseases of the eye. Luke leaves it to that he does not identify it as the disease. The bright light could have caused secretions which filmed over Paul's eyes. It could have permanently damaged them. Gal. 4:15, 6:11, as a constant reminder of his past Cp 2 Cor. 12:7-9. He looked into the countenance of Ananias Acts 22:13.

23 The use of this term by Luke suggests a very short period. Cp Ch. 10:48, 15:36, 16:12, 24:1, 24, 25:13. Diag. = "several days." This is a contrast to the "many days" V. 23. between which the visit to Arabia evidently took place.

4 PAUL PREACHES IN DAMASCUS Vv 20-22

There was a need for Paul to explain why he was not proceeding with the planned persecution. This took him to the synagogues Vv 2, 20 there to preach Jesus.

24 Epitheo. The same word as rend. "immediately" Gal. 1:16.

25 The very place to where he was conveying the letters V. 2.

The preaching could have taken the form of explaining why the persecution should cease.

26 RV: "made havoc of." Gr. Portheo - to sack, ravage. Str. "increased in strength" = Gr. Endunamoo = "was strengthened." As he tested the Truth in open debate he saw how powerful it was, and so was strengthened & confirmed.

There was a general expectancy of Christ's advent.

5 PAUL'S LIFE ENDANGERED IN DAMASCUS Vv 11-25

Most likely in Arabia (Sinai) he received the Revelations of [redacted] and thus fortified and emboldened, he returned to Damascus to preach - only to be humiliated & humbled.

29 How long he was in Sinai is not revealed. He returned preaching boldly V. 27 and antagonised the Jews.

6 PAUL JOINS THE JERUSALEM ECCLESIA Vv 26-28

This visit for going to Jerusalem is explained in Gal. 1:18.

His sojourn in Damascus could not have been long for doubts still existed in Jerusalem concerning the genuineness of his conversion.

Of the 12 he saw only Peter with whom he stayed for 15 days. Gal. 1:18-19, but others were appointed in an official capacity. (See Messengers Phil. 2:25, 2 Cor. 8:23. Apostello - send "sent" so frequently used sent on an official mission Acts 9:17, 11:22, 13:2, 4, etc.

RELIEF FOR THE ECCLESIA V.31.

In March of 37 Tiberius died, and Gaius, (Caligula) ascended the throne. Though he was the close friend of Herod Agrippa, he opposed the Jews, and proclaimed his intention of erecting a statue in the Holy of Holies. He ordered Petronius, legate of Syria to carry this out with force. This peril diverted the attention of the Jews from believers. Many marched to Phoenicia to demonstrate before [illegible] and appeal to him (Farrar - Paul, p253). [illegible] in turn to Rome - but in vain. [illegible] execution was demanded. But [illegible] Gaius, in January 41 (he was [illegible] Caligula), and Claudius reigned in his stead.

4 RV: "He, fastening his eyes upon him." Diag. "And steadily gazing at him." Cornelius was taken by surprise.

5 It was the time of incense Vs. But the prayers and alms of this Gentile considered unclean by Jews ascended more acceptably to Yahweh than the smoke of their incense.

6 This would suggest to Cornelius that Peter was not so restricted in Judaism as others. See

There are features of the greatest significance in this incident use, by Peter, of the second Key: Mt 16:19. The Divine guidance, leading the Apostles to a broader concept in the preaching of the Word. The Gospel had now been taken to the Jews Acts 2; to the racially mixed Samaritans (Acts 8); to a Gentile proselyte Acts 9:26-40; now to a Roman soldier at last establishing the principle expressed by Peter Acts 10:34,35. To effect this, Peter had to break down any lingering prejudices of Judaism. Christ had given the lead to that in his interpretation of the Law, but the full significance had not been brought home to the Apostles so that they could see that the Gospel was to be preached to Gentiles equally with Jews. Certain prejudices

[a] household servants, and a devout soldier of them that [b] waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, [c] Peter went up upon [d] the housetop to pray about [e] the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into [f] a trance,

11 And [m] saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for [g] I have never eaten any thing that is [l] common or [n] unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the [i] second time, [illegible] [o] call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter [p] doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's house, and [d] stood before [e] the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, [h] three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and [i] go with them, [n] doubting nothing: for [illegible] sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and [d] one that feareth God, and [r] of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was [s] warned from God by an [t] holy angel to send for thee into his house, and [k] to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and [u] certain [v] brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into [w] Cæsarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and [q] fell down at his feet, and [r] worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; [z] I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found [v] many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an [a] unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but [c] God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, [f] Four days ago I was [x] fasting until this hour; and at [f] the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, [y] a man stood before me in [m] bright clothing,

"THEY OF THE CIRCUMCISION"
The witnesses that Peter took with him are so described Ch. 10:45 Perhaps before he left with the messengers of Cornelius there had been some discussion as to whether such action should be taken and Peter had selected witnesses who had voiced their opposition to such a reversal of tradition. In the face of God's obvious endorsement of Cornelius Vv 44-46 they were silenced, and Cornelius was baptised.
In Jerusalem, however, the action of Peter had created a party now known as "they of the circumcision" determined to maintain the traditional attitude of Judaism.
He had anticipated this and took 6 witnesses back to Jerusalem with him Ch 11:12.

FAMINE: V. 28
The reign of Claudius is noted for several famines. Josephus (Ant. Xviii 3.15-3. 20: 5.2. Xx 51-2) indicates that one commencing 45-46 was particularly severe as far as Judaea was concerned. Suetonius (Cl. 18) refers to it as being over the world. Much later (Ch. 12) he left it to Judea.

four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had [c] fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men [n] already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cæsarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover [r] these six [s] brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;

14 Who shall tell thee [x] words, whereby thou and [a] all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, [c] as on us at the beginning.

16 Then [d] remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, [o] John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 [t] Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could [i] withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and [o] glorified God, saying, [p] Then hath God also to the Gentiles [illegible] unto life.

19 ¶ Now [q] they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen [g] travelled as far as [d] Phenice, and [e] Cyprus, and [f] Antioch, [b] preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and [m] Cyrene, which, when they were come to [Q] Antioch, spake unto the [h] Grecians, [i] preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And [r] the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number [l] believed, and [m] turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ [u] Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth [v] Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen [w] the grace of God, was glad, and [y] exhorted them all, that with [z] purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was [n] a good man, and [o] full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to [v] Tarsus, for to seek Saul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto [b] Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves [q] with the church, and taught much people. And the [c] disciples were called [p] Christians first in Antioch.

27 ¶ And in these days came [h] prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them named [k] Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout [r] all [m] the world: which came to pass in the days of [n] Claudius Cæsar.

29 Then the disciples, every

11 In north Africa. But see note Mk. 15:21. These, with the men of Cyprus were probably Hellenists and therefore more likely to proclaim the message to foreigners.

12 Ellenistas - Hellenists, but many texts have Ellenas = Greeks, which is doubtless correct, for Hellenists would cover the Jews of v. 19.

2 BARNABAS SENT TO SUPERVISE THE WORK Vv. 22-24.

13 Probably reported by those who opposed preaching to Gentiles Cp v. 2. Barnabas on the other hand was sympathetic towards it Ch. 11:23.

14 Prothesis - a setting forth. The word is combined with "artos" a loaf, to form the word shewbread. Prothesis is combined of "pro" before, and "tithemi" - to place. They cannot just drift into the Kingdom. They need a policy, setting before themselves an objective. Deut 32:46-47 Phil 3 1 Tim 4:15.

15 Prosmeno - To abide with. Pros - forward or with. Meno to abide. See Note top p. 120

16 Agathos describes that which, being good in its character or constitution, is beneficial to others (Vine). It is used of God Mt. 19:17 and now manifested by Barnabas.

3 BARNABAS SEEKS THE AID OF PAUL Vv. 25-26

The violence of the Hellenist Jews drove Paul to Tarsus Acts 9:29 where he preached Gal. 1:21.

30 He was thus close at hand for a work that Jahweh now opened up - thus God overruled the labors of His servants.

17 He had no real knowledge of his exact whereabouts.

A new phase of the Truth was about to open with Antioch as its headquarters See Summary top p. 163.

Saul had shown his ability in the face of the Hellenists Ch. 9:29, was a master of the Greek language, and therefore qualified to assist the new phase of work about to open.

Barnabas was a native of Cyprus Ch. 4:36 and would more readily draw Paul into this work. Thus Providence guided the preaching.

18 Chrematizō found. "warned from God" in Mt. 2:12, 22. The word is derived from chrēma - an affair, business. Names were given to men from the nature of their business. Chrematizō used for official pro-

3 Peter had evidently dismissed trouble and taken these Witnesses back to Jerusalem. They were of the circumcision and were perhaps of the party that was now developing within the Ecclesia Ch. 10:45.

9 These are additional words to those contained in Ch. 10 6, 33.

5 Additional comment to Ch. 10:44.

6 This was a promise to the Apostles Ch. 1:5 authenticating them to their positions. It is now extended to these Gentiles to authenticate the work of preaching to such.

THE OPPOSITION IS TEMPORARILY SILENCED v. 18

7 They had no answer to the reasoning of Peter however; it was not long before the same objections were raised by others Cp Ch. 15 and Cornelius was swayed by the eminence of their opposition Gal. 2:11-12.

FAMINE V. 28

The reign of Claudius is noted for several famines. Josephus (Ant. Jew. 3.15.3. 20:5.2; 20:51.2) indicates that the one commencing 46 AD was particularly severe as far as Judea was concerned. Eusebius (2:8) refers to it as being over the world. Though later (Ch. 12) he limits it to Judea.

The disciples were probably officially named Christians by Gentiles, and the Divine instruction was to embrace the term, for they used it Acts 26:28. 1 Pet. 4:16.

CHAPTER 12.

1 King Herod persecuteth the Christians, killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter; whom an angel delivereth upon the prayers of the church. 20 Herod, stricken by an angel, dieth miserably. 24 After his death, the word of God prospereth. (AD 44)

NOW about that time Herod the king [20] stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James the brother of [k] John with the sword.

3 And [20] because he saw it pleased the Jews, he [n] proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were [o] the days of unleavened bread.)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in [p] prison, and delivered him to four [r] quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after [s] Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but [t] prayer was made without ceasing [u] of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Herod would have brought him [7] forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, [b] the angel of the Lord [c] came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were [11] past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; [v] which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and [h] hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all [i] the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of [p] John, whose surname was [w] Mark; where many were gathered together [x] praying.

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, [y] a damsel came [z] to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate [z] for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. [a] But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is [a] his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, [d] beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto [e] James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

HEROD (cont.) favored him and refrained him from prayer, bestowing on him the tetrarchies of Herod Philip and of Lysanias, and presenting him with a golden chain of equal weight with the iron one with which he had been bound. These marks of favor caused the Jews to anticipate that their interests would be preserved by such an Emperor. They were doomed to bitterest disappointment. His reign plunged them into disaster that threatened their very existence. See Note Acts 9:17

UNDER CLAUDIUS. Claudius was greatly assisted by Herod in obtaining the throne and in consequence and gratitude alleviated the miseries of the Jews, warning his subjects against insulting them. The oratory of Herod had saved Rome from revolution and placed the uncouth Claudius on his nephew's (Caius) throne. When Herod returned home, it was on the flood tide of his success, and with the additions of Judea, Samaria, Abilene and Lebanon added to his possessions. He was anxious to foster the sense of Jewish nationalism (Jos. Ant. 20:1.1) to satisfy the Sadducees to be supported by the Pharisees, and to be popular with the multitude. The extirpation of the Christians was the quickest and cheapest way to win general popularity. Hence the Herodian persecution commenced.

there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he [d] examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judæa to Cæsarea, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Herod [e] was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, [f] having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his [m] throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because [n] he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But [o] the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 [q] And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their [r] ministry, and [s] took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Paul and Barnabas sent to the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus and Elymas. 14 Paul preacheth at Antioch, that Jesus is Christ. 42 The Gentiles believe.

NOW there were in the church that was at [u] Antioch certain [x] prophets and [a] teachers; as [b] Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and [c] Lucius of [d] Cyrene, and Manaen, [5] which had been brought up with [e] Herod the tetrarch, and [f] Saul.

2 As they [g] ministered to the Lord, and [h] fasted, the Holy Ghost said, [k] Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work [9] whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and [b] prayed, and laid their hands on them, [10] they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth [t] by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God [p] in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also [i] John to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found [k] a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Which was with the [l] deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) [p] filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, [z] thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the [t] right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, [u] the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun [y] for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and his company loosed from [1] Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphy-

SAUL ALSO CALLED PAUL v.9. The first time Paul is mentioned as such is in association with his namesake Sergius Paulus and in conflict with the arrogant Elymas (Wise) who represented the Scientific thought of the age. Paulus the Roman was a man of understanding and sufficient humility to call for Barnabas and Saul with a desire to hear them. Elymas, who unfairly withstood them, was smitten with blindness for a season so that he had to be led about by the hand. He claimed to be wise, but Paulus (little) had more true wisdom. There is an amazing similarity between the punishment of Elymas & Paul's own experience at conversion, & it could have made such an impression on him that from henceforth he preferred to be known as Paul. From now on he took the initiative Cp v.13

14 ¶ But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down. Cp v.46.

15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on. (Consolation or Comfort. Similar to the Diaspora might have such.)

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience. (Gentile proselytes)

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet. (Stated for RV)

21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.

22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus: — Luke 2:11

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

26 Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain. (A further progressive state of intent Cp Mt. 27)

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him from the dead: (Cp Luke 24:6)

31 And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto the people. (v.23)

32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. (Anistemi)

50 Which constituted a weekly reproof, emphasising the value of constant reading.

51 If Paul did not quote specific passages, this was a provocative statement inviting them to question him.

"yet asked they of Pilate.."

It was the height of irony that a fellow-Jew should be brought before this hated Gentile "dog" to be condemned. Luke 11:1. for they did not recognise his authority. Note how this is emphasised. Acts 2:13 3:17. This fact should have alerted the Jews of the Diaspora that something was wrong with the Rulers of Jerusalem.

The Greek (see Diag. Interlinear) supports the A.V. David served his own generation but Christ rose.

2 Sam. 7:12 1 Kgs 2:10.

Egeiro - To arouse, awaken (Str). See Luke 12:7. 11:31.

PERSONAL APPEAL 41

The logical summary. Israel has been guided by Divine Providence. David has been promised the Messiah. John testified that Jesus was that seed. The Jews slew him but God raised him. The Scriptures require the resurrected Christ who alone fulfils all requirements of Scripture.

"Brethren." Lit. Men who are my brethren.

In - in, within the sphere of.

If they reject the message they are no better than those of Jerusalem upon whom will come the judgment foretold by the prophets.

What follows is a slight abridgement of the LXX. Paul probably quoted this because it was more familiar to his audience much the same as we might use a translation familiar to a group to prove a point, or point a lesson without quoting it.

Aphanizo - To cause to disappear - hide yourselves.

Ye dispisers, Hyperephanoi - Hagarim among the heathen, is changed to Bogadim - despisers or transgressors. The Hebrew correct, Paul and the LXX from which he quoted for the Jews included as Gentiles.

6 KEEN INTEREST AROUSED 42-43

Barnabas left before the others, receiving this invitation as they did so.

CONTROVERSY WITH THE JEWS 44-52

Work of the Gentile proselytes went through the city.

Thaumasio - Wonder (Materially - Luke omits the latter). Luke omits the words in brackets. Paul quoted from memory.

WHY DID MARK RETURN? 13a

We are not specifically told, but it was sufficient to cause friction between Paul & Barnabas Acts 15:37-39. It could have been that they has suffered opposition already for in 2 Cor. 11:23-29 Paul lists sufferings that have not been recorded in Acts.

Mark's courage may have failed him as he saw the mixed heathen world of Pamphylia and realised the dangers before him. Perhaps he resented the manner in which Paul was becoming the dominant influence, and found his dedicated "driving urge" to work less pleasant than the gentler kinship with his cousin Barnabas. Mark was young. The novelty of work had worn off. It would not be easy to work for Paul who relentlessly drove himself and at times became impatient with others who gave lesser service 2 Tim. 3:10-12. Perhaps all these circumstances moved Mark. In any case he returned.

CHARACTER OF MARK

See Note Col. 4:10. He was impulsive as indicated in his action in Mk. 14:51. He was timid in that he turned back from the work. He was sincere and faithful and developed a courage born of these attributes indicated by the manner in which he subsequently redeemed himself in the eyes of Paul. He was studious, as indicated by the Gospel he wrote, for he would have had to search out the material for himself. These qualities blended to develop a strong and determined character that conquered the early impulsiveness and timidity.

suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.
36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:
37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.
38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins:
39 And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.
40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets;
41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.
42 And when the Jews were gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.
43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.
44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.
45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.
46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.
47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.
48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.
49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.
50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts.
51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Iconium.
52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Paul and Barnabas persecuted from Iconium. 8 At Lystra Paul healeth a cripple. 19 Paul is stoned. 26 They return to Antioch.

AND it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.
2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.
3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.
4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

TIMOTHY AT LYSTRA
Paul evidently converted Timothy at this time (cp Acts 16:1, 1 Tim. 1:2, 18. 2 Tim. 2:1. (See Introduction to Epistle) giving point to his exhortation: "Thou hast fully known..." 2 Tim 3:10-12.

Paul healeth a cripple at Lystra.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, [c] to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled unto [f] Lystra and [g] Derbe, cities of [h] Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, [i] being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith [k] to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he [l] leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they [m] lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, [n] The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto [b] the gates, and [o] would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, [e] they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, [p] why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should [q] turn from these [r] vanities unto [s] the living God, [t] which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in times past [u] suffered all nations [a] to walk in their own ways.

17 [v] Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and [w] gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And [i] there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, [x] having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to [y] Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and [z] had taught many, they returned again to [f] Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch,

22 [a] Confirming the souls of the disciples, and [b] exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that [c] we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had [d] ordained them [e] elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout [d] Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in [f] Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to [h] Antioch, [g] from whence they had been [k] recommended to [l] the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they [m] rehearsed all that God had done with them,

PAUL'S OPEN AIR ADDRESS 184

God, the Creator is alone to be worshipped.
He is living and active - having created all things.
In the past He revealed Himself only to Israel.
But He has not been inactive - for rain & sunshine, seasons & food come from Him.
People should turn from inanimate idols to worship the living, active, powerful God of creation.

Paul's address is impregnated with references from the Old Testament, and based directly upon Psalm 146:6. - though he did not quote by formally turning up the passage.
In preaching he quickly adapted himself to the circumstances and used even distressing ones to proclaim the Word.
Compare the above with Acts 17:22-31.

CHRONOLOGY OF ACTS AND THE EPISTLE TO THE GALATIANS

BASIS OF THE CHRONOLOGY

there are five leading events, the dates of which can be set with reasonable certainty:

1. THE CONVERSION OF PAUL - AD 37. This is calculated from Josephus in the light of 2 Cor. 11:32. which shows that Aretas was King of Arabia + in possession of Damascus when Paul escaped from the city 3 years after his conversion. That Paul, as a Jew, should have been able to act freely in the way indicated in Acts 9:2. implies that a Government was in power that was sympathetic to the Jews and to the reigning high priest. A strong implication is that the high priest was Theophilus and the date AD 37 - See "Letters to Damascus" p. 113.
2. THE DEATH OF HEROD AGRIPPA I AD 44 (Acts 12:23) This determines the return of Paul to Jerusalem with alms in approx. AD 44-45. See also the note on the date of the famine Acts 11:28.
3. THIRD JOURNEY OF PAUL TO JERUSALEM - AD 51 According to Gal. 2:1 this was 14 years after his conversion and followed immediately after his return to Antioch Acts 15:1.
4. THE PROCURATORSHIP OF FELIX 60-61 Felix was superceded by Festus, according to Josephus, Tacitus and Suetonius in A.D. 60 or 61 Upon this date depends the ... of the Apostle's arrest in Jerusalem, and his journey to Rome. His captivity at Caesarea which followed the arrest continued 2 years, and must have commenced approx. AD 58 or 59. Acts 24:27.
5. THE ARRIVAL OF PAUL IN ROME AD 61 or 62. This followed immediately after the entrance of Festus into his office.

PREACHING IN GALATIA AND PAUL'S VISIT TO JERUSALEM. Gal. 2.

Paul had been to Galatia twice before writing his Epistle Gal. 4:13. According to Wm M. Ramsay, the Roman province of Galatia incorporated districts south of it including Phrygia, Pisidia and Lycaonia and therefore the cities of Antioch, Lystra and Iconium were visited on the first missionary journey Acts 13:4 - 14:22.

According to Paul, he was driven there by sickness Gal. 4:13. Ramsay suggests that the sickness could have been Malaria, brought on in Perga. In "Paul The Traveller" he writes:

"In passing from Perga to Pisidian Antioch, the travellers passed from the Roman province Pamphylia to the Roman province Galatia, and the rest of the journey lay in Galatia until they returned to Perga ...." Paul had a serious illness in Pamphylia, and on that account left Perga and went to Antioch. It is unnecessary to repeat the argument that is in perfect agreement with the known facts. Any constitutional weakness was liable to be brought out by the sudden plunge into the enervating atmosphere of Pamphylia after the fatigue and hardship of a journey on foot through Cyprus, accompanied by the constant excitement of missionary work, culminating in the intense nervous strain of the supreme effort at Paphos. The natural and common treatment for such an illness is to go to the higher ground of the interior: and the situation of Antioch (about 3,600 ft above sea level) sheltered by mountains on the North and east, and overlooking a wide plain to the south and south-west), as well as its Jewish population and commercial connection with the Pamphylian coast-cities, made it a very suitable place for Paul's purpose."

CIRCUMSTANCES OF PAUL'S PREACHING

DRIVEN TO GALATIA BY SICKNESS.

Ramsay suggests (see above) that Paul suffered from intermittent malaria which would have the effect of drastically altering his bodily appearance even more than normally. See also Gal. 4:14.

"Now, in some constitutions, malaria fever tends to recur in very distressing and prostrating paroxysms, whenever one's energies are taxed for a great effort. Such an attack is for the time absolutely incapacitating: the sufferer can only feel and feel himself a shaking and helpless weakling, when he ought to be at work. He feels a contempt and loathing for self, and believes that others feel equal contempt and loathing."

MARK LEAVES

Perhaps Mark viewed with consternation the ruthless, driving energy of Paul, who was determined to carry on in spite of illness, and who now essayed the dangerous and difficult journey through the lonely, robber infested region of Pisidia (2 Cor. 11:26) Pisidia was notorious for its roving bands of violent desperadoes who defied Rome, and preyed on travellers. For normally protected travellers, it was dangerous to move through this district, but for a fiery company of conscientious objectors, one of whom was desperately ill, it must have appeared suicidal.

Mark returned home.

PAUL'S RECEPTION IN GALATIA

The Galatians who believed enthusiastically embraced the truth and deeply sympathised with Paul in his distress. Far from being repelled by his condition and appearance Gal. 4:13-14, it excited their sympathy and love, and they went out of their way to relieve his sufferings recognising the great blessing they had received through his ministrations Gal. 4:15.

Paul received an enthusiastic response, perhaps indicating that the Galatians tended to be moved by emotion, and were somewhat unreliable in that they were easily swayed (cp Gal. 4:17-18 with Acts 14:11). In character they seemed to be somewhat gullible and easily moved Gal. 1:6.

THE THOROUGHNESS OF PAUL'S PREACHING

Paul carefully instructed the Galatians. This is apparent from the subjects dealt with in the Epistle he wrote them. The detailed exposition that it provides of subjects such as Law, Justification by faith, Sonship in Christ, together with its frequent quoting from the O.T, its elaboration of doctrine based on words, and of allegory founded on historical incidents, indicates that he thoroughly instructed them in Bible history, prophecy, allegory and doctrine.

- He illustrated the vast change wrought in one's life by revealing to them his own personal experience and conversion Gal. 2:18.
- He showed how his own endurance under suffering was an open placarding of Christ's sacrifice Gal. 3:1, 3:1. whose sufferings he thus fellowshipped Phil. 3:10.
- His exposition of the law in relation to the liberty in Christ clearly revealed the hopelessness of man apart from Christ, and the glorious privilege obtained in the Gospel. Gal. 5:1.
- They responded with enthusiasm Gal. 5:7.
- The gifts of the Holy Spirit were manifested among them Gal. 3:5.
- Though persecuted they endured it Gal. 3:4.
- Paul also was persecuted Acts 14:5, 19 because he taught liberty in Christ. Gal. 5:11

WHEN WAS GALATIANS WRITTEN?

The answer to this question determines the circumstances of the visit to Jerusalem recorded in Gal. 2:1-10.

Bro. J. Carter maintains that this visit relates to that recorded in Acts 11:26; 12:25 recording incidents not there related and that the Epistle was written before the Jerusalem Conference on the grounds that otherwise the decision of the Conference would surely have been quoted by Paul, and that Gal. 1:17 demands that every visit to Jerusalem by the Apostle be recorded — If Gal. 2:1-10. relates to the Jerusalem Conference, Paul has omitted his visit recorded in Acts 11:26; 12:25.

BUT

- If it is not visits to Jerusalem Paul is listing, but contacts with the Apostles, and the visit of Acts 11:26. 12:25 took place when persecution apparently had driven them from the city Acts 8:1-3 as would have been well known.
- The visit of Galatians 2 was 14 years after Paul's conversion in 37 whereas the persecution of Acts 12. took place in 44.
- Paul's statement in Gal. 5:11 implies that some were making capital out of his action in circumcising Timothy (Bro. Carter suggests this - See p. 120), but this did not take place until after the Jerusalem Conference Acts 16:3.
- It would have been rather inconsequent for Paul to act so belligerently as suggested in Gal. 2:5. before the circumstances had arisen that required it, and whilst bringing a free-will gift to them from Gentile believers Acts 11:29. which he possibly viewed as a token of good will which could weld Jewish and Gentile believers more closely together Cp Note Rom. 15: 25-28
- The Epistle was written after the second visit to Galatia Gal. 4:13 which, according to Acts was after the Conference Acts. 18:11-4. Bro. Carter suggests that the 2nd visit was the return on the first visit Acts 14:21 but this is obviously part of the first visit for Galatia was a district not a town, and at that stage Paul had not left the district though he had visited the towns twice.

REGARDING THE CONFERENCE DECISION

- If the Titus test case had already been tried Gal. 2:3. and Paul's field of activities had already been examined, acknowledged and endorsed Gal. 2:7-9 of what need was the Conference? Its principles had already been conceded.
- Was it not more telling for Paul to reveal the background circumstances of the Conference, as he does, than merely to rest on the decree of others, a decree he had already delivered to the Galatians the second time he visited them Acts 16:1-4.
- Moreover the decree was probably not quoted because it was conciliatory in tone, and therefore incomplete. It was a concession and not a full exposition The Galatians were not seeking a concession, but bondage. They desired full discipleship on equal terms with the Jewish believers, and imagined that this was only possible by submitting to a form of Judaism superimposed on the Truth.

PETER'S "INCONSISTENCY" JUSTIFIED

- There must have been some "apparently" sound reason for Peter and Barnabas to act as they did in Antioch immediately following the Conference. Gal. 2:11-14. The following suggestion may account for this:
- Paul asked Peter: "Why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?" Gal. 2:14. By this he doubtless meant that Peter's action implied that some benefit or superiority attached to Judaism which compelled Gentiles to superimpose it on the Truth if they were to be accounted on an equality with Jewish believers.
- Probably the Judaisers had seized on the very decree itself to teach the higher status of Jewish believers over Gentiles, or those who rested on its liberty. They probably succumbed with bad grace to the decree by claiming that there was the difference between those who claimed full liberty and those who submitted to circumcision as existed between the Proselyte of the Gate and the Proselyte of Righteousness.
- The decree was so limited that Paul never uses it in any of his Epistles when countering Judaism, but went beyond its teaching. Cp Acts 15:29 with 1 Cor. 8:1-13. 10:19-28.

- Doubtless the Judaisers accepted the decree much the same way as Jews accepted proselytes: those who submitted to circumcision and the law becoming proselytes of Righteousness, and those who refused to do so being treated as Proselytes of the Gate.

Cornelius was among the latter.

Despite the conference, the full liberty in Christ had not been properly understood by the Apostles, so that Peter and Barnabas were doubtful as to what their course of action should be and so vacillated Gal. 2:12-13.

CONCLUSION

- The visit of Galatians 2:1-10 is that of Acts 15.
- The details now supplied revealed that the Apostles and Elders, in their treatment of Paul, went beyond the terms of the Decree in that Titus was not circumcised but was received by them, and Paul was confirmed in the work he was doing.
- Paul now reveals to the Galatians the background of the decree he subsequently delivered unto them Acts 16:4 but which proved insufficient for them in the face of Judaistic propaganda.
- It is urged against the conclusion above that whereas Luke states that the brethren were "appointed" to visit Jerusalem Acts 15:2. Paul claims that it was by "revelation" Gal. 2:2. and therefore the visits must have been different. But this does not necessarily follow. In Acts 9:29-30. Luke relates that the brethren sent Paul forth, whereas Paul claims that he had a revelation Acts. 22:17-21. The circumstances of the Conference were doubtless overshadowed by God Acts 15:28
- In spite of all the objections raised, it seems most natural to relate the meeting of Paul and Peter to the circumstances of Acts 15:35. The clash might well precipitate the need to carry the decree elsewhere Acts 16:4. Where Paul delivered it, he doubtless explained its implications but his teaching was undermined by Judaisers who decried his authority so to teach that believers submit to the rite of circumcision if they desired to be on an equality with Jewish believers.

WHEN WAS EPISTLE TO GALATIANS WRITTEN?

- The conclusion above demands a later date for the writing of the Epistle than that suggested by Bro. Carter.
- It was after the second visit to Galatia and therefore, as far as the narrative of Acts is concerned, after the Jerusalem Conference.
- It has been suggested that the Epistle was written from Corinth during Paul's three months stay in Achaia (Greece) Acts 20:3 See Introduction to Romans. Appendix IV on the grounds that the theme is similar to Romans although the subject was dominating the Apostle's mind Cp Rom. 4 - Gal. 3:1. Rom. 7:14-25. - Gal. 5:17. Rom. 3:1-9 - Gal. 3:11. 6:13 - Gal. 4:4. Rom. 7:14-25. - Gal. 5:17. Rom. 3:1-9 - Gal. 3:11.

The problems associated with Galatia might well cause him to warn an Ecclesia he had never met against such false doctrine on the well-grounded supposition that it would ultimately be challenged on these points if it had not already been attacked. On these grounds it is suggested that the two Epistles were written when the subjects were freshin Paul's mind, and therefore they were both written from Corinth.

- Some suggest that it was written from Ephesus Acts 19 from whence Paul travelled to Corinth where a crisis had arisen that was likewise caused by a Judaising faction. Similarities are evident between the Epistles to the Corinthians and to the Galatians. Thus:
- Paul warned the Galatians against any who might teach contrary to the Gospel they had already received even though they might claim Apostolic authority or the endorsement of heaven for their message Gal. 1:7-9 He warned the Galatians from the depths of his personal experiences Gal. 1. He likewise warned the Corinthians of false Apostles who would lead them from the Truth 2 Cor. 11:3-13 in language similar to that used to the Galatians Cp Gal. 1:6 and also drew upon his personal experiences in illustration of his veracity 2 Cor. 11:22-33. All this suggests that the Judaisers were active at the time, not only in Galatia, but elsewhere.

1 Great dissension touching circumcision. 23 The apostles' decision. 36 Paul and Barnabas part asunder.

AND [h] certain men which came down from Judæa [i] taught the brethren, and said, [k] Except ye be circumcised [l] after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that [m] Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and [n] elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through [o] Phenice and [p] Samaria, [q] declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were [a] received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they [b] declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there [2] rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know, how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, [k] which knoweth the hearts, [l] bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us;

9 And [m] put no difference between us and them, [n] purifying their hearts [o] by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, [p] to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that [q] through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what [r] miracles and [s] wonders [t] God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, [u] James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 [v] Simeon [w] hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words [x] of the prophets; as it is written,

16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore [d] my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles [e] are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from [f] pollutions of idols, and from [g] fornication, and from [h] things strangled, and from blood.

PAUL'S MISSION CONFIRMED — The most important and lasting result of the conference was the confirmation of Paul's mission. The scope of his activity was clearly defined Gal. 2:6, 9, and he was given the right hand of fellowship. The only condition imposed was that he should remember the poor of Jerusalem - which he faithfully carried out Rom. 15:

22 Then pleased it the apostles and [c] elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed [d] Barsabas, and [e] Silas, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren [g] send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that [p] certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 That ye abstain from [t] meats offered to idols, and from [u] blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to [v] Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the [w] consolation.

32 And [b] Judas and Silas, being [c] prophets [61] also themselves, [d] exhorted the brethren with many words, [62] and [f] confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go [h] in peace from the brethren unto the apostles. (omit. Dsg. RV)

35 [m] Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren [q] in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them [r] John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, [s] who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. (RV: There arose a sharp contention.)

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so [t] Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto [u] Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose [v] Silas, and departed, being [w] recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through [x] Syria and Cilicia, [y] [a] confirming the churches.

Thus fully endorsing their labours. Notice that Barnabas is mentioned first. Cp v. 12.

They had received the guidance and endorsement of the Holy Spirit in the instructions issued though the manner in which this was made known is not recorded.

53 Which endorsed the preaching and mission of Paul, released gentile believers from the need of keeping the ceremonials of the law excluding circumcision and sabbath and emphasised the importance of mutual consideration where doctrine is not endangered. This is the spirit instilled upon by Paul in Rom. 14. 1 Cor. 8. 10:20-33.

HAZARDING THEIR LIVES. V 26.

The circumstances are not recorded in Acts, but were apparently well known to the brethren, and Paul makes mention of them in 2 Cor. 11:23-28. The five Jewish scourgings there referred to, five of the three Roman beatings with rods (one being at Philippi) and the three shipwrecks, are all unrecorded in Acts. Some, most likely, had already occurred, in addition to the stoning of Acts 14:19. Moreover he who endured and dared all this was a man constantly suffering ill-health. 2 Cor. 4:7-12. 12:7-10. Gal. 4:13, 14. Paul was obviously a man of dedicated determination and resolute will.

CONTROVERSY WITH PETER Gal. 2:11-17.

The statement in Gal. 2:11-21 is introduced by "de" (But) which generally marks a contrast and would strongly suggest that it took place at this time. It has generally been concluded that Peter's action was due to his natural impetuosity and unreliable character, but such a conclusion overlooks the fact that Barnabas was likewise led astray, and certainly he was not normally vacillating.

It needs to be clearly understood that the result of the Conference was a concession, not a command. It suggested that Gentile believers observe certain aspects of the Law so as not to antagonise Jews who kept it Acts 15:21. It was therefore not a doctrine but a compromise. It is significant that Paul never quotes it - never refers upon it to expound the liberty in Christ in any of his Epistles. Apart from Acts 16:4, 21:25, it is never referred to. In fact, it did not express the liberty in Christ but merely emphasised the need he shows consideration for the scruples of others.

It did not deter the Judaisers who were successful in their activities in various centres. Why was this? Because the recommendation be ing a concession still left untouched the question of the value of the Law for those who might attempt to keep it.

In Jerusalem, Jewish believers still frequented the Temple and were "zealous of the law" Acts 21:17-21. They obviously saw a benefit in that. Most likely such Jews would view believing Gentiles who stood aside from the Law as Jews looked upon Proselytes of the Gate in contrast to Proselytes of Righteousness, and whilst conceding that salvation is through faith taught that a more certain salvation and greater reward came from faith channelled through the Law.

Thus would justify the otherwise completely inconsistent action of Peter and certainly that of Barnabas. He would "eat with Gentiles" but still believed there was greater virtue in observing the Law to the extent that he placed a barrier between Jew and Gentile in contrast to Gal. 3:28. It was this point the conference did not consider and Peter's subsequent action made obvious Gal. 2:14-21. Thus a clearer conception of [illegible] out of this controversy.

him, [a] being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and [c] elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed [g] Barsabas, and [h] Silas, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren [n] ~~send~~ greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in ~~Antioch and Syria and Cilicia~~:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that [p] certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, ~~saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law~~: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by [z] mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 That ye abstain from [d] meats offered to idols, and from [e] blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to [c] Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the [s] consolation.

32 And [b] Judas and Silas, being [c] prophets [61] also themselves, [d] exhorted the brethren with many words, [62] and [f] confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go [h] in peace from the brethren unto the apostles. (Omit. Dbg. RV)

34 ~~Notwithstanding it pleased Silas to abide there still.~~

35 [m] Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren [t] in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them [r] John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, [u] who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. (RV "There arose a sharp contention.")

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so [q] Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto [v] Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being [w] recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through [z] Syria and Cilicia, [a] confirming the churches.

5 And so were [i] the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of [q] Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in [r] Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not. (still under Spirit guidance)

8 And they passing by Mysia came down to [t] Troas.

9 And [x] a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of [v] Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately [z] we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, [a] assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Troas, we [b] came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis; (Roman)

12 And from thence to [c] Philippi, which is [1] the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and [m] a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the [5] sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither. (she was well known)

Lydia's conversion.

16 named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of [b] Thyatira, which worshipped God, [y] heard us: whose [z] heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul. SUMMARY OF CHARACTER. ROM. 4:11

15 And when she was baptized, [a] and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and [d] abide there. And she [e] constrained us. (Abrabiazomai – compelled by force of argument)

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to [m] prayer, a certain damsel possessed with [n] a spirit [2] of [o] divination met us, which brought her masters [p] much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of [r] the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation. (See Note on Demons.)

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, [s] being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ [t] to come out of her. [u] And he came out the same hour. Dios. RV. "it."

19 ¶ And [b] when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and [c] Silas, and [f] drew them into the [3] marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to [g] the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, [4] do exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, [l] being Romans.

22 And [5] the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded [v] to beat them. (The sergeants or lictors see v. 35)

23 And when they had laid many [o] stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging [p] the jailor to keep them safely:

LYDIA CONVERTED
LD. Vv. 14-15.

16 Sig. bending. Paul's first convert in Europe. Cp Phil. 1:1. 1 Pet. 4:9. She was of Thyatira, the water of which city was so well adapted for dyeing, that no other place could produce the scarlet cloth out of which dyers were so brilliantly & so permanently dyed.

17 She was a business woman with all the mental acumen necessary as such. She was successful for she commanded her own establishment & household. 18 She was devout and on a prior style embraced Judaism. Business did not interfere with prayer. 19 She was studious desiring to know more of God.

20 She was sincere seeking to serve God in truth. Heb. 10:22 Jam. 4:8.

21 She was intelligent, applying her mind to them. Praseeho – To give heed, suggests devotion of thought & effort to a thing (Vine). Applied to priests Heb. 7:13.

22 She was obedient & an example to her household who followed her action. She was the first convert in Europe.

23 She was hospitable 1 Pet. 4:9 Heb. 13:2. She was not ashamed of the Lord's prisoners Cp V. 40. Bruised & in pain she cared for them.

PAUL CURES A DEMONIAD WOMAN 16-18

24 Comg. The name of the supposed serpent-dwelling in Python at the foot of Mt. Parnassus, guarding the oracle of Delphi & slain by Apollo. Thence the name was transferred to Apollo himself. Diviners, soothsayers and ventriloquists were popularly regarded as inspired by Apollo.

25 Her masters permitted this because it assisted their trade – any attracted to the mercenaries would be drawn to their superstition. It was, however, embarrassing to Paul.

PAUL AND SILAS THRUST INTO PRISON AND IMPRISONED 19-24

The personal pronoun ceases because Luke was not involved.

26 Agora – A forum – sometimes used as a market – also as a place of judicial assembly.

27 Archons. The charge was laid before them & they delivered them to the magistrates for sentence. Cp Luke 12:58

28 Strategoi – The Praetors of a Roman Colony. They were attended by lictors or "sergeants" who executed their orders. The circumstances were so irregular & riotous that Paul's protest V. 37. if made were ignored or unheeded.

29 The accusation was false but in the tumult, any protest Paul made was not heard. V. 37 suggests he did make some protest.

30 It is obvious that the masters of the woman had worked on the passions of the people.

31 They did this and then handed them over to the lictors. Unlike the Jews, the Romans had no laws of restitution regarding the number of blows administered. Cp 2 Cor. 11:23.

THE CIRCUMCISION OF TIMOTHY 187

was necessary in view of the circumstances and the nature of the preaching undertaken. Timothy was well known V. 3 as was also his father's opposition to Judaism. Paul's mission of preaching was of necessity first to the Jews Acts 13:46 & Introduction and to have with him an uncircumcised half-Jew would have immediately closed up opportunities for him to preach which were otherwise open.

THE JOURNEYING OF THE APOSTLE

They progressed through the Phrygian region of Galatia & then crossed the frontier of the province Asia: but there they were prevented from preaching, & the prohibition was made absolute for the entire province. They therefore kept to the north across Asian Phrygia with the intention of entering the adjoining Roman province of Bithynia; but when they came opposite Mysia, & were attempting to go out of Asia into Bithynia, the Spirit suffered them not. They therefore kept onwards to the west through Mysia, without preaching in it (as it was part of Asia), until they came out on its western coast at the great harbor of Alexandria Troas.

Luke normally omits a country where no preaching occurs, but here they are all listed to emphasis how the Apostle was driven of the Spirit to the point where the Truth was to penetrate Europe.

THE WITNESS IN THE GAOL V.25.

What a scene of calmness, faith and courage! The dark inner dungeon; the two prisoners fast in the stocks with backs bleeding and smarting from the stripes; the companionship of criminals + outcasts of society; the midnight hour - and not groans, curses and complaints, but prayers as they placed their case before Yahweh, and joyous, trustful songs of praise ringing through the prison - the place of shame and sorrow.

THE DOORS OF AN EASTERN PRISON are usually only closed by a bar. The earthquake would force the door posts apart + the door would spring open - but transfixed with fear, the prisoners made no move to escape.

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner [a] prison, and made their feet fast [c] in the stocks.

25 ¶ And [d] at midnight Paul and [e] Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly [f] there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And [i] the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and [o] sprang in, and came trembling, and [p] fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, [q] what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, [r] Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and [s] thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them [u] the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, [d] the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and [v] go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have [g] beaten us openly [b] uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and [g] they feared, when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and [k] desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into [l] the house of Lydia: and when they had seen [m] the brethren, they [n] comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica, 4 where some believe, and others persecute him. 10 He is sent to Berea, and preacheth there. 15 He cometh to Athens, and preacheth the living God to them unknown, 34 whereby many are converted.

NOW when they [1] had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to [r] Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, [2] as his manner was, went in unto them, and [a] three sabbath days reasoned with them [x] out of the scriptures,

3 [z] Opening and alleging, that [a] Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this [b] Jesus, [2] whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and consorted [5] with Paul and [c] Silas; and of the [6] devout [e] Greeks a great multitude, and of [f] the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain [5] lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and

5 EARTHQUAKE - CONVERSION OF THE JAILOR Vv 25-34

33. "But about midnight ... were praying ... were listening" RV. Their prosecuche (place of prayer Cp Lk 6) was now the dungeon + the stocks.

34 By miracle God showed His approbation of His servants condemned by man, symbolically revealed what the Truth can do. Cp Isa. 61:1-2

35 He had possibly heard Paul preach, or at least knew of his mission. Thus the foundation was laid for such an enquiry.

36 Pisteuō (Pist'-yoo-o) from Pistis - faith. "The "To have faith" (Str). "To place confidence in, to trust. Reliance upon a mere credence" (Vine). Cp Rom. 10:17.

37 This involves an understanding of the Truth.

38 Cp 1 Tim. 6:16.

39 They did this before their own wounds were dressed or their own comfort cared for. Cp v.4.

40 Having ministered in love to Paul, Paul in turn assisted in healing him by baptism Lk. 5:15.

6 PUBLICLY VINDICATED Vv 35-40.

35 Rhabdouchos - A rod bearer, a lictor. They punished by scourging or beheading, and carried their badge of office a bundle of rods with an axe inserted.

42 This attitude was most likely induced by the earthquake, perhaps supplemented by a report from the jailor. In the presence of miracle fear supplanted the wrath of the previous evening.

about idly. It is also used of affairs usually transacted in the market-place, hence of judicial assemblies." Vine

Cp Acts 19:38.

These evidently a low kind of lawyer, who organising a riot, proceeded to charge the Apostles with disturbing the peace.

43 They had no right to do so to a Roman citizen even if he were guilty.

44 Paul probably spoke to the Romans in Latin, whereas Luke reported in Greek. Paul's complaint was probably that they had not properly investigated his case, because they had, in fact, condemned him. But he had been given no opportunity to state his case.

46 Thus demonstrate for the sake of local brethren, including the jailor who otherwise might be accused for "being partial, that Christians were not criminals.

47 Cp v.17 Not "we" Apparently Luke stayed at Philippi, making it his headquarters until Paul's last journey from Macedonia to Jerusalem several years later Ch 20. It is considered that Luke composed his Gospel whilst here. 2 Cor. 8:18

48 Parakaleo - a calling to one's side; exhortation.

2 PAUL IN THESSALONICA Vv 1-9

1 SUCCESS IN THE SYNAGOGUE 1-4

1 Luke evidently not with them.

2 There evidently was none in Amphipolis or Apollonia so Paul did not stop. Cp Acts 11:26.

3 Paratithemi - To set before. Thus Paul opened the Scriptures + set them systematically before his listeners. The two words in conjunction = he proved by citations.

4 This is a verbatim quotation of the Apostle's words, evidently stated with great emphasis as he was moved by the power of the Word. Cp Ch. 18:5.

5 Proslambano - To assign by lot. Pros - to. Klerōs a lot. Cp Acts 1:17. They threw in their lot.

6 An indication of the influence of the synagogue as a bridge to Christ Gal 3:24. See also 1 Cor. 10:2. 11:21. 13:45. 16:1. 18:4. Ramsay translates: "many of the God fearing proselytes, + a great multitude of the Greeks, and of the leading women not a few."

Thus his work extended beyond the synagogue to the city.

This would require more than 3 weeks. It would also require longer than that for the Philippians to collect + send two gifts of money Phil. 4:16.

7 They occupied a much freer + more influential position in Macedonia than elsewhere.

8 RV. "Vile."

9 Tesperas - "...does not rise from the ground." (Hitz).

9 Agoraios Lit. relating to the "market place." Hence frequenting the market + so unthinking.

2 Thus implicating him in the charge as an accomplice.

3 The charge of treason was punishable with death. If the politarchs could not agree, + yet probably knowing it was trumped up, they took the mildest course that was prudent under the circumstances.

4 They could not move against Paul who was a freeborn Roman citizen.

1 SUCCESS IN PREACHING Vv 10-15.

They would travel N.E. along Egnatian Way for approx. 28m. then south along a more difficult terrain for about 50m.

They were not so narrow minded by prejudice. His work would require Paul's presence for some time (several months?) during which he hopefully purposed to return to Thessalonica 1 Thess 3:10.

To consolidate the work done and perhaps to bring Paul back if there was any opportunity to return to Thessalonica Cp 1 Thess 2:18.

It is a witness to the great love that the Apostle created in new converts that they would go out of their way like this.

They evidently joined Paul at Athens + he sent Timothy back to Thessalonica 1 Thess 3:1-2. and possibly Silas to Berea, after which they both joined him again Acts 18:5. where the Epistle to the Thessalonians was written just after it arrived 1 Thess 3:6.

IN ATHENS 16-34

1 DISPUTING IN THE SYNAGOGUE 16-17.

16: "Provoked." Parazuno - To rouse to anger - Vine.

THESSALONICA was an ideal centre for the spread of the Gospel into all parts. 1 Thess. 1:8. Its population was about 200,000. Beside serving as the capital of the province of Macedonia, it was the main stop on the Egnatian Way, a naval base, and an important commercial port. Overland caravans thronged its hostelries, ships filled its harbor, Roman officials, Greek sailors and large numbers of Jewish merchantmen rubbed shoulders in its streets. Thessalonica was a very cosmopolitan city, so that it was suggestive that Paul's companion should be called "world topplers" Acts 17:6. The truth would radiate out from such centres which possibly explains why Paul could greet so many by name in the Ecclesia in Rome Rom. 16. Whereas Philippi was an important Roman military centre, Thessalonica was a proud "free" city, with its own council ruled by politarchs Acts 17:6.

10 A Roman city of Paul's kinsman - Rom 16:11 assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people. RV "dragged."

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain [c] brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, [f] These that have turned [g] the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the [h] decrees of Cæsar, [i] saying that there is another king, one Jesus. - John 14:12, 15. Paul fought of the kingdom. 1 Thess 2:12

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go. Cp v. 6.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately [l] sent away Paul and [m] Silas by night unto [n] Berea: who coming thither [n] went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more [o] noble than those in [o] Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and [p] searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of [q] honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at [r] Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people. about 50 m. from Berea

14 And then immediately the brethren [t] sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and [u] Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that [a] conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and [c] receiving a commandment unto [w] Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they departed. See Note 20

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred [x] in him, when he saw the city [y] wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore [b] disputed he [c] in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the [z] devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the [a] Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this [b] babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because [k] he preached unto them Jesus and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto [d] Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is? (xenos - foreign - unlike Athenian speculations)

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of [e] Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious. (RV "objects of your worship")

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your [f] devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 [g] God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is [h] Lord of heaven and earth, [i] dwelleth not in temples [k] made with hands; Isa. 66:1, 2. Jer. 23:24

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, [l] as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all [m] life, and breath, and all things; (Reserves men)

They were not so narrow minded by prejudice. His work would require Rome's presence for some (several months?) during which he hopefully planned to return to Thessalonica 1 Thess 1:8

To consolidate the work done and perhaps to bring Paul back if there was any opposition to return to Thessalonica 1 Thess 2:18. It is evidence to the fact that the Apostle acted in new centres as they would go and their way like this. They evidently join Paul at Athens He sends Timothy back to Thessalonica 1 Thess 3:1-2 and Silas to Berea, after which they both joined him Acts 18:5 where Luke's narrative is written just after Timothy's visit 1 Thess 3:6.

5 IN ATHENS 16-34. DISPUTING IN THE SYNAGOGUE 16-17.

"provoked." Parogyno - To rouse to anger.

PREACHING IN THESSALONICA.

He was there for some time, supporting himself by work 1 Thess. 2:9. 2 Thess 3:6-10 though helped by donations from the Philippian Ecclesia Phil. 4:16 who doubtless recalled with gratitude how he had suffered on their account 1 Thess. 2:1-2. He taught them the facts concerning the two advents of the Lord Acts 17:3. 2 Thess 2:1-2. 1 Thess 4:13-4. 1:10 as well as events leading to the 2nd Coming 2 Thess. 2:5.

Paul's demeanour. Preaching with power and full conviction of Truth 1 Thess 1:5. with unflinching courage 1 Thess. 2:2. Scorning the use of flattery but plainly declaring the issues involved 1 Thess. 2:3-4. Seeking no material advantage of them, but scrupulously maintaining an honourable blameless character among them 1 Thess. 2:5, 10. Warning, rebuking, caring for them as a father or a nurse 1 Thess. 2:11, 7 (actually as a nursing mother). He was as a friend ready to lay down his life 1 Thess. 2:8. As the shepherd caring for the flock 1 Thess. 2:11. No record is given of Paul ever visiting the city though he desired to do so 1 Thess. 2:17-18. He may have done so on his 2nd and 3rd visits to Macedonia Acts 20:1-3. or during the visit recorded in 1 Tim. 1:3.

22 Athens was filled with temples and statues including sculptured forms of Minerva, Jupiter, Apollo, Mercury, Bacchus etc.

23 The Agora. An open square in the city - the meeting place of philosophy, idleness, conversation & business. There gathered orators, statesmen, poets, philosophers. Perhaps Paul imagined that the religious character of the city provided some hope for the Truth.

2 DISPUTING WITH PHILOSOPHERS. vv 18-21.

24 Philosophy of Materialism. Derived from Epicurus B.C. 342-271. Object - find in Philosophy a practical guide to happiness. Pleasure - not absolute truth was the end at which he aimed; experience - not reason the test on which he relied. This degenerated into mere materialism (Under) - Philosophy of self-indulgence.

25 Philosophy of pride. "The morality of Stoicism was based on pride, on individual independence, the issue of fate (Unger). Reason was the god worshipped, & actions contrary to it were evil. We must conquer our own sins. There is no place for either sorrow or Resurrection. See Conybeare & Howson.

26 Spermologos. Seed picker. Fig. for man used to hanging about markets collecting scraps which fell from loads. - thus a retailer of scraps of information gathered from others, a plagiarist.

27 Sig. The Hill of Ares, the god of war. Latin name. Greek in margin. A bare rock 377 ft high NW. West of Acropolis. Steps cut in rock lead to rock hewn seats, where court met. A court where often matters educational & religious were discussed. There seems no judicial proceedings as far as Paul was concerned - they could have retired there as a convenient place for quiet discussion.

3 PAUL'S ADDRESS: THE UNKNOWN GOD vv 22-31.

28 Deisidaimon. - deido to fear. daimon, a demon. Diog. "Extremely devoted to the worship of demons." A statement that could be taken in either a good or bad sense.

29 There is no knowledge of this though there were ofters to abstract idols, such as Fame, Modesty, Energy, Pity etc.

30 Creator - Father

31 He is a Father

32 He is Almighty

33 Dwelling in heaven. Isa. 66:1-2.

34 Therapeuo - To wait upon, mentally. RV "served." As though dependent upon them. As the idols were upon Athenians 35 From the unity of God he discourses upon the unity of man. "Blood" is omitted in Diag. RV. "Hath made of one" i.e. Adam. All have sprung from one source.

IN ATHENS Paul is master of the situation. His versatility is shown in that he is equally at home in disputing in the school of Tyrannus Acts 19:9 as among the sophisticated philosophers of the city of Socrates.

PAUL'S LECTURE: TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.

1 He is the Creator, Almighty (Lord) and dwells in heaven, V.24.
2 He is not dependent on man, but rather the Giver of life so that man is dependent on Him V.25.
3 He created Adam from whom all have sprung and He guides the destiny of nations V.26 so all mankind have opportunity to hear Truth.
4 Though God is always near witnessed by nature V.27-28.
5 As His offspring we should recognise & worship Him V.29.
6 The command now goes forth to heed & in view of the Divine purpose it is imperative to do so V.30-31.

36 The times of the rise & fall of nations is determined by God. Dan 4:17. Heb 11:2. Ps 102:13 "God hath given thee" Dan 2:37,39,44. 7:14. 8:13. 11:27,35. 12:6-7. Hos 6:2. 12. Rev. 13:7. "Known unto God ..." Acts 15:18. Isa. 46:9-10.

37 Pselaphao - To grope like a blind man. God is very near to man & has left abundant witness in his many gifts, yet through the blindness of the heathen Gn 2:3 they had to grope uncertainly toward Him - hence the need of a revelation as in V.40.

38 Aratus of Tarsus. 270 BC. uses the exact words. Cleanthes of Assos (100 BC) = similar words.

39 If we are His offspring then obviously He lives. Cp the withering sarcasm of Isaiah Isa 44:9-17.

40 Luke 24:47. 1 Tim 2:1-2. Rom. 10:13. Mark 16:15-16.

41 THE TIME. Cp Note 36. Cp Ps 75:2.

42 THE PURPOSE. Dan 7:9-12. 12:1. Rev. 20:4. 19:1. Cp Jer. 9:23-24.

43 THE PERSON. This is his title as Judge. Acts 2:22. John 5:27. Mt. 26:24. Dan. 7:13. Ps. 2:4.

44 THE PROMISE. Gk Diag. "furnished a proof."

45 THE PROOF. Cp Acts 10:40-42. Matt. 26:64. Rev. 5:5-6.

"JUDGE BY THAT MAN" Known from ancient execute judgement. By" = en, in that man. Yahweh manifested in a Man (manifestation) Dan 10:5-6. Rev. 1:13-16. Isa. 9:1-7. 42:13-14. A man of war Exod. 15:3. Yahweh the Judge Jud. 11:27. Judge in righteousness Ps. 9:8.

4 THE MOCKING ATHENIANS. Vs 32-34.

46 The doctrine was ridiculed alike by the Stoics and Epicureans.

47 Chleuazo - to jest, jeer, ridicule.

48 He left the assembly sitting on the stone benches in the Areopagus, and descended the steps to the city.

49 The God of Wine. He was eminent in Athens for his literary ability - had studied first at Athens, then at Heliopolis in Egypt (Lunger). His conversion would make an impression.

50 Gentle. She must have been very prominent in Athenian life to have been singled out for mention like this. Cp V.4

51 So a good work was effected, & an Ecclesia established. But the results were not as spectacular as elsewhere. The university environment was not a fruitful one for the Truth. Even the synagogue was apparently influenced by this spirit. It was evidently too weak to persecute Paul & too weak to make proselytes among the Greeks. V.17.

The household of Stephanas baptised 1 Cor. 1:16.

Paul preacheth at Corinth.

The times of the Gentiles. Deut 32:7-8. Permit all to hear Truth.

36 the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;
27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:
28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. — Cp Luke 1:33

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. (Diag. "overlooked")

30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: See Note Ch 13:32

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. (appointed)

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them. (Removed him or sought him out)
34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them. A member of the Supreme Court

CHAPTER 18.

2nd Journey. See Ch 15:36

3 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinth. 9 He is encouraged in a vision: 12 accused before Gallio, but dismissed. 24 Apollos preacheth Christ with great efficacy.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth; (Alone, by land & sea. 1 Thes. 3:1-2)
2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them. (1 Cor. 4:6-17. 2 Cor. 11:6-10. Phil. 4:15)
3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.
4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. (Cp Ch. 17:15. Note 20) (1 Cor. 1:16. 2 Cor. 11:9)
5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. (Ch 2:23 Note)
6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. (Cp Acts 9:15. 13:46. 22:21. 26:17. 28:28.)
7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.
8 And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were baptized. Notice the gradation.
9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace: 15 16
10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city. (A quiet period of 18 months. He was there longer. Ch 18:18)
11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
12 ¶ And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat,
13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.
14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio

4 INSURRECTION BEFORE GALLIO. Vs 12-17

17 RV = Proconsul. An inscription from Delphi indicates that he arrived in the summer 51. It is inscribed by Claudius to "Lucius Junius Gallio, my friend & the proconsul of Achaia." This fixes place shortly after. See also the N.T. "Unknown"

Paul had a greater affection for this Ecclesia than most others. 2 Cor. 2:4

5 IN CORINTH. Vs 1-17

For conditions in the city see Introduction to 1 Cor. 4 top p. 191. Paul arrived lonely, dispirited, sick 1 Cor. 2:3. He was deeply concerned with the Ecclesias he had left behind 1 Thess. 3 and anxiously awaited the coming of Silas & Timothy, to receive the comfort of the news they brought 1 Thess. 3:6. But he arrived with iron will, determined to preach the Gospel and refusing to concede to Grecian philosophy 1 Cor. 2:1-5. He found a city governed by the flesh 1 Cor. 3:1. Financially assisted by Macedonians. 2 Cor. 11:9

1 CO-OPERATING WITH AQUILA & PRISCILLA

V.1

FIRST AND SECOND THESSALONIANS WERE WRITTEN

DECREE OF CLAUDIUS.

Suetonius mentions that the decree was in consequence of numerous disturbances & riots among the Jews at the instigation of Chrestus. He assigns this to the Emperor's 9th year, approx. A.D. 49. (Archaeology & the N.T. clinch). Many have identified Chrestus with Christos & as Romans did not discriminate between Jews & Christians believe that the disturbances were due to the clash between the synagogue & the Ecclesia. But one would imagine that if that were so Luke would have indicated it, or at least have stated that Aquila & Priscilla were believers.

CORINTH Standing on the bridge of its double sea, its two harbors – Lechaeum on the Corinthian and Cenchreae on the Saronic Gulf – instantly attracted the commerce of the east and west. Jews and Greeks flocked to the Roman Colony. Wealth poured into the city. Splendid building enriched with pillars of marble and porphyry, and adorned with gold and silver began to arise to grace the city. The products of the world found their way into its marts. With wealth came sophistication, self-indulgence, intellectual restlessness, & profligacy. Corinth became the Sodom of Macedonia, catering for every form of vice, and every variety of pleasure: Wild beast fights 1 Cor 15:32. the modern stadium with its games – racing 1 Cor. 9:24 boxing v.27 – the fading glory of athletic prowess. 1 Cor. 9:25. It was a city of gross immorality. From it he wrote his frightful description of paganism Rom. 1:21-32.

19 Probably because he had newly arrived & possibly would desire to placate the influential Jewish element.

20 Berro, a step. The tessalated pavement where the proconsul sat in his chair of office.

21 Gallio completely ignored Paul. He did not want to hear any defence. He was right but firm.

22 He ignominiously dismissed them, the lictors clearing the court.

23 RV: "And they all laid hold on.." i.e. the bystanders took their revenge on the Jews.

24 In all, he must have remained in Corinth nearly 2 yrs. & v. 11.

25 Aquila mentioned first – she probably the driving force.

26 Heiro, a diff. word to kuraō Acts 21:24. The former = To cut, or shear. The latter = To shave. This word used LXX for shaving head Nazarite. Paul's action, therefore, not a concession to Mosaic ordinance, but in accordance to custom at the termination of a vow.

27 Euche = prayer, wish. "He had this on him" & had now terminated. & probably had relation to this 2nd Journey, now at Cenchreae, at an end. The cutting off of his hair was probably a token that in fulfilment of his work was complete. In spite of all difficulties, the Gospel had been successfully performed.

34 Sig. The Sun. His preaching raised a party in Corinth. 1 Cor. 1:12; 3:4, 5, 6, 22. 4:6. Paul had all confidence in him 1 Cor. 16:12, Co-operating with him 1 Cor. 3:6 & calling on Titus to assist Tit. 3:13.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went [d] into the synagogue, and [e] spake boldly for the space of three months, [f] disputing and [g] persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But when divers were hardened, and [h] believed not, but spake evil of [i] that way before the multitude, he departed [k] from them, and separated the [q] disciples, [f] disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of [l] two years; so that all they which dwelt in [x] Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought special [y] miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So that [z] from his body were brought unto the sick [a] handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the vagabond [17] Jews, [k] exorcists, [l] took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and [m] chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at [p] Ephesus; and [q] fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that [u] they be no gods, which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is [b] in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and [c] the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

IN THE SCHOOL OF TYRANNUS 192

"Public life in the Ionian cities ended regularly at the fifth hour (11 a.m.);... thus Paul himself would be free, & the lecture room would be disengaged after the 5th hour; and the time which was generally devoted to home life and rest, was spent by him to mission work" (Ramsay - Paul, p. 231)

Tyrannus was perhaps a teacher of philosophy or rhetoric. Some believe that he was converted, but if that had been the case, surely Luke would have indicated it.

PROBLEMS IN CORINTH v. 22.

Paul instructed Timothy to visit Corinth 1 Cor. 4:17, but when he learned how serious were the problems, & how belligerent the opposition, he sent a messenger after him countermanding the instructions & despatched the more rugged Titus to deal with the situation. (2 Cor. 8:16-17). Meanwhile, he warned the Corinthians, that if Timothy did arrive, to be careful how they treated him. 1 Cor. 16:10-11. Naturally as a substitute for Paul they might be disposed to ignore him as unacceptable which would hurt his sensitive disposition 1 Tim 4:12 2 Tim 1:6-8

THE COLLECTION IN CORINTH

Titus met up with Paul in Philippi 2 Cor. 7:5-7, 15-15 about 5-6 months after 1st Epistle written. Meanwhile a collection arranged throughout Macedonia (2 Cor. 8:1), the initial preparations for which had previously been made at Corinth (2 Cor. 9:2) though through strained relations with Paul it had lagged. Titus despatched from Philippi to renew [illegible] after Paul's visit to

PAUL'S THREE YEARS IN EPHESUS

Ephesus became a centre of Apostolic labor that spread throughout all Asia Acts 19:10. The briefest comment is made by Luke to the period, and much further detail remains to be filled in. The Apostle apparently made short visits to other parts as necessity required, including Corinth and Macedonia

Familiar Friends With Paul

- On arrival at Ephesus, Paul would have renewed acquaintance with Aquila and Priscilla, and probably would have been employed by Aquila. They were at Ephesus at the time and it could have been that Paul lodged with them, so that their house became a centre of activity in the Truth 1 Cor. 16:19
- Titus was with Paul 2 Cor. 8:23. Titus Introd., and by the time 1 Corinthians was written, Apollos had likewise returned from Corinth 1 Cor. 16:12. These with those mentioned in Acts 19:22 made a splendid band of dedicated workers.
- Luke was still apparently at Philippi (cp Acts 16:10 with 17:1) subsequently joining the Apostle at Troas Acts 20:5. Luke's presence at Philippi could have been partly the cause of that Ecclesia's loving and generous interest in the welfare of Paul.

Contending In The Synagogue

- Paul's first approach was to the Jews. Acts 17:2. Three months of contention and debate found some hardened, others dispersed to believe. This division in their ranks angered the Jews of the synagogue, who thereupon publicly calumniated the teaching of the Apostle in such a blasphemous way, that he separated the believers into an Ecclesia, and obtained the School of Tyrannus as a centre for the proclamation of the Gospel.
- In addition, the Apostle engaged in a house to house preaching campaign Acts 20:20.

Condition Of The Apostle

- "A great door and effectual is opened unto me," he wrote (1 Cor. 16:8-9), "and there are many enemies."
- He engaged in an earnest, incessant, laborious, house-to-house ministry of fear Acts 20:18-35. Though greatly blessed, it was a time of overwhelming trial, sickness, persecution and misery which sometimes brought him near to death 1 Cor. 4:9-13. Giving himself completely to the Truth, he had little time to care for his own requirements, and was frequently in desperate need 1 Cor. 4:11, enduring defamation and reviling for Christ's sake.
- Though in need, he refused the charity of the Ecclesia, though he could rightly have claimed it 1 Cor. 9:11-15, Acts 20:33-34, 1 Cor. 16:2. The Gospel was without charge 1 Cor. 9:18, 2 Cor. 11:20-21.
- It was a period of weariness and painfulness, of sleepless nights of mingled toil and danger 2 Cor. 11:27, of constant anxiety as the care of Ecclesias rested heavily upon him V 28-29. "He was like a general on a battlefield, with his eye on every weak or endangered part; while his heart was constantly rent by news of the defection of those for whom he would gladly have laid down his life" (Farrer). Hated, threatened, perplexed, persecuted, depressed, homeless, buffeted, destitute, abused, slandered, and yet sustained by a tremendous faith 1 Cor. 4:11-13, 2 Cor. 4:8-9, without which he would have been "of all men the most miserable" 1 Cor. 15:19.
- His life was daily in jeopardy, so that figuratively, he had fought with wild beasts in Ephesus 1 Cor. 15:32, in the realisation that this life is temporary and a great future awaits him. Thus he was "a spectacle unto death" 1 Cor. 4:9-11, 2 Cor. 11:21-28, 6:4-5.
- He was particularly hated by the Jews who frequently tried to attack him physically Acts 20:19 so that he endured buffeting 1 Cor. 4:11. Evidently some of the persecution to which he makes reference in 2 Cor. 11:24-28 took place at this time.
- "Many saints of God have toiled, and suffered, and travelled, and preached, and been executed, and imprisoned in the cause of Christ. Singly they tower above the vulgar herd of selfish and comfortable men; but yet the collective labors of some of their greatest would not equal, nor would their collective sufferings furnish a parallel to those of Paul and very few have been what he was - a great thinker and expositor of the Word, as well as a devoted practical worker in the Truth" (Amended).
- In tribulation, suffering, affliction, sickness, almost complete despair 2 Cor. 1:4-10.
- In his agony, he sought the co-operation of others through their prayers 2 Cor. 1:11, constantly himself besought Yahweh to remove his "thorn in the flesh" 2 Cor. 12:7-9.
- Much affliction and anguish of heart through Ecclesial problems. 2 Cor. 2:1-4, 6:6-10.
- Yet found time to organise a collection on behalf of the poor at Jerusalem 2 Cor. 8:1-6, 9:1-15.
- Manifested a driving urge to perform the work of preaching that could not be assuaged 1 Cor. 9:16.
- Was thoughtful and considerate of others; striving to appreciate the standpoint of both Jews and Gentiles, meeting both on their own grounds 1 Cor. 9:20-23.
- In spite of all frustrations and bitter disappointment, he maintained clear and certain objectives 1 Cor. 9:25-26.
- His teaching was in sincerity and simplicity 2 Cor. 1:12.

Paul's Journeyings From Ephesus

- This is implied in Acts 19:10 - "all in Asia" (cp also Col. 1:23) and is directly stated in regard to his visit to Corinth, 2 Cor. 12:14, 13:1.
- He also apparently visited Macedonia (1 Tim. Intr.).
- Thus, evidently making Ephesus his headquarters, he made short trips to other places which Luke has not seen fit to record. Some of these journeys probably fit into the adventures recorded in 2 Cor. 11:25-26.

Ecclesial Problems for Paul - Visitors & Emissaries

- Chloe with a distressing report on the divided state of the Corinthian Ecclesia 1 Cor. 1:11 probably to Ephesus or household of Chloe. 1 Cor. 16:17.
- Stephanas, Fortunatus, Achaicus with a letter posing a number of questions 1 Cor. 16:17.
- These brethren would be subjected to close questioning so that Paul would ascertain the true state of the Ecclesia.
- Apollos in Ephesus refused to return to Corinth 1 Cor. 16:12.
- Titus, with an unnamed Brother sent to Corinth from Ephesus (2 Cor. 8:16-19) and later from Philippi.
- Timothy left in charge at Ephesus whilst Paul absent 1 Tim. 1:3. Later sent to Macedonia with general instructions to make for Corinth if possible 1 Cor. 4:17, 16:10, Acts 19:22. Erastus sent with him.
- Hymenaeus and Alexander disfellowshipped 1 Tim. 1:20.
- In Ephesus, a large Ecclesia was formed over which many elders were called to preside Acts 20:17, 1 Timothy.
- Other Ecclesias were established in Asia, whether through journeys made by Paul, or by those with whom he came in contact, such as Epaphras, Archippus & Philemon, in places such as Laodicea, Colosse, Hierapolis. Col. 1:7; 4:12-17, Philemon 23. Whether Paul visited them or not, he was of sufficient repute to appeal to in times of difficulty.

Epistles Written from Ephesus.

- Paul wrote 1 Corinthians from Ephesus, and before this a short epistle of warning 1 Cor. 5:9 to supplement a brief, hurried visit he had made to Corinth 2 Cor. 12:14, 13:1. He may also have announced therein his plan to visit Corinth on his way to Macedonia, and again on his return towards Jerusalem 1 Cor. 16:5-6, 2 Cor. 1:15-16 - a plan that circumstances and his feeling for the brethren caused him to change 2 Cor. 1:23.

Special Miracles At Ephesus.

- Acts 19:11-12. These would make particular impact in Ephesus, for the city was notorious for exorcism (cp Ver. 13-17) and magical writes of healing V 18-19. The unusual success attending the miracles of Paul, caused many to recognise a Divine power with him, and thus turn to the Truth from superstition.

The Riot At Ephesus.

- The goddess Diana of the Ephesians was a crude idol quite unlike the goddess of the same name worshipped by the Greeks. The idol was supposed to have fallen down from heaven Acts 19:35. Mysterious symbols called "Ephesian letters" were engraven on crown, girdle and feet of the goddess, and were used as a charm to heal those possessed of demons when written and carried about as amulets.
- The study of these [redacted] symbols was an elaborate science, and books both numerous and costly, were compiled by its professors Acts 19:19.
- Paul's miracles therefore were the remote cause of the riot & the reason why given such prominence in the narrative.

Diana of the Ephesians.

- Diana is the Latin name, Artemis is the Greek (Str.). The Artemis of the Greeks and Romans was an elegant idol, and a goddess of

The Roman policy was one of religious federation subject to the acknowledgment of the divine majesty of Rome incarnate in human form of the Emperor [illegible]

9 Cp Acts 11:1-4. At Philippi, Paul again met up with Luke who now accompanied the Apostle.

10 The winds were evidently unfavourable, as previously it only took 2 days Acts 16:11-12.

Paul acknowledged that "a great door & effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries 1 Cor. 16:8,9. In the synagogue there must have been many an anxious moment, many a bitter struggle and exciting debate before the opposition became so fierce and blasphemous as to cause Paul to withdraw with those who would leave with him, and hiring the school of Tyrannus, establish the headquarters of the Ecclesia there.

DIRE TROUBLE IN ASIA From Ephesus Paul went to Troas 2 Cor. 2:12, and then to Philippi Acts 20:1. Whilst in Asia, he found himself in mortal danger from which [illegible] him at the [illegible]

"Diana of the Ephesians," however, was not a Greek divinity but Asiatic. Thus eunuchs were employed in her worship - a practise foreign to Greek ideas. Unlike the Greek goddess, she was not regarded as a virgin, but as mother and foster-mother, as is clearly shown by the multitude of breasts in the rude effigy. She was undoubtedly a representation of the same power presiding over conception and birth which was adored in Palestine under the name of Ashtoreth. Her worship, frantic and fanatical after the manner of Asia, was traced back to the Amazons.

The temple at Ephesus was one of the wonders of the world, but its great glory was the "image which fell down from Jupiter" Acts 19:35. Images claiming to [illegible] are to be found in other cities than Ephesus. Once in the year there was a public festival in honor of the goddess at Ephesus, to which all the Ionians who could do so repaired with their families bringing rich presents for the priests. Great gain came to the silversmiths in making and selling small images of the goddess Acts 19:24.

Diana of the Greeks and Romans was a virgin. Diana of the Ephesians was a Mother goddess. She was represented with all the attributes of the Mother of the gods, and as the Mother of the gods she wore a turreted crown, such as no one can contemplate without being forcibly reminded of the tower of Babel. Now this tower-bearing Diana is by an ancient scholiast expressly identified with Semiramis, ... worshipped under the name of Rhea, "The Lady." (The Two Babylons, "Alex. Hislop. p. 10).

WHO WAS ALEXANDER?

The Alexander of Acts 19:33 was evidently a clever man and eloquent speaker, and as such was put forward by the Jews in order that it might be made clear that they had no part in the work and teaching of Paul. There was, at that time, a tendency on the part of others to confuse the two religions.

His intercession however, did not avail. He was not permitted to make his defence. In fact, the riot intensified as doubtless the people mistook his intensions and thought he was about to defend Paul. They were roused to a frenzy and for about 2 hours kept up a chant to the honor of Artemis.

Who was Alexander?

Paul, already, had moved against an Alexander on the ground of heresy and had disfellowshipped him 1 Tim. 1:20, and the context suggests that the heresy was that of Judaism. This could have been the same one mentioned in Acts; and the "worker in brass" who testified against Paul in Rome 2 Tim. 4:14.

THE TOWN CLERK

He was obviously a man of ability and intelligence and by the use of those attributes was able to pacify the people and quell the riot. His speech was effective, and may be analysed thus.

1. The riot was undignified inasmuch as Ephesians were above suspicion in their worship of Diana 19:35-36.
2. It was unjustified seeing no charge of sacrilege could be urged or established against the men whom they accused 19:37.
3. It was unwarranted as there were legal means of redress open to Demetrius or others who felt they had been wronged 19:38-39.
4. Finally, if neither pride nor a sense of justice moved them their action was most unwise for the Romans might well move against them for such unseemly behavior. V. 40.

PAUL'S CHANGE OF PLANS

Paul left Ephesus, went to Troas, thence to Macedonia and on to Greece (Corinth). 2 Cor. 2:12, Acts 20:1-2. This was not the route he originally intended to take. Confusion has arisen because two plans are mentioned in Epistles to the Corinthians. The case may be stated thus:

(1) Original plan. This is given in explanation in 1 Cor. 16:5-6 and the suggested route was Ephesus, Corinth, Macedonia, Corinth, Judea. The plan had been arranged before 1 Corinthians had been written & probably conveyed to the Ecclesia in the last Epistle. The reason for the change of plans was to give them opportunity to repent 2 Cor. 1:23.

(2) Ultimate plan. Before Paul wrote 1 Corinthians, or whilst he was writing it he decided on another order for his visits as outlined in 1 Cor. 4:5-6 which is the route he took as per Acts 20:1. It could have been that during this journey he suffered one of the shipwrecks mentioned 2 Cor. 11:25.

PAUL IN MACEDONIA Acts 20:1-2

These Ecclesias were noted for "their deep poverty" (2 Cor. 8:2-3) and their extreme generosity. Thus Paul warned the Thessalonians against indiscriminate bounty 2 Thess. 3:10-11. For evidences of their liberality, see Phil. 4:15; 2 Cor. 11:8-9, 12:13-14. They were liberal not only in money but in service, giving themselves without stint 2 Cor. 8:5; Acts 20:4; 27:2; Col. 4:10. Consider Epaphroditus Phil. 2:30 and Luke Acts 16:10-40, 20:6. See also Acts 20:13.

"GONE OVER THOSE PARTS" ACTS 20:2.

Paul's ministry included a visit to Illyricum Rom. 15:19-20, also known as Dalmatia. Evidently Ecclesias were founded, and Titus was later sent there 2 Tim. 4:10. At this time, he planned to take the Gospel beyond these parts, as far west as Spain Rom. 15:24, 2 Cor. 10:15-16.

PAUL'S ILLNESS

The constant labor, frequent persecution, and fretting anxiety left their mark on the Apostle. He writes of depression, trouble and sickness 2 Cor. 1:5-10, 2 Cor. 2:13, of a "thorn in the flesh" which he pleaded in vain to be removed. 2 Cor. 12:7-10. He saw himself & the other Apostles as an object lesson of patience and suffering endurance unto all other believers 1 Cor. 4:9.

5 PAUL IN TROAS 20:7-12.

1 A MEETING WITH THE BRETHREN 20:7

It is sometimes alleged that this was the "first sabbath" after Passover, and that the brethren only met once a year for communion on that day. But Paul had waited in Philippi for the eight days of unleavened bread, and a further week in Troas after 5 days, at Ephesus.

1 This commenced 6 o'clock Saturday, the time Christ rose & thus most appropriate for this purpose. The Apostles attended the synagogue on the 7th day Acts 17:2 and met with the brethren on the 8th day 1 Cor. 16:2 See Rev. 1:10 which implies a stated time. See also Rom. 14:5-10, 24.

Justin Martyr wrote: "On the day which is called Sunday, all who dwell in town or country come together to one place. The memoirs of the Apostles and the writings of the prophets are read for a certain time, & then the president of the meeting, when the reader has stopped, makes a discourse, in which he instructs and exhorts the people to the imitation of the good deeds of which they have just heard. We then all rise up together, and address prayers; and when our prayers are ended, bread and wine and water are brought and the president, to the best of his ability, offers up both prayers & thanksgiving, and the people assent, saying, "Amen." And then the distribution of the bread and wine, over which the thanksgivings have been offered, is made to all present, and all partake of it."

2 EUTYCHUS IS RAISED TO LIFE 20:8-12

12 This could make the crowded room even hotter & induce sleep more readily.

1 Cor. 16:20-11. Naturally as a substitute for Paul they might be disposed to ignore him as unacceptable which would hurt his sensitive disposition 1 Tim. 1:2, 2 Tim. 1:2-3.

It was probably festival time & great crowds would be gathered together. See Opp.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Paul goeth to Macedonia: 7 celebrateth the Lord's supper, and preacheth. 10 Eutychus is raised to life. 17 Paul's charge to the elders of Ephesus.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus.

5 These going before tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

THE COLLECTION IN CORINTH

Titus met up with Paul in Philippi 2 Cor. 7:5-7, 15-16 about 5-6 months after 1st Epistle written. Meanwhile a collection arranged throughout Macedonia (2 Cor. 8:1), the initial preparations for which had previously been made at Corinth (2 Cor. 9:2) though through strained relations with Paul it had lagged. Titus despatched from Philippi to receive it with two companions (Luke?) (2 Cor. 8:6, 16, 23). After Paul's visit to Corinth, the deputation left bearing the gift. Acts 20:4.

CHAPTER 20

Paul's troubles were accentuated towards the close of his stay in Ephesus (2 Cor. 1:8-11). Time: Approx Pentecost 1 Cor. 16:8

4 THREE MONTHS IN GREECE vv 1-6

1 PAUL SEEKS TITUS V.1.

1 He was deeply concerned over set conditions in the Ecclesia in Corinth, and went in search for Titus to receive his report. En route he was delayed at Troas 2 Cor. 2:12-13. He then continued to M.

2 An indication of his warmth of nature.

Paul went first to Troas when he was delayed, then on to Macedonia & prob. Philippi where he was at ultimately was visited by Titus. See Intr. 2 Cor.

Paul also here met up with Timothy. Acts 19:22. 2 Cor. 1:1

2 VISITS MACEDONIA Chap 8

3 He evidently revisited all the Macedonian Ecclesias, at the same time taking up a collection for the impoverished believers of Jerusalem. Cp 2 Cor. 8:1-5, 9:1-5

2 Cor. 2:13 This would have occupied several months in addition to the 3 months in Greece. See opp.

Titus is first sent on his 2nd mission to Corinth with two brethren. He arranges for a collection for the poor and bears with him.

2 CORINTHIANS WRITTEN FROM MACEDONIA Cp 2 Cor. 8:6 & 16-24 9:1-5.

3 LEAVES FOR JERUSALEM VIA TROAS Vv 3b-6

RV: "And a plot was laid against him by the Jews..." The details are not revealed but they were sufficient to make him change his plans and instead of travelling direct to Jerusalem Rom. 15:25-27 to return via Macedonia and Troas.

7 Savior of a father. By some identified with Sopater Rom. 16:21. In some MSS, however, he is distinguished by the added comment: "the son of Pyrrhus."

8 "Of Derbe" distinguishes him from Acts 14:20. Cp Rom. 16:23.

9 Cp Acts 16:13 Ac. At Philippi, Paul again met up with Luke who now accompanied the Apostle.

10 The winds were evidently unfavorable, as previously it only took 2 days. Acts 16:11.

CERTAIN OF THE CHIEF OF ASIA

193 "Asiarchs. Gr. Asiarches. These were persons of wealth and position chosen to preside over the public festivals and games, and defray the expenses. About this time a decree was passed that the month Artemisius, named after the goddess, should be wholly devoted to festivals in her honor. The decree is extant, and opens with words that sound like an echo of V.31." Camp Bible.

"The Asiarchs, or High Priests of Asia, were the heads of the imperial, political-religious organisation of the province in the worship of 'Rome and the Emperors'; and their friendly attitude is a proof both that the spirit of the imperial policy was not as yet hostile to the new teaching, and that the educated classes did not share the hostility of the superstitious vulgar to Paul. Doubtless some of the Asiarchs had, in the ordinary course of dignity, previously held priesthood of Artemis or other city deities; and it is quite possible that up to the present time even the Ephesian priests were not at all hostile to Paul. The eclectic religion, which was fashionable at the time, regarded new forms of cult with equanimity, almost with friendliness; and the growth of each new superstition only added to the influence of Artemis and her priests." W.M. Ramsay: Paul the Traveller & the Roman Citizen

The Roman policy was one of religious toleration subject to the paramount claim of the divine majesty of Rome incarnate in human form in the Emperor. [illegible] Jesus is hailed.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him, said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had [d] broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and [m] the next day we came to [n] Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by [p] Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, [q] to be at Jerusalem [r] the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called [s] the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, [t] from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me [u] by the lying in wait of the Jews:

20 And how [v] I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house,

21 [w] Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, [x] repentance toward God, and faith toward [y] our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit [z] unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that [a] the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, [b] saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But [c] none of these things move [d] me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might [e] finish my course with joy, and [f] the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that [g] I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For [h] I have not shunned to declare unto you all [i] the counsel of God.

28 ¶ [j] Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all [k] the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you [l] overseers, to feed the church of God, which he [m] hath [n] purchased [o] with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall [p] grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also [q] of your own selves shall men arise, speaking [r] perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore [s] watch, and remember, that by the space of [t] three years I ceased not to

RAISING OF EUTYCHUS

See the parallel with Peter's miracle p. 163.

In this case the raising of Eutychus would be a solemn and significant introduction to the partaking of the emblems, as emphasising the power & love of God.

14 The discourse long, and the over-heated air induced by the large company, over-crowded room, and many lights caused him through weakness of flesh to fall asleep.

§ JOURNEY TO MILETUS. Vv. 13-16.

20 It is approx. 24 m. by land, though further by sea around Cape Lectum. Paul possibly desired the solitude for meditation, that such a walk would provide.

21 The capital of the island of Lesbos. It possessed a deep and spacious harbor on its north coast.

22 An island, divided from the mainland by a narrow strait. Omitted by Vat. Mss. It is "the rocky extremity of the ridge of mycale, on the Ionian coast, between which and the southern extremity of Samos the channel is barely a mile wide." (Speakers' Comm.). RV omits.

23 An important commercial and maritime centre about twenty eight miles south of Ephesus, on the south-west coast of the Gulf of Latmos. This has since silted up, however, so that today Miletus is about 8 miles inland.

24 Chronotribeo. Chronos, time. tribas, to rub, to wear out. Thus to waste time, spending it needlessly.

JERUSALEM 21:15.

Paul journeyeth to Jerusalem.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him license, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

22 Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;

18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that I might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

23 And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so spoken, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both these and those.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read it, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.

24 And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:

15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the more often, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

25 Now when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Caesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Caesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have license to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that after examination had I may have something to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

26 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to become a Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Caesar.

27 And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone;

8 And hardly passing it came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter, which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under color as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmovable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

28 And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.

12 And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.

18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto Caesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Judaea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

PAUL'S DETAILED REPORT V 19

It was an impressive account to render. Since he last "saluted the Ecclesia" Ch. 18:22 he had consolidated his labors in Galatia + Phrygia Ch. 18:23, had established an Ecclesia at Ephesus, had strengthened the brethren in Asia, Macedonia + Achaia, had vigorously corrected heresy and wrong conduct, had taken up alms for Jewish disciples, had helped Ecclesias at Miletus, Tyre, Acre and [illegible] Caesarea. The report would include an outline of the activities of the Judaisers, and the pernicious influence of some who had spread this theory from Judea 1 Cor 1:12 There were those who were spreading malicious lies about Paul to discredit him in the eyes of those zealous of the Law. Therefore after Paul completed his report the elders made a suggestion as to how this could be countered.

7 JOURNEY'S END: AT JERUSALEM. Vv 15-16

28 Old Eng. for what is carried.
29 They probably conducted him there for safety bearing in mind the ominous prophecy of Agabus.
30 Diag. "Conducting us to"
31 Sig. "Reminding" (Unger)
Probably known to Barnabas who was also of Cyprus. Acts 4:36 and a disciple of long standing.

7 IN JERUSALEM V 17 - Ch. 23:30.

32 Wherever Paul went his warm spirit received encouragement from the affectionate regard he was held in by those of like faith. This helped in the face of troubles that likewise beset him. An evening was spent with his beloved brethren.
33 His companions - who bore the token of love from the Gentile Ecclesias. Rom 15:26-28
34 By probably a kiss of peace. 1 Thes 5:26
35 Gave a detailed account. RV: "Rehearsed one by one."

1 A REPORT FOR THE ELDERS Vv 17-19

Paul's authority stemmed from God Gal 1:1 and there was no condemnation upon him to make such a report. He did so because of his love for the brethren.

2 A REQUEST FROM THE ELDERS. Vv 20-25.

36 By acknowledging that Paul's labors were God-blessed Cp. Acts 11:18
37 Myriads - 10,000. An indication of successful preaching. Cp. Acts 17:6. This number not necessarily confined to Palestine.
38 Without seeing in it a means of justification.
39 The trouble-makers had been busy undermining the influence of Paul by spreading malicious lies.
40 On the contrary he taught that the Law is good. 1 Tim. 1:8 Rom. 7:12 and sometimes reasoned from the basis of the Law. 1 Cor. 9:9. 1 Tim. 5:18. The use of the Law was legitimate if it were used to illustrate the Heedless state of man + the will of God. Gal. 3:24.
41 Hagnismos denotes a ceremonial purification. It is found in LXX Num. 6:2,8 and suggests that Paul became a nazarite for 7 days. V 27.
42 Paul is called upon to assume the cost of their sacrifices involving 8 Lambs, 4 Rams besides oil, flour etc and his own offerings. It was the custom of some to bear such costs for poor Nazarites. Thus Josephus records that when Agrippa I arrived in Jerusalem to take possession of his throne: "On arriving at Jerusalem, he offered many sacrifices of thanksgiving: wherefore also he ordered that many of the Nazarites should have their heads shorn" Ant. 19:6:1 Of course Paul would not have connived at the suggestion of the elders if these 4 men imagined that justification was through the Law. He had circumcised Timothy Acts 16:3 taken upon himself a vow Acts 18:18 advised that converted Jews should remain as such outwardly 1 Cor. 7:17-19 and was prepared to conform where no principle of truth was jeopardised by so doing 1 Cor. 9:19-23. Cf. Gal 2:3-5.
43 Not as an agitator against Moses.
44 Such as in Rom. 2:14-15.

15 And after those days we took up our [b] carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.
16 There went with us also certain of the [c] disciples of [d] Cæsarea, and brought with them one Mnason of [f] Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge. AD. 58 See opp. p 184
17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, [h] the brethren [i] received us gladly.
18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto [m] James; and all [n] the elders were present.
19 And when he had saluted them, he [r] declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.
20 And when they heard it, they [x] glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law: (RV "have been")
21 And they [a] are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the [d] customs.
22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come. (Diag. "certainly")
23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have [h] a vow on them;
24 Them take, and [i] purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.
25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, [m] we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.
26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them [e] entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that [g] an offering should be offered for every one of them.
27 And when [k] the seven days were almost ended, [l] the Jews which were of [m] Asia, [n] when they saw him in the temple, [o] stirred up all the people, and [p] laid hands on him,
28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and [q] the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and [r] hath polluted this holy place.
29 (For they had seen before with him in the city [s] Trophimus an [b] Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)
30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and [c] they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.
31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto [t] the chief captain of the [f] band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.
32 [u] Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.
33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him [k] to be bound with [l] two chains; [6] and demanded who he was, and what he had done. (RV. "Inquired")
34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multi-

3 PAUL IN THE TEMPLE Vv 26-36

45 RV: "Declaring" This would be announced to the priest: Num 6:13-15 This was done apparently about 7 days before the termination of the period.
46 Including Paul! Normally 30 days was considered the minimum period for a vow, but the law itself specified no period. Paul limited his period to 7 days.
47 Evidently 7 days of preparation for the completion of the rites during which the Temple was visited, the offerings made ready + finally the head shaved.
48 Visiting Jerusalem for Pentecost Acts 20:16 They had manifested great hostility to Paul when in Asia Ch 19:9 but being a minority among Gentiles did not have the opportunity of injuring him as now presented itself.
49 Sunchoo - to confuse, stir up (Vine) They did this by agitating against Paul.
50 The accusation was completely false, was an echo of that charged against Stephen Ch. 6:13 as Paul doubtless recalled!
51 A furious multitude enraged beyond control rushed upon him.
52 Hieron. The Sacred place. The whole structure. They dragged him into the Court of the Gentiles + the heavy Gates, which separated that from the rest of the building were closed by the Levites.

4 RESCUED BY A Vv 31-40

53 They were doubtless assailing him with violent blows, probably dragging him to where they could stone him.
54 Chiliarchos. Commander of 1000 men. His name was Lysias Ch 23:26
55 Cohort. Diag. It formed the Roman garrison of the Tower of Antonia. See note Ch 23
56 His two hands chained to two soldiers. Cp. also Peter Ch 12:6.

PAUL'S AIM IN JERUSALEM He apparently hoped to unite more completely the Jewish & Gentile segments of the Ecclesia & apparently hoped that the gift he bore would assist to that end. See Note Rom 16:25. He knew that the Judaising faction had sent [redacted] emissaries into the Gentile Ecclesias 2 Cor 11:4,13 and the unscrupulous action of such in Jerusalem was early revealed to him. Beneath the external show of harmony Acts 21:20 there lurked elements of discord, which threatened to disturb it, and which Paul was anxious to overcome. If he could win over the Jewish Ecclesias, or at least avert their open hostility to himself, he would have accomplished much for the harmony of the Ecclesias and the diffusion of the Truth. This doubtless was his main reason for visiting Jerusalem.

1 Cor 15:9 1 Tim 1:13 Phil 3:6

tude: and when he could not know 57 the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into [c] the castle. 58

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people. 60

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, [g] Away with him. 61

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 [i] Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of [l] Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and [m] beckoned with the hand unto the people. [n] And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in [o] the Hebrew tongue, saying,

AD 58 Paul 12

CHAPTER 22.

1 Paul declareth the manner of his conversion. 22 Upon mention of the Gentiles, the people exclaim on him. 25 Being bound, he claimeth the privilege of a Roman.

(Apologia)

MEN, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my [p] defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in [q] the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: [r] and he saith,)

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city [s] at the feet of [t] Gamaliel, and taught according to [u] the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and [v] was zealous toward God, [w] as ye all are this day.

4 And [a] I persecuted [b] this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all [c] the estate of the elders: [d] from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 [e] And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? [g] And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest. (Diag)

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they [h] heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And [j] one Ananias, a [k] devout man according to the law, [l] having a good report of all the Jews which dwelt there, 13 [m] Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, [n] The God of our fathers hath [o] chosen thee, that thou shouldest [p] know his will, and [q] see that [r] Just One, and shouldest [s] hear the voice of his mouth.

12 Indicative of great emotional strain.

14 The sound of the holy tongue in that holy place fell like a calm on the troubled waters. The silence became universal & breathless and the Apostle proceeded to address his countrymen as follows: "(C & H)

THE TOWER OF ANTONIA 19

Named after Mark Antony and built by Herod, it was partly surrounded by a deep ditch 165 feet wide. It was situated to the north west of the Temple. Josephus records: "Its general appearance was that of a tower with other towers at each of its four corners. That at the south east angle rose to an elevation of seventy cubits, so that from thence there was a complete view of the Temple. Where it adjoined the colonnades of the Temple it had passages leading down to both through which the guards — for in the fortress there always lay a Roman legion — descended & disposed themselves about the colonnades in arms at the festivals, to watch the people, & repress any insurrectionary movement." (Bell. Jud. 5.5.8).

Vv. 14-16 are additional to Acts 9:17-18

15 For thou shalt be his [a] witness [b] unto all men of what [c] thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and [d] be baptized, and [d] wash away thy sins, [d] calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that, [e] when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in [f] a trance;

18 And [g] saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: [h] for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then [p] lifted up their voices, and said, [q] Away with such a fellow from the earth: for [r] it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into [s] the castle, and bade that he should be [t] examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a [u] Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum [v] obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have [w] examined him: and the chief captain also [x] was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from [y] his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their [z] council to appear, and brought Paul [a] down, and set him before them.

1 As Paul pleadeth his cause, 2 Ananias commandeth them to smite him. 11 God encourageth Paul. 14 The Jews lie in wait for him. 27 He is sent to Felix.

AND Paul, [a] earnestly beholding [b] the council, said, Men and brethren, I have [c] lived [d] in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest [e] Ananias commanded them that stood by him to [f] smite him on the mouth.

4 And [i] they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, [k] I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, [l] Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

(b) He Is Commanded To Preach To The Gentiles Vv 17-21

There was no disputing the facts of Paul's conversion. All one to government's to believe as he against the Christians should change instituted strong & powerful reasons for so doing - leading to the command to preach to the Gentiles.

20 Paul imagined his simple act of conversion would change others - but he, himself had been impervious to such influences at Acts 4:13-14

21 The Christians still frequented the synagogues. People were often beaten in synagogues as a warning to others Matt 10:18 but Paul evidently means that he took men into criminality from the synagogues everywhere.

Martus. Some word rendered "witness" v. 15. To witness to death if necessary. RV "witness."

Suneudokeo - pleased to consent. Rend. "have pleasure in" - Rom 1:32.

For all his knowledge of Jewry, Paul was altogether too naive, and did not consider the blindness of their bigotry.

This had earlier been conveyed through Ananias. Acts 9:15.

6 PAUL BEFORE THE CENTURION Vv 22-30

They gave way to signs of uncontrollable fury, angry gestures by which they made it clear that they would treat him as he had treated Stephen.

Not understanding Hebrew he did not know what the tumult was about.

Proteino = To stretch out before. They had stretched him on the stake to receive the lash.

Himas = the lash of the scourge. They had stretched him out ready to receive the scourge.

27 Dion Cassius (60. 17) records that Messalina the wife of Claudius used to sell the freedom of Rome. At first at a high price but later cheaply. Lysias implied he had paid much for the right & thus held it a lofty view. He possibly took the name Claudius in consequence. Ch. 23:26

31 The Hall Gazith, where the Sanhedrin met was not far from the Tower Antonia - but it was within the balustrade beyond which Gentiles must not go. If that the place of meeting the Centurion not permitted. They probably met some other place.

He looked steadily at them. Many had been fellow students at the school of Gamaliel; most would have been his associates in the Christian persecution.

Aphri - Continuedly "fixing the attention on the whole duration up to a certain time, but covering the future continuance undetermined." Bull. There was no boasting with Paul.

Because he claimed to live in good conscience yet proclaimed the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Ananias died in the siege by the dagger of the Sicarii (Josephus 2:17:9) He was deposed by Agrippa a toward the close of the governorship of Felix about 2 yrs after this incident.

He was dressed in priestly robes in the Presidents seat. Paul's vigorous temperament got the better of him.

There was constant change in those holding the office. For all Paul knew Ananias could have been the sagan or high priest's deputy.

He quickly detected that he would not receive justice from that council, and adroitly used the investigation personalities to teaching

ANANIAS

Sig. Protected of Yahweh. Said to be a violent, haughty, gluttonous man, yet respected by the Jews. He had probably lately returned from Rome, having apparently been confirmed in his office by Claudius, to whom Quadratus, the predecessor of Felix, had

Ananias (Cont.) sent him as a prisoner, to answer certain charges of sedition against him. He seems to have been high priest for the unusually long time of ten years. He was deposed shortly before Felix was recalled, and was finally assassinated - BC. 67. Unger

THE LORD'S CARE FOR HIS SLAVE ROM 1:1

A conspiracy (See Note Index)

and brethren, [9] I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: [10] of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. [11]

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided. (See Note p 68)

8 For the Sadducees [12] say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: [13] but the Pharisees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, [e] We find no evil in this man: but [f] if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, [14] let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded [i] the soldiers to [k] go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into [m] the castle.

11 And [n] the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for [o] as thou hast [p] testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also [q] at Rome.

12 And when it was day, [r] certain of the Jews [15] banded together, and bound themselves [16] under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under [17] a [s] great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he [t] bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire [18] something more [b] perfectly concerning him:

and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him. [19]

16 And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into [u] the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, [h] The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into [l] the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there [q] lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves [t] with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, [v] See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to [w] Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix [a] the governor.

10 PAUL TRANSFERRED TO FELIX IN CAESAREA VV 23-35.

THE CURSE 199

This was a very convenient one for those concerned, for like the Papists, the doctrine of sacerdotal absolution was held among the Jews. The Talmud instructed:

"He that hath made a vow not to eat anything, woe to him, if he eat; and woe to him if he do not eat. If he eat, he sinneth against his vow; and if he do not eat, he sinneth against his life. What must such a man do in this case? Let him go to the wise men and they shall loose him from his vow, as it is written Prov. 12:18: "The tongue of the wise is health."

THE MOST EXCELLENT GOVERNOR FELIX. Felix = Happy. Originally a slave, he was liberated by Claudius Caesar for some unknown service. He was appointed procurator of Judea on the banishment of Ventidius Cumanus, about A.D. 52. Suetonius refers to the military honors conferred on him, "states that he was the husband of 3 queens or royal ladies. CRUELTY Tacitus declares that during his governorship of Judea he indulged in all kinds of cruelty and lust, exercising regal power with the disposition of a slave, and considering himself licensed to commit any crime. Having a grudge against Jonathan the high priest, who had expostulated with him on his misrule, he made use of Doras an intimate friend of Jonathan, in order to get him assassinated by a gang of villians who joined the crowds that were going up to the Temple worship, a crime which led subsequently to countless evils by the encouragement which it gave to the Sicarii, or

25 Luke records the substance of the letter

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the [b] most excellent [c] governor Felix [d] sendeth greeting.

26 Lysias here departs from the strict truth desiring to display his zeal and care for a Roman Citizen. 22-24

27 [e] This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with [f] an army, and rescued him, [g] having understood that he was a Roman.

27 Paul like Christ was acquitted by the Romans. Phil. 3:10.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they [k] accused him, I [l] brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused [m] of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

28 RV: "That there would be a plot against the man."

30 And [o] when it was told me how that the Jews [q] laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and [s] gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. [t] Farewell.

24 Sig. Instead of his father. Built by Herod the Great in honor of his father Antipater. The modern Ras-el-Ain. 38 miles from Caesarea. A little over half way of the journey.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left [x] the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what [c] province he was. [d] And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;

35 [e] I will hear thee, said he, [f] when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in [g] Herod's [h] judgment hall.

30. Merely for identification. It was the Governor's duty to protect a Roman Citizen wherever his native city.

1 Paul being accused by Tertullus the orator, 10 answereth for his life and doctrine. 24 He preacheth Christ to Felix, 27 who leaveth Paul in prison. (See Note 12)

AND after [m] five days [o] Ananias the high priest [q] descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed [a] the governor against Paul. (See below)

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great [3] quietness, and that very worthy deeds [3] are done unto this nation by thy providence, (RV: "in all ways")

3 We [h] accept it always, and in all places, [i] most noble Felix, with all thankfulness. (RV: Excellent)

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and [p] a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout [r] the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes: (So called by the Jews - the Rest Christians called Nazarenes)

6 Who also hath gone about [u] to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have [z] judged according to our law.

7 [y] But the chief captain Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, (Gr. = force)

8 [a] Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by [b] examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully [i] answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but [k] twelve days since I [l] went up to Jerusalem [m] for to worship. (Not to agitate or raise sedition)

12 [p] And they neither found me in the temple [r] disputing with

3 The Jews complained to Rome against this tyrant. See Note above.
4 "Providentia Caesaris" is a common expression on Roman coins.

7 Loimos. A deadly infectious malady, a plague.
8 A hint that Felix could be relieved of the troublesome matter by delivering Paul up to the Jews.
From V.6 "Whom we took" to first clause of V.8 are missing from some MSS - though they seem a natural part of the speech.
10 Tertullus would have brought forth his witnesses one by one and interrogated them.

2 PAUL'S DEFENCE
Vv 10-21

According fulsome praise, but with unmistakable skill, Paul emphasised the one favorable aspect of Felix as Judge - his long knowledge of the Jews!

CHAPTER 24
8 IN CAESAREA Vv 20-22
1 ACCUSED BY TERTULLUS. Vv 1-9

FELIX (Cont.) feigned assassins of the day, to whose excesses Josephus ascribes, under Providence, the overthrow of the Jewish State. DRUSILLA. Whilst in office he became enamoured of Drusilla, a daughter of King Herod, who was married to Azizus, King of Emesa, and through the influence of Simon, a magician, prevailed upon her to consent to a union with him. With this adulteress Felix was seated when Paul reasoned with him Acts 24:24. Another Drusilla is mentioned by Josephus as being the (first) wife of Felix.
FELIX RECALLED. During Paul's imprisonment in Caesarea, disturbances took place in its streets, Felix was recalled to Rome & the Jews made ready with their accusations. He thus left Paul bound "to show the Jews a pleasure" Ch. 24:27. In Rome he was saved by the influence of his brother Pallas. Ungers.

TERTULLUS

The Name is Latin, and he was most likely a Roman advocate employed by the Sanhedrin. His power of glib eloquence and his knowledge of Roman law enabled him to do so effectively. He first flattered the judge, then poured invective on the prisoner accusing him of crimes he never committed.
Paul's defence was even more eloquent in its frank, open, manly statement of facts - a contrast to the servile flattery of the orator whose insincerity so easily detected.
Felix was more impressed by Paul than by Tertullus V. 25

THE CHARGES LAID BY TERTULLUS

1. A PEST - or public nuisance who should be suppressed. Agitator
2. INSURRECTION AMONG JEWS — Offence against the Roman Government, treason against the Emperor, should be judged by Rome. Sedition
3. SECT OF NAZARENES - Heresy against Jewish Religion - should be delivered up to the high priest. Heresy
4. PROFANER OF THE TEMPLE - An offence against Jewish & Roman Law. Sacrilege.

PAUL CHALLENGES THE SADDUCEES.

They constituted his main accusers. Paul invited them to declare themselves by emphasising his belief in both Law & Prophets V14 and in the resurrection Vv. 15, 21. Which the Sadducees kept silent.

The Pharisees challenged — V.13.

any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:

15 And have [h] hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, [k] to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after [m] many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 [o] Whereupon [p] certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 [r] Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

20 Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, [s] while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, [t] Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, [u] When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and [v] to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, [31] which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of [b] righteousness, [a] temperance, and [b] judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; [w] when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee. [x] 2 Cor 6:2.

26 He hoped also that [y] money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, [z] willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound. [1] AD 60: Paul 54: See before

2 The Jews accuse Paul before Festus. 8 He answereth for himself, 11 and appealeth unto Caesar.

NOW when Festus was come into the [q] province, after three days he ascended from [a] Cæsarea to Jerusalem.

2 Then [c] the high priest [d] and [e] the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him, [f] Lcp. v16, 24 (cp Ch. 24:1)

3 And [5] desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, [g] laying wait in the way to kill him. (See v16)

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæsarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are [h] able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him. (RV: "anything amiss")

6 And when he had tarried among them [2] more than ten days, he [i] went down unto Cæsarea; and the next day sitting on [k] the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

4 PAUL BEFORE FESTUS. APPEALS TO CAESAR 1-12

1 Appointed by Nero in the autumn AD 60, he died in 62 - thus enjoying but a short term of office.
2 The centre of Roman administration.
3 The centre of Jewish disaffection to the Roman authority. He feared to meet the leaders.

DRUSILLA 201

The daughter of Herod Agrippa I Acts 12:1,2. She was only 6 years old when her father died in 44. She was first the wife of Azizus, King of Edessa, but Felix, becoming enamoured of her because of her singular beauty, employed a certain magician, a Jew named Simon, to entice her away from her husband, and persuade her to marry him. She perished with her son Agrippa in the eruption of Vesuvius in the reign of Titus. See Jerphus.

Drusilla was the third wife of Felix, and the second one by the same name.

A STRIKING SCENE DESCRIBED WITH SIMPLICITY AND FORCE 23-24.

"The bloated slave sitting on the seat of judgment and power, representing all the worst vices of Roman degeneracy. The heads of the sinking Jewish commonwealth, blinded by bigotry and filled with hate, forgetting for the moment their abhorrence of their Roman masters in their deeper detestation of the Apostle Paul. The hired advocate with his fulsome flattery and false charges. And the great apostle with his immutable skill in debate - pure-minded, upright, fearless, pleading his own cause with consummate force and dignity, and overawing his heathen judge by the majesty of his character. A graphic description of a noble scene" - A. Hervey (Amended).

TWO YEARS IN CAESAREA CH.24:27. Such a pause in a life of such activity and importance to the world seems to us a great waste of time, but a new field of labor was about to open for the Apostle, and this provided the means of preparation through thought, study, prayer and communion. Meanwhile Caesarea became the headquarters to which many may have turned for the advice, help and guidance the Apostle could provide.

Meanwhile, the political state of Judea became more difficult. The anger of the people under the maladministration of Felix became increasingly implacable. Disturbances occurred in the streets of Caesarea, and reports reached Rome. In the end, Felix was summoned to the capital, and the Jews likewise sent their representatives with their accusations. In A.D. 60, Nero appointed Festus to the province.

Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, [a] which they could not [b] prove.
8 While he [c] answered for himself, [d] Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cæsar, have I offended any thing at all.
9 But Festus, [e] willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, [f] Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?
10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cæsar's judgment seat, [g] where I ought to be judged: [h] to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou [i] very well knowest.
11 [m] For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may [o] deliver me unto them. [p] I appeal unto Cæsar.
12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cæsar? unto Cæsar shalt thou go.
13 And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Cæsarea to salute Festus.
14 And when they had been there many days, Festus [t] declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:
15 [u] About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.
16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that [a] he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.
17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.
18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none [c] accusation of such things as I supposed:
19 [f] But had certain questions against him of their own [h] superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.
20 And because [3] I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him [k] whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.
21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the [5] hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæsar.
22 Then [n] Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.
23 And on the morrow, when [q] Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the [r] chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.
24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom [s] all the multitude of the Jews have [x] dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that [z] he ought not to live any longer.
25 But when I found that [a] he had committed nothing worthy of death, [b] and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.
26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa,

KING AGRIPPA He had the same name as his father Acts 12:- Herod Agrippa. When his father died in A.D. 44, he left Rome, son, then 17 and three daughters: Bernice, Mariamne, and Drusilla (See bottom p. 202). Claudius, considering it dangerous to put so young a man on so large a Kingdom as that of his father in Palestine (Agrippa was brought up in the household of Claudius Ant. 19:9:2) so he made it a Roman Province & sent Cuspius Fadus to be procurator of Judea and the whole of the Kingdom Ant. 19:9:2 Wars 2:11:6. In 48, Agrippa's uncle Herod, King of Chalcis died and Agrippa was appointed to the position. At the same time he was made superintendent of the Temple & manager of its Treasury with power to remove the high priest which power he freely exercised Ant. 20:5:2, 9:1, 4, 6. About 53, he was removed from position of Governor of Chalcis, and given a greater power: the tetrarchies of Philip and Lysanius over the north and northeast of Palestine, but excluding Acres, Judea, Samaria, Galilee Ant. 20:7:1 Wars 2:12:1, 8. He made Caesarea Philippi his headquarters. He was not popular with the Jews. Prior to the Roman war he tried to persuade the Jews to come to terms, but with the war itself he threw in his lot with the Romans. He finally retired to Rome where he died in the year 100 at the age of 73.

BERNICE Sister to her unmarried brother, Agrippa, and eldest daughter of Herod. A woman of great beauty, she was married to her uncle, King Herod of Chalcis. When he died in 48, she was 20. Her character was held much in question on the score of chastity. On the death of her husband she retired to the home of her brother, and even their relations with each other were viewed with grave suspicion Ant. 20:7:3. To allay these surmises, she married Polemo King of Pontus who was induced to take the step on account of her great wealth, but the marriage soon broke up and she returned to Agrippa Ant. 20:7:3. Agrippa and Bernice frequently appeared in public together. She was with him when he appealed to the excited and exasperated Jews following the abuse of authority by Gessius Florus, the procurator, which led to the war War. 2:16:1-5. She was with him when he went to pay his respects to Alexander newly appointed procurator of Alexandria War. 2:18:11. She was 32 when with Agrippa, she visited Festus.

PAUL'S DEFENCE BEFORE AGRIPPA

He was brought up with a bias towards Judaism Vs 4-5.
He still endorsed the national hope W6-7.
This involved Resurrection so that it is logical to believe in a living Christ V. 8

His amazing conversion indicates a deep-rooted conviction that came from God Vs 9-18
His preaching was designed to turn men to God - and for this he was condemned Vs 19-21
His preaching comprised an exposition of the law and Prophets Vs 22-23.

that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

CHAPTER 26.

2 Paul, before Agrippa, declareth his life, 12 and miraculous conversion, &c.

PAUL'S DEFENCE Vs 1-32.

THEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:
2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:
3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.
4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;
5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.
6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:
7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews. (RV. Dag. Ch O King)
8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?
9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.
10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.
11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities. (RV. Dag. foreign)
12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,
13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.
14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.
15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.
16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;
17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,
18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. (Gal. 2:20. Rom 10:17.)
19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:
20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judæa, and then

26 RV: "charges."

1 Agrippa spoke by courtesy of Festus.
2 The action of an orator - On them would be seen the chains of his imprisonment.

3 The traditions and controversies among the elders.

4 Far from abandoning that he had been unfaithful to O.T. teaching, Paul shows that Christianity is the outcome of it.

5 He had not changed his basic beliefs. This hope involved the resurrection Ch 23:6.

6 Paul thus makes it clear that he still adheres to the national hope of Israel.
7 RV earnestly

8 The national hope required a resurrection, and the risen Christ was the earnest of it Ac 25:19.

9 He excuses their unbelief on the grounds of his own previous doubts created by prejudice against the Christians.

10 Drag. "Jesus the Nazarene." He thus identifies himself with the Nazarener. Ch 24:5
11 Paul's use of this title emphasises how wrong was his action.

12 Psephos - Stone or Vote pebble See Rev 2:17. From this statement it is obvious that Stephen was not the only one put to death.
13 RV: "Strove to make them blaspheme."

14 It was in view of this extraordinary authority and commission conferred on Paul that he exercised his vote, and not as a member of the Sanhedrin.

15 Emphasising the brightness of the heavenly light at that latitude. Cp Mt. 28: 3

16 Emphasising the Israelitish nature of Christianity.

17 These words are similar to those spoken by Ananias. Paul could have condensed the other into this general statement. On the other hand they could have been spoken by the Lord and repeated by Ananias. Paul would have been more ready to accept them if that had been the case.
18 Hupēretes - An under-rower. One who accepts direction from another without necessarily knowing the course taken. 1 Cor 4:1.
19 Martus - One who is prepared to testify even unto death.
20 As under-rower he could expect to receive further commands and directions Acts 18:9. 1 Cor 12:14.
21 Exaireo - To deliver, or rescue for oneself (Middle Voice). So a special protection was over Paul that the work of Christ in him might be completed
22 The flesh. Jam 1:14-16. Rom 7:18. Mk 7:21-22. Rom 8:7. Gal 5:19-21.
23 The remarkable change in my attitude was induced by a vision from heaven. It was as though Paul asked: In view of all this, what was I to do?
24 Optasia - That which is seen.
25 This is not specifically recorded, but could have taken place during visit recorded in Acts 9:29-31. 11:30. 12: 25.

FESTUS' DRAMATIC INTERRUPTION

Was probably induced, not only by the proclamation of the doctrine of the Resurrection which was foolishness to a Gentile, but also by Paul's strong claim that he had been given a Divine commission to preach it to Gentiles. V. 23.

EFFECT OF PAUL'S DEFENCE As the appeal to Caesar had been accepted, it could not be withdrawn, even with the consent of the parties. The pro consular had lost control of the case, and had no more power to acquit the prisoner than to condemn him. One effect of Agrippa's decision may have been that Festus modified his report to Rome.

a to the Gentiles, that they should repent and b turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes c the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to d small and great, saying none other things than those which e the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ f should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew g light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, h thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a i Christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and k the governor, and l Bernice, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside, m they talked between themselves, saying, n This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa unto Festus, o This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not p appealed unto Cæsar.

Paul spoke boldly though a prisoner in chains.

This direct appeal was embarrassing to the Jewish voluptuary by the side of Festus. If he acknowledged the prophets, he would be looked upon as mad by the sophisticated Romans, and besides would have to take the stand of Paul against the Jews!!

RV: "With but little persuasion thou wouldest fain make me a Christian." Agrippa had been shaken in his convictions & seriously impressed by what he had heard.

This was the Gentile term for believers: Jews called them Nazarenes Acts 24:5. Agrippa accomodated his expression to the Gentile court without necessarily ...ing the membership of Jesus.

3 And the next day we touched at x Sidon. And Julius y courteously entreated Paul, and z gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we a sailed under b Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found c a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, d the wind not suffering us, we sailed under 2 Crete, over against Salmone;

8 And, hardly e passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; f nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was g now already past, Paul admonished them,

8 It was late August & prevailing westerlies blew, forcing them to sail east of Cyprus.

9 The ship crept on from point to point up the coast, availing themselves of temporary land breezes, & of the steady westward current that runs along the coast, the sailors taking advantage of every opportunity by making a few miles & lying at anchor in the shelter of the winding coast when the westerly wind made progress impossible (Ramsay: Paul the Traveller).

This is at least the fourth shipwreck Paul had experienced in preaching the Gospel (2 Cor. 11:25). In this instance even Luke seems to have capitulated to the circumstances and acted according to human prudence - panic (cp vv. 16, 19) whilst Paul, recognising the conditions had gone beyond human control, accomplished by fervent prayer that which human prudence and ingenuity could not accomplish. It is the Paul of the Epistles who is revealed here, providing an example, under actual conditions of the attitude he exhorts to in his letters. It reveals he was no mere theorist, but a realist in his actions.

WHY THE INCIDENT IS RECORDED IN SUCH DETAIL : It is an amazing example of the calmness, confidence and patience of faith in the face of uncontrollable adverse forces and panic and despair. This is at least the fourth shipwreck Paul had experienced in preaching the Gospel (2 Cor. 11:25). In this instance even Luke seems to have capitulated to the circumstances and acted according to human prudence + panic (cp vv. 16,19) whilst Paul, recognising the conditions had gone beyond human control, accomplished by fervent prayer that which human prudence and ingenuity could not accomplish. It is the Paul of the Epistles who is revealed here, providing an example, under actual conditions of the attitude he exhorts to in his letters. It reveals he was no mere theorist, but a realist in his actions.

not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the [a]master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, [r]ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and [d]whom I serve,

24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar: and, lo, God hath [e]given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, [f]be of good cheer: [g]for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit [h]we must be [i]cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down [m]the boat into the sea, [n]under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said [o]to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the [p]ropes of the boat, and [q]let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for [s]there shall

4 PAUL'S VIGILANCE Vv. 27-38.

Faith must be supplemented by vigilance and action.

32 RV: "to-fro." The ship was completely out of control + driven by the wind.

33 In these times the Adriatic was considered to extend to the sea between Malta, Italy, Greece + Crete (Ramsay).

34 A ship drifting from Cauda could not enter St Paul's Bay without passing the low rocky point of Koura, which bounds it on the east. The breakers here warned the sailors. (James Smith).

35 They are usually dropped from the bow, but in this case they did so from the stern to prevent the ship swinging around from the wind + breaking up on the rocks.

36 His faith was matched by his vigilance. Cp 1 Tim. 4:8 1 Pet. 5:8 - It is an attribute we need to develop.

37 Their prompt action show their opinion of Paul. The prisoner became their commander.

38 I.e. - no regular meals. They may have snatched at food, but they had taken nothing substantial.

THE QUICKSANDS 205

Gr Surtis - RV. Syrtis. The Syrtes, Major + Minor, lie on the north coast of Africa, between the headlands of Tunis + Barca. They have been regarded as dangerous to mariners from very early times, both from the character of the sands + from the cross currents of the adjoining waters. In the voyage described in this chapter, the vessel had left the shelter of Cauda + was drifting before the N.E. wind Euraquilo. The mariners might well fear that they would be driven on the Syrtes on the leeward of their course. The changing character of the tempest, however, drove them into the sea of Adria - Vine.

DESPAIR OF THE CREW.

Cp. V.20. They sat doing nothing, eating nothing, waiting for the ship to sink. Despair took completely over. But now faith came to the rescue. Paul had already exhibited prudence V.10. This had been rejected. Now his faith enables him to exhibit a calm confidence in the midst of despair, exhibiting the power of prayer. Vv. 23-25. But even this is not enough, so he exercises the greatest vigilence, lest the folly of man frustrate the assurance of God [illegible]. Finally he strengthens + encourages by his good advice + practical [illegible]

WHY THE INCIDENT IS RECORDED IN SUCH DETAIL (cont). The example Paul provides is emphasised by the detail Luke supplies of the journey and the desperate efforts of human prudence and skill that were vainly expended to secure the ship when faith and trust in Yahweh were alone adequate. Yet Paul was physically sick at the time, and in need of the help of others V. 3. The chapter shows that Paul's attitude commended him to "those that are without" (vv 3, 43 Cp Col 4:5. Eph. 5:16). That he was a man of prudence not tempting Providence (V. 10; 1 Cor. 10:9) That his faith stood firm in the face of a seemingly hopeless situation (V. 20 2 Thess. 1:4; Heb. 11:6; Heb. 13:7). That he was a man of prayer (V. 25. 1 Thess. 5:17; 1 Tim. 2:8). A man of optimism and courage (vv 22, 25. Phil. 1:18; 2:17; 3:1; 4:4; Col. 1:24; 1 Thess 5:16). See below.

41 A proverbial expression, implying perfect safety. Cp 1 Sam. 14:45; 2 Sam. 14:11; 1 Kgs 1:52. Luke 12:7; 21:18.

42 He provided an example of what should be done and showed publicly his complete reliance of God in all the necessities of life.

43 Their spirits lifted immediately, & they began to see some hope in the midst of their despair.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea. (RV: "perceived")

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape. (RV "desiring")

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

3 The ships were steered by two paddle-rudders. These had been hoisted up & lashed lest they lost the anchors. Now they unloosed the lashings (bands) so as to use them.
4 As the ship stood anchored on the north-east of the island, it had the Koura Point on its left & on entering into the bay, the little island of Salmonetta (Selmeen or Gzeier) on the right. Beyond this is an open channel, about 100 yds wide from the north, through which the sea would appear to meet that on the south of the island.
5 Permitting all on board to make adequate preparations to escape.
6 Yet it was only the faith & vigilance of a prisoner that had saved them V. 31, 42. Their attitude shows the ingratitude of human nature. The prisoners would have to be released from the soldiers to effect the deliverance of either.

AND when they were escaped, (RV. "we") then they knew that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god. (RV "In the neighborhood of that place")

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

A man of vigilance, recognising that prayer is only efficacious if men use the means at hand to make it so. (V. 31; 1 Cor. 16:13; 1 Thess. 5:6). A man of practical purpose (vv. 33-36. 1 Tim. 4:14-8; 5:23). A man who prayed for others (V. 37; Cp 1 Rom. 2:4). The Providence of Yahweh is revealed for the circumstances that enabled all to escape could be considered extremely fortuitous in the absence of Paul's explanation (vv. 21, 22; Phil. 1:12; Rom. 8:28). These are circumstances that guide us in our journey through life. We commence in the ship of death V. 2. we find fair haven in Christ V. 8 and though our own folly may threaten to make shipwreck of our faith, we will win through if we take Christ (Luke 8:24) and Paul (1 Cor. 4:16; 11:1. 2 Thess. 3:9). on our little ship, all will be well, and in spite of indiscretions in leaving such harbors as Fair Haven, we will, through trouble, triumph at last (Acts 14:22). Luke must have been deeply impressed with the example of Paul and in order to emphasise it recorded all the circumstances of the voyage in detail.

PAUL'S CITATION OF ISA. 6:9-10.

"In view of all this (i.e. citations of this passage - see above) it seems highly probable that Isa. 6:10 was widely accepted at an early period as a testimonium to the situation which arose when the Jews rejected the Gospel & were found to be excluded from the new people of God, & that it was employed as such in more versions than one, the most influential being a non-Septuagint version known to Paul and John .... It was clearly recorded as, constructively, providing documentation for the thesis that the Gospel is to be preached to the Gentiles, & in that sense obviously had great importance for primitive Christian apologetic (According to the Scriptures C.H. Dodd that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this c sect, we know that every where d it is spoken against.
23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to e whom he f expounded and g testified h the kingdom of God, i persuading them concerning Jesus, k both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.
24 And l some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.
25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers,
26 Saying, m Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:
27 For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have n they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.
28 Be it known therefore unto you, that o the salvation of God is sent p unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it.
29 And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great q reasoning among themselves.
30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and r received all that came in unto him,
31 s Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all t confidence, no man forbidding him.

PAUL TOOK COURAGE (Cont.) for their prayers that he might be delivered from the Jews and come to them. Rom. 15:30-31. He had sent forth greetings couched in the most tender terms of affection and regard Rom. 16. Now the presence of these brethren, who had walked upwards of 43 m to greet and welcome him, confirmed all that Paul had written & gave him great encouragement in spite of the presence of the Roman guard. Julius must have wondered at the strange prisoner in his care who conversed with God, performed miracles & drew forth such acts of love from strangers. Did he accept Christ?

25 This probably led to altercation, and on the heated argument, none acted on their belief, for Luke does not record that any accepted Christ in baptism.

26 Paul emphasises the Inspiration of Isaiah. His quotation varies slightly from LXX. This important prophecy is cited: Mt. 13:14-15; Mk. 4:12; (Luke 8:10). It seems echoed in Jhn 9:39; Mk 3:5; 8:17; most significantly of all, Christ's ministry to the Jews closed with it Jhn 12:40. as Paul's now does. See below left.

CHS 1-8 DOCTRINAL: HOW THE GOSPEL REALIZES TO SALVATION. Introduction p.217.

CHAPTER I.

Paul commendeth his calling. 16 The power of the gospel. 21 The sins of the Gentiles.

1 PAUL, a servant of Jesus Christ, [c] called to be an apostle, [d] separated unto the gospel of God,
2 (e Which he had promised afore [f] by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)
3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, [g] which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;
4 And [h] declared to be [m] the Son of God with power, according [p] to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:
5 By whom [q] we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith [r] among all nations, for his name:
6 Among whom are ye also the [s] called of Jesus Christ:
7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: [b] Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
8 First, [c] I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that [f] your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.
9 For God is my witness, whom I serve [t] with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that [v] without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;
10 [h] Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey [k] by the will of God to come unto you.
11 For I long to see you, that [m] I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;
12 That is, that I may be comforted together [s] with you by [p] the mutual faith both of you and me.
13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that [g] oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but [h] was let hitherto,) that I might have [q] some [c] fruit [z] among you also, even as among other Gentiles.
14 [w] I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the [k] Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.
15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.
16 For [u] I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for [c] it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to [r] the Jew first, and also to the [s] Greek.
17 For therein [u] is the righteousness of God revealed from [z] faith to faith: as it is written, [v] The just shall live by faith.
18 For [w] the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;
19 [d] Because [e] that which may be known of God is manifest [5] in them; for God hath shewed it unto them.
20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; [7] so that they are [i] without excuse:
21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but [l] became [m] vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.
22 [o] Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,
23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into [q] an image made like to corruptible

1 "Little" Cp Note Gal.1:1. He was evidently small of stature 2 Cor. 10:10, and small in his own estimation 1 Cor. 15:9. His Gentile name gained the ascendancy on [illegible] journey as he deals with Roman officer on Cyprus Acts 13:7-12, and puts him out as the Apostle to Gentiles
2 Doulos - most abject, servile term. The Roman citizen Acts 22:25 glories in his servitude to Christ 1 Cor. 7:22.
3 A called Apostle and the purpose of his appointment was dedication to Gospel. Credentials are thus authenticated.
4 Thus Christianity was not a new religion detached from true Hebrew faith
5 Horizo = To appoint, determine, decree
6 The Divine Sonship attested by Power - Possessing Holy Spirit without measure Jhn 3:34, 2.
Holiness - Morality Jhn. 14:30
Resurrection Divine approval Jhn 2:19
Apostles.
Personal favor in knowledge of Truth and special commission
Grace favor on to others
Huper = "For the sake of" "in behalf of"
Favor + fellowship.

2 HIS FERVENT DESIRE TO VISIT THE ECCLESIA Vv 8-15

That saints should maintain the purity of their calling in the midst of the pollutions of such as city as Rome was a thing to the Gospel. According to the Roman historian Tacitus into that city flowed "all things that are vile + abominable, and there they are encouraged."
He had never personally met the brethren, yet God could testify of his secret prayers on their behalf and of his love for them begotten through their reception.
His life was completely governed by the Divine will Cp.
Euodoo - "to grant a successful issue, to cause to prosper."
He does not want to imply a reproach of weakness or instability, for he needs strengthening as well as they - it is the constant need of all.
The benefits of the Truth are mutually enjoyed. "Comforted together." = Sumparaklesthai. Sun- together. Para "beside." Kaleo, "to call." Thus a mutual calling to the side of each other to be strengthened + comforted.

RIGHTEOUSNESS A fundamental doctrine in Romans Cp Ch.1:17-18.

It is an unquestioning acceptance of God's Standard of Right. By accepting it we justify all that He does or requires of us. We can only attain unto righteousness by acknowledging our sins - which gives verbal expression to it - securing forgiveness of them and forsaking them.

THE THEME OF 1ST PART OF ROMANS Vv 16-18

The absolute need of a Gospel of salvation is revealed by the widespread manifestation of God's wrath through man's unrighteousness. Gentile blasphemy + immorality (common in Rome) demanded the righteous judgment of God. Rom 1:18-32. Jewish formalism deserved the same treatment Rom. 2. Cp V. 24. Despite great privileges given to the Jews they had failed to adequately respond seeking justification by deeds of the Law Rom 3:1-18. But as the Law only condemned, and as God was God of Gentiles as well as Jews, justification was open to both on a basis of faith Rom. 3:19-21. Outside of Christ it is impossible for man to be justified in God's sight.

17 RV = Hindered.
18 Thus Rome is mainly Gentile.

3 PAUL: DEBTOR TO ALL

19 To cultured + uncultured.
20 The learned. The wise = sober minded, self controlled.
21 Anoetos = An unmoved lack of understanding bearing a moral reproach as one who does not govern his lusts. Thus proclaimed to all classes. Cp. 1 Cor. 9:19-20 with 1 Cor. 6:11. But see Phil 3:7
22 Rome was an evil city Cp Note II but Paul was not deterred by that. He was witness if God permitted it.

4 THE GOSPEL'S POWER

23 Proclamation of the Gospel in such a city as Rome Cp Note II brought the stigma of contempt + ridicule. Yahweh's desire Zech 8:16. Christ's example Is. 42:1-4, 49:1-10. Exhortation Phil 2:11
24 Dunamis - Dynamo dynamo etc. Cp Eph. 3:20.
25 EK - out of. Adherent out of faith which leads to faith + life
26 Justification nonentity doctrine - it was taught under the Law!!

2 CONDEMNS GENTILE BLASPHEMY AND IMMORALITY Vv 18-32.

Evils common to Gentiles Cp Note II.
27 The manifestation of His righteousness to salvation is urgently needed seeing His wrath is breaking into prominence by the widespread unrighteousness of man. Cp 2 Cor. 11.
28 RV = "hinder" Katechon = Hold down. From "withholdeth" 2 Thess. 2:6
29 His Omnipotence Omnipresence Omniscience Cp Ps. 139:1-7. These most perfect attributes should cause a person to seek His Revelation + will.
30 Matai oo - Void of result. Like scientists today they saw the glory of God in Creation but it had no result. From this word comes the Eng. "moron."

ROMANS 1:2 A saving faith in... reveal this and ... not true repentance ... also condem...

31 Notice the decline from man to creeping things. Today it is even lower, for discarding these forms of religion, man worships lust. Vv 24
32 Describes judicial action. They were delivered up to the results of their own immorality Cp Eph. 5:6
23 Lit. "Exchanged the truth of God for a lie." Idols are so called Isa. 44:20, Jer. 10:14, 13:25.
Eulogetos: Who is to be eulogised forever
35 They became temple prostitutes - a common feature of pagan worship Cp Num. 25:1
Sodomy was also a practise of pagan worship. These vile practises produced their own evil fruit - venereal disease etc.
"Did like" = dokimazo. To put to test to see if answers to required specifications. Man put God to test to see if He answered to what they required in God. When He did not, they repudiated Him
Left them to their own devices
Akatastomon noun - Because man rejected God after trial, God gave them over to a mind incapable of discerning matters in respect to salvation. To no gain.
Theostugeis = Haters of God
Kataphrastes = Insulting, insolent.
Astorgos - Love of parents for children, children for parents, husband for wife, wife for husband.
Dikaioma = Ordinance (so RV). Man knows that God does not approve those things but he is completely different to what God desires, and aims only to satisfy the flesh. Gal 5:19-21 But see Gal 6:7,8.

GOD'S TREATMENT OF A LOST WORLD Rom 1

To have ignored it would have been DEFEAT
To have abandoned it would have been ANARCHY
To judge it reveals that God is JUST
To offer salvation in spite of it is to reveal Him to be MERCIFUL
To bring order out of chaos will exhibit the TRIUMPH of the Almighty.

ROMANS 1-2 A saving faith in the Gospel is necessary Ch.1:16-17 The unbelieving world of Gentilism does not reveal this and lies under the shadow of God's wrath Ch.1:18-32 The believing world if there is not true repentance exists under the same wrath Ch.2:1-16 whether Jew or Gentile V.1 Jewish formalism also condemned Ch.2:17-29.

"DO NOT OBEY" V.8 Peithō - In negative self to be persuaded, to withhold belief." (Wuest) Affirmative: "An actual + outward result of inward persuasion" (Vine).

CHAPTER 2:1-16. Is dealing with those who know God's will (whether Jew or Gentile) but -
1. Do not obey it V.8 Gal.5:7
2. Or do not express its power in repentance (a change of outlook) expressed in deeds V.4,6.

CHAPTER 2 see p.103

JEWISH FORMALISTS CONDEMNED 1-16

HYPOCRITICAL JUDGMENT OUT OF PLACE 1-5

The believer whether Jew or Gentile. The Apostle is now showing that justification is as necessary for the Jew as the Gentile. A Jew might agree with his estimate of the Gentile world and condemn the evil practices referred to - but judgment was out of place for Jewry was guilty also.

1e - Breaks God's laws. Gal.3:22. Paul gradually develops his argument against the Jews.

3 Alēthēia - true, genuine. It is impartial and proclaimed without consideration of race. That is, break God's laws, though not necessarily in the same way.

4 They were blind to their real state and therefore lightly treated God's very forbearance towards them.

5 Expressed in the Gospel Rom.3:25

6 The holding back of judgment

7 Makrothumia - "patience, slowness in avenging wrong"

8 Eritheia = Change of mind + purpose from "meta" - after and Noeō, perceive from nous - mind Lk.Acts 2:38. Acts 11:18. 2 Cor.7:9-10.

9 Tribulation = Thlipsis - pressure

10 Witnessed by the prophets Rom.1:7-9. Gal.1:7. The experience of the past was a warning

11 Stored up in a secret place

12 This is for believers whether Jew or Gentile Acts 13:39

A DAY OF JUDGMENT IMPENDING vv 6-16

13 Day of Judgment. Ps.50:4. Acts 3:17. 1 Pet.1:17. Dan.12:2. Rom.2:16. Mic. 5:1. Matt.5:45. Just + Unjust together 13. Mat.5:16-37. John.5:28,29. 1 Pet.1:14-16. Luke 6:28

14 Knowledge thus brings responsibility. 2 Cor.5:10. Acts 17:30

15 Orgē = Thumos. But these words should be reversed as in RV. Thumos = sudden blazing forth of anger from inward feelings, Orgē = the more settled, lasting emotion that finds expression in revenge or punishment. The two words coupled in Rom.2:8. Eph.4:31. - fierceness, wrath.

16 Gr. Prassō = to practise, to perform habitually. Str.

17 Doxa - Recognition due to a person (Bullinger). Sig. Opinion = thus the estimation derived from the good opinion developed.

18 Timē = the payment of the reward.
Ergazomai - To bring to pass, to work out to a finish. Contrast "doeth" V.9.

20 Prosopolempsia - A compound word = To receive face. On face value. There will be a scrutiny of the heart. Ps.51:6,10. There will be no partiality James 1:17. 2:1.

21 Outside covenant relationship but having knowledge V.12

24 These perish without investigation for they have openly repudiated God's goodness Ps.14:1-3. Titus 1:16

Krinō - to examine and pronounce sentence.

Akroatēs = a pupil who constantly is learning only here in Paul and 31 Notice the decline from man to creeping things. Today it is even lower, for discarding these forms of religion, man worships lust. V.24.

32 Describes judicial action. They were delivered up to the results of their own immorality. Cp Eph.5:5-6

33 Lit. "Exchanged the Truth of God for a lie." Idols are so called Isa.44:20. Jer.10:14. 13:25.

34 Eulogetos: Who is to be eulogised forever

35 They became temple prostitutes - a common feature of pagan worship. Cp Num.25:1

35 Sodomy was also a practise of pagan worship. These vile practises produced their own evil fruit - venereal disease etc.

37 "Did like" = dokimazō. To put to test to see if answers to required specifications. Man put God to test to see if He answered to what they required in a God. When He did not, they repudiated Him

38 Left them to their own devices.

39 Adokimon noun - Because man rejected God after trial, God gave them over to a mind incapable of determining matters in respect to salvation.

Asunthetos = Covenant breakers.

Hubristēs = Insulting. Insolent.

Astorgos - Love of parents for children, children for parents, husband for wife, wife for husband.

Dikaiōma = Ordinance (so RV). Man knows that God does not approve these things but he is completely different to what God desires, and aims only to satisfy the flesh. Gal.5:17 But see Gal.6:7,8.

GOD'S TREATMENT OF A LOST WORLD Rom.1

To have ignored it would have been DEFEAT
To have abandoned it would have been ANARCHY
To judge it reveals that God is JUST
To offer salvation in spite of it is to reveal Him to be MERCIFUL
To bring order out of chaos will exhibit the TRIUMPH of the Almighty.

man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 Wherefore [a] God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, [c] to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

25 Who changed [d] the truth of God into [d] a lie, and worshipped and served the creature [2] more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen. - So be it!

26 For this cause God gave them up unto [f] vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like [3] to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to [4] a reprobate mind, to do those things [o] which are not convenient; - becoming or fitting

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, [q] maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Worthlessness - Ponēria Wrangling

30 Backbiters, haters of God, [s] despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, [6] [v] without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who knowing [a] the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but [7b] have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER 2.

1 They that sin, though they condemn it in others, cannot excuse themselves, 6 and much less escape the judgment of God, 9 whether Jews or Gentiles.

THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art [1] that judgest: for [b] wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. [2]

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth [3] against them which commit such things. (RESPONSIBILITY Acts 24:22)

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, [4] and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou [p] the riches of his goodness [6] and [h] forbearance [7] and [i] longsuffering; [8] [k] not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? [9]

5 But after [10] thy hardness and impenitent heart [l] treasurest up [11] unto thyself wrath against [m] the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 [n] Who will render to every man according to his deeds: [b]

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, [p] eternal life: Eritheia

8 But unto them that are contentious, and [r] do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, [15]

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, [t] of the [u] Jew first, and also of the [5] Gentile;

10 But [x] glory, [17] honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the [5] Gentile: - Cp Ch.1:16

11 For there is [z] no respect of persons with God. [20]

12 For as many as have sinned without law [21] shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged [c] by the law; Miss the mark

13 (For not [d] the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law [e] shall be justified. - James 2:22,24

The Jews as a class constantly heard the law taught in synagogues. But only doers of the law will be justified. Thus Paul taught, justification by faith Ch.3:4 and works!

THE THREE CLASSES AT THE JUDGMENT SEAT. Cp 2 Cor.5:10

1 They "obey not the Truth" V.8 being indifferent to God's requirements W.2:3. Against them judgment W.4:5. They receive Thumos - a sudden blaze of anger, for they have openly repudiated Christ's sacrifice. Thus rebuked, this settles down to Orgē - and thus perish without judgment or investigation W.12.

2 Those in covenant relationship - "under law" who habitually practises

6 The law not necessary for justification: Abraham being witness. Ch. 4:13:17.
6 Abraham's faith recorded for purpose of emulation Ch. 4:15-25.
7 The personal blessings of justification Ch. 5:1-11.
8 How justification became effective for all mankind Ch. 5:12-21

1 True baptism implies a new way of life Ch. 6:1-14.
2 It necessitates a change of Masters. Ch. 6:15-23.
3 It can be likened to a new marriage. Ch. 7:1-6
4 Though the law held us to the old marriage it is not itself evil 7:7-12
5 Nor is the law responsible for death though it produced death 7:13-25
6 The flesh is responsible + Deliverance and Victory are only in Christ. Ch. 7:24-8:4.

24 It is not natural for man to obey God, and the reference here is to those who have "the law written in their hearts" V. 15. to such good effect that they instinctively obey the spirit of the law.
22 The mind of the Spirit battling with the desires of the flesh. Rom. 8:5.
26 A specific day appointed. B. 75:2 9 MS 2 Cor. 4:6

5 JEWISH FORMALISM CONDEMNED. 2:17-

27 RV: "But if thou bearest the name of a Jew and resteth upon the law..." Cp Rom. 10:3.
Their knowledge of God's will gave them the ability to determine right from wrong and reject the foolish speculations of Grecian philosophers.
Pepoithas - To persuade. The Jew not only blindly rested on the law for justification V. 17. but was persuaded that he was to lead man to find by its means to God.
They probably applied such prophecies as this to the influence of the nations not Messiah.
Paideutes = A teacher + discipliner of children. The Jews looked upon themselves in that light as teachers of the law. But cp Gal. 3:24
RV = Corrector of the foolish.
Morphosis - form, semblance. It was the outline or framework without the substance 2 Tim. 3:5.
Apply the law to yourself! Note the whole significant passage. Isa. 52:5-6
Circumcision = token of Covenant Gen. 17:11 to remediate flesh. But the mere rite was profitless unless accompanied by the works of law.
"Circumcision is made uncircumcision" - is accounted nothing to the transgressor of the law. It became the mark of condemnation in his flesh Gal. 5:3 and he was no whit better than a Gentile.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:
15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, [2] their conscience also bearing witness, and [d] their thoughts [3] the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)
16 [e] In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men [h] by Jesus Christ [i] according to my gospel. 2 Tim. 4:1 1 Cor. 4:5 Ecc. 12:14
17 Behold, [l] thou art called a Jew, and [o] restest in the law, and [p] makest thy boast of God,
18 And [q] knowest his will, and [r] approvest the things that are more excellent, [s] being instructed out of the law;
19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,
20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast [v] the form of [2] knowledge and of the truth in the law.
21 [b] Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? Mal. 3:8 Mic. 3:12
22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, [h] dost thou commit sacrilege? Deut. 29:4 Isa. 66:3
23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? Ezek. 36:22.
24 For [m] the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written.
25 [n] For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.
26 Therefore [p] if the uncircumcision keep [r] the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision? Phil. 3:3. Col. 2:11.
27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, [36] if it fulfil the law, [a] judge thee, who by [b] the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?
28 For [c] he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
29 But he is a Jew, [f] which is one inwardly; and [g] circumcision is that of the heart, [k] in the spirit, and not in the letter; [m] whose [5] praise is [n] not of men, but of God. Cp A. between Jews + Apostle

Our Unrighteousness Commend the Righteousness of God.

Commend = sunistemi - To place together, to introduce one to another so as to commend. Human sin illustrates more clearly God's righteousness.

37 The law itself taught that. Deut 10:16. 30:6
38 Judah from whence Jew signifies "praise" Yahweh alone can see and prove the heart.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The Jews' prerogative. 20 None justified by the law, 28 but all by faith only.

6 THE TESTIMONY OF SCRIPTURE 1-8

1 The previous chapter having shown that the Law condemns the Jew Ch. 2:25. the Apostle now answers a few objections that might be advanced.
Prōton = first. For this advantage see 9:4 Ps. 147:19-20.
RV: "Were without faith."
God had made national promises to Israel, but if these are fulfilled only in the sense of Ch. 2:29. His faithfulness is called in question.
5 God will be found true to His promise, even if every man be proved false. This objection is considered at length in Cps 9-11.
It will be by the exercise of mercy and forgiveness. Cp Rom 11:32
The case of David proves this point.
Nikaō = To prevail.
Roth. "When thou comest in judgement." Yahweh is vindicated when His judgments are tested thoroughly. This illustrated in David's case. Yahweh was just in His condemnation of David's sin, but also in the granting of mercy under the conditions. Thus when everything brought into judgment Yahweh prevails (is clear-Psalm) as supremely righteous. He will not allow the folly of man to defeat His unconditional purpose. In regard to Israel. See Ezek. 16:23. So that actually the unrighteousness of man emphasized God's righteousness. Cp Ps. 51:15
In the restoration of Israel this principle is illustrated. Jer. 31:9 Zech 12:10. Ezek 16:61.
The more wicked we are the more His righteousness is illustrated by His faithfulness to His promises.

27 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?
2 Much every way: chiefly, because that [t] unto them were committed [u] the oracles of God.
3 For [x] what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make [a] the faith of God without effect? faithlulness RV. want of faith RV.
4 [c] God forbid: yea, let [d] God be true, but [e] every man a liar; as it is written, [y] That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. See below
5 But if our unrighteousness [z] commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)
6 God forbid: for then [a] how shall God judge the world?
7 For if [b] the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?
8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) [c] Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.
9 What then? [q] are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before [5] proved both

Lies. In that case is not His Truth served by our actions! Why then take vengeance at all? After all, He forgave David!!
20 I am using purely human reasoning
21 Mē Genoito - Away with such a thought.
22 Gen. 18:25. Deut. 32:36. Ps. 50:4. that He will is thus scripturally revealed - illustrating that His mercy is extended not because a person is a Jew, but for some specific reason illustrated in the case of David and Israel. Rom. 11:28.
23 10th Cent: "Why should we not say (as we) etc.
24 The answer is that the condemnation of such people is just. Their folly is obvious - on the surface. The slanderous imputation of Apostolic doctrine shows that Paul's teaching of Justification by faith was as much misunderstood then as now.

15 Does this mean that the Jews are no better than Gentiles?
16 That is, in relation to personal salvation. Cp Rom. 11:26. The Jew has advantages, but not in escaping Divine condemnation. Cp V. 1.
17 Thus need something more than the Law to escape condemnation.
18 Having made his point V 9 ff he now supplies the Scriptural proof.
19 This Psalm describes the state of man who repudiates the authority of God. The Jew, however could reason that this relates to the Gentiles only. Cp Ps. 14:4, 7.
20 Cp Ps. 14:3 ms. Heb. neelachu = putrid. See sour milk. That is mankind in absence of Truth.
21 These are David's words describing His enemies Ps. 59. The expressions are similar to those used against Gentiles in previous Psalm quoted. Thus no difference (in absence of faith) even though Israelites and under the Law!!
22 These quotations show that by force, intent & action Israelites under the Law acted hypocritically and as did the Gentiles.
23 The Law revealed all guilty = thus in need of the mercy and forgiveness of God. It demonstrated the need of a Redeemer. Rom. 4:13
24 quoted Ps. 143:2 but "flesh" instead of "man" showing why justification not possible Rom. 8:2. Flesh is weak and sinful and invariably fails. 25 Cp Rom. 7:13 This was the purpose of the Law to lead to Christ. Gal. 3:24 It should have caused a Jew to seek a way of redemption Ps. 49:2.

2 AS THE LAW CONDEMNED JUSTIFICATION MUST COME FROM ELSEWHERE

26 Nūni - Vincent: Regarded not temporal. Through the evidence before us.
Cp Luke 24:27.
28 Dōrean = Without price, gratuitously.
Charis = A favor done in generosity without expectation of adequate reward.
Apolutrōseōs from verb Apolutroo - to redeem by paying the lutron (ransom) price. Three words related to this doctrine.
AGORAZŌ = To buy in the market Cp I Cor. 6:20, 7:23. This Christ does Rom. 5.
EXAGORAZŌ = To buy out the slave market Gal. 3:13. Thus set free.
LUTROŌ = Set free by payment of a price Tit. 2:14, 1 Pet. 1:18

31 Hilasterion (LXX = mercy seat Lev. 16:14). Diag. Mercy Seat. The appointed meeting place between Yahweh and man Exod. 25:22. In the Atonement or Covering, Mercy and Justness is blended V. 26. This was exhibited in the blood sprinkled Mercy Seat which revealed mercy through sacrifice. Showing what is due to flesh.
32 If mercy was extended without justice being satisfied it would appear as though God condoned sin. But Jesus is set forth as [illegible] and mercy is extended to those acknowledging this. 2 Pet. 1:4. This is by "faith in his blood". There is no virtue in blood as such, any more than there was in the brazen serpent Num. 21:9 - it was what was represented in these things that is united.

Jews and Gentiles, that [a] they are all under sin; 10 As it is written, [c] There is none righteous, no, not one: 11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God. 12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. 13 [e] Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; [h] the poison of asps is under their lips: 14 [i] Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: 15 [l] Their feet are swift to shed blood: 16 Destruction and misery are in their ways: 17 And the way of peace have they not known: 18 [n] There is no fear of God before their eyes. 19 Now we know that what things soever [o] the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that [p] every mouth may be stopped, and [q] all the world may become [2] guilty before God. 20 Therefore [x] by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for [z] by the law is the knowledge of sin. 21 But now [b] the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by [c] the law and [d] the prophets; 22 Even the righteousness of God which is [f] by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for [g] there is no difference: 23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God; 24 Being justified freely [3h] by his grace [i] through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: 25 Whom God hath [3] set forth [m] to be a propitiation through faith [n] in his blood, [o] to declare his righteousness for the [t] remission of [b] sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; 26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. 27 [d] Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith. 28 Therefore we conclude [f] that a man is justified by faith [g] without the deeds of the law. 29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: 30 Seeing [k] it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and [m] uncircumcision through faith. 31 Do we then make void the law through faith? [n] God forbid: yea, [o] we establish the law.

33 The efficacy of Christ's offering pointed back as well as forward. Heb. 9:15. Acts 13:39.
34 Endeixis = to show, demonstrate or prove. Christ is the proof of Yahweh's righteousness predicted in the prophets Is. 53:1, 46:12-13. He had previously forgiven sins in anticipation of Christ's offering. In Christ there was the proof of His righteousness in so doing! Cp 3:19-26.
35 God is revealed! not only Just and Merciful, but wise. The Truth humbles flesh by revealing that all its works are inadequate, and thus demonstrating the need of a Redeemer.
36 The ceremonial deeds in which the Jew gloried as sufficient Heb. 10:4.
Kit. "By what manner of law has the boasting been excluded?"
37 Pistis - A conviction based on hearing. Sometimes rendered Belief. Cp Rom. 10:17. This hearing will reveal that blind reliance on ceremonial deeds avails not. When we hear God, boasting is excluded.
38 Apart.
39 Faith saw them pointing to the Redeemer. Gal. 3:24.
40 Lit. pisteos - out of faith. A development out of those things given them. V. 12.
41 Dia - through the instrumentality of faith brought to them. It is the same faith.
42 Make it of none effect! Rather does faith place it on its proper footing.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Abraham's faith imputed to him for righteousness. 13 By faith he and his seed received the promise. 24 So, likewise, our faith shall be imputed to us.

WHAT shall we say then that Abraham [r] our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found? 2 For if Abraham were [u] justified by works, he hath [v] whereof to glory; but not before God. 3 For what saith the scripture? [a] Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. 4 Now [d] to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. 5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the [4] ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. 6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness [e] without works, 7 Saying, [f] Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. 8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

2 THE FATHER OF THE JEWISH RACE WAS JUSTIFIED BY FAITH!

1 What does the experience of Abraham teach in relation to the flesh?
2 Not mere detached belief, but implicit trust and confidence that God would perform what He promised. Cp V. 16-22.
3 Ka'tergazomai = labor from which something results, - i.e. to gain wages. The idea is work that earns salvation. Cp V. 15. Rom. 6:23.
4 Asebēs = Impious, without reverence. God has made it possible for them to be justified. Rom. 5:6.
5 God will overlook the natural failings of the flesh.

6 A more powerful example could not be drawn from Scripture.
7 LOGIZOMAI - To put to on one's account, to credit him with. AV: reckon.

LOGISETAI - Numbered Mk. 15:28 Accounted Rom. 8:36. Gal. 3:6. Accounting etc.

211 GOD IS JUST Ch. 3:26. * In imposing law * In punishing sin * In redeeming mankind (He could have destroyed mankind and commenced again with perhaps the same result - but to redeem mankind from its fallen state had the effect of humbling flesh Cp V. 24 and bringing into existence the virtues of love, mercy, forgiveness, faith etc.) * In appointing death as the means of redemption * Yes, for it is flesh that sins * In Christ coming in condemned nature * Yes because it was only way to demonstrate the principle that God in Christ could overcome sin. * In bringing him to the cross * Yes. He had come into the world for this very purpose. The death of flesh demonstrated that God gave the victory and God's justness was in resurrecting Heb. 2:14 * In permitting the shame [illegible] Yes for thus demonstrated what unrestrained flesh would do to things of God [illegible] blindness.

The advantages of justification by faith.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon [a] the circumcision [b] only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, [l] a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that [h] he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that he should be the [n] heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For [q] if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because [s] the law worketh wrath: for [u] where no law is, [x] there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be [z] by grace; [a] to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; [f] who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, [h] I have made thee a father of many nations,) [i] before him whom he believed, even God, [k] who quickeneth the dead, and calleth [l] those things which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, [c] So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, [d] when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet [e] the deadness of Sarah's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God [g] through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, [i] he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now [k] it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe [l] on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

25 [m] Who was delivered for our offences, and [o] was raised again for our [p] justification.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God, 17 and righteousness and life by Jesus Christ.

THEREFORE [r] being justified by faith, we have [t] peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:

2 By whom also [v] we have access by faith into this grace [b] wherein we stand, and [c] rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but [d] we glory in tribulations also: [e] knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

5 And [i] hope maketh not ashamed; [q] because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

out strength, [2] in due time [a] Christ died for the ungodly.
7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.
8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, [b] while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
9 Much more then, being now justified [b] by his blood, [c] we shall be saved from wrath through him.
10 For if, [d] when we were enemies, [h] we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved [i] by his life.
11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the [5] atonement.
12 Wherefore, as [n] by one man sin entered into the world, and [o] death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, [6] for that all have sinned:
13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but [s] sin is not imputed when there is no law.
14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, [v] who is the figure of him that was to come.
15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence [4] of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto [d] many.
16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.
17 For if [g] by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.)
18 Therefore as [3] by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so [4] by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon [c] all men unto [d] justification of life.
19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.
20 Moreover [f] the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, [i] grace did much more abound:
21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto [m] eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

[2] Or, according to the time. Cp. Tit. 1. 3.

1 We may not live in sin, 12 nor let sin reign any more. 23 Death the wages of sin.

WHAT shall we say then? [p] Shall we continue in sin, that [q] grace may abound?
2 God forbid. How shall we, that [r] are dead to sin, live any longer therein?
3 Know ye not, that [t] so many of us as [7] were baptized [u] into Jesus Christ [7] were baptized into his death?
4 Therefore we are [x] buried with him by baptism into death: that like as [a] Christ was raised up from the dead by [a] the glory of the Father, even so [b] we also should walk in newness of life.
5 For [c] if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:
6 Knowing this, that [e] our old man [f] is crucified with him, that [g] the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.
7 For [h] he that is dead is [8] freed from sin.
8 Now [k] if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that [a] Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, [d] he died unto sin [e] once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be [f] dead indeed unto sin, but alive [g] unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not [i] sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither [l] yield ye your members as [j] instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but [m] yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as [n] instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for [o] ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? [p] shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that [r] to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine [s] which was delivered you.

18 Being then [u] made free from sin, [x] ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 [y] I speak after the manner of men [z] because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

CHAPTER 7.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 4 We are dead to the law. 7 Yet is not the law sin, 12 but holy, just, good.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For [a] the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then [q] if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also [c] are become [r] dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the [s] motions of sins, which were by the law, did work [a] in our members [b] to bring forth fruit [c] unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, [5] that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve [d] in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then?

[w] Thanatoō = were put to death. Implies a sudden, violent death. Cp Ch. 6:23.
[x] Crucified — which is what should be done to flesh. Gal. 5:24. The old man of flesh Rom 6:6. is thus dead to the Law. The New Man then revealed Col 3:10 Eph. 2:15. 4:24.
[a] It is Christ in us that does that Col. 1:27. Eph 3:17.

14 Basileuō - to exercise Kingly power. Gal. 5:16. The sinful flesh is a dethroned Monarch - Keep him there!

15 Paristemi - To place beside, to put at one's disposal, to present (as a soldier). They are not to present their members as weapons in the battle between the two rulers. Rom 5:21 on the side of King Sin.

You will gain the victory if you do this.

The law condemns, but grace forgives and strengthens to victory.

2 IT NECESSITATES A CHANGE OF MASTERS. 15-23

16 Cp V.1. There the verb is in the present Subjunctive tense = habitual continuous action. Here it is aorist subjunctive = a single act. The question thus implies: Can we plan for a life of occasional sin seeing we are under the lenient scepstre of grace Cp Rom. 6:14. Cp V. 2. Grace is not lenient. It is stricter than Law for it calls forth a service in Love John. 14:21-24. Gal. 5:13. 6:7-8. Law calls forth the FEAR of sin - grace creates a HATRED of it. The believer might sin, but does not provide for it in the life of planned occasional sin. Cp Matt. 6:24.

20 This doctrine "delivered them into" (See Mg.) servitude to Christ 1 Cor. 7:22. to whom they had rendered faithful service. This doctrine had emancipated, liberated or set them free from lordship to the flesh, and bound them to lordship of Christ Acts 26:18.

21 The lack of spiritual understanding of any who should raise a question as V. 15. required that he bring the Truth before them in a way easily understood - by familiar example.

Or of obedient slaves unto righteousness.

- With determination we must follow his lead. Vv 10-11. V. 14
- We must disarm the enemy. V. 13. and use the very weapons he would use against him.

THE SLAVE-OWNERS Vv 15-23. Cp Ch. 7:14.

- The slaves have been delivered over from one to the other V. 17. to their advantage.
- Sin rewards with the miserable soldier's pittance of death.

THE TWO MARRIAGES. Ch. 9:1-6

- As it did not provide for forgiveness of sins, it held mankind in bondage to a marriage the fruit of which was only death.
- In Christ the Old man is crucified, without which a person is not really in Christ.

15 Katergazomai. See Note V. 8. The Slave is doing that he hates.

16 Obey the Law in its fulness.

17 Prassō - practise.

18 Poieō - do.

19 Paul performed this evil as a slave would the orders of his master - of compulsion - not of pleasure as one "sold under sin"

The law of sin ... in our members.

Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, [a] I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known [2] lust, except the law had said, [d] Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin, taking [e] occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For [f] without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, [k] which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, [l] deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore [m] the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and [n] just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is [o] spiritual: but I am carnal, [u] sold under sin.

15 For that which I do I [v] allow not: for [v] what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto [x] the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that [y] in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For [b] I delight in the law of God after [c] the inward man:

23 But I see another law in [f] my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from [3] the [i] body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Who are free from condemnation. 5 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit. 17 Of being God's children.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation [1] to them which are in Christ Jesus, who [o] walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the law of [p] the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus [q] hath made me free from [r] the law of sin and death.

3 For [t] what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, [z] God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and [3] for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That [a] the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For [b] they that are after the flesh do mind [d] the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit [e] the things of the Spirit.

6 For [e] to be carnally minded is [f] death; but [7] to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because [8] the carnal mind is [g] enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, [h] neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

CHAPTER 7.

IT CAN BE LIKENED TO A NEW MARRIAGE Vv1-6.

When Christ died he passed out of jurisdiction of Law. Those baptised "into his death" do likewise Col. 2:14

When person mar absolutely controlled

Thanatoō = were put to death. Implies a sudden, violent death. Cp Ch. 6:3

Crucified - which is what should be done to flesh Gal. 5:24. The old man of flesh Rom 6. is thus dead to the Law. The New Man is revealed Col 3:10 Eph 2:15. 4:24.

It is Christ in us that does that Col. 1:27. Eph 3:17.

Katakrino = To give judgment against, pass sentence upon (Vine) To depose (Vincent) from its dominion Christ's offering pronounced the doom of sin and brought its claims and authority over man to an end Heb 2:14. The Law could not do this. It could only pronounce judgment against man and inflict penalty, but not dethrone that which was the cause of sin. The Law gave sin life by revealing its condition Ch. 7:7-8. Christ's conquest of sin gave it its death warrant - sentencing it to death, and leaving it as a condemned criminal awaiting execution. The Law condemned sinners putting them to death Rom. 7:9

How did Christ accomplish this?

By perfect obedience in life thus gaining the conquest over flesh.

By dying on cross as a Representative of mankind, exhibiting what all must figuratively do Gal 5:24 Rom 6:3. if they would live.

This conquest of flesh ensued his resurrection to life eternal, thus destroying in himself sin's flesh. Acts 2:24. This insures for all "in him" the same conquest. A person gets "in him" by figuratively dying to the flesh & rising in newness of life Rom 6:4. By such means his sins are blotted out.

The law could only illuminate or condemn sin, it could not obliterate or forgive it. This was only possible through grace, through Divine favor manifested through Christ.

NOR IS THE LAW RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH Vv13-23.

6 DELIVERANCE & VICTORY ONLY IN CHRIST Vv24,25.

33 Talaipōros - "Wretched through the exhaustion of hard labor" (Wuest). Thus a despairing cry for help by one for exhausted to help himself.

34 This is a summary of the question posed V.7. Mentally he subscribed to the Law, physically he sinned, thus revealing the need of a Redeemer who could deliver from "this body of death" - A redeemer found in Christ.

CHAPTER 8

1 This is a contrast to what is received in Adam Rom. 5:18 There are only benefits derived in Christ.

2 Eliminated by texts. Probably a gloss from V. 4. The elimination gives greater meaning to what is implied in phrase "in Christ."

3 Can be rendered: "For the law of the Spirit, of the life in Christ..." The law of the Spirit, is the regulative impact of the Spirit-Word Gal 2:4-15. Jhn. 6:63.

4 Liberated him so that he can serve another master Ch. 6:18, 22.

5 In Christ there is forgiveness of sins.

It could not justify, forgive sins, provide hope. It only condemned sin, made appear more hopeless the prospect of salvation Ch. 7:7, 9, 13.

The efficacy of divine grace.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not (a) the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

14 Cp Gal. 2:20.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but [c] the Spirit is life because of righteousness. — Cp Ch. 6:16.

15 The new life in Christ is a token of eternal life to come.

16 Christ also rose mortal. Rom. 6:5. 14:9. 1Th. 2:17.

8 MANIFESTATION OF SPIRIT — LIFE INDICATES SONSHIP 12-17

11 But if the Spirit of [f] him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, [g] he that raised up Christ from the dead [h] shall also quicken your mortal bodies (3) by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do (1) mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live. (Gal. 6:7,8)

14 For as many as (2) are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God (Huios offspring Gk. 5207)

15 For [p] ye have not received [q] the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit (4) of [r] adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, (5) that we are the children of God: Teknon

17 And if children, then (6) heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; [z] if so be that we suffer with him, (7) that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with (8) the glory which shall be revealed in us. — Cp Rom. 5:2

19 For the [v] earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for [h] the manifestation of the sons of God. — Cp Rom. 1:4.

20 For the creature was made subject to [m] vanity, not willingly, but (9) by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, Cp Ecc.

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of [a] corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. 29

22 For we know that [2] the whole creation (10) groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. 11

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have [d] the firstfruits of the Spirit, [e] even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for [v] the adoption, to wit, the (11) redemption of our body. This will make sonship completely evident.

24 For we are saved by hope: but [k] hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our (12) infirmities: for [m] we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but [o] the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. (Not in original.)

27 And he that searcheth the hearts [x] knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, [t] because (13) he maketh intercession for the saints [t] according to the will of God.

28 And we know [u] that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them [v] who are the called according to his [z] purpose. (Rom. 8. Jhn 14:21)

29 For (14) whom he did [@] foreknow, he also did [b] predestinate to be [c] conformed to [d] the image of his Son, that he might be (15) the firstborn among many brethren: (They represent him as the head of the family)

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also (16) called: and whom he called, them he also (17) justified: and whom he justified, them he also [l] glorified. (In view of the fact that)

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? (Deut. Sing.)

32 He that [o] spared not his

PAUL'S DISTRESS AT ISRAEL'S UNBELIEF

This solemn answer then would clear him of any suspicion that his teaching to Gentiles was inspirated by hostility or indifference towards Jews.

So intense was his love for Israel that he could even wish that he were cut off from Christ if it would accomplish any good Ex 32:32. Such a voluntary offering was a dishonoring to Yahweh's power, and must be regarded as Greek literally it is "I was wishing." In the imperfect tense & optative mood implying something begun in the past but ceased at the outset — an antecedent condition which renders the wish impossible (Wuest).

I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, [a] my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For [b] I could wish that myself were [c] accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 [d] Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth [e] the adoption, and [m] the glory, and [n] the [o] covenants, and the giving of the law, and [a] the service of God, and [b] the promises;

5 [c] Whose are the fathers, and [d] of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, [e] God [h] blessed for ever. Amen.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For [i] they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:

7 [k] Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, [l] In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but [q] the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

THE CONCLUSION. Ch.8:38-39.

Nothing can separate the true followers of Christ from his love. Deeply interested in their welfare he is able to help them in all the varying circumstances of life 1 Pet. 5:22. In him there is strength Phil. 4:13. and in his love we can conquer persecution or trial or temptation. Success or depression are modified in him and assume a new meaning. Created things lose their terror for we have access to the Increate. So in Christ there is the ability to rise above every situation and see beyond it to the glory to be manifest when the love of God in him shall fully be revealed. Paul's confidence will not be misplaced so long as we remain in Him. Therefore Rom. 5:9. 11:22.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, [c] O man, who art thou that [2] repliest against God? [d] Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 [e] Hath not the potter power over the clay, of the same lump to make [f] one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much [m] longsuffering [n] the vessels of wrath [o] fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known [p] the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which [q] he had afore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom [r] he hath called, [s] not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Osee, [t] I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 [u] And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Esaias also crieth concerning Israel, [v] Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, [4] a remnant shall be saved:

28 For he will finish [5] the work, and cut it short in righteousness: [w] because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Esaias said before, [x] Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, [y] we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha.

30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, [z] which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, [a] even the righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Israel, [b] which followed after the law of righteousness, [c] hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For [d] they stumbled at that [e] stumblingstone;

5 The difference betwixt the righteousness of the law, and of faith. 11 Salvation is open to all that believe, both Jew and Gentile.

BRETHREN, [g] my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record [h] that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For, they being ignorant of [i] God's righteousness, and going about to [3] establish their own righteousness, have not submitted [4] themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For [a] Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That [b] the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, [c] Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, [d] to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? [e] The 218 beneath. Thus the doer of the Law would live within the framework of what the Law pointed to. Thus the Righteousness of the Law demanded the exercise of faith, the Law being witness ¥2 He had to see the typical meaning of the sacrifices. Israel, however, did not attain unto the Law of Righteousness, much less that of faith Rom. 9:31. Neh. 9:29. Acts 15:10. Gal 3:10.

2 THE LAW TAUGHT FAITH IS NECESSARY 5-10

7 Faith always recognised the need of a Redeemer who must be from above, who must die and be raised again. But faith did not question how it was possible recognising that the word was nigh that promised it. The Law thereby denounced the claim of righteousness by works Deut. 9:4-5

36 No definite article in Greek. Gentiles — i.e. individuals. Oudeis = no-one.

37 Because never set the task of running in the race for it as the Jews were through the Law.

38 Katalambanō = appropriated, caught hold. Cp Phil. 3:12.

39 A righteousness which was taken to them by preaching Ch 10 Vv 8-11 whereas Israel was set the task nationally.

40 Diōkō = To run swiftly in order to catch some person or thing. See word Phil. 3:12.

41 Phthanō = To arrive at or reach. The Law was always out of reach. Rom. 8:3. Their eyes were on the Law and not on righteousness.

42 That faith in Christ is necessary for justification.

45 Isa. 28:16. A foundation stone in alignment with a new order, indicating a finality in the existing Temple arrangement. The verse speaks of the need of belief.

44 Part of the Immanuel prophecy. Israel rejected the "sign." Isa. 8:14.

45 Isa. 28:16. "Whosoever" = Jew + Gentile.

CHAPTER 10

2 REJECTION CH 10

1 CAUSE OF ISRAEL'S FAILURE Vv 1-14

1 Epignōsis = full knowledge. Cp Phil. 3:8-7.

2 Dikaiosunē = Justification. They were ignorant of God's means of justification Cp Phil. 3:9.

3 An exclusive righteousness conferring personal merit... "their own."

4 Hupotassō = A military term, implying the subjection of one under orders to obey.

5 Christ brings to an end the frustrating ceaseless, hopeless pursuit of justification by means of Law Ch. 9:31. — the very attempt to accomplish it by that means thrust them further into condemnation.

6 En = In (Bull.) in the sphere of them. Lev. 18:5. The keeping of Yahweh's statutes and judgments would reveal the need of a Redeemer - one who was from above + who would triumph over sin by rising from word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That if thou shalt [b] confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, [c] Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For [d] there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for [e] the same Lord over all is [f] rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For [m] whosoever shall [n] call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear [g] without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except [r] they be sent? as it is written, [@] How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But [x] they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, [y] who hath believed [3] our [4] report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and [z] hearing by the word of God. - RV = Christ

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, [a] their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. → oikoumenē

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, [c] I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a [f] foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, [@] I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, [a] All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a [7] disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER 11.

1 God hath not cast off all Israel. 7 Some were elected, though the rest were hardened. 18 The Gentiles may not be boastful.

I SAY then, [@] Hath God cast away his people? [1] God forbid. For [d] I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 [h] God hath not cast away his people [i] which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith [2] of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 Lord, [@] they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? [@] I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Even so then at this present time also there is [t] a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And "if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? [@] Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were [5] blinded

8 (According as it is written, [@] God hath given them the spirit of [6] slumber, [d] eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

9 And David saith, [@] Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

3 This is belief or faith. Moses continues: "That thou mayest DO it." Here are works of faith. Here Israel failed Heb 4:2. so they did not fulfil the righteousness taught in the Law. Thus, Rom. 7:10.

9 Homologeō = Homou "same" legō "to speak." Thus - To be in agreement with all that Scripture teaches of him. [1] Ps 6-7. [2] Cp Rom. 6:17.

12 See Note 9. Earnest, sincere belief recognises the reality of sin, the need for a cover and leads to righteousness. Then follows a confession by the mouth (an outward manifestation) of things in agreement therewith. This confession first given at baptism

13 Eis = Implying purpose. To the end that. Bullinger: OPPORTUNITY HERE TO ALL. Vv 11-13

14 Lit. Shall not be put to shame. i.e. disgusted.

15 Diastole = Distinction. This shown by word "whosoever" V 11.

16 "For the same Lord is Lord of all" R.V.

17 Epikaleō - To callon - as to turn to or name and call upon them. Christ is the manifestation of Yahweh.

19 The "whosoever" of the Scriptures quoted - the need of preaching to Jew & Gentile alike, even though Jews like, even though Jews condemned Paul for doing this.

Paul claimed that authority Acts 13:2.

20 And the context shows that this was to refer "all nations" Isa. 52:7, 10. Beautiful = maturity and vigor (Gr. Hōraios). It speaks of feet full of vigor swiftly carrying the message, and revealed

NOT ALL ACCEPT. Vv 16-18

21 The citation of Ps 19: 4 shows that Scripture endorses the universal Gospel preaching by Apostles. It gave opportunity for all Israel in dispersion to hear Cp Col. 1:23

22 Ginōskō - To take in knowledge, to understand completely. It often indicates a relation between the person knowing and the object known (Vine) 1 Cor. 8:3, Gal. 4:9. 1 John 1:3.

23 The answer of Scripture suggests a negative.

24 Quoted from Moses' song of witness Deut. 31:20 against Israel (Cp Deut. 32:20. See also Hos. 1:9, 10.

25 Speaks out boldly and plainly and in a way calculated to cause offence.

5 ISRAEL REJECTS THE MESSAGE: GOD TURNS TO GENTILES. Vv 19-21.

at the right season, for horaios is derived from hora, a season, a period fixed by natural laws). These were "feet" brought to full vigor at right season.

26 Yahweh, as always, takes the initiative in mercy. Rom. 5:8 1 John 4:10, 19. First to Israel then to Gentiles.

27 Apeitheō - Non-persuasible, obdurate.

28 Antilegō - To oppose one's self to one, refuse to have anything to do with him. Thus argument true

CHAPTER 11

3 1 RESTORATION. CH 11. ISRAEL'S REJECTION NOT FOR COMPLETE: A REMNANT SAVED. Vv 1-10.

1 Or Jew Acts 22:3. Such hypothesis would exclude Paul as a member of Israel. The mercy he received was refutation of the idea. Given repentance and Israel as a nation would be restored v. 26.

2 This foreknowledge excludes the possibility of God casting off Israel, for when He selected the nation as per Ch 9:10-13 He knew what they would be like.

3 This constituted the true germ of Israel. Yet to the prophet the nation seemed completely apostate. There was virtue in it not openly apparent Thus - Isa. 65:8.

4 Kairos (Season or epoch) not chronos, or time. The season was that marked off as the era of Mosaic epoch Heb 9:26.

5 There are no works that men do that make God a debtor to them or establishes their right to justification. Even Israel was reminded of that Deut. 9:4-5. Nevertheless action is necessary as an outward manifestation of faith Hos 2:13. In Elijah's day they refused to bow to Baal

6 Eklogē - Those chosen out.

7 Pōroō = To cover with a thick skin, to harden by covering with a callous. Up ing. They become hardened by circumstances.

8 Katanuxis. Extreme sorrow and grief, insensibility or torpor of mind. Stupor. Probably induced by sorrow.

9 Mal. 1:7. Their confidence in the Temple altar.

10 Their failure to perceive the true import of the Altar and sacrifices brought its appropriate recompence Mal. 2:9.

David prays for this to be done, for otherwise it would mean the complete abandonment of justice and Divine authority, it would mean that complete and utter disregard of Divine principles status.

PAUL'S PRAISE VV33-36. Like a traveller standing upon the mountain peak and seeing the glory of the panoramic view spread out before him so Paul from his lofty position of exaltation (Col.3:1) surveys the work of salvation and breaks into unstinted praise of the Creator. The difficulties of laboring to the top are seen to be worth while, the views stretched out before him is only one that the Divine Creator could produce. The artificial painting is capable of reproducing it as the Creator has revealed it. It reveals the depths of wisdom & knowledge, it shows that the very judgment to condemnation are so wise and purposeful as to be beyond human engenuity to search out. NO one has aided Him to this end, He is in debt to none V.35. Out of Him by means of Him, and for His glory have all these things been provided, for in Christ did He reveal Himself to that end. Rom.8:3. 2Cor. 5:19 Amen!!

11 In perpetual slavery (Lev 25: 23). Zedekiah as rep of Nation treated like this.

2 ISRAEL'S REJECTION ONLY TEMPORARY. Vv11-24

12 Supply ellipsis = permanently
13 See Note Ch. 6:2.

14 RV = Loss.

15 RV. "But I speak to you that are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as I am an apostle of Gentiles, I glorify my ministry;"

16 RV Glorify. He does this by complete devotion to the labor of preaching, hoping by the very success of his efforts to provoke to emulation some Jews.

17 As the Apostle is contrasting benefits received by the Ecclesia (V11-12) Thus it thus must relate to the resurrection - though there will be a political resurrection for Israel too.

The patriarchs.

Hagios = Set apart for God.

20 Phurama. That which is Mixed or Kneaded, such as dough. A reference to the loaf of firstfruits Israel was required to offer up. Num. 15:19-21.

The patriarchs - by a new figure.

Ramsay claims that in certain extreme cases this was a practise in Palestine. However the principle of grace to Gentiles in preference to God's firstborn was "contrary to nature" V.24

25 "The presumptuous Gentile persists: It is not to the root I compare myself, but branches were broken off that I might be engrafted; that surely involves some superiority to me!"

A form of partial and ironic acceptance.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but [s] fear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee. Jer. 31:19 2 Cor 6:1

28 It would be far easier to regraft Israel than convert the Gentiles. Even in apostasy Israel shows a greater aptitude for reverence than do Gentile nations. The "lump" and "branches" must yet be offered to Yahweh Cp V.16. Jer 31:9.

4 THE DEPTHS OF GOD'S WISDOM SHOWN IN HIS PLAN REDEMPTIVE Vv33-36.

40 Sophia — Wisdom cleverness, skill

41 Gnosis — An understanding of what

42 His judgments (Krima — to condemnation) the sentence pronounced) are Divine, and such as human wisdom would not search out. The condemnation on flesh brought into existence mercy, grace, reliance on God as a Father. The condemnation on Israel opened salvation for Gentiles without setting aside His purpose with Israel. Cp 1 Cor. 2:10 Note.

43 Hodos — A way, highway, method of proceeding (Bull.). These are past finding out apart from revelation — Paul himself being witness

* The saints to be salvated with it Jer. 31:14.
* The whole world to witness it Jer 3:9.
* A feature of millenial songs of victory. Zech. 9:17.

Chrēstotēs signifies goodness in action, manifested in grace, kindness, compassion of God (Vine).

44 Ginōskō = To understand completely. The quotation from Isa. 40:13 shows to know in such a way as to dominate and govern the Divine mind. None have done that. His purpose, His grace, His forgiveness have never been dictated to Him but have come spontaneously from Him.

CHAPTER 12.

1 God's mercies must move us to please God. 9 Exhortation to love, and sundry other duties.

I [f]BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye [g]present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And [h]be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may [i]prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, [j]not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think [k]soberly, [l]according as God hath dealt to every man [m]the measure of faith.

4 [n]For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So we, [o]being many, [p]are one body in Christ, and every one [q]members one of another.

6 [r]Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether [s]prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching;

8 Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that [t]giveth, let him do it [u]with simplicity; [v]he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 Let [w]love be without dissimulation. [x]Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 Be [y]kindly affectioned one to another [z]with brotherly love; [a]in honour preferring one another;

11 Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

12 Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; [b]continuing instant in prayer;

13 [c]Distributing to the necessity of saints; [d]given to hospitality.

14 [e]Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not.

15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.

16 Be [f]of the same mind one toward another. [g]Mind not high things, but [h]condescend to men of low estate. [i]Be not wise in your own conceits.

17 [j]Recompense to no man evil for evil. [k]Provide things honest in the sight of all men.

18 If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, [l]live peaceably with all men.

19 Dearly beloved, [m]avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, [n]Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 Therefore [o]if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Of subjection to magistrates. 8 Love is the fulfilling of the law. 11 The works of darkness are out of season in the time of the gospel.

LET every soul [p]be subject unto the higher powers. For [q]there is no power but of God: [r]the powers that be are [s]ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and @thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also [h]for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 [i]Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for [n]he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, @Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, @Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, @Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore [o]love is the fulfilling of the law.

CHAPTER 14.

1 How to treat a weak brother. 3 Men may not condemn one the other for things indifferent.

HIM that is [e]weak in the faith [f]receive ye, but [g]not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth [h]that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and [k]let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath [f]received him.

4 [m]Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for [n]God is able to make him stand.

5 [o]One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be [p]fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that [q]regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for [r]he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For [s]none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end Christ both [a]died, and rose, and revived, that he might be [b]Lord both [c]of the dead and living.

CHAPTER 14.

1 ECCLESIAL RESPONSIBILITIES
THE PRINCIPLE: MUTUAL CONSIDERATENESS. 6h

1 RV: "Weak in faith," not "the faith." The verse must not be taken out of context - it concerned those who had an over-scrupulosity in such matters as eating and drinking.
2 Dia Kriseis - A judging two ways, or two directions, first a doubting as to what is correct. Thus a wavering weak mind.
3 Dialogismōn - Inner deliberations. See mg.
4 The Ecclesia is not to be troubled by such unimportant and unprofitable questions.
5 Has faith or confidence
6 The weak man is censorious of the other - the other is contemptuous of the weak - both are moved by pride. "The weak brother is the bully of the Ecclesia."
7 This is the weaker. Paul was alive to the tyranny of the meddling back-biting evil such an action
8 Jewish Christians desired to retain customs Acts 21:20. This permitted 1 Cor. 9:20. but not the neglect of regular meetings Heb 10:25. See mg.
9 The motives of both are the same - glory to God 1 Cor. 10:31. that is excellent, but have it to yourself without condemning others Rom. 14:22.
10 Whatever we permit or deny (die to self) must be unto the Lord - we must not please ourselves. Cp 2 Cor. 5:11. Gal. 2:20. And there-

Kairos - Season (not Chronos, time). The opportune period when anything should be done. It was the season of enlightenment when salvation was preached to Gentile, the season of [illegible] walking in light.
Eph. 5:14. 1 Thess. 5:6 Jhn. 12:35

Government authorities perform it Rom. 13:4. It stems exclusively from God Mth. 19:17.

31 Dokimazō - To approve after having put to the test to see if it meets specification. The strong need to exercise care that he does not permit that which is inadmissable

32 Diakrinō = middle voice = To contend with and be in strife with oneself, to hesitate, waver (Bull). He is in an unhappy state of mind. If he follows the strong he stands condemned in his mind. In any case he is uneasy with the sense of inconsistency. He should strengthen himself and the strong must show love and consideration.

2 THE INCENTIVE: CHRIST'S EXAMPLE V1-12

1 By curtailing the freedom which would normally be permissible. Cp Gal 6:1-2

2 1 Pet. 2:23. 2 Tim 2:24

3 The object of Scripture Rom. 6:20-23. This they should follow and not please themselves.

4 Paraklēsis = A calling near, a summons, entreaty, encouragement.

5 "With the help of God, the example of Christ, the guidances of the Word of God, difficulties would be overcome, unity of mind would result, and God would be glorified" (J.C.)

6 That being the Divine character it should be reflected by God children.

7 Stop your contention, close up your ranks.

8 Jew and Gentile, strong and weak. Gentiles must not view with contempt the scruples of Jewish believers - the latter must not condemn the former.

9 Diakonos - one who serves

10 Mth 15:24

11 Bebaioō = Make firm, sure, establish.

12 As the O.T freely shows the Gentiles should be incorporated into the Divine call, so judgment against them by over-scrupulous Jews was out of place.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.
11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.
12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.
16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.
18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.
19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another.
20 For meat destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.
21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.
22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.
23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

1 We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.
2 Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification.
3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.
4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.
5 Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus:
6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.
8 Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:
9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.
10 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.
11 And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.
12 And again, Esaias saith,

It stems exclusively from God Mth. 19:17.

ROM. 16: Though Paul had never been to Rome he greets many by name having met them elsewhere or having heard of their activities. Though personal details are lacking us they are recorded in Book Life. Paul takes time to encourage each one but there is no mention of Peter—the so-called Bishop! The extensiveness of Paul's preaching.

(a) There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

14 And [d] I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, [h] because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That [i] I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the [3] [m] offering up of the Gentiles might be [n] acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Ghost.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jesus Christ [o] in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things [p] which Christ hath not wrought by me, [q] to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 Through [r] mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, [t] lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

21 But as it is written, (f) To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been [5] much [u] hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these [b] parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and [g] to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled [2] with your company.

25 But now I (c) go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of (e) Macedonia and Achaia [v] to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For [k] if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, [l] their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 When therefore I have performed this, and have [o] sealed to them this [p] fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure that, [r] when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love [4] of the Spirit, that ye [z] strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 [y] That I may be delivered from them that [4] do not believe in Judæa; and that my [z] service which I have for Jerusalem may be [a] accepted of the saints;

32 That I may come unto you with joy [c] by the will of God, and may with you be [d] refreshed.

33 Now (f) the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

24 Having completed his work in all areas allotted him, he was free to visit Rome Acts 19:21.

25 It is not known whether Paul ever got to Spain. He was taken a prisoner to Rome.

26 He looked for the brethren to assist him in his journey to Spain.

27 RV: Satisfied.

28 Paul had taken up a collection on behalf of the poor in Jerusalem 1 Cor. 16:1-3. 2 Cor. 9:2 Acts 24:17. He doubtless hoped that the kindness thus shown by Gentile believers would help to unite the two groups more completely.

30 Completed this transaction.

31 Imprisonment brought him to Rome!

35 The word means to snatch out of danger. Paul knew that difficulties awaited him in Jerusalem Cp Acts 20:23, 21:11 but he was determined to carry out his plan.

CHAPTER 16.

Divers salutations, &c., concluding with praise and thanks to God.

I [h] COMMEND unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea:

2 That ye receive her in the Lord, as becometh saints, and assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

5 Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my well beloved Epenetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ.

6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us.

7 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.

8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.

9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.

10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' household.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.

14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.

16 Salute one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.

Arabara priest presided over the sacrificial offering of Gentiles.

He gloried in the acceptment that came to him through Christ, and by which alone he had authority so to write.

RV: "Save those which Christ wrought..."

He constantly asserts this 1 Cor. 3:10, 2 Cor. 10:13, 15, 16. With true pioneering spirit he pushed into areas where there was no support, cheerfully undertaking the problems and difficulties this involved.

2 PAUL'S PLANS FOR THE FUTURE Vv 22-24

22-23 Preaching in areas where others had not penetrated. But he had long desired to visit Rome. Ch. 1:8-13.

35 cont. out his mission believing that this service of love which he felt so keenly for his countrymen Rom. 9:1, 10:1 could have a good reaction as far as the unity of Jews and Gentiles in the Truth were concerned. He suffered hardships but was delivered out of danger and got to Rome, so that his prayer was answered Acts Chaps 21-24.

36 There was a doubt about this, so bitterly was Paul hated by some.

37 Lit. Refresh myself. One would imagine that the benefit of Paul's visit to Rome would be entirely personal.

PRISCILLA & AQUILA.

A Jewish couple of Pontus, resident for a time in Italy but forced to leave through Jewish persecution of Claudius They were tentmakers and Paul lived with them and probably had taught them the Truth. Acts 18:1-3 When he visited Corinth. They were thus in midst of arguments debates, opposition Vv 5-6 and accusations which brought Paul before the Authorities Vv 7-17. They were his fellow-passengers from Corinth to Ephesus where they stayed. There they set up house which became centre for Truth. 1 Cor. 16:19. THE SCHISMS. Apparently it was the Apollos "fans" who were the most "puffed up" of the several groups, for which reason Paul says more about Apollos than Peter. But there is not the slightest criticism of Apollos himself; nor the subtlest suggestion of reflection upon him. The references are all appreciative, and it is illuminative to notice from Ch. 16:12 that Paul was not jealous of the influence or popularity of Apollos, nor was Apollos over-eager to exploit his popularity by a return visit. Paul declares that they were "one" for "we are fellow-workers" Ch. 3:8-9. Let us learn to appreciate Christ's gifted servants without idolising them — and let those who are thus gifted learn how fickle audiences can be and labor as unto the Lord. Otherwise, let Paul beware — for Apollos is going to spell-bind his converts! Let Apollos beware — for a deeper teacher may soon arrive to decry his mere intellectual oratory.

REASONS FOR WRITING. • To avoid the necessity for a painful visit 2 Cor. 2:3. • To show his special love for them 2 Cor. 2:4 • To test their obedience 2 Cor. 2:9.

THE CROSS OF CHRIST

The cross was the symbol of shame and agony, the sign of the criminal's condemnation. A crucified Messiah was abhorrent to the Jews, for being "accursed of God" Deut. 21:23. Gal. 3:13. The philosophising Greeks repudiated the resurrection Acts 17:32 and were left only with the dead body hanging from a stake of infamy, agony and shame — set for them to follow as an example. To the perishing, ignorant Jews & Greeks the whole idea was abhorrent + stupid.

Cp Mt. 10:38, 16:24. Luke 9:23; 14:27. Gal. 5:11. 6:12, 14. Phil. 2:8. Heb. 12:2 Rom. 6:6. Gal. 2:20, 5:24. 6:14. Cf. Heb 6:6

The trouble lies deep-seated

12 Now this I say, that [b] every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of [d] Apollos; and I of [f] Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 [h] Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye [i] baptized in the name of Paul?

The Gr. has an indignant negative — "not Paul was crucified..."

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but [l] Crispus and [m] Gaius;

A common name, but probably Rom. 16:23

16 And I baptized also the household of [t] Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: [x] not with wisdom of [z] words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to [a] them that perish [c] foolishness; but unto us [d] which are saved it is [e] the power of God.

Dunamis Rom. 1:16

19 For it is written, [g] I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

The resurrection did this at the 1st advent more so at the 2nd

Aion Kosmos

21 [r] For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, [s] it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For [u] the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

"THE POWER OF GOD" "Dunamis" — Inherent power, ability to perform anything. The Dynamics of God are generated by the facts concerning Christ crucified. Through this are found ● Forgiveness of sins and access to the Father. ● An example of flesh put aside and a life dedicated to God. ● A resurrection leading to newness of life Rom. 6:2-4. Gal. 2:20. ● An exhibition of the source of strength John 6:63; Ps. 86:17, 2 Cor. 5:14-20. ● Hope and faith in the knowledge of the riches of the promised inheritance Eph. 1:17-23. ● An exhibition of the sinlessness of Christ Acts 2:24. ● A declaration of the righteousness and mercy of God; the former warning us God is thus revealed in the saving truths Rom. 1:16. 1 Cor. 1:18.

BACKGROUND.

● In B.C. 146 Corinth challenged Rome and was defeated, the Roman consul Mummius burning the city to ashes. The accidental fusing together of different metals during conflagration is said to have led to the discovery of Corinthian brass. ● The city was rebuilt 44 B.C by Julius Caesar and due to its strategic position it soon became a prosperous trading center. It was made the capital of the Roman province of Achaia, and was ruled by a proconsul.

Two vices plagued the town — greed for material gain and lust. Corinth's bustling wharves and docks and its busy shops and factories fostered the one. The cult of Aphrodite, the goddess of love, entrenched here from time immemorial, fostered the other (Unger - Archeology of N.T.). The voluptuous and vicious forms of the goddess' worship, made the city a notorious seat of immorality. "Such terms as "to corinthianize" meaning to enter into the immoral practices of the city; 'Corinthian girl,' to denote the type of life engaged in there; and even 'Corinthian sickness,' to indicate the inevitable physiological and psychological results of such a life, made their impress upon the Greek language itself (Unger). It is significant that Rom. 1 was written from Corinth.

● This sink of wealth, luxury and of profligacy became the testing ground for the efficacy of the Truth's teaching.

Sit. 15 mile 4th Isthmus, with two Ports: Lechaeum, and Cenchrea — Doors to West & East and the source of its influence and wealth.

INTRODUCTION OF THE TRUTH

● Paul arrived, dispirited from Athens (1 Thess. 3:1-3. Acts 18:1) approx A.D 50 (Gallio Acts 18:12 the new annual proconsul was installed in the summer of A.D 51 and the Apostle after 18 mths sojourn was hailed before him apparently shortly after he had been newly installed). He obtained accomodation and evidently employment from Aquila (Acts 18:2), was greatly encouraged by the arrival of Silas and Timothy v.5 and received a Divine commission to boldly speak v.9.

● Leaving Corinth Paul made his way to Jerusalem leaving Aquila & Priscilla at Ephesus. Here Apollos was converted Acts 18:24-28, and made his way to Corinth where he ministered for some time. Meanwhile, Paul returned for a protracted period to Ephesus Acts 19:1-10. (3 years Acts 20:31)

● From Ephesus, he evidently made a brief, unrecorded visit to Corinth, implied in such references as 2 Cor. 12:14. 13:1. 2 Cor. 12:21. He was evidently concerned at the environment of the Ecclesia. He had warned and appealed to them and, on leaving, supplemented his labor by a short letter, exhorting them to strictly exclude pollution with the prevailing immorality 1 Cor. 5:9-10. But his appeal had been ignored. His boldness had been mistaken for weakness; his hesitation in punishing had been ascribed to a fear of the offenders.

● Meanwhile Erastus and Timothy left Ephesus for Macedonia Acts 19:22 with a general instruction to try and make Corinth, though there was no certainty that they would do so 1 Cor. 16:10.

WHY THE EPISTLE WAS WRITTEN

For the purpose and emotional stress of the writer. See 2 Cor. 2:3-4.

● Paul's fears for the brethren were given substance by news he suddenly received in Ephesus. Members of the family of Chloe, brethren who could be relied upon, reported concerning growing contention through party strife 1 Cor. 1:11. The Ecclesia was torn by four factions: followers of Paul (probably complete rejection of the Law — licence instead of liberty), of Cephas (Judaisers) of Apollos (more intellectual swayed by Greek eloquence), Christ (the superior party, in direct-ly arrogating Christ's name in a factious way to imply the inferiority of all others).

● Further investigation 1 Cor. 5:1. revealed that whilst the party spirit raged unabated, a flagrant case of gross immorality, indicative of the actual spiritual condition of all parties had been tolerated. There were cases of litigation one against the other showing absolute want of brotherly love 1 Cor. 6:1, on the other hand there was not a true appreciation of the true status of the world and the need for separation 1 Cor. 6:12-20.

● About the same time as this disastrous intelligence was received, a deputation of three brethren arrived from Corinth bearing a communication, possibly arising out of the previous letter of Paul's which they had misunderstood 1 Cor. 16:17. 5:9-11. and asking questions which Paul proceeded to answer 1 Cor. 7:1. Queries (whether contained in the letter from Corinth or obtained by the Apostle by questioning. See 1 Cor. 16:15) dealing with spirit gifts, ecclesial order, doctrinal problems, were also answered.

● The difficulties in Corinth, therefore, resulted in the writing of an important treatise dealing with Ecclesial order which is of extreme value today. It is, at the same time Corrective ● Constructive ● Encouraging

● The letter was conveyed by the vigorous, forthright Titus whom Paul had arranged to meet at Troas 2 Cor. 2:12-13. But Titus was delayed and Paul worked as to the result of his mission, crossed the Aegean Sea to meet him 2 Cor. 2:13. The delay had had a physical reaction 2 Cor. 2:13 & 2 Cor. 7:5-6 Nevertheless, while he waited, he preached 2 Cor. 2:12. In Macedonia (probably at Philippi — for 2 Cor. 11:9 - Macedonia as equivalent for Philippi — and see subscription to Epistles), he met up with Titus and was greatly relieved at the effect of the Epistle on the Corinthian brethren as described by Titus. 2 Cor. 7:5-16. Titus, however, spoke of a fresh peril — and Paul, emotionally affected, wrote the 2nd Epistle — the least systematic of all his epistles.

THEME See Appendix p.30. Paul's deep affection for them. 2 Cor. 2:4.

Christ: the Wisdom of God to us 1 Cor. 1:17, 24, 30. 2:6-7.

The Greeks were noted for intellectual pride, hence the impact of the Apollos section to which Paul devotes more attention than the others. Paul renounces worldly wisdom 1 Cor. 1:17. 2:1 shows that the world is blinded to God by its wisdom 1 Cor. 1:21. The natural man does not receive the true wisdom 1 Cor. 2:14. and emphasises the Lordship of Christ (6 times in 1st 10 v.) ● declaring the he is our wisdom 1 Cor. 1:30.

5 ONLY THE SPIRITUALLY MINDED CAN GRASP THAT WISDOM Vv 9-16.

18 Paul's desire is to show from Scripture that the Divine Wisdom is a Revelation apart from the exercise of human, eye, ear or heart and therefore he combines two references Is. 64:4 - See Mtg. The Wisdom he taught is Divine not human. 1 Cor. 1:19-21.

19 Paul is not teaching that he received a new revelation (Acts 24:13-15. 26:6-7, 27. See Acts 24:14. 26:22. 28:23.) but that additional light had been shed upon that already given. The citations from O.T. reveal

20 As in the past Neh. 9:6. The Apostles inspired John 14:26.

21 The possession of the Spirit enabled all things otherwise beyond understanding to be searched out. Cp. Rom. 11:33. Jas. 3:17.

22 We cannot understand the inner thoughts and feelings of any particular man (Cor. the man) unless he reveals them to us - Yet we are of his nature; how much less those of God!

23 Eph. 2:2 The spirit of the present aiōnic kosmos rejected Truth & crucified the Lord. V.8 Cp 1 John 5:19.

24 Verbal inspiration. The very words used by the Spirit are significant. Teaching established upon the authority of a word: "all" Eph. 2:15 "new" 2 Cor. 5:17 "my son" 1 John 2:1-2 "once" Heb. 9:26 "today" Heb. 4:7 Cp 2 Cor. 12:2-3. 1 Pet. 1:12.

25 Sun Krinontes - Combining words with "things" and "words" with "spiritual things" with spiritual; discrimination. R.V. "The Spirit" (Amer. R.V.). The Spirit governed the words by which the "things" were expressed, unlike human wisdom Cp. 2:4.

26 The context governing these words "spiritual" aligns them with "things" and "words" as "spiritual things" with spiritual; discrimination.

27 Dechomai: To receive by deliberate & ready reception. -Xine. "It implies a subjective reception, shewing that a decisive act of the will has taken place with respect to the object presented and that the acceptance manifests it" (Cully). Thus they refuse to accept the authority of the Word & the reason being - Vv 7. He lacks a love of divine things. 1 John 4:6-7

THE SCHISMS. Apparently it was the Apollos "fans" who were the most "puffed up" of the several groups, for which reason Paul says more about Apollos than Peter. But there is not the slightest criticism of Apollos himself; nor the subtlest suggestion of reflection upon him. The references are all appreciative, and it is illuminative to notice from Ch. 16:12 that Paul was not jealous of the influence or popularity of Apollos, nor was Apollos over-eager to exploit his popularity by a return visit. Paul declares that they were "one" for "we are fellow-workers" Ch. 3:5-9. 1 THE CALL OF CHRIST'S FOLLOWERS Vv 1-3.

1 See Note Gal 1:1.

2 Sig. "Of safe strength." Nothing is known of him. He was probably the amanuensis of the Epistle to Titus.

3 Hagiazo - Set apart - ie. for Divine use. The medium - John 17:17,19.

4 Saints (Hagioi) through a call - Kletos. Cp Acts 15:14. John 6:44.

5 Thus impressing them that they were but a fraction of the whole Ecclesia, that division is out of place in the economy of Christ.

6 See Note Gal 1:3. Divine favor + fellowship. Charis (Eirene (Heb Shalom). A blending of Greek + Jewish salutations. The Greeks said Charien; the Jews - Shalom.

2 THE PRIVILEGES OF CHRIST'S FOLLOWERS Vv 4-9

The personal pronoun reveals that Paul alone was the author - Sosthenes but the amanuensis.

Gr: "which was given you" Diag. "which has been im... parted to you." Paul had thoroughly expounded the truth to them. But they were now beginning to drift Cp v. 14

Logos - The Word expounded.

Gnosis - "Primarily a seeking to know, an enquiry, investigation..." Vine. All had been satisfactorily supplied: should be reflected. They reflected the result of the teaching in a way of life. (Note the repeat)

"You are not inferior in any one gift" - Diag. The Spirit-gifts, received by the imposition of the Apostle's hand Acts 8:18; 19:6. 1 Tim. 4:14. 2 Tim. 1:6. testified to the veracity of the things he proclaimed. They had also developed spiritual gifts 2 Cor. 8:7 which witnessed to the same end.

13 Bebaioo - "establish, make secure" Vine. "He will do his part to confirm them unto the end, if they fail it would not be for want of his help. Cp Phil. 1:6; 2:13; 4:13. 1 Thess. 3:2; 5:24. Cp Phil. 1:6. 1 Cor. 1:8.

Anenklesia - Not merely acquittal, but the absence of even a charge or accusation against a person - Vine. Occurs 1 Tim. 3:10; 5:7; 6:14. This could only be by forgiveness of sins - cancellation of existing penalties. For that they had to rely on Divine help. He will do His part if they will do theirs" Thessalonians Galatians

• PAUL'S NOBLE EXAMPLE

He not merely taught the message, he demonstrated it. He did not say "Do as I say" merely, but also "Do as I do." He sets his own personal example from

1 Loyalty in message, method, + motive Ch 2:1-5

2 Sound principle in founding + building - Ch 3:10-15

3 Fidelity as a steward of saving truth - Ch 4:1-5

4 Patient endurance under tribulation Ch 4:9-13

5 Consideration for weaker brethren - 6:12, 8:13

6 Waiving of real rights and dues - Ch 9:1-15

7 Self-denial in proclaiming truth - Ch 9:19-23

8 Self-discipline in body + behavior - 9:27, 10:12

9 Self-restraint in public assemblies Ch 10:23-30

10 Self-abnegation + active gratitude - Ch 10:31-11:1

• PAUL THE PATTERN BELIEVER Ch 2:1-2

"I determined" - suggests meditation, preparation, reflection. "I came not with oratory + learning..." Paul puts himself completely out of the picture. "Not to know but" Holds the picture with Christ

"THE POWER OF GOD" "Dunamis"—Inherent power, ability to perform anything. The Dynamics of God are generated by the facts concerning Christ crucified. Through this are found • Forgiveness of sins and access to the Father. • An example of flesh put aside and a life dedicated to God. • A resurrection leading to newness of life Rom. 6:2-4. Gal. 2:20. • An exhibition of the source of strength John 6:63; Ps. 80:17, 2 Cor. 5:14-20. • Hope and faith in the knowledge of the riches of the promised inheritance Eph. 1:17-23. • An exhibition of the sinlessness of Christ Acts 2:24. • A declaration of the righteousness and mercy of God; the former warning us against the flesh, the latter providing confidence in access to God Rom. 3:24-26. • The power of God is thus revealed in the saving truths of the Gospel which creates confidence in the Father, and awakens us to privileges in Christ. 24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God. 25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men. (Preaching—decried as foolish—V 21)

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: (There were some Rom. 16:23)

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: (The wisdom & might in which the world gloried)

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence. (See below)

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: The first section of Ep. to Romans.

31 That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. (Yahweh. See Jeremiah)

CHAPTER 2.

1 He declareth that his preaching, though it bring not excellency of speech, yet far excelleth 6 the wisdom of this world, and 9 human sense.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified. Acts 18:5

3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory: (Rom. 5:2. 1 Pet. 5:10)

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. (Treated him as a criminal)

9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. (The Apostles)

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. (Rom. 11:33. Eph. 3:18)

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. (The Apostles)

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. (Psuchikos—soulish Acts 4:12)

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

5 ONLY THE SPIRITUALLY MINDED CAN GRASP THAT WISDOM Vv 9-16.

18. Paul's desire is to show from Scripture that the Divine Wisdom is a Revelation apart from the exercise of human, eye, ear or heart and therefore he combines two references Isaiah 64:4 & 65:17—See Mtg. The Wisdom he taught is Divine not human. 2:4 1:19-21.
19. Paul is not teaching that he received a new revelation (See Acts 24:14-15. 26:6-7. 27:23) but that additional light had been shed upon that already given. The citations from O.T. reveal
20. As in the past Neh. 9:36. The Apostles inspired John 14:26.
21. The possession of the Spirit enabled all things otherwise beyond understanding to be searched out. Cp. Rom. 11:33. John 14:26.

23. Eph. 2:12. The spirit of the present aiōn kosmos rejected Truth & crucified the Lord. V 8. Cp 1 John 4:17.
24. Verbal Inspiration. The very words used by the Spirit are significant. Teaching is established upon the authority of a word: "all" Heb. 2:8 "new" 8:13 "my son" Heb. 1:5-6 "once" 12:27 "today" Heb. 4:7 Cp 11:19.
25. Sunkrinontes—Combining or discrimination.
The context governing these words "spiritual" aligns them with "things" and "words" rendering "spiritual things with spiritual words" (Diag. RVJ). The SPIRIT governed the words by which the "things" were expressed, unlike human wisdom Ch. 1:21.

- The Unwise who introduce wrong material V.12 have wages reduced V.15 "though receiving the gift of eternal life Rom. 6:23.
- The fools V.19 who destroy are destroyed. V.17. The true nature of material not always now recognised - but the day shall make it manifest.
- The first labor according to Divine Wisdom Ch. 1:24, 2:2.
- The second are sincere, well motivated workers whose innocuous teaching produce no lasting good.
- The third are those whose teaching destroys the very foundation Ps. 11:3.

31 Ana Krino - Ana = up; Krino to separate, select, choose. His discern and understand. Rend. "discerned" V.14.
32 His motives, point of view, values etc are misunderstood. He is condemned, depreciated, ridiculed, slandered, but not understood.
33 It is obvious we cannot instruct Yahweh.
34 Who reflected that of Yahweh. This mind was developed by precept + example John 15:13, 16:23 and followers exhorted to manifest it Phil. 2:5.

Christ is the only foundation.

judgeth all things, yet he himself is [3] judged of no man. 16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he [4] may instruct him? But [c] we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3.

a Milk is fit for children. 3 Against strife and division. 11 Christ the only foundation. 16 Men the temples of God, which 17 must be kept holy.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto [1] carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? (They could not receive envy)

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but [1] ministers by whom ye believed, "even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 I have planted, Apollos watered; but God gave the increase. - Cp Mk 4:26-27. Jam. 5:7

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building. Wis 12:2, Jer 5:6, Eph 2:20, 1 Pet 2:5, Rev 21:14

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. Gr a 11 For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. - Cp Ch. 2:2.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble; (expressing deterioration)

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. (A brand from the burning Zech 3:2, Amos 4:11)

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? John 6:63, Eph 6:17, 1 John 2:16

17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are your's;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;

23 And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's. (Rev 21:7)

6 THEIR FACTIONS ILLUSTRATED THAT THEY HAD NOT DEVELOPED IN SPIRITUAL WISDOM. Vv. 1-4.

1 This expression softens the rebuke that follows.
2 Despite their sophistication, their parade of learning, science + philosophy, they were but babes. They had to be treated so even though they accepted Christ, for their educational environment created a barrier against their spiritual development.
Sarkinos, fleshy - too much flesh, so that it needs to be reduced. It implies weakness, but not the dominance of evil rep. by Sarkikos Vv 3-4
Presented by Sarkikos Vv 3-4 which is a later development stemming from the neglect to reduce the flesh. Best not to have had no development; the flesh has not been trained off!!
5 Sarkikos - Under the dominance of flesh, controlled by its appetite. A retrograde step.
3 Partnership + discord + works of flesh Gal. 5:20 bringing other evils in their train Jam. 3:16. The former = sin of heart; the latter its consequent manifestations.
Many mss = "men" + so the RV. They walked as mere unenlightened men - + Paul selects his own supporters for the forthcoming rebuke.

8 Gr = neuter: "What" Not the person, but the office in question.
9 Diakonoi - deacons Phil. 1:1 note.
10 Dia with genitive - through not "in".
Paul laid the foundation; Apollos built thereon - both labored according to God - given gifts: Ref 4:10-11 + to God should be the glory.
12 Apart from Divine Blessing Ps. 127
13 en. They are united in one sphere of labor owning allegiance to a common Employer, united in the same objective - though their labor differs.
Cp Luke 19:16-17, John 4:36; Rev. 22:12. They receive different wages. Does that justify believers telling Paul above Apollos? No they are but wage-earners. Let them look to the Employer!!
Synergoi - co-workers. The sense of the Greek = "God's co-workers" (See Diag.). Not with one another. They were united in that they were commonly employed by Him. The Corinthians acted as if co-workers belonged to them. Paul disclaimed any such responsibility. It would be God who would pay his wages!
16 Georgeon - a tilled field or vineyard. They should be the place to show the increase of the joint labors of the Apostles + the blessing of God. The world is the field Mt. 13:38 - the Tilled field, the Ecclesia. To God should be the glory. V. 21.
11 Paul's conversion was linked with his appointment as an Apostle Acts 9:15, 26:16-18. He ever bore this in mind, holding it as a sacred trust - 1 Cor. 15:10, Rom. 15:15, Gal. 2:9, Eph. 3:2, NIC.
18 Because building according to Divine specifications 1 Cor. 2:6.

9 TRUE LEADERS ARE RESPONSIBLE ONLY TO GOD Vv. 1-7

THREE PROBING QUESTIONS V.7.

Designed to puncture the bubble of their pompous stupidity! He sharply castigates their folly with an irony and sarcasm that they fully deserved, and which Christ even more sharply used in similar conditions. Rev. 3:17. He mocks them in language which meant the very opposite of which he said!

The first two statements V.8 are preceded with the exclamation: hede! "Already," as though he said: "Consider! Already you are full! Consider! already you are rich!" They were already acting as though they were in the Kingdom reigning! They have so much better than the Apostles they professed to follow who were often hungry, desperately poor, & appointed to persecution & death!

Full satisfy, riches & honor are blessings promised those who hunger for righteousness, are poor in spirit and are persecuted (Matt. 5:3-6) but reserved for the age to come. The Corinthians acted as though they already possessed these blessings.

All distinctions are from God.

and [a] stewards of [b] the mysteries of God. (Secrets revealed to initiates Luke 8:10)
2 Moreover [4] it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful. (Diag. "every one") (Paulists rebuked)
3 But [6] with me it is a very small thing [7] that I should be [8] judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I judge [9] not mine own self. (Emera - Day man's judgment)
4 For [h] I know nothing by myself; [i] yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord. (Dikaioun - pronounce a verdict of acquittal)
5 Therefore [j] judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God. (Apo - from. A rebuke for the Paulists where praise be rejected)
6 And these things, brethren, [q] I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us [r] not to think of men above that which is written, [t] that no one of you [u] be puffed up for one against another.
7 For who [v] maketh thee to differ [23] from another? and [w] what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it? - G Jamo 1:17 3 questions See above.
8 Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. (In the real sense)
9 For I think that God hath set forth [x] us the apostles last, [a] as it were appointed to death: for [b] we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men. (behind the other believers)
10 [d] We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; [e] we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised. (Note the contrast)
11 Even unto this present hour we both [f] hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place; (Example Luke 23:44. 1 Pet. 2:21-3:9)
12 And [g] labour, working with our own hands: [24] being reviled, we bless; [h] being persecuted, we suffer it: (Rev 12-13 Verbi - Continuous present tense: we continue to suffer)
13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made, as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.
14 I write not these things to shame you, but [k] as my beloved sons I warn you. (Nouthetco - admonish - as a father)
15 For though ye have ten thousand instructers [29] in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for [m] in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.
16 Wherefore I beseech you, [n] be ye followers of me. (See Cross p. 193)
17 For this cause have I [31] sent unto you [o] Timotheus, [p] who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, [s] as I teach every where in every church.
18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.
19 [z] But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power. (mere oratory or flashy philosophy)
20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.
21 What will ye? [4] shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness? (Praotes - mildness or meekness)

V.2 The best attested reading is: Hode (here, 229 in this case) loipon (a particle - then) - R. Lenski. Thus: "In this case, then..." i.e. In the case of these appointed stewards. They are accountable to Christ and God - not men.

23 Each in his little sect contemptuous of the other! Who can offer you a crown!!
24 No need of the Apostles - only their name! You have obtained greater knowledge position without us. What marvelous ability! What superb achievement. The gifts of Christ Ch. 12:28-30 are really unnecessary in your case! Obviously, you have left your poor teachers far behind. Thus he sarcastically described their inflated attitude puffing themselves up against another V.6. They were stupid, imagining they had left behind the very ones who had given them all they had Ch. 1:6.

Sunbasileuoo - reign in conjunction, i.e. with their help. In view of the context, e.g. "reign without us" the latter statement can be read, "We also might get to reign with your help!" Sarcastically the Apostle is saying that so exalted had the Corinthians become that they had far outstripped those whom Christ had appointed over them, so that now he could only humbly hope that through the help of these mighty ones they too might get to reign!!
26 Dokoo - It seems to me." Paul still sarcastic. In view of the exalted position claimed by the Corinthians V.8, what a high rank the Apostles should have. But as he considered full actual fact, it seemed, if the Corinthians were right, that the Apostles had been given the lowest positions. Paul ardently sensed in his strategy of using his wound others with the sting and facts he had presences - not to recover personal esteem, but to save them from the fatal position they had adopted.

3 Oikonomias - A household manager exercising authority over the slaves and generally managing in the absence of the Master, even the pecuniary affairs of sons. Sometimes slaves, but also free men. LXX Eliezer Gen. 15:2. 24:2 Joseph Gen. 39:4. Go also unjust Steward Luke 16:1-8.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Of going to law with the brethren. 9 The unrighteous condemned. 15 Our bodies are members of Christ, &c., and must not be defiled.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and [b] not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that [d] the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall [h] judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 [m] I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a [p] fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. [q] Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, [r] and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous [s] shall not inherit the kingdom of God? [t] Be not deceived: neither [u] fornicators, nor [x] idolaters, nor [a] adulterers, nor effeminate, nor [b] abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were [c] some of you: but [d] ye are washed, but [e] ye are sanctified, but [f] ye are justified [16] in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

PAUL'S PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

"Know ye not?"

- You are called to be a sanctuary for the indwelling of the spirit of Truth Ch.3:16.
- A little leaven leavens the whole lump. and therefore while this present glorying is not good Ch.5:6.
- The saints shall judge the world, and therefore should exercise discrimination now. Ch.6:2.
- The saints shall judge angels & therefore should determine things of this life Ch.6:3.
- Wrong-doers shall not inherit the kingdom, therefore avoid it Ch.6:9-10.
- That you are considered a member of Christ & should act as separated unto him Ch.6:15.
- That fornication unites the fornicators as one to the exclusion of Christ Ch.6:16-17.
- As a Temple of the spirit the body belongs to Christ & should be exclusively his Ch.6:19.

LIBERTY OR LICENCE V 12 When believers plead liberty to perform or justify a doubtful action, they usually imagine that they can remain the masters of it – but how often they are mastered by it. Paul limits what is lawful by the question: Will it profit? Is it beneficial in a spiritual direction? It is possible to whitewash sin by claiming it is lawful. Wisely, Paul does not reason on that issue, but instead, poses the question as to whether the action profits. And then states that he would not be dominated by any "thing" – an ideal that should be echoed by all Ch. 4:16.
In V. 13 below Paul contrasts that which is temporary with that which is eternal.

Duties of the married state. For a summary on marriage see top next page.

12 Ⓐ All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not [2] expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be [c] brought under the power of any. 21

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but [d] for the Lord; and [e] the Lord for the body.

14 And [g] God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us [f] by his own power.

15 Know ye not that Ⓚ your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? [m] God forbid.

16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for [n] two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But [o] he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 [t] Flee [u] fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth [w] against his own body.

19 What? know ye not that [a] your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and Ⓚ ye are not your own?

20 For [y] ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's. By so using them as to show that they belong to God.

See top p. 223.

CHAPTER 7.

a He treateth of marriage, 10 shewing that the bond thereof ought not lightly to be dissolved. 25, 28 Of the marriage of virgins, &c.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: [s] It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid [g] fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 [t] Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife [b] hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband [b] hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to [s] fasting and prayer; and come together again, that [h] Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and [i] not of commandment.

7 For I would [7] that [k] all men were [m] even as I myself. But Ⓞ every man hath his proper gift of God, [p] one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But [q] if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, yet [r] not I, but the Lord, [s] Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, [d] not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she [e] be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, [11] and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else [h] were your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage

Liberty or Licence (cont.)

Temporary.
Food to nourish the body
The belly for food to absorb it
Both to cease, abolished.

Eternal
The body for christ to obey + honour him.
Christ for the body to bless + save it.
Both raised up, glorify.

The former temporary + therefore governed by limitation of v. 12
The latter eternal + should be so treated.

18 Probably the caption of the Paulists (see below) who dictated the liberty he taught. Cp. 1. Into licence. Rom 3:8. See Note Jude 4.
19 Paul's answer. Sunphero = profitable.
The stubborn reply.
20 Cp.
21 Paul's application of his teaching. He
22 This is what the C. claimed, reasoning that Yahweh had revoked the law of uncleanness + provided a stomach to absorb it – so that it was legitimate to eat what they liked. From that premise they probably reasoned that the restraints of the law regarding sexual practices should be similarly satisfied.
23 Kakargesei – To render inactive or useless (Bull). Body to be changed. Mt. 22:30. 1 Cor. 15:44, 51. Phil. 3:21. "Hunger no more" Rev. 7:16. The organs of hunger + lust to be done away.
24 Need to consider the temporary existence of legitimate appetites such as those of food + sex, + determine not to become slaves to either.
25 1 Thess. 4:17. The body is not to be destroyed but immortalised. Thus it should be now given to the Lord, so that logically "all things" are not lawful!!
26 To a glorious existence. Rom. 6:3.
27 Egeiroo – Wake up from sleep. Exegeiroo – make or arouse out of. The latter more intensive in that Christ knew no corruption.
28 Hagas – "having taken away" (Darby) or removed. – "shall not make. Thus Christ denied to serve an harlot. To show the enormity of the action, Paul represents himself as doing this.
29 The actions of some in C. indicated that they had overlooked important truth.
30 I.e. Christ. The Hebrew does not include "two" though it is clearly implied.
31 Intercourse joins two as one. Contrast flesh with spirit V. 17. Union with an harlot is a fusion of undisciplined flesh, + as "one" drags a man down to the degradation of an harlot – union with Christ is of the spirit + elevates to his mind. Phil. 2:5
32 Make every effort to escape it. Cp. Prov. 5:1-11
33 The action or effect is manifest externally.
34 Eis – Into – motion into the interior (Bull). Porneia, as no other sin, desecrates the very sanctuary of God, breaking every barrier of restraint, + blunting the spiritual perceptions of the mind.
35 "a temple" – Naos – sanctuary.

CHAPTER 7

4 INSTRUCTION: ANSWERS TO PROBLEMS Ch. 7:1-15:58

1 REGARDING MARRIAGE Ch. 7:1-17

A The Need For Mutual Considerations Vv. 1-6

1 Probably the Corinthians' own words.
2 Kalon – intrinsically good + well adapted to its circumstances + ends. Kerd. "honest" 2 Cor. 8:21 (KV: honorable), Luke 8:15, honorable RV. 2 Cor. 13:7. In this general introduction to the subject Paul endorses Christ's teaching Mt. 19:12.
3 Both "unless, perhaps" – indicating a possibility + not the normal. Gen. 19:15. 1 Sam. 21:4.
4 Prosuecheo – prayer towards; marking the power of Him we invoke (Bull). See Prayer Append.
5 Akrasia – want of self control (Vine) a (negative) Krateo (power). Thus human nature defined.
6 Diag. "This I say as a concession.." He is not commanding the suggestion of V. 5
7 Thelo – To will, with desire. "I wish, but it is out of the question. Cp with boulomai, prefer 1 Tim. 5:14
8 The gift of continence does not exist equally with all "of God" if cp 19:11-12. But being developed.
9 The advice of V. 8 given partly for clarity to men; this to both sexes.
10 Unmarried. This advice is identical to that of Mt. 19:9.
11 Ch. "have not continency." Diag. "do not possess self-control."
12 Kaumatizoo – To be enflamed, to glow with heat. present continuance tense – middle voice – "to burn in oneself" with the strong fire of sensual desire.
13 In the aorist tense – to marry once for all.

B On Separation And Divorce Vv. 10-17

14 He has expressed himself specifically upon this point Mt. 5:32; 19:6. Marriage is permanent, neither is to dissolve it. 2 Cor. 6:14. Paul is not considering the exceptive clause here.
15 Contrast the passive action of the wife compared to that of the husband. She leaves him, but he puts her away.
16 The context V. 10 suggests that this expresses the teaching of Christ.
17 Christ has not specifically expressed himself on this matter. But note V. 40. The Corinthians had enquired as to whether mixed marriages should be dissolved.
18 In, en. In his relations with her. It relates to state + not moral condition. Though the believing wife changed her state before God by immersion her unity with her husband was not disturbed thereby. They were still "one flesh" the unbeliever being thus sanctified to her.
19 Illegitimate. They were "holy" by being born in proper wedlock.
20 Enslaved – doulooo. In bondage to maintain = sustain. Cp 8:7, 10:20
21 To maintain otherwise would be to conflict with Christ Mt. 5:31-32. Mk. 10:2-12. Lk. 16:18. Cp 1 Cor. 7:27.

PAUL ON MARRIAGE He states the facts clearly and frankly, & yet with such delicacy as to avoid offence. His teaching is based on that of the Lord Matt. 5:31-33; 19:4-12. Mk. 10:2-12. Luke 16:18 to which he directs the attention of his readers (1 Cor. 7:10. Under certain conditions, celibacy for Christ's sake is a "beautiful" thing 1 Cor. 7:1. Cp. Matt. 19:12; in other circumstances it is "better" to marry. 1 Cor. 7:9. Cp Matt. 19:11. He insists that the basis of marriage is proper intercourse and each should respect the desires of the other in that regard vv 3-5. Nowhere does he advocate a selfish single life but one that assumes the responsibilities of a marriage union, either in celibacy or see below.

Of the marriage of virgins, &c.

21 The perfect tense indicates the enduring nature of the call.
22 Better let the disagreeable party leave than to disturb this peace.
23 Some word read. "how." Diag.
24 Some might reason that by preserving the union they might ultimately save the other party, but the possibility is so remote as not to be considered. The duty of an antagonistic unbeliever could destroy the influence of the Truth. However where the unbeliever lives peaceably 1 Pet. 3:1 applies.
25 We are called upon to see a Divine providence in our circumstances.
26 Diag. "apportioned." i.e whatever one's state—married, single, deserted. Do not seek to force a change. Examples follow

REGARDING CIRCUMCISION AND SLAVERY vv 18-24

A process had been discovered for obliterating the appearance of circumcision 1 Macc. 1:11 S. Ant. 12:5:1 such persons being known as Epispasm. In itself Cp Rom. 2:28-29. Col. 2:11-12. Even the Law testified to that Deut. 10:16; 30:6 Jer. 4:4 Acts 10:34 See similar statement with words appended: "but faith which worketh by love" Gal. 5:6 "... but a new creation" Gal. 6:15)
One "call" is by the circumstances of life—married, slave, free, etc. the other by God. Ambition should seek not to improve the former but to ensure the purpose of the latter.
Gr. See Diag. "You were bought"... Cp Ch. 6:20. 1 Pet. 1:18-19 Ps. 49:7.
Para—"by the side of." Whatever state, he remains in the presence & sight of God.

REGARDING VIRGINS & MARRIAGE IN VIEW OF THE PRESENT DISTRESS vv. 25-40.

This is authoritative Luke 22:46. The judgment is given in v 28 & in v 36 is applied to those of both sexes. Some taught that it was a bad thing for a girl to remain unmarried. Still replies that it is not so.
The distresses that the present brings upon true followers Acts 14:22 & which were shortly to be revealed in the greatest period of persecution.
As indicated above.
Thus the advice was not a matter of right or wrong, but based on necessity because of the "present distress" v 26.
The question was not one of sinning or otherwise, but what was of greatest spiritual advantage.

In such cases: but [a] God hath called us [2] to peace.
16 For [b] what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt [d] save thy husband? or [3] how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?
17 But [f] as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so [g] ordain I [h] in all churches.
18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? [k] let him not be circumcised. Tenesis - To guard so that [your] others keep them.
19 "Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but [p] the keeping of the commandments of God.
20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called. Cp Ch. 7:26 (Cp Gal. 3:28)
21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather. Rom. 8:32.
22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is [t] the Lord's [5] freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is [u] Christ's servant.
23 [x] Ye are bought with a price; be not [y] the servants of men. Diag. "Become not..."
24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God. (Earthenos - Terri)
25 Now concerning virgins [z] I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as [a] one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. Gal. 1:15-16. Diag "declare"
26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present [6] distress, I say, [d] that it is good for a man so to be. anthropos - 3 person
27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.
28 [v] But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but [c] I spare you.
29 But this I say, brethren, [c] the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;
30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they [i] possessed not;
31 And they that use this world, as not [l] abusing it: for [m] the fashion of this world passeth away. End of digression vv 29-31.
32 But [o] I would have you without carefulness. [n] He that is unmarried careth for the things [i] that belong to the Lord, how he may [r] please the Lord:
33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.
34 [s] There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may [v] cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.
36 But if any man think that he [b] behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.
37 Nevertheless he that [e] stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

Paul On Marriage (Cont.) towards Christ vv. 32-34 as his Bride, or in sacrifice one to another and thus emulating his example in marriage 1 Cor. 7:3-5. Eph. 5:21-25. Paul taught that when married love is governed by Divine principles, the sensuous impulse is controlled & refined & instead of being the source of untold curses to mankind it becomes the expression of deep and intimate affection.
In Corinth believers were divided between two dangerous extremes which took widely opposing attitudes on matters of sex & marriage. Some advocated the grossest licence, probably on the pretense that liberty in christ provided grounds for repudiating any restrictions of Law Jude 4. Others apparently violently reacted to maintain that every form of marriage should be avoided, advocating an extreme form of ascetism. Paul restored sanity by teaching—
(1) Spiritual union with Christ is the highest ideal of matrimony.
(2) Under some (indeed most) conditions it is better to marry. v. 9.
(3) In marriage, the union of complete intercourse should be maintained, subject to the requirements of the Truth vv 3-5.
(4) Self control should be manifested by all. vv 7-8.
(5) Marriage is designed to be permanent. vv. 10, 39.
(6) Remarriage in the case of separation by wife Mk 10:12 or husband Mk 10:11 not permitted 1 Cor. 7:11

50 RV "unseemly."
51 RV adds: "Daughter" in italics.
52 If the father thinks that by restraining his daughter from marrying he may contribute to illicit conduct on her part—let her marry
53 This was assessed at 20 - which was considered the acme of a woman's life
54 In the opinion of the father or the actual urge of the daughter.

WE WHO ARE STRONG IN KNOWLEDGE MUST BE EQUALLY STRONG IN LOVE: Knowledge on its own puffs us; Knowledge blended with love builds us. Cp Rom. 14:2,3,13-23.

We must be firm in principle, equally firm in understanding, and love.
"Blessed is he that considereth the weak (mg). Yahweh will deliver him in time of trouble" Ps. 41:1-3
"We that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak & not to please ourselves. Rom 15:1
"Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfil the law of Christ" Gal. 6:2.

38 So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better. Not to be unduly seeking or forcing marriage

39 (a) The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only [d] in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and I [e] think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Of meats offered to idols. 8 We must not abuse our Christian liberty, to the offence of our brethren.

NOW as touching [f] things offered unto idols, we know that we all have [g] knowledge. [h] Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth. "builds up" Diag

2 And [i] if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, [j] the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that [k] an idol is nothing in the world, and that [l] there is none other God but one.

5 For [m] though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But [n] to us there is but one God, the Father, [o] of whom are all things, and we [p] in him; and [q] one Lord Jesus Christ, [r] by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some [s] with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak [t] is defiled.

8 But meat commendeth us not to God: [u] for neither, if we eat, (v) are we the better; neither, if we eat not, (w) are we the worse.

C PAUL DID NOT USE THE LIBERTIES GOD GAVE HIM IN CASE THE GOSPEL HINDERED. 9v1-15

13 Love not Knowledge should govern our actions. Forbearance not privilege should motivate us. We should never flaunt our Knowledge & seldom use our privilege.

14 The Greek emphasises "that" Such a one is proud in his Knowledge & feels perfectly free to offend such places. But the "weak" observing this, will be induced to break down his standards.

15 Eidoleon – A word of contempt invented by Jews to designate the worthless worship of idols. The word signifies that which is shadowy, fleeting, unreal.

16 Cp mg. The boast of the strong was to edify the weak. Paul shows that they will edify them to break with standards.

17 They will be still observing this meat as associated with an important religious rite - and not as "nothing" v4.

18 What powerful Knowledge!! This, that defeats the lore of Christ and brings death!! Cp Matt. 18:6

19 Present tense "is perishing" Roth – "is being destroyed" The Knowledgeable watched them perishing & did nothing.

20 Their action defeated his mission!! Cp Rom. 5:6

21 Diag. "Smile." Ruthlessly they were smiting a person so weak that he had no strength to retaliate. It was a cowardly exercise of privilege.

22 He has the strength to retaliate. He identifies himself with his brethren. Heb 2:14.

23 Paul identifies himself with such.

24 "Make to offend" = skandalizo – entrap.

A KNOWLEDGE ABSTRACTED FROM DEFILEMENT OF CONSCIENCE v1-13.

4 REGARDING MEAT OFFERED TO IDOLS CH.8v1-13.

1 The normal meat, offered for sale was in this category. After the priests had taken the portion for worship, the rest was offered for sale in the public markets.
2 Paul seems to be ironically repeating their world. They claimed to be able to eat all meat on the ground of their knowledge & were contemptuous of the scruples of others.

PAUL'S CONCESSIONS Vv. 19-23.

Paul respected the scruples of all whilst carefully preserving his liberty in Christ. He had knowledge but blended it with love & understanding; he had rights but did not exercise them & in so doing gained converts for the Kingdom. His concessions were those stemming from a thoughtful mind governed by the generous condescensions of a loving spirit. They were not dictated by the fear of man Isa. 29:13 but that his teaching & preaching might be successful 1 Cor 9:23. His was a noble example 1 Cor. 11. 1 that he called upon his brethren to emulate to their brethren 1 Cor. 8:11-12.

PAUL AND THE LAW.

- Paul inserts the safeguarding clause in relation to Jews - "Yet not being myself under law" V. 20.
- He does the same in relation to Gentiles: "yet not being without God's law, but in Christ's law" V. 21.

Paul's liberty, and his selfdenial.

7 From mere human reasoning? No, it is endorsed by the Word.

8 Yet, and if so, how much more for us!

9 It is said entirely for our sakes because oxen cannot read. It is written for us to apply the principle to all workers.

10 Of partaking.

11 If oxen are cared for, what of us who provide spiritual food? The services rendered are greater than the pay 12 Gr: "of you the fleshly things" To sarkika - The fleshly. In this context those that supply the flesh. Cp. 1 Cor. 7:1-7.

13 Paul indignantly refers to those unauthorised, self-appointed leaders who assumed this right. See 2 Cor. 11:1-15.

14 Diag. "ought not"

15 He worked for others setting an example Acts 20:33-35. Some claimed he was mercenary (2 Cor. 12:17) - he revealed a "more excellent way" by not exercising the rights he possessed.

16 - stegomen - we bear up under (Vine). Primarily to protect or preserve by covering over. In Ch. 13:7. Love bears & endures all circumstances & tests & covers over all shortcomings.

Note the singular number. He claims this for himself - not the other Apostles. He would rather die of hunger than be accused of commercialising the gospel. Nevertheless he did accept help when offered in the right spirit 2 Cor. 11:8.

17 Kauchema - the subject of glorying & also the ground of glorying - Vine. "The joyous feeling of the moral worth of one's own actions" - Godet. Diag. = "boasting."

HE HUMBLED HIMSELF TO ALL TO PREACH THE GOSPEL Vv. 16-23.

To accept wages would require him to limit his activities to one sphere. Paul was not prepared to do that.

18 His glorying was in that he preached free - not that he preached. He was not that by his own skill, power or volition but by Divine choice and command.

19 He was commanded to preach.

20 Dire calamity from God. He would have disobeyed the command & reprobation would await him at the judgment seat.

21 Diag. "voluntarily" i.e. of my own will. If he preached by his own will or volition pay or reward would be in order. Thus by accepting pay the clergy show they have no "divine order".

Involuntarily, or under Divine constraint.

Oikonomian - Stewardship Diag. The oikonomoi were slaves whose masters gave their goods into their hands on trust. As slaves they were compelled to take on this responsibility & were held accountable as to the results. Cp. the parables of the pounds Luke 19:12-26 and talents. Matth. 25: 14-25. "Woe to the slave who did not conduct himself aright in this service Gp 4:16. But Paul's master is magnanimous 2 Tim. 4:18.

22 Even a slave has the right to be fed, clothed etc. Paul does not exercise the right. By so doing he could expect a greater reward in the future as he implies but does not state. So also they if they did not exercise their right, but instead, a measure of love Ch. 8:11-12.

23 In his love for his master. He found a reward in the joy that this work brought. Phm. 17. 2 Cor. 8:1-12. Acts 20:22-24. Phil. 1:12.

& "Were" esan in imperfect tense denoting a state which was continuing & prolonged.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drank, and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Be followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.

16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come.

27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Concerning spiritual gifts, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the self same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; however in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: however in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the other judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

5 And that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles.

8 And last of all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)

16 That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with a holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

THE TEXT OF COMMUNION

• The Jews are under Chupo - with accusative - (in the power of - Bull) the law, i.e its domination because they reject the Gospel - but Paul is not under its domination. Gal 5:2-4. Rom 3:19
• The Gentiles are "without law" and therefore without hope Gen. 17:14. Rom 1:28. but Paul is not, for he fulfills its requirements through faith. Rom. 2:13-15. 3:21. 13:10.
• The Law once a relentless tyrant + master (the Jews under) becomes in the Gospel a beneficent friend, + Paul delighted in fulfilling its requirements in Christ. This enabled him to take his stand with either Jews or Gentiles - comprehending the full meaning of the rites + ceremonies of the Law with regard to the former, or ignoring such regulations when treating with Gentiles. Thus he could reason with each group from its own particular stand point

We must flee 5"all"=Grace

3 And did all eat the same
a spiritual meat;
4 And did all drink the same
b spiritual drink: for they drank c of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.
5 But with many of them d God e was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.
6 Now these things were 3 our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as 4 they also lusted.
7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.
8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and 5 were destroyed of serpents.
10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and 6 were destroyed of 7 the destroyer.
11 Now all these things happened unto them for 8 ensamples:
and 9 they are written for our admonition, 10 upon whom the ends of the world are come.
12 Wherefore 11 let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.
13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is 12 common to man: but 13 God is faithful, 14 who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make 15 a 16 way to escape, 17 that ye may be able to bear it.
14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.
15 I speak as to wise men;
judge ye what I say.
16 18 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the 19 communion of the blood of Christ?
19 The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?
17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: 21 for we are all partakers of that one bread.
18 22 Behold Israel 23 after the flesh: 24 are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?
19 What say I then? 25 that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?
20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have 26 fellowship with devils.
21 27 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.
22 Do we 28 provoke the Lord to jealousy? 29 are we stronger than he?
23 30 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.
24 31 Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.
25 32 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for 33 conscience sake:
26 For 34 the earth is the Lord's,
and the fulness thereof.
27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; 35 whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.
28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not 36 for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

25 Makellon - meat market - from Latin macellum.
Thus - 1 Tim. 4:4. The normal Jewish thanks before partaking.
26 Boulomai - To purpose after deliberation & consideration of the circumstances. The word would suggest that in general it would be best to avoid such occasions if possible.
43. Fellow guest?? Perhaps a weak brother also present??

2 Corinthians 2:11 Ch. 7:2 Ch. 11:3 Ch. 12:17 Ch. 12:18

ALL MEN DEFINED Ch 9:19-22.

Jews - under the law. i.e under its domination or curse as debtor Gal 5:3.
Gentiles - Without Law - but cured by it without hope
Faithful - Not under domination of law, but fulfilling it in Christ.
Weak - Need strengthening in faith.

WHAT IS EXPEDIENT UNTO EDIFICATION? 15-11:1.

23. Phronimos - prudent, sensible, practically wise. Diff word in Ch. 3:10. An appeal to common sense. Cp Ch. 11:13.
24 Cp Ps. 116:13 The 3rd Cup of Passover was given that name: Kom Habberakah. Blessing - Eulogia. to speak well of. We bless it by acknowledging its value & thanking the Giver.

20 Diag. "Because there is one loaf, we the many are one body."
27 The act of partaking unites us as one. Metechontwn - to partake of, share in.
28 Thus identifying himself with the covenant people.
29 Koinonoi - communion Cp v. 16. The altar rep. Christ. Heb. 13:10. As such they could not sacrifice to idols.
30. He has said it is nothing. Ch. 8:4.
31 Allo - On the contrary.
32 The meat offered to idols was not the important thing it was participation in the worship which could result. 1 Cor. 8:10.
33. It is a moral impossibility.
34 The Altar of Yahweh. Mal 1:7.
35. By associating with idolatry. Cp. Deut. 32:21.
36 Dare we with impunity kindle His anger against us? This answers the question as to whether they should be attending idol feasts. Ch. 8:10.

B Directions About Eating & Offerings. v. 23 - 11:1.

37 He restates the general principle that should motivate us. Ch. 6:12 Cp 8:9. Notes
38. Oikodomeo - (oikos, a home + demo, akin to build) thus to build a house. Love will build the house. Ch 8:1. Others destroy. Ch 3:17. to build a house in which Yahweh does not dwell. Ch. 8:10.
39 The principle of divine love Mat. 7:12. upon which founded then the house will be securely built. Mt. 7:24-27.
40 Makellon - meat market - from Latin macellum.
41 Thus - 1 Tim. 4:4. The normal Jewish thanks before partaking.
42 Boulomai - To purpose after deliberation & consideration of the circumstances. The word would suggest that in general it would be best to avoid such occasions if possible.
43. Fellow guest?? Perhaps a weak brother also present??

CUSTOM GOVERNS INSTRUCTION — Generally speaking, among the Greeks only slaves were covered, & the uncovered head signified freedom! Cp v.4. The Romans reversed this & were accustomed to pray with heads covered. Cp also the Jews. Paul was writing to Greeks & instructed that custom should be retained in the light of its significance. In short, custom should not be flouted.

THE UNCOVERED WOMAN — Paul's allusion seems to be to the trial of jealousy Num 5:18.

MEMORIAL - of what? Cp Deut. 16:3

POWER: Not in the primary sense of liberty or permission, but authority or power. Used here as the symbol of power. The covering on the head a signed her husband's authority 44 The fact that others think we are doing wrong is no proof that we are to doing. If in Christ we must set out to please.

45 By divine favor. 1 Tim. 4:3.
46 Paul thus acknowledges the strength of the case set forth by "the strong" whilst appealing for some concession to the scruples of the "weak." This is also the stand he adopts in Rom. 14, 15. He would give every consideration to the scruples of the weak but would suffer neither the views of strong or weak to develop into tyranny
47 This is a rule that would govern all things, even those regarding which Paul cannot speak. Cp 1 Pet. 4:11.
48 Proskomma - obstacle, a stumbling block. Paul is referring to minor things, as indicated by the context.
49 Areskō - Endeavor to please by rendering service, sometimes to personal disadvantage Cp Rom. 15:1. Thus unselfish service. Cp 1 Cor. 10:33 = "those who have proved themselves of use to the Commonwealth" - see Vine.

CHAPTER 11.

5 REGARDING SISTERS IN THE ECCLESIA 2-16.

1 They still acknowledged his authority in instruction.
2 Paradosis - a handing down or on - Vine. Tradition in the sense of teaching. They may have misinterpreted and misapplied teaching at Gal. 3:28 as implying the absolute equality of the sexes. Position of man Eph. 5:23. Subordinate position of women 1 Cor. 11:3, 7, 8, 9. See opp.
3 The Jews cover the head with the Tallith. Greeks did not except they be slaves. The Christian was free Jn 8:32 a son. Gal 4:7. The uncovered head = mourning 2 Sam. 15:30. Isa. 20:2. Micah 3:7. Christ's shame removed Phil. 4:19. See below.
Christ who had made them free.
There was opportunity for this outside the official functions of the Ecclesia when this was prohibited. Ch. 14:34-36. Verse 17 commences discussion of Ecclesial activities: "When YE be come together." Outside of that there was time for instruction 2 Tim. 1:5. Tit. 1:4. Acts 15:20-26. See opp p. 231
7 RV. unveiled. - the sign of authority v.10 rejected. It thus suggested an act of defiance & rebellion to the husband. Adulteresses were unveiled Cp Num. 5:18.
8 Long hair is a glory to a woman v.15. given her by the Creator. - indicative of her separateness to her husband Num. 6:5 but in flouting this, the women were saying that though not in subjection to their husbands, & therefore should be shaven.
9 In token that the Nazarite had broken his vow Num 6:9.
10 He should maintain his status as head.
11 Cp "likeness." The man given the ability to reflect the attributes of God & so exercise authority over the other creation, though remaining subject to God.

own, but of the other: for why is [b] my liberty judged of another man's conscience?
30 For if I by [2] grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?
31 [c] Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do,
do all to the glory of God.
32 [d] Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the [e] Gentiles, nor to [f] the church of God:
33 Even as [g] I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be [h] saved.
The great governing factor of personal edification.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Of covering the head in prayer. 23 Of the Lord's supper.

BE ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. Cp Phil. 3:17.
2 Now [i] I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the [k] ordinances, as I delivered them to you.
3 But I would have you know, that [l] the head of every man is Christ; and [m] the head of the woman is the man; and [n] the head of Christ is God.
4 Every man praying or [o] prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.
5 But every woman that prayeth or [p] prophesieth with her head [q] uncovered [r] dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one [s] as if she were shaven.
6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn:
but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.
7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the [t] image and [u] glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
8 For the man is not of the woman; but [v] the woman of the man.
9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but [w] the woman for the man. RV: a sign of authority.
10 For this cause ought the woman to have [x] power on her head because of [y] the angels.
11 Nevertheless [z] neither is the man without [a] the woman, neither the woman without the man, [b] in the Lord.
12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but [c] all things of God.
13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?
14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?
15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a [d] covering.
16 But if any man seem to be contentious, [e] we have no such custom, neither [f] the churches
of God.
17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.
18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church,
[g] I hear that there be [h] divisions
among you; and I partly believe it.
19 For [i] there must be also [k] heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.
20 When ye come together therefore into one place, [l] this is not to eat the Lord's supper.
21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and [m] another is drunken.
22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye [n] the church of God, and shame [o] them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.
23 For [p] I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered

The Lord's supper. I. CORINTHIANS 12. Of spiritual gifts.

unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: 24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. 25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. 26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come. 27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. 28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. 29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. 30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep. 31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. 32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. 33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another. 34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Spiritual gifts 4 are divers, 7 yet all given for our profit. 8 Their great diversity. 27 Of Christ's body.

NOW concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant. 2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these, dumb idols, even as ye were led. 3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. 4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. 5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord. 6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which worketh all in all. 7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal. 8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; 9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; 10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: 11 But all these worketh that one and the self same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. 12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. 13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. 14 For the body is not one member, but many. 15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am

A DIVERSITY OF GIFTS BUT ONE SPIRIT Vv.1-11

1 Apagomenoi – being led away RV: "were led."
2 They were speechless and their followers were similar when it came to saving truth.
3 They eagerly followed after this worship.
4 The basis for the possession of the H.S. gifts is an acknowledgment of truth.
5 En – In the sphere of; in union with:
c There were Jews (and no doubt Gentiles) who claimed supernatural powers & who evidently probably claimed this doctrine probably on the basis of Deut. 13:2-3. For the claim to have spirit power Cp Mt 19:28. Mt. 12:27; Mk. 9:38.
7 That would involve the thing concerning "the name of Jesus" – i.e. resurrection, ascension, return etc.
8 en In union with. Cp John 14. Eph. 4:17. 1 John 5:6.
9 Diaireis = Act of dividing into parts, distribution – Bull. The word occurs in Vv 4, 5, 6.
10 Charismaton – a gift of grace. Rend "free gift" Rom. 5:15, 16.
11 Diaireonion – Services Vv 4, 6 = the means: Gracious gifts. V.5 = Purpose: Benefit others. V.6 = Power: Spiritually energising.
12 Energeo = in Workings.
God is supreme in all this labor. Eph. 1:23. 1 Cor. 15:28.
14 Diag "for the benefit of all." Each contributed something for the general good.
15 Logos sophias. Expression of wisdom. – Divine manifestation in Christ Ch. 1:20. The ability to expound this to others was the great gift enumerated.
16 Logos gnosis. Expression of Knowledge. The basic principle providing the foundation for wisdom.
17 Kata with accusative = according to, in reference to, some standards of comparison stated or implied." Bull. Thus there was revealed the essential doctrines required.
18 cont. Also the ability to apply this in a practical way to edify Eph. 5:15-17. Jas. 3:13. 16-18 other men's lives.

not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER 13

1 All gifts, how excellent soever, are nothing worth without charity. 4 The praises thereof.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

PAUL'S PSALM OF LOVE

"Here we may read what Paul said about Paul. Only a man in whose heart the Spirit has kindled a faith like Paul's could evidence a love like Paul's. Paul's own heart lies open before us in this chapter. Here is the motive power, faith working through love, that sent him over land and sea to preach to others the unsearchable riches of Christ. Here is the inner power that sustained him amid all the labors, burdens, trials, sufferings, persecutions. Here is what made him rise superior to hunger & hardship, false friends & bitter foes, bodily infirmity & dangers of death. We cannot understand this mighty love as we understand his faith & the fruit of Christian love. He was what he was because of it." -Anderson Jenkin

What if the foot, ordained the dust to tread,
Or hand, to toil, aspired to be the head?
What if the head, the eye, or ear repined
To serve mere engines to the ruling mind?
Just as absurd for any part to claim
To be another in this general frame.
Just as absurd to mourn the task or pain,
The great directing Mind of all ordains.

All are but parts of one united body to raise Designed to reflect to the Greatest praise

PAUL'S DESCRIPTION OF LOVE 238

"Paul does not describe love to us in the role of performing great, wonderful and astounding deeds; he prefers to show us how the inner heart of love looks when it is placed among sinful men & weak & needy brethren. He does not picture love in ideal surroundings of friendship & affection where each individual embraces & kisses each other, but in the hard surrounding of a bad world & a faulty ecclesia where distressing experiences bring out the negative & positive power & value of love" -Jenski, amend.

THE MIRROR. The Diaglott aligns this with transparent substances including ill-prepared glass which were then used for windows & through which objects could be seen but obscurely. But the Greek does imply mirror, suggesting that Yahweh's revelation then only revealed in a reflected manner through those who had the Spirit gifts, as suggested in Num.12:6-8. At this stage only Thessalonians & perhaps Galatians written, "through the Spirit given to bring "all to remembrance" Jhn 14:26. & in the Apocalypse & speaking "face to face" as in Num. 12:8 In the completed N.T. Yahweh and His Son speaks to us face to face and through its meanderings leads us to maturity.

Prophecy preferred I. CORINTHIANS 14. to gift of tongues.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Prophecy is commended, 2 and preferred before speaking with tongues, &c.

FOLLOW after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.

21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that 239 tongues? They would not! Isa 28:12. -and Paul's quote. The antitype in Corinth would have the same effect. As the presence of the Assyrian tongue in Judah had no effect upon the unbelievers there; so chattering in foreign languages would not turn unbelievers to Christ in Corinth. It would only cause them to scoff, as they could not understand.

In Corinth use the vernacular. Otherwise to unbelievers it would constitute a sign with negative result as in the case of Isaiah — a sign "which is spoken against" Luke 2:34.

v.1 ● EDIFICATION - OIKODOME - The act of building (esp. a home). fig. to promote spiritual growth. ● EXHORTATION: Paraklesis - a calling to one's side, thus mutual help & encouragement ● COMFORT: Paramuthia (para - near; muthos - speech) - to speak with a. tenderness & understanding

3 THE GREATER GIFT IS PROPHECY. vv 1-22

A IT EDIFIES THE ECCLESIA vv 1-22

1 Dioko - pursue. Diag "follow ardently" Freq used by Paul Rom 9:30-31 11:7, 14-19 1 Thess 4:5 1 Tim 6:11. 2 Tim 2:22 Heb 12:14.

2 Zeloute - be zealous toward. RV "desire earnestly." Paul would not deprecate the value of the gift. Ga Ch 12:31.

3 By using the gift merely to demonstrate it (the Corinthians considered it the greatest gift). Perhaps they spoke in Hebrew in an endeavor to emphasize the full beauty of that sacred language.

4 No definite article in Greek. The reference is to the speaker's own spirit NIV.

5 The speaking in tongues referred to seems to have been limited to such functions as prayer, singing, blessing, giving thanks etc. Not an address as in the case of "prophesying."

6 It could be that the gift gave one a sound understanding of the beauty & meaning of pure Hebrew which would assist in better worship Leph 3:9 but the use of the gift in that way would be justified only if the words were correctly interpreted.

7 "unless I shall speak to you intelligibly" - Diag. but supplying the ellipsis.

8 Grape truth direct from God

9 Didache - Teaching, or instruction in divine truth. These were all aspects of the spirit-gifts.

10 The melody degenerates into a series of discordant and irritating chords.

11 The exhortation loses its power & meaning in the foreign tongue - Even in Hebrew.

12 Zeteite - neuter. Diag. "the perfect thing." Jfg. "having reached the end (Telos) finished, complete etc. "referring to the complete revelation of God's will & ways, whether in the completed Scriptures (Vine) or the hereafter" Ca Rev 22:18-19.

13 Kybernesis - "the activity of the steersman of a ship, the man who pilots his vessel through the dangers & shoals & brings her safely to port."

14 Pneuma - spirit. RV. "Desire earnestly. Apparently it was possible to grieve the Holy Spirit to higher gifts. Mt. 17:19-21. Ga 5:22. 1 Jn 1:5.

15 Kai - Conjunction uniting thoughts, not contrasting. Whatever gifts we have this is the way to use them.

GIFTS ARE VALUELESS WITHOUT LOVE vv 1-3

THE ABSOLUTE NECESSITY OF LOVE vv 1-3

Complete inspiration. Echeo - booming sound for roaring seas Mk 2:1-25.

RV. Clanging - an orchestra, discordant noise without Love.

Notice the gradation. The absence of love destroys first gift vv 1. then the possessor v 2. then service to God

3. THE MORAL EXCELLENCY OF LOVE vv 4-7.

Paul first considers absence of love vv 1-3, now its presence vv 4-7. Instead of a definition, he provides a description. Love is a divine attribute stemming from God. 1 John 4:7 Negative & positive Divine attributes. Ex 34:6 Lu 6:35. Long suffering does not permit actions of meanness, slothfulness, or ignorance to arouse resentment and anger they deserve. Zeloo - moved with jealousy (Vine). Fanatical zeal. Note the development: a selfish zeal leads to bragging, & in turn, to conceit. This leads to unseemly bearing & conduct, to the seeking of persons' own pleasure & profit, to the thinking of ill in others & rejoicing in their fall. Conduct unworthy of Christ 1 Th 2:12 seeks the good of others Ph 2:3-4, 21

THE MANY FACES OF LOVE

PATIENT - Long suffering
THOUGHTFUL - Kind
CONTENTED - Envieth not v 4
HUMBLE - Does not brag, not puffed up with pride v 4.
DECOROUS - Not unseemly v 5.
UNSELFISH - Seeks not her own v 5.
CALM - Not provoked v 5
KINDLY IN JUDGMENT - Thinks no evil. v 5
PURE - Rejoices not in iniquity but in the Truth. v 6.
HELPFUL - Beareth all things v 7
TRUSTFUL - Believeth all things v 7
HOPEFUL - Hopeth all things v 7
ENDURING - Endureth all things v 7

13. Aphonos - without voice. Rend. "dumb" Ch 12:2.

14 But Ch. 13 has pointed to the need of more than the mere possession of gifts - even the use of them to the edification of the Ecclesia.

15 Pneumaton - spirits. 1 Jn 4:1-2 The desire of all was to teach Spirit truth & to that end they desired to use the various gifts Ga 4:9 but they are only of real value as they edify the Ecclesia.

16 Pray for this additional gift illustrating on how low a scale Paul placed the gift of tongues

17 Under such conditions as suggested in this chapter, the use of tongues seems to have been limited to prayer, singing, blessing & giving thanks etc & not formal expositions. Probably Hebrew was used as being more expressive & divine.

18 Now, With feeling & understanding he prays, but it is unprecedented use of others Ch 12:2.

19 Idiotes - a private person in contrast to an official; one unskilled, uneducated etc. Vine Paul's heart will, displayed 1 Thess. Ch Matt. 5:3; Luke 11:2 Acts 17:16; 18:25

"My spirit" "my understanding" NIV.

"your spirit" - NIV. If you seek to do that in a foreign tongue - how...

20 A pithy sentence of prayer & praise.

21 Katechesō - instruct

22 Phren - mind. The tendency to overvalue glossolaly - tongue speaking - indicated spiritual immaturity.

23. Kakia - badness in quality (Vine) Hence wickedness. They are called to be childlike Matt 18:3, 19:14 but never childish 1 Cor 13:11, 14:20.

24 Teleioi - fully mature. Diag To use a gift (tongues) so that it does not serve its real purpose is Kakia Wrong, to use it with a display of vanity is childish. The Corinthians were using it in such a way as to rebuff enquirers - which was wrong.

25 Paul is quoting from the Hebrew, but omitting words from Isa 28:12 and adding "saith the Lord..." He is quoting freely. Paul uses the first person "I will speak" instead of the third "will He speak" as in Hebrew.

In Isaiah, Yahweh threatened to send the Assyrians against Judah with their foreign barbarous tongue which would sound like stammering to them. They would not heed the appeal of the prophets, would they heed the message of those barbarous foreign will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but [c] prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face [h] he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let the [x] prophets speak two or three, and let the other [z] judge.

30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not the author of [w] confusion, but of peace, as [h] in all churches of the saints.

34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but [b] they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith [d] the law.

35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?

37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done [i] decently and in order.

HIS COMING (Parousia) Signifies "presence" – "para" with, "ousia" being (from eimi, to be). Parousia, presence is opposite to apousia, absence. It also denoted presence in an official capacity. Moulton Milligan observe: "What, however, more especially concerns us in connection with the N.T usage of parousia is the quasi-technical force of the word from Ptolemaic times onwards to denote the "visit" of a King, Emperor, or other person in authority, the official character of the "visit" being further emphasised by the taxes or payments that were exacted to make preparations for it.

Papyri are cited to show that Christians were conversant with this use of the word.

part [a] remain unto this present, but some are [b] fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of James; then of [c] all the apostles.

8 And [d] last of all [e] he was seen of me also, as of [2] one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because [k] I persecuted the church of God.

10 But [l] by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but [m] I laboured more abundantly than they all: [@] yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, [r] how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, [s] then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God [t] that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; [u] ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are [d] fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now [h] is Christ risen from the dead, and [k] become the firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For [w] since by man came death, [x] by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For [@] as in Adam all [y] die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But every man in his own order: Christ the [z] firstfruits; [a] afterward they that are Christ's [b] at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up [c] the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 The last enemy that shall be [d] destroyed is death.

27 For [e] he hath put all things under his feet. But when [f] he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

28 And when [g] all things shall be subdued unto him, then [h] shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by [3] your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, [@] I die daily.

32 If [i] after the manner of men [z] I have fought with beasts at [b] Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? [c] let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

There is no word for "with" in the original. Poios (what) = "what manner of." Sir. Thomas in Anacdotes p 197 renders: "And for

THE 6 (Number of Man) TRANSITION-FEATURES OF THE RESURRECTION

- Sown in Corruption; raised to Incorruption.
- Sown in Dishonor; raised to Glory.
- Sown in Weakness; raised to Power.
- Sown a Natural body; raised to a Spirit body
- Sown an Earthy body; raised to a Heavenly body
- Sown in Mortality; raised to Immortality.

The 7th principle: "flesh + blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God."

The manner of the resurrection.

thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 [k] So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in [l] corruption; it is raised in [m] incorruption: (En - in the sphere of)

43 [o] It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a [q] natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, [r] The first man Adam was made a living soul; [s] the last Adam was made [t] a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 [u] The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is [b] the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, [d] such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And [e] as we have borne the image of the earthy, [f] we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that [@] flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth [b] corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; [@] We shall not all sleep, but [i] we shall all be changed,

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for [@] the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. (dead + living at the coming)

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and [@] this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, [@] Death is swallowed up in victory. — Isa 25:8 Below

55 [@] O death, where is thy sting? O [@] grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and [m] the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us [p] the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

(Kopos - Toil resulting in weariness)

CHAPTER 16.

Duty of relieving the brethren, &c.

NOW concerning [n] the collection for [z] the saints, as I have given order to [i] the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon [@] the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, [c] as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your [g] liberality unto Jerusalem.

2 CORINTHIANS.

The Epistle for "Correction" 2 Tim. 3:16. Epanorthōsis a "A restoration to an upright or right state." Hence improvement of life and character. Vine.

Circumstances. Deeply concerned as to the effect of his 1st Epistle, Paul anxiously awaited the coming of Titus. Delay, apprehensiveness, physical illness plunged him into one of the darkest and most depressing periods of his life. But it was all greatly relieved by the coming of Titus 2 Cor 7 6-16.

This Epistle, written out of anguish of heart, and by one powerfully stirred by tumultuous emotion is naturally the least systematic of all his epistles. It is written with a quill dipped in tears in which joy, relief, anger and concern struggle for mastery. It is first one, then the other as he turns from friend to foe. There was joy + comfort as he heard of the way they corrected their previous error, but then growing concern as Titus spoke of further problems which perhaps out of concern for the stricken Apostle he only disclosed gradually. He thus wrote to please, to comfort, to guide, to warn.

THE ADVERSARY'S CHARGE AGAINST PAUL

A Judaising group has arrived, arrogantly claiming authority and swaying many. 2 Cor. 11:4,13 and seeking to undermine Paul's personal character. His change of plan (2 Cor. 1:15-2) had been decried as evidence of unreliability 2 Cor. 1:17-18. or of cowardice 1 Cor. 1:23. (whereas he had their concern at heart 2 Cor. 2:1-3), ~~and had been delayed by the greedy~~

- They claimed he corrupted the Word 2 Cor. 2:17. and lacking letters of commendation, had not the support of those in Ecclesial authority. 2 Cor. 3:1-4. - They accused Paul of dishonesty 2 Cor. 4:2, 7:2, 8:20-21. They mocked at his personal appearance, the simplicity of his speech, and accused him of being a paper-soldier; powerful in letter but cowardly in personal discussion Ch 10:1-10:11. They cast doubts upon his Apostolic authority Ch 10:8, 11:5. They hinted at his conscious inferiority which made him abstain from any claim to maintenance 11:7 and yet inferred his dishonesty in taking up a collection for the poor 12:17 - They even doubted his sanity 11:16-19 - they challenged his doctrine concerning the Law 11:21-22. and demanded proof of his Apostolic credentials 13:3.

These charges are rebutted in a letter that expresses warm comfort to those who had heeded his previous letter and warning to those who were resisting his Apostolic authority (the word "comfort" occurs some 14 times). He thus wrote (1) To explain why he had not been able to visit them 1:15-24 2:1-3. (2) To praise them for obeying his first letter 7:6,15. (3) To urge the reformation of the repentant sinner 2:5-9 (4) To warn those who were unrepentant 12:21. 13:2. (5) To warn against the false teachers 11:3-4, 13. (6) To vindicate his apostleship Ch 10-12. (7) To urge them to pay their promised contribut... to Jerusalem 8:10-9 (8) To rebut the scandals circulated against him.

PAUL'S BOASTING (R.V. = glorying)

The scandals urged against Paul would have been hard to endure at any time. They were so especially at a time when the Apostle was suffering overwhelming distress - a combination of fears without and fightings within, which produced a mental + physical prostration 7:4, 7:5. It became a duty and a necessity, however distasteful, to defend himself. Personally he neither required nor cared for any self-defence. But before God in Christ, he felt bound to clear his character from these detestable insinuations, because they were liable, if unnoticed, to hinder his work both in Corinth and elsewhere; and his work had on him a sacred claim. Hence though nothing was more repellent to his sensitive humility than any semblance of egotism or boasting, he is driven by the unscrupulosity of his opponents to adopt such a tone of self-defence that the word "boasting" occurs no less than 29 times. He neither could nor would appeal to any letters of commendation or to any certificate from his brother-apostles, because he had received his own apostolate direct from God; and hence he was forced to appeal, on the one hand to his visions and revelations, and on the other hand to the seal of approval which in every way God had set to his unparalleled activity and devotion.

PAUL'S COMFORT EPISTLE (See top note above).

The word occurs at least 18 times. - The Source of Comfort 1:3, 7:6. - The Purpose 1:4, 7:13. - The compensations of Comfort 1:5,6 - The Duty to comfort others 2:7. - The need to derive comfort in tribulation 7:4. - To see the comforting hand of God in natural things 7:6. - To mutually comfort one another 7:6,13. - The command to seek Divine comfort 13:11. - Greek: Paraklesis -- a calling to one's side. Para, beside. Kaleo, a call. Hence an exhortation, or comfort experienced, an invitation or entreaty, a calling or summons near.

PAUL'S ANSWERS TO THE SCANDALS.

Paul does not hesitate to plainly reveal his opponents for what they really were. - They were not too dignified to take all the material benefit they could extract 11:20. - They might claim to ministers of Christ, but were they prepared to suffer! 11:21-23. - They spoke of Visions and revelations but what if Paul revealed what he had been granted! 12:1-7. - The greatest challenge was not that of personalities, however, but false teaching Ch 11:4.

The Epistle becomes one of - Personal vindication - Comfort and encouragement to the faithful - Warning to those affected by the errorists - Rebuttal of false claims advanced by the now powerful Judaising group. (The Etherschisms had apparently been suppressed.

"Maran atha" are Aramaic ... ing "Our Lord cometh" or "will come." The curse is pronounced because of that fact. Through deep emotion, Paul lapses into Aramaic.
Some render it as a prayer "O Lord come!" i.e. to judge and right the wrong.

JUDAISERS IN CORINTH

The Ministry Of Moses Contrasted With That Of Christ

Moses	Christ
It instilled fear Exod.34:30. Rom.5:15.	It developed confidence & love 2 Tim.1:7.
The Law was inscribed on Stone 2 Cor.3:3	Faith is inscribed on the heart.
The Law set forth the Letter 2 Cor.3:6.	Faith revealed the spirit.
The Law was a ministration of death 2 Cor.3:7	Faith provided the means of life.
The glory of the Mosaic Ministry faded 2 Cor.3:7.	The glory of the ministry of faith increases 2 Cor.3:18.
The Law was veiled in types & shadows 2 Cor.3:13.	The ministration of faith is open and apparent.
Israel saw the reflected glory of Yahweh through a Veil 2 Cor.3:13.	Those of faith reflect the glory of Christ with unveiled face 2 Cor.3:18.
Moses saw the glory of Yahweh Num.12:8, but fear hid it from the people.	In Christ, love casts out fear 1 Jn.4:18. Through forgiveness of sins, we are enabled to partake of Christ's glory. Jhn.17:22.

The various points of contrast suggested by Paul in Ch3:4. were advanced against the Judaising element in Corinth.

WHAT IS TO BE PUBLICLY REVEALED

Paul constantly uses the word "phaneroo" or its related words, in the following way:

- PHANEROO (Verb) – To publicly reveal, make manifest, Known – from root "phan" signifying to shine.
- "Appear before judgment seat" 2 Cor.5:10. • "Our care in the sight of God might appear unto you" 2 Cor.7:12.
- "Manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ" 2 Cor.3:3.
- "God maketh manifest the savor of His knowledge by us" 2 Cor.2:14. • "Life of Jesus made manifest in our body" 2 Cor.4:10 • "Will make manifest the counsels of the heart" 1 Cor.4:5. • "Life of Jesus made manifest in our mortal flesh 2 Cor.4:11 • "We are made manifest unto God" 2 Cor.5:11. • "Made manifest in your consciences" 2 Cor.5:11.
- "Made manifest among you in all things" 2 Cor.11:6.
- PHANEROS (Adjective). • "Every man's work shall be made manifest" 1 Cor.3:13. • "The approved may be made manifest among you" 1 Cor.11:19. • "The secrets of his heart made manifest" 1 Cor.14:25.
- PHANEROSIS (Noun) • "The manifestation of the Spirit" 1 Cor.12:7. • "By manifestation of the truth" 2 Cor.4:2.
- PHAINO (the root word), to shine, to be brought into light, to become evident. • "Appear approved" 2 Cor.13:7.

¶ The first epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi by Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

4 APOLLOS' RELUCTANCE TO VISIT CORINTH v 12.
15. Cp p. 191 for character sketch. The formula would suggest that they had written for him to come. Cp v. 1.
17 There was no jealousy in Paul
18 Doubtless because of the wrongful use of his name with Paul he repudiated the sects in Corinth. Cp Ch 3:5.
19 Eu Kairos - Well timed (eu - well, kairos - time), opportune. It was not well-timed or opportune then!!! No greetings from Apollos!!

5 CLOSING EXHORTATION vv. 13-14.
20 Gregoreo - Keep awake, be vigilant, with idea of raising alarm against danger. Cp 1 Thess 5:6.
21 Ste Rete - Stand firm, immovable. However - not like a dead post in the ground, but a living tree well anchored by its roots.
22 Diag. "Be manly." Cp Ch. 16:13, 1. They needed these exhortations, for they were spiritually drowsy, unstable, effeminate, + factious. Cf. 1 Tim. 4:1. 1 Pet. 2:13.

6 FINAL GREETINGS AND SALUTIONS vv 18-24.
23 The reputation of Stephanas was such that the Corinthians must not bear ill will to him because of his approach + report to Paul. See Introduction.
24 Therefore baptised at Athens + must have shifted to Corinth. Because of these circumstances the baptism of Stephanas is dealt as an afterthought Ch 1:16.
25 They evidently possessed the means + freedom to do this using them to the glory of Yahweh. Cp v. 17.
26 Parousia - presence.
27 Latin derivation: Fortunatus
28 Latin. Belonging to Achaia. It is suggested that these names are such as would be given to slaves. Perhaps they were freed slaves. See above.

ANATHEMA MARAN ATHA 243

"Anathema" is equivalent to Hebrew "cherem" signifying that which is removed from man's use and given over to Yahweh's use or punishment. This applies to those who cursed Christ Ch. 12:3 and who hated him, and also those in the meeting who refused his accredited messengers. Ch. 1:1 and thus demonstrated their lack of Phileo affection 1 Pet. 1:22.
The curse should rest upon such by excluding from fellowship Ch. 5:4-7.
"Maran atha" are Aramaic words signifying "Our Lord cometh" or "will come." The curse is pronounced because of that fact. Through deep emotion, Paul lapses into Aramaic.
Some render it as a prayer "O Lord come!" i.e. to judge and right the wrong.

2 THE VALUE OF SUFFERING vv 3-7
2 Eulogetos - Eulogise. We eulogise God when we truly acknowledge what He is and does in His attributes, Words + Works.
3 Eph. 1:17. John 20:17. Gr. Blessed be the God and Father...

4 Compassion + pity is begotten of Him. He is hated for such Ps. 103:13. 86:15.
5 Paracleseos - Called to one's side. See Note on the Comforter, p. 151 top. Mercy = feeling. Comfort = action. Ch 7:4-6. Cp Lu 5:12. 6:18.

PAUL'S SUFFERINGS
He learned by experience that: When the need is greatest, God is nearest.

PAUL'S ACCUSERS.
They claimed that he was fickle, motivated by the flesh and constantly vacillating for his own benefit V.17. His answer was that his very preaching showed the accusation to be false. God is faithful who appointed him to preach, & his very preaching was faithful, affirmative & forthright V.18. The same was true of his preaching of Christ, and the promises of God Vv19-20. Thus the character of all his work gave the lie to his accusers. What a farce to charge such a teacher with being fickle etc. merely because a plan was changed. What a crime to think such a thing to say nothing of broadcasting it.

Why Paul wrote I Corinthians:
1 To avoid the necessity of a painful visit V.1
2 To reveal his special love V.4.
3 To test their obedience V.9.

The sincerity wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as [c] the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, [d] it is for your consolation and salvation, which [e] is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. — Rom 5:3-5.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that [f] as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation. (See top. p 192)

8 For we would not, brethren, have [g] you ignorant of [h] our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we [i] despaired even of life:

9 But we had the [j] sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not [k] trust in ourselves, but [l] in God which raiseth the dead:

10 [m] Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us; James 5:16

11 [n] Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us [o] by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf. (Kauchesis - boasting)

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly [p] sincerity, [q] not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us [a] in part, that we are your [b] rejoicing, even as ye also are our's [r] in the day of the Lord Jesus. 1 Thes. 2:19

15 And in this confidence [s] I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have [t] a second [u] benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and [v] to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judæa.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose [w] according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our [x] word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For [y] the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea. Heb 13:8

20 For [z] all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us. — Rev 3:14. dis. gen. on account of 21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who hath also [a] sealed us, and [b] given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that [c] to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for [d] by faith ye stand.

23 Some of the Corinthians had turned on Paul. Ch. 2:5.
24 In reliance on the mutual respect & affection that existed between them.
25 Charis - grace or favor, by a spiritual benefit. Rom. 1:11
26 The first plan in lost letter 1 Cor. 5:9. replaced by the plan of 1 Cor. 16:5-8 Reason 2 Cor. 1:23. Paul criticised 1 Cor. 4:18-19.
27 His detractors accused him of being unreliable, or fickle.
28 They accused him of being governed by fleshly considerations.
29 They accused him of lying & being unreliable, vacillating in order to determine what course would benefit him more.
30 RV - "faithful."
31 Which preached Him unto you.
32 On the contrary, it was clear, forthright, & certain.
33 Paul's preaching was firm & clear, & by the very character illustrated his mission. See above.
34 Note the scope of Paul's preaching: God, Jesus Christ (God manifestation), the Resurrection.
35 The Greek & Hebrew forms of affirmation. Both involved. Rom. 15:8-9.
36 Is such a one likely to be fickle or unfaithful! Would the charge not reflect on God who appointed him!
37 Middle Voice: Sealed us for Himself. Note John 6:27.
38 Arrabon - pledge. The first down payment assuring the recipient of final payment. This is the truth in our hearts. Cp. 1 Cor. 2:12. John 6:63.
39
40 "I appeal to God as witness." RV - "witness." This is not an oath, but a legal term.

CHAPTER 2.

1 This suggests that he had made a brief unrecorded visit in heaviness.

3 THE EXPERIENCE OF SUFFERING Vv 8-11

A recent deliverance from mortal danger still fills Paul's heart with its effects & helps to illustrate the feelings with which the Epistle is written.

11 Gr. "the affliction." Something almost fatal happened to Paul & [illegible], the deliverance of which was like resurrection. 9:9. It was known to the Corinthians for their prayers were helpful V.11. He refers to some such occasion in Rom. 15:14.
RV: "we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power." This was an extreme situation. Contrast Ch. 4:8
16 Gr. "ourselves in ourselves the sentence of the death we have." Krima - judicial sentence. Used in papyri of a reply to a deputation. Paul stared death in the face, but God helped him, teaching that confidence should not be placed in flesh. — Jer. 17:5.
17 As to be beyond all human help. Diag. "will rescue." The experience of the past gives confidence for the future.
Prosopon - pros, towards, ops an eye. Thus the face as the index of inward thoughts and feelings. Here the faces and eyes of Paul's brethren turned to God in his distress, on his behalf.

EXPLANATION: PAUL THE MINISTER V.12 - 5:21

A CONCERNING HIS MOTIVES V.12 - Ch. 2:11

1 A VINDICATION OF MOTIVE Vv 12-22.
Cp Acts 23:1, 24:16, Rom. 9:1. 1 Cor. 4:4.
Many mss = Agiotes - Holiness. Both Eilikrinia - genuineness, pureness - as found to be as being judged in sunlight. It is Godly because it is a Divine characteristic. Cp John 3:19-21 Eph. 5:9
In spite of the taunts & insinuations of his detractors.
His opponents spread false reports of what he was alleged to have written.

LEST SATAN GAIN AN ADVANTAGE 2:11
If the repentant man was not forgiven, he may be overwhelmed with sorrow V.7 and sink into despair. The Ecclesial discipline would then be represented by the adversary as intended for destruction and not correction, so that Christian mercy would be discredited. Paul could well say that he was not ignorant of Satan's devices, for he once formed part of the Satan Acts 9:1-2.

THE CASE OF INCEST AND PAUL'S LOVE
This was a test case: would the brethren heed Paul's advice! He had even written out the formal resolution the Ecclesia should pass 1 Cor. 5:4-5. Meanwhile his grief was a manifestation of his love of them - he felt the circumstances so deeply. This Agape = comprehending intelligence coupled with purpose of action. Cp 1 Cor. 13.

4 By them repudiating the Apostolic council.
5-9 Ch. 8:22, 7:16 The grounds of confidence 1 Cor. 11:2
6 Their obedience to the requirements of the Truth.
7 Thlipsis - Pressure, burden of spirit.
8 Sunoche - compression, contraction. Heart spasms.
9 He reveals the human emotion under which he wrote - though these are not openly expressed in his Epistle.
10 A Hebraism. Supply the ellipsis: "Not only if..."
11 The Philippians were Paul's best loved brethren, but next to them it seems to have been more personal ties next for this influence upward Ecclesia & others. Certainly they responded readily to his teaching 1 Cor. 2:2 Cor. 7:11, Cp 2 Cor. 11:15.

3 A DIRECTION TO COMFORT THE REPENTANT Vv.5-11.

12 Meros - share, parts. See below.
13 RV. "that I preach not too heavily." Set upon the offender.
14 Not of all - the majority rule. Diamonty "majority" RV margin.
15 With delicacy omits the name of the sinner.
16 Kuroō - Ratify, legal term. To legally make King, their action of Sig. "impart authority."
17 He had previously in spirit, voted expulsion 1 Cor. 5:3.
18 Diag. "For in case what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, is on your account in the presence of Christ." What Paul forgave was the grief his action caused.

4 CONCERNING MINISTRY

1 THE POWER OF THE MESSAGE V.14 - 4:6

19 Driven from Troas by riots. Visited Macedonia on journey, but immediately because of vision Acts 16:9. Ecclesia now established visited again Ch. 7:5-6.
20 This torrent of abuse occasioned by the Apostle's absence from the abyss of anxiety & sickness into which he had sunk Ch. 7:5. The intensity of his feelings veiled the meaning. See V.6. Ch. 1:20.

Why Paul wrote I Corinthians:
1 To avoid the necessity of a painful visit V.2
2 To reveal his special love V.4.
3 To test their obedience V.4.

THE EPISTLE OF CHRIST 2 Cor. 3:2-6.
The principles of Christ must be shown reflected in that Ecclesia. Cf. Mt. 7:21-23
1 The Amanuensis V.2 – Paul who must set forth and inscribe Christ 1 Cor. 2:2.
2 The Readers – V.2. – All men. So the writing must be legible, easily read, by action the Ecclesia should reflect Christ.
3 The Epistle V.3. – The Ecclesia which should reveal the Word in action. 1 Tim. 3:15.
4 The Agency V.3. – Not fading ink but lasting Spirit imbedded deeply
5 The Tablet V.3. – Not a block of stone but a fleshen tablet of heart – that hidden right man – the feelings affections.
6 The Handwriting V.4-6 – God through Christ – thus God manifestation.

10 A Hebraism. Supply the ellipsis: "Not on if..."
11 The Philippians were Paul's best-loved converts, but next to them he seems to have felt more personal tenderness for this inflated way-ward Ecclesia than others. Certainly they responded readily to his teaching 1 Cor. 11:2. 2 Cor. 7:11-16 2 Cor. 12:18.

3 And I wrote this same unto you, [b] lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; [c] having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart [d] I wrote unto you with many tears; [9] not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But [e] if any have caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this [f] punishment, which was inflicted [1] of many.

7 So that contrariwise [m] ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him. (dokime – prove by test)

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether [q] ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom [r] ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it [s] in the [u] person of Christ; (See bottom p. 246) (Noema – thoughts)

11 Lest [v] Satan should get an advantage of us: for [z] we are not ignorant of his devices. (Acts 20:19)

5 A DIRECTION TO COMFORT THE REPENTANT Vv. 5-11.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and [d] a door was opened unto me of the Lord, (Intensity of feeling)

13 [f] I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not [h] Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, [i] I went from thence into Macedonia. (Acts 20:1)

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always [1] causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh

12 Meraus – plural, parts. See below.
13 RV. "that I press not too heavily." See below.
14 Not of all – hence majority rule. Diag. "the majority" RV marg. – more.
15 With delicacy Paul omits the name of the sinner.
16 Kuroō – Ratify. A legal term. Thus officially make known their action of love. Sig. "impart authority"
17 He had previously in spirit, voted for expulsion 1 Cor. 5:3-5
18 Diag. "For indeed, what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, is on your account in the presence of Christ." What Paul forgave was the grief that penitent action caused.

CHAPTER 3.

1 He sheweth the faith and graces of the Corinthians to be a sufficient commendation of his ministry. 6 A comparison of the law and the gospel.

DO we begin again to [n] commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, [o] epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?

2 [p] Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men: (openly revealed for what they were)

4 And [10] such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 [x] Not that we are [y] sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but [z] our sufficiency is of God; (Eph. 3:7. Col. 1:25. 1 Tim. 1:11-12)

V.5. The sense of the passage is: "But if one has caused grief, he has not grieved me (merely), but more or less (in parts) – not to press to heavily on him – you all." In saying that they were only in part affected, Paul relieved the burden that would otherwise have rested heavily upon the repentant sinner. Others shared the burden of his sin by not being affected by it as they should.

21 RV: "who leadeth us in triumph." An allusion to the custom of victorious generals, who in their triumphal processions carried some of their relations in their chariot, whilst the streets through which they passed were strewn with flowers and filled with incense. Thus through faith seeming failure is transformed into victory. Paul gladly led forth as the vanquished (Gal's cyclone) procession victory

26 Kapeleuō – to huckster Is2. – esp. Wine. But one who adulterates it in order to make dishonest gain. From Kapelos, an inn-keeper, a petty trader, a pedlar in contrast to emporos, a merchant.
29 Eilikrinēs – pure, unalloyed – fine.

22 As the onlookers see the captives led along, greater glory is afforded the victory – which in this case even the captives share.
23 As onlookers view with mixed feelings, according to their loyalties, the triumph of another, so it is with the truth.
24 John 9:39. Mk. 16:16.
25 They repudiate the resurrection of Christ.
26 Paul recognised that in his own the grace of God alone enabled him to discharge the great duty laid upon him Gal. 1:15-6. 2:9. 1 Cor. 15:9-11. This fact emphasised the need to carefully examine all teachers that came among them, including Paul
27 Gar: the fact is – expressing the reason for the preceding statement. See above

CHAPTER 3.

2 ITS EFFECT A COMMENDATION OF HIS AUTHORITY Vv. 1-6.

1 Cp. 1 Cor. 9. Such passages as 2 Cor. 2:17 might seem self-laudatory or egotistical but were not really so. As Paul shows later 7:18 self praise is no recommendation.
2 See Introduction. He was well known to them. Knew them far better than they knew themselves.
3 Nor was Paul in need of their recommendations for he was well known throughout the Ecclesial world.
4 Paul etc. 2 Cor. 11. The good of the Corinthian Ecclesia was very near to the Apostle writer on his very heart. These words in parenthesis – Diag. "The very fact plainly declared
5 That they had accepted the Apostle's release revealed they were moved by the Spirit of Christ. 2 Cor. 7:11. This was manifestly declared, or published for all to see.
6 Cp. 2 John 12 with John 6:63.
7 Thus with His "finger" Lk. 11:20.
8 Christ dictates, the Apostle writes, the hearts of believers are the substance, the power of the truth (Spirit) the influence
9 A change within is wrought upon the affections, appetites, desires, that is reflected without Jer. 31:33.
10 Our confidence is not in letters but in our ministry or input, you through Christ are drawn to God.
11 The credentials & ability of Paul to write such "epistles" rests not in him as a man, but in God
Cp Ch. 2:16.
12 Paul divinely selected, but Ecclesia must now seek out such 2 Tim. 2:2.
13 Not merely academically, nor only as a matter of words, but with its spiritual significance – the power of the message presented by the words Cp John 6:63.
14 Whether it is the Books of the Law! See 2 Cor. 2:15-16. The spiritual significance of Truth will generate life.

3 A REFUTATION OF THE JUDAISERS. Vv. 7-11.

15 Ginomai en doxē: Came into being in glory

Moses veiled his face to hide a fading glory; but the increasing glory of the Gospel was veiled to those "who are lost" Ch.4:3.

THE 7 POINTS OF THE TWO COVENANTS CONTRASTED.

	Mosaic	Abrahamic
1	Of the letter.	Of the Spirit ... Ch.3:6
2	Ministration of death	Ministration of life ... ch.3:8
3	One of condemnation	One of Justification 3:9.
4	Transitory	Permanent Ch.3:11
5	Veil hidden face of Moses 3:13	Open face of Jesus Christ 4:6.
6	A veil	A mirror 3:11-18.
7	Could not change the heart 3:14	changed into the same image 3:18

THE VEIL: The glory on Moses face caused fear Ex.34:30. The veil covered this glory & prevented the Israelites from seeing that it was fading. Thus the glory of fear in which the righteousness of Yahweh was upheld gave way to the greater glory of mercy & forgiveness in Christ in which fear is abolished.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious. - endoxa - in glory.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:

13 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Paul, in his assured hope of immortal glory, 9 laboureth to keep a good conscience, 18 and by his ministry to reconcile others also in Christ to God.

FOR we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

16 de' - conj. of antithesis. Bull. Diag. trans. = "but." Followed by Kai = also. Thus: "We are filled with courage, but also..."
17 EUDOKEO. To be well pleased, think it good, (Vine). Diag. "well pleased."
18 See Note 16.
19 Endemeo - To be at home. Vine. Thus a change of residence from the tent to the dwelling.
20 PROS - thus facing (with accusative - Bull). Directed towards, implying intimate and closest intercommunion, together with distinct independence. Paul desires to leave his present abode in the fleshly tent for the permanent house of immortality, clothed with Christ's nature 1 John 3:2 Phil 3:21 at the resurrection Luke 14:14. Mat. 16:27.
21 In an hypothesis of seeing Christ face to face.
22 PHILOTIMEOMAI - To seek after (i.e. love) honor (being with Christ). RV: "we make it our aim" - mg "are ambitious"
23 Whether present or absent from home - the tent home. Whether living or dead. Cp Rom. 14:8 1 Thess. 5:10. Paul is determined to keep faithful unto death.
24 Phaneroo, - Publicly reveal, make manifest.
25 At his return 2 Tim. 4:1.
26 Dia - Through. See note on Judgment Mt. 25:31. 1 Cor. 4:5. Things through body. Gal. 6:7-8 Cp. Rom. 14:10.

8 THE CAUSE OF PAUL'S CONCERN. Vv. 11-15.

27 Phobos - fear. A reverential fear of offending God manifested in doing His will.
28 His preaching is dictated by a desire to do God's will.
29 God knows Paul's motives.
30 He is not reminding them of his standing in the sight of God as a means of self praise, but as a sound basis for their proper assessment of the worth done in opposition to those who would weaken it, & to stop their slanderous mouths. Paul wanted no false praise from anybody, but he did want true recognition of his divine labor.
31 Some derided his zeal, fervor & fiery devotion as evidences of madness Cp Acts 26:25. John 10:20.
32 Sophron (Sozo - save, phren - the mind) wise self control. Paul's fervor was for God; his good sense & tact was for his brethren.
33 Compressed him, Keeping him irresistibly to one object.
34 Diog. "If one died on behalf of all then they all died." Thus representation, substitution the basis of Atonement. Thus Paul died to self to serve Christ. Col. 2:14-20. Cp Rom. 14:9-2. Cp Rom. 6:6-11; 14:7-9. 1 Cor. 6:19-20. 2 Cor. 5:14-15.
35 Cp Rom. 6:6-11; 14:7-9. 1 Cor. 6:19-20.
36 Christ died "for all" - both Jew & Gentile. Therefore differences of race, family, status, ability do not count. Gal. 3:28
37 He judged him according to fleshly motives, as a condemned criminal - which proved to be utterly wrong. Acts 26:9-11.

9 THE PURPOSE OF HIS MINISTRY Vv. 17-21

Ktisis - Creation (Diag.) 2 Cor. 4:6

CHAPTER 5

1 THE CONFIDENCE OF SALVATION Vv. 1-10

1 His hope is based on the resurrection. Rom. 8:11. 1 Cor. 15:51-53.
2 "If the tent of our earthly dwelling." Diag. Tent = temporary abode. Skenos. See Rom. 8:11. 2 Pet. 1:13-15. The earthly body is different to the heavenly. 1 Cor. 15:40.
3 Diag. "Be found clothed." Like a tent.
4 A permanent abode. Nature Divine. 2 Pet. 1:4. Spirit 1 Cor. 15:45. Image of the heavenly. 1 Cor. 15:49. glorious. Phil. 3:21. Like Christ. 1 Jn. 3:2. Present body deemed. Rom. 8:23. Cp 2 Cor. 5:1-4. Cp 1 Cor. 15:21. Luke 20:36. 1 Cor. 6:14.
5 Divine Ink. 1 Jn. 4:13.
6 RV = "at home in the body." Diag. Cp. also. Weymouth. "We have in heaven, a building from God, a house not made from human hands, but eternal."
7 Tent.
8 Permanent dwelling. Immortality, which is the image of the heavenly. 1 Cor. 15:49.
9 "The aorist endusamenoi," means literally 'having clothed ourselves' (F.W. Farrar). Thus. Gal. 3:27.
10 The temporary tent of the flesh.
11 In spite of the burdens, he does not desire death, but a change of nature

THE TENT IN THE WILDERNESS.

Paul is like Israel dwelling in a tent, led by the glory of Yah weh in the cloud, living in hope & faith of the "rest that remaineth."

247

Why? Because he walked in faith 2 Cor. 4:18, with eyes set on the time when mortality would be swallowed up of life. V.4. He was therefore full of courage in spite of Ch. 4:8.

14 The tent of V.1 Cp 2 Pet. 1:13-14.
15 EKDEMOUMEN CEK - away. Demos, people). Diag. "from home" See also m.m. Away from the permanent residence.

See over V.19

39 His ambitions, hopes, desires, way of life has been completely changed. Paul was a living witness of such change. 1 Tim. 1:12-16.

40 Reconciliation is based on Divine love not wrath Rom. 5:10. 1 John 4:10. John 3:16.
41 Kata llassō - to change, hence to change from enmity to friendship. God has established the means whereby this can be done in Christ. It requires repentance, or change of mind. Cp Acts 2:38.
42 Didomi - deposit. In Mk. 4:7-8 used of seed yielding fruit. It is in the Middle Voice - God did it for Himself. He is the Author & Finisher of salvation through Christ. Heb. 12:2.

MADE SIN FOR US.
It is used of fleshly desires that lead to sin. Rom. 5:14; 6:16, 18, 23. 7:5, 8, 23; 8:2, 7; Heb. 9:28.
Flesh is referred to as "the body of sin" Rom. 6:6. Sin is said to reside "in the flesh" Rom. 8:3 which can exercise rule Rom. 6:12, dominion, be possession as slave-owner Rom. 6:16, 17. deceive Rom. 7:11, 14, an indweller 7:17. Heb. 3:13
20, a law of nature Rom. 7:21, 23, 25. 8:2. Related to mortality. Rom. 6:12. Christ came in sin's flesh Rom. 8:3. strove against it unto blood Heb. 12:4. died unto it once for all Rom. 6:10. and in doing so representatively revealed what we must do to live. See Rom. 6. 2. Gal. 5:24. 2 Cor. 5:14. Gal. 2:19-20.

43 1 Tim. 3:16. Phil. 1:23. Ps. 80:17. John 6:63. The effect. Ps. 22:10. Luke 2:40, 52. Isa. 11:3. Acts 10:38. Cp. Luke 7:16. 1 Cor. 1:30
44. Logizomai - to reckon, or take into account. R.V: "not reckoning unto them."
45 See Note 42 on bottom previous page.
46 RV: "on behalf of Christ"
47. This is an epitome of Paul's preaching to the world. It is expressed in the aorist implying a once for all acceptance of the offer readers had done that.
48 Poieo (Poy-eh-o) The act of constructing or producing any thing, used of the creative acts of God - Vine.
49 Hamartia: To miss the mark.
50 Ginomai - To cause to be. Note the difference in the verbs. Christ "made" - We "cause to become."
The twofold process: forgiveness - newness of life is explained - 1 Pet. 2:22-24.

Paul's faithfulness

Rom. 8:3

19 To wit, that [a] God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not [c] imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath (2) committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then (3) we are ambassadors for Christ, as [k] though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For [m] he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

Rom. 3:25

CHAPTER 6.

1 Paul's sufferings and patience in the ministry. 14 Exhortation to avoid idolaters, as being themselves temples of the living God.

WE then, as [s] workers together with him, beseech you also [t] that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, "I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the [v] accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 [a] Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things approving ourselves as [c] the ministers of God, [d] in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 [b] In stripes, in imprisonments, [r] in tumults, [s] in labours, [t] in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by [u] love unfeigned,

7 By [w] the word of truth, by the power of God, (by) [k] the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and yet [l] well known; [o] as dying, and, behold, we live; [q] as chastened, and not killed;

(LUPE 6 - Grieved) Rom 5:3. John 16:20

10 [b] As (sorrowful), yet alway rejoicing; (as) poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, [y] our [b] heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but [l] ye are straitened in your own bowels. RV- affections. Because of prejudice of Paul's detractors.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (I speak as unto [m] my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 (1) Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for (2) what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and [r] what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with (Belial)? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? Worthlessness See Note

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for [x] ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore (6) come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 (7) And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. Jehovah Pantokrator for Yahweh Sabaoth.

CHAPTER 7.

1 He exhorteth to purity of life, 3 and declareth what comfort he found in his afflictions, by reason of their godly sorrow.

HAVING therefore these [i] promises, dearly beloved, (1) let us cleanse ourselves [f] from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; [m] we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man. Paul's defense against detractors

3 I speak not this to condemn

16 Cont. endurance of trouth. Cp Phil 1:15-18
17 1 Th. 2:5. Rom 13:13-14, Gal. 5:16-17.
18 Without hypocrisy. Rom. 12:9 Cp 2 Cor. 12:19

20 Dia = "By means of" Cp 1 Cor. 4:12-13. This was Christ's experience Cp John 7:12. See John 10:19
21 Luke 6:22. 1 Pet. 4:14
22 Seven paradoxes are now listed stemming from the evil + good reports, introduced by hos (as) the appearance, joined with the conjunction Kai (and) = the reality.
23 The same treatment as Christ Jn 7:12 Mtt. 27:18
24 No standing in the world. Agnoeo - to ignore. St.
25 Ch. 119. 4-10-11. 1 Cor. 15:31 His opponents hoped that his reverses would result in cessation of his influence or labor.
26 Divine chastisement Heb 12:5-11.
27 PTOCHOS. - One pleading for help. Cf. Phil 2:3. 1 Cor. 3:21-22. Rom. 8:28.

2 AN APPEAL FOR CONSECRATED LIVING 7:2-11

28 A very personal form of appeal. Cp Phil. 4:12
29 He expresses his feelings in this epistle more than any other.
30 To receive them in love in spite of the wrongs he experienced. Ch. 7:3, Cp Ch. 12:15.
31 Paul was unrestrained in his feelings towards them but it was not reciprocated.
32 He calls for reciprocation as children owe parents.
33 Their love for Paul will be manifested by repudiation of false teachers.
34 Already yoked. Matt 19:6 Phil. 4:3
35 METOCHE - partnership, participation. Eph. 5:6-11.
36 ANOMIA - Lawlessness 1 John 3:4.
37 KOINONIA - A sharing in common. Note! Light will destroy darkness.
38 SUMPHONESIS - sounding together, agreement. Eng. Symphony
39 MERIS - Portion
40 APISTOS - Unbelief 1 Tim. 1:13. - RV.
41 Cp with SUMPHONIA, music Luke 15:25.
42 SUGKATATHESIS - To accord with, by vote or vote. Thus abbreviating as one.
43 NAOS - Sanctuary or Holiest. Thus Matt. 23:16-21 26:61, 27:5, 40, 51 Mk 14:58, 15:29, 38 Lk 1:9, 21, 22 Jn 2:19-21 Acts 7:48 17:24 19:24, 27 Rev 3:12
44 EISDECHOMAI - To receive or gather in - answering to reward. Isa. 32:11.

CHAPTER 7

1 There is need for daily cleansing for even such as Paul. Sins of both action and teaching. 2 Positive: In love doing what pleases God.

CHAPTER 6.
3 EXHORTATION: PAUL THE FATHER: CH. 6:1 - 9:15.
A CONCERNING THINGS SPIRITUAL. CHPS 6, 7.
1 AN APPEAL FOR CONSISTENCY UNDER ALL CIRCUMSTANCES VV 1-10
Para Kaleo - exhort. Paul's ministry is two-fold. 1 - Exhort sinners to become saints. 5:20. 2. Exhorting saints to be consistent.
By not revealing that he is a new creation. Ch 5:17. Isa 44:8 The context precludes the extension of Christ's love to incorporate Gentiles Dektos - favor. A time of favor. The Hebrew (ratson) favor. Judgment threatens those who reject such an appeal Prov. 1
For Gentiles. Cf. Luke 19:42. Rom 11:11. Cp. Heb. 3:7-8. EUPROSDEKTOS = No stronger form than this. EU = A very favorable acceptance. EU = well. PROS = towards.
PROSKOPE - RV: "occasion of stumbling."
His detractors claimed he was not such because he lacked letters of recommendation Ch 3:1
The test of a true minister. What ministers must be if necessary manifest.
Hupomone - an abiding under, or endurance Cp Mt. 10:22. These were normal to Paul's preaching Matt 24:6, 9, 13. Mk 13:6, 9, 13. Lk 8:15, 21:12, 19. Rom 5:3-4, 15:4-5. 2 Cor 6:4, 12:12. 1 Cor. 13:7. 2 Tim 3:10. Heb 10:32, 36, 12:1, 7. Jas 1:3, 12, 5:11. 1 Pet 2:20. 2 Pet 1:6. Rev 1:9, 2:2, 19, 3:10, 13:10, 14:12.
For necessities of life + for preaching the Gospel. Acts 20:33-34
Sleeplessness - probably induced by thinking over problems, or planning work Cp 2 Cor. 11:27.
Circumstances forced him to go without food.
Gr. Hoplon = Armor or weapons as in Rom 6:13, A sword in the right hand + a shield in the left.
En = in
Hagnotes - Pure from defilement, not contaminated. 1 Tim 4:12, 5:22.
Makrothumia (Makros - long; thumos - temper). The patient

PAUL'S PRINCIPLES OF COMMENDATION.
The first ten (completeness Vv 4-5) are governed by the first (much endurance). It is in the singular - the rest plural + in a series of threes:
IN MUCH ENDURANCE:
(Three abstract, general terms):
• Tribulation (pressure) • Necessities (needs) • Distresses (hemmed in).
(Three concrete, explicit terms):
• Stripes • Imprisonments • Tumults.
(Three personal terms):
• Labors • Sleeplessness • Fastings.
248 Each term builds upon its predecessor. Thus tribulation creates a need to be supplied etc.
This followed by two pairs and a rhetorical group of four:
• Purity (of motive) motivated by • Knowledge
• Longsuffering blended with • Kindness
• The Spirit's Teaching manifested in Sincere Love
• The Word of Truth revealed as God's Power.
THROUGH WEAPONS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS.

RIGHT	LEFT	RIGHT	LEFT
• Honour	• Dishonour	• Not Killed	• Chastened
• Good	• Evil report	• Rejoicing	• Sorrowful
• True	• Deceivers	• Rich	• Poor
• Well Known	• Unknown	• Possessing all	• Nothing
• Living	• Dying

THE CLEARING OF THE CORINTHIANS. V.11.
7 Steps - 1 First earnestness or diligence that dictated all they did.
2 Relating to themselves. 2 Apology 3 Indignation.
2 Relating to Apostle 4 Fear. 5 Desire
2 Relating to Offender 6 Zeal 7 Judicial action.

3 An Appeal for Continued Loyalty IV.2-16.

4 Not a request to put themselves under his yoke, but to expound their heart to receive him Ch.6:4.
5 He writes to defend himself - not to condemn others.
6 How then could he do them an injury.
7 The former in aorist, the latter - present tense. "for we died" are living together. They shared a common experience in Christ & should be united in love. Jhn. 6:35
8 He was frank & outspoken in warning them as well as praising them to others. 1Th. 5:14, 24.
9 Probably due to anxiety as to the success of Titus' mission
10 Title: God of all comfort. Ch.1:4 God of Consolation Rom.15:5.

11 Three causes of their comfort (i.e. Paul's in success): The Corinthians' longing to see Paul; Lamentation over past conduct; Love for the Apostle
12 ODURMOS - Lamentation
13 METAMELOMAI - To regret. Paul regretted the necessity of sending the letter. He had many anxious moments as to whether it might do more harm than good. He would have preferred to have visited them personally
14 Their grief will cease when they receive this further letter.
15 METANOIA - Change of mind. See Note
16 See Mg. In a manner he would approve Rom. 3:27.
17 His rebuke might not harm but help them.
18 Lost, the appointment, shame, ruin, sickness - have no compensations
19 SPOUDĒ - Earnestness, diligence. RV earnest care.
20 APOLOGIA - Defence. - as they explained the action they adopted
21 Against themselves for their past neglect.
22 - That everything had been done that should be done.
23 To see Paul personally. Cp V.7.
24 To make sure they fulfilled all his desires in regard to the case in question.
25 EKDIKĒSIS - judicial judgment. RV. "avenging." The punishment of the incestuous offender. See above.

Good effect of godly sorrow.

5 you: for [a]I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my [a]boldness of speech toward you, great is [c]my glorying of you: [d]I am filled with comfort, [e]I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, [a]when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were [k]troubled on every side; [m]without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us [n]by the coming of Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your [p]earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For [r]though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but [s]for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry [a]after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage [t]by us in nothing.

10 For [v]godly sorrow worketh [z]repentance to salvation [a]not to be repented of: but [b]the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what [d]clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what [e]revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor [b]for his cause that suffered wrong, [c]but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you. (that which they provided)

13 Therefore [y]we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because [z]his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For [a]if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his [2]inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth [c]the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that [g]I have confidence in you in all things.

31 Paul had manifested a confidence in the Corinthians which he had more than once expressed to Titus. Now their action had justified [redacted] his words.
32 Paul is greatly relieved that his affection for the Corinthian brethren Ch.2:4 had not led him to overstep the limits of truth in claiming to Titus that they would readily respond.
33 Titus had not expected this but had anticipated strenuous opposition.

CHAPTER 8.

1 He stirreth them up to a liberal contribution for the poor saints at Jerusalem, by the example of the Macedonians, 9 and as followers of Christ. 16 He commendeth Titus and others.

MOREOVER, brethren, we do you to wit of [1]the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia; (Philippi, Thessalonica, Berea.)

2 How that in a great [u]trial of affliction [x]the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded [s]unto the riches of their [1]liberality. (RV. according)

3 For [x]to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves; ("their own accord" RV)

4 Praying us with much intreaty [c]that we would receive the gift, and ~~take upon us~~ the fellowship of [e]the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

1 RV: "make known to you."
2 Their liberality Gk. which stemmed from their recognition of God's goodness to them.
3 RV: "which hath been given"
4 RV: "in much proof of affliction." In spite of personal affliction, they helped their brethren.
5 Their joy overflowed their affliction; and their liberality overflowed their poverty (deep poverty).
6 HAPLOTĒS (haplous - single) = singlemindedness, sincerity. This made their gift attractive - not the amount they gave. Cp V.12.
7 DUNAMIN - ability
8 Beseeching us - not we them!
9 RV: "in regard of the grace" (or favor). They were so willing in this matter that they pleaded with Paul that he might permit them to have a share in the venture, even though they were so poor. Evidently Paul & Timothy tried to restrain them in view of their poverty.
10 Not according to our expectations - they went beyond them.

PAUL'S FIVE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS 6:14-18 249

1 What fellowship hath righteousness (DIKaiosunē)? It relates to a right relationship with God 2 Cor. 5:21 which is manifested in doing His will which becomes the Law of their heart Rom. 2:13-15.
2 What communion hath light? From Righteousness = Lawlessness we are shown the powers that produce them. They cannot live together. Light is aggressive & must destroy darkness. God is Light 1 Jhn. 1:5. Christ is Light Jhn. 1:9. 8:12. Believers = sons of Light Lk. 16:8. Jhn 12:36. Eph. 5:8 Walking in Light Jhn 12:35 & 36. 1 John 1:7. Partaking of inheritance of Light Col. 1:12. God separated Light & Darkness Gen. 1:4. Called believers from it 1 Pet. 2:9. Eph. 5:8 Governs the world Eph. 6:12. Rejectors banished to it Mt. 22:13. 25:30. 2 Pet. 2:17.
3 What concord hath Christ? - The personification of Light or Belial is that of darkness. "Son of Belial" is a Hebraism for worthless men unheeding of Truth.
4 What portion hath a believer? He has been justified by faith Rom. 3:28 the bearer of the highest blessing Rom. 6:6-7. At peace with God Rom. 5:1 In hope of eternal life Tit. 1:1-4. Reflects Christ in his heart 2 Cor. 4:6. through an enlightened mind Eph. 4:17. The unbeliever loves darkness hates the light Jhn. 3:19-20. and is condemned. Mk. 16:16.
5 What agreement hath the temple of God? No agreement only warfare Rom. 8:26. 2 Cor. 10:3-6.

THE COLLECTION. Paul had given solemn undertaking to help the poor Gal. 2:10 and faithfully carried it out Acts 11:29-30. Paul saw in such offerings not merely a token of love but a demonstration of the unique position of Israel in the sight of Gentile believers Rom. 15:27 and an evidence to Jewish believers that the Gentile were one with them Rom. 15:31. In Corinth the fund had been commenced a year before Ch 8:10. 9:2. When the first Epistle was written, 5 or 6 months earlier, instructions had been given regarding the method of collection 1 Cor. 16:1. The strained conditions between Paul & the Corinthians brought about by 1st letter caused the collection to lapse. Titus' visit had revived it 2 Cor. 8:6. but there was need for greater enthusiasm & Titus was again despatched for that purpose v.6. Meanwhile Paul urged them on with tact, avoiding rebuke. He said nothing about it having lapsed, but took it for granted he would also finish in you the same [2] grace also.

7 Therefore, as [b] ye abound in every thing, in faith, and [c] utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see [c] that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and [d] to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, [e] though he was rich, yet [f] for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein [g] I give my advice: for [h] this is expedient for you, who have [i] begun before, not only to do, but also to be [k] forward [l] a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a [m] readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of [n] that which ye have.

12 For [o] if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply [p] for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, [q] He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, [r] which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted [s] the exhortation; but being more forward, [t] of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him [u] the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout [v] all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who [w] was also [x] chosen of the churches to travel with us with this [3] grace, [y] which is administered by us [z] to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, [a] upon the great confidence which I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and [b] fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are [c] the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and [d] before the churches, the proof of your love, and of [e] our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9.

1 He sheweth why he sent Titus and the brethren beforehand, 6 and stirreth them up to give bountifully in order to obtain a bountiful return.

FOR as touching [a] the ministering to [b] the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know [d] the forwardness of your mind, [c] for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that [e] Achaia was ready [f] a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 Yet have I sent [g] the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, [h] as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if [i] they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed

15. Logos – the word expounded 1 Cor. 1:5.
16 RV "earnestness."
17 Liberality towards the poor Jewish believers.
18 EN – Paul felt in himself the love that came from them.
19. He did not exercise his Apostolic authority. He did not compel, but appointed.
20 RV. "as proving by the earnestness of others the sincerity of your love." The loving earnestness of the Macedonians is used as a test of the Corinthians.
21 Their love of Paul & of Christ & their overflowing love for the poor in Jerusalem (cp v.2) led so completely merged himself in his work in the Lord, that one could show genuine love to him only by loving the Lord – genuine love of the Lord only by its expression to Paul's fellow-workers.

2 AN APPEAL TO FOLLOW — TO FOLLOW THE EXAMPLE OF CHRIST BY DENYING THEIR SELVES FOR OTHERS vv 9-15.

He purchased us – King. He is Yahweh's salvation – Priest. He intercedes for us – Priest.
I offer an opinion.
To maintain consistency of action.
RV: "who were the first to make a beginning a year ago not only to do, but also to will." i.e. They put their heart into the work, desiring to forward it.
RV: "a completion also out of your ability" – i.e. according to your means.
The virtue is not in giving but in seeing a need and sharing. If the virtue was in giving, the poor man would lack virtue. The virtue lay in the willing mind. v.12. The Golden Rule Luke 6:31-38. Phil. 2:6.
Thus a sharing of each others possessions, materially & spiritually. Rom. 15:27. Through need, Paul would bring Jew & Gentile more closely together, breaking down the Judaism of the former & emphasising the Israelitish nature of the hope to the latter.
LXX & Hebrew agree. Paul: slight variation from former (Malleon) & little instead ELATTON – Lack)
The desert experience revealed that Yahweh is the Provider – all resources from Him & therefore in material things we are but custodians of God's bounty. 1 Tim. 6:17-18.

3 THE INTEGRITY OF THOSE — HANDLING THE COLLECTION vv. 16-24.

Titus would labour to supply their lack.
As my own.
Brethren approved of the Ecclesias were appointed to convey the gift to Jerusalem 1 Cor. 16:3, Paul promising to accompany them if the gift warranted it 1 Cor. 16:4.
Cp with "our" v.21. This anonymous brother (one of the group mentioned in Acts 20:4) had been appointed by the local Ecclesias as having the necessary qualifications, endorsed by his personal activity.

THE COLLECTION (Cont.) 250

that it would be continued. His efforts were successful Rom. 15:26-28. Luke Acts 20:[illegible] names the party which commenced from Corinth in the spring of the next year and carried the collection from the European Ecclesias to Jerusalem where it was doubtless turned over to James and the elders when the received Paul & his party "with gladness" Acts 21:17. In his defence before Felix, Paul mentioned this as one of his reasons for visiting Jerusalem Acts 24:17.

NOTES CONTINUED FROM CH. 9:11

29 The recipients of the gift would recognise the influence of God upon the giver and thank Him for the grace revealed.
26. RV: "through the proving of you by this ministration." The want of the saints in Jerusalem tested the validity of their expressed love. Cp Ch. 8:2. Jam. 2:14-16.
27. RV: "the obedience of your confession." It was a practical demonstration of their belief. Rom. 2:13, Jam. 1:22. 2:26.
28 HAPLOTES – Single-minded, sincere. KOINONIA – Fellowship. The sincerity of your fellowship – shown in the contribution.
29 RV: "while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, long after you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you" Thus fellowship between Jew & Gentile would be cemented.
30 Indescribable gift of grace: love which reflected in believers, unites them as one.

---

37 CHEIROTONEO – voted (Ding). CHEIR – the hand. TEINO – to stretch.
38 It was a gift of grace reflecting that grace they had received from the Lord & therefore to his glory.
39 RV. etc "our readiness": Paul was anxious to move the Ecclesias to the manifestation of Divine grace.
40 Paul's detractors accused him of dishonesty Ch. 7:2. Now he arranges reps. of Ecclesias to go with the gift to avoid the charge that he claimed that all the money came from him.
41 Closer relationship than "the" v.18 Use this Luke from Philippi?
42 RV "earnest" SPOUDE – denotes zeal + haste. Cp use vv 8, 16, 17, 22.
43 Titus is in control of this Committee of 3. He has Paul's instructions to administer.
44 APOSTOLOS. Apostle. They had an official commission.
45 Administering a work that reflected the highest honour.

The poor saints of Jerusalem. Ch. 8:4. Both Paul & Titus had already instructed them in this. 1 Cor. 16:1. 2 Cor. 8:6.
RV: "Your readiness" Not merely Corinth! It included Ecclesias of Athens, Cenchrea etc.
RV: "hath been prepared." passive voice. Thus prepared by Paul. By this means Paul would invigorate them to their original enthusiasm.
6 PLEION = the majority
7 Paul would be ashamed – what about them? Thus with delicacy he appeals but does not dictate.

Paul broadens his thought Ye 3-5. He + his lieutenants are waging a war with a hundred objectives, + as a great general he regards the conflict at Corinth as only a skirmish. He has been absent because he has been busy on a wide battle front. His opponents despise him - but they will feel the weight of his attack. This is written to the Corinthians, not the opponents! All he asks the Corinthians is to not get in the way lest they, too, get hurt!!

PAUL THE APOSTLE (Background). This introduces the most severe aspect of the Epistle, as Paul sets about vindicating his authority. The most flagrant offenders seems to have been one teacher from Jerusalem Ch 10:7, 10 11, 12 18, 11:4 This man + his adherents spoke of Paul as untutored in speech Ch 11:6 10, mean in aspect Ch. 10:1, 10. ● Bold at a distance, cowardly in presence Ch 10:2 ● Not quite sound in intellect Ch 11:16, 17, 19 ● They had introduced false teaching Ch 11:4 ● being boastful Y 7 ● insolent, rapacious, violent Ch 11:20, 21 ● And generally dangerous in influence Ch 11:3 ● Paul indignantly deals with them.

CHAPTER 10

4 VINDICATION: PAUL THE APOSTLE CH 10:1-13:10

A THE CRITICS AND THEIR PRETENSIONS CH 10:1 - 11:15

1 IN VIEW OF HIS AUTHORITY HE CALLS ON THEM TO BE OBEDIENT. Y 1-6.

8 AV: "confidence." i.e. in their liberality.
9 His confidence had been shaken by the strained relations that had developed.
10 EULOGIA - Blessing. RV: "make up beforehand your aforepromised bounty, that the same might be ready as a matter of bounty, + not of extortion."
11 As a free gift of your own + not something wrung out of you unwillingly.
5 THE RESULTS THAT FOLLOW THE HELPING OF OTHERS Y 6-15
12 EP + EULOGIAIS = with blessings. The blessings of God can be relied upon - but if only little seed is planted, a large crop cannot be expected.
13 Decides for himself i.e. whether he will be a sparse or bountiful returner. MOTIVE
14 EK LUPES = out of sorrow - they were not to grieve that they had to give 15 HILAROS - Hilarious, joyous, light-hearted. Prov 22:8
16 More than compensate any sacrifice. Luke 6:38
17 AUTARKEIA - Contentment 1 Tim 6:6, 8.
18 Faith, love, pity courage - are all peaks of grace that come from God + that improve our work in His service. Thus grace increases and abounds. John 15:8.
19 The whole Holm speaks of the blessedness of the righteous.
20 The blessings depend on a liberal sowing.
21 PENES = A poor person rather than a pauper - PTOCHOS.
22 RV: "he that supplieth seed to the sower and bread for food shall supply + multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits..."
What he does in the domain of nature points to what he will do in the domain of grace. He supplies both seed (where withall) + harvest, but we must sow bountifully to reap.
23 RV: "ye being enriched in everything unto all [illegible] liberality." HAPLOTES - single-mindedness, sincerity. (This leads to liberality). God has blessed them so that they might bless others! 1 Tim 6:17-19.
24 In collecting and distributing the gift Ch 8:19-20.

1 Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who + in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you: (RV "yea")
2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.
3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: Eph 6:10-17, 2 Tim 2:3-4
4 (For "the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)
5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;
6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.
8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed: (He would be able to sustain his authority)
9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.
10 For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but

1 He introduces himself in this personal manner because he is about to vindicate himself.
2 Para Kaleo - Exhort. To call to one's side + therefore to cheer and (thus).
3 Dia with genitive - through - a proceeding from.
4 Meekness = quality of heart; gentleness = its external manifestation.
5 Deomai, pray, urge etc.
6 A warning not to misinterpret his meekness + gentleness, for, if necessary, like Christ, he can be severe. RV: "show courage."
7 Described Ch 11:13-14
8 With motives of designing insincerity with object of personal advantage.
9 With all its weakness + vulnerability, so that we frighten no contestant by personal ability.
10 Paul's opponents made the colossal mistake of imagining the opposite + thinking that his gentleness (for example) was hypocrisy.
11 Hoplon - rendered "instruments" Rom 6:13.
12 Strateias - MM = military service.
13 Kathairesis - to cast down, demolish. For this, battering rams + a fully equipped army is necessary. It was the campaign waged by Paul + his associates. How could the handful of hostile opponents hope to succeed against so well equipped an army.
14 The citadels of error + evil.
15 When forts are overthrown, captives are taken.
16 Noema - purpose, device. Christ will ultimately prove the victor in every stronghold in the war.
17 RV: "Being in..." He is quite prepared for any conflict.
18 Ekdikeo - Bring to justice, avenge.
19 Pockets of resistance against Apostolic authority + teaching had reared their heads in Corinth.
20 He was giving them opportunity to declare themselves for Christ. For that reason he delayed his coming Ch 1:23. Partial success had already been received Ch 7:11-16

2 THE ANSWER TO THE CRITICISM OF THE CHRIST PARTY. Y 7-11

21 There was a tendency to judge by mere externals - particularly in relation to the hypocrisy of the Christ party.
22 They were designed for edification, not destruction, as alleged by his opponents. 1 Cor 14:3-4 "All things edify" contained they designed unity + trust.

PAUL'S DECLARATION OF WAR. Ch 10:1-5.

"Paul uses strong figures of war. His opponents want bravery, being so heroically brave themselves; Paul lets them get their ears full of war music. He is sending a declaration of war. The opponents say Paul is mighty brave + warlike when he is at a safe distance. Ironically Paul justifies this talk; still at a distance from Corinth, he is using tremendously brave language. Let his opponents make the most of it. Let them make the most of it. Let their courage rise; let them wait until Paul comes! But somehow Paul's language has an ominous ring for his opponents; he shows a most disquieting confidence V 1.

See above.

INTRODUCTION Y y

He exhorts them not to put his courage to the test when he arrives at Corinth, urging them not to listen to them who claim him to be a paper-soldier - good with words on paper, but + personally a coward. If necessary, he will attack + fight effectively.

He urges on the grounds of the "meekness + gentleness of Christ: Mt 11:29. These qualities manifested towards the teachable did cause Christ to denounce the evil. He vigorously drove traffickers from the temple; he called down terrible woes upon the Scribes + Pharisees, denounced as hypocrites Mt 23. He could be severe, scathing, fiery crushing - but his constant desire was to use only gentleness.

PAUL'S APPEARANCE This should not be assessed from the slanderous lies of his opponents in Corinth. A man who could endure such persecution as Ch 11:23-28 was no weakling whilst Paul's powerful speeches recorded in Acts reveals that he was an outstanding orator. Acts 14:12. Acts 24.

PAUL'S ACCUSATION V 14. Some were teaching error 1 Cor. 15:12. So vacillating & undecided had the Corinthians become (probably the result of educational background Acts 17:21) that should another arrive preaching yet another Jesus, he could rely upon support. Instead of applying the advice of Rom. 16:17,18 they would "bear with it." This is the language of irony. Anechesthai — "might bear" could be rendered as it is in mg V1. "you do bear" or "you will bear" with it well.

24 Asthenes - Without strength. It was a slander bandied about Corinth that whilst Paul's letters were calculated to terrify, he was personally weak - easily overcome. Cp Ch. 13:3.

3 THE CLAIM TO DIVINE AUTHORITY TESTED 12:18

25 In respect to self prove they are better than we! V 7.

6 "make ourselves of the number" — enkrino. — To judge or reckon among. RV "to judge ourselves among." a Dog. "to rank." a Paul could not place himself in the lofty position assumed by his opponents.

7 Their standards were not really Christ's, but the measuring stick of the flesh.

Ameteros - unmeasured. Therefore things nobody can measure.

Thus revealing the distance to which Paul had taken the Gospel. Cp Rom 15:23. Ho

We do not exaggerate as they knew.

Phthano - to come first. The false apostles followed in the track of Paul.

Ametros - unmeasured. Limits to which he had not been appointed — as the false apostles. Dwg. "Not boasting with reference to unmeasured things in the labors of others."

See Mg. He desires that they might acknowledge his friendly disinterested labor, in order that they might cooperate in it instead of hindering the work.

The false apostles were cunning. They let Paul go ahead, build Ecclesia, & then crept after him to undermine the work.

Kauchasomai - boasteth. In a work to which Christ had appointed him, or that which he would approve.

A man likes to flatter himself; he may use false standards. But the Lord sees through & through. Blessed is the one he commends!

CHAPTER 11

4 PAUL'S FEAR FOR THE CORINTHIANS VV 1-4

RV: "In a little foolishness." Thus in contrast to the false apostles who were guilty of great folly.

Gr. "God's jealousy." The same jealousy as exhibited in O.T. by Yahweh towards Israel. Zech 1:14. Jer 3:1. Deut 32:16.

2 Paul did this as the spiritual father of the Ecclesia. As such he was the guarantor of the virginity of the bride. Eph 5:25. Thus Paul, in his divinely appointed office has presided over the Corinthians to unite them as one with Christ.

Separated and given exclusively to him. Cf Rom 7:4 Ex.

Paul excuseth his selfboasting. II. CORINTHIANS 11.

his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For we dare not [4] make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but [D] they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, [2] are not wise. — not even sensible.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you. RV. "apportioned"

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are [k] come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, [m] of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, — R.V.

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's [o] line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But [q] he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. Cp 1:12.

18 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but [r] whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Paul entereth into a forced commendation of himself and of his preaching, 23 and recounteth his sufferings for the gospel.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in [x] my folly: and indeed [B] bear with me.

2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for [y] I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you [C] as a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as [C] the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, [7] so your minds [6] should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. Harlotes - sinful men under the Law (13)

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or [9] another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well [1] bear [3] with him. 1 John 4:1 (See Note above)

5 For I suppose I was [j] not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles. (idiotes - untrained)

6 But though I be [1] rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things. alla - on the contrary (2)

7 Have I committed [1] an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely? For his right Cp 1 Cor. 9:11-18

8 I robbed other churches, taking [u] wages of them, to do you service. (opsonion - soldiers pay, Luke 3:14 Rom 6:23)

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, [v] I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me [p] the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself. Note 2 Cor 12:13

10 [s] As the truth of Christ is in me, [t] no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia. Kauchesis Cp 1:14. Cp Rom 4:2

11 Wherefore? [t] because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, [w] that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are [z] false apostles, [a] deceitful [M] workers, transforming

PAUL'S MASK OF BOASTING 252

This section has been described as the most magnificent & destructive piece of writing that Paul ever did in the way of ironical polemics. Like an actor of on the ancient stage he puts on a mask in order to act a part. The part is that of a fool. Recognising that this is not a wise thing he is doing, he asks his readers to tolerate it, to bear with it for a little while.

He assumes the role of a fool by boasting about himself. He hates to do this but has been forced into it by the action of his opponents who are deceiving him, that they might destroy his influence & so make way for the introduction of their deadly error.

Paul's circumstance in Christ was unique. He was as a dead foetus fit only to be buried out of sight & forgotten, but Christ in his mercy called him & gave him life. He felt the need to work more arduously 1 Cor 15:8-10, & therefore made it a principle to preach without pay, sometimes refusing to exercise his right 1 Cor. 9:15. The slanders circulating in Corinth were that Paul, unlike the other Apostles, refused pay because he realised his preaching was not worth it! This would not deter him. Nor would those in Achaia who knew him be moved by such reasoning.

21 Why do not I accept your money?
22 His disinterested action destroyed the boasting of the faithless "apostles" who took all they could. They had a hard time explaining their action.
23 Pseudo-apostles. Cp Pseudo-Christs, Pseudo-prophets Mat 24:11. Pseudo-brethren Gal 2:4. V 26.
24 Dekas — To escape or turn by means of a half.

5 Paristemi (Para, by, histemi, to set) to place beside. The Gr. = to betrothed you to one husband - a chaste virgin to present as the Anointed. This will be at Rev 19:7-9, but does not suggest that Paul will officially present the Ecclesia as the bride then - though as part of the bride he will rejoice at the union 1 Thess 2:19

6 The High Priest could only marry virgins. Lev 21:14

7 Panourgia - all-working. Ability to do anything, cleverness, craftiness. They attacked Paul, perhaps believing he would not defend himself. The chief issue of the controversy surrounded the person of Paul - hence the emphasis on self. This was their clever craftiness.

8 Sylaō - To destroy by corrupting (Vine). Their wine destroyed Paul's reputation - the way was open to destroy the Ecclesia.

9 RV: "from the simplicity & the purity that is toward Christ."

10 A prominent rival preacher.

11 Allos - another of the same kind - a slightly divergent Christ.

12 Heteros = that which is different.

5 THEIR FOLLY BY BEING DRAWN AWAY BY OTHERS VV 5-15.

13 Huperlian (Huper-over, lian, pre-eminently. "most pre-eminent." An ironical reference to the leaders of the false apostles (Paul is not contrasting himself with the 12). His preaching has been as effective among them as anyone!

14 He was not - he was skilful. But his detractors claimed that he lacked the normal rhetorical niceties of the age.

15 "Now, in every way have we made this manifest unto you in all things" - RV.

16 He appeared among them as a simple tent maker. Acts 20:33-35. His detractors claimed that he refused material aid because he realised he was not worthy of it.

17 Paul rejoiced in this. Cp Phil. 1 Thess 2:9. 2 Thess 3:8-9. Acts 20:34.

18 The language is that of irony, the "fool" speaking to emphasise their folly. Cp Phil 3:4-6.

19 Looking after both himself & his associates. Acts 20:17-35. Paul alone stage left desperate need.

20 Emoi (me) in the dative: "my case" (Robertson Greek NT) ing themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for [b] Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; [d] whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, [e] Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool [2] receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, [k] I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye [2] suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, if a man [o] bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speak as concerning reproach, [q] as though we had been weak. Howbeit wherein-soever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; [t] in labours more abundant, [x] in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, [v] in deaths oft.

24 [z] Of the Jews five times received I [c] forty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I [d] beaten with rods, [e] once was I stoned, thrice I [f] suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in [1] perils by mine own countrymen, in perils [k] by the heathen, in perils [m] in the city, in perils in [o] the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among [c] false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, [p] in watchings often, [c] in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, [4] the care of [r] all the churches.

29 [h] Who is weak, and I am not weak? [s] who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, [t] I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 [1] The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, [m] which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 [u] In Damascus the governor under [3] Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And [v] through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12.

1 In commending his apostleship, 9 he chooseth rather to glory of his infirmities, than of his wonderful revelations, 11 blaming them for forcing him to this vain boasting.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. [w] I will come to [x] visions and [y] revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man [z] in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one [a] caught up to [b] the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into [c] paradise, and heard unspeakable words, [4] which it is not [d] lawful for a man to utter.

25 The adversary seems to have been the chief opponent of Paul in this matter. He makes constant reference to one main antagonist. See Note top p. 251. Cp v.6

26 This was the pose assumed by Christ's tempter who quoted Scripture. Cp Mt 4.1-11. Rev 2:9.

27 The pseudo-apostles, not but by this one who is expected to visit Corinth v.14. and where members were already busy there. Dia Kenoi-schranks.

28 The disguise shall be stripped from them; they shall be judged for what they are not from what they appear.

B THE APOSTLE AND HIS CREDENTIALS vv 16-12:18

1 HIS FLESHLY QUALIFICATIONS ARE AS HIGH AS ANY OF THE JUDAISERS (PETRINE PARTY) vv 16-23 A

29 Paul is reluctant & ashamed to engage in this form of boasting but is compelled he do it.

30 It is neutralised by human weakness.

31 But he does not boast in what he has done, but what he has borne.

32 The irony is scathing. People of intelligence cannot bear fools. But the Corinthians do, showing that their wisdom is but folly.

33 They endured the enslaving [illegible], greedy [illegible], covetous [illegible], domineering, [illegible] violent [illegible] so-called teachers: yet resented the disinterested, gentle & humble apostle.

34 Atimia - dishonour, shame, disgrace. But the disgrace was to Paul! It was a disgrace to him that he was treated as he was.

35 Lit. "in what thing." Paul is prepared to match anything his opponents care to bring forward.

36 Uses Aramaic & the Hebrew Bible.

37 Jews in heart and action. Thus Mt 5:22. Rom 1:14.

38 Moved by the hope of Abraham's example. Mt 8:31-42. Acts 24:6.

39 Not "aphron" (without reason) as above, but paraphroneo - as a mad man, with downright insanity. RV = "as one beside himself." Paul feels completely embarrassed at having to enter into such a contest.

40 Result of Stripes and facing death - each increasing in difficulty. Who of the dozen ministers received a stripe or faced death for Christ? Their "belly" would not endure it. Phil 3:19.

41 The only imprisonment up to this date recorded in Acts is that of Philippi Acts 16:23.

42 Unrecorded in Acts.

43 Only one recorded Acts 16:22. As a Roman citizen Paul should have been exempt from such punishment. At Philippi this was brought about by the confusion of a religious riot. Perhaps that was the course elsewhere.

44 Not recorded in Acts.

45 A reference doubtless to his escape from one of the shipwrecks by floating on a plank for 24 hours. It commenced at night was falling & continued until almost the following night.

46 He pursued his Apostolic commission Mk 16:15. Acts 1:8. In spite of peril.

47 RV: "Rivers" - often dangerously unbridged.

48 Genous - Race (RV mg). Acts 7:23, 29. 13:26. Rom 9:3. &c.

WHO IS WEAK? v.29.

The context of this verse shows that Paul is contrasting his burdens with those of his detractors. Some claim that their burdens are too heavy to be borne - what of Paul? Some claim that their labors are such as to involve them in a death-trap from which they can escape only with difficulty - but Paul is in the midst of fire constantly and from it he cannot escape.

These trials have been with him from the very beginning - even at Damascus when he had to escape in the way he describes. Thus he can "boast" of infirmities & weakness. Ch. 11:30.

49 Gr. Pseudadelphois. See Nh 2:8. v.12.

50 Lit. "in toil & travail" RV in labour & travail.

51 Agrupnia - Sleeplessness. Ch. 6:5 - as he pondered the problems of individuals & ecclesias, or worked late into the night to sustain him & his companions. Acts 20:31-34.

52 Through dire want when destitute of food.

53 The heat of the day when clothing had to be light followed by the penetrating chill of the night.

54 Choris - "Apart from." Paul now refers to the heaviest burden - things the pseudo-Apostles could & would not touch.

55 Parekhas (para - beside). In addition (Vine). Things specifically omitted but which constituted the heaviest burden. RV mg. "Besides the things which I omit."

56 Epi sustasis - A standing together, hence a pressing or crowding upon. - "which cometh upon."

57 Feeling they cannot bear the load they carry.

58 Bearing a load beyond the ability of flesh, so I must seek God's help.

59 SKANDALIZŌ - Verb, to be caught in a death-trap.

60 Paul is constantly in a worse state - labouring in the very fire, consumed by its heat. There is opportunity of release from the death-trap, but the fire is constantly burning.

61 KAUCHAOMAI - To boast or vaunt oneself.

62 He will boast in personal weakness for by so doing God's strength is manifested. Ch. 12:9.

63 He knows the weakness of the flesh - personal dangers through which the Apostle passed.

3 HIS DANGERS DATE FROM HIS VERY CONVERSION vv 12-33

64 See Note: Letters To Damascus p.115. He did this in connection with the Jews Ac 9:23 a SARGANE = Basket of wicker work. Acts 9:25 = SPYRIS, a large basket. Thus Paul's career began in weakness as he had to run away.

CHAPTER 12

4 HIS REVELATIONS FROM GOD ARE GREATER THAN OTHERS v1-6

RV: "I must needs glory, though it is not expedient;" a - SUMPHERO - advantageous. This is a course forced on Paul by his adversaries.

1 Paul presents a contrast. In Ch. 11:32-33 he presents himself as a poor fugitive, ignominiously escaping in the night. But now he reveals the powerful inner man.

3 Time & circumstances vague. Could have been when Barnabas sought Paul Acts 11:25. or when Paul saw vision in Temple Acts 22:17. Paul by now about 20 years in Truth.

4 His bodily modes of apprehension were so absorbed whether he was conveyed to a different place or not for the vision he could not tell.

PAUL'S MOTIVE IN WRITING V.19.
The carnalminded are warned to remove from their minds any thought that Paul was trying to justify himself before them. His objective was to build them up by removing the falsehoods that were influencing their conduct. God, not the Corinthians, is Paul's judge.

PROVE YOUR OWN SELVES. CH.13:5. - Test your own sincerity. There are variations of this word in Ch.13. Thus DOKIME V.3. - proof. DOKIMAZOO V.5 (, prove). - Put to proof. ADOKIMOS - Disproved (Rend. reprobates) 6:9. 7. DOKIMOS - Approved V.7. They could test their sincerity by examining their motives and actions to see whether they manifested the example of Christ. It was a practical test of whether they were in the faith. Gal 6:4.

11 Like his adversaries who were making fools of themselves by exaggerating or lying for personal aggrandizement.
12 Only receive facts.
13 If he were to tell them more of his revelations, he might encourage them to think more of him than he deserves or wishes.

5 THE PHYSICAL INFIRMITIES THEY DESPISE SHOULD DEEPLY ONSTRATE GOD'S POWER IN HIM. VV.2-10

14 Present tense indicating re-current action (Vine).
15 SKOLOPS - A thorn, stake or anything pointed (Vine) indicating that it was physical, painful, incapacitating.
A physical disorder Cp Luke 13:16 and see Gal 4:13-14. which disfigured his appearance 2 Cor 10:10. Perhaps an acute form of ophthalmia.
An infliction - not a person!! RV "the thorn" said.." i.e once - on the third occasion.
Many texts omit. See Diag. RV Christ's Strength is perfected in weakness by Divine grace - thus Paul gloried in weakness V.5. Ch.4:7 Phil 4:13. 1 Cor. 2:3-5.
EPISKENOO - Tabernacle RV mg. - "spread a tabernacle over me." In his weakness he sheltered under that tabernacle.
EUDOKOO (eu - well, docco - seem). "Implies a gracious purpose, a good object being in view, with the idea of a resolve showing the willingness with which the resolve is made." Vine. "I am contented." Cp Rom 15:26. 2 Cor. 7:4.
Weakness as in V.9
2 Cor. 4:14.
2 Tim. 3:11-12. this is the qualifying phrase. Christ could remove these sufferings if he received it. Paul submitted to the will of Christ Phil. 2:8.

6 HIS WORK AND ATTITUDE AMONG THEM VINDICATED HIS APOSTLESHIP VV.11-18

They should have sprung to his defence. His adversaries had their supporters who commended them. Ch.3:1. 5:12. 10:12.
HUPERLIAN - Superfine, exceedingly pre-eminent. An ironical reference to the false apostles Ch.11:5, 13.
As they claimed - he acknowledged.
Acts 2:22. Heb. 2:4.
Ecclesias founded by the other Apostles had to materially support them 1 Cor. 9:6, 12.
KATANARKAO - To be numbed, torpid, or grow stiff. (NARKE) is the torpedo or cramp fish which benumbs anyone who touches it - Hence to be idle at the detriment of another.
Thus a dead weight. Paul refused payment for his services.

Paul glorieth in his infirmities.

11 to glory, [a] I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.
7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me [e] a thorn in the flesh, [f] the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.
8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.
9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for [g] my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that [h] the power of Christ may rest upon me.
10 Therefore I [m] take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong. (leaning on Christ Phil 4:13)
11 [n] I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for [i] in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.
12 Truly "the signs of an apostle were wrought among you [o] in all patience, in [p] signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.
13 For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that [q] I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me "this wrong.
14 Behold, [r] the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for [s] I seek not yours, but you: for [t] the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.
15 And [u] I will very gladly spend and be spent for [v] you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.
16 But be it so, I did not burden you: neverthless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.
17 Did I [b] make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you? (PARAKALEO - Exhorted RV)
18 [c] I (desired) Titus, and with him I sent [d] a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?
19 [e] Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? [k] we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.
20 For I fear, lest, [l] when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, "whisperings, swellings, tumults:
21 And lest, [o] when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many [q] which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and [r] fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAPTER 13.

1 He threateneth severity against obstinate sinners: 11 concludeth with general exhortation and prayer.

THIS is [c] the third time I am coming to you. [d] In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.
2 [e] I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them [f] which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, [g] I will not spare:
3 Since ye seek [k] a proof of Christ [l] speaking in me, [m] which to you-ward is not weak, but [o] is mighty [p] in you.
4 For [q] though he was crucified through weakness, [r] yet he liveth by the power of God.

254 warned them that his delay was to spare them - gave them opportunity to repent. Ch. 1:23.
3 RV: "as when I was present" - though mg as AV. AV: With all the urgency of a personal appeal, he pleads the second time.
4 As they claimed - or Paul's detractors claimed Ch. 10:10
5 In the midst of the Ecclesia, as Paul would show when he [illegible] wielded the Apostolic authority he received from Christ.
6 His crucifixion seemed an evidence of weakness in his submission, yet it ensured his redemption. He liveth because of God's power both in overcoming the flesh as in resurrection.

2 CHAPTER 13. = LET THEM PREPARE FOR HIS COMING FOR HE WILL NOT SPARE VV.1-6.

1 If there is not true repentance the case will be pressed home to extreme action will be taken 1 Cor. 5:4-5.
2 Paul had already

GALATIANS: Perhaps the earliest Epistle. The statement of Ch.4:13 suggests two visits to the region (see Note on Galatia, below). The 1st visit to southern cities = 1st Missionary Journey. Acts 13:13 14:7. the 2nd made on way back to Syrian Antioch Acts 14:21. Could have been written from that city and so before the Jerusalem Council. If 2nd visit = 16:6. could have been written about same time as Thessalonians on 2nd Journey, perhaps from Corinth. The earlier period seems most natural as otherwise mention would have been made of the decision of the Council.

7 No self-assertiveness due to Christ's influence.
8 Having fellowship-ed his sufferings Phil.3:10. he would share his glory.
9 Cp 1 Cor.1:25. Christ revealed in Christ's will the source of that authority revealed by Paul. As Christ crucified was the Power of God forward them, they should heed the example.
10 In view of the foregoing, are they prepared to submit to the authority of Christ in Paul.

An exhortation

7 For [a] we also are weak [2] in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; [c] prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that [h] Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates? - See Intro. p.254

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates. (Supposed Paul's assistants)

7 Now [i] I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that [p] we should appear approved, but that [q] ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing [r] against the truth, but for the truth. (To establish its power)

9 For we are glad, when [s] we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your [t] perfection. (RV pray)

RV: "for building up" not for casting down."

10 Therefore [18] I write these things being absent, [b] lest being present I should use [c] sharpness, according to [d] the power which the Lord hath given me to [e] edification, and not to [v] destruction. (KATARTIZO - See Note V.9. 1 Thes 3:11)

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. [k] Be perfect, [l] be of good comfort, [m] be of one mind, [n] live in peace; and the God of love and [o] peace shall be with you. [20] Eph 4:3

12 Greet one another with an holy kiss. [21] (Grace brings love & then communion)

13 All the saints salute you.

14 [q] The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and [r] the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

united and inclined to be sceptical.

15 Paul was rendered powerless in the exercise of authority when the Truth was obeyed. He then appeared as "weak" lacking authority, for he allowed the Truth to take over. He rejoiced in this "weakness" Cp V.9. Ch.12:10.
16 Apparently weak in that they do not have to assert their Apostolic authority.
17 KATARTISIS - Completely making fit by repairing any damage (Eng. artisan) [a] The Verb KATARTIZO is used of mending nets Mt.4:21. Mk.1:19. is rendered "restore" Gal.6:1. This would be an evidence of strength.
18 A concluding sharp note. "Put all in readiness before I arrive - or else!!"

4 FINAL WORDS OF CHEER vv.11-14.

19 PARAKALEO - A calling to one's side. Be admonished, be encouraged. Note the gradation: [a] Repair [b] Encouraged [c] One Mind. Then Divine blessing.
20 If the admonition of the letter is obeyed there would be union & communion one with the other and with God.
21 When the letter had been read as a sign of perfect unity & mutual forgiveness - the kiss of peace.

Paul subsequently visited Corinth for 3 mths Acts 20:2-3. The troubles were evidently solved for he completed his work there Rom. 15:23. The collection fully equalled his expectations apparently, and was conveyed to Jerusalem - Rom.15:28. The Epistle to Romans written from Corinth.

3 Errorists probably decrying Apostleship of Paul, or implying he is of lesser authority than Peter who proclaimed the Gospel mainly to Jews. But Cp V.11-12. Paul's conversion well known and provided a complete refutation of such insinuations 1:13.
4 This is what the vision of Acts 9:16 made evident to Paul, revealing that whatever Christ did was endorsed of God.
5 Indicating that this Epistle was endorsed by others.
6 Divine favor in forgiveness of sins leading to peace of mind in fellowship to which that leads. This can only come by acknowledging the Truth Cp Gal.5:14.
7 In contrast to the Judaising theory that sought justification by the Law Acts 15:1. "For

2 THE PURPOSE OF THE EPISTLE vv.6-9. Gal 1:11. Acts 9:19-27.

1 ANOTHER GOSPEL vv.6-7.

The matter is urgent and Paul goes directly to the root of it. The omission of any words of commendation such as Rom.1:7 1 Cor.1:2 etc. shows how serious was the defection in Galatia.

8 Metatithemi - in Middle Voice - removing themselves, or deserting. In present tense, & RV = "ye are ... removing" suggesting the defection from the Truth not yet complete and would continue unless they changed their views.

8 But though we, or [c] an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be [i] accursed.

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek [l] to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

3 INCARNATION - PERSONAL: AUTHENTICITY OF GOSPEL 1:1-2:2

1 FROM CHRIST DIRECT V.1

14 Some were implying that Paul modified the demands of the Gospel in relation to the Law to make it palatable to Gentiles. This vigorous outspoken Epistle shows that he was no "man pleaser" as did also his persistent preaching in spite of persecution.
15 Slave. Paul was bound to give expression to the Truth no matter how distasteful the duty might prove. 1 Cor. 4:4.
16 The Judaisers were probably resting upon human authority, perhaps claiming the support of Peter or James.

GALATIA as a Roman Province included Antioch in Pisidia, Derbe, Lystra, Iconium. These were visited on first missionary journey. Acts 13:14. 14:1-6. Overtaken by some physical infirmity. Paul's course had been deflected into their midst when it had not been his purpose to visit them at all Gal. 4:13. See Map p.259.

JUSTIFICATION IS BY FAITH

Paul sheweth why he went to Jerusalem.

GALATIANS 2.

13 For ye have heard of my [a] conversation in time past in the [b] Jews' religion, how that [c] beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and [d] wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my [3] equals in mine own nation, [f] being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and [k] called me by his grace,

16 To reveal his Son in me, [m] that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with [o] flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into [p] Arabia, and returned again unto [r] Damascus.

18 Then after three years [t] I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him [u] fifteen days.

19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save [x] James the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of [a] Syria and [b] Cilicia;

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judæa [c] which were in Christ:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And [k] they glorified God in me.

3 CONFIRMED BY AGREEING ECCLESIAS IN JUDÆA 1:22-24

CHAPTER 2.

1 He sheweth when and for what purpose he went again to Jerusalem. 16 Of justification by faith.

THEN fourteen years [m] after [o] I went up again to Jerusalem with [q] Barnabas, and took [r] Titus with me also.

2 And I went up [s] by revelation, [3] and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but [2] privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means [e] I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of [h] false brethren unawares brought in, who [i] came in privily to spy out [l] our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, [m] that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: [n] God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat [4] in conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, when they saw that [x] the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same [a] was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when [d] James, [b] Cephas, and John, who seemed to be [c] pillars, perceived [f] the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and [g] Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; [i] the same which I also was forward to do.

11 But [w] when Peter was come to [p] Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came

3 Probably the prophecy of Agabus Acts 11:28
4 Being in Jerusalem he took the opportunity of outlining his work to leaders then present in the city.
5 A private interview with the Apostles and Elders.
6 He desired complete agreement with the Apostles, to avoid any schism that could have occurred between factions, & so hinder the work.
7 CBW Trans.: "They did not even try to compel my companion Titus, although he was a Greek, to be circumcised – they did not try it even for the sake of false brethren."
8 Pressure was brought to bear upon them to this end, probably by Pharisees, but the Apostles recognising Paul's credentials refused to submit.
9 No word in original. This this verse connects with V.2 and Vs forms a parenthesis.
10 Pareisaktos, from "para" – "by the side" Used of enemies introduced secretly into a city by traitors within (Vine). The Judaisers were introducing such to the Ecclesia to win Christianity back to Judaism.
11 See Note Gal 5:1. 2 Cor. 3:12-NTE
12 Open, public confrontation in which Paul fiercely defended his stand Vv 6-10

5 ENDORSED BY APOSTLES 2:6-10

13 This is not said disparagingly. Can be rendered: "those who were acknowledged of reputation."
14 RV mg "What they once were" Gr. "pote" (were) = "in time past" Ch.1:13. Perhaps a reference to their past personal association with Christ from whence stemmed their reputation. Cp Acts 1:21.
15 They could not add to Paul's authority for his commission came direct from Christ Ch.1:12, 15, 16. 2 Cor. 10:7-8.
16 Prosōpon – face Gal 2:6 External appearance. God makes choice not from externals but from His requirements & selected the 12 for certain reasons. He selected Paul for other reasons.
17 They added no further instructions. They did not hedge in or prohibit

6 DEMONSTRATED BY PUBLIC DEBATE 2:11-14

11 RV = Manner of life.
13 Loudaismos – Judaism. The word as used in the Apoc. signifies the government, laws, institutions, and religion of Jews – not in belief but in institution, not so much as instituted by God, but distorted by Jewish tradition (Vine) Cp. Mark 7:3-9.
14 RSV "advanced in Judaism beyond many of my age." The Greek is in the continuous tense: was persevering, waiting, advancing – when suddenly his bold and confident stride forward was suddenly halted.
15 RSV "When he who had set me apart before I was born." See Jer 1:5. Isa 49:1 Marturee (Phil 2:11) = Separated – but by man. Paul's still a pharisee (aphorizō) separated – but by God.
16 As Christ was the manifestation of Yahweh, so saints would be of Christ Gal 2:20 Col 1:27. 1 Thess 2:11. 3:12.
In 1 Cor 15:8 = born prematurely or before the normal time – as a typical forerunner of those that to which all Israel after the flesh will yet be subjected when made to mourn the nation's past blindness Zech 12:10 Rom. 11:26. This will have the effect of influencing the nations as Paul did the individuals
The Divine revelation made his duty clear. With no prompting or assistance of man he commenced the proclamation of the Word Acts 9:19-22. He asked not the authority of Apostles to that end. His authority came from God.
Identified with Jesus in Ch. 1:23. Probably retired there for further instruction, revelation and meditation Gal 1:17.
17 RV: Visit to become acquainted with, not to seek instruction – else he should have gone earlier.
18 They probably absent preaching – but Paul's point is they did not instruct him. Cp. Acts 9:27. Peter could have represented the body of Apostles, or Luke could have been referring to Apostles of men.
19 He was not an Apostle but was of high reputation in the Ecclesia at Jerusalem Acts 15:13. James 1 note 21 He was apostle to Gentiles, sent from Jerusalem by Divine direction Acts 22:18.
– Thus left Judaism.
23 Lit. "The Persecutor" (Vine) Such was the fear he was once held that this became his distinctive title.
24 These believers of Judea

256 his preaching but confirmed all his actions.
18 Lit. "were acknowledged." RV. "who were reputed."
19 The mark of confidence and friendship Gr mng. Lev. 6:2. This shaking hands was evidently done publicly to openly endorse their work.

6 CONTROVERSY WITH PETER. Vv11-14.

Paul + Barnabas returned to Antioch Acts 11:27, 12:25 where Peter, apparently, had also retired Acts 12:17. The public controversy that there ensued showed that Paul's authority was equal to that of Peter's and illustrated Gal 1:8.

GALATIANS 3.

Of justification by faith.

JUSTIFICATION IS BY FAITH

CHAPTER 3.

He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, &c.

O FOOLISH [c] Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, [d] Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or [e] by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 [f] Have ye suffered [g] so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and [h] worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as [i] Abraham believed God, and it was [j] accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye [k] therefore that [l] they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And [m] the scripture, foreseeing that God [n] would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, [o] In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law [p] are under the curse: for it is written, [q] Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But [r] that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, [s] The just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith: but, [t] The man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?

15 [u] We who are Jews [v] by nature, and not [w] sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing that [x] a man is not justified by the works of the law, but [y] by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for [z] by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I [a] through the law [b] am dead to the law, that [c] I might live unto God.

20 I am [d] crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, [e] who loved me, and [f] gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for [g] if righteousness come by the law, then [h] Christ is dead in vain.

6 RV mg "What they once were" Gr. Note "(were) = "in time past" Gk: Palai. Perhaps a reference to their personal dissociation with Christ from which they stemmed their reputation. Cp Acts 1:21.
7 They added no further instructions. They did not hedge in or prohibit.

CHAPTER 3

4 EXPOSITION - DOCTRINAL - DECLARATION OF THE GOSPEL CHP. 3, 4.

1 AN APPEAL TO EXPERIENCE Vv 1-5. Refs. - Theory - Effect

1 An infatuated people, bewitched by a false theory, and not using common sense.
2 Omitted by R.V.
3 RV "Openly" Gr. prographo - "to write before," hence "placarded"
4 The mind of Christ Gal 4:6 Ro 8:6. Cp Note 2:20 - Gal 2:20.
5 Continuous tense: "Are you now being made perfect in flesh" - Diag. In seeking justification by the law, they were placing confidence in flesh to perform its demands.
6 i.e. Paul.
7 Epichorēgeō - To fully furnish, superadd. The gifts of the Spirit had been added to the benefits already received through ministrations of Paul Acts 8:18.
8 Ek - out of. Paul's remarks on conversion with which they were all familiar gave the answer. He benefited them not as a Jew, but as a christian. The miracle he wrought testified that the Truth was with him.

2 ABRAHAM BLESSED BY FAITH

9 Eis = unto, or with a view to. Not instead.
10 Belief is the first principle of righteousness. The man who trusts God has put himself in the right attitude towards God.
11 The Apostle calls upon his readers to observe the example of Abraham's life & apply it. Rom 4:11, 23, 24.
12 Thus Gospel before Law. Cp Gal 3:8.
13 As the firstfruit of this ultimate harvest James 1:18 God is selecting out of nations Rev 5:9-10.

3 ISRAEL CURSED BY LAW

14 Ek = out of. Those who seek justification by works of the Law.
15 Gr. "en" - abiding within. Because all have failed to do this. See Rom. 10:5. Note. Because flesh failed to keep the Law. Jam 2:10. a striving for salvation independent of faith caused one to become guilty of exalting self. Cp Phil. 3:4-7.

JUSTIFICATION Cp Rom. 3:23-26.

1 - Vindication - declaring to be just or Righteous.
2 Absolution, acquittal - covering forgiveness, reconciliation

The first sense applies alone to Christ John 8:46. 1 Pet 2:22. John 15:10. Rom. 1:4.
The second sense applies to Sons of God covered by the sin covering Name. Ps 32:1-2. Rom 4:6-8.

Our belief justifies Yahweh in our hearts Gal 3:11. We acknowledge our sinfulness and plead forgiveness 1 John 2:12.

Christ freed us from the law.

13 [a] Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, [c] Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive [d] the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's [2] covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now [k] to Abraham and his seed were [l] the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot [r] disannul, that it should [s] make the promise of none effect.

18 For if [t] the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? [u] It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was [3] ordained by angels [a] in the hand of a mediator.

20 Now a [b] mediator is not a mediator of one, but [c] God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But [d] the scripture hath [v] concluded all under sin, [e] that the promise by [f] faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore [g] the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, [h] that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For [i] ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For [j] as many of you as have been baptized into Christ [k] have put on Christ.

28 There is [l] neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is [m] neither male nor female: for [n] ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if ye be Christ's, [o] then are ye Abraham's seed, and [q] heirs according to the promise.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, [s] were in bondage under the [4] elements of the world:

4 But [t] when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, [b] made [c] of a woman, made [e] under the law,

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth [i] the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, [k] Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and [m] if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

GALATIA Cont. p. 255. Prof. Ramsay (Paul the Traveller & Roman Citizen) suggests this was an attack of malarial fever contracted during his stay in the low-lying & notorious unhealthy district of Pamphylia on the south coast Acts 13:13. It would be natural to go north to Antioch to recuperate & then with returning strength to preach. Thus God overruled his movements & this they had acknowledged with many spontaneous tokens of affection Gal. 4:12-15.

PAUL'S PERSONAL APPEAL

11 Drag "as ye were." Paul had not changed.

12 The vigor of the Apostle's language was not due to personal grievance, nor was the dejection of the Galatians a loss to the Apostle, but to themselves.

13 Apparently some sickness had driven the Apostle to Galatia. He was by no means robust. 2 Cor. 11:7-9. 12:10.

14 Lit. Trial. See Note Phil. 1:7.

15 His sickness affected his bodily appearance even more than usual. 2 Cor. 12:7.

16 RV. "gratulation of yourselves." They had congratulated themselves on receiving the Truth.

17 Rom. 10:2. Phil. 3:6. From root "to be hot" (zeloo-to be) Cp Rev. 3:19 from same root.

18 As Gentiles from the hope of the promises.

19 RV: "Seek." i.e. the means of justification through Judaism.

20 RV. "Taught." To be the object of warm interest on the part of others.

21 His opposition to the Judaisers did not stem from unworthy jealousy lest others should gain a place in the affection & esteem of those to whom he had brought a knowledge of the truth. Cp 1 Cor. 3:5. Phil. 1:15-18.

22 Unnaturally and unnecessarily going through the stages of childbirth twice.

23 The sterile formalism of Judaism could not produce this. The believer is a new creature 2 Cor. 5:17. With Christ living in him Gal. 2:20. and developing to maturity Eph. 4:15. This developed by faith Eph. 3:17 and manifestation of mind of Christ Phil 2:5.

3 AN ALLEGORY - ISHMAEL & ISAAC Vv 21-31.

See Notes - Gen. 21. The Judaisers appealed to the law to allo would Paul, they appealed to Abraham who was circumcised, so also would he.

Jhn 16:4 —

9 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, [b] how turn ye again to the [c] weak and beggarly [3] elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage? [d] 10 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years. 11 I am afraid of you, [e] lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all. 13 Ye know how [k] through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first. 14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even [m] as Christ Jesus. (Eucatheneo = to mean at contemptible, loathing)

15 [7] Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me. 16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth? Prov. 27:6. Ps. 141:5. 2 Cor. 12:15. 17 They [p] zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude [s] you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 [q] My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for [9] I [s] stand in doubt of you. (It was a critical time)

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law? 22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, [t] the one by a bondmaid, [t] the other by a freewoman. 23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; [a] but he of the freewoman was by promise. (RV: contain)

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two [4] covenants; the one from the mount [5] Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. 25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in [f] Arabia, and [6] answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children. 26 But [h] Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. Jhn 8:31-32. Rom. 8:2

27 For it is written, (I) Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise. 29 But as then [u] he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now. 30 Nevertheless what saith the scripture? (C) Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman. Cp Gen. 21:9-10. Gen. 21:13.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

CHAPTER 5.

1 He moveth them to stand fast in their liberty. 19 The works of the flesh, 22 and fruits of the Spirit.

STAND fast therefore in [r] the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with [t] the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing. 3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. 4 [v] Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; [a] ye are fallen from grace. (Cp v. 16) of Christ Circumcision has a place in Christ but it is revealed in putting away the flesh Rom. 2:29. Col 2:11. Thus Paul writes later in this chapter of spiritual circumcision Gal. 5:16.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

7 To seek justification thereby he must keep it in every particular. In Christ we cannot ignore law, but we can obtain forgiveness of sins.

8 Who seek to be justified thereby. This is Paul's point, those who taught that he is attacking, not those who kept the law legitimately, for he did so himself Cp 1 Cor. 9:8-10.

9 Ekpiptō = To fall out of. Like the Bondwoman and her son - cast out. Gal. 4:30.

10 RV. "severed from Christ." Katargeō = leave unemployed or idle, render inactive, useless, void.

CHAPTER 5.

EXHORTATION - PRACTICAL - THE LIBERTY Cp THE GOSPEL CH'S 5-6

I THE CALL UNTO LIBERTY

• The Appeal V. 1

1 Liberty is a precious thing & must be retained at all costs.

2 Freedom from bondage of sin as well as the condemnation of the Law. Jhn 3:17-21. Rom. 6:18. Jam. 1:21. 1 Pet. 2:16. Gal. 2:4. 4:3. This Liberty is no licence, but liberty from the restriction of being hedged in by Law on the principle that the liberated one, in spiritual maturity will manifest the true spirit of the Law Gal. 4:1-7. Rom. 2:14. 8:14-15.

3 The seeking of justification by the works of the Law Cp Acts 13:1, 10. The Law was designed to bring home a consciousness of sin Rom. 7:13 and thus emphasize the need of a Redeemer leading to Christ Gal. 3:24. Now the substance had come why revert to the shadow.

• The Alternative Vv 2-6

4 Authoritative Ch. 1:10-12. 1:1-2. And proclaimed in view of the curse of Gal. 1:8.

5 With the idea of being justified thereby - this being the contention of Judaisers Acts 15:1.

6 Because it would demonstrate that they did not understand the principles

THE WORKS OF THE FLESH
Unbridled sexual lust V.19.
False religion — Idolatry, witchcraft.
Ecclesial contention — note how one leads to the next. Enmity to strife, to jealousy, to open wrath, to factions, to division to establishment of parties or sects.
Social misbehaviour — Envying leads to murder, drunkenness to revellings.
Note 7 points in decline in relation to Ecclesial contention.

THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT.
LOVE - Agapē - A self-sacrificing affection born of knowledge
JOY - Chara - Exultation gladness the result of Revelation
PEACE - Eirēnē = (Heb. Shalom) which flows from leaning upon God, Fellowship.

NOT IN INDULGENCE TO FLESH BUT IN VICTORY BY THE SPIR. IT. Vs. 16-26.

11 Being justified by faith Gal. 5:25. we live in hope of physical redemption Rom. 8:19, 23. Rom. 5:1-2. This is by or (EK) out of faith being the works developed therefrom. Rom. 2:13. James 2:22, 24. Righteousness now is attained by imputation Rom. 4:3-8. 10d 1:30. Rom. 9:30. but its crown or visible manifestation is yet to be revealed 2 Tim. 4:8. Rev. 19:8.

12 Dia - Genitive, through as proceeding from "Worketh" Ener-geō. Love energises and is faith. If faith is not seen in action it is dead. James 2:17.

The Warning Vs. 1-12.

13 En Kopto - To cut into. Used of impeding persons by breaking up the road or placing an obstacle in the path. Metaphorically of detaining a person unnecessarily, thus "who broke up the road along which you were travelling so well?" Let him whom you have not obeyed. See v.8. Called 1:6. 5:8.

Peith-o. An obedience resulting from "persuasion" (its meaning), rather than submission authority because they have to be persuaded, but had to face authority.

15 Some may have been depreciating the vigor of the Law's oppositions on the ground the differences were not great or important. 1 Cor. 7:19.

16 Peith-o 4:17 = "persuaded." The Apostle is confident the common sense will prevail that his words would be heeded, but his assurance comes not from them but "in the Lord" RV.

17 Some were apparently claiming Paul taught circumcision on the grounds of such actions as Acts 16:3 but Paul's action then governed by such considerations as 1 Cor. 9:20.

Skandalon - RV = Stumbling-block. Lit "a trap" but metaphorically that which occasions offence or causes hindrance. See note Rom. 9:32.

19 Apo Kopt-o - to amputate as in Mk. 9:43, 45. Thus 1 Tim. 1:19 - excommunicate them. Thus 1 Jhn 2:19. Weymouth: "Hate. Moffatt: Castrate. So a: to not produce fruit

2 SOBERLY IN REALITY

NOT IN LICENSE BUT IN LOVE 13-15:

20 Liberty brings servitude of a different kind. The dominion of love. Rom. 6:20. Mt. 7:12. Rom. 8:14. Love needs no command to know what to do but will willingly (compel) perform what is required. 2 Thes. 3. Jhn 14:23. See Mk. 12:30. Cp. 1 Jhn 4:21.

21 Paul quotes the Law to show denial of self not sufficient, for Truth is affirmative

22 RV = "By."

The affirmative will destroy the hostility

"Called unto liberty" v.13

Jews were in bondage to Law Gal. 4:3 the Gentiles to idols Gal. 4:8 and all to sin Rom. 6:6, 17. Christ has purchased them 1 Cor. 6:20; 7:23 by his blood Acts 20:28. 1 Pet. 1:18, 19. By this they became bondmen to Christ Rom. 6:18, 22. 1 Cor. 7:22 and thus liberated from previous bondage which liberty must be carefully preserved Gal. 2:4. 5:1. Though liberated from the Law he nevertheless fulfils the Law walking no longer "after the flesh but after the Spirit Gal. 5:16 See the "liberty" promised by false teachers 2 Pet. 2:19-20.

CHAPTER 6.

1 He moveth them to deal mildly with a brother that hath slipped: 2 to bear one another's burden, &c. Suggests their mutual (fellowship) ships in Christ.

BRETHREN, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Ch. 5:13

2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. (Cp. Jn. 13:34. 1 Jhn 3:23. 4:21.)

3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For every man shall bear his own burden. "Will have to" RV

6 Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap (There is nothing permanent, no matter how legitimate in this

8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. Being caught by a trespass through being off guard. Vine suggests "through lack of circumspection."

2 mutual labor in love to save the erring party.

Katartizō = Bring back to place. Used metaphorically of setting of broken bone or dislocated limb - calling for skill, delicate handling & much care.

4 A characteristic of Christ Mth 11:29. Cp 2 Tim. 2:25. This does not mean a toleration of evil - pain results from setting a limb. There are sins that do not come under the category of forgivable Cf. Jam. 5:19-20. 1 Jhn 5:16.

RV: "strife" the open manifestation of enmity variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. 1 Thes 3:15. (Forewarn RV)

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,

23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts. (RV: 6v)

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

The purpose of Law is to restrain!

23 Cp Rom. 7:4, 6. Heb. 9:20. The law reveals the will of God & is therefore "good" Rom. 7:12. but service in Christ is not limited to the letter, but goes beyond it. Rom. 2:29. 7:6. 2 Cor. 3:6. Cp Mt. 5:38, 39. The Law only revealed sin Rom. 7:13. - service in the Spirit led from bon...

24 Lusts (V.16) are inward and hidden these are outward and revealed.

28 RV "enmities" often covered and hidden Rom. 8:7. Cf. Rev. 2:6

29 RV. Jealousy. Or. Zelos, elsewhere rendered zeal. But zeal for self is not good.

30 Wraths (RV) Jealousy smoulders in the heart until it bursts into open fire.

Eritheia - party making factions This is outcome of jealousy which is envy to excell at the expense of others.

RV "Divisions." dichostasia - "standing apart" Rom. 16:17.

Haireisis = "A choosing." The establishment of the division Rom. "Sect" Cp 1 Cor. 11:19 marg. - an established schism

Must be cultivated Is produced by the inherent energy of a living organism, thus the outward expression of a power working inwardly.

Thus treating flesh as a criminal and subjecting it to a violent death. Cp Rom. 6:3. Gal. 2:20. 6:14. Cp Rom. 8:13. Col. 3:5. Rom. 6:11

Pathēma = sufferings Acts 1:3 - Thus any thing felt keenly. Here for strong emotion, of flesh.

Stoicheō - a different word to 5:16. = walk in step See note 1 Thes. 4:11. In ranks, or order. Occurs. Acts 21:24. Rom. 4:12. Gal. 6:16. 5:16 implies individual walk.

Communal walk - unity desirable.

To excell in self...

CHAPTER 6.

3 FREEDOM IS MUTU...

One another's burd...

The present continuous tense. Something to be done continually A guiding principle, a gift of life. Mth. 20:28

Baros - A weight that can be relieved by combined help. Rom. 15:1. Cf. Gal. 6:5.

Test his work by the measure of Christ not in comparison with the weaknesses of others. Cp 2 Cor. 12:10.

One's Own Burden 5:5

Phortion - from "phero" to carry. Something carried by the individual to be revealed at the Judgment Seat. "Burden" V2. "weight. This word weight not implies might be light or heavy but yet to be revealed. 2 Cor. 5:10.

Personal Responsibility

10 Koinōneō = "share with" RSV. Contribute to his support. 1 Cor. 9:11. 2 Cor. 11:8. 1 Tim. 5:17. (But cf. Acts 20:34) Genuine co-operation between teacher & taught. the latter playing his part, assuming his responsibility = the whole body working together for general edification. Gal. 5:25. Eph. 3:8-10.

11 "De" - But. An altered to selfishly serving to Cp 2 Cor. 9:6

THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT (cont).
- LONG SUFFERING - Bearing with others = bearing up under life's difficulties.
- GENTLENESS - Chrēstotēs = Goodness in action towards the Truth. Cp Rom. 3:12. Jer. 17:9,10. Reveal to others the characteristic revealed to us by God Rom. 5:8, 11:22, Matt. 5:44-45.
- FAITH - Pistis - belief, trustful
- GOODNESS - Agathōsunē - Similar in meaning to Gentleness. Trench, Synonyms suggests sterner measures for the good of others.
- MEEKNESS - Submissive to Yahweh's trials. Patient suffering of injury without spirit of revenge
- TEMPERANCE - Moderation, self control.

3 stands for perfection, here there are 3 threes. The first triplet to God. The second to man, the third to self. This three fold division is suggested in Tit. 2:12. "We should live soberly (in ourselves) righteously (toward others) & Godly in this present age."

Paul glorieth — weeds or fruit Heb. 6:7-8.

to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. (The time of reaping Rev 14:14)

9 And [c] let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 [e] As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only [g] lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. - This was their real motive.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. - Their "observance of the rite" (20th cent.) their submission to external ordinances. V.11 = negative reason

14 But [a] God forbid [b] that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, (2) by whom [d] the world [e] is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. - Violently executed as a criminal. - so cut off.

15 [h] For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but [i] a new creature. (Kainos = new in quality, different in character - not in time.)

16 And [m] as many as [n] walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the [p] Israel of God. (Kai - can be rend "even")

17 From henceforth let no man trouble me: for [r] I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus. (In the sense of disturbing him Cp Luke 11:7)

CHAPTER 1

CHAPTER I.

He blesseth God for spiritual blessings: 4 treateth of our election, 6 and adoption by grace, &c.

Cp Note Gal 1:12

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at [o] Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus: (Pistus = the believers)

2 [i] Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [l] Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings [m] in heavenly places in Christ:

4 According as [n] he hath chosen us in him [q] before the foundation of the world, that we should be [r] holy and without blame before him in love:

5 [s] Having predestinated us unto [t] the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, [u] according to the good pleasure of his will,

Predetermined that both Jews and Gentiles should be able to attain unto sonship. See Notes

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, [v] wherein he hath [w] made us accepted in [x] the beloved. (RV - Beloved - a title of Christ Mt 17:5)

7 [d] In whom we have [e] redemption [4] through his blood, [f] the forgiveness of sins, according to [h] the riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all [k] wisdom and prudence;

9 [m] Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which [o] he hath purposed in himself:

10 That in the dispensation [5] of [r] the fulness of times [s] he might gather together in one [6] all things in Christ, both which are in [3] heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

1 CONCLUSION VV11-18

WITH LARGE LETTERS V. 11

13 Gr. Gramma = letter rather than Epistle. This portion probably added by Paul personally after dictating former part of Epistle. The large letters gave emphasis to it, for it is a summary.

14 Paul dictated his letters, but always added something in his own writing to show they were genuine 2 Thess. 3:17. Col. 4:18. 1 Cor. 16:21 Cr. 2 Thes. 3:17.

2 CONTRARY TEACHERS 11-6

• Their VV 12-13.

16 Euprosōpeō - "To put on a good face." They wanted to remain popular with the Jews whilst accepting Christ.

16 In external things formalised religion, ordinances and rites without true meaning. Cp Gal 3:3. 6:13.

"That which occasions pleasure, delight or causes favourable regard" This is unity in mind with Christ Gal 4:18.

16 This involves not only forgiveness of sins, but fellowship with God. 1 John 1:3. but to obtain the riches thus made available, we must honor the Father by submitting to the conditions which Paul acknowledges are wise and prudent.

17 Phronēsis - to have understanding (Phrēn, the mind). Diag. - Intelligence. It denotes a correct insight as to what is required to bring the best out of man.

The Secret - revealed to Christ's friends. John 15:15.

CHAPTER 2.

What we were by nature, and what we are by grace.

AND you hath he quickened, [p] who were dead in trespasses and sins;
2 Wherein [h] in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in [n] the children of disobedience:
3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling [o] the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.
4 But God, who is [q] rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,
5 Even [r] when we were dead in sins, hath [t] quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)
6 And hath [s] raised us up together, and made us sit together [x] in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:
7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.
8 For [z] by grace are ye saved [a] through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:
9 [c] Not of works, lest any man should boast.
10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before [e] ordained that we should walk in them.
11 Wherefore remember, [i] that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called [f] the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

23 A new Creation 2 Cor. 5:17. The first Adam having failed, it was impossible for God to put into effect His declaration Gen. 1:26 without producing a Son of Man "made strong for Himself" Ps. 80:17. Thus the frequent use of the title Son of Man by Christ Jesus. It was the Son of Man who was to ascend into heaven in order to conquer the earth Dan. 7:13. and believers share that triumph "in him." They must allow themselves to become moulded by God's Word, so as to be His workmanship 2 Cor. 4:6-7. 1 Cor. 2:5. Isa. 60:21. 43:7. Our attitude should be - Heb. 10:9

24 Proetoimazō = To prepare before. Yahweh designed before the "good works" to which He has appointed us Acts 15:14. So "good works" are those that Yahweh has before determined - not what we might elect to do - and they are revealed in His character 1 Pet. 2:9 Exod. 34:6-7. Only other occurrence Rom. 9:23

4 OUR NEW RELATION IN CHRIST W. 11-22

As we have been raised from the dead and given new spiritual life in Christ, so there is a need to bear always in mind our new relation to him. See note below: The Hostile Heavenlies.

25 We can appreciate our present privileges better by contrasting them with our previous state. This advice also given Israel. Cp Deut. 5:15. 6:21. 9:7.

● THE DIVINE CHARACTER. — Ch. 2:4-7

The wealth of Mercy and Grace once revealed to Israel through the revelation to Moses Exod. 33:19 manifested in the Lord John 1:14 now extended to Gentiles

● "Before the Foundation of the world" (Kosmos) - Ch. 1:4

There are two words translated "foundation":

Themelios — "Belonging to a foundation" Luke 6:48-49. 14:29. Heb. 11:10 etc.

Katabole — "To cast down" (Vine). M. & M. = in sense of payment made, money "cast down" for payment of taxes. The verb Kataballo is used for payment of debts incurred, and also of a woman "stricken" with disease (Greek papyri)

The verb is compounded of "Kata" — Down, and "ballo" - to hurl or cast. occurs 2 Cor. 4:9. Rev. 12:10 "cast down" Heb. 6:1 "laying again." The C.B. suggest for this latter: "not casting down again the foundation of repentance." "Themelios" is the word for laying a foundation — "Katabole" for throwing it down!

The Divine order was established in the beginning when man walked in fellowship with God. Sin brought disharmony in Eden and disruption to the order or Kosmos.

It required the appearance of a New Man (the Son of Man of Ps. 8. Dan. 7. Ps. 80 etc) to restore the image of God (2 Cor. 4:4. Col. 1:15). Christ was the "beginning of the Creation of God" Rev. 3:14. and saints are a new Creation in him 2 Cor. 5:17 Col. 3:10-11. 2 Cor. 6:15

The overthrow of the original Kosmos was by sin - its restoration will be by conquest as Ps. 8 shows. This is partially fulfilled in Christ Heb. 2:6-10 who even when facing betrayal and shameful death could speak of impending victory and dominion over all flesh John 16:33. 17:2. Cp 1 Pet. 3:22.

The phrase "foundation of the world" is connected with two prepositions "pro" before (before the disruption) and "apo" (that which develops out of that with which it is associated. The first is found in the following passages. John 17:24. Eph. 1:4. 1 Pet. 1:20. The second is found in Matt. 13:35. 25:34. Luke 11:50. Heb. 4:3. 9:26. Rev. 13:8 & 17:8. Notice how the matters referred to in this second list developed out of the disruption of the Kosmos.

Heb. 11:11 the only other place where the word appears. Here Katabolen is translated "conceive." Diag. = "received strength as regards the deposition of seed." - the throwing down or deposition of the male seed in the womb.

● THE HOSTILE HEAVENLIES Ch. 1:3. 1:20. 2:6 — 3:10. 6:12.

EPOURANIOS — Epi - pertaining to. Ouranos that which is lifted up, elevated. The saints have been elevated to a Divinely constituted citizenship Phil. 3:20. in association with Christ Eph. 2:6. who holds the position of authority Ch. 1:20. and by word of Truth they oppose those who occupy positions of elevation established by human constitution Eph. 3:10. 6:12. Their ultimate mission is to hurl Satan from the heavens (ouranos) Luke 10:18. These heavenlies will acknowledge the supremacy of the Lord Jesus Phil. 2:10 (epouranios) for he has created them Col. 1:16 (ouranios) 2 Cor. 10:4-5.

These heavenlies are a Theocracy typed by the Tabernacle Heb. 8:5. 9:23 (epouranios). Christ has penetrated to the Most Holy Eph. 1:20 having been clothed upon with Divine nature. The Ephesian believers were in the Holy Place Ch. 1:3 enjoying fellowship with Christ Ch. 2:6. Originally, as Gentiles they were without hope of entrance thereto, or even to the Temple courts, but the wall of partition had been broken down in Christ Ch. 2:11-14.

● DIVINE BLESSING V.3. Three different though closely related words are used in this verse ● EULOGETOS — Adorable, worthy of praise — applied only to God in N.T. ● EULOGEO — to speak well of (EU - well, LOGOS), or to invoke blessings upon a person LK. 6:28; Rom. 12:14. ● EULOGIA (singular - eulogie), a blessing, a benefit bestowed Rom. 15:29; Gal. 3:14; Heb. 6:7.

CHAPTER 3.

THE PURPOSE OF PREACHING TO GENTILES 1-13.

he preached the Gospel - not because criminal - though he was looked upon as N. but cp. 1 Pet. 2:19. 4:13. adds: "am the prisoner" Thus avoidbruptness of the AV. Tindal rendered , the servant of Jesus Christ am in of merely a prisoner of the Romans, prehended by Christ for the purpose to Gentiles Phil. 3:12. not deserving on their account, he breaks off prieve over this fact. see above

6 See Note "Stewardship" Cp 1 Cor. 9:17. The word signifies "the law or arrangement of a house" (Young). Paul here makes reference to God's arrangement for making known His grace to Gentiles. He was the appointed Apostle to such Rom. 11:13. 2 Tim. 1:11.

7 Diag. "By reading which you can perceive my intelligence in the secret of the Anointed One." In other words Eph. 1:1-14 briefly outlines Paul's point of view in setting publicly forth the "secret" of Gentile introduction into the Hope of Israel. This had been predicted by the prophets Isa. 49:6. Acts 13:47. Knowledge. SUNESIS - To understand. "set together" one with the other." RV: "ye can perceive my understanding in the mystery."

8 Energeia - The energy derived from God. Originally Paul did not want to preach Christ to Jews, much less to Gentiles Acts 9:1. & 9-19. but it was God's energy that changed him. and the "energy of His power" (the Holy Spirit) continued with him to that end Cp 1 Cor. 9:17. For his divinely appointed mission to Gentiles see Gal. 2:8. 2:9. For his reliance on God 1 Cor. 15:10. 2 Cor. 12:5.

9 Diag. "To me, the very lowest of all saints, was this favor given." Paul is referring to his status of conversion after the securing the Ecclesia - not his position as an Apostle Cp 1:1, 12. 2:6. 1 Cor. 9:1. Gal.

10 Only other occurrence 11:11 rend. "put into effect" Dispensation - RV. See Note Eph. 1:10. Paul is making reference to the Divine arrangement by which the Divine secret was made known to those of the nations.

11 Interpolation Excluded by Diag etc

12 Archē - Governments. Diag.

13 Exousia - Delegated authority such as magistrates

14 See Note on Heavenlies Cp p. 262. This wordy warfare is the present form of the Ecclesia's antagonism to the world. 2 Cor. 10:4-6.

15 Paul reminds his readers that his preaching is not limited to the Apostles. Cp Acts 22:17. Nor is preaching is not limited to speech. The Ecclesia itself is a object lesson of the mercy of God - the means of salvation.

16 All the greatly diversified forms by which He has revealed His will & purpose Heb. 1:1

17 Lit: "The purpose or plan of ages." Prothesis - A setting forth. Used of the shewbread Mt. 12:4. Mk. 2:26. Luke 6:4. Heb. 9:2. The bread of setting before.

18 Poieō - Made. All plans of the ages is revealed in Christ.

19 Parrhesia - Freedom of utterance (Diag) - that is, in approach to the Father Cp Eph. 3:12. Heb. 4:16. Rom. 5:2.

20 RV: "our faith in him." This faith is the confidence that our petitions will be heard Cp Jn. 16:23. 1 Jn. 5:14-15.

21 Enkakeo - Lack courage - lose heart, become cowards. They were not to become discouraged by the sight of suffering but to recognise the will of God in all things Cp 1 Cor. 11:32. Such suffering was not an evidence that God had abandoned them but part of the manifold ways to bring them to glory

3 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

4 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

5 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,

6 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

7 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

8 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, 9 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

10 And you, hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

11 Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:

12 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lust of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

13 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

14 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)

15 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:

16 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.

17 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

18 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

19 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

20 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

21 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:

22 But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

23 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

24 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace;

25 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

26 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

27 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

28 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

29 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;

30 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

31 In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

BROKEN DOWN THE MIDDLE WALL OF PARTITION

In the Temple Court there was a balustrade dividing the portion into which Gentiles might enter. An inscription was placed on this wall which said: "No alien to pass within the balustrade around the Temple and the enclosure. Whoever shall be caught so doing must blame himself for the death that will ensue." This illustrates the enmity between Jews and Gentiles V.15 of which Christ was the peace. The riot which ended in Paul's arrest arose out of the mistaken impression that Paul had taken an Ephesian beyond the dividing wall Acts 21:29.

23 The things he suffered was on their behalf that they might attain unto glory. Therefore they should not become discouraged by the sight of opposition or suffering, for God controls all things and they should rejoice that He has provided for them such as the Apostles who were prepared to undergo such suffering on their behalf

THEIR NEED TO RECEIVE THE DIVINE FULNESS Vv 14-19

It is suggested that this is a resumption of V.1. which was broken off by the parenthesis, but as the parenthesis … is illustrative of the proposition of V.1 this section naturally follows.

That his labors and sufferings on their behalf might not be in vain

Interpolation.

20th Century: "I kneel before the Father – from whom all 'fatherhood' in heaven and on earth derives its name." Yahweh, as a Father illustrates the principles of true fatherhood in His treatment of His sons. Cp Ps 103:13. Isa. 63:16. 64:8 Jer. 31:9. RV mg. = "fatherhood." C.B. = "The word 'family' is an unfortunate rendering of the Greek 'patria.' Our English word loses its derivation from the latest in the household, famulus, the servant, or slave. The Latin familia was sometimes used for the household of servants and sometimes of all the members of a family under the power of a paterfamilias. But the idea of patria is Hebrew, a group or clan of families all claiming descent from one pater (father) e.g. the twelve tribes of Israel." The family thus defined in heaven Job. 38:7. CHAPTER 3.

The hidden mystery, that the Gentiles should be saved, was made known to Paul by revelation, &c.

FOR this cause I Paul, [t] the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

(2 If ye have heard of [u] the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward:

3 How that [@] by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote [2] afore in few words, (in Ch 1:18)

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in [d] the mystery of Christ)

8 Unto me, [r] who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And [s] to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, [v] who created all things by Jesus Christ: (Gen. Disp.)

10 To the intent that [b] now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God.

5 THE PURPOSE OF PREACHING TO GENTILES. Vv 1-13.

1 Because he preached the Gospel - not because he was a criminal - though he was looked upon as such Gal 6:14. but cp. 1 Pet 3:14 4:13.

2 The Marg. adds: "am the prisoner" thus avoiding the abruptness of the AV. Tindal rendered it: "I, Paul, the servant of Jesus Christ am in bonds."

3 He was not merely a prisoner of the Romans but also apprehended [illegible] the purpose of preaching to Gentiles. Acts 9:15.

4 He suffered on account of [illegible] not desiring them to grieve over his fate as he breaks off

26 Cp Rom. 9:4.
27 Gr. Atheos = atheists, Godless.
28 Cp Isa. 57:19 for the contrast between these "afar off" and "near" and the source of peace.
29 Israel as a nation were nigh Deut 4:7 and that through the effect of the Passover Lamb
30 One united Kindred & one multitudinous Body. V.16. one new man V.15.
31 i.e. through death Col 1:22 His death was sacrifice of atonement and reconciliation. The fact that flesh was sacrificed demonstrated that "the profits nothing" John 6:63. John 3:34. and therefore Gentiles of faith are acceptable to God. The fact that Jews pressed for his crucifixion emphasised this point.
32 This incorporated Jews by birth into a position of privilege and excluded Gentiles, being thus the cause of enmity. Temple with its balustrade stood as a symbol of this. • the verb "broken down" V.14 was almost prophetic of AD 70.
33 Kainos - "not new in time, but new as to form or quality, of different nature from what is contrasted as old (Vine). So this "new" man is a revival of that found in O.T. times but in a different form.
34 The Jew was in need of this equally with the Gentile. One broke the Law the other was excluded by the Law.
35 By the atonement effected thereby Col 1:20. - the result being God. 6:14.
36 En auto = therein (though en has sometimes the meaning of "by" - Diag "by it"). Some texts have en heauto = "in himself" (see Marg. (Vine). The enmity consists not only in that existing between Jew • Gentile but between the way of flesh • the way of God. Gen 3:15 Rom 8:7.
37 The Truth's power John 6:63 1 John 5:6. Eph. 6:17. The Truth is an earthly Advocate. (See note top p151) that leads us to Christ, and helps to filter prayer Rom. 8:26.
38 Paroikos = a resident alien with limited privileges. "A licensed sojourner" (M. • M.) like a Judaised Gentile. It also has the meaning of guests in a private family as opposed to the members of the family (Rosenmüller)
39 In Christ every barrier is completely broken down
40 Not merely guests, but considered as the family Ch. 3:15

41 Now the figure is that of the Temple with the indwelling presence of Yahweh 2 Cor. 6:16. Note the development. First, barriers of race or citizenship removed, Second, - made members of the Divine family. Third - the indwelling presence of Yahweh as His Temple. Not merely those of the Old Testament Eph. 1:5.
42 Cp Isa. 28:16 Akrogoniaios from Akros, highest or extreme gonia, a corner, angle. A large stone placed at the angles or corners • which serves to unite the two adjoining walls — both have to be built into the cornerstone. Thus Christ unites both Jew • Gentile into one!! On that fact Jews stumbled 1 Pet. 2:7 as a person might at the protruding cornerstone.
44 One with the other and with the Cornerstone.
45 Constantly developing as stones added. Excluded from the Temple. Who then constitute the true Temple

6 See Note "Stewardship" Cp 1 Cor 9:17. The word signifies "the law or arrangement of a house" (Young). Paul here makes reference to God's arrangements for making known His Grace to Gentiles. He was the appointed Apostle to such Rom. 11:13 2 Tim. 1:11.
7 Diag. "By reading which you can perceive my intelligence in the secret of the Anointed One." In other words Eph. 1:1-14 briefly outlines Paul's point of view in setting publicly forth the "secret" of Gentile introduction into the Hope of Israel. This had been predicted by the prophets Isa 49:6. Acts 13:47. Knowledge - Sunesis - To understand, one with the other. RV: "ye can perceive my understanding in the mystery."
8 Energeia - The energy derived from God. Originally Paul did not want to preach Christ to Jews, much less to Gentiles Acts 9:1. 26:9-19. but it was God's energy that changed him and the "energy of His power" (the Holy Spirit) continued with him to that end Cp 1 Cor. 9:17. For his divinely appointed mission to Gentiles see Gal 1:15-24. For his reliance on God 1 Cor 15:10. 2 Cor 3:5.
9 Diag. "To me, the very lowest of all saints, was this favor given." Paul is referring to his status of conversion after receiving the Ecclesia - not his position as an Apostle Cp 1:1,12. 2:6. 1 Cor. 9:1. 15:7.
10 Only other occurrence 11:13 read. "wherefore I ask that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory." Dispensation - RV See Note 1:10. Paul is making reference to the Divine arrangements by which the Divine Secret was made known to those of all nations.
11 Interpolation Excluded by Diag etc.
12 Archē - Governments. Diag Exousia - Delegated authority such as magistrates
13 See Note on Heavenlies p 262. This wordy warfare is the present form of the Ecclesia's antagonism to the world 2 Cor 10:4-6.
14 Paul reminds his readers the preaching is not limited to the Apostles. (Cp Acts 2:39) Nor preaching is not limited to speech. The Ecclesia itself is an object lesson of the means of God • the means of salvation.
15 All the greatly diversified forms by which He has revealed His will • purpose Heb 1:1.
16 Lit: "The purpose or plan of ages." Prothesis - A setting forth. Use of the shewbread Mt 12:4. Mk 2:26. Luke 6:4. Heb 9:2. "The bread of setting before." Note 6 = Made. His plan of the ages is revealed in Christ.
17 Parrhesia - freedom of utterance (Diag) - their is an approach to the Father Eph 3:12. 1 K. Heb 4:16. Rom. 8:26 ... "
18 RV: "our faith in him." This faith is the confidence that our petitions will be heard Cp Jn. 16:23. 1 John 5:14,15.
19 Enkakeo - Lack courage, lose heart, become cowardly. They were not to become discouraged by the sight of suffering but to recognise the will of God in all things. Cp Heb 12:3. Such suffering was not an evidence that God had abandoned them but part of His manifold wisdom to bring them to glory

20 This is implied in the previous history. The establishment afforded the Ark before David cleared Zion of its enemies and Israel's if there in triumph Ps 68:18. The Ark enthroned was the permanent symbol of David's victory over the Jebusites, and Christ's ascension was the token of his victory and power. Rom 1:4 Ps 68:18.

21 To the cross must come before the crown, humiliation before exaltation. The shame Jesus bore did not hinder the glory to which he attained. Christ descended even assuming humanity, but in that Yahweh descended also as he did in the angel on Sinai Jhn 6:38, 41, 62. 3:31. 8:23. 17:11

An exhortation

27 We are called to Divine glory Rom. 5:2. 9:23. involving a change of nature. The riches of it at present is the manifestation of Christ qualities in a way of life Col. 1:27.

28 The Father + Son abide in such John 14:23. Christ IN you Col. 1:27 2 Cor. 13:5. Gal. 2:20. "let this mind be in you" Phil 2:5. All that Christ is we must strive to be. Cp Ps. 17:10.

OUR WALK IN CHRIST

Ch 4 v 6.

SEEK THE UNITY OF FAITH!

vv 1-6. (3 circles)

1 In view of all the foregoing, and in spite of all his sufferings "the Lord" of mg. Recognizes his absolute ownership and as his prisoner. Mt. 28:18 Paul recognized his imprisonment as subject to God.
Humility. Paul provided an example 1 Cor 2:3 Phil 2:3 Col 3 1 Pet. 5:5 Cp Christ Phil 2:5-9.
See Note Gal 5. Cp Num 12:3.
Cp v 29 Receive the word in that
Ps 131. Mt 11:29.
Bearing patiently with the foibles, faults and infirmities of others. A loving character developed out of love 1 Cor. 13.
We experience it from God 2 Pet 1:3 and should manifest it to others.
We must learn to bear and forbear. Like children we must suffer each one to have his play-hours in his own way and not quarrel with him because he does not think our way the best.

3 The Spirit of Truth brings a unity Jn 16:13 enhancing a greater unity 1 Jn 4:13. This unity manifested in the Body 1 Cor 12:12-26 by "speaking the same things" 1 Cor. 1:10.
Sunderesmos = A joint tie, a ligament uniting principle Sr. Roth: "the one-ness of the spirit in the uniting-bond of peace."

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; (Fourfold united in common servitude)

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all. Cp v. 16.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. Heb 2:14. Jud. 5:12.

9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? Phil. 2:8-9.

10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)

11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; (1 Cor. 14:3 see Note 2 Cor.)

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: (Teleios - mature.)

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ: (Eis - towards)

16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. The body grows through this means.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk in the vanity of their mind, authoritatively

18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart: (Porosis - hardening become callous)

19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

"Be ye angry • sin not" V26.

This is cited from Ps 4:4, which contains a rebuke to Abishai who in his anger at the perfidy of Shimei desired to kill him 2 Sam. 16:9. 19:21. His reasons seemed sound enough indicating that anger even in a righteous cause - for Yahweh's Anointed - can lead to sin.

The Perfect Cube 3:18 Breadth • scope for all; length = duration, eternity; Depth = extent of his love Phil. 2:5-8; 2 Cor. 8:9; Height = elevating influence. To know = relation ship to all this.

CHAPTER 5

5 RELATIONS WITH THE WORLD. VV1-21.

1 Ginomai - become (Diag).
2 Mimētēs - mimics, or imitators (Diag), revealing the principles of God manifestation Exod 34:6-7. Phil 4:18.
3 As children beloved (Diag.) of God because they reflect His glory.
4 See note on love. A sacrificial love that sees the good of the other party as its objective. 1 John 3:16.
5 A Hebraism indicating the perception of a moral quality in another. God is said to "smell a sweet odor" from sacrifice to signify that He perceived with pleasure the good disposition of the offerer. Gen 8:21.
6 The pursuit of material possessions at the expense of the Truth, regardless of justice, love, faith, prayer, peace etc. Cf 1 Tim 6:17. Isa 32:5. Mt 6:19-21, 33. Phil 4:11. A covetous man is a faithless man. Heb 13:5.
7 mōrologia - stupid buffoonery.
8 Not fit or proper - not consistent with our call.
9 A sober recognition of the goodness of God - and incalculable thanksgiving to that end. Does not celebrate good by stupid folly but by recognizing the Giver in a way He would approve.
10 Worshipping material riches more than God.
11 The disinclination to accept God at face value is a great inducement to sin
12 Apeitheia - a, negative peitho - to persuade - unpersuadable. Peitho - the root of pistis - faith
13 Summetochos - fellow partakers. Diag. - Associates.
14 RV Diag. - "of the Light"
15 Agathōsunē - a moral goodness that is beneficent to others
16 Dikaiosunē. This is "of God" Rom 3:5 and denotes actions consistent with Him. The "goodness" thus must be in conformity with "righteousness" and this is determined by Truth.
17 Dokimazō - To test, approve, with the expectation of approving. Diag. = "searching out."
18 Elenchō - convict, rebuke, expose Gr Jn 3:20.
19 See Mg. The Light saith, If is the general appeal of the gospel. Subsequently [illegible] to show that what the Light will get accomplished personally, must be fulfilled personally by every true Son of Light 1 Thess 5:4-7. 1 Cor. 11:28. Rom 6:21. Phil. 3:10.
20 Akribōs = accurately. Rendered "perfect understanding" Luke 1:3. "perfectly" 1 Thess 5:2 = the accuracy which is the outcome of carefulness.
21 Aphrōn = without wisdom, or reason = "Lack of common sense perception of the reality of things natural + spiritual..." Rawlings Bible Dic. quoted by Vine.
22 Lit. "To buy up." Thus to rescue or recover out of time from waste, to recover it from the evil circumstances of the times by applying it to wisdom. Rom 13:11-14. Eph 5:15-16. Col 4:5.
23 Aphron - Without reason

Exhortations to EPHESIANS 5. holiness, love, &c.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ; (If you have listened attentively to His teaching)
21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:
22 That ye [b]put off concerning the former [d]conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; (Conduct. Manner of life)
23 And [e]be renewed in the spirit of your mind;
24 And that ye put on [f]the new man, which after God [g]is created in righteousness [h]and (Gen. "lusts of deceit" V22) [i]true holiness.
25 Wherefore putting away lying, [k]speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.
26 Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: (Lev. 19:17 See Note above)
27 Neither give place to the devil. (See background to Ps 4:4; Jn 8:44)
28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather [o]let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have [o]to give to him that needeth.
29 [o]Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good [s]to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.
30 And [t]grieve not the holy Spirit of God, [o]whereby ye are sealed unto the day of [v]redemption. (Rom 8:23)
31 Let all [o]bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:
32 And be ye [o]kind one to another, tenderhearted, [o]forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you. (Rom 3:28. Manifesting the nature + quality of Love of God Mt 5:43-48)

CHAPTER 5.

a General exhortations to love, 3 to fly fornication, and all uncleanness, 15 to walk warily, 18 to be filled with the Spirit. 22 Duties of wives and husbands.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

2 And [a]walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour. (Impurity)
3 But [c]fornication, and all uncleanness, or [b]covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;
4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.
5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, [i]hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.
6 [k]Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh [l]the wrath of God upon the children of [3]disobedience.
7 Be not ye therefore [m]partakers with them. (1 Jn 2:6. 3:7-10)
8 For [o]ye were [n]sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as [p]children of light: (1 Thess 5:5. 2 Pet 3:11-14)
9 (For [r]the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) (See below)
10 [s]Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.
11 And have no fellowship with the [x]unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.
12 For [o]it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.
13 But all things that are [6]reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.
14 Wherefore [7]he saith, [@]Awake thou that sleepest, and [e]arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. (Will shine upon thee - Diag.)
15 See then that [f]ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, (KV. "carefully." Asphalōs)
16 [v]Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.
17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.
18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;
19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;
20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;
21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

Harsh contentions, noisy verbal brawls, unseemly tumults.
Slander, backbiting, tale-bearing etc. Ps 15:3.

but understanding what [a] the will of the Lord is.

18 And [b] be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but [c] be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves [d] in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and [e] making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 [f] Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father [g] in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 [h] Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For [i] the husband is the head of the wife, even as [k] Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 [l] Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,

27 [m] That he might present it to himself a glorious church, [n] not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be [o] holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For [p] we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 [q] For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so [r] love his wife even as himself; and the wife [s] see that she reverence her husband.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The duty of children, &c. 10 Our life a warfare.

1 CHILDREN, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, [a] ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and [b] admonition of the Lord.

5 [c] Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, [d] with fear and trembling, [e] in singleness of your heart, [f] as unto Christ;

6 Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 [g] With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, [h] the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

9 And, [i] ye masters, do the same things unto them, [k] forbearing threatening: knowing that [l] your Master also is in heaven; [m] neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, [n] be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Philippians.

CHAPTER 1.

3 Paul's thankfulness and prayer to God for the Philippians: 21 his readiness to glorify Christ.

PAUL and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [d] I thank my God upon every [1] remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you [2] will perform it [a] until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because [3] I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both [6] in my bonds, and in [f] the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are [5] partakers of my grace.

8 For [e] God is my record, how greatly [f] I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

PRAYER FOR THEIR SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT Vv 9-11

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all [2] judgment;

10 That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2.

He exhorteth them to unity and humility, by the example of Christ.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; Lit. "The faith."

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again. PAROUSIA = PRESENCE

27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2.

He exhorteth them to unity and humility, by the example of Christ.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but [a] every man also on the things of others.

5 [c] Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who, [d] being in the [e] form of God, thought it not robbery to be [e] equal with God:

7 But [f] made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of [g] a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

8 And being found in [4] fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and [m] became obedient unto death, even [n] the death of the cross.

9 [p] Wherefore [q] God also hath [r] highly exalted him, and given him [s] a name which is above every name:

10 That at the name of Jesus [t] every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And [u] that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is [v] Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, [a] as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, [b] work out your own salvation with [c] fear and trembling.

13 For [d] it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his [e] good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and [f] disputings:

15 That ye may be blameless and [6] harmless, [g] the sons of God, without rebuke, [h] in the midst of a [i] crooked and perverse nation, among whom [k] ye shine [k] as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth [m] the word of life; that [n] I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that [p] I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be [6] offered upon the sacrifice and [r] service of your faith, [b] I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 [2] But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send [s] Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man [3] likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For [k] all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that, [6] as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But [n] I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and [t] he that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 [l] Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and [7] [o] hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, [q] to supply your lack of service toward me.

He was a sacrificial willingness. What a character! He "ministered to my needs", "longed after you all", was "full of heaviness" lest he should be an object of concern to other

CHAPTER 3.

Of false teachers. 7 He giveth up all for Christ.

FINALLY, my brethren, (b) rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 Beware of (c) dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of (d) the concision.

3 For (e) we are the circumcision, (f) which (g) worship God (h) in the spirit, (i) and (k) rejoice in Christ Jesus, and (l) have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the (m) stock of Israel, (n) of the tribe of Benjamin, an (o) Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, (p) a Pharisee;

6 (q) Concerning (r) zeal, (s) persecuting the church; touching (t) the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of (u) the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having (v) mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but (w) that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and (x) the power of his resurrection, and (y) the fellowship of his sufferings, being made (z) conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already (a) attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and (b) reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I (c) press toward the mark for the prize of (d) the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be (e) perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same (f) rule, (g) let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, (h) be followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are (i) the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 (k) Whose end is destruction, (l) whose God is their belly, and (m) whose glory is in their (n) shame, who (o) mind earthly things.)

20 For our (p) conversation (q) is in heaven; from whence also (r) we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 Who shall (s) change (t) our vile body, that it may be (u) fashioned like unto his glorious body, (v) according to the working whereby he is able even (w) to subdue all things unto himself.

BENEDICTION. V. 23.

Favor. Cp Gal. 6:18. This Epistle opens Ch. 1:2 with this benediction.

The liberality PHILIPPIANS 4. of the Philippians.

2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that [a] they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in [c] the book of life.

4 [d] Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your [e] moderation be known unto all men. [h] The Lord is at hand.

6 [k] Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And [m] the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are [q] honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are [s] of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 [v] Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and [b] the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last [d] your care of me [t] hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but [f] ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of [h] want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be [i] content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things [b] through Christ [d] which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well done, that [f] ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians know also, that [i] in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from [l] Macedonia, [m] no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in [o] Thessalonica ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 [p] Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But [3] I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of [q] Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, [r] an odour of a sweet smell, [t] a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God.

19 But my God [u] shall supply all your need [x] according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto [z] God and our Father be [a] glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. [c] The brethren which are with me greet you.

22 [e] All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Cæsar's household.

23 [g] The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

- The word "joy" or "rejoice" is found in every chapter. 1:4, 18, 25, 26. 2:2, 17, 18. 3:1. 4:1, 4, 10.
- The word "mind" is found in every chapter. 1:7. 2:2 (x2), 5. 3:15, 19. 4:2, 7.

- The object was twofold. 1st to thank them for their generous gift. 2nd To correct dissension that had broken out threatening the peace + usefulness of the Ecclesia. Two of the leading sisters had fallen out & apparently the Ecclesia had taken sides. Ch. 4:2.
- Observe how Paul seeks to bring unity.
  1. He refuses to recognise two parties and constantly (See how frequently I uses the word "all." See Note Ch. 1:4.
  2. He did not lecture the sisters makes no reference to them until the end of letter and then appealingly and tactfully. (Their difference was not one of doctrinal error or personal wrong - but merely of difference of outlook).
  3. He emphasises the value of unity and Christ's example 4:

THIS EPISTLE designed for public reading Ch.4:16. and was the second epistle Paul wrote. Ch.4:10. Epaphras, one of the Colossians Ch.4:12 had arrived in Rome, where Paul was imprisoned (61-63 A.D) with news of the Ecclesia Ch.1:7. including a dangerous heresy that was making headway. This was a form of "higher thought" philosophy Ch.2:8. being an admixture of Greek and Jewish thought, putting forth high-sounding phrases of an assumed superiority, the worship of angels as intermediaries between God and man Ch.2:18 and demanding a strict adherance of certain Jewish forms to the point of asceticism Ch.2:16, 21. Meanwhile Epaphras was imprisoned Philemon 23, and this letter with that to Ephesians was written and sent by Tychicus and Onesimus Ch.4:7-9. Eph. 6:21.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

COLOSSE was a city of Phrygia, from which country some were present at preaching on Pentecost Acts 2:10. Paul had passed through this country on his 2nd and 3rd Missionary journeys Acts. 16:6. 18:23.

EPAPHRAS may have been the founder of the Ecclesia Ch.1:7. 4:12-13. for it is not known whether Paul ever actually visited the city of Ch.2:1.

CHAPTER I.

The apostle thanketh God for their faith, &c.

1 [a] PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timotheus [c] our brother,

2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [h] We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For [k] the hope which is [l] laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in [p] the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew [u] the grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of [v] Epaphras our dear fellowservant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your [c] love in the Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord [h] unto all pleasing, being fruitful [i] in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 [t] Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness;

12 [p] Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:

13 Who hath delivered us from [b] the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of [2] his [d] dear Son:

14 [e] In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

15 Who is [f] the image of [g] the invisible God, [r] the firstborn of every creature:

16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be [m] thrones, or [n] dominions, or [o] principalities, or powers: all things were created [q] by him, and for him:

17 And [r] he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

18 And [t] he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, [z] the firstborn from the dead; that [3] in all things he might have the preeminence.

19 For [z] it pleased the Father that [a] in him should all [b] fulness dwell;

20 And, [4] having made peace through the blood of his cross, [d] by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 [e] And you, that were sometime alienated and [f] enemies [5] in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled

22 [f] In the body of his flesh through death, [k] to present you holy and unblameable and unreproveable in his sight:

23 [m] If ye continue in the faith [n] grounded and settled, and be not moved away from [o] the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and [q] which was preached to every creature

The Fulness (pleroma) of Christ.

This is set forth in Ephesians Cp Ch. 1:23. 3:19. 4:13.
It is applied in Colossians under pressure of false doctrine.

To be "filled" with Christ is sufficient for all needs and is a complete answer to gnosticism, Judaism and asceticism, all of which Paul attacks. Ch. 2:8-23 (see Analysis).

The intellectual pride of the Gnostics refined away the Gospel into a philosophy, reduced it to mere knowledge divorced from any practical transforming value. The Judaisers made Christ subservient to the Law. The ascetics reduced the Truth to the commandments of men.

Paul restored it to the fulness of all things. He showed the need.

- To be filled with epignosis (exact+knowledge-Diag.) Ch. 1:9
- All the fulness (of grace + truth - Jhn 1:N 16) is in Christ 1:19.
- In him all the treasures of wisdom + knowledge are hidden 2:3
- He manifests the Divine fulness bodily 2:9 (note V10): "Ye are filled full in him."

Associated with this "fulness" is the need to reveal it personally. So Paul:

- Experienced the fulness of fellowshipping Christ's sufferings 1:24.
- Expounded the Word in its fulness 1:25 mg.
- Called upon them to attain to full-assurance of understanding 2:2.
- Him to stand perfect + filled to completeness in all the will of God 4:12.

This doctrine set forth specifically to refute error:
2:4: "And this I say lest..."
2:8-9: "Beware lest..."
2:16. "The substance is of Christ..."
2:18-19. "Let no man beguile you..."

SUMMARY OF COLOSSIANS

- Written in Rome between AD 61-63. Acts 28 note at the instigation of Epaphras Col. 1:7 and sent with the Epistle to Ephesians and the Epistle of Philemon by the hands of Tychicus and Onesimus. 4:7-9.

THEME: As the fulness of God manifestation is in Christ those truly in him are dead to the old way of life. The curse of the law has no terror for a dead man, whilst the living man, the new man in Christ, fulfils in himself all the requirements of Yahweh - that being the object of Apostolic preaching 4:12. Empty formalism which does not recognise the fulness in Christ can be ignored, the law being but a shadow of the reality in him 2:16-17. The negative restrictions of gnostic philosophy must be avoided for they lead from Christ 2:18-23. In Christ a person is a new creature in whom Christ is all and in all 3:1-11. The effects of this is a practical transformation of all avenues of life: personal, domestic, commercial, so that Christ is manifested in the relation of those in him towards all others. He lives not by law which may point the way but by the motive-ation of Christ in him.

4 Wisdom is the correct application of knowledge. Cp Deut. 4:6. Vv 4-8. 5:3-4.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He exhorteth them to be constant in Christ, 8 to beware of philosophy, and vain traditions.

FOR I would that ye knew what great [s] conflict I have for you, and for them at [t] Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of [c] the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of [d] the mystery of [e] God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

3 [f] In whom are hid all the treasures of [g] wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

7 [a] Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after [h] the tradition of men, after the [i] rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For in him [k] dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 And [l] ye are complete in him, [m] which is the head of all [n] principality and power:

11 In whom also ye are circumcised [o] with the circumcision made without hands, [p] in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

12 [q] Buried with him in baptism, wherein also [r] ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 [s] And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

14 [t] Blotting out the handwriting of [u] ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

15 And having spoiled [v] principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no man therefore judge you [w] in meat, or in drink, or [x] in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days:

17 Which are [y] a shadow of things to come; but [z] the body is of Christ.

CHAPTER 3.

He sheweth where we should seek Christ: 10 exhorteth to put off the old man, and put on Christ, &c.

[a] IF ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your [c] affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For [e] ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, who is [e] our life, [f] shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him [g] in glory.

5 [h] Mortify therefore [i] your members which are upon the earth; [l] fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, [t] which is idolatry:

6 [u] For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on [r] the children of disobedience:

7 In the which ye also walked sometime, when ye lived in them.

8 But now ye also [w] put off all these; [a] anger, [x] wrath, malice, blasphemy, [b] filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 [c] Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off [d] the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on [f] the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after [g] the image of him that created him:

11 Where there is neither [i] Greek nor Jew, [k] circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is [m] all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, as [n] the elect of God, holy and beloved, [q] bowels of mercies, [r] kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

13 [s] Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a [4] quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 And above all these things put on [y] charity, which is the bond of perfectness.

15 And let [z] the peace of God rule in your hearts, [v] to the which also ye are called [z] in one body; and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another [b] in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And [d] whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 [k] Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 [m] Husbands, love your wives, and [n] be not bitter against them.

20 [p] Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 [s] Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

Divers precepts COLOSSIANS 4. and salutations.

22 [a] Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as [d] to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 [e] Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of [f] the inheritance: for [g] ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and [h] there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth them to be fervent in prayer, 5 to walk wisely, 10 and sendeth divers salutations.

[p] MASTERS, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.

2 [r] Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

3 Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak [s] the mystery of Christ, [t] for which I am also in bonds:

4 That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 Walk in wisdom toward [u] them that are without, [v] redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech [w] be always with grace, [x] seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 [y] All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and [z] fellowservant in the Lord:

8 Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and [a] comfort your hearts;

9 With [b] Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

10 [c] Aristarchus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and [d] Marcus, [e] sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments: [f] if he come unto you, receive him;)

11 And Jesus, which is called [g] Justus, [h] who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellowworkers unto the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort unto me.

12 [i] Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always [k] labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand [l] perfect and [m] complete in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him record, that he hath a great [n] zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.

14 [o] Luke, the beloved physician, and [p] Demas, greet you.

15 Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and [q] the church which is in his house.

16 And when [r] this epistle [s] is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.

17 And say to [t] Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil it.

18 [u] The salutation by the hand of me Paul. [v] Remember [w] my bonds. [x] Grace be with you. Amen. — So the Epistle opens and closes with the Divine benediction.

BACKGROUND (2nd Journey) - Driven by the Spirit in a way he sometimes could not understand (Cp Acts 16:6) but where guidance he had not the shadow of doubt, Paul travelled to Troas a few miles south of the Hellespont in Asia Minor (Acts 16:8). There = vision man of Macedonia V.9. He obeyed and was immediately plunged into the most exciting adventures. At Philippi he was thrashed and imprisoned after the multitude had risen against them (Acts 16:22-23) but ended in converting the jailor. At Thessalonica, 80 miles to south West the preaching was again attended by violent opposition and riots (Acts 17:1-10) in which the numerous Jewish community took part. The house of Jason was assailed (V.5) and so vigorous was the opposition, that the brethren "sent away" Paul and Silas (V.10), who continued on to Berea 50 m. to west. Here, after some success, the influential Jews of Thessalonica stirred up opposition (V.13) and again Paul was "sent away" this time to Athens 200 m. to south. Here, lonely, he sent for Timothy and Silas (V.15) and having heard of continued persecution, and a doctrinal problem (1 Thess. 4:13) at Thessalonica, he sent this Epistle to comfort them.

CHAPTER 1.

Paul sheweth his remembrance of them at all times in thanksgiving and prayer.

1 PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, ~~from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ~~.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren beloved, your election of God.

5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost:

7 So that ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;

10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2.

In what manner the gospel was preached to them, and in what way received.

1 FOR yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness:

6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for laboring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we ex-

THESSALONICA - Modern Salonica. Situated NW corner of Aegean Sea, facing a fine harbor, on a rich and well watered plain, on the Great Northern Military Highway from Rome to the East. Within sight of Mt Olympus, home of the Greek gods. Leading city of Macedonia in Paul's day. Still prosperous.

The city comprised an independent state with its own governor and administration under aegis of Rome, represented by a resident commissioner. Proud of its independence, it was yet punctilious in its loyalty to the Emperor. Acts 17:7 and anxious to avoid any disorder that might bring it into conflict with the supreme power. Thus Paul and his companions not only expelled but steps taken to prevent his return Acts 17:9. 1 Thess. 2:18. THE 9 ECCLESIAL EPISTLES comprise a quartette, a trio, and a pair. The first (Romans to Galatians) = Christ and Doctrine. The second (Ephesians to Colossians) = Christ and works. The third (1-2 Thessalonians) = Christ and hope. Thus: Faith, hope and charity, these three. The Spirit arranged them — not Paul. for they were not written in that order.

horted and comforted and charged every one of you, [b] as a father doth his children, 12 [d] That ye would walk worthy of God, [e] who hath called you unto [f] his kingdom and glory.
13 For this cause also thank we God [g] without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it [h] not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, [i] which effectually worketh also in you that believe.
14 For ye, brethren, became followers of [m] the churches of God which in Judæa are in Christ Jesus: for [n] ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, [o] even as they have of the Jews:
15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and [p] their own prophets, and have [q] persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:
16 [r] Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, [s] to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.
17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time [t] in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly [u] to see your face with great desire.
18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.
19 For what is our hope, or [v] joy, or crown of [w] rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?
20 For ye are our glory and joy.

1 Paul testifieth his great love to the Thessalonians, by sending Timothy unto them to strengthen and comfort them: 10 by praying for them, &c.

WHEREFORE [a] when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;
2 And sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our [b] fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, [h] to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:
3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that [c] we are appointed thereunto.
4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as [n] it came to pass, and ye know.
5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and [q] our labour be in vain.
6 But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and [r] that ye have good remembrance of us always, [s] desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:
7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:
8 For now we live, if ye [t] stand fast in the Lord.
9 For [u] what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

LOOKING BACK: PAUL'S LOVING AFTER-CARE Cp Acts 15:36
A LABOR OF LOVE - SENDING TIMOTHY. VV 1-8.

1 Paul had sent for Timothy & Silas to join him at Athens Acts 17:15. Timothy had arrived but apparently Silas did not meet up with him until he came to Corinth Acts 18:5
Conscious of the strain under which the Ecclesia lived he was anxious to give it every support and strength he could.
2 Note how Apollos makes Timothy almost on equal to authenticate his work among them.
4 The Word was the means used Acts 15:32. 1 Thes. 1:12.
5 Acts 14:22. 2 Tim 3:12. Purpose Phil 3:10. Heb 4:15. To be reversed. 2 Thes. 1:6.
6 He had carefully warned the Ecclesia that the Truth demands Sacrifice. Rom. 12:1-2 and involves tribulation - God tests His servants.
7 Timothy was to strengthen them and report back.
8 The point tense implies a successful assault - "succeeds in tempting you" - Vine. It was extreme anxiety on this point that led him to say he could "no longer bear." — so bitter was the persecution.
9 Their faith was expressing itself through love Cp Gal. 5:6. Col. 1:4.
10 The Apostle & the Ecclesia were completely knit together in love.
11 "For to know you are holding fast to the Master is new life to us." — 20th Cent. Thus relied in mind he turns with tears and thanksgiving to God.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth to godliness, 9 to love one another, 11 to sorrow moderately for the dead. 15 Of the resurrection, and second coming of Christ.

FURTHERMORE then we [1] beseech you, brethren, and [2] exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that [c] as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and [d] to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is [e] the will of God, even your [f] sanctification, [g] that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess [h] his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 Not in [i] the lust of concupiscence, even [k] as the Gentiles [l] which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and defraud [m] his brother [n] in any matter [o] because that the Lord [p] is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto [q] uncleanness, but [r] unto holiness.

8 He therefore that [s] despiseth, despiseth not man, [t] but God, [u] who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching [v] brotherly love [w] ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God [x] to love one another.

10 And indeed [y] ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study [z] to be quiet, and [a] to do your own business, and [b] to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may walk honestly toward [c] them that are without, and that ye may have lack [d] of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, [e] that ye sorrow not, even as others [f] which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so [g] them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that [h] we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep.

16 For [i] the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of [m] the archangel, and with [n] the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them [o] in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore [p] comfort one another with these words.

BUT of [q] the times and the seasons, brethren, [r] ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that [s] the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then [t] sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, [u] are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

CHAPTER I.

1 Paul testifieth to the Thessalonians' faith, love, and patience: 4 and comforteth them against persecution by a consideration of the righteous judgment of God.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 [a]We are bound to [b]thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 [d]So that we ourselves glory in you in [e]the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY.

Object of the Epistle

It was written from Macedonia Ch. 1:3. and designed to instruct Timothy how to manage the affairs of the Ecclesia in everything pertaining to its organisation, office, preservation of pure doctrine, and right disposition. He was to charge some to teach none but apostolic doctrine and [redacted] to counteract every injurious influence.

The state of the Ephesian Ecclesia

The Ecclesia was in high degree organised when Paul left Timothy in charge of it, and the Epistle is a general outline for its continued conduct. Paul had no doubts as to the coming apostasy Acts 20:29. 1 Tim. 4:1 and so put Timothy on his guard against certain ones, notably ● The Judaisers who were getting a hold in the Ecclesia 1 Tim. 1:4-7 ● Some elders were advocating false doctrine with which they had been affected 1 Tim. 1:3, 20. ● The offices of overseers, deacons etc. had become corrupt and Timothy was instructed concerning these matt - 1 Tim. 3:14. ● The subordinate position of women in the Ecclesia was not recognised sufficiently, thus calling the Apostle's rebuke 1 Tim. 5.

Date And Circumstances of Writing

Probably about A.D. 56. This Epistle is hard to place and several theories have been suggested. In view of Acts 20:25 the only satisfactory explanation seems to have been that during Paul's three years stay at Ephesus Acts 19, he took a journey to Macedonia and back 1 Tim. 3:14. a journey unrecorded by Luke. Luke records but two visits of Paul to Ephesus Acts 18:19; 19:1. The Epistle could not have been written during or after the first stay for the Ecclesia would not have been formed sufficiently, or be large enough to require deacons etc. 1 Tim. 3:8. whilst after staying with the Ephesians three years Acts 20:31 except for a meeting at Miletus, Paul "saw their faces no more" Acts 20:25. This Epistle requires Paul's return to Ephesus 1 Tim. 1:3. At the first stay of Paul at Ephesus Priscilla and Aquilla are left but not Timothy Acts 18:19. During the time the Epistle was written, Timothy had been left as overseer at Ephesus whilst Paul travelled to Macedonia 1 Tim. 1:3.

The History of Timothy

His father was a Greek, his mother a Jewess Acts 16:1. 2 Tim. 1:5). Both Timothy's mother and grandmother were spiritually minded women who taught him the Scriptures at an early age, though the silence concerning his father is suggestive. He did not embrace Judaism though doubtless his mother would have desired this Acts 16:3. so that evidently the home was divided on the matter of religion. Nevertheless the spiritual attributes of his mother bore fruit in Timothy Acts 16:2. Paul on his second journey to Lystra took him as his assistant "circumcising him because of the Jews" Acts 16:3. (Cf. Gal. 2:3. 1 Cor. 9:20) In all probability he had been converted by Paul on his former visit to the city (Acts 14:6) for he describes him as his dear son (1 Tim. 1:2. 2 Tim. 1:2. 1 Cor. 4:17). Timothy had personally witnessed the persecutions to which the Apostle alludes to in 2 Tim. 3:10-12.

From Lystra Timothy travelled with Paul to Macedonia by Troas Acts 16:1-4. He was left behind at Berea Acts 17:14, joined Paul again at Athens Acts 17:15 and was sent thence to Thessalonica 1 Thess. 3:2-6 joining Paul at Corinth Acts 18:5. and was despatched thence into Macedonia and Achaia before Paul took his second journey from Ephesus into those regions Acts 19:22. 1 Cor. 4:17. 16:10

When 2 Corinthians was written, he was with Paul in Macedonia (2 Cor. 1:1) At a later period, when Romans was written at Corinth, Timothy was with the writer (Rom. 16:21). On Paul's return through Macedonia, Timothy went before him into Troas Acts 20:5. Whether he went with him to Jerusalem and Rome, or followed him there is uncertain, but he is mentioned in the Epistles written from Rome during the imprisonment. Thus he did not desert his spiritual father & friend in adversity, but even then remained at his side. (Phil. 1:1. Col. 1:1. Philemon 1), apparently suffering imprisonment Heb. 13:23.

On Paul's 2nd imprisonment, Timothy who had been returned to Ephesus (Cf. 2 Tim. 1:16-18 with 2 Tim. 4:19) was recalled to Rome 2 Tim. 4:21.

The fact that Timothy is joined with Paul in his salutations, and not merely in his final greetings is indicative of the high status with the Apostle & the Ecclesias

The Dignity of Sisters In Paul's Teaching. Cp Ch.2:9-15

He mentions with favor the following to many of whom he sends greetings: Phoebe, Priscа, Mary, Tryphena and Tryphosa, Persis, Julia, the sister of Nereus, Apphia, Lois and Eunice Rom.16, 1Cor.1:11, 16:19, 2Tim.1, Philemon.

He employs sisters in the service of the Gospel Rom.16:1-2, 2Cor.11:8-9, particularly the elder widows 1 Tim.5:9-10 deacons' assistants 1 Tim 3:11 sisters who are able to support others 1 Tim 5:16. (Cp the example of Lydia Acts 16:14,15,40. Dorcas Acts 9:36. Mary Acts 12:2. the daughters of Philip Acts 21:8, 9.

He teaches that sisters can be elevated to independent status in Christ Gal.3:28.

He recommends marriage, even for widows, and he praises the joys of wifehood and motherhood 1 Cor. 7:39 1 Tim 5:14 cp 1 Tim 2:15 4:3. There are circumstances, however, in which Paul considers it better "not to marry" 1 Cor. 7:26-27.
See also 1 Cor. 7:1,8. 1 Cor 7:4. 1 Cor. 11:7, 11 Eph. 5:25-31.

Paul's practical advice in regard to those sisters striving to aid the Ecclesia and there brethren is: "Help those Women" Phil. 4:2.

The Ecclesia as the Pillar and Ground of the Truth, Ch 3:15

It supports the Truth by ● Hearing it Mk 2:2 ● Heeding it Mk 7:24 ● Handling it rightly 2 Tim 2:15. ● Holding it in the heart Ps 119:11 ● Holding it forth Phil 2:16.

Demonstrating it Col 4:5-6

"God was manifest..." Ch 3:16. This reading has been vigorously rejected (for only place where the ms has been examined by a microscope to determine true meaning. Gr. mss were originally written in capitals with no breaks between + the small cursive Greek letters now used were not then commonly employed - until 9th or 10th centuries. Words were also often abridged thus ΘΣ for Θεος - God, ΟΣ for Θεος - God. the words thus treated were indicated by a line above them. Here, if the line above the [illegible] word and in the Θ were obliterated for any cause, it would read ΟΣ - who. The line does appear over the word, but is admitted by a later hand though possible by eye, who found that the original was nearly obliterated. The Vulgate + Syriac "who" or "which." Thus some interpret, "Christ was manifest in flesh."

The "deposit" was "the Gospel" that was "committed" to Paul's "trust" Ch.1:11 and which he kept intact 2 Tim 4:7. Thus:

1. It is entrusted to Paul 1 Tim.1:11
2. It is "deposited" by Paul in a special charge to Timothy. 1 Tim 1:18.
3. Timothy must exercise the greatest care in guarding that deposited with him 1 Tim.6:20.
4. Paul has confidence in the trust he has reposed in Timothy. 2 Tim.1:12.
5. Timothy is to "deposit" the precious Gospel to other faithful trustees who are "able to teach others also" 2 Tim 2:2

THE NEED TO GUARD IT

- The Faith was being challenged
  - Some had made shipwreck of the faith 1 Tim 1:19
  - The Spirit spake of further apostasy 1 Tim. 4:1.
  - Some denied the faith by neglect of their own 1 Tim 5:8
  - Some did so by an unseemly striving for material things 1 Tim 6:10
  - Some did so through embracing Gentile philosophy - science falsely so called 6:21.
- What was needed to counter the challenge.
  - Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience 1 Tim 3:9
  - A good Standing + great boldness in the faith 1 Tim 3:13
  - A good minister nourished in the words of the faith 4:6.
  - Skilful fighting in the cause of the faith 6:12.
  - Sound teachers. 1 Tim 3:2. 5:17.

THE DEPOSIT IS RELATED TO DOCTRINE

- Sound Doctrine to be Encouraged.
  - Charge that they teach no other doctrine 1:3.
  - Law is for that contrary to sound doctrine 1:9-10
  - Give attendance to doctrine 4:13.
  - Take heed to doctrine 4:16.
  - Give honor to those who labor in doctrine 5:17.
  - His doctrine be not Blasphemed 6:1.
  - Nourished in good doctrine 4:6.

According to Godliness 6:3.

- False Doctrine to be Avoided.
  - Contrary to sound doctrine 1:10.
  - Doctrine of demons. 4:1
  - Vain talking, teachers of the Law 1:7.
  - Teach otherwise (Heterodox doctrine) consent not to wholesome words 6:3.
  - Turn aside unto fables. 1:4, 4:7.

THE OBJECTIVE OF THE DEPOSIT: THE GODLINESS. The definite article is used when intended

- A peaceable life in all Godliness 2:2.
- Great is the mystery of (the) Godliness 3:16.
- Exercise thyself unto Godliness 4:7
- (the) Godliness is profitable for all things 4:8
- The doctrine which is according to Godliness 6:3
- Supposing that gain is among (the) Godliness 6:5
- (the) Godliness with contentment is great gain 6:6
- Follow after Godliness 6:11

● The Danger: "A form of Godliness but denying the power thereof" 2 Tim 3:5. 2 Tim 2:16

The three great principles that stressed: ● Faith ● Doctrine ● Godliness are expressive of a ● Conviction based on ● Sound Teaching manifested in ● True Worship in a way of life.

PARANGELIA: A proclamation or command "is strictly used of commands received of a ● superior and transmitted to others. Rend. "charge" Ch 1:3,18, 5:7, 6:13,17. "Commandment" 1:5. "Command" 4:11. "Charge" in 5:21 is a different word. (Note in 1:5,18 the word is the noun-parangelia, otherwise the verb, parangellō).

The idle and the disorderly censured.

whether [a] by word, or our epistle.

16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER 3.

1 He craveth their prayers, 5 maketh request to God in their behalf, 6 giveth them divers precepts.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.

12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

13 But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing.

14 And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

17 The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Of Paul's call to the apostleship.

Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, [a] when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they [c] teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to fables and endless [e] genealogies, which minister [f] questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now [g] the end of the commandment is charity [h] out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some [i] having swerved have turned aside unto [k] vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that [o] the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing this, that [p] the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for [s] unholy and [t] profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile [u] themselves with mankind, for [w] menstealers, for liars, for [x] perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to [z] sound doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, [a] which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, [b] who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, [c] putting me into the ministry;

13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because [d] I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 [e] And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant [f] with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that [b] Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause [d] I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto [i] the King eternal, [k] immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the [m] prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest [n] war a good warfare;

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is Hymenæus and [q] Alexander; whom I have [r] delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He exhorteth to pray and give thanks for all men. 9 How women should be attired. 15 They shall be saved in travail, if they continue in faith.

I [s] EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, [v] supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 For kings, and for all that are in [t] authority; that we may lead a quiet [b] and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For [d] there is one God, and one [f] mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

WRONG DOCTRINE LEADS TO WRONG THINKING HENCE TO WRONG ACTION Cp V. 3

With realism there would-be law-doctors mouthed their high-falutin platitudes their ponderous phrases. But it was all complete bombast, mere rant and cant. They indulged in disputation upon words and themes with confidence – yet they failed to understand the true significance and application of the very subjects upon which they presumed to discourse with such cock-sureness Vv 6, 7. Tit. 3:8.

"THE LAW IS NOT MADE FOR A RIGHTEOUS MAN V. 9. They were using the Law therefore the Scriptures only as a basis for their ingenious expositions on curious items such as genealogies & ceremonials V. 4. therefore they treated it as though they were completely righteous, untouched by sin. But the Law was not designed for that purpose Cp Rom. 7:13. & therefore they did not receive the true message of the Law. They did not see themselves as sinners; they did not feel "crushed" by the impact of its commands as did Paul Rom. 7:24. 1 Tim. 1:13-14. They were more intent upon using it to demonstrate

CHAPTER 3.

[a] Qualifications of bishops and deacons. 15 Of the church, and the blessed truth taught therein.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 [q] A [r] bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, [s] of good behaviour, given to hospitality, [t] apt to teach;

3 [u] Not given to wine, no striker, [x] not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, [y] not covetous;

4 One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)—the family of Another.

6 Not [z] a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and [a] the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be [b] grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 [c] Holding the mystery of the faith in [d] a pure conscience.

10 And [e] let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not [3] slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have [f] used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in [g] the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and [4] ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was [h] manifest [5] in the flesh, [i] justified in the Spirit, [k] seen of angels, [l] preached unto the Gentiles, [m] believed on in the world, [n] received up into glory.

CH 6 Vrs 4 PAUL REVERTS TO HIS ORIGINAL THEME

Doctrines of Demons

Daemons were considered by the Greeks as the departed spirits of the good and the great, who were exalted to the rank of demi-gods, and who, though invisible, were supposed still to exert an important influence in favor of mankind. To these beings, the heathen rendered extraordinary homage. Regarding them as demi-gods, they supposed that they took a deep interest in human affairs. They invoked their aid. They set apart days in honor of them. They offered sacrifices, and performed rites and ceremonies to propitiate their favor. They were regarded as a sort of mediators or intercessors between man and the superior divinities.

These principles are found in the Papal communion, in a way that corresponds to the meaning of the prophecy. There is first, the worship of the Virgin and of the saints, or the extraordinary honors rendered to them. The saints are supposed to have extraordinary power with God, and their aid is implored as intercessors. The Papists do not, indeed, offer the same homage to the saints which they do to God, but they ask their aid; they offer prayer to them. The following extracts from the catechism of Dr. James Butler, expresses the general views of R.C. Q - How do Catholics distinguish between the honor they give to God, and the honor they give to the saints, when they pray to God and the saints? A. Of God alone they beg grace and mercy; and of the saints they only ask the assistance of their prayers. Q Is it lawful to recommend ourselves to the saints, and ask their prayers? A. Yes; as it is lawful and a very pious practise to ask the prayers of our fellow-creatures on earth, and to pray for them."

In the Prayer to be said before Mass, the following occurs: "In union with the holy church and its minister, and invoking the blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and all the angels and saints, we now offer the adorable sacrifice of the Mass," etc.

In the General Confession, it is said: "I confess to Almighty God, to the blessed Mary, ever Virgin, to blessed Micahel the archangel, to blessed John the Baptist, to the holy apostles Peter and Paul, and to all the saints, that I have sinned exceedingly.

The Council of Trent declared (Sess.25, Concerning the invocation of the saints): "that it is good and useful to supplicate them, and to fly to their prayers, power, and aid; but that they who deny that the saints are to be invoked or who assert that they do not pray for men, or that their invocation of them is idolatry, hold an impious opinion.

SECONDLY, in the Papal communion the doctrine of exorcism is still held - implying a belief that evil spirits or demons have power over the human frame - a doctrine which comes fairly under the meaning of the phrase here "the doctrine respecting demons." Thus, in Dr. Butler's Catecism: Q. What do you mean by exhorcism? A. The rites and prayers instituted by the church for the casting out devils, or restraining them from hurting persons, disquieting places, or abusing any of God's creatures to our harm. Q. Has Christ given his church any such power over devils? A Yes, he has; see Matt. 10:1; Mk 3:15; Luke 9:1. And that this power was not to die with the apostles, nor to case after the apostolic age we learn from the perpetual practise of the church, and the experience of all ages."

Conscience cauterised — "Such a conscience exists in a mind that will practise delusion without concern; that will carry on a vast system of fraud without wincing; that will incarcerate, scourge, or burn the innocent without compassion; and will practise gross enormities, and indulge in sensual gratifications under the mask of piety" (A. Barnes).

Forbidding marriage — The tenth article of the decree of the council of Trent: "Whosoever will say that the marriage state is to be preferred to a state of virginity, or celibacy, and that it is not better and more blessed to remain in virginity, or celibacy, than to be joined in marriage; let him be accursed."

Abstain from meats — Dr Butler's Catechism: Q. Is it strictly forbidden by the church to eat meat on days of abstinence? A. Yes; and to eat flesh meat on any day on which it is forbidden, without necessity and leave of the Church, is very sinful."

This prophecy was partly fulfilled by Gnosticism which developed in the 2nd Century and which elevated gnosis (knowledge) above pistis (faith). Gnosticism claimed that the good God of the new dispensation could not have created the world, for the world is matter, and matter is the seat of evil. It was Yahweh of the O.T., the Demiurge, who created the world, the human body matter. These are our enemies. They must be conquered. Hence all Gnostics favored "the abuse of the flesh." But this abuse of the flesh can express itself in two diametrically opposite imperatives — "Shun it!!" "Overcome it by indulging it." The first was advocated by Ascetic Gnostics, such as Marcion, Saturninus, and Tatian (See Tertullian "Against Marcion" I. 29; Irenaeus, "Against Heretics" I. 28); the second by Antinomian or Licentious Gnostics, such as the Nicolaitanes. Paul here warns against the former. John (1 John 2:4-6) Peter (2 Pet. 2:10-19) and Christ (Rev. 2:15, 20, 24) warn against the latter.

Gnosticism in this form, however, developed out of Judaism, for one class clung to the letter of the law and the other class repudiated any restraint and claimed the freedom of licence. See Jude. All these forms of error laid the foundations for the Roman Apostasy.

PAUL'S FIVE PARABLES OF GRACE — in his pastoral epistles

1 Tim. 1:15. Christ came into the world to save sinners of which I am foremost.
1 Tim. 3:1 If a man desire the office of an overseer, he desires a good work. (He extends to others the mercy he received).
1 Tim. 4:8-9 Bodily training profiteth little, but godliness is profitable for all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come." (Placing the emphasis correctly).
2 Tim. 2:11-13. "If we died with him we shall live with him; if we endure patiently we shall reign with him, if we disown him, he also will disown us."
Tit. 3:4-8. "Having justified us by his favor, we might become heirs according to the hope of life eternal."

GOD THE SAVIOR OF ALL ESPECIALLY OF THOSE THAT BELIEVE 1 Tim. 4:10.

The word "soter" signifies "deliverer" and is so used in O.T. (LXX) for the judges etc. Jud. 2:16. 2 Kings 13:5. Neh. 9:27. Yahweh was the Deliverer of the whole nation of Israel Ps. 106:21 but with most of them He was not well pleased 1 Cor. 10:5 so that he became especially the Deliverer of those that believed. See Isa. 63:8-10.

In the bountiful provisions of nature Yahweh is a Deliverer or Savior of all Ps. 36:6. Psa. 27:22. 145:9, 15-17. both just & unjust Mt. 5:45. Luke 6:35 Acts 17:25, 28 though this is not acknowledged by many Rom. 1:21. On the wrecked ship God "saved" not only Paul but all with him (Acts 27:23, 31, 44). In the Age to come He will be revealed as the Savior of all men, but especially (in a special sense) of those that believe.

- The early Ecclesia provided for their relief in time of need Acts 6:1-6.

"WOMEN THAT BELIEVETH" V. 16 — Conybeare & Howson render: "If there are widows dependent on any believer (whether man or woman), let those on whom they depend relieve them, and let not the Church be burdened with them; that it may relieve the widows who are destitute."

14 It was not a pleasant task that he was given but one requiring great tact, patience and courage.
Pro Krimo - pre judging.
Being biased by individuals or party considerations.
This was the method of appointment to special ecclesial duties Acts 6:6. 13:3. Timothy would be associated with other members in such appointments, but was to give an example of carefully assessing whether they had the proper qualifications.
As he would be if he hastily appointed persons to positions of responsibility who were not qualified thereto. There is a personal responsibility attached to such appointments then and now.
Sound judgment should be exercised even in the affairs of this life and all circumstances brought into consideration. Timothy was a total abstainer, a water drinker. Diag.: "Be no longer a water drinker - i.e. a total abstainer. Paul maintained a careful balance. A person must not "linger beside his wine" Pr. 23:29-30 but under certain circumstances its use was legitimate. Water can be injurious in travel, leading to dysentery & worse.

23 With wealth their comes the desire for honor, popularity, power, ease. CHAPTER 6.

1 The duty of servants. 6 Godliness is great gain, 10 and love of money the root of all evil. 11 What Timothy is to fly, and what to follow.

LET as many [d] servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, that [f] the name of God and his doctrine be not [p] blasphemed.
2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are [h] brethren; but rather do them service, because they are [i] faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.
3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to [n] wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine [p] which is according to godliness;
4 He is [1] proud, [r] knowing nothing, but [s] doting about questions and [t] strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, [u] railings, evil surmisings,
5 [v] Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, [w] supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself.
6 But [6] godliness with contentment is great gain.
7 For [c] we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.
8 And having food and raiment let us be therewith content.
9 But [g] they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, [i] which drown men in destruction and perdition.
10 For [k] the love of money is the root of all evil: which while Apostereō = robbed, defrauded. RV = bereft.

They make an outward show of religion for the purpose of personal gain but their heart is not. RV. "supposing that godliness is a way of gain."

Autarkeia - self-sufficiency. Recognising what one has is all sufficient. Only other occur. 2 Cor. 9:8. Cp. Luke 12:15. Phil. 4:11. Autarkes = Phil. 4:11

"Cast off their first love." V12. Conybeare + Howson = "have broken their former promise," and comment: "the phrase seems to break a promise.... Hence we see that, when a widow was received into the number.... a promise was required of her (or virtually understood) that she would devote her life to the employment which these widows undertook...." See Tit. 2:3-4. This seem to have developed from a Jewish example Luke 2:37.

24 Their conviction in themselves to live a life of complete dedication to Christ unfettered with the ties of marriage. Youthful vigor will assert itself - better for them to marry. V14.
25 A second reason why they should not be taken into the number.
26 They develop the habit of idleness (engaging they are doing Christ service.
27 Diag. Gadding Perierchomai = to make a circuit. This probably part of duties of widows, but the younger ones make a social practice of it. There was no spiritual objective in it, but merely idle visiting.
28 Phluaros, babbling, gadabout, from phluō, to bubble.
29 Periergos - working round about instead of at one's own affairs (peri - around, ergon - work) meddling in others affairs, taken up with trifles. Here. Creating problems instead of solving them.

CHAPTER 6.

5 THE ATTITUDE SERVANTS SHOULD ADOPT Vv 1-2.

1 The most abject slave. It is estimated that about ⅓ of the people were slaves. In Christ they assumed a new yoke Mt. 11:29 to Rom. 1:1. Cp 1 Cor. 7:21-23
2 Despotes - absolute ownership and uncontrolled power.
3 The Truth teaches that men are by nature equal Acts 17:26 and it calls all to that glorious unity Gal. 3:28 but the attainment of it is not yet. Agitators could cause slaves to become disrespectful + insubordinate. Paul warned against this attitude. The Truth sees social changes in the future, and bears in faith the existing institutions of society. Rom 13:1-7. 1 Pet. 2:13-20.
4 Give a greater + more cheerful measure of service.
5 Antilambanō. Anti, in return for. lambanō - to take or receive. Thus reciprocate. They are believers and beloved who reciprocate this kind service. Luke 6:38.

6 THE ATTITUDE TO BE ADOPTED TOWARD THE PERVERSE

6 Proserchomai - to come to, come over to. Enthusiastically applied.
7 Diag. "sound."
8 The teaching of Jesus was not resistance to evil Mt. 5:39. He is both Lord + Christ and yet he submitted. Phil. 2:5-10.
9 + 2 Pet 1:3 note. See note. God manifestation must be revenged + perfected.
10 Epistamai, know, understand set over, skilled. Diag. Master of nothing. It is the practical application of Truth that reveals the master of understanding. Otherwise a person wraps himself in smoke - is a mere novelty-seeker and hair-splitter, a peddler of ponderous platitudes. See "Noble Example" in Introduction to 1 Cor.
Noseō - sick. See Mic. He has rejected wholesome truths and is spiritually sick through mad-equate diet. Distracted about controversies and word-struggles. Ch 1:4.
12 Mere words with amenable meaning.
13 Poisonous spite between contenants.
14 Bitter discord as one does not like to submit to the other.
15 Diag. Revilings. Gr. Blasphemies as slander + defamation if used against each other.
16 Diag. "Evil suspicions" as each begins to question the motives of the other.
17 Diaparatribē - Dia through, para, beside, tribō, to wear out - the attrition or wearing effects of constant contention (Vine). Incessant wrangling. Diag. - "wranglings." Arguing can become habitual.

CHAPTER 2.

1 An exhortation to constancy and perseverance.
19 The foundation of the Lord is sure.

THOU therefore, [b] my son, [c] be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me [2] among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as [h] a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 [3] The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ [i] of the seed of David [4] was raised from the dead [k] according to my gospel:

9 [l] Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, [a] even unto bonds; but [c] the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I [m] endure all things [e] for [f] the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

11 [n] It is a faithful saying: For if [h] we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:

12 [k] If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: [l] if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 [m] If we believe not, yet [n] he abideth faithful: [o] he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they [p] strive not about words to no

2 PROVIDE A PERSONAL EXAMPLE Vv 3-13.

3 This entails enduring hardship Acts 14:22.
6 The best MSS - Sunkakopatheō as in "endure hardness with" as in 2 Tim 1:8 "be thou partaker of the afflictions." Paul's example. Acts 14:19-21. Cyclus = [illegible] hometown. Cp. 2 Cor 11:23-33.
7 Both trains and submits to discipline.
8 He obeys orders without question. He is prepared to give everything, even life itself to succeed. His is not a personal success (he may die) but a command one - that of the army. He fights for the honor of the Commanding Officer. Ps 33:16.

3 SET CLEARLY BEFORE YOU THE OBJECTIVES Vv 5-13

9 Athleo - Strive as a champion - observing rules. Cp. Phil 1:27. 3:13-14.
10 He must first toil to partake of fruits. Cp. Prov 20:4.
11-13. 1 Tim 1:15. 4:9, 11.
12 Noeō - apply your mind to - from nous - mind. Tit 2:6.
13 Keep constantly in memory the victory of Christ over death.
14 This King, Jesus who was Christ, suffered + died as a criminal. Acts 2:36. Mk 8:34-35.
15 persecution + chains cannot hinder it. Cp. Ch 1:12. The Gospel will triumph, even though the workmen be removed by death.
16 A manifestation of true love. 1 Cor 11:1 For "all things" see 2 Cor 11:16-33. Rom 8:35-39.
17 Might be drawn by Paul's example.
18 The fourth of five such sayings. 1 Tim 1:15.
19 Grammatical construction - aorist, past tense. Diag. "If we died with him." Cp Rom. 6:3-8. Gal 2:20.
20 Hupomenō = Strengthened form of "menō" to abide. - To abide under, to bear up patiently and courageously. It naturally [illegible] but lies upon the principle of death to self.
21 Rule self preparatory to the future. Cp Rom. 6:22.

4 DEVELOP SKILL IN EXPOSITION Vv 14-15

Those of V.2 The instructions had are expressed positively in Vv 2-13 and here are stated negatively.
Machomai - to fight. V 24 Cp V.5. - Wage useless word-battles.
Realizing human wisdom or piety not adequate to combat inherent tendency in, godly persons. Prone [illegible]

13 There was a stigma attached to the Gospel. Cp 6:1-2 Mk. 8:34-38 Be-ing when the persecution of there had introduced loathing cruelties. Paul had learned the need to encourage rather than condemn. Cp Acts 15:37-38
14 Christ. He suffered for his sake. Eph 3:1 4:1. Philemon 9
15 Fellowship. Cp Phil 1:5 1:7. Rom. 15:26. 1 Cor 9:13.
16 Kata with the accusative case - in reference to some standard of comparison stated or implied (Bull) thus seeking from God power to conquer.
17 I MIGHTY TITLE: THE GOD-FEL HOPE - THE Source OF VICTORY Vv 9-16
18 KJV: "saved" not "hath saved." He has provided all things necessary. 1 Tim. 6:6 Cp 1 Tim 1:15. The means are through the personal calling. Cp Ch 2:10
19 Though we cannot earn it we must merit it! Rom 2:18 Eph 1:9, 11.
20 In anticipation or purpose.
21 Chronon aionios - Time eternal. This seems similar expression to "before the foundation of the World" Cp Eph 1:4. Rom 16:25
22 Katargeo - Render ineffectual. See use 1 Cor 1:28. Diag. "powerless."
23 Rom. 1:16. 6:1-2. The Divine Nature which he revealed. 1 Tim 1:17. 2 Pet 1:3.
24 EXAMPLE A. PAUL: NOT ASHAMED OF GOSPEL Vv 8-10
25 Paratheke - Deposit. Diag. "Guard my entrusted charge. Hill (Eis) that day." The Deposit Paul had placed in God's care was his life. Cp Acts 27:23
26 RV "Pattern." Cf. Ruperpous. Cp 1 Tim 1:16
27 Paratheke - Deposit. RV ing. "The good deposit" through the power, force or influence of the Truth.
28 B. ONESIPHORUS AN EXAMPLE: NOT ASHAMED OF PAUL Vv 16-18
29 They had evidently been in Rome + Paul had appealed to them for assistance, perhaps in his defence before Nero - but they had refused, even in face of persecution, and returned to Asia.
30 The ringleaders.
31 A fugitive.
32 Born of Hermes (the messenger of the Greek deities)
33 Profit - bearer! Reference to his "house" suggests he might have died - perhaps for his advocacy of Paul when others deserted him. Cp Ch. 4:19
34 Anapsucho - make cool, refresh, cause to breath more freely. In the papyri - taking relaxation. His presence, faith, determination + cheering words helped Paul - and even the tearless, courageous, faithful Paul had need of that refreshment.

CHARACTER OF ONESIPHORUS

Kind - "oft refreshed me."
Courageous - "not ashamed of my chain"
Determined - "sought + found me"
Faithful - "his House in Truth"
Generous - "many things ministered"
Cheerful - "Refreshed."

35 Suggests those of V.15 were.
36 Difficult to find Paul in the obscure prison cell. Moreover few were prepared to identify themselves with him in view of persecution or distress that they were Christians. Cp 1 Jn 4:4 stronger !! But with determination + courage O. sought Paul out. Cp Jer 29:13 As he sought + found the out may the Lord do so to him. Mt 10:32. Rev 3:5.
37 Here is a worthy example for all to follow!

287 "FROM A CHILD THOU HAST KNOWN THE SCRIPTURES" 2 Tim 3:15. 1:5. Cp Prov. 22:6.

Scriptural instruction on the upbringing of children is at complete variance with modern psychology. The treatment of Yahweh with His children in warning + punishing is indicative of that. Scripture teaches:

Parents to command Gen. 18:19. Deut. 32:46.
Parents to Instruct Exod. 10:2. 12:26-27. 13:14-16. Deut 4:9-10. 6:7-9. 11:19

15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
16 But shun [b] profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.
17 And their word will eat as doth a [3] canker: of whom is Hymenæus and Philetus;
18 Who concerning the truth have erred, [4] saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.
19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth [5] sure, having this seal, [6] The Lord knoweth them that are [7] his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ [8] depart from iniquity.
20 But [9] in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and [10] some to honour, and some to dishonour.
21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.
22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with [q] them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

CHAPTER 3.

1 He foretelleth the wickedness of the last days,
6 and describeth the enemies of the truth.

THIS know also, that [a] in the last days perilous times shall come.
2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, [b] covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, [c] false accusers, [d] incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,
4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;
5 Having a [h] form of godliness, but [i] denying the power thereof: from such turn away.
6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,
7 Ever learning, and never able [k] to come to the knowledge of the truth.
8 Now [a] as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: [l] men of corrupt minds, [m] reprobate concerning the faith.
9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, [n] as their's also was.
10 But [o] thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, [p] purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience,
11 Persecutions, [q] afflictions, which came unto me at [r] Antioch, at Iconium, at [s] Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but [a] out of them all the Lord delivered me.

18 The servant of Christ must be a man of peace, not quarrelsome, not striving for worldly victory, but aiming always to help and convert those who oppose Truth. Their object should be conversion not conquest.
19 They must recognise that they are merely agents, and apart from Divine blessing their labors are in vain. Ps. 127. 1 Cor. 3:7-10. Eph. 1:8-10. 2:8-20.
20 Only here. = "bearing up against ill treatment." The gentleness and patience might not be reciprocated. The refusing to consider ignorant questions might be misunderstood = misinterpreted, but the true servant of Christ will remain patient.
Lit. "those who set themselves in opposition." Diag. "The opposers."
Metanoia = a change of mind = to Diag. A change of view that leads to a change of life. 2 Cor. 7:8-10 resulting in recovering from state of intoxication (acknowledgment of truth), = freedom from captivity.

288 Ananepsosin - To recover from drunkenness, to come to one's self, to come to a right mind. This intoxication would cause them to easily be ensnared a person, for his real purpose is not easily discernable. Note the development. Doctrine leads to manner of life and that governs purpose and so on.

30 Patience = in handling people - a reflection of what he received from Christ. 1 Tim. 1:16
31 Diag. "sufferings" - the effect of persecutions. v.10 - what he did v.11 - what he endured. 2 Cor. 11:23-31.

HOW TO CONTEND. - Develop skill in the Word v.15. This will enable one to discern what to avoid v.16 and to refuse v.23. For an effective and efficient servant will not waste his time and spend his strength in ignorant questions and profane babblings, in arguments concerning words to no profit, in philosophy and vain deceit after the traditions of men and not after Christ. A gentle, peaceful, forebearing & patient spirit must be cultivated. Negatively: Do not strive over trifles v.23. (However Cp Jude 4.) Or with acerbity of temper, nor for mere victory v.24. Positively: be gentle, use persuasive skill (apt to teach), be forebearing, do not retaliate vv.24-25. Seek Divine help v.25. Have a clear aim (conversion under God's influence) v.25. Bear in mind the true state of the deluded: intoxicated, ensnared and in captivity to fleshly emotion v.26. This must be broken.

24 Spoudazō - To hasten to do, to exert oneself, to give diligence.
25 Diag. Present.
26 Avoiding the negative approach. Vis Gospel workers must show diligent labor, must seek God's approval, must work with sincerity & efficiency and must reveal skill in exposition.
27 Providing for the needs of all. Cp Heb 2:5-8. Clearly distinguishing the application vv.16-20 giving due regard to prophecy, doctrine, exposition, exhortation.

5 SHUN UNPROFITABLE DISCORD vv.10-26.

Noeō - To have growth, from nous - passion, rage, growth, increase, and echo, to have. Apparent success will offend the proclamation of Error.

Gangrene is an eating sore that spreads death throughout the body, affecting even the healthy parts. The doctrines of Truth are closely interrelated and dependent upon one another. Error will inevitably affect other parts of Truth & will "eat" the Body of Christ.

Sig. Beloved. The error of Hymenaeus (who seems to have been the leader 1 Tim 1:20) was growing & was worse.

The Ecclesia 1 Tim 3:15 is built on the foundation which, however, do not recognise.

Faith - Redemption. Vessels to be used, kept = displayed.

To be discarded when no longer required. There is no use even for heretics 2 Cor 13:5, but their inevitable destiny is rejection.

A saint in fact as well as in position.

EXERCISE CAREFUL DISCRETION. vv.22-26.

Lusts of immaturity. T. about 21-42. They can be overmastering as Pleasure, the satisfaction of physical appetite. Rom 6:12-14. Possession 1 Th 4:4.

A way of life in harmony with God's Word. 2 Tim 3:16.

A humble, but dynamic confidence in God.

Agape. See Index on Love. An affectionate self-sacrificing interest in others.

PERILOUS TIMES INDUCED BY THE WORSHIP OF SELF Ch3:1-5.

The list of evil characteristics is commenced at self-love and finalised by pleasure-loving. The following evils develop out of this primary sin, for self-love induces covetousness and that leads to boasting, an overbearing, proud nature develops which manifests itself in speaking evil of others—and so on.

2 Tim. we need to see that we suffer because we live Godly & not through personal folly. 1 Pet. 4:14-15. Mt. 5:10. The enmity stems from Gen. 3:15. It can be avoided by cringing or by compromising. Paul ex- horted on this theme in these three centers. Acts 14:21, perhaps this converted Timothy.

THE POWER OF THE WORD IN FACE OF TRIAL Vv14-17.

Learning not enough must apply principles "learned from a babe" from infancy. The teaching of the O.T. centers on this as Paul had learned. Luke 24:27, 44-45 includes the N.T. 1 Tim. 5:18. One word in Gr. Theopneustos. God-inspired or God-breathed. Cp. Heb. 11:3. 2 Pet. 1:21.

Elegkon - Conviction of sin & related word. Cp. Heb. 11:1. Refuted word. Epanorthosis - Correction of sin & claims of truth. Reformation. See Intro. 2 Corinthians. Training or Discipline (Disc.). Cp. 2 Tim. 2:25. Cp. Titus 1:1 The true believer becomes such a prophet, priest, King.

CHAPTER 4.

4 PREACH THE CHARGE IN ALL SEASONS Vv1-5

THE TRUTH WILL BE CHALLENGED BY OTHERS

1 Tim. 5:21 NTE. Dt. 18. Rom. 2:16. Cp. Disq. "Is about to" - thus later with this certainty in mind. Death could bring no delay. Acts 10:42. Heb. 4:13. Titus 2:13. Epiphaneia - A shining forth. Ephistemi - To stand by, always be on guard. I must see that he repeat and fulfil. Appeal See Note. Titus 2:2. With the greatest patience & perseverance. The most painstaking doctrine. Epitheseusi - To heap upon, to accumulate. A people untaught, dissatisfied, easily desire like that of Athenians to flit from teacher to another with- out loyalty to the Word. Knetho - To scratch, tickle so as to cause to itch, using the pleasantly tickled away from Truth. Nephe - abstain from wine & the mists of the intoxicating, heady excitement. Irrational or sentimental teaching, remain calm, steady & sober like the priests do. Evangelist. Gospel-preacher. Discharge your ministry to the full, without restraint & reticence to others.

PAUL'S MINISTRY COMPLETED. Vv6-8

The reason why T. must labor so earnestly now stated. Cp. "I am already being offered" (implies poured out in a drink offering). Gr. Spendo. See Phil. 2:17. The drink offering was poured on the fire of the altar as a sweet savor unto Yahweh. It symbolized a man's labor. (See Note Num. 28:7) and the final work of Paul was then being offered as a living sacrifice. Rom. 12:1. Analusis - An unloosing, and in a military sense, the breaking up of an encampment. Training 1 Tim. 4:7 & Encouragement 1 Tim. 6:12. Method 1 Cor. 9:26-27. The Runner. Objective Acts 20:24 Motive 1 Cor. 9:25. Encouragement Heb. 12:1. Warning Gal. 2:2. & 5:7. Disq. "Guarded" as a watchman. See Notes Ezek. 33. Paul had done this in the face of death, threats, violent opposition, apathy, apostasy and every form of personal discouragement. Stephanos. 1 Cor. 9:25 Cp. 2 Tim. 2:5. Life. John 5:12. Life Glory. 1 Pet. 5:4. Victory Rev. 6:2. through faith. Rev. 6:11 (1 John 5:4). Life: Christ's Resurrection. Warning. Heb. 3:14.

"ONLY LUKE IS WITH ME" V11. - Paul is about to end his life in the company of his beloved friend, travelling-companion, biographer and physician. They have both much in common, being both big-hearted, enthusiastic, deeply sympathetic, dedicated, educated and cultured. At this moment of crisis, Luke cannot be spared, and as there is an important mission to perform Paul sends for his beloved & trusted son Timothy.

"ALEXANDER DID ME MUCH EVIL" V14. "did" Endeiknumi - To show, To point out in anything. Conybeare Howson - Charged me with, make a declaration against. He may have acted the part of Judas in Rome.

II. TIMOTHY

Paul's solemn charge to Timothy.

5 FINAL WORDS. Vv9-22

1 REGARDING PAUL'S ASSOCIATES Vv9-13

23 He is the impartial judge in the right, Grace etc. V7. The Stephanos not awarded to only one winner as in normal Games Cf. 1 Cor. 9:24.

In view of Nero's persecution this involved personal risk. Paul evidently desired to discuss with T. his future duties & responsibilities.

26 Agapao - Regard, esteem. Cf. V8.

27 Sig. Increase.

28 On the eastern shore of Adriatic, a part of Illyricum. The inhabitants were noted for their pugnaciousness. Paul was directing his assistants where they could do the most good. He preached in this part. Rom. 15:19.

29 The beloved physician Col. 4:14. Luke. Paul's doctor, friend, fellow-traveller, biographer, and secretary. Always loyal to Paul, the Gospel and Christ. He is by Paul's side as the latter crosses the campagna of his beloved son, for there is important work for T. to do & Luke cannot be spared.

30 To look after matters in T's absence.

31 Phelonen - A warm outer cloak. Hastings Dic. - A cover for wrapping books & parchments. The cold damp dungeon with winter approaching V. 21 demanded some protection. Whilst the comfort of the body was not to be neglected it was the edification of the mind that counted most.

32 He seemed to have left suddenly - did the outbreak of persecution in Rome cause him to go there to help his brethren.

33 Biblion - Small book or scroll. Writing paper. There were the messages to be written!

34 Membrana - writing material made from skin of sheep or goats more permanent - the O.T.?

2 REGARDING PAUL'S ENEMIES. Vv14-18

35 Perhaps in Rome by testifying against Paul to save his own skin. He could have cited the riot of Ephesus as an example of sedition. See above. Ps. 62:12. Prov. 24:12. Matt. 16:27. 29. Rom. 2:6. Rom. 12:17 f. 2 Cor. 11:15. Rev. 2:23.

37 A relentless opponent who evidently bitterly opposed Paul in his defence which was assisted by the courageous support of Onesiphorus. Paul now contrasts his present experience with his former one.

Disq. : "defence." Acts 22:30.

38 Paul probably sought help of the Jews of Rome who may have indicated their willingness to assist. Cp. Acts 28:20-24. 26:4-5, 9 not those Christians with him or referred to in Rom. 16.

40 Be fellowshipped Christ) suffering. Phil. 3:10. Cp. Matt. 22:37. Cp. Ps. 55:14 & 41:9. 37:12. Cp. Ps. 69:16. Ps. 55:14 & 41:9.

41 A truly converted Paul. Cp. Acts 4:13. He imitates Christ. Luke 23:34.

Acts 7:60. Reports Stephen. Acts 7:60. Teaches his own teaching 1 Cor. 11:1.

Paul felt that presence throughout his life in the Truth.

At conversion 1 Tim. 1:12. Damascus Acts 9:23. Imprisoned Acts 22:19. Shipwreck Acts 27:18. Generally Phil. 1:12. Deportation Eph. 6:20.

21 Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

¶ The second epistle unto Timotheus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Ephesians, was written from Rome, when Paul was brought before Nero the second time.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAPTER 1.

6 Qualifications of ministers. 10 Of evil teachers.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;

2 In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

CHAPTER 2.

Directions to Titus for doctrine and life.

BUT speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false

THE BLESSED HOPE V.13. • Stems from the Word Rom.15:4 • Its foundation is immovable 1 Tim.1:1-2. • Its Author is God. Rom.2:4-6 • It inspires confidence Rom.5:5. Phil.1:20. • It provides salvation, eternal life Tit.3:7. 1:2. Divine glory Rom.5:2. Col.1:27. • Indices patience or endurance 1 Thes.1:3 • Leads to boldness of speech 2 Cor.3:12. • Leads to purification of life. 1 John 3:3

The qualities that make "

TITUS.: Honorable from "I honor."

• Whereas Timothy seems to have had an inborn timidity and shyness against which he had to struggle 2 Tim.1:7, and "oft infirmities" 1 Tim.5:23 to put up with, Titus seemed to have had something of Paul's own aggressiveness. He was a man of resourcefulness and initiativeness, able not only to take orders but also to go ahead of his own account 2 Cor.8:16-17, a man of contagious enthusiasm 2 Cor.7:13.

• Titus is not mentioned in Acts, but he is mentioned 13 times in the Epistles: twice in Galatians 2:1. 2:3, once in 2 Timothy 5:10 once in Titus 1:4 and nine times in 2 Corinthians 2:13. 7:6, 13, 14. 8:6, 16, 23. 12:18 twice. He is probably included in "such generalisations as, "some of the others" Acts 15:2.

(The second occasion was to revive interest in the Jerusalem collection 2 Cor.8)

• Titus was a Greek Gal.2:3. and was taken by Paul to Jerusalem as a test case against the Judaisers. Gal 2:1-3. Paul refused to have him circumcised, though he acted differently in the case of Timothy Acts 16:3. in accordance with the principle laid down in 1 Cor.9:20

• Nothing further is heard of Titus until the 3rd Journey when he was sent by the Apostle at least twice to Corinth. He was sent to supplement the written instructions, advice and rebukes of Paul by his own dynamic personality. On his part, true to his character, Titus was eager to go on the mission 2 Cor.8:16, 17. In him there was no hesitancy. The energetic aggressiveness of Titus was followed by the spiritual, more gentle, perhaps more compelling instruction of Timothy. 1 Cor.4:17. 16:10.

• Titus was perhaps an older man than Timothy for Paul makes no reference to his youthfulness in the Epistle to him as he does to Timothy 1 Tim.4:12. 2 Tim.2:22 – though it may have been that Timothy was more conscious of his comparative youth than was Titus. Titus was well calculated to "rebuke them sharply" as required by the instructions of the Epistle Ch.1:13.

CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH THE EPISTLE WAS WRITTEN

• Paul was at liberty and expected shortly to meet Titus Ch.3:12. No circumstances recorded in Acts seem to apply to this time. It seems evident therefore that Paul was ultimately released from imprisonment Acts 28:30 at which time this Epistle was written. Paul expected to be released Phil.1:25-27. 2:24. Philem.22.

• Clement writing towards the close of first century states: "Paul.... having taught righteousness to the whole world, and having gone to the limits of the West," having given testimony before the rulers thus passed from the world..." (1st Epis. Clement to Corinthians 5:7). He wrote from Rome • the reference to the West probably relates to Spain.

• Eusebius (Ecclesiastical History 2. 22, 1,2) writes: "Luke also, who handed down the Acts of the apostles in writing, brought his narrative to a close by the statement that Paul spent two whole years in Rome in freedom, and preached the word of God without hindrance. Tradition has it that the apostle, having defended himself, was again sent upon the ministry of preaching, and coming the second time to the same city, suffered martyrdom under Nero. While he was being held in prison, he composed the 2nd Epistle to Timothy, at the same time signifying that his first defence had taken place and that his martyrdom was at hand." See over. Below.

POSSIBLE CHRONOLOGY • Timothy imprisoned released Heb 13:23-24.

- Approx. 63. Release from imprisonment. Sent Timothy to Philippi, followed shortly after Phil 2:19-24.
- Visits Colosse Philem.22. • Then Jerusalem? Heb.13:23-24 with Timothy. • Nero (54-68) – persecution commenced. 64. Nero died June 68 Paul executed probably just before. See over.
- Leaves Titus at Crete – organise Ecclesias already established Acts 2:11 Tit.1:5.
- Winters at Nicopolis Tit.3:12.
- To Spain Rom. 15:24.

Where Timothy was sent whilst Paul travelled to Spain • Rome is not revealed. Last in Jerusalem.

- Returns to Asia • Signs of hurried trip as though heard of the outbreak of bitter persecution and making brief, hurried stops here and there, "hastens to Rome, probably to strengthen the brethren. Thus. • leaves Trophimus sick at Miletus 2 Tim. 4:20. • At Troas visits Carpus leaving some belongings there 2 Tim. 4:13 • Down to Corinth 2 Tim. 4:20 • Probably sends Timothy to Ephesus 2 Tim. • Proceeds to Rome with Titus who is then sent to Dalmatia 2 Tim. 4:10. • Imprisoned 2 Tim. 1:16-17. 2:19. • Alexander testifies against him 2 Tim. 4:14. • Brethren desert him 2 Tim. 1:15. 4:10. • Onesiphorus seeks him out loses his life 2 Tim. 1:16. • Only Luke with him 2 Tim. 4:6-11. • Having been condemned 2 Tim. 4:6. was (according to tradition) beheaded on Ostian Way about 3 miles outside capital. A.D. 68 age 62 (see Chronology p.6) See below.

The Epistle contains two of the most comprehensive statements on the Gospel found in the N.T. Ch.2:11-14. Ch.3:4-7.

PROBABLE LAST JOURNEY OF PAUL.

VISIT TO SPAIN. Kenybeare Howson quote: • Muratori's Canon: (AD 170): "Luke relates to Theophilus events of which he was an eye-witness, as he so in a separate place, (LUKE 22:31-33) he evidently declares the martyrdom of Peter, but (omits) the journey of Paul from Rome to Spain."
• Chrysostom: "Paul after his residence in Rome departed to Spain."
• Jerome: "Paul was dismissed by Nero, that he might preach Christ's Gospel in the West."

PAUL'S DEATH As a Roman citizen he would die by beheading. Military executions were more common in Nero's day, so he probably died by decapitation by the sword.

EPIMENEDES V.12. This quotation according to Clement of Alexandria and Jerome is from Epimenedes, a native of Cnossus in Crete who lived over 500 years B.C. He was considered Divinely inspired by the Greeks and is thus called by Paul "a prophet of their own." According to Diogenes Laertius, he advised the Athenians to sacrifice "to the appropriate god" which advice could have led them to ere[illegible], and Truth. Liv

PAUL'S FIVE FAITHFUL SAYINGS

Providing five steps to salvation (5 being the number of grace).

- STEP 1. 1 Tim. 1:15. We need to appreciate that we are sinners, recognise that he was born to redeem, and acknowledge our need of him, so embracing him in truth.
- STEP 2. 1 Tim 3:1. We need to recognise the value of serving the Ecclesia and the Truth – viewing it as a "good work," and not merely seeking it out of personal vanity or pride.
- STEP 3. 1 Tim 4:7-9. To become an effective workman there is a need to "exercise oneself in Godliness" rather than in those things of personal and temporary benefit.
- STEP 4. 2 Tim. 2:11-13. In all the trials and tribulations of life we need to set constantly before our spiritual vision, the purpose of such and the ultimate result.
- STEP 5. Titus 3:4-8. The need to maintain good works. This can be helped by recapitulating the above principles as Paul does in this last faithful saying: Step 1 V4. Step 2. V5. Step 3 V7a. Step 4 V7b. All is summed up in "maintaining good works."

THE ATONEMENT Titus 2:14.

- The shed blood is a token of a dedicated life. Exod. 12:13. Lev. 17:11.
- The animal was a token of flesh sacrificed Lev. 1:4. upon which sins representatively placed Lev. 16:21 (Cp 1 Pet. 2:24) Heb. 9:28.
- Sacrifice typical of obedient life – flesh slain, blood poured out – life dedicated – to Yahweh Ps. 40:6-7.
- Without shedding blood (dedicated life) no forgiveness Heb. 9:22.
- Jesus – The Lamb of God Jn. 1:29. 6:55.
- Strengthened to overcome Ps. 80:17. 2 Cor. 5:14. 21. Phil. 4:13.
- Set forth the righteousness of God Rom. 3:25.
- Replaced all offerings under the Law Mark 10:45.
- Died unto sin Rom. 6:10 Cp V.12.
- Rose to justify Acts 2:24. Rom. 4:25.
- Set forth principle for all to follow Jn. 15:12-13. Col. 3:20. 2:20.
- Proclaimed in bread & wine Luke 22:14-23.

THE IMPORTANCE OF PREPOSITIONS.

"For (Oti) Christ also hath once suffered for (peri) sins, the just for (huper) the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the spirit" 1 Pet. 3:18.

- Oti – Introduces that which rests upon a patent fact – seeing that, therefore, because.
- Peri – marks the 'object' of the thought or discourse – concerning.
- Huper – On behalf of, as though bending over to assist.
- Rotherham: "Because Christ also once for all concerning sins died – Just in behalf of unjust – In order that he might introduce us unto God."

accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;
4 That they may teach the young women to be [2] sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,
5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, [a] obedient to their own husbands, that [b] the word of God be not blasphemed.
6 Young men likewise exhort to be [3] sober minded.
7 [d] In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, [e] sincerity,
8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; [f] that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.
9 Exhort [g] servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not [4] answering again;
10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; [k] that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.
11 For [m] the grace of God that bringeth salvation [n] hath appeared to all men,
12 Teaching us that, [p] denying ungodliness and [q] worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;
13 [r] Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious [s] appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;
14 [t] Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and [u] purify unto himself [b] a peculiar people, [c] zealous of good works.
15 These things speak, and [e] exhort, and rebuke with all authority. [f] Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach. 10 The rejection of obstinate hereticks.

PUT them in mind to be subject to [1] principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,
2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but [b] gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.
3 For [c] we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.
4 But after that the kindness and [d] love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,
5 [e] Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by [h] the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;
6 Which he shed on us [3] abundantly through Jesus Christ our Saviour;
7 That being justified by his grace, [i] we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.
8 [e] This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful [e] to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable unto men.
9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for [4] they are unprofitable and vain.
10 A man that is an heretick after the first and second admonition [d] reject;
11 Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, [v] being condemned of himself.
12 When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or [h] Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

THE SLAVE BECOMES "THE BROTHER BELOVED"

1 He rejoiceth to hear of the faith and love of Philemon. 9 He intreateth forgiveness for Onesimus.

PAUL, [b] a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and [a] Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and [c] fellow-labourer,

2 And to our beloved Apphia, and [d] Archippus our [h] fellow-soldier, and to [k] the church in thy house:

3 [l] Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 [m] I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 [n] Hearing of thy [r] love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual [s] by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.

7 For [t] we have great joy and [o] consolation in thy love, because [b] the bowels of the saints [c] are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, [e] though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee [p] that which is convenient,

9 Yet for love's sake I rather [k] beseech thee, being such an one as Paul [l] the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.

10 I beseech thee for my son [u] Onesimus, [o] whom I have begotten in my bonds:

11 Which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now [a] profitable to thee and to me:

12 Whom I have [f] sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels:

13 Whom I would have retained with me, that [s] in thy stead he might have ministered unto me in [t] the bonds of the gospel:

14 But without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should [m] not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.

15 [o] For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest [p] receive him for ever;

16 [s] Not now as a servant, but above a servant, [t] a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both [u] in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore [v] a partner, receive him as myself.

18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account;

19 [d] I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: [f] albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

20 Yea, brother, let me [h] have joy of thee in the Lord: [c] refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 [m] Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 But withal prepare me

23 There salute thee [i] Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus;

The Characters

PHILEMON – A resident of Colosse (Cp Phil. 2 with Col. 4:17, Phil. 10 – Col. 4:9) noted for his zeal V.2. and his loving ministrations V.7. He was converted by Paul V.19. and as Paul had not been to Colosse, (Col. 2:1) it would seem that he came under the influence of the Apostle at Ephesus (some 120 m west) during his ministry there. Acts 19:10. Apphia was probably his wife, Archippus his son.

ONESIMUS. – The run-away slave who has received notoriety by this Epistle. Originally a rebellious, stubborn slave who absconded V.15. He fled to Rome, to hide in the Metropolis. He came in contact with Paul then imprisoned and was converted. V.10. Sent back in accordance with Apostolic principle Col. 3:22. bearing this Epistle in company with Tychicus and the Epistle to Colossians which speaks highly of this slave Col. 4:9. Vv 18-19. implies that he robbed his master when he left.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE HEBREWS.

CHAPTER 1.

Christ is preferred above the angels, both in person and office.

GOD, who at sundry times and [a] in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath [c] in these last days [e] spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath [f] appointed heir of all things, [g] by whom also he made [h] the worlds;

3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and [k] upholding all things by the word of his power, [l] when he had by himself purged our sins, [m] sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, [o] Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, [q] I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And [s] again, when he bringeth in [r] the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, [t] And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And [s] of the angels he saith, [u] Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, [v] Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of [b] righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, [b] hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, [w] Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 [x] They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, [y] Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be [z] heirs of salvation?

THE FEAR OF DEATH
The worst actions are often generated by fear - fear of insecurity, fear of foes, fear of death, fear of everything but Yahweh which is the beginning of wisdom Prov 1:7. The serpent a Heb's when this frightened. 4p 2 Cor. 7:9-10. Fleshly fear comes from lack faith. - Godly fear stimulated by it.

we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by [b] the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also bearing them witness, [6] both with [d] signs and wonders, [8] and with divers miracles, [9] and [10] gifts of the Holy Ghost, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection [a] the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, [i] What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him [12] [4] a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, [13] and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

8 [o] Thou hast put all things in subjection [14] under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But [q] now we see not yet all things put under him. 15

9 But we see Jesus, [r] who was made a little lower than the angels, [16] [5] for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should [u] taste death [x] for every man.

10 [y] For it became [17] him, [z] for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make [b] the captain [18] of their salvation [d] perfect through sufferings. Heb 5:9

trust in him. [21] And again, [o] Behold I and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, [c] he also himself likewise took part of the same; that [c] through death he might [s] destroy him [24] that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them, who [h] through [t] fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. [25] See above Left

16 For verily [3] he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be [m] a merciful and faithful high priest [26] [n] in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. [27]

18 For in that he himself hath suffered [p] being tempted, [28] he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ is more worthy than Moses, 7 therefore the more to be regarded.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that [6] appointed him, as also [c] Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as [c] he who hath [c] builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as [k] a servant, [29] [m] for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

The Christians' rest is attained by faith. 12 The power of God's word. 14 Of our great high priest. 16 We must go boldly to the throne of grace.

THE REST: Compounded of KATA: - Down, speaking of permanency, and PAUO - To cease or desist: Thus abiding in a permanent rest. Katapausin is Greek equivalent of the Hebrew MENUCHAH. (O.T. p. 396) Cf. Josh 21:44; 22:4; 23:1.

Moses did not provide the generation that came out of Egypt with such an abode as David revealed. Ps 95:11. He pleaded with his generation to avoid the mistakes of that one. Ps 95:7

The Rest provided in Christ Mat 11:28-30

Is a resting from the works of sin. Heb 4:10.

Christ provides this by providing the motive power to overcome + the forgiveness of sin when they do occur. Moses could not provide that. The Rest of Ps 95 = MENUCHAH - that of Josh. above = Nuwach

The Christians' rest HEBREWS 4. is attained by faith.

CHAPTER 4.

1 GREATER LEADER THAN JOSHUA
REST AVAILABLE IN CHRIST

Acceptance of Christianity brought persecution and trouble. There was a danger that believers might consider that an evidence that the Truth was not in Christ, for did he not promise a rest. Mat 11:28-30.

1 Gr. Hustero. - "to come late" It could be reasoned because of prevailing persecution that the Truth had come "too late" to provide them with promised rest, the Apostle proceeds to show the rest still available, and also the nature of it. v 2.

2 The promise made to us is fulfilled, just as Yahweh's doctored rejection of the generation that came out of Egypt was fulfilled.

3 Cf. v 5 = "just as He said..." cited from Ps 95:11.

4 These works exhibited His intentions towards His people.

5 Gr. Ginomai - To cause to exist. Wuest: "Constituted."

6 Kosmos. - Not physical earth. Yahweh's intentions regarding Rest were dramatised at foundation of Adamic Kosmos and also at Mosaic. Gen 2:3 Ex 31:17

7 This proves that there is a rest to enter.

8 This identifies the rest promised with Yahweh's "rest."

9 Yahweh having provided a rest, His purpose must be fulfilled. The generation that came out of Egypt did not attain unto it - Thus the promise of it still remains.

10 It might be argued that the generation that entered the land under Joshua enters into rest and so the Promise is fulfilled, but here is a man 400 yrs after inviting men to the rest - showing it still unfulfilled. Cf Deut. Dan 10:15

11 Gr. Sabbatismos - a different word to that above and below. The Keeping of the Sabbath foreshadows the complete rest of the millennium.

12 This exhibits the present "keeping of sabbath" foreshadowed in the Mosaic institution Col 2:16. Lev 23:3, 7, 21, 24.

EXHORTATION TO SEEK TRUE REST. vv. 11-13.

11 Spoudazo - hasten, exert oneself, give diligence. Used in papyri in sense of "do your best." Speaks of intensity of purpose, with intensity of effort to that end. And the end - Resting from works of flesh. So we "labor" to "rest."

12 The Word which reveals the way to rest is also able to determine any insincerity on behalf of the believer in attaining to

20 Aphistemi - "Apo" - "off" Histemi - "To stand." To stand aloof. Apostasy is derived from this word

13 Gr. Kalapausin - "to cease or desist" The rest from slavery of Egypt. The generation that left Egypt did not attain unto the true rest.

14 Gr Poneros - Evil in active opposition to good

15 The possession of sin and needing suppression Mat 15:19

16 Aphistemi. "Apo" - "off" Histemi - "To stand." To stand aloof. Apostasy is derived from this word

17 Gr. Dokimazo - "Put to test to approve if he meets the test." Israel did this 40 yrs not being satisfied with the original demonstration of power and goodness they lacked faith to accept Yahweh.

18 Whatever they might say in word

19 Gr. Apistia - Lack of faith

20 Hypostasis Cp Heb 1:3

21 The Nestle Greek text accents the word as the interrogative, and thus makes a question of it. "For who having heard did provoke?" But was it not all who came out of Egypt through the instrumentality of Moses? That generation perished.

22 Apeitho - Not to allow one's self to be persuaded - Not to comply with - to refuse or withhold belief - to be disobedient = non persuasible, i.e. stiff necked, obstinate. Gr. Apistia = Lack of faith

THE END Ch. 3:6.

From TELLO - To set out for a definite point or goal - Str. Accomplished in Christ not Moses. Heb. 7:11. Cp. Heb. 3:14 6:8, 11.

20 For the word of God is z quick, and powerful, and y sharper than any [z] twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of [a] soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is [b] a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
13 Neither is there any [c] creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.
15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.
16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

1 CHRIST'S PRIESTHOOD. 5 HIS GLORY. 7 HIS HUMILIATION. 11 THE HEBREWS' DULLNESS.

1 For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:
2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.
3 And by reason hereof he ought,
as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.
4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.
5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest;
but he that said unto him, [d] Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.
6 As he saith also in another place, [e] Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.
7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;
8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;
9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;
10 Called of God a high priest
after the order of Melchisedec.

1 Authority and honour of Christ's priesthood.
11 Negligence in the knowledge thereof reproved.

FOR every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer [2] both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 Who [c] can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedec.

11 Of whom [p] we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are [4] dull of hearing.

12 For when [t] for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk [5] is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is [m] a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are [u] of full age, even those who by reason [6] of use have their [v] senses exercised [w] to discern both good and evil.

THEREFORE leaving [7] the [x] principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance [y] from dead works, and of faith toward God,

7 For the earth [e] which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them [3] by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:

8 But [f] that which beareth thorns and briers is [g] rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 [h] For God is not unrighteous [i] to forget your work and labour of love, which [k] ye have shewed toward his name, in that [l] ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence to the full assurance of [m] hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not [n] slothful, but [o] followers of them who through faith and patience inherit [p] the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, [q] he sware by himself,

14 Saying, [r] Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

20 Whither [k] the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made [l] an high priest [m] for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, 11 and so, far more excellent than the priests of Aaron's order.

FOR this [p] Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

3 Without father, without mother, [4] without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto [q] the Son of God; abideth a priest [r] continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily [s] they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though [t] they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 But he whose [5] descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed [l] him that had the promises.

13 It constituted a type of the Lord.

BETTER TITHING vv 4-5.

The voluntary tithing that Melchizedek received from Abraham was an acknowledgment of a greater priesthood than that received by Levi by compulsion.

GREATER THAN ABRAHAM. vv 6-10.

7 God disregards the result implied in man doubting His Word, and condescends to human procedure by confirming His word by oath.

8 Sig first-father. "Akrothinion" — "Akron" = the topmost point. "This" = A heap. A tenth of the top of the pile, the pick of the spoil. For significance of tithing see Note. Num. 18:24
9 Tithing by Law implied no acknowledgment of inferiority, but mere compliance to Law. Abram's tithing was voluntary in acknowledgment that Melchizedek was greater than he.

V.6. "Seeing" No specific Greek word. The tense changes and becomes present (See Dragloff). The tense indicates something continuing now. Better rendered "whilst they are crucifying..." (See RVmg). There must be complete reformation Shown in ability to perform miracles Heb. 2:4; 6:5; 8:4 etc.

There was a danger of this to such backward believers.
The Apostle has not in mind a mere drifting from the Truth, but an open repudiation of Christ as a saving sacrifice, and a turning to other means for a covering. Such implied that Christ was a sham and endorsed the action of the Jews in crucifying him as a criminal.

17 Therefore Melchizedek is greater than Abraham and his priestly appointment of Christ greater than his natural descent. The only record of M. is in relation to his life. There is no record of his death as in the case of Levi. The only knowledge we have of M. is of a living person, the type of Christ. This is type, he is treated as continually living.

Levi was subordinate to Abraham.

A CHANGE OF PRIESTHOOD ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY 11-17.

Gr. "Teleiosis" – the completion of a matter. Cp. Lk 13:32. The purpose of priesthood was to remove the obstacle sin and make a way of access for man to God. The Levitical priesthood could not accomplish this – therefore it could not complete the purpose of priesthood.

But that there was to be another priesthood was shown by the prophecy of Ps 110. arguing the insufficiency of the Levitical priesthood.

Ie. another kind of priest

The Law that appointed priests appointed them according to fleshly descent. Such a priest could not bring perfection.

THE VIRTUES OF CHRIST'S PRIESTHOOD. Vv. 15-28

Gr. Dia "On account of." Sin makes us weak, bringing us under the power of death. The Law was unable to justify from this state. It therefore left men "without strength" Rom. 5:6 Gal. 4:9.

The Law revealed the sinfulness of sin Rom. 7:13, and showed the need of a redeemer, but did not fill that need.

From "Teleioo" – Complete. See Note. 9:11.

The Aaronic priests automatically assumed their position through the accident of birth and not by appointment. Christ's appointment needed confirmation by an oath, showing that his was by merit.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.
8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom [c] it is witnessed that [d] he liveth.
9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.
10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.
11 [e] If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise [1] after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?
12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.
13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.
14 For it is evident that our Lord [r] sprang out of [s] Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.
15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest,
16 Who is made, not after the law of [u] a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.
17 For he testifieth, [b] Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.
18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for [z] the weakness and unprofitableness thereof.
19 For [1] the law made nothing perfect, [2] but the bringing in of [a] a better hope did; by the which [m] we draw nigh unto God.
20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:
21 (For those priests were made [7] without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, [g] The Lord sware and will not [b] repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)
22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of [c] a better [f] testament.
23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:
24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath [2] an unchangeable priesthood.
25 Wherefore he is able also to save them [3] to the uttermost [h] that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth [k] to make intercession for them.
26 For such [l] an high priest became us, who is [m] holy, harmless, undefiled, [n] separate from sinners, and made [o] higher than the heavens;
27 Who needeth not [p] daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, [q] first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for [r] this he did [s] once, when he offered up himself.
28 For the law maketh men high priests [z] which have infirmity; but the word of [t] the oath, which was since the law, maketh [z] the Son, who is [4] consecrated for evermore.

should not be a priest, seeing that [2]there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and [b]shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, [c]See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a [f]more excellent ministry, by how much also he is [h]the mediator of a [l]better [4]covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For [o]if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, [r]Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For [a]this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will [6]put my laws into their mind, and write them [7]in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. [74] Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is [a]ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9.
A BETTER SANCTUARY VV.1-14
THE OLD. VV.1-7.
1 Kosmikon - pertaining to the existing system.
2 Gr. Tent, ie dwelling.

THE HEAVENLY THINGS – Christ is the antitypical priest Heb 9:11, brazen Altar Heb 13:10 Tabernacle Heb 8:2 Lightstand Jhn 8:12. Golden Altar of Incense Jhn 16:23 Veil Heb 10:20. Laver Rev 15:13 Mercy Seat Rom 3:25.
All atoned for Lev 16:16-20. The priests bore the iniquity of the Sanctuary Num 18:1-2.

BLOOD OF OTHERS. Allotrio = foreign, read aliens Heb. 11:34. for there is no affinity between Aaron and the blood of bullocks + goats. But contrast that of the Lord Heb. 9:12; 13:12, 20.

17 Gr. "Diorthosis" – "making straight" or "setting right". The offering of Christ did that.

A BETTER SACRIFICE Heb 11-14

A rejected reading. The better mss = "of good things realized" (See RSV). The benefits in Christ are now and available and not only in the future. Num 4:18

11 Gr. Ktisis - often used for a state as well as something created. Here points to the Jewish State. See note Mark 16:15 Rendered ordinance Heb 9:10 "Creature" 2 Cor 5:17

Used on Day of Atonement.

Gr. "Idios." – It signifies not merely common ownership (as would "autos" (ie blood in common with all others) but a personal, private, unique ownership. See use Jhn 5:18. The blood of Jesus was unique, personal, because it was that of a man who never sinned.

Zech 9:11 Heb 9:12, 15 Eph 1:7 Col 1:14

Redemption = "Lutron" Ransom money paid to release a slave. In that sense the Lord is previously under dominance of death.

Here ceremonial defilement is referred to. It was altered for the Day of Atonement, or, in the case of contact with dead body. The ashes of the heifer that day, then, the Israelite was "unclean" – the word (Koinos) means "to make common, render unhallowed, or profane." The unclean Israelite was "cut off bodily" as to participation in the Tabernacle service, until he had fulfilled the ritual of the Law, when, notwithstanding his mental or spiritual condition his bodily presence was permitted to "flesh" was thus "sanctified" = "set apart for God," or ceremonially purified.

The beasts offered in sacrifice had no will or morality of their own to make the offering efficacious – they took their part in the service without knowledge of what was going on or its significance.

The Spirit (Morality) of everlasting worth. Christ's character was manifestation of spirit. And it was the righteousness of Christ in life – his willingness to submit to the Father's will that made his shed blood so potent. For the forgiveness of sins.

SACRIFICE Heb 9:23

23 Or "patterns," referred both "Testament" and "covenant" in 9:1. The word selected in LXX for "Berith" – Covenant. The passing through of a divided sacrifice by the contracting parties signified the making of a covenant, the two parties thus united in agreement. Gen 15:10 Jer 34:18 Heb 13:20

26 The efficacy of Christ's sacrifice stretched backward as well as forward.

28 "For where a covenant is, the death of the covenant-victim to come in is necessary; for a covenant over dead victims is steadfast since it is no force at all while the covenant victim liveth" (Young's Lit see also Diaglotts).

Our covenant victim Rom 11:26-27 Heb 9:28 Isa 42:6 49:6 Zech 9:11

Contrast wicked behaviour Israel, in eating sacrifices to Baal and thus forming an agreement with false worship Ps 106:28 Num 25:3.

20 "From whence it follows."

21 Or "inaugurated."

22 Knowledge precedes acceptance of Covenant.

23 Notice Christ's almost identical words Heb 9:22

"A BODY HAST THOU PREPARED ME" and do: sound, (or the or mad

CHRIST COMPLETED HI Heb 11:19

1 Note the place o our, and the emph Apostle puts upon (9:8) Supported Jewish Scriptures.

For Teleioo see "For ever" = eis dienekes "for continuance" D Occurs Heb 7:28 10 "es" denotes m to or unto an Dr. T. "Perfected fo continuance.

All. trans. "more" Here testifies also the Holy Spirit fo ing said" Th words of Jerem attributed to th and by quoting writer puts the into the position jecting their co that if they rejo new Covenant imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high priest [b] of good things to come, by [c] a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not [d] made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by [f] his own blood he entered in [g] once into [h] the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if [i] the blood of bulls and of goats, and [m] the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more [p] shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without [z] spot to God, [a] purge your conscience [r] from dead works to serve the living God?

15 And for this cause he is [t] the mediator of the [x] new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, [y] they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity [3] be the death of the testator.

17 [c] For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was [4] dedicated without blood.

19 For [e] when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, [o] he took the blood of [5] calves and of goats, with [k] water, and [5] scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

20 Saying, [l] This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover [m] he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and [6] without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that [c] the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of [k] the true; but [l] into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God [n] for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, [o] as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once [s] in the end of the world [u] hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

28 So [z] Christ was once offered to bear the sins of [a] many; and unto them that [b] look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

The Tabernacle and furniture associated with the Mosaic system. Christ and the Saints. He was the antitypical Altar, Sacrifice, Book of the Law etc. all of which were purged with blood. He was accounted unclean because of his contact with a people that are "unclean" Cp Isa 2:24 6:5; 64:6

His offering combined all the sacrifices.

The Levitical priest was compelled to shroud the Ark and glory with incense smoke. Lev 16:12-13 Yahweh cannot look upon iniquity Hab 1:13 and man could not look on Him. Hum 6:16 But Christ bridged this gap, and is face to face with the Creator thus his supremacy again indicated.

CHAPTER 10.

THE BETTER RESULTS ACHIEVED BY NEW COVENANT

LIMITATION OF ANIMAL SACRIFICES V1-4

Implies indefiniteness = unsubstantiality, a mere indication that reality exists Cf.

If the association between Jesus and sin were precisely the same as that between sacrifice and sin, then sacrifice and substance would be the same. The Lord's unique association with sin defined. Heb 2:14-15 Cp 5:2 Thus necessitating Heb 9:12, 13:20

3 Implying no finality, no completeness – sins always brought to mind Cf. 9:9 10:11.

300 Gr. "Teleioo" – "To bring to a state of completeness." This only done by blotting out sins. Cp. Ch 9:22 Ch 10:4

"A BODY HAST THOU PREPARED ME": Compare the variation with the original (Ps 40:6-8). Hebrews is in accordance with the LXX. But why the variation? "Ears open" implies one willing to hear and do: cp Isa. 50:4-6 Mal 2:12. Cf Isa 48:6. Such a one is a "body prepared" for the word signifies "to be sound, fit or complete. Thus the rendering of the LXX explains the figure of the Hebrew and the Apostle (or the Holy Spirit) takes it up here as explanatory of the true significance. Yahweh prepared this body, or made it receptive to His truth. Cp Ps. 80:17. Isa. 11:1-3.

HEBREWS 10.

An exhortation to hold fast the faith.

1 For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an high priest over the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

26 For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that

FAITH: THE MOVING POWER OF THE AGES

CHAPTER 11

Gr. "Hypostasis" — "base" or "foundation." In colloquial Greek hypostasis was a legal term indicating the right to property. May be translated "Title Deeds" Cp Ch. 3: 14.
"Elenchos" — The proof or illustration of a matter. "Faith is a confident anticipation of things hoped for, a full persuasion of things not seen" Dr. T. Faith comes by — Rom. 10: 17.
Faith stretches back into the past as well as reaching forth into the future.
Diag. = "In faith we perceive that the Ages have been so thoroughly adjusted by God's command, that not from things then manifest the things now seen have come to pass."
"framed" is KATARTIZO = to fit or render complete — so each age or dispensation has been adjusted to what requires. The mosaic having run its course was about to be replaced. Heb. 8: 13. All such

"FAITH is the mirror which reflects the things of the approaching future, and presents them to the believer's mind as though he were beholding, and personally in the presence of the very things themselves." - J. Thomas. "Faith in last days" p. 90.

ages had this in common that they were dominated by the Divine requirements in Christ. Acts 1: 2.
"Word" is no longer (Christ's title) but RHEMA — thus God's decree.
The Author of all creation or of the changing ages = God but as He and His power is invisible "the foolish" must accept His reality = purpose V6.

13 These all died [2] in faith, not having received the promises, but (b) having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and (c) confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore [k] God is not ashamed [l] to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them [m] a city.

17 By faith (d) Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,

18 [r] Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God [s] was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a [t] figure.

20 By faith [u] Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith (d) Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith [v] Joseph, when he died, (e) made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith [w] Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

24 By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called [a] the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming [d] the reproach [3] of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto (e) the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith [f] he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, [g] as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith (h) he kept the passover, and [i] the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

29 By faith [m] they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith [p] the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith [q] the harlot Rahab perished not with them (f) that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of [x] Gedeon, and of [z] Barak, and of [z] Samson, and of [a] Jephthae; of [b] David also, and [c] Samuel, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith [e] subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, (f) obtained promises, (g) stopped the mouths of lions,

34 (h) Quenched the violence of fire, (k) escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, (i) turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 [n] Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

"Died in faith" V.13

Died not having received what faith offered, therefore in hope of a resurrection V.16.

FAITH can lift us in to fellowship with the Unseen Heb 10: 22-23 It has the power of realisation, by which the invisible becomes visible, the future becomes present. Faith takes hold of hope & appropriates the future as an experience of the present. Yah weh has framed the ages, so that new dispensations have revealed new experiences: Patriarchal, mosaic or Law, Grace, and finally Kingdom.

V.15 If the country they sought had been the one they had left they could have returned - so if it obviously was not that country they had in mind.

CHAPTER 12.

1 An exhortation to constant faith, patience, and godliness. 22 A commendation of the new testament above the old.

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and [m] the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the [n] author and [o] finisher of our faith; [p] who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and [q] is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For [r] consider him that endured such [s] contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds. = psuche 2 = souls

4 Ye have not yet resisted [t] unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, [u] My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him:

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, [16] and [17] scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, [a] God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, [d] whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us [2] after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, [i] that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth [k] the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore [l] lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And [m] make [4] straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but [n] let it rather be healed.

14 [o] Follow peace with all men, and [p] holiness, [q] without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently [r] lest any man [6] fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any [t] fornicator, or [u] profane person, as Esau, [d] who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, [v] when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no [7] place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

FAITH LEADS UNTO CHRIST vv 1-13

In view of the examples of "let us also lay aside every weight." That is how Nestle Greek text punctuates this verse.

Gr Martus. Used in papyri sense of witnesses to contract, legal document. Cp Heb 11:1. Ethical sense - those prepared to testify unto death = martyrs.

The simile is based upon the Grecian games.

Gr. Ogkon - bulk, mass, hence "superfluous flesh." This requires training, restraint, correct diet, care in bath etc.

Sin likened to the long flowing cloak then worn which the runner threw off lest it hinder him or trip him up.

Involving passive endurance and active persistence.

The runner fixed his gaze upon the object before him Matt 3:11-12; Mark 1:7; Luke 3:16; Acts 13:25

Aphoraō = To turn the eyes away from other things and fix them on something.

Archegon Archē - the first "ago" - to lead. = The chief leader. Cp. He greater than those of ch. 11.

TO TELEIOUS = perfecter.

Anti. = opposite, Instead. (rarely - in addition to) - Str. Diaglott = "in return for."

V 39 "Received not the promise"

Abraham received the promise Ch 6:15 but not the realization of it as this verb requires for Komizo (kom-id-zo) to enter into the enjoyment of it. To lead it, by impl. to carry off - Str.

V. 8. A bastard is one whom the father refuses to acknowledge as a son and who therefore is without a name.

GAMES HELD AT OLYMPIA every 5th year. Inspiring spectacle. Huge concourses assembled thereafter around great amphitheatre. Veterans of bygone contests were given places of honour from which to view the achievements of a younger generation.

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment: Jer 20:2

37 They were [b] stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (c Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. Ge 6:11 Above

39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having [3] provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect. The personal example of Christ Ch. 12:2, 22. Gal 3:23

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

HOW FAITH CAN TRIUMPH OVER TRIALS.

SALUTATION V. 1.

He does not claim to be true brother of the Lord. He who resisted Jesus (See Note p. 137) was brought into bondage to Christ by birth. John 1: who taught that flesh profiteth nothing John 6:63. The tribes then lost only in the sense of Mat. 10:6. Many had accepted Christ Acts 2:1:20.

"Greetings" wishes joy" or "peace" in view of the trials, this greeting could be as empty as Ch. 2:16 but how James expounds it.

MARTYDOM. - According to Josephus, and Hegesippus, a Christian Jew, 160 AD whose story Eusebius accepts, Ananus, the high priest, with the Sanhedrin & Pharisees, taking advantage of the interim between the death of Festus and the arrival of the new Governor, assembled the Sanhedrin & commanded James to denounce Jesus. Instead he loudly proclaimed that he was the Son of God & Judge of the world. He had been taken to one of the Galleries of the Temple for this purpose, but was then hurled down by his enraged enemies & stoned until a chance-able fuller ended his sufferings with a club. He died crying: "Father, forgive them they know not what they do."

HOW FAITH WILL CONQUER CLASS DISTINCTION & SNOBBERY

THE FAILURE: PARTIALITY. Vv 1-4

Evident in an age when equality was watched by distinctions, and many were impoverished because of their profession of faith. The snobbery = hypocrisy of Pharisees set bad example. The equality the truth demanded provided a tremendous contrast. It united the pauper prisoner Paul, the wealthy slave owner Philemon, and the absconding slave Onesimus as one.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith [k]without works is dead? - Rom. 2:6, 13 (RV = In that)

21 Was not Abraham our father justified by works, [l]when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Rom 2:13

22 [f]Seest thou [q]how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect? - brought to completion. RV Reckoned.

23 And [r]the scripture was fulfilled which saith, (l)Abraham believed God, and it was [m]imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called (m)the Friend of God. (Father of Joel)

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only. A Gentile

25 Likewise also [s]was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

CHAPTER 3.

1 We are not rashly or arrogantly to reprove others: 5 but rather to bridle the tongue, a little member, but a powerful instrument of much good and great harm. 13 The truly wise described.

MY brethren, [a]be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater [8]condemnation. Stumble

2 For [b]in many things we offend all. (h)If any man offend not in word, [k]the same is a [l]perfect man, and able also [m]to bridle the whole body. Bridle - RV.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

To lead or govern the Ecclesia wisely. Many people who have learned to control the tongue are far from "perfect" or mature, so this seems to be an appeal to teachers to wisely and maturely conduct their office, whilst warning novices against aspiring to a position they cannot effectively hold. Cp 1 Tim. 3:6 Some who had a gift of a ready flow of speech and who aspired to be teachers had to learn to bridle the tongue Cp Jam. 1:26

THE TONGUE'S POWER FOR EVIL. Vv 3-6.

6 Atimazo = Dishonour. Thus they dishonored those God honored. They showed partiality for flesh, despising Yahweh's family. They were honoring not men, but a class - the very class that persecuted them. Acts 4:1-3. 5:17. 9:1-2, 13-14. The poor as class more gladly heard the gospel. Cp Mth. 11:5. Mk. 12:37. Named on Israel Num. 6:27, constituting them both children Isa 43:6-7, and Bride Isa. 54:5. The Ecclesia having the Name Mth 28:19. Acts 2:38. 8:16. 10:48 = Both Children Heb 2:13 and Bride of Christ. Significance of Name Isa 44:5. Cp Paul 2 Cor 11:10

Basilikos - Belonging to a King. Thus an Imperial mandate enunciated both by the King of Heaven Lev. 19:18 and by Christ Mt. 22:39. Jhn 13:34. 15:12. His decree was in juxtaposition with one that warned against giving respect to persons Lev 19:15. Cp Rom 2:22. 3:14. Mat 19:17. Cp Gal 3:10. Rom 2:17-24.
This statement is Rabbinical expression. The Rabbis taught that a man breaking a single law became under the General condemnation of the Law.

ACT CAREFULLY BECAUSE OF COMING JUDGMENT Vv 12-13.
Eleos. A feeling of sympathy with misery, active compassion, the desire of relieving the miserable. The attitude manifested in Vv 2-3. did not reveal this. We are in need of Divine mercy, for our garments are vile Isa. 64:6, and those manifesting the attitude described were poor Rev. 3:17. sullinger Katakauchaomai. To speak loud against - thus to drown out by noise. Mercy shall speak louder than judgment - that is an adverse sentence Cp Jam. 5:20.

Ch. 4:5. RV = 2 questions: "Think ye that the Scripture speaketh in vain? "Doth the Spirit which He hath made to dwell in us long unto envying?" The implied answer is No. Therefore if those who were acting so flagrantly would listen to Scripture instead of letting it speak in vain, and so act that the spirit word may dominate, God will give a greater grace or pleasure, than they were then experiencing V. 6.
Ch. 1:23. Beholding = from KATANOEO (Behold attentively. James does not condemn a mere careless [illegible] of the word, but the neglect to carry [illegible] into practice what is heard.

13 Not only of the body, but also the Ecclesia.

14 Spiloo = to stain or spot. How often an ungoverned tongue blemishes an otherwise excellent character. Cp Ps 106:32-33 Num 12:1.

15 The heart Ecc 10:7. It causes anger making the heart pump, the blood to flow, the face to flush. It affects the innermost parts of the Ecclesial body. So it can blemish a character, affect the heart, bring down to condemnation. Cp bottom p 310.

1 We are to strive against covetousness, intemperance, 5 pride, 11 detraction, &c.: 13 and, mindful ever of the uncertainty of this life, to commit ourselves and all our affairs to God's providence.

CHAPTER 4.

FAITH AS A PURIFIER OF CHARACTER

THE FAILURE: WARS & FIGHTINGS V.1.

1 The evil of their state is emphasised by the abrupt and terrible change of subject

2 Factions were developed through many rival teachers. Their hostility one to another set a bad example which was followed. Warning 1 Tim. 3:3. Tit. 3:2-9. Example 1 John 3:10.

3 These pleasures did not permit the fruit to ripen Cp Ch 3:18. Luke 8:14. These pleasures were desired resulting in conflict as to what should be obeyed Gen 3:15. Rom 5:5-8. A repetition of Num. 11:4-6. In professing Christ they claimed to have repudiated these things, but they still hankered after them. Adonia Jam 4:1 1 John 3:17.

UNBRIDLED LUST. V.2.

4 Ruthlessly they set about gratifying their lusts, even at the expense of others. They envied and hated those more successful & became murderers in intent if not in fact. 1 John 3:15. Thus they became a ruthless, quarrelling, striving community.

5 They became frustrated receiving neither blessings of this Age nor those of a spiritual nature.

6 Actually they did ask, but not in the correct manner. Cp Ch. 1:7. Ch. 5:16. Isa. 59:1-2.

CHAPTER 5.

DEVELOPES PATIENCE IN ADVERSITY

HOW FAITH PUTS TRUST IN GOD TO REPAY.

RETRIBUTION IS COMING: WARNING TO OPPRESSORS Vv1-6.

1 This is said, not for the benefit of the rich Jews who were oppressing their brethren, who would probably not see the Epistle, but for the oppressed to show that God is not unmindful of their troubles. There was no variableness with the Father of Lights. Ch.1:17.

2 Katrioō - an intensive form of "rioō" — to pelt.

Like Moses. Cp Mat. 6:19-20. In AD 70 the Christians were first attacked by soldiers seeking gain.

3 [f]Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. [g]Ye have heaped treasure together [h]for the last days.

4 Behold, [i]the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and [k]the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of [l]sabaoth.

5 [m]Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 [n]Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 [o]Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 [p]Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over were the appointed of Christ 2 Cor. 11:2. The responsibility this imposes is indicated. Jer. 2:1. 3:14. 4. 8, 10. Cp also Ezek. 16:23. Hos. 2.

THE WARNING: GOD'S JEALOUS. V.5. (The Scriptures speak generally of God's Jealousy)

5 RSV = "Or do you suppose that it is in vain that the scripture says, He yearns jealously over the spirit which he has made to dwell in us?"

Yahweh as a Husband can be roused to jealousy Deut. 32:19-21. Exod 34:13-16. His Spirit-word Jn. 6:63. Eph. 6:17. 1 Jn. 4:6. has separated us unto Him.

THE CORRECTIVE: SEEK THE GIFT OF GRACE V.6. Cp Prov. 3:34 Note.

Grace is true favor or pleasure. They were seeking pleasure but not finding it. V.7. It comes from service to God Isa. 57:15. 1 Pet. 5:5. Cp Phil. 1:6. 2:12-13

PRACTICAL MEANS Vv7-10

10 Hupotasso = Primarily a military term. - To rank under. Thus to discipline 2 Tim. 2:3. Or: To rank under Cp. 1 Thess 5:14 note.

1 This is His promise Heb. 7:19. Jn 6:44. 1 Chron 28:9. 2 Chr. 15:14. Zech. 1:3. It is His love that draws us. 1 Jn 4:19, 19. Rom 5:8. He desires our voluntary affection - not forced compulsion.

Make Chaste. Cp with adulterates. Requires effort 1 Jn 3:2-3.

THE PRINCIPLE: TOWARDS MAN. Vv. 11:12.

1 Christ reduced the law to love of God and Man Mk. 12:28-33. James does likewise. Mal. 2:11-16. 1 Cor. 4:3-5. Rom 14:10.

By his speech he repudiates the Law and sets up his own conduct as a rule of life. Thus it involved a contempt of the law and usurpation of the prerogative of the Judge.

TOWARDS GOD. Vv 13-17.

Those who condemned others were thoughtless of their dependence on God.

There is a definiteness about their plans & city, time purpose that made no provision for the overriding purpose of God.

Cp Ps. 31:15. Prov 27:1. Apoplectic precept 1 Cor. 4:19. 16:7-9. Acts 18:21. Phil 2:24

THE TRIAL OF FAITH LIKE GOLD. CH. 1:7. "The picture is of an ancient gold-smith who puts his crude gold ore in a crucible, subject it to intense heat, and thus liquifies the mass. The impurities rise to the surface and are skimmed off. When the metal worker is able to see the reflection of his face clearly mirrored in the surface of the liquid, he takes it off the fire for he knows that the contents are pure gold. So with Yahweh and His people Cp Ch.

24 Rora Kupto - To look at intently with head bent forward, to stoop down to examine minutely. An allusion to the attitude of the Cherubim intently gazing at the mercy seat. If this intense desire and attitude was manifested by the prophets and angels what should be that of saints!!

2 ITS MANIFESTATION IN A WHOLE LIFETIME

25 An allusion to the girdering around the waist of the long eastern robes that would impede one's progress in running or other exertion. Cp Passages Exod 12 As pilgrims they are to be always ready to be on the move! The aorist tense - something done once for all.

1:6 Teleios = Complete, perfect, seeming. Let this hope dominate your minds.

7 Present participle - That is being brought. Roth: "being borne along to you." Yahweh is even now working to that end through His son. Cp Ch 1:21

8 Manifesting an outward display that conforms to the world about from which we have been taken Ch 1:2

9 If we are really His children we must conform to His character.

10 This is the theme of Peter. Cp. Clee introductory note (1) It is seen there is an active principle regulating and shaping every ordinance of the Law. It was the first book Jewish children studied.

3 THE INFINITE COST OF REDEMPTION. Vv 12-21

11 You recognise Him as your Father by calling on Him as such.

12 This had been brought home to Peter Acts 10:34

13 Personal distrust lest we fall which will lead us to seek God's strength. See the exhortation Rom. 11:20.

14 Life. Eccl 2:12-17 Slavery Lev 25:47-55

16 Both Jew and Gentile were guilty, of this Mark 7:21. Col 3:5

17 His dedicated life. For its value in redemption Ps 49:7-9

18 Foreknown = RV = foreknown beforehand." Same word used for saints Rom 8:29 Eph 1:4,11. It is the Lamb so designated or pre-appointed Rev 13:8

4 THE LIVING WORD 22-25

Their living hope has been brought into existence by the living word and leads to the living foundation Stone.

19 Philadelphia from Philos, love born of liking. They had turned from the world and found mutual companionship in the Truth. This created a common ground for mutual liking. Thus in their common acceptation of these principles they were drawn one to another - all barriers were removed all classes were levelled and unfeigned fervent love resulted, but as Peter himself had learned John 21:15-19, that was not sufficient - it had to develope to the intellectual, sacrificial love of agape Cp 1 Cor 13. "there is plenty of the phileo love among brethren and not sufficient of the agape divine love. The former caused Peter to boast above his brethren, drew him into the Palace where he betrayed him.

20 RV = Begotten. The word in the masculine signifies begettal - feminine = born.

THE LIVING STONES OF THE SPIRITUAL HOUSE. CH. 2:5. ~ In Hebrew "beith" signifies both "house" and "family" Cp 2 Sam. 7:11, "ben" a son, "bath" a daughter and "eben" a stone, whilst the common root is "banah" - he built. A house is built upon "abanim" stones and a family Ps 68:6 is built up of "banim" sons and "banoth" daughters so that they become to the family what stones do to the house.

Cp Prov 17:3. 25:4. Job 28:1,9. 29. Lam. 4:2.

I. PETER 2.

16 Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. Lev 11:44

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: (Lev 25:23)

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers:

19 But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: - Passover

20 Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you,

21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God. (through) (Rom 6:4)

22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

5 Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. Not to shame. Cp Isa 28:16

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, Isa 8:14 Ps 118:22

8 And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed.

10 [c] Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, [d] which war against the soul;

12 [e] Having your [f] conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, [g] whereas they speak against you as [h] evildoers, they may [i] by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of [k] visitation.

13 [l] Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him [m] for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is [n] the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free, and not [o] using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as [p] the servants of God.

17 [q] Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king.

18 Servants, [r] be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is [s] thankworthy, [t] if a man [u] for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is [v] acceptable with God.

21 For even [w] hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered [x] for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 [y] Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

CHAPTER 3.

1 The duty of wives and husbands. 8 Exhortation to unity and love. 13 Christ's benefits of old time.

LIKEWISE, [q] ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any [r] obey not the word, [s] they also may without the word be won by the [t] conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold [u] your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be [x] the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, [y] even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, [z] calling him lord: whose [a] daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, [a] ye husbands, [d] dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker [e] vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; [h] that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye [k] all of one mind, having compassion one of another, [l] love as brethren, be [m] pitiful, be courteous:

9 [n] Not rendering evil for evil, or [o] railing for railing: but contrariwise [q] blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For [r] he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is [s] against them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 But and [b] if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, [d] happy are ye: and [e] be not afraid of their terror, neither [f] be troubled;

15 But [h] sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and [k] be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and [t] fear:

16 Having [o] a good conscience; [p] that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that [r] falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ also hath [u] once [z] suffered for sins, [v] the just for the unjust, [z] that he might bring us to God, being put to death [b] in the flesh, but [c] quickened [c] by the Spirit:

19 By which also he went and [l] preached unto the spirits in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, [i] when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, [i] while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

21 The like [p] figure whereunto even [r] baptism doth also now [s] save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of [w] a good conscience toward God,) [z] by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who [x] is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and [y] authorities and [z] powers being made subject unto him.

CHAPTER 4.

He exhorteth them to cease from sin by the example of Christ, and the approaching end of all things.

[a] FORASMUCH then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for [c] he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 [f] That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to [i] the lusts of men, but to [j] the will of God.

3 For the time past of our life [m] may suffice us [n] to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and [q] abominable idolatries:

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, [s] speaking evil of you:

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready [t] to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause was the gospel preached also [u] to them that are dead, that they might

CHAPTER 5.

1 The elders exhorted to feed their flocks, 5 the younger to obey, 8 and all to be sober and watchful.

1 THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am [a] also an elder, and [b] a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 (c) Feed the flock of God [d] which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; [e] not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as (f) being lords over [g] God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when (c) the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory (f) that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, (g) all of you be subject one to another, and be [h] clothed with [i] humility: for (j) God resisteth [k] the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

6 [l] Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 [l] Casting all your care [m] upon him; for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary [n] the devil, as a roaring lion [o] walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith, knowing that [p] the same afflictions are accomplished in your [q] brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, [r] who hath called us unto his eternal glory by [s] Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, [t] make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 By Silvanus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Marcus my son.

The hearing Rock. Cp 1 Pet. 1:1

Doulos - One who submits his will in that of another. From verb deō - to bind.

Expressive of Divine purpose, and suggesting his • Humanity • Divine manifestation • Sacrifice • Elevation. These express development of Truth, for there can only be manifestation where there is sacrifice of self — and elevation where this is pursued.

Lanchanō - To obtain by lot (Vine), i.e. granted by Divine grace and inheritance — not obtained by personal effort of grasping it.

All have not the same measure of faith, but it is a faith open to all, and admitting all to common privileges in Christ.

Cp Mic for proper trans.

God: the God Cp John 20:28 Acts 5:29 Acts 5:31 Yahweh extended His being in a Son to effect the salvation of man Rom 3:21-26 who is thus the manifestation of the God.

Epignosis - A more personal, intimate and extended understanding than gnosis - which had become then expressive of doubtful doctrines through the activity of the Gnostics Cp 1 Tim 6:20

The separate personalities of God and Christ are here shown proving the expression of V1 relates to manifestation.

Dunamis - Inherent power, from whence - Dynamics. This power stems from Knowledge = understanding Cp Isa 11:2.

THE FALSE TEACHERS 2 PET. 2. They made light of Divine principles and reverence, made a commercial gain of religion, fostered the unreality of sin and goodness, and reduced conduct to a vulgar hedonism (i.e. that pleasure is the sole or chief good in life) so that moral duty was reduced to satisfying the flesh and gratifying it in its cravings.

CHAPTER 1.

He exhorteth them to make their calling and election sure: 12 whereof he is careful to remind them, knowing that his death is at hand.

SIMON Peter, [c] a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained [e] like precious faith with us (2) through the righteousness (1) of God and our Saviour Jesus Christ: (See Note Col. 2:2 1 Jn 5:20)

2 [f] Grace and peace be multiplied unto you [g] through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, (Nōs - Seems they)

3 According as [h] his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and (2) godliness, [i] through the knowledge of [j] him that hath called us [k] to glory and virtue:

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be [l] partakers (2) of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. 2 Tim 3:1-7

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue [m] knowledge; - Gnosis Cp Col 2:3

6 And to knowledge [n] temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; - Acts 24:25

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be (2) barren nor [d] unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things [f] is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was [h] purged from his old sins. Prov. 20:9 Cp Heb 11:13.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence [i] to make your [m] calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, (2) ye shall never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly [p] into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Eph. 2:11 Jude 5

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent [r] to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be (2) established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in (3) this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

Of wicked seducers.

deceivings [a] while [b] they feast with you;
14 Having eyes full of [2] adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:
15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of [c] Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;
16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: [f] the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.
17 These are wells [g] without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.
18 For when [m] they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were [2] clean escaped from them who live in error.
19 While they promise them [3] liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.
20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world [4] through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, [5] the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.
21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from [b] the holy commandment delivered unto them.
22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, [c] The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The certainty of Christ's coming to judgment. 8 He warneth the godly, for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance. 10 The day of the Lord described. 14 He exhorteth to watchfulness.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your [c] pure minds by way of remembrance:
2 That ye may be mindful of the words [d] which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:
3 Knowing this first, that there shall come [1] in the last days scoffers, [2] walking after their own lusts,
4 And saying, [3] Where is the promise of his coming? for since the [4] fathers [5] fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.
5 For this they [6] willingly are ignorant of, that [7] by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth [8] standing out of the water and in the water:
6 Whereby the world that then was, [9] being overflowed with water, perished:
7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto [a] fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.
8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and [z] a thousand years as one day.
9 [1] The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but [z] is longsuffering to us-ward, [2] not willing that any should perish, but [3] that all should come to repentance.
10 But [4] the day of the Lord will come as [5] a thief in the night; [6] in the which [7] the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and [8] the elements

3 DIVINE REVELATION AS AN ANTIDOTE TO POLITICAL CORRUPTION.

1 THE SCOFFERS' CHALLENGE 1-4

RV = Sincere. Eilikrines - Tested by sunlight - Bull.

2 Seeking their own pleasure, unheeding of the Divine will or purpose.

Both: The commandment of the Lord & Savior by your Apostles. Cp. Mt 24:36-42.

Parousia

2 THEIR WILFUL IGNORANCE 5-7

RV: They wilfully forget. Lanthanō = To escape notice. This escapes them.

Physical insignificance. Creation is dependent on God's Word. Ps. 33:6-9. Ps. 33:6

The creation of physical heavens, earth "by God's Word" is typical of figurative heavens, earth. Cp Ps. 102:25-26 with Paul's comment Heb 1:8-10.

Sunistēmi (Sun- with, histēmi - to stand. Here to present a person or thing by way of presenting and commending. (Vine. Trans. "approve" 2 Cor. 7:11. Rom. 3:5) In its intransitive sense (as here - Col. 1:17) to stand with or fall together, to be constituted or compact. RV: "compacted" CB: "consisting."

Dia - Through. Cp Ps. 24:2. 2 Pet. 3:6.

Not the physical world but the political Roman Empire of which the physical was a type.

The very element that helped to bring it into existence, destroyed it. 2 Pet. 3:12. 2 Cor. 5:16. Deut. 32:1. Isa. 1:2.

He is appealing to the prophetic word Ch. 1:19 which knows nothing of the destruction of physical world.

3 THE INEVITABLE JUDGMENT 8-13

Time is only a relative term to eternity. Jehovah, Who is from everlasting to everlasting can afford to wait. See Note Rev. 20:4. 7. There was a millennium "from Adam." Joy at 3 The Inevitable Judgment Vv 8-12. 4 The Assurance of Hope. Vv 13-16.

5 Closing exhortation - The Need for Growth. Vv 17-18.

"WITH THE FATHER" - Pros with Accusative, "implying intimate and closest communion, together with distinct independence." Pros = facing signifying fellowship, implying "an object to be attained" (Bull).

Familiar Used

PROPHECY NOT BY THE WILL OF MAN. 2 Pet. 1:21

- Sometimes without expecting it (old prophet) 1 Kg 13:20
- Sometimes without knowing it (Caiaphas) Jhn 11:51
- Sometimes without desiring it (Balaam) Num. 23:24

THE WORD OF LIFE: Peri (concerning) being in the gen. we govern: the significance of this phrase to mean: The Word who is the Life. Jhn. 1:4. John is defending what he handled with a view to investigation. This was the resurrected body of the Lord, then a body of life, and no longer mortal (thnetos - death-doomed). In the body of the resurrected Lord he saw a nature never before revealed in man.

JAMES.

James 1:8. "Wave": Kludon = billow. RV: Surge. Read. "Raging" Luke 8:24. Kludon = long ridges of water as they are driven in horizontal lines over the vast expanse of sea to end in a tossing white foaming water on the beach - accomplishing nothing.

3 The Inevitable Judgment Vv 8-12 4 The Assurance of Hope Vv 13-16.
5 Closing exhortation - The Need for Growth. Vv 17-18.

"WITH THE FATHER" - Pros with Accusative, "implying intimate and eternal communion, together with distinct independence." Pros - facing its way, implying fellowship, implying "an object to be attained" (Bull).

THE WORD OF LIFE: Peri (concerning) being in the gen. We govern the significance of this phrase to mean: The Word who is the life. John 1:4,16. John is describing what he handled with a view to investigation. This was the resurrected body of the Lord, then a body of life, and no longer mortal (thnetos - death, doomed). In the body of the resurrected Lord he bore a nature never before revealed in man.

18 Figurative Used for Babylon Isa. 13:13 they that dwell therein destroyed Isa. 24:6. Earth. "filleth" Jer. 46:6 see Note "Heavens & Earth" on page.

19 Used to describe Gentile Jewish religious preceptors. Col. 4:5. Col. 2:8,20 and thus relating to the political & religious foundations of society - all dissolved in A.D. 70.

20 Ergon - Deeds, labour etc of common people. Gp Gal 5:19 = the natural result of powerless religion = political expediency such as heaven revealed.

21 The "order" will disintegrate, but the original matter remains to be reformed into V. 13.

22 Prosdokao - Awaiting, expecting.

23 RV: "Earnestly desiring." The destruction of A.D. 70 is typical of that of the Gentiles.

4 THE ASSURANCE OF HOPE Vv 13-16.

24 In contrast to the hopelessness of the world.

25 Spoudazo - To hasten to do, to exert oneself, to manifest zeal. One shall melt with fervent heat, [b] the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, - Gp Ch. 1:3 (Anastrophe: Behaviour)

12 Looking for and [2] hasting unto [h] the coming of [i] the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? Joel 3:11

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for [o] new heavens and a new earth, [o] wherein dwelleth righteousness. Ezek.

14 [p] Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent [r] that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and [s] blameless. Phil Ch. 2:13

(We can work for this. John 14:27)

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN

An Appendix to his Gospel. Written approx. A.D. 90, probably from Ephesus where Eusebius says the Apostle labored.

Gp John 20:31 with 1 John 5:13. John 21:24 - 1 John 3:2,14. John 17:3 - 1 John 5:20.

CHAPTER 1

CHAPTER I.

1 The person of Christ described, in whom we have eternal life. 5 We must walk in the light.

[c] THAT which was from the beginning, which [d] we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which [e] we have looked upon, and [f] our hands have handled, of the Word [h] of life;
2 (For the life [i] was manifested, and we have seen it, and [k] bear witness, and shew [l] unto you [m] that eternal life, [n] which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us;) Prep. facing its case
3 That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship [o] with us: and truly [p] our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.
4 And these things write we unto you, [r] that your joy may be full. (Pleroo - filled full) (RV: "our")

5 [a] This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that [b] God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. (See opp. p. 324)
6 [c] If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: Gp Rev. 19:2, 20:9, 21, 22:15
7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship [d] one with another, and [e] the blood of [m] Jesus Christ his Son [f] cleanseth us from all sin.
8 [g] If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and [r] the truth is not in us. (See top p.)
9 [s] If we confess our sins, he is [t] faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (Re fellowship)
10 If we say that we have not sinned, [u] we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

ANALYSIS Ch 1:1-4 319

1 INTRODUCTION: WHY THE EPISTLE WAS WRITTEN
1 The Truth had been plainly revealed - Ch 1:1-2.
2 Joy is fulfilled in complete fellowship therewith Vv. 3-4.
2 GOD IS LIGHT Ch 1:5 - Ch 2.
1 Fellowship is Predicated upon walking in light Ch. 1:5-2:6
2 Love is the test of true walk Ch 2:7-11.
3 Why it should be revealed Ch 2:12-14.
4 A Love that must be avoided Ch 2:15-17.
5 Warnings against the anti-Christ of darkness Vv 18-27.
6 An Exhortation to abide in Truth Vv 24-29.
3 GOD IS LOVE Ch 3, 4.
1 God's love is shown in our status of sonship Ch 3:1-6.
2 True sonship is revealed in action Ch 3:7-18.
3 Love demonstrated Ch 3:16-18.
4 Love reveals we are of the Truth Ch 3:19-20.
5 Love is shown in repudiating error Ch 4:1-6.
6 Love should be manifested by God's children because it is a Divine attribute Ch 4:7-10.
7 It can only be shown towards those we know Only 4:11-16.
8 Love will stand us in good stead at the Judgement Seat Ch 4:17-21.
4 GOD IS LIFE
1 Life is derived from God 5:1-5.
2 It is revealed through Christ 5:6-12.

5 CLOSING EXHORTATION: NEED FOR GROWTH Vv 17-18

17 Diag. "Being forenamed."
32 Diag. "Deceit of the lawless" 2 Thess 2:8.
33 Growth is dependent on good soil, or personal attitude: congenial atmosphere, or a good Ecclesial association; fruitful-ing rain, or Divine truth Heb 6:7.
5 a The warming, beneficent influence of the sun Eph 5:8.
See Ch 1:3.
12 This is not limited to the Epistle, but refers particularly to the Gospel. Gp John 20:31.
13 Koinonia - Sharing in common, from Koinos - Common. John will share his knowledge of what he has seen, heard & handled, with us.
14 Meta - partnership.
15 The present epistle in addition to the Gospel. Gp Note 12.
16 Earnestness in true fellowship. Gp John 17:13. See 1 Thessalonians
2 GOD IS LIGHT Vv 5-6 Ch 2
This lays the basis for true fellowship and truth, a God's sons must reflect this Divine light.
1 POSITIVE: FELLOWSHIP IS BASED ON ICAED UPON WALKING IN LIGHT
17 Thus fellowship is based on Light. Gp. V. 6. 2:4, 23, 27. 3:6-9. 1 John 5:12.
18 We are false in both words & deed. Gp Rev 21:7,8. 22:15.
19 This unites us as it unites us with God.
20 In Singular number, without definite article. Rules of Grammar = nature, means (absent). Diag: "If we say we have not sin..." Thus we need to recognise our nature, & guard against it. Gp 2 John 7.
21 Homologeo - Homo, the same, logeo - to say - To agree, with another. Thus to acknowledge the reality of sin.
By performing what He has promised.
RV. Righteous. Because provision has been made for this, otherwise He would be unrighteous Rom 3:21-26.
24 His influence through His word can free us from the condemnation of sin. Ps. 119:9.
Pg - our natural condition. This - specific acts of sin.
3 It will be crowned with eternal life Ch 5:11-13.
4 Prayer should be directed to that end Col 4:12.
5 The confidence of proper living Ch 3:21-22.

THE WORD OF LIFE: Peri (concerning) being in the gen. We govern the significance of this phrase to mean: The Word who is the life. John 1:1,6. John is describing what he handled with a view to investigation. This was the resurrected body of the Lord, then a body of life, and no longer mortal (thnetos - death, doomed). In the body of the resurrected Lord he bore a nature never before revealed in man.

26 See in God's longsuffering with the world an opportunity to ensure your own personal salvation.
27 Paul wrote to the Jew and Gentiles to whom Peter was writing 1 Pet. 1:1, and likewise showed that the longsuffering of God was designed for salvation. Eph 2:3-5. Col 1:21. 1 Tim 2:3-4 etc.
28 Paul constantly warned of Moral corruption 2 Thess 3:1-9 Doctrinal corruption 2 Tim 4:1-5. 1 Tim 4:1-3. Acts 20:28. Political corruption & Judgment 2 Thess 1:5-10. 2 Thess 2:1-12.
Peter's action in endorsing Paul's Epistles & advocating that they be studied is an act of great humility in view of Gal 2.
29 Diag. Uninstructed.
30 Strebloo - To twist with a windlass so as to distort. To torture.

5 CLOSING EXHORTATION: NEED FOR GROWTH Vv 17-18

THE SEVEN TESTS: "If we say..."
1 False fellowship: not honest with others 1:6
2 False sanctity: not honest with himself 1:8
3 False righteousness: not honest with Christ 1:10
4 False allegiance: not honest with God 2:4
5 False association: not honest with the world 2:6
6 False understanding: not honest with his brethren 2:9
7 False love: not honest with any body 4:20

THE SEVEN REASONS FOR WRITING
1 To declare things he has seen 1:3
2 That their joy might be full 1:4
3 That they might avoid sin 2:1
4 To remind them of their privileged state 2:12-17
5 To avoid false teaching 2:21-24
6 To avoid false teachers 2:26
7 To show their true relationship to life 5:13

THE SEVEN CHARACTERISTICS OF THE ELECTION
1 They practise righteousness 2:29
2 They avoid sin 3:9
3 They manifest love 4:7
4 They believe on Christ 5:1
5 They love God 5:4
6 They overcome the world 5:4
7 They remain consistent 5:18

CHAPTER 2.

1 He addresses them affectionately as a father. The diminutive is an expression of endearment rather than immaturity or growth - one which he used frequently. Vv 12, 28; 3:7, 18; 4:4; 5:21; and borrowed from Christ. John 13:33. He is both sinless a pattern. Phil 3:17.
2 He has already told them they must walk in light, but that sin is always liable. They might reason they could walk intellectually in light yet sin with impunity putting confidence in forgiveness. The Devil's lie. Specific acts of sin are not habitual sin. These are not to be condoned.
See Note. p. 132. The Spirit-word co-operates with Christ. Rom. 8:26. Eph. 3:16.
Hilasmos. The verb, Hilaskomai rend. Merciful Luke 18:13. Hilasmenon - Mercy Seat Rom. 3:25. Heb. 9:5. Hence Hilasmos - the Cover.
Normal Greek use - to appease.
Christ's sacrifice adequate for every need and will be used for whole world in Age to come. Zech. 14:16.
En toutōi - in this. Here is a practical test as to whether we "know" Him.
Ginōskō - To know by experience. See Note John 17:7.
Occurrences marked in red.
Tereo - To watch over, preserve, guard, keep. Implies not merely obeying, but a watching to obey. To keep the eye fixed upon. To serve. To serve under another. Obey him is one of the headings of knowing his character.
cp. John 17:6. John later defines this love. Cp. 5:3. Note the development. Keeps his precepts. Keeps His Word. Love professed.
Opheilo - To owe. He has a debt to pay.
He was the manifestation of the Father. Cp. Mk 9:37. The real = objective = Eph. 4:20. 2 Cor. 5:21.

2 LOVE IS THE TEST OF A TRUE WALK Vv 7-11.

Best MSS: Agapetoi - Beloved ones. See RV. Cp. 3:21; 4:1.
Kainos - New in quality (not in time which would be neos) or opposed to that worn out or obsolete.
Palaios = Of long duration, old in years.
This could relate to either the beginning of the Christian life, or to the beginning of the Mosaic era Lev. 19:18, but new terms - power had been given this era. cp. Matt. 24:34. Note. Rom. 13:11.
Four can signify: "on the other hand" "In another sense" Gr. "ho" in neuter gender whilst "commandment" is feminine. This therefore does not relate to the commandment, but to the new form manifested in relation to it which Christ exhibited and John claimed they were receiving.
Gr. - present tense. Diego = "is passing away." (RV alio). Cp. Rev. 4:1.
15 Alethinos - real, ideal, genuine - in contrast to the shadowy or typical. See Note John 1:9.
Even though he may claim the Light is shining, Truth must be manifested in action, not merely in doctrine.
See 1 John 1:6 for what is implied.
Skandalon - the spring of the trap that ensnares. If is neither there for him... nor is he the cause of it.

CHAPTER 2.
1 Of Christ our advocate and propitiation. 3 Rightly to know God is to keep his commandments, &c.

Teknia

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, [c] we have an [d] advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:
2 And [e] he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but [f] also for the sins of the whole world.
3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we [g] keep his commandments.
4 [h] He that saith, [k] I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, [m] is a liar, and "the truth is not in him.
5 But whoso [p] keepeth his word, [q] in him verily is the love of God perfected: [r] hereby know we that we are in him.
6 He that saith he [s] abideth in him ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.
7 Brethren, [t] I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment [u] which ye had from the beginning. [v] The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.
8 Again, [w] a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the [x] darkness is past, and [y] the true light now shineth.
9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, [z] is in darkness even until now.
10 [a] He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and [b] there is none [2] occasion of stumbling in him.
11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and [c] walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that [d] darkness hath blinded his eyes.
12 I write unto you, little children, because [e] your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.
13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome [f] the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.
14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because [g] ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.
15 [h] Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. [i] If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and [3] the lust of the eyes, and [4] the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.
17 And [k] the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.
18 Little children, [l] it is the last time: and as ye have heard that [m] antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.
19 [n] They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, [o] they would doubtless have continued with us: but they went out, [p] that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.
20 But ye have [q] an unction from the Holy One, and [r] ye know all things.
21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because [s] ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.
22 Who is a liar but [t] he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.

3 Gr. The lust - The supreme lie. Rev. 22:15.
4 They deny the principle of God manifestation. John's Gospel + Epistle were written to emphasise this doctrine.
Gr. The antichrist.
They do this by maintaining that the flesh could accomplish unbided that which Yahweh wrought through His Son.

LITTLE CHILDREN This term was used by the Lord Jesus to his disciples after Judas "had gone out from them" indicating that he "was not of them" Vv 12-ff. Cp John 13:31-35.

THE SEVEN CONTRASTS
1. Light vv. Darkness ... 1:5-2:11
2. The Father vv the World ... 2:12-17
3. Christ Vv. Anti-Christ ... 2:18-28
4. Right Vv Wrong ... 2:29-3:24
5. Spirit of Truth Vs Spirit of Error 4:1-6
6. Love Vs Hypocrisy ... 4:7-21
7. The God-begotten Vs the Fleshly 5:1-21

"The devil sinneth from the beginning" V.8 — See Index on "Devil" The Serpent (Devil) symbolized Sins-flesh (Gen. 3:15 Num. 21:4 John 8:44; 8:38; 1:1&2) Sinful men (Ps. 53:4. 14:3. 2 Cor. 11:3). The fatal results of sin (Num. 21 Amos 9:3 Jer. 5:17) the temptations of sin Deut. 8:15, sin politically manifested 1 Ki 14:29; 27:1 Rev. 12:9, 14; 15 20:2 Those governed by the flesh who crucified Christ. Mat. 12:34. 23:33.

"A NEW COMMANDMENT" Ch 2:8 New light + force is given to the old Command Lev 19:18 Christ illustrated the full requirements of it, thus transforming it into reality John 13:34 Rom 13:8-10. Eph 5:25 The Law could command but not enforce. The Israelite could hide hate in his heart, but Christ could read it.

50 By repudiating the principle of God manifestation.

51 Homologeo - "To speak the same things as another does" The words in italics are inserted in many Greek texts as also in RV.

AN EXHORTATION TO ABIDE IN TRUTH Vv 24-27

52 Meno - Rendered "remain" and "continue." It signifies - to be at home - and not merely to dwell.

53 If they held fast to truth, they should continue to receive fellowship. The errorists had not done so.

54 In V16-17 two reasons for avoiding the world - (1) It is alien to the Father. (2) It is passing away. Here two reasons are given to cleave to Truth: (1) It unites with the Father. (2) It promises Eternal life.

55 Christ - 4:20. 2 Thes 3:16

56 RV: "And as for you..."

57 Tis - any one. They may need guidance from man Acts 8:31 but the actual instruction is rightly come from God 1 Thes 4:9. 1 Jn 2:27. 4:13. See Note 20:31

58 So John 6:63. The Spirit of anointing combines the meaning, effectiveness and power of Truth, and therefore "is true" (RV. Dng)

59 John 15:4-7.

60 Some read "whatever" (Osse) "whensoever" implies uncertainty as to time. Others "when" the future probability. The need to be constantly abiding in him, so that at the time of the return, they may receive him with confidence.

61 Parresia also rendered "free speaking" 2 Cor 3:12. 7:4. 14:11.

62 Apo - from, away from (Bull) Thus separation from him in shame.

63 Oida - a fellowship knowledge with personal intimate understanding (Ginosko) that one practises fruit. See Note 2:4 Absolute knowledge (Oida) will lead to experimental knowledge (Ginosko). Like Ek - out of. Like Ek out of Adam. We are begotten of Christ. Rom 2:29. Gal. 4:19. Ezek. 36:25. 1 Pet. 1:23. Christ's example must become the moulding of our actions.

3 GOD IS LOVE Ch 3:1

3 GOD'S LOVE IS SHOWN IN OUR STATUS OF SONSHIP Vv 1-6.

1 Plural (See Diag.) - Behold all of you!

2 Potapos - from what country - how foreign is the love of God. John 8:16. Rom 5:5

3 Hagno - purpose or goal

4 Teknon, related to Tikto to give birth to. Thus children by begettal. 1 Pet 1:23 RV add: "and such we are"

23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also. (RV - "hath" - "has" - continual)

24 Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father. Heb 8:10-12.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you. (Spiritual adultery. Jas 4:4)

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. (1 Jn 1:5-6) (Teknia Vv 1)

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him. (Begotten. Gp Note 1 Jn 2:29)

CHAPTER 3.

The singular love of God in making us his sons.

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is. (Phaneroo - Visibly manifested)

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

(mentally, does not reveal itself in them by fruit. Cp John 17:3. Gp John 17:26)

Optomai, passive. "It has not yet ever been made manifest or visible" (phaneroo) - ephanerothe). RV mg = "it" Construction of sentence favors this.

Shall have been changed into his likeness Phil 3:20. which will reveal our development into complete sons (Huios) Rom 8:19-23.

Hoti - because - "introduces that which rests upon a patent fact" - Bull.

Opsometha - future tense, middle voice, of Horao, to see. To see for oneself, but it implies more than mere physical sight, involving a discerning perceptive mind. "It denotes, not the action of seeing, but the state of him, and the affection of the mind of him to whose eye or mind the object presented, he truly comprehend or knows" (Bull)

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law. (See another definition Ch 5:17.)

5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him. (Horao - seen with discernment)

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. (EK)

8 He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. (In the sense of Dios. RV begotten) (EK)

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother. (Tekna - See Note 1 Jn 2:29) (Gal 1:8)

11 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. (The devil V.10)

12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous. See also Ps 106:16 Num. 11:29

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you. (1 John 2:9-11)

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. (En - in the sphere of)

15 Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid

321 The redeemed will gaze upon Christ with the realisation that they are one with him both mentally and physically John 17:22. 2 Pet. 1:4

11 Epi - Upon. Resting upon him.

1 DIVINE SONSHIP IS INCOMPATIBLE WITH SIN. Vv 4-9.

Wherefore exists the need to purify

14 RV - Doeth is a continuous habit. Beg. "practises." Sin has the definite article (ten) - the Sin in Greek is Sin in its complete sense - sin in the absolute sense.

15 Lit. "Doeth" (ie habitually) the lawlessness.

16 Lit. "the sin is the lawlessness" "transgression of the law" - one word anomia - names (law) and the no-law, or lawlessness. The one concerned is not governed by law and refuses to be subject to it. he does as he pleases, and practises lawlessness.

17 Gr. "the sins" - all sin, wherever it is manifested Gal 1:4. Thus it is incompatible for sons of God to be doing that which Christ appeared to destroy.

18 To "abide" + to "sin" designate character - therefore relates to habitual action - not to individual acts of sin Gal 1:9. 2:21. Sin is defined as "lawlessness" or ignoring law thus ordaining the right to sin. Gp John 8:34. 2 Pet 2:19.

19 Teknia - having relation to the fact of birth. See Note Ch 1:7, 12. - Spiritual birth.

20 Planao - lead astray i.e. into the belief that character + profession and practice can be separated.

21 We must build into our lives the Divine attributes seen in the Lord Jesus.

22 Sin has already been defined as "doing lawlessness" i.e. so acting as to ignore law and so assume that the evil done does not violate law. Such a one does not sin.

23 The flesh. Sin in action.

24 Dwg. "Begetting" - perfect tense. 1 Pet. 1:23 Teknia "of" = Ek.

26 RV: "Doeth no sin" - referring to "a continuous practice" Vine. Bearing in mind the context Ch 1:8. 3:4. considering sin as lawlessness - performing that act without acknowledging it breaks Law.

27 Sonship is predicated on

3 TRUE SONSHIP IS REVEALED BY ACTION Vv 10-15.

28 This is the sweeping test of true sonship

29 Sphazo - To slay in sacrifice as in Rev 5:6 but not necessarily so.

John provides for no neutral ground of indifference. We either love or hate in the Truth.

31 By intent Mt. 5:21, 27-28. restraining the influence of his father, the flesh Jn 5:44

32 The seed has failed to make 1 Pet 1:23-25.

4 LOVE DEMONSTRATED Vv 16-18

33 Ginosko - experimentally known - See Note Ch 2:3, 24. We have come to understand what love is. See Index on "Love." Cp John 8:44. The effacement of self to aid an enemy is the quintessence of love Rom 5:6-10. 1 Cor. 13.

BELOVED – Agapetos = those receiving agape Ch.2:16. used. Ch.2:7. 3:2, 21. 4:1, 7, 11 2 John 2, 5, 11. Being beloved of God, they should manifest this love on toward another.

was pardoned but ultimately perished for the nation did not profit from its privilege Num.14:20 Ps. 99:8

ON THE FORGIVENESS OF SIN 1 JOHN 1:9 – To be effective prayer must be offered in humility Job 22:29. Jam. 4:6, 10. But more than prayer is required, even "fruit meet for repentance" Matt. 3: 8 John 9:31. Mark 11:26. Matt. 7:23. Israel's prayers were thus rejected Isa. 1:15. 1 Sam. 3:14 Isa. 24:4 Jer. 2:22. God forgives "for Mine own sake" Isa. 43:25. in His mercy and for His purpose. Forgiveness is the cancelling of an insult. It establishes nothing but the graciousness & mercy of the forgiver. It conveys no merit for reward. It merely clears the ground for continued approach. Without forgiveness our case is hopeless. – with it our future is not assured. Israel ↩

34 We have a moral obligation to do this Gp Eph. 5:2. 1 John 2:25.

The obligation of mutual love.

35 Theoreō – not merely a passing glance, but steadily contemplates. – a careful perusal of details in the object." Vine. Emphasis has been laid on Christ's offering as an example of agape love, but for us it can be manifested in little unobtrusive service. John 13:34. Eph. 5:21, 22. 6:1, 5.

down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But [a] whoso hath this world's good, and seeth [b] his brother have need, and shutteth up [c] his bowels of compassion from him, [d] how dwelleth the love of God in him? (Teknia) (Agapetos – Divine love)

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are [e] of the truth, and [f] shall [g] assure our hearts before him.

20 For [m] if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then [n] have we confidence toward God.

22 And [r] whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments [b] dwelleth in him, and [c] he in him. And [e] hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER 4.

He warneth them not to believe all teachers who boast of the Spirit, but to try the spirits, &c. (Agapetos – Those experiencing agape love)

BELOVED, [o] believe not every spirit, [t] but [t] try the spirits whether they are of God: because [m] many [n] false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: [q] Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ [r] is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And every spirit [s] that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of [z] antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are [a] of God, little children, and have overcome them: because [b] greater is he that is in you, [i] than [d] he that is in the world.

5 They are [e] of the world: therefore speak they [l] of the world, and [g] the world heareth them.

6 We are [k] of God: [h] he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 [p] He that loveth not [p] knoweth not God; for [q] God is love.

9 [r] In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that [s] God sent his only begotten Son into the world, [t] that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, [z] not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be [z] the propitiation for our sins. (See above)

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, [a] we ought also to love one another. (Opheilo – more than debt)

12 [d] No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, [f] God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit. (Fellowship) (Communion, sharing)

14 And [k] we have seen and do testify that [k] the Father sent the Son to be [l] the Saviour of the world.

15 [o] Whosoever shall confess [p] that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed [q] the love that God hath to us. [q] God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is [a] our love made

23 En – In us. In our case, but also possibly manifested in us.

5 LOVE IS SHOWN IN REPUDIATING ERROR Vv1-6.

Dokimazo – Put to the test with the object of approving. Whether manifested as a saving truth through the anointing. – God manifest in the flesh. For the Apostle for words eliminating the "confess Jesus" is to [illegible]

5 LOVE REVEALS THAT WE ARE OF THE TRUTH Vv2-6

Logos – Doctrine. – Word of revelation. It must centre in doctrine, but [illegible]

En – In the sphere of.
Teireo – To keep safe. Vine. "to tranquillize" – Prayer. In His sight – under His scrutiny. Cp Ellen 12:1. Truth in action will tranquilize our hearts in spite of sins. Cp the example of David Ps 51. His agony to God stead him in good stead when he was in need of mercy. Acts 3:19

If our conscience condemns us with the knowledge & fact of sin, we can be tranquillised or pacified by the knowledge of love perfected in truth.

He is more discerning than conscience and can penetrate to every motive of our actions – therefore the need to be circumspect in all our ways.

Therefore the ideal is to so live before Him, that our conscience does not condemn us. We can receive His help to conquer the flesh. Cp 1 John 3:24.

Tereo – To watch over, guard. Note the use of the phrase 2 Tim. 4:7.

This constitutes abiding in him which is a necessary prerequisite for successful prayer. 1 John 3:7

More than love is necessary for essential – Belief. Pisteuo – confidence, trust. Name – character, purpose. That God manifestation, atonement, cleansing. Out of this the example will be manifested here.

Indicating intimate fellowship. Gen. 18:1. 23.

CHAPTER 4.

5 LOVE IS SHOWN IN REPUDIATING ERROR Vv1-6.

Pneuma – the breathing forth of a doctrine. Cp 1 John 4:6

6 LOVE CAN ONLY BE REVEALED TOWARDS THOSE WE KNOW IN HIM

14 By so doing we show our love for God 1 Tim. 4:10
20 Cp John 14:15. The miracle is that revealed through us.

Teleioō – to bring to completion. Col. 3:14. Cp 2 Cor. 12:9.

22 En – out of. Love is the truth in action and is a fruit of the spirit word. 1 John 3:6. Gal. 5:22.

23 The Apostles had seen in the Lord the manifestation of the invisible. John 1:14. To bear witness to the fact was the very office of the Apostles John 15:27. Acts 1:8

24 Homologeo – To speak the same as another speaks. Hence to agree in proclamation of a matter.

25 Thus rejecting theories of pre-existence, Arianism and emphasising the doctrine of God manifest in flesh.

26 The verbs are in the perfect tense, emphasising not only a past completed fact but present objective results.

7 LOVE IS A DIVINE ATTRIBUTE AND GOD'S CHILDREN ARE KNOWN BY THE MANIFESTATION OF IT. Vv 7-10

13 En – It comes from. Ain – not from themselves.
14 Disc. Begotten – because this kind of love comes only from Him.
15 Gr. "The God is love" No article to "love" indicating that this quality is part of His nature. See Note on "God is light" opp. p. 324.
16 Gr. "en the en" in our case. We have personally experienced it.
17 The Gr is more emphatic. ie. "The son of Himself, the only begotten: His Son, His only begotten!" We can never adequately repay that Divine love Cp Rom. 5:8. 1 Jn 15 16.

8 LOVE CAN ONLY BE REVEALED TOWARDS THOSE WE KNOW IN HIM.

Teleioō – to bring to completion. Col. 3:14. Cp 2 Cor. 12:9.
22 En – out of. Love is the truth in action and is a fruit of the spirit word. 1 John 3:6. Gal. 5:22.

perfect, that [a] we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but [c] perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 [f] We love him, because he first loved us.

20 [g] If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, [h] he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, [i] That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAPTER 5.

1 He that loveth God loveth his children, and keepeth his commandments, 3 which are light, and not grievous. 6 The witnesses of our faith.

[k] WHOSOEVER believeth that [l] Jesus is the Christ is [m] born of God: and [n] every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For [b] this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and [d] his commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God [o] overcometh the world: and [p] this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth [q] that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came [r] by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And [s] it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record ~~in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.~~

8 ~~And there are three that bear witness in earth,~~ [t] the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three [u] agree in one.

9 [v] If we receive the witness of men, [w] the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God [x] which he hath testified of his son.

10 He that believeth [y] on the Son of God [z] hath the witness in himself: [a] he that believeth not God [b] hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given [c] to us [d] eternal life, and [e] this life is in his Son.

12 [f] He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 [g] These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, ~~and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.~~

14 And this is the [h] confidence that we have [i] in him, that, [k] if we ask any thing [l] ~~according to his will~~, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, [m] we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and [n] he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. [o] There is a sin unto death: [p] I do not say that he shall pray for it.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN

Some translate "lady" by a proper noun: Kyria - as her name - See Bible.

RV: "gone forth" 1 John 2:19

To as individual - or an Ecclesia? Whatever it was, the one served the other.

2 JOHN

1 INTRODUCTION Vv1-3

1 TO WHOM WRITTEN V1.

1 Presbuteros = elder in age, but also used for rank or office. The title great to a member of the Sanhedrin. John could apply to John

He exhorteth a certain honourable matron, with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief.

EKLEKTE Elect

THE elder unto [d] the elect lady and her children, [e] whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth;
2 For the truth's sake, which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

2 GREETINGS V3.

See Note Gal 1:2. The Gr = "There shall be with us Grace etc."
Eleos - Kindness + goodwill to those who need it. Eirene from eiro "to bind together." John 14:27.

3 [f] Grace [g] be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

3 CONDITION V4.

Ky: Rejoice - present tense. EK. Diog. "some" AV "certain of..." implying strongly that most were not.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children [h] walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.
5 And now I beseech thee, lady, [i] not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, [j] that we love one another.

2 EXPOSITION Vv5-6.

She had been mistaking acts of hospitality + Kindness for love

1 LOVE DEFINED V6

Erotao - To request, beseech. John is somewhat peremptory in tone as he reminds her of earlier instruction - perhaps referring to his earlier epistle. Hence links with it in margin references.

6 And [k] this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

GAIUS: This was an extremely common name, but if he was the one referred to in Rom 16:23 he was converted by John? Also baptised by Paul 1 Cor 1:14? Was a wealthy & hospitable member of the Ecclesia at Corinth.

3 JOHN

1 GAIUS: THE SINCERE DEDICATED, LOVABLE Vv1-8

1 INTRODUCTION V1

Agapetos = "beloved" R.V. Ascribed 4 times. 2 C. 11
An index to his character. He was noted for his manifestation of divine love.

Gaius - Lat - Lockyer, Noted for his sincerity V3. for using means + blessings faithfully for generosity V6.

2 SUPPLICATION V2.

Thus acknowledging that all blessings - even material ones - come from God. Jas 1:17 1 Cor 4:7. 1 Tim 6:17 Luke 5:19. 6:2.

A Bellman in "Light from the Ancient East" shows from papyri that this is normal type of brief wish + does not imply ill-st. Gaius had been ill

Gaius was one whose life was given to the truth + the prayer of the Apostle was that he should prosper physically + materially as he did so spiritually

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

Perhaps the circumstances of the elect lady had been explained by these relations + this was an intimation to that end. The mother of these children not present or dead.

1 He commendeth Gaius for his piety, 5 and hospitality: 9 complaining of ambitious Diotrephes, &c.

THE elder unto the well-beloved [c] Gaius, whom I love [l] in the truth.
2 Beloved, I [m] wish above all things that thou mayest [n] prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.
3 For I [o] rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.
4 I have no greater joy than to hear that [p] my children walk in truth.

[c] 2 John 4.
[l] 2 John 1.
[m] Not as Rom. 16. 23, &c.
[n] Or, truly. ver. 3, 4.
[o] Or, pray.
[p] 1 Cor. 4. 15. Gal. 4. 19. Philem. 10.
[q] 1 Cor. 16. 2.

3 REPUTATION V3.

6 He discloses the reason why he was able to say that "thy soul prospereth"
7 His joy at the conduct of Gaius outweighed his sorrow at the folly of Diotrephes - as a comparison of the expressions used shows.
8 The aged + probably only remaining Apostle apparently received reports of Ecclesial activities from various sources Cp 2 John 4. They were a source of both joy + sorrow.
His walk was consistent with his belief

4 CONSOLATION V4.

RV "Greater joy have I none than this,"
Exousia - mine, denoting possession, power over, authority, right (over) - implying that Gaius was converted by John 3:4 firm resistance without any external appearance of welcome. To do otherwise would be to jeopardise the worship conducted in that home.

5 INFORMATION Vv12-13

1 MANY THINGS TO EXPLAIN V12

20 Boulomai - "A purpose formed after mature consideration" - Bull. John had carefully thought over the matter + had come to the conclusion, that letter writing was a poor medium of expression for the things he had to say + explain - it could so often lead to misunderstanding. So, having written this preliminary letter of warning, the aged apostle, in love, would go out of his way to persuade visit his sister.

8 Warmth of feeling acts of kindness are useless in the absence of a true love have defined.
9 These define + limit love. Cp Deut 7:9-11.

3 EXHORTATION 7-9

1 BEWARE OF DECEIVERS V7-8

10 Planos - To wander, rove, mislead + thus to lead astray. The cognate verb planao freq. used by John. John 7:12. Rev 2:20. 12:9. 13:14. 19:20. 20:3, 8, 10. 1 John 1:8. 2:26. 3:7
11 Blepo Keep a watchful eye upon.
12 RV "ye."
13 Apollumi - destroy ruin. Mt 10:42 - losing a reward. There was a danger of this in that her unwise charity would introduce these deceivers into the flock + the fruits of labor would be lost in that they would no longer abide in the Father + Son V9
14 Mutual labor with the Apostle which had brought some to truth. The Apostle would not be responsible for any loss sustained. 1 Cor 1:14-15. RV: "ye"

2 THEIR EVIL INFLUENCE V9.

16 Best texts: prasso - To lead forth, go before (time). RV: "doeth on word" They led their dupes from out of the abiding place in Christ.

4 APPLICATION Vv10-11

1 FALSE CHARITY TO BE AVOIDED 10-11

17 Ei with indicative mood - assuming the hypothesis as an actual fact. Bull: "If any come as I know they do."
18 The Ecclesia met in homes frequently Rom 16:5 Col 4:15 Acts 12:12. It could have been a woman like Mark's mother to whom John was writing. Her children could have been spiritual ones
19 They would share in the responsibility for all the harm such doctrines could cause. Her love for God + her Ecclesia must

19 Hupolambanō Hupo- under, lambano- take or receive. Thus to sustain from beneath, to hold up. — as the cloud bore up Christ Acts 1:9

1 John 1:2. ETERNAL LIFE WITH THE FATHER.

With * prot with the accusative. Sig. Before, or facing, with motion towards, thus gravitating toward the Father. Eternal life (Divine Nature 2 Pet. 1:4) set up by the Father as the objective of Life by which His children are brought into complete fellowship with Him. It was originally but an abstract principle, but become the reality in Christ.

The message of John is that since the believer is called to be a partaker of this nature and life, it is necessary that he reveal the ethical and spiritual qualities consistent with it as revealed by the Father. Thus Eternal Life "Hors forward" (pros) the Father John 1:1,2.

1 JOHN 1:5. GOD IS LIGHT.

* The word light in the Greek text is without the definite article. The rule of Greek grammar is that the absence of the definite article shows quality, nature, or essence. What the inspired apostle said was "God as to His nature, essence, character is light." That is, "God as a Person has a character or nature that partakes of Light" (Wuest). Thus God dwells corporately in the Heavens as a Being of Light.

Light is the source of health, the revelator of beauty, the destroyer of darkness. The expression tells not only of a Goodness and Truth without flaw, it tells of a Goodness and Truth that are always seeking to spread themselves, to send forth rays that shall penetrate everywhere and scatter the darkness that opposes them." (Mounce - Pul).

1 JOHN 2:13-26. JOHN'S REASONS FOR WRITING

He wrote for mature believers.

I write this Epistle	Reasons for doing so
① All of you children by [illegible]	You have been forgiven
② To the older members	You have Knowledge of the word.
③ To the younger members	You have gained a victory over the Evil one.

I wrote my Gospel	Reasons for doing so
① All of you children by instruction	You have Knowledge of the Father
② To older members	You have Knowledge of the Word.
③ To younger members	You have strength through the abiding Word and have gained victory over the evil one.

Thus the Epistle is as an epilogue to the Gospel & the reasons for writing it were similar.

Gnosticism

"Knowing ones" — This flourished about 2nd Century AD but incipient Gnosticism was in evidence in Apostolic times. 1 Tim. 6:20. The Gnostics claimed a secret knowledge, not based on reflection, inquiry and proof but on a special revelation from Christ & His disciples. The Scriptures were of small account against this special knowledge. Cont. 1 John 1:4.

They rested on the revelation given by prophets since the days of the Lord (See Enc. Brit.). Cf. 1 John 4:1.

They understood the Gospel better than the apostles themselves. It was a mistake to suppose that the historical facts and moral precepts of the Scriptures were to be taken literally. It was still a greater mistake to suppose that the Scriptures contained all that was necessary for man's spiritual wellbeing. There was a higher gnosis, a more profound knowledge; and thus the Gnostic could attain to and impart." (A. Plummer - Pul. Com.)

This led to the following conclusions:

1. Intellectual illumination was of far greater importance than right living.
2. The revelations of the Gnostics was greater than Scripture for it superseded it.
3. There is no real evil in sin and therefore no real need of the atonement.

In addition to the Greek doctrine of the supremacy of intellect most Gnostics blended the Oriental doctrine that all matter is evil. This led to two conclusions

1. If the human body is utterly evil, it must be subdued & chastened to the utmost, that the enlightened spirit might be freed from the burden of so vile an instrument. This led to a form of asceticism. Col 2:18-23.
2. If the human body is utterly evil, it is a matter of indifference what it does; and so worthless an instrument may be allowed to commit any act from which the spirit can derive additional knowledge through experience.

John vigorously challenged both ideas by teaching the doctrine of God manifest in the flesh. He spoke of the reality & glory of the risen Christ Ch. 1:1-2. and emphasised that those who are the begotten of God manifest a spiritual likeness to the Father now, that provides the basis for His physical glory later.

JOHN'S OPPONENTS.

It is suggested that John wrote the 1st Epistle approx A.D. 90 from Ephesus where Eusebius said he ministered.

By then many believers were 2nd or 3rd generation members — and the early enthusiasm had dulled, the pioneering spirit had degenerated into a search for new ideas. Christ had warned that "the love of many would wax cold" Mat. 24:12. and Ephesus itself was warned that "it had lost its first love" Rev. 2:4.

There was a need to rekindle this love. The greatest opponents of Truth now were not those who desired to destroy it — but those who desired to improve it by superimposing their theories on it. The greatest danger came from within. John's ministry seemed to have been partly successful Rev. 2:2.

GNOSTICISM

"Knowledge" - the watchword of the 2nd Century AD. The Gnostic claim was confidence in his own knowledge of God. The Gnostics claimed a secret knowledge not based on reflection, reason and proof, but on a special revelation from God to his disciples. The Scriptures were of some account, but with this special knowledge, John's epistles. They rested on the revelation given by prophets since the days of the Lord (see Eng Bible) Cf. 1 Thes 4:1.

"They understood the Gospel better than the apostles themselves. It was a mistake to suppose that the historical facts are the most important of the Scriptures were to be taken literally. It was still a greater mistake to suppose that the Scriptures contained all that was necessary for man's spiritual wellbeing. There was a higher gnosis, a more profound knowledge, and that the Gnostic could attain to and impart." (A. Plummer - Pul. Com)

This led to the following conclusions:
1. Intellectual illumination was of far greater importance than right living.
2. The revelations of the Gnostic was greater than Scripture for it superseded it.
3. There is no real evil in sin and therefore no real need of the atonement.

In addition to the Greek doctrine of the supremacy of intellect, most Gnostics blended the Oriental doctrine that all matter is evil. This led to two conclusions

1. If the human body is utterly evil, it must be subdued & chastened to the utmost, that the enlightened spirit might be freed from the burden of so vile an instrument. This led to a form of asceticism. Col 2:18-23
2. If the human body is utterly evil, this a matter of indifference what it does; and so worthless an instrument may be allowed to commit any act from which the spirit can derive additional knowledge through experience.

John vigorously challenged both ideas by teaching the doctrine of God manifest in the flesh. He spoke of the reality & glory of the risen Christ Ch 1:1-2. and emphasized that those who have the perception of God manifest in spiritual likeness to the Father more, that provides the basis for the physical glory later.

JOHN'S OPPONENTS.

It is suggested that John wrote the 1st Epistle approx 15-20 yrs from Ephesus where he spent his ministry.

By this time heresy had arisen - and the cause of truth had suffered. The pioneering work of Paul had begun to ripen for more ideas. Error had made its appearance in the Church (Acts 20:29-30) and Ephesus itself was warned that it had lost its first love. Rev 2:4.

The need to separate this love, the deepest elements of truth from error and the heresies which sought to destroy it - but more who sought to impose it & superimpose other ideas on it. The second danger came from within. John's ministry seemed to have been particularly successful.

1 John 1:2. ETERNAL LIFE WITH THE FATHER.

With * prot with the accusative. Sig. Before, or facing with motion towards, thus gravitating towards the Father. Eternal life (Divine Nature 2 Pet 1:4) set up by the Father as the objective of Life by which His children are brought into complete fellowship with Him. It was originally but an abstract principle, but become the reality in Christ.

The message of John is that since the believer is called to be a partaker of this nature and life, it is necessary that he reveal the ethical and spiritual qualities consistent with it as revealed by the Father. Thus: Eternal life "Flows toward" (pros) the Father John 1:1,3

1 JOHN 1:5. GOD is LIGHT

*The word light in the Greek text is without the definite article. The significance of Greek grammar is that the absence of the definite article shows quality, nature, or essence. Thus the inspired apostle says God was not the source, character & light. Thus God as a Person has a character or nature that partakes of Light. (Hiscox) Thus God dwells corporately in the likeness of a Being of Light.

Light is the source of health, the reflector of beauty, the destroyer of darkness. The expression tells "Not only of a Goodness and Truth without flaw; it tells of a Goodness and Truth that are always seeking to spread themselves, to send forth rays that penetrate everywhere and banish the darkness that opposes them." (Spence-Jones).

1 JOHN 2:1-6 John's Reasons for Writing

He wrote for mature believers.

I write this Epistle — Reason for doing so

① All of you children by birth — You have been forgiven for His name's sake

② To the older members — You have known Him who is from the beginning

③ To the younger members — You have overcome the evil one

I wrote my Gospel — Reasons for doing so

① All of you children by instruction — You have knowledge of the Father

② To older members — You have knowledge of the beginning

③ To younger members — You have strength, the word of God abides in you, and have overcome the evil one.

Thus the Epistle is as an epilogue to the Gospel & the reasons for writing were similar.

GNOSTICISM

"Knowing ones" – This flourished in the 2nd Century A.D. but incipient Gnosticism was in evidence in Apostolic times. 1 Tim. 6:20. The Gnostics claimed a secret knowledge not based on reflection, inquiry and prayer, but on a special revelation from Christ to his disciples. The Scriptures were of small account beside this special knowledge. Cerinthus 1 John 5:6.

They rested on the revelation given by prophets since the days of the Lord (See Eng. Bible) Cf. 1 John 4:1.

They understood the Gospel better than the apostles themselves. It was a mistake to suppose that the historical facts and moral precepts of the Scriptures were to be taken literally. It was still a greater mistake to suppose that the Scriptures contained all that was necessary for man's spiritual wellbeing. There was a higher gnosis, a more profound knowledge; and thus the Gnostic could attain to and impart." (A. Plummer - Pul. Com.)

This led to the following conclusions:

1. Intellectual illumination was of far greater importance than right living.
2. The revelations of the Gnostics was greater than Scripture for it superseded it.
3. There is no real evil in sin and therefore no real need of the atonement.

In addition to the Greek doctrine of the 2 DIOTREPHES: THE DOMINEERING SELF-ASSERTIVE, ARROGANT 9-11.

supremacy of intellect, most Gnostics blended the Oriental doctrine that all matter is evil. This led to two conclusions

1. If the human body is utterly evil, it must be subdued & chastened to the utmost, that the enlightened spirit might be freed from the burden of so vile an instrument. This led to a form of asceticism. Col 2:18-23
2. If the human body is utterly evil, it is a matter of indifference what it does; and so worthless an instrument may be allowed to commit any act from which the spirit can derive additional knowledge through experience.

John vigorously challenged both ideas by teaching the doctrine of God manifest in the flesh. He spoke of the reality & glory of the risen Christ Col 1:2 and emphasized that those who are the begotten of God manifest a spiritual likeness to the Father now, that provides the basis for His physical glory later.

JOHN'S OPPONENTS.

It is suggested that John wrote the 1st Epistle approx A.D. 90 from Ephesus where Eusebius said he ministered.

By then many believers were 2nd or 3rd generation members – and the early enthusiasm had dulled, the pioneering spirit had degenerated into a search for new ideas. Christ had warned that "the love of many would wax cold" Matt 24:12 and Ephesus itself was warned that "it had left its first love" Rev 2:4.

There was a need to rekindle this love. The greatest opponents of truth now were not those who desired to destroy it – but those who desired to improve it by superimposing their theories on it. The greatest danger came from within. John's ministry seemed to have been partly successful 2 Cor 2:2.

1 INTRODUCTION Vv 1-4. 2 EXPOSITION Vv 5-6 4 APPLICATION Vv 10-11

JUDE: A fiery Epistle penned in an emergency by a man who had little desire for Ecclesial strife V 3 but was warm in brotherly love (Note the repetition "beloved" 3, 17, 20).

He was the brother of James V.1, but James, who had the reputation to rebuke, had been martyred in 62 (See Introduction to Epistle) Peter, another voice of authority, died, it is thought, about 65. The silencing of these voices of authority required that Jude take up his pen in defence of the faith.

Peter predicted the condition (2 Pet. 2) that had since developed Cp Jude 17, 2 Pet. 3:3. and the very terms used by Jude are those found in 2 Peter 2. They were the "last days" so that he evidently wrote on the eve, or shortly after, A.D 70.

He seems to have written primarily for Jewish believers (as is implied by his constant reference to O.T. and such statements as Enoch's prophecy) and he warns against those who having been delivered from curse of Law, revolted against all restraint and claimed every licence on the grounds of grace and who denied the principle of Christ's authority over their actions, and the doctrine of God-manifestation and the atonement. Thus his attack is not necessarily against the Gnostics.

A Key word is Tereo (tay-reh'-o) rend. "preserved" and "keep" - To keep an eye upon, to watch and thus by impl. To detain. "Reserved" Saints are preserved in Christ Jesus V.1. They must preserve that state V. 21. Called Klētos, from Klesis (See Ecclesia) The word used to summon a man to take office in the service of his community, to partake of a feast as guest to summons to Judgment. Believers are "called to be saints" 1 Cor. 1:2. Hagios, the basic meaning of which is Separation, or to be different! See Note The World's Hatred Bottom p. 151.

The Time of the End Epistle - Peter had predicted the growth of evil in the Ecclesia 2 Pet 2. and particularly at the "time of the end" 2 Pet. 3:3. Jude records the rapid fulfilment of the prophecy Vv 17-18. Though the end was the end of Judah's Commonwealth, it is obvious typical of Gentile times. It was thus to be noted for:

The Apostates

Forsaking the faith leads to deterioration of character:
- loose morals 4
- Corrupt thoughts 8
- Impatience of control 8
- Mocking spirit 18
- Evil speaking 8, 10
- Sham, hypocritical, religious pretence 4, 13.
- Boastfulness 16
- Complaining 16.

The True Witness

- Building on faith 20
- Praying 20
- Keeping in Divine love 21
- Looking to future 21
- Pitying those led astray 22.
- Saving those amenable 23
- Hating evil 23

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the brethren, and to [b] strangers;
6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou [d] bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well:
7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, [h] taking nothing of the Gentiles.
8 We therefore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth.
9 I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not.
10 Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, [l] prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.
11 Beloved, [o] follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. [p] He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil [q] hath not seen God.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE.

He exhorteth them to constancy in the faith, 4 seeing false teachers are crept in to seduce them: for whom a terrible punishment is prepared.

JUDE, [c] the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of [d] James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and [e] preserved in Jesus Christ, and [f] called:
2 Mercy unto you, and [g] peace, and love, be multiplied.
3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the [h] common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that [m] ye should earnestly contend for [n] the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.
4 For [p] there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, [r] turning [s] the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and [t] denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.
5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye [u] once knew this, how that [v] the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward [w] destroyed them that believed not.
6 And the angels [x] which kept not their [z] first estate, but left their own habitation, [a] he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.
7 Even as [b] Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going [c] after [2] strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering [d] the vengeance of eternal fire.
8 Likewise [3] also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.
9 Yet [4] Michael [e] the archangel, when contending with 11 Woe unto them! for [i] they have gone in the way of [k] Cain, and ran greedily after the error of [m] Balaam for reward, and [n] perished in the gainsaying of Core.

THE APOCALYPSE was given to the end that the servants of Deity who are keeping their garments might be able to discern the signs of the times preceding the apocalypse of Christ; and the real nature of things extant in their several generations. No believer understanding this prophecy could be seduced into fellowship with the clerical institutions of this world; because he would see them in all their native deformity and sin.

THE APOCALYPSE

Chapter 1

Verse 4. "Which is, and was, and is to come" - Yahweh immanifestation, in which He is manifested in One 1Sa. 44:6. Will become a Multitude Isa. 44:4. He was - at a revelation, purpose and Name John 1:1-5; He is manifested in flesh perfected John 1:14; 1 Tim. 3:16. Jhn 14:8-9; 20:28; is to come 1 Jhn 3:1-2. Rom 8:2. 2 Pet. 1:4 Rev. 3:12. John. 17:21-23.

"7 Spirits" The one Spirit of Yahweh is shown manifested in the Son in seven ways. Isa. 11:2. The Spirit of Yahweh is the channel through which His purpose is accomplished, Therefore through which grace + peace comes to believers. Christ used the "one Spirit" to deliver 7 different messages to the Ecclesias Cp Rev. 2:1, 7 etc. They are described as 7 Lamps of fire Rev. 4:5. They are "before His Throne" as ministers and servants of the King - and, as such, are identified as the "seven angels" who conveyed the message to John Rev. 8:2. under the direction of the angel who supervised the whole apocalypse Rev. 22:16. The angels are ministering spirits. Heb. 1:14

VERSE 5 "Unto him" - The division of the verse should have been made here where the ascription of praise commences.

VERSE 6. "Kings" - Basileis - Kingdom. "us" - Hemmon- of us. "Made of us a Kingdom - priests unto God" etc. A citation of Exod. 19:6. "Unto God + His Father" RV: "Unto his God + Father." Nowhere in the Apocalypse does Christ claim to occupy the position of God. He is always represented as the manifestation of God not of the second Person of the Trinity. Cp "For ever + ever": J.T.: "for aions of the aions."

28 "Amen": Transliterated from Hebrew into Greek + English. This is a title of Yahweh denoting the certainty of His will being accomplished Deut. 7:9; Isa. 49:7; 65:16. It was also used by the people to express their assent Deut. 27:15. Neh. 8:6. Amen as used by Yahweh = "It is + shall be so." By men = "so let it be." 6 times with son from Cloud - 7 times mentioned. 10:7; 11:12; 14:14, 15, 16.

VERSE 7 "Even so, Amen": A repeated "so be it." One in Greek NAI, the other in Hebrew - Amen, in conformity with the context.

VERSE 8 "The Almighty" - Pantokrator from "pas" - all, and "Krateo" - to hold or have strength. Found in N.T only in 2 Cor. 6:18 (and there a citation for Yahweh Sabaoth) and 9 times in Apocalypse Rev. 1:8; 4:8; 11:17; 15:3; 16:7, 14; 19:15; 21:22 and once rend. "omnipotent" Rev. 19:6. RV: The Lord our God, the Almighty. The word is used in LXX as equivalent to Sabaoth. The Names of Deity such as: "Lord (or God) of hosts." - Kurios Pantokrator. Gen. 5:16; Amos 4:13. Thus the controller of all things! - a title used in the Apocalypse as expressive of His ability to perform that which is therein set down. 2 Kgs. 6:17

VERSE 9 "Patience" Hupomone - an abiding under. John claimed to be a partner with the brethren in the Kingdom (Glory) and patience (suffering) of Jesus Christ - that which might follow from being his friends + followers. 2 Tim. 3:12. Rev. 1:9 Phil. 3:10-11. The abiding under, or submitting patiently to adversity is developed in trial Jam. 1:3; is designed for salvation in character building Luke 21:19; Rom. 12:12; Jam. 1:2. It involves bearing up under trial incidental to service in the Gospel 2 Cor. 6:4; 12:12; 2 Tim. 3:10; divine chastisement Heb. 12:7. Undeserved affliction 1 Pet. 2:20, and also in actively overcoming efforts in face of difficulty - a patient continuance in well doing, bringing forth fruit with patience Luke 8:15, running the race Heb. 12:1. The phrase has been paraphrased "the patient waiting for Christ" in 2 Thess. 3:5 (RV - The patience of Christ) but can express the idea of manifesting the same patience as did Christ Heb. 12:3. 7 Times in Apocalypse 2:2, 3, 19; 3:10; 13:10; 14:12. Patmos. A small rocky island belonging to the group called "Sporades" in the Aegean Ocean. On account of its rocky, barren and desolate nature, the Roman Government used the island as a place of banishment for criminals. The prisoners were compelled to work the mines of the island. The 50 mile square Aegean island has magnificent scenery + the white crags of the shore line + the beauty of the open sea provide appropriate geographical background for the revelation that was given.

VERSE 13. "A garment to the foot" Cp Joseph's firstborn's coat Gen. 37:3. David's priestly robe 1 Chr. 15:27. Shebna's insignia of office - Robe + Girdle Isa. 22:21. Cf. Pharisees. Luke 20:46. Saints granted such Rev. 6:11; 7:9, 13-14. Angelic dress. Rev. 15:6. Rep. Character + office. Cp. Ezek 9:2 where instead of "linen" (AV) LXX has some description as here. Exod. 28:4. LXX - "full length robe" The long robe is the garment of dignity + honor. It may be either royal, or priestly, or both. Cp Isa. 61:3. "(Vincent) "Gird about the paps" - RV: "Girt about at the breasts" Josephus (Ant. 3:7:2) states that the Levitical sash was girded about the breast. though not of gold. The object of this girdle seems not to have been to strengthen him who wore it for the priestly service of judgment merely but to bind the garment of righteousness firmly around his heart so that in the midst of searching words of reproof and warning there may also be found mercy poured forth from breasts of consolations. Cp Isa. 22:21; Job. 12:18; Isa. 11:5. power, righteousness, truth.

VERSE 14. "White like wool" Cp Isa 1:18; Dan 7:9; Luke 9:29 Ps 51:7

"White as snow" - See Note Ps 68:14.

VERSE 16. "His countenance" Opsis - ops, the eye: horao, to see, rend. "appearance" John. 7:24.

VERSE 17. "I am the first and the last" This epithet is three times ascribed to Yahweh in Isaiah 41:4; 44:6; 48:12 and three times to Christ personally or mystically in Revelation 1:17; 2:8; 22:13

VERSE 20. "Mystery" - MUSTERION - "That which is known to the initiates - the initiated." - Vine. The secret. "Stars" Symbols of pre-eminence, authority Num. 24:17. Dan. 12:3. Rome if became a Roman province in BC. 130. fulfilling Daniel's prophecy Dan 8:9. Pergamum was both a foreign a district, or Kingdom. It was noted for its natural strength + its sacred character.

Chapter 2.

VERSE 3. "Borne" - "Thou hast patience = did bear for my name's sake." RV. They did not lose sight of christ in their patient endurance. Cp. Ch. 1:9.

VERSE 5. "Do the first works" - It is possible to engage in exhausting toil for Christ's sake without being motivated by that love for him. Work can be done "for his sake" - to advance his cause after the "first love" has been lost. The Pharisees acted like that in relation to Yahweh. It is possible to display a commendable zeal for purity of doctrine or in proclamation of Gospel in proselyting ardor which brings commendation to the Ecclesia without being motivated by love of Christ - a warm-hearted emotion towards him.

VERSE 3 cont. "Fainted" - KAMNO - "primarily signified to work; then, as the effect of continued labor to be wearied" (Vine). Only used 3 times. Here, Heb. 12:3 - of weariness. Jam. 5:15 where it states the prayer of faith can help.

VERSE 13 "Satan's Seat. Thronos - Throne (RV) or Seat of authority. Attalus (who died BC 133) bequeathed Pergamum to Rome + it became a Roman province in BC. 130. fulfilling Daniel's prophecy Dan 8:9. Pergamum was both a foreign a district, or Kingdom. It was noted for its natural strength + its sacred character.

VERSE 16. "I will come unto thee quickly" Tachu "signifies swiftly, unexpectedly, quickly. Some texts have it in Ch 2:5 which makes 7 usages in Rev. 2:5, 16; 3:11; 11:14; 22:7, 12, 20. Eliminate 2:5; 11:14 and Christ uses it 5 times - the number of grace. The speaker is the Son of Man, and thus ominously speaks as Judge Jhn. 5:27.

Chapter 3.

VERSE 12. "A pillar" There were two ornamental pillars in the Temple with "chapiters" (from root KAPHAR - to cover) with chains on the heads answering to the stephon, with pomegranates speaking of a numerous seed. They were named Jachin + Boaz; He shall establish by the strong one = priestly (Jachin) kingly (Boaz) community. 2 Chr. 3:15-17.

VERSE 19. "Be zealous" - ZELEUO. The verb (found in best texts) is akin to ZESTOS, hot v 15b

VERSE 20. "Knock" - KROUŌ - To rap - urgently. Song 5:2.

...ation of the One Body will then be in the past. The Trumpet will call the One Body together 1 Thess. 4:16.

65 Phulassō from phulax, to guard by keeping watch, thus to preserve

70 Aptaistos, without stumbling, slipping, thus unfrustrated Ps 121:3. Heb 12:13

75 Amomos - Blameless; without blemish - a sacrificial term. See notes at many references.

76 Lit. "exultation" The joy and relief when the Lord comes and the trials and difficulties of the present are swallowed up in the glorious triumph of victory. 2 Cor. 4:14

77 Omit. Orig. "To God alone our Saviour Thru Jesus Christ our Lord be glory, majesty, dominion + authority before all time + now + forever. Amen. So be it! Jude 24-25

VERSE 5. ● "Lightnings thunderings voices" - the divine presence in awe-inspiring manifestation. Cp Exod. 19:16. War. Ezek. 1:13-14 Ps. 144:6; Zech. 9:14. The "voices" featuring the multitudinous manifestation of Yahweh. Psa. 18:7; 77:18; 104:7; Cp Ezek. 43:2. ● "Seven lamps of fire" See Supp. Notes, Rev. 1:12. This identifies the throne with that of heaven, though it is set upon earth. The 7 lamps of fire = the Spirit in active manifestation; the seven spirits, or angels Heb. 1:14. being replaced with the Elohim of future age Heb. 2:5. "Lamps" = LAMPADES, Torches Gen. 15:17. such as are fed by oil, the ANGEION of Matt. 25:4. the means of future victory Zech. 4:6. The saints today should be as torches fed by oil Phil. 2:15-16. Cp David's Inner Counsel p. 467.

VERSE 6. ● "In the midst of the throne & round about it" In the midst of it in that it was under the centre of it, but round about in that the living creatures protruded from each side. Thus they supported the throne comprising the military or political aspect of the Kingdom. Cp Ezek. 1:25-26.

VERSE 9. ● "When" - HOTAN, "implying, with the future tense, the eternal repetition of the act of praise" Vincent. "Whensoever The 24 Elders act in unison with the 4 beasts. ● "Worsh...

VERSE 10. ● "Worship" - They worship the Father manifested in the Son. John 5:23. They recognise that all that the Son is stems from the Father. John 14:28. ● "Cast their crowns before the throne" - An act of submission & homage, acknowledging that their victory stems from Christ as his did from the Father. Hence Rev. 12:7; 7:9.

VERSE 11. ● "O Lord" - The Greek in best texts = "O Lord even our God". See Diag. R.V. The statement of Thomas, echoed by all saints Thn 20:28.

CHAPTER 5. THE LAMB: HERO OF THE APOCALYPSE 2.6

ARNION: Lambkin - diminutive in comparison with AMNOS - Lamb. (John 1:29, 36; Acts 8:32; 1 Pet. 1:19), but the diminutive force is not to be pressed (Vine). "The complete absence of diminutive force in ARNION against AMNOS may be noted" (Moulton & Milligan). Vocabulary of the Greek New Testament. The term stresses the innocence & submissiveness of the Lord as expressed in Phil. 2:5-11.

- The centre of divine rule on earth, the object of the adoration & veneration of all created beings Rev. 5:6, 8, 11.
- The one who unloosses the seals & thus guides destiny of nations. Rev. 6:1, 16
- Acknowledged as the channel of divine love and salvation Rev. 7:9, 10, 14.
- As the shepherd, shepherding the flock Rev. 7:17
- As inspiring victory on the part of others Rev. 12:11
- As Recorder of the book of life Rev. 13:8; 21:27; Rev. 20:12
- As Leader & Shepherd of the Redeemed. Rev. 14:4
- As Supervising the destruction of the beast Rev. 19:20.
- As choir-leader of the victorious saints Rev. 15:3.
- As Conqueror of the Catholic Confederacy. Rev. 17:14, 19.
- As Bridegroom of the saints Rev. 19:7, 9
- As the Foundation & Light of the New Jerusalem Rev. 21:14, 22, 23.
- As Occupying God's throne on earth. Rev. 22:1, 3

VERSE 9. ● "A new song" - KAINOS - New in significance and understanding (Cp use Mark 16:17) not "new" in point of time which would be NEOS. Cp Ps. 33:3 reason 40:3-5. A song of deliverance Ps. 40:3 NIV. The Ark in Zion Ps. 98:1. Conquest of the nations Ps. 98:1. For salvation unto Kings (Is Revelation a celebration of this?) Ps. 144:9. In the joy of the Millennium Ps. 149:1. Cp also Isa. 12:5; 42:10. ● "Us" Many texts omit us. The RV: "thou didst purchase unto God with thy blood men (On italics) of every tribe..." Accepting that reading, the singers are still to be identified as the redeemed, identified as such by their use of harps Cp Rev. 14:2; 15:2. as well as the "new song" they sing before the throne, which only the redeemed are able to sing Rev. 14:3. Finally the bowls full of incense they bear are described as "the prayers of saints." If the 3rd person "men" is used as in RV, doubtless the redeemed sing this song from the vantage point of their new status and nature as the Elohim of the Age to come.

"By thy blood" - Gr. "EN." "The preposition EN is used Hebraistically of the price; the value of the thing purchased being contained in the price." (Vincent).

VERSE 10. ● "Made us" - Authorities are divided. Many read "them." See Note v. 9. ● "Kings" - many read Basileian - Kingdom Cp Ch. 1:6 ● "We shall reign" - Present tense: "they reign" Christ has prevailed at the time of the vision.

VERSE 12. ● "Power, and riches etc" Contrast with Ch. 4:11. Each separate particular there, is preceded with the definite article, whilst here it is only attached to the first. The article expresses universality. ~~In all it proclaims the fact in antitypal fulness of their [illegible] and in accordance with the "prevailing" [illegible]~~ In Jn. 4:11, the doxology is directed to the one on the throne; here it is to the Lamb. ● "Receive" 15 Lambano. - to take, as one's right ● Riches - Hag. 2:8-9 ● Wisdom - openly acknowledged. Col. 2:3 ● Strength - ISCHUS - might, ability. Translated "might" Rev. 7:12. The might or ability to rule accorded him because of his position. ● Blessing - ~~Something~~ to receive the eulogy of others. Eulogian. Cp Heb. 6:7.

CHAPTER 6.

VERSE 6. ● "A measure of wheat": Herodotus, speaking of Xerxes army, assigns a choenix of wheat for a man's daily supply evidently meaning a minimum allowance (7:187). High taxation largely the cause of famine, farmers finding it unprofitable to sow. Alexander Severus, on his accession, reduced the taxes to one thirtieth part of what they had previously been. CCW cited. Exod. 16:21 & Jer. 15:15, 16:2.

VERSE 8. ● "Sword" - ROMPHAIA Cf. ... ● "Death" - Pestilence raged from A.D. 250-265, and at one time 5000 per day died in Rome. Half the human race is supposed to have been destroyed in Rome. Half the human race is supposed to have been destroyed by Eureka with the "ten days" tribulation of Diocletian (303-313). The catacombs of Rome bear witness to it in inscriptions on the tombs of martyrs.

VERSE 9. ● Fifth Seal. Identified by Eureka with the "ten days" tribulation of Diocletian (303-313). The catacombs of Rome bear witness to it in inscriptions on the tombs of martyrs.

VERSE 12. ● "A great earthquake" - Four earthquakes mentioned in Apocalypse. Q. here: the overthrow of paganism 312-324. Ch. 11:13. AD 360 - Julian attempt to overthrow Christianity & falsify his prophecy by rebuilding the Temple in Jerusalem. Ch. 16:18. The French Revolution of 1789-95. 16:18. - The overthrow of Babylon the Great. (11:19).

THE SEVEN ECCLESIAL EPOCHS.

In "Eureka" Bro. Thomas aligns these seven periods to the full development of the Apostasy in the time of Constantine - the manifestation of the Laodicean epoch, but in addition there seems to be a more extensive period suggested, thus:

EPHESIAN EPOCH - At close Apostolic era: first love lost.
110. SMYRNAN EPOCH - Persecution, development synagogue of Satan 110-312. PERGAMOS - Antipas opposed Balaamites & Nicolaitanes. - development of power of the papacy. 312-606. THYATIRAN EPOCH - The manifestation of Papal system in full power, with Jezebel in the ascendancy. 606-1272 when true witnessing came to an end Cp Rev. 11:7 Note. SARDIAN EPOCH - A name of activity but dead. Protestant Reformation 1272-1840. PHILADELPHIAN EPOCH - Revival of Truth. LAODICEAN EPOCH, the "hour of temptation" or perilous present 2 Tim. 3:1.

and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:

18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

12 And to [c] the angel of the church in [f] Pergamos write; These things saith [g] he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where [t] Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast [t] my name, and hast not [k] denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of [o] Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, [p] to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and [r] to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of [r] the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and [g] will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; [b] To him that overcometh will I give to eat of [c] the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone [e] a new name written, [g] which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in [k] Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, [l] who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

John's message works; and the last to be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him the morning star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER 3.

What John was commanded to write to the churches of 1 Sardis, 7 Philadelphia, 15 Laodicea.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also

The true light Jhn. 1:9 note. true bread Jhn. 6:32. the true vine Jhn. 15:1. There are true worshippers in contrast to the shadowy or unreal Jhn. 4:23. the true God in contrast to mere symbols of God 1 Jhn. 5:20.

18. David = type of Christ as ruler Jer. 30:9; Ezek. 34:23. 37:24. The house of David is the typical designation of the aristocracy of the Kingdom. 2 Sam. 7:11, 16. Ps. 122:5; Is. 55:3; Zech. 12:8. Lk 1:27 & 1 Cor. 16:19; 2 Cor. 2:12; Col. 4:3; Acts 14:27.

20. The RV places previous words in parenthesis and so aligns the "strength" with the "works." Some (Alford, Trench etc) omit the indefinite article, and render "thou hast little strength." – Few are there in number.

For the phrase see Jhn. 19:16 G.

DIDOMI – Give (RV) Usage "give up."

POIEO – To cause to be, to produce.

SARDIS: The Dead. Jug. Escaping grace V. 4.

1. Eph. 4:4. By Spirit of God, Christ walks amid the Ecclesias today.

2. Dr. T. trans. "but." Moffatt: "You have the name of being alive, but you are dead."

Dr. T. "Become." RV.

Gr. "pleroo" – fulfilled. Their vows before God remained unfulfilled. Ecc. 5:4.

GREGOREO – Keep awake Mat. 24:43; 26:38, 40, 41.

3. How is not revealed, but in some way Christ interfered in the course of Sardian history, so that the Ecclesia which once had a name that it was alive, became defunct. Sardis itself, once a glorious city is now an ignoble village.

4. "With me" – Unity with Christ. Already clothed. Isa. 61:10, their characters being pure and unstained, their nature must correspond. 2 Cor. 5:2-3. "Fine linen" The most important book.

Phil. 4:3 A reference probably to custom of the times. Est. 6:1-3. Exod. 32:32. Mal. 3:16. Dan. 12:1. The suggestion is that there are various books. Rev. 20:12. Some recording actions from day to day, and the Book of Life recording the final account. The Spirit is the Remembrancer. Jhn. 14:26. When Deity says He will remember our sins no more, it is equivalent to saying they will be blotted out from the "Day" book of records. Isa. 43:25. Luke 12:9. Mat. 10:32.

PHILADELPHIA – Brotherly love.

7. Manifestation of Jahweh. Note.

Gr. "Alethinos" – denotes true in the sense of real, ideal, genuine. He is genuine, the real and ideal manifestation of the Divine. Note the use of this word to the Tabernacle 8:2. 9:24. Cp 1 Jhn. 5:20. See.

9. Is. 60. 22:22. Denotes authority particularly in relation to the Kingdom of David Lk. 1:32.

There is nothing to be feared from an earnest contention for the faith. Christ who has all authority. Mat. 28:18. Jude 3. The Congregation of the Adversary in contrast to the Ecclesia. Gp. See Note Ch. 1:9.

Dr. T. "Patient awaiting" – The awaiting for Christ's return, which sustains the saints under all difficulties. Rev. 13:10, 14:12.

13. Reverance as to a Superior. See similar use to words David 1 Chr. 29:20.

14. Gr. MOU (MOO) THEOS. "My God". Diag. RV.

"Hast received" is in the perfect tense; "heard" is in the aorist tense. You have received the truth as a permanent deposit. It remains with you whether you regard it or not. No doctrinal error mentioned – only their cold, deathlike state.

POLITICAL HEAVEN Rev. 4:1. - Heaven is referred to over 50 times in Revelation, but in the majority of cases applies to the political heavens. Thus, the heavens depart Rev 6:14; a woman gives birth to son 12:1; War with a dragon 12:7; a Temple in heaven 11:19 armies marching to war 19:11,12; Flees away 20:11. The same expression in Rev. 4:1 is addressed to revolutionaries in 11:12 - obviously political.

"A throne set in heaven" V.2. Suggests a scene of national judgment. Cp Dan. 7:9-14. Rev. 4:5 The saints already are in glory VV 8-11; 5:9-10. The Lamb has "prevailed" 5:5. and the scene closes with universal praise to the triumphant Lamb. Vv. 13-14. The appearance of the one on the throne suggests judgment. John 5:19-27.

A JASPER & A SARDINE STONE

The Sardius was the first and the Jasper the last of the stones on Aaron's breastplate Exod. 28:17-20 and is therefore an appropriate symbol for he who is the Stone of Israel and the Alpha and Omega Rev 1:8. 21:6

Sardius is Odem signifying Redness in Hebrew Jasper - Heb. Yashepheth = Yah polished (Cp. Strong). Greenish-blue in colour Gen. = perhaps from rah = smooth, but seemingly of foreign of various colors including a rich sky-blue (Unger). but strictly opaque (Ung.) Note Zech 3:9; 4:10; Ezek 1:4; 10:12 Omniscient. Collectively the saints are an encompassment Rev 20:9. The "four," represent the four-fold division of Israel's camp Num 2. According to Jewish tradition, the standard of Reuben = man Gen 49:3. Judah = Lion Gen 49:9 Ephraim = bullock Deut 33:17 Dan = Eagle Yahweh is light Ps 80:1 Spirit John 4:24 fire Exod 24:17. the ancients selected Lion, Eagle and Bullock to represent these The Lion by its tawny color and speed = Light. The Bullock with its curling locks and strength = fire The Eagle for its majestic soaring = Spirit. All these attributes of Yahweh revealed in Man. By this manifestation of Divine power in flesh the nations conquered. See b - Num. p 333

"One sat on the throne" V.2.

This becomes the title of the One seen. Cp Rev. 6:16; 7:10,15; 4:2,3,9,10; 5:1,7; 19:4 & 20:11; 21:5. The One upon the Throne is Yahweh in manifestation Phil. 2:9-11; Zech. 14:9; 7:10,15; described by Daniel as "The Ancient of Days" Dan. 7:9. and thus, appropriate to the title: "the first and the last" Rev. 1:17; 2:8; 22:13; Isa. 41:4; 44:6; 48:12. The Lord will return as "the Ancient of Days. Dan. 7:22. In heaven, he already sits upon the throne of the Father Rev. 3:21, and will establish that rule on earth. Thus the Throne is said to be the throne of God Rev. 19:4; 22:1,3. Who, in the son, will dwell among [redacted] men on earth. Rev. 7:15.

11 [m] Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for [p] thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAPTER 5.

1 The book sealed with seven seals. 9 which only the Lamb that was slain is worthy to open.

AND I saw in the right hand of [o] him that sat on the throne [r] a book written within and on the backside, [s] sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And [e] one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion [g] of the tribe of Juda, [t] the Root of David, [k] hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose [m] the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood [o] a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and [q] seven eyes, which are [b] the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, [le] the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them [u] harps, and [h] golden vials full of [3] odours, [k] which are the prayers of saints.

9 And they sung a new song, saying, [l] Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and [n] hast redeemed us to God [o] by thy blood out of [q] every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

10 And [r] hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was [11] "ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, [v] Worthy is [z] the Lamb that was slain to receive [a] power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and [b] blessing.

13 And [c] every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto [d] him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And [h] the four beasts said, [1] Amen. And the ~~four and~~ twenty elders fell down and worshipped [e] ~~him that liveth for ever and ever.~~

CHAPTER 5

THE SEVEN SEALED BOOK

Thus linking this Book with the previous one which reveals the ultimate of these things. Ch 4:1-2

"Within and on the back" The writing contains events ecclesially and in the world completely veiled to human knowledge despite his power he did not unloose the seals. There was an urgency, the need to reveal. Daniel was told to [illegible] it was sealed Dan. 12:4 & 9. The Apocalypse at the end of [illegible] times removes the symbol what will only revealed at the end of the end of the [illegible] man living, dead angelic. It required the perfect sacrifice of coming in sinful flesh to accomplish this. Meanwhile Cp. Matt. 13:52, Rev. 1:2

Be anxious desire of God to probe the mysterious manifestations. By this [illegible] victories are won. Dan. 12:4. The sealed book is academic of all those who hunger and thirst knowledge. Rev. 6:10. Dan. 12:10 Heb. 12:2. The [illegible] now subdued and [illegible] God manifest flesh. As the "seed of creatures" — the [illegible] he is the "offspring division of [illegible] saved." Rev. 22:16 Christ's victory over sin symbol of [illegible] a new phase in Christ's power [illegible] purpose Matt. 28:18 [illegible] Rev. 5:13

Come is judged, Christ will have fully prevailed, and in prevailing opened the whole book, bringing all things into subjection Heb 2:8

The Lamb is the centre of Yahweh's purpose. See opp.

12. Omnipotence or perfection of power
13. Omniscience or perfection of vision
— A perfect manifestation of Deity
Jhn 5:26 1 Sa. 2:5-9
14 showing that these events predate the vision of Ch. 4.
See opp. p 3165.

331 THE FOUR BEASTS.

The order of the faces, unlike that of Ezek. 1 is the order of the four Gospels and the four major prophets. They proclaim: If you would rule, you must serve, and as flesh this was only be accomplished through the Spirit. 4 Beasts = Omnipotence.

WHO LIVETH FOR EVER & EVER Ch. 4:9

The one so described is identified with the one on the throne v.13 the Lamb 5:14 the Creator Isa. 40:28 God 45:22, He who was dead 1:18 "to the Saint no dead"; therefore here "must be understood of the [illegible] as speaking from a body, permanently [illegible] with [illegible] he [illegible] in a resurrection life [illegible] the dead" (Eur. Hyp 180) The Lamb represents Christ as the Ancient of Days [illegible]

1 The one spirit 1 Cor. 12:11. dispersed throughout the earth Zech 4:6-7.

15 The hand of privilege and power: Cp. 1 Pet 3:22.

16 Cp Ch. 4:2-3 Christ is revealed in two relationships — as Deity in manifestation and as the Slain Lamb. Having triumphed as the latter, as the Lamb that had been slain, he receives knowledge he previously lacked. As the Lamb he took hold of the glory unto which he attained — and Lamb and Deity were united in one.

SONGS OF REJOICING AT THE FINAL TRIUMPH. VV 8-14.

This anticipates the final triumph of the Lord. See note V.5 Lev 16:12-13 Jos 3:3 Ps. 19:12 Luke 19:40 Exod 19 Ps 33:3 Ps. 149:4-9. This song may well be sung at the 2nd Advent, in a day of national Celebration in the Temple. Ps 45:12-15. Phil. 2:9-11 Ps 2:8.

20. There will be Angelic representatives at Christ's triumph who will raise angelic voices in his honour. Heb 1:6. Rev 12:10

A large undefined number Cp note Deut 33:2 Acts 21:20. Cp Ps 68:17 Rev 5:11.

See Supp. Note.

22. All creation including mortals. Matt 28:19 Rom 10:12 The terms are symbolic. Heaven = ruling places. Earth = the first dominion Gen 6:11 Under the earth = the bottomless pit of nations Rev 17:1 The Sea = Other nations Cp Isa 57:20

Exousia with the definite article = All particulars of power. Have the definite article. They honor Yahweh manifested in flesh & they honor the willing obedience of the Son. They see in him the dual aspect of glory. Jhn 5:23 1 Cor 15:27-28 Jhn 17:22 Dan 7:27

3. Trouble. 1 Sam 2:10. Zech. 9: 13-14. Domitian the great persecutor of Ecclesia is assassinated and way made ready for a change in human affairs.

4. These were they who rejoiced at the acquisition of Knowledge Rev 5:8 7:3. The events in political heavens were guided for their benefit. 2 Cor 4:15 Cp. Ser. 27:5. Rom 8:28

5. The attitude of saints of all ages – Watching the signs.

6. Righteousness or peace. The horse symbolized Rome, being dedicated to Mars.

7. Those who guided the destiny of Rome. In this case Christianity which demonstrates increasing numbers was becoming the prevailing influence. Zech 8:13-14 = multitude Ps. 144:3 = speech. Combine the symbols = multitude conquering by power speech.

8. Perennial wreath – the symbol of victory after striving for mastery 1 Cor 9:25. Though a period of peace and prosperity for Rome it was a time of tribulation for Ecclesia but ultimate victory assured.

9. The rapid growth of Christianity at this time.

2nd SEAL = PEACE WITHDRAWN

No thunder. Commodus ascends throne under peaceful conditions. An attempt on his life (183) aroused worst passions of his gloomy nature. The Empire was suddenly plunged in a vast orgy of bloodshed Ezek 14:21 Sin and bloodshed to be taken from earth.

This period dominated by the Praetorian Guard – the soldiers into whose care was placed home and the person of the Emperor.

"Machaira" – A large knife, sword or dagger. Assassins rather than a soldier's weapon" (K&S). This ruled Rome at this time. Dan 11:41 Civil dissension, malcontentment, pestilence, famine, violence resulted in 2000 people dying at one period. The 1st Seal found the Ecclesia persecuted but the 2nd Seal brought retribution on their tormentors. Rev 18:15

3rd SEAL - FAMINE Vv5-6 312-313

HISTORY OF 6TH SEAL. See Rev 12. for details. On death of Constantius at York Britain his son Constantine assumed control of the West and notified Galerius his superior. In 308 6 Emperors jointly ruled. In East – Galerius, Maximin, Licinius. In the West – Maximian, Maxentius Constantine. Paganism = State religion. Christianity increasing numerically but divided between Puritans and Catholics. The latter represented a powerful political influence daily growing in strength. On death of Galerius and Maximian Constantine proclaimed himself Protector of Christianity and prepared to attack Maxentius in a bid for universal power. The Christians in the West flocked to his standard,

CHAPT. 7

VERSE 1 ● "four winds of heaven" : A convenient way of describing the Winds which, in fact, blow from every quarter. "Among the Greeks & Latins, the winds were arranged under four classes: Zephyrus, Boreas, Notus, & Eurus, considered as under the control of a King, Aeolus." Sp Jer. 49:36-37 for reference to four winds. Matt. 24:31.

VERSE 2. ● "The seal of the living God" : The saints as a sealed community. Song 4:12; 8:6. Authority. Est. 8:8; Dan. 6:17. Endorsement Neh. 10:1; Cp John 3:33. Divine teaching 2 Cor. 1:21-22. Eph. 1:13. Reflected in action Rom. 4:11; 10:17; Eph. 2:10, 20; 3:10. Cp John 6:27. Known of God. 2 Tim. 2:19.

VERSE 4. ● Sealed in forehead" - A priestly community Exod. 28:36. ● mentally impressed with the truths of Yahweh Ezek. 9:4 ● "144, 000" The symbolic number of the redeemed representing = full completion × perfect government (12×12). The true Israel of God Rom. 2:28-29; 4:6-7; Gal. 6:16; Phil. 3:3. The description of the 144,000 of Rev. 14. is that of all true saints. Rev. 14:4. In Rev. 22:4 describe all believers as similarly marked in the forehead. In Rev. 21:12 all saints are described as of the twelve tribes of Israel. 288 singers 1 Chr. 25:8 2xliii below

VERSE 5. ● "Judah" etc. Praise - See a Son! (Gad) a company (Asher) - Blessed (Naphtali) - Wrestling (Manasseh) - Forgetting (Simeon) - Hearing (Levi) - Joining (Issachar) - Reward (Zebulon) - Dwelling, (Joseph) - Adding (Benjamin) - The Son of the right hand. Praise Yah! for see a son! With a Company of the Blessed, who after wrestling, forgetting, hearing and joining, have the reward of dwelling with and adding to the Son of the right hand. Unique features of the enumeration: Judah first and Dan accounted as only one tribe: Ans. The Lion of Judah assumes his right as firstborn. × Levi listed as possessing a tribal inheritance Ans. the Melchizedek priesthood replace the Levitical Ezek. 44:15; Rev. 5:9-10. ● Dan and Ephraim missing Ans. these two faces of Cherubim (Eagle and Ox) missing from Cherubic faces in Millenial Temple Ezek. 41:19

VERSE 4 (Cont.) 24,000 officers under 12 princes making 288,000 in all provided the foundation of Israel's organised rule 1 Chr. 27. 1, 16. The root number in each case = 12, based upon the 12 tribes

VERSE 14. "Great tribulation" . This is incidental to saints of every age. See use of THLIBO (verb) 1 Thess. 3:4; 2 Thess. 1:6-7. See its use "straitened" Mtt. 7:14 "throng" Mk 3:9 "Afflicted" 2 Cor. 1:6; 7:5; 1 Tim. 5:10; Heb 11:37 "pressed" 2 Cor. 4:8. Cp. Name Yahweh YATSAR (note O.T. p. 401) & compare "warfare" of saints Dan. 10:1 THLIPSIS is endured by all: the Apostles Mtt. 24:9, believers Mk 4:17. Paul in "much affliction" 2 Cor. 2:4 2 Cor. 4:17. Ecclesia Col. 1:24 It is the appointed way to the King down Acts. 14:22. Both John Rev. 1:9, and those to whom he wrote Rev. 2:9 suffered it. In Rev. 2:22 judgment upon the Jezebel class of Thyatira is described as "great thlipsis" The final thlipsis will beat the Judgment Seat of Christ Rom. 2:9 (tribulation). - the rejected experiencing "anguish of soul" the accepted entering into the great joy of millenial rejoicing. Rev. 7:14. Thlipsis is rendered "anguish," "murdered," "distress," "persecution," "tribulation," "trouble."

● "Washed their robes" Various garments are referred to in the Apocalypse. Rev. 1:13. "Poderes" - from "pous" - foot, and ARŌ - to fasten. Thus a garment that entirely encloses the body. The word is used in LXX to define the robe (CHETONETH) of the High Priest Exod. 28:4. the "linen" of the angelic judge of Israel. 9:2. "change of raiment" is rendered "a long robe" - poderes in LXX. Indicative of status. ● Himation - a diminutive of Heima used expressly of an outer cloke or mantle, though the plural Himatia seems used for clothes generally. These garments a put on in baptism. Cp Rev. 3:4-5, 18; Rev. 16:15 but completed (commenced to be) at the Judgment seat Rev. 4:4. The singular form of the word, rend. "vesture" Rev. 19:13, 16 relates to the outer mantle, or final article of dress, the himation proper. This is, perhaps, to be identified with the "white robes" or white "stole" - a stately robe, a long garment reaching to the feet - Vine. Which completes their dressing, and was the robe with which the angels were clad in ΠΤΚ. 16:5. This word is used to describe the investiture of priests in LXX of Exod. 28:4; 29:21; 31:10. The RV has: Rev 6:11. "There was given to each one a white robe." Cp Rev. 7:9, 13, 14. These robes, representative of their final character and status are said to be "washed and whitened" (Dias) in the blood of the Lamb. They are doubtless the white linen gowns of Rev. 19:8, 14. Rev. 15:6.

VERSE 15. "The Temple" NADS - The Temple proper in contrast to the HIERON, the sanctuary comprising the courts and outer buildings. Into the Temple only priests could lawfully enter. Both the individual believer 1 Cor. 6:19, and the Ecclesia Eph. 2:21; 1 Cor. 3:16-17; 2 Cor. 6:16. are treated as the Temple. ● "Shall dwell among them" RV as Greek: "shall spread his tabernacle (tent) over them." The reference is to the Shechinah glory that overshadowed the Mercy Seat. From SKANOŌ, to pitch a tent. Same verb John 1:14. Cp. Lev. 26:11. Isa. 4:4-5; Ezek 37:27.

CHAPTER 8

VERSE 3. "The two altars" : The brazen altar was outside; the Golden Altar inside. The former was made with wood overlaid with brass. The latter was made with wood overlaid with gold. The first had no crown; the second had a crown rep. the victory of faith 1 John 5:4. The first rep. Christ in His humiliation, the principle of sacrifice; the second rep. him in glory and power at the right hand of the Father. The brazen altar as the place of suffering typified him as Saviour; the golden altar as the place of glory typified him as Mediator. Sinners come to the first to be made saints and there entered into Christ; saints made there way to the second to acceptably worship Yahweh as there entered into heaven Heb. 10:19-20; Col. 3:1. The blood of the first made efficacious the second.

VERSE 7 "mingled with blood" = mingled in (en) blood." The hailstones × fireballs fell in a shower of blood. Cp Exod. 9:23 Plague of hail & fire. (7th plague) LXX = "and there was hail and the fire flaming in the hail." ● "upon the earth" The best text add "And the third part of the earth was burnt up, and the third part of the trees ..." etc. ∩ "Green" - Chloros. The colour of the pale horse Rev. 6:8 - the colour of young grass - pale green.

VERSE 8. × "Sea became blood" The first plague = water into blood Exod. 7:17.

CHAPTER 9.

VERSE 1. × "Bottomless pit" RV: "pit of the abyss." PHREAR pit Cp Luke 14:5 is rendered "well" Jhn 4:11-12 and obviously relates to the shaft leading to the water below. ABUSSOS - from "a". intensive × "bussos" - depth (Eng "both" derived from this word) used in Rom. 10:7. for the sea, as also Luke 8:31 Referred to 7 times in Revelation 9:1, 2; 11:7; 17:8; 20:1, 3. Shaft of the Abyss - access to it, namely the abyss of Rev. 17:8 In Rev 9:11; 11:7; 17:8; 20:1, 3 only the abyss if referred to - not the pit - phrear. Thus: the abyss = the nations, the "pit" or "shaft" of the abyss = access to power over them. That is what Mahommedism wrought.

VERSE 3 × "Locusts" : Though "locust" and Arab sound alike in Hebrew "ARBEH" - Locust: ארבה; "ARAB - Arab ערב; they are spelt differently. ● "Scorpions" - Heb AQRAB. They give a painful sting, but it is not fatal. "Though at least one local species has a most unpleasant sting none is likely to kill a healthy person" Cp 4:5-6

VERSE 7. ● "Like horses" - This is the appearance of the Locust. Indeed the Italians from this resemblance, call the locust cavaletta - or little horse. The Pictorial Bible quotes Niebuhr as describing the locust as set forth to him by an Arab: head to the horse, feet to the camel, belly to that of the serpent, tail to that of a scorpion, and the feelers to the hair of a woman.

weed. Also a symbol of War. Isa. 34:9-10; Zech. 5:1 Supp.

beast works upon which we mounted the "head" = cannon of the horse artillery.

Gunpowder. "Jacinth" = blue, and doubtless used to describe the = smoke of a sulphur-flame." "Brimstone" a wound metaphorically a calamity. Cp. V. 20. The fire, smoke × sulphurous smell of such a discharge corresponds exactly to a discharge of musketry or artillery.

of the Western Empire Rev. 8 & Destruction of Eastern Empire Rev. 9. (1st Woe). & Preliminary Judgment on Roman Catholicism Rev. 11:1-13 (2nd Woe). & final overthrow of Papacy & Papal politics & religion Rev. 11:14-19. (3rd Woe) - and completion of first half of Apocalypse.

voice of Yahweh 11:19 epitomising "glory to God in the highest - on earth peace - goodwill towards men."

The time periods announced by the same angel to Daniel should find their completion Cp. Dan. 12:7 See 13B.

Gr "right hand" - The hand of strength.

"Time no longer." Cp the prayer Rev. 6:10. Steps in the relief of persecution. 1. Overthrow of Paganism 2. Sparing of 144,000 3. Days

1. Ark brought to city
2. 7 Campaigns to extent Kingdom to Empire.

12 These things temporally hidden
13 No further delay in executing the final vengeance. Cp Ch. 8 1b. The vindication of the angelic oath of Dan. 12:7 This angel represents the Man in linen on the waters. Dan. 12:7. Dan. 12. RVmg. "delay no longer"
14 To record these things

VERSE 8 ● "Hair like women" : faces like men = bearded, warlike appearance. Hair like women = flowing tresses. Pliny - contemporary with John, describes them as having long, uncut hair (Nat. Hist. vol 6. p.28), Solinus (3rd Cent), Ammianus Marcellinus (4th Cent), Claudian, Theodore of Mopsuesta, & Jerome (5th Cent) all refer to same thing (See Newcombe on the Prophecies, Barnes etc)

VERSE 9. ● "Breastplates" - The locust has a firm & hard cuticle on the forepart of the breast which serves as a shield or a defence while it moves in the thorny and furzy vegetation.

VERSE 11. ● "And they had a King over them" RV "They have over them a King." This is quite unusual and distinguishes them from natural locusts. Prov. 30:27.

VERSE 16 ● "200,000,000" "Duo muriades muriadon" - two myriads (ten thousands) of myriads (ten thousands). - A large undisclosed number Deut. 33:2; Ps 68:17; Jude 14.

CHAPTER 10 - [illegible] next column & below

VERSE 7 ● "When he shall begin to sound" - Mello - "When he is about to sound" as per R.V. Nevertheless it is also "in (en) the days of the voice of the seventh angel." There were traditionally three blasts with the Shofar trumpet. See Note Ezek. 11.

CHAPTER 11.

VERSE 4. ● "Standing before" - Before is ENOPION from "en" - in and "ops" - the eye. - thus in the view of. "The Lord of the earth" though drawn from the symbolism of Zech 4:14 seems in this chapter to be found in contrast to the "God of heaven" v.13 and thus to relate to the pope. This is consistent with the symbolism of the lampstands which likewise are drawn from the same chapter but here are used of "saints" in the political sense of Lev. 13:3; Dan. 7:25-27. Cp Rev. 3:4.

VERSE 11. ● Spirit of life from God. - A revival of witnessing both political & religious. The former in the agitation of the frog like spirits - the latter in the revival of the Protestant Movement with greater liberty of thought & expression - including the revival of the Truth. Cp Bible Societies, Publishing houses etc.

VERSE 13. ● "Great earthquake" There are four earthquakes referred to in the Apocalypse, three of them described as "great" the final of which exceeds the others Rev 6:12; 8:5; 11:13; 16:18

● The first established the Church as the official religion of Rome;
● the second, under Julian witnessed the beginning of attacks by other nations (barbarians) upon the Empire which finally brought its dissolution. Julian was killed in an expedition against Persia which ended in disasters resulted in Rome ceding the eastern half of Roman Mesopotamia to Persia. This encouraged the "explosive" movements among barbarians taking place beyond the border of the Empire. See the Penguin Atlas of Medieval history p.16 ● the third says French Revolution.
● The fourth the establishment of the Kingdom.

CHAPTER 10

VERSE 3 ● "Seven thunders" - "The Jews were accustomed to speak of thunder as 'the seven voices'" (Vincent). See the expression used in Ps 29. It commences by calling upon men to give unto Yahweh glory & strength & to worship Him Cp Rev 14:6. The silence is broken by thunder and storm pronounced by the seven-times proclamation of "the voice of Yahweh" - and it concludes with peace v.11 Thus glory to God in the highest, on earth peace and goodwill towards men (Ps.29:1,11).

CHAPTER 11.

VERSE 2. ● "The court without": The court of the Gentiles. To an untrained observer, this would appear to be part of the Temple and those assembled there would have the appearance of being true worshippers, or at least, genuine sympathisers. That really is the state of the two witnesses. There were three courts: Court of Priests, Court of Israel, Court of Gentiles. The Saints are a priestly community

1 Pet 2:9 The two witnesses comprise religious and political opposition to the god of the earth, answering to the court of Israel and of Gentiles

● "Leave out" EKBALE (Ekballo) - Cast out - with the suggestion of using force. Hence excommunicate (see "Eureka"). Have no fellowship with.

● "Forty-two months" 1260. Justinian 533 - 1793 French Revolution See Notes top. 1094. Linked with 1260 days thus. 312 x 1260 = 1872 - testimony finished v.7. ~~1335 days of death (human) [illegible]~~ Warfare commences v.7 terminating in death of witness Revocation of Edict of Nantes in 1685 x 3½ (lunar) days of death = 105 yrs: 1790 = French Revolution. The period appears in 3 forms in the Apocalypse: 42 mths 13:5. 1260 v.1; 12:6. Time, times & a half 12:14 linking with Dan 7:25; 12:7. Each are related as to commencing time or subject.

CHAPTER 10.

"Little book" Reference to this is found in vv. 2,9,10. In the Greek this is Biblaridion, with the exception of v8 where the word is Biblion - though in some texts Bibliaridion is retained. There are three words used in Scripture Biblos - Bible; Biblion 5471. - A diminutive of Biblos; Biblaridion - a diminutive of Biblion and so rendered "little book." The first is used of books of the Bible as per Luke 3:4; the second of the seven sealed scroll; and the third of the book in the hand of the angel. We may well expect the contents of the "little book" to proclaim the purpose of God to establish His glory in the earth and to record "the lamentation, mourning & woe" upon those who do not accept the offer of mercy. Cp Ezek. 2:10. In setting forth his message, Ezekiel found the people refused to accept the divine mercy Ezek 3:4-11. which caused him distress, bitterness & heat Ezek 3:14.

CHAPTER 11.

VERSE 13 ● "Of men" ONOMATA ANTHROPON - Names of men.

VERSE 18 ● "The time of the dead" Cp 2 Tim. 4:1; 1 Cor. 15:23. 1 Thess. 4:16. ● "Give reward" Luke 14:14

● "Servants, prophets, saints, them that fear" - Gradation of service: Submit as bondservants; proclaim the word 1 Cor. 14:1; separated from the world; reverencing & respecting Yahweh;

● "Destroy" - Diaphtheiro. Dia - through, intensive, and Phtheiro - to destroy by corrupting. Used of effect of evil company upon believers (phtheiro); 1 Cor. 15:33. The effect of dishonorable dealing by bringing people to want (phtheiro) 2 Cor. 7:2. Mental corruption (phtheiro) 2 Cor. 11:3. The outworking of human nature Eph. 4:22 (phtheiro). The corrupting effect of false doctrine (phtheiro) 2 Tim. 2:18. Cp defile (phtheiro) 1 Cor. 3:17 & destroy (phtheiro) 1 Cor. 3:17. The Noun PHTHORA is rend. corruption (physical dissolution) 2 Pet. 2:12; 1 Cor. 15:42, 50. Gal. 6:8. "perish" (i.e. corrupt) 2 Pet. 2:12. Jude 1:4. "destroyed" & "corruption" 2 Pet. 2:12, 19. DIAPHTHEIRO - An intensive form of the verb - utter corruption. - the utter corruption of perverse disputing 1 Tim. 6:5. The work of the moth in bringing to corruption Luke 12:33. Rend. "is decaying" 2 Cor. 4:16 "destroyed" Rev. 8:9. The noun DIAPHTHORA - utter or thorough corruption is used negatively of the Lord Acts 2:27, 31; 13:34, 35, 37 and once, affirmatively, of David Acts 13:36.

CHAPTER 12.

VERSE 3. ● "Dragon" from "DerK" - to see. Implying its keen power of sight. It is aligned with the serpent who, in the beginning reasoned on the basis of fleshly observation. In LXX = the serpent into which Moses' rod was changed Exod. 7:9. Also leviathan Isa. 27:1; Ezek 29:3; Jer. 51:34; Job 41:1.

VERSE 9. ● "That old serpent." Lit. "the serpent, the old" Old is "ARCHAIOS" from "archē" a beginning (archaic, archaeology). It relates not to age, which would be "palaios," but to an epoch. The evils indicated are those stemming from the serpent at the beginning. The word is used

[illegible] Latin TRUMPET: GOTHIC [illegible] from its ITALY: 476 [illegible]

Previously earth, trees etc [illegible] - non Jewish, arresting [illegible] in eclipse of government [illegible] of Egypt. Ezek. 30:18

"Bitter." He caused the waters to become bitter. Greek = "apsinthos" - The name of a river in Jazer, the district which saw the uprise of Attila.

Rhedagaisus. In 405 after death [illegible] again attacked and for the 1st time in 611 years Rome witnessed foreign army. Rome terribly distressed. Further seige 409. er Danube by incursions [illegible] and ferocious looking followers - the terror of the people - turned fruitful fields and districts into smoking ruins and deserts. His ravaging of Country reached greatest after 450 Died 453.

HISTORY 6th TRUMPET Romulus Augustus placed on throne by Orester, Secretary of State to Attila. Superceded by Odoacer, King of Heruli, who taking Rome in 476 banished Romulus and became King Western Empire. Deposed by Theoderic, King of Ostrogoths, and later assassinated 493. Gothic Kings continued to reign for about 60 years.

"WRITE IT NOT" Ch1.10:4. Why? Possibly because the judgments described were so devastating as to be beyond the ability of flesh to accept. They would describe in detail that generally referred to in Jer. 25:29, 33; Dan 12:1. 2 Pet 3:10-11 Jude 7. The calling of the book first necessary to view such judgments objectively. Cp Rom 1:3, 8, 9, 14.

LINK BETWEEN CHS 9, 10, 11. The "star" of 9:1 possesses the key to the way to the abyss which way is unlocked - constituting a warning message to the abyss V.11. That message is unheeded 16:20-21. Ch.10 parenthetical - indicating the ultimate means of conquest. Meanwhile, in the west, the abyss triumphs over the witnesses Ch.11:7 until the final woe Rev. 11:15.

Sixth trumpet sounded. REVELATION 10. An angel with a book.

hair of women, and [a] their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was [b] as the sound of chariots of many horses running [c] to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto [f] scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men [g] five months.

11 And they had [m] a king over them, which is [n] the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name [o] in the Hebrew tongue is [r] Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name [s] Apollyon.

12 [t] One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from [u] the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose [b] the four angels which are bound in [d] the great river Euphrates.

15 And [b] the four angels were loosed, which were prepared [s] for [f] an hour, and [g] a day, and [h] a month, and [i] a year, for to slay [l] the third part of men.

16 And [m] the number of the army [o] of the horsemen were [m] two hundred thousand thousand: [p] and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and [t] the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued [u] fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, [u] by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet [d] repented not of [e] the works of their hands, that they should not worship [g] devils, and [h] idols of gold, and silver, and [k] brass, and stone, and of wood: [l] which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their [p] murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The angel with the book. 6 He sweareth by him that liveth for ever, that time shall be no more.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, [x] clothed with a cloud: and [y] a rainbow was upon his head, and [z] his face was as it were the sun, and [a] his feet as [c] pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: and [e] he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when [k] a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven [m] thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, [q] Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and [r] write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth [t] lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by [z] him that liveth for ever and ever, [v] who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, [a] that there should be time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, [b] the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

DEATH OF WITNESSES. As 1260 period neared end the witnessing of saints became less. The rigidity and separateness of Truth not maintained. The Papacy was permitted to gain the ascendancy. This commenced with Massacre of St Bartholomew 24th Aug. 1572. The war thus commenced continued with varying fortunes until 1685 when Edict Nantes which granted many privileges, was revoked. Then the war cry was: "Die or be Catholic!" "Amid a thousand hideous lamentations and horrid blasphemies they hung men and women by the hair of the head, or by the feet, to the roof of their chambers, or to the rocks in the chimneys, and there smoked them with wisps of wet hay, till they were no longer able to bear it, and when they took them down, if they would not sign, they immediately hung them up again." They plucked off their hair with pincers. they subjected them to every form of torture – by rack and fire. this represented political death for two witnesses.

REVELATION 11.

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And [d] the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and [e] eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and [f] it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, [g] my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER 11.

1 The two witnesses that prophesy. 14 The second woe is past. 15 The seventh trumpet soundeth.

AND there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and [h] the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But [i] the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto [k] the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot [l] forty and two months.

3 And [m] I will give power unto my two [n] witnesses, and they shall prophesy [o] a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

4 These are [p] the two olive trees, and [q] the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, [r] fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, [s] he must in this manner be killed.

6 These have power [t] to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and [u] to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they shall have finished their [v] testimony, [w] the beast that ascendeth out of [x] the bottomless pit [y] shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of [z] the great city, which spiritually is called [a] Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because [b] these two prophets [c] tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three days and an half [d] the spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven [e] in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and [f] the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain [g] of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affright-

CHAPTER 12.

[x] A woman clothed with the sun travaileth. 9 The great red dragon is cast out of heaven.

AND [3] there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman [o] clothed with the sun, and [p] the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of [s] twelve stars:

2 And [t] she being with child cried, [x] travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another [3] wonder in heaven; and behold a great red [c] dragon, [d] having seven heads [e] and [f] ten horns, and seven [g] crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail [h] drew [m] the third part of the stars of heaven, and [k] did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, [m] for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to [p] rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there [t] a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: [u] Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and [z] his angels,

8 And prevailed not; [a] neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon [b] was cast out, that old [c] serpent, called the Devil, and [d] Satan, [f] which deceiveth [g] the whole world: [h] he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and [i] the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, [m] which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And [n] they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by [q] the word of their testimony; and [r] they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore [u] rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. [v] Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for [x] the devil is come down unto TRIUMPH OF REDEEMED Vv1-5.

1209. Gen[l] of persons belonging to a former age Matth. 5:21,33 - "of old time." RV. of prophets of a former age. Luke 9:8,19; of days gone by Acts 15:21 - from old in the sense of originality. RVmg. "from early day" - a disciple from the beginning - "an early disciple" Acts 21:16. The original state: "old things have passed away" 2 Cor 5:17. The "old world" - or original form of civilisation 2 Pet. 2:5. The "old serpent" therefore relates to the original serpent - the influence of which is in evidence still Rev 12:9; 20:2.

REV. 12:4. "In these words we have the dragon doing what Pharaoh did to Israel Exod. 1:15-20. In the Psalms & in the Prophets, Egypt is spoken of as the dragon Ps. 74:13; Isa. 27:1; 51:9; Ezek 29:3). Nor is it without interest to remember that Pharaoh's crown was wreathed with a dragon (the asp or serpent of Egypt).

CHAPTER 13.

VERSE 1 • RV places first clause at conclusion Ch. 12: renders in third person: "; and he stood upon the sand of the sea." Ch. 13 commences: "And I saw..." Others read, as A.V. • "Beast" - "Therion" - "wild beast" in contrast to Zoon - "living creature" Rev 4:7. "Therion" stresses the bestial qualities of the animal, "Zoon" the life principle. Zoon is never used in LXX for sacrificial animals. • "the name" - "ONOMATA" - names of blasphemy (no definite article). The names: doctrines, practises & titles of Rome.

VERSE 2 • "The Beast" - The leopard noted for speed in seizing the prey, bloodthirstiness & cruelty; the bear for strength which renders much in the feet & claws; the mouth of the lion, which not only roars its defiance & threats, but also seizes and holds the prey. General appearance - was that of the dragon for it had 7 heads & ten horns Ch. 12:3 and therefore represented the European aspect of the Dragon, but inasmuch as it had the "name of blasphemy", it was religious in character. • "power" - Dunamin - the ability to perform things, as distinct from the authority to do so. Cf. Vv 4,5,7,12,14,15. • "Authority" - EXOUSIA - permission, authority. This is rendered "power" in Vv. 4,5,7,12. In Vv. 14,15 "power" is DIDOMI - to give, thus RV: "it was given (him)." "World" - Ge "the earth" -RV. The Roman "earth" Cp Rev. 16:14. • "Deadly wound" - RV: "death stroke." "wound" = plege" - stroke, "stroke of death." whereas "wounded" is from sphazo = slain. (Esphagmen - having been slain). Milligan states that the statement is the counterpart of Rev 5:6. In both cases there had been actual death and in both cases revival - one the mocking counterpart of the other Cp Rev 13:8 • "Wondered after" "Wondered" - THAUMAZO (strong) - To wonder with admiration & joined with "after" - To admire and follow after.

VERSE 4 • "Which gave" - The correct reading is hoti - "because he gave." • "Power" EXOUSIAN - Freedom of action, right to act. The Dragon delegated such authority to the beast. • "Who is like unto the beast" etc A parody on a similar ascription to God suggesting Divine honor paid to the beast Cp. Isa. 40:18,25; Ps. 113:5; Mic. 7:18; Jer. 49:19. Cp Rev 18:18.

VERSE 13 • "Wonders" - SEMEIA - signs. "so" HINA "in order that" - Bagster's Interlinear Greek-English. The publicly claimed "signs" and "miracles" with the result that the system was accepted as divine - and so could command armies. • "Power" DIDOMI = given. "Because of the sign which it was given it to do." Bagster Interlinear. The Franks under Pepin & Charlemagne gained such victories as to constitute "signs" and "miracles," and so gain the respect of men.

VERSE 14 • IMAGE - EIKON - Representation & manifestation. The word is used of the Lord in his relationship to the Father 2 Cor. 4:4. Col. 1:15. and of believers in their glorified state in relation to Christ Rom. 8:29. 1 Cor. 15:49 etc. • Power. Cp note V 15.

VERSE 15. • He had power to give" Didomi - "it was given him" - i.e he was permitted.

VERSE 7. • "Power" - EXOUSIA - Delegated authority • "overcome" to conquer "NIKAO" - vanquish, prevail. • "All Kindreds, tongues and nations" Cp Dan. 4:1; 6:25. Equivalent to the habitable. Seven times referred to in Apocalypse. "out of." Rev 5:9; 10 (Cp Matt. 26:16; Col. 1:23) in view of Rev. 11:9. Rome has power over Rev 13:7 Will oppose Christ Rev 17:15. Will be caused to mourn Rev 17 Will be issued an ultimatum Rev. 14:6 Will be ruled by saints Rev 10:11. RV foll. Greek includes "people": "over every tribe and people and tongue and nation."

VERSE 8 • "Slain from the foundation of the world" - "these words may be construed with 'slain' or with 'written.'" (Vincent). Alford urges the position of the words in favor of the connection with 'slain,' and says had it not been for the apparent difficulty of the sense thus conveyed no one would have thought of having gone back as far as 'hath been written' for a connection." RV: "the lamb that hath been slain from the foundation of the world." "Foundation" is the noun KATABOLES. It is preceded with the preposition "apo" - that which developes out of that with which it is associated. See Note opp. p. 262.

VERSE 10 • "Patience" See Note 1:9 Occurs 7 times 1:9; 2:2,3; 2:19; 3:10; 13:10; 14:12.

VERSE 14. • Gibbon supplies many examples. Writing of the pontificate of Gregory the Great, he states: "The credulity or the prudence of Gregory, was always disposed to confirm the truths of religion by the evidence of ghosts, miracles, and resurrections" (Dec. & Fall, 3, 210).

VERSE 16 • "Mark" CHARAGMA - a stamp, impress. Rend. "Graven" Acts 17:29. The brand set upon slaves, sometimes on soldiers by their monarchs, or slaves attached to certain temples Rev. 13:16,17; 14:9,11; 15:2; 16:2; 19:20; 20:4. Cp with Stigma - a tattooed mark, or a mark burnt in, a brand (akin to stizo - to prick) rend "marks" Gal 6:17. - physical sufferings of Paul that had left their scars.

CHAPTER 14.

VERSE 1 • "His Father's name" - The RV following the Greek has "his name & the name of his Father." See comments on the text. Eureka. Vol. 3 p. 376 "kai" - "and" is the conjunction of annexation uniting things strictly co-ordinate, and, also, even." (Bull). The latter should be used here, for their names are one Mt 28:19. He is the channel by which we reach the Father. Jhn 5:23; 8:54.

VERSE 2 • "I heard the voice of harpers" Lit. "And the voice which I heard (was) as (the voice) of harpers."

VERSE 5 • "Without fault" RV. without blemish. 1 Pet 1:19; Jude 24

VERSE 6 • "Gospel to preach" - Gospel is EUANGELION - Good news. Preach is EUANGELISAI. It is rend "proclaim" by RV, a more appropriate expression in this place.

VERSE 8 • "Wine of the wrath of her fornication" - She has caused the nations to drink of the wine of her fornication that has brought on the wrath of God. Cp v. 10

VERSE 10. • "Poured out without mixture" Lit. "Having been mixed undiluted in the cup" - The Inter-linear Greek-English. It was usual to dilute with water but this wine will be at full strength - there will be no mitigation of punishment. • "Indignation" ORGE - Wrath Cp Note Rev. 7:8.

VERSE 13 • "From henceforth" It is said that the construction of the Greek favors joining this with "die" as in AV & not as margin. This way is suggested that in view of the persecution & frustration to which believers would be subjected, Cp 13:10 that to "die in the Lord would be a greater benefit than living in persecution & tribulation Cp Isa. 57:1. 1 Rev. 5:6.
2 Heb. 12:22. A symbol of permanency. Ps. 125:1.
3. The symbolic number of the Redeemed. Cp Rev. 7:4. the square of 12, the number of Israel. Eph. 2:12. The "Thousand" indicates the multiplicity of the Redeemed. It is a symbolic number like Deut. 33:2. Cp. Dan. 7:10. 11. Isa. 43:7. Then physically pose.
O.T. = "Having been written" First Doctrinally John 17:6, 26 Heb. 12:15. Mat. 25:34 Thes. 7:9-10 The Late Rabbis [illegible]

Blessedness will not be appreciated until "henceforth" - until the events of this chapter revealed. • "Labours" - Kopon from Kopto - to strike, thus as striking, a beating, or to beat the breast in sorrow. As labour it implies labour which involves weariness and sorrow. • "Follow" The Gr. AKOLOUTHEI expresses a union, thus to go with, to accompany, to co-operate with. Cp v. 4 (similar word) Found in the word AKOLOUTHEO - a follower. In the verse before us, the verb is in the singular, but the noun in the plural, so Brother Thomas suggests the amendment to the AV.

VERSE 15. • "Ripe" XERAINO - To dry up, wither. RV = "over-ripe." Suggesting the "longsuffering" of God. 1 Pet 3:20; 2 Pet 3:15

VERSE 18. • "Gather" TRUGAO from TRUGE (gather ripe fruit in Autumn) signifies to gather in of the harvest, vintage, ripe fruits • "Fully ripe" AKMAZO - At the full point of ripeness. From the word is derived "acme."

VERSE 19. • "The great winepress" - The adjective is in the masculine gender, the noun in the feminine (Vincent). This will be a joint labor by the bridegroom & the bride. Cp Isa. 63:1-3.

CHAPTER 15

VERSE 1. • "Another sign in heaven" Linking this sign with that of Ch. 12:1, 3. The former "sign" heralded the elevation of an apostate system into a position of authority this one heralds the ecclesia into ruling places with Christ. SEMEION - sign, mark, indication, token. See Paul's use of the word for his signature here authenticating his epistles. 2 Thess. 3:17, of a sign heralding an event - "the sign of Jonah" Mt. 12:39 16:4 or authenticating one 1 Cor. 1:22. The word occurs 7 times in the Apocalypse Rev. 12:1, 3. 13:13, 14; 15:1; 16:14; 19:20

• "Plagues" - "Plegas" (plural of plege - plog-gay) from PLESSO - flattening out by pounding or emiting. Thus a stripe or wound caused by a stripe. It is also used of a rent. "stripes" Luke 12:48; Acts 16:23, 33; 2 Cor 6:5; 11:23. The word is used 10 times in the Apocalypse, rend. "wound" [illegible] • "plague" Rev. 9:20; 11:6; 15:1, 6, 8; 16:9, 21; 18:4, 8; 21:9; 22:18. Note they are given the definite article because they bring to consummation the Divine purpose terminating the present order. • "Filled up the wrath of God" "TELEO" - Completed, brought to an end. RV "finished." Cp "seven last plagues."

VERSE 2 • "Victory over the beast" etc. "Over" is EK - out of. In territories dominated by the beast, or influences stemming from it. "The beast" - political influences; the "image" - religious influences. "Mark" - identification in any way. "number" - Commercial dominations. Cp Ch. 13:17, 14-10, 16, 17:10.

VERSE 4 • "Nations" See Note Rev. 12:5

CHAPTER 16.

VERSE 2 • "Noisome + grievous sore" - KAKOS (bad - lacking any good quality). PONEROS from PONOS, "labour" - the active form of evil. Where KAKOS and PONEROS are put together, KAKOS is always put first + signifies bad in character, base, PONEROS bad in effect, malignant. See 1 Cor. 5:13; Rev. 16:2 "Sore" = HELKOS - a sore or wound. Vine. LXX uses the word for the 6th plague. Exod 9:9-12. also for the boil or scab of leprosy Lev. 13:18 Hezekiah's boil 2 Kg 20:7 the boils of Egypt Deut. 28:27, 35.

VERSE 6. • "And shalt be" - Ho HOSIOS - Thou holy one. HOSIOS signifies what is religiously right + holy as opposed to what is unrighteous or polluted. It is the quality of holiness that has regard to the principles of grace and truth. It will vindicate righteousness and repudiate wickedness. Thus the title is associated with righteousness + judgment.

VERSE 7 • "altar" - RV as Gr. "I heard the altar say."
Heb. 13:10. The altar personified.

VERSE 8. • "Power" - Not in text. RV = "it." There was little of real power manifested by the Emperor of Austria, though the preparations for war made necessary by the attacks of Napoleon caused the "sun" to increase its heat • "With fire" - en = in fire. The element in which the fire takes place.

VERSE 14. • "King of the earth and of the whole world" Lit. "King of the whole habitable." OIKOUMENE. It was used in the Roman period ... for the Imperium Romanum - the lands under Roman rule. In other words what had originally been a geographical and cultural concept had become a political concept in the Roman period. The Emperor Nero was entitled soter (Savior) and Euergetes (Benefactor) of the Oikoumene." The word "Ecumenical" comes from oikoumene - Dict. of N.T. Theology. Lit. King of the habitable - whole. "Whole" = holos - completely altogether and by analogy - everywhere. Thus not limited to the Roman habitable.

VERSE 9. • "They repented not to give him glory" - Glorify him by repentance.

VERSE 11. • "Working miracles" - Signs. The signs of the times. • "Keepeth his garments" - During the night the captain of the Temple made his rounds. On his approach the guards had to arise and salute him in a particular manner. Any guard found asleep when on duty was beaten or his garments were set on fire. The confession of one of the Rabbis is on record that, on a certain occasion, his own maternal uncle had actually undergone the punishment of having his clothes set on fire by the captain of the Temple" Edersheim - the Temple. • "Naked" - A Laodicean characteristic Rev. 3:17. To walk naked implies that one's garments have been taken whilst asleep. For garments see Gen. 3:10-11. Lev. 13:47; Deut. 22:11; Col. 2:20-23. • "Shame" - ASCHEMOSUNE - Unseemliness. Only here and Rom. 1:22. This made apparent by the judgment 2 Cor. 5:10.

CHAPTER 17

VERSE 4. • "A golden cup in her hand" - Designed to attract her votaries + to prepare them for fornication. Leo 12 had medal struck showing Papacy as a woman holding forth a cup.

VERSE 5. • "Forehead" Cp Exod. 28:36; 2 Chr. 26:19.

VERSE 6 • "Drunken with blood" - Intoxicated with the success of her campaign. Jer. 46:10.

VERSE 8. • "The beast" "The beast before us is the beast of the see with 7 heads + 10 horns but with certain additional particulars. The beast of the sea in Ch. 13 was the polity it represents, in its origin; but the beast of the abyss of Ch. 17, is the same polity in the last 30 years, or "one hour" of its existence + previous to the arrival at the "perdition" into which it goes away. Thus a revival of the beast supported by the dragon. See "Eureka" Cp. Dan. 8:25; 11:36-45

VERSE 13 • "Strength" - Exousia. Indwelling strength, physical power. They deliver up their inherent ability + indwelling strength. - Independence.

die in the Lord [Supp.] from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, [a] that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat [c] like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came [d] out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in [e] thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is [f] ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came [g] out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from [h] the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; [i] for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great [b] winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And [c] the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The seven last plagues. 3 The song of the victors. 7 The seven vials full of the wrath of God.

AND I saw [k] another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, [l] seven angels having the seven last plagues; [l] for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw [a] as it were [b] a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over [c] the beast, and over his image, and over [d] his mark, and over [f] the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, [g] having the harps of God.

3 And they sing [h] the song of Moses the servant of God, and [i] the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; [m] just and true are thy ways, thou King of [n] saints.

4 [o] Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art [p] holy: for [q] all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, [r] the temple of [s] the tabernacle of the testimony [t] in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, [u] clothed in pure and white linen, and [v] having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven [a] golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And [c] the temple was filled with smoke [d] from the glory of God, and from his power; and [f] no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

The angels pour out their vials.

Lit. there came to pass, i.e. there broke out

16 And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial [a] upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous [d] sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial [e] upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and [o] they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, [p] Thou art righteous, O Lord, [r] which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For they have shed the blood of [t] saints and prophets, and [u] thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And [v] I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God, [w] Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial [b] upon the sun; and power was given unto him [x] to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were [z] scorched with great heat, and [c] blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and [o] they repented not [h] to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon [k] the seat of the beast; and [l] his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and [o] their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon [p] the great river Euphrates; and [q] the water thereof was dried up, that [r] the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like [u] frogs come out of the mouth of [b] the dragon, and out of the mouth of [c] the beast, and out of the mouth of [e] the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, [h] working [z] miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, [k] to gather them to the battle of [l] that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, I come [m] as a thief. [n] Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And [s] he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue [t] Armageddon.

17 And the seventh [u] angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice [x] out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, [a] such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And [y] the great city was divided [d] into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, [f] to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And [i] every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a [v] great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men [n] blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAPTER 17.

JUDGMENT ON THE ROMAN WHORE Cp Isa. 26:9.

1 And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; [a] I will shew unto thee the judgment of [b] the great whore [c] that sitteth upon many waters:

2 [d] With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and [e] the inhabitants of the earth [f] have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication. [g]

3 So he carried me away [h] in the spirit [i] into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a [k] scarlet coloured beast, full of [l] names of blasphemy, [m] having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was [n] arrayed [o] in purple and scarlet colour, and [p] decked [q] with gold and precious stones and pearls, [r] having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, [s] MYSTERY, BABYLON [t] THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF [u] HARLOTS AND [v] ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw [w] the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of [x] the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and [y] shall ascend out of [z] the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, [a] whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And [b] here is the mind which hath wisdom. [c] The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And [d] the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These [e] shall make war with the Lamb, and [f] the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is [g] Lord of lords, and [h] King of kings: and [i] they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, [j] The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And [k] the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and [l] naked, and shall eat her flesh, and [m] burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and [n] give their kingdom unto the beast, [o] until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest is [p] that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

CHAPTER 18

BABYLON'S VIOLENT OVERTHROW 2 Thess 1:8-9, 2:8 Isa 26:5

1 And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried [a] mightily with a strong voice, saying, [b] Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become [c] the habitation of devils, and the hold of [d] every foul spirit, and a cage of [e] every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For [f] all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and [g] the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and [h] the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the [i] abundance of her [m] delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, [n] Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 [o] For her sins have reached unto heaven, and [p] God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 [q] Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: [r] in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7 [s] How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for [t] she saith in her heart, [u] I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come [v] in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and [w] she shall be utterly burned with fire: for [x] strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And [y] the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, [z] shall bewail her, and lament for her, [a] when they shall see the smoke of her burning,

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, [b] Alas, alas that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for [c] in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And [d] the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; [e] for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and [f] fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all [g] thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

13 And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and [h] fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and [i] slaves, and [j] souls of men.

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, [k] which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, [l] that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches [b] is come to nought. And every [d] shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,

18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, [h] What city is like unto this great city!

19 And [k] they cast dust on their heads, and cried, [m] weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 [q] Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy [r] apostles and prophets: for @God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel [c] took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, [f] Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And [h] the voice of harpers, and [i] musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and [n] the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for [t] thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for [z] by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

24 And [a] in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

CHAPTER 19.

1 God is praised in heaven for his righteous judgments. 7 The marriage of the Lamb.

AND after these things [c] I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; [i] Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For [m] true and righteous are his judgments: for [o] he hath judged [p] the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and [s] hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, Alleluia. And [z] her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And [e] the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, [a] Amen; Alleluia.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, [b] Praise our God, all ye his servants, and [d] ye that fear him, [e] both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and @as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, [7] Alleluia: for [k] the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and [l] give honour to him: for @the marriage of the Lamb is come, and @his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And [p] to her was granted that she should be @arrayed in fine linen, clean and [q] white: for [r] the fine linen is [s] the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, [u] Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, [v] These are the true sayings of God.

10 And [a] I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, [b] See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that [c] have the testimony of Jesus: [d] worship God: for [f] the testimony of Jesus is [g] the spirit of prophecy.

11 And I saw [h] heaven opened, and behold [k] a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called [l] Faithful and True, and [m] in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 @His eyes were as a flame of fire, and [r] on his head were many [t] crowns; and he had [u] a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called [v] The Word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in [b] fine linen, white and clean.

THE FINAL REVOLT. CH. 20: 7-10.

"Then cometh the end." 1 Cor. 15:24.

24. A relaxation of authority enabling every body to manifest the hidden motives of the heart. In an undivided love-

CH. 17: VERSE 16. "Burn her with fire" - KATAKAIOO read. "Utterly burned" Rev. 18:8. The work initiated by the horns shall be completed by the Redeemed. Dan. 7:25-27. The French Revolution and the wars of Napoleon commenced the process, which was further stimulated by Karl Marx. "It was with the utmost difficulty, in 1848, that the Papal power was sustained, & this was done only by foreign swords" (A. Barnes). In 1870 the Temporal power of Papacy terminated & the pope stripped of power & "made desolate" as a prisoner of the Vatican. Garibaldi had surrendered his authority to Victor Emmanuel, & the two rode side by side into the city of Naples. The "wounding of a head" had been repeated. Rev. 13:3.

VERSE 17 "For" - GAR - Expressing the reason, cause & motive principle of what has been said. "Kingdom unto the beast" - The holy Roman Empire, suppressed by Napoleon in 1806, arose in a new form with the formation of the 2nd Reich in 1870, & by the 3rd Reich in 19[illegible]. "Until" ACHRI - "Fixing the attention on the whole duration of time up to a certain time, but leaving the further continuance undetermined." Bullinger. Making it a concordat (treaty) in 1929 Mussolini signed a concordat with the Pope that restored his temporal power. The "deadly wound" was healed after a period of time comparable with that of its infliction. This requires both to oppose and later to support the papacy. Rev. 16:4-16. At the epoch of his judgment the Woman is seated on the beast, proclaiming that she shall no longer see trouble. 18:7.

CHAPTER 19

VERSE 10 • "I fell at his feet": Throughout the Revelation there is a presiding angel supervising the various visions. Rev. 1:1; 10:9; 11:1; 17:1, 7; 19:9, 10; 22:6, 8, 16. Here the angel identifies himself with the saints, for the vision just concluded relates to the time when they shall be made "equal unto the angels." "For" is GAR "expressing the reason, purpose, motive cause etc. of what has previously been said." He identifies himself with the testimony of Jesus." & much as he sets forth the testimony of Jesus.

VERSE 13 • "Dipped" Bapto - Drag. "Having been dipped." The readings differ. The RV translates the verb "RHANTIZO" - sprinkled, with a marg. note "some anc. auth. read 'dipped in'"). Cp Isa 63:2-3.

• "The Word of God": In the Gospel the title is absolute - The Word - here it is qualified - "of God." Here is the sense in which it can be stated that "the Word was God" - because it was "of God."

VERSE 16 • "Eat the flesh" - i.e. benefit from the judgments of Armageddon. They can only do this by identifying themselves with the victory won. Recognising the justness of God in overthrowing the enemy.

CHAPTER 21

VERSE 6. "It is done" GEGONEN - "They are come to pass." The final prophecies are fulfilled Cp 16:17.

VERSE 10 "That great city, the holy Jerusalem" - Lit. "The holy city Jerusalem" - Holy = Temple city - "Built to Yahweh" Jer. 31:38. Like its literal counterpart.

VERSE 11. "Clear as crystal" One word in Greek, "KRUSTALLIZO" - to shine like crystal, to be of crystalline brightness. The verb may, however, have a transitive force signifying to crystallise or cause to become like crystal. In that case it would speak of Christ (since he is the 'Light-giver' see the preceding part of the verse) as the one who causes the saints to shine in his own likeness" - Vine.

23. With the relaxation of authority, human nature will assert itself Isa. 26:10. In their folly men will imagine they can challenge the Almighty for sin is a deceiver. Rom. 7:11.

24. Not to be confused with Ezekiel 38.

"Her light" "PHOSTER" A luminary, or light giver. It is used figuratively of believers, as shining in the spiritual darkness of the world Phil. 2:15, but here it is used of Christ as the light reflected in and shining through the "new Jerusalem," his Bride. V 9. Cp V. 23.

VERSE 12. "Gates" Gr. PULONAS. A Pulon signifies a porch or vestibule, then the gateway or gate tower of a walled town. Cp Ezek. 40:5-6.

VERSE 16. 12000 See Note on Silver Sockets bottom p. 113. OT. - each double socket representing the redemption money of 1000 men.

VERSE 17. "Cubits" PECHUS - The forearm. Hence the part of the arm between the hand & the elbow-joint, about a foot and a half - though measurements vary.

VERSE 18. "Building" ENDOMESIS - EN - in, DOMAO - To build. = That which is built in = hence the material of which the wall was composed.

VERSE 20. SARDONYX.: "The most beautiful & rarest variety of onyx. Pliny defines it as originally signifying a white mark in a sard (cornelian) like the human nail (onyx) placed in flesh & both of them transparent. onyx is called from the resemblance of its white & yellow veins to the shades in the human nail finger-nail. (Vincent). Vine = "A name which indicates the formation of the gem, a layer of sard, & a layer of onyx, marked by the red of the sard & the white of the onyx." Approp. to Naphtali - wrestling, with the hands.

VERSE 21. "Pearl" - Gr Margarites. "Among the motives which impelled Caesar to attempt the conquest of Britain, was the fame of its pearl-fisheries... The Latin term "unio" (unity) was applied to the pearl because no two were found exactly alike; (unity in diversity - HPM); but the word became in time restricted to the fine, spherical pearls, while the generic name was margarita. Shakespeare uses "union" for pearl in Hamlet, Act 5, Sc. 2.

CHAPTER 22.

VERSE 1. "Clear as crystal" See Supp. 21:11.

VERSE 3. "Serve" LATREUO - Primarily to work for hire Cp 1 Pet. 2:9 mg. 1:18-19. ; Cor. 9:23. "It came to be used by the Jews in a very special sense, to denote the service rendered to Yahweh by the Israelites as the peculiar people. Rom. 9:4 Acts 26:7; Heb. 9:1, 6. Hence the significant application of the term 'Christian' service by Paul in Phil. 2:3. His slaves' duality' attain unto the honored position of rendering him service as his peculiar people. Cp Ch. 7:15.

VERSE 4. "They shall see his face" - This means that they will be made consubstantial with him. See Exod. 33:20. Ps. 17:15.

VERSE 6. "The Lord God of the holy prophets" - Lit. "the Lord the God of the spirits of the prophets" - The spirit of prophecy was directed of God. 2 Pet. 1:19-21; 1 Cor. 14:32. One of the chief functions of prophecy was to comfort, exhort Acts. 15:32 & edify believers 1 Cor. 14:3. For "spirits" see 1 John 4:1-4. The purpose of giving the Revelation was not merely to foretell the future, but also to comfort and edify believers.

"Shortly be done" - RV "shortly come to pass"

VERSE 7. "Quickly" - Sti. "Shortly, i.e. without delay; soon or (by surprise) suddenly, or (by impl. of case) readily." Occurs 7 times. Rev. 2:6, 16; 3:11; 11:14; 22:7, 12, 20.

"Keepeth" - Tereo. From tereo, a watch. To guard from loss or injury by keeping the eye upon.

a Satan bound for a thousand years. 6 The first resurrection. 12 The last and general resurrection.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold upon @the dragon, that old serpent, which is [c] the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and [f] set a seal upon him, that [h] he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw [k] thrones, and they sat upon them, and [m] judgment was given unto them: and I saw [o] the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and [r] which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and [s] reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such [x] the second death hath no power, but they shall be [a] priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed [c] out of his prison,

8 And shall go out [d] to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, [e] Gog and Magog, [f] to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And [h] they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and @the beloved city: and [k] fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

REVELATION 21.

10 And the devil that deceived them [b] was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face [f] the earth and the heaven fled away; and [g] there was found no place for them. (See above) (Gr "the throne" RV.

12 And I saw the dead, [k] small and great, stand before God; and "the" books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and [2] the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and [m] death and [3] hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And [3] death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER 21.

1 A new heaven and a new earth. 10 The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof.

AND I saw [1] [o] a new heaven and a new earth: for [h] the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I [4] John saw [k] the holy city, [6] new [7] Jerusalem, [8] coming down from God out of heaven, prepared [m] as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, [p] the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will [q] dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and [r] God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And [s] God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and [t] there shall be no more death, [u] neither sorrow, nor crying, [v] neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. Rendered "first" V.1

5 And [e] he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, [h] Write: for [i] these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, [l] It is done. [m] I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. [n] I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 [o] He that overcometh shall inherit [2] all things; and [p] I will be his God, and he shall be [q] my son.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and [r] the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and [s] idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in [t] the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is [b] the second death.

9 And there came unto me [e] one of [d] the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee [e] the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And [f] he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 [f] Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and [u] had twelve [g] gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

The herds of dogs which prowl about eastern cities, without a home & without an owner, feeding on the refuse & filth of the streets, quarrelling among themselves, and attacking the passer-by, explain both applications of the image." - Lightfoot.

The Root. V. 16 The word Nazarene, in Hebrew = sprout or shoot as in Isa. 11:1.

In Isa 10:33-34 Assyria (Gog) is shown as overthrown under the figure of the felling of a cedar-forest. The cedar throws out no fresh suckers, and once cut down is destroyed. Not so the oak which Isaiah gives as the figure of Israel Isa. 6:11. for this a tree which after the felling a stock remaineth Job. 14:7-10. There is a future there for Israel the oak, for the root shall continue to feed & to bear. As David arose from the humble family of Jesse to great honor & supreme power in Israel, so the Lord arose from a greater humiliation to greater honor in which David will in him shall share.

THE BATTLE OF MICHMASH
1 Sam. 13, 14.

TWO INVASIONS OF SENNACHERIB? 2 Kgs 18:17-19:37.

Wm Albright suggests that Scripture implies 2 invasions of Sennacherib. On the first Hezekiah submitted by paying tribute; on the 2nd, fortified by Isaiah, he resisted & the attack failed. H.E. Finley in Beacon follows this on the following grounds. 1 His submissiveness in paying tribute 18:13-16 is contrasted to his subsequent defiance & refusal to yield; his total reliance upon Yahweh to deliver the city. 2. The mention of Tirhakah 19:9 the Ethiopian. Non-Biblical sources show that he became co-regent with his brother Shebitko in 690/89 & therefore could not have led an army into Palestine as early as 701 B.C. Thus the Egyptian forces that Sennacherib met at Eltekeh were not the same as those led by Tirhakah. 3. References in Isaiah's prophecies imply a double invasion. He was opposed to any alliance with Egypt Isa. 30:1-7; 31:1-3. He was critical of the attitude of many in Jerusalem who put their trust in defences and even in the construction of the water-tunnel from Gihon to Siloam. Isa. 22:8-13. He predicted the overthrow of the Assyrian which does not conform to the payment of tribute 2 Kg 18:14-16. (See Hos. 10:24-27; 14:2-8; Is. 29:5-8) 4. The destruction of Sennacherib's army & sudden deliverance of Jerusalem is supported indirectly by non-biblical historians. But the Biblical account loses its force if it is understood as taking place immediately after the surrender of Hezekiah. It is therefore more satisfactory to place the events of 2 Kg 18:17-19:37 sometime after those of 18:13-16 perhaps some 12 years. First invasion in 701 B.C. Second invasion about 688. "The time for this invasion is suggested as around 688 B.C. because it is known that Sennacherib had to deal with an uprising of Babylonians & Elamites in 689 B.C. It was during this time that rebellion flared again in the west, with Tirhakah of Egypt perhaps the leader of it & Hezekiah of Judah participating in it" -Beacon.

CONDITIONS UNDER MANASSEH - See also topp. 336. Ewald - history. "The atmosphere of the age was poisoned from above; and the leaders of the people of every class, whose moral decline had already become a subject of lament in the preceding century, sank into an almost incredible degeneracy. The prophets, who ought to have been ever the most loyal guardians of the Truth, were for the most part like dumb and greedy dogs; many of the Priests allowed themselves to be seduced into offering heathen sacrifices; the judges and nobles paid little heed to the Eternal right. Equivocation & hypocrisy spread among those who ought to have ministered most austerely to public truthfulness of life; while those who were engaged in commerce and trade sank into the harshest indifference to every higher aim, and thought only of the acquisition and enjoyment of wealth. So terrible was the demoralisation of society which set in under Manasseh, that those who remained faithful to the ancient religion were either scoffed at or fooled, or allowed to perish in cold contempt without any effort being made to save them, and were even derided after their death."

"SHED INNOCENT BLOOD VERY MUCH" 2 Kg 21:16: A reign of terror was launched against all who dared to protest or oppose the royal policy. Josephus declared he cruelly put to death the righteous among the Hebrews, and did not spare even the prophets". It is claimed that Isaiah was among those put to death being "sawn asunder" Heb 11:37. Jerusalem was filled with evidences of their blood

HEBREW POETRY

GENERAL PRINCIPLE

Represents a parallelism of ideas rather than of rhyme. Even rhythm is not always present though it is often found in regular lines when it appears like the motions of the dancer with which it was sometimes accompanied Exod. 15:20-21. This parallelism is of three main kinds ~

COMPLETIVE

In which successive lines add or emphasise the thought originally expressed e.g. Ps. 19:7, 30:11, 1:1, 46:1, 92:12.

CONTRASTIVE

In which words and ideas are contrasted. Eg. ~ The house of the wicked which shall be destroyed is contrasted with the tent of the righteous which shall flourish Prov. 14:11. Cp. Prov. 3:5, 27:6. Ps 30:5. 32:10.

CONSTRUCTIVE

In which progressive thought is presented. One idea is built on another like steps in a ladder, until unitedly they bridge the complete thought, presenting one complete idea - Eg. Prov. 30:17 - The Eye: what it does, and what happens to it. Ps. 21:1-2 ~ STRENGTH is developed into salvation, and the desire of the heart becomes the request of the lips. See also. Ps. 20:7-8. Isa. 55:6-7.

ITS UNIVERSALITY

This poetry of parallel ideas makes it wonderfully suitable for translation into any language. Poetry is normally the most difficult to translate and usually loses all its force and meaning in the process, but Hebrew poetry can be reproduced in any language without any diminution of its beauty and force.

ITS FORM

Usually the parallelism yields a distich (two lines), but tristichs are not uncommon, and tetrastichs and pentastichs also occur. In. Isa 55:6-7 there occur three constructive distichs so joined as to make a united whole. Sometimes the constructive parallels are presented in introverted form, in which the first line corresponds with the last, the next with the second to last, and so on. See. Ps. 115: 15-18 (Other egs. Hos. 11:4. Ps 67.)

The idols of the heathen are silver and gold,
The work of men's hands
They have mouths but they speak not;
They have eyes but they see not;
They have ears but they hear not;
Neither is there any breath in their mouths;
They who make them are like unto them;
So are all they who put their trust in them.

THE PROPHETIC OFFICE

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE WORD

Hebrew - "Nähbi" from verb "Naba" — "to boil or bubble over." Taken from metaphor of fountain bursting forth from heart of man into which God hath poured it (Gesenius). See margin Ps. 45:1. Prov. 1:23. 2 Pet. 1:21. Because the prophet then not responsible for his utterances, the word is sometimes used in sense of raving 1 Sam. 18:10.

Greek - "Pro" (for) Phet (Speak), thus to Speak for. A prophet was thus the messenger, or interpreter of the Divine will Exod. 4:16. 7:1. 1 Cor. 14:3. Hag. 1:13. Mal. 1:1. both in fore-telling and forth-telling. They are described as Messenger of Yahweh. Hag. 1:13. Mal. 1:1. Jud. 2:1. The Man of the Spirit Hos. 9:7. Neh 9:30. THE PROPHETIC ORDER.

Though there were prophets before Samuel, he is classed as the first Acts 3:24. Heb 11:32. because he founded the order. Before his time the prophets were individuals, but after his day they are described as "schools." They constituted an order, and congregated in groups of fifty and hundred. 1 Kings 18:4. 2 Kings 2:3,7] The chief prophets,—many of whom are named beside those prominent through their writings [1 Kings 11:29. 13:1, 16:7, 18:3, 22:8. 2 Kings 4:1, 2 Chron. 9:29, 15:1-8, 16:7, 20:37, 28:9. Jer. 26:20. 35:4] - were known as "Fathers" e.g. 2 Kings 2:12., the lesser ones as "sons" e.g. 1 Kings 20:35. 2 Kings 2:3, 5. In his day Samuel was the appointed head. 1 Sam. 19:20. The chief had servants ministering to them 2 Kings 3:11.

- Their service and enthusiasm were expressed in the harmony of song & instrumental music
- Their teaching proclaimed the Divine will & purpose.
- Their status was high among the people 1 Sam. 10:11.

THEIR DUTIES

- The chief prophets were known as fathers 1 Sam. 10:12; 19:20. of master 2 Kg 2:3.
- Communities found at Naioth 1 Sam. 19:18, 20. and later at Bethel, Jericho, Gilgal 2 Kg 2:3, 5; 4:38.

A.V. = "COMPANY OF PROPHETS" Heb. = "Khay-bel" — a rope - as twisted together, a company as tied together, linked as a chain. From verb "Khaw-bal" to wind tightly (as rope), to bind specially by a pledge. Thus they constituted an Ecclesia within the Ecclesia.

The main prophets were selected by visions Num. 12:6-8. or Divine impulse Amos 7:14-15. so that Yahweh spoke through them often in the first person. There was usually no consecration - only a call. Prophets were called from all ranks of society and from both sexes, so that the prophetic institution —

1. Kept the minds of the people alert to constant expectation of some new prophet appearing
2. Maintained a constant protest against the rigidity of formalism and ceremonial institution.

They were the messengers of Yahweh to His people and the world. They made known His will, denounced His judgments, rebuked the crimes of rulers and people, instructed in doctrine, and revealed the future purpose.

Training was not necessary, since one cannot be trained for inspiration, but Yahweh spake "in" them. Heb. 1:1. They spake in His name Exod. 7:1. 4:16., chanted and sung praises under the stimulus of the Spirit 1 Sam. 10:11, 19:20. 1 Chron. 25:2-3.

Sometimes the message came by angelic voice Exod. 3:2-6. 1 Sam 3:4-10, Jer. 1:4 etc., sometimes by dream and vision Num. 12:6. Job 33:14-17, sometimes by effluence of the Spirit 1 Sam. 19:20-24. 2 Pet. 1:21. It affected them physically Num. 24:4, 16. Ezek 1:28. Rev. 1:17. Dan. 10:8. 7:27. often prostrating their strength — as any deep, absorbing emotion can. Though the urge could be irresistible, Jer. 20:9., the spirit was subject to the prophets 1 Cor. 14:32.

They often dramatized their message. Isaiah walked naked and barefooted three years, Ezekiel lay in the dust, others acted the predictions they made.

In short, they were the constant, vigilant watchdogs of the nation Isa. 56:10. Ezek. 3:17.

The prophetic institution in the midst of the nation was like the bursting, bubbling spring throwing its water out of the rock.

SCOPE OF MESSAGE - PAST.

They were historians 1 Chron. 29:29. 2 Chron. 9:29. selecting those incidents which illuminated and illustrated the character of Ile who guided its destiny.

PRESENT.

They set the will of Yahweh before the people in forthright fashion, vigorously opposing all forms of error, protesting against the common corruption of separating Religion from Morality, constantly warning against the merely legalistic approach. Thus we hear Samuel 1 Sam. 15:22. David Ps. 51:16-17. 40:6-8 Hosea Hos. 6:6. Amos Ch. 5:21-24 Micah Ch. 6:6-8 Isaiah Ch. 1:10-17. 58:6. Ezek Ch. 18:5-9. 20:18 and, greatest of all, Christ Mat. 5.

Indifferent to human praise or blame, imperious to fleshly opinion, the true prophet (and there were those who prostituted their calling (Neh. 6:10 Rev. 16:13.) manifested an unswerving fidelity to the Voice of independence, duty and conscience. They revealed a voluntary and faithful minority in the face of apostasy; a stern, unyielding, fiercely independent spirit Ezek. 2:6-7. 3:8-9.

FUTURE

They were enabled to maintain their fight because of their vision of future glory. They stood on a Rock "higher than others." They saw above and beyond the multitude. They did this because of the presence of Yahweh and the assurance of future glory.

They were the Anthpas of their age and generation. They were opposed to the spirit of the world. The world asked first: "Is it safe!" Then - "Is it true!" The prophets only: "Is it true" The world asked first: "Is it prudent!" Then: "Is it right!" The prophets only: "Is it right!" Above all they had the deepest patriotism for Israel; like the greatest of them all, they "wept over Jerusalem."

NEW TESTAMENT PROPHETS

Malachi was last of prophets Ecp. Ps. 74:9. Now arose the Scribes to defend and expound the prophetical writings. Then the Silence was broken with the Voice of the greatest of them all:- John Luke 7:27-28. 3:2. Mat. 11:9. 21:26. 14:5. The company of prophets still continued within Israel Luke 1:67; 2:36.

CHRIST: THE GREATEST

They prepared the way for the greatest of them all. He combined the duties of prophet with his mission as Saviour, guiding, directing, denouncing, predicting, protesting, proclaiming the will and purpose of his Father. He left his circle of prophets behind him Joel 2:28-29. Acts 13:1. 15:32. 11:27. whose work and mission were clearly defined 1 Cor. 14:3. Eph. 2:20, 3:5.

PRESENT OPERATIONS.

The call has come to individuals who claim to be the Ecclesia, who are bound to organize as a company - a rope or Chaybel. The spirit of the prophets will induce a fixed resolution to stand opposed (if need be) to popular clamor, and popular favour, against the opinions, the conversation of those about. It will indicate an even course that turns neither to the right hand or to the left but aims only for "the mark of the high calling of Christ Jesus" Phil. 3:14.

"Give us a man, young or old, high or low, on whom we know we can depend - who will stand firm when others fail - the friend faithful and true, the adviser honest and fearless, the adversary just and chivalrous. In such an one there is a fragment of the Rock of Ages - a sign that there has been a prophet among us." Such witnesses are always to hand Isa. 41:10. though often, as in the days of Elijah they are hidden from public view. 1 Kings 19:14. The Gospel call is designed to increase their number.

EPISTLE TO HEBREWS.

INTRODUCTION

Gospel preached. First to Jews

Apostolic preaching of the Gospel was first to the Jews and afterwards to the Gentiles [Acts. 17:2. Rom. 2:9-10]. The result was a large and overwhelming influx of Jews into the Ecclesia of Christ. 3,000 were added on the Day of Pentecost. Acts 2:41., many of the priests accepted the Truth Acts. 6:7, numbers of Pharisees believed Acts 15:5., and these remained zealous of the Law. Acts 21:20.

It is obvious from Acts 15 and from such Epistles as Galatians that these Jewish Christians were trying to superimposed the Law upon Christ as essential to justification. In fact, strict observance of the letter of the Law was beginning to submerge the Truth — Christ was being overshadowed by Moses.

Such teaching and implication were fiercely countered by the Apostle Paul. The harshness of his opposition could have the effect of turning some completely from the Law, and adopt an extreme attitude against it. This Epistle shows the superiority of Christ over Moses, of the New Covenant over the Old, without detracting in the least from the Law. It reveals how that perfection and finality came in Christ who fulfilled the Law.

Their ardour for the Law rather than for Christ had to be restrained.

But the Law still has value and a place.

Christ is shown to be better than the angels. Heb. 1:4; we are introduced to a "better" priesthood. Ch 7:7. hope V. 19, covenant V. 22, Ch. 8:6. promises Ch 8:6. sacrifices Ch 9:23. reward Ch 10:34. country. Ch. 11:16, resurrection Ch 11:35. thing Ch 11:40. blood sprinkling Ch. 12:24 and hence a better response on the part of believers Ch. 6:9.

The word "better" frequently used to show superiority of Christ over Law.

There is a finality about enlightenment Ch. 6:4. of the offering of Christ 7:27. typified by entrance of High Priest into Most Holy 9:7., of Christ's presence in heaven for redemption 9:12., of his appearance for sacrifice V. 26., of death V. 27. of his offering to bear sins V. 28., of worshipper's sins that should be purged Ch. 10:2. of the offering of Christ by which we are sanctified Ch. 10:10. of the shaking of the Jewish heavens and earth Ch. 12:26, 27.

The finality of the Christ doctrine emphasised in the re-occurring use of the word once - often signifying "once for all time."

The Captain of salvation is perfect Ch. 2:10. through suffering Ch. 5:9, so ought his followers be mature Ch. 5:14. striving for it Ch. 6:1., "It did not come through Levitical priesthood. Ch. 7:11 nor the Law V. 19. whereas Christ was perfected. V. 28. The gifts and sacrifices of the Law made nothing perfect. Ch. 9:9, but Christ sets forth the perfect Tabernacle V. 11. The sacrifices of the Law made nothing perfect Ch. 10:1., but his offering did V. 14. Perfection is possible for us. Ch. 11:40. for he is the finisher of our faith Ch. 12:2., and to this we are called V. 23.

The completeness of things in Christ demonstrated by use of Word "Teleios" [and related words] rendered "perfect" [in sense of completeness], "full age" "perfection" "finisher."

Other important words occur. For example, we are told to "lay hold of the hope set before us" Ch. 6:18. to run with patience the race set before us" Ch. 12:1, and to heed the example of Christ who took heed to the joy set before him Ch. 12:2.

The focal passage — Ch. 10: 19-25.

ITS AUTHOR

Although not specifically stated indications point to Paul. cp. Heb 10:34 13:23. Peter, writing to Jewish believers, reminds them of Paul's Epistle to them. 2 Pet 3:16-17.

In A.D 180 one Pantaenus, a leading teacher of Alexandria, was referring to it as a generally accredited epistle of Paul. Origin [3rd Cent.] writes that "men of old handed it down as Paul's" and though he casts doubts upon the Pauline authorship, he admits that "the thoughts are the Apostles."

It has been objected that the style is different to that of other epistles, - but the subject is unique and would force a change of style. Most of Paul's epistles are combatitive, or deal with personal matters, but here we have exposition in a degree nowhere else met with in the N.T outside of the Apocalypse.

SUMMARY.

FINAL WORDS. - Ch. 13:22-25.

APOKALUPTO (Akin to Apokalupsis - Revelation).

"The N.T. occurrences of this word fall under two heads, subjective & objective. The subjective use is that in which something is presented to the mind directly, as, • The meaning of the acts of God. Mt. 11:25; Lk 10:21. • The true identity of Christ Mt. 16:17; Jhn 12:38. • The character & purpose of the Father as revealed in the Son. Mt. 11:27. Luke 10:22. • The revelation of God's will Phil. 3:15. • The mind of God to the prophets of Israel. 1 Pet. 1:12. and to the early Ecclesia 1 Cor. 14:30; Eph. 3:5.

"The objective use is that in which something is presented to the senses, sight or hearing, as, referring to the past • The truth declared to men in the Gospel Rom 1:17. 1 Cor. 2:10. Gal. 3:23 • The revelation to Paul that Jesus is Christ Gal. 1:16. • Thoughts previously hidden in the heart Luke 2:35. Referring to the future. • Manifestation of Christ in power Luke 17:30 • The salvation - glory of the believer in contrast to the present Rom. 8:18; 1 Pet. 1:5; 5:1. • The true value of labor 1 Cor. 3:13. • The wrath of God against sin Rom. 1:18 • The full manifestation of the lawless one 2 Thess. 2:3, 6, 8.

"FELLOWSERVANTS ALSO AND THEIR BRETHREN" Rev. 6:11.

Though a similar expression occurs three times in the Apocalypse cp Rev. 19:10; 22:9, in Rev. 6:11 a subtle difference is apparent and the construction of the Greek provides for two classes. The occurrence of "KAI" twice in the statement strongly implies that, so that Diaglott records: "till both their fellowservants & their brethren ..."

"Should be fulfilled" - RVmg: "Some ancient authorities read: 'have fulfilled their course'"

Fulfilment of Apocalypse – The Six Seals.

The First Seal – A.D. 96-153.
State of Rome

"The most happy and prosperous time of the human race." "The armies were restrained and the Emperors delighted in the image of peace and considered themselves as the accountable ministers of the laws" Gibbon.

Attitude to Christians

From Tiberianus of Syria to Emperor Trajan. – "I am quite wearied with punishing and destroying the Galileans, of those of the sect called Christians according to your orders. Yet they never cease to profess voluntarily what they are and to offer themselves to death. Wherefore I have labored, by exhortation and threatening from discouraging them from daring to confess to me that they are of that sect. Yet in defiance of all persecution, they still continue to do it."

Growth of Christianity

From Pliny's letter to Trajan towards end 1st Century. "The number of culprits (i.e. Christians) is so great as to call for serious consultation. The contagion of the superstition hath spread not only through cities but even villages and the country."

The Second Seal – A.D. 33-211.
Great and Sudden change.

"Distinction of every kind soon became criminal. Virtue implied a tacit censure of the irregularities of Commodus; important services implied a dangerous superiority of merit. The friendship of the father (Marcus Aurilius) insured the aversion of the son. The execution of a considerable senator was attended with the death of all who might lament or revenge his fate; and once Commodus had tasted human blood, he became incapable of pity or remorse" (Gibbon).

Commodus.

Pertinax.

Pertinax – "found a way of condemning his predecessor's memory by the contrast of his own virtues with the vices of Commodus." (Gibbon). He was murdered by the guards who feared he might suppress their privileges.

The Praetorian Guard.

Their "licentious fury was the first symptom and cause of the decline of the Roman Empire" – Gibbon. "Elated by success, and raised above the subjects' level the soon became oppressive to the country and impatient of just subordination."

Didius Julianus.

"Offering the Empire for auction, it was knocked down to the highest bidder whom they beheaded 63 days later."

Clodius Albinus, Pescennius Niger, Septimus Severus

This insult roused three generals commanding the legions. Severius marched on Rome, disarmed the Guards, replaced them with his own legions. He defeated the two other generals, ruled the Empire, being a just and firm ruler – bringing a measure of peace to the Empire.

The Third Seal – 212-235

Geta and Caracalla.

Caracalla several times tried to poison his father and raise an insurrection against him. He also tried to murder his brother Geta whom he later had assassinated. To establish his power, he paid the army profusely, heavily taxing the provinces for this purpose. "Under the vague appelation of the friends of Geta 20,000 persons suffered death." "If a senator was accused of being a secret enemy of the Government, the Emperor was satisfied with the general proof: that he was a man of property and virtue. From this well-grounded principle he frequently drew the most bloody inferences" (Gibbon).

Macrinus

tried to reform the army which revolted under Elagabalus and Macrinus was slain.

Elagabalus.

Spent his days in debauchery, vice, gluttony, lust and licence. The Empire was further taxed to provide these luxuries. He elevated his cousin Alexander to the position of Caesar, but learning that he was publicly applauded for his virtues, he reduced him in power. The army avenged the insult by slaying Elagabalus and throwing his body in the Tiber.

Alexander Severius

Only 14yrs of age, but was guided by his mother's wise counsel. He relieved the country of some of its burden, but in trying to reform the army whose cost was a heavy drain on the State, it rose against him and he was slain in 235.

The Fourth Seal 235-303
Maximin the Thracian

"Confiscation, exile or simple death were esteemed uncommon instances of Maximin's lenience. Some of his unfortunate sufferers he ordered to be sewn up in the hides of slaughtered animals, others to be exposed to wild beasts, others again to be beaten to death with clubs." Without a witness, without a trial and without an opportunity of 8 "The beasts of the earth" "It was the period of the first Gothic invasion of the Roman Empire; the period when those vast hordes, having gradually come down from the regions of Scandinavia, & having moved along the Danube toward the Ukraine & the countries bordering on the Borysthenes, invaded the Roman territories from the east, passed over Greece, & made their appearance almost within sight of Rome. The occasion, in A.D. 251 when Decius was summoned to the banks of the Danube by the invasion of the Goths, was the first time that history mentions that great people, who afterwards broke the Roman power, sacked the capital, & reigned in Gaul, Spain, & Italy" (Gibbon).

of the reigns of Valerian & Gallienus: "The whole period was one uninterrupted series of confusion & calamity. The Roman Empire was, at the same time, and on every side, attacked by the blind fury of foreign invaders, & the wild ambition of domestic usurpers" (Gibbon).

of defence Magnus (a Roman Senator supposed to have plotted against the Emperor's life) with 4, one of his supposed accomplices were put to death" (Gibbon). The revenue of towns and temples was confiscated. Riots, tumults & massacres followed as "death and the grave" waited upon the Empire.

MAXIMUS AND BALBINUS 238

Appointed by the people to oppose Maximin.—the former to conduct the war, the latter to attend to the civil government. Maximin assassinated by his soldiers. Jealousy and mistrust developed between his two successors. A troop of desperate assassins invaded the palace, stripped them both of their robes, dragged them through the streets of the city, where they left their bodies, mangled with 100 wounds, exposed to the insults or pity of the mob.

Concerning the Period

Gibbon declares: "The animating health & vigor of the Empire were fled." "The industry of the people was discouraged & exhausted by a long series of oppression. The discipline of the legions was corrupted by the ambition of the Emperors; the strength of the frontier was insensibly undermined, and the fairest provinces were left exposed to the rapacious rage or ambition of the barbarians" (Beasts of the earth).

Gallienus (an Emperor) to one of his ministers: "Let everyone die who has dropped an expression, who has entertained a thought against me.... Tear, kill, hew in pieces. I write to you with my own hand and would inspire you with my own feelings." Pestilence, plague and famine raged. For some time 5,000 died daily. Gibbon calculated that the miseries of the times accounted for the death in a few years of half the human race. With the assassination of Gallienus an improvement in conditions was experienced.

THE FIFTH SEAL -303-311

THE CHURCH

Mitzner: "During the whole 3rd century the work of God in purity and power had been tending to decay. The connection with philosophers was one of the principal causes. Outward peace and secular advantage completed the corruption. Ecclesiastical discipline was now relaxed exceedingly. Bishops & people were in a state of malice. Endless quarrels were fomented among the contending parties, and ambition and covetousness (sin) in general gained the ascendancy in the Christian Church. Some there were who mourned in secret and strove in vain to stop the abounding torrent of evil."

Novatius, Bishop of Rome (251) opposes Cornelius.

CIVIL _.

The latter fellowshipped those who had publicly renounced Christ, and sacrificed to idols in periods of stress. The former refused to do so. Division resulted, the majority siding with the latter.

DIOCLETIAN elevates MAXIMIAN as joint ruler with title Augustus. With two lesser rulers - Constantius (Caesar) and Galerius (Caesar)

Diocletian was originally tolerant towards Christians but was induced by Galerius in concert with pagan priests to attack them. 24th Feb. 303 - A general edict of persecution. Death threatened those who held secret meetings. Churches were destroyed - books - Bibles burnt. Christians no protection from law - slaves deprived of hope of freedom - avenues of employment closed. The edict was torn down by a "fellow-servant" of Nicomedia who expressed his contempt for tyrants. "He was roasted over a slow fire, and every refinement of torture was exhausted, without effect, to subdue his patience, or to alter the cheerful & inviting smile which in his dying agonies he still preserved in his countenance." The admiration of his fellows incited the hatred of Diocletian. The Christians were blamed for fires that twice within 15 days broke out in his palace - and every effort was made to exterminate Christianity.

MEMORIALS TO DIOCLETIAN

TWO PILLARS ERECTED IN SPAIN

"Diocletian Jovian, Maximian Herculeus, Caesars Augusti, for having extended the Roman Empire in the East & West, and for having extinguished the name of Christians who brought the Republic to ruin.."

"Diocletian etc. for having adopted Galerius in the East, for having everywhere abolished the superstition of Christ, for having extended the worship of the gods."

Diocletian (1 May 305) Abdicated. and shortly after Maximian

Constantius & Galerius Augusti. Maximin & Licinius Caesars.

Later Maximian again assumed the purple and appointed his son Maxentius to power. Maxentius and Constantius (ruled Britain, Spain Gaul) were very tolerant to Christians. Death Constantius - elevation of Constantine. Edict of toleration proclaimed by Constantine, Galerius, Licinius. In 311 Galerius died. His territory added to Maximin's who shortly after commenced the most violent persecution until "the pagans who witnessed the Christians' sufferings were at length disgusted by such profusion of blood shed and cruelty; the persecutors themselves became weary of slaying and resorted to other punishments — such as mutilation of limbs, plucking out an eye, employing bishops and other eminent men in degrading occupations, and sending large numbers of all classes to labor in unwholesome mines" (Robertson).

Maximin died of a frightful plague calling on God to forgive him.

Why the history of Kings

A H in S of I Gen

The Ge

General

Position

THE BOOKS OF THE CHRONICLES

Why the repetition of history in Samuel and Kings with Chronicles.

A thing is doubled in Scripture because of its importance Gen. 41:32.

Samuel and Kings record the history of Israel from the standpoint of the Throne we are taken over the bridge from anarchy to the Kingdom. Chronicles restate the same history from the standpoint of the temple, giving emphasis to its establishment and order. Thus in Kings, three chapters are given to the secular events of Hezekiah's reign (Chps 18, 19, 20) and only 3 verses to religious reformation (2 Kings 18:4-6), whereas in Chronicles 3 chapters are given to reformation (2 Chron 29-31) and only 1 Chapter to secular events. Events bearing on the Temple:- its preservation, restoration, the purity of its worship, are related doubtless for the guidance of returning exiles under Ezra and Nehemiah. The Temple is everywhere emphasised as the vital centre of national life, and as it was about to be rebuilt, there was a value in setting down clearly its ordinances.

As Israel is to be rebuilt "as in the days of old" Amos 9:11. this additional information of Temple worship is important as foreshadowing the future.

The Genealogies.

The Genealogies illustrate the selective process of Divine election from Adam downwards, preserving the trunk and main branches of Israel's family tree, at a time when, through disruption this was found necessary Cp Ezra. 2:59.

It links the pre-exile with the post-exile period, for 1 Chron 9:2-34 concerns the re-settlement after the exile.

The throne had fallen, the Temple was in ruins, but Messiah had to come through David, thus the importance of tracing the genealogies. They give the sacred line through which the promise was transmitted for nearly 3,500 years.

General Summary.

Three main features are thus emphasised:-

"(1) In view of the nation's unique calling and the Davidic covenant; it was most important to retain unimpaired the nation's principal genealogies; and these are therefore carefully presented in the first nine chapters. (2) In view of the calastrophes which had occurred, it was important to recast the nation's history exclusively from a religious standpoint; at least from the beginning of the Davidic Kingdom; and this we find from the 10th Chapt. 1st Chronicles onwards. (3) In view of the fact that the Temple represented the holy religion which had come to Israel by special Divine revelation, and the disregard of which had brought such evils on the nation, and in view of the fact that the Temple was the supreme surviving link between the nations great past and its still greater prophesied future, it was greatly important to emphasise the Temple and its ~~importance~~ observances in the regard of the people, and this emphasis we find throughout Chronicles" (J. S. Baxter).

Position in Hebrew Canon.

It is almost universally considered that Ezra was the author of Chronicles, and that it forms the first of a ~~little~~ trilogy from his pen— Chronicles, Ezra, Nehemiah: In the Hebrew Canon, however, Chronicles is placed last. Thus the Hebrew Canon of Scripture ends with the question "Who is there?" (2 Chron. 36:23). The N.T opens with one: "Where is he!" (Mal. 2:2). Chronicles ends with the proclamation of Cyrus—the N.T opens with the proclamation of the Lord concerning the Gospel Kingdom. Chronicles begins with 1st Adam, the N.T begins with 2nd Adam. Chronicles has relation exclusively to history Judah and descendants of David, and N.T introduces us to the coming of the King who is to sit on David's throne.

Psalms 42

The Psalms are fitted to all persons and ages, to all conditions and circumstances. Whether we be reporting or beholding, fearing or hoping, doubting or confiding, sorrowing or rejoicing, acting or suffering, admiring and praising Yahweh, or anxiously awaiting the coming of His Son, we will here find song adaptable to our needs. The Psalms offer the complete proof how utterly false is the notion that the religion of Israel was a mere formal system of external rites and ceremonies.

Jewish Music based on Melody rather than on Harmony.

"The ancient Jews were not acquainted with what is now called harmony, or the carrying on of different parts of tenor, treble, contra, and bass at the same time, by different classes of performers; for this was invented by Guido Aretin, a monk of Arezzo, in Italy, about the year 1022. On the contrary, it appears, from the Scriptures in general, and the apocryphal book of Ecclesiasticus 44:8, in particular, that their whole sacred music consisted of melodies, or a number of voices and instruments carrying on the tenor at the same time; unless we make the addition of the cymbal a species of harmony." (Antiq. of the Jews – W. Brown, Vol I. p. 327)

What they may have lacked in the modern science of harmony, they made up in part singing, choruses answering each other, or interspersed with solo voices (Ezra 3:11).

PSALM 93. (An amended version).

Yahweh hath proclaimed Himself King – and hath robed Himself in Majesty;
Yahweh hath robed Himself with a girdle of power;
He hath steadied and stabilised the world
Thy throne stands firm from of old.
The floods may storm, O Yahweh
The floods may storm aloud
The floods may storm and thunder!
But high above the roaring billows,
High above the ocean breakers,
Yahweh stands supreme.
Thy words are sure,
Holiness becometh Thy house
O Yahweh forever.

As a Psalm for the 6th day (see verse by verse notes) it commemorates the triumph of Creation over the waters. Gen. 1:2 seen in the emergence and populating of the earth.

The first verse (See Cambridge) is better rendered as indicating some great act demonstrating the authority of Yahweh – such as at Creation, or at the Red Sea (reached on the 6th day), the destruction of Assyria and so forth. In the future, He will reprove the roaring of the political ocean. Isa. 17:12-14

According to Cambridge Bible the structure of v. 4 is better expressed as here rather than in A.V.

PSALMS OF ASAPH. The Collector, or He hath gathered or removed reproach (Davis). Though the prominent singers were all called "seers" (1 Chron. 25:5) and they prophesied by song and music (v. 1-2) Asaph is selected as being pre-eminently so, and is held next in honor to David (2 Chron. 29:30). The emphatic manner in which the prophetic title is annexed to his name suggests that he was favored with a larger measure of the prophetic spirit than his contemporary Levitical prophets.

He was a Levite of the family of Gershon (1 Chron 6:39, 43. With Heman & Ethan he sounded the cymbals before the Ark as it was conducted to Zion 1 Chron 15:16-19. He was then appointed the honored position before the Ark: 1 Chron. 16:4, 5, 7 whilst Heman, Jeduthun and their brethren were appointed under Zadok to the service of the Tabernacle at Gibeon vv. 39-41. Cp Ch. 6:31-32. A special Psalm of thanksgiving was given him by David 1 Chron. 16:7. In the Temple service, he stood at the right hand of Heman as Ethan (Jeduthun) did on the left. 1 Chr 6:32, 39. 25:2. His four sons presided under him over four companies. Their descendants continued in the Temple service in the reigns of Jehoshaphat, Hezekiah and Josiah 2 Chron 20:14. 29:13. 35:15. 128 Asaphite singers returned with Zerubbabel and ministered in the 2nd Temple Ezra 2:41. 3:10. Neh. 7:44. 11:22.

12 Psalms are ascribed to Asaph. Ps. 50 in book 2 and Pss 73-83 comprising the bulk of Book 3. The Asaphite Psalms are distinguished from the Korahite Psalms by their prophetical and judicial character. Like the prophetical books, they frequently introduce God as the speaker, after the manner of the prophets, they contain lengthened representations of God as the Judge of all, as well as lengthy discourses spoken by Him in that character. (Cp Pss. 50, 75, 82). They draw largely on the history of Israel (Cp Ps 78) as a mirror for subsequent generations to peer into and meditate upon. There is greater reference to Joseph and the tribes that descended from him than is normal among the Psalms (Ps 77:15. 78:9, 67. 80:1-2. 81:5). There is constant reference to national calamity with the re-occuring appeal: How long?. Ps 74:9, 10. 79:5 80:4.

WAS ASAPH CONTEMPORARY WITH DAVID? He writes as though he witnessed the Temple destroyed Ps 74:6, and witnessed the invasion in the days of Jehoshaphat Ps. 83:5. Cp Ps 80:12. 79:4 and this has suggested to some that a later Asaph (a descendant of the great contemporary of David) composed some of the Psalms (E.B. Thirtle). But there is no Scriptural reference to such a descendant. With his great prophetical insight of events to come surely Asaph could have predicted these things using the past tense as in such prophetical statements as Luke 1:51-52. Rom. 4:17. Isa. 13:3. 21:2-9. Thus Ps 83. predicted the invasion that took place in reign of Jehoshaphat, and represents the prayer offered on that occasion 2 Chr 20:18 and it is significant that a descendant of Asaph was present to lead the congregation to Yahweh v. 14. There was also present a company of Kohathites to praise Yahweh for His goodness and the Kohathite psalm Ps. 43 may represent the answer to the prayer.

Asaph saw Israel reject its Messiah (David) which caused him to number the people and called down the wrath of Yahweh, he witnessed the introduction of idolatry into the nation, on the Mt Olives fronting the Temple and with prophetic insight saw in this the decay of Divine worship and the Divine anger smoke against the nation Ps. 74.

The first gives the basis of all true instruction: understanding. SĀKAL occurs in V.8: "I will instruct thee..." Cp. 44:1 "We have heard" 45:10: "Hearken O daughter, and incline thine ear"

Psalms 42 & 43.

These two Psalms are so very similar in expression that most commentators treat them as one. Yet the division into two Psalms has the support of the most ancient mss. The Septuagint ascribes Psalm 43 to David, whilst Psalm 42 is ascribed to the sons of Korah. Here, then, are two parties lamenting the state of exile brought about by the rebellion of Absalom, both longing for the time when they will be restored to the worship in Zion, and the Divine judgment will be manifested against a godless nation. They express the ardent desires of the multitudinous Christ and its head – the antitypical David.

SONS of KORAH

Cp Num. 16, 26:11 They were warders of Tabernacle, doorkeepers of Temple. 1 Chr. 9:17-19, 26:1 Neh. 11:19 Musicians 1 Chr. 6:31-33, 25:4. Singers 1 Chr. 25:1-4, 2 Chr. 20:19. Bakers for the Sanctuary preparing the shewbread 1 Chr. 9:31-33.

Their Psalms are noted for the frequent use of the title Elohim. The King, reigning in Zion, is styled Elohim. Ps 45:6

They survived the tragedy of Korah and were placed under the care of Phineas 1 Chron. 9:20 See further Note p 87.

V.8 ing. "In the midst of my bowels." To the Hebrew the bowels were considered as the seat of tender affections. The RV substitutes the following words for "bowels" – affections 2 Cor. 6:12; affection 2 Cor. 7:15; tender mercies Phil. 1:8; 2:1; a heart of compassion Col. 3:12. "heart" Phile 12, 20 "hearts" Phile 7 "compassion" 1 John 3:17 The word is rendered "tender" in AV & RV of Gen. 33:13.

A Meditation. A petition. 12-17. The first proclaims a blessing: 1. Upon the man who trusts Jahweh. 2. Upon the man who is not turned by blusterers and apostates. Thus the pos. & neg. sources blessing stressed. He admires Yahweh's mercy and goodness to His people 1. for their grandeur and multitude – "Many works" 2. For their supernatural power "wondrous works." 3. For the wisdom manifested in them "Thy thoughts to usward cannot be enumbered."

In Vs 9-11 he reveals his reaction. Outward religion is little worth if the heart is not with Yahweh. Yahweh had taken him for servant "Mine ears hast Thou opened." He had willingly responded: "Lo, I come." He had given ready cheerful obedience: "I delight to do." He had performed it heartily "I have put thy law in my heart" The service of eyes, hands, feet can be hypocritical: Yahweh alone knows heart. He became Yahweh's servant for benefit of others. Vs 9-10. Extending thus mercy to others, he pleaded help for himself V.11.

His example sets the measure for others. He had the aid of the Spirit: "THOU hast opened" He responded with willingness: "LO I come." There was action as well as confession "I delight to DO." And the means of accomplishment: "Thy law WITHIN my heart."

The Petition is divided into 3 sections His trials Vs 12. A request for Yahweh's assistance to confusion of enemies Vs 13-15. A prayer for the help of the righteous including himself Vs 16-17. Prophetically this fulfilled in Rev. 17.

PSALM 24. Introduction: Impregnable Zion had fallen. David was master of his future capital. But success had not come in his own strength. Zion was not only the city of David, but the city Yahweh had chosen 1 Kgs 8:1, 44. the place of His rest Ps. 132:8. the city of the Great King Mth. 5:35. As symbolic of this, the Throne of Yahweh in Israel, the Ark, was now brought into the city in a memorial day of greatest rejoicing and significance to David – to be eclipsed when the ARK of the future shall likewise take possession of the city. References to this the greatest day in David's life – 2 Sam. 6:12-23; 1 Chron. 15.

The Psalm was doubtless sung in parts. Vs 1-3 perhaps by section of singers V.3. by solo voice or voices Vs 4-6 by full chorus. To be repeated in Vs 7-8 again in Vs 9-10. Cp. V.1 with David's final prayer 1 Chr. 29:14-17.

CHIEF MUSICIAN. See Intop. 1137. NETSACH. The root verb of the noun rend. The Strength of Israel. 1 Sam. 15:29 "To glitter from afar, to be eminent (as a superintendent esp of the Temple services) also to be permanent" (St.). The word is rend. "excel" 1 Chron. 15:21 "oversee" 2 Chr. 2:18; 34:13; "set forward" 1 Chr. 23:4. Ezra 3:8-9. "Chief Musician" is MENATSEAH. He set the tune as a conductor determines the tempo & variation of music. He was pre-eminent setting the goal to which each of the choir should strive. He stood in relation to the singers where the Strength of Israel stood in relation to the nation. He was identified by Jewish Commentators with the Messiah. See Note Intop. p 1137.

ASSASSINATIONS

It is noticeable that only 1 King (Amon 2 Kg 21:23) and one queen (Athaliah) in Judah were killed by conspirators. Ahaziah, another King of Judah was slain by Jehu — but that was when he was visiting Israel.

In Israel, however, history reveals the following sad record:

Servants slew Ish-bosheth 2 Sam. 4. ● Baasha slew Nadab (1 Kg. 27:28) ? Zimri slew Elah 1 Kg. 16:8-10 ● Omri slew Tibni 16:21-22 ● Jehu slew Jehoram 2 Kg 9:14-26. ● Ahaziah 9:27-29. ? Jezebel 9:30-37 ● Servants slew Joash 12:19-21 ● Servants slew Amaziah 14:17-20. ● Shallum slew Zechariah 15:10 ? Menahem slew Shallum 15:14 ● Pekah slew Pekahiah 15:25. ● Hoshea slew Pekah 15:30 — 12 murders or assassinations in Israel.

NOTES ON PHILEMON

The sole survival of what was doubtless a voluminous private correspondence.

From Smith's Bible Dictionary

"The Epistle to Philemon ... has been admired deservedly as a model of delicacy and skill in the department of composition to which it belongs. The writer had peculiar difficulties to overcome. He was the common friend of the parties of variance. He must conciliate a man who supposed he had good reason to be offended. He must commend the offender, yet neither deny nor aggravate the imputed fault. He must assert the new ideas of Christian equality in the face of a system which hardly recognised the humanity of the enslaved. He could have placed the question on the ground of his own personal rights, and yet must waive them in order to secure an act of spontaneous kindness. His success must be a triumph of love, and nothing be demanded for the sake of the justice which could have claimed everything. He limits his request to a forgiveness of the alleged wrong, and a restoration of favour and the enjoyment of future sympathy and affection, and yet would so guard his words as to leave scope for all the generosity which benevolence might prompt towards one whose condition admitted of so much alleviation. These are contrarieties not easy to harmonise, but Paul, it is confessed, has shown a degree of self-denial and a tact in dealing with them, which in being equal to the occasion could hardly be greater."

Paul's skill as advocate for Onesimus – he combines courtesy, dignity, generosity, prudence, affection, friendship.

LESSONS

PHILEMON →
PAUL →
Onesimus →

Not enough to have RIGHT must exercise LOVE.
Not sufficient to have AUTHORITY must show TACT.
Must not presume on RELATIONSHIP in Christ must face OBLIGATIONS not take liberties.

In the little insignificant drama which drew these three lives together there is revealed a wonderful exhortation of our relationship towards each other – the need to exercise faith, love, tact, obedience.

The meeting between Philemon & Onesimus.

What a sensation when the slave voluntarily returned. In that age of great cruelty such an incident was a testimony to the power of the Truth to transform a life. What a sensation in Colosse, the runaway slave, the absconding thief – a Christian. Perhaps some would turn down their nose at the idea – until the Epistle to Colossians was also read. Col. 3:22 – 4:1. Col. 4:9

The Truth levels all class distinctions. It liberates the slave and enslaves the free. It breaks down the distinction between rich and poor by setting forth a new estimate of true riches. (Jas. 2:5. 3:17) It overleaps the barrier between Jew and Greek.

The Epistle reveals the Apostle in private life – so different from the harsh denunciations of Galatians, the measured reasonings of Hebrews, the stern rebukes of Corinthians. It shows the slave, the robber slinking to Rome, fearful of his fate, to hide himself in the milling crowds, drawn by a loving Providence to Paul. He returns free, triumphant, noble, set upon a path to life eternal. The great Apostle showed loving consideration for the humble fugitive slave – but he demanded that restitution should be paid.

See Clarke for Pliny's successful intercession for a slave complaining of harsh treatment.

PSALM 126.

Thanksgiving for Deliverance From Captivity

The long want of mercies greatly sweetens them when they are granted. When blessings are experienced thanksgiving should be offered & the blessings recalled. 1 Thess. 5:18

PSALM 127.

THE VANITY OF WORLDLY CARE & THE WISDOM OF DEPENDENCE ON YAHWEH

The need to seek His blessing & guidance in all endeavours. He would have us realise that our children are a trust from Him & therefore should be educated, disciplined & guided in accordance with His will.

THE MOABITE STONE

"I am Mesha, son of Chemosh, King of Moab... My father was King of Moab 30 years and I became King after my father; and I built this sanctuary to Chemosh in Qerihoh (i.e the capital, the Kir-Haraseth of 2 Kings 3:25.) a sanctuary of refuge for he saved me from all my oppressors and gave me dominion over all my enemies. Omri was King of Israel and oppressed Moab many days, for Chemosh was angry with his land. And his son succeeded him and he also said, I will oppress Moab. In my days he said this, but I got the upper hand of him and his house, and Israel perished for ever.

DECLINE OF ISRAEL

Privilege brings Responsibility - Amos 3:2. Prepare to meet thy God, O Israel - Amos 4:12
Israel hath cast off the thing that is good - his enemies shall pursue him - Hos 8:3.

From the death of Jeroboam II to the elevation of his son Zechariah there is an interregnum of 22 yrs during which nothing is recorded (See Note "Confusion in Israel and Judah" 2 Kings 15). Israel was reduced from a powerful Kingdom to one rent by internal division and weakened before its neighbours. The germs of decay were evident in Jeroboam's time and were faithfully outlined by the prophets, who give a terrible picture of prevailing conditions. Viewing life through the pure eyes of Yahweh they seemed everywhere to see false swearing, lying, killing, stealing, adultery - a stream of wickedness and violence that swelled into a mighty flood to submerge and destroy the nation under an orgy of sin Hos. 4:1-2. Yet externally the nation was great and prosperous. Holy days, offerings, sacrifices, sabbaths were formally observed, but were hated of Yahweh Hos. 2:11. It was intermixed with foreign worship with the licentious rites associated thereto, and that were practised in the groves and on the hilltops Hos. 4:13. 7:14. Amos 2:7. A vigorous loud-sounding, last protest issued from Yahweh through the "ministry of the prophets" Hos. 12:10 - all in vain. A loving God punished them with national calamities to warn them of the disastrous end to such an attitude - they experienced earthquake Amos 1:1 Zech. 14:4. failure of crops Hos. 2:9. 7:14 terrible visitations of locust and plague Joel 1. Amos 4:6, Drought and famine Amos 4:7-8 that they might consider their ways and return to Him Amos 4:9. And when they refused there became the images, the prophetic symbols or similitudes Hos. 12:10 depicting the impending national judgments - enemies like locusts, spiritual condition as drought, political earthquake etc. It was a period of decrepitude, when authority seems to have fallen into the hands of successful factions, for the general disquiet is indicated by the turbulent 6 months reign of Zechariah that ended in his murder.

The period was noted for widespread drunkenness Hos. 4:11, 7:5. Isa. 28:1, 7, 8. licentious idolatry Hos. 1:4-12 complete repudiation of truth Hos. 2:8. 4:6. dishonesty and violence Hos. 4:2. materialistic prosperity and luxurious living of the wealthy with complete indifference to the poor Amos 3:12, the flaunting of wealth luxuriating in their summer and winter houses, in palaces of ivory Amos 3:15. Haughty matrons urging their husbands to materialistic aims that they might debauch in drink Amos 2:1. Bribery, affliction Amos 5:12. oppression, indifference to others suffering Ob 6. General injustice: the poor were trampled on, judgments were bought with bribes, men were sold into slavery for trifling debts. Dishonesty, hypocrisy Hos. 8:5 intemperance rife Hos. 6:3-4. There was no message of hope Hos. 9:8-15.

And with all this a foolish vacillating foreign policy which spelt inevitable disaster Hos. 7:8-16. for Israel had a false sense of security Hos. 12:8. 13:6. They boasted in a power that God would bring to nought Amos 6:1-14 Hos. 4:7. 5:5. 9:1

The prophets warned of impending judgments. The house of Jehu was doomed Hos. 1:4-5. 2:10. A greater enemy than Syria, Philistia, Moab etc would overwhelm the land. Amos 1:3-5. 3:12. Hos. 10:15. 11:5. 9:17.

All this was a warning to Judah Hos. 11:12. 4:15.

ARCHAEOLOGY.

SARGON'S ATTACK ON ASHDOD. Isa. 20 — "Azuri, King of Ashdod, hardened his heart not to pay tribute, and sent to the Princes of his neighborhood demands to revolt from Assyria. Accordingly I wreaked vengeance, and changed his government over the inhabitants of his district. Achimite, his own brother, I appointed to be governor over them. The Hittites, who thought to revolt, despised his rule, raised Yaman, who had no claim, to the throne, and who, like the former, refused recognition of authority over them. In the rage of my heart, my whole army I gathered not, did not even collect my baggage; with my chief warriors, who did not retreat from the victorious track of my arms, I advanced to Ashdod. The above Yaman, as he of the approach of my expedition heard from far, fled to a district of Egypt, which is situated on the frontier of Milukha (Meroe or Ethiopia); not a trace of him was to be seen. Ashdod Gimt-Ashdudim, I besieged, I captured; his goods, his wife, his sons, his daughters, the treasures, possessions, valuables of his palace, together with the inhabitants of his land, I destined for capture. Those towns I restored again. The inhabitants of the countries which my hands had seized . . . In the East I settled there. I treated them like unto the Assyrians. They tendered obedience. . . . . The King of Milukha (Meroe or Ethiopia) cast Yaman into iron chains, and caused him to take his distant way to Assyria, and appear before me." Quoted by Botta.

NEW TESTAMENT GREEK. Recent archaeological discoveries in Palestine suggest that parts of the N.T., especially the Gospels are written neither in Classical Greek nor the Koinee (the "Bazaar" Greek spoken by the common people), but in translation-Greek, i.e the rendering in Greek literally of the Aramaic of Jesus' day. The Apostles and probably Jesus also in common with many Palestinian Jews were bilingual; they spoke Aramaic and Greek, but a Greek deeply permeated with Aramaic idioms and grammar. In Hebrews the perfect tense may be translated by the Aorist or the Perfect or the Pluperfect; this semitic characteristic may well apply to the Aramaic of Jesus' day.

Although this hypothesis is as yet unsupported by the discovery of contemporary manuscripts in Palestinean Aramaic, Bornhaeuser evidently considers that there is sufficient justification for his translation in the close relationship between Hebrew and Aramaic, evidenced in the available manuscripts of earlier and later centuries.
-Footnote to "The Death - Resurrection of Jesus Christ by Karl Bornhaeuser of Marburg University by the translater: A. Rumpus. For example of place so translated. Jhn. 12:1

Perhaps an example of this is found in the word "Hosanna" Jhn 12:13 which is a transliteration of the Hebrew whereas in the LXX at Ps 117:25. there occurs the translation: "Save we pray!"

PLANTS AND TREES.

ALOES. Latin = Aquilaria agallocha. -Eagle-wood.

It is styled "a tree of Yahweh's planting" (Num. 24:6) to describe its glory. Its Latin name signifies the Eaglewood - the symbol of the spirit Ezek. 1. In India it attains a height of 120ft. Herodotus and other writers speak of it producing a substance of the greatest value. Its wood yields a high polish and reveals a lovely grain. It was esteemed above all others and considered as worth its weight in gold. It was rich in oil. Agallochum is the heartwood of the tree - the inner centre portion providing the fragrant substance of highest value. As the heartwood of the Eaglewood Tree this fragrant substance can symbolise the fruits of the Spirit Gal. 5:22-23. -

EARLY AND LATTER RAIN. James 5:7. The early rain fell in October, November, December, and extended into January and February. These rains do not come suddenly but by degrees so that the former can sow his wheat or barley. The rains are mostly from the west or south-west (Luke 12:54), continuing two or 3 days at a time, falling mostly at night. When the wind shifts to the north or east, & fine weather ensues (Prov. 25:23). The latter rains which are much lighter, fall in March and April. Rain in harvest was regarded as a miracle (1 Sam. 12:16-18). "Vincent

THE BODY.

● The Tongue. Heb. LÂSHON - To lick. Gr. GLOSSA. Dictionary of N.T Theology links it with GLOCHIN, a pant. Speaking in Tongues is called Glossolalia - a word not found in N.T. In the poetic & prophetic books of the O.T., the tongue is in particular the organ of sinful man, and it is significant that it was the serpent's use of the tongue that led to sin originally. No member of the body works harder than the tongue but it generally boasts what other parts of the body will do! The tongue is described as the tool of folichood: evil, of arrogance & godlessness Job 15:5. Ps. 52:2; Prov. 6:17; Is. 3:8; Jer. 2:8.

Sins of the tongue are like a [illegible] Ps. 52:2, a sword, or arrows Ps. 57:4, a poisonous snake Ps. 140:3, causing disaster & destruction, undermining a man's relationship with God & his neighbour. It is because "death & life are in the power of the tongue" (Prov. 18:21; Mt. 12:36), that the admonitions to keep one's tongue from evil (Ps. 34:13) & with one's tongue to intercede for justice & truth (Ps. 35:28; 37:30; Prov. 15:4) and to praise Yahweh (Ps. 51:15; 126:2) are so urgent. The tongue, the organ of speech reveals man's inner self. Under the influence of sin in the flesh the outworking of sin is revealed in many ways through the tongue Rom. 1:29; 2:15; 3:13; 1 Pet. 3:10; 1 John 3:18, but even as the Lord was able to control the tongue through the influence of the Father Ps. 139:4. Jhn. 12:49 so the tongue by his influence can be used effectively for good in the preaching of the Word and in ministering to others. Rom. 10:10.

PRAYER.

Ps 65:4.

INCENSE — Exod. 30:34-38 - Fumigation, thus to purify. (Heb. Ket-o'reth from qâtar). (Gr. Thumiama from "Thuo" - To offer in sacrifice).

PRAY & PRAYER. — Hebrew terms. Lâ'chash = A whisper, an incantation, To mumble a spell. Isa. 26:16. Nâ' = An entreaty. Lûw' (Loo) a conditional particle = "I would that," hence "I pray thee." Châ'nan - To bend or stoop in mercy and kindness to an inferior. 'ânnâ' = A contraction of "HNA" and 'ah abâh - feminine of love. Thus beseeching in love. Châlâh - Kend. in RV "To intreat the favor of." Fund. "to be rubbed" thus to stroke, to seek aid in extremety. Siyach - To ponder or converse. Tephillâh = Intercession, Supplication by imp. a hymn.

Greek Terms: ① Dĕēsis (Deh'ay-sis) = A wanting, a need and thence a supplication, a petition from Deomai (Deh'-om-ahee) to beg (as binding oneself), to desire, beseech, a want, a need. ② Enteuxis (Ent'-yook-sis) = A meeting with God = an interview, intercession ③ Euchomai (yookhom-ahee) = a desire, a wish, thus expressing in pray the wish of the heart ④ Erotao (er-o-tah'-o) to speak, to interrogate. ⑤ Parakaleo (par-ak-al-e-o) = To call near, to invite, to make by implaration, consolation ⑥ Crotac - To ask, interrogate. ⑦ Aiteo = Asking. ⑧ Proseuche - Pros - towards ⑨ euche = prayer or vow - implies the activity of the one praying towards God. - supplicate, worship. ⑩ PROSEUCHOMAI. - A desire towards (pros). Young: A pouring forth before (God).

THE COMMUNION OF PRAYER - Linked with the Word. Num. 7:89. 1 Tim 4:5. Jhn 14:23. Jude 20-21.

AN ACT OF WORSHIP — Worship — the act of ascribing value to something we do value. (1). It acknowledges our utter dependence on Yahweh. (2). It expresses our recognition of His living personality. (3). It is an act of filial affection to One Who is in fact a Father and a Friend. Thus our minds should be actively alert, fully participating in the prayer offered Col. 4:2. Eph. 6:18. concentrating on the matter in hand to the exclusion of all else. In a complete awareness of His presence and the importance of the exercise.

AN ACT OF CONDESENSION on the part of Yahweh. Indicated by the exalted One whom we address. Jude 24,25. 1 Tim. 6:16. Psalm 147:4. Ps. 40:7. Isa 40:12,15,25,26. Ps 91:15.

OUR ADVOCATE Cp. Eph. 2:18 The Word = Our Chamber Advocate. Christ = our Court Advocate. The Word prepares our case Rom. 8:26 Jude 20. The Lord presents it. Heb. 7:25. Rev 8:3. Jhn 14:13-14. Heb. 9:24. 1 John 2:1. The Truth filters prayer. Jas 4:3 Gal 4:6 Phil prompts it within.

BOLDNESS & CONFIDENCE to freedom of access and of speech. Eph. 3:12. Heb. 4:16. 10:19-22. Nevertheless the mind should be prepared for prayer. We should approach it with the realisation that Yahweh LIVES Prov. 14:21, that we are in the presence of Christ and of God. We should stand with the consciousness that their eyes are upon us — that we are intimately conversing with living Realities Who are deeply interested in what we say. Contrast Job. 5:4 We need to really feel the prayers we utter. Thus they should be intelligent expressions of devotion and dependence Mark 13:33 Rom. 15:30 Col. 4:12. Prayer is defined as "stirring up oneself to take hold of Yahweh" Isa. 64:7. It suggests the pathos of a suppliant in deadly earnest — the arms, hands, every fingers reaching out to lay hold of God. It is the worshippers spiritual, personal appropriation of Yahweh. The first essential is to awake to our need of Yahweh. It is therefore a disciplinary act of grace. Christ ever recognised his need of prayer. He manifested utter dependence on the Father, crying Abba Father Mark 14:36. To him it was no pleasant, ritual pastime, or a monotonous religious exercise empty of heart, feeling or true significance, but: an agony of desire. Strong crying and tears accompanied his supplications Heb. 5:7. This indicates how far we fall short of the ideal in prayer. We do not fully appreciate our utter dependance and need of God. In our conceit, in the busy round of life, we fail to recognise our need of prayer and make time for it. Christ: who if is wiser, more mature, knew he could not succeed without daily communion. He made time to find God.

THE POWER OF PRAYER Cp Ps 32:6. Jer. 29:10-14. Out of 667 Bible prayers for specific things, there are noless than 454 revealed answers. Cp Josh. 23:14. 1 Kgs 8:23,24,56. Delay is not necessarily denial Jhn 11:6. Luke 18:4. Isa 30:18. 1 Pet. 1:7. Why prayer must be answered. God is TRUE — He cannot lie Num 23:19. God is LOVE — He cannot forget His promise Isa 49:15. God is POWER — He can accomplish His desires Gen 18:14. Christ Ps 22:22,26,41. God HEARS Ps. 17:6. Mat. 7:11.

THE ROMANCE OF BIBLE CHRONOLOGY

It has always been held to be unsafe to differ from Ptolemy, ...ad by which the last year of Darius, of List of Reigns, is the only ...lected with the first year of Alexander the Great, thus:

PERSIAN KINGS AS GIVEN IN PTOLEMY'S CANON.

...IAN KINGS	REIGNS	NABONNASSARIAN ERA	CONNUMERARY B.C. JULIAN.
US.	9 YEARS from.	210	538	538.
IBYSES	8 years from	219	529	529.
...US I. HYSTASPES.	36 years from.	227.	521.	521.
XES.	21 years from	263.	485	485
AXERXES I. LONGIMANUS.	41 years from.	284.	464	465.
...US. II. NOTHUS.	19 years from	325.	423	424
AXERXES II. MNEMON	46 years from	344	404	405.
TAXERXES III. OCHUS.	21 years from	390	358	359
ROGUS OR ARSES	2 years from	411	337	338
...ARIUS III. CODOMANNUS	4 years from.	413	335	336.
ALEXANDER THE GREAT.		417.	331	332.
	207

From this 207 years of the Medo-Persian Empire, we must deduct the first two years of the Co-Rexship of Cyrus with Darius the Mede. This leaves seven years to Cyrus as sole King, the first of which, B.C.536, is "the first year of Cyrus, King of Persia" (2 Chron.36:22), in which he made his proclamation giving the Jews liberty to return to Jerusalem. That leaves 205 years for the duration of the Persian Empire proper.

In Ptolemy's Table of the Persian Kings, all the Julian years from Xerxes to Alexander the Great inclusive are connumerary. Therefore each requires to be raised a unit higher to give the ...ulian years in which their reigns began. Ptolemy reckons by the ...ague Egyptian year of 365 days. The Julian year is exactly 365¼ ...ays. Had Ptolemy never written, profane Chronology must have re...mained to this day in a state of ambiguity and confusion, utterly ...unintelligible and useless, nor would it have been possible to ...ave ascertained from the writings of the Greeks or from any other ...ource, except from Scripture itself, the true connection between ...cred Chronology and profane, in any one single instance, before ... dissolution of the Persian Empire in the 1st year of Alexander ... Great. Ptolemy had no means of accurately determining the ...onology of this period, so he made the best use of the mater...s he had, and contrived to make a Chronology. He was a great ...onomer, a great astrologer, a great geographer, and a great ...structor of synthetic systems. But he did not possess sufric... data to enable him to fill the gaps, or to fix the dates of ... Chronology of this period, so he had to resort to the calcula... of eclipses. In this way then, not by historical evidence or ...imony, but by the method of astronomical calculation, and the ...ectural identification of recorded with calculated eclipses, ... Chronology of this period of the world's history has been ... by Ptolemy, since when, through Eusebius and Jerome, it has won its way to universal acceptance. It is contradicted (1) by the national traditions of Persia, (2) by the national traditions of the Jews, (3) by the testimony of Josephus, and (4) by the conflicting evidence of such well-authenticated events as the Conference of Solon with Croesus, and the flight of Themistocles to the court of Artaxerxes Longimanus, which make the accepted Chronology impossible. But the human mind cannot rest in a state of perpetual doubt. There was this one system elaborated by Ptolemy. There was no other except that given in the prophecies of Daniel. Hence, whilst the Ptolemaic astronomy was overthrown by Copernicus in the 16th Century, the reign of the Ptolemaic Chronology remains to this day. There is one, and only one alternative. The prophecy of Daniel 9:24-27. . . . ." pp. 19-20.

"There is great confusion between the use of the names Cyaxeres and Astyages. As Sir Isaac Newton says: 'Herodotus hath inverted the order of the Kings Astyages and Cyaxeres, making Cyaxeres to be the son and successor of Phraortes, and the father and predecessor of Astyages, whereas according to Xenophon on the order of succession of the Kings of Media is (1) Phraortes (2) Astyages, (3) Cyaxeres, (4) Darius the Mede, after which comes (5) Cyrus the Great, the founder of the Persian Empire.' The testimony of these various authorities is perplexing and confusing. They must all be called as witnesses, but in no case can they be looked upon as authorities to be accepted in preference to the text of the Old Testament" (p.22)

-- Martin Anstey M.A., B.D.

Ptolemy's Canon

The Chronology of this period has never yet been accurately determined. The received Chronology, though universally accepted is dependent on the list of the Kings, and the number of years assigned to them in Ptolemy's Canon. Ptolemy (A.D.70-161) was a great constructive genius. He was the author of the Ptolemaic System of Astronomy. He was one of the founders of the Science of Geography. But in Chronology he was only a late compiler and contriver, not an original witness, and not a contemporary historian, for he lived in the 2nd Century after Christ. He is the only authority for the Chronology of this period. He is not corroborated. He is contradicted, both by the Persian National Traditions preserved in Firdusi, by the Jewish National Traditions preserved in the "Sedar Olam," and by the writings of Josephus.

-The Romance of Bible Chronology

Jaddua

The high priests of the [illegible] Jonathon - Jaddua. According to Josephus, were Eliashib, Joiada, when Alexander took the city 330 B.C. the amended chronology of the ... would make the 20th year of Hystaspes (500 B.C) according to Daniel's chronology. To the "midst of the week 458½ B.C. Thus 490 years from decree. Less ½ week = 486½. Less A.D 28 when Christ crucified = 1158½.

Jerusalem taken 330 B.C. = period of 1283 years from time Nehemiah came to city to Jaddua. If he wrote the book, he could have done so 60 years later from his diary. Or, if written by another, this would present no problem. The record concerning Jaddua - Alexander II found only in Josephus, whose record of this period is confused. He refers to only 6 Kings in Persia against Ptolemy's 10, he gives them different names, ~~and~~ his account of the book Ezra - Nehemiah do not conform to Scripture. He records the death of Ezra before Nehemiah's appearance in Jerusalem, and he makes Sanballat a contemporary of Jaddua - Alexander the Great. Perhaps he was influenced by the "Seder Olam" Jewish traditions later incorporated in the Jewish Talmudic Tract "Seder Olam Rabbah (Large Chronicle of the World) which gives the duration of the Persian Empire as lasting only 52 years.

In discussing this question, the "Beacon Bible Commentary observes: "The mention of Jaddua ... has caused many scholars to date the Book of Nehemiah not earlier than 330 B.C. since it is known that there was a high priest by that name in the time of Alexander the Great, who died in 330 B.C. Such evidence is, of course, not conclusive, for names were frequently repeated, and therefore the Jaddua mentioned in Neh. 12:22 may well have been a grandfather of the high priest of that name in the time of Alexander."

Josephus says his father's name was John - but his history of this time is very confusing.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO JOHN.

...rimony of John Baptist, Nicodem...

JOHN'S PURPOSE IN WRITING — JOHN 20:30-31. He sets about
...for life... The last Gospel written and includes additional matter. The others are c... cerned mainly with the miracles and external evidence of the Lord's divine ...contains more about Christ — his person, design and work. He emphasises the Graced Yahweh revealed in His Son, the Word made flesh that came to give himself for the sin of the world.
ADDITIONAL MATTER. The public ministry of the Lord is largely into work performed in Judea and that con...fined to Galilee. The former is recorded almost exclusively in John, the latter almost exclusively in the other Gospels.

John thus records Christ's visit to Jerusalem (Ch.2:13) and his Judean labors afterwards which continued to Ch.4:1-3. During that time the Lord had residence in Judea. Ch.3:22. Of any residence in Judea out of Jerusalem apart from the above, the only other incident is that recorded in Ch.11:54.
VISITS TO JERUSALEM — John records five: two attending Passover Jhn 2:13. 12:1. once at Tabernacles Jhn 7:2.
10. once at Feast Dedication Jhn 10:22-23. one not directly specified, prob. Passover Jhn 5:1.

There visits to Jerusalem and Christ's work in Judea are passed over in silence (except for his final visit to Jerusalem) by the other Gospels. They concern themselves mainly with the work in Galilee which John leaves largely untouched.

CHRIST'S DRAMATIC ENTRANCE INTO THE TEMPLE JHN. 2:13. By his remarkable cleansing of the Temple, Christ assumed and exercised an authority which he never manifested again until the last Passover, whereby he may justly be considered to have stamped this first Passover with an importance secondary only to the last. He predicted, at this early period, his death and resurrection Ch. 2:19. with a degree of significancy which he does not employ in alluding to them again until the last year of his life, and the words that he uttered were remembered and used in evidence against him 3 years later. He wrought miracles now in the sight of all 2:23. though in Cana he declined to do so on the score that his hour had not then come. Ch.2:4. That hour evidently had now come, with the manifestation of power and the attracting to him of disciples. He held a discourse with Nicodemus on some of the most abstruse points of doctrine. When he left Jerusalem he began to attract disciples in such numbers as to eclipse the fame of John, and to divert the attention of the Pharisees from John to himself. Finally, when he returned into Galilee he declared himself more openly to the woman of Sychar than he ever did except to Pilate.

THE FORMAL COMMENCEMENT OF THE LORD'S MINISTRY. The open assumption of the character of Messiah in the manner outlined above indicates that as the formal commencement of the Lord's ministry in a public capacity began at his appearance at Passover as recorded Jhn 2:13.

CHRIST AND NICODEMUS.

It is obvious that the words of Christ provide the fundamentals of the Gospel. Without the new birth we cannot be saved.

"DEEDS WROUGHT IN GOD" Jhn. 3:21.

Christ's words to Nicodemus wonderfully condensed the Gospel whilst setting before him matters of most profound significance. He revealed the character of a true believer in the following terms. 1. He DOES Truth. He not only loves it, seeks it, desires it – but he follows it. 2. He is attracted to the Light. He does not attempt to deceive himself or others. He desires to know the true state of his heart in the sight of God. 3. The special object of his efforts is that his deeds may be "wrought in God." He allows the Word to move him so that God is revealed in him. He builds into his life the Divine characteristics manifested in the Son.

CHRIST IN THE TOMB. : The Gospel records declare (1) "After 3 days he will rise Mtt 27:63. Mark 8:31. (2) "The 3rd day he will rise again" Mtt. 16:21. 17:23. Lu 18:33 Mark 10:34 Luke 9:22. 18:33. Acts 10:40. 1 Cor. 15:4. (3) "Today is the 3rd day since" Luke 24:21. (4) "In 3 days I will raise it up.." Jhn. 2:19. (5) "Make (the tomb) secure against the 3rd day" Matt. 27:64 (6) "As Jonah was 3 days and 3 nights ... so the Son of Man" Matt. 12:40.

Passages 2 to 5 all relate to days of 24 hours. No. 6 relate to days and nights each of 12 hours. The Hebrews reckoned part of a day as a whole which would limit the duration of the first day and last night thus preserving harmony with examples 1 and 3. which are parallel sayings.

1 Cor. 15:4 provides the clue to the harmony of Nos 2, 4, 5, for the Apostle wrote: "Christ was buried, and that he rose again the third day." His "rising" was linked with his "burial." He rose "the third day" after his burial, although dating from his death it could be said "after 3 days he will rise again."

Christ died the 9th hour (about 3 pm.) Mtt. 27:46. on 14th Nisan (Abib) Luke 22:7. 1 Cor. 5:7. and was buried "when the even was come" Mtt. 27:57. The day following was a sabbath Luke 23:54. Not the normal sabbath, but "an high day" Jhn 19:31. – the sabbath associated with the feast Lev. 23:6, 26. As he rose the first day Luke 24:1. Mark. 16:9. "In the end of the sabbath" Mat 28:1.

If Crucified on a [illegible] all difficulties are reconciled. (1) The days being Thursday, Friday, Saturday. (2) The days being of 24 hours. Buried [illegible] evening he rose [illegible] (3) (4) (5) similar to 2. (6) Following Jewish practice of accounting part of a day as a whole, he was in the grave [illegible] days and nights rising

The death of Jesus was according to predictions of Scripture Luke 24:25-27. Mt. 5:17-18 (to fulfil Law) 1 Cor. 15:1-2. The Passover Lamb was penned up on 10th & slain on 14th Exod. 12:3-6 Deut. 16:6. 2 Chr 35:1. Jesus entered Jerusalem on 10th Abib John 12:1, 12. & Judas covenanted on 10th day as representative of Judah. Mat. 26:14-16. Mk 14:4-11. This was a sabbath, but Bethany was within the prescribed limits of a "sabbath's day journey" Acts 1:12. Cp Luke 24:50.

The first Passover was Killed on a Wednesday. EXOD. 16:1. Following day (Sunday) manna given V.S., Vv22-23. 45 days = beginning of [illegible] a Thursday. Exod. 12:2. 10th = Saturday. 14th = Wednesday. Crossed Red Sea probably Sat. evening.

The resurrection is the clue to the references above. It was important for Christ to die, & also to be buried that the flesh be hidden Rom 6:1-3

The most systematic presentation of the principles of salvation in the Bible revealing The utter helplessness of mankind, the endless mercy of God, the immutability of the Divine purpose with Israel and the need to give practical expression of belief in a new and self sacrificing life.

EPISTLE TO THE ROMANS.

THE AUTHOR The proclamation of the Truth in Christ received its greatest opposition from formalised Judaism. The declaration that Christ had risen from the dead offended the Sadducees; the suggestion that the law was abrogated antagonised the Pharisees (Acts 6:9-15); the result was bitter and ruthless persecution.

The young man Saul was outstanding in his determination and religious zeal (Phil.3:6) to stamp out the hated teaching. He was a strict Pharisee (Acts 26:5) fresh from the school of the noted rabbi Gamaliel (Acts 22:3-5) and in his blind zeal drew upon the authority and force of the State to persecute the Ecclesia (Acts 8:1-4). He was a Jew of Tarsus (Acts 22:3) a freeborn Roman citizen (vv27-28) and therefore one of considerable influence.

The great theophany on the road to Damascus blinded him physically but opened his eyes to the Truth in Christ Jesus Acts 9.

Now he was just as anxious to proclaim the Truth as previously he was to oppose it, He attempted to do so in Jerusalem, but was ordered by the Lord Jesus to stay away from that city as a sphere of his ministry, and to preach to the Gentiles Acts 22:17-21. This he endeavoured to do, carrying the Truth where others had not penetrated Rom. 15:20

Paul now found himself opposed by Judaising Christians. They resented the widespread preaching to Gentiles 1 Thes. 2:14-16. they fought that the Law was still the basis of justification Gal. 6:12 they desired that all converts should come to Christ through the channel of the Law Acts 15.

THE PROBLEM. The successful preaching to Gentiles aggravated the division of thought. It was considered at length at the Jerusalem conference Acts 15. and Paul was used as a medium for expressing the results of the deliberations to the Gentile believers. He found it necessary to vigorously oppose the Judaisers Phil. 1:2-3. Gal. 1 etc and in turn was vigorously opposed so that special precautions were recommended in his case to demonstrate that he was not fundamentally opposed to the Law. Acts 21: 17-31. 22:19-23. In view of the position of privilege that Israel as a nation stood in the purpose of Yahweh and the importance of the Law, there was a need to show that Gentiles as individuals were as acceptable to God as Jews and that the Law, important, good and true as it was had its limitations. This Paul does admirably and systematically in this Epistle. He shows that no man is justified by the Law for no man had performed it – therefore another medium of salvation was required. He revealed that Israel as a nation had likewise failed causing Gentiles to be brought in.

PAUL'S QUALIFICATIONS. "Many apparently opposite qualities went to make up the special fitness of Paul for his great life-work. He combined in his own unique experience a personal connection of the closest kind with the three principal social spheres of his age. He was called out of the very heart of Judaism. Jewish legalism he knew from end to end. He was called out of the very heart of Greek culture, for he lived his early life from infancy in one of the great centres of Hellenic life, and was familiarised with all that was great and noble in Greek literature. He had, moreover, enjoyed from birth all the storied privileges of Roman citizenship. He was thus a Hebrew to the backbone; he was a Greek in the fullest sense of the term (rather-by education - term); and he was a Roman citizen freeborn. But besides all this, he united in his rare personality an unusual vigor of intellect, strength of will, depth of feeling and sympathy. Intensity was the mark of his character, whether intellectually or morally. Yet the one thing which surpassed all else in preparing him for his apostleship has yet to be mentioned. His sudden and miraculous conversion and call by the direct interposition of Christ himself, beyond all else, fitted him to compare together Judaism and Christianity with perfect fairness, and enabled him to set the two systems side by side in vivid, startling contrast as well as empowered him to testify how Christianity, instead of being a violent antagonism and outrage upon pure Judaism was the legitimate outcome, development and completion of Old Testament truth.

HIS KNOWLEDGE. Paul clearly understood the system of Religion he taught, for he was instructed by revelation Gal. 1:11-12. Eph. 3:3. 1 Cor. 11:23 He could discern a Divine overshadowing of his life Gal. 1:15.

It was necessary to teach plainly the principle of justification by faith and grace, to set forth clearly that Gentiles had equal privileges with Jews. "There was only one man equal to this crisis, capable of grasping in all its breadth the situation. With his Pharisaic training, with his strict and delicate ~~training~~ conscience, and his intense faith in the religion of Israel, Paul realised even more than his opponents, the force and difficulty of these questions; and we can see that it cost him, both before and during the controversy, a protracted struggle and the most strenuous mental effort to arrive at the solution he has given us. We must not suppose that this rather superseded study on the part of teachers of Scripture, that the gifts of the Holy Spirit served as a substitute for serious labor. On the contrary, it was with severe toil and by the unsparing exertion of his spiritual and intellectual powers that Paul composed his great doctrinal epistles; and the Holy Spirit prompted, sustained, and crowned the travail of his human will and reason."

THE BACKGROUND Paul had not been to Rome Rom. 1:15 but had often wished to visit the city Rom. 1:13. 15:23 Now prepared to do so Rom. 15:24,28. It was written during 3 months stay in Achaia (Greece) after his ejection from Ephesus Acts 20:3. Written by Tertius Rom. 16:22 It was sent by Phoebe from Cenchrea (the port of Corinth) Rom. 16:1-2.

The Ecclesia was probably founded by Jews converted at Pentecost, but included Jews (Rom. 2:17-29. 4:1. 7:1) and Gentiles (Rom. 1:13. 9:13-32. 15:15,16) – two thirds of the names in Rom. 16 are Greek.

Though Paul had never been to Rome he knew many members personally as is shown by his greetings, and he probably received regular reports from his close friends Aquila and Priscilla Rom. 16:3.

WHY ROMANS IS PLACED FIRST. It was not written first. Galatians and Thessalonians and Corinthians came before it. There seems to be a Divine Providence in the placing of these books. (See note top p 277). Paul wrote 7 Ecclesial letters to 7 Ecclesias. These seem in three groups. The first four deal with CHRIST AND THE CROSS, the next three with CHRIST AND THE COMMUNITY, the last two with CHRIST AND THE COMING. Thus the three virtues: Faith, Love and Hope.

- FIRST SECTION: DOCTRINAL

WHERE IS RIGHTEOUSNESS FOUND? This is Paul's quest in the first portion of the Epistle. God's wrath is revealed against unrighteousness. Ch. 1:18. Where then is righteousness found? Not in idolatrous Gentilism. Rom. 1:21-32. Not in hypocritical Judaism Rom. 2:1-16. Not in formalised religion Rom. 2:17-22. Not in striving to keep the Law Rom. 3:20. But in recognising the reality of sin, our dire need and seeking the mercy of God.
Righteousness is first IMPUTED Rom 3:21-7:6 Then IMPARTED Rom. 8
Paul as a skilful advocate argues and proves that Gentiles believing and accepting Christ have just as solid a title to the blessings of God's covenant and Gospel as the Jews.

REGARDING SIN The racial plight is shown to be twofold. First, both Jew and Gentile have sinned Rom. 2:12. Second they are both in sin - an inward condition Rom. 3:9-10.
From Rom. 3:21 onwards Paul shows how God dealt with this double problem, first as to "sins" Rom. 3:21-5:11 then as to "sin" Rom 5:12-8:39. Bullinger comments: "No exposition is worthy of the slightest attention which does not mark this distinction between Vv 11-12."
"Sins" are dealt with first judicially then experimentally. First Rom 3:21-4:25 Christ is set forth as the Propitiation by which forgiveness can be obtained Rom. 3:21-31. - a principle of justification by faith taught in O.T. Rom. 4. Next he shows the effect experimentally - on the believer - peace with God, access by faith, love poured into the heart Rom. 5:1-11.
"Sin" is dealt with first judicially then experimentally. Judicially in Rom. 5:12-7:6. - the federal headship of Adam, the change of allegiance in baptism, the new "marriage" etc. Experimentally. - The actual impact of "sin" on one Rom. 7:7-24. the glorious deliverance first morally then physically Rom. 7:25 - Rom. 8.

- SECOND SECTION: NATIONAL

The acceptation of Gentiles does not annul God's purpose with Israel. But the principle of selection without personal merit Rom 9-11 permits God in his wisdom to bring others within the scope of His salvation without any unrighteousness on His part Rom. 9:14-15. And this is done without annulling His purpose with Israel, which will not change Rom. 11:29.

- Third Section: ECCLESIAL

The Ecclesia is an organism not an organisation joined together and with christ assuming responsibilities that cannot be evaded, without denying the very principle and purpose of the call.

ROME ITSELF It is significant that the book of the NT that outlines restoration of Israel more than any other was dictated to the Ecclesia in the very city that was to encompass the destruction of the Jewish State.
It is significant that in all the personal greetings not a mention is made of St Peter the so-called Bishop of Rome. See note top p 244
It is significant that not one distinguishing doctrine or practise of Rome is referred to - No Pope, exclusive churchship, dispensations, pardons, indulgences, canonisations, pilgrimages, confessions, purgatories, masses, holy water, christening, rosaries etc.

ATONEMENT

1. God is the instigator of Reconciliation.

• "First loved us" 1 Jhn 4:9-10. • "While we were sinners... enemies" Rom 5:8-10 • "Love of God towards man." Tit. 3:4-7. • "God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself" 2 Cor. 5:19. • "God the justifier of those who believe" Rom. 3:24-25. • "The grace of God" Tit. 2:11.

2. Redemption necessary because of state into which mankind has fallen.

If eternal death was the "debt" incurred & Jesus paid it, how was he resurrected?

• "Made subject to vanity" Rom. 8:20 • "By man came death" 1 Cor. 15:21. • "In Adam all die" 1 Cor. 15:22. • "By one man sin entered the world and death by sin" Rom 5:12 • "For we .... being burdened" 2 Cor. 5:4. • "The corruption in the world through lust" 2 Pet. 1:4. • "By one offence judgement came upon all... death reigned by one" Rom. 5:18, 17. • "Carried above all beasts... the ground... dust thou art" Gen 3. • "Very good" Gen. 1:31. • Imagination evil Gen 8:21. • "God made man upright but.." Ecc. 7:22. • "None good but God" Mth 10:16. • "In me...dwelleth no good thing" Rom. 7:18.

3. Man not only inherits the consequences of Adam's sin but sins on his own account.

• "All under sin" Rom 3:9. • "Every mouth stopped" Rom 3:19. • "Sin exceeding sinful" Rom. 7:13. • "By one man sin entered and death by sin .... for that all have sinned." Rom 5:12. God's sentence just for He foreknew all would sin.

4. Our imperfections traceable to the imperfection of flesh.

• "Sin dwelleth in me" Rom. 7:17. • "The thinking of the flesh is death... is enmity" Rom. 8:6-7. • "They in the flesh cannot please God" Rom. 8:8 • "For all that is in the flesh... is not of the Father" 1 Jhn. 2:16. • "If ye live after the flesh ye shall die" Rom. 8:13. • "The works of the flesh are.. Gal. 5:19 • "He that soweth to the flesh..." Gal. 6:8. • "The flesh profiteth nothing" Jhn 6:63. • "Shapen in iniquity" Ps. 51:5. • "How to perform that which is good I find not... Who shall deliver me?" Rom. 7:18, 24. • No flesh should glory" 1 Cor. 1:28.

5. The Law emphasised the hopelessness of man.

• To life "This do and thou shalt live" Luke 10:28. "The commandment ordained to life" Rom. 7:10. "If thou will enter life..." Mth 19:17.
• But righteousness not by law. Gal 2:21 "I found to be unto death" Rom. 7:10.
• Because "Weak in the flesh" Rom 8:3.
• Purpose: "Every mouth stopped" Rom. 3:19 "Flesh not glory" 1 Cor. 1:29, Rom. 3:27. "To show mercy" Rom. 11:32. "Boasting excluded" Eph. 2:9. "All under sin" Rom. 3:19. "Sin become exceeding sinful" Rom. 7:13. "A schoolmaster" Gal. 3:24.

The Law was designed to lead to Christ by emphasising the hopelessness and helplessness of man and the need of a Redeemer. To Keep it perfectly this fact would have to be acknowledged and the sacrifices offered in faith.

6. Why the blood of animals could not take away sin.

• Impossible Heb. 10:4. Christ by perfect obedience revealed the character of Yahweh 1 Tim. 3:16. He did this "learning obedience" Heb 5:8 by subordinating his will to that of the Father. His death exhibited that principle dramatising what must be done figuratively if we would please God Gal 5:24. 2:20. Rom. 6:1-2. Because of perfect obedience he was raised from dead. Acts 2:24. He exhibits what we must aim to do. Against the measure of his righteousness we fail and are caused to seek the forgiveness of God.
• The animal could not exhibit the righteousness of God Rom. 3:23-26. (a "blameless" Jew Phil. 3:6 might consider he has done everything exhibited in an unblemished animal).
• The dead animal provided no means of hope Rom. 4:25.

7. Reconciliation predicated upon what it severally called —

The blood Mth 26:28. Heb. 10:19. Eph. 2:13. 1 Pet. 1:2. 1 Jhn 1:7. Heb. 9:12-14. Rev. 1:5. 5:9. 7:14.
The Body. Heb 10:10. Col. 1:21-22. Eph. 2:16. 1 Pet. 2:24. 1 Cor. 10:16. 1 Cor. 11:29.
The death of Jesus. Heb. 2:9-14. 9:15. Rom. 5:10. 1 Cor. 11:26.

8. Did Christ benefit by his own death?

Life is the same in all - all have "one breath

• "Saved out of death" Heb. 5:7. • "This he did once" Heb. 7:27-28. • "Obtained eternal redemption" Heb. 9:12. • "The heavenly things themselves (purged) with better sacrifices" Heb. 9:23. Heb. 13:20. • "Crucified through weakness" 2 Cor. 13:4. • "Died unto sin once" Rom. 6:10. • "Laid down life that I may take it up again" Jhn 10:18 • "Christ came into the world to save sinners" 1 Tim. 1:15. Thus he was born to die on the cross and could not avoid it. • "This commandment have I received" Jhn 10:18.

9. Christ needed redemption from death stricken nature and his obedience "unto death" was a means to that end.
cp Gal. 3:13.

• "Through death destroy him that hath the power of death." Heb. 2:14. "He also himself likewise took part of the same" Heb 2:14. • "Laid on him the iniquity of us all" Isa. 53:6. • cp Math. 19:17 • Rom. 8:3. • 2 Cor. 5:21. • "Touched with the feeling of our infirmity" Heb 4:15. • "Mine iniquities" Ps. 40:12. Ps. 18:23. Ps 31:10. • "My sins" Ps. 69:5.

ATONEMENT Cont.

10 God manifest in the flesh accomplished the work. Christ is a revelation of the Father's will - He set forth God's right eousness.

• "I came down... not to do my will" Jhn. 6:38 • "The Father dwelleth in me. He doeth the works" Jhn. 14:10. • "I come in my father's name" Jhn 5:43 • "I can of my own self do nothing" Jhn 5:30. • "He that sent me is with me" Jhn 8:29 • "hath seen the father." Jhn 14:9. • "The father loveth you because you believe I came out from God" Ps. 80:17. 12. 111:3. Isa 46. Zech 3:9. 2 Cor. 4:6. Saints strengthened. Phil. 4:13. Isa 60:21. 1 Cor. 2:16. 2 Cor. 4:6-7.

• Because of Christ's righteousness he was raised from the grave Ach 2:24 that death was conquered by his death in obedience to God. Heb. 2:14 Cp Rom. 5:18.

11 God's mercy in forgiveness extended to those who acknowledge these principles in Christ.

• "All have sinned... being justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus." Rom 3:23-24. • "For God hath concluded all in unbelief that He might have mercy upon all" Rom. 11:32. "His mercy saves us" Tit. 3:5. "Grace of God bringeth salvation" Tit. 2:11 2 Cor 5:18-19.

12 Did Christ have to die?
- Touched with feeling our infirmities Heb 4:15
- Death had dominion over him Rom. 6:9-10.
- Saved out of death Heb. 5:7-8.
- Crucified through weakness 2 Cor. 13:4

Christ cannot be considered independent of his work. He came into the world to save sinners. 1 Tim. 1:15. thus he was born to die. To evade this would have been to sin. Thus he was "obedient unto death, even the death of the cross." Phil. 2:8 "This commandment received he of the Father" Jhn. 10:18. Such a death as this ensured his resurrection to life eternal. Heb. 13:20. He death was thus a means in the process of "saving himself" Zech. 9:9 and by this means, as the good shepherd, he conquered that which would destroy the flock (A dead shepherd - defeated in defending the flock would be useless).

It was just as necessary for the condemnation of Adam (mortality) to rest on him Rom. 5:19 to deliver mankind from it, as it was for the curse of the Law to rest on him Gal. 3:13. to deliver men from it.

What did his death accomplish? It set before men the way of salvation. They saw Him crucified as revealing the only way whereby Righteousness could be manifested. What they saw literally set forth, they had to attempt figuratively. They saw the serpent lifted up. Jhn. 3:14. What they had to attempt was Gal 5:24. 2:20. Rom. 6:2 & 7:9.

EPISTLE TO EPHESIANS

To whom written? Paul's first visit in the spring of 54 was very brief as he had to be in Jerusalem by a certain date to complete a vow Acts 18:19-21. But afterwards he spent 2 years there Acts 19:8-10. 20:31. and on his last journey called specially for the elders of the Ecclesia to meet him Acts 20:17. Yet in this Epistle there is not a single personal greeting, and this is so unlike Paul as to be inexplicable if the Epistle was written exclusively for Ephesians. Cf. 1 Tim 1:3-4.

Origen (250) and Basil (350) indicate that the words "at Ephesus" were not in their copies (C8). Basil asserts "that the early writers who he had consulted declared that the manuscripts of this Epistle in their time did not contain the name of Ephesus but left out altogether the name of the Church to which the Epistle was addressed" (Conybeare & Howson). Basil's assertion is confirmed by Jerome, Epiphanius, and Tertullian.

The oldest ancient manuscript (Sinaitic MS) in the Vatican library does not contain the words "in Ephesus."

Marcion (an early writer tinged with Gnosticism) claimed that his copy had appended "to the Laodiceans"

Paul wrote such a letter Col. 4:16 and this could well be it. It could have been a circular letter written for the Laodiceans but designed for other Ecclesias as well. Perhaps Tychicus had several copies with salutation blank to which could be appended the name of the particular Ecclesia - though designed primarily for Laodicea - and thus one left at Ephesus. Other Ecclesias adjacent Colosse & all of which had much in common, would benefit by the same instruction and exhortation.

It is attractive to think that this written to Laodicea for it would be appropriate to these times, and the opening theme - "the riches in Christ - a great contrast to the material wealth of that city Cp Rev. 3:17

Why not to Ephesians. the character of the Epistle does not accord with the circumstances of Paul's knowledge of the Ephesian Ecclesia. • Not only is there not a single personal greeting, but • he describes it as an Ecclesia whose conversion he only knew by repute Ch. 1:15 and • he as an Apostle only known by hearsay 3:2. • so as to need credentials to accredit him with them 3:2. • He refers to them as exclusively Gentiles 2:11. 4:17. (Cf. Acts 19:8) and • implies they were only recently converted Ch. 5:8. 1:13. 2:13. It seems incredible that he would not make reference to Timothy whom he sent to Ephesus - if Epistle designed for Ephesus.

Tychicus the bearer of three letters. He carried the personal letter to Philemon, he carried the Ecclesial letter with its individual problems to Colossians. 4:16. He carried one also for Laodiceans. This could have been the Epistle to Ephesians Eph. 6:21. unless the one to Laodicea is last which seems unlikely.

This, then, is an Epistle for every age and every Ecclesia - and pre-eminently the present age with its Laodicean tendencies.

● The successive emphases are not exclusive to the various Epistles (for instance Ephesians more of the "fulness" than Colossians but they do seem to provide the dominant note of each Epistle.

● The order the Epistles are set out in the N.T. is not the order in which they are written, so that Providence has overridden the presentation of them to provide the order above.

● DOCTRINE ROMANS ● REPROOF CORINTHIANS ● CORRECTION GALATIANS ● INSTRUCTION EPHESIANS, PHILIPPIANS COLOSSIANS
● MARGIN 1 THESSALONIANS ● THOROUGHLY FURNISHED (assurance of victory + defeat of heresy) 2 THESSALONIANS

Ephesians Philippians Colossians. Ephesians sets forth the principle that Christ is the Head 1:22. 4:15. 5:23. the Ecclesia is the Body 1:22. 4:16. and individual brethren are members thereof 5:30. the incipient fault at Philippi was disjointedness of the members Phil 1:27. 2:3, 14. 4:2. the incipient error of Colosse was "not holding the Head" 2:19. a default far more serious

Bullinger claims that 78 out of 95 verses in Colossians have a marked resemblance to verses in Ephesians. The differences, however, is that they speak in the former with more pointedness against the peculiar deviation of error. They are, as it were, tried under trial. The norm is set forth in Ephesians, the application of it is provided in Colossians and Philippians.

ABRAHAM AND ARCHAEOLOGY.

Eliezer his heir. Gen. 15:3

At Nuzu (south east of Nineveh, excavated between 1925-41) "childless couples frequently adopted a freeborn person or a slave to look after them when they grew old, bury them when they died + inherit their property." Abram refers to Eliezar as "heir, styles him ben Meshek — heir of my possession, i.e. my heir. Yahweh repeated Eliezar as heir. Abram would have a son of his own Gen 15:4.

In the Nuzu texts provision is made if the adopter should afterwards get a son of his own, the adopted son must yield him place of chief heir. - Archaeology + the O.T. - M.F. Unger.

Marriage with Hagar Gen 16:1-2

Nuzu marriage laws stipulate that if wife is barren she must furnish husband with a slave wife. However the law provided that in the event of a son being born, he must not be expelled. This explains Abram's reluctance to agree to Sarai's illegal and until a divine dispensation overridden the law.
